

GENESIS 11

jdc

Men in Genesis Eleven tried to build a way to heaven.
"Come together!" thus they called,
"Lest we be divided, all.
"Build a city! Build a tower!
"Thus to prove our union's power.
"Make ourselves a name, and then
"We'll dwell as one, without an end!"

God, who heard them, then came down,
observing all with holy frown.
"Let us now confuse their speech,
"Thus make communion out of reach.
Their unity will but avail
To lead them down the path to hell."

Pronto! Pronto!
Was bedeutet das?
Repeate, s'il vous plait!

You think this story's far astray,
And language came some other way?
The truth's too strange? too dull? too pat?
You should have tried to tell them that!
