

President Creates Space Commission

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first pilot to break the sound barrier, the first man to set foot on the moon and the first U.S. woman to walk in space will serve on a presidential commission to help open up space for American business.

President Reagan announced Friday the creation of a National Commission on Space to “devise an aggressive civilian space agenda to carry America into the 21st century.”

