- ¶1. In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth.
- 2. And the earth was formless and empty, and darkness was on the face of the deep. And the spirit of God hovered over the surface of the water.
- 3. And God said, "There will be light," and there was light.
- 4. And God saw that the light was good, and God separated the light from the darkness.
- 5. And God called the light "day", and he called the darkness "night". So, there was evening, and there was morning, the First Day.
- ¶6. And God said, "There will be an expanse in the midst of the water, so that it will divide the water from the water."
- 7. And God made the expanse, and it separated the water that was under the expanse from the water that was above the expanse. And so it was.
- 8. And God called the expanse "heaven". So, there was evening, and there was morning, the Second Day.
- ¶9. And God said, "The water under the heavens will be collected to one place, and dry land will appear." And so it was.
- 10. And God called the dry land "earth", and he called the gathered water "seas". And God saw that it was good.
- 11. And God said, "The earth will produce vegetation, the seed-bearing plant, and the fruit tree producing fruit according to its kind, whichever seed is in it on the earth." And so it was.
- 12. And the earth produced vegetation, the seed-bearing plant according to its kind, the tree producing fruit

- according to its kind, whichever seed is in it. And God saw that it was good.
- 13. So, there was evening, and there was morning, the Third Day.
- ¶14. And God said, "There will be lights in the expanse of heaven, to separate the day from the night. And they will be for signs, seasons, days, and years.
- 15. And they will be for lights in the expanse of heaven to shine on the earth." And so it was.
- 16. And God made two great lights, the greater light for the realm of day, and the lesser light and the stars for the realm of night.
- 17. And God placed them in the expanse of heaven to shine on the earth,
- 18. to rule during the day and during the night, and to set apart the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good.
- 19. So, there was evening, and there was morning, the Fourth Day.
- ¶20. And God said, "The water will teem with a multitude of living creatures, and flying creatures will fly over the land upon the face of the expanse of heaven."
- 21. And God created huge sea-creatures and the soul of every living thing that moves and swarms in the water according to their kind, and every winged flying creature according to their kind. And God saw that it was good.
- 22. And God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the water in the seas, and let flying creatures multiply on the earth."
- 23. So, there was evening, and there was morning, the Fifth Day.

¶24. And God said, "Let the earth bring forth the living soul according to its kind, livestock, and everything that creeps, and animals of the earth according to their kind." And so it was.

- 25. And God made the creatures of the earth according to their kind, and the livestock according to its kind, and everything that creeps on the ground according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.
- 26. And God said, "Let us make mankind in our image, after our likeness, and let them rule over the creature that swims in the sea, and the creature that flies in the sky, and the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every living thing that moves about on the land.
- 27. And God created man in His image; in the image of God, He created him. He created them male and female.
- 28. And God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth, and subdue it. And have dominion over the creature that swims in the sea, and the creature that flies in the sky, and every creature that creeps about on the land.
- 29. And God said, "Behold, I have given to you every seed-bearing plant that is on the face of the whole earth, and every tree that is in it. The fruit tree, bearing seed, will be for your food.
- 30. And to every creature on land, to every creature that flies in the sky, and to everything that creeps on the ground, in which is a living soul, I have given every green plant for food." And so it was.
- 31. And God saw all that He had made, and behold, it was very good. So, there was evening, and there was morning, the Sixth Day.

¶1. And heaven and earth were completed, and all their host.

- 2. And on the Seventh Day, God finished His work which He made. And He rested on the Seventh Day from all His work that He did.
- 3. And God blessed the Seventh Day and made it holy because in it, He rested from His work, which God did in creation.
- ¶4. These are the origins of heaven and earth when they were created, in the day the LORD God made earth and heaven.
- 5. And no plant of the field was yet on the earth, and no herbage of the field had yet sprouted, because the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no man to work the ground.
- 6. But a mist went up from the earth, and it watered all of the ground.
- 7. And the LORD God formed the man from dirt of the ground, and He breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul.
- 8. And the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, eastward, and He put the man there that he had formed.
- 9. And the LORD God caused to sprout from the ground every tree that was pleasant to the sight and good for food, and the tree of life was in the middle of the garden, as well as the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.
- 10. And a river went out from Eden to water the garden, and from there, it was divided and became four heads.
- 11. The name of the first was Pishon, which borders the land of Havilah, where there is gold,
- 12. and the gold of that land is good, and bdellium and the onyx stone are there.

13. And the name of the second river was Gihon, which borders all the land of Cush.

- 14. And the name of the third river was Hiddekel, going east of Assyria. And the fourth river was the Euphrates.
- 15. And the LORD God took the man and settled him in the garden of Eden, to tend and to look after it.
- 16. And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, "Eat from any of the trees of the garden.
- 17. However, from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, you must not eat from it, for on the day you eat from it, you will certainly die."
- 18. Then the LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to live by himself. I will make a helper fit for him."
- 19. And the LORD God formed from the ground all creatures that live in the field and all creatures that fly in the sky. Then He brought each to the man to see what he would call it, and whatever the man called the creature, that was its name.
- 20. So, the man gave names to all the beasts and creatures that fly in the sky, and to all the animals of the field, but as for the man, he found no helper fit for him.
- 21. And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to come over the man, and he slept. Then He took one of his ribs and He closed the flesh in its place.
- 22. And the LORD God made the rib that He had taken from the man into a woman. And He brought her to the man.
- 23. And the man said, "This one at last is bone from my bones and flesh from my flesh. This one will be called 'woman', because she was taken from man."
- 24. For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and cling to his wife, and they will become one flesh.
- 25. And the man and his wife were both naked, but they were not ashamed.

Chapter 3

1. Now the serpent was more cunning than all of the creatures of the field that the LORD God made. And he said to the woman, "Has God really told you not to eat from any of the trees of the garden?"

- 2. And the woman said to the serpent, "We may eat from the fruit of the trees of the garden,
- 3. but of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, God said, 'You must not eat from it nor touch it, lest you die."
- 4. And the serpent said to the woman, "It's not certain that you will die.
- 5. For God knows that in the day you eat from it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."
- 6. And the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one shrewd.¹ And she took some of its fruit, and she ate it, and she also gave some to her husband with her, and he ate.
- 7. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they realized that they were naked. So, they sewed together fig leaves and made coverings for themselves.
- 8. Then, they heard the voice of the LORD God as He walked about in the garden in the evening breeze. And the man and his wife hid themselves among the trees of the garden from the face of the LORD God.
- 9. And the LORD God called to the man and said to him, "Where are you?"
- 10. And the man said, "I heard your voice in the garden and I was afraid because I was naked; so, I hid myself.

11. And He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Did you eat from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?"

- 12. And the man said, "The wife that you gave me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate."
- 13. And the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?" And the woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."
- 14. And the LORD God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, you are more cursed than all the livestock and more than all the animals of the field. You will move about on your belly, and you will eat dust all the days of your life.
- 15. And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed. He will crush your head, and you will bruise his heel."
- ¶16. To the woman, He said, "I will greatly multiply your pain in child-bearing. With hard labor, you will bear sons. And your desire will be toward your husband, and he will rule over you."
- ¶17. To the man, He said, "Because you listened to the voice of your wife and ate from the tree from which I commanded you not to eat, the ground is cursed because of you. With hard labor, you will eat all the days of your life,
- 18. for it will produce thorns and thistles. And you will eat the vegetation of the field.
- 19. By the sweat of your face you will eat food until you return to the ground, for you were taken from it. Since you were dirt, you will return to dirt."

20. And the man called his wife, Havah,² because she was the mother of all living.

- 21. And the LORD God made tunics of skin for Adam and his wife, and he clothed them.
- ¶22. And the LORD God said, "Look, the man has become like one of us, to know good and evil. Now, lest he stretch out his hand to take and eat from the tree of life as well, and live forever . . ."
- 23. Then the LORD God sent him from the garden of Eden to work the ground out of which he was taken.
- 24. And He drove the man out, and He placed on the east side of the garden of Eden cherubim and a flaming sword which turned in every direction to guard the way to the tree of life.

Chapter 4

- ¶1. And Adam knew Havah his wife, and she conceived and bore Cain. And she said, "I have gotten a man with the help of the LORD."
- 2. And again, she gave birth to his brother Hevel. And Hevel became a shepherd of the flock, and Cain was a worker of the ground.
- 3. And it happened after some time, that Cain brought the fruit of the ground as an offering for the LORD.
- 4. And Hevel brought his also, the firstlings of his flock and their fat. And the LORD accepted Hevel and his gift.
- 5. But He did not accept Cain and his gift. And Cain became very angry, and his countenance fell.
- 6. And the LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry? And why is your countenance fallen?

7. If you do good, will you not be received? (But if you do not do good, sin is crouching at the door.) And his desire will be toward you, and you will rule over him."

- 8. And Cain spoke to Hevel his brother, and it came to pass when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against his brother Hevel and killed him.
- 9. And the LORD said to Cain, "Where is Hevel, your brother?" And he said, "I don't know. Am I my brother's keeper?"
- 10. And God said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood is crying out to me from the ground.
- 11. And now, you are cursed from the ground which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood at your hand,
- 12. so that when you work the ground, it will not produce abundantly for you. But you will be a wanderer and a fugitive in the earth."
- 13. And Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is greater than I can bear.
- 14. For you have driven me off the face of the land today, and I will be hidden from your face. And I will be a wanderer and a fugitive in the earth. And it will happen that anyone who finds me will kill me."
- 15. And the LORD said to him, "Well then, anyone who attacks Cain will suffer vengeance, seven-fold." And the LORD put a mark on Cain so that no one who found him would kill him.
- 16. So Cain went out from before the LORD and dwelt in the land of Nod³, east of Eden.
- 17. And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Hanok. And then he built a city, and he named the city after the name of his son, Hanok.

³ Meaning, "wandering"

18. And to Hanok was born Irad, and Irad fathered Mahujael, and Mahujael fathered Mathushael, and Mathushael fathered Lemek.

- 19. And Lemek took two wives for himself. The name of the first was Adah, and the name of the second was Zillah.
- 20. And Adah bore Javal, who became the father of those who dwell in tents and tend cattle.
- 21. And his brother's name was Juval. He was the father of all lyre and flute players.
- 22. And Zillah also bore Tuvalcain, the fashioner of all copper and iron implements. And Tuvalcain's sister was Naamah.
- 23. And Lemek said to his wives, Adah and Zillah, "Hear my voice, wives of Lemek. Give ear to what I say. I killed a man for wounding me and a young man for striking me.
- 24. If Cain suffered vengeance seven-fold, then Lemek, seventy-seven."
- 25. And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son, and she called his name Seth⁴, for God has given me another seed in place of Hevel, for Cain had killed him.
- 26. And to Seth a son was born also, and he called his name Enosh. Then men began⁵ to call on the name of the LORD.

Chapter 5

¶1. This is the genealogical record of Adam. In the day God created man, He made him in the likeness of God.

_

- 30. And after Lemek fathered Noah, he lived five hundred and ninety-five years. And he fathered sons and daughters.
- 31. And all of the days of Lemek were seven hundred and seventy-seven years, and he died.
- ¶32. And Noah was five hundred years old, and he fathered Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Chapter 6

- 1. It came to pass that men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them.
- 2. The sons of God saw that the daughters of man were beautiful to look at, and they took for themselves wives, whoever they chose.
- 3. And the LORD said, "My spirit will not contend with man forever, inasmuch as he is flesh. His days will be one hundred and twenty years."
- 4. There were giants on earth in those days, and also afterwards, when the sons of God went in to the daughters of man. And they bore them children, and they were mighty men, men of renown, from long ago.
- ¶5. And the LORD saw that man's wickedness multiplied on the earth, and every thought and intention of his heart was altogether evil every day.
- 6. And the LORD regretted that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved to His heart.
- 7. And the LORD said, "I will wipe man, whom I have created, from off the face of the land, even the beasts, the creeping things, and the flying creatures of the sky. For it sorrows me that I have made them."

⁷ Meaning, "rest, comfort"

- 8. But Noah found favor in the eyes of God.
- ¶9. These are the generations of Noah. Noah was a righteous man; he was blameless in his time. And Noah walked with God.
- 10. And Noah fathered three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
- 11. And the earth was corrupt before the face of God, and the earth was full of violence.
- 12. And God saw the earth, and behold, it was corrupt. For all flesh had corrupted its way on the earth.
- ¶13. And God said to Noah, "An end of all flesh has come before me because the earth is full of their violence. And behold, I will wipe them off the face of the earth.
- 14. Make for yourself an ark of gopher wood. Make compartments in the ark, and cover it with pitch inside and out.
- 15. And this is how you will make it: three hundred cubits will be the length of the ark, fifty cubits, its width, and thirty cubits, its height.
- 16. You shall make a window for the ark, and you shall finish it off, a cubit above, and you shall make the door of the ark on the side. You shall make lower, second, and third levels in it.
- 17. As for me, I am bringing a flood of waters upon the earth to destroy all flesh in which is the breath of life. Everything that is on earth will perish from under heaven.
- 18. But I will establish my covenant with you, and you shall enter into the ark, you and your sons, and your wife, and your sons' wives with you.

19. And from every living thing of all flesh, you shall take two of each into the ark to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female.

- 20. From the flying creature after its kind, and the beast of the field after its kind, and every creeping thing on the ground after its kind, two from each shall enter in to you, to stay alive.
- 21. And as for you, take for yourself every food that is eaten, and you shall store it for yourself. And it shall be food for you and for them."
- 22. And Noah made it. He did everything as God commanded him.

- 1. And the LORD said to Noah, "Go into the ark, you and all your household, because I have found you to be righteous in this generation.
- 2. From all the clean beasts of the field, take to you by sevens, the male and his mate, and from the beasts that are not clean, two, the male and his mate.
- 3. Also, from the flying creatures of the sky, take for you by sevens, male and female, to preserve seed on the face of all the earth,
- 4. For after seven days, I will cause it to rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights. And I will wipe out every living thing that I have made on the face of the earth."
- 5. So, Noah did according to all that the LORD commanded him.
- 6. Noah was six hundred years old when the flood came upon the earth.
- 7. So, Noah and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives, went with him into the ark before the waters of the flood.

8. Of the clean beasts of the field, and the beasts that are not clean, and the flying creatures, and every thing that creeps on the ground,

- 9. two by two, they came to Noah in the ark, male and female, as God commanded Noah.
- 10. And after seven days, the flood-waters came on the earth.
- 11. In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, in the seventeenth day of the month, on this day, all of the fountains of the great deep burst open and the windows of heaven were opened.
- 12. And the rain came on the earth for forty days and forty nights.
- 13. In this same day, Noah and Shem, Ham, and Japheth, Noah's sons entered the ark, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons went with them into the ark,
- 14. they and every creature after its kind, and every beast after its kind, and every thing that creeps about on the land after its kind, and every flying creature after its kind, every bird of every sort.
- 15. And they came to Noah, into the ark, two by two of all flesh in which was the breath of life.
- 16. And male and female of all flesh entered in. They came as God had commanded him, and the LORD closed him in.
- 17. And the flood was forty days on the earth, and the waters increased and lifted up the ark, and it rose high above the land.
- 18. And the waters prevailed, and they greatly increased on the earth. And the ark floated on the face of the waters.
- 19. And the waters prevailed exceedingly on the earth. All the high mountains under heaven were covered.
- 20. Fifteen cubits and upwards the waters prevailed and covered the mountains.

21. And all flesh that crept on the earth died: flying creatures, cattle, beasts, all swarming animals that swarm on the earth and all mankind.

- 22. And all died in whose nostrils was the breath of life, everything that was on dry ground.
- 23. And every living thing on the face of the ground was destroyed; from man, to cattle, to creeping thing, and to flying creature of the sky, they were wiped off the earth. Noah alone remained, and those with him in the ark.
- 24. And the waters prevailed on the earth one hundred and fifty days.

Chapter 8

- 1. And God remembered Noah and every living thing and all the cattle that were with him in the ark. And God made a wind pass over the earth, and the waters abated.
- 2. And the fountains of the deep and the windows of heaven were shut, and the rain from heaven was restrained.
- 3. And the waters returned from going over the earth, and in returning, the waters decreased for one hundred fifty days.
- 4. And the ark rested⁸ in the seventh month, in the seventeenth day of the month, on the mountains of Ararat.
- 5. And the waters continued to decrease until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.
- 6. And it came to pass after forty days that Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made.
- 7. And he sent the raven, and it went out, going out and returning until the waters dried up from the earth.

⁸ Same root as Noah.

8. And he sent the dove away from him to see if the waters had abated from the surface of the ground.

- 9. But the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, and she returned to him, to the ark, because the waters were upon the face of the whole earth. And Noah stretched out his hand, and took her, and brought her in to him in the ark.
- 10. And he waited for seven more days, and then again he sent the dove out of the ark.
- 11. And the dove came in to him in the evening, and behold, a freshly plucked olive tree leaf was in her mouth, and Noah knew that the waters had abated from the earth.
- 12. And he waited for seven more days, and then, again, he sent the dove, and it did not return to him any more.
- 13. It was in the six hundredth and first year, at the beginning of the first month, the waters were dried up from off the earth, and Noah removed the ark's covering and looked, and behold, the face of the ground was dry.
- 14. And in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the earth was dry.
- ¶15. And God spoke to Noah, saying,
- 16. "Leave the ark, you and your wife and your sons, and your sons' wives with you.
- 17. Every living thing that is with you of all flesh, the flying creatures, and the cattle, and every creeping thing that creeps on the ground, bring out with you." And they spread over the earth, and were fruitful, and multiplied on the earth.
- 18. And Noah went out, and his sons and his wife, and his sons' wives with him.

19. And every living thing, every creeping thing, every flying creature, everything that moves on the earth after their kind, they went out from the ark.

- 20. And Noah built an altar to the LORD, and he took of every clean animal and from every clean bird, and he offered whole burnt offerings on the altar.
- 21. And the LORD smelled the sweet aroma, and the LORD said in his heart, "For man's sake, I will not curse the ground again, for the thought of man's heart is continually evil from his youth. Nor will I smite all life again as I have done.
- 22. As long as the earth remains, seed-time and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night will not cease.

- 1. And God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth.
- 2. And fear of you and dread of you will come upon every animal of the earth, and on every flying creature of heaven, and on every creeping thing that creeps on the ground, and on all fish of the sea; they are delivered into your hand.
- 3. Every creeping thing that lives will be food for you, just like the plants. I have given you everything.
- 4. Only, do not eat flesh with its life-blood.
- 5. For your life-blood I will surely require; from the hand of all the living will I require it; from the hand of each man's brother will I require the life of the man.
- 6. Whoever sheds man's blood, by man will his blood be shed, for he made man in the image of God,
- 7. As for you, be fruitful and multiply, and cover the earth, and multiply on it."

¶8. God also spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying,

- 9. "And now, I am establishing my covenant with you and with your seed after you,
- 10. with every living soul that is with you: the flying creature, the beast of the field, and with every living thing of the earth that is with you, from all that go out of the ark to every living thing on earth.
- 11. And I am establishing my covenant with you. Never again will all flesh be cut off by floodwaters, and never again will there be a flood to wipe out the earth."
- 12. And God said, "This is the sign of the covenant which I am making between me and you and every living soul that is with you, for all generations.
- 13. I will set my bow in the cloud and it will be for a sign of the covenant between me and the earth,
- 14. so that when I cause a cloud to appear on the earth that the bow will appear in the cloud.
- 15. And I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living soul of all flesh. And the waters will never again become a flood to destroy all flesh.
- 16. And the bow shall be in the cloud and I will look at it to remember the lasting covenant between God and every living soul of all flesh that is on the earth."
- 17. And God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth."
- ¶18. And the sons of Noah went from the ark, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And Ham was the father of Canaan.
- 19. These three were the sons of Noah, and from these, all the earth was populated.
- 20. And Noah became a man of the land, and he planted a vineyard.

21. And he drank from the wine and became drunk, and was uncovered inside his tent.

- 22. And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw his father naked, and he told his two brothers outside.
- 23. And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and they put it on their two shoulders and walked behind it, and they covered the nakedness of their father. But their faces were behind the garment; so, they did not see their father's nakedness.
- 24. And Noah came out of his stupor, and he knew what his younger son had done to him.
- 25. And he said, "Cursed be Canaan! He will be a servant of servants to his brothers."
- 26. And he said, "Blessed be the LORD God of Shem, and Canaan will be a servant to him.
- 27. And God will expand Japheth, and he will dwell in the tents of Shem, and Canaan will be a servant to him."
- 28. And Noah lived three hundred and fifty years after the flood.
- 29. And all of the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years, and he died.

- ¶1. And these were the children of Noah's sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And sons were borne to them after the flood.
- 2. The sons of Japheth were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshek, and Tiras.
- 3. And the sons of Gomer were Ashcanaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.
- 4. And the sons of Javan were Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

5. The borders of the nations were divided among these. In their lands, each had their own language for their family in their nations.

- 6. And the sons of Ham were Cush, Mitzraim, Phut, and Canaan.
- 7. And the sons of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Ramah, and Sabtaca. And the sons of Ramah were Sheba and Dedan.
- 8. And Cush fathered Nimrod. He became a mighty man on the earth.
- 9. He was a mighty hunter before the LORD. For this reason, it is said, "Like Nimrod, the mighty hunter before the LORD."
- 10. The principal cities of his kingdom were Babel, Erek, Accad, and Calney, in the land of Shinar.
- 11. From that land, went Asshur, and he built Nineveh and the city of Rehoboth, and Calach,
- 12. And Resen, which is between Nineveh and Calach, which is the great city.
- 13. And Mitzraim fathered the Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim,
- 14. Pahtrusim, Casluchim (from there came the Philistim), and Caphtorim.
- ¶15. And Canaan fathered Zidon, his firstborn, and Heth,
- 16. and the Jebusites, the Amorites, the Girgashites,
- 17. the Hivites, the Arkites, the Sinites,
- 18. the Arvadites, the Zamarites, and the Hamathites. And afterwards the families of the Canaanites were scattered.
- 19. And the border of the Canaanites was from Zidon to Garar, and from Gazah to Sodom, Gamorah, Admah, and Zeboim as far as Lasha.

20. These were the sons of Ham according to their families, according to their languages, in their lands, in their nations.

- ¶21. And to Shem, father of all the sons of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, were borne children.
- 22. The sons of Shem were Elam, Asshur, Arpacshad, Lud, and Aram.
- 23. And the sons of Aram were Utz, Hul, Gether, and Mosh.
- 24. And Arpacshad fathered Shelah, and Shelah fathered Eber.
- 25. And to Eber were borne two sons. The name of the first was Peleg, because in his days the earth was divided; and the name of his brother was Joktan.
- 26. And Joktan fathered Almodad, Sheleph, Hatzarmaveth, Jarah,
- 27. Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,
- 28. Obal, Abimael, Sheba,
- 29. Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All of these were the sons of Joktan.
- 30. And their dwellings were from Mesha to Sephar, a mountain to the east.
- 31. These were the sons of Shem according to their families, according to their languages, in their lands, according to their nations.
- 32. These were the families of the sons of Noah according to their children, by their nations. And by these, the nations of the earth were divided after the flood.

- ¶1. And all the earth was one language and one speech.
- 2. And it came to pass when they journeyed from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and dwelt there.

3. And they said, each one to his neighbor, "Come, let us make bricks and fire them." And they had brick for stone and bitumen for mortar.

- 4. And they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower, and its top will reach into heaven, and we will make ourselves a name lest we be scattered over the face of the whole earth."
- 5. And the LORD went down to see the city and the tower that the sons of Adam built.
- 6. And the LORD said, "Behold, the people are one, and there is one language for them all. And this they have begun to do, and now, nothing they imagine will be restrained from them.
- 7. Come, let us go down and confuse their language, so that each one cannot understand the language of his neighbor."
- 8. And the LORD scattered them from there, over the face of the whole earth, and they ceased building the city.
- 9. Therefore, its name is called Babel, because it was there that the LORD confused the languages of the whole earth, and from there, the LORD scattered them over the face of the whole earth.
- ¶10. These are the generations of Shem. Shem was one hundred years old, and he fathered Arpacshad two years after the flood.
- 11. And after he fathered Arpacshad, Shem lived five hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters.
- ¶12. And Arpacshad lived thirty-five years and fathered Shalach.
- 13. And after he fathered Shalach, Arpacshad lived four hundred and three years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

- ¶14. And Shalach lived thirty years and fathered Eber.
- 15. And after he fathered Eber, Shalach lived four hundred and three years. And he fathered sons and daughters.
- ¶16. And Eber lived thirty-four years and fathered Peleg.
- 17. And after he fathered Peleg, Eber lived four hundred and thirty years. And he fathered sons and daughters.
- ¶18. And Peleg lived thirty years and fathered Reu.
- 19. And after he fathered Reu, Peleg lived two hundred and nine years. And he fathered sons and daughters.
- ¶20. And Reu lived thirty-two years and fathered Serug.
- 21. And after he fathered Serug, Reu lived two hundred and seven years. And he fathered sons and daughters.
- ¶22. And Serug lived thirty years and fathered Nahor.
- 23. And after he fathered Nahor, Serug lived two hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters.
- ¶24. And Nahor lived twenty-nine years and fathered Terah.
- 25. And after he fathered Terah, Nahor lived one hundred and nineteen years. And he fathered sons and daughters.
- ¶26. And Terah lived seventy years and fathered Abram, Nahor, and Haran.
- 27. And these were the generations of Terah. Terah fathered Abram, Nahor, and Haran, and Haran fathered Lot.
- 28. But Haran died before Terah his father in his homeland, in Ur of the Kasdim⁹.
- 29. And Abram and Nahor took wives for themselves. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah, daughter of Haran, who was the father of Milcah and the father of Jiscah.
- 30. And Sarai was barren; she had no child.

⁹ Also translated, "Chaldeans"

31. And Terah took Abram, his son, and Lot ben Haran, his son's son, and Sarai, his daughter-in-law, the wife of Abram, his son. And they went with them from Ur of the Kasdim to travel to the land of Canaan. And they came to Haran, and they dwelt there.

32. And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years, and Terah died in Haran.

- ¶1. And the LORD said to Abram, "You must go away from your land and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you.
- 2. And I will make you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, and you will be a blessing.
- 3. I will bless them who bless you, and him who curses you, I will curse. And by you, all the families of earth will be blessed."
- 4. And Abram went as the LORD had told him, and Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy-five years old when he left Haran.
- 5. And Abram took Sarai, his wife, and Lot, his brother's son, and all the possessions that they possessed, and the souls that they had acquired in Haran. And they went out to go to the land of Canaan, and they came into the land of Canaan.
- 6. And Abram passed through the land as far as the place called Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. And the Canaanites were then in the land.
- 7. And the LORD appeared to Abram, and said, "I will give this land to your seed." And he built there an altar to the LORD who appeared to him.
- 8. And he moved on from there to the mountain east of Bethel. And he pitched his tent with Bethel on the west

- and Hai on the east. And there he built an altar to the LORD, and he called on the name of the LORD.
- 9. And Abram pulled up stakes and set out, going toward the south.
- ¶10. And there was a famine in the land. And Abram went down to Egypt, to sojourn there since the famine was severe in the land.
- 11. And it came to pass as he drew near to Egypt, he said to Sarai, his wife, "Look now, I know that you are a beautiful woman to look at.
- 12. And it will be that when the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his wife.' And they will kill me, and keep you alive.
- 13. Please say that you are my sister so that it will go well for me on account of you. And my soul will live because of you."
- 14. And it came to pass when Abram entered into Egypt, the Egyptians saw the woman, that she was very beautiful.
- 15. And when the princes of Pharaoh saw her, they praised her to Pharaoh. And the woman was taken into the house of Pharaoh.
- 16. And he treated Abram well because of her. And he had sheep, cattle, donkeys, male slaves, female slaves, sheasses, and camels.
- 17. And the LORD plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, the wife of Abram.
- 18. And Pharaoh called for Abram, and said, "What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?
- 19. Why did you say, 'She is my sister', so that I took her unto me for a wife? And now, behold your wife! Take her and leave!"

20. And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him, and they sent him away, his wife and all that he had.

- 1. And Abram went up from Egypt into the Negev, he and his wife and all that he had, and Lot was with him.
- 2. And Abram was very rich in cattle, silver, and gold.
- 3. And he went on his journeys from the Negev to Bethel, to the place where he pitched his tent in the beginning, between Bethel and Hai,
- 4. to the place of the altar that he made in the beginning. And there, Abram called on the name of the LORD.
- 5. And Lot, who went with Abram, possessed flocks and cattle and tents.
- 6. And the land could not support them dwelling together because their substance was great. And they were not able to dwell together.
- 7. And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's cattle and the herdsmen of Lot's cattle. And the Canaanites and the Perizzites dwelt then in the land.
- 8. So Abram said to Lot, "Please, let there be no strife between me and you, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, because we are brothers.
- 9. Is not all the land before you? Please separate yourself from me: if to the left, then I will take the right, and if to the right, then I will take the left."
- 10. And Lot lifted up his eyes and saw all the area around the Jordan, that all of it was well-watered (before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah). It was like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt as you go toward Zoar.
- 11. And Lot chose for himself the whole valley around Jordan, and Lot journeyed to the east. And they separated, each from his brother.

12. Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelt in the cities of the area and pitched his tent as far as Sodom.

- 13. But the men of Sodom were evil and were very sinful before the LORD.
- 14. And the LORD said to Abram after he was separated from Lot, "Now, lift up your eyes and look from where you are toward the north, south, east, and west.
- 15. I will give all the land that you see to you and to your seed forever.
- 16. And I will make your seed as the dust of the earth, so that if one is able to count the dust of the earth, then your seed will also be counted.
- 17. Rise up, walk about in the land, its length and breadth, because I will give it to you."
- 18. And Abram pitched his tent and went and dwelt at Oaks of Mamre, which is in Hebron. And there he built an altar to the LORD.

- ¶1. It was in the days of Amraphel, king of Shinar, Arioch, king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer, king of Elam, and Tidal, king of Goim,
- 2. that they made battle with Bera, king of Sodom, and with Birsha, king of Gomorrah, Shinab, king of Admah, Shemeber, king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, (which is Zoar).
- 3. These all came together to the valley of Siddim, which is the Salt Sea.
- 4. And they served Chedorlaomer twelve years, and in the thirteenth year, they rebelled.
- 5. And in the fourteenth year, Chedorlaomer and the kings that were with him, came and struck the giants in Ashteroth-Karnaim, and the Zuzim in Ham, and the Emim in Shaveh-Kiriathaim,

6. And the Horites in their mountain of Seir, to El-Paran, which is by the wilderness.

- 7. And they turned back and came to En-Mishpat, which is Kadesh, and they struck all the country of the Amalekites, as well as the Amorites who lived in Hazazan-Tamar.
- 8. And the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Belah (which is Zoar) went out and set the battle in order with them in the valley of Siddim,
- 9. against Chedorlaomer, king of Elam, and with Tidal, king of Goim, and with Amraphel, king of Shinar, and Arioch, king of Ellasar four kings against five.
- 10. And the valley of Siddim was full of pits of bitumen, and the king of Sodom and of Gomorrah fell there, and those who were left escaped to the mountain.
- 11. And they seized all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their food, and they left.
- 12. And when they left, they took Lot, Abram's brother's son who lived in Sodom, and his goods.
- 13. But a man who escaped came and brought a report to Abram, the Hebrew. He had settled at Oaks of Mamre the Amorite, the brother of Eshcol and Aner. These were confederates of Abram.
- 14. And Abram heard that his kinsman had been carried away, and he armed his trained men who were born in his house, three hundred eighteen, and pursued them up to Dan.
- 15. And when he had divided them, he and his servants attacked them at night and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is north of Damascus.
- 16. And he brought back all the goods, and he also brought back his kinsman, Lot, and his goods, and the women and the people as well.

17. And the king of Sodom went out to speak to him after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer and the kings with him, to the valley of Shaveh, which is the King's Valley.

- 18. And Melchizedek, king of Salem, brought out bread and wine. He was a priest of the Most High God.
- 19. And he blessed him, and said, "Blessed be Abram of the Most High God, possessor of heaven and earth.
- 20. And blessed be the Most High God who has delivered your enemies into your hand." And he gave him a tenth of everything.
- 21. And the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the people and you take the goods."
- 22. And Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have lifted my hand to the LORD, the Most High God, possessor of heaven and earth, and said,
- 23. 'Let me be damned if I take anything of yours, from a thread to the thong of a sandal,' lest you should say, 'I made Abram rich' -
- 24. with the exception of what the young men have eaten, and a portion for the men who went with me. Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre, they will take their portion."

- ¶1. After these things, the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Abram, do not fear. I will be your shield and your very great reward."
- 2. And Abram said, "My LORD, Jehovah, what will you give to me, seeing I walk childless and the heir of my house is this Eliezer of Damascas?"
- 3. And Abram said, "Behold, you have not given me offspring. And behold, the son born in my house is my heir."

4. And behold, the word of the LORD came to him saying, "No, this one will not be your heir but the one who comes from your bowels will be your heir."

- 5. And he brought him outside and said, "Look now toward the heavens, and number the stars if you are able to count them." And He said to him, "That is how your seed will be."
- 6. And he trusted in the LORD, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness.
- 7. And He said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you out from Ur of the Chaldees to give to you this land to inherit it."
- 8. And he said, "My LORD, Jehovah, how do I know that I will inherit it?"
- 9. And He said to him, "Bring me a three-year old heifer, and a three-year old she-goat, and a three-year old ram, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon."
- 10. And he brought all these to him, and he cut them in halves and put each half opposite the other. But he did not divide the birds.
- 11. And birds of prey came down on the carcasses, but Abram drove them away.
- 12. And as the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell on Abram. Behold, a terror of great darkness fell on him.
- 13. And He said to Abram, "Know this! Your seed will live in a land that is not theirs, as a sojourner. And they will serve them, and they will oppress them for four hundred years.
- 14. And I will also judge the nation that they serve, and after that they will go out with great substance.
- 15. And as for you, you will go to your fathers in peace. You will be buried at a good old age.
- 16. And in the fourth generation, they will return here because the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full."

17. And the sun had gone down, and it was dark. And behold, a smoking fire-pot and a fiery torch that passed between the pieces.

- 18. On that day, the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, "I give this land to your seed, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates river,
- 19. and the Kenite, the Kenizzite, the Kadmanite,
- 20. the Hittite, the Perizzite, the giants,
- 21. the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Gergushite, and the Jebusite."

- ¶1. Now Sarai, Abram's wife, bore him no children. But she had an Egyptian maidservant named Hagar.
- 2. And Sarai said to Abram, "Look now, the LORD has kept me from bearing children. Go in, now, to my maidservant. Perhaps I will get a child from her." And Abram listened to Sarai's voice.
- 3. And Sarai, the wife of Abram, took Hagar the Egyptian, her maidservant, after Abram had dwelt in the land of Canaan for ten years, and she gave her to her husband Abram as a wife for him.
- 4. So he went in to Hagar, and she conceived. And Hagar saw that she conceived, and she despised her mistress.
- 5. And Sarai said to Abram, "My wrong is upon you. I put my maidservant into your bosom, and when she saw that she conceived, I am despised in her eyes. Let the LORD judge between me and you!"
- 6. And Abram said to Sarai, "Behold, your maidservant is in your hand. Do with her whatever is good in your eyes." And Sarai dealt harshly with her, and she fled from her face.
- 7. And an angel of the LORD found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, by the spring on the way to Shur.

8. And he said, "Hagar, Sarai's maidservant! Where did you come from, and where are you going?" And she said, "I am running away from Sarai, my mistress."

- 9. And the angel of the LORD said to her, "Go back to your mistress and humble yourself under her hand."
- 10. And the angel of the LORD also said to her, "I will surely multiply your seed, and it will become an innumerable multitude."
- 11. And the angel of the LORD also told her, "Behold, you are pregnant, and you will bear a son. And you will call his name Ishmael¹⁰ because the LORD has taken notice of your affliction.
- 12. He will be a wild ass of a man. His hand will be against everyone, and the hand of everyone will be against him. And he will dwell in the midst of all of his brothers."
- 13. And she called Jehovah's name, who spoke to her, "You are 'El
 - roi," 11 for she said, "Am I still here, seeing, after He has seen me?"
- 14. Therefore, the well was called Beer-lahai-roi¹². Behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.
- 15. And Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram called his son's name that Hagar bore to him, Ishmael.
- 16. When Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram, Abram was eighty-six years old.

Chapter 17

¶1. And it came to pass when Abram was ninety-nine years old that God appeared to Abram and said to him, "I am El-Shadai.¹³Walk before me, and be perfect.

¹⁰ Meaning, "noticed by God"

¹¹ Meaning, "God saw me"

¹² Meaning, "the well of the Living One who sees me"

2. I will establish my covenant between me and you, and I will multiply you very greatly."

- 3. Then Abram fell on his face. And God spoke to him, saying,
- 4. "Behold, I will establish my covenant with you, and you will be a father of a multitude of nations.
- 5. And your name will no longer be called Abram¹⁴, but your name will be Abraham¹⁵ because I will make you a father of many nations.
- 6. And I will make you very fruitful, and I will make nations of you, and kings will come from you.
- 7. And I do establish my covenant between me and you, and with your seed after you in their generations, as a perpetual covenant to be your God and your children's God after you.
- 8. And I will give to you and to your seed after you the land in which you are a stranger, all the land of Canaan for a perpetual possession, and I will be their God."
- 9. Moreover, God said to Abraham, "You shall keep my covenant, you and your children after you in their generations.
- 10. This is my covenant which you shall keep between me and you, and your children after you: All the males are to be circumcised.
- 11. You are to be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin, and it will be for a sign of the covenant between me and you.
- 12. Every eight-day-old male born in a household among you shall be circumcised throughout your generations or one that is bought with silver from any foreigner who is not your descendant.

¹³ Meaning, "Almighty God"

¹⁴ Meaning, "exalted father"

¹⁵ Meaning, "father of a multitude"

13. The child born in your house or one bought with your money must be circumcised. My covenant will be in your flesh for a perpetual covenant.

- 14. And if the flesh of the foreskin of the male is not circumcised, then that soul shall be cut off from his people. He has broken my covenant."
- ¶15. God also said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her by the name 'Sarai', ¹⁶ for 'Sarah' will be her name.
- 16. I will bless her, and I will also give you a son by her. Yea, I will bless her, and she will become a mother of nations, and rulers of peoples will come from her."
- 17. And Abraham fell on his face, and he laughed. And he said to
 - himself in his heart, "Will a son be born to a hundredyear-old? And will Sarah, ninety years old, give birth?"
- 18. And Abraham said to God, "Oh that Ishmael may live in your sight."
- 19. And God said, "Truly, Sarah your wife will bear you a son. And you will call his name Isaac,¹⁸ and I will establish my covenant with him as a perpetual covenant for his children after him.
- 20. And as for Ishmael, I have heard you. I will bless him, and I will make him fruitful, and multiply him very greatly. He will father twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation.
- 21. But I will establish my covenant with Isaac whom Sarah will bear to you at this time next year."

¹⁶ Meaning obscure, perhaps, "barren"

22. And He finished talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

- 23. Then Abraham took Ishmael his son and all those born in his house, and all those bought with his money, every male of the men of Abraham's house. And he circumcised the flesh of their foreskin that very day, as God had said to him.
- 24. Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.
- 25. And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.
- 26. In the same day, Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised.
- 27. And all the men of his house, both those born in his house and those bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

- ¶1. And the LORD appeared to him at Oaks of Mamre as he was sitting at the tent door in the heat of the day.
- 2. And he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, there stood three men before him. And he saw them and ran from the tent door to meet them. Then he bowed down to the ground,
- 3. and said, "My lords, please, if I have found favor in your eyes, I beg you, do not pass by your servant.
- 4. Please, take a little water, and wash your feet and rest under the tree.
- 5. And I will fetch a morsel of bread to strengthen your heart. And afterward, you may pass on. For this is why you have come to your servant." And they said, "Do as you have said."

6. And Abraham hurried to the tent to Sarah and said, "Quick! Knead three measures of finely ground flour and make cakes."

- 7. And Abraham ran to the cattle, and he took a tender and good calf and gave it to a young man, and he hurried to dress it.
- 8. And he took butter, and milk, and the calf, which he had prepared, and he set it out before them. And he stood by them under the tree, and they ate.
- 9. And they said to him, "Where is Sarah your wife?" And he said, "Behold, in the tent."
- 10. And one said, "When I return to you according to the time of life, behold, Sarah your wife will have a son." And Sarah was listening at the tent door which was behind him.
- 11. And Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in years.

 And it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.
- 12. And Sarah laughed within herself, saying, "After I'm wasted away, shall I have pleasure, and my lord is old?"
- 13. And Jehovah said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, saying, 'Will I really bear a child when I'm old?'
- 14. Is anything too difficult for the LORD? I will return to you at the appointed time, and Sarah will have a son according to the time of life."
- 15. Then Sarah denied it and said, "I didn't laugh" (for she was afraid). Then He said, "No, you laughed."
- 16. And the men rose up from there and looked down toward Sodom. And Abraham walked with them to send them away.
- 17. And Jehovah said, "Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do?

18. Abraham will surely become a great and mighty people, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed in him.

- 19. For I know him; therefore he will command his children and his household after him. And they will keep the way of Jehovah, to do righteousness and justice so that Jehovah will bring on Abraham what He spoke concerning him."
- 20. And Jehovah said, "The cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and their sins are very grievous.
- 21. I will now go down and see whether they have done altogether as the cry that has come to me. And if not, I will find out."
- 22. And the men turned from there and walked toward Sodom. And Abraham again stood before the LORD.
- 23. And Abraham drew near and said, "Will you really destroy the righteous with the guilty?
- 24. What if there are fifty righteous within the city? Will you really do away with and not spare the place for the sake of the fifty righteous in its midst?
- 25. Be it far from you to do like this, to put the righteous to death along with the wicked, so that it is the same for the righteous as with the wicked. Be it far from you, O Judge of all the earth, not to do justly."
- 26. Then Jehovah said, "If I find within Sodom fifty righteous people in the midst of the city, then I will spare the whole place for their sake."
- 27. And Abraham answered and said, "Behold now, I have undertaken to speak to my Lord, I who am dust and ashes.
- 28. What if five are lacking of the fifty righteous? Will you wipe out the whole city for a lack of five?" And He said, "I will not wipe it out for the sake of the forty-five."

29. And he continued still to speak to Him, "What if forty are found there?" He said, "I will not do it for the sake of the forty."

- 30. And he said, "Please do not let my Lord be angry, and I will speak. What if thirty are found there?" And He said, "I will not do it if I find thirty there."
- 31. Then he said, "Behold, please, I have undertaken to speak to my Lord. What if twenty are found there?" And He said, "I will not wipe it out for the sake of the twenty."
- 32. And he said, "Please, do not let my Lord be angry, and I will speak only one more time. What if ten are found there?" And He said, "I will not wipe it out for the sake of the ten."
- 33. And the LORD left when He had finished speaking to Abraham. And Abraham returned to his place.

- 1. And the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. And Lot saw them, and rose up to meet them, and bowed his face to the ground.
- 2. And he said, "Behold now, my Lords, please turn in to the house of your servant. Spend the night, wash your feet, and then rise up early and go on your way." But they said, "No. We will stay overnight in the street."
- 3. But he pressed them greatly, and so, they turned aside to him and came into his house. And he made a feast for them, and he baked unleavened bread, and they ate.
- 4. Before they went to sleep, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, from the young to the old, all the people from the ends of the city surrounded the house.

5. And they called to Lot and said to him, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we can know them!"

- 6. But Lot went out to them at the entrance, and he closed the door after him.
- 7. And he said, "My brothers, please do not do such evil.
- 8. Look, please, I have two daughters who have not known man. Please, let me bring them out to you, and do to them what is good in your eyes. Only do nothing to these men, because they have come under the shadow of my roof."
- 9. But they said, "Stand back!" Then they said, "This man came as a sojourner, and he's always judging! Now we will do more evil to you than to them!" Then they pressed in on the man, on Lot, greatly, and they were drawing near to smash the door.
- 10. Then the men stretched out their hands and pulled Lot back to them into the house, and they shut the door.
- 11. And they struck the men who were at the door of the house with sudden blindness, from the least to the greatest, and they grew weary trying to find the door.
- 12. Then the men said to Lot, "Who do you still have here? Take out of this place all those that you have in the city, sons-in-law, and your sons, and your daughters.
- 13. For we are about to destroy this place because their cry has become great before the LORD, and the LORD has sent us to destroy it."
- 14. And Lot went out and spoke with his sons-in-law, who had married his daughters. And he said, "Get up and get out of this place, for the LORD is about to destroy the city!" But to his sons-in-law, he seemed like one who was joking.

15. As dawn broke, the angels hurried Lot, saying, "Rise up, take your wife and your two daughters who are left, lest you be swept away with the transgression of this city!"

- 16. Still, he lingered. So the men seized his hand, the hand of his wife, and the hands of his two daughters in the LORD's mercy on him and they brought him out and released him outside of the city.
- 17. And it came to pass that as they brought them out, one said, "Flee for your life! Do not look behind you or stop anywhere in the plain. Flee to the mountain, lest you be swept away!"
- 18. But Lot said to them, "No, my Lord! Please!
- 19. Behold now, your servant has found favor in your eyes, and you have magnified your kindness that you did to me by saving my life, but I cannot flee to the mountain lest some evil overtake me and I die.
- 20. Behold, I beg you, this town is near to flee to, and it is a little one. Let me now flee there (is it not a little one?), and my soul will live."
- 21. And he said to him, "Behold, I have accepted you concerning this thing also. I will not destroy the town for which you have spoken.
- 22. Hurry! Flee there because I cannot do anything until you arrive there." (For this reason the name of the town was called Zoar.)¹⁹
- 23. The sun had risen over the land when Lot entered Zoar.
- 24. Then the LORD rained sulfur and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah from the LORD out of heaven.
- 25. And He destroyed those cities, and all the plain, and all those who dwelled in the cities and all that grew out of the ground.

¹⁹ Meaning, "little"

26. But his wife looked behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

- 27. And Abraham rose up early in the morning to the place where he had stood in the presence of the LORD.
- 28. And he looked out toward Sodom and Gomorrah and toward all the land of the plain, and he saw, and behold, the smoke of the land went up like the smoke of a furnace.
- 29. And it happened that when God destroyed the cities of the plain that God remembered Abraham, and He sent Lot out from the midst of the destruction when He destroyed the cities that Lot dwelt in.
- 30. And Lot and his two daughters with him went up from Zoar and dwelt in the mountain because he was afraid to live in Zoar. So he lived in a cave, he and his two daughters.
- 31. And the older said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man in the land to come in to us according to the manner of the whole earth.
- 32. Come, let us make our father drink wine, and let us lie with him and preserve seed from our father."
- 33. And so, they made their father drink wine that night, and the older went in and lay with her father. But he did not know when she lay down or when she rose up.
- 34. And it came to pass on the next day the older said to the younger, "I lay last night with my father. Let us make him drink wine again tonight, and then you go and lie with him, and we will preserve seed from our father."
- 35. And so, they made their father drink wine that night also, and the younger rose up and lay with him. And he did not know when she lay down or when she rose up.
- 36. So the two daughters of Lot conceived by their father.

37. And the elder bore a son, and she called his name Moab,²⁰ and he is the father of Moab to this day.

38. And the younger also bore a son and she called his name Ben-ami,²¹ and he is the father of the sons of Ammon to this day.

- ¶1. And Abraham journeyed from there toward the Negev, and he dwelt between Kadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar.
- 2. And Abraham said of Sarah, his wife, "She is my sister." And Abimelech, king of Gerar, sent for and took Sarah.
- 3. And God came to Abimelech by night in a dream, and He said to him, "Behold, you are about to die because the woman whom you have taken has a husband."
- 4. Now Abimelech had not come near her, and he said, "My Lord, will you destroy a righteous nation also?
- 5. Didn't he say to me, 'She is my sister'? Even she herself said, 'He is my brother.' I did this in the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands."
- 6. And God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart, so I, even I, withheld you from sinning against me; that is why I did not allow you to touch her.
- 7. Now then, return the man's wife because he is a prophet, and he will pray for you so that you will live. But if you do not return her, know that you will certainly die, you and all that are yours."
- 8. And Abimelech rose up early in the morning, and he summoned all his servants, and he spoke all these words in their ears. And the men were very afraid.

²⁰ Meaning, "from my father"

²¹ Meaning, "son of my father"

9. And Abimelech called to Abraham, and he said to him, "What have you done to us? And how have I sinned against you that you have brought upon me and all my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds that should not have been done to me."

- 10. Abimelech also said to Abraham, "What did you see that you did this thing?"
- 11. And Abraham said, "Because I thought, 'Surely there is no fear of God in this place, and they will kill me on account of my wife.'
- 12. But actually, she is my sister, my father's daughter, but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife.
- 13. And when God caused me to wander from my father's house, I said to her, 'This is your kindness that you will do for me: In every place that we come to, say of me, "He is my brother.""
- 14. So Abimelech took sheep and cattle, and male and female slaves, and he gave them to Abraham, and he returned Sarah, his wife, to him.
- 15. And Abimelech said, "Behold, my land is before you. Dwell wherever it is good in your eyes."
- 16. And to Sarah, he said, "Behold, I have given a thousand pieces of silver to your brother. Behold, he is a covering of the eyes to you and to all who are with you." And with all this, she was reproved.
- 17. Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his concubines so that they bore children,
- 18. for the LORD had completely closed up every womb of the house of Abimelech, on account of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

¶1. And the LORD visited Sarah, just as He said, and the Lord did for Sarah as He had spoken.

- 2. For Sarah conceived and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, in the appointed time which God had told him.
- 3. And Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him, whom Sarah had born to him, Isaac.
- 4. And Abraham circumcised Isaac, his son, when he was eight days old, just as God commanded him.
- 5. Abraham was one-hundred years old when Isaac, his son, was born to him.
- 6. And Sarah said, "God has made me laugh, and everyone who hears will laugh with me."
- 7. Then she said, "Who would have declared to Abraham that Sarah would give suck to children? For I have borne a son for his old age.
- 8. And the boy grew and was weaned. And Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned.
- 9. But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she bore for Abraham, mocking.
- 10. So, she said to Abraham, "Cast out this slave-girl and her son, for the son of this slave-girl will not receive an inheritance with my son Isaac."
- 11. But the thing was very grievous in the eyes of Abraham on account of his son.
- 12. But God said to Abraham, "Let it not be grievous in your eyes on account of the youth and your slave-girl. Everything that Sarah said to you, listen to her voice because your seed will be called through Isaac.
- 13. I will also make the son of the slave-girl into a nation, for he is your seed."
- 14. So Abraham rose early in the morning and took bread and a skin of water, and gave them to Hagar, putting them on her shoulder, and the boy, and he sent her

- away. And she left and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba.
- 15. When the water from the skin was gone, she threw the boy under one of the bushes.
- 16. Then she went and sat opposite at a distance of a bowshot, for she said, "Let me not see the boy's death." And she sat opposite and raised her voice and wept.
- 17. But God heard the voice of the youth, and an angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, "What is wrong, Hagar? Do not be afraid, for God has heard the voice of the youth that is over there.
- 18. Get up; lift up the youth, and hold him tight with your hand; I will make a great nation of him."
- 19. Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water.

 And she went and filled the skin with water and gave drink to the youth.
- 20. And God was with the youth, and he grew, and he dwelled in the wilderness, and he became a skilled archer.
- 21. And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.
- ¶22. And it came to pass at that time that Abimelech and Phicol, chief of his army, spoke to Abraham saying, "God is with you in all that you do.
- 23. So now, swear to me here, by God, that you will not deal falsely with me, my offspring, or my posterity. According to the kindness that I have shown you, show to me and to the land in which you sojourn."
- 24. And Abraham said, "I will swear."
- 25. But Abraham reproved Abimelech about a well of water that Abimelech's servants had seized.

26. But Abimelech said, "I do not know who did this thing, nor also did you tell me. I have not even heard of it until today."

- 27. Then Abraham took sheep and cattle and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them cut a covenant.
- 28. And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.
- 29. And Abimelech said to Abraham, "What are these seven ewe lambs that you have set by themselves?"
- 30. And he said, "So that you will take seven lambs from my hand in order that it be a witness for me, that I dug this well."
- 31. For this reason that place is called Beersheba,²² because the two of them took an oath there.
- 32. And they cut a covenant at Beersheba, and Abimelech and Phicol, chief of his army, rose up and returned to the land of the Philistines.
- 33. And he planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there he called on the name of the LORD, the eternal God.
- 34. And Abraham sojourned in the land of the Philistines many days.

Chapter 22

- ¶1. And it came to pass after these things that God, testing Abraham, said to him, "Abraham." And he said, "Here I am."
- 2. And He said, "Take now your son, your only one, whom you love, Isaac, and go to the land of Moriah, and there offer him up for a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I will point out to you.
- 3. And Abraham rose early in the morning and he laded his donkey and took with him two of his young men and

- Isaac, his son. And he split the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up and went to the place which God had mentioned to him.
- 4. On the third day, Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place from a distance.
- 5. And Abraham told his young men, "You stay here with the donkey, and I and the young man will go over there so that we may worship, and then we will come back to you."
- 6. And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son, and he took the fire and the knife in his hand, and the two of them went on together.
- 7. And Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, "My father." And he said, "Here I am, my son." And he said, "There is the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?"
- 8. And Abraham said, "God will provide for himself a lamb for the burnt offering, my son. And the two of them went on together.
- 9. And they came to the place which God had mentioned to him, and Abraham built the altar there. Then he arranged the wood, and then he bound Isaac his son and placed him on the altar on top of the wood.
- 10. And Abraham stretched out his hand, and took the knife to slaughter his son.
- 11. But an angel of the LORD called out to him from heaven and said, "Abraham! Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am."
- 12. And he said, "Do not stretch forth your hand against the young man, and do not do anything to him because now I know that you are a God-fearer, for you have not withheld your only son from me."

13. And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and he looked, and there, behind him, a ram was caught in a thicket by his horns. And Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up as a burnt offering in the place of his son.

- 14. And Abraham called that place, "Jehovah-jireh",²³ for which reason it is said to this day, "In the mountain of Jehovah, it will be provided."
- 15. Then the angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time from heaven,
- 16. and he said, "By myself, I swear', says Jehovah, because you have done this thing, and you have not withheld your only son,
- 17. I will surely bless you, and I will surely multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and as the sand which is on the seashore, and your seed will possess the gate of his enemies.
- 18. And in your seed, all nations of the earth will be blessed because you have obeyed my voice."
- 19. And Abraham returned to his young men, and they got up and went together to Beersheba. And Abraham dwelt at Beersheba.
- ¶20. And it came to pass after these things that it was reported to Abraham, "Behold, Milcah also bore sons to Nahor your brother:
- 21. Uz, his firstborn, and Buz, his brother, and Kimuel, the father of Aram,
- 22. And Kesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel."
- 23. And Bethuel fathered Rebekah. Milcah bore these eight to Nahor, brother of Abraham.

²³ Meaning, "Jehovah will provide"

24. And his concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebach, and Gaham, and Thahash, and Maacah.

- ¶1. And Sarah's life was one hundred and twenty-seven years; so were the years of Sarah's life.
- 2. And Sarah died in Kirjath-Arbah, which is Hebron, in the land of Canaan. And Abraham went in to mourn for Sarah and lamented for her.
- 3. And Abraham rose up from before his dead, and said to the sons of Heth,
- 4. "I am a foreigner and a sojourner with you. Give me a burial place for a possession among you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight."
- 5. And the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him,
- 6. "Hear us, my lord. You are a prince of God in our midst. In the best of our burial places, bury your dead. No man among us will withhold his burial place from you to prevent you from burying your dead."
- 7. And Abraham rose up and bowed himself to the people of the land, to the sons of Heth.
- 8. Then he said to them, "If you are willing to allow me to bury my dead out of my sight, then hear me and entreat Ephron for me, son of Zohar,
- 9. that he give to me the cave of Macpelah that is his, which is at the end of his field. For the full price, let him give it to me among you as a burying place."
- 10. Now Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth, and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the sons of Heth, before everyone who went in at the gate of his city,
- 11. "No, my lord, hear me. I give you the field and the cave that is in it. I give it to you. Before the sons of my people, I give it to you to bury your dead."

12. And Abraham bowed himself before the people of the land.

- 13. But he said to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, "I will bury my dead only if you hear me. I give money for the field. Take it from me, and I will bury my dead there."
- 14. And Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him,
- 15. "My lord, hear me. The land is worth four hundred shekels of silver. What is that between me and you? Bury your dead."
- 16. And Abraham listened to Ephron, and Abraham weighed for Ephron the silver that he had spoken of in the hearing of the sons of Heth: four hundred shekels of silver, which passes with the merchants.
- 17. And the field of Ephron that was at Macpelah before Mamre, the field and the cave that was in it, and all the trees that are in the field, and all the area around it, he secured them
- 18. to Abraham for a possession in the presence of the sons of Heth and all who went in at the gate of his city.
- 19. So after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Macpelah before Mamre, which is Hebron, in the land of Canaan.
- 20. And he secured the field and the cave that was in it to Abraham for a burying place from the sons of Heth.

- ¶1. And Abraham was old, advanced in years, and the LORD blessed Abraham in everything.
- 2. Abraham said to his servant, the eldest of his household, who was in charge of all that he had, "Put now your hand under my thigh.
- 3. And I will make you swear by the LORD, God of heaven and God of earth, that you will not take a wife

- for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites among whom I dwell.
- 4. But rather, you will go to my country and to my relatives, and you will take a wife for my son Isaac."
- 5. Then the servant said to him, "Perhaps the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land. Must I take your son back to the land that you came out of?"
- 6. But Abraham said to him, "Take heed to yourself that you do not take my son back there!
- 7. The LORD God of heaven who took me from my father's house, from the land of my kinsmen, and spoke to me, and swore to me, saying, 'I will give this land to your seed,' He will send His angel before you, and you will take a wife for my son from there.
- 8. But if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you are free from this, my oath. Only, you shall not take my son back there."
- 9. So, the servant put his hand under his master Abraham's thigh, and he swore to him concerning this matter.
- 10. Then the servant took ten of his master's camels, and he left, and every good thing of his master was in his hand. And he rose up and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor.
- 11. And he made the camels kneel down outside the city at a well of water in the evening, the time that women go out to draw water.
- 12. And he said, "LORD, God of my master Abraham, please let her be present before me today, and show kindness to my master Abraham.
- 13. Behold, I am standing by this well of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.
- 14. The young woman to whom I say, 'Please, let down your vessel and let me drink,' and she says, 'Drink, and

- I will water your camels also,' let it be her that you have chosen for your servant Isaac, and by this, I will know that you have shown kindness to my master."
- 15. And it happened that before he finished speaking, behold, Rebekah, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, wife of Nahor, brother of Abraham, came out with her vessel on her shoulder.
- 16. And the girl was very beautiful, a virgin, for no man had known her. And she went down to the well, and filled her vessel, and came up.
- 17. Then the servant ran to meet her and said, "Please, let me drink a little water from your vessel!"
- 18. And she said, "Drink, my lord." And she hurriedly set down her vessel that was in her hand, and gave him to drink.
- 19. When she finished giving him drink, she said, "I will draw water for your camels, also, until they finish drinking."
- 20. And she hurried, and emptied her container into the trough. Then she ran again to the well to draw water, and she drew water for all of his camels.
- 21. Watching her, the man kept silent, wondering whether or not the LORD had made his journey prosperous.
- 22. And it came to pass that when the camels finished drinking, the man took a gold ring, a half-shekel in weight, and two bracelets of gold ten shekels in weight for her wrists,
- and he said, "Whose daughter are you? Tell me, please, is there a place in your father's house for us to stay overnight?"
- 24. And she said to him, "I am the daughter of Bethuel, son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor."
- 25. Then she said to him, "We have a lot of straw and fodder, and also a place to stay overnight."

- 26. And the man bowed down and worshipped the LORD.
- 27. And he said, "Bless the LORD, God of my master Abraham, who did not take his mercy and faithfulness from my master. I was in the way, and the LORD guided me to the house of my master's kinsmen."
- 28. And the girl ran and told her mother's household these things.
- 29. And Rebekah had a brother, whose name was Laban, and Laban ran out to the man at the well.
- 30. And it came to pass that when he saw the ring and the bracelets on the hands of his sister, and heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, "Thus the man said to me," then he went out to the man, and there he was, standing with the camels at the well.
- 31. And he said, "Come, O blessed of the LORD! Why do you stand outside when I have prepared the house and a place for the camels?"
- 32. And the man went to the house, unburdened his camels, and gave straw and fodder to the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.
- 33. Then food was set before him, but he said, "I will not eat until I say what I have to say." And he said, "Speak."
- 34. And he said, "I am Abraham's servant.
- 35. The LORD has greatly blessed my master, and he has become great. And He has given him sheep, cattle, silver, gold, menservants, maidservants, camels, and donkeys.
- 36. Now, Sarah, the wife of my master, bore a son for my master after she was old. And he has given him all that he has.
- 37. And my master made me swear, saying, 'You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites in whose land I dwell,

38. but you shall go to the house of my father and to my family, and you shall take a wife for my son.'

- 39. And I said to my master, 'What if the woman will not follow me?'
- 40. And he said to me, 'The LORD before whom I walk, will send His angel with you and make your journey successful, and you will take a wife for my son from my kinsmen and from my father's house.
- 41. Then, you will be released from my oath when you come to my kinsmen. And if they do not give her to you, you will be released from my oath.'
- 42. And I came today to the well, and I said, 'O LORD, God of my master Abraham, if you will, I pray, make the way which I am about to go successful.
- 43. And behold, I stand at the well of water, and when the virgin comes out to draw water, and I say to her, "Please, let me drink a little water from your pitcher,"
- 44. and she says to me, "Drink! And I will water your camels, too." Let her be the woman whom the LORD has chosen for my master's son.'
- 45. Before I had finished speaking within my heart, behold, Rebekah came out with her pitcher on her shoulder. And she went down to the well and drew water. And I said to her, 'Please, let me drink.'
- 46. And she hurried, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, 'Drink! And I will water your camels, too.' And I drank, and she watered the camels also.
- 47. And I asked her and said, 'Whose daughter are you?'
 And she said, 'The daughter of Bethuel ben Nahor, whom Milcah bore to him.' And I put a ring in her nose, and the bracelets on her wrists.
- 48. And I bowed and worshipped the LORD, and I blessed the LORD, God of my master Abraham, who had guided

- me in the right way to take a daughter of my master's brother for his son.
- 49. And now, if you will demonstrate kindness and faithfulness to my master, tell me. And if not, tell me, so that I will turn to the right or to the left."
- 50. Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, "The word has come from the LORD. We cannot speak 'bad' or 'good' to you.
- 51. Behold, Rebekah is before you. Take her and go, and let her be the wife of your master's son, just as the LORD has spoken."
- 52. And when Abraham's slave heard their words, he bowed himself to the earth before the LORD.
- 53. And then, the slave brought out vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah. And he gave precious things to her brother and to her mother.
- 54. And they ate and drank, he and the men who came with him, and they stayed the night there. And they rose up in the morning, and he said, "Send me away to my master."
- 55. And her brother and her mother said, "Let the girl stay with us, at least ten days. Afterward, she will go."
- 56. But he said to them, "Do not delay me, for the LORD has prospered my journey. Send me away so that I may go to my master."
- 57. And they said, "We are going to call the girl and see what she says."
- 58. And they summoned Rebekah, and they said to her, "Will you go with this man?" And she said, "I will go."
- 59. And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abraham's slave and his men.

60. And they blessed Rebekah and said to her, "Our sister, may you become very many thousands, and may your seed possess the gate of those who hate them."

- 61. And Rebekah and her maidens rose up, and they mounted the camels and followed the man. And the slave took Rebekah and went away.
- 62. Now, Isaac had come from the entrance of Beer-lahairoi, for he was living in the territory of the Negev.
- 63. And Isaac had gone out to meditate in the field at dusk. And he lifted up his eyes and looked, and there were camels coming.
- 64. And Rebekah raised her eyes and saw Isaac, and she dismounted the camel.
- 65. And she said to the slave, "Who is this man who is walking in the field to meet us?" And the slave said, "It is my master." And she took the veil and covered herself.
- 66. And the slave told Isaac all the things he had done.
- 67. And Isaac brought her into the tent of Sarah his mother.

 And he took Rebekah, and she became his wife. And he loved her, and Isaac was comforted concerning his mother.

- ¶1. And Abraham again took a wife, and her name was Keturah.
- 2. And she bore to him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Jishbok, and Shuah.
- 3. And Jokshan fathered Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim.
- 4. And the sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All of these were the sons of Keturah.
- 5. And Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac,

6. but Abraham gave gifts to the sons of the concubines that he had. And he sent them away from Isaac his son while he lived, eastward to the land of the east.

- 7. And these were the days of the years of the life of Abraham that he lived, one hundred seventy-five years.
- 8. And Abraham breathed his last, and died in a good old age, old and at peace, and he was gathered to his people.
- 9. And Isaac and Ishmael, his sons, buried him in the cave of Macpelah in the field of Ephron ben Zohar the Hittite, that is before Mamre,
- 10. the field which Abraham bought from the sons of Heth. Abraham was buried there with Sarah his wife.
- 11. And it came to pass, after the death of Abraham, that God blessed Isaac his son. And Isaac dwelled by Beerlahai-roi.
- ¶12. And these are the generations of Ishmael, son of Abraham, which Hagar, Sarah's Egyptian slave-girl, bore to Abraham.
- 13. And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: Nebajoth, Ishmael's firstborn, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,
- 14. Mishma, Dumah, Massa,
- 15. Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.
- 16. These were the sons of Ishmael, and these were their names in their settlements and camps, twelve princes according to their nations.
- 17. And these were the years of the life of Ishmael, one hundred thirty-seven, and he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people.
- 18. And they dwelt from Havilah to Shur, which is before Egypt as you go towards Asshur. And he died in the presence of all of his brothers.

¶19. And these are the generations of Isaac, son of Abraham. Abraham fathered Isaac,

- 20. and Isaac was forty years old when he took to himself for a wife, Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramean, from Padan-aram, the sister of Laban the Aramean.
- 21. And Isaac entreated the LORD for the sake of his wife, because she was barren. And the LORD was entreated by him, and Rebekah his wife conceived.
- 22. And the children struggled with each other within her. And she said, "If it's like this, why am I this way?" And she went to inquire of the LORD.
- 23. And the LORD said to her, "Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples will be separated from your bowels. One people will be stronger than the other people, and the older will serve the younger."
- 24. And when her days to deliver were completed, behold, there were twins in her womb.
- 25. And the first came out reddish all over, like a hairy garment. So, they called his name Esau.
- 26. And afterwards, his brother came out, and his hand was holding fast to Esau's heel. And he called his name Jacob.²⁴ And Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them.
- 27. And the boys grew up, and Esau became a cunning hunter, a man of the field, but Jacob was a quiet man, dwelling in tents.
- 28. And Isaac loved Esau because he ate of his game, but Rebekah loved Jacob.
- 29. And Jacob was cooking, and Esau came in from the field, and he was exhausted.

²⁴ Meaning, "supplanter"

30. And Esau said to Jacob, "Please, let me eat some of this red stuff because I'm exhausted." Therefore, he was called Edom.²⁵

- 31. But Jacob said, "Sell your birthright to me, today."
- 32. And Esau said, "Behold, I am about to die, so what is this birthright to me?"
- 33. And Jacob said, "Swear to me today." And he swore to him, and he sold his birthright to Jacob.
- 34. And Jacob gave bread and a pottage of lintels to Esau, and he ate and drank, and rose up and left. Thus Esau despised the birthright.

Chapter 26

- ¶1. And there was a famine in the land besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Abimelech, king of the Philistines, to Gerar.
- 2. And the LORD appeared to him and said, "Do not go down to Egypt; dwell in the land that I will tell you.
- 3. Sojourn in this land, and I will be with you, and I will bless you, for I will give to you and your offspring all these countries, and I will fulfill the oath that I swore to Abraham your father.
- 4. And I will multiply your offspring as the stars of heaven, and I will give your offspring all these countries, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed by your seed,
- 5. because Abraham listened to my voice and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws".
- 6. So Isaac dwelled in Gerar.
- 7. And the men of the place asked about his wife and he said, "She is my sister," because he was afraid to say,

²⁵ Meaning, "red"

- "my wife", for he said, "Lest the men of the place kill me on account of Rebekah, for she is beautiful."
- 8. And it came to pass when he had stayed there many days that Abimelech, king of the Philistines, looked out of the window and, behold, he saw Isaac sporting with Rebekah, his wife.
- 9. And Abimelech called for Isaac and he said, "Behold, she is certainly your wife. How could you say, 'She is my sister'?" And Isaac said to him, "I said it lest I die because of her."
- 10. And Abimelech said, "What is this that you have done to us? For in a little time, one of the people would have lain with your wife, and you would have brought an offense against us."
- 11. So Abimelech commanded all the people, saying, "Whoever touches this man and his wife will surely be put to death."
- 12. And Isaac sowed in that land, and in the same year received one hundred fold, for the LORD blessed him.
- 13. And the man became great, and he continued to increase until he became very great.
- 14. And he had possession of sheep and possession of cattle and many slaves; and the Philistines envied him.
- 15. And all the wells that the servants of his father dug in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines stopped up and filled with dirt.
- 16. And Abimelek said to Isaac, "Go away from us, for you are much stronger than we."
- 17. So Isaac left there, and he camped in the Gerar valley and dwelled there.
- 18. And Isaac dug out the wells of water again that had been dug during the days of Abraham his father, for the Philistines had filled them in after Abraham died. And

- he called them by the same names that his father had called them.
- 19. And the servants of Isaac dug in the valley and they found there a well of living water.
- 20. But the shepherds of Gerar strove with Isaac's shepherds saying, "The water belongs to us". And he called the name of the well Contention, because they contended with him.
- 21. And they dug another well, and they strove over that also, so he called the name of it Strife.
- 22. So, he moved from there and dug another well, and they did not fight over it, and he called the name of it Rehoboth,²⁶ because he said, "For now the LORD has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land".
- 23. And he went up from there to Beersheba.
- 24. And the LORD appeared to him that night and said, "I am the God of Abraham your father. Fear not, for I am with you, and I will bless you and multiply your offspring for the sake of my servant Abraham."
- 25. And he built an altar there, and he called on the name of the LORD. And there, he pitched his tent, and Isaac's servants dug a well there.
- 26. Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, with Ahuzzath, his aide, and Phicol, commander of his army.
- 27. And Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me and sent me away from you?"
- 28. And they said, "We have plainly seen that the LORD is with you, and so we said, 'Let there now be an oath between us, between us and you. And let us make a covenant with you,

²⁶ Meaning, "broad places"

29. so that you will do us no harm, just as we did not touch you, and as we did only good to you and sent you away in peace. You now are blessed of the LORD."

- 30. And he made them a feast, and they ate and drank.
- 31. And they rose up early in the morning and they swore, each to his brother, and Isaac sent them away. And they departed from him in peace.
- 32. And it came to pass in the same day that Isaac's servants came and told him about the well that they had dug. And they said to him, "We have found water."
- 33. And he called it Sheba. Therefore the name of the city is Beersheba until this day.
- ¶34. And when Esau was forty years old, he took to wife, Judith, daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basmath, daughter of Elon, the Hittite.
- 35. And they made life bitter for Isaac and Rebekah.

- ¶1. And it came to pass, when Isaac was old and his eyesight grew dim that he called Esau, his elder son, and said to him, "My son." And he said to him, "Here I am."
- 2. And he said, "Behold now, I am old. I know not the day of my death.
- 3. Now, please take up your weapon, your quiver and your bow, and go to the field and hunt game for me.
- 4. And make me savory food such as I love, and bring it to me, and I will eat it so that my soul may bless you before I die."
- 5. And Rebekah heard when Isaac spoke to Esau his son, and Esau went to the field to hunt game to bring in.
- 6. And Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saying, "Behold, I heard your father talking to Esau your brother, saying,

7. 'Bring game to me and make me savory food that I may eat and bless you in the presence of the LORD before my death'.

- 8. And now my son, obey my voice, in what I am commanding you to do.
- 9. Go now to the flock and from there, take for me two good kids of the goats, and I will make them savory food for your father, just like he loves.
- 10. And you will carry it to your father, and he will eat it so that he may bless you before his death."
- 11. And Jacob said to Rebekah, his mother, "Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man.
- 12. Perhaps my father will feel me, and in his eyes, I will be an impersonator, and I will bring on myself a curse and not a blessing."
- 13. And his mother said to him, "Let your curse be upon me, my son. Only obey my voice and go get them for me."
- 14. And he went and got them and brought them to his mother. And his mother made savory food just like his father loved.
- 15. And Rebekah took the garments of Esau, her elder son, the expensive ones which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob, her younger son.
- 16. And on his hands and the smooth part of his neck she put the skins of the kids of the goats.
- 17. And she put the savory food and bread that she had made in the hand of Jacob her son.
- 18. And he went to his father and said, "My father!" Then he said, "Here I am. Who are you, my son?"
- 19. And Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau, your firstborn. I did what you told me. Please, rise and sit, and eat of my game so that your soul may bless me."

20. And Isaac said to his son, "How did you find it so quickly my son?" And he said, "Because the LORD, your God, made it come to me."

- 21. And Isaac said to Jacob, "Come near, now, that I may feel you, my son, whether or not this is you, my son Esau."
- 22. And Jacob drew near to Isaac, his father, and he felt him, and he said, "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau."
- 23. And he did not recognize him because his hands were hairy like the hands of Esau his brother, and he blessed him.
- 24. And he said, "Are you my son, Esau?" And he said, "I am."
- 25. Then he said, "Bring it to me, that I may eat of my son's game, so that my soul may bless you." And he took it to him, and he ate, and he brought him wine and he drank.
- 26. And Isaac, his father, said to him, "Now, come near and kiss me my son."
- 27. So he drew near and kissed him. And he smelled the scent of his clothes, and he blessed him and said, "See, the smell of my son is like the scent of a field which the LORD has blessed.
- 28. May God give you of the dew of heaven, and of the fatness of the earth, and much grain and wine.
- 29. May nations serve you, and may people bow themselves to you. Be ruler over your brothers, and may the sons of your mother bow down to you. Let those who curse you, be cursed, and those who bless you, be blessed."
- 30. And it came to pass when Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob had scarcely gone out from before Isaac, his father, that Esau, his brother, came in from his hunting.

31. And he also made savory food, and he brought it to his father, and he said to his father, "Let my father rise up and eat his son's game so that your soul may bless me."

- 32. But Isaac, his father, said to him, "Who are you?" And he said, "I am your son, your firstborn, Esau."
- 33. And Isaac trembled with very great terror, and he said, "Who, then, is the one who hunted game and brought it to me? And I ate it all before you came, and I blessed him, and yes, he will be blessed."
- 34. When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried a very great and bitter cry. And he said to his father, "Bless me, me also, my father!"
- 35. But he said, "Your brother came deceitfully and has taken your blessing."
- 36. And he said, "Isn't that why his name is called Jacob? He has now cheated me twice; he took my birthright, and now look, he has taken my blessing! Have you not reserved a blessing for me?"
- 37. And Isaac answered, saying to Esau, "Behold, I have made him a ruler over you, and I have given him all his brothers for slaves, and I have sustained him with grain and wine. What now can I do for you my son?"
- 38. And Esau said to his father, "Have you but one blessing, my father? Bless me also, my father!" And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.
- 39. And Isaac, his father, answered and said to him, "Behold, of the fatness of the earth will be your habitation, and of the dew of heaven from above.
- 40. By your sword, you will live, and you will serve your brother. But it will come to pass that when you become discontent, you will break off his yoke from your neck."
- 41. But Esau bore a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him. And Esau

- said in his heart, "The days of mourning for my father draw near; then I will kill Jacob, my brother."
- 42. And Rebekah was told the words of Esau, her elder son. And she sent and called for Jacob, her younger son. And she said to him, "Look, Esau your brother is comforting himself concerning you by planning to kill you.
- 43. So now, my son, hear my voice. Rise up and flee to Laban, my brother, in Haran,
- 44. and live with him for a while until your brother's fury turns away,
- 45. until your brother's anger turns away and he forgets what you did to him. Then I will send and bring you back from there. Why should I be bereft of you both in one day?"
- 46. Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am disgusted with my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife from the daughters of the land, what is life to me?"

- 1. And Isaac called Jacob and blessed him, and he commanded him and said to him, "Do not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.
- 2. Rise up and go to Padan-aram to the house of Bethuel, your mother's father. And take for yourself from there a wife from the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother.
- 3. And may God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and may you become a multitude of nations.
- 4. May He give you the blessing of Abraham, to you and your seed with you, that you may inherit the land of your sojourning, which God gave to Abraham."

5. And Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Padan-aram, to Laban ben Bethuel the Aramean, brother of Rebekah, Jacob and Esau's mother.

- 6. And Esau learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him to Padan-aram to take a wife from there and that in his blessing of him, he had commanded him, saying, "Do not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan."
- 7. And Jacob obeyed his father and his mother and went to Padan-aram.
- 8. And when Esau learned that the daughters of Canaan were evil in the sight of Isaac, his father,
- 9. Esau went to Ishmael and took unto the wives that he had, Mahalath, daughter of Ishmael, son of Abraham, sister of Nabajoth for a wife.
- ¶10. And Jacob left Beersheba and went toward Haran.
- 11. And he came upon a certain place, and he stayed there overnight because the sun had set. And he took some of the stones from that place, and he put them at his head. And he lay down in that place.
- 12. And he dreamed, and behold a stairway set up on the earth with its top reaching heaven. And behold, angels of God were ascending and descending on it.
- 13. And behold, the LORD was standing above it, and he said, "I am the LORD, God of Abraham your father and God of Isaac. The land on which you are lying, I will give it to you and your offspring.
- 14. And your seed will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the sea, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south. And by you, all the families of the earth will be blessed, and your seed.
- 15. And behold, I am with you, and I will keep you everywhere you go, and I will bring you back to this - land, for I will not forsake you but will surely do that which I have spoken to you."

- 16. And Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, "Truly, the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it!"
- 17. And he was afraid, and he said, "How fearful is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven."
- 18. And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and he took the stone that he had put for his head and set it up as a pillar, and he poured oil on top of it.
- 19. And he called the name of that place Bethel;²⁷ however Luz was the original name of that city.
- 20. And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, "If God will be with me and keep me in this way that I am going, and give me bread to eat and clothing to put on,
- 21. and I return in peace to my father's house, then Jehovah will be God for me.
- 22. And this stone that I have set up as a pillar will be a house of God, and of all that you give me, I will surely give a tenth to you."

Chapter 29

- ¶1. And Jacob took to his feet, and he drew near to the land of the sons of the east.
- 2. And he looked and noticed a well in the field, and behold, there were three flocks of sheep lying beside it, for they watered the flocks from that well, but the stone on the well's mouth was large.
- 3. And all the flocks were gathered, and they would roll the stone from off the well's mouth and water the sheep, and then return the stone to its place on the well's mouth.

- 41. And it came to pass when all the strong of the flocks were in heat, Jacob placed the sticks in front of the flocks at the troughs, that they might conceive among the sticks.
- 42. But he did not set them before the weaker flocks. So the weak were Laban's, and the strong were Jacob's.
- 43. And the man increased greatly, and he had many flocks, and male and female slaves, and camels, and donkeys.

- 1. And he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, "Jacob has taken everything that was our father's, and he has gotten all this abundance from what our father had."
- 2. And Jacob observed the face of Laban, and behold, it was not with him as it was previously.
- 3. And the LORD said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers and to your kindred, and I will be with you."
- 4. And Jacob sent and called for Rachel and Leah to come out to the field, to his flocks.

5. And he said to them, "I see the face of your father, that it is not toward me as it used to be, but the God of my father has been with me.

- 6. And you yourselves know that I have served your father with all my strength,
- 7. and that your father has deceived me and has changed my wages ten times, but God did not let him hurt me.
- 8. If he said, 'The speckled will be your wages,' then all the flocks bore speckled. Then if he said, 'The striped will be your wages,' then all the flocks bore striped.
- 9. So God has taken away your father's livestock and has given them to me.
- 10. And it came to pass, when the flock was in heat, I lifted up my eyes and I saw in a dream, and behold, the rams going up on the flock were striped, speckled, and spotted.
- 11. And an angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob.' And I said, 'Here am I.'
- 12. And he said, 'Lift up your eyes now and look. All the rams that go up to the flock are striped, speckled, and spotted, for I have seen all that Laban is doing to you.
- 13. I am the God of Bethel where you anointed the pillar, where you made a vow to me. Now, rise up, leave this land, and return to the land of your kindred."
- 14. And Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, "Is there any longer an inheritance for us in our father's house?
- 15. Are we not counted as strangers to him? For he has sold us and has completely devoured our money also.
- 16. For all the riches that God has taken away from our father is for us and our sons. Now then, do all that God has said to you."
- 17. And Jacob arose and set his sons and his wives onto the camels.

18. And he led away all his livestock (and all his goods that he had acquired), the property of livestock that he had acquired in Padan-aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.

- 19. When Laban went to sheer his sheep, Rachel stole the teraphim³⁹ that were her father's.
- 20. And Jacob deceived Laban the Aramean, in that he did not tell him that he was about to flee.
- 21. And he fled with everything he had, and he rose up and crossed over the river and set his face toward Mount Gilead.
- 22. And on the third day it was reported to Laban that Jacob had fled.
- 23. And he took his kinsmen with him, and he pursued him in the way for seven days. And he overtook him at Mount Gilead.
- 24. And God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream at night, and He said to him, "Watch yourself lest you speak either good or evil to Jacob."
- 25. And Laban caught up with Jacob, and Jacob had pitched his tent on the mountain, and Laban with his kinsmen on Mount Gilead.
- 26. And Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done? For you deceived me and led my daughters away like captives taken by the sword.
- 27. Why did you secretly flee and steal away from me, and you did not tell me so that I could send you away with rejoicing, with songs, with timbrel and lyre.
- 28. And you did not let me kiss my sons and my daughters! Now you have done foolishly in doing that.
- 29. It is in the power of my hand to do you harm, but the God of your father spoke to me last night saying,

_

³⁹ Meaning, "household idols"

- 'Watch yourself lest you speak either good or evil to Jacob.
- 30. So now, though you must go because you yearn so much for your father's house, why have you stolen my gods?"
- 31. And Jacob answered and said to Laban, "I left because I was afraid, for I thought you might take your daughters away from me by force.
- 32. And with whomever you find your gods, let him not live! Before our kinsmen, point out what is yours with me and take it!" (But Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.)
- 33. And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the tent of the two handmaidens, but he found nothing. When he came out of Leah's tent, he went into Rachel's tent.
- 34. Now Rachel had taken the teraphim, and she had put them in the camel's saddlebag and was sitting on them. And Laban felt around throughout the tent, but he found nothing.
- 35. Then she said to her father, "Do not let it be displeasing in the eyes of my lord that I am not able to rise up in your presence, for the way of women is upon me." So Laban searched but could not find the teraphim.
- 36. Then Jacob grew hot and contended with Laban, and Jacob answered Laban, saying, "What is my transgression or what is my sin that you have so hotly pursued after me?
- 37. You have groped through all my stuff! What have you found in any vessels in my house? Set it here, before my kinsmen and your kinsmen, and let them judge between the two of us!

38. These twenty years I was with you. Your ewes and your goats were not barren, and I did not eat the rams of your flock.

- 39. I did not bring a torn animal to you; I bore the loss of it. You exacted it of me, whether stolen by day or stolen by night.
- 40. This is how I lived. By day, drought consumed me, and by night, the cold; and sleep fled from my eyes.
- 41. This is how it was for me twenty years in your house. I served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flock. And you changed my wages ten times!
- 42. If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been with me, you would have already sent me away with nothing. God saw my abuse and the toil of my hands, and he rebuked you last night."
- 43. Then Laban answered and said to Jacob, "These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these flocks are my flocks! Everything you are looking at belongs to me! And my daughters, what will I do for them today or for their children which they bore?
- 44. So now, come, and you and I will make a covenant, and it will be for a witness between me and you."
- 45. And Jacob took a stone and set it up as a memorial.
- 46. And Jacob told his kinsmen to gather up stones, and they took the stones and made a heap, and they ate there on the pile of stones.
- 47. And Laban called it, "Mound of Witness" in his language, 40 but Jacob called it, "Mound of Witness" in his own tongue. 41

⁴⁰ Jegar-sahadutha

48. So Laban said, "Today this mound is witness between me and you." (By this Laban called it Mound of Witness in Jacob's tongue.)

- 49. And it was Mizpah where he said, "The LORD keep watch between me and you while we are out of each other's sight.
- 50. If you afflict my daughters, or if you take wives other than my daughters no man is with us See! God is witness between me and you."
- 51. And Laban said to Jacob, "Behold this mound, and behold, this memorial which I have set between me and you.
- 52. This mound is witness, and this memorial is witness, that I will not go past this mound to you and that you will not come past this mound and this memorial to me for evil.
- 53. The gods of Abraham and the gods of Nahor, the gods of their father, judge between us." But Jacob swore by the Fear of his father, Isaac.
- 54. And Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain, and he invited his kinsmen to eat bread, and they ate bread, and they lodged on the mountain that night.
- 55. And Laban rose up early in the morning, and he kissed his sons and his daughters and blessed them. Then Laban left and returned to his own place.

- ¶4. And he commanded them saying, "Thus will you say to my lord, to Esau, 'Thus says your servant Jacob; I have sojourned with Laban and stayed there until now.
- 5. And I have oxen and donkeys, sheep, servants and maidservants, and I have sent to tell my lord, to find favor in your eyes."
- 6. And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, "We came to your brother Esau, and he is also coming to meet you, and four hundred men with him."
- 7. And Jacob was very afraid and distressed, and he divided the people that were with him and the flocks and the cattle and the camels into two camps.
- 8. For he thought, "If Esau comes to the one camp and strikes it, then the remaining camp will escape."
- 9. Then Jacob said, "O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, the LORD who said to me, 'Return to your land and to your kindred, and I will deal well with you.'
- 10. I am not worthy of any of the mercies or any of the truth that you have shown to your servant, for with my staff I crossed over this Jordan, and now I have become two camps.
- 11. Save me now from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau, because I fear him, lest he come and strike me, mother and children.
- 12. And you said, 'I will surely do good to you and will make your seed like the sand of the sea which cannot be counted for multitude."
- 13. And he stayed there that night, and he took a gift for Esau his brother from what had come into his hand:

14. Two hundred she-goats, twenty he-goats, two hundred ewes, twenty rams,

- 15. thirty suckling camels and their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty she-asses and ten foals.
- 16. And he turned them over to his servants, every drove by itself. And he said to his servants, "Cross over before me and keep a space between each drove."
- 17. And he commanded the first saying, "When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, saying, 'Who do you belong to?', and 'Where are you going?', and 'Whose are these before you?',
- 18. then you will say, 'They are your servant Jacob's, it is a gift sent to my lord Esau. And behold he is also behind us."
- 19. And he commanded also the second and the third, even all who walked behind the droves, saying, "You will speak the same thing to Esau when you find him.
- 20. You will also say, 'Behold, your servant Jacob is behind us.'" (Because he thought, "I will appease him with the gift going ahead of me. And afterwards, I will see his face, and perhaps he will accept me.")
- 21. And the gift passed on before him, and he remained that night in the camp.
- 22. And he rose up that night and took his two wives and his two maidservants and his eleven sons, and he crossed over Jabbok Ford.
- 23. And he took them and sent them over the river and sent his possessions over.
- 24. And Jacob was left by himself, and a man wrestled with him until dawn.
- 25. And the man saw that he was not overcoming him, so he struck his hip-socket, and he dislocated the hip-socket while he was wrestling with him.

26. And he said, "Let me go for the dawn has come!" But Jacob said, "I will not let you go unless you bless me."

- 27. Then he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob".
- 28. So he said, "Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, 43 because you have persevered with God and with men and have prevailed."
- 29. And Jacob asked and said, "Please, tell me your name." And he said, "Why do you ask for my name?" And he blessed him there.
- 30. And Jacob called the name of the place Penuel, 44 because "I have seen God face to face, yet my life was spared."

- 2. These are the records of Jacob and his family: seventeenyear old Joseph was tending the flock with his brothers, and he was a young man with the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives. And Joseph brought their evil report to their father.
- 3. And Israel loved Joseph more than any of his sons because he was the son of his old age, and he made him a tunic reaching to the feet.
- 4. And his brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of his brothers, and they hated him and were not able to speak to him peaceably.
- 5. And Joseph dreamed a dream and told it to his brothers, and they hated him all the more.
- 6. He said to them, "Hear, please, this dream which I have dreamed.
- 7. Behold, we were binding sheaves in the midst of the field. And behold, my sheaf arose and even stood up. And behold, your sheaves gathered around and bowed themselves to my sheaf."
- 8. And his brothers said to him, "Will you reign as a king over us? Will you really rule over us?" And they hated him still more for his dreams and his words.
- 9. And he dreamed yet another dream, and he told it to his brothers. And he said, "Behold, I have dreamed another dream, and behold, the sun and the moon and eleven stars were bowing themselves to me."

10. And he told it to his father and to his brothers. And his father rebuked him and said to him, "What is this dream that you dreamed? Will I, your mother, and your brothers really come bow ourselves to the earth before you?"

- 11. His brothers envied him, but his father kept it in mind.
- 12. And his brothers went to tend the flock of their father in Shechem.
- 13. And Israel said to Joseph, "Aren't your brothers shepherding at Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them." And he said to him, "Here I am."
- 14. And he said to him, "Now go check on the welfare of your brothers and the welfare of the flock and bring me word again. And he sent him from the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.
- 15. And a man found him, and behold, he was wandering in the field. And the man asked him, saying, "What are you looking for?"
- 16. And he said, "I am looking for my brothers. Please tell me where they are pasturing."
- 17. And the man said, "They pulled up from here, for I heard them saying, 'Let's go toward Dothan." And Joseph went after his brothers, and he found them at Dothan.
- 18. And they saw him from a distance, and before he drew near to them, they plotted against him to kill him.
- 19. And each one said to his brother, "Look! This dreammeister is coming!
- 20. Now, come, let's kill him and dump him into one of the pits. We will say, 'A wild animal has eaten him.' We'll see what becomes of his dreams."
- 21. But Reuben heard and delivered him from their hand and he said, "Let's not kill him."
- 22. And Reuben said to them, "Do not shed blood. Throw him into this pit that is in the desert, but do not lay a

- hand on him." (He said this in order to deliver him from their hand, to return him to his father.)
- 23. And it happened that when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped Joseph of his coat that was on him, the coat that reached to his feet.
- 24. And they took him and threw him into the pit, and the pit was empty; there was no water in it.
- 25. And they sat down to eat bread, and they lifted their eyes and looked, and behold, a caravan of Ishmeelites was coming from Gilead. And their camels were bearing spices, balm, and myrrh, going to take them down to Egypt.
- 26. And Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is it that we kill our brother and conceal his blood?
- 27. Come, let us sell him to the Ishmeelites. Let not our hand be upon him, for he is our brother, he is our flesh." And his brothers consented.
- 28. And men passed by, Midianite tradesmen, and they drew up and lifted Joseph from the pit, and they sold Joseph to the Ishmeelites for twenty silver pieces, and they took Joseph to Egypt.
- 29. And Reuben returned to the pit, and behold, Joseph was not in the pit. And he tore his clothes.
- 30. And he returned to his brothers and said, "The young man is gone. And I, where shall I go?"
- 31. And they took Joseph's coat, and they killed a ram of the goats and dipped the coat in the blood.
- 32. And they sent the coat that reached to the feet, and they brought it to their father and they said, "We found this. Please see if this is your son's coat or not."
- 33. And he recognized it and said, "It is my son's coat. A wild beast has eaten him. Joseph is surely torn to pieces."

34. And Jacob rent his clothes, and he put sackcloth on his loins. And he mourned many days for his son.

- 35. And all his sons and daughters rose up to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted and said, "I will go down mourning into Sheol, to my son." And his father wept for him.
- 36. And the Midianites sold him into Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, chief of the executioners.

- ¶1. And it came to pass at that time that Judah went down from his brothers and turned aside to an Adulamite man, and his name was Hirah.
- 2. And Judah saw there the daughter of a Canaanite man, and his name was Shua. And he took her and he went in to her.
- 3. And she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Er.
- 4. And she conceived again and bore a son, and she called his name Onan.
- 5. Once again, she bore a son, and she called his name Shelah. And it was at Kezib that she bore him.
- 6. And Judah took a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar.
- 7. But Er, the firstborn of Judah, was evil in the eyes of the LORD, and the LORD killed him.
- 8. And Judah said to Onan, "Go to the wife of your brother and do your duty and raise up offspring for your brother."
- 9. But Onan knew that the offspring would not be his. And it happened that when he went in to his brother's wife, that he wasted it on the ground, not giving seed to his brother.

10. And what he did was evil in the eyes of the LORD, and He killed him also.

- 11. And Judah said to Tamar, his daughter-in-law, "Remain a widow in your father's house until Shelah, my son, is grown" (for he thought, "lest he die also like his brothers"). And Tamar went and dwelt in the house of her father.
- 12. And many days passed, and the daughter of Shua, wife of Judah, died. And Judah was comforted, and he went up to the shearers of his sheep, he and his friend the Adulamite, Hirah, to Timnah.
- 13. And it was told to Tamar, saying, "Behold, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his flock."
- 14. And she took off her widow's clothes and concealed herself with a veil, and she covered herself and sat at the entrance of the springs which is on the way to Timnah, for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she had not been given to him for a wife.
- 15. And Judah saw her and thought her to be a harlot because she covered her face.
- 16. And he turned in to her on the way, and he said, "Come now, let me come in to you" (but he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law). And she said, "What will you give me, that you may come in to me?"
- 17. And he said, "I will send a kid of the goats from the flock." And she said, "If you give a pledge until you send it."
- 18. He said, "What is the pledge that I will give you?" And she said, "Your seal and your cord, and your staff that is in your hand." And he gave it to her, and he went in to her, and she conceived by him.
- 19. And she got up and left, and she took off her veil and put on her widow's clothes.

20. And Judah sent the kid of the goats by the hand of his friend the Adulamite, to take the pledge from the hand of the woman, but he did not find her.

- 21. And he asked the men of her place, saying, "Where is the temple-prostitute that was at the springs by the road?" But they said, "There is no temple-prostitute in this place."
- 22. And he returned to Judah, saying, "I did not find her, and also, the men of the place say, 'There is no temple-prostitute in this place."
- 23. And Judah said, "Let her take it for herself, lest we become a laughingstock. Behold, I sent this kid, and you did not find her!"
- 24. And it was in the third month that it was told to Judah, saying, "Tamar, your daughter-in-law, has committed adultry. And also, behold, she conceived by fornication. And Judah said, "Bring her out, and let her be burned."
- 25. As she was being brought, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, "By the man to whom these things belong, I am pregnant." And she said, "Now acknowledge whose these are: the seal and the cord, and the staff."
- 26. And Judah recognized them and said, "She is more righteous than I for I did not give her to Shelah my son", and he never again knew her.
- 27. And at the time of her giving birth, behold, twins were in her womb!
- 28. And in her giving birth, it happened that one put out a hand, and the midwife took it and tied scarlet around his hand, saying, "This one came out first."
- 29. But it happened that as he withdrew his hand, behold, his brother came out. And she said, "How have you made

- a breach for yourself?" And he called his name Pharez.⁵³
- 30. And afterwards his brother came out, on whose hand was the scarlet, and one called his name, Zarah.

Chapter 39

- ¶1. And Joseph was brought down to Egypt. And Potiphar, officer of Pharoah, chief of the executioners, an Egyptian man, bought him from the Ishmeelites who had brought him down there.
- 2. And the LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man. And he was in the house of his Egyptian master.
- 3. And his master saw that the LORD was with him, and all that he did the LORD caused to prosper in his hand.
- 4. And Joseph found favor in his eyes and served him; he appointed him over his house, and all that he had, he put into his hand.
- 5. And it came to pass that from the time that he appointed him over his house and all that he had, that the LORD blessed the house of the Egyptian for Joseph's sake. And the blessing of the LORD was on all that he had in the house and in the field.
- 6. And he left all he had in the hand of Joseph, and he did not know about anything that he had except the bread that he ate. And Joseph was well-built and goodlooking.
- 7. And it was after these things that his master's wife set her eyes on Joseph, and she said, "Lie with me."
- 8. But he refused and said to his master's wife, "Behold, my master does not know about what is in the house, and all that he has, he has put into my hand.

9. No one is greater in this house than I, and he has not withheld anything from me except you because you are his wife. So how can I do this great evil and sin against God?"

- 10. And so it was, as she spoke to Joseph day by day, that he did not listen to her to lie beside her, to be with her.
- 11. And it came to pass during this time that he came into the house to do his work, and not one of the house-servants were there in the house.
- 12. And she caught him by his robe, saying, "Lie with me!" And he left his robe in her hand and fled, and went outside.
- 13. And then, when she saw that he had left his robe in her hand and had fled outside,
- 14. she called to the men of her house, and spoke to them saying, "Look! He brought us a Hebrew man to mock us. He came at me to lie with me, but I cried out with a loud voice!
- 15. And when he heard that I screamed and cried out, he left his robe by me and fled, and went outside."
- 16. And she kept his robe by her until his master came home.
- 17. And she spoke those same words to him, saying, "The Hebrew slave that you brought in to us came to me to play around with me.
- 18. And when I screamed and cried out, he left his robe here by me and fled outside."
- 19. And it came to pass that when his master had heard the words of his wife which she spoke to him, saying, "Your slave did these things to me," that his anger burned.
- 20. And Joseph's master seized him and put him in the prison house, the place where prisoners of the king were bound, and he was there in the prison house.

21. And the LORD was with Joseph and extended lovingkindness to him, and he gave him favor in the eyes of the warden of the prison house.

- 22. And the warden of the prison house put all the prisoners who were in the prison house into Joseph's hand, and everything they did there, he was in charge of.
- 23. The warden of the prison house did not concern himself with anything that was under his control, for the LORD was with Joseph, and all that he did the LORD prospered.

- ¶1. And after these things, the butler of the king of Egypt and the baker sinned against their master, the king of Egypt.
- 2. And Pharaoh was angry with his two officers, the chief of the butlers and the chief of the bakers.
- 3. And he put them into custody, in the house of the chief of the executioners, into the prison house, the place where Joseph was imprisoned.
- 4. And the chief of the executioners assigned Joseph to them, and he served them. And they were in the prison for some time.
- 5. And the king of Egypt's butler and baker who were bound in the prison house both dreamed a dream, each his own dream in the same night, each dream with its own meaning.
- 6. And Joseph came to them in the morning and looked at them, and beheld them that they were troubled.
- 7. And he asked Pharoah's officers who were with him in custody in his master's house, saying, "Why are your faces downcast today?"

8. And they said to him, "We dreamed a dream, and there is no one to interpret it." And Joseph said to them, "Don't interpretations belong to God? Please, tell me."

- 9. And the chief of the butlers told his dream to Joseph and said to him, "In my dream, behold, a vine was before me.
- 10. And on the vine were three branches, and when it budded, it went up into blossom, and its clusters ripened into grapes.
- 11. And the Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes and squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I put the cup into Pharaoh's hand."
- 12. And Joseph said to him, "This is its interpretation: the three branches are three days.
- 13. In three days, Pharaoh will lift up your head and return you to your position, and you will put Pharaoh's cup into his hand, just like before, when you were his cupbearer.
- 14. But when it is well with you, remember that I was with you, and show me kindness, please, and mention me to Pharaoh, and get me out of this place.
- 15. For I was wrongfully stolen from the land of the Hebrews, and here, too, I have done nothing that they should have put me in the dungeon."
- 16. And the chief of the bakers saw that the interpretation was good, and so he said to Joseph, "I was also in my dream, and there were three baskets of white bread on my head.
- 17. And in the top basket was all kinds of baked food for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them from the basket on my head."
- 18. And Joseph answered and said, "This is its interpretation: the three baskets are three days.

19. In three days, Pharaoh will lift up your head from off you and will hang you from a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh off you."

- 20. And it happened on the third day, Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast for all of his servants, and he lifted up the head of the chief of the butlers and the head of the chief of the bakers in the midst of his servants.
- 21. And he returned the chief of the butlers to his butlership. And he put the cup into Pharaoh's hand.
- 22. And he hanged the chief of the bakers as Joseph had interpreted to them.
- 23. But the chief of the butlers did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

- ¶1. And it came to pass, at the end of two years, that Pharaoh dreamed, and behold, he was standing by the Nile.
- 2. And behold, seven cows came up from the Nile, healthy-looking and fat. And they were grazing in the reeds.
- 3. And behold seven other cows came up from the Nile after them, sickly-looking and gaunt. And they stood beside the first cows on the bank of the Nile.
- 4. And the bad-looking, gaunt cows ate up the seven good-looking, fat cows. And Pharaoh woke up.
- 5. And he slept, and he dreamed a second time. And behold, seven ears of grain came up on one stalk, full and good.
- 6. And behold, seven skinny ears of grain blasted by the east winds, sprouted after them.
- 7. And the skinny ears swallowed the seven fat, full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was a dream.
- 8. And it came to pass that in the morning his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called all the magicians of Egypt, and all its wise men, and Pharaoh recounted to

- them his dream, but there was no one interpret them for Pharaoh.
- 9. Then the chief of the butlers told Pharaoh, saying, "I remember my sin today.
- 10. Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me into custody, in the house of the chief of the executioners, me and the chief of the bakers.
- 11. He and I dreamed a dream the same night; each dream we dreamed had its own meaning.
- 12. And there was a young Hebrew man with us, a slave of the chief of the executioners, and we told him, and he interpreted our dreams for us. He interpreted to each one the meaning of his dream.
- 13. And it came to pass! Just as he interpreted for us, so it happened. Me, he returned to my position, but him, he hanged."
- 14. So Pharaoh sent and called for Joseph, and they hurriedly brought him from the dungeon. And he shaved and changed his garments, and then he came in to Pharaoh.
- 15. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have dreamed a dream and there is no one to interpret it, but I have heard about you that you hear a dream and are able to interpret it."
- 16. And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, "Not I! God will answer Pharaoh with peace."
- 17. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "In my dream, behold, I was standing on the bank of the Nile.
- 18. And behold, seven cows came up from the river, fat and healthy-looking. And they grazed among the reeds.
- 19. And behold, seven other cows came up after them, weak, and sickly-looking, and gaunt. I have not seen in all the land of Egypt any cattle as bad as they.

20. And the skinny, bad-looking cows devoured the seven fat cows that came up first.

- 21. And they went into their stomachs, but one would not know that they went into their stomachs, for they looked as bad as at the beginning. Then I woke up.
- 22. And I saw in my dream, and behold, seven ears of grain came up on one stalk, full and good.
- 23. And behold, seven ears of grain, withered and thin, blasted by the east wind, sprouted after them.
- 24. And the thin ears swallowed the seven good ears. And I told it to the magicians, but there was no one to interpret it for me.
- 25. Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "Pharaoh's dream, it is one; God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do.
- 26. The seven goodly cows, they are seven years. And the seven good ears of grain, they are seven years. It is one dream.
- 27. And the seven gaunt, bad-looking cows that came up after them, they are seven years. And the seven worthless ears of grain blasted by the east wind, they are seven years of famine.
- 28. This is the reason I said to Pharaoh, 'God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do.'
- 29. Behold, seven years of great abundance are coming in all the land of Egypt.
- 30. And seven years of famine will come after them, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine will devour the land.
- 31. And the abundance in the land will not be remembered because of the famine that will follow, for it will be very severe.
- 32. And in as much as the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice, the thing is settled with God, and God is hastening to do it.

33. Now then, let Pharaoh look for a man of understanding and wisdom, and set him over the land of Egypt.

- 34. Let Pharaoh act, and appoint overseers over the land, and fifth⁵⁴ the land of Egypt during the seven years of plenty.
- 35. And let them gather all the food from these seven coming good years, and let them heap up grain under the hand of Pharaoh for food in the cities, and let them store it.
- 36. And let the food be for a store for the land for the seven years of famine which will be in the land of Egypt, and do not let the land be destroyed by the famine."
- 37. And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all of his servants.
- 38. And Pharaoh said to his servants, "Will we find a man like this, in whom is the spirit of God?"
- 39. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God made known all this to you, there is no one as understanding and wise as you.
- 40. You will be over my house, and at your command, all of my people will yield. Only on the throne will I be greater than you."
- 41. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Look, I have set you over all the land of Egypt."
- 42. And Pharaoh took his ring off his hand and put it on Joseph's hand, and he dressed him in garments of fine Egyptian linen. And he put a gold chain around his neck.
- 43. And Pharaoh had him ride in his second chariot. And they cried out before him, "Bow down!" And he put him over all the land of Egypt.

44. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, and without you, no man will lift his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt."

- 45. And Pharaoh called Joseph's name, Zaphnath-Paeneah. And he gave him Asanath, daughter of Poti-phera, priest of On, for a wife. And Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.
- 46. And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from before Pharaoh and went through all the land of Egypt.
- 47. And during the seven years of plenty, the land produced by handfuls.
- 48. And for seven years, he gathered all the food that was in the land of Egypt and stored the food in the cities; he stored inside the city the food from the field that was around it.
- 49. And Joseph heaped up grain like the sand of the sea. It was so much that he stopped counting it, for it was beyond measure.
- 50. There were two sons born to Joseph before the time of famine came, whom Asanath, daughter of Poti-phera, priest of On, bore to him.
- 51. And Joseph called the name of his firstborn Manasseh⁵⁵ (for he said, "God has made me forget all of my trouble, and all of my father's house).
- 52. And he called the name of the second one, Ephraim⁵⁶ (for he said, "God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction).
- 53. And the seven years of abundance that were in the land of Egypt came to an end.

54. And the seven years of famine began to come just as Joseph said. And the famine was in every land, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

- 55. And all the land of Egypt was hungry, and the people cried to Pharaoh for bread, and Pharaoh said to all of Egypt, "Go to Joseph. Whatever he tells you, do it."
- 56. And the famine was on the face of the whole earth, and Joseph opened all the storehouses that had grain in them, and he sold grain to the Egyptians. And the famine was severe in the land of Egypt.
- 57. And all the earth came to Egypt, to Joseph, to buy grain, for the famine was severe in all the earth.

- 1. And Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, so Jacob said to his sons, "Why are you looking at each other?"
- 2. And he said, "Behold, I hear that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy grain for us from there, so we may live and not die!"
- 3. So, ten of Joseph's brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt.
- 4. But Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with his brothers, for he said, "Lest harm befall him."
- 5. And the sons of Israel came to buy grain along with others who were coming, for the famine was in the land of Canaan.
- 6. And Joseph was the ruler over the land; he was the one selling grain to all the people of the earth. And Joseph's brothers came and bowed themselves to him, faces to the ground.
- 7. And Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but he acted toward them as if he were a stranger and spoke harsh things to them. And he said to them, "Where do - you come from?" And they said, "From the land of Canaan to buy food."

- 8. And Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him.
- 9. And Joseph remembered the dreams that he dreamed about them. And he said to them, "You are spies! You have come to see the bareness of the land!"
- 10. But they said to him, "No, my lord! Your servants have come to buy food.
- 11. All of us, we are the sons of one man. We are honest men. Your servants are not spies."
- 12. And he said to them, "No! But you have come to see the bareness of the land!"
- 13. And they said, "Your servants are twelve brothers. We are the sons of one man in the land of Canaan, but behold, the youngest is with our father today, and the other is dead."
- 14. But Joseph said to them, "It is what I told you, 'You are spies!'
- 15. By this you will be tested: as Pharaoh lives, you shall not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here.
- 16. Send one of you and let him bring your brother, and you will be bound, and so let your words be put to the test, whether there be any truth in you; and if not, as Pharaoh lives, surely you are spies!"
- 17. Then he put them into custody for three days.
- 18. But on the third day Joseph said to them, "Do this and live, for I fear God.
- 19. If you are honest men, let one of your brothers be bound in your prison house, and you, go, take grain to your households because of the famine.

20. And you will bring your youngest brother to me so that your words be confirmed, and you shall not die." And they did so.

- 21. And each said to his brother, "We are surely guilty because of our brother; we saw the anguish of his soul when he begged us, but we would not listen. That is why this trouble has come upon us."
- 22. Then Reuben answered them saying, "Did I not tell you saying, 'Do not sin against the youth,' and you would not listen? And now look, his blood is being required!"
- 23. But they did not know that Joseph understood them, for an interpreter had been between them.
- 24. And he went away from them and wept, but he returned to them and spoke to them. And he took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.
- 25. And Joseph commanded that they fill their vessels with grain, and return their silver, each into his bag, and give them food for the journey. And thus he did for them.
- 26. And they loaded their grain onto their donkeys and left.
- 27. And one of them opened his sack at the khan to give feed to his donkey, and he saw his money, and behold, it was at the opening of his sack.
- 28. And he said to his brothers, "My money has been restored! And also, look, it was in my sack!" And their hearts sank, and they were afraid, each saying to his brother, "What is this that God has done to us?"
- 29. And they came to Jacob their father, to the land of Canaan, and they told him everything that had happened to them, saying,
- 30. "The man who is the lord of the land spoke harsh things to us, and he held us as spies in the land.
- 31. And we told him, 'We are honest men. We are not spies.

32. We are twelve brothers, sons of our father. One is dead, but the youngest is with our father today in the land of Canaan.'

- 33. And the man, the lord of the land, said to us, 'By this I will know that you are honest men: Leave one of your brothers with me, and for the famine, take grain, and go to your homes.
- 34. But bring your little brother to me, and I will know that you are not spies, but that you are honest men. I will give your brother to you, and you will trade in the land."
- 35. And it came to pass that as they were emptying their sacks, behold, each one's bag of silver was in his sack. And they saw their bags of silver, they and their father, and they were afraid.
- 36. And Jacob, their father, said to them, "You have bereaved me! Joseph is no more; Simeon is no more; and Benjamin you will take away! Everything is against me!"
- 37. And Reuben spoke to his father, saying, "You may kill my two sons if I do not return him to you. Put him in my hand, and I will return him to you."
- 38. And he said, "My son will not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he alone is left. If harm should come to him on the journey that you take, you will make my hoary head go down to Sheol in sorrow."

- 1. And the famine was severe in the land.
- 2. And it came to pass that when they had finished eating the grain which they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, "Return! Buy for us a little food."

3. And Judah said to him, "The man strictly warned us saying, 'You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.'

- 4. If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy food for you.
- 5. But if you will not send him, we will not go down, for the man said to us, 'You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.'"
- 6. And Israel said, "Why did you do evil to me, to tell the man that you have another brother?"
- 7. And they said, "The man asked in detail about us and our family, saying, 'Is your father still alive?' and 'Do you have a brother?' And we answered him accordingly. How would we have possibly known that he would say, 'Bring down your brother'?"
- 8. And Judah said to Israel, his father, "Send the young man with me, and let us rise up and go so that we may live and not die, both we, and you, and our children.
- 9. I will be a guarantee for him. You may require him from my hand. If I do not bring him to you and set him before you, I will bear the blame of sinning against you forever.
- 10. If we hadn't delayed, we could have come back twice by now."
- 11. And Israel their father said to them, "If it must be so, then do this. Take some of the best produce of the land in your vessels, and carry down to the man a gift: a little balm, a little honey, spices and myrrh, and pistachios and almonds.
- 12. And take twice as much silver in your hand, and the silver that was returned in the mouth of your sacks, carry it back. Maybe it was an error.
- 13. And take your brother and rise up and return to the man.

14. And may God Almighty give you mercy before the man, and may he send back with you your other brother and Benjamin. And I, if I am bereaved, I am bereaved."

- 15. And the men took this gift, and they took double money in their hand and Benjamin. And they rose up and went down to Egypt, and they stood before Joseph.
- 16. And Joseph saw Benjamin with them, and he said to the one over his house, "Bring the men to the house and slaughter an animal and make ready, for the men will eat with me at midday."
- 17. And the man did as Joseph had said, and the man brought the men to Joseph's house.
- 18. And the men were afraid, for they were brought to Joseph's house. And they said, "We are being brought in because of the silver that was returned in our sacks the first time, that he may attack us and fall upon us and take our donkeys and us for slaves."
- 19. And they approached the man who was over Joseph's house, and they spoke to him at the door of the house.
- 20. And they said, "My lord, we really did come down the first time to buy food.
- 21. And it came to pass that when we came to the khan and opened our sacks, behold, each man's silver was in the mouth of his sack, our silver in its full weight. And we have brought it back with us.
- 22. And we have brought down more silver in our hand to buy food. We do not know who put our silver in our sacks."
- 23. And he said, "Peace to you. Do not fear. Your God, the God of your father, has given you treasure in your sacks. Your silver came to me." And he brought Simeon out to them.

24. Then he brought the men to Joseph's house. And he gave them water, and they washed their feet, and he provided feed for their donkeys.

- 25. And they prepared the gift for when Joseph came at midday, for they heard that they would eat bread then.
- 26. And Joseph came home, and they brought to him, in the house, the gift that was in their hand. And they bowed on the ground to him.
- 27. And he asked them of their welfare, and he said, "How is your father's health, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?"
- 28. And they said, "Your servant, our father, is well. He is still alive." And they bowed down and prostrated themselves.
- 29. And he lifted up his eyes and saw Benjamin his brother, the son of his mother, and he said, "Is this your little brother that you told me about?" And he said, "May God show favor to you, my son."
- 30. And Joseph hurried away, for he was deeply moved for his brother, and he sought for a place to weep. And he went into a private room and wept there.
- 31. Then he washed his face and went out, and he refrained himself and said, "Set out bread!"
- 32. And they set out a place for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians who were eating with him by themselves (for the Egyptians cannot eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination in Egypt).
- 33. And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth. And the men looked at each other in astonishment.
- 34. And one carried portions from before him to them. And Benjamin's portion was five hands more than the portions of all of them. And they drank and were drunk with him.

- 1. And he commanded the one over his house, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with as much food as they can lift.

 And put each one's silver in the mouth of his sack.
- 2. Also, put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the youngest one's sack, and the money for his grain." And he did according to the word that Joseph spoke.
- 3. At morning light, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys.
- 4. They left the city, and were not far away, and Joseph said to the one over his house, "Rise up, pursue after the men, and overtake them, and say to them, 'Why do you reward evil for good?
- 5. Is this not what my lord drinks from and with it he divines? You have done evil in what you have done."
- 6. And so, he overtook them and spoke those words to them.
- 7. And they said to him, "Why does my lord say such things? Be it far from your servants to do such a thing.
- 8. Behold, the silver that we found in the mouth of our sacks we brought back to you from the land of Canaan. How then would we steal silver or gold from your lord's house?
- 9. With whichever of your servants it is found, let him die, and we will also become slaves to my lord."
- 10. And he said, "Let it be according to your words, the one that it is found with will be to me a slave, but you will be free."
- 11. And they hastened, and each lowered his sack to the ground, and each one opened his sack.

12. And he searched beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest. And the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

- 13. And they tore their clothes, and each one loaded his donkey, and they returned to the city.
- 14. And Judah and his brothers came into Joseph's house, and he was still there, and they fell before him on the ground.
- 15. And Joseph said to them, "What is this deed that you have done? Do you not know that a man such as I can certainly divine?"
- 16. And Judah said, "What can we say to my lord? What can we say and how can we clear ourselves? God has uncovered the transgression of your slaves. And now we are slaves to my lord, both we and the one in whose hand the cup was found."
- 17. But he said, "Be it far from me to do that! The man in whose hand the cup was found, he will be my slave, but you, go up to your father in peace."
- ¶18. But Judah approached him, and said, "My lord, please let your slave speak a word in the ears of my lord, and let not your anger burn against your slave, because you are as Pharaoh.
- 19. My lord asked his slaves, saying, 'Do you have a father or a brother?'
- 20. And we said to my lord, 'We have an elderly father and a youth of his old age. And his brother died, and he alone remains of his mother, and his father loves him.'
- 21. And you said to your slaves, 'You bring him down to me, and let me set my eyes on him.'
- 22. And we said to my lord, 'The young man cannot leave his father; if he leaves his father, he will die.'

23. And you said to your slaves, 'If your little brother does not come down with you, you will not see my face again.'

- 24. And it happened that we went up to your servant, my father, and we told him the words of my lord.
- 25. Then, our father said, 'Return to buy a little food for us.'
- 26. And we said, 'We cannot go down; we will go down if our youngest brother is with us, for we cannot see the face of the man if our youngest brother is not with us.'
- 27. And your servant, my father, said to us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons.
- 28. And one went out from me, and I said, "Surely he is torn into pieces," and I have not seen him since.
- 29. And if you now take this one also from before my face and harm comes to him, you will bring down my grey head in sorrow to Sheol.'
- 30. And now, when I come to your servant, my father, and the youth is not with us, and his soul is bound with his soul,
- 31. he will die when he sees that the young man isn't with us, and your servants will bring the grey head of our father, your servant, to Sheol in sorrow.
- 32. For your servant became the guarantee for the youth with my father, saying, 'If I do not return him to you, I will forever bear the blame of sinning against my father.'
- 33. And now, please! Let your servant remain instead of the youth as a slave to my lord, and let the youth go up with his brothers.
- 34. For how can I go up to my father and the young man not be with me? Lest I see the evil that will befall my father?"

- 1. And Joseph was not able to control himself before all those standing by him. And he cried out, "Get everyone out! Away from me!" And not a man stood with him while Joseph made himself known to his brothers.
- 2. And he wept aloud, and the Egyptians and Pharaoh's household heard it.
- 3. And Joseph said to his brothers, ⁵⁷ "I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?" And his brothers were not able to answer him because they were terrified at his presence.
- 4. And Joseph said to his brothers, "Please, come near me." And they came near. And he said, "I am Joseph your brother; me, whom you sold into Egypt.
- 5. Now, don't be sorry, and don't be angry with yourselves because you sold me here, for God sent me before you to save life!
- 6. For these two years, the famine has been in the midst of the land, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest.
- 7. And God sent me ahead of you to preserve a remnant on the earth for you and to bring about a great deliverance for you.
- 8. So now, it was not you who sent me here, but God, and He has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord over all his house, and ruler over all the land of Egypt.
- 9. Hurry! Go up to my father and say to him, 'Thus says your son Joseph, "God has made me lord over all of Egypt. Come down to me! Do not delay!
- 10. You will live in the land of Goshen, and you will be near me, you, and your sons, and your sons' sons, and your flocks, and your cattle, and all that you have.

11. And I will take good care of you there, for there will be five more years of famine, lest you, your house, and all that belongs to you waste away.'

- 12. And behold, your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that it is my mouth that is talking to you!
- 13. And tell my father of all my glory in Egypt and all that you have seen. Now hurry to bring my father down here!"
- 14. And he fell on the neck of Benjamin his brother and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck.
- 15. And he kissed all his brothers and wept on them, and after that, his brothers talked with him.
- 16. And the report was heard in Pharaoh's house, "Joseph's brothers have come!" And it was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants.
- 17. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers, 'Do this: load up your animals and depart. Go to the land of Canaan,
- 18. and take your father and your households and come to me, and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.'
- 19. And you are commanded to tell them, 'Do this: take for yourselves from the land of Egypt wagons for your children and your wives, and take up your father and come!
- 20. And don't be concerned about your vessels, for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours."
- 21. And the sons of Israel did so. And Joseph gave them wagons at the command of Pharaoh, and he gave them provisions for the road.
- 22. He gave all of them, to each one, changes of garments, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of garments.

23. And to his father he sent this: ten donkeys bearing good things of Egypt, and ten she-asses bearing grain, and bread and food for his father for the road.

- 24. And he sent his brothers away, and they went, but he said to them, "Do not quarrel on the way."
- 25. And they went up from Egypt, and they came into the land of Canaan to Jacob their father.
- 26. And they told him, saying, "Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt." And his heart stopped for he could not believe them.
- 27. And they told him all the words of Joseph that he had spoken to them, and he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him, and the spirit of Jacob their father revived.
- 28. And Israel said, "It is enough! Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."

- 1. And Israel set out with all that he had, and he went to Beersheba and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.
- 2. And God spoke to Israel in visions during the night, and He said, "Jacob! Jacob!" And he said, "Here I am."
- 3. And He said, "I am God, the God of your father. Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you a great nation there.
- 4. I will surely go down to Egypt with you, and I will also surely bring you back up. And Joseph will put his hand on your eyes."
- 5. And Jacob rose up from Beersheba, and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their children and wives, in the carts that Pharaoh sent to carry him.

6. And they took their cattle and their goods which they had gained in the land of Canaan. And Jacob and all his seed with him entered into Egypt.

- 7. His sons and his sons' sons were with him. And his daughters and his sons' daughters, and all his seed he brought with him to Egypt.
- ¶8. And these are the names of the sons of Israel who went into Egypt, Jacob and his sons. The firstborn of Jacob was Reuben.
- 9. The sons of Reuben: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.
- 10. The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, son of a Canaanite woman.
- 11. And the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
- 12. And the sons of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Pharez, and Zarah. But Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez were Hezron and Hamul.
- 13. And the sons of Issachar: Tola, Phuvah, Job, and Shimron.
- 14. And the sons of Zebulon were Sered, Elon, and Jahleel.
- 15. These were the sons of Leah whom she bore to Jacob in Padan-aram, and Dinah, his daughter. All the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty-three.
- 16. And the sons of Gad: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli.
- 17. And the sons of Asher were Jimnah, Ishuah, Ishui, Beriah, and Serah their sister. And the sons of Beriah were Heber, and Malchiel.
- 18. These were the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter. And she bore these sixteen souls to Jacob.
- 19. And the sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife: Joseph and Benjamin.

20. And in the land of Egypt, Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph, whom Asanath, daughter of Poti-phera, priest of On, bore to him.

- 21. And the sons of Benjamin: Bela, Becher, Ashbeel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.
- 22. These are the sons of Rachel who were born to Jacob. All the souls were fourteen.
- 23. And the son of Dan: Hushim.
- 24. And the sons of Naphtali: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.
- 25. These are the sons of Bilhah whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, and she bore these to Jacob. All the souls were seven.
- 26. All the souls who went with Jacob into Egypt, who came from his loins, except for the wives of Jacob's sons, all the souls were sixty-six.
- 27. And Joseph's sons who were born to him in Egypt were two souls. Every soul that was part of Jacob's family who went into Egypt were seventy.
- ¶28. And he sent Judah before him to lead him to Goshen to Joseph, and they entered the land of Goshen.
- 29. And Joseph prepared his chariot and went to Goshen to meet Israel his father, and he presented himself to him, and he fell on his neck and wept on his neck for a long time.
- 30. And Israel said to Joseph, "I can die, now that I've seen your face, for you are still alive."
- 31. And Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and report to Pharaoh, and I will say to him, 'My brothers and my father's household who were in the land of Canaan have come to me.

32. And the men are shepherds of flocks, for they are herdsmen, and they have brought their flocks, their herds, and all that they have.'

- 33. And then when Pharaoh calls you and says, 'What is your occupation?'
- 34. you shall say, 'Your servants, we and our fathers, have been herdsmen from our youth until now,' so that you may dwell in the land of Goshen." (For every shepherd of flocks is an abomination in Egypt.)

- 1. And Joseph went and told Pharaoh, and said, "My father, and my brothers, and their flocks and their herds, and all that they possess have come from the land of Canaan, and behold, they are in the land of Goshen.
- 2. And he took five men from among his brothers, and he set them before Pharaoh.
- 3. And Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?" And they said to Pharaoh, "Your servants tend flocks, both we and our fathers."
- 4. And they said to Pharaoh, "We have come to dwell for a time in the land, for there is no pasture for your servant's flocks because the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. But now, please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen."
- 5. And Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, "Your father and your brothers are come to you.
- 6. The land of Egypt is before you. Settle your father and your brothers in the best of the land. Let them live in the land of Goshen, and if you discern that there are men of ability among them, make them chief herdsmen over what belongs to me."
- 7. And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and he stood him before Pharaoh. And Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

8. And Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How many are the days of the years of your life?"

- 9. And Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The days of the years of my sojournings are one hundred and thirty years. The days of the years of my life have been few and evil. And they have not reached the days of the years of the lives of my fathers in the days of their sojournings."
- 10. And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and he went out from before Pharaoh.
- 11. And Joseph settled his father and his brothers, and he gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, the land of Raamses, as Pharaoh commanded.
- 12. And Joseph provided his father, and his brothers, and all his father's household with food for the children.
- 13. And there was no food in all the land, for the famine was very severe, and the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan fainted because of the famine.
- 14. And Joseph collected all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan for the grain that they were buying. And Joseph brought the money into the house of Pharaoh.
- 15. And the money was all spent in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, and all of Egypt came to Joseph saying, "Give us food! Why should we die before you? The money is gone."
- 16. And Joseph said, "Bring your livestock, and I will give you provender for your livestock since the money is gone."
- 17. And they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them food for the horses, and the livestock of the flocks, and the livestock of the herds, and the donkeys. That year he relieved them with food in exchange for all of their livestock.

18. And that year ended, and they came to him the second year, and they said to him, "We cannot conceal from my lord that the money has run out, and the livestock and animals are my lord's. Nothing remains before my lord except our bodies and our lands.

- 19. Why should we perish before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for food, and let us, we and our land, become slaves to Pharaoh. Provide seed that we may live and not die, and the land not be desolate."
- 20. And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for every one of the Egyptians sold his field because the famine was hard on them, and the land became Pharaoh's.
- 21. And as for the people, he moved them to the cities, from one end of Egypt's border to the other.
- 22. Only the land of the priests he did not buy, for there was a portion for the priests from Pharaoh. And they ate their portion that Pharaoh gave to them. Therefore, they did not sell their land.
- 23. And Joseph said to the people, "Behold, I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh. Here is your seed that you may sow the land."
- 24. And it shall be that in harvest, you will give a fifth part to Pharaoh, but four parts will be yours for seed of the field, and for your food, and those in your houses, and food for your children.
- 25. And they said, "You have saved our lives. Let us find grace in the eyes of my lord. We will be slaves for Pharaoh."
- 26. And Joseph made it a statute until this day over the land of Egypt for Pharaoh to receive a fifth part. Only the land of the priests is excepted; it did not become Pharaoh's.

27. Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen, and they owned it, and were fruitful and multiplied greatly.

- 28. And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So, the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were one hundred and forty-seven years.
- 29. And the days drew near for Israel to die, and he called for his son Joseph, and he said to him, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, do this. Please put your hand under my thigh, and deal with me kindly and truly. Please do not bury me in Egypt.
- 30. Let me lie with my fathers. Carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial-place." And he said, "I will do according to your word."
- 31. And he said, "Swear to me." And he swore to him. And Israel bowed down at the head of the bed.

- ¶1. And it came to pass after these things that one told Joseph, "Behold, your father is sick." And he took his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, with him.
- 2. And one spoke to Jacob, and he said, "Look, your son Joseph has come to you." And Israel strengthened himself and sat up on his bed.
- 3. And Jacob said to Joseph, "The Almighty God appeared to me in Luz in the land of Canaan, and He blessed me.
- 4. And He said to me, 'Here I am. I will make you fruitful, and I will multiply you, and I will make you a multitude of nations, and I will give this land to your seed after you as an everlasting inheritance.'
- 5. And now, your two sons who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you into Egypt, they are mine. Ephraim and Manasseh will be mine, like Reuben and Simeon.

6. And your offspring that you have fathered after them will be yours; they will be listed in their inheritance instead of their brothers.

- 7. And when I came from Padan, Rachel died on me, on the way, in the land of Canaan, with only a little way to come to Ephrath. And I buried her there, on the road of Ephrath" (which is Bethlehem).
- 8. And Israel saw Joseph's sons and he said, "Who are these?"
- 9. And Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons whom God gave me here." And he said, "Now, bring them to me, and I will bless them."
- 10. And Israel's eyes were weak because of age, and he could not see. And Joseph brought them near to him, and he kissed them and embraced them.
- 11. And Israel said to Joseph, "I did not expect to see your face, but look, God has let me see your seed as well."
- 12. And Joseph brought them out from his knees, and he bowed himself on his face to the ground.
- 14. And Israel stretched out his right hand and put it on Ephraim's head, though he was the younger, and his left on Manasseh's head, knowingly crossing his hands, for Manasseh was the firstborn.
- 15. And he blessed Joseph, and said, "The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked is the God who has been my shepherd since I was born until this day.
- 16. The angel who redeemed me from all evil will bless the young men, and let my name be called on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, and they shall increase to a multitude in the midst of the land."

17. And Joseph saw that his father put his right hand on Ephraim's head, and it displeased him, and he took hold of his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's head, to the head of Manasseh.

- 18. And Joseph said to his father, "Not that way, my father, for this is the firstborn. Put your right hand on his head."
- 19. But his father refused and said, "I know, my son. I know. He will also become a people, and he will also be great. But his little brother will be greater than he, and his seed will become the fullness of the nations."
- 20. And he blessed them that day, saying, "By you will Israel utter a blessing, saying, 'May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh." And he put Ephraim before Manasseh.
- 21. And Israel said to Joseph, "Behold, I am dying, but God will be with you, and He will bring you back to the land of your fathers.
- 22. And I have given you one portion over your brothers which I took from the hand of the Amorites with my sword and my bow."
