Genesis

Genesis 1

- ¶1. In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth.
2. And the earth was formless and empty, and darkness was on the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God hovered over the surface of the water.
3. And God said, "Let there be light!" And there was light.
4. And God saw that the light was good, and God separated the light from the darkness.
5. And God called the light "day", and He called the darkness "night". So, there was evening, and there was morning, the first day.
- ¶6. And God said, "Let there be an expanse in the midst of the water, so that it divides the water from the water!"
7. And God made the expanse, and it separated the water that was under the expanse from the water that was above the expanse. And so it was.
8. And God called the expanse "heaven". So, there was evening, and there was morning, the second day.
- ¶9. And God said, "Let the water under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let dry land appear." And so it was.
10. And God called the dry land "earth", and He called the gathered water "seas". And God saw that it was good.
11. And God said, "Let the earth bring forth vegetation, the seed-bearing plant, and the fruit tree bearing fruit whose seed is in it, after its kind, on the earth." And so it was.
12. And the earth produced vegetation, the seed-bearing plant after its kind, the tree producing fruit whose seed is in it, after its kind. And God saw that it was good.
13. So, there was evening, and there was morning, the third day.
- ¶14. And God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of heaven to separate the day from the night. And let them be for signs, seasons, days, and years.
15. And let them be for lights in the expanse of heaven to shine on the earth." And so it was.
16. And God made two great lights, the greater light for the realm of day, and the lesser light and the stars for the realm of night.
17. And God placed them in the expanse of heaven to shine on the earth,
18. to rule by day and by night and to divide the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good.
19. So, there was evening, and there was morning, the fourth day.
- ¶20. And God said, "Let the water teem with a multitude of living creatures, and let flying creatures fly over the land upon the face of the expanse of heaven."

21. And God created huge sea-creatures, and the soul of every living thing that moves and swarms in the water after their kind, and every winged flying creature after their kind. And God saw that it was good.
 22. And God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the water in the seas, and let flying creatures multiply on the earth.”
 23. So, there was evening, and there was morning, the fifth day.
- ¶24. And God said, “Let the earth bring forth the living soul, after its kind—livestock, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth, after its kind.” And so it was.
25. And God made the beast of the earth after its kind, and the livestock after its kind, and what creeps on the ground after its kind. And God saw that it was good.
- ¶26. And God said, “Let us make mankind in our image, after our likeness, and let them rule over the creature that swims in the sea, and the creature that flies in the sky, and the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every living thing that moves about on the land.
27. And so, God created man in His own image; in the image of God, He created him. He created them male and female.
 28. And God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth, and subdue it. And have dominion over the creature that swims in the sea, and the creature that flies in the sky, and every creature that creeps about on the land.”
 29. And God said, “Behold, I have given to you every seed-bearing plant that is on the face of the whole earth, and every tree whose fruit bears the seed of a tree, for your food.
 30. And to every creature on land, to every creature that flies in the sky, and to everything that creeps on the ground in which is a living soul, I have given every green plant for food.” And so it was.
 31. And God saw all that He had made, and behold, it was very good. So, there was evening, and there was morning, the sixth day.

Genesis 2

- ¶1. And heaven and earth were completed, and all their host.
2. And on the seventh day, God finished His work which He had made. And He rested on the seventh day from all His work that He did.
 3. And God blessed the seventh day and made it holy because in it, He rested from His work that God did in creation.
- ¶4. These are the origins of heaven and earth when they were created, in the day Jehovah¹ God made earth and heaven.

5. And no plant of the field was yet on the earth, and no herbage of the field had yet sprouted, because Jehovah God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no man to work the ground.
6. But a mist went up from the earth, and it watered all of the ground.
7. And Jehovah God formed the man from dirt of the ground, and He breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living soul.
8. And Jehovah God planted a garden in Eden, eastward, and there He put the man that He had formed.
9. And Jehovah God caused to sprout from the ground every tree that was pleasant to the sight and good for food, and the tree of life was in the middle of the garden, as well as the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.
10. And a river went out from Eden to water the garden, and from there, it was divided and became four heads.
11. The name of the first was Pishon, which winds through the land of Havilah, where there is gold
12. (the gold of that land is good), and bdellium and the onyx stone are there.
13. And the name of the second river was Gihon, which borders all the land of Cush.
14. And the name of the third river was Hiddekel, going east of Assyria. And the fourth river was the Euphrates.
15. And Jehovah God took the man and settled him in the garden of Eden, to tend and to look after it.
16. And Jehovah God commanded the man, saying, “You may eat from any of the trees of the garden.
17. However, from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you must not eat, for on the day you eat from it, you will certainly die.”
18. Then Jehovah God said, “It is not good for the man to live by himself. I will make a helper fit for him.”
19. And Jehovah God formed from the ground all creatures that live in the field and all creatures that fly in the sky. Then He brought each to the man to see what he would call it, and whatever the man called the creature, that was its name.
20. So, the man gave names to all the beasts and creatures that fly in the sky, and to all the animals of the field, but as for the man, He found no helper fit for him.
21. And Jehovah God caused a deep sleep to come over the man, and he slept. Then He took one of his ribs, and He closed up the flesh in its place.
22. And Jehovah God made the rib that He had taken from the man into a woman. And He brought her to the man.
23. And the man said, “This one, at last, is bone from my bones and flesh from my flesh. This one shall be called ‘woman’ because she was taken out of man.”
24. For this reason, a man shall leave his father and mother and cling to his wife, and they shall become one flesh.
25. And the man and his wife were both naked, but they were not ashamed.

Genesis 3

1. Now the serpent was more cunning than all of the creatures of the field that Jehovah God had made. And he said to the woman, “Did God really tell you not to eat from every tree of the garden?”
2. And the woman said to the serpent, “We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden,
3. but of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, God said, ‘You shall not eat from it nor touch it, lest you die.’”
4. And the serpent said to the woman, “You will certainly not die.
5. For God knows that in the day you eat from it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”
6. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise², she took some of its fruit and ate it. Then she also gave it to her husband with her, and he ate it.
7. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they realized that they were naked. So, they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.
8. Then they heard the voice of Jehovah God as He walked about in the garden in the evening breeze. And the man and his wife hid themselves from the face of Jehovah God among the trees of the garden.
9. And Jehovah God called to the man and said to him, “Where are you?”
10. And he said, “I heard your voice in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked, and I hid myself.”
11. And He said, “Who told you that you were naked? Did you eat from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?”
12. And the man said, “The wife that you gave me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate.”
13. And Jehovah God said to the woman, “What is this that you have done?” And the woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.”
14. And Jehovah God said to the serpent, “Because you have done this, you are more cursed than all cattle, and more than any beast of the field. You shall go about on your belly, and you will eat dust all the days of your life.
15. And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed. He will crush your head, and you will bruise his heel.”
- ¶16. To the woman, He said, “I will greatly multiply your pain and your conception. With pain will you bear children. And your desire shall be toward your husband, and he shall rule over you.”

- ¶17. To the man, He said, “Inasmuch as you listened to the voice of your wife and ate from the tree from which I commanded you not to eat, the ground is cursed because of you. By hard labor shall you eat, all the days of your life,
- 18. for it will bring forth thorns and thistles. And you shall eat the plants of the field.
- 19. By the sweat of your face shall you eat food until you return to the ground, for you were taken from it. You were dirt, and to dirt shall you return.”
- 20. And the man called his wife, Eve³, for she was the mother of all living.
- 21. And Jehovah God made tunics of skin for the man and his wife, and He clothed them.

- ¶22. And Jehovah God said, “Behold, the man has become like one of us, to know good and evil. Now, lest he stretch out his hand to take and eat from the tree of life as well, and live forever . . .”
- 23. Then Jehovah God sent him away from the garden of Eden to work the ground from which he was taken.
- 24. And He drove the man out, and on the east side of the garden of Eden, He placed cherubim and a flaming sword which turned in every direction to guard the way to the tree of life.

Genesis 4

- ¶1. And Adam⁴ knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and bore Cain⁵. For she said, “I have gotten a man with the help of GOD.”⁶
- 2. And again, she gave birth to his brother, Abel.⁷ And Abel became a shepherd of the flock, and Cain was a worker of the ground.
- 3. And it happened after some time, that Cain brought the fruit of the ground as an offering for Jehovah.
- 4. And Abel brought his also, the firstlings of his flock and their fat. And Jehovah accepted Abel and his gift,
- 5. but He did not accept Cain and his gift. And Cain became very angry, and his countenance fell.
- 6. And Jehovah said to Cain, “Why are you angry? And why is your countenance fallen?
- 7. If you do good, will you not be accepted? (But if you do not do good, sin is crouching at the door.) And his desire will be toward you, and you will rule over him.”
- 8. And Cain spoke to Abel his brother, and it came to pass when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against his brother Abel and killed him.
- 9. And Jehovah said to Cain, “Where is Abel, your brother?” And he said, “I don’t know. Am I my brother’s keeper?”

⁷ Hebrew: Hevel, meaning “vapor” or “breath”.

10. And God said, “What have you done? The voice of your brother’s blood is crying out to me from the ground.
11. Therefore, you are now cursed from the ground which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood at your hand,
12. so that when you work the ground, it will not produce abundantly for you. But you will be a wanderer and a fugitive in the earth.”
13. And Cain said to Jehovah, “My punishment is greater than I can bear.
14. For you have driven me off the face of the land today, and I will be hidden from your face. And I will be a wanderer and a fugitive in the earth. And it will happen that anyone who finds me will kill me.”
15. And Jehovah said to him, “Then, whoever slays Cain shall suffer vengeance, seven-fold.” And Jehovah put a mark on Cain so that no one who found him would kill him.
16. So Cain went out from before Jehovah and dwelled in the land of Nod⁸, east of Eden.
17. And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Hanoch. And then he built a city, and he named the city after the name of his son Hanoch.
18. And to Hanoch was born Irad, and Irad fathered Mahujael, and Mahujael fathered Mathushael, and Mathushael fathered Lamech.
19. And Lamech took two wives for himself. The name of the first was Adah, and the name of the second was Zillah.
20. And Adah bore Javal, who became the father of those who dwell in tents and tend cattle.
21. And his brother’s name was Jubal. He was the father of all lyre and flute players.
22. And Zillah also bore Tubal-cain, the fashioner of all copper and iron implements. And Tubal-cain’s sister was Naamah.
23. And Lamech said to his wives, Adah and Zillah, “Hear my voice, you wives of Lamech! Give ear to what I say! I have killed a man for my wound, and a young man for my stripe.
24. If Cain suffered vengeance seven-fold, then Lamech, seventy-seven.”
25. And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son, and she called his name Sheth⁹, for she said, “God has given me another seed in place of Abel, for Cain killed him.”
26. And to Sheth, a son was born also, and he called his name Enosh. At that time, man began to call on a name of Jehovah.¹⁰

Genesis 5

- ¶1. This is the genealogical record of Adam. In the day God created man, He made him in the likeness of God.

2. Male and female, He created them, and He blessed them. And He called their name “man” in the day they were created.
 3. And Adam lived one hundred and thirty years, and he fathered a son in his likeness and his form, and he called his name Sheth.
 4. And the days of Adam after he fathered Sheth were eight hundred years, and he fathered sons and daughters.
 5. And all of the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years, and he died.
- ¶6. And Sheth lived one hundred and five years, and he fathered Enosh.
7. And Sheth lived eight hundred and seven years after he fathered Enosh. And he fathered sons and daughters.
 8. And all of the days of Sheth were nine hundred and twelve years, and he died.
- ¶9. And Enosh lived ninety years, and he fathered Keinan.
10. And Enosh lived eight hundred and fifteen years after he fathered Keinan, and he fathered sons and daughters.
 11. And all of the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years, and he died.
- ¶12. And Keinan lived seventy years, and he fathered Mahalaleel.
13. And Keinan lived eight hundred and forty years after he fathered Mahalaleel, and he fathered sons and daughters.
 14. And all of the days of Keinan were nine hundred and ten years, and he died.
- ¶15. And Mahalaleel lived sixty-five years, and he fathered Jared.
16. And Mahalaleel lived eight hundred and thirty years after he fathered Jared, and he fathered sons and daughters.
 17. And all of the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred and ninety-five years, and he died.
- ¶18. And Jared lived one hundred and sixty-two years, and he fathered Hanoch.
19. And Jared lived eight hundred years after he fathered Hanoch, and he fathered sons and daughters.
 20. And all of the days of Jared were nine hundred and sixty-two years, and he died.
- ¶21. And Hanoch lived sixty-five years, and he fathered Methushelah¹¹.
22. Hanoch walked with God after he fathered Methushelah three hundred years, and he fathered sons and daughters.
 23. And all of the days of Hanoch were three hundred and sixty-five years.
 24. Then Hanoch walked with God and was not, for God took him.
- ¶25. And Methushelah lived one hundred and eighty-seven years, and he fathered Lamech.
26. And Methushelah lived seven hundred and eighty-two years after he fathered Lamech, and he fathered sons and daughters.
 27. And all of the days of Methushelah were nine hundred and sixty-nine years, and he died.

¹¹“Methushelah” means, “at his death, it will be sent”.

- ¶28. And Lamech lived one hundred and eighty-two years, and he fathered a son.
- 29. And he named him Noah¹² saying, “This one will comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands because of the ground that GOD¹³ has cursed.”
- 30. And after Lamech fathered Noah, he lived five hundred and ninety-five years, and he fathered sons and daughters.
- 31. And all of the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy-seven years, and he died.
- ¶32. And Noah was five hundred years old, and he fathered Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Genesis 6

- ¶1. And it came to pass when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them,
- 2. that the sons of God saw that the daughters of man were beautiful to look at, and they took wives for themselves, whoever they chose.
- 3. And Jehovah said, “My spirit will not contend with man forever, inasmuch as he is flesh. His days will be one hundred and twenty years.”
- 4. There were giants on earth in those days (and even after that) when the sons of God went in to the daughters of man, and they bore them children. They were mighty men, men of renown from long ago.
- ¶5. And Jehovah saw that man’s wickedness was great on the earth and that every thought and intention of his heart was altogether evil every day.
- 6. And Jehovah regretted that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved to His heart.
- 7. And Jehovah said, “I will wipe man, whom I have created, from off the face of the earth, as well as the beasts, the creeping things, and the flying creatures of the sky. For it grieves me that I have made them.”
- 8. But Noah found favor in the eyes of Jehovah.
- ¶9. These are the generations of Noah. Noah was a righteous man; he was without blemish in his generations. And Noah walked with God.
- 10. And Noah fathered three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
- 11. And the earth was corrupt in God’s sight, and the earth was full of violence.
- 12. And God saw the earth, that behold, it was corrupt, for all flesh had corrupted its way on the earth.
- ¶13. And God said to Noah, “An end of all flesh has come before me because the earth is full of violence because of them. Now, behold, I will wipe them off the face of the earth.

¹² That is, “rest”, or “comfort”

14. Make for yourself an ark of gopher wood. Make compartments in the ark, and cover it with pitch inside and out.
15. And this is how you will make it: three hundred cubits will be the length of the ark, fifty cubits, its width, and thirty cubits, its height.
16. You shall make a window for the ark, and you shall finish it off, a cubit above, and you shall make the door of the ark on the side. With lower, second, and third decks shall you make it.
17. As for me, I am bringing a cataclysm of water upon the earth to destroy all flesh in which is the breath of life. Everything that is on the earth will perish from under heaven.
18. But I will establish my covenant with you, and you shall enter into the ark, you and your sons, and your wife, and your sons' wives with you.
19. And from every living thing of all flesh, you shall bring two of each into the ark to keep alive with you; they shall be male and female—
20. the flying creature after its kind, the beast of the field after its kind, and every creeping thing on the ground after its kind—two from each shall enter in to you, to stay alive.
21. And as for you, take for yourself every food that is eaten, and you shall store it for yourself. And it shall be food for you and for them.”
22. And Noah built it. He did everything as God commanded him.

Genesis 7

1. And Jehovah said to Noah, “Go into the ark, you and all your household, because I have found you to be righteous in this generation.
2. From all the clean beasts of the field, take to you by sevens, the male and his mate, and from the beasts that are not clean, two, the male and his mate,
3. and from the flying creatures of the sky by sevens, male and female, to preserve seed on the face of all the earth,
4. for after seven days, I will cause it to rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights. And I will wipe out every living thing that I have made on the face of the earth.”
5. And Noah did according to all that Jehovah commanded him.
6. Noah was six hundred years old when the flood came upon the earth.
7. And Noah and his sons, and his wife and his sons' wives, went with him into the ark because of the waters of the flood.
8. Of clean beasts of the field, and beasts that are not clean, and flying creatures, and every thing that creeps on the ground,
9. two by two, they came to Noah in the ark, male and female, as God had commanded Noah.
10. And after seven days, the flood-waters came on the earth.

11. In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, in the seventeenth day of the month, on that day, all the fountains of the great deep burst open and the windows of heaven were opened,
12. and the rain came on the earth for forty days and forty nights.
13. In that very same day, Noah, and Shem, Ham, and Japheth, Noah's sons, went into the ark, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons went with them,
14. they and every creature after its kind, and every beast after its kind, and every thing that creeps about on the land after its kind, and every flying creature after its kind, every bird of every sort.
15. And they came in to Noah, into the ark, two by two of all flesh in which was the breath of life,
16. male and female of all flesh entered in. They came as God had commanded him, and Jehovah closed him in.
17. And the flood was forty days on the earth, and the water increased and lifted up the ark, and it rose high above the land.
18. And the waters prevailed, and greatly increased on the earth. And the ark floated on the face of the waters.
19. And the waters prevailed exceedingly on the earth. All the high mountains under heaven were covered.
20. Fifteen cubits and upwards the waters prevailed and covered the mountains.
21. And all flesh that crept about on the earth died—flying creatures, cattle, beasts, all swarming animals that swarm on the earth, and all mankind.
22. Indeed, all died in whose nostrils was the breath of life, everything that was on dry ground.
23. And every living thing on the face of the ground was destroyed—man, cattle, creeping thing, and flying creature of the sky. They were wiped off the earth. Noah alone remained, and those with him in the ark.
24. And the waters prevailed on the earth one hundred and fifty days.

Genesis 8

1. And God remembered Noah, and every beast, and all the cattle that were with him in the ark. And God made a wind pass over the earth, and the waters abated.
2. And the fountains of the deep and the windows of heaven were shut, and the rain from heaven was restrained.
3. And the waters returned from going over the earth, and in returning, the waters decreased for one hundred fifty days.
4. And the ark rested in the seventh month, in the seventeenth day of the month, on the mountains of Ararat.
5. And the waters continued to decrease until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.

6. And it came to pass after forty days that Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made,
 7. and he sent forth a raven, and it went out, and went to and fro until the waters dried up from the earth.
 8. And so, after him, he sent a dove to see if the waters had abated from the surface of the ground,
 9. but the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, and she returned to him, to the ark, because the waters were upon the face of the whole earth. And Noah stretched out his hand, and took her, and brought her in to him in the ark.
 10. And he waited seven more days, and then he again sent the dove out of the ark.
 11. And the dove came in to him in the evening, and behold, a freshly plucked olive tree leaf was in her mouth, and Noah knew that the waters had abated from the earth.
 12. And he waited seven more days, and then, again, he sent the dove, and it did not return to him any more.
 13. It came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, at the beginning of the first month, that the waters were dried up from off the earth, and Noah removed the ark's covering and looked, and behold, the face of the ground was dry.
 14. And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.
- ¶15. And God spoke to Noah, saying,
16. "Leave the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons' wives with you.
 17. Every living thing that is with you of all flesh—flying creatures, and cattle, and every creeping thing that creeps on the ground—bring out with you." And they spread over the earth, and were fruitful, and multiplied on the earth.
 18. And Noah went out, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him.
 19. And every living thing after their kind—every creeping thing, every flying creature, and everything that moves on the earth—went out from the ark.
 20. And Noah built an altar to Jehovah, and he took some of every clean animal and of every clean bird, and he offered burnt offerings on the altar.
 21. And Jehovah smelled the placating aroma, and Jehovah said in his heart, "For man's sake, I will not curse the ground again, for the thought of man's heart is continually evil from his youth. Nor will I again destroy all life the way I have done it.
 22. As long as the earth remains, seed-time and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night will not cease."

Genesis 9

1. And God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth.
2. A fear of you and dread of you will come upon every animal of the earth, and upon every creature that flies in the sky, and on every creeping thing that creeps on the ground, and on all the fish of the sea; they are delivered into your hand.

3. Every creeping thing that lives will be food for you, just like the plants. I have given you everything.
4. Only, do not eat flesh with its lifeblood.
5. And your lifeblood I will surely require; of the hand of every animal and of the hand of man will I require it. By each man's brother will I require the life of the man.
6. Whoever sheds man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed, for He made man in the image of God.
7. Now, be fruitful and multiply, and cover the earth, and multiply on it."

¶8. God also spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying,

9. "And, behold, I am establishing my covenant with you, and with your seed after you,
10. with every living soul that is with you—the flying creature, the beast of the field, and with every living thing of earth that is with you—from all that go out of the ark to every living thing on earth.
11. And I am establishing my covenant with you. Never again will all flesh be cut off by floodwaters, and never again will there be a flood to wipe out the earth."
12. And God said, "This is the sign of the covenant which I am making between me and you and every living soul that is with you, unto all generations:
13. I will set my bow in the cloud, and it will be for a sign of the covenant between me and the earth,
14. so that when I cause a cloud to appear on the earth, the bow will appear in the cloud,
15. and I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living soul of all flesh, and the waters will never again become a flood to destroy all flesh.
16. And the bow shall be in the cloud, and I will look at it to remember the lasting covenant between God and every living soul of all flesh that is on the earth."
17. And God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth."

¶18. And the sons of Noah went from the ark, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And Ham was the father of Canaan.¹⁴

19. These three were the sons of Noah, and from these, all the earth was populated.
20. And Noah became a man of the soil, and he planted a vineyard.
21. And he drank of the wine and was made drunk, and he was uncovered inside his tent.
22. And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw his father naked, and he told his two brothers outside.
23. And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and they put it on their two shoulders and walked behind it, and they covered the nakedness of their father. But their faces were behind the garment so that they would not see their father's nakedness.

¹⁴ From a Hebrew verb meaning "to be humbled" or "be subdued".

24. And Noah came out of his stupor, and he found out what his younger son had done to him.
25. And he said, "Cursed be Canaan! He shall be a servant of servants to his brothers!"
26. And he said, "Blessed be GOD,¹⁵ the God of Shem, and Canaan shall be a servant to him!"
27. And God will enlarge Japheth, and he will dwell in the tents of Shem, but Canaan shall be a servant to him!"
28. And Noah lived three hundred and fifty years after the flood.
29. And all of the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years, and he died.

Genesis 10

- ¶1. And these were the children of Noah's sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And sons were born to them after the flood.
2. The sons of Japheth: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.
 3. And the sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.
 4. And the sons of Javan: Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.
 5. The borders of the nations were divided among these. In their lands, each had their own language for their family in their nations.
 6. And the sons of Ham: Cush,¹⁶ Mizraim,¹⁷ Put, and Canaan.
 7. And the sons of Cush: Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. And the sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.
 8. And Cush fathered Nimrod. He became a mighty man on the earth.
 9. He began to be a mighty hunter before Jehovah. For this reason, it is said, "Like Nimrod, the mighty hunter before Jehovah."
 10. The principal cities of his kingdom were Babel, Erech, Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.
 11. From that land, went Asshur, and he built Nineveh and the city of Rehoboth, and Calah,
 12. and Resen, which is between Nineveh and Calah, which is the great city.
 13. And Mizraim fathered the Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim,
 14. Pathrusim, Casluhim (from there came the Philistim), and Captorim.

¶15. And Canaan fathered Sidon, his firstborn, and Heth,

 16. and the Jebusites, the Amorite, the Girgashite,
 17. the Hivite, the Arkite, the Sinite,
 18. the Arvadite, the Zemarite, and the Hamathite. And afterwards, the families of the Canaanites were scattered.
 19. And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon to Gerar, and from Gaza to Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim as far as Lasha.

¹⁵ See footnote on Genesis 2:4.

¹⁷ Mizraim is Egypt.

20. These were the sons of Ham according to their families, according to their languages, in their lands, in their nations.
- ¶21. And to Shem, father of all the sons of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, were born children.
 22. The sons of Shem: Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, and Aram.¹⁸
 23. And the sons of Aram: Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash.
 24. And Arpachshad fathered Shelah, and Shelah fathered Eber.
 25. And to Eber were born two sons. The name of the first was Peleg¹⁹ because in his days, the earth was divided. And the name of his brother was Joktan.
 26. And Joktan fathered Almodad, Shaleph, Hazarmaveth, Jarah,
 27. Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,
 28. Obal, Abimael, Sheba,
 29. Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan.
 30. And their dwellings were from Mesha to Sephar, a mountain to the east.
 31. These were the sons of Shem according to their families, according to their languages, in their lands, according to their nations.
 32. These were the families of the sons of Noah according to their children, by their nations. And by these were the nations of the earth divided after the flood.

Genesis 11

- ¶1. And all the earth was one language and one speech.
2. And it came to pass that when they journeyed from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and dwelled there.
3. And they said, each one to his neighbor, “Come, let us make bricks and fire them.” And they had brick for stone and bitumen for mortar.
4. And they said, “Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the heavens, that we may make ourselves a name, lest we be scattered over the face of all the earth.”
5. And Jehovah came down to see the city and the tower that the sons of Adam had built.
6. And Jehovah said, “Behold, the people are one, and there is one language for them all, and they have begun to do this. Now, nothing they imagine will be too difficult for them.
7. Come, let us go down and confuse their language so that they will not understand one another’s speech.”
8. And so, Jehovah scattered them from there over the face of the whole earth, and they stopped building the city.

¹⁹ That is, “divided”.

9. This is why its name is called Babel, for there, Jehovah confused the languages of the whole earth, and from there, Jehovah scattered them over the face of the whole earth.
- ¶10. These are the generations of Shem. Shem was one hundred years old, and he fathered Arpachshad two years after the flood.
11. And after he fathered Arpachshad, Shem lived five hundred years, and he fathered sons and daughters.
- ¶12. And Arpachshad lived thirty-five years, and he fathered Shelah.
13. And after he fathered Shelah, Arpachshad lived four hundred and three years, and he fathered sons and daughters.
- ¶14. And Shelah lived thirty years, and he fathered Eber.
15. And after he fathered Eber, Shelah lived four hundred and three years, and he fathered sons and daughters.
- ¶16. And Eber lived thirty-four years, and he fathered Peleg.
17. And after he fathered Peleg, Eber lived four hundred and thirty years, and he fathered sons and daughters.
- ¶18. And Peleg lived thirty years, and he fathered Reu.
19. And after he fathered Reu, Peleg lived two hundred and nine years, and he fathered sons and daughters.
- ¶20. And Reu lived thirty-two years, and he fathered Serug.
21. And after he fathered Serug, Reu lived two hundred and seven years, and he fathered sons and daughters.
- ¶22. And Serug lived thirty years, and he fathered Nahor.
23. And after he fathered Nahor, Serug lived two hundred years, and he fathered sons and daughters.
- ¶24. And Nahor lived twenty-nine years, and he fathered Terah.
25. And after he fathered Terah, Nahor lived one hundred and nineteen years, and he fathered sons and daughters.
- ¶26. And Terah lived seventy years, and he fathered Abram, Nahor, and Haran.
27. And these were the generations of Terah. Terah fathered Abram, Nahor, and Haran, and Haran fathered Lot.
28. But Haran died before Terah his father in his homeland, in Ur of the Chaldeans.
29. And Abram and Nahor took wives for themselves. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah, daughter of Haran, who was the father of Milcah and the father of Iscah.
30. And Sarai was barren; she had no child.

31. And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran, his son's son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, the wife of Abram his son. And they went with them from Ur of the Chaldeans to travel to the land of Canaan. And they came to Haran and dwelled there.
32. And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years, and Terah died in Haran.

Genesis 12

- ¶1. And Jehovah said to Abram, "Go from your land, and from your kindred, and from your father's house to the land that I will show you."
2. And I will make you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, and you will be a blessing.
3. And I will bless them who bless you, and curse him who curses you. And in you will all the families of the earth be blessed."
4. And Abram went as Jehovah had told him, and Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy-five years old when he left Haran.
5. And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot, his brother's son, and all the possessions that they had, and the souls that they had acquired in Haran, and they set out to go to the land of Canaan, and they came into the land of Canaan.
6. And Abram passed through the land to the area of Shechem, to the Oak of Moreh. And the Canaanites were then in the land.
7. And Jehovah appeared to Abram, and said, "I will give this land to your seed." And he built there an altar to Jehovah, who appeared to him.
8. And he moved on from there to the mountain east of Bethel. And he pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. And there, he built an altar to Jehovah, and he called upon a name of Jehovah.
9. And Abram pulled up stakes and set out, going toward the Negev.
- ¶10. And there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down to Egypt to sojourn there because the famine was severe in the land.
11. And it came to pass as he was about to enter into Egypt that he said to Sarai his wife, "Behold now, I know that you are a beautiful woman to look at."
12. And it will be that when the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his wife.' And they will kill me, and keep you alive.
13. Say, if you will, that you are my sister so that it will go well for me on account of you. Then my life will be spared because of you."
14. And it came to pass when Abram entered into Egypt that the Egyptians saw the woman, that she was very beautiful.
15. And when the princes of Pharaoh saw her, they praised her to Pharaoh. And the woman was taken into the house of Pharaoh.
16. And he treated Abram well for her sake. And he had sheep, cattle, donkeys, male slaves, female slaves, she-asses, and camels.

17. But Jehovah plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, the wife of Abram.
18. And Pharaoh summoned Abram, and he said, "What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?"
19. Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I took her to me for a wife? And now, behold your wife! Take her and leave!"
20. And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him, and they sent him away, and his wife, with all that he had.

Genesis 13

1. And Abram went up from Egypt into the Negev, he and his wife, with all that he had, and Lot was with him.
2. And Abram was very rich in cattle, silver, and gold.
3. And he went on his journeys from the Negev to Bethel, to the place where he pitched his tent at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai,
4. to the place of the altar that he made in the beginning. And there, Abram called upon a name of Jehovah.
5. And Lot, who went with Abram, possessed flocks, and cattle, and tents.
6. And the land could not support them dwelling together because their substance was great, and so, they were not able to dwell together.
7. Moreover, there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's cattle and the herdsmen of Lot's cattle. (The Canaanites and the Perizzites dwelt then in the land.)
8. So, Abram said to Lot, "Let there now be no strife between me and you, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we are kinsmen.
9. Is not all the land before you? Separate yourself from me, I pray you. If you want the left, then I will go to the right, and if you want the right, then I will go to the left."
10. And Lot lifted up his eyes and saw all the area around the Jordan, that all of it was well-watered (before Jehovah destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah). It was like the garden of Jehovah, like the land of Egypt as you go toward Zoar.
11. And Lot chose for himself the whole area around the Jordan, and Lot set out eastward. And they separated, each from his brother;
12. Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the area and moved his tent as far as Sodom.
13. But the men of Sodom were very evil and sinful before Jehovah.
14. And Jehovah said to Abram after he was separated from Lot, "Lift up your eyes, if you will, and look northward from where you are, and southward, and east, and west.
15. For all the land that you see will I give to you and to your seed forever.
16. And I will make your seed as the dust of the earth, so that if one can count the dust of the earth, then your seed will also be counted.
17. Rise; walk the land, its length and its breadth, for I will give it to you."

18. And Abram moved his tent, and went and dwelled at the Oaks of Mamre, which is at Hebron. And there he built an altar to Jehovah.

Genesis 14

- ¶1. It came to pass in the days of Amraphel, king of Shinar, Arioch, king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer, king of Elam, and Tidal, king of Goiim,
2. that these made war with Bera, king of Sodom, and with Birsha, king of Gomorrah, Shinab, king of Admah, Shemeber, king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (which is Zoar).
3. These all came together to the Valley of Siddim, which is the Salt Sea.
4. They had served Chedorlaomer twelve years, but in the thirteenth year, they rebelled.
5. Then, in the fourteenth year, Chedorlaomer and the kings that were with him came, and they defeated the Rephaim in Ashteroth-karnaim, and the Zuzim in Ham, and the Emim in Shaveh-kiriathaim,
6. and the Horites in their mountain of Seir, to El-paran, which is by the wilderness.
7. And then they turned back and came to En-mishpat, which is Kadesh, and they conquered all the territory of the Amalekites, as well as the Amorites who lived in Hazazon-tamar.
8. And the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (which is Zoar) went out and set the battle in order against them in the Valley of Siddim,
9. against Chedorlaomer, king of Elam, and Tidal, king of Goiim, and Amraphel, king of Shinar, and Arioch, king of Ellasar—four kings against five.
10. And the Valley of Siddim was full of pits of bitumen, and the kings of Sodom and of Gomorrah fell there, and those who were left escaped to the mountain.
11. And they seized all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their food, and left.
12. And when they left, they took Lot, Abram's brother's son who lived in Sodom, and his goods.
13. But a man who escaped came and brought a report to Abram the Hebrew, who had settled at the Oaks of Mamre the Amorite, the brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner. These were parties to a covenant with Abram.
14. And Abram heard that his kinsman had been carried away, and he armed his trained men who were born in his house, three hundred eighteen, and he made pursuit as far as Dan.
15. And when he had divided them up, he and his servants attacked them at night and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is north of Damascus.
16. And he brought back all the goods, and he also brought back his kinsman, Lot, and his goods, and the women and the people as well.
17. And the king of Sodom went out to speak to him after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer and the kings with him, to the Valley of Shaveh (which is the king's Valley).

18. And Melchizedek, king of Salem, brought out bread and wine, and he was a priest of the Most High God.
19. And he blessed him, and said, “Blessed be Abram of the Most High God, Creator of heaven and earth,
20. and blessed be the Most High God who has delivered your enemies into your hand!” And he gave him a tenth of everything.
21. And the king of Sodom said to Abram, “Give me the people, and you take the goods.”
22. But Abram said to the king of Sodom, “I have lifted up my hand to Jehovah,²⁰ the Most High God, Creator of heaven and earth, and have put myself under an oath, saying,
23. ‘Let God damn me if I take anything of yours,²¹ from a thread to the thong of a sandal,’ lest you should say, ‘I made Abram rich’—
24. with the exception of what the young men have eaten, and a portion for the men who went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre. They will take their portion.”

Genesis 15

- ¶1. After these things, the word of Jehovah came to Abram in a vision, saying, “Abram, do not be afraid. I will be your shield and your very great reward.”
2. And Abram said, “O Lord Jehovah,²² what will you give me, seeing I go childless, and the heir of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus?”
3. And Abram said, “Behold, you have not given me offspring. And behold, one born in my house is my heir.”
4. And behold, the word of Jehovah came to him, saying, “This one will not be your heir, but one who comes from your bowels will be your heir.”
5. And He brought him outside and said, “Look toward the heavens, if you will, and number the stars if you are able to count them.” Then He said to him, “That is how your seed will be.”
6. And he believed Jehovah, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness.
7. And He said to him, “I am GOD, who brought you out from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land to inherit.”
8. And he said, “O Lord Jehovah, how do I know that I will inherit it?”
9. And He said to him, “Bring me a three-year-old heifer, and a three-year-old she-goat, and a three-year-old ram, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon.”
10. And he took all these to Him, and he cut them in halves and put each half opposite the other. But he did not divide the birds.

²⁰ See footnote on Genesis 2:4.

²² See footnote on Genesis 2:4.

11. And birds of prey came down on the carcasses, but Abram drove them away.
12. And as the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell on Abram, and behold, a terror of great darkness fell on him.
13. And He said to Abram, “Know this! Your seed will be sojourners in a land that is not theirs, and they will serve them. And they will oppress them four hundred years.
14. And I will also judge the nation that they serve, and after that, they will go out with great substance.
15. And as for you, you will go to your fathers in peace. You will be buried at a good old age.
16. And in the fourth generation, they will return here, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.”
17. And it came to pass that the sun went down, and it grew dark. And behold, a smoking fire-pot and a fiery torch passed between the pieces.
18. On that day, Jehovah made a covenant with Abram, saying, “I give this land to your seed, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates,
19. with the Kenite, and the Kenizzite, and the Kadmonite,
20. and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Rephaim,
21. and the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Girgashite, and the Jebusite.”

Genesis 16

- ¶1. Now Sarai, Abram’s wife, bore him no children, but she had an Egyptian maidservant whose name was Hagar,
2. and Sarai said to Abram, “If you please, behold, GOD²³ has kept me from bearing children. Go in, I pray you, to my maidservant. It may be that I will get a child from her.” And Abram listened to Sarai’s voice.
3. And so, after Abram had dwelled in the land of Canaan ten years, Sarai the wife of Abram took Hagar the Egyptian, her maidservant, and gave her to her husband Abram as a wife for him.
4. And he went in to Hagar, and she conceived. But when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes.
5. And Sarai said to Abram, “My wrong be upon you! I gave my maidservant into your bosom, and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes. GOD judge between me and you!”
6. And Abram said to Sarai, “Behold, your maidservant is in your hand. Do with her what is good in your eyes.” So, Sarai dealt harshly with her, and she fled from her.
7. And an angel of Jehovah found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, by the spring on the road to Shur.

²³ See footnote on Genesis 2:4.

8. And he said, “Hagar, Sarai’s maidservant! Where did you come from, and where are you going?” And she said, “I am running away from Sarai, my mistress.”
9. And the angel of Jehovah said to her, “Go back to your mistress and humble yourself under her hand!”
10. The angel of Jehovah also said to her, “I will surely multiply your seed, so that it cannot be counted for multitude.”
11. And the angel of Jehovah told her, “Behold, you are with child, and you will bear a son. And you shall call his name Ishmael²⁴ because GOD²⁵ has heard your affliction.
12. And he will be a wild ass of a man, his hand against everyone, and everyone’s hand against him. And he will dwell in the presence of all of his brothers.”
13. And she gave a name to Jehovah who spoke to her, saying, “You are El-Roi,”²⁶ for she said, “Am I still here, seeing, after He has seen me?”
14. Therefore, the well was called Beer-lahai-roi²⁷. Behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.
15. And Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram named his son whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.
16. And Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

Genesis 17

- ¶1. And it came to pass when Abram was ninety-nine years old that Jehovah appeared to Abram and said to him, “I am El-Shaddai.²⁸ Live in my presence and be perfect,
2. and I will establish my covenant between me and you, and I will very greatly multiply you.”
3. Then Abram fell on his face. And God spoke to him, saying,
4. “Behold, my covenant is with you, and you will be a father of a multitude of nations.
5. And your name will no longer be called Abram²⁹, but your name will be Abraham³⁰ because I have made you a father of many nations.
6. And I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you, and kings will come from you.
7. And I have established my covenant between me and you, and with your seed after you in their generations, as a perpetual covenant, to be your God, and your children’s after you.
8. And I will give to you and to your seed after you the land in which you are a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for a perpetual possession, and I will be their God.”

²⁵ See footnote on Genesis 2:4.

²⁶ That is, “God saw me.”

²⁸ That is, “Almighty God”.

²⁹ That is, “exalted father”.

³⁰ That is, “father of a multitude”.

9. And God said to Abraham, “You must keep my covenant, you and your children after you in their generations.
 10. This is my covenant which you shall keep between me and you, and your children after you: Every male among you is to be circumcised.
 11. You are to be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin, and it will be for a sign of the covenant between me and you.
 12. And every eight-day-old male among you shall be circumcised throughout your generations, whether born in your house or bought with money from a foreigner who is not your descendant.
 13. The child born in your house or one bought with your money must be circumcised. My covenant will be in your flesh as a perpetual covenant.
 14. And an uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that soul shall certainly be cut off from his people. He has broken my covenant.”
- ¶15. God also said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai,³¹ for Sarah³² will be her name.
16. And I have blessed her, and I have also given you a son by her. Yea, I have blessed her, and she will become nations; kings of peoples will come from her.”
 17. And Abraham fell on his face and laughed. And he said in his heart, “Will a son be born to a hundred-year-old? And will Sarah give birth at ninety years old?”
 18. And Abraham said to God, “Oh, that Ishmael may live in your sight!”
 19. And God said, “No, but Sarah your wife will bear you a son, and you will call his name Isaac,³³ and I will establish my covenant with him as a perpetual covenant for his children after him.
 20. But as for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I have blessed him, and I will make him fruitful, and multiply him very greatly. He will father twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation.
 21. But I will establish my covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this time next year.”
 22. And He finished talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.
 23. Then Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all those born in his house, and all those bought with his money, every male of the men of Abraham’s house, and he circumcised the flesh of their foreskin that very day, just as God had told him.
 24. And Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.
 25. And Ishmael, his son, was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

³³ That is, “laughter”.

26. In the same day, Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised.
27. And all the men of his house, those born in his house and those bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Genesis 18

- ¶1. And Jehovah appeared to him at the Oaks of Mamre as he sat at the tent door in the heat of the day.
2. And he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, there stood three men before him, and he saw them and ran from the tent door to meet them. Then he bowed down to the ground
3. and said, "My lords, I pray, if I have found favor in your eyes, do not, I pray, pass your servant by.
4. Let a little water be brought, I pray you, and your feet be washed, and you rest under the tree.
5. And I will fetch a morsel of bread to strengthen your heart, and afterward, you may pass on. For this is why you have come to your servant." And they said, "Do as you have said."
6. And Abraham hurried to the tent to Sarah and said, "Quick! Knead three measures of fine flour and make cakes!"
7. And Abraham ran to the cattle, and he took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to a young man, and he hurried to dress it.
8. And he took curds, and milk, and the calf which he had prepared, and he set it before them. And he stood by them under the tree, and they ate.
9. And they said to him, "Where is Sarah your wife?" And he said, "There, in the tent."
10. And one of them said, "When I return to you according to the time of life, behold, Sarah your wife will have a son." And Sarah was listening at the tent door that was behind him.
11. Now, Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in years, and it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.
12. And Sarah laughed within herself, saying, "Shall I have pleasure after I am wasted away and my lord is old?"
13. And Jehovah said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, saying, 'Will I really bear a child when I am old?'
14. Is anything too difficult for GOD? I will return to you at the appointed time, and Sarah will have a son according to the time of life."
15. But Sarah denied it, saying, "I didn't laugh" (for she was afraid). Then He said, "No, you laughed."
16. And the men rose up from there and looked down toward Sodom. And Abraham walked with them to send them off.
17. And Jehovah said, "Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do?

18. Abraham will surely become a great and mighty people, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed in him.
19. For I have known him, so that he may command his children and his household after him, that they keep the way of GOD, to do righteousness and justice, so that GOD will bring on Abraham what He has spoken concerning him.”
20. And Jehovah said, “The cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and their sins are very grievous.
21. I will now go down and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry that has come to me. And if not, I will find out.”
22. And the men turned from there and went toward Sodom. And Abraham still stood before Jehovah.
23. And Abraham drew near and said, “Will you indeed destroy the righteous with the guilty?
24. What if there are fifty righteous within the city? Will you indeed destroy and not spare the place for the sake of the fifty righteous in its midst?
25. Far be it from you to do such a thing, to put the righteous to death along with the wicked, so that it is with the righteous as with the wicked. Far be it from you, O Judge of all the earth, not to do what is just.”
26. And Jehovah said, “If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare the whole place for their sake.”
27. And Abraham answered and said, “Behold now, I have undertaken to speak to my Lord, I who am dust and ashes.
28. What if five are lacking of the fifty righteous? Will you wipe out the whole city for lack of five?” And He said, “I will not wipe it out for the sake of the forty-five.”
29. And he continued still to speak to Him, “What if forty are found there?” He said, “I will not do it for the sake of the forty.”
30. And he said, “I pray, do not let my Lord be angry, and I will speak. What if thirty are found there?” And He said, “I will not do it if I find thirty there.”
31. Then he said, “Behold, I pray, I have undertaken to speak to my Lord. What if twenty are found there?” And He said, “I will not wipe it out for the sake of the twenty.”
32. And he said, “I pray, do not let my Lord be angry, and I will speak only one more time. What if ten are found there?” And He said, “I will not wipe it out for the sake of the ten.”
33. And Jehovah left when He had finished speaking to Abraham. And Abraham returned to his place.

Genesis 19

1. And the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. And Lot saw them, and rose up to meet them, and bowed his face to the ground.

2. And he said, “Behold now, my lords, if you will, turn in to the house of your servant, and spend the night, and wash your feet, and then rise up early and go on your way.” But they said, “No. We will stay overnight in the street.”
3. But he pressed them greatly, and so they turned aside to him and came into his house. And he made a feast for them, and he baked unleavened bread, and they ate.
4. But before they went to sleep, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, from the young to the old, all the people from every quarter, surrounded the house.
5. And they called to Lot and said to him, “Where are the men who came in to you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we may know them!”
6. But Lot went out to them at the entrance, and he closed the door behind him.
7. And he said, “I beg you, my brothers, do not do this evil!
8. Behold, I pray you, I have two daughters who have not known man. If you will, let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them as is good in your eyes. Only do nothing to these men, for they have come under the shadow of my roof.”
9. But they said, “Stand back!” Then they said, “This guy came in as a sojourner, and he’s always judging! Now we will do more evil to you than to them!” And they pressed in on the man, on Lot, greatly, and they drew near to break down the door.
10. Then the men stretched out their hand and pulled Lot back to them into the house and shut the door.
11. And they struck the men who were at the door of the house with blindness, from the least to the greatest, and they grew weary trying to find the door.
12. Then the men said to Lot, “Who do you still have here? Take all those that you have in the city out of this place, sons-in-law, and your sons, and your daughters.
13. We are about to destroy this place because their cry has become great before GOD, and GOD has sent us to destroy it.”
14. And Lot went out and spoke with his sons-in-law who had taken his daughters. And he said, “Get up! Get out of this place! For GOD is about to destroy the city!” But to his sons-in-law, he seemed like one who was joking.
15. As dawn broke, the angels hurried Lot, saying, “Rise up! Take your wife and your two daughters who are left, lest you be destroyed in the punishment of this city!”
16. Yet, he hesitated, and so the men grabbed his hand, the hand of his wife, and the hand of his two daughters—in Jehovah’s mercy on him—and they brought him out and set him outside the city.
17. And it came to pass that as they were bringing them out, one said, “Flee for your life! Do not look behind you or stop anywhere in the area. Flee to the mountain, lest you be destroyed!”
18. But Lot said to them, “No, my lords! I beg you!
19. Behold now, your servant has found favor in your eyes, and you have shown me great kindness by saving my life. But I cannot flee to the mountain, lest some evil overtake me, and I die.

20. Behold, I beg you, this town is near to flee to, and it is a little one. Let me now flee there! Is it not a little one? And my soul will live.”
21. And he said to him, “Behold, I have accepted you concerning this thing also. I will not destroy the town for which you have spoken.
22. Hurry! Flee there, for I can do nothing until you arrive.” For this reason the name of the town was called Zoar.³⁴
23. The sun had risen over the land when Lot entered Zoar.
24. Then Jehovah rained sulfur and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah from Jehovah out of heaven,
25. and He destroyed those cities, and all the area, and all those who dwelled in the cities, and all that grew out of the ground.
26. But his wife looked behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.
27. And Abraham rose up early in the morning and went to the place where he had stood in the presence of Jehovah,
28. and he looked out toward Sodom and Gomorrah and toward all the land in the area, and he saw, and behold, the smoke of the land went up like the smoke of a furnace.
29. And it came to pass that when God destroyed the cities of the area, God remembered Abraham, and He sent Lot out from the midst of the destruction when He destroyed the cities that Lot dwelled in.
30. And Lot and his two daughters with him went up from Zoar and dwelled in the mountain because he was afraid to live in Zoar. So he lived in a cave, he and his two daughters.
31. And the older said to the younger, “Our father is old, and there is no man in the land to come in to us according to the manner of the whole earth.
32. Come, let us give our father wine to drink, and we will lie with him and preserve our father’s seed.”
33. And so, that night they gave their father wine to drink, and the older went in and lay with her father. But he did not know when she lay down or when she rose up.
34. And it came to pass the next day that the older said to the younger, “Behold, I lay last night with my father. Let us give him wine to drink again tonight, and then you go and lie with him, and we will preserve our father’s seed.”
35. And so, they made their father drink wine that night also, and the younger rose up and lay with him. And he did not know when she lay down or when she rose up.
36. So, the two daughters of Lot conceived by their father.
37. And the older one bore a son, and she called his name Moab,³⁵ and he is the father of Moab to this day.
38. And the younger also bore a son, and she called his name Ben-ami.³⁶ He is the father of the sons of Ammon to this day.

³⁴ That is, “little”.

³⁵ That is, “from [my] father”.

Genesis 20

- ¶1. And Abraham journeyed from there toward the region of the Negev, and he dwelled between Kadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar.
2. And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, “She is my sister.” And Abimelech, king of Gerar, sent for and took Sarah.
3. And God came to Abimelech by night in a dream, and He said to him, “Behold, you are to die because of the woman you have taken, for she has a husband.”
4. Now, Abimelech had not come near her, and he said, “O Lord, will you destroy a righteous nation also?
5. Didn’t he say to me, ‘She is my sister’? Even she herself said, ‘He is my brother.’ I did this in the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands!”
6. And God said to him in the dream, “Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart, so I withheld you from sinning against me. That is why I did not allow you to touch her.
7. And now, return the man’s wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you so that you will live. But if you do not return her, know that you will certainly die, you and all that are yours.”
8. And Abimelech rose early in the morning and summoned all his servants, and he spoke all these words in their ears. And the men were very afraid.
9. And Abimelech called Abraham, and he said to him, “What have you done to us? And how have I sinned against you that you have brought upon me and all my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds that should not have been done to me!”
10. Abimelech also said to Abraham, “What did you see that you did this thing?”
11. And Abraham said, “I thought, ‘Surely there is no fear of God in this place, and they will kill me because my wife.’
12. But truthfully, she actually is my sister, being my father’s daughter, though not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife.
13. And when God caused me to wander from my father’s house, I said to her, “This is your kindness that you will show me: in every place that we come to, say of me, ‘He is my brother.’”³⁶
14. So Abimelech took sheep and cattle, and male and female slaves, and he gave them to Abraham, and he restored to him Sarah his wife.
15. And Abimelech said, “Behold, my land is before you. Dwell wherever is good in your eyes.”

³⁶ That is, “son of my [own] people”.

16. And to Sarah he said, "Behold, I have given a thousand pieces of silver to your 'brother'. Behold, he is a covering of the eyes to you and to all who are with you." And with all this, she was reproved.
17. Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his concubines so that they bore children,
18. for Jehovah had completely closed up every womb of the house of Abimelech on account of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

Genesis 21

- ¶1. And Jehovah visited Sarah, just as He said, and Jehovah did for Sarah as He had spoken.
2. For Sarah conceived and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the time which God had told him.
3. And Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac.
4. And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, just as God had commanded him.
5. Abraham was one-hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.
6. And Sarah said, "God has made me laugh, and everyone who hears will laugh with me."
7. And she said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would give suck to children? For I have borne him a son in his old age."
8. And the boy grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned.
9. But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she bore to Abraham, laughing.
10. And she said to Abraham, "Cast out this slave-girl and her son! For the son of this slave-girl shall not receive an inheritance with my son Isaac."
11. And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight because of his son,
12. but God said to Abraham, "Let it not be grievous in your sight because of the youth and your slave-girl. Listen to her voice in everything that Sarah is saying to you, for through Isaac shall your seed be called.
13. And I will also make the son of the slave-girl a nation, since he is your seed."
14. So Abraham rose early in the morning, and he took food and a skin of water and gave it to Hagar and the boy, putting it on her shoulder, and he sent her away. And she left and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba.
15. When the water in the skin was gone, she cast the boy under one of the bushes,
16. and went and sat down opposite him, at a distance of a bowshot, for she said, "Let me not see the boy's death." And so, she sat down opposite him, and she lifted up her voice and wept.
17. But God heard the voice of the youth, and an angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, "What is wrong, Hagar? Do not be afraid, for God has heard the voice of the youth who is over there.

18. Arise. Lift the youth up, and hold him up with your hand, for I will make him a great nation.”
19. Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. And she went and filled the skin with water and made the boy drink.
20. And God was with the youth, and he grew, and he dwelled in the wilderness and became a skilled archer.
21. And he dwelled in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.
- ¶22. And it came to pass at that time that Abimelech and Phicol, captain of his army, spoke to Abraham saying, “God is with you in all that you do.”
23. So, swear to me by God, here and now. May you be cursed if you deal falsely with me, my offspring, or my posterity, but you will show to me and to the land in which you sojourn the same kindness that I have shown to you.”
24. And Abraham said, “I swear.”
25. However, Abraham reproved Abimelech concerning a well of water that Abimelech’s servants had seized.
26. But Abimelech said, “I do not know who did this; neither did you tell me. I have not even heard of it until today.”
27. Then Abraham took sheep and cattle and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them made a covenant.
28. And Abraham set seven lambs of the flock by themselves.
29. And Abimelech said to Abraham, “What are these seven lambs for, that you have set by yourselves?”
30. And he said, “So that you will take seven lambs from my hand to be a witness for me that I dug this well.”
31. Therefore, that place is called Beersheba,³⁷ because the two of them took an oath there.
32. And they made a covenant at Beersheba, and Abimelech and Phicol, chief of his army, rose up and returned to the land of the Philistines.
33. And he planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there he called upon a name of Jehovah: “El-olam”.³⁸
34. And Abraham sojourned in the land of the Philistines many days.

Genesis 22

- ¶1. And it came to pass after these things that God tested Abraham, and He said to him, “Abraham.” And he said, “Here I am.”

³⁷ That is, “well of the oath”.

³⁸ That is, “Eternal God”.

2. And He said, "Take your son, now, the one you love, your only son, Isaac, and go to the land of Moriah, and there offer him up for a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I will point out to you.
3. And Abraham rose early in the morning and loaded his donkey, and he took with him two of his young men and Isaac his son. And he split the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went to the place about which God had spoken to him.
4. On the third day, Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place from a distance.
5. And Abraham told his young men, "You stay here with the donkey, and I and the young man will go over there and worship, and then we will come back to you."
6. And Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son, and he took the fire and the knife in his hand, and the two of them went on together.
7. And Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, "My father." And he said, "Here I am, my son." And he said, "Behold, the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?"
8. And Abraham said, "God will provide for Himself a lamb for the burnt offering, my son." And the two of them went on together.
9. And they came to the place of which God had spoken to him, and Abraham built the altar there. Then he arranged the wood, and he bound Isaac his son and placed him on the altar on top of the wood.
10. And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slaughter his son.
11. But an angel of Jehovah called out to him from heaven and said, "Abraham! Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am."
12. And he said, "Do not stretch forth your hand against the young man, and do not do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God, for you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me."
13. And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, behind him was a ram caught in a thicket by his horns. And Abraham went and took the ram, and he offered him up as a burnt offering instead of his son.
14. And Abraham named that place, "GOD Provides",³⁹ for which reason it is said to this day, "In the mountain of Jehovah, it will be provided."
15. Then the angel of Jehovah called to Abraham a second time from heaven
16. and said, "By myself, I swear, says GOD, because you have done this thing, and you have not withheld your son, your only son,
17. I will surely bless you, and I will surely multiply your seed as the stars of heaven and as the sand which is on the seashore, and your seed will possess the gate of his enemies.
18. And in your seed shall all nations of the earth be blessed because you have obeyed my voice."

³⁹ That is, "Jehovah-jireh". See footnote on Genesis 2:4.

19. And Abraham returned to his young men, and they got up and went together to Beersheba. And Abraham dwelled at Beersheba.
- ¶20. And it came to pass after these things that it was reported to Abraham, “Behold, Milcah also bore sons to Nahor your brother:
21. Uz, his firstborn, and Buz, his brother, and Kimuel, the father of Aram,
22. and Kesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel.”
23. And Bethuel fathered Rebekah. Milcah bore these eight to Nahor, brother of Abraham.
24. And his concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebach, and Gaham, and Thahash, and Maacah.

Genesis 23

- ¶1. And Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years; this was the length of Sarah’s life.
2. And Sarah died in Kirjath-Arba, which is Hebron, in the land of Canaan. And Abraham went in to mourn for Sarah and to lament for her.
3. And Abraham rose up from before his dead, and said to the sons of Heth,
4. “I am a foreigner and a sojourner with you. Sell me property for a burial-place among you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.”
5. And the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him,
6. “Hear us, my lord. You are a prince of God in our midst. In the best of our burial-places, bury your dead. No man among us will withhold from you his burial-place for burying your dead.”
7. And Abraham rose up and bowed himself to the people of the land, to the sons of Heth.
8. Then he spoke to them, saying, “If you are willing for me to bury my dead out of my sight, then hear me, and entreat Ephron for me, the son of Zohar,
9. that he sell me the cave of Machpelah that is his, which is at the end of his field. For the full price, let him sell it to me in your presence for a burying place.”
10. Now, Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth, and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the sons of Heth before everyone who went in at the gate of his city,
11. “No, my lord! Hear me. I give you the field and the cave that is in it. I give it to you. Before the sons of my people, I give it to you to bury your dead.”
12. And Abraham bowed himself before the people of the land.
13. And he spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, “Nevertheless, if you will, hear me. I will give money for the field. Accept it from me, and I will bury my dead there.”
14. And Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him,
15. “My lord, hear me. The land is worth four hundred shekels of silver. What is that between me and you? Bury your dead.”

16. And Abraham listened to Ephron, and Abraham weighed out for Ephron the silver that he had spoken of in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, by the merchant's currency.
17. And the field of Ephron that is at Machpelah before Mamre, the field and the cave that is in it, and all the trees that are in the field, and all the area around it were deeded
18. to Abraham for a possession in the presence of the sons of Heth and all who went in at the gate of his city.
19. So after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre, which is Hebron, in the land of Canaan.
20. And he deeded the field and the cave that was in it to Abraham for a burying place among the sons of Heth.

Genesis 24

- ¶1. Now, Abraham was old, advanced in years, and Jehovah had blessed Abraham in everything.
2. And Abraham said to his slave, the elder of his household who was in charge of all that he had, "Put now your hand under my thigh.
3. And I will make you swear by GOD, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites among whom I dwell.
4. But you will go to my country and to my kindred, and you will take a wife for my son Isaac."
5. Then the servant said to him, "Perhaps the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land. Must I take your son back to the land that you came out of?"
6. But Abraham said to him, "Take heed to yourself that you do not take my son back there!
7. GOD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my kinsmen, and who spoke to me, and who swore to me, saying, 'I will give this land to your seed, 'He will send His angel before you, and you will take a wife for my son from there.
8. However, if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you are free from this, my oath. Only, you shall not take my son back there."
9. So, the servant put his hand under his master Abraham's thigh, and he swore to him concerning this matter.
10. Then the servant took ten camels from the camels of his master and left, with all kinds of his master's goods in his hand. And he rose up, and he went to Aram-naharaim,⁴⁰ to the city of Nahor.
11. And at evening, the time women go out to draw water, he made the camels kneel down outside the city at a well of water

⁴⁰ Or, Aram of the two rivers.

12. and said, "O GOD, the God of my master Abraham, grant me success today, I pray, and show kindness to my master, Abraham.
13. Behold, I am standing by a well of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.
14. And the young woman to whom I say, 'If you will, let down your vessel and give me drink,' and she says, 'Drink, and I will water your camels also,' let her be the one that you have chosen for your servant Isaac, and by her, I will know that you have shown kindness to my master."
15. And it came to pass that before he finished speaking, behold, Rebekah, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, came out with her vessel on her shoulder.
16. And the girl was very beautiful, a virgin, for no man had known her. And she went down to the well, and filled her vessel, and came up.
17. Then the servant ran to meet her and said, "If you will, let me drink a little water from your vessel."
18. And she said, "Drink, my lord." And she hurried and set down her vessel that was in her hand, and gave him drink.
19. When she had finished giving him drink, she said, "I will draw for your camels also, until they finish drinking."
20. And she hurried, and emptied her container into the trough. Then she ran again to the well to draw water, and she drew it for all his camels.
21. And watching her, the man kept silent, wondering if Jehovah had made his journey prosperous.
22. And it came to pass that when the camels finished drinking, the man took a gold ring, a half-shekel in weight, and two bracelets of gold, ten shekels in weight, for her wrists,
23. and he said, "Whose daughter are you? Tell me, I pray you. Is there a place in your father's house for us to stay overnight?"
24. And she said to him, "I am the daughter of Bethuel, son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor."
25. Then she said to him, "We have an abundance of both straw and fodder, and also a place to stay overnight."
26. And the man bowed down and worshipped Jehovah.
27. And he said, "Blessed be GOD, the God of my master Abraham, who did not take His mercy and faithfulness away from my master. I was in the way, and GOD led me to the house of my master's kindred."
28. And the girl ran and told her mother's household these things.
29. And Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban, and Laban ran out to the man at the well.

30. And it came to pass that when he saw the ring and the bracelets on the hands of his sister, and heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, "Thus the man said to me," then he went out to the man, and behold, he was standing with the camels at the well.
31. And he said, "Come, O blessed of GOD! Why do you stand outside when I have prepared the house and a place for the camels?"
32. And the man went to the house, unburdened the camels, and gave straw and fodder to the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.
33. Then food was set before him, but he said, "I will not eat until I have spoken the things I have to say." And he said, "Speak."
34. And he said, "I am Abraham's servant.
35. GOD has greatly blessed my master, and he has become great. He has given him flocks, cattle, silver, gold, menservants, maidservants, camels, and donkeys.
36. Now, Sarah, the wife of my master, bore a son for my master after she was old. And he has given him all that he has.
37. And my master made me swear, saying, 'You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites in whose land I dwell,
38. but you shall go to the house of my father and to my family and take a wife for my son.'
39. And I said to my master, 'What if the woman will not follow me?'
40. And he said to me, 'GOD, before whom I walk, will send His angel with you and make your journey successful, and you will take a wife for my son from my family and from my father's house.
41. Then, you will be released from my oath, when you come to my family. And if they do not give her to you, you will be released from my oath.'
42. And I came today to the well, and I said, 'O GOD, the God of my master Abraham, if you will, I pray, make the way I go successful.'
43. Behold, I am standing at the well of water, and when the virgin comes out to draw and I say to her, "If you will, let me drink a little water from your pitcher,"
44. and she says to me, "Drink! And I will water your camels, too," let her be the wife whom GOD has chosen for my master's son.'
45. Before I had finished speaking in my heart, behold, Rebekah came out with her pitcher on her shoulder. And she went down to the well and drew water. And I said to her, 'Let me drink, if you will.'
46. And she hurried, and she let down her pitcher from her shoulder and said, 'Drink! And I will water your camels, too.' And I drank, and she watered the camels also.
47. And I asked her and said, 'Whose daughter are you?' And she said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, son of Nahor, whom Milcah bore to him.' And I put a ring in her nose, and the bracelets on her wrists.

48. And I bowed and worshipped GOD, and I blessed GOD, the God of my master Abraham, who had guided me in the right way to take a daughter of my master's brother for his son.
 49. And now, if you will show kindness and faithfulness to my master, tell me. And if not, tell me, so that I may turn to the right or to the left."
 50. Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, "The word has come from GOD. We cannot speak evil or good to you.
 51. Behold, Rebekah is before you. Take her and go, and let her be the wife of your master's son, just as GOD has spoken."
 52. And when Abraham's slave heard their words, he bowed himself to the earth before Jehovah.
 53. And then, the slave brought out vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah. And he gave precious things to her brother and to her mother.
 54. And they ate and drank, he and the men who were with him, and they stayed the night. And they arose in the morning, and he said, "Send me away to my master."
 55. And her brother and her mother said, "Let the girl stay with us, at least ten days. Afterward, she will go."
 56. But he said to them, "Do not delay me, for GOD has prospered my journey. Send me away so that I may go to my master."
 57. And they said, "We will call for the girl and see what she says."
 58. And so, they summoned Rebekah, and they said to her, "Will you go with this man?" And she said, "I will go."
 59. And they sent Rebekah their sister away, and her nurse, with Abraham's slave and his men.
 60. And they blessed Rebekah and said to her, "O our sister, may you become very many thousands, and may your seed possess the gate of those who hate them."
 61. And Rebekah and her maidens rose up, and they mounted the camels and followed the man. And the slave took Rebekah and went away.
- ¶62. Now, Isaac had come from the entrance of Beer-lahai-roi, for he was living in the region of the Negev.
63. And Isaac had gone out to meditate in the field at dusk. And he lifted up his eyes and looked, and there were camels coming.
 64. And Rebekah raised her eyes and saw Isaac, and she dismounted the camel.
 65. And she said to the slave, "Who is this man who is walking in the field to meet us?" And the slave said, "It is my master." And she took the veil and covered herself.
 66. And the slave told Isaac all the things he had done.
 67. And Isaac brought her into the tent of Sarah his mother. And he took Rebekah, and she became his wife. And he loved her, and Isaac was comforted concerning his mother.

- ¶1. And Abraham again took a wife, and her name was Keturah.
2. And she bore to him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah.
 3. And Jokshan fathered Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leummim.
 4. And the sons of Midian were Ephah, and Epher, and Hanoch, and Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the sons of Keturah.
 5. And Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac,
 6. but to the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts. And he sent them away from Isaac his son while he lived, eastward to the land of the east.
- ¶7. And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life that he lived: one hundred and seventy-five years.
8. And Abraham yielded up the spirit and died in a good old age, old and at peace, and he was gathered to his people.
 9. And Isaac and Ishmael, his sons, buried him in the cave of Machpelah in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre,
 10. the field which Abraham purchased from the sons of Heth. Abraham was buried there with Sarah his wife.
 11. And it came to pass after the death of Abraham that God blessed Isaac his son. And Isaac dwelled by Beer-lahai-roi.
- ¶12. And these are the generations of Ishmael ben-Abraham, which Hagar, Sarah's Egyptian slave-girl, bore to Abraham.
13. And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: Nebajoth, Ishmael's firstborn, and Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,
 14. Mishma, Dumah, Massa,
 15. Hadad and Tema, Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah.
 16. These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names in their settlements and camps, twelve princes according to their nations.
 17. And these were the years of Ishmael's life: one hundred and thirty-seven. And he yielded up the spirit and died, and he was gathered to his people.
 18. And they dwelled from Havilah to Shur, which is on the border of Egypt as you go toward Assyria. And he died in the presence of all of his brothers.
- ¶19. And these are the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son. Abraham fathered Isaac,
20. and Isaac was forty years old when he took his wife, Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramn, from Padan-aram, the sister of Laban the Aramean.
 21. And Isaac entreated Jehovah for his wife because she was barren. And Jehovah was entreated by him, and Rebekah his wife conceived.
 22. And the children struggled with each other within her. And she said, "If it is like this, why am I this way?" And she went to inquire of Jehovah.

23. And Jehovah said to her, “Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples will be separated from your bowels. One people will be stronger than the other people, and the older will serve the younger.”
24. And when her days to deliver were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.
25. And the first came out reddish all over, like a hairy garment. So they called his name Esau.
26. And afterwards, his brother came out, and his hand was holding fast to Esau’s heel. And he called his name Jacob.⁴¹ And Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them.
27. And the boys grew up, and Esau became a cunning hunter, a man of the field, but Jacob was a quiet man, dwelling in tents.
28. And Isaac loved Esau because he ate of his game, but Rebekah loved Jacob.
29. And Jacob was cooking, and Esau came in from the field, and was exhausted.
30. And Esau said to Jacob, “I beg you, let me eat some of this red stuff because I’m exhausted.” Therefore, he was called Edom.⁴²
31. But Jacob said, “Sell me your birthright first.”
32. And Esau said, “Behold, I am about to die, so what is this birthright to me?”
33. And Jacob said, “Swear to me first.” And he swore to him and sold his birthright to Jacob.
34. And Jacob gave bread and a pottage of lentils to Esau, and he ate and drank, and rose up and left. Thus Esau despised the birthright.

Genesis 26

- ¶1. And there was a famine in the land besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Abimelech, king of the Philistines, at Gerar.
2. And Jehovah appeared to him and said, “Do not go down to Egypt; dwell in the land, where I will tell you.
3. Sojourn in this land, and I will be with you, and I will bless you, for I will give you and your offspring all these lands, and I will fulfill the oath which I swore to Abraham your father.
4. And I will multiply your offspring as the stars of heaven, and I will give your offspring all these lands, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed by your seed
5. because Abraham listened to my voice and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.”
6. So, Isaac dwelled in Gerar.
7. And the men of the place asked about his wife, and he said, “She is my sister,” because he was afraid to say, “my wife”, for he thought, “Lest the men of the place kill me on account of Rebekah,” for she was beautiful.

⁴¹ That is, “supplanter”.

⁴² That is, “red”.

8. And it came to pass, when he had stayed there many days, that Abimelech, king of the Philistines, looked out at the window and, behold, he saw Isaac sporting with Rebekah his wife.
9. Then Abimelech summoned Isaac, and he said, “Behold, she is certainly your wife! How could you say, ‘She is my sister?’” And Isaac said to him, “I said it lest I die because of her.”
10. And Abimelech said, “What is this that you have done to us? For one of the people would have soon lain with your wife, and you would have brought an offense upon us.”
11. So, Abimelech commanded all the people, saying, “Whoever touches this man or his wife will surely be put to death!”
12. And Isaac sowed in that land, and in the same year, he received one-hundred fold, for Jehovah blessed him.
13. And the man grew great, and he continued to increase until he became very great.
14. And he had possession of sheep, and possession of cattle, and many slaves; and the Philistines envied him.
15. And all the wells that the servants of his father dug in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines stopped up and filled with dirt.
16. And Abimelech said to Isaac, “Go away from us, for you are much stronger than we.”
17. So Isaac left there and camped in the Gerar Valley, and he settled there.
18. And Isaac dug out the wells of water again that had been dug during the days of Abraham his father, for the Philistines had filled them in after Abraham died. And he called them by the same names that his father had called them.
19. And the servants of Isaac dug in the valley, and they found there a well of living water.
20. But the shepherds of Gerar strove with Isaac’s shepherds, saying, “The water belongs to us!” And he called the name of the well “Contention” because they contended with him.
21. And they dug another well, and they strove over it, also. So he called its name, “Strife”.
22. And he moved from there and dug another well, and they did not fight over it, and he called the name of it Rehoboth,⁴³ because he said, “For now, GOD has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land.”
23. And he went up from there to Beersheba.
24. And Jehovah appeared to him that night and said, “I am the God of Abraham your father. Do not be afraid, for I am with you, and I will bless you and multiply your offspring for the sake of my servant Abraham.”
25. And he built an altar there, and he called upon a name of Jehovah. And there, he pitched his tent, and Isaac’s servants dug a well there.

⁴³ That is, “broad places”.

26. Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar with Ahuzzath, his aide, and Phicol, the commander of his army.
27. And Isaac said to them, “Why have you come to me, since you hate me and sent me away from you?”
28. And they said, “We have plainly seen that GOD⁴⁴ is with you, and so we said, ‘Let there now be an oath between us, between us and you. And let us make a covenant with you,
29. that you do us no harm, just as we did not touch you, and as we did only good to you and sent you away in peace.’ You are now the blessed of GOD.”
30. And he made them a feast, and they ate and drank.
31. And they rose up early in the morning, and they swore to one another, and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.
32. And it came to pass on the same day that Isaac’s servants came and told him about the well they had dug. And they said to him, “We have found water.”
33. And he called it Sheba.⁴⁵ Therefore, the name of the city is Beersheba⁴⁶ to this day.

- ¶34. And when Esau was forty years old, he took to wife Judith, the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath, the daughter of Elon the Hittite.
35. And they made life bitter for Isaac and Rebekah.

Genesis 27

- ¶1. And it came to pass when Isaac was old and his eyesight grew dim that he called Esau his elder son, and he said to him, “My son.” And he said to him, “Here I am.”
2. And he said, “Behold now, I am old. I know not the day of my death.
3. So, take your weapon now, your quiver and your bow, and go to the field and hunt game for me,
4. and make me savory food such as I love and bring it to me, and I will eat it, that my soul may bless you before I die.”
5. And Rebekah heard when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt game to bring in.
6. And Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saying, “Behold, I heard your father talking to Esau your brother, saying,
7. ‘Bring game to me and make me savory food that I may eat and bless you in the presence of GOD before my death.’
8. So obey my voice now, my son, in what I am commanding you to do.

⁴⁴ See footnote on Genesis 2:4. Moses even puts “Jehovah”, the name of God revealed first to him, in the mouths of Canaanites.

⁴⁶ That is, “well of an oath”.

9. Go now to the flock and take from it two good kids of the goats for me, and I will make of them savory food for your father, such as he loves,
10. and you take it to your father, that he may eat, so that he will bless you before his death.”
11. And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, “Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man.
12. Perhaps my father will feel me, and in his eyes I will be a deceiver and will bring on myself a curse and not a blessing.”
13. And his mother said to him, “Your curse be upon me, my son. Only obey my voice and go fetch them for me.”
14. And he went, and he took them and brought them to his mother. And his mother made savory food, such as his father loved.
15. And Rebekah took the garments of Esau, her elder son, the best ones that were with her in the house, and she put them on Jacob, her younger son.
16. And on his hands and the smooth part of his neck, she put the skins of the kids of the goats.
17. And she put the savory food and bread that she had made in the hand of Jacob her son,
18. and he went to his father and said, “My father!” Then he said, “Here I am. Who are you, my son?”
19. And Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau, your firstborn. I did what you told me. I pray you, rise; sit and eat of my game so that your soul may bless me.”
20. And Isaac said to his son, “How did you find it so quickly, my son?” And he said, “Because GOD, your God, made it come before me.”
21. And Isaac said to Jacob, “Come near, now, that I may feel you, my son, whether or not this is you, my son Esau.”
22. So Jacob drew near to Isaac his father, and he felt him, and he said, “The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau.”
23. And he did not recognize him because his hands were hairy like the hands of Esau his brother, and he blessed him.
24. And he said, “Are you my son, Esau?” And he said, “I am.”
25. Then he said, “Bring it to me, that I may eat of my son’s game, so that my soul may bless you.” And he took it to him, and he ate, and he brought him wine, and he drank.
26. And Isaac his father said to him, “Come near, I pray you, and kiss me, my son.”
27. So he drew near and kissed him. And he smelled the scent of his clothes, and he blessed him and said, “See, the smell of my son is like the scent of a field which GOD has blessed.
28. May God give you of the dew of heaven, and of the fatness of the earth, and much grain and wine.

29. May nations serve you, and may peoples bow down to you. Be ruler over your brothers, and may the sons of your mother bow down to you. Let those who curse you be cursed and those who bless you be blessed.”
30. And it came to pass when Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob had scarcely gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.
31. And he also made savory food and brought it to his father, and he said to his father, “Let my father rise up and eat his son’s game so that your soul may bless me!”
32. But Isaac his father said to him, “Who are you?” And he said, “I am your son, your firstborn, Esau.”
33. And Isaac trembled with a very great terror, and he said, “Who, then, is the one who hunted game and brought it in to me? And I ate it all before you came, and I blessed him, and yes, he will be blessed!”
34. When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried out with a very great and bitter cry. And he said to his father, “Bless me, me also, O my father!”
35. But he said, “Your brother came deceitfully and has taken your blessing.”
36. And he said, “Isn’t that why his name is called Jacob? He has now cheated me twice; he took my birthright, and now, behold, he has taken my blessing! Have you not reserved a blessing for me?”
37. And Isaac answered and said to Esau, “Behold, I have made him ruler over you, and I have given him all his brothers for servants, and I have sustained him with grain and wine. What now can I do for you, my son?”
38. And Esau said to his father, “Have you but one blessing, my father? Bless me also, my father!” And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.
39. And Isaac his father answered and said to him, “Behold, away from the fatness of the earth will be your habitation, and away from the dew of heaven from above,
40. and by your sword will you live, and you will serve your brother. But it will come to pass that when you become restless, you will break his yoke off your neck.”
41. And Esau bore a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him. And Esau said in his heart, “The days of mourning for my father are drawing near; then I will kill Jacob my brother.”
42. And Rebekah was told the words of Esau, her elder son. And she sent and called for Jacob her younger son. And she said to him, “Behold, Esau your brother is comforting himself concerning you with plans to kill you.
43. So, my son, listen now to my voice. Rise up and flee to Laban my brother in Haran,
44. and live with him for a while until your brother’s fury turns away,
45. until your brother’s anger turns away and he forgets what you did to him. Then I will send and bring you back from there. Why should I be bereft of you both in one day?”

46. Then Rebekah said to Isaac, “I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife from the daughters of Heth like these daughters of the land, what good will life be to me?”

Genesis 28

- ¶1. And Isaac summoned Jacob, and he blessed him, and he commanded him and said to him, “Do not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan.
 - 2. Arise and go to Padan-aram to the house of Bethuel, your mother’s father, and from there take a wife of the daughters of Laban, your mother’s brother.
 - 3. And may God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and may you become a company of nations.
 - 4. May He give you the blessing of Abraham, you and your seed with you, that you may inherit the land of your sojourning, which God gave to Abraham.”
 - 5. And Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Padan-aram, to Laban ben-Bethuel the Aramean, brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.
 - 6. And Esau learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him to Padan-aram to take a wife from there and that in his blessing of him, he had commanded him, saying, “Do not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan.”
 - 7. And Jacob obeyed his father and his mother and went to Padan-aram.
 - 8. And when Esau learned that the daughters of Canaan displeased Isaac his father,
 - 9. Esau went to Ishmael and took as a wife Mahalath, daughter of Ishmael ben-Abraham, sister of Nabajoth, in addition to the wives he had.
- ¶10. And Jacob left Beersheba and went toward Haran,
- 11. and he came upon a certain place and stayed there overnight because the sun had set. And he took some stones of the place and put them at his head, and he lay down in that place.
 - 12. And he dreamed, and there was a stairway fixed on earth with its top reaching to heaven! And behold, angels of God were ascending and descending on it.
 - 13. And behold, Jehovah was standing above it, and He said, “I am GOD, the God of Abraham your father, and the God of Isaac. The land on which you are lying, I will give it to you and your offspring.
 - 14. And your seed will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south. And in you and your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed.
 - 15. And behold, I am with you, and I will keep you everywhere you go, and I will bring you back to this land, for I will not forsake you, but will surely do that which I have said to you.”
 - 16. And Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, “Truly, GOD is in this place, and I did not know it!”

17. And he was afraid, and he said, “How fearful is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.”
18. And Jacob rose early in the morning, and he took the stone that he had put for his head and set it up as a pillar, and he poured oil on top of it.
19. And he called the name of that place Bethel;⁴⁷ however, Luz was the original name of that city.
20. And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, “If God will be with me and keep me in this way that I am going, and give me bread to eat and clothing to put on,
21. and I return in peace to my father’s house, then GOD will be my God.
22. And this stone that I have set up as a pillar will be God’s house, and of all that you give me, I will surely give a tenth to you.”

Genesis 29

- ¶1. And Jacob took to his feet, and he drew near to the land of the sons of the east.
2. And he looked, and there was a well in the field, and behold, three flocks of sheep were lying there beside it because they watered the flocks from that well. Now, the stone on the well’s mouth was large,
3. and when all the flocks were gathered to it, they would roll the stone from off the well’s mouth and water the sheep, and then return the stone to its place on the well’s mouth.
4. And Jacob said to them, “My brothers, where are you from?” And they said, “We are from Haran.”
5. And he said to them, “Do you know Laban ben-Nahor?” And they said, “We do.”
6. And he said to them, “Is he well?” And they said, “Yes, and behold, his daughter Rachel is coming with the sheep.”
7. And he said, “Behold, it is still the middle of the day. Is it not time to gather the cattle? Water the sheep and go feed them.”
8. And they said, “We cannot until all the flocks are gathered, and then they roll the stone from the well’s mouth, and we water the sheep.”
9. He was still talking to them when Rachel came with the sheep which belonged to her father, for she was a shepherdess.
10. And it came to pass when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban, his mother’s brother, and the sheep of Laban, his mother’s brother, that Jacob came near and rolled the stone from the mouth of the well and watered the sheep of Laban, his mother’s brother.
11. And Jacob kissed Rachel, and he lifted up his voice and wept.

⁴⁷ That is, “house of God”.

12. And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's kinsman and that he was the son of Rebekah, and she ran and told her father.
13. And it came to pass when Laban heard the report about Jacob, his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and he embraced him, and kissed him, and he took him to his house. Then, he recounted to Laban all these events.
14. And Laban said to him, "Truly, you are my bone and my flesh." And he stayed with him a month.
15. And Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my kinsman, should you serve me for nothing? Tell me what your wages will be."
16. Now, Laban had two daughters; the name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.
17. And Leah's eyes were weak, but Rachel was beautiful in form and beautiful to look at.
18. And Jacob loved Rachel, and he said, "I will work for you seven years for Rachel, your younger daughter."
19. And Laban said, "It is better that I give her to you than to give her to another man. Abide with me."
20. And Jacob served seven years for Rachel, but they were like a few days in his eyes because of his love for her.
21. Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, and let me go in to her."
22. And Laban gathered all the men of that place and made a feast.
23. And it came to pass in the evening that he took his daughter Leah and brought her to him. And he went in to her.
24. And Laban gave Zilpah, his slave-girl, to his daughter Leah for a slave.
25. And it came to pass in the morning, behold, it was Leah! And he said to Laban, "What is this that you've done to me? Didn't I labor for you for Rachel? Now, why have you deceived me?"
26. And Laban said, "It is not done that way in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn.
27. Finish out this one's week, and then we will also give you this one for the work which you will do for me yet another seven years."
28. And Jacob did so, and he finished her week, and then he gave him Rachel his daughter for a wife.
29. And Laban gave his slave-girl Bilhah to his daughter Rachel for a slave.
30. And he went in to Rachel also, and he loved Rachel more than Leah. And he worked for him yet another seven years.
31. And when Jehovah saw that Leah was hated, He opened her womb, but Rachel was barren.

32. And Leah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Reuben,⁴⁸ for she said, “GOD looked on my humiliation; surely, now my husband will love me.”
33. And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, “Surely, GOD has heard that I am hated and has given me this one, too.” And she called his name Simeon.⁴⁹
34. And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, “Now, this time my husband will be joined to me because I have borne him three sons.” Therefore, his name was called Levi.⁵⁰
35. And she conceived again and bore a son, and she said, “Now I will praise GOD.” Therefore she called his name Judah.⁵¹ And she ceased bearing.

Genesis 30

- ¶1. When Rachel saw that she bore no children for Jacob, Rachel envied her sister. And she said to Jacob, “Give me sons, or else I will die!”
2. And Jacob’s anger burned against Rachel, and he said, “Am I in God’s place, who has kept the fruit of the womb from you?”
3. And she said, “Behold, my maid servant Bilhah. Go in to her, and let her bear children upon my knees, and I will have children, too, through her.”
4. And she gave her handmaid Bilhah to him for a wife. And Jacob went in to her.
5. And Bilhah conceived and bore a son for Jacob.
6. And Rachel said, “God has judged me, and he has also heard my voice and has given me a son.” Therefore, she called his name Dan.⁵²
7. And Bilhah, Rachel’s handmaid, conceived again and bore a second son for Jacob.
8. And Rachel said, “Mighty struggles have I struggled against my sister, and I have prevailed.” And she called his name Naphtali.⁵³
9. When Leah saw that she had ceased from bearing, she took Zilpah her handmaid and gave her to Jacob for a wife.
10. And Zilpah, Leah’s handmaid, bore a son for Jacob.
11. And Leah said, “A troop!” And she called his name Gad.⁵⁴
12. And Zilpah, Leah’s handmaid, bore a second son for Jacob.
13. And Leah said, “In my happiness, daughters will call me happy.” So she called his name Asher.⁵⁵

⁴⁸ That is, “Behold, a son!”

⁴⁹ That is, “heard”.

⁵⁰ That is, “joined”.

⁵² That is, “judge”.

⁵³ That is, “my struggle”.

⁵⁵ That is, “happy” or “blessed”.

14. And Reuben went out in the days of the wheat harvest, and he found mandrakes in the field and brought them to Leah his mother. And Rachel said to Leah, “I pray you, give me some of your son’s mandrakes.”
15. But she said to her, “Is it a small thing for you to take my husband? And you would take my son’s mandrakes, too?” And Rachel said, “Then, he will lie with you tonight for your son’s mandrakes.”
16. And Jacob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him and said, “You must come in to me because I have hired you with my son’s mandrakes.” And he lay with her that night.
17. And God heard Leah, and she conceived and bore a fifth son for Jacob.
18. And Leah said, “God gave me my hire when I gave my handmaid to my husband.” And she called his name Issachar.⁵⁶
19. And Leah conceived again, and she bore a sixth son for Jacob.
20. And Leah said, “God has given me a good dowry. Now my husband will honor me because I have borne him six sons.” And she called his name Zebulun.⁵⁷
21. Afterwards, she bore a daughter and called her name Dinah.
22. Then God remembered Rachel, and God heard her and opened her womb.
23. And she conceived and bore a son, and she said, “God has taken away my reproach.”
24. And she called his name Joseph,⁵⁸ saying, “May GOD add to me another son.”
25. And it came to pass when Rachel bore Joseph that Jacob said to Laban, “Send me away, that I may go to my own place and to my own land.
26. Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go, for you know my service with which I served you.”
27. And Laban said to him, “If I have now found favor in your eyes, stay. I have learned by divination that GOD has blessed me for your sake.”
- ¶28. And so, he said, “Tell me your wages, and I will give it.”
29. Then he said to him, “You know how I have served you and what your livestock has become with me.
30. For you had little before I came, but it has increased greatly, and GOD has blessed you because of my coming. And now, when will I provide for my own household?”
31. And he said, “What shall I give you?” And Jacob said, “You will give me nothing. If you will do this thing for me, I will again tend and watch over your flock.
32. I will pass through all your flock today, taking from it all the speckled and spotted sheep, and all the dark ones among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the rams. And this will be my pay.

⁵⁶ That is, “hire” or “wages”.

⁵⁷ That is, “honor”.

⁵⁸ That is, “added”.

33. And tomorrow, when you come to see about my wages, my righteousness will answer for me. Any that are not speckled and spotted among the ewes and dark among the sheep will be as stolen if it is with me."
 34. And Laban said, "Good. Let it be as you say."
 35. But that day, he removed the striped and spotted he-goats and all the speckled and spotted she-goats, every one that had some white in it, and every dark one among the lambs, and he gave them to his sons.
 36. Then he put a three-day journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob tended what was left of Laban's flocks.
- ¶37. And Jacob took green sticks of poplar, almond, and plane-trees, and he peeled white strips in them, exposing the white that was on the sticks.
38. And he placed the sticks that he had peeled in front of the flocks, by the gutters of the watering troughs where the flocks came to drink, and they were in heat when they came to drink.
 39. And the flocks conceived before the sticks, and the flocks bore striped, speckled, and spotted offspring.
 40. And Jacob separated the lambs, and set the faces of the flock toward the striped and all the dark in Laban's flock. And he put his own flocks by themselves, and did not put them with Laban's flock.
 41. And it came to pass when all the strong of the flocks were in heat, Jacob placed the sticks in front of the flocks at the troughs, that they might conceive before the sticks.
 42. But he did not set them before the weaker flocks. So the weak were Laban's, and the strong were Jacob's.
 43. And the man increased very greatly, and he had many flocks, and male and female slaves, and camels, and donkeys.

Genesis 31

- ¶1. And he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, "Jacob has taken everything that was our father's, and he has gotten all this abundance from what our father had."
2. And Jacob observed the face of Laban, and behold, it was not with him as it was previously.
3. And Jehovah said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers and to your kindred, and I will be with you."
4. And Jacob sent for Rachel and Leah and called them to the field, to his flocks.
5. And he said to them, "I have been noticing the face of your father, that it is not toward me as it used to be, but the God of my father has been with me."
6. And you yourselves know that I have served your father with all my strength,
7. and your father has deceived me and has changed my wages ten times, but God did not allow him to hurt me.

8. If he said, ‘The speckled will be your wages,’ then all the flocks bore speckled. Then if he said, ‘The striped will be your wages,’ all the flocks bore striped.
9. So, God has taken away your father’s livestock and has given them to me.
10. And it came to pass that when the flock was in heat, I lifted up my eyes and saw in a dream, and behold, the rams that were mounting the flock were striped, speckled, and spotted.
11. And an angel of God said to me in the dream, ‘Jacob.’ And I said, ‘Here I am.’
12. And he said, ‘Lift up your eyes now and look. All the rams that go up to the flock are striped, speckled, and spotted, for I have seen all that Laban is doing to you.
13. I am the God of Bethel where you anointed the pillar, where you made a vow to me. Now, rise up, leave this land, and return to the land of your kindred.’”
14. And Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, “Is there any longer a portion or an inheritance for us in our father’s house?
15. Are we not counted as strangers to him? For he has sold us and has completely devoured our money also.
16. For all the riches that God has taken away from our father is for us and our sons. Now then, do all that God has said to you.”
17. And Jacob arose and set his sons and his wives onto the camels.
18. And he led away all his livestock and all his goods that he had acquired, the property of livestock that he had acquired in Padan-aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.
19. And when Laban went to shear his sheep, Rachel stole the teraphim⁵⁹ that were her father’s.
20. And Jacob deceived Laban the Aramean, in that he did not tell him that he was leaving.
21. And he left with everything he had, and he rose up and crossed over the river, and set his face toward Mount Gilead.
22. And on the third day, it was reported to Laban that Jacob had fled.
23. And he took his kinsmen with him, and he pursued him on the road for seven days. And he overtook him at Mount Gilead.
24. And God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream at night, and He said to him, “You beware, that you speak neither good nor bad to Jacob!”
25. And Laban caught up with Jacob. Now, Jacob had pitched his tent on the mountain, and Laban camped on Mount Gilead with his kinsmen.
26. And Laban said to Jacob, “What have you done? You deceived me and led my daughters away like captives of the sword!
27. Why did you secretly flee and deceive me? And you did not tell me, so that I could send you away with rejoicing, with songs, with timbrel and lyre.

⁵⁹ That is, “household idols”.

28. And you did not let me kiss my sons and my daughters! You have now acted foolishly in so doing!
29. It is in my power to do you harm, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, ‘Be careful not to speak good or bad to Jacob.’
30. So now, though you must go because you yearn so much for your father’s house, why have you stolen my gods?’
31. And Jacob answered and said to Laban, “I left because I was afraid, for I thought you might take your daughters away from me by force.
32. And with whomever you find your gods, let him not live! Before our kinsmen, point out what is yours with me, and take it!” (But Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.)
33. And Laban went into Jacob’s tent, and into Leah’s tent, and into the tent of the two handmaidens, but he found nothing. And when he came out of Leah’s tent, he went into Rachel’s tent.
34. Now, Rachel had taken the teraphim, and she had put them in the camel’s saddlebag and was sitting on them. And Laban felt around throughout the tent, but he found nothing.
35. Then she said to her father, “Do not let it be displeasing in the eyes of my lord that I am not able to rise up in your presence, for the way of women is upon me.” So, Laban searched but could not find the teraphim.
36. Then Jacob grew hot and contended with Laban, and Jacob answered Laban, saying, “What is my transgression, or what is my sin that you have so hotly pursued after me?
37. You have groped through all my stuff! What of anything from your house have you found? Set it here, before my kinsmen and your kinsmen, and let them judge between the two of us!
38. These twenty years I was with you. Your ewes and your goats were not barren, and I did not eat the rams of your flock.
39. I did not bring a torn animal to you; I bore the loss of it. You exacted it of me, whether stolen by day or stolen by night.
40. This is how I lived! By day, drought consumed me, and by night, the cold; and sleep fled from my eyes.
41. This is how it was for me twenty years in your house! I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock. And you changed my wages ten times!
42. If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been with me, you would have now sent me away with nothing. God saw my abuse and the toil of my hands, and he rebuked you last night.”
43. Then Laban answered and said to Jacob, “These daughters are my daughters! And these children are my children! And these flocks are my flocks! Everything you are looking

- at belongs to me! And my daughters, what can I do for them today, or for their children whom they bore?
44. So now, come, and you and I will make a covenant, and it will be for a witness between me and you.”
 45. And Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar.
 46. And Jacob told his kinsmen to gather up stones, and they took stones and made a heap, and they ate there on the pile of stones.
 47. And Laban called it, “Mound of Witness” in his language,⁶⁰ and Jacob called it, “Mound of Witness” in his language.⁶¹
 48. And Laban said, “Today this mound is witness between me and you.” In this, Laban called it Mound of Witness in Jacob's tongue,
 49. and Mizpah,⁶² for he said, “GOD keep watch between me and you while we are out of each other’s sight.
 50. If you afflict my daughters, or if you take wives other than my daughters—no man is with us—See! God is witness between me and you.”
 51. And Laban said to Jacob, “Behold this mound, and behold this pillar which I have set up between me and you.
 52. This mound is witness, and this pillar is witness, that I will not go past this mound to you and that you will not come past this mound and this pillar to me, for evil.
 53. The gods of Abraham and the gods of Nahor, the gods of their father, judge between us!” But Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac.
 54. And Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain, and he invited his kinsmen to eat bread, and they ate bread, and they lodged on the mountain that night.
 55. And Laban rose up early in the morning, and he kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them. Then Laban left and returned to his own place.

Genesis 32

- ¶1. And Jacob went on his way, and angels of God met him.
2. And when Jacob saw them, he said, “This is the camp of God!” And he called the name of that place Mahanaim.⁶³
- ¶3. And Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to Esau his brother, to the land of Seir, the country of Edom.
4. And he commanded them, saying, “Thus say to my lord, to Esau, ‘Thus says your servant Jacob: I have sojourned with Laban and stayed there until now.

⁶² “That is, “watching”.

⁶³ That is, “two camps”.

5. And I have oxen and donkeys, sheep, menservants and maidservants, and I have sent to tell my lord, to find favor in your eyes.”
6. And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, “We came to your brother Esau, and he is also coming to meet you, and four hundred men with him.”
7. And Jacob was very afraid and distressed, and he divided the people that were with him, and the flocks and the cattle and the camels, into two camps.
8. For he thought, “If Esau comes to the one camp and strikes it, then the remaining camp will escape.”
9. Then Jacob said, “O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the GOD who said to me, ‘Return to your land and to your kindred, and I will deal well with you.’”
10. I am not worthy of any of the mercies or any of the truth that you have shown to your servant, for with my staff, I crossed over this Jordan, and now I have become two camps.
11. Save me, I pray, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau, because I fear him, lest he come and attack me, and mother with children.
12. For you said, ‘I will surely do good to you and will make your seed like the sand of the sea, which cannot be counted for multitude.’”
13. And he stayed there that night, and he took a gift for Esau his brother from what had come into his hand:
14. two hundred she-goats, twenty he-goats, two hundred ewes, twenty rams,
15. thirty suckling camels and their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty she-asses and ten foals.
16. And he gave them to his servants, each drove by itself. And he said to his servants, “Cross over before me, and keep a space between each drove.”
17. And he commanded the first, saying, “When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, saying, ‘Who do you belong to?’ and ‘Where are you going?’ and ‘Whose are these before you?’
18. then you will say, ‘They are your servant Jacob’s; it is a gift sent to my lord Esau. And behold, he is also behind us.’”
19. And he commanded also the second and the third, even all who walked behind the droves, saying, “You will speak the same thing to Esau when you find him.
20. You will also say, ‘Behold, your servant Jacob is behind us.’” (Because he thought, “I will appease him with the gift going ahead of me. And afterwards, I will see his face, and perhaps he will accept me.”)
21. And the gift passed on before him, and he remained that night in the camp.
22. And he rose up that night and took his two wives, and his two maidservants, and his eleven sons, and he crossed over Jabbok Ford.
23. And he took them and sent them over the river, and he sent his possessions over.
24. And Jacob was left by himself, and a man wrestled with him until dawn.

25. And he saw that he was not overcoming him, so he struck his hip-socket, and he dislocated Jacob's hip-socket while he was wrestling with him.
26. And he said, "Let me go, for the dawn has come!" But he said, "I will not let you go unless you bless me!"
27. Then he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob".
28. And he said, "Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but Israel,⁶⁴ because you have contended with God and with men, and have prevailed."
29. And Jacob asked and said, "I pray you, tell me your name." And he said, "Why do you ask for my name?" And he blessed him there.
30. And Jacob called the name of the place Penuel⁶⁵ because he said, "I have seen God face to face, yet my life was spared."
31. And the sun rose over him as he left Penuel, and he was limping because of his hip.
32. For this reason, the children of Israel, to this day, do not eat the thigh sinew that is on the hip-socket, because he struck Jacob's hip-socket on the thigh sinew.

Genesis 33

1. And Jacob lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, Esau was coming, and with him were four hundred men. And he divided the children among Leah and Rachel and the two maidservants.
2. And he put the maidservants and their children at the front, then Leah and her children, and after them, Rachel and Joseph.
3. And he passed over before them, and he bowed himself to the ground seven times until he came near his brother.
4. And Esau ran to meet him, and he hugged him, and he fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept.
5. And he lifted up his eyes and saw the women and the children, and he said, "Whose are these? Yours?" And he said, "The children with which God has favored your servant."
6. And the maidservants drew near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves.
7. And Leah and her children also drew near, and they bowed themselves. Then Joseph and Rachel drew near and bowed themselves.
8. And he said, "Whose is all this company that I met? Yours?" And he said, "These were to find favor in the eyes of my lord!"
9. And Esau said, "I have much, my brother; keep what is yours for yourself."
10. And Jacob said, "No, I beg you! If it be that I have found favor in your eyes, take my gift from my hand because I have seen your face, as seeing the face of God, and you are pleased with me.

⁶⁴ That is, "He perseveres with God."

⁶⁵ That is, "face of God".

11. Take now my blessing that was brought to you because God has shown me favor and because I have all I need." And he urged him, and he took it.
12. And he said, "Let us break camp and leave, and let me go before you."
13. And he said to him, "My lord knows the children are tender, and the flocks and the herds that are with me are nursing. And if they drive them too hard in one day, all the flocks will die.
14. If you please, let my lord pass over before his servant, and let me travel more slowly at the pace of the cattle before me and at the pace of the children until I come to my lord in Seir."
15. And Esau said, "If you permit me, I will leave some of the people with you who are with me." And he said, "Why is this? Let me find favor in my lord's eyes."
16. And Esau headed back that day on his way to Seir.
17. But Jacob set out for Succoth. And he built himself a house, and he made shelters for his cattle, for which reason he named the place Succoth.⁶⁶
- ¶18. And Jacob came safely to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, as he travelled from Padan-aram. And he camped before the city.
19. And he purchased the part of the field where he pitched his tent from the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father, for one hundred kesitah.⁶⁷
20. And there he erected an altar, and he called it, El-Elohe-Israel.⁶⁸

Genesis 34

- ¶1. And Dinah, the daughter of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land.
2. And Shechem ben-Hamor the Hivite, prince of the land, saw her. And he took her, and lay with her, and humbled her.
3. But his soul clung to Dinah, the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the girl and spoke kindly to her.
4. And Shechem spoke to Hamor, his father, saying, "Get me this girl for a wife."
5. And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah, his daughter, but his sons were with his cattle in the field; so, Jacob held his peace until they came in.
6. And Hamor, the father of Shechem, went out to Jacob to talk with him.
7. And Jacob's sons came in from the field when they heard it, and the men were grieved and very angry because he had committed a disgraceful act against Israel, to lie with the daughter of Jacob. For such is not done.
8. And Hamor spoke with them, saying, "My son Shechem has set his heart on your daughter. I pray you, give her to him for a wife.

⁶⁶ That is, "shelters".

⁶⁷ A unit of unknown type and value.

⁶⁸ That is, "God, the God of Israel".

9. Make marriages with us! Give us your daughters, and take our daughters for yourselves,
10. and live among us. The land is before you; live and do business in it, and acquire possessions in it.”
11. Then Shechem said to her father and to her brothers, “Let me find favor in your eyes. Whatever you say to me, I will give it.
12. Demand of me however much for a bride-price and gift; I will give whatever you tell me, only give me the girl for a wife.”
13. And Jacob’s sons answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully when they spoke because he had defiled Dinah their sister.
14. And they said to them, “We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to a man who is uncircumcised, for to us, that is a disgrace.
15. Only on this condition will we consent to you: if you become like us, and have every male among you circumcised.
16. Then we will give our daughters to you and take your daughters for ourselves, and we will dwell among you, and we will become one people.
17. But if you do not consent to us to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and be gone.”
18. And their words were good in the eyes of Hamor and in the eyes of Shechem, Hamor’s son.
19. And the young man did not delay to perform the deed, for he delighted in Jacob’s daughter, and he was more honorable than any of his father’s house.
20. And Hamor and his son Shechem went to the gate of their city, and they spoke to the men of their city, saying,
21. “These men are peaceably disposed toward us. Let them dwell in the land and trade in it, for, behold, the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters as wives for us and give our daughters to them.
22. But the men will consent to us, to dwell among us and become one people, only on this condition, that every male among us be circumcised as they are circumcised.
23. Their cattle, and their property, and all their livestock—won’t they be ours? Only, let us consent to them, and let them dwell among us.”
24. And they consented to Hamor and Shechem his son, everyone who went out at the gate of his city. And every male was circumcised, all who went out at the gate of his city.
25. And it came to pass on the third day, while they were still in pain, that two sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah’s brothers, took each his sword, and they came into the city boldly and killed every male.
26. And they killed Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword. And they took Dinah out of the house of Shechem and left.

27. The sons of Jacob went in upon the slain and looted the city because they had defiled their sister.
28. They took their flocks, and their herds, and their asses, and whatever was in the city, and whatever was in the field,
29. even all their wealth, and they took captive all their children and their women, and they took as spoil anyone else who was in the house.
30. And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, “You have caused me trouble, to make me stink to the inhabitant of the land, the Canaanites and the Perizzites—and I, being just a few men! They will assemble against me and strike me down, and I and my house will be annihilated.”
31. But they said, “Should he treat our sister like a harlot?”

Genesis 35

- ¶1. And God said to Jacob, “Arise. Go up to Bethel, and dwell there, and make an altar there to the God who appeared to you when you fled from Esau your brother.”
2. Then Jacob said to his household and to everyone with him, “Get rid of the foreign gods that are among you! Purify yourselves, and change your clothes,
3. and let us arise and go up to Bethel, and I will make an altar there to the God who answered me in the day of my distress and was with me in the journey that I took.”
4. And they gave Jacob all the foreign gods that were in their possession and the rings that were in their ears, and Jacob hid them under the terebinth that was near Shechem.
5. Then they broke camp, and the terror of God was on the cities that were around them so that they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.
6. And Jacob came to Luz, that is, Bethel, which was in the land of Canaan, he and all the people that were with him.
7. And there he built an altar, and he called that place El-Bethel⁶⁹ because God revealed Himself to him there when he fled from the face of his brother.
8. And Deborah, Rebekah’s nurse, died, and she was buried at Bethel underneath the oak, and he named it Alon-baccuth.⁷⁰

- ¶9. And God appeared again to Jacob when he came from Padan-aram, and He blessed him.
10. (Now, God had said to him, “Your name is Jacob, but your name will not be Jacob any longer; instead, Israel will be your name.” And so, He named him Israel.)
11. And God said to him, “I am Almighty God. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a company of nations will come from you, and kings will come forth from your loins.
12. And the land that I gave to Abraham and to Isaac will I give to you, and I will give the land to your seed after you.”

⁶⁹ That is, “God of Bethel”.

⁷⁰ That is, “oak of weeping”.

13. Then God went up from him from the place where He had spoken with him.
14. And Jacob set up a pillar at the place where He had spoken with him, a stone pillar. And he poured out a libation on it, and he poured oil on it.
15. And Jacob named the place where God spoke with him Bethel.
16. And they set out from Bethel, and there was still some distance to go to Ephrath when Rachel went into labor, and she had a hard labor.
17. And it came to pass when she was in hard labor that the midwife said to her, "Don't be afraid; you have had another son."
18. And it came to pass as her soul was departing (for she died), that she named him Benoni.⁷¹ But his father called him Benjamin.⁷²
19. And so, Rachel died and was buried along the road to Ephrath, which is Bethlehem.
20. And Jacob set up a pillar on her grave, which is the pillar of Rachel's grave to this day.
21. And Israel pulled up and pitched his tent beyond Migdol-eder.
22. And it came to pass that while Israel dwelled in that area, Reuben came and lay with Bilhah, his father's concubine. And Israel heard about it.
¶Now, there were twelve sons of Jacob.
23. The sons of Leah: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and then Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun.
24. The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.
25. And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid: Dan and Naphtali.
26. And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid: Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob which were born to him in Padan-aram.
27. And Jacob came to Isaac, his father, to Mamre, the city of Arba, which is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac had sojourned.
28. And the days of Isaac were one hundred and eighty years.
29. And Isaac yielded up the spirit and died, and he was gathered to his people, old and full of days. And Esau and Jacob, his sons, buried him.

Genesis 36

- ¶1. And these are the generations of Esau, that is, Edom:
2. Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah, daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Oholibamah, daughter of Anah, daughter of Zibeon the Hivite,
3. and Basemath, daughter of Ishmael, sister of Nebajoth.
4. And Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, and Basemath bore Reuel.
5. And Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jaalam, and Korah. These are the sons of Esau which were born to him in the land of Canaan.

⁷¹ That is, "son of my idolatry".

⁷² That is, "son of my right hand".

6. And Esau took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all the souls in his household, and his cattle, and all his beasts, and all his possessions that he had acquired in the land of Canaan, and he went to a land away from Jacob his brother.
7. For their possessions were too great to dwell together, and the land where they sojourned was not able to bear them because of their cattle.
8. And Esau dwelled in Mount Seir. Esau is Edom.
9. And these are the generations of Esau, father of Edom, at Mount Seir.
10. These were the names of the sons of Esau: Eliphaz, son of Adah, Esau's wife; Reuel, son of Basemath, Esau's wife.
11. And the sons of Eliphaz: Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gaatam, and Kenaz.
12. (And Timna was a concubine to Eliphaz, Esau's son. And to Eliphaz, she bore Amalek.) These were the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.
13. And these were the sons of Reuel: Nahath and Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were the children of Basemath, Esau's wife.
14. And these were the sons of Oholibamah, daughter of Anah, daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife. And she bore to Esau Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah.
15. These were the chiefs among the sons of Esau. The sons of Eliphaz, Esau's firstborn: Chief Teman, Chief Omar, Chief Zepho, Chief Kenaz,
16. Chief Korah, Chief Gaatam, Chief Amalek. These were the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom. These were the sons of Adah.
17. And these were the sons of Reuel, Esau's son: Chief Nahath, Chief Zerah, Chief Shammah, Chief Mizzah. These were the chiefs of Reuel in the land of Edom. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.
18. And these were the sons of Oholibamah, Esau's wife: Chief Jeush, Chief Jaalam, Chief Korah. These were the chiefs of Oholibamah, daughter of Anah, Esau's wife.
19. These were the sons of Esau, which is Edom, and these were their chiefs.
20. These were the sons of Seir the Horite, inhabitants of the land: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,
21. Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These were the chiefs of the Horites, the sons of Seir, in the land of Edom.
22. And the sons of Lotan: Hori and Hemam. And Lotan's sister was Timna.
23. And these were the sons of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.
24. And these were the sons of Zibeon, even Aiah and Anah. That is the Anah who discovered the springs⁷³ in the desert while tending the donkeys for Zibeon his father.
25. And these were the sons of Anah: Dishon. And Oholibamah was Anah's daughter.
26. And these were the sons of Dishon: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.
27. These were the sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.

⁷³ Hebrew uncertain.

28. These were the sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.
 29. These were the Horite chiefs: Chief Lotan, Chief Shobal, Chief Zibeon, Chief Anah,
 30. Chief Dishon, Chief Ezer, Chief Dishan. These were the chiefs of the Horites, according to their clans in the land of Seir.
- ¶31. And these are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before a king reigned over the children of Israel:
32. Bela ben-Beor ruled in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhbabah.
 33. And Bela died, and Jobab ben-Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.
 34. And Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead.
 35. And Husham died, and Hadad ben-Bedad, who struck Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead. And the name of his city was Avith.
 36. And Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead.
 37. And Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth-by-the-River reigned in his stead.
 38. And Shaul died, and Baal-hanan ben-Acbor reigned in his stead.
 39. And Baal-hanan ben-Acbor died, and Hadar reigned in his stead. And the name of his city was Pau, and the name of his wife was Mehetabeel, daughter of Matred, daughter of Me-zahab.
- ¶40. And these were the names of the chiefs of Esau by their families, by their places, by their names: Chief Timna, Chief Alvah, Chief Jetheth,
41. Chief Oholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon,
 42. Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar,
 43. Chief Magdiel, Chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom by their dwellings in the land of their possession. This is Esau, father of Edom.

Genesis 37

- ¶1. And Jacob dwelled in the land of his father's sojournings, in the land of Canaan.
2. These are the generations of Jacob. Seventeen-year-old Joseph was tending the flock with his brothers, and the young man was with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives. And Joseph brought an evil report about them to their father.
 3. Now, Israel loved Joseph more than any of his sons because he was the son of his old age, and he made him a long-sleeved tunic.⁷⁴
 4. And his brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of his brothers, and they hated him and were not able to speak peaceably to him.
 5. And Joseph dreamed a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him all the more.
 6. For He said to them, "Hear this dream, I beseech you, that I have dreamed.

7. Now, behold, we were binding sheaves in the midst of the field, and behold, my sheaf arose and even stood up. And behold, your sheaves gathered round and bowed themselves to my sheaf."
8. And his brothers said to him, "Would you reign as a king over us? Would you really rule over us?" And they hated him even more because of his dreams and his words.
9. And he dreamed yet another dream, and he told it to his brothers. And he said, "Behold, I have dreamed another dream, and behold, the sun, and the moon, and eleven stars were bowing to me."
10. And he told it to his father and to his brothers. And his father rebuked him and said to him, "What is this dream that you have dreamed? Will I, your mother, and your brothers really come bow to the earth before you?"
11. And His brothers envied him, but his father kept the matter in mind.
12. And his brothers went to tend their father's flock in Shechem.
13. And Israel said to Joseph, "Aren't your brothers tending the flock at Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them." And he said to him, "Here I am."
14. And he said to him, "Go now, check on the welfare of your brothers and the welfare of the flock, and bring me word again." And he sent him from the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.
15. And a man found him, and behold, he was wandering in the field. And the man asked him, saying, "What are you looking for?"
16. And he said, "I am looking for my brothers. Tell me, I beg you, where they are pasturing."
17. And the man said, "They moved on from here, for I heard them say, 'Let's go to Dothan.'" And Joseph went after his brothers, and he found them at Dothan.
18. And they saw him at a distance, and before he drew near them, they plotted against him to kill him.
19. And each one said to his brother, "Behold! This dream-meister is coming!"
20. Come and let's kill him now, and dump him into one of the pits. We will say, 'A wild animal has eaten him,' and then we'll see what becomes of his dreams."
21. But when Reuben heard that, he delivered him from their hand, and he said, "Let's not kill him."
22. And Reuben told them, "Do not shed blood; throw him into this pit that is in the wilderness, but do not lay a hand on him," in order to deliver him from their hand, to return him to his father.
23. So, it came to pass when Joseph came to his brothers that they stripped Joseph of his tunic that was on him, the long-sleeved tunic,
24. and they took him and threw him into the pit, and the pit was empty; there was no water in it.

25. Then they sat down to eat bread. And they lifted their eyes and looked, and behold, a caravan of Ishmeelites was coming from Gilead with their camels bearing spices, and balm, and myrrh, on their way to take them down to Egypt.
26. And Judah said to his brothers, “What profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his blood?
27. Come on, and let’s sell him to the Ishmeelites, and let not our hand be upon him, for he is our brother; he is our flesh.” And his brothers consented.
28. Then the men passed by, Midianite merchantmen, and they drew Joseph up and lifted him from the pit. And so, they sold Joseph to the Ishmeelites for twenty pieces of silver, and they took Joseph to Egypt.
29. And when Reuben returned to the pit, behold, Joseph was not in the pit. And he tore his clothes.
30. Then he returned to his brothers and said, “The young man is gone! And I, where shall I go?”
31. And they took Joseph’s tunic, and they killed a ram of the goats and dipped the tunic in the blood.
32. And they sent the long-sleeved tunic, and men brought it to their father and said, “We found this. We beg you, identify this, whether it is your son’s tunic or not.”
33. And he recognized it and said, “It is my son’s tunic. A wild beast has eaten him. Joseph is surely torn to pieces.”
34. And Jacob rent his clothes and put sackcloth on his loins, and he mourned many days for his son.
35. And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted, and he said, “I will go down mourning into Sheol, to my son.” And his father wept for him.
36. And the Midianites sold him into Egypt, to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, chief of the guard.

Genesis 38

- ¶1. And it came to pass at that time that Judah went down from his brothers and turned aside to an Adullamite man, and his name was Hirah.
2. And Judah saw there the daughter of a Canaanite man (and his name was Shua), and he married her and went in to her.
3. And she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Er.
4. And she conceived again and bore a son, and she called his name Onan.
5. And again, she bore a son, and she called his name Shelah. And it was at Chezib that she bore him.
6. And Judah took a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar.
7. But Er, the firstborn of Judah, was wicked in the eyes of Jehovah, and Jehovah killed him.

8. And Judah said to Onan, “Go to the wife of your brother, and do the duty of a brother-in-law to her, and raise up offspring for your brother.”
9. But Onan knew that the offspring would not be his, and so, it happened that when he went in to his brother’s wife, that he wasted it on the ground, not giving seed to his brother.
10. And what he did was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, and He killed him also.
11. And Judah said to Tamar his daughter-in-law, “Remain a widow in your father’s house until Shelah, my son, is grown” (for he thought, “lest he die also like his brothers”). And Tamar went and dwelled in the house of her father.
12. And many days passed, and the daughter of Shua, wife of Judah, died. And Judah was comforted, and he went up to the shearers of his sheep, he and his friend, the Adullamite, Hirah, to Timnah.
13. And it was reported to Tamar, saying, “Behold, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his flock.”
14. And she took off her widow’s clothes and concealed herself with a veil, and she covered herself and sat at the entrance of the two springs which are along the road to Timnah, for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she had not been given to him for a wife.
15. And Judah saw her, but he thought her to be a harlot because she had covered her face.
16. And he turned in to her on the way, and he said, “Come now, let me come in to you.” (But he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law.) And she said, “What will you give me, that you may come in to me?”
17. And he said, “I will send a kid of the goats from the flock.” And she said, “If you give a pledge until you send it.”
18. And he said, “What is the pledge that I should give you?” And she said, “Your seal, and your cord, and your staff that is in your hand.” And he gave it to her, and he went in to her, and she conceived by him.
19. And she got up and left, and she took off her veil and put on her widow’s clothes.
20. And Judah sent the kid of the goats by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to take the pledge from the hand of the woman, but he did not find her.
21. And he asked the men of her place, saying, “Where is the sacred harlot who was at the two springs by the road?” But they said, “There is no sacred harlot in this place.”
22. And he returned to Judah and said, “I did not find her, and also, the men of the place said, ‘There is no sacred harlot in this place.’”
23. And Judah said, “Let her take it for herself, lest we become a laughingstock. Behold, I sent this kid, and you did not find her.”
24. And it came to pass about the third month that it was reported to Judah, “Tamar, your daughter-in-law, has played the harlot, and moreover, behold, she has conceived by whoredom.” And Judah said, “Bring her out, and let her be burned!”

25. As she was being brought out, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, “By the man to whom these things belong, I conceived.” And she said, “I beg you, acknowledge whose these are: the seal, and the cord, and the staff.”
26. And Judah recognized them, and he said, “She is more righteous than I, for I did not give her to Shelah my son.” And he never again knew her.
27. And it came to pass at the time for her to give birth that, behold, twins were in her womb.
28. And as she was giving birth, it happened that one put out a hand, and the midwife took it and tied scarlet thread around his hand, saying, “This one came out first.”
29. But it came to pass that as he withdrew his hand, behold, his brother came out. And she said, “How did you make a breach for yourself?” And he called his name Pharez.⁷⁵
30. And afterwards, his brother came out on whose hand was the scarlet, and he called his name Zarah.

Genesis 39

- ¶1. And Joseph was brought down to Egypt. And Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, chief of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the hand of the Ishmeelites who had brought him down there.
2. But Jehovah was with Joseph, and He prospered him while he was in the house of his Egyptian master.
3. And his master saw that Jehovah was with him, that Jehovah caused all he did to prosper in his hand.
4. And so, Joseph found favor in his eyes, and he ministered to him. And he set him over his house, and he put all that he had into his hand.
5. And it came to pass, from the time that he set him over his house and over all that he had that Jehovah blessed the house of the Egyptian for Joseph’s sake. And the blessing of Jehovah was on all that he had in the house and in the field.
6. And he left all that he had in the hand of Joseph, and he did not concern himself with anything he had, except the bread he ate. And Joseph was well-built and good-looking.
7. And it came to pass after these things that his master’s wife set her eyes on Joseph, and she said, “Lie with me.”
8. But he refused and said to his master’s wife, “Behold, my master is not concerned about what is with me in the house, and he has put all that he has into my hand.
9. No one is greater in this house than I, and he has not withheld anything from me except you because you are his wife. So how can I do this great evil, and sin against God?”

⁷⁵ That is, “breach”.

10. And it came to pass that, as she spoke to Joseph day by day, he did not listen to her, to lie by her to be with her.
11. And it came to pass during this time that he came into the house to do his work, and not one of the men of the house was there in the house.
12. And she caught him by his robe, saying, "Lie with me!" And he left his robe in her hand and fled, and went outside.
13. And it came to pass when she saw that he had left his robe in her hand and had fled outside
14. that she called to the men of her house and spoke to them, saying, "Look! He brought us a Hebrew man to toy with us. He came at me to lie with me, but I cried out with a loud voice!"
15. And it came to pass when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried out that he left his robe by me and fled, and went outside."
16. And she kept his robe by her until his master came home.
17. And she spoke these same words to him, saying, "The Hebrew slave that you brought in to us came to me to play around with me."
18. And it came to pass when I lifted up my voice and cried out that he left his robe by me and fled outside."
19. And it came to pass when his master heard the words of his wife that she spoke to him, saying, "Your slave did these things to me," that his anger was kindled.
20. And Joseph's master took him and put him in the prison house, the place where the king's prisoners were confined. And so, he was there in the prison house.
21. But Jehovah was with Joseph, and He showed him mercy and gave him favor in the eyes of the warden of the prison house.
22. And the warden of the prison house put into Joseph's hand all the prisoners who were in the prison house, so that he was the doer of everything they did there.
23. The warden of the prison house paid no attention to anything that was in his hand, for Jehovah was with him, and whatever he did, Jehovah made to prosper.

Genesis 40

- ¶1. And it came to pass after these things that the butler of the king of Egypt and the baker sinned against their master, the king of Egypt.
2. And Pharaoh was angry with his two officers, with the chief of the butlers and the chief of the bakers.
3. And he put them into custody in the house of the chief of the guard, into the prison house where Joseph was confined.
4. And the chief of the guard assigned Joseph to them, and so, he attended to them. And they were in custody for some time.
5. And the king of Egypt's butler and baker who were confined in the prison house both dreamed a dream, each his own dream in the same night, each dream with its own meaning.

6. And Joseph came to them in the morning and looked at them, and, behold, they were troubled.
7. And he asked Pharaoh's officers who were with him in custody in his master's house, saying, "Why are your faces downcast today?"
8. And they said to him, "We dreamed a dream, and there is no one to interpret it." And Joseph said to them, "Don't interpretations belong to God? I pray you, tell me."
9. And the chief of the butlers told his dream to Joseph and said to him, "In my dream, there was a vine before me.
10. And on the vine were three branches, and when it budded, it went up into blossom, and its clusters ripened into grapes.
11. And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I put the cup into the hand of Pharaoh."
12. And Joseph said to him, "This is its interpretation: the three branches are three days.
13. In three days, Pharaoh will lift up your head and return you to your office, and you will put Pharaoh's cup into his hand as before when you were his cupbearer.
14. Only, do remember me when it goes well for you, and deal kindly with me, I beg you, and mention me to Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house.
15. For I was stolen from the land of the Hebrews, and here, too, I have done nothing that they should have put me in the dungeon."
16. When the chief of the bakers saw that the interpretation was good, then he said to Joseph, "I was also in my dream, and there were three baskets of white bread on my head.
17. And in the top basket was all kinds of baked food for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them from the basket on my head."
18. And Joseph answered and said, "This is its interpretation: the three baskets are three days.
19. In three days, Pharaoh will lift up your head from off you and will hang you on a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh off you."
20. And it came to pass on the third day, Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast for all his servants, and he lifted up the head of the chief of the butlers and the head of the chief of the bakers in the midst of his servants.
21. And then he returned the chief of the butlers to his butlership, and he put the cup into Pharaoh's hand,
22. but he hanged the chief of the bakers, just as Joseph had interpreted to them.
23. But the chief of the butlers did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

Genesis 41

- ¶1. And it came to pass at the end of two years that Pharaoh dreamed, and behold, he was standing by the Nile.

2. And there were seven cows coming up from the Nile, healthy-looking and fat. And they were grazing in the reeds.
3. And behold, seven other cows came up from the Nile after them, bad-looking and gaunt. And they stood beside the other cows on the bank of the Nile.
4. And the bad-looking, gaunt cows ate up the seven healthy-looking, fat cows. And Pharaoh awoke.
5. And he fell asleep and dreamed a second time. And there were seven ears of grain coming up on one stalk, full and good.
6. And behold, seven thin ears of grain, scorched by the east wind, sprouted after them.
7. And the thin ears swallowed the seven fat, full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was a dream.
8. And it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men, and Pharaoh recounted to them his dream, but there was no one who could interpret them for Pharaoh.
9. Then the chief of the butlers spoke to Pharaoh, saying, "I remember my sins today."
10. Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and he put me into custody in the house of the chief of the guard, me and the chief of the bakers.
11. And we dreamed a dream the same night, he and I. Each of us dreamed, according to the interpretation of his dream.
12. And a young Hebrew man was there with us, a slave of the chief of the guard, and we recounted them to him, and he interpreted our dreams for us. To each man he gave the interpretation, according to his dream.
13. And it came to pass! Just as he interpreted for us, so it happened. Me, he restored to my position, but him, he hanged."
14. Then Pharaoh sent and called for Joseph, and they hurriedly brought him out of the dungeon. And when he had shaved and changed his garments, he came in to Pharaoh.
15. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one to interpret it, but I have heard it said of you that you can understand a dream to interpret it."
16. And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, "Not I, but God; He will give Pharaoh an answer of peace."
17. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "In my dream, behold, I was standing on the bank of the Nile.
18. And there were seven cows coming up from the Nile, fat and healthy-looking, and they grazed among the reeds.
19. And behold, seven other cows came up after them, poor, and very bad-looking, and gaunt. I have not seen as bad as they in all the land of Egypt.
20. And the thin, bad cows devoured the seven fat cows that were first,
21. and they went into their stomachs. However, one would not know that they had gone into their stomachs, for they looked as bad as at the beginning. Then I woke up.
22. And then I saw in my dream, and there were seven ears of grain coming up on one stalk, full and good.

23. And behold, seven ears of grain, withered, thin, scorched by the east wind, sprouted after them.
24. And the thin ears swallowed the seven good ears. And I told this to the magicians, but there was no one to explain it to me."
25. Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "The dream of Pharaoh—it is one. God has made known to Pharaoh what He is about to do.
26. Those seven goodly cows are seven years. And those seven good ears of grain are seven years. It is one dream.
27. And those seven gaunt and bad cows that came up after them are seven years. And those seven empty ears of grain scorched by the east wind are seven years of famine.
28. This is the reason that I said to Pharaoh that God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do.
29. Behold, seven years of great plenty are coming in all the land of Egypt.
30. But seven years of famine will come up after them, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine will devour the land.
31. And the plenty in the land will be unknown by reason of the famine that will follow, for it will be very severe.
32. And inasmuch as the dream was doubled to Pharaoh, the thing is settled with God, and God is hastening to do it.
33. So, let Pharaoh choose now a man of understanding and wisdom, and set him over the land of Egypt.
34. Let Pharaoh act, and appoint overseers over the land, and take one-fifth of the produce of the land of Egypt during the seven years of plenty.
35. And let them gather all the food of these coming good years, and let them heap up grain under the hand of Pharaoh for food in the cities, and let them store it.
36. And let the food be for a reserve for the land for the seven years of famine which will be in the land of Egypt, so that the land will not be destroyed by the famine."
37. And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all of his servants.
38. And Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can there be found such a man as this, in whom is the spirit of God?"
39. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Forasmuch as God has shown you all this, there is no one as understanding and wise as you.
40. You will be over my house, and to your word will all my people submit. Only in the throne will I be greater than you."
41. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Behold! I have set you over all the land of Egypt."
42. And Pharaoh took his ring off his hand and put it on the hand of Joseph, and he dressed him in garments of fine linen, and he put the gold chain around his neck,
43. and he had him ride in his second chariot, and they cried out before him, "Bow the knee!" And he put him over all the land of Egypt.

44. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I am Pharaoh, and without you shall no man lift his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt!”
45. And Pharaoh called Joseph’s name, Zaphnath-Paeneah.⁷⁶ And he gave him Asenath, daughter of Poti-phera, the priest of On, for a wife. And Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.
46. And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from before Pharaoh and passed throughout all the land of Egypt.
47. And during the seven years of plenty, the land produced by handfuls.
48. And for seven years, he gathered all the food that was in the land of Egypt and stored the food in the cities; he stored inside a city the food from the field that was around it.
49. And Joseph heaped up grain like the sand of the sea, very much, until he stopped counting, for it was beyond measure.
50. And there were two sons born to Joseph before the time of famine came, whom Asenath, daughter of Poti-phera, the priest of On, bore to him.
51. And Joseph called the name of the firstborn, Manasseh⁷⁷ (for he said, “God has made me forget all my trouble and all my father’s house.”)
52. And he called the name of the second one, Ephraim⁷⁸ (for he said, “God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction.”)
53. And the seven years of abundance that were in the land of Egypt came to an end.
54. And the seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said. And the famine was in all countries, but in all the land of Egypt, there was bread.
55. And all the land of Egypt was hungry, and the people cried out to Pharaoh for bread, but Pharaoh said to all of Egypt, “Go to Joseph. Whatever he tells you, do it.”
56. Now, the famine was upon the face of the whole land, and so, Joseph opened everything because of them, and he sold grain to the Egyptians. And the famine grew severe in the land of Egypt.
57. And all the earth came to Egypt to Joseph, to buy grain, for the famine was severe in all the earth.

Genesis 42

- ¶1. When Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, Jacob said to his sons, “Why are you looking at each other?”
2. And he said, “Behold, I hear that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy grain for us from there, so that we may live and not die.”
3. So, ten of Joseph’s brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt.

⁷⁶ Meaning unknown, but possibly, “the god speaks and he lives”.

⁷⁷ That is, “forgetting”.

⁷⁸ That is, “fruitful”.

4. But Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with his brothers, for he said, "Lest harm befall him."
5. And the sons of Israel came to buy grain among those who were coming, for the famine was in the land of Canaan.
6. And Joseph was governor over the land; he was the one selling grain to all the people of the earth. And Joseph's brothers came and bowed themselves to him, faces to the ground.
7. And Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but he acted toward them as if he were a stranger and spoke harshly to them. And he said to them, "Where do you come from?" And they said, "From the land of Canaan to buy food."
8. (Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him,
9. and Joseph remembered the dreams that he had dreamed about them.) And he said to them, "You are spies! You have come to see the nakedness of the land!"
10. But they said to him, "No, my lord! Your servants have come to buy food.
11. All of us are sons of one man. We are being truthful. Your servants are not spies."
12. But he said to them, "No! But you have come to see the nakedness of the land!"
13. And they said, "Your servants are twelve brothers. We are the sons of one man in the land of Canaan, but behold, the youngest is with our father today, and the other is no more."
14. But Joseph said to them, "It is what I said to you! You are spies!
15. By this will you be tested. By the life of Pharaoh, you shall not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here!
16. Send one of you and let him bring your brother, but you shall be confined. And so, your words will be put to the test, whether the truth be in you; and if not, by the life of Pharaoh, you are surely spies!"
17. Then he put them into custody for three days.
18. But on the third day, Joseph said to them, "Do this and live, for I fear God.
19. If you are being honest, let one of your brothers be bound in the house of your confinement, and you go, take grain for the hunger of your households.
20. And you bring your youngest brother to me, that your words may be confirmed, and you shall not die." And they did so.
21. And they said, each to his brother, "We are surely guilty because of our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul when he begged us for mercy and we would not listen. That is why this trouble has come upon us."
22. Then Reuben answered them, saying, "Didn't I say to you, 'Do not sin against the boy, ' but you would not listen? And now his blood, behold, is required!"
23. (Now, they did not know that Joseph understood them, for an interpreter had been between them.)

24. And he went away from them and wept. And he returned to them and spoke to them, and he took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.
25. And Joseph commanded his servants to fill their vessels with grain, and to return their silver, each into his sack, and to give them provision for the journey. And thus he did for them.
26. And they loaded their grain onto their donkeys and went away from there.
27. And one of them opened his sack at the khan to give feed to his donkey, and he saw his money, and behold, it was in the mouth of his bag.
28. And he said to his brothers, “My money has been restored! Yea, truly! Behold, it is in my bag!” And their hearts sank, and they were afraid, each saying to his brother, “What is this that God has done to us?”
29. And they came to Jacob their father, to the land of Canaan, and told him everything that had happened to them, saying,
30. “The man, the lord of the land, spoke harshly to us, and he held us as spies in the land.
31. And we told him, ‘We are truthful. We are not spies.
32. We were twelve brothers, sons of our father. One is not, and the youngest is with our father today in the land of Canaan.’
33. And the man, the lord of the land, said to us, ‘By this will I know that you are honest: leave one of your brothers with me, and for the hunger of your households, take grain, and go.
34. But bring your youngest brother to me, and I will know that you are not spies, but that you are honest. Then I will give your brother to you, and you may trade in the land.”
35. And it came to pass that as they were emptying their sacks, behold, every man’s pouch of silver was in his sack. And they saw their pouches of silver, they and their father, and they were afraid.
36. And Jacob their father said to them, “You have bereaved me! Joseph is no more, and Simeon is no more, and Benjamin, you would take away! Everything is against me!”
37. And Reuben spoke to his father, saying, “You may kill my two sons if I do not return him to you. Put him in my hand, and I will return him to you.”
38. But he said, “My son shall not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he alone is left. Harm will come to him on the journey that you take, and you will bring my hoary head down to Sheol in sorrow.”

Genesis 43

- ¶1. And the famine was severe in the land.
2. And it came to pass that when they finished eating the grain which they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, “Go back, and buy us a little food.”
3. But Judah spoke to him, saying, “The man sternly warned us, saying, ‘You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.’

4. If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy food for you,
5. but if you will not send him, we will not go down, for the man said to us, ‘You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.’”
6. And Israel said, “Why did you do me such evil as to tell the man that you have another brother?”
7. And they said, “The man asked in detail about us and our kindred, saying, ‘Is your father still alive? ’ and ‘Do you have a brother?’ And we answered him because he demanded these things. How would we have possibly known that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down?’”
8. And Judah said to Israel his father, “Send the young man with me, and let us rise up and go so that we may live and not die, both we and you, and our little ones.
9. I will be surety for him; you may require him of my hand. If I do not bring him to you and set him before you, I will bear the blame before you forever.
10. For had we not delayed, by now we would have already returned a second time.”
11. And Israel their father said to them, “If it is so, then do this. Take some of the best of the land in your vessels and carry a gift down to the man: a little balm, and a little honey, spice and myrrh, pistachios and almonds.
12. And take twice as much money with you. The silver that was returned in the mouth of your bags, carry it back with you. Maybe it was a mistake.
13. And take your brother and rise up. Go back to the man.
14. And God Almighty grant you mercy before the man and send back with you your other brother and Benjamin. As for me, if I am bereaved, I am bereaved.”
15. So, the men took the gift, and they took double the money with them, and Benjamin. And they rose up and went down to Egypt, and they stood before Joseph.
16. And Joseph saw Benjamin with them, and he said to the steward of his house, “Bring the men into the house, and slaughter a beast, and make ready, for the men shall eat with me at midday.”
17. And the man did as Joseph had said, and the man brought the men to Joseph’s house.
18. And the men were afraid because they were brought to Joseph’s house. And they said, “We are being brought in because of the silver that was returned in our bags the first time, that he may have pretext against us, and fall upon us, and take us for slaves, and our donkeys.”
19. And they approached the man who was over Joseph’s house, and they spoke to him at the entrance of the house.
20. And they said, “If you please, my lord, we really did come down the first time to buy food.
21. And it came to pass that when we came to the khan and opened our bags, behold, each man’s silver was in the mouth of his bag, our silver in its full weight, and we have brought it back with us.

22. Moreover, we have brought down more silver in our hand to buy food. We do not know who put our silver in our bags.”
23. And he said, “Peace be to you. Do not fear. Your God, even the God of your father, gave you treasure in your bags. Your silver came to me.” And he brought Simeon out to them.
24. Then the man brought the men into Joseph’s house. And he gave them water, and they washed their feet, and he provided feed for their donkeys.
25. And they prepared the gift for when Joseph came at midday, for they had heard that they would eat bread there.
26. And Joseph came home, and they brought into the house the gift for him that was in their hand. And they bowed down before him to the ground.
27. And he asked them of their welfare, and he said, “How is your father’s health, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still living?”
28. And they said, “Your servant, our father, is well. He is still alive.” And they bowed down and prostrated themselves.
29. And he lifted up his eyes and saw Benjamin his brother, the son of his mother, and he said, “Is this your youngest brother of whom you spoke to me?” And he said, “God be gracious to you, my son.”
30. And Joseph hurried away, for he was deeply moved for his brother, and he sought a place to weep. And he went into his private room and wept there.
31. Then he washed his face, and went out, and refrained himself. And he said, “Set out bread!”
32. And they set out a place for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians who were eating with him by themselves, for the Egyptians cannot eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to Egyptians.
33. And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth. And the men looked at each other in astonishment.
34. And a servant carried portions from before him to them, and Benjamin’s portion was five times more than the portions of any of them. And they drank and were drunk with him.

Genesis 44

- ¶1. And he commanded the steward of his house, saying, “Fill the men’s bags with as much food as they can lift. And put each one’s silver in the mouth of his bag.
2. Also, put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the youngest one’s bag, along with the money for his grain.” And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.
3. At morning light, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys.
4. They had left the city and were not far away when Joseph said to the steward of his house, “Rise up! Pursue after the men and overtake them, and say to them, ‘Why have you rewarded evil for good?’

5. Is this not that from which my lord drinks, and by which he truly divines? You have done evil in what you have done!"
6. And so, he overtook them and spoke these words to them.
7. And they said to him, "Why does my lord say such things as these? Be it far from your servants to do such a thing as that!"
8. Behold, the money that we found in the mouth of our bags, we brought back to you from the land of Canaan. How, then, would we steal silver or gold from your lord's house?
9. With whichever of your servants it is found, let him die, and we will also become slaves to my lord."
10. And he said, "Let it now be according to your words. The one with whom it is found shall be my slave; however, you shall be free."
11. And they hastened and lowered each man his bag to the ground, and opened each one's bag.
12. And he searched, beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin's bag.
13. And they tore their garments. Then each one loaded his donkey, and they returned to the city.
14. And Judah and his brothers came into Joseph's house, and he was still there, and they fell before him to the ground.
15. And Joseph said to them, "What is this deed that you have done? Do you not know that a man such as I can certainly divine?"
16. And Judah said, "What shall we say to my lord? What can we say, and how can we clear ourselves? God has uncovered the transgression of your slaves. Behold, we are slaves to my lord, both we and the one in whose hand the cup was found."
17. But he said, "Be it far from me to do that! The man in whose hand the cup was found, he shall be my slave, but you go on up to your father in peace."
- ¶18. But Judah approached him and said, "If you please, my lord, let your slave, I beg you, speak a word in the ears of my lord, and let not your anger burn against your slave because you are as Pharaoh."
19. My lord asked his slaves, saying, 'Do you have a father or a brother?'
20. And we said to my lord, 'We have an elderly father and a child of his old age, the youngest one, and his brother died, and he alone remains of his mother, and his father loves him.'
21. And you said to your slaves, 'You bring him down to me, and let me set my eyes on him.'
22. And we said to my lord, 'The young man cannot leave his father, for if he leaves his father, he will die.'

23. And you said to your slaves, ‘If your youngest brother does not come down with you, you shall not see my face again!’
24. And it came to pass that we went up to your servant, my father, and we told him the words of my lord.
25. And when our father said, ‘Return to buy a little food for us,’
26. we said, ‘We cannot go down! If our youngest brother is with us, we will go down, for we cannot see the face of the man if our youngest brother is not with us.’
27. And your servant, my father, said to us, ‘You know that my wife bore me two sons.
28. And one went out from me, and I said, “Surely, he is torn into pieces,” and I have not seen him since.
29. And if you take this one also from me and harm comes to him, you will bring down my hoary head to Sheol in misery.’
30. So, if I come now to your servant, my father, and the young man is not with us—his soul being bound up with his soul—
31. he will die when he sees that the young man isn’t with us, and your servants will bring down the hoary head of our father, your servant, to Sheol in sorrow.
32. For your servant became surety for the youth with my father, saying, ‘Let me be accursed if I do not bring him to you, and thus will I forever bear the blame of sinning against my father.’
33. So, I beg you, let your servant remain now instead of the youth as a slave to my lord, and let the young man go up with his brothers.
34. For how can I go up to my father and the young man not be with me, lest I see the evil that will befall my father?’

Genesis 45

- ¶1. And Joseph could not restrain himself before all those standing by him. And he cried out, “Get everyone out, away from me!” And not a man remained with him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers.
2. And he wept aloud, and the Egyptians heard it, and Pharaoh’s household heard of it.
3. And Joseph said to his brothers,⁷⁹ “I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?” And his brothers were not able to answer him because they were terrified at his presence.
4. But Joseph said to his brothers, “Come near me, I pray you.” And they came near. And he said, “I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt.
5. Now, therefore, do not be grieved, and do not be angry with yourselves, that you sold me here, for God sent me before you to save life!
6. For this famine has been in the land two years, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest.

⁷⁹ In their language without an interpreter.

7. But God sent me ahead of you to preserve for you a remnant on the earth and to bring about a great deliverance for you.
8. So now, you did not send me here, but God, and He has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord over all his house, and ruler over all the land of Egypt.
9. Hurry and go up to my father, and say to him, ‘Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord over all of Egypt. Come down to me! Do not delay!
10. And you will live in the land of Goshen, and you will be near me, you, and your sons, and your sons' sons, and your flocks, and your cattle, and all that you have.
11. And I will take good care of you there, for there will be five more years of famine, lest you come to poverty, you and your house, and all who belong to you.
12. And, behold, your eyes will see, as do the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that is talking to you!’
13. And tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and all that you have seen. Now, hurry and bring my father down here!”
14. And he fell on the neck of Benjamin his brother and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck.
15. And he kissed all his brothers and wept over them, and after that, his brothers talked with him.
16. And the report was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, “Joseph's brothers have come!” And it was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants.
17. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Tell your brothers, ‘Do this: load up your beasts and depart. Go to the land of Canaan,
18. and take your father and your households, and come to me, and I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.’
19. You are also commanded to tell them, ‘Do this: take for yourselves from the land of Egypt wagons for your children and your wives, and carry your father, and come!
20. And do not be concerned about your stuff, for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours.”’
21. And the sons of Israel did so. And Joseph gave them wagons at the command of Pharaoh, and he gave them provision for the journey.
22. He gave all of them, to each one, changes of garments, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of garments.
23. And to his father he sent this: ten donkeys bearing the best of Egypt, and ten she-asses bearing grain, and bread and food for his father for the journey.
24. And he sent his brothers away, and they went, but he had said to them, “Do not quarrel on the way.”
25. And they went up from Egypt, and they came into the land of Canaan to Jacob their father.
26. And they told him, saying, “Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt!” And his heart went numb, for he could not believe them.

27. And they told him all the words of Joseph that he had spoken to them. And when he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived.
28. And Israel said, "It is enough! Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."

Genesis 46

- ¶1. And Israel set out with all that he had, and he went to Beersheba and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.
2. And God spoke to Israel in visions during the night, and He said, "Jacob! Jacob!" And he said, "Here I am."
3. And He said, "I am God, the God of your father. Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you a great nation there."
4. I will go down to Egypt with you, and I will also surely bring you back up. And Joseph will put his hand on your eyes."
5. And so, Jacob rose up from Beersheba, and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their children, and their wives in the carts that Pharaoh had sent to carry him.
6. And they took their cattle and their goods which they had gained in the land of Canaan. And Jacob and all his seed entered with him into Egypt.
7. His sons and his sons' sons with him, his daughters and his sons' daughters, and all his seed, he brought with him to Egypt.
- ¶8. And these are the names of the sons of Israel who went into Egypt, Jacob and his sons. The firstborn of Jacob was Reuben.
9. And the sons of Reuben were Hanoch, and Pallu, and Hezron, and Carmi.
10. And the sons of Simeon were Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman.
11. And the sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
12. And the sons of Judah were Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zarah. But Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez were Hezron and Hamul.
13. And the sons of Issachar were Tola, and Puvvah, and Job, and Shimron.
14. And the sons of Zebulun were Sered, and Elon, and Jahleel.
15. These were the sons of Leah whom she bore to Jacob in Padan-aram, and Dinah, his daughter. All the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty-three.
16. And the sons of Gad were Ziphion and Haggi, Shuni and Ezbon, Eri and Arodi, and Areli.
17. And the sons of Asher were Imnah, and Ishvah, and Ishvi, and Beriah, and Serah their sister. And the sons of Beriah were Heber and Malchiel.
18. These were the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter. And she bore these sixteen souls to Jacob.

19. The sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife were Joseph and Benjamin.
20. And in the land of Egypt, Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph, whom Asenath, daughter of Poti-phera, priest of On, bore to him.
21. And the sons of Benjamin were Bela, and Becher, and Ashbel, Gera and Naaman, Ehi and Rosh, Muppim and Huppim, and Ard.
22. These are the sons of Rachel who were born to Jacob. All the souls were fourteen.
23. And the sons of Dan: Hushim.
24. And the sons of Naphtali were Jahzeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shillem.
25. These are the sons of Bilhah whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, and she bore these to Jacob. All the souls were seven.
26. All the souls who went with Jacob into Egypt, who came from his loins, except for the wives of Jacob's sons, all the souls were sixty-six.
27. And Joseph's sons who were born to him in Egypt were two souls. Every soul belonging to the house of Jacob who went into Egypt were seventy.
- ¶28. And he sent Judah before him to lead him to Goshen to Joseph, and they entered the land of Goshen.
29. And Joseph prepared his chariot and went to Goshen to meet Israel his father, and he presented himself to him, and he fell on his neck and wept on his neck for a long time.
30. And Israel said to Joseph, "I can die now, since I have seen your face, for you are still alive."
31. And Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and report to Pharaoh, and I will say to him, 'My brothers and my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me.'
32. And the men are shepherds of flocks, for they are herdsmen, and they have brought their flocks, their herds, and all that they have.'
33. And it shall come to pass if Pharaoh calls you and says, 'What is your occupation?'
34. then you shall say, 'Your servants, we and our fathers, have been herdsmen from our youth until now, so that you may dwell in the land of Goshen.' (For every shepherd of flocks is an abomination to the Egyptians.)

Genesis 47

- ¶1. And Joseph went and reported to Pharaoh, and he said, "My father, and my brothers, and their flocks and their herds, and all that they possess have come from the land of Canaan, and behold, they are in the land of Goshen.
2. And he had taken five men from among his brothers, and he presented them before Pharaoh.
3. And Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?" And they said to Pharaoh, "Your servants tend flocks, both we and our fathers."

4. And they said to Pharaoh, “We have come to sojourn in the land, for there is no pasture for your servants’ flocks because the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. But now, if you will grant it, your servants will dwell in the land of Goshen.”
5. And Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, “Your father and your brothers are come to you.
6. The land of Egypt is before you. Settle your father and your brothers in the best of the land. Let them live in the land of Goshen, and if you discern that there are men of ability among them, make them chief herdsmen over what belongs to me.”
7. And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and he presented him before Pharaoh. And Jacob blessed Pharaoh.
8. And Pharaoh said to Jacob, “How many are the days of the years of your life?”
9. And Jacob said to Pharaoh, “The days of the years of my sojournings are one hundred and thirty years. The days of the years of my life have been few and evil, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the lives of my fathers in the days of their sojournings.”
10. And when Jacob had blessed Pharaoh, he went out from before Pharaoh.
11. And Joseph settled his father and his brothers, and he gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.
12. And Joseph provided his father, and his brothers, and all his father’s household with food for the children.
13. But there was no food in all the land, for the famine was very severe, and the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan fainted because of the famine.
14. And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan in exchange for the grain that they were buying. And Joseph brought the money into the house of Pharaoh.
15. And when the money was spent in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph, saying, “Give us food!” and “Why should we die before you? For the money is gone.”
16. And Joseph said, “Give your livestock, and I will give you food in exchange for your livestock, since your money is gone.”
17. And they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them food in exchange for the horses, and for the flocks, and for the herds, and for the donkeys. And that year, he relieved them with food in exchange for all of their livestock.
18. And when that year ended, they came to him the second year and said to him, “We cannot conceal from my lord that the money has run out, and the herds of cattle are my lord’s. Nothing remains before my lord except our body and our land.
19. Why should we perish before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and let us, we and our land, become slaves to Pharaoh. Provide us seed, that we may live and not die, and the land be not desolate.”
20. And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for the Egyptians, every one, sold his field because the famine was hard on them, and the land became Pharaoh’s.

21. And as for the people, he moved them to the cities, from one end of Egypt's border to the other.
22. Only the land of the priests did he not buy, for there was a portion for the priests from Pharaoh. And they ate their portion that Pharaoh gave to them. Therefore, they did not sell their land.
23. And Joseph said to the people, "Behold, I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh. Here is your seed so that you may sow the land."
24. And it shall be that in harvest, you will give a fifth part to Pharaoh, but four parts will be yours for seed of the field, and for your food, and those in your houses, and food for your children."
25. And they said, "You have saved our lives. Let us find grace in the eyes of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's slaves."
26. And Joseph made it a statute until this day over the land of Egypt for Pharaoh to receive a fifth part, excepting the land of the priests; theirs alone did not become Pharaoh's.
27. And Israel dwelled in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen, and they had possessions in it, and were fruitful, and multiplied greatly.
28. And Jacob was in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So, the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were one hundred and forty-seven years.
29. And the days drew near for Israel to die, and he called for his son Joseph, and he said to him, "If I have now found favor in your eyes, do this. Put your hand under my thigh, if you will, and deal with me kindly and truly. Do not, I pray you, bury me in Egypt,
30. but I would lie with my fathers. Carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial-place." And he said, "I will do according to your word."
31. And he said, "Swear to me." And he swore to him. And Israel bowed himself upon the head of the bed.

Genesis 48

- ¶1. And it came to pass after these things that one said to Joseph, "Behold, your father is sick." And he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.
2. And one told Jacob, saying, "Behold, your son Joseph has come to you." And Israel strengthened himself and sat up on his bed.
3. And Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me in Luz in the land of Canaan, and He blessed me.
4. And He said to me, 'Behold, I will make you fruitful, and I will multiply you, and I will make you a company of nations, and I will give this land to your seed after you for an everlasting inheritance.'
5. And now, your two sons who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you into Egypt, they are mine. Ephraim and Manasseh, like Reuben and Simeon, will be mine.

6. But your offspring that you father after them will be yours; they will be called by the name of their brothers in their inheritance.
7. And when I came from Padan, Rachel died because of me in the land of Canaan on the journey, with still some distance to go to Ephrath. And I buried her there on the road to Ephrath (which is Bethlehem)."
8. And Israel saw Joseph's sons and he said, "Who are these?"
9. And Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons whom God has given me here." And he said, "Bring them to me, if you will, and I will bless them."
10. Now, Israel's eyes were weak because of age, and he could not see. And he brought them near to him, and he kissed them and embraced them.
11. And Israel said to Joseph, "I did not expect to see your face, but behold, God has let me see your seed as well."
12. And Joseph brought them out from his knees, and he bowed down, with his face to the ground.
14. And Israel stretched out his right hand and put it on Ephraim's head, though he was the younger, and his left, he put on Manasseh's head, guiding his hands, for Manasseh was the firstborn.
15. And he blessed Joseph and said, "The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked is the God who has been my shepherd since I was born until this day.
16. May the angel who redeemed me from all evil bless the young men, and may they be called by my name and the name of my fathers, Abraham and Isaac, and may they increase to a multitude in the midst of the land!"
17. And when Joseph saw that his father put his right hand on Ephraim's head, it displeased him, and he took hold of his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's head, to the head of Manasseh.
18. And Joseph said to his father, "Not so, my father, for this is the firstborn. Put your right hand on his head."
19. But his father refused and said, "I know, my son. I know. He will also become a people, and he will also be great. Nevertheless, his younger brother will be greater than he, and his seed will become the fullness of nations."
20. And he blessed them that day, saying, "By you will Israel pronounce blessings, saying, 'May God make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh.'" So, he put Ephraim before Manasseh.
21. And Israel said to Joseph, "Behold, I am dying, but God will be with you, and He will return you to the land of your fathers.
22. And I have given you one portion above your brothers, which I took from the hand of the Amorite with my sword and my bow."

Genesis 49

- ¶1. And Jacob summoned his sons, and then he said, "Assemble yourselves, and I will tell you what will happen to you in days to come.
- 2. Gather yourselves and hear, O sons of Jacob, and listen to Israel your father!
- ¶3. "Reuben, you are my firstborn, my vigor and the beginning of my strength, excelling in rank and excelling in might.
- 4. Unstable as water, you shall not excel, for you went up to your father's bed, then defiled it. He went up to my couch!
- ¶5. "Simeon and Levi are brothers. Their weapons are instruments of cruelty.
- 6. Let not my soul come into their secret counsel! With their assembly, let not my honor be united! For in their anger, they slew a man, and in their self-will, they hamstrung an ox.
- 7. Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce, and their fury, for it was harsh. I will divide them within Jacob; yea, I will scatter them within Israel!
- ¶8. "As for you, Judah, your brothers will praise you. Your hand will be at the neck of your enemies. The sons of your father will bow themselves to you.
- 9. Judah is a lion's cub. You have risen from the prey, my son. He crouched; he lay down like a lion. And as with a lion, who will rouse him?
- 10. The scepter shall not depart from Judah, neither a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh comes, and to him will be the obedience of the nations.
- 11. Binding his foal to the vine, and the ass's colt to the choice vine, he washed his clothes in wine and his garment in the blood of grapes.
- 12. His eyes are darker than wine, and his teeth are whiter than milk.
- ¶13. Zebulon will dwell on the shore of the sea; yea, he will be a haven for ships, and his border will be extend to Sidon.
- ¶14. Issachar is a strong donkey lying down between two camps.
- 15. When he sees a resting place that is good and the land that is pleasant, he will bend his back to bear a load, and he will become a forced laborer.
- ¶16. Dan will judge his people as one of the tribes of Israel.
- 17. Dan will be a serpent on the road, a horned snake on the path that bites a horse's heels so that its rider falls backward.
- 18. I have waited for your salvation, O Jehovah!
- ¶19. Gad is a raider; he will attack him. Yea, he will attack the rear.
- ¶20. From Asher will come his rich food; yea, he will produce the king's delicacies.
- ¶21. Naphtali will be a doe set free who produces words of beauty.

- ¶22. Joseph is a fruitful son, a fruitful sprout by a spring; his branches climbed over a wall.
23. The archers were bitter against him, and shot at and harassed him,
24. but his bow remained with the Everlasting One, and his strong hands rested in the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, in the name of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel,
25. in your father's God! And He will help you, yea, mightily. Yea, He will bless you with blessings from heaven above, blessings of the deep that lies beneath, blessings of breasts and womb,
26. blessings of your father greater than the blessings of my progenitors, to the utmost bound of the everlasting hills! Let them be for Joseph's head, even for the head of the one separated from his brothers!
- ¶27. Benjamin is a wolf who tears. In the morning, he will devour prey, and in the evening, he will divide the spoil."
- ¶28. These are all twelve of the tribes of Israel, and this is what their father spoke to them when he blessed them. Each according to his blessing, he blessed them.
29. And he commanded them and said to them, "I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite,
30. in the cave which is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre in the land of Canaan, the field which Abraham bought from Ephron the Hittite for a burial place.
31. There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah.
32. The purchase of the field and the cave that is in it was from the sons of Heth."
33. And Jacob finished commanding his sons, and he drew up his feet into the bed. And he died and was gathered to his people.

Genesis 50

- ¶1. And Joseph fell on his father's face, and wept over him, and kissed him.
2. And Joseph commanded his servants, the physicians, to embalm his father, and the physicians embalmed Israel.
3. And forty days were fulfilled for him, for that is the required time for embalming. And Egypt bewailed him seventy days.
4. When the days of his mourning passed, Joseph spoke to the household of Pharaoh, saying, "If I have now found favor in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,
5. 'My father made me swear, saying, "Behold, I am dying. Bury me in my grave that I dug for myself in the land of Canaan." So, let me go up now, I pray you, and bury my father, and I will return.'"
6. And Pharaoh said, "Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear."
7. And Joseph went up to bury his father, and with him went up all of Pharaoh's servants, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

8. and all the house of Joseph and his brothers, even the house of his father. Only, they left their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds in the land of Goshen.
 9. And with him went up both chariots and horsemen. It was indeed a very large company.
 10. And they went to the threshing floor of Atad, which is on the other side of the Jordan, and they made lamentation there, a very great and grievous lamentation, and he made for his father a mourning for seven days.
 11. And the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, and they said, "This is a grievous mourning for Egyptians." Therefore, he named that place, "Abel-Mizraim",⁸⁰ which is on the other side of the Jordan.
 12. And so, his sons did for him as he had commanded them.
 13. For his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and they buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which field Abraham bought for a burial place from Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.
 14. And Joseph returned to Egypt after he buried his father, he and his brothers, and all who went up with him to bury his father.
- ¶15. When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "Joseph is no doubt holding a grudge against us and is going to repay us for all the evil that we did to him."
16. And they sent a message to Joseph, saying, "Your father gave a command before his death, saying,
 17. 'Thus shall you say to Joseph: I beseech you to forgive, if you will, the transgression of your brothers, and their sin, for they did evil to you. But forgive now, if you will, the transgression of the servants of the God of your father.'" And Joseph wept when they spoke to him.
 18. Then his brothers also came and fell down before him, and they said, "Behold, we are your slaves."
 19. And Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid. Am I in God's place?
 20. Yes, you meant to do evil to me, but God meant it for good, in order to save the lives of many people, as it is this day.
 21. So, do not be afraid now. I will provide for you and your little ones." And he comforted them and spoke kindly to them.
- ¶22. And Joseph dwelled in Egypt, he and his father's house. And Joseph lived one hundred and ten years.
23. And Joseph saw Ephraim's sons to the third generation, and the sons of Machir, Manasseh's son, were brought up on Joseph's knees.
 24. And Joseph said to his kinsmen, "I am dying, but God will surely visit you and bring you up from this land to the land that he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."

⁸⁰ That is, "the mourning of Egyptians".

25. And Joseph made the children of Israel swear, saying, “God will surely visit you, and you shall carry my bones up from this place.”
26. And Joseph died, being one hundred and ten years old. And they embalmed him, and he was placed in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

Exodus 1

- ¶1. These are the names of the sons of Israel who came into Egypt with Jacob (each man and his household came):
2. Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,
 3. Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,
 4. Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher.
5. And all the souls who came out of the loins of Jacob were seventy souls. (Joseph was in Egypt already).
6. And Joseph died, and all his brothers, and that entire generation.
7. And the sons of Israel were fruitful, and increased, and multiplied, and became very, very many, so that the land was filled with them.
- ¶8. And a new king rose up over Egypt who did not know Joseph.
9. And he said to his people, “Behold, the people of the sons of Israel are more and mightier than we.
10. Come now, let us deal wisely with them lest they multiply, and it be that when war breaks out, they join our enemies and fight against us, and go up out of the country.”
11. And so, they put slavemasters over them in order to humble them with their burdens, and they built for Pharaoh supply cities, Pithom and Raamses.
12. But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and increased. And so, they were in dread of the sons of Israel.
13. And the Egyptians ruthlessly made the sons of Israel serve them.
14. And they made their lives bitter with hard labor, with mortar, and with bricks, and with every kind of work in the field. All their labor which they made them do was with ruthlessness.
15. And the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, the name of the first being Shiphrah, and the name of the second, Puah.
16. And he said, “When you help the Hebrew women deliver, and you see them on the birth- stools, if it is a son, then kill him. But if it is a daughter, let her live.”
17. But the midwives feared God, so they did not do as the king of Egypt told them, for they let the male children live.
18. So, the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and said to them, “Why are you doing this thing and letting the male children live?”
19. And the midwives said to Pharaoh, “Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptians, but they are lively; they bear children before the midwife gets to them.”
20. And God dealt well with the midwives, and the people multiplied and grew very numerous.
21. And it came to pass that because the midwives feared God, He made them houses.

22. Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, “Throw every son that is born into the Nile, but let every daughter live.”

Exodus 2

- ¶1. And a man from the house of Levi went and took a daughter from Levi.
2. And the woman conceived and gave birth to a son, and she saw him, that he was a beautiful boy, and she hid him three months.
3. But when she could no longer hide him, she fetched for him an ark made of papyrus, and she smeared it with bitumen and pitch. Then she put the child in it and placed it among the rushes along the bank of the Nile.
4. And his sister stationed herself at a distance to see what would happen to him.
5. And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, and her maidens were walking along the Nile. Then she saw the ark among the rushes and sent her maid-servant, and she fetched it.
6. And she opened it and looked at the child, and behold, the boy was weeping. And she had compassion on him and said, “This is one of the Hebrew children.”
7. Then his sister said to Pharaoh’s daughter, “Shall I go and summon a woman for you, a wet-nurse from the Hebrews, that she may nurse the child for you?”
8. And Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Go.” And the girl went and summoned the child’s mother.
9. And Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this child and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages.” And the woman took the child and nursed him.
10. And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter. And he became her son, and she called his name Moses, for she said, “I drew¹ him out of the water.”
11. And it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out to his brothers, and he saw their burdens. And he saw an Egyptian man beating a Hebrew man, one of his brothers.
12. And he looked here and there, and he saw that there was no one around, and he slew the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.
13. On the next day, he went out, and behold, two Hebrew men were fighting. And he said to the guilty one, “Why are you striking your fellow?”
14. And he said, “Who made you a prince and a judge over us!” Do you plan to kill me the way you killed that Egyptian?” Then Moses was afraid, and he thought, “Surely, this thing is known.”
15. And when Pharaoh heard of this matter, he sought to kill Moses, but Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh and settled in the land of Midian, and he sat by a well.

16. And the priest of Midian had seven daughters who came and drew water, and they filled the troughs to water their father's flock.
17. And shepherds came and drove them away, but Moses rose up and delivered them, and he watered their flock.
18. Then they went to Reuel their father, and he said, "Why have you come so quickly today?"
19. And they said, "An Egyptian man rescued us from the hand of the shepherds, and he even drew for us and watered the flock."
20. And he said to his daughters, "Where is he? Why is it that you left the man? Call him so that he may eat bread."
21. And Moses was content to dwell with the man, and he gave Zipporah, his daughter, to Moses.
22. And she bore a son, and he called his name Gershom, for he said, "I have become a stranger² in a foreign land."
- ¶23. And it came to pass during those many days that the king of Egypt died, and the sons of Israel groaned because of their slavery. And they cried out, and their cry went up to God because of their slavery.
24. And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.
25. And God looked upon the sons of Israel, and God knew.

Exodus 3

- ¶1. Now, Moses was tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the back side of the wilderness and came to the mountain of God, to Horeb.
2. And an angel of Jehovah appeared to him in a flame of fire from the midst of a thorn-bush. And he looked, and behold, the bush was burning with fire, but the bush was not consumed.
3. And Moses said, "Let me turn aside now and see this great sight. Why is this bush not burned up?"
4. And Jehovah saw that he went over to look, and God called to him from the midst of the bush and said, "Moses! Moses!" And he said, "Here I am."
5. And He said, "Do not come near here! Take your sandals off your feet, for the place upon which you are standing is holy ground."
6. Then He said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face because he was afraid to look at God.

7. And Jehovah said, “I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and I have heard their cry because of their slavemasters, for I am aware of their sufferings.
8. And I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up from that land to a good and wide land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Canaanite, even the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite.
9. And now, behold, the cry of the children of Israel has come to me, and I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians are oppressing them.
10. So, come, and I will send you now to Pharaoh, and you bring my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt.”
11. But Moses said to God, “Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?”
12. And He said, “But I will be with you. And this will be the sign for you that I have sent you: when you bring the people out of Egypt, you will serve God on this mountain.”
13. And Moses said to God, “Behold, when I come to the children of Israel and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ they will say to me, ‘What is His name?’ What should I tell them?”
14. And God said to Moses, “I am who I am.” Then He said, “Say this to the children of Israel: ‘I AM has sent me to you.’”
15. And again, God said to Moses, “Speak thus to the children of Israel: ‘Jehovah, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob has sent me to you.’ This is my name forever. This is how I am to be remembered from generation to generation.
16. Go and gather the elders of Israel, and say to them, “Jehovah, the God of your fathers, has appeared to me, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, ‘I have surely visited you and have seen what is being done to you in Egypt.’
17. And I say I will bring you up from the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites, even the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, to a land flowing with milk and honey.”
18. And they will heed your voice, and you and the elders of Israel will go in to the king of Egypt, and you will tell him, ‘Jehovah, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Therefore, let us go now, we pray you, on a three-day journey into the wilderness, and let us sacrifice to Jehovah our God.’
19. Now, I know that the king of Egypt will not allow you to go, except by a mighty hand.
20. So, I will stretch out my hand, and I will strike the Egyptians with all my wonders, which I will do in their midst. And after that, he will drive you out.
21. And I will give this people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians, and it will come to pass that when you leave, you will not leave empty-handed.

22. So, let every woman ask from her neighbor and from her who is staying in her house things of silver, and things of gold, and clothes, and you will put them on your sons and your daughters. And you will spoil the Egyptians."

Exodus 4

- ¶1. And Moses answered and said, "But, behold, they will not believe me nor heed my voice, and they will say, 'Jehovah has not appeared to you.'"
2. And Jehovah said to him, "What is that in your hand?" And he said, "A staff."
3. And He said, "Throw it to the ground." And he threw it to the ground, and it became a serpent, and Moses got away from it.
4. Then Jehovah said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand, and grasp it by its tail." So, he stretched out his hand and grabbed it, and it became a staff in his hand.
5. "By this, they will believe that Jehovah has appeared to you, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob."
6. And Jehovah said to him again, "Put your hand into your bosom." So, he put his hand into his bosom; then, he pulled it out, and behold, his hand was leprous as snow.
7. Then He said, "Put your hand back into your bosom." And he put his hand back into his bosom, and pulled it out from his bosom, and, behold, it was restored as his flesh.
8. "And it shall come to pass that if they do not believe you nor heed the first sign, they will believe the latter sign."
9. And it shall come to pass that if they do not believe the second of these signs either, and do not listen to your voice, then take water from the Nile and pour it out onto the dry ground. And it shall come to pass that the water which you took from the Nile will become blood on the ground."
10. Then Moses said to Jehovah, "If you please, my Lord, I am not an eloquent man, neither before nor since you began speaking to your servant, for I am slow of speech and slow of tongue."
11. And Jehovah said to him, "Who made man's mouth? Or who makes the dumb or the deaf, or the seeing or the blind? Do not I, Jehovah?"
12. So, go! Now! I will be with your mouth, and I will show you what you are to say."
13. But he said, "If you please, my Lord! I beg you, send by the hand of whomever else you will send!"
14. And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Moses, and He said, "Do I not know that Aaron your brother, the Levite, can speak well? Also, behold, he is coming out to meet you, and when he sees you, he will be glad in his heart."
15. And you will speak to him and put the words in his mouth, and I will be with your mouth and with his mouth. And I will show you what you are to do.

16. And he will speak for you to the people. And so, he will be your mouth, and you will be his god.
17. And you will take this staff in your hand, by which you will perform the signs.

¶18. Then, Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and he said to him, “Let me go, I pray you, and return to my brothers who are in Egypt, and I will see if they are still alive.” And Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.”

19. And Jehovah said to Moses in Midian, “Go! Return to Egypt, for all the men are dead who sought your life.”
20. So, Moses took his wife and his sons, and they rode on the donkey and returned to the land of Egypt, and Moses took the staff of God in his hand.
21. And Jehovah said to Moses, “On your way back to Egypt, keep in mind all the signs which I have placed in your hand, and do them before Pharaoh. But I will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go.
22. And you will say to Pharaoh, ‘Thus says Jehovah, “My firstborn son is Israel.”
23. And I say to you, let my son go, that he may serve me. And if you refuse to let him go, behold, I will kill your firstborn son.”’
24. And it came to pass on the road, by the khan, Jehovah met him and sought to kill him.
25. And Zipporah took a sharp stone and cut off the foreskin of her son, and she threw it at his feet and said, “You are certainly a bloody husband to me!”
26. So, He let him go. Now, she said, “You are a bloody husband” because of the circumcision.

¶27. And Jehovah said to Aaron, “Go meet Moses in the desert.” So he went and met him at the mountain of God, and he kissed him.

28. And Moses made known to Aaron all the words of Jehovah with which he had sent him and all the signs that he had commanded him.
29. Then, Moses and Aaron went and gathered all the elders of the children of Israel,
30. and Aaron spoke all the words which Jehovah had spoken to Moses, and he wrought the signs in the sight of the people.
31. And the people believed. And when they heard that Jehovah had visited the children of Israel and that He had seen their affliction, they bowed down and worshipped.

Exodus 5

- ¶1. And afterwards, Moses and Aaron went in and said to Pharaoh, “Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel, ‘Let my people go, that they may make a feast to me in the wilderness!’”
2. And Pharaoh said, “Who is Jehovah, that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I do not know Jehovah, nor will I let Israel go.”
 3. But they said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Let us go, I pray you, a three-day journey into the wilderness that we may sacrifice to Jehovah our God, lest He fall upon us with pestilence or with the sword.”

4. And the king of Egypt said to them, “Moses and Aaron, why are you making the people neglect their responsibilities? Get to your work!”
5. Then Pharaoh said, “Behold, the people of the land are many now, and you are making them to cease from their labors.”
6. And that day, Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters over the people and their overseers, saying,
7. “No longer give straw to the people to make bricks, as before. They shall go and gather straw for themselves,
8. but the quota of bricks that they were making previously, you will require of them and not diminish it. They are idle! That is why they cry out, saying, ‘Let us go! Let us sacrifice to our God!’
9. Let heavier work be laid on the men, that they labor at it and no longer pay attention to deceitful words.”
10. And the taskmasters over the people and their overseers went out, and they spoke to the people, saying, “Thus says Pharaoh, ‘I will not give you straw.
11. You go get straw for yourselves wherever you can find it, but your service will not be diminished one whit.”
12. And the people scattered throughout the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw.
13. And the taskmasters kept pressing them, saying, “Finish your daily tasks each day, just as when there was straw!”
14. And the officers of the children of Israel were beaten, those whom Pharaoh’s taskmasters had appointed over them, saying, “Why have you not completed your tasks of brick-making as before, either yesterday or today?”
15. And the officers of the children of Israel came and cried out to Pharaoh, saying, “Why are you treating your servants like this?
16. There is no straw given to your servants, yet they say to us, ‘Make bricks!’ And behold, your servants are beaten, but your people are at fault.”
17. But he said, “Idle! You are idle! That is why you are saying, ‘Let us go sacrifice to Jehovah’!
18. Go, now! Work! Straw will not be given to you, and you will deliver the required amount of bricks!”
19. Then the officers of the children of Israel saw that they were in trouble when it was said, “You shall not reduce your quota of bricks.”
20. And they met Moses and Aaron who were waiting to meet them when they came out from Pharaoh.
21. And they said to them, “Jehovah look upon you and judge you who have made us stink in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us!”
22. And Moses returned to Jehovah and said, “My Lord, why have you done evil to this people? Why did you send me?”

23. For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has done evil to this people, and you have not delivered your people at all!"

Aaron and I Stopped here

Exodus 6

- ¶1. Then Jehovah said to Moses, "You will soon see what I will do to Pharaoh, for with a strong hand he will send them away. With a strong hand, he will drive them from his land."
2. And God spoke to Moses and told him, "I am Jehovah.
3. I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob as 'God Almighty', but I did not reveal my name Jehovah to them.
4. Even so, I established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their sojournings in which they lived as strangers.
5. Furthermore, I have heard the groaning of the sons of Israel, whom the Egyptians have as their slaves, and I have remembered my covenant.
6. Therefore say to the sons of Israel, 'I am Jehovah. And I will bring you out from under the burdens of Egypt, and I will deliver you from their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and mighty judgments.
7. And I will take you to be my people, and I will be your God. Then you shall know that I am Jehovah your God who is bringing you out from under the burdens of Egypt.
8. And I will bring you to the land which I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and Jacob, and I will give it to you for a possession. I am Jehovah.'"
9. And Moses told this to the children of Israel, but they would not listen to Moses for anguish of spirit and cruel bondage.
10. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
11. "Go tell Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to send the children of Israel out of his land."
12. And Moses spoke before Jehovah, saying, "Behold, the children of Israel would not listen to me, so how will Pharaoh listen to me—me with uncircumcised lips?"
13. And so, Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, and He commanded them to go to the children of Israel and to Pharaoh, King of Egypt, to bring the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt.
- ¶14. These are the chiefs of the house of their fathers. The sons of Reuben, firstborn of Israel: Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. These are the families of Reuben.
15. And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman. These are the families of Simeon.
16. These are the names of the sons of Levi, by their generations: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. And the years of Levi's life were one hundred thirty-seven.

17. The sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei, by their families.
18. And the sons of Kohath: Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. And the years of the life of Kohath were one hundred thirty-three years.
19. And the sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of Levi according to their generations.
20. And Amram took Jochebed his aunt for his wife. And she bore him Aaron and Moses. And the years of the life of Amram were one hundred thirty-seven years.
21. And the sons of Izhar: Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri.
22. And the sons of Uzziel: Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Sithri.
23. And Aaron took Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab, sister of Nahshon, to him for a wife, and she bore to him Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
24. And the sons of Korah: Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph. These are the families of the Korhites.
25. And Eleazar, Aaron's son, took one of the daughters of Putiel to him for a wife, and she bore him Phinehas. These are the heads of the fathers of the Levites according to their families.
26. It was Aaron and Moses to whom Jehovah said, "Bring the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt according to their hosts."
27. These are the ones who spoke to Pharaoh, King of Egypt, to bring the sons of Israel out of Egypt. It was Moses and Aaron.
28. And so it was on the day Jehovah spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt,
29. that Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, "I am Jehovah. Tell Pharaoh, King of Egypt, everything that I am saying to you,"
30. and Moses said before Jehovah, "Behold, I am uncircumcised of lips, and how will Pharaoh listen to me?"

Exodus 7

- ¶1. And Jehovah said to Moses, "See, I have made you a god to Pharaoh, and Aaron your brother shall be your prophet.
2. You say all that I command you, and Aaron your brother will speak to Pharaoh, and he will send the children of Israel out of his land.
3. But I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and I will multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt.
4. And Pharaoh will not harken to you, and I will lay my hand upon Egypt, and by mighty judgments will I bring my hosts, my people, the sons of Israel, out of the land of Egypt.
5. And the Egyptians shall know that I am Jehovah when I have stretched out my hand against Egypt and have brought the children of Israel out of their midst."
6. And Moses and Aaron did so; as Jehovah commanded them, so did they.
- ¶7. Now, Moses was eighty years old and Aaron was eighty-three years old when they spoke to Pharaoh.

8. And Jehovah spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,
 9. "When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, 'Perform a miracle for yourselves,' you say to Aaron, 'Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh that it may become a serpent.'"
 10. Then Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh and did so, just as Jehovah had commanded. And Aaron threw down his staff before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it became a serpent.
 11. And Pharaoh also called for the wise men and sorcerers, and the magicians of Egypt did the same by their magic arts,
 12. for each man threw down his rod, and they became serpents. But Aaron's rod swallowed their rods.
 13. Nevertheless, Pharaoh's heart was hard, and he would not listen to them, just as Jehovah had said.
- ¶14. And Jehovah said to Moses, "Pharaoh's heart is hard; he refuses to let the people go.
15. Go to Pharaoh in the morning, for, behold, he goes out to the water. But you stand on the bank of the Nile to meet him, and take in your hand the rod that was turned into a serpent.
 16. And you say to him, 'Jehovah, God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying, "Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness," and so far, behold, you have not listened.
 17. Thus says Jehovah: By this, you shall know that I am Jehovah. Behold, with the staff that is in my hand will I strike upon the waters that are in the Nile, and they will be turned to blood.
 18. And the fish that are in the Nile will die, and the Nile will stink, and the Egyptians will be loathe to drink water from the Nile.'"
- ¶19. And Jehovah said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Take your staff and stretch your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, over their streams, over their ponds, and over all their reservoirs of water, that they become blood. And there shall be blood in all the land of Egypt, in both wooden vessels and stone.'"
20. And Moses and Aaron did as Jehovah commanded them. And he lifted up the rod and struck the water that was in the Nile before Pharaoh's eyes, and before the eyes of his servants, and all the water that was in the Nile was turned to blood.
 21. And the fish that were in the Nile died, and the Nile stank, and the Egyptians were not able to drink water from the Nile, and blood was in all the land of Egypt.
 22. But the magicians of Egypt did the same by their magic arts, and Pharaoh's heart was hard, and he would not listen to them, just as Jehovah had said.
 23. And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, for he did not take to heart even this.
 24. And all the Egyptians dug around the Nile for water to drink, for they were not able to drink of water from the Nile.
 25. And seven days passed after Jehovah struck the Nile.

Exodus 8

- ¶1. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Go in to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘Thus says Jehovah, “Let my people go, that they may serve me!
2. And if you refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all your land with frogs.
3. And the Nile will swarm with frogs, and they will come up and enter into your house, into your bedchamber, and onto your bed, and into the house of your servants, and on your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading troughs.
4. And the frogs will come up on you, and on your people, and on all your servants.””
5. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch out your hand with your rod over the rivers, over the streams, and over the ponds, and bring up the frogs upon the land of Egypt.’”
6. And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.
7. And the magicians did the same with their magic arts; they, too, brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.
8. And Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron, and said, “Entreat Jehovah that He remove the frogs from me and my people, and I will let the people go that they may sacrifice to Jehovah.”
9. And Moses said to Pharaoh, “Glory over me. When shall I entreat for you, and for your servants, and for your people, to cut off the frogs from you and from your houses? Only in the river will they remain.”
10. And he said, “Tomorrow.” And he said, “It will be according to your word, that you may know that there is none like Jehovah our God.
11. And the frogs will depart from you, and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people. Only in the river will they remain.”
12. And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cried out to Jehovah about the frogs which He had sent upon Pharaoh.
13. And Jehovah did as Moses said, and the frogs died out, in the houses, in the villages, and in the fields.
14. And they gathered them, heaps upon heaps, and the land stank.
15. But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart and would not listen to them, just as Jehovah had said.
- ¶16. Then Jehovah said to Moses, “Tell Aaron, ‘Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the ground, and it will become lice throughout the land of Egypt.’”
17. And they did so. Aaron stretched forth his hand with his staff and struck the dust of the ground. And there were lice on man and beast. All the dust of the ground became lice throughout the land of Egypt.
18. And the magicians tried with their magic arts to bring forth lice, but they could not. And the lice was on man and beast.

19. Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, “It is the finger of God.” But Pharaoh’s heart was hard, and he would not listen to them, just as Jehovah had said.
 - ¶20. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Rise early in the morning and station yourself before Pharaoh. Behold, he will be going out to the water, and you say to him, ‘Thus says Jehovah, “Let my people go, that they may serve me!
 21. And if you do not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon you, and upon your servants, and upon your people, and in your houses. And the houses of the Egyptians will be filled with the swarms of flies, as will the land they are on.
 22. On that day, I will sever the land of Goshen where my people dwell, and there will be no swarms there, that you may know that I, Jehovah, am in the midst of the land.
 23. And I will make a difference between my people and your people; tomorrow this sign will come to pass.””
 24. And Jehovah did so, and a massive swarm came into the house of Pharaoh, and the house of his servants, and into all the land of Egypt, and the land was ruined by reason of the swarms of flies.
 25. Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron and said, “Go! Sacrifice to your God in the land.”
 26. And Moses said, “It is not safe to do so, for we may sacrifice to Jehovah our God an abomination of the Egyptians. Behold, if we sacrifice an abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, will they not stone us?
 27. We must make a three-day journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to Jehovah our God, just as He will tell us to do.”
 28. And Pharaoh said, “I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to Jehovah your God in the wilderness. Only, you must not go far away. Now, pray for me.”
 29. And Moses said, “Behold, I am leaving you, and I will pray to Jehovah, that he may remove the flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people tomorrow. Only, let not Pharaoh deal treacherously again and not let the people go to sacrifice to Jehovah.”
- ¶30. Then Moses went out from Pharaoh, and prayed to Jehovah.
31. And Jehovah did according to Moses’ word, and He removed the flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. Not even one was left.
 32. But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also and did not let the people go.

Exodus 9

- ¶1. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh, and say to him, ‘Thus says Jehovah, God of the Hebrews: Let my people go, that they may serve me!
2. For if you refuse to let them go and continue to hold them,
3. behold, the hand of Jehovah will be on your livestock that is in the field, on the horses, donkeys, camels, cattle, flocks, a very severe plague.

4. And Jehovah will make a difference between Israel's cattle and Egypt's cattle. And none belonging to the sons of Israel will die."
 5. And Jehovah set an appointed time, saying, "Tomorrow, Jehovah will do this thing in the land."
 6. And Jehovah did this thing on the next day, and all of Egypt's cattle died, but of the cattle of the sons of Israel, not one died.
 7. And Pharaoh sent, and behold, the cattle of Israel did not die, not even one. But Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not let the people go.
- ¶8. And Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron, "Take for yourselves both your hands full of soot from a furnace, and let Moses toss it up toward heaven before the eyes of Pharaoh.
9. And it will become a dust over all the land of Egypt, and there will be boils upon man and beast, ulcers breaking out in all the land of Egypt."
 10. And so, they took soot from the furnace, and they stood before Pharaoh, and Moses tossed it up toward heaven, and it became boils, ulcers breaking out on man and beast.
 11. And the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils were on the magicians and on all the Egyptians.
 12. But Jehovah hardened Pharaoh's heart so that he would not listen to them, as Jehovah had said to Moses.
- ¶13. And Jehovah said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning and station yourself before Pharaoh, and say to him, 'Thus says Jehovah, God of the Hebrews: let my people go, that they may serve me!'
14. For this time, I will send all my plagues to your heart, and upon your servants, and upon your people, so that you may know that there is none like me in all the earth.
 15. For now, I have stretched out my hand, and I will strike you and your people with the plague, and you will be eradicated from the earth.
 16. But indeed, for this purpose have I raised you up, to make you see my power, and so that my name is proclaimed in all the earth.
 17. You are still exalting yourself against my people, refusing to let them go.
 18. Behold, about this time tomorrow, I will cause it to rain very grievous hail, the likes of which has never been in Egypt from the day of its founding even until now.
 19. Send forth now and shelter your cattle and all that is yours in the field. The hail will fall on every man and beast that is left in the field and is not brought to the house, and they will die."
 20. He who feared the word of Jehovah among Pharaoh servants drove his servants and cattle to their houses,
 21. but he that did not set his heart upon the word of Jehovah left his servants and his cattle in the field.
- ¶22. Then Jehovah said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, on man, and on beasts, and on all the herbage of the field in the land of Egypt."

23. And Moses stretched out his staff toward the sky, and Jehovah sent thunder and hail, with fire coming down to earth; and so, Jehovah rained hail upon the land of Egypt,
24. and there was hail, with fire running to and fro in the midst of the severe hail. There had been nothing like it in the land of Egypt since it became a nation.
25. And throughout all the land of Egypt, the hail smote all that was in the field, both man and beast. And the hail smote all the herbage of the field, and every tree of the field was splintered.
26. Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.
27. Then Pharaoh sent and called Moses and Aaron, and he said to them, "This time, I have sinned. Jehovah is just, and I and my people are guilty."
28. Entreat Jehovah, that it is enough of God's thunder and hail, and I will let you go, and you will no longer have to wait."
29. Then Moses said to him, "When I have left the city, I will extend my hands to Jehovah. The thundering will come to an end, and the hail will be no more, so that you may know that the earth belongs to Jehovah."
30. And as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet fear Jehovah God."
31. And the flax and the barley were smitten, for the barley was in the ear and the flax was in flower,
32. but the wheat and the spelt were not smitten, for they are late.
33. And Moses went out from Pharaoh, out of the city, and he spread out his hands to Jehovah, and the thunderings and the hail ceased, and rain was no longer poured out on the land.
34. Then Pharaoh saw that the rain, the hail, and the thunderings had ceased, and he again sinned and hardened his heart, he and his servants.
35. And Pharaoh's heart was hard, and he would not let the children of Israel go, just as Jehovah had said by the hand of Moses.

Exodus 10

- ¶1. And Jehovah said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his servants, that I may show these, my signs, in his presence,
2. and that you may, in the ears of your son and your son's son, give account of my severe dealing with Egypt and of my signs that I have performed among them, that you may know that I am Jehovah."
3. Then Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and they said to him, "Thus says Jehovah, God of the Hebrews: 'How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me!'
4. And if you refuse to let my people go, behold, I will bring a locust swarm into your country tomorrow.

5. And it will cover the face of the land so that no one will be able to see the land. And it will consume the remainder of what escaped, that which is left to you from the hail, and it will consume every tree of yours that is growing in the field.
 6. Your houses will be full, and the houses of all of your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians, which neither your fathers nor your fathers' fathers have seen since the time they were on the earth until this day." And he turned and went out from Pharaoh.
 7. And Pharaoh's servants said to him, "How long will this man be a snare to us? Let the men go that they may serve Jehovah their God! Do you not yet realize that Egypt is perishing?"
 8. Then Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, "Go! Serve Jehovah your God! But who are the ones who will go?"
 9. Then Moses said, "We will go with our young men and with our old men, with our sons and with our daughters; we will go with our flocks and with our herds for our feast unto Jehovah."
 10. And he said to them, "Jehovah be like this with you, if I ever let you go with your little ones! Beware, for evil is before you!"
 11. Not so! Let the men go, now, and serve Jehovah, for that is what you were after!" And one drove them out from Pharaoh's presence.
- ¶12. And Jehovah said to Moses, "Stretch your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they come up upon the land of Egypt and consume every plant of the land— everything which the hail left."
13. So Moses stretched out his rod over the land of Egypt, and Jehovah brought an east wind on the land all that day and all that night. The morning came, and the east wind had carried in the locusts.
 14. And the locusts came up over all the land of Egypt and settled in every border of Egypt, very many. Before it, there never was such a swarm of locusts, and after it will never be the like.
 15. And it covered the face of the whole land and the land grew dark, and it consumed all the herbage of the land and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left, and there was nothing green left in the trees and in the plants of the field throughout the land of Egypt.
 16. Then Pharaoh hurriedly called for Moses and Aaron, and he said, "I have sinned against Jehovah your God and against you.
 17. I beseech you, forgive now my sin only this once, and pray to Jehovah your God, that He will turn away this death from me just this once!"
 18. Then he went out from Pharaoh, and he prayed to Jehovah.

19. And Jehovah changed the course of a very strong west wind, and it carried away the swarm and threw it into the Red Sea. And not one locust was left in all the border of Egypt.
 20. But Jehovah hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let the children of Israel go.
- ¶21. Then Jehovah said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward heaven, and let there be darkness upon the land of Egypt, even a darkness one may feel."
22. And Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was thick darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days.
 23. They did not see one another, and no one arose from his place for three days, but all the sons of Israel had light in their dwellings.
 24. And Pharaoh called Moses and said, "Go! Serve Jehovah. Only, leave behind your flocks and your herds, but your little ones may go with you."
 25. But Moses said, "You must also give us sacrifices and burnt offerings that we may prepare for Jehovah our God."
 26. Our cattle must also go with us; not a hoof can be left behind, for we must take from them to serve Jehovah our God. We will not know how we are to serve Jehovah until we arrive there."
 27. But Jehovah hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.
 28. Then Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me! Take care not to see my face again, for on the day you see my face, you will die."
 29. And Moses said, "As you say, I will not see your face again."

Exodus 11

- ¶1. And Jehovah said to Moses, "I will bring one more plague upon Pharaoh and upon Egypt. Afterwards, he will let you leave this place. When he lets you go, he will drive you altogether out of this place.
2. Now, speak in the ears of the people, and let each man ask from his friend, and each woman from her neighbor, articles of silver and articles of gold."
 3. And Jehovah gave the people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians. Moreover, the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the eyes of Pharaoh's servants and in the eyes of the people.
- ¶4. And Moses said, "Thus says Jehovah, 'About midnight I will go out in the midst of Egypt.'
5. And every firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the first-born of Pharaoh who is sitting on his throne to the first-born of the slave girl who follows the millstones, and every first-born of animals.
 6. And there shall be a great cry throughout the land of Egypt, the likes of which has never been, and the likes of which shall never be again.

7. But against none of the children of Israel shall a dog wag its tongue, neither against man nor beast, so that you may know that Jehovah makes a difference between Egypt and Israel.
8. And all of these, your servants, will come down to me and bow themselves down to me, saying, “Go out, you and all the people who follow you.” And after that, I will go out!” And he went out from Pharaoh burning with anger.
- ¶9. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that I might multiply my wonders in the land of Egypt.”
10. And Moses and Aaron had done all these wonders before Pharaoh, but Jehovah hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

Exodus 12

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,
2. “This month shall be the first of months for you. It shall be the first of the months of your year.
3. Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, ‘On the tenth day of this month, they shall each take for themselves a lamb from the flock for his father’s house, a lamb for each household.
4. And if the household be too small for a lamb, he and his neighbor that is next to his house shall take it. You shall gauge the lamb according to the number of souls, according to what each can eat.
5. Your lamb shall be unblemished, a male, one year old. You may take it from the sheep or the goats,
6. and you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month, and then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at twilight.
7. And they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two door posts and on the lintel of the houses in which they eat it.
8. And they shall eat the flesh in this night, roasted by fire, and with unleavened bread and bitter herbs shall they eat it.
9. Do not eat any of it raw or boiled at all in water, but roast it with fire, its head with its legs, and with its inward parts.
10. And you shall not leave any of it until morning. Anything remaining in the morning, you shall burn with fire.
11. This is how you shall eat it, with your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. And you shall eat it in haste. It is Jehovah’s Passover.
12. And I will pass through the land of Egypt on that night, and smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast, and I will execute judgments on all the gods of Egypt: I am Jehovah.

13. But for you, the blood will be a sign on the houses where you are, and I will see the blood and pass over you, and the destroying plague will not be among you when I strike the land of Egypt.
 14. And this day shall be for you a memorial, and you shall observe it as a feast to Jehovah throughout your generations; it shall be a statute forever that you keep the feast.
 15. You shall eat unleavened bread seven days. On the first day, you must remove all leaven from your houses, for anyone eating that which is leavened from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel.
 16. And on the first day, there is to be a holy convocation, and on the seventh day also there will be a holy convocation for you. No work may be done on them. However, whatever must be eaten by each person, that alone may be prepared by you.
 17. And you shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for on this very day I brought your host out of the land of Egypt. Therefore, you shall observe this day throughout your generations, as a statute forever.
 18. In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you are to eat unleavened bread until the twenty-first day at evening.
 19. For seven days, leaven shall not be found in your houses. Anyone who eats whatever is leavened, whether a sojourner or one born in the land, that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel.
 20. You must eat nothing leavened; in all your dwellings, you are to eat unleavened bread.”
- ¶21. Then Moses called all the elders of Israel and said to them, “Go and take lambs for yourselves and your families, and slaughter the Passover.
22. Then take a bunch of hyssop and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood in the basin, and none of you is to go out of the door of his house until morning.
 23. For Jehovah will pass through to strike the Egyptians, but He will see the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, and Jehovah will pass over the door and will not permit the destroyer to go into your houses to strike you.
 24. And you will keep this commandment as a statute for you and your sons forever.
 25. And it shall be that when you come into the land that Jehovah will give to you, as He has said, then you will keep this ceremony.
 26. And it shall be that when your children say to you, “What do you mean by this ritual?”
 27. then you are to say, “This is the Passover sacrifice to Jehovah who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt when he struck the Egyptians and delivered our houses.” And the people bowed and worshipped.
 28. So the children of Israel went and did so. As Jehovah commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

- ¶29. And it came to pass in the middle of the night that Jehovah struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of animals.
30. And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he and all his servants, and all the Egyptians, and there was a great wailing in Egypt for there was not a house where there was no one dead.
31. And he called for Moses and Aaron by night and said, "Get up and go out from among my people, both you and the children of Israel, and go serve Jehovah as you said.
32. Take both your flocks and your herds, as you said, and go! And bless me also!"
33. And the Egyptians were pressing upon the people, to drive them out of the land quickly, for they said, "We will all be dead men."
34. And the people took up their dough before it was leavened, their kneading troughs being bound up in their garments on their shoulders.
35. And the children of Israel did according to Moses' word, and they asked of the Egyptians articles of silver, articles of gold, and clothing.
36. And Jehovah gave the people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians, and they gave them what they asked. Thus, they plundered the Egyptians.
- ¶37. And the children of Israel traveled from Rameses towards Succoth about six hundred thousand footmen, besides little ones.
38. And a mixed multitude also went up with them, and flocks and herds, a large number of livestock.
39. And they baked unleavened cakes with the dough that they brought out of Egypt, for it was not leavened because they were driven out from Egypt and could not tarry, nor had they prepared provisions for themselves.
40. And the sojourning of the children of Israel who dwelt in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years.
41. And it came to pass at the end of four hundred and thirty years—it came to pass on the selfsame day—that all the hosts of Jehovah went out from the land of Egypt.
42. It was a night of keeping watch for Jehovah to bring them out from the land of Egypt. This night is for keeping watch for Jehovah throughout all generations of the children of Israel.
- ¶43. And Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the statute of the Passover. No son of a foreigner is to eat of it.
44. But every man's slave that is purchased with money may eat of it—after you have circumcised him.
45. Neither a visitor nor a hired man may eat of it.
46. It must be eaten in one house. You are not to bring any of its flesh outside the house, and you must not break a bone of it.
47. All the congregation of Israel shall do it.

48. And if a stranger sojourns with you and would keep the Passover to Jehovah, let all his males be circumcised, and then he may come near to keep it. And he will be like one born in the land. But no uncircumcised man shall eat of it.
 49. There shall be one law for the one born in the land and for the stranger who sojourns among you."
 50. And all the sons of Israel did as Jehovah commanded Moses and Aaron; so did they.
- ¶51. And it came to pass that on the selfsame day, Jehovah brought out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt by their hosts.

Exodus 13

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. "Consecrate to me every firstborn male of the children of Israel that opens every womb, of man or of beast. He is mine."
3. Then Moses said to the people, "Remember this day that you came out of Egypt, out of the house of slaves, for with a strong hand, Jehovah brought you out of this place. That which is leavened shall not be eaten.
4. This day, in the month of Abib, you are leaving.
5. And it will come to pass that when Jehovah brings you to the land of the Canaanites, even the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which He swore to your fathers to give to you, a land flowing with milk and honey, then you shall offer this service in this month:
6. For seven days shall you eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day, there is to be a feast to Jehovah.
7. Unleavened bread shall be eaten for seven days. That which is leavened must not be seen among you; yea, leaven is not to be seen among you in all your land.
8. You shall make it known to your son on that day, saying, 'This is because of what Jehovah did for me when He brought me out of Egypt.'
9. And it will be for you like a sign on your hand and like a memorial between your eyes, so that the law of Jehovah will be in your mouth, for with a strong hand, Jehovah brought you out of Egypt.
10. You shall observe this statute at its appointed time from year to year.
11. And it will come to pass when Jehovah brings you to the land of the Canaanites, just as He swore to you and to your fathers, that He will give it to you.
12. So, you shall dedicate to Jehovah all that first open the womb, and all the firstlings that open it among the animals which you own; the males are Jehovah's.
13. And every firstborn donkey, you shall redeem with a sheep, but if you will not redeem it, you shall break its neck. But you shall redeem every firstborn man among your sons.
14. And when in time to come your son asks you, saying, 'Why is this?' you shall say to him, 'By a mighty hand, Jehovah brought us out of Egypt, out of the house of slaves.'

15. For it came to pass that when Pharaoh hardened himself against letting us go, Jehovah slew every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of man even to the firstborn of animals. That is why I sacrifice to Jehovah all the males that first open the womb, and redeem all of my firstborn sons.'
 16. And it shall be as a sign upon your hand and as frontlets between your eyes, for by a mighty hand, Jehovah brought us out of Egypt."
- ¶17. And it came to pass that when Pharaoh had let the people go, God did not take them by the way of the land of the Philistines, though it was near. For God said, "Lest the people lose heart when they face war and return to Egypt."
18. But God led the people around by way of the wilderness of the Red Sea. And the children of Israel went up from the land of Egypt armed.
 19. And Moses took Joseph's bones with him, for he had bound the children of Israel with an oath, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall take my bones away from here with you."
 20. So, they set out from Succoth, and they made camp at Etham, at the edge of the wilderness.
 21. And Jehovah went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them in the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, that they might travel by day and by night.
 22. The pillar of cloud did not cease by day before the people, nor the pillar of fire by night.

Exodus 14

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. "Speak to the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea. You shall encamp before Baal-zephon by the sea.
 3. And Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, 'They are confused by the land; the wilderness has closed them in.'
 4. And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and he will chase after them, and I will be honored in Pharaoh and all his army; and the Egyptians shall confess that I am Jehovah." And they did so.
 5. And it was reported to the king of Egypt that the people had fled, and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people; and they said, "Why have we done this? We have let Israel go from serving us."
 6. So he made ready his chariot, and he took his army with him.
 7. And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and officers over them all.
 8. Then Jehovah hardened the heart of Pharaoh, king of Egypt; and he pursued the children of Israel, for the children of Israel went out with a high hand.

9. And the Egyptians pursued them, and all of Pharaoh's horsedrawn chariots, and his horsemen, and his army caught up with them as they camped by the sea, at Pi-hahiroth before Baal-zephon.
 10. And as Pharaoh approached, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians were advancing upon them! And they were greatly afraid, and the children of Israel cried out to Jehovah.
 11. And they said to Moses, "Is it because there are no burial sites in Egypt that you have taken us out into the desert to die? What is this that you have done to us, bringing us out of Egypt?"
 12. Isn't this what we told you in Egypt, saying, 'Stay away from us, and let us serve the Egyptians, for it is better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the desert.'"
 13. And Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid. Stand still and see the salvation of Jehovah, which He will bring to pass for you today. For though you see the Egyptians today, you will never see them again, forever."
 14. Jehovah will fight for you, and you will be speechless."
- ¶15. And Jehovah said to Moses, "Why are you crying out to me? Tell the children of Israel to set out.
16. And you, lift up your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, so that the children of Israel may go into the midst of the sea on dry ground.
 17. And I, behold I, will harden the heart of the Egyptians, and they will follow them in. Then will I be honored in Pharaoh, and in all his army, in his chariots, and in his horsemen.
 18. And the Egyptians will know that I am Jehovah when I have been honored in Pharaoh, in his chariots, and in his horsemen."
 19. Then the angel of God who had been traveling before the camp of Israel moved and went behind them, and the pillar of the cloud moved from in front of them, and it stood behind them,
 20. and it went between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel. And the cloud and the darkness was upon them, but he lit up the night for Israel, so that one did not come near the other all that night.
 21. And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and Jehovah caused the sea to go back with a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry ground, and the waters were divided.
 22. And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea on dry ground, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.
 23. Then the Egyptians made pursuit and went in after them—all of the horses of Pharaoh, his chariots and his horsemen—into the middle of the sea.

24. And it came to pass, on the morning watch, Jehovah looked down upon the host of Egypt through the pillar of fire and of cloud, and He troubled the host of the Egyptians.
25. And He removed the wheels of their chariots so that they could hardly drive. And the Egyptians said, "Let us flee from the face of Israel, for Jehovah is fighting for them, against Egypt!"
- ¶26. And Jehovah said to Moses, "Stretch your hand out over the sea, and let the waters return upon the Egyptians, upon his chariots and upon his horsemen."
27. So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its normal flow by the break of day. Now the Egyptians fled at its coming, but Jehovah shook off the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.
28. And the waters returned and covered the chariots and horsemen, even all of the host of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea; there was not so much as one of them left.
29. But the children of Israel walked on dry ground in the midst of the sea, and the waters were a wall to them, on their right hand and on their left.
30. And so Jehovah delivered Israel that day from the hand of Egypt, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the seashore.
31. And Israel saw the great power that Jehovah wrought against the Egyptians, and the people feared Jehovah, and they believed in Jehovah and in His servant Moses.

Exodus 15

- ¶1. Then Moses, with the children of Israel sang this song to Jehovah, and they spoke, saying, "I will sing to Jehovah because He has triumphed gloriously. The horse and its rider He has cast into the sea."
2. Jehovah is my strength and song, and He is my salvation. This is my God, and I will praise the God of my father, and I will exalt Him.
3. Jehovah is a man of war. Jehovah is His name.
4. Pharaoh's chariots and his army He cast into the sea, and the elite of his officers are drowned in the Red Sea.
5. The depths covered them; they went down like a stone into the deep.
6. Your right hand, O Jehovah, is majestic in power. Your right hand, O Jehovah, has smashed the enemy.
7. And in the greatness of your majesty, you overthrow those who rise up against you. You send forth your burning anger; it consumes them like stubble.
8. And by the blast of your nostrils, the waters were heaped up, flowing waters stood like a dam, the depths congealed in the middle of the sea.
9. The enemy said, 'I will pursue; I will overtake; I will divide the spoil. My soul will be filled with what is theirs. I will draw my sword; my hand will destroy them.'

10. You blew with your wind; the sea buried them. They sank like lead in majestic waters.
 11. Who among the gods is like you, O Jehovah? Who, like you, is glorious in holiness, revered in praises, doing wonders?
 12. You stretched out your right hand; the earth swallowed them.
 13. In your mercy, you led this people whom you have redeemed. In your strength, you guided them toward your holy dwelling place.
 14. Nations heard; they trembled; fear seized the inhabitants of Philistia.
 15. Then the chiefs of Edom were terrified. Trembling seized the strong men of Moab. All the inhabitants of Canaan melted.
 16. Terror and dread will fall on them; by the power of your arm, O Jehovah, they will be as still as a stone until your people pass by, until this people you have purchased pass by.
 17. You will bring them in and plant them on the mountain of your inheritance, the fixed place you created for your dwelling, O Jehovah, the holy site, my Lord, that your hands have prepared.
 18. Jehovah will reign forever and ever!
 19. For Pharaoh's horses with his chariots and his horsemen went into the sea and Jehovah brought the waters of the sea back over them but the children of Israel went through on dry ground in the midst of the sea.”
- ¶20. Then Miriam the prophetess, Aaron's sister, took a timbrel in her hand, and all the women followed her with timbrels and dancing.
21. And Miriam sang to them, “Sing to Jehovah because He has triumphed gloriously! The horse and its rider He has cast into the sea.”
- ¶22. Then Moses led Israel from the Red Sea, and they went forth into the wilderness of Shur, and they traveled three days in the wilderness and did not find water.
23. And they came to Marah, but they could not drink the water at Marah because it was bitter. (That is why it is called Marah.)
 24. Then the people murmured against Moses, saying, “What are we to drink?”
 25. And he cried out to Jehovah, and Jehovah pointed out a tree, and he cast it into the water, and the water became sweet. And there, He made a statute and an ordinance for them, and there He put them to the test.
 26. And He said, “If you will diligently hearken to the voice of Jehovah your God, and do what is right in His sight, and listen to His commandments, and keep all of His statutes, none of the diseases that I put on the Egyptians will I bring upon you because I am Jehovah your healer.”
- ¶27. Then they came to Elim where there were twelve springs of water and seventy date palms, and they camped there by the waters.

Exodus 16

1. And they set out from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they left the land of Egypt.
 2. And the whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.
 3. And the sons of Israel said to them, “Would that we had died by the hand of Jehovah in the land of Egypt when we sat by the flesh pots and ate bread to the full. Instead, you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger!”
 - ¶4. Then Jehovah said to Moses, “Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you, and the people shall go out and gather a day’s portion every day, that I might prove them, whether or not they will walk in my law.
 5. And it shall be on the sixth day, they shall prepare what they bring in, and there will be twice as much as they gather day by day.”
 6. So Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, “At evening, you will know that Jehovah has brought you out of the land of Egypt;
 7. and in the morning you will see the glory of Jehovah, for He hears your murmurings against Jehovah, and who are we that you murmur against us?”
 8. And Moses said, “Jehovah will give you meat to eat in the evening and bread to the full in the morning, for Jehovah hears your murmurings which you murmur against Him. And who are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against Jehovah.”
 9. Then Moses said to Aaron, “Say to all the congregation of the children of Israel, ‘Come near before Jehovah, for He has heard your murmurings.’”
 10. And it came to pass when Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of Jehovah appeared in the cloud.
- ¶11. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
12. “I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel. Speak to them, saying, ‘At twilight, you will eat meat, and in the morning, you will be filled with bread, and you shall know that I am Jehovah your God.’”
 13. So, it came to pass in the evening that the quails went up and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew round about the camp.
 14. And when the layer of dew evaporated, behold, on the face of the wilderness there was a thin flake, fine as the frost on the ground.
 15. And when the children of Israel saw it, they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, “It is the bread that Jehovah has given you to eat.

16. This is the thing which Jehovah has commanded: Let them gather it, each according to his appetite. An omer apiece shall you take, according to the number of souls each of you has in his tent.”
 17. And the children of Israel did so, and they gathered, some a lot and some a little.
 18. When they measured it by the omer, the one gathering much had no excess, and the one gathering little did not lack; each man gathered what he could eat.
 19. And Moses said to them, “Let no one leave any of it until morning.”
 20. But they did not listen to Moses, and some of them left part of it until morning, and it bred worms and stank. And Moses was angry with them.
 21. So, they gathered it morning by morning, every man according to his appetite, but when the sun grew hot, it melted.
 22. And it came to pass on the sixth day, they gathered twice as much bread, two homers instead of one, and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.
 23. And he said to them, “This is what Jehovah said: ‘Tomorrow is the rest of the holy Sabbath to Jehovah. Bake what you will bake, and boil what you will boil, and all that is left over, put up for yourselves to keep until the morning.’”
 24. And they put it up until the morning, as Moses commanded, and it did not stink, and there was no worm in it.
 25. And Moses said, “Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath to Jehovah; today, you will not find it in the field.
 26. Six days you can gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will be none.”
 27. And it came to pass, on the seventh day, that some of the people went out to gather manna, but they found none.
- ¶28. Then Jehovah said to Moses, “How long will you refuse to keep my commandments and my laws?
29. Understand that Jehovah has given you the Sabbath! Therefore, on the sixth day, He gives you bread for two days. Let every man remain in his tent! Let no one leave his place on the seventh day!”
 30. So the people rested on the seventh day.
 31. And the house of Israel called it manna, and it was like coriander seed, white, and its taste was like wafers with honey.
 32. And Moses said, “This is the thing which Jehovah has commanded: ‘Fill an homer of it to be kept for your descendants, so that they may see the bread which I fed you in the wilderness when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.’”
 33. And Moses said to Aaron, “Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna in it, and place it before Jehovah, to be kept for your generations.”
 34. And Aaron laid it up inside the testimony to be kept, as Jehovah commanded Moses.
 35. And the children of Israel ate manna forty years, until they came into an inhabited land. They ate manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.

36. Now, an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.

Exodus 17

- ¶1. And all the congregation of the children of Israel set out on their journeys from the wilderness of Sin according to the commandment of Jehovah, and they camped in Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink.
 - 2. Then the people contended with Moses, saying, “Give us water that we may drink!” But Moses said to them, “Why do you contend with me? Why do you tempt Jehovah?”
 - 3. And the people thirsted there for water, and the people grumbled against Moses and said, “Why have you brought us up from Egypt, to kill us, and our children, and our livestock with thirst?”
 - 4. And Moses cried unto Jehovah, saying, “What shall I do for this people? They are on the verge of stoning me!”
 - 5. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Pass on in front of the people, and take some of the elders of Israel with you. And take in your hand your rod with which you struck the river, and go!
 - 6. Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock on Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink.” And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.
 - 7. And he called the name of the place Massah³ and Meribah⁴ because of the contention of the children of Israel and because they put Jehovah to the test by saying, “Is Jehovah among us, or not?”
- ¶8. Then Amalek came out and fought against Israel in Rephidim.
- 9. And Moses said to Joshua, “Choose men for us, and go out and fight with Amalek. Tomorrow, I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in my hand.”
 - 10. And Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and he fought with Amalek. And Moses, Aaron, and Hur ascended to the top of the hill.
 - 11. And it came to pass when Moses lifted up his hands, Israel prevailed, but when he let his hands rest, Amalek prevailed.
 - 12. But Moses 'hands became heavy, and they took a stone and placed it under him, and he sat on it. Then Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on one side and one on the other. And his hands remained steady until the sun went down.
 - 13. And Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

³ That is, “test.”

⁴ That is, “strife.”

- ¶14. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Write this as a memorial in a book and recite it in the ears of Joshua, that I will utterly wipe out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.”
- 15. And Moses built an altar and called the name of it Jehovah-Nissi⁵,
- 16. for he said, “Jehovah has sworn by his throne, that there will be war between Jehovah and Amalek from generation to generation.”

Exodus 18

- ¶1. And Jethro, priest of Midian, Moses 'father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for Israel his people when Jehovah brought Israel out from Egypt.
- 2. Now Jethro, Moses 'father-in-law, had taken in Zipporah, Moses 'wife, after she was sent back,
- 3. and her two sons, one of whom was named Gershom, for he said, “I have become a stranger in a foreign land,”
- 4. and the name of the other was Eliezer⁶, because, he said, “The God of my father is my help, for He delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh.”
- 5. And Jethro, Moses 'father-in-law, came to Moses, with his two sons and his wife, in the wilderness where he was camped at the mountain of God.
- 6. And he said to Moses, “I, your father-in-law Jethro, have come to you, and your wife and her two sons with her.”
- 7. And Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and he bowed down, and he kissed him, and they asked after each other's welfare and then went into the tent.
- 8. And Moses recounted to his father-in-law all that Jehovah had done to Pharaoh and to Egypt for Israel's sake and all the hardship that had come upon them along the way, but that Jehovah had delivered them.
- 9. Then Jethro rejoiced over all the good that Jehovah had done for Israel, whom He had delivered from the hand of the Egyptians.
- 10. And Jethro said, “Blessed is Jehovah who has delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of Pharaoh, and who has rescued the people from under the hand of Egypt.
- 11. Now I know that Jehovah is greater than all the gods because in the thing of which they were proud, He was above them.”
- 12. And Jethro, Moses 'father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and sacrifices to God, and Aaron and all the elders of Israel came to eat bread with Moses 'father-in-law before God.

⁶ That is, “God is my help.”

13. And it came to pass on the next day that Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood before Moses from morning till evening.
14. And Moses 'father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, and he said, "What is this thing that you are doing for the people? Why are you sitting by yourself while all the people are standing around you from morning till evening?"
15. And Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me to inquire of God.
16. When there is a dispute among them, one comes to me, and I judge between each man and his neighbor, and I make the statutes of God and His laws known."
17. Then Moses 'father-in-law said to him, "What you are doing is not good.
18. You will certainly wear out, both you and this people who are with you, because this thing is too heavy for you. You cannot do it alone.
19. Listen now to my voice. Let me advise you, and may God be with you. You must remain before God for the people, and bring their cases to God.
20. And you teach them the statutes and laws and make known to them the way they are to live and the thing they must do,
21. but you look for able men who fear God among the people, trustworthy men who hate a bribe, and set over them rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.
22. And let them judge the people at all times, and it will be that they will bring every great matter to you, but every lesser matter, they will themselves judge. So, make it easier on yourself, and let them bear the burden with you.
23. If you will do this thing, and God command it you, then you will be able to continue, and all this people will also go to their place in peace."
24. And Moses hearkened to the voice of his father-in-law, and he did everything that he had said.
25. And Moses chose able men from all Israel, and he appointed them as heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.
26. And they judged the people at all times. A difficult matter, they brought to Moses, but every lesser matter, they themselves judged.
27. Then Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went to his own country.

Exodus 19

- ¶1. In the third month after the children of Israel went out from the land of Egypt, on that day, they came into the wilderness of Sinai.
2. For they journeyed from Rephidim, then came into the wilderness of Sinai and set up camp in the wilderness. There Israel camped in front of the mountain.
3. Then Moses went up to God, and Jehovah called to him from the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel,
4. 'You saw what I did to the Egyptians, and that I bore you on eagles 'wings and brought you to me.

5. And now, if you will carefully listen to my voice and keep my covenant, you will be a treasured possession to me above all peoples, for all the earth is mine.
6. And you will be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.’ These are the words which you will speak to the children of Israel.”
7. So, Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and he put before them all these words that Jehovah commanded him.
8. Then all the people answered together and said, “All that Jehovah has spoken, we will do.” And Moses brought back the words of the people to Jehovah.
9. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Behold, I will come to you in a thick cloud so that the people may hear when I speak with you, and believe in you also forever.” And Moses declared the words of the people to Jehovah.
10. Then Jehovah said to Moses, “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow, and have them wash their clothes.
11. And be ready for the third day, because on the third day Jehovah will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people,
12. and set boundaries for the people all around saying, ‘Take heed to yourselves that you do not go up on the mountain or touch the border of it. Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death.
13. No hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot through. Whether animal or man, he shall not live. When the ram’s horn sounds, then let them come up to the mountain.””
14. And Moses went down from the mountain to the people and consecrated the people, and they washed their clothes.
15. And he said to the people, “Be prepared for the third day. Do not go in to a woman.”
16. And it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were peals of thunder, and flashes of lightning, and a thick cloud on the mountain, and a very loud blast of a shofar. And all the people in the camp trembled.
17. Then Moses led the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they presented themselves at the base of the mountain.
18. And Mount Sinai was covered in smoke because of the presence of Jehovah who had descended upon it in fire, and His smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked exceedingly.
19. When the sound of the shofar came and grew very loud, Moses spoke and God answered him with a voice.
20. And Jehovah came down on Mount Sinai, on top of the mountain. Then Jehovah summoned Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.
21. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Go down. Warn the people, lest they break through to Jehovah to look, and many of them perish.
22. And also, let the priests who draw near to Jehovah consecrate themselves, lest Jehovah break forth upon them.”

23. Then Moses said to Jehovah, “The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai because you warned us saying, ‘Set boundaries around the mountain and consecrate it.’”
24. But Jehovah said to him, “Away! Go down! And then you will come up, and Aaron with you. But let not the priests nor the people break through the boundary to come up to Jehovah, lest He break forth upon them.”
25. So Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

Exodus 20

- ¶1. And God spoke all these words, saying,
- ¶2. “I am Jehovah your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of slaves.
3. You shall have no other god besides me.
- ¶4. You shall not make for yourself an idol, or any likeness of what is in the heavens above, or in the earth beneath, or in the waters under the earth.
5. You shall not bow down to them or serve them, for I, Jehovah your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of fathers upon children, even to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me,
6. and showing mercy to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.
- ¶7. “You shall not bear the name of Jehovah your God in vain, for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless who bears His name in vain.
- ¶8. “Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.
9. Six days shall you labor and do all your work,
10. but the seventh day is a Sabbath to Jehovah your God. You shall do no work, you, or your son, or your daughter, your male slave or your female slave, or your livestock, or your foreigner who is in your gates.
11. For in six days, Jehovah made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and He rested on the seventh day. Therefore, Jehovah blessed the Sabbath day and sanctified it.
- ¶12. “Honor your father and your mother so that your days may be long upon the land that Jehovah your God is giving you.
- ¶13. “You shall not kill.
- ¶14. “You shall not commit adultery.
- ¶15. “You shall not steal.
- ¶16. “You shall not testify falsely against your neighbor.

- ¶17. “You shall not covet your neighbor’s house; you shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, or his male slave, or his female slave, or his ox, or his donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.”
- ¶18. And when all the people beheld the thunderings, and the lightning flashes, and the sound of the shofar, and the mountain smoking, the people were afraid, and trembled, and stood far off.
19. And they said to Moses, “You speak with us yourself, and we will listen, but don’t let God speak with us, lest we die!”
20. Then Moses said to the people, “Don’t be afraid! For God has come in order to prove you, that the fear of Him may be before you so that you will not sin.”
21. Nevertheless, the people stayed far off, and Moses drew near to the thick darkness where God was.
- ¶22. And Jehovah said to Moses, “This is what you shall say to the children of Israel, ‘You have seen that I spoke with you from heaven.
23. You shall not make other gods besides me; you shall not make for yourselves gods of silver or of gold.
24. You shall make for me an altar of earth, and you shall sacrifice upon it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your flocks and your herds. In every place that I cause my name to be remembered, I will come to you and bless you.
25. And if you make an altar of stones for me, you shall not build it with hewn stone, for if you use your tool on it, you have defiled it.
26. And you shall not ascend by steps to my altar, so that your nakedness may not be exposed to it.’

Exodus 21

- ¶1. “And these are the judgments that you will set before them:
2. If you buy a Hebrew slave, he shall serve for six years, and in the seventh, he shall go out free, for nothing.
3. If he came in by himself, he will leave by himself. If he had a wife, his wife shall leave with him.
4. If his master gave him a wife, and she bore sons or daughters to him, the wife and her children shall belong to her master, and he shall leave by himself.
5. But if the slave says, ‘I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free,’
6. then his master shall bring him to the judges. And he shall bring him to the door or to the doorpost, and his master shall pierce his ear with the awl, and he shall serve him forever.
- ¶7. “And if a man sells his daughter as a slave, she shall not go out the same way the male slaves go out.

8. If she does not please her master who has betrothed her to himself, he shall let her be redeemed. He has no authority to sell her to a foreign people, seeing he has broken faith with her.
 9. And if he betroths her to his son, he shall deal with her as is customary with daughters.
 10. And if he takes himself another wife, he shall not diminish her food, her clothing, or her marriage rights.
 11. But if he does not do these three things for her, she shall go out for nothing, without money.
- ¶12. “He who strikes a man so that he dies shall surely be put to death.
13. But if a man lies not in wait, but God delivers him into his hand, I will appoint you a place to which he may flee.
 14. But if a man makes a plan against his neighbor to treacherously kill him, you shall take him away from my altar that he die.
 15. He who strikes his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.
 16. He who kidnaps a man and sells him, or if he is found in his hand, shall surely be put to death.
 17. He who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.
 18. If men are fighting and one strikes his neighbor with a rock or with his fist, and he does not die, but takes to bed,
 19. if he rises and walks about outside on his staff, the one who struck him shall not be punished; only, he shall pay for his lost time and for his complete recovery.
 20. And if a man strikes his male slave or his female slave with the rod, and he dies by his hand, he shall certainly be avenged.
 21. However, if he continues a day or two, he shall not be avenged, for he is his money.
 22. And if men are struggling with each other, and they hit a pregnant woman so that her fruit leaves her, but no harm follows, he shall surely be fined according to what the woman’s husband lays upon him, and he shall make payment through the judges.
 23. But if harm does follow, you shall pay life for life,
 24. eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,
 25. burn for burn, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.
 26. And if a man strikes an eye of his male slave or an eye of his female slave, and he ruins it, he shall set him free because of his eye.
 27. And if he knocks out a tooth of his male slave or a tooth of his female slave, he shall set him free because of his tooth.
- ¶28. “And if an ox gores a man or a woman so that he dies, the ox shall surely be stoned, and no one shall eat its flesh, and the owner of the ox shall be innocent.
29. But if an ox were apt to gore in the past, and warning had been given to its owner but he did not keep it in, and then it kills a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, and its owner shall also be put to death.

30. If a ransom is laid upon him, he shall pay for the redemption of his life, according to everything imposed upon him.
31. Whether it gores a son or gores a daughter, it shall be done to him according to this ordinance.
32. If the ox gores a male slave or a female slave, he shall pay thirty shekels of silver to its owner, and the ox shall be stoned.
33. And if a man opens a pit, or if a man digs a well, and he does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it,
34. the owner of the pit shall pay full compensation. He shall give money to its owner, and the dead beast shall be his.
35. And if one man's ox injures his neighbor's ox so that it dies, then they shall sell the living ox and divide the money from it, and they shall also divide the dead one.
36. However, if it was known that the ox gored in the past, but he did not keep it in, its master shall certainly pay full compensation, ox for ox, but the dead one shall be his.

Exodus 22

- ¶1. "If a man steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters it or sells it, he shall repay five cattle for an ox, and four from the flock for the sheep.
2. If the thief is found in the act of breaking in, and he is struck so that he dies, there shall be no blood-guilt imputed for him.
3. If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood-guilt imputed for him. He shall surely make restitution. If he does not have it, then he shall be sold for his theft.
4. If, when he is found, the stolen thing is found in his hand alive, whether ox, or ass, or sheep, he shall restore double.
5. If a man causes a field or vineyard to be grazed over by letting his beast loose so that it feeds in another man's field, he shall make restitution from the best of his field and from the best of his vineyard.
6. If a fire breaks out and ignites thorns, so that stacks of grain, or standing grain, or a field is consumed, he who kindled the blaze shall pay full compensation.
7. If a man delivers to his neighbor money or valuables to keep, and it is stolen from the man's house, if the thief is found, he shall pay double.
8. If the thief is not found, the owner of the house shall be brought to the gods⁷ to determine whether or not he has put his hand to his neighbor's property.
9. For every type of transgression concerning an ox, a donkey, a sheep, or clothing, or any lost item that one claims is his, the case of both parties shall go to the gods. Whoever the gods condemn shall pay double to his neighbor.

⁷ God refers to the rulers in Israel as "gods" on several occasions (cf. 22:9, 28). Moreover, everyone to whom the word of God comes are "gods", according to Jesus in John 10:34–35, quoting Psalm 82:6.

10. If a man delivers to his neighbor a donkey, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast to keep, and it dies or is crippled or is driven off, no one seeing it,
11. an oath of Jehovah shall be between the two of them, that he has not put his hand to his neighbor's goods. Its owner shall accept it, and he shall not restore it.
12. But if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution to its owner.
13. If it be torn in pieces, he shall bring it as evidence, and he shall not make restitution for the torn animal.
14. And if a man borrows an animal from his neighbor, and it is crippled or dies, its owner not being with it, he shall pay full compensation.
15. If its owner was with it, he shall not repay. If it was rented, it came for its rental fee.
16. If a man entices a virgin who is not betrothed and lies with her, he shall certainly pay a bride-price for her to be his wife.
17. If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, he shall weigh out silver, according to the bride-price of virgins.
18. You shall not allow a sorceress to live.
19. Anyone who lies with an animal shall surely be put to death.
20. Whoever sacrifices to gods other than Jehovah alone shall be devoted.
21. You shall not maltreat a foreigner, nor shall you oppress him, for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.
22. You shall not afflict any widow or orphan.
23. If you afflict them in the least so that they cry out at all to me, I will surely hear their cry,
24. and my anger will be kindled, and I will kill you with the sword so that your wives become widows and your children, orphans.
25. If you lend money to my people who are poor among you, you shall not be as a usurer to him; you shall not lay interest upon him.
26. If you take the garment of your neighbor in pledge until the sun goes down, you shall return it to him,
27. for that is his only covering; it is the garment for his skin. In what will he sleep? And it shall be that when he cries out to me, I will hear, for I am compassionate.
28. You shall not revile the gods, nor shall you curse the ruler of your people.
29. You shall not delay the offering from your harvest or your presses. You shall give the firstborn of your sons to me.
30. You shall do likewise with your cattle and your flock. It shall stay seven days with its mother; on the eighth day, you shall give it to me.
31. And you shall be holy men to me. And you shall not eat flesh torn in the field; you shall throw it to the dogs.

Exodus 23

- ¶1. "You shall not raise a false report. You shall not join hands with a wicked man to be a malicious witness.

2. You shall not follow a multitude to do evil, and you shall not testify in a dispute to side with many to pervert justice.
3. Nor shall you show partiality to a poor man in his dispute.
4. If you come upon your enemy's ox or his donkey going astray, you shall surely return it to him.
5. If you see the donkey of him who hates you lying under its burden, then you shall refrain from leaving it to him; you shall by all means rescue it with him.
6. You shall not pervert the judgment of your poor in his dispute.
7. You shall keep far from a false matter, and you shall not put an innocent or righteous man to death, for I do not justify a wicked man.
8. And you shall not take a bribe, for a bribe blinds those who see and subverts the words of the righteous.
9. You shall not oppress a stranger. You yourselves know the life of a stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.
10. For six years, you may sow your land and gather its produce,
11. but in the seventh, you shall let it rest and lie untilled so that the poor of your people may eat. And what they leave, the beasts of the field may eat. Thus shall you do with your vineyard and your oliveyard.
12. Six days shall you do your work, and on the seventh day, you shall cease, that your ox and your donkey may rest and the son of your handmaid and the stranger may be refreshed.
13. You shall surely observe all that I have said to you. And you shall not mention other gods by name; it shall not be heard from your mouth.
14. Three times each year, you shall make a feast to me.
15. You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread (seven days shall you eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the appointed time in the month Abib, for in it, you came forth out of Egypt, and none shall appear before me empty-handed),
16. and the Feast of Harvest, the firstfruits of your produce that you sowed in the field, and the Feast of the Ingathering at the end of the year when you gather in your produce from the field.
17. Three times each year, all your males shall appear before the Lord Jehovah.
18. You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread, and the fat of my feast shall not remain until morning.
19. The first of the firstfruits of your land shall you bring to the house of Jehovah your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.
- ¶20. "Behold, I am sending an angel before you to protect you along the way and to bring you to the place that I have prepared.
21. Beware of him, and obey his voice. Do not provoke him, for he will not pardon your transgression, for my name is in him.

22. But if you diligently obey his voice, and do all that I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies, and I will be a foe to your foes.
23. For my angel shall go before you and bring you in to the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I will annihilate them.
24. You shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor shall you do according to their deeds, but you shall utterly destroy them and break their pillars to pieces.
25. And you shall serve Jehovah your God, and He will bless your bread and your water, and I will take away sickness from your midst.
26. None shall miscarry or be barren in your land. I will fulfill the number of your days.
27. I will send my terror before you and put to confusion all the people to whom you come, and I will give you the neck of all your enemies.
28. And I will send hornets before you that will drive out the Hivites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites from before you.
29. I will not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become desolate and the beasts of the field become too many for you.
30. Little by little, I will drive them out from before you until you become fruitful and possess the land.
31. And I will establish your border from the Red Sea even to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the River. For I will give into your hands the inhabitants of the land, and you will drive them out from before you.
32. You shall not make a covenant with them and their gods.
33. They shall not dwell in your land, lest they cause you to sin against me, for if you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you.”

Exodus 24

- ¶1. And He said to Moses, “Come up to Jehovah, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of Israel’s elders, and worship at a distance.
2. And Moses, by himself, shall draw near to Jehovah, but they must not come near. And the people shall not come up with him.”
3. Then Moses went and recounted to the people all the words of Jehovah and all the judgments; and with one voice all the people answered and said, “All the words that Jehovah has spoken, we will do.”
4. Then Moses wrote down all the words of Jehovah, and he rose up early in the morning and erected an altar and twelve pillars at the base of the mountain for the twelve tribes of Israel.
5. And he sent young men of the children of Israel, and they offered up bullocks for burnt offerings and slaughtered sacrifices for peace offerings to Jehovah.
6. And Moses took half of the blood and put it into basins, and half of the blood, he threw against the altar.

7. And he took the book of the covenant and read it aloud in the ears of the people, and they said, "All that Jehovah has spoken, we will do and obey."
8. And Moses took the blood and threw it on the people and he said, "Behold! The blood of the covenant that Jehovah has made with you with all these words."
9. Then Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of Israel's elders went up.
10. And they saw the God of Israel, and under His feet was something like a paved work of sapphire as pure as the sky itself.
11. Yet, He did not stretch out His hand against the chief men of the sons of Israel, but they beheld God, and ate and drank.
- ¶12. And Jehovah said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain and wait there, and I will give you stone tablets with the law and the commandment that I have written to guide them."
13. And Moses arose, and Joshua his minister, and Moses went up to the mountain of God.
14. But to the elders he said, "Wait for us here until we come back to you. Behold, Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a matter, let him go to them."
15. Then Moses ascended the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.
16. And the glory of Jehovah settled upon Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And on the seventh day, He called to Moses from the midst of the cloud.
17. And the appearance of the glory of Jehovah on the top of the mountain was like a consuming fire in the eyes of the children of Israel.
18. And Moses went into the midst of the cloud and ascended the mountain. And Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

Exodus 25

The Materials Required for the Tabernacle

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. "Tell the children of Israel that they may take a portion out for me. From every man whose heart is willing shall you receive my portion."
3. And this is the portion that you shall receive from them: gold, and silver, and bronze;
4. and blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair;
5. and rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins; and shittim wood;
6. oil for the light; spices for the anointing oil and for the pungent incense;
7. onyx stones and stones for settings for the ephod and for the breastplate.
8. And they shall build a sanctuary for me, that I may dwell among them.
9. You shall make it according to all that I show you, the pattern of the tabernacle and the pattern of all its accoutrements.

The Ark

- ¶10. "They shall make an ark of shittim wood, its length, two and a half cubits, its width, a cubit and a half, and its height, a cubit and a half.

11. And you shall overlay it with pure gold inside and out. You shall make a crown of gold on it all around.
12. And you shall cast four rings of gold for it and attach them to its four feet, two rings on one of its sides and two rings on its other side.
13. And you shall make poles of shittim wood and overlay them with gold,
14. and you shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to carry the ark with them.
15. The poles shall remain in the rings of the ark; they shall not be taken away from it.
16. And you shall put into the ark the testimony that I will give you.

The Mercy-Seat

- ¶17. “And you shall make the mercy-seat⁸ of pure gold, two and a half cubits its length, and a cubit and a half its width.
18. And you shall fashion two cherubim of gold. Of beaten work shall you make them at the two ends of the mercy-seat.
19. And make one cherub at one end and one cherub at the other end. You shall make the cherubim part of the mercy-seat, on the two ends of it.
20. And the wings of the cherubim shall be spread out above, their wings overshadowing the mercy-seat, with their faces toward one another. The faces of the cherubim shall face the mercy-seat.
21. And you shall place the mercy-seat on top of the ark, and you shall put into the ark the testimony that I will give you.
22. And I will meet with you there between the two cherubim that are over the ark of the testimony, and I will speak to you from above the mercy-seat all that I command you for the children of Israel.

The Table

- ¶23. “And you shall make a table of shittim wood, its length, two cubits, its width, a cubit, and its height, a cubit and a half.
24. And you shall overlay it with pure gold, and you shall make a crown of gold for it all around.
25. And you shall make for it a border a handbreadth wide around it, and you shall make a crown of gold for its border round about.
26. And you shall make four gold rings for it and attach the rings to the four corners that are on its four feet.
27. The rings shall be close to the border, as housings for poles for carrying the table.
28. And you shall make the poles of shittim wood and overlay them with gold, that the table may be carried with them.
29. And you shall make its dishes, and its spoons, and its cups, and its bowls with which libation is made; of pure gold shall you make them.

⁸ Literally, “place of atonement”.

30. And you shall set the bread of the Presence on the table before me always.

The Menorah

- ¶31. "And you shall make a menorah of pure gold. The menorah shall be made of beaten work; its base and its shaft, its cups, its bulbs, and its flowers shall be of one piece.
32. And six branches shall go out from its sides, three branches of the menorah from one side, and three branches of the menorah from the other side.
33. On the one branch shall be three almond-shaped cups, a bulb, and a flower, and on the other branch, three almond-shaped cups, a bulb, and a flower. Thus shall it be for the six branches that go out from the menorah,
34. but on the menorah shaft shall be four almond-shaped cups, its bulbs, and its flowers.
35. And for the six branches that go out from the menorah, there shall be a bulb below a pair of its branches, and a bulb below a pair of its branches, and a bulb below a pair of its branches.
36. Their bulbs and their branches shall be of one piece, they shall all be of one beaten work of pure gold.
37. And you shall make its seven lamps so that when he lights its lamps, it gives light to the area before it.
38. And its tongs and its snuff-dishes shall be of pure gold.
39. Of a talent of pure gold shall he make it, with all these accoutrements.
40. And see to it that you make them according to the pattern that was shown you on the mountain.

Exodus 26

The Curtains

- ¶1. "And you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine-twined linen, and blue, and purple, and bright scarlet. And you shall make them with skillfully worked cherubim.
2. The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain, four cubits. There shall be one measurement for all the curtains.
3. Five of the curtains shall be joined to one another, and the other five curtains shall be joined to one another.
4. And you shall make loops of blue on the edge of the curtain at the end of the first set, and you shall do likewise on the edge of the innermost curtain in the second set.
5. You shall make fifty loops in the one curtain, and you shall make fifty loops in the end curtain of the second set; the loops shall be opposite each other.
6. And you shall make fifty hooks of gold, and you shall couple the curtains to each other with the hooks, so that the tabernacle may be one.
7. And you shall make curtains of goats' 'hair for a tent over the tabernacle. Eleven curtains shall you make.
8. The length of each curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain shall be four cubits. There shall be one measurement for the eleven curtains.

9. And you shall join five of the curtains by themselves and six of the curtains by themselves. And you shall fold the sixth curtain double at the front of the tent.
10. And you shall make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain innermost in the first set and fifty loops on the edge of the innermost curtain of the second set.
11. And you shall make fifty hooks of bronze, and put the hooks into the loops, and couple the tent together so that it may be one.
12. And the excess that remains of the curtains of the tent, the remaining half curtain, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle.
13. And the excess length of the curtains of the tent shall extend a cubit on one side and a cubit on the other, beyond each of the sides of the tabernacle, to conceal it.

The Coverings

14. And you shall make a covering of rams' skins dyed red for the tent, and a covering of badgers' skins over that.

The Boards

- ¶15. "And you shall make boards of shittim wood for the tabernacle that stand upright.
16. Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the width of each board.
17. Two tenons shall be to one board each connecting with its mate. Thus shall you do for all the boards of the tabernacle.
18. And you shall make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south wall, facing southward.
19. And you shall make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards, two sockets under each board for its two tenons, and two sockets under the next board for its two tenons.
20. And for the second side of the tabernacle, for the north wall, you shall make twenty boards,
21. and their forty sockets of silver, two sockets under one board and two sockets under the next board.
22. And for the rear of the tabernacle, westward, you shall make six boards.
23. And you shall make two boards for the corners, for the two back corners of the tabernacle.
24. And they shall be coupled at the base, and they shall be perfectly joined together at its top to the one ring. Thus shall it be for them both. They shall be for the two corners.
25. And so, there shall be eight boards and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets, two sockets under one board, and two sockets under the next board.

The Bars

- ¶26. And you shall make bars of shittim wood, five for the boards of one side of the tabernacle,
27. and five bars for the boards of the second side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle to the rear, westward,

28. and the middle bar running through the midst of the boards from end to end.
29. And you shall overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold to house the bars, and overlay the bars with gold.
30. And you shall erect the tabernacle according to its plan that you were shown on the mountain.

The Veil

- ¶31. "And you shall make a veil of blue, purple, and bright scarlet, and fine-twined linen. He shall make it with cherubim, skillfully worked.
32. And you shall hang it on four posts of shittim wood overlaid with gold, and their hooks shall be of gold, with four sockets of silver.
33. And you shall hang the veil from the hooks, and you shall bring the ark of the testimony there within the veil, and the veil shall make a separation between the holy place and the Most Holy Place.

Arrangement of the Furniture

- ¶34. "And you shall place the mercy-seat upon the ark of the testimony in the Most Holy Place.
35. And you shall set the table outside the veil, and the menorah, opposite the table on the south side of the tabernacle, with the table on the north side.

The Hanging

- ¶36. "And for the entrance of the tent, you shall make a hanging of blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine-twined linen, the work of a weaver.
37. And for the hanging, you shall make five posts of shittim wood and overlay them with gold, and their hooks shall be of gold, and you shall cast five bronze sockets for them.

Exodus 27

The Altar for Burnt Offerings

- ¶1. "And you shall make the altar for burnt offering of shittim wood, five cubits shall be its length, and five cubits, its width. The altar shall be square. And its height shall be three cubits.
2. And you shall make its horns on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it, and you shall overlay it with bronze.
3. And you shall make its pans for its ashes, and its shovels, and its basins, and its meat-hooks, and its fire-pans. You shall make all its accoutrements of bronze.
4. And you shall make for it a grate of bronze lattice work, and on the lattice work you shall make four bronze rings on its four corners.
5. And you shall set it underneath the ledge of the altar, and the lattice shall be situated halfway down the altar.
6. And you shall make poles for the altar, poles of shittim wood, and overlay them with bronze.

7. And its poles shall be put into the rings, and on the two sides of the altar shall be the poles with which to carry it.
8. You shall make it hollow with boards. Just as it was shown you on the mountain, so shall they make it.

The Courtyard

- ¶9. "And you shall make a courtyard for the tabernacle. For the south side, facing southward, you shall make screens for the courtyard of fine-twined linen, one hundred cubits in length for that one side.
10. And its twenty posts and their twenty sockets shall be of bronze, and the hooks of the posts and their fillets shall be of silver.
11. And you shall likewise make screens for the length of the north side one hundred in length, and its twenty posts and their twenty sockets shall be of bronze, and the hooks of the posts and their fillets shall be of silver.
12. And the width of the courtyard on the west side shall have fifty cubits of screens, their ten posts, and their ten sockets.
13. And the width of the courtyard on the east side, eastward, shall be fifty cubits.
14. And the screens for the one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits, their posts, three, and their sockets, three,
15. and the screens for the other side shall be fifteen cubits, their posts, three, and their sockets, three.
16. And for the gate of the courtyard shall be a hanging twenty cubits long of blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine-twined linen, the work of a weaver; their posts shall be four, and their sockets, four.
17. All the pillars around the courtyard shall be filleted with silver, and their hooks shall be of silver, and their sockets, bronze.
18. The length of the courtyard shall be one hundred cubits, and the width, fifty at each end, and the height, five cubits. It shall be made of fine-twined linen, and their sockets shall be bronze.
19. All the accoutrements of the tabernacle for all its service, and all its stakes, and all the stakes for the courtyard, shall be bronze.

The Oil for the Menorah

- ¶20. "And command the children of Israel that they bring to you pure, beaten olive oil for the light, so that each lamp may burn continually.
21. Within the tent of meeting, outside the veil which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall attend to it from evening until morning before Jehovah. It is a statute forever throughout their generations for the children of Israel.

Exodus 28

The Holy Garments

- ¶1. "And you shall cause Aaron your brother to come near you, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister as priest to me, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron.
2. And you shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty.
 3. And you shall speak to all who are wise-hearted, whom I have filled with a spirit of wisdom, and they shall make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, that he may minister as priest to me.
 4. And these are the garments that they shall make: a breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a woven tunic, a turban, and a sash. And they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, and for his sons, that he may minister as priest to me.
 5. And they shall take the gold, and the blue, the purple, and the bright scarlet, and the fine linen.

The Ephod

- ¶6. "And they shall make the ephod of gold, blue, and purple, bright scarlet, and fine-twined linen, skillfully worked.
7. It shall have two shoulder pieces attached at its two edges so that it may be joined together.
 8. And the skillfully woven band of his ephod which is on it shall be of the same work: gold, blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine-twined linen.
 9. And you shall take two onyx stones, and you shall engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel,
 10. six of their names on the one stone, and the six remaining names on the second stone, in the order of their birth,
 11. the work of a craftsman skilled with stone. Like engravings of a seal shall you engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel. They shall be set in settings of gold filigree.
 12. And you shall set the two stones on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, stones of remembrance for the children of Israel, and Aaron shall bear their names before Jehovah on his two shoulders for a remembrance.
 13. And you shall make gold filigree settings,
 14. and two braided chains of pure gold. You shall make them of cord work and fasten the corded chains onto the filigree settings.

The Breastplate

- ¶15. "And you shall make a breastplate for judgment. You shall make it of skillful workmanship, like the work of the ephod. You shall make it of gold, blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine-twined linen.
16. It shall be a square, doubled. Its length shall be a span, and its width, a span.
 17. And you shall finish it with set stones, four rows of stones. A row of a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle, the first row;
 18. and the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond;

19. and the third row, a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst;
20. and the fourth row, a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper. They shall be set in woven gold within their settings.
21. And the stones shall be according to the names of the sons of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like engravings of a seal; each with his name shall they be, corresponding to the twelve tribes.
22. And you shall make for the breastplate braided chains, a work of pure gold cords.
23. And you shall make for the breastplate two gold rings, and you shall put the two rings on the two edges of the breastplate.
24. And you shall attach the two gold cords to the two rings at the edges of the breastplate.
25. And you shall attach the two ends of the two cords to the two filigree settings, and you shall attach them to the front of the shoulder pieces of the ephod.
26. And you shall make two rings of gold, and you shall attach them to two edges of the breastplate, which, on its inner side, is against the ephod.
27. And you shall make two rings of gold, and you shall attach them to the lower part of the two shoulder-pieces of the ephod, in front, close to its seam, above the band of the ephod.
28. And they shall bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue thread, so that it is above the band of the ephod, that the breastplate not come loose from the ephod.
29. And Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel on the breastplate of judgment over his heart when he goes into the holy place for a continual memorial before Jehovah.
30. And in the breastplate of judgment, you shall put the Urim and the Thummim, and they shall be on Aaron's heart when he goes in before Jehovah, and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the sons of Israel on his heart before Jehovah continually.

The Robe

- ¶31. "And you shall make the robe of the ephod entirely of blue.
32. And there shall be an opening in the center of its top. There shall be around its opening a selvedge of woven work. It shall be like the opening of a cuirass, that it not be torn.
33. And on its hem, you shall make pomegranates of blue, and purple, and bright scarlet around its hem, and gold bells between them, all around—
34. a gold bell and a pomegranate, a gold bell and a pomegranate, on the hem of the robe all around.
35. And it shall be on Aaron when he ministers, and its sound will be heard when he goes into the holy place before Jehovah and when he comes out, lest he die.

The Turban

- ¶36. "And you shall make a plate of pure gold, and you shall engrave upon it, like the engravings of a seal, 'Holiness to Jehovah'.
- 37. And you shall attach it by a ribbon of blue, that it may be on the turban; it shall be at the forefront of the turban.
- 38. And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, and Aaron shall bear the iniquity of the holy things that the children of Israel shall consecrate from all their holy gifts, and it shall be upon his forehead always for their acceptance before Jehovah.

The Tunic

- 39. "And you shall weave the tunic from linen, and you shall make a turban of linen, and you shall make a sash of woven work.
- 40. And for the sons of Aaron, you shall make tunics, and you shall make sashes for them, and you shall make head-coverings for them for honor and beauty.
- 41. And with these, you shall clothe Aaron, your brother, and his sons with him, and you shall anoint them, and you shall ordain them, and you shall consecrate them. Then, they will minister to me as priests.

The Undergarments

- 42. "And you shall make linen undergarments for them to cover the flesh of their nakedness. They shall reach from the hips to the thighs.
- 43. And they shall be on Aaron and on his sons when they enter the tent of meeting or when they draw near the altar to minister in the holy place, so that they will not bear iniquity and die. It is a statute forever for him and for his seed after him.

Exodus 29

The Ordination Ritual for Aaron and His Sons

- ¶1. "And this is the thing that you shall do to them to consecrate them to minister as priests to me. You shall take one bullock from the herd and two unblemished rams,
- 2. and unleavened bread, and unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil. You shall make them with fine wheat flour.
- 3. And you shall put them into one basket and bring them near in the basket, along with the bullock and the two rams.
- 4. And you shall bring Aaron and his sons near to the entrance of the tent of meeting, and you shall wash them with water.
- 5. And you shall take the garments, and you shall clothe Aaron with the tunic, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with the skillfully woven band of the ephod.
- 6. And you shall put the turban on his head and put the holy crown on the turban.
- 7. And you shall take the anointing oil, and you shall pour it on his head and anoint him.
- 8. Then you shall bring his sons near and put the tunics on them.

9. And you shall gird them, Aaron and his sons, with a sash, and bind the head-coverings on them, and the priesthood shall be theirs by statute forever. And you shall ordain Aaron and his sons.
10. Then you shall bring the bullock before the tent of meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the bullock.
11. And you shall kill the bullock before Jehovah, at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
12. And you shall take some of the bullock's blood and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger, and you shall pour out all the blood at the base of the altar.
13. And you shall take all the fat that covers the entrails, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, and you shall burn them on the altar.
14. But the bullock's flesh, and its hide, and its dung, you shall burn up with fire outside the camp; it is a sin offering.
15. And you shall take one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram.
16. Then you shall kill the ram, and you shall take its blood and throw it against the altar all around.
17. And you shall cut the ram into its pieces, and you shall wash its entrails and its legs and put them on its pieces and its head.
18. And you shall burn the whole ram on the altar; it is a burnt offering to Jehovah. It is a placating aroma made by fire to Jehovah.
19. And you shall take the second ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram.
20. Then you shall kill the ram, and you shall take some of its blood and put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear, and on the tip of the ear of his sons, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot, and you shall throw the blood against the altar all around.
21. And you shall take some of the blood that is on the altar, and some of the anointing oil, and you shall sprinkle it on Aaron and on his garments, and on his sons and on his sons' garments along with him, and he and his garments will be consecrated, and his sons and his sons' garments with him.
22. And you shall take the fat from the ram, and the fat-tail, and the fat that covers the entrails, and the caul of the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and the right thigh (it is the ram of ordination),
23. and one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer from the basket of unleavened bread that is before Jehovah.
24. And you shall place everything onto Aaron's palms and onto the palms of his sons, and you shall make them wave a wave offering before Jehovah.
25. And you shall take them from their hand and burn them on the altar on top of the burnt offering for a placating aroma before Jehovah; it is an offering made by fire to Jehovah.

26. And you shall take the breast of the ram for Aaron's ordination and wave it as a wave offering before Jehovah. And it shall be your portion.
27. And you shall consecrate the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the exsect offering, that which is waved and that which is exsected from the ram that was for Aaron's ordination and for that of his sons.
28. And it shall be for Aaron and for his sons from the children of Israel, by statute forever, for it is an exsect offering. And it shall be an exsect offering from the children of Israel, from their sacrifices of peace offerings unto Jehovah.
29. And the holy garments that belong to Aaron shall be for his sons after him because of the anointing on them, and they shall be ordained in them.
30. The priest from his sons who succeeds him shall wear them for seven days when he enters into the tent of meeting to minister in the holy place.
31. And you shall take the ram of ordination, and you shall boil its flesh in the holy place.
32. And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the bread that is in the basket at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
33. And they shall eat the things with which the atonement is made for their ordination to consecrate them, and a stranger shall not eat them, for they are holy.
34. And if any of the flesh of the ordination, or the bread, remain until the morning, then you shall burn up what remains with fire; it shall not be eaten, for it is holy.
35. And thus shall you do to Aaron and to his sons according to all that I have commanded you. For seven days shall you ordain them.
36. And you shall make a sin offering of a bullock for the daily atonements, and you shall make a sin offering upon the altar when you make atonement on it, and you shall anoint it to sanctify it.
37. Seven days shall you make atonement upon the altar and sanctify it, and the altar shall be most holy. Whatever touches the altar shall be holy.
38. And this is what you shall offer upon the altar: two lambs a year old, day by day continually.
39. The one lamb, you shall offer in the morning, and the second lamb, you shall offer at twilight.
40. And with the one lamb, you shall offer a tenth part of fine flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil, and the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering.
41. And the second lamb, you shall offer at twilight. You shall do it as you did the morning meal offering and its drink offering, for a placating aroma, an offering by fire to Jehovah,
42. a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the entrance of the tent of meeting before Jehovah, where I will meet with you, to speak to you there.
43. And there will I meet with the children of Israel, and it shall be sanctified by my glory.
44. And I will sanctify the tent of meeting and the altar, and I will sanctify Aaron and his sons to minister as priests to me.

45. And I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel, and I will be their God.
46. And they shall know that I am Jehovah their God who brought them out of the land of Egypt to dwell among them. I am Jehovah their God.

Exodus 30

The Incense Altar

- ¶1. "And you shall make an altar for burning incense. You shall make it of shittim wood.
2. It shall be square, its length, a cubit, and its width, a cubit, and its height, two cubits. Its horns shall be one piece with it.
 3. And you shall overlay it with pure gold, its top, and its sides round about, and its horns. And you shall make for it a crown of gold round about.
 4. And you shall make two gold rings for it below its crown on two of its sides. You shall make them on two sides, and they shall be housings for poles with which to carry it.
 5. And you shall make the poles of shittim wood and overlay them with gold.
 6. And you shall put it in front of the veil that is before the ark of the testimony, in front of the mercy-seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with you.
 7. And Aaron shall burn pungent incense upon it. He shall burn it morning by morning when he dresses the lamps.
 8. And when Aaron lights the lamps at twilight, he shall burn it, a continual incense before Jehovah throughout your generations.
 9. You shall not offer upon it strange incense, or a burnt offering, or a meal offering. Nor shall you pour out a drink offering upon it.
 10. And once a year, Aaron shall make atonement on its horns with the blood of the sin offering for the atonements. Throughout your generations shall he make atonement on it once a year. It is most holy to Jehovah."

The Census Offering

- ¶11. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
12. "You shall count the sons of Israel so that they may be numbered, and each man shall give to Jehovah a ransom for his soul when they are numbered, so that there will not be a plague among them when they are numbered.
 13. This shall they give, everyone who passes through the numbering: a half-shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary (twenty gerah to the shekel), a half-shekel as an offering for Jehovah.
 14. Everyone from twenty years old and above who passes through the numbering shall render Jehovah's offering.
 15. The rich man shall not do more, and the poor man shall do no less than a half-shekel when rendering Jehovah's offering, to make atonement for your souls.
 16. And you shall take the atonement money from the sons of Israel, and you shall use it for the service of the tent of meeting, and it will be a memorial for the sons of Israel before Jehovah to atone for your souls."

The Laver

- ¶17. Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
18. “You shall make a laver of bronze for washing, and its base of bronze, and you shall put it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and you shall put water in it.
 19. And from it, Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet.
 20. When they go into the tent of meeting or when they approach the altar to minister, to burn an offering by fire to Jehovah, they shall wash with water so that they do not die.
 21. They shall wash their hands and their feet so that they do not die, and it is for them a statute forever, for him and for his seed throughout their generations.”

The Anointing Oil

- ¶22. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
23. “Take to you choice spices: flowing myrrh, five hundred; and sweet cinnamon, half as much, two hundred and fifty; and sweet calamus, two hundred and fifty;
 24. and cassia, five hundred by the shekel of the sanctuary; and olive oil, a hin.
 25. And you shall make a holy anointing oil with it, a scented mixture, the work of a perfumer. It shall be a holy anointing oil.
 26. And with it shall you anoint the tent of meeting and the ark of the testimony,
 27. and the table and all its accoutrements, and the menorah and its accoutrements, and the altar of incense,
 28. and the altar of burnt offering and all its accoutrements, and the laver and its base.
 29. And you shall consecrate them, and they shall be most holy. Whatever touches them shall be holy.
 30. And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and you shall consecrate them to minister as priests to me.
 31. And you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘This shall be a holy anointing oil for me throughout your generations.
 32. It shall not be poured out on the flesh of man, nor shall you make any like it with its proportions. It is holy. It shall be holy to you.
 33. Whoever compounds the like or whoever puts some of it on a stranger shall be cut off from his people.’”

The Incense

- ¶34. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Take to you spices: stacte, and onycha, and galbanum. The spices and pure frankincense shall be in equal parts,
35. and you shall make of it a scented incense, the work of a perfumer, mixed with salt, pure and holy.
 36. And you shall beat some of it fine and put some of it before the testimony in the tent of meeting where I will meet with you. It shall be most holy to you.
 37. And the incense that you shall make, you shall not make for yourselves any with its proportions. It shall be holy to you for Jehovah.

38. Whoever makes the like, to smell it, shall be cut off from his people."

Exodus 31

Bezaleel and Aholiab

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. "Behold, I have called by name Bezaleel ben-Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.
 3. And I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with wisdom, and with understanding, and with knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship,
 4. to devise designs, to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze,
 5. and in the cutting of stone for setting, and in the working of wood, to work in all manner of workmanship.
 6. And behold, I have appointed with him Aholiab ben-Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, and in the heart of all who are wise-hearted have I put wisdom so that they shall make all that I have commanded you,
 7. the tent of meeting, and the ark of the testimony, and the mercy-seat that is on it, and all the accoutrements of the tent,
 8. and the table and its accoutrements, and the menorah of pure gold and all its accoutrements, and the altar of incense,
 9. and the altar for burnt offering and all its accoutrements, and the laver and its base,
 10. and the woven garments, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons to minister as priests,
 11. and the anointing oil, and the pungent incense for the holy place. According to all I have commanded you, they shall do."

The Sabbath

- ¶12. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
13. "You shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'You shall certainly keep my Sabbaths, for it will be a sign between me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I am Jehovah who sanctifies you.
 14. You shall certainly keep the Sabbath, for it is holy to you. Those who defile it shall surely be put to death. Whoever does any work on it, that soul shall be cut off from among his people.
 15. Six days may work be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of rest, holy to Jehovah. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day shall surely be put to death.'
 16. And the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, observing the Sabbath throughout their generations as a covenant forever.
 17. It is a sign between me and the children of Israel forever, for in six days Jehovah made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day, He rested and was refreshed."
- ¶18. And when He had finished speaking with him on Mount Sinai, He gave Moses two tablets of testimony, tablets of stone written with the finger of God.

Exodus 32

- ¶1. And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together to Aaron and told him, “Get up! Make us a God who will go before us! As for this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we don’t know what’s happened to him.”
2. And Aaron said to them, “Break off the golden earrings which are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.”
3. So, all the people broke off the golden earrings that were in their ears and brought them to Aaron.
4. And he took it from their hand and shaped it with a graving tool, and he fashioned a molten calf. And they said, “This is your God, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!”
5. When Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it. And Aaron cried out and said, “Tomorrow shall be a feast to Jehovah!”
6. And they rose up early the next day and offered burnt offerings, and they brought peace offerings, and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.
7. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Go! Go down! For your people whom you brought up from the land of Egypt have corrupted themselves.
8. They have turned aside quickly from the way which I commanded them. They have made for themselves a molten calf and are worshipping it and sacrificing to it, and they said, ‘This is your God, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.’”
9. And Jehovah said to Moses, “I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people.
10. So, leave me alone now, that my wrath may burn hot against them, and I will utterly destroy them and make of you a great nation.”
11. But Moses sought the face of Jehovah his God, saying, “O Jehovah, why does your wrath burn against your people whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and a strong hand?”
12. Why should the Egyptians speak, saying, ‘He brought them out for evil, to kill them in the mountains and utterly destroy them from the face of the earth!’ Turn from your burning anger and repent of the evil against your people!
13. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, to whom you swore by your own self, saying to them, ‘I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give to your seed, and they will possess it forever.’”
14. So, Jehovah turned from the evil which He had threatened to do to His people.
- ¶15. Then Moses turned and went down from the mountain with two tablets of the testimony in his hand. The tablets were written on both their sides; they were written on the one side and on the other.
16. The tablets were the handiwork of God, and the writing was the writing of God engraved on the tablets.

17. And Joshua heard the voice of the people as they shouted, and he said to Moses, “A sound of war is in the camp!”
18. But he said, “It’s not the sound of shouting for victory, nor is it the sound of shouting for defeat; I hear the sound of singing.”
19. And it came to pass when he came near the camp that he saw the calf and the dancing, and Moses’ anger burned hot, and he threw the tablets out of his hands and shattered them at the base of the mountain.
20. And he took the calf which they had made and burned it with fire, and he ground it to a fine powder, and strewed it upon the face of the water, and made the children of Israel drink it.
21. And Moses said to Aaron, “What did this people do to you, that you have brought upon them a great sin?”
22. And Aaron said, “Let not the anger of my lord burn hot. You know the people, that they are set on evil.
23. And they told me, ‘Make gods for us that will go before us, for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we don’t know what’s happened to him!’
24. So, I said to them, ‘Whoever has gold, break it off.’ So, they gave it to me, and so, I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf.”
25. And Moses saw that the people were naked, for Aaron had made them naked, to the derision of their enemies.
26. Therefore, Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said, “Who is for Jehovah? Come to me!” And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him.
27. And he said to them, “Thus says Jehovah, God of Israel: ‘Each man put his sword on his thigh and go up and down, from gate to gate throughout the camp, and each man kill his brother, and each one, his friend, and each one, his neighbor!’”
28. And the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses. And among the people, there fell about three thousand men that day.
29. And Moses said, “Consecrate yourselves today to Jehovah, for each man has acted against his son and against his brother, so that He may bestow a blessing upon you today.”
30. And it came to pass the next day that Moses said to the people, “You have sinned a great sin, but I will go up now to Jehovah; it may be that I can make atonement for your sin.”
31. So, Moses returned to Jehovah and said, “Alas, this people has sinned a great sin in that they have made for themselves a god of gold!
32. Yet, now, if you will forgive their sin—but if not, I pray you, blot me out of your Book that you have written.”
33. But Jehovah said to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against me, him will I blot out of my Book.

34. And now, go! Lead the people to the land of which I have spoken to you. Behold, my angel will go before you. Yet, on the day of my visitation, I will visit their sin upon them.”
35. And Jehovah plagued the people because they had made the calf, which Aaron fashioned.

Exodus 33

1. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Go! Rise up from here, you and the people that you brought up from the land of Egypt to the land that I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your seed.’”
2. And I will send an angel before you—and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite—
3. to a land flowing with milk and honey, though I will not go up in your midst because you are a stiff-necked people, lest I consume you on the way.”
4. And the people heard this evil report, and they mourned, and no one put on their ornaments.
5. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Say to the children of Israel, ‘You are a stiff-necked people. In one moment, I will come up in your midst and destroy you. So, take off your ornaments now, and I will consider what I will do to you.’”
6. So, the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by Mount Horeb.
7. And Moses took the tent and pitched it outside of the camp, removing it from the camp. And he called it “tent of meeting”, and everyone who sought Jehovah went out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp.
8. And it came to pass that when Moses went out to the tent, all the people rose and stood, each at the entrance of his tent, and they watched Moses until he went into the tent.
9. And it came to pass, when Moses went into the tent, the pillar of cloud came down and stood at the entrance of the tent, and He talked with Moses.
10. And all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, and all the people rose and bowed down, each at the entrance of his tent.
11. And Jehovah spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks with his friend. Then he returned to the camp, but his minister, Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, did not leave the tent.
12. And Moses said to Jehovah, “Behold, you say to me, ‘Bring up this people, ’and you have not made known to me who you will send with me, but you say, ‘I know you by name, ’and also, ‘You have found favor in my sight.’”
13. If, I pray, I have now found favor in your sight, make your ways known to me, I beg you, and let me know you, that I may find favor in your sight. And consider that this people is your nation.”
14. And He said, “My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.”

15. And he said to Him, “If your presence does not go with us, don’t bring us up from this place.
16. For by what, after all, shall it be known that I and the people have found favor in your eyes? Is it not by your going with us? Thus, I and your people will be set apart from all the people that are on the face of the earth.”
- ¶17. And Jehovah said to Moses, “This thing that you have spoken, I will certainly do, for you have found favor in my eyes, and I know you by name.”
18. And he said, “Show me your glory, I pray.”
19. And He said, “I will make all my goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim ‘Jehovah’ by name before you. And I will show favor to whom I will show favor, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion,
20. but”, He said, “You cannot see my face. For no man can see me and live.”
21. And Jehovah said, “There is a place by me, and you shall stand on the rock.
22. And it shall come to pass that as my glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I pass by.
23. Then, I will take my hand away, and you will see my back, but my face shall not be seen.”

Exodus 34

1. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Hew out for yourself two stone tablets like the first ones, and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets that you broke into pieces.
2. Be ready in the morning. And go up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and there, on top of the mountain, present yourself to me.
3. No one is to come up with you. Let no one even be seen on the whole mountain; let not the flocks and the herds even graze in front of that mountain.”
4. So, he hewed out two stone tablets like the first ones, and Moses rose early in the morning, and he went up to Mount Sinai, just as Jehovah had commanded him. And he took in his hand the two stone tablets.
5. And Jehovah came down in the cloud and stood with him there, and He proclaimed the name “Jehovah”.
6. Yea, Jehovah passed before him and proclaimed, “Jehovah! Jehovah! A compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger and abundant in mercy and truth,
7. keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and who by no means will leave the wicked unpunished, visiting the iniquity of fathers upon the children, and upon the children’s children to the third and fourth generations.”⁹

⁹ Cf. Num. 14:18.

8. And Moses made haste, and bowed down on the ground and worshipped.
9. Then he said, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, my Lord, I pray, let my Lord go in our midst, for this is a stiff-necked people. Forgive our iniquity and our sin, and take us as your possession."
10. And He said, "Behold, I am making a covenant. Before all your people, I will perform wonders that have not been done anywhere on earth or among any of the nations. And all the people, in whose midst you are, shall see Jehovah's work, for it is a fearful thing that I am doing with you.
11. Observe what I am commanding you today. Behold, I am going to drive out before you the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.
12. Watch yourself, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land to which you go, and it become a snare in your midst.
13. But you shall pull down their altars, and you shall break down their pillars, and you shall cut down their sacred groves.
14. For you shall not bow down to another god, for Jehovah, whose name is jealous, is a jealous God!
15. Beware, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and then they go whoring after their gods and sacrifice to their gods, and they call for you, and you eat of their sacrifice.
16. And you take their daughters for your sons, and then their daughters go whoring after their gods and cause your sons to go whoring after their gods.
17. You shall not make for yourself molten gods.
18. You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Seven days shall you eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the appointed time in the month Abib, for in the month Abib, you came out of Egypt.
19. All that first opens the womb is mine, and every firstborn male of your cattle, ox and sheep,
20. and you shall redeem the firstborn of a donkey with a sheep, and if you will not redeem it, you shall break its neck. You shall redeem every firstborn of your sons, and they shall not appear before me empty-handed.
21. Six days shall you work, and on the seventh day, you shall rest. In ploughing time and in harvest time, you shall rest.
22. And you shall observe the Feast of Weeks, that is, the firstfruits of the wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year.
23. Three times in the year, all your males shall appear before the Lord Jehovah, God of Israel.
24. For I will drive out nations from before you, and I will enlarge your border, and no man will desire your land when you go up to appear before Jehovah your God three times in the year.

25. You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with that which is leavened. And the sacrifice of the Feast of Passover shall not remain overnight until morning.
 26. The first of the firstfruits of your land shall you bring to the house of Jehovah your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk."
- ¶27. And Jehovah said to Moses, "Write these words for yourself, for with these words, I have made a covenant with you and with Israel."
28. And he was there with Jehovah forty days and forty nights. He ate no bread and drank no water. And He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, ten commandments.
 29. And it came to pass, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the testimony in Moses' hand as he came down from the mountain, that Moses did not realize that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with Him.
 30. And Aaron and all the sons of Israel saw Moses, and behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to approach him.
 31. And Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the princes of the congregation came back to him, and Moses talked to them.
 32. Then, afterwards, all the sons of Israel approached, and he commanded them all that Jehovah had spoken with him on Mount Sinai.
 33. And Moses finished speaking with them, and he put a veil over his face.
 34. And when Moses went before Jehovah to talk with Him, he would remove the veil until he came out, then he would come out and tell the sons of Israel what he was commanded.
 35. And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone. So, Moses put the veil back over his face until he went in to talk with Him.

Exodus 35

1. And Moses assembled the whole congregation of the sons of Israel, and he said to them, "These are the things that Jehovah has commanded, to do them."
2. Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh, there shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of rest to Jehovah. Anyone who does work on it shall be put to death.
3. You shall not kindle a fire in any of your dwellings on the Sabbath day."

The Materials Required for the Tabernacle

- ¶4. And Moses spoke to the whole congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, "This is the thing that Jehovah has commanded, saying,
5. 'Take a portion for Jehovah out from what you have. Let each one whose heart is willing bring Jehovah's offering: gold, and silver, and bronze;
 6. and blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and linen, and goats' hair;
 7. and rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins; and shittim wood;

8. and oil for the light; and spices for the anointing oil and for the pungent incense;
9. and onyx stones and stones for settings for the ephod and for the breastplate.

The Tabernacle Elements

10. And let all the wise-hearted among you come and make all that Jehovah has commanded:
11. the tabernacle, its tent and its covering, its hooks and its boards, its bars, its posts and its sockets;
12. the ark and its poles, the mercy-seat, and the veil for the hanging;
13. and the table and its poles, and all its accoutrements, and the bread of the Presence;
14. and the menorah of light, and its accoutrements, and its lamps, and the oil for the light;
15. and the incense altar and its poles; and the anointing oil; and the pungent incense; and a hanging for the entrance at the door of the tabernacle;
16. the altar for burnt offering and its bronze grate, its poles and all its accoutrements; the laver and its base;
17. the screens for the courtyard, its posts and its sockets, and the hanging for the courtyard gate;
18. and stakes for the tabernacle, and stakes for the courtyard, and their ropes;
19. and the woven garments for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest and garments for his sons to minister as priests.””
20. And the whole congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.
21. And they came, every man whose heart stirred him, and everyone whose spirit moved him, and they brought Jehovah’s offering for the work of the tent of meeting, and for all its service, and for the holy garments.
22. And they came, both men and women, all who were of a willing heart, and they brought earrings, and signet rings, and ornaments, all kinds of gold articles, even everyone who made a wave offering of gold to Jehovah.
23. And everyone who had blue, or purple, or bright scarlet, or fine linen, or goats’ hair; or rams’ skins dyed red, or badgers’ skins, brought it.
24. Everyone who took out a portion of silver or bronze brought it as Jehovah’s exsect offering, and everyone who had shittim wood brought it for all the work of the service.
25. And every wise-hearted woman spun with her hands, and they brought spun yarn, the blue, and the purple, the bright scarlet, and the fine linen.
26. And all the women whose hearts stirred them up skillfully spun the goats’ hair.
27. And the rulers brought the onyx stones and the stones for settings for the ephod and for the breastplate,
28. and the spice and the oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the pungent incense.

29. Every man and woman of the children of Israel whose heart moved them to bring an offering for all the work that Jehovah commanded to be done by the hand of Moses brought it willingly to Jehovah.
- ¶30. And Moses said to the children of Israel, “Behold, Jehovah has called by name Bezaleel ben-Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.
31. And He has filled him with the Spirit of God, with wisdom, with understanding and knowledge, and with all workmanship,
32. to devise designs, to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze,
33. and in the cutting of stone for setting, and in the working of wood, to work in all manner of cunning workmanship.
34. And He has put it in his heart to teach, both he and Aholiab ben-Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.
35. He has filled them with wisdom of heart, to do all the work of an engraver, and of a designer, and of an embroiderer with the blue, and with the purple, with the bright scarlet, and with the fine linen, and of a weaver, doers of all workmanship, and devisers of designs.

Exodus 36

1. And Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise-hearted man in whom Jehovah has put wisdom and understanding to know how to make all the work for the service of the sanctuary, are to do all that Jehovah has commanded.”
2. And Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, along with every wise-hearted man in whose heart Jehovah had put wisdom, every one whose heart stirred him to approach the work to do it.
3. And they received from Moses all the offering that the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to do it, and they continued to bring it freely, morning after morning.
4. Then all the wise men who were making all the work of the sanctuary came, each man from his work which they were doing,
5. and they spoke to Moses, saying, “The people have brought much more than enough for the service of the work that Jehovah commanded to be done.”
6. And Moses commanded, and they spread the news in the camp, saying, “Let neither man nor woman do any more work for an offering for the sanctuary.” And the people were restrained from bringing,
7. for the work done was sufficient for them to do all the work, and more.

The Curtains

- ¶8. And all the wise-hearted among them doing the work of the tabernacle made ten curtains of fine-twined linen, blue, purple, and bright scarlet. And he made them with skillfully worked cherubim.

9. And the length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain, four cubits. There shall be one measurement for all the curtains.
 10. And he joined five of the curtains to one another, and he joined the other five curtains to one another.
 11. And he made loops of blue on the edge of the curtain at the end of the first set. He did likewise on the edge of the innermost curtain in the second set.
 12. He made fifty loops in the one curtain, and he made fifty loops in the end curtain of the second set; the loops were opposite one another.
 13. And He made fifty hooks of gold, and he coupled the curtains to each other with the hooks, so that the tabernacle was one.
- ¶14. And he made curtains of goats 'hair for a tent over the tabernacle. Eleven curtains he made.
15. The length of each curtain was thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain was four cubits. There was one measurement for the eleven curtains.
 16. And he joined five of the curtains by themselves and six of the curtains by themselves.
 17. And he made fifty loops on the edge of the end curtain in the first set, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the end curtain of the second set.
 18. And he made fifty hooks of bronze, and he coupled the tent together so that it might be one.

The Coverings

19. And he made a covering of rams 'skins dyed red for the tent, and a covering of badgers ' skins over that.

The Boards

- ¶20. And he made boards of shittim wood for the tabernacle that stood upright.
21. Ten cubits was the length of a board, and a cubit and a half was the width of each board.
22. Two tenons were for each board, connecting one to another. Thus he did for all the boards of the tabernacle.
23. And he made the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south wall, facing southward.
24. And he made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards, two sockets under each board for its two tenons, and two sockets under the next board for its two tenons.
25. And for the second side of the tabernacle, for the north wall, he made twenty boards,
26. and their forty sockets of silver, two sockets under one board, and two sockets under the next board.
27. And for the rear of the tabernacle, westward, he made six boards.
28. And he made two boards for the corners, for the two back corners of the tabernacle.
29. And they were coupled at the base, and they were perfectly joined together at its top to the one ring. Thus he made them both for the two corners.

30. And so, there were eight boards with their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets. There were two sockets for each, two sockets for each board.

The Bars

- ¶31. And he made bars of shittim wood, five for the boards of one side of the tabernacle,
- 32. and five bars for the boards of the second side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle to the rear, westward.
- 33. And he made the middle bar to run through the midst of the boards from end to end.
- 34. And he overlaid the boards with gold, and he made their rings of gold to house the bars, and he overlaid the bars with gold.

The Veil

- 35. And he made the veil of blue, purple, and bright scarlet, and fine-twined linen. He made it with cherubim, skillfully worked.
- 36. And he made for it four posts of shittim wood and overlaid them with gold, their hooks were of gold, and for them, he cast four sockets of silver.

The Hanging

- 37. And for the entrance of the tent, he made a hanging of blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine-twined linen, the work of a weaver,
- 38. and its five posts, and their hooks. And he overlaid their tops and their fillets with gold and their five sockets with bronze.

Exodus 37

The Ark

- ¶1. And Bezaleel made the ark of shittim wood, its length, two and a half cubits, its width, a cubit and a half, and its height, a cubit and a half.
- 2. And he overlaid it with pure gold inside and out, and he made a crown of gold for it all around.
- 3. And he cast four rings of gold for it for its four feet, two rings on one of its sides and two rings on its other side.
- 4. And he made poles of shittim wood and overlaid them with gold.
- 5. And he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to carry the ark.

The Mercy-Seat

- 6. And he made the mercy-seat of pure gold, two and a half cubits its length, and a cubit and a half its width.
- 7. And he fashioned two cherubim of gold. Of beaten work, he made them at the two ends of the mercy-seat,
- 8. one cherub at one end and one cherub at the other end. He made the cherubim part of the mercy-seat, in the two ends of it.

9. And the wings of the cherubim were spread out above, their wings overshadowing the mercy-seat, with their faces toward one other. The faces of the cherubim faced the mercy-seat.

The Table

- ¶10. And he made the table of shittim wood, its length, two cubits, its width, a cubit, and its height, a cubit and a half.
11. And he overlaid it with pure gold, and he made a crown of gold for it all around.
12. And he made a border a handbreadth wide around it, and he made a crown of gold for its border round about.
13. And he cast four rings for it and attached the rings to the four corners that are on its four feet.
14. The rings were close to the border, as housings for the poles for carrying the table.
15. And he made the poles of shittim wood and overlaid them with gold, with which to carry the table.
16. And he made of pure gold the vessels that are on the table, its dishes, and its spoons, and its bowls, and the cups with which libation is made.

The Menorah

- ¶17. And he made the menorah of pure gold. He made the menorah of beaten work; its base and its shaft, its cups, its bulbs, and its flowers were of one piece.
18. And six branches went out from its sides, three branches of the menorah from one side and three branches of the menorah from the other side.
19. On the one branch were three almond-shaped cups, a bulb, and a flower; and on the other branch, three almond-shaped cups, a bulb, and a flower. Thus it was for the six branches that go out from the menorah,
20. but on the menorah shaft were four almond-shaped cups, its bulbs, and its flowers.
21. And for the six branches going out from it, there was a bulb below a pair of its branches, and a bulb below a pair of its branches, and a bulb below a pair of its branches.
22. Their bulbs and their branches were of one piece; they were all of one beaten work of pure gold.
23. And he made its seven lamps, and its tongs, and its snuff-dishes of pure gold.
24. Of a talent of pure gold, he made it, with all its accoutrements.

The Incense Altar

- ¶25. And he made the incense altar of shittim wood, its length, a cubit, and its width, a cubit, square, and its height, was two cubits. Its horns were one piece with it.
26. And he overlaid it with pure gold, its top, and its sides round about, and its horns. And he made for it a crown of gold round about.
27. And he made two gold rings for it below its crown on two of its sides; he made them on two sides as housings for poles with which to carry it.
28. And he made the poles of shittim wood and overlaid them with gold.

29. And he made the holy anointing oil and the pure, pungent incense, the work of a perfumer.

Exodus 38

The Altar for Burnt Offering

- ¶1. And he made the altar for burnt offering of shittim wood; five cubits was its length, and five cubits was its width. It was square. And its height was three cubits.
2. And he made its horns on its four corners; its horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with bronze.
3. And he made all the accoutrements of the altar: the pans, and the shovels, and the basins, and the meat-hooks, and the fire-pans. He made all its accoutrements of bronze.
4. And he made for the altar a grate of bronze lattice work underneath its ledge, halfway down it.
5. And he cast four rings on the four corners for the bronze grate, housings for the poles.
6. And he made the poles of shittim wood and overlaid them with bronze.
7. And on the sides of the altar, he put the poles into the rings, with which to carry it. He made it hollow with boards.

The Laver

- ¶8. And he made the laver of bronze and its base of bronze from the mirrors of the serving women who serve at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

The Courtyard

- ¶9. And he made the courtyard. For the south side, facing southward, he made the courtyard screens of fine-twined linen, one hundred cubits.
10. Their twenty posts and their twenty sockets were of bronze, and the hooks of the posts and their fillets were of silver.
11. And for the north side, he made screens one hundred cubits, and their twenty posts and their twenty sockets were of bronze, and the hooks of the posts and their fillets were of silver.
12. And on the west side were fifty cubits of screens, their ten posts, and their ten sockets, and the hooks of the posts and their fillets were of silver.
13. And on the east side, eastward, the width was fifty cubits.
14. Screens for the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits, their posts, three, and their sockets, three,
15. and likewise for the other side. On both sides of the gate of the courtyard, the screens were fifteen cubits, their posts, three, and their sockets, three.
16. All the screens of the surrounding courtyard were of fine-twined linen.
17. And the sockets for the posts were of bronze, and the hooks on the posts and their fillets were of silver, and the plating of their tops was of silver, and all the posts of the courtyard were filleted with silver.

18. And the hanging for the gate of the courtyard, the work of a weaver, was of blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine-twined linen, twenty cubits long. And its height along the width was five cubits, corresponding to the screens of the courtyard.
 19. And their four posts and their four sockets were of bronze, and their hooks, silver, and the plating of their tops and their fillets were of silver.
 20. And all the stakes for the tabernacle and for the surrounding courtyard were of bronze.
- ¶21. These are the sums for the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the testimony, which were counted at the command of Moses for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar ben-Aaron the priest.
22. And Bezaleel ben-Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that Jehovah commanded Moses,
 23. and with him was Aholiab ben-Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a skilled workman, and a weaver of the blue, and the purple, and the bright scarlet, and the linen.
- ¶24. All the gold that was used for the work, in all the work of the sanctuary: the gold from the wave offering was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred and thirty shekels, by the shekel of the sanctuary.
25. And the silver from those who were numbered of the assembly, one hundred talents and one thousand and seven hundred and seventy-five shekels, by the shekel of the sanctuary,
 26. one bekah apiece (that is, half a shekel by the shekel of the sanctuary) given by every man who passed through the numbering, twenty-years-old and upwards, six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men.¹⁰
 27. And the one hundred talents of silver were for casting the sockets for the sanctuary and the sockets for the veil, one hundred sockets from the one hundred talents, one talent for each socket.
 28. And he made one thousand and seven hundred and seventy-five hooks for the posts, and he overlaid their tops and filleted them.
 29. And from the wave offering came seventy talents and two thousand and four hundred shekels of bronze.
 30. And with it, he made sockets for the entrance of the tent of meeting, and the bronze altar and its bronze grate, and all the accoutrements of the altar,
 31. and the sockets for the courtyard round about, and the sockets for the gate of the courtyard, and all the stakes for the tabernacle, and all the stakes for the surrounding courtyard.

Exodus 39

The Ephod

¹⁰ According to these figures, there are 3,000 shekels in a talent, by the shekel of the sanctuary.

1. And of the blue, and the purple, and the bright scarlet, they made woven garments to do service in the sanctuary, and they made the holy garments that were for Aaron, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
2. And he made the ephod of gold, blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine-twined linen.
3. And they beat out the sheets of gold, and he cut threads to work into the blue, and into the purple, and into the bright scarlet, and into the linen, skillfully worked.
4. They made shoulder pieces for it, attached at its two edges, by which it was joined together.
5. And the skillfully woven band of his ephod which is on it was of the same work: gold, blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine-twined linen, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
6. And they worked the onyx stones, enclosing them within settings of gold filigree, engraving them with the names of the sons of Israel, like the engravings of a seal.
7. And he put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, stones of remembrance for the children of Israel, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

The Breastplate

- ¶8. And he made the breastplate of skillful workmanship, like the work of the ephod, of gold, blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine-twined linen.
9. It was square. They made the breastplate folded double, its length shall be a span, and its width, a span, when doubled.
10. And they finished it with four rows of stones. A row of a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle, the first row;
11. and the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond;
12. and the third row, a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst;
13. and the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper set within their settings of gold filigree.
14. And the stones shall be according to the names of the sons of Israel; they were twelve, according to their names, like engravings of a seal, each with its name, corresponding to the twelve tribes.
15. And they made for the breastplate braided chains, a work of pure gold cords.
16. And they made two gold filigree settings, and two gold rings, and they put the two rings on the two edges of the breastplate.
17. And they attached the two gold cords to the two rings on the edges of the breastplate.
18. And they attached the two ends of the two cords to the two filigree settings, and they attached them to the front of the shoulder pieces of the ephod.
19. And they made two rings of gold, and they attached them to two edges of the breastplate, which, on its inner side, is against the ephod.
20. And they made two rings of gold, and they attached them to the lower part of the two shoulder-pieces of the ephod, in front, close to its seam, above the band of the ephod.

21. And they bound the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue thread, so that it was above the band of the ephod, that the breastplate not come loose from the ephod, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

The Robe

¶22. And he made the robe of the ephod, the work of a weaver, entirely of blue.

23. And there was an opening in the center of the robe, like the opening of a cuirass, with a selvedge around its opening, that it might not be torn.

24. And on the hem of the robe, they made pomegranates of fine-twined blue, and purple, and bright scarlet.

25. And they made bells of pure gold, and they attached the bells between the pomegranates, on the hem of the robe all around, between the pomegranates—

26. a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate on the hem of the robe all around when he ministers, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

The Tunic, Turban, and Undergarments

¶27. And they made tunics of linen, a woven work, for Aaron and for his sons,

28. and the turban of linen, and the headdresses, the linen head-coverings, and the linen undergarments of fine-twined linen,

29. and the sash of fine-twined linen, and blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, the work of a weaver, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

30. And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and they wrote upon it writing like the engravings of a seal, “Holiness to Jehovah”.

31. And they put a ribbon of blue on it, to attach it high on the turban, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

¶32. So, all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was finished. And the sons of Israel had made it. According to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, so did they.

33. And they brought the tabernacle to Moses: the tent, and all its accoutrements, its hooks, its boards, its bars, and its posts, and its sockets,

34. and the covering of rams 'skins dyed red, and the covering of badgers 'skins, and the veil for the hanging;

35. the ark of the testimony, and its poles, and the mercy-seat;

36. the table, all its accoutrements, and the bread of the Presence;

37. the menorah of pure gold with its lamps, the row of lamps, and all its accoutrements, and the oil for the light;

38. and the gold altar; and the anointing oil; and the pungent incense; and the hanging at the entrance of the tent;

39. the bronze altar, and its bronze grate, its poles, and all its accoutrements; the laver and its base;

40. the screens for the courtyard, its posts, and its sockets, and the hanging for the gate of the courtyard, its ropes, and its stakes; and all the accoutrements for the service of the tabernacle for the tent of meeting;
41. the woven garments for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and garments for his sons to minister as priests.
42. So, the sons of Israel made all the work according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses.
43. And Moses examined all the work, and behold, they had done it. Just as Jehovah had commanded, so had they done, and Moses blessed them.

Exodus 40

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. "On the first day of the month, in the first month, you shall erect the tabernacle of the tent of meeting,
3. and therein shall you set the ark of the testimony, and you shall conceal the ark with the veil.
4. And you shall bring in the table and set its arrangement in order, and you shall bring in the menorah and light its lamps.
5. And you shall place the gold altar for incense before the ark of the testimony, and you shall put up the hanging for the entrance of the tabernacle.
6. And you shall place the altar for burnt offering before the entrance of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.
7. And you shall place the laver between the tent of meeting and the altar, and you shall put water in it.
8. And you shall set up the courtyard all around, and you shall put up the hanging of the gate of the courtyard.
9. And you shall take the anointing oil, and you shall anoint the tabernacle and everything that is in it, and you shall consecrate it and all its accoutrements, and it shall be holy.
10. And you shall anoint the altar for burnt offering and all its accoutrements, and you shall consecrate the altar, and the altar shall be most holy.
11. And you shall anoint the laver and its base, and consecrate it.
12. And you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting, and you shall wash them with the water,
13. and you shall clothe Aaron with the holy garments, and you shall anoint him and consecrate him, and he shall minister to me as priest.
14. And you shall bring his sons near, and you shall clothe them with tunics,
15. and you shall anoint them just as you anointed their father, and they shall minister to me as priests. And their anointing shall surely be theirs for the priesthood forever, throughout their generations.
16. And Moses did so. According to everything that Jehovah had commanded him, so did he.

- ¶17. And it came to pass in the second year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the tabernacle was erected.
18. And Moses erected the tabernacle, and he set its sockets, and he set its boards, and he put in its bars, and he erected its posts,
19. and he spread out the tent over the tabernacle, and over that, he put the covering of the tent above, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
- ¶20. And he took, and placed the testimony in the ark, and he set the poles on the ark, and he placed the mercy-seat on top of the ark,
21. and he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and he set the veil for the covering, and he concealed the ark of the testimony, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
- ¶22. And he placed the table in the tent of meeting on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the veil,
23. and on it, he arranged of the bread of Jehovah's Presence in order, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
- ¶24. And he set the menorah in the tent of meeting opposite the table, on the south side of the tabernacle,
25. and he lit the lamps in the presence of Jehovah, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
- ¶26. And he put the gold altar in the tent of meeting in front of the veil,
27. and he offered upon it pungent incense, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
- ¶28. And he put in place the hanging for the entrance of the tabernacle,
29. and he put the altar for burnt offering before the entrance of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, and he offered the burnt offering on it, and the meal offering, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
- ¶30. And he set the laver between the tent of meeting and the altar, and he put in water for washing,
31. and with it, Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet.
32. When they went into the tent of meeting and when they drew near to the altar, they washed, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
- ¶33. And he erected the courtyard all around for the tabernacle and for the altar, and he set the hanging for the gate of the courtyard. So, Moses completed the work.
- ¶34. And the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and Jehovah's glory filled the tabernacle.
35. And Moses could not enter the tent of meeting because the cloud settled on it, and Jehovah's glory filled the tabernacle.
36. And throughout all their journeys, when the cloud was lifted from the tabernacle, the children of Israel would set out.
37. But if the cloud was not lifted, they did not journey until the day that it was lifted,

38. for the cloud of Jehovah was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night in the sight of all the house of Israel throughout all their journeys.

Leviticus

Leviticus 1

- ¶1. And Jehovah called to Moses and spoke to him from the tent of meeting, saying,
2. “Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, ‘When any man among you brings an offering to Jehovah from livestock, you shall bring your offering from the herd or from the flock.
 3. If his offering be a burnt offering from the herd, he shall bring it, a male without blemish, to the entrance of the tent of meeting. He shall bring it of his own will before Jehovah.
 4. And he shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering and it will be accepted from him to make atonement for him.
 5. And he shall kill the bullock before Jehovah. Then the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall bring the blood and throw the blood all around against the altar at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
 6. And he shall flay the burnt offering, and he shall cut it into its pieces.
 7. And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar and lay wood in order on the fire,
 8. and the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall arrange the pieces, the head, and the suet on the wood that is on the fire that is on the altar.
 9. But its entrails and its legs, he shall wash with the water, and the priest shall burn it all on the altar as a burnt offering, a placating aroma made by fire to Jehovah.
- ¶10. “But if his offering be for a burnt offering from the flock, of the sheep or the goats, he shall bring a male without blemish.
11. And he shall kill it on the north side of the altar before Jehovah, and the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall throw its blood against the altar all around.
 12. And he shall cut it into its pieces, and along with its head and its suet, the priest shall lay them out on the wood that is for the fire that is on the altar.
 13. But the entrails and the legs, he shall wash with the water, and the priest shall bring it all, and he shall burn it on the altar as a burnt offering. It is a placating aroma made by fire to Jehovah.
- ¶14. “And if his burnt offering to Jehovah be an offering from birds, then he shall bring his offering from the turtledoves or young doves.
15. And the priest shall bring it to the altar and wring off its head, and he shall burn it on the altar, and its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar.
 16. And he shall remove its crop with its feathers, and he shall cast it beside the altar on the east side, into the place for ashes.

17. And he shall tear it apart with its wings, but not into two, and the priest shall burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire, as a burnt offering. It is a placating aroma made by fire to Jehovah.

Leviticus 2

- ¶1. "And when someone brings an offering to Jehovah as a grain offering, his offering shall be of fine flour, and he shall pour out oil for it, and he shall give frankincense with it.
2. And he shall bring it to the sons of Aaron, the priests, and he shall take from it a handful of the fine flour, and some of the oil, and all the frankincense, and then the priest shall burn the memorial on the altar, a placating aroma made by fire to Jehovah.
 3. But the rest of the grain offering is for Aaron and for his sons. It is a most holy portion of Jehovah's offerings made by fire.
 4. And when you bring an offering, a grain offering baked in an oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil.
 5. And if your offering be a grain offering cooked on a griddle, it shall be fine flour, unleavened, mixed with oil.
 6. You shall break it in pieces and pour oil on it. It is a grain offering.
 7. And if your offering be a grain offering cooked in a pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.
 8. And you shall bring the grain offering that is made of these things to Jehovah. And one shall present it to the priest, and he shall take it to the altar.
 9. And the priest shall take the memorial from the grain offering and burn it on the altar, a placating aroma made by fire to Jehovah.
 10. And the rest of the grain offering is for Aaron and for his sons. It is a most holy portion of Jehovah's offerings made by fire.
 11. No grain offering that you bring to Jehovah shall be made with leaven, for you shall not burn any leaven or any honey with an offering made by fire to Jehovah.
- ¶12. An offering of firstfruits shall you bring to Jehovah, but they will not take them up to the altar for a placating aroma.
13. And every grain offering of yours, you shall season with salt; you shall not omit the salt of the covenant of your God from your grain offerings. With all your grain offerings, you shall offer salt.
 14. And if you offer a grain offering of firstfruits to Jehovah, you shall offer for the grain offering of your firstfruits from the field, crushed grain from fresh ears, roasted with fire.
 15. And you shall give oil with it, and you shall set frankincense on it. It is a grain offering.
 16. And the priest shall burn the memorial of it, some of the crushed grain, and some of the oil, and all of the frankincense as an offering made by fire to Jehovah.

Leviticus 3

- ¶1. “And if his offering be a sacrifice of peace offerings, if he bring it from the herd, he shall offer it, either a male or a female without blemish, before Jehovah.
2. And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and kill it at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall throw the blood all around against the altar.
3. And from the sacrifice of the peace offerings made by fire to Jehovah, he shall offer the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat that is against the entrails,
4. and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them which is on the loins. And the caul above the liver, he shall remove with the kidneys.
5. And the sons of Aaron shall burn it on the altar on top of the burnt offering which is on the wood that is on the fire, a placating aroma made by fire to Jehovah.
- ¶6. “And if his offering for the sacrifice of peace offerings to Jehovah be from the flock, he shall offer a male or female without blemish.
7. If he is offering a lamb for his offering, then he shall offer it before Jehovah.
8. And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and kill it in front of the tent of meeting, and the sons of Aaron shall throw its blood against the altar all around.
9. And from the sacrifice of the peace offerings made by fire to Jehovah, he shall bring its fat. He shall remove the whole fat-tail close to the backbone, and the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat that is against the entrails,
10. and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them which is on the loins. And the caul above the liver, he shall remove with the kidneys.
11. And the priest shall burn it on the altar. It is a food-offering made by fire to Jehovah.
- ¶12. “If his offering be a goat, then he shall offer it before Jehovah.
13. And he shall lay his hand on its head and kill it in front of the tent of meeting, and the sons of Aaron shall throw its blood against the altar all around.
14. And from his offering made by fire to Jehovah, he shall bring the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is against the entrails,
15. and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them which is on the loins. And the caul above the liver, he shall remove with the kidneys.
16. And the priest shall burn them on the altar. It is a food-offering made by fire for a placating aroma; all the fat is Jehovah’s.
17. It is a statute forever for your generations in all your dwellings: you shall not eat any fat or any blood.”

Leviticus 4

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. “Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘For a soul who sins ignorantly in any of the commandments of Jehovah concerning things that should not be done, and does a single one of them:

- ¶3. "If the anointed priest sins, to the guilt of the people, then for his sin that he has sinned, he shall offer a bullock from the herd without blemish to Jehovah for a sin offering.
4. And he shall bring the bullock to the entrance of the tent of meeting before Jehovah, and lay his hand on the head of the bullock, and kill the bullock before Jehovah.
5. And the anointed priest shall take some of the blood of the bullock and bring it into the tent of meeting,
6. and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and spatter some of the blood seven times before Jehovah, in front of the veil of the holy place.
7. And the priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of pungent incense before Jehovah, which is in the tent of meeting, and he shall pour all the blood of the bullock on the base of the altar of burnt offering that is at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
8. And all the fat of the bullock of the sin offering shall he remove from it, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is against the entrails,
9. and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them which is on the loins. And the caul above the liver, he shall take away with the kidneys,
10. just as it was removed from the bullock of the sacrifice of peace offerings, and the priest shall burn them on the altar of burnt offering.
11. But the hide of the bullock and all its flesh, with its head, and with its legs, and its entrails, and its dung,
12. even all the rest of the bullock, he shall then carry it out, to a clean place outside the camp, to the ash-dump, and burn it up on a wood fire. It shall be burned up at the ash-dump.
- ¶13. "Or if the whole congregation of Israel err, and the matter be hidden from the eyes of the Assembly, and they have done anything against the commandments of Jehovah concerning things that should not be done, and they become guilty,
14. when the sin that they committed regarding a commandment becomes known, then the Assembly shall offer a bullock from the herd for the sin offering, and they shall bring it before the tent of meeting.
15. And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bullock before Jehovah and kill the bullock before Jehovah.
16. Then the anointed priest shall bring some of the blood of the bullock into the tent of meeting,
17. And the priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood and spatter it seven times before Jehovah in front of the veil.
18. And he shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar that is before Jehovah in the tent of meeting, and he shall pour out all the blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering that is at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
19. and he shall remove all its fat from it and burn it on the altar.
20. And he shall do to the bullock as he does to a bullock for the sin offering; thus shall he do to it. And the priest shall make atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

21. And he shall carry the bullock out, outside the camp, and burn it up just as he burned the first bullock; it is a sin offering for the Assembly.
 - ¶22. "When a prince sins ignorantly and does anything against the commandments of Jehovah his God concerning things that should not be done, and becomes guilty,
 23. or his sin that he committed against the commandment is made known to him, then he shall bring for his offering a male from the goats, a male without blemish,
 24. and he shall lay his hand on the head of the goat and kill it at the place where one kills the burnt offering before Jehovah; it is a sin offering.
 25. Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and he shall pour out its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.
 26. And he shall burn all its fat on the altar, as with the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings. And the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.
- ¶27. "And if any one of the people of the land sins ignorantly, by doing anything against the commandments of Jehovah concerning things that should not be done, and becomes guilty,
28. or his sin that he has committed is made known to him, then he shall bring his offering, a doe from the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin that he has committed.
 29. And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill the sin offering at the place of the burnt offering.
 30. And the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and he shall pour out all its blood at the base of the altar.
 31. And he shall remove all its fat just as the fat is removed from the sacrifice of the peace offerings, and the priest shall burn it on the altar for a placating aroma to Jehovah, and the priest shall make atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.
 32. And if he brings a lamb for his sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish.
 33. And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill it as a sin offering at the place where one kills the burnt offering.
 34. Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and he shall pour out all its blood at the base of the altar.
 35. And he shall remove all its fat just as the fat of the lamb is removed from the sacrifice of the peace offerings, and the priest shall burn them on the altar according to the offerings made by fire to Jehovah, and the priest shall make atonement for him, for his sin that he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

Leviticus 5

- ¶1. "And if a soul sins by hearing a voice of cursing, and he is a witness, or he saw it or knew of it, if he does not make it known, then he shall bear his iniquity.

2. Or a soul that touches any unclean thing or the carcass of an unclean animal, whether the carcass of an unclean beast or the carcass of an unclean swarming creature, and it is hidden from him, then he is unclean and guilty,
 3. or if he comes in contact with a man's uncleanness, whatever his uncleanness is with which he is unclean, and it be hidden from him, when he learns of it, then he is guilty,
 4. or if a soul takes an oath, speaking rashly with his lips to do evil or to do good, whatsoever that man says rashly with an oath, and it is hidden from him, when he learns of it, then he is guilty concerning one of these things.
 5. And it shall be that if he becomes guilty of one of these things, then he shall confess that he has sinned regarding it.
 6. And he shall bring his guilt offering to Jehovah for his sin that he has committed, a female from the flock, a ewe lamb or a doe of the goats, for a sin offering, and the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin.
 7. And if he is not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring as his guilt offering for the sin he committed two turtle-doves or two young doves to Jehovah, one for a sin offering and one for a burnt offering.
 8. And he shall bring them to the priest, and he shall offer that which is for the sin offering first, and he shall wring its head from its neck, but he shall not divide it.
 9. And he shall spatter some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, and the remaining blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar; it is a sin offering.
 10. And with the second, he shall make a burnt offering according to the ordinance, and the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin that he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him.
 11. But if he is not able to bring two turtle-doves or two young doves, then he shall bring as his offering for the sin he committed a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall not put oil on it nor shall he put frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering.
 12. And he shall bring it to the priest and the priest shall take a handful from it as a memorial, and he shall burn it on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire to Jehovah; it is a sin offering.
 13. And the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin that he committed in one of these things, and it shall be forgiven him; and it shall belong to the priest, like the grain offering."
- ¶14. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
15. "If a soul commits an infraction and sins ignorantly in any of the holy things of Jehovah, then he shall bring his guilt offering to Jehovah, a ram without blemish from the flock, with your valuation in silver shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, for a guilt offering.
 16. And he shall make amends, inasmuch as he sinned in a holy thing, and he shall add a fifth part to it, and he shall give it to the priest, and the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

- ¶17. “And if a soul sins and does any one of the commandments of Jehovah concerning things that should not be done, and he did not know it, he is still guilty, and he shall bear his iniquity.
- 18. Then he shall bring to the priest a ram without blemish from the flock, with your valuation, for a guilt offering, and the priest shall make an atonement for him for his error which he ignorantly committed, and did not know it, and it shall be forgiven him.
- 19. It is a guilt offering; he is certainly guilty before Jehovah.”

Leviticus 6

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
- 2. “If a soul sins and acts unfaithfully against Jehovah, and is deceitful with his neighbor concerning a deposit, or in a pledge, or by robbery, or he oppresses his neighbor, or he finds something lost and lies about it, and swears falsely—concerning any one of all the things that men may do to sin.
- 4. Then it will be, because he has sinned and is guilty, that he shall restore the thing that he stole, or that which he extorted, or that which was deposited with him, or the lost thing that he found,
- 5. or concerning anything that he swore falsely about, he shall repay him in total, and then add to that, one-fifth of its value. He shall give it to him on the day of his guilt offering.
- 6. And he shall bring his guilt offering to Jehovah, a ram without blemish from the flock, with your valuation, for a guilt offering to the priest.
- 7. And the priest shall make an atonement for him before Jehovah, and any of all the things that he may do requiring a guilt offering will be forgiven him.”
- ¶8. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
- 9. “Command Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the burnt offering. It is the burnt offering because it is burned on the altar all night until the morning, and the fire of the altar is to be kept burning on it.’
- 10. And the priest shall put on his linen garment, with his linen undergarments he puts on his body, and he shall take up the ashes left when the fire has consumed the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar.
- 11. Then he shall take off his garments, and put on other garments, and take the ashes outside the camp to a clean place.
- 12. And the fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it; it shall not be put out. And the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and shall lay the burnt offering in order upon it, and he shall burn the fat of the peace offerings upon it.
- 13. Fire shall burn continuously on the altar; it shall not be quenched.
- ¶14. “And this is the law of the grain offering for the sons of Aaron to offer before Jehovah in front of the altar.

15. And one of his sons shall take a handful of the fine flour of the grain offering, and some of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense that is on the grain offering, and he shall burn the memorial of it on the altar as a placating aroma to Jehovah.
 16. But the rest of it, Aaron and his sons shall eat. Unleavened shall it be eaten in a holy place; in the court of the tent of meeting shall they eat it.
 17. It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their portion from my offerings made by fire. It is most holy, like the sin offering and like the guilt offering.
 18. Every male among the children of Aaron may eat it. It is a statute forever, throughout your generations, concerning Jehovah's offerings made by fire. Whatever touches them shall be holy.”
- ¶19. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
20. “This shall be the offering for Aaron and his sons that they shall offer to Jehovah on the day when he is anointed: a tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a continual grain offering, half of it in the morning and half of it in the evening.
 21. It shall be made, mixed with oil, on a griddle. You shall bring it in, the baked pieces of the grain offering, and you shall offer it as a placating aroma to Jehovah.
 22. And the priest, the anointed one under him from among his sons, shall prepare it. It is a statute forever. It shall be wholly burned to Jehovah.
 23. And every grain offering for the priest shall be wholly burned. It shall not be eaten.”

¶24. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

25. “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin offering. In the place where the burnt offering is killed, you shall kill the sin offering before Jehovah. It is most holy.
26. The priest who offers the sin offering shall eat it in a holy place. It shall be eaten in the court of the tent of meeting.
27. Whatever touches its flesh will become holy, and when some of its blood spatters on a garment, you shall wash what it spattered on in a holy place.
28. And the earthen vessel in which it was boiled shall be broken, or if it was boiled in a bronze vessel, then it shall be scoured and rinsed with water.
29. Every male among the priests may eat it. It is most holy.
30. And no sin offering shall be eaten from which blood is brought into the tent of meeting to make atonement in the sanctuary; it shall be burned up in the fire.

Leviticus 7

- ¶1. “And this is the law of the guilt offering. It is most holy.
2. In the place where they kill the burnt offering, they shall kill the guilt offering, and he shall throw its blood against the altar all around.
 3. And from it, he shall offer all of its fat, its fat-tail, and the fat that covers the entrails,
 4. and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them which is on the loins. And the caul above the liver, he shall remove with the kidneys.

5. And the priest shall burn them on the altar as an offering made by fire to Jehovah; it is a guilt offering.
6. Every male among the priests may eat it. In a holy place, it shall be eaten. It is most holy.
7. As the sin offering, so is the guilt offering. One law is for them both. It shall be for the priest who makes atonement with it.
8. And the priest who offers a man's burnt offering, that priest shall have for himself the hide of the burnt offering he offered.
9. And all the grain offering that is baked in an oven, and all that is made in a pan or on a griddle, shall be the priest's who offered it.
10. And every grain offering mixed with oil, or dry, shall be for all the sons of Aaron, one as much as another.

- ¶11. "And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings which one offers to Jehovah.
12. If he offer it for thanksgiving, then he shall offer upon the thanksgiving sacrifice unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes of fine flour mixed with oil.
 13. With the cakes, he shall bring leavened bread for his offering with the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving.
 14. And from it, he shall offer one of each offering as a portion for Jehovah; it shall belong to the priest who throws the blood of the peace offerings.
 15. And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten on the day of his offering; he shall not leave any of it until morning.
 16. But if the sacrifice of his offering is for a vow or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day he offers his sacrifice, and what remains of it may be eaten on the following day.
 17. But on the third day, the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice shall be burned up with fire.
 18. And if any at all of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings be eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted from him who offered it, nor will it be reckoned to him. It is unclean, and the soul who eats any of it shall bear his iniquity.
 19. Also, the flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burned up with fire. And as for the flesh, any man who is clean may eat the flesh,
 20. but the soul that eats flesh from the sacrifice of peace offerings which are Jehovah's when his uncleanness is on him, that soul shall certainly be cut off from his people.
 21. Moreover, a soul that touches anything unclean, whether the uncleanness of a man or an unclean beast, or any unclean abomination, and then eats any of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings that are Jehovah's, that soul shall certainly be cut off from his people."

¶22. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

23. "Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Fat from an ox, or a sheep, or a goat, you shall not eat.
24. Yet, fat from a carcass and fat from an animal torn by beasts may be put to any other use, but you shall not eat it in any circumstance.
25. Whosoever eats fat from any beast that he offers as an offering made by fire to Jehovah, that soul who eats it shall also be cut off from his people.
26. And you shall not consume any blood in any of your dwellings, whether of bird or beast.
27. Any soul who consumes any blood, that soul shall also be cut off from his people.

¶28. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

29. "Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'He who offers the sacrifice of his peace offerings to Jehovah, shall bring to Jehovah his offering from the sacrifice of his peace offerings;
30. his own hands shall bring Jehovah's offerings made by fire, the fat on the breast. He shall bring it with the breast for it to be waved as a wave offering before Jehovah.
31. And the priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall be for Aaron and his sons.
32. And the right thigh you shall give to the priest as an exsect offering from the sacrifices of your peace offerings.
33. Whoever of the sons of Aaron offers the blood of the peace offerings and the fat, the right thigh shall be his as his portion,
34. for the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the exsect offering have I taken from the children of Israel out of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and I have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons by statute forever from the children of Israel."

- ¶35. This is the portion of Aaron and the portion of his sons out of Jehovah's offerings made by fire, from the day he presented them to minister as priests to Jehovah,
36. which Jehovah commanded to be given to them by the children of Israel, from the day he anointed them. It is a statute forever, throughout their generations.
 37. This is the law for the burnt offering, for the grain offering, for the sin offering, and for the guilt offering, and for the ordination offerings, and for the sacrifice of the peace offerings,
 38. which Jehovah commanded Moses at Mount Sinai, in the day he commanded the children of Israel to offer their offerings to Jehovah, in the wilderness of Sinai.

Leviticus 8

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. "Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and a bullock for a sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread,
 3. and assemble the whole congregation at the entrance of the tent of meeting."

4. And Moses did as Jehovah commanded him, and the congregation was assembled at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
5. And Moses said to the congregation, "This is what Jehovah has commanded to be done."
6. Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and he washed them with water.
7. And he put the tunic on him, and girded him with the sash, and he clothed him with the robe. And he put the ephod on him, and girded him with the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and bound it to him with it.
8. And he placed the breastplate on him, and he put the Urim and the Thummim into the breastplate.
9. And he placed the turban on his head, and on the turban, at its front, he put the gold plate, the holy crown, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
10. And Moses took the anointing oil, and he anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and he consecrated them.
11. And he sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times and anointed the altar, and all its accoutrements, and the laver and its base, to consecrate them.
12. And he poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him to consecrate him.
13. Then Moses brought Aaron's sons, and he clothed them with tunics, and girded them with a sash, and he bound the head-coverings on them as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
14. And he brought the bullock of the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bullock of the sin offering.
15. And Moses killed it, and he took the blood and put it on the horns of the altar all around with his finger, and purified the altar, and he poured out the blood at the base of the altar and consecrated it to make atonement on it.
16. And he took all the fat that is on the entrails, and the caul of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and Moses burned them on the altar.
17. But the bullock, and its hide, and its flesh, and its dung, he burned up with fire outside the camp as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
18. And he brought the ram of the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.
19. And Moses killed it, and he threw the blood against the altar all around.
20. And he cut the ram into its pieces, and Moses burned the head, and the pieces, and the fat.
21. And he washed the entrails and the legs in water, and Moses burned the whole ram on the altar as a burnt offering. It was a placating aroma made by fire to Jehovah, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
22. And he brought the second ram, the ram of ordination, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.
23. And Moses killed it, and he took some of its blood, and he put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

24. And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put some of the blood on the tip of their right ear, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot, and he threw the blood against the altar all around.
25. And he took the fat, and its fat-tail, and all the fat that is on the entrails, and the caul of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and the right thigh,
26. and from the basket of unleavened bread that is before Jehovah, he took one unleavened cake, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and he put them on the pieces of fat and on the right thigh.
27. And he placed everything onto Aaron's palms and onto the palms of his sons, and he made them wave a wave offering before Jehovah.
28. And Moses took them from their palms and burned them on the altar on top of the burnt offering for the ordinations; they were for a placating aroma; it is an offering made by fire to Jehovah.
29. And Moses took the breast and waved it as a wave offering before Jehovah, for it was Moses' portion of the ram of ordination, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
30. And Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood which was on the altar, and he sprinkled it on Aaron, on his garments, and on his sons, and on sons' garments along with him, and he consecrated Aaron, his garments, and his sons, and sons' garments with him.
31. And Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, "Boil the flesh at the entrance of the tent of meeting and eat it there, and the bread that is in the basket of ordination, as I commanded, saying, 'Aaron and his sons shall eat it.'
32. And what remains of the flesh and of the bread, you shall burn up with fire.
33. And then you shall not go outside of the entrance of the tent of meeting seven days until the day your days of ordinations are completed; for seven days will He ordain you.
34. As has been done this day, Jehovah commanded to be done to make atonement for you.
35. And you shall remain at the entrance of the tent of meeting, day and night, seven days and observe the command of Jehovah so that you do not die, for thus I have been commanded."
36. So Aaron and his sons did all the things that Jehovah commanded by the hand of Moses.

Leviticus 9

- ¶1. And it came to pass that on the eighth day Moses called to Aaron and his sons, and to the elders of Israel,
2. And he said to Aaron, "Take for yourself a bull-calf for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, both without blemish, and offer them before Jehovah.

3. And to the children of Israel speak, saying, 'Take a male from the goats for a sin offering, and a bull and a ram, both a year old and without blemish, for a burnt offering,
4. and an ox and a ram for peace offerings to sacrifice before Jehovah, and a grain offering mixed with oil because Jehovah will appear to you today.'
5. So they brought what Moses commanded before the tent of meeting, and all the congregation came near and stood before Jehovah.
6. And Moses said, "This is the thing that Jehovah commanded you to do; then the glory of Jehovah will appear to you."
7. Then Moses said to Aaron, "Approach the altar and offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself. And then for the people, offer also the offering of the people, and make atonement for them as Jehovah commanded."
8. And Aaron approached the altar, and he slaughtered the bull of the sin offering that was for himself.
9. And Aaron's sons brought the blood to him, and he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar, and he poured out the blood at the base of the altar.
10. And the fat, and the kidneys, and the caul of the liver of the sin offering he burned on the altar as Jehovah commanded Moses.
11. But the flesh and the hide, he burned up with fire outside the camp.
12. And he slaughtered the burnt offering, and Aaron's sons presented the blood to him, and he threw it against the altar all around.
13. And they presented the burnt offering to him in its pieces, and the head, and he burned them on the altar.
14. And he washed the entrails and the legs, and he burned them upon the burnt offering on the altar.
15. Then he brought the people's offering, and he took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people, and slaughtered it, and made a sin offering like the first one.
16. And he brought the burnt offering and did with it according to the ordinance.
17. And he brought the grain offering, and took a handful of it, and burned it on the altar separately from the morning burnt offering.
18. And he slaughtered the ox and the ram for the sacrifice of peace offerings which was for the people, and Aaron's sons presented the blood to him, and he threw it on the altar all around.
19. And the fat pieces from the ox and from the ram (the fat-tail, and the fatty covering of the entrails, and the kidneys, and the caul of the liver),
20. they put these fat pieces on the breasts, and he burned the pieces of fat on the altar.
21. And the breasts and the right thigh, Aaron waved as a wave offering before Jehovah, as Moses commanded.
22. And Aaron lifted up his hand to the people and blessed them. And he came down from making the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings.

23. Then Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting, and then came out, and they blessed the people, and the glory of Jehovah appeared to all the people.
24. And fire came out from before Jehovah and consumed the burnt offering and the fat pieces on the altar. And all the people saw it, and they cried out and fell on their faces.

Leviticus 10

- ¶1. Then Nadab and Abihu, sons of Aaron, each took his fire-pan, and they put fire in them and laid incense on it, and they offered strange fire before Jehovah which He had not commanded them.
2. And fire came out from before Jehovah and consumed them, and they died before Jehovah.
3. Then Moses said to Aaron, “This is what Jehovah spoke, saying, ‘I will be sanctified by those who come near to me, and before all the people, I will be glorified.’” And Aaron was silent.
4. And Moses summoned Mishael and Elzaphan, sons of Uzziel, Aaron’s uncle, and he said to them, “Come near! Carry your kinsmen from before the holy place outside of the camp!”
5. So they came near and carried them in their tunics outside of the camp, as Moses said.
6. And Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and Ithamar his sons, “Do not unbind your heads nor rend your garments, lest you die and He become angry with the whole congregation. But let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning that Jehovah kindled.
7. And you shall not go out from the entrance of the tent of meeting, lest you die, for the anointing oil of Jehovah is upon you.” And they did according to the word of Moses.
- ¶8. And Jehovah spoke to Aaron, saying,
 9. “Do not drink wine or strong drink, you, nor your sons with you, when you go into the tent of meeting so you do not die. It is a statute forever throughout your generations,
 10. so that you make a distinction between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean,
 11. and that you may teach the children of Israel all the statutes that Jehovah has spoken to them by the hand of Moses.”
- ¶12. Then Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his remaining sons, “Take the grain offering that is left over from Jehovah’s offerings made by fire and eat it unleavened beside the altar, for it is most holy.
13. And you shall eat it in a holy place because it is your portion, and your sons’ portion, of Jehovah’s offerings made by fire, for thus have I been commanded.
14. And the breast for the wave offering and the thigh of the exsect offering, you shall eat in a clean place, you, and your sons, and your daughters with you, because they have - been given as your portion and your sons' portion from the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the children of Israel.

15. They shall bring the thigh of the exsect offering and the breast of the wave offering, with the offerings of fat pieces made by fire, to wave as a wave offering before Jehovah, and it will be yours and your sons with you by statute forever, as Jehovah commanded.”
 16. And Moses diligently inquired about the goat of the sin offering, and behold, it had been burned up. Then he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the remaining sons of Aaron, saying,
 17. “Why did you not eat the sin offering in the holy place? For it is most holy, and He gave it to you to bear the iniquity of the congregation to make atonement for them before Jehovah.
 18. Behold, its blood was not brought inside the sanctuary. You should have certainly eaten it in the holy place as I commanded!”
 19. But Aaron said to Moses, “Behold, today they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before Jehovah, yet, such things have happened to me, and if I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been good in the sight of Jehovah?”
 20. And when Moses heard that, it was good in his eyes.

Leviticus 11

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, and to Aaron, saying to them,
2. “Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘This is the living creature that you may eat from among the beasts that are on the earth.
3. Every one that divides the hoof, completely splitting the cleft of the hooves, bringing up the cud among the beasts, you may eat.
4. But this you shall not eat from among those that bring up the cud, or those that divide the hoof: the camel, because it brings up the cud, but there is no dividing of the hoof—it shall be unclean to you;
5. and the rock badger, because it brings up cud, but it does not divide the hoof—it shall be unclean to you;
6. and the arnebeth,¹ because it brings up cud, but it does not divide the hoof—it shall be unclean to you;
7. and the pig, because it divides the hoof and completely splits the hoof, but it does not bring up the cud—it shall be unclean to you.
8. Of their flesh, you shall not eat, and you shall not touch their carcass. They shall be unclean to you.

- ¶9. "This you may eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fin and scale in the waters, in the seas, or in the rivers, you may eat.
10. But whatever does not have fin and scale in the waters and in the rivers, whether among all that swarm in the waters or any creature that is in the waters, shall be an abomination to you.
11. Yea, an abomination shall they be to you! Of their flesh, you shall not eat, and their carcasses, you shall detest.
12. Whatever in the waters that does not have fin and scale shall be an abomination to you.
- ¶13. "And these from among the birds, you shall have in abomination; they shall not be eaten; they are an abomination: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the osprey,
14. and the vulture, and the falcon after its kind,
15. every raven after its kind,
16. and the ostrich, and the night hawk, and the sea gull, and the hawk after its kind,
17. and the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl,
18. and the ibis, and the pelican, and the Egyptian vulture,
19. and the stork, the heron after its kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.
- ¶20. "Every swarming, flying creature that moves about with four shall be an abomination to you.
21. Nevertheless, this you may eat of every swarming, flying creature that moves about with four: whose legs are not above its feet, to leap with them upon the ground.
22. These you may eat of them: the young locust after its kind, and the bald locust after its kind, and the cricket after its kind, and the grasshopper after its kind.
23. But every swarming, flying creature which has four feet shall be an abomination to you.
- ¶24. "And by these, you shall become unclean; anyone who touches their carcass shall be unclean until evening
25. (yea, anyone who picks up a part of their carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening):
26. by any beast that divides a hoof, but it is not completely split, or it does not bring up the cud. They shall be unclean to you. Anyone who touches them shall be unclean.
- ¶27. "And whatever walks on its paws of every animal that walks on four feet shall be unclean to you. Anyone who touches their carcass shall be unclean until evening.
28. And he that picks up their carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. They shall be unclean to you.
29. This also shall be unclean to you among the creeping things that creep on the earth: the mole, and the mouse, and the lizard after its kind,
30. even the gecko, and the monitor lizard, and the skink, and the sand lizard, and the chameleon.

31. These are unclean to you among all that creep. Anyone who touches them when they are dead shall be unclean until evening.
32. And whatever any of them falls on when they are dead shall be unclean, whether a wooden vessel, or clothing, or skin, or sack. Any vessel with which work is done must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until evening. Then it will be clean.
33. And any earthen vessel into which any of them fall, whatever is in it shall be unclean, and you shall break it.
34. Any food that may be eaten that water comes upon shall be unclean, and all drink that may be drunk in any vessel shall be unclean.
35. And whatever a part of their carcass falls on shall be unclean, oven or stove, shall be broken down. They are unclean, and they shall be unclean to you.
36. However, a spring or a cistern collecting water shall be clean, but whatever is touched by their carcass shall be unclean.
37. And if part of their carcass falls on any seed for sowing that is to be sowed, it shall be clean.
38. But if water has been put on the seed, and part of their carcass falls on it, it shall be unclean to you.
39. And if any beast that is food for you die, he who touches its carcass shall be unclean until evening.
40. And he who eats of its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. Also, he who picks up its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening.
41. And every creeping thing that creeps on the earth is an abomination. It shall not be eaten.
42. Everything that moves on its belly, and everything that moves about with four or more feet, of every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, you shall not eat, for they are an abomination.
43. You shall not make yourselves abominable with any swarming thing that swarms, and you shall not make yourselves unclean with them and defile yourselves with them.
44. For I am Jehovah your God, and you shall sanctify yourselves, and you shall be holy, for I am holy, and you shall not make yourselves unclean with any swarming thing that crawls upon the earth.
45. For I am Jehovah who brought you up from the land of Egypt to be your God, and you are to be holy because I am holy.
46. This is the law of the beast, and of the bird, and of every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that creeps on the earth,
47. to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the creature that may be eaten and the creature that may not be eaten.”

Leviticus 12

¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2. “Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘When a woman gives birth and bears a male, then shall she be unclean seven days, as in the days of separation for her menstruation, she shall be unclean.
3. And on the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.
4. Then for thirty-three days, she shall continue in the blood of her purification. She shall not touch anything holy, nor come to the sanctuary, until the completion of the days of her purification.
5. But if she bear a female, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation. Then for sixty-six days, she shall continue because of the blood of her purification.
6. And when the days of her purification are completed for a son or daughter, she shall bring a year-old lamb for a burnt offering and a young dove or a turtle-dove for a sin-offering to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
7. And he shall offer it before Jehovah, and make atonement for her, and she shall be clean from the flow of her blood. This is the law for her who bears a male or a female.
8. And if she is not able to obtain a lamb, then she shall bring two turtle-doves, or two young doves, one for a burnt offering and one for a sin offering, and the priest will make atonement for her, and she shall be clean.”

Leviticus 13

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
2. “When a man has on the skin of his flesh a swelling, or a scab, or a bright spot, and it becomes in the skin of his flesh the plague of leprosy, then he shall be brought in to Aaron the priest, or to one of his sons the priests.
 3. And the priest shall look at the plague in the skin of the flesh, and when hair in the plague has turned white and the plague is not in appearance deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is the plague of leprosy, and the priest shall look at him and pronounce him unclean.
 4. But if a bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and it is not in appearance deeper than the skin, and the hair in it has not turned white, then the priest shall shut up the plague seven days.
 5. And the priest shall look at it on the seventh day, and behold, if in his eyes the plague is unchanged, the plague not having spread on the skin, then the priest shall shut him up seven days a second time.
 6. And the priest shall look at it the second time on the seventh day, and behold, if the plague has faded, and the plague has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. It is a scab. And he shall wash his clothes and be clean.
 7. But if the scab has spread further in the skin after he presents himself to the priest for his purifying, then he shall present himself a second time to the priest.
 8. When the priest looks, and behold, the scab has spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy.
- ¶9. “When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought to the priest.

10. When the priest looks, and behold, a white swelling be in the skin, and it has turned the hair white, and living, raw flesh is in the swelling,
 11. it is a dormant leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. He shall not shut him up, though he is unclean.
 12. And if the leprosy has broken out widely in the skin, so that the leprosy cover all the skin, the plague being from his head to his foot, visible everywhere to the eyes of the priest,
 13. and when the priest looks, and behold, the leprosy has covered all his flesh, then he shall pronounce him who has the plague clean; it has all turned white; he is clean.
 14. But on the day raw flesh appears on him, he shall be unclean.
 15. And the priest shall look at the raw flesh and pronounce him unclean. The raw flesh is unclean; it is leprosy.
 16. But should the raw flesh change again, and be turned white, then he shall go to the priest,
 17. and when the priest looks at him, and behold, the plague is turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him who has the plague clean; he is clean.
- ¶18. “And flesh that had in its skin a boil and it healed,
19. but in the place of the boil is a white swelling or a bright, reddish-white spot, shall be shown to the priest.
 20. And when the priest looks, and behold, its appearance is deeper than the skin, and its hair has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a plague of leprosy broken out from the boil.
 21. But if the priest looks at it, and behold, there is no white hair in it, and it is not lower than the skin, and it is faded, then the priest shall shut him up seven days,
 22. and if it spreads further in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a plague.
 23. But if the bright spot stays in its place and does not spread, it is an inflammation of the boil, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.
 24. Or flesh that has in its skin a fiery burning, and the burning tissue has a bright reddish-white or white spot,
 25. then the priest shall look at it, and behold, if hair has turned white in the bright spot, and it is in appearance deeper than the skin, it is leprosy broken out from the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the plague of leprosy.
 26. But if the priest look at it, and behold, there is no white hair in the bright spot, and it is not lower than the skin and is faded, then the priest shall shut him up seven days.
 27. And the priest shall look at him on the seventh day. If it has spread further in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the plague of leprosy.
 28. But if the bright spot stays in its place and does not spread in the skin and is faded, it is a swelling from the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean for it is inflammation from the burn.

- ¶29. "When a man or a woman has a blemish on the head or beard,
30. then the priest shall look at the blemish, and behold, it is in appearance deeper than the skin, and within it there is thin, yellow hair, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a scall. It is leprosy of the head or beard.
 31. But if the priest look at the blemish of the scall, and behold, it is not in appearance deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall shut up him who has the blemish of the scall seven days.
 32. And the priest shall look at the blemish on the seventh day, and behold, the scall has not spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the scall is not in appearance deeper than the skin,
 33. then he shall shave himself, but the scall shall he not shave, and the priest shall shut up him who has the scall seven days, a second time.
 34. And the priest shall look at the scall on the seventh day, and behold, if the scall has not spread in the skin, and if it is not in appearance deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean, and he shall wash his clothes and be clean.
 35. But if the scall spreads further in the skin after his purifying,
 36. then the priest shall look at him, and behold, if the blemish has spread in the skin, the priest shall not check for the yellow hair, he is unclean.
 37. But if the scall is unchanged and black hair has grown in it, the scall is healed; he is clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.
 38. When a man or a woman have bright spots, bright white spots, in the skin of their flesh,
 39. then the priest shall look, and behold, if the bright spots in the skin of their flesh are a faded white; it is a tetter broken out in the skin; he is clean.
 40. And when a man's head is bare, he is bald. He is clean.
 41. And if the forefront of his head is bare; he has a bald forehead. He is clean.
 42. But when there is a reddish-white blemish in the baldness or in the bald forehead, it is leprosy broken out in his baldness or his forehead.
 43. Then the priest shall look at him, and behold, the swelling of the plague be reddish-white in his baldness or his forehead, like the appearance of leprosy in the skin of the flesh,
 44. he is a leprous man; he is unclean. The priest shall certainly pronounce him unclean; his plague is on his head.
 45. And the leper who has the plague, his clothes shall be torn in pieces, and his head kept uncovered, and he shall cover over the lip and shall cry out, "Unclean! Unclean!"
 46. He shall be unclean all the days that the plague is in him; he is unclean. He shall dwell alone. His dwelling-place shall be outside of the camp.
 47. And the garment that has the plague of leprosy in it, in a woolen garment or in a linen garment,
 48. whether in the warp or weft of the linen or the wool, or in a skin, or in anything made of skin,

49. and the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment or in the skin, or in the warp, or in the weft, or in any vessel of skin; it is the plague of leprosy. It shall be shown to the priest.
50. And the priest shall look at the plague, and shut up the plague seven days.
51. And he shall look at the plague on the seventh day. If the plague has spread in the garment, or in the warp, or in the weft, or in the skin, or in any article that is made of skin, the plague is a pernicious leprosy; it is unclean.
52. He shall burn up the garment, whether the warp or the weft in the woolen or in the linen article, or in any vessel of skin that has in it the plague, for it is a pernicious leprosy. It shall be burned up in the fire.
53. But if the priest look, and behold, the plague has not spread in the garment, or in the warp or in the weft, or in any vessel of skin,
54. the priest shall give command, and they shall wash the thing that has the plague in it, and he shall shut it up seven days a second time.
55. And the priest shall look at the plague after it has been washed, and behold, if the plague has not changed its appearance, and the plague has not spread, it is unclean. You shall burn it up in the fire. It is eaten up on its back or on its front.
56. But if the priest look, and behold, the plague has faded after it was washed, then he shall tear it from the garment, or from the skin, or from the warp, or from the weft.
57. But if it still be seen in the garment, or in the warp, or in the weft, or in any vessel of skin, it is spreading. You shall burn up with fire that in which is the plague.
58. But the garment, or the warp, or the weft, or any vessel of skin that you wash and the plague is gone from them shall then be washed a second time, and it shall be clean.
59. This is the law of a plague of leprosy in a garment of wool, or linen, or warp, or weft, or any vessel of skin, to pronounce it clean or pronounce it unclean.

Leviticus 14

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. "This shall be the law for the leper in the day of his cleansing: When he is brought to the priest,
 3. then the priest will come out, outside of the camp, and the priest shall look, and behold, if the plague of leprosy is healed in the leper,
 4. then the priest shall give command, and he shall fetch two clean, living birds for the cleansing, with cedar wood, and bright scarlet, and hyssop.
 5. And the priest shall give command, and he shall kill one bird in an earthen vessel over running water.
 6. As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the bright scarlet, and the hyssop, and he shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water.
 7. And he shall sprinkle it on him who is to be cleansed from leprosy seven times and pronounce him clean. Then he shall let the living bird go free in the open field.

8. And the cleansed man shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and bathe in the water, and he will be clean. Then, afterward, he will come into the camp, but he shall stay out of his tent for seven days.
 9. And it shall be that on the seventh day, he will shave off all the hair from his head, and his beard, and his eyebrows. Even all his hair shall he shave off, and he shall wash his clothes and bathe his flesh in the water, and he will be clean.
 10. And on the eighth day, he shall take two unblemished male lambs, and one unblemished ewe lamb a year old, and three tenth-parts of fine flour for a grain offering mixed with oil, and one log of oil.
 11. And the priest who is pronouncing him clean shall set the man who is to be cleansed and the things for the offering before Jehovah at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
 12. And the priest shall take one of the male lambs and offer it for a guilt offering, and the log of oil, and he shall wave them as a wave offering before Jehovah.
 13. And he shall kill the male lamb at the place where he kills the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the holy place, for, like the sin offering, the guilt offering is for the priest. It is most holy.
 14. And the priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering, and the priest shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.
 15. And the priest shall take some of the log of oil, and he shall pour it into the palm of the priest's left hand.
 16. And the priest shall dip the finger of his right hand into some of the oil that is in his left palm, and he shall sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before Jehovah.
 17. And then the priest shall put some of the oil that is left in his palm on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, over the blood of the guilt offering.
 18. And the rest of the oil that is in the priest's palm, he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, and the priest shall make atonement for him before Jehovah.
 19. And the priest shall offer the sin offering, and make atonement for him who is to be cleansed from his uncleanness, and afterward he shall kill the burnt offering.
 20. And the priest shall bring the burnt offering and the grain offering to the altar, and the priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be cleansed.
- ¶21. “But if he is poor and cannot afford that, then he shall bring one male lamb for a guilt offering to be waved to make atonement for him, and one tenth-part of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, and a log of oil,
22. and two turtledoves or two young doves, whichever he obtains, and one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering.
 23. And he shall bring them on the eighth day for his cleansing to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting before Jehovah.
 24. And the priest shall take the lamb of the guilt offering, with the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before Jehovah.

25. And he shall slaughter the lamb of the guilt offering, and the priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering and shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.
26. And then the priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of the priest's left hand,
27. and with the finger of his right hand, the priest shall sprinkle some of the oil that is in his left palm seven times before Jehovah.
28. And the priest shall put some of the oil that is in his palm on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the place of the blood of the guilt offering.
29. And the rest of the oil that is in the priest's palm, he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed to make atonement for him before Jehovah.
30. And with one of the turtledoves or of the young doves that he obtained, he shall make,
31. with whichever he was able to obtain, the one a sin offering and the other a burnt offering, with the grain offering. And the priest shall make atonement for him who is to be cleansed before Jehovah.
32. This is the law for him who has the plague of leprosy who cannot afford the other for his cleansing."

- ¶33. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, and to Aaron, saying,
34. "When you come into the land of Canaan which I am giving to you for a possession, and I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession,
 35. then he whose house it is shall come and tell the priest, saying, 'Some plague appears to me to be in the house.'
 36. Then the priest shall give command, and they shall empty the house before the priest comes to inspect the plague, so that not everything that is in the house will be made unclean. And after that, the priest shall come to inspect the house.
 37. And he shall look at the plague, and behold, if the plague in the walls of the house consists of greenish or reddish spots, and their appearance is deeper than the wall,
 38. then the priest shall go out of the house, to the entrance of the house, and he shall cause the house to be shut up seven days.
 39. And the priest shall return on the seventh day and look, and behold, if the plague has spread in the walls of the house,
 40. then the priest shall give command, and they shall take down the stones in which is the plague and throw them into an unclean place outside of the city.
 41. And he will cause the house to be scraped within all around, and they shall pour out the debris that is scraped off at an unclean place outside of the city.
 42. And they shall take other stones and bring them instead of those stones, and he shall take other mortar and plaster the house.
- ¶43. "But if the plague returns and breaks out in the house after he took away the stones, and after the scraping of the house, and after it was plastered,

44. then the priest shall come and inspect it, and behold, the plague has spread in the house, it is a pernicious leprosy in the house. It is unclean.
 45. And he shall tear down the house, its stones, and its timbers, and all the mortar of the house, and he shall take it out to an unclean place outside of the city.
 46. Also, whoever goes into the house on any of the days that he closed it up shall be unclean until evening.
 47. And whoever lies in the house shall wash his clothes, and whoever eats in the house shall wash his clothes.
- ¶48. “But when the priest comes and inspects the house, and behold, the plague has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean because the plague has been healed.
49. Then, to cleanse the house, he shall take two birds, and cedar wood, and bright scarlet, and hyssop.
 50. And he shall kill one bird in an earthen vessel over running water.
 51. And he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the bright scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and he shall sprinkle the house seven times.
 52. So shall he cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the bright scarlet.
 53. And he shall release the living bird outside the city in the open field. So shall he make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean.
 54. This is the law concerning every plague of leprosy, and scall,
 55. and for leprosy of clothing, and of a house,
 56. and for a swelling, and for a scab, and for a bright spot,
 57. for direction in the day of uncleanness and in the day of cleanliness. This is the law of leprosy.”

Leviticus 15

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
2. “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, ‘Any man that has a discharge from his flesh, he is unclean by reason of his discharge.
3. And this shall be his uncleanness in his discharge, whether his flesh is flowing with his discharge or his flesh has sealed up because of his discharge, it is his uncleanness.
4. Every bed that he with the discharge lies on shall be unclean, and any object that he sits on shall be unclean.
5. And whoever touches his bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water. And he shall be unclean until evening.
6. And he who sits on any object upon which he who has the discharge has sat shall wash his clothes and bathe in water. And he shall be unclean until evening.

7. And he who touches the flesh of him who has the discharge shall wash his clothes and bathe in water. And he shall be unclean until evening.
 8. And if he who has the discharge spit on a clean person, then he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water. And he shall be unclean until evening.
 9. And any seat upon which he who has the discharge rides shall be unclean.
 10. And whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until evening. And he who takes them away shall wash his clothes and bathe in water. And he shall be unclean until evening.
 11. And whoever touches him who has the discharge and does not rinse his hands in water shall also wash his clothes and bathe in water. And he shall be unclean until evening.
 12. And an earthen vessel that touches him who has the discharge shall be broken, and every wooden vessel shall be rinsed in water.
 13. And when he who has the discharge is cleansed from his discharge, then he shall number for himself seven days for his cleansing. And he shall wash his clothes and bathe his flesh in running water and shall be clean.
 14. And on the eighth day, he shall take for himself two turtle doves or two young doves, and he shall come before Jehovah at the entrance of the tent of meeting and give them to the priest.
 15. And the priest shall make of one of them a sin offering and of the other a burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement for him before Jehovah for his discharge.
- ¶16. “And if a man’s seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall bathe all his flesh in water, and he shall be unclean until evening.
17. And every garment and any hide upon which seed of copulation has come shall also be washed in water and shall be unclean until evening.
 18. And as for when a man lies with a woman and there is seed of copulation, they shall also bathe in water and shall be unclean until evening.
- ¶19. “And when any woman has a discharge of blood, the discharge will be in her body for seven days; she shall be in her separation, and anyone who touches her shall be unclean until evening.
20. And anything that she lies on during her separation shall be unclean, and anything she sits on shall be unclean.
 21. And anyone who touches her bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and he shall be unclean until evening.
 22. And anyone who touches any object upon which she sits shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and he shall be unclean until evening.
 23. And whether it is on the bed or on the thing upon which she has been sitting, when he touches it, he shall be unclean until evening.
 24. And if a man actually lies with her so that her impurity is on him, then he shall be unclean for seven days, and any bed that he lies on shall be unclean.

- ¶25. “And when a woman has a discharge of her blood for many days not at the time of her separation, or when she has a discharge beyond her time of separation, all the days of the discharge of her uncleanness shall be as in the days of her separation. She shall be unclean.
26. Any bed on which she lies, on any of the days of her discharge, shall be for her like the bed of her separation, and any object upon which she sits shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her separation.
27. And anyone who touches them shall be unclean, and he shall wash his garments and bathe in water, and he shall be unclean until evening.
28. But when she is cleansed from her discharge, then she shall count for herself seven days, and after that, she shall be clean.
29. And on the eighth day, she shall take for herself two turtle doves or two young doves, and she shall bring them to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
30. And the priest shall offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement for her before Jehovah for the discharge of her uncleanness.
31. And you shall separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, and they will not die in their uncleanness when they defile my tabernacle that is in their midst.
- ¶32. “This is the law for him who has a discharge, and whose seed of copulation goes out from him to make him unclean,
33. and the menstruating woman in her separation, and the one who has a discharge, whether male or female, and for a man when he lies with an unclean woman.”

Leviticus 16

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron when they came before Jehovah and died.
2. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Speak to Aaron your brother that he not come at all times into the holy place within the veil, before the mercy-seat that is on the ark, so that he not die, for I appear in the cloud over the mercy-seat.
3. In this manner shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a bullock from the herd for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.
4. He shall put on the holy linen tunic, and linen undergarments shall be against his flesh, and he shall gird himself with the linen sash and put on the linen turban. They are holy garments, and he shall bathe his flesh in water and then put them on.
5. And from the congregation of the children of Israel, he shall take two males from the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.
6. And Aaron shall offer the bullock for the sin offering that is for himself, and make atonement for himself and for his house.
7. And then he shall take the two goats and present them before Jehovah at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

8. And Aaron shall cast lots for the two goats, one lot for Jehovah, and the other lot for Azazel.
 9. And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the lot for Jehovah fell, and he shall offer it as a sin offering.
 10. And the goat upon which the lot for Azazel fell shall be presented alive before Jehovah to make atonement with it, that it may be driven away into the wilderness for Azazel.
 11. And Aaron shall bring the bullock for the sin offering that is for himself, and make atonement for himself and for his house. And he shall slaughter the bullock for the sin offering that is for himself.
 12. And he shall take a fire-pan full of coals from the fire on the altar before Jehovah, and his hands full of pungent incense ground fine, and he shall bring it within the veil.
 13. And he shall put the incense on the fire before Jehovah, and the cloud of incense will cover the mercy-seat that is over the testimony so that he does not die.
 14. And he shall take some of the blood of the bullock and sprinkle it with his finger on the front of the mercy-seat eastward, and he shall sprinkle with his finger some of the blood before the mercy-seat seven times.
- ¶15. “Then he shall slaughter the goat of the sin offering that is for the people and bring its blood within the veil. And he shall do with its blood just as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it on the mercy-seat and before the mercy-seat.
16. And he shall make atonement for the holy place because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel and because of their transgressions in all their sins. And thus shall he do for the tent of meeting that is present with them in the midst of their uncleanness.
 17. And there shall be no man in the tent of meeting when he goes in to make atonement in the holy place until he comes out and has made the atonement for himself and for his house, and for all the Assembly of Israel.
 18. Then he shall go out to the altar that is before Jehovah, and he shall make atonement for it. And he shall take some of the blood of the bullock, and some of the blood of the goat, and put it on the horns of the altar all around.
 19. And he shall sprinkle with his finger some of the blood on it seven times, and cleanse it and sanctify it because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel.
 20. When he has finished making atonement for the holy place, and the tent of meeting, and the altar, then he shall bring the live goat.
 21. And Aaron shall lay his two hands on the head of the live goat and confess all the iniquities of the children of Israel over it, and all their transgressions in all their sins, and he shall put them on the head of the goat. And then he shall send it away by the hand of a ready man into the wilderness.
 22. And the goat will bear on itself all their iniquities to a separated land, and he shall send the goat away into the wilderness.
 23. Then Aaron shall come into the tent of meeting and take off the linen garments that he put on when he went into the holy place, and he shall lay them there.

24. And he shall bathe his flesh in water in the holy place and put on his garments. Then he shall come out and make his burnt offering and the burnt offering for the people, and he shall make atonement for himself and for the people.
 25. And the fat of the sin offering, he shall burn on the altar.
 26. And he that drove away the goat for Azazel shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and after this, he may come into the camp.
 27. And the bullock of the sin offering and the goat of the sin offering whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, he shall carry outside of the camp, and they shall burn up their hides, and their flesh, and their dung with fire.
 28. And the one who burns them up shall wash his clothes and bathe his flesh in water, and after this, he may come into the camp.
- ¶29. “And it shall be a statute for you forever: in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall afflict your soul, and you shall do no work, both the native-born and the stranger who sojourns among you.
30. For on this day, he shall make atonement for you before Jehovah to cleanse you from all your sins, that you may be clean.
 31. A sabbath of rest shall it be for you, and you shall afflict your souls; it is a statute forever.
 32. And the priest whom he shall anoint and whom he shall ordain to act as priest in his father’s stead shall make the atonement, and he shall put on the linen garments, the holy garments,
 33. and when he has made atonement for the holy sanctuary, and for the tent of meeting, and for the altar, he shall also make atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the Assembly shall he make atonement.
 34. And this shall be an everlasting statute for you, to atone for all the sins of the children of Israel once a year.” And he did just as Jehovah commanded Moses.

Leviticus 17

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. “Speak to Aaron and to his sons and all the people of Israel, and say to them, ‘This is the thing which Jehovah has commanded me to say:
3. Any man of the house of Israel who slaughters an ox, or a sheep, or a goat in the camp, or who slaughters them outside the camp,
4. and does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting and offer it as a gift to Jehovah before Jehovah’s dwelling place, blood shall be imputed to that man. He has shed blood, and that man shall be cut off from among his people,
5. to the end that the sons of Israel bring their sacrifices which they are offering in the open field, and bring them to Jehovah at the entrance of the tent of meeting to the priest, and offer them as a peace offering to Jehovah.

6. And the priest shall throw the blood against the altar of Jehovah at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and he shall make the fat to smoke for a placating aroma to Jehovah.
 7. And they shall no longer offer their sacrifices to goat demons, with which they committed whoredom. An everlasting statute shall this be for them, throughout their generations.'
 8. And you shall say to them, 'Any man of the house of Israel or any stranger who dwells among them who offers up a burnt offering or sacrifice,
 9. and does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting to offer it to Jehovah, then that man shall be cut off from his people.'
- ¶10. "And if any man of the house of Israel or of any stranger who dwells among them consumes any kind of blood, I will set my face against that soul who consumes the blood, and I will cut him off from among his people.
11. For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you to make atonement upon the altar for your souls, for it is the blood that makes atonement for a soul.
 12. That is why I said to the children of Israel, 'No person among you may eat blood, nor may the sojourner who is sojourning among you eat blood.'
 13. And every man of the sons of Israel or of the strangers that sojourn among you who hunts, a hunter of beast or flying creature that may be eaten, shall certainly pour out its blood and cover it with earth.
 14. For the life of all flesh is its blood; it is for its life. That is why I said to the children of Israel, 'The blood of all flesh shall you not eat,' for the life of all flesh is its blood; all who eat it shall be cut off.
- ¶15. "And any soul who eats of a carcass or a torn animal, both the native-born and the stranger, shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and he shall be unclean until evening; then he shall be clean.
16. But if he does not wash his clothes and bathe his flesh, then he shall bear his iniquity."

Leviticus 18

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. "Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'I am Jehovah your God.
3. You shall not do as is done in the land of Egypt where you dwelt, nor shall you do as is done in the land of Canaan to which I bring you, neither shall you live according to their statutes.
4. You shall carry out my judgments and keep my statutes, to walk in them. I am Jehovah your God.
5. You must keep my statutes and my judgments, for the man who does them shall also live by them. I am Jehovah.
6. None of you shall approach any close relative to uncover their nakedness. I am Jehovah.

7. The nakedness of your father, that is, the nakedness of your mother, shall you not uncover; she is your mother. You shall not uncover her nakedness.
8. The nakedness of your father's wife shall you not uncover; it is your father's nakedness.
9. The nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father or the daughter of your mother, whether born at home or born abroad, you shall not uncover their nakedness.
10. The nakedness of your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter, you shall not uncover their nakedness, for they are your own nakedness.
11. The nakedness of a daughter of the wife of your father, begotten by your father—she is your sister—you shall not uncover her nakedness.
12. The nakedness of your father's sister shall you not uncover; she is your father's relative.
13. The nakedness of your mother's sister shall you not uncover, for she is your mother's relative.
14. The nakedness of your father's brother shall you not uncover. You shall not approach his wife; she is your aunt.
15. The nakedness of your daughter-in-law shall you not uncover; she is your son's wife. You shall not uncover her nakedness.
16. The nakedness of your brother's wife shall you not uncover; it is your brother's nakedness.
17. The nakedness of a woman and her daughter shall you not uncover. Neither shall you take a daughter of her son or a daughter of her daughter to uncover her nakedness; they are her kin. It is depravity.
18. Neither shall you take a woman in addition to her sister, to be a rival, to uncover her nakedness besides the other's during her lifetime.
19. And you shall not approach a woman to uncover her nakedness during the separation for her uncleanness.
20. And you shall not give your seed of copulation to a wife of your neighbor, to be defiled with her.
21. And you shall not permit any of your seed to pass through the fire to Molech, that you do not profane the name of your God. I am Jehovah.
22. You shall not lie with a male as men lie with a woman. It is an abomination.
23. And you shall not lie with any beast to be defiled with it, and neither shall a woman stand before a beast to lie with it; it is confusion.
24. Do not defile yourselves by any of these things, for by all these, the nations which I am driving out from before you are defiled.
25. And the land is defiled, and I will visit its iniquity upon it, and the land will vomit out its inhabitants.
26. But you shall keep my statutes and my judgments, and you shall not do any of these abominations, neither the native born or the stranger who sojourns among you

27. (for all these abominations have the men of the land who were before you done, and the land is defiled),
28. that the land not vomit you out, should you defile it, as it vomited out the nation that was before you.
29. For whoever does any of these abominations, the souls that do them shall surely be cut off from the midst of their people.
30. Therefore, you shall keep my charge to not do any of these abominable customs which have been done before you, that you not defile yourselves with them. I am Jehovah your God.”

Leviticus 19

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. “Speak to the whole congregation of the children of Israel, and say to them, ‘You shall be holy because I Jehovah your God am holy.
3. Every one of you shall fear his mother and his father, and my sabbaths you shall keep. I am Jehovah your God.
4. Do not turn to idols or make for yourselves molten gods. I am Jehovah your God.
5. And when you make a sacrifice of peace offerings to Jehovah, you must offer it of your own will.
6. It must be eaten on the day of your sacrifice or on the following day, but what remains until the third day shall be burned up in the fire.
7. And if any of it is eaten on the third day, it is unclean; it will not be accepted.
8. And everyone who eats it shall bear his iniquity because he profaned Jehovah’s holy thing, and that soul shall be cut off from his people.
9. And when you reap a harvest in your land, you shall not completely reap the edge of your field, and the gleaning of your harvest you shall not gather.
10. And you shall not glean your vineyard, nor shall you gather fallen grapes from your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and for the stranger. I am Jehovah your God.
11. You shall not steal, and you shall not deal falsely, and none of you shall lie to his fellow.
12. And you shall not swear falsely by my name, and you shall not profane the name of your God. I am Jehovah.
13. You shall not oppress your fellow, nor shall you rob him. The wages of a hired worker shall not remain with you until morning.
14. You shall not curse a deaf man, nor shall you put a stumbling block before a blind man, but you shall fear before your God. I am Jehovah.
15. You shall do no injustice in judgment. You shall neither be partial to a poor man nor show deference to a great man; with righteousness shall you judge your fellow.

16. You shall not go about as a slanderer among your people. You shall not stand against the blood of your fellow. I am Jehovah.
 17. You shall not hate your brother in your heart; you shall plainly reprove your fellow, lest you bear sin because of him.
 18. You shall not take vengeance nor hold anything against the children of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself. I am Jehovah.
 19. You shall keep my statutes. You shall not cause two kinds of your beasts to mate; you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed; nor shall clothing of two kinds of material be put on you.
 - ¶20. "And when a man lies carnally with a woman, and she is a slave designated for a man, but she has not at all been redeemed, nor has freedom been given to her, inquiry shall be made. They shall not be put to death if she was not free.
 21. But he shall bring his guilt offering to Jehovah, to the entrance of the tent of meeting, a ram for a guilt offering.
 22. And the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of guilt offering before Jehovah for his sin that he committed, and he shall be forgiven of his sin that he committed.
 - ¶23. "And when you come into the land and plant any tree for food, then you shall consider its fruit as uncircumcised. For three years it shall be uncircumcised to you; it shall not be eaten.
 24. But in the fourth year, all its fruit shall be holy, offerings of praise to Jehovah.
 25. Then in the fifth year, you may eat its fruit, that its yield may increase for you. I am Jehovah your God.
 26. You shall not eat anything with the blood. You shall not practice divination, nor shall you practice soothsaying.
 27. You shall not round off the sides of your head, nor shall you mar the sides of your beard.
 28. And you shall make no cutting in your flesh for the dead, nor shall you make a permanent mark on yourselves. I am Jehovah.
 29. You shall not defile your daughter by making her a prostitute, that the land not fall into whoredom, and the land be filled with licentiousness.
 30. You shall keep my sabbaths and reverence my sanctuary. I am Jehovah.
 31. You shall not turn to mediums nor seek after soothsayers, to be defiled by them. I am Jehovah your God.
 32. You shall stand up at the presence of a grey head and honor the face of an old man, and you shall fear before your God. I am Jehovah.
- ¶33. "And if a stranger sojourn with you in your land, you shall not maltreat him.

34. The stranger that sojourns with you shall be to you as one native born among you, and you shall love him as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. I am Jehovah your God.
35. You shall do no injustice in judgment, in measurement, in weight, or in portioning.
36. Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin shall you have. I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt.
37. And you shall keep all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them. I am Jehovah.”

Leviticus 20

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. “Say also to the children of Israel, ‘Any man, whether of the sons of Israel or a stranger who is sojourning in Israel, who gives of his offspring to Molech shall surely be put to death; the people of the land shall stone him with stones.
3. And I will set my face against that man and cut him off from the midst of his people because he gave of his offspring to Molech to defile my sanctuary and to profane my holy name.
4. And if the people of the land ever hide their eyes from that man when he gives his offspring to Molech, so as not to put him to death,
5. then I will set my face against that man and against his family, and I will cut him off and any who commit whoredom with him to go whoring after Molech from the midst of their people.
6. And the soul who turns to mediums, or to soothsayers, to go whoring with them, I will also set my face against that soul, and I will cut him off from the midst of his people.
7. Therefore, sanctify yourselves, and be holy because I, Jehovah, am your God,
8. and you shall keep my statutes and do them. I am Jehovah who sanctifies you.
9. Any man whatsoever who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death. His father and his mother he has cursed. His blood shall be upon him.
10. If a man commits adultery with the wife of a man, inasmuch as he has committed adultery with the wife of his neighbor, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.
11. If a man lies with his father’s wife, he has uncovered the nakedness of his father. Both of them shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be upon them.
12. If a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death. They have done a perverse thing. Their blood shall be upon them.
13. If a man lies with a male, as men lie with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be upon them.
14. If a man takes a woman and her mother, it is wickedness. Both him and them shall they burn up with fire, that there be no wickedness in your midst.

15. If a man gives his copulation to a beast, he shall surely be put to death, and you shall kill the beast.
 16. If a woman approaches any beast to lie with it, then you shall kill the woman and the beast. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be upon them.
 17. If a man takes his sister, his father's daughter or his mother's daughter, and sees her nakedness, and she sees his nakedness, it is a shameful thing, and they shall be cut off in the sight of the children of their people. He uncovered the nakedness of his sister; he shall bear his iniquity.
 18. If a man lie with a menstruating woman and uncovers her nakedness, he has exposed her flow, and she has uncovered the flow of her blood. Both of them shall be cut off from the midst of their people.
 19. And the nakedness of your mother's sister or your father's sister, you shall not uncover, for it exposes his relative. They shall bear their iniquity.
 20. If a man lies with his aunt, he uncovers his uncle's nakedness. They shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.
 21. If a man takes his brother's wife, it is a filthy thing. He has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.
- ¶22. “Now, you shall keep all my statutes and all my judgments, and do them, so that the land to which I am bringing you to dwell in does not vomit you out.
23. And do not walk in the statutes of the nation that I am casting out before you, for they have done all these things, and I abhor them.
 24. But I have said to you, ‘You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey.’ I am Jehovah your God, who has separated you from the nations.
 25. Therefore, you shall separate the clean and the unclean beasts, and the clean and the unclean flying creature, and you shall not make your souls detestable with any beast, or with any flying creature, or with anything that swarms on the ground which I have separated from you as unclean.
 26. And you shall be holy to me, for I Jehovah am holy, and I have separated you from the nations to be mine.
 27. And a man or a woman among them that is a medium or soothsayer shall surely be put to death. They shall stone them with stones. Their blood shall be upon them.”

Leviticus 21

- ¶1. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them, ‘No one shall defile himself for a dead person among his people,
2. except for a relative that is near to him, for his mother, or for his father, or for his son, or for his daughter, or for his brother,

3. or for his sister who is a virgin that is near to him who does not have a husband. For these, he may defile himself.
4. He shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to pollute himself.
5. They shall not make baldness on their head, nor shall they shave the sides of their beard, nor make a cutting in their flesh.
6. They shall be holy to their God and shall not profane the name of their God, for they offer the offerings of Jehovah made by fire, the bread of their God; therefore, they shall be holy.
7. They shall not take a whore or a defiled woman as a wife, nor shall they take a woman divorced from her husband, for he is holy to his God.'
8. And you shall consecrate him, for he offers the bread of your God. He shall be holy to you because I, Jehovah, who sanctifies you am holy.
9. If the daughter of a man who is a priest is defiled by playing the whore, she has profaned her father; she shall be burned up by fire.
10. And the high priest among his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil was poured, and who is ordained to put on the garments shall not unbind his head nor rend his garments.
11. And he shall not go in to any dead bodies; even for his father or his mother, he shall not defile himself.
12. And he shall not go out from the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God, for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is upon him. I am Jehovah.
13. And he must take a wife in her virginity.
14. A widow, or a divorced woman, or a defiled woman, a harlot—these shall he not take, but only a virgin from among his people shall he take as a wife.
15. Yea, he shall not profane his seed among his people, for I am Jehovah who sanctifies him.””

¶16. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

17. “Speak to Aaron, saying, ‘Any of your offspring in their generations in whom there is a blemish shall not approach to offer the bread of his God.
18. For no man in whom there is a blemish shall approach: a blind man, or lame, or disfigured, or deformed,
19. or one who has a maimed foot, or a maimed hand,
20. or a hunchback, or a dwarf, or a defect in his eye, or the itch, or a scab, or a damaged testicle,
21. No man of the seed of Aaron the priest who has a blemish shall come near to offer the offerings of Jehovah made by fire. He has a blemish; he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God.
22. He may eat the bread of his God, both the most holy and the holy,
23. but he shall not go in through the veil, nor shall he come near to the altar, for he has a blemish. He shall not profane my sanctuaries, for I am Jehovah who sanctifies them.””

24. And Moses spoke to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel.

Leviticus 22

¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2. "Speak to Aaron and to his sons concerning when they should separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, which they consecrate to me, lest they profane my holy name. I am Jehovah."
3. Say to them, 'Throughout your generations, any man among all your seed who approaches the holy things which the children of Israel consecrate to Jehovah when his uncleanness is upon him, that soul shall be cut off from before me. I am Jehovah.'
4. Any man of the seed of Aaron who is a leper or has a discharge, shall not eat of the holy things until he is clean. And whoever touches any unclean person, or a man whose seed of copulation goes out from him,
5. or a man who touches any swarming thing which made him unclean, or a man who makes him unclean through any of his uncleanness,
6. the soul who touches such a one shall be unclean until the evening, and he shall not eat of the holy things unless he bathe his flesh in water.
7. And when the sun is set, then he shall be clean, and afterward, he may eat of the holy things, for it is his food.
8. A carcass or an animal torn by beasts, he shall not eat, to be defiled by it. I am Jehovah.
9. And they shall keep my charge, lest they bear sin on account of it and die for it, since those have defiled him. I am Jehovah who sanctifies them.
10. And no stranger shall eat a holy thing; neither the guest of a priest nor a hired man shall eat a holy thing.
11. But if a priest buys a person, a purchase with his own money, he may eat of it, and one born in his house; they may eat of his food.
12. And if a daughter of a priest marries a man who is a stranger, she may not eat a portion of the holy things.
13. But if a daughter of a priest be a widow, or be divorced, and she has no child, and she has returned to her father's house as in her youth, she may eat from her father's food; but no stranger shall eat of it.
14. And if a man eat a holy thing unintentionally, then he shall add a fifth part to it and give it to the priest, along with the price of the holy thing.
15. Thus shall they not profane the holy things of the children of Israel which they lift up to Jehovah,
16. nor cause them to bear the iniquity of guilt when they eat their holy things, for I am Jehovah who sanctifies them."

¶17. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

18. "Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them, 'When any man of the house of Israel or the stranger in Israel brings his offering for any of their vows, or for any of their freewill offerings, that they offer to Jehovah as a burnt offering,
19. for you to be acceptable, it must be without blemish, a male from the herd, of the sheep, or of the goats.
20. Any that has a blemish, you shall not offer, for it will not be acceptable for you.
21. And when a man offers from the herd or the flock a sacrifice of peace offerings to Jehovah for an exceptional vow or for a freewill offering, it shall be perfect to be acceptable; there shall be no blemish in it.
22. Any blind, or broken, or mutilated, or having a sore, or itch, or scab, these you shall not offer to Jehovah, nor shall you make an offering by fire with them on the altar to Jehovah.
23. (But as for an ox or a lamb that is enlarged or stunted, you may offer it as a freewill offering, but it will not be accepted for a vow.)
24. Nor shall you offer the bruised, or crushed, or torn, or cut to Jehovah. You shall not do so in your land.
25. And you shall not offer any of these from the hand of a foreigner as the bread of your God because their corruption is in them; a blemish is in them. They will not be accepted for you."

¶26. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

27. "When an calf, or a sheep, or a goat is born, then it shall be seven days with its mother. Then, from the eighth day and onward it is acceptable for an offering made by fire to Jehovah.
28. Also, you shall not kill a cow or a ewe with its young on the same day.
29. And when you make a sacrifice for thanksgiving to Jehovah, you shall sacrifice it of your own will.
30. On that day it must be eaten; you shall not leave any of it until the morning. I am Jehovah.
31. And you shall keep my commandments and do them. I am Jehovah.
32. And you shall not profane my holy name, but I will be sanctified among the children of Israel. I am Jehovah who sanctifies you,
33. who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God. I am Jehovah."

Leviticus 23

¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2. "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, 'The appointed times of Jehovah which you shall proclaim are holy convocations; they are my appointed times.

3. Six days shall work be done, and on the seventh day is a sabbath of rest, a holy convocation; you shall do no work at all. It shall be a sabbath to Jehovah in all your dwellings.

¶4. “These are the appointed times of Jehovah, holy convocations that you shall proclaim in their appointed season:

5. In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at twilight, is the Passover to Jehovah.
6. And on the fifteenth day of that month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to Jehovah; you shall eat unleavened bread seven days.
7. The first day shall be a holy convocation for you; you shall do no servile work.
8. And you shall offer an offering made by fire to Jehovah seven days. On the seventh day shall be a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work.”

¶9. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

10. “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, ‘When you have come in to the land that I am giving to you, and you reap its harvest, then you shall bring a sheaf from the first of your harvest to the priest.
11. And he shall wave the sheaf before Jehovah for you to be accepted; on the day following the Sabbath, the priest shall wave it.
12. And on the day that you wave the sheaf, you shall offer a year-old lamb without blemish as a burnt offering to Jehovah.
13. And its grain offering shall be two tenth-parts of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering made by fire to Jehovah, a placating aroma, and its drink offering shall be wine, a fourth-part of a hin.
14. And you shall not eat bread, nor parched grain, nor fresh ears until that same day, until you have brought the offering of your God; it is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

¶15. “And you shall count for yourselves from the day following the Sabbath, from the day you bring the sheaf of the wave offering, seven Sabbaths; they shall be complete weeks.

16. To the day following the seventh Sabbath, you shall count fifty days. Then you shall offer a new grain offering to Jehovah.
17. From your dwellings, you shall bring out two loaves for the wave offering. They shall be of two tenth-parts of fine flour, baked with leaven, firstfruits to Jehovah.
18. And with the bread, you shall offer seven lambs, a year-old, without blemish, and one bullock from the herd, and two rams; they shall be a burnt offering to Jehovah, with their grain offerings, and their drink offerings, an offering made by fire, a placating aroma to Jehovah.

19. And you shall make a sin offering with one male from the goats, and a sacrifice of peace offerings with two lambs, a year-old.
20. And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits as a wave offering before Jehovah, with the two lambs; they are holy to Jehovah for the priest.
21. And you shall proclaim that on that same day shall be a holy convocation for you. You shall do no servile work; it is a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.
22. And when you reap a harvest from your land, you shall not completely reap the edge of your field in your reaping, and the gleaning of your harvest, you shall not gather. You shall leave them for the poor and for the stranger. I am Jehovah your God.”

¶23. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

24. “Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, there shall be a sabbath for you, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation.
25. You shall do no servile work, and you shall offer an offering made by fire to Jehovah.’”

¶26. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

27. “Also, on the tenth day of this seventh month shall be the Day of Atonements; it shall be a holy convocation for you, and you shall afflict your souls, and you shall offer an offering made by fire to Jehovah.
28. And you shall do no work that same day, for it is a day for atonements, to make atonement for you before Jehovah your God.
29. Any soul that does not afflict himself that same day shall surely be cut off from his people.
30. And any soul that does any work on that same day, that soul will I surely destroy from the midst of his people.
31. You shall do no work; it is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.
32. It shall be a sabbath of rest for you, and you shall afflict your souls. From the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening, you shall observe your sabbath.”

¶33. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

34. “Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘On the fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be a Feast of Booths, seven days unto Jehovah.
35. On the first day shall be a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work.
36. Seven days shall you offer an offering made by fire to Jehovah. The eighth day shall be a holy convocation for you, and you shall offer an offering made by fire to Jehovah. It is a solemn Assembly; you shall do no servile work.’

- ¶37. "These are the appointed times of Jehovah which you shall proclaim, holy convocations to offer an offering made by fire to Jehovah, a burnt offering and grain offering, the sacrifice and drink offerings, each on its day,
38. besides the Sabbaths of Jehovah, and besides your gifts, and besides all your vows, and besides all your freewill offerings that you give to Jehovah.
- ¶39. "Also, on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the land's harvest, you shall celebrate the feast of Jehovah seven days. On the first day shall be a Sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a Sabbath.
40. And on the first day, you shall take for yourselves foliage of beautiful trees: fronds of palm-trees, and branches of leafy trees, and willows of the brook. And you shall rejoice before Jehovah your God seven days.
41. "And you shall celebrate it as a feast to Jehovah seven days each year. It is a statute forever throughout your generations; you shall celebrate it in the seventh month.
42. You shall dwell in the booths seven days. All native-born in Israel shall dwell in the booths,
43. so that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out from the land of Egypt. I am Jehovah your God."
44. And Moses declared the appointed times of Jehovah to the children of Israel.

Leviticus 24

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. "Command the children of Israel, that they bring pure, beaten olive oil to you for the light, so that each lamp may burn continually.
3. Outside the veil of the testimony, within the tent of meeting, Aaron shall attend it continually from evening until morning before Jehovah; it is a statute forever throughout your generations.
4. He shall attend the lamps on the menorah of pure gold continually before Jehovah.
- ¶5. "And you shall take fine flour and bake twelve cakes with it; there shall be two tenth-parts in each cake.
6. And you shall set them in two rows, six in each row on the table of pure gold before Jehovah.
7. And you shall provide pure frankincense on each row, that it may be for the bread, that is, for the memorial of the offerings made by fire to Jehovah.
8. Every Sabbath day, he shall set it in order before Jehovah continually, from the offerings of the children of Israel; it is an everlasting covenant.
9. And it shall be for Aaron and for his sons, and they shall eat it in the holy place, for it is most holy to him from the offerings of Jehovah made by fire; it is a statute forever."

¶10. And the son of an Israelite woman (but he was the son of an Egyptian father), went out among the children of Israel, and the son of the Israelite woman and an Israelite man fought in the camp.

11. And the son of the Israelitish woman blasphemed the Name and cursed. And they brought him to Moses. (And his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.)

12. And they put him in custody, that the word of Jehovah might be revealed to them.

¶13. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

14. "Bring him who cursed outside of the camp, and all who heard him shall lay their hands on his head, and then the whole congregation shall stone him.

15. And you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'Any man who curses his God shall surely bear his sin.'

16. And he that blasphemes the name of Jehovah shall surely be put to death, and the whole congregation shall certainly stone him. As with the stranger, so with the native born, when he blasphemes the Name, he shall be put to death.

¶17. "And if anyone kills a man, he shall surely be put to death.

18. And he that kills a beast shall make restitution for it, life for life.

19. And if anyone causes a blemish in his neighbor, as he did, so shall it be done to him:

20. injury for injury, eye for eye, tooth for tooth. As he made a blemish in the man, so shall one be made in him.

21. And he that kills a beast shall make restitution for it, and he that kills a man shall be put to death.

22. There shall be one judgment for you. As with the stranger, so shall it be with the native born, for I am Jehovah your God."

23. And Moses spoke to the children of Israel, that they should bring the man who cursed outside the camp and stone him with stones. And the children of Israel did as Jehovah commanded Moses.

Leviticus 25

¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses at Mount Sinai, saying,

2. "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, 'When you come into the land that I am giving to you, the land shall also keep a Sabbath to Jehovah.'

3. Six years shall you sow your field, and six years shall you prune your vineyard, and gather its produce.

4. But in the seventh year shall be a Sabbath of rest for the land, a Sabbath to Jehovah: you shall neither sow your field, nor prune your vineyard.

5. You shall not harvest what grows of itself from your harvest, nor shall you gather the grapes of your untrimmed vineyards. It shall be a year of rest for the land.

6. And during the land's Sabbath, there shall be food for you, for you, and for your male slave, and for your female slave, and for your hired worker, and for your sojourner of the foreigners with you.
7. And as for your livestock and the beast that is in your land, all its yield shall be for food.
- ¶8. "And you shall count for yourself seven sabbaths of years, seven years seven times, and the days of the seven sabbaths of years shall be forty-nine years.
9. And you shall cause a shofar blast to pass throughout the land: in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, on the Day of Atonements, you shall cause a shofar blast to pass throughout all your land.
10. And you shall consecrate that year, the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout the land for all its inhabitants. It shall be a Jubilee for you, and each of you shall return to his possession, and each of you shall return to his family.
11. This fiftieth year shall be a Jubilee year for you. You shall not sow, neither shall you harvest what grows of itself in it, nor gather from its untrimmed vineyard,
12. for it is the Jubilee. It shall be holy to you. You shall eat of the yield of the field.
13. In the year of this Jubilee, each of you shall return to his possession.
14. And if you make a sale to your neighbor, or buy from your neighbor, you shall not oppress one another.
15. In proportion to the number of years after the Jubilee shall you buy from your neighbor, and in proportion to the number of years of production shall he sell to you.
16. According to the abundance of the years shall you increase its price, and according to the fewness of the years shall you reduce its price, for your selling shall be according to the number of years of production.
17. And none of you shall oppress his neighbor, but you shall fear your God, for I am Jehovah your God.
18. You shall do my statutes, and you shall keep my judgments and do them, and then you will dwell safely upon the land.
19. And the land will yield its fruit, and you will eat to the full and dwell safely in it.
20. And if you should say, 'What will we eat in the seventh year? Behold, we will neither sow, nor gather our produce',
21. I have also commanded my blessing for you in the sixth year, and it will bring forth the produce of three years.
22. And you shall sow the eighth year, but you shall eat of the old produce until the ninth year; until its produce comes in, you shall eat of the old.
23. And the land shall not be sold in perpetuity, seeing the land is mine; for you are strangers and sojourners with me.
24. And in all the land of your possession, you shall allow redemption of the land.

- ¶25. "If your brother becomes poor and sells some of his possession, and his near kinsman comes to him, then he may redeem what his brother sold.
26. And if the man has no redeemer, but he becomes able and attains the means for its redemption,
27. then let him reckon the years since its sale and return the balance to the man to whom he sold it, and return to his possession.
28. But if he cannot find the means to restore it to himself, then what he sold shall remain in the hand of him who bought it until the year of the Jubilee; then in the Jubilee, it shall go out and return to his possession.
29. And if a man sells a dwelling-house in a walled city, then its redemption may occur until a whole year passes after its sale; its redemption may occur during that time.
30. But if it is not redeemed for him before a whole year is ended, then the house that is within the walled city shall remain its buyer's in perpetuity throughout his generations; it shall not go out in the Jubilee.
31. But houses in the villages that do not have a wall round about shall be reckoned as fields of the country. You shall have the right of redemption, and it shall go out in the Jubilee.
32. But in the cities of the Levites, redemption for the Levites of the houses of the cities of their possession may occur at any time,
33. and any of the Levites may redeem it. But the house that was sold in the city of his possession shall go out in the Jubilee, for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.
34. But the open field of their cities may not be sold, for it is a perpetual possession for them.
- ¶35. "And if your brother with you becomes poor and his means fails, then you shall strengthen him, even if a stranger or a sojourner, that he may continue with you.
36. Take no interest from him, or gain, but fear your God, that your brother may continue with you.
37. Do not provide him your money on interest, nor provide him your food for profit.
38. I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, to be your God.
- ¶39. "And if your brother with you becomes poor, and sells himself to you, you shall not have him do the work of a slave.
40. He shall be with you as a hired laborer, or as a sojourner; he shall serve with you until the year of Jubilee.
41. Then he shall go out from you, he and his children with him, and he shall return to his family, and return to the possession of his fathers.
42. For they are my slaves, whom I brought out from the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as a slave is put up for sale.
43. You shall not rule over him harshly, but you shall fear your God.

44. And your male and your female slave that remain with you shall be of the nations that are round about you; from them shall you buy a male or female slave.
45. Moreover, you may buy of the children of the strangers that sojourn with you, and of their family that is with you, which they have borne in your land, and they are your possession.
46. And you shall leave them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit as a possession forever. You shall have them as slaves, but as for your brothers of the children of Israel, you shall not rule over him, one over his brother, harshly.
47. And if a stranger or a sojourner among you becomes well off, and your brother near him becomes poor and sells himself to the stranger or sojourner among you, or to descendants of the stranger's family,
48. after he sells himself, he has the right of redemption; one of his brothers may redeem him,
49. or his uncle, or his uncle's son may redeem him, or a close relative from his family may redeem him, or if he become able, then he may redeem himself.
50. And he shall reckon with his buyer from the year he was bought by him until the year of the Jubilee, and the money for his sale shall be according to the number of years, according to the days of a hired worker, shall it be for him.
51. If there are many years remaining, according to them shall he pay back the price of his redemption with the money from his purchase.
52. And if few years remain until the year of the Jubilee, then he shall reckon with him; he shall pay back his redemption according to his years.
53. He shall be with him as a yearly hired worker; he shall not rule over him harshly in your sight.
54. But if he is not redeemed in these ways, then he shall go out in the year of the Jubilee, he, and his children with him.
55. For the children of Israel are my servants; they are my servants whom I brought out from the land of Egypt. I am Jehovah your God.

Leviticus 26

- ¶1. "You shall not make idols for yourselves, nor shall you raise up for yourselves an image or pillar, nor shall you erect a carved stone in your land to bow down to it, because I am Jehovah, your God.
2. You shall keep my Sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary. I am Jehovah.
- ¶3. "If you walk in my statutes and observe my commandments and do them,
4. then I will give you your rains in their season, and the land will yield its produce, and the tree of the field will bear its fruit.

5. Your threshing season will last until the grape harvest, and grape harvest will last until seed-time. And you will eat your food to the full, and you will dwell safely in your land.
 6. And I will establish peace in the land, and you will lie down and no one will make you afraid. And I will cause the harmful beast to cease from the land, and the sword will not pass through your land.
 7. And you will pursue your enemies, and they will fall before you by the sword.
 8. And five of you will pursue a hundred, and a hundred of you will pursue ten thousand, and your enemies will fall before you by the sword.
 9. And I will turn to you, and I will make you fruitful, and I will multiply you, and I will establish my covenant with you.
 10. And you will eat old store, and you will bring out the old because of the new.
 11. And I will put my tabernacle in your midst, and my soul will not abhor you.
 12. And I will walk about in your midst, and I will be your God, and you will be my people.
 13. I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of the Egyptians, from being their slaves, and I broke the bars of your yoke and made you walk erect.
- ¶14. “But if you will not listen to me, and will not do all these commandments,
15. and if you refuse my statutes, and if your soul despises my judgments, so that you do not do all my commandments, so that you break my covenant,
 16. I will surely do this to you: I will appoint over you terror, with consumption, and with the fever, consuming the eyes and draining the life, and you will sow your seed in vain, for your enemies will eat it.
 17. And I will set my face against you, and you will be struck down before your enemies, and those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee when no one is pursuing you.
- ¶18. “And if in spite of these things you will not listen to me, then I will again chasten you seven times for your sins.
19. And I will break your mighty pride. And I will make your skies like iron and your land like bronze,
 20. and your strength will be spent in vain, and your land will not yield its produce, and the tree of the land will not bear its fruit.
 21. And if you walk contrary to me, and will not listen to me, then I will add to you seven strokes, according to your sins.
 22. And I will send against you beasts of the field, and they will bereave you, and they will kill your livestock, and they will diminish you, and your roads will be deserted.
 23. And if by these things you are not corrected by me, and you walk contrary to me,

24. then will I also walk contrary to you, and I, myself, will strike you seven times for your sins.
 25. And I will bring upon you a sword that executes the vengeance of the covenant. And when you are gathered together in your cities, I will send a plague in your midst, and you will be given into the hand of the enemy.
 26. When I have broken your staff of bread, ten women will bake your bread in one oven, and they will return your bread by weight, and you will eat, but you will not be satisfied.
- ¶27. “And if you will not listen to me in this, but walk contrary to me,
28. then I will walk contrary to you in fury, and I, myself, will chasten you seven times for your sins.
 29. And you will eat the flesh of your sons, and you will eat the flesh of your daughters.
 30. And I will destroy your high places and cut down your images², and I will pile your corpses upon the corpses of your idols, and my soul will abhor you.
 31. And I will make your cities a waste, and make your sacred places desolate, and I will not smell the fragrance of your placating aroma.
 32. And I will make the land desolate, and your enemies who settle in it will be appalled at it.
 33. And I will scatter you among the nations, and I will draw out a sword after you, and your land will be a desolation, and your cities will be a waste.
 34. Then will the land enjoy its Sabbaths all the days of its being desolate while you are in the land of your enemies; then, the land will rest and enjoy its Sabbaths.
 35. All the days of its being desolate, it will rest, because it did not rest on your Sabbaths while you were living on it.
 36. And as for those among you who are left alive, I will cause faintness to come into their hearts in the lands of their enemies, and the sound of a shaken leaf will put them to flight, and they will flee as fleeing from a sword, and they will fall, though no one pursues.
 37. And they will stumble, each over his brother, as if before a sword, though none pursues. And you will have no power to stand before your enemies.
 38. And you will perish among the Gentiles, and the land of your enemies will devour you.
 39. And they that are left of you will pine away in their iniquity in your enemies’ lands, and also in the iniquities of their fathers will they pine away with them.
 40. But if they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers in their treachery that they committed against me, and also that they walked contrary to me

² Hebrew uncertain.

41. and that I walked contrary to them and brought them into the land of their enemies, then, if their uncircumcised heart be humbled and they then accept their punishment,
42. then I will remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and I will also remember my covenant with Abraham. And I will remember the land.
43. And the land will be abandoned by them, and without them, it will enjoy its Sabbaths in its desolation. And they will accept their punishment because, and only because, they despised my judgments and their soul abhorred my statutes.
44. Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them; neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly and to break my covenant with them, for I am Jehovah their God.
45. But I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God. I am Jehovah."
46. These are the statutes, and the judgments, and the laws which Jehovah made between Himself and the children of Israel at Mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

Leviticus 27

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, 'If anyone makes an exceptional vow, the persons shall belong to Jehovah by your valuation.
3. And your valuation shall be: for a male from twenty years up to sixty years, your valuation shall be fifty shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary;
4. and if it is for a female, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels;
5. and if from five years up to twenty years, then your valuation for the male shall be twenty shekels, and for the female, ten shekels;
6. and if from a month old up to five years, then your valuation for the male shall be five shekels of silver, and for the female, your valuation shall be three shekels of silver;
7. and if from sixty years and up, if a male, then your valuation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female, ten shekels.
8. But if he be poorer than your valuation, then he shall present him before the priest, and the priest shall estimate his value. The priest may value him according to the means of the one who vowed.
- ¶9. "And if it be a beast which they may offer as an offering to Jehovah, all that he gives to Jehovah shall be holy.
10. He shall not alter it nor exchange it, good for bad, or bad for good, and if he does exchange beast for beast, then it and his exchange shall be holy,
11. and if it be any unclean beast that they may not offer as an offering to Jehovah, then he shall present the beast before the priest.
12. And the priest shall estimate its value, whether good or bad; according to your valuation by the priest, so shall it be.
13. But if he would ever redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part to your valuation.

14. And if a man consecrate his house to be holy to Jehovah, then the priest shall estimate its value, whether good or bad; as the priest values it, so shall it stand.
 15. But if he who consecrated it redeems his house, then he shall add a fifth part of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall be his.
 16. And if a man consecrate a field of his possession to Jehovah, then your valuation shall be according to its seed, a homer of barley seed at fifty shekels of silver.
 17. If he consecrate his field from the year of Jubilee, according to your valuation, it shall stand.
 18. But if he consecrate his field after the Jubilee, then the priest shall reckon the money for him according to the years that remain until the year of Jubilee, and your valuation shall be diminished.
 19. And if he that consecrated it would redeem the field, then he shall add a fifth part of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall be his.
 20. And if he does not redeem the field and if he sells the field to another man, it may no longer be redeemed,
 21. and when the field goes out in the Jubilee, it shall be holy to Jehovah as a devoted field for the priest; it shall be his possession.
 22. And if one consecrate to Jehovah a field which he purchased, that is not of the fields of his possession,
 23. then the priest shall reckon to him the amount of your valuation until the year of Jubilee, and he shall set your valuation on that day; it is holy to Jehovah.
 24. In the year of Jubilee, the field shall return to him from whom it was purchased, to him whose land possession it was.
 25. And all your valuation shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary; twenty gerahs make a shekel.
 26. However, the firstborn that is born among beasts belongs to Jehovah. No man shall consecrate it, whether calf or sheep; it is Jehovah's.
 27. But if it is an unclean animal, then he may ransom it according to your valuation, but he shall add a fifth part to it. Or if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation.
 28. However, no devoted thing that a man devotes to Jehovah from all that he has shall be sold, whether man, or beast, or the field of his possession, nor shall it be redeemed; every devoted thing is most holy to Jehovah.
 29. No devoted thing that is devoted by man shall be redeemed; it shall surely be put to death.
- ¶30. “And all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the tree is Jehovah's; it is holy to Jehovah.
31. But if a man would rather redeem some of his tithe, he shall add a fifth part to it.
 32. And all the tithe of herd or flock, every tenth one that passes under the rod, shall be holy to Jehovah.

33. He shall not consider whether it is good or bad, nor exchange it, but if he does exchange it, then both it and its exchange shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.”
34. These are the commandments that Jehovah commanded Moses for the children of Israel at Mount Sinai.

Numbers

Numbers 1

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tent of meeting, on the first day of the second month of the second year after their coming out of the land of Egypt, saying,
2. "Take the sum of the whole congregation of the children of Israel, by their families, by the house of their fathers, by the number of names of every male, by their polls,
 3. twenty years old and above, everyone in Israel who goes out in the host; you and Aaron shall number them by their hosts.
 4. And with you shall be a man from each tribe, each a head of his father's house.
 5. And these are the names of the men who shall stand with you: from Reuben, Elizur ben-Shedeur;
 6. from Simeon, Shelumiel ben-Zurishaddai;
 7. from Judah, Nahshon ben-Amminadab;
 8. from Issachar, Nethaneel ben-Zuar;
 9. from Zebulun, Eliab ben-Helon;
 10. of the children of Joseph: from Ephraim, Elishama ben-Ammihud; from Manasseh, Gamaliel ben-Pedahzur;
 11. from Benjamin, Abidan ben-Gideoni;
 12. from Dan, Ahiezer ben-Ammishadai;
 13. from Asher, Pagiel ben-Ochran;
 14. from Gad, Eliasaph ben-Deuel;
 15. from Naphtali, Ahira ben-Enan."
 16. These were those called from the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers; they were heads of thousands in Israel.
 17. And Moses and Aaron took these men who had been designated by their names.
 18. And they assembled the whole congregation on the first day of the second month, and they declared the lineage of their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of names of those twenty years and above, by their polls,
 19. just as Jehovah commanded Moses. And he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

¶20. And they were: The sons of Reuben, firstborn of Israel, their generations, by their families, by the house of their fathers, by the number of names, by their polls, every male twenty years old and above, all who go forth to war,

 21. those numbered of the tribe of Reuben: forty-six thousand five hundred.

¶22. The sons of Simeon, their generations, by their families, by the house of their fathers, his numberings by the number of names, by their polls, every male twenty years old and above, all who go forth to war,

 23. those numbered of the tribe of Simeon: fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

- ¶24. The sons of Gad, their generations, by their families, by the house of their fathers, by the number of names, twenty years old and above, all who go forth to war,
25. those numbered of the tribe of Gad: forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.
- ¶26. The sons of Judah, their generations, by their families, by the house of their fathers, by the number of names, twenty years old and above, all who go forth to war,
27. those numbered of the tribe of Judah: seventy-four thousand six hundred.
- ¶28. The sons of Issachar, their generations, by their families, by the house of their fathers, by the number of names, twenty years old and above, all who go forth to war,
29. those numbered of the tribe of Issachar: fifty-four thousand four hundred.
- ¶30. The sons of Zebulun, their generations, by their families, by the house of their fathers, by the number of names, twenty years old and above, all who go forth to war,
31. those numbered of the tribe of Zebulun: fifty-seven thousand four hundred.
- ¶32. Of the sons of Joseph: The sons of Ephraim, their generations, by their families, by the house of their fathers, by the number of names, twenty years old and above, all who go forth to war,
33. those numbered of the tribe of Ephraim: forty thousand five hundred.
34. The sons of Manasseh, their generations, by their families, by the house of their fathers, by the number of names, twenty years old and above, all who go forth to war,
35. those numbered of the tribe of Manasseh: thirty-two thousand two hundred.
- ¶36. The sons of Benjamin, their generations, by their families, by the house of their fathers, by the number of names, twenty years old and above, all who go forth to war,
37. those numbered of the tribe of Benjamin: thirty-five thousand four hundred.
- ¶38. The sons of Dan, their generations, by their families, by the house of their fathers, by the number of names, twenty years old and above, all who go forth to war,
39. those numbered of the tribe of Dan: sixty-two thousand seven hundred.
- ¶40. The sons of Asher, their generations, by their families, by the house of their fathers, by the number of names, twenty years old and above, all who go forth to war,
41. those numbered of the tribe of Asher: forty-one thousand five hundred.
- ¶42. The sons of Naphtali, their generations, by their families, by the house of their fathers, by the number of names, twenty years old and above, all who go forth to war,
43. those numbered of the tribe of Naphtali: fifty-three thousand four hundred.
- ¶44. These were those numbered, which Moses, and Aaron, and the princes of Israel (twelve men, one each for the house of his fathers) numbered.
45. And all who were numbered of the sons of Israel, by the house of their fathers, twenty years old and above, all in Israel who go forth to war,
46. even all who were numbered were six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty.

- ¶47. But the Levites were not numbered among them by the tribe of their fathers,
48. for Jehovah had spoken to Moses, saying,
49. "Except that you shall neither number the tribe of Levi nor count them with the children of Israel,
50. but you shall appoint the Levites to be over the tabernacle of the testimony, and over all its accoutrements, and over all that pertains to it. They shall bear the tabernacle and all its accoutrements, and they shall do the service of it, and they shall camp round about the tabernacle.
51. And when the tabernacle is to set out, the Levites shall take it down, and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up; and a stranger who comes near shall be put to death.
52. And the children of Israel shall camp, each tribe within its encampment, with each by its standard, according to their hosts.
53. But the Levites shall camp round about the tabernacle of the testimony, that there be no wrath upon the congregation of the children of Israel; and the Levites shall keep charge of the tabernacle of the testimony."
54. And the children of Israel did so; according to all that Jehovah commanded Moses, so they did.

Numbers 2

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
2. "Each tribe of the children of Israel shall camp by its standard, with banners according to the house of their fathers; they shall camp at a distance round about the tent of meeting.
3. And those encamping eastward, toward the sunrise, shall be of the standard of the camp of Judah, according to their hosts. And the prince of the children of Judah shall be Nahshon ben-Amminadab.
4. And his host, those that were numbered of them, were seventy-four thousand six hundred.
5. And those encamped by him shall be of the tribe of Issachar. And the prince of the children of Issachar shall be Nethaneel ben-Zuar.
6. And his host, those that were numbered of it, were fifty-four thousand four hundred.
7. Then the tribe of Zebulun. And the prince of the children of Zebulun shall be Eliab ben-Helon.
8. And his host, those that were numbered of it, were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.
9. All who were numbered of the camp of Judah were one hundred eighty-six thousand four hundred, according to their hosts. They shall set out first.
¶10. "The standard of the camp of Reuben shall be southward, according to their hosts. And the prince of the children of Reuben shall be Elizur ben-Shedeur.
11. And his host, those that were numbered of it, were forty-six thousand five hundred.

12. And encamped beside him, the tribe of Simeon. And the prince of the children of Simeon shall be Shelumiel ben-Zuri·shaddai.
 13. And his host, those that were numbered of them, were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.
 14. Then the tribe of Gad. And the prince of the children of Gad shall be Eliasaph ben-Reuel.
 15. And his host, those that were numbered of them, were forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.
 16. All who were numbered of the camp of Reuben were one hundred fifty-one thousand four hundred and fifty, according to their hosts. And they shall set out second.
- ¶17. “Then the tent of meeting shall set out, with the camp of the Levites, in the midst of the camps; as they encamp, so shall they set forth, each in its place according to their standards.
- ¶18. “The standard of the camp of Ephraim, according to their hosts, shall be westward. And the prince of the children of Ephraim shall be Elishama ben-Ammihud.
 19. And his host, those that were numbered of them, were forty thousand five hundred.
 20. And beside him, the tribe of Manasseh. And the prince of the children of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel ben-Pedahzur.
 21. And his host, those that were numbered of them, were thirty-two thousand two hundred.
 22. Then the tribe of Benjamin. And the prince of the children of Benjamin shall be Abidan ben-Gideoni.
 23. And his host, those that were numbered of them, were thirty-five thousand four hundred.
 24. All who were numbered of the camp of Ephraim were one hundred eight thousand and one hundred, according to their hosts. And they shall set out third.
- ¶25. “The standard of the camp of Dan shall be northward, according to their hosts. And the prince of the children of Dan shall be Ahiezer ben-Ammishadai.
26. And his host, those that were numbered of them, were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.
 27. And those encamped by him shall be of the tribe of Asher. And the prince of the children of Asher shall be Pagiel ben-Ochran.
 28. And his host, those that were numbered of them, were forty-one thousand five hundred.
 29. Then the tribe of Naphtali. And the prince of the children of Naphtali shall be Ahira ben-Enan.
 30. And his host, those that were numbered of them, were fifty-three thousand four hundred.
 31. All who were numbered of the camp of Dan were one hundred fifty-seven thousand six hundred. And they shall set out at the rear, according to their standards.”

- ¶32. These were numbered of the children of Israel by the house of their fathers. All who were numbered of the camps, according to their hosts, were six hundred three thousand five hundred and fifty.
33. But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel, just as Jehovah commanded Moses.
34. And the children of Israel did according to all that Jehovah commanded Moses; in this manner, they encamped by their standards, and thus they set out, each tribe by its families, according to the house of its fathers.

Numbers 3

- ¶1. And these are the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day Jehovah spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai.
2. And these are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
3. These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests whom he ordained to minister as a priest.
4. But Nadab and Abihu died before Jehovah when they offered strange fire before Jehovah in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no sons. And Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests in the presence of Aaron their father.
- ¶5. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
6. “Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present it before Aaron the priest, that they may serve him.
7. And they shall keep his charge and the charge of the whole congregation before the tent of meeting, to do the service of the tabernacle.
8. And they shall attend to all the accoutrements of the tent of meeting and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.
9. And you shall give the Levites to Aaron, and to his sons; they are wholly given to him from the children of Israel.
10. And you shall appoint Aaron, and his sons, and they shall attend to their priesthood; and the stranger who comes near shall be put to death.”
- ¶11. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
12. “And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn that open the womb of the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be mine.
13. For all the firstborn are mine; on the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I consecrated as mine all the firstborn in Israel. Whether man or beast, they shall be mine; I am Jehovah.”
- ¶14. And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying,

15. "Number the children of Levi by the house of their fathers, by their families; you shall number them, every male a month old and above."
16. And Moses numbered them according to the word of Jehovah, just as he was commanded.
17. And these are the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari.
18. And these are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei.
19. And the sons of Kohath by their families: Amram and Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.
20. And the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites by the house of their fathers.
21. From Gershon was the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimeites. These are the families of Gershonites.
22. Those numbered of them, by the number of every male aged a month and above, those numbered of them, were seven thousand five hundred.
23. "The families of the Gershonites shall encamp westward, behind the tabernacle.
24. And the prince of the house of the father of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph ben-Lael.
25. And the charge of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting shall be the tabernacle, and the tent, its covering, and the hanging for the entrance of the tent of meeting,
26. and the screens of the courtyard, and the hanging at the entrance of the courtyard which is in front of the tabernacle and in front of the altar, all around, and its ropes for all its service."
- ¶27. And from Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites. These are the families of the Kohathites.
28. By number, every male aged a month and above were eight thousand six hundred who kept the charge of the holy place.
29. "The families of the sons of Kohath shall encamp on the southward side of the tabernacle.
30. And the prince of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan ben-Uzziel.
31. And their charge shall be the ark, and the table, and the menorah, and the altars, and the accoutrements of the holy place with which they minister, and the hanging, and all its labor.
32. And the prince over the princes of the Levites shall be Eleazar ben-Aaron, the priest, having oversight of those who keep the charge of the holy place."
- ¶33. From Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites. These are the families of Merari.
34. And those numbered of them, by the number of every male aged a month and above, were six thousand two hundred.

35. "And the prince of the house of the father of the families of Merari shall be Zuriel ben-Abihail; they shall encamp on the northward side of the tabernacle.
 36. And the appointed charge for the sons of Merari shall be the boards of the tabernacle, and its bars, and its posts, and its sockets, and all its accoutrements, and all its labor,
 37. and the posts of the courtyard round about, and their sockets, and their stakes, and their ropes.
 38. And those that encamp before the tabernacle to the east, before the tent of meeting eastward, shall be Moses, and Aaron, and his sons, keeping the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the children of Israel. The stranger who comes near shall surely be put to death."
 39. All who were numbered of the Levites whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of Jehovah, by their families, every male aged a month and above, were twenty-two thousand.
- ¶40. And Jehovah said to Moses, "Number every firstborn male of the children of Israel aged a month and above, and take the number of their names.
41. And you shall take the Levites for me (I am Jehovah) instead of all the firstborn of the children of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of all the firstborn of the livestock of the children of Israel."
 42. And Moses numbered all the firstborn among the children of Israel, just as Jehovah commanded him.
 43. And all the firstborn males aged a month and above, by the number of their names of those who were numbered, were twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.
- ¶44. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
45. "Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of their livestock, and the Levites shall be mine. I am Jehovah.
 46. And for the redemption price of the two hundred and seventy-three firstborn of the children of Israel who are more than the number of the Levites,
 47. you shall take five shekels each by the poll. (You shall take it according to the shekel of the sanctuary, twenty gerahs to the shekel.)
 48. And you shall give the money to Aaron, and to his sons, as the redemption price for the excess number of them."
 49. And Moses took the redemption money for those redeemed in excess of the Levites.
 50. From the firstborn of the children of Israel, he took the money, one thousand three hundred and sixty-five shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary.
 51. And Moses gave the money for those redeemed to Aaron, and to his sons, according to the word of Jehovah, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, and to Aaron, saying,
2. "Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, by their families, by the house of their fathers,
 3. from thirty years old and above up to fifty years old, all who enter the service, to do the work within the tent of meeting.
 4. This is the responsibility of the sons of Kohath in the tent of meeting: the Most Holy Place.
 5. When the camp sets out, Aaron and his sons shall go in and take down the veil for the hanging and cover the ark of the testimony with it.
 6. And they shall lay a covering of badger skin on it and spread a solid blue cloth over it and put in its poles.
 7. And they shall spread a blue cloth on the table of the Presence, and put the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and the libation cups on it; the perpetual bread shall also be on it.
 8. And they shall spread a cloth of bright scarlet over them and cover that with a covering of badger skin and put in its poles.
 9. And they shall take a blue cloth and cover the menorah of light, and its lamps, and its tongs, and its snuff-dishes, and all the vessels for its oil with which they attend to it.
 10. And they shall put it and all its accoutrements into a covering of badger skin and put it on a pole.
 11. And they shall spread a blue cloth on the gold altar, and cover it with a covering of badger skin, and put in its poles.
 12. And they shall take all the accoutrements of the ministry with which they minister within the holy place and put them in a blue cloth and cover them within a covering of badger skin, and they shall put it on a pole.
 13. And they shall remove the ashes from the altar and spread a purple cloth over it.
 14. And on it, they shall put all the accoutrements with which they minister: the fire-pans, the meat-hooks, and the shovels, and the basins, all the accoutrements of the altar, and they shall spread a covering of badger skin over it, and put in its poles.
 15. When the camp is to set out, and Aaron and his sons have finished covering the holy things and all the accoutrements of the holy place, after that, the sons of Kohath shall come in to bear them, but they shall not touch the holy things, or they shall die. These things from the tent of meeting are the burden of the sons of Kohath.
 16. And Eleazar ben-Aaron, the priest, shall have the oversight of the oil for the light, and the pungent incense, and the continual grain offering, and the anointing oil—the oversight of all the tabernacle and all that is in it, of the holy place and its accoutrements."
- ¶17. And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
18. "You shall not allow the tribe of the families of the Kohathites to be cut off from among the Levites,

19. but do this for them, that they may live and not die when they draw near to the Most Holy Place. Aaron and his sons shall go in and assign each one of them to his work and to his burden.

20. But they shall not go in to watch as the sanctuary is covered, lest they die.”

¶21. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

22. “Take the sum also of the sons of Gershon by the house of their fathers, by their families,

23. from thirty years old and above up to fifty years old, you shall number them, all who enter to do the service, to do the work of the tent of meeting.

24. This work shall be for the families of the Gershonites to do and to bear:

25. they shall bear the curtains of the tabernacle, even the tent of meeting; its covering and the covering of badger skin that is on top of it; and the hanging at the entrance of the tent of meeting;

26. and the screens of the courtyard; and the hanging at the entrance of the gate of the courtyard that is in front of the tabernacle and in front of the altar round about; and their ropes; and all the equipment for their service, even all that is made for them. Thus shall they do.

27. All the labor of the sons of the Gershonites shall be in accordance with the commandment of Aaron and his sons regarding all their burden bearing and all their labor, and you shall appoint all their burden to them by a charge.

28. This work shall be for the families of the sons of the Gershonites concerning the tent of meeting, and their charge shall be under the hand of Ithamar ben-Aaron, the priest.

¶29. “As for the sons of Merari, by their families, by the house of their fathers, you shall number them.

30. From thirty years old and above up to fifty years old, you shall number them, all who enter into the service, to do the work of the tent of meeting.

31. And this charge is their burden for all their labor in the tent of meeting: the boards of the tabernacle, and its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets,

32. and the posts of the courtyard round about, and their sockets, and their stakes, and their ropes for all their equipment and for all of their labor. And by names shall you assign the equipment for the charge of their burden.

33. This is the work of the families of the sons of Merari for all their labor in the tent of meeting, under the hand of Ithamar ben-Aaron, the priest.”

¶34. And Moses, and Aaron, and the princes of the congregation, numbered the sons of the Kohathites by their families, and by the house of their fathers,

35. from thirty years old and above up to fifty years old, all who enter into the service for the labor within the tent of meeting.

36. And those numbered of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty.

37. These were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all who could work inside the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the command of Jehovah by the hand of Moses.
38. And the sons of Gershon were numbered by their families, and by the house of their fathers,
39. from thirty years old and above up to fifty years old, all who enter into the service for the labor of the tent of meeting.
40. And those numbered of them by their families, by the house of their fathers, were two thousand six hundred and thirty.
41. These were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, all who could work in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the command of Jehovah.
42. And the families of the sons of Merari were numbered by their families, by the house of their fathers,
43. from thirty years old and above up to fifty years old, all who enter into the service for the labor of the tent of meeting.
44. And those numbered of them by their families were three thousand two hundred.
45. These were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the command of Jehovah by the hand of Moses.
46. All those numbered, whom Moses and Aaron and the princes of Israel numbered of the Levites by their families, by the house of their fathers,
47. from thirty years old and above up to fifty years old, all who entered in to do the service of labor and the service of bearing burdens in the tent of meeting.
48. And those numbered of them were eight thousand five hundred and eighty.
49. According to the command of Jehovah by the hand of Moses, he numbered them, each one according to his service and according to his burden, thus were they numbered by him, as Jehovah commanded Moses.

Numbers 5

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. “Command the children of Israel, that they send out from the camp every leper, and anyone with a discharge, and everyone defiled by the dead.
3. Both male and female shall you send out. You shall send them outside the camp so that they do not defile their camps because I dwell in their midst.”
4. And the children of Israel did so and sent them outside the camp; just as Jehovah said to Moses, so the children of Israel did.
- ¶5. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
6. “Speak to the children of Israel, ‘If a man or a woman commits any of the sins of mankind, acting unfaithfully against Jehovah, then that soul shall be guilty.

7. And they shall confess their sin that they committed, and he shall make full restitution, and add a fifth to it, and give it to whomever he wronged.
 8. But if the man has no redeemer to whom he can repay the wrong, the wrong shall be repaid to Jehovah, to the priest, besides the ram of atonements with which he makes atonement for him.
- ¶9. “And every excise offering from all the holy things of the children of Israel that they bring to the priest shall be his,
10. and each man’s holy things shall be his; whatever a man gives to the priest shall be his.”
- ¶11. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
12. “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, ‘If any man’s wife turns aside and acts unfaithfully against him,
 13. and a man lies sexually with her, and it is concealed from the eyes of her husband and is hidden, and she has been defiled, and there is no witness against her, neither was she caught in the act,
 14. but a spirit of jealousy comes over him and he is jealous of his wife, and she is defiled, or if a spirit of jealousy comes over him and he is jealous of his wife, but she is not defiled,
 15. then the man shall bring his wife to the priest, and he shall bring her offering for her, the tenth part of an ephah of barley flour; he shall pour no oil on it, neither shall he put frankincense on it, for it is a jealousy offering; it is a memorial offering bringing iniquity to remembrance.
 16. And the priest shall bring her near and present her before Jehovah.
 17. And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; the priest shall also take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle and put it in the water.
 18. And the priest shall make the woman stand before Jehovah, and uncover the woman’s head, and he shall put the memorial offering in her palms, which is a jealousy offering, and in the priest’s hand shall be the bitter water that brings the curse.
 19. And the priest shall cause her to swear an oath and say to the woman, ‘If no man lay with you, and if you have not turned aside to uncleanness instead of to your husband, you shall be free from this bitter water that brings the curse.
 20. But if you have turned aside, instead of to your husband, and if you have defiled yourself and a man other than your husband has given you his copulation, you shall be cursed.’
 21. Then the priest shall cause the woman to swear with the oath of cursing, and the priest shall say to the woman, ‘Jehovah make you a curse and an oath in the midst of your people when Jehovah makes your thigh waste away and your womb swell.

22. And this water that brings the curse shall go into your bowels to make your womb swell, and to cause your thigh to waste away. ' And the woman shall say, 'Amen, amen.'
23. And the priest shall write these curses in the book and wipe them into the bitter water.
24. Then he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that brings the curse, and the water of bitterness that brings the curse shall go into her.
25. And the priest shall take the jealousy offering from the hand of the woman, and he shall wave the offering before Jehovah, and offer it on the altar.
26. And the priest shall take a handful from the offering, its memorial portion, and burn it on the altar, and afterward, he shall make the woman drink the water.
27. And when he has made her drink the water, then it shall come to pass that if she has defiled herself and acted unfaithfully against her husband, then the water of bitterness that brings the curse shall go into her, and her womb will swell and her thigh will waste away, and the woman shall be a curse in the midst of her people,
28. but if the woman has not defiled herself, and she is clean, then she is free, and she shall conceive seed.
29. This is the law of jealousies for when a wife turns aside instead of to her husband, and she is defiled,
30. or for a man, when a spirit of jealousy comes over him, and he is jealous of his wife, and he presents the woman before Jehovah, and the priest performs all this law regarding her.
31. Then the man will be free from iniquity, and the woman shall bear her iniquity."

Numbers 6

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, 'If a man or a woman makes an exceptional vow, a vow of a Nazirite to separate himself unto Jehovah,
3. he shall separate himself from wine and strong drink. He shall not drink vinegar of wine or vinegar of strong drink, nor shall he drink any juice from grapes, nor shall he eat fresh or dried grapes.
4. All the days of his separation, he shall not eat of anything that is made from the grapevine, from the seeds even to the skin.
5. All the days of his Nazirite vow, no razor shall pass over his head until the days which he separates to Jehovah be fulfilled; he shall be holy, letting the locks of the hair of his head grow.
6. All the days of his separation to Jehovah, he shall not go near a dead body,
7. for his father or for his mother, for his brother or for his sister. He shall not defile himself for them when they die, for the separation of his God is upon his head.
8. All the days of his separation, he shall be holy to Jehovah.
9. But if a man dies very suddenly by him, and he defiles the head of his separation, then he shall shave his head on the day of his cleansing; on the seventh day, he shall shave it.

10. And on the eighth day, he shall bring two turtledoves or two young doves to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
11. And the priest shall use one for a sin offering and one for a burnt offering, and make atonement for him because he sinned on account of the body; and he shall consecrate his head on that day.
12. Then he shall separate to Jehovah the days of his separation, and he shall bring a year-old lamb for a guilt offering, but the first days shall be lost because he defiled his separation.
13. And this is the law for the Nazirite: on the day when the days of his separation are fulfilled, one shall bring him to the entrance of the tent of meeting.
14. And he shall bring his offering to Jehovah: one year-old lamb without blemish for a burnt offering, and one year-old ewe lamb without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for peace offerings,
15. and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and their grain offering, and their drink offerings.
16. And the priest shall bring it before Jehovah, and he shall make his sin offering and his burnt offering.
17. And with the ram, he shall make the sacrifice of peace offerings to Jehovah with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest shall also make his grain offering and his drink offering.
18. And the devoted one shall shave the head of his separation at the entrance to the tent of meeting, and he shall take the hair of his head of separation and put it on the fire that is under the sacrifice of the peace offerings.
19. And the priest shall take the boiled shoulder from the ram, and one unleavened cake from the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and put them on the palms of the devoted one, after he has shaved the hair of his separation.
20. And the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before Jehovah (it is holy to the priest) with the breast of the wave offering and with the thigh of the exsect offering, and afterward, the devoted one may drink wine.
21. This is the law concerning the devoted one who has made a vow and his offering to Jehovah for his separation, besides that which he can afford. According to his vow that he vowed, thus he must do concerning the law of his separation.”

¶22. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

23. “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, ‘Thus shall you bless the children of Israel, saying to them,
24. “Jehovah bless you and keep you.
25. Jehovah make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you.
26. Jehovah lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace.””
27. And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel, and I will bless them.”

- ¶1. And it came to pass on the day Moses finished setting up the tabernacle and had anointed it and consecrated it and all its accoutrements, and the altar and all its accoutrements, when he had anointed and consecrated them,
2. that the princes of Israel, the heads of the house of their fathers, those who were the princes of the tribes, those who were over the numbered, drew near.
 3. And they brought their offering before Jehovah: six covered wagons and twelve oxen, a wagon for two of the princes, and an ox for each one, and they presented them before the tabernacle.
 4. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
 5. “Receive these from them, and they shall be for use in the service of the tent of meeting, for you shall give them to the Levites, each one for its service.”
 6. So Moses took the wagons and the oxen and gave them to the Levites.
 7. Two wagons and four oxen, he gave to the sons of Gershon for their service,
 8. and four wagons and eight oxen, he gave to the sons of Merari for their service under Ithamar ben-Aaron, the priest.
 9. But to the sons of Kohath, he gave none because the service of the holy things was upon them; they bore on the shoulder.
- ¶10. And the princes drew near for the dedication of the altar on the day that it was anointed, and the princes offered their offering before the altar.
11. And Jehovah said to Moses, “One prince a day—one prince a day—they shall offer their offering for the dedication of the altar.”
 12. And he that offered his offering on the first day was Nahshon ben-Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah.
 13. And his offering was one silver dish, its weight one hundred thirty shekels; one silver basin of seventy shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;
 14. one gold spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;
 15. one bullock from the herd, one ram, one year-old lamb, for a burnt offering;
 16. one male from the goats for a sin offering;
 17. and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs a year-old. This was the offering of Nahshon ben-Amminadab.
- ¶18. On the second day, Nethaneel ben-Zuar, prince of Issachar, offered.
19. He offered his offering: one silver dish, its weight one hundred thirty shekels; one silver basin of seventy shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;
 20. one gold spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;
 21. one bullock from the herd, one ram, one year-old lamb, for a burnt offering;
 22. one male from the goats for a sin offering;
 23. and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs, a year-old. This was the offering of Nethaneel ben-Zuar.

- ¶24. On the third day, the prince of the sons of Zebulun, Eliab ben-Helon, offered.
25. His offering: one silver dish, its weight one hundred thirty shekels; one silver basin of seventy shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;
26. one gold spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;
27. one bullock from the herd, one ram, one year-old lamb, for a burnt offering;
28. one male from the goats for a sin offering;
29. and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs, a year-old. This was the offering of Eliab ben-Helon.
- ¶30. On the fourth day, the prince of the sons of Reuben, Elizur ben-Shedeur, offered.
31. His offering: one silver dish, its weight one hundred thirty shekels; one silver basin of seventy shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;
32. one gold spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;
33. one bullock from the herd, one ram, one year-old lamb, for a burnt offering;
34. one male from the goats for a sin offering;
35. and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs, a year-old. This was the offering of Elizur ben-Shedeur.
- ¶36. On the fifth day, the prince of the sons of Simeon, Shelumiel ben-Zurishaddai, offered.
37. His offering: one silver dish, its weight one hundred thirty shekels; one silver basin of seventy shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;
38. one gold spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;
39. one bullock from the herd, one ram, one year-old lamb, for a burnt offering;
40. one male from the goats for a sin offering;
41. and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs, a year-old. This was the offering of Shelumiel ben-Zurishaddai.
- ¶42. On the sixth day, the prince of the sons of Gad, Eliasaph ben-Deuel, offered.
43. His offering: one silver dish, its weight one hundred thirty shekels; one silver basin of seventy shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;
44. one gold spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;
45. one bullock from the herd, one ram, one year-old lamb, for a burnt offering;
46. one male from the goats for a sin offering;
47. and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs, a year-old. This was the offering of Eliasaph ben-Deuel.
- ¶48. On the seventh day, the prince of the sons of Ephraim, Elishama ben-Ammihud, offered.

49. His offering: one silver dish, its weight one hundred thirty shekels; one silver basin of seventy shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;
 50. one gold spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;
 51. one bullock from the herd, one ram, one year-old lamb, for a burnt offering;
 52. one male from the goats for a sin offering;
 53. and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs, a year-old. This was the offering of Elishama ben-Ammihud.
- ¶54. On the eighth day, the prince of the sons of Manasseh, Gamaliel ben-Pedahzur, offered.
55. His offering: one silver dish, its weight one hundred thirty shekels; one silver basin of seventy shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;
 56. one gold spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;
 57. one bullock from the herd, one ram, one year-old lamb, for a burnt offering;
 58. one male from the goats for a sin offering;
 59. and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs, a year-old. This was the offering of Gamaliel ben-Pedahzur.
- ¶60. On the ninth day, the prince of the sons of Benjamin, Abidan ben-Gideoni, offered.
61. His offering: one silver dish, its weight one hundred thirty shekels; one silver basin of seventy shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;
 62. one gold spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;
 63. one bullock from the herd, one ram, one year-old lamb, for a burnt offering;
 64. one male from the goats for a sin offering;
 65. and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs, a year-old. This was the offering of Abidan ben-Gideoni.
- ¶66. On the tenth day, the prince of the sons of Dan, Ahiezer ben-Ammishadai, offered.
67. His offering: one silver dish, its weight one hundred thirty shekels; one silver basin of seventy shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;
 68. one gold spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;
 69. one bullock from the herd, one ram, one year-old lamb, for a burnt offering;
 70. one male from the goats for a sin offering;
 71. and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs, a year-old. This was the offering of Ahiezer ben-Ammishadai.
- ¶72. On the eleventh day, the prince of the sons of Asher, Pagiel ben-Ochran, offered.

- 73. His offering: one silver dish, its weight one hundred thirty shekels; one silver basin of seventy shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;
- 74. one gold spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;
- 75. one bullock from the herd, one ram, one year-old lamb, for a burnt offering;
- 76. one male from the goats for a sin offering;
- 77. and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs, a year-old. This was the offering of Pagiel ben-Ochran.

- ¶78. On the twelfth day, the prince of the sons of Naphtali, Ahira ben-Enan, offered.

 - 79. His offering: one silver dish, its weight one hundred thirty shekels; one silver basin of seventy shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;
 - 80. one gold spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;
 - 81. one bullock from the herd, one ram, one year-old lamb, for a burnt offering;
 - 82. one male from the goats for a sin offering;
 - 83. and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs, a year-old. This was the offering of Ahira ben-Enan.

- ¶84. This was for the dedication of the altar from the princes of Israel, on the day that it was anointed: twelve silver dishes; twelve silver basins; twelve gold spoons,

 - 85. each silver dish of one hundred thirty shekels, and each basin seventy, all the silver accoutrements were two thousand four hundred shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary;
 - 86. twelve gold spoons full of incense, each spoon ten shekels apiece, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; all the gold of the spoons was one hundred twenty shekels.
 - 87. All the cattle for the burnt offering were twelve bullocks, the rams twelve, the year-old lambs twelve, with their grain offering, and the males of the goats were twelve for the sin offering.
 - 88. And all the cattle for the sacrifice of peace offerings were twenty-four bullocks, the rams sixty, the he-goats sixty, the year-old lambs sixty. This was for the dedication of the altar after it was anointed.
 - ¶89. And when Moses went in to the tent of meeting to speak with Him, then he heard the voice speaking to him from above the mercy-seat which was on the ark of the testimony, from between the two cherubim, and he spoke to Him.

Numbers 8

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
- 2. “Speak to Aaron, and say to him, ‘When you light the lamps, the seven lamps will give light before the menorah.’”
- 3. And Aaron did so; he lit its lamps to give light before the menorah, as Jehovah commanded Moses.

4. And the work of the menorah was of beaten gold; from its base to its flower, it was of beaten work. According to the vision that Jehovah showed Moses, so he made the menorah.

¶5. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

6. "Take the Levites from among the children of Israel and cleanse them.
7. And thus shall you do to them to cleanse them: sprinkle water of purification on them, and have them pass a razor over all their flesh, and wash their clothes, and cleanse themselves.
8. Then they shall take a bullock from the herd with its grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, and you shall take a second bullock from the herd for a sin offering.
9. And you shall bring the Levites near, before the tent of meeting, and assemble the whole congregation of the children of Israel.
10. Then you shall bring the Levites near, before Jehovah, and the children of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites.
11. And Aaron shall offer the Levites as a wave offering from the children of Israel before Jehovah, that they may do the service of Jehovah.
12. And the Levites shall lay their hands on the head of the bullocks, and with one, you shall make a sin offering, and with the other, a burnt offering to Jehovah, to make atonement for the Levites.
13. Then you shall present the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them as a wave offering to Jehovah.
14. Thus shall you separate the Levites from among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be mine.
15. And after that, the Levites shall go in to do the service of the tent of meeting, when you have cleansed them and offered them as a wave offering.
16. For they are wholly dedicated to me from among the children of Israel instead of all who first open the womb, the firstborn of all the children of Israel. I have taken them for myself,
17. because all the firstborn among the children of Israel are mine, whether man or beast. On the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for myself.
18. But I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn of the children of Israel.
19. And I have given the Levites as dedicated to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel to do the service of the children of Israel in the tent of meeting, and to make atonement for the children of Israel, so there will be no plague among the children of Israel when the children of Israel draw near to the sanctuary."
20. And Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel did to the Levites according to all that Jehovah commanded Moses concerning the Levites. Thus the children of Israel did to them.

21. And the Levites cleansed themselves, and they washed their clothes, and Aaron offered them as a wave offering before Jehovah, and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them.
22. And after that, the Levites entered in to do their service in the tent of meeting before Aaron and before his sons. As Jehovah had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.
- ¶23. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
24. “This is what pertains to the Levites: from twenty-five years old and above, one shall enter in to serve in the host in the service of the tent of meeting.
25. And at fifty years old, he shall withdraw from the host for the service and serve no more.
26. Yet, he shall minister to his brothers in the tent of meeting by keeping guard, but he shall do no service. Thus shall you do concerning the Levites regarding their charges.”

Numbers 9

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they came out from the land of Egypt, saying,
2. “The children of Israel shall also observe the Passover at its appointed time.
3. On the fourteenth day of this month at twilight, you shall observe it at its appointed time; according to all its statutes and according to all its ordinances shall you observe it.”
4. And Moses told the children of Israel to observe the Passover.
5. And they observed the Passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight, in the wilderness of Sinai; according to all that Jehovah commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did.
6. And it came to pass that there were men defiled by the dead body of a man and could not observe the Passover on that day. So, they came before Moses, and before Aaron, on that day.
7. And those men said to him, “We are defiled by the dead body of a man. Now we are restrained so that we cannot offer the offering of Jehovah at its appointed time among the children of Israel!”
8. And Moses said to them, “Wait, and let me hear what Jehovah will command concerning you.”
9. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
10. “Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘If by reason of a dead body, any man of you or your descendants is unclean or is on a journey afar off, he shall observe the Passover to Jehovah.
11. In the second month, on the fourteenth day at twilight, they shall observe it. They shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

12. They shall leave nothing of it until morning, nor shall they break a bone of it; in accordance with every statute of the Passover shall they keep it.
 13. But the man who is clean or is not on a journey and fails to observe the Passover, that soul shall certainly be cut off from his people because he did not bring the offering of Jehovah at its appointed time; that man shall bear his sin.
 14. And if a stranger sojourns among you and would observe the Passover to Jehovah, then according to the statute of the Passover and its ordinance shall he observe it; there shall be one statute for you, both for the stranger and for one born in the land.”
- ¶15. And on the day that the tabernacle was set up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, that is, the tent of testimony, and in the evening, it became in appearance like fire over the tabernacle, until morning.
16. So it was, continually; the cloud covered it, with an appearance of fire at night.
 17. Upon command, the cloud was taken up from over the tent, and after that, the children of Israel journeyed, and at the place where the cloud settled, there, the children of Israel encamped.
 18. At the command of Jehovah, the children of Israel journeyed, and at the command of Jehovah, they camped; all the days that the cloud was settled over the tabernacle, they remained encamped.
 19. And when the cloud remained many days over the tabernacle, then the children of Israel kept the charge of Jehovah and did not journey.
 20. Even when it was that the cloud was over the tabernacle for few days, at the command of Jehovah, they encamped, and at the command of Jehovah, they journeyed.
 21. And so it was that when the cloud remained from evening until morning and then the cloud was taken up in the morning, they journeyed; whether day or night, when the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.
 22. Whether for two days, or a month, or longer, as long as the cloud remained over the tabernacle, settled upon it, the children of Israel remained encamped and did not journey. But when it was taken up, they journeyed.
 23. At the command of Jehovah, they encamped, and at the command of Jehovah, they journeyed; they kept the charge of Jehovah, at the command of Jehovah by the hand of Moses.

Numbers 10

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. “Make for yourself two trumpets; of beaten silver shall you make them, and they will be for you for summoning the congregation and for breaking the encampments.
 3. When they blow with them, then all the congregation shall gather themselves to you at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
 4. But if they blow with one, then the princes, heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves to you.
 5. And when you blow an alarm, then the camps encamped eastward shall set out.

6. And when you blow a second alarm, then the camps encamped southward shall set out; they shall blow an alarm for them to set out.
 7. But when the Assembly is to be assembled, you shall blow, but you shall not blow an alarm.
 8. And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets, and they shall be a statute for you forever, throughout your generations.
 9. And when you go to war in your land against an enemy who is oppressing you, then you shall blow an alarm with the trumpets, and you will be remembered before Jehovah your God and be delivered from your enemies.
 10. Also, on the day of your rejoicing, and at your appointed times, and at the beginning of each of your months, you shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings, and they will be a memorial for you before your God. I am Jehovah your God.”
- ¶11. And it came to pass in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, that the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle of the testimony,
12. and the children of Israel set out on their journeys from the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud settled in the wilderness of Paran.
 13. And they set out for the first time according to the command of Jehovah by the hand of Moses.
- ¶14. And the standard of the camp of the children of Judah set out first according to their hosts, and over his host was Nahshon ben-Amminadab.
15. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel ben-Zuar.
 16. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab ben-Helon.
 17. Then the tabernacle was taken down, and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set out, bearing the tabernacle.
- ¶18. Then the standard of the camp of Reuben set out according to their hosts, and over his host was Elizur ben-Shedeur.
19. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel ben-Zurishaddai.
 20. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph ben-Deuel.
 21. And the Kohathites set out bearing the sanctuary, and they set up the tabernacle before they arrived.
- ¶22. Then the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set out according to their hosts, and over his host was Elishama ben-Ammihud.
23. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel ben-Pedahzur.
 24. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan ben-Gideoni.
- ¶25. Then the standard of the camp of the children of Dan set out according to their hosts, at the rear of all the camps, and over his host was Ahiezer ben-Ammishaddai.
26. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel ben-Ocran.

27. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira ben-Enan.
28. This was the order of setting out for the children of Israel, according to their hosts, when they set out.
- ¶29. And Moses said to Hobab ben-Reuel the Midianite, Moses 'father-in-law, "We are setting out for the place of which Jehovah said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and we will do good to you, for Jehovah has spoken good concerning Israel."
30. But he said to him, "I will not go with you, but to my land and to my kindred will I go."
31. And he said, "I pray you, do not leave us, because you have known our encampment in the wilderness, and you would be as eyes for us."
32. And it shall be that, if you go with us, then whatever good that Jehovah does for us, we will also do for you."
33. And they set out from the mount of Jehovah three days 'journey, and the ark of the covenant of Jehovah journeyed before them three days 'journey to search out a resting place for them.
34. And the cloud of Jehovah was over them by day when they set out from the camp.
- ¶35. And it came to pass when the ark set out, then Moses would say, "Rise up, O Jehovah, and let your enemies be scattered, and let those who hate you flee from before you!"
36. And when it rested, he would say, "Return, O Jehovah, to the ten thousand thousands of Israel!"

Numbers 11

- ¶1. And it came to pass that when the people complained among themselves, it was evil in the ears of Jehovah, and when Jehovah heard it, His anger was kindled, and the fire of Jehovah burned and consumed them in the outer part of the camp.
2. And the people cried out to Moses, and Moses prayed to Jehovah, and the fire died down.
3. And he named that place Taberah,¹ because the fire of Jehovah burned among them.
- ¶4. And the mixed multitude who were among them had lustful desires, and then the children of Israel turned away and wept, and they said, "Who will give us flesh to eat?"
5. We remember the fish that we ate freely in Egypt, the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic.
6. For now, our soul is dried up; there is nothing at all but this manna before our eyes."
7. (Now, the manna was like coriander seed, and its appearance like that of bdellium.
8. And the people went about and collected it, and they ground it in a mill, or beat it in a mortar, and then they baked it in a pot and made cakes from it; and its taste was like the taste of fresh oil.

9. And when the dew came down on the camp at night, the manna fell on it.)
 10. And Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, each man at the entrance of his tent, and the anger of Jehovah was kindled greatly, and it was evil in Moses' eyes.
 11. And Moses said to Jehovah, "Why have you done evil to your servant, and why have I not found favor in your eyes, that you laid the burden of all this people on me?"
 12. Did I conceive all this people, or did I give them birth, that you would say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom' as a nursing father would carry a suckling child, to the land that you swore to give their fathers?
 13. From where am I to get flesh to give to all this people? For they are weeping before me, saying, 'Give us meat, that we may eat!'
 14. I am not able to bear all this people by myself; it is just too heavy for me.
 15. If you deal with me like this, kill me, I pray, at once, if I have found favor in your eyes, and let me not see my wretchedness!"
- ¶16. But Jehovah said to Moses, "Gather to me seventy men from the elders of Israel whom you know to be elders of the people and their officers, and bring them to the tent of meeting, that they may present themselves there with you,
17. and I will come down and talk with you there, and I will take some of the Spirit that is on you and put it on them, and they shall bear the burden of the people with you so that you do not bear it alone.
 18. And to the people, you shall say, 'Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat flesh, for you have wept in the ears of Jehovah, saying, "Who shall give us meat to eat? For it was well for us in Egypt." Therefore, Jehovah shall give you flesh and you shall eat.'
 19. You shall not eat it for one day, neither two days, nor five days, nor yet ten days, nor even twenty days.
 20. For a whole month of days, until it comes out of your nostrils, and it becomes loathsome to you, because you have despised Jehovah who is among you, and have wept before Him, saying, "Why did we come out of Egypt?"'
 21. And Moses said, "The people whom I am among are six hundred thousand footmen, and you are saying, 'I will give them flesh, and they shall eat it for a month of days.'
 22. If flock and herd are slaughtered for them, would it be enough for them? Or if all the fish of the sea are gathered for them, would it be enough for them?"
- ¶23. And Jehovah said to Moses, "Has Jehovah's hand been shortened? You shall now see whether my word will happen to you or not!"
24. And Moses went out and spoke the words of Jehovah to the people, and he gathered seventy men from the elders of the people, and he stationed them round about the tent.

25. And Jehovah came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and he took some of the Spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy men, the elders, and it came to pass, that when the Spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, but they did not do it again.
26. But two men, the name of the one was Eldad and the name of the other was Medad, remained in the camp. And the Spirit rested on them (they were also among those who were recorded), though they did not go out to the tent, and they prophesied by themselves in the camp.
27. And a young man ran and reported it to Moses, and he said, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying by themselves in the camp!"
28. Then Joshua ben-Nun, Moses' minister from his youth, answered and said, "My lord Moses, forbid them!"
29. But Moses said to him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all Jehovah's people were prophets, that Jehovah would put His Spirit on them!"
30. And Moses went into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.
- ¶31. And a wind went forth from Jehovah and brought quails from the sea, and it dropped them on the camp, about a day's journey this side and a day's journey that side around the camp, and about two cubits deep on the surface of the ground.
32. And the people rose up all that day, and all the night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quail. The least anyone gathered was ten homers, and they spread them out, all around the camp.
33. The flesh was still between their teeth, not yet chewed, when the anger of Jehovah was kindled against the people, and Jehovah struck the people with a very grievous plague.
34. And he named that place Kibroth-hattaavah² because they buried there the people who lusted.
35. The people journeyed from Kibroth-hattaavah to Hazeroth, and so, they were at Hazeroth.

Numbers 12

- ¶1. And Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses on account of the Cushite woman whom he had taken, for he had taken a Cushite woman.
2. And they said, "Has Jehovah really spoken only to Moses? Has He not spoken to us also?" And Jehovah heard it.
3. (Now, the man Moses was very meek, more than any man who was on the face of the earth.)
4. And Jehovah spoke suddenly to Moses, and to Aaron, and to Miriam, "Come out, the three of you, to the tent of meeting." And the three of them came.

² That is, "graves of lust".

5. And Jehovah came down in a pillar of cloud, and He stood at the entrance of the tent, and He called Aaron and Miriam, and they both came forward.
6. And He said, "Hear now my words. If there be a prophet among you, I, Jehovah, will make myself known to him in a vision; I will speak with him in a dream."
7. Not so with my servant Moses. He is faithful in all my affairs.
8. Mouth to mouth do I speak with him, and plainly, and not in riddles, and he beholds the likeness of Jehovah. Why, then, were you not afraid to speak against my servant, against Moses?"
9. And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against them, and He went away.
10. And the cloud departed from over the tent, and, behold, Miriam was leprous, like snow, and Aaron turned to Miriam, and behold, she was leprous.
11. And Aaron said to Moses, "Oh, my lord, do not, I beg you, lay upon us the sin that we foolishly committed, and in which we have sinned."
12. Oh, let her not be like one dying when he comes out of his mother's womb, whose flesh is half eaten up."
13. And Moses cried out to Jehovah, saying, "O God, I beg you, heal her; I beg you!"
14. But Jehovah said to Moses, "Had her father but spit in her face, would she not be ashamed seven days? She shall be shut up seven days outside of the camp. And afterward, she may be brought in."
15. And Miriam was shut up outside of the camp seven days, and the people did not journey until Miriam was brought in.
16. And afterward, the people journeyed from Hazereth, and they camped in the wilderness of Paran.

Numbers 13

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. "Send men that they may search out the land of Canaan which I am giving to the children of Israel; you shall send one man from each tribe of his fathers, each one a prince among them."
3. And Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran according to the word of Jehovah; all of them were chiefs of the children of Israel.
4. And these were their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua ben-Zaccur;
5. from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat ben-Hori;
6. from the tribe of Judah, Caleb ben-Jephunneh;
7. from the tribe of Issachar, Igal ben-Joseph;
8. from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea ben-Nun;
9. from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti ben-Raphu;
10. from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel ben-Sodi;
11. from the tribe of Joseph, from the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi ben-Susi;
12. from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel ben-Gemalli;

13. from the tribe of Asher, Sethur ben-Michael;
14. from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi ben-Vophs;
15. from the tribe of Gad, Geuel ben-Makhi.
16. These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. But Moses called Hoshea ben-Nun, Joshua.
17. And when Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, he said to them, “Go up this way into the Negev, and then, go on up to the hill country
18. and observe the land, how it is, and the people who dwell on it, whether they are strong or weak, few or many,
19. and what the land that they dwell in is like, whether good or bad, and what kind of cities they dwell in, whether in encampments or in strongholds,
20. whether the land is fertile or unproductive, whether trees are in it or not. And make an effort to bring back some of the fruit of the land.” (Now the season was the time of the firstfruits of the grapes.)
21. And they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, as men go to Hamath.
22. And they went up through the Negev and came to Hebron, and Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak, were there. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)
23. And they came to the valley of Eshcol, and from there, they cut down a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bore it on a pole between two men, and some of the pomegranates and some of the figs.
24. That place was called the valley of Eshcol, on account of the cluster of grapes from there that the sons of Israel cut down.
25. And they returned from spying out the land at the end of forty days.
26. And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel in the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh, and they brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and they showed them the fruit of the land.
27. And they reported to him, and they said, “We came to the land to which you sent us, and yes, it flows with milk and honey, and this is its fruit.
28. However, the people who dwell in the land are mighty, and the cities are fortified and very great, and we also saw the children of Anak there.
29. Amalek dwells in the land of the Negev; and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the hill country, and the Canaanites dwell by the sea and along the Jordan.”
30. Then Caleb silenced the people before Moses, and he said, “Let us go up at once and possess it, for we are well able to do it!”
31. But the men who went up with him said, “We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we are.”

32. And they brought an evil report of the land which they had spied out to the children of Israel, saying, “The land that we passed through, to spy it out, is a land that consumes its inhabitants, and all the people that we saw in it are men of great stature.
33. We also saw the giants there, sons of Anak of the giants, and we were as grasshoppers in our eyes, and we were the same in their eyes.”

Numbers 14

- ¶1. Then all the congregation lifted up and joined their voices, and the people wept throughout that night.
2. And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, and the whole congregation said to them, “If only we had died in the land of Egypt, or that we had died in this wilderness!
3. Why has Jehovah brought us to this land to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become a prey. Would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?”
4. And they said, each one to his brother, “Let us appoint a leader, and let us return to Egypt.”
5. Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before the whole Assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.
6. But Joshua ben-Nun and Caleb ben-Jephunneh, who were among those who spied out the land, rent their garments,
7. and they spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, “The land through which we passed to spy it out is an extraordinarily good land!
8. If Jehovah is pleased with us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us, a land that flows with milk and honey!
9. Only, do not rebel against Jehovah, so that you fear the people of the land, for they are bread for us! Their protection is departed from them, and Jehovah is with us! Don’t be afraid of them!”
10. Then all the congregation said to stone them with stones. But the glory of Jehovah appeared at the tent of meeting to all the children of Israel.
11. And Jehovah said to Moses, “How long will this people spurn me? And how long will they not believe in me, despite all the signs that I have performed in their midst?
12. I will strike them with the plague and disinherit them, and I will make you into a great nation, and mightier than they.”
13. And Moses said to Jehovah, “But the Egyptians will hear! For by your power, you brought this people up from their midst,
14. and they will tell the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that you, Jehovah, are in the midst of this people, that you, Jehovah, are seen eye to eye, and your cloud stands over them, and you go before them in a pillar of cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night.

15. But should you kill this people as one man, then the nations that have heard of your fame will talk, saying,
 16. ‘Because Jehovah was not able to bring this people to the land which He swore to them, therefore, He slaughtered them in the wilderness.’
 17. I pray then, let the power of my Lord now be great, just as you spoke, saying,
 18. ‘Jehovah! Slow to anger, and abundant in mercy, bearing with iniquity and transgression, but who by no means will leave the wicked unpunished, visiting the iniquity of fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations.³
 19. Pardon, I pray you, the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of your mercy, and as you have borne with this people from Egypt even until now.”
 20. And Jehovah said, “I have pardoned, according to your word,
 21. but even so, as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of Jehovah,
 22. truly, all the men who saw my glory, and my signs that I did in Egypt, and in the wilderness, and have tested me these ten times, and have not heeded my voice,
 23. I will damn myself if they will ever see the land that I swore to their fathers.⁴ Yea, none who spurned me shall see it!
 24. But my servant Caleb, inasmuch as he had a different spirit with him and fully followed me, I will bring him into the land that he went into, and his seed shall possess it.
 25. Now, the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwell in the valley. Tomorrow, turn, and take yourselves into the wilderness, by the way of the Red Sea.”
- ¶26. Then Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
27. “How long for this evil congregation who are murmuring against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel that they are murmuring against me.
 28. Say to them, ‘As I live, says Jehovah, I will damn myself if I do not do to you just as you spoke in my ears!
 29. Your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness, yea, all who were numbered, your whole number, from twenty years old and above who have murmured against me.
 30. I will damn myself if any of you shall come into the land for which I lifted my hand to settle you in it, except Caleb ben-Jephunneh, and Joshua ben-Nun!
 31. But your little ones whom you said would be a prey, even them shall I bring in, and they will know the land which you rejected.
 32. But as for you, your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness.
 33. And your children shall tend flocks in the wilderness forty years, and they shall bear your whoredoms, until the last of your carcasses is consumed in the wilderness.

³ Cf. Ex. 34:6–7.

⁴ Literally, only “—if they will ever see the land. . . .” The curse intended with this oath is so unthinkable—God’s own death and damnation—that it is not even uttered. So also, 14:28, 30, 35; 32:11.

34. According to the number of the days that you spied out the land, forty days, shall you bear your iniquities forty years—a day for a year! a day for each year!—and you shall know my enmity.
35. I, Jehovah, have spoken: I will damn myself if I do not do this to all this wicked congregation who congregate against me. In this wilderness shall they be consumed, and there shall they die!”
36. And when the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land returned, they made all the congregation murmur against him by bringing an evil report concerning the land,
37. and those men that brought an evil report of the land died by the plague before Jehovah.
38. But Joshua ben-Nun, and Caleb ben-Jephunneh, of those men who went to spy out the land lived.
39. And Moses told these things to all the children of Israel, and the people mourned greatly.
40. And they arose early in the morning and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, “Here we are, and we are going up to the place that Jehovah said, for we have sinned.”
41. But Moses said, “Why do this? You are transgressing the word of Jehovah; and it will not succeed.
42. Do not go up because Jehovah is not in your midst, that you be not struck down before your enemies.
43. For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and you shall fall by the sword because you have turned back from following Jehovah, and Jehovah will not be with you.”
44. But they presumed to go up to the top of the mountain, but the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, and Moses, did not depart from the midst of the camp.
45. And the Amalekites and the Canaanites who dwelt in that mountain came down, and they struck them down and destroyed them as far as Hormah.

Numbers 15

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, ‘When you come into the land that I am giving to you for your dwellings
3. and you make an offering by fire to Jehovah, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice for an exceptional vow, or a freewill offering, or at your appointed times, to make a placating aroma to Jehovah, from the herd or the flock,
4. then he who brings his offering shall bring to Jehovah a grain offering of a tenth-part of fine flour mixed with a fourth-part of a hin of oil,
5. and a fourth-part of a hin of wine for the drink offering; you shall do this for each lamb of the burnt offering or sacrifice.

6. Or for a ram, you shall make a grain offering of two tenth-parts of fine flour mixed with a third-part of a hin of oil,
7. and for the drink offering, you shall offer a third-part of a hin of wine, a placating aroma to Jehovah.
8. And when you prepare a young bullock as a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice for an exceptional vow, or of peace offerings to Jehovah,
9. then he shall offer with the young bullock a grain offering of three tenth-parts of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil,
10. and you shall offer as a drink offering half a hin of wine as an offering made by fire, a placating aroma to Jehovah.
11. In this manner shall it be done for one ox, or for one ram, or for lambs or kids from the flock.
12. According to the number that you prepare, so shall you do for each one of their number.
13. Every native-born man shall do these things in this manner, when making an offering by fire, a placating aroma to Jehovah.
14. When a sojourner who sojourns with you, or whoever is among you throughout your generations, makes an offering made by fire, a placating aroma to Jehovah, he shall do just as you do.
15. The Assembly shall have one ordinance. For you and for the sojourner who sojourns among you, there shall be one ordinance forever throughout your generations; as you are, so will the sojourner be before Jehovah.
16. There shall be one law and one custom for you and for the sojourner who sojourns with you.”

¶17. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

18. “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, ‘When you come into the land to which I am bringing you,
19. then it shall be that when you eat of the food of the land, you shall take out a portion for Jehovah.
20. As firstfruits of your dough, you shall excise a cake as a portion; like a portion from a threshing floor, so you shall excise it.
21. From the first of your dough, you shall give a portion to Jehovah throughout your generations.

¶22. “And if you have erred and not kept all of these commandments that Jehovah has spoken to Moses,

23. any that Jehovah commanded you by the hand of Moses from the day that Jehovah commanded them and onward, throughout your generations,
24. then it shall be, if it was committed ignorantly without the awareness of the congregation, that the whole congregation shall offer one young bullock as a burnt offering, for a placating aroma to Jehovah, with its grain offering and its drink offering according to the ordinance, and one male from the goats for a sin offering.

25. And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them, for it was a sin of ignorance, and they shall bring their offering made by fire to Jehovah, and their sin offering before Jehovah for their ignorance,
 26. and all the congregation of the children of Israel shall be forgiven, and the sojourner who sojourns in their midst, because all the people were in ignorance.
 - ¶27. “But if one person sins ignorantly, then he shall bring a year old she-goat for a sin offering,
 28. and the priest shall make atonement before Jehovah for the ignorant soul when he commits a sin of ignorance, making atonement for him, that it may be forgiven him.
 29. There shall be one law for you concerning him who commits sin ignorantly, both for the native-born children of Israel and for the sojourner who sojourns in your midst.
 30. But the soul who acts defiantly, whether native-born or a sojourner, he is blaspheming Jehovah, and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.
 31. Because he has despised the word of Jehovah and broken His commandment, that soul shall surely be cut off; his iniquity shall be upon him.”
- ¶32. And it came to pass while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath day.
 33. And those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses, and to Aaron, and to the whole congregation.
 34. And they put him in custody because what should be done to him had not been revealed.
 35. And Jehovah said to Moses, “The man shall surely be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him with stones outside the camp.”
 36. Then all the congregation brought him outside the camp, and they stoned him with stones, and he died, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
- ¶37. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
 38. “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them that they shall make for themselves a tassel on the hems of their garments throughout their generations, and for the tassel of the hem, they shall use blue thread.
 39. And it shall be for you a tassel that you might see it and remember all the commandments of Jehovah and do them, so that you do not follow after your own heart and after your eyes, by which you go a-whoring,
 40. that you might remember, and do all my commandments, and be holy to your God.
 41. I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God; I am Jehovah your God.”

- ¶1. Now, Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took
2. men of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty leaders of the congregation, chosen men of the Assembly, men of reputation, and they rose up before Moses.
3. And they assembled against Moses and against Aaron, and they said to them, “You take too much on yourselves! For the whole congregation is holy—all of them!—and Jehovah is in their midst! Why then do you exalt yourselves above the Assembly of Jehovah?”
4. And when Moses heard this, he fell on his face.
5. Then he spoke to Korah and to all his congregation, saying, “In the morning, Jehovah will show who is His, and who is holy, and He will cause him to draw near to Him. And He will cause the one He has chosen for Himself to draw near to Him.
6. Do this. Take censers for yourselves, Korah and all his congregation,
7. and put fire in them, and lay incense on them before Jehovah tomorrow. And it will be that the one whom Jehovah chooses, he is holy. You take too much on yourselves, you sons of Levi!”
8. And Moses said to Korah, “Hear me now, you sons of Levi!
9. Is it a small thing to you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel to bring you near to Him to do the work of the tabernacle of Jehovah and to stand before the congregation to serve them?
10. He has brought you, Korah, near, and all your brothers, the sons of Levi, with you, and you are after the priesthood as well?
11. That is why you and your congregation have assembled yourselves against Jehovah! As for Aaron, what is he, that you murmur against him?”
12. And Moses sent to call for Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, but they said, “We will not come up.
13. Is it a small thing that you brought us out of a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the wilderness, that you have made yourself ruler over us? Yea, you appointed yourself ruler!
14. Indeed, you have not brought us to a land flowing with milk and honey, or given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you put out the eyes of those men? We will not come up!”
15. Then Moses was very angry, and said to Jehovah, “Have no respect for their offering. Not one donkey have I taken from them. Neither have I done harm to one of them.”
16. And Moses said to Korah, “You, and all your congregation, be before Jehovah tomorrow, you, and they, and Aaron.
17. And each man bring his fire-pan, and put incense on them, and bring them before Jehovah, each man his fire-pan, two hundred and fifty fire-pans—and you and Aaron—each his fire-pan.”

18. So they brought, each man, his fire-pan, and they put fire on them and placed incense on them, and they stood at the entrance of the tent of meeting with Moses and Aaron.
 19. And Korah assembled all the congregation against them at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and the glory of Jehovah appeared to the whole congregation.
 20. And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
 21. “Separate yourselves from the midst of this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment!”
 22. But they fell on their faces, and they said, “O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and you be angry with the whole congregation?”
 23. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
 24. “Speak to the congregation, saying, ‘Get up from around the dwelling of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.’”
 25. And Moses arose and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel followed him.
 26. And he spoke to the congregation, saying, “Get away, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing that is theirs, lest you are swept away in all their sins.”
 27. And they got up from around the dwelling of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. And Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the entrance of their tents, with their wives, and their sons, and their little ones.
 28. And Moses said, “By this shall you know that Jehovah sent me to do all these works and that it is not of my own will:
 29. if these men die the death common to man, or they are visited with a visitation common to man, Jehovah has not sent me.
 30. But if Jehovah creates a new thing, and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them, and all that belongs to them, and they go down alive to Sheol, then you shall know that these men have despised Jehovah.”
 31. And it came to pass as he finished speaking all these words, that the ground under them split open.
 32. And the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, and their households, and all the men that belong to Korah, with all the goods.
 33. And they, and all who belonged to them, went down alive to Sheol and the earth closed over them, and they were destroyed from the midst of the Assembly.
 34. And all Israel who were round about them fled at their cry, for they said, “Lest the earth swallow us up.”
 35. And fire came out from Jehovah, and it consumed the two hundred and fifty men who were offering incense.
- ¶36. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
37. “Speak to Eleazar ben-Aaron, the priest, that he take up the fire-pans from the midst of the burning and scatter the ashes yonder, for they have been consecrated,

38. with the fire-pans of these sinners, at the cost of their lives, and make them into beaten plates to be a plating for the altar, for they offered them before Jehovah; therefore, they are holy, and they will be a sign to the children of Israel.”
39. And Eleazar the priest took the bronze fire-pans that those who were burned up had offered, and they beat them into a plating for the altar,
40. as a memorial to the children of Israel that a stranger, whoever is not of the seed of Aaron, does not come near to offer incense before Jehovah, and he not be like Korah and like his congregation, as Jehovah said to him by the hand of Moses.
41. But the next day, all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses, and against Aaron, saying, “You have killed the people of Jehovah!”
42. And it came to pass, when the congregation had assembled against Moses, and against Aaron, that they turned to the tent of meeting, and behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of Jehovah appeared.
43. And Moses and Aaron went to the front of the tent of meeting.
44. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
45. “Get up from the midst of this congregation, and I will consume them in a moment.”
And they fell on their faces.
46. And Moses said to Aaron, “Take the fire-pan, and put fire from the altar on it, and place incense on it, and go quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them, for wrath has gone out from Jehovah; the plague has begun!”
47. And Aaron took it, as Moses said, and he ran into the midst of the Assembly, and behold, the plague had begun among the people. And he put on the incense and made atonement for the people.
48. And he stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stayed.
49. And they that died in the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides those who died in the matter of Korah.
50. And Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the tent of meeting, for the plague was stayed.

Numbers 17

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. “Speak to the children of Israel, and take a rod from them, a rod for the house of his father from all of their princes, twelve rods according to the house of their fathers. You shall write each man’s name on his rod.
3. And you shall write Aaron’s name on a rod for Levi, that there be one rod for the head of the house of their fathers.
4. And you shall place them in the tent of meeting before the testimony, where I meet with you.

5. And it shall come to pass that the rod of the man whom I choose shall bud, and I will cause to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel which they murmur against you.”
6. And Moses spoke to the children of Israel, and all of their princes gave him a rod, for each prince a rod, for each prince according to the house of their fathers, twelve rods, and Aaron’s rod was among their rods.
7. And Moses placed the rods before Jehovah in the tent of the testimony.
8. And it came to pass on the next day that Moses went into the tent of the testimony, and behold, Aaron’s rod for the house of Levi had sprouted. Yea, it had put forth buds, and produced blossoms, and yielded almonds.
9. And Moses brought out all the rods from before Jehovah to all the children of Israel, and they looked, and each man took his rod.
10. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Put Aaron’s rod back before the testimony, to keep as a sign for the rebellious children, and put an end to their murmurings against me, that they not die.”
11. And Moses did so; as Jehovah commanded him, so he did.
12. But the children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, “Behold, we perish! All of us will be destroyed! We will be destroyed!”
13. All who come anywhere near the tabernacle of Jehovah shall die. Are we to utterly perish?”

Numbers 18

- ¶1. And Jehovah said to Aaron, “You, and your sons, and your father’s house with you shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary, and you, and your sons with you, shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood.
2. And also, bring your brothers of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, near to you, that they may be joined to you and minister to you, but you and your sons with you shall be before the tent of the testimony.
3. And they shall keep your charge and the charge of the whole tent, but they shall not come near to the vessels of the sanctuary, or to the altar, that neither they nor you die.
4. But they shall be joined to you and keep the charge of the tent of meeting concerning all the service of the tent. But a stranger shall not come near to you.
5. And you shall keep the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar, that wrath will no longer be upon the children of Israel.
6. And I, behold, I have taken your brothers, the Levites, from among the children of Israel for you; they are given as a gift to Jehovah, to do the work of the tent of meeting.
7. But you and your sons with you shall attend to your priesthood in all that concerns the altar and that which is within the veil, and you shall do the service. I have given your priesthood as a gift. And the stranger that comes near shall be put to death.”

- ¶8. Jehovah also said to Aaron, “And I, behold, I have given you the charge of my portions of all the holy things of the children of Israel; I have given them to you and to your sons as a consecrated portion by statute forever.
9. This shall be yours of the most holy things from those offered by fire of all their offerings, of all their grain offerings, and of all their sin offerings, and of all their guilt offerings that they return to me; it shall be most holy to you and to your sons.
10. You shall eat it in the Most Holy Place. Every male may eat it; it is set apart for you.
11. This also is yours: the exsect offering of their gift from all the wave offerings of the children of Israel (I have given them to you, and to your sons, and to your daughters with you by statute forever; everyone who is clean among your household may eat it);
12. all the best of fresh oil, and all the best of new wine, and their firstfruits of grain which they give to Jehovah. I have given them to you.
13. The firstfruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to Jehovah shall be yours; everyone who is clean in your household may eat of it.
14. Every devoted thing in Israel shall be yours.
15. All that first opens the womb of any flesh which they bring to Jehovah, whether of man or of beast, shall be yours; only, you must redeem the firstborn of man, and you shall redeem the firstborn of an unclean beast.
16. And it shall be redeemed when a month old; you shall redeem according to your valuation of five silver shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.
17. But a firstborn of cattle, or firstborn of sheep, or firstborn of a goat, you shall not redeem; they are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood on the altar, and you shall burn their fat as an offering made by fire as a placating aroma to Jehovah.
18. And their flesh shall be yours, as the breast of the wave offering and the right shoulder is yours.
19. All the exsect offerings of the holy things that the children of Israel offer up to Jehovah have I given to you and to your sons and daughters with you by statute forever; it is a covenant of salt to you and to your seed with you forever, before Jehovah.”
20. And Jehovah said to Aaron, “You shall not receive an inheritance in their land, nor shall there be a portion for you among them. I am your portion and your inheritance in the midst of the children of Israel.
21. And, behold, to the children of Levi have I given all the tithe in Israel for an inheritance for their service that they perform, the service of the tent of meeting.
22. And the children of Israel must no longer draw near to the tent of meeting lest they bear sin and die.
23. But the Levite alone shall perform the service of the tent of meeting, and they shall bear their iniquity. It is a statute forever throughout your generations that among the children of Israel, they shall receive no inheritance.

24. But the tithe of the children of Israel which they render to Jehovah as a portion, I have given to the Levites as an inheritance. This is why I said to them that among the children of Israel, they shall receive no inheritance."

¶25. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

26. "Speak also to the Levites, and say to them, 'When you take the tithe from the children of Israel which I have given to you from them as your inheritance, then you shall take Jehovah's portion out of it, a tithe of the tithe.'
27. And your portion shall be reckoned to you as the grain from the threshing floor, and as the fullness of the winepress.
28. In such manner, you shall also offer Jehovah's portion out of all your tithes which you accept from the children of Israel, and you shall give Jehovah's portion from it to Aaron the priest.
29. From all your gifts, you shall render all of Jehovah's portions from the choicest part, its consecrated portion.'
30. And you shall say to them, 'When you have rendered its choicest part from it, then it shall be reckoned to the Levites as the increase of the threshing floor and as the increase of the winepress.'
31. And you shall eat it anywhere, you and your household. It is for your service in the tent of meeting.
32. And you shall not bear sin on account of it when you render the choicest part of it. And you shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, lest you die.'"

Numbers 19

¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2. "This is a statute of the law which Jehovah commands, saying, 'Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring to you a red heifer without defect, in which is no blemish, on which a yoke has never been placed.'
3. And you shall give it to Eleazar the priest, and he shall take it outside the camp, and one shall slaughter it before him.
4. And Eleazar the priest shall take some of her blood with his finger and sprinkle of her blood at the front of the tent of meeting seven times.
5. And one shall burn up the heifer in his sight. Her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall he burn up.
6. And the priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and bright scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning heifer.
7. Then the priest shall wash his garments and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward, he may come into the camp, but the priest will be unclean until evening.
8. And the one who burned her up shall wash his clothes in water and bathe his flesh in water, and he shall be unclean until evening.

9. And a man who is clean shall gather the ashes of the heifer and place them outside the camp in a clean place, and they shall be kept for the water of impurity for the congregation of the children of Israel; it is for purification from sin.
10. And the one who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes and shall be unclean until evening. And this shall be a statute forever for the children of Israel and for the stranger who sojourns among them.
11. He who touches the dead body of any man shall also be unclean seven days.
12. He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day, he shall be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third day, then on the seventh day, he shall not be clean.
13. Whoever touches the dead body of a man who died and does not purify himself defiles the tabernacle of Jehovah, and that soul shall be cut off from Israel, for the water of impurity was not sprinkled on him. He is unclean; his uncleanness is still upon him.
14. This is the law when a man dies in a tent: everyone who comes into the tent and everything that is in the tent shall be unclean seven days.
15. And every open vessel that has no cover fastened on it is unclean.
16. And whoever touches one who was slain with a sword in the open field, or a dead body, or a man's bone, or a grave shall be unclean seven days.
17. And for an unclean person, they shall take some ashes of the burnt heifer for purification from sin, and he shall pour running water on them in a vessel.
18. Then a clean man shall take hyssop and dip it in the water, and he shall sprinkle it on the tent, and on all the vessels, and on the people who were there, and on him who touched the bone, or the slain, or the dead body, or the grave.
19. And the clean man shall sprinkle it on the unclean person on the third day and on the seventh day. And on the seventh day, he shall purify him, and he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and he shall be clean at evening.
20. But a man who is defiled and does not purify himself, that soul shall surely be cut off from the midst of the Assembly because he defiled the sanctuary of Jehovah. The water of impurity was not sprinkled on him; he is unclean.
21. And it shall be a statute for them forever. And he that sprinkles the water of impurity shall wash his clothes, and he who touches the water of impurity shall be unclean until evening.
22. And whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean, and the soul who touches it shall be unclean until evening."

Numbers 20

- ¶1. And the children of Israel, the whole congregation, entered the wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people dwelt at Kadesh. And Miriam died there and was buried there.
2. And there was no water for the congregation, and they assembled against Moses and against Aaron.

3. And the people contended with Moses and spoke, saying, “If only we had died when our brothers died before Jehovah.
 4. For why have you brought the congregation of Jehovah into this wilderness to die here, we and our beasts?
 5. And why did you make us come up out of Egypt, to bring us to this evil place, a place without seed, or fig, or vine, or pomegranate? And there is no water to drink!”
 6. And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the Assembly to the entrance of the tent of meeting and fell on their faces, and the glory of Jehovah appeared to them.
 7. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
 8. “Take the rod, and assemble the congregation, you and Aaron your brother, and you shall speak to the rock in their sight, and it will give of its water. Thus shall you bring forth water for them from the rock and give drink to the congregation and their beasts.”
 9. And Moses took the rod from before Jehovah, as He had commanded him.
 10. Then Moses and Aaron gathered the Assembly before the rock, and he said to them, “Hear now, rebels. Must we bring forth water for you from this rock?”
 11. And Moses lifted his hand, and he struck the rock with his rod twice, and water came forth abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts.
 12. Then Jehovah said to Moses and to Aaron, “Because you did not believe me to sanctify me in the sight of the children of Israel, therefore, you shall not bring this Assembly into the land that I have given them.”
 13. Those are the waters of Meribah because the children of Israel strove with Jehovah, and He was sanctified in them.
- ¶14. And from Kadesh, Moses sent messengers to the king of Edom, “Thus says your brother Israel, ‘You know all the hardship that has come upon us,
15. that our fathers went down to Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt many days, and the Egyptians treated us and our fathers harshly.
 16. And we cried out to Jehovah, and He heard our voice and sent an angel, and he brought us out from Egypt, and behold, we are at Kadesh, a city on the edge of your territory.
 17. Let us pass by, I pray, through your country. We will not pass through field or through vineyard, nor will we drink water from a well. We will travel on the King’s Highway. We will not turn right or left until we have passed through your territory.’”
 18. But Edom said to him, “You shall not pass through me! Otherwise, I will come out to meet you with the sword.”
 19. And the children of Israel said to him, “We will go up by the highway, and if I or my cattle drink your water, then I will pay its price—only this one thing, let me pass through on my feet.”

20. But he said, "You shall not pass through." And Edom came out to meet him with a heavy force and a strong hand.
21. Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his territory, and Israel turned away from him.
- ¶22. And the children of Israel, the whole congregation, set out from Kadesh, and they came to Mount Hor.
23. And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron at Mount Hor on the border of the land of Edom, saying,
24. "Aaron shall be gathered to his people, for he shall not enter into the land that I have given to the children of Israel because you rebelled against my command at the waters of Meribah.
25. Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up on Mount Hor.
26. And strip Aaron of his garments, and put them on Eleazar his son. Then Aaron shall be gathered and die there."
27. And Moses did as Jehovah commanded, and they went up to Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.
28. And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son. And Aaron died there on the top of the mount. Then Moses came down with Eleazar from the mount.
29. And all the congregation saw that Aaron had died, and all the house of Israel wept for Aaron thirty days.

Numbers 21

- ¶1. And the Canaanite king of Arad, who dwelt in the Negev, heard that Israel was coming by the way of Atharim, and he fought against Israel and took some of them captive.
2. Then Israel vowed a vow to Jehovah and said, "If you will at all give this people into my hand, then I will devote their cities."
3. And Jehovah listened to the voice of Israel, and He delivered up the Canaanites, and he devoted them and their cities, and named that place Hormah.
- ¶4. Then they set out from Mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea to go around the land of Edom, and the soul of the people became impatient on the way.
5. And the people spoke against God, and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up from Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, and there is no water, and our soul loathes this miserable bread."
6. And Jehovah sent snakes, venomous snakes, among the people, and they bit the people, and many of the people of Israel died.
7. Then the people came to Moses, and they said, "We have sinned, for we spoke against Jehovah, and against you. Pray to Jehovah that He will take the snakes away from us." So Moses prayed for the people.

8. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Make for yourself a venomous serpent, and set it on a pole, and it shall be that anyone who is bitten and looks at it shall live.
 9. And Moses made a bronze serpent and set it on the pole, and it came to pass that if a snake bit a man and he looked at the bronze serpent, then he lived.
- ¶10. And the children of Israel set out and encamped at Oboth.
11. And they set out from Oboth and encamped at Ijea-haabarin in the wilderness that is before Moab, toward the sunrise.
 12. From there, they set out and encamped at the wadi Zared.
 13. From there, they set out and encamped on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wilderness that comes out from the border of the Amorites, for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.
 14. (Therefore, it is said in the book of the wars of Jehovah, “Wahev in Suphah and the wadis, Arnon
 15. and the bed of the wadis that extend to the site of Ar and that slope toward the border of Moab.”)
 16. And from there, they set out to Beer; it is the well where Jehovah said to Moses, “Gather the people, and I will give them water.”
 17. Then Israel sang this song, “Spring up, O well!—Sing to it!—
 18. the well for which the princes searched. Nobles of the people dug it, at the direction of the lawgiver, with their staffs.” And from the wilderness, they set out to Mattanah;
 19. and from Mattanah to Nahaliel; and from Nahaliel to Bamoth;
 20. and from Bamoth, the valley that is in the country of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looks down over Jeshimon.
- ¶21. And Israel sent messengers to Sihon, king of the Amorites, saying,
22. “Let me pass through your land. We will not turn into field nor into vineyard; we will not drink water from a well. We will travel on the King’s Highway until we have passed through your territory.”
 23. But Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his territory, and Sihon gathered all his people and went out to confront Israel in the wilderness. And he came to Jahaz and fought against Israel.
 24. And Israel struck him with the edge of the sword and took possession of his land from Arnon to Jabbok, unto the children of Ammon, for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.
 25. And Israel took all these cities, and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its villages.
 26. For Heshbon was the city of Sihon, king of the Amorites, and he had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken out of his hand all his land as far as the Arnon.
 27. Because of this, they who make proverbs say, “Come to Heshbon! Let the city of Sihon be built and established.

28. For a fire went out from Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon. It consumed Ar of Moab, and the lords of the heights of Arnon.
 29. Woe to you, Moab! You are destroyed, O people of Chemosh. He has given his escaped sons and his daughters into captivity to Sihon, king of the Amorites,
 30. and we shot them. Heshbon unto Dibon has perished, and we have laid waste as far as Nophah, which reaches to Medeba."
 31. And Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorite.
- ¶32. Then Moses sent to spy out Jazer, and they captured its villages and dispossessed the Amorites who were there.
33. And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan, and Og, the king of Bashan, came out to confront them, he and all his people, for battle at Edrei.
 34. And Jehovah said to Moses, "Do not be afraid of him for I have given him into your hand, and all his people, and his land, and you shall do to him just as you did to Sihon, king of the Amorites who dwelt in Heshbon.
 35. And they struck him down, and his sons, and all his people, until none of his was left alive, and they possessed his land.

Numbers 22

- ¶1. And the children of Israel set out and encamped in the plains of Moab on this side of Jordan, opposite Jericho.
2. And Balak ben-Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.
 3. And Moab was very afraid of the people, for they were many, and Moab was in great dread of the children of Israel.
 4. And Moab said to the elders of Midian, "This company will now lick up everything around us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field." Now Balak ben-Zippor was king of Moab at that time.
 5. And he sent messengers to Balaam ben-Beor at Pethor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, "Behold, a people has come out of Egypt. Behold, they cover the face of the earth and are abiding over against me.
 6. So, come, I pray you, at once! Curse this people for me, for they are mightier than I! Perhaps I will be able to strike them down and drive them out of the land, for I know that whom you bless is blessed, and whom you curse is cursed."
 7. Then the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian went with rewards for divination in their hand, and they came to Balaam and spoke the words of Balak to him.
 8. And he said to them, "Stay here tonight, and I will bring you word, whatever Jehovah speaks to me." And the princes of Moab remained with Balaam.
 9. And God came to Balaam and said, "Who are these men with you?"
 10. And Balaam said to God, "Balak ben-Zippor, king of Moab, has sent to me, saying,

11. ‘There is a people who have come out of Egypt and cover the face of the land. Come at once, and curse them for me! Perhaps I will be able to fight against them and drive them out.’”
12. And God said to Balaam, “Do not go with them. You shall not curse the people, for they are blessed.”
13. And Balaam arose in the morning, and he said to the princes of Balak, “Go to your land for Jehovah refuses to allow me to go with you.”
14. And the princes of Moab rose up and went to Balak, and they said, “Balaam refused to come with us.”
15. But Balak again sent princes, more numerous and nobler than these.
16. And they came to Balaam and said to him, “Thus says Balak ben-Zippor, ‘Let nothing, I pray, restrain you from coming to me.’
17. For I will promote you to great honor, and I will do anything that you say to me. So come, I pray! Curse this people for me!”
18. And Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, “If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of Jehovah my God to do less or more.
19. Yet, for now, you also stay here tonight, if you will, and I will know what more Jehovah might say to me.”
20. And God came to Balaam at night, and He said to him, “Since the men have come to summon you, rise up. Go with them! Nevertheless, the thing that I say to you, that only shall you do.”
21. And Balaam arose in the morning, and loaded his she-ass, and went with the princes of Moab.
22. But God’s anger was kindled because he went. And an angel of Jehovah positioned himself in the road against him, for Satan. And he was riding on the ass, and two of his young men were with him.
23. And the ass saw the angel of Jehovah stationed in the road, and his drawn sword in his hand, and the ass turned aside from the road and went into the field. And Balaam struck the ass to turn her back to the road.
24. But the angel of Jehovah stood in a road closed in between vineyards, a wall on this side and a wall on that side.
25. And the ass saw the angel of Jehovah, and she pressed herself against the wall and pressed Balaam’s foot against the wall, and he struck her again.
26. Then the angel of Jehovah moved on again, and he stood in a narrow place where there was no way to turn right or left.
27. And the ass saw the angel of Jehovah, and she lay down under Balaam. And Balaam’s anger was kindled, and he struck the ass with his staff.

28. Then Jehovah opened the mouth of the ass, and she said to Balaam, “What have I done to you that you have struck me these three times?”
29. And Balaam said to the ass, “Because you have treated me badly. If only there was a sword in my hand, I would kill you right now!”
30. And the ass said to Balaam, “Am I not your ass upon whom you have ridden from the time I was yours until this day? Has it ever been my habit to do so to you?” And he said, “No.”
31. Then Jehovah uncovered Balaam’s eyes, and he saw the angel of Jehovah stationed in the road with his drawn sword in his hand, and he bowed down and did obeisance on his face.
32. And the angel of Jehovah said to him, “Why have you struck your ass these three times? Behold! I have come forth for Satan because your way is perverse before me.
33. And the ass saw me, and she turned from me these three times. Unless she had turned from me, I would surely have killed you by now and let her live.”
34. And Balaam said to the angel of Jehovah, “I have sinned, for I did not know that you were stationed in the road to confront me. So, since it is now evil in your eyes, I shall go back.”
35. But the angel of Jehovah said to Balaam, “You go with the men, but only the word that I say to you, that shall you speak.” And so, Balaam went with the princes of Balak.
36. And Balak heard that Balaam was come, and he went out to meet him at a city of Moab that is on the border of Arnon, which was the border of his territory.
37. And Balak said to Balaam, “Did I not send urgently to you to call you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not indeed able to honor you?”
38. And Balaam said to Balak, “Behold, I have come to you now. Am I at all able to say anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that will I speak.”
39. And Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kirjath-huzoth.
40. And Balak slaughtered cattle and sheep, and sent for Balaam and for the princes who had been with him.
41. And it came to pass in the morning that Balak took Balaam and brought him up to Bamoth-Baal, and from there, he saw the extent of the people.

Numbers 23

- ¶1. And Balaam said to Balak, “Build me seven altars here and prepare seven bullocks and seven rams here for me.”
2. And Balak did as Balaam said, and Balak offered, with Balaam, a bullock and a ram on each altar.

3. And Balaam said to Balak, “Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go. Perhaps Jehovah will come to meet me, and whatever He shows me, that will I tell you. And he went to a bare height.
4. And God did come to Balaam, and he said to Him, “I have set up the seven altars and have offered a bullock and a ram on each altar.”
5. And Jehovah put a word in Balaam’s mouth, and He said, “Return to Balak, and thus shall you speak.”
6. So he returned to him, and behold, he was standing by his offering, he and all the princes of Moab.
7. And he took up his parable and said, “Balak, king of Moab, escorted me from Aram, from the mountains of the east, saying, ‘Come, curse Jacob for me!’ and ‘Come, utter a curse on Israel!’
8. How can I curse? God has not cursed. And how can I utter a curse? Jehovah has not uttered a curse.
9. For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him. Behold, a people shall dwell alone, and it shall not be reckoned among the nations.
10. Who can count the dust of Jacob or number a fourth of Israel? Let my soul die the death of upright men, and may my end be like his!”
11. Then Balak said to Balaam, “What have you done to me? I fetched you to curse my enemies, yet, behold, you have altogether blessed them.”
12. And he answered and said, “Must I not take heed to speak that which Jehovah puts in my mouth?”
13. And Balak said to him, “Come with me, I pray you, to another place where you may see them. From there, you will see only a part of them, and not see them all. Then, curse them for me from there!”
14. And he brought him to the field of Zophim, at the top of Pisgah, and he built seven altars, and offered a bullock and a ram on each altar.
15. And he said to Balak, “Station yourself here, by your offering, and I will meet Jehovah there.
16. And Jehovah came to Balaam, and He put a word in his mouth, and He said, “Return to Balak, and thus shall you speak.”
17. And he went to him, and behold, he was standing by his offering, and the princes of Moab with him, and Balak said to him, “What did Jehovah say?”
18. And he took up his parable and said, “Rise up, Balak, and hear! Give ear to me, O son of Zippor!
19. God is not a man that He should lie, nor a son of man that He should repent. Will He say and not do? Or will He speak and not establish it?

20. Behold, I received a commandment to bless. Yea, He has blessed, and I cannot reverse it.
21. He has not beheld iniquity in Jacob, nor has He seen mischief in Israel. Jehovah his God is with them, and the battle-cry of the King is among them.
22. God brought them out of Egypt as with the strength of His aurochs.
23. Truly, there is no enchantment against Jacob, nor is there divination against Israel. At the time, it will be said to Jacob and to Israel, ‘What has God done?’
24. Behold, a people shall rise like a lion, and he shall raise himself like a lion. He shall not lie down until he eats the prey and drinks the blood of the slain.”
25. And Balak said to Balaam, “Neither curse nor bless them at all!”
26. But Balaam answered and said to Balak, “Did I not tell you, saying, ‘All that Jehovah says, that will I do?’”
27. So Balak said to Balaam, “Come, I pray you. I will take you to another place. Perhaps it will be pleasing in the eyes of God, and you will curse them for me from there.”
28. And Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, looking down over the Jeshimon.
29. And Balaam said to Balak, “Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bullocks and seven rams for me here.”
30. And Balak did just as Balaam said, and he offered a bullock and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 24

- ¶1. Now, Balaam saw that it was good in the eyes of Jehovah to bless Israel, so he did not go, as at other times, to seek enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.
2. And Balaam lifted his eyes, and he saw Israel dwelling according to his tribes, and the Spirit of God came upon him.
3. And he took up his parable and said, “An utterance of Balaam, Beor’s son, even an utterance of the man whose eyes are open.
4. The utterance of one hearing the words of God, who sees a vision of the Almighty, falling down, with eyes uncovered.
5. How pleasant are your tents, O Jacob, your dwellings, O Israel!
6. Like streams, they are stretched out, like gardens by a river, like aloes planted by Jehovah, like cedars beside the waters.
7. Water shall flow from his buckets, and his seed will have waters in abundance. Moreover, his king shall be exalted above Agag, and his kingdom shall be lifted up.
8. God brought him forth out of Egypt, as with the strength of His aurochs. He shall consume nations, his adversaries, and he shall break their bones and his arrows shall pierce them.
9. He crouched; he lay down like a lion. And like a lion who can rouse him? He who blesses you will be blessed, and he who curses you will be cursed.”

10. And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he slapped his hands, and Balak said to Balaam, "I called you to curse my enemies, but behold, you have blessed them altogether these three times."
11. So, now, flee to your place! I thought to honor you greatly, but, behold, Jehovah has kept you back from honor."
12. But Balaam said to Balak, "But did I not tell your messengers whom you sent to me, saying,
13. 'If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of Jehovah to do good or evil of my own will?' What Jehovah says, that will I say.
14. And, behold, I am going to my people now. Come! I will advise you as to what this people shall do to your people in time to come."
15. And he took up his parable, and said, "An utterance of Balaam, Beor's son, even an utterance of the man whose eyes are open.
16. The voice of him who hears the words of God and possesses knowledge of the Most High! A vision of the Almighty will he see, falling down, with eyes uncovered.
17. I shall see him, but not now. I shall behold him, but not soon. A star shall march forth from Jacob, and a scepter shall arise from Israel, and he will shatter the corners of Moab and beat down all the children of Sheth.
18. And Edom shall be a possession, and Seir, his enemies, shall be a possession, and Israel shall do valiantly.
19. And he shall rule from Jacob, and from the city, he will put the remnant to death."
20. Then he looked upon Amalek and took up his parable, and he said, "The first of nations was Amalek, but his end is to come to destruction."
21. And he looked upon the Kenites, and took up his parable, and he said, "Your dwelling place is enduring, and your nest is set on the crag.
22. Nevertheless, the Kenite shall be destroyed. How long shall Assyria take you captive?"
23. And he took up his parable, and he said, "Woe! Who shall live when God does it?
24. But ships will come from the coast of Kittim, and they shall afflict Assyria and afflict Eber, and he also shall come to destruction."
25. And Balaam rose up, and he went and returned to his place, and Balak also went on his way.

Numbers 25

- ¶1. And Israel dwelled at Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab.
2. And the Moabite women invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people feasted and bowed themselves to the gods of those women.
3. And Israel joined himself to Baal at Peor, and the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Israel.

4. And Jehovah said to Moses, "Take all the heads of the people and execute them openly unto Jehovah, that the burning anger of Jehovah might be turned away from Israel."
5. And Moses said to the judges of Israel, "Each of you kill his men who were joined to Baal at Peor."
6. Then, behold, a man of the children of Israel came and brought a Midianite woman to his brethren, in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of the whole congregation of the children of Israel, while they were weeping at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
7. But Phinehas ben-Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, saw it, and he rose up from among the congregation, and he took a spear in his hand.
8. And he went in after the man of Israel into the pavilion, and he ran the two of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her belly. And the plague on the children of Israel was stopped.
9. And those that died in the plague were twenty-four thousand.

¶10. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

11. "Phinehas ben-Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has turned my fury away from the children of Israel, for he was jealous with my jealousy in their midst, so that I did not consume the children of Israel in my jealousy."
12. Therefore, say, 'Behold, I am giving him my covenant of peace,
13. and it shall be his, and his seed's after him, a covenant of everlasting priesthood, because he was jealous for his God and made atonement for the children of Israel.'"
14. And the name of the man of Israel who was killed, who was struck down with the Midianite woman, was Zimri ben-Salu, a prince of the house of the father of the Simeonites.
15. And the name of the woman, the Midianite who was killed was Cozbi, daughter of Zur, who was head of a clan of a father's house in Midian.

¶16. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

17. "Vex the Midianites and slay them,
18. for they vex you with their wiles, with which they beguiled you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, a daughter of a prince of Midian, their kinswoman who was slain in the day of the plague on account of the matter of Peor."

Numbers 26

- ¶1. And it came to pass after the plague that Jehovah spoke to Moses, and to Eleazar ben-Aaron the priest, saying,
2. "Take the sum of the whole congregation of the children of Israel twenty years old and above by the house of their fathers, everyone in Israel who goes out in the host."
3. And Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke to them in the plains of Moab by Jordan at Jericho, saying,

4. “Take the sum of those twenty years old and above, as Jehovah commanded Moses, even the children of Israel who have come out of the land of Egypt.”
 5. Reuben, the firstborn of Israel. The sons of Reuben: of Hanoch, the family of the Hanochites; of Pallu, the family of the Palluites;
 6. of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Carmi, the family of the Carmites.
 7. These are the families of the Reubenites. And they that were numbered of them were forty-three thousand seven hundred and thirty.
 8. And the sons of Pallu: Eliab.
 9. And the sons of Eliab: Nemuel, and Dathan, and Abiram. This is the Dathan and Abiram who were summoned from the congregation, who strove against Moses and against Aaron with the congregation of Korah when they strove against Jehovah.
 10. And the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, and Korah with that company who died when the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men and they became a sign.
 11. (Yet the children of Korah did not die.)
- ¶12. The sons of Simeon by their families: of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites; of Jachin, the family of the Jachinites;
13. of Zerah, the family of the Zerahites; of Shaul, the family of the Shaulites.
 14. These are the families of the Simeonites: twenty-two thousand two hundred.
- ¶15. The sons of Gad by their families: of Zephon, the family of the Zephonites; of Haggi, the family of the Haggites; of Shuni, the family of the Shunites;
16. of Ozni, the family of the Oznites; of Eri, the family of the Erites;
 17. of Arod, the family of the Arodites; of Areli, the family of the Areliites.
 18. These are the families of the sons of Gad, by those who were numbered of them: forty thousand five hundred.
- ¶19. The sons of Judah were Er and Onan, but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.
20. And the sons of Judah are, by their families: of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites; of Pharez, the family of the Pharezites; of Zerah, the family of the Zarhites.
 21. And the sons of Pharez are: of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Hamul, the family of the Hamulites.
 22. These are the families of Judah, by those who were numbered of them: seventy-six thousand five hundred.
- ¶23. The sons of Issachar by their families: of Tola, the family of the Tolaites; of Phuva, the family of the Phunites;
24. of Jashub, the family of the Jashubites; of Shimron, the family of the Shimronites.
 25. These are the families of Issachar, by those who were numbered of them: sixty-four thousand three hundred.
- ¶26. The sons of Zebulun by their families: of Sered, the family of the Sardites; of Elon, the family of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites.

27. These are the families of the Zebulunites, by those who were numbered of them: sixty thousand five hundred.
- ¶28. The sons of Joseph by their families: Manasseh and Ephraim.
29. The sons of Manasseh: of Machir, the family of the Machirites. And Machir fathered Gilead; of Gilead was the family of the Gileadites.
30. These are the sons of Gilead: of Jeezer, the family of the Jeezerites; of Helek, the family of the Helekites;
31. and of Asriel, the family of the Asrielites; and of Shechem, the family of the Shechemites;
32. and of Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites; and of Hepher, the family of the Hepherites.
33. (And Zelophehad ben-Hepher had no sons, but daughters only. And the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milkah, and Tirzah.)
34. These are the families of Manasseh, and those who were numbered of them were fifty-two thousand seven hundred.
- ¶35. These are the sons of Ephraim by their families: of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthalhites; of Becher, the family of the Bachrites; of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites.
36. And these are the sons of Shuthelah: of Eran, the family of the Eranites.
37. These are the families of the sons of Ephraim, by those who were numbered of them: thirty-two thousand five hundred. These were the sons of Joseph by their families.
- ¶38. The sons of Benjamin by their families: of Bela, the family of the Belaites; of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites; of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites;
39. of Shephupham, the family of the Shuphamites; of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites.
40. And the sons of Bela are Ard and Naaman: of Ard, the family of the Ardites; of Naaman, the family of the Naamites.
41. These are the sons of Benjamin by their families. And those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand six hundred.
- ¶42. These are the sons of Dan by their families: of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan by their families.
43. All the families of the Shuhamites, by those who were numbered, were sixty-four thousand four hundred.
- ¶44. The sons of Asher by their families: of Imnah, the family of the Imnah; of Ishvi, the family of the Ishvites; of Beriah, the family of the Beriites.
45. Of the sons of Beriah: of Heber, the family of the Heberites; of Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites.
46. (And the name of the daughter of Asher was Sarah.)

47. These are the families of the sons of Asher, by those who were numbered of them: fifty-three thousand four hundred.
- ¶48. The sons of Naphtali by their families: of Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites; of Guni, the family of the Gunites;
49. of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites; of Shillem, the family of the Shillemites.
50. These are the families of Naphtali by their families. And those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand four hundred.
51. These were numbered of the sons of Israel: six hundred and one thousand seven hundred and thirty.
- ¶52. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
53. “To these shall the land be divided as an inheritance in proportion to the number of names.
54. For many, you shall enlarge its inheritance, and for few, you shall reduce its inheritance; each shall be given its inheritance according to its numbering.
55. Howbeit, the land shall be divided by lot; according to the names of the tribes of their fathers shall they inherit.
56. According to the lot shall its inheritance be divided between many and few.”
- ¶57. And these are they who were numbered of the Levites by their families: of Gershon, the families of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites.
58. These are the families of Levi: the family of the Libnites; the family of the Hebronites; the family of the Mahlites; the family of the Mushites; the family of the Korhites. And Kohath fathered Amram.
59. And the name of Amram’s wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi whom her mother bore to Levi in Egypt. And to Amram, she bore Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister.
60. And to Aaron was born Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
61. And Nadab and Abihu died when they offered strange fire before Jehovah.
62. And those who were numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, every male a month old and above (for they were not numbered among the children of Israel because no inheritance was given to them among the children of Israel).
- ¶63. These are those who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by Jordan at Jericho.
64. And among these was not a man who was numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest when they numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.
65. For Jehovah had said to them, “They shall surely die in the wilderness.” And not a man of them remained except Caleb ben-Jephunneh and Joshua ben-Nun.

- ¶1. Then the daughters of Zelophehad ben-Hepher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh ben-Joseph, came near. And these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah.
2. And they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation at the entrance of the tent of meeting, saying,
3. "Our father died in the wilderness, though he was not among the congregation that gathered against Jehovah with the congregation of Korah, but died in his own sin. Now, he had no sons.
4. Why should the name of our father disappear from among his family because he had no son? Give us a possession among the brothers of our father!"
5. And Moses brought their case before Jehovah.
6. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
7. "The daughters of Zelophehad have spoken rightly. You shall certainly give them a possession as an inheritance among the kinsmen of their father, and you shall cause the inheritance of their father to pass to them.
8. And you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'If a man die and has no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter.'
9. And if he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.
10. And if he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers.
11. And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to the nearest relative in his family, and he shall possess it.'" And this is a statute of judgment for the children of Israel, just as Jehovah commanded Moses.
- ¶12. And Jehovah said to Moses, "Go up to this mountain of Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the children of Israel.
13. When you have seen it, then you also shall be gathered to your people, just as Aaron your brother was gathered,
14. because you rebelled against my command in the wilderness of Zin, during the strife of the congregation, to sanctify me before their eyes concerning the waters." (They are the waters of Meribah at Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.)
15. And Moses spoke to Jehovah, saying,
16. "May Jehovah, God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation
17. who will go out before them, and who will come in before them, and who will lead them out, and who will bring them in, so that the congregation of Jehovah will not be like a flock which has no shepherd."
18. And Jehovah said to Moses, "Take Joshua ben-Nun, a man with whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him.
19. And cause him to stand before Eleazar the priest, and before the whole congregation, and charge him in their sight.

20. And you shall put some of your glory upon him, so that all the congregation of the children of Israel will obey him.
21. And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, and he shall inquire for him before Jehovah with the judgment of the Urim. According to his word shall they go out, and according to his word shall they come in, he, and all the children of Israel with him, even the whole congregation."
22. And Moses did as Jehovah commanded him, and he took Joshua and caused him to stand before Eleazar the priest and before the whole congregation.
23. And he laid his hands on him and charged him just as Jehovah had spoken by the hand of Moses.

Numbers 28

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. "Command the children of Israel, and say to them, 'My offering of my bread for my offerings made by fire, as my placating aroma, you shall be careful to bring to me at its appointed time.'
3. And you shall say to them, 'This is the offering made by fire which you shall bring to Jehovah: two unblemished lambs, a year-old, day by day as a continual burnt offering.
4. The one lamb, you shall offer in the morning, and the second lamb, you shall offer at twilight
5. with a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a grain offering, mixed with a fourth part of a hin of beaten oil.
6. It shall be a continual burnt offering which was ordained on Mount Sinai. It is a placating aroma made by fire to Jehovah.
7. And its drink offering shall be a fourth part of a hin for the one lamb. In the holy place, you shall pour out the drink offering of strong drink to Jehovah.
8. And the second lamb, you shall offer at twilight. You shall do it as you did the morning grain offering, and its drink offering. It is an offering made by fire, a placating aroma to Jehovah.'
- ¶9. "And on the Sabbath day, you shall offer two unblemished lambs a year-old, with a grain offering of two tenth-parts of fine flour mixed with oil, and its drink offering,
10. as a burnt offering every Sabbath, besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.
11. And at the beginning of each of your months, you shall offer a burnt offering to Jehovah: two bullocks from the herd, and one ram, seven unblemished lambs a year-old,
12. with three tenth-parts of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering for each bullock, and two tenth-parts of fine flour mixed with oil for the grain offering for the one ram,

13. and a tenth-part of fine flour mixed with oil for the grain offering of each lamb, for a burnt offering, a placating aroma made by fire to Jehovah.
 14. And their drink offerings shall be half a hin of wine for each bullock, and a third of a hin for the ram, and a fourth part of a hin for each lamb. This is the burnt offering for each month throughout the months of the year.
 15. And you shall offer one male of the goats for a sin offering to Jehovah, besides the continual burnt offering that is made and its drink offering.””
- ¶16. “And in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, is Jehovah’s Passover.
17. And on the fifteenth day of this month shall be a feast. Seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.
 18. On the first day shall be a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work.
 19. And you shall offer an offering made by fire, a burnt offering to Jehovah: two bullocks from the herd, and one ram, and seven lambs a year-old. They shall be unblemished ones belonging to you.
 20. And their grain offering shall be fine flour mixed with oil; you shall offer three tenth-parts for each bullock, and two tenth-parts for the ram,
 21. a tenth-part shall you offer for each lamb of the seven lambs.
 22. And you shall offer one male goat for a sin offering to make atonement for you.
 23. You shall offer these besides the morning burnt offering which is the continual burnt offering.
 24. In this manner shall you offer a food-offering made by fire, a placating aroma to Jehovah, daily for the seven days. It shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.
 25. And on the seventh day shall be a holy convocation for you. You shall do no servile work.
- ¶26. “And on the day of firstfruits, when you bring a new grain offering to Jehovah after your weeks, there shall be a holy convocation for you. You shall do no servile work.
27. And you shall offer a burnt offering as a placating aroma to Jehovah: two bullocks from the herd, one ram, seven lambs a year-old.
 28. And their grain offering shall be fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth-parts for each bullock, and two tenth-parts for the ram,
 29. and a tenth-part for each lamb of the seven lambs.
 30. And you shall offer one male of the goats to make atonement for you,
 31. besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering. You shall offer unblemished ones belonging to you, and their drink offerings.

- ¶1. “And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, there shall be a holy convocation for you. You shall do no servile work. It shall be a day of blowing trumpets for you.
 2. And you shall offer a burnt offering as a placating aroma to Jehovah: one bullock from the herd, one ram, seven unblemished lambs a year-old.
 3. And their grain offering shall be fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth-parts for the bullock, two tenth-parts for the ram,
 4. and one tenth-part for each lamb of the seven lambs.
 5. And you shall offer one male of the goats for the sin offering to make atonement for you,
 6. besides the burnt offering for the new moon and its grain offering, and the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance, as a placating aroma made by fire to Jehovah.
- ¶7. “And on the tenth day of this seventh month, there shall be a holy convocation for you, and you shall afflict your souls. You shall do no work.
 8. And you shall offer to Jehovah a burnt offering, a placating aroma: one bullock from the herd, one ram, seven lambs a year-old. They shall be unblemished ones belonging to you.
 9. And their grain offering shall be fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth-parts for the bullock, two tenth-parts for the one ram,
 10. and a tenth-part for each lamb of the seven lambs.
 11. You shall offer one male of the goats for the sin offering, besides the sin offering of the atonements and the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings.
- ¶12. “And on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, there shall be a holy convocation for you. You shall do no servile work. And you shall celebrate a feast to Jehovah seven days.
 13. And you shall offer as a burnt offering, a placating aroma made by fire to Jehovah, thirteen bullocks from the herd, two rams, fourteen lambs a year-old. They shall be unblemished.
 14. And their grain offerings shall be fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth-parts for each of the thirteen bullocks, two tenth-parts for each ram of the two rams,
 15. and a tenth-part for each lamb of the fourteen lambs.
 16. And you shall offer one male of the goats for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offering.
- ¶17. “And on the second day, you shall offer twelve bullocks from the herd, two rams, fourteen lambs a year-old, unblemished,

18. and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance.
19. And you shall offer one male of the goats for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings.
- ¶20. “And on the third day, you shall offer eleven bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs a year-old, unblemished,
21. and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance.
22. And you shall offer one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering and its drink offering.
- ¶23. “And on the fourth day, you shall offer ten bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs a year-old, unblemished,
24. their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance.
25. And you shall offer one male of the goats for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offering.
- ¶26. “And on the fifth day, you shall offer nine bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs a year-old, unblemished,
27. and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance.
28. And you shall offer one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering and its drink offering.
- ¶29. “And on the sixth day, you shall offer eight bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs a year-old, unblemished,
30. and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance.
31. And you shall offer one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offerings.
- ¶32. “And on the seventh day, you shall offer seven bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs a year-old, unblemished,
33. and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to their ordinance.
34. And you shall offer one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offering.
- ¶35. “On the eighth day, there shall be a solemn Assembly for you. You shall do no servile work.

36. And you shall offer as a burnt offering, a placating aroma made by fire to Jehovah, one bullock, one ram, seven lambs a year-old, unblemished,
 37. their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bullock, for the ram, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance.
 38. And you shall offer one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering and its drink offering.
- ¶39. “These things shall you offer to Jehovah at your appointed times (besides your offerings for a vow and your freewill offerings) for your burnt offerings, and for your grain offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings.”
40. And Moses spoke to the children of Israel according to all that Jehovah commanded Moses.

Numbers 30

- ¶1. And Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the children of Israel, saying, “This is the thing that Jehovah has commanded:
2. If a man vow a vow to Jehovah, or he swears an oath to bind his soul with an obligation, he shall not break his word; according to all that proceeded from his mouth shall he do.
3. But if a woman in her father’s house in her youth vows a vow to Jehovah and binds herself with an obligation,
4. if her father hears her vow and her obligation with which she bound her soul, and her father holds his peace with her, then all her vows shall stand, and every obligation with which she has bound her soul shall stand.
5. But if her father forbids her on the day he hears, then none of her vows or her obligations with which she bound her soul shall stand, and Jehovah will forgive her because her father forbade her.
6. But if it be that she marry a man with her vows on her, or her lips make a rash utterance with which she binds her soul,
7. and her husband hears and holds his peace with her on the day he hears, then her vows shall stand, and her obligations with which she bound her soul shall stand.
8. But if her husband forbids her on the day he hears, then he has voided her vow that was on her, or the rash utterance of her lips with which she bound her soul, and Jehovah will forgive her.
9. But a vow of a widow or a divorced woman, anything with which she binds her soul, shall stand against her.
10. And if she vowed while in the house of her husband, or bound her soul with an obligation by an oath,
11. and her husband heard and held his peace with her, not forbidding her, then all her vows shall stand, and every obligation with which she bound her soul shall stand.

12. But if her husband made them utterly void on the day he heard, nothing that proceeded from her lips concerning her vows or concerning the obligation of her soul shall stand; her husband made them void and Jehovah will forgive her.
13. Every vow and every binding oath that afflicts the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may void it.
14. But if her husband altogether hold his peace with her from day to day, then he has established all her vows or all her obligations which are on her; he has established them because he held his peace with her on the day he heard.
15. But if he make them utterly void after the day he hears, then he shall bear her iniquity.”
16. These are the statutes which Jehovah commanded Moses concerning a man and his wife, and concerning a father and his daughter in her youth in her father’s house.

Numbers 31

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. “Take vengeance for the children of Israel on the Midianites; afterward, you shall be gathered to your people.”
3. Then Moses spoke to the people, saying, “Arm men from among you for the war, and they shall go against Midian to execute the vengeance of Jehovah on Midian.
4. A thousand from each tribe of all the tribes of Israel shall you send to the war.”
5. And from the thousands of Israel, a thousand were chosen from each tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.
6. And Moses sent them, a thousand from each tribe, to the war, them and Phinehas ben-Eleazar the priest to the war, with instruments of the sanctuary, even trumpets for the alarm, in his hand.
7. And they waged war against Midian just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, and they killed every male.
8. And they killed the kings of Midian along with their slain: Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba; five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam ben-Beor with the sword.
9. And the children of Israel took the women of Midian captive, and their children, and they took as spoil all their beasts, and all their cattle, and all their goods.
10. And all their cities with their dwellings and all their camps, they burned with fire.
11. But they took all the spoil and all the plunder, both man and beast.
12. And they brought the captives, and the plunder, and the spoil to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the children of Israel, to the camp in the plains of Moab, which is by Jordan at Jericho.
13. And Moses and Eleazar the priest went out, and all the princes of the congregation, to meet them outside the camp.
14. And Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds who were coming in from the service of the war.

15. And Moses said to them, “You kept every female alive?
16. Behold, these women caused the sons of Israel, through Balaam’s counsel, to commit treachery against Jehovah in the matter of Peor, and the plague came on the congregation of Jehovah!
17. Immediately, then, kill every male among the children, and kill every woman who has known man by lying with a male!
18. But all the young women who have not known lying with a male, keep alive for yourselves.
19. And you shall encamp outside of the camp seven days. Whoever killed a person or whoever touched a slain person, you shall purify yourselves on the third day and on the seventh day, both you and your captives.
20. And you shall purify every garment, and every vessel of skin, and everything made from goats, and every vessel of wood.”
21. And Eleazar the priest said to the men of the army who went to the battle, “This is the statute of the law which Jehovah commanded Moses.
22. Surely, the gold, and the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead—
23. everything that can go into the fire—you shall cause to pass through the fire, and it shall be clean. Nevertheless, it must be purified with the water of separation. And everything that cannot go into the fire, you shall cause to pass through the water.
24. And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean, and afterward, you may come into the camp.”

¶25. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

26. “You and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation, take the sum of the plunder taken captive, both man and beast,
27. and divide the plunder between those who took part in the battle, who went out to the war, and all the congregation.
28. And take out a tribute for Jehovah from the fighting men who went out to the war; one soul in five hundred, of the people, and of the cattle, and of the donkeys, and of the sheep.
29. You shall take it from their half, and you shall give it to Eleazar the priest as an exsect offering to Jehovah.
30. And from the children of Israel’s half, take one drawn from every fifty, of the people, of the cattle, of the donkeys, and of the sheep—of every beast—and you shall give them to the Levites who keep the charge of the tabernacle of Jehovah.”
31. And Moses and Eleazar the priest did just as Jehovah commanded Moses.
32. And the plunder that remained of the booty that the men of war had taken was: of sheep, six hundred and seventy-five thousand;
33. and of cattle, seventy-two thousand;
34. and of donkeys, sixty-one thousand;

35. and of persons, of the women who had not known lying with a male, every soul was thirty-two thousand.
36. And the number of the half portion for those who went out in the army: of the sheep, three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred
37. (and the tribute to Jehovah from the sheep was six hundred and seventy-five);
38. and of the cattle, thirty-six thousand (and their tribute to Jehovah was seventy-two);
39. and of the donkeys, thirty thousand five hundred (and their tribute to Jehovah was sixty-one);
40. and of the persons, sixteen thousand (and their tribute to Jehovah was thirty-two persons).
41. And Moses gave the tribute, an excised offering to Jehovah, to Eleazar the priest just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
42. And the children of Israel's half which Moses took from the men who went to war,
43. even the congregation's half, was: of sheep, three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred;
44. and of cattle, thirty-six thousand;
45. and of donkeys, thirty thousand five hundred;
46. and of persons, sixteen thousand.
47. And from the children of Israel's half, Moses took one portion drawn from fifty of the people and of the beasts, and he gave them to the Levites who keep the charge of the tabernacle of Jehovah, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
48. And those who were appointed over the thousands of the army, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, approached Moses,
49. and they said to Moses, "Your servants took the sum of the men of war who were under us, and not one of us is missing.
50. We, then, have brought an offering to Jehovah, each man who found an article of gold: armlet or bracelet, ring, earring, or ornament, to make atonement for our lives before Jehovah."
51. And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from them, all the crafted articles.
52. And all the gold of the excise offering from the captains of thousands and from the captains of hundreds which they presented to Jehovah was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels.
53. (Each of the men of the army had taken plunder for himself.)
54. And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and they brought it into the tent of meeting as a memorial for the children of Israel before Jehovah.

Numbers 32

- ¶1. Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had many cattle, very many, and they saw the region of Jazer and the region of Gilead, and behold, the place was a place for cattle.

2. And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben came, and they spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the priest, and to the princes of the congregation, saying,
3. “Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon,
4. the country which Jehovah struck down before the congregation of Israel, it is a land for cattle and your servants have cattle.”
5. And they said, “If we have found favor in your eyes, let this land be given to your servants for a possession. Do not have us to cross over the Jordan.”
6. But Moses said to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben, “Shall your brothers go to war and you sit here?
7. And why would you discourage the heart of the children of Israel from going over to the land which Jehovah has given them?
8. That’s what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to observe the land.
9. They went up to the valley of Eshcol and observed the land, but they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel so that they would not go into the land which Jehovah had given them.
10. And the anger of Jehovah was kindled on that day, and He swore, saying,
11. ‘I will damn myself if the men who came up from Egypt, twenty years old and above, see the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they have not wholly followed me,
12. except Caleb ben-Jephunneh, the Kenizite, and Joshua ben-Nun, for they have wholly followed Jehovah.’
13. And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years until the entire generation that had done evil in the sight of Jehovah was gone.
14. And behold, you have risen up in your fathers’ place, a brood of sinful men, to be swept away again by the burning anger of Jehovah toward Israel.
15. If you turn away from following Him, then He will yet again cause them to wander in the wilderness, and you will have destroyed all this people.”
16. Then they came near to him, and they said, “We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones,
17. then we will arm ourselves, advancing before the children of Israel until we have brought them in to their place, but our little ones shall dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.
18. We will not return to our houses until every man of the children of Israel possesses his inheritance.
19. But we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond because our inheritance has come to us on this side of the Jordan, eastward.”

20. And Moses said to them, “If you do this thing, if you will arm yourselves before Jehovah for the war,
21. and every one of your armed men goes over the Jordan before Jehovah until He has dispossessed His enemies before Him,
22. and the land be subdued before Jehovah, then, afterward, you may return, and you will be guiltless before Jehovah and before Israel, and this land shall be your possession before Jehovah.
23. But, if you do not do so, behold, you will have sinned against Jehovah, and know that your sin will find you out.
24. Build for yourselves cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep, and do what has proceeded from your mouth.”
25. And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying, “Your servants will do just as my lord has commanded.
26. Our little ones, our wives, our cattle, and all our beasts shall be there in the cities of Gilead.
27. But your servants will pass over, every man armed for war, before Jehovah to the battle just as my lord has spoken.”
28. So, concerning them, Moses commanded Eleazar the priest, and Joshua ben-Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel.
29. And Moses said to them, “If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben cross over the Jordan with you, every man armed for the war before Jehovah, and the land be subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead as a possession.
30. But, if they do not cross over armed with you, then they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.”
31. And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben answered, saying, “As Jehovah has spoken to your servants, so we will do.
32. We will cross over armed before Jehovah to the land of Canaan, and the possession for our inheritance shall be ours on this side of the Jordan.”
33. And Moses gave to them, to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and to half of the tribe of Manasseh ben-Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon, king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og, king of Bashan, the land with its cities, with the territories belonging to the cities of the land round about.
34. And the children of Gad built: Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer,
35. and Atroth-Shophan, and Jazer, and Jogbehah,
36. and Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, fortified cities, and folds for sheep.
37. And the children of Reuben built: Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kiriathaim,
38. and Nebo, and Baal-meon (their names were changed), and Sibmah. And they renamed the cities that they rebuilt.
39. And the children of Machir ben-Manasseh went to Gilead and took it, and they dispossessed the Amorites who were in it.

40. And Moses gave Gilead to Machir ben-Manasseh, and he dwelt in it.
41. And Jair ben-Manasseh went and took their small towns, and he named them Havvoth-Jair.
42. And Nobah went and took Kenath and its villages, and he called it Nobah, after his own name.

Numbers 33

- ¶1. These are the journeys of the children of Israel who came out from the land of Egypt according to their hosts, by the hand of Moses and Aaron.
2. And Moses recorded their departures for their journeys, according to the word of Jehovah. And these are their journeys, departure by departure.
3. And they journeyed from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the morrow after the Passover, the children of Israel went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians.
4. And the Egyptians buried all the firstborn whom Jehovah had struck among them. Moreover, Jehovah executed judgments against their gods.
5. And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses and camped at Succoth.
6. And they journeyed from Succoth and camped at Etham, which is at the edge of the wilderness.
7. And they journeyed from Etham and turned back to Pi-hahiroth, which is before Baal-zephon, and they camped before Migdol.
8. And they journeyed from before Hahiroth and passed through the midst of the sea to the wilderness, and they went three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham and camped at Marah.
9. And they journeyed from Marah and came to Elim; and at Elim were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees. And they camped there.
10. And they journeyed from Elim and camped by the Red Sea.
11. And they journeyed from the Red Sea and camped in the wilderness of Sin.
12. And they journeyed from the wilderness of Sin and camped in Dophkah.
13. And they journeyed from Dophkah and camped at Alush.
14. And they journeyed from Alush and camped at Rephidim, and there was no water there for the people to drink.
15. And they journeyed from Rephidim and camped in the wilderness of Sinai.
16. And they journeyed from the wilderness of Sinai and camped at Kibroth-hattaavah.
17. And they journeyed from Kibroth-hattaavah and camped at Hazereth.
18. And they journeyed from Hazereth and camped at Rithmah.
19. And they journeyed from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon-parez.
20. And they journeyed from Rimmon-parez and camped at Libnah.
21. And they journeyed from Libnah and camped at Rissah.
22. And they journeyed from Rissah and camped at Kehelathah.
23. And they journeyed from Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shapher.

24. And they journeyed from Mount Shapher and camped at Haradah.
 25. And they journeyed from Haradah and camped at Makheloth.
 26. And they journeyed from Makheloth and camped at Tahath.
 27. And they journeyed from Tahath and camped at Tarah.
 28. And they journeyed from Tarah and camped at Mithkah.
 29. And they journeyed from Mithkah and camped at Hashmonah.
 30. And they journeyed from Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth.
 31. And they journeyed from Moseroth and camped at Bene-jaakan.
 32. And they journeyed from Bene-jaakan and camped at Hor-hagidgad.
 33. And they journeyed from Hor-hagidgad and camped at Jotbathah.
 34. And they journeyed from Jotbathah and camped at Abronah.
 35. And they journeyed from Abronah and camped at Ezion-gaber.
 36. And they journeyed from Ezion-gaber and camped in the wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh.
 37. And they journeyed from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, at the edge of the land of Edom.
- ¶38. And Aaron the priest went up to Mount Hor, according to the word of Jehovah, and he died there in the fortieth year from the exodus of the children of Israel from the land of Egypt, in the fifth month, on the first of the month.
39. And Aaron was one hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.
 40. And the Canaanite, King Arad, who dwelt in the Negev, in the land of Canaan, heard that the children of Israel were coming.
- ¶41. And they journeyed from Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah.
42. And they journeyed from Zalmonah and camped at Punon.
 43. And they journeyed from Punon and camped at Oboth.
 44. And they journeyed from Oboth and camped at Ijea-haabrim, in the territory of Moab.
 45. And they journeyed from Ijim and camped at Dibon-Gad.
 46. And they journeyed from Dibon-Gad and camped at Almon-diblathaimah.
 47. And they journeyed from Almon-diblathaimah and camped in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.
 48. And they journeyed from the mountains of Abarim and camped in the plains of Moab, by Jordan at Jericho.
 49. And they camped by the Jordan from Beth-jeshimoth to Abel-Shittim, in the plains of Moab.
- ¶50. And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab, by Jordan at Jericho, saying,
51. “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, ‘When you have crossed over the Jordan to the land of Canaan,
 52. then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you and destroy all their idols. And all their molten images shall you destroy, and you shall utterly destroy all their high places.

53. And you shall take possession of the land and dwell in it, for I have given the land to you to possess it.
54. And you shall divide the land among yourselves for a possession by lot according to your families; for the larger, you shall make his inheritance larger, and for the smaller, you shall make his inheritance smaller. For whichever tribe the lot goes out, that shall be its portion; according to the tribes of your fathers shall you take your possession.
55. But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then it shall come to pass that those of them you allow to remain will be pricks in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they will vex you in the land in which you are dwelling.
56. And it shall come to pass that just as I thought to do to them, I will do to you.””

Numbers 34

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
2. “Command the children of Israel, and say to them, ‘You will surely come into the land of Canaan. This is the land which will fall to you as an inheritance, the land of Canaan according to its borders:
3. And your south border shall be from the Wilderness of Zin as far as the border of Edom, and your southern border shall be at the end of the Salt Sea on the east.
4. And your border shall go round from the south to the Ascent of Akrabbim, and pass through Zin, and its goings out from the south are to Kadesh-barnea, and it goes out to Hazar-addar and passes on to Azmon.
5. And the border shall go round from Azmon to the Brook of Egypt, and its goings out shall be toward the sea.
6. For the western border, you shall have the Great Sea. And this shall be your border, the western border.
7. And this shall be your northern border: from the Great Sea, mark out for yourselves Mount Hor.
8. From Mount Hor, mark out to the Entrance of Hamath, and the goings out of the border shall be toward Zedad.
9. And the border shall go out toward Ziphron, and its goings out shall be at Hazar-enan; this shall be your northern border.
10. And you shall mark out for yourselves for the eastern border from Hazar-enan to Shepham.
11. And the border shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, east of Ain, and the border shall descend and run along the eastern side of the Sea of Chinnereth.
12. And the border shall go down along the Jordan, and its goings out shall be the Salt Sea. This shall be your land according to its borders round about.””
- ¶13. And Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, “This is the land which you shall inherit by lot that Jehovah commanded to be given to the nine tribes and the half tribe.

14. For they have taken, namely, the tribe of the children of the Reubenites according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of the Gadites according to the house of their fathers, and the half tribe of Manasseh, they have taken their inheritance.
 15. The two tribes and the half tribe have taken their inheritance on this side of Jordan, eastward from Jericho toward the sunrising."
- ¶16. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,
17. "These are the names of the men who shall divide the land as an inheritance for you: Eleazar the priest and Joshua ben-Nun.
 18. You shall also take one prince, a prince from each tribe, to divide the land as an inheritance.
 19. And these are the names of the men: of the tribe of Judah, Caleb ben-Jephunneh;
 20. and of the tribe of the children of Simeon, Samuel ben-Ammihud;
 21. of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad ben-Chislon;
 22. and of the tribe of the children of Dan, prince Bukki ben-Jogli;
 23. from the children of Joseph, of the tribe of the children of Manasseh, prince Hanniel ben-Ephod;
 24. and of the tribe of the children of Ephraim, prince Kemuel ben-Shiptan;
 25. and of the tribe of the children of Zebulun, prince Elizaphan ben-Parnach;
 26. and of the tribe of the children of Issachar, prince Paltiel ben-Azzan;
 27. and of the tribe of the children of Asher, prince Ahihud ben-Shelomi;
 28. and of the tribe of the children of Naphtali, prince Pedahel ben-Ammihud."
 29. These were those that Jehovah commanded to divide the inheritance of the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

Numbers 35

- ¶1. And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab, by Jordan, at Jericho, saying,
2. "Command the children of Israel that they give cities from the inheritance of their possession to the Levites to dwell in. And you shall give the open field around the cities to the Levites.
 3. And the cities shall be for them to dwell in, and their open fields shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, and for all their beasts.
 4. And the open fields of the cities that you shall give to the Levites shall be from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits round about.
 5. And you shall measure from outside the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits; and the city shall be in the middle. This shall be theirs, as are the open fields of the cities.

6. And of the cities that you shall give to the Levites, six shall be cities of refuge which you shall designate for the manslayer that he may flee there. And besides them, you shall also give forty-two cities.
7. All the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be forty-eight cities, them and their open fields.
8. And the cities which you shall give from the possession of the children of Israel; from those with many, you shall take many, and from those with few, you shall take few. Each tribe according to the size of its inheritance which they have inherited shall give of its cities to the Levites.”

¶9. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

10. “Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, ‘When you have crossed over the Jordan to the land of Canaan,
11. then you shall choose your cities. They shall be cities of refuge for you, that a manslayer who strikes down a man unintentionally may flee there.
12. And they shall be your cities for refuge from the avenger that the manslayer does not die until he stands before the congregation for judgment.
13. And the cities that you give shall be six cities of refuge for you.
14. Three cities shall you give this side of the Jordan, and three cities shall you give in the land of Canaan; they shall be cities of refuge.
15. These six cities shall be for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for the sojourner in their midst; anyone who strikes down a man unintentionally may flee there for refuge.
16. But if he strike him with an iron object, and he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death.
17. And if he strikes him down with a stone in his hand by which he could die, and he does die, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death.
18. Or if he strike him with a wooden object in his hand that could cause death, and he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death.
19. The avenger of blood himself shall kill the murderer; when he finds him, he shall kill him.
20. Or if he thrusts at him in hatred or hurls something at him, lying in wait, and he dies,
21. or he strikes him down with his hand in enmity, and he dies, then he who struck him shall surely be put to death. He is a murderer. The avenger of blood shall kill the murderer when he finds him.
22. But if he thrusts at him suddenly without hatred, or throws any object at him without lying in wait,
23. or a stone by which he dies, without seeing him, or causes something to fall on him so that he dies, and he was not his enemy, nor did he seek his harm,
24. then the congregation shall judge between the manslayer and the avenger of blood according to these judgments.

25. And the congregation shall deliver the manslayer from the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall return him to the city of his refuge where he fled, and he shall live in it until the death of the high priest who anointed him with the holy oil.
26. But if the manslayer at any time goes outside the boundary of the city of his refuge where he fled,
27. and the avenger of blood finds him outside of the boundary of the city of his refuge, and the avenger of blood slays the manslayer, blood shall not be imputed to him,
28. because he must dwell in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest. And after the death of the high priest, the manslayer may return to the land of his possession.
29. And these things shall be for you a statute for judgment throughout your generations in all your dwelling places.
30. Anyone who, according to the word of witnesses, strikes down a person, he shall put the murderer to death. But one witness shall not testify against a man to put him to death.
31. Moreover, you shall not take a ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty unto death, but he shall surely be put to death.
32. And you shall take no ransom for him who flees to a city for his refuge, to let him return to dwell in the land until the death of the priest.
33. And so, you will not pollute the land that you are in, for the blood pollutes the land. And as for the land, no atonement can be made for the blood that is shed in it except by the blood of him who shed it.
34. Do not defile the land in which you dwell, in the midst of which I dwell, for I, Jehovah, dwell in the midst of the children of Israel.

Numbers 36

- ¶1. And the chiefs of the fathers of the family of the children of Gilead ben-Machir, son of Manasseh, of the families of the children of Joseph, came near, and they spoke before Moses, and before the princes, the chiefs of the fathers of the children of Israel.
2. And they said, “Jehovah commanded my lord to give the land by lot as an inheritance to the children of Israel, and my lord was commanded by Jehovah to give the inheritance of Zelophehad, our brother, to his daughters.
3. But they may become wives to any of the sons of the tribes of the children of Israel. Then their inheritance might be removed from the inheritance of our fathers and be added to the inheritance of the tribe of which they become a part, and our inheritance by lot shall be taken away.
4. And when the Jubilee for the children of Israel comes, then their inheritance shall be added to the inheritance of the tribe of which they became a part, and their inheritance shall be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.”

5. And Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of Jehovah, saying,
“The tribe of the children of Joseph have spoken rightly.
 6. This is the thing that Jehovah has commanded concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, ‘Let them become wives to whoever is good in their eyes; only, they shall become wives to the family of the tribe of their father,
 7. that the inheritance of the children of Israel be not passed around from tribe to tribe, but each of the children of Israel shall cling to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.
 8. So, every daughter who possesses an inheritance in the tribes of the children of Israel shall be wife to one from the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may each possess the inheritance of his fathers,
 9. and the inheritance shall not pass from one tribe to another tribe, but the tribes of the children of Israel shall each cling to its inheritance.”
 10. Just as Jehovah commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad.
 11. And Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, daughters of Zelophehad, became wives to sons of their father’s brothers.
 12. They became wives in the families of the sons of Manasseh ben-Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.
- ¶13. These are the commandments, and the judgments, which Jehovah commanded by the hand of Moses to the children of Israel in the plains of Moab, by Jordan at Jericho.

Deuteronomy

Deuteronomy 1

- ¶1. These are the words that Moses spoke to all Israel on this side of the Jordan in the wilderness, in the plain opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Di-zahab.
2. It was an eleven day journey from Horeb by way of Mount Seir to Kadesh-Barnea,
3. but it was in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first of the month, that Moses spoke to the children of Israel, according to all that Jehovah had commanded him for them,
4. after he had killed Sihon, king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and Og, king of Bashan, who dwelt in Ashtaroth and in Edrei.
5. On this side of the Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses began to declare this law plainly, saying,
6. "Jehovah our God spoke to us at Horeb, saying, 'You have stayed long enough at this mountain.'
7. Turn, and take your journey, and go to the mount of the Amorites and to all the neighboring places, the plain, the hill country, and the Shephelah, and the Negev, and the seacoast—the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates.
8. See, I have set the land before you! Go in and take possession of the land that Jehovah swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them, and to their seed after them.'
9. And I spoke to you at that time, saying, 'I am not able to bear you by myself.'
10. Jehovah your God has multiplied you, and behold, today you are like the stars of heaven for number.
11. (May Jehovah, God of your fathers, increase you a thousand times more than you are, and bless you just as He has said to you.)
12. How can I bear your cumbrance, and your burden, and your strife by myself?
13. Provide for yourselves men, wise and discerning, and known throughout your tribes, and I will make them your chiefs.'
14. And you answered me and said, 'The thing that you have said to do is good.'
15. And I took the heads of your tribes, wise men, and known, and I made them chiefs over you, rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, and rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens, and officers, throughout your tribes.
16. And I commanded your judges at that time, saying, 'Hear the cases between your brothers, and judge righteously between each man and his brother, and the stranger with him.'

17. You shall not have respect of persons in judgment; you shall hear the lesser as you hear the greater; do not be intimidated by a man, for the judgment is God's. And bring a matter that is too difficult for you to me, and I will hear it.'
18. And I commanded you at that time that you should do all these things.
19. And we journeyed from Horeb as Jehovah our God commanded us, and we went through all the great and dreadful wilderness that you saw on the way to the mount of the Amorites, and we came to Kadesh-barnea.
20. And I said to you, 'You have come to the mount of the Amorites that Jehovah our God is giving to us.'
21. See, Jehovah your God has set the land before you. Go up! Possess it, just as Jehovah, the God of your fathers, said to you; do not be afraid or dismayed.'
22. Then all of you approached me and said, 'Let us send men before us, and they shall search out the land for us and bring us word again concerning the way by which we should go up into it and the cities into which we shall come.'
23. And the thing was good in my eyes, so I took twelve men of you, one from each tribe.
24. And they turned and went up into the hill country, and they came to the valley of Eshcol and spied it out.
25. And they took some of the fruit of the land in their hands and brought it down to us. And they brought us back word, and said, 'The land which Jehovah our God is giving us is good.'
26. Yet, you would not go up, but rebelled against the commandment of Jehovah your God.
27. And you murmured in your tents and said, 'Because of Jehovah's hatred of us, He brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us up into the hand of the Amorites, to annihilate us.'
28. Where shall we go up? Our brothers have discouraged our heart, saying, "The people are greater and taller than we; the cities are great and fortified up to heaven. And besides, we saw the sons of Anakim there."
29. And I said to you, 'Do not tremble or be afraid of them.'
30. Jehovah your God, who goes before you, He shall fight for you, according to all that He did for you in Egypt, before your eyes,
31. and in the wilderness, where you saw that Jehovah your God carried you, as a man carries his child, in all the way that you traveled until you came to this place.'
32. But in this thing, you would not believe in Jehovah your God,
33. who went before you in the way to search out a place for you to camp, in the fire by night to show you the way that you should go, and in a cloud by day.
34. And Jehovah heard the sound of your words and was angry, and He swore, saying,

35. ‘I will damn myself if one of these men of this evil generation shall see the good land that I swore to give to your fathers,¹
36. except Caleb ben-Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him and to his children will I give the land on which he trod because he fully followed Jehovah.’
37. Jehovah was also angry with me for your sake, saying, ‘You will not go in there, either.
38. Joshua ben-Nun, who stands before you, he will go in. Encourage him, for he will cause Israel to inherit it.
39. And your little ones whom you said would be a prey, and your children who in that day had no understanding of good or evil, they shall go in, and to them will I give it, and they shall possess it.
40. But as for you, turn yourselves and set out toward the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.’
41. And you answered and said to me, ‘We have sinned against Jehovah. We will go up and fight, according to all that Jehovah our God commanded us.’ And each of you girded on his weapons of war, and you were ready to go up to the mount.
42. And Jehovah said to me, ‘Say to them, “You shall neither go up nor fight, for I will not be in your midst, lest you be smitten before your enemies.”’
43. And I spoke to you, and you would not listen, but you rebelled against the word of Jehovah, and you acted presumptuously and went up to the mount.
44. And the Amorites who dwelt in that mount came out to meet you, and they pursued you as bees do, and crushed you in Seir as far as Hormah.
45. And you returned and wept before Jehovah, but Jehovah neither listened to your voice, nor gave ear to you.
46. Then you remained at Kadesh many days, according to the days that you had dwelt there.

Deuteronomy 2

- ¶1. “Then we turned and journeyed into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea, as Jehovah had said to me, and for many days we traveled around Mount Seir.
2. And Jehovah spoke to me, saying,
3. ‘You have traveled around this mountain long enough. Turn northward.
4. And command the people, saying, “You are passing through the territory of your brothers, the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir, and they will be afraid of you. So, take great care.

¹ Literally, only “—if one of these men . . .” The curse intended with this oath is so unthinkable—God’s own death and damnation—that it is not even uttered.

5. Do not contend with them, for I am not giving you any of their land, not so much as for the sole of a foot to tread upon, because I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession.
6. You may buy food from them with money, that you may eat, and you may also purchase water from them with money, that you may drink.”
7. Truly, Jehovah your God has blessed you in every work of your hands. He knows your travels through this great wilderness. This forty years has Jehovah your God been with you; you have lacked nothing.
8. And we passed on from our brothers, the children of Esau who dwell in Seir, by the way of the Arabah from Elath and from Ezion-gaber. Then we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.
9. And Jehovah said to me, ‘Do not harass Moab, nor contend with them in battle, for I am not giving you any of his land as a possession, because I gave Ar to the children of Lot as a possession.
10. (The Emim dwelt in it before them, a people great and numerous and tall, like the Anakim.)
11. They were also considered to be Rephaim, like the Anakim, but the Moabites call them Emim.
12. And the Horim dwelt in Seir formerly, but the children of Esau dispossessed them and annihilated them from before them, and dwelt there in their stead, just as Israel did to the land of its possession that Jehovah gave to them.)
13. Rise up now and pass over the wadi Zared.’ So, we crossed the wadi Zared.
14. And the time from when we went from Kadesh-barnea until we passed over the wadi Zared was thirty-eight years, until all the generation of the men of war were gone from the midst of the camp, just as Jehovah had sworn to them.
15. For the hand of Jehovah was indeed against them, to destroy them from the midst of the camp, until they were gone.
16. And it came to pass when all the men of war had completely died out from the midst of the people,
17. that Jehovah spoke to me, saying,
18. ‘Today, you are passing by the border of Moab, even Ar,
19. and you will come near the frontier of the children of Ammon. Do not harass them, nor contend with them, for I am not giving any of the land of the children of Ammon to you as a possession because I gave it to the children of Lot as a possession.
20. (It was considered to be a land of Rephaim, for the Rephaim dwelt in it before them, but the Ammonites call them Zamzummim,
21. a people great, and numerous, and tall like the Anakim, but Jehovah annihilated them from before them, and they dispossessed them and dwelt there in their stead,

22. just as He did for the children of Esau who dwell in Seir, when He annihilated the Horites from before them, and they dispossessed them and dwelt there in their stead, until this day.
 23. And as for the Avim who dwelt in the villages reaching to Gaza, the Caphtorim, who came forth from Caphtor, annihilated them and dwelt there in their stead.)
 24. Rise up, set out and pass over the Arnon River. See, I have given Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land into your hand. Begin to take possession and contend with him in battle.
 25. This day, I will begin to put dread of you and fear of you on the faces of the peoples under the whole heaven, who shall hear a report about you, and tremble and be in anguish because of you.'
- ¶26. "And from the wilderness of Kedemoth, I sent messengers to Sihon, king of Heshbon, with words of peace, saying,
27. 'Let me pass through your land. I will travel only on the road; I will not turn aside to the right or to the left.
 28. Sell me food for money, that I may eat, and give me water for money, that I may drink. Only, let me pass through on my feet,
 29. just as the children of Esau who dwell in Seir, and the Moabites who dwell in Ar, did for me, until I pass over the Jordan to the land that Jehovah our God is giving to us.'
 30. But Sihon, king of Heshbon, would not let us pass through him, for Jehovah your God hardened his spirit and emboldened his heart, so that He might deliver him into your hand at that time.
31. And Jehovah said to me, 'See, I have begun to deliver up Sihon and his land before you. Begin to dispossess him, that you may take possession of his land.'
 32. Then Sihon came out to confront us, he and all his people, for battle at Jahaz.
 33. And Jehovah our God delivered him up before us, and we struck him down, and his sons, and all his people.
 34. And we took all his cities at that time and devoted every city, men, and the women, and the little ones; we left not one survivor.
 35. Only, we took the beasts as spoil for ourselves, along with the plunder of the cities which we had taken.
 36. From Aroer, which is on the bank of the Arnon River, even the city that is by the river, to as far as Gilead, there was not a town which was too strong for us. Jehovah our God delivered them all up before us.
 37. Only, you did not come near the land of the children of Ammon: all along the Jabbok River, or the cities of the hill country, or any place that Jehovah our God forbade.

- ¶1. "Then we turned and went up the way of Bashan, and Og, king of Bashan, came out to confront us, he and all his people, for battle at Edrei.
2. And Jehovah said to me, 'Do not be afraid of him for I have given him into your hand, and all his people, and his land, and you shall do to him just as you did to Sihon, king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon.'
3. So, Jehovah our God also delivered Og, king of Bashan, and all his people into our hand, and we struck him down until not one survivor was left to him.
4. And we took all his cities at that time. There was not a town which we did not take from them, sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.
5. All these cities were fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, besides a great many unwalled villages.
6. And we devoted them, just as we did to Sihon, king of Heshbon, devoting every city—men, women, and children.
7. But all the beasts and the plunder of the cities, we took as spoil for ourselves.
8. Thus, we took at that time from the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land which is on this side of the Jordan, from the Armon River to Mount Hermon.
9. (The Sidonians call Hermon, Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir.)
10. All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan as far as Salcah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.
11. Now, only Og, king of Bashan, remained of the remnant of the Rephaim. Behold, his bed was a bed of iron. Is it not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon? Nine cubits is its length, and four cubits its width, by the cubit of a man.
- ¶12. "And this land which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the Arnon River, and half of the hill country of Gilead, and its cities, I gave to the Reubenites and to the Gadites.
13. And the rest of Gilead, and all of Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to half the tribe of Manasseh, all the region of Argob, even all Bashan. (The same was called the land of Rephaim.)
14. Jair ben-Manasseh took all the region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and he called them after his own name, Bashan-Havvoth-Jair, as it is to this day.
15. And I gave Gilead to Machir.
16. And to the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead as far as the Arnon River, the middle of the river as the border, and to the Jabbok River, the border of the children of Ammon,
17. and the plain, and the Jordan, and the border near Chinnereth, and to the Sea of the Plain, the Salt Sea, below the slopes of Pisgah which is on the east.

- ¶18. “And I commanded you at that time, saying, ‘Jehovah your God has given you this land to possess it. All of you who are fit for battle shall pass over armed before your brethren, the children of Israel.
19. But your wives and your little ones, and your livestock (I know that you have much livestock) shall remain in your cities which I have given you,
20. until Jehovah gives rest to your brethren as He has for you, and they, too, possess the land which Jehovah your God is giving to them beyond the Jordan. Then you shall return each man to his possession which I have given you.’
21. I also commanded Joshua at that time, saying, ‘Your eyes have seen all that Jehovah your God did to these two kings. Thus shall Jehovah do to all the kingdoms to which you are passing over.
22. You shall not fear them, for Jehovah your God, He is fighting for you!’

- ¶23. “And I sought the favor of Jehovah at that time, saying,
24. ‘O Lord Jehovah, you have begun to show your servant your greatness and your mighty hand. For what God is there in the heavens or in the earth who can do such as your works and your mighty deeds.
25. I beg you, let me cross over and see the good land that is beyond the Jordan, this good hill country, and Lebanon.’
26. But Jehovah was cross with me for your sake, and He would not hear me. And Jehovah said to me, ‘Enough from you! Never speak to me of this matter again.
27. Go up to the top of Pisgah and lift up your eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over this Jordan.
28. And charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him, for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you shall see.’
29. And so, we remained in the valley before Beth-peor.

Deuteronomy 4

- ¶1. “Therefore, O Israel, listen now to the statutes and to the judgments which I am teaching you to do, so that you may live when you go in and possess the land which Jehovah, the God of your fathers, is giving you.
2. You shall not add to the word that I am commanding you, and you shall not take away from it, that you may keep the commandments of Jehovah your God which I command you.
3. Your eyes saw what Jehovah did because of Baal-peor, for Jehovah your God destroyed from your midst all the men who followed after Baal at Peor.
4. But you who held fast to Jehovah your God are alive today, all of you.

5. Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, as Jehovah my God commanded me, to do in the land which you are entering to possess.
 6. And you shall keep them and do them, for that will be your wisdom and your understanding in the eyes of the nations which hear all these statutes. And they will say, ‘Surely, this great nation is a wise and understanding people!’
 7. For what great nation has God so close to it as Jehovah our God is in all that we call upon Him?
 8. And what great nation has righteous statutes and judgments as all this law which I am setting before you today?
 9. Only, take heed to yourself and keep your soul diligently, lest you forget the things which your eyes have seen, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life, and make them known to your children and to your children’s children,
 10. such as the day that you stood before Jehovah your God at Horeb, when Jehovah said to me, ‘Assemble the people to me, and I will cause them to hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all their days that they live on the land, and that they might teach their children.’
 11. And you drew near and stood below the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire to the heart of heaven—darkness, a cloud, even thick darkness!
 12. And Jehovah spoke to you from the midst of the fire. You heard the sound of words, but you did not see a form; you heard a voice only.
 13. And He declared to you His covenant which He commanded you to do, the ten commandments, and He wrote them on two stone tablets.
 14. And Jehovah commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that you might do them in the land to which you are going over to possess.
- ¶15. “Therefore, be very watchful for your souls, for you saw no form at all on the day Jehovah spoke to you in Horeb from the midst of the fire,
16. lest you be corrupted and make for yourselves an idol, a form of any figure: a likeness of a male or female;
 17. a likeness of any beast that is on the earth; a likeness of any winged bird that flies in the sky;
 18. a likeness of anything that creeps on the ground; a likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth,
 19. or lest you lift up your eyes to the heavens and regard the sun, and the moon, and the stars—all the host of heaven—and are led astray and worship them and serve them, which things Jehovah your God provided for all the nations under the whole heaven.
 20. For Jehovah took you, and He brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be His as an inherited people, as it is this day.

- ¶21. "Again, Jehovah was angry with me for your sake, and He swore that I should not cross over the Jordan and not enter into the good land which Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance,
22. but that I must die in this land. There is no crossing over the Jordan for me, but you are crossing over, and you will take possession of that good land.
23. Take heed to yourselves, lest you forget the covenant of Jehovah your God which He made with you, and you make for yourselves an idol, a likeness of anything, as Jehovah your God commanded you.
24. For Jehovah your God is a consuming fire; He is a jealous God.
- ¶25. "When you have fathered children and children of children, and you have continued long in the land, and then you corrupt yourselves and make an idol, a likeness of anything, and you do evil in the sight of Jehovah your God to provoke Him to anger,
26. this day I call heaven and earth as witness against you, that you will certainly quickly perish from the land to which you are passing over the Jordan to possess. You will not prolong your days in it, but you shall be utterly destroyed.
27. And Jehovah shall scatter you among the nations, and you shall be left few in number among the Gentiles to which Jehovah shall drive you away.
28. And there, you shall serve gods of the work of man's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.
29. And from there, you will seek Jehovah your God, and you will find Him when you search after Him with all your heart and with all your soul.
30. When you are in distress and all these things come upon you in the latter days, then you will return to Jehovah your God and obey His voice.
31. For Jehovah your God is a compassionate God; He will not abandon you. He will not destroy you, and He will not forget the covenant of your fathers which He swore to them.
32. For ask, I pray you, regarding the former days which were before you, from the day when God created man upon the earth, and from one end of the heavens to the other, whether there has been the like of this great thing, or has the like been heard of.
33. Has a people heard the voice of God speaking from the midst of the fire, as you heard it, and lived?
34. Or has a god determined to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation through trials, with signs, and with wonders, and in battle with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, according to all that Jehovah your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?
35. You were made to see these things so that you might know that Jehovah, He is God! There is no other besides Him!

36. From heaven, He caused you to hear His voice that He might instruct you, and upon the earth, He showed you His great fire, and you heard His words from the midst of the fire.
 37. And because He loved your fathers, He also chose their seed after them, and with great strength, He has brought you out from Egypt into His presence,
 38. to dispossess before you nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in to give you their land as an inheritance, as it is this day.
 39. Know, then, today, and take it into your heart that Jehovah, He is God in heaven above and on the earth below. There is no other.
 40. Therefore, you shall keep His statutes and His commandments which I command you this day that it may go well with you and for your children after you, and so that you might prolong forever the days on the land which Jehovah your God is giving you.”
- ¶41. At that time, Moses separated three cities on the side of the Jordan toward the sunrise,
42. to which a manslayer, who kills his neighbor unintentionally and who did not hate him in times past, might flee, and that having fled to one of these cities, he can then live:
 43. for the Reubenites, Bezer in the wilderness of the tableland; and Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan for the Manassites.
- ¶44. And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel:
45. These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments which Moses spoke to the children of Israel when they came out from Egypt,
 46. on this side of the Jordan, in the valley before Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel struck down when they came out from Egypt.
 47. And they possessed his land, and the land of Og, king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites who were on the side of the Jordan toward the sunrise,
 48. from Aroer, which is on the bank of the Arnon River, and as far as Mount Sion, which is Hermon,
 49. and all the plain on the eastward side of the Jordan, as far as the Sea of the Plain, below the slopes of Pisgah.

Deuteronomy 5

- ¶1. Then Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, “Hear, O Israel, the statutes and the judgments which I speak in your ears today, and learn them, and take care to do them.
2. Jehovah our God made a covenant with us at Horeb.
3. Jehovah did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with us, those of us here—all of us alive today.
4. Jehovah spoke with you face to face in the mount from the midst of the fire
5. (I was standing between Jehovah and you at that time to make the word of Jehovah known to you, for you were afraid at the presence of the fire and would not go up to the mount), saying,

¶6. ‘I am Jehovah your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of slaves.

7. You shall have no other god besides me.

8. You shall not make for yourself an idol, or any likeness of what is in the heavens above, or in the earth beneath, or in the waters under the earth.

9. You shall not bow down to them or serve them, for I, Jehovah your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of fathers upon children, even to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me,

10. and showing mercy to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.

¶11. ‘You shall not bear the name of Jehovah your God in vain, for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless who bears His name in vain.

¶12. ‘Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, as Jehovah your God commanded you.

13. Six days shall you labor and do all your work,

14. but the seventh day is a Sabbath to Jehovah your God. You shall do no work, you, or your son, or your daughter, your male slave or your female slave, or your ox, or your donkey, or any of your livestock, or your foreigner who is in your gates, so that your male slave and your female slave may rest as you do.

15. For remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and that Jehovah your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore, Jehovah your God has commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.

¶16. ‘Honor your father and your mother, as Jehovah your God commanded you, so that your days may be long, and so that it will go well with you, upon the land that Jehovah your God is giving you.

¶17. ‘You shall not kill.

¶18. ‘And you shall not commit adultery.

¶19. ‘And you shall not steal.

¶21. ‘And you shall not covet your neighbor’s wife; you shall not desire your neighbor’s house, his field, his male slave or his female slave, his ox or his donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.’

¶22. “These words Jehovah spoke to all your assembly in the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness with a great voice, and He added no more, but He wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.

23. And it came to pass that when you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness and the mountain burning with the fire, then you drew near to me, all the heads of your tribes, and your elders,

24. that you said, ‘Behold, Jehovah our God has shown us His glory and His greatness, and we have heard His voice from the midst of the fire! This day, we have seen that God can speak with man, and yet, he live.
25. So why should we now die? For this great fire will consume us if we hear the voice of Jehovah our God again, and we will die!
26. For who is there of all flesh who has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of fire as we have, and lived?
27. You go near and hear all that Jehovah our God says, and then you tell us everything that Jehovah our God said to you, and we will hear it and do it.’
28. And Jehovah heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me, and Jehovah said to me, ‘I have heard the voice of the words of this people that they spoke to you. They have done well in all that they have spoken.
29. Who will give them to have such a heart, to fear me always and to keep all my commandments, that it might go well with them and their children forever?
30. Go! Say to them, “Take yourselves back to your tents.”
31. But as for you, stand here with me, and I will speak to you every commandment, and the statutes and the judgments, which you will teach them that they may do them in the land which I am giving them to possess.’
32. Therefore, you shall observe to do just as Jehovah your God has commanded you; do not turn aside to the right or the left.
33. You shall walk in all the way which Jehovah your God has commanded you, so that you may live, and it be well with you, and you prolong the days in the land which you will possess.

Deuteronomy 6

- ¶1. “And this is the commandment, the statutes, and the judgments, which Jehovah your God commanded me to teach you to do in the land to which you are going over to possess,
2. so that you might fear Jehovah your God to keep all His statutes and His commandments which I am commanding you, you and your son and your son’s son, all the days of your life, and that your days might be prolonged.
3. Hear, then, O Israel, and take care to do them so that it may go well with you and that you might increase greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, just as Jehovah, God of your fathers, said to you.
- ¶4. “Hear, O Israel! Jehovah is our God, Jehovah alone!
5. You shall love Jehovah your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might.
6. And these words which I command you today shall be upon your heart.

7. And you shall inculcate them into your children and speak of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk in the way, and when you lie down and when you rise up.
 8. And you shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be for frontlets between your eyes.
 9. And you shall write them on the door posts of your house, and on your gates.
- ¶10. “And it shall be that when Jehovah your God has brought you into the land which He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you great and goodly cities which you did not build,
11. and houses full of every good thing, which you did not fill, and wells already dug which you did not dig, vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant, and you eat and are full,
 12. then beware, lest you forget Jehovah who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of slaves.
 13. You shall fear Jehovah your God, and Him shall you serve, and you shall swear by His name.
 14. You shall not go after other gods, gods of the peoples who are round about you,
 15. for Jehovah your God is a jealous God in your midst, lest the anger of Jehovah your God be kindled against you, and He exterminate you from the face of the land.
 16. You shall not put Jehovah your God to the test as you tested Him in Massah.
 17. You shall diligently keep the commandments of Jehovah your God, and His testimonies, and His statutes, which He has commanded you.
 18. And you shall do what is right and good in the eyes of Jehovah, so that it may go well with you when you go in and possess the good land which Jehovah swore to your fathers,
 19. driving out all your enemies before you, just as Jehovah said.
- ¶20. “When your child asks you in time to come, saying, ‘Why these testimonies, and statutes, and judgments which Jehovah our God commanded you?’,
21. then you shall say to your child, ‘We were Pharaoh’s slaves in Egypt, but Jehovah brought us out from Egypt with a mighty hand.
 22. And Jehovah worked signs and wonders, great and grievous, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his house, before our eyes.
 23. And He brought us out from there, that He might bring us in to give us the land which He swore to our fathers.
 24. And Jehovah commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear Jehovah our God, for our good forever, to preserve us, as it is this day.
 25. And it will be our righteousness before Jehovah our God if we are careful to do all this law just as He has commanded us.’

- ¶1. “When Jehovah your God brings you into the land to which you are going in order to possess it, then He will clear out many nations before you—the Hittites, and the Gergashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites—seven nations more numerous and mightier than you.
2. And Jehovah your God shall deliver them before you, and you shall strike them down, utterly devoting them. Make no covenant with them and show them no pity.
 3. And do not intermarry with them. Do not give your daughter to his son, nor shall you take his daughter for your son.
 4. For it will turn your son away from following me, and they will serve other gods. Then Jehovah’s anger will be kindled against you, and He will destroy you quickly.
 5. But you shall do thus to them: pull down their altars, and break down their pillars, and cut down their sacred groves, and burn up their idols with fire.
 6. For you are a holy people to Jehovah your God; Jehovah your God chose you to be a treasured people to Him out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.
 7. Jehovah did not set His love on you nor choose you because you were more numerous than all peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples.
 8. But because of Jehovah’s love for you and because He would keep the oath which He swore to your fathers, Jehovah brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you from the house of slaves, out of the hand of Pharaoh, king of Egypt.
 9. And you know that Jehovah your God, He is God, the faithful God, who keeps covenant and lovingkindness with those who love Him and who keep His commandments, unto a thousand generations,
 10. and that He repays to their face those who hate Him, to destroy them. He will not delay concerning him who hates Him; He will repay him to his face.
 11. So, take heed to the commandment, and the statutes, and the judgments which I am commanding you today, to do them.
- ¶12. “And it shall come to pass that because you take heed to these judgments and keep them and do them, Jehovah your God will keep with you the covenant and lovingkindness which He swore to your fathers.
13. And He will love you, and bless you, and multiply you. He will also bless the fruit of your womb, and the fruit of your ground—your grain, and your new wine, and your fresh oil, the offspring of your cattle, and the offspring of your flock—in the land which He swore to your fathers to give to you.
 14. You shall be blessed above all peoples. There shall not be a barren male or female among you or your livestock.
 15. And Jehovah will turn all sickness away from you and all the malignant diseases of the Egyptians, of which you know. He will not lay them upon you but will put them upon all who hate you.

16. And you shall consume all the nations which Jehovah your God delivers to you. Your eye shall have no pity on them, neither shall you serve their gods, for that will be a snare to you.
- ¶17. "When you say in your heart, 'These nations are more numerous than I! How can I dispossess them?'
18. do not be afraid of them. You shall surely remember what Jehovah your God did to Pharaoh and all the Egyptians,
19. the great trials which your eyes beheld, and the signs, and the wonders, and the strong hand and the outstretched arm with which Jehovah your God brought you out. Thus will Jehovah your God do to all the nations whose presence you fear.
20. And Jehovah your God will also send the hornet among them, until those who remain and who hide themselves from you perish.
21. Do not tremble before them, for Jehovah your God is in your midst, a great and fearful God.
22. And Jehovah your God will clear out these nations before you little by little. You cannot destroy them quickly, lest the beasts of the field increase against you.
23. But Jehovah your God will deliver them up before you, and He will discomfit them with great confusion until they are exterminated.
24. And He will deliver their kings into your hand, and you shall wipe out their name from under heaven. No man will be able to stand against you, until you have exterminated them.
25. The idols of their gods shall you burn up with fire. You shall not covet the silver and gold on them and take it for yourself lest you be snared by it, for it is an abomination to Jehovah your God.
26. And you shall not bring an abomination into your house and become a devoted thing like it. You shall utterly detest and abhor it, for it is a thing devoted.

Deuteronomy 8

- ¶1. "Every commandment that I command you today, you shall take care to do, so that you may live, and multiply, and enter in and possess the land which Jehovah swore to your fathers.
2. And you shall remember all the way which Jehovah your God led you these forty years in the wilderness to humble you, to test you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not.
3. For He humbled you and caused you to hunger, then fed you with the manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that He might make you know that man shall not live by bread alone, but by everything that comes from the mouth of Jehovah shall man live.
4. Your garment did not wear out upon you, and your foot did not swell these forty years.

5. Know also in your heart, that just as a man chastens his child, Jehovah your God chastens you.
6. Therefore, keep the commandments of Jehovah your God, to walk in His ways and to fear Him.
7. For Jehovah your God is bringing you into a good land: a land of rivers of water, of springs, and depths that come forth in the valley and the mountain;
8. a land of wheat, and barley, and vine, and fig, and pomegranate; a land of olive oil and honey;
9. a land in which you will eat bread without scarcity, you shall lack nothing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose mountains you may dig copper.
10. And you shall eat and be full, and you shall bless Jehovah your God for the good land which He has given you.
11. Take heed to yourself, lest you forget Jehovah your God and do not keep His commandments, and His judgments, and His statutes which I am commanding you today,
12. lest when you eat and are full, and build good houses and dwell in them,
13. and your herds and your flocks multiply, and silver and gold multiply to you, yea, all that you have multiplies,
14. then your heart be lifted up and you forget Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slaves,
15. who led you through the great and fearful wilderness with fiery serpent and scorpion, and thirsty ground where there was no water, who brought forth water for you from the rock of flint,
16. who fed you manna in the wilderness which your fathers did not know (that He might humble you and test you, to do you good in your latter days),
17. and you say in your heart, ‘My power and the might of my hand brought me this wealth.’
18. But remember Jehovah your God, for it is He who gives you power to produce wealth, so that He may establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day.
19. For it shall be, if you ever forget Jehovah your God, and you go after other gods, and serve them and bow down to them—I testify against you today—that you shall certainly perish.
20. Like the nations which Jehovah is destroying before you, so shall you be destroyed because you did not take heed to the voice of Jehovah your God.

Deuteronomy 9

¶1. “Hear, O Israel. You are passing over the Jordan today, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than you, cities great and walled up to heaven,

2. a people great and tall, children of the Anakim, whom you know, and of whom you have heard it said, ‘Who can stand before the sons of Anak?’
3. Know then, this day, that Jehovah your God, He is going over before you. As a consuming fire will He annihilate them, and He will subdue them before you, and you will dispossess them and destroy them quickly, just as Jehovah has said to you.
4. When Jehovah your God thrusts them out from before you, do not think in your heart, saying, ‘Because of my righteousness, Jehovah brought me in to possess this land’, for it is because of the wickedness of these nations that Jehovah is dispossessing them before you.
5. Not because of your righteousness or because of the uprightness of your heart are you going in to possess their land, but because of the wickedness of these nations is Jehovah your God dispossessing them before you, and in order to establish the word which Jehovah swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.
6. Know then, it is not because of your righteousness that Jehovah your God is giving this good land to you to possess, for you are a stiff-necked people.
7. Remember! Do not forget that you provoked Jehovah your God to wrath in the wilderness, for from the day that you came out of the land of Egypt until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against Jehovah.
8. And at Horeb, you provoked Jehovah to wrath, and Jehovah was angry with you so as to have destroyed you.
9. When I went up into the mount to receive the stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant which Jehovah made with you, then I remained on the mount forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water.
10. And Jehovah gave me the two stone tablets, written by the finger of God, and on them were all the words that Jehovah had spoken with you in the mount from the midst of the fire on the day of the Assembly.
11. And it came to pass, at the end of forty days and forty nights, that Jehovah gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant,
12. and Jehovah said to me, ‘Get up! Go down from here quickly, for your people whom you brought out from Egypt have corrupted themselves. They have turned aside quickly from the way which I commanded them. They have made for themselves a molten image.’
13. Jehovah also spoke to me, saying, ‘I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people.
14. Leave me alone, and I will annihilate them and blot out their name from under heaven, and of you will I make a nation mightier and greater than they.’
15. Then I turned and went down from the mount, and the mount was burning with fire, and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands.

16. And I looked, and behold, you had sinned against Jehovah your God. You had made for yourselves a molten calf. You had turned aside quickly from the way which Jehovah had commanded you.
17. And I took the two tablets, and I cast them out of my two hands and shattered them before your eyes.
18. Then I threw myself down before Jehovah as before, forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water because of all your sin that you had sinned in doing evil in the sight of Jehovah to provoke Him to anger,
19. for I was afraid before the anger and the fury with which Jehovah raged against you, to utterly destroy you. But Jehovah listened to me at that time also.
20. And Jehovah was very angry with Aaron so as to have destroyed him, and I also prayed for Aaron at that time.
21. And I took your sin, the calf that you had made, and I burned it with fire, and I crushed it, grinding it thoroughly until it was ground fine as dust, and I cast its dust into the stream that descended from the mount.
22. (And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, you repeatedly provoked Jehovah to wrath.
23. And when Jehovah sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, 'Go up and take possession of the land which I have given to you', then you rebelled against the commandment of Jehovah your God, and you did not believe Him, and you did not listen to His voice.
24. You have been rebelling against Jehovah since the day I knew you.)
25. And I threw myself down before Jehovah forty days and forty nights, as I had thrown myself down before, because Jehovah had thought to annihilate you.
26. And I prayed to Jehovah, and said, 'My Lord Jehovah, do not destroy your people and your inheritance whom you redeemed by your greatness, whom you brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.'
27. Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Do not regard the stubbornness of this people, or their wickedness, or their sin.
28. Lest the land out of which you brought us say, "Because Jehovah was not able to bring them to the land of which He had spoken to them, and because of His hatred of them, He brought them out to kill them in the wilderness."
29. For they are your people and your inheritance, whom you brought out by your mighty power and with your outstretched arm.'

Deuteronomy 10

- ¶1. "At that time, Jehovah said to me, 'Hew out for yourself two stone tablets like the first, and come up the mount to me, and make for yourself a wooden ark.'
2. And I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets that you shattered, and you shall put them in the ark.'

3. And I made an ark of shittim wood, and hewed two stone tablets like the first, and I went up the mount with the two tablets in my hand.
 4. And He wrote on the tablets the same writing as on the first ones, the ten commandments which Jehovah spoke to you in the mount, from the midst of the fire on the day of the Assembly; and Jehovah gave them to me.
 5. And I turned and came down from the mount and put the tablets in the ark that I had made. And they are there, as Jehovah commanded me.
- ¶6. “(And the children of Israel journeyed from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan to Mosera. There Aaron died, and there he was buried, and Eleazar his son ministered as priest in his place.)
7. From there they journeyed to Gudgod, and from Gudgod to Jotbathah, a land of streams of water.)
- ¶8. “At that time, Jehovah separated the tribe of Levi to bear the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, to stand before Jehovah to minister to Him, and to bless in His name, to this day.
9. Therefore, there is no portion or inheritance for Levi with his brothers. Jehovah is his inheritance, just as Jehovah your God said to him.
 10. And I stayed in the mount according to the days of the first time, forty days and forty nights, and Jehovah listened to me at that time also; Jehovah would not destroy you.
 11. And Jehovah said to me, ‘Get up and go on your journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.’
- ¶12. “So, Israel, what does Jehovah your God ask of you now, except to fear Jehovah your God, to walk in all His ways, and to love Him, and to serve Jehovah your God with all your heart and with all your soul,
13. to keep the commandments of Jehovah, and His statutes, which I command you today for your good?
 14. Behold, the heavens, even the heaven of heavens, belong to Jehovah your God, the earth and all that is in it!
 15. Yet, Jehovah delighted in your fathers to love them, and He chose their seed after them —you—out of all peoples, as it is this day.
 16. Therefore, circumcise the foreskin of your heart, and do not keep stiffening your neck!
 17. For Jehovah your God, He is the God of gods, and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and terrible, who has no respect of persons, and He will not take a bribe.
 18. He executes judgment for orphan and widow, and He loves the sojourner, giving him food and clothing.
 19. Therefore, you shall love the sojourner, for you were sojourners in the land of Egypt.
 20. Jehovah your God shall you fear; Him shall you serve, and to Him shall you cling, and by His name shall you swear.

21. He is your praise, and He is your God, who has done with you these great and fearful things, which your eyes have seen.
22. Your fathers went down to Egypt as seventy persons, but now, Jehovah your God has made you as the stars of heaven for number.

Deuteronomy 11

- ¶1. "You shall therefore love Jehovah your God, and keep His charge, and His statutes, and His judgments, and His commandments always.
2. And this day you have known (but not your children who have not known and who have not seen the chastening of Jehovah your God) His greatness, His mighty hand, and His outstretched arm,
3. and His signs, and His works which He did in the midst of the Egyptians to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and to all his land,
4. and what He did to the army of Egypt, to its horses, and to its chariots when He caused the waters of the Red Sea to overflow their faces as they pursued after you, and Jehovah destroyed them until this day,
5. and what He did for you in the wilderness until you came to this place,
6. and what He did to Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab ben-Reuben, when the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, and their households, and their tents, and every living thing which was with them, in the midst of all Israel.
7. Yea, your eyes have seen all the great work of Jehovah which He did.
8. Therefore, you shall keep every commandment which I command you today, that you may be strong and go in and possess the land to which you are going over to possess
9. and that you may prolong the days on the land which Jehovah swore to your fathers to give to them and to their seed, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- ¶10. "But the land into which you are going, in order to possess it, is not like the land of Egypt out of which you came, where you sowed your seed and watered it with your foot, like a garden of green herbs.
11. For the land to which you are crossing over to possess, a land of hills and valleys, drinks water from the rain of heaven.
12. It is a land for which Jehovah your God cares; the eyes of Jehovah your God are upon it continually, from the beginning of the year until the end of the year.
13. And it shall come to pass, if you diligently hearken to my commandments which I am commanding you today, to love Jehovah your God, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul,
14. that I will give your land rain in its time, the early and the latter rain, and you will gather your grain, and your new wine, and your fresh oil.
15. And I will provide grass in your field for your cattle, and you shall eat and be full.
16. Take heed to yourselves, lest your heart be deceived and you turn away, and you serve other gods and worship them.

17. For the anger of Jehovah will be kindled against you, and He will shut up the heavens and there will be no rain, and the land will not yield its produce, and you will quickly perish from the good land which Jehovah is giving you.
 18. Therefore, lay up these words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them as a sign on your hand, and let them be for frontlets between your eyes.
 19. And you shall teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, and when you are walking along the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up.
 20. And you shall write them on the door posts of your house, and on your gates,
 21. so that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, upon the land which Jehovah swore to your fathers to give to them, like the days of heaven upon the earth.
 22. For if you will diligently keep all this commandment which I am commanding you, to do it, to love Jehovah your God, to walk in all His ways, and to cling to Him,
 23. then Jehovah will dispossess all these nations before you, and you will possess nations greater and mightier than yourselves.
 24. Every place upon which the sole of your foot treads shall be yours, from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, and to the sea beyond shall be your territory.
 25. No man will stand before you. Jehovah your God will put the dread of you and the fear of you upon the face of all the land upon which you will tread, just as He said to you.
- ¶26. "Behold, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse:
27. the blessing when you obey the commandments of Jehovah your God which I am commanding you today,
 28. and the curse if you do not obey the commandments of Jehovah your God, but turn aside from the way that I command you today, to walk after other gods which you have not known.
 29. And it shall come to pass that when Jehovah your God brings you into the land into which you are entering to possess it, that you shall put the blessing on Mount Gerizim, and the curse upon Mount Ebal.
 30. Are they not on the other side of the Jordan, toward the way of the going down of the sun, in the land of the Canaanites who dwell in the plain opposite Gilgal, beside the Oaks of Moreh?
 31. For you are crossing over the Jordan to go in to possess the land which Jehovah your God is giving you, and you shall possess it and dwell in it.
 32. And you shall observe to do all the statutes and the judgments which I am setting before you today.

Deuteronomy 12

- ¶1. "These are the statutes and the judgments which you shall take heed to do in the land which Jehovah, God of your fathers, gave to you to possess all the days that you live on the land.
2. You shall utterly destroy all the places where the nations that you shall dispossess served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree.
3. And you shall tear down their altars, and break down their pillars, and burn up their sacred groves with fire, and cut down the idols of their gods, and blot out their name from that place.
4. You shall not do so unto Jehovah your God.
5. But only to the place where Jehovah your God chooses out of all your tribes to set His name for His dwelling shall you seek, and there shall you go.
6. And there, you shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and the offering of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herd and your flock.
7. And there, you shall eat before Jehovah your God, and you shall rejoice in every endeavor of your hand, you and your households with which Jehovah your God has blessed you.
8. You shall not do altogether as we are doing here, today, each one doing whatever is right in his own eyes,
9. for you have not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance that Jehovah your God is giving you.
10. But when you have crossed over the Jordan and have settled in the land which Jehovah your God will cause you to inherit, and when He has given you rest from all your enemies round about and you dwell in safety,
11. then there will be a place which Jehovah your God will choose as a dwelling place for His name. There shall you bring all that I have commanded you: your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and the offering of your hand, and all the best of your votive offerings which you may vow to Jehovah.
12. And you, and your sons and your daughters, and your male slaves and your female slaves, shall rejoice before Jehovah your God with the Levite who is within your gates because he has no portion or inheritance with you.
13. Take heed to yourself, that you do not offer your burnt offerings at any place that you see,
14. but only at the place that Jehovah will choose in one of your tribes. There you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I command you.

15. However, you may kill and eat flesh, all that your soul desires, within any of your gates, according to the blessing which Jehovah your God gives to you. The unclean and the clean may eat it, whether gazelle or stag.
 16. Only, you shall not eat the blood. You shall pour it out on the ground like water.
 17. You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your grain, or of your new wine, or of your fresh oil, or the firstborn of your herd or your flock, or any of your votive offerings which you vow, or your freewill offerings, or an excise offering of your hand,
 18. but you, and your son and your daughter, and your male slave and your female slave, and the Levite who is within your gate, must eat it before Jehovah your God at the place which Jehovah your God chooses, and you shall rejoice before Jehovah your God in every endeavor of your hand.
 19. Take heed to yourself, lest you forsake the Levite, all your days upon your land.
- ¶20. "When Jehovah your God enlarges your territory, just as He has said to you, and you say 'I will eat flesh', because your soul desires to eat flesh, you may eat flesh, whatever your soul desires.
21. If the place where Jehovah your God chooses to set His name is distant from you, then you may slaughter an animal from your herd or your flock which Jehovah has given to you, just as I commanded you, and you may eat whatever your soul desires within your gates.
 22. Just as the gazelle or stag is eaten, so may you eat it, the unclean and the clean alike may eat it.
 23. Only, be certain not to eat the blood because the blood is the life, and you shall not eat the life with the flesh.
 24. You shall not eat it! You shall pour it out on the ground like water.
 25. You shall not eat it so that it will go well with you and your children after you, because you are doing what is right in the sight of Jehovah.
 26. But your holy things which you have, and your vows, you shall take up and go to the place which Jehovah shall choose.
 27. And you shall offer the flesh and the blood of your burnt offerings on the altar of Jehovah your God, and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of Jehovah your God, and you shall eat the flesh.
 28. Take heed and hear all these words which I command you, so that it will go well with you and your children after you forever because you are doing what is good and right in the sight of Jehovah your God.
- ¶29. "When Jehovah your God has cut off the nations before you where you are going in to dispossess them, and you have dispossessed them and dwell in their land,

30. take heed to yourself, lest you be ensnared by following them after they have been destroyed before you, and lest you inquire concerning their gods, saying, ‘How did these nations serve their gods, that I also may do likewise?’
31. You shall not do so unto Jehovah your God, for every abomination to Jehovah which He hates, they do for their gods; yea, even their sons and their daughters they burn up in the fire for their gods.
32. Be careful to do everything that I command you; do not add to it or take away from it.

Deuteronomy 13

- ¶1. “Now, if a prophet rise up in your midst, or a dreamer of dreams, and gives you a sign or a wonder,
2. and the sign or the wonder come to pass that he spoke to you, and then if he says, ‘Let us go after other gods which you have not known, and serve them,’
3. do not heed the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams, for Jehovah your God is testing you, to know whether you love Jehovah your God with all your heart and with all your soul.
4. You shall follow after Jehovah your God, and Him shall you fear, and His commandments shall you keep, and His voice shall you heed, and Him shall you serve, and to Him shall you cling!
5. And that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death because he spoke apostasy against Jehovah your God, the One who brought you out from the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slaves, to thrust you out from the way in which Jehovah your God commanded you to walk. And you shall purge the evil from your midst.
6. If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is as your own soul entices you secretly, saying, ‘Let us go and serve other gods’ that you have not known, you or your fathers,
7. gods of the peoples who are round about you, whether close to you or far from you, from one end of the earth even to the other,
8. you shall not consent to him, nor listen to him. And your eye shall not pity him, nor shall you spare or conceal him.
9. But you shall surely kill him! Your hand shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterward, the hand of all the people.
10. And you shall stone him with stones that he die, because he is seeking to thrust you away from Jehovah your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt, from the house of slaves.
11. And all Israel shall hear of it and fear, and they shall not do this wicked thing any more in your midst.
12. If you shall hear in one of your cities which Jehovah your God is giving you to dwell there, someone saying,

13. ‘Men, children of Belial, have gone out from your midst, and they have thrust the inhabitants of their city away from God, saying, “Let us go and serve other gods,” which you have not known,’
14. then you shall make inquiry, and search it out, and ask diligently, and behold, it be true, and the thing certain, that this abomination has been committed in your midst,
15. you shall surely strike down the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword. Devote it, and all that is in it, even its cattle, with the edge of the sword.
16. And you shall gather all its spoil into the midst of its square, and burn up with fire the city and all its spoil—everything—unto Jehovah your God. And it shall be a heap forever; it shall not be rebuilt.
17. And nought of the devoted thing shall cling to your hand, so that Jehovah will turn from His burning anger and grant you mercy, and have compassion on you, and multiply you, just as He swore to your fathers,
18. if you will take heed to the voice of Jehovah your God to keep all His commandments which I command you today, to do what is right in the sight of Jehovah your God.

Deuteronomy 14

- ¶1. “You are the children of Jehovah your God. You shall not cut yourselves, nor shall you make any baldness between your eyes for the dead.
2. For you are a holy people unto Jehovah your God, and Jehovah has chosen you to be a treasured people to Him out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.
- ¶3. “You shall not eat any abominable thing.
4. These are the beasts which you may eat: the ox, sheep, and goat,
5. the deer, and gazelle, and roebuck, and wild goat, and pygarg, and wild ox, and mountain-goat.
6. Even every beast among the beasts that divides the hoof, completely splitting the cleft into two hooves, bringing up the cud, you may eat.
7. But this you shall not eat of those that bring up the cud, or those that divide the hoof completely: the camel, and the arnebeth, and the rock badger, for they bring up the cud but do not divide the hoof. They shall be unclean to you.
8. And the pig, because it divides the hoof but does not bring up the cud, shall be unclean to you. You shall not eat of their flesh, nor shall you touch their carcass.
- ¶9. “This you may eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fin and scale, you may eat.
10. But whatever does not have fin and scale, you may not eat. It shall be unclean to you.
11. You may eat any clean bird.
12. But this is which you may not eat of them: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the osprey,
13. and the kite, and the falcon, and the vulture after its kind,
14. and every raven after its kind,
15. and the owl, and the night hawk, and the sea gull, and the hawk after its kind,

16. and the little owl, and the great owl, and the ibis,
 17. and the pelican, and the Egyptian vulture, and the cormorant,
 18. and the stork, and the heron after its kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.
 19. And every swarming, flying creature shall be unclean to you. They may not be eaten.
 20. You may eat any clean bird.
 21. You shall not eat of any carcass. You may give it to the sojourner who is within your gates and he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner, for you are a holy people unto Jehovah your God. Do not boil a kid in its mother's milk.
- ¶22. "You must tithe all the yield from your seed which the field produces year by year
23. (and you shall eat before Jehovah your God at the place which He will choose as a dwelling place for His name), a tithe of your grain, your new wine, and your fresh oil, and the firstborn of your herd or your flock, so that you may learn to fear Jehovah your God always.
 24. And if the way be too long for you so that you are not able to carry it or the place where Jehovah your God chooses to set His name is too far for you because Jehovah your God has blessed you,
 25. then you may exchange it into money, then bind the money in your hand and go to the place which Jehovah your God will choose.
 26. Then you shall exchange the money for whatever your soul desires, for ox, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or whatever your soul desires. (And you shall eat there before Jehovah your God, and you and your household shall rejoice.)
 27. And you shall not forsake the Levite who is within your gates, for he has no portion or inheritance with you.
 28. At the end of three years, you shall bring forth all the tithe of your produce in that year, and you shall lay it up within your gates.
 29. And the Levite (because he has no portion or inheritance with you), and the sojourner, and the orphan, and the widow who are within your gates shall come and eat, and be full, so that Jehovah your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

Deuteronomy 15

- ¶1. "At the end of seven years, you shall make a release.
2. And this is the manner of the release: every creditor is to release his hand on what he lent to his neighbor; he shall not oppress his neighbor or his brother, for Jehovah's release has been proclaimed.
 3. You may exact it of a foreigner, but whatever of yours is with your brother, your hand shall release,
 4. except when there shall be no poor man with you, for Jehovah will greatly bless you in the land which Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess,

5. if you will but diligently hearken to the voice of Jehovah your God, to take care to do all this commandment which I command you today.
 6. For Jehovah your God has blessed you, just as He said to you, and you will lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow, and you shall rule over many nations, but they shall not rule over you.
 7. If one of your brothers with you, in any of your gates, is poor in your land, which Jehovah your God is giving you, you shall not harden your heart or close up your hand to your poor brother.
 8. But you shall open your hand freely to him, and you shall certainly lend him sufficient for his need, whatever he lacks.
 9. Take heed to yourself, lest there be a thought in your wicked heart, saying, ‘The seventh year, a year of release, draws near,’ and your eye be evil toward your poor brother and you give him nothing, and then, he cries out to Jehovah concerning you, for it is a sin in you.
 10. You shall surely give to him, and your heart shall not be grieved when you give to him, for on account of this thing, Jehovah your God will bless you in all your work and in every endeavor of your hand.
 11. For there will never cease to be a poor man in the land; therefore, I command you, saying, ‘You shall open your hand freely to your brother, to your afflicted, and to your poor in your land.’
 12. If your brother, a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you, and serves you six years, then in the seventh year, you shall send him away from you, free.
 13. And when you send him away free from you, you shall not send him away empty-handed.
 14. You must supply him amply from your flock, and from your threshing floor, and from your winepress; from that which Jehovah your God has blessed you shall you give him.
 15. And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, but Jehovah your God redeemed you. That is why I am commanding this thing of you today.
 16. But if it be that he says to you, I will not go out from you, because he loves you and your house since it is well with him with you,
 17. then you shall take an awl and put it through his ear and into the door, and he shall be your slave forever. And you shall also do the same for your female slave.
 18. Let it not be a hardship in your eyes when you send him away free from you; for double the wages of a hired man has he served you six years, and Jehovah your God will bless you in all that you do.
- ¶19. “Every firstborn male that is born in your herd and in your flock shall you consecrate to Jehovah your God. You shall not do work with the firstborn of your bullock, nor shall you shear the firstborn of your flock.

20. You shall eat it before Jehovah your God, year by year, at the place which Jehovah shall choose, you, and your household.
21. And if there is a blemish in it, lameness, or blindness, or any ill blemish, you shall not sacrifice it to Jehovah your God.
22. You may eat it within your gates. The unclean and the clean person alike may eat it, as with a gazelle or stag.
23. Only, you shall not eat its blood. You shall pour it out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 16

- ¶1. "Observe the month of Abib, and keep the Passover of Jehovah your God, for in the month of Abib, Jehovah your God brought you out of Egypt by night.
2. And you shall kill the Passover of Jehovah your God, from flock or herd, at the place which Jehovah will choose as a dwelling place for His name.
3. You shall not eat that which is leavened with it. Seven days shall you eat unleavened bread with it (the bread of affliction, for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste), so that you will remember the day when you came out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life.
4. Furthermore, no leaven shall be seen with you in all your territory for seven days, nor shall any of the flesh which you kill at evening on the first day remain till the morning.
5. You may not kill the Passover within any of your gates which Jehovah your God is giving you,
6. but at the place which Jehovah your God will choose as a dwelling place for His name shall you kill the Passover, in the evening at the going down of the sun, at the time you came out of Egypt.
7. And you shall roast and eat it at the place which Jehovah your God chooses, and in the morning, you shall return and go to your tents.
8. Six days shall you eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day shall be a solemn Assembly to Jehovah your God. You shall do no work.
- ¶9. "You shall count for yourself seven weeks. From when the sickle is first put to the grain, you shall begin to count seven weeks.
10. Then you shall keep the Feast of Weeks to Jehovah your God. A freewill tribute shall be in your hand which you shall give, according as Jehovah your God has blessed you.
11. And you shall rejoice before Jehovah your God, you, and your son and your daughter, and your male slave and your female slave, and the Levite who is within your gates, and the stranger, and the orphan, and the widow who are in your midst, in the place which Jehovah your God will choose as a dwelling place for His name.
12. And you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and you shall keep and observe these statutes.
- ¶13. "You shall keep the Feast of Booths for yourself seven days, when you have gathered the fruit of your threshing floor and of your winepress.

14. And you shall rejoice in your feast, you, and your son and your daughter, and your male slave and your female slave, and the Levite, and the stranger, and the orphan, and the widow who are within your gates.
15. Seven days shall you keep a feast to Jehovah your God in the place where Jehovah will choose, for Jehovah your God will bless you in all your produce, and in all the work of your hands; and you will indeed be joyful.
- ¶16. "Three times in the year shall all your males appear before Jehovah your God in the place which He will choose, at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Booths. And no one shall appear before Jehovah empty-handed,
17. each man with a gift in his hand according to the blessing that Jehovah your God will have given to you.
- ¶18. "You shall appoint for yourself judges and officers in all of your gates which Jehovah your God gives to you, according to your tribes, and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment.
19. You shall not pervert justice. You shall not have respect of persons, and you shall not take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of wise men and subverts the words of righteous men.
20. You shall pursue perfect righteousness, so that you may live and possess the land which Jehovah your God is giving you.
21. You shall not plant for yourself a sacred grove of any tree beside an altar of Jehovah your God which you make for yourself.
22. Neither shall you set up for yourself a pillar, which Jehovah your God hates.

Deuteronomy 17

- ¶1. "You shall not sacrifice to Jehovah your God a bullock or a sheep in which is a blemish, or anything ill-favored, for it is an abomination to Jehovah your God.
2. If there is found in your midst, in one of your gates which Jehovah your God gives to you, a man or a woman who is doing evil in the sight of Jehovah your God, by transgressing His covenant,
3. and he goes and serves other gods, and worships them, whether the sun or the moon, or any of the host of the heavens, which I have not commanded,
4. and it be made known to you, and you have heard of it, then you shall inquire thoroughly. And, behold, it be true and the thing certain, that this abomination is being committed in Israel,
5. then you shall bring that man or that woman, who has done this evil thing, out to your gates—the man or the woman—and you shall stone them with stones, that they die.
6. By the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he who is put to death die. He shall not be put to death by the mouth of one witness.

7. The hand of the witnesses shall be upon him first to put him to death, and afterward, the hand of all the people. And you shall purge the evil from your midst.
- ¶8. "If a matter for judgment is too difficult for you, between blood and blood, between cause and cause, or between wound and wound, matters of dispute in your gates, then you shall rise and go up to the place which Jehovah your God will choose.
9. And you shall come to the priests, the Levites, or to the judge who shall be in those days, and inquire. And they shall declare the sentence of judgment to you.
10. And you shall do according to the sentence which they declare to you in the place which Jehovah will choose. And you shall give heed to do according to all that they instruct you.
11. According to the direction with which they instruct you, and according to the judgment that they tell you, shall you do. You shall not turn from the word which they declare to you, to the right nor to the left.
12. But the man who acts presumptuously, not obeying the priest who is standing there to minister to Jehovah your God, or the judge, that man shall die. And you shall purge the evil from Israel.
13. And all the people shall hear, and they shall fear and not act presumptuously again.
14. When you come into the land that Jehovah your God is giving you and have possessed it and settled in it, then you will say, 'I will set a king over me, like all the nations that are around me.'
15. You must set over you a king whom Jehovah your God will choose; you will set one from among your brothers as king over you. You may not appoint over you a foreigner, one who is not your brother.
16. Only, he shall not multiply to himself horses, nor return the people to Egypt in order to heap up horses, for Jehovah has said to you, 'You are never again to return by this way.'
17. Nor shall he multiply wives to himself, so that his heart will not turn aside, and he shall not greatly multiply silver and gold for himself.
18. And it will come to pass, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write for himself a copy of this law in a book from that which is before the Levitical priests.
19. And it will be with him, and he will read it all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear Jehovah his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them,
20. so that his heart will not be exalted above his brothers, so that he will not turn from the commandment, either to the right or the left, so that he may prolong his days over his kingdom, he, and his sons, in the midst of Israel.

Deuteronomy 18

- ¶1. "There is no portion nor inheritance with Israel for the priests, the Levites—the whole tribe of Levi. The offerings made by fire to Jehovah, even of His portion, shall they eat.

2. But there shall be no portion for him among his brethren. Jehovah is his portion just as He said to him.
 3. And this shall be the priests' due from the people, from things slaughtered for sacrifice, whether a bullock or a sheep: the shoulder shall be given to the priest, and the two cheeks, and the stomach.
 4. The firstfruits of your grain, your new wine, and your fresh oil, and the first fleece of your flock, you shall give to him.
 5. For Jehovah your God has chosen him out of all your tribes to stand to minister in the name of Jehovah, he and his sons forever.
 6. And if a Levite comes from one of your gates, from anywhere in Israel where he was sojourning, and he goes with all the desire of his soul to the place that Jehovah chooses,
 7. then he shall minister in the name of Jehovah his God, as do all his brethren, the Levites who stand there before Jehovah.
 8. They shall eat equal portions, apart from the proceeds of their fathers' estates.
- ¶9. "When you have come into the land which Jehovah your God is giving you, you shall not learn to do according to the abominations of those nations.
10. There shall not be found among you, a man who causes his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, one who practices divination, a soothsayer, or an enchanter, or a sorcerer,
 11. or a charmer, or an inquirer of a medium, or one with a familiar spirit, or one who consults the dead.
 12. For all who do these things are an abomination to Jehovah, and because of these abominations, Jehovah your God is dispossessing them before you.
 13. You shall be perfect with Jehovah your God.
 14. For these nations which you shall dispossess gave heed to soothsayers and to those practicing divination. But as for you, Jehovah your God does not permit such for you.
 15. A prophet like me will Jehovah your God raise up for you, from among you, from your kinsmen (to him, you must listen),
 16. according to all that you asked when we were at Horeb with Jehovah your God on the day of the Assembly, saying, "I cannot hear again the voice of Jehovah my God or view any longer this great fire, lest I die!"
 17. And Jehovah said to me, "What they have said is good.
 18. I will raise up for them, from among their kinsmen, a prophet like you, and I will put my words into his mouth, and he will tell them all that I command him.
 19. And it shall be that whoever will not listen to my words which he will speak in my name, I will require it of him.
 20. However, the prophet who presumes to speak a word in my name, which I did not command him to say, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die.

21. And if you say in your heart, ‘How can we recognize the word which Jehovah did not say to him?’
22. when the prophet speaks in the name of Jehovah, and the thing does not happen, nor does it come about, that is the thing Jehovah did not say to him. The prophet spoke it presumptuously. You shall not fear him.

Deuteronomy 19

- ¶1. “When Jehovah your God cuts off the nations, whose land Jehovah your God is giving you, and you dispossess them and dwell in their cities and in their houses,
 2. you shall separate three cities for yourself within your land which Jehovah your God is giving you to possess.
 3. You will prepare the road for yourself, and divide the territory of your land which Jehovah your God is giving you as a possession into three parts, and it shall be that every manslayer may flee there.
 4. And this is the requirement for the manslayer who flees there, that he may live. Whoever strikes his neighbor unintentionally, and had not hated him in times past,
 5. such as when a man goes into the woods with his neighbor to cut wood, and his hand swings the axe to cut down the tree, and the iron comes loose from the handle and strikes his neighbor so that he dies, he may flee to one of these cities and live,
 6. lest the avenger of blood pursue after the manslayer while his heart is hot, and he overtake him because the journey is long, and he strikes him down, even though there is no judgment of death against him, as he had no hatred toward him previously.
 7. This is why I am commanding you, saying, ‘You shall separate three cities for yourself.’
 8. And if Jehovah your God enlarges your territory, as He swore to your fathers, and He give you all the land which He promised to give your fathers,
 9. if you keep all this commandment to do it, which I command you this day, to love Jehovah your God, and to walk in His ways forever, then you shall add for yourself three more cities, besides these three,
 10. that innocent blood not be shed within your land which Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance, and blood-guilt be upon you.
 11. But if a man has hatred toward his neighbor and lies in wait for him, and he rises up against him and strikes him down so that he dies, and then flees to one of these cities,
 12. then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him from there, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.
 13. Your eye shall have no pity for him, but you shall purge the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, that it may be well with you.
- ¶14. “You shall not remove your neighbor’s landmark, with which they of former times set the boundaries in your inheritance which you inherited in the land that Jehovah your God is giving you to possess.

- ¶15. “A lone witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity or any sin, regarding any sin that he has committed. By the mouth of two witnesses, or by the mouth of three witnesses, shall a matter be confirmed.
16. If a malicious witness rise up against a man to accuse him of apostasy,
17. then the two men who have the controversy shall stand before Jehovah, before the priests and the judges who are in those days.
18. And the judges shall make a thorough inquiry, and behold, the witness is a false witness if he has accused his brother falsely,
19. and you shall do to him just as he had planned to do to his brother. And you shall purge the evil from your midst.
20. And those who remain shall hear, and they shall fear, and will no longer do this evil thing in your midst.
21. And your eye shall have no pity; life shall pay for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Deuteronomy 20

- ¶1. “When you go out to battle against your enemies, and you see horse and chariot, and people more numerous than you, do not be afraid of them, for Jehovah your God is with you, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.
2. And it shall be, when you draw near to the battle, that the priest shall come near and speak to the people.
3. And he shall say to them, ‘Hear, O Israel! Today you are drawing near to the battle against your enemies. Do not let your heart faint! Do not fear, neither be terrified, nor tremble before them.
4. For Jehovah your God, He is going with you to fight for you against your enemies, to give you victory.’
5. The officers also shall speak to the people, saying, ‘What man is there who has built a new house and not lived in it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man live in it.
6. And what man is there who has planted a vineyard and has not begun to enjoy it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man enjoy it instead.
7. And what man is there who is betrothed to a wife, and has not taken her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man take her.’
8. And the officers will again speak to the people and say, ‘What man is afraid and fainthearted? Let him go and return to his house, so that his brothers’ heart be not melted like his heart.’
9. And it shall be that when the officers have finished speaking to the people, they shall appoint captains of armies at the head of the people.

- ¶10. "When you draw near to a city to fight against it, then you shall proclaim terms of peace to it.
11. And it shall be that if it answers you, 'Peace', and it opens to you, then it shall be that all the people found in it will become forced labor for you, and they shall serve you.
12. However, if it will not make peace with you, but would make war with you, then you shall lay siege against it.
13. And when Jehovah your God gives it into your hand, you shall kill every male in it with the edge of the sword.
14. Only, the women and the little ones, and the livestock, and all that is in the city—all its spoil—you shall take for yourself, and you may eat the spoil of your enemies whom Jehovah your God has delivered up to you.
15. Thus shall you do to all the cities that are very distant from you, those which are not of the cities of these nations.
16. But from the cities of these peoples which Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance, you shall not save alive any that breathe,
17. but you shall utterly devote them, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, just as Jehovah your God has commanded you,
18. so that they cannot teach you to do according to all their abominations which they do unto their gods, and you sin against Jehovah your God.
- ¶19. "When you lay siege against a city for a long time, while making war against it to take it, you shall not destroy a tree of it from which you can eat, by wielding an ax against it. You shall not cut it down to remove it from before you in the siege, for the tree of the field is for man.
20. Only, a tree which you know is not a tree for food, that, you may destroy and cut down, and you shall build siege-works against the city which is making war with you, until it falls.

Deuteronomy 21

- ¶1. "If someone is found slain in the land which Jehovah your God is giving you to possess, lying in the open country, and it is not known who struck him down,
2. then your elders and your judges shall go out and measure to the cities that are round about the slain man.
3. And it shall be, that the city nearest to the slain man, even the elders of that city, shall take a heifer from the herd with which work has never been done, which has never pulled in a yoke.
4. And the elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a rugged valley which has neither been worked nor sown, and there, in the valley, they shall break the neck of the heifer.

5. And the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come near, for Jehovah your God chose them to minister and to bless in the name of Jehovah, and according to their word shall every controversy and every wound be judged.
 6. And all the elders of that city, those nearest to the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley.
 7. And they shall testify and say, ‘Our hands did not shed this blood, nor did our eyes see it done.
 8. Atone for your people Israel whom you redeemed, O Jehovah! And do not lay the guilt for innocent blood in the midst of your people Israel.’ Then atonement for the blood-guilt will have been made for them.
 9. So shall you purge the guilt of innocent blood from your midst, when you do what is correct in the sight of Jehovah.
- ¶10. “When you go out to war against your enemies, and Jehovah your God delivers them into your hands, and you have taken them captive,
11. and you see among the captives a woman beautiful in form, and you desire her, and would take her as a wife for yourself,
 12. then you shall bring her home to your house, and she shall shave her head and trim her nails.
 13. And she shall take off of her the garment of her captivity, and she shall remain in your house and mourn her father and her mother for a full month. Then, after that, you may go in to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife.
 14. And should it happen that you find no delight in her, then you shall let her go wherever she wants, but you may not in any circumstance sell her for money. You shall not treat her as a slave because you have humbled her.
- ¶15. “If a man has two wives, the one loved, and the other hated, and both the loved and the hated have borne him sons, and it be that the firstborn son is hers who is hated,
16. then it shall be that in the day he causes his sons to inherit what is his, he cannot make the son of the loved woman the firstborn instead of the hated woman’s son, who is the firstborn.
 17. But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated woman as the firstborn, to give him a double portion of all that he has, for he is the beginning of his strength. The right of the firstborn belongs to him.
- ¶18. “If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey the voice of his father or the voice of his mother, not taking heed of them when they chasten him,
19. then his father and his mother shall take hold of him and bring him out to the elders of his city, even to the gate of his place,
 20. and they shall say to the elders of his city, ‘This, our son, is stubborn and rebellious. He will not take heed to our voice. He is a glutton and a drunkard.’

21. And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die, and you shall purge the evil from your midst, and all Israel shall hear of it, and fear.
- ¶22. "And when there is a sentence of death against a man for sin and he is put to death, and you have hanged him on a tree,
23. his corpse shall not remain on the tree overnight, but you shall certainly bury him on that day, for a hanged man is accursed of God. And so, you will not defile your land that Jehovah your God is giving you for a possession.

Deuteronomy 22

- ¶1. "You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep going astray and hide yourself from them. You shall certainly return them to your brother.
2. And if your brother is not near you, or you do not know him, then you shall bring it home to your house, and it shall be with you until your brother looks for it. Then, you shall return it to him.
3. And you shall do likewise with his donkey, and you shall do likewise with his garment. Yea, you shall do likewise with any lost thing of your brother's which was lost by him and that you found. You are not allowed to hide yourself.
4. You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fallen down in the way and hide yourself from them. You shall certainly help to get it up.
- ¶5. "What pertains to a man shall not be worn by a woman, neither shall a man wear a woman's garment, for all who do such are an abomination to Jehovah your God.

- ¶6. "If there happens to be a bird's nest before you in the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young birds or eggs, and the mother is sitting on the young birds or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother that is upon the young.
7. You shall certainly let the mother go free and take the young for yourself, so that it may go well with you, and you prolong your days.
- ¶8. "When you build a new house, you shall also make a parapet for your roof, that you do not bring blood-guilt upon your house should anyone fall from it.
- ¶9. "You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds, lest the harvest of the seed that you sow and the yield of the vineyard be forfeited to God.
10. You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together.
11. You shall not wear material made of wool and linen together.
- ¶12. "You shall make fringes for yourself on the four corners of your garment with which you cover yourself.

- ¶13. “When a man takes a wife and goes in to her, and then hates her,
14. and accuses her of wanton acts, and brings upon her a bad name, and says, ‘I took this woman and came near her, but did not find evidence of her virginity,’ 15. then the father and her mother shall take the young woman, and they shall produce the evidence of the young girl’s virginity to the city elders at the gate.
16. Then the father of the girl shall say to the elders, ‘I gave my daughter to this man for a wife, and he has hated her.
17. And, behold, he has accused her of wanton acts, saying, “I did not find evidence of your daughter’s virginity.” But these are the tokens of my daughter’s virginity.’ And then, they shall spread out the cloth before the elders of the city.
18. And the elders of that city shall take the man and punish him.
19. And they shall fine him one hundred pieces of silver and give it to the father of the young woman because he brought a bad name upon a virgin of Israel. And she shall be his wife. He may not put her away all his days.
20. But if this thing be true, if they do not find evidence of the young woman’s virginity,
21. then they shall bring the young woman out to the door of her father’s house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones, and she shall die because she has committed folly in Israel, in committing whoredom in her father’s house. So shall you purge out the evil from your midst.
- ¶22. “If a man be found lying with a woman who has a husband, then they both shall die, the man who lay with the woman and the woman. So shall you purge out the evil from Israel.
23. If there is a girl who is a virgin engaged to a man, and a man comes upon her in the city, and he lies with her,
24. then you shall bring both of them out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them with stones so that they die, the girl because she did not cry out, being in the city, and the man because he humbled his neighbor’s wife. So shall you purge out the evil from your midst.
25. But if the man comes upon a young girl who is engaged in the open country, and the man forces her, and lies with her, then only the man who lay with her shall die.
26. And you shall do nothing to the girl. There is no sin unto death in the young girl, for this matter is just as when a man rises up against his neighbor, and murders him,
27. because he found her in the open country, and the engaged girl cried out, but there was no one to save her.
28. If a man comes upon a girl, a virgin who is not engaged, and takes hold of her and lies with her, and they be discovered,

29. then the man who lay with her shall give fifty shekels of silver to the girl's father, and she shall become his wife, because he has humbled her. He may not send her away all his days.

Deuteronomy 23

- ¶1. "No man wounded by crushing or whose male organ is cut off shall enter into the Assembly of Jehovah.
2. No one born of incest shall enter into the Assembly of Jehovah. Even to the tenth generation, none of his shall enter into the Assembly of Jehovah.
3. An Ammonite or a Moabite shall not enter into the Assembly of Jehovah. Even to the tenth generation, none of them shall ever enter into the Assembly of Jehovah,
4. because they did not meet you with bread and water in the way when you came out of Egypt, and because he hired Balaam ben-Beor from Pethor of Aram-naharaim against you, to curse you.
5. But Jehovah your God would not listen to Balaam, and Jehovah your God turned the curse into a blessing for you, because Jehovah your God loves you.
6. You shall not seek their peace or their good all your days forever.
7. You shall not abhor an Edomite, for he is your brother. You shall not abhor an Egyptian, for you were a stranger in his land.
8. The children who are born to them, their third generation, may enter into the Assembly of Jehovah.
- ¶9. "When you, as an army, go out against your enemies, you shall keep yourself from every evil thing.
10. If there is a man among you who becomes unclean by reason of a nocturnal accident, he shall go outside of the camp. He may not come into the midst of the camp.
11. But when dusk comes, he shall wash with water, and when the sun has gone down, he may come into the midst of the camp.
12. And there shall be a place outside of the camp, and you shall go out there, outside,
13. and you shall have a spade with your equipment, and it shall be, when you sit down outside, that you shall dig with it, and then turn back the dirt and cover your excrement.
14. For Jehovah your God walks about in the midst of your camp, to save you, and to deliver up your enemies before you. Therefore, your camp shall be holy, so that He does not see an indecent thing among you and turn away from you.
- ¶15. "You shall not hand over to his master a slave who has escaped from his master to you.
16. He shall dwell with you in your midst, in whichever place he chooses in one of your gates that seems good to him. You shall not oppress him.

- ¶17. "There shall be no sacred prostitute of the daughters of Israel, nor a sacred sodomite of the sons of Israel.
 - 18. You shall not bring the hire of a harlot nor the price of a dog into the house of Jehovah your God for any vow, for they both are an abomination to Jehovah your God.
 - ¶19. "You shall not lend at interest to your brother, whether interest on money, interest on food, or interest on anything that may be lent.
 - 20. You may lend at interest to the foreigner, but you may not lend at interest to your brother, so that Jehovah your God will bless you in every endeavor of your hand on the land into which you are going to possess it.
 - ¶21. "If you vow a vow to Jehovah your God, you shall not delay fulfilling it, for Jehovah your God surely requires it of you, and it would be a sin for you.
 - 22. But if you refrain from making a vow, that is not sin for you.
 - 23. You shall keep and do what goes out of your lips, just as for a vow that you vow to Jehovah your God, which you spoke with your mouth.
- ¶24. "If you go into your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat grapes, as much as you like, but you may not put any into your vessel.
 - 25. If you go into your neighbor's standing grain, you may pluck ears of grain with your hand, but you may not wield a sickle on your neighbor's grain.

Deuteronomy 24

- ¶1. "When a man takes a woman and marries her, and it be that she does not find favor in his eyes because he finds in her some indecency, then he shall write her a bill of divorce, and put it in her hand, and send her away from his house.
 - 2. When she leaves his house, then she may go and become another man's wife.
 - 3. But if the latter man hate her, he shall also write her a bill of divorce and put it in her hand, and he shall send her away from his house, or if the latter man who took her as his wife die,
 - 4. her first husband who sent her away may not take her again to be his wife after she has been defiled, for that is an abomination before Jehovah, that you do not bring guilt upon the land which Jehovah your God is giving you as a possession.
 - 5. When a man takes a new wife, he shall not go out with the host, nor shall any duty be laid upon him. He shall be free at his home for one year, and he shall make his wife whom he took happy.
- ¶6. "No man shall take a millstone or an upper millstone as a pledge, for he would be taking a life as a pledge.

- ¶7. “If a man be found to have kidnapped any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and abuses him or sells him, then that thief shall die, and you shall purge the evil from your midst.
- ¶8. “Take heed to be very careful regarding the plague of leprosy and to do everything that the priests, the Levites, instruct you! Take heed to do just as I commanded them.
9. Remember what Jehovah your God did to Miriam on the way, when you came out of Egypt.
- ¶10. “When you lend your neighbor anything as a loan, you shall not go into his house to take his pledge.
11. You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you made the loan shall bring the pledge out to you.
12. And if the man is poor, you shall not sleep with his pledge.
13. You shall certainly return the pledge to him when the sun is going down, that he may sleep in his garment and bless you. And it shall be your righteousness before Jehovah your God.
14. You shall not oppress a poor and needy hired man of your brethren or of your stranger who is in your land within your gates.
15. You shall give him his wage for that day, and you shall not let the sun go down upon it, for he is poor, and his life depends on it, or he will cry out against you to Jehovah, and it will be sin to you.
- ¶16. “Fathers shall not be put to death on account of children, and children shall not be put to death on account of fathers. Each man shall be put to death for his own sin.
17. You shall not pervert the judgment of a stranger or an orphan, and you shall not take a widow’s clothing as a pledge.
18. And you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, but Jehovah your God redeemed you from there. That is why I have commanded you to do this thing.
- ¶19. “When you reap your harvest in your field, and you forget a sheaf in the field, you shall not return to collect it. Let it be for the stranger, for the orphan, and for the widow, so that Jehovah your God will bless you in all the work of your hands.
20. When you beat your olive tree, you shall not go over it afterward. Let it be for the stranger, for the orphan, and for the widow.
21. When you cut the clusters of your vineyard, you shall not glean it afterward. Let it be for the stranger, for the orphan, and for the widow.
22. And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt. Therefore, I am commanding you to do this thing.

- ¶1. "If there is a dispute between men, and they come for judgment, and they judge them, then they shall justify the righteous man and condemn the guilty man.
- 2. And it shall be that if the guilty man deserves to be beaten, then the judge shall make him lie down and have him beaten in his presence with a number of strokes in proportion to his wrongdoing.
- 3. He may have him struck no more than forty times. Otherwise, should he beat him with more stripes than these, then your brother would become contemptible in your eyes.

¶4. "You shall not muzzle an ox when it is threshing.

- ¶5. "If brothers dwell together, and one of them dies, and has no son, the wife of the dead man shall not go abroad to have a stranger for a husband. Her brother-in-law shall go in to her, and take her as a wife for himself, and do the duty of a brother-in-law for her.
- 6. And it shall be that the firstborn whom she bears shall rise up in the name of his dead brother, that his name be not wiped out from Israel.
- 7. But if the man does not desire to take his sister-in-law, then the sister-in-law shall go up to the gate to the elders, and she shall say, 'My brother-in-law refuses to raise up a name for his brother in Israel. He is not willing to perform the duty of a brother-in-law to me.'
- 8. Then the elders of his city shall summon him and speak to him. And, if he persists, and he says, 'I am not willing to take her',
- 9. then his sister-in-law shall come to him in the sight of the elders, and she shall take his sandal from off his foot, and spit in his face, and answer and say, 'So is it done to the man who will not build up his brother's house.'
- 10. And his name shall be called in Israel, 'The house of him whose sandal was taken off.'

- ¶11. "When men strive together, a man with his brother, and the wife of one comes near to deliver her husband from the hand of the one striking him, and she puts out her hand and seizes his private parts,
- 12. then you shall cut off her hand. Your eye shall have no pity.

- ¶13. "You shall not have different weights in your bag, a large and a small.
- 14. You shall not have different measures in your house, a large and a small.
- 15. You shall have a perfect and just weight, and you shall have a perfect and just measure, so that your days may be prolonged on the land which Jehovah your God is giving you.
- 16. For everyone who does such things, everyone who does unjustly, is an abomination to Jehovah your God.

¶17. "Remember what Amalek did to you in the way when you came out of Egypt,

18. that he met you in the way and struck at all the feeble lagging behind you, when you were faint and weary, and he did not fear God.
19. Therefore, it shall be, when Jehovah your God has given you rest from all your enemies round about in the land which Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, that you shall blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. You must not forget it!

Deuteronomy 26

- ¶1. "And it shall be, when you have come into the land which Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance, and you have possessed it, and settled in it,
2. that you shall take from the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you shall bring from your land that Jehovah your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket, and you shall go to the place which Jehovah your God will choose as a dwelling place for His name.
3. And you shall go to the priest who shall be in those days, and you shall say to him, 'I declare this day to Jehovah your God that I have come into the land which Jehovah swore to our fathers to give to us.'
4. And the priest shall take the basket from your hand and place it before the altar of Jehovah your God.
5. And you shall testify and say before Jehovah your God, 'A perishing Aramean was my father, and he went down to Egypt, and sojourned there with a few people, and there he became a nation, great, mighty, and numerous.'
6. And the Egyptians did evil to us, and they afflicted us, and laid hard labor upon us.
7. And we cried out to Jehovah, the God of our fathers, and Jehovah heard our voice and looked on our affliction, and our labor, and our oppression.
8. And Jehovah brought us out of Egypt with a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror, and with signs, and with wonders.
9. And He has brought us to this place, and has given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.
10. And behold, I have brought now the first of the fruit of the ground which you, O Jehovah, have given to me.' And you shall place it before Jehovah your God, and worship before Jehovah your God.
11. And you shall rejoice in all the good that Jehovah your God has given you and your house, you, and the Levite, and the stranger who is in your midst.
12. When you have finished rendering all the tithe of your produce in the third year, the year of the tithe, and have given to the Levite, to the stranger, to the orphan, and to the widow, that they may eat within your gates, and they are filled,
13. then you shall say before Jehovah your God, 'I have taken the holy portion out of my house, and I have certainly given it to the Levite, and to the stranger, to the orphan, and to the widow, according to all your commandment which you commanded me. I have not transgressed any of your commandments, nor have I forgotten them.

14. I have not eaten of it in my mourning, neither have I taken any of it when unclean, nor did I give any of it for the dead. I have obeyed the voice of Jehovah my God; I have done according to all that you commanded me.
15. Look down from your holy dwelling place, from heaven, and bless your people Israel, and the land which you gave us, just as you swore to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.'
16. This day, Jehovah your God is commanding you to observe these statutes and judgments; therefore, you shall keep and do them with all your heart, and with all your soul.
17. Today, you have declared Jehovah to be your God, and that you will walk in His ways, and keep His statutes, and His commandments, and His judgments, and give heed to His voice.
18. And today, Jehovah has declared you to be His people, a treasured possession, just as He said to you, so that you may keep all His commandments,
19. and to set you high above all the nations that He made, for praise, and for renown, and for glory, and for you to be a holy people for Jehovah your God, just as He said."

Deuteronomy 27

- ¶1. And Moses, with the elders of Israel, commanded the people, saying, "Keep every commandment which I am commanding you today.
 2. And it shall be, on the day when you cross over the Jordan to the land which Jehovah your God is giving you, that you shall set up for yourself large stones, and you shall whitewash them with lime.
 3. And you shall write all the words of this law on them when you have crossed over, because you will have entered into the land which Jehovah your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, just as Jehovah, God of your fathers, said to you.
 4. It shall also be, when you have crossed over the Jordan, that you shall set up these stones, as I have commanded you today, on Mount Ebal, and whitewash them with lime.
 5. And there you shall build an altar to Jehovah your God, an altar of stones; you shall not wield an iron tool upon them.
 6. You shall build the altar of Jehovah your God of uncut stones. Then you shall offer burnt offerings on it to Jehovah your God.
 7. And you shall sacrifice peace offerings, and there you shall eat and rejoice before Jehovah your God.
 8. And you shall write all the words of this law on the stones very plainly."
- ¶9. And Moses, with the priests, the Levites, spoke to all Israel, saying, "Keep silent, and hear, O Israel! This day you have become the people of Jehovah your God.

10. Therefore, you shall obey the voice of Jehovah your God, and observe His commandments and His statutes which I have commanded you today.”
11. And Moses commanded the people on that day, saying,
12. “These shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people, when you have crossed over the Jordan: Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin.
13. And these shall stand on Mount Ebal for the curse: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.
14. And the Levites shall answer, and say to every man of Israel with a loud voice,
15. ‘Cursed be the man who makes an idol or a molten image, an abomination to Jehovah, the work of a craftsman’s hands, and he sets it up in secret!’ And all the people shall answer and say, ‘Amen.’
16. ‘Cursed be he who dishonors his father or his mother!’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’
17. ‘Cursed be he who removes his neighbor’s boundary marker!’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’
18. ‘Cursed be he who causes a blind person to go astray in the way!’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’
19. ‘Cursed be he who perverts judgment for a stranger, an orphan, or a widow!’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’
20. ‘Cursed be he who lies with his father’s wife, because he uncovered his father’s skirt!’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’
21. ‘Cursed be he who lies with any animal!’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’
22. ‘Cursed be he who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother!’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’
23. ‘Cursed be he who lies with his mother-in-law!’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’
24. ‘Cursed be he who strikes down his neighbor in secret!’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’
25. ‘Cursed be he who takes a bribe to cause the blood of an innocent soul to be shed!’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’
26. ‘Cursed be anyone who does not accede to the words of this law, to do them!’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’”

- ¶1. “And it shall come to pass, if you will diligently hearken to the voice of Jehovah your God, to take care to do all His commandments which I am commanding you today, that Jehovah your God will set you high above all the nations of earth.
2. And all these blessings will come upon you, and overtake you, if you obey the voice of Jehovah your God.
3. Blessed shall you be in the city, and blessed shall you be in the field.
4. Blessed shall be the fruit of your womb, and the fruit of your ground, and the fruit of your livestock, the offspring of your cattle and the offspring of your flock.
5. Blessed shall be your basket and your kneading trough.
6. Blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out.
7. Jehovah will deliver up your enemies who rise up against you to be struck down before your face. They shall come out against you by one way, but flee before you seven ways.
8. Jehovah will command the blessing upon you in your storehouses, and in every endeavor of your hands, and He will bless you in the land, which Jehovah your God is giving you.
9. Jehovah will establish you as a holy people for Himself, just as He has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of Jehovah your God, and walk in His ways.
10. And all the peoples of earth shall see that you are called by the name of Jehovah, and they shall be afraid of you.
11. And Jehovah will cause you to have an abundance of good, in the fruit of your womb, and in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground, in the land which Jehovah your God swore to your fathers to give you.
12. Jehovah will open to you His treasury of good, the heavens, to give your land rain in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand, and you will lend to many nations, and you will not borrow.
13. And Jehovah will make you the head, and not the tail, and you shall only be above, and never be below, if you give heed to the commandments of Jehovah your God, which I am commanding you today, to keep and to do,
14. that you turn not aside from any of the words which I am commanding you today, right or left, to go after other gods to serve them.
- ¶15. “But it shall come to pass if you will not give heed to the voice of Jehovah your God, to observe to do all His commandments and His statutes which I am commanding you today, that all these curses shall come upon you and overtake you.
16. Cursed shall you be in the city, and cursed shall you be in the field.
17. Cursed shall be your basket and your kneading trough.
18. Cursed shall be the fruit of your womb, and the fruit of your ground, the offspring of your cattle, and the offspring of your flock.
19. Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out.

20. Jehovah will send upon you the curse, confusion, and rebuke, in every endeavor of your hand that you do, until you are destroyed, yea, until you perish quickly because of the wickedness of your deeds with which you forsake me.
21. Jehovah will cause the pestilence to cling to you, until He has consumed you from off the land into which you are going, to possess it.
22. Jehovah will strike you down with consumption, and with the fever, and with inflammation, and with a burning heat, and with the sword, and with blight, and with mildew, and they shall pursue you until you perish.
23. And your sky that is over your head will be bronze, and the land that is under you, iron.
24. Jehovah will make the rain of your land powder and dust. It shall come down on you from heaven, until you be destroyed.
25. Jehovah will deliver you up to be struck down before your enemies. You shall go out against them by one way, but flee seven ways before them, and you shall be a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.
26. And your carcass shall be meat for every bird of the sky, and for the beast of the land, and there will be no one to frighten them away.
27. Jehovah will strike you with the boils of Egypt, and with hemorrhoids, and with the itch, and with the scab, of which you cannot be cured.
28. Jehovah will strike you with madness, and with blindness, and with confusion of mind.
29. And you shall grope about at midday, just as the blind grope in darkness, and you will not prosper in your ways, and shall only be oppressed and robbed continually, and there will be no one to help.
30. You shall betroth a wife, and another man will ravish her. You shall build a house, but you shall not dwell in it. You shall plant a vineyard, but you will not enjoy it.
31. Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes, and you shall not eat of it. Your donkey will be stolen in front of you, and it will not be restored to you. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and there will be no one to save them for you.
32. Your sons and your daughters will be delivered up to another people, and your eyes will look, and fail for longing for them all the day long, and your hand will have no strength.
33. The fruit of your ground, and all your toil, a nation, whom you do not know, will eat, and you will only be oppressed and crushed continually.
34. And you will be driven to distraction by the sight of your eyes, which you will see.
35. Jehovah will strike you in the knees and in the legs with sore boils which you cannot cure, from the sole of your foot to the top of your head.
36. Jehovah will bring you, and your king whom you shall set over you, to a nation which neither you nor your fathers have known. And there, you shall serve other gods of wood and stone.
37. And you shall become an astonishment, a byword, and a mockery, among all the peoples where Jehovah will drive you.

38. You will take much seed out to the field, but you will gather little, for the young locust will consume it.
39. You shall plant vineyards, and you shall labor, but you will not drink wine nor gather its grapes, for the worm will devour them.
40. You shall have olive trees throughout your territory, but you will not anoint yourself with oil, for your olive tree will cast its fruit.
41. You shall beget sons and daughters, but they will not be yours, for they will go into captivity.
42. The swarm will devour all your trees, and the fruit of your ground.
43. The stranger who is in your midst shall rise up very high above you, and you will come down very low.
44. He shall lend to you, and you shall not lend to him. He shall be the head, and you will be the tail.
45. And all these curses shall come upon you, and shall pursue you, and overtake you, until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the voice of Jehovah your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which He commanded you.
46. And they shall be upon you for a sign and a wonder, and upon your seed, forever,
47. because you did not serve Jehovah your God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of everything.
48. But your enemies whom Jehovah will send against you will you serve in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in the lack of everything. And He shall put an iron yoke on your neck, until He has destroyed you.
49. Jehovah will lift up a nation against you from afar, from the end of the earth, that flies like the eagle, a nation whose tongue you cannot understand,
50. a nation of fearsome countenance which neither respects the faces of the old, nor pities the young.
51. And they will eat the fruit of your livestock, and the fruit of your ground, until you be destroyed; they will not leave you grain, new wine, or fresh oil, the offspring of your cattle, or the offspring of your flock until they cause you to perish.
52. And they will besiege you in all your gates, until your high and fortified walls in which you trust throughout your land come down, for they will besiege you in all your gates throughout your land which Jehovah your God has given you.
53. And you shall eat the fruit of your womb, the flesh of your sons and your daughters whom Jehovah your God gave to you, during the siege and in the distress with which your enemies will distress you.
54. As for the tender and very delicate man among you, his eye will be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the rest of his children that he has left,
55. not giving to one of them any of the flesh of his children whom he is eating because he has nothing left in the siege, and in the distress with which your enemy will distress you in all your gates.

56. And the tender and delicate woman among you, who would hardly set the sole of her foot on the earth because of delicateness and tenderness, her eye will be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,
57. *and toward her afterbirth that comes forth from between her feet, even toward her children whom she bore, for she will eat them secretly for the lack of anything to eat in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy will distress you in all your gates.*
58. If you do not take care to do all the words of this law written in this book, to fear this glorious and fearful name, Jehovah, your God,
59. then Jehovah will make your afflictions and the afflictions of your seed extraordinary, severe and lasting afflictions, and severe and lasting sicknesses.
60. And He will bring back upon you all the diseases of Egypt of which you were afraid, and they will cling to you.
61. Also, every sickness and every affliction which is not written in the book of this law, Jehovah will bring them upon you until you are destroyed.
62. And you shall be left with few men, whereas you had been like the stars of heaven for multitude, for you did not obey the voice of Jehovah your God.
63. And it shall come to pass, that just as Jehovah rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you, even so will Jehovah rejoice over you to put you to death, and to exterminate you, and you shall be uprooted from the land that you went in to possess.
64. And Jehovah will scatter you among all the nations, from one end of the earth to the other, and there will you serve other gods of wood and stone that you and your fathers have not known.
65. And among those nations will you not find rest, and there will be no resting place for the sole of your foot. And there, Jehovah will give you a trembling heart, and failing eyes, and a languishing soul.
66. And your lives will hang in doubt before you, and night and day you will live in fear, and you will have no certainty in your lives.
67. In the morning, you will say, ‘Oh, that it was evening!’ and at evening, you will say, ‘Oh, that it was morning!’ because of the dread of your heart which you will feel and because of the sight of your eyes which you will see.
68. And Jehovah will return you by way of ships to Egypt, which I told you you would never see again. And there will you offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male slaves and female slaves, but there will be no buyer.”

Deuteronomy 29

- ¶1. These are the words of the covenant which Jehovah commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which He made with them at Horeb.

- ¶2. And Moses summoned all Israel, and said to them, “ You have seen all that Jehovah did in your sight in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land,
3. the great trials which your eyes beheld, the signs, and those great wonders,
4. but Jehovah has not given you a heart to understand, or eyes to see, or ears to hear to this day.
5. And I have led you forty years in the wilderness; your garments have not worn out upon you, nor has your sandal worn out on your foot.
6. You have not consumed bread, nor have you drunk wine or strong drink, so that you may know that I am Jehovah your God.
7. When you came to this place, Sihon, king of Heshbon, and Og, king of Bashan, came out to meet us in battle, and we struck them down.
8. And we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of the Manassites.
9. Therefore, keep the words of this covenant, and do them, so that you might prosper in all that you do.
10. You are standing today, all of you, before Jehovah your God, your heads of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, every man of Israel,
11. your little ones, your wives, and your stranger who is in the midst of your camp, from he who cuts your wood to the one who draws your water,
12. so that you may enter into the covenant of Jehovah your God, and into His oath, which Jehovah your God is making with you today,
13. so that He may establish you today as His people, and that He will be your God, just as He has said to you, and just as He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.
14. And it is not with you alone that I am making this covenant and this oath,
15. but with him who is standing here with us today before Jehovah our God and him who is not here with us today
16. (for you know that we dwelt in the land of Egypt and that we passed through the midst of the nations, which you passed through
17. and saw their abominations, and their idols of wood, and stone, silver, and gold, which are among them),
18. lest there be among you a man or a woman, or a family, or a tribe whose heart would turn away today from Jehovah our God, to go to serve the gods of those nations, and lest there be among you a root that bears poisonous and bitter fruit,
19. and it come to pass, when he hears the words of this oath, that he blesses himself in his heart, saying, ‘I shall have peace, though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart’, in order to destroy the watered with the thirsty.

20. Jehovah will not be willing to forgive him, but rather, Jehovah's anger and His jealousy will smoke against that man, and every curse that is written in this book shall rest on him, and Jehovah will blot out his name from under heaven.
21. And Jehovah will set him apart for evil among all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the law.
22. And the following generation of your children that rises up after you, and the foreigner who comes from a distant land, will say, when they see the afflictions of that land, and its infirmities with which Jehovah has sickened it,
23. 'All its land is sulfur, and salt, and burning. It is not sown, and nothing sprouts, and no grass at all grows on it, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, and Admah and Zeboiim, which Jehovah overthrew in His anger and in His fury.'
24. And all the nations will say, 'Why has Jehovah done such as this to this land? What provoked the fierceness of this great anger?'
25. And they will say, 'It is because they forsook the covenant of Jehovah, the God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out from the land of Egypt,
26. and they went and served other gods, and bowed themselves to them, gods whom they did not know and whom He had not assigned to them.
27. And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book.
28. And Jehovah rooted them up out of their ground in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath, and He cast them out into another land, as it is this day.'
29. The secret things belong to Jehovah our God, but things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may perform all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 30

- ¶1. "And it shall be that when all these things have come upon you, the blessing and the curse that I have set before you, and you call them to mind in all the nations to which Jehovah your God has driven you,
2. and you return to Jehovah your God and obey His voice according to all that I command you today, you and your children, with all your heart and with all your soul,
3. then Jehovah your God will return your captivity and show you compassion. Yea, Jehovah your God will relent and gather you up out of all the nations where He had scattered you.
4. Even if you have been banished to the end of heaven, from there will Jehovah your God gather you up, and from there will He fetch you.
5. And Jehovah your God will bring you to the land which your fathers possessed, and you will possess it, and He will do good to you and multiply you more than your fathers.

6. And Jehovah your God will circumcise your heart, and the heart of your seed, to love Jehovah your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, that you may live.
7. And Jehovah your God will put all these curses upon your enemies and upon those who hate you, who persecute you.
8. And you shall return and obey the voice of Jehovah, and observe all His commandments which I command you today.
9. And Jehovah your God will cause you to have an abundance in every work of your hand, in the fruit of your womb, and in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your land, for good, because Jehovah will again rejoice over you for good, just as He rejoiced over your fathers,
10. if you will obey the voice of Jehovah your God to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in the book of this law, and if you return to Jehovah your God with all your heart, and with all your soul.
11. For this commandment which I command you today is not too hard for you, nor is it far off.
12. It is not in heaven, that you should say, ‘Who shall go up to heaven for us, and bring it to us, and cause us to hear it that we may do it?’
13. Neither is it over the sea, that you should say, ‘Who will cross over to the other side of the sea for us, and bring it to us, and cause us to hear it that we may do it?’
14. But the word is very near to you. It is in your mouth, and in your heart, that you may do it.
15. See, I have set before you today life and good, and death and evil!
16. For I am commanding you today to love Jehovah your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments, and His statutes, and His judgments, that you may live, and multiply, and that Jehovah your God may bless you in the land that you are going in to possess.
17. But, if your heart turns away, and you do not obey, and you are led astray, and worship other gods, and serve them,
18. I declare to you today, that you will surely perish, and you will not prolong the days on the land which you are crossing over the Jordan to go in to possess.
19. I summon heaven and earth to bear witness against you today, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing. So choose life, that you and your offspring may live.
20. Love Jehovah your God, obey His voice, and cling to Him, for He is your life, and your length of days, that you may dwell on the land which Jehovah swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.”

Deuteronomy 31

¶1. And Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel.

2. And he said to them, “I am one hundred and twenty years old today. I am no longer able to go out and come in, and Jehovah has said to me, ‘You shall not cross over this Jordan.’”
 3. Jehovah your God, He will pass over before you. He will exterminate those nations before you, and you will dispossess them. Joshua is he who will go over before you, just as Jehovah said.
 4. And Jehovah will do to them just as He did to Sihon and to Og, kings of the Amorites, and to their land, when He exterminated them.
 5. And Jehovah will deliver them up before you, and you shall do to them according to every command that I have commanded you.
 6. Be strong and courageous! Fear not! And do not be afraid of them, for Jehovah your God, He is going with you. He will neither fail you, nor forsake you.”
- ¶7. And Moses called for Joshua, and he said to him in the sight of all Israel, “Be strong and courageous! For you are going with this people into the land which Jehovah swore to their fathers to give them, and you will cause them to inherit it.
8. And it is Jehovah who is going before you. He will be with you. He will not fail you, nor forsake you. Do not be afraid or be dismayed.”
- ¶9. And Moses wrote this law, and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi who bore the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, and to all the elders of Israel.
10. And Moses commanded them, saying, “At the end of seven years, at the appointed time of the year of release, at the Feast of Booths,
 11. when all Israel comes to appear before Jehovah your God, at the place which He shall choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing.
 12. Assemble the people, the men, and the women, and the little ones, and your stranger who is within your gates, so that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear Jehovah your God, and take heed to do all the words of this law.
 13. And their children who do not know it may hear and may learn to fear Jehovah your God all the days which you live on the land that you are crossing over the Jordan to possess.”
- ¶14. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Behold, your time to die draws near. Call Joshua, and present yourselves at the tent of meeting, that I may give him a charge!” And Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves at the tent of meeting.
15. And Jehovah appeared at the tent in a pillar of cloud. And the pillar of cloud stood over the entrance of the tent.
 16. And Jehovah said to Moses, “Behold, you shall sleep with your fathers, and this people will rise up and go whoring after the gods of the foreign land, into the midst of which they are going, and they will forsake me and break my covenant which I have made with them.

17. And my anger will be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and distresses shall come upon them. And they will say in that day, ‘Have not these evils come upon us because God is not in our midst?’
 18. But I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evil which they have done because they turned to other gods.
 19. Therefore, write for yourselves now this song, and teach it to the children of Israel! Put it in their mouth, so that this song will be a witness for me against the children of Israel.
 20. For I will bring them into the land flowing with milk and honey which I swore to their fathers, and they will eat and be full, and grow fat, and turn to other gods, and serve them, and spurn me, and break my covenant.
 21. And it shall come to pass, when many evils and distresses have come upon them, that this song will testify against them as a witness because it will not be forgotten by the mouth of their seed. For I know their thoughts which they are having today, even before I have brought them into the land concerning which I swore.”
 22. So, Moses wrote this song on that day, and he taught it to the children of Israel.
 23. And He gave Joshua ben-Nun a charge, and He said, “Be strong, and be courageous! For you shall bring the children of Israel into the land which I swore to them, and I will be with you.”
- ¶24. And it came to pass, when Moses finished writing the words of this law in a book to their completion,
25. that Moses commanded the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, saying,
 26. “Take this book of the law, and put it beside the ark of the covenant of Jehovah your God, that it may be there as a witness against you.
 27. For I know of your rebellion, and your stiff neck. Behold, while I am still alive with you today, you have been rebellious against Jehovah, and how much more so after my death?
 28. Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their hearing, and I will call the heavens and the earth to testify against them.
 29. For I know that after my death, you will utterly corrupt yourselves and turn aside from the way that I have commanded you, and that evil will befall you in the latter days because you will do evil in the sight of Jehovah to provoke provoking Him to anger by the work of your hands.”
- ¶30. And Moses spoke in the ears of all the Assembly of Israel the words of this song, until they were ended:

- ¶1. "Give ear, O heaven, and let me speak, and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.
2. My doctrine will drop like the rain, my speech will distill like the dew, like raindrops upon grass and like showers upon herbs,
3. for I will proclaim the name of Jehovah. Ascribe greatness to our God,
4. the Rock! His work is perfect! Yea, all His ways are just. A God who is faithful and without iniquity; righteous and upright is He.
5. They have dealt corruptly with Him. They are not His children; they are a blemished generation, perverse and crooked.
6. Is this how you repay Jehovah, O foolish people without wisdom? Is He not your Father? He created you! He made you and established you!
7. Remember the days of old! Consider the years of many generations! Ask your father, and he will make it known to you, your elders, and they will tell you!
8. When the Most High gave an inheritance to Gentiles, when He divided the sons of man, He fixed the boundaries of the peoples according to the number of the sons of God.²
9. But Jehovah's portion is His people; Jacob is the lot of His inheritance.
10. He found him in a desert land. And in the howling waste of a wilderness, He surrounded him, He watched over him, He kept him as the apple of His eye.
11. Like an eagle that stirs up its nest, that hovers over its young, and spreading out its wings it takes them, bearing them on its feathers,
12. Jehovah alone led him, and there was no foreign god with Him.
13. He caused him to ride on the high places of the earth. And he ate the produce of the field, and He caused him to suck honey from a rock, and oil from a flinty rock,
14. curds from cattle, and milk from sheep, with the fat of lambs, and rams from Bashan, and he-goats, with the choicest wheat, and you drank wine, the blood of the grape.
15. But Jeshurun grew fat, and he kicked. You grew fat; you grew thick; you were satisfied. Then he forsook God who made him, and treated the Rock of his salvation with contempt.
16. They provoked Him to jealousy with strange gods; with abominations, they provoked Him to anger.
17. They sacrificed to demons, not to God, to gods they did not know, new ones that came in from close by, whom your fathers had not feared.
18. Of the Rock who bore you, you were unmindful, and you forgot God, who travailed with you.
19. And Jehovah saw it, and He despised them because of the provocations of His sons and His daughters.

² Masoretic text: "Israel".

20. And He said, ‘Let me hide my face from them. I will see what their end will be, for they are a perverse generation, children in whom is no faithfulness.’
21. They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God; they have provoked me to anger with their vanities. Therefore, I will move them to jealousy with those which are not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.
22. For a fire is kindled in my anger, and it shall burn to the depths of Sheol, and it shall consume the earth and its increase, and set the foundations of the mountains ablaze.
23. I will heap troubles upon them; I will spend all my arrows on them,
24. until they be exhausted by famine, and consumed by flame and bitter destruction. I will also send the teeth of beasts against them, with poison of serpents of the dust.
25. A sword without shall bereave, and in the bedchambers terror, both the young man and the virgin, the nursing infant with the man of gray hair.
26. I said I would cut them to pieces, that I would erase the memory of them from mankind,
27. except that I wanted to avoid provocation of the enemy, lest their adversaries misconstrue it and say, ‘Our power is superior; Jehovah did not do all this.’
28. For they are a nation in which counsel has perished, and there is no understanding in them.
29. If only they were wise, they would consider this! They would understand their latter end!
30. How could one pursue a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except that their Rock had sold them, and Jehovah had delivered them up?
31. For their rock is not like our Rock. (Even our enemies are judges of this.)
32. For their vine is of Sodom’s vine and of the fields of Gomorrah; their grapes are grapes of gall; their clusters are bitter.
33. Their wine is the poison of serpents, and the cruel venom of adders.
34. Is this not stored up with me, sealed up among my treasures?
35. Vengeance is mine, and recompense. In time, their foot shall slip, for the day of their calamity is near, and the things prepared will come quickly upon them.
36. Jehovah will certainly judge His people, but He will have pity on His servants when He sees that their strength is gone, whether bond or free.
37. And He will say, ‘Where are their gods, the rock in which they sought refuge,
38. who ate the fat of their sacrifices? They drank the wine of their drink offerings. Let them rise up and help you. Let that be a refuge for you!’
39. See now that I, even I, am He, and there is no god with me! I kill, and I restore to life. I wound, and I heal. And there is no one who can deliver out of my hand.
40. Yea, I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, ‘I live forever.’
41. If I sharpen my flashing sword and my hand takes hold in judgment, I will render vengeance to my enemies and repay those who hate me.

42. I will make my arrows drunk with blood, and my sword will devour flesh, from the blood of the slain and the captive, and from the head of the leaders of the enemy.
43. Sing joyfully, O nations, with His people! For He will avenge the blood of His servants and render vengeance to His enemies, and He will make atonement for His land, and His people.”
- ¶44. And Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Hoshea ben-Nun.
45. And Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel.
46. And he said to them, “Apply your hearts to all the words that I am testifying among you today, so that you command your children to be careful to do all the words of this law.
47. For it is not a vain thing for you, because it is your life, and by this thing you will prolong your days in the land that you are about to cross the Jordan to possess.”
- ¶48. And Jehovah spoke to Moses that same day, saying,
49. “Go up to this mountain of Abarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab across from Jericho, and see the land of Canaan which I am giving to the children of Israel for a possession.
50. And die there upon the mountain which you go up, and be gathered to your people, just as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor, and was gathered to his people,
51. because you trespassed against me in the midst of the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah-Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin, because you did not sanctify me in the midst of the children of Israel.
52. Yet, you may see the land opposite, but you shall not go there into the land which I am giving to the children of Israel.”

Deuteronomy 33

- ¶1. This is the blessing with which Moses, the man of God, blessed the children of Israel before his death.
2. And he said, “Jehovah came from Sinai, and appeared to them from Seir. He shone forth from Mount Paran. From His right hand came the Holy One with myriads; fire was his mandate.
3. Yea, O beloved of nations, in your hands are all His saints, and they follow in your steps, each one raised up through your words.”
4. Moses commanded us a law, the possession of the Assembly of Jacob.
5. And he was king in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people, the tribes of Israel, gathered themselves together.
6. “May Reuben live, and not die, but let his men be few.”
7. And this was for Judah, and he said, “Hear, O Jehovah, the voice of Judah, and bring him in to his people. His hands strove for himself, but you shall be the help against his enemies.”

8. And concerning Levi, he said, "Your Thummim and your Urim belong to your godly man, whom you tested at Massah, with whom you contended at the waters of Meribah,
9. he who said to his father and mother, 'I do not recognize him,' and he did not acknowledge his kinsman, and did not know his children. But they obeyed your word and kept your covenant.
10. They will teach Jacob your judgments, and your law to Israel; they will offer incense into your nostrils and whole burnt offerings upon your altar.
11. Bless his substance, O Jehovah, and accept the work of his hands. Pierce the loins of them who rise against him and of them who hate him, that they not rise again."
12. Of Benjamin he said, "Let the beloved of Jehovah dwell in safety by him, covering him all the day long. And he shall dwell between his shoulders."
13. And of Joseph he said, "Blessed of Jehovah be his land with precious things of heaven, of dew, and of the deep that lies beneath,
14. and with precious produce of the sun, and precious yield of the moons,
15. and with chief things of ancient mountains, and with precious things of the everlasting hills,
16. and with precious things of the earth, and its fullness, even the favor of Him who dwelt in the thorn-bush. May it come upon the head of Joseph, even on the crown of the one separated from his brothers.
17. The glory of the firstborn of his ox is his, and his horns are horns of an aurochs. With them, he shall push the peoples together to the ends of the earth. For they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh."
18. And of Zebulun he said, "Rejoice, O Zebulun, in your going out, and Issachar, in your tents.
19. They shall call peoples to the mountain. There, they shall sacrifice sacrifices of righteousness, for they shall suck the abundance of seas, and of treasures hidden in sand."
20. And of Gad he said, "Blessed is he who enlarges Gad. He settles down like a lion, and he tears off arm and head.
21. And he chose the first for himself, and there was the hidden lawgiver's portion, when he had come with heads of the people. He executed the righteousness of Jehovah, even His judgments, with Israel."
22. And of Dan he said, "Dan is a lion's whelp. He shall spring from Bashan."
23. And of Naphtali he said, "O Naphtali, satisfied with favor, and full of the blessing of Jehovah. Possess the sea and the south!"
24. And of Asher he said, "Blessed with children is Asher. May he be accepted by his brothers, and dip his foot in oil.
25. Your bars are of iron and bronze, and according to your days may your strength be.
26. There is none like the God of Jeshurun, who rides the heavens with your help, and the skies in His majesty.

27. The ancient God is a hiding place, and beneath are everlasting arms, and He shall drive out the enemy from before you and say, ‘Destroy! ’
28. Then Israel will dwell in safety alone. The eye of Jacob will be on a land of grain and new wine, and his heavens will drop down dew.
29. Happy are you, O Israel! Who is like you, a people saved by Jehovah? A shield! Your help, who is also your majestic sword! Also, your enemies shall cower before you, and you shall tread upon their high places.”

Deuteronomy 34

- ¶1. And Moses went up from the Plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, the top of Pisgah that is across from Jericho, and Jehovah caused him to see all the land, with Gilead unto Dan,
2. and all of Naphtali, and the territory of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the territory of Judah to the sea beyond,
3. and the Negev, and the area in the valley-plain of Jericho (the “City of Palm Trees”), to Zoar.
4. Then Jehovah said to him, “This is the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying ‘I will give it to your seed.’ I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you will not cross over there.”
5. And Moses, the slave of Jehovah, died there in the land of Moab according to the word of Jehovah.
6. And He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, before Beth-peor, but no man knows where his grave is to this day.
7. And Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he died. His eyes had not grown dim, nor had his vigor abated.
8. And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the Plains of Moab thirty days, until the days of weeping and mourning for Moses ended.
9. And Joshua ben-Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him, and the children of Israel gave heed to him, and they did just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
10. And no prophet has arisen again in Israel like Moses, whom Jehovah knew face to face,
11. with all the signs, and the wonders which Jehovah sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land,
12. with all the mighty power and with every great, fearful deed which Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Joshua

Joshua 1

- ¶1. And it came to pass after the death of Moses, the slave of Jehovah, that Jehovah spoke to Joshua ben-Nun, Moses 'minister, saying,
2. "Moses my servant is dead. So, arise now. Go over this Jordan, you, and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them, to the children of Israel.
 3. Every place that the sole of your foot treads upon, I have given to you, just as I said to Moses.
 4. From the wilderness and this Lebanon, even as far as the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and as far as the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun shall be your territory.
 5. No man will be able to stand before you all the days of your life. Just as I was with Moses, I will be with you. I will neither fail you nor forsake you.
 6. Be strong and courageous, for you shall cause this people to inherit the land, which I swore to their fathers to give to them.
 7. Only be strong and very courageous to take care to do according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded you. Do not turn from it, right or left, so that you may have success everywhere you go.
 8. The book of this law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you will take care to do according to all that is written in it. For then, you will make your way prosperous and have success.
 9. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous! Do not tremble, nor be dismayed, for Jehovah your God will be with you everywhere you go."
- ¶10. Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,
11. "Pass through the midst of the camp and command the people, saying, 'Prepare provisions for yourselves, for after three days, you are crossing over this Jordan to go in to possess the land which Jehovah your God is giving you to possess.'"
 12. And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, Joshua spoke, saying,
 13. "Remember the thing that Moses, the slave of Jehovah, commanded you, saying, 'Jehovah your God has given you rest and has given this land to you.'
 14. Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock shall remain in the land which Moses gave to you on this side of the Jordan, but you, all the mighty men of war, shall pass over armed before your brethren and help them,
 15. until Jehovah gives rest to your brethren as to you, and they also take possession of the land which Jehovah your God is giving them. Then you shall return to the land of your inheritance and possess that which Moses, the slave of Jehovah, gave to you on the side of the Jordan toward the sunrise.”

16. And they answered Joshua, saying, “All that you have commanded us, we will do, and wherever you send us, we will go.
17. As we obeyed Moses in all things, so shall we obey you. Only, Jehovah your God be with you as He was with Moses!
18. Any man who rebels against your command and does not obey your words, in whatever you command him, shall be put to death. Only, be strong and courageous!”

Joshua 2

- ¶1. Then Joshua ben-Nun sent two men secretly from Shittim as spies, saying, “Go! View the land, especially Jericho!” So, they went and entered the house of a harlot whose name was Rahab, and they lodged there.
2. But it was told to the king of Jericho, saying, “Behold, men of the children of Israel came here tonight to search out the land.”
3. And the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, “Bring out the men who came to you, who came to your house, for they have come to search out all the land.”
4. Then the woman took the two men and hid them, and she said, “True, the men came to me, but I didn’t know where they were from.
5. And it came to pass at dark when the gate was to be shut that the men went out. I don’t know where the men went. Pursue after them quickly; you will certainly overtake them.”
6. But she had brought them up to the roof and hidden them with the flax stalks which had been laid out on the roof for her.
7. And the men pursued after them on the road to the Jordan, to the fords, and they shut the gate after the pursuers had gone out after them.
8. But before they lay down, she came up to them on the roof,
9. and she said to the men, “I know that Jehovah has given you the land, and that terror of you has fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land are faint before you.
10. For we have heard that Jehovah dried up the waters of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were on the other side of the Jordan, to Sihon and to Og, whom you devoted.
11. And when we heard, our heart melted, and no spirit remained in any man because of you, for Jehovah your God, He is God, in the heavens above and on the earth below.
12. And I pray you now, swear to me by Jehovah, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you will also deal kindly with my father’s house and give me a sure sign
13. that you will spare the lives of my father, and my mother, and my brothers, and my sisters, and all that are theirs, and deliver our souls from death.”

14. And the men said to her, “Our life for yours, on penalty of death. If you do not make this business of ours known, then it shall be that when Jehovah has given us the land, we shall deal kindly and faithfully with you.”
15. Then she let them down with a rope through the window, for her house was in the outer part of the wall, and she dwelt in the wall.
16. And she said to them, “Go to the mountain, lest the pursuers come upon you, and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers return. And afterward, you may go on your way.”
17. And the men said to her, “We will be free from this oath of yours which you made us swear, unless,
18. behold, when we come into the land, you tie this cord of scarlet thread in the window through which you let us down. And you must gather with you in the house your father, and your mother, and your brethren, and all the house of your father.
19. And it shall be that whoever goes out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood shall be on his own head, and we will be innocent. And whoever is with you in the house, his blood will be upon our head if a hand comes upon him.
20. And if you tell this business of ours, we will also be free of your oath which you made us swear.”
21. And she said, “According to your words, so be it.” And she sent them away, and they departed. Then she tied the scarlet cord in the window.
- ¶22. And they went away and came to the mountain, and stayed there three days, until the pursuers returned. And the pursuers had sought them all along the way, but they did not find them.
23. Then the two men returned. They descended from the mountain, and crossed over, and came to Joshua ben-Nun, and they told him all that had happened to them.
24. And they said to Joshua, “Jehovah has certainly delivered the whole land into our hand, for indeed, all the inhabitants of the land are faint before us.”

Joshua 3

- ¶1. And Joshua rose early in the morning, and they set out from Shittim, and he and all the children of Israel came to the Jordan. And they lodged there before they crossed over.
2. And it came to pass at the end of three days that the officers passed through the midst of the camp,
3. and they commanded the people, saying, “When you see the ark of the covenant of Jehovah your God, and the priests, the Levites, bearing it, then you shall set out from your place and follow it
4. (yet, there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure; you shall not come near to it), so that you will know the way by which you must go, for you have not passed this way before.”

5. And Joshua said to the people, “Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow Jehovah will do wonders in your midst.”
6. And Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, “Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass on before the people.” And they took up the ark of the covenant and went before the people.
7. And Jehovah said to Joshua, “This day will I begin to magnify you in the sight of all Israel so that they will know that just as I was with Moses, I will be with you.
8. And you shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, saying, ‘When you come to the brink of the waters of Jordan, you shall stand still in Jordan.’”
9. And Joshua said to the children of Israel, “Come here, and hear the words of Jehovah your God.”
10. And Joshua said, “By this you shall know that the living God is in your midst, and that He will certainly dispossess before you the Canaanites, even the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites.
11. Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is passing on before you into the Jordan.
12. But now, take for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man from each tribe.
13. And it shall come to pass, when the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of Jehovah, Lord of all the earth, come to rest in the waters of Jordan, the waters of Jordan shall be cut off from the waters coming from upstream, and they will stand up in one heap.”
14. And it came to pass, when the people set out from their tents to cross over the Jordan, that the priests bore the ark of the covenant before the people.
15. And as those bearing the ark came to the Jordan and the feet of the priests bearing the ark were dipped into the brink of the water (and the Jordan overflows all its banks throughout harvest time),
16. then the waters coming from upstream stood up. They rose up in a heap a great distance to Adam, the city which is beside Zaretan. And those going down toward the sea of the plain, the Salt Sea, were completely cut off. And the people crossed over opposite Jericho.
17. And the priests who were bearing the ark of the covenant of Jehovah stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan, and all Israel crossed over on dry ground until the whole nation had completely crossed the Jordan.

Joshua 4

- ¶1. And it came to pass, when all the nation had finished crossing over the Jordan, that Jehovah spoke to Joshua, saying,
2. “Take for yourselves twelve men from the people, one man from each tribe,

3. and command them, saying, ‘Take up twelve stones for yourselves from here, from the midst of the Jordan, from where the priest’s feet stood firm, and take them over with you and put them in the place where you lodge tonight.’
 4. Then Joshua called for the twelve men whom he had appointed from the sons of Israel, one man from each tribe.
 5. And Joshua said to them, “Go on before the ark of Jehovah your God into the midst of the Jordan, and each of you lift up a stone onto his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel,
 6. that this may be a sign among you, so that when your children ask in the future, saying, ‘What do these stones mean to you?’,
 7. then you will say to them, ‘The waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of Jehovah. When it passed over Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off, and these stones are for a memorial to the children of Israel forever.’”
 8. And the children of Israel did so, just as Joshua commanded, and they took up twelve stones from the midst of the Jordan, as Jehovah had said to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and they took them over with them to the lodging-place, and they laid them down there.
 9. And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan at the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant stood, and they are there to this day.
 10. And the priests stood in the midst of the Jordan bearing the ark until everything had been completed that Jehovah had commanded Joshua to tell the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua; and the people hurried and crossed over.
 11. And it came to pass, when all the people had completely passed over, that the ark of Jehovah and the priests passed over before the people.
 12. And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh passed over armed before the children of Israel, just as Moses had said to them,
 13. about forty thousand equipped for battle passed over before Jehovah for battle, to the plains of Jericho.
 14. On that day, Jehovah magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel, and they feared him, just as they feared Moses, all the days of his life.
- ¶15. Now, Jehovah had spoken to Joshua, saying,
16. “Command the priests bearing the ark of the testimony that they come up out of the Jordan.”
 17. So Joshua commanded the priests, saying, “Come up out of the Jordan.”
 18. And it came to pass when the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of Jehovah had come up from the midst of the Jordan, the soles of the priest’s feet being lifted up onto dry ground, that the waters of the Jordan returned to their place, and went over all its banks, as before.

19. And the people came up from the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and they encamped at Gilgal, on the east side of Jericho.
20. And those twelve stones, which they had taken from the Jordan, Joshua set up at Gilgal.
21. And he spoke to the children of Israel, saying, “In the future, when your children ask their fathers, saying, ‘What are these stones?’,
22. then you shall instruct your children, saying, ‘Israel passed over this Jordan on dry land.
23. For Jehovah your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you, until you had passed over (just as Jehovah your God did to the Red Sea, which He dried up before us, until we had passed over
24. so that all the peoples of the earth might know the hand of Jehovah, that it is mighty), that you may fear Jehovah your God forever.””

Joshua 5

- ¶1. And it came to pass, when all the kings of the Amorites who were on the westward side of the Jordan and all the kings of the Canaanites who were by the sea heard that Jehovah had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the children of Israel while we crossed over, that their heart melted, and there was no longer any spirit in them because of the children of Israel.
- ¶2. At that time Jehovah said to Joshua, “Make for yourself flint knives, and circumcise the children of Israel again, a second time.”
3. So Joshua made for himself flint knives, and he circumcised the children of Israel at Gibeah-haaraloth.¹
4. And this is the reason that Joshua circumcised them: all the people who came out of Egypt, the males, all the men of war, had died in the wilderness along the way after they came out from Egypt,
5. and all the people who came out were circumcised, but all the people who were born in the wilderness along the way as they came out from Egypt had not been circumcised.
6. For the children of Israel had walked in the wilderness forty years, until all the nation’s men of war who came out of Egypt had been consumed, because they did not obey the voice of Jehovah. For Jehovah swore to them that He would not show them the land which Jehovah had sworn to their fathers to give to us, a land flowing with milk and honey.
7. But He raised up their sons in their stead, whom Joshua circumcised, for they were uncircumcised because they had not circumcised them along the way.

8. And it came to pass, when all the nation was finished being circumcised, that they remained in their places in the camp until they were whole.
9. And Jehovah said to Joshua, "Today, I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you." So, the name of that place has been called Gilgal² to this day.
- ¶10. And the children of Israel encamped at Gilgal, and they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, in the plains of Jericho.
11. And they ate of the land's produce on the morrow after the Passover, on that very day, unleavened bread and crushed grain.
12. And the manna ceased on the morrow when they ate of the land's produce, and there was no longer manna for the children of Israel. And they ate of the produce of the land of Canaan that year.
- ¶13. And it came to pass, when Joshua was at Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, a man was standing in front of him, with his drawn sword in his hand. And Joshua went to him and said to him, "Are you for us, or for our adversaries?"
14. But he said, "No. But I, the prince of Jehovah's host, am now come." And Joshua fell down on his face to the ground and did obeisance. And he said to him, "What would my lord say to his servant?"
15. And the prince of Jehovah's host said to Joshua, "Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy!" And Joshua did so.

Joshua 6

- ¶1. Now Jericho was shut up, and it was shut up because of the children of Israel. There was no one going out, and no one was coming in.
2. And Jehovah said to Joshua, "See, I have given Jericho into your hand, and its king, and the mighty men of war.
3. Now, you shall go around the city, all the men of war, circling the city once. Thus shall you do six days.
4. And seven priests shall bear seven shofars of rams' horns before the ark. But on the seventh day, you shall go around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow with the shofars.
5. And it shall come to pass when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, when you hear the sound of the shofar, that all the people will shout a great shout, and the wall of the city will fall down flat, and the people shall go up, each man straight before him."

² That is, "a rolling".

6. And Joshua ben-Nun called the priests, and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and seven priests shall bear seven shofars of rams 'horns before the ark of Jehovah."
 7. And they said to the people, "Go forward, and go around the city! And he who is armed shall pass on before the ark of Jehovah."
 8. And it came to pass, when Joshua had spoken to the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven shofars of rams 'horns passed on before Jehovah, and they blew with the shofars. And the ark of the covenant of Jehovah followed after them.
 9. And the armed men went before the priests who blew the shofars, and the rearguard came after the ark, the priests blowing with the shofars as they went.
 10. And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, "You shall not shout, nor make a sound with your voice, neither shall a word come from your mouth, until the day that I tell you, 'Shout!' Then, you shall shout."
 11. So the ark of Jehovah went around the city, going about it one time, and they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp.
- ¶12. And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of Jehovah.
13. And seven priests bearing seven shofars of rams 'horns before the ark of Jehovah went on, going on and blowing with the shofars, and the armed men went before them, and the rearguard came after the ark of Jehovah, the priests blowing with the shofars as they went.
 14. So, on the second day, they went around the city one time, and they returned to the camp. They did so for six days.
- ¶15. And it came to pass on the seventh day that they rose up early at the break of dawn, and they went around the city in the same manner seven times; on that day only did they go around the city seven times.
16. And it came to pass the seventh time, the priests blowing with the shofars, that Joshua said to the people, "Shout! For Jehovah has given the city to you!"
 17. And the city, and all that is in it, shall be devoted to Jehovah. Only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers whom we sent.
 18. Only, keep yourselves from what is devoted, lest you make yourselves devoted when you take the devoted thing, and you make the camp of Israel devoted, and trouble it!
 19. But all the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and iron, are holy to Jehovah. They shall go into Jehovah's treasury."
 20. Then the people shouted, and they blew with the shofars. And it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the shofar, that the people shouted a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, and the people went up into the city, each man straight before him, and they took the city.

21. And they devoted everything that was in the city, both men and women, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and donkey, with the edge of the sword.
 22. And Joshua said to the two men who spied out the land, “Go to the house of the woman, the harlot, and bring out from there the woman and all who are hers, just as you swore to her!”
 23. And the young men who were the spies went, and they brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brothers, and all who were hers. They brought out all her relatives and put them outside of the camp of Israel.
 24. And they burned up the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only, the silver and the gold, and the vessels of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of Jehovah.
 25. And Joshua saved alive Rahab the harlot, and her father’s house, and all who were hers. And she dwells in the midst of Israel to this day because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.
- ¶26. And Joshua charged them with an oath at that time, saying, “Cursed before Jehovah be the man who raises up and rebuilds this city Jericho. He shall lay its foundation with his firstborn, and with his youngest will he set up its gates.”
- ¶27. And Jehovah was with Joshua, and his fame was throughout the land.

Joshua 7

- ¶1. But the children of Israel committed a trespass concerning the devoted thing, for Achan ben-Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah took something devoted, and Jehovah’s anger was kindled against the children of Israel.
- ¶2. And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth-aven, on the east of Bethel. And he spoke to them, saying, “Go up, and spy out the land!” So, the men went up, and they spied out Ai.
3. And they returned to Joshua, and said to him, “Do not have all the people go up. Let about two thousand or three thousand men go up, and strike Ai. Do not weary all the people there, for they are few.”
4. So, about three thousand of the people went up there. But they fled before the men of Ai.
5. And the men of Ai struck down of them about thirty-six men. And they pursued them from before the gate as far as Shebarim and struck them down in the descent. And the heart of the people melted and became as water.
6. And Joshua tore his garments and fell to the ground on his face before the ark of Jehovah until evening, he and the elders of Israel, and they put dust on their heads.
7. And Joshua said, “Alas, my Lord Jehovah, why have you at all brought this people over the Jordan to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? If only we had been content, and remained on the other side of the Jordan!

8. Oh, my Lord, what shall I say when Israel has turned his back before his enemies?
 9. For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear, and they will surround us and cut off our name from the earth. And what will you do concerning your great name?"
 10. But Jehovah said to Joshua, "Get yourself up! Why are you falling on your face like this?
 11. Israel has sinned, and moreover, they have transgressed my covenant that I commanded them. And they have even taken from what was devoted, and have both stolen and deceived, and have also put it among their stuff.
 12. Therefore, the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies. They turned the back before their enemies because they were devoted. I will not continue to be with you unless you destroy the devoted thing from your midst.
 13. Get up! Sanctify the people! And say, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, for thus says Jehovah, God of Israel: "A devoted thing is in your midst, O Israel. You will not be able to stand before your enemies until you remove the devoted thing from your midst."
 14. Therefore, in the morning, you shall be brought near by your tribes, and it shall be that the tribe which Jehovah takes shall come near by families, and the family which Jehovah takes will come near by their houses. And the house which Jehovah takes shall come near man by man.
 15. And he who is taken with the devoted thing shall be burned up with fire, he and all that is his, because he has transgressed Jehovah's covenant, and because he has done a disgraceful thing in Israel."
- ¶16. So, Joshua rose up early in the morning, and he brought Israel near by their tribes. And the tribe of Judah was taken.
17. Then he brought the family of Judah near, and the family of the Zarhites was taken. And he brought the family of the Zarhites near, man by man, and Zabdi was taken.
 18. And he brought his house near, man by man, and Achan ben-Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.
 19. And Joshua said to Achan, "My son, give, I pray you, glory to Jehovah, the God of Israel, and give Him praise, and tell me now what you did. Do not conceal it from me."
 20. And Achan answered Joshua, and said, "Truly, I have sinned against Jehovah, the God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done.
 21. For I saw among the spoil a goodly cloak from Shinar, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold, fifty shekels in weight, and I wanted them, and took them, and behold, they are hidden in the ground in the midst of my tent, with the silver beneath it."
 22. So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent, and behold, it was hidden in his tent, with the silver beneath it.

23. And they took them from the midst of the tent, and brought them to Joshua, and to all the children of Israel, and laid them out before Jehovah.
24. And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan ben-Zerah, and the silver, and the cloak, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his ox, and his donkey, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that was his, and they brought them up to the Valley of Achor.
25. And Joshua said, "Why have you troubled us? Jehovah will trouble you this day." And all Israel stoned him with stones. And they burned them up with fire when they had stoned them with stones.
26. And they raised a great heap of stones over him that remains to this day. And Jehovah turned from His burning anger. Therefore, the name of that place was called, "Valley of Achor"³, as it is to this day.

Joshua 8

- ¶1. And Jehovah said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed. Take all the people of war with you and get up! Go up to Ai! Behold, I have delivered into your hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land.
2. And you shall do to Ai and its king just as you did to Jericho and its king. Only, its spoil and its livestock, you may take as plunder for yourselves. Lay yourself an ambush against the city behind it."
3. So Joshua arose, with all the people of war, to go up to Ai. And Joshua chose thirty thousand men, mighty men of war. And he sent some of them away at night.
4. And he commanded them, saying, "Behold, you shall lie in ambush against the city, behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, and all of you be ready.
5. And I, and all the people who are with me, will approach the city. And it shall be that when they come out to meet us as before, we will flee before them.
6. And they will come out after us, until we have drawn them away from the city, for they will say, 'They are fleeing before us as before.' So we will flee before them.
7. Then you shall arise from the ambush and take possession of the city, for Jehovah your God will deliver it into your hand.
8. And it shall be that when you have taken the city, you shall set the city on fire. You shall do according to Jehovah's commandment. Behold, I have commanded you."
9. So Joshua sent them away, and they went to the ambush, and they stayed between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai, but Joshua himself spent the night among the people.
- ¶10. And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and he mustered the people, and he went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.

³ Or, "Valley of Trouble".

11. And all the people of war who were with him went up, and they drew near and came before the city, and they camped to the north of Ai. And the valley was between him and Ai.
 12. But he had taken about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city.
 13. And they stationed the people, all the camp that was to the north of the city, and those in wait to the west of the city. And during the night, Joshua himself went into the midst of the valley.
 14. And it came to pass, when the king of Ai saw it, that the men of the city hurried and rose up early, he and all his people, and they went out to meet Israel for battle at the chosen place before the plain, but he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.
 15. And Joshua and all Israel feigned defeat before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.
 16. And all the people who were in the city were called to pursue after them, and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city.
 17. And not a man remained in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel, and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.
- ¶18. Then Jehovah said to Joshua, “Stretch out with the spear that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will deliver it into your hand.” And Joshua stretched out with the spear that was in his hand toward the city.
19. And the ambush arose quickly from its place, and they ran when he stretched out his hand, and they entered the city and took it, and they hurried and set the city on fire.
 20. And the men of Ai turned and looked behind them, and behold, the smoke of the city was going up to heaven. And there was nowhere for them to flee, this way or that, for the people who were fleeing to the wilderness had turned themselves back against the pursuers.
 21. For Joshua and all Israel had seen that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city was going up. So, they turned back and struck down the men of Ai.
 22. And the others came out from the city against them, and they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side and some on that side, and they struck them down until there was not one of them left who survived or escaped.
 23. And they took the king of Ai alive, and they brought him to Joshua.
- ¶24. And it came to pass that when Israel finished killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness in which they pursued them, and when the last of them had fallen by the edge of the sword, all Israel returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword.
25. And so it was that all who fell that day, both men and women, were twelve thousand, all the people of Ai.

26. For Joshua did not withdraw his hand with which he stretched out the spear until all the inhabitants of Ai had been devoted.
 27. Only, Israel took the livestock and the spoil of that city as plunder for themselves, according to the word of Jehovah which He had commanded Joshua.
 28. And Joshua burned up Ai and made it a heap forever, a desolation to this day.
 29. And he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening, and when the sun was going down, Joshua gave command, and they took his corpse down from the tree and threw it down at the entrance of the gate of the city. And they raised a great heap of stones over him, as it is to this day.
- ¶30. Then Joshua built an altar to Jehovah, the God of Israel, on Mount Ebal
31. (just as Moses, the slave of Jehovah, had commanded the children of Israel, as it was written in the book of the law of Moses), an altar of uncut stones upon which no iron tool had been wielded. And they offered burnt offerings on it to Jehovah, and sacrificed peace offerings.
 32. And there he wrote on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written in the presence of the children of Israel.
 33. And all Israel, with their elders and officers, and their judges, stood on this side and on that side of the ark before the priests, the Levites, bearers of the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, both stranger and native born, half of them toward Mount Gerizim, and half of them toward Mount Ebal, just as Moses, the slave of Jehovah, had commanded before, to bless the people of Israel.
 34. And afterward, he read all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that was written in the book of the law.
 35. There was not a word of all that Moses commanded which Joshua did not read before all the Assembly of Israel, even the women, and the little ones, and the stranger who was living in their midst.

Joshua 9

- ¶1. And it came to pass, when all the kings who were beyond the Jordan in the hill country, and in the Shephelah, and in all the coast of the Great Sea toward Lebanon, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard of it,
 2. they gathered themselves together in one accord to fight against Joshua and Israel.
- ¶3. Now, the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai,
4. and so they acted with cunning and went, and they made themselves out to be ambassadors. And they took old sacks on their donkeys, and old wineskins that had burst and been mended.
 5. And they put old and patched sandals on their feet and old garments on themselves, and all the bread of their provision was dry and crumbly.
 6. And they went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal, and they said to him and the men of Israel, "We have come from a distant land. So then, make a covenant with us now."

7. But the men of Israel said to the Hivites, “It may be that you dwell near us. How then could we make a covenant with you?”
 8. Then they said to Joshua, “We are your servants.” But Joshua said to them, “Who are you? And where did you come from?”
 9. And they said to him, “Your servants came from a very distant land because of the name of Jehovah your God, for we heard the report about Him, and all that He did in Egypt,
 10. and all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon, king of Heshbon, and to Og, king of Bashan, who was in Ashtaroth.
 11. Then our elders spoke to us, and to all the inhabitants of our land, saying, ‘Take provision with you for the journey, and go to meet them! And say to them, “We are your servants. Therefore, make a covenant with us now.”’
 12. This is our bread. It was hot when we took it for our provision from our houses on the day we set out to come to you, but now, behold, it is dry and crumbly.
 13. And these wineskins which we filled were new, and behold, they burst, and these, our garments and our sandals, are worn out because of the very long journey.”
 14. Then the men fetched some of their provision. And they did not ask counsel of Jehovah.
 15. And so, Joshua made peace with them and made a covenant with them to let them live, and the princes of the congregation swore an oath to them.
- ¶16. But it came to pass at the end of three days after they made a covenant with them that they heard that they were their neighbors and dwelt nearby them.
17. And the children of Israel journeyed and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjath-jearim.
 18. But the children of Israel did not strike them down because the princes of the congregation had sworn to them by Jehovah, the God of Israel. And all the congregation were murmuring against the princes.
 19. But all the princes said to the whole congregation, “We have sworn to them by Jehovah, the God of Israel. Therefore, we cannot touch them now.
 20. We will do this to them and yet let them live, lest there be wrath upon us on account of the oath that we swore to them.”
 21. Thus the princes said to them. They were left alive, but they became woodcutters and drawers of water for the whole congregation, according to what the princes said to them.
- ¶22. And Joshua summoned them, and he spoke to them, saying, “Why did you deceive us, saying, ‘We are very far from you’, when you dwell near us?
23. Therefore, you are now cursed, and you will not cease from being servants, woodcutters and drawers of water for the house of my God.”
 24. And they answered Joshua and said, “Because it was certainly told to your servants that Jehovah your God commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land, and to exterminate all the inhabitants of the land before you. Therefore, we greatly feared for our lives because of you, and we did this thing.

25. So, behold, we are now in your hand. According to what is good and right in your sight to do, do to us."
26. And he did so to them, and delivered them from the hand of the children of Israel, and they did not kill them.
27. And that day, Joshua made them woodcutters and drawers of water for the congregation, and for Jehovah's altar, as it is to this day, in the place which He would choose.

Joshua 10

- ¶1. And it came to pass that Adonizedek, the king of Jerusalem, heard that Joshua had taken Ai and devoted it (as he had done to Jericho and its king, so had he done to Ai and its king) and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them.
2. And they were very afraid, for Gibeon was a great city, being one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty.
3. So, Adonizedek, king of Jerusalem, sent to Hoham, king of Hebron, and to Piram, king of Jarmuth, and to Japhia, king of Lachish, and to Debir, king of Eglon, saying,
4. "Come up to me and help me! And let us strike Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel."
5. And the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered and went up, they and all their forces, and they encamped before Gibeon, and made war against it.
6. Then the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua, to the camp at Gilgal, saying, "Do not stay your hand from your servants. Come to us quickly, and deliver us, and help us! For all the kings of the Amorites who dwell in the hill country have gathered together against us."
7. And Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, including all the mighty men of valor.
8. And Jehovah said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, for I have given them into your hand. Not one man of them shall stand before you."
9. And Joshua came upon them suddenly, for he had gone up from Gilgal all night.
10. And Jehovah discomfited them before Israel, and he struck them down with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and he pursued them on the way that goes up to Beth-horon, and struck them down as far as Azekah and Makkedah.
11. And it came to pass as they fled before Israel at the descent of Beth-horon that Jehovah cast great stones from heaven down on them as far as Azekah, and many more died who died by the hailstones than those whom the children of Israel killed with the sword.

12. And Joshua spoke to Jehovah in the day when Jehovah delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, “O sun, stand still at Gibeon! And you, O moon, in the valley of Ajalon!”
 13. And the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, until the people had taken vengeance on their enemies. (Is this not written in the book of Jasher?) And the sun stood in the midst of the sky, and it did not hasten to go down for about a whole day.
 14. And there was no day like that before it, or since, when Jehovah gave heed to the voice of a man. For Jehovah was fighting for Israel.
 15. And Joshua turned back, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.
- ¶16. Now, these five kings had fled and hidden themselves in the cave at Makkedah,
17. and it had been reported to Joshua, “The five kings have been found, hidden in the cave at Makkedah.”
 18. And Joshua had said, “Roll great stones against the mouth of the cave and post men by it to keep them,
 19. but do not stay there yourselves. Pursue after your enemies and strike them at their rear. Do not let them enter into their cities, for Jehovah your God has delivered them up into your hand.”
 20. And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had finished striking them down with a very great slaughter until they were destroyed, though a remnant of them escaped and entered the fortified cities,
 21. that all the people returned in peace to the camp, to Joshua at Makkedah. Not a man moved his tongue against the children of Israel.
 22. Then Joshua said, “Open the mouth of the cave, and bring those five kings out from the cave to me.”
 23. And they did so, and brought those five kings out from the cave to him: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon.
 24. And it came to pass, when they brought those kings to Joshua, that Joshua summoned all the men of Israel, and said to the commanders of the men of war who had gone with him, “Come near! Put your feet on the necks of these kings!” And they came near and put their feet on their necks.
 25. And Joshua said to them, “Do not be afraid nor dismayed! Be strong and courageous! For Jehovah shall do likewise to all your enemies against whom you fight.”
 26. And after that, Joshua struck them down, and killed them, and hanged them on five trees. And they remained hanging on the trees until the evening.
 27. And it came to pass, as the sun went down, that Joshua gave command, and they took them down off the trees, and threw them into the cave in which they had hidden themselves, and they put great stones over the mouth of the cave, as it is to this very day.

- ¶28. And Joshua took Makkedah that day and struck it with the edge of the sword. And he devoted its king and every soul that was in it. He left no survivor, and he did to the king of Makkedah just as he had done to the king of Jericho.
29. Then Joshua, and all Israel with him, passed on from Makkedah to Libnah, and they fought against Libnah.
30. And Jehovah also delivered it and its king into the hand of Israel. And he struck it with the edge of the sword, and every soul that was in it. He left no survivor in it, and he did to its king just as he had done to the king of Jericho.
31. And Joshua, and all Israel with him, passed on from Libnah to Lachish, and he encamped against it and fought against it.
32. And Jehovah delivered up Lachish into the hand of Israel, and he took it on the second day. And he struck it with the edge of the sword, and every soul that was in it, according to all that he had done to Libnah.
33. And Horam, king of Gezer, had come up to help Lachish, but Joshua struck him and his people down until he left him no survivor.
34. And Joshua, and all Israel with him, passed on from Lachish to Eglon, and they encamped against it and fought against it.
35. And they took it that day and struck it with the edge of the sword, and he devoted that day every soul that was in it, according to all that he had done to Lachish.
36. And Joshua went up, and all Israel with him, from Eglon to Hebron, and they fought against it.
37. And they took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and its king, and all its towns, and every soul that was in it. He left no survivor, according to all that he had done to Eglon, and he devoted it and every soul that was in it.
38. Then Joshua, and all Israel with him, turned back to Debir, and he fought against it.
39. And he took it, and its king, and all its towns, and he struck them with the edge of the sword, and they devoted every soul that was in it. He left no survivor. Just as he did to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to its king, and as he had done to Libnah, and to its king.
40. So Joshua struck all the hill country, and the Negev, and the Shephelah, and the slopes, and all their kings. He left no survivor, but devoted all who breathed, just as Jehovah, the God of Israel, had commanded.
41. And Joshua struck them down from Kadesh-barnea as far as Gaza, and all the territory of Goshen, and as far as Gibeon.
42. And all these kings and their land Joshua took at one time, for Jehovah, the God of Israel, fought for Israel.
43. And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua 11

- ¶1. And it came to pass, when Jabin, king of Hazor, heard of this, that he sent to Jobab, king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph,

2. and to the kings who were from the north, in the mountain, and in the plain south of Chinneroth, and in the Shephelah, and in the heights of Dor on the west,
 3. and to the Canaanites on the east and on the west, and the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites in the hill country, and to the Hivites below Hermon in the land of Mizpah.
 4. And they came forth, and all their armies with them, many people, like the sand which is on the seashore in number, with very many horses and chariots.
 5. And all these kings assembled, and they went and encamped together at the waters of Merom to fight against Israel.
- ¶6. And Jehovah said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid of them, for tomorrow, about this time, I will deliver up all of them slain before Israel. You shall hamstring their horses and burn up their chariots with fire.”
7. So, Joshua, and with him all the people of war, went out against them suddenly at the waters of Merom, and they fell upon them.
 8. And Jehovah delivered them up into the hand of Israel, and they struck them down and pursued them as far as Great Sidon, and as far as Misrephoth-maim, and as far as the valley of Mizpeh to the east. And they struck them down until he had left them no survivor.
 9. And Joshua did to them just as Jehovah had said to him. He hamstrung their horses and burned up their chariots with fire.
 10. And Joshua turned back at that time and took Hazor, and he struck down its king with the sword, for Hazor was formerly the chief of all these kingdoms.
 11. And they struck down every soul that was in it with the edge of the sword, devoting them. He left not one who breathed, and he burned up Hazor with fire.
 12. And all the cities of these kings, and all their kings, Joshua took, and he struck them down with the edge of the sword, devoting them, just as Moses, the slave of Jehovah, had commanded.
 13. Only, of all the cities standing on their mounds, Israel burned up none of them except Hazor. It only did Joshua burn up.
 14. But all the spoil of these cities, and the livestock, the children of Israel took as plunder for themselves. Nevertheless, they struck down every person with the edge of the sword until they were exterminated. They left none of all who breathed.
 15. Just as Jehovah commanded Moses His servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did. He left off nothing of all that Jehovah had commanded Moses.
- ¶16. So, Joshua seized all this land, the hill country, and all the Negev, and all the territory of Goshen, and the Shephelah, and the Arabah, even the hill country of Israel and its lowland,
17. from Mount Halak going up to Seir, as far as Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. And he took all their kings, and he struck them down and killed them.

18. A long time did Joshua wage war with all these kings.
19. There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel except the Hivites who dwelt in Gibeon. They took them all in battle.
20. For it was Jehovah's doing to harden their heart to confront Israel in battle, so that they would be devoted, for there was to be no mercy for them, so that they would be exterminated, just as Jehovah commanded Moses.
- ¶21. And at that time, Joshua went out, and he cut off the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel. Joshua devoted them with their cities.
22. None of the Anakim were left in the land of the children of Israel. Only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod did they remain.
23. So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that Jehovah had spoken to Moses. And Joshua gave it to Israel for an inheritance, according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land had rest from war.

Joshua 12

- ¶1. Now these are the kings of the land whom the children of Israel struck down and took possession of their land on the side of the Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the Arnon River as far as Mount Hermon, and all the Arabah on the east side:
2. Sihon, king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon. He ruled from Aroer, on the bank of the Arnon River, even from the midst of the river, and half of Gilead, even to the Jabbok River, the border of the children of Ammon;
3. and the Arabah to the east side of the Chinneroth Sea, and to the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, on the east side by the way to Beth-jeshimoth, and from the south below the slopes of Pisgah;
4. and the territory of Og, king of Bashan, of the remnant of the Rephaim, who dwelt in Ashtaroth and in Edrei.
5. And he ruled over Mount Hermon, and Salcah, and all Bashan, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and the half of Gilead which was the border of Sihon, king of Heshbon.
6. Moses, the slave of Jehovah, and the children of Israel, struck them down, and Moses, the slave of Jehovah, gave it as a possession to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh.
- ¶7. And these are the kings of the land whom Joshua, with the children of Israel, struck down on the westward side of the Jordan, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon, and as far as Mount Halak that goes up toward Seir, and Joshua gave it to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their divisions,
8. kings of the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites in the hill country, and in the Shephelah, and in the Arabah, and in the slopes, and in the wilderness, and in the Negev:

9. the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one;
10. the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;
11. the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one;
12. the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;
13. the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;
14. the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;
15. the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;
16. the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one;
17. the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hepher, one;
18. the king of Aphek, one; the king of the Sharon, one;
19. the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one;
20. the king of Shimron-meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one;
21. the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one;
22. the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam, one;
23. the king of Dor in the heights of Dor, one; the king of Goiim by Gilgal, one;
24. the king of Tirzah, one. All the kings were thirty-one.

Joshua 13

- ¶1. Now Joshua was old, advanced in days, and Jehovah said to him, “You are old, advanced in days, and very much of the land remains to be possessed.
2. This is the territory which remains: all the regions of the Philistines, and all those of the Geshurites,
 3. from Shihor,⁴ which is before Egypt, to the border of Ekron on the north, which is counted as Canaanite: five Philistine lords of the Gazaites, and the Ashdodites, and the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites, as well as the Avites:
 4. from the south, all Canaanite territory. And Mearah which belongs to the Sidonians, as far as Aphek at the border of the Amorites.
 5. And the territory of the Giblites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Baal-gad below Mount Hermon to the Entrance of Hamath.
 6. All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, all the Sidonians will I dispossess before the children of Israel. Only, you shall assign it by lot to Israel as an inheritance, just as I have commanded you!
 7. So, divide this land now as an inheritance for the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Manasseh.”
- ¶8. With them, the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance which Moses gave them on the east side of the Jordan, as Moses, the slave of Jehovah, gave them,
9. from Aroer, which is on the bank of the Arnon River, even the city which is in the midst of the valley, and all the tableland, Medeba as far as Dibon,

⁴ That is, “the brook of Egypt”.

10. and all the cities of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, to the border of the children of Ammon,
11. and Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan as far as Salcah,
12. all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (one left of the remnant of the Rephaim). For Moses struck them down and dispossessed them.
13. But the children of Israel did not dispossess the Geshurites or the Maachathites, but Geshur and Maachath dwell in the midst of Israel to this day.
14. Only, to the tribe of Levi he did not give an inheritance. The sacrifices made by fire to Jehovah, the God of Israel, that is his inheritance, just as He said to him.

¶15. And Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of the children of Reuben for their families.

16. And their territory was from Aroer, which is on the bank of the Arnon River, even the city which is in the midst of the valley, and all the tableland to Medeba,
17. Heshbon and all its towns which were in the tableland, Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon,
18. and Jahazah, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath,
19. and Kiriathaim, and Sibmah, and Zereth-shahar, in the mountain valley,
20. and Beth-peor, and the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth,
21. even all the cities of the tableland, and all the kingdom of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck down (as well as the rulers of Midian: Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, princely men of Sihon who dwelt in the land,
22. and among their slain, the children of Israel had killed with the sword Balaam ben-Benor the diviner).
23. And the border of the children of Reuben was the Jordan, and this territory was the inheritance of the children of Reuben for their families, the cities and their villages.

¶24. And Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of Gad, to the children of Gad for their families.

25. And their territory was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon as far as Aroer which is before Rabbah,
26. and from Heshbon to Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir,
27. and in the valley, Beth-haram, and Beth-nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon, king of Heshbon, the Jordan, and its territory to the edge of the Sea of Chinnereth, on the eastern side of Jordan.
28. This is the inheritance of the children of Gad for their families, the cities and their villages.

¶29. And Moses gave an inheritance to the half tribe of Manasseh, and it was for the half tribe of the children of Manasseh, for their families.

30. And their territory was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og, king of Bashan, and all Havvoth-Jair, which is in Bashan, sixty cities,
 31. and half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, for the children of Machir ben-Manasseh, for half of the children of Machir, for their families.
- ¶32. These are they whom Moses caused to inherit at the plains of Moab, on the eastward side of the Jordan, at Jericho.
33. But to the tribe of Levi, Moses gave no inheritance; Jehovah, the God of Israel, He is their inheritance, just as He said to them.

Joshua 14

- ¶1. And these are the territories that the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua ben-Nun, and the chiefs of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel gave to them as an inheritance.
 2. By lot was their inheritance divided, just as Jehovah had commanded by the hand of Moses, to the nine and a half tribes.
 3. For Moses had given the inheritance of the two and a half tribes on the other side of the Jordan, but to the Levites, he gave no inheritance among them.
 4. For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim, but they gave no portion to the Levites in the land except cities to dwell in, with their open fields for their livestock and their property.
 5. As Jehovah commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.
- ¶6. And the children of Judah approached Joshua at Gilgal, and Caleb ben-Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, “You know the thing that Jehovah said to Moses, the man of God, at Kadesh-barnea concerning me and you.
7. Forty years old was I when Moses, the slave of Jehovah, sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land, and I brought word back to him just as was in my heart.
 8. And my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt, but I fully followed after Jehovah my God.
 9. And Moses swore on that day, saying, ‘May God damn me, if the land which your foot trod upon is not an inheritance for you and for your children forever because you have fully followed after Jehovah my God.’
 10. And behold, Jehovah has kept me alive till now, just as He said. It is forty-five years since Jehovah spoke this thing to Moses while Israel walked in the wilderness, and now, behold, today I am eighty-five years old.
 11. Yet I am just as strong today as on the day Moses sent me. As my strength was then, even so is my strength now for battle, and for going out and for coming in.
 12. Therefore, give me now this mountain of which Jehovah spoke on that day. For you heard on that day that the Anakim were there, and great fortified cities. If Jehovah is with me, then I will dispossess them, just as Jehovah said.”

13. And Joshua blessed him, and he gave Hebron to Caleb ben-Jephunneh for an inheritance.
14. Therefore, Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb ben-Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day because he fully followed Jehovah, the God of Israel.
15. And the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-Arba, who was the greatest man among the Anakim. And the land had rest from war.

Joshua 15

- ¶1. And the lot for the tribe of the children of Judah, for their families, was to the border of Edom; southward, the wilderness of Zin was the southernmost part.
2. And their south border was from the end of the Salt Sea, from the bay that faces southward.
3. And it went out from the south to the Ascent of Akrabbim, and passed through Zin, and went up from the south to Kadesh-barnea, and passed to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and went round to Karka.
4. Then it passed on to Azmon and went out to the Brook of Egypt and the goings out of the border were toward the sea. This is your southern border.
5. And the east border was the Salt Sea to the end of the Jordan. And the border on the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the end of the Jordan.
6. And the border went up to Beth-hoglah and passed on north to Beth-arabah. And the border went up to the stone of Bohan ben-Reuben.
7. And the border went up to Debir from the Valley of Achor, then northward, turning toward Gilgal, which is opposite the Ascent of Adummim, which is on the south of the wadi. Then the border passed on to the waters of En-shemesh, and its goings out was towards En-rogel.
8. And the border went up the Valley of the Son of Hinnom to the side of the Jebusite on the south (that is, Jerusalem), and the border went on up to the top of the mountain that is before the Valley of Hinnom on the west, which at the end of the Valley of Rephaim to the north.
9. And the border was drawn from the top of the mountain to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of Mount Ephron, and then the border was drawn to Baalah, which is Kirjath-jearim.
10. And the border went around from Baalah westward to Mount Seir, and passed on to the side of Mount Jearim on the north, which is Chesalon, and went down to Beth-shemesh, and passed on to Timnah.
11. And the border went out to the side of Ekron northward, and then the border was drawn toward Shikkeron and passed on to Mount Baalah, and went out to Jabneel, and the goings out of the border was toward the sea.
12. And the western border was the Great Sea and its coast. This was the border around the children of Judah for their families.

- ¶13. And to Caleb ben-Jephunneh, he gave a portion in the midst of the children of Judah according to the word of Jehovah to Joshua: the city of Arba, the father of Anak (which is Hebron).
14. And Caleb dispossessed from there the three sons of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak.
15. And from there, he went up against the inhabitants of Debir. (The former name of Debir was Kirjath-Sepher.)
16. And Caleb said, "Whoever strikes Kirjath-Sepher and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter as a wife."
17. And Othniel, the son of Caleb's brother, Kenaz, took it. So, he gave him Achsah his daughter for a wife.
18. And it came to pass that when she came, she urged him to ask her father for a field. And she dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, "What do you want?"
19. And she said, "Give me a blessing, for you gave me territory in the south. Give me pools of water, too." And he gave her the upper pools and the lower pools.
20. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah for their families.
- ¶21. And the cities in the southern end of the tribe of the children of Judah toward the border with Edom: Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur,
22. and Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah,
23. and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan,
24. Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth,
25. and Hazor-hadattah, and Kerioth, Hezron (which is Hazor),
26. Amam, and Shema, and Moladah,
27. and Hazar-gadah, and Heshmon, and Beth-palet,
28. and Hazar-shual, and Beersheba, and Bizjothjah,
29. Baalah, and Ijim, and Azem,
30. and Eltolad, and Chesil, and Hormah,
31. and Ziklag, and Madmannah, and Sansannah,
32. and Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and Ain, and Rimmon. All the cities are twenty-nine, and their villages.
- ¶33. In the Shephelah: Eshtaol, and Zorah, and Ashnah,
34. and Zanoah, and En-gannim, Tappuah and the twin springs,
35. Jarmuth, and Adullam, Socoh, and Azekah,
36. and Shaaraim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim (fourteen cities with their villages),
37. Zenan, and Hadashah, and Migdal-gad,
38. and Dilean, and Mizpeh, and Joktheel,
39. Lachish, and Bozkath, and Eglon,
40. and Cabbon, and Lachmas, and Kithlish,

- 41. and Gederoth, Beth-Dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah (sixteen cities with their villages),
- 42. Libnah, and Ether, and Ashan,
- 43. and Jiphtah, and Ashnah, and Nezib,
- 44. and Keilah, and Achzib, and Mareshah (nine cities with their villages).
- 45. Ekron, with its towns and its villages,
- 46. from Ekron toward the sea, all that was near Ashdod with its villages;
- 47. Ashdod, its towns and its villages; Gaza, its towns and its villages as far as the Brook of Egypt, and the Great Sea and the coastline.

- ¶48. And in the hill country: Shamir, and Jattir, and Socoh,
- 49. and Dannah, and Kirjath-sannah (which is Debir),
- 50. and Anab, and Eshtemoh, and Anim,
- 51. and Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh (eleven cities with their villages),
- 52. Arav, and Rumah, and Eshean,
- 53. and Janim, and Beth-tappuah, and Aphekah,
- 54. and Humtah, and Kirjath-arba (which is Hebron), and Zior (nine cities with their villages),
- 55. Maon, Carmel, and Ziph, and Juttah,
- 56. and Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah,
- 57. Cain, Gibeah, and Timnah (ten cities with their villages),
- 58. Halhul, Beth-Zur, and Gedor,
- 59. and Maarath, and Beth-anoth, and Eltekon (six cities with their villages),
- 60. Kirjath-baal (which is Kirjath-jearim), and Rabbah (two cities and their villages).

- ¶61. In the wilderness: Beth-arabah, Middin, and Secacah,
- 62. and Nibshan, and the City of Salt, and En-gedi (six cities with their villages).

- ¶63. And as for the Jebusites, inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah were not able to dispossess them, but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

Joshua 16

- ¶1. And the lot for the children of Joseph went out from the Jordan at Jericho, at the waters of Jericho on the east, the wilderness going up from Jericho to the mountain of Bethel.
- 2. And it went out from Bethel toward Luz and passed on to the border of the Archites at Ataroth.
- 3. Then it went down westward to the border of the Japhletites, as far as the border of Lower Beth-horon, then as far as Gezer, and its goings out were toward the sea.
- 4. And the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.
- 5. And this was the border of the children of Ephraim, according to their families. And the border of their inheritance eastward was from Ataroth-addar as far as Upper Beth-horon,

6. and the border went out westward to Michmethath on the north, and the border went about eastward to Taanath-shiloh, and it passed by it on the east of Janohah.
7. And it went down from Janohah to Ataroth, then to Naarath, and reached Jericho, and it went out at the Jordan.
8. The border went from Tappuah westward to the brook Kanah, and its goings out were toward the sea. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim, for their families.
9. And the cities set apart for the children of Ephraim were in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.
10. Yet, they did not dispossess the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer, but the Canaanites dwell in the midst of Ephraim to this day, and they serve as forced labor.

Joshua 17

- ¶1. There was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph. To Machir, the first-born of Manasseh, father of Gilead, belonged Gilead and Bashan because he was a man of war.
2. But for the rest of the children of Manasseh the lot was given for their families: for the children of Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida. These were the sons of Manasseh ben-Joseph, the males according to their families.
 3. But Zelophehad ben-Hepher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters only. And these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
 4. And they came near before Eleazar the priest and Joshua ben-Nun, and before the princes, saying, "Jehovah commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our kinsmen." So, he gave them an inheritance in the midst of their father's kinsmen, according to the word of Jehovah.
 5. And ten portions fell to Manasseh, besides those in the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side of the Jordan.
 6. For the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons, and the land of Gilead belonged to the rest of Manasseh's sons.
- ¶7. And the border of Manasseh was from Asher to the Michmethath which faces Shechem, and the border went on to the south to those who dwelt at the spring of Tappuah.
8. The region of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim.
 9. And the border went down to the brook Kanah. Southward to the brook, these cities belonged to Ephraim, but were in the midst of the cities of Manasseh. And the border of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook, and its goings out were toward the sea.

10. Southward belonged to Ephraim, and northward belonged to Manasseh, and the sea was its border. And the borders reached Asher in the north and Issachar in the east.
 11. And in Issachar and in Asher, Manasseh had Beth-shean and its towns, and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Endor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns. Three areas⁵ contained cities of Manasseh,
 12. but the children of Manasseh were not able to take possession of these cities, for the Canaanites were determined to dwell in that land.
 13. Yet it came to pass that when the children of Israel were strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but they did not dispossess them at all.
- ¶14. And the children of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, “Why did you give me one lot and one portion as an inheritance, for I am a great people whom Jehovah has blessed up until now?”
15. And Joshua said to them, “If you are a great people, get you up to the forest and clear yourself a place there in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim if the hill country of Ephraim is insufficient for you!”
 16. And the children of Joseph said, “The hill country is not enough for us, and all the Canaanites who dwell in the lowland, those in Beth-shean and its towns, and in the valley of Jezreel, have chariots of iron.”
 17. Then Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, “You are a great people and have great strength. There is not one lot for you,
 18. but the hill country is yours, though it be a forest, and you shall clear it! And its outgoings shall be yours, for you shall dispossess the Canaanites though they have chariots of iron and they be strong.”

Joshua 18

- ¶1. And the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled themselves at Shiloh, and they set up the tent of meeting there. And the land was subdued before them.
2. But there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes who had not divided their inheritance.
3. And Joshua said to the children of Israel, “How long will you be slack? Go! Take possession of the land which Jehovah, the God of your fathers, has given to you!
4. Provide for yourselves three men from each tribe, and I will send them, that they may rise and walk about in the land, and let them make a record of it according to their inheritance, and then come to me.
5. And they shall divide it into seven portions; Judah shall stay in his territory to the south, and the house of Joseph shall stay in their territory to the north.

⁵ Hebrew uncertain.

6. And you shall make a record of the land in seven portions and bring it to me here, and I will cast the lot for you here before Jehovah our God.
 7. But there is no portion for the Levites among you because the priesthood of Jehovah is their inheritance, and Gad, and Reuben, and the half tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance on the other side of the Jordan, eastward, which Moses, the slave of Jehovah, gave them."
 8. And the men arose and left, and Joshua commanded those who went to make a record of the land, saying, "Go and walk about in the land and make a record of it, and return to me, and here at Shiloh, I will cast a lot for each of you before Jehovah."
 9. And the men left and passed through the land, and they made a record of it in a book, according to the cities, in seven portions, and they came to Joshua to the camp at Shiloh.
 10. And Joshua cast a lot for each of them at Shiloh before Jehovah. And there, Joshua divided the land to the children of Israel according to their portions.
- ¶11. And the lot for the tribe of the children of Benjamin, for their families, came up, and the border of their lot went out between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.
12. And their border on the north side was from the Jordan, and the border went up by the side of Jericho on the north, and on up westward to the hill country, and its goings out were at the wilderness of Beth-aven.
 13. And the border passed on from there toward Luz to the south side of Luz (that is, Bethel), and the border went down to Ataroth-addar, on the hill that is on the south of Lower Beth-horon.
 14. And the border on the west side curved and turned southward from the mountain that is before Beth-horon to the south, and its goings out were at Kirjath-Baal (that is, Kirjath-jearim), a city of the children of Judah. This was the western side.
 15. And the south side was from the outskirts of Kirjath-jearim, and the border went out toward the sea. And it went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah,
 16. and then the border went down to the base of the mountain that is before the Valley of the Son of Hinnom which is in the Valley of the Rephaim northward, and it went down to the Valley of Hinnom, to the south side of the Jebusites, and went down to En-rogel.
 17. And it curved northward, and went out to En-shemesh, and went out to Geliloth, which lies opposite the Ascent of Adummim, and went down to the stone of Bohan ben-Reuben.
 18. And it passed on to the slope before the Arabah to the north, and it went on down to the Arabah.
 19. And the border passed on to the northern side of Beth-hoglah, and the outgoings of the border were at the northern bay of the Salt Sea, at the southern end of the Jordan. This was the southern border.

20. And the Jordan was its border on the eastern side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, for their families, according to its boundaries round about.
- ¶21. And the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin for their families were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and Emek-keziz,
22. and Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Bethel,
23. and Avim, and Parah, and Ophrah,
24. and Chephar-Ammon, and Ophni, and Gaba. Twelve cities with their villages.
25. Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth,
26. and Mizpeh, and Cepherah, and Mozah,
27. and Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah,
28. and Zela, Aleph, and Jebusi (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeath, Kirjath. Fourteen cities with their villages. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, for their families.

Joshua 19

- ¶1. And the second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of the children of Simeon, for their families. And their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Judah.
2. And within their inheritance, they had Beersheba (or Sheba), and Moladah,
3. and Hazar-Shual, and Balah, and Azem,
4. and Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah,
5. and Ziklag, and Beth-Marcaboth, and Hazar-s\Susah,
6. and Beth-Lebaoth, and Sharuhem. Thirteen cities with their villages.
7. Ain, Rimmon, and Ether, and Ashan. Four cities with their villages,
8. and all the villages that were round about these cities as far as Baalah-beer, a high place in the south. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon for their families.
9. The inheritance of the children of Simeon was taken from the territory of the children of Judah because the portion of the children of Judah was too large for them; therefore, the children of Simeon inherited within their inheritance.
- ¶10. And the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun, for their families. And the border of their inheritance went as far as Sarid.
11. And their border went up toward the west and Maralah, and touched Dabbasheth, and reached to the brook that is before Jokneam.
12. Then it turned eastward from Sarid toward the sunrise to the border of Chisloth-tabor, and then it went out to Daberath and on up to Japhia.
13. And from there it passed on eastward toward the sunrise to Gath-hepher, to Ith-kazin, and went out to Rimmon-methoar-neah.
14. And the border went around it on the north side of Hannathon, and its goings out were in the valley of Iphtah-el,

15. even Kattath, and Nahalal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Bethlehem. Twelve cities with their villages.
16. This was the inheritance of the children of Zebulun for their families, these cities with their villages.

- ¶17. And the fourth lot came up for Issachar, for the children of Issachar, for their families.
18. And their border was toward Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and Shunem,
 19. and Haphraim, and Shion, and Anaharath,
 20. and Rabbith, and Kishyon, and Abez,
 21. and Remeth, and En-gannim, and En-haddah, and Beth-pazzez.
 22. And the border reached to Tabor, and Shahazumah, and Beth-shemesh, and the goings out of their border were at the Jordan. Sixteen cities with their villages.
 23. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar for their families, the cities with their villages.

- ¶24. And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher, for their families.
25. And their border was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph,
 26. and Alammelech, and Amad, and Mishal, and it reached westward to Carmel and to Shihor-libnath.
 27. And it turned toward the sunrise to Beth-Dagon, and reached to Zebulun, and to the valley of Iphtah-el, northward to Beth-Emek and Neiel, and it went out to Cabul on the north,
 28. and Hebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, as far as Sidon the Great.
 29. And the border turned toward Ramah, and as far as the fortified city of Tyre, and then the border turned to Hosah, and its goings out were toward the sea at the region of Achzib,
 30. and Umah, and Aphek, and Rehob. Twenty-two cities with their villages.
 31. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher for their families, these cities with their villages.

- ¶32. For the children of Naphtali. The sixth lot came up for the children of Naphtali for their families.
33. And their border was from Heleph, from Allon to Zaanannim, and Adami-nekev, and Jabneel as far as Lakum, and its goings out were at the Jordan.
 34. And the border turned westward to Aznoth-tabor, and went out from there toward Hukkok, and touched Zebulun on the south side, and touched Asher on the west side, and Judah at the Jordan toward the sunrise.
 35. And the fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth,
 36. and Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor,
 37. and Kedesh, and Edrei, En-Hazor,
 38. and Yiron, and Migdal-el, Horem, and Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh. Nineteen cities with their villages.

39. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali for their families, the cities with their villages.

¶40. For the tribe of the children of Dan. For their families, the seventh lot came up.

41. And the border of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh,

42. and Shaalabbin, and Aijalon, and Jethlah,

43. and Elon, and Thimnathah, and Ekron,

44. and Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath,

45. and Jehud, and Bene-barak, and Gath-rimmon,

46. and the waters of Yarkon, and Rakkon, with the territory before Japho.

47. And the territory of the children of Dan came out too little for them, so the children of Dan went up and fought with Leshem and took it, and they struck it with the edge of the sword and possessed it. Then they dwelt in it and renamed Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father.

48. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan for their families, these cities with their villages.

¶49. And so, they finished dividing the land into its territories. Then the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua ben-Nun in their midst.

50. According to the word of Jehovah, they gave him the city for which he had asked, Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim, and he rebuilt the city and dwelt in it.

¶51. These are the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua ben-Nun, and the chiefs of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided by lot at Shiloh before Jehovah, at the entrance of the tent of meeting. So, they finished dividing the land.

Joshua 20

¶1. Then Jehovah spoke to Joshua, saying,

2. "Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'Choose for yourselves the cities of refuge of which I spoke to you by the hand of Moses,

3. that a manslayer who strikes down a man inadvertently without intention may flee there. And they shall be a refuge for you from the avenger of blood.'

4. And he shall flee to one of these cities and stand at the entrance gate of the city, and he shall state his case in the hearing of the elders of that city. Then they shall take him to themselves into the city and give him a place, that he may dwell with them.

5. And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, they shall not deliver the manslayer into his hand, for he struck down his neighbor unintentionally, and he did not hate him previously.

6. And he shall dwell in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the high priest who is in those days. Then the manslayer shall return to his city and to his house, to the city from which he fled.'"

7. So, they set apart Kedesh in Galilee, in the hill country of Naphtali, and Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kirjath-Arba (which is Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.
8. And on the other side of Jordan, east of Jericho, they chose Bezer in the wilderness on the plain from the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh.
9. These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel and for the sojourner sojourning in their midst, that anyone who strikes down a man unintentionally may flee there and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until he stands before the congregation.

Joshua 21

- ¶1. Then the chiefs of the fathers of the Levites drew near to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua ben-Nun, and to the chiefs of the fathers of the children of Israel.
2. And they spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, "Jehovah commanded by the hand of Moses for us to be given cities to dwell in, with their open fields for our cattle."
3. So the children of Israel gave to the Levites from their inheritance, according to the word of Jehovah, these cities with their open fields.
4. And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. And for the children of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, it was from the tribe of Judah, and from the tribe of Simeon, and from the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities by lot.
5. And for the rest of the children of Kohath, it was from the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and from the tribe of Dan, and from the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities by lot.
6. And for the children of Gershon, it was from the families of the tribe of Issachar, and from the tribe of Asher, and from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities by lot.
7. For the children of Merari, for their families, it was from the tribe of Reuben, and from the tribe of Gad, and from the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.
8. And the children of Israel gave these cities with their open fields to the Levites, just as Jehovah had commanded by the hand of Moses, by lot.
- ¶9. And from the tribe of the children of Judah and from the tribe of the children of Simeon, they gave these cities which are mentioned by name.
10. And it was for the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites from the children of Levi, for theirs was the first lot.
11. And they gave them the city of Arba, the father of Anak (which is Hebron), in the hill country of Judah, with its open fields around it.
12. But the field of the city and its villages, they gave to Caleb ben-Jephunneh as his possession.

13. And to the sons of Aaron the priest, they gave Hebron, the city of refuge for the manslayer, with its open fields, and Libnah with its open fields,
 14. and Jattir with its open fields, and Eshtemoa with its open fields,
 15. and Holon with its open fields, and Debir with its open fields,
 16. and Ain with its open fields, and Juttah with its open fields, and Beth-shemesh with its open fields. Nine cities from these two tribes.
 17. And from the tribe of Benjamin, they gave Gibeon with its open fields, Geba with its open fields,
 18. Anathoth with its open fields, and Almon with its open fields. Four cities.
 19. All the cities of the sons of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities and their open fields.
 20. And for the families of the sons of Kohath, the Levites who remained of the sons of Kohath, there were cities of their lot from the tribe of Ephraim also.
 21. And they gave them Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, a city of refuge for the manslayer, with its open fields, and Gezer with its open fields,
 22. and Kibzaim with its open fields, and Beth-horon with its open fields. Four cities.
 23. And from the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with its open fields, Gibbethon with its open fields,
 24. Aijalon with its open fields, Gath-rimmon with its open fields. Four cities.
 25. And from the half tribe of Manasseh, Taanach with its open fields, and Gath-rimmon with its open fields. Two cities.
 26. All the cities were ten with their open fields for the families of the sons of Kohath that remained.
- ¶27. And for the sons of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, they gave from the half tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan, the city of refuge for the manslayer, with its open fields, and Be-Ashterah with its open fields. Two cities.
28. And from the tribe of Issachar, Kishon with its open fields, Daberath with its open fields,
 29. Jarmuth with its open fields, and En-gannim with its open fields. Four cities.
 30. And from the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its open fields, Abdon with its open fields,
 31. Helkath with its open fields, and Rehob with its open fields. Four cities.
 32. And from the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee, the city of refuge for the manslayer, with its open fields, and Hammoth-dor with its open fields, and Kartan with its open fields. Three cities.
 33. All the cities of the Gershonites for their families were thirteen cities with their open fields.
- ¶34. And for the families of the sons of Merari, the rest of the Levites, they gave from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its open fields, and Kartah with its open fields,
35. Dimnah with its open fields, Nahalal with its open fields. Four cities.
 36. And from the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with its open fields, and Jahazah with its open fields,
 37. Kedemoth with its open fields, and Mephaath with its open fields. Four cities.

38. And from the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead, the city of refuge for the manslayer, with its open fields, and Mahanaim with its open fields,
 39. Heshbon with its open fields, Jazer with its open fields. All the cities were four.
 40. These are all the cities of the sons of Merari for their families, those remaining of the families of the Levites. And their lot was twelve cities.
- ¶41. All the cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the children of Israel were forty-eight cities with their open fields.
42. These were the cities, each city with its open fields around it. So it was for all of these cities.
 43. And Jehovah gave to Israel the whole land which He had sworn to give to their fathers, and they possessed it and dwelt in it.
 44. And Jehovah gave them rest on every side as He had sworn to their fathers. And there was not a man of all their enemies who could stand before them; Jehovah delivered all their enemies into their hand.
 45. Not a thing of all the good which Jehovah had spoken to the house of Israel failed; it all came to pass.

Joshua 22

- ¶1. At that time, Joshua called for the Reubenites, and for the Gadites, and for the half tribe of Manasseh.
2. And he said to them, “You have kept all that Moses, the slave of Jehovah, commanded you, and you have given heed to my voice in everything that I have commanded you.
 3. You have not forsaken your brothers these many days up to this day, but you have kept the charge of the commandment of Jehovah your God.
 4. Jehovah your God has now given rest to your brothers, just as He said to them. Therefore, turn now and go to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses, the slave of Jehovah, gave you on the other side of the Jordan.
 5. Only, be very watchful to observe the commandment of the law, which Moses, the slave of Jehovah, commanded you, to love Jehovah your God, and to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments, and to cling to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and all your soul.”
 6. And Joshua blessed them, and sent them away, and they went to their tents.
- ¶7. And to the half tribe of Manasseh, Moses had given Bashan, but to the other half, Joshua gave an inheritance with their brothers on this side of the Jordan, westward. And when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them also.
8. And he spoke to them, saying, “Go back to your tents with great riches, even with a great many livestock, with silver, and with gold, and with bronze, and with iron, and with very many garments; divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.”

- ¶9. And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, returned, and departed from the children of Israel at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession which they possessed according to the word of Jehovah by the hand of Moses.
10. And when they came to the region of the Jordan which is in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, built an altar there by the Jordan, an imposing altar.
11. And the children of Israel heard it said, “Behold, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar on the border of the land of Canaan, in the region of the Jordan, on the side belonging to the children of Israel!”
12. And when the children of Israel heard it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered at Shiloh, to go up against them for battle.
13. And the children of Israel sent Phinehas ben-Eleazar, the priest, to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh in the land of Gilead,
14. and with him ten princes, each one a prince of the house of his father of all the tribes of Israel. Each was a chief of the house of their fathers over thousands in Israel.
15. And they came to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying,
16. “Thus says all the congregation of Jehovah, ‘What treachery is this which you have committed against the God of Israel, to have turned today from following after Jehovah by building for yourselves an altar to rebel this day against Jehovah?’
17. Was the iniquity of Peor a small thing to us, from which we have not been cleansed to this day even though there was a plague among the congregation of Jehovah,
18. that you must turn away this day from following Jehovah? And so it will come to pass that today you rebel against Jehovah, but tomorrow, He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel.
19. And now, if the land of your possession is unclean, cross over to the land of the possession of Jehovah, in which the tabernacle of Jehovah dwells, and take a possession among us. But do not rebel against Jehovah, nor rebel against us, by building for yourselves an altar besides the altar of Jehovah our God!
20. Was not Achan ben-Zerah treacherous concerning the devoted thing, and wrath came upon all the congregation of Israel? That man certainly did not perish alone in his iniquity!”
21. Then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, answered, and said to the chiefs over thousands in Israel,
22. “The God of gods, Jehovah, the God of gods, Jehovah, He knows and He will let Israel know. Let us not be spared this day if it was in rebellion or if it was treachery against Jehovah

23. that we built an altar for ourselves to turn away from following Jehovah, whether to offer on it a burnt offering and a grain offering, or to make peace offerings to Jehovah on it. Let Jehovah require it
 24. if we did not do this out of fear of this thing, thinking that in time to come your children will speak to our children, saying, ‘What have you to do with Jehovah, the God of Israel?’
 25. For Jehovah has made the Jordan a border between us and you, you children of Reuben and children of Gad. You have no portion with Jehovah.’ And so, your children will cause our children to cease fearing Jehovah.
 26. Therefore, we thought that we should work and build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice,
 27. but that it might be a witness between us and you, and between our generations after us, that we might do the service of Jehovah before Him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings, that your children will not say to our children in time to come, ‘You have no portion with Jehovah.’
 28. Therefore, we thought if it comes to pass that they say this to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say, ‘See the pattern of the altar of Jehovah which our fathers made! It is not for burnt offering or for sacrifice, but it is a witness between us and you.’
 29. Far be it from us that we should rebel against Jehovah and turn away this day from following Jehovah, to build an altar for burnt offering, for grain offering, or for sacrifice, besides the altar of Jehovah our God which is before His tabernacle!”
- ¶30. And when Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation, and the chiefs over the thousands in Israel who were with him heard the words that the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spoke, it was good in their eyes.
31. And Phinehas ben-Eleazar, the priest, said to the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh, “This day we know that Jehovah is in our midst, because you have not committed this trespass against Jehovah. You have now delivered the children of Israel from the hand of Jehovah.”
 32. And Phinehas ben-Eleazar, the priest, with the princes, returned from the children of Reuben and the children of Gad, from the region of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and they brought back word to them.
 33. And the thing was good in the eyes of the children of Israel, and the children of Israel blessed God, and no longer thought to go up against them for battle to destroy the land in which the children of Reuben and the children of Gad dwelt.

34. And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad named the altar, “*Ed*⁶”, for it was a witness between us that Jehovah is God.

Joshua 23

- ¶1. And it came to pass afterward, many days after Jehovah had given rest to Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua was old, advanced in days.
- 2. And Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders, and their chiefs, and their judges, and their officers, and he said to them, “I am old, advanced in days.
- 3. And you have seen all that Jehovah your God did to all these nations for your sake, for it is Jehovah your God who has fought for you.
- 4. Behold, I divided to you by lot these nations which remain as an inheritance for your tribes, along with all the nations that I have cut off, from the Jordan to the Great Sea toward the setting of the sun.
- 5. And Jehovah your God, Himself, will drive them out from before you, and He shall dispossess them before you, and you shall possess their land, just as Jehovah your God has said to you.
- 6. So, be resolute to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, to not turn aside from it, right or left,
- 7. to not go in among these nations, these which remain with you. And you will make no mention of the name of their gods, nor shall you swear by them, nor serve them, nor bow down to them.
- 8. But cling only to Jehovah your God, just as you have done to this day.
- 9. For Jehovah has dispossessed before you great and mighty nations, and no man has been able to stand before you to this day.
- 10. One of you shall pursue a thousand, for Jehovah your God, Himself, fights for you, just as He said to you.
- 11. And take good heed to yourselves, to love Jehovah your God.
- 12. For if you at all turn away and cling to the remnant of these nations, these which remain with you, and make marriages with them, and go in to them, and they to you,
- 13. know for certain that Jehovah your God will no more drive out these Gentiles before you, but they will be for a trap and a snare for you, even a scourge on your sides and thorns in your eyes until you perish from off this good land which Jehovah your God gave you.
- 14. And now, behold, today, I am going the way of all the earth, and you know with all your heart and with all your soul that not one thing has failed of all the good things that Jehovah your God has said concerning you. They all have come to pass for you; not one of them has failed.

⁶ Hebrew, “witness”.

15. And it shall come to pass that just as every good thing which Jehovah your God said to you has come to you, so shall Jehovah bring upon you every evil thing, until He has destroyed you from off this good land which Jehovah your God gave to you
16. when you transgress the covenant of Jehovah your God which He commanded you, and you go and serve other gods and bow yourselves down to them. Then shall the anger of Jehovah be kindled against you, and you shall perish quickly from the good land which He gave to you.”

Joshua 24

- ¶1. And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and he called for the elders of Israel, and their chiefs, and their judges, and their officers, and they presented themselves before God.
2. And Joshua said to all the people, “Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel: Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the river long ago, Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor, and they served other gods.
3. But I took Abraham, your father, from the other side of the river, and I led him through all the land of Canaan and multiplied his seed, and I gave him Isaac.
4. And to Isaac, I gave Jacob and Esau. And I gave Mount Seir to Esau as a possession for him, but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt.
5. And I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt by what I did in its midst, and afterward, I brought you out.
6. And I brought your fathers out from Egypt, and you came to the sea, and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea.
7. And when they cried out to Jehovah, He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and then brought the sea upon them and covered them, and your eyes saw what I did in Egypt. Then you dwelt in the wilderness many days.
8. And I brought you to the land of the Amorites, who dwelt on the other side of the Jordan, and they fought with you. And I gave them into your hand, and you possessed their land, for I destroyed them before you.
9. Then Balak ben-Zippor, king of Moab, rose up and fought against Israel, and he sent and called for Balaam ben-Beor to curse you,
10. but I would not listen to Balaam. Instead, he greatly blessed you, and I delivered you out of his hand.
11. Then you crossed over the Jordan and came to Jericho, and the rulers of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Gergashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, but I delivered them into your hand.
12. And I sent the hornet before you, and it drove them out from before you, the two kings of the Amorites, not your sword or your bow.

13. And I have given you a land for which you did not labor, and cities which you did not build, and you are dwelling in them. You are eating of vineyards and oliveyards which you did not plant.
 14. Now, therefore, fear Jehovah and serve Him in sincerity and in truth. Put away the gods which your fathers served beyond the river and in Egypt, and serve Jehovah.
 15. And if it is evil in your eyes to serve Jehovah, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve, whether it be the gods that your fathers who were beyond the river served or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve Jehovah.”
- ¶16. And the people answered and said, “Far be it from us that we should forsake Jehovah to serve other gods,
17. for Jehovah our God, He brought us up, us and our fathers, out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slaves, and who before our eyes did those great signs and preserved us in all the way that we went, even among all the nations through the midst of whom we passed,
 18. and Jehovah drove out from before us all the nations, even the Amorites who dwelt in the land. We also will serve Jehovah, for He is our God!”
- ¶19. But Joshua said to the people, “You cannot serve Jehovah, for He is a holy God; He is a jealous God. He will not forgive your transgressions and your sins
20. if you forsake Jehovah and serve foreign gods, and He will turn and do you evil and consume you, after having done you good.”
21. And the people said to Joshua, “No! We will serve Jehovah!”
22. And Joshua said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen for yourselves Jehovah, to serve Him.” And they said, “We are witnesses!”
23. “Then, put away now the foreign gods that are among you, and incline your heart to Jehovah, the God of Israel!”
24. And the people said to Joshua, “We will serve Jehovah our God, and His voice will we obey!”
25. So, Joshua made a covenant for the people that day, and he enacted a statute and an ordinance at Shechem.
26. And Joshua wrote these things in the book of the law of God, and he took a great stone and set it up there under the terebinth tree that was by the sanctuary of Jehovah.
27. And Joshua said to all the people, “Behold, this stone will be a witness to us, for it has heard all the words of Jehovah which He spoke to us. Therefore, it shall be a witness against you, lest you deal falsely with your God.”
28. Then Joshua sent the people away, each to his inheritance.

- ¶29. And it came to pass after these things that Joshua ben-Nun, the slave of Jehovah, died at the age of one hundred and ten years.
30. And they buried him in the region of his inheritance, in Timnath-serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north side of Mount Gaash.
31. And Israel served Jehovah all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua and who had experienced all the works of Jehovah which He had done for Israel.
32. And Joseph's bones, which the children of Israel had brought up from Egypt, they buried at Shechem, in the parcel of ground which Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for one hundred kesitah⁷, and it became an inheritance of the children of Joseph.
33. And Eleazar ben-Aaron died, and they buried him on a hill belonging to Phinehas his son, which had been given to him in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges

Judges 1

- ¶1. Now, it came to pass after the death of Joshua that the children of Israel inquired of Jehovah, saying, “Who should go up for us first against the Canaanites to fight against them?”
- 2. And Jehovah said, “Judah shall go up. Behold, I have given the land into his hand.”
- 3. Then Judah said to Simeon his brother, “Come up with me in my lot, and let us fight the Canaanites, and I will also go with you in your lot.” And so, Simeon went with him.
- 4. Then Judah went up, and Jehovah gave the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand, and they killed of them 10,000 men at Bezek.
- 5. And in Bezek, they found Adoni-Bezek and fought against him, and they killed the Canaanites and the Perizzites.
- 6. And Adoni-Bezek fled, but they pursued after him and caught him, and they cut off his thumbs and big toes.
- 7. Then Adoni-Bezek said, “Seventy kings, with their thumbs and big toes cut off, used to gather scraps under my table. As I have done, so God has repaid me.” And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.
- 8. And the sons of Judah fought against Jerusalem and captured it, and they struck it with the edge of the sword and set the city on fire.
- 9. And afterward, the sons of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites living in the hill country, and the Negev, and the Shephelah.
- 10. And Judah went against the Canaanites who dwelt in Hebron. (The former name of Hebron was Kirjath-Arba.) And they slew Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai.
- 11. And from there, he went against the inhabitants of Debir. (The former name of Debir was Kirjath-Sepher.)
- 12. And Caleb said, “Whoever strikes Kirjath-Sepher and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter as a wife.”
- 13. And Othniel, the son of Caleb’s younger brother, Kenaz, took it. So, he gave him Achsah his daughter for a wife.
- 14. And it came to pass that when she came, she urged him to ask her father for the field. And she came down from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, “What do you want?”
- 15. And she said to him, “Give me a blessing, for you gave me territory in the south. Give me pools of water, too.” And Caleb gave her the upper pools and lower pools.

- ¶16. And then sons of the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, came up from the City of Palms¹ with the sons of Judah to the Judean wilderness, which lies south of Arad, and they went and dwelt with the people.
17. And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they struck the Canaanites dwelling in Zephath and utterly destroyed it, and he called the name of that city Hormah.
18. Judah also took Gaza and its border, and Ashkelon and its border, and Ekron and its border.
19. And Jehovah was with Judah, and he took possession of the hill country, though he did not dispossess the inhabitants of the lowland because they had chariots of iron.
20. And they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses said, and he dispossessed three sons of Anak.
21. And the Jebusites that live in Jerusalem, the sons of Benjamin did not dispossess, but the Jebusites dwell in Jerusalem with sons of Benjamin to this day.
22. And as for the house of Joseph, they went up to Bethel. And Jehovah was with them.
23. And the house of Joseph reconnoitered Bethel. (The former name of the city was Luz.)
24. And the scouts saw a man coming out of the city, and they said to him, "If you show us a way into the city, we will show you mercy."
25. And he showed them a way into the city, and they destroyed the city with the edge of the sword, but the man and all his family, they let go.
26. And the man went to the land of the Hittites and built a city, and he named it Luz. This is its name to this day.
27. And Manasseh did not dispossess Beth-shean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages, for the Canaanites were determined to live in that land.
28. And it came to pass when Israel was strong that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but as for taking possession, they did not do so.
29. And Ephraim did not dispossess the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer, but the Canaanites dwelt in his midst, in Gezer.
30. Zebulun did not dispossess the inhabitants of Kitron, or the inhabitants of Nahalol, but the Canaanites dwell in his midst, though he did put them under forced labor.
31. Asher did not dispossess the inhabitants of Acco, or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahlab, or of Achzib, or of Helbah, or of Aphik, or of Rehob,
32. but the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land, because they did not dispossess them.
33. Naphtali did not dispossess the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, or the inhabitants of Beth-anath, but he dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land. Yet, the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and Beth-anath were under forced labor to them.

34. And the Amorites forced the children of Dan to the hill country, for they did not allow them to come down into the lowland,
35. but the Amorites were determined to dwell on the hill of Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim. Still, the hand of the house of Joseph was strong, and they were forced into labor.
36. And the border of the Amorites was from the Ascent of Akrabbim, from the Rock, and upward.

Judges 2

- ¶1. Now, a messenger from Jehovah went up from Gilgal to Bochim, and he said, “I brought you up from Egypt, and I led you to the land which I promised to your fathers. And I said, ‘I will not break my covenant with you forever.’
2. Do not make a covenant with the inhabitants of this land! Tear down their altars!” But you did not heed my voice. What is this that you have done?
3. So, I also said, ‘I will not drive them out from before you, but they will be at your side, and their gods will be a snare to you.’”
4. And it came to pass when the messenger from Jehovah spoke these words to all the sons of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice and wept.
5. And they called the name of that place Bochim,² and they sacrificed there to Jehovah.
6. And Joshua sent the people away, and the children of Israel went, each one, to his inheritance to possess the land.
7. And the people served Jehovah all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua who had seen all the great work of Jehovah which He had done for Israel.
8. And Joshua ben-Nun, the servant of Jehovah, died, being one hundred and ten years old.
9. And they buried him within the border of his inheritance, in Timnath-heres in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.
10. Moreover, all that generation was also gathered to their fathers, and there arose another generation after them that did not know Jehovah, nor yet the work which He had done for Israel.
11. And the children of Israel did evil in the eyes of Jehovah and served the Baals.
12. And they forsook Jehovah, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, and they went after other gods, gods of the peoples who were around them, and they worshipped them, and they provoked Jehovah to anger.
13. Yea, they forsook Jehovah and served Baal and Ashtaroth.
14. Then Jehovah’s wrath burned against Israel, and He delivered them into the hand of plunderers, and they plundered them. And He sold them into the hand of their enemies all around, so that they were no longer able to withstand their enemies.

² Weeping.

15. Wherever they went out, the hand of Jehovah would be against them for evil, according to what Jehovah had spoken, even according to what Jehovah had sworn to them, and He brought great distress upon them.
16. Then Jehovah would raise up judges, and they would deliver them out of the hand of those who plundered them.
17. But then, they would not listen to their judges, but would go whoring after other gods and bow down to them. They would quickly turn from the way in which their fathers walked who obeyed the commandments of Jehovah. They did not do the like.
18. And when Jehovah raised up judges for them, then Jehovah would be with that judge, and He would rescue them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of that judge. For Jehovah was moved to pity by their groaning because of their tormenters and their oppressors.
19. Then, when the judge died, they would turn back and be more corrupt than their fathers in going after other gods, to serve them and to bow down to them. They would not cease from their deeds or from their stubborn way.
20. And so, the anger of Jehovah burned against Israel, and He said, “Because this nation has transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers and has not listened to my voice,
21. I will no longer drive out before them any of the nations which Joshua left when he died,
22. in order to prove Israel by them, whether they will keep the way of Jehovah while walking among them, as their fathers kept it, or not.”
23. And so, Jehovah gave those nations rest. He did not quickly dispossess them; nor did He give them into the hand of Joshua.

Judges 3

- ¶1. Now, these are the nations to whom Jehovah gave rest, by whom He would try Israel, as many as had not gone through all the wars for Canaan
2. (only to teach them, so that the generations of the children of Israel might understand war, as many as had not previously experienced such things):
3. five Philistine lords, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt in Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal-Hermon to the Entrance of Hamath.
4. And they remained that He might try Israel by them, to know whether they would obey the commandments of Jehovah which He commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.
5. And so, the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites: the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.
6. And they took their daughters to be their wives, and they gave their daughters to their sons, and they served their gods.
- ¶7. And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and they forgot Jehovah their God and served the Baals and the Asherahs.

8. And the anger of Jehovah burned against Israel, and He sold them into the hand of Cushan-rishathaim, king of Aram-naharaim, and the children of Israel served Cushan-rishathaim eight years.
 9. And the children of Israel cried out to Jehovah, and Jehovah raised up a savior for the children of Israel, Othniel ben-Kenaz, kinsman of Caleb's younger brother.
 10. And the Spirit of Jehovah was upon him, and he judged Israel and went out to battle, and Jehovah gave Cushan-rishathaim, king of Aram, into his hand, and his hand prevailed against Cushan-rishathaim,
 11. and the land was quiet forty years. And Othniel ben-Kenaz died.
- ¶12. Then, again, the children of Israel did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, and Jehovah strengthened Eglon, the king of Moab, against Israel because they had done what was evil in the sight of Jehovah.
13. And he gathered to himself the children of Ammon and Amalek, and he went and attacked Israel, and he took possession of the City of Palms.
 14. And the children of Israel served Eglon, king of Moab, eighteen years.
 15. And the children of Israel cried out to Jehovah, and Jehovah raised up a savior for them, Ehud ben-Gera, the Benjaminite, a left-handed man. And by him, the children of Israel sent tribute to Eglon, king of Moab.
 16. But Ehud made for himself a sword, and it was double-edged, a cubit in length, and he girded it underneath his clothes on his right thigh.
 17. And he presented the tribute to Eglon, king of Moab. (Now, Eglon was a very fat man.)
 18. And it came to pass that when he finished presenting the tribute that he sent away the people who had carried the tribute,
 19. but at the idols which are at Gilgal, he himself turned back. Then he said, "I have a private message for you, O king." And he said, "Silence!" And all that stood by him left him.
 20. And Ehud came to him as he was sitting alone in his cool upper chamber. And Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you." And he arose from his seat.
 21. And Ehud reached with his left hand, and took the sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly.
 22. And the hilt also went in after the blade, and the fat closed in over the blade so that he could not draw the sword out of his belly, and his excrement came out.
 23. And Ehud went out to the vestibule³, and he closed and locked the doors of the upper chamber behind him.
 24. And when he was gone out, his servants went in and saw that, behold, the doors of the upper chamber were locked. And they said, "Surely, he is relieving himself in his cool room."

³ Hebrew uncertain.

25. And they waited until they were ashamed, for behold, no one opened the doors of the upper chamber. So, they took the key and opened them, and behold, their lord was fallen to the earth, dead.
 26. But Ehud had slipped away while they delayed, and he passed beyond the idols and escaped to Seirath.
 27. And it came to pass that when he arrived, he blew a shofar in the hill country of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the hill country, and he at their forefront.
 28. And he said to them, “Follow me! For Jehovah has given your enemies, the Moabites, into your hand!” And they went down after him and took the fords of the Jordan against Moab, and they allowed no one to cross.
 29. And they killed of Moab at that time about ten thousand men, all of them stout, and all, men of valor. And not one escaped.
 30. So, Moab was humbled that day under the hand of Israel. And the land was quiet eighty years.
- ¶31. And after him was Shamgar ben-Anath, and he killed six hundred Philistine men with a cattle prod, and he also delivered Israel.

Judges 4

- ¶1. Then, when Ehud died, the children of Israel again did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah.
 2. And so, Jehovah sold them into the hand of Jabin, king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. And the leader of his army was Sisera, and he lived in Harosheth-hagoiim.
 3. And the children of Israel cried out to Jehovah, for he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and he cruelly oppressed the children of Israel twenty years.
- ¶4. Now, a woman, Deborah the prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel at that time.
5. And she used to sit under the Palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, and the children of Israel would go up to her for judgment.
 6. And she sent and summoned Barak ben-Abinoam from Kedesh-Naphtali, and she said to him, “Has not Jehovah, God of Israel, commanded, ‘Go, and march to Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men of the sons of Naphtali and of the sons of Zebulun,
 7. and at the river Kishon, I will draw out to you Sisera, the leader of Jabin’s army, with his chariot and his multitude, and I will deliver him into your hand?’”
 8. And Barak said to her, “If you go with me, then I will go, but if you do not go with me, I will not go.”
 9. And she said, “I will certainly go with you; howbeit, the journey you take will not be for your glory, for Jehovah will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman.” And Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10. And at Kedesh, Barak summoned Zebulun and Naphtali, and at his feet went up ten thousand men, and Deborah went up with him.
 11. Now, Heber the Kenite was separated from the Kenites, the children of Hobab, Moses' father-in-law, and he pitched his tent as far as the Oak of Zaanannim, which is near Kedesh.
 12. And they reported to Sisera that Barak ben-Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor.
 13. And Sisera summoned all his chariots, nine hundred iron chariots, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth-hagoiim to the river Kishon.
 14. And Deborah said to Barak, "Rise up! For this is the day in which Jehovah has given Sisera into your hand. Has not Jehovah gone out before you?" And so, Barak went down from Mount Tabor, with ten thousand men behind him.
 15. And Jehovah discomfited Sisera before Barak, and all his chariots, and all his army, by the edge of the sword, and Sisera alighted from his chariot and fled on foot.
 16. But Barak pursued after the chariots and after the army unto Harosheth-hagoiim, and all the host of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword, and not even one was left.
- ¶17. And Sisera fled on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, for there was peace between Jabin, king of Hazor, and the house of Heber the Kenite.
18. And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and she said to him, "Turn in, my lord! Turn in to me! Don't be afraid!" And so, he turned in to her, into the tent, and she covered him with the rug.
 19. And he said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." And she opened the skin of milk and gave him a drink, and covered him up.
 20. And he said to her, "Stand at the door of the tent, and it shall be that if any man comes and asks you and says, 'Is there a man here?' then you say, 'No.'"
 21. Then Jael, wife of Heber, took a tent-peg, and took the hammer in her hand, and went softly in to him, and drove the tent-peg into his temple, and it went down into the ground, for he was fast asleep and exhausted, and he died.
 22. And behold, when Barak pursued Sisera, Jael went out to meet him, and she said to him, "Come, and I will show you the man that you are looking for." And he went in with her, and behold, Sisera was fallen down dead, with the tent-peg in his temple.
 23. And so, on that day, God subdued Jabin, king of Canaan, before the children of Israel.
 24. And the hand of the children of Israel pressed harder and harder against Jabin, king of Canaan, until they destroyed Jabin, king of Canaan.

Judges 5

- ¶1. And Deborah sang with Barak ben-Abinoam on that day, saying,
2. "For that the leaders of Israel acted like leaders, for that the people freely offered themselves, bless Jehovah!
3. Hear, O kings! Give ear, O princes! I will sing to Jehovah. I will play music to Jehovah, the God of Israel.

4. O Jehovah, when you went out from Seir, when you marched from the field of Edom, the earth shook, the heavens poured, yea, dark clouds poured down water.
5. The mountains melted at the presence of Jehovah, even Sinai at the presence of Jehovah, the God of Israel.
6. In the days of Shamgar ben-Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways were empty, and travelers took to byways.
7. The villages were abandoned in Israel; they were abandoned until I, Deborah, arose. I arose as a mother to Israel.
8. When God chose new men, bread was in our gates, though neither shield nor spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel.
9. My heart is toward the lawgivers of Israel who offered themselves willingly with the people. Bless Jehovah!
10. You who ride on light brown donkeys! You who sit on cloth! And you who walk on the road! Tell it
11. louder than the voice of dividers of herds at watering places! Let them rehearse the righteous acts of Jehovah, righteous acts for His villages in Israel. Then, Jehovah's people came down to the gates.
12. 'Awake! Awake, O Deborah! Awake! Sing a song! Rise, O Barak! Lead your captives away, O son of Abinoam!'
13. Then, the remnant of noble men came down; the people of Jehovah came down for me against the mighty men,
14. down from Ephraim, their root, against Amalek, behind you, Benjamin, with your people! From Machir, the commanders came down, and from Zebulun, those who draw out the staff of a scribe,
15. the rulers of Issachar also with Deborah (and so, Issachar was with Barak). Into the valley, at his heels, were they sent. The clans of Reuben had many resolutions of heart.
16. Why did you tarry between two camps? to hear noises of the flocks? The clans of Reuben had great deliberations of heart.
17. Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan. And O Dan! Why did he stay by ships? Asher sat on the seashore and remained by his landings.
18. Zebulun is a people whose soul scorned death, as well as Naphtali, on the heights of the field.
19. Kings came; they joined in battle. Yea, kings of Canaan fought at Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo. They took no spoil of silver.
20. From heaven, the stars went to war; from their courses, they fought against Sisera.
21. The Brook Kishon swept them away, the brook of ancient times, the Brook Kishon. March on, O my soul, in strength!
22. How the hooves of the horse pounded at the gallop, the galloping of his powerful legs!
23. Curse Meroz! says the messenger of Jehovah. Curse its inhabitants bitterly because they did not come to the aid of Jehovah, to the aid of Jehovah against the mighty!

24. Blessed among women is Jael, wife of Heber the Kenite! Among tent-dwelling women, she is blessed.
25. He asked for water; she gave him milk. She brought curds in a bowl fit for nobles.
26. She stretched out her hand for the tent-peg and her right hand for the workmen's hammer. Then she hammered Sisera; she smashed his head, and struck through and pierced his temple.
27. Between her feet, he bowed down; he fell; he lay. Between her feet, he bowed down; he fell where he bowed. There he fell down, slain.
28. Through the window, she peered; the mother of Sisera wailed through the lattice, 'Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why is the rumble of his chariots delayed?'
29. Her cunning noblewomen replied (indeed, she said to herself),
30. 'Are they not finding and dividing spoil? A girl—two girls!—for every man; spoil of dyed stuffs for Sisera; spoil of embroidered dyed stuffs; dyed stuff of double embroidery for necks as a spoil.'
31. Thus may all your enemies perish, O Jehovah! But may those who love Him be as the sun rising in its strength!' And the land had rest forty years.

Judges 6

- ¶1. Then the children of Israel did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, and Jehovah gave them into the hand of Midian seven years,
2. and the hand of Midian prevailed over Israel. Because of Midian, the children of Israel made hiding places for themselves that were in the mountains, caves, and strongholds.
3. And it came to pass, whenever Israel sowed seed, Midian would come up with Amalek and the sons of the east, and they would come up against him.
4. And they would encamp against them and destroy the crops of the land to the entrance of Gaza, and they would leave no sustenance in Israel, or sheep, or ox, or ass.
5. For they would come up with their livestock, and they would come in with their tents like a massive swarm of locusts; there was no numbering of them and their camels. And they came into the land to destroy it.
6. And Israel was brought very low because of Midian. Then, the children of Israel cried out to Jehovah.
- ¶7. And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried out to Jehovah on account of Midian,
8. that Jehovah sent a man, a prophet, to the children of Israel, and he said to them, "Thus says Jehovah, God of Israel: I led you up out of Egypt and brought you out of the house of slaves.
9. And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and then out of the hand of all who resisted you, and I drove them out from before you and gave you their land.
10. And I said to you, 'I am Jehovah your God. Do not fear the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwell.' But you have not heeded my voice!"

- ¶11. And an angel of Jehovah came and sat under the terebinth tree that is in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite. And his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the winepress, so as to hide from Midian.
12. And the angel of Jehovah appeared to him, and he said to him, “Jehovah is with you, O mighty man of valor!”
13. And Gideon said to him, “Bear with me, my lord, but if Jehovah is with us, then why has all this befallen us? And where are all His miraculous works which our fathers recounted to us, saying, ‘Did not Jehovah bring us up out of Egypt?’ But now, Jehovah has forsaken us and given us into the hand of Midian.”
14. And Jehovah turned to him and said, “Go in this strength of yours, and you will deliver Israel out of the hand of Midian. Have I not sent you?”
15. But he said to Him, “Bear with me, my lord, but how can I deliver Israel? Behold, my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father’s house.”
16. And Jehovah said to him, “You can deliver Israel because I will be with you. Yea, you will strike down Midian as one man!”
17. And he said to Him, “If I have now found favor in your eyes, then give me a sign that it is you speaking with me.
18. Don’t leave this place, I beg you, until I come to you and bring out my gift and set it before you.” And He said, “I will stay until you return.”
19. And Gideon went in and prepared a kid of the goats, and unleavened cakes from an ephah of flour. The meat he put in a basket, and the broth, he put in a pot. Then he went out to him beneath the terebinth tree and presented it.
20. And the angel of God said to him, “Take the meat and the unleavened cakes, and place them on this rock. And pour out the broth.” And he did so.
21. And the angel of Jehovah reached out the tip of the staff that was in his hand and touched the meat and the unleavened cakes, and fire came up out of the stone and consumed the flesh and the cakes, and the angel of Jehovah vanished from his sight.
22. And Gideon perceived that he was an angel of Jehovah, and Gideon said, “Alas, my Lord Jehovah! For I have actually seen an angel of Jehovah face-to-face!”
23. But Jehovah said to him, “Shalom to you. Don’t be afraid. You are not going to die.”
24. And Gideon built there an altar to Jehovah, and he called it, “Jehovah Shalom”. To this day, it stands in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.
- ¶25. And it came to pass during that night, that Jehovah said to him, “Take one bull that belongs to your father, even the second bull that is seven years old, and tear down your father’s altar for Baal, and cut down the Asherah that is beside it,
26. and build an altar to Jehovah your God atop this citadel, in the proper order, and take the second bull, and with the wood of the Asherah that you cut down, offer it up as a burnt offering.
27. And Gideon took ten men from among his slaves and did just as Jehovah said to him. But it came to pass that he feared his father’s house and the men of the city, to do it by day, and so, he did it by night.

28. And the men of the city rose early in the morning, and, behold, the altar of Baal was torn down, and the Asherah that was by it was cut down, and the second bull had been offered up on the altar that was built.
 29. And the men said to one another, "Who did this thing!" And they made search and inquired, and they said, "Gideon ben-Joash did this deed!"
 30. And the men of the city said to Joash, "Bring your son out, that he die, because he tore down the altar of Baal and because he cut down that Asherah that was by it."
 31. But Joash said to all who stood against him, "Are you pleading for Baal? Or will you save him? Whoso pleads for him, let him be put to death by morning! If he is a god, let him plead his own case, since it was his altar he pulled down."
 32. And he was called in that day, "Jerubbaal", which means, "Let Baal contend with him," since he tore down his altar.
- ¶33. Now, all Midian, and Amalek, and the sons of the east gathered together, and they crossed over and made camp in the Valley of Jezreel.
34. Then the Spirit of Jehovah covered Gideon, and he gave a blast with the shofar, and Abiezer was summoned to follow him.
 35. And he sent messengers to all Manasseh, and he, too, was summoned to follow him. And he sent messengers to Asher, and to Zebulun, and Naphtali, and they went up to meet them.
 36. And Gideon said to God, "If you are going to deliver Israel by my hand, as you said,
 37. behold, I am going to put this woolen fleece on the threshing floor. If dew is only on the fleece, and all the ground is dry, then will I know that you will deliver Israel by my hand, as you said."
 38. And it was so. When he rose early the next day, he squeezed the fleece, and drained dew from the fleece, a bowl full of water.
 39. And Gideon said to God, "Do not let your anger burn against me, and I will speak but once more. Let me, if you will, only this once make trial with the fleece. Let it be, if you please, dry on the fleece alone, but on all the ground, let there be dew."
 40. And God did so that night. It was dry on the fleece alone, and on all the ground, there was dew.

Judges 7

- ¶1. And Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) rose early, and all the people who were with him, and they camped by the spring of Harod. And the camp of Midian was north of that, near the Hill of Moreh, in the valley.
2. And Jehovah said to Gideon, "There are too many people with you for me to give Midian into your hand, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, thinking, 'My own hand has saved me.'
3. So, declare this now, if you will, in the hearing of the people, saying, 'Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him turn back and depart from Mount Gilead!'" And 22,000 of the people turned back, and 10,000 were left.

4. Then Jehovah said to Gideon, "The people are still too many. Bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. And it shall be that when I say to you, 'This one shall go with you,' he shall go with you. And every one of whom I say to you, 'This one shall not go with you,' he shall not go."
 5. And so, he brought the people down to the water. And Jehovah said to Gideon, "Everyone who laps up the water with his tongue the way a dog laps, set him apart; likewise, everyone who kneels down on his knees to drink."
 6. And the number of those who lapped, with their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men. But all the rest of the people knelt down on their knees to drink water.
 7. Then Jehovah said to Gideon, "With the three hundred men who lapped will I deliver you and give Midian into your hand. And let all the other people go, each to his place."
 8. Then the people took provisions in their hand, and their shofars, and he sent all the men of Israel away to their tents. But he retained the three hundred men. And the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.
- ¶9. And it came to pass that same night that Jehovah said to him, "Get up! Go down against the camp, for I have given it into your hand!"
10. But if you are afraid to go down, go down with your servant Purah to the camp,
 11. and you will hear what they say, and afterward, your hands will be strengthened so that you will go down against the camp." And he went down with Purah his servant to an outpost of the armed men who belonged to the host.
 12. And Midian, and Amalek, and all the children of the east were sprawled out in the valley like a swarm of locusts for multitude, and their camels were beyond number, like the sand on the seashore for multitude.
 13. And Gideon arrived, and behold, a man was telling his companion a dream. And he said, "Behold, I dreamed a dream, and behold, a cake of barley bread came tumbling into the camp of Midian, and when it reached the tent, it struck it so that it fell, and it turned it upside down, and the tent lay flat."
 14. And his friend answered and said, "This is nothing else but the sword of Gideon ben-Joash, a man of Israel; his God has given Midian and this whole camp into his hand."
- ¶15. And it came to pass, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, that he worshipped and then returned to the camp of Israel, and he said, "Get up! For Jehovah has given the camp of Midian into your hand!"
16. And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put shofars in the hand of them all, and empty pitchers with torches inside the pitchers.
 17. And he said to them, "Watch me, and do what I do. And behold, when I come to the edge of the camp, then you do just as I do.
 18. And when I blow on the shofar, I and all who are with me, then you also blow on the shofars all around the camp and say, 'For Jehovah and for Gideon!'"

- ¶19. Then Gideon and the hundred men who were with him went to the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, when they had just set the watch. Then they blew the shofars and smashed the pitchers that were in their hand.
20. So, the three companies blew on the shofars and shattered their pitchers. And they held the torches in their left hand, and in their right hand were the shofars to blow. And they cried out, “The sword of Jehovah and of Gideon!”
21. And they stood, every man, in his place around the camp. And the whole camp started running, and cried out, and fled.
22. And they blew the three hundred shofars, and Jehovah set each man’s sword against his neighbor throughout the camp. And the camp fled to Beth-shittah, toward Zererah, to the border of Abel-meholah, by Tabbath.
23. And the men of Israel were summoned from Naphtali, and from Asher, and from all Manasseh, and they pursued after Midian.
24. And Gideon sent messengers through all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, “Go down and engage Midian, and take the waters before them, as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan. And all the men of Ephraim were summoned, and they took the waters as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan.
25. And they caught two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. And they killed Oreb at the Rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb. Then they pursued Midian. And they brought the head of Oreb and the head of Zeeb across the Jordan to Gideon.

Judges 8

1. And the men of Ephraim said to him, “What is this that you have done to us, failing to call us when you went to fight against Midian!” And they strove bitterly with him.
2. But he said to them, “What have I done now in comparison with you? Is not the gleanings of Ephraim better than the harvest of Abiezer?
3. God has given into your hand the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb! So, what have I been able to do in comparison to you?” Then, when he made this statement, their anger against him subsided.
4. Then Gideon went to the Jordan in pursuit, he and the three hundred men who were with him, weary but pursuing,
5. and he said to the men of Succoth, “I beseech you, give loaves of bread to the people who are following me, for they are weary, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.”
6. But the rulers of Succoth said, “Is the power of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?”
7. And Gideon said to them, “When Jehovah has given Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, I will flail your flesh with thorns of the wilderness, and with briars.”
8. And he went on up from there to Penuel, and said the same to them, and the men of Penuel answered him just as the men of Succoth had done.

9. And he spoke also to the men of Penuel, saying, "When I return in peace, I will tear down this tower."
- ¶10. And Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hosts were with them, about fifteen thousand—all who remained of all the camp of the children of the east, for there had fallen one hundred and twenty thousand men who drew the sword.
11. And Gideon went up by way of the tent-dwellers, east of Nobah and Rogbehah. And he struck the camp, though the camp felt secure.
12. And Zebah and Zalmunna fled, and he pursued after them. And he captured the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and routed the whole camp.
13. And Gideon ben-Joash returned from the battle by the Ascent of Heres,
14. and he caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and he questioned him, and he wrote down for him the names of the rulers of Succoth and its elders, seventy-seven men.
15. Then he went to the men of Succoth and said, "Behold, Zeba and Zalmunna, concerning whom you mocked me, saying, 'Is the power of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hand, that we should give your weary men bread?'"
16. And he took the elders of the city, and thorns and briars of the wilderness, and with them, he taught the men of Succoth.
17. And he tore down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.
18. And he said to Zeba and Zalmunna, "What kind of men were they that you killed at Tabor?" And they said, "As you are, so were they. Each of them resembled sons of a king."
19. And he said, "They were my brothers, sons of my mother. As Jehovah lives, if you had let them live, I would not kill you."
20. And he said to Jether, his firstborn, "Get up and kill them." But the young man did not draw his sword because he was afraid, for he was still a youth.
21. And Zeba and Zalmunna said, "You get up and fall upon us, for as a man is, so is his strength." Then Gideon arose and killed Zeba and Zalmunna. And he took the crescent-shaped ornaments that were on the necks of their camels.
22. And the men of Israel said to Gideon, "Rule over us, you and your son, and your son's son, because you have delivered us out of the hand of Midian."
23. And Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, and my son will not rule over you. Jehovah will rule over you."
24. But Gideon did say to them, "Let me ask for something from you. Let each of you give me a ring from his spoil." (They had rings of gold because they were Ishmaelites.)
25. And they said, "We will gladly give them!" And they spread out a cloak, and each man threw a ring from his spoil onto it.
26. And the weight of the rings of gold for which he asked was 1,700 shekels of gold, besides the ornaments, and pendants, and purple garments that were on the kings of Midian, and besides the bands that were on the necks of their camels.

27. And Gideon made an ephod out of it, and set it up in his city, in Ophrah, and all Israel committed whoredom with it there, and it became a snare for Gideon and for his house.
28. So, Midian was subdued before the sons of Israel, and they did not lift their head again. And the land was quiet forty years in the days of Gideon.
- ¶29. And Jerubbaal ben-Joash went and dwelt in his own house,
30. and Gideon had seventy sons who came out of his loins, for he had many wives.
31. And his concubine that was in Shechem also bore him a son, and he called his name Abimelech.
32. And Gideon ben-Joash died at a good old age and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.
- ¶33. And it came to pass when Gideon died that the children of Israel turned and went whoring after the Baals, and made Baal-berith⁴ their God,
34. and the children of Israel did not remember Jehovah their God, who had delivered them from all their enemies round about.
35. Nor did they deal faithfully with the house of Jerubbaal (Gideon) for all the good that he had done in Israel.

Judges 9

- ¶1. And Abimelech ben-Jerubbaal went to Shechem, to his mother's kinsmen, and spoke to them and to the whole clan of the house of his mother's father, saying,
2. "Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the leaders of Shechem, 'What will be better for you, that seventy men should rule over you, all the sons of Jerubbaal, or that one man should reign over you? And remember that I am your bone and your flesh.'"
3. And his mother's kinsmen spoke all these words on his behalf in the ears of all the leaders of Shechem, and their hearts were inclined to follow Abimelech because, they said, "He is our kinsman."
4. And they gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-berith, with which Abimelech hired worthless and unscrupulous men, and they followed him.
5. And he went to his father's house at Ophrah and killed his brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, upon a single rock. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, survived, for he hid himself.
- ¶6. Then all the leaders of Shechem and all Beth-millo assembled, and they went and made Abimelech king beside the oak of the pillar that was in Shechem.
7. And when they told Jotham, he went and stood on top of Mount Gerizim, and he lifted up his voice and cried out, and said to them, "Listen to me, you leaders of Shechem, for God has been listening to you!"

⁴ That is, "Baal of the Covenant".

8. The trees set out to anoint a king for themselves, and they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us!'
9. But the olive tree said to them, 'Should I cease from my fatness, in which God and men glory, and go sway over the trees?'
10. So the trees said to the fig-tree, 'You come reign over us!'
11. But the fig-tree said to them, 'Should I leave my sweetness and my wonderful fruit, and go sway over the trees?'
12. So the trees said to the vine, 'You come reign over us!'
13. But the vine said to them, 'Should I leave my new wine, which cheers God and men, and go sway over the trees?'
14. So the trees said to the bramble, 'You come reign over us!'
15. And the bramble said to the trees, 'If you really are anointing me to be king over you, then come, take refuge in my shade. But if not, let fire come out from the bramble and devour the cedars of Lebanon!'
16. So then, if you acted truly and blamelessly when you made Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and with his house, and if you have done to him as his deeds deserve—
for my father fought for you, and risked his life, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian,
18. but you have risen up this day against the house of my father and have killed his sons, seventy men on one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his slave woman, king of the leaders of Shechem because he is your kinsman—
19. if, then, you have dealt truly and blamelessly this day with Jerubbaal and with his house, then rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you!
20. But if not, then let a fire come out of Abimelech and devour the leaders of Shechem and Beth-millo! And let a fire come out from the leaders of Shechem and Beth-millo and devour Abimelech!"
21. Then Jotham escaped and fled, and he went to Beer and dwelt there, away from Abimelech his brother.

¶22. And Abimelech ruled over Israel three years.

23. Then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the leaders of Shechem, and the leaders of Shechem began to deal treacherously with Abimelech,
24. so that the violence that befell the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might come and their blood-guilt be laid upon their brother Abimelech who killed them, and upon the leaders of Shechem, who strengthened his hands to kill his brothers.
25. And the leaders of Shechem set men in ambush against him on the tops of mountains, and they started robbing whoever passed by them on the road. And it was reported to Abimelech.

¶26. And Gaal ben-Ebed and his kinsmen came, and they passed over to Shechem, and the leaders of Shechem put their trust in him.

27. And they went out into the field and harvested their vineyards, and trod them, and offered praises. And they went into the house of their gods and ate and drank, and they reviled Abimelech.
 28. And Gaal ben-Ebed said, "Who is Abimelech! And who is Shechem, that we should serve him! Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and Zebul his deputy? Serve the men of Hamor, the father of Shechem! Why should we serve him?"
 29. Would that this people were put under my hand! I would remove Abimelech! I would say to Abimelech, 'Increase your army, and come out!"
 30. And Zebul, ruler of the city, heard the words of Gaal ben-Ebed, and his anger was kindled,
 31. and he secretly sent messengers to Abimelech, saying, "Behold, Gaal ben-Ebed and his kinsmen have come to Shechem, and they are turning the city against you."
 32. Now, therefore, come up by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field.
 33. And it shall be, in the morning, as soon as the sun comes up, you rise and attack the city, and behold, when he and the people with him come out against you, you may deal with him as you are able."
- ¶34. And Abimelech rose by night, and all the people with him, and they lay in wait against Shechem in four companies.
35. And Gaal ben-Ebed went out and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city, and Abimelech and the people that were with him rose up from the ambush.
 36. And Gaal ben-Ebed saw the people, and he said to Zebul, "Behold! People are coming down from the mountaintops." And Zebul said to him, "The shadow on the mountains is looking like people to you."
- ¶37. And once more, Gaal ben-Ebed spoke, saying, "Behold, people are coming down from the height of the land, and one company is coming by way of the Diviners' Oak."
38. Then Zebul said to him, "Where is your mouth now, you who said, 'Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?' Isn't this the company you made light of? Go out now, I pray you, and fight against him!"
 39. And Gaal went out before the leaders of Shechem and fought against Abimelech.
 40. And Abimelech pursued him, and he fled from his face. And many of the wounded fell, to the entrance of the gate.
 41. And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah. And Zebul ordered Gaal and his kinsmen out from dwelling in Shechem.
 42. And it was to be the next day that the people were to go out into the open, and some reported it to Abimelech.
 43. So, he took the people and divided them into three companies, and he lay wait in the field. And he looked, and behold, the people began to come out from the city, and he rose up against them and struck them down.

44. Now, Abimelech and the companies that were with him had rushed forward and positioned themselves at the entrance of the gate of the city, and two of the companies attacked and killed all those in the field.
45. And Abimelech fought against the city all that day, and he took the city and slew the people who were in it. And then, he razed the city and sowed it with salt.
- ¶46. And when all the lords of the Tower of Shechem heard of it, they entered into a hewn-out chamber of the temple of El-berith.
47. And it was reported to Abimelech that all the lords of the Tower of Shechem were gathered together.
48. So Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people with him, and Abimelech took axes in his hand, and he cut a bough of the trees, and picked it up, and laid it on his shoulder, and said to the people who were with him, “What you have seen me do, hurry and do likewise.”
49. And all the people, each man, also cut a bough and followed after Abimelech, and they laid it over the chamber, and set fire to the stronghold upon them so that all the men of the Tower of Shechem died, about a thousand men and women.
- ¶50. Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.
51. But a strong tower was in the midst of the city, and all the men and women fled there with all the leaders of the city, and they shut the doors behind them. And they went up on the roof of the tower.
52. And Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it, and he drew near the entrance of the tower to burn it with fire.
53. But a certain woman threw an upper millstone on Abimelech’s head, and it crushed his skull.
54. And immediately, he called the young man who bore his armor and said to him, “Draw your sword and kill me, lest it be said of me ‘A woman killed him’!” So the young man ran him through, and he died.
55. And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they went, each one, to his own place.
56. So, God repaid Abimelech for the evil which he had done to his father, in murdering his seventy brothers.
57. Also, God caused all the evil of the men of Shechem to return upon their heads, so that upon them came the curse of Jotham ben-Jerubbaal.

Judges 10

- ¶1. And after Abimelech, a man of Issachar arose to deliver Israel, Tola ben-Puah the son of Dodo, and he dwelt in Shamir, in the hill country of Ephraim.
2. And he judged Israel twenty-three years, and he died and was buried at Shamir.
- ¶3. And after him arose Jair the Gileadite, and he judged Israel twenty-two years.

4. And he had thirty sons who rode on thirty mules, and they had thirty villages which are in the territory of Gilead. They are called Havvoth-Jair⁵ to this day.
5. And Jair died and was buried in Kamon.
- ¶6. Then again, the children of Israel did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, and they served the Baals and Ashtaroth, and gods of Aram, and gods of Sidon, and gods of Moab, and gods of Ammon, and gods of Philistia. And they forsook Jehovah and would not serve Him.
7. And Jehovah's anger was kindled against Israel, and He sold them into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the children of Ammon,
8. and beginning that year, they crushed and oppressed the children of Israel eighteen years, along with all the children of Israel who were beyond the Jordan, in the land of the Amorites, which is Gilead.
9. And the children of Ammon crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah also, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim, and Israel was greatly distressed.
10. And the children of Israel cried out to Jehovah, saying, "We have sinned against you, in that we have forsaken our God and served the Baals!"
11. And Jehovah said to the children of Israel, "Did I not deliver you from Egypt, and from the Amorites, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?"
12. And when the Sidonians, and Amalek, and Maon oppressed you, and you cried out to me, I delivered you out of their hand.
13. Yet you have forsaken me and served other gods. Therefore, I will not deliver you again!
14. Go and cry out to the gods you have chosen! Let them save you in the time of your distress."
15. And the children of Israel said to Jehovah, "We have sinned! Do to us whatever seems good to you. Only deliver us, we beseech you, this day!"
16. And they put away the foreign gods from their midst, and served Jehovah. And His soul could no longer bear Israel's misery.
- ¶17. And the children of Ammon were mustered, and they camped in Gilead, and the children of Israel came together and camped in Mizpah.
18. And the people, the princes of Gilead, each said to his neighbor, "Who is the man who will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? He will be the head of all the inhabitants of Gilead."

Judges 11

- ¶1. Now, Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty warrior, but he was the son of a harlot, and Gilead had fathered Jephthah.

⁵ That is, "Villages of Jair"

2. And Gilead's wife bore him sons, and when the wife's sons were grown, they drove Jephthah away and said to him, "You have no inheritance in the house of our father, for you are the son of another woman."
 3. So, Jephthah fled from the face of his brothers, and he dwelt in the land of Tob. And worthless men gathered themselves to Jephthah, and they went out with him.
- ¶4. But it happened after those days that the sons of Ammon fought against Israel,
5. and it came to pass that when the sons of Ammon fought against Israel that the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah from the land of Tob.
 6. And they said to Jephthah, "Come and be our commander, that we may fight against the sons of Ammon."
 7. But Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Did you not hate me and drive me out of my father's house? So, why do you come to me now, when you are in trouble?"
 8. And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "For this reason, we have turned to you now, that you might go with us, and fight against the sons of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."
 9. And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you bring me back to fight against the sons of Ammon, and Jehovah gives them over to me, I will be your head."
 10. And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "Jehovah is witness between us. May God damn us if we do not do as you say."⁶
 11. And so, Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head over them and commander, and Jephthah spoke all his words before Jehovah in Mizpah.
- ¶12. And Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the children of Ammon, saying, "What is there between me and you, that you have come to me to fight in my land?
13. And the king of the children of Ammon said to Jephthah's messengers, "I am come because Israel, when he came up from Egypt, took my land, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and to the Jordan. Therefore, return them now, peacefully!"
 14. Then, once more, Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the children of Ammon,
 15. and he said to him, "Thus says Jephthah: Israel did not take away the land of Moab or the land of the children of Ammon,
 16. for when Israel came up from Egypt, they went by way of the desert to the Red Sea and then came to Kadesh.
 17. And Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, 'Let me, I pray you, pass through your land.' But the king of Edom would not listen. Likewise, Israel sent to the king of Moab, but he would not consent. So, Israel remained in Kadesh.
 18. Then, they walked through the desert and went around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and they came in on the east side of the land of Moab and camped on the

⁶ Literally, only "— if we do not do as you say." The curse intended with this oath is so horrific—calling for one's own death and damnation—that it is not even uttered.

- other side of Arnon, and they did not come within the border of Moab [for Arnon is the border of Moab].
19. And Israel sent messengers to Sihon, king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon, and Israel said to him, ‘Let us pass through your land, we pray you, to my place.’
 20. But Sihon did not trust Israel to cross his border; so, Sihon gathered all his people and camped at Jahaz, and he fought against Israel.
 21. And Jehovah, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them down. So, Israel took possession of all the land of the Amorites who dwelt in that land.
 22. And they took possession of all the territory belonging to the Amorites, from the Arnon to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness to the Jordan.
 23. So then, Jehovah, the God of Israel, dispossessed the Amorites from before His people Israel, and you would dispossess him!
 24. Why not possess what Chemosh your god gives you to possess? And all whom Jehovah our God dispossesses before us, we will take possession of.
 25. So now, are you any better than Balak ben-Zippor, the king of Moab? Did he ever contend against Israel or ever go to war against them?
 26. All the while Israel lived in Heshbon and its villages, and in Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities that are along the Arnon—three hundred years!—how is it that you did not try to recover them during that time?
 27. So, I have not sinned against you, but you are doing me wrong in making war against me. Jehovah, the Judge, be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon!”
 28. But the king of the children of Ammon would not hear the words of Jephthah that he sent to him.
- ¶29. Then the Spirit of Jehovah came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and he passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead, he passed over to the children of Ammon.
30. And Jephthah made a vow to Jehovah and said, “If you completely give the sons of Ammon into my hand,
 31. then whatever comes out the door of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the children of Ammon shall be Jehovah’s, and I will offer it as a burnt offering.”
- ¶32. Then Jephthah passed over to the sons of Ammon to fight against them, and Jehovah gave them into his hand,
33. and he struck them down from Aroer until you come to Minnith, twenty towns, even to Abel-keramim, a very great slaughter, and the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.
- ¶34. Then Jephthah came to Mizpah, to his house, and behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and dancing, and she was his only child; he had no other, neither son nor daughter.

35. And it came to pass when he saw her that he tore his clothes and said, “Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low, and you have brought calamity upon me! I have opened my mouth before Jehovah, and I cannot undo it.”
36. But she said to him, “My father, if you have opened your mouth to Jehovah, do to me according to what came forth from your mouth, since Jehovah has wrought vengeance for you upon your enemies, upon the sons of Ammon.”
37. And she said to her father, “Let this thing be done for me. Withhold your hand from me for two months, that I may go up and down on the mountains and weep for my virginity, I and my friends.”
38. And he said, “Go.” And he sent her away for two months, and she went, she and her friends, and she wept on the mountains for her virginity.
39. And it came to pass at the end of two months that she returned to her father, and he did to her according to his oath which he had made, and she had not known a man. And it became a statute in Israel
40. that, from year to year, the daughters of Israel should go to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite for four days each year.

Judges 12

- ¶1. And the army of Ephraim was summoned, and it crossed over to Zaphon, and they said to Jephthah, “Why did you cross over to fight against the sons of Ammon without calling us to come with you? We will burn down your house with fire on top of you!”
2. And Jephthah said to them, “I was a man in a great dispute, I and my people, with the sons of Ammon, and I called for you, but you did not rescue me from their hand.
3. And when I saw that you would provide no deliverance, I took my life into my own hand and crossed over to the sons of Ammon, and Jehovah gave them into my hand. So, why have you come up to me this day to fight against me?”
4. Then Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead and fought Ephraim, and the men of Gilead struck Ephraim down because they had said, “You Gileadites are fugitives from Ephraim and from Manasseh.”
5. And Gilead captured the fords of Jordan belonging to Ephraim, and it came to pass when the fugitives of Ephraim would say, “Let me go over,” then the men of Gilead would say to him, “Are you an Ephraimite?” And he would say, “No.”
6. And they would say to him, “If you will, say ‘shibboleth.’” But he would say, “sibboleth”, not being able to say it rightly. Then they would seize him and kill him at the fords of Jordan. And there fell at that time 42,000 men from Ephraim.
7. And Jephthah judged Israel six years. And Jephthah the Gileadite died, and he was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.
- ¶8. And after him, Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel.
9. And he had thirty sons. And he sent thirty daughters abroad, and he brought in from abroad thirty daughters for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years.
10. And Ibzan died, and he was buried in Bethlehem.

- ¶11. And after him, Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel. And he judged Israel ten years.
12. And Elon the Zebulunite died, and he was buried in Aijalon in the territory of Zebulun.
- ¶13. And after him, Abdon ben-Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel.
14. And he had forty sons and thirty grandsons who rode on seventy donkeys. And he judged Israel eight years.
15. And Abdon ben-Hillel the Pirathonite died, and he was buried in Pirathon in the territory of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

Judges 13

- ¶1. And the children of Israel began again to do what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, and so, Jehovah gave them over into the hand of the Philistines forty years.
- ¶2. And there was a certain man from Zorah, from the family of the Danites, and his name was Manoah, and his wife was barren and could not bear children.
3. And an angel of Jehovah appeared to the woman and said to her, "Behold now, you are barren and cannot bear, but you have conceived and will bear a son.
4. So, take heed now, I warn you, that you do not drink wine or strong drink, or eat any unclean thing,
5. for behold, you are with child, and you will bear a son, and no razor shall come upon his head, but the boy will be a Nazirite to God from the womb, and he will begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.
6. And the woman went and told her husband, saying, "A man of God came to me, and his appearance was like the appearance of an angel of God, very fearsome, but I did not ask him where he was from, and he did not tell me his name."
7. And he said to me, 'Behold, you have conceived and will bear a son. So, for the time being, do not drink wine or strong drink, nor eat anything unclean, because the young man will be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death.'
- ¶8. And Manoah made entreaty to Jehovah, and he said, "O my Lord, let the man of God you sent come again to us, I pray, and show us how we are to deal with the child that will be born."
9. And God heard the voice of Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field, but Manoah her husband was not with her.
10. And the woman made haste and ran, and she told her husband, and said to him, "Behold, he has appeared to me, the man who came to me that day!"
11. And Manoah rose up and followed his wife and came to the man, and he said to him, "Are you the man who spoke to the woman?" And he said, "I am."
12. And Manoah said, "May your words now come to pass! What will the boy's rule and work be?"
13. And the angel of Jehovah said to Manoah, "Let the woman observe all that I said to her."

14. She may not eat anything that comes from the vineyard, nor shall she drink either wine or strong drink, nor shall she eat anything unclean. Let her observe all that I have commanded her."
15. And Manoah said to the angel of Jehovah, "Let us detain you, if you will, while we prepare a kid of the goats for you."
16. And the angel of Jehovah said to Manoah, "If you detain me, I will not eat of your food. But if you prepare a burnt offering, you should offer it to Jehovah." (For Manoah did not know that he was the angel of Jehovah.)
17. And Manoah said to the angel of Jehovah, "What is your name, so that when your sayings come to pass, we may do you honor?"
18. And the angel of Jehovah said to him, "Why do you ask for my name, seeing it is secret?"
19. Then Manoah took a kid of the goats, and the grain offering, and made an offering on the rock to Jehovah. And he began to act wondrously as Manoah and his wife looked on.
20. And it came to pass that as the flame from the altar went up toward heaven, the angel of Jehovah went up in the flame of the altar. And when Manoah and his wife saw it, they fell on their faces to the earth.
21. (And the angel of Jehovah did not again appear to Manoah or to his wife.) Then Manoah knew that he was the angel of Jehovah.
22. And Manoah said to his wife, "We are doomed to die because we have seen God!"
23. And his wife said to him, "If it pleased Jehovah to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and grain offering from our hand, and He would not have shown us all these things, and He would not now have made us hear such a thing."
24. And the woman gave birth to a son, and she called his name Samson. And the boy grew, and Jehovah blessed him.
25. And the Spirit of Jehovah began to move on him in Mahaneh-Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Judges 14

- ¶1. And Samson went down to Timnah, and he saw a woman in Timnah among the daughters of the Philistines.
2. Then he went up and told his father and his mother, and said, "I have seen a woman among the daughters of the Philistines in Timnah; so, get her for me to wife, now!"
3. But his father and his mother said to him, "Is there not one among the daughters of your kinsmen or a woman among all my people, that you would go to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" But Samson said to his father, "Get her for me! For she pleases me."
4. Now, his father and his mother did not know that it was of Jehovah, for He was setting up a situation with the Philistines because at that time, the Philistines ruled over Israel.
- ¶5. And Samson went down with his father and his mother to Timnah. And he came to the vineyards of Timnah, and behold, a young lion came at him, roaring.

6. And the Spirit of Jehovah came mightily upon him, and he tore him apart as if tearing a young goat, and there was nothing in his hand. And he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.
7. And he went on down and spoke to the woman, and she pleased Samson.
8. And after some days, he returned to take her, but he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion. And behold, a swarm of bees, was within the lion's dead body, and honey.
9. And he scraped out some into his hands, and then went on, eating as he went. And he came to his father and his mother and gave some to them, and they ate it. But he did not tell them he scraped the honey out of the lion's carcass.
10. And his father went down to the woman, and Samson made a feast there, for the young men used to do that.
11. And it came to pass that when they saw him, they brought thirty attendants so that they might be with him.
12. And Samson said to them, "Let me, if I may, put a riddle to you. If you declare it to me within the seven days of the feast, and figure it out, then I will give you thirty linen coats and thirty changes of raiment."
13. But if you are not able to declare it to me, then you must give me thirty linen coats and thirty changes of raiment." And they said to him, "Put forth your riddle, that we may hear it!"
14. And he said to them, "Out of the eater came forth food, and out of the powerful came forth sweetness." And for three days, they were not able to declare the riddle.
15. And it came to pass before the seventh day that they said to Samson's wife, "Entice your husband to explain the riddle for us, lest we burn you and your father's house with fire. You invited us in order to plunder us, didn't you? Didn't you?"
16. So, Samson's wife wept upon him, saying, "You just hate me instead of loving me! You put forth a riddle to the children of my people, but to me, you did not explain it." And he said to her, "Behold, I haven't explained it to my father or my mother, but I am going to explain it to you."
17. And she kept weeping before him the seven days during which the feast continued. And it came to pass on the seventh day that he explained it to her because she pressed him, and she then explained the riddle to the sons of her people.
18. And the men of the city told him on the seventh day before the sun went down, "What is sweeter than honey? And what is stronger than a lion?" And he said to them, "Had you not plowed with my heifer, you would not have found out my riddle."
19. Then the Spirit of Jehovah came upon him mightily, and he went down to Ashkelon, and he killed thirty of them, and took their spoil, and gave the garments to the men who explained the riddle, but his anger was burning. And he went up to his father's house.
- ¶20. But Samson's wife became the wife of his companion, who had been his friend.

- ¶1. And it came to pass after some days, during the days of wheat harvest, that Samson went to visit his wife with a kid of the goats, for he said, “I will go in to my wife, in her chamber.” But her father would not allow him to go in.
2. And her father said, “I truly thought that you utterly hated her, and so, I gave her to your companion. Isn’t her younger sister prettier than she is? I beg you, take this one instead of her.”
3. And Samson said to them, “I will be blameless this time regarding the Philistines when I do them damage.”
4. And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and he took torches, and turned the foxes tail to tail, and put a torch between the two tails.
5. Then he set the torches on fire and released the foxes into the Philistines’ fields of standing grain, and he burned up both the stacked and the standing grain, as well as the olive orchards.
6. And the Philistines said, “Who did this?” And they said, “Samson, the Timnite’s son-in-law, because he took his wife and gave her to his companion.” And the Philistines went up and burned her and her father with fire.
7. Then Samson said to them, “Since you have done such a thing, I will surely avenge myself of you, and afterwards, I will stop.”
8. And he struck them down, hip and thigh, with a great slaughter, and then went down and sat in a cleft of the cliff of Etam.
9. And the Philistines went up and camped in Judah, and they made raids in Lehi.
10. And the men of Judah said, “Why have you come up against us?” And they said, “To bind Samson. We have come up to do to him as he did to us.”
11. And three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the cliff of Etam and said to Samson, “Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? So, what is this you have done to us?” And he said to them, “As they did to me, so have I done to them.”
12. And they said to him, “We have come down to tie you up and hand you over to the Philistines.” And Samson said to them, “Swear to me that you, yourselves, will not harm me.”
13. And they answered him, saying, “No. But we will tie you up tight and give you into their hand, but we ourselves will not kill you.” And they bound him with two new cords and brought him up from the cliff.
14. And when he came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted when they met him, but the Spirit of Jehovah came upon him mightily, and the cords that were on his arms became like strands of flax that is burned in the fire, and his bonds melted off his hands.
15. And he found a fresh jawbone⁷ of an ass, and he reached out his hand and took it, and killed a thousand men with it.

⁷ “Lehi” means “jawbone”.

16. And Samson said, “With the jawbone of an ass, a heap—two heaps! With the jawbone of an ass have I slain a thousand men!”
17. And it came to pass when he had ceased speaking that he threw the jawbone from his hand, and called that place Ramath-Lehi.⁸
18. Then he grew very thirsty, and he called on Jehovah, and said, “You gave this great salvation by the hand of your servant, and now, I am dying of thirst and I will fall into the hand of the uncircumcised!”
19. And God split open a hollow place that is in Lehi, and water came out of it. And he drank, and his spirit revived, and he lived. Therefore, he called its name, En-Hakkore.⁹ It is in Lehi to this day.
20. And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

Judges 16

- ¶1. Then Samson went to Gaza, and he saw there a woman prostitute and went in to her.
2. And one told the Gazites, “Samson has come here!” So, they gathered around and lay in wait for him all that night at the city gate. And they stayed quiet all that night, thinking, “At morning light, we will kill him.”
3. And Samson lay until the middle of the night, and rose at midnight and took hold of the doors of the city gate and the two doorposts, and he pulled them up with the bar, and put them on his shoulders and carried them up to the top of the hill that is before Hebron.
- ¶4. And it came to pass after this that he fell in love with a woman in the Valley of Sorek, and her name was Delilah.
5. And the lords of the Philistines came up to her and said to her, “Seduce him and find out wherein his great strength lies and how we may overpower him, that we may bind him to humble him, and each one of us will give you eleven hundred pieces of silver”.
6. So Delilah said to Samson, “Tell me, I beg you, wherein your great strength lies, and how you might be bound so as to humble you.”
7. And Samson said to her, “If they bind me with seven damp cords that have not been dried, then I will become weak, and be like the next man.”
8. And the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh cords that had not been dried, and she bound him with them.
9. Now, she had an ambush waiting in the chamber. Then she said, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” And he snapped off the cords as a thread of flax snaps when it touches fire. So, he had not revealed the secret of his strength.
10. And Delilah said to Samson, “Behold, you deceived me and told me lies. Tell me, please, how you might be bound.”

⁹ En-hakkore means “the spring of him who called”.

11. And he said to her, “If they bind me tightly with new ropes that have not been used for work, then I will become weak, and be like the next man.”
12. So Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them. Then she said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” (For the ambush was waiting in the chamber.) But he snapped the ropes from off his arms like a thread.
13. And Delilah said to Samson, “Until now you have deceived me and told me lies. Tell me how you can be bound!” And he said to her, “If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web of the loom, I will become weak.”
14. And so, she fastened his locks with the pin, and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” And he awoke from his sleep and pulled away the pin of the loom and the web.
15. And she said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when your heart is not with me? These three times, you have deceived me and not told me wherein your great strength lies.”
16. And so it happened that because she pressed him with her words every day, and hounded him, and vexed his soul to death,
17. that he revealed to her his whole heart and said to her, “No razor has come upon my head because I am a Nazirite of God from my mother’s womb. If I am shaved, my strength will leave me, and I will become weak, and be like any man.”
18. And when Delilah saw that he had divulged to her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines and said, “Come up once more!” For he had divulged to her all his heart. And the lords of the Philistines came to her and brought the silver in their hand.
19. And she made him sleep upon her knees, and then summoned the man and had him shave off the seven locks of his head. Thus she began his humiliation, for his strength left him.
20. And she said, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” Then he woke up from his sleep, and he said, “I will go out just like before and shake myself free.” But he did not know that Jehovah had departed from him.
21. And the Philistines seized him, and they bore out his eyes, and they led him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze shackles. And he was a grinder in the house of prisoners.
22. But the hair of his head began to grow out after it was shaved.
- ¶23. And the lords of the Philistines were gathered together to make a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to celebrate. And they said, “Our god has given Samson our great enemy into our hand!”
24. And when the people saw him, they praised their god, for they said, “Our god has given our enemy into our hand, the ravager of our land, and the one who slew so many of us!”

25. And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, "Call for Samson! Let him entertain us!" So, they called for Samson from the house of prisoners, and he made sport before them. Then they made him stand between the pillars.
26. And Samson said to the young man who was holding him by the hand, "Let go of me so that I can feel the pillars that this building rests upon, so I can lean on them."
27. Now, the house was filled with men and women, and all the lords of the Philistines were there. And on the roof were about three-thousand men and women who had been looking on while Samson entertained.
28. And Samson cried out to Jehovah, and said, "My Lord Jehovah! Remember me, and strengthen me, I beseech you, just this one time, O God, that with one act of vengeance, I might avenge myself of the Philistines for my two eyes!"
29. Then Samson grasped the two middle pillars upon which the house rested, and he braced himself against them, his right hand on one, and his left hand on the other.
30. And Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines!" And he bowed himself with all his might, and the house collapsed upon the lords and upon all the people that were in it. And so it was that the dead that he killed at his death were many more than the ones he killed while he lived.
31. And his brothers, and all the house of his father, went down and took him, and they brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol, in the burial place of Manoah his father. And he had judged Israel twenty years.

Judges 17

- ¶1. Then there was a man from the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Micaiah.
2. And he said to his mother, "The eleven hundred pieces of silver of yours that were taken, and about which you uttered a curse, and even spoke it in my ears—behold, the silver is with me. I took it." And his mother said, "Blessed of Jehovah be my son!"
3. And he restored the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother. And his mother said, "I had solemnly dedicated the silver to Jehovah from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and a molten image, and then I will bring it back to you."
4. So he restored the silver to his mother, and his mother took two hundred pieces of silver and gave it to the silversmith, and he made it into a graven image and a molten image. And it was in the house of Micaiah.
5. Now, the man Micah had a house of gods, and he made an ephod, and teraphim, and he ordained one of his sons, and he became his priest.
6. In those days, there was no king in Israel; each man did what was right in his own eyes.
- ¶7. And there was a young man of Bethlehem-Judah of the family of Judah, and he was a Levite, and he was sojourning there.
8. And the man went from the city, from Bethlehem-Judah, to sojourn wherever he could find to make his living, and he came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah.

9. And Micah said to him, “Where’d you come from?” And he said to him, “I am a Levite from Bethlehem-Judah, and I am going to sojourn wherever I can find a position.”
10. And Micah said, “Stay with me, and be my father and priest, and I will give you ten silver pieces per year, and a suit of clothes, and your living.” So, the Levite stayed.
11. And the Levite agreed to dwell with the man, and the young man became to him as one of his sons.
12. And Micah ordained the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and he was in the house of Micah.
13. And Micah said, “Now I know that Jehovah will do me good, because I have a Levite for a priest.”

Judges 18

- ¶1. In those days, there was no king in Israel. And in those days, the tribe of the Danites was looking for an inheritance for himself to live in because until that day, an inheritance had not fallen to it among the tribes of Israel.
2. So, the children of Dan sent beyond their borders five men from their family, mighty men, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land and explore it. And they said to them, “Go explore the land.” And they came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and they lodged there.
3. When they were near the house of Micah, they took note of the voice of the young man, the Levite, and they turned aside there. And they said to him, “Who brought you here?” and “What are you doing in this place?” and “What do you have here?”
4. And he told them, “Thus and so has Micah done for me, and hired me, and I am his priest.”
5. And they said to him, “Inquire of God, if you will, that we may know if the journey on which we are going will prosper.”
6. And the priest said to them, “Go in peace! Before Jehovah is your way in which you go.”
- ¶7. Then the five men left, and they came to Laish. And they observed how the people in it were living confidently, after the custom of the Sidonians, undisturbed and unsuspecting, and no one in the land was lacking a thing, but possessed wealth.¹⁰ Moreover, they were far from the Sidonians and had no dealings with any man.
8. And they came to their brothers at Zorah and Eshtaol, and their brothers said to them, “What news?”
9. And they said, “Rise, and let us go up against them! For we saw the land, and behold, it is very good. And you are sitting still! Do not be slow to go and move in to possess the land!”

¹⁰ Hebrew uncertain.

10. When you go in, you will come to an unsuspecting people and a spacious land. Surely, God has given it into your hand, a place where there is no lack of anything that is in the earth!"
11. So, some of the family of the Danites set out from there, six hundred men from Zorah and Eshtaol, girt with weapons of war.
12. And they went up and camped in Kirjath-jearim in Judah. That is why they called that place Mahaneh-Dan¹¹ to this day. Behold, it is west of Kirjath-jearim.
13. And they passed on from there to the hill country of Ephraim, and they came to the house of Micah.
14. Then the five men who had gone up to spy out the territory of Laish spoke and said to their kinsmen, "Did you know that among these buildings is an ephod and teraphim, and a graven image and a molten image? So now, think about what you should do."
15. And they turned aside to that place and entered the house of the young man, the Levite, the house belonging to Micah. And they asked him of his welfare.
16. Now, the six hundred men who were of the sons of Dan, girt with their weapons of war, stood at the entrance of the gate
17. while the five men who went to spy out the land went in there to take the graven image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image. And the priest stood at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men girt with weapons of war.
18. But those men went in Micah's house and took the graven image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image. And the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"
19. And they said to him, "Shut up! Put your hand over your mouth and come with us and be a father and priest to us. Is it better for you to be priest for one man's house or to be priest for a tribe, and for a family in Israel?"
20. And the priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the company.
21. So, they turned and went away, putting the children, and the cattle, and the goods ahead of them.
22. They were a good distance from Micah's house when the men who were in the houses close to Micah's house were called together, and they overtook the children of Dan.
23. And they cried out to the children of Dan, and they turned around and said to Micah, "What's the matter with you, that you have assembled this company?"
24. And he said, "You took my gods and the priest that I made, and went away! And what is left for me! So, how is it that you say to me, 'What's the matter with you?'"
25. And the sons of Dan said to him, "Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest hot-tempered men fall upon you and you lose your life, along with the life of your household."

¹¹ That is, "Camp of Dan".

26. Then the children of Dan went on their way. And Micah saw that they were too strong for him, so he turned and went back to his house.
27. And they took what Micah had made and the priest that was his, and they moved in on Laish, on a people undisturbed and unsuspecting, and they struck them with the edge of the sword and burned their city with fire.
28. There was no deliverer because it was far from Sidon, and they had no dealings with anyone. And it was in the valley that is near Beth-rehob. And they rebuilt the city and began living in it.
29. And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan, their father, who was born to Israel. However, Laish was name of the city at first.
30. And the children of Dan set up for themselves the graven image, and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Moses,¹² he and his sons, were priests for the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land.
31. And they set up for themselves Micah's graven image that he made all the days the house of God was in Shiloh.

Judges 19

- ¶1. Now, it came to pass in those days when there was no king in Israel that there was a certain Levite sojourning on the far side of the hill country of Ephraim, and he took for himself a woman from Bethlehem-Judah as a concubine.
2. But his concubine played the harlot against him, and went away from him to her father's house, to Bethlehem-Judah. And she was there for a period of four months.
3. Then her husband arose and went after her, to speak kindly to her, to bring back what was his, and with him were his servant and a couple of asses. Then she brought him into the house of her father, and when the girl's father saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.
4. And his father-in-law, the girl's father, compelled him to stay with him three days, and so, they ate and drank and lodged there.
5. And it came to pass on the fourth day, that they arose early in the morning, and he rose up to depart, but the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Strengthen your heart with a bit of bread, and afterward, you may go."
6. So, they both sat down together and ate and drank, and then the girl's father said to the man, "Be content, I pray you, to stay tonight and let your heart be merry."
7. And the man rose up to leave, but his father-in-law urged him. So, he sat down and stayed there that night.
8. And he arose early in the morning of the fifth day to go, but the girl's father said to him, "Strengthen your heart, I pray you, and tarry until the day declines." And so, the two of them ate.

¹² Many manuscripts have "Gershom, the son of Manasseh".

9. Then the man rose up to go, he and his concubine and his servant, but his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Behold now, the day is fading away to evening. Stay here tonight, I pray you. Behold, the day is drawing to a close. Spend the night here and let your heart be merry. Then you can get up early tomorrow for your journey and go to your tent."
10. But the man was unwilling to spend the night, and he rose up and went. And he arrived opposite Jebus (the same is Jerusalem), and with him were a pair of saddled asses, and his concubine was with him.
11. They were close to Jebus, and the day was far gone, and so, his servant said to his master, "Come, if you will, and let's turn aside to this city of the Jebusites and spend the night in it."
12. But his master said to him, "We will not turn aside there, into a city of foreigners, where there are none of the children of Israel. But let's pass on toward Gibeah."
13. Then he said to his servant, "Come on, and let's draw near one of these places and spend the night in Gibeah or in Ramah."
14. So, they passed on and went their way, and the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin.
15. So, they turned aside there to go in to spend the night in Gibeah. And he went in and sat down in the city square, but no man would take them into his house to spend the night.
16. And behold, at evening an old man came in from his work in the field. Now, the man hailed from the hill country of Ephraim, but he was sojourning in Gibeah, and the men of that place were Benjaminites.
17. And he lifted up his eyes and saw the man who was a traveler in the city square, and the old man said, "Where are you going, and where did you come from?"
18. And he said to him, "We're passing through, from Bethlehem-Judah to the far side of the hill country of Ephraim. I am from there, and I went to Bethlehem-Judah, and I am going to the house of Jehovah, but there is no man to take me into his house."
19. Yet, there is both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and there is bread and wine for me, and for your handmaid, and for the young man who is with your servants. There is no lack of anything."
20. And the old man said, "Though you have enough, all your needs will be on me. Only, you must not spend the night in the square."
21. Then he brought him into his house, and he gave provender to the asses, and he washed their feet, and they ate and drank.
22. They were making their heart merry when, behold, men of the city, men who were sons of Belial, surrounded the house, pounding on the door, and they spoke to the old man, the master of the house, saying, "Bring out the man who came into your house, that we may know him!"

23. And the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, "No, my brothers, do not do this wickedness, I beg you, seeing that this is a man who has come into my house! Do not do this disgraceful thing!"
24. Behold, my virgin daughter and his concubine. I will bring them out, if you will, and you may humble them and do to them whatever seems good in your eyes, but to this man, you must not do this disgraceful thing!"
25. But the men would not listen to him. Then the man grabbed his concubine and brought her out to them, and they knew her and abused her all that night until morning, and they let her go at the break of dawn.
26. And as morning was dawning, the woman came and fell down at the door of the man's house where her master was, until it was light.
27. And her master arose in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go on his way. And behold, the woman, his concubine, was fallen down at the door of the house, with her hands on the threshold.
28. And he said to her, "Get up, and let's go." But there was no response. Then he put her on the donkey, and the man rose up and went to his place.
29. And he went into his house and took a knife, and then he took hold of his concubine and divided her, limb by limb, into twelve pieces and sent her into every territory in Israel.
30. And it came to pass that everyone who saw it said, "Such as this has not happened or been seen since the day the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt until this day! Consider it; take counsel; and then speak!"

Judges 20

- ¶1. Then all the children of Israel came out, from Dan to Beersheba, and the territory of Gilead, and the congregation assembled as one man before Jehovah at Mizpah.
2. And the leaders of all the people, all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand men, footmen who drew the sword.
- ¶3. (Now, the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpah.) And the children of Israel said, "Tell us, how did this wickedness happen?"
4. And the man, the Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, answered and said, "At Gibeah that belongs to Benjamin, I went in, I and my concubine, to spend the night.
5. And the rulers of Gibeah rose up against me and surrounded the house about me at night. Me, they thought to kill, and my concubine they humbled, and she died.
6. Then I took my concubine and cut her into pieces, and I sent her throughout the extent of the inheritance of Israel because they had done wickedness and a disgraceful deed in Israel.
7. Behold, all you sons of Israel! Give your decision and counsel here!"
8. Then all the people rose up as one man, saying, "Not a man will go to his tent, and not a man will turn aside to his house,

9. but this is the thing that we will do now to Gibeah: we will go up against it by lot.
10. And we will take ten men of a hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred of a thousand, and a thousand of ten thousand, to take provisions for the militia to use when they go against Geba of Benjamin because of all the outrage which Benjamin had done in Israel.
11. And all the men of Israel gathered against the city, united as one man.
- ¶12. And the heads of Israel sent men to all the heads of Benjamin, saying, “What is this evil that was done among you?
13. Hand over the men, the sons of Belial, who are in Gibeah now, so that we may put them to death and purge Israel of evil!” But Benjamin would not heed the voice of their brothers, the sons of Israel.
14. And the sons of Benjamin came together out of their cities to Gibeah, to go out and do battle against the sons of Israel.
15. And from their cities, the sons of Benjamin mustered twenty-six thousand men that day who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who numbered seven hundred chosen men.
16. Among all this company were seven hundred chosen men, left-handed, all of whom could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.
- ¶17. And, excluding Benjamin, the men of Israel mustered four hundred thousand men who drew the sword, each one a man of war.
18. Then they arose and went up to Bethel, and they inquired of God. And the sons of Israel said, “Who shall first go up for us to the battle with the sons of Benjamin?” And Jehovah said, “Judah first.”
19. So the sons of Israel arose in the morning and encamped against Gibeah.
- ¶20. And the men of Israel went out for the battle against Benjamin, and the men of Israel set the battle in order against them at Gibeah.
21. And the sons of Benjamin went out from Gibeah, and in Israel that day, they destroyed to the earth twenty-two thousand men.
22. But the people, the men of Israel, strengthened themselves to set the battle in order again in the place where they set it on the first day.
23. However, the sons of Israel had gone up and wept before Jehovah until the evening, and they had inquired of Jehovah, saying, “Am I again to draw near for battle against the sons of Benjamin my brother?” And Jehovah said, “Go up against him.”
- ¶24. So, the sons of Israel drew near the sons of Benjamin on the second day.
25. And Benjamin went out from Gibeah to meet them the second day, and once more, they destroyed to the earth eighteen thousand men, all of them men who drew the sword.
26. Then all the sons of Israel went up, and all the people, and they came to Bethel and wept, and sat there before Jehovah, and they fasted that day until evening, and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before Jehovah.

27. And the sons of Israel inquired of Jehovah (the ark of the covenant of God was there during those days,
 28. and Phinehas ben-Eleazar the son of Aaron stood before it in those days), saying, “Am I to go out yet again for the battle against the sons of Benjamin my brother, or shall I desist?” And Jehovah said, “Go up! For tomorrow, I will give him into your hand.”
 29. And Israel set ambushments all around Gibeah.
- ¶30. Then the sons of Israel went up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day and set themselves in array against Gibeah, as they had done the other times.
31. And when the sons of Benjamin came out against the people, they were drawn away from the city, and they began to strike some of the people down as before, on the highways (one of which goes up to Bethel, and one to Gibeah) and in the field, about thirty of the men of Israel.
 32. And the sons of Benjamin said, “They are smitten before us as at the first!” But the sons of Israel had said, “Let’s flee and draw them away from the city to the highways.”
 33. Then all the men of Israel rose from their place and got in battle order at Baal-tamar, while Israel’s ambush burst forth from its place, from Maareh-geba.
 34. And ten thousand chosen men from all Israel came against Gibeah, and the battle was fierce, and they did not know that disaster was closing in on them.
- ¶35. And Jehovah struck Benjamin down before Israel, and the sons of Israel that day destroyed of Benjamin twenty-five thousand one hundred men, all of them men who drew the sword.
36. Then the sons of Benjamin saw that they were smitten and that the men of Israel had given place to Benjamin because they were relying on the ambush they had set against Gibeah.
 37. And the men in ambush had hurried and rushed to Gibeah, and the men in ambush had spread out and struck the whole city with the edge of the sword.
 38. Now, the appointed signal for the men of Israel from those in ambush was that they would send up a great cloud of smoke from the city.
 39. And the men of Israel turned back in the battle when Benjamin started to strike down some of the men of Israel, about thirty men, thinking, “Surely, they are utterly smitten, as in the first battle!”
 40. But when the cloud began to rise from the city, a pillar of smoke, then Benjamin turned and looked behind him, and behold, the whole city was going up toward heaven.
 41. Then the men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were dismayed when they saw that disaster was come upon them.
 42. So they turned before the men of Israel toward the way of the wilderness, but the battle overtook them, and those from the cities began destroying them, they being caught in the middle.
 43. They surrounded Benjamin; they hunted him down easily; they trod him down as far as in front of Gibeah, toward the east.

44. And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men, mighty men, all of them.
45. And they turned and fled toward the wilderness, to the Rock of Rimmon, but on the highways, they gleaned of them five thousand men, and then pressed hard after them to Gidom, and of them, they killed two thousand men.
46. And it came to pass that all who fell that day from Benjamin were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword, all of them mighty men.
47. And six hundred men had turned and fled toward the wilderness to the Rock of Rimmon (and they remained at the Rock of Rimmon four months).
48. Then the men of Israel returned to the children of Benjamin and slew them with the edge of the sword, from the innocent one in the city, to the beast, to everything found in it; they also set on fire all the cities that were found.

Judges 21

- ¶1. Now, the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpah, saying, “Not one of us will give his daughter to Benjamin for a wife.”
2. And the people went to Bethel, and they stayed there before God until evening, and they lifted up their voice and wept very bitterly,
3. and they said, “Why, O Jehovah, God of Israel, has this happened in Israel, that there should be one tribe lost to Israel this day?”
4. And it came to pass the next day that the people arose early and built an altar there, and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.
- ¶5. And the children of Israel said, “Who is there among all the tribes of Israel who did not come up to Jehovah with the assembly?” For there had been a great oath made concerning whoever would not come up to Jehovah at Mizpah, saying, “He shall surely be put to death!”
6. And the children of Israel felt compassion for Benjamin their brother, and they said, “Today, one tribe has been cut off from Israel.”
7. What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since we have taken an oath before Jehovah not to give our daughters to them for wives?”
8. And they said, “Is there one among the tribes of Israel that did not go up to Jehovah at Mizpah?” And behold, no one had come to the camp from Jabesh-gilead, to the assembly.
9. For when the people were mustered, behold, not one of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead was there.
10. And so, the congregation sent twelve thousand valiant men there, having commanded them, saying, “Go smite the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, including the wives and the children.”
11. And this is the thing which you are to do: every male and every woman who has known a man’s bed-chamber, you are to devote to destruction.”

12. And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins who had not known a man by lying with him, and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which was in the land of Canaan.
13. And all the congregation sent and spoke to the sons of Benjamin who were at the Rock of Rimmon, and they spoke peaceably to them.
14. And Benjamin returned then, and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead, yet even so, they did not find enough for them.
15. And the people were moved with pity for Benjamin because Jehovah had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.
16. Then the elders of the congregation said, “What are we to do for wives for those who remain, for women have been eradicated out of Benjamin?”
17. And they said, “There must be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, that a tribe not be blotted out of Israel.
18. And we ourselves cannot give them wives from our daughters.” (For the children of Israel had taken an oath, saying, “Cursed be he who gives a wife to Benjamin!”)
19. Then they said, “Behold, there is a yearly feast to Jehovah at Shiloh” (which is north of Bethel, to the east of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and southward toward Lebonah).
20. And they commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying, “Go and lie in wait in the vineyards,
21. and watch. And behold, when the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then you come out of the vineyards and seize for yourselves, each one, a wife for himself from the daughters of Shiloh, and then go to the land of Benjamin.
22. And it will be that, when their fathers or brothers come to complain to us, we will say to them, ‘Show them mercy for our sakes, for we did not take for each one his wife during the war. And since you did not give them to them, you are not now guilty.’”
23. And the sons of Benjamin did so; they took wives, according to their number, whom they abducted from among those who were dancing. And they went and returned to their inheritance, and they rebuilt the cities and lived in them.
24. And the children of Israel then departed from there, each to his own tribe and to his own family, and they went out from there, each to his own inheritance.
25. In those days there was no king in Israel. Every man did what was right in his own eyes.

Ruth

Ruth 1

- ¶1. Now it came to pass in the days when the judges were judging that there was a famine in the land, and a man left Bethlehem-Judah to sojourn in the country of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons.
2. Now, the man's name was Elimelech, and his wife's name was Naomi, and his two sons' names were Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites from Bethlehem-Judah. And they came into the country of Moab, and there they remained.
3. And Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died, and she was left with her two sons.
4. And they took wives for themselves, Moabite women. The name of the first was Orpah, and the name of second was Ruth. And they dwelt there about ten years.
5. Then Mahlon and Chilion also died, both of them, and the woman was bereaved of her two children in addition to her husband.
6. So, she rose up, she and her daughters-in-law, that she might return from the country of Moab, for in the country of Moab, she had heard that Jehovah had visited His people to give them food.
7. And she went out from the place where she had been living, and her two daughters-in-law with her, and they started on the road to return to the land of Judah.
8. And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go. Each of you return to her mother's house. May Jehovah deal kindly with you as you have dealt with the dead and with me.
9. May Jehovah grant you that you find rest, each in the house of her husband." And she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept.
10. And they said to her, "No, we will return with you to your people."
11. And Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters. Why should you go with me? Do I have any more sons in my womb, that they would be husbands for you?
12. Go back, my daughters. Go! For I am too old to have a husband, and even if I said there was hope for me, even if I should have a husband tonight, and even if I were to bear sons,
13. would you wait for them until they were grown? Would you shut yourselves in for them, so as not to have a husband? No, my daughters. It is much more bitter for me than for you, for the hand of Jehovah has come out against me."
14. And they lifted up their voices and wept again. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.
15. And she said, "Behold, your sister-in-law has returned to her people and to her gods. Return after your sister-in-law."

16. And Ruth said, “Do not beg me to leave you, to turn back from following you. Wherever you go, I will go, and wherever you live, I will live. Your people shall be my people, and your God, my God.
17. Where you die, I will die, and there will I be buried. Jehovah do to me, and more so, if anything but death separates you and me!”
18. Then, when she saw that she was determined to go with her, she ceased talking to her.
19. And the two of them went on until they came to Bethlehem. And it happened that when they came into Bethlehem, the whole city was moved because of them, and they said, “Is this Naomi?”
20. But she said to them, “Don’t call me Naomi.¹ Call me Mara.² For the Almighty has made me very bitter.
21. I left full, and Jehovah has brought me back empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since Jehovah has testified against me and the Almighty has done evil to me?”
22. So, Naomi returned with Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, the one who came back with her from the country of Moab. And they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of barley harvest.³

Ruth 2

1. Now, Naomi had a kinsman of her husband, a very wealthy man of the family of Elimelech, and his name was Boaz.
2. And Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, “If you please, I will go to the field and glean ears of grain after someone in whose eyes I may find favor.” And she said to her, “Go, my daughter.”
3. So, she went, and she came and gleaned in the field after the reapers. And her chance came at a portion of the land belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.
4. And, behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and he said to the reapers, “Jehovah be with you!” And they said to him, “Jehovah bless you!”
5. Then Boaz said to his young man who had been set over the reapers, “To whom does this young woman belong?”
6. And the young man who was set over the reapers answered and said, “She is a young Moabite woman. She is the one who returned with Naomi from the country of Moab.
7. And she said, ‘Let me glean, please, and after the reapers, I will gather among the sheaves.’ And so, she came, and she has continued from morning until now, except that she sat at the house a little while.”

² That is, “Bitter”.

³ Barley was harvested in the spring.

8. Then Boaz said to Ruth, “Do you not hear, my daughter? You are not to glean in another field. Do not leave this one. You are to stay close by my young women.
9. Keep your eyes on the field that they harvest, and go in after them. Have I not commanded the young men not to touch you? When you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men draw.”
10. And she fell on her face and bowed herself to the ground, and she said to him, “How is it that I have found favor in your eyes, that you should pay me any attention—I, a foreigner?”
11. And Boaz answered and said to her, “It has been fully reported to me, all that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband, that you forsook your father and your mother, and the land of your birth, and came to a people that you did not previously know.
12. May Jehovah reward your deed, and may your wages be paid in full by Jehovah, the God of Israel, under whose wing you have come for refuge.”
13. And she said, “May I find favor in your eyes, my lord, for you have comforted me, and you have spoken kindly to your maidservant, though I am not like any of your maidservants.”
14. And when it was time to eat, Boaz said to her, “Come over here and eat the bread, and dip your morsel in the vinegar.” So, she sat alongside the reapers. And he passed parched grain to her, and she ate and was full, and had some left over.
15. When she had risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, “Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not reproach her.
16. And make sure that you pull out some grain from the bundles for her and leave them for her to pick up, and do not rebuke her.”
17. So, she gleaned in the field until evening, and she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah⁴ of barley.
18. Then she took it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. And she brought out and gave her what she had left over after she was full.
19. And her mother-in-law said to her, “Where did you glean today?” Where did you work? May he who showed you regard be blessed!” And she told her mother-in-law who she worked with. She said, “The name of the man that I worked with today is Boaz.”
20. And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “Blessed be he of Jehovah, who has not forsaken His lovingkindness to the living or to the dead!” Then Naomi told her, “The man is our near kinsman! He is one of our redeemers!”
21. And Ruth the Moabitess said, “He even said to me, ‘You stay close to my young men until they have completed my entire harvest!’”

⁴ An ephah equals about thirty pounds.

22. Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth, “It is good, my daughter, that you are going out with his young women, so that men in another field won’t come at you.”
23. And so, she stayed close to Boaz ’young women, to glean until the end of the barley harvest and the wheat harvest. And she dwelt with her mother-in-law.

Ruth 3

1. And Naomi, her mother-in-law, said to her, “My daughter, am I not seeking security for you, that it may be well with you?
2. Isn’t Boaz now our kinsman, whose young women you have been with? Behold, he will be winnowing barley at the threshing floor tonight.
3. You bathe, and anoint yourself, and put on your cloak, and go down to the threshing floor. Do not show yourself to the man until he is finished eating and drinking.
4. And let it be that when he lies down, you mark the place where he lies down, and then go and uncover his feet, and you lie down. Then, he will tell you what you are to do.”
5. And she said to her, “All that you say, I will do.”
6. And she went down to the threshing floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law had commanded her.
7. Boaz ate and drank, and his heart felt good, and he went in to lie down at the end of pile. And she went in secretly and uncovered his feet and lay down.
8. And it came to pass in the middle of the night that the man trembled when he turned himself and, behold, a woman was lying at his feet!
9. And he said, “Who are you?” And she said, “I am Ruth, your handmaid, and you are to spread your skirt over your handmaid, for you are the redeemer.”
10. Then he said, “May you be blessed of Jehovah, my daughter. You have done well. Your latter kindness is more than the first, in that you did not go after the young men, whether poor or rich.
11. So now, do not be afraid, my daughter. All that you say, I will do for you, for everyone at the gate of my people knows that you are a worthy woman.
12. It is certainly true that I am now a kinsman-redeemer; however, there is a redeemer nearer than I.
13. Stay tonight, and in the morning, if he will redeem you, fine; he will redeem you. But if he is not pleased to redeem you, as Jehovah lives, I will redeem you. Lie down until morning.”
14. And she lay at his feet until morning, but she arose before anyone could recognize his neighbor, for he said, “Let it not be known that a woman came to the threshing floor.”
15. And he said, “Bring me the cloak that is on you, and hold it.” And she held it while he measured out six measures of barley and then lay it on her. And she went into the city.

16. When she came to her mother-in-law, she said, “How did it go with you, my daughter?”
And she told her all that the man had done to her.
17. And she said, “He gave me these six measures of barley, for he said, ‘You shall not go empty to your mother-in-law.’”
18. Then she said, “Sit, my daughter, until you learn how the matter will fall out, for the man will not rest until he finishes with the matter today.”

Ruth 4

1. So, Boaz went up to the gate and sat there. And behold, the kinsman of whom Boaz had spoken passed by. And he said, “Turn in and have a seat.” And so, he turned and sat down.
2. And he took ten men from among the elders of the city, and said, “Sit down here.” And they sat down.
3. And he said to the kinsman-redeemer, “Naomi, who returned from the country of Moab, is selling the portion of the field that belonged to our brother, to Elimelech.
4. And I said I would inform you and tell you, in the presence of those sitting here and elders of my people, to buy it. If you will redeem it, then redeem it. But if you will not redeem it, tell me, so that I may know. For there is no one except you to redeem it, and I am after you.” And he said, “I will redeem it.”
5. Then Boaz said, “On the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you have also bought Ruth the Moabitess, wife of the man who died, to perpetuate the name of the dead for his inheritance.”
6. And the near-kinsman said, “I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar my own inheritance. You take my right to redeem it for yourself, for I cannot redeem it.”
7. This used to be the way of redemption and exchange in Israel, to confirm every matter: a man would take off his sandal and give it to his neighbor, and this was the attestation in Israel.
8. And the kinsman said to Boaz, “Buy it for yourself.” And he pulled off his sandal.
9. Then Boaz said to the elders and all the people, “You are witnesses today that I have bought from the hand of Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech and all that belonged to Chilion and to Mahlon.
10. Moreover, Ruth the Moabitess, wife of Mahlon, I have bought as a wife for myself, to raise up a name for the dead for his inheritance, that the name of the dead not be cut off from among his kinsmen, nor from the gate of his abode. You are witnesses today.”
11. And all the people who were in the gate and the elders said, “We are witnesses. May Jehovah grant that the woman who is coming into your house be as Rachel and Leah, the two who built the house of Israel, and make her prosperous in Ephratah and famous in Bethlehem.

12. And may your house be as the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, through the seed that Jehovah gives you by this young woman!"
 13. So, Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife. And he went in to her, and Jehovah granted her conception, and she bore a son.
 14. And the women said to Naomi, "Blessed be Jehovah, who has not left you without a kinsman this day, and may his name be proclaimed in Israel!"
 15. And may he be for you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age, since your daughter-in-law who loves you—she who is better to you than seven sons—has borne him!"
 16. And Naomi took the baby, and she laid him in her bosom and became his nurse.
 17. And the neighborhood women gave him a name, saying, "A son is borne for Naomi!"
And they called his name Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.
- ¶18. These are the generations of Pharez: Pharez fathered Hezron;
19. and Hezron fathered Ram; and Ram fathered Amminadab;
 20. and Amminadab fathered Nahshon; and Nahshon fathered Salmah;
 21. and Salmon fathered Boaz; and Boaz fathered Obed;
 22. and Obed fathered Jesse; and Jesse fathered David.

1Samuel

1Samuel 1

1. Now there was a certain man from Ramathaim-zophim of the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah ben-Jeroham, son of Elihu, son of Tohu, son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.
2. And he had two wives, one named Hannah and the other named Peninnah. And it came to pass that Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.
3. And this man came up from his city every year to worship and sacrifice to Jehovah of Hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli were there, Hophni and Phinehas, Jehovah's priests.
4. And when the day came that Elkanah made a sacrifice, he would give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and daughters.
5. But he would give Hannah a double portion because he loved Hannah, though Jehovah had closed her womb.
6. And because Jehovah had closed her womb, her rival provoked her greatly, just to vex her.
7. And it happened, year after year, whenever she went up to the house of Jehovah, she provoked her like this, and she would weep and not eat.
8. And Elkanah, her husband, said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? And why are you not eating? And why is your heart heavy? Am I not better to you than ten sons?"
9. And so, after eating and drinking in Shiloh, Hannah rose up. And Eli the priest sat on the seat by a doorpost of the house of Jehovah.
10. She was distressed in her soul, and prayed to Jehovah, and wept bitterly.
11. And she vowed a vow, and said, "O LORD of Hosts, if you will just look upon the affliction of your handmaid and remember me and not forget your handmaid, but will give to your handmaid a male child, then I will give him to Jehovah all the days of his life, and a razor shall never come upon his head."
12. And it came to pass as she was praying earnestly before Jehovah, that Eli noticed her mouth.
13. Now, Hannah was speaking in her heart. Her lips were moving, but her voice was not heard, and Eli thought she was drunk.
14. And Eli said to her, "How long will you make yourself drunk? Put your wine away!"
15. And Hannah answered and said, "Oh no, my lord! I'm a woman troubled in spirit. I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I've been pouring out my soul before Jehovah.
16. Don't take your handmaid for a daughter of Belial; I was talking to God out of my great complaint and vexation."

17. Then Eli answered and said, “Go in peace, and the God of Israel grant your request that you have asked of Him.”
18. And she said, “Let your handmaid find favor in your sight.” So, the woman went her way, and ate. And her countenance was no longer downcast.
19. And they arose early in the morning and worshipped before Jehovah, and then they returned and came to their house at Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and Jehovah remembered her.
20. And it came to pass, in the course of time, that Hannah conceived. And she bore a son, and called his name Samuel¹ because, she said, “I asked for him from Jehovah.”
21. And the man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer the yearly sacrifice to Jehovah, and to pay his vow.
22. But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, “When the child is weaned, then I’ll bring him, that he may be presented before Jehovah, and abide there forever.”
23. And Elkanah her husband said to her, “Do what is good in your eyes. Stay until you have weaned him; however, Jehovah keeps His word.” So, the woman stayed and nursed her son until she weaned him.
24. Then, when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, along with three bullocks, an ephah of flour, and a skin of wine, and she brought him to the house of Jehovah at Shiloh. And the child was young.
25. And they slaughtered the bullock and brought the child to Eli.
26. And she said, “If you please, my lord! As your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who was standing here beside you, praying to Jehovah.
27. For this child I prayed, and Jehovah granted me my request that I asked of Him.
28. Therefore, I am lending him to Jehovah; as long as he lives, he is lent to Jehovah.” And he worshipped Jehovah there.

1Samuel 2

- ¶1. And Hannah prayed and said, “My heart exults in Jehovah! My horn is raised up in Jehovah! My mouth opens wide over my enemies because I am happy in your salvation!
2. There is none holy like Jehovah, for there is none besides you, and there is no Rock like our God!
3. Speak no more so very proudly, letting arrogance come out of your mouths, for Jehovah is a knowing God, and by Him actions are weighed.
4. The bows of the mighty are shattered, and the feeble are girded with strength.

¹ Samuel means, “Asked of God”.

5. They that were full have hired themselves out for bread, and they that were hungry have ceased to hunger. The barren woman has borne seven, while the one with many sons has dried up.
 6. Jehovah kills and restores to life; He brings down to Sheol and raises up.
 7. Jehovah makes poor and makes rich; He abases, and He exalts.
 8. He lifts the poor up from the dust and raises the beggar up from the trash heap to make them to sit with nobles and to inherit a seat of honor. The pillars of the earth are Jehovah's, and He has set the world upon them.
 9. He will keep the feet of His saints, but the wicked will be silenced in darkness, for no man prevails by strength.
 10. They that strive against Jehovah will be shattered; He will thunder against them out of heaven. Jehovah will judge the ends of the earth, for He will give strength to His King and lift up the horn of His anointed one."
- ¶11. And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house, but the child ministered to Jehovah in the presence of Eli the priest.
12. Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belial; they did not know Jehovah.
 13. And the custom of the priests with the people was that when any man slaughtered a sacrifice, the priest's servant would come, while the meat was boiling, with a three-pronged meat-hook in his hand.
 14. And he would thrust it into the pan, or the kettle, or the caldron, or the pot, and all that the meat-hook brought up, the priest took for himself. Thus they did to all Israel who came there to Shiloh.
 15. Also, before they burned the fat, the priest's servant would come and say to the man who was sacrificing, "Provide meat for the priest to roast! He will not accept boiled meat from you, only raw."
 16. And if the man said to him, "Make sure to burn the fat first, and then take for yourself as much as you want." Then he would say, "No, you will give it now! And if not, I will take it by force."
 17. And so, the sin of the young men was very great before Jehovah, for men abhorred the offering of Jehovah.
 18. But Samuel, as a boy, ministered before Jehovah, girded with a linen ephod.
 19. And his mother would make for him a little robe and bring it up to him from year to year when she went up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.
 20. And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, "Jehovah give you seed by this woman because of the loan which he made to Jehovah." Then, they went to his place.
 21. And Jehovah did visit Hannah, and she conceived, and bore three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew up in the presence of Jehovah.
- ¶22. Now Eli was very old, and he had heard all that his sons did to all Israel, and how that they lay with the women who served at the door of the tent of meeting.

23. And he said to them, “Why are you doing such things as these? I hear from all these people of your evil deeds.
 24. No, my sons! The report that I hear is not good. You make Jehovah’s people to transgress.
 25. If a man sin against a man, a ruler will judge him, but if a man sins against Jehovah, who will advocate for him?” But they did not listen to their father’s voice, for it pleased Jehovah to kill them.
 26. But the child Samuel continued to grow in stature, and he had favor with both Jehovah and men.
- ¶27. And a man of God came to Eli, and said to him, “Thus says Jehovah: Did I reveal myself plainly to the house of your father when they were in Egypt, subject to the house of Pharaoh?
28. And did I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to offer up incense, and to bear an ephod before me? And I gave to your father’s house all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire.
 29. Why do you kick at my sacrifice and my offering which I have commanded in my dwelling-place? And you honor your sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the best of every offering of my people Israel!
 30. Therefore, Jehovah, God of Israel, declares: I indeed said, ‘Your house and your father’s house will stand before me forever.’ But now Jehovah says, ‘Be it far from me! For those who honor me will I honor, and those who despise me shall be cursed.’
 31. Behold, the days are coming when I will cut off your arm, even the arm of your father’s house, so that there will not be an old man in your house.
 32. And in my dwelling-place, you will see a rival with all the good that God has bestowed upon Israel. And there shall not be an old man in your house forever!
 33. And the man of yours that I do not cut off from my altar will be to consume your eyes and to grieve your soul, and all the progeny of your house shall die as young men.
 34. And this will be the sign to you, which shall come upon your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: they will both die in one day.
 35. And I will raise up for myself a faithful priest who will do according to what is in my heart and in my soul, and I will build him a faithful house, and he will continue before my anointed one forever.
 36. And it shall come to pass that all who are left in your house will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a loaf of bread, and he will say, ‘Attach me, I beg you, to one of the priests’ offices, that I may eat a morsel of bread.’”

1Samuel 3

- ¶1. Now, the child Samuel ministered to Jehovah before Eli. And the word of Jehovah was rare in those days; there was no frequent vision.

2. And it came to pass during those days that Eli lay down in his place, and his eyes had begun to grow dim; he could not see.
3. Now, the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the sanctuary of Jehovah, where the ark of God was.
4. And Jehovah called to Samuel, and he said, "Here am I."
5. And he ran to Eli and said, "Here am I, because you called me." And he said, "I did not call. Go back and lie down." And he went and lay down.
6. And Jehovah called yet again, "Samuel!" And Samuel arose and went to Eli and said, "Here am I, because you called me." And he said, "I did not call you, my son. Go back and lie down."
7. Now, Samuel did not yet know Jehovah; the word of Jehovah was not yet revealed to him.
8. And again Jehovah called Samuel for the third time. And he arose and went to Eli and said, "Here am I, because you called me." And then, Eli perceived that Jehovah was calling the child.
9. And Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down. And it shall be that if He calls you, then you say, 'Speak, Jehovah, for your servant is listening.'" And Samuel went and lay down in his place.
10. And Jehovah came, and stood, and called as at the other times, "Samuel! Samuel!" Then Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening."
11. And Jehovah said to Samuel, "Behold, I am about to do a thing in Israel, at the which both ears of everyone who hears of it shall tingle.
12. In that day, I will perform against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from start to finish.
13. For I have told him that I will execute everlasting judgment upon his house because of the iniquity which he knows, namely, his sons have been making themselves vile, and he has not stopped them.
14. And therefore, I have sworn to the house of Eli that I will damn myself if the iniquity of Eli's house will ever be atoned for by sacrifice or offering."²
15. And Samuel lay down until the morning, and then he opened the doors of the house of Jehovah. And Samuel was afraid to tell Eli the vision.
16. And Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son." And he said, "Here am I."
17. And he said, "What is it that He said to you? Now, do not hide it from me. God do so to you, and more so, if you hide anything from me of all that He said to you."

² Literally, only "—if the iniquity of Eli's house . . ." The curse intended with this oath is so unthinkable—God's own death and damnation—that it is not even uttered.

18. And so, Samuel told him every word and hid nothing from him. And he said, “It is Jehovah. Let Him do what is good in His eyes.”
19. And Samuel grew, and Jehovah was with him, and He did not let any of his words fall to the ground.
20. And all Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, knew that Samuel was established as a prophet of Jehovah.
21. And Jehovah appeared again in Shiloh, for Jehovah revealed Himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of Jehovah.

1Samuel 4

- ¶1. And the word of Samuel came to all Israel. And Israel went out to meet the Philistines in battle, and they camped at Ebenezer. And the Philistines camped by Aphek.
2. And the Philistines drew up in battle-order to meet Israel, and when the battle ended, Israel was smitten before the Philistines. And they slew about four thousand men on the field of battle.
3. Then the people came into the camp, and the elders of Israel said, “Why has Jehovah smitten us this day before the Philistines? Let’s bring the ark of the covenant of Jehovah to us from Shiloh, that it may come into our midst and deliver us from the hand of our enemies!”
4. And so, the people sent to Shiloh, and they brought from there the ark of the covenant of Jehovah of Hosts who dwells between the cherubim. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.
5. And it came to pass when the ark of the covenant of Jehovah came into the camp, all of Israel shouted with such a great shout that the earth was shaken.
6. When the Philistines heard the sound of the shout, they said, “What is the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews?” Then they found out that the ark of Jehovah had come into the camp.
7. And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, “A god has come into the camp!” And they said, “Woe to us! Nothing like this has ever happened!”
8. Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are those gods who smote Egypt with complete slaughter in the wilderness!
9. Take heart and act like men, O Philistines! Otherwise, you will serve the Hebrews in the same way they used to serve you. Be men, and fight!”
10. So the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten. Then every man fled to his tent, and there was a very great slaughter. And there fell thirty-thousand footmen from Israel.
11. And the ark of God was taken, and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.
12. And there ran a man of Benjamin from the battle line, and he came to Shiloh the same day with his garments torn and dirt on his head.

13. And, behold, Eli went and sat in the seat by the road, watching, for his heart trembled for the ark of God. Then the man came in to tell the city, and the whole city cried out.
14. When Eli heard the sound of the outcry, he said, "What is this sound of uproar?" And the man went quickly and told Eli.
15. Now, Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes were set, so that he was no longer able to see.
16. And the man said to Eli, "I have come from the battle line. Indeed, I escaped from the battle line today." And he said, "What has happened, my son?"
17. And the one who brought the news answered and said, "Israel has fled before the Philistines. Moreover, there has been a great slaughter among the people. And also, your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead. And the ark of God has been taken."
- ¶18. And at his mention of the ark of God, he fell from the seat backwards, away from the gate. And his neck was broken, and he died, for the man was old and very heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.
19. And his daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was pregnant and about to give birth. And when she heard the report that the ark of God had been taken and that her father-in-law and her husband had died, she fell to her knees and went into labor, for her birth pangs came upon her.
20. And as she was dying, the women attending her said, "Don't be afraid, for you have borne a son!" But she did not respond, for she did not regard it.
21. But she had called the boy Ichabod,³ saying, "The glory has departed from Israel," because of the ark of God being taken and because of her father-in-law and her husband.
22. So, she said, "The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God is taken."

1Samuel 5

- ¶1. And the Philistines captured the ark of God and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod.
2. And the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it to the house of Dagon, and they placed it beside Dagon.
3. And when the people of Ashdod arose early the next morning, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of Jehovah. So, they took Dagon and put him back in his place.
4. Early the next morning when they arose, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground again before the ark of Jehovah, and the head of Dagon and the palms of both his hands were on the threshold, cut off. Only the fish part was left of him.

³ Ichabod means, "without glory".

5. That is why, even to this day, neither the priests of Dagon nor any who enter into Dagon's house step on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod.
6. And the hand of Jehovah was heavy upon the people of Ashdod, and He devastated them and struck them with hemorrhoids, both Ashdod and its territories.
7. And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was thus, they said, "The ark of Israel's God cannot remain with us because His hand is heavy upon us and on Dagon our god."
8. So, they sent and gathered all the lords of the Philistines to them and said, "What shall we do with the ark of Israel's God?" And they said, "Let Gath fetch the ark of the God of Israel." And they fetched the ark of the God of Israel.
9. And it came to pass after they fetched it that the hand of Jehovah was against that city with very great destruction. And He struck the men of the city, both small and great, so that hemorrhoids broke out among them.
10. So, they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And it came to pass as the ark of God was coming to Ekron, the people of Ekron cried out, saying, "They have brought the ark of Israel's God around to us to kill us and our people!"
11. And they sent and gathered all the lords of the Philistines, and they said, "Send the ark of Israel's God away, and let it return to its place so it will not kill us and our people!" For there was deadly destruction throughout the city. The hand of God was very heavy there.
12. And the men who did not die were struck with hemorrhoids, and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

1Samuel 6

1. And the ark of Jehovah was in the land of the Philistines seven months.
2. And the Philistines called for the priests and for those who practiced divination, saying, "What shall we do with the ark of Jehovah? Tell us how we should send it to its place."
3. And they said, "When you send the ark of Israel's God, do not send it with nothing, but you shall surely return Him a guilt-offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why His hand has not turned from you."
4. And they asked, "What is the guilt-offering that we shall return to Him?" And they said, "Five gold hemorrhoids, and five gold mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines, even your lords, for the one plague was on them all."
5. Therefore, make images of your hemorrhoids and images of your mice that are ruining the land, and give glory to the God of Israel. Perhaps He will lighten His hand from off you, and from your gods, and from your land.
6. Now, why harden your heart as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He dealt harshly with them, did they not send them away, and they went?

7. So now, take and prepare a new cart and two milking cows that have never had a yoke put on them, and harness the cows to the cart, but take their calves home, away from them.
8. And take the ark of Jehovah and set it on the cart, and place the gold objects that you are returning to Him as a guilt-offering in a coffer beside it, and send it away and let it go.
9. Then watch. If it goes up the way to its own territory, to Beth-shemesh, He did this great harm to us. But if not, then we shall know that His hand did not strike us; it was by chance that it happened to us.”
10. And the men did so, and they took two milking cows, and they harnessed them to the cart, but their calves they penned up at home.
11. And they placed the ark of Jehovah on the cart, and the coffer, and the gold mice, and the images of their hemorrhoids.
12. And the cows went directly by the way of the road to Beth-shemesh. They went along together on the highway, bellowing, but they did not turn aside to the right or the left, and the lords of the Philistines walked behind them as far as the border of Beth-shemesh.
13. And they of Beth-shemesh were reaping the wheat harvest in the valley, and they lifted up their eyes and saw the ark, and they rejoiced to see it.
14. And the cart came to the field of Joshua the Beth-shemeshite, and it stopped there, where there was a large rock. And they cut up the wood of the cart, and they offered the cows as a burnt offering to Jehovah.
- ¶15. And the Levites took down the ark of Jehovah and the coffer that was with it, in which were the gold objects, and put them on the large rock. And the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices that day to Jehovah.
16. And the five lords of the Philistines watched, and then they returned to Ekron the same day.
- ¶17. And these are the gold hemorrhoids that the Philistines returned as a guilt-offering to Jehovah: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron.
18. And the gold mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, from the fortified city to the country village, even to the large rock of Abel on which they set the ark of Jehovah, which rock is in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemeshite until this day.
19. But because they looked into the ark of Jehovah, He struck some of the men of Beth-shemesh, and He struck among the people fifty-thousand and seventy men. And the people mourned because Jehovah had dealt the people a great blow.
20. And the men of Beth-shemesh said, “Who is able to stand before Jehovah, this holy God? And to whom shall it go up from us?”

21. And they sent messengers to those living at Kirjath-jearim, saying, “The Philistines have returned the ark of Jehovah. Come down! Take it up to you.”

1Samuel 7

- ¶1. And men of Kirjath-jearim came and took up the ark of Jehovah and brought it to the house of Abinadab on the hill, and they sanctified his son Eleazar to keep the ark of Jehovah.
- 2. And so it was, from the day the ark was lodged in Kirjath-jearim, much time passed. And after twenty years, all the house of Israel lamented after Jehovah.
- 3. And Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel saying, “If you are returning to Jehovah with all your heart, put away the foreign gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and fix your heart on Jehovah, and serve Him only. Then He will deliver you from the hand of the Philistines.”
- 4. And the children of Israel put away the Baals and Ashtaroth, and served Jehovah only.
- 5. Then Samuel said, “Assemble all of Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray to Jehovah for you.”
- 6. So they assembled at Mizpah, and drew water and poured it out before Jehovah, and they fasted that day. And they said there, “We have sinned against Jehovah.” And Samuel judged the children of Israel at Mizpah.
- ¶7. Now when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were assembled at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines.
- 8. And the children of Israel said to Samuel, “Don’t stop crying out to Jehovah our God for us, that He save us from the hand of the Philistines!”
- 9. So, Samuel took a nursing lamb and offered the whole thing as a burnt offering to Jehovah. And Samuel cried out to Jehovah on Israel’s behalf, and Jehovah answered him.
- 10. And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to fight against Israel. But Jehovah thundered with a great sound on that day upon the Philistines and confounded them, and they were defeated before Israel.
- 11. And the men of Israel went out from Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, as far as below Beth-car.
- 12. Then Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and he called its name Ebenezer,⁴ saying, “To this point, Jehovah helped us.”
- 13. And the Philistines were subdued and came no more into the territory of Israel. And the hand of Jehovah was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

⁴ Ebenezer means “stone of help”.

14. And the cities that the Philistines had taken from Israel returned to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath, and so, Israel delivered their territory from the hand of the Philistines. There was also peace between Israel and the Amorites.
15. And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.
16. And he traveled from year to year on a circuit to Bethel, and Gilgal, and Mizpah, and he judged Israel in all those places.
17. And his return was to Ramah because his home was there. And there he judged Israel, and there he built an altar to Jehovah.

1Samuel 8

- ¶1. And it came to pass when Samuel was old that he made his sons judges over Israel.
2. And the name of his firstborn son was Joel, and the name of his second, Abiah. They were judges in Beersheba.
 3. But his sons did not walk in his ways, but turned aside after unjust gain; they took bribes and perverted justice.
- ¶4. Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah,
5. and they said to him, "Behold, you are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Appoint a king for us, right now, to judge us like all the nations."
 6. But when they said, "Give us a king to judge us," the thing was evil in Samuel's eyes. And Samuel prayed to Jehovah.
 7. And Jehovah said to Samuel, "Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you, for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.
 8. According to all the works which they have done since the day I brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day, in that they have forsaken me and served other gods, so have they also done to you.
 9. So, listen now to their voice. Howbeit, solemnly warn them and declare to them the prerogatives of the king who will reign over them."
- ¶10. And Samuel spoke all the words of Jehovah to the people who asked of him a king.
11. And he said, "This will be the prerogative of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons for himself and assign them to his chariots and to be his horsemen, and they will run before his chariot.
 12. And he shall appoint for himself rulers of thousands and rulers of fifties, and some to plow his ground and to reap his harvest, and some to make his weapons for war and weapons for his chariots.
 13. And he will take your daughters to be spice-mixers, and cooks, and bakers.
 14. And he will take the best of your fields, and your vineyards, and your olive-yards, and give them to his servants.

15. And of your seed and your vineyards, he will take a tenth and give it to his officials and to his servants.
16. And your menservants and your maidservants, and your best cattle⁵ and your asses, he will take and use for his work.
17. He will confiscate a tenth of your flocks, and you, yourselves, will be his slaves!
18. And in that day, you will cry out because of your king that you chose for yourselves; but Jehovah will not answer you in that day.”
19. But the people refused to give heed to the voice of Samuel, and they said, “No! But a king shall be over us,
20. so that we may be like all the nations. And our king will judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles.”
21. And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and then he spoke them in the ears of Jehovah.
22. And Jehovah said to Samuel, “Listen to their voice, and make them a king.” Samuel then said to the men of Israel, “Go, every man, to his city.”

1Samuel 9

- ¶1. Now there was a man of Benjamin and his name was Kish ben-Abiel, son of Zeror, son of Becorath, son of Aphiah, son of a man of Benjamin, a mighty man of valor.
2. And he had a son whose name was Saul, a choice and impressive young man, and there was not a man among the sons of Israel better than he. From his shoulders up, he was taller than any of the people.
3. And the she-asses of Kish, Saul’s father, had wandered away. So, Kish said to Saul his son, “Take with you, I pray, one of the servants, and arise. Go look for the she-asses.”
4. And he passed through the hill country of Ephraim, and he passed through the region of Shalishah, but they did not find them. Then, they passed through the region of Shaalim, but they were not there. And he passed through the land southward, and they did not find them.
5. They came to the region of Zuph, and Saul said to his servant who was with him, “Come, and let’s go back, lest my father stop worrying about the she-asses and start worrying about us.”
6. But he said to him, “Behold, now! A man of God is in this city, and the man is held in honor. All that he says certainly comes to pass. Let’s go there now. It may be that he’ll make our way known to us, which way we should take.”

⁵ The Septuagint reading. The Hebrew text says, “young men”.

7. Then Saul said to his servant, “But, behold, if we go, then what shall we bring to the man? The bread is gone from our sacks, and there’s no gift to bring to a man of God. What do we have?”
8. And the servant again answered Saul and said, “Behold, I have a fourth part of a shekel of silver with me, and I’ll give it to the man of God, and he’ll tell us our way.”
9. (Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he would say, “Come, and let us go to the seer,” for today’s “prophet” used to be called a “seer”.)
10. Then Saul said to his servant, “What you say is good. Come on, let’s go.” And they went into the city where the man of God was.
11. As they were going up the ascent to the city, they met young women coming out to draw water and said to them, “Is the seer in this place?”
12. And they answered them and said, “Behold, he’s ahead of you. Hurry up now, for he has come to the city today because the people have a sacrifice today in the high place.
13. Just as you enter the city, you’ll find him before he goes up to the high place to eat, for the people won’t eat until he comes because he must consecrate the sacrifice. After that, those who are called will eat. So go up now because this is the time you’ll find him.”
14. And so, they went on up to the city, and as they were entering the city, behold, Samuel was coming out to invite them to go up to the high place.
- ¶15. Now a day before Saul’s coming, Jehovah had spoken in Samuel’s ear, saying,
16. “At this time tomorrow, I will send to you a man from the territory of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him as ruler over my people Israel, and he shall deliver my people from the hand of the Philistines, for I have considered my people because their cry has come to me.”
17. And Samuel looked at Saul, and Jehovah told him, “Behold, the man of whom I spoke to you! This man shall govern my people.”
18. And Saul approached Samuel inside the gate and said, “Tell me, please, where is the house of the seer?”
19. And Samuel answered Saul and said, “I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place and you shall eat with me today, and in the morning, I will send you away, and all that is in your heart I will tell you.
20. And as for your she-asses that went astray three days ago, do not set your mind on them, for they have been found. And to whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not to you and to all your father’s house?”

21. And Saul answered and said, “Am I not a Benjamite, from the smallest of the tribes of Israel? And my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why, then, do you speak to me like this?”
- ¶22. But Samuel took Saul and his servant, and he brought them to the hall, and he gave them a place at the head of those who had been called, and there were about thirty men.
23. And Samuel said to the cook, “Bring the portion that I gave you, of which I said to you, ‘Keep it with you.’”
24. And the cook took up the thigh and what was on it, and set it before Saul. Then Samuel said, “Behold, that which was reserved is set before you! Eat, for it was kept for you until the appointed time,” adding, “I have called the people.” So, Saul ate with Samuel that day.
25. And they came down from the high place to the city, and he spoke with Saul on the roof.
26. And they rose early, and it came to pass at the break of dawn that Samuel called Saul on the roof, saying, “Rise up, and I will send you away.” And Saul rose up, and the two of them went out, he and Samuel, into the street.
27. As they went down to the outskirts of the city, Samuel said to Saul, “Tell the young man to go ahead of us and pass on, but you stay awhile, and I will tell you the word of God.”

1Samuel 10

- ¶1. Then Samuel took a flask of oil and poured it on his head, and he kissed him and said, “Has not Jehovah anointed you as ruler over His inheritance?
2. When you depart from me today, you will find two men by Rachel’s tomb in the territory of Benjamin, at Zelzah, and they will say to you, ‘The she-asses that you went to look for have been found, and behold, your father is no longer concerned for the she-asses, but he is worried about you, saying, “What shall I do about my son?”’
3. And then you will go on farther from there and come to the oak of Tabor, and three men who are going up to God at Bethel will find you there, one carrying three kids, and one carrying three loaves of bread, and the other carrying a skin of wine.
4. And they will ask you of your well-being and give you two loaves of bread, and you shall take them from their hand.
5. After that, you shall come to the hill of God⁶, where there is a garrison of the Philistines, and it shall come to pass when you arrive at the city that you will meet a band of prophets coming down from the high place prophesying, with a lute, and a timbrel, and a pipe, and a lyre ahead of them.

⁶ Or Gibeah of God.

6. And the Spirit of Jehovah will come upon you mightily, and you will prophesy with them, and you will be turned into a different man.
 7. And it shall be that when these signs happen to you, do as you will, whatever your hand finds, for God is with you.
 8. Then you shall go down before me to Gilgal, and behold, I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and to sacrifice peace-offerings. You must wait seven days until I come to you, and I will make known to you what you shall do."
 9. And it came to pass when he turned his back to go from Samuel that God turned his heart into a different one. And all these signs happened that day.
- ¶10. And they came to the hill, and behold, a band of prophets met him, and the Spirit of God came upon him mightily, and he prophesied among them.
11. And it came to pass when all who knew him before saw that, behold, he was prophesying with prophets. Then the people said, each to his neighbor, "What is this that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?"
 12. And a man from there answered and said, "And who is their father?" Therefore, it became a saying, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"
 13. And he finished prophesying and went to the high place.
 14. And Saul's uncle said to him and to his servant, "Where did you go?" And he said, "To look for the she-asses, and then, when we saw that they were not to be found, we went to Samuel."
 15. Then Saul's uncle said, "Tell me, I pray, what did Samuel say to you?"
 16. And Saul said to his uncle, "He told us plainly that the she-asses had been found." But of the matter of the kingdom of which Samuel had spoken, he did not tell him.
- ¶17. And Samuel summoned the people to Jehovah at Mizpah,
18. and he said to the children of Israel, "Thus says Jehovah, God of Israel: I brought Israel up from Egypt, and I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all the kingdoms that were oppressing you.
 19. And you, this day, have rejected your God, who delivered you from all your troubles and your distresses. And you have said to Him, 'No! Set a king over us.' So now, present yourselves before Jehovah by your tribes and by your families."
 20. And Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken.
 21. Then he brought the tribe of Benjamin by its families, and the family of Matri was taken, and Saul, the son of Kish was taken, and they looked for him, but he could not be found.
 22. And they inquired again of Jehovah, "Has the man come here yet?" And Jehovah said, "Behold, he has hidden himself among the baggage."
 23. And they ran, and they brought him from there, and he stood in the midst of the people, and from his shoulders up, he was taller than any of the people.

24. And Samuel said to all the people, “Do you see him whom Jehovah has chosen, that there is no one like him among all the people?” And all the people shouted and said, “Long live the king!”
- ¶25. Then Samuel told the people the prerogative of kingship, and he wrote it in a book and placed it before Jehovah. And Samuel sent all the people away, each to his home.
26. And Saul also went to his home at Gibeah, and valiant men went with him whose hearts God had touched.
27. But sons of Belial said, “How can this man save us?” And they despised him and did not bring him a gift. But he held his peace.

1Samuel 11

- ¶1. Then Nahash the Ammonite went up and besieged Jabesh-Gilead, and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, “Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you.”
2. But Nahash the Ammonite said to them, “By this will I make a covenant with you, by gouging out all your right eyes, and I will make it a reproach on all Israel.”
3. And the elders of Jabesh said to him, “Leave us alone for seven days and let us send messengers to all the territory of Israel, and if there is no one who will deliver us, then we will come out to you.”
4. And the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul, and they spoke the words in the ears of the people, and all the people lifted up their voice and wept.
5. And behold, Saul came in from the field behind the oxen, and Saul said, “What has happened to the people, that they are weeping?” And they repeated to him the words of the men of Jabesh.
6. And the Spirit of God came mightily upon Saul when he heard these words, and his anger burned fiercely.
7. And he took a team of oxen and cut them in pieces, and he sent them throughout the territory of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, “Whoever does not come out after Saul and after Samuel, thus shall it be done to his oxen.” And the fear of Jehovah fell upon the people, and they came out as one man.
8. And he mustered them at Bezek, and there were three hundred thousand sons of Israel and thirty thousand men of Judah.
9. And they said to the messengers that had come, “Thus shall you say to the men of Jabesh-Gilead: ‘Tomorrow, when the sun is hot, you will have deliverance.’” And the messengers went and told the men of Jabesh, and they rejoiced.
10. Then the men of Jabesh said, “Tomorrow we shall come out to you, and you shall do to us all that is good in your eyes.”
- ¶11. And it came to pass the following day that Saul formed the people into three companies, and they came into the midst of the camp during the morning watch, and they struck Ammon down until the heat of the day. And those who were left were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

12. And the people said to Samuel, "Who was saying, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Bring those men and let's kill them!"
13. But Saul said, "No man shall be killed this day, for today, Jehovah has wrought deliverance in Israel."
- ¶14. Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, and let us go to Gilgal and renew the kingdom there."
15. And all the people went to Gilgal, and there at Gilgal, they made Saul king before Jehovah. And there they sacrificed peace-offerings before Jehovah, and there, Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

1Samuel 12

- ¶1. And Samuel said to all Israel, "Behold, I listened to your voice, to all that you said to me, and I have made a king over you."
2. So now, behold, the king walks before you! And as for me, I am old and white-headed, and my sons, behold, they are with you. I have walked before you from my youth until this day.
3. Here I am! Answer me before Jehovah and before His anointed one! Whose ox have I taken? Or whose ass have I taken? Or whom have I wronged? Or whom have I oppressed? Or from whose hand have I taken a bribe to blind me with? I will return it to you!"
4. And they said, "You have not wronged us, nor have you oppressed us, and you have not taken anything from the hand of anyone."
5. And he said to them, "This day, Jehovah is witness against you, and His anointed is witness, that you have found nothing in my hand." And they said, "He is witness!"
- ¶6. And Samuel said to the people, "It is Jehovah who appointed Moses and Aaron and who brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.
7. So, stand still now, and let me plead my case against you before Jehovah concerning all the righteous acts of Jehovah which He did for you and for your fathers.
8. When Jacob had gone into Egypt, your fathers cried out to Jehovah, and Jehovah sent Moses and Aaron, and they brought your fathers out of Egypt and made them to dwell in this place.
9. But they forgot Jehovah their God, and He sold them into the hand of Sisera, commander of the army of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

10. And then they cried out to Jehovah, and said, ‘We have sinned! For we have forsaken Jehovah in serving Baals and Ashtaroth. But now, deliver us from the hand of our enemies, and we will serve you!’
 11. Then Jehovah sent Jerubbaal, and Bedan, and Jephthah, and Samuel, and He delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and you lived in safety.
 12. But when you saw that Nahash, the king of the children of Ammon, was coming against you, you said to me, ‘No! But a king shall reign over us!’—when Jehovah your God was your King!
 13. So, behold now the king that you have chosen, that you asked for. Behold, Jehovah has set a king over you.
 14. If you will fear Jehovah, and if you serve Him, and if you obey His voice, and if you do not disobey the command of Jehovah, only then will either you or the king who reigns over you continue with Jehovah your God.
 15. But if you do not listen to the voice of Jehovah, but rebel against the command of Jehovah, then the hand of Jehovah shall be upon you as it was upon your fathers.
 16. And now, stand still and see this great work which Jehovah will do before your eyes.
 17. Is it not wheat harvest? I will cry out to Jehovah today, and He will send thunder and rain so that you may know and see that your wickedness is great which you have done in the sight of Jehovah, in asking for yourselves a king.”
- ¶18. And Samuel cried out to Jehovah, and Jehovah sent thunder and rain that day. And all the people greatly feared Jehovah and Samuel.
19. And all the people said to Samuel, “Pray to Jehovah your God for your servants, so we won’t die! For we have added an evil to all our sins, to ask for ourselves a king!”
 20. And Samuel said to the people, “Do not be afraid. You have done all this evil. Yet, do not turn aside from following Jehovah, but serve Jehovah with all your heart!
 21. Do not turn aside after vain things that cannot profit or deliver because they are vain!
 22. For Jehovah will not forsake His people, for the sake of His great name. For it has pleased Jehovah to make you His people.
 23. As for me, far be it from me to sin against Jehovah by ceasing to pray for you! But I will show you the good and right way.
 24. Only fear Jehovah and serve Him in truth with all your heart! For see what a great thing He has done among you,
 25. but if you still do evil, both you and your king shall be swept away!”

1Samuel 13

- ¶1. Saul reigned one year, and when he had reigned two years over Israel,

2. Saul chose for himself three thousand men out of Israel; two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and the mountain of Bethel, and one thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. And the rest of the people, each man, he sent to his tent.
3. And Jonathan struck the garrison of Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew a shofar throughout the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear!"
4. And all Israel heard it said, "Saul has struck a garrison of Philistines," and also, "Israel has become an abomination to the Philistines." And the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal.
5. And the Philistines assembled themselves to wage war against Israel, thirty thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen, and people like the sand that is on the seashore in number. And they went up and camped in Michmash, east of Beth-aven.
6. When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were hard pressed), the people hid themselves in caves, and in thickets, and among rocks, and in holes, and in pits,
7. and the Hebrews crossed over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. But Saul was still in Gilgal, and all the people following him trembled.
8. And he waited seven days according to the time set by Samuel, but Samuel did not come to Gilgal. So the people began to scatter from him.
9. And Saul said, "Bring me the burnt offering and the peace offering!" And he offered up the burnt offering.
10. And it came to pass, as he finished offering up the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came. And Saul went out to meet him, to salute him.
11. And Samuel said, "What have you done?" And Saul said, "When I saw that the people were scattering from me, and you did not come within the days appointed, and the Philistines were assembling at Michmash,
12. I started thinking, 'Now the Philistines will come down upon me at Gilgal, and I have not besought the face of Jehovah.' So, I forced myself and offered up the burnt offering."
13. And Samuel said to Saul, "You have done foolishly! You have not kept the commandment of Jehovah your God which He commanded you. For then, Jehovah would have established your kingdom over Israel forever.
14. But now, your kingdom will not continue. Jehovah has sought for Himself a man after his own heart, and Jehovah has appointed him ruler over His people because you have not kept that which Jehovah commanded you."
- ¶15. Then Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul mustered the people who were found with him, about six hundred men.
16. And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people that were found with them remained in Geba of Benjamin, and the Philistines were encamped in Michmash.
17. And raiders came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies. One company turned toward the way of Ophrah to the land of Shual,

18. and one company turned the way of Beth-Horan, and one company turned the way of the border that looks down over the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.
- ¶19. Now there was no smith to be found throughout the land of Israel for the Philistines had said, "Lest the Hebrews make swords or spears."
20. But all Israel went down to the Philistines, each man to sharpen his plowshare, and his coulter, and his ax, and his mattock,
21. and the sharpening fee was one pim for plowshares, and for coulters, and for three-pronged forks, and for axes, and for setting the goads.
22. And it came to pass on the day of battle that neither sword nor spear could be found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan. But one was found for Saul and for Jonathan his son.
23. And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

1Samuel 14

- ¶1. And it came to pass one day that Jonathan ben-Saul said to the young man, his armor-bearer, "Come, let's go over to the Philistines' garrison that is over there." But he did not tell his father.
2. And Saul was sitting on the outskirts of Gibeah, beneath the pomegranate tree that is in Migron. And the people who were with him were about six hundred men,
3. including Ahijah ben-Ahitub, the brother of Ichabod ben-Phinehas, son of Eli, Jehovah's priest in Shiloh, wearing an ephod. And the people did not know that Jonathan had gone.
4. Now, among the passes where Jonathan sought to cross over to the garrison of the Philistines was a rugged cliff on this side and a rugged cliff on the other side, the name of the one being Bozez, and the name of the other, Seneh.
5. The face of one cliff was north, toward Michmash, and the other was south, toward Geba.
- ¶6. And Jonathan said to the young man, his armor-bearer, "Come, let's go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised. Perhaps Jehovah will do something for us, for nothing can keep Jehovah from saving, whether by many or by few."
7. And his armor-bearer said to him, "Do all that is in your heart. Do as you wish. Behold, I am with you, whatever you decide."
8. And Jonathan said, "Behold, we will pass over to these men and show ourselves to them.
9. If they say to us something like, 'Stay there until we come to you,' then we will stay in our place and not go up to them.
10. But if they say something like, 'Come up to us,' then we will go up, for Jehovah has delivered them into our hands, and that will be our sign."

11. And they both showed themselves to the Philistines 'garrison. And the Philistines said,
“Behold! Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they hid themselves.”
12. And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armor-bearer, and they said,
“Come up to us, and we will show you something!” And Jonathan said to his armor-bearer,
“Come up after me, for Jehovah has delivered them into the hand of Israel.”
13. And Jonathan went up on his hands and on his feet, with his armor-bearer after him, and they fell before Jonathan, and his armor-bearer finished them off after him.
14. Now, the first slaughter which Jonathan and his armor-bearer made was about twenty men in an area about half a furrow long, as plowed by a yoke of oxen.
15. And there was panic in the camp, in the field, and among all the people of the garrison; and even the raiders themselves trembled. And the earth shook, and there was very great panic.
16. And in Gibeah of Benjamin, Saul's watchmen looked, and behold, the multitude was melting away, and they went in all directions.
- ¶17. And Saul said to the people who were with him, “Call the roll, now, and see who has gone out from us.” So they called the roll, and behold, neither Jonathan nor his armor-bearer were there.
18. And Saul said to Ahijah, “Bring the ark of God.” For at that time the ark of God was with the children of Israel.
19. And it came to pass while Saul was speaking to the priest that the roar that was in the camp of the Philistines became greater and greater. And Saul said to the priest, “Withdraw your hand.”
20. Then Saul and all the people who were with him assembled and went out to the battle.
And behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was very great confusion.
21. And the Hebrews all around who were with the Philistines previously, who had gone up with them to the camp, even they also joined the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.
22. And when all the men of Israel who had hid themselves in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines fled, then they, too, hotly pursued them in the battle.
23. So Jehovah delivered Israel on that day. Now, the battle had extended beyond Bethaven,
24. and the men of Israel were hard-pressed on that day, for Saul had adjured the people, saying, “Cursed be the man who eats food before sunset, that I be avenged upon my enemies.” And so, none of the people had tasted any food.
- ¶25. Now, all the people of the land used to come to the woods, and there was honey on the face of the ground.

26. And when the people came to the forest, behold, the honey was flowing; however, no one put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the curse.
 27. But Jonathan did not hear his father make the people take the oath, and he put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and he dipped it into the honey of the forest, and he brought his hand to his mouth, and his eyes were enlightened.
 28. And one of the people spoke up and said, "Your father adjured the people with an oath, saying, 'Cursed be the man who eats food today,' though the people were faint."
 29. Then Jonathan said, "My father has troubled the land! See how my eyes are enlightened since I tasted a little of this honey."
 30. How much better if only the people could have freely eaten today of the spoil of their enemies that they found. But now, the slaughter of the Philistines is not great."
 31. Yet, they struck the Philistines on that day from Michmash to Aijalon, though the people were very faint.
 32. And the people pounced on the spoil, and they took sheep, and cattle, and calves, and they slaughtered them on the ground. And the people ate them with the blood.
 33. And they reported to Saul, saying, "Behold, the people are sinning against Jehovah, eating with the blood! And he said, "You have behaved treacherously. Roll a great stone to me today."
 34. And Saul said, "Spread out among the people and tell them, 'Bring me every man his ox, or every man his sheep, and slaughter it and eat it here. And do not sin against Jehovah by eating with the blood.'" And that night, all the people, every man, brought his own ox and slaughtered it there.
 35. And Saul built an altar to Jehovah, the first altar he built to Jehovah.
- ¶36. Then Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines tonight and plunder them before the light of morning. And let's not spare a single one." And they said, "Do all that is good in your eyes." But the priest said, "We should approach God here."
37. So, Saul inquired of God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will you deliver them into the hand of Israel?" But He did not answer him that day.
 38. Then Saul said, "Let all the leaders of the people come here. Find out and see how this sin came about today.
 39. For as Jehovah lives who delivers Israel, even if it was by Jonathan my son, he shall certainly die." But no one among all the people answered him.
 40. And he said to all of Israel, "You be on the one side, and my son Jonathan and I will be on the other side." And the people said to Saul, "Do what is good in your eyes."
- ¶41. And Saul said to Jehovah, "O God of Israel, give a perfect lot!" Then Jonathan and Saul were taken, but the people escaped.

42. And Saul said, “Cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan.” And Jonathan was taken.
43. Then Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.” So Jonathan told him, and said, “I tasted a little of the honey, using the end of my staff. Here I am; I must die.”
44. And Saul said, “God do so to me, and even more, if you are not put to death, Jonathan!”
45. But the people said to Saul, “Shall Jonathan die who has brought about this great salvation in Israel? Far from it! As Jehovah lives, let us be damned if a single hair of his head falls to the ground!⁷ He has worked with God today!” So the people rescued Jonathan, that he did not die.
46. And Saul ceased following after the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own place.
- ¶47. So, Saul assumed the kingship over Israel, and he fought against all his enemies on every side: against Moab, and against the sons of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines. And wherever he turned, he vexed them.
48. And he formed an army and struck Amalek, and he delivered Israel from the hand of its spoilers.
- ¶49. Now, the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Jishui, and Malchi-shua. And the names of his two daughters: the name of the firstborn, Merab, and the name of the younger, Michal.
50. And the name of Saul’s wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the captain of his army was Abner ben-Ner, Saul’s uncle.
51. And Kish was Saul’s father, and Ner was Abner’s father, the son of Abiel.
- ¶52. And the war against the Philistines was fierce all of Saul’s days. And when Saul saw any mighty man, or any able man, he took him for himself.

1Samuel 15

- ¶1. And Samuel said to Saul, “Jehovah sent me to anoint you to be king over His people, over Israel. So now, hear the voice of the words of Jehovah!
2. Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: I remember what Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way when he came up from Egypt.
3. Now go and strike Amalek and utterly destroy all that they have. And have no pity on them, but slay both man and woman, child and infant, ox and sheep, camel and ass.”
- ¶4. And Saul summoned the people and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen and ten thousand men of Judah.

⁷ Literally, “—if a single hair of his head falls....” The curse intended with this oath is so horrific, calling for one’s own death and damnation, that it is not even uttered.

5. And Saul came to a city of Amalek and laid wait in the valley.
6. And Saul said to the Kenites, “Go! Leave! Get away from the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them! For you showed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up from Egypt.” And so, the Kenites got away from the Amalekites.
7. And Saul struck Amalek down, from Havilah as you go to Shur, which is on the border of Egypt.
8. And he took Agag, King of the Amalekites, alive, but he utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.
9. So, Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and the cattle, and the seconds, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them, but every loathsome or worthless thing, that they destroyed.
- ¶10. Then came the word of Jehovah to Samuel, saying,
11. “I regret that I made Saul king, for he has turned back from following me, and has not performed my commandments.” And Samuel was angry, and he cried out to Jehovah all night.
12. And Samuel arose early to meet Saul in the morning, but it was told Samuel, saying, “Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he erected a pillar for himself, but he has turned back and passed on, and has gone down to Gilgal.”
13. And Samuel went to Saul, and Saul said to him, “Blessed be you of Jehovah! I have performed the commandment of Jehovah.”
14. But Samuel said, “What, then, is this bleating in my ears and the lowing that I hear?”
15. And Saul said, “They have brought them from the Amalekites, for the people spared the best of the sheep and the cattle to sacrifice to Jehovah your God. And the rest we have utterly destroyed.”
16. Then Samuel said to Saul, “Stop, and let me tell you what Jehovah said to me this night.” And he said to him, “Speak.”
17. And Samuel said, “Is it not so that when you were small in your own eyes, you were made head of the tribes of Israel, for Jehovah anointed you king over Israel?
18. And Jehovah sent you on a journey and said, ‘Go, and utterly destroy the sinners, Amalek, and fight against them until they are exterminated.’
19. Why, then, have you not obeyed the voice of Jehovah, but have pounced on the spoil and done evil in the sight of Jehovah!”
20. And Saul said to Samuel, “I obeyed the voice of Jehovah! I went the way that Jehovah sent me; I brought back Agag, the king of Amalek; and I utterly destroyed Amalek!
21. But the people took of the spoil, sheep and cattle, the best of the devoted things to sacrifice to Jehovah your God in Gilgal.”
22. And Samuel said, “Does Jehovah delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the voice of Jehovah? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen, than the fat of rams.
23. For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of Jehovah, He has rejected you from being king!”

24. And Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned. For I have transgressed the command of Jehovah and your words because I feared the people and obeyed their voice."
25. But now, I beg you, forgive my sin and return with me, that I may worship Jehovah."
26. And Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you. For you rejected the word of Jehovah, and Jehovah has rejected you from being king over Israel."
27. And as Samuel turned to go, he grabbed the end of his robe, and it tore.
28. And Samuel said to him, "Jehovah has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today and has given it to your neighbor, who is better than you."
29. The Eternal One of Israel neither lies nor repents, for he is not a man, that He should change His mind."
30. Then he said, "I have sinned! O honor me now, I beg you, before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, that I may worship Jehovah your God."
31. So Samuel followed Saul back, and Saul worshipped Jehovah.
32. Then Samuel said, "Bring me Agag, the king of Amalek!" And Agag came to him trembling. And Agag said, "Surely, the bitterness of death is past."
33. And Samuel said, "As your sword has made women childless, so your mother shall be childless among women." And Samuel hacked Agag into pieces before Jehovah in Gilgal.
34. Then Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went up to his house in Gibeah of Saul.
35. And Samuel did not see Saul again, even to the day of his death. Yet, Samuel mourned for Saul, for Jehovah had repented that He made Saul king over Israel.

1Samuel 16

- ¶1. And Jehovah said to Samuel, "How long will you mourn for Saul, seeing that I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and go! I am sending you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have provided me a king from among his sons."
2. And Samuel said, "How can I go? When Saul hears of it, he will kill me." But Jehovah said, "Take with you a heifer from the herd, and say, 'I have come to make sacrifice to Jehovah.'
3. And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do, for you shall anoint for me whomever I tell you."
4. So, Samuel did what Jehovah said, and he came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city trembled at his coming and said, "Have you come in peace?"
5. And he said, "In peace. I have come to make sacrifice to Jehovah. Sanctify yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice." And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.
6. And it came to pass when they came in that he saw Eliab, and he said, "Surely, Jehovah's anointed is before Him."

7. But Jehovah said to Samuel, “Do not look on his appearance nor on his tall stature, for I have rejected him. God does not see as man sees, for man looks at the outward appearance, but Jehovah looks at the heart.”
 8. So Jesse called Abinadab and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, “Jehovah has not chosen this one, either.”
 9. Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, “Jehovah has not chosen this one, either.”
 10. And Jesse made his seven sons pass before Samuel, but Samuel said to Jesse, “Jehovah has not chosen any of these.”
 11. And Samuel said to Jesse, “Are these all the young men?” And he said, “The youngest is still left, but, behold, he is tending the flock.” And Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and fetch him, for we will not sit around until he comes here.”
 12. So he sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, with beautiful eyes, and handsome. And Jehovah said, “Arise! Anoint him. For this is he.”
 13. And Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers, and the Spirit of Jehovah came powerfully upon David from that day forward. Then Samuel arose and went to Ramah.
- ¶14. And the Spirit of Jehovah departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from Jehovah began tormenting him.
15. And Saul’s servants said to him, “Behold now, an evil spirit from God is tormenting you.
 16. Let our lord now command your servants before you that they seek out a man who knows how to play a harp; and then, when the evil spirit from God is on you, he will play with his hand, and it will do you good.”
 17. And Saul said to his servants, “Find me a man who can play well and bring him to me.”
 18. And one of the young men answered and said, “Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, a skillful player, and a mighty man of valor, and a man of war, and prudent in speech, and a handsome man, and Jehovah is with him.”
 19. And so, Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, “Send me David your son, who is with the flock.”
 20. And Jesse took an ass, and sent to Saul bread and a skin of wine, and one kid by the hand of David his son.
 21. And David came to Saul and stood before him. And he loved him greatly, and he became his armor-bearer.
 22. And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, “Let David stand before me, for he has found favor in my sight.”
 23. And so it was that when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, David took the harp and played with his hand, and Saul was relieved and felt better, for the evil spirit departed from him.

1Samuel 17

- ¶1. And the Philistines gathered their armies for battle, and they assembled at Socoh which belongs to Judah, and they made camp between Socoh and Azekah in Ephes-dammim.
2. And Saul and the men of Israel assembled, and they camped in the valley of Elah, and they set the battle in order to engage the Philistines.
3. And the Philistines stood on the one mountain, and Israel stood on the other mountain, and a valley was between them.
4. Then a champion went out from the camp of the Philistines named Goliath of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.
5. And he was wearing a helmet of bronze on his head, and an armor of scales that weighed five thousand shekels of bronze,
6. and greaves of bronze on his legs, and a bronze javelin slung between his shoulders.
7. The shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and the head of his spear was six hundred shekels of iron. And a shield-bearer went before him.
8. And he stood and cried out to the battle line of Israel, and said to them, "Why are you coming out in battle order? Am I not a Philistine, and you, servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves and have him come down to me!"
9. If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants, but if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and serve us."
10. And the Philistine said, "I defy the armies of Israel this day! Give me a man that we may fight one another!"
11. And when Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and very afraid.
- ¶12. Now, David was the son of a man whose name was Jesse, an Ephrathite who was from Bethlehem-Judah, and he had eight sons. And the man, though old, went among the men in the days of Saul.
13. And the three oldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle. And the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab, the firstborn, and his second, Abinadab, and the third, Shammah.
14. As for David, he was the youngest, and the three oldest followed Saul.
- ¶15. Now, David had left and returned from Saul to tend his father's flock at Bethlehem.
16. And the Philistine drew near, morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.
17. And Jesse said to David his son, "Take now this ephah of parched grain and these ten loaves for your brothers, and hurry on to your brothers' camp.
18. And take these ten cuts of cheese to the captain of the thousand, and then look into the welfare of your brothers and bring a token from them."
19. Now Saul, and they, and every man of Israel were in the valley of Elah fighting with the Philistines.

20. So David arose early in the morning, and left the flock with a keeper, and took and went as Jesse had commanded him. And he came to the encampment as the army was going out to the battle line, and they raised the battle cry.
21. And Israel and the Philistines set the battle in order, army against army.
22. So David left the stuff he brought in the hand of the keeper of the supplies, and ran to the battle line, and came and asked of his brothers 'welfare.
23. And as he was talking with them, behold, the champion, the Philistine named Goliath of Gath, came up out of the ranks of the Philistines and spoke those same words, and David heard him.
24. And every man of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him and were very afraid.
25. And a man of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who comes up? He comes up to defy Israel, and the man who kills him, the king will make him rich with great riches, and will give his daughter to him, and make his father's house free in Israel."
26. Then David spoke to the men who were standing by him, saying, "What shall be done for the man who kills that Philistine and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine that reproaches the armies of the living God!"
27. And those people told him the same thing, saying, "That is what will be done for the man who kills him."
28. And Eliab, his oldest brother, heard him speak to the men. And Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, "Why have you come down? And with whom did you leave those few sheep in the wilderness? I know the pride and wickedness of your heart! You came down to watch the battle!"
29. Then David said, "What have I done now? Wasn't it just talk?"
30. And he turned from him toward another and spoke in the same manner, and the people returned the same answer to him as before.
31. And they heard the words that David spoke and reported them to Saul, and he sent for him.
32. And David said to Saul, "Do not let any man's heart fail because of him. Your servant will go and fight with this Philistine."
33. Then Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him, for you are a boy, and he, a man of war from his youth."
34. Moreover, David said to Saul, "Your servant has been a shepherd of his father's flock. And when there came a lion or a bear and carried off a lamb from the flock,
35. then I would go out after him, and strike him, and deliver it from his mouth. And when he rose up against me, I would grab his chin and strike him down, and kill him.
36. Your servant has killed both a lion and a bear, and this uncircumcised Philistine will be as one of them, for he has reproached the armies of the living God."

37. And David said, “Jehovah, who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine.” Then Saul said to David, “Go, and Jehovah be with you!”
38. And Saul clothed David with his garments, and put a helmet of bronze on his head, and put a coat of armor on him,
39. and girded David with his sword over his armor. And he tried to walk, but he had not proved them. Then David said to Saul, “I can’t walk in these things, for I have no training.” So David took them off.
40. Then he took his staff in his hand, and he chose for himself five smooth stones out of the brook and put them in the shepherd’s bag which he had, even in his pouch. And his sling was in his hand, and he approached the Philistine.
41. And the Philistine came, coming and drawing near to David, and the man bearing the shield before him.
42. And when the Philistine looked and saw David, he despised him, for he was a youth, and ruddy, with a handsome appearance.
43. And the Philistine said to David, “Am I a dog, that you come at me with sticks!” And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.
44. And the Philistine said to David, “Come to me and I will give your flesh to the birds of the sky and to the beasts of the field.”
45. But David said to the Philistine, “You come to me with a sword, and a spear, and a javelin, but I come to you in the name of Jehovah of Hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.
46. This day, Jehovah will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and take off your head from you. And I will give the carcasses of the Philistine army this day to the birds of the sky and to the beasts of the earth, so all the earth will know that there is a God in Israel!
47. And all this company shall know that Jehovah does not save by sword or spear, for the battle is Jehovah’s, and He has given you into our hands!”
48. And it came to pass that when the Philistine arose and came and drew near to meet David, that David hurried and ran toward the battle-line to meet the Philistine.
49. And David put his hand into his bag and took a stone out of it, and he slung it, and he struck the Philistine in his forehead, and the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth.
50. So, David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and struck the Philistine and killed him, and no sword was in David’s hand.
51. Then David ran and stood over the Philistine, and took his sword and drew it from the sheath, and killed him, and cut off his head with it. And the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, and fled.

52. So the men of Israel and Judah rose up and shouted, and they pursued the Philistines until you come to the valley and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded Philistines fell on the Road of Two Gates⁸, even to Gath and to Ekron.
53. And the children of Israel returned from pursuing after the Philistines and pillaged their camps.
54. And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put Goliath's stuff in his tent.
55. Now, when Saul was watching David go out to meet the Philistine, he said to Abner, the captain of the army, "Abner, whose son is this young man?" And Abner said, "As your soul lives, O King, I do not know."
56. And the king said, "Ask whose son this youth is."
57. And when David returned from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, and the head of the Philistine was in his hand.
58. And Saul said to him, "Whose son are you young man?" And David said, "A son of your servant, Jesse the Bethlehemite."

1Samuel 18

- ¶1. And it came to pass when he had finished speaking with Saul that Jonathan's soul was knit to David's soul, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.
2. And Saul took him that day and would not allow him to return to his father's house.
3. And Jonathan made a covenant with David because he loved him as his own soul.
4. And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him and gave it to David, along with his military attire, even to his sword and his bow and his belt.
5. And David went forth, wherever Saul sent him, and behaved wisely. So, Saul set him over the men of war, and it was good in the eyes of all the people, and also in the eyes of Saul's servants.
- ¶6. Now, it came to pass that when David returned from slaying the Philistines, the women joyfully came out from all the cities of Israel to meet King Saul with timbrels and three-stringed instruments, singing and dancing as they were coming.
7. And the women answered one another as they played and said, "Saul has slain his thousands, but David, his ten thousands!"
8. Then Saul became very angry, for this saying was evil in his eyes. And he said, "They ascribed ten thousands to David, but to me, they ascribed thousands! And only the kingdom remains for him."
9. And so it was that Saul eyed David from that day onward.

⁸ Or, the road of Shaaraim.

- ¶10. And it came to pass the next day that an evil spirit from God came powerfully upon Saul, and he prophesied within the house. And David was playing with his hand, as he did from day to day, and Saul had his spear in hand.
11. And Saul threw the spear, for he thought, "I will strike David through, even to the wall!" But David got away from him twice.
12. And Saul was afraid of David's presence, for Jehovah was with him and was departed from Saul.
13. So, Saul removed him from himself and appointed him as his captain of a thousand, and he went out and came in before the people.
- ¶14. And David was prudent in all his ways, and Jehovah was with him.
15. And Saul perceived that he was very prudent, and he was afraid of him.
16. But all of Israel and Judah loved David because he went out and came in before them.
- ¶17. Then Saul said to David, "Behold, my older daughter Merab. I will give her to you for a wife, only you must be a mighty man for me and fight Jehovah's battles." For Saul said, "Let not my hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him."
18. And David said to Saul, "Who am I, and who are my kinsmen among my father's family in Israel that I should be son-in-law to the king?"
19. But when the time came to give Merab, Saul's daughter, to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite for a wife.
20. Now Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David, and they told Saul, and the thing was good in his eyes,
21. for Saul thought, "Let me give her to him so that she may be a snare for him, that the hand of the Philistines may come upon him." And Saul said to David the second time, "Today, you shall be my son-in-law."
22. Then Saul commanded his servants, "Speak to David privately, saying, 'Behold, the king delights in you, and all his servants love you. So now, become the king's son-in-law.'"
23. And Saul's servants spoke these words in the ears of David. But David said, "Is it a trifling matter in your eyes to become a son-in-law to the king, as I am a poor man and lightly esteemed?"
24. And Saul's servants told him, saying, "David spoke according to these words."
25. Then Saul said, "Thus shall you say to David: The king does not desire a bride-price, except for one hundred Philistine foreskins, to be avenged of the king's enemies." For Saul thought to cause David to fall by the hand of the Philistines.
26. And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David to make himself the king's son-in-law. And the days were not expired

27. when David rose up and went, he and his men, and struck two hundred men of the Philistines. And David brought their foreskins to become the king's son-in-law, and they tallied them in full for the king. And Saul gave him Michal, his daughter, to wife.
28. Then Saul perceived and knew that Jehovah was with David and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him,
29. and Saul feared David's presence all the more, and Saul became David's enemy continually.
30. And the commanders of the Philistines would go forth, but it came to pass that whenever they went forth, David was more successful than any of Saul's servants, and his name was held in high regard.

1Samuel 19

- ¶1. And Saul told Jonathan his son and all his servants to kill David. But Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted much in David,
2. and Jonathan reported it to David, saying, "My father Saul wants to kill you. So, be on guard now, I beg you, in the morning. Stay in the secret place, and hide yourself
3. and I will go out and stand by my father in the field where you are, and I will speak for you to my father and see how it is, and then report to you."
4. So, Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father, and he said to him, "Let not the king sin against his servant David, because he has not sinned against you, and his deeds have been very good toward you.
5. He even took his life in his hand and struck the Philistine, and Jehovah wrought a great deliverance for all Israel—and you saw it and rejoiced! Now, why would you sin against innocent blood, to kill David for no reason?"
6. And Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan, and Saul swore, "As Jehovah lives, he shall not be slain."
7. And Jonathan summoned David, and Jonathan reported all these words to him, and then Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as in times past.
- ¶8. And there was war again, and David went out and fought against the Philistines, and he struck them with such a great blow that they fled from before him.
9. And the evil spirit from Jehovah was on Saul. And he was sitting in his house, and a spear was in his hand. And David was playing with his hand.
10. And Saul tried to smite David with the spear against the wall, but he got away from Saul and the spear stuck in the wall. And David fled and escaped that night.
11. But Saul sent messengers to David's house, to watch it and to kill him in the morning. But Michal his wife told David, saying, "If you do not escape with your life tonight, you will be killed tomorrow."
12. And Michal let David down through the window, and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13. And Michal took an image and put it on the bed, and she added a net of goat's hair on its head and covered it with a garment.
14. And Saul sent messengers to take David, but she said, "He is sick."
15. Then Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me in the bed, that I might kill him."
16. And the messengers went in, and behold, the idol was on the bed with a net of goat's hair on its head.
17. And Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me like this and let my enemy get away, and he has escaped!" And Michal said to Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go! Why should I kill you?'"
18. So, David fled and escaped. And he went in to Samuel in Ramah and told him all that Saul had done to him, and he and Samuel went and lodged at Naioth.
19. And it was reported to Saul, saying, "Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah."
20. So, Saul sent messengers to take David, and one saw the company of prophets prophesying, with Samuel standing in position over them. And the Spirit of God came upon Saul's messengers, and they, too, began prophesying,
21. and it was told Saul. And he sent other messengers, but they, too, began to prophesy. So, again, Saul sent a third group of messengers, and they also began to prophesy.
22. Then he himself also went to Ramah. And when he came to the great well at Sechu,⁹ he asked and said, "Where are Samuel and David?" And one said, "Behold, at Naioth in Ramah."
23. And so, he went there, to Naioth in Ramah. And the Spirit of God also came upon him, and as he walked along, he prophesied until he entered Naioth in Ramah.
24. Then he stripped off his clothes, and falling down naked, he prophesied before Samuel all that day and all night. That is why they say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

1Samuel 20

- ¶1. And David fled from Naioth in Ramah and he came and said before Jonathan, "What have I done? What is my iniquity? And what is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life?"
2. And he said to him, "Far from it! You shall not die. Behold, my father does nothing, great or small, without telling me about it. Why, then, should my father hide this thing from me? It isn't so!"
3. But David still insisted, saying, "Your father knows very well that I have found favor in your eyes, and he has said, 'Do not let Jonathan know about this, lest he be grieved.'

⁹ Or, "the lookout point".

But truly, as Jehovah lives and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death."

4. And Jonathan said to David, "Whatever you say, I will do for you."
5. And David said to Jonathan, "Behold, tomorrow is the new moon, and I must sit with the king to eat, but let me go so that I can hide myself in the field until the third evening.
6. If your father misses me at all, then you say, 'David earnestly asked leave of me to run to Bethlehem, his city, because of the yearly sacrifice for all the family there.'
7. If he says something like 'Good', it is safe for your servant. But if it enrages him, know that harm has been determined by him.
8. So deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant of Jehovah with you. But if there is iniquity in me, you put me to death, for why should you bring me to your father?"
9. But Jonathan said, "Far be it from you. If I knew for sure that it was determined by my father that harm should come to you, wouldn't I tell you about it?"
10. And David said to Jonathan, "Who will tell me whether your father answers you harshly?"
11. And Jonathan said to David, "Come, let's go out to the field." And the two of them went out to the field.
12. And Jonathan said to David, "Jehovah, God of Israel, is witness that about this time tomorrow, or the third day, I will sound out my father, and behold, if he is well-disposed toward David, and I do not send to you and reveal it to you,
13. may Jehovah do thus to Jonathan and much more! If my father is pleased to do you harm, then I will reveal it to you and send you away, that you may go in peace. And Jehovah be with you as He used to be with my father!
14. And not only while I am still living, and not only with me will you show the kindness of Jehovah, that I not perish,
15. but you will never cut off your kindness from my house, not even when Jehovah cuts off the enemies of David, each one, from the face of the earth."
16. And Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, "Jehovah require it from the hand of David's enemies."
17. And because of his love for him, Jonathan made David swear again, for he loved him as he loved his own soul.
- ¶18. Then Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the new moon, and you will be missed because your seat will be empty.
19. And on the third day, you hurry down and go to the place where you hid yourself the day this business started, and wait by Ezel Rock.
20. And I will shoot three arrows to the side as though I shot at a target.
21. And behold, I will send the boy, saying, 'Go find the arrows!' If I specifically tell the boy, 'Behold! The arrows are on this side of you,' take him and come in because it is safe for you and there is no problem, as Jehovah lives.

22. But if I say this to the youth, ‘Behold! The arrows are beyond you,’ then go, because Jehovah has sent you away.
23. And as for the matter which you and I have discussed, behold, Jehovah be between you and me for ever.”
- ¶24. So, David hid himself in the field. And the new moon came, and the king sat down to eat bread.
25. And the king sat on his seat as at other times, on the seat by the wall, but Jonathan stood. And Abner sat beside Saul, but David’s place was empty.
26. But Saul did not say anything that day, for he thought, “Something has happened to him. He is not clean; certainly, he is not clean.”
27. And it came to pass on the next day, the second day of the new moon, that David’s place was empty. And Saul said to Jonathan his son, “Why has the son of Jesse not come to the meal, neither yesterday nor today?”
28. And Jonathan answered Saul, “David begged permission from me to go to Bethlehem.
29. He said, ‘Let me go, I beg you, because our family has a sacrifice in the city, and my brother, he has commanded me to come. So, if I have found grace in your eyes, let me now slip away and see my brothers.’ That is why he has not come in to the king’s table.”
30. Then Saul’s anger burned hot toward Jonathan and he said to him, “You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Don’t I know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your shame and to the shame of your mother’s nakedness!
31. As long as the son of Jesse is alive upon the earth, neither you nor your kingdom will be established. You send now and bring him to me! He is but a dead man!”
32. And Jonathan answered Saul his father and said to him, “Why should he be put to death? What has he done?”
33. Then Saul threw the spear at him to kill him, and then Jonathan knew that his father was determined to kill David.
34. So, Jonathan rose up from the table in great anger and ate no food on the second day of the new moon, for he was grieved for David because his father had humiliated him.
- ¶35. And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out to the field at the time agreed upon with David, and a young boy was with him.
36. And he said to his boy, “Run, now! Find the arrows I shoot.” The boy ran, and he shot the arrow beyond him.
37. And the boy went to the place of the arrow that Jonathan had shot, and Jonathan called out after the boy, saying, “Isn’t the arrow beyond you?”
38. And Jonathan called out after the boy, “Hurry up! Quick! Do not delay!” So the boy picked up the arrow and came to his lord.
39. Now, the boy did not know anything; only Jonathan and David were aware of the matter.
40. And Jonathan gave his gear to his boy and told him, “Go! Carry it into the city.”

41. The boy went, and David rose up from the south side and fell on his face to the ground, and he bowed himself three times. And they kissed one another and wept together until David exceeded.
42. And Jonathan said to David, “Go in peace, for we have sworn, both of us, by the name of Jehovah, saying, ‘Jehovah be between me and you, and between my children and your children, forever.’” And he rose up and went away, and Jonathan went into the city.

1Samuel 21

- ¶1. And David went to Nob to Ahimelech the priest, and Ahimelech trembled at meeting David, and said to him, “Why are you by yourself and no man with you?”
2. And David said to Ahimelech the priest, “The king commanded me something and said to me, ‘Let no one know anything about this business that I am sending you on or what I have commanded you. And I have directed the servants to such and such a place.’”
3. And now, what do you have on hand? Give me five loaves, or whatever can be found.”
4. And the priest answered David and said, “I do not have any common bread; there is only consecrated bread—if the young men have at least kept themselves from women.”
5. Then David answered the priest and said to him, “Indeed, women have been kept from us, as usual when I go out, and so, the vessels of the young men are holy, and this bread, in a way, is common, for only today was it consecrated in the pan.”
6. And so, the priest gave holy bread to him, for there was no bread there except the bread of the Presence, which is taken away from before Jehovah to set out hot bread on the day it is taken.
7. And one of Saul’s servants was there that day, detained before Jehovah, and his name was Doeg the Edomite, chief of the shepherds that belong to Saul.
8. And David said to Ahimelech, “Do you not have here in your possession a spear or a sword? For I did not take with me either my sword or my stuff, for the business of the king was urgent.
9. And the priest said, “The sword of Goliath, the Philistine whom you killed in the valley of Elah, is here. It is wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you want to take it with you, take it. There is no other here but that one.” And David said, “There is none like it. Give it to me.”
10. And David rose up and fled that day from Saul’s face, and went to Achish, the king of Gath.
11. And the servants of Achish said to him, “Isn’t this David, king of the land? Didn’t they sing about this man with dances, saying, ‘Saul slew his thousands, but David his ten thousands?’”

12. David took these words to heart and was terrified at the presence of Achish, the king of Gath.
13. And he changed his behavior in their sight, and he acted insane in their hands, and he made marks on the doors of the gate and let his spittle run down his beard.
14. Then Achish said to his servants, “Behold! You see the man is acting crazy! Why did you bring him to me?
15. Am I in need of madmen, that you brought this man to act crazy for me? Shall this man come into my house?”

1Samuel 22

- ¶1. And David left there and fled to a cave in Adullam, and his brothers and all his father's house heard of it and went down to him there.
2. And every man in distress, and every man who had a creditor, and every man who was discontented gathered together to him, and he was captain over them. And there were about four hundred men with him.
3. And David went from there to Mizpeh of Moab, and he said to the king of Moab, “I pray, allow my father and my mother to come stay among you until I see what God will do with me.”
4. Then he brought them before the king of Moab, and they stayed with him the whole time that David was in the stronghold.
- ¶5. And Gad the prophet said to David, “Do not stay in the stronghold. Go, and get yourself into the land of Judah.” So David went, and he entered the forest of Hareth.
6. And Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him. And Saul was sitting in Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree in Ramah, and his spear was in his hand, and all his servants were standing around him.
7. And Saul said to his servants who were standing around him, “Hear now, you Benjaminites! The son of Jesse should give fields and vineyards to all of you! He should appoint all of you as captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds,
8. for all of you have conspired against me. For no one tells me when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse, and no one among you felt sorry for me and told me that my son raised up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day.”
9. Then Doeg the Edomite, who was set over Saul's servants, answered and said, “I saw the son of Jesse come to Nob, to Ahimelech ben-Ahitub.
10. And he inquired of Jehovah for him! And he gave him provisions, and he gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.”
11. And the king sent to summon Ahimelech ben-Ahitub, the priest, and all the house of his father, the priests who were in Nob. And all of them came to the king.
- ¶12. And Saul said, “Hear now, you son of Ahitub!” And he said, “Here I am, my lord.”

13. And Saul said to him, “Why have you conspired together against me—you and the son of Jesse—so that you have given him food, and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, that he should rise up against me, to lie in wait, as on this day!”
14. Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, “And who among all your servants is as faithful as David and is the King’s son-in-law who goes about at your command, and is as honored in your house?
15. Have I today begun to inquire of God for him? Far be it from me! Let not the king impute anything to his servant, nor to any of my father’s house, for your servant knew nothing of all this, little or much!”
16. But the king said, “You shall surely die, Ahimelech! You and all your father’s house!”
17. And the king said to the footmen who were stationed around him, “Turn, and kill the priests of Jehovah, for their hand is also with David and because they knew that he was fleeing and did not reveal it to me!” But the king’s servants would not put forth their hand to strike the priests of Jehovah.
18. So the King said to Doeg, “You turn, and fall upon the priests!” And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests. And he killed on that day eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod,
19. and Nob, the city of the priests, he smote with the edge of the sword, both man and woman, both child and infant, and with the edge of the sword, ox, and donkey, and sheep.
20. But one of the sons of Ahimelech ben-Ahitub, whose name was Abiathar, escaped and fled to David.
21. And Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the priests of Jehovah.
22. And David said to Abiathar, “I knew when Doeg the Edomite was there that day that he would certainly make it known to Saul. I have brought about the death of every soul of your father’s house.
23. Stay with me. Do not be afraid. He who seeks my life seeks your life, but with me, you will be safe.”

1Samuel 23

1. And men reported to David, saying, “Behold, Philistines are attacking at Keilah, and they are plundering the threshing floors.”
2. So David inquired of Jehovah, saying, “Shall I go and strike these Philistines?” And Jehovah said to David, “Go and strike the Philistines, and save Keilah.”
3. But David’s men said to him, “Behold, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we go to Keilah against the ranks of the Philistines?”
4. So David inquired of Jehovah again. And Jehovah answered him and said, “Arise. Go down to Keilah, for I am giving the Philistines into your hand.”

5. So David and his men went to Keilah. And he fought against the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter, and led their cattle away. So David delivered the inhabitants of Keilah.
- ¶6. And it came to pass when Abiathar ben-Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, he came down with an ephod in his hand.
7. And it was reported to Saul that David had gone to Keilah, and Saul said, “God has given him over into my hand, for he has closed himself in by going into a city with gates and bars.”
8. And Saul summoned all the people to battle, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.
9. And when David found out that Saul was planning evil against him, he told Abiathar the priest, “Bring the ephod here.”
10. And David said, “O Jehovah, God of Israel, your servant has heard for certain that Saul is planning to come to Keilah to destroy the city on my account.
11. Will the inhabitants of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? Will Saul come down, as your servant has heard? O Jehovah, God of Israel, I beg you, tell your servant!” And Jehovah said, “He will come down.”
12. And David said, “Will the rulers of Keilah deliver me and my men into Saul’s hand?” And Jehovah said, “They will deliver you up.”
13. So David and his men rose up, about six hundred men, and they left Keilah and went wherever they could go. And it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah, so he decided not to go out.
14. And David dwelt in the wilderness in the strongholds, and he dwelt in the mountain of the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God did not deliver him into his hand.
15. And David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life, and David was in the wilderness of Ziph, at Horesh.
- ¶16. And Jonathan the son of Saul rose up and went to David at Horesh, and he strengthened his hand in God,
17. and he said to him, “Do not be afraid, for the hand of Saul my father will not find you, and you will rule over Israel, and I will be second to you. And even Saul my father knows it is so.”
18. And the two of them made a covenant before Jehovah. And David stayed in Horesh, and Jonathan went to his house.
- ¶19. And men of Ziph went up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, “Isn’t David hiding himself among us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hachilah, which is south of Jeshimon?
20. So now, as it is your whole heart’s desire to come down, let the king come down, and our part will be to deliver him into the king’s hand.”

21. And Saul said, “Blessed be you of Jehovah! For you have had compassion on me!
22. Go, I pray you. Make doubly certain, and learn and observe his place, where his movement is, and who has seen him there. For it is told me that he is very crafty.
23. So, watch and take note of all the hiding places where he hides, and return to me when you are certain, and then I will go with you. And if it be that he is in the area, then I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah.”
24. So they rose up and went to Ziph ahead of Saul. And David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the desert to the south of Jeshimon.
25. And Saul and his men went to seek him. And they reported it to David; so, he came down from the rock and dwelt in the wilderness of Maon. And Saul heard of it, and he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.
26. And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men were on the other side of the mountain. And David made haste to get away from Saul, but Saul and his men were closing in on David and his men, to catch them.
27. But a messenger came to Saul, saying, “Hurry, and come! For the Philistines have invaded the land!”
28. So, Saul turned back from pursuing after David and went to confront the Philistines. This is why they named that place Sela Hammah-lekoth.¹⁰
29. And David went up from there and dwelt in strongholds at En-gedi.

1Samuel 24

- ¶1. And when Saul returned from following the Philistines, it came to pass that one reported to him, saying, “Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi.”
2. Then Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel and went to seek David and his men at Wild Goats’ Rocks.
3. And on the way, he came to the sheepfolds, where there is a cave, and Saul went in to cover his feet. Now, David and his men were sitting in the recesses of the cave.
4. And David’s men said to him, “Behold! The day of which Jehovah said to you, ‘Behold, I am going to put your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to him whatever seems good in your eyes.’ ” But David arose and stealthily cut off the skirt of Saul’s robe.
5. And it came to pass afterward that David’s heart struck him because he had cut off Saul’s skirt.
6. And he said to his men, “Before Jehovah, far be it from me that I should do this thing to my lord—to Jehovah’s anointed—to stretch out my hand against him, for he is Jehovah’s anointed.”
7. And David shamed his men with these words, and he did not allow them to rise up against Saul. And Saul arose from the cave and went on his way.

¹⁰ “Rock of Divisions” or “Rock of Separations”.

8. Then David arose afterward and went out of the cave, and he called after Saul, saying, “My lord! O king!” And when Saul looked behind him, David bowed down, face to the ground, and did obeisance.
 9. And David said to Saul, “Why do you listen to the words of a man who says, ‘Behold, David is seeking your harm.’”
 10. Behold, your eyes see this day that Jehovah gave you into my hand today in the cave. And one said to kill you, but my eye had pity on you and I said, ‘I will not put forth my hand against my lord, for he is Jehovah’s anointed.’
 11. Now look, my father, and see the skirt from your robe in my hand! For in that I cut off the skirt of your robe but did not kill you, know and see that there is neither evil nor treason in my hand and that I have not sinned against you; yet, you lie in wait for my life to take it.
 12. Jehovah judge between me and you, and Jehovah avenge me of you, but my hand shall not be against you,
 13. as the proverb of the ancients says, ‘Wickedness proceeds from the wicked, but my hand shall not be against you.’
 14. After whom is the king of Israel come out? After whom are you pursuing? After a dead dog! After a flea!
 15. But Jehovah will be judge, and He will judge between me and you. And may He see and plead my case, and deliver me from your hand!”
- ¶16. And it came to pass when David finished saying these words to Saul that Saul said, “Is this your voice, David, my son?” And Saul lifted up his voice and wept.
17. And he said to David, “You are more righteous than I, for you have repaid me good, but I have repaid you evil.
 18. And today you have made it known that you have dealt well with me, in that Jehovah gave me into your hand, but you did not kill me.
 19. For when does a man find his enemy and let him go away safely? Jehovah will certainly reward you with good for this that you have done to me this day.
 20. And now, behold, I know that you will certainly be king, and in your hand shall the kingdom of Israel be established.
 21. Yet now, swear to me by Jehovah, that you will not cut off my seed after me and that you will not cause my name to be wiped out from my father’s house.”
 22. And David swore to Saul. And Saul went to his house, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

- ¶1. Now Samuel died, and all Israel gathered together and mourned for him, and they buried him in Ramah, his home. Then David arose and went down to the wilderness of Paran.
- ¶2. And there was a man in Maon whose business was in Carmel. And the man was very great; he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats, and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.
3. And the man's name was Nabal,¹¹ and his wife's name was Abigail. And the woman had good discernment and was beautiful. But the man was hard and evil in his doings, and he was a descendent of Caleb.
4. And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep.
5. So, David sent ten young men, and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and in my name, ask him of his welfare.
6. And then say this: 'Life and peace be to you, and peace to your house, and peace to all that you have.'
7. I hear that your men are shearing now. All the while your shepherds were with us, we did them no harm, and nothing of theirs was missing all the days they were in Carmel.
8. Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore, let the young men find favor in your eyes, for we have come at a good time. If you will, give what you find at hand to your servants and to your son David."
9. And David's young men went, and they spoke all these words to Nabal in David's name, and then they waited.
10. But Nabal answered David's servants and said, "Who is David, and who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants nowadays who break away from their masters.
11. And am I going to take my bread, and my water, and my meat which I slaughtered for my shearers, and give it to men who come from I don't know where!"
12. So, David's young men turned back to their way and returned, and they came in and told him all these words.
13. And David said to his men, "Every man strap on his sword!" And each of them strapped on his sword, and David also strapped on his sword. And about four hundred men followed David and went up, while two hundred remained with the stuff.
- ¶14. Now, one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, "Behold, David sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our lord, but he railed at them.
15. But the men were very good to us and did us no harm, and we didn't miss anything the whole time we went about with them, when we were in the field.

¹¹ That is, "fool".

16. They were a wall to us both night and day, all the time we were with them keeping the sheep.
17. So now, know and consider what you should do, for evil is determined against our lord and all his house, and he is such a son of Belial that no one can talk to him!"
18. And Abigail hastened and took two hundred loaves, and two skins of wine, and five prepared sheep, and five measures of parched grain, and a hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and loaded them on donkeys.
19. And she said to her young men, "Go on before me. Behold, I will follow behind you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.
20. And it came to pass that she rode on the donkey and came down to the mountain hiding place, and behold, David and his men were coming down to meet her, and she met them.
21. Now, David had said, "Surely, in vain have I guarded all that this man has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all which was his, and he has returned me evil for good.
22. God do so to the enemies of David, and even more, if by morning I leave anyone that belongs to him—even one who pisses against the wall."
23. And Abigail saw David, and she hurried and got down from the donkey, and because of David's anger, she fell on her face and bowed herself to the ground.
24. And when she fell at his feet, she said, "On me, my lord, be the wrong! Let your maidservant, I beg you, speak in your ears. And do listen to the words of your servant!
25. I pray, let my lord pay no attention to this man of Belial, to Nabal, for he is just like his name. His name is Fool, and foolishness is with him. But I, your servant, did not see my lord's young men that you sent.
26. And now, my lord, as Jehovah lives and as your soul lives, since Jehovah has held you back from blood-guilt and from avenging yourself by your own hand, let now your enemies and those who seek to do my lord harm be as Nabal.
27. And now this gift that I, your handmaiden, have brought for my lord, let it be given to the young men who are following my lord.
28. Forgive, I beg you, the transgression of your maidservant, for Jehovah shall make an established house for my lord because my lord fights Jehovah's battles, and evil has not been found in you all your days.
29. And yet, a man has risen up to pursue you and to seek your soul, but the soul of my lord will be bound up in the bundle of the living with Jehovah your God, but the soul of your enemies shall be slung from the pocket of the sling.
30. And it shall come to pass that when Jehovah does for my lord according to all the good that has been spoken concerning you and has appointed you as ruler over Israel,

31. that this shall not be for you a cause for regret or a stumbling-block in my lord's heart, either for shedding blood without cause or for my lord avenging himself. And when Jehovah has dealt well with my lord, then remember your maid-servant."
 32. And David said to Abigail, "Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel, who sent you today to meet me.
 33. And blessed be your discernment. And blessed be you, who have restrained me today from coming to blood-guilt and from avenging myself by my own hand
 34. But indeed, as Jehovah the God of Israel lives who held me back from hurting you, had you not hurried and come to meet me, surely by morning light, there had not been left to Nabal any that pisses against the wall."
 35. And David took from her hand what she had brought him, and he said to her, "Go in peace to your house. Behold, I have listened to your voice and have shown you favor."
 36. So Abigail went back to Nabal and behold, he was holding a feast in his house like the feast of a king. And Nabal's heart was merry within him, and he was very drunk, so she did not tell him anything, less or more, until daybreak.
 37. And it came to pass in the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, that his wife told him these things. And his heart died within him, and he was like a stone.
 38. And it came to pass after ten days that Jehovah struck Nabal and he died.
- ¶39. When David heard that Nabal had died, and he said, "Blessed be Jehovah, who has pleaded the case of my reproach at the hand of Nabal and has kept His servant from evil. And Jehovah has returned Nabal's wickedness upon his own head." Then David sent and spoke to Abigail, to take her for his wife.
40. And David's servants went to Abigail at Carmel, and they spoke to her, saying, "David sent us to you to take you for his wife."
 41. And she rose up, and she bowed her face to the ground and said, "Behold, let your maid-servant be a handmaiden to wash the feet of the servants of my lord."
 42. Then Abigail hurried and rose up, and she rode on the donkey, and five of her servant-girls attended her. And she followed David's messengers, and she became his wife.
 43. David also took Ahinoam from Jezreel, and so, the two of them became his wives.
- ¶44. Now, Saul had given his daughter, David's wife, Michal to Phalti ben-Laish, who was from Gallim.

1Samuel 26

1. And the men of Ziph came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Isn't David hiding himself in the hill of Hachilah, to the east of Jeshimon?"
2. Then Saul rose and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, and three thousand chosen men of Israel were with him, to look for David in the wilderness of Ziph.

3. And Saul camped in the hill of Hachilah which is east of Jeshimon, on the road. And David was dwelling in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul had come after him into the wilderness.
 4. And David sent spies, and he found that Saul had certainly come.
 5. Then David arose and went to the place where Saul had made camp. And David saw the place where Saul lay, and Abner ben-Ner, captain of his army. Now, Saul was sleeping within the encampment, and the people were encamped around him.
 6. And David answered and spoke to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Zeruiah's son Abishai, the brother of Joab, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul, to the camp?" And Abishai said, "Me! I'll go down with you!"
 7. So, David and Abishai came to the company by night, and behold, Saul lay asleep in the encampment with his spear stuck in the ground at his head. And Abner and the people were sleeping around him.
- ¶8. And Abishai said to David, "God has delivered your enemy into your hand this day. So, let me now pin him to the ground with the spear, I pray you—just once, and I will not strike him twice."
9. And David said to Abishai, "Do him no harm. For who can stretch out his hand against Jehovah's anointed and be innocent?"
 10. For David said, "As Jehovah lives, certainly, Jehovah will strike him down, or his day will come to die, or he will go down into battle and perish."
 11. Jehovah forbid that I stretch out my hand against Jehovah's anointed! So, take if you will, the spear that is at his head and the water jug, and let's go."
 12. Then David took the spear and the water jug at Saul's head, and they got themselves away. And no one saw it or knew it, nor did anyone awaken, for they all slept because a deep sleep from Jehovah had fallen upon them.
 13. And David went over to the other side and stood on top of a distant hill, a large space being between them.
 14. And David called out to the people and to Abner ben-Ner, saying, "Abner! Will you not answer?" And Abner answered and said, "Who are you who calls to the king?"
- ¶15. And David said to Abner, "Aren't you a man? And who is like you in Israel? So, why did you not guard your lord the king when one of the people came in to harm your lord the king?"
16. This thing that you have done is not good. As Jehovah lives, you men are worthy of death, seeing that you did not watch over your lord, over the anointed of Jehovah. And now, look! Where is the king's spear and the water jug that were at his head?"

17. And Saul recognized David's voice, and he said, "David, is this your voice, my son?"
And David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king."
18. And he said, "Why is my lord chasing after his servant? What have I done? And what evil is in my hand?
19. I beg you, let my lord the king hear now the words of his servant. If Jehovah has incited you against me, let Him accept an offering, but if it be the sons of men, cursed be they before Jehovah, for today they have driven me away from sharing in the inheritance of Jehovah, saying, 'Go, serve other gods!'
20. But let not my blood fall to the ground now before the face of Jehovah, for the king of Israel has come out seeking a flea, as when one chases a partridge on the mountains."
21. And Saul said, "I have sinned. Return, David my son, for I will do you no more harm, seeing that my life was precious in your eyes today. Behold, I have done foolishly and have erred very badly."
22. And David answered and said, "Behold! The spear of the king! Let one of the lads come over and get it!
23. And Jehovah shall repay to each his righteousness and his faithfulness. Jehovah delivered you into my hand this day, but I would not stretch out my hand against the anointed of Jehovah.
24. And behold, just as your life was esteemed this day in my eyes, so let my life be esteemed in Jehovah's eyes, and let Him deliver me from all trouble."
25. Then Saul said to David, "Be blessed, my son David. You shall both do great things and prevail." So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

1Samuel 27

- ¶1. But David said in his heart, "I will now perish one day at the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than to escape quickly into the land of the Philistines. And Saul will despair of me, to seek me any more within all the borders of Israel, and I will escape out of his hand."
2. And David arose, and passed over, he and six hundred men that were with him, to Achish ben-Maoch, king of Gath.
3. And David dwelt with Achish in Gath, he and his men, every man and his household, and David and his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelite and Abigail the Carmelite, Nabal's wife.
4. And it was told to Saul that David fled to Gath, and he did not seek him again.
5. And David said to Achish, "If I have now found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in one of the towns in the countryside, and let me dwell there, for why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?"
6. And that day, Achish gave him Ziklag. Wherefore Ziklag belongs to the kings of Judah to this day.

- ¶7. And the number of days that David dwelt in the Philistine countryside was a year and four months.
8. And David and his men went up, and raided the Geshurites, and the Gezrites, and the Amalekites (for those were of old the inhabitants of the land), as you enter into Shur, even to the land of Egypt.
9. And David would strike the land and leave neither man nor woman alive, and he would take sheep, and oxen, and asses, and camels, and garments, and return and come in to Achish.
10. And Achish would say, “Where did you make a raid today?” And David would say, “Against the Negev of Judah”, or “Against the Negev of the Jerahmeelites”, or “Against the Negev of the Kenites.”
11. And David left neither man nor woman alive to bring news to Gath, saying, “Otherwise, they will tell on us, saying, ‘Thus David did.’” And this was his practice all the days he lived in the Philistine countryside.
12. And Achish believed David, saying, “He has made himself loathsome to his people, Israel. He shall be my servant forever.”

1Samuel 28

- ¶1. And it came to pass in those days that the Philistines assembled their forces for war, to fight against Israel. And Achish said to David, “Know assuredly that you and your men are to go with me to battle.”
2. Then David said to Achish, “Very well. You shall find out what your servant can do.” And Achish said to David, “For this, I will appoint you keeper of my head forever.”
3. (Now, Samuel had died, and all Israel mourned for him and buried him in Ramah, his own city. Also, Saul had put away the mediums and those with familiar spirits from the land.)
4. And the Philistines assembled, and came and camped in Shunem. And Saul assembled all Israel and camped in Gilboa.
5. And when Saul caught sight of the camp of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly.
6. And Saul inquired of Jehovah, but Jehovah did not answer him, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets.
7. And Saul said to his servants, “Find me a woman who is a master medium, that I might go to her and inquire of her.” And his servants said to him, “Behold, a woman at Endor is a master medium.”
8. So, Saul disguised himself and put on other clothing, and he went, and two other men with him. And they came to the woman at night, and he said, “Divine for me, if you will, by the familiar spirit, and bring up for me whom I tell you.”

9. But the woman said to him, “Behold, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and those with familiar spirits from the land. So, why are you setting a trap for my life, to bring about my death?”
10. But Saul swore to her by Jehovah, saying, “As Jehovah lives, you shall not be punished for this thing!”
11. Then the woman said, “Whom shall I bring up for you?” And he said, “Bring me up Samuel.”
12. And when the woman saw Samuel, she screamed. And the woman said to Saul, “Why have you deceived me! You’re Saul!”
13. But the king said to her, “Don’t be afraid—but what do you see?” And the woman said to Saul, “I see a god coming up out of the earth!”
14. Then he said to her, “What does he look like?” And she said, “An old man is coming up, and he is covered with a robe.” Then Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed his face to the ground and did homage.
15. Then Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you disturbed me to bring me up!” And Saul said, “I am greatly distressed, for the Philistines are waging war against me, and God has left me and doesn’t answer me anymore, neither by prophets nor by dreams. So, I summoned you to let me know what I should do.”
- ¶16. And Samuel said, “Why, then, are you inquiring of me, since Jehovah has departed from you and has become your adversary?
17. And Jehovah has done to him just as He spoke by me, for Jehovah has torn the kingdom from your hand and has given it to David, your neighbor,
18. since you did not obey Jehovah’s voice nor execute His fierce wrath upon Amalek. That is why Jehovah has done this thing to you today.
19. Moreover, Jehovah will deliver Israel, with you, into the hand of the Philistines, and tomorrow, you and your sons will be with me. Yea, Jehovah will deliver the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines!”
20. And immediately, Saul fell full length upon the ground and was in great fear because of Samuel’s words. Moreover, he had no strength left in him because he had not eaten food all day and all night.
21. Then the woman came to Saul and could see that he was distraught, and she said to him, “Behold, your handmaid obeyed your voice and put my life in my hand, and I obeyed your words that you spoke to me.
22. So then, I beg you now to listen to the voice of your handmaid. Let me set a little food before you, and you eat, and let it give you strength so that you can go on your way.”

23. But he refused and said, “I will not eat!” But his servants, along with the woman, compelled him, and he listened to their voice. And he arose from the ground and sat on the bed.
24. And the woman had a fattened calf in the house, and she quickly slaughtered it, and she took flour and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread.
25. And she placed it before Saul and before his servants, and they ate. Then they arose and went their way that night.

1Samuel 29

- ¶1. And the Philistines gathered all their armies at Aphek. And the Israelites camped by the spring that is in Jezreel.
2. And the lords of the Philistines were marching by hundreds and by thousands, and David and his men marched in the rear with Achish.
3. And the rulers of the Philistines said, “What are these Hebrews doing here? And Achish said to the rulers of the Philistines, “Is this not David, the servant of Saul, king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or these years? And I have found no fault in him from the day he deserted to this day.”
4. But the rulers of the Philistines were angry with him, and the rulers of the Philistines said to him, “Make the man go back and return to his place that you assigned him. He shall not go down with us into battle, lest in the battle, he become an adversary to us! For with what will he reconcile himself to his master, except with the heads of these men?”
5. Is this not David, of whom they sing to one another in dances, saying, ‘Saul has slain his thousands, but David, his ten thousands!’”
- ¶6. Then Achish summoned David and said to him, “As Jehovah lives, you are certainly upright, and it is good in my sight that you go out and come in with me in the camp, for I have found no evil in you from the day you came to me until this day. However, in the eyes of the lords, it is not good for you to do so.
7. So, return now, and go in peace, so that you do not displease the lords of the Philistines.”
8. And David said to Achish, “What have I done? And what have you found in your servant from the day that I came before you until today, that I may not come and fight the enemies of my lord the king?”
9. And Achish answered and said to David, “I know that you are good in my eyes, like an angel of God. But the rulers of the Philistines said, ‘He shall not go up with us into the battle!’
10. Now you rise early in the morning, and the servants of your lord who came with you, and when you rise early in the morning and have light, go.”

11. So, David rose early in the morning, he and his men, to go to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

1Samuel 30

- ¶1. And it came to pass on the third day, when David and his men came to Ziklag, that the Amalekites had made a raid into the Negev, and to Ziklag, and they had struck Ziklag and burned it with fire.
- 2. And they had taken captive the women who were there, from young to old; they had put no one to death, but led them off and went their way.
- 3. Then David and his men entered the city, and behold, it was burned with fire, and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters had been taken captive.
- 4. And David and the people who were with him lifted up their voice and wept until they could weep no more.
- 5. And David's two wives were taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelite and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.
- 6. And David was very distressed because the people spoke of stoning him, for the soul of all the people was grieved, each one for his sons and for his daughters. But David strengthened himself in Jehovah his God.
- ¶7. And David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, "Bring the ephod to me, I pray you." And Abiathar brought the ephod to David.
- 8. And David asked Jehovah, saying, "If I pursue this band, will I overtake them?" And He said to him, "Make pursuit! For you will certainly overtake them and recover everything."
- 9. And so, David went, he and six hundred men who were with him, and they came to the Brook Besor, where they were left behind who stayed there.
- 10. But David made pursuit, he and four hundred men, for two hundred men stayed behind because they were too exhausted to cross the Brook Besor.
- 11. And they found an Egyptian in the field, and they took him to David, and they gave him bread and he ate, and they gave him water to drink.
- 12. And they gave him a fig cake and two clusters of raisins, and he ate, and his spirit returned to him, for he had not eaten food or drunk water three days and three nights.
- 13. And David said to him, "Who do you belong to, and where are you from?" And he said, "I am a young man from Egypt, slave to an Amalekite, but my master abandoned me because I fell sick three days ago.
- 14. We made a raid south of the Cherethites, and on territory belonging to Judah, and to the south of Caleb, and we burned Ziklag with fire."
- 15. And David said to him, "Can you take me down to this band?" And he said, "Swear to me by God that you will not kill me and that you will not hand me over to my owner, and I will take you down to this band."

16. And he brought him down. And behold, they were by themselves over the face of the whole land, eating and drinking and feasting, with all the great plunder they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.
 17. And David slaughtered them from twilight until the evening of the next day, and not a man escaped them, except four hundred young men who rode on camels and got away.
 18. So David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken, and David rescued his two wives.
 19. And nothing of theirs was missing, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, nor spoil—nothing of theirs that they had taken; David brought everything back.
 20. And David took all the flocks and herds. They drove on ahead of this livestock, and they said, “This is David’s spoil.”
 21. And David came to the two hundred men who were too exhausted to follow David, but had been left behind at the Brook Besor, and they went out to greet David and to greet the people who were with him. And when David drew near the people, he asked of their welfare.
 22. Then every wicked and worthless man among the men who went with David answered and said, “Because they did not go with me, I will not give them the spoil that we have recovered, except to each man his wife and his children. Let them take them and go!”
 23. But David said, “You must not do so, my brothers, with what Jehovah has given to us. For He has kept us and has given into our hands the marauding band that came in upon us.
 24. So, who would listen to you in this matter? The portion of him who goes down to the battle shall be like the portion of him who stays by the stuff. They shall share alike!”
 25. And it came to pass, from that day onward, that he established it as an ordinance and a law for Israel, until this day.
- ¶26. Then David came to Ziklag, and he sent some of the spoil to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, “Behold! A blessing for you from the enemies of Jehovah!”
27. To those in Bethel, and to those in Ramoth-Negev, and to those in Jattir,
 28. and to those in Aroer, and to those in Siphmoth, and to those in Eshtemoah,
 29. and to those in Racal, and to those in the cities of the Jarahmeelites, and to those in the cities of the Kenites,
 30. and to those in Hormah, and to those in Bor-ashan, and to those in Athach,
 31. and to those in Hebron, and to those in all the places where David and his men had roamed.

1Samuel 31

- ¶1. Now, the Philistines had begun to fight against Israel, and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and they fell, slain on Mount Gilboa.
2. And the Philistines were on the heels of Saul and his sons, and the Philistines struck down Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, Saul’s sons.

3. And the fight increased around Saul, and the archers found him, and he was badly wounded by the archers.
 4. And Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and run me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and run me through, and abuse me!" But his armor-bearer would not, for he was very afraid. So, Saul took the sword and fell on it.
 5. And when his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he, too, fell on his sword and died with him.
 6. So, Saul and his three sons died, and his armor-bearer, as well as all his men, on the same day, together.
 7. And when the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley and who were beyond the Jordan saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities and fled, and the Philistines entered in and lived in them.
- ¶8. And it came to pass on the following day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.
9. And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to carry the news to the house of their idols and to the people.
 10. And they put his armor in the temple of Ashtaroth, and they fastened his dead body to the wall of Beth-shean.
 11. But when those who lived in Jabesh-Gilead heard about what the Philistines had done to Saul,
 12. then all the stalwart men arose, and they walked all night, and they took Saul's body and the bodies of his sons off the wall of Beth-Shean, and they went to Jabesh and burned them there.
 13. Then they took their bones, and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh. And they fasted seven days.

2Samuel

2Samuel 1

- ¶1. And it came to pass, after Saul's death, that David returned from slaying the Amalekites, and David stayed in Ziklag two days.
2. And it came to pass on the third day that, behold, a man came from the camp, from being with Saul, with his clothes torn and dirt on his head. And it came to pass when he came to David that he fell to the earth and prostrated himself.
3. And David said to him, "Where have you come from?" And he said to him, "I escaped from the camp of Israel."
4. Then David said to him, "What is the report? Tell me, I pray you." And he said, "The people fled from the battle, and many of the people have also fallen and died. And Saul and Jonathan his son died also."
5. And David said to the young man who had brought him the report, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan died?"
6. And the young man who brought him the report said, "I had an unexpected encounter on Mount Gilboa, and behold, Saul was leaning on his spear. And behold, the chariots and horsemen were closing in on him.
7. And he turned around and saw me, and he called to me. And I answered, 'Here I am.'
8. And he said to me, 'Who are you?' And I said to him, 'I am an Amalekite.'
9. And he said to me, 'Stand over me, I beg you, and kill me, for agony has taken hold of me, but my life is yet in me.'
10. So I stood over him, and I killed him, for I knew that he would not live after he had fallen. And I took the crown that was on his head and a bracelet that was on his arm and brought them here to my lord."
11. Then David took hold of his garment and tore them apart, and likewise did all of the men who were with him.
12. And they mourned, and wept, and fasted until evening for Saul and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of Jehovah, and for the house of Israel because they had fallen by the sword.
- ¶13. Now, David had said to the young man who brought him the report, "Where were you from?" And he said, "I am an Amalekite, the son of a sojourner."
14. And David said to him, "How were you not afraid to stretch forth your hand to destroy Jehovah's anointed?"
15. Then David called to one of the young men and said, "Come here! Fall upon him!" So he struck him down, and he died.

16. And David said to him, “Your blood be upon your own head, for your mouth testified against you, saying, ‘I have killed the anointed of Jehovah.’”
- ¶17. Then David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and Jonathan his son,
 18. and he said to teach “The Bow” to the sons of Judah (behold, it is written in the book of Jasher):
 19. “The beauty of Israel is slain upon your high places. How the mighty are fallen!
 20. Do not tell it in Gath. Do not publish it in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.
 21. O mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew or rain upon you, nor fields for offerings! For there, the shield of mighty men was cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil.
 22. From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, Jonathan’s bow did not turn back, neither did Saul’s sword return empty.
 23. Saul and Jonathan were beloved and pleasant in their lives, and in their deaths they were not divided. They were swifter than eagles, stronger than lions.
 24. O daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, who clothed you luxuriously in scarlet, who adorned your apparel with ornaments of gold.
 25. Oh, how the mighty are fallen in the midst of battle! O Jonathan! You were slain on your high places!
 26. I am in anguish over you, Jonathan my brother! You were very delightful to me. Your love for me was more wondrous than the love of women.
 27. Oh, how the mighty are fallen! Yea, the vessels of war have perished!”

2Samuel 2

- ¶1. And it came to pass after this that David inquired of Jehovah, saying, “Shall I go up to one of the cities of Judah?” And Jehovah said to him, “Go up.” And David said, “To where shall I go up?” And He said, “To Hebron.”
2. So David went up there, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelite, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.
3. And David brought up the men who were with him, each with his household, and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.
4. And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David as king over the house of Judah.

¶Then they told David, “The men of Jabesh-Gilead were the ones who buried Saul.”
5. So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-Gilead and said to them, “Blessed be you of Jehovah, that you showed this kindness toward your lord, toward Saul, and buried him.

6. And now, may Jehovah show kindness and truth to you, and I also will do the same good to you because you have done this thing.
 7. So let your hands be strengthened now, and be as men of might, for Saul your lord is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me to be king over them.”
- ¶8. But Abner ben-Ner, captain of Saul’s army, took Ish-bosheth ben-Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim,
9. and made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.
- ¶10. Ish-bosheth ben-Saul was forty years old when he became king over Israel, and he reigned two years; however, the house of Judah followed after David.
11. And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.
- ¶12. And Abner ben-Ner and the servants of Ish-bosheth ben-Saul came out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.
13. And Joab ben-Zeruiah and the servants of David went out and met together with them by the pool of Gibeon, and they sat down, these on this side of the pool, and those on the other side of the pool.
 14. And Abner said to Joab, “Let the young men, I pray you, arise and make sport before us.” And Joab said, “Let them arise.”
 15. Then they arose and passed over by number: twelve for Benjamin and for Ish-boseth ben-Saul, and twelve from the servants of David.
 16. And they took hold of each other by the head, and thrust his sword in his opponent’s side. So they fell together. And that place was called Helkath-hazzurim,¹ which is in Gibeon.
 17. And the battle was very fierce that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were beaten before the servants of David.
 18. And the three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel. And Asahel was light on his feet, like one of the gazelles in the field.
 19. And Asahel pursued after Abner, and he did not turn from following Abner, to go either to the right or the left.
 20. Then Abner turned to look behind him, and he said, “Is that you, Asahel?” And he said, “It is.”
 21. And Abner said to him, “Turn for your own good to your right or to your left, and take hold of one of the young men for yourself, and take for yourself his armor.” But Asahel would not turn aside from following him.

22. And Abner said yet again to Asahel, “Turn aside for your own good from following me! Why should I strike you down to the ground? How then could I hold up my face to Joab your brother?”
23. But he refused to turn aside; so, Abner struck him with the back end of the spear into his belly, and the spear came out his back side, and he fell there and died in that place. And it came to pass that all who came to the place where Asahel fell and died stood still there.
24. And Joab and Abishai pursued after Abner. And the sun was setting as they came to the hill of Ammah, which is before Giah, by way of the wilderness of Gibeon.
25. And the sons of Benjamin were gathered together behind Abner, and they became one unit and stood on top of a hill as one.
26. Then Abner called to Joab and said, “Shall the sword consume forever? Do you not know that it will be bitterness in the end? How long will it be before you tell the people to turn back from following after their brothers?”
27. And Joab said, “As God lives, indeed, if you had not spoken, then surely the people would have withdrawn in the morning, each one from following his brother.”
28. So Joab blew the shofar, and all the people stood still and did not pursue after Israel any more, neither did they any longer continue to fight.
29. And Abner and his men marched through the plain all that night, and they crossed over the Jordan, and they went through all of the Bithron² and came to Mahanaim.
30. And when Joab returned from following Abner, he gathered all the company, and nineteen servants of David were lacking, and Asahel.
31. But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin and of Abner’s men three hundred and sixty men who died.
32. And they carried Asahel and buried him in the tomb of his father, which is in Bethlehem. And Joab and his men marched all night, and day broke upon them at Hebron.

2Samuel 3

- ¶1. Now there was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David, but David waxed stronger, but the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker.
- ¶2. And sons were born to David at Hebron. And his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelite;
3. his second was Chileab, by Abigail, the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; the third was Absalom, the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur;
4. the fourth was Adonijah, the son of Haggith; the fifth was Shephatiah, the son of Abital;

² Hebrew obscure.

5. and the sixth was Ithream, by Eglah, David's wife. These were born to David at Hebron.
 - ¶6. And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner was strengthening himself in the house of Saul.
 7. Now Saul had a concubine whose name was Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, and Ishbosheth said to Abner, "Why did you go in to my father's concubine?"
 8. And Abner became very angry at the words of Ishbosheth, and he said, "Am I a dog's head who is for Judah? Today, I showed kindness to the house of Saul your father, to his kin, and to his companions, and I have not delivered you into the hand of David, yet you have charged me today with a fault concerning this woman!"
 9. God do thus to Abner, and more than that to him, unless as Jehovah has sworn to David, I do so for him,
 10. to take the kingdom away from the house of Saul, and to establish the throne of David over Israel and Judah, from Dan to Beersheba."
 11. And he could not answer Abner anything more because he was afraid of him.
- ¶12. Then Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, "Whose is the land?", saying also, "Make your covenant with me, and behold, my hand shall be with you to turn all Israel over to you."
13. And he said, "Good, I will make a covenant with you. Only, one thing will I require of you: you shall not see my face until you bring Michal, the daughter of Saul, when you come to see my face."
 14. And David sent messengers to Ishbosheth ben-Saul, saying, "Give me my wife Michal whom I betrothed to myself for a hundred Philistine foreskins."
 15. And Ishbosheth sent and took her from her husband, from Phaltiel ben-Lush.
 16. And her husband went with her, going and weeping after her as far as Bahurim. But Abner said to him, "Go! Go back!" And so, he went back.
- ¶17. And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, "Even before, in times past, you were seeking for David to be king over you.
18. Do so now, then, for Jehovah spoke of David, saying, 'By the hand of David, my servant, will I save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.'"
 19. And Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin. Then Abner also went to speak in the ears of David at Hebron all that was good in the eyes of Israel and in the eyes of the whole house of Benjamin.
 20. And Abner came to David at Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made a feast for Abner and for the men who were with him.

21. And Abner said to David, “Let me arise and go, and I will gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, that you may reign over all that your soul desires.” And David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.
22. And, behold, servants of David, with Joab, came from a raid, and they had brought much spoil with them. However, Abner was not with David at Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had left in peace.
23. When Joab and all the host who were with him had come, then they reported to Joab, saying, “Abner ben-Ner came to the king, and he sent him away, and he left in peace.”
24. Then Joab came to the king, and he said, “What have you done? Behold, Abner came to you. Why did you dismiss him? Now he’s getting away!
25. You know Abner ben-Ner, that he came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you are doing.”
26. And when Joab went out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back again from the well of Sirah. But David did not know.
27. And when Abner had returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside to the middle of the gate to speak with him privately. But he struck him there in the stomach so that he died, on account of the blood of Asahel his brother.
28. But after David heard of this, then he said, “I and my kingdom are guiltless before Jehovah forever of the blood of Abner ben-Ner.
29. Let these things fall on the head of Joab, and on all his father’s house: yea, let there not fail to be in the house of Joab one with an issue of blood, or that is a leper, or that holds a staff, or that falls by the sword, or that lacks bread!”
30. Now Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner because he had slain Asahel their brother in the battle at Gibeon.
31. And David said to Joab, and to all the people who were with him, “Tear your clothes, and gird yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner.” But King David followed the bier.
32. And they buried Abner in Hebron. And the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept.
33. And the king lamented over Abner, and said, “Should Abner have died the death of a fool?
34. Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put in fetters. As one falls before wicked men have you fallen.” Then all the people wept again over him.
35. And when all the people came to encourage David to eat bread while it was yet day, David swore, saying, “Let God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else until the sun goes down!”
36. And all the people took note of it, and it was good in their eyes, as everything that the king did was good in the eyes of all the people.

37. And all the people, even all Israel, understood on that day that it was not of the king to kill Abner ben-Ner.
38. And the king said to his servants, “Do you not know that a prince, and a great one, has fallen this day in Israel?
39. And this day, I am weak, even though anointed king. And these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too hard for me. May Jehovah repay the evildoer according to his wickedness.”

2Samuel 4

- ¶1. Now Saul’s son heard that Abner had died at Hebron, and his strength failed, and all Israel was dismayed.
2. And Saul’s son had two men who were leaders of raiding parties; the name of the first was Baanah, and the name of the second was Rechab, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin (for Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin,
3. but the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and they are sojourners there to this day).
4. And Jonathan ben-Saul had a son crippled in his feet. He was five years old when the report came from Jezreel about Saul and Jonathan, and his nurse picked him up and fled. But it came to pass, as she hurried to flee that he fell and was made lame. And his name was Mephibosheth.
5. And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, came, and about the heat of the day, they entered into the house of Ishbosheth, and he was lying down on a bed at noon.
6. And, behold, they entered into the midst of the house as if to get wheat, and they struck him in the stomach. And Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.
7. For when they entered the house, he was lying on his bed in his bedchamber, and they struck and killed him. They also beheaded him, and took his head, and went by the way of the Arabah all night.
8. And they brought Ishbosheth’s head to David at Hebron, and they said to the king, “Behold, the head of Ishbosheth ben-Saul, your enemy who sought your life. But Jehovah has this day given to my lord the king vengeance upon Saul and his seed.”
9. And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, “As Jehovah lives, who has redeemed my soul from all distress,
10. when one told me, saying, ‘Behold, Saul is dead’, it being in his eyes good news, I seized him and killed him at Ziklag, which was my gift for his good news.
11. How much more, when evil men have killed a righteous man in his house on his own bed! Shall I not now require his blood of your hands, and remove you from the earth?”
12. And David commanded the young men, and they killed them and cut off their hands and their feet, and they hanged them over the pool at Hebron. And they took Ishbosheth’s head and buried it in Abner’s tomb in Hebron.

2Samuel 5

- ¶1. Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron, and they spoke, saying, “Behold, we are your bone and your flesh.
2. Also, in times past, when Saul was king over us, you were the one who led out and brought in Israel. And Jehovah said to you, ‘You shall shepherd my people Israel, and you shall be ruler over Israel.’”
3. And all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before Jehovah, and they anointed David as king over Israel.
- ¶4. David was thirty years old when he began to reign. He reigned forty years.
5. At Hebron, he reigned seven years and six months over Judah, and at Jerusalem, he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.
6. And the king, with his men, went to Jerusalem, to the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land. And they spoke to David, saying, “You will not enter here. For even the blind and the lame will repel you,” thinking, “David will not enter here.”
7. But David took the stronghold of Zion, which is the city of David.
8. And David said on that day, “Let everyone strike down a Jebusite!” And by way of the water shaft, he reached “the lame and the blind”, who were hated by David’s soul. For this reason, they say, “The blind and the lame shall not enter into the house.”
9. Then David dwelt in the stronghold, and he called it the City of David. And David built all around from Millo and within.
10. And David became greater and greater, and Jehovah the God of Hosts was with him.
- ¶11. And Hiram, king of Tyre, sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons for stone walls, and they built a house for David.
12. And David understood that Jehovah had established him as king over Israel and that He had exalted his kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.
13. And David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem after he came from Hebron, and more sons and daughters were born to David.
14. And these are the names of those born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon,
15. and Ibhar, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia,
16. and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphale.
- ¶17. But the Philistines heard that they had anointed David as king over Israel. Then all the Philistines came up to look for David. And when David heard of it, he went down to the stronghold.
18. And the Philistines came and spread themselves out in the Valley of Rephaim.
19. And David inquired of Jehovah, saying, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand?” And Jehovah said to David, “Go up! I will certainly deliver the Philistines into your hand.”

20. So, David went to Baal-Perazim. And there, David struck them down, and he said, "Jehovah has burst forth upon my enemies before me, like a bursting forth of waters." Therefore, he named that place Baal-Perazim.³
21. And they abandoned their idols there, and David and his men carried them away.
- ¶22. And the Philistines came up yet again and spread themselves in the Valley of Rephaim.
23. Then David inquired of Jehovah, and He said, "You shall not go up. Go around to their rear and come at them opposite the mulberry trees.
24. And it shall be that when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, move quickly, for then Jehovah has gone forth before you to strike down the army of the Philistines."
25. And David did so, just as Jehovah commanded him, and he struck down the Philistines from Geba until you come to Gezer.

2Samuel 6

- ¶1. And David again gathered all the chosen men in Israel, thirty thousand.
2. And David arose and went with all the people who were with him from Baale-Judah to bring up from there the ark of God, who is called by name, the name of Jehovah of Hosts, who dwells between the cherubim which are over it.
3. And they loaded the ark of God on a new cart and carried it away from the house of Abinadab which was in Gibeah. And Uzzah and Ahyo, sons of Abinadab, were leading the new cart.
4. And they carried it from the house of Abinadab which was in Gibeah, accompanying the ark of God, and Ahyo went before the ark.
5. And David and all the house of Israel were playing before Jehovah with all kinds of instruments of cypress, and on lyres, and on harps, and on timbrels, and on sistra, and on cymbals.
6. But when they came to the threshing floor of Nachon, Uzzah put his hand on the ark of God, and he took hold of it because the oxen stumbled.
7. And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Uzzah, and God struck him there for the error, and he died there beside the ark of God.
8. And David was angry because Jehovah made a breach against Uzzah. And that place is called Pharez-Uzzah to this day.
9. And David feared Jehovah that day, and he said, "How shall the ark of Jehovah come to me?"
10. And David was not willing to take the ark of Jehovah to himself, into the city of David. So, David took it aside to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

³ That is, "Lord of the breaches".

11. And the ark of Jehovah remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite three months. And Jehovah blessed Obed-Edom and all his house.
12. And it was reported to King David, saying, "Jehovah has blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all that is his because of the ark of God. Then David went and brought up the ark of God with gladness from the house of Obed-Edom to the city of David.
13. And it came to pass, when those who bore the ark of Jehovah had gone six steps, that he sacrificed an ox and a fatling.
14. And David was whirling before Jehovah with all his might, and David was girded with a linen ephod.
15. And David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of Jehovah with a shout of joy and the sound of the shofar.
16. And so it was that the ark of Jehovah entered the city of David. And Michal, the daughter of Saul, looked down through the window and saw King David leaping and whirling before Jehovah, and she despised him in her heart.
17. And they brought the ark of Jehovah and set it in its place in the midst of the tent which David had pitched for it. And David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before Jehovah.
18. And when David finished offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Jehovah of Hosts.
19. And he distributed to all the people, to the whole multitude of Israel, to the men and the women, to each a cake of bread, and a portion of meat, and a raisin-cakes. Then all the people departed, each to his house.
20. And David returned to bless his household, and Michal, the daughter of Saul, came out to meet David. She said, "How the king of Israel was glorified today, who exposed himself today in the eyes of the handmaids of his slaves, like one of the worthless men who shamelessly expose themselves!"
21. And David said to Michal, "It was before Jehovah who chose me instead of your father, and instead of all his house, to appoint me ruler over Jehovah's people, over Israel! Yes, I played before Jehovah!
22. And I will be more contemptible than this! Yea, I will be abased in my own eyes, and as for the handmaids of whom you have spoken, by them, I will be glorified!"
23. And so, Michal, the daughter of Saul, had no child to the day of her death.

2Samuel 7

- ¶1. And it came to pass that the king sat in his house, for Jehovah had given him rest from all his enemies about him.
2. And the king said to Nathan the prophet, "Consider this, if you will. I am sitting in a house of cedar, but the ark of God sits within a curtain."
3. And Nathan said to the king, "Go and do all that is in your heart, for Jehovah is with you."
4. But it came to pass that night that the word of Jehovah came to Nathan, saying,

5. “Go and say to my servant David, ‘Thus says Jehovah: Will you build a house for me to dwell in?’
 6. For I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt until this day, but I have gone about in a tent, even in a tabernacle.
 7. In any place I went about among all the children of Israel, have I ever spoken a word to one of the rulers⁴ of Israel whom I had commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, “Why have you not built a house of cedar for me?”
 8. Yet say this now to my servant, to David: ‘Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: I took you out of the pasture, from following the flock, to be ruler over my people, over Israel.
 9. And I have been with you everywhere you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies before you, and I have made you a great name, like the name of the great men who have been on the earth.
 10. And I appointed a place for my people, for Israel, and I planted them, that they might dwell in it, and that they be troubled no more, and that unjust men would not again abuse them as before,
 11. even from the day that I appointed judges over my people Israel. And I have given you rest from all your enemies. Furthermore, Jehovah declares to you that Jehovah will make you a house!
 12. For when your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up your seed after you, who will come from your loins, and I will establish his kingdom.
 13. He will be the one who builds a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.
 14. I will be his Father, and he will be my son, whom if he do iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men and with stripes of the children of men,
 15. but my lovingkindness shall not depart from him as I took it from Saul, whom I took away before you.
 16. And your house and your kingdom will be established forever before you. Your throne will be established forever.”
 17. According to all these words, and according to all this vision, thus did Nathan speak to David.
- ¶18. Then David the king went in and sat before Jehovah, and he said, “Who am I, O Lord GOD, and what is my house, that you have brought me to this place?
19. And yet this was a small thing in your eyes, O Lord GOD, for you spoke also of your servant’s house for a long while to come. And this is the law of the Man, O Lord GOD!
 20. And what else can David add to say to you? Yea, you know your servant, O Lord GOD.

⁴ Literally, “tribes” or “rods”.

21. For your word's sake and according to your heart have you determined all this greatness, and caused your servant to know it.
22. Therefore, you are great, O Lord GOD! Yea, there is none like you! Yea, there is no God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears.
23. And what one nation in the earth is like your people, like Israel, whom God went to redeem as a people for Himself, and to make for Himself a name, and to do great and dreadful things for you, for your land before your people whom you redeemed for yourself from the Egyptian nation and its gods?
24. And you have established for yourself your people Israel, as a people for you forever. And you, Jehovah, have become their God.
25. And now, O LORD God, establish forever the word which you have spoken concerning your servant and his house, and do as you have said.
26. And let your name be magnified forever, saying, 'Jehovah of Hosts is God over Israel!' And let the house of your servant David be established before you.
27. For you, O LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, have revealed it in the ear of your servant, saying, 'I will build a house for you.' Therefore, your servant has found it in his heart to pray this prayer to you.
28. And now, O Lord Jehovah, you are He, O God! Yea, your words are true, and you have spoken this good thing to your servant!
29. So let it be pleasing to you now and bless the house of your servant, that it may forever be before you, for you, O Lord GOD, have spoken. And with your blessing may the house of your servant be blessed forever."

2Samuel 8

- ¶1. And it came to pass after this, that David struck the Philistines and subdued them, and David took Metheg-Ammah out of the hand of the Philistines.
2. He also struck Moab, and measured them with a line, causing them to lie down on the ground. And he measured two lines to put to death, and a full line to keep alive. And Moab became David's servants, bringing tribute.
3. David also struck Hadadezer ben-Rehob, the king of Zobah, as he went to restore his power to the Euphrates River.
4. And David took from him one thousand seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen. And David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but kept for himself one hundred for chariots.
5. And when the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer, the king of Zobah, David also struck down twenty-two thousand men of the Arameans.
6. Then David put garrisons in Aram, in Damascus, and Aram became David's servants, bringing tribute. And Jehovah brought David victory wherever he went.
7. And David took the gold shields of the servants of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.

8. And from Betah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took a very great quantity of bronze.
9. And when Toi, the king of Hamath, heard that David had defeated the whole army of Hadadezer,
10. then Toi sent Joram his son to King David, to beg peace of him, and to bless him because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him down, for Hadadezer had been a man at war with Toi. And in his hand were vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of bronze.
11. These King David also dedicated to Jehovah, along with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all the nations he subdued:
12. of Aram, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer ben-Rehob, the king of Zobah.
13. David also gained a reputation when he returned from striking down eighteen thousand Arameans in the Valley of Salt.
14. And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom, he set up garrisons. And all of Edom became David's servants. And Jehovah gave victory to David wherever he went.
- ¶15. And David reigned over all Israel, and David executed judgment and righteousness for all his people.
16. And Joab ben-Zeruiah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat ben-Ahilud was the recorder.
17. And Zadok ben-Ahitub and Ahimelech ben-Abiathar⁵ were the priests, and Seraiah was the scribe.
18. And Benaiah ben-Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and the sons of David were chief ministers.

2Samuel 9

- ¶1. And David said, “Is there yet anyone who remains of the house of Saul, that I might show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?”
2. Now there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba. And they summoned him to David, and the king said to him, “Are you Ziba?” And he said, “Your servant.”
3. And the king said, “Is there not still one man of the house of Saul, that I might show him the kindness of God?” And Ziba said to the king, “There is yet a son of Jonathan, crippled in his feet.”
4. And the king said to him, “Where is he?” And Ziba said to the king, “Behold, he is in the house of Machir ben-Ammiel, in Lo-debar.”

⁵ This should read, “Abiathar ben-Ahimelech”.

5. Then King David sent and took him from the house of Machir ben-Ammiel at Lo-debar.
6. And Mephibosheth ben-Jonathan, the son of Saul, came to David, and fell on his face and did obeisance. And David said, "Mephibosheth?" And he said, "Behold, your servant."
7. And David said to him, "Do not be afraid, for I will truly show you kindness for the sake of Jonathan your father, and I will restore to you all the land of Saul your father. And you will eat bread at my table continually."
8. And he bowed himself, and said, "What is your servant that you should look upon a dead dog such as I?"
9. Then the king called for Ziba, Saul's servant, and he said to him, "All that was Saul's and all his house have I given to your master's son."
10. And you shall work the land for him, you and your sons, and your servants, and you shall bring in the produce so that your master's son may have bread and eat it. But Mephibosheth, your master's son, shall eat bread continually at my table." (Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.)
11. And Ziba said to the king, "According to all that my lord the king has commanded his servant, so shall your servant do, but 'Mephibosheth shall eat at my table as one of the king's sons.'"
12. And Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Micha. And all who dwelt in Ziba's house were servants of Mephibosheth.
13. And Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem, for he ate continually at the king's table. And he was lame in both of his feet.

2Samuel 10

- ¶1. And it came to pass, after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun, his son, became king in his place.
2. And David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun ben-Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me." So, by the hand of his servants, David sent to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants went into the land of the children of Ammon.
3. But the chiefs of the children of Ammon said to Hanun their lord: "Do you think David is honoring your father because he has sent comforters to you? Has David not rather sent his servants to you to search the city, and spy it out, and overthrow it?"
4. And so, Hanun took David's servants, and he shaved off half of their beards, and cut off half of their garments up to their buttocks, and then sent them away.
5. And they told David, and he sent messengers to meet them because the men were greatly humiliated. And the king said, "Stay at Jericho until your beards grow and then return."

6. And the children of Ammon saw that they had become a stench to David, and the children of Ammon sent and hired the Arameans of Beth-Rehob and the Arameans of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and one thousand men of the king of Maacah, and men of Tob, twelve thousand men.
7. And David heard of it, and he sent Joab and all the host of mighty men.
8. And the children of Ammon came out and set the battle in order at the entrance of the gate. And the Arameans of Zoba and Rehob, and the men of Tob and Maacah were by themselves in the field.
9. And Joab saw that the battle lines against him were in front and behind, so he chose from all the choice men of Israel and set them in array against the Arameans.
10. And the rest of the people he put in the hand of Abishai his brother, and he arrayed them against the children of Ammon.
11. And he said, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me, but if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and help you."
12. Be courageous, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God, and Jehovah do what is good in His eyes."
13. And Joab and the people who were with him drew near to the battle with the Arameans, and they fled before him.
14. When the children of Ammon saw that the Arameans had fled, then they fled from before Abishai and entered the city. Then Joab returned from the children of Ammon and came to Jerusalem.
15. But when the Arameans saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they gathered themselves together.
16. And Hadadezer sent and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the river, and they came to Helam. And Shobach, the commander of Hadadezer's army, went before them.
17. And it was reported to David, and he gathered all Israel and crossed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Arameans set the battle in order against David, and they fought with him.
18. And the Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed seven hundred Aramean chariot men and forty thousand horsemen, and he struck down Shobach, the commander of Hadadezer's army, and he died there.
19. And all the kings who were vassals of Hadadezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, and they made peace with Israel, and served them. And the Arameans feared to help the children of Ammon again.

2Samuel 11

- ¶1. And it came to pass at the turn of the year, at the time kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel, and they spoiled the children of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David remained in Jerusalem.

2. And it came to pass in the evening that David arose from his bed and walked about on the roof of the king's house. And from the roof, he saw a woman bathing, and the woman was very beautiful.
3. And David sent and inquired about the woman, and one said, "Isn't this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?"
4. And David sent messengers and brought her, and she came in to him, and he lay with her, for she had cleansed herself from her uncleanness. Then she returned to her house.
5. And the woman conceived, and she sent and told David. And she said, "I am pregnant."
6. Then David sent word to Joab, "Send Uriah the Hittite to me." So, Joab sent Uriah to David.
7. And Uriah came to him, and David asked about Joab's welfare, and the people's welfare, and the state of the war.
8. And David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." And Uriah went out from the king's house, and a portion from the king followed him.
9. But Uriah lay at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord and did not go down to his house.
10. And they reported to David, saying, "Uriah did not go down to his house." Then David said to Uriah, "Haven't you come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"
11. And Uriah said to David, "The ark, and Israel, and Judah dwell in booths, and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord are encamped in the open field, and am I to go to my house to eat, and to drink, and lie with my wife? By your life, even your soul's life, I will not do this thing!"
12. And David said to Uriah, "Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will send you away." So, Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next.
13. And David called him, and he ate with him, and he drank, and he made him drunk. And in the evening, he went out to lie down on his bed with the servants of his lord and did not go down to his house.
14. And it came to pass in the morning that David wrote a letter to Joab, and he sent it by the hand of Uriah.
15. And in the letter he wrote, saying, "You are to put Uriah at the forefront of the fiercest battle, then fall back from him so that he may be struck down and die."
16. And it came to pass that when Joab considered the city, he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew that there were mighty men.
17. And the men of the city came out and fought with Joab, and some of the people among David's servants fell. And Uriah the Hittite died also.
18. Then Joab sent and reported to David all the details of the war.

19. And he charged the messenger, saying, “When you finish telling the king all the details of the war,
20. then, if it be that the king’s fury rise and he say to you, ‘Why did you come so near to the city when you fought? Did you not know that they would shoot from on the wall?’
21. Who struck down Abimelech ben-Jerubbesheth? Was it not a woman who threw an upper millstone on him from the wall, and he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near to the wall?’ Then you shall say, ‘Also, your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead.’”
22. So, the messenger departed, and he went and reported to David all that Joab had sent him for.
23. And the messenger said to David, “Truly, the men were prevailing against us. They even came out to us in the field, but then, we were upon them to the entrance of the gate.
24. But the archers were shooting at your servants from on the wall, and some of the king’s servants died. Also, your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead.”
25. Then David said to the messenger, “Thus shall you say to Joab: ‘Do not let this thing be grievous in your eyes, for the sword devours one as well as another. Strengthen your attack against the city and destroy it.’ And so, encourage him.”
26. And when the wife of Uriah heard that her husband Uriah had died, she mourned for her husband.
27. And when the mourning was past, David sent and took her into his house. And she became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done was evil in the eyes of Jehovah.

2Samuel 12

- ¶1. And Jehovah sent Nathan to David, and he went in to him and said to him, “There were two men in one city, one was rich, and one was poor.
2. The rich man had very many flocks and herds,
3. but the poor man had nothing but one small ewe lamb which he had bought and nourished, and it grew up with him, together with his children. It ate of his bread and drank from his cup, and would lie in his bosom, and it was like a daughter to him.
4. And a traveler came to the rich man, and he was unwilling to take one of his own flock or his cattle to prepare it for the journeying man who had come to him. But he took the poor man’s lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him.”
5. And David’s anger was greatly kindled against the man, and he said to Nathan, “As Jehovah lives, the man who has done this shall die!”
6. Moreover, he shall restore fourfold for the lamb because he has done this thing, and because he had no pity.”
7. Then Nathan said to David, “You are the man. Thus says Jehovah God of Israel, ‘I anointed you as king over Israel, and I delivered you from the hand of Saul.

8. And I gave you your lord's house, and your lord's wives into your bosom, and I gave you the house of Israel and of Judah. And if this was too little, then I would have added to you more such things.
9. Why have you despised the word of Jehovah, to do this evil in His sight? You struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword and took his wife as your wife; yea, you killed him with the sword of the children of Ammon.
10. Therefore, the sword shall now never depart from your house because you have despised me, and you took the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.'
11. Thus says Jehovah, 'Behold, I am raising up evil against you from your own house, and before your eyes will I take your wives and give them to someone close to you, and he will lie with your wives in the sight of this sun.'
12. For you did it in secret, but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.'"
13. And David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against Jehovah!" Moreover, Nathan said to David, "Jehovah also has put away your sin; you shall not die."
14. Nevertheless, because by this deed you have given great occasion to the enemies of Jehovah to blaspheme, also the son that is born to you shall surely die."
15. And Nathan went to his house. And Jehovah struck the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and it was very sick.
16. Then David sought God for the boy. Yea, David began to fast, and he went in and spent the night lying on the ground.
17. And the elders of his house stood over him to get him up from the ground, but he would not, nor would he eat bread with them.
18. And it came to pass on the seventh day that the child died. And David's servants feared to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, "Behold, when the child was alive, we spoke to him and he would not listen to our voice. How shall we tell him that the child is dead, for he might do some harm?"
19. But David saw that his servants were whispering among themselves, and David perceived that the child was dead. And David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" And they said, "He is dead."
20. Then David arose from the earth, and he washed, and anointed himself, and changed his garment. And he went to the house of Jehovah and worshipped, and then came to his house. And when he asked, they set food before him and he ate.
21. And his servants said to him, "What is this that you have done? For you fasted and wept for the child's life, but when the child died, you rose up and ate food."
22. And he said, "While the child was alive, I fasted and wept, for I thought, 'Who knows if Jehovah will be gracious to me and the child live?'
23. But he is dead now. Why should I fast? Am I able to bring him back again? I will go to him, but he cannot return to me."

24. And David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and he went in to her and lay with her. And she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. And Jehovah loved him,
 25. and He sent by the hand of the prophet Nathan, and he called his name Jedidiah⁶ because of Jehovah.
- ¶26. Now, Joab was fighting at Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and he took the royal city.
27. And Joab sent messengers to David, and he said, "I have fought against Rabbah, and I have taken the city of waters.
 28. Therefore, gather now the rest of the people, and encamp against the city and take it, lest I take the city and it be called by my name."
 29. So, David gathered all the people and went to Rabbah. And he fought against it and took it.
 30. And he took their king's crown off his head (and its weight was a talent of gold and precious stone), and it was set upon David's head. And he took a great abundance of spoil from the city.
 31. And he brought forth the people who were in it, and put them to work with the saw, iron harrows, and axes of iron, and he made them pass over to labor in the brick-kiln. And he did thus to all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then David returned with all the people to Jerusalem.

2Samuel 13

- ¶1. And it came to pass after this, that Absalom ben-David had a beautiful sister whose name was Tamar, and Amnon ben-David loved her.
2. And it distressed Amnon so that he made himself sick because of Tamar his sister, for she was a virgin, and it seemed difficult in Amnon's eyes for him to do anything concerning her.
3. But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah, and Jonadab was a very crafty man.
4. And he said to him, "Why are you, the king's son, miserable like this from morning to morning? Won't you tell me?" And Amnon said to him, "I am in love with Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."
5. And Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed, and pretend to be ill, and your father will come to see you. Then say to him, 'Let, I pray, my sister Tamar come and feed me food, food that she has prepared in my sight, so that I may see it and eat it from her hand.'"

⁶" Beloved of Jehovah."

6. So, Amnon lay down and pretended to be sick. And the king came to see him, and Amnon said to the king, “Let, I pray, my sister Tamar come and make a couple of cakes in my sight that I may eat them from her hand.”
7. And David sent to the house to Tamar, saying, “Go now to your brother Amnon’s house, and prepare food for him.”
8. And Tamar went to her brother Amnon’s house, and he was lying down. Then she took flour and kneaded it and made the cakes in his sight, and then she baked the cakes.
9. And she took the pan and set them before him, but he refused to eat. Then Amnon said, “Have everyone leave me!” And everyone went out from him.
10. And Amnon said to Tamar, “Bring the food into the bedchamber, that I may eat it from your hand.” And Tamar took the cakes which she had made and brought them into the bedchamber to Amnon her brother.
11. And she brought them to him to eat, but he took hold of her, and said to her, “Come, lie with me, my sister!”
12. And she said to him, “No, my brother, do not humble me! No such thing should be done in Israel! Do not do this disgraceful thing!”
13. And I, where could I take my shame? And you, you will be like one of the fools in Israel. I pray you, speak now to the king, for he will not withhold me from you.”
14. But he would not take heed to her voice, and as he was stronger than she, he then forced her and lay with her.
15. Then Amnon hated her with a very great hatred, for greater was the hate with which he hated her than the love with which he had loved her, and Amnon said to her, “Get up! Go!”
16. And she said to him, “No! For this, to send me away, is a greater evil than the other that you have done to me.” But he would not listen to her.
17. And he called his servant who ministered to him, and said, “Put this woman out, away from me, and bar the door after her!”
18. (Now she had on a long-sleeved tunic,⁷ for with such robes were the virgin daughters of the king clothed.) Then his attendant took her outside and barred the door after her.
19. And Tamar put ashes on her head and tore the long-sleeved tunic that she had on, and she put her hand on her head and went on, walking and crying out.
20. And Absalom her brother said to her, “Has Amnon your brother been with you? Then keep silent now, my sister. He is your brother. Do not take this matter to heart.” So Tamar remained, but desolate, in her brother Absalom’s house.
21. But when King David heard of all these matters, it angered him greatly.

22. And Absalom spoke with Amnon neither for evil or good, for Absalom hated Amnon because he had humbled Tamar his sister.
- ¶23. And it came to pass after two full years that they were shearing sheep for Absalom at Baal-hazor, which is in Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king's sons.
24. Absalom even came to the king and said, "Behold, they are shearing now for your servant. I pray you, let the king and his servants come with your servant."
25. But the king said to Absalom, "No, my son. If you please, let us not all go, lest we be a burden to you." And though he pressed him, he would not go, but he gave him his blessing.
26. Then Absalom said, "If not, I pray let Amnon my brother go with us." And the king said to him, "Why should he go with you?"
27. But Absalom pressed him, so he sent Amnon, and all the king's sons, with him.
28. Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, "See, now. When Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and I say to you, 'Strike Amnon down', then kill him. Do not be afraid, for have I not commanded you? Be strong and be valiant."
29. And Absalom's servants did to Amnon just as Absalom had commanded. And all the king's sons arose and rode, each on his mule, and fled.
30. And it came to pass, while they were on the way, that the report came to David, saying, "Absalom has struck down all the king's sons, and not one of them remains."
31. Then the king arose and tore his garments, and he lay on the ground. And all his servants who were standing by tore their garments.
32. But Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah, answered and said, "Let not my lord think that they killed all the young men, the king's sons, for Amnon only did he kill. Yea, by the word of Absalom has it been appointed since the day that he forced Tamar his sister."
33. Therefore, let not my lord the king take anything to his heart now, to think that all the king's sons are dead, for Amnon only is dead."
34. And Absalom fled. And the young man who kept watch lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, many people were coming from the road behind him, from the side of the mountain.
35. And Jonadab said to the king, "Behold, the king's sons are coming. Just as your servant said has it happened."
36. And it came to pass when he finished speaking, that behold, the king's sons came in and lifted up their voices and wept. And the king also, with all his servants, wept very bitterly.
37. But Absalom had fled, and he went to Talmai ben-Ammihur, the king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son day after day.

38. So Absalom fled and went to Geshur, and he was there for three years.
39. And King David longed to go to Absalom, for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

2Samuel 14

- ¶1. Now Joab ben-Zeruiah knew that the king's heart went out to Absalom.
2. So Joab sent to Tekoah, and brought from there a wise woman, and he said to her, "Mourn now, I pray you, and put on mourning clothes. And do not anoint yourself with oil, but act like a woman who has mourned many days for the dead."
3. And come to the king and speak to him like this. . . ." And Joab put the words in her mouth.
4. When the woman of Tekoah spoke to the king, then she fell on her face to the ground and did obeisance, and she said, "Help, O king!"
5. And the king said to her, "What is your trouble?" And she said, "Truly, I am a widowed woman, for my husband is dead."
6. And your maidservant had two sons. But the two of them struggled in the field, and there was no one to separate them, and one struck the other and killed him.
7. Now, behold, the whole family has risen up against your maidservant, and they are saying, 'Deliver him who struck down his brother, and we will kill him for the life of his brother whom he murdered. Yea, we will destroy the heir also.' Thus will they put out my coal who is left, so as to not leave to my husband name or remnant on the face of the land."
8. And the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you."
9. But the woman of Tekoah said to the king, "Upon me, my lord the king, and upon my father's house may the iniquity be, and the king and his throne be guiltless."
10. And the king said, "If any speak against you, then have him come to me, and he will never again touch you."
11. Then she said, "I pray you, let the king invoke Jehovah your God, that the avenger of blood not destroy any more, and that they do not destroy my son." And he said, "As Jehovah lives, let me be damned if a single hair of your son falls to the ground."
12. Then the woman said, "Let, I pray, your maidservant say something to my lord the king." And he said, "Speak."
13. And the woman said, "Why have you made such a determination against the people of God? For in declaring this judgment, the king is as one who is guilty, inasmuch as the king has not brought back his outcast.

14. For we must die, and become like water poured out on the earth, which cannot be recovered. Yet, God does not take someone away without devising means, that he who is banished might not remain banished from Him.
15. So, I have come now to speak this thing to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid, and your maidservant said, ‘I will speak now to the king. Perhaps the king will do the bidding of his handmaid.
16. For the king will consent to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of him who would destroy both me and my son from the inheritance of God.’
17. And your maidservant said, ‘May the word of my lord the king bring me rest,’ for my lord the king is as an angel of God to discern good and evil. And may Jehovah your God be with you.”
18. And the king answered and said to the woman, “I pray, do not hide this thing from me that I shall ask you.” And the woman said, “If he will, let my lord the king speak.”
19. And the king said, “Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?” And the woman answered and said, “As your soul lives, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right or to the left from all that my lord the king says, for Joab your servant, he commanded me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant.
20. In order to turn about the course of the matter, your servant Joab did this thing, but my lord has wisdom like the wisdom of an angel of God to know everything that is in the earth.”
21. Then the king said to Joab, “Behold now, I have granted this thing. Now go, and bring back the young man Absalom.”
22. And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and he did obeisance and blessed the king. And Joab said, “Today, your servant knows that I have found grace in your eyes, my lord the king, because the king has granted the request of his servant.”
23. And Joab arose, and he went to Geshur and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.
24. But the king said, “Let him turn aside to his house and not see my face.” So Absalom turned aside to his house and did not see the king’s face.
- ¶25. Now, in all Israel, there was no man so highly acclaimed for beauty as was Absalom. From the sole of his foot to the crown of his head, there was no blemish in him.
26. And when he cut the hair of his head (for it was at the end of every year that he cut it, as it was heavy on him, and so, he cut it), he weighed the hair of his head to be two hundred shekels by the king’s weight.
27. And to Absalom three sons were born, and one daughter whose name was Tamar. She was a beautiful woman to look at.
- ¶28. And Absalom dwelt in Jerusalem two full years, but he did not see the king’s face.

29. So Absalom sent for Joab to send him to the king, but he did not want to come to him. And he sent again a second time, but he would not come.
30. Then he said to his servants, "Behold, Joab's field is beside mine, and he has barley there. Go, and set it on fire." And Absalom's servants set his field on fire.
31. Then Joab arose, and he came to Absalom's house, and he said to him, "Why did your servants set my field on fire?"
32. And Absalom said to Joab, "Behold, I sent for you, saying, 'Come here so that I may send you to the king to say, "Why have I come from Geshur? It would have been better for me to still be there." 'Let me see the face of the king now, and if there be iniquity in me, then let him kill me."
33. So Joab went to the king and told him. And he summoned Absalom, and he came to the king and did obeisance to him with his face on the ground before the king. And the king kissed Absalom.

2Samuel 15

- ¶1. And it came to pass after this that Absalom provided for himself chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him.
2. And Absalom rose early and stood beside the way of the gate, and when any man who had a controversy came to the King for judgment, then Absalom would call to him and say, "What city are you from?" And he would say, "Your servant is from such-and-such place in the tribes of Israel."
3. Then Absalom would say to him, "See now, your claims are good and right, but there is no man appointed by the King to hear you."
4. And Absalom would say, "Oh, that I was judge over the land! Then any man who had a suit or cause would come up to me, and I would do him right."
5. And it came to pass that when any man drew near to do him obeisance that he would reach out and take hold of him, and kiss him.
6. And Absalom did thus to all in Israel who came to the King for judgment, and Absalom stole the heart of the men of Israel.
7. And it came to pass, at the end of forty years, that Absalom said to the king, "I pray you, let me go and pay my vow that I vowed to Jehovah in Hebron."
8. For your servant vowed a vow while I dwelt in Geshur, in Aram, saying, 'If Jehovah does indeed bring me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve Jehovah.'"
9. And the king said to him, "Go in peace." So, he arose and went to Hebron.
10. But Absalom had sent secret messengers throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "When you hear the sound of the shofar, then you shall say, 'Absalom is king in Hebron!'"
11. And with Absalom went two hundred men of Jerusalem whom he had summoned, and they went in their innocence and did not know anything.

12. And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city, from Giloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong, and the people going over to Absalom were many.
13. And the report came to David, saying, "The hearts of the men of Israel are gone after Absalom."
14. Then David said to all his servants who were with him in Jerusalem, "Get up! And let us flee; otherwise, escape from Absalom will not be possible for us. Go quickly, lest he come swiftly and overtake us, and bring evil upon us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword!"
15. And the king's servants said to the king, "Whatever my lord the king decides, behold, we are your servants."
16. Then the king went forth, and all his household after him. And the king left ten women behind, concubines, to keep the house.
17. So, the king went forth, and all the people after him, and they stopped at a distant house.
18. And all his servants passed on by him; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men who followed him from Gath, passed on before the king.
19. Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why should you also go with us? Return and stay with the king, for you are a foreigner and an exile from your home as well."
20. You came only yesterday, and shall I today make you wander about, going with us? As for me, I am going wherever I must go. Return, and take your brothers back. Mercy and truth be with you."
21. And Ittai answered the king and said, "As Jehovah lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in whatever place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or in life, there shall your servant be."
22. So, David said to Ittai, "Come on, and cross over." So, Ittai the Gittite crossed over, and all his men, and all his little ones who were with him.
23. And all the country wept with a loud voice. And all the people crossed over, and the king crossed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed on by way of the road to the wilderness,
24. and behold, Zadok also, and all the Levites with him bearing the ark of the covenant of God. (Abiathar also went up.) And they set the ark of God down until all the people had finished passing out of the city.
25. And the king said to Zadok, "Take the ark of God back to the city. If I find favor in the eyes of Jehovah, He will bring me back, too, and show me both it and His dwelling place.
26. But if He says thus, 'I have no pleasure in you', behold, here I am; let Him do to me whatever is good in His sight."

27. The king also said to Zadok the priest, “Are you not a seer? Return in peace to the city with Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan ben-Abiathar. Let your two sons be with you.
28. See, I will tarry in the plains of the wilderness until word comes from you, informing me.”
29. So, Zadok and Abiathar returned the ark of God to Jerusalem, and they remained there.
30. Then David went up by the ascent of the Mount of Olives, going up and weeping, and his head was covered, and he was walking barefoot. And all the people who were with him covered each his head, and they went up, going up and weeping.
31. And one reported to David, saying, “Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom.” And David said, “O LORD, turn, I pray, the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.”
32. And it happened that when David came to the top of the mount that he worshipped God there, and behold, Hushai the Archite met him with his tunic torn and earth on his head.
33. And David said to him, “If you go on with me, then you will be to me a burden.
34. But if you return to the city, and say to Absalom, ‘I am your servant, O king. As I was your father’s servant in time past, so will I now be your servant,’ then you may frustrate Ahithophel’s counsel for me.
35. Are not Zadok and Abiathar the priests with you there? And it shall be that anything you hear from the king’s house, you will report to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.
36. Behold, their two sons are with them there, Ahimaaz, Zadok’s son, and Jonathan, Abiathar’s son, and by their hand, you shall send to me everything that you hear.”
37. So, Hushai, David’s friend, went into the city. Then Absalom entered Jerusalem.

2Samuel 16

- ¶1. And David passed on a little beyond the top of the mount, and behold, Ziba, Mephibosheth’s servant, met him, with a pair of saddled asses, and on them two hundred loaves, a hundred clusters of raisins, a hundred summer fruits, and a skin of wine.
2. And the king said to Ziba, “Why have you brought these?” And Ziba said, “The asses are for the king’s household to ride on, and the bread and the summer fruit are for the young men to eat, and the wine is for the weary to drink in the wilderness.”
3. And the king said, “And where is your master’s son?” And Ziba said to the king, “Behold, he is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, ‘Today, the house of Israel will restore my father’s kingdom to me.’”
4. Then the king said to Ziba, “Behold, all that was Mephibosheth’s is yours.” And Ziba said, “I am humbled. May I find favor in your eyes, my lord the king.”

- ¶5. And king David came to Bahurim, and behold, from there a man from the family of the house of Saul came out whose name was Shimei ben-Gera. He came forth, cursing as he came.
6. And he threw stones at David and all the servants of king David; and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right and on his left.
7. And thus said Shimei when he cursed, "Come out, come out, you man of bloodshed, and you man of Belial!"
8. Jehovah has returned upon you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you reigned, and Jehovah has given the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son. Just look at you in your misery! Yea, you are a man of bloodshed."
9. Then Abishai ben-Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over, I pray, and take off his head!"
10. But the king said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? For he is cursing only because Jehovah has said to him, 'Curse David'. Then, who can say, 'Why are you doing so?'"
11. And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, "Behold, my son who came forth from my bowels is seeking my life; how much more then this Benjaminite. Leave him alone, and let him curse, for so Jehovah has bid him."
12. It may be that Jehovah will look upon my affliction and that Jehovah will repay me good for his cursing this day."
13. And as David and his men went along the way, so Shimei went along the side of the mount, going parallel with him, and he cursed and threw stones at him, and threw dirt.
14. And the king and all the people with him arrived weary and were refreshed there.
- ¶15. And Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel was with him.
16. And it came to pass when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, "May the king live! May the king live!"
17. And Absalom said to Hushai, "This is your kindness to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"
18. And Hushai said to Absalom, "No! But whom Jehovah, and this people, and all the men of Israel have chosen, his will I be, and with him will I remain."
19. And again, whom should I serve? Should it not be in the presence of his son? Just as I served in the presence of your father, so will I serve in your presence."
20. Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give your counsel. What shall we do?"
21. And Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go into your father's concubines whom he left to keep the house. And all Israel will hear that you have made yourself a stench to your father, and the hands of all those with you will be strengthened."

22. So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and Absalom went into his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.
23. And the counsel of Ahithophel that he gave in those days was as if one had inquired in the oracle of God. So was all the counsel of Ahithophel to both David and Absalom.

2Samuel 17

- ¶1. And Ahithophel said to Absalom, "I pray, let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue David tonight.
2. For I will come upon him while he is weary and weak, and I will throw him into a panic, and all the people who are with him will flee. And I will strike down the king only.
3. Then I will bring all the people back to you; when everyone returns except the man whom you are seeking, all the people will be at peace."
4. And the thing was right in the eyes of Absalom, and in the eyes of all the elders of Israel.
5. But Absalom said, "Call now also for Hushai the Archite, and let us hear what is in his mouth also."
6. And Hushai came to Absalom, and Absalom spoke to him, saying, "Ahithophel has spoken in this manner. Should we do according to his word? If not, speak."
7. And Hushai said to Absalom, "The counsel that Ahithophel has given is not good, at this time."
8. And Hushai said, "You know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they will be bitter in spirit, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. And your father is a man of war; he will not lodge with the people.
9. Behold, he is hidden now in one of the pits or in some other place, and it will come to pass, when some of them fall at first, that one will hear the report and say, 'There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.'
10. And even one who is valiant, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will utterly melt away. For all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man and that those with him are valiant men.
11. Therefore, I counsel that all Israel be completely gathered to you, from Dan to Beersheba, like the sand that is by the sea for multitude, and they will go before you into battle.
12. And we shall come upon him in one of the places where he may be found and fall upon him as the dew falls upon the ground. Then, of him and all his men with him, none shall remain, not even one.
13. And should he have withdrawn into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will drag it to the valley until not even a pebble is found there!"

14. And Absalom, with all the men of Israel, said, “The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel!” For Jehovah had determined to frustrate the good counsel of Ahithophel, so that Jehovah might bring destruction upon Absalom.
- ¶15. Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, “Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel, and thus and thus have I counseled them.
16. So, send quickly now and report to David, saying, ‘Do not lodge in the plains of the wilderness tonight, but by all means, cross over, lest the king and all the people who are with him be swallowed up.’”
17. Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En-rogel (for they could not be seen to enter the city), so a maidservant went and told them, and they went and told King David.
18. And a young man saw them and told Absalom, but they both went quickly and came to a man’s house in Bahurim. And the man had a well in his courtyard, and they went down into it.
19. And the wife took and spread out a covering over the mouth of the well and scattered grain on it; and nothing was known of it.
20. And Absalom’s servants came to the woman at the house, and they said, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?” And the woman said to them, “They have passed over the brook of water.” And they looked, but did not find them, and so, they returned to Jerusalem.
21. And it came to pass after they were gone, that they came up out of the well, and went and told King David. And they said to David, “Arise, and cross the water quickly! For such and such has Ahithophel counseled against you.”
22. So David arose, and all the people who were with him, and they crossed over the Jordan. By daybreak, not one remained who had not crossed the Jordan.
- ¶23. When Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and went to his house, to his city, and set his household in order, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.
- ¶24. And David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom crossed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.
25. And Absalom had set Amasa over the army instead of Joab. (Now Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Ithra, the Israelite who went into Abigail, the daughter of Nahash, the sister of Zeruiah, Joab’s mother.)
26. And Israel and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead.
27. And it came to pass, when David had come to Mahanaim, that Shobi ben-Nahash from Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir ben-Ammiel from Lo-Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim

28. brought beds, basins, earthen vessels, wheat, barley, flour, parched grain, beans, lentils, parched pulse,
29. and honey, butter, sheep, and cheese from cows to David and the people who were with him to eat, for they had said, “The people are hungry, weary, and thirsty in the wilderness.”

2Samuel 18

- ¶1. And David numbered the people who were with him and set over them rulers of thousands and rulers of hundreds.
2. And David sent one third of the people under the command of Joab, and one third under the command of Abishai ben-Zeruiah, Joab’s brother, and one third under the command of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, “I will surely also be going forth with you.”
3. But the people said, “You shall not go out, for if we all flee, they will not care about us. Even if half of us die, they will not care about us. For you are worth ten thousand of us now. So, it is better, for now, that you be a support for us from the city.”
4. And the king said to them, “What seems best in your eyes I will do.” And the king stood at the side of the gate while all the people went forth by hundreds and thousands.
5. And the king commanded Joab, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, “For my sake, deal gently with the young man, with Absalom.” And all the people heard when the king charged all the commanders in the matter of Absalom.
6. So the people went out into the field to confront Israel; and the battle was joined in the forest of Ephraim.
7. And the people of Israel were struck down before the servants of David, and there was a great slaughter there that day, twenty thousand men.
8. And the battle there was spread over the face of all the country, and the forest devoured more of the people than the sword devoured that day.
- ¶9. And Absalom encountered the servants of David. Now Absalom was riding on a mule, and the mule went under the boughs of a great terebinth tree, and his head was caught in the terebinth so that he was hanging between heaven and earth. And the mule that was under him went away.
10. And a certain man saw it, and he told Joab, and said, “Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in a terebinth tree.”
11. And Joab said to the man who told him, “So, behold, you saw him. Then why did you not strike him to the ground there? For I would have gladly given you ten pieces of silver and a belt.”

12. But the man said to Joab, “Even if I received a thousand pieces of silver in my hand, I would not put forth my hand against the king’s son, for in our hearing, the king charged you, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, ‘Save for me the young man, Absalom,’
 13. and if I had dealt treacherously against his life (and no matter is hidden from the king), then you would have set yourself against me.”
 14. And Joab said, “I will not waste time like this with you.” And he took three spears in his hand and thrust them through Absalom’s heart while he was still alive in the midst of the terebinth.
 15. And ten young men, Joab’s armor-bearers, gathered around, and struck Absalom and killed him.
 16. Then Joab blew the shofar, and the people returned from pursuing Israel, for Joab restrained the people.
 17. And they took Absalom and threw him into a deep pit in the forest, and they raised a very large heap of stones over him. And all Israel fled, each to his tent.
 18. Now, during his life, Absalom had taken and set up for himself a pillar which was in the King’s Valley, for he said, “I have no son so that my name will be remembered.” So, he named the pillar after his own name, and it is called to this day, “The pillar of Absalom.”
- ¶19. And Ahimaaz ben-Zadok said, “Let me run, I pray you, and bring the king the news that Jehovah has delivered him from the hand of his enemies.”
20. And Joab said to him, “You are not the man to carry the news this day; you may carry news on another day, but this day, you shall not carry the news, because the king’s son is dead.”
 21. Then Joab said to Cushi, “Go! Report to the king what you have seen.” And Cushi bowed to Joab, and then he ran.
 22. But Ahimaaz ben-Zadok spoke again, and he said to Joab, “Nevertheless, I pray you, let me also run after Cushi.” And Joab said, “Why would you run, my son? For you, there will be no reward for the news.”
 23. But he said, “Nevertheless, I would run.” So, he said to him, “Run.” And Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and he passed Cushi.
 24. Now David was sitting between the two gates, and the watchman had gone up to the roof of the gate on the wall, and he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man was running alone.
 25. And the watchman called out and told the king. And the king said, “If he is alone, there is news in his mouth.” And he kept on coming and drew near.

26. Then the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, "Behold, a man running alone!" And the king said, "He also has news."
27. And the watchman said, "I see the running of the first man is like the running of Ahimaaz ben-Zadok." And the king said, "This is a good man, and he brings good news."
28. And Ahimaaz called and said to the king, "All is well." And he prostrated himself to the king with his face on the ground. And he said, "Blessed be Jehovah your God, who has delivered up the men who lifted their hand against my lord the king!"
29. And the king said, "Is it well with the young man, with Absalom?" And Ahimaaz said, "I saw a great commotion when Joab sent the king's servant, even your servant, but I did not know what it was."
30. And the king said, "Turn aside. Stand here." So, he turned aside, and stood still.
31. Then, behold, Cushi came, and Cushi said, "There is news, my lord the king, for Jehovah has avenged you this day of those who rose against you."
32. And the king said to Cushi, "Is it well with the young man, with Absalom?" And Cushi said, "May it happen to the enemies of my lord the king and to all who would rise up against you for harm as it has happened to that young man!"
33. And the king began to tremble, and he went up to an upper chamber of the gate, and wept. And thus he said as he went: "Oh, my son Absalom! My son! My son Absalom! Would God that I had died instead of you! Oh, Absalom, my son! My son!"

2Samuel 19

- ¶1. And it was reported to Joab, "Behold, the king is weeping and mourning for Absalom."
2. And the victory of that day was turned into mourning for all the people, for the people heard it said that day, "The king is grieved because of his son."
3. And the people stole into the city that day, just as people who are ashamed steal in when they have fled in battle.
4. But the king covered his face, and the king cried out with a loud voice, "My son, Absalom! O Absalom, my son! My son!"
5. Then Joab came into the king's house, and he said, "You have covered with shame the faces of all your servants who this day saved your life, and the lives of your sons and daughters, and the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines."
6. For you love those who hate you and hate those who love you. For you have declared today that your princes and servants are nothing to you, for I perceive this day that if Absalom had lived and all of us had died today, then you would have been pleased.
7. So, get up right now! Go out and speak to the hearts of your servants, for I swear by Jehovah that if you do not go out not a man will remain with you tonight, and this will be worse for you than all the evil which has befallen you from your youth until now."

8. Then the king arose and sat in the gate. And they told all the people, saying, “Behold, the king is sitting in the gate.” And all the people came before the king.
¶Now, Israel had fled, each man to his tent,
9. and all the people were quarreling throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, “The king saved us from the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us from the hand of the Philistines, and now he has fled from the land because of Absalom.
10. But Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Then why do you now keep silent about bringing back the king?”
11. And king David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, “Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, ‘Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house? For the words of all the house of Israel have come to the king in his house.’
12. My brothers, you are my bones and my flesh. Why then should you be the last to bring back the king?”
13. And say you to Amasa, ‘Are you not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me and more so if you shall not be commander of the army before me from now on instead of Joab.’”
14. And he turned the heart of all the men of Judah as one man, and they sent to the king, saying, “Return, you and all your servants.”
15. So, the king returned and came to the Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, going to meet the king to escort the king over the Jordan.
16. And Shimei ben-Gera, the Benjaminite who was from Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet King David.
17. And a thousand men of Benjamin were with him, and Ziba, the servant of the house of Saul, and fifteen of his sons and twenty of his servants with him. And they rushed to the Jordan before the king
18. so as to escort the king’s household across the ford, and to do what was good in his sight. And Shimei ben-Gera fell down before the king as he was crossing the Jordan.
19. And he said to the king, “Let my lord not impute iniquity to me, and do not remember what your servant did perversely on the day that my lord the king went out from Jerusalem. Let not the king take it to heart.
20. For your servant knows that I have sinned, so behold, I have come this day, the first of all the house of Joseph to come down to meet my lord the king.”
21. But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, “Should not Shimei rather be put to death for this? He cursed Jehovah’s anointed!”
22. Then David said, “What is there between you sons of Zeruiah and me, that you should act like Satan on my behalf, that a man in Israel should be put to death today? Do I not know that I am king today over Israel?”
23. And the king said to Shimei, “You shall not die.” And the king swore to him.

24. And Mephibosheth ben-Saul came down to meet the king. Now he had not cared for his feet, or trimmed his mustache, or washed his clothes from the day the king left until the day that he came in peace.
 25. And it came to pass when he came to Jerusalem to meet the king that the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?"
 26. And he said, "My lord the king, my servant deceived me, for your servant said, 'I will saddle myself a donkey so I can ride on it and go to the king,' for your servant is lame."
 27. And he has slandered your servant to my lord the king, but my lord the king is as an angel of God. Do, therefore, whatever is good in your eyes.
 28. Surely all my father's house were nothing but dead men to my lord the king, yet you set your servant among those who eat at your table. So, what further right do I have to cry out any more to the king?"
 29. And the king said to him, "Why are you still speaking of your affairs? I have said that you and Ziba shall divide the land."
 30. And Mephibosheth said to the king, "Oh, let him take everything, since my lord the king has come to his house in peace."
- ¶31. Then Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim and escorted the king to the Jordan, to send him over the Jordan.
32. Now Barzillai was very old, being eighty years old, and he had provided for the king while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a very great man.
 33. And the king said to Barzillai, "You cross over with me, and I will provide for you in Jerusalem with me."
 34. But Barzillai said to the king, "How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up to Jerusalem with the king?
 35. I am this day eighty years old. Can I discern between good and evil? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I still hear the voice of singing men and women? Why then should your servant be a further burden to my lord the king?
 36. Your servant will pass on just a little way over the Jordan with the king. For why should the king recompense me with this reward?
 37. I pray you, let your servant return, that I may die in my city, by the grave of my father and my mother. But behold your servant Chimham. Let him pass over with my lord the king, and do with him whatever is good in your sight."
 38. And the king said, "Chimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him what is good in your sight. And anything that you require of me I will do for you."
 39. And all the people crossed over the Jordan, and when the king had crossed over, then the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him. Then he returned to his place.
 40. And the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went with him, and all the people of Judah, and half the people of Israel went on with the king.

41. Then, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and they said to the king, “Why have our brothers, the men of Judah, stolen you away and escorted the king over the Jordan, with his household and all David’s men with him?”
42. And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, “Because the king is near of kin to us. Why then are you angry on account of this matter? Have we at all eaten of the king’s food, or has anything been given to us?”
43. And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, “We have ten parts in the king, so in David we have more share than you. Then why did you treat us with contempt for were we not the first to speak of bringing back our king?” But the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

2Samuel 20

- ¶1. Now a man of Belial happened to be there, and his name was Sheba ben-Bichri, a Benjamite, and he blew on a shofar, and said, “We have no portion in David! Yea, we have no inheritance in the son of Jesse! Every man to his tent, O Israel!”
2. And every man of Israel left off following David to follow Sheba ben-Bichri, but the men of Judah clung to their king from the Jordan to Jerusalem.
3. And David came to his house in Jerusalem. And the king took the ten women, the concubines whom he had left behind to keep the house, and he put them in a house under guard and provided for them, but he did not go into them. And they were shut up until the day of their death, living as widows.
4. Then the king said to Amasa, “Call together the men of Judah to me in three days and be here yourself.”
5. And Amasa went to call Judah, but he delayed beyond the time that had been appointed for him.
6. And David said to Abishai, “Sheba ben-Bichri will do us more harm now than Absalom. You take your lord’s servants and pursue after him, lest he find himself fortified cities and escape from our sight.”
7. And Joab’s men, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men went out after him. And they went out from Jerusalem to pursue after Sheba ben-Bichri.
8. They were at the great stone which is in Gibeon when Amasa came in before them. And Joab was girded with a garment, and over it was a belt with a sword fastened on his side in its sheath. And as he went forward, it fell out.
9. And Joab said to Amasa, “Are you in health, my brother?” And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.
10. And Amasa took no notice of the sword that was in Joab’s hand, but he struck him in the belly with it so that his bowels spilled to the ground, and he did not strike him a second time. And he died. Then Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba ben-Bichri.

11. And one of Joab's young men stood by him, and he said, "Whoever favors Joab, yea, whoever is for David, follow Joab!"
12. Now Amasa lay wallowing in the blood in the middle of the highway, and the man saw that all the people stood still. So, he moved Amasa from the highway into the field and threw a garment over him because he saw that everyone coming upon him stood still.
13. When he was removed from the highway, each man passed on, following Joab, to pursue after Sheba ben-Bichri.
14. And he passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, even Beth-Maachah, with all the Berites. And they assembled and went after him also.
15. And they came and besieged him in Abel, Beth-Maachah, and they cast up a mound against the city, and it was raised against the wall. And all the people who were with Joab were battering the wall to throw it down.
16. Then a wise woman from the city called, "Hear, hear! Say, I pray, to Joab, 'Come here and let me speak to you.'"
17. And when he came close to her, the woman said, "Are you Joab?" And he said, "I am." And she said to him, "Hear the words of your handmaid." And he said, "I am listening."
18. Then she spoke, saying, "They spoke often in former times, saying, 'They will surely ask counsel at Abel,' and thus would end the matter."
19. I am one who is peaceable and faithful in Israel. You are seeking to put a city to death, even a mother in Israel. Why would you swallow up the inheritance of Jehovah?"
20. And Joab answered and said, "Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy."
21. But such is not the case. For a man of the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba ben-Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against the king, against David. You deliver him only, and I will depart from the city." And the woman said to Joab, "Behold, his head will be thrown to you over the wall."
22. Then the woman went to all the people with her wisdom, and they cut off the head of Sheba ben-Bichri, and they threw it to Joab. Then he blew the shofar, and they dispersed from the city, each man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem, to the king.
- ¶23. Now Joab was over all the army of Israel, and Benaiah ben-Jehoiada was over the Carites and the Pelethites.
24. And Adoram was over the tribute, and Jehoshaphat ben-Ahilud was the recorder.
25. And Sheva was the scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar were priests.
26. And also, Ira the Jairite was David's priest.

2Samuel 21

- ¶1. And there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year, and David sought the face of Jehovah. And Jehovah said, "There is blood-guilt on Saul and on his house because he put the Gibeonites to death."
2. And the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them. (Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites. And the children of Israel has sworn to them, but Saul had sought to strike them down in his zeal for the children of Israel and Judah.)
3. And David said to the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you? And with what shall I make atonement, so that you will bless the inheritance of Jehovah?"
4. And the Gibeonites said to him, "We would have no silver or gold from Saul or his house, nor is it our place to put a man to death in Israel." And he said, "Whatever you say, I will do for you."
5. And they said to the king, "The man who consumed us, and who intended for us to be destroyed from our place in all the territory of Israel,
6. let seven men from his sons be given to us, and we will hang them up to Jehovah in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of Jehovah." And the king said, "I will give them."
7. Now, the king had pity on Mephibosheth ben-Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the oath to Jehovah that was between them, between David and Jonathan ben-Saul.
8. But the king took two sons of Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth, and the five sons of Michal, the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel ben-Barzillai the Meholathite.
9. And he gave them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the hill before Jehovah, and the seven of them fell together. And they were put to death in the first days of the harvest, at the beginning of the barley harvest.
- ¶10. And Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, took sackcloth and spread it for herself on the rock, from the beginning of the harvest until water poured down on them from heaven. And she allowed neither the birds of the sky to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.
11. And it was told to David what Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.
12. Then David went and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son, from the men of Jabesh-Gilead, who had stolen them from the street of Beth-Shean where the Philistines had hanged them on the day the Philistines killed Saul in Gilboah.
13. And he brought up from there the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son, and they gathered the bones of those that had been hanged.
14. And they buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the territory of Benjamin, in Zelah, in the tomb of Kish his father. And they did all that the king had commanded. And after that, God was entreated for the land.

- ¶15. And the Philistines made war again with Israel, and David went down and his servants with him, and they fought with the Philistines; and David became weary.
16. And Ishbo-benob, who was of the children of Rapha, and the weight of whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of bronze, and who was girded with a new sword, thought that he might even strike David.
17. But Abishai the son of Zeruiah helped him, for he struck the Philistine and killed him. Then David's men swore to him, saying, "You shall not go out any more with us to war, that you not put out the lamp of Israel."
- ¶18. And it came to pass after this that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob. Then, Sibbechai the Hushathite struck down Saph, who was of the children of Rapha.
19. And there was another battle at Gob with the Philistines, and Elhanan ben-Jaare-oregim, the Bethlehemite, struck down Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.
20. And there was yet another battle at Gath, and there was a man of great stature who had six fingers on his hands and six toes on his feet, twenty-four in number, and he also was born of Rapha.
21. And when he defied Israel, Jonathan ben-Shimea, David's brother, struck him down.
22. These four were born to Rapha in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

2Samuel 22

- ¶1. And David spoke to Jehovah the words of this song on the day when Jehovah had delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul.
2. And he said: Jehovah is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer,
3. my God, my rock in whom I take refuge, my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge, my savior; you will save me from violence.
4. I called on Jehovah, who is worthy to be praised, and I was delivered from my enemies.
5. For the waves of death encompassed me; floods of Belial overwhelmed me.
6. Cords of Sheol enveloped me; snares of death confronted me.
7. In my distress, I called on Jehovah; yea, I called to my God, and He heard my voice from His temple; yea, my plea came into His ears.
8. Then the earth shook and trembled. The foundations of the heavens moved; they were shaken because He burned with anger.
9. Smoke went up from His nostrils, and fire from His mouth devoured. Coals were kindled by it.
10. He bowed the heavens also, and came down, and thick darkness was under His feet.
11. Yea, He rode upon a cherub and flew; He was seen on the wings of the wind.
12. He made darkness His pavilions all about Him—a mass of water-laden, heavy clouds.
13. Because of the brightness of His presence, coals of fire burned.

14. Jehovah thundered from the heavens, and the Most High uttered His voice.
15. Then He sent out arrows and scattered them; lightning, and vexed them.
16. At that, channels of the sea were seen; the foundations of the world were revealed at Jehovah's rebuke, by a puff of air from His nostrils.
17. He sent from on high and took me; He drew me out of many waters;
18. He delivered me from my mighty enemy, from those who hated me, for they were stronger than I.
19. They came upon me in the day of my distress, but Jehovah was my stay.
20. He brought me out to a spacious place; He rescued me because He delighted in me.
21. Jehovah rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands has He repaid me.
22. For I had kept Jehovah's ways, and I had not acted wickedly against my God,
23. for all His judgments were before me, and His statutes, I did not turn away from them.
24. Yea, I was perfect toward Him, and I kept myself from my sin,
25. and Jehovah rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness in His sight.
26. With one who is merciful, you will prove yourself merciful; with the perfect man, you will prove yourself perfect;
27. with the man who is pure, you will prove yourself pure; and with the one who is crooked, you will make yourself convoluted.
28. And you will deliver the humble people, but your eyes are upon the haughty; you will bring them down.
29. For you are my lamp, O Jehovah! Yea, Jehovah brings light to my darkness.
30. For by you, I ran through a troop! By my God, I leaped over a wall.
31. This God, His way is perfect; what Jehovah says is pure. He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.
32. Who but Jehovah is God? And who is a Rock but our God?
33. This God is my strong refuge, and He makes my way⁸ perfect,
34. making my feet like hinds' feet and setting me upon my high places,
35. training my hands for war, so that my arms can bend a bronze bow.
36. Yea, you have given me your salvation as a shield, and your gentleness makes me great.
37. You will make a wide place beneath me for my step, so that my feet will not slip.
38. I will pursue my enemies and overtake them, and I will not turn back until they are destroyed.
39. And I will consume them and strike them through so that they do not rise. They will fall under my feet.

⁸ MSS, "His way".

40. Yea, you have girded me with strength for war; you will make them bow before me who rise up against me;
41. and you have given me the neck of my enemies. Those who hate me will I also utterly destroy.
42. They will look, but there will be no one to save them, even to Jehovah, but He will not answer them.
43. But I will beat them until they are like the dust of the earth. Like dirt in the streets will I crush them; I will trample them.
44. Yea, you delivered me from the contentions of my people. You have made me the head of the Gentiles; a people I have not known shall serve me.
45. Foreigners will come and grovel before me. As soon as they hear, they will obey me.
46. The foreigners will lose heart and come quaking out of their strongholds.
47. Jehovah is alive! Blessed be my Rock! And let God, the Rock of my salvation, be exalted!
48. God avenged me, and subdued peoples under me,
49. and brought me out from my enemies. Yea, you exalted me above those who rose up against me. You delivered me from violent men.
50. Therefore will I confess you among the Gentiles, O Jehovah, and I will sing praises to your name.
51. He has magnified the victories of His King, and has shown lovingkindness to His Messiah, to David, and to his seed forever.

2Samuel 23

- ¶1. Now these are the last words of David. The oracle of David ben-Jesse, even the oracle of the man who was raised up high, the anointed one of the God of Jacob, and the sweet psalmist of Israel:
2. “The Spirit of Jehovah spoke by me, and His word was on my tongue.
3. The God of Israel spoke to me, the Rock of Israel said, ‘He who rules among men righteously rules in the fear of God,
4. and is like the morning light of the sun rising on a cloudless morning, or the glistening of rain on the grass of the earth.’
5. Truly, my house is not so with God; yet, He has established an everlasting covenant for me, ordered in every way and sure, even all my salvation and every delight, though He has not caused it to sprout.
6. But wicked men, like thorns, will be thrust away—all of them—because they cannot be taken by hand.
7. But the man who touches them must be armed with iron and a spear’s shaft, and so, they will be utterly burned up with fire in their place.”

- ¶8. These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: the Tachmonite who sat in the seat,⁹ chief among the Three;¹⁰ he was Adino the Eznite. He killed over eight hundred at one time.
9. And after him was Eleazar ben-Dodo, the son of Ahohi, one of the three mighty men with David when they defied the Philistines who had gathered for battle, and the men of Israel had retreated.
10. He arose and struck down the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave to the sword. And Jehovah brought about a great victory on that day, and the people returned afterward only to spoil.
11. And after him was Shamma ben-Agee the Hararite. For the Philistines were gathered into a company where there was a portion of ground filled with lentils, and the people had fled from before the Philistines.
12. But he took his stand in the middle of the portion, and defended it, and struck down the Philistines, and Jehovah brought about a great victory.
- ¶13. Now, three of the thirty chief men went down, and they came at harvest-time to David at a cave in Adullam. And the company of the Philistines were camped in the Valley of the Rephaim.
14. And at that time, David was in the stronghold, and the Philistines' garrison was then at Bethlehem.
15. And David had a longing, and he said, "Oh, who will give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate?"
16. And the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines and drew water from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate, and they carried it and brought it to David. But he would not drink it, and he poured it out to Jehovah.
17. And he said, "Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this. Is this not the blood of the men who went at risk of their lives?" Therefore, he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men.
- ¶18. And Abishai, the brother of Joab ben-Zeruiah, was a chief among three. And he lifted his spear against three hundred whom he killed; so, he had a name among three.
19. Was he not most honored among three? Yea, he became their captain, but he did not attain to the Three.
20. And Benaiah ben-Jehoiada, a valiant man from Kabzeel, did many deeds. He killed two lion-like men of Moab, and he went down into the midst of a pit and killed a lion on a snowy day.

⁹ Or, "Josheb-bashebeth the Tachmonite".

¹⁰ Possibly, "chief of the officers".

21. Moreover, he killed a man, an Egyptian of striking appearance. And the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, but he went down to him with a staff and wrested the spear out of the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.
22. These things did Benaiah ben-Jehoiada, and he had a name among three mighty men.
23. He was honored above the thirty, but he did not attain to the Three. And David set him over his bodyguard.
24. Asahel, Joab's brother was among the thirty, Elhanan ben-Dodo of Bethlehem,
25. Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite,
26. Helez the Paltite, Ira ben-Ikkesh the Tekoite,
27. Abiezer the Anathothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite,
28. Zalmon the Ahohite, Mahrai the Netophathite,
29. Heleb ben-Baanah the Netophathite, Ittai ben-Ribai from Gibeah of the children of Benjamin,
30. Benaiah the Pirathonite, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaash,
31. Abi-albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,
32. Eliahba the Shaalebonite, Jonathan of the sons of Jashen,
33. Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam ben-Sharar the Ararite,
34. Eliphelet ben-Ahasbai, the son of the Maachathite, Eliam ben-Ahitophel the Gilonite,
35. Hezro the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,
36. Igai ben-Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite,
37. Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, the armor-bearer of Joab ben-Zeruiah,
38. Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,
39. Uriah the Hittite: thirty-seven in all.

2Samuel 24

- ¶1. And again, the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Israel, and He provoked David against them, to say, "Go! Number Israel and Judah."
2. And the king said to Joab, the commander of the army who was with him, "Go now throughout all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and number the people, that I may know the number of the people."
3. Then Joab said to the king, "May Jehovah your God add to the people, as many as they are, a hundredfold, so that the eyes of my lord the king may see it! But why does my lord the king want to do this thing?"
4. But the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the army. So, Joab and the captains of the army went out from the king's presence to number the people of Israel.
5. And they crossed over the Jordan and camped at Aroer, on the right of the city that is in the midst of the valley of Gad and toward Jazer.
6. Then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi, and they came to Dan-jaan and round about to Zidon.

7. And they came to the stronghold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites and the Canaanites, and went out to the south of Judah to Beersheba.
8. And when they had gone throughout all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.
9. And Joab gave the sum of the numbering of the people to the king. And there were eight hundred thousand men of war who drew the sword in Israel, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand.
10. But David's heart struck him after he had numbered the people. And David said to Jehovah, "I have sinned greatly in what I did. Yet, pass over now, I pray you, O LORD, the iniquity of your servant, for I have done very foolishly."
11. And David arose in the morning. Then the word of Jehovah came to Gad the prophet, David's seer, saying,
12. "Go and say to David, 'Thus says Jehovah, I offer three things to you. You choose one of them, and I will do it to you.'"
13. So Gad came to David and told him, and he said to him, "Shall seven years of famine come upon you in your land, or shall you flee from the presence of your enemies for three months while one pursues you, or shall there be three days of plague in your land? Consider now, and decide what word I shall bring back to Him who sent me."
14. And David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Let us fall now into the hand of Jehovah, for His mercies are abundant, but let me not fall into the hand of man."
15. So, Jehovah sent a plague on Israel from that morning to the appointed time, and from Dan to Beersheba, seventy thousand men of the people died.
16. And the angel stretched out his hand to Jerusalem to destroy it, but Jehovah repented of the evil, and He said to the destroying angel among the people, "Enough! Stay your hand now." And the angel of Jehovah was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.
17. And David spoke to Jehovah when he saw the angel who was striking the people, and he said, "Behold, I am the one who sinned, and I am the one who did wickedly, but these sheep, what did they do? Let, I pray, your hand be against me, and against my father's house!"
18. Then Gad came in to David that day, and he said to him, "Go up! Raise an altar to Jehovah on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite."
19. So, David went up according to the word of Gad, just as Jehovah commanded.
20. And Araunah looked down and saw the king and his servants coming to him. And Araunah went out and did obeisance to the king, his face to the ground.
21. And Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" And David said, "To buy this threshing floor from you, to build an altar to Jehovah so that the plague may be stayed from the people."

22. And Araunah said to David, “Let my lord the king take and offer up what is good in his eyes. Behold, here are the oxen for the burnt offering. And for the wood, here are threshing sledges and instruments of the oxen.
23. All these, O king, does Araunah give to the king.” And then Araunah said to the king, “May Jehovah your God accept you!”
24. But the king said to Araunah, “No. I must buy it from you for a price. I will not offer to Jehovah my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing.” So, David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.
25. And David built an altar there to Jehovah, and he offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And Jehovah was entreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

1Kings

1Kings 1

- ¶1. Now, King David was old and advanced in years, and they covered him with garments, but he could not keep warm.
2. Therefore, his servants said to him, “Let them seek a young virgin for my lord the king, and let her stand before the king, and let her be of service to him, and lie in your bosom so that my lord the king may be warm.”
3. So they sought for a beautiful young woman throughout all the territory of Israel, and they found Abishag the Shunammite, and they brought her to the king.
4. And the young woman was very beautiful, and she began attending to the king and ministered to him, but the king did not know her.
- ¶5. Now, Adonijah, son of Haggith, had exalted himself saying, “I will be king,” and he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him,
6. and his father had not grieved him at any time by saying, “Why have you done this?” He also was very handsome, and his mother bore him after Absalom.
7. Moreover, he conferred with Joab ben-Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest, and they followed Adonijah and helped him.
8. (But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah ben-Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and those who were David’s mighty men were not with Adonijah.)
9. And Adonijah sacrificed sheep, and cattle, and fatlings near the stone of Zoheleth, which is beside En-rogel, and he called all his brothers, sons of the king, and all the men of Judah, servants of the king.
10. However, he did not call Nathan the prophet, or Benaiah, or the mighty men, or Solomon his brother.
- ¶11. Then Nathan spoke to Bathsheba, Solomon’s mother, saying, “Have you not heard that Adonijah ben-Haggith has begun to reign, and David our lord does not know?
12. Therefore, come! Let me, I pray, give you counsel, that you may escape, and your son Solomon.
13. Go, and enter in to David the king and say to him, ‘O king, my lord, did you not swear to your handmaid saying, “Solomon your son shall certainly be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne?” Why, then, is Adonijah king?’
14. Behold, while you are still there, speaking with the king, I will come in after you and confirm your words.”
15. And so, Bathsheba went in to the king, to his chamber. (Now, the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was ministering to the king.)
16. And Bathsheba bowed and prostrated herself before the king, and the king said, “What do you want?”

17. Then she said to him, “My lord, you swore to your handmaid by Jehovah your God, saying, ‘Solomon your son shall certainly be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne.’”
18. But, behold, Adonijah has now become king, even though, my lord the king, you did not know.
19. Also, he has sacrificed a multitude of oxen, and fatlings, and sheep, and he has called all the king’s sons, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the army. But Solomon your servant, he did not call.
20. And you, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are upon you to make known to them who should sit upon the throne of my lord the king after him.
21. Otherwise, it will come to pass that when my lord the king sleeps with his fathers, I and my son Solomon will be condemned as offenders.”
22. And behold, while she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in.
23. And they announced to the king, “Behold, Nathan the prophet!” And he entered in before the king, and prostrated himself before the king, with his face to the ground.
24. And Nathan said, “My lord the king, have you said, ‘Adonijah will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne?’”
25. For he has gone down today and is sacrificing a multitude of oxen, and fatlings, and sheep, and he has called all the king’s sons, and captains of the army, and Abiathar the priest. And behold, they are eating and drinking before him, and they are saying, ‘Long live King Adonijah!’”
26. But me, your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah ben-Jehoiada, and Solomon your servant, he did not call.
27. If this thing has been done by my lord the king, then you did not tell your servant who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.”
28. Then David the king answered and said, “Call Bathsheba to me!” And she came into the king’s presence, and she stood before the king.
29. And the king swore and said, “As Jehovah lives, who has redeemed my life from all distress,
30. just as I swore to you by Jehovah, the God of Israel, saying, ‘Surely, Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my stead,’ so I will certainly do this day!”
31. Then Bathsheba bowed her face to the earth and prostrated herself before the king, and said, “Let my lord David the king live forever!”
32. And King David said, “Call Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah ben-Jehoiada to me!” And they came in before the king.
33. Then the king said to them, “You take the servants of your lord with you, and have my son Solomon to ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon.

34. And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet shall anoint him there as king over Israel, and you shall blow with the shofar and declare, ‘Long live King Solomon!’
35. Then you shall go up after him, and he shall come in and sit upon my throne, and he shall reign in my stead, for him have I commanded to be ruler over Israel and over Judah.”
36. And Benaiah ben-Jehoiada answered the king and said, “Amen! May Jehovah, the God of my lord the king, say so!
37. As Jehovah has been with my lord the king, so may He be with Solomon and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord, King David!”
38. Then Zadok the priest went down, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah ben-Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and they mounted Solomon on King David’s mule and brought him to Gihon.
39. And Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the tent and anointed Solomon, and they blew with the shofar, and all the people said, “Long live King Solomon!”
40. And all the people came up after him, and the people were piping with pipes, and rejoicing with great joy such that the earth was rent with the sound of them.
41. Then Adonijah and all the guests with him heard it, and they stopped eating. And Joab heard the sound of the shofar and said, “Why is a sound of an uproar in the city?”
42. And while he was yet speaking, behold, Jonathan, son of Abiathar the priest, came in. Then Adonijah said, “Come in! For you are a valiant man and you bring good tidings.”
43. And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, “Truly, our lord, David the king, has made Solomon king!
44. And the king has sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah ben-Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and they made him to ride upon the king’s mule.
45. And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anointed him king in Gihon, and they have gone up from there rejoicing, and the city is in an uproar. This is the sound that you heard.
46. And also, Solomon is sitting on the throne of the kingdom!
47. And also the king’s servants have come to bless our lord, King David, saying, ‘May your God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and his throne greater than your throne!’ Then the king worshipped on the bed.
48. And the king also said this: ‘Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel, who this day has granted a man to sit on my throne while my eyes can see it.’”
49. And all who had been called, who were for Adonijah, were terrified, and they stood up and departed, each man going his own way.
50. Adonijah was also afraid because of Solomon, and he arose and departed, and he took hold of the horns of the altar.

51. Then it was reported to Solomon, saying, “Behold, Adonijah fears Solomon the king, and behold, he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, ‘Let King Solomon swear to me this day that he will not put his servant to death with the sword!’”
52. Then Solomon said, “If he is deserving, not a hair of his will fall to the ground, but if evil be found in him, then he will die.”
53. And King Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar, and he came in and bowed himself to Solomon the king. Then Solomon said to him, “Go to your house!”

1Kings 2

- ¶1. Now, the days of David drew near that he should die, and he commanded Solomon his son, saying,
2. “I am going the way of all the earth. Therefore, be strong; yea, be a man
 3. and keep the charge of Jehovah your God, to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, His commandments, and His Judgments, and His testimonies, just as it is written in the law of Moses, so that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn,
 4. so that Jehovah may establish His word which He spoke to me, saying, ‘If your sons take heed to their way, to walk before me faithfully with all their heart and with all their soul, you will never fail,’ He said, ‘to have a man upon the throne of Israel.’
 5. Moreover, you also know what Joab, the son of Zeruiah did to me, what he did to the two captains of the armies of Israel, to Abner ben-Ner and to Amasa ben-Jether, that he slew them and shed the blood of war in peacetime, spilling blood of war on his belt that was about his loins and on his sandals that were on his feet.
 6. Therefore, do according to your wisdom, and do not allow his gray hair go down to Sheol in peace.
 7. But deal kindly with the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table, for thus they came to me when I fled from before Absalom your brother.
 8. Behold, also with you is Shimei ben-Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim who cursed me with a grievous curse on the day I fled to Mahanaim. But he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by Jehovah, saying, ‘*May God damn me if I put you to death by the sword!*¹
 9. But do not now leave him unpunished, for you are a wise man, and you will know what you should do to him, but bring down his gray head with blood to Sheol!’”
- ¶10. Then David slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David.
11. Now the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years. He reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

¹ Literally, only “—if I put you to death by the sword.” The curse intended with this oath is so unthinkable—calling for one’s own death and damnation—that it is not even uttered.

12. And Solomon sat upon the throne of David his father, and his kingdom was greatly established.
 13. And Adonijah the son of Haggith went to Bathsheba, mother of Solomon, and she said, "Do you come peacefully?" Then he said, "Peacefully."
 14. Then he said, "I have something to say to you." And she said, "Speak."
 15. Then he said, "You know that the kingdom would have been mine and that all Israel had set their faces on me to be king, but the kingdom is turned about and has become my brother's, for it was his from Jehovah."
 16. So, as things are, I would make one request of you. Do not refuse me." And she said to him, "Speak."
 17. Then he said, "If you will, speak to Solomon the king, for he will not refuse you, that he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife."
 18. And Bathsheba said, "Very well. I will speak to the king for you."
 19. Then Bathsheba went in to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king stood up to greet her, and he bowed to her. Then he sat down upon his throne, and a throne was set for the king's mother, and she sat at his right hand.
 20. And she said, "I would make one small request of you. Do not refuse me." And the king said to her, "Ask me, my mother, for I will not refuse you."
 21. Then she said, "Let the king give Abishag the Shunammite to your brother Adonijah to wife."
 22. And King Solomon answered and said to his mother, "And why are you asking Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also, for he is my elder brother, and he has both Abiathar the priest and Joab son of Zeruiyah!"
 23. Then King Solomon swore by Jehovah saying, "God do so to me, and more, if Adonijah has not spoken this word at the expense of his own life!"
 24. And now, as Jehovah lives, who established me and set me on the throne of David my father, and who made for me a house, just as he said, surely, Adonijah will be put to death this day!"
 25. And King Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah ben-Jehoiada, and he fell upon him, and he died.
- ¶26. And the king said to Abiathar the priest, "Get you to Anathoth, to your fields, for you are a dead man! But I will not put you to death on this day because you carried the ark of the Lord Jehovah before David my father and because you were afflicted in all that my father was afflicted."
27. So, Solomon cast Abiathar out from being Jehovah's priest, to fulfill the word of Jehovah which He spoke concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

- ¶28. And the report came to Joab (for Joab had turned after Adonijah, although he had not turned after Absalom). Then Joab fled to the tent of Jehovah and grasped the horns of the altar.
29. And it was reported to King Solomon that Joab had fled to the tent of Jehovah and that, behold, he was at the altar. And Solomon sent Benaiah ben-Jehoiada, saying, “Go! Fall upon him!”
30. So, Benaiah went to the tent of Jehovah and said to him, “Thus says the king, ‘Come out!’” But he said, “No, but I will die here.” Therefore, Benaiah returned word to the king, saying, “Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.”
31. And the king said to him, “Do as he has said, and fall upon him and bury him, that you remove the blood from me and from my father’s house which Joab shed without cause.
32. And Jehovah shall return his blood upon his own head who fell upon two men more just and better than he, and slew them with the sword (my father David not knowing): Abner ben-Ner, captain of the army of Israel, and Amasa ben-Jether, captain of the army of Judah.
33. So will their blood return upon the head of Joab and upon the head of his seed forever. But for David and for his seed, and for his house, and for his throne, there shall be peace forever from Jehovah.”
34. Then Benaiah ben-Jehoiada went up and fell upon him, and he killed him, and he was buried in his place in the wilderness.
35. And the king appointed Benaiah ben-Jehoiada in his stead over the army, and the king appointed Zadok the priest in the stead of Abiathar.
- ¶36. And the king sent and called for Shimei, and he said to him, “Build a house for yourself in Jerusalem, and there shall you dwell. And from there, you shall not go forth anywhere whatsoever.
37. For on the day that you go out and cross over the brook Kidron, know for certain that you shall surely die. Your blood will be upon your own head.”
38. Then Shimei said to the king, “The saying is good. As my lord the king has spoken, so will your servant do.” And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.
39. But it came to pass at the end of three years, two servants of Shimei ran away to Achish ben-Maacah, king of Gath. And men told Shimei, saying, “Behold, your servants are in Gath.”
40. Then Shimei rose up, and saddled his donkey, and departed for Gath, to Achish, to look for his servants. And Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath.
41. And it was reported to Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had returned.

42. And the king sent and called for Shimei. Then he said to him, “Did I not make you swear by Jehovah, and solemnly warn you, saying, ‘In the day you go forth, and go anywhere whatsoever, know for certain that you will surely die’? And you said, ‘The saying is good. I understand.’
43. Therefore, why have you not kept the oath of Jehovah and the commandment that I commanded you?”
44. The king also said to Shimei, “You know all the evil that your heart knows, which you did to David my father; therefore, Jehovah will return your evil upon your own head.
45. But King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before Jehovah forever.”
46. Then the King commanded Benaiah ben-Jehioada, and he went out and fell upon him, and he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

1Kings 3

- ¶1. And Solomon made an alliance with Pharaoh, King of Egypt, and took the daughter of Pharaoh. Then he brought her to the city of David until he had completed building his house, and the house of Jehovah, and the wall around Jerusalem.
2. Only, the people were sacrificing in the high places because a house for the name of Jehovah had not been built before those days.
3. And Solomon loved Jehovah, walking in the statutes of his father David, only he sacrificed and burned incense in the high places.
- ¶4. And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for it was the great high place, and Solomon offered one-thousand burnt offerings upon that altar.
5. In Gibeon, Jehovah appeared to Solomon in a dream by night, and God said, “Ask. What shall I give you?”
6. Then Solomon said, “You showed great kindness to your servant David my father, inasmuch as he walked before you in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with you. And you have preserved for him this great kindness, that you have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.
7. Indeed, O Jehovah my God, you have now made your servant to reign in David my father’s stead. But I am a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in,
8. and your servant is in the midst of your people that you have chosen, a great people that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.
9. Therefore, give to your servant an understanding heart, that I might judge your people, discerning between good and evil. For who is able to judge this great nation of yours?”
10. And it was good in the eyes of the Lord that Solomon asked this.

11. And God said to him, “Because you have asked this thing and have not asked for yourself long life, nor asked for yourself riches, nor asked for the life of your enemies, but you have asked for yourself understanding to perceive justice.
 12. Behold, I have done according to your words. Behold, I have given you a wise and understanding heart, so that no one like you has been before you, nor after you will any like you arise.
 13. Moreover, I have also given you that which you have not asked for, both riches and honor, so that among the kings, there will not be any like you all your days.
 14. And if you walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will prolong your days.”
 15. And Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and he offered up burnt offerings and made peace offerings, and made a feast for all his servants.
- ¶16. Then two women, harlots, came to the king and stood before him.
17. And the one woman said, “If you please, my lord! This woman and I live in the same house, and I gave birth, with her in the house.
 18. And it came to pass on the third day after I gave birth that this woman also bore a child, and we were together. No one else was with us in the house; only we two were in the house.
 19. And this woman’s son died during the night because she lay upon him,
 20. and she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from beside me while your maid-servant was asleep, and she laid him on her bosom and laid her dead son on my bosom.
 21. And I got up in the morning to nurse my son, and behold, he was dead! But when I really looked at him in the morning, behold, it was not the son that I gave birth to!”
 22. Then the other woman said, “No! My son is the live one, and the dead one is your son!”
And this one said, “No! Your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one!” Thus, they spoke before the king.
 23. And the king said, “This woman says, ‘This living one is my son, and the dead one is your son. But this one says, ‘No! Your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.’”
 24. And the king said, “Bring me a sword.” And they brought the sword before the king.
 25. Then the king said, “Divide the living boy in two, and give half to one and half to the other.”
 26. And the woman whose son was alive spoke to the king, for she was moved with compassion for her son and said, “If you please, my lord! Give the living child to her! Please do not put him to death!” But the other one kept saying, “He should be neither mine nor yours. You men cut him in two!”

27. Then the king answered and said, “Give the living child to her, and by no means kill him. She is his mother.”
28. And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had made, and they feared the king because they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to execute judgment.

1Kings 4

- ¶1. So, King Solomon was king over all Israel.
2. And these were his chief officials: Azariah ben-Zadok the priest,
 3. Elihoreph and Ahijah, sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat ben-Ahilud, the recorder;
 4. and Benaiah ben-Jehoiada, over the army; and Zadok and Abiathar, priests;
 5. and Azariah ben-Nathan, over the officers; and Zabud ben-Nathan, a priest and friend of the King;
 6. and Ahishar, over the household; and Adoniram ben-Abda, over the forced labor.
 7. And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, and they provided food for the King and his house. One month each year, it was one man’s responsibility to make provision,
 8. and these are their names: Ben-Hur in Mount Ephraim;
 9. Ben-Dekar in Makaz, and in Shaalbim, and in Beth-shemesh, and Elon Beth-Hanan;
 10. Ben-Hesed in the Arubboth had Sochoh and all the land of Hepher;
 11. Ben-Abinadab, all of Naphath-Dor (he had Taphath, daughter of Solomon, as his wife);
 12. Baana ben-Ahilud, Taanach, and Megiddo, and all Bethshean (which is near Zarethan) below Jezreel, from Bethshean to Abel-meholah, as far as the other side of Jokmeam;
 13. Ben-Geber in Ramoth-Gilead had the villages of Jair² ben-Manasseh, which are in Gilead. He had the region of Argob that is in Bashan, sixty great cities with wall and bronze bar;
 14. Ahinadab ben-Iddo, Mahanaim;
 15. Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he also took Basmath, daughter of Solomon, for a wife);
 16. Baana ben-Hushai, in Asher and in Aloth;
 17. Jehoshaphat ben-Paruah, in Issachar;
 18. Shimei ben-Ela, in Benjamin;
 19. Geber ben-Uri, in the land of Gilead, territory of Sihon, King of the Amorites, and Og, King of Bashan, (and he was the only officer in that territory).
 20. Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand that is by the sea in abundance, eating and drinking, and they were joyful.
 21. And so it was that Solomon reigned over all the kingdoms, from the River to the land of the Philistines, even to the border of Egypt. They brought tribute, and served Solomon all the days of his life.
- ¶22. Now, Solomon’s provision for one day was thirty cors of fine flour and sixty cors of meal,

² That is, Havvoth-Jair.

23. ten fat oxen, and twenty cattle out of the pasture, and one hundred sheep, besides deer, and gazelle, and roebuck, and fattened fowl,
24. for he had dominion over all the region across the River, from Tiphrah even unto Gaza, over all the kings beyond the River. And he had peace around him on all sides.
25. So, Judah and Israel lived securely, each man beneath his vine and beneath his fig tree, from Dan even to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon.
26. And Solomon had forty-thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve-thousand horsemen.
27. And these officers supported King Solomon and all who came to King's Solomon's table, each man in his month. They lacked nothing.
28. And men brought barley and straw for the horses and steeds to the place where the officers were, each man according to his quota.
29. And God gave Solomon wisdom, and very great understanding, and breadth of heart, as the sand that is on the seashore.
30. So, Solomon's wisdom was greater than the wisdom of any of the sons of the East and greater than all the wisdom of Egypt.
31. Indeed, he was wiser than any man, wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol. And his fame was in all the nations round about.
32. Moreover, he spoke three-thousand proverbs and his songs were a thousand and five.
33. And he spoke concerning the trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall. And he spoke of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fish.
34. And they came from all nations to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth who heard of his wisdom.

1Kings 5

- ¶1. And Hiram, King of Tyre, sent his servants to Solomon because he had heard that they anointed him king in place of his father, for Hiram always loved David.
2. And Solomon sent to Hiram saying,
3. "You know that David my father was not able to build a house for the name of Jehovah his God because of the warfare with which his enemies surrounded him, until Jehovah put them under the soles of his feet."
4. But now, Jehovah my God has given me rest on every side. There is neither adversary nor adverse circumstance.
5. And behold, I intend to build a house for the name of Jehovah my God, as Jehovah spoke to David my father, saying, 'Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your stead, he will build the house for my name.'
6. Therefore, command now that cedars from Lebanon be cut down for me. And my servants will be with your servants, and I will give wages to your servants according to all that you say, for you know there is not a man among us who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians."

7. And it came to pass when Hiram heard the words of Solomon that he was exceedingly glad, and he said, "Blessed be Jehovah this day, who has given to David a wise son over this great people!"
8. And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, "I have heard that which you sent to me. I will do all that you desire concerning cedar trees and concerning cypress³ trees.
9. My servants will bring them down from Lebanon to the sea, and in the sea, I will make them rafts to go to the place that you designate for me, and I will take them apart there, and you will take them. And you will satisfy my requirement to provide food for my house."
10. And so, Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and cypress trees, all his desire.
11. And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand cors of wheat as food for his house, and twenty cors of beaten oil. Solomon gave this to Hiram year by year.
12. And Jehovah gave wisdom to Solomon as He said to him. And there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a covenant.
- ¶13. Then King Solomon conscripted forced labor out of all Israel, and the labor force consisted of thirty thousand men.
14. And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month in shifts. They were in Lebanon a month, then two months at home. And Adoniram was over the labor force.
15. And so it was that Solomon had seventy thousand men to bear burdens and eighty thousand to hew in the mountain,
16. apart from Solomon's chief officers who were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, who had charge over the people who were doing the work.
17. And the King commanded, and they quarried great stones, costly stones, in order to lay the foundation of the house with hewn stones.
18. And Solomon's builders, and Hiram's builders, and the Giblites hewed them and prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.

1Kings 6

- ¶1. And it came to pass, in the four hundred and eightieth year after the sons of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Ziv, the second month, he began to build the house of Jehovah.
2. And the length of the house that King Solomon built for Jehovah was sixty cubits, and twenty cubits was its width, and thirty cubits was its height.
3. And the length of the porch in front of the temple, the house, was twenty cubits, corresponding to the width of the house; its depth in front of the house was ten cubits.

³ Possibly "fir".

4. And he made windows with narrowing frames for the house.
 5. And he built a structure against the wall of the house all around, walls for the house round about, for the temple and the oracle, and he made chambers all around.
 6. The lowest story was five cubits wide, and the middle, six cubits wide, and the third, seven cubits wide, for around the outside of the house, he made offsets so that they would not be fastened to the walls of the house.
 7. And when the house was being built, it was built with finished stone from the quarry. Neither hammer nor ax, nor any tool of iron, was heard in the house while it was being built.
 8. The entrance for the middle chamber was on the right side of the house, and they went up by winding steps to the middle story, and from the middle story to the third.
 9. So, he built the house and completed it. And he covered the house with beams and rows of cedar.
 10. And he built the structure against all the house, five cubits was its height, and it was fastened to the house with timbers of cedar.
- ¶11. And the word of Jehovah came to Solomon, saying,
12. “As for this house which you are building, if you walk in my statutes, and carry out my judgments, and keep all my commandments and walk in them, then with you will I establish my word which I spoke to David your father,
 13. and I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel, and not forsake my people Israel.”
 14. So, Solomon built the house and completed it.
 15. And he built walls inside the house with cedar boards. Both the floor of the house and the walls of the ceiling, he covered with wood within, and he covered the floors of the house with cypress boards.
 16. And he built twenty cubits of the rear of the house with cedar boards, both the floor and the walls, and he built it within for an oracle, for the Most Holy Place,
 17. and the house in front of it, that is, the temple, was forty cubits.
 18. And the facing of the cedar for the house was carved with knobs and blossoming flowers. Everything was cedar; not a stone could be seen.
 19. And he prepared the oracle within the house to put the ark of the covenant of Jehovah there.
 20. And the length of the oracle within was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits, and its height was twenty cubits. And he overlaid it with pure gold. He also overlaid the altar of cedar.
 21. And Solomon overlaid the inside of the house with pure gold, and he made chains of gold to pass across the front of the oracle, which he also overlaid with pure gold.
 22. And he overlaid the whole house with gold until the entire house was finished. Also, the entire altar that was by the oracle, he overlaid with gold.
 23. And within the oracle, he made two cherubim of olive wood, ten cubits high.

24. And five cubits was one wing of the cherub, and five cubits was the second wing of the cherub, ten cubits from the tip of its wing to the tip of its other wing.
25. And the second cherub was ten cubits. The two cherubim had one measure and one form.
26. The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and likewise, the second cherub.
27. And he set the cherubim in the midst of the inner house, and they spread the wings of the cherubim so that the wing of the one touched the wall, and the wing of the second cherub touched the other wall, and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.
28. And he overlaid the cherubim with gold.
29. And he carved all the surrounding walls of the house with engravings: carvings of cherubim, and palms, and blossoming flowers, from the inner parts to the outer part.
30. And the floor of the house, he overlaid with gold, within and without.
31. And for the entrance of the oracle, he made doors of olive-wood, the pilaster, doorposts, a fifth part.
32. And on the two doors of olive wood, he carved carvings of cherubim, and palms, and blossoming flowers, and he overlaid them with gold, and he beat out the gold upon the cherubim and upon the palms.
33. And likewise, he made for the entrance of the temple doorposts of olive-wood from a fourth part.
34. And the two doors were of cypress wood. The two leaves of the one door were hinged, and the two leaves⁴ of the second door were hinged.
35. And he carved cherubim, and palms, and blossoming flowers, and he overlaid the carved work evenly with gold.
36. And he built the inner court with three courses of hewn stone, and a course of hewn cedars.
37. In the fourth year, in the month of Zif, was the foundation of the house of Jehovah laid.
38. And in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was completed according to all His commands, and according to all His specifications. And he was seven years in building it.

1Kings 7

- ¶1. And Solomon built his own house, and his entire house was completed in thirteen years.
2. And he built the House of the Forest of Lebanon. Its length was one hundred cubits, and its width was fifty cubits, and its height was thirty cubits, with four rows of cedar pillars and hewn cedars upon the pillars.
3. And it was paneled with cedar above, over the side-chambers that lay atop forty-five pillars, fifteen per row.
4. And there were three rows of *window*frames, with light toward light in three ranks.

⁴ Hebrew: “hangings”.

5. And all the entrances and posts were made square with frame-work, with light facing toward light in three ranks.
 6. And he made a porch of pillars. Its length was fifty cubits, and its width was thirty cubits, and a porch was in front of them with pillars, and a canopy was over them.
 7. And he made a porch for the throne where he would judge, the Porch of Judgment, and it was covered with cedar from floor to floor.
 8. And his house where he was to live had another court within the porch which was of similar workmanship. He also made a house like this porch for the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Solomon had taken.
 9. All these were of costly stones, according to the measurements of hewed stones, sawed with a saw, within and without, even from the foundation to the coping, and from the outside to the Great Court.
 10. And the foundation was of costly stones, great stones, stones of ten cubits and stones of eight cubits.
 11. And above were costly stones according to the measure of hewed stones, and cedar,
 12. and the Great Court round about had three courses of hewn stone and a course of hewn cedars, for both the inner court of the house of Jehovah and the porch of this house.
- ¶13. And King Solomon sent, and brought Hiram from Tyre,
14. (the son of a widow from the tribe of Naphtali, whose father had been a man of Tyre), an engraver of bronze, and he was filled with wisdom and understanding, and skill for making any work of bronze. And he came to King Solomon and wrought all his work.
 15. And he fashioned the two pillars of bronze; the one pillar was eighteen cubits high, and a line of twelve cubits encompassed the second pillar.
 16. And he made two chapters of cast bronze to set on the tops of the pillars. The height of the one chapter was five cubits, and the height of the second chapter was five cubits,
 17. and networks of lattice-work, festoons of chain-work for the chapters that were on top of the pillars: seven for the one chapter and seven for the second chapter.
 18. And he made the pillars with two rows of pomegranates all around on the one lattice-work to cover the chapters that were on the top, and thus he did for the second chapter.
 19. And the chapters that were on top of the pillars on the porch had lily-work of four cubits.
 20. Moreover, there were also two hundred pomegranates in rows round about upon the second chapter, even above the chapters on the two pillars, next to the belly which was across the lattice-work.
 21. And he raised up the pillars for the porch of the temple. And he raised up the right pillar and called its name Jachin, then he raised up the left pillar and called its name Boaz.
 22. And on top of the pillars was lily-work. And the work of the pillars was completed.

23. And he made the molten sea, circular, ten cubits from its brim to its brim all around. And its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits compassed it about.
24. And beneath its brim all around, there were knobs encompassing it, ten in a cubit, surrounding the sea in a circuit. Two rows of knobs were cast when it was cast.
25. It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, and three facing west, and three facing south, and three facing east. And the sea was above them, and all their back parts were inward.
26. And its thickness was a handbreadth, and its rim was made like the rim of a cup, like a lily flower. It contained two-thousand baths.
- ¶27. And he made ten bronze bases: each base was four cubits long, and its width was four cubits, and its height, three cubits.
28. And this was the workmanship of each base: they had borders, and the borders were between the ledges.
29. And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubim, and upon the ledges was a stand above. And below the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work.
30. And each base had four bronze wheels with bronze bosses, and they had four feet as supports. Underneath the laver were supports cast with wreaths on each side.
31. And its opening within the chapter and above was a cubit, and its opening was round. The work of the stand was a cubit and a half, and also at its opening were carvings, and their borders were square, not round.
32. And underneath the borders were four wheels, and the sides of the wheels were in the base, and the height of one wheel was one and a half cubit.
33. And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel. Their sides, and their rims, and their spokes, and their hubs were all cast.
34. And four supports were at the four corners of each base, and its supports were part of the base.
35. And on the top of the base was an encircling compass, half a cubit high, and on the top of the base its stays and its borders were one piece.
36. And on the surfaces of its sides and on its borders, he engraved cherubim, lions, and palms according to the space for each one, with wreaths round about.
37. He made ten bases like this, all of them had one casting, one size, and one shape.
- ¶38. And he made ten lavers of bronze. One laver contained forty baths. Each laver was four cubits, and on each of the ten bases was one laver.
39. And he placed five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house, and he placed the sea on the right side of the house, toward the southeast.
- ¶40. And Hiram made the lavers, and the shovels, and the basins. And Hiram finished doing all the work that he made for King Solomon for the house of Jehovah:

41. two pillars, and two bowls of the chapters that were on the top of the two pillars; and the two lattice-works for covering the two bowls of the chapters that were on the top of the pillars;
 42. and the four hundred pomegranates for the two lattice-works; two rows of pomegranates for one lattice-work for covering the two bowls of the chapters that were on the faces of the pillars;
 43. and the ten bases; and the ten layers on the bases;
 44. and the one sea; and the twelve oxen underneath the sea;
 45. and the pans, and the shovels, and the basins—and all these vessels that Hiram made for King Solomon for the house of Jehovah were burnished bronze.
 46. The King cast them in the area of the Jordan, in the clayey ground between Succoth and Zarethan.
 47. And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed because they were very, very many. The weight of the bronze was never ascertained.
- ¶48. And Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house Jehovah: the altar of gold; and the golden table upon which was the Bread of the Presence;
49. and the menorahs of pure gold, five on the right and five on the left before the oracle, and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold;
 50. and the cups; and the snuffers; and the basins, and the spoons, and the fire-pans, of pure gold; and the sockets for the doors of the innermost house, for the Most Holy Place, and for the doors of the house for the temple, of gold.
51. So, all the work that King Solomon did for the house of Jehovah was completed. And Solomon brought in the things his father David had consecrated. He put the silver, and the gold, and the vessels into the treasuries of the house of Jehovah.

1Kings 8

- ¶1. Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes, the chiefs of the fathers of the sons of Israel, to King Solomon in Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah from the city of David, that is, Zion.
2. And all the men of Israel assembled themselves to King Solomon for the feast in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month.
3. And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark.
4. And they brought up the ark of Jehovah, and the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the tent, and the priests and the Levites brought them up.
5. And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel that were gathered to him were with him before the ark began sacrificing sheep and oxen which could not be counted or numbered for multitude.
6. And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of Jehovah to its place, the oracle of the house, the Most Holy Place, beneath the wings of the cherubim,
7. for the cherubim spread two wings for the place of the ark, and from above, the cherubim overshadowed the ark and its poles.

8. And the poles were extended so that the ends of the poles could be seen from the holy place before the oracle, but they could not be seen outside. And they are there to this day.
 9. Nothing was in the ark except the two tablets of stone that Moses placed there at Horeb when Jehovah made a covenant with the sons of Israel when they came out from the land of Egypt.
 10. And it came to pass when the priests came out from the holy place that the cloud filled the house of Jehovah.
 11. And the priests were not able to stand to minister before the cloud because Jehovah's glory filled the house of Jehovah.
- ¶12. Then Solomon said, "Jehovah said that He would dwell in thick darkness.
13. I have indeed built you a majestic house, a fixed place for you to dwell in forever."
 14. And the King turned his face about, and blessed all the Assembly of Israel, and the whole Assembly of Israel stood up.
 15. And he said, "Blessed be Jehovah, God of Israel, who spoke by His mouth to David my father, and by His hand has fulfilled it, saying,
 16. 'From the day that I brought my people Israel out from Egypt, I chose no city from all the tribes of Israel to build a house that my name might be there, but I chose David to be over my people Israel.'
 17. And it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of Jehovah, God of Israel.
 18. And Jehovah said to David my father, 'Forasmuch as it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you have done well, in that it was in your heart.'
 19. Yet, you will not build the house, but your son, who will come forth from your loins; he will build the house for my name.'
 20. And Jehovah caused His word to stand which He spoke, for I have risen up in the place of my father David, and I sit on the throne of Israel, as Jehovah said, and I have built the house for the name of Jehovah, God of Israel.
 21. And there, I have provided a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of Jehovah that He made with our fathers when He brought them out from the land of Egypt."
 22. And Solomon stood before the altar of Jehovah in the presence of all the Assembly of Israel, and he spread his hands toward heaven.
 23. And he said, "O Jehovah, God of Israel, there is no god like you in the heavens above or on the earth beneath, preserving the covenant and lovingkindness for your servants who walk before you with all their heart,
 24. you who has kept for your servant David my father what you spoke to him. Yea, you spoke with your mouth, and with your hand you have fulfilled it, as at this day.
 25. And now, O Jehovah, God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father that which you spoke to him, saying, ' You will not lack a man before me to sit upon the throne

- of Israel—if only your sons take heed to their way, to walk before me as you have walked.'
26. And now, O God of Israel, let your word, I pray, be established which you spoke to your servant David, my father.
 27. But will God indeed dwell on earth? Behold, heaven—even the heaven of heavens—cannot contain you! How much less this house that I have built?
 28. Yet, you have regarded the prayer of your servant and his supplication, O Jehovah, my God, that you would hear the cry and the prayer that your servant is praying before you today,
 29. that your eyes be open toward this house night and day, toward the place of which you said, 'My name will be there,' that you hear the prayer that your servant prays toward this place,
 30. and hear the supplication of your servant and your people Israel when they pray toward this place, that you hear in your dwelling-place in heaven; yea, hear and forgive.
 31. If a man sins against his fellow, and an oath be laid upon him that he is made to swear, and the oath comes before your altar in this house,
 32. may you hear in heaven, and act, and judge your servants, condemning the wicked, setting his wicked way upon his head, and justifying the righteous, to give to him according to his righteousness.
 33. When your people Israel are smitten before an enemy because they have sinned against you, and they turn back to you and confess your name, and they pray and plead with you for mercy in this house,
 34. then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them back to the land that you gave to their fathers.
 35. When heaven is shut up, and there is no rain because they have sinned against you, and they pray toward this place, and they confess your name, and turn from their sin when you afflict them,
 36. then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants, even your people Israel, that you may teach them the good way in which they should walk and give rain to your land that you gave to your people for an inheritance.
 37. If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, blight, mildew, swarming locust, destroying locust, if it come to pass that their enemy presses hard on them in the land at their gates—whatever affliction, whatever illness—
 38. any prayer, any supplication by any man or by all your people Israel if they confess, each man, the affliction of his heart, and he spreads out his hands toward this house,
 39. then hear from heaven, your dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to all his ways, for you will know his heart (for you, you alone, know the heart of all the sons of man),
 40. that they may fear you all the days that they live on the face of the land that you gave to our fathers.

41. And hear also the foreigner who is not of your people Israel when he comes from a distant land because of your renown,
 42. for they will hear of your great renown, and of your mighty hand, and of your out-stretched arm. When he comes and prays toward this house,
 43. hear from heaven, your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner cries out to you, so that all peoples of the earth may know your name, to fear you as do your people Israel, and to know that this house which I have built is called by your name.
 44. When your people go out to battle against an enemy in the way that you send them, and they pray to Jehovah toward the city that you have chosen and the house that I have built for your name,
 45. then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and uphold their cause.
 46. When they sin against you (for there is no man who does not sin), and you become angry with them and deliver them before an enemy, and they take them away as their captives to the land of the enemy, far or near,
 47. but they turn back their heart in the land in which they were taken captive, and they repent and make supplication in the land of their captors, saying, ‘We have sinned and committed iniquity! We have done wickedness!',
 48. and they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies who took them captive, and they pray to you toward their land that you gave to their fathers, the city which you have chosen, and the house that you have built for your name,
 49. then from heaven, your dwelling place, hear their prayer and their supplication, and uphold their cause.
 50. And forgive your people who have sinned against you, and all their transgressions which they have transgressed against you, and grant them compassion in the presence of their captors so that they will have compassion on them,
 51. because they are your people and your inheritance whom you brought out from Egypt, out of the midst of the iron furnace.
 52. Let your eyes be open to the supplication of your servant and to the supplication of your people Israel, to hear them in all for which they cry out to you.
 53. For you separated them for yourself from all peoples of the earth for an inheritance, as you said, by the hand of Moses your servant when you brought our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD.”
- ¶54. And it came to pass, when Solomon finished praying to Jehovah all this prayer and supplication, he arose from before the altar of Jehovah, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread out toward heaven.
55. And he stood, and he blessed all the Assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying,

56. “Blessed is Jehovah, who has given His people Israel a resting place, according to all that He said. Not one word has fallen of all His good word which He spoke by the hand of His servant Moses.
 57. May Jehovah our God be with us as He was with our fathers. May He not leave us or forsake us,
 58. that He may incline our hearts to Him to walk in all His ways and to keep His commandments, and His statutes, and His judgments which He commanded our fathers.
 59. And let these words with which I have sought favor before Jehovah, be near Jehovah our God day and night, that He may execute judgment for His servant and judgment for His people Israel, as the matter requires, day by day,
 60. that all the peoples of the earth may know that Jehovah, He is God, and there is no other.
 61. Let your heart be perfect with Jehovah our God, to walk in His statutes and to keep His commandments, as at this day.”
- ¶62. Then the King and all Israel with him offered sacrifice before Jehovah.
63. And Solomon offered sacrifice for a peace offering, which he slaughtered before Jehovah, twenty-two thousand oxen and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. And so, the King and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of Jehovah.
 64. On that day, the King consecrated the middle of the court that is before the house of Jehovah, for there he made the burnt offering, and the grain offering, and the fat of the peace offerings because the bronze altar before Jehovah was too small to hold the burnt offering, and the grain offering, and the fat of the peace offerings.
 65. And at that time, Solomon made a feast, and all Israel with him, a great Assembly from the Entrance of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt, before Jehovah our God, seven days, then seven more days, even fourteen days.
 66. On the eighth day, he sent the people away, and they blessed the King and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the good that Jehovah had done for David, His servant, and for His people Israel.

1Kings 9

- ¶1. And it came to pass, when Solomon finished building the house of Jehovah, and the house of the King, and all Solomon’s desire that he was pleased to do,
2. that Jehovah appeared to Solomon a second time as He had appeared to him at Gibeon.
3. And Jehovah said to him, “I have heard your prayer and your supplication which you have made before me. I have sanctified this house that you have built, to put my name there forever, and my eyes and my heart will always be there.”
4. Now, if you walk before me as your father David walked, with a perfect heart and uprightly, doing all that I have commanded you, keeping my statutes and my judgments,

5. then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, as I spoke to David your father, saying, "You will not lack a man upon the throne of Israel."
 6. But, if you or your sons ever turn away from me and do not keep my commandments, my statutes that I have set before you, but depart and serve other gods and worship them,
 7. then I will cut off Israel from the land that I gave them, and the house that I have consecrated for my name will I cast out from before me, and Israel will become a byword and a mockery among all nations.
 8. As to this house which is exalted, all that pass by it will be astounded, and hiss, and say, 'Why has Jehovah done thus to this land and to this house?'
 9. Then men will say, 'Because they forsook Jehovah their God who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and clung to other gods, and bowed themselves to them, and served them—that is why Jehovah has brought all this evil upon them.'"
- ¶10. And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, that Solomon had built the two houses, the house of Jehovah and the house of the king.
11. Hiram the king of Tyre supplied Solomon with timbers of cedar and cypress wood, and gold according to all his desire. Then King Solomon gave to Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.
 12. And Hiram came from Tyre to see the cities that Solomon had given to him, and they were not pleasing in his eyes.
 13. Then he said, "What are these cities that you have given to me, my brother?" And he called them the land of Cabul⁵ to this day.
 14. Now, Hiram had sent to the king one hundred twenty talents of gold.
- ¶15. And this is the reason for the forced labor that King Solomon conscripted: to build the house of Jehovah and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer.
16. (Pharaoh, king of Egypt, had come up and seized Gezer, and burned it with fire, and slew the Canaanites that lived in the city, and he gave it as a parting gift to his daughter, Solomon's wife.)
 17. So, Solomon built Gezer, and Lower Beth-horon,
 18. and Baalath, and Tamar in the wilderness, in the land,
 19. and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and the cities of the chariots, and the cities of the horsemen, and whatever Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.
 20. All the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, they who were not of the sons of Israel,

⁵ Hebrew uncertain.

21. their sons who remained in the land, whom the sons of Israel were not able to completely destroy, Solomon conscripted them for slave labor unto this day.
22. But of the sons of Israel, Solomon did not make slaves, but they were men of war, his servants, his officials, his officers, his captains of chariotry, and his horsemen.
23. These were the chief officers who were over Solomon's work: five hundred and fifty who had charge over the people who were doing the work.
24. But, Pharaoh's daughter went up from the city of David to her house that Solomon built for her; then he built Millo.
25. And three times a year, Solomon offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar that he built to Jehovah, and he offered the sacrifices by him who was before Jehovah. So, he finished the house.
26. And King Solomon made ships in Ezion-geber that is near Eloth on the shore of the Red Sea in the land of Edom.
27. And Hiram sent in the ships his servants, sailors who had knowledge of the sea, along with the servants of Solomon.
28. Then they went to Ophir and took from there four hundred twenty talents of gold and came to King Solomon.

1Kings 10

- ¶1. Then the Queen of Sheba, hearing of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of Jehovah, came to test him with difficult questions.
2. And she came to Jerusalem with a very great retinue, with camels bearing spices, an abundance of gold, and precious stones. And she came to Solomon and spoke to him about everything that was in her heart,
3. and Solomon answered all her questions. There was nothing hidden from the king that he could not reveal to her.
4. When the Queen of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built,
5. and the food of his table, and the order of his servants, and the attendance of his servers and their raiment, and his cup-bearers, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of Jehovah, there was no more breath in her.
6. Then she said to the king, "The report that I heard in my land of your words and wisdom was true,
7. and I did not believe the reports until I came and my eyes saw, and behold, the half was not told to me. You have exceeded in wisdom and prosperity the report that I heard.
8. Blessed are your men! These your servants are blessed who stand continually before you, hearing your wisdom.
9. Blessed be Jehovah your God who delighted in you, to set you upon the throne of Israel because of Jehovah's eternal love for Israel, and He has made you king to execute judgment and righteousness."

10. And she gave to the king one hundred twenty talents of gold, and a great abundance of spices, and precious stones. Never again came such an abundance of spices as these that the Queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.
11. And also, ships of Hiram, that carried gold from Ophir, brought from Ophir a great abundance of almug wood and precious stones.
12. And the king made of the almug wood supports for the house of Jehovah and the house of the king, and lyres, and harps for the singers. No such almug wood has come in nor been seen to this day.
13. And King Solomon gave to the Queen of Sheba all that she desired, which she had asked for, besides that which was given her by the hand of King Solomon. Then she departed and went to her own land, she and her servants.
14. And it came to pass, that the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,
15. apart from the men who were traders, and of the traffic of the merchants, and all the kings of Arabia, and governors of the land.
16. And King Solomon made two hundred shields of beaten gold, six hundred shekels of gold went into each shield,
17. and three hundred bucklers of beaten gold, three minas of gold went into each buckler. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.
18. The king also made a great ivory throne and overlaid it with refined gold.
19. The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind it, and stays were on either side on the place of the seat, with two lions standing beside the stays.
20. And twelve lions stood there upon the six steps, one on each side. The like has not been made for any other kingdom.
21. And all of King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold, none were of silver. It was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon.
22. For the king had Tarshish ships at sea along with Hiram's ships. Once every three years the Tarshish ships came carrying gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.
23. Thus, King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom.
24. Moreover, all the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom which God had put in his heart.
25. And each of them brought his gift: vessels of silver and vessels of gold, garments, weaponry, spices, horses and mules, so much year by year.
26. And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen, and he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.
27. And the king made silver in Jerusalem like stones and made cedars like the sycamores that are in the Shephelah for abundance.

28. And the source of Solomon's horses was Egypt and Kue. The king's merchants procured them from Kue at a price,
29. and a chariot could be imported from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred and fifty. And likewise, by their hand, they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and to the kings of Aram.

1Kings 11

- ¶1. Moreover, King Solomon loved many foreign women besides the daughter of Pharaoh, Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites,
2. from the nations of which Jehovah said to the children of Israel, "You shall not go in to them; neither shall they come in to you. They will certainly turn your heart away after their gods." To these, Solomon clung in love.
3. And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines. And his wives turned his heart away.
4. And it came to pass when Solomon was old that his wives turned his heart away to follow after other gods, and his heart was not perfect with Jehovah his God like the heart of David his father.
5. For Solomon went after Ashtoreth, goddess of the Zidonians, and after Milcom, the abomination of the Ammonites.
6. And Solomon did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, and he did not fully follow after Jehovah like David his father.
7. Furthermore, Solomon built a high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, on the mountain that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon.
8. And he did likewise for all his foreign wives who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.
9. Therefore, Jehovah was angry with Solomon because he turned his heart away from Jehovah, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice
10. and had commanded him concerning this matter, that he should not go after other gods, but he did not obey what Jehovah commanded.
11. Therefore, Jehovah said to Solomon, "Because it has been this way with you, and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes that I commanded you, I most certainly will tear the kingdom from you and give it to your servant."
12. Yet, during your days, I will not do it for the sake of your father David. I will tear it out of the hand of your son.
13. Even so, I will not tear away the entire kingdom. I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen."
- ¶14. Jehovah also raised up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite. He was of the king's seed in Edom.

15. For it had happened that when David was in Edom, Joab the captain of the army went up to bury the slain, then he killed every male in Edom.
16. Yea, Joab continued there for six months, along with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom.
17. But Hadad fled, he and men of Edom, some servants of his father, went into Egypt with him. Hadad was yet a young boy.
18. And they arose from Midian and went to Paran; and they took men from Paran with them, and they came to Egypt to Pharaoh, king of Egypt. And he gave him a house, and commanded food for him, and gave him land.
19. And Hadad found great favor in the eyes of Pharaoh, and he gave him his sister-in law for a wife, a sister of Tahpenes the queen.
20. And the sister of Tahpenes bore him a son, Genubath, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house, and Genubath was in the house of Pharaoh among the sons of Pharaoh.
21. When Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers and that Joab, captain of the army, was dead, then Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Send me away that I may go to my own land."
22. And Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that, behold, you desire to depart to your own land?" And he said, "Nothing. Yet, let me go anyway."
- ¶23. God also raised up as an adversary against him, Rezon ben-Eliada, who had fled from his lord Hadadezer, king of Zobah.
24. And he gathered men to himself, and he was captain over a band (when David slew them of Zobah). And they went to Damascus and dwelt in it. And they reigned in Damascus.
25. And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, in addition to the evil that Hadad did. And he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Aram.
- ¶26. Moreover, Jeroboam ben-Nebat an Ephrathite from Zereda, a servant to Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman, also lifted his hand against the king.
27. And this is the reason for which he lifted a hand against King Solomon; he built Millo and closed the breach of the city of David his father.
28. Now, the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valor. And seeing that the young man was industrious, Solomon set him over all the burden-bearers of the house of Joseph.
29. And it came to pass at that time that Jeroboam went out from Jerusalem, and the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him on the road. And he had clothed himself with a new garment; and both of them were alone in a field.
30. Then Ahijah grasped the new garment that was on him, and tore it into twelve pieces.
31. Then he said to Jeroboam, "You take ten pieces, for thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will tear the kingdom from the hand of Solomon and give ten tribes to you.'

32. But, one tribe will remain his for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel.
33. Because they have forsaken me and bowed themselves to Ashtoreth, goddess of the Zidonians, to Chemosh, god of the Moabites, to Milcom, god of the children of Ammon, and they have not walked in my ways, my statutes and my judgments, to do what is right in my eyes like David his father.
34. However, I will not take the entire kingdom out of his hand, for I will make him ruler all the days of his life for my servant David's sake, whom I chose, who kept my commandments and my statutes.
35. And I will take the kingdom out of the hand of his son and give it to you, ten tribes.
36. And to his son, I will give one tribe, that there may be a lamp for my servant David before me always in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen for myself to put my name there.
37. And I will take you, and you will rule according to all that your soul desires, and you shall be king over Israel.
38. And it shall come to pass, if you obey all that I command you, and walk in my ways, and do what is right in my eyes, to keep my statutes and my commandments as my servant David did, then I will be with you, and I will build an established house for you as I built for David. Yea, I have given Israel to you.
39. And I will afflict the seed of David because of this; howbeit not forever.”
40. Then Solomon sought to put Jeroboam to death. But Jeroboam rose up and fled to Egypt unto Shishak, king of Egypt. And he was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.
41. And the remaining acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the Book of the Acts of Solomon?
42. And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.
43. And Solomon slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David his father, and his son Rehoboam reigned in his stead.

1Kings 12

- ¶1. And Rehoboam went to Shechem for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king.
2. And it came to pass that Jeroboam ben-Nebat heard this, but he was still in Egypt where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelled in Egypt.
3. And they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,
4. “Your father made our yoke hard. So now, you lighten some of the burdensome service of your father and his heavy yoke that he placed upon us, and we will serve you.”
5. Then he said to them, “Go away for three days, and then return to me.” And so, the people left.

6. And Rehoboam the king consulted with the old men who stood in the presence of Solomon his father when he was alive, saying, "What answer do you advise should be returned to this people?"
 7. And they spoke to him, saying, "If today you will be a servant to this people and serve them, then answer them and speak good words to them, and they will be your servants forever."
 8. But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they gave him, and he consulted with the young men who had grown up with him, who were standing before him.
 9. And he said to them, "What answer do you advise that we should return to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten some of the yoke that your father put on us.'"
 10. And the young men that grew up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus shall you say to this people who spoke to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but now you make it lighter on us.' Speak thus to them: 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins!'
 11. My father indeed laid a heavy yoke on you, but I will now add to your yoke. My father chastened you with whips, but I will chasten you with scorpions."
 12. Then Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day just as the king had spoken, saying, "Return to me on the third day."
 13. And the king answered the people harshly, and he forsook the counsel that the old men had given him.
 14. And he spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke. My father chastened you with whips, but I will chasten you with scorpions."
 15. And so, the king did not listen to the people, for the turn of events was from Jehovah to establish His word which Jehovah spoke by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam ben-Nebat.
 16. And all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them. Therefore, the people sent back word to the king, saying, "What portion do we have in David? We have no inheritance with the son of Jesse. To your tents, O Israel! Look to your own house now, O David!" And Israel went to their tents.
 17. But as for the children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.
 18. Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram who was over the forced labor, but all Israel stoned him with stones and he died. And King Rehoboam mounted a chariot in haste to escape to Jerusalem.
- ¶19. So, Israel rebelled against the house of David, to this day.

20. For it came to pass when all Israel had heard that Jeroboam was returned that they sent and called him to the assembled company and made him king over all Israel. There was none that followed the house of David except the tribe of Judah alone.
- ¶21. And Rehoboam came to Jerusalem and assembled all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, one-hundred and eighty thousand chosen warriors to wage war against the house of Israel in order to bring back the kingdom to Rehoboam ben-Solomon.
22. But the word of God came to Shemaiah, a man of God, saying,
23. "Speak to Rehoboam ben-Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying,
24. 'Thus says Jehovah: Do not go up, nor wage war against your brothers, the sons of Israel. Each man return to his house, for this thing is of me!'" And they obeyed the word of Jehovah, and they turned back and departed according to the word of Jehovah.
- ¶25. And Jeroboam built up Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and dwelt in it. And he went out from there and built up Penuel.
26. And Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now the kingdom will return to the house of David.
27. If this people go up to make sacrifices at the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem, then will the heart of this people return to their lord, Rehoboam, king of Judah. Yea, they will kill me and return to Rehoboam, king of Judah."
28. So the king took counsel and made two golden calves. Then he said to them, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Behold your God, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!"
29. And he set one in Bethel and put the other in Dan.
30. And this thing became sin. And the people went before one, as far as Dan.
31. He also built a house of high places, and he made priests from the lowest of the people, who were not of the sons of Levi.
32. Moreover, Jeroboam made a feast in the eighth month on the fifteenth day of the month like the feast that is in Judah, and he sacrificed on the altar. Thus he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made, and he appointed at Bethel priests of the high places that he had made.
33. Therefore, he sacrificed on the altar that he made at Bethel on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, the month that he devised out of his own heart. Yea, he made a feast for the children of Israel and offered sacrifices on the altar.

1Kings 13

- ¶1. And behold, a man of God went from Judah by the word of Jehovah to Bethel, and Jeroboam was standing at the altar to make sacrifice.
2. And he cried out against the altar by the word of Jehovah and said, "O altar! O altar! Thus says Jehovah: Behold! A son will be born to the house of David. Josiah will be his name, and upon you will he sacrifice the priests of the high places who make sacrifices on you. Yea, they will burn up men's bones on you!"

3. And he gave a sign that day, saying, "This is the sign which Jehovah has spoken. Behold, the altar will be split apart, and the ashes that are on it will be poured out."
4. And it came to pass when the king heard the word of the man of God who cried out against the altar in Bethel, Jeroboam stretched forth his hand from the altar, saying, "Seize him!" But his hand that he stretched forth toward him withered, and he was not able to draw it back to himself.
5. Then the altar was split apart, and the ashes from the altar poured out according to the sign that the man of God had given by the word of Jehovah.
6. Then the king answered and said to the man of God, "Entreat, I pray, the face of Jehovah your God and pray for me that my hand will be restored to me!" And the man of God entreated the face of Jehovah, and the king's hand was restored to him, and it was as before.
7. And the king said to the man of God, "Come home with me and refresh yourself, and let me give you a gift."
8. But the man of God said to the king, "Even if you would give me half your house, I will not come with you, nor will I eat bread or drink water in this place."
9. For thus was it commanded me by the word of Jehovah, saying, 'You shall not eat bread, and you shall not drink water, and you shall not return by the way that you go.'
10. So, he went another way and did not return by the way that he had come to Bethel.
11. And a certain old prophet was living in Bethel. And his son came and told him every deed that the man of God had done in Bethel that day. They also recounted to their father the words which he had spoken to the king.
12. And their father said to them, "Which way did he go?" For his sons had seen the way that the man of God who came from Judah went.
13. Then he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." So, they saddled the donkey for him, and he mounted it.
14. And he went after the man of God and found him sitting under a terebinth. And he said to him, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?" And he said, "I am."
15. And he said to him, "Come home with me and eat bread."
16. Then he said, "I cannot return with you and go in with you, nor can I eat bread or drink water with you in this place."
17. For this was my charge by the word of Jehovah: You shall not eat bread, and you shall not drink water there, nor shall you come back by the way that you go."

18. And he said to him, “I am also a prophet like you, and an angel spoke to me by the word of Jehovah, saying, ‘Bring him back with you to your house that he may eat bread and drink water.’” He lied to him.
19. So, he returned with him and ate bread in his house and drank water.
20. And it came to pass as they were sitting at the table that the word of Jehovah came to the prophet who had brought him back.
21. And he cried out to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, “Thus says Jehovah: Because you have rebelled against the command of Jehovah and did not keep the commandment which Jehovah your God commanded you,
22. but returned and ate bread and drank water in the place concerning which He said to you, ‘Eat no bread and drink no water,’ your corpse will not come to the sepulchre of your fathers.”
23. And it came to pass after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, the prophet who had brought him back saddled the donkey for him.
24. And when he had gone, a lion found him on the way and killed him, and his corpse was thrown down on the road, and the donkey stood by it. The lion also stood by the corpse.
25. And behold, men were passing by, and they saw the corpse thrown down on the road and the lion standing by the corpse. Then they went and told it in the city in which the old prophet lived.
26. And the prophet who brought him back from the way heard it and said, “It is the man of God who rebelled against the command of Jehovah. Therefore, Jehovah gave him to the lion, and it tore him and killed him according to the word of Jehovah which He spoke to him.”
27. Then he spoke to his sons, saying, “Saddle the donkey for me.” And they saddled it.
28. So, he went and found his corpse thrown down on the road, and the donkey and the lion were standing by the corpse. The lion had not eaten the corpse nor torn the donkey.
29. And the prophet lifted up the corpse of the man of God and laid it on the donkey, and he brought it back. And the old prophet came to the city to lament and to bury him.
30. And he laid his corpse in his own grave, and they mourned over him, “Alas, my brother!”
31. And it came to pass after he buried him that he spoke to his sons, saying, “At my death, bury me in the sepulchre in which the man of God is buried. Lay my bones beside his bones,
32. because the thing which he cried out by the word of Jehovah against the altar that is in Bethel and against all the churches of the high places that are in the cities of Samaria will certainly come to pass.”

- ¶33. After this thing, Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way, but made more priests of the lowest of the people for the high places. Whoever would, he consecrated, and he became a priest of the high places.
34. And this thing became sin to the house of Jeroboam, that it might be annihilated and destroyed from off the face of the earth.

1Kings 14

- ¶1. At that time, Abijah ben-Jeroboam fell sick.
2. And Jeroboam said to his wife, “Arise now, and disguise yourself that people may not know that you are the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh. Behold, Ahijah the prophet is there. He spoke concerning me being king over this people.
3. So, take ten loaves in your hand, and cakes, and a flask of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will become of the youth.”
4. Then the wife of Jeroboam did so; she arose and went to Shiloh and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah was not able to see for his eyes were set because of his age.
5. And Jehovah said to Ahijah, “Behold, the wife of Jeroboam is coming to seek a word from you concerning her son because he is sick. Speak to her thus and thus. And it will be when she comes in that she will make herself out to be a foreigner.”
6. And it came to pass when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came in at the doorway that he said, “Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why do you make yourself a stranger? I have been sent to you with a hard message.
7. You go say to Jeroboam, ‘Thus says Jehovah God of Israel: because I exalted you from among the people and made you ruler over my people Israel,
8. and tore the kingdom from the house of David and gave it to you, but you have not been as my servant David who kept my commandments and who walked after me with all his heart doing only what is right in my eyes,
9. but you have done more evil than all who were before you, and you have gone and made for yourself other gods and molten images to provoke me to anger, and you have cast me behind your back,
10. therefore, behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and I will cut off from Jeroboam everyone that pisses against a wall, bond or free, in Israel, and I will burn up what remains of the house of Jeroboam as a man burns dung until it is consumed.
11. He of Jeroboam who dies in the city, the dogs will devour, and he who dies in the field, fowl of the sky will eat, for Jehovah has spoken.’
12. So arise. Go to your house. When your feet enter the city, the child will die.
13. And all Israel will mourn for him, and bury him because he alone of Jeroboam will come to the grave, for there was found in him something good toward Jehovah the God of Israel within the house of Jeroboam.
14. Moreover, Jehovah will this day raise up for Himself a king over Israel who will cut off the house of Jeroboam—but what? even now.

15. And Jehovah will strike Israel just as a reed is moved to and fro by the water, and He will uproot Israel from this good land which He gave to their fathers and will scatter them beyond the river because they made their Asherah poles, provoking Jehovah.
 16. And He will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam which he committed and which he caused Israel to commit."
 17. Then the wife of Jeroboam arose and left, and went to Tirzah. She came to the threshold of the house, and the child died.
 18. And they buried him, and all Israel mourned for him according to the word of Jehovah which He spoke by the hand of His servant Ahijah the prophet.
- ¶19. Now, the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he waged war, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
20. And the days that Jeroboam reigned were twenty-two years, and he slept with his fathers. And Nadab his son reigned in his stead.
- ¶21. And Rehoboam ben-Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city where Jehovah chose to place His name, out of all the tribes of Israel. And his mother's name was Naamah, the Ammonite.
22. And Judah did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and they provoked Him to jealousy more than all that their fathers had done by their sins that they committed.
 23. And they also built for themselves high places, yea, pillars and Asherah poles were on every high hill and under every green tree.
 24. Moreover, there were sacred sodomites in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations that Jehovah had dispossessed from before the sons of Israel.
 25. And it came to pass in the fifth year of King Rehoboam that Shishak the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem.
 26. And he took the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the king's house. Yea, he took everything; he even took all the shields of gold that Solomon had made.
 27. Then King Rehoboam made bronze shields in their place. And he entrusted them to the captains of the guards who guarded the entrance of the king's house.
 28. And it came to pass that whenever the king went into the house of Jehovah, the guards would carry them out and then bring them back to the guards' chamber.
 29. Now, the rest of the acts of Rehoboam and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
 30. And there was war continually between Rehoboam and Jeroboam.
 31. And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and he was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonite, and his son Abijam reigned in his stead.

- ¶1. Now, in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam ben-Nebat, Abijam began to reign over Judah.
2. He reigned three years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Maacah, daughter of Abishalom.
 3. And he walked in all the sins of his father that he had done before him, and his heart was not perfect with Jehovah his God, as was the heart of David his father.
 4. Yet for David's sake, Jehovah his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to raise up his son after him and to establish Jerusalem,
 5. because David did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah, and he did not turn aside from all that He commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.
 6. And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.
 7. And the rest of the acts of Abijam and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? There was also war between Abijam and Jeroboam.
 8. And Abijam slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David, and Asa his son reigned in his stead.
- ¶9. Now, in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa began to reign as king of Judah,
10. and he reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Maacah, the daughter of Abishalom.
 11. And Asa did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah, like David his father.
 12. And he removed the sacred sodomites from the land, and took away all the idols that his father had made.
 13. Moreover, he also removed his mother, Maacah, from being queen-mother because she made a detestable image for Asherah, and Asa cut down her abomination and burned it up in the brook Kidron.
 14. Yet, they did not remove the high places; nevertheless, Asa's heart was perfect with Jehovah all his days.
 15. Moreover, the consecrated things of his father and his own consecrated things he brought into the house of Jehovah, silver, and gold, and vessels.
 16. And there was war between Asa and Baasha the king of Israel all their days.
 17. And Baasha, king of Israel, went up against Judah. And he built Ramah that no one might go out or come in to Asa the king of Judah.
 18. And Asa took all the silver and gold that remained among the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the king's house, and he delivered them into the hand of his servants. And King Asa sent them to Ben-Hadad, the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Aram, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,

19. "Let there be a covenant between me and you, as between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent a present to you of silver and gold. Go, break your covenant with Baasha, king of Israel, that he may withdraw from me."
 20. And Ben-Hadad listened to King Asa and sent captains of his armies against the cities of Israel, and he struck Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-Beth-Maachah, and all Chinneroth, and against all the land of Naphtali.
 21. And it came to pass, when Baasha heard of it that he ceased building Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.
 22. Then King Asa made a proclamation throughout Judah; none was exempt, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its wood, with which Baasha had been building. And with them, King Asa built Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.
 23. And all the rest of the acts of Asa and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Only, in the time of his old age, he was diseased in his feet.
 24. And Asa slept with his fathers, and he was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father, and Jehoshaphat his son became king in his stead.
- ¶25. And Nadab ben-Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years.
26. And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah, and he walked in the way of his father, and in his sin by which he made Israel to sin.
 27. And Baasha ben-Ahijah of the house of Issachar conspired against him. Then Baasha struck him down in Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. For Nadab and all Israel had laid siege to Gibbethon,
 28. and Baasha slew him in the third year of Asa king of Judah and became king in his stead.
 29. And it came to pass when he reigned that he slew all the house of Jeroboam; he did not spare any that belonged to Jeroboam who breathed until he had destroyed him, according to the word of Jehovah that He spoke by the hand of his servant Ahijah the Shilonite
 30. because of the sins of Jeroboam that he committed, and by which he made Israel to sin by his provocation with which he provoked Jehovah the God of Israel to anger.
 31. And the rest of the acts of Nadab and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
 32. And there was war between Asa and Baasha the king of Israel all their days.
- ¶33. In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha ben-Ahijah became king in Tirzah over all Israel for twenty-four years.
34. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin by which he made Israel to sin.

- ¶1. And the word of Jehovah came to Jehu ben-Hanani against Baasha, saying,
2. "Inasmuch as I have raised you up from the dust, and set you as ruler over my people Israel, but you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made my people Israel to sin to provoke me to anger with their sin,
 3. behold, I will consume the posterity of Baasha and the posterity of his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam ben-Nebat.
 4. He of Baasha who dies in the city, the dogs will devour, and he of him who dies in the field, fowl of the sky will eat."
 5. And the rest of the acts of Baasha, and that which he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
 6. And Baasha slept with his fathers, and he was buried in Tirzah, and Elah his son reigned in his stead.
 7. And moreover, by the hand of Jehu ben-Hanani the prophet, the word of Jehovah came against Baasha and against his house, both because of all the evil that he did in the eyes of Jehovah to provoke Him to anger by the work of his hands in being like the house of Jeroboam and because he killed him.
- ¶8. In the twenty-sixth year of Asa the king of Judah, Elah ben-Baasha became king over Israel in Tirzah for two years.
9. And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariotry, conspired against him when he was in Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the house in Tirzah.
 10. And Zimri came in, and he struck him and killed him in the twenty-seventh year of Asa the king of Judah and reigned in his stead.
 11. And it came to pass, when he became king, as soon as he sat on his throne, he slew all the house of Baasha. He left him not one that pisses against a wall, either of his kinsmen or his friends.
 12. So, Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha according to the word of Jehovah that He spoke to Baasha by the hand of Jehu the prophet,
 13. for all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son that they committed, and by which they made Israel to sin to provoke Jehovah the God of Israel to anger by their vanities.
 14. And the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- ¶15. In the twenty-seventh year of Asa the king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. Now, the people were encamped against Gibbethon which belonged to the Philistines.
16. And the people who were encamped heard it said, "Zimri has conspired and has also killed the king." And all Israel made Omri, captain of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp.
 17. Then Omri and all Israel with him went up from Gibbethon, and they laid siege to Tirzah.

18. And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the citadel of the king's house and burned the king's house over himself with fire and died
 19. because of his sins that he committed, for doing evil in the eyes of Jehovah, walking in the way of Jeroboam and his sin by which he made Israel to sin.
 20. And the rest of the acts of Zimri and his conspiracy which he carried out, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- ¶21. Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts: half the people went after Tibni ben-Ginath to make him king, and half went after Omri.
22. And the people who followed Omri were stronger than the people who followed Tibni ben-Ginath. So, Tibni died, and Omri became king.
- ¶23. In the thirty-first year of Asa the king of Judah, Omri became king over Israel for twelve years. He reigned six years in Tirzah.
24. And he purchased the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver, and he built on the hill and called the name of the city that he had built after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill of Samaria.
 25. And Omri did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah; yea, he did more evil than all who were before him,
 26. for he walked in all the way of Jeroboam ben-Nebat and in his sin by which he made Israel to sin to provoke Jehovah the God of Israel by their vanities.
 27. And the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he displayed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
 28. So, Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria, and his son Ahab reigned in his stead.
- ¶29. And Ahab ben-Omri began to reign over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Asa the king of Judah, and Ahab ben-Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.
30. And Ahab ben-Omri did more evil in the eyes of Jehovah than all who were before him.
 31. And it came to pass—was it a small thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam ben-Nebat?—that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal, king of the Zidonians, and he went and served Baal, and worshipped him.
 32. He also erected an altar for Baal in the house of Baal which he built in Samaria,
 33. and Ahab made an Asherah pole. And Ahab did more to provoke Jehovah the God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.
- ¶34. In his days, Hiel the Bethelite built Jericho. He laid its foundation in Abiram his firstborn, and in Segub his youngest, he set up its gates, according to the word of Jehovah that He spoke by the hand of Joshua ben-Nun.⁶

⁶ Joshua 6:26.

- ¶1. And Elijah the Tishbite of the Tishbites of Gilead said to Ahab, “As Jehovah the God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, may God damn me if there is dew or rain these years, except by my word!”
2. Then the word of Jehovah came to him, saying,
3. “Leave here and turn to the east, and hide by the wadi Cherith where it is near the Jordan.
4. And it will come to pass that you will drink from the wadi. And I have commanded the ravens to provide for you there.”
5. So, he went and did according to the word of Jehovah. And he went and dwelt by the wadi Cherith where it is near the Jordan.
6. And the ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the wadi.
7. And it came to pass after some days that the wadi dried up because there had been no rain in the land.
- ¶8. And the word of Jehovah came to him, saying,
9. “Arise! Go to Zarephath which belongs to Zidon and dwell there. Behold, I have commanded a widow woman to provide for you there.”
10. And he arose and went to Zarephath, and he came to the entrance of the city. And behold, a widow woman was there, gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, “Bring me, I pray you, a little water in a vessel so that I may drink.”
11. And she went to fetch it, and he called to her and said, “Bring me, I pray you, a morsel of bread in your hand.”
12. But she said, “As Jehovah your God lives, I have nothing baked, but a handful of flour in a jar and a little oil in a jug. And behold, I am gathering two sticks that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son so that we may eat it, and die.”
13. Then Elijah said to her, “Do not be afraid, go do according to your word. Only, make me a little cake out of it first, and bring it out to me. And afterwards, make one for yourself and your son.
14. For thus says Jehovah the God of Israel: The jar of flour will not be used up, and the jug of oil will not decrease until the day Jehovah sends rain upon the face of the earth.”
15. So, she went and did according to the word of Elijah and she ate, he and she and her house, for a time.
16. The jar of flour was not used up and the jug of oil did not decrease, according to the word of Jehovah that He spoke by the hand of Elijah.
- ¶17. And it came to pass after these things that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became sick, and his sickness was so severe that there was no breath left in him.
18. And she said to Elijah, “What is there between us, O man of God? You have come to me to bring my iniquity to remembrance and kill my son.”

19. Then he said to her, "Give me your son." And he took him from her bosom, and brought him up to the upper chamber where he dwelt, and laid him on his bed.
20. And he cried unto Jehovah and said, "O Jehovah my God, will you also bring evil upon the widow with whom I am staying by killing her son?"
21. Then he stretched himself upon the child three times, and called out to Jehovah, saying, "O Jehovah my God, I beg you, let this child's soul return to him!"
22. And Jehovah heard the voice of Elijah, and the child's soul returned to him, and he revived.
23. Then Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper chamber to the house, and gave him to his mother. And Elijah said, "Behold, your son is alive!"
24. And the woman said to Elijah, "By this, I now know that you are a man of God and that the word of Jehovah is truly in your mouth."

1Kings 18

- ¶1. And when many days had passed, the word of Jehovah came to Elijah in the third year, saying, "Go, show yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain upon the face of the earth."
2. So, Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. Now, the famine was severe in Samaria.
3. And Ahab summoned Obadiah, who was over the household. (Now, Obadiah feared Jehovah greatly,
4. such that when Jezebel was killing off the prophets of Jehovah, Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifties in a cave, and he provided them bread and water.)
5. And Ahab said to Obadiah, "Go through the land, to all the springs of water and to all the wadis. Perhaps we will find green grass and keep the horses and mules alive, and not have to kill some of the animals."
6. So they divided the land between them, to go through it. Ahab went by himself one way, and Obadiah went by himself another way.
7. And when Obadiah was on the road, behold, Elijah met him. And when he recognized him, he fell on his face and said, "Is this you, my lord Elijah?"
8. Then he said to him, "It is I. Go, tell your lord, 'Elijah is here.'"
9. Then he said, "What sin have I committed that you would hand your servant over to Ahab to kill me?
10. As Jehovah your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom to which my lord has not sent to search for you. And if they say, 'He is not here,' then he makes that kingdom or nation swear that it has not found you.
11. And now you are saying, 'Go, tell your lord, "Elijah is here."'"

12. And it will come to pass when I have left you that the Spirit of Jehovah will carry you off to a place I don't know. And then, when I come to tell Ahab and he cannot find you, he will kill me; yet, your servant has feared Jehovah from my youth.
13. Has it not been told to my lord what I did when Jezebel was killing the prophets of Jehovah, that I hid a hundred men by fifties in a cave and provided them bread and water?
14. But now you are saying, 'Go, tell your lord, "Elijah is here,"' and he will kill me!"
15. And Elijah said, "As Jehovah of Hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely appear before him today."
16. So, Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and he told him. And Ahab went to meet Elijah.
17. And it came to pass when Ahab saw Elijah that Ahab said to him, "Is that you, you troubler of Israel?"
18. But he said, "I am not the troubler of Israel, but you and the house of your father are, in that you have forsaken the commandments of Jehovah and have gone after Baals.
19. So, send now and gather to me at Mount Carmel all Israel and the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal and four hundred prophets of Asherah who eat at Jezebel's table!"
20. So, Ahab sent to all the children of Israel and gathered the prophets to Mount Carmel.
21. Then Elijah came near to all the people and said, "How long will you hobble around on two opinions? If Jehovah is God, follow Him, but if Baal, follow him!" And the people did not answer him a word.
22. And Elijah said to the people, "I alone am left a prophet of Jehovah, but the prophets of Baal are four hundred and fifty men.
23. Therefore, let them give us two bullocks, and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it into pieces, and place it on the wood, but let them not set it on fire. And I will prepare the other bullock, and I will place it on the wood, but not set it on fire.
24. Then you call on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of Jehovah, and it will be that the God who answers by fire, He is God". Then all the people answered and said, "That's good!"
25. And Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose for yourselves one bullock and prepare it first, because you are many. Then call on the name of your gods, but do not set it on fire.
26. So they took the bullock that was given to them and prepared it. And they called on the name of Baal from morning until noon, saying, "O Baal, answer us!" But there was no voice and no answer. And they leaped upon the altar which was made.
27. And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, "Call out louder, for he is a god. He is meditating, or he is relieving himself, or he is on a journey. Perhaps he is sleeping and must be awakened!"

28. Then they cried out louder, and cut themselves, according to their custom, with knives and lancets until the blood gushed out on them.
29. And so it was when noon had passed that they began to prophesy until the offering up of the offering, but there was no voice, and no answer, and no response.
30. Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me!" So, all the people came near him, and he repaired the altar of Jehovah that was broken down.
31. Then Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of Jehovah came, saying, "Israel will be your name."
32. And with the stones, he rebuilt the altar in the name of Jehovah, and he made a trench round about the altar large enough to contain two measures of seed.
33. And he set the wood in order, and he cut the bullock into pieces and placed it on the wood. Then he said, "Fill four jars with water and pour it on the offering and on the wood."
34. Then he said, "Do it again!" So, they did it again. Then he said, "Do it a third time!" And they did it a third time.
35. And the water flowed around the altar, and even filled the trench with water.
36. And it came to pass at the offering up of the offering that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, "O Jehovah, God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, let it be known today that you are God in Israel, and that I am your servant and have done all these things at your word!"
37. Answer me, O Jehovah! Answer me, that this people may know that you, O Jehovah, are God, and that you may turn their heart back!"
38. Then the fire of Jehovah fell and consumed the offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and it licked up the water that was in the trench.
39. And all the people saw it, and they fell on their faces and said, "Jehovah, He is God! Jehovah, He is God!"
40. And Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Baal. Do not let any of them escape!" And they seized them, and Elijah brought them down to the Brook Kishon, and he slaughtered them there.
41. And Elijah said to Ahab, "Get up, eat and drink for there is a sound of an abundance of rain."
42. And Ahab got up to eat and to drink. Then Elijah went up to the top of Carmel and bent down to the earth, and put his face between his knees.
43. Then he said to his servant, "Now go up, and look toward the sea." And he went up and looked. Then he said, "There is nothing." And seven times, he said, "Return."
44. And it came to pass at the seventh time that he said, "Behold, a small dark cloud like the palm of a man's hand is coming up from the sea." And he said, "Go up, and say to Ahab, 'Prepare your chariot and go down so that the rain does not stop you!'"

45. And it came to pass after a while that the sky grew dark with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel.
46. And the hand of Jehovah was on Elijah. And he girded up his loins and ran before Ahab to where you enter Jezreel.

1Kings 19

- ¶1. Now Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and all he had killed with the sword, all the prophets.
2. Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "Thus may the gods do to me, and more, if by this time tomorrow, I do not make your life as the life of one of them!"
3. And he was afraid, and he rose up and fled for his life, and he came to Beersheba which is in Judah, and he left his servant there.
4. And he went a day's journey into the wilderness. And he came, and sat down beneath a broom-bush, and he asked for his life to end. And he said, "It is too much! Take my life now, O Jehovah, for I am no better than my fathers."
5. Then he lay down and slept beneath a broom-bush. And behold, an angel touched him and said to him, "Get up. Eat."
6. And he looked, and behold, by his head was a cake on burning coals and a jug of water. So, he ate and drank, and went back and lay down.
7. And the angel of Jehovah touched him again a second time, and he said, "Get up. Eat. For the journey is too much for you."
8. So he arose, and ate and drank, and on the strength of that meal, he walked forty days and forty nights to Horeb, the mountain of God.
9. He then came to a cave and lodged there. And behold, the word of Jehovah came to him, and He said to him, "Why are you here, Elijah?"
10. And he said, "I have been very jealous for Jehovah, the God of Hosts, for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant. They have thrown down your altars, and they have killed your prophets with the sword, and I alone remain, and they seek to take my life."
11. And He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before Jehovah." And behold, Jehovah passed by, and a great and mighty wind rent mountains and shattered rocks before Jehovah, but Jehovah was not in the wind. Then, after the wind was an earthquake, but Jehovah was not in the earthquake.
12. And after the earthquake was a fire, but Jehovah was not in the fire. And after the fire was a still, small voice.
13. And it came to pass when Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face with his mantle and went out and stood at the mouth of the cave. And, behold, a voice came to him and said, "Why are you here, Elijah?"

14. And he said, “I have been very jealous for Jehovah, the God of Hosts, for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant. They have thrown down your altars, and they have killed your prophets with the sword, and I alone remain, and they seek to take my life.”
15. And Jehovah said to him, “Go! Go back on your way, to the wilderness of Damascus. And when you come, anoint Hazael as king over Aram.
16. And anoint Jehu ben-Nimshi king over Israel, and anoint Elisha ben-Shaphat of Abel-Meholah as prophet in your stead.
17. And it will come to pass that he who escapes from the sword of Hazael will Jehu kill. And he who escapes from the sword of Jehu will Elisha kill.
18. Yet, I have seven thousand in Israel remaining, all whose knees have not bowed down to Baal and all whose mouth has not kissed him.”
19. So, he left there and found Elisha ben-Shaphat, and he was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he was with the twelve. And Elijah passed by him and cast his mantle on him.
20. And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah, and said, “Let me, I pray, kiss my father and my mother, then I will follow you.” And he said to him, “Go! Return, for what have I done to you?”
21. So, he returned from him. And he took a yoke of oxen and slaughtered them, and he boiled their flesh with the gear of the oxen and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he arose and went after Elijah and ministered to him.

1Kings 20

- ¶1. And Ben-Hadad the king of Aram gathered his whole army, and thirty-two kings with him, and horses and chariots. And he went up and laid siege against Samaria, and waged war against it.
2. And he sent messengers to Ahab the king of Israel in the city, and said to him, “Thus says Ben-Hadad:
3. Your silver and your gold are mine, and your choice wives and children are mine.”
4. And the king of Israel answered and said, “According to your word, my lord, O king, I am yours, and all that I have.”
5. And the messengers came back and said, “Thus Ben-Hadad has spoken, saying, ‘Although I sent to you saying, “Give me your silver and your gold, and your wives and your children,”
6. yet, at this time tomorrow, I will send my servants to you and they will search your house, and the houses of your servants, and it will come to pass that they will seize whatever is pleasant in your eyes and take it away.’”

7. Then the king of Israel summoned all the elders of the land and said, “Mark now and see that this man is looking for trouble! For he sent to me for my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold, and I did not refuse him.”
8. And all the elders and all the people said to him, “Do not listen or give consent.”
9. And so, he said to the messengers of Ben-Hadad, “Say to my lord the king, all that you sent for to your servant the first time will I do, but this thing I cannot do.” So the messengers left and brought him word.
10. Then Ben-Hadad sent to him and said, “Thus may the gods do to me, and more, if the dust of Samaria is enough for handfuls for all the people who are following me.”
11. And the king of Israel answered and said, “You say to him, ‘He who straps on his armor should not boast like the one who loosens it.’”
12. And it came to pass that he and the kings were drinking in the shelters when he heard this message, and he said to his servants, “Take your positions!” So, they took their positions against the city.
13. And behold, a certain prophet approached Ahab the king of Israel and said, “Thus says Jehovah: Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I am giving it into your hand today, and you will know that I am Jehovah.”
14. And Ahab said, “By whom?” And he said, “Thus says Jehovah: By the young men among the princes of the provinces.” Then he said, “Who shall begin the battle?” And he said, “You!”
15. Then he numbered the young men among the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two. And after them, he numbered all the people, all the sons of Israel, seven thousand.
16. And they went out at noon, and Ben-Hadad had made himself drunk in the shelters, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings helping him.
17. And the young men among the princes of the provinces went out first, and Ben-Hadad sent, and they reported to him, saying, “Men have come forth from Samaria.”
18. Then he said, “If they have come out for peace, take them alive. And if they have come out for battle, take them alive.”
19. So, the young men among the princes of the provinces and the army that was behind them went out from the city.
20. And each of them slew his own man. Then the Arameans fled, and Israel pursued them, and Ben-Hadad the king of Aram escaped by horse, with horsemen.
21. And the king of Israel went out and struck horse and chariot, and he struck down the Arameans with a great slaughter.
22. Then the prophet approached the king of Israel and said to him, “Go! Strengthen yourself! Mark and consider what you must do, for at the turn of the year, the king of Aram will come up against you.”

23. And the servants of the king of Aram said to him, “Their gods are gods of the mountains, therefore, they were stronger than we were. So, we should wage war with them in the plain. May the gods damn us if we will not be stronger than they!
24. Moreover, do this: remove each of the kings from his office and appoint governors in their stead.
25. Then you will number for yourself an army, like the army that you have lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. Then let us wage war with them in the plain. May the gods damn us if we will not be stronger than they!” And he listened to their voice, and did accordingly.
26. And it came to pass at the turn of the year, Ben-Hadad numbered the Arameans, and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.
27. But the sons of Israel were mustered and provisioned, and they went out to meet them. And the sons of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of goats, but the Arameans filled the land.
28. Then a man of God drew near and spoke to the king of Israel and said, “Thus says Jehovah: Because the Arameans have said that Jehovah is a God of mountains, but He is not a God of valleys, I will give all this great multitude into your hand also, and you will know that I am Jehovah.”
29. And they encamped opposite one another for seven days. And it came to pass on the seventh day that the battle was joined, and the sons of Israel struck down one hundred thousand Aramean footmen in one day.
30. And the rest fled to Aphek, into the city. And the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand men who were left. Ben-Hadad also fled, and came into the city into an inner chamber.
31. And his servants said to him, “Behold, if you will, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. If you will, let us put sackcloth on our loins and ropes on our heads and go out to the king of Israel. It may be that he will preserve your life.”
32. So they put sackcloth on their loins and ropes on their heads, then they went to the king of Israel and said, “Ben-Hadad, your servant, has said, ‘I pray you, let me live!’” And he said, “Is he still alive? He is my brother.”
33. And the men were looking for a sign, and they quickly picked up on it and said, “Your brother, Ben-Hadad!” Then he said, “Go! Bring him!” Then, Ben-Hadad came out to him, and had him to come up into the chariot.
34. And he said to him, “The cities that my father took from your father, I will give back, and you shall set up marketplaces for yourself in Damascus as my father did in Samaria.” And Ahab said, “I will send you away with this covenant.” So, he made a covenant with him and sent him away.

35. And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his fellow by the word of Jehovah, “Strike me, I pray.” But the man refused to strike him.
36. Then he said to him, “Because you did not obey the voice of Jehovah, behold, when you leave me, a lion will kill you.” And when he walked away from him, the lion found him and killed him.
37. And he found another man and said, “Strike me, I pray!” So, the man hit him hard and wounded him.
38. And the prophet left and waited by the road for the king, and he disguised himself with a bandage over his eyes.
39. And it came to pass when the king passed by that he cried out to the king and said, “Your servant went out into the midst of the battle, and behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man to me, and said, ‘Guard this man. If he goes missing, then it will be your life for his life, or else you must pay a talent of silver.’”
40. And it came to pass while your servant was busy here and there, he was gone.” And the king of Israel said to him, “So shall your judgment be. You yourself have determined it.”
41. Then he hurried and took the bandage off his eyes. And the king of Israel recognized him, that he was one of the prophets.
42. And he said to him, “Thus says Jehovah: Because you released the man I had devoted to destruction, therefore, your life will be for his life, and your people for his people.”
43. So, the king of Israel left for his house sullen and vexed, and he entered Samaria.

1Kings 21

- ¶1. And it came to pass after these things that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard in Jezreel next to the palace of Ahab the king of Samaria.
2. And Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, “Give me your vineyard and it will be for me a garden of herbs, for it is close by my house, and instead of it, I will give you a vineyard better than it. Or if you prefer, I will give you its price in silver.”
3. And Naboth said to Ahab, “Jehovah forbid that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you!”
4. So Ahab went to his house, sullen and vexed because of what Naboth the Jezreelite said to him, for he had said, “I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers!” Then he lay on his bed, and turned his face away, and would not eat food.
5. And Jezebel his wife came to him and said to him, “Why is your spirit sullen and you are not eating food?”
6. And he said to her, “Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and said to him, ‘Give me your vineyard for money, or if you prefer, I will give you a vineyard for it.’ But he said, ‘I will not give you my vineyard!’”

7. And Jezebel his wife said to him, “You should exercise kingly authority over Israel now. Get up! Eat food, and let your heart be glad. I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.”
8. Then she wrote letters in the name of Ahab, sealing them with his seal, and she sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles who dwelled with Naboth in his city.
9. And she wrote in the letters, saying, “Proclaim a fast, and make Naboth sit before the people.
10. And set two men, sons of Belial, before him and have them testify against him, saying, ‘You cursed God and king!’ Then take him out and stone him so that he dies.”
11. And the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who were dwelling in his city, did just as Jezebel had sent to them, just as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them.
12. They proclaimed a fast and made Naboth sit before the people,
13. and two men, sons of Belial, came in and sat in front of him. And the men of Belial testified against him, with Naboth before the people, saying, “Naboth cursed God and king.” Then they took him out of the city and stoned him with stones, and he died.
14. Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, “Naboth was stoned and is dead.”
15. And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead that Jezebel said to Ahab, “Get up! Take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money, for Naboth is not alive, but dead.”
16. And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab arose to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite to take possession of it.
17. Then the word of Jehovah came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,
18. “Get up! Go down to meet Ahab the king of Israel who is in Samaria. Behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth where he has gone down to take possession of it.
19. And you speak to him, saying, ‘Thus says Jehovah: Will you murder, and then also take possession? ’ Then say to him, ‘Thus says Jehovah: In the place that the dogs licked up the blood of Naboth, the dogs will lick up your blood, even yours.’”
20. And Ahab said to Elijah, “Have you found me, O my enemy?” And he said, “I have found you because you have sold yourself to do evil in the eyes of Jehovah.
21. Behold, I will bring evil upon you, and I will utterly consume your posterity. Yea, I will cut off from Ahab him that pisses against a wall, both bond and free in Israel.
22. And I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam ben-Nebat and like the house of Baasha ben-Ahijah, for the provocation by which you have provoked me and made Israel to sin.”
23. And Jehovah spoke also of Jezebel, saying, “The dogs will eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel.
24. He of Ahab who dies in the city, the dogs will devour, and he who dies in the field, fowl of the sky will eat.”

25. Indeed, there was none like Ahab who sold himself to do evil in the eyes of Jehovah, whom Jezebel his wife incited.
26. He acted very abominably, walking after the idols according to all that the Amorites did whom Jehovah dispossessed before the children of Israel.
27. And it came to pass, when Ahab heard these words that he tore his garments, and put sackcloth on his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and he went about softly.
28. Then the word of Jehovah came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,
29. "Have you seen that Ahab has humbled himself before me? Because he has humbled himself before me, I will not bring about this evil in his days. In his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house."

1Kings 22

- ¶1. Now, three years passed without war between Aram and Israel.
2. And it came to pass in the third year that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went down to the king of Israel.
3. And the king of Israel said to his servants, "Are you aware that Ramoth-Gilead belongs to us? Yet, we are silent about taking it from the hand of the king of Aram!"
4. And he said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to battle at Ramoth-Gilead?" And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "I am as you are; my people are as your people; my horses are as your horses."
5. However, Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Seek first, I pray, the word of Jehovah."
6. Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets, about four hundred men, and he said to them, "Should I go against Ramoth-Gilead to battle, or should I forbear?" And they said, "Go up! The Lord will give it into the hand of the king."
7. Then Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no longer a prophet of Jehovah here that we may inquire by him?"
8. And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man by whom we may inquire of Jehovah, Micaiah ben-Imlah, but, I hate him because he never prophesies good concerning me, but evil." Then Jehoshaphat said, "Let the king not say so."
9. So, the king of Israel summoned a certain officer and said, "Make haste! Micaiah ben-Imlah!"
10. And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, dressed in robes, in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria. And all the prophets were prophesying before them.
11. And Zedekiah ben-Chenaanah made horns of iron for himself and said, "Thus says Jehovah: With these, you will gore the Arameans until they are destroyed."
12. And all the prophets prophesied thus, saying, "Go up to Ramoth-Gilead and triumph! Jehovah has given it into the hand of the king!"

13. And the messenger who went to summon Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Behold now, the words of the prophets, with one mouth, are good toward the king. I pray you, let your words be as the word of one of them, and say something good!"
14. And Micaiah said, "As Jehovah lives, that which Jehovah says to me, I will speak."
15. Then he came to the king, and the king said to him, "Micaiah, should we go against Ramoth-Gilead to battle, or should we forbear?" And he said to him, "Go up and triumph! Jehovah has given it into the hand of the king!"
16. And the king said to him, "How many times have I made you swear that you tell me nothing but the truth in the name of Jehovah?"
17. And so, he said, "I saw all Israel scattered to the hills like sheep that have no shepherd. And Jehovah said, 'These have no king; let each man return to his house in peace.'"
18. Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he does not prophesy good concerning me, but only evil?"
19. Then he said, "Therefore, hear the word of Jehovah! I saw Jehovah sitting on His throne and all the host of heaven standing about Him, on His right and on His left."
20. And Jehovah said, 'Who will persuade Ahab to go up and die at Ramoth-Gilead? ' And one answered this way, and another answered that way.
21. Then a spirit came forth and stood before Jehovah, and he said, 'I will persuade him.' And Jehovah said to him, 'How?'
22. And he said, 'I will go forth and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. ' And He said, 'You will persuade him. Yea, you will succeed. Go and do so!'
23. And now, behold, Jehovah has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets. Yea, Jehovah has spoken evil concerning you!"
24. Then Zedekiah ben-Chenaanah drew near and struck Micaiah on the cheek and said, "How did the Spirit of Jehovah pass from me to speak with you?"
25. And Micaiah said, "Behold, you will see on the day that you go into an innermost chamber to hide yourself."
26. Then the king of Israel said, "Seize Micaiah and return him to Amon the ruler of the city and to Joash the king's son!"
27. And say, 'Thus says the king: You put this man in the prison, and feed him meager rations of bread and water until I come in peace.'
28. And Micaiah said, "If you ever return in peace Jehovah has not spoken by me." Then he said, "Hear, all you people!"
29. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-Gilead.

30. And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and go into the battle, but you put on your robes.” Then, the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle.
 31. Now, the king of Aram had commanded his thirty-two captains of the chariots, saying, “Do not do battle with small or great, but only the king of Israel.”
 32. And it came to pass when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat that they said, “This must be the king of Israel!” Then, they turned aside to battle against him, and Jehoshaphat cried out.
 33. And when the captains of the chariots saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.
 34. Then a man drew his bow indiscriminately and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armor. But then he said to the driver of his chariot, “Turn around and take me out of the camp, though I am wounded.”
 35. And the battle increased on that day. And the king was propped up in the chariot facing the Arameans, and he died in the evening. And the blood from the wound ran out into the midst of the chariot.
 36. And a cry rang out through the camp as the sun was going down, saying, “Each man to his city, and each man to his country!”
 37. So the king died and was taken to Samaria, and they buried the king in Samaria.
 38. And one washed out the chariot at the pool of Samaria where the harlots bathed themselves, and the dogs licked up his blood, according to the word of Jehovah which He spoke.
 39. Now, the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, even the ivory house that he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
 40. So, Ahab slept with his fathers, and his son Ahaziah reigned in his stead.
- ¶41. Now, Jehoshaphat ben-Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab the king of Israel.
42. Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah, daughter of Shilhi.
 43. And he walked in all the ways of Asa his father. He did not turn aside from them, doing what was right in the eyes of Jehovah. Howbeit, they did not remove the high places\|. The people continued sacrificing and burning incense in the high places.
 44. And Jehoshaphat was at peace with the king of Israel.
 45. Now, the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he displayed, and how he fought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
 46. And the remnant of the sacred sodomites that were left in the days of Asa his father, he exterminated from the land.
 47. (Now, there was no king in Edom; a deputy acted as king.)

48. Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold, but they did not go because the ships were broken at Ezion-Geber.
 49. Then Ahaziah ben-Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships", but Jehoshaphat would not.
 50. And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, his father. And Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.
- ¶51. Ahaziah ben-Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel.
52. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam ben-Nebat, who made Israel to sin.
 53. Moreover, he served Baal, and bowed down to him, and he provoked Jehovah the God of Israel to anger, according to all that his father had done.

2Kings

2Kings 1

- ¶1. Now, Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.
2. And Ahaziah had fallen through the lattice of his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and he was ill. And he sent messengers and said to them, “Go, inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, as to whether I will recover from this sickness.”
3. But an angel of Jehovah said to Elijah the Tishbite, “Arise! Go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and say to them, ‘Is it because there is not a God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?’
4. Therefore, thus says Jehovah: You shall not come down from the bed on which you have gone up, but you will surely die.” So, Elijah went.
5. And the messengers returned to him, and he said to them, “What is this? You have come back!”
6. And they said to him, “A man came up to meet us, and he said to us, ‘Go! Return to the king who sent you, and you tell him, thus says Jehovah: Is it because there is not a God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore, you shall not come down from the bed on which you have gone up, but you will surely die.’”
7. Then he said to them, “What sort of man was he who came up to meet you and spoke these words to you?”
8. And they said to him, “The man was very hairy, with a leather belt girt about his waist.” And he said, “It is Elijah the Tishbite.”
9. Then he sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty, and he went up to him. And behold, he was sitting on top of a hill. And he said to him, “Man of God, the king says, ‘Come down!’”
10. And Elijah answered and said to the captain of the fifty, “If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty.” And fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.
11. And again, he sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty, and he answered and said to him, “Man of God, thus says the king: ‘Come down immediately!’”
12. And Elijah answered and said to them, “If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty.” And the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.
13. And again, he sent a captain of a third fifty, with his fifty. And the captain of the third fifty went up, and he came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and begged him, and said to him, “O man of God, I beg you, let my life and the life of your servants, these fifty men, be precious in your eyes!
14. Behold, fire has come down from heaven and consumed the two captains of the first fifties with their fifties, but now, let my life be precious in your eyes!”

15. Then the angel of Jehovah said to Elijah, “Go down with him. Do not fear him.” So, he rose up and went down with him to the king.
16. And he said to him, “Thus says Jehovah: Forasmuch as you sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron—is it because there is not a God in Israel to inquire of His word?—therefore, you shall not come down from the bed on which you have gone up, but you will surely die.”
17. So, he died, according to the word of Jehovah which Elijah spoke, and in his stead, in the second year of Jehoram ben-Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, Jehoram began to reign, since Ahaziah had no son.
18. And the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

2Kings 2

- ¶1. Now, it came to pass when Jehovah was about to take Elijah up to heaven in a storm-wind, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal.
2. And Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here, if you will, because Jehovah has sent me to Bethel.” But Elisha said, “I swear by the life of Jehovah, and by your life, I will not leave you!” And so, they went down to Bethel.
3. And the sons of the prophets who were at Bethel went out to Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that Jehovah is going to take your lord away from your head today?” And he said, “I know it, too. Hush.”
4. And Elijah said to him, “Elisha, stay here, if you will, for Jehovah has sent me to Jericho.” But he said, “I swear by the life of Jehovah, and by your life, I will not leave you!” And so, they went to Jericho.
5. And the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho approached Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that Jehovah is going to take your lord away from your head today?” And he said, “I know it, too. Hush.”
6. Then Elijah said to him, “Stay here, if you will, because Jehovah has sent me to the Jordan.” But he said, “I swear by the life of Jehovah, and by your life, I will not leave you!” And so, the two of them went.
7. And fifty men from the sons of the prophets went, and they stood opposite, at a distance. And the two of them stood by the Jordan.
8. And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it up, and struck the waters, and they parted, this way and that. Then the two of them crossed over on dry ground.
9. And it came to pass when they had crossed over that Elijah said to Elisha, “Ask what I shall do for you before I am taken from you.” And Elisha said, “If you will, let there be a double portion of your spirit on me.”
10. And he said, “You have asked a hard thing. If you see me taken away from you, so shall it be for you, but if not, it will not be.”

11. And it came to pass as they were walking along and talking that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire and horses of fire, and they separated the two of them, and Elijah went up in a whirlwind into the sky.
12. And Elisha saw it, and he cried out, "My father! My father! The chariot of Israel and its horsemen!" And he saw him no more. Then he took hold of his garments and tore them in half.
13. And he picked up Elijah's mantle which had fallen from him, and he returned and stood upon the bank of the Jordan.
14. And he took Elijah's mantle that had fallen from him and struck the waters, and he said, "Where is Jehovah, the God of Elijah, even He?" And he struck the waters, and they parted this way and that, and Elisha crossed over.
15. And when the sons of the prophets saw it who were within sight in Jericho, they said, "The spirit of Elijah rests upon Elisha!" And they went to meet him and bowed before him on the ground.
16. And they said to him, "Behold now, there are with your servants fifty strong men. Let them go, we pray, and look for your master, lest the Spirit of Jehovah has taken him up and thrown him on one of the mountains or into one of the valleys." But he said, "Do not send them."
17. But they pressed him until he was ashamed, and he said, "Send them!" And they sent fifty men, and they searched three days, but did not find him.
18. Then they returned to him while he was staying in Jericho, and he said to them, "Didn't I say to you, 'Do not go?'"
- ¶19. Now, the men of the city said to Elisha, "Behold, we pray you! The city's location is good, as our lord sees, but the water is bad and the land unfruitful."
20. And he said, "Bring me a new jar, and put salt in it." And they brought it to him.
21. And he went out to the spring of water, and threw the salt in, and said, "Thus says Jehovah: I have healed these waters. There shall no longer be death or barrenness from thence!"
22. And the waters were healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke.
- ¶23. Then he went up from there to Bethel. And as he was going up along the road, young boys came out from the city, and they mocked him and said to him, "Go up, baldy! Go up, baldy!"
24. And he turned behind him and saw them, and he cursed them in the name of Jehovah. And two she-bears came out of the woods and ripped to pieces forty-two of the boys.
25. And he went on from there to Mount Carmel, and from there, he returned to Samaria.

2Kings 3

- ¶1. Now, Jehoram ben-Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah. And he reigned twelve years.

2. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, only not like his father or like his mother, for he removed the pillar of Baal which his father had made.
 3. Nevertheless, he clung to the sins of Jeroboam ben-Nebat who made Israel to sin; he would not depart from it.
- ¶4. Now, Mesha the king of Moab was a sheep-dealer, and he rendered to the king of Israel one hundred thousand he-lambs and the wool of one hundred thousand rams.
5. And it came to pass at the death of Ahab that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.
 6. And so, King Jehoram went forth on that day from Samaria, and he mustered all Israel.
 7. When he went, he sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to Moab to the battle?" And he said, "I will go. I am as you are. My people are as your people. My horses are as your horses."
 8. And he said, "Which way shall we go up?" And he said, "By way of the wilderness of Edom."
 9. So, the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. And they took the circuitous route seven days, and there was no water for the army or the animals that were following them.
 10. Then the king of Israel said, "Alas! For Jehovah has summoned these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab!"
 11. But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not a prophet of Jehovah here, that we might inquire of Jehovah by him?" And one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said, "Elisha ben-Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah."
 12. Then Jehoshaphat said, "The word of Jehovah is with him." So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him.
 13. And Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother!" But the king of Israel said to him, "No! For Jehovah has summoned these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab!"
 14. And Elisha said, "As Jehovah of Hosts lives, before whom I stand, were it not that I have regard for Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not acknowledge you or even look at you!"
 15. But now, bring me a minstrel." And it came to pass as the minstrel played, the hand of Jehovah came upon him.
 16. And he said, "Thus says Jehovah: Make this valley full of trenches!
 17. For thus says Jehovah: You will not see wind, and you will not see rain, but that valley shall be filled with water. And you will drink, you and your livestock and your beasts.
 18. But this is an easy thing in the eyes of Jehovah; He will also give Moab into your hand.
 19. And you shall strike every fortified city, and every choice city, and you shall fell every good tree, and stop up all springs of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones."

20. And it came to pass in the morning while they were making an offering, that, behold, water started coming from the way toward Edom, and the country was filled with water.
21. And all Moab heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, and they were summoned, from all who girded on a belt and upwards, and they stood along the border.
22. And when they rose up early in the morning, the sun was shining on the water, and from a distance, Moab saw the water was red like blood.
23. And they said, "This is blood! The kings have surely fought among themselves and each had killed his fellow! So, now to the spoil, Moab!"
24. But when they came to the camp of Israel, Israel arose and struck Moab so that they fled before them. And they came into the land, slaughtering the Moabites.
25. And they overthrew the cities, and every man threw his stone onto every good piece of land and filled it, and stopped up every spring of water, and felled every good tree, until only in Kir-Hareseth were its stones left; however, slingers surrounded and attacked it.
26. And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was strong against him, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to cut through to the king of Edom, but they could not.
27. Then he took his firstborn son, who would have reigned in his stead, and offered him on the wall as a burnt offering. And there was great wrath against Israel, and they withdrew from him and returned to the land.

2Kings 4

- ¶1. And a woman, one of the wives of the sons of the prophets, cried out to Elisha, saying, "Your servant, my husband, has died. Now, you know that your servant was a fearer of Jehovah, but the creditor has come to take my two children as his slaves!"
2. Then Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" And she said, "Your handmaid has nothing at all in the house except a jar of oil."
3. And he said, "Go, ask vessels for yourself from abroad, from all your neighbors, empty vessels. Don't make it few!"
4. And when you enter in, close the door on you and your sons, and then pour the oil into all those vessels and set aside that which is full."
5. So, she went out from him, and she shut the door on her and her sons. They brought the vessels to her, and she poured.
6. And it came to pass when the vessels were full that she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel!" But he said to her, "There isn't another vessel!" And the oil stopped.
7. Then she came and told the man of God, and he said, "Go! Sell the oil and pay your debt, and you and your sons will live off the rest."

- ¶8. Now, the day came to pass that Elisha passed over to Shunem, and a great woman was there, and she urged him to eat food. So it was that whenever he was passing through, he would turn in there to eat food.
9. And she said to her husband, “Behold now, I know that this is a holy man of God who passes by us frequently.
10. I pray you, let us make a little upper room on the wall, and let's put a bed, and a table, and a chair, and a lampstand there for him, and it shall be that when he comes to us, he may turn in there.”
11. Now, the day came to pass that he went there, and he turned aside to the upper room and lay down there.
12. And he said to Gehazi, his servant, “Call for this Shunammite.” And he called for her, and she stood before him.
13. And he said to him, “Now say to her, ‘Behold, you have been concerned for us with all this care. What is to be done for you? Should I speak on your behalf to the king or to the captain of the army?’” But she said, “I remain among my people.”
14. And he said, “So, what is to be done for her?” And Gehazi said, “Truly, she has no son, and her husband is old.”
15. Then he said, “Call for her”, so he called for her, and she stood at the door.
16. And he said, “About this season, according to the time of life, you will embrace a son.” And she said, “No, my Lord, O man of God. Do not lie to your handmaid.”
17. And the woman conceived and bore a son about that season, according to the time of life, as Elisha had told her.
18. And when the child had grown, the day came to pass that he went out to his father, to the reapers.
19. And he said to his father, “My head, my head!” And he said to the servant, “Carry him to his mother.”
20. And when he had carried him and brought him inside to his mother, he sat on her knees until midday, and he died.
21. Then she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and she shut him in and went out.
22. And she called to her husband and said, “If you will, send for me one of the servants and one of the she-asses that I may go quickly to the man of God and then return.
23. And he said, “Why would you go to him today? It's not a new moon, and it's not Sabbath.” And she said, “It will be well.”
24. Then she bridled the ass and said to her servant, “Drive on, and go! Do not slow the pace for me unless I tell you.”

25. So, she went and came to the man of God, to mount Carmel. And it came to pass that when the man of God saw her at a distance, he said to Gehazi, his servant, "Behold, that Shunammite woman!"
26. If you will, go quickly now to meet her and say to her, 'Are you well? Is your husband well? Is your child well?" And she said, "Well."
27. And she came to the man of God, to the mount, and she grabbed hold of his feet. And Gehazi came to thrust her away, but the man of God said, "Let her be, for her soul in her is bitter and Jehovah has hidden it from me and has not told me."
28. And she said, "Did I ask for a son from my lord? Didn't I say, 'Don't deceive me?'"
29. Then he said to Gehazi, "Gird up your loins, and take my staff in your hand, and go! If you meet a man, do not greet him, and if a man greets you, do not answer him. Then lay my staff on the face of the boy."
30. But the mother of the boy said, "As Jehovah lives and as your soul lives, let God damn me if I leave you." So, he rose up and followed her.
31. And Gehazi passed on before them, and he lay the staff on the face of the boy, but there was no voice, and there was no response. So, he came back to meet him and reported to him, saying, "The boy did not wake up."
32. Then, Elisha entered the house, and behold, the boy was dead, laid upon his bed.
33. And he went in and shut the door on the two of them, and he prayed to Jehovah.
34. Then he got up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands. Thus he lay on him, and the body of the child grew warm.
35. And he returned and walked in the house, first here and then there, and then he went up and bent down on him. Then the boy sneezed seven times, and the boy opened his eyes.
36. Then he called to Gehazi and said, "Call for this Shunammite", and he called her, and she came to him, and he said, "Take up your son."
37. And she came in and fell at his feet, and she bowed herself to the ground. Then she took up her son and went out.
- ¶38. And Elisha returned to Gilgal. Now, a famine was in the land, and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him. And he said to his servant, "Set on the big pot and boil pottage for the sons of the prophets."
39. And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and he found a wild vine, and he gathered wild gourds from it, until his lap was full, and he came back and sliced them up into the pot of pottage, but they did not know.
40. And they poured out the pottage for the men to eat, and it came to pass as they were eating of the pottage that they cried out and said, "Death is in the pot, O man of God!" And they could not eat it.

41. But he said, “Then bring flour,” and he threw it into the pot. And he said, “Pour it out for the people.” And they ate, and there was nothing harmful in the pot.
- ¶42. And a man came from Baal-Shalishah, and he brought to the man of God bread of firstfruits, twenty barley loaves, and produce in his sack.¹ And he said, “Give it to the people, that they may eat.”
43. But his servant said, “What? I am to give this to a hundred men?” But he said, “Give it to the people, that they may eat, for thus says Jehovah: They shall eat and leave some.”
44. And so, he set it before them, and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of Jehovah.

2Kings 5

- ¶1. Now, Naaman, captain of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man in the sight of his master. And he was held in honor, because by him, Jehovah had given victory to Aram. This man was a mighty man of valor, but he was stricken with leprosy.
2. And Aram had gone out in bands and brought back from the land of Israel a little girl, and she waited on Naaman’s wife.
3. And she said to her mistress, “Oh, that my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would cure him of his leprosy.”
4. Then he went and made it known to his master, saying, “Thus and thus said the girl who was from the land of Israel.”
5. And the king of Aram said, “Go! Go, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel!” So, he went and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand gold pieces, and ten changes of clothes.
6. And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, “Now, when this letter comes to you, behold, I have sent to you Naaman my servant that you may cure him of his leprosy.”
7. And it came to pass that when the king of Israel had read the letter, he rent his clothes and said, “Am I God to kill or give life that this man has sent to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just consider, if you will, and see that he is seeking a quarrel with me!”
8. And it came to pass when Elisha, the man of God, heard that the king of Israel rent his clothes that he sent to the king, saying, “Why have you rent your clothes? Let him come to me, if you will, and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel.”
9. So, Naaman came with his horse and with his chariot, and he stood at the door of Elisha’s house.
10. And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, “Go and wash seven times in the Jordan, that your flesh may return to you, and be clean!”

11. But Naaman was furious, and he went away and said, “Behold, I thought he would surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of Jehovah his God, and wave his hand over the place, and cure the leprosy!
12. Aren’t Abanah and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Why don’t I wash in them and be clean?” So, he turned and went away in anger.
13. But his servants came near and spoke to him, and they said, “My father, if the prophet had told you a great thing, wouldn’t you have done it? How much more then since he told you, ‘Wash and be clean’?”
14. So he went down, and he dipped in the Jordan seven times, according to the word of the man of God, and his flesh became again like the flesh of a small child, and he was clean.
15. And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and he entered and stood before him, and he said, “Behold, I know that there is no God in any land except in Israel! So take now, I beg you, a blessing from your servant.”
16. But he said, “As Jehovah lives, before whom I stand, may God damn me if I take anything.” And he pressed him to take it, but he refused.
17. And Naaman said, “If not, let there be given to your servant, I pray you, two mules’ burden of earth, for your servant will no longer offer burnt offering or sacrifice to other gods, but only to Jehovah.
18. Only in this matter, Jehovah pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship, he supports himself on my arm, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon. Jehovah forgive your servant in this matter, I pray you, when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon.”
19. And he said to him, “Go in peace.” And when he had gone from him some distance,
20. Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, thought, “Behold, my master has spared Naaman, this Aramean, in not receiving from his hand what he brought. As Jehovah lives, may God damn me if I don’t run after him and take something from him.”
21. So Gehazi pursued after Naaman. And Naaman saw him running after him; so, he got down from the chariot to greet him, and he said, “Is all well?”
22. And he said, “All is well. My master sent me to say, ‘Behold, just now two young men of the sons of the prophets from mount Ephraim have come to me. I beg you, give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothes.’”
23. And Naaman said, “Be content! Take two talents!” And he persuaded him, and he tied up two silver talents in two bags and two changes of clothes, and he gave it to two of his servants, and they carried it before him.
24. And when he came to the hill, he took it from their hand and put it in the house. But he sent the men away, and they left.

25. Then he came in and stood before his master, and Elisha said to him, “Where have you come from, Gehazi?” And he said, “Your servant has not gone anywhere.”
26. And he said to him, “Didn’t my heart go with you when the man turned from his chariot to greet you? Is it a time to get silver, or to get clothes, or olive-yards, or vineyards, or flocks, or cattle, or menservants, or maidservants?”
27. So, the leprosy of Naaman will cling to you and to your seed forever.” And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow.

2Kings 6

- ¶1. And the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, “Behold now, the place where we are living with you is too small for us.
2. Let us go, we pray, to the Jordan, and let each of us take from there a beam and make for ourselves a place to dwell there.” And he said, “Go.”
3. And one said, “Be pleased, I pray, and go with your servants.” And he said, “I will go.”
4. So he went with them, and they came to the Jordan, and they cut down the trees.
5. And it came to pass that one was cutting down a tree, and he fell into the water with the iron, and he cried out and said, “Oh no, my master, for it was borrowed!”
6. And the man of God said, “Where did it fall?” And he showed him the place. Then he cut off a branch and threw it there, and it made the iron float.
7. And he said, “Take it up.” So, he stretched out his hand and took it.
- ¶8. Now, the king of Aram was at war with Israel, and he consulted with his servants, saying, “My camp will be in such and such a place.”
9. And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, “Beware of going by this certain place, for Arameans are come down there.”
10. Then the king of Israel sent to the place that the man of God told him. So, he warned him, and he saved himself there, not once or twice.
11. And the heart of the king of Aram was enraged because of this thing, and he summoned his servants, and he said to them, “Will you not tell me who among us is for the king of Israel?”
12. And one of his servants said, “Not so, my lord the king, but Elisha the prophet who is in Israel is telling the king of Israel the things that you say in your bedchamber.”
13. And he said, “You men go and find out where he is! Then, I will send and capture him.” And it was told him, saying, “Behold, he is in Dothan.”
14. Then, he sent horses and chariots there, and a great army, and they came at night and surrounded the city.

15. And the minister of the man of God woke up early and got up, and he went out, and behold, an army was surrounding the city, with horse and chariot. Then his servant said to him, “Alas, my master! What should we do?”
 16. And he said, “Don’t be afraid, for there are many more with us than with them.”
 17. And Elisha prayed and said, “O Jehovah, I ask you, open his eyes and let him see.” And Jehovah opened the young man’s eyes, and he saw, and behold, the mountain was filled with horses and chariots of fire surrounding Elisha.
 18. And when they had come down to him, Elisha prayed to Jehovah and said, “Strike, I pray, this people with blindness.” And He struck them with blindness according to Elisha’s word.
 19. And Elisha said to them, “This is not the way, and this is not the city. Follow me, and I will lead you to the man whom you are seeking.” Then, he led them to Samaria.
 20. And it came to pass when they had entered Samaria, that Elisha said, “O Jehovah, open the eyes of these men and let them see.” And Jehovah opened their eyes, and they saw, and behold, they were in the midst of Samaria!
 21. And when he saw them, the king of Israel said to Elisha, “Shall I strike them down? I’ll strike them down, my father!”
 22. But he said, “Do not strike them. Would you strike those whom you took captive with your sword and your bow? Set food and water before them, and let them eat and drink and go to their master.
 23. So, he prepared a great feast for them, and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. And Aramean raiding bands did not come again into the land of Israel.
- ¶24. And it came to pass after this, that Ben-Hadad the king of Aram assembled his whole army, and he went up and laid siege against Samaria.
25. And there was a great famine in Samaria, and behold, they besieged it until a head of a donkey was worth eighty pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a kab of dove’s dung was worth five pieces of silver.
 26. And as the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him, saying, “Help, O my Lord the king!”
 27. And he said, “Jehovah has not helped you; how can I help you? From the threshing floor, or from the wine vat?”
 28. Then the king said to her, “What do you want?” And she said, “This woman said to me, ‘Give up your son so we can eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.’”
 29. So we cooked my son, and we ate him. Then, I said to her the next day, ‘Give up your son so we can eat him, ’but she has hidden her son!”

30. And it came to pass that when the king heard the woman's words, he tore his clothes as he was passing by on the wall, and the people looked, and behold, sackcloth was underneath against his skin.
31. And he said, "God do so to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha ben-Shaphat remains on him today!"
32. Now, Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him, when the king sent a man from before him. And before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, "Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent to take off my head? Watch, and when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold him fast at the door. Won't the sound of his master's feet be after him?"
33. While he was still talking with them, behold, the messenger came down to him and said, "Behold, this evil is from Jehovah! Why should I wait for Jehovah any longer?"

2Kings 7

1. Then Elisha said, "Hear the word of Jehovah! Thus says Jehovah: About this time tomorrow, a measure of fine flour shall be a shekel, and two measures of barley shall be a shekel, in the gate of Samaria."
2. Then the officer on whose hand the king was leaning answered the man of God, and he said, "Behold, Jehovah is making windows in heaven! Will this thing be?" And he said, "Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but you will not eat of it."
3. Now, there were four leprous men at the entrance gate, and they said, one to another, "Why are we sitting here until we die?
4. If we say, 'We will go into the city, 'the famine is in the city, and we'll die there. But if we sit here, we will also die. So, let us go now, and go over to the Aramean camp. If they let us live, we'll live, but if they kill us, then we're dead."
5. So, they rose up at twilight to go to the Aramean camp, but when they came to the edge of the Aramean camp, then behold, there was no one there.
6. For the Lord had caused the Aramean camp to hear the sound of chariotry, the sound of horse, and the sound of a great army. And they said, each man to his brother, "Behold, the king of Israel has hired the kings of the Hittites against us! The kings of the Egyptians have also come against us!"
7. So, they arose, and they fled in the twilight and left their tents, and their horses, and their donkeys, and the camp just as it was, and they fled for their lives.
8. And when these lepers came to the edge of the camp and entered a tent, then they ate and drank. And they carried off from there silver, and gold, and garments, and they went and hid it. And they returned and entered another tent, and carried off the same from there, and went and hid it.

9. Then they said, one to another, “We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news, but we are staying silent. And if we wait until the morning light, then punishment will find us. So, come, and let us go now and tell the king’s household.”
10. And they came and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and they told them, saying, “We came to the Aramean camp, and behold, there was no one there, nor the voice of men, but horses tied up, and donkeys tied up, and tents left as they were.”
11. And he called the gatekeepers, and they reported it to the king’s household within.
12. And the king arose by night, and he said to his servants, “I will tell you now what the Arameans have done to us. They know that we are hungry, and they have gone out from the camp to hide in the field, thinking, ‘When they come out of the city, then we will capture them alive, and enter the city.’”
13. But one of his servants answered and said, “Let men take, I pray you, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city. Behold, they are like all the multitude of Israel who are left in it. Behold, they are like all the multitude of Israel who are consumed. So let us send and find out.”
14. And they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent them out to the Aramean camp, saying, “Go and see.”
15. And they followed them as far as the Jordan, and behold, the whole road was full of garments and vessels which the Arameans had thrown away in their haste. And the messengers returned and reported to the king.
16. Then the people went out, and they plundered the Aramean camp. And it came to pass that a measure of fine flour was a shekel, and two measures of barley was a shekel, according to the word of Jehovah.
17. And the king appointed the officer on whose hand he leaned to be over the gate, and the people trampled him in the gate, and he died, just as the man of God had said who spoke when the king came down to him.
18. So, it came to pass, as the man of God had said to the king, saying, “Two measures of barley shall be a shekel and a measure of fine flour shall be a shekel about this time tomorrow in the gate of Samaria.”
19. And the officer answered the man of God and said, “Behold, Jehovah is making windows in heaven! Will this thing be?” And he said, “Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but you will not eat of it.”
20. And so it happened to him, for the people trampled him in the gate, and he died.

2Kings 8

- ¶1. And Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, “Arise, and go, you and your household, and sojourn wherever you can, for Jehovah has called for a famine, and moreover, it will come to the land for seven years.

2. And the woman arose, and did according to the word of the man of God. And she went, with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.
 3. And it came to pass at the end of the seven years that the woman returned from the land of the Philistines. Then, she went to cry out to the king for her house and her land.
 4. And the king spoke to Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, "Tell me, I pray, all the great things that Elisha has done."
 5. And it came to pass as he was telling the king that he had restored the dead to life, that behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life cried out to the king concerning her house and her land. And Gehazi said, "My lord the king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life."
 6. And the king asked the woman, and she told him. And the king appointed to her a certain officer, saying, "Restore all that was hers, and all the produce of the land from the day she left the country until now."
- ¶7. Then Elisha went to Damascus, and Ben-Hadad king of Aram was sick. And it was told him, saying, "The man of God has come here."
8. And the king said to Hazael, "Take a gift in your hand, and go to meet the man of God, and inquire of Jehovah by him, saying, 'Shall I recover from this sickness?'"
 9. And Hazael went to meet him, and he took a gift in his hand, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels loaded, and he came and stood before him. And he said, "Your son, Ben-Hadad, king of Aram, has sent me to you, saying, 'Shall I recover from this sickness?'"
 10. And Elisha said to him, "Go, say to him, 'You shall certainly recover.' Yet, Jehovah has shown me that he will certainly die."
 11. And he fixed his gaze and stared until he was ashamed. Then the man of God wept.
 12. And Hazael said, "Why is my lord weeping?" And he said, "Because I know the evil you will do to the children of Israel. Their strongholds will you set on fire, and their young men will you kill with the sword, and their children will you dash in pieces, and you will rip open their pregnant women."
 13. And Hazael said, "But what is your servant, who is but a dog, that he should do a thing of such magnitude?" And Elisha said, "Jehovah has shown me that you will be king over Aram."
 14. So, he departed from Elisha, and came to his lord. And he said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" And he said, "He said to me, 'You shall certainly recover.'"
 15. And it came to pass on the morrow, that he took a heavy cloth, and he dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, and he died. And Hazael reigned in his stead.
- ¶16. And in the fifth year of Joram ben-Ahab the king of Israel, while Jehoshaphat was king of Judah, Jehoram ben-Jehoshaphat reigned as king of Judah.

17. He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.
 18. And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel just as the house of Ahab did because Ahab's daughter was his wife. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah.
 19. But Jehovah would not destroy Judah for the sake of David his servant, as He had said to him, that He would give him a lamp through his sons forever.
 20. In his days, Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah and set up a king over themselves.
 21. Then Joram passed over to Zair, and all the chariots with him, and it came to pass that he rose by night and struck Edom, who were round about him, and the captains of the chariots, and the people fled to their tents.
 22. Yet, Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day. Then, Libnah revolted at the same time.
 23. And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
 24. And Joram slept with his fathers, and he was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.
- ¶25. In the twelfth year of Joram ben-Ahab the king of Israel, Ahaziah ben-Jehoram the king of Judah began to reign.
26. Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri the king of Israel.
 27. And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, as did the house of Ahab, because he was son-in-law to the house of Ahab.
 28. And he went with Joram ben-Ahab to war against Hazael the king of Aram at Ramoth-Gilead, and the Arameans struck Joram.
 29. And Joram the king returned to recover in Jezreel from his wounds that the Arameans had given him at Ramah, when he fought Hazael the king of Aram. And Ahaziah ben-Jehoram the king of Judah went down to see Joram ben-Ahab in Jezreel because he was sick.

2Kings 9

- ¶1. And Elisha the prophet called to one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, "Gird up your loins, and take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-Gilead.
2. And when you arrive there, look for Jehu ben-Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi. Then, go in, and have him rise up from the midst of his brothers, and bring him into an inner chamber.
3. And take the flask of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, 'Thus says Jehovah: I anoint you as king over Israel.' Then open the door, and flee, and do not linger."
4. So, the young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth-Gilead.

5. And when he came, behold, the captains of the army were sitting, and he said, "I have a message for you, O captain." And Jehu said, "For which one of us?" And he said, "For you, O captain."
6. And he arose and went into the house, and he poured the oil on his head and said to him, "Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel: I anoint you as king over the people of Jehovah, over Israel.
7. And you shall strike down the house of Ahab your lord, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, even the blood of all the servants of Jehovah, at the hand of Jezebel.
8. And the whole house of Ahab will perish, and I will cut off from Ahab him that pisses against the wall, both bond and free, in Israel.
9. And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam ben-Nebat and like the house of Baasha ben-Ahijah.
10. And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and no one will bury her." Then he opened the door and fled.
11. And Jehu came out to the servants of his lord, and one said to him, "Is all well? Why did this mad man come to you?" And he said to them, "You know the sort and his woolgathering."
12. And they said, "That is a lie! Come on, tell us." And he said, "Such and such he told me, saying, 'Thus says Jehovah: I anoint you as king over Israel.'"
13. Then they hurried, and they took each man his garment, and put it under him on the bare steps, and they blew on the shofar, and said, "Jehu is king!"
14. So, Jehu ben-Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. Now Joram had been keeping watch in Ramoth-Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael the king of Aram,
15. but King Jehoram had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds that the Arameans had given him when he fought Hazael the king of Aram. So, Jehu said, "If that is what you want, let no fugitive leave the city to go tell it in Jezreel."
16. And Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram lay there. Now, Ahaziah the king of Judah had come down to see Joram.
17. And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he saw Jehu's company as he came. And he said, "I see a company!" And Jehoram said, "Take a horseman, and send him to meet them, and he is to say, 'Is it peace?'"
18. So, one went on horseback to meet him, and he said, "Thus says the king: Is it peace?" And Jehu said, "What do you have to do with peace? Get round behind me." And the watchman reported it, saying, "The messenger went to them, but he is not returning."

19. Then he sent out a second man riding on horseback. And he came to them, and he said, "Thus says the king: Peace!" And Jehu said, "What do you have to do with peace? Get round behind me."
20. And the watchman reported it, saying, "He came to them, but he is not returning. And the driving is like the driving of Jehu ben-Nimshi, for he drives like a madman."
21. And Jehoram said, "Make ready," and his chariot was made ready. Then Jehoram the king of Israel went out with Ahaziah the king of Judah, each in his chariot. And they went out to meet Jehu. And they met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.
22. And it came to pass, when Jehoram saw Jehu, that he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" And he said, "What peace, as long as the whoredoms of your mother Jezebel and her sorceries are so many?"
23. Then Jehoram turned the reins in his hands, and he fled. And he said to Ahaziah, "Treachery, O Ahaziah!"
24. And Jehu drew his bow with his full strength, and he shot Jehoram between the shoulders, and the arrow came out through his heart, and he slumped down in his chariot.
25. Then he said to Bidkar his aide, "Pick him up! Throw him away in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite, for remember, when you and I were riding together behind Ahab his father, that Jehovah laid this burden on him:
26. 'I will damn myself if the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons which I saw yesterday, says Jehovah, I do not repay you in this portion, says Jehovah.' Therefore, take and throw him now into his portion, according to the word of Jehovah."
27. And when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu pursued after him, and he said, "Strike him down also in the chariot." And they did it at the Ascent of Gur, which is at Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo and died there.
28. And his servants took him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and they buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the city of David.
29. Now, in the eleventh year of Joram ben-Ahab, Ahaziah had begun to reign over Judah.
- ¶30. And Jehu came to Jezreel, and Jezebel heard, and she painted her eyes with antimony, and she adorned her head, and she looked down through the window.
31. And as Jehu entered through the gate, she said, "Does Zimri have peace who slew his lord?"
32. And he lifted up his face to the window, and he said, "Who is with me? Who?" And two or three eunuchs looked down at him.
33. And he said, "Throw her down!" So they threw her down. And some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses. And he trampled her.

34. And he came in, and ate and drank. Then he said, “See now to this cursed woman, and bury her, for she is a king’s daughter.”
35. So, they went to bury her, but found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.
36. So they returned and told him. And he said, “This was the word of Jehovah which He spoke by the hand of His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ‘In the portion of Jezreel shall the dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel,
37. and Jezebel’s corpse shall be as dung on the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel, so that they shall not say, “This is Jezebel.”’”

2Kings 10

- ¶1. Now, Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and he sent them to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, the elders, and Ahab’s attendants, saying,
2. “And now, when this letter comes to you, since your lord’s sons are with you, and chariots and horses are with you, and a fortified city and weaponry,
3. then look for the best and most upright of the sons of your lord, and set him on his father’s throne, and fight for your lord’s house.”
4. But they were very much afraid, and they said, “Behold, two kings could not stand before him. How then shall we stand?”
5. So, those who were over the house, and those over the city, and the elders, and the attendants sent to Jehu, saying, “We are your servants, and all that you say to us we will do. We will not make anyone king. Do what is good in your sight.”
6. Then he wrote a second letter to them, saying, “If you are mine, and you will take heed to my voice, take the heads of the men of your master’s sons and come to me at this time tomorrow at Jezreel.” Now, the sons of the king, seventy men, were with the great men of the city who raised them.
7. And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king’s sons, and killed the seventy men. Then, they put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.
8. And the messenger came and reported to him, saying, “They have brought the heads of the king’s sons.” And he said, “Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning.”
9. Then it came to pass in the morning that he went out and stood, and he said to all the people, “You are just. Behold, I conspired against my lord and slew him, but who killed all these?

10. Know, then, that nothing of the word of Jehovah which Jehovah spoke concerning the house of Ahab will fall to the ground. For Jehovah has done what He spoke by the hand of his servant Elijah."
11. Jehu also killed all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his acquaintances, and his priests until no remnant of his survived.
12. Then he arose, and he went and came to Samaria. On the way, he came to Beth-Eked of the Shepherds,²
13. and Jehu came across the brothers of Ahaziah the king of Judah, and he said, "Who are you?" And they said, "We are the brothers of Ahaziah, and we are going down to greet the king's sons and the sons of the queen."
14. And he said, "Take them alive." And they took them alive and slaughtered them at the pit of Beth-Eked, forty-two men. And not one man of them remained.
15. And he left there and found Jehonadab ben-Rechab coming to meet him. And he blessed him and said to him, "Is your heart true, as my heart is with your heart?" And Jehonadab said, "It is." "That being so, give me your hand." And he gave him his hand, and then, he took him up into the chariot.
16. And he said, "Come with me, and see my zeal for Jehovah." And they made him ride in his chariot.
17. And he came to Samaria, and he killed all who remained of Ahab in Samaria until he exterminated him, according to the word of Jehovah which He spoke to Elijah.
- ¶18. Then, Jehu gathered all the people, and he said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little. Jehu will serve him much."
19. So, summon to me now all the prophets of Baal, and all his servants, and all his priests! Let none be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal. Any who are missing will not live." But Jehu did this craftily so that he might destroy the servants of Baal.
20. And Jehu said, "Proclaim a holy assembly for Baal!" And they proclaimed it.
21. And Jehu sent throughout all Israel, and all the servants of Baal came. Yea, there was not a man remaining who did not come. And they came to the church of Baal, and the church of Baal was filled from one end to the other.
22. And he said to the one who was over the vestry, "Bring out the vestments for all the servants of Baal!" So, he brought the vestments out for them.
23. Then Jehu and Jehonadab ben-Rechab entered the church of Baal, and he said to the servants of Baal, "Look around and see, lest there be servants of Jehovah here with you, but the servants of Baal only!"

² Or, "the binding-house of the shepherds."

24. Then, they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now, Jehu had placed eighty of his men outside, and he said, "The man who lets any of the men escape whom I brought into your hands, his life will be forfeited for his life."
 25. And it came to pass that when he had completed offering the burnt offering, Jehu said to the guards and to the captains, "Go in! Kill them! Let none come out." And they struck them down with the edge of the sword. And the guards and the captains cast them out. Then they went into the citadel of the church of Baal.
 26. And they brought the pillars out of the church of Baal and burned that up.
 27. And they pulled down the image of Baal, and tore down the church of Baal and made it a latrine to this day.
 28. So, Jehu wiped Baal out of Israel.
 29. Nevertheless, Jehu did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam ben-Nebat who made Israel to sin, from following after the golden calves which were in Bethel and in Dan.
 30. And Jehovah said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in doing what is right in my sight, for according to all that was in my heart have you done to the house of Ahab, sons of your fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel."
 31. But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of Jehovah, the God of Israel, with all of his heart. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam who made Israel to sin.
- ¶32. In those days, Jehovah began to cut off Israel, and Hazael struck them throughout the territory of Israel:
33. from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the Arnon River, even Gilead and Bashan.
 34. And the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
 35. And Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead.
 36. And the days that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria were twenty-eight years.

2Kings 11

- ¶1. Now, when Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son was dead, she arose and killed all the royal seed.
2. But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, the sister of Ahaziah, took Joash ben-Ahaziah, and stole him away from the midst of the king's sons who were being slain, him and his nurse, to the private bedroom. And they hid him from Athaliah so that he was not killed.
 3. And he was hidden with her in the church of Jehovah six years, and Athaliah reigned over the land.
- ¶4. Then, in the seventh year, Jehoiada sent and brought the captains of hundreds, and the Carites, and the guards, and he brought them to himself in the church of Jehovah, and he made a covenant with them, and made them swear an oath in the church of Jehovah, and then he showed them the king's son.

5. And he commanded them, saying, "This is the thing that you shall do. The third part of you who come in on the Sabbath shall be keepers of the watch of the king's house.
6. And the third part shall be at the Sur gate, and the third part shall be at the gate behind the guards. And you shall keep watch to protect the house.
7. And two parts of you, all who go out on the Sabbath, they shall also keep watch over the church of Jehovah for the king.
8. And you shall completely surround the king, each man with his weapons in his hand, and whoever comes against the ranks shall be killed. And you shall be with the king when he goes out and when he comes in."
9. And the captains of the hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded, and they each brought his men who were to come in on the Sabbath with those who were to go out on the Sabbath, and they came to Jehoiada the priest.
10. And the priest gave the spears and the shields that had been King David's, which were in the church of Jehovah, to the captains of the hundreds.
11. And the guards stood, each man with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, surrounding the altar and the house on behalf of the king.
12. Then he brought forth the king's son, and he placed the crown on him and gave him the testimony. And they made him king and anointed him, and clapped their hands and said, "May the king live!"
13. And Athaliah heard the sound of the guards and the people, and she came to the people at the church of Jehovah.
14. And she looked, and behold, the king was standing at the pillar according to the custom, and the captains and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing on the trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes, and she cried out, "Treason! Treason!"
15. Then Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds who had been appointed over the army, and he said to them, "Take her out in the midst of the ranks, and whoever follows after her shall be killed with the sword." For the priest had said, "Do not kill her at the church of Jehovah."
16. So they laid hands on her, and she went by the way of the horses' entrance to the king's house, and there she was killed.
17. And Jehoiada made a covenant between Jehovah and the king and the people, that they should be Jehovah's people, and between the king and the people.

18. And all the people of the land went to the church of Baal, and they tore it down. And they smashed its altars and its images to pieces, and they killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed overseers for the church of Jehovah.
19. And he took the captains of hundreds, and the Carites, and the guards, and all the people of the land, and they brought the king down from the church of Jehovah. And they came by way of the gate of the guards of the king's house, and he sat on the throne of the kings.
20. And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was at peace, for they had killed Athaliah with the sword by the king's house.
21. Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign.

2Kings 12

- ¶1. In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash began to reign. He reigned forty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.
2. And Jehoash did what was right in the sight of Jehovah all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him.
3. Only, they did not remove the high places. The people continued sacrificing and burning incense in the high places.
4. And Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money for the holy things which is brought into the church of Jehovah, the money from each man who is numbered, the money assessed to every soul, and any money that comes to a man's heart to bring to the church of Jehovah,
5. let the priests take it for themselves, each man from his assessor, and they shall repair the damage in the house, all the damage that is found there."
- ¶6. But it came to pass that in the twenty-third year of King Jehoash that the priests had not repaired the damage in the house.
7. Then King Jehoash summoned Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and he said to them, "Why have you not repaired the damage in the house? Now then, you shall take no money from your assessor except to use it for damage in the house."
8. And the priests agreed to take no more money from the people without repairing the damage in the house.
9. Then Jehoiada the priest took a chest and bored a hole in its lid, and he put it beside the altar, at the right side as one entered the church of Jehovah. And the priests who were doorkeepers put in it all the money that was brought to the church of Jehovah.
10. And it came to pass that when they saw that there was much money in the chest that the king's scribe and the high priest came, and they put it in bags, and they counted the money that was found in the church of Jehovah.
11. And they gave the money that had been weighed into the hand of the overseers of those who did the work on the church of Jehovah. And they brought it out for the carpenters, for the builders who worked on the church of Jehovah,

12. for the masons, and for the stonecutters, and to buy timber and hewn stones to repair the damage of the church of Jehovah, and for any outlay for the house to be repaired.
 13. Only, there were not made for the church of Jehovah silver cups, snuffers, basins, trumpets, any gold accoutrement or silver accoutrement, with the money that was brought into the church of Jehovah,
 14. but they gave it to those doing the work, and they repaired the church of Jehovah with it.
 15. And they required no reckoning from the men into whose hand they gave the money to pay those who did the work, for they dealt faithfully.
 16. The money of guilt offerings and the money of sin offerings was not brought into the church of Jehovah; it belonged to the priests.
- ¶17. At that time, Hazael the king of Aram came up and fought against Gath, and he took it. Then, Hazael set his face to go up against Jerusalem.
18. And Jehoash the king of Judah took all the dedicated things that Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his dedicated things, and all the gold that was found in the treasuries of the church of Jehovah and the king's house, and he sent it to Hazael the king of Aram, and he went away from Jerusalem.
 19. And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
 20. And his servants arose, and they formed a conspiracy and killed Joash in the house of Millo, which goes down to Silla.
 21. For Jozabad ben-Shimeath and Jehozabad ben-Shomer, his servants, killed him, and so, he died. And they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

2Kings 13

- ¶1. In the twenty-third year of Joash ben-Ahaziah the king of Judah, Jehoahaz ben-Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria seventeen years.
2. And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, and he followed after the sins of Jeroboam ben-Nebat who made Israel to sin; he did not depart from it.
3. And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Israel, and He delivered them into the hand of Hazael the king of Aram, and into the hand of Ben-Hadad ben-Hazael, continually.
4. And Jehoahaz sought the face of Jehovah, and Jehovah hearkened to him, for He saw the oppression of Israel, that the king of Aram oppressed them.
5. And Jehovah gave Israel a savior, and they came out from under the hand of Aram, and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents as before.

6. Nevertheless, they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam who made Israel to sin. They walked in it, and the Asherah³ also remained standing in Samaria.
 7. Yet, He left of the people but fifty horsemen for Jehoahaz, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen, for the king of Aram had destroyed them and made them like the dust from threshing.
 8. And the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
 9. And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. And Joash his son reigned in his stead.
- ¶10. In the thirty-seventh year of Joash the king of Judah, Jehoash ben-Jehoahaz began to reign over Israel in Samaria sixteen years.
11. And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah. He did not turn from all the sins of Jeroboam ben-Nebat who made Israel to sin; he walked in it.
 12. And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah the king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
 13. And Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat on his throne. And Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.
- ¶14. Now Elisha was sick with his sickness by which he died. And Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and he wept on his face, and he said, “My father, my father! The chariot of Israel and its horsemen!”
15. And Elisha said to him, “Take a bow and arrows.” So, he took a bow and arrows.
 16. Then he said to the king of Israel, “Put your hand on the bow.” So, he put his hand on it. And Elisha put his hands on the king’s hands.
 17. And he said, “Open the eastward window,” and he opened it. Then Elisha said, “Shoot!” and he shot. And he said, “The arrow of Jehovah’s deliverance, even the arrow of deliverance from Aram! For you shall strike Aram in Aphek until you make an end of them.”
 18. Then he said, “Take the arrows,” and he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, “Strike the ground!” And he struck three times and stopped.
 19. And the man of God was angry with him, and he said, “You should have struck five or six times. Then you would have struck Aram until you consumed them, but now, you shall strike Aram three times.”
- ¶20. And Elisha died, and they buried him. Now bands from Moab came into the land at the beginning of each year.

³ A sacred tree or pole in honor of Asherah, a Canaanite goddess.

21. And it came to pass, as they were burying a man that behold, they saw a band, and they threw the man into Elisha's sepulchre. And it came to pass when the man touched Elisha's bones that he came to life and stood on his feet.
- ¶22. And Hazael the king of Aram oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.
23. But Jehovah was gracious to them, and He had compassion on them, and turned to them because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and He would not as yet destroy them or cast them away from His presence.
24. And Hazael the king of Aram died, and Ben-Hadad his son reigned in his stead.
25. And Jehoash ben-Jehoahaz returned and took from the hand of Ben-Hadad ben-Hazael the cities which he had taken from the hand of Jehoahaz his father in battle. Three times did Joash strike him, and he recovered the cities of Israel.

2Kings 14

- ¶1. In the second year of Joash ben-Jehoahaz the king of Israel, Amaziah ben-Joash began to reign as king of Judah.
2. He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.
3. And he did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah, but not like David his father. He did according to all that Joash his father had done.
4. Only, they did not remove the high places. The people continued sacrificing and burning incense in the high places.
5. And it came to pass that when the kingdom was strengthened in his hand that he killed his servants who had killed his father the king.
6. But the children of those who killed him, he did not kill, according to what is written in the book of the law of Moses that Jehovah commanded, saying, "Fathers shall not be put to death on account of children, and children shall not be put to death on account of fathers, but each will die for his own sin."⁴
7. He killed ten thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt, and he seized Selah in battle, and called it Joktheel until this day.
- ¶8. Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash ben-Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, the king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us look one another in the face."
9. But Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah the king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that is in Lebanon sent to the cedar that is in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son for a wife.' But a beast of the field that was in Lebanon came along and trampled down the thistle.

⁴ Deuteronomy 24:16.

10. You have indeed struck Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Glory in that and stay at home! For why should you stir up trouble, and you fall, you and Judah with you?"
 11. But Amaziah would not listen. And Jehoash the king of Israel went up, and he and Amaziah the king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh which belongs to Judah.
 12. And Judah was routed before Israel, and they fled, each man to his tent.
 13. And Jehoash the king of Israel captured Amaziah ben-Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, the king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and he broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits.
 14. And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the church of Jehovah and in the treasuries of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.
 15. And the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and that he fought with Amaziah the king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
 16. And Jehoash slept with his fathers, and he was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel, and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.
- ¶17. And Amaziah ben-Joash the king of Judah lived fifteen years after the death of Jehoash ben-Jehoahaz the king of Israel.
18. And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
 19. And men made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem. So, he fled to Lachish, but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.
 20. And they carried him on horses, and he was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.
 21. And all the people of Judah took Azariah who was sixteen years old, and made him king in his father Amaziah's stead.
 22. He rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah after the king slept with his fathers.
- ¶23. In the fifteenth year of Amaziah ben-Joash the king of Judah, Jeroboam ben-Joash the king of Israel began to reign in Samaria for forty-one years.
24. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah. He did not turn from all the sins of Jeroboam ben-Nebat who made Israel to sin.
 25. He restored the territory of Israel from the Entrance of Hamath to the Sea of the Plain, according to the word of Jehovah the God of Israel, which He spoke by the hand of his servant Jonah ben-Amittai the prophet who was from Gath-Hepher.
 26. For Jehovah saw that the affliction of Israel was very bitter, whether bond or free, and there was no helper for Israel.
 27. But Jehovah had not said to blot out the name of Israel from under heaven, but He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam ben-Joash.

28. And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might with which he warred, and by which he, with Israel, recovered Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
29. And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, with the kings of Israel, and Zechariah his son reigned in his stead.

2Kings 15

- ¶1. In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam the king of Israel, Azariah⁵ ben-Amaziah the king of Judah began to reign,
2. He was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.
 3. And he did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah according to all that Amaziah his father had done.
 4. Only, they did not remove the high places. The people continued sacrificing and burning incense in the high places.
 5. And Jehovah struck the king, and he was leprous until the day of his death. So, he dwelt in a separate house. And Jotham, the king's son, was over the house, judging the people of the land.
 6. And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
 7. And Azariah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.
- ¶8. In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah the king of Judah, Zechariah ben-Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria for six months.
9. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, just as his fathers had done. He did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam ben-Nebat who made Israel to sin.
 10. And Shallum ben-Jabesh conspired against him, and he struck him in public and killed him, and he reigned in his stead.
 11. And the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
 12. This was the word of Jehovah which He spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your sons to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel." And so it was.
- ¶13. Shallum ben-Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah the king of Judah, and he reigned one month in Samaria.
14. Then Menachem ben-Gadi went up from Tirzah and came to Samaria, and he struck Shallum ben-Jabesh in Samaria and killed him, and he reigned in his stead.

⁵ Also called Uzziah. See verse 13.

15. And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy that he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
16. And from Tirzah, Menachem struck Tiphsah and all who were in it and its territory because it did not open to him. So, he attacked it, and he ripped open all its pregnant women.
- ¶17. In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah the king of Judah, Menachem ben-Gadi began to reign over Israel in Samaria for ten years.
18. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah; he did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam ben-Nebat who made Israel to sin, all his days.
19. Pul the king of Assyria came against the land, and Menachem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver so that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand.
20. And Menachem exacted the silver from Israel, from all the mighty men of valor, to give to the king of Assyria, fifty shekels of silver from each man. So, the king of Assyria returned and did not stay in the land.
21. And the rest of the acts of Menachem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
22. And Menachem slept with his fathers, and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.
- ¶23. In the fiftieth year of Azariah the king of Judah, Pekahiah ben-Menachem began to reign over Israel in Samaria for two years.
24. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah; he did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam ben-Nebat who made Israel to sin.
25. But Pekah ben-Remaliah, his captain, conspired against him, with Argob, and Arieh, and fifty men of the sons of Gilead with him, and he struck him in Samaria, in the citadel of the king's house. And he killed him and reigned in his stead.
26. And the rest of the acts Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
- ¶27. In the fifty-second year of Azariah the king of Judah, Pekah ben-Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria for twenty years.
28. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah; he did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam ben-Nebat who made Israel to sin.
29. In the days of Pekah the king of Israel came Tiglath-Pileser the king of Assyria, and he took Ijon, and Abel-Beth-Maacah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and he took them captive to Assyria.
30. Then Hoshea ben-Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah ben-Remaliah, and he struck him and killed him, and he reigned in his stead in the twentieth year of Jotham ben-Uzziah.
31. And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

- ¶32. In the second year of Pekah ben-Remaliah the king of Israel, Jotham ben-Uzziah the king of Judah began to reign.
33. He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok.
34. And he did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah. According to all that Uzziah his father had done, he did.
35. Nevertheless, they did not remove the high places. The people continued sacrificing and burning incense in the high places. He built the upper gate of the church of Jehovah.
36. And the rest of the acts of Jotham that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
37. In those days, Jehovah began to send Rezin the king of Aram and Pekah ben-Remaliah against Judah.
38. And Jotham slept with his fathers, and he was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father. And Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

2Kings 16

- ¶1. In the seventeenth year of Pekah ben-Remaliah, Ahaz ben-Jotham the king of Judah began to reign.
2. Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and he did not do what was right in the eyes of Jehovah his God, as David his father had done.
3. Instead, he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and even caused his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominable practices of the nations whom Jehovah dispossessed before the children of Israel.
4. And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places and on the hills, and beneath every green tree.
5. Then, Rezin the king of Aram and Pekah ben-Remaliah the king of Israel came up to Jerusalem for battle and besieged Ahaz, but they were not able to conquer it.
- ¶6. At that time, Rezin the king of Aram regained Elath for Aram, and he drove out the Jews from Elath. And the Arameans came to Elath and dwell there to this day.
- ¶7. And Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-Pileser the king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up and deliver me from the hand of the king of Aram and from the hand of the king of Israel, who have risen up against me."
8. And Ahaz took the silver and the gold that was found in the church of Jehovah and in the treasuries of the king's house, and he sent it as a gift to the king of Assyria.
9. And the king of Assyria listened to him, and the king of Assyria came up to Damascus, and he took it and carried it captive to Kir, and he killed Rezin.
10. When King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser the king of Assyria, he saw the altar that was in Damascus. And King Ahaz sent to Uriah the priest the pattern of the altar and its design, with all the workmanship of it.

11. And Uriah the priest built the altar; in accordance with all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so Uriah the priest did before King Ahaz arrived from Damascus.
12. And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar, and the king drew near the altar and offered on it.
13. Yea, he offered his own burnt offering and his own meal offering, and he poured out his own libation. Then the blood of the peace offerings which were his, he tossed against the altar.
14. And he removed the bronze altar that was before Jehovah from in front of the church, from between the new altar and the church of Jehovah, and put it on the north side of the new altar.
15. Then King Ahaz commanded Uriah the priest, saying, “Offer upon the great altar the morning burnt offering and the evening grain offering, and the king’s burnt offering and his grain offering, and the burnt offering of all the people of the land and their grain offering and their drink offerings. And upon it toss all the blood of burnt offering and all the blood of sacrifice. But the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by.”
16. And Uriah the priest did according to all that King Ahaz commanded.
17. Then, King Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases, and he removed the laver from them. And he took the sea down off the bronze oxen that were under it and put it on a pavement of stones.
18. And the screened way for the Sabbath which men had built in the church, and the king’s outer entrance, he removed from the church of Jehovah because of the king of Assyria.
19. Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
20. And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and he was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

2Kings 17

- ¶1. In the twelfth year of Ahaz the king of Judah, Hoshea ben-Elah began to reign in Samaria over Israel for nine years.
2. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, but not like the kings of Israel who were before him.
- ¶3. Shalmaneser the king of Assyria came up against him, and Hoshea became his servant, and paid him tribute.
4. Then the king of Assyria found treachery in Hoshea, who had sent messengers to So the king of Egypt and did not offer tribute to the king of Assyria as he had year by year. And the king of Assyria shut him up and imprisoned him in the prison house.
5. Then the King of Assyria came up into all the land, and he went up to Samaria and besieged it for three years.

6. In the ninth year of Hoshea, the King of Assyria took Samaria and carried Israel away into exile in Assyria, and he resettled them in Halah, and by Habor, a river of Gozan, and in cities of the Medes.
- ¶7. Now, this took place because the children of Israel sinned against Jehovah their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt, out from under the hand of Pharaoh the king of Egypt. But they feared other gods
8. and lived according to the statutes of the nations whom Jehovah dispossessed before the children of Israel and of the kings of Israel, which they made.
9. And the children of Israel secretly did things that were not right against Jehovah their God, and they built high places for themselves in all their cities, from the tower of watchmen to the fortified city.
10. And they set up for themselves pillars and Asherah poles on every high hill, and beneath every green tree.
11. And there, they burned incense in all the high places, like the nations which Jehovah removed before them. And they did wicked things to provoke Jehovah to anger,
12. for they served idols, of which Jehovah had said to them, “You shall not do this thing.”
13. Yet, Jehovah had testified through every prophet and every seer in Israel and in Judah, saying, “Turn from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to the whole law that I commanded your fathers and that I sent to you by the hand of my servants the prophets!”
14. But they would not listen, and they stiffened their necks like the necks of their fathers who did not trust in Jehovah their God.
15. They rejected His statutes, and His covenant that He made with their fathers, and His testimonies that He testified against them, and they went after vanity and became vain themselves, and followed after the nations that were around them, concerning whom Jehovah had commanded not to do like them.
16. They forsook all the commandments of Jehovah their God, and they made for themselves two molten calves and erected an Asherah and worshipped all the host of heaven and served Baal.
17. And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire. And they practiced divination, and observed signs, and sold themselves to do evil in the eyes of Jehovah to provoke Him to anger.
18. Therefore, Jehovah was very angry with Israel and removed them from His sight, and none were left, but the tribe of Judah only.
19. Neither did Judah keep the commandments of Jehovah their God, but walked in the statutes that Israel had made.
20. And Jehovah rejected all the seed of Israel, and He afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of plunderers, until He cast them away from His presence.

21. When He tore Israel from the house of David and they made Jeroboam ben-Nebat king, then Jeroboam drove Israel from following Jehovah, and he caused them to sin a great sin.
22. And the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he committed; they did not depart from them
23. until Jehovah removed Israel from His sight, just as He had said by the hand of all His servants the prophets. So, Israel was taken captive from their land to Assyria to this day.
24. And the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath and Sepharvaim, and he resettled them in the cities of Samaria in place of the children of Israel, and they took possession of Samaria and lived in its cities.
25. And it came to pass when they first settled there, that they did not fear Jehovah. Therefore, Jehovah sent lions among them that were killing some of them.
26. Then some spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, "The nations that you removed and resettled in the cities of Samaria do not know the way of the god of the land. So, he has sent lions among them, and behold, they are killing them because they are not observing the way of the god of the land."
27. Then the king of Assyria gave a commandment, saying, "Take back one of the priests that you carried away from there, and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the way of the god of the land."
28. So, one of the priests whom they had led into exile from Samaria came and lived in Bethel, and he taught them how they should fear Jehovah.
29. But every nation continued making its own gods, and they set them in the houses of the high places that the Samaritans made, every nation in their cities where they dwelled.
30. The men of Babylon made Succoth-Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima,
31. and the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adrammelek and Anammelek, the gods of the Sepharvites,
32. they also feared Jehovah, and made for themselves from the lowest of them priests of the high places, and they ministered for them in the houses of the high places.
33. They feared Jehovah and served their own gods according to the way of the nations from which they had removed them.
34. Unto this day, they do according to the former ways. They do not fear Jehovah, and they do not do according to their statutes or their custom, or according to the law or the commandment that Jehovah commanded the children of Jacob, whom He named Israel.
35. For Jehovah had made a covenant with them, and commanded them, saying, "You shall not fear other gods, neither shall you bow down to them, nor shall you serve them, nor shall you sacrifice to them.

36. But Jehovah who brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched out arm, Him shall you fear, and Him shall you worship, and to Him shall you make sacrifice.
37. And the statutes, and the judgments, and the law, and the commandment that He wrote for you, you shall take care to do always. And you shall not fear other gods.
38. And the covenant that I have made with you, you shall not forget, nor shall you fear other gods.
39. But Jehovah your God shall you fear. And He will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies.”
40. Yet, they did not take heed, but they did according to their former ways.
41. So, it came to pass that these nations feared Jehovah and kept serving their idols. Their children also, and their children’s children, did as their fathers. They are doing so until this day.

2Kings 18

- ¶1. And it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea ben-Elah, king of Israel, that Hezekiah ben-Ahaz, king of Judah, began to reign.
2. He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Abi, daughter of Zechariah.
3. And he did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that David his father had done.
4. He removed the high places, and broke the pillars to pieces, and cut down the Asherah, and he crushed to powder the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for unto those days, the children of Israel had been burning incense to it, and he called it Nehushtan.⁶
5. He trusted in Jehovah, God of Israel, and after him, there was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among those who were before him,
6. for he clung to Jehovah. He did not turn aside from following Him, but kept the commandments which Jehovah commanded Moses,
7. and Jehovah was with him. Wherever he went, He made him to prosper. And he rebelled against the king of Assyria and would not serve him.
8. He smote the Philistines as far as Gaza and its territory, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city.
- ¶9. And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea ben-Elah, king of Israel, that Shalmaneser, king of Assyria, came up against Samaria and besieged it.
10. And at the end of three years, they took it. In the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea, king of Israel, Samaria was taken.

⁶ Hebrew, “Bronze (-god)”.

11. So, the king of Assyria carried away Israel to Assyria and brought them to Halah, and to Habor, the river of Gozan, and cities of the Medes,
12. for they did not obey the voice of Jehovah their God, but transgressed His covenant, all that Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded. They would neither listen nor do them.
- ¶13. And in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and seized them.
14. And Hezekiah, king of Judah, sent word to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, “I have sinned. Withdraw from me; whatever you put upon me I will bear.” Then the king of Assyria imposed upon Hezekiah, king of Judah, three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.
15. Therefore, Hezekiah gave over all the silver found in the church of Jehovah and in the treasures of the king’s house.
16. At that time, Hezekiah cut off the doors of the temple of Jehovah and the doorposts which Hezekiah, king of Judah, had overlaid, and he gave them over to the king of Assyria.
17. And the king of Assyria sent Tartan, and Rab-Saris, and Rab-Shakeh from Lachish with a massive army to king Hezekiah at Jerusalem, that they should go up and come to Jerusalem. And they went up and came, and they stood by the conduit of the upper pool which is on Washer’s Field Road.
18. And they called out to the king. And Eliakim ben-Hilkiah, who was over the house, came out to them, with Shebna the scribe, and Joah ben-Asaph, the recorder.
19. Then Rab-Shakeh said to them, “Speak to Hezekiah, if you will! Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, ‘What is this hope in which you trust?’
20. You say, ‘It is only empty speech! I have counsel and might for battle!’ On whom do you trust now, that you have rebelled against me?
21. Now behold! You rely upon the staff of this broken reed, upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to all who are trusting in him.
22. But when you say to me, ‘We trust in Jehovah our God!’ Is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah took away, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, ‘Before this altar shall you worship in Jerusalem’?
23. So now, if you will, make a pledge with my lord, the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to put riders on them.
24. So, how can you repulse the face of one captain of the least of my lord’s servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen?
25. Have I now come up without Jehovah against this place to destroy it? Jehovah said to me, ‘Go up against this land and destroy it!’”

26. Then Eliakim ben-Hilkiah and Shebna, and Joah said to Rab-Shakeh, “Speak to your servants, I pray, in Aramaic because we understand it, and do not speak with us in Judean within the hearing of the people that are on the wall.”
27. But Rab-Shakeh said to them, “Has my lord sent me to your lord and to you to speak these words? Is it not to the men sitting on the wall to eat their own dung and drink their own urine, with you?”
28. Then Rab-Shakeh stood, and cried out with a loud voice in Judean, and spoke and said, “Hear the word of the great king, king of Assyria!
29. Thus says the king, ‘Do not let Hezekiah you because he is not able to deliver you out of his hand.
30. And do not let Hezekiah make you trust in Jehovah, saying, “Jehovah will certainly deliver us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.”
31. Do not give heed to Hezekiah, for thus says the king of Assyria, “Make a treaty of peace with me, and come out to me. Then every man will eat from his vine, and each from his fig tree, and each will drink water from his well
32. until I come and take you away to a land like your own land. A land of grain and new wine, a land of food and vineyards, a land of olive oil and honey, so you may live and not die.” Therefore, do not give heed to Hezekiah when he tries to persuade you, saying, “Jehovah will deliver us.”
33. Have any of the gods of the nations ever delivered their land from the hand of the king of Assyria?
34. Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?
35. Which among all the gods of the lands have delivered their land out of my hand, that Jehovah will deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?””
36. But the people kept silent and did not answer him a word because the king’s order said, “Do not answer him!”
37. Then Eliakim ben-Hilkiah, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah ben-Asaph the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their garments torn and reported to him the words of Rab-Shakeh.

2Kings 19

- ¶1. And it came to pass when King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his garments and covered himself with sackcloth, and he went into the church of Jehovah.
2. Then he sent Eliakim, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, who also covered themselves with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, son of Amoz,

3. that they might say to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: This day is a day of distress, and reproof, and blasphemy; children have come to the point of birth, but there is no strength to deliver.
4. Perhaps Jehovah your God will hear all the words of Rab-Shakeh, whom his lord, the king of Assyria, sent to reproach the living God, and will rebuke the words that Jehovah your God has heard. Therefore, lift up a prayer for the remnant that is left."
5. And so, the servants of King Hezekiah went to Isaiah.
6. Then Isaiah said to them, "Thus say to your master, thus says Jehovah: 'Do not be afraid of the words that you heard, with which those boys from the king of Assyria blasphemed me.'
7. Behold! I am sending a spirit against him, and he will hear a report and will return to his land, and I will make him fall by the sword in his own land."
8. Then Rab-Shakeh returned, and he found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that he had pulled out from Lachish.
9. And when he heard a report concerning Tirhakah, king of Cush, saying, "Behold, he has come forth to do battle with you," then he again sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,
10. "Thus shall you speak to Hezekiah, king of Judah: Do not let your God, in whom you trust, deceive you, saying, 'Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'
11. Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the lands by completely destroying them; yet, you will be delivered?
12. Did the gods of the nations whom my fathers destroyed deliver them: Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the sons of Eden who were in Telassar?
13. Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivvah?"
14. And Hezekiah took the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it, and he went up to the church of Jehovah. And Hezekiah spread it out before Jehovah.
15. And Hezekiah prayed before Jehovah and said, "O Jehovah, God of Israel, who dwells between the cherubim. You alone are God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth.
16. O Jehovah, incline your ear, and hear! O Jehovah, open your eyes, and see! Oh, hear the words of Sennacherib which he sent to defy the living God!
17. O Jehovah, the kings of Assyria have indeed made desolate the nations and their land,
18. and they have cast their gods into the fire, for they were not gods but the work of man's hands, wood and stone, therefore, they could destroy them.
19. But, O Jehovah our God, deliver us now, I pray, from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone, O Jehovah, are God."
20. Then Isaiah ben-Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says Jehovah, God of Israel: That which you have prayed to me against Sennacherib, king of Assyria, I have heard.

21. This is the word that Jehovah has spoken concerning him: ‘The virgin daughter of Zion despises you and mocks you. The daughter of Jerusalem wags her head at you.
 22. Whom have you reproached and blasphemed? And against whom have you raised your voice? Yea, you have lifted your eyes haughtily against the Holy One of Israel!
 23. By the hand of your messengers, you have reproached the Lord, and you have said, “By chariotry, my chariotry, I have ascended to the height of the mountains, the slopes of Lebanon, and its tall cedars have I cut down, its choicest cypresses. Yea, I entered into its remotest lodging place, its garden-like forest.
 24. I dug wells and drank foreign waters, and I have dried up with the sole of my feet all the streams of Egypt.”
 25. Did you not hear that long ago I determined it? From days of old, I planned it. Now, have I brought it to pass that you should make fortified cities desolate, heaps of ruins.
 26. Moreover, their inhabitants are feeble-handed. They were dismayed and disconcerted. They were as herbage of the field and as green grass, as grass on the rooftops, and blasted grain before it matures.
 27. But I know your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your rage at me.
 28. Because your rage at me and your arrogance have come up into my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came.’
 29. And this will be the sign to you: this year, you will eat what grows of itself, and in the second year, what springs up from that, and in the third year, you will sow and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.
 30. And the remnant of the house of Judah that escape will again take root downward and produce fruit upward.
 31. For out of Jerusalem will come forth a remnant, even those who have escaped from Mount Zion. The zeal of Jehovah of Hosts will do this.
 32. Therefore, Jehovah has said thus to the king of Assyria: He will not enter into this city, nor will he shoot an arrow there, nor will he come before it with a shield, nor will he cast a mound against it.
 33. He will return by the way he came, and he will not enter into this city, says Jehovah!
 34. For I will defend this city to save it for my sake, and for the sake of my servant David.”
- ¶35. And it came to pass that an angel from Jehovah went out that night and struck down one hundred and eighty-five thousand in the Assyrian camp. And they arose early in the morning, and behold, all of them were dead corpses.
36. So, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, departed, and went, and returned, and dwelt in Nineveh.
 37. And it came to pass, as he was bowing down in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adramelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword, and they escaped to the land of Ararat. Then Esar-haddon, his son, became king in his stead.

2Kings 20

- ¶1. In those days, Hezekiah became sick unto death, and Isaiah ben-Amoz the prophet came to him and said to him, “Thus says Jehovah: Put your house in order for you will die and not live.”
2. Then he turned his face to the wall and prayed to Jehovah, saying,
3. “I pray you, O Jehovah, remember, I pray you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and I have done what is good in your eyes.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.
4. And it came to pass that Isaiah had not gone out into the midst of the city when the word of Jehovah came to him, saying,
5. “Turn back, and say to Hezekiah, the ruler of my people, ‘Thus says Jehovah, the God of David, your father: I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Behold, I will heal you. On the third day, you will go up to the church of Jehovah.’
6. Moreover, I have added to your days fifteen years, and from the hand of the king of Assyria will I deliver you and this city. I will defend this city for my sake and for the sake of David, my servant.”
7. Then Isaiah said, “Let them take a cake of figs.” So, they took and placed it on the boil, and he lived.
8. And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “What is the sign that Jehovah will heal me and that I will go up to the church of Jehovah on the third day?”
9. And Isaiah said, “This will be the sign for you from Jehovah, that Jehovah will do the thing that He has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees?”
10. And Hezekiah said, “It’s an easy thing for the shadow to lengthen ten degrees, not for the shadow to go back ten degrees.”
11. Then Isaiah the prophet called to Jehovah, and He caused the shadow to go backwards ten degrees, according to the degrees which had gone down on the steps of Ahaz.
- ¶12. At that time, Berodach-baladan ben-Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he heard that Hezekiah had been sick.
13. And Hezekiah listened to them. Then he showed them all his treasure-house, the silver and the gold, and the spices, and the fragrant oil; and the house of his weapons, and all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.
14. Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, “What did these men say? And from where did they come to you?” And Hezekiah said, “They came from a distant land, from Babylon.”
15. And he said, “What have they seen in your house?” Then Hezekiah said, “They have seen everything that is in my house. There was nothing in my storehouses that I did not show them.”

16. And Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of Jehovah:
17. Behold! The days are coming that everything that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up to this day will be carried away to Babylon. Nothing will remain, says Jehovah.
18. And some of your sons that have come forth from you, whom you fathered, will be taken away, and they will be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”
19. Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of Jehovah that you have spoken is good.” Moreover, he said, “Will there not be peace and truth in my days?”
20. Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool and the water-course, and brought water into the city, are they not recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
21. And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

2Kings 21

- ¶1. And Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hephzi-bah.
2. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, according to the abominations of the nations that Jehovah had dispossessed before the children of Israel.
3. And he rebuilt the high places that Hezekiah his father had destroyed, and he erected altars for Baal, and he made an Asherah pole, as did Ahab the king of Israel, and he worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.
4. And he built altars in the church of Jehovah, where Jehovah had said, “In Jerusalem will I put my name.”
5. And he built altars to all the host of heaven in two courts of the church of Jehovah.
6. And he caused his son to pass through the fire, with soothsaying and divination, and he dealt often with a medium and those with familiar spirits, and he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, to provoke Him to anger.
7. And he set up the graven image of Asherah which he had made in the church, concerning which Jehovah said to David and to Solomon his son, “In this church, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name forever.
8. And I will not again make Israel's foot to wander from the land that I gave to their fathers, if only they will be careful to do according to all that I have commanded them, even all the law that Moses my servant commanded them.”
9. But they did not listen. And Manasseh caused them to err, to do more of what was evil than the nations whom Jehovah destroyed before the children of Israel.
10. And Jehovah spoke by the hand of his servants the prophets, saying,
11. “Because Manasseh the king of Judah has done these abominations, doing more wickedly than all that the Amorites who were before him did, and has also caused Judah to sin with his idols,

12. therefore, thus says Jehovah the God of Israel: Behold, I am bringing an evil upon Jerusalem and Judah that whoever hears of it, both his ears will tingle.
 13. I will also stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria and the level of the house of Ahab, and I will wipe Jerusalem, just as one wipes a dish, wiping it, and turning it on its face.
 14. And I will forsake the remnant of my inheritance, and I will deliver them into the hand of their enemies, and they shall be plunder and spoil for all their enemies.
 15. Because they have done what is evil in my sight and have been provoking me to anger since the day their fathers came out of Egypt, even to this day.
 16. Yea, moreover, Manasseh shed very much innocent blood until it filled Jerusalem from end to end, besides his sin with which he made Judah to sin, doing what was evil in the sight of Jehovah."
 17. And the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
 18. And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the garden of his house, in the garden of Uzza, and Amon his son reigned in his stead.
- ¶19. Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.
20. And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, just as Manasseh his father had done,
 21. and he walked in every way that his father had walked, and served the idols which his father had served, and bowed down to them.
 22. Yea, he forsook Jehovah, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of Jehovah.
 23. And Amon's servants conspired against him, and they killed the king in his house.
 24. Then the people of the land struck down all who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.
 25. And the rest of the acts of Amon that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
 26. And one buried him in his tomb in the garden of Uzza, and Josiah his son reigned in his place.

2Kings 22

- ¶1. Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jechidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath.
2. And he did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah, and he walked in every way of David his father and did not turn to the right or the left.
- ¶3. And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of King Josiah that the king sent Shaphan ben-Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the church of Jehovah, saying,

4. “Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may count the money which has been brought into the church of Jehovah, which the doorkeepers have collected from the people.
5. And have them deliver it into the hand of the overseers of those who do the work in the church of Jehovah, and let them deliver it to those who do the work in the church of Jehovah, to repair the damage in the church,
6. to the carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stones to repair the church.”
7. But no accounting was made with them of the money which was delivered into their hand, for they dealt faithfully.
8. And Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found the book of the law in the church of Jehovah.” And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.
9. Then Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and he brought back word to the king, and said, “Your servants emptied out the money that was found in the church and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers of those doing the work of the church of Jehovah.”
10. Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, “Hilkiah the priest gave me a book.” And Shaphan read it before the king.
11. And it came to pass when the king heard the words of the book of the law, he tore his clothes.
12. And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam ben-Shaphan, and Achbor ben-Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king’s servant, saying,
13. “Go! Inquire of Jehovah for me, and for the people, and for all Judah concerning the words of this book that was found! For great is the wrath of Jehovah that is kindled against us because our fathers did not take heed to the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us!”
14. Then Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum ben-Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe, and she was living in Jerusalem, in the Second Quarter. And they spoke to her.
15. And she said to them, “Thus says Jehovah the God of Israel: Tell the man who sent you to me,
16. Thus says Jehovah: Behold, I am bringing evil against this place and upon its inhabitants, all the words of the book which the king of Judah read,
17. because they have forsaken me and burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the work of their hands. Therefore, my wrath is kindled against this place, and it will not be quenched!

18. But concerning the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of Jehovah, thus shall you say to him: ‘Thus says Jehovah the God of Israel regarding the words that you have heard:
19. Inasmuch as your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before Jehovah when you heard what I spoke concerning this place and its inhabitants, that they will become a horror and a curse, and you tore your garments and wept before me, I have also heard you, says Jehovah.
20. Therefore, behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your sepulchres in peace, and your eyes will not see all the evil that I am bringing upon this place.’ And they brought back word to the king.

2Kings 23

- ¶1. Then the king sent out, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.
2. And the king went up to the church of Jehovah, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests and the prophets—and all the people from the small to the great—and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant that had been found in the church of Jehovah.
3. And the king stood by the pillar, and he made a covenant before Jehovah, to walk after Jehovah and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and with all his soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people joined in the covenant.
4. Then the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the doorkeepers to bring out of the church of Jehovah all the vessels that had been made for Baal, and for the Asherah pole, and for all the host of heaven. And he burned them up outside of Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and took their ashes to Bethel.
5. And he did away with the idolatrous priests, even those who had burned incense to Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the constellations, and to all the host of heaven, whom the kings of Judah had appointed, and he burned them as incense in the high places, in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem.
6. And he brought the Asherah pole out of the church of Jehovah, outside of Jerusalem, to the brook Kidron, and he burned it up at the brook Kidron, and he ground it to dust, and threw its dust on the graves of the children of the people.
7. And he pulled down the churches of sacred sodomites that were by the church of Jehovah where the women wove hangings for the Asherah pole.
8. And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba. And then, he tore down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua, the governor of the city, which were on the left at the city gate.
9. Only, the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of Jehovah in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers.

10. And he defiled Tophet, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, so that no man could make his son or his daughter pass through the fire to Molech.
 11. And he did away with the horses which the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun at the entrance of the church of Jehovah, at the chamber of Nathan-melech the eunuch that was by the Parbarim, and he burned up the chariots of the sun with fire.
 12. And the altars that were on the top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars that Manasseh had made in two courts of the church of Jehovah, the king tore down, and he hurried from there and cast their dust into the brook Kidron.
 13. And the high places which were before Jerusalem that were on the right of the Mount of Corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, the king defiled.
 14. And he smashed the pillars, and he cut down the Asherah poles, and he filled their places with the bones of men.
 15. And also the altar which was at Bethel, the high place which Jeroboam ben-Nebat who caused Israel to sin had made, both the altar and the high place, he tore down, and he burned up the high place and ground it to dust, and burned up the Asherah pole.
 16. Then Josiah turned, and he saw the tombs that were there on the mount, and he sent and took the bones from the tombs, and he burned them up on the altar and defiled it, according to the word of Jehovah which the man of God proclaimed who proclaimed these things.
 17. And he said, "What is this monument that I see?" And the men of the city said to him, "It is the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar of Bethel."
 18. And he said, "Let him rest; let no man disturb his bones." So, they left his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria.
 19. And Josiah also took away all the churches of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke Jehovah, and he did to them according to all the things that he had done in Bethel.
 20. And he slaughtered all the priests of the high places who were there upon the altars, and he burned men's bones on them. Then, he returned to Jerusalem.
- ¶21. And the king commanded all the people, saying, "Keep the Passover of Jehovah your God, as it is written in the book of this covenant."
22. Indeed, no such Passover as this one had been kept since the days of the judges who judged Israel, including all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah.
 23. But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover to Jehovah was kept in Jerusalem.

- ¶24. Also, Josiah purged the mediums, and the soothsayers, and the teraphim, and the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might establish the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the church of Jehovah.
25. And there was no king like him before him who turned to Jehovah with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might according to all the law of Moses; neither after him did one like him arise.
26. Nevertheless, Jehovah did not turn from His great burning anger with which His anger had been kindled against Judah because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked Him.
27. And Jehovah said, "I will also remove Judah from before my face, just as I removed Israel, and I will reject this city which I chose, Jerusalem, and the church of which I said, "My name will be there."
28. And the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
29. In his days, Pharaoh Necho the king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates, and King Josiah went to confront him, and he killed him at Megiddo when he saw him.
30. And his servants carried him dead in a chariot from Megiddo and brought him to Jerusalem. And they buried him in his sepulchre. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz ben-Josiah, and they anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.
- ¶31. Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.
32. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah according to all that his fathers had done.
33. And Pharaoh Necho imprisoned him at Riblah in the territory of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem. And he imposed a tribute on the land of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.
34. Then, Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim ben-Josiah king in his father's stead, and he changed his name to Jehoiakim. Then he took Jehoahaz away, and he entered into Egypt, and there he died.
35. And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh, only he taxed the land to give the money according to Pharaoh's command. He exacted the silver and the gold from the people of the land, each man according to his valuation, to give to Pharaoh Necho.
36. Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zebidah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

37. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah according to all that his fathers had done.

2Kings 24

- ¶1. In his days, Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant for three years. Then, he turned and rebelled against him.
- 2. And Jehovah sent against him bands of Chaldeans, and bands from Aram, and bands from Moab, and bands of the children of Ammon. And He sent them into Judah to destroy it according to the word of Jehovah which He had spoken by the hand of His servants the prophets.
- 3. Surely, this came upon Judah because of the word of Jehovah, to remove them from His presence because of the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did.
- 4. And also for the innocent blood which he shed, for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and Jehovah was not willing to forgive.
- 5. And the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
- 6. And Jehoiakim slept with his fathers, and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.
- 7. And the king of Egypt came no more out of his land, for the king of Babylon had taken everything from the brook of Egypt to the river Euphrates that belonged to the king of Egypt.
- ¶8. Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.
- 9. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah according to all that his father had done.
- 10. At that time, the servants of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city came under siege.
- 11. Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon also came to the city while his servants were besieging it.
- 12. And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his officials. And the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign.
- 13. And he brought out from there all the treasures of the church of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king's house, and he cut into pieces all the gold vessels which Solomon the king of Israel had made for the temple of Jehovah, just as Jehovah had spoken.
- 14. And he carried into exile all Jerusalem, even all the princes and all the mighty men of valor and all the craftsmen and smiths, ten thousand. No one remained except the poorest people of the land.
- 15. And he carried Jehoiachin away to Babylon, with the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officials, and the nobles of the land, leading them from Jerusalem into captivity in Babylon,

16. and all the men of valor, seven thousand, and the craftsmen and smiths, one thousand, all who were strong and fit for battle. And the king of Babylon brought them captive to Babylon.
17. And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, his uncle, king in his stead, and he changed his name to Zedekiah.
- ¶18. Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.
19. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah according to all that Jekoiakim had done,
20. for on account of the anger of Jehovah was it so in Jerusalem and in Judah until He cast them out from His presence. And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.⁷

2Kings 25

- ¶1. And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem and encamped against it. Then they built a siege wall against it all around,
2. and the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.
3. On the ninth day of the fourth month, when the famine had become so severe in the city that the people of the land had no food,
4. then the city was breached, and all the men of war fled by night by way of the gate between the two walls that are by the king's garden. But the Chaldeans were against the city round about, and so, the king took the road toward the Arabah.
5. But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho, and all his army was scattered from him.
6. And they captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, and they pronounced sentence on him.
7. And they slaughtered Zedekiah's children before his eyes, and then they put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with bronze shackles, and took him to Babylon.
8. And in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month (that year was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon), Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, entered Jerusalem.
9. And he burned down the church of Jehovah. He also burned up with fire the house of the king, and all the houses of Jerusalem, including every great house.
10. And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down the walls of Jerusalem all around.

⁷ Vv. 24:18–25:21, see also Jeremiah 52:1–27.

11. Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took into exile the remnant of the people who were left in the city, and those who had fallen away, who had gone over to the king of Babylon, and the remaining master-workman.
12. But the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and farmers.
13. And the Chaldeans broke into pieces the bronze pillars of the church of Jehovah, and the bases, and the bronze sea which were at the church of Jehovah, and they carried away their bronze to Babylon.
14. And they took pans, and shovels, and snuffers, and spoons, yea, all the bronze accoutrements with which they ministered.
15. And the captain of the guard took the snuffdishes and the basins that were pure gold and fine silver,
16. the two pillars, the one sea, and the bases which Solomon made for the church of Jehovah. There was no weighing of the bronze of all these things.
17. The height of each pillar was eighteen cubits, with a bronze chapter on top of it, and the height of the chapter was three cubits, with a network and pomegranates on the chapter all around, all of bronze. The second pillar was like this, with the network.
18. And the captain of the guard took away Seraiah the head priest, and Zephaniah a priest of the second order, and three doorkeepers.
19. And from the city, he took away one eunuch who was an overseer of men of war, and five men of those who had beheld the king's face, who were found in the city, and the scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city.
20. And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them and brought them to Riblah, to the king of Babylon.
21. And the king of Babylon struck them down, and he put them to death at Riblah in the territory of Hamath. And so, Judah went into exile from his own land.
22. As for the people who were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon allowed to remain, he appointed over them Gedaliah ben-Ahikam, the son of Shaphan.
- ¶23. Now, when all the leaders of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedeliah, they came to Gedeliah at Mizpah, even Ishmael ben-Nethaniah, Johanan ben-Kareah, Seraiah ben-Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah a son of the Maacathite, they and their men.
24. And Gedaliah took an oath before them and their men, and he said to them, "Do not be afraid of the servants of the Chaldeans. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well for you."
25. But it came to pass in the seventh month that Ishmael ben-Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the royal seed, came, and ten men with him, and they struck Gedaliah and he died, along with the Jews and Chaldeans there with him at Mizpah.

26. Then all the people rose up, from the small to the great, and the leaders of the armies, and they went to Egypt because they feared the Chaldeans.
- ¶27. And it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin the king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, that Evil-Merodach the king of Babylon, in the year he began to reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin the king of Judah from the prison house.
28. And he spoke kindly to him, and put his throne above the throne of kings who were with him in Babylon,
29. and he changed his prison clothes. And he ate bread before him continually, all the days of his life.
30. And as his allowance, a continual allowance was given to him from the king, a daily portion, all the days of his life.

32. And their villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Token, and Ashan, five cities,
33. and all their villages that were round about these cities, as far as Baal. These were their dwelling places, and they have their genealogy.
34. And Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah ben-Amaziah,
35. Joel, Jehu ben-Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel,
36. Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah,
37. and Ziza ben-Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah,
38. these entered by their names were princes in their families, and the house of their fathers increased greatly.
39. And they went to the entrance of Gedor, as far as the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.
40. And they found rich, good pasture, and the land was wide, and quiet, and at peace, for they were of Ham who had dwelt there before.
41. And these written by name came in the days of Hezekiah the king of Judah and struck their tents and the Meh-inim that were found there, and they destroyed them to this day and dwelt in their place because there was pasture there for their flocks.
42. And some of them, five hundred men of the sons of Simeon, went to mount Seir with Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, at their head,
43. and they struck down the rest of the Amalekites that escaped and dwell there to this day.

- ¶1. And the sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel, for he was the firstborn, but in that he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph ben-Israel, and the genealogy was not reckoned according to the birthright.
2. For although Judah prevailed over his brothers and the ruler came from him, the birthright was Joseph's.
3. The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.
4. The sons of Joel: Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,
5. Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son,
6. Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-pilne'esar the king of Assyria carried into exile; he was prince of the Reubenites.
7. And his brothers by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned: the chief, Jeiel, Zechariah,
8. and Bela ben-Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, and as far as Nebo and Baal-meon,
9. and eastward, he dwelt as far as the beginning of the desert of the river Euphrates because their cattle multiplied in the land of Gilead.
10. And in the days of Saul, they made war with the Hagrites, and they fell by their hand. Then they dwelt in their tents throughout all the region east of Gilead.
- ¶11. And the children of Gad dwelt next to them, in the land of Bashan as far as Salcah:
12. Joel the chief, Shapham the second, Jaanai, and Shaphat in Bashan.
13. And their brothers belonging to the house of their fathers: Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia, and Eber, seven.
14. These are the children of Abihail ben-Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz:
15. Ahi ben-Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers.
16. And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in its towns, and in all the open fields of Sharon to their borders.
- ¶17. All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of Jotham the king of Judah and in the days of Jeroboam the king of Israel.
- ¶18. The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, of the men of war, men who bore shield and sword, and drew the bow, and trained in war, were forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty who went out to war.
19. And they made war with the Hagrites, even Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab.
20. And they were helped against them; yea, the Hagrites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them, for they cried out to God during the battle, and He was entreated of them because they put their trust in Him.
21. And they took away their livestock: of their camels, fifty thousand; of sheep, two hundred and fifty thousand; of asses, two thousand; and of men, one hundred thousand.

22. For there fell many slain because the war was of God. And they dwelt in their places until the exile.
- ¶23. And the children of the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land. They increased from Bashan to Baal-Hermon, and Senir, and Mount Hermon.
24. And these were the heads of the house of their fathers: Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, Jahdiel, mighty men of valor, men of renown, heads of the house of their fathers.
25. But they were unfaithful to the God of their fathers and went whoring after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.
26. And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul the king of Assyria and the spirit of Tilgath-Pilneser the king of Assyria, and he carried them away, the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and the river Gozan to this day.

38. And the sons of Jether: Jephunneh, Pispah, and Ara.
39. And the sons of Ulla: Arah, Hanniel, and Rizya.
40. All these were the children of Asher, chiefs of their fathers' house, choice mighty men of war, chiefs of the princes. And their number reckoned by their genealogy for the service of war was twenty-six thousand men.

1Chronicles 8

- ¶1. And Benjamin fathered Bela his firstborn, Ashbel the second, Aharah the third,
2. Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth.

3. And the sons of Bela were Addar, Gera, Abihud,
 4. Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah,
 5. Gera, Shephuphan, and Huram.
 6. And these are the sons of Ehud: these are the chiefs of the fathers of the inhabitants of Geba. And they exiled them to Manahath;
 7. with Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera, he exiled them. Then he fathered Uzza, and Ahihud.
 8. And Shaharaim fathered children in the country of Moab after he had sent them away; Hushim and Baara were his wives.
 9. And he fathered by Hodesh his wife Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcham,
 10. Jeuz, Sachiah, and Mirmah. These were his sons, chiefs of the fathers.
 11. And by Hushim, he fathered Abitub and Elpaal.
 12. And the sons of Elpaal: Eber, Misham, and Shamed, who built Ono, and Lod, with its towns,
 13. and Beriah and Shema who were chiefs of the fathers of the inhabitants of Aijalon; they drove away the inhabitants of Gath.
 14. And Ahyo, Shashak, Jeremoth,
 15. Zebadiah, Arad, Ader,
 16. Michael, Ishpah, and Joha, the sons of Beriah;
 17. Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber,
 18. Ishmerai, Jizliah, and Jobab, the sons of Elpaal;
 19. Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi,
 20. Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel,
 21. Adaiah, Beraiah, and Shimrath, the sons of Shimei;
 22. Ishpan, Eber, Eliel,
 23. Abdon, Zichri, Hanan,
 24. Hananiah, Elam, Anethothijah,
 25. Iphediah, and Peniel, the sons of Shashak;
 26. Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah,
 27. Jaareshiah, Elijah, and Zichri, the sons of Jeroham.
 28. These were chiefs of the fathers, by their generations, chief men. These dwelt in Jerusalem.
- ¶29. And the father of Gibeon and his wife, whose name was Maacah, dwelt in Gibeon.
30. And his firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab,
 31. Gedor, Ahyo, and Zacher.
 32. And Mikloth fathered Shimeah. Now, these also dwelt near their brothers in Jerusalem, with their kinsmen.
 33. And Ner fathered Kish, and Kish fathered Saul, and Saul fathered Jonathan, Malchi-shua, Abinadab, and Eshbaal.
 34. And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal. And Merib-baal fathered Micah.

40. And the sons of Ulam were mighty men of war, archers, and they had many sons, and sons' sons, one hundred and fifty. All these are the sons of Benjamin.

1Chronicles 9

- ¶1. So, all Israel was reckoned by genealogy; and, behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. They were carried away to Babylon for their transgression.
2. Now, the first who dwelt again in the cities of their possessions in Israel: the priests, the Levites, and the Nethinim.⁴
 3. And in Jerusalem dwelt some of the children of Judah, some of the children of Benjamin, and some of the children of Ephraim and Manasseh:
 4. Uthai ben-Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Benjamin, of the children of Pharez ben-Judah.
 5. And of the Shilonites: Asaiah the firstborn, and his sons.
 6. And of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel, and their brethren, six hundred and ninety.
 7. And of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu ben-Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah,
 8. Ibneiah ben-Jeroham, Elah ben-Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam ben-Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah,
 9. and their brothers, according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were chiefs of the fathers in the house of their fathers.
- ¶10. And of the priests: Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jachin,
11. and Azariah ben-Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the church of God,
 12. and Adaiah ben-Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchiah, and Maasai ben-Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer,
 13. and their brothers, chiefs of the house of their fathers, one thousand seven hundred and sixty, mighty men capable of the work of the service of the church of God.
- ¶14. And of the Levites: Shemaiah ben-Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari,

⁴ See Numbers 3:9; 8:16, 19.

15. Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, Mattaniah ben-Mica, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph,
16. Obadiah ben-Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah ben-Asa, the son of Elkanah, who dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites.
- ¶17. And the gatekeepers: Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their brothers. Shallum was the chief,
18. who until now has been stationed at the king's gate to the east. These were gatekeepers in the companies of the children of Levi.
19. And Shallum ben-Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brothers, of the house of his father, the Korhites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle; and their fathers, being over the host of Jehovah, were keepers of the entry.
20. And Phinehas ben-Eleazar was the ruler over them in time past. Jehovah was with him.
21. And Zechariah ben-Meshelemiah was the keeper of the entrance of the tent of meeting.
22. All these who were chosen to be keepers at the gates were two hundred and twelve. They were reckoned by their villages by their genealogy. They were appointed by David and Samuel the seer because of their faithfulness.
23. And they and their sons were over the gates of the church of Jehovah, the church of the tabernacle, by watches.
24. On four sides were the gatekeepers, east, west, north, and south.
25. (And their brothers in their villages came for seven days from time to time to be with them.)
26. For because of faithfulness, they were the four chief gatekeepers. They were Levites, and they were over the chambers and treasuries of the church of God.
27. And they lodged round about the church of God because that duty was on them, and they were in charge of the opening every morning.
- ¶28. Now, some of them had charge of the accoutrements for the service, that they should bring them in by count and take them out by count.
29. And some of them were appointed over the accoutrements, all the accoutrements of the holy place, and over the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense, and the spices.
30. And some of the sons of the priests prepared the mixture for the sweet aromas.
31. And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korhite, was entrusted with the work of the griddles.
32. And some of the sons of the Kohathites, from their brothers, were over the bread of the rows, to prepare it every Sabbath.
- ¶33. And they who were the singers, chiefs of the fathers of the Levites, lived in the chambers exempt from other duties, for day and night the service was upon them.
34. These were the chiefs of the fathers of the Levites; these were chiefs throughout their generations. They dwelt in Jerusalem.

- ¶35. And the father of Gibeon, Jeuel, and his wife, whose name was Maacah, dwelt in Gibeon.
- 36. And his firstborn son Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab,
- 37. Gedor, Ahyo, Zechariah, and Mikloth.
- 38. And Mikloth fathered Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brothers at Jerusalem, opposite their kinsmen.
- 39. And Ner fathered Kish, Kish fathered Saul, and Saul fathered Jonathan, Malchi-shua, Abinadab, and Eshbaal.
- 40. And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal. And Merib-baal fathered Micah.
- 41. And the sons of Micah: Pithon, Melech, and Tahrea.
- 42. And Ahaz fathered Jarah, and Jarah fathered Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri, and Zimri fathered Moza,
- 43. and Moza fathered Binea, and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.
- 44. And Azel had six sons, and these were their names: Azrikam, Bocru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

1Chronicles 10

- ¶1. Now, the Philistines fought against Israel, and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.
- 2. And the Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons, and the Philistines struck down Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchi-shuah, Saul's sons.
- 3. And the battle was hard against Saul, and the archers found him, and he was in agony because of the archers.
- 4. And Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and run me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and deal ruthlessly with me!" But his armor-bearer could not because he was very afraid. So, Saul took the sword and fell on it.
- 5. When the armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on the sword and died.
- 6. So, Saul died with his three sons, and all his house died together.
- 7. Now, when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they abandoned their cities and fled, and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.
- 8. And it came to pass the next day that the Philistines came to strip the slain, and they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.
- 9. And they stripped him and took his head and his armor, and they sent it all around the land of the Philistines to proclaim the good news to their idols and all the people.
- 10. And they put his armor in the church of their gods, but his head, they fastened to the church of Dagon.
- 11. When all Jabesh-Gilead heard of all that the Philistines had done to Saul,
- 12. all the valiant men rose up and took Saul's body, and the bodies of his sons, and they brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones beneath the terebinth tree in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13. So, Saul died because of his treachery which he committed against Jehovah, because of the word of Jehovah that he did not obey; yea, he even inquired of a medium for guidance
14. and did not inquire of Jehovah. Therefore, He killed him and turned the kingdom over to David ben-Jesse.

1Chronicles 11

- ¶1. Then all Israel gathered together to David at Hebron, saying, "Behold, we are your bone and your flesh."
2. Even in times past, when Saul was king, it was you who led Israel out and brought them in, and Jehovah your God told you, 'You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will be prince over my people Israel.'
3. So, all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them before Jehovah at Hebron, and they anointed David as king over Israel, according to the word of Jehovah by the hand of Samuel.
4. And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus), but the Jebusites were there, the inhabitants of the land.
5. And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You cannot enter here." But David took the stronghold of Zion, which is the City of David.
6. For David had said, "Whoever strikes the Jebusites first shall be chief and commander." So, Joab ben-Zeruiah went up first, and he became chief.
7. And David dwelt in the stronghold; that is why they called it the City of David.
8. And he built the city all around, from Millo even round about. And Joab restored the rest of the city.
9. And David grew greater and greater, for Jehovah of Hosts was with him.
- ¶10. And these are the chiefs of David's mighty men, who stood with him in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king according to the word of Jehovah concerning Israel.
11. And this is the record of David's mighty men: Jashabeam ben-Hachmoni, chief of the Three, who lifted up his spear against three hundred whom he slew at one time.
12. And after him was Eleazar ben-Dodo, the Ahohite, who was among the three mighty ones.
13. He was with David at Pas-dammim, for the Philistines had gathered there for battle. And there was a plot of ground full of barley, and the people had fled before the Philistines.
14. But they took their stand in the middle of the plot and defended it, and struck down the Philistines, and Jehovah brought about a great victory.
15. And three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, to the cave of Adullam, and the camp of the Philistines was pitched in the Valley of the Rephaim.

16. And at that time, David was in the stronghold and the garrison of the Philistines was in Bethlehem.
17. And David had a yearning, and he said, "Who will give me drink from the water of the well in Bethlehem that is by the gate?"
18. And the three broke through the camp of the Philistines and drew water from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate. And they took and brought it to David, but David would not drink it, but poured it out to Jehovah.
19. And he said, "Far be it from me before my God, that I should do this. Shall I drink the blood of these men, who put their lives at risk? For at the risk of their lives did they bring it." Therefore, he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men.
20. And Abishai, the brother of Joab, was a chief among the three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred whom he killed, but he did not have a name among the Three.
21. He was honored among the second three and became their captain, but he did not attain to the Three.
22. Benaiah ben-Jehoiada, a valiant man from Kabzeel, did many deeds. He killed two lion-like men of Moab, and he went down and killed a lion in a pit on a snowy day.
23. He also killed an Egyptian man, a man of stature, five cubits tall. Now, in the hand of the Egyptian was a spear like a weavers' beam, but he went down to him with a staff and plucked the spear from the Egyptian's hand and slew him with his own spear.
24. These things did Benaiah ben-Jehoiada, and his name was with three of the mighty men.
25. Among the thirty, behold, he was honorable, but he did not attain to the Three. And David set him over his bodyguard.
26. And the mighty men of the forces were: Asahel, Joab's brother, Elhanan ben-Dodo of Bethlehem,
27. Shammoth the Haroite, Helez the Pelonite,
28. Ira ben-Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite,
29. Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,
30. Mahrai the Netophathite, Heled ben-Baanah the Netophathite,
31. Ithai ben-Ribai of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite,
32. Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,
33. Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalebonite,
34. of the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan ben-Shageh the Hararite,
35. Ahiam ben-Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal ben-Ur,
36. Hepher the Mecerathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,
37. Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai ben-Ezbai,
38. Joel, Nathan's brother, Mibhar ben-Hagri,
39. Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armor bearer of Joab ben-Zeruiah,
40. Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,
41. Uriah the Hittite, Zabad ben-Ahlai,
42. Adina ben-Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and thirty with him,

43. Hanan ben-Maacah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite,
44. Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Juel, the sons of Hotham the Aroerite,
45. Jedael ben-Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite,
46. Eliel of the Mahavites, Jeribai and Josaviah, the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite,
47. Eliel, and Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaiah.

1Chronicles 12

- ¶1. Now, these are those who came to David at Ziklag while he kept himself away from Saul ben-Kish. And they were among the mighty men who helped in battle,
2. armed with the bow, able to sling stones or shoot arrows with either right or left hand, Saul's kinsmen from Benjamin:
 3. the chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite, and Jezuel and Pelet, sons of Azmaveth, and Beracah, and Jehu the Anathothite,
 4. and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty and over the thirty, and Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite,
 5. Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah the Hariphite,
 6. Elkanah, Isshiah, Azareel, Joezer, and Jashabe'am, the Korhites,
 7. Joelah and Zebadiah, sons of Jeroham from Gedor.
- ¶8. And from the Gadites who separated themselves to David at the wilderness stronghold, mighty, valiant men of war for battle, expert with shield and spear, who had faces like the faces of a lion and were swift as gazelles on the mountains:
9. Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,
 10. Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,
 11. Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,
 12. Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,
 13. Jeremiah the tenth, Macbannai the eleventh.
14. These of the sons of Gad were captains of the army, the least one equal to a hundred, and the greatest to a thousand.
15. These are they who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it overflows all its banks, and they put all those in the valleys to flight, to the east and to the west.
- ¶16. And some of the children of Benjamin and Judah came to David at the stronghold.
17. And David went out before them, and he answered them and said, "If you have come to me in peace to help me, my heart will be united with you, but if to betray me to my enemies when there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers see it and judge."
18. Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, a captain of the thirty, saying, "We are for you, David, and together with you, son of Jesse! Peace, peace be to you, and peace to your helpers, for your God has helped you." So, David received them and made them captains of the band.

- ¶19. And some from Manasseh fell away to David when he went with the Philistines to battle against Saul, but they did not help them because after counsel, the lords of the Philistines sent him away, saying, "With our heads will he fall away to his master Saul."
20. And as he was going to Ziklag, there fell away to him from Manasseh: Adnah, Jozabad, Jedael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of the thousands of Manasseh.
21. And they helped with David against the band of raiders, for all of them were mighty men of valor and were commanders in the army.
22. For at that time, day by day, men came to David to help him, until there was a great host like the host of God.
- ¶23. And these are the numbers of the companies ready for war that came to David at Hebron, to turn over the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of Jehovah:
24. of the sons of Judah bearing shield and spear, six thousand eight hundred equipped for war;
25. of the sons of Simeon, mighty men of valor for war, seven thousand one hundred;
26. of the sons of Levi, four thousand six hundred;
27. and Jehoiada was the leader of Aaron, and with him were three thousand seven hundred;
28. and Zadok, a young man mighty in strength, and his father's house, twenty-two captains;
29. and of the sons of Benjamin, Saul's kinsmen, three thousand (for until then, the greater part of them had kept allegiance with the house of Saul);
30. and of the sons of Ephraim, twenty thousand eight hundred mighty men of valor, men of renown in the house of their fathers;
31. and of the half tribe of Manasseh, eighteen thousand who were designated by name to come to make David king;
32. and of the sons of Issachar, men who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel should do, their chiefs, two hundred, and all their brothers under their command;
33. of Zebulun, those who went out for war, prepared for battle with all the weapons of war, fifty thousand, and who kept rank with an undivided heart;
34. and of Naphtali, a thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear, thirty-seven thousand;
35. and of the Danites, prepared for battle, twenty-eight thousand six hundred;
36. and of Asher, those who went out for war prepared for battle, forty thousand.
37. And from the other side of the Jordan: of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, with all weapons of war for battle, one hundred and twenty thousand.
38. All these men of war, who could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron to make David king of all Israel; and likewise, all the rest of Israel were of one heart to make David king.

39. And they were there with David for three days, eating and drinking what their brothers had prepared for them.
40. And also those near to them, as far as Issachar, and Zebulun, and Naphtali, brought bread on donkeys, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, food: flour, cakes of figs, and clusters of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep in great abundance, for there was joy in Israel.

1Chronicles 13

- ¶1. Then David took counsel with the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with every leader.
2. And David said to the whole Assembly of Israel, “If it is good to you, and it be of Jehovah our God, let us send abroad to our brothers who remain throughout all the regions of Israel, and with them the priests and the Levites in the cities and their open fields, that they may gather with us.
3. Then let us bring the ark of our God to us, for we have not inquired at it since the days of Saul.”
4. And all the Assembly said that they would do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.
5. And David assembled all Israel from Shihor of Egypt to the Entrance of Hamath to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-Jearim.
6. Then David, and all Israel, went up to Baalah, to Kirjath-Jearim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, Jehovah, who dwells between the cherubim, where your name is called upon.
7. And they mounted the ark of God on a new cart at the house of Abinadab, and Uzzah and Ahyo were driving the cart.
8. And David and all the house of Israel played before God with all their strength, even with singing, and lyres, harps, timbrels, cymbals, and trumpets.
9. But when they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzzah put forth his hand to take hold of the ark because the oxen stumbled.
10. And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Uzzah, and He struck him down because he put his hand on the ark, and he died there before God.
11. And David’s anger was kindled because Jehovah had made a breach against Uzzah. And that place is called Pharez-Uzzah to this day.
12. And David feared God that day, saying, “How shall I bring the ark of God to myself?”
13. So David did not take the ark to himself into the city of David, but he took it aside to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.
14. And the ark of God remained with the household of Obed-Edom in his house for three months. And Jehovah blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all that he had.

1Chronicles 14

- ¶1. And Hiram the king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and masons for walls, and carpenters to build a house for him.
2. And David understood that Jehovah had established him as king over Israel, for his kingdom was lifted up on high for the sake of His people Israel.
- ¶3. And David took more wives at Jerusalem, and David fathered more sons and daughters.
4. And these are the names of those born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,
5. Ibhar, Elishua, Elpalet,
6. Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,
7. Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphaleth.
8. But the Philistines heard that David had been anointed as king over all Israel. Then all the Philistines came up to seek David, and when David heard of it, he went out to face them.
9. And the Philistines came and made a raid in the Valley of the Rephaim.
10. And David inquired of God, saying, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand?” And Jehovah said to him, “Go up! For I will deliver them into your hand.”
11. And they came up to Baal-Perazim, and David struck them down there. Then David said, “God has burst forth upon my enemies by my hand like a bursting forth of waters.” Therefore, they called that place Baal-Perazim.
12. And they abandoned their gods there, and David commanded, and they were burned up with fire.
- ¶13. And the Philistines yet again made a raid in the valley.
14. And David inquired again of God, and God said to him “Do not go up after them. Go around above them, and you shall come at them opposite the mulberry trees.
15. And it shall be, that when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall go forth to the battle, for God will have gone forth before you to strike the camp of the Philistines.”
16. And David did as God commanded him, and they struck down the army of the Philistines from Gibeon even as far as Gazrah.
17. And the fame of David went out through all lands, and Jehovah put the fear of him on all the nations.

1Chronicles 15

1. And David built houses for himself in the city of David, and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched a tent for it.
2. Then David said, “None should bear the ark of God but the Levites, for Jehovah chose them to bear the ark of Jehovah, and to minister to Him forever.”
3. And David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of Jehovah to its place which he had prepared for it.

4. Then David gathered the sons of Aaron and the Levites:
 5. of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, with his brothers, one hundred and twenty;
 6. of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, with his brothers, two hundred and twenty;
 7. of the sons of Gershom, Joel the chief, with his brothers, one hundred and thirty;
 8. of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, with his brothers, two hundred;
 9. of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, with his brothers, eighty;
 10. of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, with his brothers, one hundred and twelve.
11. And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab.
 12. And he said to them, “You are the chiefs of the fathers of the Levites. Sanctify yourselves, you and your brothers, so that you may bring up the ark of Jehovah, the God of Israel, to the place I have prepared for it.
 13. Because you did not do so the first time, Jehovah our God broke forth upon us, for we did not seek Him according to the ordinance.”
 14. So, the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of Jehovah, the God of Israel.
 15. And the sons of the Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles on them, just as Moses commanded according to the word of Jehovah.
 16. And David spoke to the chiefs of the Levites to station their brothers, the singers, with musical instruments, harps, lyres, and cymbals, playing loudly to lift up a joyful sound.
 17. And the Levites stationed Heman ben-Joel, and from his brothers, Asaph ben-Berechiah; and from the sons of Merari their brothers, Ethan ben-Kushaiah.
 18. And with them their brothers of the second order, Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel the gatekeepers.
 19. And the singers were Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, sounding with the bronze cymbals,
 20. and Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah with the harps upon Alamoth,⁵
 21. and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah, with lyres to lead on the Sheminith.⁶
 22. And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites over the music, directed the music because he was skillful.
 23. And Berechiah and Elkanah were gatekeepers for the ark.
 24. And Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethaneel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, blew with the trumpets before the ark of God, and Obed-Edom and Jehiah were gatekeepers for the ark.

⁵ Ps. 46:1

⁶ Pss. 6:1; 12:1

25. So it was that David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains of thousands went to bring up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah from the house of Obed-Edom with joy.
26. And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of Jehovah, that they slaughtered seven bullocks and seven rams.
27. And David was clothed with a robe of byssus, as were all the Levites who bore the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah, the leader of the singers 'music. David also had on a linen ephod.
28. So, all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah with shouting, and with the sound of the shofar, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making music with harps and lyres.
29. And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of Jehovah came to the city of David, that Michal, the daughter of Saul, looked down from a window, and she saw King David leaping and dancing, and she despised him in her heart.

1Chronicles 16

- ¶1. And they brought in the ark of God and set it in the midst of the tent which David had pitched for it. And they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.
2. And when David finished making the burnt offering and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Jehovah.
3. And he distributed to all the people of Israel, both men and women, to each one a loaf of bread, and a portion of meat, and raisin-cakes.
4. And he appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of Jehovah, and to make remembrance, and to give thanks, and to praise Jehovah the God of Israel:
5. Asaph the chief, and next to him, Zechariah, Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel on instruments, harps and lyres, but Asaph sounded the cymbals,
6. with Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests on the trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.
7. It was on that day when David first appointed that thanksgiving be made to Jehovah by the hand of Asaph and his brothers.
- ¶8. Give thanks to Jehovah! Call on His name! Make His deeds known among the nations!
9. Sing to Him! Play for Him! Meditate on all His wonders!
10. Glory in His holy name! Let the heart of those who seek Jehovah rejoice!
11. Seek Jehovah and His strength! Seek His face always!
12. Remember His wondrous works that He has done, His miracles, and the judgments of His mouth!
13. O seed of Israel, His servant! O sons of Jacob, His chosen ones!
14. He is Jehovah our God! His judgments are in all the earth!
15. Be mindful always of His covenant, the word He commanded for a thousand generations,
16. which He made with Abraham, and his oath to Isaac,

17. and He confirmed it to Jacob as a statute for Israel, an everlasting covenant,
 18. saying, “I will give you the land of Canaan as the lot of your inheritance.”
 19. When they were few in number, very few, and strangers in it,
 20. when they wandered from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people,
 21. He suffered no man to oppress them, and He rebuked kings for their sakes, saying,
 22. “Do not touch my anointed ones, and do not harm my prophets.”⁷
 23. Sing to Jehovah all the earth! Tell of His salvation from day to day!
 24. Declare His glory among the Gentiles, His wonders among all the nations,
 25. for Jehovah is great, and greatly to be praised. And He is to be feared above all gods.
 26. For all the gods of the nations are just idols, but Jehovah made the heavens.
 27. Majesty and splendor are in His presence; strength and joy are in His place.
 28. Ascribe to Jehovah, you families of nations, ascribe to Jehovah glory and strength!
 29. Ascribe to Jehovah the glory of His name! Bring an offering and come before Him! Worship Jehovah in the beauty of holiness!
 30. Dance before Him, all the earth! Yea, the world shall be established; it shall not be shaken.
 31. The heavens will be glad, and the earth will rejoice! And say among the Gentiles,
 “Jehovah is King!”
 32. The sea and its fullness will thunder! The field and all that is in it will exult!
 33. Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy at the presence of Jehovah when He comes to judge the earth.⁸
 34. Give thanks to Jehovah, for He is good, for His mercy endures forever.⁹
 35. And say, “Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us, and deliver us from among the nations so that we may give thanks to your holy name and boast in your praise.”
 36. Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting! And let all the people say, “Amen!” and “Praise Jehovah!”¹⁰
- ¶37. And he left Asaph and his brothers there before the ark of the covenant of Jehovah to minister before the ark continually, as each day required,
 38. and Obed-Edom and their brothers, sixty-eight, and Obed-Edom ben-Jedithun and Hosah as gatekeepers,
 39. and Zadok the priest and his brothers the priests were before the tabernacle of Jehovah
 at the high place that was in Gibeon
 40. to offer burnt offerings to Jehovah on the altar of burnt offering continually, morning and evening, and to do all that was written in the law of Jehovah which He had commanded Israel.

⁷ Compare vv. 8–22 to Psalm 105:1–15.

⁸ Compare vv. 23–33 to Psalm 96:2–13a.

⁹ Compare v. 34 to Psalm 106:1.

¹⁰ Compare vv. 35–36 to Psalm 106:47–48.

41. And with them was Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who had been chosen, who were appointed by name to give thanks to Jehovah, for His mercy is forever.
42. And with them were Heman and Jeduthun, sounding with trumpets, and cymbals, and the musical instruments of God. And the sons of Jeduthun were gatekeepers.
43. And all the people went each one to his house, and David returned to bless his house.

1Chronicles 17

- ¶1. And it came to pass as David sat in his house that he said to Nathan the prophet, “Behold, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of Jehovah is under curtains.”
2. Then Nathan said to David, “Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you.”
3. But that night it came to pass that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,
4. “Go, and say to David my servant, ‘Thus says Jehovah: You, yourself, will not build the house for me to dwell in,
5. for I have not dwelt in a house from the day that I brought Israel up until this day, but I have been from tent to tent and from dwelling-place to dwelling-place.
6. In any place I went about with all Israel, have I ever spoken to one of the judges of Israel whom I commanded to shepherd my people, saying, “Why have you not built a house of cedar for me?”
7. And then say this to my servant, to David: ‘Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: I took you out from the sheep pen, from following the flock, to be ruler over my people Israel.
8. And I have been with you everywhere you went, and I have cut off all your enemies before you, and I have made you a name like the name of the great men who are on the earth.
9. Furthermore, I appointed a place for my people Israel, and I planted him that he might dwell in it, and that he be troubled no more, and that unjust men would not again waste him as before.
10. And from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel, I have subdued all your enemies. And I tell you: Jehovah will build you a house.
11. And it will come to pass that when your days are fulfilled to go be with your fathers, then I will raise up your seed after you who will be one of your sons, and I will establish his kingdom.
12. He will build a house for me, and I will establish his throne forever.
13. I will be his father, and he will be my son, and I will not take away my mercy from him as I took it from him who was before you.
14. I will set him in my house and in my kingdom forever, and his throne will be established forever.”
15. According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to David.

- ¶16. And David the king came in and sat before Jehovah, and he said, “Who am I, O Jehovah God, and what is my house that you have brought me this far?
- 17. But this was a small thing in your eyes, O God. You have also spoken of your servant’s house for a great while to come, and you have considered me according to the exalted law¹¹ of the Man. O Jehovah God!
- 18. What more could David say to you concerning the honor of your servant? For you certainly know your servant.
- 19. O Jehovah, for your servant’s sake, and according to your own heart, have you done all this greatness, to make known all these great things.
- 20. O Jehovah, there is none like you, and there is no God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears.
- 21. And who is like your people, Israel, the one nation on earth that God went to redeem to be His people, to make yourself a great and fearful name, by driving out nations before your people whom you redeemed from Egypt?
- 22. And you made your people Israel your own people forever, and you, O Jehovah, became their God.
- 23. And now, O Jehovah, let the thing that you have spoken concerning your servant and his house be established forever, and do as you have said
- 24. and let it be established. And let your name be magnified forever, saying, ‘Jehovah of Hosts is the God of Israel—Israel’s God!—and the house of David is established before you!’
- 25. You, O my God, have revealed to the ear of your servant that you will build a house for him; that is why your servant has dared to pray this before you.
- 26. And now, O Jehovah, you are God! And you have spoken this good thing concerning your servant.
- 27. And now, you have been pleased to bless the house of your servant that it may be before you forever, for you, O Jehovah, have blessed, and it shall be blessed forever.”

1Chronicles 18

- ¶1. And it came to pass after this, that David struck the Philistines and subdued them, and he took Gath and its villages from the hand of the Philistines.
- 2. He also struck Moab, and Moab became servants for David and brought tribute.
- 3. And David struck Hadadezer the king of Zobah near Hamath as he went to establish his dominion by the Euphrates River.
- 4. And David took from him one thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen. And David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but he left of them one hundred for chariots.

¹¹ Hebrew uncertain, but compare to 2Samuel 7:19.

5. And when the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer the king of Zobah, David also struck down twenty-two thousand men of the Arameans.
6. Then David put garrisons in Aram, in Damascus, and Arameans became servants to David and brought tribute. And Jehovah gave victory to David wherever he went.
7. And David took the gold shields that were with the servants of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.
8. And from Tibhath, and from Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took very much bronze. With it, Solomon made the bronze sea, and the pillars, and the bronze vessels.
9. And when To'u the king of Hamath heard that David had struck the whole army of Hadadezer the king of Zobah,
10. he sent Hadoram, his son, to King David, to beg peace of him, and to bless him with all manner of vessels of gold, and silver, and bronze because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him down for Hadadezer had been a man at war with To'u.
11. Then, King David dedicated them to Jehovah, with the silver and the gold that he carried away from all the nations, from Edom, Moab, the children of Ammon, the Philistines, and Amalek.
12. And Abishai ben-Zeruiah struck eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.
13. And he put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became servants to David. And Jehovah gave victory to David wherever he went.
14. And David reigned over all Israel, and he executed judgment and righteousness for all his people.
15. And Joab ben-Zeruiah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat ben-Ahilud was the recorder.
16. And Zadok ben-Ahitub and Abimelech ben-Abiathar were the priests, and Shavsha was the scribe.
17. And Benaiah ben-Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and the sons of David were chiefs at the king's side.

1Chronicles 19

- ¶1. And it came to pass after this, that Nahash, the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son became king in his stead.
2. And David thought, "I will show kindness to Hanun ben-Nahash, for his father showed kindness to me." So, David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants went into the land of the children of Ammon, to Hanun, to comfort him.
3. But the chiefs of the children of Ammon said to Hanun: "Do you think David is honoring your father because he has sent comforters to you? Have not his servants come to you to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?"

4. And so, Hanun took David's servants, and he shaved them, and cut off half of their garments up to their buttocks, and then sent them away.
5. And some came and told David about the men. And he sent messengers to meet them because the men were greatly humiliated. And the king said, "Stay at Jericho until your beard grows, and then return."
6. And the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves a stench to David, so Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from Aram-naharaim, and from Aram-Maacah, and from Zobah.
7. And they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people. And they came and camped before Medeba. And the children of Ammon were gathered from their cities and came for the battle.
8. And David heard of it, and he sent Joab and all the host of mighty men.
9. And the children of Ammon came out and set the battle in order at the entrance of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the open country.
10. And Joab saw that the battle line against him was in front and behind, so he chose some of the choice men in Israel and set them in array against Aram.
11. And the rest of the people, he put in the hand of Abishai his brother, and they were arrayed against the children of Ammon.
12. And he said, "If Aram is stronger than I, then you shall be my help, but if the children of Ammon are stronger than you, then I will help you.
13. Be strong and courageous for our people and for the cities of our God, and Jehovah will do what is good in His eyes."
14. And Joab and the people who were with him drew near before Aram to the battle, and they fled before him.
15. When the children of Ammon saw that Aram had fled, then they also fled from before Abishai his brother, and entered the city. Then Joab went to Jerusalem.
16. But when the Arameans saw that they were beaten before Israel, they sent messengers and brought out Arameans who were beyond the river, and Shophach, the commander of the army of Hadadezer, went before them.
17. And it was reported to David, and he gathered all Israel and crossed over the Jordan, and he came to them and set the battle in order against them. And when David had set the battle in order against Aram, they fought against him.
18. And Aram fled before Israel, and David killed seven thousand Aramean chariot men and forty thousand footmen, and he put to death Shophach, the commander of the army.
19. And when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and served him. And Aram would not help the children of Ammon anymore.

- ¶1. And it came to pass at the time of the turn of the year, when kings go out to battle, that Joab led forth the power of the army and ravaged the land of the children of Ammon, and he came and besieged Rabbah, but David remained in Jerusalem. And Joab struck Rabbah and overthrew it.
2. And David took the crown of their king off his head, and he found that it weighed a talent of gold, and in it was a precious stone, and it was set upon David's head. And he took a great abundance of spoil from the city.
3. And he brought forth the people who were in it, and put them to work with the saw, iron harrows, and axes. And David did thus to all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then David returned with all the people to Jerusalem.
- ¶4. And it came to pass after this that there arose a battle at Gezer with the Philistines. At that time, Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai of the children of the Rephaim, and they were subdued.
5. And there was another battle with the Philistines, and Elhanan ben-Ja'ur killed Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.
6. And there was yet another battle at Gath, and there was a man of great stature and his fingers and toes were six and six, twenty-four, and he also was born of Rapha.
7. And when he defied Israel, Jonathan ben-Shimea, David's brother, killed him.
8. These were born to Rapha in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

1Chronicles 21

- ¶1. And Satan stood up against Israel, and he provoked David to number Israel.
2. So, David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, "Go, number Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, and bring me the report, that I may know their number."
3. And Joab said, "May Jehovah add to His people one hundred times more than they are, but my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why does my lord require this thing? Why should he be a cause of guilt to Israel?"
4. But the king's word prevailed against Joab, so Joab went about through all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.
5. And Joab gave the sum of the numbering of the people to David. And in all Israel were one million one hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and in Judah were four hundred and seventy thousand men who drew the sword,
6. but he did not count Levi and Benjamin among them, for the king's command was abhorrent to Joab.
7. Now, this thing was evil in the sight of God, and He struck Israel.
8. And David said to God, "I have sinned greatly because I did this thing. Yet, overlook now, I pray you, the iniquity of your servant, for I have done very foolishly."
9. Then Jehovah spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying,

10. “Go and speak to David, saying, ‘Thus says Jehovah: I offer three things to you. You choose one of them, and I will do it to you.’”
11. So, Gad came to David and said to him, “Thus says Jehovah: Choose for yourself
12. either three years of famine, or three months of destruction before your adversaries while the sword of your enemies overtakes you, or three days of Jehovah’s sword, even pestilence in the land, and the angel of Jehovah destroying throughout all the territory of Israel. So, decide now what word I shall bring back to Him who sent me.”
13. And David said to Gad, “I am in great distress. Let me fall now into the hand of Jehovah, for His mercies are abundant, but let me not fall into the hand of man.”
14. So, Jehovah sent a plague throughout Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell.
15. And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it, but as he was destroying it, Jehovah saw, and He repented of the evil, and He said to the destroying angel, “Enough, stay your hand now.” And the angel of Jehovah was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
16. And David lifted up his eyes, and he saw the angel of Jehovah standing between the earth and heaven, and in his hand his drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces.
17. And David said to God, “Was it not I who said to number the people, and I who sinned and did great evil? But these sheep, what have they done? O Jehovah, my God, I pray you, let your hand be upon me, and on my father’s house, and let not the plague be upon your people!”
18. Then the angel of Jehovah spoke to Gad to tell David that David should go up to raise an altar to Jehovah on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
19. And David went up at Gad’s word, which he had spoken in the name of Jehovah.
20. And Ornan turned and saw the angel, and his four sons who were with him hid themselves. Now, Ornan was threshing wheat,
21. and as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and he went out from the threshing floor and did obeisance to David, his face to the ground.
22. And David said to Ornan, “Give me the place of this threshing floor, that I may build an altar on it to Jehovah. Give it to me for the full price, so that the plague may be stayed from the people.”
23. And Ornan said to David, “Take it for yourself, and let my lord the king do what is good in his eyes. Behold, I give the oxen for a burnt offering, and threshing sledges for the wood, and wheat for the grain offering. I give it all.”
24. Then, King David said to Ornan, “No. I must buy it at full price, for I will not take what is yours for Jehovah or offer a burnt offering that costs me nothing.”
25. So, David gave Ornan six hundred gold shekels by weight for the site.

26. And David built an altar there to Jehovah, and he offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And he called on Jehovah, and He answered him with fire from heaven upon the altar of burnt offering.
27. And Jehovah spoke to the angel, and he returned his sword to its sheath.
28. From that time, when David saw that Jehovah had answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there.
29. Now, the tabernacle of Jehovah which Moses built in the wilderness and the altar of burnt offering were at that time in the high place at Gibeon,
30. but David could not go before it to inquire of God because he was very afraid of the sword of the angel of Jehovah.

1Chronicles 22

- ¶1. Then David said, “This will be the church of Jehovah God, and this will be the altar of burnt offering for Israel.”
2. And David commanded to gather the foreigners who were in the land of Israel, and he appointed stonemasons to cut out hewn stones to build the church of God.
3. And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates and for the joints, and bronze in abundance, beyond weighing,
4. and cedar logs without number, for the Sidonians and the Tyrians brought cedar logs in abundance to David.
5. For David had said, “Solomon my son is young and tender, and the church that is to be built for Jehovah must be exceedingly great, for fame and for honor throughout all lands. Let me make preparation for it, I pray.” And so, David prepared abundantly before his death.
6. And he summoned Solomon his son and charged him to build a church for Jehovah, the God of Israel.
7. And David said to Solomon his son, “As for me, it was in my heart to build a church for the name of Jehovah my God,
8. but the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, ‘You have shed much blood and fought great battles. You shall not build a church for my name because you have shed much blood on the ground before me.
9. Behold, a son shall be born to you who will be a man of rest. And I shall give him rest from all his enemies round about, and Solomon¹² will be his name, for I will give peace and quiet to Israel in his days.
10. He shall build a church for my name, and he will be my son, and I will be his father. And I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.’
11. My son, Jehovah will be with you now, and you will succeed. So, build the church of Jehovah your God, just as He said concerning you.

¹² Solomon's name means "peaceful".

12. Only, Jehovah give you insight and understanding, so that when He gives you command over Israel, you might keep the law of Jehovah your God.
13. Then, you will prosper, when you are careful to carry out the statutes and the judgments which Jehovah commanded Moses for Israel. Be strong and courageous; do not be afraid and do not be dismayed.
14. And behold, by my deprivation have I made preparation for the church of Jehovah a hundred thousand gold talents, and a million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond weighing, for it is in abundance. Also, I have prepared timber and stone, but you must add to them.
15. And with you are many workmen: stonecutters, lapidaries, woodworkers, and all manner of craftsmen in every kind of work.
16. Of gold, silver, bronze, and iron, there is no number. Arise, and work! And may Jehovah be with you.”
17. David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son:
18. “Is not Jehovah your God with you? And has He not given you rest on every side? For He has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land is subdued before Jehovah, and before His people.
19. Set your heart and your soul now to seek Jehovah your God. Arise, therefore, and build the sanctuary of Jehovah God, that the ark of the covenant of Jehovah and the vessels of the holy place of God may be brought into the church that is to be built for the name of Jehovah.”

1Chronicles 23

- ¶1. When David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel.
2. And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites.
3. And the Levites from the age of thirty years old and above were numbered, and their number of men, by their polls, was thirty-eight thousand.
4. Of these, David said, “Twenty-four thousand are to oversee the work of the church of Jehovah, six thousand are to be officers and judges,
5. four thousand are to be gatekeepers, and four thousand are to offer praise to Jehovah with the instruments that I have made for giving praise.”
6. And David divided them into courses according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
7. Of the Gershonites: Laadan and Shimei.
8. The sons of Laadan: Jehiel the chief, Zetham, and Joel, three.
9. The sons of Shimei: Shelomoth, Haziel, and Haran, three. These were chiefs of the fathers of Laadan.
10. And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah. These were the sons of Shimei, four.
11. And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah was the second, but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons. Therefore, they were in one reckoning, according to their father’s house.

12. The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.
13. The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. But Aaron was set apart to consecrate him for the most holy things, he and his sons forever, to burn incense before Jehovah, to minister to Him, and to bless in His name forever.
14. As for Moses, the man of God, his sons were named among the tribe of Levi.
15. The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer.
16. The sons of Gershom: Shebuel the chief.
17. And the sons of Eliezer: Rehabiah the chief. And Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.
18. The sons of Izhar: Shelomith the chief.
19. The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekame'am the fourth.
20. The sons of Uzziel: Micah the chief and Isshiah the second.
21. The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish.
22. And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters only, and their kinsmen, the sons of Kish, took them.
23. The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth, three.
24. These are the sons of Levi according to the house of their fathers, chiefs of the fathers. They were counted by number of names, by their polls, who did the work of the service of the church of Jehovah, from twenty years old and above.
25. For David said, "Jehovah, the God of Israel, has given rest to His people that they may dwell in Jerusalem forever.
26. And also concerning the Levites, they shall no longer bear the tabernacle, nor any of its accoutrements for its service."
27. For by the words of David (they were his last), the numbering of the sons of Levi was from twenty years old and above.
28. For their office was to be at the side of Aaron's sons for the service of the church of Jehovah, over the courts, and over the chambers, and over the purification of all that is holy, and the work of the service of the church of God,
29. and the bread of the rows, and the fine flour for the grain offering, and the unleavened wafers, and the griddle, and the baked things, and all measurement and weight,
30. and to stand every morning to give thanks and praise to Jehovah, and the same in the evening,
31. and to offer all the burnt offerings to Jehovah on the Sabbaths, the new moons, and the appointed times by number according to the ordinance for them continually before Jehovah,
32. and that they should keep the charge of the tent of meeting, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brothers, for the service of the church of Jehovah.

- ¶1. And the sons of Aaron by their courses: the sons of Aaron were Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.
2. But Nadab and Abihu died in the presence of their father, and they had no children. So, Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests.
 3. And David divided them, even Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.
 4. And there were found more chief men from the sons of Eleazar than from the sons of Ithamar. And they divided them, of the sons of Eleazar sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and of the sons of Ithamar eight of the house of their fathers.
 5. And they divided them by lots without distinction, for there were rulers of the sanctuary, even rulers of the gods, from the sons of Eleazar and the sons of Ithamar.
 6. And Shemaiah ben-Nethaneel, the scribe, one of the Levites, made a record of them before the king, the princes, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech ben-Abiathar, and the chiefs of the fathers of the priests and Levites: one father's house being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.
 7. And the first lot came out for Jehoiarib, the second for Jedaiah,
 8. the third for Harim, the fourth for Seorim,
 9. the fifth for Malchiah, the sixth for Mijamin,
 10. the seventh for Hakkoz, the eighth for Abijah,
 11. the ninth for Jeshua, the tenth for Shechaniah,
 12. the eleventh for Eliashib, the twelfth for Jakim,
 13. the thirteenth for Huppah, the fourteenth for Jeshebab,
 14. the fifteenth for Bilgah, the sixteenth for Immer,
 15. the seventeenth for Hezir, the eighteenth for Happizzez,
 16. the nineteenth for Pethahiah, the twentieth for Jehezekel,
 17. the twenty-first for Jachin, the twenty-second for Gamul,
 18. the twenty-third for Delaiah, the twenty-fourth for Maaziah.
 19. These were their appointments for their service to come to the church of Jehovah, according to their ordinance by the hand of Aaron their father, as Jehovah, the God of Israel, commanded him.

¶20. And the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael. Of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah.

 21. Of Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah.
 22. Of the Izharite, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath.
 23. And the sons of Hebron:¹³ Jeriah, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekame'am the fourth.
 24. The sons of Uzziel: Micah. Of the sons of Micah, Shamur.
 25. The brother of Micah was Isshiah. Of the sons of Isshiah, Zechariah.

¹³ See 1Chron. 23:19.

26. The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Jaaziah: Beno.
27. The sons of Merari by Jaaziah: Beno, Shoham, Zacchur, and Hebrew.
28. Of Mahli: Eleazar, but he had no sons.
29. Of Kish: the sons of Kish, Jerahmeel.
30. And the sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites by the house of their fathers.
31. And lots were also cast for them, just as for their brothers, the sons of Aaron, in the presence of David the king, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the chiefs of the fathers of the priests and Levites, fathers, the chief just as for his younger brother.

1Chronicles 25

- ¶1. And David and the captains of the host separated for service the sons of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, who prophesied with lyres, with harps, and with cymbals. And their number, workmen by their service was:
2. of the sons of Asaph: Zacchur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asarelah, the sons of Asaph under the direction of Asaph, who prophesied, according to the king's orders;
3. of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the direction of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a lyre to give thanks and praise to Jehovah;
4. of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth;
5. all these were the sons of Heman, the king's seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.
6. All these were under the direction of their fathers, Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman, for song in the church of Jehovah, with cymbals, harps, and lyres, for the service of the church of God, according to the king's orders.
7. And their number, with their kinsmen who were instructed in the songs of Jehovah, all who were skillful, was two hundred and eighty-eight.
8. And they cast lots, watch by watch, in order, for the lesser as for the greater, the teacher with the pupil.
9. And the first lot came out for Asaph to Joseph. The second for Gedaliah, he and his kinsmen and sons were twelve.
10. The third for Zacchur, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
11. The fourth for Izri, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
12. The fifth for Nethaniah, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
13. The sixth for Bukkiah, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
14. The seventh for Jesarelah, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
15. The eighth for Jeshaiah, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
16. The ninth for Mattaniah, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
17. The tenth for Shimei, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.

18. The eleventh for Azareel, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
19. The twelfth for Hashabiah, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
20. The thirteenth for Shubael, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
21. The fourteenth for Mattithiah, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
22. The fifteenth for Jeremoth, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
23. The sixteenth for Hananiah, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
24. The seventeenth for Joshbekashah, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
25. The eighteenth for Hanani, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
26. The nineteenth for Mallothi, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
27. The twentieth for Eliathah, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
28. The twenty-first for Hothir, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
29. The twenty-second for Giddalti, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
30. The twenty-third for Mahazioth, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.
31. The twenty-fourth for Romamti-ezer, his sons and his kinsmen, twelve.

1Chronicles 26

- ¶1. For the courses of the gatekeepers from the Korhites: Meshelemiah ben-Kor'e, of the sons of Asaph.
2. And the sons of Meshelemiah: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,
3. Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elihoenai the seventh.
4. And the sons of Obed-edom: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethaneel the fifth,
5. Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peullethai the eighth, for God blessed him.
6. And to his son Shemaiah were born sons, rulers of the house of their father, for they were mighty men of valor.
7. The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, Raphael, Obed, Elzabad, whose brothers were strong men, Elihu and Semaciah.
8. All these were of the sons of Obed-edom: they and their sons and their kinsmen, able men with strength for the service, were sixty-two from Obed-edom.
9. And Meshelemiah had sons and kinsmen, strong men, eighteen.
10. And Hosah, of the sons of Merari, had sons: Shimri the chief (for though he was not the firstborn, his father made him chief).
11. Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth. All the sons and kinsmen of Hosah were thirteen.
12. From these were the courses of the gatekeepers, from the chief men, having watches like those of their kinsmen, to minister in the church of Jehovah.
13. And they cast lots, for the lesser as for the greater, according to the house of their fathers, for each gate.
14. And the eastward lot fell to Shelemiah. And for Zechariah his son, a wise counsellor, they cast lots, and his lot came out for the north.

15. For Obed-edom, south, and to his sons, the store-house.
16. For Shuppim and Hosah, west, with the Shallecheth gate, by the road of ascent, watch beside watch.
17. Eastward were six Levites, northward, four each day, southward, four each day, and for the store-house, two and two.
18. At the Parbar, westward, four at the highway, and two at the Parbar.
19. These are the courses of the porters from the sons of the Korhite and from the sons of Merari.
20. And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of the church of God, even the treasures of holy things.
21. The sons of Laadan, the sons of the Gershonites belonging to Laadan, chiefs of the fathers of Laadan the Gershonite: Jehieli.
22. The sons of Jehieli: Zetham and Joel his brother, who were over the treasures of the church of Jehovah,
23. of the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites.
24. And Shebuel ben-Gershom, the son of Moses, was ruler over the treasures.
25. And his kinsmen by Eliezer: Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son, and Shelomoth his son.
26. This Shelomoth and his kinsmen were over all the treasures of holy things, which David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had dedicated.
27. From the spoils of battles, they had dedicated these to maintain the church of Jehovah.
28. And all that Samuel the seer, and Saul ben-Kish, and Abner ben-Ner, and Joab ben-Zeruiah had dedicated, all the dedicated things, were under the hand of Shelomith, and his kinsmen.
29. Of the Izharites: Chenaniah and his sons were assigned to outside duty concerning Israel, as officers and judges.
30. Of the Hebronites: Hashabiah and his kinsmen, men of valor, one thousand seven hundred, over the administration of Israel beyond the Jordan westward for all the work of Jehovah and the service of the king.
31. Of the Hebronites: Jerijah was the chief of the Hebronites, according to the generations of his fathers. In the fortieth year of David's reign, they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valor in Jazer of Gilead.
32. And his kinsmen, men of ability, were two thousand seven hundred chiefs of their fathers, and King David appointed them over the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God and business of the king.

1Chronicles 27

- ¶1. And the heads of the fathers of the children of Israel by their number, even the captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers who ministered to the king in any matter pertaining to the courses, who came in and went out month by month, for each month of the year, one course was twenty-four thousand.

2. Over the first course for the first month was Jashobe'am ben-Zabdiel, and in his course were twenty-four thousand.
3. Of the children of Pharez was the chief of all the captains of the host for the first month.
4. And over the course of the second month was Dodai the Ahohite, and over his course was Mikloth also the ruler, and in his course were twenty-four thousand.
5. The third captain of the host for the third month was Benaiah ben-Jehoiada the chief priest, and in his course were twenty-four thousand.
6. (This is Benaiah, a mighty man of the thirty, and over the thirty.) And in his course was Ammizabad his son.
7. The fourth, for the fourth month was Asahel, Joab's brother, and Zebadiah his son after him, and in his course were twenty-four thousand.
8. The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrach, and in his course were twenty-four thousand.
9. The sixth, for the sixth month was Ira ben-Ikkesh the Tekoite, and in his course were twenty-four thousand.
10. The seventh, for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim, and in his course were twenty-four thousand.
11. The eighth, for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zarhites, and in his course were twenty-four thousand.
12. The ninth, for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjaminites, and in his course were twenty-four thousand.
13. The tenth, for the tenth month was Mahrai the Netophathite, of the Zarhites, and in his course were twenty-four thousand.
14. The eleventh, for the eleventh month was Benajah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim, and in his course were twenty-four thousand.
15. The twelfth, for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel, and in his course were twenty-four thousand.
- ¶16. And over the tribes of Israel: the ruler of the Reubenites, Eliezer ben-Zichri; of the Simeonites, Shephatiah ben-Maacah;
17. of Levi, Hashabiah ben-Kemuel; of Aaron, Zadok;
18. of Judah, Elihu, one of David's brothers; of Issachar, Omri ben-Michael;
19. of Zebulun, Ishmaiah ben-Obadiah; of Naphtali, Jerimoth ben-Azriel;
20. of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea ben-Azaziah; of the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel ben-Pedaiah;
21. of the half tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo ben-Zechariah; of Benjamin, Jaasiel ben-Abner;
22. of Dan, Azareel ben-Jeroham. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.

23. Now David did not take the number of them from twenty years old and under because Jehovah had said He would multiply Israel like the stars of heaven.
24. Joab ben-Zeruiah began to number the people, but he did not finish. And wrath came upon Israel because of this, and the number was not put into the account of the chronicles of King David.
25. And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth ben-Adiel. And over the storehouses in the country, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the towers was Jonathan ben-Uzziah.
26. And over those who did the work of the field, to labor on the land was Ezri ben-Chelub.
27. And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite, and over the vintage for the wine stores was Zabdi the Shiphmite.
28. And over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the Shephelah was Baalhanan the Gederite. And over the oil storehouses was Joash.
29. And over the herds that pastured in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite, and over the herds in the valleys was Shaphat ben-Adlai.
30. And over the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite, and over the she-asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite.
31. And over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagrite. All these were overseers of King David's substance.
32. And Jonathan, David's uncle was a counselor; he was a man of understanding and a scribe. And Jehiel ben-Hachmoni was with the sons of the king.
33. And Ahithophel was the king's counselor, and Hushai the Archite was the king's friend.
34. And after Ahithophel was Jehoiada ben-Benaiah, and Abiathar. And the commander of the king's army was Joab.

1Chronicles 28

- ¶1. And David assembled all the rulers of Israel, the rulers of the tribes, and the chiefs of the courses who ministered to the king, and the captains over thousands, and the captains over hundreds, and the overseers over all the substance and cattle of the king and his sons, with the officers, and the mighty men, and all the men of valor to Jerusalem.
2. And King David rose to his feet, and he said, "Hear me, my brothers, and my people. I had it in my heart to build a place of rest for the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, and for the footstool of our God, and I made preparations to build."
3. But God said to me, 'You shall not build a church for my name because you have been a man of war and have shed blood.'
4. Yet, Jehovah, the God of Israel, chose me from all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever. For He chose Judah to be the ruler, and in the house of Judah, the house of my father, and among my father's sons, He was pleased with me, to make me king over all Israel.

5. And from all my sons (for Jehovah gave me many sons), He has also chosen Solomon my son to sit on the throne of the kingdom of Jehovah over Israel.
 6. And He said to me, ‘Solomon your son, he shall build my church and my courts, for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be a father to him.
 7. And I will establish his kingdom forever if he resolutely keeps my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.’
 8. So, in the sight of all Israel, the Assembly of Jehovah, and in the hearing of our God, keep now and seek after all the commandments of Jehovah your God, so that you may possess the good land, and leave it as an inheritance for your children after you forever.
 9. And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father, and serve Him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind, for Jehovah searches all hearts, and knows every intention of thoughts. If you seek Him, He will let Himself be found by you, but if you forsake Him, He will reject you forever.
 10. Consider now, for Jehovah has chosen you to build the church for the sanctuary. Be strong and do it!”
- ¶11. Then David gave to Solomon his son: the pattern of the porch, and its buildings, and its treasures, and its upper chambers, and its inner chambers, and the place of the mercy-seat,
12. and the pattern of all that he had by the Spirit for courts of the church of Jehovah, and for all the chambers round about, for the treasures of the church of God, and for the treasures of holy things,
 13. and the courses of the priests and Levites, and for all the work for the service of the church of Jehovah, and for all the accoutrements for the service of the church of Jehovah,
 14. for the gold by weight, the gold for the accoutrements for each service, for all the accoutrements of silver by weight, for all the accoutrements of each service,
 15. and weight for the gold menorahs and their gold lamps, by weight for each menorah and its lamps, and for the silver menorahs by weight, for a menorah and its lamps according to the service of each menorah,
 16. and the gold by weight for the tables of the rows, for each table, and silver for the silver tables,
 17. and the meat-hooks, the basins, and the cups of pure gold, and for the gold bowls, by weight for each bowl, and for the silver bowls, by weight for each bowl,
 18. and for the incense altar refined gold by weight, and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the cherubim that spread their wings and covered the ark of the covenant of Jehovah.”
 19. David said, “All this came in writing by the hand of Jehovah upon me. He gave me understanding of all the works of this pattern.”

20. Then David said to Solomon his son, “Be strong and courageous, and do it. Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for Jehovah God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you nor forsake you until you finish all the work for the service of the church of Jehovah.
21. And behold, the courses of the priests and Levites are for all the service of the church of God, and with you for every manner of work is every willing and skillful man for all the service. And the rulers and all the people will be entirely at your command.”

1Chronicles 29

- ¶1. And king David said to all the Assembly, “Solomon my son, whom alone God has chosen is young and tender, and the work is great, for the temple is not for man but for Jehovah God.
2. And I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God gold for gold objects, and silver for silver objects, and bronze for the bronze objects, and iron for the iron things, and wood for wooden things, precious stones, and stones for setting in antimony, and of divers color, and all manner of precious stone, and alabaster in abundance.
3. And besides, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, there is my own gold and silver that I have given for the house of my God, over and above all that I prepared for the holy house:
4. three thousand talents of gold, gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the house,
5. gold for gold objects, and silver for the silver objects, and for all manner of work by the hands of craftsmen. Who then is willing to dedicate his hand today to Jehovah?”
6. Then the chief fathers, and the rulers of the tribes of Israel, and the captains over thousands, and the captains over hundreds, and the overseers of the king’s business offered willingly,
7. and they gave for the service of the house of God five thousand gold talents and ten thousand drams, and ten thousand talents of silver, and eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.
8. And whoever possessed stones gave them into the treasury of the church of Jehovah by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.
9. And the people rejoiced because they offered it willingly, for with a perfect heart did they offer it freely to Jehovah. And King David also rejoiced greatly.
10. And David blessed Jehovah in the sight of all the Assembly, and he said, “Blessed are you, O Lord, the God of Israel, forever and ever.
11. Yours, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty, for all that is in the heavens and in the earth. To you, O Lord, is the dominion, and you are exalted above all as the head.
12. And riches and honor come from you, and you rule over all, and in your hand is power and might. And it is in your hand to make great, and to strengthen all.

13. And now, our God, we thank you and give praises to your glorious name.
14. But who am I, and who are my people that we should be able to offer freely in this manner? For everything comes from you, and we have given to you what was from your hand.
15. For we are strangers before you, even sojourners, as were all our fathers. Our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no hope.
16. O Lord our God, all this abundance that we have prepared to build a house for your holy name is from your hand; it is all yours.
17. And I know, my God, that you test the heart and take pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things, and now I have seen with joy your people who are present here offer willingly to you.
18. O Lord, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel our fathers, preserve this purpose and the intentions of the heart of your people forever, and set their heart toward you.
19. And give to Solomon my son a perfect heart to keep your commandments, your testimonies, and your statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the temple for which I have made provision.”
20. And David said to all the Assembly, “Bless Jehovah your God now.” And all the Assembly blessed Jehovah, the God of their fathers, and they bowed and did obeisance to Jehovah, and the king.
21. And they offered sacrifices to Jehovah and made burnt offerings to Jehovah on the next day: a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.
22. And they ate and drank before Jehovah on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon ben-David king the second time, and anointed him before Jehovah to be the sovereign, and Zadok to be priest.
23. Then Solomon sat on the throne of Jehovah as king instead of David his father. And he prospered and all Israel obeyed him.
24. And all the rulers, and the mighty men, and all the sons of King David also submitted themselves to King Solomon.
25. And Jehovah magnified Solomon exceedingly in the eyes of all Israel, and He gave him royal majesty that had never been upon any king over Israel before him.
26. And David ben-Jesse reigned over all Israel.
27. And the days that he reigned over Israel were forty years. In Hebron, he reigned seven years, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years.
28. And he died at a good age, full of days, riches, and honor. And Solomon his son reigned in his place.
29. Now the acts of King David the first and the last, behold, they are written in the chronicles of Samuel the seer, and in the chronicles of Nathan the prophet, and in the chronicles of Gad the seer,
30. with all his reign, and his might, and the times that passed over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the earth.

2Chronicles

2Chronicles 1

- ¶1. And Solomon ben-David strengthened himself over his kingdom, and Jehovah his God was with him, and he was made exceedingly great.
2. And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to captains of thousands, and of hundreds, and to governors, and to every chief of all Israel, the heads of the fathers.
3. So, Solomon and all the assembly went with him to the high place that was at Gibeon, for the tent of meeting of God was there which Moses, the servant of Jehovah, made in the wilderness.
4. But, the ark of God David had brought forth from Kirjath-Jearim where David prepared a place for it, for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.
5. Also, the bronze altar that Bezaleel ben-Uri, ben-Hur had made, he placed before the tabernacle of Jehovah, and Solomon and the assembly sought Jehovah before it.
6. And there, Solomon went up to the bronze altar before Jehovah that was at the tent of meeting and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.
7. During that night, God appeared to Solomon and said to him, “Ask what I shall give you.”
8. Then Solomon said to God, “You have shown great loving kindness to David my father, and you have made me king in his stead.
9. Now, O Jehovah God, let your word with David my father be established for you have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth.
10. Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I might go out and come in before this people, for who can judge this nation of yours, which is so great?”
11. And God said to Solomon, “Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked for riches, possessions, or glory, nor for the life of your enemies, nor yet did you ask for long life, but you have asked for yourself wisdom and knowledge that you might judge my people over whom I have made you king,
12. that wisdom and that knowledge are granted to you, and I will give you riches, and possessions, and glory such as none of the kings had who were before you, and after you, there shall not be the like.”
13. Then Solomon came from the high place that was at Gibeon from before the tent of meeting to Jerusalem, and he reigned over Israel.
14. And Solomon gathered a chariotry, and horsemen and he had fourteen hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.
15. And the king made silver and gold likened to stones in Jerusalem, and he made the cedar trees likened to sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance.
16. Moreover, Solomon’s source for horses that he had, came from Egypt and from Kue, and the king’s merchants took them from Kue at market a price.

17. And they came up and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty shekels, and thus by their hand they brought them out to all the kings of the Hittites and to the kings of Aram.

2Chronicles 2

- ¶1. And Solomon was intent to build a house for the name of Jehovah and a house for his kingdom.
- 2. And Solomon numbered seventy thousand men to bear burdens, and eighty thousand men to hew in the mountain, and three thousand six hundred to oversee them.
- ¶3. And Solomon sent to Huram, King of Tyre, saying, “Deal with me as you dealt with my father David when you sent him cedars to build a house for him to dwell in.
- 4. Behold, I am building a house for the name of Jehovah my God, to consecrate it to Him, to offer before Him pungent incense, and continual showbread, and burnt offerings morning and evening, for sabbaths, and for new moons, and for appointed feasts of Jehovah our God. Forever shall this be an ordinance for Israel.
- 5. Moreover, the house that I am building will be great, for our God is greater than all the gods.
- 6. But who is able to build Him a house? Indeed, the heavens, even the heavens of heavens, cannot contain Him! And who am I that I should build Him a house, except to offer incense before Him?
- 7. So, send me now a man skilled to work in gold, and silver, and bronze, and iron, and purple, and crimson, and blue, and who knows how to engrave engravings with the skillful men who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem whom David my father has provided.
- 8. Send me also cedar, cypress, and algum trees from Lebanon, for I know that your servants know how to cut the trees of Lebanon, and behold, my servants will be with your servants.
- 9. And provide for me timber in abundance because the house that I am building is great and will cause wonder.
- 10. And behold, I will give to your servants, the hewers who cut timber, twenty thousand cors of beaten wheat, twenty thousand cors of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.”
- ¶11. And Huram, King of Tyre, answered in writing that he sent to Solomon, “Because Jehovah loves His people, He has made you king over them.”
- 12. Huram also said, “Blessed be Jehovah, God of Israel, who made the heavens and the earth, who has given to David the King a wise son endowed with discretion and understanding, who will build a house for Jehovah and a house for his kingdom.
- 13. So, I have now sent a wise man endowed with understanding, Huram-Abi,

14. the son of a woman from the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilled to work with gold, and with silver, with bronze, with iron, with stone, and with wood, with purple, with blue, and with fine linen, and with crimson, and to engrave any engraving, and to execute any plan that is given to him, with your wise men and the wise men of my lord David, your father.
 15. And the wheat and barley, the oil and the wine that my lord has spoken of, let him now send them to his servants.
 16. And we will cut trees from Lebanon as much as you need, and we will bring them to you by sea on rafts to Joppa. Then you will take them up to Jerusalem.”
- ¶17. Then Solomon numbered all the men who were sojourners in the land of Israel, after the numbering by which his father David had numbered them, and one hundred fifty-three thousand six hundred were found.
18. Of them, he made seventy thousand burden bearers, and eighty thousand hewers in the mountain, and three thousand six hundred overseers to make the people work.

2Chronicles 3

- ¶1. And Solomon began to build the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where He appeared to David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
2. And he began to build in the second month, on the second day, in the fourth year of his reign.
3. Now these are the measurements of the foundation laid by Solomon for building the house of God: the length in cubits (by the former measure) was sixty cubits, and the width was twenty cubits.
4. And the porch that was in front was twenty cubits long, corresponding to the width of the house, and the height was one hundred and twenty, and he overlaid it within with pure gold.
5. And the greater house, he overlaid with cypress boards, and he overlaid them with pure gold and wrought on them palms and chains.
6. And he adorned the house with costly stone for beauty, and the gold was gold of Parvaim,
7. and he overlaid the house—the beams, the thresholds, and its walls, and its doors—with gold, and he engraved cherubim on the walls.
8. And he made the Most Holy Place. Its length was according to the width of the house, twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits, and he overlaid it with six hundred talents of pure gold.
9. And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold, and he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.
10. And he made within the Most Holy Place two cherubim of carved work, and he overlaid them with gold.

11. As for the wings of the cherubim, their length was twenty cubits. The one wing was five cubits, touching a wall of the house, and the other wing was five cubits touching the wing of the other cherub.
12. And the wing of the other cherub was five cubits, touching a wall of the house, and the other wing was five cubits, joined to the wing of the other cherub.
13. The wings of these cherubim spread out twenty cubits, and they stood upon their feet, and their faces were toward the house.¹
- ¶14. And he made the veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and he wrought cherubim upon it.
- ¶15. He also made in front of the house two pillars thirty-five cubits in length, with an overlaid chapter of five cubits on top of each.
- ¶16. He also made chains before the oracle and put them on top of the pillars, and he made a hundred pomegranates and put them on the chains.
- ¶17. And he raised the pillars in front of the temple, one on the right and one on the left, and he called the name of the one on the right, Jachin, and the name of the one on the left, Boaz.

2Chronicles 4

- ¶1. And he made a bronze altar. Its length was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits, and its height was ten cubits.
2. And he made the molten sea, circular, ten cubits from its brim to its brim all around. And its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits compassed it about.
3. And under it was the likeness of oxen surrounding it round about, ten cubits encompassing the sea all around. Two rows of oxen were cast when it was cast.
4. It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, and three facing west, and three facing south, and three facing east. And the sea was above them, and all their back parts were inward.
5. And its thickness was a handbreadth, and its rim was made like the rim of a cup, like a lily flower. It was able to contain three-thousand baths.
6. He also made ten lavers, and he put five on the right and five on the left to wash in them: they rinsed the work of the burnt offering in them. And the sea was for the priests to wash in.
- ¶7. And he made ten menorahs of gold according to their specification, and he put them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left.
8. And he made ten tables, and he placed them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left. And he made a hundred basins of gold.

¹ Or, “their faces were inward”.

- ¶9. He also made the court of the priests, and the great court, and gates for the court, and he overlaid their gates with bronze.
10. And he placed the sea on the right side of the house, toward the southeast.
- ¶11. And Huram made the pans, and the shovels, and the basins. And Huram finished doing all the work that he made for King Solomon for the house of God:
12. two pillars, and two bowls of the chapters were on the top of the two pillars, and the two lattice-works for covering the two bowls of the chapters that were on the top of the pillars;
13. and four hundred pomegranates for the two lattice-works, two rows of pomegranates for one lattice-work for covering the two bowls of the chapters that were on the faces of the pillars;
14. and he made bases, and he made lavers on the bases;
15. the one sea and the twelve oxen underneath it;
16. and the pans, and the shovels, and the meathooks. And all the vessels Huram-Abi made for King Solomon for the house of Jehovah were polished bronze.
17. The King cast them in the area of the Jordan, in the clayey ground between Succoth and Zeredathah.
18. And Solomon made all these vessels, so very many that the weight of the bronze could not be ascertained.
- ¶19. And Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of God: even the altar of gold; and the tables; and the Bread of the Presence on them;
20. and the menorahs; and their lamps of pure gold, to burn according to the ordinance before the oracle;
21. and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold (it was purest gold);
22. and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the fire-pans, of pure gold; the entrance of the house, its innermost doors to the Most Holy Place; and doors of the house for the temple, of gold.

2Chronicles 5

- ¶1. So, all the work that Solomon did for the house of Jehovah was completed. And Solomon brought in the things his father David had consecrated. And the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels, he put into the treasuries of the house of God.
- ¶2. Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chiefs of the fathers of the sons of Israel, to Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah from the city of David, that is, Zion.
3. And all the men of Israel assembled themselves to the King for the feast, which is in the seventh month.
4. And all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark.
5. And they brought up the ark, and the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the tent, and the priests and the Levites brought them up.

6. And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel that were gathered to him before the ark began sacrificing sheep and oxen which could not be counted or numbered for multitude.
7. And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of Jehovah to its place, the oracle of the house, the Most Holy Place, beneath the wings of the cherubim,
8. and the cherubim spread two wings over the place of the ark, and from above, the cherubim covered over the ark and its poles.
9. And the poles were extended so that the ends of the poles of the ark could be seen before the oracle, but they could not be seen outside. And it is there to this day.
10. Nothing was in the ark except the two tablets that Moses put there at Horeb when Jehovah made a covenant with the sons of Israel when they came out from Egypt.
11. And it came to pass when the priests came out from the holy place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves—no one was keeping the courses—
12. and the Levites who were singers—all of them, Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons, and their brothers—were clothed in fine linen, with cymbals and with harps and lyres, were standing east of the altar, and with them, one hundred and twenty priests sounding on the clarions,
13. and those sounding the clarions and the singers were as one, making one sound to praise and give thanks to Jehovah when they lifted their voice with the clarions, and cymbals, and instruments of song,) that they gave praise to Jehovah because He is good and His mercy endures forever, that then a cloud filled the house, the house of Jehovah.
14. And the priests were not able to stand to minister before the cloud because Jehovah's glory filled the house of God.

2Chronicles 6

- ¶1. Then Solomon said, “Jehovah said that He would dwell in thick darkness.
2. But I have indeed built you a majestic house, and a fixed place for you to dwell in forever.”
3. And the king turned his face and blessed all the congregation of Israel, and all the congregation of Israel was standing.
4. And he said, “Blessed be Jehovah, God of Israel, who with His hands has fulfilled that which He spoke with His mouth to my father David, saying,
5. ‘From the day I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, that my name may be there, and I chose no man to be leader over my people Israel.
6. Yet, I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there, and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.’
7. And it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of Jehovah, God of Israel.

8. And Jehovah said to David my father, ‘Forasmuch as it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you have done well, in that it was in your heart.
9. Yet, you will not build the house, but your son, who will come forth from your loins; he will build the house for my name.’
10. And Jehovah caused His word to stand which He spoke, for I have risen up in the place of my father David, and I sit on the throne of Israel, as Jehovah said, and I have built the house for the name of Jehovah, God of Israel.
11. And there, I have placed the ark, in which is the covenant of Jehovah that He made with the sons of Israel.”
12. And he stood before the altar of Jehovah in the presence of all the Assembly of Israel, and he spread his hands.
13. For Solomon had made a bronze platform and he placed it in the midst of the court. Its length was five cubits, and its width was five cubits, and its height was three cubits, and he stood on it. Then he knelt down upon his knees before all the assembly, and spread out his hands to heaven,
14. And he said, “O Jehovah, God of Israel, there is no god like you in the heavens or on the earth, preserving the covenant and loving kindness for your servants who walk before you with all their heart,
15. you who have kept for your servant David my father what you spoke to him. Yea, you spoke with your mouth, and with your hand you have fulfilled it, as at this day.
16. And now, O Jehovah, God of Israel, keep for your servant David, my father, that which you spoke to him, saying, “You will not lack a man before me to sit upon the throne of Israel—if only your sons take heed to their way, to walk according to my law as you have walked before me.”
17. And now, O God of Israel, let your word be established which you spoke to your servant David.
18. But will God indeed dwell with man upon the earth? Behold, heaven—even the heaven of heavens—cannot contain you! How much less this house that I have built?
19. Yet, you have regarded the prayer of your servant and his supplication, O Jehovah, my God, that you would hear the cry and the prayer that your servant is praying before you,
20. that your eyes be open toward this house night and day, toward the place of which you said, ‘You would put your name there,’ that you hear the prayer that your servant prays toward this place,
21. and hear the supplications of your servant and your people Israel when they pray toward this place, and hear from your dwelling-place, even from heaven; yea, hear and forgive.
22. If a man sins against his fellow, and an oath be laid upon him that he is made to swear, and the oath comes before your altar in this house,

23. may you hear from heaven, and act, and judge your servants, to recompense the wicked, setting his wicked way upon his head, and justifying the righteous, to give to him according to his righteousness.
24. And if your people Israel are smitten before an enemy because they have sinned against you, and they turn back to you and confess your name, and they pray and plead for mercy before you in this house,
25. then you hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them back to the land that you gave to them and to their fathers.
26. When the heavens are shut up, and there is no rain because they have sinned against you, and they pray toward this place, and they confess your name, and turn from their sin when you afflict them,
27. then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants, even your people Israel, that you may teach them the good way in which they should walk and give rain to your land that you gave to your people for an inheritance.
28. If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, blight, and mildew, swarming locust, and destroying locust, if it come to pass that their enemy presses hard on them in the land at their gates—whatever affliction, and whatever illness—
29. any prayer, any supplication by any man or by all your people Israel if (? ashare) they confess, each man his affliction, and his grief, and he spreads out his hands toward this house,
30. then hear from heaven, your dwelling place, and forgive, and give to every man according to all his ways, for you will know his heart (for you, you alone, know the heart of the sons of man),
31. that they may fear you, to walk in your ways, all the days that they live on the face of the land that you gave to our fathers.
32. And hear also the foreigner who is not of your people Israel when he comes from a distant land because of your great renown, and of your mighty hand, and of your out-stretched arm. When they come and pray toward this house,
33. and hear from heaven, your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner cries out to you, so that all peoples of the earth may know your name, to fear you as do your people Israel, and to know that this house which I have built is called by your name.
34. When your people go out to battle against their enemies in the way that you send them, and they pray to you toward this city that you have chosen and the house that I have built for your name,
35. then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and uphold their cause.
36. When they sin against you (for there is no man who does not sin), and you become angry with them and deliver them before an enemy, and they take them away as their captives to a land, far or near,

37. but they turn back their heart in the land in which they were taken captive, and they repent and make supplication in the land of their captors, saying, ‘We have sinned and committed iniquity! We have done wickedness!',
38. and they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity which they were carried captive, and they pray to you toward their land that you gave to their fathers, and the city which you have chosen, and the house that I have built for your name,
39. then from heaven, your dwelling place, hear their prayer and their supplications, and uphold their cause. And forgive your people who have sinned against you.
40. Now, O my God, I pray, let your eyes be open and your ears be attentive to the prayer of this place.

Note: Psalm 132:7&8

41. And now, O LORD God, arise to your place of rest, you, and the ark of your strength, let your priests be clothed with salvation, O LORD God, and let your saints rejoice in your goodness.
42. O LORD God! Do not turn away the face of your anointed one! Remember the mercies of David your servant!

2Chronicles 7

- ¶1. And then Solomon finished praying, and the fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of Jehovah filled the house.
2. And the priests were not able to enter into the house of Jehovah because the glory of Jehovah had filled the house of Jehovah.
3. When all the children of Israel saw the fire come down and the glory of Jehovah upon the house, they bowed down with their faces to the ground on the pavement, and prostrated themselves, and gave praise to Jehovah saying, “Because He is good; for His loving kindness endures forever!”
4. And the king and all the people offered sacrifices before Jehovah.
5. And King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty two thousand oxen, and one hundred twenty thousand sheep. And the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.
6. And the priests stood over their charges, also the Levites with instruments of song before Jehovah, that King David had made to give thanks to Jehovah, for His loving kindness endures forever. When David praised by their hands, and the priests sounded clarions before them, then all Israel stood.
7. And Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that was before the house of Jehovah, for there he made burnt offerings and the fat of the peace-offerings because the bronze altar that Solomon made could not contain the burnt offering and the grain offering, and the fat.

8. During that time, Solomon made the feast last seven days and all Israel with him, a very great assembly, from the entering in of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt.
9. And on the eighth day they made a solemn assembly because they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.
10. And on the twenty third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that Jehovah had done unto David and to Solomon, and to Israel His people.
11. So, Solomon completed the house of Jehovah and the house of the king. And all that came unto the heart of Solomon to do in the house of Jehovah, and in his own house he made to prosper.
12. And Jehovah appeared to Solomon by night and said to him, “I have heard your prayer, and I have chosen this place for myself for a house of sacrifice.
13. If I shut up the heavens so there is no rain, and if I command the locust to consume the land, or if I send forth a plague among my people,
14. then if my people who are called by my name will humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their evil ways, then I will hear from heaven, and forgive their sins, and heal their land.
15. Now my eyes are open and my ears attentive to the payer of this place.
16. And now, I have chosen and sanctified this house for my name will be there forever, also my eyes and my heart will be there forever.
17. And you, if you walk before me as your father David walked, and do according to all that I command you, and keep my statutes and judgments,
18. then will I establish the throne of your kingdom, according to the covenant I made with David your father, saying, “You will not fail to have a man ruling in Israel.”
19. But, if you turn away and forsake my statutes and my commandments that I placed before you, and depart, and serve other gods, and bow down to them,
20. then I will pluck them (you ?) up from my land that I gave to them, and this house which I sanctified for my name I will cast from before my face, and I will make it a byword and a mockery among all nations.
21. And this house that was exalted to everyone who passed by will be appalled, and say, ‘Wherein has Jehovah done thus to this land and to this house?’
22. Then they will say, ‘Because they forsook Jehovah, God of their fathers, who brought them out from the land of Egypt, and they took hold on other gods, and bowed down to them and served them. Therefore, He brought all this evil upon them.’”

2Chronicles 8

1. And it came to pass, at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the house of Jehovah, and his own house,
2. and the cities which Hiram had given to Solomon, Solomon rebuilt them, and caused the children of Israel to live there.

3. And Solomon went to Hamath-Zobah and prevailed against it.
4. He also built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the storage cities, which he built in Hamath.
5. He also built Upper Beth-horon, and Lower Beth-horon, (see map book, pg. 61, x5) cities enclosed with walls, two gates and bars,
6. and Baalath, and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and the chariot cities and the cities of the horsemen, and of all Solomon's desire that he longed to build in Jerusalem and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.
7. And all the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the sons of Israel,
8. from their sons that were left behind in the land whom the sons of Israel were not able to completely destroy, Solomon raised them a levy forced laborers (or bond-service? Compare 1K9:21) unto this day.
9. But of the sons of Israel that (?) Solomon did not put in place bondservants for his work because they were men of war, even his officials, and his officers, and his captains of the chariotry, and his horsemen.
10. And these were the chief officers that King Solomon had, two hundred fifty that had charge over the people.
11. And Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the city of David to the house that he built for her because he said, "My wife will not dwell in the house of David, king of Israel for they are (it is?) holy to which the ark of Jehovah has come."
12. Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to Jehovah upon the altar of Jehovah that he built before the porch,
13. even by a day's portion every day, offering according to the command of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the appointed seasons three times a in the year—Feast of Unleavened Bread, and the Feast of Weeks, and in the Feast of Booths.
14. And he appointed, according to the ordinance of David, his father the courses of the priests over their labors, and the Levites to their charges, to praise and serve before the priests according to the matter as each day required, and gatekeepers by their courses at each gate. For so was the command of David, a man of God.
15. And they did not turn from the commandment of the king unto the priests, and the Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures.
16. And all the work of Solomon was prepared until the day of the foundation of the house of Jehovah, and until it was completed, and the house of Jehovah was perfect.
17. Then Solomon went to Ezion-Geber and to Elath, unto the seashore in the land of Edom.
18. And Hiram sent to him, by the hands of his servants, ships, and servants who had knowledge of the sea, and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took from there four hundred fifty talents of gold, and brought it to King Solomon.

- ¶1. When the Queen of Sheba upon hearing of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with difficult questions along with a great display of wealth, and camels bearing spices and an abundance of gold and precious stones, and she came unto Solomon and spoke to him with all that was on her heart.
- 2. And Solomon made known to her all her matters and there was not a thing hidden from Solomon that he could not reveal to her.
- 3. When the Queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon and the house that he had built,
- 4. and the food of his table, and the assembly of his servants, and the standing of his attendants and their raiment, and his cup-bearers, and his burnt offerings that he offered up in the house of Jehovah, there was no more breath in her.
- 5. Then she said to the king, “The report that I heard in my land of your words and wisdom was true.
- 6. And I did not believe their words until I came and saw with my own eyes, and behold the half of your greatness and wisdom was not told to me, for you exceed the report that I heard.
- 7. Happy are your men, and happy are these your servants who stand continually before you, and who hear your wisdom.
- 8. Blessed be Jehovah your God who delighted in you, to set you upon his throne to be king for Jehovah your God in the love of your God to Israel, to establish them forever. He made you king and set you over them, to execute judgment and righteousness.”
- 9. And she gave to the king one hundred twenty talents of gold and a great abundance of spices and precious stones. Never was there any such spice as the Queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.
- 10. Moreover, the servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon that brought gold from Ophir, also brought algum trees and precious stones.
- 11. And the king made of algum trees (stairways?) for the house of Jehovah and for the house of the king, also lyres, and harps for the singers, and never was seen the like of them before in all the land of Judah.
- 12. And King Solomon gave to the Queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked for, apart from what she had brought to the king. So, she turned, and departed to her own land, she and her servants.
- 13. And it came to pass, the weight of the gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty six talents of gold,
- 14. apart from what the explorers and the traders brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the land brought gold and silver to Solomon.
- 15. And King Solomon made two hundred shields of beaten gold. Six hundred shekels of beaten gold went into one shield,
- 16. and three hundred bucklers of beaten gold. Three hundred shekels of gold went into one buckler. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

17. The king also made a great ivory throne and overlaid it with pure gold.
18. And six steps lead up to the throne, and a golden footstool was fastened to the throne. And there were supports on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions which stood beside the supports.
19. And there stood twelve lions upon the six steps, one on each side. Thus, the like of it has not been made for any other kingdom.
20. Moreover, all of king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. None were made of silver, for silver was not accounted for anything in the days of Solomon.
21. For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram, once every three years. The ships came from Tarshish carrying gold and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.
22. So, King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom.
23. Moreover, all the kings of the earth were seeking the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom that God had put in his heart.
24. And each of them brought his tribute, year after year by this matter: they brought vessels silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, weapons, and spices, horses, and mules.
25. And so it was, that Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, an twelve thousand horsemen which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king in Jerusalem.
26. And it came to pass, that he reigned over all the kings from the River, even to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.
27. And the king made silver likened to stones in Jerusalem, and he made the cedar trees likened to sycamore trees that were in the lowland for abundance.
28. And they brought horses to Solomon from Egypt, and from all the lands.
29. Furthermore, the rest of the acts of Solomon from the beginning even unto the end, are they not written according to the writings of Nathan the prophet, and according to the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam ben-Nebat?
30. And Solomon ruled in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.
31. So, Solomon slept with his fathers and was buried in the City of David, his father, Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

2Chronicles 10

- ¶1. And Rehoboam went to Shechem for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king.
2. It came to pass, that Jeroboam ben-Nebat who was in Egypt heard this for he had fled from the presence of King Solomon. And Jeroboam dwelled in Egypt).
3. And they sent and called him, and Jeroboam and all Israel came in, and they spoke to Rehoboam saying,

4. "Your father made our yoke burdensome, and now lighten the burdensome service of your father, and his heavy yoke that he place upon us, and we will serve you."
5. The he said to them, "Go away for three days, then return to me." And the people left.
6. And Rehoboam the king consulted with the old men that stood in the presence of Solomon his father when he was yet alive saying, "How do you advise me to return an answer to this people".
7. And they spoke to him saying, "If today you will be good to this people and please them, and speaking good words to them, then they will be your servants forever."
8. But, he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had advised him, and he consulted with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him.
9. And he said to them, "What counsel do you give that we might return an answer to this people, who have spoken to me saying, 'Make the yoke that your father put on us lighter.'"
10. And the young men that brought up him spoke to him saying, "Thus you speak to this people that spoke to you saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but now you make it lighter on us'. Thus you say to them, 'my little finger will be thicker than my father's loins'.
11. 'And now, whereas my father laid a heavy yoke on you, even I will add to your yoke; my father chastened you with whips, but I will chasten you with scorpions.'
12. Then Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day just as the king had spoken saying, "Return to me on the third day."
13. And the king answered them severely, and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men.
14. And he spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men saying, "My father made the yoke upon you heavy, but I will add to it; my father chastened you with whips, but I will chasten you with scorpions."
15. Therefore, the king would not listen to the people for it was a turn of affairs by God in order that Jehovah may establish His word that He spoke by the hand off Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam ben-Nebat.
16. And all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them. Therefore, the people sent back word to the king saying, "What portion do we have in David? and neither do we have an inheritance in the son of Jesse." " Every man to your tents, O Israel! Now look to your own house, O David!" And Israel went to their tents.
17. However, Rehoboam reigned over the children of Israel that dwelled in the cities of Judah.

18. And king Rehoboam sent Hadoram who was over the forced labor, but the children Israel stoned him with stones and he died. Then king Rehoboam strengthened himself to get up to His chariot in order to escape to Jerusalem.
19. Therefore, Israel rebelled against the house of David even to this day.

2Chronicles 11

- ¶1. And Rehoboam came to Jerusalem and assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, a hundred eighty thousand chosen men, to wage war against Israel in order to bring back the kingdom to Rehoboam.
2. But it came to pass, that the word of Jehovah came to Shemiah, a man of God saying,
3. "Speak to Rehoboam ben-Solomon the king of Judah and to all the house of Judah, and Benjamin, saying,
4. Thus says Jehovah, 'Do not go up, nor wage war against your brothers. Each man return to his house, for this thing is of me!'" So they obeyed the word of Jehovah and turned back from going against Jeroboam.
5. And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and he built fortress cities in Judah.
6. And he built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,
7. Beth-Zur, Socho, Adullam,
8. Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,
9. Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,
10. Zorah, Ajalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and Benjamin, fortress cities.
11. And he strengthened the fortifications, and appointed commanders in them, and stores of food, and oil, and wine.
12. And he put in each city shields, and spears, and made them very strong, and Judah and Benjamin were with him.
13. And the priests and Levites who were throughout Israel came to him from all their districts.
14. For the Levites had left their fields and their possession, and come to Judah and Jerusalem because Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them from serving as priests to Jehovah.
15. And he appointed his own priests for the high places, and for the demons, and for the calves that he made.
16. And after them, some from all the tribes of Israel, the ones who set their hearts to seek Jehovah, the God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to Jehovah, the God of their fathers.
17. So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah and made Rehoboam ben-Solomon strong for three years, because they walked in the ways of David and Solomon for three years.
18. And Rehoboam took a wife for himself, Mahalath, the daughter of Jerimoth ben-David, and Abihail, the daughter of Eliab ben-Jesse.
19. And she bore him sons: Jeush, Shamariah, and Zaham.

20. And after her he took Maachah, the daughter of Absalom, and she bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.
21. And Rehoboam loved Maachah, the daughter of Absalom more than all his wives and his concubines, for he took eighteen wives, and sixty concubines, and he fathered twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.
22. So, Rehoboam appointed Abijah, the son of Maachah, as the chief prince among his brothers, that he might be made king.
23. And acted with wisdom, and he distributed some of his sons throughout all the regions of Judah and Benjamin to all the fortified cities, and he gave them food in abundance. And he sought many wives for them.

2Chronicles 12

- ¶1. But it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom and had strengthened himself, that he forsook the law of Jehovah, and all Israel with him.
2. And it came to pass, in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, that Shishak the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, (because they had transgressed against Jehovah)
3. with twelve hundred chariots, and sixty thousand horsemen, and the people who came with from Egypt were without number, Libyans {Dan. 11:43; Nah. 3:9}), Sukkiim, and Ethiopians.
4. And he took the fortified cities of Judah and came to Jerusalem.
5. And Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah who had gathered at Jerusalem because of Shishak, and he said to them, “Thus says Jehovah: You have forsaken me, so I have also abandoned you into the hand of Shishak.”
6. Then the princes of Israel, and the king humbled themselves, and said, “Jehovah is righteous.”
7. And when Jehovah saw that they had humbled themselves, the word of Jehovah came to Shemaiah, saying, “They have humbled themselves. I will not destroy them, but will grant them some deliverance, and my fury will not be poured out in Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.
8. Yet, they shall be his servants that they may know my service and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.”
9. So Shishak the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and he took away the treasures of the church of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king's house; he took everything. And he took away the gold shields that Solomon had made.
10. And Rehoboam made bronze shields in their place, and committed them into the hand of the officers of the guard {?} who guarded the door of the king's house.
11. And whenever the king needed to go to the church of Jehovah, the guard came and carried them, and returned them to the guards' chamber.
12. And when he had humbled himself, the anger of Jehovah turned from him, and He would not destroy him completely. And then things were well in Judah.

13. And King Rehoboam grew strong in Jerusalem, and reigned. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city that Jehovah had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to set His name there. And his mother's name was Naamah, the Ammonitess.
14. And he did evil, for he did not prepare his heart to seek Jehovah.
15. Now the acts of Rehoboam, the first and the last, are they not written in the chronicles of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies. {?} And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.
16. And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David, and Abijah, his son, reigned in his place.

2Chronicles 13

- ¶1. And in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam, Abijah began to rule over Judah.
2. He reigned three years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Michaiah, the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.
3. And Abijah set the battle in array with an army of mighty men of war, four hundred thousand chosen men. And Jeroboam set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, might men of valor.
4. And Abijah stood up on Mount Zemaraim which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and he said, "Hear me, O Jeroboam, and all Israel!"
5. Is it not known to you that Jehovah, the God of Israel, gave the kingdom over Israel to David forever, to him and his sons by a covenant of salt?
6. But Jeroboam ben-Nebat, the servant of Solomon-ben David rose up and rebelled against his lord.
7. And worthless men have gathered to him, sons of Belial, and they strengthened themselves against Rehoboam ben-Solomon, and when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted, and could not strengthen himself before them.
8. And now you are thinking to prevail against the kingdom of Jehovah in the hand of the sons of David, and you are a great multitude, and with you are the golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods.
9. Have you not cast out Jehovah's priests, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made priests for yourselves in the manner of the peoples of the lands? Whoever comes to consecrate himself with a bullock from the herd and seven rams becomes a priest of what is no god.
10. But as for us, Jehovah is our God, and we have not forsaken him, and the priests who minister to Jehovah are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites with their work,
11. as they offer burnt offerings to Jehovah every morning and evening, with pungent incense, set the rows of bread on the table of pure gold, and the gold menorah, and its burning lamps every evening because we keep the charge of Jehovah our God. But you have forsaken Him.

12. And behold, God is with us as captain, with his priests, and the trumpets to sound an alarm against you, O children of Israel. Do not fight against Jehovah, the God of your fathers, for you will not prosper."
13. Now Jeroboam had set the ambush to come from behind them, so that they were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them.
14. And when Judah turned, then behold, the battle was in front of them and behind. Then they cried to Jehovah, and the priests blew with the trumpets.
15. And the men of Judah shouted, and it came to pass when the men of Judah shouted that God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.
16. And the children of Israel fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hand.
17. And Abijah and his people struck them down in a great slaughter, and there fell slain five hundred thousand choice men of Israel.
18. And the children of Israel were subdued at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed because they depended on Jehovah, the God of their fathers.
19. And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and he took cities from him, Bethel and its towns, and Jeshanah and its towns, and Ephron and its towns.
20. And Jeroboam never again recovered his strength in the days of Abijah, and Jehovah struck him, and he died.
21. But Abijah grew stronger, and took fourteen wives for himself, and he fathered twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.
22. And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings are written in the midrash² of the prophet Iddo.

2Chronicles 14

- ¶1. And Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. Then Asa, his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet for ten years.
2. And Asa did what was good and upright in the eyes of Jehovah his God.
3. And he removed the altars of foreign gods, and the high places, and he destroyed the pillars, and cut down the sacred groves.
4. And he told Judah to seek Jehovah, the God of their fathers, and to keep the law and the commandment.
5. And he removed from all the cities of Judah the high places, and the images, and the kingdom was quiet before him.
6. And he built fortified cities in Judah, for the land was quiet, and there was no war in those years because Jehovah gave him rest,
7. and he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities, and surround them with a wall, with towers, gates, and bars while the land is still ours, for we have sought Jehovah our

² Or, story or record.

God, we have sought Him, and He has given us rest round about.” So, they built and prospered.

8. And Asa had an army three hundred thousand from Judah who bore shield and spear, and from Benjamin two hundred and eighty thousand shield bearers and archers, all of them mighty men of valor.
9. And Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of one million, and three hundred chariots. And he came to Mareshah.
10. And Asa came out to meet him, and they set the battle in array in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.
11. And Asa called to Jehovah his God, and he said, “O Jehovah, there is none like you to help between the great and those who have no strength. Help us, Jehovah our God, for we rest on you, and in your name we go against this multitude! O Jehovah, you are our God; let man not prevail against you.”
12. And Jehovah struck the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.
13. And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them as far as Gerar, and he overthrew the Ethiopians until none of them remained alive, for they were destroyed before Jehovah, and before his army. And they carried away very much spoil.
14. And they struck all the cities round about Gerar, for the terror of Jehovah was upon them. So, they plundered all the cities, for there was much spoil in them.
15. And they also struck the tents of the herders, and carried away sheep in abundance, and camels, and they returned to Jerusalem.

2Chronicles 15

- ¶1. Then the Spirit of God came upon Azariah ben-Oded,
2. and he went out to meet Asa, and said to him, “Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. Jehovah will be with you while you are with Him. And if you seek Him, He will be found of you, but if you forsake Him, He will forsake you.
3. Now for many days Israel was without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law.
4. But in their distress they turned to Jehovah, the God of Israel, and they sought Him, and He was found of them.
5. And in those times, there was no peace for him who went out or who came in, for many troubles came upon all the inhabitants of the lands.
6. And nation was crushed by nation, and city by city, for God vexed them with all manner of trouble.
7. But you, be strong, and do not let your hands relax, for there is a reward for your work.”
8. And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he was encouraged, and he took away the abominations from all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and from the cities that he took in the hill country of Ephraim, and he renewed the altar of Jehovah that was before the porch of Jehovah.

9. And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the sojourners in them from Ephraim and Manasseh, and from Simeon, for many deserted to him from Israel when they saw that Jehovah his God was with him.
- ¶10. And they gathered in Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa's reign.
11. And they sacrificed to Jehovah that day from the spoil they had brought seven hundred cattle and seven thousand sheep.
12. And they entered into a covenant to seek Jehovah, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul,
13. and that whoever would not seek Jehovah, the God of Israel, would be put to death, whether small or great, or man or woman.
14. And they swore to Jehovah with a loud voice, and with a shout of joy, and with clarions, and with shofars.
15. And all Judah rejoiced over the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart, and they sought Him with all their desire, and He was found of them. And Jehovah gave them rest round about.
16. And the king even removed Maachah, Asa's mother from being queen because she set up an abomination in a sacred grove. And Asa cut down her abomination, and he crushed it, and burned it by the Kidron brook.
17. But the high places were not removed from Israel. Nevertheless Asa's heart was perfect all his days.
18. And he brought the things his father had dedicated, and the things he had dedicated into the house of God, silver, and gold, and vessels.
19. And there was no war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

2Chronicles 16

- ¶1. In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign, Baasha, king of Israel, came up against Judah. And he built Ramah, so as to not allow anyone to come out or to go in to Asa, king of Judah.
2. Then Asa brought out silver and gold from the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the king's house, and he sent it to Ben-Hadad, king of Aram, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,
3. "There is a covenant between me and you, as there was between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you silver and gold. Go, break your covenant with Baasha, king of Israel, that he might depart from me."
4. And Ben-Hadad listened to king Asa, and he sent his commanders of the army against the cities of Israel, and they struck Iyon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all store cities of Naphtali.
5. And it came to pass that when Baasha heard of it, that he ceased building Ramah, and put a stop to his work.

6. Then King Asa took all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and its timber, with which Baasha was building, and he built Geba and Mizpah with them.
7. And at that time, Hanani the seer, came to Asa the king of Judah, and he said to him, "Because you relied on the king of Aram, and did not rely on Jehovah your God, therefore, the army of the king of Aram has escaped from your hand."
8. Were not the Ethiopians and the Libyans a vast army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet, because you relied on Jehovah, He delivered them into your hand.
9. For the eyes of Jehovah run back and forth throughout all the earth to show himself strong for those whose hearts that are perfect with Him. In this you have done foolishly, for from now on, there will be wars against you."
10. And Asa was angry with the seer, and he put him in the prison house because he was in a rage over this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at that time.
11. Now behold, the acts of Asa, the first and the last ones, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.
12. And in the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa became diseased in his feet until his disease was severe, but even in his disease he did not seek Jehovah, but went to physicians.
13. And Asa slept with his fathers. And he dies in the forty-first year of his reign.
14. And they buried him in his tombs which he had cut for himself in the city of David. And they laid him on a bed which he had filled with spices, and various scented mixtures, the work of an apothecary, and they made a very large great pyre for him.

2Chronicles 17

- ¶1. And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and he strengthened himself against Israel.
2. And he placed forces in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons throughout the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim which his father had taken from Asa.
3. And Jehovah was with Jehoshaphat because he walked in the first ways of David his father, and did not seek after the Baals,
4. but sought the God of his father, and walked in His commandments, and not according to Israel's way.
5. Therefore, Jehovah established the kingdom in his hand, and all Judah brought gifts to Jehoshaphat, so that he had great riches and glory.
6. And his heart exalted the ways of Jehovah, and furthermore he removed the high places and the sacred groves from Judah.
7. And in the third year of his reign, he sent his officials, Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethaneel, and Michaiah to teach in the cities of Judah.
8. And with them were the Levites, Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemirimoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, Levites, and with them Elishama and Jehoram the priests.
9. And they taught in Judah, and with them was the book of the law of Jehovah, and they went about through all the cities of Judah and taught the people.

10. Now the terror of Jehovah was upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, and they did not make war with Jehoshaphat.
11. And some of the Philistines brought gifts and tribute in silver to Jehoshaphat. The Arabians also brought him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams, and seven thousand seven hundred he-goats.
- ¶12. And Jehoshaphat went on and grew exceedingly great. And he built fortresses and storage cities in Judah.
13. And he had much business in the cities of Judah, and the men of war, mighty men of valor, in Jerusalem.
14. And these were their numbers by the house of their fathers: of Judah, captains of thousands: Adnah the chief, and with him mighty men of valor, three hundred thousand,
15. and next to him Jehohanan the chief, and with him two hundred and eighty thousand,
16. and next to him Amasiah ben-Zichri, who willingly offered himself to Jehovah, and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor;
17. and of Benjamin: a mighty man of valor Eliada, and with him two hundred thousand armed with bow and shield,
18. and next to him Jehozabad, and with him one hundred and eighty thousand equipped for service.
19. These served the king, besides those whom the king placed in the fortified cities throughout Judah.

2Chronicles 18

- ¶1. Now Jehoshaphat had great riches and glory, but he made a marriage alliance with Ahab.
2. And after some years he went down to Ahab, to Samaria. And Ahab killed many sheep and cattle for him and the people with him, and he enticed him to go up to Ramoth-Gilead with him.
3. For Ahab the king of Israel, said to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, “Will you go with me to Ramoth-Gilead?” And he said to him, “I am as you are, and your people are as my people, even with you in the battle.”
4. But Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “Inquire, I pray you, for the word of Jehovah today.”
5. So, the king of Israel assembles the prophets, four hundred men, and he said to them, “Shall we go to Ramoth-Gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?” And they said, “Go up! For God will deliver it into the king’s hand.”
6. But Jehoshaphat said, “Is there not still a prophet of Jehovah here, that we might inquire of Him?”
7. And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of Jehovah, but I hate him, for he never prophesies favorably concerning me,

- but evil every time. He is Michaiah ben-Imla.” And Jehoshaphat said, “Let not the king say so.”
8. And the king of Israel summoned an officer, and said, “Bring Michaiah ben-Imla quickly.”
 9. And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, were sitting each on his throne clothed in robes. And they were sitting in a threshing floor at the entrance gate of Samaria, and all the prophets prophesied before them.
 10. And Zedekiah ben-Chenaanah made himself iron horns, and he said, “Thus says Jehovah: with these you will push Aram until they are destroyed.”
 11. And all the prophets prophesied thus, saying, “Go up to Ramoth-Gilead and succeed. For Jehovah will deliver it into the king’s hand.”
 12. And the messenger who went to call Michaiah spoke to him, saying, “Behold, the words of the prophets, as from one mouth, are favorable to the king. So, I pray that your word be as one of theirs, and that you speak favorably.”
 13. But Michaiah said, “As Jehovah lives, that which my God says, that will I speak.”
 14. And he came to the king, and the king said to him, “Michah, shall we go to Ramoth-Gilead to battle, or shall I refrain.” And he said, “Go up, and you shall succeed, for they shall be delivered into your hand.”
 15. And the king said to him, “How many times shall I make you swear that you will say nothing to me but the truth in the name of Jehovah?”
 16. Then he said, “I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains like sheep that have no shepherd, and Jehovah said, ‘These have no master. Let them return each to his house in peace.’”
 17. And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not say to you that he would not prophesy favorably concerning me, but evil?”
 18. And he said, “Therefore, hear the word of Jehovah: I saw Jehovah sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right and his left.”
 19. And Jehovah said, “Who will entice Ahab the king of Israel that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-Gilead.” And this one spoke like this, and that one spoke like that.
 20. Then a spirit came forward and stood before Jehovah, and he said, ‘I will entice him.’ And Jehovah said to him, ‘How?’
 21. And he said, ‘I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ And He said, ‘You will entice him, and moreover you will succeed. Go forth, and do so.’
 22. So, behold, Jehovah has now put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets, and Jehovah has spoken evil against you.”
 23. Then Zedekiah ben-Chenaanah drew near, and he struck Michaiah on the cheek, and he said, “Where is this way that the Spirit of Jehovah passed from me to speak to you?”

24. And Michaiah said, “Behold, you shall see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide yourself.”
25. Then the king of Israel said, “Seize Michaiah, and take him back to Amon, the governor of the city, and to Joash the king’s son.
26. And say, ‘Thus says the king: put this one in the prison house, and feed him the bread of affliction and the water of affliction until I return in peace.’”
27. And Michaiah said, “If you return at all in peace, Jehovah did not speak with me.” And he said, “Hear, all you peoples!”
28. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-Gilead.
29. And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and go to the battle, but you put on your robes.” So, the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went to the battle.
30. Now the king of Aram had commanded the captains of the chariots who were with him, saying, “Do not fight with the small or the great, but with the king of Israel only.”
31. And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, “He is the king of Israel”, and they circled around him to fight, but Jehoshaphat cried out, and Jehovah helped him, and God turned them aside from him.
32. For it came to pass that when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.
33. But a man drew a bow unwittingly and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armor, and he said to the charioteer, “Turn your hand, and take me out of the host, for I am wounded.”
34. And the battle increased that day, but the king of Israel was propped up in the chariot opposite the Arameans until evening, and he died at the going down of the sun.

2Chronicles 19

- ¶1. But Jehoshaphat king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem.
2. And Jehu ben-Hanani, the seer, came to meet him, and he said to King Jehoshaphat, “Should you help the wicked and love those hated by Jehovah? For because of this wrath has come upon you from the presence of Jehovah.
3. However, good things are found in you, for you have burned the sacred groves out of the land, and you have prepared your heart to seek God.”
4. And Jehoshaphat dwelt in Jerusalem. And he went out again through the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and he turned them back to Jehovah, the God of their fathers.
5. And he set judges in the land, in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city.
6. And he said to the judges, “Consider what you do, because you judge not for man, but for Jehovah. And with you are matters for judgment.

7. So, let the fear of Jehovah be upon you. Take heed, and do it. For there is no wickedness in Jehovah our God, nor respect of persons, nor the taking of a bribe."
8. And in Jerusalem also Jehoshaphat set some of the Levites and priests, and some of the chiefs of the fathers of Israel as a judge for Jehovah and for dispute when they returned to Jerusalem.
9. And he charged them, saying, "Thus shall you do in the fear of Jehovah, faithfully, and with a perfect heart.
10. And whatever dispute comes to you from your brothers who dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes, and judgments, then you shall warn them so that they do not trespass against Jehovah and wrath come upon them and on your brothers. Do this, and you shall not incur guilt.
11. And behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of Jehovah, and Zebadiah ben-Ishmael, the ruler of the king's house, in all the matters of the king. And the Levites will be officers before you. Be strong, and do it, and Jehovah shall be with the good."

2Chronicles 20

- ¶1. And it came to pass after this that the children of Moab, and children of Ammon, of the Ammonites, with them also came against Jehovah to battle.
2. And they came and told Jehovah, saying, "A great multitude is coming upon you from beyond the sea, from Aram {Edom?}, and behold, it is in Hazazon-Tamar, which is En-gedi.
3. And Jehovah was afraid, and he set his face to seek Jehovah, and he proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.
4. And Judah assembled themselves to seek help from Jehovah, even from all the cities of Judah they came to seek Jehovah.
5. And Jehovah stood in the Assembly of Judah and Jerusalem in the house of Jehovah before the new court.
6. And he said, "O Jehovah, the God of our fathers, are you not He, the God of heaven? And do you not rule in all the kingdoms of the nations? And are not power and might in your hand, so that there is none who can stand against you?
7. Are you not our God who dispossessed the inhabitants of this land from before your people Israel, and gave it to the seed of Abraham your friend forever?
8. And they dwelt in it, and built you a sanctuary for your name in it, saying,
9. 'If evil comes upon us, sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we shall stand before this house, and in your presence, (for your name is in this house) and cry out to you in our distress, then you will hear and save.'
10. So, behold now, the children of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir whom you would not allow Israel to go through when they came from the land of Egypt, so they turned aside from them, and did not destroy them.

11. And behold, they are rewarding us by coming to drive us out of your inheritance which you caused us to inherit.
12. O our God, will you not judge them? For we have no strength before this great multitude that is coming against us. Nor do we know what we should do, but our eyes are on you."
13. And all Judah stood before Jehovah, even their little ones, their wives, and their children.
14. Then the Spirit of Jehovah came upon Jahaziel ben-Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah the Levite of the sons of Asaph, in the midst of the Assembly.
15. And he said, "Hear you all Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat. Thus says Jehovah to you: 'Do not be afraid, and do not be dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours but God's.'
16. Tomorrow go down against them. Behold, they are coming up by the Ascent of Ziz, and you shall find them at the end of the wadi, before the wilderness of Jeruel.
17. It is not for you to fight in this battle. Set yourselves. Stand, and see the salvation of Jehovah with you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid, and do not be dismayed. Tomorrow, go out before them, for Jehovah is with you."
18. Then Jehoshaphat bowed with his face to the earth, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before Jehovah to do obeisance to Jehovah.
19. And the Levites, of the sons of Kohathites, and of the sons of the Korhites, rose up to praise Jehovah, the God of Israel, with a loud voice on high.
20. And so, they arose in the morning and went forth to the wilderness of Tekoa. And as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, O Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in Jehovah your God, and you will be established; believe in His prophets, and you will prosper!"
21. And when he had taken counsel with the people, he stationed singers to Jehovah, that they should give praises to the beauty of holiness as they went forth before the armed men, and saying, "Give thanks to Jehovah, for His lovingkindness endures forever."
22. And at the time they began to sing and give praise, Jehovah set an ambush against the children of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir who had come to Judah, and they were struck down.
23. For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir to utterly destroy and exterminate them. And when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy each man his neighbor.
24. And when Judah came to the watchtower of the wilderness, they looked at the multitude, and behold, there were corpses fallen to the ground, and none had escaped.
25. And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take the spoil, they found among them an abundance of goods with the corpses, and valuable vessels, and they stripped it off for themselves, until they could not carry more. And they were three days gathering the spoil because there was so much.

26. And on the fourth day, they assembled in the Valley of Berachah,³ for there they blessed Jehovah. Therefore, the name of that place was called Valley of Berechah.
27. Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem with Jehoshaphat at their head, to come back to Jerusalem with joy, for Jehovah had made them rejoice over their enemies.
28. And they came to Jerusalem with harps and lyres and trumpets, to the church of Jehovah.
29. And the terror of Jehovah was upon all the kingdoms the lands when they heard that Jehovah had fought with Israel's enemies.
30. And Jehoshaphat's kingdom had rest, for his God gave him rest all around.
- ¶31. And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.
32. And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and did not depart from it, doing what was right in the eyes of Jehovah.
33. Only, the high places were not taken away, for the people had not yet prepared their heart for the God of their fathers.
34. And the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, the first and the last ones, behold, they are written in the chronicles of Jehu ben-Hanani, which was put into the book of the kings of Israel.
35. And after this, Jehoshaphat the king of Judah allied himself with Ahaziah king of Israel who did wickedly.
36. And he joined with him to make ships to go to Tarshish. And they made the ships at Ezion-gaber.
37. Then Eliezer ben-Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "As you have joined yourself with Azariah, Jehovah has broken your works." And the ships were smashed, and they were not able to go to Tarshish.

2Chronicles 21

- ¶1. And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.
2. And he had brothers, sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariah, Michael, and Shephatiah. All these were the sons of Jehoshaphat the king of Israel.
3. And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and gold, and precious things, and fortified cities in Judah, but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram.

³ Berechah means "blessing".

4. And when Jehoram had risen over his father's kingdom, he strengthened himself, and he killed all his brothers with the sword, and also some of the princes of Israel.
 5. Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.
 6. And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab did, because he had the daughter of Ahab as his wife. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah.
 7. But Jehovah was not willing to destroy the house of David for the sake of the covenant that He made for David, that He had said He would give to him and his sons a lamp forever.
 8. In his days, Edom revolted from under the rule of Judah, and they set up a king over themselves.
 9. And Jehoram went over with his princes, and all the chariots with him, and it came to pass that he rose up by night and struck Edom, who had surrounded him and the chariot commanders.
 10. And Edom revolted from the rule of Judah until this day. Then Libnah revolted at that time from his rule because he had forsaken the God of his fathers.
 11. Moreover, he made high places in the hill country of Judah, and he caused the inhabitants of Judah to go whoring, even compelling Judah to do so.
- ¶12. And a letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, "Thus says Jehovah, the God of David your father: because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, nor in the ways of Asa the king of Judah,
13. but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and caused Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go whoring according to the whoredoms of the house of Ahab, and that you also killed your brothers of your father's house, who were better than you,
 14. behold, Jehovah will strike your people, and your wives, and your possessions with a great plague.
 15. And you shall have severe sickness with a disease of your bowels until your bowels come out of you because of the disease, days upon days."
 16. Jehovah also stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and the Arabians who bordered the Ethiopians.
 17. And they came up into Judah and broke into it, and they carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons, and his wives, so that not a son was left to him except Jehoahaz his youngest son.
 18. And after all this, Jehovah struck him in his bowels with a disease for which there was no cure.
 19. And it came to pass as days followed days, even at the end of the passing of the days of two years, that his bowels came out because of his disease, and he died of the severe diseases. And his people made no burning for him like the burning for his fathers.

20. He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. And he departed without honor, yet they buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

2Chronicles 22

- ¶1. Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead, for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the company had killed all the older sons. So, Ahaziah ben-Jehoram, king of Judah, reigned.
- 2. Ahaziah was forty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri.
- 3. He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his counselor in doing evil.
- 4. So, he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah like the house of Ahab, for they were his counselors after the death of his father to his destruction.
- 5. He even followed their counsel, and went with Jehoram ben-Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael the king of Aram at Ramoth-Gilead, and the Arameans struck Joram.
- 6. And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds that he was given at Ramah when he fought Hazael the king of Aram. And Azariah ben-Jehoram the king of Judah went down to see Jehoram ben-Ahab in Jezreel because he was wounded.
- 7. But the downfall of Ahaziah was of God by his coming to Joram, for when he had come, he went out with Jehoram to Jehu ben-Nimshi, whom Jehovah had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.
- 8. And it came to pass, when Jehu was executing judgment against the house of Ahab, that he found the princes of Judah, and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers, who ministered to Ahaziah, and he killed them.
- 9. And he sought for Ahaziah and caught him, for he had hidden himself in Samaria. And they brought him to Jehu, and he killed him. And they buried him, for, he said, "He is the son of Jehoshaphat who sought Jehovah with all his heart." And there was no one of the house of Ahaziah to retain the power of the kingdom.
- 10. And when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, then she arose and she spoke against all the seed of the royal house of Judah.
- 11. But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash ben-Ahaziah, and stole him away from the midst of the king's sons who were slain, and she put him and his nurse in the private bedroom. Thus did Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the daughter of Ahaziah) hide him from Athaliah so that she did not kill him.
- 12. And he was hidden with them in the house of God six years, and Athaliah reigned over the land.

2Chronicles 23

- ¶1. Then, in the seventh year, Jehoiada took courage, and he brought the captains of hundreds, Azariah ben-Jeroham, and Ishmael ben-Jehohanan, and Azariah ben-Obed, and Maaseiah ben-Adaiah, and Elishaphat ben-Zichri into covenant with him.
2. And they went round about through Judah, and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah, and the chiefs of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.
3. And the whole Assembly made a covenant with the king in the church of God. And he said to them, “Behold, the king’s son shall reign according to the word of Jehovah concerning the sons of David.
4. This is the thing that you shall do. A third of you, from the priests and the Levites, shall enter on the Sabbath to be gatekeepers of the doors,
5. and a third shall be at the king’s house, and a third at the Gate of the Foundation. And all the people shall be in the courts of the church of Jehovah.
6. But let no one come into the church of Jehovah except the priests and those of the Levites who minister. They shall go in, for they are holy, but all the people shall keep the charge of Jehovah.
7. And the Levites shall completely surround the king, each man with his weapon in his hand, and anyone else who comes into the house shall be killed. And you shall be with the king when he comes in and goes out.”
8. And the Levites and all Judah did according to everything that Jehoiada the priest commanded, and they kept each course of his men who came in on the Sabbath with those who were going out on the Sabbath, for Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss the courses.
9. And Jehoiada the priest gave the captains of hundreds the spears, and the bucklers, and the shields that had been King David’s, which were in the house of God.
10. And he stood all the people, with each man having his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side, by the altar, and at the house by the king round about.
11. Then they brought out the king’s son, and they put the crown on him and the testimony {?} and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and they said, “May the king live.”
- ¶12. Now when Athaliah heard the sound of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people in the church of Jehovah.
13. And she looked, and behold, the king was standing at his pillar at the entrance, with the captains and the trumpets by the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and sounding with the trumpets, and the singers with musical instruments, and the teachers praising. Then Athaliah tore her clothes, and she said, “Treason! Treason!”
14. But Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who had been appointed over the army, and he said to them, “Take her out of the house between the ranks, and whoever follows after her shall be killed with the sword.” For the priest said, “Do not kill her in the church of Jehovah.”

15. So they laid hands on her, and when she came to the entrance of the Horse Gate of the king’s house, they killed her there.
- ¶16. And Jehoiada made a covenant between him and all the people, and the king to be the people of Jehovah.
17. And all the people went to the house of Baal, and they tore it down. And they smashed its altars and its images, and they killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.
18. And Jehoiada appointed officers of the church of Jehovah by the hand of the priests, the Levites whom David had divided for the church of Jehovah to offer burnt offerings to Jehovah as it is written in the law of Moses, with joy and with song as ordained by David.
19. And he stationed gatekeepers at the gates of the church of Jehovah, that no one unclean in any way should enter in.
20. And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and he brought the king down from the church of Jehovah. And they came through the upper gate of the king’s house, and sat the king on the throne of the kingdom.
21. And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city had rest for they had killed Athaliah with the sword.

2Chronicles 24

- ¶1. Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Zibah of Beersheba.
2. And Joash did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah all the days of Jehoiada the priest.
3. And Jehoiada took for himself two wives, and he fathered sons and daughters.
4. And it came to pass after this that Joash had a heart to repair the church of Jehovah.
5. And he gathered the priests and the Levites, and he said to them, “Go out to the cities of Judah, and collect money from all Israel sufficient to restore the house of your God year by year, and you shall make haste concerning this matter.” But the Levites did not make haste.
6. So the king called for Jehoiada the chief priest, and he said to him, “Why have you not required of the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the contribution of Moses, the servant of Jehovah, and of the Assembly of Israel, for the tent of witness?”
7. For that wicked woman Athaliah, her sons, had broken into the church of God, and they also dedicated all the consecrated things of the church of Jehovah to the Baals.
8. And the king said, “Make a chest, and put it outside at the gate of the house of Jehovah.”
9. And they made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring to Jehovah the contribution that Moses, the servant of God, laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

10. And all the leaders and all the people rejoiced, and they brought it in, and dropped it into the chest until it was full.
11. And so it was that whenever the chest was brought to the king's office by the hand of the Levites, when they saw that there was much money, that the king's scribe and the head priest's officer came and emptied out the chest. Then they took it and returned it to its place. Thus they did day by day, and they gathered money in abundance.
12. And the king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of Jehovah, and they hired stonecutters and carpenters to repair the church of Jehovah, and also workers with iron and bronze to restore the church of Jehovah.
13. And the workmen labored, and the repair advanced through the work of their hand, and they restored the church of God according to its specification, and they strengthened it.
14. And when they had finished, they brought the rest of the money to the king and Jehoiada, and they made accoutrements for the church of Jehovah, vessels for ministry, for offerings, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the church of Jehovah continually all the days of Jehoiada.
- ¶15. And Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died. He was one hundred and thirty years old when he died.
16. And they buried him in the city of David with the kings, for he had done good in Israel, and with God, and His house.
17. But after Jehoiada's death, the princes of Judah came and did obeisance to the king. And the king took heed to them.
18. And they forsook the church of Jehovah, the God of their fathers, and served the sacred groves and the idols. Then wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem because of their guilt.
19. Yet He sent prophets to them to bring them back to Jehovah, and they testified against them, but they would not listen.
20. And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah ben-Jehoiada the priest, and he stood up above the people and said to them, "Thus says God. Why do you transgress the commandments of Jehovah? For you will not prosper when you forsake Jehovah; He has also forsaken you."
21. And they conspired together against him, and they stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of Jehovah.
22. And Joash the king did not remember to kindness that Jehoiada his father had shown toward him, but he killed his son. And as he died he said, "May Jehovah see and require it."
23. And it came to pass at the end of the year, that the army of Aram came up against him. And they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people among the people, and they sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus.

24. For the army of Aram came with a small number of men, but Jehovah delivered a very great army into their hand, for they had forsaken Jehovah, the God of their fathers. So, they executed judgments against Joash.
25. And when they departed from him (for they left him very sick), his servants conspired against him because of the blood of Jehoiada the priest's sons, and they killed him on his bed, and he died. And they buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.
26. And these were who conspired against him: Zabad, the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jozabad, the son of Shimrith the Moabitess.
27. And his sons, and the many oracles against him, and the establishment of the house of God, behold, they are written in the midrash of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

2Chronicles 25

- ¶1. Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.
2. And he did was right in the eyes of Jehovah, yet not with a perfect heart.
3. And it came to pass when the kingdom was established as his, that he killed his servants who had struck down his father the king.
4. But he did not kill their children, for it is written in the book of the law of Moses that Jehovah commanded, saying, "Fathers shall not be put to death on account of children, and children shall not be put to death on account of fathers, for each man shall be put to death for his own sin."⁴
- ¶5. Then Amaziah assembled Judah, and he appointed captains of thousands and captains of hundreds according to the house of their fathers throughout all Judah and Benjamin. And he numbered those from twenty years and above, and found that there were three hundred thousand choice men who could go out in the army, who could handle spear and shield.
6. But he hired from Israel one hundred thousand mighty men of valor from Israel with a hundred talents of silver.
7. And a man of God came to him, saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for Jehovah is not with Israel, all the children of Ephraim."
8. But should you go, making yourself strong for the war, God will cause you to stumble before the enemy, for God has power to help and to cast down."
9. And Amaziah said to the man of God, "Then what am I to do for the hundred talents of silver that I gave to the mighty men of Israel?" And the man of God said, "Jehovah is able to give you more than this."

⁴ Dt. 24:16, almost identical.

10. So Amaziah separated them, the band that had come to him from Ephraim, that they should go back to their place. But their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned to their place burning with anger.
11. But Amaziah strengthened himself, and led his people out, and he came to the Valley of Salt, and struck down ten thousand of the children of Seir.
12. And ten thousand were captured alive by the children of Judah, and they brought them to the top of a cliff, and threw them down from the top of the cliff, and they were all dashed to pieces.
13. But the men of the band that Amaziah had sent back from going with him to the battle, they raided cities of Judah from Samaria as far as Beth-horon, and they struck down three thousand of them, and took much spoil.
- ¶14. And it came to pass, after Amaziah came from striking the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and stood them up to be his gods, and he bowed himself before them, and burnt incense to them.
15. And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Amaziah, and He sent a prophet to him, and he said to him, “Why are you seeking after the gods of the people who could not deliver their own people from your hand?”
16. But as he was speaking to him, then the king said to him, “Have you been made the king’s counselor? Stop yourself! Why should you be struck down?” Then the prophet stopped, but he said, “I know that God has determined to destroy you, for you have done this, and have not taken heed to my counsel.”
- ¶17. Then Amaziah king of Judah took counsel, and he sent to Joash ben-Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu the king of Israel, saying, “Come, let us look at each other.”
18. But Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, “The thistle that is in Lebanon sent to the cedar that is in Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son for a wife.’ But a beast of the field that was in Lebanon came along and trampled down the thistle.
19. You think, behold, you have struck down Edom, and your heart has lifted you up to boast. Stay in your house now. Why should stir up trouble, and you fall, you and Judah with you?”
20. But Amaziah would not listen, for it was of God, that He might deliver them into their hand because they had sought the gods of Edom.
21. So Joash king of Israel went up, and they looked at each other, he and Amaziah the king of Judah at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah.
22. And Judah was struck down before Israel, and they fled, each man to his tent.
23. And Joash the king of Israel captured Amaziah ben-Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, king of Judah at Beth-shemesh. And he brought him to Jerusalem, and he broke down the walls of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits.

24. And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-Edom, and the treasures of the king's house, and the children as hostages, and returned to Samaria.
- ¶25. And Amaziah ben-Joash the king of Judah lived fifteen years after the death of Joash ben-Jehoahaz the king of Israel.
26. And the rest of the deeds of Amaziah, the first ones and the last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?
27. Now from the time that Amaziah turned from following Jehovah, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem. So, he fled to Lachish, but they sent after him to Lachish, and they killed him there.
28. And they carried him on horses, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David.⁵

2Chronicles 26

- ¶1. And all the people of Judah took Uzziah when he was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father, Amaziah.
2. He is the one who built Eloth and restored it to Judah after the king slept with his fathers.
3. Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.
4. And he did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.
5. And he sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding through the vision of God. And as long as he sought Jehovah, God made him to prosper.
6. He went out and made war against the Philistines and broke down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities in the area of Ashdod and among the Philistines.
7. And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who lived in Gur-Baal and the Meunites.
8. The Ammonites also gave tribute to Uzziah. And his fame went out even to the entrance of Egypt, for he grew exceedingly strong.
9. And Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, and at the Valley Gate, and at the Angle, and fortified them.
10. He also built towers in the wilderness and hewed out many cisterns, for he had large herds, both in the Shephelah and in the plain, and farmers and vinedressers in the mountains and in the fertile fields, for he was a lover of the ground.
11. Moreover, Uzziah had an army prepared for war, who went out to war by divisions, according to the number of their muster by the hand of Jeuel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's officials.

⁵ LXX. Hebrew reads, Judah.

12. The total number of the heads of the fathers, mighty men of valor, was two thousand six hundred.
13. And under them was a strong army of three hundred seven thousand and five hundred who made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.
14. And Uzziah prepared for them, for the whole the army, shields, spears, helmets, body armor, bows, and stones for slinging.
15. And he made in Jerusalem devices, by a cunning man, to be on the towers and at the corners to shoot arrows and large stones. And his fame spread afar, for he was wondrously helped until he was strong.
16. But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his ruin, and he was unfaithful to Jehovah his God, for he went into the temple of Jehovah to burn incense upon the incense altar.
17. And after him went Azariah the priest, and with him eighty valiant priests of Jehovah.
18. And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said to him, “It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to Jehovah, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron, who have been consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the Holy Place! For you have been unfaithful, and it will bring you no honor from Jehovah God!”
19. But Uzziah became enraged, and in his hand was a censer for burning incense. But when he became enraged at the priests, leprosy broke out on his forehead before the priests in the church of Jehovah, before the altar of incense.
20. And Azariah the High Priest, and all the priests, looked at him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they hurried him out of there. Yea, he himself hastened to leave because Jehovah had stricken him.
21. And so, Uzziah the king was a leper until the day of his death, and he lived as a leper in a house apart, barred from the church of Jehovah, and Jotham his son was king over the household, judging the people of the land.
22. Now, the rest of the deeds of Uzziah, the first and the last ones, Isaiah ben-Amoz, the prophet, has written.
23. And Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the burial field that was for the kings, for they said, “He was stricken with leprosy.” And his son Jotham reigned after him.

2Chronicles 27

- ¶1. Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok.
2. And he did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that his father Uzziah had done; howbeit, he did not enter into the temple of Jehovah. But the people were still corrupt.
3. He built the upper gate of the house of Jehovah, and on the wall of Ophel, he built much.
4. And he built cities in the hill-country of Judah, and on wooded heights he built fortresses with towers.

5. And he fought with the king of the children of Ammon and prevailed against them. And they gave him that year one hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and of barley ten thousand. This did the children of Ammon render to him, and in the second year, and the third.
6. And so, Jotham became strong because he ordered his ways before Jehovah his God.
7. And the rest of the deeds of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.
8. He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years.
9. And he slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David, and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

2Chronicles 28

- ¶1. Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he was king sixteen years in Jerusalem, and he did not do what was right in the eyes of Jehovah, like David his father.
2. Instead, he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and he also made molten images of Baals.
3. He also burned incense in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom and burned his children in the fire, according to the abominable practices of the nations whom Jehovah dispossessed before the children of Israel.
4. And he sacrificed and burned incense in the high places and on the hills, and beneath every green tree.
5. So, Jehovah his God gave him into the hand of the king of Aram, and they attacked him and took from him many people as captives, and they brought them to Damascus. And He also gave him into the hand of the king of Israel, and he dealt him a great blow.
6. For Pekah ben-Remaliah killed in Judah one hundred and twenty thousand in one day, who were all valiant men, because they had forsaken Jehovah, the God of their fathers.
7. And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah, the king's son, and Azrikam, ruler of the house, and Elkanah, who was next to the king.
8. And from their brothers, the sons of Israel took captive two hundred thousand women, sons, and daughters, and they took from them much spoil besides, and they carried the spoil to Samaria.
9. But a prophet of Jehovah was there, Oded by name, and he went forth before the army that came to Samaria, and he said to them, "Behold, because the wrath of Jehovah, the God of your fathers, was upon Judah, He gave them into your hands, and you have slaughtered them in a rage that reaches up to heaven."
10. And now, you think to reduce the children of Judah and Jerusalem to be your men-slaves and women-slaves! Are there not also wrongdoing among you—yes, you!—before Jehovah your God?

11. Therefore, hear me now, and return the captivity whom you have taken captive from your kinsmen, for the fierce anger of Jehovah is upon you!
 12. Some of the heads of the sons of Ephraim, Azariah ben-Jehohanan, Berechiah ben-Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah ben-Shallum, and Amasa ben-Hadlai also rose up against those coming from the war
 13. and said to them, "You must not bring the captives here, for guilt is upon us from Jehovah, and you are proposing to add to our sin and our guilt. For our guilt is great, and there is fierce anger against Israel."
 14. So, the armed men left the captive and the booty before the princes and all the Assembly.
 15. And the men who have been mentioned by name arose and took charge of the captives, and with the spoil, they clothed all who were naked among them. Yea, they clothed them, gave them shoes, gave them something to eat and drink, anointed them, and led on donkeys everyone feeble, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their kinsmen, and returned to Samaria.
- ¶16. At that time, King Ahaz sent for the great king of Assyria to help him.
17. For the Edomites had come again and attacked Judah, and had carried away captives.
 18. And the Philistines had made raids on the cities of the Shephelah and the south of Judah. And they had taken Beth-shemesh, Aijalon, Gedereth, Soco and its villages, Timnah and its villages, Gimzo and its villages, and they settled there.
 19. For Jehovah brought Judah low because of Ahaz the king of Israel, for he caused restraint to cease in Judah and was very treacherous against Jehovah.
 20. So, Tiglath-pileesar the king of Assyria, did come to him, but he oppressed him and did not help him.
 21. Ahaz even took part of the house of Jehovah and the house of the king and princes and gave it to the king of Assyria, but it did not help him.
 22. But in the time of his distress, he became even more treacherous against Jehovah, this King Ahaz.
 23. For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus who had defeated him and said, "Because the gods of the kings of Aram are helping them, I will sacrifice to them and they will help me." But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.
 24. Then Ahaz gathered all the vessels of the church of God and cut up the vessels of the church of God, and then he shut up the doors of the church of Jehovah and made altars for himself in every corner of Jerusalem.
 25. And in every single city of Judah, he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and he provoked Jehovah, the God of his fathers,
 26. And the rest of his deeds and all his ways, from first to last, behold they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.
 27. And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, for they would not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. And Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

2Chronicles 29

- ¶1. Hezekiah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign. and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah, daughter of Zachariah. (Zechariah?)
2. And he did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah according to all that David his father had done.
3. In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he himself opened the doors of the house of Jehovah, and he repaired them.
4. And he brought in the priest and the Levites and gathered them in a spacious place to the east.
5. And he said, Hear me, Levites! Sanctify yourselves, now! And sanctify the house of Jehovah, the God of your fathers, and carry the filth out of the Holy Place!
6. For our fathers have been unfaithful and did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah our God, and they forsook Him and turned their faces away from the dwelling place of Jehovah, and turned their backs.
7. They also closed the doors of the portico, and put out the lamps, and did not burn incense or offer up burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel.
8. And so, the wrath of Jehovah was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and He made them an object of horror, and astonishment, and hissing, as you yourselves see with your own eyes.
9. And, behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons, and our daughters, and our wives are in captivity for this.
10. It is now in my heart to make a covenant with Jehovah, the God of Israel, so that His fierce anger might turn from us.
11. My sons, do not be slack now, for Jehovah has chosen you to stand in His presence, to minister to Him, yea, to be His ministers and burn incense.
12. And the Levites arose: Mahath ben-Amasai and Joel ben-Azariah of the sons of the Kohathites; and from the sons of the Mararites, Kish ben-Avri and Azariah ben-Jehalleel; and from the Gershonites, Joah ben-Zimmah and Aden ben-Joach;
13. and of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;
14. and of the sons of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.
15. And they gathered with their kinsmen and sanctified themselves, and then went in according to the king's command, by the words of Jehovah, to cleanse the church of Jehovah.
16. Now, the priests went into the inner part of the church of Jehovah to do the cleaning, and they brought out all the uncleanness that was found in the temple of Jehovah into the court of the church of Jehovah, and the Levites took it out to carry it outside to the Brook Kidron.

17. And they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify the temple, and on the eighth day of the month, they came to the portico of Jehovah. So, they sanctified the church of Jehovah in eight days. And in the sixteenth day of the first month, they finished.
18. And they went in to Hezekiah the king and said, “ We have cleansed the entire house of Jehovah, and the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the table for the row bread and all its utensils.
19. And all the vessels which King Ahaz, in his unfaithfulness, discarded during his reign we have prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the altar of Jehovah.”
- ¶20. And Hezekiah the king rose early, and he gathered the rulers of the city and went up to the church of Jehovah.
21. And they brought in seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven male goats for a sin offering on behalf of the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the sons of Aaron, the priests, to make offerings on the altar of Jehovah.
22. So, they slaughtered the cattle, and the priests received the blood and threw it against the altar, and they slaughtered the rams and threw the blood against the altar, and they slaughtered the lambs and threw the blood against the altar.
23. Then they brought the he-goats for the sin offering before the king and the Assembly, and they laid their hands on them,
24. and the priests slaughtered them and made a sin offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel. For the king had commanded the burnt offering and the sin offering for all Israel.
25. And he stationed Levites in the church of Jehovah with cymbals, with lutes,⁶ and with lyres, according to the commandment of David, and Gad the king’s seer, and Nathan the prophet. For the commandment had come from Jehovah through His prophets.
26. And the Levites stood with instruments of David, and the priests with trumpets.
27. And Hezekiah commanded that the burnt offering be offered on the altar. And when the burnt offering began, one began the song of Jehovah, with the trumpets and with all the instruments of David the king of Israel.
28. And the whole Assembly worshipped, and the song was sung, and the trumpets were sounded. All this continued until the burnt offering was completed.
29. And when the offering was completed, the king and all those present with him bowed down and worshipped.
30. And King Hezekiah and the rulers told the Levites to praise Jehovah in the words of David and Asaph the seer. So they gave praise with gladness, and then they bowed down and worshipped.

⁶ Hebrew uncertain.

31. Then Hezekiah answered and said, "Now that you have consecrated yourselves to Jehovah, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings at the house of Jehovah!" And the Assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings. And everyone who wanted to brought offerings. [or, "and all their freewill offerings."]
32. And the number of burnt offerings which the Assembly brought was seventy bullocks, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to Jehovah.
33. And the consecrated things were six hundred of the herd and three thousand of the flock.
34. But the priests were too few, and were not able to skin all the burnt offerings. So, their brothers the Levites helped them until the work was finished, until the priests had sanctified themselves. For the Levites had been more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.
35. And besides the many burnt offerings, there were the portions of fat of the peace offerings and the libations of the burnt offering. And so, the service of the house of Jehovah was set in order.
36. And Hezekiah rejoiced with all the Assembly for what God had set in order for the people, for the thing was done suddenly.

2Chronicles 30

- ¶1. Now, Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, to come to the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem to keep the Passover of Jehovah the God of Israel.
2. For the king and the princes and the whole Assembly in Jerusalem agreed together to keep the Passover in the second month,
3. for they were not able to keep it at that time because the priests had not sufficiently sanctified themselves and the people were not yet gathered in Jerusalem,
4. and the thing was right in the eyes of the king and in the eyes of the whole Assembly.
5. So, they established a decree to circulate a proclamation throughout Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, to come to keep the Passover to Jehovah, the God of Israel, in Jerusalem. For they had not done it for a long time as it is written.
6. So, the runners went with letters from the hand of the king and his princes throughout Israel and Judah, according to the king's command, saying, "Children of Israel! Return to Jehovah, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and He will return to the remnant of you that has escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria!"
7. And do not be like your fathers or like your kinsmen, who were treacherous against Jehovah the God of their fathers, and so He gave them over to desolation, just as you now see.
8. Do not be stiff-necked now like your fathers! Yield to Jehovah and come to the sanctuary He has consecrated forever, and serve Jehovah your God, and He will turn the fury of His anger away from you!

9. For if you return to Jehovah, your kinsmen and your children may find compassion before their captors and return to this land, for Jehovah your God is gracious and compassionate, and He will not turn His face away from you if you return to Him."
10. So, the runners passed from city to city in the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, even to Zebulun. But they laughed them to scorn and mocked them.
11. However, some men from Asher, and Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and went to Jerusalem.
12. The hand of God was also on Judah to give them one heart to carry out the commandment of the king and the princes according to the word of Jehovah.
13. And many people were gathered in Jerusalem to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month, a very great Assembly.
14. And they rose up and removed the altars that were in Jerusalem, and they removed all the incense altars and cast them into the Brook Kidron.
15. And they slaughtered the Passover on the fourteenth day of the second month. And the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and then they brought burnt offerings to the church of Jehovah.
16. And they stood at their post according to their custom, according to the law of Moses the man of God, the priests throwing the blood received from the hand of the Levites.
17. For there were many in the Assembly who had not sanctified themselves, and so the Levites were over the slaughter of the Passover lambs for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to Jehovah.
18. For the greater part of the people, many from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover contrary to what was written, for Hezekiah had interceded for them, saying, "May Jehovah, who is good, pardon
19. everyone who has prepared his heart to seek God, Jehovah, the God of his fathers, though not according to the purification standard of the sanctuary."
20. And Jehovah heard Hezekiah and healed the people.
21. And the children of Israel who were present in Jerusalem kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with great gladness, and the Levites and the priests praised Jehovah every day, singing with loud instruments unto Jehovah.
22. And Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who had demonstrated good skill before Jehovah, and they feasted the appointed time, seven days, sacrificing peace offerings and giving thanks to Jehovah the God of their fathers.
23. Then the whole Assembly agreed together to keep the feast another seven days, and so, they kept the seven days with gladness.
24. For Hezekiah the king of Judah had contributed for the Assembly a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep, and the rulers had contributed for the Assembly a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep. And many priests sanctified themselves.

25. And the whole Assembly of Judah, along with the priests and the Levites, and all the Assembly that had come out of Israel, and the foreigners who came from the land of Israel and who dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.
26. So, there was great joy in Jerusalem. Since the days of Solomon ben-David the king of Israel, nothing like this had been in Jerusalem.
27. And the priests, the Levites, rose up and blessed the people, and their voice was heard, and their prayer came into His holy habitation in heaven.

2Chronicles 31

- ¶1. When all this was done, all Israel that could be found went out to the cities of Judah and shattered the pillars and hewed down the sacred trees, and they tore down the high places and the altars throughout all Judah and Benjamin, and Ephraim and Manasseh, until all were destroyed. Then all the sons of Israel returned to their cities, each to his own possession.
2. And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests, and the Levites according to their divisions, each according to his service, whether priests or Levites, for the burnt offering and peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise Jehovah at the gates of the camps of Jehovah.
3. And the king designated a portion from his own possessions for burnt offerings, for the morning and the evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths and the new moons and appointed times, as it is written in the law of Jehovah.
4. And he told the people who were living in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites so that they might give themselves to the law of Jehovah.
5. And as soon as the word spread abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the firstfruits of grain, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the produce of the field, and they brought in abundance the tithe of everything.
6. And the children of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah also brought the tithe of cattle and flocks, and the tithe of holy things consecrated to Jehovah their God. Yea, they gave them by heaps.
7. In the third month they began to lay the heaps, and in the seventh month, they finished.
8. When Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed Jehovah and His people Israel.
9. And Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites about the heaps,
10. And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok spoke to him and said, "Since they began to bring the separated portion to the church of Jehovah, we have had plenty to eat, and plenty left over, for Jehovah has blessed His people, and this abundance is what is left over."
11. Then, Hezekiah said to prepare chambers in the church of Jehovah, and they prepared them.

12. And they brought the separated portion, and the tithe, and the dedicated things faithfully, and over them Conaniah the Levite was ruler, and Shemei his brother was second.
13. And Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers under the hand of Conaniah and Shemei his brother, by appointment of Hezekiah the king and Azariah, ruler of the house of God.
14. And Kore ben-Imnah the Levite, porter on the east side, was over God's freewill offerings, to distribute Jehovah's separated portion and the most holy things.
15. And under him, in the cities of the priests, Eden, Minjamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shechaniah faithfully distributed to their brothers by their divisions, great and small alike,
16. besides those males recorded by genealogy from three years old and upward, all who entered the church of Jehovah, as his daily duties demanded, for their service in their offices, according to their divisions,
17. even to the priests genealogically recorded in their fathers' house, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, according to their duties and their divisions.
18. Their genealogy was recorded along with all their little children, their wives, and their sons and daughters, for the whole Assembly, because they had faithfully kept themselves holy.
19. And as for the sons of Aaron, the priests, who were in the fields of common land belonging to their cities, in each and every city were men designated by name to distribute portions to every male among the priests, and to all who were enrolled by genealogy among the Levites.
20. And thus Hezekiah did in all the cities of Judah, and he did what was good and right and true before Jehovah his God.
21. And he did with all his heart every work that he began concerning the service of the house of God, and the law and commandments, to seek his God. So, he prospered.

2Chronicles 32

- ¶1. After these faithful deeds were done, Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, came and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fortified cities, for he thought to sever them for himself.
2. When Hezekiah learned that Sennacherib had come and that his face was set for battle against Jerusalem,
3. he then consulted with his captains and his mighty men to stop up the waters of the springs that were outside the city, and they helped him.
4. And many people were gathered, and they stopped up all the springs and the brook that flowed through the midst of the region, saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find much water?"

5. He also strengthened himself, and rebuilt all the wall that had been broken down, and built it up to the towers, and another wall outside, and he strengthened Millo in the city of David, and he made an abundance of weaponry and shields.
 6. And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them to himself into the street at the gate of the city. Then he spoke to their heart, saying,
 7. “Be strong and courageous! Do not be afraid nor dismayed before the king of Assyria or before all the multitude that is with him, for there are more with us than with him.
 8. With him is the arm of flesh, but with us is Jehovah our God to help us, and to fight our battles!” Then the people were encouraged by the words of Hezekiah, the king of Judah.
- ¶9. After this, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, sent his servants to Jerusalem (although he himself went up against Lachish and all his forces with him), against Hezekiah, king of Judah, and against all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying,
10. “Thus says Sennacherib, king of Assyria, ‘On what are you trusting that you remain in Jerusalem under siege?’
 11. Has not Hezekiah persuaded you to give yourselves up to die by famine and by thirst, saying, “Jehovah our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria”?
 12. Has not Hezekiah himself taken away His high places and His altars and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, saying, “Before one altar shall you worship, and upon it shall you sacrifice”?
 13. Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands able at all to deliver their lands out of my hand?
 14. Who is it among all the gods of these nations that my fathers destroyed who was able to deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand?
 15. And now, do not let Hezekiah beguile you nor persuade you like this, neither believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to deliver his people out of my hand or out of the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you out of my hand?”
 16. And again, his servants spoke against Jehovah God and against Hezekiah, His servant.
 17. And he wrote letters to reproach Jehovah, God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, “Just as the gods of the nations of other lands did not deliver their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver His people from my hand.”
 18. Then they cried in a loud voice in Judean to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall to frighten them and to dishearten them, that they might take the city.
 19. And they spoke against the God of Jerusalem as against the gods of the peoples of the earth, the work of man’s hands.

20. And Hezekiah the king and Isaiah ben-Amoz the prophet prayed concerning this, and they cried out to heaven.
21. Then Jehovah sent an angel, and he destroyed every mighty warrior, and officer, and commander in the camp of the king of Assyria. So, he returned in disgrace to his own land. And when he went into the house of his god, they that came from his bowels struck him down by the sword there.
22. So, Jehovah delivered Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib, king of Assyria, and from the hand of all their adversaries, and gave them rest on every side.
23. And many brought tribute to Jehovah to Jerusalem and choice gifts to Hezekiah, king of Judah, and in this manner, he was exalted in the sight of all nations.
- ¶24. In those days, Hezekiah became sick unto death, and he prayed to Jehovah, and He spoke to him and gave him a sign.
25. But because his heart was exalted, Hezekiah did not repay the favor shown to him. Therefore, wrath was upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.
26. Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the haughtiness of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. Therefore, the wrath of Jehovah did not come upon them during the days of Hezekiah.
27. And Hezekiah had very great riches and honor, and he made for himself treasuries for silver and gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all articles of value,
28. and storehouses for produce of grain, and new wine, and fresh oil, and stalls for every kind of beast, and folds for flocks.
29. He also made for himself cities, and possessed a multitude of flocks and herds, for God had given him very many possessions.
30. Moreover, Hezekiah stopped the upper water source of Gihon, and he made it flow straight down to the west of the city of David. And in all his works, Hezekiah prospered.
31. And as for the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon who had been sent to him to inquire of the wonder that was in the land, God left him alone in order to test him, to know all that was in his heart.
32. Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his good deeds, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah ben-Amoz the prophet, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.
33. And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ascent of the sepulchers of the sons of David, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honor at his death. And Manasseh his son became king in his stead.

2Chronicles 33

- ¶1. Mannasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

2. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, after the abominations of the nation's that Jehovah had dispossessed before the children of Israel.
3. And he rebuilt the high places that Hezekiah his father had torn down, and he erected altars for the Baals, and he made Ashteroth,⁷ and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.
4. And he built altars in the church of Jehovah, where Jehovah had said, "My name will be in Jerusalem forever."
5. And he built altars to all the host of heaven in the two courts of the church of Jehovah.
6. And he sacrificed his sons in the fire⁸ in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and practiced soothsaying, and divination, and sorcery, and dealt often with a necromancer and one with a familiar spirit, and did what is evil in the sight of Jehovah, to provoke Him to anger.
7. And he set up a graven image and an idol, which he had made, in the house of God, concerning which God said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name forever.
8. and Israel will not again be removed from the land that I appointed to your fathers. If only they will be careful to do all that I have commanded them by the hand of Moses, even all the law, and statutes, and judgments."
9. But Manasseh caused Judah to go astray and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do greater evil than the nations which Jehovah destroyed before the children of Israel.
10. And Jehovah spoke to Manasseh and to all the people, but they would not listen.
11. And so, Jehovah brought against them the commanders of the army which belonged to the King of Assyria, and they took Manasseh with hooks, and bound him with chains of bronze, and took him to Babylon.
12. And in his distress, he entreated the favor of Jehovah his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers,
13. and prayed to Him. And He was moved for him, and heard his supplication, and He returned him to Jerusalem, int his kingdom, and then Manasseh knew that Jehovah is God.
14. And after that, he built wall outside the city of David, west of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance of the Fish Gate, and brought it around to Ophel, and made it very high, and he put military leaders in all the fortified cities in Judah,
15. And he took away the foreign gods and the images from the house of Jehovah, and all the altars he had built on the mountain of the house of Jehovah and in Jerusalem, and he cast them out of the city.
16. And he repaired the altar of Jehovah and made sacrifices of peace offerings and of thanksgiving on it, and he told Judah to serve Jehovah, the God of Israel.

⁷ Or, "sacred trees" or "sacred poles".

⁸ Lit., "devoted his sons in the fire",

17. Nevertheless, the people continued sacrificing at the high places, but only to Jehovah their God.
 18. Now, the rest of the deeds of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of Jehovah, the God of Israel, behold, they are in the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
 19. And his prayer when He was entreated of him, and all his sin and his faithlessness, and the places where he built high places, and erected Asherah pillars and graven images before he humbled himself, behold, they are written among the sayings of Hozai.
 20. And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him at his own house, and Amon his son reigned after him.
- ¶21. Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem.
22. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, as Manasseh his father had done, and Amon sacrificed to all the graven images that Manasseh his father had made, and served them.
 23. But he did not humble himself before Jehovah the way Manasseh his father humbled himself; on the contrary, this Amon did even more wrong.
 24. And his servants conspired against him and put him to death in his own house.
 25. But the people of the land killed all those who conspired against king Amon, and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

2Chronicles 34

- ¶1. Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.
2. And he did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah and walked in the ways of David his father; yea, he did not turn aside to the right or the left.
3. And in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still a boy, he began to seek the God of David his father, and in the twelfth year, he began to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, and the Asherah pillars, and the graven images, and the molten images.
4. Yea, in his presence, they tore down the altars of the Baals, and hewed down the sun-pillars that belonged to them, that were above them, and broke to pieces the Asherah pillars, and the carved images, and the molten images. Then he made dust of them and scattered it on the graves of those who had made sacrifices to them,
5. and he burned the bones of the priests on the altars. And so, he cleansed Judah and Jerusalem,
6. as well as in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even to Naphtali, in their mountain villages round about.
7. And when he had torn down the altars, and crushed to powder the Asherah pillars, and graven images, and molten images, and had cut down all the sun-pillars in the whole land of Israel, then he returned to Jerusalem.

8. Now, in the eighteenth year of his reign, in order to purify the land and the temple, he sent Shaphan ben-Azaliah and Maaseiah, governor of the city, and Josh ben-Joahaz the recorder to repair the house of Jehovah his God.
9. So, they went to Hilkiah the high priest and turned over the money that had been brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the door-keepers, had collected from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, and from all Judah and Benjamin, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
10. And they delivered it to the overseers of the work being done in the church of Jehovah. And they gave it to the workmen who were working in the church of Jehovah to repair and restore the house.
11. And they gave it to the craftsmen and builders, to purchase hewn stone, and timber for binders and beams for the buildings that the kings of Judah had let go to ruin.
12. And the men did the work faithfully. And over them, Jahath and Obadiah, Levites of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam from the sons of the Kohathites were appointed to oversee them as well all the Levites who were skillful with instruments of music,
13. also the burden-bearers and overseers, even all who were providing labor for any kind of work, even some of the Levitical scribes, officers, and gatekeepers.
14. And when they brought out the money that had been brought into the church of Jehovah, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of Jehovah by the hand of Moses.
15. And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found the Book of the Law in the house of Jehovah.” And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan.
16. Then Shaphan carried the book in to the king. And brought word back to the king, saying, “All that was committed to your servants, they are doing.
17. And they have emptied out the money that was found in the house of Jehovah and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers and the hand of those doing the work.”
18. Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, “Hilkiah the priest gave me a book.” And Shaphan read in it before the king.
19. And it came to pass when the king heard the words of the law, he tore his clothes.
20. And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam ben-Shaphan, and Abdon ben-Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Isaiah the king’s servant, saying,
21. “Go! Inquire of Jehovah for me and for the remnant in Jerusalem and Judah concerning the words of the book that was found! For great is the wrath of Jehovah that has been poured out on us because our fathers did not keep the word of Jehovah, to do according to all that is written in this book!”
22. Then Hilkiah went with others from the king to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum ben-Tokehath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe, for she lived in Jerusalem, in the Second Quarter. And they spoke to her as they were instructed.
23. And she said to them, “Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel: Tell the man who sent you to me,

24. ‘Thus says Jehovah: Behold, I am bringing evil upon this place and its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the book that they read before the king of Judah
25. because they have forsaken me and burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore, my wrath will be poured out on this place, and it will not be quenched!’
26. But concerning the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of Jehovah, thus shall you say to him: ‘Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel regarding the words that you heard:
27. Inasmuch as your heart was tender and you have humbled yourself before God when you heard His words concerning this place and its inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before me, and you tore your garments and wept before me, I have also heard you, says Jehovah.
28. Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes will not see all the evil that I will bring upon this place and its inhabitants.’” And they brought back word to the king.
29. Then the king send out and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.
30. And the king went up to the house of Jehovah with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the priests and Levites—and all the people from the great to the small—and he read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant that had been found in the house of Jehovah.
31. And the king stood in his place, and he made a covenant before Jehovah, to walk after Jehovah and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart, and with all his soul to ‘carry out the words of the covenant that were written in this book.
32. And he made all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand with him. And so, the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.
33. So, Josiah took away all the abominations from all the areas that belonged to the children of Israel, and he made all who were present in Jerusalem to serve Jehovah their God dutifully. All his days, they did not turn from following Jehovah, the God of their fathers.

2Chronicles 35

- ¶1. Then Josiah kept a Passover unto Jehovah in Jerusalem, and they slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the first month.
2. And he appointed the priests their offices and encouraged them for the service of the house of Jehovah.
3. And he told the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy to Jehovah, “Put the holy ark into the house which Solomon ben-David the king of Israel built. It is not to be a burden on your shoulders. Serve Jehovah your God now, and His people Israel!

4. And prepare yourselves according to the house of your fathers according to your courses according to the prescription of David the king of Israel and the prescription of Solomon his son.
5. And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of your brothers' fathers' house, sons of the people, according to the part of the families of the Levites.
6. And slaughter the Passover, and sanctify yourselves, and make preparations for your brothers to do according to the word of Jehovah by the hand of Moses."
7. And Josiah contributed for the children of the people a flock of lambs and kids, all for Passover offerings for all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand cattle. These were from the king's possessions.
8. His princes also willingly contributed to the people, and to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah, and Zechariah, and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings one thousand and six hundred, and three hundred cattle.
9. Conaniah also, with Shemaiah and Nethaneel his brothers, as well as Heshabiah, and Jeiel, and Jozabad, officers of the Levites, gave five thousand Passover offerings to the Levites, and five hundred cattle.
10. So, the service was prepared. And the priests stood in their place, and the Levites according to their divisions, as the king had commanded.
11. And they slaughtered the Passover offering, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them.
12. And they set aside the burnt offerings to distribute them according to the divisions of the house of the fathers of the children of the people, that they might make an offering to Jehovah as it is written in the book of Moses, and likewise the cattle.
13. And they roasted the Passover on the fire according to the custom, and they boiled the holy parts in pots, and kettles, and pans, and they carried them quickly to all the children of the people.
14. And afterward, they made preparations for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were offering up burnt offerings with the fat portions until nightfall. So, the Levites made preparations for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.
15. And the singers, the sons of Asaph, were in their place according to the commandment of David, even Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer. And the gatekeepers at each gate did not need to cease from their service because their brothers, the Levites, made preparations for them.
16. So, all the service of Jehovah was prepared that day, for keeping the Passover and offering burnt offerings on the altar of Jehovah, according to the command of King Josiah.
17. And the children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days.

18. Such a Passover had not been kept in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet. None of the kings of Israel had kept such a Passover as Josiah kept, and the priests and Levites, and all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
19. In the eighteenth year of his reign was this Passover kept.
- ¶20. After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho the king of Egypt came up to fight at Carchemesh by the Euphrates, and Josiah went out to confront him.
21. And he sent messengers to him, saying, "What is there between me and you, O king of Judah? I am not come up against you today, but against the house with which I am at war, and God told me to hurry. So, cease from meddling with God, who is with me, lest He destroy you!"
22. Nevertheless, Josiah would not turn away from him, but he disguised himself to fight against him. Yes, he would not heed the words of Necho from the mouth of God, but came to fight in the Valley of Megiddo.
23. And the archers shot king Josiah, and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, for I am badly wounded."
24. So his servants took him out of the chariot, and they put him in his second chariot and brought him to Jerusalem. And he died and was buried in the tombs of his fathers, and all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.
- ¶25. And Jeremiah made a lament for Josiah, and to this day, all the male and female singers sing of Josiah in their lamentations, and men made them an ordinance for Israel. And behold, they are written in The Laments.
26. Now, the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his great goodness according to what is written in the law of Jehovah,
27. yea, his deeds first to last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

2Chronicles 36

- ¶1. Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz ben-Josiah and made him king in Jerusalem in the place of his father.
2. Joahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.
3. Then the king of Egypt deposed him, and he imposed upon the land a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.
4. And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and he changed his name to Jehoiakim. But Necho took his brother Joahaz and carried him to Egypt.
5. And Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah his God.
6. Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and he bound him with bronze shackles to take him to Babylon.

7. Nebuchadnezzar also took to Babylon some articles from the house of Jehovah, and he put them in his palace in Babylon.
8. Now, the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he committed, and what has been found out about him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. And Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.
9. Jehoiachin was eighteen⁹ years old when he became king, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah.
10. And at the turn of the year, king Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him into Babylon, with precious articles from the church of Jehovah, and he made his brother Zedekiah king over Judah in Jerusalem.
11. Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.
12. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah his God. He did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, at the mouthpiece of Jehovah.
13. Moreover, he also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear an oath before God, but he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart instead of turning to Jehovah, the God of Israel.
14. The princes also, the priests, and the people committed extraordinarily treacherous acts, like all the abominations of the Gentiles, and they polluted the house of Jehovah that He had consecrated in Jerusalem.
15. And Jehovah, the God of their fathers, sent to them by the hand of His messengers, rising early and sending them, because he felt compassion for His people and for His habitation.
16. But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised His words, and scoffed at his prophets until the wrath of Jehovah was stirred up against His people, until there was no cure.
17. That is why He brought up upon them the king of the Chaldeans, and he slew their young men with the sword in the temple sanctuary, and he spared neither young man nor virgin, elder nor aged. He gave them all into his hand.
18. And all the vessels of the house of God, both great and small, and the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king and his princes—all of it he brought to Babylon.
19. And they burned down the house of God, and they broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burned up all its palaces with fire. And all its valuable vessels, they destroyed.
20. And those who survived the sword, he carried off to Babylon, and they became his and his children's. And they were servants to the king until the reign of the kingdom of Persia,

⁹ Hebrew: eight. Cf. 2Kings 24:8.

21. to fulfill the word of Jehovah by the mouth of Jeremiah the prophet, until the land had enjoyed its sabbaths. All the days it lay desolate, it kept Sabbath, to fulfill seventy years.
22. Then, in the first year of Cyrus the king of Persia, to fulfill the word of Jehovah by the mouth of Jeremiah, Jehovah stirred up the spirit of Cyrus the king of Persia, and he made a proclamation for all his kingdom, and put it in writing also, saying,
23. "Thus says Cyrus the king of Persia: Jehovah, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he has appointed me to build a house for Him in Jerusalem which is in Judah. Whoever is among you of all His people, may Jehovah his God be with him, and let him go up."

Ezra

Ezra 1

- ¶1. In the first year of Cyrus, king of Persia, in order for Jehovah's word by the mouth of Jeremiah to be fulfilled, Jehovah stirred up the spirit of Cyrus, king of Persia, and he caused a proclamation to go out (spread) in all his kingdom and also put it in writing, saying:
- 2. "Thus says Cyrus, king of Persia: Jehovah, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he has commissioned me to build a house for Him in Jerusalem, which is in Judah.
- 3. Who remains among you of all his people? May his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of Jehovah, the God of Israel—He is the God who is in Jerusalem.
- 4. And let every survivor, from every place he sojourns, be assisted by the men of his place there with silver and with gold, and with goods and with beasts, along with freewill offerings for the house of God who is in Jerusalem."
- 5. Then rose up the heads of the fathers' houses from Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and the Levites, all whose spirit God had stirred to go up to build the house of Jehovah that is in Jerusalem.
- 6. And all who were around them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, besides all else that was voluntarily offered.
- 7. And Cyrus the king brought out the vessels from the house of Jehovah which Nebuchadnezzar brought out from Jerusalem and had put in a house of his god.
- 8. And King Cyrus of Persia brought them out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and he counted them for Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.
- 9. And these were the number of them: thirty basins of gold, a thousand basins of silver, twenty-nine knives,
- 10. thirty bowls of gold, four hundred and ten matching silver bowls, and a thousand other vessels.
- 11. All the vessels of gold and silver were five thousand four hundred, all the which Sheshbazzar brought up with the exiles from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Ezra 2

- ¶1. Now these are the children of the province who went up from the exiles that had been carried to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. And they returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each man to his city.
- 2. These came with Zerubbabel: Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rechum, and Baanah. This is the number of the men of the people of Israel:

3. The sons of Parosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two.
4. The sons of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two.
5. The sons of Arah, seven hundred and seventy-five.
6. The sons of Pahath-moab, the sons of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve.
7. The sons of Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four.
8. The sons of Zattu, nine hundred and forty-five.
9. The sons of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty.
10. The sons of Bani, six hundred and forty-two.
11. The sons of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-three.
12. The sons of Azgad, one thousand two hundred and twenty-two.
13. The sons of Adonikam, six hundred and sixty-six.
14. The sons of Bigvai, two thousand and fifty-six.
15. The sons of Adin, four hundred and fifty-four.
16. The sons of Ater, of Hezekiah, ninety-eight.
17. The sons of Bezai, three hundred and twenty-three.
18. The sons of Jorah, one hundred and twelve.
19. The sons of Hashum, two hundred and twenty-three.
20. The sons of Gibbar, ninety-five.
21. The sons of Bethlehem, one hundred and twenty-three.
22. The men of Netophah, fifty-six.
23. The men of Anathoth, one hundred and twenty-eight.
24. The sons of Azmaveth, forty-two.
25. The sons of Kiriath-arim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty-three.
26. The sons of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one.
27. The men of Michmas, one hundred and twenty-two.
28. The men of Bethel and Ai, two hundred and twenty-three.
29. The sons of Nebo, fifty-two.
30. The sons of Magbish, one hundred and fifty-six.
31. The sons of the other Eilam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four.
32. The sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty.
33. The sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-five.
34. The sons of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five.
35. The sons of Senaah, three thousand six hundred and thirty.
36. The priests: the sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred and seventy-three.
37. The sons of Immer, one thousand and fifty-two.
38. The sons of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred and forty-seven.
39. The sons of Harim, one thousand and seventeen.
40. The Levites: the sons of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the sons of Hodavyah, seventy-four.
41. The singers: the sons of Asaph, one hundred and twenty-eight.

¶42. The sons of the gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, and the sons of Shobai, in all, one hundred and thirty-nine.

¶43. The Nethinim (temple slaves): the sons of Ziha, sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth,
44. the sons of Keros, the sons of Siaha, the sons of Padon,
45. the sons of Lebanon, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of Akkub,
46. the sons of Hagab, the sons of Shamlai, the sons of Hanan,
47. the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah,
48. the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam,
49. the sons of Uzza, sons of Paseach, the sons of Besai,
50. the sons of Asnah, sons of Meh-inim, the sons of Nephisim,
51. the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur,
52. the sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha,
53. the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah,
54. the sons of Neziah, and the sons of Hatipha.
55. The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Hassophereth, the sons of Peruda,
56. the sons of Jaalah, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel,
57. the sons of Shephatiah, sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim, and the sons of Ami.
58. All the Nethinim (temple slaves) and sons of Solomon's servants were three hundred and ninety-two.

¶59. And these were the ones who came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer, but they were not able to prove their fathers' house, or their ancestry (seed), whether they were of Israel:
60. The sons of Delaiah, sons of Tobiah, and the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and fifty-two.
61. And of the sons of the priests: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzillai who had taken a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by their name.
62. These sought their documents among the geological records, but could not find them, and were excluded (by impurity) from the priesthood.
63. And the governor told them that they should not eat of the most holy things until there arose a priest with Urim and Thummim.
64. The whole congregation together numbered forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,
65. besides their servants and maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and among them were two hundred men and women singers.

- 66. Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules were two hundred and forty-five,¹
 - 67. their camels were four hundred and thirty-five, and their asses were six thousand seven hundred and twenty.
- ¶68. And when they came to the house of Jehovah, which is in Jerusalem, those from heads of the fathers voluntarily offered towards raising the house of God on its foundation.
- 69. As they were able, they gave to the treasury of the work: sixty one thousand gold drachmas, five thousand silver minehs, and one hundred priest's garments.
 - 70. And the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim (temple slaves) dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

Ezra 3

- ¶1. And when the seventh month arrived, the sons of Israel were in the cities and the people gathered as one in Jerusalem.
- 2. And Jeshua the son of Jozadak arose with his fellow priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel with his kinsmen, and they built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as written in the law of Moses, the man of God.
 - 3. And they set the altar upon his bases, for fear was on them because of the peoples of the lands, and they offered burnt offerings on it to Jehovah, burnt offerings morning and evening.
 - 4. And they kept the feast of booths, as it is written, and offered, day by day, the burnt offerings by the number prescribed as each day required. {phrase day by day repeated}
 - 5. And after that, the continual burnt offering at the new moon and at all the appointed times of Jehovah; the consecrated things of all who voluntarily made a freewill offering to Jehovah.
 - 6. From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to Jehovah. But the foundation of the temple of Jehovah was not yet laid.
 - 7. And they gave silver to the stonemasons and the craftsmen, and food, and drink, and oil to the Sidonians and those of Tyre to bring cedar trees from the Lebanon to the sea, to Joppa, according to the grant unto them from Cyrus king of Persia.
- ¶8. And in the second year of their coming to the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel ben-Shealtiel and Jeshua ben-Jozadak together with the rest of their kinsmen, the priests and the Levites and all who had come to Jerusalem from the captivity began the work. They appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward to supervise the work of the house of Jehovah.

- ¶9. And Jeshua with his sons and his brothers, and Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, stood together to supervise the work in the house of God, the sons of Henadad, their sons, and the kinsmen of the Levites.
10. And when the builders of the temple of Jehovah laid the foundation, they stationed the priests, dressed and with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with the cymbals for praising Jehovah according to the directions of David, king of Israel.
11. And they sang responsively with praise and thanksgiving to Jehovah, “He is good and His mercy endures forever toward Israel.” And all the people raised a great shout of joy when praise was offered to Jehovah for the foundation of the temple of Jehovah being laid.
12. Now, many of the priests and Levites, and the heads of the fathers’ houses, old men who had seen the first temple, began weeping with a loud voice when before their eyes the foundation of this temple was laid. But many lifted up their voice with a shout of joy and gladness,
13. so that people were unable to distinguish the sound of the shout of joy from the sound of the people weeping because the younger people were lifting up a great shout of joy, and the sound was heard far off.

Ezra 4

- ¶1. And when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the sons (children) of the exiles built a temple for Jehovah, the God of Israel,
2. they then came to Zerubbabel, and to the chiefs of the fathers, and said to them: “Let us build with you, because like you, we seek your God, and have been sacrificing to him since the days of Esar-Hadon, king of Assyria, the one who brought us here.”
3. But Zerubbabel and Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of fathers in Israel said to them, “You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves will build to Jehovah, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us to.”
4. Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, to make them afraid to build.
5. And they bribed counselors against them to frustrate their plans all the days of Cyrus, king of Persia even until the days of Darius, king of Persia.
6. And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.
7. And in the days of Artachshashta, Bishlam and Mithredath and Tabeel and the rest of their companions wrote to Artachshashta, king of Persia. The letter was written in Aramaic, having been interpreted into Aramaic.
- ¶8. Rehum the head commander and Shimhai a scribe wrote a single letter against Jerusalem to Artachshashta the king thusly:

9. From Rehum the head commander, and Shimshai a scribe, and the rest of their companions - the judges, the governors, the officials, the Persians, the men of Erech, the Babylonians, the men of Susa, that is, the Elamites, {meaning uncertain in this list}
10. and the rest of the peoples, whom the great and honorable Osnappar brought into exile and caused to dwell in the cities of Samaria and in the rest of the province beyond the River, {Euphrates?}
11. (This is a copy of the letter that they sent to him.): "To Artaxerxes the king: Your servants, men of the province beyond the River, send greeting. Now,
12. Let it be known to the king that the Jews which came up from you to us in Jerusalem are rebuilding a rebellious and wicked city. They are rebuilding the walls and repairing the foundations.
13. Now let it be known to the king if this city is built, and the walls completed, the tax-tribute and tolls will not be paid, and the treasury of the king will suffer loss.
14. Now because we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not fitting that the king be dishonored, we send this to inform the king,
15. so that inquiry of the minute-books of your fathers be made. In the minute-books you will learn that this city is a rebellious city, injurious to kings and provinces, and revolt has been made in its midst from days of old, and because of this, the city was destroyed.
16. We make known to the king that if this city be built and its walls finished, you will have no possession in the region beyond the River."

- ¶17. The king sent an answer to Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe and the rest of their colleagues who dwelt in Samaria and in the rest of the region beyond the River, "Peace! Now
18. the letter that you sent to us has been translated and read before me.
 19. And I ordered a search be made, and they found that this city from ancient time has risen against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made in it.
 20. And mighty kings have been over Jerusalem, who ruled over the whole region beyond the River, unto whom tribute, tax, and toll were paid.
 21. Therefore, command these men to cease so that this city will not be built until I make a judgment.
 22. And take care not to be slack in this matter. Why should damage grow to the hurt of the king?"
 23. Then, when a copy of King Artachshashta's letter was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe, and their associates, they went in haste to the Jews at Jerusalem, and by force and power, made them cease.
 24. Then, the work on the house of God which is in Jerusalem stopped, and discontinued until the second year of the reign of Darius, king of Persia.

- ¶1. And the prophets, Haggai and Zechariah, the son of Iddo prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel who was over them.
2. Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak arose and began rebuilding the house of God which is in Jerusalem, and the prophets of God were with them, supporting them.
3. At that time, against them came Tattenai (governor of the province beyond the River), Shethar-bozenai, and their colleagues, and told them thus, “Who commanded you to rebuild this house and complete this structure?”
4. Then we said to them accordingly: “What are the names of the men who are constructing this building?”
5. But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, and they did not make them stop until the report should come before Darius and then an answer be returned in writing concerning it.
- ¶6. (Here is) a copy of the letter that Tattenai the governor of the province beyond the River and Shethar-bozenai and his colleagues, the governors who were in the province beyond the River, sent to Darius the king.
7. They sent a report to him in which was written as follows: To Darius the king, all peace.
8. Let it be known to the king that we went to the the province of Judah, to house of the great God, which is being built with great stones, and timber is being laid in the walls. And this work is being done diligently and prospers in their hands.
9. Then we asked these elders thus, saying to them: “Who gave you a decree to build this house and to complete this structure?”
10. And we also asked them their names, so we could write down the names of their leaders.
11. And thus they returned an answer, saying “We are the servants of God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the house that was built many years ago, built and finished by a great king of Israel.
12. But because our fathers enraged the God of the heavens, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house and carried the people away into Babylon.
13. However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, Cyrus the king made a decree to rebuild this house of God.
14. Moreover, the vessels of the house of God which were gold and silver, Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple which was in Jerusalem and brought them to the temple of Babylon, these Cyrus the king took out of the temple of Babylon, and gave them to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor;
15. And he said to him, ‘Take these vessels, go and put them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its site.’
16. So this same Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the house of God that is in Jerusalem, and from then until now it has been in building, and it is not yet finished.

17. Now then, if it seems good to the king, let search be made in the royal archives which is there in Babylon, to see whether a decree was issued by Cyrus the king for the building of this house of God in Jerusalem. And let the king send us his pleasure in this matter.”

Ezra 6

- ¶1. Then King Darius made a decree, and search was made in the house of archives, among the treasure houses there in Babylon.
2. And in Achmetha, the fortress that is in the province of Media, one scroll was found with this record written on it:
3. In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king made a decree: “Concerning the house of God at Jerusalem. Let the house be built, the place where sacrifices were offered, and let its foundations be laid. Its height shall be sixty cubits and its width sixty cubits,
4. with three layers of great stones and one layer of new timber. Let the expense be paid from the treasury of the king.
5. And also, the vessels of the house of God, which are of gold and silver, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that is in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored and brought back to the temple that is in Jerusalem, each to its place, and deposit them in the house of God.
6. So now, Tattenai, governor of the territory beyond the River, Shethar-bozenai, and your colleagues, the officials in the region beyond the River, stay far away from there!
7. Let the work on this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the Jews’ elders rebuild this house of God on its site.
8. And so, I make this decree regarding what you shall do for these elders of the Jews for the rebuilding of this house of God. From out of the king’s treasury, out of the tribute of the province from beyond the River, the cost is to be paid in full to these men, without ceasing.
9. And what things are needed, young bulls, and rams, and sheep for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, as the priests need which are at Jerusalem, let that be given to them day by day, without ceasing
10. so that they can offer sacrifices of pleasing aroma to God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king and his sons.
11. And I also make a decree that if any man alters this word, a beam of wood shall be pulled out of his house, and he shall be impaled upon it, and his house shall be made a dunghill because of this.
12. And may the God that hath caused his name to dwell there overthrow any king or people that shall put forth a hand to alter this, or to destroy this house of God which is in Jerusalem. I Darius make a decree; let it be done with all diligence.”

13. Then Tattenai governor of the region beyond the River, Shethar-bozenai, and their colleagues diligently carried out what King Darius had ordered.
 14. And the elders of the Jews built and prospered according to the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built and finished at the command of the God of Israel and by the command of Cyrus and Darius and Artaxerxes, king of Persia.
 15. And this house was finished on the third day of the month of Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.
- ¶16. And the sons of Israel, the priests and the Levites, and the rest of the returned sons of the exiles, celebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy.
17. And they offered for the dedication of this house of God a hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; a sin-offering for all Israel: twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.
 18. And they set the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their courses over the service of God in Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses.
- ¶19. And the sons of the exiles kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.
20. For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together—all of them were pure. And they killed the passover lamb for all the sons of the exiles, for their brothers, the priests, and for themselves.
 21. And the sons of Israel ate, which had returned from captivity, and all who had joined them and had separated himself from the uncleanness of the peoples of the land, to worship Jehovah, the God of Israel.
 22. And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy; for Jehovah had made them glad by turning the heart of the king of Assyria to them, so that he their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra 7

- ¶1. Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes, king of Persia, Ezra ben-Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkijah,
2. son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub,
 3. son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son of Meraioth,
 4. son of Zerahiah, son of Uzzi, son of Bukki,
 5. son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the chief priest:
 6. this Ezra went up from Babylon. And he was a scribe skilled in the Law of Moses that Jehovah, the God of Israel, had given. The king granted him all that he asked, for the hand of the Jehovah his God was on him.
 7. And there went up from among the sons of Israel, some of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.
 8. And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king;

9. for in the first day of the first month, he began to go up from Babylon, and in the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, for the good hand of his God was upon him.
10. For Ezra had fixed his heart to study the law of the Jehovah, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and ordinances.
11. Now this is a copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of Jehovah, and of his statutes to Israel:
12. Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, [perfect, and so forth,?]
13. I decree that all in my kingdom among the people of Israel, or their priests or Levites, who, of his own free will, chooses to go with you to Jerusalem, may go with you.
14. For from before the king and his seven counselors you are sent to make inquiries about Judah and Jerusalem according to the Law of your God, which is in your hand,
15. and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose house is in Jerusalem,
16. and all the silver and gold that you shall find in the whole province of Babylon, and with the freewill offerings of the people and the priests, willingly for the house of their God that is in Jerusalem.
17. With this money then, you shall with all diligence buy bulls, rams, and lambs, with their grain offerings and their drink offerings, and you shall offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.
18. Whatever seems good to you and your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and gold, that do, according to the good pleasure of your God.
19. And the vessels that have been given you for the service of the house of your God, deliver to the God of Jerusalem.
20. And the rest that is needed for the house of your God, which you have occasion to provide, give it out of the king's treasury.
21. And I, Artaxerxes the king, make a decree to all the treasurers in the province beyond the River: Whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, requires of you, do it with diligence,
22. up to a hundred talents of silver, and up to one hundred cors of wheat, and up to a hundred baths of wine, and up to a hundred baths of oil, and salt without limit.
23. Whatever is decreed by the God of heaven, let it be done diligently for the house of the God of heaven, for why should wrath be upon the kingdom of the king and his sons?
24. We also inform you that all the priests, and the Levites, singers, doorkeepers, temple servants, or other servants of this house of God shall not have tribute, taxes and tolls cast on them.
25. And you, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God which is in your hand, appoint men to judge and rulers who will judge all the people in the province beyond the River, all who know the laws of your God, and those who do not know, you teach.

26. And all who will not obey the law of your God and the law of the king, execute judgment on him speedily, whether to death, whether banishment, whether confiscation of his property, or for imprisonment.
- ¶27. Blessed be Jehovah, the God of our fathers, who put such as this in the king's heart, to glorify the house of Jehovah, which is in Jerusalem.
28. and who extended to me goodness from before the king and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I took courage, for the hand of Jehovah my God was on me, and I gathered from Israel, leading men to go up with me.

Ezra 8

- ¶1. And these are the heads of their fathers' houses, and those registered who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king:
2. Of the sons of Phinehas: Gershom. Of the sons of Ithamar: Daniel. Of the sons of David: Hattush.
3. Of the sons of Shecaniah, of the sons of Parosh: Zechariah, with whom were registered one hundred and fifty males.
4. Of the sons of Pahath-moab: Eliehoenai, son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males.
5. Of the sons of Shecaniah, son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.
6. And of the sons of Adin, Ebed, the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males.
7. Of the sons of Elam: Jeshaiah, the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.
8. And of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him eighty males.
9. Of the sons of Joab: Obadiah, the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males.
10. And of the sons of Shelomith: the son of Josiphiah, and with him one hundred and sixty males.
11. And of the sons of Bebai: Zechariah, the son of Bebai, and with him twenty eight males.
12. And of the sons of Azgad: Johanan, the son of Hakkatan, and with him one hundred and ten males.
13. And of the sons of Adonikam (those who came later), their names being Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah, and with them sixty males.
14. And of the sons of Bigyai: Uthai and Zabbud (or Zachur), and with them seventy males.
15. And I gathered them to the river that comes to Ahava, and we camped there three days. And I surveyed among the people and the priests, and I found none of the sons of Levi there.
16. So I sent for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, the chief men; and for Joiarib and for Elnathan, who were men of discernment.
17. And I sent them to Iddo, the leading man at the place Casiphia, telling them what to say to Iddo and his brothers and the temple servants at the place Casiphia, that they should bring for us ministers for the house of our God.

18. And they brought us, by the good hand of our God on us, a man of prudence, of the sons of Mahli, son of Levi, son of Israel, and Sherebiah with his sons and brothers, eighteen men.
 19. And also Hashabiah, and with Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, along with his brothers and their sons, twenty men.
 20. And of the Nethinim, whom David and the leaders had given for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim: all of them were designated by name.
 21. Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the River Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek of Him a safe journey for ourselves, and for our little ones, and for all our goods.
 22. For I was ashamed to ask of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy on the way, for we had spoken to the king, saying, “The hand of our God is upon those who seek Him, for good, but His power and His wrath are against all those who forsake Him.”
 23. And so, we fasted and sought our God for this, and He was entreated of us.
 24. And I set apart twelve of the leading priests: Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers.
 25. And I weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the vessels, the offering for the house of our God that the king, and his counselors, and his lords, and all Israel present there had offered.
 26. And I weighed out into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels worth a hundred talents, and a hundred talents of gold,
 27. and twenty bowls of gold, worth a thousand darics, and two vessels of good gleaming bronze, as precious as gold.
 28. And I said to them, “You are holy to Jehovah, and the vessels are holy, and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering for Jehovah, God of your fathers.
 29. Guard them and keep them until you weigh them before the chief priests and the Levites, and the heads of fathers in Israel at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of Jehovah.”
 30. So the priests and the Levites took the weight of the silver and the gold and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem, to the house of our God.
- ¶31. And we set out from the river Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem. And the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambushes by the way.
32. And we came to Jerusalem, and we stayed there three days.
 33. And on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were to be weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth ben-Uria the priest. And with him was Eleazar ben-Phinehas. And with them was Jozabad ben-Jeshua, and Noadiah ben-Binnui, the Levites.
 34. By quantity and by weight, all was recorded, the total weight at that time.

¶35. The children of the exiles, who came from captivity brought burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve young bulls for all Israel, ninety six rams, seventy seven lambs, and twelve he-goats as a sin offering; all this was a burnt offering for Jehovah.

¶36. And they also delivered the king's decrees to the king's satraps and to the governors of the province beyond the River, and they supported the people and the house of God.

Ezra 9

- ¶1. Now after these things had been done, the rulers approached me, saying, "The people of Israel, and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the surrounding lands with their abominations: the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians and the Amorites.
2. Rather, they have taken their daughters for themselves and their sons, so that the holy seed has been mingled with the peoples of the lands. And the hand of the rulers and governors has been foremost in this unfaithfulness."
3. And when I heard this report, I tore my garment and my robe, and I pulled hair out of my head and my beard and sat down, appalled.
4. And then, all who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the treachery of the returned exiles, and I, sat appalled until the evening sacrifice.
5. And at the evening sacrifice, I arose up from my humiliation, and with my garment and my robe torn, and I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto Jehovah my God.
6. And I said: "O my God, I am ashamed and humiliated to lift my face toward You, my God, because our iniquities are higher than our heads, and our guilt is as high as the heavens.
7. From the days of our fathers we have been in great guiltiness to this day. And for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests, have been given into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plundering, and to utter shame, as it is today.
8. And now, for a brief moment, favor has come from Jehovah our God to allow a remnant to escape, and to give us a small peg in His holy place, that our God may brighten our eyes, and revive us a little in our slavery.
9. For we are slaves. And in our slavery our God has not forsaken us, but has extended to us his loving kindness before the kings of Persia, to grant us some reviving to set up the house of our God, to repair its ruins, and to give us protection in Judea and Jerusalem.
10. And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken your commandments
11. which you commanded by your servants the prophets, saying, 'The land that you are coming in to take possession of, is a land impure with the impurity of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations that have filled it from end to end with their uncleanness.'

12. So do not give your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons. And do not seek their peace or prosperity ever, that you may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your sons for ever.'
 13. And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guiltiness, seeing that you, our God, have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such a remnant as this,
 14. shall we break your commandments again, and intermarry with the peoples who commit these abominations? Would you not be angry with us until you consume us, and so no remnant could escape?
- ¶15. O Jehovah, God of Israel, you are righteous; for we are left a remnant that is escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before you in our guiltiness; for none can stand before you because of this."

Ezra 10

- ¶1. And as Ezra prayed, and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, a very great assembly of men, women, and children, gathered to him out of Israel, for the people wept bitterly.
 2. And Shecaniah ben-Jehiel, of the sons of Elam, responded, saying to Ezra: "We have been unfaithful with our God, and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land, but even now there is hope for Israel after all this.
 3. And now, let us make a covenant with our God to put away all these wives and their children, according to the counsel of my lord and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God; and do what the law says should be done.
 4. Arise, for this is your duty, and we are with you; take courage, and do it."
 5. And Ezra arose, and made the leading priests, Levites, and all Israel swear to do according to this word, and they swore.
 6. And Ezra then went from the house of God, and walked to the chamber of Jehohanan ben-Eliashib, went there neither eating food or drinking water, because he was mourning over the treachery of the exiles.
 7. And a proclamation was caused to be made in Judah and Jerusalem to all the sons of the exiles, that they should assemble at Jerusalem.
 8. And that if anyone did not come within three days, by order of the officials and the elders, he would forfeit all his property, and he himself banned from the congregation of the exiles.
 9. And all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled at Jerusalem within the three days, on the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month. And all the people sat in the open space before the house of God, trembling because of this matter and because of the heavy rain.
- ¶10. And Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have acted faithlessly and married foreign women, adding greatly to Israel's guilt.

11. So now make confession unto Jehovah, the God of your fathers, and do what He desires and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the foreign women.”
 12. And all the assembly responded with a great voice: “Yes, as you have said, we will do!
 13. However the people are many, and it is a time of heavy rain and we cannot stand here outside. Nor is this a work for one day or for two; for we have greatly sinned in this matter.
 14. Let our leaders each stand for the whole assembly. Let all those in our towns who have married foreign women come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of each town and city, until the anger of our God be turned away in this matter.”
 15. So Jonathan ben-Asahel and Jahzeiah ben-Tikvah were appointed over this, with Meshullam, and Shabbethai the Levite supporting them.
 16. And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest selected men, heads of fathers' houses, according to their fathers' houses, each of them designated by name. On the first day of the tenth month they sat down to examine the matter.
 17. And they finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign women by the first day of the first month.
- ¶18. And there were found some of the sons of the priests who had married foreign women: from the sons of Jeshua ben-Jozadak and his brothers: Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah.
19. And they gave their hand that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their wrongdoing.
 20. And Of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.
 21. And of the sons of Harim; Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uzziah.
 22. And Of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasar.
 23. And of the Levites: Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah (he is also Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.
 24. And of the singers: Eliashib. And of the doorkeepers: Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.
 25. And of Israel, of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, and Izziah, and Malchiah, and Mijamin, and Eleazar, and Hashabiah, and Benaiah.
 26. And of the sons of Elam: Mataniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Elijah.
 27. Of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattanyah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza.
 28. And of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, Athlai.
 29. And of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, and Ramoth.
 30. And of the sons of Pahath-moab: Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattanyah, Bezalel, and Binnui, and Manasseh.
 31. And of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Isshiah, Malchiah, Shemaiah, Shimeon.
 32. Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah.

33. Of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.
34. Of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel,
35. Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhi,
36. Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,
37. Mattanyah, Mattenai, and Jaasai,
38. and Bani, and Binnui, Shimei,
39. and Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah,
40. Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,
41. Azarel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah,
42. Shallum, Amariah, Joseph.
43. Of the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, and Joel, Benaiah.
44. All these had married foreign wives; and there were some wives who had borne them sons.

Nehemiah

Nehemiah 1

- ¶1. The words of Nehemiah ben-Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chislev, in the twentieth year, that I was in Shushan the citadel.
2. And Hanani, one of my brothers, came in with men from Judah, and I asked them about the escaped remnant of Jews who were left of the captivity, and about Jerusalem.
3. And they said to me, “The remnant there in the province who remain of the captives are in great distress and reproach, and Jerusalem’s wall is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire.”
4. And it came to pass when I heard these words that I sat down and wept. And I mourned for days, and fasted and prayed before the God of heaven.
5. And I said, “I beseech you, O Jehovah, God of heaven, the great and fearful God, who keeps covenant and lovingkindness for those who love Him and keep His commandments.
6. Let your ear, I pray, be attentive, and your eyes open, that you might hear the prayer of your servant which I am praying to you this day, day and night, for the children of Israel your servants, and confessing the sins of the children of Israel which we sinned against you, that I and my father’s house have sinned.
7. We have been very corrupt toward you and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which you commanded Moses your servant.
8. Remember, I pray, the word which you commanded Moses your servant, saying, ‘You will be unfaithful, and I will scatter you among the nations.
9. But you will return to me and keep my commandments, and you will do them. Though you be driven out to the ends of the heavens, from there will I gather them and bring them back to the place that I chose as a dwelling place for my name.’
10. For they are your servants and your people whom you redeemed by your great power, and your strong hand.
11. O Lord, I pray you, let your ear, I pray you, be attentive to the prayer of your servant, and to the prayer of your servants, who delight to fear your name, and prosper, I pray, your servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man.” For I was the king’s cupbearer.

Nehemiah 2

- ¶1. And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, when wine was before him, that I took up the wine and gave it to the king. Now, I had not been sad in his presence.
2. And the king said to me, “Why is your face sad? For you are not sick. This is certainly sadness of heart.” Then I was very much afraid.

3. And I said to the king, “May the king live forever! Why would my face not be sad when the city, the place of my fathers ’tombs, lies in ruins, and its gates have been consumed by fire?”
4. And the king said to me, “What is it that you want?” So, I prayed to the God of heaven.
5. And I said to the king, “If it please the king, and if your servant has found favor before you, that you would send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers ’tombs, that I may rebuild it.”
6. And the king said to me (with the queen sitting beside him), “How long will your journey be? And when will you return?” So, it was good in the sight of the king to send me, and I gave him a set time.
7. I also said to the king, “If it please the king, let letters be given to me for the governors beyond the river, that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah.
8. And a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king’s forest, that he may give me timber to provide beams for the gates of the fortress, which is by the temple, and for the city walls, and for the house that I will occupy.” And the king gave this to me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.
9. And I came to the governors beyond the river, and I gave them the king’s letters. And the king had also sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.
- ¶10. And Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah¹ the Ammonite servant heard it, and it very greatly displeased them that a man had come to seek good for the children of Israel.
11. And I came to Jerusalem and had been there three days
12. when I arose at night, I and a few men with me. Now, I had not told any man what my God had put into my heart to do for Jerusalem, and there was no beast with me except the beast that I rode upon.
13. And I went out at night through the Valley Gate, and before the Serpent Spring, and to the Dung Gate, for I was inspecting the walls of Jerusalem, which had been broken down, and its gates that had been consumed by fire.
14. Then I passed on to the Fountain Gate, and to the King’s Pool, but there was no place for the beast to pass through beneath me.
15. So I went up by the brook at night while inspecting the wall, and then I turned back and entered by the Valley Gate, and I returned.
16. And the officials did not know where I had gone, or what I was doing, for I had not yet told the Jews, or the priests, or the nobles, or the officials, or the rest who would do the work.

¹ Or, “Tobijah”, meaning “Jehovah is my Good One”.

- ¶17. Then I said to them, “You see the distress that we are in, that Jerusalem is desolate, and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, and let us build the wall of Jerusalem, that we no longer be a reproach.”
18. And I told them of the hand of my God that had been good to me, and of the king’s words which he had spoken to me. Then they said, “Let us rise up and build.” So, they strengthened their hands for the good work.
19. But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the Ammonite servant, and Geshem the Arab heard of it, they mocked us and despised us, saying, “What is this thing that you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?”
20. And I returned a message to them, and I said to them, “The God of heaven, He will make us successful, and we, His servants, will rise up and rebuild the wall, and you have no portion, or righteousness, or memorial in Jerusalem.”

Nehemiah 3

- ¶1. Then Eliashib the high priest and his brothers the priests rose up, and they built the Sheep Gate. They consecrated it and set up its doors. They consecrated it to the Tower of the Hundred, and to the Tower of Hananeel.
2. And next to them, the men of Jericho built. And next to them, Zaccur ben-Imri built.
3. And the sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams, and set up its doors, its locks, and its bars.
4. And next to them, Meremoth ben-Urijah, the son of Koz, made repairs. And next to them, Meshullam ben-Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel, made repairs. And next to them, Zadok ben-Baana made repairs.
5. And next to them, the Tekoites made repairs, but their nobles did not put their necks to the service of their Lord.
6. And Jehoiada ben-Paseah and Meshullam ben-Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate; they laid its beams, and set up its doors, its locks, and its bars.
7. And next to them, Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, of the jurisdiction of the governor beyond the river, made repairs.
8. Next to them, Uzziel ben-Harhaiah and the goldsmiths made repairs. And next to them, Hananiah, one of the perfumers, made repairs, and they fortified Jerusalem as far as the broad wall.
9. And next to them, Rephaiah ben-Hur, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.
10. And next to them, Jedaiah ben-Harumaph, made repairs in front of his house. And next to them, Hattush ben-Hashabniah made repairs.
11. Malchiah ben-Harim and Hashub ben-Pahath-Moab repaired another section, and the Tower of the Ovens.
12. And next to them, Shallum ben-Hallohesh, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs, he and his daughters.

13. Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate; they built it, and set up its doors, its locks, and its bars, and a thousand cubits of the wall to the Dung Gate.
14. And Malchiah ben-Rechab, ruler of the district of Beth-Haccerem, repaired the Dung Gate; he built it, and set up its doors, its locks, and its bars.
15. And Shallun ben-Col-Hozeh, the ruler of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate; he built it, and made a roof for it, and set up its doors, its locks, and its bars, and the wall of the Pool of Shelah by the king's garden as far as the steps that come down from the city of David.
16. After them, Nehemiah ben-Azruk, ruler of half the district of Beth-Zur, repaired to opposite the tombs of David, and to the pool that was made, and to the house of the mighty men.
17. After them, the Levites, Rehum ben-Bani, made repairs. Next to them, Hashabiah, ruler of half the district of Keilah, made repairs on behalf of his district.
18. After them, their brothers made repairs under Bavai ben-Henadad, the ruler of half the district of Keilah.
19. And next to them, Ezer ben-Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, repaired another section opposite the ascent to the armory at the corner.
20. After them, Baruch ben-Zabbai zealously made repairs to another section from the corner to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.
21. After them, Meremoth ben-Urijah, the son of Koz, made repairs to another section from the door of Eliashib's house as far as the end of Eliashib's house.
22. And after them, the priests, men from the surrounding area, made repairs.
23. After them, Benjamin and Hashub made repairs opposite their house. After them, Azariah ben-Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, made repairs beside his house.
24. After them, Binnui ben-Henadad made repairs to another section from Azariah's house as far as the corner buttress, even to the corner.
25. Palal ben-Uzai repaired from the corner buttress and the tower which projected from the king's upper house, which was by the court of the prison. After them, Pedaiah ben-Parosh
26. and the Nethinim, who dwelt in the Ophel, repaired as far as opposite the Water Gate to the east, and the tower that projects outward.
27. After them, the Tekoites repaired another section opposite the great projecting tower as far as the wall of the Ophel.
28. From above the Gate of Horse Gate, the priests made repairs, each man in front of his own house.
29. After them, Zadok ben-Immer made repairs in front of his house. And after him, Shemaiah ben-Shechaniah, keeper of the Eastern Gate, made repairs.
30. After him, Hananiah ben-Shelemiah and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. After them, Meshullam ben-Berechiah made repairs in front of his storehouse.

31. After him, Malchiah, the goldsmith's son, made repairs as far as the house of the Nethinim and of the merchantmen, opposite the Miphkad Gate, and to the ascent of the corner.
32. And between the ascent of the corner and the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and the merchantmen made repairs.

Nehemiah 4

- ¶1. But it came to pass, when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, that he was angry and greatly enraged, and he mocked the Jews.
2. And he spoke before his brothers and the wealthy of Samaria, and he said, “What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they free themselves? Will they make sacrifices? Will they be finished in a day? Will they revive the stones from the heaps of rubbish that were burned?”
3. And Tobiah the Ammonite was at his side, and he said, “Even if a fox went up on what they are building, that would break down their stone wall.”
- ¶4. Hear, O our God, for we are despised! And turn back their reproach on their own heads and give them as spoil in a land of captivity.
5. And do not cover over their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before you, for they are provoking you in the presence of the builders.
6. Yet we kept building the wall, and the whole wall was joined together to half of its height, for the people had a mind to work.
- ¶7. But it came to pass when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the repair of the walls of Jerusalem progressed, so that the breaches began to be closed, that it was very displeasing to them.
8. And they all conspired together to come and fight against Jerusalem, and to cause confusion in it.
9. And we prayed to our God because of them, and we set a guard against them day and night.
10. For Judah said, “The strength of the laborers is failing and there is much rubble; we are unable to continue building on the wall.”
11. And our enemies said, “They will neither know nor see until we come into their midst and slay them, and we will put an end to the work.”
12. And it came to pass that when the Jews who dwelt by them came, they said to us ten times, “They are coming against us at all the places that you are repairing.”
13. So I set a guard in the lower places, behind the wall in the open places, and I set the people by families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.
14. When I had made an inspection, then I arose and said to the nobles, and the officials, and the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, the great and terrible, and fight for your brothers, your sons and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.”

- ¶15. And it came to pass when our enemies heard that it was known to us and that God had frustrated their scheme, then all of us returned to the wall, each to his work.
- 16. And it came to pass from that day, half of my servants labored in the work, and half held the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the armor; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.
- 17. Those who were building the wall and those who were doing the heavy labor, burden-bearers, were working with one of his hands and holding a weapon with the other,
- 18. for the builders each had his sword girded at his side as they built. And he who sounded the shofar was beside me.
- 19. And I said to the nobles, and the officials, and the rest of the people, “The work is immense and extensive, and we are separated on the wall, each man far from his brother.
- 20. Wherever you hear the sound of the shofar, rally to us there; our God will fight for us.”
- 21. So we labored in the work, and half of them held the spears from the break of dawn until the stars came out.
- 22. I also said to the people at that time, “Let each man and his servant pass the night within Jerusalem, that they may be a guard for us at night and a worker by day.”
- 23. And neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us, took off our clothes. Each took his weapon to the water.

Nehemiah 5

- ¶1. Now there was a great cry from the people and their wives against their Jewish brothers.
- 2. For there were some saying, “Our sons and daughters, we are many, let us get grain that we may eat and live.”
- 3. And there were some saying, “We have pledged our fields, and our vineyards, and our houses that we might get grain because of the famine.”
- 4. And there were others saying, “We have borrowed money against our fields and vineyards for the king’s tribute.
- 5. Yet now, our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children are as their children, and, behold, we are forcing our sons and daughters into bondage as slaves. Yea, there are some of our daughters who have been forced into bondage, and our hands are not able to redeem them, for other men have our fields and our vineyards.”
- 6. And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.
- 7. And I considered it in my heart. Then I contended with the nobles and the officials, and I said to them, “You are exacting interest, each of you from his brother!” And I called a great assembly against them.

8. And I said to them, “On our part, we have redeemed our Jewish brothers who had been sold to the Gentiles as we were able. But you, you are even selling your brothers, and they are sold back to us!” And they were silent and did not find a thing to say.
9. Then I said, “The thing that you are doing is not good. Should you not be walking in the fear of our God because of the reproach of our Gentile enemies?
10. And moreover, I, my brothers, and my servants are lending them money and grain. Let us leave off, I pray, this usury.
11. Restore to them this day, I pray, their fields, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, and the hundredth part of the money, and grain, the new wine, and fresh oil that you have been exacting from them.”
12. And they said, “We will restore it and require nothing from them. We will do just as you are saying.” Then I called for the priests, that I might make them swear to act according to this promise.
13. Also, I shook out my lap and said, “So may God shake out every man from his house and his property who does not keep this promise. For thus shall he be shaken out and emptied.” And the whole assembly said, “Amen”, and they praised Jehovah. And the people did according to this promise.
14. Moreover, from the day that he appointed me to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year until the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes the king, twelve years, neither I nor my brothers ate the governor’s food.
15. But the former governors who were before me made themselves burdensome to the people, for they had taken from them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver. Even their servants lorded it over the people, but I did not do so because of the fear of God.
16. And I also persevered in the work on this wall, and we did not buy land, and all my servants were gathered there for the work.
17. And there were at my table one hundred and fifty men, Jews and officials, as well as those who came to us from the Gentiles who were round about us.
18. Now that which was prepared each day was one ox and six choice sheep; also, fowls were prepared for me, and every ten days all manner of wine in abundance. Yet for this, I did not require the governor’s food allowance because the work was heavy upon this people.
19. Remember for my good, O God, all that I have done for this people.

Nehemiah 6

- ¶1. And it came to pass, when it was heard by Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies that I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left in it (even though at that time, I had not set up the doors in the gates),

2. that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, “Come, and let us meet together at Chephirim,² in the valley of Ono.” But they were thinking to do me harm.
3. So I sent messengers to them, saying, “I am doing a great work, and I cannot come down. Why should the work cease while I abandon it and come down to you?”
4. And they sent to me four times in this way, and I answered them in the same way.
5. Then Sanballat sent his servant to me in like manner the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand,
6. in which was written, “Among the nations it has been heard (and Gashmu is saying it), that you and the Jews are thinking to rebel, for which reason you are building the wall. And you will become their king, according to these reports.
7. And you have also set up prophets in Jerusalem to proclaim concerning you, saying, ‘There is a king in Judah.’ And it will now be heard of by the king according to these words. So, come now, and let us take counsel together.”
8. Then I sent to him, saying, “No such things as you say have been done, but you are inventing them out of your own heart.”
9. For all of them were trying to frighten us, thinking, “Their hands will refrain from the work so that it will not be done.” But now, O God, strengthen my hands!
- ¶10. Then I went to the house of Shemaiah ben-Delaiah, the son of Mehetaabeel, who was confined, and he said, “Let us meet in the house of God within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you; yea, by night, they are coming to kill you.”
11. But I said, “Should a man like me flee? Who is there like me who would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.”
12. And I perceived that, behold, God had not sent him, but that he had spoken this prophecy against me, and that Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.
13. He was hired so that I would fear and act in this way and do wrong, and they have an evil report with which they could reproach me.
14. My God, remember Tobiah and Sanballat, according to these works of theirs, and also the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets who would make me fear.
- ¶15. And the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days.
16. And it came to pass when all our enemies heard of it and all the nations who were round about us saw it, that they were very crestfallen, for they understood that it was of our God that this work was accomplished.
17. Also in those days, many nobles of Judah sent their letters to Tobiah, and those from Tobiah came to them.

² Translated “young lions” elsewhere, and often as “one of the villages” here.

18. For there were many in Judah bound by oath to him because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah ben-Arah, and his son Jehohanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam ben-Berechiah.
19. They were even speaking of his good works before me, and they were taking my words to him, Tobiah, who sent letters to put me in fear.

Nehemiah 7

- ¶1. And it came to pass when the wall had been built, and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers, and the singers, and the Levites had been appointed,
2. that I gave Hanani my brother and Hananiah, the commander of the fortress, a charge concerning Jerusalem (for he was a faithful man and feared God more than many).
3. And I said to them, “Do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot, and while they are standing guard, close the doors and bar them. And you shall station guards from the inhabitants of Jerusalem, each in his watch and each in front of his house.”
4. For the city was wide and great, but the people within it were few, and no houses had been built.
- ¶5. Then my God put it into my heart, and I assembled the nobles, and the officials, and the people, to be reckoned according to genealogy. And I found a record of the genealogy of those who had come up to Jerusalem at the beginning, and in which I found written:
6. These are the children of the province who came up from exile of the captives whom Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, had carried away, and they returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, each to his own city,
7. who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel was:
8. The children of Parosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two.
9. The children of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two.
10. The children of Arah, six hundred and fifty-two.
11. The children of Pahath-Moab, of the children Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen.
12. The children of Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four.
13. The children of Zattu, eight hundred and forty-five.
14. The children of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty.
15. The children of Binnui, six hundred and forty-eight.
16. The children of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-eight.
17. The children of Azgad, two thousand three hundred and twenty-two.
18. The children of Adonikam, six hundred and sixty-seven.
19. The children of Bigvai, two thousand and sixty-seven.
20. The children of Adin, six hundred and fifty-five.
21. The children of Ater, of Hezekiah, ninety-eight.

22. The children of Hashum, three hundred and twenty-eight.
 23. The children of Bezai, three hundred and twenty-four.
 24. The children of Hariph, one hundred and twelve.
 25. The children of Gibeon, ninety-five.
 26. The men of Bethlehem and Netophah, one hundred and eighty-eight.
 27. The men of Anathoth, one hundred and twenty-eight.
 28. The men of Beth-azmaveth, forty-two.
 29. The men of Kirjath-jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty-three.
 30. The men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one.
 31. The men of Michmas, one hundred and twenty-two.
 32. The men of Bethel and Ai, one hundred and twenty-three.
 33. The men of the other Nebo, fifty-two.
 34. The children of the other Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four.
 35. The children of Harim, three hundred and twenty.
 36. The children of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five.
 37. The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-one.
 38. The children of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.
- ¶39. The priests: the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred and seventy-three.
40. The children of Immer, one thousand and fifty-two.
 41. The children of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred and forty-seven.
 42. The children of Harim, one thousand and seventeen.
- ¶43. The Levites: the children of Jeshua of Kadmiel, of the children of Hodevah, seventy-four.
- ¶44. The singers: the children of Asaph, one hundred and forty-eight.
- ¶45. The gatekeepers: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, one hundred and thirty-eight.
- ¶46. The Nethinim: the children of Ziha, the children of Hasupha, the children of Tabbaoth,
47. the children of Keros, the children of Sia, the children of Padon,
 48. the children of Lebana, the children of Hagabah, the children of Shalmai,
 49. the children of Hanan, the children of Giddel, the children of Gahar,
 50. the children of Reaiah, the children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda,
 51. the children of Gazzam, the children of Uzza, the children of Phaseah,
 52. the children of Besai, the children of Meh-unim, the children of Nephushesim,
 53. the children of Bakbuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Harhur,
 54. the children of Bazlith, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha,
 55. the children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Tamah,
 56. the children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha.

57. The children of Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Perida,
58. the children of Jaala, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel,
59. the children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth-hazzebaim, the children of Amon.
60. All the Nethinim and the children of Solomon's servants, three hundred and ninety-two.
- ¶61. And these were those who went up from Tel-melah, Tel-haresha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer. But they were not able to declare their father's house or their lineage, whether they were of Israel.
62. The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred and forty-two.
63. And of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Hakkoz, the children of Barzillai, who took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite as a wife and was called by their name.
64. These sought their record among those who were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found, so they were excluded from the priesthood as polluted.
65. And the governor told them that they should not eat of the most holy things until a priest arose with the Urim and Thummim.
- ¶66. The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,
67. besides their male servants and their female servants. These were seven-thousand three hundred and thirty-seven. And they had two hundred and forty-five male and female singers.
68. *Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules were two hundred and forty-five*³
69. camels, four hundred and thirty-five, donkeys, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.
- ¶70. And some of the chiefs of the fathers gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury one thousand drachmas of gold, fifty basins, five hundred and thirty priestly tunics.
71. And some of the chiefs of the fathers gave to the treasury for the work twenty-thousand drachmas of gold, and two thousand two hundred minas of silver.
72. And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand drachmas of gold, and two thousand minas of silver, and sixty-seven priestly tunics.
- ¶73. And the priests, and the Levites, and the gatekeepers, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinim, even all Israel, dwelt in their cities; and when the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

³ Ezra 2:66. Hebrew lacking in Nehemiah.

Nehemiah 8

- ¶1. And all the people gathered as one man to the square which is before the Water Gate, and they told Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which Jehovah had commanded Israel.
2. And Ezra the priest brought the law before the Assembly, both men and women, even all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month.
3. And he read from it before the square which was before the Water Gate from early morning until midday in the presence of the men and women, even those who could understand. And the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law.
4. Now Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden platform that they had made for the purpose. And at his side stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah on his right, and on his left Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, and Zechariah, and Meshullam.
5. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people (for he was above all the people), and when he opened it, all the people stood.
6. And Ezra blessed Jehovah, the great God, and all the people answered, "Amen! Amen!" while lifting up their hands. Then they bowed down and worshipped Jehovah, faces to the ground.
7. And Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites made the people to understand the law, and the people stood in their place.
8. And they read in the book of the law of God, expounding and giving the meaning, so that they understood the reading.
9. And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites, made the people to understand and said to all the people, "This day is holy to Jehovah your God. Do not mourn! And do not weep!" For all the people began weeping when they heard the words of the law.
10. And he said to them, "Go! Eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared! For this day is holy to our Lord, and be not grieved because the joy of Jehovah is your strength."
11. Then the Levites stilled all the people, saying, "Be quiet! For today is holy, and you shall not be grieved."
12. So all the people went to eat and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great rejoicing because they had understood the words that were declared to them.
13. And on the second day, the chiefs of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites were gathered to Ezra the scribe to gain understanding of the words of the law.
14. And they found written in the law which Jehovah had commanded by the hand of Moses, that the children of Israel were to dwell in booths at the feast of the seventh month,

15. which they then proclaimed, and they sent word throughout all their cities and in Jerusalem, saying, “Go out to the hill country and bring the foliage of the olive, and branches of the olive⁴, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and the branches of leafy trees to make booths as it is written.”
16. So the people went out and brought them, and they made booths for themselves, each on his roof or in their courtyards, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the square at the Water Gate, and in the square at the Gate of Ephraim.
17. And the whole Assembly who had returned from the captivity made booths, and they dwelt in the booths. Truly, the children of Israel had not done so since the days of Jeshua ben-Nun until that day. And there was very great rejoicing.
18. And day by day, from the first day until the last day, he read from the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days, and on the eighth day was a solemn Assembly, according to the ordinance.

Nehemiah 9

- ¶1. And on the twenty-fourth day of that month, the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackcloth and earth on them.
2. And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners, and they stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers.
3. And they stood up in their place and read in the book of the law of Jehovah their God for a quarter of the day, and for a quarter, they were confessing and worshipping Jehovah their God.
4. Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, Chenani stood on the ascent and cried out with a great voice to Jehovah their God.
5. Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabeniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, “Stand up! Bless Jehovah your God forever and ever.” And they blessed your glorious name and exalted it above all blessing and praise.
6. And Ezra said,⁵ “You, O Jehovah, you alone made heaven, the heaven of heavens, and all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them, and you preserve them all. And the host of heaven worship you.
7. You are Jehovah, the God who chose Abram and brought him out from Ur of the Chaldeans, and you gave him his name ‘Abraham’.
8. And you found his heart to be faithful before you, and you made a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Gergashites, to give it to his seed, and you fulfilled your word, for you are righteous.

⁴ Hebrew: “oil tree”.

⁵ LXX reading.

9. And you saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and you heard their cry at the Red Sea.
10. And you performed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, and against all his servants, and against all the people of his land, for you knew that they acted with arrogance toward them. And you made a name for yourself, as it is this day.
11. And you divided the sea before them, and they passed through the midst of the sea on dry ground, but their pursuers, you cast into the depths, like a stone into mighty waters.
12. And by day, you led them with a pillar of cloud, and by night, with a pillar of fire, to light for them the way that they should go.
13. And you came down on Mount Sinai and spoke with them from heaven, and you gave them right judgments, and laws of truth, and good statutes and commandments.
14. And you made known to them your holy Sabbath, and you charged them with commandments, and statutes, and the law by the hand of Moses your servant.
15. And you gave them bread from heaven for their hunger and brought forth water from a rock for them for their thirst, and you said to them that they should go in to possess the land which you lifted up your hand to give to them.
16. But they and our fathers were rebellious, and they stiffened their necks and did not obey your commandments.
17. And they refused to take heed, nor did they remember your wonders which you did among them, and in their rebellion, they stiffened their necks and appointed a captain to return to their slavery. But you are a God of abundant forgiveness, gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in mercy, and you did not forsake them.
18. Even when they made a molten calf for themselves and said, 'This is your God who brought you up from Egypt, ' and committed great blasphemies,
19. you, in your abundant mercies, did not forsake them in the wilderness, neither did the pillar of cloud depart from being over them by day, to lead them in the way, nor the pillar of fire by night, to light for them the way that they should go.
20. And you gave your good Spirit to give them wisdom, and did not withhold your manna from their mouth, and you gave them water for their thirst.
21. And forty years, you sustained them in the wilderness. They lacked nothing, their garments did not wear out, and their feet did not swell.
22. And you gave them kingdoms and peoples and divided them by a border, and they possessed the land of Sihon, even the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og, king of Bashan.
23. And their children, you multiplied like the stars of heaven, and you brought them into the land which you had told their fathers to go in to possess.
24. So, the children went in and possessed the land, and you subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and you gave them into their hand, with their kings and the peoples of the land, to do with them as they pleased.

25. And they captured fortified cities with fertile land, and they took possession of houses full of every good thing, wells already dug, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance. And they ate and were sated, and they grew fat and delighted themselves in your great goodness.
26. But they were disobedient and rebelled against you, and they cast your law behind their back and murdered your prophets who testified against them to turn them back to you; yea, they committed great blasphemies.
27. So, you delivered them into the hand of their enemies, and they oppressed them. And in the time of their distress, they cried out to you, and you heard from heaven, and according to your abundant mercies, you gave them saviors, and they delivered them from the hand of their enemies.
28. But when they had rest, they returned to doing evil before you, and you abandoned them into the hand of their enemies, and they ruled over them. Yet, when they repented and cried out to you, you heard from heaven and many times delivered them according to your abundant mercies.
29. And you testified against them to turn them back to your law, but they were rebellious and would not take heed to your commandments. And they sinned against your judgments (which if a man do, he shall also live by them), and they gave you the shoulder, and stiffened their neck, and would not hear.
30. And for many years, you bore with them, yet, you testified against them by your Spirit, by the hand of your prophets, but they would not give ear. Therefore, you delivered them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.
31. Yet, in your abundant mercies, you did not utterly destroy them or forsake them, for you are a gracious and compassionate God.
32. Now, therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and dreadful God, who keeps covenant and mercy, let not all the hardship which has befallen us, our kings, our princes, and our priests, and our prophets, and our fathers, and all your people since the days of the kings of Assyria until this day be a small thing before you.
33. Truly, you are just in all that has befallen us (for you have dealt faithfully, and we have done wickedly),
34. even our kings, our princes, our priests, and our fathers. They did not observe your law, nor heed your commands or your testimonies which you testified against them.
35. And in their kingdom, and in your abundant goodness which you gave them, and in the wide and fertile land that you set before them, they did not serve you, nor did they turn from their wicked deeds.
36. Behold, we are slaves this day; even upon the land which you gave to our fathers, to eat of its fruit and its goodness, behold, we are slaves.
37. And its abundant produce belongs to the kings whom you have set over us because of our sins, and they rule over our bodies, and over our livestock, according to their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

38. And because of all this, we are making a firm covenant in writing, and our princes, our Levites, and our priests are setting their seal upon it."

Nehemiah 10

- ¶1. And those who sealed it: Nehemiah ben-Hachaliah, the governor, and Zedekijah,
2. Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,
3. Pashhur, Amariah, Malchiah,
4. Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,
5. Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,
6. Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,
7. Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,
8. Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah. These were the priests.
9. And the Levites: Jeshua ben-Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel,
10. and their kinsmen, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,
11. Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah,
12. Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,
13. Hodijah, Bani, Beninu.
14. The chiefs of the people: Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,
15. Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,
16. Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,
17. Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,
18. Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai,
19. Hariph, Anathoth, Nobai,
20. Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,
21. Meshezabeel, Zadok, Jaddua,
22. Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,
23. Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashub,
24. Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,
25. Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,
26. and Ahijah, Hanan, Anan,
27. Malluch, Harim, Baanah.
28. And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Nethinim, and all who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone who had knowledge and understanding,
29. joined with their brothers, their nobles and entered into a curse and an oath, to walk in the law of God which was given by the hand of Moses the servant of God, and to observe and to do all the commandments of Jehovah our Lord and His judgments and His statutes,
30. and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land nor take their daughters for our sons,

31. and as for the peoples of the land who bring in wares or any grain to sell on the Sabbath day, that we would not buy from them on the Sabbath or on a holy day, and that we would forego our crops in the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.
32. We also established for ourselves commandments: to charge ourselves a third of a shekel yearly for the service of the house of our God,
33. for the bread of the rows, and the continual grain offering, and the continual burnt offering, the Sabbaths, the new moons, for the appointed times, and for the holy portions, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God
34. (we also cast lots for the wood offering among the priests, the Levites, and the people, to bring it to the house of our God, according to the house of our fathers, at the times appointed year by year, to burn on the altar of Jehovah our God, as it is written in the law);
35. and to bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit from every tree year by year to the house of Jehovah;
36. and to bring the firstborn of our sons and our livestock (as is written in the law), even the firstborn of our herds and flocks, to the house of our God to the priests who minister in the house of our God;
37. and that we would bring the firstfruits of our dough, even our exsect offerings, also of the fruit of every tree, new wine, and fresh oil to the priests for the chambers of the house of our God, and to the Levites the tithe of our ground, that they, the Levites, might collect the tithes in all the cities where we labor.
38. And the priest, the son of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when the Levites render the tithe, when the Levites bring the tithe of the tithe up to the house of our God, to the chambers of the treasure-house.
39. For the children of Israel and the sons of Levi shall bring up the exsect offering of grain, the new wine, and the fresh oil to the chambers. And the accoutrements of the sanctuary are there, with the priests who minister, and the gatekeepers, and the singers. And so, we will not neglect the house of our God.

Nehemiah 11

- ¶1. Now, the rulers of the people dwelt in Jerusalem, but the rest of the people cast lots to bring one in ten to dwell in Jerusalem, the holy city, and nine parts in the towns.
2. And the people blessed all the men who willingly offered to dwell in Jerusalem.
- ¶3. And these are the heads of the province who dwelt in Jerusalem while in the cities of Judah, every man dwelt in his possession in their cities of Israel: the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinim, and the children of Solomon's servants.
- ¶4. And in Jerusalem dwelt some of the children of Judah, and some of the children of Benjamin. Of the children of Judah: Athaiah ben-Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the children of Pharez,

5. and Maaseiah ben-Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of the Shilonite.
 6. All the children of Pharez who dwelt in Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight mighty men.
- ¶7. And these are the children of Benjamin: Sallu ben-Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiah.
8. And after him, Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred and twenty-eight.
 9. And Joel ben-Zichri was their overseer, and Judah ben-Hassnuah was second over the city.
- ¶10. Of the priests: Jedaiah ben-Joiarib, Jachin,
11. Seraiah ben-Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, ruler of the house of God.
 12. And their brothers who did the work of the house were eight hundred and twenty-
two. And Adaiah ben-Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchiah,
 13. and his brothers, heads of the fathers, were two hundred and forty-two. And Amashsai ben-Azareel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer,
 14. and their brothers, mighty men of valor, were one hundred and twenty-eight. And their overseer was Zabdiel ben-Haggedolim.
- ¶15. And of the Levites: Shemaiah ben-Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni,
16. and Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chiefs of the Levites, were over the exterior work of the house of God.
 17. And Mattaniah ben-Michah, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the leader at the commencement of the thanksgiving prayer, and Bakbukiah was the second among his brothers, and Abda ben-Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.
 18. All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred and eighty-four.
- ¶19. And the gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon, and their brothers, who kept watch at the gates were one hundred and seventy-two.
20. And the rest of Israel, the priests, and the Levites were in all the cities of Judah, each in his inheritance.
 21. But the Nethinim dwelt in Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim.
- ¶22. And the overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi ben-Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha. Of the sons of Asaph, the singers were over the service of the house of God,
23. for it was the king's commandment concerning them that provision be made for the singers as each day required.
 24. And Pethahiah ben-Meshezabeel, of the sons of Zerah ben-Judah, was at the king's side in every matter concerning the people.

25. And as for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt in Kirjath-arba and its towns, and in Dibon and its towns, and in Jekabzeel and its villages.
26. and in Jeshua and in Moladah and in Beth-palet,
27. and in Hazar-shual, and in Beersheba and its towns,
28. and in Ziklag, in Mechonah and its towns,
29. and in En-rimmon, and in Zorah, and in Jarmuth,
30. Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish, and its fields, Azekah and its towns. And they settled from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.
31. And the children of Benjamin, from Geba to Michmash, and Aijah, and Bethel and its towns,
32. Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,
33. Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,
34. Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,
35. Lod, and Ono, the Valley of the Craftsmen.
36. And of the Levites, some of the courses in Judah belonged to Benjamin.

Nehemiah 12

- ¶1. And these are the priests and the Levites who went up with Zerubbabel ben-Shealtiel and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,
2. Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,
 3. Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,
 4. Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,
 5. Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,
 6. Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah,
 7. Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah. These were the chiefs of the priests and their brothers in the days of Jeshua.
- ¶8. And the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah was over the songs of praise, he and his brothers.
9. And Bakbukiah and Unni, their brothers, stood opposite them according to the charges.
 10. And Jeshua fathered Joiakim, and Joiakim fathered Eliashib, and Eliashib, Joiada,
 11. and Joiada fathered Jonathan, and Jonathan fathered Jaddua.
 12. And in the days of Joiakim there were priests, chiefs of the fathers. Of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;
 13. of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;
 14. of Meluchi, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;
 15. of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;
 16. of Adaia, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;
 17. of Abijah, Zichri; of Minjamin, of Moadiah, Piltai;
 18. of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jonathan;
 19. and of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;
 20. of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

21. of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethaneel.
- ¶22. The Levites, in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, the chiefs of the fathers and the priests were recorded up to the reign of Darius the Persian.
- ¶23. The sons of Levi, the chiefs of the fathers, were recorded in the scroll of the chronicles until the days of Johanan ben-Eliashib.
24. And the chiefs of the Levites, Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua ben-Kadmiel, and their brothers opposite them, gave praise and thanks according to the commandment of David, the man of God, division by division.
25. Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub were gatekeepers keeping watch, the guard at the storehouses of the gates.
26. These were in the days of Joiakim ben-Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe.
- ¶27. And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought the Levites to bring them to Jerusalem from all their places, to keep the dedication with joy, and with giving of thanks, and with song, cymbals, harps, and with lyres.
28. And the sons of the singers were assembled from both the area around Jerusalem and the villages of the Netophathites,
29. and from Beth-Gilgal, and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built for themselves villages round about Jerusalem.
30. And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, then they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.
- ¶31. Then I brought the rulers of Judah up onto the wall, and I appointed two great companies who gave thanks, and one of the processions went to the south on the wall to the Dung Gate.
32. And after them went Hoshaiah and half of the rulers of Judah,
33. and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,
34. Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,
35. and some of the priest's sons with the trumpets, Zechariah ben-Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zacchur, the son of Asaph,
36. and his brothers, Shemaiah, and Azareel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David, the man of God, with Ezra the scribe before them.
37. And at the Fountain Gate, they went up straight ahead by the steps of the city of David, at the ascent of the wall above the house of David, as far as the Water Gate eastward.
- ¶38. And the second company who gave thanks went to the north, and I followed it with half of the people on the wall, from above the Tower of the Ovens as far as the broad wall,

39. and from above the Gate of Ephraim, and over the Old Gate, and over the Fish Gate, and the Tower of Hananeel, and the Tower of Meah, as far as the Sheep Gate. And they stood at the Prison Gate.
 40. And the two companies who gave thanks stood at the house of God, and I, and the half of the officials with me,
 41. and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Minjamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with the trumpets,
 42. and Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchiah, and Elam, and Azer. And the singers made themselves heard, with Jezrahiah as the leader.
 43. And on that day, they offered great sacrifices, and they rejoiced because God had made them glad with great joy. And the women and children rejoiced also, and the joy of Jerusalem was heard afar off.
- ¶44. And on that day, men were appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the exect offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the lawful portions for the priests and the Levites. Truly, there was joy in Judah for the priests and the Levites who were ministering.
45. And they kept the charge of their God, even the charge of purification, as did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the commandment of David and of Solomon his son.
 46. For in the days of David and Asaph of old, there were chiefs of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.
 47. And in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, all Israel gave daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers, and things consecrated for the Levites. And the Levites gave things consecrated for the sons of Aaron.

Nehemiah 13

- ¶1. On that day, the book of Moses was read aloud in the hearing of the people, and in it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever enter into the Assembly of God,
 2. for they did not meet the children of Israel with bread and water, and Moab hired Balaam against them to curse them, but our God turned the curse into a blessing.
 3. And it came to pass that when they heard the law, they separated all the mixed multitude from Israel.
- ¶4. Now before this, Eliashib the priest, who had been set over the chambers of the house of our God, had become close to Tobiah
5. and had prepared for him a great chamber where they formerly laid the grain offering, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of grain, the new wine, and the fresh oil designated for the Levites, the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the exect offering for the priests.

6. But during all of that, I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes, king of Babylon, I came to the king, and after a time, I asked leave of the king,
 7. and I came to Jerusalem and learned of the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah in preparing a chamber for him in the courts of the house of God.
 8. And it grieved me deeply, and I threw all Tobiah's household stuff out of the chamber.
 9. And I gave orders, and they purified the chambers. And to there, I returned the vessels of the house of God, the grain offering, and the frankincense.
- ¶10. And I found out that the portions for the Levites had not been given, and that the Levites and the singers who did the work had fled, each to his field.
11. And I contended with the officials, and said, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" And I gathered them and set them at their stations.
 12. Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain, and the wine, and the oil into the storehouses.
 13. And I made treasurers over the storehouses, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah from the Levites, and at their side was Hanan ben-Zacchur, the son of Mattaniah, for they were considered faithful. And it was upon them to distribute to their brothers.
- ¶14. Remember me, O my God, for this, and do not wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its charges.
- ¶15. In those days, I saw in Judah some treading wine presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in heaps of goods, and also loading donkeys with wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, and bringing them into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. And I warned them that day about selling their provision.
16. Men of Tyre also dwelt therein, who brought fish and all kinds of merchandise, and who were selling on the Sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.
 17. And I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, "What is this evil thing that you are doing and profaning the Sabbath day?
 18. Did not your fathers do so, and our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? Yet, you are bringing even more burning wrath upon Israel by profaning the Sabbath."
 19. And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem fell into shadow before the Sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut, and gave an order that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. And I set some of my servants at the gates, so that no burden would be brought in on the Sabbath day.
 20. Then the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside of Jerusalem a time or two.
 21. So I admonished them, and said to them, "Why are you lodging in front of the wall? If you do this again, I will lay hands on you." From then on, they came no more on the Sabbath.

22. And I commanded the Levites that they were to purify themselves and come to watch the gates to sanctify the Sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, for this also, and spare me according to your lovingkindness.
- ¶23. Also, in those days, I saw that Jews were married to women of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab,
24. and half their children were speaking in the language of Ashdod and could not speak in the language of the Jews, but they spoke the language of each people.
25. And I contended with them, and cursed them, and beat some of the men and pulled out their hair, and I made them swear by God, saying, “May God damn you if you give your daughters to their sons, or if you take their daughters for your sons or yourselves.
26. Did not Solomon, king of Israel sin by these things? For among many nations there was not a king like him. And he was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel, yet foreign women caused even him to sin.
27. Should we then consent for you to do all this great evil, to deal unfaithfully with our God by marrying foreign women?”
28. And one of the sons of Joiada ben-Eliashib the high priest was the son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite. So, I chased him away from me.
29. Remember them, O my God, for the defilements of the priesthood and the covenant of priesthood and the Levites.
30. But I cleansed them of every foreigner, and I set up the offices for the priests and for the Levites, each with his work,
31. and the wood for the offering in the times appointed, and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O my God, for good!

Esther

Esther 1

- ¶1. Now this came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, the Ahasuerus who reigned from India to as far as Cush, one hundred twenty-seven provinces.
2. In those days, when king Ahasuerus sat on his kingdom's throne which was at Shushan, the capital,
3. in the third year of his reign, he made a feast for all his rulers and his servants. The powerful men of Persia and Media, the nobles and the rulers of the provinces, were before him
4. while he displayed the riches of his royal glory and the precious splendor of his greatness for many days, one hundred and eighty days.
5. And when these days were finished, the king made a feast for all the people who were present in Shushan the capital, for both great and small, seven days, in the courtyard of the garden in the king's palace.
6. There were white linen and blue canopies fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble. The couches were of gold and silver placed on a mosaic pavement of red¹, and marble, and mother-of-pearl², and precious stone.
7. And they were given drink in vessels of gold, with the vessels being different from one another. And the royal wine was in abundance according to the king's bounty.
8. And the drinking was governed by an edict, "There is no compulsion", for so had the king appointed to all the officials of his house, that they should do as each man desired.
9. Vashti, the queen, also made a feast for the women in the royal house that belonged to king Ahasuerus.
- ¶10. On the seventh day, when the king's heart was merry with wine, he said to Mehuman, Biztha, Harbonah, Bigtha, and Abagatha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven eunuchs who ministered in the presence of king Ahasuerus,
11. to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the royal crown to show the people and the rulers her beauty, for she was beautiful in appearance.
12. But queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command by the hand of the eunuchs. Then the king was very angry, and his wrath burned within him.
13. And the king said to the wise men who knew the times (for such was the king's manner before all who knew law and judgment)

14. and those near to him, Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, Memucan, the seven rulers of Persia and Media who saw the king's face, those who sat first in the kingdom,
15. "What shall be done with queen Vashti by decree because she did not perform the commandment of king Ahasuerus by the hand of the eunuchs?"
16. Then Memucan said before the king and the rulers, "Not against the king only has Vashti the queen done wrong, but against all the rulers and all the people who are in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus.
17. For this matter of the queen will go abroad to all women, so that in their eyes they will despise their husbands when it is reported that king Ahasuerus commanded to bring Vashti the queen before him and she did not come.
18. For in that day, the noblewomen of Persia and Media will say to all the king's rulers that which they heard that the queen said, and there will be much contempt and wrath.
19. If it please the king, let a royal decree go out from him and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and Medes, which may not be repealed, that Vashti no longer may come before king Ahasuerus, and let the king give her royal position to her fellow who is better than she.
20. And the king's edict which he makes will be heard throughout all his kingdom (for it is great), and all the wives shall give honor to their husbands, to both great and small."
21. And the thing was good in the eyes of the king and the rulers, and the king did so according to the word of Memucan.
22. And he sent letters to all the king's provinces, to each province in its writing and to every people according to their language, that every man should rule in his own house, and it was published according to the language of his people.

Esther 2

- ¶1. After these things, when king Ahasuerus 'wrath subsided, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what had been decreed against her.
2. And the king's servants who attended him said, "Let them seek young virgins of beautiful appearance, for the king.
3. And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom that they may gather all the young virgins of beautiful appearance, to Shushan the capital, into the house of the women, to the custody of Hege the king's eunuch, keeper of the women. And let the things for their purification be provided for them.
4. And let the maiden who is pleasing in the eyes of the king become queen instead of Vashti." And the thing was good in the eyes of the king, and he did so.
- ¶5. Now there was in Shushan a man, a Jew, and his name was Mordecai ben-Jair, son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjaminite,

6. who had been carried away with Jeconiah, king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, had carried away.
 7. And he had brought up Hadassar (she is Esther), the daughter of his uncle, for she had neither father nor mother. And the girl was beautiful in form, and of beautiful appearance, and when her father and her mother were dead, Mordecai took her as his own daughter.
 8. And it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree were heard, and when many maidens were being gathered to Shushan the capital, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought to the house of the king into the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.
 9. And the maiden was pleasing in his eyes, and she obtained favor in his eyes, and he quickly provided her with her things for purification. And her portions were given to her, and seven choice maidens from the house of the king were given to her; and he advanced her and her maidens to the best place in the house of the women.
 10. Esther had not made known her people or her kindred, for Mordecai had charged her that she should not make it known.
 11. And every day Mordecai walked back and forth before the court of the house of the women, to know of Esther's welfare, and what was being done with her.
- ¶12. Now when each maiden's turn came to go into king Ahasuerus, after her twelve months had passed according to the requirement for the women, (for in this manner were the days of purification completed: six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with spices and the other things for purification of the women),
13. then the maiden went into the king with this: whatever she desired was given to her to go with her from the house of the women to the king's house.
 14. In the evening she went, and in the morning she returned to the second house of the women, into the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch, who kept the concubines; she did not go into the king again unless the king delighted in her, and she was summoned by name.
- ¶15. And when the turn came for Esther, daughter of Abihail, uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her as his daughter, to go into the king, she wanted nothing except what Hegai, the king's eunuch, keeper of the women, advised. And Esther had found favor in the eyes of all who saw her.
16. And Esther was taken to king Ahasuerus, into the royal house in the tenth month, which is Tebeth, during the seventh year of his reign.
 17. And the king loved Esther more than all the women, and she found more favor and kindness in his presence than all the virgins, and he set the royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.
 18. And the king made a great feast for all his rulers and his servants, a feast for Esther; and he made a holiday for the provinces, and he gave gifts according to the king's bounty.

- ¶19. Now when the virgins were being gathered a second time, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate.
20. Esther had not made known her kindred or her people, just as Mordecai had commanded her, for Esther obeyed Mordecai's command just as when she was brought up by him.
21. In those days, as Mordecai was sitting in the king's gate, Bigthan and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who kept the door, became angry, and they sought to lay hands on king Ahasuerus.
22. And the thing came to the knowledge of Mordecai, and he told it to Esther the queen, and Esther spoke to the king in Mordecai's name.
23. And when the matter was investigated and was found out, then they were both hanged on a tree; and it was recorded in the book of the chronicles before the king.

Esther 3

- ¶1. After these things, king Ahasuerus promoted Haman ben-Hammadatha, the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the rulers who were with him.
2. And all the king's servants, who were in the king's gate, bowed down and did obeisance before Haman, for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai neither bowed nor did obeisance.
3. Then the king's servants, who were in the king's gate, said to Mordecai, "Why are you transgressing the king's command?"
4. And it came to pass when that they spoke to him daily, but he gave them no heed, that they told it to Haman, to see whether Mordecai's words would stand, for he had told them that he was a Jew.
5. And when Haman saw that Mordecai was not bowing or doing him obeisance, Haman was filled with wrath.
6. But it was not enough in his eyes to lay hands on Mordecai alone (for they had denounced Mordecai's people to him), and Haman set about to exterminate all the Jews, Mordecai's people, throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus.
7. In the first month, which is the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast pur, that is, the lot, before Haman, for day to day, and for month to month, and the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, was taken.
8. Then Haman said to king Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people who have been scattered and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of the kingdom, and their laws are different from those of all other people, and they do not observe the king's laws. Therefore, it is not fitting for the king to let them remain."

9. If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those who have charge of business, to put it into the king's treasuries."
10. And the king took off his ring from his hand, and he gave it to Haman ben-Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.
11. And the king said to Haman, "The silver is given to you with the people, to do with them as seems good in your eyes."
12. Then the king's scribes were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month, and it was written according to all that Haman commanded, to the king's satraps, and to the governors who were over each province, and to the rulers of every people of each province in its writing, and to each people according to its language; it was written in the name of king Ahasuerus, and it was sealed with the king's ring.
13. And the letters were sent by the hand of runners to all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all the Jews, both young or old, little ones and women, on one day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, and to plunder their goods.
14. A copy of the letter was to be issued as a decree in each province as a proclamation to every people to be ready for that day.
15. The runners went out, hastened by the king's command, and the decree was issued at Shushan the capital. And the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

Esther 4

- ¶1. And Mordecai learned all that had been done. Then he tore his clothes, and put on sackcloth and ashes, and he went out into the midst of the city and cried a loud and bitter cry.
2. He even went to the king's gate, but no one could enter the king's gate clothed in sackcloth.
3. (And in each province, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, and weeping, and lamentation, and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.)
4. And Esther's maids and her eunuchs came and told her. And the queen was greatly distressed, and she sent clothes to clothe Mordecai and take his sackcloth off him, but he would not accept them.
5. Then Esther called for Hatach, one of the king's eunuchs whom he had appointed to attend her, and she commanded him to go to Mordecai, to learn what this was, and why it was so.

6. So Hatach went out to Mordecai in the street of the city that was in front of the king's gate.
7. And Mordecai told him all that had happened to him, and of the sum of money which Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews.
8. He also gave him a copy of the written decree, which was issued in Shushan for their destruction, to show Esther, and to make it known to her, and to charge her to go into the king to beg his favor, and to seek him on behalf of her people.
9. And Hatach went and told Mordecai's words to Esther.
10. Esther again spoke to Hatach commanded him to go to Mordecai,
11. "All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, know that for any man or woman who goes into the king, to the inner court, who has not been summoned, his one decree is to put them to death, except to whomever the king holds out the golden scepter that they may live; and I have not been called to go into the king these thirty days."
12. And they told Mordecai Esther's words.
13. But Mordecai said in return to Esther, "Do not think to yourself that you will escape in the king's house any more than all the other Jews.
14. For if you keep silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. But who knows if you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"
15. Then Esther said to reply to Mordecai,
16. "Go! Gather all the Jews present in Shushan, and all of you fast for me. Neither eat nor drink for three days, night and day. I and my maids will also fast likewise, and thus will I go into the king, which is against the decree. And if I perish, I perish."
17. Mordecai then went on his way, and he did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

Esther 5

- ¶1. And it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal garb, and stood in the inner court of the king's house at the front of the king's house. And the king was sitting on his royal throne in the royal house opposite the house's entrance.
2. And it happened that when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she obtained favor in his eyes, and he extended the golden scepter, which was in his hand, to Esther. Then Esther drew near and touched the tip of the scepter.
3. And the king said to her, "What is it, queen Esther, and what is your request? It shall be given to you, even to the half of the kingdom."
4. And Esther said, "If it please the king, let the king, with Haman, come today to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

5. And the king said, "Bring Haman quickly, that he may do what Esther has said." And the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.
6. And at the banquet, the king said to Esther, "What is your petition? For it shall be given to you. And what is your request? Even to half of the kingdom shall it be done."
7. And Esther answered, and said, "My petition and my request:
8. If I have found favor in the eyes of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I will prepare for them. And tomorrow I will do as the king has said."
9. And Haman went out joyfully that day, and with a glad heart, but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, and he did not rise or tremble before him, he was filled with wrath against Mordecai.
10. But Haman controlled himself, and when he entered his house, he sent for his friends, and they came, and Zeresh, his wife.
11. And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the number of his sons, and of all the king's promotion of him, and that he had advanced him above the rulers and servants of the king.
12. Haman also said, "Yea, Esther the queen let no one come with the king to the banquet that she prepared except me. And tomorrow also am I called to her with the king.
13. But all of this is nothing to me, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting in the king's gate."
14. Then Zeresh, his wife, and all his friends, said to him, "Let wooden gallows be made, fifty cubits high, and in the morning speak to the king that Mordecai might be hanged on it. Then you can go joyfully to the banquet with the king. And the thing pleased Haman, and he had the gallows made.

Esther 6

- ¶1. During that night, the king's sleep departed, and he commanded that the book of records, the chronicles, be brought. And they were read before the king.
2. And it was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who kept the door, who had sought to lay hands on king Ahasuerus.
3. And the king said, "What honor or distinction has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?" And the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."
4. Then the king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had come to the outer court of the king's house to speak to the king to have Mordecai hanged on the gallows that he had prepared for him.
5. And the king's servants said to him, "Behold, Haman is standing in the court." And the king said, "Let him come in."

6. So Haman came in, and the king said to him, “What shall be done for the man whom the king delights to honor?” Now Haman thought in his heart, “To whom would the king delight to give honor more than myself?”
7. So Haman said to the king, “For the man whom the king delights to honor,
8. let royal apparel be brought that the king has worn himself, and a horse on which the king has ridden, and let the royal crown be set on his head.
9. And let the apparel and the horse be put into the hand of one of the rulers among the king’s nobles, that they may array the man whom the king delights to honor, and let him lead him on horseback through the street of the city and proclaim before him, ‘Thus shall it be done for the man whom the king delights to honor.’”
10. Then the king said to Haman, “Hurry! Take the apparel and the horse, just as you said, and do this for Mordecai the Jew, who is sitting in the king’s gate. Let nothing fail of all that you said.”
11. So Haman took the apparel and the horse, and he arrayed Mordecai, and led him through the city street, and proclaimed before him, “Thus shall it be done for the man whom the king delights to honor.”
12. Then Mordecai returned to the king’s gate, but Haman hurried to his house mourning, and with his head covered.
13. And Haman recounted to Zeresh, his wife, and all his friends, everything that had happened, and his wise men, and Zeresh, his wife, said to him, “If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of the seed of the Jews, you will not prevail against him, but you shall surely fall before him.”
14. But while they were still speaking with him, the king’s eunuchs arrived, and they hastened to bring Haman to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

Esther 7

- ¶1. And the king, with Haman, went to drink with Esther the queen.
2. And the king again said to Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, “What is your petition, queen Esther, for it shall be granted to you, and what is your request? Even to half the kingdom shall it be done.”
3. Then queen Esther answered, and said, “If I have found favor in the eyes of the king, and if it please the king, let my life be given to me at my petition, and my people at my request.
4. For we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be killed, and to perish. For had we but been sold to be male slaves and female slaves, I would have kept silent, for the distress would not cause injury to the king.”
5. Then king Ahasuerus spoke, and he said to queen Esther, “Who is this one and where is this one, whose heart is satisfied to do so.”

6. And Esther said, “A man. The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman.” Then Haman was terrified before the king and the queen.
7. Then the king arose in fury from the banquet of wine and went to the palace garden, and Haman stood up to seek for his life from Esther the queen, for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king.
8. And when the king returned from the palace garden to the place of the banquet of wine, Haman had fallen on the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, “Will he also violate the queen with me in the house!” As the word went out from the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.
9. And Harbonah, one of the eunuchs who were before the king, said, “Also, behold that the gallows, fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai who had spoken good for the king, are standing at Haman’s house.” And the king said, “Hang him on them.”
10. So they hanged Haman on the gallows which he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king’s wrath abated.

Esther 8

- ¶1. On that day, king Ahasuerus gave the house of Haman, the Jews’ enemy, to Esther the queen. And Mordecai came in before the king, for Esther had told him what he was to her.
2. And the king took off his ring, which he had taken away from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.
3. And Esther spoke yet again before the king, and she fell down at his feet and wept and pleaded with him to avert the evil that Haman the Agagite, and his plan that he had devised against the Jews.
4. And the king extended the golden scepter to Esther, and Esther rose and stood before the king.
5. And she said, “If it please the king, and if I have found favor before him, and the thing is pleasing in the eyes of the king, and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to revoke the letters, the device of Haman ben-Hammedatha, the Agagite, which he wrote in order to destroy the Jews who are throughout all the king’s provinces.
6. For how can I endure when I see the evil that will come to my people? And how can I endure when I see the destruction of my kindred?”
7. Then king Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen, and to Mordecai the Jew, “Behold, I have given the house of Haman to Esther, and they hanged him on the gallows because he laid his hand upon the Jews.
8. But regarding the Jews, you must write what is good in your eyes in the king’s name, and seal it with the king’s ring, for writing that is written in the king’s name, and sealed with the king’s ring no one can revoke.”

9. And the king's scribes were summoned at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, the twenty-third day thereof, and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded, to the Jews, and to the king's satraps and governors, and the rulers of the provinces, that were from India to as far as Cush, one hundred twenty-seven provinces, to each province in its writing, and to each people according to its language, and to the Jews in their writing and according to their language.
10. And he wrote in the name of king Ahasuerus, and he sealed it with the king's ring. Then he sent the letters by the hand of couriers on horseback, riding steeds bred from royal stock,
11. in which the king permitted the Jews who were in each city to gather and to take a stand for their life to destroy, and kill, and to annihilate any force of a people or a province that might attack them, both little ones and women, and plunder their goods,
12. in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus on one day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.
13. A copy of what was written was to be issued as a decree in each province as a proclamation to every people, that the Jews would be ready for that day to take vengeance on their enemies.
14. The couriers went out riding the royal steeds, hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was issued at Shushan the capital.
15. And Mordecai went out from the king's presence in royal apparel of blue and white, and a large golden crown, and a garment of fine linen and purple. And the city of Shushan shouted and rejoiced.
16. For the Jews there was light, and gladness, and rejoicing, and honor.
17. And in each province, and in each city, to whatever place the king's commandment and his decree came, there was gladness and rejoicing for the Jews, feasting and a day of happiness. And many of the people of the land declared themselves to be Jews, for fear of the Jews had fallen on them.

Esther 9

- ¶1. Now in the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, on the thirteenth day thereof, when the day that the king's commandment and his decree could be acted upon arrived, on the day when the Jews' enemies hoped to have the mastery over them, but it had been reversed, so that the Jews had mastery over them who hated them,
2. the Jews gathered in their cities throughout all the provinces of king Ahasuerus to lay hands on those who sought their harm; and no man could stand against them, for the fear of them had fallen on all the peoples.
3. And all the rulers of the provinces, and the satraps, and the governors, and the king's officials assisted the Jews because the fear of Mordecai had fallen on them.

4. For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces; indeed, the man Mordecai grew even greater.
 5. So the Jews struck down all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and they did with those who hated them as they pleased.
 6. And in Shushan the capital, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men.
 7. And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,
 8. and Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,
 9. and Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha,
 10. the ten sons of Haman ben-Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, they killed, but they did not lay their hands on the spoil.
- ¶11. On that day, the number of those killed in Shushan the capital was brought to the king.
12. And the king said to Esther the queen, "In Shushan the capital, the Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men, and the ten sons of Haman. What will they have done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now, what is your petition? For it shall also be granted to you. And what is your further request? It, too, shall be performed."
 13. Then Esther said, "If it please the king, let it also be granted tomorrow, for the Jews who are in Shushan to act in accordance with today's decree, and hang the ten sons of Haman on the gallows.
 14. And the king commanded it to be done so, and the decree was issued at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.
 15. And the Jews who were in Shushan also gathered on the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and they killed three hundred men in Shushan, but they did not lay their hands on the spoil.
 16. But the other Jews who were throughout the king's provinces gathered and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and they killed seventy-five thousand of those who hated them, but they did not lay their hands on the spoil,
 17. on the thirteenth day of the month Adar. But on the fourteenth thereof, they rested and made a day of feasting and gladness.
 18. But the Jews who were in Shushan gathered on the thirteenth thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof, and on the fifteenth thereof, they rested and made that a day of feasting and gladness.
 19. Therefore, the Jews in the villages, who dwelt in unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of feasting and gladness, and a day of happiness, and of sending portions from each to his neighbor.
- ¶20. And Mordecai had these things written, and he sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, both near and far off,
21. to establish for them that they should observe the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day thereof, in each year,

22. as the days on which the Jews had rest from their enemies, and the month which was turned from sorrow to gladness for them, and from mourning to a day of happiness, to make them days of feasting and joy, and the sending of portions from each to his neighbor, and gifts for the poor.
 23. And the Jews took on what they had already begun to do, even as Mordecai had written to them,
 24. for Haman bem-Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast pur, that is, the lot, to consume them and destroy them.
 25. But when Esther came before the king, he commanded through letters, that his wicked design which he devised against the Jews, return on his head, and that he and his sons be hanged on the gallows.
 26. Therefore, these days were named “Purim”, after the name of the pur. And concerning all the words of this instruction, and what they had seen concerning this, and what had happened to them,
 27. the Jews established and took upon themselves, and upon their seed, and upon all who joined themselves to them, that they would not fail to keep these two days in accordance with their writing, and according to their set time in every year.
 28. And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city, and that these days of Purim should not pass away among the Jews, or their remembrance cease among their seed.
- ¶29. Then Esther the queen, daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second instruction concerning Purim.
30. And he sent the letters to all the Jews, to the one hundred twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth,
 31. to confirm these days of Purim at their set time, just as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had established, and just as they had instituted for themselves, and for their seed, with instructions for the fasting and their crying out.
 32. And Esther’s command confirmed these details for Purim; and it was written in the book.

Esther 10

- ¶1. And king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the sea.
2. And all the deeds of his strength and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai to which the king promoted him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia.
3. For Mordecai the Jew was second to king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and in favor with the multitude of his brethren, seeking the good of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

Job

Job 1

- ¶1. There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. That man was perfect and upright, and he feared God and eschewed evil.
- 2. And there were born to him seven sons and three daughters.
- 3. And he owned seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a great many slaves. And this man was greater than any of the sons of the east.
- 4. And his sons went and made a feast at the house of each one on his day, and they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.
- 5. It came to pass that when the days of their feasting had gone round, that Job sent and sanctified them. And he arose early in the morning and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all, for Job said, “It may be that my sons have sinned and cursed God in their hearts.” Job did like this all the time.

- ¶6. Now, it came to pass on the day when the sons of God came in to present themselves before Jehovah that Satan also came in among them.
- 7. And Jehovah said to Satan, “Where have you come from?” And Satan answered Jehovah, “From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.”
- 8. And Jehovah said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and upright man, one who fears God and eschews evil?”
- 9. Then Satan answered Jehovah and said, “Does Job fear God for nothing?
- 10. Have you not made a hedge around him, and around his house, and around all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.
- 11. But stretch out your hand now and strike all that he has, and he will curse you to your face.”
- 12. Then Jehovah said to Satan, “Behold, all that he has is in your power; only do not put your hand on him.” So, Satan went forth from the presence of Jehovah.

- ¶13. Now, there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in the house of their brother, the firstborn,
- 14. and a messenger came to Job, and he said, “The oxen were plowing and the she-asses were grazing nearby them.
- 15. And Sheba fell on them and took them, and they killed the young men with the edge of the sword, and I alone escaped, I alone, to bring the report to you.”
- 16. Moreover, as this man was speaking, another man came in and said, “The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up both the sheep and the young men and consumed them, and I alone escaped, I alone, to bring the report to you.”

17. Moreover, as this man was speaking, another man came in and said, “The Chaldeans formed three companies and made a raid upon the camels and took them, and they killed the young men with the edge of the sword, and I alone escaped, I alone, to bring the report to you.”
18. Moreover, as this man was speaking, another man came in and said, “Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in the house of their brother, the firstborn,
19. and, behold, a great wind came from across the desert and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men and they died, and I alone escaped, I alone, to bring the report to you.”
20. And Job arose and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and fell to the earth, and worshipped.
21. And he said, “Naked, I came out of my mother’s womb, and naked, I will return there. Jehovah gave, and Jehovah has taken away. Blessed be the name of Jehovah!”
22. In all this, Job did not sin, nor did he charge God foolishly.

Job 2

- ¶1. Again, it came to pass on the day when the sons of God came in to present themselves before Jehovah, that Satan also came in among them to present himself before Jehovah.
2. And Jehovah said to Satan, “Where have you come from?” And Satan answered Jehovah and said, “From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.”
3. And Jehovah said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and upright man, one who fears God and eschews evil? And still, he holds fast his integrity, even though you moved me against him to destroy him without cause.”
4. And Satan answered Jehovah and said, “Skin for skin, yes, all that a man has, he will give for his life.
5. Stretch out your hand now and strike his bone and his flesh, and he will curse you to your face.”
6. And Jehovah said to Satan, “Behold, he is in your hand. But spare his life.”
7. So, Satan went out from the presence of Jehovah, and he struck Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot to the top of his head.
8. And he took a potsherd with which to scrape himself, and he sat in ashes.
9. And his wife said to him, “Are you still clinging to your integrity? Curse God and die!”
10. But he said to her, “You talk as one of the foolish women talk. What? Shall we receive good from God, and not receive evil?” In all this, Job did not sin with his lips.
11. And three friends of Job heard of all this evil that had come upon him, and they came, each one from his place: Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. Now, they had made an appointment together to come and condole with him and to comfort him.

12. And they lifted up their eyes from a distance, and they did not recognize him, and they lifted up their voices and wept. And they tore, each man, his robe, and they threw dust toward heaven over their heads.
13. And they sat seven days and seven nights on the ground with him. And they spoke not a word to him because they saw that his pain was very great.

Job 3

- ¶1. After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed his day.
2. And Job answered, saying,
 3. “Perish the day on which I was born, and the night which said, ‘A man is conceived!’
 4. Let that day be darkness! Let God above not regard it, and let not daylight shine upon it.
 5. Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it! Let a cloud settle upon it! Let a day of deep gloom overwhelm it!
 6. Let thick darkness take that night away! Let it not rejoice among the days of the year! Let it not enter into the number of the months!
 7. Behold! Let that night be barren! Let no joyful shout enter it!
 8. Let them curse it who curse the day, those who are skilled in rousing Leviathan!
 9. Let the stars of its twilight be dark! Let it long for light, and let there be none. Nor let it see the eyelids of dawn
 10. because it did not shut the doors of my mother’s womb, nor did it hide trouble from my eyes.
 11. Why did I not die in the womb and perish before I came out of the belly?
 12. Why did knees greet me, and for what did breasts give me suck?
 13. For now I would be lying down and be undisturbed; I would be asleep. Then, I would have rest
 14. with kings and counsellors of the earth who built desolate places for themselves,
 15. or with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver.
 16. Or like a hidden, untimely birth, I had not existed, like infants who did not see the light.
 17. There, the wicked cease causing trouble, and there, the weary are at rest.
 18. The prisoners are at peace together; they do not hear the voice of the oppressor.
 19. The small and the great there are one, and the slave is free from his master.
- ¶20. Why is light given to a suffering man, and life to a bitter soul?
21. They wait for death, but they cannot have it; they seek it more than for hidden treasures;
 22. they rejoice greatly and are glad when they find a grave.
 23. Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden and whom God has hedged in?
 24. Truly my sighing comes before my food, and my groanings pour forth like water,
 25. for the thing I greatly feared has come upon me; yea, what I dreaded has happened to me.

26. I was not at ease, nor was I doing nothing, nor was I at rest; yet, trouble came."

Job 4

- ¶1. Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,
- 2. "If one should venture a word to you, you may grow weary, but who can restrain from speaking?
- 3. Behold, you have instructed very many; you have strengthened weak hands;
- 4. your words upheld the man who was stumbling and strengthened tottering knees.
- 5. But now, it has come upon you, and you grow faint; it touches you, and you fall apart.
- 6. Was not your fear of God and the perfection of your ways your confidence and your hope?
- ¶7. "Think back, now. Who has perished, being innocent? Or where were the upright brought to ruin?
- 8. Even as I have seen, those who plow iniquity and sow mischief reap the same.
- 9. By the breath of God, they perish; yea, by the breath of His nostrils do they perish.
- 10. The roar of the lion, even the sound of the lion, and the teeth of young lions, are confounded.
- 11. The lion perishes without prey, and the offspring of the lioness are scattered.
- ¶12. "Now, a word was subtly brought to me, and my ear caught the whisper of it.
- 13. Amid disquieting thoughts of night visions, when deep sleep falls upon men,
- 14. a dread came over me, and trembling; yea, it made all my bones shake.
- 15. Then a spirit passed before my face. The hair of my flesh stood up!
- 16. It stood still, but I did not recognize its form; it was just a shape before my eyes.
There was silence. And then I heard a voice:
- 17. 'Is a man more just than God? Or is a man purer than his Maker?
- 18. Behold, He puts no trust in His servants, and charges His angels with folly.
- 19. How much more those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dirt, who are crushed before a moth!
- 20. They are stricken from morning to evening; unnoticed, they vanish forever.
- 21. Is not their tent-cord pulled up within them? They die, but with no wisdom.'

Job 5

Eliphaz continues

- ¶1. "Call, if you want. Is there anyone who will answer you? And to whom among saints will you turn?
- 2. For wrath slays the fool, and envy kills the simple-minded man.
- 3. I have seen a foolish man take root, but suddenly, I cursed his dwelling.
- 4. His children are far from safety; they are crushed in the gate, and there is no deliverer,
- 5. whose harvest a hungry man will eat, taking it even from among thorns; yea, a snare eagerly awaits their wealth.

6. Affliction certainly does not come from the dust, and trouble does not sprout up from the ground;
 7. yet, man is born unto trouble, as surely as sparks fly upward.
- ¶8. “As for me, I would seek God, and to God I would commit my cause.
9. He does great things, and they are beyond finding out, wonders without number.
 10. He gives rain upon the face of the earth, and sends waters upon the face of the fields,
 11. to set on high those who are lowly, so that those who are heavy-hearted might be exalted to salvation.
 12. He frustrates the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot achieve success.
 13. He takes the wise in their own craftiness; yea, the counsel of wily men is anticipated.
 14. By day, they encounter darkness; even at noon, they feel about as in the night.
 15. But He saves the needy one from the sword of their mouth and the power of the mighty man.
 16. And so, the poor man has hope, and injustice shuts her mouth.
 17. Behold, blessed is the man whom God corrects. Yea, do not refuse the chastisement of the Almighty!
 18. For He inflicts pain, and He binds up; He wounds, and His hands heal.
 19. He will deliver you in six troubles; yea, in seven, evil shall not touch you.
 20. In famine, He will redeem you from death, and in war, from the power of the sword.
 21. You will be hidden from the lash of the tongue, and you will not fear destruction when it comes.
 22. At destruction and hunger will you laugh, and you will not fear the beast of the earth.
 23. For you will be in league with the stones of the field, and the beast of the field will be at peace with you.
 24. And you will know that your tent is at peace, and you will visit your fold and find nothing missing.
 25. And you will know that your seed will be many; yea, your offspring will be like the grass of the earth.
 26. You will come in full strength to the grave, like a shock of grain gathered in its season.
- ¶27. “Behold, we have searched this out. It is so. Hear it, and know it for yourself!”

Job 6

- ¶1. Then Job answered and said,
2. “O that my grief and my calamity were thoroughly weighed and laid in balances together!
 3. Yea, it would now be heavier than the sand of the sea. That is why my words have been fervent.¹

¹ Most mss have “rash”, but rashness implies error, which does not apply to Job’s words (cf. Job 42:7).

4. For the arrows of the Almighty are stuck in me, whose poison my spirit drinks; the terrors of God are arrayed against me.
5. Does the wild ass bray over grass, or an ox low over his fodder?
6. Is what is tasteless eaten without salt, or is there any taste in the white of an egg?²
7. My soul refuses to touch them; they are like contaminated food to me.

- ¶8. Who will take my petition in, so that God would grant the thing I hope for,
9. that God would assent to crush me? Let Him unleash His power and cut me off!
10. And yet, it is still a comfort to me—even in unrelenting agony do I leap for joy—that I have not denied the words of the Holy One.
11. What strength do I have, that I should continue to hope? And what end do I have, that my soul should continue to wait?
12. Oh, that the strength of stones were my strength! Oh, that my flesh were of bronze!
13. Is it not that there is no help with me? Yea, sound wisdom is driven away from me!
14. Lovingkindness from his companion belongs to the one in despair, but he³ has forsaken the fear of the Almighty.

- ¶15. “My brothers are treacherous, like a wadi. The wadis that flow in the channel
16. are dark because of the ice over them, in which the snow hides itself.
17. When they are heated, they evaporate; they vanish from their place because of the heat.

- ¶18. “The travelers veered off their course; they came up into the wasteland, and they will perish.
19. The travelers of Tema looked; the travelers from Sheba waited for him.
20. They were disappointed (though he was confident); they came there and were disappointed.
21. Surely, you have now become such to me. You are not seeing brokenness, and you are afraid.

- ¶22. “Have I ever said, ‘Give me something,’ or ‘Give me a gift from your wealth,’
23. or ‘Deliver me from the hand of an adversary,’ or ‘Redeem me out of the hand of ruthless men’?

- ¶24. “Show me! I will make myself quiet. You men, make me to understand how I have gone astray!
25. How grievous are the words of an upright man! What exactly is your reproof reproving?
26. Do you men intend to sit in judgment on words and cast the words of a despairing man to the wind?

² Hebrew uncertain.

³ That is, Eliphaz.

27. You would even cast lots for an orphan and make merchandise of your friend.
28. But be so kind now as to look at me! May God damn me if I would lie to your faces!¹⁴
29. Relent, I beseech you! Let there be no injustice! Yea, let it provoke my righteousness to keep opposing it!
30. Is there injustice in my tongue? Or does my palate not discern ruinous things?

Job 7

Job continues

- ¶1. “Does not man on earth do hard service? Yea, his days are like the days of a hireling.
2. Like a slave, he pants for a shadow, and like a hireling, he longs for his wages.
3. Just so, I am given months of emptiness as my portion, and nights of hard labor are appointed to me.
4. When I lie down, I think, ‘How long will I last?’ Then He extends the evening, and I am filled with tossings until dawn.
5. He clothes my flesh with worms and lumps of dust; my skin scabs over and then oozes again.
6. My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle, and they keep ending without hope.
7. Oh, remember that my life is a breath! My eye shall not again see good.
8. The eye of him who sees me will see me no more. Your eyes are on me, but I will be gone.
9. As a cloud dissipates and goes away, so he who goes down to Sheol does not come up.
10. He does not return again to his house; nor does his place know him any more.
11. No! I will not refrain my mouth! I will speak in the distress of my spirit! I will complain in the bitterness of my soul!

To God

- ¶12. “Am I the sea or a dragon, that you would set a guard over me?
13. When I think my couch will comfort me, my bed will ease my complaint,
14. then you frighten me with dreams and terrify me with visions
15. so that my soul prefers strangling—death more than my life.
16. I despise life. I would not live forever. Leave me alone, for my days are a vapor!
17. What is a man, that you should magnify him, or even think about him?
18. Yet, you visit him every morning; every moment, you try him.
19. Why will you not turn your gaze away from me nor leave me alone, until I swallow down my own spittle?
20. I have sinned. What shall I do for you, O Watcher of mankind? Why have you made me your target, so that I am a burden to myself?

¹⁴ Literally, only “—if I would lie to your faces.” The curse with this oath is so horrific—calling for one’s own death and damnation—that it is not even uttered. See also 22:20; 30:25; 31:5, 16, 19, 24, 29, 31, 33, 36.

21. And why will you not pardon my transgression or take my iniquity away? I am even now lying in the dust. You, too, will search for me, and I will be gone."

Job 8

- ¶1. Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,
- 2. "How long will you utter these things? Yea, the words of your mouth are a big wind.
- 3. Does God pervert judgment? Or does the Almighty pervert what is right?
- 4. If your children sinned against Him, and He cast them away because of their transgression,
- 5. if you had diligently sought God and earnestly implored the favor of the Almighty,
- 6. if you had been pure and upright, then He would have roused Himself for you and made your righteous abode prosperous.
- 7. Yea, though your beginning be small, your end would increase greatly.

- ¶8. Do inquire, if you will, of the previous generation, and consider carefully what their fathers discovered,
- 9. for we are but lately come, and we do not know, for our days on earth are a shadow.
- 10. Will they not teach you? They will speak to you and bring forth words from their understanding.

- 19. Behold, this is the joy of His way; yet, out of the dust, others will come up.
- 20. Behold, God will not reject a perfect man, and He will not strengthen the hand of wicked men,
- 21. until He fills your mouth with laughter, and your lips shout for joy.
- 22. Those who hate you will be clothed in shame, and the tent of wicked men shall be no more."

Job 9

- ¶1. And Job answered and said,
- 2. "I truly know that is so. But how is a man righteous before God?
- 3. If he wants to contend with Him, He will not answer him one time in a thousand.
- 4. He is wise of heart and mighty in strength. Who has been stubborn against Him and done well?
- 5. He moves mountains, and in His wrath, men do not know who overturned them.

6. He makes the earth to quake out of its place, and its pillars tremble.
 7. He commands the sun, and it does not rise, and He sets a seal upon the stars.
 8. He stretched out the heavens by Himself, and treads upon the heights of the sea.
 9. He made Ursa Major, Orion, and Pleiades,⁵ and the chambers of the south.
 10. He does great things that are unsearchable and wonders beyond number.
- ¶11. Behold! He passes over me, but I cannot see Him, and He passes on, but I cannot perceive Him.
12. Behold! He snatches away. Who will make Him repent? Who will say to Him, ‘What are you doing?’
 13. God is not turning away His anger! Rahab’s helpers⁶ are bowing to Him.
 14. How much less can I present a defense to Him or choose my words with Him!
 15. Though I am righteous, I cannot present a defense. I am pleading with my Judge for mercy!
 16. If I cried out and He answered me, I would not believe that He had listened to my voice.
- ¶17. He is crushing me with a tempest and has multiplied my wounds without cause.
18. He is not letting me draw in my breath, but fills me with bitterness.
 19. If it were a matter of strength, behold, He is mighty! And if it were a legal case, who would subpoena me?
 20. Though I am in the right, my own mouth would condemn me. I am blameless, but He has declared me crooked.
 21. I am blameless! I do not know myself. I despise my life.
 22. It is all the same. That is why I say that He destroys the blameless along with the wicked man.
 23. If with a calamity He causes sudden death, He mocks the despair of innocent people!
 24. The earth has been given into the hand of a wicked one. He covers the faces of its judges. If it is not so, then who is the one who has done it?

To God

- ¶25. “My days are swifter than a runner; they flee away without seeing goodness.
26. They sail away like reed ships, like an eagle swooping upon its prey.
 27. Were I to say, ‘I will forget my complaint; I will change my expression, and smile,’
 28. I would fear all my pains. I know that you would not hold me innocent.
 29. I am already condemned. Why should I labor in vain?
 30. If I washed myself in snow and cleansed my hands with lye,
 31. you would still plunge me into the Pit, and my own garments would abhor me.

Job’s Plea for an Arbiter

⁶ Or, Proud One’s helpers.

- ¶32. “There is certainly no man like me. Oh, let me respond to Him! Let us come together in court!
33. There is no arbiter between us. Let someone lay his hand upon us both!
 34. Let him make His rod turn away from me so that the dread of Him will stop terrifying me.
 35. Then I would speak and not be afraid of Him. But that is not how it is. I am on my own.

Job 10
Job continues

- ¶1. “My soul loathes my life. I will give vent to my complaint! I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
2. I would say to God, ‘Do not condemn me! Make me understand why you are contending with me!’

To God

3. Is it good for you to be an oppressor, that you should despise the work of your own hands and shine upon the counsel of wicked men?
4. Do you have eyes of flesh, or do you see as a man sees?
5. Are your days like the days of a man? Or your years like the years of a man,
6. that you search for my iniquity? But you seek for my sin
7. even though you know I am not guilty! And there is no one who can deliver out of your hand.
8. Your hands shaped me; yea, they altogether made me, yet you swallow me up!
9. Remember, I pray, that you created me as clay and will return me to dirt!
10. Have you not poured me out like milk and curdled me like cheese?
11. You clothed me with skin and flesh and wove me together with bones and sinews.
12. You granted me life and lovingkindness, and your providence preserved my spirit.
13. Oh, you have treasured up these things in your heart. I know that this is within you!
14. If I do sin, you watch me, and you will not acquit me of my iniquity.
15. If I be wicked, woe be unto me. But I am righteous! I am not lifting up my own head.
I am full of disgrace. Oh, see my affliction!
16. When it was exalted like a lion, you hunted me down. Yea, you turned and made yourself bewildering to me.
17. You keep producing your fresh witnesses against me, and you magnify your indignation against me. Vicissitudes and war are against me.
18. Oh, why did you bring me out of the womb? Would that I had died and eye had not seen me!
19. I should have been as though I had not lived, just carried from the womb to the grave.
20. Are not my days few? Stop it! Leave me alone,⁷ that I might find a little cheer

⁷ Literally, “Let Him stop! Let Him leave me alone.”

21. before I go—and I shall not return—to the land of darkness and shadow of death,
22. the land of darkness like the darkness of the shadow of death, without order; yea, even the light is like darkness.””

Job 11

- ¶1. Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said,
2. “Should not a multitude of words be answered? And should a man full of talk be justified?
 3. Should your vain speech make men silent? And when you mock God, should no one put you to shame?
 4. For you have said, ‘My doctrine is pure,’ and ‘I am clean in your sight.’
 5. Oh! Would that God would speak and open His lips against you,
 6. and show you the secrets of wisdom, that sound wisdom has two sides! Know then that God is exacting of you less than your iniquity deserves!
 7. Can you by searching find out God? Or can you find the limit of the Almighty?
 8. It is beyond the heights of heaven. What can you do? It is deeper than Sheol. What can you know?
 9. Its measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea.
 10. If He passes through and imprisons or summons an assembly, who will make Him repent?
 11. For He knows men’s worthlessness, and He beholds iniquity, though a man may not discern it.
 12. For an empty-headed man will be wise when a wild donkey’s colt is born a man.
 13. When you prepare your heart and spread out your hands to Him,
 14. if there is iniquity in your hand, put it far away, and do not allow injustice to dwell in your tents.
 15. For then, you would lift up your face without blemish, and you would be established and have no fear.
 16. Yea, you would forget trouble; you would remember it as waters that have passed by.
 17. Life would be brighter than noonday; darkness would be as the morning.
 18. You would also be confident because there would be hope; you would look around and lie down in safety.
 19. Yea, you would stretch yourself out, for there would be nothing to cause terror, and multitudes would court your favor.
 20. But the eyes of wicked men fail, and there is no escape for them, and their hope is that they might expire.””

Job 12

Job scolds Zophar for his shallowness.

- ¶1. Then Job answered and said,
2. “No doubt, you are the people, and wisdom will die with you.

3. I have understanding, just as you do. I am not inferior to you. Who does not know such things?
 4. A laughingstock to his friend am I—one who has called on God and He answered him—a righteous, perfect laughingstock!
 5. The one who is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.
 6. Tents of robbers prosper, and those who provoke God are secure in what God has brought them by His hand.
 7. Just ask the beasts, if you will, and let them teach you, or the birds of the sky, and let him make it clear to you.
 8. Or talk to the earth and let it teach you, or let the fish of the sea inform you.
 9. Who among these does not know that the hand of Jehovah has done this,
 10. in whose hand is the soul of every living thing and the breath of every man's flesh?
- ¶11. “Does not the ear try words, even as the palate tastes its food?
12. Wisdom belongs to old men, and understanding to length of days.
- ¶13. “With Him is wisdom and might; counsel and understanding are His.
14. Behold, He tears down, and it cannot be rebuilt. He shuts a man in, and it cannot be opened.
 15. Behold, He withholds the waters, and they dry up; then He sends them forth, and they overwhelm the earth.
 16. With Him are strength and sound wisdom; to Him belong the deceiver and the deceived.
 17. He leads counsellors away barefoot, and turns judges into fools.
 18. He undoes the girding of kings, and binds a waist-cloth on their loins.
 19. He leads priests away barefoot, and He brings to ruin those who are established.
 20. He deprives faithful men of speech and takes away the discernment of old men.
 21. He pours contempt upon nobles and loosens the girdle of strong men.
 22. He uncovers deep things from the darkness and brings the shadow of death to the light.
 23. He makes nations great and then destroys them; He enlarges the nations and then leads them away.
 24. He takes away the understanding of the leaders of the people of earth and causes them to wander about in a trackless wasteland.
 25. They grope in darkness with no light, and He makes them stagger about like a drunkard.

Job 13
Job continues

- ¶1. “Behold, my eye has seen all this; my ear has heard and understood it.
2. I know what you men know. I am not inferior to you.
3. But I would speak to the Almighty; yea, I want to argue my case with God!

4. But you! You spreaders of lies are worthless physicians, all of you.
5. If only you would shut up, and let that be your wisdom!
6. Hear, I pray, my argument, and listen to the pleadings of my lips.
7. Will you speak falsehood for God and utter deceit on His behalf?
8. Will you show Him partiality? Will you argue God's case?
9. Will it go well with you when He examines you? Or as one deceives a man, will you deceive Him?
10. He will certainly censure you if you secretly show partiality.
11. Does not His rising up terrify you? And the dread of Him fall on you?
12. Your platitudes are parables of ashes, and your defenses are defenses of mud.

- ¶13. "Be silent! Leave me alone, and let me speak. Then, let come upon me what will.
14. Why would I take my flesh in my teeth and put my life in my own hand?
15. Behold, He is killing me. I have no hope. Nevertheless, I will defend my ways before Him.
16. Moreover, He will be my salvation, for a profane man shall not enter into His presence.
17. Listen carefully to what I am saying, and take my declaration into your ears!
18. Behold now, I have laid out my case. I know that I am righteous.
19. Who is he that has a case against me? For then, I would be hold my peace and die.

To God

- ¶20. "Just do not do two things to me. Then, I will not hide myself from your face.
21. Remove your hand far from me, and let not your dread terrify me.
22. Just call, and I will answer. Or let me speak, and you answer me.
23. What are my iniquities or sins? Show me my transgression and my sin!
24. Why do you hide your face and count me as your enemy?
25. Would you make a driven leaf to tremble, or pursue dry chaff?
26. But you write down bitter things against me and cause me to inherit the iniquities of my youth.
27. Yea, you have put my feet in stocks and watch all my ways; you have carved a mark into the soles of my feet.
28. So, he wastes away like something rotten, like a garment eaten by moths.

Job 14

Job continues. More to God

- ¶1. "Man who is born of woman is of few days, and full of trouble.
2. He comes forth like a flower, and then withers away. Yea, he flees like a shadow and does not last.
3. Upon this man have you certainly set your eyes, that you might bring me into judgment with you.
4. Who can make a clean man out of an unclean man? No one.

5. Though his days are determined, the number of his months are with you. You have made a boundary for him, and he cannot cross it.
6. Remove your gaze from him, that he might rest until he is refreshed, as a hired man ending his day.
7. Truly, there is hope for a tree, if it is cut down, that it might sprout again and that its shoot will not fail.
8. For if its root in the earth grows old and its stump dies in the dirt,
9. through the scent of water, it may sprout and put forth branches like a seedling.
10. But when a man dies, he lies prostrate. Yea, man breathes his last, and where is he?
11. Waters evaporate from the sea, and a river becomes parched and dries up,
12. and man lies down and will not rise until heaven is no more. They shall not awake nor be roused from their sleep.
13. Oh, that you would hide me in Sheol and conceal me until your anger is passed, that you would appoint me a time and remember me!
14. If a man die, shall he live again? All the days of my hard service, I will hope until my change comes.
15. You will call, and I will answer you. You will desire the work of your hands.
16. And then, you will take into account my steps; you will not be watching for my sin.
17. My transgression will be sealed up in a bag, and you will put a cover over my iniquity.
18. But as it is, the falling mountain sinks, and the rock is moved from its place.
19. Water wears away the stones; you wash away the soil of the earth with its torrents. Thus, you cause the hope of man to perish.
20. You always prevail against him, and then, he goes away. You change his countenance and send him away.
21. His sons are honored, but he does not know it. Or they are brought low, and he has no knowledge of it.
22. But until then, his flesh on him feels pain, and his soul within him mourns.”

Job 15

- ¶1. Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,
2. “Should a wise man respond to vain knowledge and fill his belly with the east wind?
 3. Should he argue with worthless talk, and words in which he finds no good?
 4. Yea, you have repudiated fear and withheld devotion from God,
 5. for your iniquity instructs your mouth, and you choose the language of crafty men.
 6. Your own mouth condemns you, and not I. Yea, your own lips testify against you!
 7. Are you the first man born, or were you brought forth before the hills?
 8. Have you listened in on the privy council of God, or do you have a monopoly on wisdom?
 9. What do you know that we do not know? What understanding do you have that is not in us?
 10. Both the hoary-headed and aged are with us, much older than your father.

11. Were the consolations of God too little for you, or the word He spoke gently to you?
12. Why does your heart take you away, and what do your eyes wink at,
13. that your spirit should turn against God and that you allow such words to come out of your mouth?

- ¶14. What is man, that he should be clean, or that one born of woman should be righteous?
15. Behold, He puts no trust in His holy ones, and the heavens are not clean in His sight.
16. How much less a vile and corrupt man, who drinks iniquity like water!

- ¶17. I will teach you. Listen to me, for I have seen this, and I will declare
18. that which wise men have reported from their fathers and have not hidden.
19. To them, to them alone, was the earth given, and no strange thing passed through their midst.
20. All the days of a wicked man, he writhes in pain [like you, Job]. Though a number of years is laid up for the ruthless man,
21. the sound of terrors is in his ears. In prosperity, the Destroyer comes upon him.
22. He does not have faith to turn from darkness, and so, he is marked for the sword.
23. He wanders about for bread, asking, ‘Where is it?’ He knows that the day of darkness has been prepared by His hand.
24. Distress terrifies him; anguish, like a king prepared for the attack, overpowers him,
25. for he stretched out his hand against God and vaunted himself against the Almighty,
26. running at Him, stiff-necked, with his bossed shields.
27. Yea, he covered his face with his fatness and added blubber about his loins.
28. But he dwells in devastated cities, with its houses which men do not occupy, ordained to be heaps of rubble.
29. He will not be rich, nor will his wealth last, nor will their possessions spread over the land.
30. He will not depart from darkness. A flame shall dry out his branch, and he will depart along with the breath of his mouth.
31. Oh, that he would not trust in vanity! He is deceiving himself, but his reward will be vanity.
32. It shall be paid in full before his time, and his branch will not be green.
33. He will shake off his unripe grapes like a vine, and He will cast off his blossom like an olive tree.
34. Yea, a profane congregation is barren, and fire consumes the tents of bribery.
35. He conceived trouble and gave birth to iniquity, for their inward part was preparing treachery.”

Job 16

- ¶1. Then Job answered and said,
2. “I have heard many such things. Miserable comforters are you all!”

3. Will there ever be an end to long-winded speeches? Or what illness do you have, that you would even give an answer?
 4. I could also speak as you do if your souls were in my soul's place. I could string words together against you and shake my head at you.
 5. But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips would bring you relief.
- ¶6. If I speak, my pain is not relieved, and if I forbear, what pain of mine leaves?
7. Surely, He has now exhausted me.
To
¶“You have made all my company desolate!
 8. You have shriveled me up; it has become a witness against me. Yea, my own leanness has risen up against me. On my face, it testifies.

Job's case against God

- ¶9. “His anger has ripped me to shreds, and yet, He continues to hate me. He has gnashed on me with His teeth. My Adversary keeps sharpening His eyes at me.
10. Men have gaped at me with their mouth; they have struck my cheeks with contempt; they mass together against me.
11. God has handed me over to an unjust one and thrust me into the clutches of wicked men.
12. I was prospering, yet He tore me apart. Yea, He seized me by my neck and dashed me to pieces. Then, He set me up as His target.
13. His archers are around me! He slices open my kidneys; yet, He shows no pity. He pours out my gall to the earth.
14. He breaks me open with breach upon breach; He runs me over like a mighty man.
15. I have sewn sackcloth upon my skin and buried my horn in the dust.
16. My face is contorted from my weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death,
17. even though there is no cruelty in my hands. My prayer is pure!
18. O earth, do not cover over my blood! And let there be no place for my cry!
19. Even now, behold, my Witness is in heaven, and my Advocate is on high.
20. My friends ridicule me. To God, my eyes pour out tears.
21. Oh, that one might argue for a man with God, as a man does for his fellow.
22. When the number of years are come, then I shall go the way from which I shall not return.

Job 17

Job continues. To God

- ¶1. “My spirit is broken; my days are snuffed out; the graves are ready for me.
2. Let God damn me if deceivers are not here with me! Yea, my eye passes the night with their disputations.
3. Put up a pledge, I pray, for me with you! Who else can strike hands with me?

4. For you have hidden their hearts from understanding; therefore, you will not exalt them.
5. He keeps friends informed for a reward, but the eyes of his sons shall fail.
6. Yea, he has made me a by-word of people; I am one whose face is used for spitting.
7. My eye has grown dim with grief; my members are like a shadow, all of them.
8. The upright will be appalled at this, and the innocent will rouse himself against the profane man.
9. The righteous man holds fast to his way, and clean hands increase in strength.
10. Nevertheless, you will come back (all of them!); so come on, if you want! But I will not find a wise man among you.
11. My days are passed; my hopes have been torn away, my dearest possessions,
12. yet they would transform night to day, saying in the face of darkness, ‘Light is at hand!’
13. Though I yearn for Sheol to be my home, though I spread out my bed in the darkness,
14. though I say to the Pit, ‘You are my father,’ or to the worm, ‘You are my mother’ or ‘my sister,’
15. where, O where is my hope? But who will see my hope?
16. The bars of Sheol will collapse if we rest together in the dust!”

Job 18

- ¶1. Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,
2. “How long will you lay verbal traps? Be sensible,⁸ and then we can talk.
 3. Why are we thought of as beasts? In your eyes, we are stupid—
 4. as He tears apart his soul in His anger! Has the earth been abandoned—according to you—and the Rock removed from His place?
 5. Truly, He extinguishes the light of wicked men so that the flame of his fire does not shine.
 6. The light in his tent will go dark; yea, his lamp beside him will He extinguish.
 7. His vigorous steps will be shortened, and his own counsel will cast him down.
 8. Yea, he is cast into a net by his own feet; he walks on a mesh.
 9. A trap seizes him by the heel; a snare grabs him.
 10. His own cord is what is hidden in the earth, and his own trap on the path.
 11. Terrors on every side frighten him and hound him at his every step.
 12. His strength is famished, and calamity is at his side, ready.
 13. It will devour his body parts; the firstborn of death will devour his members.
 14. He will be torn away from his tent, his security, and marched off to the king of terrors.

⁸ The verb is plural.

15. Nothing he owns will remain in his tent; brimstone will be scattered upon his habitation.
16. Underneath, his roots will dry up, and above, his branches will wither.
17. His memory will perish from the earth, and he will have no name abroad.
18. They will drive him from the light into darkness and chase him away from the world.
19. He will have no progeny or posterity among his people, nor any survivor in the places he lived.
20. Those to the west will be appalled at his day, and those to the east will be gripped with horror.
21. Surely, such are the dwellings of an unjust man, and such is the place of him who does not know God.”

Job 19

- ¶1. Then Job answered and said,
2. “How long will you make my soul suffer and crush me with words!
 3. These ten times, you have insulted me. You shamelessly wrong me.
 4. But even if I have truly erred, my error would remain with me.
 5. Though you indeed magnify yourselves against me and use my disgrace against me,
 6. know now that God has subverted me and wrapped His net around me.
 7. Behold, I cry out, “This is wrong!” But I receive no answer. I cry out for help, but there is no justice!
 8. He has walled up my path, and I cannot go on; upon my paths has He laid darkness.
 9. He has stripped me of my glory and removed the crown from my head.
 10. He has broken me down on every side, and I am gone. He has uprooted my hope like a tree.
 11. His anger burns against me; He counts me as one of His enemies.
 12. His troops come together and build up their ramp against me; they encamp round about my tent.
 13. He has removed my brothers far from me, and those who know me are wholly estranged from me.
 14. My kinsmen have ceased from me, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.
 15. Those who stay in my home, even my maidservants, think of me as a stranger; I am a foreigner in their eyes.
 16. I summon my servant and he does not answer; with my mouth, I implore him.
 17. My breath is loathsome to my wife, and I am disgusting to the children of my mother's womb.
 18. Even little boys despise me; I rise up, and they speak against me.
 19. All my intimate friends abhor me, and those I love have turned against me.
 20. My bone clings to my skin and my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.
 21. Have pity on me! Have pity on me, you, my friends! For the hand of God has touched me!

22. Why are you hounding me like God and are not satisfied with my flesh?
23. Oh, that my words were written down! Oh, that they were inscribed in a book,
24. with iron stylus and lead, that they might be forever engraved in rock!
25. Yet, I know that my Redeemer lives, and in the end, he shall stand upon the earth!
26. And afterward, when this skin they have destroyed, though without my flesh, I shall see God,
27. whom I shall see for myself! Yea, my own eyes shall see Him and none other. My reins within my bosom fail,
28. though you men think, ‘How have we hounded him?’ and that the root of the matter is found with me.
29. You yourselves should be afraid of the sword! For wrath brings the punishments of the sword, so that you might know what judgment is.”

Job 20

- ¶1. Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said,
2. “To that end, my troubled thoughts compel me to answer; yea, I am provoked within.
 3. I keep hearing, ‘Correction is an insult to me,’ but a spirit beyond my understanding is giving me a reply:
 4. Do you not know this, that from old, from when man was placed upon the earth,
 5. the joyful shouting of wicked men is short, and the gladness of a profane man is but for a moment?
 6. Though his arrogance mount up to heaven and his head touch the clouds,
 7. he will perish, like his own dung, forever. Those who have seen him will say, ‘Where is he?’
 8. Like a dream, he will fly away, and they will not find him; yea, he is chased away like a vision of the night.
 9. The eye that gazed on him will not again do so. Yea, it will no longer behold him in his place.
 10. His children will seek favor from the poor, for his hands relinquish his wealth.
 11. His bones may be full of youthful vigor, but they will lie down with him in the dust.
 12. Though evil is sweet in his mouth, he hides it under his tongue.
 13. He cherishes it and will not forsake it, but holds it on his palate.
 14. His food in his bowels is turned within him into the poison of venomous serpents.
 15. He swallows down wealth, but vomits it up out of his belly. God dispossesses him.
 16. He sucks down the poison of venomous serpents; the viper’s tongue will kill him.

To God

- ¶17. Let him not see the streams, the flowing rivers of honey and curds!
- ¶18. He will give back his labor; yea, he will not swallow it down. Nor will he rejoice in his wealth gained by trade,

19. for he has crushed, he has abandoned destitute people. He has taken violent possession of a house, and will not build it up.
20. Yea, he will know no quietness in his belly; with his selfish desire, he will not escape.
21. Nothing will remain for him to eat. Because his prosperity is not secure,
22. at the height of his boasting, he will be distressed; all the power of misery will come upon him.
23. When he would fill his belly, He sends His burning anger into him, and it rains upon him, in his very bowels.
24. He will flee from a weapon of iron; a bronze bow will pierce him through.
25. He drew it out, and it has gone through his body; yea, the glittering point has gone through his gallbladder. Terrors come over him.
26. Every darkness is laid up for his treasures! An unfanned fire will feed on him; it will consume what remains in his tent.
27. Heaven will expose his iniquity, and the earth will rise up against him.
28. The possessions in his house will be carried off, flowing away in the day of His wrath.
29. This is an evil man's portion from God, and the inheritance decreed for him by God."

Job 21

- ¶1. Then Job answered and said,
2. "Listen keenly to my speech, and let it be your consolation!
 3. Put up with me while I speak, and after I have spoken, continue your mockery.
 4. Is my complaint to a man? Then, why should my spirit not be vexed?
 5. Look at me and be appalled, and lay your hands upon your mouth!
 6. If I even think on it, I am dismayed, and trembling seizes my flesh.
 7. Why do the wicked keep living? They grow old; they grow mighty in power.
 8. Their seed are established with them, in their presence, and their offspring, before their eyes.
 9. Their houses are safe from fear, and the rod of God is not upon them.
 10. His bull breeds without fail. His cow bears calves and does not miscarry.
 11. They send out their little ones like a flock; yea, their offspring skip about.
 12. They sing to the timbrel and lyre, and rejoice to the sound of a pipe.
 13. They spend their days in plenteousness, and then go down to Sheol in an instant.
 14. And yet, they say to God, 'Leave us! We have no desire for the knowledge of your ways.'
 15. What is the Almighty, that we should serve Him? And what would we gain if we entreat Him?"
 16. Behold, their prosperity is not in their hand. The counsel of wicked men is far from me!
- ¶17. How often the lamp of wicked men is put out, and their calamity comes upon them! He distributes pains in His anger.
18. They are like straw before the wind, and like chaff that the storm-wind sweeps away.

19. God stores up his iniquity for his children. He recompenses him, that he might consider.
20. His own eyes will see his ruin.⁹ Yea, he will drink the wrath of the Almighty.
21. And what will he care about his house after him when the number of his months are cut short?

- ¶22. Would he teach God knowledge, seeing He judges those on high?
23. One may die in his full strength, altogether at ease and prosperous,
24. his buckets full of milk, and the marrow of his bones, moist,
25. while another may die in bitterness of soul, not having tasted prosperity.
26. Together do they lie in the dust, and the worm covers them.

- ¶27. Behold, I know your thoughts, and you do great wrong with your imaginations against me.
28. For you say, ‘Where is the house of the princely man?’ and ‘Where is the tent where the wicked live?’
29. Have you not asked those who travel the road? Or do you not accept their reports,
30. that in the day of calamity, an evil man may be spared, and in the day of wrath, they may be brought safely out?
31. Who exposes his way to his face? And who recompenses him for what he has done?
32. And then he is borne to a stately grave, and vigil is kept at his tomb.
33. The clods of the valley are pleasant to him. And all mankind will follow after him, as there were innumerable before him.
34. So, how can you comfort me with empty nothings? Yea, falsehood remains in your answers!”

Job 22

- ¶1. Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,
2. “Is a man profitable to God? No, he who is wise is profitable to himself.
3. Is it the Almighty’s delight that you are righteous, or is it a benefit to Him that you make your ways perfect?
4. Is He reproving you out of fear of you? He has entered into judgment with you!
5. Are you not very evil? Yea, there is no end to your iniquities!
6. For you have taken a pledge from your brothers for nothing, and have stripped the naked of their garments.
7. You have not given drink to the weary, and have withheld food from the hungry,
8. for the earth belongs to the mighty man, and the privileged man occupies it.
9. You have sent widows away empty, leaving the arms of orphans shattered.
10. That is why snares are all about you, and sudden terror overwhelms you,
11. or darkness so that you cannot see, and a flood of waters covers you.

⁹ Hebrew uncertain.

12. Is not God in the height of heaven? Then, look at the high stars, how lofty they are!
13. But you say, ‘What does God know? Can He judge from behind a cloud?
14. Clouds are a veil to Him, so that He does not see. He just walks about on the vault of heaven.’
15. Will you keep to the old path which wicked men walked
16. who were snatched away when, before the time, their foundation was taken away by a flood,
17. who were saying to God, ‘Depart from us.’ But what was the Almighty doing to them?
18. Yea, He filled their houses with good. The counsel of evil men is also far from me!¹⁰
19. The righteous see and rejoice, and the innocent man mocks them.
20. May God damn me if our adversary will not be destroyed! And fire will consume their remnant.

- ¶21. Acquaint yourself with Him, I beseech you, and be at peace. Thereby, prosperity will come to you!
22. Receive instruction, I beg you, from His mouth, and lay up His words in your heart!
23. If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up, if you put wrong far from your tent.
24. Just lay your gold in the dust, and gold of Ophir among the stones of the wadis.
25. Then the Almighty will be your gold pieces and your heaps of silver.
26. Yea, then you will take great delight in the Almighty and lift up your face to God.
27. You will make supplication to Him, and He will hear you, and you will pay your vows.
28. You will decide a matter, and He will confirm it for you, and light will shine on your ways.
29. When men are brought low and you say, ‘Lift them up,’ then He will save the humble man.
30. He will even deliver one who is not innocent. Even he will be delivered because of the cleanliness of your hands.”

Job 23

- ¶1. Then Job answered and said,
2. “Today also my complaint is bitter. My hand is heavy because of my groaning.
3. Oh, that I knew where I might find Him! I would go to His house!
4. I would lay out my case before Him and fill my mouth with arguments!
5. I would know the words that He would answer me, and understand what He would say to me!
6. Would He contend against me with His great power? No! But He would pay attention to me.

¹⁰ Eliphaz is mocking Job’s statement in 21:16.

7. There, this upright man might reason with Him and be delivered forever from my Judge.
8. Behold, I go forward, but He is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive Him;
9. on the left hand where He is working, but I cannot behold Him; He is hiding Himself on the right hand so that I cannot see Him.
10. Still, He knows how it is with me, and when He has tried me, I will come forth like gold.
11. My foot has held fast to His steps. I have kept His way and have not turned aside.
12. Nor have I departed from the commandment of His lips. I have treasured the words of His mouth more than my necessary food.
13. But He is of one mind, and who can turn Him? Truly, He does whatever He desires.
14. Yea, He will finish what is appointed for me, and many such things are with Him.
15. That is why I am dismayed at His presence; I think on it and fear before Him.
16. Yea, God has made my heart faint. Yea, the Almighty has terrified me.
17. Nevertheless, I am not silenced by the darkness, though He has covered my face with thick darkness.

Job 24
Job continues

- ¶1. "Why, seeing that times are not hidden from the Almighty, does he who knows Him not live out his days?
2. Rich men move boundary markers; they steal and then pasture flocks;
3. they drive away the orphans' donkey; they take in pledge a widow's ox;
4. they shove needy people out of the way. The poor of earth all hide themselves.
5. Behold, like wild asses in the desert, they go out to their toil, searching desperately for food; the steppe provides him bread for the children.
6. In the field, they gather in his fodder and glean the vineyard of the evil man.
7. They pass the night naked, without clothing, and have no covering in the cold.
8. They are wet from mountain rains, and for want of shelter, they huddle against cliffs.
9. Rich men tear the orphan from the breast, and take a pledge from a poor man.
10. The poor walk about naked, without clothing; hungry, they gather up sheaves.
11. Within the walls of those men, they press out oil; they tread the presses, but suffer thirst.
12. Poor men groan from the city, and their wounded soul cries out for help, but God attributes wrong to no one.
13. These are among those who rebel against the light; they are not acquainted with its ways, nor do they stay in its paths.
14. The murderer rises before the light. He slays the poor and needy man, and at night, he is like a thief.
15. The eye of the adulterer also watches for twilight, thinking, 'No eye will recognize me,' as he puts a covering on his face.

16. In the dark, he digs into houses; by day, they seal themselves up. They do not know the light.
17. For to them, morning is the same as the shadow of death; yea, he is acquainted with the terrors of darkness.
18. He is a fleeting thing on the surface of waters; their portion in the earth is cursed; no one will take the way to their vineyards.
19. Drought and heat snatch away snow waters; Sheol, those who have sinned.
20. The womb will forget him; the worm will feed sweetly upon him; he will no longer be remembered. Injustice will be broken like a tree.
21. He devours the barren, childless woman, and does no good for the widow,
22. and yet, He preserves powerful men by His power; one rises, even though he does not trust in the living God.
23. He gives him security, and he relies on it; nevertheless, His eyes are on their ways.
24. They are exalted a little while, and then they are gone and brought low. Like all others, they will be gathered; yea, like heads of grain, they will be cut off.
25. And if it is not so, who will prove me a liar and make what I say of no account?"

Job 25

- ¶1. Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,
2. "Dominion and fear are with Him; He makes peace in His high places.
 3. Is there any number to His troops? And upon whom does His light not rise?
 4. Moreover, how can a man be righteous with God? And how can one born of woman be pure?
 5. Behold, in His sight, even the moon has no brightness and the stars are not pure.
 6. How much less a man, who is a worm; yea, the son of man, who is a worm?"

Job 26

- ¶1. Then Job answered and said,
2. "How have you helped him who has no strength? How have you delivered the arm that is without strength?
 3. How you have counseled him who lacks wisdom, and made sound wisdom known to many!
 4. Who moved you to speak those words, and whose spirit came forth from you?
- ¶5. The shades writhe beneath the waters and their inhabitants.
6. Sheol is naked before Him, and there is no covering to Abaddon.
 7. He stretches out the north over empty space; He hangs the earth on nothingness.
 8. He wraps up waters with His dark clouds, and yet, the cloud does not burst open under them.
 9. He obscures the face of His throne, spreading His cloud over it.
 10. He has drawn a circle as a statute over the surface of the waters, at the boundary of light with darkness.

11. The pillars of heaven tremble and are dumbfounded at His rebuke.
12. By His power, He stirs up the sea, and by His understanding, He strikes through Rahab.¹¹
13. By His Spirit, heaven will be clean, for His power will have pierced the fleeing Serpent.
14. Behold, these are but the fringes of His ways. And, oh, how small a whisper do we hear of Him! So, who can comprehend His mighty thunder?"

Job 27
Job continues

- ¶1. Again, Job took up his parable and said,
2. "By the life of God, He has turned away my justice! Yea, the Almighty has embittered my soul.
3. As long as my breath is in me and the breath of God is in my nostrils,
4. my lips shall never speak falsehood, nor shall my tongue utter deceit!
5. I will never justify you! Until I die, I will not forsake my integrity!
6. I will hold fast my righteousness and I will not let it go! My heart will not condemn me so long as I live!
7. My enemy is like a wicked man, and he who rises up against me is like an unrighteous one.
8. For what hope does the profane man have, though he has gained by wrong, when God takes his soul away?
9. Will God hear his cry when distress comes upon him?
10. If he had taken delight in the Almighty, he would have called upon God continually.
11. I am teaching you by the power of God; what is with the Almighty, I will not conceal.
12. Behold, all of you have seen this yourselves; so, how have you become so utterly worthless?
13. This is an evil man's portion from God, and the inheritance which ruthless men will receive from the Almighty:
14. if his children multiply, it is for the sword, and his descendants will not have enough food.
15. Any who survive him will be buried in death, and their widows will not weep.
16. If he heaps up silver like dust and piles up clothing like clay,
17. he may pile it up, but a righteous man will wear it, and a guiltless man will divide up the silver.
18. His house that he built is like a moth's, or like a shelter a watchman makes.
19. He may lie down in wealth, but it will not be gathered with him. He opens his eyes, and it is not.
20. Terrors overtake him like the Flood; a storm-wind steals him away by night.

¹¹ Or, "the proud one", another name for Satan.

21. An east wind carries him off, and he shall go. Yea, it sweeps him away from his place.
22. It hurls upon him and shows no pity; he would fain flee from its power.
23. It claps its hands at him and hisses at him from its place.

Job 28
Job continues.

- ¶1. "When there is a mine with silver and a place with gold, men will refine it.
- 2. Iron is taken from the ground, and rock is smelted for copper.
- 3. He has made an end of the darkness, for he searches for ore to the utmost limit in gloom and deep darkness.
- 4. Away from where people live, he breaks open a shaft in places forgotten by feet. Away from men, they dangle and sway.
- 5. Food comes forth from the earth, and yet, beneath it, it churns like fire.
- 6. Its stones are a place for sapphire, and the dirt has gold.
- 7. That path, no bird of prey knows, nor has falcon's eye seen it.
- 8. Proud beasts have not trodden upon it; the lion has not passed over it.
- 9. He puts forth his hand to the flint; he overturns mountains by the root.
- 10. He hews out channels in the rocks, and then his eye beholds every precious thing.
- 11. He dams up streams to keep them from flowing, and brings to light what has been hidden.

- ¶12. But wisdom, where is it found? And where is the place of understanding?
- 13. Man does not know its worth, for it is not found in the land of the living.
- 14. The deep says, 'It is not in me.' And the sea says, 'It is not with me.'
- 15. Fine gold cannot be given for it, nor can its price be weighed out in silver.
- 16. Nor can it be weighed against the gold of Ophir, or against the precious onyx or sapphire.
- 17. Neither gold nor glass is equal to it, nor can it be exchanged for a vessel of fine gold.
- 18. Coral and crystal are not even mentioned, for the price of wisdom is beyond rubies.
- 19. The topaz of Ethiopia is not comparable to it; it cannot be valued with pure gold.

- ¶20. Yea, wisdom, from where does it come? And where is the place of understanding?
- 21. It is concealed from the eyes of all living, hidden even from the fowl of heaven.
- 22. Abaddon and Death say, 'With our ears have we heard talk of it.'
- 23. God grants understanding of its way, for He knows its place.
- 24. Yea, He alone can see to the ends of the earth. He sees everything under heaven
- 25. to make a weight for the wind, and He apportions water by measure
- 26. when He makes His decree for the rain and a path for the thunder-bolts.
- 27. The moment He saw it, He declared its glory; He established it, for He had also searched it out.
- 28. Then He said to man, 'Behold! The fear of the Lord, that is wisdom, and to turn from evil is understanding.'"

Job 29

- ¶1. And Job continued to utter his parable and said,
2. “Oh, that I was as in months past, as in the days when God protected me,
 3. when His lamp shined upon my head, and by His light, I walked through darkness,
 4. as when I was in my strength, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle,
 5. when the Almighty was still with me, when my boys were around me,
 6. when my steps were bathed with cream and the rock poured out streams of oil for me,
 7. when I went out to the gate of the city, when I set up my seat in the public square!
 8. The young men saw me and hid themselves, and the aged rose and stood still.
 9. Princes refrained from speaking; yea, they laid their hand on their mouth.
 10. The voice of rulers was hushed; their tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth.
 11. When the ear heard me, it blessed me, and when the eye saw me, it bore me witness,
 12. for I delivered the poor who cried for help, and the orphan, and him who had no helper.
 13. The blessing of the one about to perish came upon me, and I made the widow’s heart to cry aloud with joy.
 14. I put on righteousness, and it wrapped me about like a robe, and my judgment was a turban.
 15. I was eyes for the blind man, and I was feet for the lame.
 16. I was a father to needy people, and I searched out the cause I did not know.
 17. I also crushed the jaws of the unjust and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.
 18. And I thought, ‘I will die in my nest, and I will multiply my days like the sand.
 19. My root will spread out to the waters, and the dew will lie all night on my branches.
 20. My glory is ever new with me, and my bow is renewed in my hand.’
 21. Men gave heed to me; yea, they waited in silence for my counsel.
 22. After my words, they would not speak again, for my speech dropped like rain upon them.
 23. Yea, they waited for me like the rain, and they opened wide their mouth as for the latter rain.
 24. If I laughed at them, they had no confidence, and they did not disregard the light of my countenance.
 25. I chose their course and sat as chief; yea, I lived like a king with an army, as one who comforted the mournful.

Job 30

- ¶1. “But now, those younger than I mock me, whose fathers I would have refused to put among the dogs of my flock.
2. Of what use to me was the strength of their hands in whom spiritual strength had died,

3. who, in want and in severe famine, gnaw on an old, dry thing amid desolation and waste,
4. who pull up mallows by the bushes and roots of the broom bush for their food?
5. They are driven away from behind; men shout at them as at a thief.
6. In dreadful wadis, they make their homes in holes in the ground and rocks.
7. Among bushes they bray; they gather together under nettles.
8. Fools, worthless people, they are driven out of the land with whips.
9. But now, I have become their song. I am a byword to them.
10. They loathe me; they keep far from me and do not hesitate to spit in my face.
11. Because He has let loose His bowstring and brought me low, they throw off the bridle at the sight of me.
12. A rabble is at my right hand. They rise up; they shove my feet away; they cast up against me their calamitous ways.
13. They tear up my path; they benefit from my ruin. There is no helper for it.
14. They come as through a wide breach; amid the destruction, they roll on.
15. Terrors are turned loose upon me; my honor is chased down as by the wind, and my prosperity is passed away like a cloud.
16. And now, my life is poured out beside me; the days of my affliction hold me fast.
17. The night pierces my bones within me, and my gnawing pains take no rest.
18. With great power, He has disfigured my garment; it binds me like the opening of my tunic.
19. He has cast me down into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.

To God

20. I cry out to you for help, but you will not answer me. I stand up, and you just stare at me.
21. You have become cruel to me; with your mighty hand, you abuse me.
22. You used to lift me up; you used to make me ride on the wind. But you are melting me down to nothing.¹²
23. I have assuredly come to understand that you are refusing me death and the house appointed to all the living.
24. But none would stretch out a hand against a ruined man if in his ruin, he cried out to them for help.
25. May God damn me if I did not weep for him whose day was hard! My soul grieved for the needy man!
26. But when I hoped for good, evil came, and when I expected light, darkness came.
27. My bowels are made to boil, and do not rest. Days of affliction have come upon me.
28. I walk about darkened, without sunlight; I rise up in the Assembly and cry for help.
29. I am a brother to serpents and a friend to owls.

¹² Hebrew uncertain.

30. My skin is black and comes off me, and my bones burn with heat.
31. Yea, my lyre is now for mourning, and my pipe, for the voices of those who weep.

Job 31

Job insists he is righteous.

- ¶1. “I made a covenant with my eyes. How, then, could I ogle a virgin?
2. So, what should be the portion from God above, and the lot from the Almighty on high?
3. Does not calamity belong to an unjust man, and misfortune to the workers of iniquity?
4. Does He not see my ways and number every one my steps?
5. Let God damn me if I have walked with vanity or if my foot has hastened to deceit.
6. Let Him weigh me in just balances, that God may know my integrity!
7. If my step has deviated from the Way, or my heart gone after my eyes, or a stain clung to my hands,
8. then let me sow and another eat, and let my offspring be uprooted!
9. If my heart has been enticed by a woman and I have lain in wait at my neighbor’s door,
10. then let my wife grind for another and let others bow down upon her!
11. For that is wickedness. Yea, that is an iniquity to the judges.
12. Yea, that is a fire that consumes unto Abaddon, and it would root up all my increase.
13. If I have denied justice to my manservant or maidservant in their complaint against me,
14. then what will I do when God arises? And when He calls for an accounting, what will I answer Him?
15. Did not He who made me in the womb make him? Yea, did not the same One fashion us in the womb?
16. Let God damn me if I have withheld from the poor what they desired, or if I have caused the eyes of the widow to fail,
17. or have eaten my morsel alone and the orphan did not eat some of it!
18. On the contrary, from my youth, he grew up with me as with a father, and from my mother’s womb, I was her guide.
19. Let God damn me if when I saw one dying because of a lack of clothing or a needy man who had no covering,
20. if his loins have not blessed me, being warmed by the fleece of my sheep.
21. If I have raised my hand against an orphan because I had my support in the gate,
22. then let my shoulder blade fall from its shoulder and my arm break off from its socket!
23. For calamity from God is dreadful to me; yea, because of His majesty, I would not.
24. Let God damn me if I have put my trust in gold or said to gold, ‘You are my confidence,’
25. if I have rejoiced for the greatness of my wealth or because of how much my hand had gained.
26. If I have seen the light that shines or the moon moving in splendor,
27. and my heart was secretly deceived so that my hand kissed my mouth,
28. this also would be an iniquity to the Judge, for I will have been false to God above.

29. Let God damn me if I have rejoiced at the ruin of him who hated me or exulted when evil found him!
 30. No! I have not allowed my mouth to sin by asking for a curse upon his life.
 31. Let God damn me if the men of my tent have not said, ‘Who can produce one who has not been filled with his meat?’
 32. No stranger has lodged in the street; I have opened my doors to the traveler.
 33. Let God damn me if I have concealed my transgressions as Adam did, hiding my iniquity in my bosom
 34. because I feared a great multitude, or the contempt of people so dismayed me that I was silent, not going out the door.
 35. Oh, who will grant me my hearing? Behold, my mark! Let the Almighty answer me, and let the One who is my Adversary write out an indictment!
 36. Let God damn me if I would not carry it on my shoulder! I would bind it on me like a crown!
 37. I would declare to Him the number of my steps; like a prince would I approach Him.
 38. If my land has cried out against me, or its furrows wept together,
 39. if I have eaten its yield without money, or caused its owners to expire,
 40. let briers come forth instead of wheat, and instead of barley, weeds!”
- The words of Job are ended.

Job 32

- ¶1. Then those three men ceased answering Job, seeing he was righteous in his own eyes.
- ¶2. But Elihu ben-Barachel the Buzite, from the family of Ram, burned with anger against Job. His anger burned because he justified himself rather than God.
3. His anger also burned against his three friends because they had found no answer, and yet, they had condemned Job.
4. Now, Elihu had waited before speaking to Job because they were older than he in years,
5. but after Elihu saw there was no answer in the mouth of those three men, his anger was kindled.
- ¶6. Then Elihu ben-Barachel the Buzite answered and said, “I am young in years, and you are aged men. Therefore, I was afraid. Yea, I was too afraid to make my knowledge known to you.
7. I thought, ‘Days should speak, and a multitude of years should teach wisdom.’
8. But it is the spirit in men, even the breath of the Almighty, that gives them understanding.
9. Great men may not be wise, nor old men understand judgment.
10. Therefore, I say listen to me; I will make my knowledge known, even I.
11. Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your reasonings until you began searching for what to say.

12. Yea, I was paying close attention to you, and behold, not one of you confuted Job in responding to his words—
13. lest you think, ‘We have found out wisdom, but God will have to move him, not man.’
14. Now, he has not directed his speeches at me, nor will I answer him with your words.

- ¶15. They were dismayed; they no longer answered or proceeded with their words.
16. Yea, I waited, but they would not speak. Yea, they stood still, no longer answering.
17. I, even I, will answer with my part. I, even I, will make my knowledge known.
18. For I am full of words; the spirit in my belly constrains me.
19. Behold, my belly is like wine unvented, like new wineskins about to burst.
20. I will speak and relieve myself; I will open my lips and answer.
21. Let me not, I pray, be a respecter of persons, nor give flattering titles to a man.
22. For I know not to flatter, else my Maker would soon take me away.

Job 33

- ¶1. “So then, Job, hear my words, I pray, and give ear to all my words.
2. Behold now, I have opened my mouth. My tongue speaks in my mouth.
3. My words will show the uprightness of my heart, and my lips will speak pure knowledge.
4. The Spirit of God made me, and the breath of the Almighty gave me life.
5. If you are able, answer me! Get ready, and take the stand before me!
6. Behold, I am going to be, as it were, your mouth to God. I, too, was nipped out of clay.
7. Behold, my terror will not terrify you, and pressure from me will not be heavy upon you.
8. You have certainly spoken in my ears; yea, the sound of your words I have heard:
9. ‘I am pure, without transgression. I am clean, and there is no iniquity in me.
10. Behold, He finds occasions against me. He counts me as His enemy.
11. He puts my feet in the stocks. He keeps watch over my ways.’
12. Behold, in this, you are not just. I will answer you that God is greater than man.
13. Why do you contend with Him, seeing that He does not answer for any of His matters?
14. Though God speaks once, yea, twice, man does not regard it.
15. In a dream, a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men during their slumberings on a bed,
16. He then opens the ear of men and makes their instruction sure,
17. to turn man from his own way and to keep pride away from man.
18. He spares his soul from the Pit, and his life from perishing by the arrow.
19. Or he is disciplined with pain upon his bed or with a persistent distress in his bones,
20. so that his being loathes food, and his soul, its favorite food.

21. His flesh wastes away from sight, so that bones of his that were not seen stick out.
 22. Then his soul draws near the Pit, and his life, to those who bring on death.
 23. If there is a messenger for him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to show a man His uprightness,
 24. then He will be gracious to him, and say, ‘Deliver him from going down to the Pit! I have found a ransom.’
 25. His flesh will be fresher than a child’s. He will return to the days of his youth.
 26. He will pray to God, and He will accept him, and he will see His face with a shout of joy. And then, He will restore to the man his righteousness.
 27. He shows regard to men when a man says, ‘I have sinned and perverted what is right, and it did not profit me.
 28. He has redeemed my soul from going over into the Pit; yea, my life will see the light.’
 29. Behold, all these things God works twice, three times, with man,
 30. to turn his soul back from the Pit so that he might be enlightened with the light of life.
- ¶31. Pay attention, Job! Listen to me! Be silent, and I will speak!
32. If there is something to say, answer me! Speak! For I would be pleased to justify you.
- ¶33. If not, then listen to me! Be silent, and I will teach you wisdom.”

Job 34

- ¶1. And Elihu answered and said,
2. “Hear my words, O wise men; yea, give ear to me, you who have knowledge!
3. For an ear does try speech as a palate tastes food.
4. Let us prove for ourselves what is just; let us determine among ourselves what is good.
5. For Job has said, ‘I am righteous, and God has taken away my justice.
6. My justice notwithstanding, I am considered a liar; my wound is incurable, without transgression.’
7. What man is like Job, who drinks mockery like water?
8. Yea, he travels in company with workers of iniquity and walks with wicked men,
9. for he has said, ‘It profits a man nothing when he delights in God.’
10. Therefore, O men of understanding, listen to me! Far be it from God to do wickedness, and for the Almighty to act unjustly,
11. for He recompenses a man for his work; yea, He repays a man according to his ways.
12. God certainly does not do evil; nor does the Almighty pervert justice.
13. Who appointed Him to be over the earth? Yea, who made the whole world?
14. If He set His heart to it and gathered to Himself His Spirit and His breath,
15. all flesh would perish together, and mankind would return to the dust.
16. Then, if you have understanding, hear this! Give ear to the sound of my words!
17. Is it really so, that one who hates justice is governing? Yet, you condemn the Most Just Himself?
18. Should it be said to a king, ‘You are worthless,’ or to nobles, ‘You are evil’?

19. How much less to Him who shows no partiality to princes or regards a wealthy man more than a poor one. For they all are the work of His hands.
- ¶20. In a moment, men die, and in the middle of the night people are convulsed and pass away. Even mighty men are taken away without hand.
21. Surely, His eyes are upon the ways of man, and He sees every one of his steps.
22. There is no darkness, yea, there is no deep shadow where workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
23. Nor does He put too much upon a man, that he might come against God in the Judgment.
24. He breaks mighty men into pieces, without inquiry, and appoints others in their stead.
25. So it is that, having observed their works, He overthrows them in a night, and they are crushed
26. because they are wicked. He strikes them in a place where men can watch,
27. because they turned aside from following Him and thought upon none of His ways,
28. so that they caused the cry of the poor man to come to Him, and He heard the cry of the afflicted people.
- ¶29. When He orders peace, who can make trouble? And when He hides His face, who can see Him, whether it be a nation or a single man?
30. He does so, lest a profane man reign, lest there be seducers of the people.
31. When has he said to God, ‘I have exalted myself; I will not keep doing wrong.’
32. Or, ‘What I do not see, teach me. If I have done iniquity, I will not again’?
- ¶33. “Does He recompense as suits you? But you have rejected this. You must certainly choose, and not I. So then, declare what you know!
- ¶34. Men of understanding have been saying to me, even men of wisdom who are listening to me,
35. ‘Job speaks without knowledge, and his words are not prudent.
36. Would that Job were tried to the end because his answers are like those of wicked men!
37. Yea, he adds rebellion to his sin; he claps his hands among us and multiplies his words against God.””

Job 35

- ¶1. Then Elihu answered and said,
