2. “Do you consider this right, that you say, ‘My righteousness is greater than God’s’?
3. For you are asking what benefit is there to you, and ‘How am I better off than if I had sinned?’
4. I, even I, will answer you, and your friends with you.
5. Look at the heavens, and see! And behold the clouds, which are higher than you!

6. If you have sinned, what will you have done against Him? Even if your transgressions are many, what will you have done to Him?
 7. If you are righteous, what have you benefitted Him? Or what has He received from your hand?
 8. Your wickedness affects a man like yourself, and your righteousness, the son of man.
- ¶9. “Because of a multitude of oppressions, people cry out. They cry for help because of the power of great men,
10. but no one says, ‘Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night,
 11. who teaches us more than the beasts of earth and makes us wiser than the fowl of heaven?’
 12. They may cry out, but He will not answer because of the pride of wicked men.
 13. Surely, God will not regard empty speech; the Almighty will not even pay attention to it.
 14. How much less when you say that you cannot behold Him, the case is before Him, and you are anxiously waiting for Him!
 15. And now, because He has not visited in His anger nor taken notice of an abundance of transgression,
 16. vain Job opens his mouth with empty talk and multiplies words without knowledge.”

Job 36

- ¶1. Then Elihu continued and said,
2. “Bear with me a little longer, and I will inform you, for there is more to be said on God’s behalf.
 3. I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and to my Maker will I ascribe righteousness.
 4. Yea, truly, my words will not be a lie. One who has perfect knowledge is with you.
 5. Behold, God is mighty, and He does not despise any. He is mighty in power and understanding.
 6. He does not preserve the life of a wicked man, but grants justice to humble people.
 7. He does not withdraw His eyes from a righteous man, but He sets them on a throne with kings forever, and they are exalted.
 8. But if they are bound with chains, taken in cords of affliction,
 9. then He declares to them their work and their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly.
 10. Then He opens their ear to correction and says that they must repent of iniquity.
 11. If they obey and serve Him, they will end their days in prosperity, and their years with pleasant things.
 12. But if they do not obey, they will perish by the sword; yea, they will die as though without knowledge.
 13. The profane in heart store up wrath; they do not cry for help when He binds them.
 14. Their life ends in youth; yea, their life ends among the sacred sodomites.
 15. He rescues the afflicted man by his affliction and opens their ears by the distress.

16. He certainly would have drawn you out of the jaws of distress instead, into a broad place where there was no distress, and the comfort of your table he would have filled with fatness,
17. but you are full of judgment for the wicked man. Judgment and justice take hold of the wicked
18. because of wrath, lest he entice you into mockery. Then, a great ransom would not avail you.
19. Has your plea to not be in distress set your life in order, or have any powerful forces?
20. Stop panting after the night in which people vanish from their place.
21. Watch yourself! Do not turn to iniquity, for this you have chosen rather than affliction.

- ¶22. “Behold, God is exalted by His power. Who is a teacher like Him?
23. Who can assign His way to Him? Or who can say, ‘You have done wrong!’
24. Remember that you magnify His work, of which men have sung!
25. All men have seen it; man observes it from afar.
26. Behold, God is exalted, and we do not know the number of His years. Yea, that is unsearchable.
27. For He draws up drops of water; they distill rain for His mist,
28. which clouds pour down; they drip down upon man in abundance.
29. Yea, who understands the spreadings of the clouds, the thunderings of His pavilion?
30. Behold, He spreads His light over it, though the roots of the sea He conceals.
31. For by them, He judges nations; He gives food in abundance.
32. He conceals the lightning in His hands, and then commands it to strike a spot.
33. Its noise declares Him, even to cattle, that He has arisen.

Job 37

- ¶1. “Indeed, at this, my heart trembles and leaps out of its place.
2. All of you! Pay close attention! His voice is in the noise, and the rumbling comes from His mouth.
3. He turns it loose under all of heaven, even His lightning, to the corners of the earth.
4. After it, a voice roars. He thunders with His majestic voice, and He does not restrain them when His voice is heard.
5. God thunders with His voice wondrously, doing great things we do not understand.
6. Yea, He says to the snow as well as the rain, even the heavy rain of His strength, ‘Fall to earth!’
7. He seals up the hand of every man, that all men of His creation might acknowledge Him.
8. Even the beast enters his lair and remains in his dwelling-place.
9. From His chamber, the storm-wind emerges, and from driving winds, the cold.
10. By the breath of God, ice is given and broad waters are frozen.

11. Moreover, He burdens the dark cloud with moisture; then He scatters the clouds with His light.
12. Then, at His direction, it turns about, this way and that, so that they do all that He commands them, over the face of the whole earth.
13. Whether for chastisement, or for His land, or for mercy, He causes it to happen.
- ¶14. "Give ear to this, O Job! Stand still and consider the wondrous works of God.
15. Do you know when God established them and caused the light of His cloud to burst forth?
16. Do you understand the balancing of the clouds, the wondrous works of Him who is perfect in all knowledge,
17. you whose garments grow warm when He quietens the land with a south wind?
18. Did you, with Him, spread out the sky, which is firm as a cast mirror?
19. Teach us what we should say to Him! We cannot arrange our thoughts because of darkness.
20. Should it be told Him, 'I would speak!' if somebody thinks he has been swallowed up?
21. Yea, He is a bright light in the skies that men cannot now look at, once the wind has passed through and cleared them.
22. By the north wind comes golden, awe-inspiring majesty of God.
23. Oh, the Almighty! We cannot find Him out. He is highly exalted in power, and justice, and great righteousness. He does not answer to man.
24. That is why men fear Him. He does not regard any who are wise of heart."

Job 38

- ¶1. Then Jehovah answered Job out of the whirlwind and said,
2. "Who is this who darkens counsel with words without knowledge?"
3. Gird your loins now, like a man, and I will ask you, and you answer me!
4. Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding!
5. Who determined its size? Surely, you know. Or who stretched out a line upon it?
6. Upon what were its pedestals set? Or who laid its cornerstone
7. as the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
8. Or who shut in the sea with doors when it burst forth, coming out of the womb,
9. when I made the clouds its garment and dark clouds its swaddling cloth,
10. when I broke open for it my designated place, and set bars and doors
11. and said, 'To here you may go, and no farther,' and 'Here your proud waves must stop'?
12. During your days, have you commanded the morning, informing the dawn of its place,
13. taking hold of the farthest reaches of the earth so that wicked men may be shaken off it?
14. It is transformed, like the clay of a seal, and they stand out like a garment.

15. Their light is withheld from wicked men, and the high arm will be broken.
16. Have you gone to the springs of the sea and walked about in search of the deep?
17. Have the gates of death been revealed to you, or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?
18. Do you comprehend the width of the earth? Tell me if you know it all!
19. Where is the path where light resides? And the darkness, where is its place,
20. so that you may lead it to its border and that you may descry the paths to its house?
21. You must know because you were born then, and the number of your days is great.
22. Have you entered into the storehouses of snow, or have you seen the storehouses of hail
23. which I have reserved for a time of trouble, for the day of battle and war?
24. By what path is lightning distributed and the east wind spread over the earth?
25. Who clove a channel for the rain and a path for the thunder-bolts,
26. that it might rain on land where no man is, in a wilderness with no man in it,
27. to satisfy a waste and desolate place and to make sprigs of grass sprout up?
28. Does the rain have a father, or who fathered the dew-drops?
29. From whose womb did the ice come? And the frost of heaven, who gave it birth?
30. Waters become hard like a stone, and the surface of the deep is frozen.
31. Can you fasten the bonds of Pleiades or loosen the cords of Orion?
32. Can you bring Mazzaroth out in its time, and guide Ursa Major with her sons?
33. Do you know the statutes of heaven, or can you establish its dominion over the earth?
34. Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, so that an abundance of water might cover you?
35. Can you send forth flashes of lightning, so that they go and say to you, ‘Behold, we are here!’
36. Who put wisdom in the inward parts? Or who gave understanding to the heart¹³?
37. Who numbers the clouds in wisdom, and who makes those wineskins of heaven tip over,
38. when dirt compacts into a mass and clods stick together?
39. Can you hunt prey for the lioness and satisfy the appetite of young lions
40. when they crouch in their dens? They tarry in a thicket for an ambush.
41. Who prepares for the raven its food when its offspring cry to God for help? They would wander about without food.

Job 39

- ¶1. “Do you know the time when mountain goats give birth? Do you watch over the calving of the hinds,
2. number the months for them to be full-term, or know the time for them to give birth?
3. They bow down; their offspring burst forth; they cast forth their cords.

¹³ Hebrew uncertain.

4. Their sons become strong; they grow up in the open field; they leave and do not return to it.
5. Who let the wild ass go free, and who loosed the onager's bonds,
6. to whom I gave the desert-plain for his house and the salt-plain for his dwelling places?
7. He scorns the tumult of a city; the shouts of a driver, he does not obey.
8. He scours the mountains for his pasturage; he searches for anything green.
9. Will the aurochs consent to serve you or to lodge by your feeding-trough?
10. Can you hold an aurochs in a furrow with his ropes, or will he harrow valleys behind you?
11. Can you depend on him because of his great strength or leave to him your labor?
12. Can you trust him, that he will return your seed or gather your threshing floor?
13. The wing of ostriches flaps joyfully. Is it the pinion and plumage of kindness?
14. For she abandons her eggs to the earth; she lets them warm in the dirt,
15. and she forgets that a foot might crush them; yea, a wild animal might trample them.
16. She treats her offspring harshly, as if they were not hers. And though her labor may be in vain, she is unconcerned,
17. for God has deprived her of wisdom and has not endowed her with understanding.
18. When she rises up¹⁴ proudly, she laughs at the horse and his rider.
19. Did you give strength to the horse? Did you adorn his neck with a mane?
20. Can you make him leap like the locust? His majestic snorting is terrifying.
21. They paw in the valley, and he greatly exults. He goes forth to confront weaponry.
22. He scorns fear and is not dismayed, and he does not turn back from the sword.
23. A quiver rattles at his side, the flashing spear and javelin.
24. He eats up the ground with trembling and excitement; no, he does not stand still at the sound of a shofar.
25. Whenever a shofar sounds, he thinks, 'Aha!' Even from far off, he senses a battle, the thunder of commanders, and a battle-cry.
26. Is it by your understanding that the hawk soars and spreads his wings toward the south?
27. Or is it at your command that the eagle mounts up and makes his nest on high?
28. He dwells on a cliff; yea, he lodges upon a crag of a cliff, even a stronghold.
29. From there, he spies out prey, for his eyes can see from afar.
30. And his young ones drink down blood, and where the slain are, there he is."

Job 40

- ¶1. Then Jehovah answered Job and said,
2. "Shall a fault-finder contend with the Almighty? Let him who judges God answer this!"
- ¶3. Then Job answered Jehovah and said,

¹⁴ Hebrew unknown.

4. "Behold, I am insignificant. What shall I answer you? I have laid my hand on my mouth.
 5. I have spoken once, but I have no answer. Yea, twice, but I will not do so again."
- ¶6. And Jehovah answered Job from the whirlwind and said,
7. "Gird your loins now, like a man! I will ask you, and you teach me!
 8. Would you indeed annul my judgment? Would you condemn me so that you may be justified?
 9. Yea, do you have an arm like God's, or thunder with a voice like His?
 10. Adorn yourself, I pray, with majesty and grandeur. Yea, clothe yourself with splendor and glory.
 11. Unleash the fury of your wrath! Yea, look upon every proud man and abase him!
 12. Look upon every proud man and humble him! Yea, tread down wicked men where they stand!
 13. Hide them in the dust together; bind their faces in the hidden place!
 14. Then, even I will confess to you that your own right hand can save you.
- ¶15. Behold, if you will, the behemoth, which I created along with you. He eats grass like cattle.
16. Behold, if you will, his power in his loins and his strength in the muscles of his belly.
 17. He moves his tail like a cedar; the sinews of his thighs are knit together.
 18. His bones are tubes of bronze; his bones are like rods of iron.
 19. He is the foremost of the ways of God. (Only his Maker can bring His sword near.)
 20. Indeed, the mountains provide sustenance for him, where all the beasts of the field make merry.
 21. Beneath the lotus trees, he lies down in a covert of reed and marsh.
 22. The lotuses cover him with their shadow; willows of the waterway surround him.
 23. Behold, if a river rages, he is not alarmed. He is confident even if the Jordan surges to his mouth.
 24. He can take him with his eyes; He can pierce his nose with snares.

Job 41

- ¶1. "Can you draw out Leviathan with a hook, or his tongue with a cord which you let down?
2. Can you put a hook into his nose, or bore his jaw through with a thorn?
 3. Will he make many supplications to you? Will he speak soft words to you?
 4. Will he make a covenant with you? Will you take him for a servant forever?
 5. Will you play with him as with a bird, and put him on a leash for your little girls?
 6. Will traders bargain for him and divide him among the merchants?
 7. Can you fill his hide with harpoons or pierce his head with a fish spear?
 8. Lay your hands upon him! You will remember the battle and not do that again.
 9. Behold, his hope will prove to be a lie. Yea, will he not be hurled out of His sight?

10. None is so fierce that he would stir him up. Who, then, can stand before him?
11. (Who preceded me, that I should repay him? Everything that is under heaven is mine.)
12. I will not be silent about his members, and mighty speech, and the grace of his form.
13. Who can open the face of his garment? Who would go within his two jaws?
14. Who can open the doors of his face, ringed with his terrifying teeth?
15. There is pride in his rows of bucklers, closed up with a tight seal.
16. One is so close to another that air cannot go in between them.
17. Each is joined to his mate; they clasp each other so that they cannot be separated.
18. His snorting flashes forth light, and his eyes are as the eyelids of dawn.
19. Torches proceed from his mouth; sparks of fire fly out.
20. Smoke comes forth from his nostrils like a boiling pot or burning bulrushes.
21. His breath sets coals afire when the flame from his mouth comes out.
22. Strength lodges in his neck, and before him, dismay does a dance.
23. The folds of his flesh join together, tight on him; they are immovable.
24. His heart is hard, like a stone. Yea, it is hard like a lower millstone.
25. At his uprising, gods stand in awe. At the crashing, they are beside themselves.
26. The sword strikes him to no avail, the spear, the dart, and javelin.
27. He regards iron as straw, bronze as rotten wood.
28. The arrow does not make him flee; for him, sling-stones are turned to stubble.
29. Clubs are reckoned as chaff, and he laughs at the shaking of a javelin.
30. His underparts are like jagged potsherds; he leaves a trail on the mud like a threshing-sledge.
31. He makes the deep boil like a pot; he makes the sea like an ointment-pot.
32. Behind him, he leaves a shining path; one would think the deep was hoary-headed.
33. There is not his like on earth, a creature devoid of fear.
34. He sees every high thing; he is king over all the sons of pride.”

Job 42

- ¶1. Then Job answered Jehovah and said,
2. “I know that you can do anything; not even an intent can be kept from you.
 3. Who is this who obscures counsel without knowledge? That is why I went on making declarations. But I have no understanding of things too wondrous for me. No, I do not know.
 4. Hear, I beg you, and I will speak. I will ask you, and you teach me.
 5. I have heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you.
 6. It makes me despise myself, and I repent in dust and ashes.”
- ¶7. And it came to pass, after Jehovah spoke these words to Job, that Jehovah said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My wrath is kindled against you and your two friends, for you have not spoken what is right about me, as my servant Job has.

8. So, take now for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and you go to my servant Job, and offer them as a burnt offering for yourselves, and then Job, my servant, will intercede for you, for his face will I accept. Otherwise, I will deal with your folly, for you have not spoken what is right about me, as my servant Job has."
9. And so, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did according to what Jehovah told them. And Jehovah accepted the face of Job.
10. And Jehovah reversed the captivity of Job when he interceded for his friends. And Jehovah restored all that Job had, twice over.
11. And all his brothers and all his sisters came in to him, and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house, and they condoled with him and comforted him for all the evil that Jehovah had brought upon him. And they each gave him one kesitah¹⁵, and each, one earring of gold.
12. And Jehovah blessed the latter days of Job more than his former days. For he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses.
13. Moreover, he had seven sons and three daughters.
14. And he named the first one Jemima, and the name of the second was Keziah, and the name of the third, Keren-Happuk.
15. And there were no women found as beautiful as the daughters of Job in all the land, and their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers.
16. And Job lived after these things one hundred and forty years, and he saw of his children and his children's children, four generations.
17. And Job died, old and full of days.

¹⁵ A gift of unknown type and value.

Psalms

Psalm 1

- ¶1. Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, or stand in the way of sinners, or sit in the seat of scorner,
- 2. but his delight is in the law of the LORD, and he meditates on His law day and night.
- 3. He shall be like a tree planted beside streams of water, which bears its fruit in its season and its leaf does not wither. And He will make all that he does to prosper.
- 4. The wicked are not like this, but are like the chaff that the wind blows away.
- 5. So then, the wicked shall not stand in the Judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous,
- 6. for the LORD knows the way of righteous men, but the way of wicked men shall perish.

Psalm 2

- ¶1. Why do the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?
- 2. The kings of earth set themselves, and the rulers assembled themselves together against the LORD and against His Messiah, saying,
- 3. “Let us tear off their bands and cast off their cords from us!”
- 4. He who dwells in heaven will laugh. My Lord will mock them.
- 5. Then will He speak to them in His wrath; yea, in His furious indignation will He terrify them, saying,
- 6. “In spite of you, I have enthroned my King upon Zion, my holy mountain.”
- 7. “I will declare the LORD’s decree! He said to me, ‘You are my Son. Today, I have begotten you!’
- 8. Ask of me, and I will give the nations for your inheritance, even the uttermost parts of the earth for your possession.
- 9. You shall break them in pieces with a rod of iron; like a potter’s vessel shall you shatter them.”
- 10. So, be wise now, O kings. Be instructed, O judges of earth.
- 11. Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling!
- 12. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and you perish from the way when his anger is kindled but a little. Blessed are all who seek refuge in him.

Psalm 3

A Psalm by David when he was fleeing from the presence of Absalom, his son.

- ¶1. O LORD, how my adversaries have multiplied! Many are they who rise up against me.
- 2. Many say of my soul, “There is no help for him in God.” Selah.

3. But you, O LORD, are a shield for me, my glory, and the lifter up of my head.
4. With my voice, I cry out to the LORD, and He answers me from His holy mountain.
Selah.
5. I lay down and slept; I woke up because the LORD sustains me.
6. I will not fear ten thousands of people who have set themselves against me all around.
7. Rise, O LORD! Save me, O my God! For you have struck the jaw of all my enemies; the teeth of the wicked have you broken.
8. To the LORD belongs salvation. Your blessing is upon your people! Selah.

Psalm 4

*For the chief musician, with stringed instruments.
A Psalm by David.*

- ¶1. When I call, answer me, O God of my righteousness! When I was in a strait, you enlarged it for me. Pity me and hear my prayer!
2. O sons of man, how long will my glory be a reproach? You love strife; you seek after a lie! Selah.
3. Know that the LORD has set apart the pious man for Himself. The LORD will hear when I cry to Him.
4. Be angry, and do not sin! Commune with your heart on your bed, and be still. Selah.
5. Offer sacrifices of righteousness, and trust the LORD!
6. Many say, "Who will show us good?" Raise up the light of your countenance upon us, O LORD.
7. You have put joy in my heart, more than when their wheat and their wine were multiplied.
8. In peace will I both lie down and sleep, for you alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety.

Psalm 5

*For the chief musician, with the flutes.
A Psalm by David.*

- ¶1. Give ear to my words, O LORD. Consider my groaning.
2. Attend to the sound of my cry, my King and my God, for I pray to you!
3. O LORD, in the morning, you will hear my voice; in the morning will I set my case before you and watch.
4. For you are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness. Evil cannot abide with you.
5. Braggarts will not stand in your sight. You hate all evildoers.
6. You will destroy those who speak lies. A bloody and deceitful man, the LORD abhors.
7. But as for me, in the abundance of your lovingkindness will I enter your house. I will worship toward your holy temple in fear of you.
8. O LORD, lead me in your righteousness because of those who lie in wait for me; make your way straight before me.

9. For there is nothing in their mouth that can be trusted; their inward part is destruction itself; their throat is an open tomb; they flatter with their tongue.
10. Condemn them, O God! By their own devices, let them fall! Because of the multitude of their transgressions, cast them out, for they have rebelled against you.
11. But let all who seek refuge in you, rejoice! Let them shout for joy forever because you shelter them! And let those who love your name rejoice in you!
12. For you will bless the righteous man, O LORD. You will surround him with favor like a shield.

Psalm 6

*For the chief musician, with stringed instruments, on the eighth.
A Psalm by David.*

- ¶1. O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger, nor chasten me in your burning wrath!
2. Have pity on me, O LORD, for I am feeble. Heal me, O LORD, for my bones are troubled.
3. My soul also is greatly troubled. But you, O LORD—how long?
4. Relent, O LORD! Deliver my soul! Save me for the sake of your lovingkindness!
5. For in death, there is no remembrance of you; in Sheol, who praises you?
6. I am weary with my groaning. All night long, I make my bed swim; I drench my couch with my tears.
7. My eye is consumed with grief; it has grown old because of all my adversaries.
8. Depart from me, all you evildoers! For Jehovah has heard the sound of my weeping.
9. The LORD has heard my plea! The LORD accepts my prayer!
10. Let all my enemies be ashamed and greatly troubled! Let them turn back; let them be suddenly put to shame!

Psalm 7

A shiggaion¹ by David, which he sang to Jehovah concerning the words of Cush, a Benjaminite.

- ¶1. O Jehovah, my God, I seek refuge in you! Save me from all who pursue me, and deliver me,
2. lest he tear my soul like a lion, ripping me to pieces, and there be no one to deliver.
3. O Jehovah, my God, if I have done this, if there is unrighteousness in my hands,
4. if I have rewarded evil to him who was at peace with me (indeed, I have delivered him who was for no reason my adversary),
5. let an enemy pursue my soul and overtake me, and let him trample my life to the ground and lay my honor in the dust! Selah.
6. Rise, O LORD, in your anger! Raise yourself up against the rage of my adversaries, and awake the justice for me that you have commanded!
7. Though an assembly of peoples surround you, return on high, regardless of them!

¹ Hebrew meaning unknown.

8. Let Jehovah judge the peoples! Judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness and my innocence.
9. Let Him, I pray, bring the wickedness of the wicked to an end, but establish the righteous, for the righteous God tries the minds and hearts.
10. My defense is of God, who delivers those who are upright in heart.
11. God is a righteous Judge and a God who has indignation every day.
12. If one does not repent, He will sharpen His sword; He has bent His bow and made it ready.
13. He has also prepared for Himself deadly weapons; He makes His arrows for persecutors.
14. Behold, he travails with transgression. Yes, he has conceived mischief, and has given birth to deceit.
15. He makes a pit and digs it out, and then falls into the hole that he made.
16. His mischief shall return upon his own head, and upon his own pate shall his violence come down.
17. I will praise the LORD in His righteousness, and I will sing the name of Jehovah Most High!

Psalm 8

*For the chief musician, upon the gittith.
A Psalm by David.*

- ¶1. O Jehovah, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth, you who sets your glory above the heavens!
2. Out of the mouth of children and sucklings have you ordained strength because of your adversaries, to silence the enemy who avenges himself.
3. When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars which you have set in place,
4. what is man, that you are mindful of him? or the son of man, that you visit him?
5. Yet, you made him a little lower than the gods, and you crowned him with glory and honor.
6. You gave him dominion over the works of your hands; you put everything under his feet:
7. all sheep and cattle—all of them—along with beasts of the field,
8. fowl of the sky, and fish of the sea, and that which wanders the paths of the seas.
9. O Jehovah our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Psalm 9

*For the chief musician.
Upon the death of the Son. A Psalm by David.*

- ¶1. I will praise Jehovah with my whole heart! I will tell of all your wonderful works!
2. I will be glad and rejoice in you! I will sing your name, O Most High!
3. When my enemies are turned back, they will stumble and perish at your presence,
4. for you will have wrought justice and judgment for me. You sit on the throne, judging righteously.

5. You will rebuke nations; you will do away with the wicked man; you will blot out their names forever and ever.
6. O Enemy! Waste places will cease to be, forever. You uprooted cities; their very remembrance perished with them,
7. but Jehovah sits enthroned forever! He established His throne for judgment,
8. and He Himself will judge the world in righteousness; He will judge the peoples with equity.
9. Jehovah is a refuge for the oppressed soul, a refuge in times of distress.
10. Yea, they trust in you, knowing your reputation, that you do not abandon those who seek after you, O Jehovah.
11. Sing to the LORD, who dwells in Zion! Declare His deeds among the nations!
12. When He makes inquisition for blood, He remembers them; He does not forget the cry of the afflicted.
13. Pity me, O Jehovah! Look on my affliction at the hands of those who hate me! Raise me up from the gates of death,
14. so that I may declare all your praises in the gates of the daughter of Zion! Let me rejoice in your salvation!
15. The nations sank into a pit they made; their foot is caught in the very net they concealed.
16. The LORD is known by the judgment He executes, striking down the wicked man with the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.
17. Wicked men shall be turned into Sheol; yea, all nations that forget God.
18. For a needy man shall not always be forgotten, nor shall the hope of afflicted men perish forever.
19. Arise, O Jehovah! Let not man prevail! Let the nations be judged in your presence.
20. O LORD, put fear upon them! Let the nations know they are men. Selah.

Psalm 10

- ¶1. Why, O LORD, do you stand at a distance, hiding in times of distress?
2. In pride, a wicked man pursues the humble man. They shall be caught in the very schemes they devised.
3. For the wicked boasts of his soul's desire; he blesses a robber, and spurns Jehovah.
4. The wicked, in his proud countenance, does not seek God. None of his schemes are of God.
5. His ways always prosper. (Your judgments are on high, far from him.) As for all of his enemies, he sneers at them.
6. He who is not in distress says in his heart, "I shall never be overthrown."
7. His mouth is full of cursing, and deceits, and oppression; under his tongue are mischief and vanity.
8. He waits in the lurking place of villages; he kills the innocent person in secret places; his eyes watch furtively for the defenseless.

9. He lurks in secret like a lion in a thicket; he lies in wait to catch the poor man. He catches the poor, drawing him into his net.
10. So he crouches, he lies prostrate, and the helpless fall by his strong clutches.
11. He says in his heart, “God has forgotten. He has hidden His face. He has never seen.”
12. Arise, O Jehovah! O God, lift up your hand! Do not forget the afflicted!
13. Why does the wicked man spurn God? He says in his heart, “You will not hold me accountable.”
14. You have seen. Surely, you look upon mischief and vexation to requite it with your hand; the defenseless one leaves it to you. You are the orphan’s helper.
15. Break the arm of the wicked one! As for the evil man, you will search out his wickedness until you find none!
16. Jehovah is King forever and ever! The nations have perished out of His land!
17. O Jehovah, you hear the desire of the afflicted. You prepare their heart; you incline your ear
18. to judge the orphan and oppressed, so that a man from the earth can never again cause them to tremble.

Psalm 11
For the chief musician.
By David.

- ¶1. In the LORD have I taken refuge. How can you say to my soul, “Flit away, O sparrow, to your mountain!”
2. For, behold, the wicked are bending a bow! They have fitted their arrow to the string to shoot from darkness at the upright in heart!
3. If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?
4. Jehovah is in His holy temple! Jehovah’s throne is in heaven! His eyes see; His eyelids try the children of men.
5. Jehovah tries the righteous, but the wicked man and him who loves violence, His soul hates.
6. He will make it rain coals upon the wicked, fire and brimstone, and scorching wind—the portion of their cup.
7. For the righteous LORD loves righteousness. The upright shall see His face.

Psalm 12
For the chief musician, on the eighth.
A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. Help, O LORD, for there is no godly man left! Faithful men have vanished from among the children of men.
2. Everyone speaks vanity with his neighbor; they speak with flattering lips and a double heart.
3. Jehovah will cut off all flattering lips, the tongue that speaks great things,

4. those who think, “We will prevail with our tongues. Our lips are our own. Who is master over us?”
5. “Because of the oppression of the poor, because of the groaning of the needy, I will now arise,” says Jehovah. “I will place them in the safety for which they yearn.”
6. The words of the LORD are pure words, like silver refined in an earthen furnace, purified seven times.
7. You, O LORD, will keep them. You will preserve them from this generation forever.
8. Wicked men strut about on every side when the vileness of mankind is exalted.

Psalm 13

*For the chief musician.
A Psalm by David.*

- ¶1. How long, O LORD, will you forget me? Forever? How long will you hide your face from me?
2. How long must I take counsel with my own soul, sorrow in my heart daily? How long will my enemy be exalted over me?
3. Look upon me! Answer me, O Jehovah my God! Enlighten my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death,
4. lest my enemy say, “I have prevailed against him.” My adversaries rejoice when I am shaken.
5. But as for me, I trust in your mercy. In your salvation will my heart rejoice.
6. I will sing to Jehovah when He has dealt bountifully with me.

Psalm 14²

*For the chief musician.
By David.*

- ¶1. The fool says in his heart, “There is no God.” They are corrupt; they do an abominable work; there is no one doing good.
2. The LORD looked down from heaven upon the sons of man to see if there was anyone with understanding, anyone who was seeking God.
3. They have all turned aside. They have all, alike, been corrupted; there is no one doing good, not even one!
4. Do none of the workers of iniquity have understanding, eating up my people as they eat bread? They do not call on the LORD.
5. They will be utterly terrified there, for God is with the generation of the righteous.
6. You shame counsel from the humble man because the LORD is his refuge.
7. Whom from Zion will He ordain as salvation for Israel? When Jehovah returns the captivity of His people, Jacob will rejoice. Israel will be glad.

² Very similar to Psalm 53.

Psalm 15
A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. O LORD, who shall abide in your tabernacle? Who shall dwell on your holy mountain?
- 2. “He who lives blamelessly, and does righteousness, and speaks truth in his heart,
- 3. he who does not gossip with his tongue, nor does evil to his fellow, nor takes up a reproach against his neighbor;
- 4. in whose eyes a reprobate is despised, but he honors those who fear the LORD; he who swears to his own hurt, yet does not change;
- 5. he who does not lend his money at interest; and a bribe against the innocent, he does not take. He who does these things shall never be moved.”

Psalm 16
A miktam by David.

- ¶1. Preserve me, O God, for in you I have taken refuge!
- 2. You said to Jehovah, “You are my Lord! My goodness is not for you,
- 3. but for saints who are on the earth, for them and the rulers of all those in whom is my delight.
- 4. They shall multiply their pains who hasten after another god; I will not pour out their libations of blood nor take their names on my lips.
- 5. The LORD is the portion of my inheritance, and my cup. You secure my lot.
- 6. The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places; yea, the inheritance is beautiful to me.
- 7. I will bless the LORD, who gives me counsel; yea, in the night, my heart instructs me.
- 8. I have set Jehovah before me continually, yea, at my right hand! I shall not be moved.
- 9. Therefore, my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices. My flesh also shall rest in hope.
- 10. For you will not leave my soul in Sheol; nor will you allow your holy one to see corruption.
- 11. You reveal to me the path of life. In your presence is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures forevermore.”

Psalm 17
A prayer of David.

- ¶1. Hear, O LORD, the right! Attend to my cry! Give ear to my prayer, which is not from deceitful lips.
- 2. Let my judgment come forth from your presence! Your eyes see rightly!
- 3. You have tried my heart; you have visited me in the night; you have refined me and found nothing. I am resolved that my mouth shall not transgress.
- 4. As for the works of man, by the word of your lips have I avoided the paths of cruelty.
- 5. My steps have kept to your pathways; my feet have not stumbled.

6. I call upon you because you will answer me, O God. Incline your ear to me! Hear my speech!
7. Wondrously show forth your lovingkindness, O Savior of those who seek refuge at your right hand from those who lift themselves up.
8. Keep me as the apple of your eye. In the shadow of your wings, hide me
9. from the face of the wicked who oppress me. Enemies of my soul surround me.
10. They shut down His best, His mouthpiece. They spoke proudly.
11. Our steps they have now surrounded. They have set their eyes to cast us down to the earth,
12. as a lion longs to tear in pieces, and like a young lion, lying in concealed places.
13. Arise, O LORD! Confront him! Cast him down! Save my soul from the evil one, your sword,
14. and from men who are your hand, O LORD, from men of this age whose portion is in this life, and whose belly you will fill with what you have stored up. Their sons are sated, and they leave their excess to their children.
15. As for me, I will behold your face in righteousness. I will be satisfied when I awake in your likeness.

Psalm 18

For the chief musician.

By Jehovah's servant David, who spoke to Jehovah the words of this song on the day Jehovah delivered him from the power of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul, and he said:

- ¶1. I love you, O Jehovah my strength!
2. Jehovah is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer, my God, my rock in whom I take refuge, my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower!
3. I called on Jehovah, who is worthy to be praised, and I was delivered from my enemies.
4. Cords of death encompassed me, and floods of Belial overwhelmed me.
5. Cords of Sheol enveloped me; snares of death confronted me.
6. In my distress, I called on Jehovah; yea, I cried out to my God for help. He heard my voice from His temple, and my plea came to Him, into His ears.
7. Then the earth shook and trembled, and the foundations of the mountains moved; they were shaken because He burned with anger.
8. Smoke went up from His nostrils, and fire from His mouth devoured. Coals were kindled by it.
9. He bowed the heavens also, and came down, and thick darkness was under His feet.
10. Yea, He rode upon a cherub and flew; He flew swiftly on the wings of the wind.
11. He made darkness His covering, His pavilion all about Him—a darkness of water-laden, heavy clouds.
12. Because of the brightness of His presence, His thick clouds passed over; hail and coals of fire.
13. Then Jehovah thundered in the heavens, and the Most High uttered His voice; hail and coals of fire!

14. Moreover, He sent out His arrows and scattered them; He shot forth lightning bolts and vexed them.
15. At that, channels of waters were seen; yea, the foundations of the world were revealed at your rebuke, O Jehovah, by a puff of air from your nostrils.
16. He sent from on high and took me; He drew me out of many waters;
17. He delivered me from my mighty enemy and from those who hated me, for they were stronger than I.
18. They came upon me in the day of my distress, but Jehovah was my stay.
19. He brought me out to a spacious place; He rescued me because He delighted in me.
20. Jehovah rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands has He repaid me.
21. For I had kept Jehovah's ways, and I had not acted wickedly against my God,
22. for all His judgments were before me, and His statutes, I did not put away from me.
23. Yea, I was perfect with Him, and I kept myself from my sin,
24. and Jehovah rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in His sight.
25. With one who is merciful, you will prove yourself merciful; with the perfect man, you will prove yourself perfect;
26. with the man who is pure, you will prove yourself pure; and with one who is crooked, you will make yourself convoluted.
27. You will surely deliver the humble people, but lofty looks will you abase.
28. You make my lamp to shine, O Jehovah. My God brings light to my darkness.
29. By you, I ran through a troop! Yea, by my God, I leaped over a wall.
30. This God, His way is perfect; what the LORD says is pure. He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.
31. Who but Jehovah is God? And who is a Rock except our God?
32. This God is he who girds me with strength and makes my way perfect,
33. making my feet like hinds' feet and setting me upon my high places,
34. training my hands for war, so that my arms can bend a bronze bow.
35. Yea, you have given me your salvation as a shield; your right hand sustains me, and your gentleness makes me great.
36. You will make a wide place beneath me for my step, so that my feet will not slip.
37. I will pursue my enemies and overtake them, and I will not turn back until they are destroyed.
38. I will strike them through so that they cannot rise. They will fall under my feet.
39. Yea, you have girded me with strength for war; you will make them bow before me who rise up against me;
40. and you have given me the neck of my enemies. Yea, those who hate me will I utterly destroy.
41. They will cry out for help, but there will be no one to save them, even to Jehovah, but He will not answer them.

42. But I will beat them until they are like dust before the wind. I will cast them out like dirt in the streets.
43. You delivered me from the contentions of the people. You have made me the head of the Gentiles; a people I have not known shall serve me.
44. As soon as they hear, they will obey me. Foreigners will come and grovel before me.
45. The foreigners will lose heart and come quaking out of their strongholds.
46. Jehovah is alive! Blessed be my Rock! Let the God of my salvation be exalted!
47. God avenged me and subjected peoples to me,
48. saving me from my enemies. Yea, you exalted me above those who rose up against me. You delivered me from the violent man.
49. Therefore will I confess you among the Gentiles, O Jehovah, and I will sing praises to your name.
50. He has magnified the victories of His King, and has shown lovingkindness to His Messiah, to David, and to his seed forever.

Psalm 19

*For the chief musician.
A Psalm by David.*

- ¶1. The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament displays the work of His hands.
2. Day after day pours forth speech, and night after night declares understanding.
3. There is neither speech nor language where their voice is not heard.
4. Their line goes out over all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them, He has set a tent for the sun,
5. which, like a bride-groom coming out of his chamber, rejoices like a mighty man about to run a race.
6. Its going forth is from the end of heaven, and its circuit to the ends of it, and nothing is hidden from its heat.
7. The law of the LORD is perfect, restoring the soul. The testimony of the LORD is sure, making the simple man wise.
8. The precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart. The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.
9. The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever. The judgments of the LORD are true; they are altogether righteous.
10. They are more to be desired than gold, even much fine gold; they are sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.
11. Moreover, by them is your servant warned, and in keeping them, there is great reward.
12. Who can understand his errors? Cleanse me from hidden faults,
13. and keep your servant from presumptuous sins, so that they have no dominion over me! Then will I be perfect, and innocent of the great transgression.
14. Oh, let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, O Jehovah, my Rock and my Redeemer!

Psalm 20

*For the chief musician.
A Psalm by David.*

- ¶1. May the LORD hear you in the day of trouble! May the name of the God of Jacob exalt you!
- 2. May He send you help from the sanctuary and strengthen you from Zion!
- 3. May He remember all your gifts and accept your burnt offering! Selah.
- 4. May He grant you your heart's desire and fulfill all your counsel!
- 5. We will shout for joy in your salvation, and in the name of our God, we will lift up a banner. May the LORD fulfill all your petitions!
- 6. I know now that the LORD will save His Anointed. He will answer him from His holy heaven with the saving strength of His right hand.
- 7. Some trust in chariots, and some in horses, but we will remember the name of Jehovah our God.
- 8. They are bowed down and fallen, but we are risen and restored.
- 9. Save us, O Jehovah! Let the King hear us on the day we cry out!

Psalm 21

*For the chief musician.
A Psalm by David.*

- ¶1. The King rejoices in your strength, O LORD, and in your salvation, how greatly he rejoices!
- 2. You have given him his heart's desire, and you have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah.
- 3. For you will meet him with blessings of goodness; you will set upon his head a crown of pure gold.
- 4. He asked life from you; you gave him length of days forever and ever.
- 5. His glory is great in your salvation; you will bestow upon him majesty and honor.
- 6. For you will make him most blessed³ forever; you will make him greatly rejoice with your countenance.
- 7. For the King trusts in the LORD, and through the lovingkindness of the Most High, he will not be moved.
- 8. Your hand will find all your enemies; your right hand will find those who hate you.
- 9. You will make them like a fiery oven when you appear, O Jehovah. In his anger, he will swallow them up, and fire will devour them.
- 10. You will eradicate their fruit from the earth, and their seed from among the sons of man,

³ or, "will appoint him eternal blessings".

11. for they plotted evil against you. They devised a wicked scheme, but they will not prevail,
12. for you will make them turn their back. On your bowstrings, you have fixed your arrows against their faces.
13. Rise, O LORD, in your strength! Let us sing, and praise your power in song!

Psalm 22

*For the chief musician upon the advent of morning light.
A Psalm by David.*

- ¶1. My God! My God! Why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from delivering me and from the words of my anguished cry?
2. My God! I call out during the day, but you do not answer, and during the night, but I have no rest.
3. But you are holy, you who inhabits the praises of Israel.
4. Our fathers trusted in you; they trusted, and you made a way out for them!
5. They cried out to you and were set free! They trusted in you and were not put to shame!
6. But I am a worm, and not a man, a reproach to men, and despised by people.
7. Everyone who sees me ridicules me. They smirk; they shake the head,
8. saying, “Trust in the LORD! Let Him deliver him. Let Him rescue him, seeing He delighted in him.”
9. But you are the One who took me out of the womb. You made me trust in you when I was on my mother’s breasts.
10. I was cast upon you from the womb. From my mother’s belly, you have been my God.
11. Do not be far from me, for trouble is near and there is no one to help.
12. Many bulls have surrounded me; strong bulls of Bashan have encompassed me!
13. They opened their mouth like a lion, tearing and roaring at me.
14. I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint. My heart is like wax; it is melted within me.
15. My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue is stuck to my palate; yea, you have brought me to the dust of death.
16. Dogs encompass me; the congregation of the wicked encircle me. They pierced my hands and my feet.
17. I can count all my bones. They gaze and stare at me.
18. They divided my clothes among them and cast lots for my garment.
19. But you, O LORD, do not be far off! O my Help, come quickly to my aid!
20. Deliver my soul from the sword, my precious life from the power of dogs!
21. Save me from the lion’s mouth! And then, from the horns of the wild oxen, you answered me!
22. Let me declare your name to my brothers! In the midst of the congregation, let me praise you!

23. You who fear the LORD, praise Him! Let all the seed of Jacob glorify Him! Yea, let all the seed of Israel fear Him!
24. For He has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted man, nor has He hidden His face from him, but when he cried to Him for help, He heard.
25. From my place beside you, my praise will be in the great congregation. I will pay my vows in the sight of those who fear Him.
26. The meek eat and are satisfied; they praise the LORD while seeking Him. May your hearts live on!
27. All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD, and all of the families of the nations shall worship before you.
28. For the kingdom is the LORD's, and He rules over the nations.
29. All the fat ones of earth have eaten and worshipped; before Him will bow all who go down to dust. And none can keep alive his own soul.
30. A seed shall serve Him, and it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.
31. They shall come, and they will declare His righteousness to a people that shall be born, that He has done this.

Psalm 23

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. The LORD is my Shepherd; I shall not be in want.
2. He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside still waters;
3. He restores my soul; He leads me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
4. Yea, though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me. Your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
5. You prepare a table before me in the sight of my enemies. You have anointed my head with oil. My cup is overflowing!
6. Surely, goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever!

Psalm 24

By David. A Psalm.

- ¶1. The earth is the LORD's, and the fullness of it, the world and those who dwell in it,
2. for He founded it upon seas, and established it upon rivers.
3. Who will ascend to the hill of the LORD, and who will stand in His holy place?
4. He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who has not received my life in vain, nor sworn deceitfully.
5. He will receive blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.
6. This is the generation seeking Him, those who seek your face, O Jacob. Selah.
7. Lift up your heads, O gates! Yea, let the everlasting doors be lifted up so that the King of glory may come in!

8. Who is this King of glory? The LORD, strong and mighty. The LORD, mighty in battle.
9. Lift up your heads, O gates! Yea, lift up, you everlasting doors, and let the King of glory come in!
10. Who is he, this King of glory? The LORD of Hosts, He is the King of glory! Selah.

Psalm 25
By David.

- ¶1. I lift up my soul to you, O LORD.
2. O my God, I trust in you. Let me not be ashamed! Let not my enemies exult over me!
3. Yea, none who wait on you will be ashamed. They will be ashamed who are wantonly treacherous.
4. Make me to know your ways, O LORD! Teach me your paths!
5. Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation. I earnestly look for you all the day long.
6. Remember your tender mercies, O LORD, and your lovingkindnesses, for they have been from eternity.
7. Do not remember the sins of my youth or my transgressions. According to your lovingkindness, remember me, O LORD, for the sake of your Good One.
8. The LORD is good and upright; therefore, He instructs sinners in the way.
9. He leads the meek by judgment, and He teaches the meek His way.
10. All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth to those who keep His covenant and His testimonies.
11. For your Name's sake, O LORD, forgive my iniquity, though it is great.
12. Who is this, the man who fears Jehovah? He will teach him the way He chooses.
13. His soul will abide in goodness, and his seed will inherit the earth.
14. The secret of the LORD belongs to those who fear Him, and He will reveal His covenant to them.
15. My eyes are ever toward the LORD, for He frees my feet from the net.
16. Turn to me, and be gracious to me, for I am alone and lowly!
17. The troubles of my heart have increased. Deliver me out of my distresses!
18. Look on my affliction and my trouble, and take away all my sins.
19. Behold my enemies, for they are many, and they hate me with cruel hatred.
20. Watch over my soul, and deliver me! Let me not be ashamed, for I take refuge in you.
21. Let innocence and uprightness preserve me, for I have put my hope in you.
22. Redeem Israel, O God, from all his troubles!

Psalm 26
By David.

- ¶1. Judge me, O LORD, for I have walked in my integrity and have trusted in the LORD. I will not waver.
2. Search me, O LORD, and try me! Purge my heart and my mind!

3. For your lovingkindness is before my eyes, and I walk everywhere in your truth.
4. I do not sit with vain men, and with hypocrites will I not go in.
5. I hate a congregation of evildoers, and with the wicked will I not sit.
6. I wash my hands in innocence and then go about your altar, O LORD,
7. that with thankful voice I may proclaim and tell of all your wondrous works.
8. O LORD, I love the site of your house, even the place of the tabernacle of your glory!
9. Do not gather my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men,
10. in whose hands is an evil scheme and whose right hand is filled with bribery!
11. But as for me, I will walk in my integrity. Redeem me! Be merciful to me!
12. My foot stands firm in uprightness. In the Assemblies, I will bless the LORD!

Psalm 27

By David.

- ¶1. The LORD is my light, and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the refuge of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?
2. When evildoers, my adversaries and my enemies, came against me to consume my flesh, they themselves stumbled and fell.
3. Though an army should encamp against me, my heart will not fear. Though war should rise against me, even then will I trust.
4. One thing have I asked from Jehovah; this do I seek: to dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, that I may behold the beauty of the LORD and inquire in His temple.
5. In the evil day, He will surely hide me in His covert; in His tabernacle's hiding-place will He hide me; He will set me high upon a rock.
6. And He will soon exalt my head above my enemies who surround me, and I will offer in His tabernacle sacrifices of joyful shouting. I will sing and play music to the LORD!
7. Hear my voice, O LORD, when I cry, and have mercy on me, and answer me!
8. Because of you, my heart said, "Men must seek my face." Your face, O LORD, do I seek.
9. Do not hide your face from me! Do not turn your servant away in anger! You have been my help; do not forsake me and do not let me go, O God of my salvation!
10. When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take me in.
11. Teach me your way, O LORD, and lead me in a level path because of those who lie in wait for me.
12. Do not give me over to the will of my enemies! For false witnesses have risen up against me, each one breathing out violence.
13. I would have despaired, except that I believed I would see the Lord's goodness in the land of the living.
14. Wait on Jehovah! Be strong, and He will strengthen your heart. Wait, I say, on Jehovah!

By David.

- ¶1. To you I cry, O Jehovah my Rock! Do not be deaf to me, lest, if you are silent to me, I be like those who go down into the Pit!
- 2. Hear the voice of my supplications when I cry out to you, when I lift my hands toward your Most Holy Place.
- 3. Do not drag me off with the wicked and with evildoers, who speak peaceably with their neighbors, yet evil is in their heart.
- 4. Requite them according to their work and according to the evil of their doings! According to the work of their hands, requite them! Make their recompense return to them!
- 5. Because they do not understand the works of Jehovah or the work of His hands, He will cast them down and not build them up!
- 6. Bless the LORD, for He has heard the voice of my supplications!
- 7. Jehovah is my strength and my shield! My heart trusted in Him, and I was helped; therefore, my heart exults, and with my song, I will give Him thanks.
- 8. Jehovah is his strength, even the saving refuge of His Messiah.
- 9. Save your people, and bless your inheritance, and feed them, and lift them up forever!

Psalm 29

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. Ascribe to Jehovah, O sons of God, ascribe to Jehovah glory and strength!
- 2. Ascribe to Jehovah the glory of His name! Worship Jehovah in the beauty of holiness.⁴
- 3. The voice of the LORD is above the waters; the God of glory thunders; Jehovah is above many waters.
- 4. The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is majestic!
- 5. The voice of the LORD breaks cedars. Yea, the LORD shatters the cedars of Lebanon!
- 6. He makes them skip about like a calf of Lebanon, and Sirion like a young aurochs.
- 7. The voice of the LORD carves out flames of fire.
- 8. The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; Jehovah shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh.
- 9. The voice of the LORD causes the deer to give birth, and strips the forests bare, and in His temple, everything in it cries, “Glory!”
- 10. Jehovah sat enthroned during the Flood, and Jehovah shall sit as King forever!
- 11. Jehovah will give strength to His people; Jehovah will bless His people with peace.

Psalm 30

A psalm.

A song for the dedication of the temple. By David.

⁴ Or, “in holy array”.

- ¶1. I will exalt you, O LORD, because you have raised me up, and you have not made my enemies to rejoice over me.
2. I cried out to you, O Jehovah my God, and you healed me.
3. O Jehovah, you have brought up my soul from Sheol; you restored me to life from the depths of the Pit!
4. Let His holy people sing to Jehovah and praise His holy name,
5. for His anger is but for a moment, and in His favor is life. Weeping may last the night, but in the morning will come a shout of joy.
6. As for me, in my prosperity, I said, "I shall never be moved!"
7. O Jehovah, by your favor, you made my mountain stand strong. When you hid your face, I was troubled.
8. To you, O Jehovah, will I cry, and to my Lord will I plead for mercy.
9. What profit will there be in my death, for me to go down into the Pit? Will the dust praise you? Will it make your truth known?
10. Hear, O Jehovah, and have mercy on me! O Jehovah, be my helper!
11. You have turned my mourning into dancing for me; you have loosed my sackcloth and girded me with gladness,
12. so that I may sing of your glory and not be silent. O Jehovah my God, I will praise you forever!

Psalm 31

*For the chief musician.
A Psalm by David.*

- ¶1. In you, O LORD, I take refuge; let me never be ashamed. In your righteousness deliver me!
2. Incline your ear to me; rescue me quickly! Be a rock of refuge for me, a strong fortress to save me!
3. For you are my rock and my fortress, and for your name's sake, you lead me and guide me.
4. Bring me out of the net which they have secretly laid for me, for you are my refuge!
5. Into your hand I commit my spirit! You have redeemed me, Jehovah, God of truth!
6. I hate those who regard worthless idols, but I trust in Jehovah.
7. I will rejoice and be glad in your lovingkindness, for you have seen my affliction; you have known the distresses of my soul,
8. and you have not turned me over to the hand of the enemy. You have set my feet in a broad place.
9. Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am in distress! My eye is wasted away with vexation, my soul and my body.
10. For my life has been spent in sorrow, and my years with sighing. My strength has failed because of my sin, and my bones are wasted away.

11. Because of all my adversaries, I have become a reproach, especially to my neighbors, and an object of dread to my acquaintances. When they see me on the street, they flee from me.
12. I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind. I am like a broken vessel.
13. I heard the whispering of many—terror was on every side!—when they conspired together against me; they schemed to take away my life.
14. But as for me, I trusted in you, O LORD. I said, “ You are my God;
15. my times are in your hand.” Oh, deliver me from the hand of my enemies and my persecutors!
16. Make your face to shine on your servant! Save me in your lovingkindness!
17. O LORD, let me not be ashamed, for I have called on you. Let the wicked be ashamed; let them be silent in Sheol.
18. Let lying lips be silenced, those who in pride and contempt speak arrogantly against the righteous man.
19. How great is your Good One whom you have hidden for those who fear you, whom you created for those who seek refuge in you before the sons of men!
20. You will hide them in the covert of your presence from the schemes of man; you will hide them in your pavilion from the strife of tongues.
21. Blessed be the LORD, for He has wondrously shown His lovingkindness to me in a besieged city.
22. But as for me, I had said in my haste, “ I am cut off from your presence.” Nevertheless, you heard the voice of my supplications when I cried out to you for help.
23. Oh, love the LORD, all His saints! The LORD preserves the faithful and fully repays him who acts proudly.
24. Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for Jehovah!

Psalm 32

By David. A wisdom song.

- ¶1. Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
2. Blessed is the man to whom Jehovah does not impute iniquity, and in whose spirit is no guile.
3. When I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all the day long.
4. For day and night your hand was heavy on me. My strength was dried up as in the heat of summer. Selah.
5. I acknowledged my sin to you, and did not conceal my vanity. I said, “ I will confess my transgressions to Jehovah,” and you forgave the offense of my sin. Selah.
6. For this, every man who is godly will make supplication to you while you may be found. Though great flood waters come at him, they will not touch him.
7. You are my hiding place; you keep me from trouble; you encompass me with shouts of deliverance! Selah.

8. I will make you to prosper⁵, and I will direct you in the way in which you go. I will guide you with my eye.
9. Do not be like a horse or a mule, without understanding, curbed by its gear, bridle and bit; else, they will not come near you.
10. Many are the sorrows of the wicked man, but lovingkindness encompasses him who trusts in Jehovah.
11. Be glad in Jehovah and rejoice, O you righteous! Shout, all you upright in heart!

Psalm 33

- ¶1. Shout for joy in Jehovah, O you righteous, for praise is comely for the upright!
2. Give praise to Jehovah with a lyre; with a harp of ten strings, sing to Him.
 3. Sing to Him a new song; play skillfully on the strings with a loud shout.
 4. For the word of the LORD is right, and all His work is in faithfulness.
 5. He loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of Jehovah's lovingkindness.
 6. By the word of the LORD were the heavens made, and all their host by the breath of His mouth.
 7. He gathers the waters of the sea together in a heap, putting the depths in storehouses.
 8. Let all the earth fear Jehovah; let all the inhabitants of the world be afraid of Him.
 9. For He spoke, and it came to pass; He commanded, and it stood fast.
 10. Jehovah brings the counsel of nations to nothing; He frustrates the plans of peoples.
 11. The counsel of Jehovah will stand forever, the thoughts of His heart to all generations.
 12. Blessed is the nation whose God is Jehovah, and the people whom He has chosen for His possession.
 13. Jehovah looks down from heaven; He sees all the sons of men.
 14. From the place of His habitation, He observes all the inhabitants of the earth;
 15. He fashions their hearts alike and considers all their deeds.
 16. There is no king saved by a great army; a warrior is not delivered by great strength.
 17. A horse is a vain thing for safety, and he cannot rescue by his great strength.
 18. Behold, the eye of the LORD is on him that fears Him, on those who put their hope in His mercy
 19. to deliver their souls from death and to keep them alive in famine.
 20. Our soul waits for Jehovah; He is our help and our shield.
 21. Yea, in Him our heart rejoices because we trusted in His holy name.
 22. Let your lovingkindness be upon us, O Jehovah, because we have waited for you!

Psalm 34

By David, when he changed his behavior before Abimelech, and he drove him out, and he left.

- ¶1. I bless Jehovah all the time; His praise is continually in my mouth.

⁵ Or, "successful", which implies a worldly wisdom.

2. My soul boasts in the LORD; the humble will hear me and rejoice!
3. Magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt His name together!
4. I sought the LORD, and He answered me and delivered me from all my fears.
5. They looked to Him and were enlightened, and their faces will not be put to shame.
6. This poor man cried out, and Jehovah heard him and delivered him out of all his distresses.
7. The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear Him, and delivers them.
8. Oh, taste and see that the LORD is good! Blessed is the man who takes refuge in Him.
9. Fear the LORD, you saints of His! For there is nothing lacking to those who fear Him.
10. Young lions may want and grow hungry, but those who seek Jehovah shall not lack any good thing.
11. Come, children! Listen to me! I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
12. Who is the one desirous of life, loving to see good days?
13. Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit.
14. Depart from evil and do good. Seek peace and pursue it.
15. The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and His ears are open to their cry.
16. The face of the LORD is against evildoers, to cut off the remembrance of them from earth.
17. The righteous cry out, and Jehovah hears and saves them out of all of their trouble.
18. The LORD is close to those who are brokenhearted; yea, He delivers those who are crushed in spirit.
19. Many are the afflictions of a righteous man, but the LORD will deliver him out of them all.
20. He keeps all of his bones; not one of them is broken.
21. Evil will slay the wicked man, and those who hate a righteous man shall be condemned.
22. The LORD redeems the soul of His slaves, and none who take refuge in Him shall be condemned.

Psalm 35
By David.

- ¶1. Contend, O Jehovah, with those who contend with me; fight against those who fight against me.
2. Take buckler and shield, and arise for my help!
3. Draw out the spear, and close the way against my pursuers. Say to my soul, "I am your salvation!"
4. Let them be disappointed, and let them be confounded who seek my life! Let them be turned back and put to shame who devise my harm!
5. Let them be as chaff before the wind, with the angel of the LORD driving them away!
6. Let their way be dark and slippery, with the angel of the LORD harassing them!
7. For without cause have they concealed a pit for me with their net. Without cause, they have sought my life.

8. Let ruin he does not expect come upon him, and let his net that he hid take him; into that very destruction, let him fall!
9. Then will my soul rejoice in the LORD; it will exult in His salvation.
10. All my bones will say, "O Jehovah, who is like you, who delivers the afflicted man from him who is too strong for him, and the poor and needy man from him who robs him?"
11. Malicious witnesses arise; they demand of me things I do not know.
12. They requite me evil for good, to the loss of my life.
13. But as for me, when they were sick, sackcloth was my clothing; I humbled my soul with fasting, though my prayer turned back on my bosom.
14. I behaved as though he were a friend, a brother to me. I bowed down in grief, as one mourning a mother.
15. But in my adversity, they rejoiced and gathered; the abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I did not know it. They tore at me and did not cease.
16. Like profane mockers at a feast, they gnashed on me with their teeth.
17. How long, my Lord, will you look on? Restore my life from their depredations, my precious life from the lions.
18. I will give you thanks in the great Assembly; with a mighty people will I praise you!
19. Let not those who are wrongfully my enemies rejoice over me; those who hate me without cause are winking the eye!
20. For they do not speak peace, but plot treacherous things against the ones at peace in the land.
21. Against me also they opened wide their mouths. They said, "Aha! Aha! Our eyes have seen!"
22. O Jehovah, you have seen. Do not be silent! O my Lord, do not be far from me!
23. Rouse yourself, and awake to my judgment, to my cause, my God and my Lord!
24. Judge me according to your righteousness, O Jehovah my God, and let them not rejoice over me.
25. Let them not say in their heart, "Aha! What we wanted!" Let them not say, "We swallowed him up!"
26. Let those who are glad at my hurt be disappointed and ashamed. Let those who magnify themselves against me be clothed with shame and reproach.
27. Let those who delight in my righteousness shout and be glad, and let them continually say, "Jehovah be magnified, who delights in the welfare of His servant!"
28. My tongue shall also tell of your righteousness and your praises all the day long!

Psalm 36

For the chief musician.

By David, a servant of Jehovah.

- ¶1. The transgression of the wicked declares, deep in my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2. For he flatters himself in his own eyes until his iniquity is found out and hated.
3. The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit. He has ceased being wise to do good.
4. He devises iniquity on his bed; he sets himself on a path that is not good. He does not abhor evil.
5. Your lovingkindness, O LORD, is in the heavens; your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
6. Your righteousness is like mighty mountains; your judgments, like the great deep. You preserve both man and beast, O LORD.
7. How precious is your lovingkindness, O God! Yea, the sons of men seek refuge in the shadow of your wings.
8. They will be filled with the abundance of your house, and you will give them to drink of the river of your delights.
9. For with you is a fountain of life. In your light, we see light.
10. Continue your lovingkindness to those who know you, and your righteousness to the upright in heart.
11. Do not let the foot of pride come against me, nor the hand of wicked men drive me away.
12. There, the workers of iniquity fall; they are cast down and are not able to rise.

Psalm 37
By David.

- ¶1. Do not fret yourself because of evildoers, nor be envious of those who do wrong.
2. For they will soon fade away like grass and wither like the green herb.
3. Trust in the LORD and do good. Dwell in the land, and feed on faithfulness.
4. Delight yourself in the LORD, and He will give you the desires of your heart.
5. Commit your way to the LORD and trust in Him, and He will do it.
6. Yea, He will bring forth your righteousness as the morning light, and your judgment as the noonday.
7. Be still before the LORD, and wait patiently for Him. Do not fret yourself because of him who makes his way prosperous, because of the man who accomplishes evil schemes.
8. Refrain from anger, and depart from rage. Do not fret yourself to do any manner of evil.
9. For evildoers will be cut off, but those who wait on the LORD will inherit the earth.
10. Yet a little while, and the wicked man will be no more. Though you diligently consider his place, he will not be there.
11. But the meek will inherit the earth, and they will delight themselves in the abundance of peace.
12. A wicked man plots against the righteous and gnashes his teeth at him.
13. My Lord laughs at him, for He sees that his day is coming.
14. The wicked have drawn the sword and have bent their bow to cast down the afflicted and needy, to slay those who are upright in the way.
15. Their sword will enter into their own heart, and their bows will be broken.
16. Better is the little that a righteous man has than the wealth of many wicked.

17. For the arms of wicked men shall be broken, but Jehovah sustains righteous souls.
18. The LORD knows the days of the blameless, and their inheritance will be forever.
19. They will not be disappointed in the time of evil, and they will have plenty in days of famine.
20. But the wicked will perish, and the enemies of Jehovah, like the splendor of pastures, will vanish; they will vanish in smoke.
21. The wicked man borrows and does not repay, but the just man is generous, and gives.
22. Surely, such as are blessed by Him will inherit the land, but those cursed by Him will be cut off.
23. The steps of a man are established by the LORD, and He takes pleasure in his way.
24. Though he fall, he will not be cast down because the LORD will sustain him.
25. I have been young, and now I am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or his seed begging for bread.
26. Every day, he is generous and lends, and his children are a blessing.
27. Turn from evil, and do good, and live forever.
28. For the LORD loves justice, and He will not forsake His who are faithful. They will be kept forever, but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.
29. The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell on it forever.
30. The mouth of the just utters wisdom, and his tongue speaks justice.
31. The law of his God is in his heart; his steps will not slip.
32. The wicked man watches the righteous man and seeks to kill him.
33. The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.
34. Wait on the LORD, and keep His way, and He will exalt you to inherit the earth. When the wicked are cut off, you will see it.
35. I have seen a wicked, ruthless man spreading himself like a green tree,
36. yet he passed away, and behold, he was no more. Yea, I searched for him, but he was not found.
37. Watch the perfect man, and observe the upright, for there is a future for a man of peace.
38. But transgressors shall be destroyed altogether. The future of the wicked will be cut off.
39. The salvation of righteous men is from Jehovah; He is a refuge in time of trouble.
40. Yea, Jehovah helps and delivers them. He will deliver them from wicked men and save them because they take refuge in Him.

Psalm 38

A Psalm by David to bring to remembrance.

- ¶1. O LORD, do not rebuke me in your wrath, nor chasten me in your burning anger,
2. for your arrows have sunk down into me, and your hand has pressed down on me.
3. There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation; there is no peace in my bones because of my sin.

4. For my iniquities have gone over my head; like a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me.
5. My wounds stink; they fester. Because of my foolishness,
6. I am bent over; I am completely humbled. All day long, I walk about, mourning.
7. My loins are filled with burning, and there is no soundness in my flesh.
8. I am benumbed and utterly crushed. I groan because of the turmoil of my heart.
9. My Lord, all my longing is before you, and my sighing is not hidden from you.
10. My heart pounds. My strength has forsaken me. And the light of my eyes, even that is gone from me.
11. My loved ones and friends stand aloof from my affliction, even those nearest to me stand at a distance.
12. Moreover, those who seek my life set traps, and those who desire my hurt speak ruinous things and plot treachery all the day long.
13. But I, like a deaf man, do not hear, and I am like a dumb man who does not open his mouth.
14. Yea, I have become like a man that does not hear and in whose mouth are no reproofs,
15. for I am waiting for you, O LORD. Oh, answer me, my Lord, my God!
16. Yea, help, I say, lest they gloat over me when my foot slips and magnify themselves against me.
17. For I am about to fall, and my anguish is always with me.
18. But I will confess my iniquity; I am afraid because of my sin.
19. My enemies are vigorous and powerful, and many there are who hate me wrongfully.
20. Yea, they render evil for good; they make accusation against me because I follow after goodness.
21. Do not abandon me, O Jehovah my God! Be not far from me!
22. Make haste to help me, my Lord, my salvation!

Psalm 39
*For the chief musician, for Jeduthun.
A Psalm by David.*

- ¶1. I said, “I will watch my ways, lest I sin with my tongue. I will guard my mouth with a bridle while a wicked man is before me.”
2. I was mute with silence. I kept silent even from good, yet my pain was increased.
3. My heart was hot within me; in my groaning, a fire was burning. I spoke with my tongue,
4. “LORD, make me to know my end, and the measure of my days, what it is. Let me know how ephemeral I am.
5. Behold, you have made my days handbreadths, and the span of my life is as nothing before you. Indeed, every man, in his best state, is altogether vanity. Selah.”
6. Indeed, every man moves about like a shadow. Yea, in vain do they make an uproar. He heaps up riches but does not know who will gather them.

7. But what do I now wait for, my Lord? My hope is in you!
8. Deliver me from all my transgressions! Do not make me a laughingstock for the fool!
9. I was silent; I did not open my mouth because you did it.
10. Remove your stroke from me! I am consumed by the blow of your hand.
11. With rebukes, you chasten a man for sin, and like the moth, you eat away his beauty.
Indeed, every man is vanity. Selah.
12. O LORD, hear my prayer, and give ear to my cry! Do not be silent at my tears, for I am a stranger with you, a sojourner, like all my fathers.
13. Turn your gaze from me, that I might smile again before I go away and am no more.”

Psalm 40

For the chief musician.

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. I waited patiently for the LORD, and He inclined to me and heard my cry.
2. Yea, He brought me up from a tumultuous pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock. He established my goings,
3. and He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Many will see and fear, and trust in Jehovah.
4. Blessed is the man who puts his trust in Jehovah and does not countenance proud men or those who turn aside to a lie.
5. Many are your wonders which you have done and your thoughts toward us, O LORD my God; there is none to compare with you. Let me declare it! Oh, let me say it! They are more than can be counted.
6. Sacrifice and offering have not pleased you. Ears you have dug for me. Whole burnt offering and sin offering, you have not desired.
7. Then I said, “Behold, I go! (In a roll of a book it is written of me.)
8. I delight to do your will, O my God, for your law is within me.”
9. I have preached glad tidings of righteousness in the great congregation. Behold! I have not restrained my lips. O LORD, you know.
10. I have not concealed your righteousness within my heart. I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation. I have not hidden your lovingkindness nor your truth from the great congregation.
11. You will not withhold your compassion from me, O LORD; your lovingkindness and truth continuously preserve me.
12. For evils beyond number encompass me. My iniquities have overtaken me, and I cannot look up. They are more than the hairs of my head, and my heart fails me.
13. O LORD, be pleased to deliver me! O LORD, make haste to help me!
14. Let them be put to shame and confounded together who seek my life to destroy it! Let them be turned back and put to shame who take pleasure in my hurt!
15. Let them be desolate because of their shame who say to me, “Aha! Aha!”

16. Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you! Let those who love your salvation say continually, “The LORD be magnified!”
17. Though I am poor and needy, my Lord thinks on me. You are my Help and my Deliverer. O my God, do not tarry!

Psalm 41

For the chief musician.

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. Blessed is he who considers the poor. In the day of trouble, the LORD will deliver him;
2. the LORD will preserve him and give him life. He will be blessed on the earth, and you will not give him over to the will of his enemies.
3. The LORD will strengthen him on his sickbed. Whenever he is bedridden, you will turn away his sickness.
4. I said, “O LORD, have mercy on me! Heal my soul, for I have sinned against you!”
5. My enemies speak evil of me. “When will he die and his name perish?”
6. Even if one comes in to see me, he speaks falsely. His heart is gathering trouble for itself; he goes out and talks.
7. All who hate me whisper against me together. Against me, they devise my harm.
8. They say, “An evil thing is poured out on him, and when he lies down, he will not rise up again.”
9. Even my close friend, in whom I trusted, who ate my bread, has lifted up his heel against me.
10. But you, O LORD, show me favor, and raise me up so that I may repay them!
11. By this I know that you are pleased with me: my enemy has not triumphed over me.
12. And as for me, you have upheld me because of my integrity, and you have set me before you forever.
13. Blessed be Jehovah, God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Amen! Oh, amen!

Psalm 42

For the chief musician.

A wisdom song for the sons of Korah.

- ¶1. As the deer pants after the streams of water, so my soul pants after you, O God.
2. My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and appear before God?
3. My tears have been my food day and night because it is said to me every day, “Where is your God?”
4. I think on these things and pour out my soul within me, that I might pass among the multitude and stroll with them to the house of God with a sound of praise and thanksgiving, the multitude keeping the feast.

5. O my soul, why are you cast down and in turmoil within me? Hope in God! I will surely praise Him again in the full salvation of His countenance.
6. O my God, my soul is cast down within me. Therefore, I will remember you from the land of Jordan and Hermon's heights, from the mountain of Mizar.⁶
7. Deep calls to deep at the sound of your waterspouts. All your waves and billows have swept over me.
8. By day, the LORD commands His lovingkindness, and by night, His song is with me, a prayer to the God of my life.
9. I say to God, my rock, "Why have you forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"
10. As with a deadly blow in my bones, my adversaries reproach me every day, saying to me, "Where is your God?"
11. O my soul, why are you cast down, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God! I will surely praise Him again, the salvation of my whole being, and my God.

Psalm 43

- ¶1. Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation. Deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man,
2. for you are the God of my strength. Why have you rejected me? Why must I walk about mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
3. Send out your light and your truth! Let them lead me and bring me to your holy hill, even to your dwelling-place.
4. Then will I go to the altar of God, to God my great joy, and I will praise you with a stringed instrument, O God, my God!
5. O my soul, why are you cast down, and why are you in turmoil within me? Wait on God! For I will yet praise Him, the salvation of my being, and my God.

Psalm 44

*For the chief musician for the sons of Korah.
A wisdom song.*

- ¶1. O God, with our ears we have heard our fathers recount to us the work you did in their days, in days of old.
2. You, by your own hand, dispossessed the heathen, but them, you planted. You brought evil upon those nations, but them, you spread abroad.
3. It was certainly not by their sword that they inherited the land, nor did their arm save them, but it was your right hand and your arm, and the light of your countenance, for you granted them favor.
4. O you who are my King, O God, command victories for Jacob!

⁶ Hebrew uncertain.

5. By you, we will thrust our adversaries through! In your name, we will trample those who rise up against us!
6. For I will not rely on my bow, and my sword will not save me,
7. for you have saved us from our adversaries and have put to shame those who hate us.
8. In God will we boast all the day long, and we will bless your name forever! Selah.

- ¶9. Yet, you have rejected and humiliated us, and you will not go out with our armies.
10. You make us to turn back from the adversary, and those who hate us take plunder for themselves.
11. You have made us like sheep meant for food and have scattered us among the Gentiles.
12. You have sold your people for no profit; you gained nothing with their price.
13. You have made us a reproach to our neighbors, an object of mockery and derision to those around us.
14. You have made us a byword among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the nations.
15. Every day, my ignominy confronts me, and shame covers my face
16. because of the voice of him who reproaches and reviles me before the enemy who avenges himself.⁷
17. All this has come upon us, though we have not forgotten you, nor have we been false in your covenant.
18. Our heart has not backslid, neither have our steps turned aside from your path.
19. Surely, you have crushed us in a place of wolves and covered us with death's shadow.
20. If we have forgotten the name of our God and have stretched out our hands to a strange god,
21. will not God search this out? For He knows the secrets of the heart.
22. For your sake, we are killed all the day long; we are thought of as a flock to be slaughtered.
23. Wake up! Why are you sleeping, my Lord? Rouse yourself! Do not reject us forever!
24. Why do you hide your face and do not remember our affliction and our oppression?
25. For our soul is bowed to the dust; our body cleaves to the earth.
26. Rise up, O our Help, and redeem us for the sake of your lovingkindness!

Psalm 45

*For the chief musician upon shoshannim, for the sons of Korah.
A wisdom song. A song of ones beloved.*

- ¶1. My heart is inditing a good matter. I speak of things I have done for the King. My tongue is the pen of a ready scribe.
2. You are fairer than sons of man; grace has been poured into your lips. Therefore, God has blessed you forever.

⁷ Cp. Psalm 8:2.

3. Gird your sword upon your thigh, O mighty one, your glory and your majesty!
4. And in your majesty, ride on victoriously with the word of truth and righteous meekness, and may your right hand accomplish for you fearful deeds.
5. Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies; peoples will fall beneath you.
6. Your throne, O God, is forever and ever. A scepter of equity is the scepter of your kingdom.
7. You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore, God, even your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows.
8. All your garments are scented with myrrh, and aloes, and cassia. From ivory palaces, stringed instruments⁸ make you glad.
9. Daughters of kings are among your honorable ladies; the queen stands at your right hand in gold from Ophir.
10. Listen, O daughter, and consider, and turn your ear to me. Forget your people and your father's house,
11. and the King will be captivated by your beauty. He is your Lord. Worship him!
12. Even the daughter of Tyre shall come with a gift; the wealthy among people shall beg your favor.
13. The daughter of the King is altogether glorious in appearance; her clothing is of gold filigree.
14. In embroidered raiment, she will be conducted to the King. Her virgins after her, her attendants, will be brought in to you, O King.
15. They will be conducted with gladness and rejoicing, and they will enter into the King's palace.
16. Instead of your fathers, they will be your sons, whom you will make princes over all the earth.
17. I will cause your name to be remembered throughout all generations. Therefore, nations shall praise you forever and ever.

Psalm 46

For the chief musician, for the sons of Korah.

A song upon alamoth.

- ¶1. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in times of trouble.
2. Therefore, we will not fear when earth is changed, and when mountains tumble into the midst of the sea.
3. Its waters roar and foam; mountains shake at His majesty. Selah.
4. There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, holy dwelling place of the Most High.
5. God is in her midst; she will not be moved. God will help her at the break of day.

⁸ Hebrew uncertain.

6. Nations raged; kingdoms shook. He lifted His voice; the earth melted.
7. The LORD of Hosts is with us. Our stronghold is the God of Jacob. Selah.
8. Come! Behold the works of the LORD, what desolations He has made on the earth,
9. making wars to cease to the end of the earth. He will break the bow and cut the spear in pieces; the wagons will He burn with fire.
10. Be still and know that I am God! I will be exalted among the nations; I will be exalted in the earth.
11. The LORD of Hosts is with us. Our stronghold is the God of Jacob. Selah.

Psalm 47

*For the chief musician.
A Psalm for the sons of Korah.*

- ¶1. Clap your hands, all peoples! Shout to God with the voice of triumph!
2. For the LORD Most High is to be feared; He is the great King over all the earth.
3. He will subdue peoples beneath us, and nations beneath our feet.
4. He will choose our inheritance for us, the majesty of Jacob whom He loved. Selah.
5. God ascended with a joyful shout, O LORD, with a sound of a shofar.
6. Sing praises, O gods! Sing praises! Sing praises to our King! Sing praises!
7. God is King of all the earth; sing praises skillfully!
8. God reigns over the nations; God sits on the throne of His holiness.
9. The princes of the nations are assembled, the people of the God of Abraham, for the shields of the earth are God's. He is greatly exalted.

Psalm 48

A song. A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

- ¶1. The LORD is great and is greatly to be praised in the city of our God, the mountain of His holiness.
2. Beautiful, elevated, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.
3. Within her palaces, God is known as a refuge.
4. Behold, when the kings assembled; together they crossed over.
5. When they saw the city, they marveled. They were terrified; they took to flight.
6. Trembling took hold of them there, anguish as of a woman in labor.
7. With an east wind, you smashed the ships of Tarshish.
8. As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of Hosts, in the city of our God. God will establish her forever. Selah.
9. In the midst of your temple have we thought upon your lovingkindness, O God.
10. As is your name, O God, so is your renown to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is full of righteousness.
11. Let Mount Zion be glad! Let the daughters of Judah rejoice because of your judgments!
12. Walk about Zion, and go around her; count her towers;

13. consider well her rampart; pass through her citadels so that you may recount it to the next generation.
14. This God is our God forever and ever! He will lead us on, beyond death.

Psalm 49

For the chief musician.

A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

- ¶1. Hear this, all nations! Give ear, all inhabitants of the world,
2. both low and high, rich and poor together.
3. My mouth will speak perfect wisdom, and the meditation of my heart is perfect understanding.
4. I will incline my ear to a parable; I will offer my dark saying upon a lyre.
5. Why should I fear in evil days? The iniquity of my supplacers is all around me
6. who trust in their wealth and boast themselves in the abundance of their riches.
7. He cannot at all redeem a brother, nor give God His ransom
8. (yea, the price for their soul will be precious and eternally complete),
9. that he might live again, forever, not seeing the Pit.
10. But He sees that wise men die together with the fool and the brutish. They perish and leave their wealth to others.
11. Inwardly, they think their houses will endure forever, their dwelling places from generation to generation. They call lands by their own names.
12. But a man with honor does not endure; he is like the beasts that perish.
13. This, their way, is their folly, yet those who come after them approve of their speech.
Selah.
14. Like sheep, they are appointed to Sheol; death is their shepherd, and the upright will rule over them in the morning, and their beauty will rot away in Sheol from its lofty dwelling.
15. But God will ransom my soul from the power of Sheol, for He will receive me. Selah.
16. Do not be in awe when a man becomes rich, when the glory of his house increases.
17. For at his death, he will take nothing; none of his glory will descend with him,
18. though during his life, he blessed his soul. (How men praise you when you do well for yourself!)
19. He shall go to the dwelling-place of his fathers forever; they will never see light.
20. A man in honor, but with no understanding, is like the beasts that perish.

Psalm 50

A Psalm by Asaph.

- ¶1. The mighty God, Jehovah, has spoken and has summoned earth, from the rising of the sun until its going down.
2. From Zion, the perfection of beauty, God has shone.

3. Our God will come, and He will not be silent! Fire will devour before Him, and around Him, it will be very tempestuous.
4. He will call to the heavens from above and to the earth, to judge His people,
5. “Gather my pious ones to me, those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice!”
6. And heaven will declare His righteousness, for God Himself is Judge. Selah.
7. “Listen, O my people, and let me speak! O Israel, I will testify against you! I am God—your God!
8. Not for your sacrifices will I reprove you, nor for your burnt offerings that are continually before me.
9. I will take no bullock from your house, nor he-goats from your folds,
10. for every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle on a thousand hills.
11. I know that every bird of the mountains and every moving thing of the field is mine.
12. If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the world is mine and its fullness.
13. Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of he-goats?
14. Offer to God the sacrifice of praise, and pay your vows to the Most High,
15. and then call on me in the day of trouble! I will deliver you, and you will glorify me.”
16. But to the wicked man, God says, “How dare you declare my statutes, or take up my covenant into your mouth!
17. You despise correction, and you cast my words behind you.
18. When you see a thief, you are pleased with him, and your portion is with adulterers.
19. You turn your mouth loose with evil, and your tongue contrives deceit.
20. You sit and talk against your brother; you slander your own mother’s son.
21. These things you have done, and I remained silent. You thought that I was altogether such a one as yourself. I will reprove you, and I will set things in order before your eyes.
22. Now consider this, you who forget God, lest I tear you in pieces—and there will be no deliverer.
23. He who offers praise, setting his conduct in order, glorifies me. I will show him the salvation of God.”

Psalm 51

For the chief musician.

A Psalm by David when Nathan the prophet came to him because he had gone in to Bathsheba.

- ¶1. Have mercy on me, O God, according to your lovingkindness! In the abundance of your compassion, blot out my transgressions!
2. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin,
3. for I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is continually before me!
4. Against you only have I sinned and done this evil in your sight, so that you might be vindicated when you speak and justified when you judge.
5. Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me.

6. Behold, you delight in truth in the inner parts, and in the hidden part, you make me know wisdom.
7. Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean. Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
8. Make me to hear joy and gladness, and the bones you have crushed will shout for joy!
9. Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities!
10. Create a clean heart for me, O God, and make within me a new, steadfast spirit!
11. Do not cast me away from your presence, and do not take your holy Spirit from me!
12. Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain me with a willing spirit.
13. I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn back to you.
14. Deliver me from blood-guilt, O God! O God of my salvation, my tongue will cry aloud of your righteousness.
15. My Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will make your praise known.
16. Truly, you do not delight in sacrifice; otherwise, I would offer it. Burnt offering does not please you.
17. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit. A broken and crushed heart, O God, you will not despise.
18. Do good, in your good pleasure, to Zion! Rebuild the walls of Jerusalem!
19. Then, you will delight in sacrifices of righteousness, burnt offering and whole burnt offering. Then will they offer up bullocks on your altar.

Psalm 52

For the chief musician.

A wisdom song by David when Doeg the Edomite came and reported to Saul, and he told him, "David has gone to Ahimelech's house."

- ¶1. How can you commend yourself with evil, O mighty man? God's faithfulness never ceases.
2. Your tongue, like a sharpened razor, devises ruinous things, working deceit.
3. You love evil more than good, a lie more than to speak righteousness. Selah.
4. You love every word that devours, O deceitful tongue!
5. Oh, but God will bring you down forever. He will seize you and tear you away from your tent. Yea, He will uproot you out of the land of the living. Selah.
6. And the righteous will see it, and fear, and they will laugh at him,
7. saying, "Behold the man who did not make God his strength, but trusted in the abundance of his riches! He sought refuge in his own destruction."
8. As for me, I am like a green olive tree in the house of God. I will trust in the lovingkindness of God forever and ever.
9. I will praise you forever because you have done it, and I will wait for your Name, for he is delightful before your saints.

Psalm 53

For the chief musician, upon mahalath.

A wisdom song by David.

- ¶1. The fool says in his heart, “There is no God.” They are corrupt, and they do abominable injustice; there is no one doing good.
2. God looked down from heaven upon the sons of man to see if there was anyone with understanding, anyone who was seeking God.
3. Every one of them had turned away. They have all, alike, been corrupted; there is no one doing good, not even one!
4. Do the workers of iniquity have no understanding, eating up my people as they eat bread? They do not call on God.
5. They will be utterly terrified there, though there was no fear. For God will scatter the bones of him who camps against you. You will put them to shame because God has rejected them.
6. Whom from Zion will He ordain as the Salvation of Israel? When Jehovah returns the captivity of His people, Jacob will rejoice. Israel will be glad.

Psalm 54

For the chief musician, with stringed instruments.

A wisdom song by David when the men of Ziph came and said to Saul, “Isn’t David hiding himself among us?”

- ¶1. Save me, O God, by your Name, and vindicate me by your might.
2. Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth!
3. For strangers have risen up against me, and ruthless men seek my life. They do not set God before them. Selah.
4. Behold, God is my helper! My Lord is with those who uphold my life.
5. He will repay the evil of those who lie in wait for me. Annihilate them in your faithfulness!
6. With a freewill offering will I make sacrifice to you. I will praise your Name, O Jehovah, for he is good,
7. for he has delivered me from every distress, and my eye has looked upon my enemies.

Psalm 55

For the chief musician, with stringed instruments.

A wisdom song by David.

- ¶1. Give ear to my prayer, O God, and do not hide yourself from my supplication.
2. Attend to me, and answer me. I wander about in my anxiety, for I am discomfited
3. because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked, for they bring trouble down on me, and in anger, they love to hate me.
4. My heart is in anguish within me, and the terrors of death are fallen on me.
5. Fear and trembling have come upon me, and horror overwhelms me.
6. Then I said, “O, that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and be at rest.
7. Yea, I would wander far away and lodge in the wilderness. Selah.

8. I would hasten to my place of refuge from the stormy wind and tempest."
9. Confound them, my Lord! Divide their speech, for I have seen violence and strife in the city.
10. Day and night, they go around it, upon its walls, and iniquity and trouble are in its midst.
11. Ruin is in its midst, for oppression is not removed from its marketplace, nor fraud.
12. It was not an enemy who reproached me; then, I could have borne it. Nor was it one who hated me who puffed himself up against me; then, I would have hidden myself from him.
13. But it was you, a man my own equal, my intimate friend, and my companion,
14. for we took sweet counsel together, and walked among the throng in the house of God.
15. Let death come upon him! Let them go down alive to Sheol, for wickedness is in their home and in their heart!
16. As for me, I will call on God, and the LORD will save me.
17. Evening, and morning, and at noon, I will complain and groan, and He will hear my voice.
18. He will redeem my soul with peace from the war against me, for many were about me.
19. God will hear, and He, even He who has been from of old, will humble them—Selah!—because they do not change, and they do not fear God.
20. He stretched out his hands against those at peace with him; he violated his covenant.
21. His words were smooth as butter, but war was in his heart. His words were softer than oil, but they were drawn swords.
22. Cast your burden on the LORD, and He will sustain you. He will never allow the righteous to be moved.
23. But you, O God, will bring them down to the lowest Pit. Bloody and deceitful men will not live out half their days, but I will trust in you.

Psalm 56

*For the chief musician concerning the Dove of God who is far away.
A miktam by David when Philistines took him in Gath.*

- ¶1. Have mercy on me, O God, for men have trampled on me. All the day long, they fight against and oppress me.
2. Those who watch me trample on me all the day long; yea, many fight proudly against me.
3. What time I am afraid, I will trust in you.
4. In God, I will praise His Word! In God have I put my trust. I will not fear what flesh can do to me.
5. Every day, they twist my words against me; all their plans are for evil.
6. They stir up strife; they lurk; they watch my steps as they wait for my life.
7. Their escape has been by iniquity. In wrath, O God, cast down the peoples!

8. You have recorded my wandering. (Oh, put my tears in your bottle!) Is it not in your book?
9. My enemies will certainly turn back on the day I call. This I know because God is for me.
10. In God, I will praise the Word! In the LORD, I will praise the Word!
11. In God have I put my trust. I will not fear what man can do to me!
12. Your vows are upon me. I will render thank-offerings to you,
13. for you have delivered my soul from death! Did you not save my feet from stumbling so that I might walk before God in the light of the living?

Psalm 57

For the chief musician.

Do not destroy.

A miktam by David when he fled from Saul into the cave.

- ¶1. Have pity on me, O God! Have pity on me, for my soul seeks refuge in you. Yea, I seek refuge in the shadow of your wings until destructions are overpast.
2. I cry out to the Most High God, to the God who is accomplishing all things concerning me.
3. He will send from heaven and save me. He will put to shame the one who tramples on me. Selah! God will send His lovingkindness and His truth.
4. My soul is among lions. I lie down with flames, sons of men whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongues, a sharp sword.
5. Be exalted above the heavens, O God, and your glory over all the earth!
6. They laid a net for my feet. My soul is bowed down. They dug a pit before me. They fell into the midst of it. Selah.
7. My heart is fixed, O God. My heart is fixed. I will sing and make music.⁹
8. Awake, my Glory! Awake the harp and lyre. I will awake the dawn.
9. I will give you thanks among the nations, my Lord. I will sing you praise among the peoples,
10. for your lovingkindness is as high as heaven, and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
11. Be exalted above heaven, O God, and your glory over all the earth!

Psalm 58

For the chief musician.

Do not destroy.

A miktam by David.

- ¶1. Is it true, O you gods, that you speak what is right? Do you judge uprightly, O you sons of men?
2. No! In your heart, you do injustice. Your hands mete out violence in the land.

⁹ Compare vv. 7–11 with Psalm 108:1–5.

3. The wicked are estranged from the womb; from birth, they go astray, speaking lies.
4. Their poison is like the poison of a serpent; they are like a deaf adder that stops his ear,
5. which will not listen to the sound of charmers, cunningly casting their spells.
6. O God, break his teeth in his mouth! Break the fangs of the young lions, O Jehovah!
7. They will melt away like waters running from him. He will send forth His Arrow that is like Him. They shall be cut off,
8. the way a snail, melting, goes away, or a woman's miscarriage that never saw the sun.
9. Alive like Him and angry like Him, he will whirl us away before your pots feel the thorns.
10. The righteous will rejoice when he sees the vengeance. He will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.
11. And a man will say, "Surely, there is a reward for the righteous man! Surely, there are gods judging in the earth."

Psalm 59

For the chief musician.

Do not destroy.

A miktam by David when Saul sent men, and they watched his house, to kill him.

- ¶1. Deliver me from my enemies, my God! Set me on high from those who lift themselves up against me!
2. Deliver me from evildoers, and save me from bloody men!
3. For, behold, they wait in ambush for my life; formidable men have stirred up strife against me, not for my transgression and not for my sin, O LORD.
4. Nor for wickedness have they run and set themselves against me. Rouse yourself to help me, and see!
5. But you, Jehovah, God of Hosts, God of Israel, awake to punish all the nations! Show no mercy to any of those who treacherously devise evil. Selah.
6. They come back every evening; they snarl like a dog as they go about the city.
7. Behold, they blather with their mouths; daggers are in their lips. "For", they say, "Who is listening?"
8. But you, O Jehovah, you laugh at them; you scoff at all nations.
9. O you who are His strength, I will watch for you! For God is my high tower.
10. God, in His lovingkindness, will go before me; God will let me see those who lie in wait for me.
11. Do not kill them, lest my people forget. Make them tremble by your power, and bring them down, O Lord our shield,
12. for the sin of their mouth and the speech of their lips. And let them be taken in their pride for the curse and falsehood they declare.
13. Consume them in wrath! Consume until none of them remain, that men may know to the ends of the earth that God rules in Jacob! Selah.
14. And they come back every evening; they snarl like a dog as they go about the city.
15. They go about to devour; if they are not satisfied, then they will stay all night.

16. But as for me, I will sing of your strength, and cry aloud of your lovingkindness every morning, for you have been my high tower and my way of escape in the day of my distress.
17. O my Strength, I will sing you praise, for God is my high tower, the God of my mercy.

Psalm 60

For the chief musician, upon shushan.

A testimonial miktam by David for instruction, when he fought with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, and Joab returned and slew of Edom 12,000 in the Valley of Salt.

- ¶1. O God, you have rejected us. You have broken out against us. You have been angry. Turn back to us!
2. You have made the land quake; you have split it open. Heal its brokenness, for it is trembling!
3. You have made your people to see a hard thing. You have given us wine of trembling to drink.
4. You have given a sign for those who fear you, that they may flee from the bow. Selah.
5. Save us with your right hand and answer us, that those you love may be delivered!
6. God has spoken in His holiness, “I will exult in triumph. I will apportion Shechem and mete out the Valley of Succoth.
7. Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; and Ephraim is a shelter for my head. Judah is my law-giver;
8. Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast my shoe. Let Philistia shout in triumph because of me!”
9. Who will escort me to the entrenched city? Who will lead me to Edom?
10. O God, have you not rejected us? For you will not go out, O God, with our armies.
11. Give us help against the adversary, for salvation through man is vain!¹⁰
12. Through God, we will do valiantly, and He Himself will trample our adversaries.

Psalm 61

For the chief musician, on a stringed instrument.

By David.

- ¶1. Hear my cry, O God! Attend to my prayer!
2. From the end of the earth will I call to you when my heart is faint. You will lead me to a rock that is higher than I,
3. for you have been refuge for me, a strong tower in the presence of the enemy.
4. Let me stay in your tent forever and ever. Let me take refuge in the shelter of your wings. Selah.
5. For you, O God, have heard my vows and have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.

¹⁰ Identical with 108:13.

6. You will add days to the days of the King and make his years as many generations.
7. May he dwell in the presence of God forever. Ordain for him mercy and truth, that they may keep him!
8. So will I ever sing praises to your Name, to fulfill my vows day by day.

Psalm 62

*For the chief musician, for Jeduthun.
A Psalm by David.*

- ¶1. For God alone, my soul waits in stillness; from Him is my salvation.
2. He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress. I will not be greatly shaken.
3. How long will you people assault a man? All of you will be destroyed, like a bowing wall or leaning fence.
4. All they do is scheme to cast him down from his high place. They take pleasure in falsehood. With their mouth, they bless, but inwardly, they curse. Selah.
5. O my soul, wait in stillness for God alone, for my hope is in Him.
6. He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress. I will not be shaken.
7. Upon God, my salvation and my glory rest. The rock of my strength, my refuge, is in God.
8. O people, trust in Him at all times! Pour out your hearts before Him! God is a refuge for us. Selah.
9. Surely, men of low status are vanity, and men of high status are a lie. Laid in a balance together, they are lighter than vanity.
10. Do not put your trust in oppression nor become vain by robbery. When wealth increases, do not set your heart on it.
11. Once, God has spoken; twice, I have heard this, that power belongs to God.
12. And to you, my Lord, belongs mercy, for you reward a man according to his work.

Psalm 63

A Psalm by David when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

- ¶1. O God, you are my God! Earnestly, I seek you. My soul thirsts for you; my flesh longs for you in a dry and weary land where there is no water.
2. Thus in the sanctuary, I have seen you, beholding your power and glory.
3. Because your lovingkindness is better than life, my lips will praise you.
4. Thus will I bless you while I live: I will lift up my hands in your name.
5. My soul will be satisfied as with the best food and abundance. And with joyful lips, my mouth will praise you
6. when I remember you upon my bed. I meditate on you in the night watches,
7. for you have been my help, and in the shadow of your wings will I shout for joy.
8. My soul follows hard after you. Your right hand upholds me,
9. but they seek to destroy my life. They will go into the lowest parts of the earth;

10. they will be given to the power of the sword; they will be a portion for foxes.
11. But the King will rejoice in God. Everyone who swears by Him will glory, for the mouth of those who speak lies will be shut.

Psalm 64

For the chief musician.

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint! Keep my life from fear of the enemy!
2. Keep me hidden from the assembly of evildoers, from the congregation of those who do iniquity,
3. who have sharpened their tongue like a sword; they have aimed their arrow, poisonous talk,
4. to shoot from hiding places the perfect man. They shoot without warning and without fear.
5. They encourage themselves in an evil matter; they talk of secretly laying snares, saying, “Who will see them?”
6. They look for wrongs, and say, “We have accomplished a diligent search, though the heart and mind of man is unsearchable.”
7. But God will shoot an arrow at them; suddenly, they will be struck down.
8. Though they would have brought him down, their tongue will fall upon themselves. All who see them will shudder.
9. Then all men will fear, and declare the work of God, and wisely ponder what He did.
10. Let the righteous rejoice in the LORD and take refuge in Him! Let all the upright in heart glory!

Psalm 65

For the chief musician.

A Psalm by David. A song.

- ¶1. In Zion, O God, praise waits for you, and to you will a vow be paid.
2. O you who hears prayer, to you will all flesh come.
3. The words of iniquitous men prevailed against me, but you cover our transgressions.
4. Blessed is the one whom you choose and bring near; he will dwell in your courts. Oh, let us be filled with the goodness of your house, your holy temple!
5. In righteousness, you wondrously answer us, O God of our salvation, O refuge for all the ends of the earth and the farthest sea,
6. the One who by His power established the mountains, being girded with strength,
7. the One who calms the roaring of the seas, the roar of their waves, and the uproar of the nations.
8. And the inhabitants to the ends of the earth fear your signs. You cause the outgoings of the morning and evening to shout for joy.

9. You visit the earth and give it abundance; you greatly enrich it (the channel of God is full of water); you provide their grain, for you ordained it thus.
10. You water its furrows abundantly; you smooth out its ridges, making it soft with showers, blessing its produce.
11. You crown the year with your goodness, and your tracks drip fatness;
12. they drip upon the wilderness pastures, and the hills gird themselves with joy.
13. Meadows are clothed with flocks, and valleys are covered with grain. Together they shout; yea, they sing!

Psalm 66

*For the chief musician.
A song. A Psalm.*

- ¶1. Shout to God, all the earth!
2. Sing the glory of His name! Set forth the glory of His praise!
3. Say to God, “How wondrous are your works! Because of your great strength, your enemies will cower before you.”
4. All the earth will worship you and sing to you; they will sing of your name. Selah.
5. Come and see the works of God! He is awesome in deed toward the sons of man.
6. He turned the sea to dry land. Through the river, they crossed over on foot. There, we rejoiced in Him
7. who rules by His might forever. His eyes keep watch over the nations; let not the rebels rise up against Him. Selah.
8. Bless our God, O nations, and make the sound of His praise be heard
9. who has set our souls among the living and has not suffered our feet to slip.
10. You have certainly proved us, O God. You have refined us as silver is refined.
11. You led us into the net; you laid a crushing load on our backs;
12. you caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and water. Yet, you brought us out to a place of abundance.
13. I will come into your house with burnt offerings. I will pay my vows to you
14. which my lips uttered and my mouth spoke in my distress.
15. I will offer to you whole burnt offerings of fatlings, together with the smoke of rams. I will prepare cattle with he-goats. Selah.
16. Come and listen, and let me declare to all who fear God what He has done for my soul!
17. I cried to Him with my mouth, and He was exalted with my tongue.
18. If I had regarded wickedness in my heart, the Lord would not have listened.
19. But God listened! He gave heed to the sound of my prayer.
20. Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer or His lovingkindness from me.

Psalm 67

*For the chief musician.
A Psalm with stringed instruments. A song.*

- ¶1. God will show us favor and bless us. Let His face shine on us—Selah!—
 2. so that your way might be known on earth, your salvation among all nations!
 3. Let nations praise you, O God! Let all nations praise you!
 4. Nations will rejoice and sing for joy when you judge the nations with equity and guide the peoples on earth. Selah.
 5. Let the nations praise you, O God! Let all the nations praise you!
 6. The land will yield her produce. God, our God, will bless us.
 7. God will bless us, and all the ends of the earth will fear Him.

Psalm 68

*For the chief musician.
A Psalm by David. A song.*

- ¶1. God will rise up, His enemies will scatter, and those who hate Him will flee before Him.
 2. As smoke is driven away, so you will drive them away. Like wax melting before fire, the wicked will perish before God.
 3. But the righteous will be glad; they will exult before God and rejoice with gladness.
 4. Sing to God! Sing praises to His name! Cast up a highway for him who rides through the desert plains with Jehovah as his authority. Exult before him, too,
 5. a father to orphans and a judge of widows, a God in His holy habitation.
 6. God makes lonely souls to live in a home. He brings prisoners out into prosperity. Oh, but the rebellious dwell in a blistering place.
 7. O God, when you went forth before your people, when you marched through the wilderness (selah!),
 8. the earth quaked, yea, heavens dropped at the presence of God, the God of Sinai, at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
 9. You freely gave rain to your inheritance, O God. You established it when it was weary.
 10. Your people dwelt in it. You, O God, in your goodness, provide for the needy.
 11. The Lord gave the word; great is the army that proclaims the news:
 12. “The kings of the armies are fleeing! They are fleeing!” And she who waits at home will divide spoil
 13. (while you men lie among campfires), wings of a dove covered with silver and its feathers with shimmering gold,
 14. when the Almighty scatters kings. With it, let it snow on Zalmon!
 15. O mountain of God, mountain of Bashan! O many-peaked mountain, mountain of Bashan!
 16. Why do you watch enviously, O mountain peaks, the mountain God desired for His dwelling-place? Yea, the LORD will dwell there forever.
 17. The chariots of God are myriads, thousands upon thousands. My Lord is among them, as at Sinai, in the sanctuary.
 18. You have ascended on high! You have taken captivity captive, to procure gifts for men, even the rebellious, so that our God, Jehovah, might dwell with them.

19. Blessed be my Lord! Daily, the God of our salvation bears our burden. Selah.
20. Our God is a God of deliverances, and to Jehovah my Lord belong the ways of escape from death.
21. Howbeit, God will smite the head of His enemies, the hairy crown of him that walks about in his offenses.
22. My Lord has said, "I will bring them back from Bashan; I will bring them back from the depths of the sea,
23. so that your foot may bloodily crush your enemies. Your dogs' tongue will have its portion of your enemies."
24. They have seen your processions, O God, the processions of my God, my King, into the sanctuary,
25. singers in front, players of stringed instruments following, and between them, virgins with timbrels.
26. In the assemblies, let them bless God, the LORD, for the fountain of Israel!
27. Little Benjamin is the head of them there, the princes of Judah with their throng, princes of Zebulun, princes of Naphtali.
28. Your God has commanded your mighty one. Strengthen, O God, him whom you created for us.
29. For your temple, kings will bring a gift to you at Jerusalem.
30. Rebuke the Beast of the shaft and the company of bulls with their calves of peoples, until each abases himself with pieces of silver. He will scatter the nations who delight in wars.
31. Nobles will come from Egypt; Ethiopia will quickly stretch out his hands to God.
32. Let the kingdoms of earth sing unto God! Let them make music to the Lord! Selah.
33. To him who rides in the ancient heaven of heavens. Lo, he utters his voice, a mighty voice.
34. Let those in the clouds submit to God's power over Israel, His majesty and His strength.
35. O God! Feared among your saints! The God of Israel will grant power and positions of authority to the people. Blessed be God!

Psalm 69

For the chief musician upon shoshannim.

By David.

- ¶1. Save me, O God, for the waters have come in, even to my soul.
2. I have sunk into deep mire, and there is no foothold. I have come into deep waters, and a torrent has engulfed me.
3. I am weary with my calling on God; my throat is parched; my eyes have failed, waiting for my God.

4. Those who hate me without cause are more than the hairs of my head. My enemies, who would destroy me, are strong. Then, I restored that which I did not take away.
5. O God, you know my foolishness, and my offenses are not hidden from you.
6. Let those who hope in you not be ashamed for my sake, my Lord, GOD of Hosts! For my sake, O God of Israel, let those who seek you not be confounded!
7. For because of you, I have borne reproach; shame has covered my face.
8. I have become a stranger to my brothers and an alien to the children of my mother
9. because jealousy for your house consumed me, and the reproaches of those who reproach you fell on me.
10. When I wept, with my soul fasting, it brought reproaches against me.
11. When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became a byword to them.
12. Those who sit in the gate deride me, and drunkards mock me with songs.
13. But as for me, my prayer is to you, O LORD, at an acceptable time. O God, in the abundance of your lovingkindness, answer me with your saving truth.
14. Deliver me from the mire, and let me not sink! Let me be delivered from those who hate me and from the deep waters.
15. Do not let the floodwaters engulf me, nor let the deep swallow me up, nor let the Pit close its mouth upon me.
16. Answer me, O LORD, for your lovingkindness is good. Turn to me according to your great compassion,
17. and do not hide your face from your servant, for I am in distress. Hasten to answer me!
18. Draw near to my soul! Redeem it! Ransom me because of my enemies!
19. You know my reproach, and my shame, and my disgrace. All my adversaries are before you.
20. Reproach has broken my heart, and I am distraught. I longed for someone to show pity, but there was no one, and for comforters, but I found none.
21. They put poison in my food, and for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
22. Let their table be a snare before them, and the things they are content with, a trap.
23. Let their eyes grow too dim to see, and make their loins continually shake.
24. Pour out your indignation on them, and let your burning anger overtake them.
25. Let their camp be desolate; let no one remain in their tent,
26. for they persecuted the one whom you struck down, and they declare the pain of those you pierced.
27. Add to them punishment upon punishment, and let them not enter into your righteousness.
28. Let them be blotted out of the Book of Life and not be written among the righteous!
29. Though I have been lowly and hurting, O God, your salvation will set me on high.
30. I will praise the name of God with song and magnify Him with thanksgiving,
31. and it will please the LORD more than an ox or a bull with horns and hoofs.

32. Humble men understand that those who seek God will rejoice, and your hearts will live,
33. for the LORD listens to the needy, and He does not despise His prisoners.
34. Heaven and earth will praise Him, the seas and everything that moves in them,
35. for God will save Zion and build the cities of Judah, that men may dwell there and take possession of it,
36. and the seed of His servants will inherit it, and those who love His name will dwell in it.

Psalm 70

For the chief musician.

By David, to bring to remembrance.

- ¶1. Deliver me, O God! O LORD, make haste to help me!
2. Let them be put to shame and confounded who seek my life! Let them be turned back and humiliated who take pleasure in my hurt!
3. Let them be turned back because of their shame who say, “Aha! Aha!”
4. Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you, and let those who love your salvation say continually, “God is great!”
5. But I am poor and needy. Hasten to me, O God! You, O Lord, are my help and my deliverer. Oh, do not tarry!

Psalm 71

- ¶1. In you, O LORD, have I taken refuge; let me never be put to shame.
2. Deliver me by your righteousness, and rescue me. Incline your ear to me, and save me.
3. Be a rock of refuge for me, to which I may continually resort! You have commanded that I be saved, for you are my rock and my stronghold.
4. O my God, deliver me out of the hand of the evil one, out of the grasp of the unjust and ruthless one,
5. for you are my hope, my Lord, Jehovah, my security from my youth.
6. On you have I relied from the womb; you severed me from my mother's belly. My praise is continually of you.
7. I am as a wonder to many, but you are my strong refuge.
8. My mouth is filled with your praise and your glory all the day long.
9. Do not cast me off in the time of old age; when my strength is spent, do not forsake me.
10. For my enemies have spoken against me, and those who watch for my life have taken counsel together,
11. saying, “God has forsaken him. Follow him and take him! For there is no one to deliver him.”
12. O God, do not be far from me! O my God, hasten to help me!
13. Let them be ashamed. Let the adversaries of my soul be consumed. Let scorn and disgrace cover them who seek to do me harm.

14. But as for me, I will always hope, and I will keep adding to all your praise.
15. My mouth will declare your righteousness and your salvation all the day, though I do not know the sum of them.
16. I will come with mighty ones of my Lord, Jehovah! I will make mention of your righteousness, yours alone.
17. O God, you have taught me from my youth, and behold, I am still declaring your wonders.
18. And even to old age and gray hair, O God, do not forsake me, that I might declare your strength to the next generation, your might to all who are coming.
19. Your righteousness, O God, reaches to the height, you who have done great things! O God, who is like you?
20. You who have shown me many and grievous troubles will bring me back to life and cause me to rise again from the depths of the earth.
21. You will increase my greatness and comfort me again.
22. For my part, I will praise you with a harp. With a lyre will I sing your truth to you, my God, O Holy One of Israel.
23. My lips will shout for joy as I play for you, and my soul, which you have redeemed.
24. Also, my tongue will speak your righteousness all the day long, for those who sought my hurt have been put to shame and disgraced.

Psalm 72
For Solomon.

- ¶1. O God, give the king your judgments, and your righteousness to the king's son.
2. He will judge your people in righteousness and your poor with justice.
3. The mountains and hills will yield prosperity for the people through righteousness.
4. He will judge the poor among the people; he will deliver the children of the needy and crush the oppressor.
5. They will fear you as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.
6. He will descend like rain upon the mowing, like showers that water the earth.
7. In his days will the righteous flourish, and great peace, until the moon is no more.
8. And he will rule from sea to sea, and from the river to the ends of the earth.
9. Those who dwell in the desert will bow down to him, and his enemies will lick the dust.
10. Kings of Tarshish and of the isles will render tribute; kings of Sheba and Seba will offer a gift,
11. and all kings will bow down before him. All nations will serve him.
12. For he will deliver the needy when he cries and the poor who has no one helping him.
13. He will pity the poor and needy man and save the lives of the needy.
14. From oppression and from violence will he will redeem their soul, for their blood is precious in his sight.
15. Let him live! And let gold from Sheba be given to him! Let prayer perpetually be made on account of him, and let Him bless him every day!

16. There will be an abundance of grain in the land, at the top of mountains. Its produce will sway like that of Lebanon, and they in the city will flourish like the grass of the earth.
17. His name will endure forever! His name will be propagated as long as the sun endures, and by him will all nations be blessed, and they will call him blessed.
18. Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, who alone does wondrous things.
19. And blessed be His glorious name forever, and let all the earth be filled with His glory!
Amen and amen!
20. The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

Psalm 73

A Psalm by Asaph.

- ¶1. Truly God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.
2. But as for me, my feet had almost slipped; my steps were almost gone.
3. For I was envious of those who are praised. I saw the happiness of wicked men.
4. For there are no bonds on them until death, and their bodies are stout.
5. They are not in trouble as other men are; neither are they plagued along with other men.
6. Therefore, pride encircles them like a necklace; violence covers them like a garment.
7. Their eye stands out with fatness; they have more than heart can wish.
8. They mock and speak wickedly of oppression; they speak loftily.
9. They set their mouth against heaven, and their tongue walks through the earth.
10. Therefore, His people turn away after them, and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.
11. And they think, “How can God know?” and “Is there knowledge on high?”
12. Behold, these are the wicked, always at ease; they increase in wealth.
13. Truly, I have kept my heart clean for nothing, and washed my hands in innocence,
14. for I am plagued all day long, and correction comes to me every morning.
15. If I had decided, “I will talk that way,” behold, I would have offended a generation of your children.
16. When I tried to understand this, it was hard for me
17. until I entered into God’s sanctuary; then, I considered their end.
18. You have surely put them in slippery places; you cause them to fall into ruin.
19. How suddenly they come to desolation! They come to an end, consumed by terrors.
20. As it is with a dream after one has wakened, when you rise up, my Lord, you will disregard their semblance.
21. When my heart was bitter, my soul was pierced,
22. and I was brutish and did not understand. I was like an animal before you.
23. Yet, I was always with you. You held onto my right hand.
24. With your counsel, you will guide me, and afterwards, you will receive me to glory.
25. Whom have I in heaven but you? And I delight in none on earth besides you.

26. My flesh and my heart fail, but God is the strength¹¹ of my heart and my portion forever.
27. For, behold, those who are far from you will perish. You will destroy all who go a-whoring from you.
28. But as for me, the nearness of God is good for me. I have made the Lord Jehovah my refuge, that I might declare all your works.

Psalm 74

A wisdom song by Asaph.

- ¶1. Why, O God, do you continually reject and your anger smoke against the sheep of your pasture?
2. Remember your congregation that you purchased long ago. You redeemed the rod of your inheritance, this Mount Zion where you have dwelt.
3. O lift up your feet to these perpetual ruins, to all the evil the enemy has done in the sanctuary.
4. Your adversaries roar within your place of assembly; they set up their own signs as signs.
5. One became famous as he brought axes up the ascent to your sanctuary, as against a thicket of trees,
6. and then, with hatchet and hammers, they smashed all its engraved works.
7. They set your sanctuary on fire; they profaned to the ground the dwelling-place of your name.
8. They said in their hearts, “We will subdue them altogether.” They burned all of God’s meeting places in the land.
9. We do not see our signs; there is no longer a prophet; and none among us knows for how long.
10. How long, O God, will the adversary mock? Will the enemy blaspheme your name forever?
11. Why do you hold back your hand? With him on your right hand, fulfill your law¹² from within!
12. And yet, from ancient time, O God my King, you have been working salvation throughout the earth.
13. You by your strength, broke up the sea into pieces. You smashed the heads of dragons in the flood.
14. You crushed the heads of Leviathan. You gave him as food for a people who live in deserts.
15. You cleaved spring and torrent; you dried up flowing rivers.

¹¹ Literally, “Rock”.

¹² Or, “your statute”.

16. To you belongs the day, and to you belongs the night. You are the one who established light and sun.
17. You fixed all the boundaries of the earth; as for summer and winter, you made them.
18. Remember this! The enemy has reproached, O LORD, and a foolish people has blasphemed your name.
19. Oh, do not put the life of your turtledove into a creature, a creature among your afflicted people! Do not ever forget!
20. Have respect to the covenant, though the dark places of earth are full of the habitations of violence.
21. Do not let the crushed man return humiliated. Let the poor and the needy man praise your name.
22. Arise, O God, and plead your case! Remember the fool's daily reproach against you.
23. Do not forget the clamor of your adversaries; the tumult of those who rise up against you ascends continually.

Psalm 75

For the chief musician.

Do not destroy.

A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

- ¶1. We praise you, O God! We praise you! Your wonders declare that your name is near!
2. When I receive the assembly, I will judge uprightly.
3. The earth and all its inhabitants are melted away. I determine its pillars. Selah.
4. I said to the braggarts, "Do not boast," and to the wicked, "Do not exalt the horn!"
5. Do not lift up your horn on high; do not speak with a proud neck.
6. For exaltation will not come from east or west, nor yet from the wilderness.
7. For God is Judge, abasing one and exalting another.
8. For in the hand of the LORD is a cup with wine that has foamed and is fully mixed. When He pours out this wine, all the wicked of the earth will surely drink; they will drain it to the dregs!
9. But as for me, I will declare God's praise forever. I will sing praise to the God of Jacob.
10. All the horns of the wicked will I cut off, but the horns of the righteous will be exalted.

Psalm 76

For the chief musician, with stringed instruments.

A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

- ¶1. God is known in Judah; in Israel, His name is great;
2. but His tabernacle is in Salem, and His dwelling place is in Zion.
3. There He shattered the arrows of bowmen, the shield, and sword, and fighting. Selah.
4. You are resplendent, more majestic than the mountains of prey.
5. I caused the stouthearted to plunder one another. They sank into their sleep, and none of the mighty men found their strength.

6. At your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both rider and horse fell into a deep sleep.
7. You alone are to be feared, for who can stand before you, once you are angered?
8. From heaven, you pronounced judgment; the earth feared and was quiet
9. when God arose for the Judgment, to deliver all the meek of the earth. Selah.
10. Surely, the wrath of man will praise you; the remaining acts of wrath, you will restrain.
11. Make your vows to the LORD your God, and perform them! Let all who are around Him bring a gift to the One who should be feared.
12. He cuts off the spirit of princes; He is dreadful to earthly kings.

Psalm 77

*For the chief musician, for Jeduthun.
A Psalm by Asaph.*

- ¶1. My voice will rise to God. Yea, I will cry aloud to God, for He has given ear to me.
2. I sought my Lord in the day of my distress. At night, my hand was stretched out and did not grow weak. My soul refused to be comforted.
3. I remembered God, and groaned. I complained, and my spirit was fainting away. Selah.
4. You held my eyelids open; I was so troubled that I could not speak.
5. I considered days of old, the years of long ago.
6. I remembered my songs in the night; I communed with my heart, and my spirit made inquiry:
7. “Will the Lord cast off forever and ever? And will He never again show favor?
8. Has His mercy forever ceased? Is the promise to all generations no more?
9. Has God forgotten to be gracious? Or in anger, has He shut up His compassions?” Selah.
10. I also said, “This pierces my heart, that the right hand of the Most High has changed.”
11. I will mention the works of Jehovah; yea, I will remember your wondrous work of old.
12. Indeed, I have meditated upon all your work, and I will muse upon your deeds.
13. O God, your way is in the holy place. Who is a great God like God?
14. You are the God who created Wonder! You will make your strength known among the nations.
15. With your arm, you have redeemed your people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.
16. The waters saw you, O God! The waters saw you! They writhed. Yea, the depths trembled!
17. Clouds poured out water. Thick clouds gave forth a sound. Your arrows also shot back and forth.
18. The sound of your thunder was in the whirlwind. Flashes of lightning lit up the world; the earth trembled and shook.
19. Your way was through the sea, and your paths, through great waters, but your footprints were not perceived.
20. You led your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

A wisdom song by Asaph.

- ¶1. Give ear, O my people, to my law! Incline your ear to the words of my mouth!
2. I will open my mouth in a parable; I will pour out dark sayings from of old
3. that we have heard and understood, for our fathers recounted them to us.
4. We will not hide them from their children, recounting to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and His power, and His wonderful works that He has done.
5. For He established a testimony in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel which He commanded our fathers to make known to their children
6. so that the following generation might know them. Children shall be born! They shall rise up and rehearsed them for their children,
7. so that they might put their confidence in God and not forget the works of God, but keep His commandments,
8. that they might not be like their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that did not prepare its heart, and whose spirit was not faithful to God.
9. The children of Ephraim, armed with the bow, turned back in the day of battle.
10. They did not keep God's covenant, and they refused to walk in His law.
11. They also forgot His deeds, even His wonders that He had shown them.
12. In the sight of their fathers, He worked a wonder in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
13. He divided the sea and brought them through it. Yea, He made water to stand up as a heap.
14. By day, He led them with a cloud, and all the night, by the light of a fire.
15. He split rocks in the wilderness and gave them drink as abundant as the depths.
16. He brought forth flowing streams from a rock and caused waters to flow down like rivers;
17. yet, they still continued to sin against Him, rebelling against the Most High in the desert.
18. And they tempted God in their heart by asking for food according to their own will.
19. And they spoke against God, saying, "Is God able to spread a table in the wilderness?
20. Behold, He struck a rock and waters gushed out and streams overflowed. Is He able also to give bread or provide flesh for His people?"
21. Therefore, when the LORD heard this, He was filled with fury, and a fire was kindled against Jacob. Yea, wrath rose up against Israel.
22. For they did not believe in God, nor did they trust in His salvation.
23. Yet, He commanded the clouds above, and opened the doors of heaven,
24. and rained manna down on them to eat, and gave them the grain of heaven.
25. Man ate the bread of angels. He sent food in abundance;
26. He caused an east wind to blow through the heavens, and by His strength, He drove the south wind
27. and rained flesh down on them like dust and winged fowl like the sand of the seas,

28. and He made them fall in their camp, round about their tents.
29. But while they were eating and being well filled, He brought their lust upon them.
30. They were not finished with their lust; their food was still in their mouths
31. when the wrath of God rose against them, and He killed the stoutest of them, and He laid low the choicest men of Israel.
32. In spite of all this, they kept on sinning, and they did not believe in His wonders.
33. So, He consumed their days with vanity and their years with trouble.
34. When He killed them, then they sought Him; they repented and earnestly sought God.
35. And they remembered that God was their Rock, and the Most High God, their Redeemer.
36. Then they flattered Him with their mouths; with their tongue, they lied to Him,
37. for their heart was not steadfast with Him and they were not faithful in His covenant.
38. But He was compassionate. He provided atonement for sin and did not destroy them.
Yea, many a time, He turned His anger away and did not stir up all His wrath,
39. for He remembered that they were flesh, a passing breeze that will never return.
40. How often they rebelled against Him in the wilderness and grieved Him in the desert!
41. Again and again, they tempted God, and they limited the Holy One of Israel.
42. They did not remember His power that they saw the day that He ransomed them from the enemy,
43. when He displayed His signs in Egypt and His wonders in the field of Zoan,
44. and turned their rivers into blood so that they could not drink from their streams.
45. He sent a swarm of flies among them which devoured them and frogs that polluted them,
46. and gave their increase to the destroying locust and their labor to the young locust.
47. He destroyed their vines with the hail, and their sycamores with the lightning bolts,¹³
48. and delivered their beasts to the hail and their livestock to the fiery bolts.
49. He loosed on them the fierceness of His anger, fury, and indignation, and vexation, a detachment of evil angels.
50. He cleared a way for His anger; He did not spare their soul from death, but delivered their life to the pestilence,
51. and struck all the firstborn of Egypt, the firstfruits of vigor in the tents of Ham.
52. Then He led His people out like sheep, and guided them like a flock in the wilderness,
53. and led them safely so that they were not afraid, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
54. And then, He brought them to the border of His sanctuary, this mountain that His right hand had purchased.
55. He drove out the nations before them, and He apportioned to them an inheritance by lot, and He settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

¹³ Hebrew unknown.

56. But they tempted and rebelled against God Most High, and they did not keep His testimonies.
57. And they turned back and became faithless like their fathers. They became warped, like a treacherous bow.
58. They vexed Him with their high places, and with their carved images they provoked Him to jealousy.
59. God heard and was filled with fury, and He greatly despised Israel.
60. Then, He forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent where He dwelt among men,
61. and He gave His strength into captivity and His beauty into the hand of the adversary.
62. He also delivered His people to the sword, and was filled with fury against His heritage.
63. Fire consumed His young men, and His maidens were given no wedding song.¹⁴
64. His priests fell by the sword, and His widows did not lament.
65. Then, like one who had been sleeping, like a mighty man overcome by wine, my Lord awoke
66. and struck his enemies' rear end; an everlasting shame He laid upon them.
67. And He rejected the tent of Joseph, and the tribe of Ephraim He did not choose.
68. But He chose the tribe of Judah, and Mount Zion which He loved.
69. And He built His sanctuary like the highest place, like the land which He has founded of old.
70. And He chose David, His servant. And taking him from the sheepfolds,
71. from following suckling ewes, He brought him to be a shepherd for Jacob His people and Israel His heritage,
72. who then guided them according to the integrity of his heart and led them by the skillfulness of his hands.

Psalm 79
A Psalm by Asaph.

- ¶1. O God, the nations have come into your heritage! They have defiled your holy temple; they have turned Jerusalem into ruins.
2. They have given the carcasses of your servants as food for the birds of heaven, the flesh of your saints to the beasts of the earth.
3. They have poured out their blood like water around Jerusalem, and there is no one burying them.
4. We have become a reproach to our neighbors, a scorn and a derision to those round about us.
5. How long, O LORD? You have been angry forever; your jealousy burns like fire.
6. Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you, and on the kingdoms that do not call on your name,

¹⁴ Literally, "His maidens were not praised (in song)."

7. for he has devoured Jacob, and they have ravaged His dwelling place.
8. Do not hold past iniquities against us! Let your tender mercies come to us quickly, for we have been brought very low.
9. Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of your name, and deliver us and cover our sins for your name's sake.
10. Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?" Let Him be revealed to the nations before our eyes in vengeance for the blood of your servants which has been shed.
11. Let the groaning of the prisoner come before you. By your mighty power, save those who are about to die,
12. and render seven-fold into the bosom of our neighbors their reproach with which they have reproached you, my Lord!
13. And we, your people, the sheep of your pasture, will forever give you thanks. From generation to generation will we declare your praise.

Psalm 80

*For the chief musician, to shoshannim.
A testimony by Asaph. A Psalm.*

- ¶1. Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel who leads Joseph like a flock; you who dwells between the cherubim, shine forth,
2. before Ephraim, and Benjamin, and Manasseh. Arouse your strength and go forth for our salvation!
3. Grant us repentance, O God, and cause your face to shine on us, and we will be saved.
4. O LORD, God of Hosts, how long will you be angry at the prayer of your people?
5. You feed them the bread of tears and make them drink tears by measure.
6. You make us a contention to our neighbors, and our enemies mock among themselves.
7. Grant us repentance, O God of Hosts, and cause your face to shine on us, and we will be saved.
8. You brought a vine out from Egypt; you drove out the nations and planted it.
9. You cleared a place before it, and it took deep root and filled the land.
10. Mountains were covered by its shadow, with its boughs like mighty cedars.
11. She sent out her branches to the sea and her shoots to the river.
12. Why have you broken down her walls so that all who pass by the way pluck her?
13. The boar of the forest ravages her, and the beasts of the field feed on her.
14. O God of Hosts, return, we beseech you! Look down from heaven, and see, and visit this vine,
15. even the vine that your right hand planted, and upon the Son you made strong for yourself.
16. It is burned with fire. It has been cut down. At the rebuke of your face, they perish.
17. Let your hand be upon the man at your right hand, upon the Son of man you strengthened for yourself!
18. Then, we will not backslide from you. Give us life, and we will call on your name.

19. Grant us repentance, O LORD, God of Hosts, and cause your face to shine on us, and we will be saved.

Psalm 81

For the chief musician, upon the gittith.

By Asaph.

- ¶1. Sing joyfully to God our strength. Shout to the God of Jacob.
2. Take up a song; play the timbrel and the sweet-sounding lyre with a harp.
3. At the new moon, blow the shofar, at the moon on our feast day,
4. for this is Israel's statute, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
5. He established it for a testimony in Joseph when He went out over the land of Egypt. I heard a language I did not recognize.
6. I removed his shoulder from the burden; his hands were freed from the basket.
7. You cried out in distress, and I delivered you. I answered you in the hiding place of thunder. I tried you at the waters of Meribah. Selah.
8. Hear, O my people, and I will testify against you. O Israel, if you would only listen to me,
9. there would be in you no strange god, nor would you bow down to a foreign god.
10. I am the LORD your God who brought you up from the land of Egypt. Open wide your mouth, and I will fill it.
11. But my people have not listened to my voice; Israel has not yielded to me.
12. So, I gave them over to the stubbornness of their heart, to walk in their own counsels.
13. If only my people would listen to me, Israel would walk in my ways.
14. How quickly would I subdue their enemies and turn my hand against their adversaries!
15. Those who hate the LORD feign obeisance to Him, but their time will be forever.
16. Yet would He have fed him from the choicest wheat, and with honey from a rock I would have satisfied you.

Psalm 82

A Psalm by Asaph.

- ¶1. God presides in the Assembly of God; He judges among the gods.
2. How long will you judge unjustly and respect the persons of the wicked? Selah.
3. Judge the poor and fatherless; do justice to the afflicted and needy;
4. rescue the weak and destitute; deliver them from the hand of the wicked!
5. They do not know; neither do they understand; they walk about in darkness. All the foundations of the earth are shaken.
6. I have said, "You are gods, and all of you are sons of the Most High."
7. Nevertheless, like men, you will die, and you will fall like one of their princes."
8. Arise, O God! Judge the earth, for you will take possession of all the nations.

Psalm 83

A Song. A Psalm by Asaph.

- ¶1. O God, do not be quiet! Do not be silent or still, O God!
2. For, behold, your enemies rage, and those who hate you have lifted up the head.
3. They take shrewd counsel against your people and conspire against those you treasure.
4. They have said, “Come and let us destroy them as a nation, and the name of Israel will no longer be remembered!”
5. Yea, they conspired together with one mind. They formed an alliance against you:
6. tents of Edom, and Ishmaelites, Moab, and the Hagrites,
7. Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek, Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre;
8. Assyria also joined with them. They strengthened the children of Lot. Selah.
9. Do to them as to Midian, as to Sisera, as to Jabin at the Brook of Kishon.
10. They were destroyed at Endor; they became dung for the land.
11. Make their nobles as Oreb and Zeeb, all their princes as Zebah and Zalmunna,
12. who said, “Let us possess for ourselves the pastures of God.”
13. O my God, make them like the whirling dust, like chaff before the wind.
14. As a fire burns a forest and a flame sets the mountains ablaze,
15. put them to flight with your tempest and terrify them with your stormy wind.
16. Fill their faces with disgrace, and they will seek your name, O LORD!
17. Let them be ashamed and dismayed forever, and let them be confounded, and perish,
18. so that they know that you, whose name is Jehovah, are alone the Most High over all the earth.

Psalm 84

*For the chief musician, upon the gittith.
A Psalm for the sons of Korah.*

- ¶1. How lovely are your dwelling places, O LORD of Hosts.
2. My soul longs, yea, it faints for the courts of the LORD. My heart and my flesh cry aloud for the living God.
3. Even the sparrow finds a home, and the swallow, a nest for herself, where she may lay her young—at your altars, O LORD of Hosts, my King and my God.
4. Blessed are those who dwell in your house; they are ever praising you. Selah.
5. Blessed are those whose strength is in you; highways to Zion are in their hearts.
6. As they pass through the Valley of Weeping, they make it a spring, and the Teacher will clothe them in blessings.
7. They go from strength to strength; the God of gods will be seen in Zion.
8. O LORD, God of Hosts, hear my prayer! Give ear, O God of Jacob! Selah.
9. Behold our Shield, O God, and look on the face of your Messiah.
10. A day in your courts is much better than a thousand. I would choose to stand by the threshold of the house of my God rather than to dwell in tents of wickedness.

11. For the LORD God is a sun and a shield. The LORD will give grace and glory. He does not withhold good from those who live blamelessly.
12. O LORD of Hosts, blessed is the man who trusts in you.

Psalm 85

For the chief musician.

A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

- ¶1. O LORD, you have shown favor to your land; you have returned the captivity of Jacob.
2. You have taken away the iniquity of your people. You have covered all their sin. Selah.
3. You gathered up all your wrath; you requited us because of your burning anger.
4. Bring us back, O God of our salvation, and cause your anger toward us to cease!
5. Will you be angry with us forever? You have continued in your wrath from generation to generation.
6. Won't you relent and give us life, that your people may rejoice in you?
7. Show us your lovingkindness, O LORD, and grant us your salvation.
8. Let me hear what the God Jehovah says, for He speaks peace to His people, even to His faithful! Only, let them not turn back to folly.
9. Indeed, His salvation is near those who fear Him, that glory may dwell in our land.
10. Mercy and truth have met. Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
11. Truth will spring up from the earth, and righteousness will look down from heaven.
12. Yea, the LORD will grant prosperity, and our land will yield its increase.
13. Righteousness will go before Him and make His footsteps a pathway.

Psalm 86

A prayer of David.

- ¶1. Incline your ear, O LORD. Answer me, for I am poor and needy.
2. Preserve my soul, for I am a godly man. Save your servant who trusts in you. You are my God.
3. Pity me, O my Lord, for I cry out to you all the day long.
4. Make glad the soul of your servant, my Lord, for to you do I lift up my soul.
5. For you, my Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, and of great lovingkindness to all who call upon you.
6. Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer, and attend to the voice of my supplications.
7. In the day of my trouble, I call on you because you answer me.
8. There is none like you among the gods, O my Lord, nor are there any works like yours.
9. All nations whom you have made will come and bow down before you, my Lord, and they will glorify your name,
10. for you are great, and do wondrous things. You, you alone, are God.
11. Teach me your way, O LORD; I will live by your truth. Unite my heart to fear your name.

12. Let me praise you, my Lord, my God, with all my heart, and let me glorify your name forever,
13. for your lovingkindness toward me is great, and you have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.
14. O God, insolent men rose up against me, and the congregation of ruthless men sought my life, and they did not set you before them.
15. But you, my Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, and abundant in mercy and truth.
16. Turn to me, and be gracious to me. Give your servant your strength, and save the son of your maidservant.
17. Show me a sign for good, and let those who hate me see it and be ashamed. For you, O LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

Psalm 87

A Psalm for the sons of Korah. A song.

- ¶1. His foundation is in the mountains of holiness.
2. The LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwelling places of Jacob.
3. Glorious things are spoken in you, O city of God! Selah.
4. I will make mention of the Proud One and Babylon to those who know me. Behold! Philistia and Tyre, with Cush! This man was born there.
5. And to Zion, it will be said, “This man and that man were born in her.” And the Most High Himself will establish her.
6. The LORD will note in the record of the nations: “This man was born there.” Selah.
7. And singers with dancers will sing, “All my springs are in you.”

Psalm 88

*A song. A Psalm for the sons of Korah.
For the chief musician to sing upon mahalath.
A wisdom song by Heman the Ezrahite.*

- ¶1. O LORD, God of my salvation, by day and by night, I cry out before you.
2. Let my prayer come before you. Incline your ear to my cry.
3. For my soul is filled with troubles, and my life has come into Sheol.
4. I am counted with those who have gone down into the Pit. I have become like a helpless man.
5. Among the dead, I am free, like the slain lying in a grave whom you will no more remember, and they have been cut off from your hand.
6. You have set me in the lowest Pit, in the darkest of depths.
7. Your burning anger pressed upon me; you overwhelmed me with all your waves. Selah.
8. You put my acquaintances far from me; you made me an abomination to them. I am shut up, and I cannot come out.

9. My eye has grown dim with affliction. I have cried out to you, O LORD, every day. I have stretched out my hands toward you.
10. Did you create Wonder for the dead? Will the shades rise up and praise you? Selah.
11. Will your lovingkindness be declared in the grave? your faithfulness in Destruction?
12. Will your Wonder be revealed in the darkness and your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
13. But as for me, O LORD, I have cried out to you, and in the morning, my prayer came before you.
14. Why, O LORD, are you casting me off? You are hiding your face from me.
15. I have been afflicted and dying since my youth; I have borne your terrors; I am desperate.
16. Waves of your burning anger swept over me; your terrible acts put an end to me.
17. They surrounded me every day like water; together, they closed in on me.
18. You put far from me both friend and fellow. My companions are those in the region of darkness.

Psalm 89

A wisdom song by Ethan the Ezrahite.

- ¶1. Let me sing of the LORD's eternal mercies! Let me make known with my mouth your faithfulness through all generations!
2. Truly, I say, eternal mercy will be established; in heaven, you will establish your faithfulness.
3. I have made a covenant with my chosen one; I have sworn to David, my servant,
4. "I will establish your seed forever, and I will build up your throne through all generations." Selah.
5. Then heaven will praise your Wonder, O LORD! How much more your faithfulness in the Assembly of the saints!
6. For who in the sky is comparable to Jehovah? He is like Jehovah among the sons of God,
7. a God feared in the council of the holy ones and revered above all those around Him.
8. O Jehovah, God of Hosts! Who is mighty like you, O Jehovah, and your faithfulness around you?
9. You rule over the swelling of the sea; when its waves rise, you calm them.
10. You crushed the Proud One as a defiled thing; with your strong arm, you scattered your enemies.
11. Heaven is yours; the earth is also yours, the world and its fullness. You laid their foundations.
12. The north and the south, you created them. Tabor and Hermon shout with joy at your name.
13. Yours is a mighty arm; your hand is strong; your right hand is exalted.

14. Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne. Lovingkindness and truth go before you.
15. Blessed are the people who know the joyful shout; they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of your countenance!
16. In your name, they will shout with joy all the day, and by your righteousness, they will be exalted!
17. For you are the beauty of His strength, and by your favor our horn will be exalted.
18. For our shield belongs to Jehovah, and our king to the holy One of Israel.
19. You once spoke by a vision to your pious ones, saying, “I have laid help upon a mighty one; I have exalted one chosen from among the people.
20. I have found David my servant. With my holy oil, I have anointed him
21. by whom my authority will be established. My arm will surely strengthen him.
22. No enemy will oppress him, and no wicked man will humble him,
23. but I will crush his adversaries before him, and those who hate him will I strike down.
24. My faithfulness and my lovingkindness are with him, and in my name will his horn be exalted,
25. and I will set his hand in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.
26. He will cry out to me, ‘My Father! You are my God and the rock of my salvation!’
27. Moreover, I will make him my firstborn, higher than the kings of earth.
28. Forever will I continue my lovingkindness toward him, and by him will my covenant be confirmed.
29. And his seed will I preserve forevermore, and his throne as the days of heaven.
30. If his children forsake my law and do not walk according to my judgments,
31. if they profane my statutes and do not keep my commandments,
32. then I will punish their transgression with a rod and their sin with stripes.
33. Nevertheless, I will not withdraw my lovingkindness from him, nor be inconstant with my faithfulness.
34. I will not break my covenant nor alter that which goes out from my lips.
35. Once for all, I have sworn by my holiness, ‘I will damn myself if I lie to David.’¹⁵
36. His seed will forever endure, and his throne as the sun before me.
37. Like the moon, he shall be established forever, a faithful Witness in heaven.” Selah.
38. Oh, but you have cast off and rejected him; you are furious with your Messiah.
39. You have repudiated the covenant of your servant; you have profaned his crown in the dirt.
40. You have broken down all his walls; you have made his strongholds a ruin.
41. All who pass along the way plunder him; he is a reproach to his neighbors.
42. You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries; you made all his enemies rejoice.

¹⁵ Literally, only“ —if I lie to David.” The curse intended with this oath is so unthinkable—God’s own death and damnation—that it is not even uttered. See also, 95:11.

43. You also have taken back the strength of his sword and caused him not to stand in the battle.
44. You made his glory cease and cast his throne to the ground.
45. You shortened the days of his youth. You covered him with shame. Selah.
46. How long, O LORD? Will you hide yourself forever? Your anger burns like fire!
47. Remember me, what the length of my life is! For what vanity have you created all the sons of men?
48. What man lives and does not see death? (He will save his soul from the power of Sheol. Selah.)
49. Where are your mercies of old, my Lord, which you swore to David in your faithfulness?
50. Remember, my Lord, the reproach of your servants. I carry in my bosom all the many peoples
51. whom your enemies have mocked, O Jehovah, whom they mocked in the footsteps of your Messiah.
52. Blessed be Jehovah forever! Amen and amen.

Psalm 90

A prayer of Moses, the man of God.

- ¶1. Lord, you have been our habitation from generation to generation.
2. Before the mountains were brought forth, and before you brought forth the earth and the world, even from eternity to eternity, you are God.
3. You turn man back to dust, and say, “Repent, O sons of man!”
4. (For a thousand years in your sight is like yesterday when it is past, or like a watch in the night.)
5. You sweep them away as with a flood. They are like sleep when morning comes, like grass which passes away.
6. In the morning, it flourishes and sprouts; at evening, it withers and is dried up.
7. For we are consumed by your anger, and we are dismayed by your wrath.
8. You have set our iniquities before you, our secret in the light of your face,
9. and so, all our days pass away because of your fury. We end our years like a sigh.
10. The days of our years are seventy years, but even if by reason of strength they be eighty years, their pride is but toil and trouble. Quickly, it passes, and then, away we fly.
11. Who knows the power of your anger or your wrath to the measure of the fear that is due you?
12. So, teach us to number our days, that we may apply our heart to wisdom.
13. Relent, O LORD! How long? Oh, have pity on your slaves!
14. Let your lovingkindness satisfy us in the morning, and let us sing and rejoice all our days.
15. Make us glad according to the days you afflicted us, and the years we have seen evil.
16. Let your work be known to your servants, and let your glory be upon their children!

17. May the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us. And establish for us the work of our hands. Yea, the work of our hands, establish it!

Psalm 91

- ¶1. He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.
2. I will say to the LORD, "My refuge and my stronghold! My God!" I will trust in Him.
3. He will deliver you from the snare of the fowler, from deadly plagues.
4. He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings will you take refuge. His truth is a shield and buckler.
5. You will not be afraid of terror by night, nor of an arrow flying by day,
6. nor of the pestilence that comes in darkness, nor of destruction that devastates at midday.
7. A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.
8. Only, with your eyes you will look and see the recompense of the wicked.
9. Because you have made the LORD my refuge, the Most High, your habitation,
10. no evil will befall you, nor disease come near your dwelling,
11. for He will give angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways.
12. In their hands will they bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.
13. You will tread on the lion and the adder. You will trample the young lion and the serpent.
14. Because he has loved me, I will deliver him. I will exalt him because he has known my name.
15. He will call on me, and I will answer him. I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him and glorify him.
16. I will satisfy him with long life and show him my salvation.

Psalm 92

A Psalm.

A song for the Sabbath.

- ¶1. It is good to give thanks to Jehovah and to make music to your name, O Most High,
2. to make known your lovingkindness in the morning and your faithfulness every night
3. with a ten-stringed instrument and with a harp, with music on a lyre.
4. For you, O LORD, have made me glad by your creation. I will shout for joy because of the works of your hands.
5. How great are your works, O LORD! Your thoughts are exceedingly deep!
6. A brutish man does not know, neither can a dullard understand this.
7. When the wicked spring up like grass and all the workers of iniquity flourish, it is that they may be destroyed for ever and ever.
8. But you are on high forever, O LORD!

9. For, behold, your enemies, O LORD, yea, behold, your enemies will perish. All workers of iniquity will be scattered.
10. But you will exalt my horn like the aurochs. I shall be anointed with fresh oil,
11. and my eye shall see those who lie in wait for me; when the wicked rise up against me, my ears will hear.
12. A righteous man will shoot up like the palm tree; he will grow like a cedar tree in Lebanon.
13. Plantings in the house of Jehovah, in the courts of our God, will flourish.
14. They will continue bearing fruit in old age; they remain full of sap and green,
15. to show that the LORD, my rock, is upright; yea, in Him is nothing wrong.

Psalm 93

- ¶1. The LORD reigns; He is clothed in majesty. The LORD is clothed with strength; He has girded Himself. Yea, the world is established; it shall not be moved.
2. Your throne has been established from ancient times; you are from everlasting.
3. The floods lifted up, O LORD, the floods lifted up their voice; the floods lifted up their crushing waves.
4. More majestic than the thunderings of many waters, mighty breakers of the sea, is the LORD on high!
5. Your testimonies are very sure. Holiness befits your house, O LORD, for all days to come.

Psalm 94

- ¶1. O God of vengeance! O Jehovah, God of vengeance, shine forth!
2. Rise up, O Judge of the earth! Render a recompense to proud men!
3. How long will wicked men, O LORD, how long will wicked men triumph?
4. They spew out arrogance when they speak; all the workers of iniquity vaunt themselves.
5. They crush your people, O LORD, and they oppress your heritage.
6. Widow and sojourner they kill, and the fatherless they murder,
7. and say, “Jehovah pays it no mind,” and, “The God of Jacob does not consider it.”
8. Understand, you brutish among the people! And you fools, when will you ever understand?
9. He who planted the ear, does He not hear, or formed the eye, does He not see?
10. He who chastens Gentiles, will He not reprove us? He who teaches mankind knowledge,
11. the LORD, knows the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.
12. Blessed is the man whom you chasten, O Jehovah, even him whom you teach by your law,
13. to cause him to rest during evil times until the Pit is dug for the wicked.
14. For the LORD will not abandon His people, nor forsake His heritage.

15. But judgment will return to righteousness; all the upright in heart will follow it.
16. Who will stand up for me against evildoers? Who will take a stand for me against those doing wickedness?
17. If the LORD had not been my help, my soul would have soon dwelt in silence.
18. When I thought my foot had slipped, your lovingkindness, O LORD, was holding me up.
19. In the multitude of my troubled thoughts within me, your consolations delight my soul.
20. Shall a ruler with wicked desires, who frames mischief by statute, be allied with you?
21. They band together against the life of the righteous man and deem the innocent man to be guilty of blood.
22. But Jehovah is my stronghold and my God, a rock of refuge for me,
23. and He will cause their own wickedness to come back on them and will destroy them by means of their own evil. Jehovah our God will destroy them!

Psalm 95

- ¶1. Oh come! Let us sing to the LORD! Let us shout to the Rock of our salvation!
2. Let us come before Him with thanksgiving in songs! Let us shout to Him!
3. For Jehovah is the great God, and a great King over all gods,
4. in whose hand are the deep places of earth, and the mountain peaks are His,
5. whose is the sea, for He made it, and the dry land that His hands formed.
6. Oh come! Let us worship and bow down! Let us kneel before Jehovah our Maker,
7. for He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture, and the flock of His hand.
Today, if you hear His voice,
8. do not harden your hearts as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah, in the wilderness,
9. when your fathers tested me. They put me to the test and saw my work.
10. Forty years, I loathed that generation, and I said, “They are a people whose heart goes astray, and they do not know my ways,”
11. of whom I swore in my wrath, “I will damn myself if they enter into my rest!”

Psalm 96

- ¶1. Sing a new song to the LORD! Sing to the LORD, all the earth!
2. Sing to the LORD! Bless His name! Tell of His salvation from day to day!
3. Declare His glory among the Gentiles, His wonders among all the nations,
4. for the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised. He is to be feared above all gods.
5. All the gods of the nations are just idols, but Jehovah made the heavens.
6. Majesty and splendor are in His presence; strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.
7. Ascribe to the LORD, you families of nations, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength!
8. Ascribe to the LORD the glory of His name! Bring an offering and come into His courts!
9. Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness! Dance before Him, all the earth!
10. Say among the Gentiles, “Jehovah is King! The world shall be established; it shall not be moved. With upright men will He judge the nations.”

11. The heavens will be glad, and the earth will rejoice! The sea and its fullness will thunder!
12. The field and all that is in it will exult, and all the trees of the forest will sing for joy
13. before the LORD when He comes!¹⁶ When He comes to judge the earth, He will judge the world in righteousness, and nations in His truth.

Psalm 97

- ¶1. The LORD reigns! Let the earth rejoice! Let the many coastlands be glad!
2. Clouds and thick darkness surround Him. Righteousness and justice are the foundation of His throne.
3. Fire goes before Him and burns up His adversaries round about.
4. His bolts lit up the world. The earth saw it and trembled.
5. Mountains melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
6. The heavens made his righteousness known, and all the nations saw his glory.
7. All who serve an image, who boast in idols, will be put to shame. Worship Him, all you gods!
8. Zion heard and rejoiced, and the daughters of Judah rejoiced on account of your judgments, O LORD.
9. For you, O LORD, Most High, are over all the earth; you are exalted far above all gods.
10. You who love the LORD, hate evil! He watches over the souls of His pious ones. He will deliver them from the power of evil beings.
11. Light is sown for the righteous man, and joy for those who are upright in heart.
12. Let the righteous rejoice in the LORD, and let them give thanks at the remembrance of His holiness.

Psalm 98

A Psalm.

- ¶1. Sing a new song to the LORD, for He has done wondrous things. His right hand, even his holy arm, has brought Him victory.
2. The LORD is going to make His salvation known! In the sight of the Gentiles, He will reveal His righteousness.
3. He will remember His lovingkindness and His truth toward the house of Israel. All the ends of the earth will see our God's salvation.
4. Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth! Break forth, and sing for joy, and play music!
5. Play music to the LORD with a lyre, with a lyre and a melodious sound!
6. With clarions and the sound of a shofar, make a joyful noise before the King, Jehovah.

¹⁶ Compare vv. 2–13a to 1Chronicles 16:23–33.

7. The sea and its fullness, the world and those who dwell in it, will roar.
8. The rivers will clap hands. Mountains will cry out together for joy
9. before the LORD when He comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world in righteousness, and with upright men will He judge the nations.

Psalm 99

- ¶1. The LORD reigns; let the nations tremble! He dwells between cherubim; let the earth quake!
2. O LORD, your great One is in Zion, and he will be exalted over all the nations.
3. They will praise your great and fearful name. He is holy
4. and powerful, a King who loves justice. You establish even-handed judgment; you work righteousness in Jacob.
5. Exalt the LORD our God and bow down at His footstool! He is holy!
6. Moses and Aaron with His priests, and Samuel with those who call on His name, kept on crying out to the LORD, and He kept on answering them.
7. In a pillar of cloud He spoke to them. They kept His testimonies and the ordinance that He gave them.
8. O LORD our God, you answered them! You were a forgiving God to them, though the Avenger of their evil deeds.
9. Exalt the LORD our God and bow down at His holy mountain, for the LORD our God is holy!

Psalm 100

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

- ¶1. Shout to the LORD, all the earth!
2. Serve the LORD with gladness! Come into His presence with joyful singing!
3. Know that the LORD, He is God! He has made us, and not we ourselves. We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.
4. Enter His gates with thanksgiving, His courts with praise! Give Him thanks, and bless His name,
5. for the LORD is good. His mercy endures forever, and His faithfulness is from generation to generation.

Psalm 101

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. I will sing of mercy and judgment; to you, Jehovah, will I make music.
2. I will act wisely in a perfect way. Oh, when will you come to me? I will walk in my house with a perfect heart.
3. I will set no wicked thing before my eyes. I hate the work of backsliders; it will not cling to me.

4. A perverse heart will depart from me; I will not know an evil person.
5. I will destroy him who slanders his neighbor in secret; him whose eyes are haughty and who has a proud heart, I will not endure.
6. My eyes are on the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me; he who walks in a perfect way will be my minister.
7. The worker of deceit will not dwell in my house; he who speaks lies will not remain in my sight.
8. Morning by morning, I will destroy all evildoers of the land, that I may cut off from the city of the LORD all those who do wickedness.

Psalm 102

A prayer by an afflicted man when he was overwhelmed and began pouring out his complaint before the LORD.

- ¶1. Hear my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry come to you!
2. Do not hide your face from me in the day of my distress! Incline your ear to me; in the day that I call, answer me quickly,
3. for my days are vanished in smoke, and my bones are scorched like an altar-hearth.
4. My heart is struck down like grass and withered; I even forget to eat my food.
5. Because of the voice of my groaning, my bones cleave to my flesh.
6. I am like a pelican in a desert; I have become like an owl in desolate places;
7. I have kept watch, but I am like a bird alone on a rooftop.
8. Every day my enemies taunt me; they make a mockery of me; they utter curses against me
9. while I eat ashes like bread and mix my drink with weeping
10. because of your indignation and your wrath. Though you lifted me up, yet you have cast me away.
11. My days are like a lengthened shadow, and I wither like grass.
12. But you, O LORD, will abide forever, and your memorial is from generation to generation.
13. You will arise; you will have compassion on Zion because the time to show her favor, yea, the appointed time, has come.
14. For your servants take pleasure in her stones and favor her dust.
15. And nations will fear the name of Jehovah, and all the kings of the earth, your glory,
16. for the LORD will rebuild Zion when He appears in His glory.
17. He regarded the prayer of the destitute. Yea, He did not despise their prayer.
18. This is written for a generation to come, so that a people yet to be created will praise Jehovah.
19. For He looked down from the height of His sanctuary; from heaven, the LORD gazed at earth,
20. to hear the groaning of the prisoner, to set free those at the point of death,
21. to declare in Zion the name of Jehovah and His praise in Jerusalem

22. when the peoples and the kingdoms gather together to serve the LORD.
23. He weakened my strength¹⁷ in the way. He shortened my days.
24. When I said, “O my God, don’t offer me up in the midst of my days,” you said, “Your years are throughout all generations.
25. In the beginning, you established the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands.
26. They will perish, but you will continue, and all of them will grow old like a garment. Like clothing will you change them, and they will be changed.
27. But you will remain the same, and your years will have no end.
28. The sons of your servants will dwell, and their seed will be established, in your presence.”

Psalm 103
By David.

- ¶1. Bless the LORD, O my soul! And all that is within me, bless His holy name.
2. Bless the LORD, O my soul, and do not forget all His benefits:
3. He pardons all your iniquities; He heals all your infirmities;
4. He redeems your life from destruction; He surrounds you with lovingkindness and tender mercies;
5. He satisfies your desire with goodness; your youth is renewed like the eagle’s.
6. The LORD performs deeds of righteousness and justice for all the oppressed.
7. He made His ways known to Moses, His acts to the sons of Israel.
8. The LORD is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger and great in lovingkindness.
9. He will not always strive with us, nor will he persist in anger forever.
10. He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor has he recompensed us according to our iniquities.
11. For as heaven is high above the earth, so His lovingkindness prevails for those who fear Him.
12. As east is far from west, He has removed our transgressions far from us.
13. As a father shows compassion on his children, Jehovah shows compassion on those who fear Him.
14. For He knows our frame; He remembers that we are dust.
15. As for man, his days are like the grass; like a flower of the field, he flourishes,
16. and then a wind passes over him, and he is no more, and his place will see him no longer.
17. Yet, from eternity to eternity, the LORD’s lovingkindness continues with those who fear Him, and His righteousness with children’s children,
18. with those who keep His covenant and remember His precepts, to do them.

¹⁷ Or, “his strength”.

19. The LORD established His throne in heaven, and His kingdom reigns over all.
20. Bless the LORD, O His messengers, you mighty men of valor who perform His word, listening for the sound of His word!
21. Bless the LORD, all His hosts, His ministers, who do His pleasure!
22. Bless the LORD, all His works in all places within His domain! O my soul, bless the LORD!

Psalm 104

- ¶1. Bless the LORD, O my soul! O Jehovah, my God, you are greatly to be magnified. You are arrayed in splendor and majesty,
2. wrapped in light like a cloak, you who stretched out the heavens like a curtain;
3. who laid the beams of His chambers in the waters; who made the clouds His chariot; who walks about on wings of the wind;
4. who makes His angels spirits, His ministers, a flaming fire.
5. He established the earth upon its foundations; it will not be moved forever and ever.
6. You covered the deep as with a garment; the waters are standing above mountains.
7. At your rebuke, they fled away; at the sound of your thunder, they took to flight;
8. they went up over the mountains; they went down into the valleys to the place you appointed for them.
9. You set a boundary that they cannot pass over; they will not return to cover the earth.
10. He sends springs into wadis; they flow between mountains;
11. they give drink to all His beasts of the field; wild asses satisfy their thirst;
12. birds of the sky nest above them; they sing among the branches.
13. He waters the mountains from His chambers; the earth is satisfied by the fruit of your labors.
14. He causes grass to spring up for cattle, and plants for the labor of man; He makes bread to come out from the earth;
15. and wine that gladdens man's heart, and oil that makes his face to shine, and bread that sustain man's heart.
16. The trees of the LORD are full, the cedars of Lebanon which He planted,
17. where birds make nests. The stork has her home in the firs.
18. The high mountains are for the mountain goats; rocks are a refuge for the rock badgers.
19. He made the moon for seasons; the sun knows its course.
20. You make darkness, and it is night, in which all of His forest creatures lurk,
21. the young lions roaring for prey as they seek their food from God.
22. When the sun rises, they gather together and lie down in their dens.
23. Man goes out to his work and to his labor until evening.
24. How manifold are your works, O LORD! In wisdom, you made them all. The earth is filled with your riches.

25. So is this sea, great and wide. There is no numbering of the things moving in it, creatures both small and great.
26. There men go on ships, and Leviathan, whom you created to toy with.
27. All of them wait on you to provide their food in due time.
28. You give to them; they gather. You open your hand; they are satisfied with good.
29. You hide your face; they are dismayed. You gather their spirit; they expire and return to the dust.
30. You send out your spirit; they are created, and you renew the face of the earth.
31. The glory of the LORD is forever! Jehovah rejoices in His works.
32. He looks at the earth, and it trembles. He touches the mountains, and they begin to smoke.
33. I will sing to the LORD while I have life. I will make music to my God as long as I live.
34. My meditation on Him is sweet. I rejoice in the LORD.
35. Sinners will be cut off from the earth, and evildoers will be no more. O my soul, bless the LORD! Hallelujah!¹⁸

Psalm 105

- ¶1. Give thanks to the LORD! Call on His name! Make His deeds known among the nations!
2. Sing to Him! Play for Him! Meditate on all His wonders!
3. Glory in His holy name! Let the heart of those who seek the LORD rejoice!
4. Seek the LORD and His strength! Seek His face always!
5. Remember His wondrous works that He has done, His miracles, and the judgments of His mouth!
6. O seed of Abraham, His servant! O sons of Jacob, His chosen ones!
7. He is Jehovah our God! His judgments are in all the earth!
8. He has always remembered His covenant, the word He commanded for a thousand generations,
9. the covenant which He made with Abraham, and His oath to Isaac,
10. and which He confirmed to Jacob as a statute for Israel, an everlasting covenant,
11. saying, “I will give you the land of Canaan as the lot of your inheritance.”
12. When they were few in number, very few, and strangers in it,
13. when they wandered from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people,
14. He suffered no man to oppress them, and He rebuked kings for their sakes, saying,
15. “Do not touch my anointed ones, and do not harm my prophets.”¹⁹
16. He called for a famine upon the land; He broke the whole staff of bread.
17. He sent a man before them, Joseph, who was sold as a slave.
18. They hurt his feet with fetters; his neck was put in irons

¹⁸ “Hallelujah” is a command for people to praise Jehovah. Literally, “Praise Jehovah!”

¹⁹ Compare vv. 1–15 to 1Chronicles 8:22.

19. until the time that His word came. The word of the LORD tried him.
20. A king, yea, a ruler of peoples, sent and released him, and set him free.
21. He made him lord of his house and ruler over all his possessions,
22. that he should bind his princes at his pleasure and teach his elders wisdom.
23. Then Israel came in to Egypt, and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
24. And He made His people very fruitful, and He made them stronger than their enemies.
25. He turned their heart to hate His people, so that they dealt knavishly with His servants.
26. He sent Moses, His servant, and Aaron, whom He chose to be with him.
27. They performed His signs among them, and portents in the land of Ham.
28. He sent darkness, and made it dark, and they did not rebel against His words.
29. He turned their waters into blood and killed their fish.
30. He made their land swarm with frogs, even in the chambers of their kings.
31. He spoke, and a swarm of flies came, and lice throughout their land.
32. He made their rains fiery hail; flames ran throughout their land.
33. He also struck their vines and their fig trees and shattered the trees of their country.
34. He spoke, and a swarm of locusts came, even destroying locusts without number,
35. which ate up all the herbage in their land and devoured the fruit of their ground.
36. Then He struck down every firstborn in their land, the firstfruits of all their vigor.
37. Then He brought them out with silver and gold, and there was not a feeble one among His tribes.
38. Egypt was glad when He took them out, for the dread of them had fallen upon them.
39. He spread out a cloud for a cover, and a fire to give light by night.
40. Moses asked, and He brought quail, and satisfied them with food from heaven.
41. He opened a rock, and waters gushed out; they ran like a river in the dry places.
42. When He remembered His holy covenant with Abraham His servant,
43. He brought His people out with joy, His chosen ones with singing.
44. And He gave them lands of nations, and they took possession of other peoples' labor,
45. so that they might observe His statutes and keep His laws. Hallelujah!

Psalm 106

- ¶1. Hallelujah! Give thanks to Jehovah, for He is good, for His mercy endures forever.
2. Who can tell the mighty deeds of the LORD or proclaim all His praise?
3. Blessed are they who keep judgment, and he who does righteousness at all times.
4. Remember me, O LORD, with the favor you show your people. Visit me with your salvation,
5. that I may see the happiness of those you have chosen, that I may rejoice in the joy of your nation, that I may glory with your inheritance.
6. We have sinned, along with our fathers; we have done iniquity; we have done wickedness.

7. In Egypt, our fathers did not understand your wonders, nor did they remember the abundance of your mercies, but they rebelled by the sea, even the Red Sea.
8. Nevertheless, He saved them for His name's sake, to make His mighty power known.
9. Yea, He rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried up, and then He led them through the depths as through a desert.
10. He saved them from the hand of the foe and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
11. Yea, the waters covered their adversaries; not one of them was left.
12. Then they believed His words; they began singing His praise.
13. They quickly forgot His works; they did not wait for His counsel.
14. They lusted greatly in the wilderness and tested God in the desert,
15. and so, He gave them what they asked for, but He sent leanness into their souls.
16. Then they envied Moses in the camp, and Aaron, the LORD's holy one.
17. The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and it covered over the congregation of Abiram.
18. A fire also engulfed their associates; the flame burned up the wicked.
19. They made a calf in Horeb; yea, they bowed down to a molten image
20. and exchanged their glory for an image of an ox that eats grass.
21. They forgot God, their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt,
22. wonders in the land of Ham, terrible deeds by the Red Sea.
23. Then He said that He would destroy them; however, Moses, His chosen, stood in the breach before Him to turn His wrath away from destroying them.
24. Then they refused the good land; they did not believe His word,
25. but murmured in their tents; they did not obey the voice of the LORD.
26. Therefore, He swore to them that He would make them fall in the wilderness.
27. Then He made their seed to fall among the nations, and He sifted them in foreign lands.
28. And yet, they joined themselves to Baal at Peor and ate the sacrifices of the dead.
29. They provoked God to anger with their deeds, and a plague broke out among them.
30. But Phinehas stood up and intervened, and the plague was stayed,
31. and it was imputed to him for righteousness from generation to generation, and forever.
32. They also provoked God at the waters of Meribah, and it went badly for Moses because of them,
33. for they embittered his spirit, and he spoke rashly with his lips.
34. They did not destroy the Gentiles as the LORD had commanded them,
35. but they mixed themselves with the heathen and learned their works,
36. and they served their idols, which became a snare to them.
37. They even sacrificed their sons and daughters to demons
38. and shed innocent blood—the blood of their own sons and their daughters whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan, and the land was defiled with the blood.
39. Yea, they were defiled by their works, and played the harlot with their deeds.

40. Then the anger of the LORD burned hot against His people, and He made His inheritance an abomination.
41. Yea, He gave them into the hand of the Gentiles, and those that hated them ruled over them,
42. and their enemies oppressed them, and they were humbled under their hand.
43. Many times, He delivered them, but they provoked Him with their counsel and were brought low by their iniquity.
44. Nevertheless, He looked on their distress when He heard their cry,
45. and for their sake, He remembered His covenant and relented according to the abundance of His lovingkindness,
46. and He made them objects of pity before all those who had taken them captive.
47. Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the nations so that we may give thanks to your holy name and boast in your praise.
48. Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting! And let all the people say, "Amen! Hallelujah!"

Psalm 107

- ¶1. O give thanks to the LORD for He is good, for His mercy endures forever.
2. The redeemed of the LORD will speak, those whom He has redeemed from the hand of the Adversary,
3. and gathered out of the countries, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.
4. They wandered in the wilderness on a desert path; no city for habitation did they find.
5. Hungry and thirsty, their souls fainted within them.
6. Then, in their trouble, when they cried out to the LORD, He delivered them out of their distresses
7. and led them on a straight path that they might go to a city for habitation.
8. Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness and His wondrous works to the children of men!
9. For He satisfies the thirsty soul, and the hungry soul, He fills with good.
10. Those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, prisoners of affliction and iron,
11. because they rebelled against the words of God and spurned the counsel of the Most High,
12. their hearts, too, He humbled with toil; they stumbled, and there was no helper.
13. Then, in their trouble, when they cried out to the LORD, He saved them out of their distresses.
14. He brought them out of the darkness and shadow of death, and tore off their bonds.
15. Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness and His wondrous works to the children of men!
16. For He has shattered the gates of brass and has cut the iron bars in two.

17. Being foolish, they were afflicted because of their rebellious way and because of their iniquities.
18. Their soul abhorred all food, and they drew near to the gates of death.
19. Then, in their trouble, when they cried out to the LORD, He saved them out of their distresses.
20. He sent His word and healed them, and delivered them from their pits.
21. Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness and His wondrous works to the children of men!
22. Then, they began offering sacrifices of thanksgiving and declaring His works with a joyful shout.
23. As for those who go down to the sea in ships, doing their business in great waters,
24. they see the works of Jehovah and His wonders in the deep.
25. For He speaks and causes a tempest to rise, and it lifts up His waves.
26. They mount up to heaven; they go down to the depths. Their soul melts by reason of their calamity.
27. They reel and they stagger like a drunk man, and all their skill is useless.
28. Then, in their trouble, when they cry out to the LORD, He brings them out of their distresses.
29. He turns the storm-wind into a whisper, and their waves are stilled.
30. Then are they glad because they are quieted, and He brings them to their desired haven.
31. Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness and His wondrous works to the children of men!
32. Let them exalt Him in the Assembly of the people and praise Him in the council of elders.
33. He makes rivers into a desert and springs of water into thirsty ground,
34. a fruitful land into a salty waste because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
35. He turns a desert into a pool of water and parched land into springs of water,
36. and causes the hungry to dwell there, and they establish a city to inhabit,
37. and sow fields, and plant vineyards, and produce a fruitful harvest.
38. And He blesses them, and they multiply greatly, and He does not cause their cattle to decrease.
39. But they are diminished and bowed down through oppression, affliction, and sorrow
40. when He pours out contempt on nobles and causes them to wander about in confusion, without a way.
41. Then He sets the needy man on high, far from affliction, and makes their families like a flock.
42. The upright will see and be glad, and all iniquity will shut its mouth.
43. Who is wise and keeps these things will also understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.

Psalm 108

A song.

A Psalm by David

- ¶1. My heart is fixed, O God! Yea, O my Glory, I will sing and make music!
2. Awake the harp and lyre! I will awake the dawn.
3. I will give you thanks among the nations, O Jehovah, and sing you praise among the peoples,
4. for your lovingkindness is higher than heaven, and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
5. Be exalted above heaven, O God, and let your glory be over all the earth!
6. That the ones you love may be delivered, save with your right hand and answer me!
7. God has spoken in His holiness, “I will exult; I will apportion Shechem and mete out the Valley of Succoth.
8. Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; and Ephraim is a shelter for my head. Judah is my law-giver.
9. Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast my shoe. I will shout in triumph because of Philistia.”
10. Who will escort me to the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?
11. O God, have you not rejected us? For you do not go out, O God, with our armies.
12. Give us help against the adversary, for salvation through man is vain!
13. Through God shall we do valiantly, and He Himself shall trample our adversaries.

Psalm 109

For the chief musician.

A Psalm by David

- ¶1. O God of my praise, do not be silent!
2. For the mouth of a wicked man and a mouth of deceit are opened against me; they speak of me with a tongue of falsehood.
3. They also surround me with words of hatred, and they make war against me without cause.
4. In return for my love, they become my adversaries. But I give myself to prayer.
5. They have repaid me evil for good, and hatred for my love.
6. Set a wicked man over him, and let Satan stand at his right hand!
7. When he is judged, let him come forth guilty! Let his prayer be accounted sin!
8. Let his days be few, and let another take his office.
9. Let his children be orphans, and his wife a widow.
10. Let his children always be vagabonds, and beg. Let them seek food from their waste places.
11. Let the creditor seize all that he owns, and let strangers plunder his property.
12. Let no one show him kindness; nor let anyone provide for his orphans.
13. Let his posterity be cut off; in the generation following, let their name be wiped out.
14. Let the wickedness of his fathers be remembered by the LORD, and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

15. Let them be before the LORD continually; let Him cut off their memory from the earth
16. because that he did not remember to show mercy, but followed after the poor and needy and downhearted man until he died.
17. Since he loved cursing, let it come to him. And since he took no pleasure in blessing, let it be far from him.
18. Yea, he wore cursing like his garment; so, let it enter like water into his inner parts and like oil into his bones.
19. Let it be to him like a garment that wraps about him, and a girdle with which he is girded continually.
20. Let this be the reward of my adversaries from Jehovah, and of those who speak evil against my soul!
21. But you, O Jehovah my Lord, deal mercifully with me for your name's sake, for your lovingkindness is good. Oh, deliver me!
22. For I am poor and needy, and my heart is pierced within me.
23. Like a lengthening shadow, I am passing away. I am shaken off like a locust.
24. My knees stagger because of fasting, and my flesh is void of fatness.
25. Nevertheless, I have become a joke to them; they see me and shake their head.
26. Help me, O LORD, my God! Save me according to your lovingkindness!
27. Yet, they will know that this is your hand, that you, O LORD, did it!
28. They curse, but you will bless! They have risen up, but they will be put to shame, and your servant will rejoice.
29. My accusers will be clothed with dishonor, and they will wrap themselves with their own shame as with a robe.
30. I will praise Jehovah greatly with my mouth; yea, in the midst of many people will I praise Him,
31. for He stands at the right hand of the needy, to save him from those who condemn his soul.

Psalm 110
A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. The LORD said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool.”
2. The LORD will send forth the rod of your strength from Zion. Rule in the midst of your enemies!
3. Your people will be willing in the day of your power. In beauties of holiness, from the womb of the morning, you have had the dew of your youth.
4. The LORD has sworn, and will not repent, “You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.”
5. My Lord is at your right hand; in the day of his wrath, he will strike through kings.
6. He will execute judgment among the nations; he will fill them with dead bodies; he will strike through the head of the vast earth.

7. He drinks from the brook along the way; therefore, He will exalt his head.

Psalm 111

- ¶1. Hallelujah! I will give thanks to the LORD with all my heart in the company of the upright, even the congregation.
- 2. Great are the works of the LORD, sought out by all who delight in them.
- 3. His work is majestic and honorable, and His righteousness endures forever.
- 4. He has made His wondrous works to be remembered. The LORD is gracious and compassionate.
- 5. He has given sustenance to those who fear Him. He is ever mindful of His covenant.
- 6. He has shown the power of His works to His people, that He might give them the heritage of the nations.
- 7. The works of His hands are truth and judgment; all His precepts are sure,
- 8. upheld always and forever, having been created in truth and uprightness.
- 9. He has sent a ransom for His people; He has commanded His covenant forever. Holy and reverend is His name.
- 10. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom. A good understanding have all who do them. His praise endures forever.

Psalm 112

- ¶1. Hallelujah! Blessed is the man who fears the LORD; he takes great delight in His commandments.
- 2. His seed will be mighty in the earth; the generation of upright men will be blessed.
- 3. Wealth and riches are in his house, and his righteousness endures forever.
- 4. Light arises in the darkness for upright men, for God is gracious, and compassionate, and righteous.
- 5. A good man is generous and lends; he handles his affairs justly.
- 6. Because he is never moved, the righteous man will be remembered forever.
- 7. He does not fear an evil report; his heart is fixed, trusting in Jehovah.
- 8. His heart is at rest; he is not afraid even when he sees his adversaries.
- 9. He has dispersed; he has given to the needy. His righteousness endures forever; his horn will be exalted in glory.
- 10. The wicked man will see it and be vexed; he will grind his teeth and melt away. The desire of wicked men will perish.

Psalm 113

- ¶1. Hallelujah! Give praise, O servants of the LORD! Give praise to the name of the LORD!
- 2. Let the name of the LORD be blessed from this time forth and for evermore!
- 3. From the rising of the sun to its going down, the name of the LORD is to be praised.
- 4. The LORD is high above all nations. His glory is above the heavens.

5. Who is like the LORD our God, who makes His home on high?
6. He abases Himself to look at what is in heaven as well as on the earth!
7. He raises up the poor man from the dust; He exalts the needy man out of the dunghill,
8. to make him to sit with princes, even the princes of His people.
9. He makes the barren woman to keep house and to be a joyful mother of children.
Hallelujah!

Psalm 114

- ¶1. When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of a strange tongue,
 2. Judah was His sanctuary; Israel, His realm.
 3. The sea saw him and fled; the Jordan turned back;
 4. the mountains skipped about like rams; the hills, like lambs.
 5. What's wrong with you, O sea, that you fled? O Jordan, that you turned back?
 6. O mountains, that you skipped about like rams? O hills, like lambs?
 7. Writhe in anguish, O land, before the Lord, before the God of Jacob,
 8. who turned the rock into a pool of water, the flint into His water-fountain.

Psalm 115

- ¶1. Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to your name give glory, for the sake of your lovingkindness and your faithfulness.
 2. Why do the Gentiles say, "Where, pray tell, is their God?"
 3. But our God is in heaven. He has done whatsoever He pleased.
 4. Their idols are silver and gold, the work of man's hands.
 5. They have mouths, but they do not speak; they have eyes, but they do not see;
 6. they have ears, but they do not hear; they have noses, but they cannot smell;
 7. hands, but do not feel; feet, but do not walk, nor do they make a sound with their throat.
 8. Those who make them become like them, as does everyone who trusts in them.
 9. Let Israel trust in Jehovah! He is their strength and their shield.
 10. Let the house of Aaron trust in Jehovah! He is their strength and their shield.
 11. Let those who fear Jehovah trust in Jehovah! He is their strength and their shield.
 12. Jehovah is mindful of us. He will surely bless the house of Israel. He will bless the house of Aaron.
 13. He will bless you who fear Jehovah, the small along with the great.
 14. May the LORD increase you, you and your children.
 15. May you be blessed by the LORD, Maker of heaven and earth.
 16. The heaven of heaven is the LORD's, but the earth, He has given to the sons of man.
 17. The dead do not praise Jehovah, nor any who go down to silence,
 18. but as for us, we will bless Jehovah from this time and for evermore. Hallelujah!

Psalm 116

- ¶1. I love the LORD, for He has heard the voice of my supplications.
2. Because He has inclined His ear to me, I will call on Him all my days.
3. The snares of death encompassed me; the confines of Sheol found me. I found distress and sorrow.
4. Then I called on the name of the LORD, “O LORD, I beg you, deliver me!”
5. The LORD is gracious and righteous, and our God is merciful.
6. Jehovah watches over the simple; I was brought low, but He saved me.
7. Return, O my soul, to your resting place, for the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.
8. Because you have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling,
9. I will walk before the LORD in the world of the living.
10. I have believed. Because I speak, I am greatly afflicted.
11. I said in my haste, “Every man is a liar.”
12. How can I repay the LORD for all His benefits to me?
13. I will take the cup of salvation and call on the name of the LORD.
14. I will pay my vows to the LORD! O that it may be in the presence of all His people.
15. Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of His saints.
16. I entreat you, O LORD, because I am your servant. I am your servant, the son of your handmaid. You have loosed my bonds.
17. I will offer to you a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and on the name of the LORD will I call.
18. I will pay my vows to the LORD! O that it may be in the presence of all His people.
19. in the courts of the house of the LORD in your midst, O Jerusalem! Hallelujah!

Psalm 117

- ¶1. Let all nations praise the LORD! Let all peoples laud Him!
2. For His lovingkindness is great toward us; and the LORD’s truth is eternal. Hallelujah!

Psalm 118

- ¶1. O give thanks to the LORD, for He is good, for His mercy endures forever.
2. Let Israel now say, “Truly, His mercy endures forever!”
3. Let the house of Aaron now say, “Truly, His mercy endures forever!”
4. Let the GOD-fearers now say, “Truly, His mercy endures forever!”
5. In desperate straits, I called on Jehovah. Jehovah answered me abundantly.
6. The LORD is for me; I will not be afraid of what man will do to me.
7. The LORD is for me and my helpers, but I will look on those who hate me.
8. It is better to take refuge in the LORD than to trust in man.
9. It is better to take refuge in the LORD than to trust in princes.
10. All nations surrounded me; in the name of the LORD will I circumcise them.

11. They surrounded me; yea, they were all about me! In the name of the LORD will I circumcise them.
12. They surrounded me like bees; they were extinguished like a fire among thorns. In the name of the LORD will I circumcise them.
13. You pushed me hard, that I might fall, but the LORD helped me.
14. Jehovah is my strength and song, and He has become my salvation.
15. The sound of joy and salvation is in the tents of righteous people. The right hand of the LORD has done valiantly.
16. The right hand of the LORD is exalted. The right hand of the LORD has done valiantly.
17. I will not die, but live and declare the works of Jehovah.
18. Jehovah has chastened me sore, but He has not given me over to death.
19. Open for me the gates of righteousness! I will enter in through them; I will praise Jehovah.
20. This is the gate of the LORD. Righteous people will enter in by it.
21. I will give you thanks because you heard me, and you were my salvation.
22. The Stone that the builders rejected has become the head of the corner.
23. This is from the LORD; it is astonishing in our eyes.
24. This is the day that the LORD has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.
25. O LORD! Save us, I pray! I pray, O LORD, make us to prosper!
26. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD! We bless you from the house of the LORD.
27. The LORD is God, and He has given us light. Let them bind the festal sacrifice to the horns of the altar with cords.
28. You are my God, and I will give you thanks. O my God, I will lift you high.
29. O give thanks to the LORD, for He is good, for His mercy endures forever.

Psalm 119

Aleph

- ¶1. Blessed are the perfect in the way, who walk in the law of the LORD.
2. Blessed are they who keep His testimonies; they seek Him with the whole heart.
3. Yea, they do no wrong; they walk in His ways.
4. You have commanded your precepts to be diligently kept.
5. Oh, that my ways were established, that I might keep your statutes!
6. When I have regard to all your commandments, then will I not be ashamed.
7. I will praise you with an upright heart when I have learned your righteous judgments.
8. I keep your statutes. Do not utterly forsake me.

Bet

- ¶9. With what shall a young man cleanse his way, that he might live according to your word?
10. With all my heart have I sought you. Oh, do not cause me to stray from your commandments!

11. I have hidden your word within my heart so that I will not sin against you.
12. Blessed are you, O LORD! Teach me your statutes.
13. I have declared with my lips all the judgments of your mouth.
14. I rejoice in the way of your testimonies as much as in all riches.
15. I meditate on your precepts and consider your ways.
16. I delight myself in your statutes. I do not forget your word.

Gimel

- ¶17. Deal bountifully with your servant. Let me live and keep your word!
18. Open my eyes that I might see wondrous things from your law.
19. I am an alien in this world. Oh, do not hide your commandments from me!
20. My soul aches all the time with longing for your judgments.
21. You rebuke the arrogant; they are cursed who stray from your commandments.
22. Take reproach and contempt away from me, for I have kept your testimonies.
23. Though rulers assemble and speak against me, your servant meditates on your statutes.
24. Yea, your testimonies are my delight; they are my counsellors.

Dalet

- ¶25. My soul cleaves to the dust. Restore me to life, according to your word!
26. I confessed my ways, and you answered me. Teach me your statutes.
27. Make me to understand the way of your precepts, and I will meditate upon your wonders.
28. My soul weeps for sadness. Bear me witness, according to your word.
29. Turn the way of deceitfulness away from me, and favor me with your law.
30. I have chosen the way of truth; your judgments have I set before me.
31. I cling to your testimonies. O LORD, do not put me to shame!
32. I run the way of your commandments, for you have opened wide my heart.

He

- ¶33. Teach me, O LORD, the way of your statutes, and I will keep it to the end.
34. Give me understanding, that I might keep your law, and I will observe it with my whole heart.
35. Lead me in the pathway of your commandments, for I delight in it.
36. Incline my heart to your testimonies, and not to unjust gain.
37. Turn my eyes away from beholding vanity. Make me alive in your ways.
38. Confirm your word to your servant, who is devoted to your fear.
39. Take away my reproach, which I dread, for your judgments are good.
40. Behold, I have longed for your precepts! Make me alive in your righteousness!

Waw

- ¶41. Let your mercies come to me, O LORD, even your salvation, according to your word.
42. Then will I answer the talk of him who reproaches me, for I trust in your word.

43. Do not remove the word of truth altogether out of my mouth, for I wait for your judgments.
 44. So will I keep your law always, forever and ever,
 45. and live in liberty, for I have sought your precepts,
 46. and declare your testimonies before kings and not be ashamed,
 47. and greatly delight in your commandments, which I love,
 48. and lift up my hands to your commandments, which I love, and meditate on your statutes.

Zayin

- ¶49. Remember the word to your servant, upon which you have made me hope.
 50. This is my comfort in my distress, for your word has given me life.
 51. The proud derided me greatly, but I did not turn aside from your law.
 52. I remembered your judgments from old, O LORD, and comforted myself.
 53. Hot indignation took hold of me when the wicked forsook your law.
 54. Your statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage.
 55. I remembered your name in the night, O LORD, and I gave heed to your law.
 56. This was my lot because I kept your precepts.

Heth

- ¶57. My portion is the LORD; I said that I will heed your words.
 58. With all my heart have I sought your face. Be merciful to me, according to your word.
 59. I considered my ways, and I turned my feet toward your testimonies.
 60. I made haste; I did not hesitate to keep your commandments.
 61. Cords of the wicked wrapped around me, but I did not forget your law.
 62. In the middle of the night, I rise to praise you for your righteous judgments.
 63. I am a friend to all who fear you, those who keep your precepts.
 64. Your lovingkindness, O LORD, has filled the earth. Oh, teach me your statutes!

Teth

- ¶65. You have dealt well with your servant, O LORD, according to your word.
 66. Teach me goodness, discernment, and knowledge, for I have trusted in your commandments.
 67. Before I was afflicted, I was going astray, but now, I give heed to your word.
 68. You are good, and you do good. Teach me your statutes.
 69. The proud smeared me with a lie, but I keep your precepts with all my heart.
 70. Their heart has become gross, like fat, but I delight in your law.
 71. It is good for me that I have been afflicted, that I might learn your statutes.
 72. The law of your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver.

Yod

- ¶73. Your hands created and fashioned me. Give me understanding, that I might learn your commandments.

74. Those who fear you will see me and be glad, for I have waited for your word.
 75. I know, O LORD, that your judgments are right and that in faithfulness, you have afflicted me.
 76. Let your lovingkindness be there to comfort me, according to your word to your servant.
 77. Let your comforts come to me, that I might live, for your law is my great delight.
 78. Let the proud be put to shame, for they have deceitfully subverted me, but I meditate on your precepts.
 79. Let those who fear you turn to me, and they will know your testimonies.
 80. Let my heart be perfect in your statutes, so that I will not be put to shame.

Kaph

- ¶81. My soul longs for your salvation. I wait for your word.
 82. My eyes fail for your word, saying, “When will you comfort me?”
 83. Though I am become like a wineskin in smoke, I have not forgotten your statutes.
 84. How many are the days of your servant? When will you execute judgment against my persecutors?
 85. The proud have dug pits for me, which is not according to your law.
 86. All your commandments are sure. They have persecuted me wrongfully. Oh, help me!
 87. They almost made an end of me on earth, but I did not forsake your precepts.
 88. According to your lovingkindness, give me life, and I will keep the testimonies of your mouth.

Lamed

- ¶89. Forever, O LORD, your word stands firm in heaven.
 90. Your faithfulness endures to all generations; you established the earth, and it stands fast.
 91. They have continued to this day because of your judgments, for all are your servants.
 92. Had not your law been my delight, I would have perished in my affliction.
 93. I never forget your precepts, for by them, you have given me life.
 94. I am yours! Save me! For I have sought your precepts.
 95. The wicked lie in wait for me, to destroy me, but I contemplate your testimonies.
 96. I have seen an end to all perfection. Your commandment is very broad.

Mem

- ¶97. How I love your law! It is my meditation all the day.
 98. Your commandment makes me wiser than my enemies. It is mine forever!
 99. I have more understanding than all my teachers, for your testimonies are my meditation.
 100. I have more understanding than the elders, for I have kept your statutes.
 101. I have withheld my feet from every evil way so that I might keep your word.
 102. I do not turn away from your judgments, for you have taught me.
 103. How sweet to my taste is your word, sweeter than honey to my mouth!
 104. Through your precepts, I get understanding; therefore, I hate every false way.

Nun

- ¶105. Your word is a lamp to my foot, a light to my path.
 106. I took an oath, and I have performed it, to keep your righteous judgments.
 107. I am sorely afflicted. O LORD, let me live, according to your word!
 108. O LORD, accept, I pray, the freewill offerings of my mouth, and teach me your judgments.
 109. My life is continually in my hand, yet I do not forget your law.
 110. The wicked have laid a snare for me, yet I do not stray from your precepts.
 111. I have taken your testimonies as my eternal heritage, for they are the joy of my heart.
 112. I have inclined my heart to do your statutes forever, even to the end.

Samek

- ¶113. I hate divisions. But I love your law.
 114. You are my hiding place and my shield; I wait for your word.
 115. Depart from me, you evildoers, that I may keep the commandments of my God.
 116. Uphold me, according to your word, that I might live. O let me not be disappointed in my hope!
 117. Hold me up, and I will be saved and will always regard your statutes.
 118. You spurn all who go astray from your statutes; truly, their treachery is in vain.
 119. You will discard the dross, all the wicked of earth; therefore, I love your testimonies.
 120. My flesh bristles up in fear of you; I am afraid of your judgments.

Ayin

- ¶121. I have done justice and righteousness. Do not leave me to my oppressors.
 122. Be surety for your servant for good. Do not let the proud oppress me.
 123. My eyes fail with watching for your salvation and for your righteous word.
 124. Deal with your servant according to your lovingkindness, and teach me your statutes.
 125. I am your servant. Give me understanding, that I might know your testimonies.
 126. It is time for the LORD to work. They have made your law of no effect.
 127. Nevertheless, I love your commandments more than refined gold.
 128. Therefore, I esteem all your precepts concerning all things to be right. I hate every false way.

Pe

- ¶129. Your testimonies are wondrous; therefore, my soul keeps them.
 130. The entrance of your words gives light, making wise the simple.
 131. I opened my mouth and panted because I longed for your commandments.
 132. Turn to me and show me favor, as is right for those who love your name.
 133. Establish my footsteps with your word, and let no iniquity have dominion over me.
 134. Redeem me from the oppression of man, that I might keep your precepts.
 135. Make your face to shine upon your servant, and teach me your statutes.
 136. Rivers of water run down my eyes because they do not keep your law.

Tsade

- ¶137. You are righteous, O LORD, and your judgments are right.
 138. You commanded your testimonies in righteousness and in perfect faithfulness.
 139. My zeal has consumed me because my adversaries have forgotten your word.
 140. Your word is very pure, and your servant loves it.
 141. I am insignificant and despised, but I do not forget your precepts.
 142. Your righteousness is an eternal righteousness, and your law is truth.
 143. Trouble and distress have found me, yet your commandments are my great delight.
 144. The righteousness of your testimonies is eternal. Give me understanding, that I might live.

Koph

- ¶145. I cried out with my whole heart. Answer me, O LORD! I will keep your statutes.
 146. I have called upon you. Save me, and I will keep your testimonies.
 147. Even before dawn, I cry out for help. I wait upon your word.
 148. My eyes anticipate the night-watches, that I might meditate on your word.
 149. In your lovingkindness, hear my voice, O LORD, and in your justice, give me life.
 150. They who pursue wickedness have drawn near; they are far from your law.
 151. You are near, O LORD, and all your commandments are truth.
 152. Of old have I known from your testimonies that you established them forever.

Resh

- ¶153. See my affliction and deliver me, for I do not forget your law.
 154. Plead my cause and redeem me. According to your word, give me life.
 155. Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek your statutes.
 156. Your compassions are many, O LORD. According to your judgments, give me life.
 157. My persecutors and adversaries are many, yet I have not strayed from your testimonies.
 158. I saw treacherous men, and I was disgusted because they do not keep your word.
 159. Consider how I love your precepts, O LORD. According to your lovingkindness, give me life.
 160. The sum of your word is truth, and every judgment of yours is eternally righteous.

Shin

- ¶161. Princes persecute me without cause, but my heart is in awe of your word.
 162. I rejoice at your word like one who comes upon great spoil.
 163. I hate and abhor a lie. Your law do I love.
 164. Seven times a day do I praise you for your righteous judgments.
 165. Great peace have they who love your law; yea, nothing can offend them.
 166. I have waited for your salvation, O LORD, and I have done your commandments.
 167. My soul has kept your testimonies, and I love them deeply.
 168. I keep your precepts and your testimonies, for all my ways are before you.

Tau

- ¶169. O LORD, let my cry come before you! Give me understanding, according to your word.
170. Let my supplication come before you. Deliver me, according to your word!
171. My lips pour forth praise because you teach me your statutes.
172. My tongue testifies of your word, for all your commandments are righteous.
173. Your hand is ready to help me because I have chosen your precepts.
174. I long for your salvation, O LORD, and your law is my great delight.
175. My soul lives to praise you, and your judgments sustain me.
176. I have gone astray like a lost sheep. Seek out your servant, for I do not forget your commandments.

Psalm 120

A song for the ascents.

- ¶1. In my distress, I cried out to the LORD, and He answered me.
2. O LORD, deliver my soul from lying lips and from the deceitful tongue!
3. What shall be given you, or what more shall be done for you, O deceitful tongue?
4. Arrows of a mighty man, sharpened with glowing coals of junipers.²⁰
5. Woe to me, that I live as a stranger in Meshech, that I dwell among the tents of Kedar!
6. My soul has long had its dwelling with him who hates peace.
7. I am for peace, and yet, when I speak, they are for war.

Psalm 121

A song for the ascents.

- ¶1. I lift up my eyes to the hills. From where does my help come?
2. My help comes from the LORD, who made heaven and earth.
3. He will not allow your foot to slip; He who keeps you does not sleep.
4. Behold, He who keeps Israel neither sleeps nor slumbers.
5. The LORD is your keeper. O LORD, your Shadow is at your right hand!
6. The sun will not come down on you by day, nor moon by night.
7. The LORD will keep you from all evil; He will keep your soul.
8. The LORD will watch over your going out and your coming in, from this time forth and for evermore.

Psalm 122

A song for the ascents.By David.

- ¶1. I was glad when they said to me, “Let’s go to the house of the LORD!”

²⁰ Hebrew uncertain.

2. Our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem—
3. Jerusalem which is built as a city tightly joined together,
4. to which the tribes ascend, the tribes of Jehovah, to Israel's testimony, to give thanks to the name of the LORD,
5. for there sit the thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David.
6. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem! They will find rest who love you.
7. Peace is within your fortress, and quietness is within your palaces.
8. For the sake of my brothers and my friends, I will now say, "Peace be to you!"
9. For the sake of the house of the LORD our God, I will seek your good.

Psalm 123

A song for the ascents.

- ¶1. To you who dwells in the heavens do I lift up my eyes.
2. Indeed, as the eyes of slaves look to the hand of their masters, as the eyes of a maid-servant look to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the LORD our God until He has mercy upon us.
3. Have mercy upon us, O LORD! Have mercy upon us, for we are overwhelmed with contempt.
4. Our soul is overwhelmed with the derision of those who are at ease and the contempt of those who are proud.

Psalm 124

A song for the ascents.

By David.

- ¶1. Had it not been the LORD who was for us—let Israel now say,
2. "Had not the LORD been for us when man came up against us,
3. they would have swallowed us up alive when their anger was kindled against us;
4. the waters would have swept us away; the river would have gone over our soul;
5. the raging waters would have gone over our soul."
6. Blessed be Jehovah, who has not given us as prey to their teeth.
7. Our soul is like a bird that has escaped from the snare of the fowlers. The snare is shattered, and we are escaped.
8. Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

A song for the ascents.

- ¶1. Those who trust in Jehovah are like Mount Zion. It cannot be shaken; it abides forever.
2. O Jerusalem! The mountains are around her, and Jehovah is around His people from this time forth and for evermore,

3. for the scepter of the Wicked One shall not come to rest on the lot of the righteous, lest the righteous put forth their hands to wrongdoing.
4. Do good, O LORD, to those who are good, and to those who are upright in their hearts.
5. As for those who turn aside to their crooked ways, the LORD will lead them away with workers of iniquity. Peace be upon Israel!

Psalm 126

A song for the ascents.

- ¶1. When the LORD returns the captivity of Zion, we will be like those who dream.
2. Then will our mouth be filled with laughter, and our tongue, with shouts of joy. Then, they will say among the Gentiles, “Jehovah has done great things for them!”
3. The LORD will have done great things for us! We will rejoice!
4. Return, O LORD, our captivity, like streams in the Negev.
5. Those who sow in tears shall reap with shouts of joy!
6. He who goes out weeping, bearing select seed, will doubtless come in rejoicing, bearing his sheaves.

Psalm 127

A song for the ascents.

By Solomon.

- ¶1. If the LORD does not build a house, they labor in vain who build it. If the LORD does not keep a city, the watchman watches in vain.
2. It is vain for you to rise early or to go late to rest, eating the bread of labors, for He gives His beloved sleep.
3. Behold, children are a heritage from the LORD, the fruit of the womb, a reward.
4. Like arrows in the hand of a mighty man, so are the children of young men.
5. Happy is the man whose quiver is full of them. They will not be put to shame when they speak with enemies in the gate.

Psalm 128

A song for the ascents.

- ¶1. Blessed are all they who fear Jehovah, who walk in His ways,
2. for you will eat the labor of your hands. You will be very happy, and it will be well with you.
3. Your wife will be like a fruit-bearing vine within your house; your children, like olive shoots around your table.
4. Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears Jehovah.
5. May the LORD bless you from Zion, and may you see prosperity in Jerusalem all the days of your life,
6. and may you see your children's children. Peace be upon Israel!

Psalm 129
A song for the ascents.

- ¶1. Often have they afflicted me from my youth. Let Israel now say,
- 2. “Often have they afflicted me from my youth, yet they have not prevailed against me.
- 3. Plowmen plowed my back; they made their furrows long.”
- 4. Jehovah is righteous; He has cut the cords of wicked men.
- 5. All who hate Zion will be put to shame and turned back;
- 6. they will be like the grass on housetops that withers before it is grown,
- 7. with which the reaper does not fill his hand, nor the binder his bosom.
- 8. Nor do they who pass by say, “The blessing of the LORD be with you. We bless you in the name of the LORD.”

Psalm 130
A song for the ascents.

- ¶1. From the depths, I cried to you, O Jehovah!
- 2. My Lord, hear my voice! Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications!
- 3. O Jehovah, my Lord, were you to mark iniquities, who could stand?
- 4. But with you is forgiveness, that you might be feared.
- 5. I waited earnestly for Jehovah; my soul waited, and I hoped for His word.
- 6. My soul longed for the Lord more than those who watch for the morning; yea, more than those who watch for the morning.
- 7. Wait, O Israel, on the LORD, for with the LORD is lovingkindness, and with Him is a great Ransom,
- 8. and he will ransom Israel from all his iniquities.

Psalm 131
A song for the ascents.
By David.

- ¶1. LORD, my heart is not haughty, nor are my eyes lofty. Neither do I pursue great things, nor things too wondrous for me.
- 2. May God damn me if I have not made my soul calm and quiet, like a child weaned of his mother.²¹ My soul is like a weaned child within me.
- 3. Let Israel hope in the LORD from henceforth and for ever.

Psalm 132
A song for the ascents.

- ¶1. O LORD, remember all of David’s afflictions,

²¹ Literally, only“—if I have not made my soul calm. . . .” The curse intended with this oath is so horrific—calling for one’s own death and damnation—that it is not even uttered. See also 132:3.

2. how he swore to the LORD and made a vow to the Mighty One of Jacob,
3. “May God damn me if I enter into the shelter of my home, if I go up to the bed of my chamber,
4. or if I give sleep to my eyes or slumber to my eyelids
5. before I find a place for Jehovah, a dwelling-place for the Mighty One of Jacob.”
6. Behold! We heard of it in Ephrathah; we found it in the fields of Jaar.
7. We will enter into His tabernacles. We will worship at His footstool.
8. Go up, O LORD, to your resting-place! You and the ark of your strength.
9. Your priests will be clothed with righteousness, and your saints will shout for joy!
10. For the sake of David your servant, do not turn away the face of your Messiah!
11. Jehovah swore a sure oath to David; He will not repent of it: “Of the fruit of your loins will I set on your throne.
12. If your sons keep my covenant and my testimonies that I will teach them, their sons will also sit on your throne forever and ever.”
13. For Jehovah chose Zion; He desired it as His dwelling-place.
14. “This is my resting-place forever and ever. Here will I dwell because I wanted it.
15. Her provision will I abundantly bless; her needy will I satisfy with bread;
16. and her priests will I clothe with salvation; and her saints will cry out with joy.
17. There will I cause the Horn of David to sprout up; I have prepared a lamp for my Messiah.
18. His enemies will I clothe with shame, but as for him, his crown will glisten.”

Psalm 133

*A song for the ascents.
By David.*

- ¶1. Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity.
2. It is like the precious oil upon the head, running down upon the beard, even Aaron’s beard, which ran down upon the hem of his garments.
3. It is like the dew of Hermon that comes down upon the mountains of Zion, for there, the LORD commanded the blessing: life for evermore.

Psalm 134

A song for the ascents.

- ¶1. Behold! Bless the LORD, all you servants of the LORD who stand in the house of the LORD by night!
2. Lift up your hands in the holy place and bless Jehovah!
3. May Jehovah, Maker of heaven and earth, bless you from Zion!

Psalm 135

- ¶1. Praise Jehovah! Praise the name of the LORD! Give praise, O servants of the LORD

2. who stand in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God!
3. Praise Jehovah! For Jehovah is good! Sing to His name, for it is pleasant!
4. For Jehovah has chosen Jacob for Himself, and Israel as His treasured possession.
5. For I know that Jehovah is great and that our Lord is above all gods.
6. All that the LORD pleased, He did in heaven, and on earth, in the seas, and all deep places.
7. He causes vapors to rise from the end of the earth, and makes lightnings for the rain, and sends the wind out from His storehouses.
8. It is He who struck the firstborn of Egypt, both man and beast.
9. He sent signs and wonders in your midst, O Egypt, against Pharaoh and against all his servants.
10. It is He who struck down many nations and slew mighty kings—
11. Sihon, king of the Amorites, and Og, king of Bashan, and all the kings of Canaan,
12. and gave their land as a heritage, a heritage for His people Israel.
13. Your name, O LORD, is forever. Your memorial, O LORD, is from generation to generation.
14. For the LORD will judge His people, and He will have compassion on His servants.
15. Idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of man's hands.
16. They have mouths, but they do not speak; they have eyes, but they do not see;
17. they have ears, but they do not hear; and there is no breath in their mouth.
18. Those who make them are like them, and all who trust in them.
19. O house of Israel, bless the LORD! O house of Aaron, bless the LORD!
20. O house of Levi, bless the LORD! O GOD-fearers, bless the LORD!
21. Blessed be the LORD from Zion, who dwells in Jerusalem! Hallelujah!

Psalm 136

- ¶1. O give thanks to Jehovah, for He is good. For His mercy endures forever!
2. Give thanks to the God of gods. For His mercy endures forever!
 3. Give thanks to the Lord of lords. For His mercy endures forever!
 4. To Him who alone does great wonders. For His mercy endures forever!
 5. To Him who by wisdom made the heavens. For His mercy endures forever!
 6. To Him who spread out the earth over the seas. For His mercy endures forever!
 7. To Him who made great lights. For His mercy endures forever!
 8. The sun to rule by day. For His mercy endures forever!
 9. The moon and stars to rule by night. For His mercy endures forever!
 10. To Him who struck Egypt in their firstborn. For His mercy endures forever!
 11. And brought Israel out from their midst. For His mercy endures forever!
 12. With a strong hand and an outstretched arm. For His mercy endures forever!
 13. To Him who divided the Red Sea. For His mercy endures forever!
 14. And led Israel through its midst. For His mercy endures forever!
 15. But shook off Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea. For His mercy endures forever!

16. To Him who led His people in the desert. For His mercy endures forever!
17. To Him who slew great kings. For His mercy endures forever!
18. And killed majestic kings. For His mercy endures forever!
19. Sihon, king of the Amorites. For His mercy endures forever!
20. And Og, king of Bashan. For His mercy endures forever!
21. And gave their land as a heritage. For His mercy endures forever!
22. A heritage for Israel, His servant. For His mercy endures forever!
23. It is He who remembered us in our lowly state. For His mercy endures forever!
24. And snatched us away from our adversaries. For His mercy endures forever!
25. He gives sustenance to all flesh. For His mercy endures forever!
26. O give thanks to the God of heaven! For His mercy endures forever!

Psalm 137

- ¶1. By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat and wept when we remembered Zion.
2. We hung our lyres on the willow trees in her midst.
3. For it was there that our captors asked us for words of a song, and those who wasted²² us asked for mirth, saying, “Sing for us one of the songs of Zion!”
4. How shall we sing Jehovah’s song in a foreign land?
5. If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget how to play.
6. Let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth if I do not remember you, if I do not prefer Jerusalem above my greatest joy.
7. O Jehovah, remember against the children of Edom the day of Jerusalem, who said, “Raze it! Raze it to her foundation!”
8. O daughter of Babylon, which is to be destroyed, blessed will he be who repays you for what you have done to us.
9. Blessed will he be who seizes and smashes your little ones to pieces against the rock.

Psalm 138

By David.

- ¶1. I will give you thanks with all my heart; before the gods will I sing you praise.
2. I will bow toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your lovingkindness and your faithfulness, for you have exalted your word above all your fame.
3. On the day I cried out, you answered me; you emboldened my soul with strength.
4. All the kings of earth will give you thanks, O LORD, once they hear the words of your mouth,
5. and they will sing of the ways of Jehovah, for great is the glory of Jehovah.
6. Though the LORD is high, He regards the lowly man; but the haughty man, He knows from afar.

²² Hebrew uncertain.

7. Even if I walk in the midst of trouble, you will preserve me. Against the wrath of my enemies, you will stretch out your hand, and your right hand will save me.
8. The LORD will perfect that which concerns me. O LORD, your mercy endures forever! You will not abandon the works of your hands.

Psalm 139

For the chief musician.

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. O LORD, you have searched me and known me.
2. You know when I sit and when I rise up. You discern my thought from afar.
3. You have sifted out my going and my lying down and are acquainted with all my ways.
4. For there is not a word on my tongue, but behold, O LORD, you know it altogether.
5. Behind and before, you have me hemmed in and have placed your hand over me.
6. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me. It is high; I am incapable of it.
7. Where could I go from your Spirit? Or where could I flee from your presence?
8. If I ascend to heaven, you are there. Or if I make my bed in Sheol, behold, you are there.
9. If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost part of the sea,
10. even there would your hand guide me, and your right hand hold me fast.
11. If I say, “Surely, but darkness will harm me,” even night would be light around me,”
12. even darkness is not dark to you, but night shines as the day; the darkness is the same as the light.
13. For you created my inward parts; you wove me together in my mother’s womb.
14. I give you thanks, for I am fearfully, wondrously made. Your works are wonderful, and my soul knows that very well.
15. My frame was not hidden from you when I was created. In secret was I intricately woven in the lowest parts of the earth.
16. Your eyes saw my unformed members, and on your scroll were they all written, when not one of them was formed.
17. How precious to me are your thoughts, O God! How great is the sum of them!
18. Were I to count them, they would be more than the sand. When I awake, I am still with you.
19. Oh, that you would slay the wicked man, O God, and that bloody men would get away from me,
20. who speak of you craftily. Your enemies take your name in vain.
21. Do I not hate them, O Jehovah, who hate you, and abhor those who rise up against you?
22. I hate them with perfect hatred. They are become my enemies.
23. Search me, O God, and know my heart. Try me, and know my thoughts,
24. and see if there be any hurtful way in me, and lead me in the everlasting way.

For the chief musician.

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. Deliver me, O LORD, from the evil man; keep me from violent men
2. who devise evil things in their heart. Every day, they instigate wars.
3. They have made their tongue sharp, like a serpent. The poison of an adder is under their lips. Selah.
4. Preserve me, O LORD, from the hands of the Wicked One! Keep me from violent men, who have purposed to trip up my feet.
5. The proud have hidden a trap for me, and cords; they have spread out a net along the path; they have set snares for me. Selah.
6. I said to Jehovah, "You are my God! Give ear, O LORD, to the voice of my supplication!"
7. O Jehovah my Lord, the strength of my salvation! You covered my head in the day of battle.
8. Do not grant, O LORD, the desires of the Wicked One, nor sanction his scheme! They are on high. Selah.
9. Let them cover him, the head of those who surround me. Oh, the devilry of his lips!
10. Let burning coals fall upon them; cast them into the fire, into deep pits; let them never rise.
11. Do not let a man of talk be established in the land; let evil quickly hunt down the violent man."
12. I know that the LORD maintains the cause of the poor and justice for the needy.
13. Surely, righteous people will give thanks to your name; the upright will dwell in your presence.

Psalm 141

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. O LORD, I have called on you. Come quickly to me. Give ear to my voice when I call on you.
2. Let my prayer be counted as incense before you, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.
3. Set a guard over my mouth, O LORD. Keep the door of my lips.
4. Do not incline my heart to an evil thing, to practice wicked deeds with men who do iniquity, nor let me dine on their delicacies.
5. Let the righteous man strike me; it will be a kindness. And let him reprove me; it will be like oil on my head. My head will not refuse it; yea, my prayer for them will continue when their troubles come.
6. Their judges were thrown down by the hands of Selah, and then they heard my words, that they are pleasant.
7. As when one plows and breaks up the earth, our bones have been scattered at the mouth of Sheol,

8. but my eyes are toward you, Jehovah my Lord. In you do I take refuge. Do not leave my soul destitute.
9. Keep me from the jaws of the trap they have laid for me and from the snares of workers of iniquity.
10. The wicked will fall into their own nets together, but I will pass on over.

Psalm 142

A wisdom song by David when he was in the cave.

A prayer.

- ¶1. With my voice, I cry aloud to Jehovah. With my voice, I make supplication to Jehovah.
2. I pour out my complaint before Him; I declare my trouble before Him.
3. When my spirit faints within me, you know my way; in the path where I walk, they have laid a trap for me.
4. Look on my right, and see; for no one acknowledges me. Refuge is gone from me; no one cares for my soul.
5. I cry aloud to you, O LORD! I say, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.
6. Attend to my cry, for I am brought very low. Deliver me from my persecutors, for they are too strong for me.
7. Bring my soul out of the dungeon so that I might praise your name!" The righteous will surround me because you will deal bountifully with me.

Psalm 143

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. O LORD, hear my prayer! In your faithfulness, give ear to my supplications! Answer me in your righteousness,
2. and do not enter into judgment with your servant, for no one alive is righteous before you.
3. For the enemy has persecuted my soul; he has crushed my life to the ground; he has made me to dwell in dark places, like those long dead.
4. Yea, my spirit in me is fainting away; my heart within me is astonished.
5. I remember days of old; I meditate on all your acts; I ponder over the work of your hands.
6. I spread out my hands to you; my soul is like thirsty land, thirsty for you. Selah.
7. Answer me quickly, O LORD! My spirit is spent. Oh, do not hide your face from me, or I will become like those who descend into the Pit!
8. Make me to hear your lovingkindness in the morning, for I have put my trust in you. Make me to know which way I should go, for I lift up my soul to you.
9. Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies. In you would I hide.
10. Teach me to do your will, for you are my God. Let your good Spirit guide me in the land of uprightness.

11. For your name's sake, O LORD, let me live. In your righteousness, bring my soul out of distress,
12. and in your lovingkindness, annihilate my enemies and slay all the adversaries of my soul, for I am your servant.

Psalm 144

By David.

- ¶1. Blessed be Jehovah, my Rock, who trains my hands for battle and my fingers for war.
2. My lovingkindness and my fortress, my stronghold and my deliverer—mine!—my shield, and I have taken refuge in Him who subdues my people under me.
3. O LORD, what is man that you take notice of him? Or the son of man, that you think on him?
4. Man is like a breath; his days are like a passing shadow.
5. O LORD, bow your heavens and come down. Touch the mountains, so that they smoke.
6. Flash forth lightning and scatter them. Send forth your arrows and discomfit them.
7. Stretch out your hands from above. Set me free and rescue me out of many waters, out of the hand of foreigners,
8. whose mouth speaks vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of deception.
9. O God, let me sing a new song to you. With a ten-stringed instrument, let me sing praise to you,
10. who gives victory to kings, who rescues His servant David from the hurtful sword.
11. Set me free and rescue me out of the hand of foreigners, whose mouth speaks vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of deception,
12. that our sons may be like fully grown plants in their youth, our daughters like corners carved for the building of a temple,
13. our storehouses will be full, providing all kinds of store, and our flocks will multiply by the thousands in our fields;
14. our cattle will be heavy with young, without miscarriage or going astray, and there will be no cry of distress in our streets.
15. Happy are the people who are in such a case. Happy are the people whose God is Jehovah.

Psalm 145

A song of praise by David.

- ¶1. I will exalt you, my God, the King, and I will bless your name forever and ever.
2. Every day will I bless you, and I will praise your name forever and ever.
3. Jehovah is great, and greatly to be praised, and His greatness is unsearchable!
4. One generation will praise your works to another, and they will declare your mighty deeds.
5. I will meditate on your splendor, glory, majesty, and your wondrous works.
6. They will speak of the power of your awesome acts, and I will recount your great deeds.

7. They will pour forth the remembrance of your great goodness; they will sing of your righteousness.
8. The LORD is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, and great in mercy.
9. The LORD is good to all, and His tender mercies are over all His works.
10. All your works praise you, O LORD, and your saints bless you.
11. They speak of the glory of your kingdom and tell of your power,
12. to make known to the sons of men His mighty acts and the glorious splendor of His kingdom.
13. Your kingdom is an eternal kingdom, and your dominion is from generation to generation.
14. The LORD upholds all who fall and lifts up all who are bowed down.
15. The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food in its time;
16. you open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.
17. The LORD is righteous in all His ways, and merciful in all His doings.
18. The LORD is near to all who call on Him—to all who call on Him in truth.
19. He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him, and He will hear their cry for help and deliver them.
20. Jehovah watches over all who love Him, but He will utterly destroy all who do evil.
21. My mouth will declare the praise of Jehovah, and all flesh will bless His holy name forever and ever.

Psalm 146

- ¶1. Hallelujah! Praise the LORD, O my soul!
2. I will praise the LORD while I have life. I will make music to my God as long as I live.
3. Do not put your trust in princes, nor in the son of man; there is no salvation in him.
4. When his breath leaves, he returns to the ground. On that day, his thoughts perish.
5. Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in Jehovah his God,
6. Maker of heaven and earth and the sea and all that is in them, who keeps truth forever.
7. The LORD executes justice for the oppressed and gives bread to those who are hungry.
He sets prisoners free.
8. The LORD opens the eyes of the blind; the LORD raises up those who are bowed down;
the LORD loves righteous men;
9. the LORD protects the strangers and relieves the orphan and the widow, but He thwarts the way of wicked men.
10. The LORD will reign forever. Your God, O Zion, will reign from generation to generation. Hallelujah!

Psalm 147

- ¶1. Praise Jehovah, for it is good to sing praise to our God; yea, it is delightful, and praise is comely.

2. The LORD builds up Jerusalem; He gathers the dispersed of Israel.
3. He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their hurts.
4. He numbers the stars, calling them all by name.
5. Great is our Lord, and great is His power. His understanding is infinite.
6. The LORD brings relief to the meek, but He brings the wicked down to the ground.
7. Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving! Make music with a lyre to our God,
8. who covers the heavens with dark clouds, who prepares rain for the earth, and who causes grass to grow on the hills.
9. He gives the beast its food, and the young ravens that cry.
10. He does not delight in the strength of a horse, nor is He pleased with the legs of a man.
11. The LORD takes pleasure in those who fear Him, those who hope in His mercy.
12. Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem! Praise your God, O Zion!
13. For He has made the bars of your gates strong; He has blessed your sons within you,
14. who makes your border peace, who satisfies you with the finest wheat,
15. who sends out His decree to earth (His word runs very swiftly),
16. who gives snow like wool. He scatters frost like ashes,
17. casting forth His ice like crumbs. Who can stand before His cold?
18. He sends forth His word and makes them melt; He causes His wind to blow, and the waters flow.
19. He declares His word to Jacob, His statutes and His judgments to Israel.
20. He has not done the like for any other nation, and they have not known His judgments.

PraiseJehovah!

Psalm 148

- ¶1. Praise Jehovah! Praise the LORD from the heavens! Praise Him in the highest places!
2. Praise Him, all His angels! Praise Him, all His host!
3. Praise Him, sun and moon! Praise Him, all stars of light!
4. Praise Him, heavens of heavens, and the waters which are above the heavens!
5. Let them praise the name of Jehovah because He commanded, and they were created.
6. And He established them forever and ever; He gave a decree, and it will not pass away.
7. Praise the LORD from the earth—dragons and all deep places;
8. fire and hail; snow and smoke; storm-wind performing His word;
9. mountains and all hills; fruit trees and all cedars;
10. wild animal and all cattle; creeping thing and winged fowl;
11. kings of earth and all peoples; princes and all judges of earth;
12. young men and virgins alike; old men along with children—
13. let them praise the name of the LORD because His name, His alone, is to be exalted! His majesty is above earth and heaven.
14. He has also raised up a Horn for His people, the Praise of all His saints, for the sons of Israel, a people near to Him. Hallelujah!

Psalm 149

- ¶1. Hallelujah! Sing to the LORD a new song! Praise Him in the assembly of the pious!
 - 2. Let Israel rejoice in his Maker; let the sons of Zion rejoice in their King.
 - 3. Let them praise His name in dance; with timbrel and lyre, let them sing to Him.
 - 4. For Jehovah is pleased with His people; He will beautify the meek with salvation.
 - 5. Let the pious exult in glory; let them sing for joy on their beds;
 - 6. let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand!
 - 7. To execute vengeance among the Gentiles, reproofs among the nations;
 - 8. to bind their kings with chains and their nobles with fetters of iron;
 - 9. to execute upon them the judgment written—this honor belongs to all His saints.
- Hallelujah!

Psalm 150

- ¶1. Hallelujah! Praise God in His sanctuary! Praise Him in the firmament of His strength!
- 2. Praise Him for His mighty acts! Praise Him according to His surpassing greatness!
- 3. Praise Him with a blast of a shofar! Praise Him with harp and lyre!
- 4. Praise Him with timbrel and dance! Praise Him with strings and flute!
- 5. Praise Him with clashing cymbals! Praise Him with crashing cymbals!
- 6. Let everything that has breath praise the LORD! Hallelujah!

Proverbs

Proverbs 1

- ¶1. The proverbs of Solomon ben-David, king of Israel.
2. To know wisdom and correction; to understand words of understanding;
 3. to receive correction; to gain insight in righteousness, and judgment, and equity;
 4. to give prudence to the simple-minded; to the young man, knowledge and discretion
 5. —a wise man will hear and will increase learning, and a man of understanding will acquire good counsels—
 6. to understand a proverb and a riddle, the sayings of wise men and their enigmas.
 7. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge. Fools despise wisdom and correction.
- ¶8. Hear, my son, the correction of your father, and do not forsake the law of your mother,
9. for they will be a wreath of grace for your head and pendants for your neck.
 10. My son, if sinners entice you, do not consent.
11. If they say, “Come with us! Let us lie in wait for blood. Let us wait in secret for the innocent man without cause.
 12. Let us swallow them up alive like Sheol, and whole, like those who go down to the Pit.
 13. All precious substance will we find; we will fill our houses with spoil.
 14. Cast in your lot among us! We will have one purse together.”
 15. My son, do not walk in the way with them; withhold your foot from their path,
 16. for their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed blood.
 17. (Surely, in vain is the net spread in the sight of any bird.)
 18. Yet, they lie in wait for their own blood. They wait in secret for their own lives.
 19. Thus are the paths of all who get gain by violence; it takes the life of those who possess it.
- ¶20. True wisdom cries out in the street; in the marketplaces, she gives forth her voice.
21. She calls out at the head of bustling thoroughfares, at the openings of gates. In the city, she declares her words:
 22. “How long, O you simple-minded, will you love simpleness, and scorners take pleasure in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?
 23. Turn at my reproof. Behold, I will pour out my Spirit to you; I will make my words known to you.
 24. Because I have called and you refused, because I have stretched out my hand and no one regarded it,
 25. because you have disdained all my counsel and did not want my reproof,
 26. I also will laugh at your calamity. I will mock when your fear comes,

27. when your fear comes like a devastating storm and your calamity strikes like a tornado, when distress and anguish come upon you.
28. Then they will call on me, but I will not answer. They will seek me early, but they will not find me,
29. forasmuch as they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD.
30. They would not receive my counsel; they spurned all my reproof.
31. Therefore, they will eat of the fruit of their own way, and they will be glutted with their own devices,
32. for the apostasy of the simple-minded will kill them, and the prosperity of fools will destroy them.
33. But he who listens to me will dwell safely and be at peace, without dread of evil.

Proverbs 2

- ¶1. My son, if you receive my words and treasure up my commandments with you,
2. inclining your ear to wisdom, applying your heart to understanding,
3. yea, if you cry out for discernment and lift up your voice for understanding,
4. if you look for her as for silver and search for her as for hidden treasures,
5. then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God.
6. For the LORD gives wisdom; from His mouth come knowledge and understanding.
7. He treasures up sound wisdom for the upright; He is a buckler to those who live with integrity,
8. guarding the paths of justice and keeping the way of His saints.
9. Then will you understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity—every good path—
10. for wisdom will enter into your heart, and knowledge will be a delight to your soul.
11. Discretion will keep watch over you and understanding will guard you,
12. to deliver you from an evil way, from men who speak perverse things,
13. who forsake the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness,
14. who are glad to do evil (they rejoice in the perversities of an evil man),
15. whose paths are twisted, and they are devious in their ways,
16. to deliver you from the strange woman, from the foreign woman who uses her smooth words,
17. who forsakes the friend of her youth and forgets the covenant of her God.
18. (Surely, her house goes down to death, and her ways, to the shades.)
19. None who go in to her return; yea, they do not attain to the paths of life.)
20. Discretion and understanding will keep you, that you might walk in the way of good men and keep to the paths of the righteous.
21. For the upright shall dwell in the land; yea, the perfect shall remain in it.
22. But the wicked shall be cut off from the land, and the treacherous shall be rooted out of it.

Proverbs 3

- ¶1. My son, do not forget my law, and let your heart keep my commandments,

2. for they will add to you length of days, yea, years of life and peace.
 3. Let not mercy and truth forsake you. Bind them upon your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart,
 4. and find favor and good success in the sight of God and man.
- ¶5. Trust in the LORD with all your heart and do not lean on your own understanding.
6. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will direct your paths.
 7. Do not be wise in your own eyes. Fear the LORD, and depart from evil.
 8. It will be healing for your navel and moisture for your bones.
 9. Honor the LORD with your substance and with the firstfruits of all your increase,
 10. and your storehouses will be filled with plenty, and your winepresses will burst forth with new wine.
- ¶11. My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of His correction,
12. for whom the LORD loves, He corrects, even as a father the son in whom he delights.
 13. Happy is the man who finds wisdom and the man who obtains understanding.
 14. Indeed, her merchandise is better than merchandise bought with silver, and her fruit is better than gold.
 15. It is more precious than rubies; yea, anything you desire cannot be compared to her.
 16. Length of days is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor.
 17. Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.
 18. She is a tree of life to those who hold her fast, and those who hold on to her will be happy.
- ¶19. The LORD by wisdom laid the foundation of the earth; He established the heavens by understanding.
20. By His knowledge, depths are broken open and clouds drip dew.
 21. My son, let them not leave your sight; keep sound wisdom and discretion,
 22. and they will be life for your soul and an ornament for your neck.
 23. Then you will walk securely in your way, and your foot will not stumble.
 24. When you lie down, you will not be in dread; yea, when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.
- ¶25. Do not be afraid of sudden disaster or of the ruin of wicked men when it comes,
26. for the LORD will be your confidence, and He will keep your foot from a snare.
 27. Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due when it is in the power of your hands to do it.
28. Do not say to your neighbor, "Leave, and come back, and tomorrow I will give it," when it is there with you.
29. Do not devise evil against your friend, or one who dwells securely by you.
30. Do not strive with a man without cause, when he has done you no harm.
31. Do not envy a violent man, and choose none of his ways,
32. for a devious man is an abomination to the LORD, but His secret is with the upright.

33. The curse of the LORD is in the house of a wicked man, but He blesses the habitation of righteous men.
34. Though He scorns the scorers, He grants grace to those who are lowly.
35. Wise men will inherit glory, but rebellious fools, dishonor.

Proverbs 4

- ¶1. Heed, children, a father's discipline, and be attentive, that you may become acquainted with understanding,
2. for I give you good instruction. Do not forsake my law.
3. When I was my father's tender son, and the only one in the sight of my mother,
4. he instructed me, and said to me, "Let your heart hold fast my words; keep my commandments and live.
5. Get wisdom! Get understanding! Do not forget, and do not turn away from the words of my mouth.
6. Do not forsake her, and she will protect you. Love her, and she will watch over you.
7. Wisdom is the principal thing; get wisdom! And with all your getting, get understanding!
8. Esteem her, and she will exalt you. She will bring you honor when you embrace her.
9. She will place a wreath of grace upon your head; she will bestow upon you a glorious crown.
10. Listen, my son, and receive my words; so shall the years of your life be many.
11. In the way of wisdom have I instructed you; I have led you in the paths of uprightness.
12. When you walk, your steps will not be hampered, and when you run, you will not stumble.
13. Lay hold upon instruction. Do not let go. Guard her, for she is your life.
14. Do not enter the path of wicked men, and do not walk in the way of evil men.
15. Leave it alone. Do not cross over it. Turn away from it, and pass on by.
16. For they cannot sleep unless they have done evil. Sleep is taken from them unless they cause someone to stumble,
17. for they eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.
18. But the path of righteous men is like a bright light, continually shining unto the perfect day.
19. The way of the wicked is like darkness; they do not know at what they stumble.
- ¶20. "My son, attend to my words. To my sayings, incline your ears.
21. Do not let them depart from your sight. Keep them in the midst of your heart,
22. for they are life to those who find them and healing to all their flesh.
23. Above all else, guard your heart, for out of it are the issues of life.
24. Let perverse speech depart from you, and put crooked lips far away from you.
25. Let your eyes look straight ahead, and let your eyelids keep straight before you.
26. Consider the path of your foot, and all your ways will be established.
27. Do not turn to the right or left. Remove your foot from evil.

Proverbs 5

- ¶1. “My son, give heed to my wisdom; incline your ear to my understanding,
2. that you may maintain discretion and that your lips may preserve knowledge.
3. For the lips of a strange woman drip honey from the comb, and her mouth is smoother than oil,
4. but her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword.
5. Her feet go down to death; her steps lay hold on Sheol.
6. Lest you ponder the path of life, her ways change. You do not know it.
7. So, listen to me now, children, and do not turn from the words of my mouth.
8. Keep your path far from her, and do not go near the door of her house,
9. lest you give your dignity to others and your years to the cruel,
10. lest strangers be filled with your strength, and your labors enrich a foreigner’s house,
11. and you groan at your end, when your flesh and your body waste away,
12. and you say, ‘How I have hated correction, and how my heart has spurned reproof!
13. Nor did I listen to the voice of my teachers, or incline my ear to my instructors!
14. I am almost in total ruin in the midst of the Assembly and congregation.’
15. Drink water from your own cistern and water from your own well.
16. Streams of water from your springs will flow abroad into the streets.
17. Let it be for you, for you alone, and not for strangers with you.
18. Let your fountain be blessed, and get pleasure from the wife of your youth.
19. As a very loving hind and a lovely doe, let her breasts satisfy you at all times. Be intoxicated with her love continuously.
20. And why should you, my son, be intoxicated with a strange woman or embrace the bosom of a foreign woman?
21. For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and He weighs out all his paths.
22. The wicked man’s iniquities will ensnare him, and by the cords of his own sin will he be held fast.
23. He dies for want of correction and is intoxicated with his abundant foolishness.

Proverbs 6

- ¶1. “My son, if you have become guarantor for your friend, if you have shaken hands with a stranger,
2. you have been ensnared by the words of your mouth; you have been trapped by the words of your mouth.
3. Do this then, my son, and deliver yourself, since you are in the power of your friend:
go humble yourself and importune your friend!
4. Do not give sleep to your eyes or slumber to your eyelids!
5. Deliver yourself like a gazelle from his hand, and like a bird from the hand of the fowler.
¶6. “Go to the ant, you sluggard! Consider its ways and be wise.

7. Having no captain, officer, or ruler,
 8. it prepares its food in summer; it gathers its provision in harvest.
 9. How long, O sluggard, will you sleep? When will you arise from your slumber?
 10. A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest,
 11. and your poverty will come in like a robber, and your need, like an armed man.
- ¶12. “A man of Belial, a wicked man, lives with perverse speech,
13. winking with his eyes, signaling with his feet, pointing with his fingers.
 14. Perverse things are in his heart; he devises evil all the time; he spreads strife.
 15. Because of this, his distress will come suddenly. He will be broken in an instant, without remedy.
- ¶16. “These six things does the LORD hate. Yea, seven are abominations to His soul:
17. an exalted appearance; a lying tongue; and hands that shed innocent blood;
 18. a heart devising wicked thoughts; feet that are quick to run to evil;
 19. a false witness that breathes out lies; and he who sows discord among brothers.
- ¶20. “My son, keep the commandment of your father, and do not forsake the law of your mother.
21. Bind them upon your heart always; tie them around your neck.
 22. When you walk about, it will guide you. When you sleep, it will watch over you, and when you wake up, it will talk with you.
 23. For the commandment is a lamp, and the law is light, and reproofs of discipline are the way of life,
 24. to keep you from the wicked woman, from the smooth tongue of the foreign woman.
 25. Do not desire her beauty in your heart, and do not let her capture you with her eyelids.
 26. For on account of a harlot, a man is reduced to a loaf of bread, and the adulteress hunts for a precious life.
- ¶27. Can a man take fire into his bosom and his clothes not be burned?
28. Can a man walk on burning coals and his feet not be scorched?
 29. So it is for him who goes in to his neighbor’s wife; whoever touches her will not go unpunished.
 30. Men do not despise a thief when he steals to satisfy himself when he is hungry;
 31. yet, if he be found out, he will restore sevenfold; he will give up all the wealth of his house.
- ¶32. He who commits adultery with a woman lacks understanding. In doing it, he is destroying his own soul.
33. He will get a wound and dishonor, and his reproach will not be blotted out,
 34. for jealousy produces fury in a man, and he will not spare in the day of vengeance.
 35. He will not accept any compensation; yea, he will not consent though you increase the gift.

Proverbs 7

- ¶1. "My son, keep my words, and treasure up my commandments with you.
2. Keep my commandments and live, and my law as the apple of your eye.
3. Bind them on your fingers. Write them on the tablet of your heart.
4. Say to wisdom, 'You are my sister', and call understanding a kinsman,
5. that they may keep you from the strange woman, from the foreign woman who uses her smooth words.
- ¶6. While at the window of my house, I looked down through my lattice.
7. And I saw among the simple, I discerned among the youths, a young man who lacked understanding
8. passing along the street near her corner. And he took the way toward her house
9. at the day's evening twilight, at the time of night and darkness.
10. And behold, a woman came up to him in the attire of a harlot, and she was wily of heart.
11. (She is boisterous and self-willed; her feet do not stay in her house.
12. Sometimes in the street, sometimes in the squares, at every corner, she lies in wait.)
13. Then she grabbed him and kissed him. Her face was shameless, and she said to him,
14. 'With peace offerings for myself, I have today fulfilled my vows.¹
15. That's why I came out, to meet you, to earnestly seek your face. And now, I have found you!
16. I have spread my couch with coverings, dark-hued Egyptian linens.
17. I have sprinkled my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
18. Come, let's drink our fill of passions until the morning! Let's delight ourselves with great love!
19. For my husband's not home; he's gone on a long journey.
20. He took a bag of money with him. He'll come home on the day of the full moon.'
21. She won him over with her great persuasiveness; with the seductiveness of her lips, she compelled him.
22. Following her immediately, he went in like an ox to the slaughter, and like one in chains to the chastisement of a fool,
23. until an arrow cleaves open his liver. Like a bird hurrying to a trap, he also does not know that it is for his life.
- ¶24. "So, O sons, listen now to me, and give heed to the words of my mouth.
25. Let not your heart turn aside to her ways! Do not wander into her paths!
26. For she has caused many to fall down, slain, and all her slain were mighty men.
27. The ways of Sheol are in her house, descending to the chambers of death.

¹ Probably a reference to a woman's purification rite. "When she is cleansed from her discharge. . . on the eighth day, she shall take for herself two turtle doves or two young doves, and she shall bring them to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting" (Lev. 15:28–29).

Proverbs 8

- ¶1. “Does not Wisdom call? And understanding give her voice?
2. At the top of high places, along the road, at the crossroads, she stands.
3. Beside the gates, at the entrance of the cities, at the doors, she cries out,
4. ‘Unto you, O men, I call, and my voice is to the children of Adam.
5. Understand subtlety, you simpletons! And you fools, be of an understanding heart!
6. Listen! For I say excellent things, and from the opening of my lips come right things.
7. My mouth speaks truth, and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
8. All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing twisted or crooked in them.
9. All of them are right to the one who understands, and upright to those who find knowledge.
10. Receive my reproof and not silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold,
11. for wisdom is better than rubies, and nothing that is desirable can compare with her.
12. I, Wisdom, dwell with prudence; I uncover knowledge of cunning ways.
13. The fear of the LORD is to hate evil. I hate pride, haughtiness, an evil manner, and a perverse mouth.
14. Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom. I am understanding. I have strength.
15. By me, kings rule, and rulers make righteous decrees.
16. By me, princes and nobles reign, and all who judge rightly.
17. I love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently find me.
18. Riches and honor are with me, lasting wealth and righteousness.
19. My fruit is better than gold, even pure gold, and my revenue better than choice silver.
20. I walk in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of justice,
21. to cause those who love me to inherit substance; I will fill their storehouses.
22. The LORD created me the beginning of His way, the first of His works.
23. I was formed before eternity, before the beginning, before earth existed.
24. I was brought forth when there were no depths of the sea, when there were no springs abounding with water.
25. Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I was brought forth.
26. When He had not made the earth, and the open fields, and the first elements of the world,
27. when He prepared the heavens, I was there. When He decreed a circle on the face of the deep,
28. when He established the thin clouds above, when He made strong the fountains of the sea,
29. when He made His decree for the sea, that the waters should not disobey His word, when He decreed the foundations of the earth,
30. I was at His side, like a master workman, daily His great delight, always laughing in His presence,

31. rejoicing in the world, His earth, and my delights were with the sons of men.
- ¶32. “So, children, listen now to me, for those who keep my ways are blessed.
33. Hear instruction and be wise, and do not let it go!
34. Blessed is the man who listens to me, keeping watch at my gates every day, waiting at the posts of my doors.
35. For he who finds me finds life and obtains favor from the LORD,
36. but he who sins against me wrongs his own soul. All they that hate me love death.’

Proverbs 9

- ¶1. “Wisdom has built her house; she has hewn out her seven pillars.
2. She has slaughtered her beasts; she has mixed her wine; and she has set her table.
3. She has sent forth her maidens; she cries out from the highest places of the city,
4. ‘Whoever is unwise, let him turn in here!’ To him lacking understanding, she says,
5. ‘Come! Eat of my bread, and drink of the wine I have mixed.
6. Forsake the foolish, and live! And walk in the way of understanding!
7. He who corrects a scouter gets for himself dishonor, and he who rebukes a wicked man gets himself a blemish.
8. Do not rebuke a scouter, lest he hate you. Rebuke a wise man, and he will love you.
9. Give correction to a wise man, and he will become wiser still; instruct a righteous man, and he will increase in learning.
10. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of holy things is understanding.
11. Truly, by me will your days be multiplied, and years of life will be added to you.
12. If you become wise, you will be wise for yourself, and if you scorn, you will bear it by yourself.
13. A foolish woman is boisterous, simple-minded, and knows nothing.
14. She sits at the door of her house, on a seat at the high places of the city,
15. calling out to passers-by on the road, those who are making their paths straight,
16. “Whoever is simple-minded, turn in here!” As for him who lacks understanding, she says to him,
17. “Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant!”
18. But he does not know that the dead were there; her guests are in the depths of Sheol.”

Proverbs 10

The Proverbs of Solomon

- ¶1. A wise son makes a father rejoice, but a foolish son is sadness to his mother.
2. Treasures of wickedness are of no value, but righteousness delivers from death.
3. The LORD will not make a righteous soul go hungry, but He will deny the desire of wicked men.
4. A slack hand makes poor, but the hand of diligent men makes rich.

5. He who gathers in summer is a prudent son; he who is fast asleep during harvest is a son who brings shame.
6. Blessings are meant for the head of a righteous man, but violence will cover the mouth of wicked men.
7. The memory of a righteous man is a blessing, but the name of wicked men will rot.
8. The wise of heart will receive commandments, but a talkative fool will be cast out.
9. He who walks in his integrity walks securely, but he who perverts his ways shall be known.
10. He who winks with the eye causes harm, but he who rebukes openly makes peace.²
11. The mouth of a righteous man is a fountain of life, but the mouth of wicked men conceals violence.
12. Hatred stirs up conflicts, but love covers all transgressions.
13. Wisdom is found in the lips of a man of understanding, but a rod is for the back of him who lacks sense.
14. Wise men treasure up knowledge, but the mouth of a fool is close to destruction.
15. A rich man's wealth is his strong city; the destruction of poor folk is their poverty.
16. The earnings of a righteous man are for life; the gain of a wicked man is for sin.
17. Heeding correction is the path to life, but forsaking reproof leads astray.
18. He who hides hatred with lying lips and utters slander is a fool.
19. In a multitude of words, transgression is not lacking, but he who restrains his lips is wise.
20. The tongue of a righteous man is like choice silver; the heart of wicked men is of little worth.
21. The lips of a righteous man feed multitudes, but fools die for lack of understanding.
22. The blessing of the LORD, it makes rich, and He adds no sorrow with it.
23. It is like a game to a fool to do wickedness, but wisdom belongs to a man of understanding.
24. The fear of the wicked man will come upon him, but the desire of righteous men will be granted.
25. Like a storm that has passed, so the wicked man will cease to be, but the righteous One is an eternal foundation.
26. Like vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to those who send him.
27. The fear of the LORD adds days, but the years of wicked men will be cut short.
28. The hope of righteous men will be joy, but the expectation of wicked men will perish.
29. The way of the LORD is a refuge for the blameless man, but destruction is for those who work iniquity.

² LXX reading. MSS: ". . . and a talkative fool will be cast out."

30. A righteous man will live forever; he will never be moved. But wicked men will not inhabit the earth.
31. The mouth of a righteous man bears the fruit of wisdom, but the tongue of perverse men will be cut out.
32. The lips of a righteous man know what is acceptable, but the mouth of wicked men spews out perverse things.

Proverbs 11

1. Deceitful scales are an abomination to the LORD, but a full weight pleases Him.
2. Insolence comes, then comes dishonor, but with humble men is wisdom.
3. The integrity of upright men will guide them, but the perverseness of treacherous men will destroy them.
4. Riches will not profit in the day of wrath, but righteousness will deliver from death.
5. The righteousness of a blameless man will direct his way, but by his own wickedness will the wicked man fall.
6. The righteousness of the upright will deliver them, but the unfaithful are taken captive by their desire.³
7. At the death of a wicked man, hope perishes; yea, the expectation of rich men will perish.
8. A righteous man is delivered from distress, and the wicked man goes in instead of him.
9. With his mouth, a profane man destroys his fellow, but by knowledge are the righteous delivered.
10. When it goes well for righteous people, a city rejoices, and when the wicked perish, there is a shout of joy.
11. A city is exalted by the blessing of the upright, but by the mouth of wicked men is it overthrown.
12. He who shows contempt for his neighbor lacks understanding, but a man with understanding holds his peace.
13. He who goes about as a slanderer reveals secrets, but a trustworthy spirit keeps a thing covered.
14. When there is no counsel, people fall, but in much counsel is safety.
15. He will suffer harm who is surety for a stranger, but he who hates suretyship is secure.
16. A favored woman holds onto honor, and fierce men hold onto riches.
17. A merciful man does good to his own soul, but a cruel man troubles his own flesh.
18. A wicked man earns a deceptive wage, but he who sows righteousness will have a sure reward.
19. True righteousness leads to life, but the pursuit of evil leads to one's death.
20. The perverse of heart are an abomination to the LORD, but the blameless in the way are His delight.

³ Or, "... though they be caught up in the destruction of treacherous men."

21. Though hand join in hand, a wicked man shall not go unpunished, but the seed of righteous men shall be delivered.
22. A beautiful woman who departs from discretion is a gold ring in a pig's snout.
23. The desire of righteous men is only good; the expectation of wicked men, wrath.
24. There is one who scatters, and yet increases all the more, while another withholds what is right, only to want.
25. A generous soul will be made fat, and the one who waters will himself also be watered.
26. He who withholds grain, people will curse, but a blessing will be on the head of him who sells it.
27. He who earnestly seeks good is seeking favor, but he who seeks after evil, it will come to him.
28. He who trusts in his riches will fall, but righteous men will flourish like a branch.
29. He who troubles his house will inherit the wind, and a fool will be servant to him who is wise in heart.
30. The fruit of a righteous man is a tree of life, and a wise man wins souls.
31. Behold, a righteous man will be rewarded on the earth; how much more a wicked man and a sinner.

Proverbs 12

1. He who loves instruction loves knowledge, but he who hates reproof is brutish.
2. A good man obtains favor from the LORD, but He condemns a man of wicked devices.
3. No man will be established by wickedness, but the root of righteous men will not be shaken.
4. A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband, but she who causes shame is like rottenness in his bones.
5. The thoughts of the righteous are right. The counsels of the wicked are deceptive.
6. The words of wicked men lie in wait for blood, but the mouth of upright men will deliver them.
7. The wicked are overthrown, and they are not, but the house of righteous men shall stand.
8. A man will be commended for his prudence, but he who has a perverted heart will be despised.
9. A lightly esteemed man who has a slave is better off than a man who honors himself, but lacks bread.
10. A righteous man regards the life of his beast, but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.
11. He who works his land will be satisfied with bread, but he who follows vain pursuits lacks understanding.
12. A wicked man desires the net of evildoers, but the root of righteous men flourishes.
13. An evil man is ensnared by the transgression of lips, but a righteous man will escape distress.

14. By the fruit of a man's mouth will he be fully satisfied, and the recompense of a man's hands will be rendered to him.
15. The way of a fool is right in his own eyes, but a wise man listens to advice.
16. A fool is known in the day of his wrath, but a prudent man covers over an insult.
17. He who utters truth publishes righteousness, but a false witness, deceit.
18. There is a speaking rashly like the stabbings of a sword, but the tongue of the wise is healing.
19. Lips of truth will be established forever, but a lying tongue is only for a moment.
20. Deceit is in the heart of those who devise evil, but those who counsel peace have joy.
21. No evil will happen to the righteous man, but wicked men will be full of misery.
22. Lying lips are an abomination to the LORD, but those who deal faithfully are His delight.
23. A prudent man conceals knowledge, but the heart of fools proclaims foolishness.
24. The hand of diligent men will rule, but a slacker will be under tribute.
25. Anxiety in the heart of a man weighs it down, but a good word makes it rejoice.
26. A righteous man is a guide for his friend, but the way of the wicked leads them astray.
27. A slacker does not roast his game, but a diligent man's substance is precious.
28. In the way of righteousness is life; yea, in that pathway, there is no death.

Proverbs 13

1. A wise son heeds correction from a father, but a scorner does not heed rebuke.
2. By the fruit of a man's mouth will he eat what is good, but the soul of those who deal treacherously dines on violence.
3. He who guards his mouth guards his soul; he who opens wide his lips shall have destruction.
4. The soul of the sluggard wants but has not, but the soul of diligent men will be made fat.
5. A righteous man hates anything deceptive, but a wicked man is odious and causes shame.
6. Righteousness keeps him who is blameless in the way, but wickedness brings a sinner to ruin.
7. There is who makes himself rich but has nothing, and there is who makes himself poor but has great wealth.
8. The ransom for a man's life are his riches, but a poor man hears no threat.
9. The light of righteous men rejoices, but the lamp of wicked men shall be put out.
10. Strife comes only through pride, but with the well-advised is wisdom.
11. Wealth obtained by vanity will decrease, but he who gathers by labor will increase.
12. Deferred hope makes the heart sick, but desire fulfilled is a tree of life.
13. He who despises the word will pay for it, but fear of the commandment, that will be rewarded.
14. Instruction from a wise man is a fountain of life, to turn away from the snares of death.
15. Good understanding gives favor, but the way of the unfaithful is unyielding.
16. Every prudent man conducts himself with knowledge, but a fool flaunts folly.

17. A wicked messenger will fall into trouble, but a faithful envoy is health.
18. Poverty and disgrace are his who ignores correction, but he who heeds correction will be honored.
19. Desire fulfilled is sweet to the soul, but it is an abomination to fools to turn away from evil.
20. He who walks with wise men will also be wise, but a companion of fools will be destroyed.
21. Evil pursues sinners, but the righteous will be rewarded with good.
22. A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but a sinner's wealth is stored up for the righteous man.
23. Much food is in the untried ground of the poor, but it may be snatched away by injustice.
24. He who spares his rod hates his son, but he who loves him chastens him early.
25. A righteous man eats to the satisfaction of his soul, but the belly of wicked men will lack.

Proverbs 14

- ¶1. Every wise woman builds her house, but a foolish woman tears it down with her hands.
2. He who walks in his uprightness fears the LORD, but he who is crooked in his ways despises Him.
3. In a fool's mouth is a rod of pride, but the lips of wise men will preserve them.
4. Where there are no cattle, the trough is clean, but great profits are in the strength of a bull.
5. A faithful witness will not tell a lie, but a false witness breathes lies.
6. A scorner seeks wisdom and does not find it, but knowledge comes easy for one who understands.
7. Go from the presence of a foolish man when you do not perceive in him the lips of knowledge!
8. The wisdom of a prudent man is to understand his way, but deceit is the folly of fools.
9. Guilt makes fools mock, but favor is among the upright.
10. The heart knows its own bitterness, and no stranger can share its joy.
11. The house of wicked men will be destroyed, but the dwelling of upright men will flourish.
12. There is a way that seems right to a man, but at its end are the ways of death.
13. Even in laughter, a heart may be in pain, but after that gladness is grief.
14. A backslidden heart is filled with its own ways, and a good man, with his.
15. He who is simple-minded believes everything, but a prudent man considers his way.
16. A wise man fears and turns from evil, but a fool is arrogant and confident.
17. He who is quick to anger acts foolishly, and a man with wicked schemes will be hated.
18. Simple-minded men inherit folly, but prudent men will be crowned with knowledge.
19. Evil men will bow before good men; yea, the wicked, at the gates of a righteous man.

20. A poor man is hated even by his neighbor, but a rich man has many friends.
21. He who despises his neighbor sins, but he who shows favor to the poor will be blessed.
22. Do not those who devise evil err? But mercy and truth are for those who devise good.
23. In all labor, there is profit, but the talk of the lips tends only to poverty.
24. The crown of wise men is their wealth; the folly of fools crowns them with folly.
25. A true witness delivers souls, but a deceitful man breathes out lies.
26. In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence, for He is a shelter for His children.
27. The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, turning one away from the snares of death.
28. The glory of a king is a multitude of people, and the lack of people is the ruin of a ruler.
29. One who is slow to anger has great understanding, but a hasty spirit exalts foolishness.
30. A healthy mind is life to the body, but envy is rottenness to the bones.
31. He who oppresses a poor man reproaches his Maker, but he who pities the needy honors Him.
32. A wicked man is thrust away in his wickedness, but the righteous finds a refuge at his death.
33. Wisdom rests in the heart of him who has understanding, and among fools, it is known.
34. Righteousness elevates a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people.
35. A prudent servant shall have the king's favor, but his fury will be upon the one who causes shame.

Proverbs 15

- ¶1. A soft answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.
2. The tongue of wise men uses knowledge rightly, but the mouth of fools belches out foolishness.
3. The eyes of the LORD are in every place, observing evil and good deeds.
4. A tongue that heals is a tree of life, but perverseness in it is a spiritual wound.
5. A fool spurns his father's correction, but one who heeds reproof is prudent.
6. In the house of a righteous man is much wealth, but with the increase of a wicked man comes trouble.
7. The lips of wise men disperse knowledge, but not so the heart of fools.
8. The sacrifice of wicked men is an abomination to the LORD, but the prayer of the upright is His delight.
9. The way of a wicked man is an abomination to the LORD, but He loves him who pursues righteousness.
10. Correction is evil to him who forsakes the way, and he who hates reproof will die.
11. Sheol and Abaddon are open before the LORD, how much more the hearts of the sons of Adam.
12. A scorner does not love the one who reproves him; he will not go to wise men.
13. A joyful heart produces a pleasing countenance, but by pain of heart is a spirit wounded.
14. The heart of him who understands seeks knowledge, but the mouths of fools feed on foolishness.

15. All the days of an afflicted man are unpleasant; yet, a good heart has a continuous feast.
16. Better is little with the fear of the LORD than great wealth and turmoil with it.
17. Better is a meal of herbs where there is love than a fattened ox and hatred with it.
18. A hot-tempered man stirs up strife, but he who is slow to anger quietens contention.
19. The way of a sluggard is like a hedge of thorns, but the path of the upright is a highway.
20. A wise son makes his father rejoice, but a foolish man despises his mother.
21. Foolishness is joy to him who lacks wisdom, but a man of understanding walks uprightly.
22. Without counsel, purposes are frustrated, but by an abundance of advisors, they are established.
23. A man's joy comes by the response of his mouth, and a word in its season, how good it is!
24. The path of life is upward for the prudent, so that he turns away from Sheol below.
25. The LORD will tear down the house of proud men, but He will establish the boundary of the widow.
26. The schemes of a wicked man are an abomination to the LORD, but the pure have pleasant thoughts.
27. He who gets gain by violence troubles his own house, but he who hates bribes will live.
28. The heart of a righteous man ponders to answer, but the mouth of wicked men spews out wicked things.
29. The LORD is far from wicked men, but He hears the prayer of righteous men.
30. The light of the eyes makes the heart rejoice; a good report makes the bones fat.
31. The ear that heeds the reproof of life will abide among the wise.
32. He who ignores instruction despises his own soul, but he who heeds reproof gains wisdom.
33. The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom, and before honor is humility.

Proverbs 16

- ¶1. The plans of the heart belong to man, but the response of the tongue is from the LORD.
2. All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, but the LORD weighs spirits.
3. Commit your works to the LORD, and they will direct your thoughts.
4. Jehovah made everything for its purpose; yes, even the wicked one for the day of evil.
5. Every haughty heart is an abomination to the LORD; though hand join in hand, it shall not be unpunished.
6. By mercy and truth is iniquity atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD does one turn from evil.
7. When a man's ways please the LORD, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.
8. Better is a little with righteousness than great profits without right.
9. The heart of man plans his way, but the LORD directs his steps.
10. A divine decision is on the king's lips; his mouth does not betray justice.

11. A just weight and balance belong to the LORD; all the weights of the bag are His business.
12. It is an abomination for kings to do wickedness, for a throne is established by righteousness.
13. Righteous lips are a delight to kings, and they love him who speaks right things.
14. The wrath of a king is like angels of death, but a wise man will pacify it.
15. In the light of a king's countenance is life, and his favor is like a cloud of the latter rain.
16. How much better it is to get wisdom than gold, and to get understanding is rather to be chosen than silver!
17. The highway of upright men is to depart from evil; he who guards his way preserves his soul.
18. Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.
19. It is better to have a humble spirit among the needy than to divide the spoil with proud men.
20. He who handles a matter prudently will find good, and he who trusts in the LORD will find His blessings.
21. The wise of heart will be called prudent, and sweetness of the lips increases learning.
22. Understanding is a fountain of life for its owners, and correction of fools is folly.
23. The heart of a wise man teaches his mouth prudence and adds learning to his lips.
24. Pleasant words are like a honeycomb, sweet to the soul and health to the body.
25. There is a way that seems right to a man, but at its end are the ways of death.
26. A person who works, works for himself, because his mouth demands it of him.
27. A man of Belial digs up evil, and it is like a burning fire on his lips.
28. A perverse man sows strife, and a slanderer divides close friends.
29. A violent man entices his neighbor and leads him in a way that is not good.
30. He shuts his eyes to devise perverse things; pursing his lips, he accomplishes evil.
31. A hoary head is a crown of glory if it is found in the way of righteousness.
32. He who is slow to anger is better than a mighty man, and he who governs his spirit is better than he who takes a city.
33. The lot is cast into the lap, but its every judgment is of the LORD.

Proverbs 17

1. Better is a bit of dry bread and peace with it than a house full of sacrifices with strife.
2. A wise servant will rule over a son who causes shame, and he will share in the inheritance among the brothers.
3. A crucible for silver, and a smelting-pot for gold, but the LORD tries hearts.
4. An evildoer listens to wicked talk; a liar gives ear to a ruinous tongue.
5. He who mocks the poor man taunts his Maker; he who rejoices at calamity will not go unpunished.
6. Children's children are the crown of old men, and the glory of children is their fathers.
7. Excellence of speech is unbefitting a fool; how much less is deceitful talk for a prince.

8. A bribe is a charm in the eyes of its owner; every way he turns, it brings success.
9. He who covers over a transgression seeks love, but he who repeats a thing separates close friends.
10. A rebuke goes deeper into a man with understanding than a hundred blows into a fool.
11. An evil man only seeks rebellion, but a cruel messenger will be sent against him.
12. Better for one to meet a bear robbed of her cubs than a fool in his folly.
13. As for him who returns evil for good, evil will not depart from his house.
14. The beginning of strife is like releasing a flood, so abandon contention before it bursts out.
15. Both he who justifies a wicked man and he who condemns a righteous man are an abomination to the LORD.
16. Why is payment in the hand of a fool to purchase wisdom, seeing he has no sense?
17. A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.
18. A man who lacks understanding shakes hands, becoming surety in the presence of his neighbor.
19. He loves strife who loves transgression. He who exalts his own gate is seeking destruction.
20. He who is perverse of heart will not find good, and he who is perverse with his tongue will fall into calamity.
21. One begets a fool to his own grief; yea, the father of a fool has no joy.
22. A joyful heart does good like a medicine, but a wounded spirit dries up the bones.
23. A wicked man accepts a bribe from the bosom to pervert the ways of justice.
24. Wisdom is before him who has understanding, but the eyes of a fool are on the end of the earth.
25. A foolish son is a vexation to his father and bitterness to her who bore him.
26. It is not good to beat those who are noble or to fine a righteous man for uprightness.
27. He who restrains his words has knowledge, and a man of understanding has a calm spirit.
28. Even a fool, when he keeps quiet, is considered wise, and he who keeps his lips shut, a man of understanding.

Proverbs 18

- ¶1. He who seeks something desirable sets himself apart; he will break out with all sound wisdom.
2. A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, but only that his mind may express itself.
3. When a wicked man comes, contempt comes also, and with dishonor, disgrace.
4. The words of a man's mouth are like deep waters; a flowing brook, a fountain of wisdom.
5. It is not good to be partial to a wicked man, to thrust aside a righteous man in judgment.
6. A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calls for blows.
7. A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are a snare to his soul.
8. Words of a slanderer are like tasty morsels, and they go down into the innermost parts.

9. Whoever is slack in his work is brother to him who is a great destroyer.
10. The name of the LORD is a mighty tower; a righteous man runs to Him and is safe.
11. The substance of a rich man is his strong city, and it is like a high wall in his imagination.
12. Before destruction, a man's heart is haughty, and before honor is humility.
13. He who gives a response to a matter before hearing it out, it is folly and shame to him.
14. A man's spirit can endure his illness, but a wounded spirit, who can bear it?
15. The heart of a discerning man gets knowledge, and the ear of wise men seeks knowledge.
16. A man's gift makes room for him and brings him before distinguished men.
17. He who is first with his cause seems right, but his neighbor comes and searches him out.
18. The lot puts an end to disputes and keeps mighty men apart.
19. An offended brother is a strong city, with contentions like the bars of a castle.
20. By the fruit of a man's mouth will his stomach be satisfied; he will be satisfied by the produce from his lips.
21. Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit.
22. He who finds a wife finds a good thing and obtains favor from the LORD.
23. He who is poor speaks with entreaties, but a rich man answers roughly.
24. A man with many companions may come to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Proverbs 19

- ¶1. Better is a poor man who walks in his integrity than he who is perverse in his speech, for he is a fool.
2. Surely, it is not good for a soul to be without knowledge, and he who hurries with his feet sins.
3. The foolishness of a man perverts his way, and his heart rages against the LORD.
4. Wealth makes for many friends, but a poor man is separated from his friend.
5. A false witness will not go unpunished, and he who utters lies will not escape.
6. Many entreat the favor of a prince, and everyone is friend to a giver of gifts.
7. All the kinsmen of a poor man hate him. How much more, then, do his friends distance themselves from him? He pursues them with words, but they are gone.
8. He who gets wisdom loves his own soul; he who treasures understanding will find good.
9. A false witness will not go unpunished, and he who utters lies will perish.
- ¶10. It is unbefitting a fool to enjoy luxury. How much less for a slave to rule over princes?
11. A man's wisdom makes him slow to anger, and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.
12. A king's rage is like the roaring of a lion, but his favor is like dew on the grass.
13. A foolish son is a calamity to his father, and a wife's contentions are a continual drip.
14. House and wealth are the heritage of fathers, but a prudent wife is from the LORD.
15. Laziness causes one to fall into a deep sleep, and an idle body will be hungry.

16. He who keeps the commandment keeps his soul; he who despises His ways will die.
17. He lends to the LORD who is generous to the poor, and He will repay him his due.
18. Chasten your son while there is hope! Do not spare yourself and cause him to die.
19. He who is given to anger will be punished, for if you rescue him, you will have to do it again.
20. Listen to counsel and receive correction so that you will be wise at your end.
21. Many devices are in the heart of man, but the counsel of the LORD, it will stand.
22. The desire of man is His mercy, and so it is better to be poor than be a liar.
23. The fear of the LORD leads to life, that one may rest, satisfied, untouched by evil.
24. A sluggard buries his hand in his dish; he will not even return it to his mouth.
25. Strike a scorner, and a simpleton may learn prudence, and reprove a man of understanding, and he will gain knowledge.
26. He who abuses father or drives mother away is a son who causes shame and reproach.
27. Cease, my son, from listening to instruction that causes one to err from words of understanding!
28. An ungodly witness scorns judgment, and the mouth of wicked men swallows down iniquity.
29. Judgments are determined for scorners, and blows for the back of fools.

Proverbs 20

- ¶1. Wine is an imitator, and strong drink is boisterous, and everyone who is led astray by it is unwise.
2. A king's terror is like the roaring of a lion; he who provokes him endangers his own life.
3. It is an honor for a man to cease from strife, but every fool quarrels.
4. A sluggard will not plow because of winter; he will beg at harvest-time, but have nothing.
5. Counsel in the heart of a man is deep water, but a man of understanding will draw it out.
6. Many a man proclaims his own goodness, but who can find a truly faithful man?
7. A righteous man walks in his integrity. Blessed are his children after him!
8. A king sitting on the throne of judgment winnows out every evil thing with his eyes.
9. Who can say, "I have purified my own heart; I am cleansed from my sin"?
10. Differing weights and differing measures are an abomination to the LORD, both of them.
11. Even a child is known by his deeds, whether his conduct is pure and upright.
12. The ear that hears and the eye that sees, the LORD made them both.
13. Do not love sleep, lest you come to poverty; open your eyes, and be satisfied with food!
14. "No good; it's no good!" says the buyer, but after he has gone his way, he boasts.
15. There is gold, and a multitude of rubies, but lips of knowledge are a precious instrument.
16. Take a man's garment that is surety for a stranger; yea, take his pledge for foreigners.
17. Bread of deceit is sweet to a man, but afterward, his mouth will be filled with gravel.
18. Plans are established by counsel, and with much advice, make war.

19. He who goes about as a slanderer reveals secrets, so do not associate with one who opens wide his lips.
20. He who curses his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in deep darkness.
21. An inheritance may be gotten by greed at the beginning, but it will not be blessed at its end.
22. Do not say, "I will requite the evil!" Wait on the LORD and He will give you the victory.
23. Differing weights are an abomination to the LORD, and false scales are not good.
24. The steps of a man are from the LORD; how then can a man understand his way?
25. It is a snare to the man who rashly declares something holy, and then, after his vows, to make inquiry.
26. A wise king winnows out evil men, and drives the wheel over them.
27. The spirit of man is the lamp of the LORD, searching all the innermost parts.
28. Mercy and truth preserve the king; yea, his throne is upheld by mercy.
29. The glory of young men is their strength, and the glory of old men is a hoary head.
30. The bruising of a wound cleanses away evil; yea, stripes cleanse the innermost parts.

Proverbs 21

- ¶1. A king's heart is like channels of water in the hand of the LORD; He turns it howsoever He pleases.
2. Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, but the LORD weighs the heart.
3. To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the LORD than a sacrifice.
4. Haughty eyes and a proud heart—the beacon of wicked men—are sin.
5. The thoughts of a diligent man lead only to abundance, but the thoughts of all who are hasty lead only to poverty.
6. The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed about by those who seek death.
7. The violence of wicked men sweeps them away; still, they refuse to do what is right.
8. The way of a guilty man is crooked, but as for the pure, his work is straightforward.
9. It is better to live on a corner of a roof than in a house shared with a quarrelsome woman.
10. The soul of a wicked man inclines to evil; his neighbor finds no favor in his eyes.
11. When a scorner is punished, the simple man may become wise, and when he pays attention to a wise man, he gains knowledge.
12. The Righteous One considers the house of the wicked; He overthrows wicked men because of their wickedness.
13. He who closes his ear to the cry of the lowly will himself also cry out, but he will not be answered.
14. A gift in secret pacifies anger, and a present in the bosom, fierce wrath.
15. The righteous man who acts justly shall have joy, but workers of iniquity, destruction.
16. The one who wanders out of the way of understanding shall find rest in the congregation of the dead.

17. He who loves merriment will be a poor man; he who loves wine and oil will not become rich.
18. A wicked man will be a ransom for the righteous man, and a treacherous man will be a ransom for upright men.
19. It is better to dwell in a barren land than with a quarrelsome and angry woman.
20. There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of a wise man, but a foolish man swallows it up.
21. He who pursues righteousness and mercy will find life, righteousness, and honor.
22. A wise man scales the city of mighty men and casts down its strong confidence.
23. He who keeps his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles.
24. His name is scorner who is proud and haughty, who acts with arrogant pride.
25. A sluggard's desire will kill him, for his hands refuse to work.
26. Every day, he covets greedily, but a righteous man gives and does not hold back.
27. The sacrifice of wicked men is an abomination; how much more when he brings it with evil intent!
28. A false witness will perish, but one who listens will speak forever.
29. A wicked man makes his face hard, but as for the upright, he establishes his ways.
30. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel against the LORD.
31. A horse is prepared for the day of battle, but victory is of the LORD.

Proverbs 22

- ¶1. A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches, and favor is better than silver or gold.
2. The rich man and the poor man will meet together; the LORD is the Maker of them all.
3. A prudent man sees evil and hides himself, but the simple pass on and pay the penalty.
4. The result of humility is fear of the LORD, riches, and honor, and life.
5. Thorns and traps are in the path of a perverse man. He who guards his soul will keep far from them.
6. Train up a child in the way he should go, and even when he is old, he will not depart from it.
7. The rich man rules over poor men, and the borrower is slave to the lender.
8. He who sows injustice will reap trouble, and the rod of his anger will come to an end.
9. He who has a generous eye will be blessed, for he gives of his food to the poor man.
10. Drive out a scorner, and strife will leave; yea, dispute and disgrace will cease.
11. He who loves purity of heart and gracious speech will have the King as his friend.
12. The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge, and He brings to ruin the counsels of the treacherous man.
13. A sluggard says, "A lion is outside! I'll be slain in the streets!"
14. The mouth of strange women is a deep ditch, and he who is cursed of the LORD will fall into it.

15. Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child, but the rod of correction will drive it far from him.
16. He who oppresses a poor man to enrich himself or gives to a rich man will only come to poverty.
- ¶17. Incline your ear and listen to wise sayings, and apply your heart to my knowledge,
 18. for they are delightful. When you treasure them up within you, they will all be established on your lips.
19. I have instructed you today so that your confidence might be in the LORD. Yes, you!
20. Have not I written to you previously with good counsel and knowledge,
21. making known to you the certainty of the words of truth, that you might return words of truth to those who send to you?
- ¶22. Do not rob the poor man, for he is poor, and do not oppress the needy man in the gate,
 23. for the LORD will plead their cause, and He will take the life of those who take from them.
24. Do not associate with a man given to anger, and with a wrathful man do not go,
25. lest you learn his way and get a snare to your soul.
26. Do not be among those who shake hands, among those who become surety for debts.
27. If you are not able to pay, why should he take your bed out from under you?
28. Do not move the ancient landmark which your fathers set up.
29. You see a man who is diligent in his work? He will stand before kings; he will not stand before obscure men.

Proverbs 23

- ¶1. When you sit to eat with a ruler, consider carefully what is set before you,
2. and put a knife to your throat if you are given to appetite.
3. Do not desire his delicacies, for it is deceitful bread.
4. Do not labor to be rich; cease from your own understanding!
5. Do you light upon it with your eyes, though it does not last? Yea, it makes for itself wings like an eagle and flies into the sky.
6. Do not eat the food of one with an evil eye, and do not desire his delicacies,
7. for as he has calculated within himself, so is he. “Eat and drink!” he says to you, but his heart is not with you.
8. The morsel you eat, you will vomit up, and waste your pleasant words.
9. Do not speak into the ears of a fool, for he will despise the wisdom of your words.
10. Do not move the ancient landmark, and do not go into the fields of orphans,
11. for their Redeemer is mighty; He Himself will plead their cause against you!
12. Let your heart draw near to discipline, and your ears to words of knowledge.
13. Do not withhold correction from a child, for if you beat him with the rod, he will not perish.
14. You shall beat him with the rod and save his soul from Sheol.
15. My son, if your heart is wise, my heart will rejoice, even mine,

16. and my soul will exult when your lips speak right things.
 17. Let not your heart be envious of sinners, but be in the fear of the LORD all day long,
 18. for there will certainly be a hereafter, and your hope will not be cut off.
 19. Listen, my son, and be wise, and let your heart go straight on in the way.
 20. Do not associate with winebibbers or with gluttonous eaters of flesh,
 21. for the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty, and drowsiness will clothe a man in rags.
 22. Listen to your father, the one who begot you, and do not despise your mother when she is old.
 23. Buy the truth, and do not sell it. Receive wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.
 24. The father of a righteous son greatly rejoices; he who begets a wise son will certainly be glad because of him.
 25. Your father and your mother will be glad, and she who gave birth to you will rejoice.
 26. My son, give your heart to me, and let your eyes delight in my ways.
- ¶27. Truly, a harlot is a deep pit; yea, a foreign woman is a narrow pit.
28. Yea, she lies in wait like a robber, and she multiplies the unfaithful among men.
 29. Who has woe? Who has pain? Who has contentions? Who has complaint? Who has bruises without reason? Who has redness of eyes?
 30. Those who linger over their wine; those who go looking for mixed wine.
 31. Do not gaze at wine when it is red, when it sparkles in the cup. It may go down smoothly,
 32. but at the end of it, it bites like a serpent and stings like a viper.
 33. Your eyes will look on strange women, and your heart will speak perverse things,
 34. and you will become like one who lies down in the depth of the sea, or like one who lies down in the mast-head.
 35. You will say, “They struck me, but I wasn’t hurt. They beat me, but I didn’t feel it. When will I wake up so that I may seek it yet again?”

Proverbs 24

- ¶1. Do not envy evil men, and do not long to be among them,
2. for their heart plots violence, and their lips talk of mischief.
3. A house is built by wisdom and established by understanding,
4. and by knowledge are the chambers filled with every precious and beautiful treasure.
5. A wise man is strong; yea, a man of understanding increases strength.
6. Only with much counsel should you make war, for in much counsel is safety.
7. Wisdom is too high for a fool; he does not open his mouth in the gate.
8. Men will call the one who plots to do evil a mischievous person.
9. The devising of foolishness is sin, and a scorner is an abomination to man.
10. If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small.

11. Rescue those who are being taken away to death, and hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter.
12. If you say, "Behold, we didn't know about that," what about the One who weighs hearts? He knows. Yea, the One who keeps your soul understands, and He repays a man according to his deeds.
13. My son, eat honey, for it is good, and the honeycomb, which is sweet to your taste.
14. Know that wisdom is like that to your soul once you find it, and there will certainly be a hereafter, and your hope will not be cut off.
- ¶15. Do not lie in wait like a wicked man against the resting place of a righteous man; do no violence to his home.
16. Though a righteous man fall seven times, he will rise again, but wicked men stumble into evil.
17. When your enemy falls, do not be glad, and when he stumbles, do not let your heart rejoice,
18. lest the LORD see, and it be evil in His eyes, and He hold back His anger from him.
19. Do not fret yourself because of evildoers, nor be envious of wicked men,
20. for an evil man has no future; the lamp of wicked men will be put out.
21. Fear the LORD, my son, and the king, and do not associate with those given to change,
22. for their calamity may rise suddenly; yea, who knows when destruction will come from those two?
- ¶23. These things also belong to wise men: It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.
24. He who says to the wicked man, "You are righteous", peoples will curse him; nations will denounce him.
25. But a righteous man delights in those who rebuke him, and a good blessing will come upon them.
26. He kisses the lips who gives honest answers.
- ¶27. Prepare your work outside, and get your field ready; afterward, build your house.
28. Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause. Why would you deceive with your lips?
29. Do not say, "I will do to him just as he has done to me. I will repay the man according to his work."
30. I passed by the field of a lazy man, and by the vineyard of a man who lacks understanding,
31. and behold, it was all overgrown with thorns. Brambles covered its face, and its stone wall was broken down.
32. When I looked, I took it to heart. I saw, and I received instruction:
33. A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest,
34. and your poverty will come in like a prowler, and your want, like an armed man.

Proverbs 25

- ¶1. These are also proverbs of Solomon which the men of Hezekiah, king of Judah, copied.
2. It is the glory of God to conceal a thing, and it is the honor of kings to search it out.
 3. The heavens for height, and the earth for depth; just so, the heart of kings is unsearchable.
 4. Remove impurities from silver, and it will come forth from the smith as a vessel;
 5. remove the wicked man from before the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness.
 6. Do not honor yourself in the presence of the king, and do not stand in a place meant for great men,
 7. for it is better if he says to you, "Come up here," than to debase you in the presence of a prince whom your eyes have seen.
 8. Do not go forth hastily to argue, for what will you do at the end of the matter when your neighbor puts you to shame?
 9. Argue your case with your neighbor, but do not disclose the secret of another,
 10. lest he who hears revile you, and the evil report about you may not go away.
 11. A word spoken at the right moment is like apples of gold in a setting of silver.
 12. A wise reprobate to a listening ear is like a gold earring or an ornament of gold.
 13. Like the cold of snow at harvest-time is a faithful messenger to those who send him; yea, he refreshes the soul of his masters.
- ¶14. A man who boasts of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain.
15. With patience, a ruler may be persuaded, for a soft tongue can shatter bone.
 16. When you find honey, eat only what is enough for you, lest you glut yourself on it and vomit it up.
 17. Make your foot infrequent at your neighbor's house, lest he grow weary of you and hate you.
 18. A man who bears false witness against his neighbor is a club, or a sword, or a sharp arrow.
 19. Confidence in an unfaithful man in a day of distress is like a broken tooth or a lame foot.
 20. Singing songs to a heavy heart is like taking a garment away on a cold day, or like vinegar on natron.
- ¶21. If someone who hates you is hungry, give him food to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink;
22. thus, you heap burning coals on his head, and the LORD will reward you.
 23. A north wind produces rain, and a backbiting tongue, angry looks.
 24. It is better to live on a corner of a roof than in a house shared with a quarrelsome woman.
 25. Good news from a distant country is like cool water to a parched soul.
 26. A righteous man wavering before a wicked man is like a befouled spring, and a polluted fountain.
 27. Eating much honey is not good, and men's search for their own glory is not glory.

28. A man who has no control over his own spirit is like a breached city with no wall.

Proverbs 26

- ¶1. Like snow in summer and like rain in harvest, so honor is unbefitting a fool.
- 2. Like the sparrow wandering aimlessly and like the swallow flying around, so a curse without cause will not come to pass.
- 3. A whip is for the horse, a bridle is for the donkey, and a rod is for the back of fools.
- 4. Do not answer a fool according to his folly, lest you be like him.
- 5. Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes.
- 6. Sending messages by the hand of a fool is like chopping off your feet and drinking damage.
- 7. The legs of a lame man are useless;⁴ so is a parable in the mouth of fools.
- 8. Giving honor to a fool is like placing a stone in a sling.
- 9. A parable in the mouth of fools is like a briar going up into the hand of a drunkard.
- 10. One who hires a fool, or hires transgressors, is like an archer shooting everybody.⁵
- 11. Like a dog returning to his vomit, a fool repeats his folly.
- 12. Watch the man who is wise in his own eyes; there is more hope for a fool than for him.

- ¶13. A sluggard says, “A lion is in the road! A lion is in the streets!”
- 14. The door turns on its hinge, and a sluggard, on his bed.
- 15. A sluggard buries his hand in his dish; he is too weary to bring it back to his mouth.
- 16. A sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who can respond sensibly.
- 17. One who meddles in a dispute that’s not his is grabbing the ears of a passing dog.
- 18. Like a madman who shoots flaming arrows and death,
- 19. so is the man who deceives his neighbor and then says, “I was only joking!”

- ¶20. When there is no wood, a fire goes out, and when there is no slanderer, strife is quieted.
- 21. Coal is for burning and wood is for fire, and a contentious man is for kindling strife.
- 22. The words of a slanderer are like tasty morsels, and they go down into the innermost parts.
- 23. Burning lips and an evil heart are like an earthen vessel coated with silver dross.
- 24. One who hates disguises himself with his lips and lays up deceit within himself.
- 25. When his voice is gracious, put no trust in him, for there are seven abominations in his heart!
- 26. The hatred is covered over by dissimulation, but his wickedness will be laid bare in the Assembly.

⁴ Hebrew uncertain.

⁵ Or, “The Great One, who brings forth all, repays the fool and repays transgressors.”

27. He who digs a pit will fall into it, and as for him who rolls a stone, it will come back on him.
28. A lying tongue hates those crushed by it, and a flattering mouth causes stumbling.

Proverbs 27

- ¶1. Do not make your boast in tomorrow, for you do not know what a day will bring.
2. Let another praise you, and not your own mouth, a stranger, and not your own lips.
3. A stone is heavy, and sand is weighty, but a fool's anger is heavier than them both.
4. Wrath is cruel and anger is a flood, but who can stand before envy?
5. Open rebuke is better than secret love.
6. Faithful are the wounds of a friend, but the kisses of an enemy are profuse.
7. A glutton soul loathes honey, but to a hungry soul, everything bitter is sweet.
8. Like a bird departing from her nest is a man departing from his place.
9. Oil and incense gladden the heart, and the sweetness of one's friend is hearty counsel.
10. Do not forsake your friend or your father's friend, and do not enter your kinsman's house in the day of your calamity; a neighbor nearby is better than a distant kinsman.
11. My son, be wise and make my heart glad so that I may answer him who reproaches me.
12. A prudent man sees evil and hides himself; the simple pass on and pay the penalty.
13. Take one's garment when it is surety for a stranger or for a foreign woman; take it as a pledge.
14. He who blesses his friend with a loud voice early in the morning, it will be reckoned a curse to him.
15. A contentious woman is like a continual dripping on a rainy day.
16. Trying to hide her is like hiding the wind or grasping oil in one's hand.
17. As iron sharpens iron, so a man sharpens the countenance of his friend.
18. He who watches over a fig tree will eat its fruit, and he who watches over his master will be honored.
19. As in water face reflects face, so the heart of man reflects the man.
20. Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied; so the eyes of man are never satisfied.
21. A crucible is for silver and a smelting-pot is for gold, but a man is refined by his praise.
22. Though you pound a fool with a pestle in a mortar along with the grain, his folly will not depart from him.
- ¶23. Know well the state of your flock. Mind the herds,
24. for riches are not forever, nor does a crown endure from generation to generation.
25. When grass dies and new grass appears, and plants of the mountains are gathered,
26. lambs will provide your clothing, and goats, the price of a field.
27. Yea, there will be plenty of goats' milk for your sustenance, food for your household, and nourishment for your maidens.

Proverbs 28

- ¶1. The wicked flee when no one is pursuing, but the righteous are bold as a lion.
2. Because of the transgression of a country, its rulers are many, but it is prolonged by a man with understanding and knowledge.
3. A poor man who oppresses the needy is like a beating rain that leaves no food.
4. Those who forsake the law praise a wicked man, but those who keep the law contend with them.
5. Evil men do not understand justice, but those who seek the LORD understand everything.
6. Better is a poor man who walks in his integrity than one who is crooked in his ways, though he be rich.
7. He who keeps the law is a wise son, but one who keeps company with worthless men brings shame to his father.
8. He who increases his wealth by usury and interest gathers it for him who will be generous to the needy.
9. He who turns his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination.
10. He who leads the upright astray onto an evil path will fall into his own pit, but blameless men will inherit happiness.
11. A rich man may be wise in his own eyes, but a poor man with understanding will search him out.
12. When righteous men rejoice, there is great glory, but when wicked men arise, a man is hidden.
13. He who conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but whoever confesses and forsakes them will have mercy.
14. Blessed is the man who fears God always, but he who hardens his heart will fall into wickedness.
15. A wicked man ruling over poor people is a roaring lion, or a charging bear.
16. A leader without understanding is also a great oppressor, but he who hates unjust gain will prolong his days.
17. A man burdened with blood-guilt will flee to the pit; let no one help him.
18. He who lives with integrity will be saved, but he who is crooked in his ways will fall suddenly.
19. He who works his land will have plenty of food, but he who follows vain pursuits will have plenty of poverty.
20. A truly faithful man will have many blessings, but he who hurries to become rich will not be unpunished.
21. To have respect of persons is not good, but a man will transgress for a bite of bread.
22. A man who hastens to be rich has an evil eye, but he does not know that poverty will come upon him.
23. He who reproves a man will afterwards find more favor than he who flatters with his tongue.
24. He who robs his father or his mother and says, “It is no transgression,” is companion to a destroyer.

25. A man with a proud heart stirs up contention, but he who trusts in the LORD will be made fat.
26. He who is confident in his own heart is a fool, but he who walks in wisdom will be delivered.
27. He who gives to the needy will need nothing, but he who hides his eyes will have an abundance of curses.
28. When wicked men rise up, men hide themselves, but when they perish, the righteous increase.

Proverbs 29

- ¶1. He who, being often reproved, stiffens his neck will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.
2. When righteous men grow great, the people rejoice, but when a wicked man rules, the people groan.
3. The man who loves wisdom makes his father rejoice, but he who keeps company with harlots squanders his wealth.
4. A king establishes a land by justice, but the man who exacts gifts overthrows it.
5. A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.
6. In the transgression of an evil man is a snare, but a righteous man shouts for joy and is glad.
7. A righteous man has concern for the cause of the poor, but a wicked man does not understand such concern.
8. Scornful men inflame a city, but wise men turn away wrath.
9. A wise man may enter into judgment with a foolish man, but whether he rages or laughs, there is no relief.
10. Men with blood-guilt hate an innocent man, but the upright seek to save his life.
11. A fool vents all his wrath, but a wise man holds it back.
12. If a ruler gives heed to lies, all his ministers are wicked.
13. The poor man and the oppressor will meet together; the LORD enlightens the eyes of both.
14. As for the king who judges the poor in truth, his throne will be established forever.
15. The rod and reproof bestow wisdom, but an unrestrained child brings his mother shame.
16. When wicked men increase, transgression increases, but righteous men will see their downfall.
17. Discipline your son, and he will bring you rest and give great delight to your soul.
18. Where there is no vision, people are unrestrained, but he who keeps the law is happy.
19. A slave will not be disciplined with words; even if he understands, he will not respond.
20. Behold the man who is hasty with his words; there is more hope for a fool than for him.
21. He who tenderly brings up his slave from youth will make him an heir at his end.
22. An angry man stirs up strife, and a furious man, much transgression.

23. A man's pride will lay him low, but he who is lowly in spirit will obtain honor.
24. He who is partner with a thief hates his own soul; he hears a curse, but does not report it.
25. The fear of man is a snare, but he who trusts in the LORD will be set on high.
26. Multitudes seek the favor of a ruler, but the judgment of man comes from the LORD.
27. An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous, and he who is upright in the way is an abomination to him who is wicked.

Proverbs 30

- ¶1. The words of Agur ben-Jakeh. The oracle which this man said to Ithiel, even to Ithiel and Ucal:
 2. "Truly, I am more brutish than any man, and I have not the understanding of a man.
 3. I have not learned wisdom, nor do I possess knowledge of the Holy Ones.
 4. Who has ascended into heaven and come down? Who has gathered the wind in the hollow of His hands? Who has bound the waters in His mantle? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is His name? And what is His Son's name? Surely you know!"
- ¶5. Every saying of God is pure. He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him.
6. Do not add to His words, lest He rebuke you and you are shown to be a liar.
- ¶7. Two things I ask of you; do not withhold them from me before I die:
 8. keep vanity and lying far from me, and give me neither poverty nor riches. Provide me with my necessary food,
 9. lest I be full, and deny you, and think, "Who is the LORD?" or lest I be impoverished and steal, and so, take the name of my God in vain.
- ¶10. Do not slander a servant to his master, lest he curse you, and you be found guilty.
11. There is a generation that curses their father and does not bless their mother.
12. There is a generation that are clean in their own eyes, yet they have not been washed from their filthiness.
13. There is a generation—oh, how haughty are their eyes, and their eyelids, lifted up!
14. There is a generation whose teeth are swords and whose jaw-teeth are knives, to consume the lowly from the land and the needy from mankind.
- ¶15. Two daughters of the leech say, "Give! Give!" Three things are not satisfied; four do not say, "Enough":
 16. Sheol, and the barren womb, land that is not satiated with water, and fire that will not say, "Enough."
- ¶17. The eye that mocks father and scorns obedience to mother, ravens of the valley will pluck it out, and vultures will eat it.
- ¶18. Three things are too wondrous for me; yea, four I do not understand:

19. the way of the eagle in the sky, the way of a serpent on a rock, the way of a ship in the heart of the sea, and the way of a man with a young woman.
- ¶20. Such is the way of a woman who commits adultery: she eats and wipes her mouth, and then says, “I have done no iniquity.”
- ¶21. Under three things a land trembles; yea, under four, it cannot bear up:
22. under a slave if he becomes king and a fool if he be sated with food,
23. under a hated woman if she be married and a handmaiden if she be heir to her mistress.
- ¶24. There are four small things of earth, but they are extremely wise:
25. the ants are not a strong people, yet they prepare their food in the summer;
26. rock badgers are not a mighty people, but they make their home in the cliff;
27. the locust has no king, but they all march out in companies;
28. a lizard you may hold in your hands, but it is in the palaces of a king.
- ¶29. Three things are stately in their stride; yea, four are stately in their going:
30. the lion, mighty among beasts, and does not turn away from anyone;
31. a warhorse;⁶ and a he-goat; and a king with his army.
- ¶32. If you have acted foolishly by exalting yourself, or if you have pondered on something evil, put your hand over your mouth!
33. For as the churning of milk produces curds, and the wringing of the nose produces blood, so the stirring up of anger produces strife.

Proverbs 31

- ¶1. The words of Lemuel, the king. The oracle with which his mother admonished him:
2. “What, O my son? And what, O son of my womb? And what, O son of my vows?
3. Do not give your strength to women or your ways to that which destroys kings.
4. It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings or rulers to drink wine or strong drink,
5. lest he drink and forget what is decreed, and so, pervert the judgment of any who are afflicted.
6. Give strong drink to him who is dying, and wine to those who are bitter of soul.
7. He may drink and forget his poverty, and his trouble, he will no longer remember.
8. Open your mouth for him who is unable to speak in judgment, for all who are passing away.
9. Open your mouth! Judge righteously and plead the cause of the afflicted and needy.”
- ¶10. Who can find a virtuous wife? Indeed, her value is far above rubies.
11. The heart of her husband trusts her, and he will have no lack of gain.
12. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.

⁶ Hebrew uncertain.

13. She seeks after wool and strands of flax, and she willingly works with her hands.
 14. She is like the ships of a merchant; she brings in her food from afar.
 15. She also rises while it is still night and sets out food for her household and a portion for her maidens.
 16. She considers a field, and with the fruit of her hands, she buys it. She plants a vineyard.
 17. She girds her loins with strength and strengthens her arms.
 18. She perceives that her gain is good. Her lamp does not go out during the night.
 19. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her hands lay hold of the spindle.
 20. She opens her hand to the afflicted, and she stretches out her hands to the needy.
 21. She does not fear for her household because of snow, for all her household is clothed with scarlet.
 22. She makes coverings for herself; her clothing is of fine linen and purple.
 23. Her husband is known in the gates when he sits with the elders of the land.
 24. She makes linen clothing and sells it, and she provides sashes to the trader.
 25. Strength and honor are her clothing, and she will rejoice in time to come.
 26. She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the law of kindness is on her tongue.
 27. She looks after the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.
 28. Her sons rise up and call her blessed; her husband also praises her.
- ¶29. Many daughters do well, but you surpass them all.
30. Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the LORD, she will be praised.
 31. Give her the fruit of her hands, and men will praise her work in the gates.

Ecclesiastes¹

Ecclesiastes 1

- ¶1. The words of Ecclesiastes, son of David, king in Jerusalem.
2. Vanity of vanities, says Ecclesiastes. Vanity of vanities! All is vanity!
 3. What does man have that lasts from all his labor which he does under the sun?
 4. A generation goes and a generation comes, but the earth endures forever.
 5. The sun also rises, and the sun sets, and then it hastens to its place where it rises.
 6. The wind goes toward the south, and then around to the north, continually going around until the wind returns according to its circuits.
 7. All the rivers go to the sea, but the sea is not full; to the place to which the rivers go, there do they go again.
 8. All things are wearisome; man cannot express it. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor is the ear filled with hearing.
 9. Whatever has been, the same shall be, and whatever has been done, the same shall be done, and there is nothing new under the sun.
 10. (There is a Word of whom He says, “Behold this one! He is new.” He already existed from eternity, he who was before we were.)
 11. There is no memory of former things. And of the things which will follow, there will also be no memory among those who come afterward.
- ¶12. I, Ecclesiastes, became king over Israel in Jerusalem,
13. and I applied my heart to seek out, and with wisdom to ponder over all that is done under heaven, this miserable grind God has given to the sons of man to be occupied with.
 14. I have seen all the works that are done under the sun, and behold, the whole thing is vanity, and a chasing after wind.
 15. What is crooked cannot be made straight, and what is lacking cannot be counted.
 16. I spoke with my heart, saying, “Behold, I have become great, and I have surpassed the wisdom of all who were before me over Jerusalem, and my heart has perceived great wisdom and knowledge.”
 17. And when I gave my heart to know wisdom and to understand madness and foolishness, I came to understand that this, too, was a chasing after wind.
 18. Indeed, in much wisdom is much grief, and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

Ecclesiastes 2

- ¶1. I said to my heart, “Come now, I will prove you with mirth. Look into pleasure!” And, behold, this also was vanity.

¹ Heb. “Qoheleth”. The word suggests a gatherer of the Assembly or one who speaks to the Assembly.

2. Of laughter, I said, “It is maddening,” and of pleasure, “What does it accomplish?”
3. I sought wholeheartedly to please my flesh with wine, yet my heart wisely guiding me, and to lay hold on foolishness, perchance to discover that there is good in this for the children of men who labor under heaven, their days numbered.
4. I made my great works: I built houses for myself; I planted vineyards for myself;
5. I made gardens and orchards for myself, and planted in them all kinds of fruit trees;
6. I made for myself pools of water, from them to water a forest of saplings.
7. I bought male slaves and female slaves, and I had servants born in my house. Moreover, I had a greater possession of herds and flocks than all who were before me in Jerusalem.
8. I gathered for myself both silver and gold, even treasure from kings and the provinces. I prepared for myself singers, men and women, and many concubines, the delights of the sons of men.
9. And I became great, and I surpassed everyone who was before me in Jerusalem; also, my wisdom remained with me.
10. And nothing my eyes desired did I keep from them, nor did I withhold from my heart any pleasure, for my heart rejoiced in all my labor. And this was my reward for all my labor.
11. Then I looked on all my works which my hands had made and all the labor which I had labored to do, and, behold, the whole thing was vanity, and a chasing after wind, for there is nothing lasting under the sun.
12. And then I turned to consider wisdom, and madness, and foolishness. What will the man who comes after the king do with the things that have already been done?
13. Then I saw that there is more benefit in wisdom than in foolishness, as there is more benefit in light than in darkness.
14. The wise man’s eyes are in his head, but the fool walks in darkness, and yet, I perceived that one event happens to them all.
15. And I said in my heart, “What happens to the fool is also going to happen to me. Then, why am I so very wise?” And I said in my heart, “This also is vanity.”
16. For there is no remembrance of the wise man as well as of the fool, forever; for in the days to come, what has been will all be forgotten. And how does the wise man die? Just like the fool.
17. Then I hated this life, for the work done under the sun was evil to me. Truly, the whole thing is vanity, and a chasing after wind.
18. And I hated all my labor which I had wrought under the sun, which I will leave to the man who will come after me.
19. And who knows if he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet, he will become master over all my labor which I have done and by which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This, too, is vanity.
20. Then I turned about; I was heartsick over all the labor which I had done under the sun,

21. for there is a man whose labor is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in skill, but to a man who has not labored on it will he leave it as his portion. This also is vanity, and a great evil.
22. For what does a man have for all his labor, and for his heart's chasing of the wind, in which he has labored under the sun?
23. Surely, all his days are sorrows, and his busyness, vexation; even in the night, his heart does not rest. This, too, is vanity.
24. There is no good in the man who eats, and drinks, and makes his soul see good in his labor. Truly, I perceived this because it came from the hand of God,
25. for who can eat, or who can enjoy pleasure more than I?
26. For to the man who is good before Him, He gives wisdom, and knowledge, and joy, but to the sinner, He gives the busyness of gathering and collecting, to give to the one who is good before God. This also is vanity, and a chasing after wind.

Ecclesiastes 3

- ¶1. For everything, there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven:
2. a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
3. a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to tear down, and a time to build;
4. a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
5. a time to cast stones away, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
6. a time to gain,² and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
7. a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to be silent, and a time to speak;
8. a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.
9. What is the worker's lasting benefit from that which he has done?
10. I have seen the busyness that God has given to the sons of man to keep busy with.
11. He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also put the world³ in their heart, so that man cannot discover what God has done from beginning to end.
12. I know that there is no good for them except to rejoice and do good during their lives.
13. Yea, surely, that every man eat, and drink, and see good from all his toil, it is a gift from God.
14. I know that everything God does, it will be forever; to it, there is nothing to add, and from it, there is nothing to take away, and God has done it so that men might fear before Him.
15. That which is has already been, and what is to be has already been. But as for God, He seeks who is persecuted.

² or, "seek to acquire"

³ or, "age".

16. And again, I saw under the sun, wickedness in the place of judgment, and wickedness in the place of righteousness.
17. I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous as well as the wicked man, for there is a time here to every purpose and upon every work."
18. I said in my heart concerning the state of the sons of man, "God tries them, that they may see that they are but a beast."
19. For what happens to the sons of man also happens to the beast; one event awaits them all: as the one dies, so dies the other. Yea, they all have the same breath, so that man has no advantage over the beast, for all is vanity.
20. They all go to one place. They are all from the dust; and they all return to the dust.
21. Who knows the spirit of the sons of man, that it goes upward, and the spirit of the beast, that it goes downward to the earth?
22. And I have seen that there is nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his own works, since that is his portion. For who will bring him to see what will be after him?

Ecclesiastes 4

- ¶1. Then I returned, and I saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun, and, oh, the weeping of the oppressed! But there is no comforter for them, for in the hand of their oppressors is power. Yea, there is no comforter for them.
2. And I commended the dead who have already died, more than the living who are still alive.
3. But better than both of them is he who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work which is done under the sun.
4. Then I saw all the effort and all the skillful work, that it provokes envy in man toward his neighbor. This also is vanity, and a chasing after wind.
5. The fool clasps his hands and eats his own flesh.
6. Better is a handful with quietness than two hands full with toil and a chasing after wind.
7. Then I returned, and I saw a vanity under the sun.
8. There is one, and there is not a second; he has neither son nor brother, and yet, there is no end to all his toil. For his eyes are not satisfied with riches, and he does not ask himself, "For whom do I toil, depriving my soul of its benefit?" This also is vanity, and it is evil busyness.
9. Two are better than one because they have a better reward for their toil.
10. Moreover, if they should fall, the one will lift up his companion. But woe to him who is alone when he falls, for there is not another to lift him up.
11. Again, if two lie down together, they keep warm, but how can one keep warm alone?
12. And though a man prevail against one, two will withstand him, and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.
13. Better to be a poor and wise youth than to be an old and foolish king who no longer knows to take advice.

14. For out of the prison-house, he goes forth to become king, even though he was born poor within his kingdom.
15. I observed all the living who walked about under the sun with that youth, the other one who rose up in his stead.
16. There was no end to all the people, to all those over whom he was; and yet, those who come later will not rejoice in him. Truly, this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

Ecclesiastes 5

- ¶1. Watch your steps when you go to the house of God, and draw near to listen rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know they are doing evil.
2. Do not be rash with your mouth, for your heart must not hastily utter a word before God, for God is in heaven and you are on earth. Therefore, let your words be few.
3. Truly, a dream comes by a multitude of busyness, and a fool's voice comes with a multitude of words.
4. When you make a vow to God, do not delay to pay it, for He takes no pleasure in fools. What you have vowed, pay!
5. It is better that you make no vow than to vow and not pay.
6. Do not let your mouth cause your flesh to sin, and do not say before the messenger that it was a mistake. Why should God be angry at your voice and destroy the work of your hands?
7. Truly, with a multitude of dreams, both vanities and words are multiplied. But as for you, fear God!
8. If in a province, you see oppression of the poor and a violent taking away of what is just and right, do not marvel at that, for one higher than the high is watching, and there are higher ones over them.
9. For the bounty of the earth is for all who are on it; the king himself is served from the field.
10. He who loves silver will not be satisfied with silver, nor the one who loves wealth, with abundance. This also is vanity.
11. When goods increase, they increase who consume them; so, what benefit are they to their owners, other than seeing them with their eyes?
12. Sweet is the sleep of the laboring man, whether he eat little or much, but the abundance of the rich man will not give him the relief of sleep.
13. There is an enervating evil I have seen under the sun: wealth stored up by its owners for its loss
14. when that wealth perishes in a bad venture. And he fathered a son, but in his hand, there is nothing.
15. Just as he came out of his mother's womb, naked, he will return, just as he came. For he will take nothing of his labor which he would carry away in his hand.
16. And this, too, is an enervating evil. In every respect as he came, so shall he go. And what benefit does he have who labors for the wind?

17. Moreover, each of his days is consumed in darkness, and he is greatly vexed with his disease and wrath.
18. Behold, I have seen what is good and what is beautiful: it is for a man to eat, and to drink, and to experience, during the days of his life which God has given him, good from all his toil in which he labors under the sun, for that is his portion.
19. Also, every man to whom God has given wealth and possessions and has given him power to enjoy it, for him to bear his portion and to rejoice in his labor—this, itself, is a gift from God,
20. but he will not much remember the days of his life. Truly, God afflicts according to the pleasure of His heart.

Ecclesiastes 6

- ¶1. There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, and it lies heavy upon mankind.
2. A man to whom God has given wealth, and possessions, and honor so that there is nothing lacking for him of anything that he desires, and yet, God does not enable him to enjoy it, but a stranger enjoys it. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease.
3. If a man beget a hundred children, and live many years, so that the years of his life are many, and yet his soul be not filled with good and he have no burial, I say that a stillborn child is better than he
4. (for into vanity he came, and into darkness he will go, and by the darkness will his name be covered).
5. Yea, it did not see the sun, and yet, one finds no more rest than the other.
6. Even if one lives a thousand years, twice over, or one sees no good, are not all going to the same place?
7. All the toil of a man is for his mouth, and even at that, his soul is not filled.
8. What advantage then has the wise man over the fool? What does the poor man have who understands how to walk before the living?
9. Better is the sight of the eyes than wandering desire. This also is vanity, and a chasing after wind.
10. Whoever already exists, his glory has been determined, and it is known that he is a man, and he is not able to contend with him who is mightier than he.
11. Seeing there are many things that increase vanity, what advantage does man have?
12. For who knows what is good for man while he is living out the number of the days of his vain life, which he will spend like a shadow? For who can tell a man what will be after him under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 7

- ¶1. A good name is better than good oil, and the day of death is better than the day of one's birth.
2. It is better to go to a house of mourning than to go to a house of feasting, for that is the end of all men, and the living will take it to heart.

3. Sorrow is better than laughter, for by the sadness of the countenance, the heart is made better.
4. The heart of wise men is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.
5. It is better for one to hear a rebuke from a wise man than for one to listen to a song of fools.
6. Truly, like the sound of thorns under a cooking pot, so is the laughter of a fool. And this also is vanity.
7. Truly, oppression drives a wise man mad, and a bribe destroys the heart.
8. The end of a thing is better than its beginning. A patient spirit is better than a proud spirit.
9. Do not be hasty in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools.
10. Do not say, "How is it that the former days were better than these?" For you are not asking wisely about this.
11. With an inheritance, wisdom is good, and it is a benefit to those who see the sun.
12. For wisdom is a defense, and money is a defense, but the benefit of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to those who possess it.
13. Consider the work of God! For who can make straight what He has made crooked?
14. In the day of prosperity, be happy, and in the day of adversity, consider. God works them both together, to the end that man should find out nothing after him.
15. I have seen everything during the days of my vanity. There is a righteous man who dies in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who lives long in his wickedness.
16. Do not be overly righteous, and do not be too wise. Why should you destroy yourself?
17. Do not be overly wicked, and do not be a fool. Why should you die before your time?
18. It is good that you should lay hold on this, and also that from this you should not relax your grip, for he who fears God will come forth from them all.
19. Wisdom gives strength to the wise man, more than ten rulers who are in the city.
20. Truly, there is not a righteous man on earth who does good and does not sin.
21. Also, do not take to heart all things that are spoken, lest you hear your servant cursing you.
22. For your heart also knows that many times, you, yourself, have cursed others.
23. All this have I tested by wisdom. I said, "I will be wise," but it was far from me.
24. That which is far off and exceedingly deep, who can find it out?
25. I turned about with my heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom and the Reason, and to know wickedness, folly, and the foolishness of madness.
26. And I found more bitter than death, that woman whose heart is snares and nets. Her hands are chains. He who is good in God's sight escapes her, but the sinner is taken by her.
27. Consider this that I have found, says Ecclesiastes, having observed one thing after another to find the Reason

28. (which my soul continually sought for, but did not find): one man among a thousand have I found, but a woman among all these have I not found.
29. Besides that, consider this that I have found: God created man upright, but they have sought out many devices.

Ecclesiastes 8

- ¶1. Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom causes his face to shine, and the hardness of his face is changed.
2. I say, obey the command of a king, and in consideration of the curse of God,
3. do not be hasty to go from his presence. Do not take part in an evil thing, for he does all things as he pleases.
4. Seeing that authority is in the word of a king, who can say to him, "What are you doing?"
5. He who keeps a commandment will not know an evil thing, and the heart of the wise man will perceive time and judgment.
6. Truly, to every purpose, there is time and judgment, for the wickedness of man is heavy upon him.
7. Truly, he does not know what will come to pass; yea, who can tell him how it will be?
8. There is no man who has control over the spirit, to retain the spirit; neither has he control in the day of death. Yea, there is no discharge in that war. Wickedness will not deliver those who possess it.
9. All this have I seen while applying my heart to every work that is done under the sun.
There is a time when one man rules over another man to his own hurt.
10. And I have seen wicked men properly buried, who had come in and gone out of the holy place, and yet, they were forgotten in the city where they had done so. This also is vanity.
11. Because sentence against evildoing is not carried out quickly, the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.
12. Though a sinner do evil a hundred times, and God prolong his life, I still know that it will be well with those who fear God because they fear before Him.
13. And it will not be well with the wicked man, and God will not prolong his life; his days will be like a shadow because he does not fear before God.
14. There is a vanity which is wrought on earth, namely, righteous people to whom it happens according to the work of wicked people, and wicked people to whom it happens according to the work of righteous people. I said that this, too, is vanity.
15. Then I praised joy, for there is no good for a man under the sun, except to eat, and to drink, and to be merry, for this good will go with him in his labor throughout the days of his life which God gives him under the sun.
16. Then I applied my heart to know wisdom and to observe the busyness that is done on earth, that neither by day nor by night does a man see sleep with his eyes.

17. And I saw all the work of God, that man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun. Though a man labor to search it out, he will not find it. Yea, even if a wise man determines to know it, he will not be able to find it out.

Ecclesiastes 9

- ¶1. But all this I took to heart so as to make all this clear, that those who are righteous and those who are wise, along with their works, are in God's hand, whether it be love or hate. Men do not perceive everything that is before them.
2. All things come alike to all; one event happens to the righteous man and to the wicked one, to the good and clean and to the unclean, to him who sacrifices and to him who does not sacrifice. As with the good man, so with the sinner; the one who swears and whoso fears an oath.
3. This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that one event happens to all. The heart of the sons of man is certainly full of wickedness, and madness is in their heart during their lives; and afterwards, they are joined to the dead.
4. But whoever is joined to all the living has hope, even a living dog is better than a dead lion.
5. For the living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing, nor do they any longer have a reward; the very memory of them is forgotten.
6. Moreover, their love, and their hate, and their envy is now perished, and they have no more portion forever in all that is done under the sun.
7. Go. Eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a cheerful heart, for God now may be pleased with your works.
8. Let your garments always be white, and do not let oil be lacking on your head.
9. Enjoy life with the wife whom you love all the days of your life of vanity which God has given you under the sun, all the days of your vanity, for it is your portion in life and in your labor in which you toil under the sun.
10. Whatever your hand finds to do, do with your might, for there is no work, or planning, or knowledge, or wisdom in Sheol where you are going.
11. I returned, and I saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift ones, nor the battle to the mighty, nor yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to those with understanding, nor yet favor to those with knowledge, but time and circumstance meet them all.
12. Moreover, man never knows his time. Like fish taken in a deadly net, and like birds caught in a trap, sons of man are taken in an evil time when it suddenly falls upon them.
13. This wisdom also have I seen under the sun, and it was great to me:
14. There was a little city with few men in it. And there came against it a great king, and he surrounded it, and built great siege-works against it.
15. And a poor wise man was found in it, and he delivered the city by his wisdom, and yet, no man remembered that same poor man.

16. And then I said, "Wisdom is better than strength," and yet, the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.
17. Words of wise men spoken quietly are heeded more than the shouting of a ruler among fools.
18. Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner may destroy much good.

Ecclesiastes 10

- ¶1. Dead flies make the oil of the apothecary to stink; likewise, a little folly carries more weight than wisdom and honor.
2. The heart of a wise man is at his right hand, but the heart of a fool is at his left,
3. so that even when a fool is walking on the road, his heart is deficient, and he tells everyone he is a fool.
4. If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, do not leave your place, for submission will lay to rest great offenses.
5. There is an evil I have seen under the sun, that is, an error that comes forth from the ruler:
6. foolishness is set in many high places, while rich men dwell in a lowly place.
7. I have seen slaves on horses, and princes walking on the ground like slaves.
8. He who digs a pit will fall into it, and a serpent will bite the one who breaks through a wall.
9. He who quarries stones will be hurt by them; he who splits logs is endangered by them.
10. If the iron is blunt, and he does not sharpen the edge, he must exert more strength, but wisdom is profitable for success.
11. If, when there is no charming, the serpent bites, there is no benefit to the charmer.
12. Words from the mouth of a wise man bring him favor, but the lips of a fool swallow him up.
13. The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness, and the end of his talk is evil madness.
14. Though the fool multiply words, a man does not know what will come to pass, and who will tell him what will come to pass after him?
15. The mischief of fools makes him weary who does not know how to get to a city.
16. Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child and your princes eat in the morning!
17. Blessed are you, O land, when your king is a son of nobles and your princes eat at the proper time, for strength, and not for drunkenness!
18. By much slothfulness the beam-work sags, and by idleness of hands, the house leaks.
19. Feasts are made for laughter, and wine makes life merry, but money answers everything.
20. Even in your thought, do not curse a king, and in your bedchambers, do not curse a rich man, for a bird of heaven will carry your voice, and that which has wings will report the matter.

Ecclesiastes 11

- ¶1. Cast your bread on the surface of the waters, for after many days, you will find it.
- 2. Give a portion to seven, and also to eight, for you do not know what evil will come upon the land.
- 3. If the clouds are full, they pour out rain onto the earth, and if a tree falls, whether southward or northward, in the place where it falls, there will the tree remain.
- 4. He who watches the wind will not sow, and he who observes the clouds will not reap.
- 5. Just as you do not know of the way of the spirit, or the bones in the womb of a woman with child, so you do not know the work of God who makes everything.
- 6. In the morning, sow your seed, and at evening, let not your hand be slack, for you do not know which will prosper, this or that, or whether both alike will be good.
- 7. Truly, the light is sweet, and it is pleasant to the eyes to see the sun,
- 8. but if a man live many years and rejoices in them all, let him remember the days of darkness, that they will be many. All that comes is vanity.
- 9. Rejoice, young man, in your youth, let your heart be glad in the days of your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart and in the sight of your eyes; but know that for all these things, God will bring you into judgment.
- 10. Turn sorrow away from your heart, and put evil away from your flesh, for youth and childhood are vanity.

Ecclesiastes 12

- ¶1. Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth, while the evil days are not come and the years draw near in which you say, “I have no pleasure in them”;
- 2. while the sun is not darkened, nor the light, nor the moon, or the stars; or the clouds return after the rain;
- 3. in the day that the keepers of the house tremble; and the strong men are bent over; and the grinders cease because they are few; and those that look through the windows grow dim;
- 4. and the doors on the street are shut when the sound of the grinding-mill is low; and one rises at the sound of a bird; and all the daughters of music are brought low;
- 5. and they are afraid of what is high; and terrors are in the way; and the almond tree blossoms; and the grasshopper is a burden; and desire fails because man goes to his eternal home, and the mourners go about in the street.
- 6. Remember Him while the silver cord is not cut; nor the golden bowl crushed; nor the pitcher at the fountain shattered; nor the wheel broken at the cistern.
- 7. Then will the dust return to the earth as it was, and the spirit will return to God who gave it.
- 8. “Vanity of vanities!” says Ecclesiastes. “All is vanity!”
- 9. And furthermore, Ecclesiastes, who was wise, continually taught the people knowledge, and he weighed out, and made search, and set in order many proverbs.
- 10. Ecclesiastes sought to find out acceptable sayings, and what was written was right, even words of truth.

11. Words of wise men are like goads, and like prods that master herdsmen stick in, provided by one shepherd.
12. And furthermore, my son, by these things be warned. Of the making of many books, there is no end, and much study makes for weariness of the flesh.
13. The conclusion of the matter, when all has been heard, is this: fear God and keep His commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.
14. For God will bring every deed into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good or evil.

Song of Solomon

Song of Solomon 1

- ¶1. The song of songs which is by Solomon.
- 2. “O may he kiss me with the kisses of his mouth. Yea, your loving kisses are better than wine,
- 3. and the aroma of your oil is pleasurable. Your name is poured out as oil. Therefore, virgins love you.
- 4. Draw me! After you will we run. The king brought me into his chambers; we will be glad and rejoice in you. We will remember your loving more than wine; all the upright love you.
- 5. I am dark, yet beautiful, O daughters of Jerusalem, like tents of Kedar, like the curtains of Solomon.
- 6. Do not stare at me. I am dark for the sun has looked upon me. My mother’s sons were angry with me. They made me a keeper of the vineyards. My own vineyard have I not kept.
- 7. O tell me, you whom my soul loves, where do you tend your flock, where do you bring it to lie down at noon? For why am I as one who covers herself before the flocks of your companions?”
- 8. “If it be not known to you, O fairest among women, go forth in the footsteps of the flock and feed your kids by the shepherds’ places.
- 9. As my mare among the chariots of Pharaoh have I compared you, O my love.
- 10. Your cheeks are beautiful with pendants, your neck with chains.
- 11. We will make pendants of gold for you, with studs of silver.”
- 12. “While the king reclined, my spikenard gave forth its aroma.
- 13. My beloved is as a pouch of myrrh to me; he shall pass the night between my breasts.
- 14. My beloved is to me as a cluster of ??? in the vineyards of En-gedi.”
- 15. “Behold, you are fair! O my love, behold, you are beautiful! Your eyes are gentle as doves.”
- 16. “Behold, you, my beloved, are handsome, yea, pleasing. Yea, our bed is lush.
- 17. The beams of our house are cedar; our boards are fir.”

Song of Solomon 2

- ¶1. “I am the rose of Sharon, the lily of the valleys.
- 2. As a lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.”
- 3. “As an apple tree among the trees of the woods, so is my beloved among the sons. In his shadow I delight sit down, and his fruit is sweet to my mouth.
- 4. He has brought me to the house of the wine, and his banner over me is love.

5. Sustain me with cakes of raisins; comfort {?} me with apples. I am overcome by love.
6. His left hand is under my head, and his right hand embraces me.”
7. “I adjure you {masc.}, O daughters of Jerusalem, by gazelles {1Kings 4:23}, or by hinds of the field, if you {masc.} rouse up or if you {masc.} awaken my love {fem.} until she {he?} pleases.” {3:5 identical}
8. “The voice of my beloved! Behold, he is coming, leaping over the mountains, skipping over the hills.
9. My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag. Behold, he stands behind our wall looking at the windows, gazing through the lattice.
10. My beloved spoke and said to me, ‘Rise up, O my love, my fair one and come away.
11. For behold, winter is past; the rain is over, it is gone.
12. The flowers appear upon the land, the time for song has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in the land.
13. The fig tree ripens its green figs, and the vines in blossom give their fragrance. Rise up, come, my love, my fair one, and come away.
14. O my dove, who is in the clefts of the rock, in the secret place of the ascent, let me see your countenance, let me hear your voice, for your voice is sweet, and your countenance is beautiful.
15. Catch the foxes for us, the little foxes spoiling the vines, for our vines are in blossom.
16. My beloved is mine, and I am his; he grazes among the lilies,
17. until the day breaks, and the shadows flee. Turn, my beloved, be like a gazelle or a young stag upon mountains of Bather.”

Song of Solomon 3

- ¶1. “Night after night on my bed, I sought him whom my soul loves; I sought him, but I could not find him.
2. I will arise now and go about in the city, in the streets and in the open squares will I seek him whom my soul loves; I sought him, but I could not find him.
3. The watchmen who go about in the city found me. ‘Have you seen him whom my soul loves?’
4. It was just a little after I passed on from them until I found him whom my soul loves. I seized him, and I would not let him go until I had brought him to the house of my mother and into the chamber of her who conceived me.
5. I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by gazelles {1Kings 4:23}, or by hinds of the field, if you {masc.} rouse up or if you {masc.} awaken my love {fem.} until she {he?} pleases.”
6. “Who is this coming up from the wilderness like mushrooming columns of smoke, {Joel 2:20} perfumed with myrrh, and frankincense, with every powder from a merchant?”

7. "Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; sixty mighty men are about it, of the mighty men of Israel.
8. All of them holding a sword, instructed in war. Each man's sword upon his thigh against fear in the night."
9. "King Solomon made a litter for himself of the wood of Lebanon.
10. He made its pillars of silver, its support of gold, its seat of purple, its interior lined with love by the daughters of Jerusalem.
11. Go forth, O daughters of Zion, and behold King Solomon with the crown that his mother crowned him on the day of his marriage, and on the day of the rejoicing of his heart!"

Song of Solomon 4

- ¶1. "Behold, you are fair, my love; behold, you are fair, your eyes are like doves 'behind your veil. Your hair is as a flock of goats descending {capering down} from Mount Gilead.
2. Your teeth are like a flock of shorn ewes that is coming up from the washing, which all have twins, and not one is bereaved among them.
3. Your lips are like a thread of scarlet, and your mouth is beautiful; like a piece of pomegranate is your temple behind your veil.
4. Your neck is like the tower of David built for an armory, on which are hung a thousand shields, all of them the shields of warriors.
5. Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle, which feed among the lilies.
6. Until the day breaks, and the shadows flee, I will get myself to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.
7. You are altogether beautiful, my love; there is not even a blemish in you.
8. With me, O bride, come from Lebanon, come with me from Lebanon. Look {possibly Descend} from the top of Amana, from the top of Senir, even Hermon, from the lions 'dens, from the mountains of leopards.
9. You make my heart race, my sister, my bride; you make my heart race with one of your eyes, with one link of your neck.
10. How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride! How much better is your love than wine, and the aroma of your oil than all spices!
11. Your lips, O bride, drip as the honeycomb. Honey and milk are under your tongue, and the aroma of your garments is like the scent of Lebanon.
12. A garden closed off is my sister, my bride, {??} a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.
13. Your shoots{??} are an orchard of pomegranates with choice fruit: henna with spikenard;
14. spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all the trees of frankincense, myrrh, and aloes, with all the finest spices:
15. a spring for gardens, a well of living water, and flowing streams from Lebanon."

16. "Awake, O north wind, and come, O south. Blow on my garden, that its spices may flow. Bring my beloved to his garden, and let him eat its choice fruit."

Song of Solomon 5

- ¶1. "I have come to my garden, my sister, O bride. I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk." "Eat, O friends! Drink, yea, be drunk, beloved ones!"
2. "I was sleeping, but my heart was awake. The voice of my beloved knocks, 'Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my perfect one, for my head is filled with dew; my locks with the drops of the night.'
3. I have taken off my tunic. How can I put it on? I have washed my feet. How can I dirty them?
4. My beloved stretched out his hand upon the opening, and my bowels were moved for him.
5. I rose up to open to my beloved, and my hands dripped with myrrh, and my fingers ran with myrrh upon the handles of the lock.
6. I opened to my beloved, but my beloved had turned aside. He had gone. My soul had failed when he spoke. I searched for him, but I could not find him. I called for him, but he did not answer me.
7. The watchmen who go about in the city found me. They beat me; they bruised me. The keepers of the walls took my veil off me.
8. I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem. If you find my beloved, tell him that I am sick with love."
9. "What is your beloved more than another beloved, O fairest among women? What is your beloved more than another beloved, that you adjure us so?"
10. "My beloved is radiant and ruddy, distinguished among ten thousand."
11. His head is as the purest fine gold; his locks are wavy, black as a raven.
12. His eyes are like doves by rivers of water, bathed in by milk, and sitting by a pool.
13. His cheeks are like a bed of spice, mounds of spices; his lips, like lilies dripping liquid myrrh.
14. His hands are rods of gold filled with beryl; his belly is plates of ivory covered with sapphire.
15. His legs are pillars of alabaster, set on sockets of fine gold; his appearance is like the choice cedars of Lebanon.
16. His mouth is most sweet, and he is altogether desirable. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem."

Song of Solomon 6

- ¶1. "Where has your beloved gone, O fairest of women? Where has your beloved turned aside, that we may seek him with you?"

2. "My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spice, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.
3. I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine. He feeds among the lilies."
4. "You are beautiful, my love, like Tirzah, comely as Jerusalem, inspiring awe like the banners of an army.
5. Turn your eyes away from me, for they overwhelm me; your hair is as a flock of goats descending from Gilead.
6. Your teeth are like a flock of ewes that is coming up from the washing, which all have twins, and not one is bereaved among them,
7. like a piece of pomegranate is your temple behind your veil."
8. "There are sixty queens, and eighty concubines, and virgins without number.
9. My dove, my perfect one, she is but one; she is the only one of her mother. She is pure to the one who bore her. The daughters saw her and called her blessed; the queens and the concubines, they praised her."
10. Who is this who looks down like the dawn, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and inspiring awe like the banners of an army?"
11. "I went down to the garden of nuts to look at the blossom of the valley, to see whether the vine flourished, and the pomegranate had budded.
12. I did not know my soul had set me in a chariot of Amminadib." {???
13. "Return, return, O Shulamite! Return, return, that we may look upon you. What will we see in the Shulamite? As it were, the dance of two camps." {phewee!}

Song of Solomon 7

- ¶1. "How beautiful are your feet in sandals, O prince's daughter! The curves of your thighs are like ornaments, the work of the hands of a master.
2. Your navel is like a rounded bowl that never lacks wine; your belly is a heap of wheat set with lilies.
3. Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.
4. Your neck is like a tower of ivory; your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bathrabbim. Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks towards Damascus.
5. Your head upon you is like Carmel, and the hair of your head is like purple cloth; the king is bound by the flowing locks.
6. O how you are fair, and O how pleasant you are, O my love, for delights!
7. And this: your stature is like a palm tree, with your breasts for clusters of dates.
8. I said that I will go up into the palm tree; I will take hold of its boughs. Yea, let your breasts be as clusters of the vine, and the scent of your breath like apples.
9. And your mouth is like good wine, flowing sweetly from my beloved, dropping from sleeping lips."

10. "I am my beloved's, and his desire is for me.
11. Come, my beloved. Let us go out to the field; let us lodge in the villages.
12. Let us go early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine is flourishing with blossom open, and the pomegranates budded; there, I will give you my love.
13. The mandrakes give off an aroma, and at our doors are all kinds of precious things, new and also old, which I have stored up for you, my beloved."

Song of Solomon 8

- ¶1. "Oh, that He would give you as a brother for me, one who nursed at my mother's breasts! I would find you outside; I would kiss you. Yea, they would not despise me.
2. I would lead you, bring you, to the house of my mother, who taught me. I would give you spiced wine to drink, the juice of the pomegranate.
3. His left hand under my head, and his right hand embracing me."
4. "I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that you rouse not, nor awaken my love until she pleases."
5. "Who is this coming up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved? I roused you under the apple tree. There, your mother brought you forth; there, she brought forth, she brought forth you.
6. Set me as a seal on your heart, as a seal on your arm, for love is strong as death, jealousy as cruel as Sheol. Its flames are flames of a fierce fire.
7. Many waters cannot quench love, neither can rivers drown it. If a man would give all the wealth of his house for love, it would be utterly despised {by him??}."
8. "We have a little sister, and she has no breasts. What shall we do for our sister on the day that she is spoken of?"
9. If she is a wall, we will build a battlement of silver on her, or if she is a door, we will enclose her with cedar boards."
10. "I am a wall, and my breasts are like towers; then I had favor in his eyes like one who found peace."
- ¶11. "Solomon had a vineyard at Baalhamon; he let out the vineyard to keepers. Each one brought a thousand pieces of silver for its fruit.
12. My vineyard, which is mine, is before me. Solomon has the thousand, and those who keep its fruit two hundred.
13. She who dwells in the gardens, companions listening for your voice; let me hear it!
14. Make haste, my beloved, and be to me like a gazelle or a young stag upon the mountains of spices."

Isaiah

Isaiah 1

- ¶1. The vision of Isaiah ben-Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.
2. Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth, for Jehovah has spoken! I have nurtured and brought up children, but they have rebelled against me.
3. The ox knows his owner, and the donkey, his master's crib. Israel does not know; my people do not understand.
4. Ah, sinful nation! People laden with iniquity! Seed of evildoers! Corrupt children! They have forsaken Jehovah; they have despised the Holy One of Israel. They are completely estranged.
5. Why would you be struck any more? You will rebel again. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart is faint.
6. From the sole of the foot, even to the head, there is no soundness in it. Bruises, and stripes, and raw wounds have not been treated,¹ nor bandaged, nor mollified with oil.
7. Your country is a waste; your cities are burned up by fire; your land is devoured by strangers in your sight; yea, it is a waste overthrown by strangers.
8. And the daughter of Zion is left like a hut in a vineyard, like a shack in a field of cucumbers, like a besieged city.
9. Had not Jehovah of Hosts left of us a small remnant, we would be like Sodom; we would be like Gomorrah.
10. Hear the word of Jehovah, O rulers of Sodom! Give ear to the law of our God, O people of Gomorrah!
11. What is the multitude of your sacrifices to me? says Jehovah. I am glutted with burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fatlings, and I take no pleasure in the blood of bullocks, and young rams, and he-goats.
12. Who has required you to trample my courts when you come to appear before me?
13. Stop bringing worthless offerings! Incense is an abomination to me. New moon, and Sabbaths, and the calling of a convocation, I cannot bear. The sacred Assembly is nothing to me.
14. Your new moons and your appointed feasts, my soul hates! They are a burden to me. I have worn myself out bearing them.
15. And when you stretch out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you. Though you make many prayers, I will not listen. Your hands are full of blood!
16. Wash yourselves! Make yourselves clean! Remove the evil of your doings from before my eyes! Stop doing evil!

¹ Hebrew uncertain.

17. Learn to do good! Seek justice; rebuke the oppressor; judge the orphan; plead for the widow!
18. Come, I pray you, let us reason together, says Jehovah. Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be white as snow; though they be red as crimson, they shall be as wool.
19. If you be willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land,
20. but if you refuse and you are rebellious, you will be consumed by the sword, for the mouth of Jehovah has spoken.
21. Oh, how the faithful city is turned to whoredom! She was filled with justice; righteousness lodged in her, but now, murderers.
22. Your silver has become dross; your wine is diluted with water.
23. Your princes are apostates and companions of thieves, all of them loving bribery and pursuing gifts. They will not be judges for an orphan, and a widow's case will not come before them.
- ¶24. Therefore says the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, the Mighty One of Israel: "Ah! I will be relieved of my adversaries and avenge myself of my enemies.
25. And I will cause my hand to come upon you again, and I will smelt away your dross as with lye, and I will remove all your alloy.
26. And I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counselors as at the beginning. After that, you will be called, "The City of Righteousness", a faithful town.
27. Zion will be redeemed by judgment, and those of her who repent, by righteousness,
28. but all the sinful rebels will be crushed, and those who forsake Jehovah will be consumed.
29. For you will be ashamed of the terebinths which you desired, and you will be abashed because of the gardens which you chose.
30. For you will be like a terebinth whose leaf withers and falls, and like a garden that has no water,
31. and the strong man will be like tow, and his work, like a spark, and they both will burn together, and nothing will quench them.

Isaiah 2

- ¶1. The word which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.
2. It shall come to pass in the last days that the mountain of the house of Jehovah will be established as head of the mountains, and will be exalted above the hills, and all the nations will stream to it.
3. And many nations will go, and they will say, "Come, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, to the house of the God of Jacob! And He will teach us His ways, and we will walk in His paths." For from Zion will the law go forth, and the word of Jehovah from Jerusalem.
4. And He will judge between the nations, and He will reprove many nations, and they will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation; neither will they learn war any more.

5. O house of Jacob! Come, and let us walk in the light of Jehovah!
6. For you have forsaken your people, the house of Jacob, because they are full of evil from the east and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they are content with children of foreigners,
7. and their land is filled with silver and gold, and there is no end to their treasures. Their land is also filled with horses, and there is no end to their chariots.
8. And their land is filled with idols; to the work of their own hands, to that which their own fingers have made, they bow.
9. And the common man humbles himself, and the great man is abased before them; therefore, do not forgive them.
10. Go into the rock, or hide yourself in the ground, in terror at Jehovah's presence and from the splendor of His majesty. (compare verse 17)
11. The haughty looks of the great man will be humbled, and the pride of common men will be abased, and Jehovah alone will be exalted on that day.
12. For the day of Jehovah of Hosts is upon everyone who is proud and haughty, and upon everyone who lifts himself up, and he will be abased,
13. and upon all the cedars of Lebanon that are lofty and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan,
14. and upon all the mountains that are exalted, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,
15. and upon every high tower, and upon every fortified wall,
16. and upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all the valuable crafts².
17. And the haughtiness of man will be brought down, and the loftiness of men will be brought low. And Jehovah alone will be exalted on that day. (compare verse 11)
18. And He will utterly do away with the idols.
19. And they will go into crevices in the rocks and holes in the ground, in terror at Jehovah's presence and away from the splendor of His majesty when He rises to shake the earth.
20. In that day, a man will throw his idols of silver and his idols of gold that they made for him to worship to the mole-rats and the bats,
21. entering into caves in the rocks and into the clefts of cliffs in terror at Jehovah's presence, and away from the splendor of His majesty when He rises to shake the earth.
22. Cease from man, whose breath is in his nostrils! For wherein is he to be accounted of?

Isaiah 3

- ¶1. Lo! Behold, the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, is taking away from Jerusalem and from Judah every kind of support: the entire supply of bread, and the entire supply of water;
2. mighty man, and man of war; judge, and prophet, and diviner, and elder;

² Hebrew uncertain.

3. captain of fifty, and eminent man, and counselor, and wise man; artisans, and skillful orator.
 4. And I will make children their princes, and unstable men shall rule over them.
 5. And the people shall be oppressed, each one by another, and each one by his neighbor.
The young man shall behave arrogantly toward his elder, and the base man, toward the honorable man.
 6. For a man will grab hold of his brother in the house of his father, and say, “You have clothes! You will be our leader, and this ruin will be under your hand!”
 7. He will swear in that day, saying, “I am not a healer, and there is neither bread nor clothes in my house. You will not make me the people’s leader!”
 8. For Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah is fallen. Yea, their tongue and their deeds incite rebellion against Jehovah in the presence of His glory.
 9. The look on their faces testifies against them, and they proclaim their sin like Sodom.
They do not hide! Woe to their soul, for they have dealt destruction to themselves.
 10. Tell³ the righteous man that it shall be well with him, for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.
 11. Woe to the wicked man! It shall be ill with him, for the recompense of his hands shall be done to him.
 12. O my people! Their oppressors act like children, and women rule over them. O my people! Those who lead you have caused you to err and have swallowed up the way of your paths!
 13. Jehovah is standing up to plead His cause; yea, He is standing to judge the peoples.
 14. Jehovah will enter into judgment with the elders of His people, and their princes. You!
You have devoured the vineyard! The plunder of the poor is in your houses!
 15. What do you mean by crushing my people and grinding down the faces of the poor, says the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts!
- ¶16. Moreover, Jehovah says, because you are haughty, O daughters of Zion, and walk about with stretched-out neck and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as you go, and with their feet, they jingle their anklets.
17. But my Lord will strike with a scab the scalp of the daughters of Zion, and Jehovah will expose their private parts.
 18. In that day, my Lord will take away finery: the anklets, and the headbands, and the crescent-shaped ornaments,
 19. the pendants, and the bracelets, and the veils,
 20. the tiaras, and the armlets, and the sashes, and vials of perfume,⁴ and the charms,
 21. the rings and the nose-rings,
 22. the festal robes, and the mantles, and the cloaks, and the purses,

³ That is, “You [plural] tell”. Who God is giving this commandment to is not stated.

⁴ Hebrew obscure.

23. and the mirrors, and the fine linen, and the headdresses, and the shawls,
24. and it will be that instead of a sweet aroma, there shall be rottenness; and instead of a girdle, a rope; and instead of well-set hair, baldness; and instead of a fancy robe, a wrap of sackcloth; branding instead of beauty.
25. Your men shall fall by the sword, and your mighty men in battle,
26. and her gates shall mourn and lament, and she will sit on the ground, purged.

Isaiah 4

- ¶1. And seven women will take hold of one man in that day, saying, “We will eat our own bread and wear our own clothes, only let us be called by your name! O take away our reproach!
- ¶2. In that day will the Branch of Jehovah be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the pride and glory of the survivors in Israel.
3. And it shall come to pass that he who is left in Zion and he who remains in Jerusalem will be called holy, everyone who is written among the living in Jerusalem,
4. when the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and cleansed the blood-guilt of Jerusalem from her midst by a spirit of judgment and by a spirit of destruction.
5. And Jehovah will create over the whole site of Mount Zion and over her Assemblies a cloud by day and the smoke and brightness of a flaming fire by night, for over all the glory will be a canopy.
6. And it will be a pavilion for shade from the heat by day, and a refuge and shelter from storm and rain.

Isaiah 5

- ¶1. I will now sing for my Beloved my Beloved’s song concerning His vineyard: My Beloved had a vineyard on a fertile hill.
2. And he dug all around it, and cleared it of stones, and planted it with a choice vine. And he built a tower in the midst of it, and he also hewed out a wine-vat in it. And then, he waited for it to yield grapes. But it produced wild grapes!”
3. And so, now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, between me and my vineyard.
4. What more could have been done for my vineyard that I did not do in it? Why, when I looked for it to yield grapes, did it produce wild grapes?
5. So, let me tell you now what I am going to do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be destroyed; I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled,
6. and I will make it a waste. It shall not be pruned, and it shall not be hoed, and briars and thorns shall come up. And I will forbid the clouds above to rain upon it.
7. For the vineyard of Jehovah of Hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah, His very delightful plant. And He looked for justice, but behold, murder! For righteousness, but behold, a cry!

8. Woe to those who join house to house; they add field to field until there is no place, that you are made to dwell alone in the midst of the land!
9. In my ears, Jehovah of Hosts said, "I will damn myself if many great and fine houses are not given to destruction, without inhabitant.⁵
10. Yea, a ten-acre vineyard shall yield but one bath, and a homer of seed shall yield but an ephah!
11. Woe to those who rise early in the morning to follow strong drink, continuing until the evening; wine inflames them!
12. And lyre, and lute, and timbrel, and pipe, and wine are in their feasts, but the work of Jehovah, they do not regard, nor do they consider the work of His hands.
13. For this, my people are exiled, being without knowledge. Yea, His honored men are hungry, and His people are parched with thirst.
14. Therefore, Sheol has enlarged herself; she has opened her mouth wide, without measure, and her nobility, and her multitude, and her tumult, and he who triumphs will descend into her.
15. And the mean man shall be humbled, and the great man shall be abased; yea, the eyes of haughty men shall be abased.
16. And Jehovah of Hosts will be exalted in judgment, and the Holy God will be sanctified in righteousness.
17. Then lambs shall feed as in their pasture, and sojourners shall eat fatlings in waste places.
18. Woe to those who drag wickedness with cords of vanity, and sin as with cart-ropes,
19. who say, "Let Him hurry! Let His work be done quickly, that we might see it," and "Let the council of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come, that we might know it!"
20. Woe to those who call evil good, and good, evil; who put forth darkness for light, and light for darkness; who put forth bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!
21. Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and understanding in their own sight!
22. Woe to men who are mighty when it comes to drinking wine, and men who are valiant when it comes to mixing up a strong drink,
23. those who acquit a wicked man because of a bribe and take away the just cause of righteous men from them!
24. Therefore, as a tongue of fire devours stubble and as dry grass sinks down in a flame, their root will be like rot, and their blossom will go up like dust, for they have rejected the law of Jehovah of Hosts and despised the decree of the Holy One of Israel.
25. Therefore, the wrath of Jehovah was kindled against His people, and He stretched forth His hand against them and struck them, and the mountains quaked, and their carcasses were like refuse in the middle of the streets. For all this, His anger is not turned away, but His hand is still stretched out.

⁵ Literally, “—if I ever forget...” The curse intended with this oath is so unthinkable—God’s death and damnation—that it is not even uttered. See also 22:14; 40:28; 62:8.

26. And He will raise a signal to nations far away, and He will hiss for them to come from the ends of the earth. And behold, quickly, swiftly, they will come.
27. Not one among them is weary; not one stumbles. They do not grow drowsy, and they do not sleep, nor is their waistband loosed, nor is the strap of their sandal broken.
28. Their arrows are sharpened, and all their bows drawn; their horses 'hooves are like flint, and their wheels are like the whirlwind.
29. Their roaring is like a lion; yea, they roar like young lions. They growl and seize prey, and they safely carry it away, and there is no rescuing it.
30. And they will growl over it on that day like the roaring of the sea. And He looked at the land, and behold, darkness and distress, and by its clouds was the light darkened.

Isaiah 6

- ¶1. In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up, and the skirts of his robe filled the temple.
2. Seraphim were standing up above Him with six wings; each had six wings. With two, he was covering his face, and with two, he was covering his feet, and with two, he was flying about.
3. And one called out to another, and said, "Holy! Holy! Holy is Jehovah of Hosts! The fullness of the earth is His glory!"
4. And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of the one who called out, and the house was filled with smoke.
5. And I said, "Woe is me! I am undone, for I am a man of unclean lips and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips, yet my eyes have seen the King, Jehovah of Hosts!"
6. Then one of the seraphim flew to me, and with his hand he took from the altar a live coal with tongs,
7. and he touched my mouth and said, "Behold! This has touched your lips and has removed your iniquity, and your sin is atoned for."
8. And I heard the voice of my Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" And I said, "Here I am. Send me!"
9. And he said, "Go! And say to this people, 'You will certainly hear, but you will by no means understand. And you will certainly see, but you will by no means perceive.'
10. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears dull, and make their eyes blind, lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart and repent, and He heal them!"
11. Then I said, "How long, my Lord?" And he said, "Until cities lie waste, without inhabitant, and houses without people, and the ground is made an utter desolation,
12. and Jehovah has sent the people far away, and the emptiness be great in the midst of the land.

13. But there will again be a tenth in it, and it will return, but it will be for burning, like the terebinth and like the oak whose stump remains when it is felled. The holy seed is its stump.”

Isaiah 7

- ¶1. And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz ben-Jotham, son of Uzziah, King of Judah, that Rezin, King of Aram, and Pekah ben-Remaliah, King of Israel, went up to Jerusalem for battle against it, but were not able to conquer it.
2. And it was told to the house of David, saying, “Aram is in league with Ephraim.” And their heart trembled, and the heart of their people, as trees of the forest are shaken before the wind.
3. And Jehovah said to Isaiah, “Go out, now, to meet Ahaz, you and your son Shear-jashub, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool on Washer’s Field Road.
4. And you say to him, ‘Be alert and still. Do not be afraid, nor let your heart faint because of these two stubs of smoking firebrands, because of the furious anger of Rezin and Aram and of the son of Remaliah.
5. Inasmuch as Aram, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have taken evil counsel against you, saying,
6. “Let us go up against Judah and make them sick with fear, and divide it among ourselves, and make the son of Tabeal king in its midst,”
7. thus says the Lord, Jehovah: it shall not stand, and it shall not come to pass!
8. For the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin, and within sixty-five years, Ephraim shall be destroyed from being a people.
9. And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah. If you do not believe, surely, you will not be established.””
- ¶10. And again Jehovah spoke to Ahaz, saying,
11. “Ask for a sign from Jehovah your God, in the depth of Sheol or in the height of heaven!”
12. But Ahaz said, “I will not ask, nor will I put Jehovah to the test.”
13. Then He said, “Hear, now, O house of David! Is it such a small thing for you to wear out men that you must also wear out my God?
14. Therefore, my Lord Himself will give you a sign. Behold, the pregnant virgin! Yea, she is bearing a son, and she will call his name Immanuel.⁶
15. Curds and honey shall he eat, that he might learn to refuse the evil and choose the good.
16. But before the young man knows to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land that you loathe shall be forsaken of its two kings.

⁶ Immanuel means “God with us”.

17. Jehovah shall bring upon you, and upon your people, and upon the house of your father days that have not been since the day Ephraim separated from Judah—the king of Assyria!
- ¶18. “And it shall come to pass in that day that Jehovah will whistle for the fly that is at the extremity of the streams of Egypt and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria,
19. and they shall come, and they shall rest, all of them, in the steep ravines, and in the clefts of rocks, and on all the thorn-bushes, and all the watering places.
20. In that day, the Lord will shave with the hired razor, with those beyond the river, with the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet, and the beard also will it take away.
21. And it shall be in that day that a man will keep a young cow and two sheep,
22. and it shall be that because of the abundance of milk they give, he shall eat curds, for curds and honey shall everyone eat who remains in the midst of the land.
23. And it shall be in that day that every place where there are a thousand vines worth a thousand pieces of silver shall become briars and thorns.
24. With bow and arrows shall one come there because all the land shall be briars and thorns.
25. And as for all the mountains that are hoed with a hoe, you shall not come there for fear of briars and thorns, but it shall be for pasturing of oxen and the treading of flocks.”

Isaiah 8

- ¶1. And Jehovah said to me, “Take a large tablet and write on it with a man’s stylus, ‘Maher-shalal-hash-baz.’”⁷
2. And so, I recruited for myself faithful witnesses, Uriah the priest and Zechariah ben-Jeberechiah,
3. and I went in to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. And Jehovah said to me, “Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz.
4. For before the lad knows to cry out, ‘my father’ or ‘my mother’, the wealth of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be carried away before the king of Assyria.”
- ¶5. And once more, Jehovah spoke again to me, saying,
6. “Because this people have refused the waters of Shiloah that flow gently, but flow along with Rezin and the son of Remaliah,
7. therefore, behold, my Lord will cause to come up against them the mighty and abundant waters of the river, the king of Assyria and all his glory, and it will rise up over all its channels and overflow all its banks,
8. and it will sweep on into Judah. It will overflow and pass through, reaching to the neck, and there will be an outspreading of his wings, a filling of the breadth of your land, O Immanuel!

⁷ Hebrews words that mean, “Hasten to the spoil; swiftly to the plunder!”

- ¶9. "Join together, O nations, and be shattered, and give ear, all you distant places of earth!
Gird yourselves and be shattered! Gird yourselves and be shattered!
10. Take counsel together, and it will come to nothing! Speak the word, and it will not stand because of Immanuel!"
- ¶11. For thus Jehovah spoke to me with a mighty hand and warned me against walking in the way of this people, saying,
12. "You shall not say 'a confederacy' to all them to whom this people says, 'A confederacy'; neither shall you fear their fear, nor tremble.
13. You shall sanctify Jehovah of Hosts, and Him shall you fear, and at Him shall you tremble."
14. And he will be a sanctuary, but a stumbling-stone and a rock of offense for both houses of Israel, a trap and a snare for the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
15. And many among them will stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and taken.
16. Bind up the testimony! Seal the law among those who are taught by me!
17. And I will wait for Jehovah, who is hiding His face from the house of Jacob, and I will put my hope in Him.
18. Behold! I and the children whom Jehovah has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel!
19. And when they say to you, "Consult the mediums and those with familiar spirits, who squeal and growl"—should not a people inquire of their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living?
20. To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.
21. And he will pass through it hard-pressed and hungry, and it shall come to pass that when he is hungry, he will become enraged, and he will curse his king and his God, but then he will look upward.
22. And he will look to the land, and behold, strife and darkness, gloomy anguish. And then, he will be cast into darkness.

Isaiah 9

- ¶1. But the gloom will not be such as was her affliction the first time, when He cursed the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali and afterward honored the Way of the Sea, beyond the Jordan, the territory of the Gentiles.
2. The people who walk in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwell in a land of the shadow of death, light has shined.
3. You multiplied the heathen; you did not increase joy. They rejoiced before you as in the joy of harvest, as men rejoice when dividing up spoil,
4. but you will break the yoke of his burden and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian.
5. Yea, every boot shakes the earth and every mantel is soaked with blood, but it will be for burning, fuel for a fire.

6. For a child is born for us. To us, a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulder. And He will call his name, "Wonder", "Counselor", "Mighty God", "Everlasting Father", "Prince of Peace".
 7. Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, on the throne of David and over his kingdom, to establish it and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from that time and forever. The zeal of Jehovah of Hosts will do this.
- ¶8. Jehovah has sent forth a word against Jacob, and it fell upon Israel.
9. And all His people shall know, Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria who say with a proud and arrogant heart,
 10. "The bricks are fallen, but we will build with hewn stone; the sycamores have been cut down, but we will replace them with cedars!"
 11. But Jehovah shall raise up Rezin's adversaries against him, and join his enemies together.
 12. Aram before and Philistines behind, and they shall consume Israel with an open mouth.
For all this, His anger is not turned away, but His hand is still stretched out.
 13. For the people will not return to Him who is smiting them; yea, they will not seek Jehovah of Hosts.
 14. And so, Jehovah has cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and reed, in one day.
 15. The elder with haughty face, he is the head, and the prophet who teaches falsehood, he is the tail.
 16. The leaders of this people make them err, and those who are led by them are ruined.
 17. Therefore, Jehovah will not rejoice over the young men, nor will He have compassion on His orphans and His widows. For every one of His people is profane and does evil, and every mouth speaks without sense. For all this, His anger is not turned away, but His hand is still stretched out.
 18. For wickedness has burned like fire; it consumes briar and thorn; yea, it ignites thickets of the forest, and they mount up in a column of smoke.
 19. Through the wrath of Jehovah of Hosts shall the land be scorched, and the people will be like fuel for the fire; no one will spare his brother.
 20. Yea, he will snatch away on the right hand, and they will be hungry, and he will devour on the left, and they will not be satisfied. They will eat, each one, the flesh of his own arm.
 21. Manasseh with Ephraim, and Ephraim with Manasseh; together are they against Judah.
For all this, His anger is not turned away, but His hand is still stretched out.

Isaiah 10

- ¶1. Woe to those who decree iniquitous decrees and scribes who prescribe oppression,
2. to turn aside the needy from judgment and take justice away from the poor of my people so that widows might become their spoil and they might plunder the orphan.
 3. But what will you do in the day of visitation, when devastation comes from afar? To whom will you flee for help? And where will you leave your riches?

4. Without me, he shall bow down beneath the prisoner and shall fall beneath slain men. In spite of all this, His anger is not turned away, but His hand is still stretched out.
- ¶5. Woe! O Assyria, the rod of my anger! Yea, the staff in their hand is my indignation.
6. I will send him against a profane nation, even against the people of my fury. I will command him to take spoil and to take plunder, and appoint him for trampling them like mud in the streets.
7. And yet, he does not plan to do so; nor does his heart think to do so, but it is in his heart to destroy and to cut off nations, not a few.
8. For he said, "Are not all my princes kings?
9. Is not Calno as Carchemish? Or Hamath as Arpad? Or Samaria as Damascus?
10. Just as my hand has taken the idols of kingdoms, and their images, how much more those of Jerusalem and Samaria?
11. As I have done to Samaria and her idols, will I not do the same to Jerusalem and her idols?"
12. And it shall be that when the Lord completes all his work in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, that I will visit the fruit of the exalted heart of the King of Assyria, and the majesty of his lofty looks.
13. For he said, "By the power of my hand have I done it and by my wisdom, for I have understanding! I have removed the boundaries of nations and have plundered their stores, and like a mighty man, I brought down the inhabitants.
14. My hand has found, as in a nest, the wealth of nations, and as one gathers eggs abandoned, I have gathered up all the earth, and there is no wing moving or a mouth opened and chirping."
15. Does the ax exalt itself against the one who cuts with it? Or does the saw magnify itself against the one who uses it? As if a rod could use him who lifts it, or as if a staff could lift up one who is not wood.
16. Therefore, the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, will send leanness among his fat ones, and instead of his glory, He will kindle a burning like kindling a fire.
17. And the light of Israel shall be a fire, and His holy one, a flame, and it shall burn and consume his thorn and his briar in one day,
18. and the glory of his forest and his open field. He shall make an end of both soul and flesh, and he will be like a sick man wasting away.
19. And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be so few that a child may write them down.
- ¶20. And it shall come to pass in that day that the remnant of Israel and those of the house of Jacob who escape will no longer rely upon the one who struck them, but will faithfully rely upon Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel.
21. A remnant shall return, the remnant of Jacob, to the God of the Mighty One.
22. For though your people Israel be like the sand of the sea, a remnant of them shall return.
Destruction is decreed, overflowing with righteousness,

23. for my Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, will make the decreed destruction in the midst of all the land.
24. Therefore, thus says my Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, do not be afraid of the Assyrian, O my people, who dwell in Zion, when he strikes with the rod and lifts up his staff against you, in the manner of the Egyptians.
25. For just a little while longer, and the indignation will cease, and then my anger will turn to their destruction,
26. and Jehovah of Hosts shall stir up a scourging for him like the slaughter of Midian at the Rock of Oreb, and as His rod was over the sea when He lifted it up in the manner of Egypt.
27. And it shall come to pass in that day that He will remove his burden from your shoulder and his yoke from your neck! And the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing oil.
28. He has come to Aijath; he has crossed over to Migron; at Michmash, he set his baggage.
29. They crossed over the ford, saying, “Geba will be our lodging-place.” There was a trembling in Ramah; Gibeah of Saul has fled.
30. Cry aloud with your voice, O daughter of Gallim! Give heed, O Laishah! O poor Anathoth!
31. Madmenah has fled; the inhabitants of Gebim sought refuge.
32. On that day, he will stand at Nob; he will shake his fist at the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.
33. Behold, the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, shall lop off a bough with a terrifying noise, and the exalted ones on high shall be hewn down; yea, the lofty ones shall be brought low.
34. And the thickets of the forest shall be hacked down by an instrument of iron, and Lebanon will fall by a mighty one.

Isaiah 11

- ¶1. And a Shoot shall come forth from the stump of Jesse, and a Branch from his roots shall bear fruit.
2. The Spirit of Jehovah shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Jehovah,
3. and He shall make him discerning in the fear of Jehovah. He will not judge by what his eyes see, nor will he make decisions by what his ears hear.
4. And in righteousness will he judge the poor and reprove with equity on behalf of the oppressed of the earth. And he will smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips will he slay the wicked.
5. And righteousness will be a girdle for his loins, and faithfulness, his waist belt.
6. And the wolf will dwell with the lamb; and the leopard will lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling will be together; and a little boy will lead them.

7. And the cow and the bear will graze, and their young will lie down together. And a lion will eat straw like an ox.
8. And the nursing infant will play over the hole of an asp, and the weaned child will put his hand in a viper's den.
9. They will neither do harm nor destroy in all my holy mountain, for the earth will be filled with the knowledge of Jehovah, as the waters cover the sea.
10. And on that day, there will be a Root of Jesse who will stand as a sign to the nations. Gentiles will inquire of him, and his rest will be glorious.
11. And it shall come to pass on that day that the Lord will extend his hand a second time to redeem the remnant of his people that is left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Ethiopia, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea.
12. And he will lift up a signal for the Gentiles, and he will gather the banished men of Israel, and he will assemble the dispersed women of Judah from the four corners of the earth.
13. And the envy of Ephraim will depart, and the enemies of Judah will be cut off. And Ephraim will not envy Judah, and Judah will not vex Ephraim.
14. And they will fly westward against the slope of the Philistines. Together, they will plunder the children of the east, taking possession of Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon will be their subjects.
15. And Jehovah will completely destroy the tongue of the sea of Egypt, and He will wave His hand over the river⁸ with His mighty wind and strike it into seven streams, enabling men to cross over in sandals.
16. And there will be a highway for the remnant of His people from Assyria who remain, as there was for Israel on the day they came up out of the land of Egypt.

Isaiah 12

- ¶1. And in that day you will say, "I will praise you, O LORD! Though you were angry with me, your anger has turned away, and you are comforting me."
2. Behold, God is my salvation! I will trust, and I will not be afraid, for the Lord, Jehovah, is my strength and my song, and He has become my salvation!"
3. And with joy will you draw water from the wells of salvation.
4. And in that day, you will say, "Give thanks to Jehovah! Call upon His Name! Make His deeds known among His people, for His Name is exalted!"
5. Sing Jehovah's praise! For He created Majesty, who is being made known in all the earth!"
6. Cry out and shout for joy, O inhabitant of Zion, for the Holy One of Israel is exalted in your midst.

⁸ Probably the Euphrates River.

Isaiah 13

- ¶1. The burden concerning Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw:
2. Lift up a signal on a bare mountain; lift up your voice to them! Wave your hand, that they may enter the noble gates.
 3. I have commanded my consecrated ones. Yea, I have summoned my mighty ones to accomplish my wrath, my proudly exulting ones.
 4. The sound of a tumult in the mountains like that of many people, the sound of an uproar of kingdoms, of nations being gathered! Jehovah of Hosts is mustering an army for battle!
 5. They come from the far reaches of the earth, from the end of heaven—Jehovah and the instruments of His indignation—that He might destroy the whole land!
 6. Howl! For the day of Jehovah is near! It will come as destruction from the Almighty.
 7. Because of this, all hands will become feeble, and every man's heart will melt,
 8. and they will be terrified. Pangs and agony will grip them; they will be in anguish like a woman giving birth. Each man will look in astonishment at his fellow, all their faces flushed.
 9. Behold, the day of Jehovah is coming—cruel, with fury and fierce anger—to make the earth a desolation, and He will annihilate its sinners out of it.
 10. For the stars of heaven and their constellations will not emit their light, the sun will be dark when it comes forth, and the moon will not cause its light to shine.
 11. And I will punish the world for evil, and the wicked for their iniquity, and I will make the vainglory of the arrogant to cease, and I will abase the pride of fearsome men.
 12. I will make a man more rare than fine gold, and men more rare than gold of Ophir.
 13. Therefore, I will shake the heavens, and the earth will move out of its place in the wrath of Jehovah of Hosts and in the day of His fierce anger.
 14. And it shall come to pass that, like a hunted gazelle or like a flock that no one gathers, every man will turn to his own people, and every man will flee to his own land.
 15. Everyone who is found will be pierced through, and everyone who is caught will fall by the sword.
 16. And their little ones will be dashed to pieces before their eyes. Their houses will be plundered and their wives ravished.
 17. Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, who do not regard silver, and as for gold, they do not delight in it.
 18. Archers will also cut the young men to pieces, and they will have no mercy on the fruit of the womb. Their eye will not pity children.
 19. And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty and the pride of the Chaldeans, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.
 20. She will not continue forever, neither will she abide from generation to generation. And no Arab will pitch a tent there, neither will shepherds make their flock lie down there.

21. But wild beasts will lie down there; yea, their houses will be filled with wolves, and owls will abide there, and he-goats will caper there.
22. Hyenas will cry out in its forsaken places,⁹ and wolves, in its luxurious palaces. Her time is near to come, and her days will not be prolonged.

Isaiah 14

- ¶1. For Jehovah will have mercy on Jacob, and He will yet choose Israel and make them to rest in their land, and the foreigner will join himself to them and be united with the house of Jacob.
2. And the nations will take them and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel will possess them in Jehovah's land as slaves, male and female; so, they will take them captive whose captives they were, and they will rule over those who oppressed them.
- ¶3. And it shall come to pass on the day that Jehovah gives you rest from your pain, and from your trembling, and from the hard service which you were made to render,
4. that you will lift up this proverb against the King of Babylon, and you will say, "How the oppressor has ceased! The arrogant city has ceased!"
5. Jehovah has broken the staff of the wicked people, the scepter of the rulers,
6. striking down peoples in overflowing rage with an unceasing blow, taking dominion over the nations in His anger, punishing them without sparing.
7. The whole earth is at rest and is quiet; they burst forth with shouts of joy.
8. The cypress exults over you as well, the cedars of Lebanon say, "Since you were laid down, no feller has come up against us!"
9. Sheol below is excited because of you, to meet you when you come. It arouses the shades for you, all chief men of earth; it makes all the kings of the nations rise from their thrones.
10. They all will answer and say to you, "You have become weak as we! You are like us!"
11. Your splendor is brought down to Sheol with the sound of your harps; beneath you, the maggot is spread, and the worm is your covering."
12. Oh, how you have fallen from heaven, O light-bringer, son of the dawn! How you are cut down to the earth, O weakener of the nations!
13. You have said in your heart, "I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God, and I will sit on the Mountain of Assembly, on the far north side.
14. I will ascend above the heights of the clouds. I will be like the Most High."
15. Oh, but you shall be brought down to Sheol, to the recesses of the Pit.
16. Those who see you will gaze at you. They will ponder over you, asking, "Is this the one who caused the earth to tremble and kingdoms to shake,
17. who made the world like a desert and overthrew his cities? He did not open the house of his prisoners."

⁹ Literally, "windows".

18. All the kings of the Gentiles—all of them!—lie down in glory, each in his own house,
 19. but you! You are cast out of your grave like an abominable branch, clothed with the slain who were pierced with a sword and go down to the stones of the Pit; you are like a trampled corpse.
 20. You will not be united with them in burial because you have destroyed your land and slain your people. The seed of evildoers will never be called!
 21. Prepare a slaughtering-place for his sons because of the iniquity of their fathers. They will not arise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.
 22. But I will rise up against them, says Jehovah of Hosts. And I will cut off from Babylon name, and remnant, and offspring, and posterity, says Jehovah.
 23. And I will make her a possession for the porcupine and watery swamps, and I will sweep her with the besom of destruction, says Jehovah of Hosts.
- ¶24. Jehovah of Hosts has sworn, saying, “By my life—as I think, so shall it be, and as I have purposed, so shall it come to pass!—
25. I will shatter the Assyrian in my land, and on my mountains will I trample him, and his yoke will be removed from them, and his burden will be removed from his shoulder.
 26. This is the purpose that is purposed for all the earth, and this is the hand that is stretched out against all the nations,
 27. for Jehovah of Hosts has purposed it. And who shall annul it? And it is His hand stretched out, and who shall turn it back?”
- ¶28. In the year that King Ahaz died, this burden came:
29. “Do not exult, all you of Philistia! Yea, the rod of him who struck you is broken, but out from the serpent’s root shall come an adder, and his offspring shall be a fiery, flying serpent.
 30. And the firstborn sons of the poor and needy will feed; they will lie down in safety. But I will kill your root with famine, and those who are left of you will he slay.
 31. Howl, O gate! Cry out, O city! Melt away, all you of Philistia! For a smoke has come from the north! And there is not a straggler in its ranks.
 32. Yea, what answer will He give to messengers of the Gentiles? That Jehovah has founded Zion, and within it, the poor of its people will find refuge.”

Isaiah 15

- ¶1. The burden of Moab. Because in a night, Ar of Moab is laid waste and destroyed, because in a night, Kir of Moab is laid waste and destroyed,
2. he has gone up to Bajith and Dibon, the high places, to weep for Nebo, and he wails for Medeba of Moab. Upon all his heads is baldness; every beard is shorn.
3. In his streets, they put on sackcloth; on its rooftops and in its broad places, all his people wail, dissolving in tears.
4. Heshbon also cries out, with Elealeh; their voice is heard to Jahaz. Therefore, the armed men of Moab cry out; his soul trembles within him.

5. My heart cries out for Moab, whose fugitives flee to Zoar, Eglath-shelishiah. Yea, he will go up the Ascent of Luhith with weeping. Yea, in the Way of Horonaim, they shall raise a cry of destruction.
6. The Waters of Nimrim shall become a desolation. Yea, the grass is dried up; the vegetation fails; there is nothing green.
7. Therefore, the abundance he accumulated and their store, they will carry away, across the Brook Arabim.
8. For the cry of distress will go round the border of Moab, its wailing reaches Eglaim, and its wailing reaches Beer-Elim.
9. Yea, the waters of Dimon will be filled with blood, for I will bring more upon Dimon—a lion for the fugitives of Moab and for the remnant of the country.

Isaiah 16

- ¶1. Send the Lamb, Ruler of the earth, from Sela to the desert, to the mountain of the daughter of Jerusalem.
2. And it shall come to pass that like a bird fleeing, driven from a nest, so are the daughters of Moab at the fords of Arnon.
3. Bring forth counsel; execute judgment; make your shadow like the night at noonday. Shelter the outcasts. Do not betray the fugitive.
4. Let my outcasts sojourn with you, O Moab! Be a shelter for him from the destroyer! For the oppressor shall cease; destruction will come to an end; he who tramples down is completely consumed from the earth.
5. The throne will be established by mercy, and he will sit upon it in truth, judging within the tent of David, and executing judgment with swift righteousness.
6. We have heard of the pride of Moab—extreme pride—of his arrogance, and his pride, and his excessive rage. His boastings will accomplish nothing.
7. Therefore, Moab shall wail. All that belong to Moab shall wail. You shall moan, utterly stricken, for the raisin-cakes of Kir-Hareseth.
8. Because of the fields, Heshbon shall languish. As for the vine of Sibmah, the rulers of the nations will strike down her branches. They reached Jazer; they wandered about in the wilderness. Her shoots spread abroad; they crossed the sea.
9. Therefore, I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah. I will drench you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh, because the shouting over your summer fruit and over your summer harvest has ceased.
10. And gladness and joy have been gathered from the fruitful field, and in the vineyards, no song is sung; nor is a joyful shout made. No one treads wine in the vats; I have caused the treader's shout to cease.
11. Therefore, my bowels will lament like a lyre for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir-Hares.
12. And it shall come to pass when he appears that Moab will weary himself on the high place and come to his sanctuary to pray, but he will not prevail.

13. This is the word that Jehovah spoke in the past to Moab,
14. but now, Jehovah has spoken, saying, "In three years, according to the years of a hired worker, the glory of Moab will be despised, with all the great multitude, and the remnant will be very small, not mighty."

Isaiah 17

- ¶1. The burden of Damascus: Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and will become a heap of rubble.
2. The cities of Aroer are forsaken, they will be for flocks, and they will lie down, and nothing will make them afraid.
3. And the fortress will cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom of Damascus and the remnant of Aram will be as the glory of the sons of Israel, says Jehovah of Hosts.
- ¶4. And on that day will the glory of Jacob be brought low, and the fatness of his flesh will be made lean.
5. And it shall come to pass that, as a reaper gathers standing grain and his arm reaps heads of grain, and then one gleans the heads in the Valley of Rephaim,
6. so there will be gleanings left in it, as when an olive tree is beaten—two or three berries on the highest bough and four or five on its fruit-bearing branches, says Jehovah, God of Israel.
- ¶7. On that day, man will gaze upon his Maker, and his eyes will see the Holy One of Israel.
8. And they will have no regard for the altars, the work of their hands; they will not look to what their fingers have made, neither the sacred trees nor sun-images.
- ¶9. In that day, his strong cities will be like the abandoned wood, even the high branch which they abandoned because of the sons of Israel, and it will become a desolation.
10. Because you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not remembered the rock of your refuge, therefore, you will plant pleasant plants, but with a strange slip will you set it.
11. In a day will you fence in your plant, and in the morning, you will cause your seed to sprout, but in a day of sickness and incurable pain, the harvest will be a heap.
12. Ah, the thunder of many peoples! They thunder like the thundering of the seas! Oh, the roar of nations! They roar like the roaring of mighty waters.
13. Nations will roar like the roar of many waters! Though he curse at Him, yet he will take flight for a distant place, but he will be chased like chaff on the hills before the wind, and like whirling dust before a tempest.
14. In the evening, behold, terror! Before morning, he is no more! This will be the portion of those looting us and the lot of those plundering us.

Isaiah 18

- ¶1. Ah, the land of whirring wings that is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia,

2. that sends ambassadors by the river, even in vessels made of reeds across the face of the sea! Go, swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people feared near and far, a mighty nation that tramples down, whose land rivers divide.
3. All you inhabitants of the world! You who live on earth! When the signal is raised on the mountains, look! And when the shofar is blown, listen!
4. For thus said Jehovah to me: "I will be quiet and watch from my dwelling-place, like dry heat upon herbs, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest."
5. For before the harvest, when the bud is gone and the flower has become a ripening grape, He will lop off the branches with pruning-hooks and chop off the spreading tendrils.
6. They will all be left to the birds of the mountains and beasts of the earth. The birds will summer upon them, and the beasts of the earth will winter upon them.
7. At that time shall a gift be brought to Jehovah of Hosts from a people tall and smooth, a people feared near and far, a mighty nation that tramples down, whose land rivers divide, to the place of the name of Jehovah of Hosts, Mount Zion.

Isaiah 19

- ¶1. The burden of Egypt. Behold, Jehovah is riding on a swift, dark cloud, and He is coming to Egypt. And the idols of Egypt shall tremble before Him, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in its midst.
2. And I will incite Egyptian against Egyptian. And they shall fight each against his brother and each against his fellow, city against city, kingdom against kingdom.
3. And the spirit of Egypt within him shall be emptied, and I shall confound his counsel. And they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to the mediums, and to those with familiar spirits.
4. And I will give Egypt over into the hand of harsh lords, and a fierce king will reign over them, says the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts.
5. And the waters shall dry up from the sea, and the river shall be parched and dry up.
6. And the canals shall stink; they shall be brought low; the streams of Egypt shall dry up. Reed and rush shall wither.
7. Along the Nile, to the mouth of the Nile, shall be bare places, and everything sown by the Nile shall wither. It shall be driven away and be no more.
8. The fishermen also shall lament, and all who cast a hook into the Nile shall mourn, and they who spread a net upon the waters shall languish.
9. And the workers of combed flax and the weavers of white shall be ashamed.
10. And its foundations shall be crushed; all who work for wages shall be grieved in soul.
11. Surely the princes of Zoan are fools; Pharaoh's wise counsellors give brutish counsel! How can you say to Pharaoh, "I am a descendent of wise men, a descendent of ancient kings?"
12. Where are they, then, your wise men? Let them also declare to you, I pray, and let them understand what Jehovah of Hosts has determined against Egypt.

13. The princes of Zoan have become foolish. The princes of Noph are deceived. They, the cornerstone of its tribes, have caused Egypt to go astray.
14. Jehovah has mingled a spirit of perversities in its midst, and they have caused Egypt to stagger in all that it does, as a drunken man staggers in his vomit.
15. And there shall be no work for an Egyptian that the head or tail, branch or bulrush may do.
16. In that day, Egypt shall be like women, and shall tremble and be afraid because of the shaking of the hand of Jehovah of Hosts when He shakes it over him.
17. And the land of Judah shall be a terror to the Egyptians. Everyone who remembers it shall be afraid for himself because of the counsel of Jehovah of Hosts which He has determined against it.
18. On that day, there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan and swear by Jehovah of Hosts. One will be called "City of the Sun"¹⁰.
19. On that day, there will be an altar to Jehovah in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a monument to Jehovah at its border.
20. And it will be for a sign and a testimony to Jehovah of Hosts in the land of Egypt. When they cry out to Jehovah because of oppressors, He will send them a savior, and he will contend for and deliver them.
21. And Jehovah will reveal Himself to the Egyptians, and the Egyptians will know Jehovah in that day, and they will bring sacrifices and offerings, and make vows to Jehovah and perform them.
22. And Jehovah will strike Egypt, but strike to heal, for they will turn to Jehovah, and He will be entreated of them and will heal them.
23. On that day, there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrians will come into Egypt, and the Egyptians, into Assyria, and the Egyptians will serve God with the Assyrians.
24. On that day, Israel will be a third with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth,
25. for Jehovah of Hosts will bless them, saying, "Blessed be Egypt, my people, and Assyria, the work of my hands, and Israel, my heritage."

Isaiah 20

- ¶1. In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon, the King of Assyria, sent him, he fought against Ashdod and took it.
2. At that time Jehovah spoke by the hand of Isaiah ben-Amoz, saying, "Go, and loose the sackcloth from your loins and take your sandals off your feet." And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.

¹⁰ Hebrew text, "City of Destruction". The Dead Sea Scrolls (4q56) has "City of the Sun" (Greek: Heliopolis).

- ¶3. And Jehovah said, “As my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a portent against Egypt and Ethiopia,
- 4. so shall the King of Assyria lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with buttocks uncovered. This will be the humiliating punishment of Egypt.
- 5. And they shall be dismayed and ashamed of Ethiopia, their hope, and of Egypt, their boasting.
- 6. And the inhabitant of this coastland will say in that day, ‘Behold, this was our hope, to whom we fled for help, to be delivered from the King of Assyria. And now, how shall we escape?’”

Isaiah 21

- ¶1. The burden of the wilderness of the sea. As destroying winds from the south pass through from the wilderness, he will come from a fearsome land.
- 2. A dire vision was declared to me: “The traitor betrays, and the spoiler spoils. Go up, O Elam! Besiege, O Media! I have made all her groaning to cease.”
- 3. For this, my loins were filled with anguish; pangs took hold of me like the pangs of a woman in travail. I was doubled over at hearing it; I was dismayed at the sight.
- 4. My heart skipped; horror overwhelmed me. The twilight I desired turned into trembling for me.
- 5. Arrange the table; lay out the rug; eat and drink! Rise up, you princes! Anoint the shield!
- 6. For thus did my Lord say to me: “Go! Set the watchman, that he may report what he sees.”
- 7. And he saw a chariot with a pair of steeds, a chariot with asses, a chariot with camels, and he listened attentively, very attentively.
- 8. Then he cried out, “A lion! On the watchtower, my lord, I stand continually by day, and am stationed at my post whole nights.”
- 9. Then, behold this! A chariot with a man and a pair of steeds came. And he answered and said, “Fallen! Babylon is fallen! And all the images of her gods has He shattered to the ground.”
- 10. O my threshed one, and O son of my threshing floor, that which I have heard from Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared to you!
- ¶11. The burden of Dumah. He is calling to me from Seir, “Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?”
- 12. The watchman said, “The morning comes, and then the night. If you would inquire, inquire! Return! Come!”
- ¶13. The burden of Arabia. You lodge in the forest of Arabia, O caravans of Dedanim.
- 14. When you meet him who is thirsty, bring water, O inhabitants of the land of Tema! Greet the fugitive with his bread!

15. For they fled from swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the press of battle.
16. For thus said my Lord to me, "Within a year, as the years of a hired man,¹¹ all the glory of Kedar will come to an end.
17. And the remnant of the number of bowmen, the mighty men of the sons of Kedar, shall be few, for Jehovah, the God of Israel, has spoken.

Isaiah 22

- ¶1. The burden of the valley of vision. What's wrong with you now, that all of you have gone up to the housetops?
2. You were full of shouts, a bustling town! O jubilant city, your slain were neither slain by a sword nor died in battle.
3. All your rulers have fled together from the bow; they are taken prisoner. All who were found in you were taken prisoner together, though they fled far away.
4. Therefore, I said, "Look away from me! I am weeping bitterly. Do not try to comfort me over the devastation of the daughter of my people."
5. For it is my Lord's day of tumult, and trampling, and confusion, Jehovah of Hosts in the valley of vision, tearing down a wall and crying out to the mountain."
6. And Elam bore the quiver with chariots and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield.
7. And it will come to pass that your choicest valleys will be full of chariots, with the horsemen setting themselves in array at the gate.
8. And He will remove the covering of Judah, and in that day, you will look to the armor of the house of the forest.
9. But you will see breaches in the city of David, that they are many, and you will collect waters of the lower pool.
10. And you will count the houses of Jerusalem, and pull down the houses to fortify the wall,
11. and you will make a reservoir between the two walls for waters of the old pool. But you have not looked to its maker, and you did not consider the One who fashioned it long ago.
12. And in that day, the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, called for weeping, and for mourning, and for baldness,¹² and for the girding on of sackcloth.
13. But behold, joy and gladness, killing oxen, and slaughtering sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine, saying, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die!"
14. And in my hearing, it was revealed by Jehovah of Hosts, "I will damn myself if atonement for this iniquity will be made for you until you die, says my Lord, Jehovah of Hosts."

¹¹ That is, strictly accounted for.

¹² That is, for heads to be shaved as a sign of contrition.

15. Thus says my Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, “Go! Get you to this steward, to Shebna, who is over the household, and say,
16. ‘What do you have here? And whom do you have here that you have hewn a tomb for yourself in this place, O man hewing out his tomb on the height, cutting out a dwelling place for himself in the cliff?’
17. Behold, Jehovah will hurl you into captivity, O you mighty man; yea, He will take hold of you!
18. He will whirl you round and round, spinning like a ball, into a large country. There you shall die, and there, your glorious chariots will be the shame of your lords’ house.
19. And I will thrust you out of your office, and from your station, He will tear you down.”
20. And it shall come to pass in that day that I will call for my servant Eliakim ben-Hilkiah,
21. and I will clothe him with your tunic, and with your sash will I make him strong, and I will commit your authority into his hand, and he will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.
22. And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder. He will open, and no one will shut; and he will shut, and no one will open.
23. I will fasten him like a peg in a sure place, and a glorious throne over his father’s house shall be his.
24. And they shall hang on him all the glory of his father’s house, the progeny and the products—every little vessel, from all the bowls to all the pitchers.
25. In that day, says Jehovah of Hosts, the peg that was fastened in a sure place shall be removed, and be cut down, and fall. Then, the burden that was on him shall be cut off, for Jehovah has spoken.

Isaiah 23

- ¶1. The burden of Tyre. Wail, O ships of Tarshish, for it is laid waste, without house, without entrance. From the land of Kittim, it will be revealed to him.
2. Be still, O inhabitants of the coastland! The merchants of Sidon who traverse the sea have filled you up.
3. And by great waters, the seed of Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue; and she became the merchant of nations.
4. Be ashamed, O Sidon, for the sea has spoken, the fortress of the sea, saying: “I have not gone into labor, nor have I given birth, nor have I reared young men. I have reared young women.”
5. As at the report of Egypt, so will they be in anguish at the report of Tyre.
6. Pass over to Tarshish. Wail, you inhabitants of the coast!
7. Is this your jubilant city, whose origin is from ancient times? Her feet shall carry her far away to sojourn.

8. Who has made this plan against Tyre, the bestower of crowns, whose merchants are princes and whose traffickers are the honored of the earth?
9. Jehovah of Hosts has planned it, to debase the majesty of all beauty, to bring to naught all the honored of earth.
10. Pass over your land like the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish! There is no restraint anymore.
11. He has stretched out His hand over the sea; Jehovah has made kingdoms quake; He has given commandment concerning Canaan, to destroy her strongholds.
12. And He said, "You shall never again rejoice, O oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon!" Arise, O Kittim, and cross over! Even there will He allow you no rest.
13. Behold the land of the Chaldeans! This people was not until Asshur founded it for desert-dwellers. They erected his siege-towers; they stripped her palaces. He has laid her waste.
14. Howl, O ships of Tarshish! For your strength is devastated.
15. And it shall come to pass in that day that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, during the days of one king. At the end of seventy years, Tyre's song will be like the song of a harlot.
16. Take a lyre; go about the city, O forgotten harlot! Play sweet music; multiply songs so that you will be remembered.
17. And it shall come to pass at the end of seventy years that Jehovah will visit Tyre, and she will return to her wages and play the harlot to all the kingdoms of the land, over the face of the earth.
18. Yet, her merchandise and her wages shall be consecrated to Jehovah. It shall neither be laid up nor stored, but it will be given to those who dwell in the presence of Jehovah. Her merchandise will provide food in abundance and fine clothing.

Isaiah 24

- ¶1. Behold, Jehovah will make the land empty and lay it waste, and He will wrinkle its face and scatter its inhabitants.
2. And it shall be that, as the people, so will be the priest; as the slave, so will be his master; as the maidservant, so will be her mistress; as the buyer, so will be the seller; as the lender, so will be the borrower; as the creditor, so will be the debtor to him.
3. The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for Jehovah has spoken this word!
4. The land will weep and wilt; the world will be weak and wilt; the haughty people of the land will languish.
5. And the land is defiled under its inhabitants, for they have transgressed the laws; they have changed the ordinance; they have broken the everlasting covenant.
6. Therefore, a curse will devour the land, and its inhabitants will bear their punishment. Therefore, the inhabitants of land will be scorched, but a few men will be left.
7. The new wine will mourn; the vine will languish; all the merry-hearted will sigh.

8. The merrymaking of the timbrels will cease; the noise of revelers will end; the merrymaking of the lyre will cease.
 9. They will not drink wine with a song; strong drink will be bitter to those who drink it.
 10. The city of confusion will be broken down; every house will be shut up, that none may enter.
 11. There will be a cry in the streets for the wine; all gladness will grow dark; the joy of the land will be gone.
 12. Desolation will be left in the city, and the gate will be battered to ruins.
 13. For thus it shall be, in the midst of the land among the peoples, like the beating of an olive tree, like the gleaning when the harvest is complete.
 14. They will lift up their voice; they will cry out with joy because of the majesty of Jehovah; they will cry aloud from the sea.
 15. Therefore, glorify Jehovah in the lights in coastlands of the sea, even the name of Jehovah, God of Israel.
 16. From the end of the earth will we hear songs to the glory of the Righteous One. Then I said, "My leanness! My leanness! Woe is me! The traitors have dealt treacherously! Yea, the traitors have dealt very treacherously!"
 17. Terror, and a pit, and a trap are upon you, O inhabitant of the earth.
 18. And it shall come to pass that he who flees from the sound of the terror shall fall into the pit, and he who climbs out of the midst of the pit shall be caught in the trap, for windows on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth quake.
 19. The earth is utterly broken apart. Earth is split apart; earth shakes violently.
 20. Earth staggers to and fro like a drunk man, and it sways like a hut, for its transgression weighs upon it, and it shall fall and not rise again.
- ¶21. And it shall come to pass in that day that Jehovah will punish the army of the exalted one by the Exalted One, and punish the kings of the earth on the earth.
22. And they shall be gathered together as a prisoner in the Pit, and they shall be shut up in a prison, and after many days, they will be visited.
 23. Then the light of the moon will be ashamed, and the heat of the sun will be ashamed when Jehovah of Hosts reigns on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and in the presence of His elders, HIs glory.

Isaiah 25

- ¶1. O Jehovah, you are my God! I will exalt you. I will praise your name, for you created Wonder—plans from ancient time—the faithful Amen.
2. You have made of a city, a heap; of a fortified city, a ruin; of a city, a citadel of foreigners forever. (It shall not be rebuilt.)
3. Therefore, a mighty people will glorify you, a city of terrifying nations, they will fear you.

4. For you are a stronghold for the poor, a stronghold for the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from heat when the breath of terrifying nations comes like a storm against a wall.
 5. Like parching heat in a dry place is the roar of strangers; you will subdue the parching heat with the shadow of a cloud. The song of terrifying nations is brought low.
 6. And on this mountain, Jehovah of Hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich things, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich things with marrow, and well-aged, refined wines.
 7. And on this mountain will He swallow up the face of the covering that covers all peoples, and the veil that is spread over all the nations.
 8. He will swallow up death forever! And the Lord, Jehovah, will wipe away tears from all faces, and He will take away the reproach of His people from the whole earth, for Jehovah has spoken.
- ¶9. And it will be said on that day, “Behold, this is our God! We have waited for Him, and He has saved us. This is Jehovah! We have waited for Him! Let us rejoice and be glad in His salvation!”
10. For the hand of Jehovah will rest on this mountain. And Moab will be trampled under him as a straw-heap is trampled down in waters of a dung-pit,
 11. and he will spread out his hands in its midst the way a swimmer stretches forth his hands to swim, but He will bring low his pride along with the skill of his hands.
 12. And the fortified stronghold of your walls He will cast down, lay low, and strike down to the earth, even to dust.

Isaiah 26

- ¶1. In that day, this song will be sung in the land of Judah: “We have a strong city. He will make salvation our walls and ramparts.
2. Open the gates, that the righteous nation, the one that keeps faith, may enter in!
3. You will keep him in perfect peace whose mind is fixed, because he trusts in you.
4. Trust in Jehovah forever, for with J’ah—Jehovah—is the Rock of ages!
5. For He brings them down who dwell on high, the lofty city. He lays it low; He lays it low to the ground. He beats it to dust.
6. The foot shall trample it down, the feet of a humble man, the steps of lowly people.
7. The way of a righteous man is uprightness; O upright One, you weigh out the path of a righteous man.
8. Truly, in the way of your judgments, O Jehovah, have we longed for you. The desire of our soul is to your name and to your memorial.”
9. With my soul, I have desired you in the night. Truly, my spirit within me diligently seeks you, for when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.
10. Though favor be shown to the wicked man, he will never learn righteousness. In a land of upright souls, he will do wrong, and he will never see the majesty of Jehovah.

11. O Jehovah, your hand is exalted; they do not see at all. But they will be ashamed at the people's zeal. Surely, fire will consume your enemies.
12. O Jehovah, ordain peace for us, for even all our works have you wrought for us.
13. O Jehovah our God, lords other than you ruled over us. Only in you will we call on your name.
14. They are dead; they shall not come to life. They are shades; they shall not rise, for you have visited and destroyed them, and you have done away with all memory of them.
15. You increased the nation, O Jehovah; you increased the nation. You are glorified. You have enlarged all the borders of the land.
16. O Jehovah, in distress they have sought you. They have poured out a whispered prayer, for your chastisement has been upon them.
17. As a woman at the point of giving birth writhes and cries out in her travail, so have we been in your sight, O LORD.
18. We have conceived; we have travailed; we have, as it were, given birth to wind. We have brought no deliverance to the land, neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.
19. Your dead men shall live; with my dead body shall they arise! Awake and sing, you who dwell in dust! For the dew of herbs is your dew, and earth will bring forth her shades.
20. Come, my people, enter into your chambers, and shut your doors behind you. Hide, so to speak, for a little while until the indignation is overpast.
21. For behold! Jehovah is coming out of His place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity. And the earth will disclose its blood and will no longer conceal its slain.

Isaiah 27

- ¶1. On that day, with His fierce, and mighty, and powerful sword, Jehovah will punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent, even Leviathan the crooked serpent, and He will slay the dragon that is in the sea.
2. In that day, sing¹³ to her: "O vineyard of red wine!"¹⁴
3. I, Jehovah, will watch over her every moment; I will water her. Lest one harm her, I will keep her night and day.
4. Fury means nothing to me; whoever would set up briars and thorns in battle, I would march through it. I would burn it all up.
5. Or let him take hold of my protection and make peace with me. O let him make peace with me!
6. The days will come when Jacob will take root; Israel will blossom and send out shoots, and they will supply the whole world with produce.
7. Has He stricken him as He struck the one who struck him, or slaughtered him according to the slaughter of his slayer?

¹³ The verb is 2nd person plural: "you sing!"

¹⁴ BHL translation. BHS: "O delightful vineyard!"

8. In due measure, when He sent her away, He contended with her. He removed her with His harsh wind in the day of the east wind.
9. So will it be that by this, He will make atonement for the iniquity of Jacob, and by this will all the fruit of his sin be put away: when He makes all the stones of the altar like stones of crushed chalk. Sacred pillars and sun pillars will not be raised.
10. But the fortified city will be alone, an exiled habitation, and forsaken like the wilderness. There, the calf will feed, and there lie down, and he will consume her branches.
11. When her branches are dry, they are broken. Women come and use them to light fires. Because it is not an understanding people, He will not have pity on them; He who made them and formed them will show them no favor.
12. It shall come to pass on that day that Jehovah will thresh from the flowing stream of the River to the Brook of Egypt, and you shall be gathered one by one, O sons of Israel.
13. And it shall come to pass on that day that a great shofar will be sounded, and those who were perishing in the land of Assyria and those who were banished in the land of Egypt will come and worship before Jehovah on the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

Isaiah 28

- ¶1. Woe to the proud crown, the drunkards of Ephraim! Yea, the blossom is fading, the loveliness of his finery that is on the head of the valley of rich men overcome with wine.
2. Behold, my Lord has a strong and mighty one! Like a hailstorm, a destructive tempest, like a mighty, overwhelming rainstorm will He with power give rest to the earth.
3. The proud crown, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden underfoot.
4. Yea, the blossom is fading, the loveliness of his finery that is on the head of the valley of rich men, like her first-ripe fig that one sees before summer. As soon as he sees it in his hand, he will swallow it down.
5. In that day, Jehovah of Hosts will be a beautiful crown and a lovely diadem for the remnant of His people,
6. and a spirit of justice for the one who sits in judgment, and strength for those who turn back the battle at the gate.
7. But these also, priest and prophet, err because of wine and stagger with strong drink. They err because of strong drink; they are swallowed up by the wine. They stagger from strong drink; they err in vision; they sway when giving judgment.
8. Yea, all tables are covered with filthy vomit; there is no clean place.
9. Whom shall He teach knowledge? And whom shall He make to understand doctrine? Those weaned from milk; those taken from breasts.
10. For da-da will be upon da-da, da-da upon da-da, blah-blah upon blah-blah, blah-blah upon blah-blah, here a little, there a little.
11. He will speak to this people with stammering lips and another tongue,

12. to whom He said, “This is the rest with which you will cause the weary one to rest,” and, “This is the refreshing.” Yet, they would not listen.
13. And so, the word of Jehovah shall be to them da-da upon da-da, da-da upon da-da, blah-blah upon blah-blah, blah-blah upon blah-blah, here a little, there a little, that they may go, and topple over backwards, and be broken, and snared, and taken.
- ¶14. Therefore, hear the word of Jehovah, O scornful men, rulers of this people who are in Jerusalem:
15. “Because you say, ‘We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol, we have made a pact. When the overwhelming scourge passes over, it will not come upon us, for we have made a lie our refuge, and taken shelter in falsehood,’ ”
16. therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I am laying a stone in Zion, a tried stone, the precious cornerstone of a sure foundation! He who believes will not be ashamed.¹⁵
17. I have appointed justice for a measuring line and righteousness for a level, and hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the hiding place shall waters overwhelm.
18. And your covenant with death will be annulled,¹⁶ and your agreement with Sheol will not stand. An overwhelming scourge will certainly pass through, and you will be a trampling-place for it!
19. As often as it passes through, it will take you away. For morning by morning will it pass through, by day and by night, and it will be sheer terror to understand the report.
20. For the bed is too short to stretch out on, and the covering is narrow when one gathers himself up.
21. For as at Mount Perazim shall Jehovah rise up; He will be stirred up as at the valley in Gibeon to do His work, His strange work, and to perform His service, His unusual service.
22. And now, do not act like a mocker, lest your bonds be strengthened for destruction. For I have heard from the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, what has been decreed against this whole country.
23. Give ear, and hear my voice! Pay attention, and hear what I say!
24. Does the plowman plow every day to sow seed? He breaks open and then harrows his ground.
25. When he levels its surface, does he not broadcast black cummin, and scatter cummin? And he broadcasts wheat, and barley is put in its plot, with spelt along its edges.
26. For his God teaches him the correct way; He instructs him.
27. For black cumin is not threshed with a threshing instrument, nor is a cart’s wheel rolled over cummin, but black cummin is beaten out with a stick, and cummin with a staff.

¹⁵ LXX translation. MT: “hasten away”.

¹⁶ Hebrew, “atoned for”.

28. Grain for bread would be pulverized; therefore, he does not thresh it for too long when he drives the wheel of his cart, so that his horse does not crush it.
29. This also comes from Jehovah of Hosts. He has provided wondrous counsel; He has given great wisdom.

Isaiah 29

- ¶1. Ah, Ariel! Ariel!¹⁷—city against which David encamped! Add year to year, and let the feasts come round!
2. But I will bring distress upon Ariel, and there will be mourning and moaning, and she will be to me as the ariel.¹⁸
3. And I, like David, will encamp against you¹⁹ and lay siege against you with palisades, and I will raise siegeworks against you.
4. And when you are abased, you will speak from the ground, and your talk will be humbled in the dirt; your voice will be like one who has a familiar spirit from out of the ground,²⁰ and your speech will squeak from the dirt.
5. But the multitude of your intruders will become like fine dust, and the multitude of ruthless men like chaff drifting away. And it will happen in an instant—suddenly!
6. You will be visited by²¹ Jehovah of Hosts with thunder, and an earthquake, and a loud noise of wind, and a tempest, and the flame of a devouring fire,
7. and the multitude of all the nations that wage war against Ariel, even all who fight against her and her stronghold, and who distress her, will be like a dream, a vision in the night.
8. And they will be as when a hungry man dreams and behold, he is eating, but then he awakes and is hungry, or as when a thirsty man dreams, and behold, he is drinking, but when he awakes, behold, he is faint, and he longs for water. So will the multitude of all the nations be that wage war against Mount Zion.
9. Wait, and be astonished! Delight yourselves, and be delighted! They are drunk, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.
10. But Jehovah has poured out upon you a spirit of deep sleep and has closed your eyes, the prophets, and has covered your heads, the seers,
11. and the vision of all this is to you like words in a sealed book, which men give to one who is literate, saying, “Please read this,” and he says, “I cannot, for it is sealed.”
12. And then the book is given to one who is illiterate, saying, “Please read this,” and he says, “I can’t read.”

¹⁷ This is a reference to Jerusalem. Here, the meaning of “Ariel” is probably, “lioness of God”.

¹⁸ Here, the meaning of “ariel” seems to be “altar”, as in Ezekiel 43:15–16, that is, a place for flames.

¹⁹ Possibly, “And I will camp around you”.

²⁰ People possessed with a demon made abnormal sounds. Isaiah 8:19, for example, mentions “the mediums and the soothsayers, who squeal and growl.”

²¹ Or, “from one with”.

13. Then my Lord said, “Because this people draw near to me with their mouth and honor me with their lips, but their heart is far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment of men, learned by rote,
14. therefore, behold me! He will again cause this people to wonder, working a wondrous thing. And the wisdom of their wise men will perish, and the discernment of their discerning men will hide itself.”
15. Woe to those who dig deep to conceal counsel from Jehovah, that their works may be in darkness, and they think, “Who sees us?” and “Who will find us out?”
16. Ah, your contrariness! Should the potter be considered the equal of his clay? For the work says of its Maker, “He did not make me.” And the thing formed says of Him who formed it, “He does not understand.”
17. Will it not be a very little while, and Lebanon will turn to a garden, and the garden will be seen as a forest?
18. And in that day, the deaf will hear words of a scroll, and out of dimness and out of darkness, the eyes of the blind will see.
19. And the meek will increase their joy in Jehovah, and the poor among men will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.
20. For the terrifying man will have come to nothing, and the scorner will have come to an end, and all will have been cut off who look for wickedness,
21. who make a man a sinner because of a word, and lay a trap for the judge in the gate, and by false pretense defraud the righteous man.
- ¶22. Therefore, thus says Jehovah, the One who ransomed Abraham, to the house of Jacob: Jacob will no longer be ashamed, nor will his face turn pale,
23. for when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in his midst, they will sanctify my name, and they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel,
24. and those who erred in spirit will come to understanding, and those who grumbled will take in instruction.”

Isaiah 30

- ¶1. Woe to the rebellious children, says Jehovah, who give counsel, but not from me, and weave a covering, but not of my Spirit, that they may add sin upon sin,
2. who journey to go down to Egypt, and do not ask my counsel, to seek protection in the protection of Pharaoh and take refuge in Egypt’s shadow.
3. But the protection of Pharaoh will be your shame, and the refuge of the shadow of Egypt, a disgrace.
4. Yea, his rulers are in Zoan, and his messengers reach Hanes.
5. They all are made a stench by a people who cannot profit them. There is no help, and there is no profit. Yea, they shall be ashamed and be an object of reproach.

- ¶6. A burden of beasts of the Negev, in a land of distress and anguish, beyond lioness and lion, viper and flying fiery serpent. They will carry their riches on the back of asses and their treasures on the humps of camels to a people that cannot profit them.
7. Yea, Egypt will be useless, and they will help to no avail. For this reason have I called her, “the Proud One”: they are at ease.
8. Go now; write it on a tablet before them, and inscribe it in a book so that it may be for a time to come, forever and ever.
9. For this is a rebellious people, lying children, children unwilling to hear the law of Jehovah,
10. who say to those who see, “You do not see,” and to the seers, “You do not see right things for us. Say nice things to us! See deceptive visions!
11. Turn from the Way! Turn aside from the Path! Get the Holy One of Israel out of our faces!”
12. Therefore, thus says the Holy One of Israel: Because you have despised this word and trusted in oppression and perverseness, and lean upon it,
13. this iniquity shall be for you like a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, which all of a sudden reaches its breaking point.
14. Yea, he will break it as a potter’s vessel is broken. He will show no compassion, so that not a piece of shard from it will be found to take up fire from a fireplace or to dip water from a cistern.
- ¶15. For thus said my Lord, Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel: In repenting and rest will you be saved; in quietness and trusting will be your strength! But you would not.
16. And you said, “No! But we will flee on horseback.” Therefore, you shall flee. And “We will ride swiftly.” Therefore, they shall be swift in pursuing you.
17. A thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall you flee until you be left like a flag-staff on top of a mountain, and like a standard on a hill.
18. Therefore, Jehovah will wait to show you favor, and then He will rise up to show you mercy, for Jehovah is a God of justice. Blessed are all who wait for Him.
- ¶19. O people in Zion, dwelling in Jerusalem, you will never weep again! He will be very gracious to you at the sound of your cry. When He hears it, He will answer you.
20. Though the Lord has given you the bread of distress and the water of affliction, your Teacher will no longer hide himself, but your eyes will see your Teacher.²²
21. And your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, “This is the way; walk in it,” when you go to the right or when you go to the left.
22. And you will defile the idols overlaid with your silver and your golden cast images; you will trash them like a menstrual cloth. You will say to it, “Be gone!”

²² Most translators understand the word “teachers” in this verse to be a “plural of majesty”, referring to Jesus as the Teacher of Israel.

23. And He will give rain for your seed that you sow in the ground, and grain, the produce of the ground, and it will be rich and full. And in that day, your cattle will feed in large pastures,
24. and the oxen and young asses that work the ground will eat seasoned provender that has been winnowed with a winnowing shovel and fork.
25. And on the day of great slaughter, when the towers fall, channels for streams of water will be on every lofty mountain and on every high hill.
26. And the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be sevenfold, like the light of seven days, when Jehovah binds up the brokenness of His people and heals the deep wound from His blow.
27. Behold, the Name of Jehovah will come from far away, burning with his anger and a heavy burden. His lips will be full of indignation, and his tongue will be like a devouring fire,
28. and his breath will be like a flooding torrent reaching up to the neck, to sift nations in a sieve for worthlessness²³, with the bridle on the jaws of nations that caused them to err.²⁴
29. He shall be your song, like that on a night when a holy feast is kept, and gladness of heart, like the gladness of one walking with a flute to go to the mountain of Jehovah, to the Rock of Israel.
30. And Jehovah will cause His glorious voice to be heard, and in furious anger will He cause the lowering of His arm to be seen with a consuming, cloven flame of fire, and a downpour, and hailstones.
31. Yea, at the voice of Jehovah will Assyria be dismayed. He will strike with a rod,
32. and it shall come to pass that every stroke of the appointed rod which Jehovah lays upon him will be with tambourines and with lyres, and with battles for a wave offering will he fight against her.
33. For Topheth was prepared long ago; yea, it is made ready for the King. He has made it deep; He has enlarged its fiery pyre; yea, He has provided much wood. The breath of Jehovah, like a river of brimstone, has ignited it.

Isaiah 31

- ¶1. Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help. They depend on horses, and they trust in chariots because they are many and in horsemen because they are so numerous, but they do not look to the Holy One of Israel, nor seek Jehovah

²³ That is, to remove those whom God considers worthless.

²⁴ Most translations add words to this clause to make it appear that God will add this bridle to the Gentiles, to make them err, but that is contrary to what the previous part of this verse says God will be doing. This is a promise from God that He will rid the Gentiles both of worthless men and of the spiritual bridle by which those worthless men misled them.

2. even though He is wise, and can bring disaster, and does not take back His words. He will certainly rise against the house of evildoers and against him who helps the workers of iniquity.
3. The Egyptians are men, and not God, and their horses are flesh, and not spirit. When Jehovah stretches out His hand, the helper stumbles and the one who is helped falls. And together, they all shall perish.
4. For thus did Jehovah say to me: "As the lion or the young lion roars over his prey when a band of herdsmen is summoned against him, and he is not dismayed at their voices nor cowed by their clamor, so will Jehovah of Hosts come down to do battle upon Mount Zion, even upon her hill."
5. Like birds flying, so will Jehovah of Hosts defend Jerusalem; He will defend and deliver her. He will pass over her and spare her.
6. Return to Him from whom the children of Israel have gone deep in apostasy!
7. For in that day, every man among you will despise his idols of silver and his idols of gold, which sin your hands made for yourselves.
8. And the Assyrian will not fall by the sword of a great man, nor will the sword of a common man consume him. But he will flee from before His sword, and his young men will be made forced laborers.
9. His rock will pass away in terror, and his princes will be dismayed at the sign, says Jehovah, whose fire is in Zion and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 32

- ¶1. Behold, a King will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule justly.
2. And a man will be like a shelter from the wind, and a covert from the storm, like streams of water in parched ground, like the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.
3. The eyes of those who see will not look away, and the ears of those who hear will give heed.
4. And the heart of the hasty will understand and know, and the tongue of stammerers will speak readily and clearly.
5. The fool will no longer be called noble, and the rogue will no longer be thought of as respectable.
6. For a fool speaks foolishness, and his heart conceives iniquity, to practice ungodliness and to speak error concerning Jehovah causing the hungry soul to be empty and depriving the thirsty man of drink.
7. As for the rogue, his tools are evil. He devises wicked schemes in order to ruin those who are meek with lying speech, even when the needy man speaks aright.
8. But the noble man gives noble counsels, and he stands up for noble things.
- ¶9. Get up, you smug women! Hear my voice, you complacent daughters! Give ear to my decree!

10. In a little more than a year, you complacent women will tremble, because the vintage will fail; the harvest will not come in.
11. Shudder, you smug women! Tremble, you complacent women! Strip down and make yourself naked, and gird sackcloth on your loins.
12. Lament upon the breasts for the pleasant fields and for the fruitful vines.
13. Upon the land of my people, thorns and briars will come up, yea, upon all houses of merriment in the jubilant city.
14. For the citadel will be abandoned; the crowded city will be deserted. Hill and watchtower will become open fields forever, the delight of wild asses, a pasture for flocks,
15. until the Spirit is poured out on us from on high. Then the wilderness will become a fruitful field, and the fruitful field will be deemed a forest,
16. and justice will dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness will dwell in the fruitful field.
17. The effect of righteousness is peace, and the result of righteousness, eternal quietness and security.
18. And my people will dwell in a peaceful meadow, and in secure dwellings, and in tranquil resting places.
19. And they will be separate²⁵ when the forest falls down and the city is brought low in the humiliation.
20. Blessed are you who sow beside all waters, sending forth the foot of the ox and the donkey.

Isaiah 33

- ¶1. Woe to the spoiler, and you were not spoiled, and the treacherous man, and they did not deal treacherously with him! When you finish your spoiling, you will be spoiled. When you cease dealing treacherously, they will deal treacherously with you.
2. O Jehovah, be gracious to us. For you have we waited. Be their help every morning, yea, our salvation in time of distress.
3. Because of a roaring voice, peoples have fled. Because of your majesty, nations are scattered.
4. And your spoil will be gathered like the gathering of the destroying locust, like rushing locusts rushing upon it.
5. Jehovah is supremely high; yea, He dwells on high. He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.
6. He will be the stability of your times, wealth, deliverances, wisdom, and knowledge. The fear of Jehovah is his treasure.

²⁵ DSS. MT has “it will hail.”

- ¶7. Behold! Their valiant ones shall cry aloud outside her. Messengers of peace shall weep bitterly.
8. Highways are desolate. He has put an end to the traveler on the road. He has broken covenant. He has despised cities. He does not regard man.
9. He mourns; the land languishes. He makes Lebanon ashamed; it withers. Sharon is like the Arabah, and Bashan and Carmel shake off their foliage.
10. Now I will rise up, says Jehovah; now I will be exalted; now I will be lifted up.
11. You conceive chaff; you bring forth stubble: your spirit. A fire shall devour you,
12. and the nations shall be burnings for lime. Thorns cut off, they shall burn in the fire.
13. You who are far away, hear what I have done! And acknowledge my might, you who are near!
14. The sinners in Zion are afraid. Trembling has seized the ungodly. Who will sojourn in the consuming fire for us? Who will sojourn in the eternal burning mass for us?
15. He who does righteous deeds and speaks right things; he who despises the unjust gain of oppressions; he who turns his hand away from taking a bribe; he who stops his ear from hearing of bloodshed and closes his eyes from beholding wickedness;
16. he will dwell in the highest places. Fortresses of rocks will be his refuge. His bread will be given, and his waters made sure.
17. Your eyes will see the King in his beauty; they will behold a land far away.
18. Your heart will ponder on terror. Where is the one who takes count? Where is the one who weighs? Where is the one who counts the towers?
19. You will not see a barbarous people, a people with a language so obscure that it cannot be comprehended, a stammering tongue that is not understood.
20. Look on Zion, the city of our meetings! Your eyes will see Jerusalem, an untroubled habitation, an unmoved tent whose stakes will never be pulled up, nor will any of its cords be broken.
21. But there, His Majesty, Jehovah, will be for us a place of rivers, very wide streams upon which no boat with oars has gone, nor majestic ship has traversed.
22. For Jehovah is our Judge; Jehovah is our Lawgiver; Jehovah is our King. He will save us.
23. Your ropes are loosed; they do not hold fast their mast; they do not stretch out the sail. Then the abundant spoil was divided. Lame men partook of the plunder.
24. And no inhabitant will say, "I am sick." The people who live in her will be forgiven of their sin.

Isaiah 34

- ¶1. Come near, O Gentiles, to hear! And pay attention, O nations! Let the earth and what fills it hear, the world and all that comes from it!
2. For the indignation of Jehovah is upon all the nations, and fury against all their armies. He has devoted them to destruction. He has given them to the slaughter.

3. Their dead will be cast out; the stench of their corpses will rise; and the mountains will be drenched with their blood.
4. And all the host of heaven shall come apart, and the heavens shall be rolled up like a scroll, and all their host shall fall down, the way leaves fall from a vine or like figs falling from a tree.
5. Yea, my sword in the heavens shall be saturated. Behold! Upon Edom shall it descend, even upon the people I have devoted to judgment.
6. The sword of Jehovah will be sated with blood; it will gorge itself on the fat and blood of lambs and goats, on the fat of rams' kidneys. For in Bozrah, there shall be a sacrifice to Jehovah, even a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
7. And aurochs will fall down with them, and bullocks with mighty men, and their land shall be saturated with blood, and their ground glutted with fat.
8. (For the day of Jehovah's vengeance, the year of recompense for Zion's struggle, will come.)
9. Her streams will be turned to pitch, and her dust, to brimstone, and her land shall become burning pitch.
10. She shall not be quenched, night or day, forever. Her smoke shall go up through all generations. She shall be desolate forever and ever, no one passing through her.
11. And the pelican and porcupine shall possess her, and the owl and raven shall dwell in her. And He shall stretch out over her a line of formlessness and plummets of emptiness.
12. Her nobles and royalty will not be there. They will call, but all her princes will be no more.
13. Briars and nettles will grow in her citadels, and thorns in her fortresses. And she will be the habitation of wolves, an abode for the offspring of owls.
14. And wild beasts will meet hyenas, and the goat will call out to his fellow. Yea, there will the night-crier settle and find for herself a resting-place.
15. There will the arrow-snake nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather in her shadow. And there will vultures be gathered, each with her mate.
16. Search the book of Jehovah, and read! Not one of these shall be lacking. Not one shall lack her mate. For my mouth, it has commanded, and His Spirit, it has assembled them.
17. And He has cast a lot for them, and His hand has divided it to them by a line forever. They will possess it; from generation to generation will they dwell in it.

Isaiah 35

- ¶1. The wilderness and the dry place will rejoice, and the desert will shout for joy and bloom like a rose.
2. It will bloom abundantly and shout. Yea, and sing for joy! The glory of Lebanon will be given to it, the splendor of Carmel and Sharon. They will see the glory of Jehovah, the majesty of our God.

3. Strengthen the weak hands, and steady the feeble knees!
4. Say to those with an anxious heart, “Be strong; do not be afraid. Behold, your God will come with vengeance; God’s Reward, himself, will come and save you!”
5. Then the eyes of the blind will be opened, and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped.
6. Then shall the lame man leap like a stag, and the tongue of the dumb man will sing, for waters will break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert.
7. And the parched ground will become a pool, and the thirsty land, springs of water. In the habitat of wolves, its grassy resting-place, will be reeds and rushes.
8. And a highway will be there, and a way, and it will be called, “The Way of Holiness”. No unclean man will travel over it, but it belongs to him who walks the Way, and fools will not wander about on it.
9. No lion will be there; indeed, no ferocious beasts will go up on it. Such will not be found there. But the redeemed will travel on it.
10. And the redeemed of Jehovah will return and enter into Zion with singing and eternal joy on their heads. They will obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing will flee away. this verse is identical with 51:11

Isaiah 36

- ¶1. And it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and seized them.
2. And the king of Assyria sent Rab-Shakeh from Lachish with a massive army to Jerusalem to king Hezekiah and stood by the conduit of the upper pool on Washer’s Field Road.
3. Then Eliakim ben-Hilkiah, who was over the house, came out to him, with Shebna the scribe, and Joah ben-Asaph, the recorder.
4. Then Rab-Shakeh said to them, “Speak to Hezekiah, if you will! Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, ‘What is this hope in which you trust?’
5. You say,²⁶ ‘It is only empty speech! I have counsel and might for battle!’ On whom do you trust now, that you have rebelled against me?
6. Behold, you rely upon the staff of this broken reed, upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to all who are trusting in him.
7. But when you say to me, ‘We trust in Jehovah our God!’ Is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah took away, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, ‘Before this altar shall you worship’?
8. So now, if you will, make a pledge with my lord, the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to put riders on them.

²⁶ DSS reading. MSS: “I say”.

9. So, how can you repulse the face of one captain of the least of my lord's servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariotry and horsemen?
10. And have I now come up without Jehovah against this land to destroy it? Jehovah said to me, 'Go up against this land and destroy it!"'
11. Then Eliakim and Shebna, and Joah said to Rab-Shakeh, "Speak to your servants, I pray, in Aramaic because we understand it, and do not speak to us in Judean within the hearing of the people that are on the wall."
12. But Rab-Shakeh said, "Has my lord sent me to your lord and to you to speak these words? Is it not to the men sitting on the wall to eat their own dung and drink their own urine, with you?"
13. Then Rab-Shakeh stood, and cried out with a loud voice in Judean, and said, "Hear the words of the great king, king of Assyria!
14. Thus says the king, 'Do not let Hezekiah beguile you because he is not able to deliver you.
15. And do not let Hezekiah make you trust in Jehovah, saying, "Jehovah will certainly deliver us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."
16. Do not give heed to Hezekiah, for thus says the king of Assyria, "Make a treaty of peace with me, and come out to me. Then every man will eat from his vine, and each from his fig tree, and each will drink water from his well
17. until I come and take you away to a land like your own land. A land of grain and new wine, a land of food and vineyards."
18. Take heed, lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, "Jehovah will deliver us!" Have any of the gods of the nations delivered their land from the hand of the king of Assyria?
19. Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?
20. Which among all the gods of these lands have delivered their land out of my hand, that Jehovah will deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?"'
21. But they kept silent and did not answer him a word because the king's order said, "Do not answer him!"
22. Then Eliakim ben-Hilkiah, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah ben-Asaph the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their garments torn and reported to him the words of Rab-Shakeh.

Isaiah 37

- ¶1. And it came to pass when King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his garments and covered himself with sackcloth, and he went into the house of Jehovah.
2. Then he sent Eliakim, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, who also covered themselves with sackcloth, to Isaiah ben-Amoz, the prophet,

3. that they might say to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: This day is a day of distress, and reproof, and blasphemy; children have come to the point of birth, but there is no strength to deliver.
4. Perhaps Jehovah your God will hear the words of Rab-Shakeh, whom his lord, the king of Assyria, sent to reproach the living God, and will rebuke the words that Jehovah your God has heard. Therefore, lift up a prayer for the remnant that is left."
5. And so, the servants of King Hezekiah went to Isaiah.
6. Then Isaiah said to them, "Thus say to your master, thus says Jehovah: 'Do not be afraid of the words that you heard, with which those boys from the king of Assyria blasphemed me.'
7. Behold! I am sending a spirit against him, and he will hear a report and will return to his land, and I will make him fall by the sword in his own land."
8. Then Rab-Shakeh returned, and he found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that he had pulled out from Lachish.
9. And he heard a report concerning Tirhakah, king of Cush, saying, "He has come forth to do battle with you." And having heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,
10. "Thus shall you speak to Hezekiah, king of Judah: Do not let your God, in whom you trust, deceive you, saying, 'Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'
11. Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the lands by completely destroying them; yet, you will be delivered?
12. Did the gods of the nations whom my fathers destroyed deliver them: Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the sons of Eden who were in Telassar?
13. Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivvah?"
14. And Hezekiah took the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it, and he went up to the house of Jehovah. And Hezekiah spread it out before Jehovah.
15. And Hezekiah prayed to Jehovah, saying,
16. "O LORD of Hosts, God of Israel, who dwells between the cherubim. You alone are God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth.
17. O Jehovah, incline your ear, and hear! O Jehovah, open your eyes, and see! Oh, hear all the words of Sennacherib which he sent to defy the living God!
18. O Jehovah, the kings of Assyria have indeed made desolate all the countries and their land,
19. and they have cast their gods into the fire, for they were not gods but the work of man's hands, wood and stone, therefore, they could destroy them.
20. But, O Jehovah our God, deliver us now from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone, O Jehovah, are God."
21. Then Isaiah ben-Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says Jehovah, God of Israel: That which you have prayed to me against Sennacherib, king of Assyria, I have heard.

22. This is the word that Jehovah has spoken concerning him, ‘The virgin daughter of Zion despises you and mocks you. The daughter of Jerusalem wags her head at you.
23. Whom have you reproached and blasphemed? And against whom have you raised your voice? Yea, you have lifted your eyes haughtily against the Holy One of Israel!
24. By the hand of your servants, you have reproached the Lord, and you have said, “By a multitude of my chariotry, I have ascended to the height of the mountains, the slopes of Lebanon, and its tall cedars have I cut down, its choicest cypresses. Yea, I have reached its greatest height, its garden-like forest.
25. I dug wells and drank waters, and I have dried up with the sole of my feet all the streams of Egypt.”
26. Did you not hear that long ago I determined it? From days of old, I planned it. Now, have I brought it to pass that you should make fortified cities desolate, heaps of ruins.
27. Moreover, their inhabitants are feeble-handed. They were dismayed and disconcerted. They were as herbage of the field and as green grass, as grass on the rooftops, and blasted grain before it matures.²⁷
28. But I know your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your rage at me.
29. Because your rage at me and your arrogance have come up into my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came.’
30. And this will be the sign to you: this year, you will eat what grows of itself, and in the second year, volunteer grain, and in the third year, you will sow and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.
31. And the remnant of the house of Judah that escape will again take root downward and produce fruit upward.
32. For out of Jerusalem shall come forth a remnant, even those who have escaped from Mount Zion. The zeal of Jehovah of Hosts will do this.
33. Therefore, Jehovah has said thus to the king of Assyria: He will not enter into this city, nor will he shoot an arrow there, nor will he come before it with a shield, nor will he cast a mound against it.
34. He will return by the way he came, and he will not enter into this city, says Jehovah!
35. For I will defend this city to save it for my sake, and for the sake of my servant David.”
- ¶36. Then an angel from Jehovah went out and struck down one hundred and eighty-five thousand in the Assyrian camp. And they arose early in the morning, and behold, all of them were dead corpses.
37. So, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, departed, and went, and returned, and dwelt in Nineveh.

²⁷ MSS: “like a field before the grain matures.”

38. And it came to pass, as he was bowing down in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adramelech and Sharezer, his sons, struck him down with the sword, and they escaped to the land of Ararat. Then Esar-haddon, his son, became king in his stead.

Isaiah 38

- ¶1. In those days, Hezekiah became sick unto death, and Isaiah ben-Amoz the prophet came to him and said to him, "Thus says Jehovah: Put your house in order, for you will die and not live."
2. Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to Jehovah,
3. and said, "I pray you, O Jehovah, remember, I pray you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and I have done what is good in your eyes." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.
4. And the word of Jehovah came to Isaiah, saying,
5. "Go and say to Hezekiah, 'Thus says Jehovah, the God of David, your father: I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add to your days fifteen years,
6. and from the hand of the king of Assyria will I deliver you and this city, and I will defend this city.
7. This will be the sign for you from Jehovah, that Jehovah will do this thing that He has spoken,
8. Behold, I will make the shadow of the degrees which have gone down on the steps of Ahaz by the sun go backwards ten degrees.'" Then the sun went back ten degrees according to the degrees that it had gone down.
- ¶9. The writing of Hezekiah, king of Judah, when he was ill, but he revived from his illness:
10. "I said in the midst of my days, I must enter the gates of Sheol. I am deprived of the remainder of my years.
11. I said that I will not see J'ah (O J'ah!) in the land of the living. I will no longer look upon man among those who inhabit vanity.
12. My dwelling-place has been pulled up and removed from me like a shepherd's tent. I, like a weaver, have rolled up my life. He has severed me from the thrum. From day to night, you make an end of me.
13. I am still until morning. Like a lion, thus he shatters all my bones. From day to night, you make an end of me.
14. Like a crane or a swallow, I whimper. I moan like a dove. My eyes have grown weary with looking upward. O Lord, I am distressed! Be my surety!
15. What can I say, that He would speak to me and do it? I will go softly all my years on account of the bitterness of my soul.
16. O Lord, men spend their lives in these things, and my spirit has lived through all of them. But you have restored my health and given me life.

17. Behold! For my welfare, it was very bitter to me, but you have loved my soul out of the pit of uselessness, for you have cast all my sins behind your back.
 18. For Sheol does not offer you thanks, death does not praise you, and those who descend to the Pit do not hope for your truth.
 19. A living man, one who is alive, he will praise you, as I do this day. A father will make your faithfulness known to his sons.
 20. Jehovah saved me, and so, we will play my songs all the days of our lives in the house of Jehovah.”
- ¶21. (For Isaiah had said, “Let them take a cake of figs and rub it on the boil, and he will live.”)
22. And Hezekiah said, “What is the sign that I will go up to the house of Jehovah?”

Isaiah 39

- ¶1. At that time, Merodach-baladan ben-Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick, but had recovered.
2. And Hezekiah received them gladly. Then he showed them his treasure-house, the silver and the gold, and the spices, and the fragrant oil; and all the house of his weapons; and all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.
3. Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah and said to him, “What did these men say? And from where did they come to you?” And Hezekiah said, “They came to me from a distant land, from Babylon.”
4. And he said, “What have they seen in your house?” Then Hezekiah said, “They have seen everything that is in my house. There was nothing in my storehouses that I did not show them.”
5. And Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of Jehovah of Hosts:
6. Behold! The days are coming that everything that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up to this day will be carried away to Babylon. Nothing will remain, says Jehovah.
7. And some of your sons that have come forth from you, whom you fathered, will be taken away, and they will be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”
8. Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of Jehovah that you have spoken is good.” Moreover, he said, “Because there will be peace and truth in my days.”

Isaiah 40

- ¶1. “Comfort ye, comfort ye my people!” says your God.
2. “Speak to the heart of Jerusalem and cry out to her that her hard service is fulfilled, that her iniquity has been pardoned, because she has received double from the hand of Jehovah for all her sins.

3. A voice crying in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way of Jehovah! Make straight in the desert a highway for our God!
 4. Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low. The hilly place will be level, and the rugged places, a plain.
 5. Yea, the glory of Jehovah shall be revealed, and all flesh will see it together, for the mouth of Jehovah has spoken.’
 6. A voice is saying, ‘Cry out!’ And he said, ‘What shall I cry out?’ ‘All flesh is grass, and all its comeliness is like a flower of the field.’”
 7. The grass withers, the flower fades because the Spirit of the LORD blows upon it. Truly, the people are grass.
 8. The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will stand forever.
- ¶9. Go up on a high mountain, O herald of good news for Zion! Lift up your voice with strength, O herald of good news for Jerusalem! Lift it up! Do not fear! Say to the cities of Judah, “Behold your God!”
10. Behold! The Lord, Jehovah, will come with power, and His arm rules for Him! Behold, His reward is with Him, and His recompense before Him.
 11. He will feed His flock like a shepherd; He will gather the lambs with His arm and carry them in His bosom; He will be a guide for those who are nursing.
- ¶12. Who measured the waters in the hollow of His hand, and meted out heaven with His span, and measured out the dust of the earth by His Prince, and weighed the mountains in His scale and the hills in a balance?
13. Who has directed the Spirit of Jehovah, and who, being His counsellor, has taught Him?
 14. With whom has He taken counsel, or who caused Him to understand, or instructed Him in the path of judgment, or taught Him knowledge, or showed Him the way of understanding?
 15. Behold! The nations are as a drop from a bucket, and are accounted as fine dust on a balance. Behold! Islands are as fine dust floating in air.
 16. Yea, Lebanon is insufficient to burn, and its beasts are insufficient for a burnt offering for Him.
 17. All the nations are as nothing before Him. Less than nothing! They are considered nothingness before Him.
 18. To whom shall you liken God? And what likeness shall you compare to Him?
 19. The craftsman pours out the image, and the goldsmith overlays it with gold and casts chains of silver.
 20. As for the poor man’s offering, he selects a tree that will not rot. He seeks out for himself a skillful woodworker to prepare an image that cannot be moved.
 21. Do you not know? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not been given understanding of the foundations of the earth?
 22. He who sits upon the circle of the earth, with its inhabitants like grasshoppers, who spreads out heaven like a curtain and stretches it out like a tent to dwell in,

23. who brings potentates to nothing, He has made the judges of earth like nothingness.
24. No, they are not established! No, they are not planted! No, their stock is not rooted in the earth! Moreover, He blows on them, and they wither; yea, a tempest will carry them off like chaff.
25. Yea, to whom will you liken me, that I should be his equal? says the Holy One.
26. Lift up your eyes on high and see who created these things! He who brought forth their host by number, calling them all by name. By an abundance of great strength and mighty power, not one has failed.
27. Why do you say, O Jacob, and you, O Israel, say, "My way is hidden from Jehovah, even from my God; He disregards my cause"?
28. Do you not know? I will damn myself if you have not heard the God of eternity, Jehovah, Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not grow weary or tired. His understanding is unsearchable.
29. He gives power to the faint, and to him who has no vigor, He multiplies strength.
30. Yea, young men may faint and grow weary; yea, young men may stumble and stagger,
31. but they who wait on Jehovah shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles. They shall run and not grow weary; they shall walk and not faint.

Isaiah 41

- ¶1. "Be silent before me, O coastlands! And let peoples renew strength. Let them draw near. Let them then say as one, 'Let us draw near for judgment!'"
2. Who stirred up justice from the East? Who summoned him to his feet, made nations bow before him, and gave him rule over kings? Who made them like dust to his sword, like chaff driven away by his bow?
3. He put them to flight; he passed through safely. He did not go on a path with his feet.
4. "Who has done and made it so, calling forth the generations from the beginning? I, Jehovah, called the first and those who followed. I am He!"
5. The coastlands saw and were afraid; the ends of the earth trembled. They approached and came.
6. They will help, each one, his neighbor, and each will say to his brother, 'Be strong!'
7. So, the craftsman strengthens the goldsmith as he beats with a hammer, the one who strikes an anvil, saying, 'It is ready for joining.' Then he fastens it with nails so that it will not move.
8. But you, O Israel my servant, O Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend,
9. whom I have taken from the ends of the earth and its corners, I have called you and said to you, You are my servant. I have chosen you, and I will not reject you.
10. Do not fear, for I am with you! Do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will make you strong. Yea, I will help you. Yea, I will uphold you with the right hand of my righteousness.

11. Behold, all who are angry with you will be ashamed and confounded. They will be as nothing, and the men who contend with you will perish.
12. You will seek them, but you will not find them. The men who strove with you shall be as nothing, and the men who made war against you, as though they had not been.
13. For I am Jehovah your God, who holds your right hand and says to you, do not be afraid; I will help you.'
- ¶14. "Do not be afraid, O worm Jacob, you men of Israel! I will help you! says Jehovah your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.
15. Behold, I will make of you a sharp, new threshing-sledge, having teeth; you will thresh mountains and crush them, and you will make hills like chaff.
16. You will winnow them, and a wind will carry them away, and a tempest will scatter them. And you will rejoice in Jehovah, and you will glory in the Holy One of Israel.
- ¶17. "The poor and the needy seek water and there is none; their tongue is parched with thirst. I, Jehovah, will answer them; I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.
18. I will open up rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of valleys. I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land, springs of water.
19. I will plant cedar, acacia, and myrtle, and olive trees in the wilderness. I will set in the desert plain the cypress, the plane-tree, and the box tree together,
20. that they may all see, and realize, and consider, and understand that the hand of Jehovah has done this, and the Holy One of Israel has brought it to pass.
21. Present your case, says Jehovah. Bring your proofs, says the King of Jacob.
22. Let them approach and tell us what will happen! Let them reveal former things, what they were, that we may wonder, and acknowledge their fulfillment. Or declare to us things to come.
23. Tell what is coming in the future, that we may know that you are gods! Yea, do good! Or do evil, that we may be in awe, and fear!
24. Behold, you are nothing and your work is nothing. Whoever chooses you is an abomination.
25. I have stirred up one from the north, and he will come. From the rising of the sun, he was called by my name, and he will trample on rulers as on clay, the way a potter treads clay.
26. Who has declared it from the beginning, that we might know, or beforehand, that we might say he is righteous? Yea, there is no one declaring it. Yea, there is no one proclaiming it. Yea, there is no one who hears your words.
27. A leader shall say to Zion, 'Behold! Behold them! Yea, to Jerusalem will I give a bearer of good news.'
28. Yet, when I looked, there was no man, even among these. Yea, there was no counselor. And when I questioned them, they could answer nothing.
29. Behold, they are all vanity! Their works are nothing; their molten images are wind and emptiness.

Isaiah 42

- ¶1. "Behold my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one, in whom my soul delights! I have put my Spirit upon him. He will bring forth justice to the nations.
2. He will not cry aloud; nor will he lift up his voice and cause it to be heard in the street.
3. A bruised reed he will not break, and smoldering flax he will not quench. He will assuredly bring forth justice.
4. He will not fail, nor be discouraged, until he has established justice on the earth, and the isles will wait for his law.
- ¶5. "Thus says Jehovah God, Creator of the heavens, and He who stretched them out, He who shaped the earth and that which comes from it, who gives breath to the people on it, and breath to those who live in it:
6. I, Jehovah, have called you in righteousness, and I will hold your hand and keep you hidden. And then, I will give you for a covenant for the people, for a light of the nations,
7. to open the eyes of the blind, to bring prisoners out of the dungeon, those who sit in darkness out of the prison house.
8. I am Jehovah. That is my name. And I will not give my glory to another, nor my praise to graven images.
9. The former things, behold, they came to pass, and now, I am declaring new things! Before they spring forth, I am making you hear it!"
- ¶10. Sing to Jehovah a new song, His song of praise, from the end of the earth, you who go down to the sea and its fullness, the coastlands and their inhabitants:
11. Let the wilderness and its cities lift up their voice, the villages Kedar inhabits! Let the inhabitants of Selah, cry out for joy! Let them cry aloud from the top of the mountains!
12. Let them give glory to Jehovah, and declare His praise in the coastlands!
13. Jehovah will go out like a mighty warrior. He will stir up zeal like a man of war. He will raise a shout; yea, He will roar. Against His enemies, He will prevail.
- ¶14. "I have kept still; for a long time, I have been silent. I have restrained myself. Like a woman giving birth, I have been groaning, panting, and gasping, all together.
15. I will lay waste the mountains and the hills and dry up all their vegetation, and I will make the rivers islands and dry up the ponds.
16. And I will lead blind men in a way they have not known. In paths they have not known will I guide them. I will make the darkness before them light, and the crooked places straight. These are the things I will do for them, and I will not forsake them.
17. They have been turned away; they will be greatly ashamed who trust in an image and say to a molten image, 'You are our gods!'
- ¶18. "Hear, you who are deaf, and look, you who are blind, that you may see!"

19. Who is blind, but my servant, and deaf like my messenger that I send? Who is blind like the one to be repaid, and blind like the servant of Jehovah?
20. You see many things, but you do not see them. Your ears are open, but no one hears.
21. Jehovah was pleased, because of His righteousness, to magnify the law and glorify it.
22. But this is a pillaged and plundered people, ensnared in holes, all of them, and hidden away in prison houses. They are a prey, and there is no deliverer, a spoil, and no one is saying, "Bring it back!"
23. Who among you will give ear to this? Pay attention, and hear from now on!
24. Who has given Jacob over as plunder, and Israel to spoilers? Is it not Jehovah, against whom we have sinned? For they would neither walk in His ways, nor obey His law,
25. and so, He poured out His furious anger on him, even a fierce battle which set him on fire on every side. Yet, he did not understand, and so it consumed him, and he did not lay it to heart.

Isaiah 43

- ¶1. "But now, thus says Jehovah who created you, O Jacob, and who formed you, O Israel: Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I called you by name. You are mine.
 2. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you, and through the rivers, they will not overwhelm you! Though you walk in the midst of fire, you will not be burned; yea, the flame will not burn you.
 3. For I am Jehovah your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I gave Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in exchange for you.
 4. Because you were precious in my sight, you were honored, for I have loved you. Yea, I will give men in exchange for you, and nations in exchange for your life.
 5. Do not be afraid, for I am with you; I will bring your children from the east, and I will gather you from the west.
 6. I will say to the north, 'Give them up!' and to the south, 'Do not withhold them! Bring my sons from afar and my daughters from the ends of the earth—
 7. each one who is called by my name, and whom I created for my glory! I formed him! Yea, I made him!'
 8. Bring forth the blind people who have eyes, and the deaf who have ears!
 9. Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the peoples be assembled! Who among them will declare this, and tell us of former things? Let them put forth their witnesses, that they may be justified. And let men hear and say it is true!
 10. You are my witnesses, says Jehovah, and my servant whom I have chosen, that you may know and may believe me, and understand that I am He. Before me, no god was formed, and after me shall be none.
- ¶11. "I, even I, am Jehovah, and besides me, there is no Savior.
12. I declared, and I saved, and I caused you to hear when there was no strange god among you. Yea, you are my witnesses, says Jehovah, and I am God!

13. Yea, before day was, I am He, and there is no one who can deliver out of my hand. I work, and who can reverse it?
14. Thus says Jehovah your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sakes, I sent to Babylon and brought down the bars,²⁸ all of them, and the Chaldeans in the ships with their ringing cries.
15. I am Jehovah, your Holy One, Creator of Israel, your King.
- ¶16. "Thus says Jehovah, who makes a way in the sea, and a path in mighty waters,
17. who sends forth chariot and horse, army and mighty man. Together, they will lie down; they will not rise. They are extinguished the way a wick is put out.
18. Stop thinking on former things! Stop dwelling on times gone by!
19. Behold, I do a new thing! It is about to spring up! Will you not understand it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.
20. The beast of the field will honor me, the wolves and the unclean fowl, when I give waters in the wilderness and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.
21. I planned this people for myself; they shall declare my praise.
- ¶22. "But you did not call on me, Jacob. You grew tired of me, O Israel.
23. You have not brought the sheep of your burnt offerings to me, nor honored me with your sacrifices, though I have not burdened you with offerings nor wearied you with frankincense.
24. You did not buy calamus for me with silver, nor satisfy me with the fat of your sacrifices. Yea, you burdened me with your sins; you wearied me with your iniquities.
- ¶25. "I am He who blots out your transgressions for my own sake, and I will not remember your sins.
26. Remind me! Let us enter into judgment together! You do the talking, so that you may be vindicated.
27. Your first father sinned, and your instructors transgressed against me.
28. So I profaned the princes of the sanctuary, and I gave Jacob over to destruction, and Israel to revilings.

Isaiah 44

- ¶1. "But now, listen, O Jacob my servant, and Israel, whom I have chosen.
2. Thus says Jehovah: He who made you and formed you from the womb will help you. Do not be afraid, O Jacob my servant, even Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
3. For I will pour out water on thirsty ground, and streams on dry land. I will pour out my Spirit on your seed, and my blessing on your offspring.
4. And they will spring up among grass, like the sallows by springs of water.

²⁸ Hebrew uncertain.

5. One will say, ‘I belong to Jehovah,’ and another will call himself by the name of Jacob, and another will write on his hand, ‘Jehovah’s,’ and surname himself by the name of Israel.
- ¶6. Thus says Jehovah, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, Jehovah of Hosts: I am first, and I am last, and besides me, there is no God.
7. And who is like me? Let him proclaim, and let him declare future events, and let him explain to me who created people in ancient times. And let him declare to them what will come about!
8. Do not fear. Oh, do not be afraid! Did I not cause you to hear this long ago? I certainly declared it, and you are my witnesses. Is there any God besides me? There is no other Rock. I know of none.
9. The fashioners of an image, all of them, are worthless, and the things they delight in are worthless, and they are their witnesses. They do not see and they do not know, and so, they shall be ashamed.
10. Who would fashion a god or cast an image for no benefit?
11. Behold! All his companions are ashamed, and the craftsmen, they are but men. Let them all assemble; let them take a stand! They will be afraid; together, they will be put to shame.
12. The craftsman uses an iron tool and makes an idol with hammers in the glowing coals. He fashions it and makes it with his strong arm. Even if it were hungry, it has no power to eat, and if it were faint, it cannot drink water.
13. The craftsman who works with trees stretches out a line and draws it with a stylus. He makes it with shaping instruments and a compass; he outlines it and then makes it in man’s likeness, like a glorious man, to sit in a house.
14. He cuts down cedars for himself, or he takes a cypress²⁹ or an oak and secures it for himself among the trees of a forest. He plants a fir, and rain makes it grow.
15. It is there for a man to burn, and so, he takes from them and warms himself. Yea, he makes a fire and bakes bread. But then, he makes a god and worships; he makes it a graven image and bows down to it.
16. Half of it, he burns up in a fire. Over that half, he cooks a roast, eats meat and is filled. Moreover, he is warmed and says, ‘Ah! I am warm. I see the firelight.’
17. And the rest of it, he makes a god, his graven image. He bows down to it and worships, and prays to it, saying, ‘Save me! For you are my god!’
18. They do not know, nor do they understand that He has besmeared their eyes so that they cannot see, and their hearts, so they cannot understand.
19. Yea, no one takes it to his heart, nor has the knowledge or understanding to think, ‘Half of it, I burn up in a fire, and on its coals I also bake bread, roast flesh, and then eat. And with the rest of it, I make an abomination, that I might bow down to a block of wood.'

²⁹ Hebrew uncertain.

20. Communing with a god through ashes? A deceived heart has led him astray, for it will not save his soul. Nor does he say, 'Is not a lie in my right hand?'
- ¶21. "Remember these things, Jacob; for you are my servant, O Israel. I formed you as a servant for me. O Israel, you will not be forgotten by me!"
22. I have blotted out your transgressions as with a cloud, and your sins as with a thick cloud. Return to me, for I have redeemed you!
23. Shout for joy, O heavens, for Jehovah has done it! Shout, O lower parts of the earth! Break out in praise, O mountains! Forest, and every tree in it! For Jehovah has redeemed Jacob and glorified Himself in Israel!
- ¶24. "Thus says Jehovah, your Redeemer, and the One who formed you from the womb: I am Jehovah, Creator of everything, stretching out heaven alone, spreading out the earth by myself,
25. frustrating the omens of praters and making diviners fools, confuting wise men and making their knowledge foolishness,
26. confirming the word of His servant, and fulfilling the council of His messengers, who says of Jerusalem, 'She shall be inhabited!' and of the cities of Judah, 'They shall be built!' and 'I will raise up her waste places,'
27. who says to the deep, 'Dry up!' and 'I will dry up your rivers,'
28. who says to Cyrus, 'You are my shepherd,' and he will do all my pleasure, even saying of Jerusalem, 'Let it be built, and the temple foundation laid.'"

Isaiah 45

- ¶1. Thus says Jehovah to His Messiah, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have made strong to subdue nations before him. Yea, I will loosen the loins of kings and open doors before him; yea, gates will not be closed:
2. I will go before you and level the hilly places. Bronze doors will I shatter, and bars of iron will I cut apart.
3. I will also give you the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, so that you may know that I, Jehovah, who calls you by your name, am the God of Israel.
4. For Jacob my servant's sake, even Israel my chosen, I am calling you by your name. I have granted your title, though you do not know me.
5. I am Jehovah, and there is no other; besides me there is no God. I gird you, though you do not know me,
6. so that they may know, from the rising of the sun and to the west, that there is none besides me. I am Jehovah, and there is no other.

7. I form the light, and create darkness; I make peace, and create evil.³⁰ I, Jehovah, do all these things.
8. Send your showers, O heavens, from above! Yea, let the clouds drip righteousness! Let the earth open up, so that they may bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up with it.
I, Jehovah, have created him.³¹
- ¶9. Woe to him who strives with his Maker. Let a potsherds strive with potsherds of the earth. Should the clay say to the one who fashions it, ‘What are you doing?’ Or should the thing you have made say, “He has no hands?”
10. Woe to him who says to a father, “What are you fathering?” or to a mother, “What are you giving birth to?”
- ¶11. Thus says Jehovah, Israel’s Holy One, and his Maker: “Ask me about things to come concerning my children! But you command me concerning the work of my own hands!
12. I made the earth, and created man upon it. I, even my hands, stretched out the heavens, and I ordained all their hosts.
13. I have stirred him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways. He will build my city, and he will set my captives free, not at a price, nor for a reward, says Jehovah of Hosts.”
- ¶14. Thus says Jehovah: The goods of Egypt and the merchandise of Ethiopia and the Sabeans (men of stature) will pass over to you, and they will be yours. They will follow you in chains. They will pass over and bow down to you. They will entreat you, saying, “God is with you, and there is no other God! No other!”
15. Truly, O God of Israel, Savior,³² you truly are a God who hides Himself.
16. They shall be ashamed, and humiliated as well, all of them; those who engrave images shall go together into infamy.
17. Israel shall be saved by Jehovah with an eternal salvation! You shall not be ashamed, and you shall not be humiliated for all eternity.
- ¶18. For thus says Jehovah, Creator of the heavens: He is God, shaper of the earth and maker of it; he is the one who founded it. He did not create it for emptiness; he shaped it to be inhabited. I am Jehovah, and there is no other!
19. I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of earth. I have not said in vain to the seed of Jacob, “Seek me!” I, Jehovah, speak in righteousness, declaring right things.

³⁰ Or, “bring about calamity”.

³¹ Or, “created it”.

³² Or, “Messiah”.

20. Assemble and come! Gather yourselves together, you survivors of the nations! They have no knowledge who raise up their carved image of wood and pray to a god who cannot save.
21. Declare it, and bring evidence! Yea, let them consult together! Who spoke this long ago? Who declared it of old? Was it not I, Jehovah? There is no other god besides me, a righteous God and a Savior!³³ There is no one but me!
22. Turn to me and be saved, all ends of the earth! I am God, and there is no other!
23. I have sworn by myself; the word has gone out of my mouth in righteousness and shall not return, that every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess.
24. “Only in Jehovah,” he said to me, “is righteousness and strength.” He shall come, and all who are incensed against him shall be put to shame.
25. In Jehovah shall all the seed of Israel be justified and make their boast.

Isaiah 46

- ¶1. Bel is bowed down; Nebo stoops over. Their idols are upon beasts and cattle. The burdens you bore in procession are loaded as a burden for a weary animal.
2. They stoop over; they bow down together; they are unable to rescue the burden, but they themselves have gone into captivity.
3. Listen to me, O house of Jacob and all who remain of the house of Israel who have been carried from the belly, who have been carried since the womb:
4. Even to old age, I am He, and to gray hair, I myself carry the load. I myself have created, and I myself will carry it; yea, I myself will bear the load, and I will deliver.
5. To whom will you liken me, or make me equal, or compare me, as though we were alike?
6. Those who lavish gold from a purse and weigh out silver on the scales hire a goldsmith, who makes it a god. Then they fall down and worship it.
7. They bear it on the shoulder; they carry it, and set it in its place, and it remains. From its place, it does not move. Yea, one may cry out to it, but it will not answer nor save him in his distress.
8. Remember this and have some gumption! Take it to heart, you rebels!
9. Call to mind the beginning things from ancient time, that I am God, and there are no other gods. There is none like me,
10. revealing the end from the beginning, and from ancient time what has not yet happened, saying, “My counsel shall stand, and I will do all that I please,”
11. calling a bird of prey from the rising sun, the man of my counsel from a distant land. Yea, I have spoken; I will also bring to pass! I have planned; I will also do!
12. Listen to me, you stout-hearted who are far from righteousness!

³³ Or, “a Messiah”.

13. My righteousness will I bring near; it will not be far off. And my salvation will not tarry. I will grant salvation in Zion for Israel, my glory.

Isaiah 47

- ¶1. Go down and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon! Sit on the ground; there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans, for they will not again call you tender and delicate.
2. Take millstones and grind meal; remove your veil; strip off the skirt; expose the leg; cross over rivers!
3. Your nakedness is uncovered, and your shame is seen. I will take vengeance; I will not spare a man.
- ¶4. Our Redeemer is Jehovah of Hosts. The Holy One of Israel is His name.
5. Sit in silence and enter into the darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans, for they will not again call you the madam of kingdoms.
6. I was furious with my people; I polluted my heritage and gave them into your hand. You showed them no mercy. On the aged one, you made your yoke very heavy.
7. You have said, "I shall be queen forever." Therefore, you did not take these things to heart, nor did you remember her end.
8. So now, hear this, O licentious woman who sits confidently, who says in her heart, "I am, and there is no other besides me. I shall not sit as a widow, nor shall I know the loss of children,"
9. These two things will come to you in a moment, in one day: loss of children and widowhood. They will come upon you in their full measure because of your many sorceries and because of your great charms.
10. You were bold in your wickedness, and you thought, "There is no one who sees me." Your wisdom and your knowledge turned you from me, and you said in your heart, "I am, and there is none besides me."
11. But evil will come upon you that you will not know how to charm away, and sudden destruction will fall upon you for which you cannot provide atonement, and devastation will come upon you suddenly, of which you know nothing.
12. Stand now with your charms and with the multitude of your sorceries with which you have toiled from your youth. Maybe you can prevail! Maybe you will frighten me!
13. You are worn out with your many consultations. Let now your astrologers stand up and save you, those who scan the stars, predicting each month what is coming upon you.
14. Behold, they are like stubble; the fire consumes them. They cannot deliver themselves from the power of the flame. There is no coal to keep them warm, or fire to sit before.
15. Thus shall your merchants be to you, for whom you have labored from your youth. They will wander off, each to his own way. There will be no one to save you.

Isaiah 48

- ¶1. Hear this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel, and come out from the waters of Judah, who take oaths by the name of Jehovah, and offer invocations by the God of Israel, but not in truth or in righteousness.
2. How they claim to belong to the holy city and to be sustained by the God of Israel whose name is Jehovah of Hosts!
 3. I revealed past events before they happened. Yea, they went forth from my mouth, and I caused them to be heard. I acted suddenly, and they came to pass.
 4. Knowing that you are stubborn, and that your neck is sinew of iron, and that your brow is brass,
 5. I told you of them ahead of time. Before it came to pass, I made you hear of them, lest you should say, "My own effort brought those things about" or "My graven image and my molten image ordained them."
 6. You have heard; now, look at all this! Will you not declare it? Even now, I am causing you to hear new things, even hidden things that you do not know!
 7. Right now they are created, and not long ago; before today, you have not heard them, lest you should say, "Behold, I knew them."
 8. You have not heard, nor have you understood, nor was your ear open before. For I know that you are very treacherous. From the womb, you were named, "Rebel".
 9. For my name's sake will I defer my anger, and for the sake of my praise will I restrain it for you, lest I cut you off.
 10. Behold, I have refined you, but not the way silver is refined; I have chosen you in a furnace of affliction.
 11. For my own sake—for my own sake!—will I do it. For why should my name be profaned? And I will not give my glory to another.
- ¶12. Listen to me, Jacob! And Israel, whom I named! I am He! I am the beginning and the end.
13. Yea, my hand founded the earth, and my right hand spread out the heavens! When I call, they stand up together.
 14. Come together, all of you, and listen! Who among them has declared these things? Jehovah has loved him, and he will do His pleasure in Babylon, and his arm shall be against the Chaldeans.
 15. I, even I, have spoken! Yea, I ordained him; I sent him, and he made his way successful.
 16. Draw near to me! Hear this! From the beginning, I have not spoken in secret. From the beginning of time, I was there. And now, the Lord, Jehovah, has sent me and His Spirit.
 17. Thus says Jehovah your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am Jehovah your God, who teaches you to profit, leading you in the way you should go.
 18. If only you had heeded my commandments! Then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness, like billows of the sea,

19. and your seed would have been like the sand, and those who come from your loins, like its grains. Their name would not have been cut off or destroyed before me.
20. Get out of Babylon! Flee from the Chaldeans with a voice of singing! Declare it, cause this to be heard, send it out to the end of the earth! Say, "Jehovah has redeemed His servant Jacob!"
21. They did not thirst when He led them through the deserts. He made water to flow for them from a rock; He split a rock, and water gushed out.
22. There is no peace, says Jehovah, to the wicked.

Isaiah 49

1. Hear me, O isles! Listen, people from afar! Jehovah called me from the womb. From my mother's belly, He made mention of my name.
2. He made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of His hand, He hid me. He made me a polished arrow; in His quiver, He has hidden me.
3. He said to me, "You are my servant Israel, for in you, I will glorify myself."
4. As for me, I said, "I have labored for nothing; I have spent my strength in vain. For nothing! Yet, my judgment is surely with Jehovah, and my reward with my God."
5. And then Jehovah, the One who formed me from the womb as His servant to bring Jacob back to Him, said that even if Israel is not brought in, I will yet be honored in Jehovah's eyes. My God is my strength!
6. Yea, He said, "It is too small a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, to bring back those of Israel who are preserved. I have appointed you to be a light for the nations, to be my salvation to the end of the earth."
7. Thus said Jehovah, the Redeemer of His holy one Israel, to the one despised by man, the one abhorred by the nation, the servant of rulers: "Kings will see and arise, and princes shall bow down because of Jehovah who is faithful, Israel's Holy One, who has chosen you."
8. This is what Jehovah said: "In the acceptable time, I will answer you, and in the day of salvation, I will help you. And I will watch over you and give you for a covenant of the people, to cause the earth to rise to inherit desolate inheritances,
9. saying to the prisoners, 'Come forth!' And to those in darkness, 'Show yourselves!' They shall feed along the roads, and their pastures shall be in all the high places.
10. And they will neither hunger nor thirst, and heat and sun will not beat upon them. For He who pities them will guide them, and by springs of water will He refresh them.
11. And I will turn all my mountains into a road, and my highways will be raised up.
12. Behold, some shall come from far away, and behold, others from the north and from the west, and others from the land of Sinim."

13. Shout for joy, O heavens, and rejoice, O earth! Break forth with a shout of praise, O mountains! For Jehovah has comforted His people, and He will have compassion on His afflicted.
14. And Zion will think, "Jehovah has abandoned me, and my Lord has forgotten me!"
15. Can a woman forget her sucking child, to have compassion on the son of her womb? Indeed, these women may forget, but I will not forget you.
16. Behold, I have engraved you upon the palms of my hands. Your walls are always before me.
17. Your children will make haste; your destroyers and your devastators will depart from you.
18. Lift up your eyes and look round about. They all are gathered; they have come to you. As I live, declares Jehovah, truly, you will put all of them on like an ornament and bind them on, as the bride does,
19. for your ruins, and your desolate places, and your devastated land will surely then be crowded by settlers, but those who swallowed you up will be far away.
20. Children of your bereavement will keep saying in your ears, "This place is too crowded for me! Come to me that I may dwell here."
21. And you shall say in your heart, "Who bare these for me? For I was bereaved and barren, an exiled woman, one put away. But who reared these? Behold, I was left alone! These, where were they?"
22. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I will lift up my hand to the Gentiles and raise up my signal to the nations, and they will bring your sons in their bosom, and your daughters will be carried on their shoulder.
23. Kings will be your attendants, and their queens, your supporters. They will bow before you, face to the earth, and lick the dust of your feet. Then you shall know that I am Jehovah. Those who wait for me will not be disappointed!
24. Can prey be taken away from a mighty warrior, or a captive be rescued from a fierce man?"
25. For thus says Jehovah: The captive of the mighty warrior will indeed be taken, and the prey of the fearsome man will be rescued. For I will contend with him who contends with you, and I will rescue your children.
26. And I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh, and they will be drunk on their own blood as on sweet wine. And all flesh shall know that I am Jehovah, your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

Isaiah 50

- ¶1. Thus says Jehovah: Where is this certificate of divorce for your mother, with which I sent her away? Or who is it among my creditors to whom I sold you? Behold, by your iniquities have you sold yourselves, and by your transgressions was your mother sent away.

2. Why is it that I came, and there was no man, that I called, and there was no one to answer? Has my hand grown too short to redeem, or is there insufficient power in me to deliver? Behold, by my rebuke, I dry up a sea! I make rivers a desert, so that their fish stink because there is no water; they die of thirst.
 3. I clothe the heavens with darkness and make sackcloth their covering.
- ¶4. My Lord, Jehovah, has given me the tongue of the learned, that I might know how to help the weary with a word. He awakens, morning by morning, He awakens my ear to hear as the learned.
5. My Lord, Jehovah, opened my ear, and I did not rebel. I did not turn back.
 6. I gave my back to the strikers, and my cheeks to those who pulled out my beard. I did not hide my face from shame or spit.
 7. But my Lord, Jehovah, helps me. That is why I was not confounded. Therefore, I have set my face like a flint, and I know that I will not be put to shame.
 8. He who justifies me is close by. Who will contend with me? Let us appear together! Who is the accuser in my case? Let him come near me!
 9. Behold, my Lord, Jehovah, helps me. Who is he that will condemn me? Behold, they all, like a garment, will wax old; a moth will eat them.
 10. Who among you fears Jehovah, hearing the voice of His servant? When he walks in darkness and there is no light for him, he will trust in the name of Jehovah and lean upon his God.
 11. Behold, all of you who kindle a fire, surrounding yourselves with sparks! Walk by the flame of your fire and with the sparks that you ignite. But this you will have from my hand: you will lie down in a place of torment.

Isaiah 51

- ¶1. Hear me, you who pursue righteousness, who seek Jehovah! Look to the rock from which you have been hewn, and to the hole of the pit from which you were dug!
2. Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who bore you, for I called him alone, and I blessed him and multiplied him.
 3. For Jehovah will comfort Zion; He will comfort all her ruins and make her wilderness like Eden, and her dry plain like the garden of Jehovah. Joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of singing.
- ¶4. Listen to me, O my people! Give me your ear, O my nation! For a law will go forth from me, and my justice, as a light. I will give rest to the nations.
5. My righteousness will come near them, my salvation will go forth, and my arms will bring justice to the nations. The isles will yearn for me, and they will put their hope in my strength.
 6. Lift your eyes to the heavens, and behold the earth below! For the heavens will vanish like smoke, and the earth will wax old like a garment, and its inhabitants will likewise die, but my salvation will be forever, and my righteousness will not be destroyed.

- ¶7. Hear me, you who know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law! Do not fear the reproach of man and do not be dismayed at their revilings,
8. for the moth shall eat them like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool.
But my righteousness shall be forever, and my salvation to all generations.
9. Rouse yourself! Rouse yourself! Put on strength, O Arm of Jehovah! Rouse yourself as in days of old, in generations long past! Are you not the one who will hew the proud one into pieces and pierce the serpent through?
10. Are you not the one by whom the sea was dried up, waters of the great deep, who made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass through?
11. And the redeemed of Jehovah will return and enter into Zion with singing, and eternal joy on their heads. They will obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing will flee away.³⁴
- ¶12. I, even I, am He who gives you comfort! Who are you, that you should fear a man who dies or the son of man who is made like grass?
13. And you have forgotten Jehovah, your Maker, who spread out the heavens and laid the foundation of earth. But you are in continual dread, every day, of the wrath of the oppressor, when He is preparing to destroy him. So, where will the wrath of the oppressor be?
14. He who is stooped over will quickly be released; he will not die and go to the Pit, and he will not lack his bread.
15. I am Jehovah your God, who troubles the sea so that its waves roar. Jehovah of Hosts is His name.
16. I put my words in your mouth (but covered you in the shadow of my hand), to plant the heavens, and to lay the foundation of the earth, and to say to Zion, “You are my people.”
17. Wake yourself! Wake yourself! Arise, O Jerusalem, who have drunk from the hand of Jehovah the cup of His wrath, who have drunk the dregs³⁵ of the cup of staggering, and drained it.
18. Of all the sons she has begotten, there is not one to lead her; there is not one of all the sons she has brought up who will take her by the hand.
19. These two things have befallen you—who will mourn for you?—devastation and destruction and famine and sword. By whom will I comfort you?
20. Your children are entangled; they lie at the head of all the streets like an antelope in a net. They are full of wrath from Jehovah, the rebuke of your God.
21. Therefore, hear this now, you who are afflicted and drunk, but not from wine!

³⁴ This verse is identical to 35:10.

³⁵ Hebrew uncertain.

- ¶22. Thus says your Lord, Jehovah, and your God, who pleads the cause of His people: “Behold, I have taken from your hand the cup of staggering, the dregs³⁶ of the cup of my wrath. You will never drink it again.
23. But I will put it in the hand of your tormentors who said to your soul, ‘Bow down that we may walk over you!’ And you have made your back like the ground, like the street, for them to walk over.”

Isaiah 52

- ¶1. Awake! Awake! Put on your strength, O Zion! Put on your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city, for no longer will the uncircumcised or the unclean enter into you.
2. Shake off the dust! Arise, O captive Jerusalem! Loose the bonds from your neck, O captive daughter of Zion!
- ¶3. For thus says Jehovah: “ You were sold for nothing, and you will be redeemed without money.”
4. For thus says my Lord, Jehovah: “ At the first, my people went down to Egypt to sojourn there, and then Assyria oppressed them, for nothing.
5. Now, therefore, who is mine here? says Jehovah. For my people were taken away with no remuneration. They that rule over them howl, says Jehovah, and everyday my name is continually blasphemed.
6. Therefore, my people will know my name. Therefore, in that day, they will know that I am He who is speaking. Behold, it is I.”
7. How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who proclaims peace, who brings tidings of good, who proclaims salvation, saying to Zion, “Your God reigns!”
8. The voice of your watchmen! They lift up their voice! They cry out as one, for they will see eye to eye when Jehovah comes back to Zion.
9. Break forth, shout joyfully together, O you ruins of Jerusalem! For Jehovah has comforted His people; He has redeemed Jerusalem.
10. Jehovah has bared His holy arm before the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.
11. Leave! Leave! Come out of there! Don’t touch the unclean thing! Come out from her midst; purify yourselves, you who bear the vessels of Jehovah.
12. For you will not go out in haste, nor will you go in flight, for Jehovah is going before you, and the God of Israel will be your rearguard.
13. Behold, my servant will act prudently. He will be exalted and lifted up; yea, he will be very high.

³⁶ Hebrew uncertain.

14. Many shall be aghast at you. So great shall be the disfigurement of his visage that it will be beyond human, and his form, beyond the sons of men.
15. By this, he shall sprinkle many nations. Kings shall shut their mouths at him, for that which had not been told them, they will see, and that which they had not heard, they shall understand.

Isaiah 53

1. Who has believed our report? And to whom is the arm of Jehovah revealed?
2. For he shall grow up before Him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground. He will have no form or majesty, and when we see him, there will be no beauty that we should desire him.
3. He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief.³⁷ He was like one hiding his face from us. He was despised, and we did not value him.
4. He took our sicknesses and bore our sufferings, yet we considered him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted.
5. But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; chastisement for our peace was laid upon him; and by his wounds, we are healed.
6. We all, like sheep, have gone astray; every one of us has turned to his own way, and Jehovah laid upon him the iniquity of us all.
7. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth. He was brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth.
8. He was taken from prison and from justice, and who will speak of his generation? He was cut off from the land of the living; for the transgression of my people was he stricken.
9. He made his grave with the wicked and with the rich in his death, although he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.
10. Yet it pleased Jehovah to crush him; He has put him to grief. When his life is given³⁸ as an offering for sin, he shall see his generation. He shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of Jehovah shall prosper in his hand.
11. He will see the travail of his soul and be satisfied. By his knowledge, my righteous servant shall justify many, for he will bear their iniquities.
12. Therefore will I divide to him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong because he exposed his soul to death and was numbered with transgressors. Yet, he bore the sins of many and made intercession for the transgressors.

Isaiah 54

³⁷ Or, “with sickness”.

³⁸ Or, “When he makes . . .”

- ¶1. Sing, O barren woman who did not bear! Break out in song, and shout, you who have not travailed! For the children of the barren woman are more than the children of the married woman, says Jehovah.
2. Enlarge the place of your tent, and let the curtains of your habitations be stretched! Do not hold back! Lengthen your ropes and strengthen your stakes!
3. For you will break out to the right and to the left, and your seed will possess the nations and populate abandoned cities.
4. Do not be afraid, for you will not be ashamed, nor will you be humiliated. You will not be disgraced! On the contrary, you will forget the shame of your youth, and the reproach of your estrangement will you remember no more.
5. For your Maker is your Husband. His name is Jehovah of Hosts, even your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel! He will be called God of the whole earth.
6. For Jehovah called you when you were a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, even a young wife when she is rejected, says your God.
7. For a brief moment, I forsook you, but in great compassion will I gather you.
8. In a wave of rage, I hid my face from you for a moment, but in eternal lovingkindness will I have compassion on you, says your Redeemer, Jehovah.
9. For this is as the waters of Noah to me, concerning which I swore, "The waters of Noah will never again overflow the earth." Likewise have I sworn that I will be angry no more with you, nor rebuke you.
10. For the mountains may depart, and the hills may be shaken, but my lovingkindness will not depart from you, and my covenant of peace will not be shaken, says Jehovah, the One who pities you.
11. O afflicted, stormed-tossed, and uncomforted soul! Behold! I am about to set your stones in antimony and lay your foundation with sapphires.
12. And I will make your battlements of rubies, and your gates of sparkling stones, and your entire wall of beautiful stones.
13. And all your children will be taught by Jehovah, and the peace of your children will be great.
14. By righteousness will you be restored. Keep far from oppression, that you be not afraid, and from extortion, that it come not near you.
15. Behold, he will surely quarrel, but not with me. Whoever quarrels with you will fall because of you.
16. Behold, I created the craftsman who blows on fiery coals and produces a weapon for its work, and I created the Destroyer to destroy.
17. No weapon formed against you shall prosper, and every tongue that rises against you in judgment, you shall condemn. This is the inheritance of the servants of Jehovah, and their righteousness is from me, says Jehovah.

- ¶1. Ho! Every one who is thirsty, come to the water! And he who has no money, come! Buy and eat! Yea, come! Buy wine and milk without money, and without price.
2. Why do you spend money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen closely to me and eat that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.
 3. Incline your ear and come to me! Hear, and your soul will live! And I will make an eternal covenant with you, the sure mercies of David.
 4. Behold, I have appointed him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples.
 5. Behold, you will call a nation that you do not know, and nations that do not know you will run to you because of Jehovah your God, the Holy One of Israel, for He has honored you.
- ¶6. Seek Jehovah while He may be found; call upon Him while He is near.
7. Let the evil man forsake his way, and the wicked man, his thoughts, and return to Jehovah, and He will have mercy on him, even to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.
 8. "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, and your ways are not my ways," says Jehovah.
 9. "As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts."
 10. For just as the rain and snow come down from heaven and do not return there until they have made the land to drink, and make it bring forth and sprout, so that it yields seed for the sower, and bread for the eater,
 11. so is my word that goes out from my mouth. It shall not return to me empty, but will accomplish that which pleases me, and succeed in that for which I sent it.
 12. For you will come out with joy and be led forth in peace; the mountains and the hills will burst out before you into singing, and all the trees of the field will clap their hands.
 13. Instead of the thorn-bush will come up the cypress; instead of the nettle³⁹ will come up the myrtle. And it will be for Jehovah's acclaim, an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Isaiah 56

- ¶1. Thus says Jehovah: Keep judgment and do righteousness, for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness is to be revealed.
2. Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who holds fast to it, who keeps from profaning the Sabbath and keeps his hand from doing any evil.

³⁹ Hebrew uncertain.

3. And let not the son of the foreigner who has joined himself to Jehovah speak, saying, "Jehovah has utterly separated me from His people." Nor let the eunuch say, "Behold, I am a dry tree."
4. For thus says Jehovah to the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, and choose what pleases me, and hold fast my covenant:
5. In my house and within my walls, I will surely give them authority and a name better than sons and daughters. I will give them an everlasting name that will not be cut off.
- ¶6. And as for the children of the foreigner who join themselves to Jehovah, to minister to Him and to love the name of Jehovah, and to be His servants, every one who keeps His Sabbath rather than profane it, and who holds fast my covenant,
7. them will I also bring to my holy mountain, and I will make them joyful in my house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be acceptable on my altar, for my house will be called a house of prayer for all peoples.
8. The Lord, Jehovah, Gatherer of the outcasts of Israel, says, "I will gather more to him than those already gathered to him."
9. All His beasts of the field shall come to eat, and all His beasts of the forest.
10. Blind men are watching, all of them. They do not know. They all are dumb dogs; they cannot bark, dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber.
11. And the dogs have a mighty appetite; they never have enough. Yea, they are shepherds who have no understanding. They all have turned to their own way, each man, to his ill-gotten gain, to the very last one.
12. "Come," they say, "let me take wine, and let's drink strong drink. And tomorrow will be like today, and much more abundant."

Isaiah 57

- ¶1. The righteous man perishes, and no one takes it to heart; good men are gathered to their fathers without anyone understanding that the righteous man is taken away from the presence of evil.
2. He shall enter into peace. They shall rest upon their beds, who walks in his uprightness.
3. Come near, you sons of a witch, you seed of an adulterer and a whore!
4. Against whom do you so lightly speak? Against whom do you open your mouth wide and stick out your tongue? Are you not the children of transgression and the seed of deceit,
5. inflaming yourselves among the terebinths, beneath every luxuriant tree, slaughtering children in the valleys under the clefts of rocks,
6. among smooth stones of the valleys. They will be your portion! They will be your lot, inasmuch as you have poured out a libation to them and offered a grain offering. Am I not grieved at these things?
7. On a high and lofty hill, you made your bed; you went up there to offer sacrifice.

8. And by the door and the doorpost, you put your symbol. Yea, you exposed yourself to others besides me and went up, widened your bed, and made your covenant with them. You loved their bed. You saw a vision of power.
 9. And with the oil, you journeyed for Molech,⁴⁰ and you multiplied your incenses, and you sent your missionaries to distant places, and you brought men down to Sheol.
 10. You wore yourself out with the length of your journey. You would not admit it was useless. You had found your powerful beast; that is why you did not feel weak.
 11. Whom do you dread or fear, that you dissembled and did not remember me? You did not take it to heart! Have I not restrained myself from ancient time, and yet, you will not honor me?
 12. I myself will expose your righteousness and your works, and they will not profit you.
 13. When you cry out, let your mass of idols deliver you! Yet, a wind will carry them all away; a breath will take them. But he who takes refuge in me shall inherit the earth and possess my holy mountain.
 14. Then He said to them, “Build it up! Build it up! Prepare the way! Remove the stumbling-block out of the way of my people!”
- ¶15. Thus says the high and exalted One who inhabits eternity, whose name is holy: I dwell in a high and holy place and with the humbled and lowly in spirit, to revive the spirits of the lowly and to revive the hearts of the oppressed.
16. For I will not contend forever, nor will I be angry forever, for the spirit before me would faint away, and the souls that I have made.
 17. Because of the iniquity of his unjust gain, I was angry, and I struck him. I hid myself and was angry, but he went on rebelling in the way of his own heart.
 18. I have seen his ways, and I will heal him. And I will lead him and restore comforts to him and to those who mourn for him,
 19. creating the fruit of his lips. Peace! Peace both far and near, says Jehovah, for I will surely heal him!
 20. But the wicked are like the tossing sea that cannot rest, and whose waters churn up muck and mire.
 21. There is no peace, says my God, to the wicked.

Isaiah 58

- ¶1. Cry aloud! Do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a shofar and show my people their transgression and the house of Jacob their sins!
2. Yet, they seek me daily, and delight in knowing my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and did not forsake the judgment of their God. They ask me for righteous judgments; they delight in approaching God.

⁴⁰ Or “the king”.

3. "Why have we fasted, and you take no notice? We have afflicted our souls, but you do not acknowledge it!" "Behold, in the day of your fast, you find pleasure and drive on all your laborers.
4. Behold, you fast for strife and contention and to beat down with a fist of wickedness. You shall not fast as you do today to make your voice heard on high.
5. Is this the kind of fast I have chosen, a day for a man to afflict his soul, for him to bow down his head like a bulrush and spread out sackcloth and ashes? Do you call this a fast, and an acceptable day to Jehovah?
6. Is this not the fast that I have chosen? to undo the bonds of wickedness, to loosen the thongs of the yoke, and to let the oppressed go free, and that you remove every yoke?
7. Is it not to break your bread to the hungry, that you bring the homeless poor into your house, that when you see the naked, you cover him, and that you do not hide yourself from your own kindred?
8. Then shall your light break forth as the dawn, and your healing shall spring forth quickly, and your righteousness shall go before you, and the glory of Jehovah shall be your rearguard.
9. Then you shall call and Jehovah will answer. You shall cry for help, and He will say, 'Here I am!' If you put away from the midst of you the yoke, the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness;
10. yea, if you provide freely for the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul, then shall your light rise in darkness, and your darkness shall be as the noon.
11. And Jehovah will always guide you, and satisfy your soul in dry places, and strengthen your whole being, and you shall be like a watered garden and like a spring of water whose waters do not fail.
12. And those who are from you will rebuild the old, wasted places. You shall raise up foundations for many generations, and He shall call you, 'Repairer of the breach', and 'Restorer of paths to dwell in'.
13. If you refrain your foot on the Sabbath from taking care of your own affairs on my holy day, and if you call the Sabbath a delight, holy to Jehovah, honorable, and honor it by not pursuing your own ways, nor choosing your own will, nor saying anything of yourself,
14. then, you shall delight yourself in Jehovah, and I will cause you to ride upon the high places of earth, and I will feed you the portion of Jacob your father, for the mouth of Jehovah has spoken."

Isaiah 59

- ¶1. Behold, the hand of Jehovah is not too short to save, nor His ear too dull to hear.
2. Rather, your iniquities have made a separation between you and your God, and your sins have hidden His face from you, so that He will not hear.
3. Yea, your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity. Your lips speak falsehood; your tongue utters injustice.

4. There is no one calling out for justice, and no one is judged honestly. They trust in emptiness and speak vanity. They conceive mischief and give birth to wickedness.
5. They cut open viper's eggs; they weave spider's webs. He who eats their eggs dies, for what is crushed breaks out as a viper.
6. Their webs are not for clothing; yea, they do not cover themselves with their works. Their works are works of iniquity, and a work of violence is in their hands.
7. Their feet run to evil, and they hasten to shed innocent blood. Their thoughts are wicked thoughts. Devastation and destruction are in their highways.
8. The way of peace, they do not know, and there is no justice in their paths. They have made crooked pathways for themselves. No one who walks therein knows peace.
9. Therefore, justice is far from us, and righteousness has not overtaken us. We wait for light, and behold, darkness; instead of brightness, we walk in gloom.
10. We grope like blind men for a wall; yea, we grope like those who have no eyes. We stumble at noonday as at twilight. Among the stout, we are like dead men.
11. We growl like bears, all of us, and like doves, we moan mournfully. We wait for justice, but there is none, for salvation, but it is far from us.
12. For our transgressions are many before you, and our sins testify against us, for our transgressions are with us, and we know our iniquities:
13. transgressing and denying Jehovah, and backsliding from following after our God, speaking oppression and apostasy, conceiving and uttering from the heart lying words.
14. Moreover, justice is turned away, and righteousness stands afar off. Yea, truth has fallen in the public place, and uprightness cannot enter.
15. Yea, the truth is gone, and he who turns from evil makes himself a prey. And Jehovah has seen it, and it is evil in His eyes that there is no justice.
16. And when He saw that there was no man, He was appalled that there was no intercessor. And so, His own arm brought him salvation, and His righteousness, it upheld him.
17. Then will he put on righteousness like a breastplate, with a helmet of salvation on his head. And for clothes, he will put on garments of vengeance and wrap himself in zeal like a robe.
18. He will repay them according to their deeds: wrath to his adversaries, retribution to his enemies. He will render retribution to the isles.
19. From the west, they will fear the name of Jehovah, and from the rising of the sun, they will fear His glory. For he will come like a rushing river, the Spirit of God driving him on.
20. And the Redeemer will come to Zion, even to those in Jacob who repent of their transgression, says Jehovah.
21. As for me, this will be my covenant with them, says Jehovah: my Spirit that is upon you, and my words that I put in your mouth, will not depart from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your children, nor from the mouth of your children's children, says Jehovah, from that time, and forever.

Isaiah 60

- ¶1. Arise! Shine! For your light has come, and the glory of Jehovah has risen upon you!
- 2. For behold, darkness may cover the earth, and thick darkness the nations, but upon you will Jehovah rise, and His glory will be seen over you.
- 3. And nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.
- 4. Lift up your eyes and look around! All of them have been gathered. They are coming to you. Your sons are coming from far away, and your daughters will be borne on the hip.
- 5. Then you will see, and you will beam, and your heart will be in awe and swell because the multitude of the sea will be changed toward you, and the wealth of the Gentiles will come to you.
- 6. A multitude of camels will cover you, camels of Midian and Ephah. All those of Sheba will come, carrying gold and incense, proclaiming the praises of God.
- 7. All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered to you; the rams of Nebaioth will be at your service. They will be offered up with favor on my altar, and I will magnify the house of my glory.
- 8. Who are these, flying like a cloud, and like doves to their dovecotes.
- 9. Surely, the isles will gather them for me, with ships of Tarshish in the lead, to bring your children from afar, their silver and gold with them, to the Name of Jehovah your God, even to the Holy One of Israel, because He will have honored you.
- 10. And sons of the foreigner will build your wall, and their kings will serve you, for in my wrath, I struck you down, but in my favor, I have had mercy on you.
- 11. Your gates will always be open; they will not be closed day or night so that the wealth of the Gentiles may come in to you, their kings led in procession.
- 12. For the nation or kingdom that does not serve you will perish; those nations will be utterly laid waste.
- 13. The glory of Lebanon will come to you, the cypress, the plane-tree, and the box tree together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary, and I will glorify the place of my feet.
- 14. And the children of those who are afflicting you will come to you bending low, and all who despise you will bow at the soles of your feet, and they will call you, "The City of Jehovah, Zion of the Holy One of Israel".
- 15. Instead of you being forsaken and hated, with no one passing through, I will make you an everlasting excellency, a joy from generation to generation.
- 16. You will suck the milk of the Gentiles and suck the breasts of kings, and you shall know that I, Jehovah, am your Savior, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.
- 17. Instead of brass, I will bring gold; and instead of iron, I will bring silver; and instead of wood, brass; and instead of stones, iron. And I will make peace your overseer, and righteousness your taskmaster.
- 18. Violence will no longer be heard in your land, nor devastation and destruction within your borders, and you will call your walls "Salvation" and your gates "Praise".

19. The sun will no longer be for your light by day, nor will the brightness of the moon be for your light, but Jehovah will be your light forever, and your God will be your glory.
20. Your sun will never go down, and your moon will not wane, for Jehovah will forever be your light, and your days of mourning will be over.
21. And all your people will be righteous; they will possess the land forever, the plant of his planting, the work of my hands, that I might glorify myself.
22. The least one will become like a thousand, and the insignificant one, like a mighty nation. I, Jehovah, will hasten it in its time.

Isaiah 61

- ¶1. The Spirit of the Lord, Jehovah, is upon me, for Jehovah has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to declare liberty⁴¹ to those held captive and freedom to those in prison,
2. to proclaim the year of Jehovah's favor and the day of our God's vengeance, to comfort all who mourn,
3. to provide for those mourning in Zion—to give them beauty instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, a mantle of praise instead of a weary spirit—that they might be called, “trees of righteousness, the planting of Jehovah”, that He might be glorified.
4. And they will build again the ancient ruins; they will raise up places laid waste of old; they will repair desolate cities that have lain waste for many generations.
5. And strangers will stand and tend your flocks, and the children of foreigners will be your plowmen and your vinedressers,
6. but you will be called priests of Jehovah; you will be addressed as “ministers of our God”. You will consume the wealth of the Gentiles and boast in their riches.
7. Because your shame has been double, and humiliation was decreed their lot, they will possess double in their land. Everlasting joy will be theirs.
8. For I, Jehovah, love justice; I hate robbery and injustice. And I will give them a true recompense, and I will make an eternal covenant with them,
9. and their seed will be of repute among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the nations; all who see them will acknowledge them, that they are the seed that Jehovah has blessed.
10. I will greatly rejoice in Jehovah! My soul shall rejoice in my God, for He has clothed me with garments of salvation; with a robe of righteousness has He covered me, the way a bridegroom dons a splendid headdress, or a bride puts on her adornments.
11. For as the earth brings forth its shoot, and as a garden causes its seed to sprout, so will the Lord, Jehovah, cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the Gentiles.

Isaiah 62

⁴¹ That is, as in the year of Jubilee. See Leviticus 25:10.

- ¶1. For Zion's sake, I will not be silent, and for Jerusalem's sake, I will not be still until her righteousness goes forth like brightness, and her salvation like a flaming torch.
2. And the Gentiles shall see your righteousness, and all kings, your glory. And you shall be called by a new name, which the mouth of Jehovah shall give.
3. And you shall be a beautiful crown in the hand of Jehovah, and a royal diadem in the palm of your God.
4. You will no longer be thought of as forsaken, and your land will no longer be considered a desolation, but you will be called Hephzi-bah,⁴² and your land, Beulah.⁴³ For Jehovah delights in you, and your land will be married.
5. For as a young man marries a virgin, your sons shall marry you, and like the rejoicing of a bridegroom with a bride shall your God rejoice over you.
6. Upon your walls, O Jerusalem, I have appointed watchmen. They will never be silent, all day and all night. There is no rest for you who are making Jehovah remember!
7. Yea, give Him no rest until He accomplishes it and makes Jerusalem the praise of the earth.
8. Jehovah has sworn by His right hand and by His mighty arm, I will damn myself if I again give your grain as food for your enemies, or if sons of a stranger drink your new wine for which you have toiled.
9. But those who gather it will eat it, and will praise Jehovah. And those who collect it will drink it in the courts of my holiness.
- ¶10. Pass through, pass through the gates! Prepare the way of the people! Build up, build up the highway! Clear away the stone! Let them lift up as a banner for the nations!
11. Behold, Jehovah has declared to the ends of the earth, "Say to the daughter of Zion, 'Behold! Your salvation is coming! Behold! His reward is with him, and his recompense before him.'
12. And they shall call them "the holy people, redeemed of Jehovah", and you will be called "Wanted", a city not forsaken.

Isaiah 63

- ¶1. "Who is this coming from Edom, from Bozrah in red-stained garments, this man glorious in his apparel, marching in his mighty strength?" "It is I, who speaks in righteousness, mighty to save!"
2. "How is it that there is red on your apparel, like a treader in a winepress?"
3. "I have trodden the winepress alone, and from the nations, no man was with me. I trod them down in my anger and trampled them in my rage; their lifeblood spattered on my garments, and all my raiment was sullied."
4. For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and the year of my redeemed ones had come."

⁴² Literally, "My delight is in her."

⁴³ Literally, "married".

5. I looked, but there was no helper, and I was astonished that there was no one to support me; so, my own arm brought me victory, and my anger, it supported me.
6. I trampled down the nations in my anger; I made them drunk with my rage, and I brought down their lifeblood to the earth.
7. I will make known the mercies of Jehovah, the praises of Jehovah, because of all that Jehovah has bestowed upon us, and the great goodness to the house of Israel which He has bestowed upon them, according to His compassions and according to His abundant mercies.
8. For He said, “Surely, they are my people, children who do not lie. And so, he will be their Savior.”
9. In all their affliction, He was afflicted, and the angel of His presence saved them. In His love and in His pity, He redeemed them, and lifted them up, and carried them all the days of old,
10. but they rebelled and grieved His holy Spirit, and He was turned to be their enemy. He, Himself, fought against them.
11. Then His people remembered days of old and Moses. Where is the One who brought them up from the sea with shepherds for His flock? Where is the One who put His holy Spirit in their midst,
12. leading them by the right hand of Moses, His glorious arm, dividing the waters before them to win for Himself lasting fame,
13. leading them into the depths? Like a horse in the desert, they did not stumble.
14. As the cattle go down into the valley, the Spirit of Jehovah gave them rest. Thus did you guide your people, making for yourself a glorious name.
15. Look down from heaven, and see from your holy and your glorious, lofty abode! Where are your jealousy and your strength? The yearning of your heart and your compassion toward me are restrained.
16. But you are our Father, though Abraham did not know us and Israel was not acquainted with us. You, Jehovah, are our Father; from ancient times, our Redeemer is your name.
17. Why have you caused us to err from your ways, O Jehovah? You have hardened our hearts to your fear. Return for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your inheritance!
18. Your holy people possessed it for just a little while; our adversaries trampled down your sanctuary.
19. We are become like those over whom you have never ruled, those who are not called by your name.

Isaiah 64

- ¶1. Oh, that you would tear heaven open, that you would come down, that the mountains would quake at your presence—

2. as fire ignites brushwood, and as fire makes water boil—to make your Name known to your adversaries, that the nations might tremble at your presence!
3. Then you did astonishing things we did not expect! You did come down, and the mountains did quake at your presence!
4. From the beginning of time, no one has heard, no ear has perceived, nor eye seen, O God, but you, what He will do for him who earnestly looks for Him.
5. You greet him who rejoices and works righteousness; they will remember you in your ways. Behold, you were angry, for we perpetually sinned against them, and yet we will be saved!
6. Yea, we are all like an unclean thing, and all our forms of righteousness are like filthy rags. We all fall like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, carry us away.
7. There has been no one calling on your name or stirring himself up to take hold of you because you hid your face from us and melted us in the hand of our iniquities.
8. But now, O LORD, you are our Father. We are the clay, and you are our Potter; we are all the work of your hand.
9. Do not, O Jehovah, be very angry, and do not remember iniquity forever. Behold, I pray you, look upon your people, all of us!
10. Your holy cities are a wilderness; Zion is a wilderness; Jerusalem has become a desolate place.
11. Our holy and beautiful temple, where our fathers offered you praise, has been given to consuming fire, and all our desirable things are in ruins.
12. After all these things, O Jehovah, why do you restrain yourself? You remain silent while you greatly afflict us.

Isaiah 65

- ¶1. I let myself be sought by those who did not ask for me; I let myself be found by those who did not seek me. I said, “Here I am! Here I am!” to a nation that was not called by my name.
2. I have spread out my hands all the day to a rebellious people who walk in the way that is not good, following their own devices,
3. the people who are continually provoking me to anger to my face, sacrificing in the gardens and burning incense upon the bricks,
4. who sit among the graves and spend the night in the secret places, who eat the flesh of a pig and a broth of unclean things in their vessels,
5. who say, “Keep to yourself! Do not come near me because I am holier than you.” These are smoke in my nostrils, a fire that burns all the day.
6. Behold! It is written before me. I will not be silent. I swear, I will repay! Yea, I will repay it into their own bosom,
7. your iniquities and the iniquities of your fathers together, says Jehovah. Because they burned incense upon the mountains and brought a reproach on me upon the hills; into their own bosom will I mete out their recompense first.

8. Thus says Jehovah: "Just as new wine is obtained from a cluster, and one says, 'Don't destroy it, for there is good in it,' so will I do for the sake of my servants, lest he destroy them all.
 9. And I will send forth a Seed from Jacob, even an Inheritor of my mountains from Judah, and my chosen ones will inherit it, and my servants will dwell there.
 10. And Sharon will be a habitation for flocks, and the Valley of Achor, a resting-place for cattle, for my people who have sought me.
 11. But you who forsake Jehovah, who forget my holy mountain, who arrange a table for Fortune and who fill cups of mixed wine for Destiny,
 12. I will destine you to the sword, and you will all bow down to the slaughter because I called and you would not answer, I spoke and you would not hear, but you did what was evil in my eyes and you chose that in which I was not pleased.
- ¶13. "Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, my servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry. Behold, my servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty. Behold, my servants shall rejoice, but you shall be ashamed.
14. Behold, my servants shall sing for gladness of heart, but you shall cry out for anguish of heart and shall wail with a broken spirit.
 15. You shall leave your name as a curse to my chosen ones, and my Lord, Jehovah, will put you to death and call His servants by another name.
 16. Whoever blesses himself in the earth will bless himself by the God of truth, and he who swears in the earth will swear by the God of truth, for the former troubles will be forgotten, and will be hidden from my eyes.
 17. For behold, I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be remembered nor come to mind.
 18. Nevertheless, be glad and rejoice forever for what I am creating, for behold, I am creating Jerusalem a joy, and her people a delight.
 19. And I will rejoice in Jerusalem and delight in my people, and no one will ever hear in her a sound of mourning or a sound of crying.
 20. And there will no longer be an infant there that lives but a few days or an old man who does not fulfill his days. If the young man, even the sinner, dies at a hundred years old, he will have been cursed at a hundred years old.
 21. They will build houses and live in them, and they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
 22. They will not build and another dwell; they will not plant and another eat. For as the days of a tree will be the days of my people, and my chosen will enjoy the work of their hands.
 23. They will not labor for nothing, and they will not give birth for trouble, for they are the seed blessed of Jehovah, and their offspring with them.
 24. And it shall come to pass that before they cry out, I will answer. While they are yet speaking, I will hear.

25. The wolf and the lamb will feed together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox, and dust will be the serpent's food. They will neither do harm nor destroy in all my holy mountain, says Jehovah."

Isaiah 66

- ¶1. "Thus says Jehovah: Heaven is my throne, and the earth, my footstool. Where is this house that you would build for me? And where is this resting-place for me?
2. All these things my hand made, and all these things already existed, says Jehovah. But I will have regard to this man, to him who is humble and smitten in spirit, and who trembles at my word.
3. Slaughtering one of the herd will be like killing a man; sacrificing one of the flock, like breaking a dog's neck; offering up a gift, like offering up blood from a pig; burning incense, like blessing an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul takes pleasure in their abominations.
4. Therefore, I will choose their delusions and bring their fears upon them because when I called, no one answered; when I spoke, they would not hear. But they did evil before my eyes, and chose that in which I take no pleasure.
- ¶5. Hear the word of Jehovah, you who tremble at His word: "Your brothers who hate you and cast you out for my name's sake said, 'Let Jehovah be glorified! 'but He shall appear to your joy, and they will be ashamed."
6. A sound of uproar from the city! A sound from the temple! The sound of Jehovah rendering recompense to His enemies.
7. Before she travailed, she gave birth. Before she was in pain, she gave birth to a man.
8. Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such things? Shall the earth be born in one day? Shall a nation be born at once? For even as she travailed, Zion gave birth to her children.
9. "Would I bring to the birth and not bring forth?" says Jehovah. "Or would I who brings forth hold back?" says your God.
- ¶10. Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all you who love her! Greatly rejoice with her, all you who mourn over her,
11. so that you may nurse and be satisfied at her comforting breast, so that you may milk out and take great delight from her bountiful bosom.
12. For thus says Jehovah: "Watch me! I will pour forth prosperity to her like a river, and the abundance of the Gentiles like an overflowing stream. And you will nurse, you will be borne on the hip, and you will be dandled on knees.
13. As one whom his mother comforts, so will I comfort you, and you will be comforted in Jerusalem.

14. And you will see, and your heart will rejoice, and your whole being will flourish like the grass. And it will be known that the hand of Jehovah is upon His servants and His indignation is upon His enemies.
15. For behold, Jehovah will come in fire, and His chariots like a violent, rushing wind, and He will requite them in the fury of His wrath, and His rebuke will be with flames of fire.
16. For by fire and by His sword will Jehovah contend with all flesh, and the slain of Jehovah will be many.
17. Those who sanctify and purify themselves to enter the gardens, following one in the center, eating the flesh of pigs, and detestable things, and mice will come to an end together, says Jehovah.
18. For I know their works and their thoughts. The time is coming when I will gather all nations and tongues, and they will come and see my glory,
19. and I will set a sign among them, and I will send some of the survivors to the nations, Tarshish, Pul, and Lud (who draw the bow), Tubal and Javan, the distant coasts that have not heard the news about me and who did not see my glory, and they will proclaim my glory among the Gentiles.
20. And they will bring all your brothers from all the nations as a grain offering to Jehovah, on horses, and by chariots, and in wagons, and on mules, and on camels to my holy mountain, Jerusalem, says Jehovah, the way children of Israel take their grain offering in clean vessels to the house of Jehovah.
21. And I will also take some of them for priests and for Levites, says Jehovah.
22. For as the new heavens and the new earth which I have created will endure before me, says Jehovah, so will your seed and your name endure.
23. And it shall come to pass that from one new moon to the next, and from one Sabbath to the next, all flesh will come to worship before me, says Jehovah.
24. And they will go out and look at the dead bodies of men who rebelled against me, for their worm will not die and their fire will not be quenched, and they will be an abhorrence to all flesh.

Jeremiah

Jeremiah 1

- ¶1. The words of Jeremiah ben-Hilkiah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin,
2. to whom the word of Jehovah came in the days of Josiah ben-Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.
3. It came also in the days of Jehoiakim ben-Josiah, king of Judah, until the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah ben-Josiah, king of Judah, until the exile of Jerusalem in the fifth month.
- ¶4. And the word of Jehovah came to me saying,
5. "Before I formed you in the belly, I knew you, and before you came out of the womb, I sanctified you. I ordained you to be a prophet to the nations."
6. Then I said, "Oh no, Lord Jehovah! Behold, I don't know how to speak because I am a child."
7. But Jehovah said to me, "Do not say, 'I am a child', for you will go to whomever I send you, and you will say whatever I command you."
8. Do not be afraid of their faces, for I am with you to deliver you, says Jehovah."
9. Then Jehovah stretched out his hand and touched my mouth. And Jehovah said to me, "Behold, I have put my words in your mouth!"
10. See, I have this day set you over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up, to pull down, to destroy, to overthrow, and to build and to plant."
- ¶11. And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" And I said, "I see an almond branch."
12. And Jehovah said to me, "You see rightly, for I am watching¹ over my word, to do it."
- ¶13. And the word of Jehovah came to me a second time, saying, "What do you see now?" And I said, "I see a boiling pot, and its face is toward the north."
14. And Jehovah said to me, "From the north will evil be unleashed upon all the inhabitants of the land.
15. For, behold, I am calling all the families of the kingdoms northward, says Jehovah, and they will come and will each place his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and on all her walls round about, and in all the cities of Judah.
16. Yea, I have spoken my judgments against them because of all their evil, they who have forsaken me, and burned incense to other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

¹ This is a play on words. The Hebrew words for "almond" (v. 11) and "watching" are similar.

17. Now, you gird up your loins, and arise, and speak to them all that I command you. Do not be dismayed by their faces, lest I make you dismayed before their faces!
18. And I, behold, I have made you this day like a fortified city, and like a pillar of iron, and like bronze walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against its princes, against its priests, and against the people of the land.
19. And they will make war against you, but they will not prevail against you because I am with you, says Jehovah, to deliver you.”

Jeremiah 2

- ¶1. And the word of Jehovah came to me saying,
2. “Go, and proclaim in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, thus says Jehovah: ‘I remember you, the goodness in your youth, the love of your vows, how you followed me in the wilderness, in a land that had not been sown.
3. Israel is holy to Jehovah, the firstfruits of His harvest. All who consume him become guilty; evil shall come upon them, says Jehovah.
- ¶4. “Hear the word of Jehovah, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel!
5. Thus says Jehovah: What injustice did your fathers find in me, that they went far away from me, and followed after vanity, and became vain?
6. And they did not say, ‘Where is Jehovah, who brought us up out of the land of Egypt and led us in the wilderness, in a land of plains and pits, in a land of drought and the shadow of death, in a land through which no one has passed, and no man dwelt there?’
7. But I brought you to this fruitful land, that you might eat of its fruit and its goodness. But you went in and defiled my land. Yea, you made my inheritance an abomination.
8. The priests did not say, ‘Where is Jehovah?’ And those who handle the law did not know me, and the shepherds rebelled against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and so, they went after things that do not profit.
9. Therefore, I will yet strive with you, says Jehovah, and with your sons’ sons will I strive.
10. For cross over the coasts of Chittim and see, or send to Kedar and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing as this.
11. Has a nation ever changed gods? And they are no gods! But my people have changed their glory for that which will not profit.
12. Be appalled at this, O heavens! Yea, be horrified! Be utterly desolate, says Jehovah!
13. For my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living water, to hew out for themselves cisterns, broken cisterns which cannot hold water.
14. Is Israel a slave or a home-born servant? Why then has he become plunder?
15. Lions roared at him; they gave forth their voice and made his land desolate; his cities are fallen into ruin, without inhabitant.
16. Even the children of Noph and Tahpanes have shaved the crown of your head.

17. Did you not bring this on yourself by forsaking Jehovah your God as He led you in the way?
18. So, now, what have you gained in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Shihor? And what have you gained in the way to Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?²
19. Your own wickedness is chastening you, and your apostasies are reproving you. But know and see that your forsaking Jehovah your God is evil and bitter, and fear of me is not in you, says the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts.
20. For long ago, I broke your yoke. I tore off your bonds, but you say, ‘I am not transgressing,’ while on every high hill and under every luxuriant tree, you bend down, playing the harlot!
21. Yet, I planted you a choice vine, altogether a pure seed. So, how were you transformed into degenerate branches of a foreign vine to me?
22. Even if you wash with natron and use much lye, the stain of your iniquity remains before me, says the Lord, Jehovah.
23. How can you say, ‘I am not defiled. I am not following after Baals’? Look at your way in the valley! Acknowledge what you have done! You are a swift young camel criss-crossing her own ways.
24. A wild ass used to the wilderness, she snuffs up the wind in her nature-driven lust, in her heat. Who can restrain her? None who look for her will weary themselves; in her month, they will find her.
25. Let not your foot be unshod or your throat parched! But you said, ‘It is hopeless! No, for I love foreign gods, and after them will I go.’
26. Like a thief who is disgraced when he is found out, so will the house of Israel be put to shame—they, their kings, their princes, along with their priests and their prophets—
27. who say to a tree, ‘You are my father!’ and to a stone, ‘You gave me birth!’ But they turn the back to me and not the face. But in their time of trouble, they say to me, ‘Rise up and save us!’
28. But where are your gods you made for yourself? Let them rise up if they can save you in your time of trouble! For according to the number of your cities are your gods, O Judah!
29. Why do you strive against me? All of you have rebelled against me! says Jehovah.
30. In vain have I smitten your children; they received no correction. Your own sword has devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.
31. You of this generation! Behold the word of Jehovah! Have I been a desert to Israel? Or a land of thick darkness? Why, then, do my people say, ‘We may go wherever; we will not come only to you?’
32. Does a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride, her attire? Yet, my people have forgotten me, days without number.

² “The river” often refers to the Euphrates.

33. How lovely you have made your way to seek love! I could even teach wicked women your ways.
34. Also, on your skirts is found the blood of needy, innocent souls. You did not find them in the act of breaking in. Yet, in spite of all these things,
35. you say, ‘Since I am innocent, His anger is surely turned away from me.’ Behold, I will bring you into judgment for saying, ‘I have not sinned.’
36. How you cheapen yourself by changing your way! You will be disappointed in the Egyptians, just as you were disappointed in the Assyrians.
37. Moreover, because of this shall you go out with your hands over your head, for Jehovah has rejected those you trust, so that you will not prosper by them.

Jeremiah 3

- ¶1. “It is said, ‘If a man puts away his wife, and she goes from him and becomes another man’s, will he return to her again? Would not that land be greatly polluted?’ But you have played the whore with many lovers, and yet, you come back to me, says Jehovah.
2. Lift up your eyes to the heights and see! Where have you not been lain with? By the roads have you waited for them like an Arab in the desert, and you have made the land polluted with your whoredoms and your evil doing.
3. That is why plentiful showers and the latter rain have not come. Yet, you have the forehead of a whorish woman! You refuse to be ashamed.
4. Will you not at that time cry out to me, ‘My Father! You have been a friend since my youth’?
5. Will He preserve you forever, or keep you forever? Behold, you say and do wicked things as you are able.”
- ¶6. And Jehovah said to me in the days of Josiah the king, “Have you seen what backsliding Israel has done? She goes up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and plays the harlot there.
7. And after she did all these things, I said, ‘Return to me,’ but she would not return, and her treacherous sister Judah saw it.
8. And when for all the times that backsliding Israel committed adultery I put her away and gave her a bill of divorce, then I saw that her treacherous sister Judah was not afraid, and she also went and played the harlot.
9. And so it was that through the lightness of her whoredom, Israel had polluted the land and committed adultery with stones and trees.
10. And yet, for all this, her treacherous sister, Judah, did not return to me with her whole heart, but falsely, says Jehovah.”
- ¶11. And Jehovah said to me, “Backsliding Israel justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

12. Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, ‘Return, O backslidden Israel, says Jehovah! My face will no longer frown on you, for I am merciful, says Jehovah. I will not stay angry forever.
 13. Only acknowledge your sin, that you have rebelled against Jehovah your God and divided your ways among strange gods under every green tree, and you have not obeyed my voice, says Jehovah.
 14. Return, O wayward children, says Jehovah, for I am married to you! And I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion.
 15. And I will give you shepherds after my own heart, and they will feed you knowledge and understanding.
 16. And it shall come to pass in those days, when you multiply and bear fruit in the land, says Jehovah, that they will no longer say, “The ark of the covenant of Jehovah!” It will not come to mind, neither will they remember it, nor will they miss it, nor will it be made again.
 17. At that time, men will call Jerusalem, “The Throne of Jehovah”, and all the nations will be gathered to it, to Jerusalem, to the name of Jehovah, and they will no longer walk after the stubbornness of their evil heart.
 18. In those days the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel, and they will come together from the land of the north to the land which I gave your fathers for an inheritance.
 19. And so I said, “How should I put you in with the children and give you a desirable land, even the most beautiful inheritance of nations?” And I said, “You will call me, ‘My Father’, and you will not turn away from following me.”
 20. Surely, as a wife treacherously leaves her husband, so have you have dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, says Jehovah.”
- ¶21. A voice is heard on the barren heights, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel, because they have perverted their way. They have forgotten Jehovah their God.
22. “Repent, O backsliding children! I will heal your backslidings!” Behold, we are coming to you, for you are Jehovah our God.
 23. Truly, deception comes from the hills, the multitude of the mountains. Truly, the salvation of Israel is in Jehovah our God.
 24. But the shameful thing has devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their cattle, their sons and their daughters.
 25. Let us lie down in our shame and let our disgrace cover us, for we have sinned, we and our fathers, against Jehovah our God from our youth even to this day, and we have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah our God.

Jeremiah 4

- ¶1. If you would repent, O Israel, says Jehovah, return to me! And if you will put your abominations out of my sight, and not waver,

2. then you will take the oath, “as Jehovah lives”, truthfully, justly, and uprightly, and the nations will bless themselves in Him, and in Him will they glory.
 - ¶3. For thus says Jehovah to the men of Judah and Jerusalem: “Break up your fallow ground, so that you do not sow among thorns.
 4. Circumcise yourselves to Jehovah and remove the foreskins of your heart, O men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, lest my wrath come forth and burn like fire, and there be no quenching it, because of the evil of your doings.
 5. Proclaim it in Judah, and cause it to be heard in Jerusalem! And say, ‘Sound a shofar throughout the land!’ Cry aloud and say, ‘Assemble yourselves, and let us go to fortified cities!
 6. Lift up a banner! Flee toward Zion for safety! Do not stand still, for I am bringing an evil from the north, and great destruction.
 7. A lion is come up from his thicket, and a destroyer of nations has set out. He has gone forth from his place to make your land a desolation. Your cities will become ruins without inhabitant.
 8. Because of this, gird yourselves in sackcloth! Wail and howl, for the fierce anger of Jehovah is not turned back from us!
 9. And it will come to pass in that day, says Jehovah, that the heart of the king and the heart of the princes will fail, and the priests will be appalled, and the prophets, astonished.”
- ¶10. Then I said, “Ah, my Lord Jehovah! Surely, you have utterly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, ‘You shall have peace,’ when a sword has reached to the soul.”
 11. At that time, it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, “A scorching wind from barren heights in the wilderness will come toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow and not to purify.
 12. A wind too powerful for those things is coming from me! I will now pronounce judgments upon them!”
 13. Behold! He will come up like clouds, and his chariots, like a violent wind. His horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us, for we are devastated!
 14. Wash your heart from evil, O Jerusalem, that you might be saved. How long will your vain thoughts lodge within you?
 15. For a voice declares from Dan, and from the hill country of Ephraim it proclaims trouble.
 16. Bring it to the Gentiles’ attention! Behold, declare it at Jerusalem! Besiegers are coming from a distant land and will raise their voice over the cities of Judah.
 17. Like those guarding a field, they are all around her, for she has rebelled against me, says Jehovah.
 18. Your way and your deeds have procured these things for you. This wickedness of yours is very bitter. Yea, it has reached to your heart!

19. My bowels! My bowels! I am anguished! Oh, the walls of my heart! My heart is groaning within me! I cannot be silent, for I hear the sound of a shofar, the alarm of war!
 20. Breach upon breach has been called for. Yea, all the land is to be laid waste! Suddenly, will my tents be laid waste; in a moment, my curtains.
 21. How long shall I see a standard, and hear the sound of a shofar?
 22. For my people are foolish. They do not know me. They are foolish children, and they have no understanding. They are wise to do evil, but to do good, they do not know how.
 23. I looked at the land, and behold, it was formless and empty, and at the heavens, and they had no light.
 24. I looked at the mountains, and behold, they were trembling, and all the hills shook.
 25. I looked, and behold, there was no man, and every flying creature of the heavens had fled.
 26. I looked, and behold, the fruitful land was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down at the presence of Jehovah, before His burning anger.
- ¶27. “For thus says Jehovah: the whole land will be a waste; yet, I will not make a complete end of it.
28. For this, the land will mourn and the heavens above will become black, for I have spoken. I have purposed it, and I will not be moved to pity, nor will I turn back from it.
 29. The entire city will flee from the noise of the horseman and the Bowman, and they will go into the thickets, and they will climb upon the rocks. Every city will be forsaken, and there will not be one inhabitant in them.
 30. When you are utterly destroyed, what will you do? For you clothe yourself in scarlet; you deck yourself with ornaments of gold; you accentuate your eyes with stibium. You are beautifying yourself in vain. Your paramours despise you; they seek your soul.”
 31. For I heard a voice like a woman travailing, anguish as one bearing her first child. It is the voice of the daughter of Zion, gasping for breath, spreading out her hands, crying, “Woe is me now! For my soul has fainted because of murderers.”

Jeremiah 5

- ¶1. “You men go about the streets of Jerusalem and see now, and find out, and search in its open places, if you can find a man—if there is one!—who acts justly, seeking truth, and I will pardon it.
2. And though they say, ‘As Jehovah lives!’ they swear falsely in doing so.”
3. O LORD, are not your eyes upon the truth? You have stricken them, but they have not grieved; you have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction. They have made their faces harder than a rock! They refuse to repent!

4. But then, I thought, "These are just the poor. They are foolish because they do not know the way of Jehovah, the judgment of their God."
5. I will go to the great men and speak to them, for they know the way of Jehovah, the judgment of their God." But, they, as one, have broken the yoke; they have torn away the bonds.
6. Therefore, a lion of the forest will strike them down; a wolf of the steppes will ravage them; a leopard will be watching over their cities. Everyone who comes out from them will be torn to pieces because they multiply their transgressions. Their backslidings are many.
7. How shall I pardon you for this? Your children have forsaken me, and they swear by what is not God. When I made them full, they committed adultery. Yea, they gathered in troops at the house of fornication.
8. They are lusty,³ virile⁴ horses, each neighing after his neighbor's wife.
9. Shall I not punish them for these things, says Jehovah? And against such a nation as this, shall not my soul be avenged?
10. Go up against her vineyards and destroy them, but do not bring about a complete end. Take away her branches, for they do not belong to Jehovah.
11. For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously with me, says Jehovah.
12. They have dealt falsely with Jehovah, and they say, "It is not He," and "Evil will not befall us," and "We shall see neither sword nor famine."
13. But the prophets are just wind, for the Word is not in them. Thus shall it be done to them.
14. Therefore, thus says Jehovah, the God of Hosts: "Because you have said this, behold, I am making my words in your mouth a fire and this people wood, and it will consume them."
15. Behold, I am bringing upon you a nation from afar, O house of Israel, says Jehovah. It is an enduring nation; it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know, neither can you understand what they say.
16. Their quiver is like an open sepulchre; all of them are mighty men.
17. And they will eat your harvest and your food; they will eat your sons and your daughters; they will eat your flocks and your herds; they will eat your vines and your fig trees; they will beat down your fortified cities, in which you trust, with the sword.
18. Yet, even in those days, says Jehovah, I will not make a complete end of you.
19. And it shall come to pass that you will say, 'Why has Jehovah our God done all these things to us?' Then you shall say to them, 'Just as you have forsaken me and have served foreign gods in your own land, so you shall serve foreigners in a land that is not yours.'

³ Hebrew uncertain.

⁴ Hebrew uncertain.

20. You men declare this in the house of Jacob, and cause it to be heard in Judah, saying,
21. 'Hear this, if you will, O foolish and senseless people! (They have eyes, but they cannot see; they have ears, but they cannot hear.)
22. Will you not fear me, says Jehovah, nor tremble before me? I, who made sand a boundary for the sea by an eternal decree so that it cannot go beyond it! Though its waves rush back and forth, they cannot. Yea, they may roar, but they cannot go beyond it.'
23. But this people has a stubborn and rebellious heart; they are turned aside and gone.
24. And they do not say in their hearts, 'Let us now fear Jehovah our God, who gives the rain in its season, even the early and the latter rain, who preserves for us the appointed weeks of harvest.'
25. Your iniquities have deprived you of these things, and your sins have withheld from you what is good.
26. For there are found among my people wicked men. They watch like fowlers lying in wait. They set a trap; they catch men.
27. Like a cage filled with birds, so their houses are filled with deceit. That is how they have become great and grown rich.
28. They have grown fat and sleek, and in judgment, they pass over the deeds of a wicked man. They do no justice for the orphan, that they may prosper, nor do they render justice to those in need.
29. Shall I not visit them for these things, says Jehovah? Against such a nation as this, shall not my soul be avenged?
30. An appalling and horrible thing has happened in the land:
31. the prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule by their guidance, and my people love it that way! But what will you do at the end of it?

Jeremiah 6

- ¶1. "Flee for safety, O children of Benjamin, from the midst of Jerusalem! And in Tekoa, blow a shofar, and raise up a signal over Beth-Haccherem! For disaster from the north is looming, and a great breach.
2. The lovely and delicate, the daughter of Zion, will I bring to nothing.
3. Shepherds with their flocks shall come against her. They will pitch tents all around her. They will graze, each one in his place.
4. 'Prepare holy war against her! Arise, and let us go up at noon!' 'Woe to us, for the day has declined, for the shadows of evening are lengthening!'
5. 'Arise, and let us go up in the night, and we will destroy her citadels!'
6. For thus has Jehovah of Hosts said: Cut down trees and make a mound against Jerusalem! She is the city to be punished; all is oppression in her midst.

7. As a well keeps its waters fresh, so she keeps her wickedness fresh. Violence and destruction are heard in her. Illness and wounds are continually before me.
 8. Be warned, O Jerusalem, lest my soul become alienated from you, lest I make you desolate, a land uninhabited!
- ¶9. "Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: They will thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like a vine. Send your hand again, like a grape-gatherer, over the branches!"
10. To whom shall I speak and testify, that they may hear? For behold, their ears are uncircumcised, and they cannot listen. Behold, the word of Jehovah has become an embarrassment to them; they take no pleasure in it.
 11. I am filled with the wrath of Jehovah; I am weary with holding it in. Pour it out on the children in the street and on the gathering of young men together. Yea, even the husband shall be taken with the wife, the elder with him who is full of days.
 12. Their houses will be handed over to others, together with their fields and women, for I will stretch out my hand against the inhabitants of the land, says Jehovah.
 13. For from their least to their greatest, they all are greedy for unjust gain, and from prophet to priest, they all deal falsely.
 14. And they treat the wound of my people superficially, saying, 'Peace! Peace!' when there is no peace.
 15. They will be put to shame because they committed abomination; yet, they will not feel ashamed at all. Indeed, they do not know how to blush. Therefore, they will fall among those who fall when I visit them; they will be overthrown, says Jehovah.⁵
 16. Thus says Jehovah: Stand in the ways and look, and ask for the old paths, where this, the good way is, and walk in it, and find rest for your souls! But they said, 'We will not walk in it!'
 17. And I raised up watchmen over you. Listen to the sound of the shofar! But they said, 'We will not listen!'
 18. Therefore, hear, O Gentiles, and know, O congregation, what is among them!
 19. Hear, O earth! Behold, I will bring evil on this people, the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not attended to my words, and they have rejected my law.
 20. Why is this frankincense from Sheba brought to me, and this sweet calamus from a distant land? Your offerings are not acceptable, and your sacrifices do not please me.
 21. Therefore, thus says Jehovah: Behold, I am laying stumbling-blocks for this people, and they shall stumble at them, fathers and sons together; the neighbor and his friend shall perish.
- ¶22. "Thus says Jehovah: Behold, a people is coming from a north country, even a great nation, stirred up from the farthest reaches of earth."

⁵ Vv. 12–15, cp. 8:10–12.

23. They grip bow and javelin; he is cruel, and they are merciless; their sound is like the raging sea; and they are mounted on horses, each man in battle formation against you, O daughter of Zion.⁶
 24. We have heard the report of it; our hands hang down. Distress has gripped us, agony like a woman giving birth.
 25. Don't venture out into the field or walk on the road, for the sword of an enemy and terror is on every side!
 26. O daughter of my people! Put on sackcloth and wallow in ashes. Make for yourself a most bitter lamentation, a mourning as for an only son, for the Destroyer will suddenly come upon us.
- ¶27. "I have made you an assayer and a fortress among my people, that you may know and put their way to the test.
28. All of them are stubborn rebels, going about as slanderers. All of them are bronze and iron. They are corrupters.
 29. The bellows have blown; lead was exposed by their fire. But the refiner refined in vain, for the wicked were not drawn off.
 30. They will call them 'reprobate silver', for Jehovah has rejected them."

Jeremiah 7

- ¶1. The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying,
2. "Stand in the gate of the house of Jehovah and there, proclaim this message, and say, 'Hear the word of Jehovah, all you of Judah who enter these gates to worship Jehovah!'
3. Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place!
4. Do not trust in lying words, saying, "The temple of Jehovah! The temple of Jehovah! The temple of Jehovah are these!"
5. But if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings, if you truly execute justice between a man and his neighbor,
6. if you do not oppress the sojourner, orphan, and widow, and you do not shed innocent blood in this place, and do not go after other gods to your own hurt,
7. then I will settle you in this place, in the land which I gave to your fathers, from ancient time unto forever.
8. Behold, you are entrusting yourselves to lying words that cannot benefit you.
9. Will you steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods whom you do not know,
10. and then come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, "We are saved so that we may do all these abominations"?

⁶ Cp. 50:42.

11. Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of thieves in your eyes? Behold, I myself have seen it, says Jehovah!
 12. But go now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I made my name to dwell at the first, and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of my people Israel.
 13. And now, because you have done all these things, says Jehovah, though I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, but you would not listen, and I called to you, but you would not answer,
 14. I will also do to the house which is called by my name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and your fathers just as I did to Shiloh.
 15. And I will drive you out from before me, just as I drove all your brothers out, all the seed of Ephraim.'
- ¶16. "And as for you, don't you intercede for this people, and don't you lift up a cry or prayer on their behalf, nor make entreaty to me, for I will not hear you!
17. Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?
 18. The children gather sticks, and the fathers light the fire, and the women knead dough to make cakes for the queen of heaven, and they pour out drink offerings to other gods so as to provoke me.
 19. Is it me that they provoke, says Jehovah? Is it not themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?
 20. Therefore, thus says my Lord, Jehovah: Behold, my anger and my wrath will be poured out on this place, on man and on beast, and on trees of the field, and on the fruit of the ground, and it will burn and not be quenched.
 21. Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Add your burnt offerings upon your sacrifices, and eat flesh!
 22. But I did not tell your fathers, nor did I command them in the day I led them out of the land of Egypt, such things about burnt offering and sacrifice.
 23. But this thing I certainly commanded them, saying, 'Listen to my voice, and I will be your God and you will be my people. And walk in all the way that I command you, so that it might go well with you.'
 24. But they did not listen, nor incline their ear, and they walked in the counsels and stubbornness of their own evil heart, and they went backward and not forward.
 25. For from the day your fathers came out of the land of Egypt to this day, I have sent you all my servants, the prophets, daily, rising up early and sending them.
 26. But they have not listened to me, nor inclined their ear, but stiffened their neck. They did more evil than their fathers!
 27. You also shall speak to them all these words, but they will not listen to you, and you will call to them, but they will not answer.

28. And you shall say to them, ‘This is a nation that does not obey the voice of Jehovah their God, nor receive correction.’ Truth has perished, and it is cut off from their mouth.
29. Cut off your hair, O daughter of Zion, and throw it away, and lift up a lamentation upon the bare heights, for Jehovah has rejected and forsaken the generation of His fury.
30. For the children of Judah have done what is evil in my sight, says Jehovah. They have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.
31. And they have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, to burn up their sons and their daughters in the fire, which I did not command, nor did it enter my mind.
32. Therefore, behold, days are coming, says Jehovah, when it will no longer be called Tophet or Valley of the Son of Hinnom, but “The Valley of Slaughter”, and they will bury in Tophet until there is no room.
33. And the carcass of this people will be food for the bird of the air and the beast of the earth, and there will be no one to frighten them away.
34. And I will cause to cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem the sound of mirth and the sound of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, for the land will have been laid waste.

Jeremiah 8

- ¶1. “At that time, says Jehovah, they will bring the bones of the kings of Judah and the bones of its princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem out of their burial places,
2. and they will spread them out before the sun, and before the moon, and before all the host of heaven which they loved and which they served, and which they went after, and which they sought, and which they worshipped. They shall not be gathered nor buried. They shall be like dung on the surface of the ground.
3. And death will be preferable to life for all the remnant who remain of this evil family, those who remain in all the places where I have banished them, says Jehovah of Hosts.
4. And say to them, ‘Thus says Jehovah: When men fall down, do they not get up? If one goes away, does he not come back?’
5. Why has this people gone away? Jerusalem is always gone; they cling to deceitfulness. They refuse to come back!
6. I have paid attention, and I have listened. They do not speak rightly. Not one is repenting of his evildoing, saying, ‘What have I done?’ Every one turns away to his own course like a horse plunging into battle.
7. Even a stork in the sky knows her times, and the turtle-dove, and swallow, and crane⁷ keep to the time of their migration. But my people do not know the way of Jehovah.

⁷ Hebrew uncertain.

8. How can you say, ‘We are wise men, and the law of Jehovah is with us,’ when, in fact, the lying pen of scribes has wrought falsehood?
9. The ‘wise men’ will be put to shame. They will be dismayed and taken. Behold, they rejected the word of Jehovah; so, what wisdom do they have?
10. Therefore, I will give their wives to other men and their fields to dispossessors because from the least to the greatest, they all are greedy for unjust gain; from the prophet even to the priest, they all deal falsely.
11. And they treat the wound of the daughter of my people superficially, saying, ‘Peace! Peace!’ when there is no peace.
12. They will be put to shame because they committed abomination; yet, they will not feel ashamed at all. Indeed, they do not know how to be ashamed. Therefore, they will fall among those who fall. In the time of their visitation, they will be overthrown, says Jehovah.⁸
13. I will withdraw; I will make an end of them, says Jehovah. There will be no grapes on the vine, and there will be no figs on the fig tree, and the leaf will wither, and what I have given them will pass away from them.
14. ‘Why are we sitting still? Gather yourselves, and let’s go to fortified cities and be silent there, for Jehovah our God has put us to silence, and He has made us drink poisonous water because we sinned against Jehovah.
15. We hoped for peace, but no good came; for a time of healing, but, behold, terror!’
16. From Dan is heard the snorting of his horses. At the sound of the neighing of his stallions, the whole country trembles, for they are coming, and they will consume the land and everything in it, the city and its inhabitants.
17. For, behold, I will send serpents among you, adders which cannot be charmed, and they will bite you, says Jehovah.
18. My cheerfulness has become grief; my heart is sick within me.
19. Behold, the sound of a cry for help from the daughter of my people throughout the land: (Is Jehovah not in Zion? Is her King not in her? Why have they provoked me with their idols, with worthless foreign things?)
20. ‘Harvest is past; summer is ended; and we are not saved.’
21. For the brokenness of the daughter of my people am I broken. I am heavy; horror has taken hold of me.
22. Is there no balm in Gilead? Is no physician there? Why has the health of the daughter of my people not been restored?

Jeremiah 9

- ¶1. “Oh, that one would make my head waters and my eye a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

⁸ Vv. 10–12, cp. 6:12–15.

2. Oh, that one would give me a place for travelers in the wilderness, that I might leave my people and get away from them, for they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous people!
 3. Yea, they bend their tongue, their bow of falsehood, and they are mighty in the land, but not for truth. Yea, they proceed from evil to evil, and they do not know me, says Jehovah.
 4. Let every man be on guard against his neighbor. Yea, you cannot trust any brother because every brother will take cruel advantage, and every neighbor goes about as a slanderer.
 5. Yea, every man will deceive his neighbor, and they will not speak the truth. They have taught their tongue to speak lies. They wear themselves out committing iniquity.
 6. You dwell in the midst of Deceit. In Deceit, they refuse to know me, says Jehovah.
 7. Therefore, thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Behold, I will refine them, and I will prove them. Oh! What can I do with the daughter of my people?
 8. Their tongue is a deadly arrow. One speaks deceit with his mouth; he speaks peaceably with his neighbor, but in his heart, he is setting his ambush.
 9. Shall I not visit them for these things? says Jehovah. Shall not my soul be avenged on a nation such as this?
 10. For the mountains will I lift up weeping and wailing, and for the pastures of the wilderness, a lamentation, for they are burned up and no one will pass through. Nor will men hear the voice of cattle. Both the birds of the air and the beast will have fled. They will have gone away.
 11. I will also make Jerusalem a heap of ruins, a lair of wolves, and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.
 12. Who is the wise man who understands this, and to whom has the mouth of Jehovah spoken, that he might declare it? Why has the land perished, scorched like a desert that no one traverses?
 13. Therefore, says Jehovah, It is because they forsook my law which I set before them, and did not heed my voice and would not walk in it.
 14. But they followed the stubbornness of their own heart, and Baals, which their fathers taught them.
 15. Therefore, thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will make this people eat wormwood and make them drink poisonous water,
 16. and I will scatter them among the nations that neither they nor their fathers have known, and I will send the sword after them until I have consumed them.”
- ¶17. “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Consider, all of you, and call for the wailing women, that they may come, and send for the skilled women, that they may come!”
18. Oh, let them make haste and take up a wailing for us, so that our eyes run down with tears, and our eyelids flow with water!

19. Yea, a sound of wailing will be heard from Zion. How we are ruined! We are greatly ashamed, for we have forsaken the land because they have thrown down our dwellings.
20. Yea, hear, O women, the word of Jehovah! And let your ears receive the word of His mouth: "Teach your daughters a lament, and each one her neighbor a dirge!"
21. For death has come up through our windows; it has entered into our palaces to cut off children from the street and young men from the squares.
- ¶22. "You speak! Thus says Jehovah: Dead bodies shall also fall to the ground like dung on the open field and like sheaves after the reaper, and there will be no gatherer."
- ¶23. "Thus says Jehovah: Let not the wise man boast in his wisdom; nor let the mighty man boast in his might; nor let the rich man boast in his riches;
24. but, let him who boasts, boast in this, that he understands and knows me, that I, Jehovah, exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth, for in these things I delight, says Jehovah."
- ¶25. "Behold, the days are coming, says Jehovah, when I will punish all the circumcised with the uncircumcised:
26. Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all who have cut off the sides of their hair, who dwell in the wilderness, for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart."

Jeremiah 10

- ¶1. Hear the word which Jehovah has spoken concerning you, O house of Israel!
2. "Thus says Jehovah: Do not learn the way of the Gentiles, and do not be dismayed at the signs of heaven, for the Gentiles are dismayed at them.
3. For the customs of the peoples are vanity, for one cuts a tree from the forest, the workmanship of the hands of a worker with an ax.
4. He decorates it with silver and gold; they fasten it with nails and hammers so it won't totter.
5. They are like a scarecrow⁹ in a field of cucumbers, and they cannot speak. They have to be carried because they cannot walk. Stop being afraid of them! For they can do no harm, nor is it in them to do good."
6. There is no one like you, O Jehovah! You are great, and your name is great in might.
7. Who would not fear you, O King of the nations? For it is your due. For among all the wise men of the nations, and among all their kingdoms, there is none like you.
8. Yea, they are altogether brutish and foolish; a stock is a doctrine of vanities.

⁹ Literally, "a post".

9. Beaten silver is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of a craftsman and the hands of a smelter; their clothes are blue and purple. They are all the work of skilled men.
10. But Jehovah is the true God; He is the living God and eternal King. At His anger, the earth quakes, and the nations are not able to endure His indignation.
- ¶11. This is what you shall say to them: “The gods that did not make the heavens and the earth, these shall pass away from the earth and from under the heavens!”
- ¶12. He made the earth by His power; He established the world in His wisdom; and by His understanding, He stretched out the heavens.
13. When He utters His voice, there is an abundance of water in the heavens. He also causes vapors to rise from the end of the earth. He makes lightnings for the rain, and sends the wind out from His storehouses.¹⁰
14. Every man is brutish in knowledge; every refiner is put to shame by the idol, for his molten image is a lie, and there is no spirit in them.
15. They are vanity, the workmanship of mockers. In the time of their visitation, they will perish.
16. The portion of Jacob is not like them, for He is the Shaper of everything, and Israel is the rod of His inheritance. Jehovah of Hosts is His name.¹¹
- ¶17. Gather up your sack from the ground, you who live under siege!
18. “For thus says Jehovah: Behold! I am at this time slinging out the inhabitants of the land, and I will distress them, that they might learn.
19. Woe is me, for my hurt! My wound is incurable! Then I said, ‘Truly, this is mortality, and I must bear it.
20. My tabernacle is ruined, and all my cords are broken. My children have left me and are not. There is no one to pitch my tent any more and raise up my curtains,
21. for the shepherds became brutish and did not seek Jehovah. That is why they do not understand and all their flock is scattered.””
- ¶22. A voice! A report! Behold, it is coming—a great shaking from the north country to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a habitation of wolves.
- ¶23. I know, O Jehovah, that a man’s way does not belong to himself; it does not belong to man who walks to direct his own steps.
24. Chasten me, O Jehovah, but only in measure, not in your anger, lest you bring me to nothing!
25. Pour out your wrath on the nations who do not know you, and on the families of men who do not call on your name, for they have devoured Jacob; yea, they have devoured and consumed him, and they have made his dwelling place desolate.

¹⁰ Also, Jer. 51:16; Ps.135:7.

¹¹ Vv. 12–16; cf. Jer. 51:15–19.

Jeremiah 11

- ¶1. The word which came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying,
2. "Hear the words of this covenant and declare them to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem,
 3. and say to them, Thus says Jehovah, God of Israel: Cursed be the man who does not obey the words of this covenant
 4. which I commanded your fathers in the day I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace, saying, 'Obey my voice and do them, according to all that I command you, and you will be my people, and I will be your God,
 5. so that I might fulfill the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as at this day.'" Then I answered and said, "May it be so, O Jehovah!"
- ¶6. Then Jehovah said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, 'Hear the words of this covenant, and do them!'
7. For I solemnly warned your fathers in the day I led them up out of the land of Egypt, and even to this day have I risen early and given warning, saying, "Listen to my voice!"
 8. But they have not listened and have not inclined their ear, but they have walked, each one, in the stubbornness of their evil heart, though I brought upon them all the words of this covenant which I commanded them to do, and they did them not."
- ¶9. Moreover, Jehovah said to me, "A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
10. They have returned to the iniquities of their forefathers who refused to listen to my words, and they went after other gods, to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah broke my covenant which I made with their fathers.
 11. Therefore, thus says Jehovah: Behold, I am bringing an evil upon them which they will not be able to escape. And they will cry out to me, but I will not hear them.
 12. And the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem have gone and cried out to the gods to which they offer incense, but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble.
 13. According to the number of your cities are your gods, O Judah! And according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have you erected altars to that disgrace, altars for offerings to Baal!
 14. As for you, pray no more for this people! Yea, lift up no cry or prayer for them! For I will not hear when they cry out to me because of their trouble.
 15. What right does my beloved have in my house? She commits lewdness. The multitudes and the sacrifice of flesh will do you no good,¹² for you are just celebrating your wickedness.

¹² Hebrew uncertain.

- ¶16. “Jehovah called your name, ‘A beautiful green olive tree with good fruit.’ With the sound of a great tumult will He set fire to her, for its branches are broken.
17. And Jehovah of Hosts who planted you has pronounced evil against you because of the evil that the house of Israel and the house of Judah have done to themselves, in burning sacrifices to Baal to provoke me to anger.
18. And Jehovah gave me knowledge of it. Yea, I knew, when you showed me their deeds.
19. But I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter, and I did not know they had made plans against me: ‘Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living so that his name is remembered no more!’
20. But Jehovah of Hosts is a righteous Judge; He tries the mind and heart. I will see your vengeance upon them, for I have committed my cause to you.
21. Therefore, thus has Jehovah spoken concerning the men of Anathoth who are seeking your life, saying, ‘Do not prophesy in the name of Jehovah, lest you die by our hand.’
22. Therefore, thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Behold, I will visit them. The young men shall die by the sword, and their sons and daughters shall die by famine.
23. And no remnant will remain to them, for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth in the year of their visitation.”

Jeremiah 12

- ¶1. You are righteous, O Jehovah, though I complain to you. Nevertheless, let me speak with you about matters of justice. Why does the way of wicked men prosper? All those who deal treacherously are at ease.
2. You have planted them, and they have taken root; they grow and bear fruit. You are near in their mouth, but far from their hearts.
3. But you, O Jehovah, you know me; you see me; and you have tried my heart toward you. Drag them away like sheep to the slaughter, and set them apart for the day of slaughter!
- ¶4. How long will the land mourn and the vegetation of every field wither because of the wickedness of its inhabitants? The beasts and the birds are swept away because they say, “He does not see our latter end.”
5. If you have run with footmen, and they have wearied you, then how will you contend with the horses? And if you are weary in the land of peace in which you trust, how will you do in the swelling of Jordan?
6. Yea, even your brothers and the house of your father, even they, have dealt treacherously with you. They also have cried after you loudly. Do not trust them when they speak pleasant words to you.
7. I have forsaken my house; I have abandoned my heritage. I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

8. My heritage is to me like a lion in a thicket; she has let out a roar against me. Therefore, I hate her.
 9. My heritage is to me a speckled bird of prey. The bird of prey is against her round about! Go! Gather every beast of the field! Bring them for food!
 10. Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard; they have trampled down my heritage; they have turned my precious heritage into a desolate wilderness.
 11. He has made it a desolation; it mourns because of me, devastated. The whole land has been made desolate because no one lays it to heart.
 12. Violent spoilers are come upon all the bare heights in the wilderness because the sword of Jehovah is devouring from one end of the land to the other. There is no safety for anyone.
 13. They have sown wheat, but they have reaped thorns; they have made great effort without being benefitted. Yea, be ashamed of your harvests because of the burning anger of Jehovah.
- ¶14. Thus says Jehovah concerning all my evil neighbors who touch the inheritance which I caused my people Israel to inherit: "Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and I will pluck the house of Judah out of their midst.
15. And it shall come to pass after I have plucked them up that I will turn and have compassion on them, and I will restore them, each to his heritage and each to his land.
 16. And it shall come to pass that if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, 'As Jehovah lives', the way they taught my people to swear by Baal, then they will be established in the midst of my people.
 17. But if they will not listen, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, says Jehovah."

Jeremiah 13

- ¶1. Thus said Jehovah to me: "Go and buy a linen loincloth for yourself and put it around your loins, and do not put it in water."
2. So, I bought the loincloth, according to the word of Jehovah, and I put it around my loins.
- ¶3. And the word of Jehovah came to me a second time, saying,
4. "Take the loincloth which you bought, which is around your loins, and arise, go to the Euphrates and hide it there in the cleft of a rock."
 5. So, I went. And I hid it by the Euphrates, just as Jehovah had commanded me.
 6. And it came to pass at the end of many days that Jehovah said to me, "Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take from there the loincloth that I commanded you to hide there."
 7. So, I went to the Euphrates, and I dug, and I took the loincloth out of the place where I had hidden it. And behold, the loincloth was ruined; it was no good for anything.
- ¶8. And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,

9. "Thus says Jehovah: Thus will I ruin the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem.
10. This is a wicked people, who refuse to hear my words, who walk in the stubbornness of their heart. Yea, they go after other gods, to serve them and worship them. Therefore, they shall be like this loincloth which is good for nothing.
11. For as the loincloth clings to a man's loins, so I caused all the house of Israel and all the house of Judah to cling to me, says Jehovah, to be my people, and for a name and for praise and for glory! But they would not hear.
12. Therefore, you shall speak this word to them: 'Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel: Every jar shall be filled with wine!' And they will say to you, 'Don't we certainly know that every jar shall be filled with wine?'
13. Then shall you say to them, 'Thus says Jehovah: Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, the kings who sit on David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with drunkenness!
14. And I will dash them to pieces, one against another, the fathers and the sons together, says Jehovah. I will not spare, nor pity, nor will I show mercy that I should not destroy them.'"

- ¶15. Hear, and give ear! Do not be proud, for Jehovah has spoken!
16. Give glory to Jehovah your God before He brings darkness, before your feet stumble upon the darkening mountains, and you wait for light, but He turns it into the shadow of death and makes it thick darkness.
 17. But if you will not hear this, my soul will weep in secret places because of your pride. Yea, it will weep bitterly, and tears will fall from my eyes because the flock of Jehovah is taken captive.

¶18. "Say to the king and to the queen-mother, 'Abase yourselves! Sit down, for your beautiful crown has come down off your heads.'

 19. The cities of the south are shut up, and there is no one to open. Judah is carried away into exile, all of it. It has altogether been carried into exile.
 20. Lift up your eyes and see those who come from the north! Where is the flock that was given to you, your lovely flock?
 21. What will you say when He visits you, and the allies you yourself taught are head over you? Shall not pangs seize you like a woman in labor?
 22. And when you say in your heart, "Why have these things befallen me?" it is because of the greatness of your iniquity that your skirts are uncovered and your heels suffer violence.
 23. Can an Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard, his spots? Then, you can do good who are accustomed to do evil.
 24. So, I will disperse them like chaff carried away by a desert wind.
 25. This is your lot, your appointed portion from me, says Jehovah, because you have forgotten me and put your trust in a lie.

26. And I myself will strip your skirts off your body, and your shame will be seen.
27. Your adulteries and your neighings, your lewd whoredoms, are on the hills in the countryside. I see your abominations! Woe to you, Jerusalem! You will not be clean! When will it ever be?"'

Jeremiah 14

- ¶1. The word of Jehovah that came to Jeremiah because of the severe drought:
2. "Judah mourns, and its gates languish. They mourn for the land, and the cry of Jerusalem arises.
3. Their noblemen send their servants for the water. They go to cisterns; they find no water. They return, their vessels empty. They are ashamed and confounded; they cover their heads.
4. Because the ground is cracked, for no rain is in the land, the plowmen are ashamed; they have covered their heads.
5. Yea, even the doe in the field gives birth and forsakes it, for there is no grass.
6. The wild asses stand upon the barren heights, they pant for breath like wolves. Their eyes fail because there is no vegetation."
- ¶7. Though our iniquities testify against us, O Jehovah, do something for your name's sake.
Yea, our apostasies are many; we have sinned against you.
8. The hope of Israel is His Messiah. In time of trouble, why are you like a stranger in the land, and like a traveler turned in for the night?
9. Why are you like a bewildered man, like a mighty man unable to save? Yet, you are in our midst, O Jehovah, and we are called by your name! Do not forsake us!
- ¶10. "Thus says Jehovah concerning this people: Truly, they have loved to wander; they have not restrained their feet." Therefore, Jehovah is not pleased with them. He will now remember their iniquity and deal with their sins.
- ¶11. Moreover, Jehovah said to me, "Do not pray for the good of this people!"
12. For they fast without me listening to their cry, and they offer up burnt offering and meal offering without me accepting them. But with the sword, and with famine, and with the plague will I consume them."
13. Then I said, "Ah, my Lord, Jehovah! Behold, the prophets are telling them, 'You shall not see the sword, nor shall you have famine, but I will give you lasting peace in this place.'"
14. Then Jehovah said to me, "The prophets are prophesying lies in my name. I did not send them, nor did I give them commandment, nor have I spoken to them. They are prophesying to you a vision of lies, and divination, and worthlessness, and deceitfulness out of their own hearts!"

15. Therefore, thus says Jehovah concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name, although I did not send them, and yet they say, ‘Sword and famine shall not be in this land’: by sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed!
 16. And the people to whom they prophesy shall be thrown into the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword, and they will have no one to bury them—them, their wives, or their sons, or their daughters, for I will pour out upon them their evildoing.
 17. So, you speak this word to them: My eyes run down with tears night and day and do not cease because the virgin daughter of my people has suffered a great breach, an exceedingly grievous blow.
 18. If I go out to the field, behold, those pierced by the sword! And if I go into the city, behold, the diseases of famine. For both prophet and priest go about the land, but they have no knowledge.”
- ¶19. Have you utterly rejected Judah? Or does your soul loathe Zion? Why have you stricken us so that there is no cure for us? We long for peace, but no good comes, and for a time of healing, but behold, terror!
20. We acknowledge, O Jehovah, our wickedness, the iniquity of our fathers; yea, we have sinned against you.
 21. For your name’s sake, do not despise us! Do not disgrace your glorious throne! Remember, oh, do not break your covenant with us!
 22. Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles who bring rain? Or can the heavens give showers? Are you not the One, O Jehovah our God? Yea, we put our hope in you, for you create all these things.

Jeremiah 15

- ¶1. Then Jehovah said to me, “Even if Moses and Samuel stood before me, my mind would not be inclined to this people. Cast them out of my presence! Yea, make them go!
2. And it shall be that when they say to you, ‘Where shall we go?’ , then you shall say to them, ‘Thus says Jehovah: Whoso is appointed to death, to death let him go; and whoso to the sword, to the sword; and whoso to famine, to famine; and whoso to captivity, to captivity.’
3. And I will visit upon them four kinds of judgments, says Jehovah: the sword to slay, and the dogs to drag away, and birds of the sky and beasts of the earth to consume and to destroy.
4. And I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth, on account of Manasseh ben-Hezekiah, king of Judah, because of what he did in Jerusalem.
5. Oh! Who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem? Or who will grieve for you? Or who will turn aside to ask of your welfare?
6. You rejected me, says Jehovah. You walked away, and I have stretched out my hand against you, and destroyed you. I am weary with repenting.

7. Yea, I have winnowed them with a winnowing fork in the gates of the land. I have bereaved, I have slain my own people, for they would not turn from their ways.
 8. Their widows are more numerous before me than the sand of the sea. I have brought upon them, upon the mother of young men, a destroyer at noonday. I have made anguish and terrors to suddenly fall upon her.
 9. She who bore seven has grown feeble. Her soul has fainted. Her sun went down while it was yet day; she was ashamed and disgraced. I will give the remnant of them to the sword before their enemies, says Jehovah."
- ¶10. Woe is me, my mother, for you have given birth to me, a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole country. Though I have not lent on usury, nor have they lent to me on usury, they all curse me.
11. Jehovah said, "I will damn myself^{¶3} if I do not set you free for good, if I do not cause the enemy to entreat you in the evil time and in the time of distress.
- ¶12. "Can one break iron, iron from the north, and bronze?
13. Your wealth and your treasures will I give for a spoil, at no cost. And because of all your sins within all your borders,
 14. I will also make you serve your enemies in a land you do not know, for a fire is kindled in my anger. It is burning against you!"
 15. You know, O Jehovah! Remember me, and visit me, and avenge me of my persecutors! Do not defer your anger. Receive me! Acknowledge that for your sake, I have borne reproach!
 16. Your words were found, and I consumed them. Yea, your words were my joy and my heart's delight. Surely, I am called by your name, O Jehovah, God of Hosts!
 17. I do not sit in the council of mockers and rejoice. I sit alone because of your hand, for you have filled me with indignation.
 18. Why is my pain unending and my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? You are like a liar to me, like waters that do not last.
 19. Because of that, Jehovah said thus: "If you repent, then I will bring you back, that you might stand before me, and if you separate the precious from the worthless, you shall be as my mouthpiece. They may turn to you, but you may not return to them.
 20. And I will make you a fortified bronze wall to this people. And they will fight against you, but they will not prevail against you, for I am with you to save you and to deliver you, says Jehovah.
 21. And I will deliver you from the hand of wicked men, and I will redeem you from the hand of ruthless men."

Jeremiah 16

¹³ Literally, “—if I do not make...” The curse intended with this oath is so unthinkable—God’s death and damnation—that it is not even uttered.

- ¶1. And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. "You shall not take a wife for yourself, nor have sons or daughters in this place.
 3. For thus says Jehovah concerning the sons and the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who begot them in this land:
 4. They shall die of deadly diseases, unlamented and unburied. They will be like dung on the face of the ground, and perish by the sword and by famine, and their carcasses will be food for the birds of heaven and beasts of the earth.
 5. Moreover, thus says Jehovah: You shall not go into a house of mourning, nor go to lament or mourn for them, for I have taken away my peace, mercy, and compassion from this people, says Jehovah.
 6. Both great and small shall die in this land, and they will not be buried. Nor will men lament for them, nor will one cut himself or shave his head for them.
 7. People will not break bread for them in mourning, to comfort anyone concerning a dead man, nor will they provide drink for them as a cup of consolation for one's father or one's mother.
 8. Neither shall you go into a house of feasting to sit down with them to eat and drink.
 9. For thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will cause to cease from this place, before your eyes and in your days, the sound of mirth and the sound of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.
 10. And it shall come to pass that when you tell this people all these things, they will say to you, 'Why has Jehovah pronounced against us all this great evil?' or 'What is our iniquity?' or 'What is our sin that we have committed against Jehovah our God?'
 11. Then you say to them, 'It is because your fathers forsook me, says Jehovah, and followed after other gods, and served them, and bowed themselves down to them and forsook me, and would not keep my law.'
 12. And you have done more evil than your fathers! Yea, behold, each of you is walking in the stubbornness of his own evil heart instead of listening to me.
 13. So, I will cast you out of this land, to a land you do not know, neither you nor your fathers, and there, you shall do service to other gods, day and night, for I will show you no favor.'
 14. Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says Jehovah, when it will no longer be said, 'As Jehovah lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt,'
 15. but, 'As Jehovah lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of the north and out of all the countries into which He had driven them.' For I will bring them back to their land which I gave to their fathers."
- ¶16. "Behold, I am sending many fishermen, says Jehovah, and they will fish for them. And after that will I send many hunters, and they will hunt them down, upon every mountain, and on every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks,

17. for my eyes are upon all their ways; they are not hidden from me. Yea, their iniquity is not hidden from my eyes!
18. But I will first recompense their iniquity and their sin double because they have polluted my land; they have filled my inheritance with carcasses for their detestable idols and their abominations."
- ¶19. O Jehovah! My strength and my stronghold! And my refuge in the day of trouble! Nations will come to you from the farthest reaches of earth and say, "Our fathers inherited nothing but falsehood—vanity!—and nothing in them is worthwhile."
20. "Can a man make gods for himself when they are not gods?
21. Therefore, behold, I am going to make them know—this time I will make them know! —my hand and my might, and they shall know that my name is Jehovah!

Jeremiah 17

- ¶1. "The sin of Judah is written with an iron pen; it is engraved with a diamond point upon the tablet of their heart and on the horns of your altars,
2. as their children think on their altars and their Asherah poles beside green trees on the high hills.
3. O, my mountain in the field! Your wealth—all your treasures—will I give as spoil. Your high places for sin are throughout your borders.
4. You, even you, shall relinquish your inheritance which I gave you. And I will cause you to serve your enemies in a land you do not know, for you have kindled a fire in my wrath which shall burn forever."
- ¶5. "Thus says Jehovah: Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his strength, and his heart turns away from Jehovah.
6. Yea, he shall be like a shrub in the desert, and he will not see when good comes, and he shall dwell in dry places in the wilderness, a barren land and uninhabited.
7. Blessed is the man who trusts in Jehovah and whose confidence is Jehovah.
8. For he shall be like a tree planted by the water that extends its roots by the stream. He will not fear when heat comes, and his leaves will be green, and in a year of drought, he will not worry, nor cease yielding fruit.
9. The heart is more deceitful than anything, and it is incurable. Who knows it?
10. I, Jehovah, search the heart, testing the inner man and giving to each according to his ways, as the fruit of his deeds."
- ¶11. As a partridge may brood and it not hatch, so he who amasses wealth but not justly, it shall abandon him in the midst of his days, and at his end, he shall be a fool.
- ¶12. A glorious throne, on high from the beginning, is the place of our sanctuary.
13. O Hope of Israel! O Jehovah! All who forsake you will be put to shame. Those who turn aside will be written in the earth, for they have forsaken Jehovah, the fountain of living water.

- ¶14. Heal me, O Jehovah, and I will be healed! Save me, and I will be saved! Yea, you are my praise.
15. Behold, they are saying to me, "Where is the word of Jehovah? Let it come, we pray."
16. But as for me, I have not run away from being a pastor who follows you, and I have not desired the woeful day. You know what came from my lips was from you.
17. Oh, do not be a terror to me! You are my refuge in the day of evil.
18. Let them be put to shame who persecute me, but let me not be put to shame! Let them be dismayed, but let me not be dismayed! Bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with a double destruction.
- ¶19. Thus did Jehovah say to me: "Go, and stand in the gate of the children of the people, through which the kings of Judah enter and through which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem,
20. and say to them, 'Hear the word of Jehovah, O kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem who enter through these gates!'
21. Thus says Jehovah: Watch out for your souls, and do not bear a burden on the Sabbath day, nor carry a burden into the gates of Jerusalem,
22. nor carry a burden forth from your houses on the Sabbath day, and do no work, but hallow the Sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers
23. (though they did not hear nor incline their ear, but stiffened their neck and would not listen or receive instruction),
24. then it shall be, if you carefully listen to me, says Jehovah, and do not bring a burden into the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but hallow the Sabbath day, doing no manner of work on it,
25. that kings and princes, sitting on the throne of David, shall enter through the gates of this city, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their princes, men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and this city shall be inhabited forever.
26. And men shall come from the cities of Judah, and from places around Jerusalem, and from the territory of Benjamin, and from the lowland, and from the mountain, and from the Negev, bringing a burnt offering, and a sacrifice, and a grain offering with frankincense, and bringing a thanksgiving offering to the house of Jehovah.
27. But if you do not listen to me, to hallow the Sabbath day and bear no burden, but bring burdens through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire within her gates, and it will consume the palaces of Jerusalem, and it will not be quenched!"

Jeremiah 18

- ¶1. The word which came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying,
2. "Get up, and go down to the potter's house, and there will I cause you to hear my words."

3. So, I went down to the potter's house and, behold, he was making something on the wheels.
 4. But the vessel that he was making with the clay was marred in the potter's hand, and so, he remade it into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to make.
 5. And then the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
 6. "Am I not able, like this potter, to fashion you, O house of Israel, says Jehovah? Behold, like the clay in the potter's hand, you are in my hand, O house of Israel.
 7. At some point, I may speak concerning a nation, or concerning a kingdom, that I will pluck it up, or tear it down, or destroy it,
 8. but if that nation repents of its evil concerning which I spoke, then I will repent of the evil which I intended to do to it.
 9. Or at some point, I may speak concerning a nation, or concerning a kingdom, that I will build up or plant it,
 10. but if it does what is evil in my sight, not heeding my voice, then I will repent of the good that I had thought to do to it.
 11. And now, speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says Jehovah: Behold! I am shaping evil for you and devising a plan against you! Turn now, every one, from his evil way, and amend your ways and your works!'
 12. But they will say, 'It is hopeless. But we will live according to our own plans, and each one of us will do according to the stubbornness of his own evil heart.'
- ¶13. "Therefore, thus says Jehovah: Ask, I pray you, among the nations who has heard of such things. The virgin Israel has done a very horrible thing.
14. Has the snow of Lebanon forsaken the rock of the field? Or have the cold waters flowing down from foreign places dried up?
 15. But my people have forgotten me! They burn incense to idols,¹⁴ but they make them to stumble in their ways, the eternal paths, to walk in bypaths, not the high way,
 16. to make their land a desolation, an object of hissing, forever. Every one who passes through it will be appalled and shake his head.
 17. I will scatter them like the east wind before the enemy; I will look upon their back and not their face in the day of their calamity."
- ¶18. Then they said, "Come, and let's make plans against Jeremiah! For the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise man, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us strike him down with the tongue! And let us give no heed to any of his words."
- ¶19. "Hear me, O Jehovah, and hear the voice of my adversaries!
20. Should evil be repaid for good? For they have dug a pit for my life. Remember that I have stood before you to say a good thing for them, to turn your wrath from them!"

¹⁴ Hebrew, nothingness.

21. Therefore, give their children to famine and pour out their blood by the power of the sword, and let their wives be bereft of children and be widows, and let their men be put to death, their young men slain with the sword in battle!
22. Let a cry be heard from their houses because a marauding band has suddenly come in upon them, for they have dug a pit to take me and have concealed snares for my feet!
23. But you know, O LORD, all their murderous counsel against me. Do not cover over their iniquity nor blot out their sin before you. And let them be made to stumble before you! In the time of your anger, deal with them!"

Jeremiah 19

- ¶1. Thus said Jehovah: "Go with some of the elders of the people and elders of the priests and buy a potter's earthen flask.
2. Then go out to the Valley of the Son of Hinnom that is at the entry of the Potsherds Gate, and proclaim there the words that I say to you.
3. And say, 'Hear the word of Jehovah, O kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem! Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I am bringing an evil upon this place, such that the ears of all who hear of it shall tingle.
4. They have forsaken me, and have estranged this place from me. They have burned incense in it to other gods, whom neither they, nor their fathers, nor the kings of Judah have known, and they have filled this place with the blood of innocents.
5. They have also built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire as burnt offerings to Baal, which I did not command, and did not speak, nor did it come into my mind!
6. Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says Jehovah, when this place will no longer be called Tophet or the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, but "the Valley of Slaughter".
7. And I will nullify the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place, and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hand of those who seek their life. And I will give their carcasses to be food for the bird of the sky and beast of the earth.
8. And I will make this city a desolation and an object of hissing. Every one who passes by it will be appalled and hiss at all its damage.
9. And I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they will eat, each one, the flesh of his friend in the siege and in the distress with which their enemies and those who seek their life will afflict them.'
10. Then break the flask in the sight of the men who go with you,
11. and say to them, 'Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Thus will I shatter this people and this city as one shatters a potter's vessel so that it can no longer be repaired. And they will bury in Tophet until there is no room to bury.
12. Thus will I do to this place, says Jehovah, and to its inhabitants, so as to make this city like Tophet.

13. And the houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah shall be like the place of Tophet, defiled, even all the houses where they have offered incense upon their roofs to all the host of heaven, and have poured out libations to other gods.
14. And Jeremiah came from Tophet, where Jehovah had sent him to prophesy, and he stood in the court of the house of Jehovah and said to all the people,
15. “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I am bringing against this city, and upon all its towns, the evil that I have spoken against it because they have stiffened their neck so as not to heed my words.”

Jeremiah 20

1. And Pashur ben-Immer the priest, who was also chief ruler over Jehovah’s house, heard Jeremiah prophesy these things.
2. And Pashur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and he put him in the stocks that were in the upper gate of Benjamin which was by the house of Jehovah.
3. And it came to pass the next day that Pashur released Jeremiah from the stocks. And Jeremiah said to him, “Jehovah has not named you Pashur, but rather, Magor-missabib.¹⁵
- ¶4. “For thus said Jehovah: ‘Behold, I make you a terror¹⁶ to yourself and to all your loved ones! And they shall fall by the sword of their enemies even as your eyes watch. And I will give all of Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall lead them captive to Babylon, and strike them down with the sword.’
5. And I shall deliver up all the wealth of this city, and all its products, and all its precious things, even all the treasures of the kings of Judah shall I hand over to their enemies, and they shall plunder them, and take them captive, and bring them to Babylon.
6. And you, Pashur, and all those who live in your house, shall go into captivity. And you shall go to Babylon, and there you shall die, and there you shall be buried—you and all your loved ones to whom you have prophesied with lies.”
- ¶7. O Jehovah, you deceived me, and I was deceived! You are stronger than I, and you prevailed! I am in derision daily; everyone mocks me!
8. Whenever I speak, I cry out “Violence!”, and I cry “Destruction!” But the word of Jehovah became for me a reproach and ridicule every day!
9. So, I said, “I will not mention Him or speak again in His name!” But it was like a fire burning in my heart, shut up in my bones. I wore myself out holding it in; I couldn’t do it.

¹⁵ Terror on every side.

¹⁶ Magor in Hebrew.

10. For I heard the whispering of many, “There is terror on every side.¹⁷ You tell it, and we’ll tell it.” All my acquaintances were watching for my stumbling, saying, “Perhaps he will be enticed,” and “Let’s prevail over him,” and “Let’s take our vengeance against him.”
11. But Jehovah is with me like a terrifying mighty man. Therefore, my pursuers shall stumble, and not prevail! They shall be greatly ashamed because they did not succeed—an eternal reproach that shall not be forgotten.
12. And Jehovah of Hosts tries the righteous, seeing the kidneys and the heart. Let me see your vengeance against them, for I have pled my cause before you.
- ¶13. Sing to Jehovah! Give praise to Jehovah! For He has delivered the soul of the poor out of the hand of the wicked.
- ¶14. Cursed be the day in which I was born, the day in which my mother bore me! Let it not be blessed!
15. Cursed be the man who brought my father tidings, saying, “A male child is born to you!” making him rejoice greatly.
16. Let that man be like the cities that Jehovah overturned, and had no pity. Let him hear a cry in the morning, and an alarm at midday,
17. who did not kill me from the womb—or that my mother would have been my grave, and her womb forever pregnant.
18. Why did I come out of the womb to see trouble and sorrow, and my days be consumed with disgrace?

Jeremiah 21

- ¶1. The word which came to Jeremiah from Jehovah when king Zedekiah sent Pashhur ben-Malchiah and Zephaniah ben-Maaseiah the priest to him, saying,
2. “If you will, inquire of Jehovah for us, for Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon is waging war against us. It may be that Jehovah will act for us according to all His wonders so that he will withdraw from us.”
3. And Jeremiah said to them, “Thus shall you say to Zedekiah:
4. Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel: Behold, I am turning back the instruments of war that are in your hand with which you fight against the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans who have laid siege against you outside the walls, and I will gather them into the midst of this city.
5. Indeed, I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation,
6. and I will strike down the inhabitants of this city, and both man and beast will die of a great plague.

¹⁷ Magor-missabib in Hebrew. See 20:3.

7. And afterward, says Jehovah, will I give Zedekiah, king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, even those who are left in this city from the plague, the sword, and the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life, and he will strike them down with the edge of the sword; he will not spare them, nor show pity or have compassion.
- ¶8. "And to this people say, Thus says Jehovah: Behold, I am setting before you the way of life and the way of death.
9. He who stays in this city will die by the sword, or by famine, or by the plague, but he who goes out and surrenders to the Chaldeans who have laid siege against you will live; his life will be his spoil.
10. For I have set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, says Jehovah; it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.
- ¶11. "And as for those of the house of the king of Judah, hear the word of Jehovah!
12. O house of David! Thus says Jehovah: Execute justice in the morning, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my wrath go forth like fire, and it burn so that no one can quench it because of the evil of their doings.
13. Behold, I am against you, O inhabitress of the valley, the rock of the plateau, says Jehovah, who say, 'Who can come down against us?' and, 'Who can enter into our habitations?'
14. But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says Jehovah. Yea, I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it will consume all that is around her."

Jeremiah 22

- ¶1. Thus said Jehovah: "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak this word there,
2. and say, 'Hear the word of Jehovah, O king of Judah who sits on the throne of David, you, and your servants, and your people who enter through these gates!'
3. Thus says Jehovah: Do justice and righteousness, and deliver him who has been robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, and do not mistreat or do violence to the foreigner, or orphan, or widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place.
4. For if you diligently obey this command, then through the gates of this house will enter kings sitting on David's throne, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.
5. But if you do not obey these words, I swear by myself, says Jehovah, that this house will be a desolation!
6. For thus says Jehovah concerning the house of the king of Judah: You are my Gilead, the height of Lebanon; yet will I damn myself if I do not make you a wilderness of uninhabited cities.
7. And I will consecrate destroyers for you, each with his weapons, and they will cut down your choice cedars and cast them into the fire.

8. And many nations will pass through this city, and each will say to his fellow, “Why has Jehovah dealt thus with this great city?”
 9. And they will say, “Because they forsook the covenant of Jehovah their God and worshipped other gods, and served them.””
- ¶10. “You must not weep for the dead nor mourn for him, but weep bitterly for the one who is going away, for he shall return no more to see his native land.
11. For thus says Jehovah concerning Shallum ben-Josiah the king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, who went forth from this place: He will not return here again.
 12. But in the place where they have carried him into exile, there will he die, and he will not see this land again.”
- ¶13. “Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness and his upper chambers by injustice, when he works his fellow for nothing and does not give him his wages,
14. who says, ‘I will build myself a large house with spacious upper rooms,’ and cuts out windows for it, and panels it with cedar, and paints it with vermillion.
 15. Will you reign because you strive to excel in cedar? Your father, did he not eat and drink? But he did justice and righteousness, and then it went well with him.
 16. He judged the cause of the afflicted and poor. Then, it went well. Is this not to know me? says Jehovah.
 17. But your eyes and your heart are on nothing except your unjust gain, and the shedding of innocent blood, and oppression, and to do violence.
 18. Therefore, thus says Jehovah concerning Jehoiakim ben-Josiah, king of Judah: they shall not lament for him, ‘Woe, my brother!’ or ‘Woe, my sister!’ They shall not lament for him, ‘Woe, O lord!’ Or ‘Woe, O Majesty!’
 19. He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey, dragged away and thrown out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.”
- ¶20. “Go up, O Lebanon, and cry out! Even in Bashan put forth your voice, and cry out from Abarim, for all your lovers are crushed!
21. I spoke to you in your great prosperity; you said, ‘I will not listen.’ This has been your way from your youth, that you have not obeyed my voice.
 22. The wind will feed all your shepherds, and those who love you will go into captivity, and then you will be ashamed and confounded because of all your evil.
 23. O inhabitress of Lebanon, nested among the cedars. How you will groan when the pains of travail come upon you, agony like a woman in labor!”
- ¶24. “As I live, says Jehovah! Though Coniah ben-Jehoiakim, king of Judah, be the signet on my right hand, I will wrench you off!
25. And I will give you over into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of those whom you fear, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26. And I will hurl you and your mother who bore you into another land where neither of you were born, and there shall you die.
27. Yea, to the land to which they long to return, they shall not return.
28. Is this man, Coniah, a despised, broken pot, or a vessel in which is no delight? Why are he and his seed cast out and hurled into a land they do not know?
29. O land! O land! O land! Hear the word of Jehovah!
30. Thus said Jehovah: You write this man as childless, a man who will not prosper in his lifetime, for none of his seed will succeed in sitting on the throne of David and ruling again in Judah."

Jeremiah 23

- ¶1. "Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says Jehovah.
2. Because of that, thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who feed my people: 'You have scattered my flock and driven them away, and you have not visited them. Behold! I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, says Jehovah.
3. But I will gather the remnant of my sheep out of all the countries to which I drove them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they will be fruitful and multiply.
4. I will raise up shepherds for them, and they will feed them, and they will no longer be afraid, nor be dismayed, nor will any be missing, says Jehovah.'"
- ¶5. "Behold, the days are coming", says Jehovah, "when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he will reign as King, and he will deal wisely and will execute justice and righteousness in the earth.
6. In his days, Judah will be saved and Israel will dwell securely, and this is his name which Jehovah will call him: Our Righteousness."
- ¶7. "Therefore, behold! The days are coming, says Jehovah, when they will no longer say, 'As Jehovah lives, who brought up the children of Israel from the land of Egypt,' but, 'As Jehovah lives, who brought up and who led the seed of the house of Israel out of the land of the north and out of all the countries into which I had driven them,' and they will dwell in their own land."
9. My heart within me is broken because of the prophets! All my bones are melted. I am like a drunken man and like a man overcome with wine before Jehovah and before the words of His holy one.
10. The land is filled with adulterers because of a curse. The land mourns; the pastures of the wilderness are dried up. Yea, their course is evil, and their strength is not right.
11. "Yea, both prophet and priest are profane; even in my house have I found their wickedness, says Jehovah.
12. Therefore, their way shall be slippery for them; they shall be driven into darkness and fall in it, for I will bring evil upon them in the time of their visitation, says Jehovah.
13. In the prophets of Samaria, I have seen folly, who have prophesied by Baal and cause my people Israel to err.

14. In the prophets of Jerusalem also have I seen a horrible thing: they commit adultery and walk in lies; yea, they strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that no one turns from his evildoing. They are, all of them, become to me like Sodom, and its inhabitants like Gomorrah.
15. Therefore, thus says Jehovah of Hosts concerning the prophets: Behold, I will feed them wormwood and make them drink poisonous water, for from the prophets of Jerusalem profaneness has gone forth to all the land.”
- ¶16. “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you! They are making you vain; they declare a vision from their own heart, not from the mouth of Jehovah.
17. They say continually to those who despise me, ‘Jehovah says, ‘You shall have peace.’ And they say to everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart, ‘Evil will not come upon you.’
18. But who has stood in the counsel of Jehovah, that he may see and hear His word? Who has waited for and heard my word?”
- ¶19. Behold, the storm of Jehovah! Wrath has gone forth, and a violent storm will burst upon the head of wicked men.
20. The anger of Jehovah will not turn back until He has done it, and until He has accomplished the intents of His heart. In the latter days, you will understand it clearly.
- ¶21. “I did not send these prophets, but they ran; I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied.
22. But if they had stood in my council and caused my people to hear my words, they would have turned them from their evil way and from the evil of their doings.
23. Am I a God in the midst, says Jehovah, and not a God afar off?
24. Can a man hide in secret places so that I do not see him? says Jehovah. Do I not fill heaven and earth? says Jehovah.
25. I heard what the prophets have said who prophesy falsely in my name, saying, ‘I have dreamed! I have dreamed!’
26. How long will this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy a lie? Yea, they are prophets of the deceitfulness of their heart,
27. who think to make my people forget my name with their dreams which they tell, each to his neighbor, just as their fathers forgot my name because of Baal!
28. The prophet who has a dream, let him tell the dream, and whoever has my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? says Jehovah.
29. Is not my word like a fire, says Jehovah, and like a hammer that breaks rock into pieces?
30. Therefore, behold! I am against the prophets, says Jehovah, who steal, each one, my words from his neighbor.

31. Behold, I am against the prophets, says Jehovah, who use their tongues and say, ‘He has spoken!’
32. Behold, I am against those who prophesy false dreams, says Jehovah, and then tell them and cause my people to err by their lies and by their bravado when I have not sent them or given them a commandment. Yea, they do not benefit this people at all, says Jehovah.
33. Moreover, when this people, or the prophet, or a priest asks you, saying, ‘What is the burden of Jehovah?’ then you shall tell them, ‘What burden? Jehovah has said, I will abandon you!
34. And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people who say, “The burden of Jehovah,” I will punish every single one, and his house.
35. Thus will you people say, everyone with his neighbor, and everyone to his brother: “What has Jehovah answered?” and “What has Jehovah said?”
36. But you will no longer remember the burden of Jehovah, for each man’s burden shall be his own word because you have twisted the words of the living God, Jehovah of Hosts, our God!’
37. Thus shall you say to the prophet: ‘What has Jehovah answered you?’ and ‘What has Jehovah said?’
38. And if any of you say, ‘the burden of Jehovah,’ then thus says Jehovah: Because you say this thing, ‘the burden of Jehovah,’ when I have sent to you saying, ‘Do not say, “the burden of Jehovah”,’
39. therefore, behold, I will deceive and forget you. Yea, I will cast you out from my presence, along with the city that I gave to you and your fathers.
40. And I will bring upon you everlasting disgrace and everlasting ignominy, which shall not be forgotten.”

Jeremiah 24

- ¶1. Jehovah showed me, and behold, there were two baskets of figs set before the temple of Jehovah, after Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon had taken Jeconiah ben-Jehoiakim the king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, and the craftsmen, and the smiths into exile from Jerusalem and brought them to Babylon.
2. The one basket had very good figs, like first-ripe figs, but the other basket had very bad figs, which were so bad they could not be eaten.
3. Then Jehovah said to me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” And I said, “Figs. The good figs are very good, and the bad are very bad, which are so bad they cannot be eaten.”
4. Then the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
5. “Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel: As with these good figs, so do I regard as good the captives of Judah whom I have sent away from this place to the land of the Chaldeans,

6. and I will set my eyes upon them for good, and will bring them back to this land, and I will build them up and not tear them down; yea, I will plant them and not pluck them up.
7. And I will give them a heart to know me, that I am Jehovah, and they will be my people, and I will be their God when they return to me with all their heart.
8. But as for the bad figs which were so bad they could not be eaten, thus says Jehovah: So will I give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the remnant of Jerusalem, those who remain in this land and who dwell in the land of Egypt.
9. And I will make them a horror, an evil thing to all the kingdoms of the earth, a reproach and a byword, a laughingstock and a curse in all the places to which I will banish them.
10. And I will send the sword, and famine, and the plague against them until they are completely destroyed from the land which I gave to them and to their fathers.”

Jeremiah 25

- ¶1. The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim ben-Josiah, king of Judah, which was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon,
2. which Jeremiah the prophet spoke concerning all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,
3. “From the thirteenth year of Josiah ben-Amon, king of Judah, even to this day—these twenty-three years—the word of Jehovah has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking, but you have not listened.
4. Moreover, Jehovah has sent all His servants the prophets to you, rising early and sending them, but you have not listened or inclined your ear to hear,
5. saying, ‘Turn now, each one, from his own evil way and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land which Jehovah gave you and your fathers from of old and forever,
6. and do not go after other gods, to serve them and to worship them, and do not provoke me to anger with the work of your hands, and I will do you no harm.’
7. But you have not listened to me, says Jehovah, so that by the work of your hands, those things provoked me to anger to your hurt.
8. Therefore, thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Inasmuch as you have not listened to my words,
9. behold, I will send, and I will take all the families of the north, says Jehovah, even to Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my slave, and I will bring them against this land and against its inhabitants, and against all these surrounding nations, and I will devote them to destruction, and make them a horror, an object of hissing, and ruins forever.
10. Yea, I will cause to cease from them the sound of mirth and the sound of gladness, the sound of a bridegroom and the sound of a bride, the sound of millstones and the light of a lamp.

11. And this whole land will be a waste, a ruin, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon seventy years.
 12. And it shall come to pass that when the seventy years are completed, I will visit upon the king of Babylon and upon that nation their iniquities, says Jehovah, and I will make the land of the Chaldeans a perpetual waste.
 13. And I will bring upon that land all my words that I have spoken against it, everything that is written in this book which Jeremiah prophesied concerning all the nations.
 14. For many nations and great kings shall make slaves of them, even them, for I will recompense them according to their deeds and according to the work of their hands."
- ¶15. Thus said Jehovah, the God of Israel, to me: "Take this cup of wine of wrath from my hand and make all the nations to whom I send you drink of it.
16. And they will drink, and stagger about, and go mad because of the sword I am sending among them
 17. (And I took the cup from the hand of Jehovah to make all the nations to whom Jehovah sent me to drink):
 18. Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and its kings, its rulers, to make them a desolation, a waste, an object of hissing, and a curse (as it is this day);
 19. Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people;
 20. and all the mixed people; and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, even Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod;
 21. Edom; and Moab; and the children of Ammon;
 22. and all the kings of Tyre; and all the kings of Zidon; and the kings of the coastland that is beyond the sea;
 23. and Dedan; and Tema; and Buz; and every remote corner;
 24. and all the kings of Arabia; and all the kings of the mixed people who live in the desert;
 25. and all the kings of Zimri; and all the kings of Elam; and all the kings of Media;
 26. and all the kings of the north, both near and far away, one after another; and all the kingdoms of the world that are on the face of the earth. And the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.
 27. And you say to them, 'Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Drink! And be drunk and vomit, and fall down so that you do not rise because of the sword that I am sending among you!'
 28. And it shall come to pass that they will refuse to take the cup from your hand, to drink it. Then you shall tell them, 'Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: You shall surely drink!
 29. For, behold, against the city that is called by my name have I begun to bring destruction, and shall you go altogether unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, for I am summoning a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, says Jehovah of Hosts.'
 30. Now, you prophesy against them all these words! And you tell them, 'Jehovah will roar from on high, His holy habitation. He will give forth His voice. He will roar loudly against His fold; He will let forth a shout, like those who march; He will cry out against all the inhabitants of earth!

31. A noise will go forth to the ends of the earth, for Jehovah has a case against the nations. He Himself will plead his case against all flesh. He will put those who are wicked to the sword, says Jehovah.””
- ¶32. “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Behold! An evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great storm will be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth.
33. And on that day, the slain of Jehovah shall be from one end of the earth to the other. They shall not be lamented, nor gathered, nor buried. They shall be dung on the surface of the ground.
34. Wail, you shepherds! Yea, cry out and roll in dust, O leaders of the flock, because the time for your slaughter and dispersions is fulfilled! Yea, you shall fall like a choice vessel.
35. And flight will be impossible for the shepherds, or escape for leaders of the flock.
36. Oh the sound of the shepherds’ cry and the howling of leaders of the flock! For Jehovah has laid waste their pasturage,
37. and the peaceful folds are devastated because of the fierce anger of Jehovah.
38. Like a lion, He has left His covert. Yea, their land is desolate because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of His fierce anger.””

Jeremiah 26

- ¶1. At the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim ben-Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from Jehovah, saying,
2. “Thus says Jehovah: Stand in the court of Jehovah’s house and speak to all the cities of Judah who come to worship at the house of Jehovah. Speak to them all the words which I command you! Do not leave out a word!
3. It may be that they will hear and repent, every one, from his evil way, so that I repent of the evil which I intend to do to them because of the evil of their doings.
4. And say to them, Thus says Jehovah: If you do not listen to me, to live by my law which I have set before you,
5. that you may hear the words of my servants the prophets whom I have sent to you, both rising up early and sending them (but you have not listened),
6. then I will make this house like Shiloh, and I will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.””
7. And the priests, and the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking those words in the house of Jehovah.
8. And it came to pass when Jeremiah was finished speaking all that Jehovah had commanded him to speak to all the people, then the priests, and the prophets, and all the people laid hold of him, saying, “You shall surely die!

9. Why have you prophesied in the name of Jehovah, saying, ‘This house and this city shall be like Shiloh, desolate and without an inhabitant?’ And all the people gathered against Jeremiah in the house of Jehovah.
10. When the rulers of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king’s house to the house of Jehovah, and they sat at the entry of the new gate of the house of Jehovah.
11. And the priests and prophets spoke to the rulers and all the people, saying, “This man deserves a sentence of death because he prophesied against this city, as you heard with your own ears!”
12. But Jeremiah spoke to all the rulers and to all the people, saying, “Jehovah sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you heard.”
13. So then, amend your ways and your deeds now and heed the voice of Jehovah your God, so that Jehovah will repent of the evil that He has spoken concerning you.
14. As for me, behold, I am in your hands; do to me as is good and right in your eyes.
15. Only, know for certain that if you put me to death, you will be bringing innocent blood upon yourselves, and this city, and its inhabitants, for Jehovah truly sent me, for your sakes, to speak all these words in your ears.”
16. Then the rulers and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, “There is no cause for a death penalty for this man, for he has spoken to us in the name of Jehovah our God.”
17. Then men rose up, some elders of the land, and spoke to the whole assembly of the people, saying,
18. “Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah the king of Judah, and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, ‘Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall be a heap of ruins, and the temple mount, a forested height.’”
19. Did Hezekiah the king of Judah and all of Judah dare put him to death? Did he not fear Jehovah and entreat the face of Jehovah, so that Jehovah repented of the evil which He had pronounced against them? But we are about to bring a great evil upon ourselves.”
- ¶20. But there was another man, Uriah ben-Shemaiah from Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied in the name of Jehovah, and he prophesied against this city and against this country in line with all the words of Jehovah.
21. And when King Jehoiakim and all his mighty men and all the rulers heard his words, the king sought to kill him. But Uriah heard of it, and was afraid and fled, and he went to Egypt.
22. Then King Jehoiakim sent Egyptian men with Elnathan ben-Achbor and the men with him into Egypt,
23. and they fetched Uriah from Egypt and brought him to King Jehoiakim, who killed him with a sword and had his dead body dumped in the graves of the common people.

24. Nevertheless, the hand of Ahikam ben-Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that he should not be turned over into the hand of the people, to put him to death.

Jeremiah 27

- ¶1. At the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim ben-Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying,
- 2. "Thus Jehovah said to me: Make for yourself straps and yoke-bars, and put them on your neck.
- 3. Then send them to the king of Edom, and the king of Moab, and the king of the children of Ammon, and the king of Tyre, and the king of Sidon by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah, king of Judah.
- 4. And you shall give them a commandment for their kings, saying, 'Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel.' Thus shall you tell your kings:
- 5. 'I, even I, by my great power and outstretched arm, made the earth and man and beast which are on the face of the earth, and I give it to whom it seems right to me.
- 6. And I, even I, have now given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, my slave. And the beast of the field also have I given to him, to serve him.
- 7. And all nations shall serve him and his son, and his son's son, until the time of his own land comes, even his. Yea, many nations and great kings shall serve him.
- 8. And it shall come to pass that the nation and kingdom that will not serve him, Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, nor put the yoke of the king of Babylon on their neck, I will punish that nation with the sword and with famine and with the plague, says Jehovah, until I have put an end to them by his hand.
- 9. Do not listen to your prophets, or your diviners, or your dreamers, or your soothsayers, or your sorcerers when they tell you, "You will not serve the king of Babylon."
- 10. For they are prophesying a lie to you, so that I remove you far from your land and drive you out and you perish.
- 11. But the nation that brings its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serves him, I will cause them to rest in their own land, says Jehovah, and they shall work it and dwell there."
- 12. And I spoke according to all these words to Zedekiah the king of Judah, saying, "Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live!"
- 13. Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, and by famine, and by the plague, as Jehovah has said of the nation that does not serve the king of Babylon?
- 14. And do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, 'You will not serve the king of Babylon,' for they are prophesying a lie to you!
- 15. For I have not sent them, says Jehovah, and they prophesy falsely in my name, that I might drive you out and you die—you and the prophets who prophesy to you."

16. And so I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, "Thus says Jehovah: Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, 'Behold! The vessels of the house of Jehovah shall now be soon returned from Babylon!' For they are prophesying a lie to you!"
17. Do not listen to them! Serve the king of Babylon, and you will live! For why should this city become a desolation?
18. And if they be prophets, or if the word of Jehovah be with them, let them now make intercession to Jehovah of Hosts, that the vessels which remain in the house of Jehovah, and in the house of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem not go into Babylon.
19. For thus says Jehovah of Hosts concerning the pillars, and the sea, and the bases, and the rest of the vessels that remain in this city,
20. which Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon did not take away when he took Jeconiah ben-Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem, into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.
21. For thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain of the house of Jehovah, and the house of the king of Judah, and Jerusalem:
22. They shall be taken to Babylon, and they will be there until the day I visit them, says Jehovah. Then, I will bring them up and return them to this place."

Jeremiah 28

- ¶1. And it came to pass that same year, at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah the king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that Hananiah ben-Azzur, the prophet who was from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of Jehovah, in the presence of the priests and all the people, saying,
2. "Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon!
3. Within two years, I will return to this place all the vessels of the house of Jehovah which Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon took from this place and carried to Babylon.
4. And I will return to this place Jeconiah ben-Jehoiakim the king of Judah with all the captives of Judah who went to Babylon, says Jehovah, for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon!"
5. Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Hananiah the prophet in the sight of the priests and in the sight of all the people who were standing in the house of Jehovah,
6. and Jeremiah the prophet said, "Amen! Jehovah do so! And may Jehovah make your words to stand which you prophesied, and return the vessels of the house of Jehovah, and the whole captivity from Babylon, to this place!"
7. Only hear, I pray, this word which I will speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people.
8. There were prophets before me and before you in olden times, and they prophesied of war, and famine, and plague to many lands and concerning great kingdoms.

9. As for the prophet who prophesies peace, it will be known that Jehovah has truly sent that prophet when the word of the prophet comes to pass."
10. Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke off the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, and broke it in pieces.
11. And Hananiah spoke in the sight of all the people, saying, "Thus says Jehovah: Thus will I break off the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within two years!" And Jeremiah the prophet went his way.
- ¶12. And the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah after Hananiah the prophet broke the yoke off the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, saying,
13. "Go and speak to Hananiah, saying, 'Thus says Jehovah: You have broken the yoke-bars of wood, but you have made in their place yoke-bars of iron.'
14. For thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: I will put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations that they might serve Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and they will serve him. Yea, even the beast of the field have I given him.'"
15. And so, Jeremiah the prophet said to Hananiah the prophet, "Hear now, Hananiah! Jehovah did not send you, but you have made this people to trust in a lie."
16. Therefore, thus says Jehovah: Behold, I will remove you from the face of the earth. You will die this year because of apostasy. You have spoken against Jehovah."
17. So, Hananiah the prophet died that same year, in the seventh month.

Jeremiah 29

- ¶1. And these are the words of the letter which Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the remnant of the elders of the captivity, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon
2. (after king Jeconiah and the queen-mother had gone out of Jerusalem, along with the eunuchs, the rulers of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the smiths),
3. by the hand of Elasar ben-Shaphan and Gemariah ben-Hilkiah (whom Zedekiah the king of Judah had sent to Babylon, to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon), saying:
4. "Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel, to all the captivity whom I have sent into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon:
5. Build houses and dwell in them, and plant gardens and eat their fruit.
6. Take wives and have sons and daughters, and take wives for your sons and give your daughters to husbands, that they might bear sons and daughters and multiply there, and do not decrease.
7. And seek the welfare of the city where I have made you go into captivity, and pray to Jehovah for it, for in its peace, there will be peace for you.
8. For thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let your prophets and your diviners who are in your midst deceive you, and give no heed to your dreams that you cause to be dreamed!
9. For they prophesy falsely to you in my name. I have not sent them, says Jehovah!

10. For thus says Jehovah: When seventy years are fulfilled at Babylon, I will visit you, and I will fulfill my good word concerning you, to return you to this place.
 11. For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says Jehovah: thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope.
 12. And you will call upon me, and come and pray to me, and I will hear you.
 13. And you will seek me and find me, when you seek me with your whole heart.
 14. Yea, I will be found of you, says Jehovah, and I will bring back your captivity; yea, I will gather you from all the nations, even from all the places to which I have driven you, says Jehovah. Yea, I will return you to the place from which I caused you to go into captivity.
 15. Because you have said, ‘Jehovah has raised up prophets in Babylon for us,’
 16. therefore, thus says Jehovah to the king who sits on the throne of David and to all the people who dwell in this city concerning your kinsmen who did not go with you into captivity,
 17. thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Behold, I am sending against them the sword, famine, and the plague, and I will make them like rotten figs that are so bad they cannot be eaten.
 18. And I will pursue after them with the sword, and famine, and the plague, and I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of earth, an execration, and a detested thing, and an object of hissing, and a reproach among all the nations to which I drove them
 19. because they gave no heed to my words, says Jehovah, which I sent them by my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them. But you would not listen, says Jehovah.
 20. But hear now the word of Jehovah, all you of the captivity whom I sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon!
 21. Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel concerning Ahab ben-Kolaiah and Zedekiah ben-Maaseiah who prophesy a lie to you in my name: Behold, I am giving them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, and he will slay them before your eyes.
 22. And because of them a curse shall be taken up by all the captivity of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, ‘May Jehovah make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire!’
 23. For they have wrought folly in Israel; yea, they have committed adultery with their neighbors’ wives and have spoken lying words in my name which I did not command them—and I am He who knows and am witness! says Jehovah.
- ¶24. “And to Shemaiah the Nehelamite speak, saying,
25. Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Because you sent letters in your own name to all the people who are in Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah ben-Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

26. ‘Jehovah has made you priest in the place of Jehoiada the priest, to be overseers of the house of Jehovah, to deal with any man who acts crazy and makes himself out to be a prophet, to put him in stocks or in shackles.
 27. Now, therefore, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah the Anathothite who makes himself out to be a prophet to you?
 28. For he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, “The captivity will be long. Build houses and dwell in them; plant gardens and eat their fruit.””
 29. And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the hearing of Jeremiah the prophet.
- ¶30. Then the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah, saying,
31. “Send to all the captivity, saying, ‘Thus says Jehovah concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I did not send him, and has made you trust in a lie,
 32. therefore, thus says Jehovah: Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his seed. Not a man will he have dwelling in the midst of this people, nor will he see the good that I will do for my people, says Jehovah, because he has spoken rebellion against Jehovah.’”

Jeremiah 30

- ¶1. The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying,
2. “Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel: Write in a book all the words that I have spoken to you,
 3. for, behold, the days are coming, says Jehovah, when I will return the captivity of my people, Israel and Judah. Jehovah has spoken! And I will bring them back to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.”
- ¶4. And these are the words which Jehovah spoke concerning Israel and Judah:
5. “For thus Jehovah has said: We have heard a voice of trembling, of terror! Yea, there is no peace.
 6. Ask now, and see if a male gives birth. Why do I see every man with his hands on his loins like a woman in labor, and every face turned pale?
 7. Ah! For that day will be so dreadful that none will be like it. It is the time of Jacob’s distress. However, by it, he will be saved.
 8. And it shall come to pass on that day, says Jehovah of Hosts, that I will break his yoke off your neck, and I will tear apart your fetters. And foreigners will no longer enslave him.
 9. And they will serve Jehovah their God and David their King, whom I will raise up for them.
- ¶10. “But as for you, do not be afraid, O Jacob my servant, says Jehovah, nor be dismayed, O Israel! For behold, I will deliver you out of the distant place, and your seed from the land of their captivity. And Jacob will return and have quiet, and be at ease, and no one will make him afraid.

11. For I am with you, says Jehovah, to save you. I will surely make a complete end of all the nations where I scattered you, howbeit, I will not make a complete end of you, but will chastise you in measure, and by no means leave you unpunished.
- ¶12. "For thus says Jehovah: Your injury is incurable; your wound is grievous.
13. There is no one to plead your case for your wounding; there are no healing medicines for you.
14. All your lovers have forgotten you; they do not seek after you. For I wounded you with the wound of an enemy, chastisement by a cruel foe, because of the greatness of your iniquity. Your sins are many!
15. Why do you cry out over your affliction? Your pain is incurable because of the multitude of your iniquity. Your sins have multiplied, and I have done these things to you.
16. Therefore, all who devour you shall be devoured, and all of your enemies—all of them—shall go into captivity, and they who spoil you shall be a spoil, and all who prey on you will I make a prey.
17. For I will bring you health, and I will heal you of your wounds, says Jehovah, because they have called you, 'Outcast, this Zion whom no one wants.'
- ¶18. "Thus says Jehovah: Behold, I will undo the captivity of Jacob's tents, and I will have mercy on his dwelling places, and the city will be rebuilt over its ruins, and the fortress will stand in its proper place.
19. And out of them will come thanksgiving and the sound of those who make merry, and I will multiply them, and they will not be few. I will cause them to be honored, and they will not be disdained.
20. And his children will be as of old, and his congregation will be established before me, and I will punish all his oppressors.
21. His Prince will come from himself, and his Ruler will come out of his own loins, and I will cause him to come near and approach me. Who, pray tell, is he, this man who gave up his will to approach me? says Jehovah.
22. And you will be my people, and I will be your God.
- ¶23. Behold, the storm of Jehovah! Wrath has gone forth! A dreadful storm will burst upon the head of wicked men.
24. Jehovah's burning anger will not turn away until he has done it, until he has accomplished the purposes of His heart! In the latter days, you will fully understand it.

Jeremiah 31

- ¶1. "At that time, says Jehovah, I will be God to all the families of Israel, and they will be my people.
2. Thus says Jehovah: The people who survived the sword found grace in the wilderness. He will come to give Israel rest."

- ¶3. From afar, Jehovah appeared to me, saying, “Yea, with an everlasting love, I have loved you; therefore, in lovingkindness have I drawn you.
4. I will again build you, and you will be rebuilt, O virgin of Israel. You will yet adorn yourself with your timbrels and go forth in a dance of merrymakers.
5. You will yet plant vineyards in the mountains of Samaria; planters will plant and enjoy the fruit.
6. For there shall be a day when the watchmen will cry out in the hill-country of Ephraim, ‘Arise, and let us go up to Zion, to Jehovah our God!’”
- ¶7. “For thus says Jehovah: Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout for the foremost of nations! Proclaim it and give praise, and say, ‘O LORD! Save your people, the remnant of Israel!’
8. Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and I will gather them from the far reaches of the earth, among them the blind and lame, the woman with child, and she that travails with child, together; a great company will return here.
9. With weeping and with supplications will they come. I will bear them along, and I will bring them to streams of water along a smooth path wherein they will not stumble, for I am a Father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.”
- ¶10. “Hear the word of Jehovah, O Gentiles! Proclaim it in the distant isles and say, ‘He who scattered Israel will gather him, and He will watch over him as a shepherd does his flock.’
11. For Jehovah has ransomed Jacob and has redeemed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he.
12. And they will come forth and shout for joy on the height of Zion, and they will flow to the goodness of Jehovah, for the grain, and new wine, and fresh oil, and the young of flocks and herds. And their soul will be like a watered garden, and they will never languish again.
13. Then the virgin, together with young and old men, will rejoice in the dance, for I will have turned their mourning into joy, and I will comfort them and give them joy for their sorrow.
14. And I will satisfy the soul of the priests with abundance, and my people will be sated with my goodness, says Jehovah.”
- ¶15. “Thus says Jehovah: A voice is heard in Ramah, wailing and bitter weeping, Rachel weeping for her children, refusing to be comforted for her children, because they are not.”
- ¶16. “Thus says Jehovah: Refrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears, for there is a reward for your labor, says Jehovah, and they shall return from the land of the enemy!
17. Yea, there is hope for your latter end, says Jehovah, and your children shall return to their own territory.”

- ¶18. “I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself, saying, ‘You disciplined me, and I was disciplined, like an untrained calf. Oh, bring me back and let me be restored! For you are Jehovah my God.
- 19. Yea, after I turned away, I repented, and after I was instructed, I slapped the thigh. Yea, I was also ashamed and confounded, for I bore the disgrace of my youth.’
- 20. Isn’t Ephraim my precious son? Isn’t he a delightful child? Whenever I do speak against him, I earnestly remember him still. Therefore, my bowels groan for him. I will surely show him compassion, says Jehovah.”
- ¶21. “Erect signposts for yourself; establish guideposts for yourself. Set your heart on the highway, the road I walk. Return, O virgin of Israel! Return to these, your cities!
- 22. How long will you vacillate, O apostate daughter? For Jehovah has created a new thing in the earth: a woman will circumvent a man!”
- ¶23. “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: They will again say this thing in the land of Judah and in his cities when I return their captivity: ‘Jehovah bless you, O habitation of righteousness, O mountain of holiness!’
- 24. And Judah and all his cities will dwell in it together, ploughmen and those who move about with their flocks.
- 25. For I will give the weary soul drink, and every languishing soul will I fill.”
- 26. Upon this I awoke, and I saw, and my sleep was pleasant to me.
- ¶27. “Behold, the days are coming, says Jehovah, when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and the seed of beast.
- 28. And it shall come to pass that as I have watched over them to root out, and to tear down, and to overthrow, and to kill, and to bring evil, so will I watch over them to build up and to plant, says Jehovah.
- 29. In those days, they will no longer say, ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge.’
- 30. But each will die in his own iniquity; every man who eats sour grapes, his own teeth will be set on edge.”
- ¶31. “Behold, the days are coming, says Jehovah, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah,
- 32. not the kind of covenant that I made with their fathers in the day I took their hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, my covenant which they broke, even though I was their Husband, says Jehovah.
- 33. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says Jehovah: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their heart. And I will be their God, and they will be my people.

34. And they will no longer teach, each his fellow and each his brother, saying, ‘Know Jehovah! ’For they will all know me, from the least of them even to the greatest, says Jehovah. For I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin will I remember no more.”
- ¶35. “Thus says Jehovah, who gives ordinances, the sun for light by day and the moon and stars for light by night, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar—Jehovah of Hosts is His name:
36. If these ordinances depart from me, says Jehovah, the seed of Israel will also cease forever to be a nation before me!”
- ¶37. “Thus says Jehovah: If the heaven above be measured and the foundations of earth below be searched out, then will I reject all the seed of Israel because of all that they have done, says Jehovah.”
- ¶38. “Behold the days are coming, says Jehovah, when the city shall be rebuilt unto Jehovah, from the tower of Hananeel to the Corner Gate.
39. And the measuring line shall go out further, over the hill of Gareb and around to Goah.
40. And the whole valley of corpses and ashes, and all the fields to the brook Kidron to the corner of the Horse Gate, eastward, shall be holy to Jehovah. It shall never again be plucked up or thrown down.”

Jeremiah 32

- ¶1. The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah in the tenth year of Zedekiah, king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.
2. Now, at that time, the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was confined in the court of the guard that is at the house of the king of Judah,
3. where Zedekiah the king of Judah had confined him, saying, “Why have you prophesied, saying, ‘Thus says Jehovah: Behold, I am delivering this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it.’
4. And Zedekiah the king of Judah will not escape from the hand of the Chaldeans, for he will most assuredly be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall look into his eyes,
5. and he will take Zedekiah to Babylon. And there he will be until I visit him, says Jehovah. Though you fight against the Chaldeans, you will not win’?”
- ¶6. And Jeremiah said, “The word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
7. Behold, Hanameel ben-Shallum your uncle is coming to you to say, ‘Buy my field which is at Anathoth, for you have the right of redemption to buy it.’
8. And then Hanameel the son of my uncle came to me, according to the word of Jehovah, to the court of the guard, and he said to me, ‘Buy, I pray you, my field which

- is at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin, for the right of possession is yours, and the redemption is yours. Buy it for yourself.' And I knew it was the word of Jehovah.
9. And so, from Hanameel the son of my uncle, I bought the field which was at Anathoth, and I weighed out the money for him, seventeen shekels of silver.
 10. Then I signed the deed, and I affixed the seal, and I had witnesses to witness it, and I weighed out the money in balances.
 11. And I took the sealed deed of purchase, in accordance with the custom and statutes, with the open copy,
 12. and I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch ben-Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanameel the son of my uncle, and in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of purchase, before all the Judeans who were sitting in the court of the guard.
 13. And I gave a command to Baruch in their sight, saying,
 14. 'Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel, "Take these deeds, this deed of purchase, even the sealed copy, and this open deed, and put them in an earthen vessel so that they may last many days.
 15. For thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards will again be purchased in this land."'"
- ¶16. And I prayed to Jehovah after I had given the deed of purchase to Baruch ben-Neriah, saying,
17. "Oh, my Lord, Jehovah! Behold, you made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm. Nothing is too hard for you,
 18. who shows mercy to thousands, and requites the iniquity of fathers into the bosom of their sons after them! The Great and Mighty God, Jehovah of Hosts is His name,
 19. who is great in counsel and mighty in deed! Your eyes are open to all the ways of the sons of man, to give to each one according to his ways and according to the fruit of his deeds,
 20. who produced signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, and to this day both in Israel and among other men, that you might make a name for yourself, as at this day.
 21. Moreover, you brought forth your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, and with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and with great terror.
 22. And you gave them this land, which you swore to give to their fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey,
 23. and they came in and took possession of it. But they would not heed your voice or walk in your law. They did not do all that you commanded them to do, and so, you caused all this evil to come upon them.
 24. Behold, the siege mounds! They have come against this city to take it. And by the edge of the sword, and famine, and the plague, the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, which you said would happen. Yea, behold, you are seeing it.

25. Yet, you said to me, my Lord Jehovah, ‘Purchase the field with the silver, and get witnesses.’ But the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans!”
- ¶26. Then the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah, saying,
27. “Behold, I am Jehovah, the God of all flesh. Is anything too hard for me?
28. Therefore, thus says Jehovah: Behold, I am giving this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar, the king of Babylon, and he will take it!
29. And the Chaldeans who are fighting against this city will come in and set this city afire, and they will burn it up, with the houses upon whose roofs they made sacrifice to Baal and poured out libations to other gods, to provoke me to anger.
30. That is the way the children of Israel and the children of Judah have been from their youth, doing only what is evil in my sight. Yea, the children of Israel have done nothing but provoke me to wrath with the work of their hands, says Jehovah.
31. For this city has provoked my anger and my wrath from the day they built it even to this day, that I might remove it from before my face
32. because of all the evil of the children of Israel and the children of Judah which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their rulers, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
33. Yea, they have turned their back to me and not their face, though I taught them. I have risen up early and taught them, but none of them would listen to receive instruction.
34. And they have placed their detestable things in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.
35. And they have built high places for Baal in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire for Molech, which I did not command them; neither did it enter into my heart that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.
36. And now, therefore, thus says Jehovah, God of Israel, concerning this city, which you say is given into the hand of the king of Babylon, by the sword, and by famine, and by the plague:
37. Behold, I will gather them from all the countries to which I banished them in my anger, and in my wrath, and in great indignation, and I will bring them back to this place and cause them to dwell safely,
38. and they will be my people, and I will be their God.
39. And I will give them one heart and one way, that they might fear me always, for their good and for the good of their children after them.
40. And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them and cease to do them good, and I will put my fear in their heart so that they do not turn away from me.
41. And I will rejoice over them, to do them good, and in faithfulness will I plant them in this land with all my heart and with all my soul.

42. For thus says Jehovah: Just as I have brought upon this people all this great evil, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have spoken concerning them.
43. Fields will be purchased again in this land, concerning which you say, ‘It is desolate, without man or beast. It is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.’
44. They shall purchase fields with silver, and sign the deed, and seal it, and get witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in areas around Jerusalem, and in cities of Judah, and in cities of the hill country, and in cities of the Shephelah, and in cities of the Negev, for I will return their captivity, says Jehovah.”

Jeremiah 33

- ¶1. And the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah a second time while he was still confined in the court of the guard, saying,
2. “Thus says Jehovah, who created the earth, Jehovah who formed it and established it (Jehovah is His name!):
3. Call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will show you great, inaccessible things that you do not know.
4. For thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city and the houses of the kings of Judah that were pulled down to defend against the siege mounds and the sword:
5. Men are coming to fight with the Chaldeans and to satisfy them with human corpses whom I will have killed in my anger and in my wrath, yea, because I have hidden my face from this city because of all their evil.
6. Behold, I will bring it restoration and healing, and I will heal them and reveal to them an abundance of peace and truth.
7. And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and I will build them up as at the beginning.
8. And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity whereby they sinned against me, and I will pardon all of their iniquities whereby they have sinned against me and whereby they have transgressed against me.
9. And the city will give me a reputation for joy, for praise, and for glory before all the nations of the earth who hear of all the good that I will do for them, and they will fear and tremble because of all the good and all the prosperity that I will provide for it.
10. Thus says Jehovah: There shall be heard again in this place, about which you yourselves say, ‘It is desolate, without man and without beast,’ even in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, which are desolate without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast,
11. the voice of rejoicing and the voice of gladness, the voice of a bridegroom and the voice of a bride, the voice of those saying, ‘Give thanks to Jehovah of Hosts, for Jehovah is good, for His mercy endures forever,’ as they bring a thanksgiving offering to the house of Jehovah! For I will cause the captivity of the land to return as in the beginning, says Jehovah.

12. Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: In this place that is desolate, with neither man nor beast, and in all its cities, there will again be a habitation of shepherds giving rest to flocks.
13. In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the Shephelah, and in the cities of the Negev and in the territory of Benjamin, and in the areas around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, flocks will again pass under the hands of one who counts them, says Jehovah.
- ¶14. “Behold, the days are coming, says Jehovah, when I will bring to pass the good word which I have declared concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah.
15. And in those days, and at that time, I will cause David’s righteous Branch to come up, and he will execute justice and righteousness on earth.
16. In those days, Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will dwell securely, and this is what Jehovah will call her: Our Righteousness.
17. For thus says Jehovah, ‘David will not lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel,
18. and the priests, the Levites, will not lack a man to offer a burnt offering before me, or burn a grain offering, or make sacrifice, forever.’”
- ¶19. And the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah saying,
20. “Thus says Jehovah: If you can break my covenant of the day and my covenant of the night, so that there is no day and night in their appointed time,
21. then my covenant with David my servant, that he will have a son to reign on his throne, may also be broken, as well as my covenant with the Levites, the priests, my ministers.
22. As the host of the heavens cannot be numbered and the sand of the sea cannot be measured, thus will I multiply the seed of David my servant and of the Levites who minister to me.”
- ¶23. And the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah, saying,
24. “Have you not considered what this people have spoken, saying, ‘The two families that Jehovah chose, He has rejected,’ and they so despise my people that in their eyes, they are no longer a nation?
25. Thus says Jehovah: If I have not established my ordinance of day and night, or laws for heaven and earth,
26. then I will reject the seed of Jacob, and of David my servant, that I should take of his descendants rulers for the children of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I will bring their captives back and show them compassion!”

Jeremiah 34

- ¶1. The word which came to Jeremiah from Jehovah when Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of earth under his dominion, and all the nations were fighting against Jerusalem and all her cities, saying,

2. "Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel: Go and speak to Zedekiah, king of Judah, and say to him, 'Thus says Jehovah: Behold, I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it up with fire,
 3. and you will not escape his hand, but will assuredly be captured and given into his hand. Moreover, your eyes will look into the eyes of the king of Babylon, and his mouth will speak with your mouth, and then you will go to Babylon.
 4. Nevertheless, hear the word of Jehovah, O Zedekiah, king of Judah! Thus says Jehovah concerning you: You will not die by the sword;
 5. you will die peacefully, and as were the burnings for your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they shall make a burning for you. And they will lament for you, "Alas, O lord!" For I myself have spoken this word, says Jehovah."
 6. Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah the king of Judah in Jerusalem
 7. when the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that remained, against Lachish and Azekah, for they alone were left of the cities of Judah as fortified cities.
- ¶8. The word which came from Jehovah to Jeremiah after king Zedekiah made a covenant with all the people who were in Jerusalem to proclaim for them a liberty,
9. that each would let his manservant and his maidservant who was a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman go free, that he would not hold them, his kinsman, a Jew, as a slave.
 10. And all the princes and all the people who entered into the covenant obeyed; each let his male servant and his female servant go free. They did not enslave them any longer, but they obeyed and released them.
 11. But afterward, they turned and made the male servants and female servants return whom they had sent away free, and they brought them back into bondage as male servants and female servants.
- ¶12. Then the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying,
13. "Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slaves, saying,
 14. 'In the seventh year, each of you shall let his Hebrew brother go who has sold himself to you. When he has served you six years, then you shall send him away from you, free.' But your fathers did not give heed or incline their ear to me.
 15. But you had now repented and done what was right in my eyes, each to proclaim liberty to his fellow, and you made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name!
 16. But then, you turned and profaned my name, and each made his manservant and female servant return, whom you had let go free as they desired, and you brought them into bondage to be your male servants and female servants!
 17. Therefore, thus says Jehovah: You have not obeyed me to proclaim liberty, each for his kinsman and each for his neighbor. Behold, I am proclaiming a liberty for you, says

Jehovah, to the sword, to the plague, and to famine! And I will make you a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.

18. And I will make the men who transgressed my covenant, who did not abide by the terms of the covenant which they made before me, like the calf which they cut in two and passed between its parts,
19. the princes of Judah and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs and the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf.
20. And I will deliver them into the hand of their enemies and the hand of those who seek their life, and their carcasses will be food for the birds of the air and beasts of the earth.
21. And Zedekiah the king of Judah and his princes will I deliver into the hand of their enemies and the hand of those who seek their life, even into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon which has gone away from you.
22. Behold, I will command, says Jehovah, and I will bring them back to this city, and they will fight against it, and take it, and burn it up with fire! And I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant!"

Jeremiah 35

- ¶1. The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah in the days of Jehoiakim ben-Josiah, the king of Judah, saying,
2. "Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak to them, and bring them to the house of Jehovah, to one of the chambers, and have them drink wine."
3. And so, I took Jaazaniah ben-Jeremiah, son of Habazziniah, and his brothers and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites,
4. and I brought them to the house of Jehovah, to the chamber of the sons of Hanan ben-Igdaliah, the man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes which was above the chamber of Maaseiah ben-Shallum the doorkeeper.
5. Then I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls filled with wine, and cups. And I said to them, "Drink wine!"
6. But they said, "We do not drink wine. For Jonadab ben-Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, 'You are never to drink wine, you or your children.'
7. Nor shall you build a house, or sow seed, or plant a vineyard. Nor shall you own anything. But you shall live in tents all your days, and so shall you continue many days on the face of the land in which you sojourn.'
8. And we have obeyed the voice of Jonadab ben-Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, and our daughters.
9. Nor have we built houses for us to dwell in, nor have we vineyard, or field, or seed.
10. But we have lived in tents, and obeyed and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

11. And it came to pass when Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, came up against the land, that we said, ‘Come, and let us go into Jerusalem, away from the army of the Chaldeans and the army of Aram, and we will live in Jerusalem.’”
- ¶12. Then the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah, saying,
13. “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Go and say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, ‘Will you not receive instruction, and hear my words? says Jehovah.
14. The words of Jonadab ben-Rechab which he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are obeyed, and to this day, they have drunk none, for they have obeyed their father’s commandment. But I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, but you have not obeyed me!
15. And I sent you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, “Repent, I beseech you, every one of his evil way, and make your deeds good, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and dwell in the land that I gave to you and your fathers.” But you would not incline your ear, nor would you listen to me!
16. Because the sons of Jonadab ben-Rechab have obeyed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people have not obeyed me,
17. therefore, thus says Jehovah, the God of Hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I am bringing upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them, for I have spoken to them but they would not hear, and I called to them, but they would not answer.””
18. Then to the house of the Rechabites, Jeremiah said, “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Inasmuch as you have obeyed the command of Jonadab your father, and kept all his commands, and done according to all that he commanded you,
19. thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: there shall not fail a man of Jonadab ben-Rechab to stand before me forever!”

Jeremiah 36

- ¶1. And it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim ben-Josiah, king of Judah, that this message came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying,
2. “Take a roll of a book and write upon it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I began to speak to you, from the days of Josiah even until this day.
3. It may be that the house of Judah will hear of all the evil that I intend to do to them and turn, every man, from his evil way, that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.”
4. So, Jeremiah called Baruch ben-Neriah, and Baruch wrote in the roll of a book, from Jeremiah’s mouth, all the words of Jehovah that He had spoken to him.
5. And Jeremiah gave a commandment to Baruch, saying, “I am restrained; I cannot go to the house of Jehovah.

6. But you go on a day of fasting and read the scroll which you have written from my mouth, the words of Jehovah, in the ears of the people at the house of Jehovah, and read them also in the ears of all Judah who come in from their cities.
7. It may be that their plea will come before Jehovah, and that every man will turn from his evil way, for great is the anger and wrath which Jehovah has pronounced against this people.”
8. And Baruch ben-Neriah did all that Jeremiah the prophet had commanded him, reading from the scroll the words of Jehovah at Jehovah’s house,
9. for it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim ben-Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that all the people in Jerusalem and all the people who came to Jerusalem from the cities of Judah proclaimed a fast before Jehovah.
10. And in the ears of all the people, Baruch read the words of Jeremiah from the scroll at the house of Jehovah at the chamber of Gemariah ben-Shaphan, the scribe, in the upper court at the entry of the new gate of the house of Jehovah.
11. When Micaiah ben-Gemariah the son of Shaphan heard all the words of Jehovah from the scroll,
12. he went down to the king’s house, into the scribe’s chamber, and behold, all the princes were sitting there: Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah ben-Shemaiah, and Elnathan ben-Achbor, and Gemariah ben-Shaphan, and Zedekiah ben-Hananiah, and all the princes.
13. And Micaiah reported to them all the words that he heard when Baruch read the scroll in the ears of the people.
14. Then all the princes sent Jehudi ben-Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi to Baruch, saying, “Take in your hand the roll that you read in the ears of the people, and come!” So, Baruch ben-Neriah took the roll in his hand and came to them.
15. And they said to him, “Sit down, we pray, and read it in our ears.” So, Baruch began reading in their ears.
16. And it came to pass when they had heard all the words that they turned in fear to one another, and they said to Baruch, “We must certainly report all these things to the king!”
17. And they asked Baruch, saying, “Tell us, we pray, how did you write all these things from his mouth?”
18. And Baruch said to them, “With his mouth, he spoke all these words to me, and I wrote them in the scroll with ink.”
19. Then the princes said to Baruch, “You go hide, you and Jeremiah, and let no man know where you are.”
20. And they went to the king in the courtyard, but they put the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, then they reported in the hearing of the king all these things.
21. And the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll, and he took it from the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and Jehudi read it in the hearing of the king, and in the hearing of all the princes who were standing by the king.

22. Now, the king was sitting in the winter-house in the ninth month, with a brazier burning before him,
 23. and it came to pass when Jehudi had read three or four columns, he cut it up with a penknife and threw it into the fire that was on the brazier until the entire roll was consumed in the fire that was on the brazier.
 24. And neither the king nor any of his servants who heard all these words were afraid; nor did they rend their garments.
 25. Now, Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah had urged the king not to burn up the roll, but he would not listen to them.
 26. Then the king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, and Seraiah ben-Azriel, and Shelemiah ben-Abdeel to arrest Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. But Jehovah kept them hidden.
- ¶27. And after the king burned up the roll and the words that Baruch had written from the mouth of Jeremiah, the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah the prophet, saying,
28. "Take yet another roll and write on it all the previous words which were on the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah burned up.
 29. And concerning Jehoiakim the king of Judah, you shall say, 'Thus says Jehovah: You burned up that roll, saying, "Why have you written on it, saying, "The king of Babylon shall surely come and destroy this land, and cause man and beast to cease from it?"'
 30. Therefore, thus says Jehovah concerning Jehoiakim the king of Judah: He shall have no one sitting on the throne of David! And his dead body shall be thrown out to the heat by day and the frost by night.
 31. And I will visit upon him, and upon his seed, and upon his servants their iniquity, and I will bring upon them, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the men of Judah all the evil that I have spoken to them, but they would not listen.'"
 32. And so, Jeremiah took another roll and gave it to Baruch ben-Neriah the scribe, and he wrote on it, from the mouth of Jeremiah, all the words of the scroll which Jehoiakim the king of Judah had burned up in the fire. And to them were many more words like them added.

Jeremiah 37

- ¶1. Now, king Zedekiah ben-Josiah reigned instead of Coniah ben-Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, had made king in the land of Judah.
2. But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land would listen to the words of Jehovah which He spoke by the hand of Jeremiah the prophet.
3. And king Zedekiah sent Jehucal ben-Shelemiah and Zephaniah ben-Maaseiah, the priest, to Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "Make intercession for us, I pray you, to Jehovah our God."
4. Now, Jeremiah was coming in and going out among the people, for they had not put him in the prison house.

5. And the army of Pharaoh had come forth from Egypt, and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard their report, they got themselves up from Jerusalem.
 6. Then the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah the prophet, saying,
 7. "Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel: Thus shall you men say to the king of Judah who sent you to me, to inquire of me: 'Behold, the army of Pharaoh who came forth to help you is going back to Egypt, his land.'
 8. And the Chaldeans will return and fight against this city, and they will take it and burn it up with fire.
 9. Thus says Jehovah: Do not deceive yourselves, thinking, 'The Chaldeans will surely go away from us, for they will not go away.'
 10. Yea, even if you should strike down the whole army of the Chaldeans who are fighting against you, and there only remain of them men pierced through, each in his tent, they would rise up and burn this city with fire!"
- ¶11. And it came to pass when the army of the Chaldeans had gone up from Jerusalem because of the army of Pharaoh,
12. that Jeremiah left Jerusalem to go to the territory of Benjamin, to receive a portion there among his people.
 13. But when he came to the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there named Irijah ben-Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah, and he laid hold on Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "You are falling away to the Chaldeans!"
 14. And Jeremiah said, "It is not true! I am not deserting to the Chaldeans." But he would not listen to him, and so, Irijah laid hold on Jeremiah and took him to the princes.
 15. And the princes were furious against Jeremiah, and they beat him and put him in the prison house, the house of Jonathan the scribe, for they had made it a prison.
 16. So, Jeremiah went into the dungeon, even to the cells, and Jeremiah remained there many days.
- ¶17. Then king Zedekiah, sent and fetched him, and the king questioned him secretly in his house. And he said, "Is there a word from Jehovah?" And Jeremiah said, "There is." Then he said, "You will be given into the hand of the king of Babylon."
18. Jeremiah also said to king Zedekiah, "What is my sin against you, or your servants, or this people, that you men have put me in prison?
 19. And where are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, 'The king of Babylon will not come against you or against this land'?
 20. But now, if you will, hear, my lord the king, and let my plea come before you, I pray, and do not send me back to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there."
 21. And so, king Zedekiah, commanded, and they committed Jeremiah to the court of the guard, and a loaf of bread was given to him daily from the street of bakers until all the bread was gone from the city. And Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

- ¶1. And Shephatiah ben-Mattan, and Gedaliah ben-Pashhur, and Jucal ben-Shelemiah, and Pashhur ben-Malchiah heard the words which Jeremiah was speaking to all the people, saying,
2. "Thus says Jehovah: He who stays in this city will die by the sword, by famine, or by the plague, but he who goes out to the Chaldeans will live, and his life will be his spoil, and he will live.
 3. Thus says Jehovah: This city will surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he will take it!"
 4. Then the princes said to the king, "Now, this man should be put to death for this. He is weakening the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, as well as the hands of all the people, telling them such things as these. This man certainly is not seeking the welfare of this people, but their harm."
 5. And king Zedekiah said, "Behold, he is in your hands, for the king can do nothing against you."
 6. And so, they took Jeremiah and cast him into the pit of Malchiah, the king's son, which was in the court of the guard, lowering Jeremiah with ropes. And there was no water in the pit, only mud, and Jeremiah sank down into the mud.
 7. And Ebed-melech,¹⁸ the Cushite, a eunuch who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the pit. And the king was sitting in the gate of Benjamin.
 8. So, Ebed-melech went out from the king's house and spoke to the king, saying,
 9. "My lord, the king, these men have done evil in all they did to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the pit. He may well die of hunger down there, for there is no more bread in the city."
 10. Then the king gave a command to Ebed-melech the Cushite, saying, "Take charge of thirty men from here and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the pit before he dies."
 11. So, Ebed-melech took charge of the men and went in to the house of the king, beneath the treasury, and he took from there worn-out clothes and old rags, and he lowered them with ropes to Jeremiah in the pit.
 12. And Ebed-melech the Cushite said to Jeremiah, "Put now the worn-out clothes and rags under your armpits, underneath the ropes." And Jeremiah did so.
 13. And they drew Jeremiah up with the ropes and brought him up from the pit. And Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.
- ¶14. And king Zedekiah sent and brought Jeremiah the prophet to him at the third entrance that is in the house of Jehovah, and the king said to Jeremiah, "I am going to ask you something; do not hide anything from me."
15. And Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I tell you, will you not certainly put me to death? And if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me."

¹⁸ This name means "servant of the king".

16. Then king Zedekiah swore to Jeremiah secretly, saying, “By the life of Jehovah who created this life for us, may He damn me if I put you to death or deliver you into the hands of those men who seek your life!”
17. Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “Thus says Jehovah, the God of Hosts, the God of Israel: If only you will go out to the captains of the king of Babylon, your soul will live and this city will not be burned up with fire, and you and your house will live.
18. But if you do not go out to the captains of the king of Babylon, then this city will be delivered into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they will burn it up with fire. And you shall not escape from their hand.”
19. And king Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “I am afraid of the Judeans who have fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand and they abuse me.”
20. But Jeremiah said, “They will not turn you over. Listen, I beseech you, to the voice of Jehovah—to what I am saying to you!—and it will go well for you, and your soul will live!
21. But if you refuse to go out, this is the thing that Jehovah has shown me:
22. Behold, all the women who remain in the house of the king of Judah were being brought out to the princes of the king of Babylon, and behold, they were saying to you, ‘Your companions incited you to rebel and prevailed against you! Your feet are sunk down in the mire, and they have slunk away.’
23. And they will bring all your wives and all your children out to the Chaldeans. And you shall not escape from their hand, but you will be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon. And you will burn up this city with fire.”
24. And Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Let no one know of these words, and you shall not die.
25. For when the princes hear that I have spoken with you, they will come to you and say to you, ‘Tell us now what you told the king. Do not hide it from us, and we will not put you to death. And what did the king tell you?’
26. But you say to them, ‘I was making supplication before the king that he would not return me to the house of Jonathan, to die there.’”
27. And all the princes did come to Jeremiah, and they questioned him. And he answered them according to all those words which the king had commanded. So, they spoke with him no more (for the conversation had not been overheard).
28. And Jeremiah stayed in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken. And he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

Jeremiah 39

- ¶1. In the ninth year of Zedekiah, king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.
2. In the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the city was breached.

3. And all the princes of the king of Babylon entered and sat in the middle gate: Nergal-sarezer, Samgar-nebo, Sar-sechim, chief eunuch, Nergal-sarezer, chief soothsayer, and all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.
 4. And it came to pass that when Zedekiah, king of Judah, and all the men of war, saw them, that they fled, and the men of war went out of the city by night by way of the gate between the two walls that are by the king's garden, but the king went out the way of the plain.
 5. And the army of the Chaldeans pursued them, and they overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. And they captured him and brought him up to Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, to Riblah in the territory of Hamath, and he pronounced judgments upon him.
 6. And the king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiah's children before his eyes in Riblah, and the king of Babylon slaughtered all the nobles of Judah.
 7. Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and he bound him with bronze shackles to bring him to Babylon.
 8. And the house of the king and the houses of the people, the Chaldeans burned up with fire, and they tore down the walls of Jerusalem.
 9. And Nebuzaradan, chief of the guards, carried away captive to Babylon the rest of the people who were left in the city, and those who had fallen away, who fell away to him, along with the rest of the people who were left.
 10. But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left the poor of the people, those who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and he gave them vineyards and fields that same day.
 11. And Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, gave command concerning Jeremiah by the hand of Nebuzaradan, chief of the guards, saying,
 12. "Take him and keep your eyes on him, and do him no harm at all, but do with him just as he tells you."
 13. And he sent Nebuzaradan, chief of the guards, and Nebushazban, chief eunuch, and Nergal-sarezer, chief soothsayer, and all the princes of the king of Babylon,
 14. and they sent and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard, and gave him to Gedaliah ben-Ahikam, son of Shaphan, to take him to his house. So, he lived among the people.
- ¶15. And the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah while he was detained in the court of the guard, saying,
16. "Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Cushite, saying, 'Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I am bringing against this city my words for evil and not for good, and they will be before you on that day.'
 17. But I will deliver you on that day, says Jehovah, and you will not be given into the hand of those men, of whom you are afraid,
 18. for I will certainly rescue you, and you will not fall by the sword. And your life will be your spoil because you trusted in me, says Jehovah.'"

Jeremiah 40

- ¶1. The thing from Jehovah that happened to Jeremiah after Nebuzaradan, chief of the guards, released him from Ramah where he had taken him when he was bound with chains in the midst of all the captives from Jerusalem and Judah which were carried away to Babylon.
2. And the chief of the guards took Jeremiah and said to him, “Jehovah your God pronounced this evil against this place,
3. and Jehovah has brought it about and done just as He said. Because you sinned against Jehovah and would not listen to His voice, this thing has come upon you.
4. But behold, I have now freed you today from the chains that were on your hands. If it is pleasing in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will keep watch over you, but if it is bad in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, refrain. Behold, the whole land is before you. Wherever seems good and right in your eyes to go, go there!”
5. Now, while he had still not returned, he said, “Return to Gedaliah ben-Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the cities of Judah, and return with him among the people, or go wherever is right in your eyes to go.” Then the chief of the guards gave him a meal allowance and a gift, and he sent him away.
6. Then Jeremiah came to Gedaliah ben-Ahikam at Mizpah, and he dwelt with him among the people who were left in the land.
7. And when all the captains of the armies who were in the countryside, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah ben-Ahikam over the land, and that he had put him in charge of the men, and women, and children, even the poor of the land, those who were not carried captive into Babylon,
8. they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, even Ishmael ben-Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan, the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah ben-Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ophai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah, son of the Maachathite, they and their men.
9. And Gedaliah ben-Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, swore to them and to their men, saying, “Do not be afraid of serving the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.
10. And as for me, behold, I will stay at Mizpah to present myself before the Chaldeans who will come to us. But as for you, gather wine, and summer fruit, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities which you have seized.”
11. Likewise, when all the Jews who were in Moab, and with the children of Ammon, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah and that he had appointed over them Gedaliah ben-Ahikam, the son of Shaphan,

12. then all the Jews returned out of all the places into which they had been driven, and they came to the land of Judah unto Gedaliah at Mizpah, and they gathered a great abundance of wine and summer fruit.
13. Then Johanan ben-Kareah and all the captains of the armies who were in the countryside came to Gedaliah at Mizpah,
14. and they said to him, “Did you know that Baalis, king of the children of Ammon, has sent Ishmael ben-Nethaniah to kill you?” But Gedaliah ben-Ahikam did not believe them.
15. Then Johanan ben-Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in private in Mizpah, saying, “I ask of you, let me go, and let me kill Ishmael ben-Nethaniah, and no one will find out. Why should someone kill you and all the Jews who are gathered to you be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish?”
16. But Gedaliah ben-Ahikam said to Johanan ben-Kareah, “You shall not do this thing, for you are telling a lie about Ishmael!”

Jeremiah 41

- ¶1. And it came to pass in the seventh month, Ishmael ben-Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal seed, and ten men with him, as well as captains of the king, came to Gedaliah ben-Ahikam at Mizpah, and they ate bread together there at Mizpah.
2. And Ishmael ben-Nethaniah rose up with the ten men who were with him and slew Gedaliah ben-Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword. Thus he killed the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land.
3. Ishmael also slew all the Jews who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war.
4. And it came to pass on the second day after he had killed Gedaliah, when no one knew,
5. that men were coming in from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, eighty men with shaved beards and torn clothes and cuts. And an offering and incense was in their hands to bring to the house of Jehovah.
6. And Ishmael ben-Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, going all along weeping. And it came to pass when he met them that he told them, “Come to Gedaliah ben-Ahikam.”
7. But it came to pass when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael ben-Nethaniah slew them, throwing them into the midst of the pit, he and the men who were with him.
8. But ten men were found among them who said to Ishmael, “Do not kill us, for we have goods hidden in the field: wheat, and barley, and oil, and honey.” So, he stopped and did not kill them among their brothers.
9. Now, the pit into which Ishmael threw all the corpses of the men whom he had slain because of Gedaliah was the same pit which King Asa made because of Baasha, king of Israel. Ishmael ben-Nethaniah filled it with the slain.

10. Then Ishmael took captive all the remnant of the people who were in Mizpah, the daughters of the king and all the people who were left in Mizpah, over which Nebuzaradan, chief of the guards, had appointed Gedaliah ben-Ahikam. And Ishmael ben-Nethaniah took them captive and went to pass over to the children of Ammon.
11. But when Johanan ben-Kareah and all the captains of the armies who were with him heard of all the evil that Ishmael ben-Nethaniah had done,
12. they took all their men and they went to do battle with Ishmael ben-Nethaniah, and they found him by the great waters which are by Gibeon.
13. And it came to pass when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan ben-Kareah and all the captains of the armies who were with him, they rejoiced.
14. And all the people whom Ishmael took captive from Mizpah turned around and went back, and they came to Johanan ben-Kareah.
15. But Ishmael ben-Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and he went to the children of Ammon.
16. Then, Johanan ben-Kareah and all the captains of the armies who were with him took all the remnant of the people from Mizpah whom he had recovered from Ishmael ben-Nethaniah after he had slain Gedaliah ben-Ahikam, mighty men of war, and women, and children, and eunuchs, those who he recovered at Gibeon.
17. And they went and stayed at the khan of Chimham, which was near Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt,
18. to flee from the Chaldeans, for they were afraid of them because Ishmael ben-Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah ben-Ahikam whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land.

Jeremiah 42

- ¶1. And all the captains of the armies, and Johanan ben-Kareah, and Jezaniah ben-Hoshaiah came near, with all the people, from small to great,
2. and they said to Jeremiah the prophet, “Let our supplication, we pray, be acceptable to you, and pray for us to Jehovah your God, for all this remnant that is left of us, a few out of what once was many, as your eyes see that we are,
3. that Jehovah your God will show us the way which we should take, and that is the thing we will do.”
4. And Jeremiah the prophet said to them, “I have heard you. Behold, I will pray to Jehovah your God according to your words, and it will be that whatever Jehovah answers you, I will tell you. I will withhold nothing from you.”
5. And they said to Jeremiah, “Jehovah be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not do according to every word that Jehovah your God sends you for us!
6. Whether good or bad, we will obey the voice of Jehovah our God to whom we are sending you, so that it might go well with us, inasmuch as we will have obeyed the voice of Jehovah our God.”
7. And it came to pass at the end of ten days that the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah.

8. And he called Johanan ben-Kareah and all the captains of the armies that were with him, and all the people, from small to great,
 9. and said to them, "Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present before Him your petition:
 10. If you will only dwell in this land, I will build you up, and not tear you down. Yea, I will plant you, and not pluck you up. For I am moved with pity because of the evil that I have done to you.
 11. Fear no more the king of Babylon, whom you fear. Stop fearing him, says Jehovah! For I am with you, to save you and to deliver you from his hand.
 12. Yea, I will show you mercy, and he will have mercy on you and let you return to your property.
 13. But if you say, 'We will not stay in this land,' not heeding the voice of Jehovah your God,
 14. saying, 'No, but we will go to the land of Egypt, where we will see no war, nor hear the sound of the shofar, nor hunger for food, and we will live there,'
 15. then, hear now the word of Jehovah, O remnant of Judah! Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: If you stubbornly set your faces to go into Egypt, and you go to sojourn there,
 16. then it shall come to pass that the sword which you fear shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the hunger that you dread will follow close after you there in Egypt, and there will you die.
 17. And all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there will die by the sword, by hunger, and by the plague, and there will be no one left of them; yea, there will be no escapee from the evil that I will bring upon them.
 18. For thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Just as my wrath and my fury has been poured out upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so shall my fury be poured out upon you when you go into Egypt, and you shall become an execration, and a horror, and a curse, and a reproach, and you will see this place no more!"
- ¶19. "Jehovah has spoken concerning you, O remnant of Judah. Do not go into Egypt! Know for certain that I am testifying against you today,
20. that you did wrong in your souls when you sent me to Jehovah your God, saying 'Pray for us to Jehovah our God, and according to all that Jehovah our God says, tell us so, and we will do it.'
 21. And I have declared it to you today, but you have not given heed to the voice of Jehovah your God in anything which He sent me to tell you.
 22. Therefore, know now for certain that you will die by the sword, by hunger, and by the plague in the place where you desire to go to sojourn!"

- ¶1. And it came to pass when Jeremiah finished speaking to all the people all the words of Jehovah their God, all these words with which Jehovah their God had sent him to them,
2. then Azariah ben-Hoshaiah, and Johanan ben-Kareah, and all the men who were proud began saying to Jeremiah, “You’re lying! Jehovah our God did not send you to say, ‘Do not go to Egypt to sojourn there,’
 3. but Baruch ben-Neriah incited you against us, to give us into the hand of the Chaldeans, for them to kill us and carry us captive to Babylon!”
 4. So, Johanan ben-Kareah, and all the captains of the armies, and all the people did not heed the voice of Jehovah, to dwell in the land of Judah.
 5. And Johanan ben-Kareah and all the captains of the armies took all the remnant of Judah who had returned from all the nations to which they had been driven to dwell in the land of Judah—
 6. men, women, and children, and the daughters of the king, and all the souls that Nebuzaradan, chief of the guard, had left with Gedaliah ben-Ahikam, son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch ben-Neriah.
 7. And they went into the land of Egypt, for they would not heed the voice of Jehovah. And they went as far as Tahpanhes.
- ¶8. And the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,
9. “Take large stones in your hand and hide them in the clay of the quadrangle¹⁹ that is at the entrance of the house of Pharaoh in Tahpanhes in the sight of the men of Judah.
 10. And you say to them, thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar, the king of Babylon, my slave, and I will set his throne upon these stones which I have hidden, and he will spread out his pavilion²⁰ over them,
 11. and he will enter it. And he will strike the land of Egypt, whoso is for death, to death, and whoso is for captivity, to captivity, and whoso is for the sword, to the sword.
 12. And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt, and he will burn them up and take them captive. And he will wrap himself with the land of Egypt the way a shepherd wraps himself with his garment. And then he will go forth from there in peace.
 13. Yea, he will break down the pillars of the House of the Sun²¹ that is in the land of Egypt, and he will burn up the houses of the gods of Egypt with fire.”

Jeremiah 44

- ¶1. The word that came to Jeremiah for all the Jews who dwell in the land of Egypt, who dwell in Midgol, and in Tahpanhes, and in Noph, and in the land of Pathros, saying,

¹⁹ Hebrew uncertain.

²⁰ Hebrew uncertain.

²¹ Hebrew: Beth-shemesh.

2. “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: You have seen all the evil which I have brought upon Jerusalem and upon all the cities of Judah. And behold, they are a wasteland this day, and no one dwells in them
3. because of their wickedness which they have done to provoke me to anger, traveling to make sacrifices to serve other gods whom they did not know, you nor your fathers.
4. Though I sent all my servants, the prophets, to you, rising early and sending them, saying, ‘Oh, do not do this abominable thing which I hate,’
5. yet, they would not listen nor incline their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods.
6. Therefore, my fury and my anger were poured out, and it was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, and they are come to ruin, to devastation, as it is this day.
7. And now Jehovah, the God of Hosts, God of Israel, says thus: Why do you do great evil against yourselves, to cut off from you, man and woman, child and infant, from the midst of Judah, leaving none of you to remain,
8. to provoke me to wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to sojourn in order to cut yourselves off and become a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?
9. Have you forgotten the evils of your fathers, and the evils of the kings of Judah and the evils of their wives, and your own evils and the evils of your wives which they did in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?
10. To this day they have not been humbled, nor have they feared, nor have they walked in my law or my statutes which I set before you and before your fathers.
11. Therefore, thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I have set my face against you for evil and to cut off all of Judah.
12. And I will take the remnant of Judah who have set their faces to go to the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they will all be consumed in the land of Egypt. They will fall by the sword and by famine. They will be consumed, from the least to the greatest; by the sword and by famine shall they die. And they shall be an execration, an object of horror, and a curse, and a reproach.
13. For I will visit those dwelling in the land of Egypt as I visited Jerusalem, with the sword, with famine, and with the plague.
14. And there will be no escapee or survivor of the remnant of Judah who have gone to sojourn in the land of Egypt to return to the land of Judah when they want to return there to dwell. Yea, none shall return except those who escape.”
15. Then all the men who knew that their wives burned incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, even all the people who dwelt in the land of Egypt in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,
16. “As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of Jehovah, we will not listen to you!

17. But we will only do whatever proceeds from our mouth, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our rulers, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. For we were filled with food and were well-off, and we saw no evil.
18. But from the time we ceased burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked everything, and we are consumed by the sword and by famine.”
19. And the women said, “When we burned incense to the queen of heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, was it without our husbands that we made cakes for her in her image, and poured out drink offerings to her?”
20. And Jeremiah spoke to all the people, to the men and to the women, even to all the people who answered him, saying,
21. “As for the incense which you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your rulers, and the people of the land, did not Jehovah remember them and it come into His mind?
22. So Jehovah could no longer bear it, in the face of your evil deeds and in the face of the abominations which you did. That is why your land came to ruin, to waste, and to desolation, without inhabitant, as it is this day.
23. Because you burned incense, and you sinned against Jehovah, and you did not obey the voice of Jehovah, nor walk in His law, nor His statutes, nor His admonitions, therefore this evil has befallen you, as it is this day.”
24. And Jeremiah said to all the people and to all the women, “Hear the word of Jehovah, all of Judah who are in the land of Egypt.
25. Thus has Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel, spoken, saying, ‘You and your wives have spoken with your mouths and fulfilled it with your hands, saying “We will certainly keep our vows that we vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her.” You certainly will keep your vows, and you certainly will perform your vows.
26. So hear the word of Jehovah, all of Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by my great name, says Jehovah, that I will damn myself if my name shall ever again be proclaimed in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, “As the Lord, Jehovah, lives.”
27. Behold, I am watching over them for evil and not for good, and every man of Judah who is in the land of Egypt will be consumed by sword and by famine until they are destroyed.
28. Yet a small number who escape the sword shall return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah. And all the remnant of Judah who went into the land of Egypt to sojourn there will know whose word stands—mine or theirs.

29. And this shall be the sign to you, says Jehovah, that I am punishing you in this place, that you may know that my words are certainly established against you for evil.
30. Thus says Jehovah: Behold, I am giving Pharaoh Hophra, king of Egypt, into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those who seek his life, as I gave Zedekiah, king of Judah, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, his enemy and who sought his life.”

Jeremiah 45

1. The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch ben-Neriah, as he wrote these words from the mouth of Jeremiah on the scroll, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim ben-Josiah, king of Judah, saying,
2. “Thus Jehovah, the God of Israel, has said concerning you, Baruch:
3. You have said, ‘Ah, woe is me! For Jehovah has added grief onto my sorrow. I grow weary with my groaning, and I find no rest.’
4. Thus shall you say to him, ‘Thus says Jehovah: Behold, that which I have built up, I will tear down, and that which I have planted, I will uproot, even this whole land.
5. Now, you are seeking great things for yourself. Stop seeking those things, for behold, I am bringing evil upon all flesh, says Jehovah, but I will give your life to you as spoil in all the places where you go.””

Jeremiah 46

- ¶1. The word of Jehovah that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Gentiles,
2. concerning Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh Necho the king of Egypt which was by the river Euphrates at Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Jehoiakim ben-Josiah, king of Judah:
 3. “Make ready your buckler and shield, and advance to the battle!
 4. Harness the horses! Yea, mount the steeds and present yourselves with helmets! Polish the spears! Put on your armor!
 5. Why do I see them dismayed, driven back, and their mighty men crushed? They flee for refuge and do not turn around. Terror is all around, says Jehovah.
 6. Let not the swift man flee, nor the mighty man escape. Northward, by the river Euphrates, they have stumbled and fallen.
 7. Who is this who rises like the Nile, whose waters surge like the rivers?
 8. Egypt rises like the Nile, and his waters surge like the rivers. Yea, he says, ‘I will arise! I will cover the earth. I will certainly destroy city, and inhabitants with it.’
 9. Mount your horses, and drive your chariot furiously! Yea, the mighty men will come forth! Cush and Put, shield bearers, and Ludim, who wield and bend the bow.
 10. Yea, this is the day of the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, a day of vengeance for Him to avenge Himself of His enemies, and the sword will consume, and be satiated, and be filled up with their blood. Truly, it is a sacrifice for the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, in the land to the north at the river Euphrates.

11. Come up to Gilead and get balm, O virgin daughter of Egypt! You will multiply remedies in vain. There is no cure for you.
12. Nations have heard of your shame, and your cry has filled the land, for mighty man with mighty man, together, stumble; both of them fall.”
- ¶13. The word that Jehovah spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, concerning Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon coming to attack the land of Egypt:
 14. “You must declare it in Egypt, and tell it in Migdol, and tell it in Noph and Tahpanhes! Say, ‘Take a stand and prepare yourself, for a sword has devoured all around you.
 15. Why are your mighty men face down?’ He did not stand still, for Jehovah drove him on.
 16. He caused many to stumble. Yea, each one fell upon another and said, ‘Get up and let’s return to our own people and our native land away from the oppressing sword!’
 17. There they named Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, ‘Loudmouth! He let the right time pass by.’
 18. As I live, says the King (Jehovah of Hosts is His name), just as Tabor is in the mountains and Carmel is by the sea, he will come.
 19. Prepare your stuff for captivity, O inhabitress, O daughter of Egypt, for Noph will become a wasteland and desolate; there will be no inhabitant.
 20. Egypt is a very beautiful heifer, but a gadfly is coming from the north. He is coming.
 21. Also, her hirelings in her midst are like fattened calves, but even they have turned away. They flee together. They do not stand firm, for the day of their calamity has come upon them, the time of their visitation.
 22. Her voice is like the serpent that slithers. Truly, they are coming with an army, and with axes, they come against her like woodcutters.
 23. They will cut down her forest, says Jehovah, though it be impenetrable, for they are more numerous than a swarm of locusts. Yea, they are without number.
 24. The daughter of Egypt will be put to shame; she is given into the hand of the people of the north.”
- ¶25. Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel, says, “Behold, I will punish Amon of No and Pharaoh, even Egypt and her gods and her kings, yea, Pharaoh and those who trust in him.
26. And I will give them into the hand of those who seek their life, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon and the hand of his servants. But afterwards, she will abide as in days of old, says Jehovah.”

- ¶27. And as for you, do not be afraid, O Jacob my servant, nor be dismayed, O Israel. Behold, I will rescue you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity. And Jacob will return and have quiet and be at ease, and no one will make him afraid.
- ¶28. Do not be afraid, O Jacob my servant, says Jehovah, for I am with you! I will surely make a complete end of all the nations to which I have driven you, but I will not make a complete end of you, but will chastise you in measure, and by no means leave you unpunished.

Jeremiah 47

- ¶1. The word of Jehovah that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before Pharaoh struck Gaza:
2. "Thus says Jehovah, behold, waters are rising from the north, and they are like a flooding river. Yea, they will flood the land and her fullness, the city and its inhabitants. Then the people will cry out; yea, every inhabitant in the land will howl
3. at the sound of the stamping hooves of his mighty ones, at the rattling of his chariots, the roar of his wheels. Fathers will not turn back for their children because of their enfeebled hands
4. on the day that He comes to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every remaining ally. Truly, Jehovah will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the land of Captor.
5. Baldness has come to Gaza; Ashkelon is destroyed. O remnant of their valley, how long will you band together?
6. Alas, O sword of Jehovah, how long will you not be quieted? Sheathe yourself in your scabbard! Be at rest; yea, be still.
7. How will you be quieted? Yea, Jehovah has commanded it against Ashkelon. Yea, there against the seashore has He appointed it."

Jeremiah 48

- ¶1. "Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel concerning Moab: Woe to Nebo, for it is destroyed! It is put to shame. Kiriathaim is taken. The stronghold is put to shame and dismayed.
2. There is no more praise for Moab; in Heshbon, they devise evil for her, saying, 'Come! Let's put an end to her being a nation!' You will be silent, too, O Madmen. A sword is coming after you.
3. The sound of a cry from Horonaim, 'Devastation and great destruction!'
4. Moab is shattered! Her young have caused a cry to be heard.
5. For at the Ascent of Luhith a great weeping is going up; yea, at the descent of Horonaim, the enemies heard the cry of destruction.
6. Flee! Save yourselves, and be like a shrub in the wilderness.
7. For because you trusted in your works and in your treasures, you also will be taken. Chemosh, too, will go into exile, his priests and his princes together.

8. Yea, the destroyer will come to every city, and no city will escape. Even the valley will be brought to ruin and the plain destroyed, just as Jehovah has said.
9. Give wings²² to Moab, that she might fly away, for her cities will be desolate, with no inhabitant in them.
- ¶10. "Cursed be he who is slack in doing the work of Jehovah, and cursed is he who withholds his sword from blood!"
11. Moab has been at ease from his youth, and he is settled on his lees. He has not been emptied out from vessel to vessel, that is, gone into exile. Therefore, his taste remains in him and his smell has not changed.
12. Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says Jehovah, when I will send him pourers and they will pour him out, and they will empty his vessels and shatter his jars.
13. Then will Moab be ashamed of Chemosh, just as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their confidence.
14. How is it that you say, 'We are warriors and mighty men of war!?
15. Moab and her cities are devastated; he went up, but his choice young men went down for the slaughter, says the King. Jehovah of Hosts is His name.
16. Moab's calamity is near to come; his misery is swiftly hastening.
17. Grieve for him, all who are around him! And let all who know his name say, 'How the mighty scepter is broken, the glorious rod!'
18. O inhabitress, O daughter of Dibon! Come down from glory, you who dwell with thirst, for the destroyer of Moab has come up against you! He has destroyed your strongholds.
19. Stand by the way and watch, O inhabitress of Aroer! Ask him who is fleeing and her who is escaped! Say, 'What has happened?'
20. Moab is humiliated. Yea, she is dismayed. Wail and cry aloud! Declare at the Arnon that Moab is devastated.
21. Yea, judgment has come upon the tableland, to Holon and Jahazah, and upon Mophaath,
22. and Dibon, and Nebo, and Beth-Diblathaim,
23. and Kiriathaim, and Beth-Gamul, and Beth-Meon,
24. and Kerioth, and Bozrah, and all the cities of the land of Moab, those far and near.
25. The horn of Moab is hewn off, and his arm is broken, says Jehovah.
26. Make him drunk, for he magnified himself against Jehovah. Yea, Moab will flail in his vomit. Yea, he, too, will become a derision.
27. But was not Israel a derision to you? Was he found among thieves, that whenever you spouted your words against him, you wagged your head?
28. Leave the cities and dwell in a cliff, O inhabitants of Moab, and be like a dove, nesting on the sides of the mouth of a pit.

²² Hebrew uncertain.

29. We have heard of the pride of Moab—extreme pride—of his loftiness, and his pride, and his arrogance, and the haughtiness of his heart.
30. I know his excessive rage, says Jehovah, that it will not be so; his boastings will accomplish nothing.
31. Therefore I will wail for Moab, yea, for all Moab! I will cry aloud for the men of Kir-Heres. He will moan!
32. With more than the weeping for Jazer will I weep for you, O vine of Sibmah! Your tendrils have crossed over the sea; they have reached even to the sea of Jazer; the destroyer has descended upon your summer fruit and your vintage.
33. And so, gladness and joy have been taken from the fruitful field, even from the land of Moab, and I have caused wine to cease from winepresses. No one treads with a shout of joy. Instead of a shout, there is no shout.
34. From the cry of Heshbon, to Elealeh, to Jahaz, they uttered their voice; from Zoar to Horonaim, Eglath-Shelishiyah; yea, the waters of Nimrim are also desolate.
35. In Moab, says Jehovah, I have put an end to ascending a high place to burn an offering to his god.
36. Therefore, my heart makes a noise like flutes for Moab, yea, my heart makes a noise like flutes for the men of Kir-Heres, forasmuch as the riches he had gained have perished.
37. For every head is bald, and every beard is clipped. Cuts are upon all hands, and sackcloth is upon loins.
38. On all the housetops of Moab and in all its public squares is lamentation, for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which is no delight, says Jehovah.
39. How it is broken! They howl! How Moab has turned the back! He is put to shame, and Moab has become a derision and a terror to all who are around him.
40. For thus says Jehovah: Behold! He will fly swiftly like an eagle and spread his wings against Moab.
41. Kerioth will be taken and Mezadoth²³ seized, and in that day, the heart of Moab's valiant men will be like the heart of a woman in travail.
42. And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people because he exalted himself against Jehovah.
43. Terror, and the pit, and a snare be to you, O inhabitant of Moab, says Jehovah!
44. He who flees from the terror will fall into the pit, and he who climbs out of the pit will be taken in the snare, for I will bring upon her, upon Moab, the year of their visitation, says Jehovah!
45. Fugitives without strength stand still in the shadow of Heshbon, for fire came out from Heshbon, and a flame from within Sihon, and it consumed the side of Moab and the scalp of the raging men.

²³ Or, “the strongholds”.

46. Woe to you, O Moab! The people of Chemosh have perished, for your sons are taken in the captivity, and your daughters, in the captivity.
47. Yet, I will surely return the captivity of Moab in the latter days, says Jehovah.” This is the extent of the judgment of Moab.

Jeremiah 49

- ¶1. “Thus says Jehovah concerning the children of Ammon: Has Israel no children? Or has he no heir? Why does their king²⁴ possess Gad and his people dwell in its cities?
2. Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says Jehovah, when I will cause a battlecry to be heard at Rabbah, which belongs to the children of Ammon, and it will be a desolate heap and its villages will be burned with fire. Then Israel will dispossess his dispossessors, says Jehovah.
3. Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is despoiled! Cry aloud, O daughters of Rabbah! Gird on sackcloth! Mourn, and run to and fro among the hedges, for Milcom²⁵ has gone into captivity, together with his priests and his princes.
4. Why do you glory in the valleys, your flowing valley, O apostate daughter who trusts in her treasures, thinking, ‘Who shall come against me?’
5. Behold, I will bring terror upon you, says my Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, from all around you, and each of you will be driven away headlong, with no one to gather the fugitive.
6. Yet, afterwards, I will restore the captivity of the children of Ammon, says Jehovah.”
- ¶7. “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts concerning Edom: Is there no more wisdom in Teman? Is council perished from men of understanding, their wisdom gone?
8. Flee! Turn back! Dig deep to make a dwelling place, O inhabitants of Dedan, because of the calamity of Esau which I will bring upon him when I visit him!
9. If gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings? Or thieves in the night, they would steal only what was enough for them.
10. But I have completely stripped Esau; I have exposed his secret parts, and he is not able to hide himself. His seed is destroyed, and his kinsmen and his neighbors, and he is no more.
11. Leave your orphans; I will keep them alive. And let your widows trust in me.
12. For thus says Jehovah: Behold! Those whose judgment was not to drink the cup have certainly drunk it, and will you altogether escape punishment? You shall not go unpunished, but you will certainly drink.
13. But by myself have I sworn, says Jehovah, that Bozrah shall be a horror, a taunting, a desolation, and a curse, and all her cities shall be waste places forever.
14. I have heard a report from Jehovah, that an envoy has been sent among the nations, saying, “Gather yourselves together and come against her! Yea, rise up for the battle!”

²⁴ Or, “Milcom”, the god of the Ammonites.

²⁵ Or, “their king”.

15. For, behold, I have made you small among the nations, despised among men.
16. As for your terror, the insolence of your heart has beguiled you, O dweller in clefts of the cliff, who holds the height of the hill. Though you make your nest on high like the eagle, thence will I bring you down, says Jehovah.
17. And Edom will be an astonishment; all who pass through her will be appalled and will hiss at all her wounds.
18. As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and her neighbors, says Jehovah, there will not be a single inhabitant there, nor will any man sojourn in her.
19. Behold, one will come up like a lion from the covert of Jordan into a perennial pasture, for I will drive him away from her in a moment. And who is the chosen one whom I will appoint for it? Yea, who is like me? And who will determine the time for me? Yea, who is this, the Shepherd who is standing before me?
20. So then, hear the counsel of Jehovah which He has taken against Edom, and to His plans which He has made against the inhabitants of Teman! I will damn myself if men do not drag off the little ones of the flock! I will damn myself if their fold is not appalled at them!²⁶
21. At the sound of their fall, the land will tremble. A cry! Its sound will be heard at the Red Sea.
22. Behold! Like an eagle shall he mount up, and fly swiftly, and spread his wings over Bozrah, and in that day, the heart of Edom's valiant men will be like the heart of a woman in travail."
- ¶23. "Concerning Damascus. Hamath and Arpad are confounded because they heard an evil report; they are melted away. As the troubled sea, he cannot be calm.
24. Damascus is disheartened; she turned to flee and panic seized her; anguish and pains seized her, as of a woman in travail.
25. How is the famous city not forsaken, a city that gave me joy?
26. Therefore shall her young men fall in her streets, and all the men of war will be put to silence in that day, says Jehovah of Hosts.
27. And I will kindle a fire on the wall of Damascus, and it will consume the strongholds of Ben-Hadad."
- ¶28. Concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor that Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon struck. "Thus says Jehovah: Arise! Go up against Kedar and destroy the children of the east!
29. They will carry off their tents and their flocks, their curtains, and all their vessels, and they will carry away their camels for themselves. And they will cry out concerning them, 'Terror is on every side!'

²⁶ Compare vv. 19–20 with 50:44–45.

30. Flee! Turn back! Dig deep to make a dwelling place, O inhabitants of Hazor, says Jehovah! for Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon has taken counsel against you! Oh, the plan he has made against them!
 31. Arise! Go up against a nation at ease, dwelling securely, says Jehovah, without gates and without bars, that dwells alone!
 32. And their camels will be plunder and their large herds for a spoil, and I will scatter to every wind those who shave the sides of their head. Yea, I will bring calamity from every direction, says Jehovah.
 33. And Hazor will be a lair for wolves, an everlasting waste. No man will live there, nor will any son of man sojourn in it.”
- ¶34. This is the word of Jehovah which came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah the king of Judah, saying,
35. “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Behold! I will break the bow of Elam, the mainstay of their might!
 36. On Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them to all those winds. Yea, there will be no nation to which the outcasts of Elam do not go.
 37. I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies and before those who seek their life, and I will bring an evil upon them, my burning anger, says Jehovah. Moreover, I will send the sword after them until I have exterminated them!
 38. And I will set my throne in Elam, and I will destroy king and princes from there, says Jehovah.
 39. But it will come to pass in the latter days that I will restore the captivity of Elam, says Jehovah.”

Jeremiah 50

- ¶1. The word which Jehovah spoke against Babylon, against the land of the Chaldeans, by the hand of Jeremiah the prophet:
 2. “Let them declare among the nations and make it heard, and lift up a standard! Make it heard! Do not conceal it! Let them say, ‘Babylon is taken! Bel is put to shame; Merodach is dismayed. Her carved images are put to shame; her idols are dismayed.’
 3. For out of the north, a nation has come upon her; it will make her land a desolation, and there will not be an inhabitant in her; both man and beast will go away, grieving.
 4. In those days and at that time, says Jehovah, the children of Israel will come; they and the children of Judah will go together, weeping as they go, and they will seek Jehovah their God.
 5. They will ask the way to Zion, their faces turned toward it, saying, ‘Come! We will join ourselves to Jehovah in an eternal covenant that will not be forgotten.’
- ¶6. “My people are a lost flock; their shepherds have caused them to err on mountains of apostasy. From mountain to hill they go. They have forgotten their resting place.

7. All who found them ate them up, and their enemies said, ‘We have committed no offense, inasmuch as they sinned against Jehovah, a pasture of righteousness, even Jehovah, the hope of their fathers.’
- ¶8. “Flee from the midst of Babylon, and from the land of the Chaldeans come out, and be like he-goats before a flock!
9. For, behold, I am going to stir up and bring up from the land of the north an assembly of great nations against Babylon, and they will set the battle in order against her; from there, she will be taken. Their arrows are like those of an expert man of war who does not return empty-handed.
10. And Chaldea will become plunder; all who plunder her will be satisfied, says Jehovah.
11. Though you rejoice, though you exult, O plunderers of my heritage, though you skip about like a threshing heifer, or neigh like stallions,
12. your mother will be very ashamed, and she who bore you, disgraced. Behold, she will be the least²⁷ of nations, a wilderness, a dry land, even a desert.
13. Because of the wrath of Jehovah, she will not be inhabited, but will be an utter desolation. All who pass by Babylon will be appalled and hiss at all her plagues.
14. Take your positions all around Babylon! Shoot at her, all who bend the bow! Spare no arrow, for she has sinned against Jehovah.
15. Raise a shout against her on every side. She has given her hand. Her foundations have fallen; her walls have been torn down. Yea, it is the vengeance of Jehovah upon her. Avenge yourselves upon her! Just as she has done, do to her!
16. Cut off the sower from Babylon, and he who wields the sickle in the time of harvest! Because of the oppressing sword, they will turn, each one, to his own people; yea, they will flee, each one, to his own land.
- ¶17. “Israel is a hunted sheep, chased off by lions. First, the king of Assyria devoured him, and now, this Nebuchadrezzar, the king of Babylon, has gnawed his bones.
18. Therefore, thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: Behold! I will punish the king of Babylon and his land just as I punished the king of Assyria.
19. But I will restore Israel to his pasture, and he will graze in Carmel and Bashan, and his soul will be satisfied in the hill country of Ephraim and Gilead.
20. In those days and at that time, says Jehovah, the iniquity of Israel will be sought, but it will not be there, and the sins of Judah will not be found, for I will forgive those whom I spare.
21. Go up against the land of Merathaim,²⁸ against her and the inhabitants of Pekod.²⁹ Kill, and devote their posterity to destruction, says Jehovah. And do all that I have commanded you!

²⁷ Literally, “the last”.

²⁸ Literally, “double rebellion”.

²⁹ Literally, “punishment”.

22. The sound of battle and great clashing is in the land!
 23. How is the hammer of the whole earth cut down and broken! How Babylon has become a horror among the nations!
 24. O Babylon! I set a trap for you, and you have also been taken, though you do not realize it. You were discovered and then caught because you strove against Jehovah.
 25. Jehovah opened His storehouse and brought forth His weapons of indignation, for the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, has a work to do in the land of the Chaldeans.
 26. Come against her from the farthest place! Open her granaries! Cast her up like heaps of rubbish and devote her to destruction! Let nothing be left of her!
 27. Put all her bulls to the sword! Let them go down to the slaughter! Woe be to them, for their day has come, the time of their visitation!
- ¶28. "The voice of those who flee and escape from the land of Babylon to tell in Zion about the vengeance of Jehovah our God, the vengeance of His temple.
29. Summon archers to Babylon, all who bend the bow. Encamp about her! Let there be no escape! Repay her according to her deeds! According to all she has done, do to her, for she has acted presumptuously against Jehovah, against the Holy One of Israel.
 30. Therefore, her young men will fall in her streets, and all her men of war. They will be silenced in that day, says Jehovah.
- ¶31. "Behold, O insolent one, I am against you, says the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts. For your day has come, the time when I will visit you.
32. Yea, the insolent one has stumbled and fallen, and there is no one to raise him up. And I have kindled a fire in his cities, and it will consume everything around him.
 33. Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together, and all who took them captive held them fast; they refused to let them go.
 34. Their Redeemer is strong; Jehovah of Hosts is His name. He will mightily plead their cause, that he might give quiet to the land and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.
 35. A sword upon the Chaldeans, says Jehovah, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men!
 36. A sword upon the praters, and they shall become fools! A sword upon her warriors, and they shall be dismayed!
 37. A sword upon their horses and their chariots, and upon all the mixed company which is in her midst, and they shall be like women! A sword upon her treasures, and they shall be plundered!
 38. A drought upon her waters, and they will dry up, for it is a land of graven images, and they glory in their idols!
 39. Therefore, desert creatures will dwell there with the hyena, and ostriches will dwell in her. And she will never again be peopled nor inhabited, generation after generation.
 40. As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors, says Jehovah, no man shall live there, and no son of man will sojourn in her.

41. Behold, a people will come from the north, even a great nation, and many kings will be aroused from remote parts of earth.
42. They grip bow and javelin; they are cruel and merciless; their sound is like the raging sea, and they are mounted on horses, each man in battle formation against you, O daughter of Babylon.³⁰
43. The king of Babylon heard their report, and his hands fell limp. Distress took hold of him, agony like a woman in travail.
44. Behold, one will come up like a lion from the covert of Jordan into a perennial pasture, for I will drive him away from it in a moment. And who is the chosen one whom I will appoint for it? Yea, who is like me? And who will determine the time for me? Yea, who is this, the Shepherd who is standing before me?
45. So then, hear the counsel of Jehovah which He has taken against Babylon, and to His plans which He has made against the land of Chaldea! I will damn myself if men do not drag off the little ones of the flock! I will damn myself if their fold is not appalled at them!³¹
46. At the sound, ‘Babylon is taken!’ the earth will be shaken, and a cry of distress will be heard among the nations.

Jeremiah 51

- ¶1. “Thus says Jehovah: Behold, I am stirring up a destroying spirit against Babylon and against the inhabitants of Leb-kamai.³²
2. And I will send foreigners against Babylon, and they will winnow her and empty out her land, for they are upon her from every side in the day of evil.
3. Do not allow him who bends his bow ever to bend it, nor him who arrays himself in his armor, neither will you spare her young men! Devote all her army to destruction!
4. And the slain will fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and the wounded in her streets.
5. For Israel has not been forsaken, nor Judah, by his God, Jehovah of Hosts, though their land has been full of guilt before the Holy One of Israel.
6. Flee from the midst of Babylon, and each of you deliver his soul! Do not be destroyed in her iniquity! For this is the time of Jehovah’s vengeance; He is giving her what is due.
7. Babylon has been a golden cup in the hand of Jehovah, making all the earth drunk. The nations have drunk of her wine; therefore, the nations act like madmen.
8. Babylon has suddenly fallen and is broken. Wail for her! Take balm for her pain! Perchance she will be healed.

³⁰ Vv. 41–42, cf. 6:22–23.

³¹ Compare vv. 44–45 with 49:19–20.

³² Hebrew uncertain.

9. We would have healed Babylon, but she would not be healed. Leave her, and let each of us go to his land, for her judgment has reached to heaven. Yea, it has risen to the clouds.
10. Jehovah has put away our forms of righteousness. Come! And let us declare in Zion the work of Jehovah our God!
11. Polish the arrows! Fill the shields!³³ Jehovah has stirred up the spirit of the kings of Media because His plan concerning Babylon is to destroy her, for that is Jehovah's vengeance, vengeance for His temple.
12. Against the walls of Babylon lift up a standard! Make the watch strong! Station watchmen! Prepare the ambushes! For Jehovah has both purposed and done that which He spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.
13. O woman who dwells upon many waters, abundant in treasures! Your end has come, the due for your unjust gain.
14. Jehovah of Hosts has sworn by His own life, 'I will surely fill you with men like locusts, and they will lift up a song and shout of victory against you.'
- ¶15. "He made the earth by His power; He established the world by His wisdom; and by His understanding, He stretched out heaven.
16. When He utters His voice, there is an abundance of water in the heavens. He also causes vapors to rise from the end of the earth. He makes lightnings for the rain and sends forth wind from His storehouses.³⁴
17. Every man is brutish in knowledge; every refiner is put to shame by the idol, for his molten image is a lie. Yea, there is no spirit in them.
18. They are vanity, the workmanship of mockers. In the time of their visitation, they will perish.
19. The Reward of Jacob is not like them, for he is the shaper of everything and the rod of His inheritance. Jehovah of Hosts is His name.³⁵
20. You are my hammer, my weapons of war. And with you will I break in pieces nations; and with you will I destroy kingdoms;
21. and with you will I break in pieces horse and his rider; and with you will I break in pieces chariot and its driver;
22. and with you will I break in pieces man and woman; and with you will I break in pieces old man and youth; and with you will I break in pieces young man and virgin;
23. and with you will I break in pieces shepherd and his flock; and with you will I break in pieces plowman and his team; and with you will I break in pieces governors and officials.
24. And I will recompense Babylon and all who dwell in Chaldea for all their evil which they have done in Zion before your eyes, says Jehovah.

³³ Hebrew uncertain.

³⁴ Also 10:13.

³⁵ Vv. 15–19, cp. 10:12–16.

- ¶25. Behold, I am against you, O destroying mountain that destroys all the earth, says Jehovah. Yea, I will stretch out my hand against you, and roll you down from the rocks, and make you a burnt mountain.
26. They will not take from you a stone for a corner or a stone for a foundation, for you shall be a waste forever, says Jehovah.
27. Lift up a standard on the earth! Blow a shofar among the nations! Consecrate the nations for war against her! Summon against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz! Appoint against her a marshal! Bring horses like bristling locusts!
28. Consecrate the nations for war against her, the kings of Media with its governors and all its officials, and every country under its dominion.
29. And the land will tremble and writhe in pain, for the purpose of Jehovah against Babylon will come to pass, to make the land of Babylon a wasteland without inhabitant.
30. The mighty men of Babylon have ceased fighting; they stay within the strongholds. Their strength has failed; they have become women. Its dwellings are burned up; the bars of its gates are broken.
31. A runner runs to meet a runner, and messenger calls to messenger, to report to the king of Babylon, that his city is taken from end to end.
32. The fords are also seized, and the marshes have been burned up with fire, and the men of war are terrified.
33. For thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon will be like a threshing-floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while, and the time of her harvest will come.”
- ¶34. “Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon has consumed us; he has vexed us; he has made us an empty vessel; he has swallowed us like a dragon; he has filled his stomach with my delicacies; he has rinsed us out.
35. ‘The violence done to me and my kinsmen be upon Babylon,’ will the inhabitant of Zion say. And Jerusalem will say, ‘My blood be upon those who dwell in Chaldea!’”
- ¶36. “For thus says Jehovah: Behold, I will plead your cause, and I will fully avenge you. And I will dry up her sea and dry up her fountain.
37. And Babylon will be heaps of ruin, a lair for wolves, a horror and a hissing, without inhabitant.
38. They will roar together like young lions; they will growl like lion cubs.
39. When they are inflamed, I will make them a feast and make them drunk so that they make merry. But they will sleep an everlasting sleep and not wake up, says Jehovah.
40. I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and he-goats.
41. How Sheshach is taken, the praise of the whole earth captured! How Babylon has become a desolation among the nations!
42. The sea has come up over Babylon with its roaring billows; she is overwhelmed.

43. Her cities have become a horror, a dry land, even a desert land. No man lives in them, and no son of man passes through them.
 44. And I will punish Bel in Babylon and bring out of his mouth that which he swallowed up, and the nations will no longer flow to him; yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall!
 45. Come out of her, my people, and let each one save his soul from the fierce anger of Jehovah,
 46. and lest your heart faint and you grow fearful when the report is heard in the land. And the report will come within the year, and the year after that, a report. And violence will be in the land, with ruler against ruler.
 47. Therefore, behold, the days are coming when I will visit the idols of Babylon, and all her land will be ashamed, and all her slain will fall in her midst.
 48. Then heaven and earth and all that is in them will shout with joy over Babylon because the destroyers are coming against her from the north, says Jehovah.
 49. As at Babylon the slain of Israel fell, so at Babylon will the slain of all the earth fall.
 50. You who have escaped the sword, go! Do not stand still! Remember Jehovah from afar, and let Jerusalem arise in your heart!"
- ¶51. We are ashamed because we have heard reproach. Dishonor has covered our faces because foreigners have entered into the holy places of the house of Jehovah.
- ¶52. "Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says Jehovah, when I will visit her idols, and throughout the land the wounded man shall groan.
53. Though Babylon ascend to the heavens, and though she fortify her lofty stronghold, destroyers from me will enter in to her, says Jehovah."
- ¶54. The sound of a cry from Babylon and of great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans!
55. For Jehovah is laying Babylon waste and silencing her mighty voice. Yet, their waves roar like great waters. Their voice gives out a roar.
 56. For a destroyer will come upon her, upon Babylon, and her mighty men taken, their bows broken in pieces because Jehovah is a God of recompenses. He will surely repay.
- ¶57. "I will make her princes and her wise men drunk, with her governors, her officials, and her mighty men. Then they will sleep an everlasting sleep and not wake up, says the King. Jehovah of Hosts is His name."
- ¶58. "Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: The broad walls of Babylon will be completely demolished and her high gates burned with fire. Yea, the nations are laboring for emptiness, and the peoples, only for fire. Yea, they are exhausting themselves."
- ¶59. The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah ben-Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now, Seraiah was quartermaster.

60. Now, Jeremiah had written on a single scroll all the evil which would come upon Babylon, all these things which are written concerning Babylon.
61. And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you are come to Babylon, see to it that you read all these words,
62. and say, 'O Jehovah! You have said that you will cut off this place, so that no one lives in it, neither man or beast. Yea, it shall be a waste forever.'
63. And then, when you have finished reading this scroll, bind a stone to it and throw it into the midst of the Euphrates,
64. and say, 'Thus shall Babylon sink and not rise up, because of the evil which I am bringing upon her.'" And here, the words of Jeremiah are ended.

Jeremiah 52

- ¶1. Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.³⁶
2. And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah according to all that Jehoiakim had done,
3. for on account of the anger of Jehovah was it so in Jerusalem and in Judah until He cast them out from His presence. So, Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.
4. And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and they encamped against it. Then they built a siege-wall against it all around,
5. and the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.
6. In the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, when the famine had become so severe in the city that the people of the land had no food,
7. then the city was breached, and all the men of war fled and went out of the city by night by way of the gate between the two walls that are by the king's garden. But the Chaldeans were against the city round about, and so, they left by the Arabah Road.
8. But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho, and all his army was scattered from him.
9. And they captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon, to Riblah in the territory of Hamath. And he pronounced judgments upon him.
10. And the king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiah's children before his eyes, and he also slaughtered in Riblah all the princes of Judah.
11. Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and he bound him with bronze shackles, and the king of Babylon took him to Babylon and put him in a prison house until the day of his death.

³⁶ Vv. 1–27, see also 2Kings 24:18–25:21.

12. And in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, in the nineteenth year of the reign of King Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard who stood before the king of Babylon, entered into Jerusalem.
13. And he burned up the house of Jehovah. He also burned up with fire the house of the king, and all the houses of Jerusalem, including every great house.
14. And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.
15. Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took into exile some of the poorest of the people, and the remnant of the people who were left in the city, and those who had fallen away, who had gone over to the king of Babylon, and the remaining master-workmen.
16. But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and farmers.
17. And the Chaldeans broke into pieces the bronze pillars that belonged to the house of Jehovah, and the bases, and the bronze sea which were at the house of Jehovah, and they carried away all their bronze to Babylon.
18. And they took the pans, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and all the bronze accoutrements with which they ministered.
19. Moreover, the captain of the guard took the cups, and the snuffdishes, and the basins, and the pans, and the menorahs, and the spoons, and the bowls of pure gold and fine silver,
20. the two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were underneath the bases, which King Solomon made for the house of Jehovah. There was no weighing the bronze of all these things.
21. And as for the pillars, the height of each pillar was eighteen cubits, and a cord of twelve cubits measured its circumference, and its thickness was four fingers, being hollow.
22. And the chapter on top of it was bronze, and the height of the one chapter was five cubits, with a network and pomegranates on the chapter all around, all of bronze. The second pillar was like this, with pomegranates.
23. And there were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides. All the pomegranates on the network round about were one hundred.
24. And the captain of the guard took away Seraiah the head priest, and Zephaniah a priest of the second order, and three doorkeepers.
25. And from the city, he took away one eunuch who was an overseer of men of war, and seven men of those who had beheld the king's face, who were found in the city, and a scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the midst of the city.
26. And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them and brought them to Riblah, to the king of Babylon.
27. And the king of Babylon struck them down, and he put them to death at Riblah in the territory of Hamath. And so, Judah went into exile from his own land.

28. This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar took into exile in the seventh year: three thousand and twenty-three Jews.
 29. In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar: eight hundred and thirty-two souls from Jerusalem.
 30. In the twenty-third year of Nebuchadrezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took into exile seven hundred and forty-five Jewish people. All the souls were four thousand and six hundred.
- ¶31. And it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin the king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, that Evil-Merodach, the king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin the king of Judah and brought him forth, out of the prison house.
32. And he spoke kindly to him and put his seat above the seats of the kings who were with him in Babylon,
 33. and changed his prison clothes. And he regularly ate bread in his presence all the days of his life.
 34. As for his allowance, an allowance was continually given to him from the king of Babylon, a daily portion for him until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

Lamentations

Lamentations 1

- ¶1. How lonely sits the city that abounded with people! She that was great among the nations has become like a widow. A princess among the provinces, she has become a forced laborer.
2. She weeps bitterly through the night, and her tears are on her cheek. There is not one of all her lovers to comfort her. All her friends have been faithless to her; they have become her enemies.
3. Judah is gone into a captivity of misery and hard labor; she dwells among the nations. She finds no resting place; all her pursuers overtook her amidst her distresses.
4. The roads of Zion are mourning, for no one comes for the appointed time. All her gates are desolate; her priests are groaning, her virgins afflicted, and she is bitter.
5. Her adversaries have become the head; her enemies are at ease, for Jehovah has afflicted her because of the multitude of her transgressions; her children have gone into captivity before the adversary.
6. And from the daughter of Zion all honor has departed; her princes have become like stags that can find no pasture, and they went before the pursuer with no strength.
7. Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and her wandering all her precious things which she had in days of old. When her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and there was no one to help her, her adversaries saw her; they mocked because of her destruction.
8. Jerusalem's sin is appalling! She has become an unclean thing. All who used to honor her despise her because they have seen her nakedness. She herself groans and turns away.
9. Her uncleanness is in her skirts. She did not consider her latter end, and she fell astonishingly. There is no comforter for her. O Jehovah, see my affliction, for the enemy has magnified himself.
10. The adversary has spread out his hand over all her pleasant things, for she has seen the nations enter her sanctuary, whom you commanded should not enter into your congregation.
11. All her people are groaning, seeking bread; they have given their pleasant things for food to restore the soul. Behold, O Jehovah, and consider, for I am despised!
12. Is it nothing to all you who pass this way? Look, and see, whether there be any sorrow like my sorrow, which has been inflicted on me, with which Jehovah has afflicted me in the day of His burning anger.
13. From above, He sent fire into my bones; yea, He directed it. He spread a net for my feet. He turned me back; He made me desolate, sick every day.
14. The yoke of my transgressions is bound by His hand. They are knit together; they have come up upon my neck. He has made my strength fail. My Lord has given me into the hands of those against whom I cannot rise.

15. My Lord has rejected all my mighty men in my midst. He has called an assembly against me to crush my young men; my Lord has trodden the winepress of the virgin daughter of Judah.
16. For these things, I weep. My eyes, my eyes run with water because the comforter who should restore my soul is far from me. My children are desolate, for the enemy has prevailed.
17. Zion spreads out her hands; there is no comforter for her. Jehovah has commanded concerning Jacob that his adversaries surround him. Jerusalem has become as a menstrual woman among them.
18. Jehovah is righteous, for I rebelled against His commandment. Hear me, I pray, all you peoples, and see my sorrow! My virgins and my young men have gone into captivity.
19. I called for my lovers; they deceived me. My priests and my elders perished in the city when they sought food for themselves; yea, they paid with their life.
20. See, O Jehovah! For I am in distress. My bowels are troubled; my heart is turned within me, for I have grievously rebelled. Outside, the sword bereaves; in the house it is like death.
21. They have heard that I sigh; there is no comforter for me. All my enemies have heard of my misery. They rejoice because you did it; you brought the day you called for. Yet, let them be like me.
22. Let all their evil come before you, and afflict them just as you have afflicted me for all my transgressions; for my groanings are many, and my heart is faint.

Lamentations 2

- ¶1. How my Lord has covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in His anger. He has cast down the beauty of Israel from heaven to earth, and He did not remember His footstool in the day of His anger.
2. My Lord has swallowed up; He did not spare any of the dwellings of Jacob; in His fury, He threw down the strongholds of the daughter of Judah; He brought them down to the ground; He defiled the kingdom and its princes.
3. In His burning anger, He cut off the whole horn of Israel; He withdrew His right hand from before the enemy and burned against Jacob like a flame of fire which consumed round about.
4. He has bent His bow like an enemy; His right hand is firmly set like an adversary, and He slew all who were pleasant to the eye in the tent of the daughter of Zion; He poured out His fury like fire.
5. My Lord was like an enemy; He swallowed up Israel; He swallowed up all her palaces; He destroyed His strongholds and multiplied mourning and lamentation in the daughter of Judah.
6. And He laid waste His pavilion as if it were a garden. He destroyed His appointed place; Jehovah has caused the appointed time and the Sabbath to be forgotten in Zion, and in His indignant anger, He spurned king and priest.

7. My Lord has rejected His altar; He repudiated His sanctuary; He delivered the walls of her palaces into the hand of an enemy; they have raised a shout in the house of Jehovah, as in the day of an appointed feast.
8. Jehovah determined to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; He stretched out a line; He did not withdraw His hand from swallowing up, and He caused rampart and wall to mourn; they languished together.
9. Her gates have sunk to the ground; He has destroyed and shattered her bars; her king and her princes are among the nations; the law is no more; even her prophets find no vision from Jehovah.
10. The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground; they are silent; they throw dust on their heads; they gird themselves in sackcloth; the virgins of Jerusalem bow their head to the ground.
11. My eyes fail with tears; my bowels are troubled; my liver is poured out to the ground for the destruction of the daughter of my people because child and suckling faint in the streets of the city.
12. They say to their mothers, “Where is the grain and the wine?”, as they faint like the wounded in the streets of the city, as their soul pours itself out into their mother’s bosom.
13. What can I testify against you? To what can I liken you, O daughter of Jerusalem? To what can I compare you, that I might comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion? For as great as the sea is your ruin. Who can heal you?
14. Your prophets saw vanity and insipidity for you. And they did not expose your iniquity to turn away your captivity, but they saw vain and seductive oracles for you.
15. All who pass by in the way clap their hands because of you; they hiss and shake their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, “Is this the city that they call the perfection of beauty, the joy of all the earth?”
16. All your enemies open their mouth against you; they hiss and gnash their teeth. They say, “We have swallowed her up. Surely, this is the day that we waited for! We have come to it; we have seen it.”
17. Jehovah has done what He determined; He has accomplished His word that He commanded in days of old; He has overthrown and not pitied; He has made the enemy to rejoice over you; He has exalted the horn of your enemy.
18. Their heart cried out to my Lord, “O Wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night; give yourself no rest; let not the apple of your eye be put to silence.”
19. Arise! Cry out in the night! At the beginning of the night-watches pour out your heart like water before the face of my Lord! Lift your hands to Him for the life of your children who faint for hunger at the head of all the streets!

20. Behold, O Jehovah, and consider to whom you have done such. Should women consume their fruit, their tender children? Should priest and prophet be slain in the sanctuary of my Lord?
21. Young and old lie on the ground in the streets; my virgins and my young men have fallen by the sword. You killed them in the day of your anger; you have slaughtered; you have not pitied.
22. You called for my terrors round about me as at an appointed feast, and on the day of Jehovah's anger, there were none who escaped or survived. Those whom I carried and raised, my enemy consumed.

Lamentations 3

- ¶1. I am the man who has seen affliction from the rod of His fury.
2. He has driven me and made me go into a darkness with no light.
 3. Surely, His hand turns against me again and again all the day long.
 4. My flesh and my skin are wasted away; He has broken my bones.
 5. He has laid siege and compassed me about with bitterness and hardship.
 6. He has made me to dwell in dark places, like those long dead.
 7. He has walled me in, and I cannot get out; He has made my chain heavy.
 8. Even when I cry out and plead for help, He shuts out my prayer.
 9. He has walled up my paths with hewn stone; He has made my paths crooked.
 10. He was to me a bear lying in wait, a lion lurking in secret places.
 11. He turned aside my paths, and He tore me in pieces; He made me desolate.
 12. He bent His bow and set me as the target for the arrow.
 13. The arrows of His quiver He caused to enter into my innermost parts.
 14. I was a derision to all my people, their song all the day.
 15. He has filled me with bitter things; He has made me drink wormwood.
 16. He also broke my teeth with gravel; He made me cower in ashes.
 17. Yea, my soul is denied peace; I have forgotten what is good,
 18. and I said, "My strength and my hope from Jehovah have perished."
 19. Oh, remember my affliction and my wandering, the wormwood and poison!
 20. My soul certainly remembers and is bowed down within me.
- ¶21. This thing will I bring to mind; because of this, I have hope:
22. the tender mercies of Jehovah. Yea, we are not consumed because His compassions do not fail;
 23. they are new every morning. Great is your faithfulness!
 24. "Jehovah is my portion," says my soul. Therefore, I will hope in Him.
 25. Jehovah is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul who seeks Him.
 26. It is good both to hope and quietly wait for the salvation of Jehovah.

27. It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.
- ¶28. Alone will he sit and keep silent, for He has laid our iniquities upon him;¹
29. He will put his mouth in the dust, that there may be hope;
30. He will give his cheek to the one striking him; he will be filled with reproach.
31. Yet, He will not cast off my Lord forever.
32. For though He cause grief, yet will He have compassion according to the abundance of His lovingkindness.
33. For He does not willingly afflict and grieve the children of men.
34. To crush under His feet all the earth's prisoners,
35. to thrust aside the judgment of a man in the presence of the Most High,
36. to subvert a man in his cause, the Lord does not countenance.
- ¶37. Who can say anything and it come to pass if the Lord has not commanded it?
38. Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that evil and good come?
39. Why does a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sin?
40. Let us search out and examine our ways and return to Jehovah.
41. Let us lift up our heart with our hands to God in the heavens.
42. We have transgressed and rebelled; you have not forgiven.
43. You have covered yourself with anger and put us to flight; you have killed; you have had no pity.
44. You covered yourself with a cloud which prayer cannot pass through.
45. You are making us like offscouring and garbage in the midst of the nations.
46. All our enemies have opened their mouth against us.
47. Terror and a pit are upon us, devastation and destruction.
- ¶48. My eye runs down with streams of water because of the destruction of the daughter of my people.
49. My eye streams and does not cease; there will be no respite
50. until Jehovah looks down and sees from heaven.
51. My eye has brought me grief because of all the daughters of my city.
- ¶52. Without cause, my enemies have relentlessly hunted me like a bird.
53. They have cut my life off in the Pit and cast a stone over me.
54. Waters flowed over my head; I said, "I am cut off."
55. I called upon your name, O Jehovah, from the lowest Pit.
56. You heard my voice; you did not cover your ear, to give me relief at my cry.
57. You drew near in the day I called upon you. You said, "Do not be afraid."
58. My Lord, you pleaded my cause; you redeemed my life.
- ¶59. You have seen, O LORD, the wrong done to me. Judge my cause!

¹ Cf. Isaiah 53:6.

60. You have seen all their vindictiveness, all their machinations against me.
61. You have heard their reproach, O LORD, and all their thoughts against me;
62. the lips of those who rise against me and their murmuring are against me every day.
63. Behold their sitting down and their rising up. I am their song.
64. You will return, O LORD, a recompense upon them according to the work of their hands.
65. You will give them hardness of heart, your curse upon them.
66. In your anger, you will pursue and exterminate them from under the heavens of Jehovah!

Lamentations 4

- ¶1. How the gold has grown dim! The pure gold is altered! The stones of the holy place have been poured out at the head of every street.
2. How the precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, are considered as earthen jars, the work of a potter's hands.
3. Even wolves offer the breast; they suckle their young. The daughter of my people has become cruel like ostriches in the wilderness.
4. The tongue of the nursing child cleaves to the roof of its mouth with thirst. Children ask for bread; there is no one to break it to them.
5. Those who used to eat delicacies are desolate in the streets. Those who were brought up in scarlet embrace trash heaps.
6. For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom that was overthrown in a moment, and no hands were wrung for her.
7. Her Nazirites were purer than snow; they were whiter than milk. Their bodies were redder than rubies, their form as a sapphire.
8. Their appearance is darker than black; they are unrecognizable in the streets. Their skin clings to their bones; it is dried out like wood.
9. Those slain by the sword are better off than those slain by hunger, they who fade away, pierced through by lack of produce of the field.
10. The hands of compassionate women have boiled their own children; they became food for them during the destruction of the daughter of my people.
11. Jehovah fully spent His fury; He poured out His burning anger and kindled a fire in Zion that consumed its foundations.
12. The kings of the earth and all the inhabitants of the world would not have believed that foe or enemy could enter into the gates of Jerusalem.
13. Because of the sins of her prophets and the transgressions of her priests who shed blood of righteous men in her midst,
14. they have staggered as blind men in the streets; they were defiled by the blood, with men not able to touch their garments.

15. They cried to them, “Turn aside! Unclean! Turn aside! Turn aside! Do not touch!” When they fled, they also became wanderers. Men said among the nations, “They may no longer dwell here.²
16. The presence of Jehovah has scattered them; He will no more have regard for them. They had no respect for the faces of the priests; they showed no favor to the elders.
17. Our eyes failed, continually watching in vain for our help. In our watching, we watched for a nation that could not save.
18. They hunted our steps so that we could not walk in our streets. Our end drew near; our days were fulfilled. Yea, our end came.
19. Our persecutors were swifter than eagles of the sky. They hotly pursued us upon the mountains; they lay in wait for us in the wilderness.
20. The breath of our nostrils, Jehovah’s Messiah, was taken in their traps, of whom we said, “Under his shadow, we will live with the Gentiles.”
21. Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, dwelling in the land of Uz. The cup will also pass to you; you will be drunk and make yourself naked.
22. The punishment for your iniquity is finished, O daughter of Zion; He will no longer keep you in exile. He will visit your iniquity, O daughter of Edom; He will expose your sins.

Lamentations 5

- ¶1. Remember, O Jehovah, what has come upon us; look, and see our reproach.
2. Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers, our houses to aliens.
3. We are fatherless orphans; our mothers are widows.
4. We drink our water for silver; our wood comes at a price.
5. Our persecutors are at our neck. We labor, and there is no rest for us.
6. We submitted to the Egyptians and the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.
7. Our fathers sinned, and they are not; we are burdened down with their transgressions.
8. Slaves rule over us; there is no one to rescue us out of their hand.
9. We get our bread at risk of our lives because of the sword of the wilderness.
10. Our skin is blackened like a fire-pot because of terrible famine.
11. They humbled the women in Zion, the virgins of the cities of Judah.
12. Princes were hanged by their hands; the faces of elders were not honored.
13. They carried off young men to the grinding mill, and boys staggered under the wood.
14. The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their song.
15. The joy of our heart ceased; our dancing was turned into mourning.
16. The crown of our head fell; woe to us, for we have sinned.
17. For this, our heart is sick; for these things, our eyes are dimmed.
18. For Mount Zion is desolate; foxes go about on it.

² Or, “They will not dwell there again.”

- ¶19. You, O Jehovah, remain forever, your throne, from generation to generation.
- 20. Why have you forgotten us forever? You have forsaken us for so long!
- 21. Turn us back to you, O Jehovah, and we shall be turned; renew our days as in times past.
- 22. Yea, have you utterly rejected us? You have been exceedingly angry with us.

Ezekiel

Ezekiel 1

- ¶1. Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day, as I was among the company of exiles by the River Chebar, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.
2. On the fifth day of the month (it was the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's exile),
3. the word of Jehovah certainly came to Ezekiel ben-Buzi, the priest, in the land of the Kasdim, by the River Chebar, and the hand of Jehovah was upon him there.
4. And I looked, and behold, a storm-wind came from the north, a great cloud, and a fire enveloping itself,¹ with a brightness around it, and out of the midst of it was, as it were, a spring of brilliance,² from the midst of the fire.
5. Also out of the midst of it was the likeness of four living creatures, and this was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man.
6. And each one had four faces, and each one had four wings.
7. And their feet were a straight foot, and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot, and they sparkled, as the appearance of burnished bronze.
8. And hands of a man came from underneath their wings on each of(?) the four sides, and the four of them had faces and wings.
9. Their wings were joined, one to another. They did not turn when they went; each one went straight forward.
10. As for the likeness of their faces, they four (masc) had faces of a man, and faces of a lion on the right side, and they four (fem) had faces of an ox on the left side, and they four (fem) had faces of an eagle.
11. And their faces and their wings divided from above; each had two, joined together, and two covered their bodies.
12. And each one went straight forward; they went wherever the Spirit was going. They did not turn when they went.
13. The creatures were similar in their appearance to burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches. It went about between the creatures and the brightness of the fire, and lighting came out of the fire.
14. And the creatures ran out and returned like a flash of lightning.
15. And as I looked at the creatures, behold, one wheel was on the earth beside each creature with its four faces.
16. The appearance of the wheels and their workmanship was like the color of beryl, and each was similar to the four creatures, and the wheels' appearance and their workmanship was like a wheel within a wheel.

¹ Hebrew uncertain.

² Hebrew uncertain.

17. When they went, they went on all four sides of the creatures; the wheels did not turn when they went.
18. As for the creatures' wheels, they were tall and terrible, and the wheels' rims were full of pairs of eyes all around the four creatures.
19. And when the creatures went, the wheels would go beside them (m), and when the creatures were lifted up off the earth, the wheels were lifted up.
20. They went (m) wherever the spirit was going, to wherever the spirit was going, and the wheels were lifted up along with them (m), for the spirit of the creature was in the wheels.
21. When they (m) went, the wheels went, and when they (m) stopped, the wheels stopped, and when they were lifted up off the earth, the wheels were lifted up along with them, for the spirit of the creature was in the wheels.
22. And the expanse over the heads of the creature was like the terrible color of ice stretched out over their heads, above.
23. And under the expanse, their (m) wings were straight, each toward the other. Each had two covering on this side, and each had two covering their bodies on that side.
24. And when they went, I heard the sound of their wings, like the sound of mighty waters, like the voice of the Almighty, the sound of a tumult, like the sound of an army. When they stopped, their wings calmed.
25. And when they had stopped and their wings were calmed, there came a voice from above the expanse that was over their head.
26. And above the expanse that was over their head was something like a sapphire stone, what appeared to be a throne, and upon what appeared to be the throne was what appeared to be something like a man, upon it, above.
27. And I saw something like the color of amber, similar to fire, its house around it. From what appeared to be his loins and up, and from what appeared to be his loins and down, I saw what appeared to be a man, and his brightness was all around.
28. Like how a rainbow looks which is in the cloud on a rainy day, just so was the appearance of the brightness surrounding him; the appearance was like the glory of Jehovah. And when I saw, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of one speaking.

Ezekiel 2

- ¶1. And He said to me, "Son of man, stand to your feet, and I will speak to you."
2. And the spirit entered into me as He spoke to me and stood me up on my feet. And I heard Him speaking to me.
3. And He said to me, "Son of man, I am sending you to the children of Israel, to the nations, the rebels who have rebelled against me. They and their fathers have transgressed against me, to this very day."
4. For the children are stiff-necked and hard-hearted. I am sending you to them, and you will say to them, 'Thus says the Lord, Jehovah.'

5. And whether they listen or whether they refuse (for they are a rebellious house), they will know that a prophet has been among them.
6. But you, son of man, do not be afraid of them and their words. Do not be afraid though briars and thorns are with you, and you dwell among scorpions. Do not be afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their faces, though they are a rebellious house.
7. But speak my words to them, whether they listen or whether they refuse, for they are rebellious.
8. And as for you, son of man, hear what I am saying to you! Do not be rebellious like the rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I give you.”
9. And I looked, and behold, a hand was extended toward me, and behold, and a scroll was in it.
10. And He spread it out before me, and it had writing on front and on back. And written on it were lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

Ezekiel 3

- ¶1. Again He said to me, “Son of man, what you find, eat. Eat this scroll, and then go speak to the house of Israel.”
2. And so, I opened my mouth, and He fed me the scroll.
3. Then He said to me, “Son of man, feed your belly, and fill your bowels with this scroll that I have given you. And so I ate it, and in my mouth, it was sweet as honey.
4. And He said to me, “Son of man, go! Go to the house of Israel and speak my words to them.
5. For you are not being sent to a people of an unintelligible speech and difficult language, but to the house of Israel,
6. not to many nations of an unintelligible speech and a difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, if I had sent you to them, they would have heard you.
7. But the house of Israel will not want to hear you, for they do not want to hear me, for the whole house of Israel are hard-headed and hard-hearted.
8. Behold, I have made your face strong against their faces, and your forehead strong against their foreheads.
9. As an adamant harder than flint have I made your forehead. Do not fear them! Do not be dismayed at their faces, though they are a rebellious house.”
10. Moreover, He said to me, “Son of man, take into your heart all the words that I speak to you, and hear them with your ears,
11. and go! Go to the captivity of the children of your people and speak to them, and say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah’, whether they hear or refuse.
12. Then the Spirit picked me up, and I heard a great thundering voice behind me, “Blessed be the Glory of Jehovah from his post.”

13. And I heard the sound of the wings of the living creatures which were touching each other, and the sound of the wheels that were with them, and the great thundering voice.
14. So the spirit picked me up and took me, and I went bitterly with my spirit angry, but the hand of Jehovah prevailed over me.
15. And I came to the captivity at Tel-Aviv, those who dwell by the river Chebar, and awestruck, I sat where they were sitting, seven days in their midst.
16. And it came to pass at the end of the seven days, then the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
17. "Son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman for the house of Israel. So when you hear a word from my mouth, you will give them the warning from me.
18. When I say to the wicked, 'You will most certainly die,' and you do not warn him, nor speak out to warn the wicked of his wicked way, that he might live, that wicked man will die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require from your hand.
19. But if you do warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness or his wicked way, he will die in his iniquity, but you will have delivered your soul.
20. And when a righteous man turns from his righteousness, and he commits iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-block before him so that he dies, because you did not warn him, he will die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he had done will not be remembered, and his blood will I require from your hand.
21. But when you warn a righteous man that the righteous does not sin, and he does not sin, he will truly live because he has been warned, and you will have delivered your soul.
22. And the hand of Jehovah was upon me there, and He said to me, "Rise up, go out to the valley, and I will talk with you there."
23. So I rose up and went out to the valley, and behold, the Glory of Jehovah (see v12) was standing there, just like the Glory that I had seen by the river Chebar, and I fell on my face.
24. Then the Spirit entered into me and stood me up on my feet, and he spoke with me, and said to me, "Go, shut yourself up in your house.
25. As for you, O son of man, behold, they will put ropes on you and bind you with them, and you shall not go out among them.
26. And I will make your tongue cleave to the roof of your mouth, and you will be dumb and you will not be a reproof to them, for they are a rebellious house.
27. But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth and you will say to them, "Thus says my Lord Jehovah: He who hears will hear, and he who refrains will refrain, for they are a rebellious house."

Ezekiel 4

- ¶1. "And as for you, son of man, you take a tile, set it before you, and engrave on it a city—Jerusalem.

2. Then make siege-works against it, and build a wall against it, and cast up a mound against it, and make encampments against it, and place battering-rams against it all around.
3. Then take an iron griddle and make it an iron wall between you and the city, and set your face toward it so that it is under siege, and besiege it. This is a sign to the house of Israel.
4. Then you lie down on your left side, and set the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it. You shall bear their iniquity for the number of days that you lie down against it.
5. And I have laid on you three hundred and ninety days, corresponding to the years of their iniquity. And so, you will bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.
6. When you have completed these days, you shall lie down a second time, but on your right side, and bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days, a day for a year. I have appointed you a day for a year.
7. And to the siege of Jerusalem, you shall set your face with your arm bared. Then you shall prophesy against it.
8. And, behold, I will put cords around you so that you cannot turn from side to side until you have completed your siege.
9. And take for you wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt and put them into one vessel, and make them bread and you shall eat it during the days when you are lying on your side, three hundred and ninety days.
10. "Your food, which you will eat, shall be by weight twenty shekels each day. From time to time, you will eat it.
11. And you will drink water by measure one-sixth of a hin each day. From time to time, you will drink.
12. And you will eat it as a cake of barley; before their eyes, you will bake it, using human dung."
13. And Jehovah said, "Thus will the children of Israel eat their polluted bread among the nations where I will banish them."
14. Then I said, "Ah! Lord GOD! Behold, my soul has not been defiled! I have not eaten of a carcass that died of itself or an animal torn a by wild beast! From my youth until now, no unclean flesh has come into my mouth!"
15. Then He said to me, "Very well. I give you cow dung instead of human dung; and you will make your bread with that."
16. Moreover, He said to me, "I am breaking the staff of bread in Jerusalem, and they shall eat bread by weight, and with anxiety, and they shall drink water by measure and with horror,
17. that they might lack bread and water, and be appalled, each with his brother, and rot away in their iniquity."

- ¶1. "And as for you, son of man, you take a sharp sword. Use it on yourself for a barber's razor and pass over your head and your beard, and then take balances for weighing and divide them.
2. You shall burn a third part in the fire in the midst of the city when the days of the siege are complete, and take a third part and strike it with a sword all around it, and scatter a third part to the wind. Then I will unsheathe a sword after them.
3. And from them you shall take a few in number and bind them in the folds of your garment.
4. And from them again, take and throw them in the midst of the fire and burn them in the fire, From there, a fire will go out into all the house of Israel."
- ¶5. "Thus says Jehovah God: This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the midst of the Gentiles, with countries all around her.
6. But she has rebelled against my judgments with more wickedness than the Gentiles, and my statutes with more than the nations that surround her, for they have rejected my judgments and have not walked in my statutes.
7. Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Because your confusion is greater than that of the Gentiles who are around you, you have not walked in my statutes nor carried out my judgments. Yea, you have not even done according to the judgments of the Gentiles around you!
8. Therefore, says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I, even I, am against you! And I will execute judgments in your midst in the sight of the Gentiles.
9. And because of all your abominations, I will do to you what I have never done, and the like of which I will not do again.
10. Therefore fathers will eat their sons in your midst, and sons will eat their fathers; yea, I will execute judgments against you, and I will scatter all your remnant to every wind.
11. Therefore, as I live, says the Lord, Jehovah, I will damn myself if I do not withdraw or my eye spares because you have defiled my sanctuary with your detestable things and all your abominations. Yea, I will have no pity!
12. A third of you shall die by pestilence or be consumed by famine in your midst; and a third shall fall by the sword all around you; and a third will I scatter to every wind and unsheathe a sword after them.
13. When my anger is spent, and I have vented my wrath against them, then I will be appeased. And they will know that I Jehovah have spoken in my jealousy, when I shall have spent my wrath against them.
14. Moreover, I will make you a waste, and a reproach among the nations who are around you, in the sight of all who pass by.
15. And she will be a reproach and a taunt, a warning and a horror, to the nations who are around you, when I have executed judgments upon you in anger, and in wrath, and with furious rebukes. I, Jehovah, have spoken!"

16. When I send forth the deadly arrows of famine against them, which are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you, then I will increase the famine upon you, and I will break your staff of bread.
17. Yea, I will send against you famine and wild beasts, and they will bereave you, and I will send a sword upon you. I, Jehovah, have spoken."

Ezekiel 6

- ¶1. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. "Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them,
3. and say, 'O mountains of Israel! Hear the word of the Lord, Jehovah! Thus says the Lord, Jehovah, to the mountains, and to the hills, and to the ravines, and to the valleys: Behold, I am bringing upon your sword, and I will destroy your high places.
4. And your altars will be desolate, and your pillars will be shattered, and I will make your slain to fall before your idols.
5. And I will lay the corpses of the children of Israel before their idols and scatter your bones around your altars.
6. Everywhere you dwell, the cities will be a waste, and the high places, desolate, so that they be a waste and your altars, desolate, and your idols will be shattered and destroyed, and your sun-pillars hewn down, and your works wiped out.
7. The slain will fall in your midst. And you will know that I am Jehovah!
8. But I will allow some of you to live, escapees from the sword of the Gentiles, while you are dispersed among the countries.
9. And those of you who escape will remember me among the nations where they are taken captive, how I was crushed by their whorish heart that turned away from me and by their wanton eyes that followed after their idols. And they will loathe themselves because of the evils that they did, and for all their abominations.
10. And they will know that I, Jehovah, did not say in vain that I would bring this evil upon them.
11. Thus says Jehovah God: Clap your hand and stomp your feet, and say, 'Ah, for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel, for which they shall fall by the sword, and by famine, and pestilence.
12. He who is far off will die by the pestilence, and he who is near will fall by the sword, and he who is left and he who is preserved will die by famine. I will fully satisfy my wrath.
13. And you will know that I am Jehovah when their slain men are among their idols around their altars on every high hill, in the tops of every mountain, and beneath every green tree and every leafy terebinth where they offered aromatic incense to all their idols.

14. And I will stretch out my hand against you, and I will make the land a desolation and a waste from the wilderness of Diblah, in all their dwellings. And they will know that I am Jehovah!

Ezekiel 7

- ¶1. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. “As For you, O son of man, thus says the Lord, Jehovah, concerning the country of Israel: An end, the end, has come upon the four corners of the land.
3. Yea, the end is upon you now. And I will send my anger upon you, and I will judge you according to your ways and bring upon you a recompense for all your abominations.
4. My eye will not spare you, and I will have no pity, but I will bring your ways upon you, and your abominations will be in your midst. And you will know that I am Jehovah!
5. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Disaster—a singular disaster—behold, it is coming.
6. An end has come. The end has come. It has awakened for you. Behold, it is coming.
7. Doom has come to you, O inhabitant of the land. The time has come; the day is near, with panic instead of a joyful shouting on the mountains.
8. Now, I will soon pour out my wrath on you and fully satisfy my anger against you, and judge you according to your deeds, and repay you for all your abominations.
9. My eye will not spare, and I will have no pity, but I will bring your ways upon you, and your abominations will be in your midst. And you will know that I am Jehovah who strikes!
10. Behold, the day! Behold, the day has come! The doom has gone forth; the rod has budded; the insolence has sprouted.
11. The violence has grown to a rod of wickedness. None of them will remain, nor of their multitude, nor of their abundance³, nor any eminence among them.
12. The time has come; the day at hand. Let not the buyer rejoice, and let not the seller mourn, for burning wrath is upon the whole multitude.
13. For the seller will not return to his wares, though they continue to exist. For the vision concerns their whole multitude, and it will not be revoked. And no one by his iniquity will save his life. They cannot save themselves.
14. They have blown the trumpet and made everything ready, but no one is going to war because my wrath is on their whole multitude.
15. The sword is without, and within is pestilence and famine. Whoever is in the field will die by the sword, and famine and pestilence will consume whoever is in the city.
16. Though some escape, they will be on the mountains, like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, each for his own iniquity.
17. All hands will be feeble, and all knees will be weak as water.

³ Hebrew uncertain.

18. They will put on sackcloth. Horrors will cover them, and shame will be upon all faces, and baldness on all their heads.
19. Their silver will they cast away into the streets, and their gold will be an unclean thing. They will not be able to deliver them in the day of Jehovah's overflowing wrath. They will not satisfy their souls, nor fill their bellies, for their iniquity was a stumbling-block.
20. His beautiful ornament, he set in pride, and with it they made their images of detestable abominations. Therefore, I will make him an unclean thing for them.
21. Yea, I will give him into the hand of foreigners for prey, and to wicked men of earth for spoil, and they will defile him.
22. And I will turn my face from them, and they will defile my treasure; yea, violent men will go in and defile it.
23. Forge the chain! For the land is filled with bloody judgments, and the city is filled with violence.
24. And I will bring the most evil of nations, and they will possess their houses. And I will put an end to the pride of strong men, and their sanctuaries will be profaned.
25. Anguish is coming. Then they will seek peace, but there will be none.
26. Calamity upon calamity will come, and rumor upon rumor, and they will seek a vision from a prophet, but the law will perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders.
27. The king will mourn, and the prince is clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land are dismayed. Because of their ways, I will deal with them, and I will judge them according to their judgments. And they will know that I am Jehovah!"

Ezekiel 8

- ¶1. Now, it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, that I was sitting in my house, and elders of Judah were sitting before me, and the hand of the Lord, Jehovah, fell on me there.
2. And I looked, and behold, there was a man's form with the appearance of fire; the appearance from his loins downward was of fire, but from the loins upward was an appearance of brightness, like the gleam of metal⁴.
3. And the figure sent a hand and took me by a lock of my head, and the Spirit lifted me up between the earth and heaven, and it brought me to Jerusalem in the visions of God, to the entrance of the inner gate that faces north, where was a seat for the image that provokes jealousy.
4. And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, as in the vision which I saw in the valley.
5. Then He said to me, "Son of man, now lift up your eyes to the north!" And so, I lifted up my eyes to the north, and behold, northward, at the gate of the altar, was this idol of jealousy at the entrance.

⁴ Hebrew uncertain.

6. And He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing—the great abominations which the house of Israel is committing here—to drive me away from my sanctuary? Yet, you will see even greater abominations.”
7. Then He brought me to the entrance of the court, and I looked, and behold, a hole in the wall!
8. And He said to me, Son of man, now dig in the wall.” And so, I dug in the wall, and behold, an opening.
9. Then He said to me, “Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they are doing here.”
10. And so, I went in and looked, and behold, every form of creeping thing, and detestable beast, and all the idols of the house of Israel were engraved in the wall all around.
11. And before them were seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, with Jaazaniah ben-Shaphan standing in their midst, and each with his incense in his hand, and the aromatic smoke from the incense was rising.
12. And He said to me, “Do you see, O son of man, what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark, each in the chamber of his carved figures? For they are thinking, Jehovah doesn’t see us; Jehovah has forsaken the land.”
13. Then He said to me, “Yet, you will see still greater abominations that they are doing.”
14. Then He brought me to the entrance of the gate of the house of Jehovah that is to the north, and behold, women were sitting there, weeping for Tammuz.
15. And He said to me, “Do you see, O son of man? Yet, you will see still greater abominations than these.”
16. Then He brought me to the inner court of the house of Jehovah, and, behold, at the entrance of the temple of Lord, Jehovah, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, their backs to the temple of Jehovah and their faces toward the east. And they were worshipping the sun, toward the east.
17. And He said to me, “Do you see, O son of man? Is it too light a thing for the house of Judah to commit the abominations that they commit here, that they should fill the land with violence and provoke me to still more anger? And, behold, they put the twig to their nose!”
18. I will indeed act in my wrath. My eye will not spare, and I will have no pity. Yea, they will cry in my ears with a loud voice, but I will not hear them.”

Ezekiel 9

- ¶1. Then a loud voice cried out in my ears, saying, “Bring near the overseers of the city, each with his destroying weapon in his hand!”
2. And, behold, six men came from the way of the upper gate that faces north, and each with his slaughter-weapon in his hand, and in their midst was one man clothed in linen and a scribe’s inkhorn at his waist. And they came in and stood beside the bronze altar.

3. Now, the glory of the God of Israel was taken up from above the cherub over whom it had been to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man dressed in linen, who had the scribe's inkhorn at his waist.
4. And Jehovah said to him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of the men and women who are sighing and crying over all the abominations committed in the midst of it."
5. And to these he said in my hearing, "Pass through the city after him and strike down. Your eyes shall not spare, and you will have no pity."
6. Utterly slay old man, young man, maiden, little child, and woman. But do not come near anyone upon whom is the mark. And you shall start at my sanctuary." So, they started with the elders who were before the temple.
7. He also said to them, "Defile the temple and fill the courts with the slain! Go!" And they went out and began killing in the city.
8. And it came to pass while they were killing and I was left by myself, that I fell on my face and cried out, saying, "Ah, Lord GOD! Will you annihilate all that's left of Israel with the outpouring of your wrath on Jerusalem?"
9. And He said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is filled with bloodshed, and the city with perversion, because they say, 'Jehovah has forsaken the land,' and 'Jehovah does not see.'
10. My eye will not spare, and I will have no pity. I will bring down their way upon their head!
11. And, behold, the man clothed in linen with the inkhorn at his waist reported back, saying, "I have done as you commanded me."

Ezekiel 10

- ¶1. Then I looked, and behold, in the firmament that was above the cherubim there was something like a sapphire stone appeared above them, with an appearance like a throne.
2. And He spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, "Go in among the wheels, beneath the cherub, and fill your hands with coals of the fire between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city." And in my sight, he went in.
3. Now, when the man went in, the cherubim were standing to the right of the temple, and the cloud filled the inner court.
4. Then the glory of Jehovah rose from above the cherubim to above the threshold of the temple, and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was filled with the brightness of the glory of Jehovah.
5. And the sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard as far as the outer court, like the sound of God Almighty when He speaks.
6. And it came to pass when He commanded the man clothed in linen garments, saying, "Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubim," that he went and stood next to a wheel.

7. And the cherub stretched out his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, and he took it and put it into the hands of the one clothed in linen garments. And he took it, and went out.
8. And the form of a man's hand appeared in the cherubim, beneath their wings.
9. And I looked, and behold, four wheels were next to the cherubim, one wheel beside the one cherub, and another wheel beside the other cherub, and the appearance of the wheels was like a glittering stone of Tarshish.
10. As for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel was in the middle of a wheel.
11. When they went, they four would go to any of their four directions. They did not turn when they went, but to the place where the head faced, they would follow. They did not turn when they went.
12. And their whole body, their back, and their hands, and their wings, and their wheels, were full of eyes all around. The four of them had their wheels.
13. As for the wheels, in my hearing, one called to them, "O whirling[?] wheel!"
14. And each had four faces. The face of the first was the face of a cherub; the face of the second, the face of a man; and the third, the face of a lion; the fourth, the face of an eagle.
15. Then the cherubim mounted up. This was the living creature which I saw by the River Chebar.
16. And when the cherubim went away, the wheels went beside them. And when the cherubim lifted their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels did not turn from beside them.
17. When they stood still, they stood still, and when they mounted up, they mounted up. For the spirit of the living creature was in them.
18. And the glory of Jehovah departed from the threshold of the house and stood above the cherubim.
19. Then the cherubim lifted their wings and mounted up from the earth in my sight, and when they went, then their wings were beside them. And they stood⁵ at the entrance of the east gate of Jehovah's house, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.
20. These are the living creatures which I saw under the God of Israel by the River Chebar, and I knew that they were cherubim.
21. Each of the four had four faces, and each had four wings, and the likeness of man's hands was under their wings.
22. As for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces I saw along the river Chebar in their appearance, and they each went straight forward.

Ezekiel 11

⁵ Hebrew, "he stood".

- ¶1. Then the Spirit picked me up and carried me to the east gate of the house of Jehovah that faces eastward, and behold, at the entrance of the gate were twenty-five men. And among them I saw Jaazaniah ben-Azur and Palatiah ben-Benaiah, princes of the people.
2. And he said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who are devising iniquity and who give evil counsel in this city,
3. who say, 'It is not near; let us build houses. This city is the pot, and we are the flesh.'
4. Therefore, prophesy against them! Prophesy, O son of man!"
5. Then the Spirit of Jehovah fell on me, and He said to me, "Say, 'Thus says Jehovah: So you think, O house of Israel. Yea, things that come up in your mind, I know.'
6. You have multiplied your slain in this city; indeed, you have filled its streets with the slain.
7. Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Your slain that you have laid out in its midst, they are the flesh, and this city is the pot, but one will take you out of it.
8. You have feared the sword, and I will bring a sword upon you, says the Lord, Jehovah.
9. Moreover, I will bring you out of its midst and give you into the hand of foreigners, and execute judgment upon you.
10. By the sword will you fall. At the border of Israel will I judge you. And you will know that I am Jehovah!
11. This city will not be your pot, nor shall you be flesh in the midst of it. At the border of Israel will I judge you.
12. And you will know that I am Jehovah! For you have not walked in my statutes, nor have you not executed my judgments, but you have executed judgments of the Gentiles who are around you."
- ¶13. Then, when I prophesied, it came to pass that Palatiah ben-Benaiah dropped dead, and fell on his face. And I fell on my face and cried out in a loud voice and said, "O Lord GOD, you are making a complete end to the remnant of Israel!"
- ¶14. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
15. "Son of man, your brothers—your brothers!—men who are close to you, and the whole house of Israel in its entirety are those to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'Get far from Jehovah. This land is given to us for a possession.'
16. Therefore say, 'Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Though I remove them far away among the Gentiles, and though I scatter them among the countries, yet will I be a little sanctuary for them wherever they go.'
17. Therefore, say, 'Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I will indeed gather you from the nations, and I will assemble you from the countries in which you were scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.'
18. And when they arrive, they will take away from the land all its detested things and all its abominations.

19. And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you, and I will take away the stony heart from their flesh, and I will give them a heart of flesh
20. so that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments and do them, and they will be my people, and I will be their God.
21. But as for the heart that goes after their heart, their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way down upon their heads, says the Lord, Jehovah."
22. Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, with their wheels by their side, and the glory of the God of Israel was over them, above.
23. And the glory of Jehovah went up from the midst of the city and stood on the mountain that is east of the city.
24. And the Spirit picked me up and carried me in the vision by the Spirit of God to Chaldea, to the captivity, Then the vision that I had seen went up from me.
25. And I told the captives all the things of Jehovah that He had shown me.

Ezekiel 12

- ¶1. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. "Son of man, you dwell in the midst of the house of rebels, whose eyes see, but do not see. They have ears, but they do not hear, for they are a rebellious house.
3. So, you, O son of man, prepare for yourself baggage for an exile, and go into exile daily in their sight. Yea, go into exile from your place to another place in their sight. It may be that they will see that they are a rebellious house.
4. You will bring out your baggage daily, like the baggage of an exile, in their sight, and you will go out in the evening in their sight, like those going out in exile.
5. In their sight, dig for yourself a hole in the wall, and take your stuff out by it.
6. In their sight, when it is dark, put it on your shoulder and go out. Cover your face so that you do not see the ground, for I have made you a sign to the house of Israel."
7. And so, I did as I was commanded. Daily, I brought out my bags, as bags of an exile, and in the evening, I dug a hole for myself in the wall with my hands. When it was dark, I brought my bags out, and I carried them on my shoulder in their sight.
8. Then, in the morning, the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
9. "Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, 'What are you doing?'
10. Say to them, 'Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem and the whole house of Israel who are among them.'
11. Say, 'I am a sign for you. Just as I have done, so shall it be done to them. They shall go into exile, into captivity.'
12. And the prince who is among them will lift his belongings to his shoulder in the dark and go out. They will dig through the wall to bring him out. He will cover his face because he would not see the ground with his eye.

13. And I will spread my net over him, and he will be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, but he will not see it, and there will he die.
 14. And I will scatter to every wind all who are about him, with all his army, and I will draw out my sword after them.'
 15. And they will know that I am Jehovah when I disperse them among the Gentiles and scatter them among countries!
 16. But I will cause a few of their men to escape from the sword, from famine, and from pestilence so that they may declare among the Gentiles where they go all their abominations. And they will know I am Jehovah!"
- ¶17. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
18. "Son of man, eat your food with trembling, and drink your water anxiously, with quivering.
 19. And say to the people of the land, 'Thus says the Lord, Jehovah, concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem and concerning the land of Israel: They shall eat their food with quivering and drink their water in dismay because her land is emptied because of what fills it—because of the violence of all who live in it.
 20. Yea, the cities that are inhabited will be a waste, and the land will be a desolation. And they will know that I am Jehovah!"

- ¶21. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
22. "Son of man, what is this proverb you people have about the land of Israel, which says, 'The days grow long, and every vision has perished'?
 23. Therefore, say to them, 'Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I will put a stop to this parable, and they will no longer use it as a parable in Israel.' And say to them, 'The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision!'
 24. For there will no longer be any false vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel.
 25. For I, Jehovah, speak whatever I will speak, and it will be done. It will not be delayed any longer, but in your days, O rebellious house, I will both speak a thing and I will do it, says the Lord, Jehovah."

¶26. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,

27. "Behold, they of the house of Israel are saying, 'The vision which he sees is for many days from now, and he is prophesying about times far off.'
28. Therefore, say to them, 'Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Not one of my words will be delayed any longer. Whatever I speak will also be done, says the Lord, Jehovah."

Ezekiel 13

- ¶1. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. "Son of man, prophesy to the prophets of Israel who are prophesying, and you say to those who prophesy out of their own hearts, 'Hear the word of Jehovah!'

3. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Woe to the prophets who prophesy, following after their own spirit, but have seen nothing!
 4. Your prophets, O Israel, are like jackals among the ruins.
 5. You have not gone up into the breaches, nor have you built a wall for the house of Israel to make a stand in the battle in the Day of Jehovah.
 6. They have seen a vain vision and speak false divination who say, ‘Jehovah has spoken,’ when Jehovah has not sent them. And yet, they expect their word to come to pass.
 7. Isn’t it so, that you have seen a vain vision and have spoken false divination when you say, ‘Jehovah has spoken,’ when I have not spoken?
 8. Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Because you have spoken vanity and seen a lying vision, behold, I am against you, says the Lord, Jehovah.
 9. And my hand shall be upon the prophets who see vain visions and who practice false divination in the Assembly of my people. They shall not be on the roll of the house of Israel! They shall not be enrolled, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel. And then shall you know that I am the Lord, Jehovah.
 10. Because, O because they have caused my people to err, saying, ‘Peace!’ when there is no peace, and one man builds a wall, and behold, they smear it with whitewash,
 11. you say to those who smear it with whitewash, that, behold, there will be an overflowing rain, and you, O hailstones, shall fall, and a stormy wind shall tear it apart.
 12. Yea, behold, the wall shall fall! Shall it not be said to you, ‘What happened to the coating that you smeared on?’
 13. Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah, In my wrath will I tear it apart with stormy winds, and an overwhelming rain in my anger, and hailstones in my wrath, unto complete destruction.
 14. And I will tear down the wall that you have smeared with whitewash, and I will strike the land and remove its foundation, and it will fall and you will be destroyed in its midst. And then, you will know that I am Jehovah!
 15. And I will fully satisfy my wrath on the wall and those who smeared it with whitewash, and I will say to you, ‘The wall is gone, and they are gone who smeared it,’
 16. namely, the prophets of Israel who kept on prophesying to Israel and who kept on seeing for it a vision of peace, when there was no peace, says the Lord, Jehovah.
- ¶17. “Now as for you, O son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who are prophesying out of their own heart, and you prophesy to them!
18. And you say, ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Woe to the women who sew charms for every wrist and make long veils for the heads of those of all heights in order to hunt for souls! Do you think you will hunt down souls belonging to my people, and keep your own souls alive?’

19. You have profaned me among my own people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, by your lies to my people, who listen to lies, putting to death souls that should not have died, and keeping souls alive who should not live.
20. Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I am against your bands with which you women there so eagerly hunt souls like birds, and I will tear them out of your arms and let go free the souls that you have been hunting, the souls like birds.
21. And I will tear off your veils and deliver my people out of your hands, and they will no longer be as prey in your hands. And you women will know that I am Jehovah!
22. Because you have discouraged the heart of the righteous man with deceit, when I have not put him to grief, and strengthened the hand of the wicked man so that the wicked man would not turn from his way, that he might live,
23. therefore, you women will no longer see a false vision or practice divination, for I will deliver my people from your power. And you will know that I am Jehovah!"

Ezekiel 14

- ¶1. Now, men from the elders came in and sat down before me.
2. Then the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
3. "Son of man, these men have erected their idols upon their heart, and the stumbling-block of their iniquity have they put before their faces. Will I be inquired of at all for them?
4. Therefore, speak with them, and you say to them, 'Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Every man of the house of Israel who erects his idols in his heart, and sets up the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and then comes to the prophet—I, Jehovah, will answer him accordingly, according to the multitude of his idols,
5. in order to take the house of Israel by their own heart, those who are alienated from me by their idols, all of them.'
6. Therefore, you say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Repent! Turn away from your idols, and turn your faces away from all your abominations!
7. For every man of the house of Israel or of the sojourners who sojourn in Israel who separates himself from following after me, and erects his idols in his heart, and sets up the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and then comes to the prophet to inquire of me by him, I, Jehovah, will answer him myself.
8. And I will set my face against that man, and I will make him a sign and a byword, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people. And you will know that I am Jehovah.
9. And as for the prophet, when he is deceived and gives a message, I, Jehovah, have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand against him, and I will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.
10. And so, they will bear their punishment. The punishment of the one who inquires will be the same as the punishment of the prophet,

11. so that the house of Israel will no more go astray from following me, and they will no longer defile themselves with all their transgressions. And they will be my people, and I will be their God, says the Lord, Jehovah.””

¶12. And the word of Jehovah came to me saying,

13. “Son of man! When a country sins against me, committing treachery, and I stretch out my hand against it, and I break its staff of bread and send famine against it, and I cut off from it man and beast,

14. though these three men were in its midst, Noah, Daniel, and Job, by their righteousness, they would deliver but their own souls, says the Lord, Jehovah.

15. If I were to cause a wild beast to pass through the land, and it bereaves it so that it is desolate, with no one passing through because of the beast,

16. though these three men were in its midst, as I live, says the Lord, Jehovah, neither sons nor daughters would they deliver. They themselves would be delivered, but the land would be desolate.

17. Or if I bring a sword against that land, and I say, ‘O sword, pass through the land! and I cut off from it both man and beast,

18. though these three men were in its midst, as I live, says the Lord, Jehovah, they would not deliver sons or daughters, but they themselves would be delivered.

19. Or if I send a plague on that land and I pour out my wrath on it because of bloodshed, to cut off from it man and beast,

20. though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in its midst, as I live, says the Lord, Jehovah, neither son nor daughter would be delivered. They, by their righteousness, would only save their own souls.

21. For thus says the Lord, Jehovah: How awful it will be when I send upon Jerusalem my four deadly judgments: sword, and famine, and wild beast, and pestilence, to cut off from her man and beast!

22. Yet, behold, a remnant will be left in her, sons and daughters who will be brought out. Behold, they will come forth to you, and you will see their ways and their doings, and you will be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, all that I have brought upon her.

23. Yea, they will comfort you when you see their way and their doings, and you will know that it is not for nothing that I have done all that I have done in it, says the Lord, Jehovah.”

Ezekiel 15

¶1. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,

2. “How is the wood of a vine better than any wood of a branch that is in trees of the forest?

3. Is wood taken from it to make anything? Or do men even take from it a peg to hang any vessel on it?

4. Behold, it is given to the fire for fuel, both ends of it; the fire consumes both ends of it; its center is also burned. Is it good for any work?
5. Behold, when it is whole, it is not used for anything. So, how much less, when fire has devoured it, and it is burned, is it used for work.
6. Therefore, says the Lord, Jehovah, just as the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire as fuel, so will I give up the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
7. And I will set my face against them. They may come out of the fire, but the fire will devour them. And you will know that I am Jehovah when I set my face against them!
8. Moreover, I will make the land a desolation because they have behaved treacherously, says the Lord, Jehovah.”

Ezekiel 16

- ¶1. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. “Son of man, make Jerusalem to know her abominations,
3. and say, ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah, to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth are of the land of the Canaanites. Your father was an Amorite and your mother was a Hittite.
4. As for your relatives, on the day you were born, your cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water to clean you up, nor were you rubbed at all with salt, nor were you even swaddled.
5. No eye took pity on you to do any of these things for you out of compassion for you, but you were tossed out into an open field because you were abhorred on the day you were born.
6. And when I passed by you and saw you squirming in your blood, I said to you—still in your blood—“Live!” Yea, I said to you in your blood, “Live!”
7. I made you flourish like a plant of the field, and you grew and became great, and you came into full adornment. Your breasts were formed, and your hair was long, and yet, you were naked and bare.
8. I passed by you again and looked at you, and behold, it was your time of love. And I spread my garment over you and covered your nakedness, and I swore to you and entered into covenant with you, says the Lord, Jehovah, and you became mine.
9. And I bathed you in water and washed your blood off you, and I anointed you with oil.
10. And I clothed you with embroidered work, and shod you with fine leather, and wrapped you in fine linen and covered you with silk.⁶
11. I adorned you with ornaments, and put bracelets on your wrists and a chain about your neck.

⁶ Hebrew uncertain.

12. And I put a ring in your nose and earrings in your ears and a beautiful crown on your head.
13. So, you were adorned with gold and silver, and your clothes were fine linen, and silk, and embroidered work. You ate flour, oil, and honey. And you were exceptionally beautiful and attained to queenship.
14. And your fame went out among the Gentiles because of your beauty, for it was perfect through my splendor which I had bestowed upon you, says the Lord, Jehovah.
15. But you trusted in your beauty, and you played the whore because of your fame, and you poured out your fornication on anyone passing by; his it was.
16. And you took some of your garments and made for yourself colorful high places, and you committed whoredom on them—which things have not been, nor shall be.
17. And you took your beautiful objects made from my gold and from my silver which I had given you, and you made for yourself male images, and you committed whoredom with them.
18. And you took your colorfully woven garments and clothed them, and you offered my oil and my incense before them,
19. and my bread which I gave you—fine flour, and oil, and honey with which I fed you—and offered it before them for a placating aroma; and so it is, says the Lord, Jehovah.
20. Moreover, you took your sons and your daughters, whom you had borne to me, and these you sacrificed to them, to be eaten! Was your fornication a small thing,
21. that you slaughtered my children and gave them up, making them to pass over the fire for them?
22. And in all your abominations and whoredoms, you did not remember the days of your youth when you were naked and bare, squirming in your blood.
23. And it came to pass, after all your wickedness (Woe! Woe to you, says the Lord, Jehovah!)
24. that you built for yourself an arched place and you made for yourself a high place in every open square;
25. at the head of every street, you built your high place, and you abhorred your beauty, and you spread your feet for anyone passing by, and multiplied your whoredoms.
26. And you played the harlot with the children of Egypt, your neighbors, great of flesh, and multiplied your whoredoms to provoke me to anger.
27. So then, behold! I stretched out my hand against you, and I diminished your portion, and I gave you over to the desire of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines who are ashamed of your lewd way.
28. And not yet satisfied, you played the whore with the children of Assyria, and even when you played the whore with them, you were not satisfied,
29. and so, you multiplied your whoredom to the land of merchants, Chaldea, and even with this, you were not satisfied!
30. How weakened is your heart, says the Lord, Jehovah, seeing you do all these things, the work of a brazen whore,

31. building your arched place at the head of every street, and making your high place in every open square. Yet, you were unlike a prostitute in that you scoffed at payment.
32. You adulterous woman! who takes strangers instead of her Husband!
33. Men give a gift to all harlots. But you! You have given gifts to all your lovers, and have bribed them with your whoredoms to come to you from every direction!
34. So, with you in your whoredoms, it is different from other women. No one caused you to play the harlot, but you give payment, and no payment is given you. Therefore, you are different.
35. Therefore, O harlot, hear the word of Jehovah!'
36. "Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Because your lust was poured out and your nakedness uncovered in your whorish acts with your lovers and with all your abominable idols, and because of the blood of your children that you gave to them,
37. therefore, behold, I will assemble all of your lovers with whom you have taken pleasure, all whom you have loved with all whom you have hated. I will gather them against you from every side, and I will expose your nakedness to them, and they will see all your nakedness.
38. And I will judge you with the judgments of women who commit adultery and murder; and I will bring on you the blood of fury and jealousy.
39. And I will give you into their hand, and they will tear down your eminent place, and they will pull down your high place, and they will strip you of your clothes, and take away your lovely things, and they will cast you aside, naked and bare.
40. And they will bring up a company against you, and stone you with stones, and cut you down with their swords.
41. And they will burn your houses with fire and execute judgments against you in the sight of many women. And I will make you cease from whoredom, and you will also make no more payments.
42. So, I will lay to rest my wrath against you, and my jealousy will turn away from you, and I will be at peace and be angry no longer.
43. Because you did not remember the days of your youth and vexed me with all these things. Yea, behold, I will also return your way down on your head, says the Lord, Jehovah, and you will not do wickedness on top of all your other abominations.[?]
44. Behold, everyone who uses a proverb against you will use this proverb: 'As the mother is, so is her daughter.'
45. You are the daughter of your mother, who loathed her husband and her children, and you are the sister of your sisters, who loath their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite, and your father, an Amorite.
46. And your elder sister was Samaria. She and her daughters lived to the north of you. And your younger sister who lives to the south of you was Sodom and her daughters.
47. And you not only walked in their ways and practiced their abominations; in a very little time, you surpassed them in corruption, in all your ways.

48. As I live, says the Lord, Jehovah, your sister Sodom, she and her daughters, did not do the way you have done, you and your daughters.
49. Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: pride, excess food, and undisturbed ease were hers and her daughters, but she did not help the poor and the needy man.
50. They were haughty and committed abomination before me, and I removed them as I saw fit.
51. Samaria did not commit half your sins, but you multiplied your abominations above them, and with all your abominations which you have committed, you have made your sisters appear righteous!
52. Bear your disgrace! Yes, you, for you intervened for your sisters. Since your sins which you have committed are more abominable than theirs, they are more righteous than you are. Therefore, be ashamed, you also, and bear your disgrace, since you have made your sisters appear righteous.
53. Yet, I will restore their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters—with the captivity of your captives in the midst of them,
54. so that you might bear your disgrace and be ashamed for all that you did, in being a consolation to them.
55. And your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, will return to their former state, and Samaria and her daughters will return to their former states, and you and your daughters will return to your former state.
56. But Sodom your sister was not a topic in your mouth in the day of your pride,
57. before your wickedness was exposed, as at the time of the reproach of Edom and of all those around her, the Philistines, who despise you on every side.
58. You must bear your wickedness and your abominations, says Jehovah.
59. For thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I will certainly do to you as you have done who have despised the oath and broken the covenant.
60. Yet, I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish with you an everlasting covenant.
61. Then, you will call to mind your ways and be ashamed when I take away your sisters, both the older and the younger, and give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant,
62. and I will establish my covenant with you. And you will know that I am Jehovah,
63. so that you will remember and be ashamed, and never open your mouth again because of your disgrace, when I am pacified concerning you for all that you have done, says the Lord, Jehovah.””

Ezekiel 17

- ¶1. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. “Son of man, propound a riddle, yea, put forth a parable to the house of Israel

3. and say ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: a large eagle that had large wings, long pinions, full of multi-colored feathers, came to Lebanon and took away the top of a cedar.
4. He plucked off the topmost of its twigs and carried it to the land of Canaan, and put it in a city of merchants.
5. Then he took some of the seed of the land and planted it in a fertile field. He placed[?] it beside plenteous waters; he set it out like a willow.
6. And it spouted and it became a spreading vine, low in height, its branches turning toward him, but its roots remained beneath it. So, it became a vine, and produced shoots, and sent out runners.
7. And there was another large eagle with large wings and many feathers. And behold, this vine bent its roots toward him and sent out its branches to him from its planting bed, that he might water it.
8. It had been planted in a good field beside abundant waters so that it might produce branches and bear fruit and become a magnificent vine.’
9. Say, ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: It should thrive. Will he not pull up its roots, and strip off its fruit so that it shrivels? All its sprouting leaves will wither, and it will take no strong arm or many people to pull it up by its roots.
10. Now, behold, it is planted. Will it thrive? Will it not utterly wither when the east wind strike it? It will wither on the beds where it sprouted.’

- ¶11. Then the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
12. “Say now to the house of rebels, ‘Do you not know what these things mean?’ Say, ‘Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and took away her king and her princes, and he brought them to him to Babylon.
 13. And he took one of the royal seed and made a covenant with him, and he put him under an oath. And he took away rulers of the land
 14. so that the kingdom would be lowly, unable to lift itself up, but would keep his covenant so that it might stand.
 15. But he rebelled against him, sending his messengers to Egypt, that he might give him horses and many people. Will he thrive? Will he escape who does such things? Will he break the covenant and escape?
 16. As I live, says the Lord, Jehovah, I will damn myself if he does not die in the midst of Babylon, in the land of the king who enthroned him, whose oath he treated with contempt and whose covenant he broke!
 17. Pharaoh will not help him in the battle with a great army and a great assembly when mounds are cast up and siege-walls are built, to destroy many lives.
 18. Yea, he despised the oath in breaking the covenant, when, behold, he had given his hand, and yet, did all these things. He shall not escape.
 19. Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: As I live, I will damn myself if I do not return on his own head my oath which he despised and my covenant which he has broken!

20. Yea, I will spread my net over him, and he will be caught in my snare, and I will bring him into Babylon and execute judgment upon him there for his treachery which he has committed against me.
21. And all his fugitives with all his forces shall fall by the sword, and the survivors will be scattered to all the winds. And you will know that I, Jehovah, have spoken!
22. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of a cedar and set it. From its topmost twigs will I pluck a tender one, and I myself will plant it on a high and lofty mountain.
23. On the mountain height of Israel will I plant it, and it will bear a branch and yield fruit, and it will become a majestic cedar, and under it, birds of every kind will dwell; they will dwell in the shade of its branches.
24. And all the trees of the field will know that I am Jehovah! I bring the exalted tree low, and I exalt the low tree. I wither the green tree, and I cause the withered tree to flourish. I, Jehovah, have spoken, and I will do it.”

Ezekiel 18

- ¶1. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. “Why are you using this parable concerning the land of Israel, saying, ‘Fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge’?
3. As I live, says the Lord, Jehovah, I will damn myself if you will any longer use this parable in Israel.
4. Behold, all souls are mine, the soul of the father as well as the soul of the son; they are mine. The soul that sins, it shall die!
- ¶5. “Now, if a man is righteous and does what is just and right,
6. if he does not eat on the mountains, and does not lift up his eyes to the idols of Israel, and does not defile his neighbors wife or approach a woman during her menstrual impurity,
7. does not mistreat anyone, returns the debtor’s pledge, has committed no robbery, gives his bread to a hungry man, and covers the naked man with a garment,
8. does not lend at interest or take interest, withdraws his hand from iniquity, executes true justice between man and man,
9. walks in my statutes and keeps my judgments, doing truth, that righteous man shall live says the Lord, Jehovah.
10. But if he fathers a son who is a violent shedder of blood, or does anything akin to any one of those evil things
11. and does none of those good things, but also who eats on the mountains, or defiles his neighbor’s wife,
12. oppresses the poor and needy man, has committed robbery, does not return a pledge, or lifts up his eyes to idols, commits abomination,

13. lends at interest or takes interest while he is alive, he shall not live. He has done all of these abominations. He shall surely die, His blood will be on himself.
14. Then, behold, if he begets a son, and he sees all the sins that his father has committed, and he sees and does not do likewise,
15. he does not eat on the mountains, his eyes he does not lift up to the idols of the house of Israel, he does not defile his neighbor's wife,
16. and does not oppress anyone, exacts no pledge, commits no robbery, gives his food to the hungry man and covers with a garment the naked man,
17. withdraws his hand from iniquity, does not take interest or usury, executes my judgments, walks in my statutes, he shall not die because of the iniquity of his father. He shall surely live.
18. His father, because he practiced oppression, robbed a brother, and did what is not good in the midst of his people, then, behold, he shall die in his iniquity.
19. But you say, 'Why should the son not bear the iniquity of his father?' When the son does what is just and right, keeping all my statutes, and doing them, he shall surely live!
20. The soul that sins, it shall die. A son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, and a father shall not bear the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.
21. Moreover, the wicked who turns from all his sin that he has done, and keeps all my statutes, and does what is just and right shall surely live; he shall not die.
22. None of his transgressions which he committed will be remembered against him. He shall live because of his righteousness which he has done.
23. Do I take any pleasure in the death of a wicked man, says the Lord, Jehovah, and not rather in his repentance from his ways, so that he may live?
24. Furthermore, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness and does wrong, doing according to any of the abominations that a wicked man does, and lives so, none of his righteousness that he has done will be remembered. Because of his treachery which he has committed and because of his sin which he has sinned, he shall die.
25. But you say, 'The way of the Lord is unjust.' Hear, now, O house of Israel! My way is unjust? Are not your ways unjust?
26. When a righteous man turns from his righteousness and does wrong, he will die because of those deeds; for his wrong which he has done, he will die.
27. And when an evil man turns from his wickedness which he has been doing, and he does what is just and right, he shall keep his soul alive.
28. Inasmuch as he considered and repented of all his transgressions which he committed, he shall surely live; he shall not die.
29. Yet, the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is unjust.' My ways are unjust, O house of Israel? Are not your ways unjust?

30. Thus will I judge each man among you according to his ways, O house of Israel, says the Lord, Jehovah. Repent! Yea, turn from all your transgressions, that iniquity be no stumbling-block for you!
31. Cast away from yourselves all your transgressions which you have committed, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit, for why will you die, O house of Israel?
32. For I take no pleasure in the death of him who dies, says the Lord, Jehovah. So, repent and live!

Ezekiel 19

- ¶1. “And as for you, lift up a dirge for the princes of Israel,
2. and say, “What was your mother? A lioness! Among lions she crouched; in the midst of young lions, she reared her cubs.
 3. And she brought up one of her cubs, and he became a lion, and he learned to catch prey; he devoured men.
 4. And nations heard of him. He was caught in their pit, and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.
 5. When she saw that she had hoped, but her hope had perished, then she took another of her cubs and made him a young lion.
 6. And he went about in the midst of lions. He became a lion and learned to catch prey. He devoured men
 7. and knew their widows. And he laid waste their cities, and the earth and all that filled it were awestruck at the sound of his roaring.
 8. Then nations came against him from the provinces on every side, and they spread their net over him. He was taken in their pit.
 9. Then with hooks, they put him into a cage and brought him to the king of Babylon. The brought him to the stronghold, and so, his voice was no longer heard on the mountains of Israel.”
- ¶10. “Your mother was like a vine in your blood, planted by the water; it was fruitful with branches because of abundant water.
11. And it had strong branches, used for the scepters of rulers. Moreover, it rose high among the leafy trees and could be seen because of its height with its many branches.
 12. But it was uprooted in wrath; it was cast down to the ground; and the east wind dried up its fruit. Its strong branches were broken off, and they withered. Fire consumed them.
 13. And now, it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land.
 14. But a fire will come forth from a branch of its shoots; it will consume its fruit, and there will be no strong branch in it fit to be the scepter of a ruler. This is the dirge, and it will be used as a dirge.”

Ezekiel 20

- ¶1. And it came to pass on the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, some men, elders of Israel, came in to inquire of Jehovah, and they sat before me.
2. And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
3. “Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Have you come to inquire of me? As I live, I will damn myself if I will be inquired of by you, says the Lord, Jehovah!’
4. Will you judge them? Will you judge them, son of man? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers!
5. And say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: On the day I chose Israel, I lifted my hand to the seed of the house of Jacob, and I made myself known to them in the land of Israel. Yea, I lifted up my hand to them, saying, “I am Jehovah your God!”’
6. On that day, I lifted up my hand to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt to a land that I had selected for them, flowing with milk and honey, the glory of all lands.
7. And I said to them, ‘Let each one cast away detestable things that are before his eyes! Do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt! I, Jehovah, am your God.’
8. But they rebelled against me and would not listen to me. None of them cast away detestable things from before their eyes, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I considered pouring out my wrath upon them and fully satisfying my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.
9. However, I acted for the sake of my name, so that it might not be profaned in the eyes of the Gentiles, in the midst of whom they were, in whose sight I had revealed myself to them when I brought them out of the land of Egypt.
10. That is the reason I brought them out of the land of Egypt and led them into the wilderness.
11. And I gave them my statutes and made known to them my judgments, which if a man does, he shall live by them.
12. And I also gave them my sabbaths as a sign between me and their sons, that they might know that I, Jehovah, am the One who consecrates them.
13. But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness. They did not observe my statutes and they refused my judgments, which if a man does, he shall have life by them. And they greatly polluted my sabbaths, and I considered pouring out my wrath on them in the wilderness to make an end of them.
14. But I acted for the sake of my name, so that it might not be profaned in the eyes of the Gentiles in whose sight I brought them out.
15. But I also lifted my hand to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land that I had given them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the glory of all lands,
16. because they refused my judgments, and did not walk in my statutes, and profaned my sabbaths, for their heart went after their idols.

17. Yet, my eyes looked on them with pity, and I did not destroy them, neither did I make a full end of them in the wilderness.
18. And I said to their children in the wilderness, ‘Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, nor keep their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols.
19. I, Jehovah, am your God. Walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments and do them,
20. and keep my sabbaths holy, for they are a sign between me and you, that you might know that I, Jehovah, am your God.’
21. But their children rebelled against me. They did not walk in my statutes, nor keep my judgments to do them, which if a man does them, that man will also live because of them. They profaned my sabbaths, and I considered pouring out my wrath on them and spending my anger on them in the wilderness.
22. But I withheld my hand and acted for the sake of my name, so that it might not be profaned in the eyes of the Gentiles, in whose sight I had brought them out of Egypt.
23. Moreover, I swore to them in the wilderness that I would scatter them among the Gentiles and disperse them among the nations
24. because they did not execute my judgments, but rejected my statutes and polluted my sabbaths, and their eyes followed after their fathers’ idols.
25. So, I also gave them statutes that were not good and judgments by which they could not have life.
26. And I defiled them with their own gifts because they made all the firstborn pass through the fire, to make them desolate, so that they might know that I am Jehovah.
27. Therefore, speak to the house of Israel O son of man, and say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: In this, too, your fathers blasphemed me, by their dealing treacherously with me.
28. For when I brought them to the land which I swore I would give them and they saw all the high hills and leafy trees, they made their sacrifices there; and there, they presented the provocation of their offerings; and there, they set their placating aromas; and there, they poured out their libations.’
29. (Then I said to them, “What is the high place to which you are going?” So, it is called a “high place”⁷ to this day.)
30. Therefore, say to the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Are you defiling yourselves the way your fathers did? Are you playing the harlot, going after their detestable things?’
31. For when you offer your gifts and when you make your children pass through the fire, you are defiling yourselves with all your idols to this day! And shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord, Jehovah, I will not be inquired of by you!

⁷ Hebrew: Bamah.

32. Moreover, what has come up in your mind will never happen! For you think, “We will be like the Gentiles, like the families of the nations, to be ministers of wood and stone.”
 33. As I live, says the Lord, Jehovah, I swear that I will damn myself if I will not be King over you with a strong hand, and outstretched arm, and poured-out wrath!⁸
 34. And I will bring you out from the nations and gather you out of the countries where you have been scattered, with a strong hand and outstretched arm and poured-out wrath!
 35. And I will bring you to the wilderness of the nations, and there will I enter into judgment with you, face to face.
 36. As I judged your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I judge you, says the Lord, Jehovah.
 37. And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and then bring you into the bond of the covenant.
 38. I also will purge from among you the rebels and those who transgress against me. And I will cause them to come out of the country where they are strangers. But it will not enter into the land of Israel. And you will know that I am Jehovah.
 39. And as for you, O house of Israel, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Go on, every one of you, and serve his idols, but later on, as I live, you will listen to me and no longer defile my holy name with your gifts and your idols.
 40. For on my holy mountain, on the mountain height of Israel, says the Lord, Jehovah, there, the house of Israel will serve me, all who are in the land. There, I will accept them, and there, I will require your offerings and your gifts of firstfruits, with all your holy things.
 41. As a placating aroma will I accept you when I bring you forth you from the peoples and gather you from the lands among whom you were scattered, and I will be sanctified among you in the sight of the nations.
 42. And you will know that I am Jehovah, when I have brought you into the land of Israel, to the land that I swore I would give to your fathers.
 43. And there you will remember your ways and all your deeds by which you defiled yourselves, and you will loathe yourselves because of all your evils that you did.
 44. And you will know that I am Jehovah when I have dealt with you for my name’s sake and not according to your evil ways and your corrupt deeds, O house of Israel, says the Lord, Jehovah.””
- ¶45. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,

⁸ Literally, “—if I will not be King...” The curse intended with this oath is so unthinkable—God’s death and damnation—that it is not even uttered. See also, 36:7; 38:19.

46. "Son of man! Set your face toward the road to Teman, and drop a word toward the south, and prophesy toward the forested field of the Negev.
47. And say to the forest of the Negev, 'Thus says the Lord, Jehovah, Watch me! I am going to kindle a fire in you, and it will consume every green tree and every dry tree that is in you. The raging flame shall not be quenched, and all people from south to north will be scorched by it.'
48. And all flesh will understand that I, Jehovah, kindled it. It shall not be quenched!"
49. Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! They keep saying of me, 'Is he not the one who tells parables?'"

Ezekiel 21

1. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. "Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem and prophesy against the holy places; yea, prophesy against the land of Israel
3. and say to the land of Israel, 'Thus says Jehovah: Behold, I am against you, and I will draw my sword from its sheath and will cut off from you both the righteous and the wicked man.
4. Seeing that I will cut off from you both the righteous and the wicked man, my sword will go forth from its sheath against all flesh, from south to north.
5. And all flesh will know that I, Jehovah, have drawn my sword out of its sheath. It will not return to it again.
6. And as for you, son of man, groan with a broken heart! Groan bitterly before their eyes!
7. And it shall come to pass when they say to you, 'Why are you groaning?' that you will say, 'Because of the news that has come! And every heart will melt, and all hands will grow feeble, and every spirit will faint, and all knees will grow weak as water.' Behold! It is coming, and it will come to pass, says the Lord, Jehovah."
- ¶8. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
9. "Son of man, prophesy, and say, 'Thus says Jehovah!' Say, 'A sword! A sword is sharpened and it has also been polished!'
10. It is sharpened to make a great slaughter. It is polished so that it will flash like lightning. Should we rejoice? The sword despises every tree, the tribe of my son,
11. though he ordained it to be polished, to be held in the hand. This sword is sharpened, and it is polished to be put into the hand of the slayer.'
12. Cry out and howl, O son of man, for it is upon my people! It is upon all the princes of Israel; they are thrown to the sword. They are my people! Therefore beat on your thigh!
13. It is for testing, but what if it also despises the tribe? It shall be no more, says the Lord, Jehovah."

- ¶14. As for you, son of man, prophesy, and strike your hands together! And let the sword strike twice! Three times! It is a sword for the polluted people, the sword of a mortally wounded mighty man, that surrounds them.
15. I have set the point⁹ of a sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt and their ruins be multiplied. Ah! It is being made to glitter—it is grasped for slaughter.
16. Be ready, O sword! Set up, right or left, wherever you are assigned.
17. And I also will strike my hands together, and I will satisfy my anger. I, Jehovah have spoken!
- ¶18. Again the word of Jehovah came to me saying,
19. As for you, son of man, you appoint two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to come; both will start out from the same location. And you erect a sign; erect it at the head of the way to the city.
20. You will appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabba, the sons of Ammon, and to Judah, to fortified Jerusalem.
21. For the King of Babylon stood at the fork in the road, at the head of the two ways, to use divination. He shook the arrows; he consulted the teraphim; he looked in the liver.
22. In his right hand was the divination of Jerusalem, to set up battering rams to make an opening for slaughter, to lift up the voice with a shout, to set up battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds to build a ramp.
23. But to them, in their eyes, it will be like false divination, the oaths sworn against them. But He will be bringing their iniquity to remembrance, that they may be taken.
24. Therefore thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Because you made your iniquity to be remembered, your transgressions to be uncovered, with all your sins and your deeds to be seen— therefore, you have made yourself to be remembered, to be taken by force.
- ¶25. And as for you, O mortally wounded, wicked prince of Israel, whose day will come during the iniquity of the end time,
26. thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Take away the turban; take off the crown! Let this be instead: exalt him who is lowly, and bring him low who is exalted!
27. A ruin! A ruin! A ruin will I make it (such has never happened!) until he comes whose right it is, and to him will I give it.
- ¶28. And you, son of man, you prophesy and say, “Thus says the Lord, Jehovah, concerning the sons of Ammon and concerning their reproach!” And say, “A sword! A sword is drawn for slaughter, polished to consume like lightning,
29. while they see vain visions for you, divining a lie for you, to appoint you against the necks of the polluted, wicked people, those whose day will come at the time of iniquity of the end!

⁹ Hebrew uncertain.

30. Return it to its sheath! In the place where you were created, in the land of your origin, will I judge you.
31. And I will pour out my indignation upon you; with the fire of my wrath will I breathe on you. And I will give you into the hands of brutal men, men skillful in destruction.
32. You will be fuel for the fire, your blood will be in the midst of the land. You will not be remembered—for I, Jehovah, have spoken.”

Ezekiel 22

- ¶1. And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. “As for you, son of man, will you judge? Will you judge the bloody city? Then make her to know all her abominations.
 3. And say, ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: O city that sheds blood in her midst, that her time may come, and makes idols for herself, that she may be defiled!
 4. You are guilty because of the blood you have shed, and you are defiled because of the idols that you have made, and you have caused your days to draw near, and you have reached the extent of your years. Therefore, I have made you a reproach to the nations, yea, a derision to all countries.
 5. Those who are near and those far from you will mock at you. Your name is defiled; you are full of confusion.
 6. Behold, princes of Israel, each according to his power, are in you for the purpose of shedding blood.
 7. In you, they treat father and mother with contempt; in your midst, they oppress the foreigner; in you, they do wrong to the orphan and widow.
 8. You have despised my holy things and profaned my sabbaths.
 9. In you have been slanderous men bent on bloodshed; in you are those who eat on the mountains; in your midst, they carry out wickedness.
 10. In you, men uncover their father’s nakedness; in you, they violate her who is unclean during her menstrual impurity.
 11. One commits an abomination with his neighbor’s wife, another lewdly defiles his daughter-in-law; and in you, another violates his sister, the daughter of his own father.
 12. In you, they take bribes to shed blood; you take interest and profit, and make unjust gain of your neighbor by extortion. Yea, you have forgotten me, says Jehovah.
 13. But behold, I have struck my hand at your unjust gain which you made and at your blood that has been in your midst.
 14. Will your courage last or your hands remain strong in the days when I will deal with you? I am Jehovah! I have spoken it, and I will do it!
 15. And I will scatter you among the Gentiles and disperse you among the countries, and I will purge your uncleanness from you.
 16. And because of yourself, you will be dishonored in the eyes of the Gentiles. And you will know that I am Jehovah!”
- ¶17. Again, the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,

18. "Son of man, the house of Israel have become like dross to me. All of them are bronze, and iron, and tin, and iron, and lead within a furnace; they are dross of silver.
 19. Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Because all of you have become like dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.
 20. Like the gathering of silver, or bronze, or iron, or lead, or tin into the midst of a furnace to blow fire on it to melt it, so will I gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and leave, and make you melt.
 21. Yea, I will gather you, and blow on you with the fire of my fury, and you will be melted in the midst of Jerusalem.
 22. As silver is melted in the midst of a furnace, so shall you be melted in the midst of it. And you will know that I, Jehovah, have poured out my wrath on you!"
- ¶23. Again, the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
24. "Son of man, say to her, 'You are a land that is not cleansed or rained upon in the day of indignation.'
 25. The conspiracy of the prophets on her midst is like a roaring lion tearing apart the prey; they have devoured lives and taken away wealth and treasures. They multiply widows in her midst.
 26. Her priests have done violence to my law and profaned my holy things. They have made no distinction between the holy and the common, nor have they taught the difference between the unclean and the clean, and they have disregarded my sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them.
 27. Her princes in her midst are like wolves tearing the prey, shedding blood and destroying lives so that they might get unjust gain.
 28. And for them, her prophets have coated wickedness with whitewash, seeing false visions and divining a lie for them, saying, 'Thus says the Lord, Jehovah,' when Jehovah has not spoken.
 29. The people of the land have practiced extortion, and committed robbery, and maltreated the poor and needy man, and oppressed the foreigner without justice.
 30. And I searched among them for a man who would build a wall and stand in the breach before me for the land, that I should not destroy it, but I found none.
 31. Therefore will I pour out on them my indignation. In the fire of my fury will I make an end of them. I will return their way upon their own heads, says the Lord, Jehovah."

Ezekiel 23

- ¶1. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. "Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother.
3. And they played the harlot with Egypt. In their youth, they played the whore. There, their breasts were squeezed, and there, men handled their virgin teats.

4. Now, their names were Oholah, the elder, and Oholibah was her sister. And they became mine, and they bore son and daughters. And as for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem is Oholibah.
5. And Oholah played the harlot though she was mine and lusted after her lovers, the Assyrians, our neighbors,
6. who were clothed in purple, governors and prefects, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding horses.
7. And she bestowed her whoredom on them, the choice sons of Assyria all of them, and with all for whom she lusted, with all their idols, she defiled herself.
8. And she did not forsake her fornication brought from Egypt, for men lay with her in her youth, and they handled her virgin teats and poured their fornication upon her.
9. Therefore, I gave her over into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, for whom she lusted.
10. They uncovered her nakedness; they took away her sons and daughters; and her they slew with the sword. And she became a byword among women when they executed against her.
11. Her sister Oholibah saw it, yet she was more corrupt in her lustfulness than she, and in her whoredoms worse than the whoredoms of her sister.
12. She lusted after the Assyrians, governors and prefects, her immaculately dressed neighbors, horsemen riding horses, desirable young men, all of them.
13. And I saw that she was defiled. They both had taken the same path.
14. But she added to her whoredoms when she saw men portrayed on the wall, images of the Chaldeans portrayed in vermillion,
15. sporting belts around their waists, flowing turbans on their heads, all of them having the appearance of officers in the manner of Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their birth.
16. Yea, when the sight caught her eyes, she lusted after them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea.
17. And the Babylonians came in to her, to the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whorish lusts. But when they had defiled her, her soul turned from them in disgust.
18. But she had flaunted her whoredoms and flaunted her nakedness, and my soul was alienated from her, as my soul had been estranged from her sister.
19. Yet, she multiplied her whoredoms, recalling the days of her youth when she played the harlot in the land of Egypt
20. and lusted after their paramours, whose member is like the member of donkeys and whose issue is like the issue of horses.
21. So, you revisited the wickedness of your youth when your teats were handled by the Egyptians because of your youthful breasts.
22. Therefore, O Oholibah, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I am stirring up your paramours against you, those from whom your soul turned in disgust, and I will bring them against you from every side:

23. the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans; Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, all the Assyrians with their young, desirable men, governors and prefects all of them, and men of renown, all of them riding on horses.
24. And they will come against you with weapons,¹⁰ chariots, and wagons, and with an assembly of people; with shield and buckler and helmet will they set themselves against you all around. And I will give the judgment to them, and they will judge you according to their own standards.
25. And I will give vent to my jealousy over you, that they may deal with you in fury. Your nose and ears, they will take off, and your remnant will fall by the sword. They will take your sons and your daughters, and your remnant will be consumed with fire.
26. They will also strip you of your garments and seize all your beautiful jewelry.
27. So, I will make your wickedness to cease from you, even your harlotry brought from the land of Egypt, so that you do not lift up your eyes to them or remember Egypt any longer.
28. For thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I will give you into the hand of those whom you hate, into the hand of those from whom you turned away in disgust.
29. And they will deal with you hatefully, and seize all that you have worked for, and leave you naked and exposed; yea, the nakedness of your whoredom will be uncovered. Yea, your wickedness and your whoredoms.
30. These things will be done to you because you have gone whoring after the nations and because you have defiled yourself with their idols.
31. You have gone the way of your sister, and I will place her cup into your hand.
32. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: You shall drink of your sister's cup, which is deep and large. It will bring ridicule and derision. It holds much.
33. You will be filled with drunkenness and grief. The cup of devastation and desolation is the cup of your sister, Samaria.
34. Yea, you shall drink it, and drain it, and break it and tear at your breasts, for I have said so, says the Lord, Jehovah!
35. Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Because you have forgotten me and cast me behind your back, you also must bear your wickedness and your whoredoms."
- ¶36. Jehovah also said to me, "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah, and declare to them their abominations?
37. For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands. Yea, they have committed adultery with their idols, and their children whom they bore to me, they have even offered to them to be consumed.
38. Moreover, this they have done to me: on the same day, they defiled my sanctuary and profaned my sabbaths.

¹⁰ Hebrew uncertain,

39. For when they had slaughtered their children for their idols, then they entered into my sanctuary the same day to profane it. Yea, behold, they did thus within my house!
40. And the women even sent for men to come from far away, to whom a messenger was sent, and behold, they came. For them you bathed yourself, you painted your eyes, and decked yourself with ornaments.
41. Then you sat on a stately couch, with a table spread before it on which you placed my incense and my oil,
42. and the sound of a carefree multitude with it. Men of the common sort were brought in, Sabeans from the wilderness, and they put bracelets on their wrists and lovely crowns on their heads.
43. Then I said of the woman worn out by fornications, ‘Now they will fornicate and join her fornications, and she with them.’
44. And they went in her, as one goes in to a whorish woman. Thus they went in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the wicked women.
45. But righteous men will judge them with judgment due adulteresses, and the judgment due women who shed blood, because they are adulteresses with blood on their hands.
46. For thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I am bringing up an assembly against them, and I will consign them to terror and to spoil.
47. And the assembly will cast stones upon them, and cut them down with their swords, they will slay their sons and their daughters and burn down their houses with fire.
48. And I will make wickedness to cease from the land, and all women may be warned, and so, not do wickedness, as you have done.
49. So, they will recompense you for your wickedness, and you will bear the sins of your idols. And you will know that I am the Lord, Jehovah!”

Ezekiel 24

- ¶1. And the word of Jehovah came to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, saying,
2. “Son of man, write down for yourself the name of this day, this very day, that the king of Babylon has laid siege against Jerusalem this selfsame day.
3. Now, give the rebellious house a parable, and say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Set on the pot! Set it on and also pour water into it.
4. Gather its pieces into it, every good piece—thigh and shoulder. Fill it with choice bones.
5. Take the choice of the flock and pile the logs beneath it. Boil it thoroughly, until its bones seethe in it.
6. Therefore thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Woe to the bloody city, the pot whose filth is in her, and whose filthiness has not gone out of her! Take it out, piece after piece; one will not cast a lot for it.

7. For her blood-guilt is in her midst. She put it on an exposed, high rock! She did not pour it out on the ground to cover it with dust!
8. To cause wrath to come up to take vengeance, I have put her blood-guilt on an exposed, high rock, that it may not be covered!
9. Therefore thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the pyre great.
10. Pile up the logs! Light the fire to consume the flesh and mix in the spices, and let the bones be burned up!
11. Set it empty on its coals so that it may become hot and its copper may burn, that its uncleanness may be melted within it, its filthiness consumed.
12. She has wearied herself with vain works,¹¹ and her abundant filthiness has not gone out of her—filthiness even in the fire.
13. Because I cleansed you from your uncleanness and lewdness, and you would not be clean from your uncleanness, therefore you will not be cleansed anymore until I have satisfied my wrath against you.
14. I, Jehovah, have said it is coming, and I will bring it about! I will not hold back! I will show no pity, and I will not relent! They will judge you as your ways and as your deeds deserve, says the Lord, Jehovah.”
15. Then the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
16. “Son of man, Behold, I am taking from you the desire of your eyes with a blow, but you are not to lament or weep, and your tears may not come forth.
17. You may cry silently; make no lament for the dead. Bind your head-dress on you and put your shoes on your feet, and do not cover your lip nor eat the food of other men.”
18. And I spoke to the people in the morning, and my wife died in the evening. And in the morning, I did just as He had commanded me.
19. And the people said to me, “Will you not tell to us what these things that you are doing mean for us?”
20. Then I told them the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
21. “Say to the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, in which you are mighty proud, the desire of your eyes and the delight of your souls, and your sons and your daughters whom you have left will fall by the sword.
22. Then you will do just as I have done. You will not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.
23. Your head-dresses will be on your heads and your shoes on your feet. You will neither mourn nor weep, but you will rot away in your iniquities, and groan, one to another.

¹¹ Hebrew uncertain.

24. And Ezekiel has been a sign to you; you will do just as he has done when it happens. And you will know that I am the Lord, Jehovah!’
25. And as for you, O son of man, shall it not be that on the day I take from them their refuge, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that on which they set their heart—their sons and daughters—
26. that on that day, one who has escaped will come to you, causing your ears to hear?
27. On that day, your mouth will be opened to the fugitive, and you will speak and be bound no longer. And so, you shall be for them a sign, and they will know that I am Jehovah.”

Ezekiel 25

[against Ammon, Moab, Edom, and Philistia]

- ¶1. And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. “Son of man, set your face against the face of the children of Ammon and prophecy against them,
3. and say to Ammon, ‘Hear the word of the Lord, Jehovah! Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Because you said, “Aha!” over my sanctuary when it was profaned, and over the land of Israel when it was made desolate, and over the house of Judah when they went into exile,
4. therefore, behold, I will give you to the children of the east for a possession, and they will set up their encampments in you, and they will make their dwellings in you. They will eat your fruit, and they will drink your milk.
5. And I will make Rabbah a habitation for camels and Ammon a fold for flocks. And you will know that I am Jehovah!
6. For thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Because you clapped hands, and stamped feet, and rejoiced with all the malice in your soul against the land of Israel,
7. therefore I have stretched out my hand against you, and I will give you as plunder to the nations, and I will cut you off from the peoples. Yea, I will destroy you from the countries; I will exterminate you! And you will know that I am Jehovah!”
- ¶8. “Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Because Moab and Seir say, ‘Behold, the house of Judah is like all the nations,’
9. therefore, behold, I will expose the flank of Moab, from the cities, his cities on his frontier, the glory of the country, Beth-Jeshimoth, Baal-Meon, and Kiriathaim,
10. to the children of the east along with Ammon. (I will certainly give it up as a possession so that Ammon might not be remembered among the nations.)
11. Also against Moab will I execute judgments. And they will know that I am Jehovah!”
- ¶12. “Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Because Edom acted with great vengeance against the house of Judah, he has committed a grievous offense, and they avenged himself against them,

13. therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I have certainly stretched out my hand against Edom, and I will cut off man and beast from it and make it a wasteland. From Teman to Dedan shall they fall by the sword.
 14. And I will take my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel, and they will deal with Edom according to my anger and my wrath. And they will know my vengeance, says the Lord, Jehovah.
- ¶15. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Because the Philistines have taken revenge, and have taken great revenge with malice of soul, destroying with a never-ending enmity,
16. therefore, says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I have stretched out my hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites, and I will cause the remnant of the seacoast people to perish.
 17. And I will execute very great wrath upon them with furious rebukes. And they will know that I am Jehovah when I lay my vengeance upon them.”

Ezekiel 26
[against Tyre]

- ¶1. And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. “Son of man, because Tyre has said concerning Jerusalem, ‘Aha! The Gentiles’ Gate is broken down; it has been swung open to me. I will be replenished, for she is laid waste.
3. Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I am against you, O Tyre, and I will bring up against you many nations, like the sea rises with its waves.
4. And they will destroy the wall of Tyre, and tear down her towers, and scrape her dirt off her, so that I make her a bare rock.
5. She will be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea, for I have spoken it, says the Lord, Jehovah. Yea, she will be but plunder for the nations,
6. and her villages that are in the countryside will be put to death by the sword. And they will know that I am Jehovah!
7. For this says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I am bringing against Tyre from the north Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, a king of kings, with horse and chariot, and horsemen, and an assemblage of many people.
8. Your villages in the countryside will be put to the sword, and he will make a siege-wall against you, and throw up a mound against you, and raise up the shield against you.
9. And he will bring the blow of his battering-ram to your walls, and your towers will he pull down with his devices.
10. Because of the multitude of his horses, he will cover you with their dust; at the noise of his horsemen, and wheels, and chariots, your walls will shake when he comes into your gates, as the entrances to the city are breached.
11. With the hooves of his horses will he trample all your streets; he will slay your people with the sword, and your mighty pillars will fall to the earth.

12. They will also spoil your wealth and plunder your merchandise, and they will break down your walls and tear down your fine houses, and they will throw your stones, and your timbers—even your dirt that is within you,—into the sea.
13. And I will cause to cease the noise of your songs, and the sound of your lyres will be heard no more.
14. And I will make you a bare rock. You shall be a place for the spreading of nets, never to be rebuilt, for I, Jehovah, have spoken, says the Lord, Jehovah.
15. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah, concerning Tyre: At the sound of your fall, will not the coastlands quake at the groan of the wounded when the great slaughter is made in the midst of you?
16. Then all the princes of the sea will come down from their thrones, and remove their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments. Clothed with terror, they will sit upon the ground and tremble continually. Yea, they will be appalled at you.
17. And they will raise a lamentation over you, and say to you, ‘How you have perished, who was populated from the sea, O renowned city that was mighty on the sea, she and her inhabitants, who spread their terror to all who lived there.’
18. Now the coastlands tremble on the day of your downfall; yea, the coastlands that are on the sea are disquieted at your departure.’
19. For thus says the Lord, Jehovah: When I make you a city laid waste, like the cities that are not inhabited, when I bring up the deep over you, and the great waters will cover you.
20. then will I bring you down with those who go down into the Pit, to people of old, and I will make you dwell in the lower parts of the earth like the desolated cities of old who have gone down into the Pit, so that you be not inhabited. But I will give honor in the land of the living.
21. I will make you a terror, and you will be no more. You will be sought, but you will no longer be found, forever, says the Lord, Jehovah.”

Ezekiel 27
[against Tyre]

- ¶1. And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. “You, O son of man! Lift up a lamentation for Tyre,
3. and speak to Tyre, she who dwells at the entrances of the sea, trafficker of the nations to many coastlands, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: O Tyre! You say, ‘I am perfect in beauty.’
4. Your borders are in the heart of the seas; your builders did perfect your beauty.
5. They built all your planks with cypress trees from Senir; they took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

6. With oaks from Bashan they made your oars; they inlaid your boards of boxwood from the coasts of Kittim with ivory.¹²
7. Your sail was of embroidered linen from Egypt; it was your ensign. Your awning was of violet and purple from the coasts of Elishah.
8. The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers. Your wise men, O Tyre, were with you; they were your pilots.
9. The elders of Gebal and her skilled men were with you, repairers of your seam. All the ships of the sea and their mariners were with you to exchange your wares.
10. Persia, and Lud, and Phut were with your army as men of war; they hung shield and helmet in you; they provided you with splendor.
11. Sons of Arvad and Helek were on your walls all around, and men of Gammad were in your towers. They hung their shields on your walls all around. They, too, perfected your beauty.
12. Tarshish was your merchant because of the abundance of all the riches; they gave silver, iron, tin, and lead for your merchandise.
13. Javan, Tubal, and Meshek, these were your traffickers in souls of men, and they gave bronze vessels for your wares.
14. They from Beth-Togarmah gave steeds and mules for your merchandise.
15. The sons of Dedan were your traffickers. Merchants under your control were on many coastlands. They exchanged ivory tusks and ebony for your payment.
16. Aram was your merchant because of the abundance of your goods; they exchanged [b/c of the addition of two “with’s”] emeralds, purple, and embroidered work, and byssus, and coral, and rubies for your merchandise.
17. Judah and the land of Israel were your traffickers. They gave wheat of Minnith, and pannag,¹³ and honey, and oil, and balsam for your wares.
18. Damascus was your merchant in an abundance of your goods, because of the abundance of all the riches, with wine from Helbon and wool from Zahar.
19. And Dan and Javan went to and fro from Uzal for your merchandise; they exchanged wrought iron, cassia, and calamus for your wares.
20. Dedan was your trafficker in saddlecloth for riding.
21. Arabia and all the princes of Kedar, they were your dealers in lambs, and rams, and goats. With them, they were your dealers.
22. Traffickers of Sheba and Raamah, they were your traffickers. They exchanged the choicest of spice, and all precious stones, and gold for your merchandise.
23. Haran and Calneh, and Eden traded with you, and traffickers of Sheba, Assyria, Chilmad.

¹² Or, “The company of Ashurites made your benches of ivory from the coasts of Kittim.”

¹³ The meaning of this word is unknown.

24. They were your traffickers in choice items, with garments of blue, and embroidered work, and in multicolored carpets, bound and secured with cords, among your merchandise.
25. Ships of Tarshish made journeys for you with your wares. So, you were filled and heavily laden in the heart of the sea.
26. Your oarsmen took you onto the high seas, but an east wind will break you in the heart of the sea.
27. Your wealth and your merchandise, your wares, your mariners and your pilots, those who repair a seam, and exchangers of your wares, and all your men of war in you, and in all your assembly that is in your midst shall fall in the heart of the sea in the day of your fall.
28. The sound of your pilots' cry will shake the countryside.
29. All those who handle the oar, the mariners, will come down from their ships. The sea captains will stand upon the shore.
30. And they will make their voices heard for you and cry out bitterly. They will also throw dust up on their heads; they will roll about in ashes.
31. Moreover, they will make themselves bald for you, and gird on sackcloth and weep over you in bitterness of soul, mourning bitterly.
32. And in their wailing, they will lift up for you a dirge, and they will lament for you, 'Who is like Tyre, like the one silenced in the midst of the sea?
33. When your merchandise went out by the seas, you satisfied many nations with your great wealth, and your wares enriched the kings of earth.'
34. At the time you are broken by the seas, in the depths of the waters, your wares and all your assembly will have gone down in your midst!
35. All the inhabitants of the coastlands and their kings are appalled at you; they bristle with great horror; their faces are contorted.
36. Dealers of the nations will hiss at you; you have come to a dreadful end, and you will be no more, forever.

Ezekiel 28
[against the prince and the king of Tyre]

- ¶1. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. "Son of man, Say to the prince of Tyre, 'Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Because your heart is lifted up, you have said "I am a god; I have lived in the dwelling-place of God, in the heart of the seas." But you are a man, and not a god (though you make your heart like the heart of God).
3. Behold, you are wiser than Daniel; they can keep no secret from you.
4. By your wisdom and your understanding have you made wealth for yourself, and you have amassed gold and silver in your treasuries.
5. By the greatness of your wisdom, with your traffic, you increased your wealth, and because of your wealth, your heart is puffed up.

6. Therefore, says the Lord, Jehovah: Because you have made your heart like the heart of a god,
7. behold, I am bringing foreigners against you, the most ruthless of the nations, and they will draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they will defile your splendor.
8. They shall send you down into the Pit, and you shall die the death of those slain in the heart of the sea.
9. Will you still say, ‘I am God’ before him who kills you? You will just be a man and not a god in the hand of those who slay you.
10. At the hand of foreigners will you die the deaths of the uncircumcised, for I have spoken, says the Lord, Jehovah.”

¶11. And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,

12. “Son of man, take up a lamentation for the king of Tyre, and say to him, ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: You are the epitome of symmetry, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.
13. You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone was your covering: sardius, topaz, and diamond; beryl, onyx, and jasper; sapphire, emerald, and carbuncle. Moreover, your timbrels and your pipes, gold workmanship, were set in you the day you were created.
14. You are an anointed cherub that covers, and I put you on the holy mountain of God. You have walked freely in the midst of the stones of fire.
15. You were perfect in your ways from the day you were created until unrighteousness was found in you.
16. By the abundance of your merchandise, they filled your midst with violence, and you have sinned. Therefore, I will cast you out as profane from the mountain of God; yea, I will banish you, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.
17. Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have corrupted your wisdom because of your brightness.
18. By the multitude of your iniquities, by your unrighteous trade, you profaned your sanctuaries, and I will send forth a fire out of your midst which shall consume you, and I will turn you into ashes on the ground for the eyes of all who see you.
19. All who know you among the nations are made desolate; a dreadful terror shall come upon you, and you shall be no more, forever.””

¶20. And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,

21. “Son of man, set your face against Sidon and prophesy against it!
22. And say, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I am against you, O Sidon! And I will be glorified in your midst, and they will know that I am Jehovah when I shall have executed judgments in her. And I will be sanctified in her.

- 23. For I will send a plague against her and blood into her streets, and the slain will fall in her midst by the sword that is against her all around. And they will know that I am Jehovah.
- 24. There will no longer be a pricking brier or thorn causing pain to the house of Israel among those around them that treated them with contempt, and they will know that I am the Lord, Jehovah.
- ¶25. "Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: When I have gathered the house of Israel out of the nations where they were scattered, I will sanctify them in the sight of the Gentiles, and they will dwell in their own land, which I gave to my servant Jacob.
- 26. Yea, they will safely dwell in it and build houses and plant vineyards, and they will dwell safely while I execute judgments upon all those around them who despise them, and they will know that I am Jehovah their God."

Ezekiel 29

[against Pharaoh and for Egypt. Against Tyre]

- ¶1. In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
- 2. "Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt.
- 3. Speak, and say, Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold I am against you, O Pharaoh, king of Egypt, the great dragon who makes his abode in the midst of his canals, who has said to me, 'It is my canal; I, myself, made it for myself.'
- 4. But I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will cause the fish of your streams to stick to your scales. And I will bring you up out of the midst of your streams, and all the fish of your streams will cling to your scales.
- 5. Then I will leave you in the wilderness, you and all the fish of your streams. You will fall upon the face of the field. You will not be brought together or gathered. I have given you for food for the beasts of the earth and birds of heaven.
- 6. And all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am Jehovah, for they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel.¹⁴
- 7. When they took you by your hand, you splintered and tore open all their shoulders; yea, when they leaned upon you, you broke and made all their loins to be at a stand.
- 8. Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I will bring upon you a sword, and I will cut off from you man and beast.
- 9. And the land of Egypt will be a desolation and a waste. And they will know that I am Jehovah, since he said, 'The Nile is mine, and I made it.'
- 10. Therefore, behold, I am against you and your streams, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste, a desolation from Migdol to Syene, as far as the border of Cush.

¹⁴ That is, a useless ally. Cf. 2Kgs. 18:21; Isa. 36:6; Ezek. 29:16.

11. The foot of man will not pass over her, and the foot of beast will not pass over her, but it will be uninhabited forty years.
 12. And I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of desolated countries, and her cities will be a desolation in the midst of desolated cities forty years, and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations; yea, I will disperse them throughout the lands.
 13. For thus says the Lord, Jehovah: At the end of forty years, I will gather Egypt from the peoples among whom they were scattered.
 14. And I will bring back the captivity of Egypt, and I will cause them to return to the land of Pathros, to the land of their origin, and there they will be a lowly kingdom.
 15. It will be the lowliest of kingdoms; neither will it exalt itself any more over the nations. Yea, I will make them small, that they do not rule over the nations.
 16. And it will no more be the confidence of the house of Israel; they will remember iniquity, when they turned after them. And they will know that I am the Lord, Jehovah!"
- ¶17. And it came to pass in the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, that the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
18. "Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, caused his army to perform a great service at Tyre. Every head was made bald and every shoulder was made bare, but he received no wages from Tyre, nor did his army, for the service which he rendered against it.
 19. Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah, Behold, I am giving Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, the land of Egypt, and he will carry off its abundance, and seize its spoil, and take its plunder, and that will be his army's wages.
 20. I have given him the land of Egypt as his payment, for which he labored, because they worked for me, says the Lord, Jehovah.
 21. On that day, I will cause a horn to spring forth for the house of Israel, and to you will I give an opened mouth in their midst. And they will know that I am Jehovah!"

Ezekiel 30
[against Egypt]

- ¶1. And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. "Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says Jehovah: 'Give out a howl: "Alas for the day!"'
3. For the day is near. Yea, the day of Jehovah is near, a day of gloom! It will be the Gentiles' time.
4. A sword will come against Egypt, and there will be anguish in Cush when he falls, slain in Egypt. And they will take away its wealth, and its foundations will be overthrown.
5. Cush, and Phut, and Lud, and all the mixed company, and Chub, and children of the land of the covenant, will fall by the sword with them.

6. Thus says Jehovah: Those who support Egypt will also fall, and her proud might will collapse. From Migdol to Syene will they fall by the edge of the sword, says the Lord, Jehovah.
 7. Yea, they will be desolate among desolated countries, and its cities will be among wasted cities.
 8. And they will know that I am Jehovah when I have set a fire in Egypt and all their helpers are broken!
 9. In that day shall messengers go out from me in ships to cause unsuspecting Cush to tremble, and will be anguish among them in the day of Egypt. Yea, behold, it is coming.
 10. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: By the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, will I also put an end to the wealth of Egypt.
 11. He and his multitude with him, the most ruthless of the Gentiles, will be brought in to destroy the land, and they will draw their swords against Egypt and fill the land with the slain.
 12. Moreover, I will make the Nile dry, and I will sell the land into the hand of wicked men, and by the hand of foreigners will I make desolate the land and its fullness. I, Jehovah, have spoken.
 13. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I will also destroy the images and cause the idols of Noph to cease, and no longer will there be an exalted prince from Egypt. Yea, I will put fear upon the land of Egypt.
 14. I will also make Pathros a desolation, and will light a fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments upon No.
 15. And I will pour out my wrath upon Sin, the Egyptian stronghold, and I will cut off the multitude of No.
 16. Yea, I will light a fire in Egypt; Sin will be in great agony; No will be breached; and Noph will face enemies by day.
 17. The young men of On and Pi-Beseth will fall by the sword, and the women will go into captivity.
 18. And at Tehaphpenehes, the day will be dark when I break there the yokes of Egypt and her proud strength within her is ended. A cloud will cover her, and her daughters will go into captivity.
 19. Yea, I will execute judgments in Egypt, and they will know that I am Jehovah!"
- ¶20. And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, that the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
21. "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and, behold, it has not been bound up for healing or wrapped with a bandage to make it strong enough to wield the sword.
 22. Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt! And I will break his arms, the strong one and the one that is broken, and I will cause the sword to fall from his hand.

23. And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations; yea, I will disperse them throughout the lands.
24. But I have strengthened the arms of the king of Babylon, and I have placed my sword in his hand, and I have broken the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before him with the groanings of a mortally wounded man.
25. Yea, I have strengthened the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh will fall down. And they will know that I am Jehovah when I have put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and stretch it out against the land of Egypt.
26. And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations; yea, I will disperse them throughout the lands. And they will know that I am Jehovah!

Ezekiel 31
[against Pharaoh and Egypt]

- ¶1. Now, it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, that the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. Son of man, say to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and to his people, to whom are you like in your greatness?
3. Behold, Assyria was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches and a forest providing shade and towering height with his top being thick with foliage.
4. Waters made him great; the deep made him tall, with streams flowing all around his planting-place, and he sent forth his water-courses to all the trees of the field.
5. Therefore, his height towered above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were large, and when he shot them forth, his branches were long because of the abundance of water.
6. In his branches nested all the birds of heaven, and under his boughs, all the beasts of the field gave birth, and many nations all lived in his shade.
7. He was beautiful in his greatness, in the length of his branches, for his roots extended to abundant water.
8. The cedars in the garden of God did not outdo him; the cypresses did not equal his boughs; nor were the planes trees comparable to his branches. None of the trees in the garden of God compared with him in his beauty.
9. I made him beautiful with his many branches, and all the trees of Eden, who were in the garden of God, envied him.
10. Therefore says the Lord, Jehovah: Because he rose up into the heights and his top thick with foliage, his heart became proud because of his height.
11. And so, I will give him over into the hand of a leader of nations who will assuredly deal with him. I have cast him out, in accordance with his wickedness,
12. and foreigners, the most ruthless of the Gentiles, have cut him down and left him. Upon the mountains and in all the valleys, his branches have fallen, and his boughs are broken; they have come down into all the ravines of earth. All the nations of earth have escaped from under his shade.

13. All the birds of heaven will remain on his carcass and all the creatures of the field will be upon his branches,
14. so that none of the trees by the water will be lofty in their height or have their top thick with foliage, nor will their great ones stand firm in their height, all that drink up water, because all of them are given over to death, to the lower part of the earth among the children of men who go down to the Pit. [Compare Hebrew of verse 3b with 14a]
15. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: In the day he went down to Sheol, I caused mourning. I closed the Abyss over him and held back his rivers; yea, his abundant waters were withheld. I also made Lebanon grieve over him, and all the trees of the field fainted because of him.
16. At the sound of his fall, I made the nations to shake when I sent him down to Sheol with those who go down into the Pit, and all the trees of Eden will be comforted in the lower part of the earth, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink up water.
17. They also went down to Sheol with him, to those slain with the sword, yea, those who were his arm. They lived in his shade in the midst of the nations.
18. To whom among the trees of Eden are you like in such glory and greatness? Yet, you shall be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lower parts of the earth, among the uncircumcised you will lie down, with those slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord, Jehovah.”

Ezekiel 32
[against Pharaoh and Egypt]

- ¶1. And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, that the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. “Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and say to him, ‘You are like a young lion among the nations, and you are like a sea serpent. Yea, you burst forth with your rivers, and trouble the waters with your feet, and muddy their rivers.
3. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I will spread my net over you with an assembly of many nations, and they will haul you up in my net.
4. I will forsake you in the land; I will cast you to the open field and will cause every bird of the sky to light upon you, and with you will I fill all the beasts of earth.
5. And I will lay your flesh to the mountains and fill the valleys with your bodies.
6. And I will cause the land to drink your blood that flows from you, to the mountains, and the ravines will be full of you.
7. And when I wipe you out, I will cover over the heavens and darken the stars. The sun will I cover, and the moon will not put forth its light.
8. All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over you, and I will put darkness over your land, says the Lord, Jehovah.

9. And I will vex the heart of many peoples when I bring about your destruction among the nations, upon countries about which you do not know.
 10. And I will make many peoples to be appalled at you, and the hair of their kings will bristle because of you when I brandish my sword before them. And each one will tremble for his life, every moment, in the day of your downfall.
 11. For thus says the Lord, Jehovah: The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon you!
 12. By the swords of mighty men will I cause your people to fall, ruthless nations all of them, and they will bring to ruin the majesty of Egypt, and all her army will be annihilated.
 13. I will also destroy all her beasts from beside the abundant waters, and the foot of man will muddy them no more, nor will the hooves of beasts muddy them.
 14. Then will I let their waters settle and make their rivers run like oil, says the Lord, Jehovah.
 15. When I make the land of Egypt a desolation, when the land is desolate of all that filled it, when I have struck down all the inhabitants in it, then they will know that I am Jehovah!
 16. This is the lamentation with which they shall lament her; the daughters of the nations shall lament for her, for Egypt and all her people, says the Lord, Jehovah."
- ¶17. And it came to pass in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth of the month, that the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
18. "Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt and cast it down, her and the daughters of the grand nations, to the lower parts of the earth with those who go down to the Pit.
 19. Whom do you surpass in beauty? Descend, and be laid down with the uncircumcised!
 20. They shall fall in the midst of those slain by the sword. She is given over to the sword. They will drag her down, with all her multitudes.
 21. The leaders of the mighty ones will say to him from the midst of Sheol, with his helpers, 'They are gone down. They lie with the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.'
 22. Assyria is there, and all her assembly. Round about it are its graves, all of them slain, felled by the sword,
 23. whose graves were appointed to be in the sides of the Pit, and her assembly is round about her grave, all of them slain, felled by the sword, who had spread terror in the land of the living.
 24. Elam is there, and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them slain, felled by the sword, who went down uncircumcised to the lower parts who had spread their terror in the land of the living, and they bear their infamy with those who go down to the Pit.
 25. In the midst of the slain have they made her a bed, with all her multitude, round about it are her graves, all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though their terror

- was spread in the land of the living, and they bear their infamy with those who go down to the Pit. It is placed in the midst of those who are slain.
26. Meshech-Tubal is there, and all her multitude. Round about it are her graves, all of them uncircumcised, having been slain with the sword, though they spread their terror in the land of the living.
 27. They do not lie with the fallen mighty men from among the uncircumcised who have gone down to Sheol, though men placed their weapons of war and their swords under their heads. Yet, their iniquities will be upon their bones, though the terror of mighty men was in the land of the living.
 28. (But you, you will be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and you will lie with those slain by the sword.)
 29. Edom is headed there, her kings and all her princes who, in spite of their might, are appointed to be with those slain by the sword. They will lie with the uncircumcised and with those who go down to the Pit.
 30. The princes of the north are headed there, all of them, and all the Zidonians, who go down with the slain, put to shame with their terror and their might. Yea, the uncircumcised will lie with those slain by the sword. And they will bear their infamy with those who go down to the Pit.
 31. Pharaoh will see them and be comforted because of all his multitude slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and his army, says the Lord, Jehovah.
 32. Though I spread his terror in the land of the living, yet he will be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with those slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his people, says the Lord, Jehovah.”

Ezekiel 33

- ¶1. And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. “Son of man, speak to the children of your people and say to them, ‘If I bring a sword against a country, and the people of that country take a man from their territory and make him their watchman,
 3. and he sees the sword coming upon the land, and he blows the shofar and warns the people,
 4. then whoever hears the sound of the shofar, yet does not heed the warning, and the sword comes and takes him away, his blood shall be on his own head.
 5. He heard the sound of the shofar, but did not take warning. His blood shall be upon himself, for he was warned, that he might save his life.
 6. But the watchman, when he sees the sword coming and does not blow the shofar, and the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes someone from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood will I require of the watchman’s hand.’

7. Now, I have appointed you, O son of man, to be a watchman for the house of Israel, and you have heard the word from my mouth. So, you give them the warning from me!
8. When I say of the wicked man, ‘A wicked man shall surely die,’ and you do not speak to warn the wicked man, because of that, the wicked man will die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at your hand.
9. But as for you, if you have warned the wicked man of his way, to turn from it, and he does not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity, but you will have delivered your soul.’
10. And as for you, O son of man, you say to the house of Israel, ‘Thus you speak, saying, “If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we are rotting away because of them, then how shall we live?”
11. You say to them, ‘I swear on my life, says the Lord, Jehovah, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn! Turn from your evil ways! For why will you die, O house of Israel?’
12. So then, you, O son of man, say to the sons of your people, ‘The righteousness of a righteous man shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression. And as for the wickedness of the wicked man, he shall not be condemned because of it in the day he repents from his wickedness. Nor shall the righteous man be able to live because of his righteous deeds in the day of his sin.’
13. When I say to the righteous that he shall surely live, but then he trusts in his own righteousness and does wrong, none of his righteousness will be remembered, but because of his wrong that he has done, he will die in it.
14. Or when I say to the wicked man, ‘You shall surely die!’ and then he turns from his sin and does what is just and right,
15. if the wicked restores the pledge, repays what he stole, walks in the statutes of life, not doing wrong, he will surely live and not die.
16. None of his sin which he committed will be remembered against him. He has done what is just and right. He shall live.’
17. Yet the children of my people say, ‘The way of the Lord is not equal.’ But theirs is the way that is not equal!
18. When a righteous man turns from his righteousness and does wrong, then he shall die because of it.
19. And if a wicked man turns from his wickedness and does what is just and right, he shall live on account of that.
20. Yet, you say, ‘The way of the Lord is not equal.’ I will judge you, O house of Israel, each man according to his ways.”
- ¶21. And it came to pass in the twelfth year, on the tenth day of the fifth month of our captivity that a captive from Jerusalem came in to me, saying, ‘The city has been taken.’

22. And the hand of Jehovah had been on me the evening before the captive came in, and He had opened my mouth ere he came in to me in the morning; He opened my mouth, and I was no longer dumb.

¶23. Then the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,

24. “Son of man, the inhabitants of these waste places in the land of Israel keep saying, ‘Abraham was one, and he inherited the land, and we are many, and to us is the land given for an inheritance.’

25. Therefore, say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and you shed blood, and shall you possess the land?’

26. Your men rely upon your sword, and your women commit an abomination, and each of you defiles his neighbor’s wife, and shall you possess the land?’

27. Thus shall you say to them: ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I swear by my life that I will damn myself if those who are in the waste places do not fall by the sword, and I do not give those in the field to the beasts for food, and those in strongholds and caves do not die by the plague!

28. Yea, I have made the land a desolation and a waste; the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, so that no one will pass through.

29. And they will know that I am Jehovah when I have made the land a desolation and a waste because of all their abominations which they have done.

¶30. As for you, O son of man, the children of your people are talking about you by the walls and at the doors of houses, and they speak one to another, each to his brother, saying, “Come, I pray, and let’s hear what the word will be that comes from Jehovah!”

31. And they come to you as people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but they will not do them! Though with their mouth, they show much love, their heart goes after their unjust gain.

32. Behold, you are to them like one who sings love songs with a beautiful voice while playing skillfully on an instrument, for they hear your words, but they do not do them.

33. But when it comes—behold, it is coming!—then they will know that a prophet has been in their midst.

Ezekiel 34 [against the shepherds of God’s flock]

¶1. And the word of Jehovah came to me saying,

2. “Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel! Prophesy and say to them, to the shepherds, ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Woe to the shepherds of Israel because they are feeding themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flock?’

3. You eat the fat, and clothe yourselves with the wool, and slaughter the fattened sheep for sacrifice, but you do not feed the flock!

4. You have not strengthened those who are weak, nor have you healed the sick one, nor have you bound up the injured one, nor have you brought back the one driven off, nor have you sought for the one who is dying. Instead, with force and harshness, you rule over them.
5. So, they are scattered because there is no shepherd, and when they were scattered, they became food for every beast of the field.
6. My sheep are wandering on all the mountains and on every high hill. My sheep are scattered over the whole face of the earth, and there is no one looking for them; yea, no one is searching.
7. Therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of Jehovah!
8. I swear on my life, says the Lord, Jehovah, that I will damn myself if I do not—because my flock is a spoil and my sheep have become food for every beats of the field because the is no shepherd, nor did my shepherds search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed the flock—
9. Therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of Jehovah!
10. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will demand my sheep from their hand and remove them from tending the flock so that the shepherds may no longer feed themselves, and I will deliver my flock from their mouths, that it may not be food for them.
11. For thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I myself will search for my sheep and seek them out.
12. As a shepherd seeks his own flock on a day when he is in the midst of his sheep that are scattered, so will I seek out my sheep and rescue them out of all the places where they were scattered in a day of clouds and thick darkness.
13. I will bring them out from the nations and gather them from the lands, and will bring them to their own land, and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the streams and in all the dwelling places of the country.
14. I will feed them in a good pasture, and their fold will be on the high mountains of Israel; there will they lie down in a good fold, and they will feed in rich pastures upon the mountains of Israel.
15. I myself will feed my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down, says the Lord, Jehovah.
16. I will seek that which is lost, and bring back that which is cast out, and I will bind up that which is injured, and I will make the weak strong, but that which is fat and strong will I destroy; I will feed that one with judgment.
17. And as for you, my flock, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I judge between one sheep and another, between the rams and the he-goats.
18. Is it a small thing to you, that you eat up the good pasture and trample with your feet what is left of your pastures, and that you drink clear water but foul the rest with your feet?
19. As for my flock, they must eat what is trodden with your feet and drink what is fouled by your feet.

20. Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah, to them: Behold, I, even I, will judge between fat sheep and lean sheep.
21. Because you have thrust with side and shoulder, and because you have gored all the weak with your horns until you scattered them abroad,
22. therefore will I rescue my flock, and they will no longer be a prey. Moreover, I will judge between one sheep and another.
23. I have raised up one shepherd to be over them, and he will feed them, even David my servant; he will feed them and be their shepherd.
24. And I, Jehovah, will be their God, and my servant David will be a Prince in their midst. I, Jehovah, have spoken!
25. And I will make for them a covenant of peace so that I rid the land of dangerous beasts, and men will live in the wilderness in safety, and sleep in the woods.
26. And I will make them, and the areas around my hill, a blessing, and I will send down the rain in its season. There will be showers of blessing,
27. and the tree of the field will yield its fruit, and the land will yield its increase. And they will be safe on their own land, and they will know that I am Jehovah when I break the bars of their yoke and snatch them out of the hand of those who enslaved them.
28. And they will no longer be a prey for the Gentiles, neither will the beast of the land devour them, but they will live in security, and nothing will make them afraid.
29. And I will cause acclaimed crops to come up for them so that they no longer waste away with famine in the land and never again bear the reproach of the Gentiles.
30. And they will know that I, Jehovah their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the Lord, Jehovah.
31. And you, my flock, the flock of my pasture, you are men. I am your God, says the Lord, Jehovah."

Ezekiel 35
[against Edom]

- ¶1. And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
2. "Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it!
3. And you say to it, 'thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I am against you, O Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you and appoint you to desolation and devastation.
4. I will lay your cities waste, and you will be a desolation. And you will know that I am Jehovah!
5. Because you had perpetual enmity and delivered the children of Israel over to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of final punishment.
6. Therefore, by my life, says the Lord, Jehovah, I will prepare you for bloodshed, and bloodshed will pursue you! Inasmuch as you did not hate bloodshed, bloodshed will pursue you!

7. And I will make Mount Seir a desolation and devastation, and I will cut off from it the one who passes through and the one who returns.
8. And I will fill his mountains with his slain; those slain by the sword will fall on your hills, and your valleys, and in all your ravines.
9. I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities will not be inhabited. And you will know that I am Jehovah!
10. Because you have said, “These two nations and two lands are mine,” although Jehovah was there,
11. I swear by my life, says the Lord, Jehovah, I will certainly do according to your wrath and according to your envy which you have showed because of your hatred of them, and I will make myself known among them when I shall have judged you,
12. and you will know that I am Jehovah. I have heard all your blasphemies which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, “They are desolate. They are given to us for food!”
13. And you have exalted yourselves against me with your mouth; yea, you have multiplied your words against me. I heard it!
14. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you a desolation.
15. As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do to you. You shall be desolate, O Mount Seir, and all Edom—all of it! And you will know that I am Jehovah!”

Ezekiel 36

- ¶1. “And so, you, O son of man, you prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say, ‘O mountains of Israel, hear the word of Jehovah!’
2. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Because the enemy has said of you, “Aha!” and “The ancient heights have become our possession,”
3. therefore, prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Because they brought desolation and trampled you on every side, so that you have become a possession for the rest of the nations, and are taken up on their lips and tongue, and have an evil report of people,
4. therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord, Jehovah! Thus says the Lord, Jehovah, to the mountains and to the hills, to the ravines and to the valleys, and to the desolate waste places, and to the deserted cities which were a spoil and ridicule to the remnant of the surrounding Gentiles:
5. Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I swear that I will damn myself if I have not spoken in the fire of my jealousy against the remnant of the Gentiles, and against all Edom, who appropriated my land for themselves as a possession with wholehearted joy and scornful soul, so that its pastureland was spoil.

6. Therefore, prophesy concerning the land of Israel and say to the mountains and to the hills, to the ravines and to the valleys, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I have said in my jealousy and in my wrath, because you have borne the reproach of the heathen,
7. therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I have lifted up my hand. I swear that I will damn myself if the heathen that are around you do not bear their own reproach!
8. But you, O mountains of Israel, you will put forth your branches and yield your fruit for my people Israel when they are about to come.
9. For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you will be tilled and sown.
10. And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel—all of it!—and the cities will be inhabited, and the desolate places will be built.
11. I will certainly multiply man and beast upon you, and they will multiply and bear fruit. And I will settle you as in your former times, and I will do you more good than at the first. And you will know that I am Jehovah!
12. I will cause men to walk over you, even my people Israel, and they will possess you, and you will be their inheritance, and you will never again be bereaved of them.
13. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Because they say to you, ‘You, O land are a devourer of men and a bereaver of your own nation.’
14. Therefore, you will no longer devour men or again bereave your own nation, says the Lord, Jehovah.
15. Neither will I cause the invective of the heathen against you to be heard any longer, nor will you bear the reproach of the nations, nor will you bring ruin to your nation again, says the Lord, Jehovah.”

- ¶16. And the word of Jehovah came to me saying,
17. “Son of man, the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, but they defiled it with their ways and their doings. Their way before me was like the uncleanness of woman’s menstruation.
 18. Then I poured out my wrath upon them because of the blood which they had shed on the land. They also defiled it with their idols.
 19. And I scattered them among the Gentiles, and they were dispersed among the nations; I judged them as their ways and as their deeds deserve.
 20. And when they came to the Gentiles, wherever they came, they profaned my holy name so that men said of them, “These are the people of Jehovah, yet they had to leave His land.”
 21. But I was concerned about my holy name which the house of Israel had profaned among the Gentiles where they had gone.
- ¶22. Therefore, say to the house of Israel, “Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I will not do this for your sake, O house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you have dishonored among the nations where you have gone.

23. And I will sanctify my great name which was profaned among the Gentiles, which you profaned in their midst, says the Lord, Jehovah. And the Gentiles will know that I am Jehovah when I am sanctified in you before their eyes!
 24. Yet, I will take you from among the Gentiles and gather you out of all countries, and I will bring you to your land
 25. and sprinkle clean water upon you, and you will be clean. And I will cleanse you from all your uncleanness and from all your idols.
 26. I will also give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh.
 27. And I will put my Spirit within you, and I will enable you to walk according to my statutes and my judgments, and you will diligently keep them.
 28. Then you will live in the land that I gave to your fathers, and you will be my people, and I will be your God.
 29. And I will deliver you from all your uncleanness, and I will summon the grain and multiply it, and I will not give you famine.
 30. And I will make the fruit of the tree and the produce of the field abundant, so that you no longer bear the reproach of famine before the Gentiles.
 31. And you will remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good, and you will be loathsome in your own sight because of your sins and because of your abominations.
 32. I will not do this for your sake, says the Lord, Jehovah. Be it known to you! Be ashamed and confounded because of your ways, O house of Israel!
- ¶33. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will also cause all the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places will be built.
34. And the land that was made desolate will be worked instead of being the desolation that it was in the sight of all who passed by.
 35. And they will say, "This land that was made desolate has become like the garden of Eden! And the cities that were laid waste, and made desolate, and left in ruins are unassailable and inhabited!"
 36. And the nations around you that are left will know that I, Jehovah, have rebuilt the places that were thrown down, and I have planted the desolated place. I, Jehovah, have spoken, and I will do it!
- ¶37. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I will be asked this for the house of Israel, to do for them; I will multiply them like a flock of men,
38. like a flock of holy men, like the flock of Jerusalem during her appointed feasts. Thus will desolate cities be filled with a flock of men, and they will know that I am Jehovah."

- ¶1. The hand of Jehovah was upon me, and He took me out, by the spirit of Jehovah, and set me down in the middle of the valley, and it was full of bones.
2. And he made me pass by them, all around, and behold, there were very many on the valley floor, and behold, they were very dry.
3. And He said to me, “Son of man, will these bones come back to life?” And I said, “O Lord GOD, you alone know.”
4. Then He said to me, “Prophesy over these bones, and say to them, ‘O dry bones, hear the word of Jehovah!’”
5. Thus says Jehovah GOD to these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live.
6. And I will lay sinews upon you, and I will make flesh grow on you, and I will spread skin over you, and I will put breath into you, and you will live. And you will know that I am Jehovah!””
7. So I prophesied as I was commanded, and there was a sound as I was prophesying, and there was a shaking, and bones joined together, bone to its bone!
8. Then I looked, and there were sinews upon them, and then, flesh grew, and skin spread over them above that, but there was no breath in them.
9. Then He said to me, “Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, son of man, and say to the breath, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: From the four winds come, breath, and breathe into these slain men, that they may live.”
10. So I prophesied as He commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they came to life, and they stood on their feet, an extraordinarily great army.
11. And He said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say, ‘Our bones have dried up, and our hope has perished. We are utterly cut off.’”
12. Therefore, prophesy and say to them, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I will open your graves and bring you up out of your graves, O my people, and I will bring you to the land of Israel.
13. And you will know that I am Jehovah when I open your graves and bring you up out of your graves, O my people,
14. and put my spirit in you and you come to life, and I give you rest upon the land. Then you will know that I, Jehovah, spoke, and I brought it to pass, says Jehovah.”
- ¶15. And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
16. “Now, you son of man, take one stick and write on it, ‘For Judah and for the children of Israel united with him’. And take another stick and write on it, ‘For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and all the house of Israel united with him.’”
17. Then bring them together to you, one against the other, as one stick, and they will become one in your hand.

18. And when the children of your people speak to you, saying, ‘Will you not tell us what these are to you?’,
19. say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I am taking the stick of Joseph that is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel united with him, and I will put them with him, with the stick of Judah, and I will make them into one stick, and they will be one in my hand.’
20. And the sticks that you wrote on will be in your hand in their sight.
21. Then say to them, “Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations where they have gone, and I will gather them from every direction and bring them into their own land.
22. And I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel. And there will be one King over them all, and they will no longer be two nations, and no longer be divided into two kingdoms.
23. And they will no longer defile themselves with their idols, or with their abominations, or with any of their transgressions, but I will rescue them from all the places they have lived and where they have sinned, and I will purify them. And they will be my people, and I will be their God.
24. And David my servant will be king over them, and there will be one shepherd for all of them, and they will walk in my judgments and keep my statutes, and they will do them.
25. And they will dwell in the land that I gave to my servant Jacob, where your fathers dwelt; they will dwell in it, they, and their sons, and their son’s sons forever, and David my servant will be their prince forever.
26. And I will make a covenant of peace with them. It will be an everlasting covenant with them, and I will establish them and multiply them, and I will put my sanctuary in their midst forever.
27. Then my tabernacle will be with them, and I will be their God, and they will be my people.
28. And the nations will know that I, Jehovah, sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary is in their midst forever.

Ezekiel 38

- ¶1. Again the word of Jehovah came to me saying,
2. “Son of man, set your face toward God, the land of Magog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him.
3. And you shall say, Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.
4. And I will turn you back, and I will put hooks in your jaws and lead you forth, with all your army: horses, horsemen in full armor attired, all of them—a great assembly—shield and buckler, all of them wielding swords.
5. Persia, Cush, and Phut are with them, all of them with shield and helmet,

6. Gomer and all her hordes, the house of Togarmah, from distant northern parts, and all his hordes. Yea, many peoples are with you.
 7. Get ready! Ready yourself, you and your whole Assembly who are assembled about you. Yea, you are their keeper.
 8. After many days, you will be visited. In the latter times, you will come to the land brought back from the sword and gathered out of many nations, against the mountains of Israel which have been perpetually wasted, even she who was brought forth out of the nations, and all of them dwelling securely.
 9. And you will come up like a devastating storm; you will come like a cloud to cover the land, you and all your hordes, and many nations with you.
- ¶10. “Thus says the the Lord, Jehovah: It shall come to pass on the very day they come up that thoughts will come into your mind, and you will devise an evil plan.
11. And you will say, ‘I will go up against the land of unprotected villages; I will come against the quiet people, all of them living securely, dwelling without a wall, and no gates and bars for themselves,’
 12. to take spoil and carry off plunder, to turn your hand against the waste places now inhabited, even against the people gathered out of the nations, who have livestock and goods, who dwell on the pre-eminent part of the earth.
 13. Sheba and Dedan, and merchants of Tarshish, and all her young lions, will say to you, ‘Have you come to take spoil and to carry off plunder? Have you gathered your assembly in order to carry away silver and gold, to take livestock and goods, to seize great spoil?’
 14. Therefore, prophesy, son of man, and say to Gog, “Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: On the day when my people Israel dwell securely, will you not take note of it?
 15. And you shall come out of your place, from places far to the north, you and many nations with you, all of them riding horses, a great assembly and a large army.
 16. And you will come up against my people Israel like a cloud to cover the land; in the last days shall it come to pass that I will bring you against my land so that the nations may know me, when I sanctify myself in you before their eyes, O Gog!
- ¶17. “Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Are you the one of whom I spoke in former days by the hand of my servants, the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days that I would bring you up against them?
18. But it shall come to pass on that day, the day that Gog comes against the land of Israel, says the Lord, Jehovah, that my hot anger will come up in me,
 19. and in my jealousy, in my fiery wrath—I have spoken!—I swear that I will damn myself if there is not on that day a great quaking in the land of Israel.
 20. And fish of the sea, and bird of the sky, and beast of the field, and every creeping thing that creeps on the ground, and every human who is on the face of the earth shall quake, and the mountains shall be cast down, and the cliffs shall collapse, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21. And for all my mountains, I will call for a sword against him, says the Lord, Jehovah. Every man's sword will be against his brother.
22. And I will judge him with a plague, and with blood, and an overwhelming downpour, and I will make stones of hail, fire, and sulfur to rain upon him, and upon all his hordes, and upon the many nations that are with him.
23. And I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and make myself known in the sight of many nations. And they will know that I am Jehovah!

Ezekiel 39

- ¶1. "And you, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, 'Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Behold, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal!'
2. And I will deceive you, and lead you on,¹⁵ and I will bring you up from the remote north, and I will cause you to come against the mountains of Israel,
3. and then I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and make your arrows drop from your right hand.
4. Upon the mountains of Israel will you fall, you and all your hordes, and the peoples who are with you. I will give you as food to predatory birds of all kinds and to the beast of the field.
5. You will fall in the open field, for I have spoken, says the Lord, Jehovah."
6. I will send a fire upon Gog, and upon those who inhabit the isles, for a sacrifice, and they will know that I am Jehovah!
7. And I will make my holy Name known in the midst of my people Israel, and I will not cause my holy name to be polluted any longer. And the nations will know that I, Jehovah, the Holy One, am with Israel.
8. Behold, it is coming, and it shall be done, says the Lord, Jehovah, this day of which I have spoken.
9. And those who live in the cities of Israel will go out and make fires with the weaponry and will burn it: bucklers and shields, bows and arrows, clubs and spears. And they will make fires with them seven years.
10. And they will not pick up wood from the fields nor cut wood out of the forests, for they will make fires with the weaponry. And they will spoil those who were spoiling them, and they will plunder those who were plundering them, says the Lord, Jehovah.
- ¶11. "And it shall come to pass on that day that I will give to Gog a place for burial there in Israel, the valley of those who pass by, east of the sea, and it will stop those who pass by. And they will bury Gog and all his multitude there, and they will call it "The Valley of Hamon-Gog".¹⁶
12. And for seven months, the house of Israel will be burying them to purify the land,
13. and all the people of the land will do the burying. And the day I glorify myself will be a memorable day for them, says the Lord, Jehovah.

¹⁵ Hebrew uncertain.

¹⁶ Or, "Multitude of Gog".

14. And they will designate men who will pass through the land on a regular basis, burying the trespassers that remain on the face of the land, to purify it. At the end of the seven months, they will begin to search.
15. And when those who pass through the land go over it and see a human bone, one will put up a marker beside it until the buriers bury it in the Valley of Hamon-Gog.
16. (The name of the city is also Hamonah.) Thus will they cleanse the land.
17. As for you, son of man, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Tell every sort of bird and every wild beast, "Assemble and come! Gather from all around to my sacrifice that I am making for you, a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel! And you will eat flesh and drink blood.
18. You will eat the flesh of mighty men, and you will drink the blood of princes of the earth; rams, he-lambs, and he-goats, bulls—fatlings of Bashan, all of them.
19. And at my sacrifice which I am making for you, you will eat fat until you are full, and you will drink blood until you are drunk.
20. And at my table, you will be filled with horse and charioteer, mighty men, and all men of war", says the Lord, Jehovah.
21. And I will establish my glory among the nations when all the nations see my judgment that I have executed and my hand that I have laid upon them.
22. And from that day forward shall the house of Israel know that I, Jehovah, am their God.
23. And the nations will know that the house of Israel went into exile because of their iniquity, for they were treacherous against me, and I hid my face from them. And I gave them into the hand of their adversaries and they fell by the sword, all of them.
24. I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions, and I hid my face from them.
25. Therefore, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: I will now return the captivity of Jacob; yea, I will have compassion on the whole house of Israel, for I am jealous for my holy name.
26. And they will bear[?] their shame and all their treachery which they committed against me, when they dwell safely upon the land and there is no one causing them to tremble.
27. When I have brought them back from the nations and gathered them out of the lands of the enemies, then will I sanctify myself in them before the eyes of many nations.
28. And they will know that I am Jehovah their God, because I exiled them into the nations, but I gathered them together upon their own land. Yea, I will not leave one of them there any longer.
29. And I will no longer hide my face from them when I have poured out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, says the Lord, Jehovah."

Ezekiel 40

1. In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was destroyed, on that selfsame day, the hand of Jehovah was upon me, and He brought me there
2. in visions. God brought me to the land of Israel, and He let me down on a very high mountain, and above it was something like a structure of a city toward the south.

3. And He brought me there, and behold, a man whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze. In his hand was a flax cord and a measuring reed. And he was standing in the gate.
4. And the man said to me, "Son of man, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and pay close attention to everything that I show you because you have been brought here that you might see it. Declare all that you see to the house of Israel."
5. And behold, a wall was outside the temple, all around. And in the man's hand was a measuring reed of six cubits (each was a cubit and a handbreadth), and he measured the width of the construction as one reed, and the height was one reed.
6. Then he went to the gate that faced the road toward the east, and he went up by its steps and measured the threshold of the gate as one reed wide and the other threshold one reed wide.
7. And each chamber was one reed long and one reed wide, and between the chambers was five cubits, and the threshold of the gate next to the portico of the inner gate was one reed.
8. And he measured the portico of the inner gate, one reed.
9. Then he measured the portico of the gate, eight cubits, and its pillars, two cubits, and the portico of the gate was inward.
10. The chambers of the eastern gate were three on both sides, the three of them of one measurement. And there was one measurement for the pillars on both sides of it.
11. And he measured the width of the gate opening, ten cubits. The length of the gateway was thirteen cubits.
12. And the border before the chambers: a border of one cubit by one cubit, and the chamber was six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side.
13. And he measured the gate from the roof of one chamber to the roof of the opposite one: twenty-five cubits wide, from doorway to doorway.
14. So did he the pillars, sixty cubits, even to the pillar of the courtyard gate, all around.
15. And from the front of the gate entrance before the portico of the inner gate, fifty cubits.
16. And the gate had narrowed windows by the chambers and their pillars inside, all around, and likewise the porticos had windows all around inside and on the pillars were palm trees.
17. Then he brought me to the outer courtyard, and, behold, rooms and pavement were made all around. Thirty rooms faced the pavement,
18. with the pavement to the side of the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates. This was the lower pavement.
19. Then he measured the distance in front of the lower gate to the outside of the inner courtyard: one hundred cubits on the east and the north.
20. As for the gate that faced the way north, belonging to the lower courtyard, he measured its length and its width.

21. And its chambers were three on this side and three on that side, and its pillars and its portico were of the measure of the first gate, fifty cubits was its length, and the length was twenty-five by the cubit.
22. And its windows, and its portico, and its palm trees were of the measure of the gate that faced the way east, and by seven steps they shall go into it. And its portico faced them.
23. As for the gate to the inner courtyard opposite the north gate, as on the east, he then measured. From gate to gate was one hundred cubits.
24. Then he led me toward the south, and there was a gate on the south. And he measured its pillar and its portico. These measurements were the same as the others.
25. And there were windows in it and in its porticos all around, like the other windows, fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.
26. And seven steps led up to it, and the porticos were opposite them, it had palm trees on its pillars, one on this side and one on the other.
27. The inner courtyard also had gate on the south. And he measured from gate to gate, southward, one hundred cubits.
28. Then he brought me into the inner courtyard by the south gate, and he measured the south gate. These measurements were the same as the others.
29. These measurements of the chambers and pillars and porticos were the same as the others, and its windows and its porticos all around were fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.
30. And the porticos all around were twenty-five cubits long, and five cubits wide,
31. and its portico faced the outer courtyard. And palm trees were on its pillars, with eight steps for its ascent.
32. Then he took me to the inner court on the east, and he measured the gate. These measurements were the same as the others.
33. These measurements of the chambers and pillars and porticos were the same as the others, and its windows and its porticos all around were fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.
34. And its pillars faced the outer courtyard, and palm trees were on the pillars, on either side, with eight steps for its ascent.
35. Then he brought me to the north gate, and he took measurements. These measurements were the same as the others,
36. its chambers, its pillars, its porticos, and its porticos and its windows all round were fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.
37. And its pillars faced the outer courtyard, and palm trees were on the pillars, on either side, with eight steps for its ascent.
38. And a room with its entrance was by the pillars of the gate. There they wash the burnt offering.
39. And in the portico of the gate were two tables on this side and that side, on which the burnt offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering are butchered.

40. And to the side, outside of it, as one goes up to the entrance of the north gate, were two tables, and on the other side, which was the portico of the gate, were two tables.
41. Four table were on this side and four tables were on that side, beside of the gate, eight tables on which they butcher sacrifices.
42. And the four tables for burnt offering were of hewn stone, one and a half cubits long, one cubit and a half wide, and the height was one cubit high. On them, they will place the utensils with which they slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifices.
43. And hooks, one handbreadth wide, were fastened all around to the temple, and on the tables was the flesh of the offering.
44. And outside the inner gate are rooms form the singers in the inner courtyard, one of which was beside the north gate facing south, the other beside the east gate facing north.
45. And he said to me, "This room facing the south is for the priests who keep the charge over the temple,
46. and the room that faces north is for the priests who have charge over the altar. They are sons of Zadok, who from the sons of Levi approach Jehovah to minister to Him."
47. And he measured the courtyard, a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide, made square, and the altar was in front of the temple.
48. Then he brought me to the portico of the temple, and he measured the pillar of the portico, five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side, and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side.
49. The length of the portico was twenty cubits, and the breadth, eleven cubits, and those who went up to it did so by steps. And there were pillars at the doorposts, one on this side and one on that side.

Ezekiel 41

- ¶1. Then he brought me to the temple, and he measured the pillars, six cubits wide on this side and six cubits wide on that side, a width of the tabernacle (? cp. Ex. 36:20–21).
2. And the width of the entrance was ten cubits, and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side. And he measured the length, forty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits.
3. Then he went inside and measured the pillar of the entrance, two cubits, and the doorway, six cubits, with the width of the doorway being seven cubits.
4. And he measured the length of it, twenty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits, before the temple. And he said to me, "This is the Most Holy Place."
5. And he measured the wall of the temple building [?], six cubits, and the width of each side chamber was four cubits all around, all around the temple building [?]
6. And the chambers were chamber upon chamber, three levels, with thirty on a level. And chambers[?] were fastened into the wall of the temple all around to act as supports, that they might not be supported by the wall of the temple.

7. And it became wider as it wound up to each level of chambers because surrounding the house, level upon level, it went all around the house, so that the house increased in width as it went upward, and thus the lowest chambers went up the highest ones by way of the middle ones.
8. And I saw the height of the temple foundation for the chambers was laid all around, a full reed, that is, six joined cubits in height.
9. The width of the outside wall of each chamber was five cubits, and the space between the chambers for the temple
10. and the rooms was twenty cubits wide, all around the temple.
11. And the chamber had entryway into the free space, one entrance toward the north and one entrance toward the south, and the width of the place of the free space was five cubits all around.
12. Now, the building that was before the separate place at the western entrance was seventy cubits wide, and the wall of the building was five cubits wide all around, and its length was ninety cubits.
13. And he measured the length of the temple, one hundred cubits, and the length of the separate place and the building and its wall were one hundred cubits.
14. And the width of the front of the temple and the separate area to the east was a hundred cubits.
15. And he measured the length of the building in front of the separate area which is at its rear and the galleries, from this side to that side, a hundred cubits, as well as the inner sanctuary and the portico of the courtyard,
16. the sills, and the narrowed windows. And the galleries around their three levels, opposite the threshold, were paneled wood all around, even from the floor to the windows. And the windows were covered.
17. Up above the entrance, and toward the inner house even to the outside, and the whole wall all around, by a measure,
18. was also carved cherubim and palm trees. And a palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and each cherub had two faces.
19. The face of a man was toward the palm tree on one side and the face of a young lion was toward the palm tree on one side. They were carved on the whole house all around.
20. From the floor to above the entrance were carved cherubim and palm trees, as well as the wall of the temple.
21. The door posts of the temple were squared, as was the front of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one was as the appearance of the other.
22. The wooden altar was three cubits high, and its length was two cubits, with its corners, and its length and its walls were wooden. And he said to me, "This is the table that is before Jehovah."
23. The temple and the Holy Place had two doors.

24. And the two doors had two swinging leaves, two leaves on one door, and two leaves on the other.
25. And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, as were made for the walls, and a covering of wood for the surface of the porch outside.
26. And there were narrowed windows and palms on one side and the other, on the sides of the porch, and the side chambers of the house, and the coverings.

Ezekiel 42

- ¶1. Then he led me out to the outer courtyard, the way toward the north, and he brought me to the room opposite the separate area, which was also opposite the building to the north.
2. Along the length, which was one hundred cubits, was the door facing north, and the width was fifty cubits.
3. Opposite the inner court's twenty cubits, and opposite the pavement of the outer court was gallery against gallery on three levels.
4. And opposite the rooms was a walkway ten cubits wide leading to the inside, a way of one cubit, and their doors were to the north.
5. Now, the upper rooms were shorter because the galleries took more from them than from the lower and middle rooms of the building.
6. For they were on three levels, and they did not have pillars like the pillars of the courtyards. Therefore, they were set back more than the lower and middle levels from the ground up.
7. And there was a wall that was outside by the rooms, toward the outer court in front of the rooms. Its length was fifty cubits,
8. for the length of the rooms that were in the outer court was fifty cubits, but behold, facing the temple, it was one hundred cubits.
9. And beneath these rooms was the east entrance, by which one enters them from the outer court.
10. In the thickness of the outer wall facing east, in front of the separate area and in front of the building, were rooms,
11. with a passageway before them. These mirrored the rooms that were to the north, similar in their length, in their width, and all their exits, and their arrangements, and their entrances.
12. And like the entrances to the rooms that were on the south, an entrance was at the head of the path, before the surrounding [?? root: ganan] wall to the east, as one enters them.
13. And he said to me, "The north rooms and the south rooms which are before the separate area are holy rooms in which the priests who approach Jehovah may eat the holiest things. There shall they place the holiest things, even the grain offering, and the sin offering, and the guilt offering, for it is a holy place."

14. When the priests have entered, they may not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments in which they minister, for they are holy. After that, they shall put on clothes and go near that which is for the people.
15. When he finished the measurement of the inner temple, he brought me out by way of the eastern gate and measured it all round.
16. He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed all around.
17. He measured the north side with the measuring reed all around, five hundred reeds.
18. The south side he measured five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed all around.
19. Around to the west side, he measured five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed all around.
20. He measured it on four sides. It had a wall all around. Its length was five hundred and its breadth, five hundred, to make a separation between the holy from the common.

Ezekiel 43

- ¶1. Then he led me to the gate, the gate that faces toward the east.
2. And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the east, and His voice was like the sound of many waters, and the earth shone with His glory.
3. And this vision was like a vision that I had seen, like the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city, and visions like the vision that I saw at the river Chebar. And I fell on my face.
4. And the glory of Jehovah came to the house by way of the gate that faces toward the east.
5. And the Spirit took me up and brought me to the inner courtyard, and behold, the glory of Jehovah filled the house.
6. And I heard one speaking to me from the house (and a man was standing beside me),
7. and He said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place for the soles of my feet where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever, and the house of Israel, neither they nor their kings, will again defile my holy name with their whoredoms and with the carcasses of their kings in their high places.
8. In setting their threshold by my threshold, and their doorpost beside my doorpost, and the wall between me and them, they defiled my holy name with their abominations that they practiced, so that I consumed them in my anger.
9. Let them now put away their whoredom and the carcasses of their kings far from me, and then, I will dwell with them forever.
10. You, son of man, describe the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities, and let them measure the pattern.
11. And if they are ashamed of all that they have done, show them the design of the house, and its arrangement, and its exits, and its entrances, and all its design and all its statutes. And all my designs and all its laws make known to them, and write it out for their eyes, and let them follow all its designs and all its statutes, and carry them out.

12. This is the law of the house: on the top of the mountain, all its boundary round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.
13. And these are the measurements of the altar by cubits (a cubit being a cubit and a handbreadth): the base shall be a cubit, and a cubit wide, and its surrounding border on its lip, a span. And this shall be the height of the altar:
14. from the base on the ground to the lower ledge, two cubits; with a width of one cubit, and from the small ledge to the larger ledge, four cubits, with a width of a cubit.
15. And the hearth was four cubits, and from the hearth four horns projected upwards.
16. And the hearth was twelve long, by twelve wide, squared.
17. The ledge shall also be fourteen long by fourteen wide on its four sides, with the larger ledge around it, half a cubit, and the surrounding base for it a cubit, with its steps facing east.
18. And he said to me, “Son of man, thus says the Lord, Jehovah: These are the ordinances for the altar on the day that it is made, for burnt offerings to be made on it, and for blood to be sprinkled on it.
19. And you shall give to the priests, the Levites who are of the seed of Zadok, who approach me to minister to me, says the Lord, Jehovah, a bullock from the herd for a sin offering.
20. And you shall take some of its blood and put it on its four horns, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border round about; thus shall you purify it and make atonement for it.
21. And you shall take the bullock of the sin offering, and he shall burn it at the appointed place of the house, outside the sanctuary.
22. And on the second day, you shall offer an unblemished male from the goats for a sin offering, and they shall purify the altar just as they purified it with the bullock.
23. And when you finish purifying it, you shall offer an unblemished bullock from the herd and an unblemished ram from the flock.
24. And you shall offer them before Jehovah, and the priests shall cast salt on them and offer them for a burnt offering to Jehovah.
25. Seven days shall you prepare a goat for a daily sin offering; they shall also prepare a bullock from the herd and an unblemished ram from the flock.
26. Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it; and they shall be ordained.
27. And when they have completed these days, then it shall be that on the eighth day and onward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings on the altar, and your peace offerings, and I will accept you, says the Lord, Jehovah.”

Ezekiel 44

- ¶1. Then he brought me back by way of the theater gate of the sanctuary that faced east, and it was shut.

2. And Jehovah said to me, "This gate is to remain shut. It shall not be opened, and no man shall enter through it, because Jehovah, the God of Israel, has entered through it. Therefore, it is to remain shut.
3. Only the Prince himself may sit within it to eat bread before Jehovah. By way of the portico shall he enter, and by that way shall he go out."
4. And then he brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple, and I looked, and behold, the glory of Jehovah filled the temple of Jehovah, and I fell on my face.
5. And Jehovah said to me, "Son of man! Pay close attention, and see with your eyes and hear with your ears all that I am saying to you concerning all the ordinances of the temple of Jehovah and all its laws. Yea, take careful note to the entrance of the temple and all the exits of the sanctuary.
6. And you tell the rebellious house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: You have a multitude because of all your abominations, O house of Israel,
7. in that you bring in sons of a stranger, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary to pollute it— my house!—when you offer my bread, the fat and the blood. Yea, they violate my covenant through all your abominations.
8. And you have not kept the charge of my holy things, but you have appointed others instead of yourselves to be keepers of my charge in my sanctuary.
9. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, may enter into my sanctuary, including any foreigner who is among the children of Israel.
10. And the Levites who went far from me when Israel went astray, who went astray from me after their idols, will surely bear their iniquity.
11. Yet, they were ministers in my sanctuary, having charge of the gates of the temple and guarding the temple. They slaughtered the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they stood before them to minister to them.
12. Because they ministered to them before their idols, they became an iniquitous stumbling-block to the house of Israel. Therefore, I have sworn concerning them, says the Lord, Jehovah, that they shall bear their iniquity.
13. And they will never come near me, to act as priests to me, nor come near any of my holy things at the Most Holy Place, but they will bear their shame, and the abomination which they have committed.
14. Yet, I appointed them keepers of the charge of the temple, and all its service, and all that is done in it.
15. However, the priests, the Levites, the sons of Zadok who kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall approach me to minister to me and to stand before me to offer me the fat and the blood, says the Lord, Jehovah.
16. They shall enter my sanctuary, and they shall approach my table to minister to me, and they shall keep my charge.

17. And it shall come to pass that when they enter the gates of my inner court, they shall wear linen garments, and they shall not have wool upon them while they minister within the gates of my inner court or at the temple.
18. And linen turbans shall be on their heads, and linen undergarments shall be on their loins. They shall not gird on anything that makes them sweat.
19. And when they go out to the outer court, to the outer court to the people, they shall take off their garments in which they minister, and leave them in the holy rooms, and put on other garments so that they do not sanctify the people with their garments.
20. And they shall not shave their head, nor grow their locks long. They shall only trim their heads.
21. And no priest shall drink wine when he comes the inner court.
22. And they shall not take as a wife either a widow or a divorcee, but only a virgin of the seed of the house of Israel. However, the widow who is a widow of a priest, they may take.
23. And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and make them to distinguish between the unclean and the clean.
24. And in a dispute, they shall stand to judge. They shall render judgment of it in keeping with my ordinances. And they shall keep my laws and my statutes, with all my appointed times, and they shall keep my sabbaths holy.
25. Moreover, they shall not defile themselves by coming in to a dead man; however, they may defile themselves for a father, or mother, or son, or daughter, or for brother, or for a sister who has not had a husband.
26. But after his purification, they shall count for him seven days.
27. And on the day he goes in to the holy place, to the inner court, to minister in the holy place, he shall bring his sin offering, says the Lord, Jehovah,
28. and it shall be for them an inheritance; I am their inheritance. And you shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession.
29. And they may eat the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering, and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs.
30. And all the firstfruits of everything, of all the excise offerings, everything from all your excise offerings, shall be the priests'. And you shall give the firstfruits of your dough to the priest, so that a blessing may rest upon your house.
31. The priests shall not eat of anything that dies of itself or is torn, whether of fowl or of beast.

Ezekiel 45

- ¶1. “And when you divide the land by lot as an inheritance, you shall offer up an excise offering to Jehovah, a holy portion of the land twenty-five thousand long, ten thousand wide. It shall be holy in all its border around.
2. Some of this will be for the sanctuary, a square, five hundred by five hundred in circumference, with fifty cubits of open land around it.

3. And from this measured portion, you shall measure a length of twenty-five thousand and a width of ten thousand, in which will be the sanctuary for the Holy of Holies.
4. It will be a holy portion of the land. It is for the priests who minister in the sanctuary, who approach to minister to Jehovah, and it is for them a place for houses as well as a place for the sanctuary.
5. Moreover, twenty-five thousand long and ten thousand wide shall be for the Levites who serve the temple, for their inheritance, twenty dwelling-places.
6. And you shall give in possession to the city five thousand wide and in length twenty-five thousand, alongside the holy excised portion. It shall belong to all the house of Israel.
7. And the Prince shall have both sides of the holy excised portion with the city's possession, alongside the holy excised portion and the city's possession from the west side, westward, and from the east side, eastward. And the length shall be alongside one of the portions, from the west border toward the east border.
8. For that land shall be his for a possession in Israel. And princes shall no longer oppress my people, but you shall give the land to the house of Israel for their tribes."
9. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Enough, you princes of Israel! Turn from violence and havoc! Do justice and righteousness! Cease from your evictions of my people, says the Lord, Jehovah!
10. Let there be with you just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath!
11. Let there be one measure for the ephah and the bath. The bath shall contain a tenth of a homer, and the ephah a tenth of a homer; the homer shall be the standard measurement.
12. The shekel shall be twenty gerahs. Twenty shekels and twenty-five shekels and fifteen shekels shall be your mina.
13. This is the excise offering which you shall make: a sixth of an ephah of each homer of wheat. You shall also bring a sixth of an ephah of each homer of barley.
14. And the due from a bath of oil is a tenth of the bath from the cor. Ten baths are a homer; yea, ten baths are a homer.
15. And one sheep from each flock of two hundred from the well-watered places of Israel for a grain offering, and a burnt offering, and peace offerings, to make atonement for them, says the Lord, Jehovah.
16. All the people of the land shall contribute to this excise offering for the Prince in Israel.
17. And at the feasts, the new moons, and the Sabbaths—at all the appointed times of the house of Israel—the Prince's part shall be the burnt offerings, and the grain offering, and the libation. He himself shall make the sin offering, with the grain offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make atonement on behalf of the house of Israel.

18. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: At the beginning of the first month, at the new moon, you shall take a bull from the herd, without blemish, and purify the sanctuary with a sin offering.
19. And the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorpost of the temple, and the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and the gatepost at the gate of the inner courtyard.
20. Thus shall you do on the seventh day of the month for the man who errs inadvertently or out of ignorance. Thus shall you make atonement for the temple.
21. In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall keep the Passover Feast. Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days.
22. And on that day, the Prince shall prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering.
23. And he shall provide on the seven days of the feast as a burnt offering to Jehovah seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish, each of the seven days, and goats each day for a sin offering.
24. And he shall prepare an ephah of grain offering with each bull, and an ephah with each ram, and hin of oil with each ephah.
25. In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, during the feast shall he provide like these for the seven days a sin offering, a burnt offering, and a grain offering with the oil.

Ezekiel 46

- ¶1. “Thus says Jehovah God: The gate of the inner courtyard that faces east shall be shut the six working days, but on the Sabbath day, it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened.
2. And the prince shall enter from the outside by way of the portico of the gate, and he shall stand by the gate-post while the priests offer his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall bow down upon the threshold of the gate. Then shall he leave. But the gate shall not be shut until the evening.
3. And on the Sabbaths and on the new moons, the people of the land shall worship before Jehovah at the opening of the gate,
4. And the burnt offering which the Prince shall offer before Jehovah is six lambs without blemish and one ram without blemish,
5. and an ephah of grain offering for the ram, and a grain offering for the lambs as he is able to give, with a hin of oil for each ephah.
6. And on the day of the new moon, a bull of the herd, unblemished, and six lambs and a ram. They shall be unblemished.
7. And he shall provide a grain offering, an ephah for the bull and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil for each ephah.
8. And when the Prince enters, he shall enter by way of the portico of the gate, and he shall go out the same way.

9. And when the people of the land come in before Jehovah at the appointed times, he who comes in by way of the north gate to worship shall go out by way of the south gate, and he who comes in by way of the south gate to worship shall go out by way of the north gate. He shall not return by way of the gate by which he entered, but he shall go out straight ahead.
 10. And the Prince shall come in among them when they come in, and he shall go out when they go out.
 11. At the feasts and the appointed times, the grain offering shall be an ephah for the bull, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs as one is able to give, and a hin of oil for each ephah.
 12. And when the Prince makes a freewill offering, a burnt offering or peace offerings as a freewill offering to Jehovah, then one shall open for him the gate facing east, and he shall make his burnt offering or his peace offerings just as he did on the Sabbath day, and then he shall go out, and he shall shut the gate after he goes out.
 13. And a one-year-old lamb, without blemish, shall you offer as a burnt offering daily to Jehovah; morning by morning shall you offer it.
 14. And a grain offering shall you place upon it each morning, one sixth of an ephah and one third of a hin of oil to moisten the fine flour, as a grain offering to Jehovah. It shall be a statute forever, continually.
 15. And they shall offer the lamb, and the grain offering, and the oil morning by morning forever, continually.
- ¶16. “Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: if the Prince gives a gift to one of his sons, it is his inheritance, it shall be to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance.
17. But if he gives a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his until the Year of Liberty. Then it shall revert to the Prince. His inheritance is only for his sons; it is theirs.
 18. And the Prince shall not take any of the inheritance of the people, to rob them of their inheritance. From his own inheritance shall he cause his sons to inherit, so that my people are not scattered, each from his inheritance.”
- ¶19. Then he brought me into the entrance that was beside the gate, to the holy chambers for the priests, which faced north. And behold, there was a place at their far western end.
20. And He said to me, “This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering and bake the grain offering, so that they do not bring it out to the outer courtyard and transmit holiness to the people.”
 21. Then He brought me to the outer courtyard and caused me to go about the four corners of the courtyard, and behold, there was a courtyard in every corner of the courtyard.
 22. In the four corners of the courtyard were four small courtyards, by measure, thirty in length and width, their four corners were of one measure.

23. And within them was a row all around, around the four of them, with cooking-places made at the base of the rows round about.

24. Then He said to me, "These are the cooking-places where they who minister at the temple will boil the sacrifices of the people."

Ezekiel 47

- ¶1. Then He brought me back to the door of the house, and behold, from underneath the threshold of the house water was flowing out eastward (for the front of the house was eastward), and then the water went down from underneath the right side of the house, from the south side, toward the altar.
2. And he brought me out by way of the north gate, and he led me around the road outside to the outer gate, the road that faces east, and behold, water was trickling from the right side.
3. Then going on eastward, the man with the line in his hand measured one thousand cubits. And he had me to pass through the water; the waters were ankle-deep.
4. Then he measured another thousand, and he had me to pass through the water; the water was knee-deep. And he measured another thousand, and he had me to pass through waters waist-deep.
5. And he measured another thousand, and it was a river that I was not able to pass through, for the water had risen and become waters for swimming, a river that could not be crossed.
6. And he said to me, "Son of man, do you see?" Then he led me and brought me back to the bank of the river.
7. And when he had brought me back, then behold, on the bank of the river were very many trees, on this side and that.
8. And he said to me, "These waters are going out toward the eastern region, and they descend to the Arabah, and then they will enter the sea when they have been brought forth to the sea, and its waters will be healed."
9. And it shall come to pass that every creature that swarms will live; wherever the streams go, they will live. And there will be very many fish because these waters went there, and they were healed. Everything lives where the stream goes in.
10. And it shall come to pass that fishermen will stand on its shore; from En-gedi to Engelaim will be a place for the spreading of nets. Their fish will be of very many kinds, like the fish of the Great Sea.
11. Its swamps and marshes will not be healed; they are given for salt.
12. And on the river, on this bank and that, will grow every tree for food, whose leaf will not wither, and whose fruit will not fail. Month by month, each tree will bear new fruit because of the water which flows out from the sanctuary, and its fruit will be for food, and its leaves, for healing.

- ¶13. Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: “This is the boundary by which you will divide the land as an inheritance to the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph shall have a double portion.
14. And you shall divide it, each as his brother, because I swore I would give it to your fathers. And so, this land has fallen to you as an inheritance.
15. And this shall be the border of the land on the north side: from the Great Sea to the Hethlon Road, to the entrance of Zedad.
16. Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim (which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath), Hazor-Hatticon which is on the border of Hauron.
17. And the border from the sea shall be Hazor-Enan at the border of Damascus, and on the north, northward, and the border of Hamath. This is the north side.
18. And the east side: you shall measure from between Hauron and Damascus, and between Gilead and the land of Israel, the Jordan from the border of the eastern sea. This is the east side.
19. And the south side, southward: from Tamar to the Waters of Meribah-Kadesh, to the Brook of Egypt, on to the Great Sea. This is the southern side, southward.
20. And the west side: the Great Sea, from opposite to the Entrance of Hamath. This is the west side.
21. You shall divide this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel.
22. And it shall be that you apportion it by lot as an inheritance for yourselves and for the foreigners who sojourn among you who have come and begotten children among you. And they shall be to you as native sons of Israel; they shall be apportioned an inheritance with you, among the tribes of Israel.
23. And it shall be that within the tribe in which the sojourner sojourns, there shall you assign his inheritance, says the Lord, Jehovah.”

Ezekiel 48

- ¶1. Now, these are the memorials of the tribes. At the northern end, along the Hethlon Road, the entrance of Hamath, Hazar-Enan at the northern border of Damascus, beside Hamath, and those areas belonging to it, from the east side to the west: Dan, one portion.
2. And on the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side: Asher, one portion.
3. And on the border of Asher, from the east side to the west side: Naphtali, one portion.
4. And on the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side: Manasseh, one portion.
5. And on the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side: Ephraim, one portion.
6. And on the border of Ephraim, from the east side to the west side: Reuben, one portion.
7. And on the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side: Judah, one portion.
8. And on the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall an excise offering [terumah], which you shall offer up, even twenty-five thousand measures wide, and in

- length as one of the other portions, from the east side to the west side. And the sanctuary shall be in the middle of it.
9. The excise offering which you shall offer up to Jehovah shall be twenty-five thousand measures long and twenty thousand wide.
 10. And for these shall be the holy excise offering: the priests shall have, northward, twenty-five thousand measures, and on the west, ten thousand wide, and to the east, ten thousand wide, and southward, twenty-five thousand long. And the sanctuary of Jehovah shall be in the middle of it.
 11. For the consecrated priests of the sons of Zadok who kept my charge, who did not go astray when the sons of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.
 12. And so, they shall have an excise offering from the offering of the land, a most holy place, by the border of the Levites.
 13. And alongside the border of the priests, the Levites shall have twenty-five thousand measures in length and ten thousand in breadth. The entire length shall be twenty-five thousand, and the width, ten thousand.
 14. And they may neither sell nor trade any of it, nor may the firstfruits of the land be alienated, for it is holy to Jehovah.
 15. And the five thousand in width that is left beside the twenty-five thousand, that is for common use for the city, for dwellings, and for open land. And the city shall be in the middle of it.
 16. And these are its measurements: on the north side, four thousand five hundred; and on the east side, four thousand five hundred; and on the south side, four thousand five hundred; and on the west side, four thousand five hundred.
 17. And there shall be open land for the city: on the north, two hundred fifty; on the south, two hundred fifty; on the east, two hundred fifty; on the west, two hundred fifty.
 18. And the remaining length of the holy excised portion: ten thousand on the east; ten thousand on the west; ten thousand on the east; ten thousand on the east. And it shall be alongside the holy excised portion. And its produce shall be for food for the city workers.
 19. And the workers of the city working it may come from all the tribes of Israel.
 20. The entire excised portion shall be twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand, foursquare. You shall offer up the holy excised offering to be the city's possession.
 21. What remains on the two sides of the holy excised portion and the possession of the city shall belong to the Prince, twenty-five thousand from the sides of the excised portion to the eastern border, and to the western border twenty-five thousand, alongside the portions, for the Prince. And the holy excised portion, and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the middle of it.
 22. And from the possession of the Levites and the possession of the city in the midst of that which belongs to the Prince, the Prince shall have the area between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin.

23. And as for the rest of the tribes, from the east side to the west side: Benjamin, one portion.
24. And on the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side: Simeon, one portion.
25. And on the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side: Issachar, one portion.
26. And on the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side: Zebulun, one portion.
27. And on the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side: Gad, one portion.
28. And as for the border of Gad, on the south side, the border shall be from Tamar, to the Waters of Meribah-Kadesh, to the Brook of Egypt, on to the Great Sea.
29. This is the land you shall allot for an inheritance to the tribes of Israel, and these are their divisions, says the Lord, Jehovah.
30. And these are the goings out of the cities: to the north shall be a measure of four thousand five hundred
31. (and the gates of the city will be according to the names of the tribes of Israel), three gates to the north: one, the Reuben Gate, one, the Judah Gate, one, the Levi Gate.
32. And on the eastern side shall be a measure of four thousand five hundred, with three gates: the Joseph Gate, one, the Benjamin Gate, one, the Dan Gate, one.
33. And on the southern side shall be a measure of four thousand five hundred, with three gates: the Simeon gate, one, the Issachar Gate, one, the Zebulun Gate, one.
34. And on the western side shall be a measure of four thousand five hundred. Their three gates: the Gad Gate, one, the Asher gate, one, the Naphtali Gate, one.
35. The measure around it shall be eighteen thousand, and from that time, the name of the city shall be Jehovah Shamah.¹⁷

¹⁷ That is, “Jehovah is there.”

Daniel

Daniel 1

- ¶1. In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim, King of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylon, came to Jerusalem and laid siege against it.
2. And the Lord gave Jehoiakim, King of Judah, into his hand, along with some of the vessels of the house of God. And he brought them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god, and he carried the vessels into the treasure house of his god.
3. And the king spoke to Ashpenaz, the master of his eunuchs, to bring in some of the sons of Israel, including some of the royal seed and of the nobles,
4. young men in whom there was no blemish, and of good appearance, skillful in all wisdom, possessing knowledge, and insightful, and who had the capacity to stand in the king's palace, and to teach them the learning and the language of the Chaldeans.
5. And the king ordered that they should have a portion of the king's daily food and of the wine which he drank and that they should be nourished three years, and at the end of their appointed time, that they should stand before the king.
6. Now, among those of the sons of Judah were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.
7. And the chief of the eunuchs assigned names to them: to Daniel, Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, Shadrach; and to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abed-nego.
8. But Daniel determined in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's food or with the wine which he drank. And so, he besought the chief of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.
9. And God gave Daniel favor and compassion before the chief of the eunuchs.
10. And the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink. For why should he see your countenances more haggard than the young men who are of your age? So, you would endanger my head with the king!"
11. But Daniel said to the steward, whom the chief of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah,
12. "I pray, test your servants for ten days, and let them give us food from plants for us to eat and water for us to drink.
13. And let our appearance and the appearance of the young men who eat the king's food be examined by you, and then deal with your servants according to what you see."
14. And he consented to them in this matter, and he tested them ten days.
15. And at the end of ten days, their forms appeared better and fatter in flesh than any of the young men who ate the king's food.
16. So, the steward took away their portion and the wine that they were to drink and gave them food from plants.
17. And as for these young men, the four of them, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom, and Daniel had understanding in every vision and in dreams.

18. Now, at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.
19. And the king spoke with them, and among them all, there was not found any like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. And they stood before the king.
20. And in all matters of wisdom and understanding about which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters that were throughout his kingdom.
21. And Daniel continued until the first year of King Cyrus.

Daniel 2

- ¶1. In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams by which his spirit was troubled, and his sleep broke from him.
2. Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans to explain to the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.
3. And the king said to them, "I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is desperate to understand the dream."
4. Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic, "O King, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will make the meaning known."
5. The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, "The thing is completely gone from me! Now, if you do not tell me the dream, with its meaning, you shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill!"
6. But if you do show the dream and its interpretation, you will receive gifts, and a reward, and great honor from me. Therefore, you show me the dream and its interpretation!"
7. They answered a second time and said, "Let the King tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation."
8. The king answered and said, "I know for certain that you are buying time because you know that the thing is gone from me!"
9. So, if you do not make the dream known to me, there is but one decree for you! For you all, alike, would declare a false and offensive thing to me until the time changes. Therefore, you tell me the dream, and then I will know that you can show me the interpretation!"
10. The Chaldeans answered the king, and said, "There is not a man on the earth who is able to show the king's matter, because there is no king, howsoever great and powerful, who has ever asked such a thing of any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.
11. The thing that the king has asked is extraordinary, and there is no one who can show it to the king except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh."
12. At that, the king was angry and full of fury, and he gave a command to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13. So, the decree went forth, and they began killing the wise men, and they intended to kill Daniel and his fellows.
- ¶14. Then Daniel, with counsel and wisdom, responded to Arioch, the captain of the king's guard, who had gone out to slay the wise men of Babylon.
15. He answered and said to Arioch, the king's captain, "Why is the decree so hasty from the king?" Then Arioch explained the matter to Daniel.
16. And so, Daniel went in and requested of the king that he would give him time, and he would declare the interpretation to the king.
17. Then Daniel went to his house, and he explained the matter to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his fellows,
18. that they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret, so that Daniel and his fellows would not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.
19. Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a night vision, and Daniel blessed the God of heaven.
20. Daniel answered and said, "Blessed be the name of God forever and ever! Wisdom and might belong to Him!"
21. He changes the times and the seasons; He removes kings, and He establishes kings; He gives wisdom to wise men and knowledge to those who have understanding;
22. He reveals deep and secret things; He knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with Him.
23. To you, O God of my fathers, do I give thanks and offer praise for the wisdom and the strength you have given me! And now, you have revealed to me what we asked of you, for you have revealed to us the king's matter."
24. Then Daniel left and went in to Arioch, whom the King had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon. And he told him this: "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon! Bring me in before the king, and I will tell the king the interpretation."
25. Then Arioch hurriedly brought Daniel before the king, and spoke thus to him: "I have found a certain man from among the exiles of Judah who will make known the interpretation to the king."
26. The king answered and said to Daniel (whose name was Belteshazzar), "Are you able to make known to me the dream that I saw, and its interpretation?"
27. Daniel answered before the king and said, "The wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, and the soothsayers cannot reveal to the king the secret which the king has demanded.
28. But there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and He is making known to king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. This is your dream and visions of your head on your bed:
- ¶29. As for you, O King, your thought kept coming upon your bed: 'What will be after this?' And now, He who reveals secrets has made known to you what will come to pass.

30. But as for me, this mystery was not revealed to me because I have more wisdom than all the living, but so that the interpretation may be made known to the King, and so, you might know the thoughts of your heart.
31. You, O King, were watching, and behold, a great image! This great image stood before you in its extraordinary brightness, and its appearance was terrifying.
32. The head of this image was of fine gold; its chest and its two arms were of silver; its middle and its thighs were of bronze;
33. its legs were of iron; its feet were part iron and part clay.
34. You watched until a stone was cut out, without hands, which struck the image on its feet which were of iron and clay, and it broke them to pieces.
35. Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were altogether crushed and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors, and the wind carried them away so that no place was found for them. And the stone which struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.
36. This is the dream. And now, we will declare its interpretation before the King.
37. You, O King, are a King of kings, for the God of heaven has given you the kingdom, the power, and the might, and the glory.
38. And every place inhabited by the sons of men, the beasts of the field, and the birds of heaven has He given into your hand, and He has made you ruler over them all. You are the head of gold.
39. And after you, another kingdom inferior to you will arise, and then another, a third kingdom that is of bronze which will rule over all the earth.
40. And the fourth kingdom will be strong like iron because, just as iron breaks to pieces and shatters everything, and like iron that brings ruin, it will break to pieces and bring ruin upon all these kingdoms.
41. And whereas you saw the feet and the toes partly of potter's clay and partly of iron, the kingdom will be divided; yet, some of the strength of iron will be in it, inasmuch as you saw the iron mixed with soft clay.
42. And as for the toes of the feet being partly iron and partly clay, at the end, the kingdom will be strong, but some of it will be broken.
43. In that you saw the iron was mixed with soft clay, they will mix themselves together with the seed of man, but they will not cleave to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay.
44. And in the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed. And the kingdom will not be passed on to another people. It will break in pieces and put an end to all these kingdoms, and it will stand forever.
45. Forasmuch as you saw a stone was cut out from the mountain without hands, and it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold, the great God has made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter. And the dream is certain, and its interpretation, sure."

- ¶46. Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face and worshipped Daniel, and said to offer him a gift and incense.
47. The king answered Daniel and said, "Truly, your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing that you are able to reveal this secret."
48. Then the king made Daniel great, and he gave him many great gifts, and he made him ruler over all the province of Babylon, and chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon.
49. And Daniel made request of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province of Babylon, and Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

Daniel 3

- ¶1. Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold. Its height was sixty cubits, and its width was six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.
2. And Nebuchadnezzar the king sent out to gather the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces to come for the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.
3. Then the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces gathered together for the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. And they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.
4. And the herald cried aloud, "To you it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and tongues:
5. When you hear the sound of the cornet, the pipe, lyre, trigon, psaltery, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, you will fall down and you will worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar has set up.
6. And whoever does not fall down and worship will immediately be cast into the midst of the burning, fiery furnace."
7. Therefore, at the moment when all peoples heard the sound of the cornet, the pipe, lyre, trigon, psaltery, and all kinds of music, then would all the peoples, nations, and tongues fall down and worship the image of gold that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.
8. At that time, therefore, certain men, Chaldeans, approached the king and brought slanderous accusations against the Jews.
9. They answered and said to Nebuchadnezzar the king, "O King, live forever!
10. You, O King, issued a decree, that every man who hears the sound of the cornet, the pipe, lyre, trigon, psaltery, and bagpipe, and all kinds of music shall fall down and worship the image of gold
11. and that whoever does not fall down and worship shall be thrown into the midst of the burning, fiery furnace.
12. There are certain men, Jews, whom you appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men have disregarded your decree, O King! They neither serve your gods nor worship the image of gold that you set up.”

13. At that, Nebuchadnezzar, in rage and fury, commanded Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to be brought. Then those men were brought before the king.
14. Nebuchadnezzar answered and said to them, “Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego that you do not serve my gods nor worship the image of gold that I have set up?
15. Now, if you are in range at the time you hear the sound of the cornet, the pipe, lyre, trigon, psaltery, and bagpipe, and all kinds of music, you will fall down and worship the image which I have made! But if you do not worship, you will immediately be thrown into the midst of the burning, fiery furnace. And who is the god that will deliver you out of my hands?”
16. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered and said to King Nebuchadnezzar, “We do not lack a response to you regarding this matter.
17. Should that happen, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning, fiery furnace, and He will deliver us out of your hand, O King.
18. But if not, be it known to you, O King, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the image of gold that you set up.”
19. At that, Nebuchadnezzar was filled with rage, and the expression of his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He answered and commanded to heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated.
20. And he commanded the mightiest men of valor in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, to throw them into the burning, fiery furnace.
21. Then these men were bound in their mantles, their tunics, and their headwear, and their other garments, and they were thrown into the midst of the burning, fiery furnace.
22. But because the king’s command was vehement, and the furnace was made extremely hot, the flame of the fire killed the men that carried up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.
23. And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell, bound, into the midst of the burning, fiery furnace.
- ¶24. But then, King Nebuchadnezzar was startled, and he jumped up. And he spoke and said to his counselors, “Did we not throw three men into the midst of the fire, bound?” And they answered and said to the king, “Assuredly, O King.”
25. He answered and said, “Behold, I see four men walking unbound in the midst of the fire, and they are unharmed! And the appearance of the fourth is like a son of God!”
26. Then Nebuchadnezzar approached the opening of the burning, fiery furnace, and he spoke and said, “Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out and come here!” Then, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out from the midst of the fire.

27. And the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, and the king's counselors gathered together and saw these men, that the fire had had no effect on their body. Not even a hair of their head was singed, nor were their mantles changed, nor was there any smell of fire on them.
28. Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, "Blessed be their God, the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who sent His angel and delivered His servants who trusted in Him. They even refused the king's command and gave up their body rather than serve or worship any god except their God."
29. Therefore, I make a decree: Any people, nation, or tongue that speaks anything remiss concerning the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego shall be cut in pieces and their house shall be made a dunghill, for there is no other god who is able to deliver in this manner."
30. Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego in the province of Babylon.

Daniel 4

- ¶1. "Nebuchadnezzar the King, to all peoples, nations, and tongues who dwell on all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you.
2. It seemed good to me to proclaim the signs and wonders that the Most High God has done concerning me.
3. How great are His signs, and how mighty are His wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and His dominion is from generation to generation.
4. I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house and faring sumptuously in my palace.
5. I saw a dream, and it frightened me. Yea, the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head alarmed me.
6. So, I made a decree that all the wise men in Babylon should be brought before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream.
7. Then the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers came in, and I told them the dream, but they could not reveal to me its interpretation.
8. At last, before me stood Daniel, whose name is Belteshazzar, after the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods, and I told him the dream.
9. 'O Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, since I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and no mystery confounds you, you tell the interpretation of the visions of my dream that I saw!
10. Now, the visions of my head upon my bed were these: behold, a tree was in the midst of the land, and its height was great.
11. The tree grew great and became strong, and its height reached to the heavens, and it was visible to the end of all the earth.
12. Its foliage was lovely, and its fruit was abundant, and in it was food for all. The beast of the field found shade under it, and the birds of heaven dwelled in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it.

13. While upon my bed, in the visions of my head as I watched, there was a watcher, even a holy one, descending from heaven,
14. crying aloud and saying thus: "Chop down the tree, and cut off its branches. Strip off its foliage, and scatter its fruit. Let the beasts get away from under it, and the birds, from its branches.
15. Nevertheless, leave the stump with its roots in the ground, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field, and let him be wet with the dew of heaven and his portion be in the grass of the earth with the beasts.
16. Let his heart will be changed from a man's, and a beast's heart be given to him, and let seven times pass over him.
17. The sentence is by decree of the watchers, and this decision is by command of holy ones, that the living may know that the Most High is Ruler in the kingdom of man, and He gives it to whomsoever He will, and He sets the lowliest of men over it."
18. This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, saw. Now, you, O Belteshazzar, tell the interpretation, for none of all the wise men in my kingdom are able to make the interpretation known to me. But you are able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in you.'
19. Then Daniel, whose name is Belteshazzar, was immediately horrified, and his thoughts frightened him. The king responded and said, 'Belteshazzar, do not let the dream and the interpretation frighten you!' Belteshazzar answered and said, 'O my lord, the dream be to them that hate you, and its interpretation to your enemies!
20. The tree which you saw grow great and become strong, with its height reaching to the heavens so that it was visible to all the earth,
21. and whose foliage was beautiful, and that bore much fruit, and in it was food for all, under which the beast of the field dwelled, and in whose branches the birds of heaven lived—
22. it is you, O King, that has grown great and become strong, and your greatness has increased and has reached to the heavens, and your dominion is to the end of the earth.
23. And then the king saw a watcher, even a holy one, descending from heaven, and saying, "Chop down the tree and destroy it! Nevertheless, leave the stump with its roots in the ground, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass in the field, and let him be wet with the dew of heaven and his portion be with the beast of the field until seven times pass over him."
24. This is the interpretation, O King. This is a decree of the Most High which has come upon my lord the King.
25. They will drive you away from man, and your dwelling shall be with the beast of the field, and they will feed you grass like oxen, and they will wet you with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over you until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of man and that He gives it to whomsoever He will.
26. And inasmuch as they said to leave the stump of the tree with its roots, your kingdom shall be secured for you until you know that Heaven rules.

27. Now, O King, may my counsel be acceptable to you. Break off your sins by righteousness and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor, if there may be a prolonging of your prosperity.'
28. All this came upon Nebuchadnezzar the king.
29. At the end of twelve months, as he walked atop the royal palace of the kingdom of Babylon,
30. the king answered and said, 'Is this not Babylon the Great, which I have built as a royal residence by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?'
31. While the word was in the king's mouth, a voice fell from heaven: 'They have spoken concerning you, O King Nebuchadnezzar. The kingdom is departed from you!
32. And they will drive you away from man, and your dwelling will be with the beast of the field. They will feed you grass like oxen, and seven times will pass over you until you know that it is the Most High who rules in the kingdom of man and that He gives it to whomsoever He will.'
33. That very moment, the thing was fulfilled concerning Nebuchadnezzar, and he was driven away from man, and he ate grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven until his hair grew long like eagles' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.
34. Then, at the end of the days, I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes toward heaven, and my reason returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored Him who lives forever, whose dominion is an eternal dominion, and His kingdom is from generation to generation.
35. And all the inhabitants of the earth are accounted as nothing, and He does according to His own will among the host of heaven and the inhabitants of the earth, and there is none who can stay His hand, or say to Him, 'What have you done?'
36. At the time my reason returned to me, the honor of my kingdom, my majesty, and my splendor also returned to me, and my counselors and my nobles sought me, and my kingdom was re-established, and surpassing greatness was added to me.
37. I, Nebuchadnezzar, now praise and extol and give glory to the King of heaven, all whose works are right, and His ways, just. And those who walk in pride, He is able to abase."

Daniel 5

- ¶1. Belshazzar the king made a great feast for a thousand of his nobles, and he drank wine before the thousand.
2. Under the influence of the wine, Belshazzar commanded that the gold and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken from the temple in Jerusalem be brought, so that the king, and his nobles, and his wives, and his concubines might drink from them.
3. Then they brought in the gold vessels that they had taken from the temple, which was in the house of God that was in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines, drank from them.

4. They drank the wine and praised the gods of gold, and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.
 5. All of a sudden, fingers of a man's hand came forth and began writing opposite the lampstand on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace, and the king saw the part of the hand that was writing.
 6. Then the king's countenance changed, and his thoughts so terrified him that the joints of his loin were loosed and his knees began knocking together.
 7. The king cried aloud for the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers to be brought in. And the king answered and said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whosoever reads this writing and tells me its interpretation will be clothed in purple with a chain of gold around his neck, and he shall rule as third in the kingdom."
 8. Then all the king's wise men went in, but they could not read the writing nor make known the interpretation to the king.
 9. Then Belshazzar the king became very alarmed, and his countenance changed even more, and his nobles were dumbfounded.
 10. Because of the words of the king and his nobles, the queen came into the banquet house. The queen answered and said, "O King, live forever! Do not let your thoughts alarm you, nor your countenance be changed."
 11. There is a man in your kingdom in whom is the spirit of the holy gods, and in the days of your father, light, and understanding, and wisdom like wisdom of the gods was found in him. And your father, the King Nebuchadnezzar, even your father the king, appointed him master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers
 12. because an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding in interpreting dreams, and revealing mysteries, and unraveling riddles was found in him, even in Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Let Daniel now be summoned, and he will tell the interpretation."
- ¶13. Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king answered and said to Daniel, "You are that Daniel who is of the exiles from Judah, whom my father the king brought from Judah.
14. And I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and light, and understanding, and excellent wisdom are found in you.
 15. And the wise men and the astrologers were just now brought in before me to read this writing and make its interpretation known to me, but they could not show the interpretation of the thing.
 16. But I have heard of you, that you are able to give interpretations and to unravel riddles. If you are able to read the writing now and make its interpretation known to me, you shall be clothed with the purple, with the chain of gold around your neck, and you shall rule as third in the kingdom."

17. Then Daniel answered and said before the king, “Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another. Nevertheless, I will read the writing to the King and make known its interpretation to him.
18. O King, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar, your father, the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and honor.
19. And because of the greatness that He gave him, all peoples, nations, and tongues trembled and were terrified before him. Whomever he would, he killed, and whomever he would, he kept alive, and whomever he would, he lifted up, and whomever he would, he abased.
20. But because his heart was lifted up, and his spirit had become hardened in pride, he was cast down from the throne of his kingdom, and they took his honor from him.
21. And he was driven away from men, and his heart was made like that of a beast, and his dwelling was with the wild asses. They fed him grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, until he knew that the Most High God is Ruler in the kingdom of man and that He sets over it whomever He will.
22. Yet, you, his son, O Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart even though you know all this,
23. but you have lifted yourself up against the Lord of the heavens. For they brought the vessels of His house before you, and you, and your nobles, your wives, and your concubines, drank wine from them, and you praised the gods of silver, and gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor know. But the God in whose hand is your breath and all your ways, to Him, you gave no honor!
24. Then, from His presence, He sent forth the part of the hand, and this writing was written.
25. And this is the writing which it inscribed on the wall: ‘MENE MENE TEKEL and PARSIN.’¹
26. This is the interpretation of it. NUMBERED: God has numbered your kingdom and brought it to an end.
27. WEIGHED: You have been weighed in the balances and are found wanting.
28. DIVIDED: Your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians.”
29. Then Belshazzar commanded, and they clothed Daniel with the purple, with the chain of gold about his neck. And he made a proclamation concerning him, that he was to be the third ruler in the kingdom.
30. In that very night, Belshazzar, the King of the Chaldeans, was killed,
31. and Darius the Mede received the kingdom, at the age of sixty-two years.

Daniel 6

- ¶1. Darius was pleased to set over the kingdom one hundred and twenty satraps, that they might be throughout the kingdom.

¹ In the Aramaic language, mene means “numbered”, tekel means “weighed”, and parsin means “divided”.

2. And over these, he set three officials, of whom Daniel was first, that the satraps should give an account to them so that the king might suffer no damage.
3. Then it came to pass that this same Daniel distinguished himself above the officials and the satraps, for an excellent spirit was in him, and the king thought to set him over all the kingdom.
4. Then the officials and the satraps began trying to find an occasion against Daniel pertaining to the kingdom, but they were not able to find any occasion or fault, for he was faithful, and not a single error or fault could be found in him.
5. Afterward, these men said, "We will not find any occasion against this Daniel, unless we find something against him in connection with the law of his God."
6. Then these officials and satraps assembled together before the king and said thus to him:
 "O King Darius, live forever!"
7. All the officials of the kingdom, the prefects and the satraps, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute and make a strong interdict, that for thirty days, whosoever makes a petition to any god or man, except to you, O King, shall be cast into the den of lions.
8. O King, establish the interdict now, and sign the decree so that it cannot be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians which cannot be rescinded."
9. Therefore, on account of this, King Darius signed the decree and the interdict.
10. And when Daniel knew that the decree had been signed, he went to his house, and his windows were open in his upper chamber facing Jerusalem, and three times each day, he would get down on his knees and pray and offer praise before his God, all of which he had been doing before this.
11. Then those men came together and found Daniel making a petition and asking for mercy from his God.
12. Thereupon, they approached and spoke before the king concerning the king's interdict: "Did you not sign an interdict that for thirty days, any man who makes a petition to any god or man, except to you, O King, shall be cast into the den of lions?" The king answered and said, "That is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians which cannot be rescinded."
13. At that, they answered and said to the king, "This Daniel, who is of the exiles from Judah, has no regard for you, the royal decree, or the interdict that you signed, but three times a day he makes his petition."
14. Then the king, when he had heard this thing, was greatly displeased with himself, and he set his mind on Daniel, to save him, and he labored until the setting of the sun to deliver him.
15. Then those men assembled together against the king, and they said to the king, "Know, O King, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no interdict or statute which the king establishes can be changed!"

16. At that, the king gave command, and they brought Daniel and cast him into the den of lions. The king answered and said to Daniel, "Your God, whom you serve continually— oh, may He save you!"
17. And a stone was brought and laid over the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his signet, and with the signet of his nobles, so that nothing might be altered concerning Daniel.
18. Then the king went to his palace, and he spent the night fasting, nor were diversions² brought before him, and his sleep fled from him.
19. Then the king arose with the dawn, at the break of day, and went in haste to the den of lions.
20. And as he drew near to the den, the king cried out in an anguished voice to Daniel, and he began to say to Daniel, "O Daniel, servant of the living God, was your God whom you serve continually able to deliver you from the lions?"
21. Then Daniel said to the king, "O King, live forever!
22. My God sent His angel and shut the lions 'mouth, and they did not hurt me because before Him, innocence was found in me, and also before you, O King, I have done no wrong."
23. At that, the king was exceedingly glad for him, and he commanded Daniel to be taken up out of the den. So, Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no wound of any kind was found on him, for he had believed in his God.
24. And then the king commanded, and they brought those men who had slanderously accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, with their children and their wives. And they did not reach the bottom of the den before the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.
25. Afterwards, King Darius wrote to all peoples, nations, and tongues who dwell on all the earth: "Peace be multiplied to you.
26. From me is made a decree, that in every dominion of my kingdom, men are to tremble and fear before the God of Daniel, for He is the living God, and He will endure forever, and His kingdom is one that will not be destroyed, and His dominion will be unto the end.
27. He delivers, and rescues, and performs signs and wonders in the heavens and in the earth, who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions."
28. So, this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Daniel 7

1. In the first year of Belshazzar, king of Babylon, Daniel saw a dream and visions of his head while on his bed. Then, he wrote down the dream and told the sum of the events.

² Aramaic uncertain.

2. Daniel began, and he said, “In my vision during the night, I was watching, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the Great Sea.
 3. And four great beasts came up from the sea, different from one another.
 4. The first was like a lion, but it had the wings of an eagle. I kept watching until its wings were plucked. Then it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand on two feet like a man, and a man’s heart was given to it.
 5. Then there was another beast, a second one, resembling a bear. And it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth. And they said this to it: ‘Arise! Devour much flesh!’
 6. After this, I continued watching, and there was another beast, like a leopard. And on its back, it had four wings of a bird. And the beast had four heads, and dominion was given to it.
 7. After this, in visions of the night, I was watching, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful, and terrifying, and exceptionally strong! And it had great iron teeth, devouring and breaking in pieces, and it trampled the rest with its feet. And it was different from all the beasts before it, and it had ten pairs of horns.
 8. I was contemplating the horns, when behold, another horn, a small one, came up among them, and three of the first horns were uprooted before it. And behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.
 9. I continued watching until thrones had been cast down, and then, the Ancient of Days sat down, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of His head was like pure wool. His throne was a fiery flame, and its wheels were a burning fire.
 10. A fiery stream flowed and came forth from before Him; a thousand thousands served Him, and ten thousand ten thousands stood before Him. The Judgment sat, and books were opened.
 11. I kept watching then because of the sound of the great words that the horn was saying. I watched until the beast was slain and its body destroyed when it was given to the burning fire.
 12. And the dominions of the remaining beasts were taken away, yet, a lengthening of their lives was granted to them until an appointed season and time.
 13. In the visions of the night, I was there, watching, and behold, one like a son of man was coming with the clouds of heaven, and he approached the Ancient of Days, and they ushered him in before Him.
 14. And dominion was given to him, and majesty, and a kingdom. And all peoples, nations, and languages will serve him. His dominion will be an eternal dominion that shall not pass away, and his kingdom shall not be destroyed.
- ¶15. “As for me, Daniel, my spirit was overwhelmed within me, and the visions of my head terrified me.
16. I approached one of those who stood by, and I asked of him the meaning of all this. And he told me, and made me understand the interpretation of these things:

17. ‘These great beasts, which are four, are four kingdoms that shall arise on earth,
18. but the saints of the Most High will receive the kingdom, and they will take possession of the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.’
19. Then I earnestly desired to know about the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, extremely terrifying, whose teeth were of iron, and whose claws were of bronze, which devoured, broke in pieces, and trampled the rest with its feet,
20. and about the ten horns which were on its head, and the other one which came up, and before whom three fell, even that horn and its eyes and a mouth speaking great things, and whose appearance was greater than that of its fellows.
21. I continued to watch, and this horn waged war against the saints and prevailed against them
22. until the Ancient of Days came. Then judgment was given to the saints of the Most High. And the time came, and the saints took possession of the kingdom.
23. He said this: ‘The fourth beast is the fourth kingdom which will be on the earth, which will be different from all kingdoms, and it shall devour the whole earth, and it will tread it down and break it to pieces.
24. And the ten horns of this kingdom are ten kings who shall arise. But another will rise up after them, and he will be different from the previous horns, and he will bring down three kings.
25. And he will speak words against the Most High, and he will wear out the saints of the Most High, and he shall think to change seasons and law. And they shall be given into his hand until a time, and times, and half a time.
26. But the Judgment will sit, and they will forever take away his power to destroy and put to death.
27. And the sovereignty, and dominion, and greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven was given to the people, the saints of the Most High. His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey Him.’
28. This is the end of the account. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly troubled me, and my color changed, but I kept the matter in my heart.”

Daniel 8

- ¶1. In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar, a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first.
2. And I saw in the vision (when I saw it, I was in Shushan the citadel, which is in the Province of Elam), and I saw in the vision that I was by the Ulai River.³
3. Then I lifted up my eyes and looked, and there was a ram standing before the River! And he had two horns, and both horns were high, but one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last.

³ Unknown location. Perhaps, Ulai Canal.

4. I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward, and no living thing could stand before him, and there was none who could deliver from his power. And he did as he pleased, and he became great.
5. As I was contemplating this, behold, a buck of the goats came from the west over the face of the entire earth, and nothing was touching the ground, and the buck had a prominent horn between its eyes.
6. Then it came to the ram having two horns that I saw standing before the river. And it ran at him in the fury of its strength.
7. And I saw it coming near the ram, and it was enraged at him, and it struck the ram and shattered his two horns, and there was no power in the ram to withstand it. So, it threw him to the ground and trampled him, and there was no one to save the ram from its power.
8. Then the buck grew very great, but when it became strong, the great horn was broken, and four prominent ones came up in its stead toward the four winds of heaven.
9. And out of one of them came one little horn, and he grew very great toward the south and toward the east, even to the beautiful land.
10. He grew great even to the host of heaven, and he caused some of the host and some of the stars to fall to the earth, and then he trampled them.
11. Even to a prince of the host did he magnify himself, and he took away from him the continual burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was thrown down.
12. A host will also be set against the continual burnt offering because of transgression, and he will cast truth down to the ground. And he will do exploits and prosper.
13. Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to the one who was speaking, “For how long is the vision of the continual burnt offering and the transgression that makes desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the host to trampling?”
14. And he said to me, “For two thousand three hundred evenings and mornings, and then, the sanctuary will be put right.”
15. And it came to pass that when I, Daniel, saw the vision, I sought understanding. And behold, standing before me, was one having the appearance of a man!
16. And I heard the voice of a man in the midst of Ullai, and he called out and said, “Gabriel! Make this man understand what has been shown!”
17. So he came near where I stood, and when he came, I was terrified, and I fell on my face. And he said to me, “Understand, O son of man, that the vision is for the time of the end.”
18. Now, when he spoke with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face on the ground. But he touched me, and stood me upright.
19. And he said, “Behold, I am making known to you what will happen at the latter end of the indignation, for the end shall be at an appointed time.
20. The ram which you saw with two horns are the kings of Media and Persia.

21. And the shaggy buck is the king of Greece, and the great horn that is between his eyes, it is the first king.
22. But it shall be broken, and four will arise in its place. Four kingdoms will rise up from the nation, yet not with its strength.
23. And at the end of their kingdom, when the transgressors have fulfilled their measure, a king with a fearsome countenance and who understands dark sayings will arise.
24. And his power will be great—but not by his own power—and he will bring about supernatural disasters, and he will prosper, and do exploits, and will destroy mighty men and holy people.
25. Moreover, through his cunning, he will also make deceit prosper by his hand to prosper, and with his mind, he will make him great, and with peace will he destroy many. He will even rise up against the Prince of princes, but he will be broken without hand.
26. And the vision of the evening and the morning which was spoken is true. But as for you, seal the vision, for it is for many days.
27. Then I, Daniel, was overcome, and I was weak for days. Then I arose and attended to the king's business, but I was astounded by the vision, and there was no understanding it.

Daniel 9

- ¶1. In the first year of Darius, son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who was made king over the kingdom of the Chaldeans,
2. in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, understood by books that the number of the years (which was the word of Jehovah to Jeremiah the prophet) to fulfill the desolations of Jerusalem was seventy years.
3. And so, I set my face to seek the Lord God in prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes.
4. And I prayed to Jehovah my God, and I made confession and said, “I beg you, my Lord, O great and fearsome God, keeping the covenant and lovingkindness for those who love Him and who keep His commandments!
5. We have sinned and committed iniquity, and we have done wickedly, and rebelled, and have turned aside from your commandments and your judgments.
6. And we have not listened to your servants the prophets who spoke in your name to our kings, our rulers, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.
7. Righteousness belongs to you, my Lord, but to us belongs shame of face, as at this day, to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, to those close by and those away in all the lands to which you banished them because of their treachery which they have committed against you.
8. O LORD, shame of face belongs to us, to our kings, to our rulers, and to our fathers because we have sinned against you.

9. Abundant compassion and forgiveness belong to the Lord our God, for we have rebelled against Him,
10. and we have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah our God, to walk in His laws that He set before us by the hand of His servants the prophets.
11. Yea, all Israel have transgressed your law, and they have turned aside so that they would not hear your voice. And so, the curse is poured out upon us, even the oath written in the law of Moses the servant of God, for we have sinned against Him.
12. He has confirmed His words which He spoke to us and to our judges who judged us, bringing great evil upon us. Such has not been done under the whole heaven as that which was done in Jerusalem.
13. Just as it was written in the law of Moses, all this evil came upon us; yet, we have not entreated the favor of Jehovah our God, that we might turn from our iniquities and understand your truth.
14. Therefore, Jehovah has watched over the evil and brought it upon us. Truly, Jehovah our God is righteous in all that He has done, for we have not obeyed His voice.
15. And now, O Lord our God, you are the one who brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and you made a name for yourself, as it is this day. We have sinned; we have done wickedly.
16. My Lord, according to all your righteousness, I beg you, turn away your wrath and your burning anger from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain, for on account of our sins and the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people are a reproach to everyone around us.
17. O our God, hear now the prayer of your servant and his supplications, and make your face to shine on your sanctuary that is devastated, for your name's sake, O Lord.
18. Incline your ear, O my God, and hear! Open your eyes and see our desolations and the city which is called by your name! It is certainly not because of our righteousness that we lay our supplications before you, but because of your great compassions.
19. O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, listen and act! O my God, for your own sake, do not delay, for your city and your people are called by your name."
20. And while I was speaking and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people, Israel, and presenting my supplication before Jehovah my God for the holy mountain of my God,
21. yea, while I was yet speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel whom I saw in the first vision, being made to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening offering.
22. And he caused me to understand, and he talked with me and said, "O Daniel, I have come forth now to give you wisdom and understanding.
23. At the beginning of your supplications, the word came forth, and I have come to declare it, for you are greatly beloved. So then, heed the word and understand the vision:
24. Seventy weeks are determined regarding your people and regarding your holy city, to put an end to the transgression and cause sins to cease, and to atone for iniquity, and to bring in eternal righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophet, and to anoint the most holy place.

25. Know, therefore, and understand that from the going forth of the commandment to return and to rebuild Jerusalem until Messiah the Prince will be seven weeks, and sixty and two weeks. (It will be rebuilt, street and wall⁴, but in troubled times.)
26. And after sixty and two weeks, Messiah will be cut off and will have nothing, and the people of the ruler that will come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. Its end will be with a flood, and until the end there will be war; desolations are determined.
27. And he will confirm the covenant with many for one week, and in the middle of the week, he will cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease, but because of the ubiquitousness of detestable things, he who causes horrible desolation will come, even to the point of annihilation, and then, that which is determined will be poured out upon the desolator.

Daniel 10

- ¶1. In the third year of Cyrus, King of Persia, something was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar, and the thing was certain, even a great tribulation. And he understood the thing and had understanding of the vision.
2. "In those days, I, Daniel, was mourning three full weeks.
3. I ate no delicacies, nor did flesh or wine come into my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all until three full weeks were completed.
- ¶4. "And on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, I was on the bank of the great river, that is, the Hiddekel.
5. And I lifted up my eyes and looked, and there was a man wearing linen clothes! And his loins were girded with gold of Uphaz,
6. and his body was like beryl, and his face had the appearance of lightning, and his eyes were like flaming torches, and his arms and his feet were like burnished bronze, and the sound of his words was like the sound of a multitude.
7. And I, Daniel, I alone, saw the visitant. For the men who were with me did not see the visitant, but a great trembling fell on them, and they fled, so as to hide themselves.
8. So I was left alone, and I saw this great visitant, and no strength was left in me, and my majesty was turned in me to ruin, and I retained no strength.
9. And then I heard the sound of his words, and when I heard the sound of his words, I fell into a deep sleep on my face, with my face to the ground.
10. And behold, a hand touched me, and it left me trembling on my knees and the palms of my hands.

⁴ Or, moat.

11. And he said to me, ‘O Daniel, O man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for I have now been sent to you.’ And when he spoke this word to me, I stood up, trembling.
12. Then he said to me, ‘Do not be afraid, Daniel. For from the first day you set your heart to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard. And I am come because of your words.
13. But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withheld me for twenty-one days, but, behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I was left there, beside the kings of Persia.
14. And I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people in the last days, for there remains a vision for those days.’
15. And when he had spoken these things to me, I turned my face to the ground and was speechless.
16. And behold, one in the form of the sons of man touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and spoke, and I said to him who stood before me, ‘My lord, at the visitation, anguish overwhelmed me, and I retained no strength.
17. And how can the servant of this my lord, speak with this my lord? For there is no strength in me now to stand, nor does breath remain in me.’
18. Then, again, one having the appearance of a man touched me, and strengthened me.
19. And he said, ‘Do not fear, O man greatly beloved! Peace be to you. Be strong! Yea, be strong!’ And when he spoke to me, I was strengthened, and I said, ‘Speak, Lord, for you have strengthened me.’
20. And then he said, ‘Do you know why I have come to you? And I am now returning to fight with the prince of Persia, and I am leaving, but, behold, the prince of Greece has come.
21. Nevertheless, I will tell you what is inscribed in the writing of truth, and there is not one who holds with me in these things except Michael, your prince.’

Daniel 11

- ¶1. “As for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood to confirm and to strengthen him.
2. But I will now show you the truth. Behold, three kings shall yet arise in Persia. But the fourth, he will gain riches, greater riches than they all. And with his strength through his riches, he will stir up the whole realm of Greece.
3. Then a mighty king will arise, and he will rule a vast dominion. And he will do as he pleases.
4. But when he arises, his kingdom will be broken and divided to the four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled, for his kingdom was uprooted and divided to others besides them.
5. And the king of the south will be strong, but of his princes, one will be stronger than he, and he will rule. His dominion shall be a great dominion.

6. And after some years, they will make an alliance, and a daughter of the king of the south will come to the king of the north in order to make an agreement, but she will not retain the strength of the arm, and neither he nor his arm will stand, and she will be delivered up, and those who brought her, and he that fathered her, and he that strengthened her in those times.
7. But from a shoot of her roots one will stand up in his place, and he will go to the army and come against the fortress of the king of the north, and he will deal against them, and will prevail.
8. Moreover, he will bring their gods captive into Egypt, together with their images and their precious vessels of silver and gold, and he will continue more years than the king of the north.
9. And so, the king of the south went against a kingdom, and then returned to his own land.
10. But his sons were stirred up for war and assembled a multitude of great forces. Then, he will surely come, and overflow, and pass over, but then he will go back. However, they will wage war up to its stronghold.
11. And the king of the south will be enraged, and he will go out and fight with him, with the king of the north. And he will assemble a great multitude, but the multitude will be given into his hand,
12. and when the multitude is taken away, his heart will be exalted, and he will cause tens of thousands to fall though he be not strong.
13. And the king of the north will return and assemble a multitude greater than the first, and after some years pass, he will surely come with a great army and with abundant supplies.
14. And in those times, many will rise up against the king of the south, and the robbers among your people will lift themselves up to fulfill the vision, but they will fall.
15. And the king of the north will come and raise up a siege work and take a well-fortified city, and the forces of the south and its choice men will not stand, for there will be no strength to withstand him.
16. And the one who comes against him will do as he pleases and no one will stand before him, and he will stand in the beautiful land with destruction in his hand.
17. And he will set his face to come in with the strength of his whole kingdom, with upright ones with him, and he will do it. Then will he give him a daughter of his wives, to use her to destroy, but she will neither stand with nor be for him.
18. Then, he will turn his face to the coastlands and will capture many places, but a commander will cause his insolence against him to cease. Instead, he will make his insolence turn back on him.
19. So he will turn his face back to the strongholds of his land, but he will stumble and fall, and he will not be found.
20. Then, in his place, one will stand who sends an oppressor throughout the splendor of the kingdom, but in a few days, he will be broken, yet not in anger, nor in battle.

21. And in his place, a vile man will stand up, but upon whom they had not bestowed the glory of the kingdom; yet, he will come in peaceably and obtain the kingdom through intrigues.
22. And the flood of forces will be swept away before him and be broken, as well as the prince of the covenant.
23. And after they have made a league with him, he will deal treacherously, and he will rise up and become mighty with a few people.
24. Then, he will enter peaceably into the richest parts of the province and do what neither his fathers nor his fathers' fathers did. He will disperse among them plunder, and spoil, and goods (but he will be devising his plans against the fortified cities), but only for a time.
25. Then, he will stir up his strength and his will against the king of the south with a great army. The king of the south also will rouse himself for the battle with a very great and mighty army, but he will not stand because they will devise plans against him,
26. and they that eat of his food will break him. And his army will overflow, and many will fall down slain.
27. And the two kings' hearts will be set on evil, and they will speak falsehood at one table, but it will not prosper, for the end will still be at the appointed time.
28. Then, he will return to his own land with great riches, and his heart will be against the holy covenant. And he will do exploits, and then return to his land.
29. At the appointed time, he will return and go into the south, but this latter time will not be like the former.
30. For ships from Kittim will come against him, and he will be cowed and go back, but he will be enraged against the holy covenant and take action. And then he will return, and he will show regard for those who forsake the holy covenant.
31. And forces from him will arise and desecrate the temple fortress. And they will take away the daily sacrifice, and will set up the abomination that makes desolate.
32. And violators of the covenant will he make profane through flatteries, but the people who know their God will be strong and will do exploits.
33. And the wise among the people will cause many to understand, but they will be brought low by sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by plunder for some days,
34. but when they are brought low, they will receive a little help. And many will join themselves to them with flatteries.
35. And some of the wise will be brought low, to try them, and to purify and make them white until the time of the end, for it is yet for the appointed time.
36. And the king will do as he pleases, and will exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, even above the God of gods. He will speak astonishing things, and he will prosper until the indignation is finished, for what has been determined shall be done.
37. He will have no regard for the God of his fathers or for the delight of women. Yea, he will have no regard for any god, for he will magnify himself above all.

38. But he will honor the god of those who support his office; even a god whom his fathers did not know will he honor with gold, and with silver, and with precious stone, and other valuable things.
39. And with a foreign god will he take the most secure fortresses. Whoever acknowledges him, he will greatly honor, and make them rulers over many, and will divide land for a price.
40. And at the time of the end, the king of the south will push at him, and the king of the north will come against him like a storm, with chariots, and horsemen, and many ships, and he will enter the lands, and overflow, and pass over.
41. He will also enter into the beautiful land, and many will fall. (But these will escape out of his hand: Edom, and Moab, and the choice part of the children of Ammon.)
42. Yea, he will stretch his hand out over the lands, and the land of Egypt will not be for an escape.
43. And he will have control over the treasures of gold and silver and over all the precious things of Egypt, with Libyans and Ethiopians in his train.
44. But reports from the east and from the north will alarm him, and he will go forth with great fury to annihilate and destroy many.
45. And he will pitch the tents of his palace between the seas at the glorious holy mountain, but he will come to his end, and there will be no help for him.

Daniel 12

1. “And at that time, Michael, the great prince who is appointed over the children of your people, will take a stand. But it will be a time of distress such as has not occurred since there was a nation, even to that time. And at that time, your people will be delivered, everyone who is found written in the Book.
2. And multitudes who are asleep in the dust of the ground shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to reproaches and to everlasting abhorrence.
3. And those who have understanding will shine like the brightness of the firmament, and those who turn many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.
- ¶4. “As for you, Daniel, shut up the words and seal the scroll until the time of the end. Many will rush to and fro, and knowledge will multiply.”
5. Then I, Daniel, looked, and behold, two others were standing, one on this bank of the river and one on the other bank of the river.
6. And one said to the man dressed in linen garments who was above the waters of the river, “How long will it be until the end of these wonders?”
7. And I heard the man dressed in linen garments who was above the waters of the river when he raised his right hand and his left hand toward heaven and swore by Him who lives forever that it will be for a time, and times, and a half, and when He completes the shattering of the power of the holy people, all these things will be completed.
8. And I heard, but I did not understand. And I said, “My lord, what will the end of these things be?”

- ¶9. But he said, "Go, Daniel! The words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end.
- 10. Many will be purged, and made pure, and refined, but the wicked will do wickedly, and none of the wicked will understand, but the wise will understand.
- 11. And from the time that the daily sacrifice is taken away to the setting up of the abomination that makes desolate will be one thousand two hundred and ninety days.
- 12. Blessed is he that waits and reaches a thousand three hundred and thirty-five days.
- 13. But as for you, you go your way until the end. Then, at the end, you will rest and stand in your lot, on the right.

Hosea

Hosea 1

- ¶1. The word of Jehovah that came to Hosea ben-Beeri in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam ben-Joash, king of Israel.
2. When Jehovah first spoke by Hosea, Jehovah said to Hosea, “Go, marry a whorish woman and have children of whoredom, for this land commits great whoredom in not following Jehovah.”
3. So, he went and took Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.
4. And Jehovah said to him, “Call his name Jezreel, for in a little while, I will visit the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and I will bring the kingdom of the house of Israel to an end.
5. And on that day, I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.”
6. And she conceived again and bore a daughter. And He said to him, “Call her name No-Mercy, for I will no longer show mercy to the house of Israel, but will certainly carry them away.
7. Yet, to the house of Judah will I show mercy, and I will save them by Jehovah their God. I will not save them by the bow or by the sword, or by war, or with horses and horsemen.”
8. Then, after she weaned No-Mercy, she conceived and bore a son.
9. And He said, “Call his name Not-My-People, for you are not my people, and I will not be your God.
- ¶10. Yet, the number of the sons of Israel shall be like the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered, and it shall come to pass in the place where it was said to them, ‘You are not my people,’ it will be said to them, ‘You are sons of the living God.’
11. Then the children of Judah and the children of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint for themselves one head. And they will come up from the earth, for great is the day of Jezreel.”

Hosea 2

1. “Say to your brothers, ‘My people!’ and to your sisters, ‘Mercy!’
2. Plead! Plead with your mother, for she is not my wife and I am not her husband, that she put her prostitution away from her, and her adulteries from between her breasts,
3. Otherwise, I will strip her naked and expose her as in the day of her birth. And I will make her like the wilderness, and lay her waste like a desert, and I will kill her with thirst.
4. And I will have no compassion for her sons because they are the sons of prostitution.
5. For their mother goes whoring; she who conceived them behaves shamefully. She says, ‘I will go after my lovers, who give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.’
6. Therefore, behold, I will hedge your path with thorns, and I will wall her up with stones so that she cannot find her paths.

7. And she will pursue her lovers, but she will not catch them, and she will seek them, but she will not find them. Then she will say, ‘I will go and return to my first husband because it was better for me then than now.’
 8. And she did not know that I gave her the grain, and the wine, and the oil, or that I multiplied silver to her, and the gold they used for Baal.
 9. Therefore, I will turn, and I will take my grain in its time and my wine in its season, and I will take back my wool and my flax, given to cover her nakedness.
 10. But I will now expose her private parts to the eyes of her lovers, and no man will deliver her from my hand.
 11. And I will put an end to all her rejoicing—her feasts, her new moons, and her Sabbaths, even all her appointed times.
 12. And I will lay waste her vine and her fig tree, about which she said, ‘They are my wages which my lovers have given to me.’ But I will turn them into a thicket, and the beast of the field will consume them.
 13. And I will visit upon her the days of the Baals, when she burned incense to them and adorned herself with her nose-ring and her jewelry, and went after her lovers and forgot me, says Jehovah.
- ¶14. “Therefore, behold, I will entice her, and bring her to the wilderness, and speak to her heart.
15. And I will give to her there her vineyards, and the Valley of Achor for a door of hope. And there, she will respond as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up from the land of Egypt.
- ¶16. “And it shall come to pass in that day, says Jehovah, you will call me, ‘My husband,’ and no more call me, ‘My Baal.’
17. And I will take away the name of the Baals from her mouth, and they will no longer be remembered by their name.
 18. And in that day, I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the birds of the sky, and things that creep on the ground. And I will banish the bow and the sword and war from the land and make them lie down in safety.
 19. And I will betroth you to me forever. Yea, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in loving-kindness, and in compassions.
 20. I will betroth you to me in faithfulness, and you will come to know Jehovah.
- ¶21. “And it shall come to pass in that day that I will answer, says Jehovah. I will answer the heavens, and they will answer the earth.
22. And the earth will answer the grain, and the wine, and the oil. And they will hear Jezreel.
 23. For I will sow her to me in the land. And I will show mercy to No-Mercy, and I will say to Not-My-People, ‘You are my people.’ And he will say, ‘You are my God!’”

- ¶1. And Jehovah said to me, “Go again! Love a woman beloved by her husband, but an adulteress, the way Jehovah loves the children of Israel, and yet, they look to other gods and are lovers of raisin-cakes.¹”
2. (So, I bought her for me for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer and a half of barley.
 3. And I said to her, ‘You shall dwell with me many days. You shall not play the harlot or be with a man. So will I also be toward you.’)
 4. For the children of Israel will live many days without a king or a prince, without sacrifice, without a pillar, and without an ephod or teraphim.
 5. Afterward, the children of Israel will repent and seek Jehovah their God and David their King. Yea, in the latter days, they will come in fear to Jehovah and to His Good One.”

Hosea 4

- ¶1. Hear the word of Jehovah, children of Israel, for Jehovah has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land because there is no truth, or faithfulness, or knowledge of God in the land:
2. “Imprecating, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery have broken out, with bloodshed touching bloodshed.
 3. Therefore, the land will mourn, and everyone living in it will grow feeble, along with the beast of the field and the bird of the air. And even the fish of the sea will be taken away.
 4. Yet, let no one strive, and let no one reprove another, for my quarrel is with you, O priest.
 5. You will stumble by day, and by night, the prophet will also stumble with you, and I will destroy your mother.
 6. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge! Because you have rejected knowledge, I will reject you from being a priest to me. Inasmuch as you have forgotten the law of your God, I, even I, will forget your children!
 7. As much as they increased, so they sinned against me! Their honor will I change into shame.
 8. They are feeding on the sin of my people, and they lift up their soul to their sin.
 9. And it will be, like people, like priest. For I will visit upon him his ways, and I will return his doings to him,
 10. and they will eat but not be satisfied; they will go whoring, but will not increase, for they have stopped heeding Jehovah.
 11. Whoredom, wine, and new wine take away the heart.
 12. My people seek advice from their trees, and their rods give them information. For a spirit of whoredom has led them astray, and from under their God have they gone whoring.
 13. They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains and burn incense on the hills, under oaks, and poplars, and terebinths because of their pleasant shade. Therefore, your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your brides shall commit adultery.
 14. I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom nor your brides when they commit adultery. For the men go away with harlots, and they sacrifice with sacred prostitutes. The people who do not understand shall be cast out.

¹ Raisin-cakes were apparently used to stimulate desire (cp. Song of Solomon 2:5a).

15. Though you are playing the harlot, O Israel, let not Judah offend! Oh, do not come to Gilgal, nor go up to Beth-aven!² And do not swear, "As Jehovah lives!"
16. For Israel is stubborn, like a stubborn cow. Jehovah will shepherd them now as a lamb in a wide open place.
17. Ephraim is joined to idols. Leave him alone.
18. Their liquor is gone. They have gone whoring continually. Her rulers shamefully love, "Give!"
19. A spirit has wrapped her up in its wings, but they shall be ashamed of their sacrifices.

Hosea 5

- ¶1. Hear this, O priests! Pay attention, O house of Israel! And let the house of the king give ear!
The judgment is for you! For you have been a snare at Mizpah and a net spread out on Tabor,
2. for the transgressors have gone deep in slaughtering sacrifices, though I have been a chastiser of them all.
3. I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from me. Truly now, Ephraim, you have committed fornication. Israel is defiled.
4. Their deeds will not allow them to return to their God, for the spirit of whoredom is within them and they do not know Jehovah.
5. The pride of Israel testifies on his face, and Israel and Ephraim are tripped up by their iniquity; Judah also stumbles with them.
6. With their flocks and their herds, they will go to seek Jehovah, but they will not find Him. He has withdrawn from them.
7. They have dealt treacherously with Jehovah, for they have given birth to strange children. Now, a new moon will devour them with their portions.

- ¶8. Let them blow a shofar in Gibeah, a trumpet in Ramah! Let them cry out at Beth-aven, "After you, O Benjamin!"
9. Ephraim shall be a ruin in the day of punishment. Among the tribes of Israel have I made known what is assured.
10. The princes of Judah are like those who remove a landmark. I will pour out my fury upon them like water.
11. Ephraim is oppressed, crushed in judgment, because he was willing to obey the command.
12. Therefore, I will be like a moth to Ephraim and like rottenness to the house of Judah.
13. When Ephraim saw his disease, and Judah his wound, then Ephraim went to Assyria and sent to King Jareb, but he could not heal nor cure your wound.
14. For I am like a lion to Ephraim and like a young lion to the house of Judah. I, yes I! I will tear in pieces and depart; I will carry off, and there will be no rescuer.
15. I will leave. I will return to my place until they admit their guilt and seek my face. In their distress, they will seek me earnestly.

Hosea 6

² Literally, "house of worthlessness", a name God gives to Bethel at this time in Israel's history.

1. Come, and let us return to Jehovah, for He has torn, but He will heal us. He has stricken, but He will bind us up.
2. After two days, He will bring us to life again. On the third day, He will raise us up, and we will live in His presence.
3. Then, let us know, let us press on to know Jehovah! His coming forth is as certain as the dawn.
Yea, He will come to us like the rain, like the latter rain and early rain to the land.³
4. O Ephraim, what shall I do with you? What shall I do with you, O Judah? Your faithfulness is like the morning mist, and like dew, vanishing quickly.
5. Therefore, I have hewed them in pieces by the prophets; I have killed them with the words of my mouth! Oh, your judgments have been like the light coming forth!
6. For I delight in mercy and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.
7. But they, like Adam, transgressed the covenant. There, they were unfaithful to me.
8. Gilead is a city of evildoers, tracked with blood.
9. And as bands of robbers wait for a man, so the priestly band murders on the road to Shechem in that they commit adultery.
10. Within the house of Israel, I have seen a horrible thing: the whoredom of Ephraim. Israel is defiled.
11. Moreover, O Judah, He has appointed a harvest for you when I return the captivity of my people.

Hosea 7

- ¶1. When I would have healed Israel, then the sin of Ephraim was exposed, along with the wickedness of Samaria, for they practice deception, and the thief comes in, and the robbers raid outside.
2. But they do not think in their heart that I remember all their wickedness. Their own doings have now hemmed them in. They are before my face.
3. By their wickedness, they gladden the king, and with their lies, princes.
4. They are all adulterers; they are like an oven, heated by a baker, who stops getting up after kneading the dough until it is leavened.
5. By day, they made our king and rulers sick, inflamed with wine. He reached out his hand to scorners.
6. For they have prepared their hearts, as with the oven, while they lie in wait. Their baker sleeps through the night. In the morning, it is burning like a flame of fire.
7. They are all hot as the oven, and they devour their judges. All their kings have fallen. There is no one among them calling on me.
8. Ephraim has mingled himself with the nations; Ephraim is an unturned cake.
9. Strangers consume his strength, but he does not know it; yea, gray hair is showing up on him, but he doesn't know it.
10. The pride of Israel shows on his face, but they do not return to Jehovah their God, nor seek Him in all this.

³ Or, "as the latter rain waters the land."

11. And Ephraim is like Jonah,⁴ silly, without sense, calling out to Egypt, going to Assyria.
12. When they go, I will spread out my net over them. I will bring them down like birds of the sky. I will chasten them, as a testimony to their congregation.
- ¶13. Woe to them, for they have fled from me! Destruction to them, for they have rebelled against me—yes, I who would rescue them—and yet they speak lies about me!
14. They have not cried out to me in their heart even when they howled on their beds. They assemble themselves for bread and new wine; they reject me.
15. Though I trained and strengthened their arms, they devise evil against me.
16. They repent, but not to the One on high. They are like a deceitful bow. Their princes will fall by the sword because of the insolence of their tongue. This will be to their disgrace in the land of Egypt.

Hosea 8

1. Set a shofar to your mouth! He will come like an eagle against the house of Jehovah because they have transgressed my covenant and rebelled against my law.
2. Ah, Israel! They will cry out to me, “My God, we know you!”
3. Israel has rejected what is good. An enemy will pursue him.
4. They set up kings, but not by me. They make princes whom I do not know. With their silver and gold, they make themselves idols so that they might be cut off.
5. Your calf, O Samaria, has cast you off! My anger burns against them. (How long will they not attain to purity?)
6. For it came from Israel; an artisan made it, and it is not a god. The calf of Samaria shall be broken into pieces.
7. For they are sowing wind, and they shall reap a tempest! The standing grain has no heads. It will produce no flour. If by chance it produces, strangers will devour it.
8. Israel is devoured; now are they among the nations like a vessel in which is no delight.
9. They have gone up to Assyria, a wild ass, alone by himself. Ephraim has hired lovers.
10. Yea, though they have hired lovers from the nations, I will now gather them, and they be in anguish a little because of the burden of the king of rulers.
11. When Ephraim multiplied altars on which to sin, they became for him altars for sinning.
12. I wrote the great things of my law for him, but they are regarded as strange.
13. They sacrifice and eat flesh as sacrifices of my offerings, but Jehovah does not accept them. Now will He remember their guilt and visit their sins upon them. They will return to Egypt.
14. Israel has forgotten his Maker and builds churches, and Judah has multiplied fortified cities. But I will send a fire upon his cities, and it will consume their fortresses.

Hosea 9

⁴ Or, “like a dove”.

- ¶1. O Israel, do not rejoice for joy like the nations, for you have gone whoring from your God. At every threshing floor, you love the wages of a harlot.
2. Threshing floor and winepress will not provide for them, and the new wine will fail in her.
3. They will not remain in the land of Jehovah, but Ephraim will return to Egypt, and in Assyria will they eat what is unclean.
4. They do not pour out wine to Jehovah, and their sacrifices do not please Him; it is for them like the bread of sinners. All who eat of it defile themselves, for their bread is for their own appetite. It should not come into the house of Jehovah.
5. What will you do on the appointed meeting day and on Jehovah's feast day?
6. For, behold, they are gone because of destruction. Egypt will gather them and Memphis will bury them. Nettles will inherit their treasures of silver; thorns will be in their tents.
7. The days of vengeance have come. The days of retribution have come. Israel shall know. The prophet is a fool; the spiritual man is mad because of the magnitude of your sin and your great hatred.
8. The watchman of Ephraim was with my God. The prophet is a fowler's snare in all his ways. Hatred is in the house of his god.
9. They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah. He will remember their transgression, and He will punish their sins.
- ¶10. I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the firstfruit on a fig tree in its first season. As for them, they went in to Baal at Peor and consecrated themselves to that shameful thing, and they became detestable, like the thing they loved.
11. Ephraim's glory will fly away like a bird, without birth, without the womb, and without conception.
12. Even if they bring up their sons, I will bereave them of men. Woe to them when I depart from them!
13. Ephraim, just as I saw Tyre, is planted in a meadow, but Ephraim will bring his sons out to the executioner.
14. Give to them, O LORD! What will you give? Give them a miscarrying womb and dried up breasts.
15. Their every evil is in Gilgal because there I hated them for the wickedness of their deeds. I will drive them away from my house. I will no longer love them. All their princes are apostates.
16. Ephraim is smitten. Their root is dried up; they will bear no fruit. Even though they give birth, I will kill the cherished fruit of their womb.
17. My God will reject them because they did not listen to Him, and they will be wanderers among the nations.

Hosea 10

- ¶1. Israel is an empty vine; he produces fruit to himself. The more abundant his fruit, the more abundantly he gives to the altars. The more prosperous his land, the more the sacred pillars prosper.

2. Their heart is divided, and now they will bear their guilt. He will break down their altars. He will destroy their pillars.
3. For they now say, "We have no king. We do not fear Jehovah. And the king, what can he do for us?"
4. They speak words by which to swear falsely when making a covenant; therefore, judgment will spring up like a poisonous weed in the furrows of the field.
5. The inhabitants of Samaria are in awe of the calves of Beth-aven, for its people mourn for it, and its idolatrous priests rejoice for it, for its glory, but they will go into exile because of it.
6. It will surely be brought to Assyria as a gift for King Jareb. Ephraim will receive shame, and Israel will be ashamed of his own counsel.
7. Samaria will cease to exist; her king will be like foam on the surface of the water,
8. and the high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed. Thorn-bush and thistle will climb up on their altars, and they will say to the mountains, "Cover us!" and to the hills, "Fall on us!"
- ¶9. O Israel, you have sinned since the days of Gibeah! There, they made their stand so that the battle against the unrighteous children in Gibeah would not overtake them.
10. When I please, then will I chasten them, and nations will be gathered against them when I bind them for their double eyes.
11. For Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to crush the grain, but I will put a yoke on her fine neck. I will make Ephraim pull, and Judah will plow. Jacob will break up his clods.
12. Sow righteousness for yourselves; reap mercy. Break up your fallow ground, for it is time to seek Jehovah until He comes and rains righteousness upon you.
13. You have plowed wickedness. You have reaped unrighteousness. You have eaten the fruit of lies because you trusted in your own way, in the multitude of your valiant men.
14. And a tumult will arise among your people, and all your fortresses will be destroyed as Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel in the day of battle; mother was smashed to pieces with her children.
15. Thus has Bethel done to you because of your great evil. At dawn, the king of Israel shall be utterly cut off.

Hosea 11

1. When Israel was a youth, I loved him, and I called my son out of Egypt.
2. The more they⁵ have called them, the more they have gone away from them. They keep on sacrificing to Baals and burning offerings to idols.
3. Yet, it was I who taught Ephraim to walk, leading them by their arms, but they did not know that I had healed them.
4. I led them with cords of a man, with ropes of love, but I was to them like those who lift up the yoke onto their jaws, though I had bent down to feed them.
5. He will not return to the land of Egypt, but Assyria; he will be his king because they refuse to repent.

⁵ Probably referring to the prophets whom God sent to Israel.

6. And the sword will flash against his cities, and destroy his idle talkers, and devour them because of their counsels.
7. My people are addicted to apostasy from me, and though they call to the Most High together, He will not exalt them.
- ¶8. How can I give you up, O Ephraim, or hand you over, O Israel? How can I make you like Admah or treat you like Zeboiim? My heart is turned within me. My repentings are kindled together.
9. I will not act on my burning anger. I will not turn back to destroy Ephraim because I am God and not man, the Holy One in your midst. I will not come in anger.
10. They will follow Jehovah. He will roar like a lion. When He roars, then the children will come trembling from the west.
11. They will come trembling like a bird out of Egypt, and like a dove from the land of Assyria, and I will cause them to dwell in their homes, says Jehovah.
12. Ephraim surrounds me with lying, and the house of Israel with treachery, but Judah still walks with God and is established, with help from the holy ones.

Hosea 12

- ¶1. Ephraim grazes on wind and pursues the east wind all day. He multiplies falsehood and violence. They make a covenant with Assyria, and oil is carried to Egypt.
2. And Jehovah has a dispute with Judah, too, and there will be a visitation upon Jacob according to his ways. According to his deeds, He will recompense him.
3. In the womb, he grasped his brother by the heel, and by his strength, he contended with God.
4. He contended with an angel and overcame. He wept and made supplication to him. He found him in Bethel, and there He spoke with us,
5. even Jehovah, God of hosts. "Jehovah" is His memorial.
6. And you, by your God, will return. Keep mercy and judgment, and wait on your God continually.
7. He is a merchant in whose hand are fraudulent scales. He loves to oppress.
8. Yet, Ephraim has said, "I am certainly rich. I have found wealth for myself. In all my acquisitions, they will not find in me an offense that would be sin."
9. But I, Jehovah your God since the land of Egypt, will cause you to dwell in tents again, as in the days of the tabernacle.
10. And I spoke through the prophets, and I multiplied visions, and I used parables by the hand of the prophets.
11. Since Gilead does iniquity, they are altogether worthless. At Gilgal, they sacrifice bulls. Also, their altars are like heaps of stone in the furrows of the field.
12. Yet, Jacob fled to the field of Aram, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife, he kept watch.
13. And by a prophet, Jehovah brought Israel up from Egypt, and by a prophet, he was kept.
14. Ephraim vexed Him bitterly. Therefore, He will leave his blood-guilt upon him, and his Master will recompense him for his contempt.

Hosea 13

1. When Ephraim spoke trembling, he was exalted in Israel, but he offended with Baal, and died.
 2. And now they increase sin and make for themselves molten images from their silver, idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of craftsmen. To them, they say, "You who sacrifice humans, kiss the calves!"
 3. Therefore, they will be like the morning mist and the early dew that goes away, like chaff blown from the threshing floor by a storm, and like smoke out of a chimney.
 4. But I have been Jehovah your God from the land of Egypt, and you do not know a God besides me; yea, there is no Savior except me.
 5. I knew you in the wilderness, in a parched land;
 6. yet, with their pasturage, they were satisfied. They were satisfied, but their heart became lifted up, and they forgot me.
 7. Therefore will I be like a lion to them; like a leopard beside the path will I watch for them.
 8. I will meet them like a bear robbed of her cubs, and I will tear open their chest, and I will devour them there like a lion. A beast of the field will tear them to pieces.
 9. He has destroyed you, O Israel, because your help was in me.
 10. Where now is your king that will save you in any of your cities? Or your judges, to whom you said, "Give me a king and princes"?
 11. I gave you a king in my anger, and I took him away in my wrath.
- ¶12. The guilt of Ephraim is bound up; his iniquity is stored up.
13. Labor pains will come upon him; he is an unwise son because he was not steadfast in the time of opportunity.
 14. I will ransom them from the power of Sheol; I will redeem them from death. O Death, where are your plagues? Where is your sting, O Sheol? Pity shall be hidden from my eyes.
 15. Though he flourishes among his brothers, an east wind from Jehovah will come, arising from the wilderness, and his spring shall be ashamed, and his fountain shall be dried up. It will rob the storehouse of every desirable vessel.
 16. Samaria shall be condemned because she rebelled against her God. They will fall by the sword, their little ones will be dashed in pieces, and his pregnant women will be ripped open.

Hosea 14

- ¶1. Return, O Israel, to Jehovah your God, for you have fallen in your iniquity!
2. Take with you words and return to Jehovah. Say to him, "Completely take away iniquity, and receive us for good, and we will render the bullocks of our lips."
 3. Asshur will not save us. We will not ride on a horse, and we will no longer call the work of our hands our God, for in you, the fatherless find compassion."
 4. I will heal their apostasy. I will love them freely because my anger will have turned away from him.
 5. I will be like the dew for Israel. He will flourish like the lily and put out his roots like Lebanon.
 6. His shoots will spread out, and his splendor will be like the olive, and his scent, like Lebanon.
 7. They will return and dwell in His shadow; they will come alive like grain and sprout like the vine. His renown will be like the wine of Lebanon.

- ¶8. O Ephraim, what are idols at all to me? I have heard, and I will watch over him. I am like a green cypress. Your fruit is obtained from me.
9. Who is wise and will come to understand these things? Who has understanding and will come to know them? For the ways of Jehovah are upright, and the righteous walk in them, but those who rebel will stumble at them.

Joel

Joel 1

- ¶1. The word of Jehovah that came to Joel ben-Pethuel.
2. Hear this, O elders! Give ear, all inhabitants of the land! Has such a thing happened in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?
3. Tell it to your children, and your children to their children, and their children to the next generation.
4. What was left by the cutting locust, the young locust ate; and what was left by the young locust, the hopping locust ate; and what was left by the hopping locust, the destroying locust ate.
5. Wake up, you drunkards, and weep! Wail for the new wine, all you wine-bibbers, for it is cut off from your mouth!
6. A nation has come up over my land, powerful and without number. Its teeth are lion's teeth, and it has the fangs of a lion.
7. It has made my vine an appalling sight, and my fig tree, a stump. It has completely stripped it and cast it down, and now, its branches have turned white.
8. Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth!
9. The meal offering and drink offering is cut off from the house of Jehovah; the priests, Jehovah's ministers, mourn.
10. The field is devastated; the country mourns because the grain is laid waste. The new wine is dried up; the olive oil has run out.
11. Be ashamed, O plowmen, and wail, O vinedressers, for the wheat and the barley! The crop in the field is ruined.
12. The vine is dried up, and the fig tree has withered. All the trees of the field, the pomegranate, and the palm, and the apple tree have withered away because joy has withered away from the children of men.
- ¶13. Gird yourselves and lament, O priests! Wail, you ministers of the altar! Come! Spend the night in sackcloth, O ministers of my God, because the meal offering and the drink offering is withheld from the house of your God.
14. Sanctify a fast! Call an assembly! Gather together the elders—all the inhabitants of the land!—to the house of Jehovah your God, and cry out to Jehovah!
15. Alas, for the day! The day of Jehovah is near, and it will come as devastation from the Almighty.
16. Is not the food supply cut off before our very eyes, and joy and gladness from the house of our God?
17. The seeds of grain have shriveled beneath their clods; the storehouses are in ruins; the granaries have fallen in, for the grain is dried up.
18. How the animals groan! The herds wander about because there is no pasturage for them; even the flocks of sheep suffer punishment.
19. O Jehovah, I cry out to you! Fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and flame has set ablaze all the trees of the field.

20. Even the beasts of the field pant for you, for the streams of water have dried up. Yea, fire has devoured the pastures in the wilderness.

Joel 2

- ¶1. Sound a shofar in Zion! Sound an alarm on my holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of Jehovah is coming. It is near!
2. O dark and gloomy day! A day clouded with thick darkness! Like the dawn, a nation vast and powerful is spread out over the mountains, the likes of which has never been, and after them will not be again for many generations!
3. Before them, a fire devours, and behind them, a flame burns; the land before them is like the garden of Eden, but behind them, it is a desolate waste, and there is no escaping them.
4. Their appearance is like horses, and they run like steeds,
5. with a noise like chariots, a noise like raging fire consuming stubble. They prance on the mountain tops like a mighty horde set in battle order.
6. Before them, people writhe in anguish; all faces turn pale.¹
7. They run like mighty men; they scale the wall like men of war; they march, each in his own path, and they do not break rank.
8. They do not encroach upon one another; they go, each man, in his course. When surrounded by weapons, they are not impeded.
9. They will rush about the city; they will run on the wall; they will climb up on houses; they will come in through the windows like a thief.
10. Before them, the earth will quake, and the heavens tremble. The sun and the moon are dark, and the stars gather in their light.
11. Yea, Jehovah gives forth His voice before His army. Indeed, His camp is very great, for a mighty one is carrying out His command. The day of Jehovah is great, and greatly to be feared! Who can endure it?
12. "Yet, even now, says Jehovah, turn to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning!"
13. Rend your heart, and not your garments, and return to Jehovah your God, for He is gracious, and merciful, slow to anger, abundant in kindness, and He is grieved for the misery!
14. Who knows, but that He will turn and show pity, and leave a blessing behind Him, even a meal offering and a drink offering unto Jehovah your God.
- ¶15. Sound a shofar in Zion! Sanctify a fast! Call a meeting!
16. Gather the people! Sanctify the congregation! Assemble the elders! Gather the children, even the nursing infants! Let the bridegroom come out of his chamber, and the young bride from her bridal-chamber!
17. O priests! Ministers of Jehovah! Weep between the porch and the altar, and say, "Have pity, O Jehovah, on your people, and do not turn your heritage over to disgrace, that Gentiles should rule over them!² Why should they say among the nations, 'Where is their God?'"

¹ Perhaps, "lose their beauty".

² Or, "to become a proverb among the heathen!"

- ¶18. Then will Jehovah be jealous over His land, and He will pity His people.
- 19. Jehovah will hear, and He will say to His people, “Behold, I will send you the grain, the wine, and the oil, and you will overflow with it. And I will not make you a reproach among the Gentiles again.
- 20. I will remove the northerner far from you and drive him into a dry and desolate place, with his face toward the eastern sea and his back toward the western sea, and his foul odor will go up. His stench will rise, though he was doing great things.
- 21. Do not be afraid, O land! Shout for joy and be glad, for Jehovah Himself will do great things!
- 22. Do not be afraid, O beasts of the field, for the wilderness pastures are grown green; the tree has borne its fruit; the fig tree and the vines have yielded their strength.
- 23. O children of Zion, shout for joy and be glad in Jehovah your God! For He has given you the early rain in just measure.³ Yea, He has brought down the early rain for you, and the latter rain in the first month.
- 24. The threshing floors are full of grain, and the vats overflow with new wine and oil.
- 25. I will restore to you the years that the young locust ate, the hopping locust, and the destroying locust, and the cutting locust, my great army that I sent against you,
- 26. and you will eat in plenty and be filled, and you will praise the name of Jehovah your God who dealt wondrously with you. My people shall never be disappointed!
- 27. And you shall know that I am in the midst of Israel. I am Jehovah your God, and there is no other, and my people shall never be disappointed!

- ¶28. “And it shall come to pass afterward that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, and your young men will see visions.
- 29. And I will also pour out my Spirit on the slaves in those days, both male and female,
- 30. and I will give signs in heaven and on the earth: blood, and fire, and mushrooming columns of smoke.
- 31. The sun will be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and fearful day of Jehovah comes.
- 32. And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah will be saved, for there shall be deliverance on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, as Jehovah has said, even among the survivors whom Jehovah will call.

Joel 3

- ¶1. “Behold! In those days, when I bring back the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,
- 2. I will also gather all the Gentiles and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, and there will I enter into judgment with them for my people, even Israel my heritage whom they scattered among the nations, and they divided up my land.
- 3. They cast lots for my people; they traded a boy for a harlot and sold a girl for wine for them to drink.

³ Or, “He has given you the teacher of righteousness.”

4. Yea, and what do you have to do with me, O Tyre and Sidon, and all you regions of Philistia? Are you offering a recompense to me? Even if you are making recompense to me, I will swiftly and soon turn your recompense back on your own head.
 5. You took my silver and my gold away, and you carried my pleasant, precious possessions into your temples.
 6. You sold the children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem to the children of the Javanites,⁴ to remove them far from their border.
 7. Behold, I am stirring them up in the place where you sold them, and I will return your recompense on your head.
 8. I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the sons of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, to a distant nation, for Jehovah has spoken.”
- ¶9. Proclaim this among the nations: Declare holy war! Stir up the mighty men! Let all the men of war draw near and come up!
10. Beat your plowshares into swords and your pruning knives into spears! Let the weak man say, “I am strong!”
 11. Come and help, all nations from every side, and gather yourselves there! O Jehovah, send down your warriors!
 12. Let the nations be stirred up and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat! For there will I sit to judge all the nations from every side.
 13. Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe! Go and start treading, for the winepress is full; the vats overflow, for their wickedness is great.
 14. Multitudes, multitudes in the Valley of Decision! The day of Jehovah is at hand in the Valley of Decision.
 15. The sun and the moon are dark, and the stars withdraw their shining.
 16. And Jehovah will roar from Zion; from Jerusalem will He lift up His voice, and heaven and earth will shake. Yea, Jehovah will be a refuge for His people and a fortress for the children of Israel,
 17. and you shall know that I, Jehovah your God, dwell in Zion, my holy mountain. Jerusalem shall be holy, and strangers shall not pass through her again.
- ¶18. And it shall come to pass that the mountains will drip with sweet wine, and the hills will flow with milk, and all the streams of Judah will flow with water. And a spring will go out from the house of Jehovah, and it will water the Wadi Shittim.⁵
19. Egypt shall be a wasteland, and Edom shall be an uninhabited waste because of violence against the children of Judah, whose innocent blood they have shed in their land.
 20. But Judah will endure forever, and Jerusalem, from generation to generation.
 21. And I will forgive their blood-guilt which I had not forgiven, and Jehovah will dwell in Zion.

⁴ Javan was one of the sons of Japheth (Gen. 10:1-4). Japheth's sons inhabited the lands north and west of Canaan and were known for trading in slaves (Ezek. 27:13).

⁵ There is no record of a wadi named Shittim, but there was a place named Shittim, located east of Jerusalem, across the Jordan River. From that, it is thought that Wadi Shittim is one of the wadis that goes down from Jerusalem toward Shittim.

Amos

Amos 1

- ¶1. The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which he prophesied about Israel in the days of Uzziah, king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam ben-Joash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.
2. And he said, "Jehovah will roar from Zion, and he will send forth his voice from Jerusalem. And the shepherds 'pastures will mourn, and the top of Carmel will wither.
- ¶3. "Thus says Jehovah: For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn it away because they threshed Gilead with sharp, iron tools.
4. I will cast fire on the house of Hazael, and it will devour the citadels of Ben-Hadad.
5. I will break the bar of Damascus, and I will cut off the inhabitant of the Valley of Aven and he who holds the scepter of the house of Beth-Eden. And the people of Aram will go into exile to Kir, says Jehovah.
- ¶6. "Thus says Jehovah: For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn it away because they deported as exiles an entire population, to turn them over to Edom.
7. I will cast fire on the wall of Gaza, and it will devour her citadels.
8. And I will cut off the inhabitant of Ashdod and he who holds the scepter of Ashkelon. And then I will turn my hand against Ekron. And the remnant of the Philistines will perish, says my Lord, Jehovah.
- ¶9. "Thus says Jehovah: For three transgressions of Tyre, and for four, I will not turn it away because they delivered an entire population as exiles to Edom, and they did not remember the brotherly covenant.
10. Therefore will I cast fire on the wall of Tyre, and it will devour her citadels.
- ¶11. "Thus says Jehovah: For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn it away because he pursued his brother with the sword and stifled his compassion. His anger tore continually, and as for his wrath, he kept it forever.
12. Therefore will I cast fire on Teman, and it will devour the citadels of Bozrah.
- ¶13. "Thus says Jehovah: For three transgressions of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn it away because they ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead in order to enlarge their border.
14. Therefore will I kindle a fire on the wall of Rabbah, and it will devour her citadels amid shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the windstorm.
15. And their king will go into exile, he and his princes together, says Jehovah.

- ¶1. "Thus says Jehovah: For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn it away because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime.
2. Therefore will I cast fire on Moab, and it will consume the citadels of Kerioth. And Moab will perish amid tumult, with shouting and with the sound of a shofar.
3. I will cut off the judge from her midst and kill all her princes with him, says Jehovah.
- ¶4. "Thus says Jehovah: For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn it away because they rejected the law of Jehovah and did not keep His statutes. And their lies, after which their fathers walked, led them astray.
5. Therefore will I cast fire on Judah, and it will consume the citadels of Jerusalem.
- ¶6. "Thus says Jehovah: For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn it away because they sell the righteous for silver and the poor for a pair of sandals.
7. They pant after the dust of the earth that is on the head of the oppressed, and they cast aside the way of the poor. And a man and his father will go in to the same young woman in order to pollute my holy name.
8. And they stretch out beside every altar on garments taken in pledge, and they drink in the house of their God the wine of those who are mulcted.
9. Yet, I am the one who destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was as the height of the cedars. He was strong as the oaks, but I destroyed his fruit above and his roots beneath.
10. And I am the one who brought you up from the land of Egypt, and I led you in the wilderness forty years, to inherit the land of the Amorite.
11. I raised up your sons for prophets and your young men for Nazirites. Is it not so, O children of Israel? says Jehovah.
12. But you made the Nazirites drink wine, and you commanded the prophets, 'Do not prophesy!'
13. Behold, I am weighed down with you, as a loaded cart is weighed down with sheaves.
14. Flight will perish from the swift; the strong will not retain his power; the mighty will not save his life.
15. He who handles the bow will not stand, he who is swift of foot will not save himself, the horseman will not save his life,
16. and the stout of heart among the mighty will flee away naked in that day, says Jehovah."

Amos 3

- ¶1. Hear this word which Jehovah has spoken about you, O children of Israel, about the whole family that I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,
2. "Of all the families of the earth, I have known only you. Therefore, I will visit all your iniquities upon you."
3. Can two walk together without agreeing to meet?

4. Will a lion roar in the forest when there is no prey for him? Will a young lion cry out from his den if he has not caught prey?
5. Will a bird be caught in a snare on the ground when there is no bait for it? Will a man take up a snare from the ground when he has caught nothing at all?
6. If a shofar is blown in a city, won't people tremble? If calamity is in a city, did Jehovah not do it?
7. Surely, the Lord, Jehovah, will do nothing except He reveal His secret to His servants, the prophets.
8. A lion has roared! Who will not be afraid? The Lord, Jehovah, has spoken! Who will not prophesy?
9. You shall cause it to be heard in the citadels in Ashdod and in the citadels in the land of Egypt and say, "Assemble on the mountains of Samaria, and watch the great tumults in it and the wrongs in its midst."
10. They do not know to do right, says Jehovah, who store up violence and devastation in their citadels.
11. Therefore, thus says my Lord Jehovah: An adversary shall surround the land! And he will bring down your stronghold from you, and your citadels will be plundered.
12. Thus says Jehovah: As the shepherd snatches two legs or a piece of an ear from the mouth of a lion, so the children of Israel will be snatched, who are sitting on the edge of a couch in Samaria and on a divan in Damascus.
13. Hear! And bear witness against the house of Jacob, says my Lord Jehovah, the God of Hosts,
14. for in the day that I visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visit them upon the altars of Bethel. And the horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground.
15. I will also strike the winter house along with the summer house, and the ivory houses will perish. Many houses will be swept away, says Jehovah."

Amos 4

- ¶1. Heed the word, O cows of Bashan who are in the hill of Samaria, women who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who say to their husbands, "Bring, that we may drink!"
2. The Lord, Jehovah, has sworn by His holiness, "Behold, the days are coming upon you when He will carry you off with hooks, and your posterity with fish-hooks.
3. You will go out at the breaches, each in front of the other. And you will be driven toward Harmon¹, says Jehovah.
4. Come to Bethel and transgress! At Gilgal, multiply transgression, and bring your sacrifices every morning, your tithes every three years,

¹ Hebrew meaning uncertain.

5. so that you might offer the thanksgiving sacrifice with leaven! And cry aloud and advertise your freewill offerings! For this is what you love, O children of Israel, says the Lord, Jehovah.
6. And yet, I am the One who gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, even a lack of food in all your places. But you did not return to me, says Jehovah.
7. And yet, I am the One who held back the rain from you while there were yet three months before the harvest. I sent rain on one city and did not send it on another city; one portion was rained upon, and the portion that it did not rain on withered.
8. So, two or three cities went staggering to another city to drink water, yet they were not satisfied. But you did not return to me, says Jehovah.
9. I scourged you with blight and mildew. When your gardens, and your vineyards, and your fig trees, and your olive trees increased, the cutting locust devoured them. But you did not return to me, says Jehovah.
10. I sent a pestilence upon you after the manner of Egypt. I killed your young men with the sword and took your horses captive. I made the stench of your camps rise up, even into your nostrils. But you did not return to me, says Jehovah.
11. I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. You were like a brand plucked from the fire. Still, you did not return to me, says Jehovah.
12. Therefore, thus will I do to you, O Israel, and because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, O Israel!
13. For behold, He who forms mountains, and creates the wind, and makes known to man what his thought is, who makes dawn out of darkness and treads on the high places of the earth—Jehovah, the God of Hosts, is His name.”

Amos 5

- ¶1. Hear this saying that I take up against you, a dirge for the house of Israel:
2. “The virgin Israel has fallen. She will not rise again. She is forsaken. There is no one in her land to raise her up.
3. For thus says the Lord, Jehovah: The city that goes out by a thousand will have a hundred left, and the city that goes out by a hundred will have ten left to the house of Israel.”
- ¶4. This, then, is what Jehovah says to the house of Israel: “Seek me and live!
5. Do not seek Bethel, or enter Gilgal, or cross over to Beersheba, for Gilgal will surely go into exile, and Bethel will come to nothing.”
6. Seek Jehovah and live, lest He rush like fire upon the house of Joseph, and it consume, and there is no one in Bethel to extinguish it.
7. O you who turn judgment into wormwood and cast righteousness down to the ground,
8. He is the One who made Pleiades and Orion, and turns the shadow of death into morning, and makes the day dark with night, and summons the waters of the sea and pours them out upon the surface of the earth. Jehovah is His name!

- ¶9. He who makes devastation to burst upon the mighty, so that devastation comes upon a fortress.
- 10. They hate him who rebukes at the gate, and they abhor him who speaks uprightly.
- 11. Therefore, because you trample on the poor and take a portion of his grain, you will not live in the houses of hewn stone that you have built, and you will not drink wine from the pleasant vineyards you have planted.
- 12. For I know your many transgressions and your countless sins, you who vex the righteous man by taking a bribe and push aside needy people at the gate.
- 13. That is why the prudent man stays quiet in such a time, for the time is evil.
- 14. Seek good and not evil so that you may live! And then Jehovah, the God of Hosts, will be with you, the way you claim.
- 15. Hate evil, and love good! Establish justice at the gate! It may be that Jehovah, the God of Hosts, will show favor to the remnant of Joseph.

- ¶16. Therefore, thus says Jehovah, the God of Hosts, my Lord: “Wailing shall be in all the squares, and in all the streets, they will say, ‘Woe, Woe!’ They will even call the plowman to mourning and wailing, like those skilled in lamentation,
- 17. and wailing will be in every vineyard, for I will pass through your midst, says Jehovah.
- 18. Woe to you who desire the day of Jehovah! Why should you want the day of Jehovah? It will be darkness and not light.
- 19. It will be like a man who escapes from a lion, and a bear meets him, or he enters the house, lays his hand on the wall, and a serpent bites him.
- 20. Is not the day of Jehovah darkness and not light, and gloom with no brightness in it?
- 21. I hate, I despise your feasts, and I take no pleasure in your sacred Assemblies.
- 22. For though you offer burnt offerings and your gift offerings to me, I will not accept them. And the peace offering of your fatlings, I will not regard.
- 23. Take from me the noise of your songs and the melody of your harps! I will not listen!
- 24. Let justice roll down like water, and righteousness, like an ever-flowing stream!
- 25. Did you bring the sacrifices and gift-offerings to me in the wilderness for forty years, O house of Israel?
- 26. You carried Sikkuth your king and Chiun, your images, the star of your gods² that you made for yourselves.
- 27. So, I will carry you into exile beyond Damascus, says Jehovah, whose name is the God of Hosts.”

Amos 6

- ¶1. Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and those who trust in the hill of Samaria—the notable of the highest of the nations, to whom the house of Israel goes.

² Hebrew uncertain.

2. Pass through Calneh, and see. Go from there to Hamath Rabbah, and go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are you better than these kingdoms? Or is their territory greater than your territory?
3. You who put far off the evil day and bring near the seat of violence,
4. who lie on ivory couches, relaxed upon their divans, eating rams from the flock and calves of the stall,
5. who chant to the sound of the harp like David (they invent musical instruments for themselves),
6. who drink bowls of wine and anoint themselves with the finest oils, but are not grieved for the ruin of Joseph!
7. Therefore, they will now go into exile with the first exiles, and He will refuse the cry of those who are at ease.

¶8. “The Lord, Jehovah, has sworn by His life,” says Jehovah, the God of Hosts, ‘I abhor the pride of Jacob and hate his citadels, and I will deliver up the city and its fullness.’”

9. And it will come to pass that if ten men remain in one house, they will die.
10. And his kinsman will take him up, with the one burning incense for him, to carry his bones from the house. And he will say to someone in the innermost parts of the house, “Are any still with you?” And that one will say, “None.” And he will say, “Hush!” (So as not to bring the name of Jehovah to remembrance.)
11. For behold, Jehovah is giving commandment, and He will beat the great house into fragments and the little house into pieces.
12. Do horses run on a crag, or does one plow there with oxen? But you turn judgment into poison, and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood,
13. you who rejoice at Lo-debar,³ who say, “Was it not by our own strength that we captured Karnaim?”
14. “Behold, I am raising up a nation against you, O house of Israel,” says the LORD, the God of Hosts. “They will oppress you from the Entrance of Hamath unto the valley of Arbah.”

Amos 7

- ¶1. Thus the Lord, Jehovah, has shown me, and behold, He was forming a swarm of locusts when the after-growth was beginning to sprout, that is, the growth after the king’s mowings.
2. And it came to pass when it finished eating the vegetation of the land, I said, “My Lord Jehovah! Forgive, please! How will Jacob survive? For he is small.”
3. Jehovah relented concerning this. “It shall not be,” said Jehovah.

³ Or, “rejoice for nothing.”

- ¶4. Thus the Lord, Jehovah, has shown me, and behold, the Lord, Jehovah, called for a judgment by fire, and it consumed the great deep and was consuming the land.
5. And I said, "My Lord Jehovah! Stop, I pray! How will Jacob survive? For he is small."
6. Jehovah relented concerning this. "This also shall not be," said the Lord, Jehovah.
- ¶7. Thus He has shown me, and behold, my Lord was standing upon a wall with a plumb-line, and the plumb-line was in His hand.
8. And Jehovah said to me, "What do you see, Amos?" I said, "A plumb-line." Then my Lord said, "Behold, I am setting a plumb-line in the midst of my people, Israel. I will not hold back from passing over him anymore."
9. Isaac's high places will be desolate, Israel's sacred places will be waste, and I will rise up against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."
- ¶10. Then Amaziah, priest of Bethel, sent to Jeroboam, king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to endure all his words!"
11. For thus Amos has said: 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will surely go into exile from his land.'"
12. And Amaziah said to Amos, "You Seer! Go! Flee to the land of Judah! Eat bread and prophesy there!"
13. But never again prophesy in Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is the temple of the kingdom."
14. Then Amos answered and said to Amaziah, "I was no prophet, nor was I a prophet's son, but I was a herdsman and a gatherer of sycamore fruit."
15. But Jehovah took me from following the flock, and Jehovah said to me, 'Go prophesy to my people, Israel!'
16. So, hear now the word of Jehovah! You say, 'Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not drop a word against the house of Isaac.'
17. Therefore, thus says Jehovah: Your wife will be a harlot in the city, and your sons and daughters will fall by the sword. Your land will be divided into lots, and you will die in an unclean land, and Israel will surely go into exile from his land!"

Amos 8

- ¶1. Thus the Lord, Jehovah showed me: there was a basket of summer fruit.

2. And He said, “What do you see, Amos?” I said, “A basket of summer fruit.” Then Jehovah said to me, “The end⁴ has come for my people Israel. I will no longer hold back from passing over him.
3. They will wail temple-songs in that day, says the Lord, Jehovah.” He will cast down many dead bodies everywhere. Hush!
- ¶4. Hear this! You who crush the needy man and destroy the poor man of the land,
5. saying, “When will the new moon pass, so that we can sell grain? And the Sabbath, so that we can uncover the grain, making an ephah little and a shekel big, cheating with deceitful scales,
6. so that we might buy destitute men with silver and the needy man for a pair of sandals, and sell the refuse of grain?”
7. Jehovah has sworn by the pride of Jacob, “ I will damn myself if I ever forget any of their deeds!”⁵
8. Will the land not tremble and everyone who dwells in it mourn because of this? All of it will rise like the Nile, be tossed about, and fall like the Nile of Egypt.
- ¶9. “And it will come to pass in that day, says my Lord Jehovah, that I will make the sun go down at noon, and I will make the earth dark when it should be light.
10. I will turn your feasts into mourning and all of your songs into a dirge. I will make sackcloth be on all loins, and baldness on every head. I will make it like the mourning for an only son, and its end will be a day of bitterness.
11. Behold, the days are coming, says my Lord Jehovah, that I will send a famine on the land, not a famine of bread or a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of Jehovah.
12. They will stagger from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east. Men will desperately go about, seeking the word of Jehovah, but they will not find it.
13. In that day, the beautiful virgins and the young men will faint because of this thirst.
14. They will fall and not rise again who swear by the shame of Samaria and say, ‘Your god, O Dan, is alive! ’and, ‘The manner of Beersheba lives!’”

Amos 9

- ¶1. I saw my Lord standing over the altar, and he said, “Strike the lintel⁶ and make the thresholds shake; break them down on the chief of them all, and the rest of them will I slay with the sword. Whoever among them flees will not escape, and whoever among them escapes will not get away.

⁴ There is a play on words here that does not translate into English. The Hebrew word for “summer fruit” sounds much like the Hebrew word for “end”.

⁵ Literally, only “—if I ever forget any of their deeds!” The first part of the curse is so unthinkable—God’s death and damnation—that it is not even uttered.

⁶ Hebrew uncertain.

2. Though they dig into Sheol, there my hand will take hold of them, and though they ascend into heaven, from there will I bring them down.
 3. And though they hide themselves on Carmel's summit, I will search and take them from there, and though they hide themselves from me at the bottom of the sea, I will command the serpent, and there will he bite them.
 4. And though they go into captivity before their enemies, I will command the sword, and there will it slay them. I will set my eye upon them for evil, not for good."
 5. My Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, is the One who will touch the earth, and it will melt, and all of its inhabitants will mourn. Yea, all of it will rise up like the Nile and subside like the Nile of Egypt.
 6. It is He who built His levels in the heavens and fixed His vault over the earth. It is He who summons the waters of the sea and pours them upon the surface of the earth. Jehovah is His name!
 7. "Are you not as the children of the Cushites to me, O sons of Israel? says Jehovah. Did I not bring up Israel from the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Captor, and the Aramean from Kir?
 8. Behold! The eyes of the Lord, Jehovah, are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from the face of the earth; however, I will not completely destroy the house of Jacob, says Jehovah.
 9. For, behold, I am giving commandment, and I will sift the house of Israel among all the nations as if sifted in a sieve; yet, not a kernel⁷ will fall to the ground.
 10. The sinners of my people, those who say, 'Evil will not come near or overtake us,' will all die by the sword.
 11. In that day, I will raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and I will close up its breaches, and I will raise up its ruins and rebuild it as in days of old,
 12. so that those who are called by my name might inherit the remnant of Edom and all the nations, says Jehovah, who is doing this.
- ¶13. "Behold, days are coming, says Jehovah, when the plowman will overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes, the sower of the seed, and the mountains will drip sweet wine, and all the hills will flow with it.
14. And I will return the captivity of my people Israel, and they will rebuild and inhabit cities that were laid waste, and they will plant vineyards and drink their wine, and plant gardens and eat their fruit.
 15. And I will plant them in their land, and they will never be uprooted again from their land that I gave them, says Jehovah your God."

⁷ Literally, a pebble.

Obadiah

Obadiah 1

- ¶1. The vision of Obadiah. “Thus says the Lord, Jehovah, to Edom: We have heard a report from Jehovah that a messenger was sent among the nations, saying, ‘Rise up! Let us rise up against her in battle!’
- 2. Behold, I have made you small among the nations; you are greatly despised.
- 3. You who dwell in clefts of a cliff, your insolent heart has deceived you. His seat is in a high place, and in his heart he says, ‘Who can bring me down to the ground?’
- 4. Though you mount up high as the eagle, and though you set your nest among the stars, from there will I bring you down, says Jehovah.
- 5. If thieves came upon you, or robbers by night (how you are cut off!), would they not steal only until they had enough? Or if gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings?
- 6. How the things of Esau are plundered, his treasures, sought out!
- 7. All the men of your confederacy will drive you to the border. Those at peace with you will deceive you and prevail against you. Those who eat your bread will lay a trap for you. (There is no understanding in him.)
- 8. Will I not in that day, says Jehovah, destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of Mount Esau?
- 9. Your mighty men shall be broken, O Teman, so that everyone of Mount Esau might be cut off by slaughter.
- 10. Because of the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you shall be cut off forever.
- 11. On the day that you stood at a distance, on the day foreigners carried off his wealth and strangers entered into his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, you were like one of them.
- 12. You should not have looked on in the day of your brother, in the day of his calamity. You should not have rejoiced over the sons of Judah in the day of their destruction. You should not have boasted in the day of distress.
- 13. You should not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity. Truly, you should not have looked upon his affliction in the day of his calamity. Neither should you have looted his wealth in the day of his calamity!
- 14. Neither should you have stood at the crossroads to cut off his fugitives, nor handed over his survivors in the day of distress.
- 15. The day of Jehovah is near for all the nations. As you have done, so shall it be done to you. Your doings shall return upon your own head.
- 16. For just as you drank upon my holy mountain, so shall all the nations drink perpetually upon you. Yea, they shall drink and swallow up. And then, they shall be as though they never were.

17. But deliverance shall be on Mount Zion, and there will be holiness, and the house of Jacob shall have their possessions.
18. The house of Jacob will be a fire, and the house of Joseph, a flame, and the house of Esau will be stubble, and they will burn among them and consume them. And there will be no survivor of the house of Esau, for Jehovah has spoken.
19. They of the Negev will possess Mount Esau, and they of the Shephelah will possess the Philistines, the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria, and Benjamin will possess Gilead.
20. And the exiles of this fortress which belongs to the children of Israel will possess that which belongs to the Canaanites as far as Zarephath, and the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad will possess the cities of the Negev.
21. And saviors shall rise up in Mount Zion to judge Mount Esau, and the kingdom will be Jehovah's!"

Jonah

Jonah 1

- ¶1. Now the word of Jehovah came to Jonah ben-Amittai, saying,
2. "Arise! Go to Nineveh, the great city, and cry out against it, for their evil has come up before me!"
3. But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish away from Jehovah, and he went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. And he paid the fare and went down into it to go with them to Tarshish, away from Jehovah.
4. But Jehovah hurled a great wind upon the sea, and there was a great tempest in the sea so that the ship was on the verge of being broken up.
5. And the sailors were afraid, and they cried out, each to his god, and they cast the wares that were in the ship into the sea to lighten it of them. But Jonah had gone down into the hold of the ship and lain down, and he had fallen into a deep sleep.
6. Then the captain came to him and said to him, "What are you doing, you sleeper? Get up! Call on your god! Maybe that god will think on us so we won't die!"
7. And they said, each to his shipmate, "Come on, let's cast lots and find out on whose account this evil is upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.
8. And they said to him, "You, on whose account this evil is upon us, tell us now, what's your occupation, and where do you come from? What's your country, and what people are you from?"
9. And he said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear Jehovah, the God of heaven. who made the sea and the dry land."
10. Then the men were very afraid, and they said to him, "What is this that you have done?" For the men knew that he was running from Jehovah, because he had told them.
11. And they said to him, "What are we to do with you so that the sea will be calm for us?" For the sea was tossing and raging.
12. And he told them, "Pick me up and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you, for I know that this great tempest is upon you because of me."
13. But the men rowed to return to land; however, they could not because the sea was tossing and raging against them.
14. So, they cried out to Jehovah and said, "We beg you, O Jehovah, please don't let us die because of this man's life, and don't lay upon us innocent blood, O Jehovah, for you have done as you pleased!"
15. And they picked Jonah up and threw him into the sea, and the sea stopped its raging.
16. Then the men greatly feared Jehovah, and they offered sacrifice to Jehovah and made vows.
17. Now, Jehovah had appointed a large fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

Jonah 2

- ¶1. And Jonah prayed to Jehovah his God from the fish's belly.

2. And he said, “I called in my distress to Jehovah, and He answered me. From the depths of Sheol, I cried out. You heard my voice.
3. For you had cast me into the deep, into the midst of the sea, and the flood encompassed me. All your billows and your waves passed over me.
4. Then I said, ‘I am cast out of your sight; yet, I will look again toward your holy temple.’
5. The waters encompassed me, even to my soul. The deep surrounded me; seaweed wrapped my head.
6. To the bottoms of mountains, I descended. The earth’s bars were about me forever, but you brought up my life from the pit, Jehovah my God!
7. When my soul fainted within me, I remembered Jehovah, and my prayer came to you, to your holy temple.
8. Those who give heed to worthless idols forsake their own mercy,
9. but I will sacrifice unto you with the voice of thanksgiving. That which I have vowed, I will pay! Salvation belongs to Jehovah.”
10. Then Jehovah spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

Jonah 3

- ¶1. Then the word of Jehovah came to Jonah a second time, saying,
2. “Arise! Go to Nineveh, the great city, and declare the decree that I tell you.”
3. And Jonah arose and went to Nineveh in obedience to the word of Jehovah. Now, Nineveh was a very great city, three days’ journey.
4. And Jonah began to enter into the city, a day’s journey, and he cried out and said, “Forty more days, and Nineveh will be overthrown!”
5. And the men of Nineveh believed God, and they called for a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.
6. And the message reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and removed his robe from him, and covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.
7. And he caused it to be proclaimed and published in Nineveh: “By the decree of the king and his nobles: Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, eat anything; let them neither feed nor drink water.
8. But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and let them cry out mightily to God. And let them turn, every one, from his evil way and from the violence that is in their hands.
9. Who knows? God may repent, and show mercy, and turn away from His fierce anger so that we do not perish.”
10. And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way, and God repented of the evil that He had said He would do to them, and He did not do it.

Jonah 4

1. But it was evil to Jonah, a great evil, and his anger was kindled.
2. And he prayed to Jehovah and said, “Ah, Jehovah! Isn’t this what I said when I was in my own country? That’s why I fled before to Tarshish, because I know that you are a gracious God, and compassionate, slow to anger, and abundant in mercy, and would repent of the evil.

3. Therefore now, O Jehovah, take my life from me, I pray, for it is better for me to die than to live.”
- ¶4. Then Jehovah said, “Are you doing well to be angry?”
5. Then Jonah went out, away from the city, and he waited, east of the city. And there, he made for himself a shelter and sat under it in the shade until he saw what would become of the city.
6. And Jehovah God ordained a plant to come up over Jonah so that it might provide shade for his head, to relieve him of his misery. And Jonah rejoiced over the plant with great joy.
7. But when the morning dawned the next day, God ordained a worm, and it killed the plant, and it dried up.
8. And it came to pass, when the sun arose, that God ordained a scorching¹ east wind, and the sun beat down on Jonah’s head and caused him to faint. Then he wished within himself to die and said, “My death would be better than my life.”
9. Then God said to Jonah, “Are you doing well to be angry because of the plant?” And he said, “I am doing well to be angry, even to death!”
10. Then Jehovah said, “You had pity on the plant, for which you neither labored nor nurtured, which sprouted in a night and perished in a night.
11. And should I not have pity on Nineveh, the great city, in which are more than a hundred and twenty thousand men who cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand, and many cattle also?”

¹ Meaning uncertain. Possibly, “cutting”.

Micah

Micah 1

- ¶1. The word of Jehovah that came to Micah the Morashtite, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah:
2. Hear, all nations! Give ear, O earth and its fullness! Let my Lord Jehovah be witness against you, my Lord from His holy temple.
3. Behold, Jehovah is coming forth from His place! He will descend and tread upon the high places of the earth.
4. The mountains will melt beneath Him like wax before the fire, and the valleys will erupt like water poured down a steep slope.
5. All this is because of the transgression of Jacob and because of the sins of the house of Israel. What is Jacob's transgression? Is it not Samaria? And what are the high places of Judah? Are they not Jerusalem?
6. Jehovah said, "I will turn Samaria into a heap of ruins in the field, a place for planting vineyards, and I will cast her stones into the valley and lay her foundations bare.
7. All her graven images will be beaten to pieces, and all her earnings from harlotry will be burned with fire, and I will turn all her idols into trash. Inasmuch as she gathered them by the hire of a harlot, they will be turned back into the hire of a harlot."
8. For this, I will beat my breast and weep aloud; I will go barefoot and naked; I will make a wailing like wolves and a mourning like owls.
9. Her wound is incurable, for it has come to Judah; it has reached the gate of my people, even Jerusalem.
10. Do not tell it in Gath; do not weep at all!¹ In Beth-aprahah, roll yourself in dust.
11. Pass on by², O woman of Shaphir, in disgusting nakedness. Do not go forth, O inhabitant of Zaanan for the wailing of Beth-hazel. He shall receive his support from you.³
12. The inhabitant of Maroth longs for good because evil has come down from Jehovah to the gate of Jerusalem.
13. Hitch the chariot to the horses, O inhabitant of Lachish. She was the beginning of sin to the daughters of Zion, for in you were found the transgressions of Israel.
14. Because of this, you shall give parting gifts to Moresheth-Gath. The houses of Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.
15. Yet, I am bringing the Heir to you, O inhabitant of Mareshah; the glory of Israel will come to Adullam.

¹ In verses 11–13, there is a play on words involving the names of cities and the exhortations associated with them. This play on words, however, does not translate well into English.

² Hebrew uncertain.

³ Hebrew uncertain.

16. Make yourself bald, shave the hair for your dainty sons! Enlarge your baldness like the vulture, for they have gone into exile from you.

Micah 2

- ¶1. Woe to those who plot wickedness and devise evil upon their beds! At morning light, they do it because it is in the power of their hand.
2. They covet and seize fields, and take away houses, and they oppress a man and his household, yea, a man and his inheritance.
3. Because of this, thus says Jehovah: "Behold, I am planning evil against this family, from which you shall not remove your necks. Nor shall you walk around haughtily, for it will be an evil time."
4. In that day, one shall take up a parable against you, and let out a terrifying wail. He shall say, 'We are utterly destroyed! He has changed the portion of my people. How He has removed it from me and divided our fields to an apostate!'
5. Therefore, you will have no one to cast a measuring line by lot in the Assembly of Jehovah.
6. 'Do not prophesy!' they prophesy. They are not prophesying about these things. It will not turn away reproaches.
7. Is it being said, O house of Jacob, 'Isn't the Spirit of Jehovah limited if these are His doings?' Do not my words do good to him who walks uprightly?
8. Yet, heretofore, my people have risen up like an enemy. You strip a cloak from off the garment of the unsuspecting passers-by returning from battle.
9. You drive the wives among my people out of their pleasant houses; from their children, you have taken away my glory forever.
10. Rise up and leave, for this is not the rest, for it is unclean; it destroys, and it will suffer a grievous destruction.
11. If a man walking in the spirit of deception lies and says, 'I will prophesy to you for wine and for strong drink,' even he will be a prophet to this people.
12. I will surely gather all of you, O Jacob! I will surely assemble the remnant of Israel! I will bring them together like sheep in a fold, like a flock in the middle of its pasture; they will make noise because of the multitude of men.
13. He who opens the breach has gone up before them. They have breached and passed through the gate, and are gone out by it. And their king shall pass through before them, with Jehovah at their head.

Micah 3

- ¶1. "Moreover, I say, 'Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel! Shouldn't you know justice,
2. you who hate goodness and love evil, who tear away their skin from them and their flesh from their bones;

3. yea, who eat the flesh of my people and rip their skin off them? They break and shatter their bones as something for a pot and as flesh in a caldron.””
 4. In time, they will cry out to Jehovah, but He will not answer them. On the contrary, He will hide His face from them in that time because they have made their deeds evil.
- ¶5. Thus says Jehovah concerning the prophets who cause my people to err, who proclaim peace as long as they are eating, but declare holy war against whoever will not put something into their mouths:
6. “Because of this, it shall be night unto you, without a vision, and darkness unto you without communication from God. The sun shall go down upon the prophets; even the day shall be dark upon them.
 7. The seers will be ashamed, and the diviners will blush; they will all cover the lip, for there is no answer from God.”
 8. But as for me, I am full of strength by the Spirit of Jehovah, and judgment and might, to declare to Jacob his transgression and to Israel his sin.
- ¶9. So, hear this, O heads of the house of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel, who abhor justice and pervert everything that is right,
10. who build Zion with bloodshed, and Jerusalem with iniquity.
 11. Her leaders govern for a bribe, and her priests give counsel for pay, and her prophets divine for money; yet, they lean upon Jehovah, saying, “Is not Jehovah in our midst? No evil shall befall us.”
 12. Because of this—because of you!—Zion will be a plowed field, and Jerusalem will be a heap of ruins, and the mountain of the house, forested high places.

Micah 4

- ¶1. But it shall come to pass in the last days that the mountain of the house of Jehovah will be established as head of the mountains, and it will be exalted above the hills, and nations will stream to it.
2. Yea, many nations will come, and they will say, “Come, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, even to the house of the God of Jacob! And He will teach us His ways, and we will walk in His paths.” For from Zion will the law go forth, and the word of Jehovah from Jerusalem.
3. And He will judge between many nations and reprove mighty nations that are far off, and they will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation; neither will they learn war any more.
4. But they will sit, each one, under his vine and under his fig tree, and none will make afraid, for the mouth of Jehovah of Hosts has spoken.
5. For each one of the nations will walk in the name of its god, but we will walk in the name of Jehovah our God forever and ever.
6. “In that day, says Jehovah, I will gather her who is lame, and gather her who is cast out, even her whom I afflicted,

7. and I will transform the lame into a remnant, and her who was scattered afar into a mighty nation, and Jehovah will reign over them in Mount Zion from that time and forever.
 8. And you, O tower of the flock, O fortress of the daughter of Zion, to you it shall come. Yea, the former dominion shall come, a kingdom for the daughter of Jerusalem."
- ¶9. Why do you now make such a loud cry? Is there no king in you? Has your counsellor perished? Pain has seized you like a woman in labor.
10. Like a woman in labor, writhe and burst forth, O daughter of Zion, for you will go out now from the city and dwell in the field! You will go even to Babylon. There, you will be delivered; there, Jehovah will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.
 11. And at that time, many nations will have assembled against you who were saying, "Let her be defiled, and let our eyes look on Zion!"
 12. But they do not know Jehovah's thoughts, and they do not understand His purpose, that He has gathered them like a sheaf to the threshing floor.
 13. O daughter of Zion, rise and thresh! For I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hooves brass, that you might crush many peoples. And I will devote their unjust gain to Jehovah, and their wealth to the Lord of all the earth.

Micah 5

1. You are now gathering into divisions, O daughter of division. He has laid siege against us. They shall strike the Judge of Israel upon the cheek with a rod.
 2. And you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though small among the families of Judah, out of you shall he come forth to me to be Ruler in Israel. Yet, his goings forth are from ancient times, from the days of eternity.
 3. Because of this will He give them up until the time when she who is in labor gives birth; then a remnant of his brothers will return to the children of Israel.
 4. And he will stand and feed them by the strength of Jehovah, by the majesty of the name of Jehovah his God, and they will dwell securely, for he will then be exalted, even to the ends of the earth.
 5. And this man will be the peace, O Assyrian, when he enters into our land. And when he marches into our fortresses, we will raise up with him seven shepherds, even eight princely men,
 6. and they will devastate the land of Assyria with the sword, even the land of Nimrod, with its gates. And he will deliver us from Assyria when he comes into our land and marches into our borders.
- ¶7. And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples like dew from Jehovah, like showers upon grass, which does not wait for man nor tarry for the children of men.

8. The remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles, in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the forest animals, like a young lion among flocks of sheep, who both tramples and tears when he passes through, and there is no escape.
 9. May your hand be exalted over your adversaries, and may all your enemies be cut off!
- ¶10. “It shall come to pass in that day, says Jehovah, that I will cut off your horses from your midst and destroy your chariots.
11. And I will cut off the cities of your lands, and I will tear down all your fortresses.
 12. I will also cut off sorceries from you, and you shall no longer have soothsayers.
 13. And I will cut off your images and your sacred pillars from your midst, and you will never again bow down to a work of your own hands.
 14. And I will uproot your sacred trees from your midst, and I will destroy your cities.
 15. And then, in anger and in fury, I will execute vengeance upon the heathen nations who have not obeyed.”

Micah 6

- ¶1. Hear, I pray, what Jehovah is saying! “Stand up and plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice!”
2. Hear Jehovah’s case, O mountains and everlasting foundations of earth! For Jehovah has a controversy with His people. Yea, with Israel will He bring argument:
 3. “My people! What have I done to you? And how have I wearied you? Testify against me!
 4. For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and I redeemed you from the house of slaves. And I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam before you.”
 5. Remember, I pray, O my people, what Balak, King of Moab, devised and how Balaam ben-Beor answered him from Shittim to Gilgal, so that the righteousness of Jehovah might be known.
 6. With what shall I come before Jehovah and bow myself to the most high God? Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings, with year-old calves?
 7. Will Jehovah be pleased with thousands of rams, with myriads of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression—the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
 8. He has shown you, O man, what is good. And what does Jehovah require of you but to do justice, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?
- ¶9. Jehovah’s voice calls to the city, and sound wisdom fears your name. Take heed to the rod and to the One who appointed it:
10. “Are there yet guilty treasures in the house of the wicked, and a scant ephah measure, which is abominable?
 11. Shall I count as pure a city with rigged scales and with a bag of deceptive weights,
 12. whose rich men are full of violence and whose inhabitants utter lies, and the tongue in their mouth is deceitful?
 13. Therefore, I will make you sick, striking you with devastation because of your sins.

14. You will eat, but you will not be satisfied, and your emptiness⁴ will be in your midst. You will turn away, but you shall not escape, and whoever does escape, I will put to the sword.
15. You will sow seed, but you will not reap; you will tread olives, but you will not anoint with oil; and you will press must, but you will not drink wine.
16. The statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab. Yea, you walk in their ways. Therefore, I will hand you over to desolation, and her inhabitants to derision. Thus will you bear the reproach of my people."

Micah 7

- ¶1. Woe is me, for I am like the remains of summer fruit, like gleanings of the vintage. There is no cluster to eat. My soul longs for the first-ripe fig!
2. The godly man is perished out of the land, and no one is upright among men. All of them lie in wait for bloodshed. Every man hunts his brother with a net.
3. Both hands are occupied with what is evil, to do it well. The ruler and the judge ask for a bribe; so, the great man communicates his soul's desire and they weave it together.
4. The best one among them is like a briar; the most upright one is worse than a hedge of thorns. The day of your watchmen and of your visitation has come. Their confounding will now come about.
5. Do not trust in a friend, nor trust a leader! Guard the openings of your mouth from the woman lying in your bosom!
6. For the son dishonors the father, the daughter rises up against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. A man's enemies are those of his own household.
7. But I will look for Jehovah; I will wait for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me.
8. Do not rejoice against me, O my enemy. Though I fall, I will arise. When I sit in darkness, Jehovah will be a light for me.
- ¶9. I will bear Jehovah's wrath until He pleads my cause and has carried out my judgment, for I have sinned against Him. He will bring me forth to the light; in His righteousness, I will see.
10. Then she who is my enemy will see, and shame will cover her who says to me, "Where is Jehovah your God?" My eyes will see her at that time; she will be trampled down like mud in the streets.
11. The day that your walls are built will be the day the boundary is extended.
12. That day, he shall come to you from Assyria to the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt to the river, even from sea to sea and mountain to mountain.

⁴ Hebrew uncertain.

13. Nevertheless, the land will be a desolation because of its inhabitants, as the fruit of their deeds.
- ¶14. Shepherd your people with your rod, the flock of your inheritance dwelling in isolation, a thicket in the midst of a fruitful field. Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead as in the days of old.
15. As in the days of your exodus from the land of Egypt, I will show them extraordinary things.
16. The Gentiles will see and be ashamed of all their power. They will lay a hand over their mouth. Their ears shall become deaf.
17. They will lick up dust like the serpent. They will tremble in their holes like creeping things of earth. They will be in dread of Jehovah our God. Yea, they will be afraid because of you.
18. Who is a God like you, taking away iniquity and passing over the transgression of the remnant of His inheritance? He will not retain His anger forever because He delights in mercy.
19. He will repent; He will have compassion on us; He will subdue our iniquities. You will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea!
20. You will show truth to Jacob and kindness to Abraham, as you swore to our fathers in days of old.

Nahum

Nahum 1

- ¶1. The burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.
- 2. God is jealous; yea, Jehovah takes vengeance. Jehovah avenges and is full of fury. Jehovah takes vengeance on his adversaries and reserves it for His enemies.
- 3. Jehovah is slow to anger, but great in power, and Jehovah will never acquit the wicked. His way is in the whirlwind and the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.
- 4. Rebuking the sea, He made it dry, and He dried up all the rivers. Bashan and Carmel withered, and the blossom of Lebanon languished.
- 5. Because of Him, mountains quake and the hills melt away. The earth heaves at His presence, yea, the world and all its inhabitants.
- 6. Who can stand before His indignation? Who can withstand the fury of His anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by Him.
- 7. Jehovah is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble, and He knows those who take refuge in Him,
- 8. but with an overwhelming flood will He utterly destroy her place, and His enemies will He chase into darkness.
- 9. What will you devise against Jehovah? He will make an utter end. Trouble will not rise up a second time.
- 10. For entwined like briars and drunk like drunkards, they will be completely consumed like dry stubble.
- 11. From you will come one who plots evil against Jehovah, a wicked counsellor.
- 12. "Thus says Jehovah: Though powerful and very many, they will still be cut off and pass away. Though I have afflicted you,¹ I will humble you no more.
- 13. And I will then break off his yoke from you; yea, I will break off your bonds."
- 14. But Jehovah has commanded concerning you, "Your name will no longer be sown. I will cut off the graven and molten image from the house of your gods. I will make your grave, for you are despised."²
- 15. Behold! Upon the mountains the feet of the one bringing good news, proclaiming peace. Keep your feast, Judah! Fulfill your vows! For never again will the destroyer pass through you. He has been utterly cut off.

Nahum 2

- 1. The scatterer has come up against you. Guard the fortress! Watch the road closely! Strengthen your loins! Fortify your strength mightily!

¹ The "you" here and in verse 13 is feminine and appears to refer to Judah.

² In this verse, "you" is masculine and appears to refer to the wicked counselor of verse 11.

2. For Jehovah is restoring majesty to Jacob like the majesty of Israel, though the plunderers plundered them and spoiled their branches.
3. The shield of His mighty ones are dyed red. The valiant men, clad in scarlet, will come with flashing iron chariots in the day He has prepared. Yea, the cypress shafts are brandished.
4. The chariots rage in the streets; they rush back and forth in the broad places. Their appearance is like torches. They dart about like lightning.
5. He will remember its nobles. They will stumble in their going. They will hurry her wall, and a defense will be prepared.
6. The gates of the rivers were opened, and the palace was melted away.
7. It is determined! She is stripped; she is carried away, and her maidservants lament like the sound of doves, beating on their breasts.
8. Though Nineveh was like a pool of water throughout her days, now they are fleeing. “Stop! Stop!” But no one turns back.
9. Plunder the silver! Plunder the gold! There is no end to the stores; there is an abundance of every precious thing.
10. Desolation, emptiness, and devastation! The heart melts, knees buckle, searing pain is in all loins, and their faces have all turned ashen.
11. Where is the lions’ den and the pasture for the young lions, where the lion and lioness and the young lion walked? Nothing made them afraid.
12. The lion tears enough for his cubs and strangles for his lionesses, and he fills his caves with prey and his dens with torn flesh.
13. “Behold, I am against you, says Jehovah of Hosts, and I will burn her chariots in smoke, and a sword shall devour your young lions. I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your angels will no longer be heard.”

Nahum 3

- ¶1. Woe to the bloody city! She is filled with lying and robbery—endless prey!
2. The sound of a whip, the noise of rumbling wheels, the galloping of horse and the bounding of chariot,
3. mounted horseman, flashing sword, glittering spear, and a multitude of slain, a mass of corpses. There is no end of dead bodies; they will stumble over their corpses,
4. all because of the multitude of whoredoms of the harlot, the beautiful, well-favored mistress of sorceries, who sells nations with her whoredoms and families with her sorceries.
5. “Behold, I am against you, says Jehovah of Hosts, and I will remove your skirts from your body and expose your nakedness to the nations and your shame to the kingdoms.
6. I will cast abominations upon you! I will disgrace you and make you a spectacle!
7. It shall come to pass that everyone who sees you will flee from you, saying, ‘Nineveh is devastated!’ Who will weep for her? Where will I find comforters for you?

8. Are you better than No-Amon, which was situated with waters of the Nile surrounding her, whose rampart was the sea, her protective wall, water?
9. Ethiopia and Egypt were her might, and it was limitless; Put and Libya were your helpers;
10. yet, she became an exile; she went into captivity. Her children were dashed to pieces at the head of all the streets, they cast lots for her nobles, and all her mighty men were bound in fetters.
11. You will also be drunk; you will hide yourself; you will seek protection from the enemy.
12. All your strongholds are fig trees with ripe fruits; when they are shaken, they will fall into the mouth of the eater.
13. Behold, your people in your midst are women. The gates of your land are opened to your enemies. Fire consumes the bars of your city gates.
14. Draw water for yourself for the siege! Strengthen your fortresses! Go to the mire and tread the mortar! Make the brick firm!
15. There will the fire devour you. A sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the devouring locust. Multiply yourself like the devouring locust! Multiply yourself like the young locust!
16. You have made your merchants more numerous than the stars of heaven. The devouring locust raids and flies away.
17. Your princes are like the young locust, and your marshals are like a swarm of locust that settles on stone walls on a cold day; the sun rises, and it flees away, and the place where they are is unknown.
18. Your shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria. Your nobles sleep. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and they do not gather together.
19. There is no help for your affliction; your wound is incurable. All that hear your report clap the hands over you, for over whom has not your wickedness continually passed?"

Habakkuk

Habakkuk 1

- ¶1. The burden that Habakkuk the prophet saw.
2. O Jehovah, how long will I cry and you not hear? I cry out to you about violence, but you do not deliver!
3. Why do you make me to see iniquity? Yea, why do you watch trouble? Destruction and violence are before me; strife and contention arise.
4. The law is slackened, and justice never goes forth because the wicked have the righteous surrounded; therefore, perverted judgment goes forth.
5. "Look among the nations, and consider! And be utterly astounded, for I am doing a work in your days which you will not believe when it is reported."
6. For, behold, I am raising up the Chaldeans, that bitter and impetuous nation, which shall go through the breadth of the land to take possession of dwellings not his.
7. He is terrifying and to be feared; His judgment and dignity come from himself.
8. His horses are swifter than leopards and more alert than wolves in the evening. His horses prance about. His horsemen come from afar; they fly like an eagle swooping to devour.
9. All of them are coming for violence. Their faces are as one, forward, and he shall gather captives like the sand.
10. He taunts kings, and rulers are a joke to him. He laughs at every fortified city; yea, he heaps up earth and captures it.
11. Then a spirit will sweep in, and he will transgress and be guilty, he who attributes his power to his god."
12. Are you not from ancient time, O Jehovah my God, my Holy One? We will not die, Jehovah, for you have set him on the seat of judgment, and you have ordained him, the Rock, to judge.
13. Your eyes are too pure to behold evil, and you cannot look upon wrongdoing. Why do you watch treacherous men, silent, as a wicked man devours a man more righteous than he?
14. You make a man like fish of the sea, like creeping things without a ruler over him.
15. He takes them all up with a hook, or catches them in his net, or gathers them with his dragnet. For that, he rejoices and shouts for joy,
16. and for that, he sacrifices to his net and burns incense to his dragnet because by them his portion grows fat and his food is plentiful.
17. Will he therefore empty his net and continue to slay the nations without pity?

Habakkuk 2

- ¶1. Let me stand on my watch and station myself on the rampart, and I will keep watch to see what He will say against me, and what I will answer to my reproof.
2. Then Jehovah answered me and said, "Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets so that the one who reads it may run with it.
3. For the vision is yet for an appointed time; it speaks of the end and does not lie. If it tarries, wait for it, for it will surely come; it will not delay.

4. Behold, the soul of him who is puffed up is not upright in him, but the righteous will live because of his faithfulness.
5. Yea, moreover, because wine is treacherous, he becomes proud and does not stay at home. Like Sheol, he enlarges his desire, and like death, he is not satisfied, but gathers for himself all the nations; yea, he collects all peoples for himself.
6. Shall not these all take up a parable about him and a taunting riddle for him? And He will say, ‘Woe to him who amasses what is not his (for how long?) and loads himself with goods taken in pledge!’
7. Will not your debtors rise up suddenly, and your oppressors awaken? You will be a spoil for them!
8. You plundered many nations; therefore, all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you because of men’s blood and the violence of the land, the city, and all who dwell in it.”

¶9. Woe to him who violently makes an unjust profit for his house, to set up his nest on high to save himself from the clutches of adversity.

10. You have devised shame for your house by cutting off many peoples, and you have forfeited your soul.
11. A stone in the wall will cry out, and a wooden rafter will answer it:
12. “Woe to him who builds a city by bloodshed and establishes a town by iniquity!”
13. Behold! Is it not from Jehovah of Hosts that the peoples labor for the fire and the nations grow weary for nothing?
14. For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of Jehovah, as the waters cover the sea.

¶15. Woe to him who gives his neighbors a drink, mixing in your wrath,¹ and also making them drunk in order to look on their nakedness.

16. You shall be sated with shame instead of glory. You yourself drink and expose your uncircumcision! The cup in Jehovah’s right hand will come around to you, and disgrace will come upon your glory.
17. For the violence of Lebanon will cover you; yea, destruction will dismay the beasts themselves because of the bloodshed of men and the violence of the land, the city, and all that dwell in it.

¶18. What use is an idol that its maker has formed, a molten image? It teaches deceit, for the maker trusts in what he makes when he produces dumb idols.

19. Woe to him who says to a tree, “Awake!” And to a dumb stone, “Arise! It teaches!” Look at it! Gold and silver, and no spirit in it at all.
20. But Jehovah is in His holy temple. Be silent before Him, all the earth!

Habakkuk 3

- ¶1. The prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, with shiggions:²

¹ Hebrew uncertain.

² Hebrew meaning unknown.

2. "O Jehovah, I have heard your message, and I am in awe. O Jehovah, restore to life in the midst of the years the one you created! In the midst of his years, make him known. In wrath, remember mercy!"
3. God came from Teman; yea, the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah. His majesty covered the heavens, and his praise filled the earth,
4. and his brightness was like the dawn. He will have a pair of horns by his side, and the hiding place of his strength is there.
5. Before him went a plague, and a flame went before his feet.
6. He stood still and shook³ the earth. He looked and dispersed the nations. The perpetual mountains were shattered; the everlasting hills bowed to him. His ways are eternal.
7. I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction, and the curtains of the land of Midian trembled.

¶8. Was Jehovah displeased with the rivers? Was your wrath against the rivers or your fury against the sea, that you rode on your horses, your chariots of salvation?

9. Your Bow was manifestly revealed, according to the oaths of the tribes, the Word. Selah. You cleaved the earth with rivers.
10. The mountains saw you and were in anguish; a flood of water passed over; the deep gave its voice, its hand lifted on high;
11. the sun and moon stood still in their lofty abode for light; your arrows went forth at the flash of your glittering spear.
12. In fury, you marched through the land; in anger, you threshed nations.
13. You went forth to save your people, to save them with your Messiah. You severed the head of the house of the wicked one, laying bare the foundation to the neck. Selah.

¶14. With his own arrows, you pierced the head of his warriors who came like a whirlwind to scatter me. Their exultation was like those who devour the poor man in secret.

15. You trampled the sea with your horses, the mighty waters raging.
16. I heard, and my inward parts trembled; my lips quivered at the sound. Rottenness came into my bones, and I trembled within. I will quietly wait until the day of distress, when he comes up against my people; he will invade us.

¶17. Though the fig tree does not flower and no fruit is on the vines, though the labor of the olive fails and the fields produce no food, though the flock be cut off from the pen and there are no cattle in the stalls,

18. I will still exult in Jehovah! I will rejoice in the God of my salvation!
19. Jehovah is my Lord and my strength! He makes my feet like hinds' feet and makes me to walk upon my high places!

For the chief musician, with my stringed instruments.

³ Hebrew uncertain.

Zephaniah

Zephaniah 1

- ¶1. The word of Jehovah that came to Zephaniah ben-Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah ben-Amon, King of Judah:
2. “I will utterly do away with all things from off the face of the land, says Jehovah.
 3. I will do away with man and beast; I will do away with the birds of heaven, and fish of the sea, and the stumbling blocks with those who are wicked. And I will cut men off from the face of the land, says Jehovah.
 4. I will stretch out my hand against Judah and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, the name of the idols¹ with the priests,
 5. and those who prostrate themselves on housetops before the host of heaven, and those who prostrate themselves, who swear by Jehovah and swear by Milcom,
 6. and those who have turned back from Jehovah and who do not seek Jehovah nor inquire of Him.
- ¶7. “Be silent before my Lord, Jehovah! For the day of Jehovah is near. Jehovah has prepared a sacrifice; He has consecrated His guests.
8. And it shall come to pass on the day of Jehovah’s sacrifice that I will punish the rulers, and the sons of the king, and all those arrayed in foreign clothing.
 9. And I will punish on that day all who leap upon the threshold, those who fill the house of their masters by violence and deceit.
 10. And on that day, says Jehovah, there will be a sound of a bitter cry from the Fish Gate, and wailing from the Second Quarter, and a great crashing from the hills.
 11. Howl, O inhabitants of Maktesh! For all the people of Canaan are cut down; all those laden with silver are cut off.
 12. And it shall come to pass at that time that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the men who are settled on their lees, who say in their heart, ‘Jehovah does neither good nor evil.’
 13. And their goods shall become spoil, and their houses a desolation. And they will build houses, but they will not dwell in them, and they will plant vineyards, but they will not drink their wine.
- ¶14. “The great day of Jehovah is near. It is near! And the sound of the day of Jehovah is hastening fast. The mighty man will cry aloud there bitterly.
15. That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and affliction, a day of devastation and desolation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

¹ Usually translated “idolatrous priests”, but that is redundant here. So, it seems here to refer to the idols themselves.

16. a day of the shofar and an alarm against the fortified cities and against the high towers.
17. I will bring distress to mankind, and they will go about like blind men because they have sinned against Jehovah. Their blood will be poured out like dirt, and their bowels, like dung.
18. Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of Jehovah's wrath. By the fire of His jealousy, the whole land shall be consumed. He will surely make a full and speedy end of all the inhabitants of the land."

Zephaniah 2

- ¶1. Gather yourselves together! Yea, gather yourselves, O unwanted nation,
2. before the decree comes forth (the day will pass like the chaff), before the heat of Jehovah's anger comes upon you, before the day of Jehovah's anger comes upon you.
3. Seek Jehovah, all you meek of the earth who have done His judgments. Seek righteousness! Seek meekness! It may be that you will be hidden in the day of Jehovah's anger.
4. For Gaza will be abandoned, and Ashkelon will become a desolation. They will drive Ashdod away at midday, and Ekron will be plucked up by the roots.
5. Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! The word of Jehovah is against you, O Canaan, O land of the Philistines. Yea, I will slay you until there is no inhabitant.
6. And the sea coast will be pastures, places for shepherds and for folds of the flock.
7. And the coast will be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they will graze there. In the houses of Ashkelon will they recline in the evening because Jehovah their God will visit them and return their captives.
- ¶8. "I have heard the scorn of Moab and the taunts of the children of Ammon, wherewith they have reproached my people and magnified themselves against their border.
9. Therefore, as I live, says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel, Moab will surely be like Sodom, and the children of Ammon like Gomorrah, the possession of thorny weeds and salt-pits, even a perpetual desolation. The residue of my people will plunder them; the remnant of my nation will possess them.
10. This they will have in return for their pride because they reproached and magnified themselves against the people of Jehovah of Hosts."
11. Jehovah will be dreadful to them, for He will starve all the gods of the earth, and all the coasts of the nations shall bow down to Him, each from his place.
- ¶12. And you, O Ethiopians, will be slain by my sword.
- ¶13. And He will stretch out His hand against the north and destroy Assyria, and He will make Nineveh a desolation, parched like a desert.

14. Flocks shall lie down in her midst, all the herds of the nation; both the pelican and the porcupine shall lodge in her lintels.² A voice will sing in the window. Desolation is at the threshold, for He will lay bare the cedar-work.
15. This is the joyful city that sits confidently, that says in her heart, "I am, and there is none besides me." How she has become a desolation, a resting place for beasts! Everyone passing by her will hiss and wave his hand.

Zephaniah 3

- ¶1. Woe to her that is rebellious and defiled, the oppressing city!
2. She did not heed the voice; she did not receive correction; she did not trust Jehovah; she did not draw near to her God.
3. Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves. They do not even leave bones for the morning.
4. Her prophets are unscrupulous, treacherous persons; her priests have profaned the sanctuary; they have done violence to the law.
5. Jehovah in her midst is righteous. He will not act perversely. Morning by morning, He brings His judgment to light; He does not fail. But a perverse person knows no shame.
- ¶6. "I have cut off nations; their towers are desolate. I have laid waste their streets, without a passerby. Their cities are laid waste, without a man; there is no inhabitant.
7. I had thought, 'Surely, you will fear me; you will receive correction,' so that her dwelling would not be cut off, howsoever I punished her. However, they arose early to corrupt all their deeds.
8. Therefore, wait for me, says Jehovah, for the day when I arise to the prey. For it is my determination to gather nations, to assemble kingdoms so that I might pour my fury out on them, all my burning anger, when the whole land is consumed by the fire of my jealousy.
9. At that time, I will turn to the nations a pure language so that they may all call on the Name³ of Jehovah, to serve him in one accord.
10. From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia, those who worship me, the daughter of my scattered ones, will bring my offering.
11. On that day, you will not be put to shame for all your deeds in which you have transgressed against me, for at that time I will remove from your midst those who rejoice in your pride, and you will not again be haughty on my holy mountain.
12. I will also leave in your midst an afflicted and lowly people, and they will seek refuge in the Name of Jehovah.

² Hebrew uncertain.

³ That is, the Son of God, when he returns to rule over the earth.

13. The remnant of Israel will not act perversely; yea, they will not tell a lie, nor will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth. But they will graze and lie down, and no one will make them afraid."
14. Cry aloud, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, O daughter of Jerusalem!
15. Jehovah has done away with your judgments; He has turned away your enemy! The King of Israel, Jehovah, is in your midst! You shall not fear evil again!
16. In that day, it shall be said to Jerusalem, 'Do not fear, O Zion! Let not your hands be weak!
17. Jehovah, your God in your midst, is mighty. He will save! He will rejoice over you with gladness! He will make you quiet in His love! He will rejoice over you with a shout!
18. "I will gather those of you who grieve because of the sacred seasons. They were a burden on her, a reproach.
19. Behold! At that time, I will deal with all who afflict you. I will deliver her who is lame and gather her that was banished. I will give them praise and renown in all the earth instead of their shame.
20. At that time, I will bring you in. And when I gather you, I will assuredly give you renown and praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I return your captivity before your eyes, says Jehovah."

Haggai

Haggai 1

- ¶1. In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of Jehovah came by the hand of Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel ben-Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua ben-Jehozadak, the high priest, saying,
2. "Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: These people are saying, 'The time has not come, the time for Jehovah's house to be rebuilt.'"
- ¶3. Then the word of Jehovah came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying,
4. "Is it time for you to live in your paneled houses, and this house lie waste?"
5. Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Consider how things are with you now!
6. You sow much, but bring in little; you eat, but are not satisfied; you drink, but are not filled; you put on clothes, but no one is warm; and he who earns wages, earns wages to put into a bag with holes.
7. Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Consider how things are with you!
8. Go up on the mountain and bring wood, and build the house, and I will be pleased with it, and I will be glorified, says Jehovah.
9. You looked for much, and behold, a little! And when you brought it home, I blew on it. And why? says Jehovah of Hosts. Because of my house that is in ruins while each of you runs to his own house.
10. That is why the skies over you have withheld the dew and the land withheld its yield.
11. And I have called for a drought over the land, on the mountains, and on the grain, and on the wine, on the oil, and on whatever the ground produces, and on man, and on beast, and on all the labor of your hands."
- ¶12. Then Zerubbabel ben-Shealtiel, and Joshua ben-Jehozadak the high priest, and all the rest of the people obeyed the voice of Jehovah their God and the words of Haggai the prophet when Jehovah their God sent him, and the people feared before Jehovah.
13. And Haggai, the messenger of Jehovah, delivered Jehovah's message to the people, saying, "I am with you! says Jehovah."
14. Then Jehovah stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel ben-Shealtiel, the governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua ben-Jehozadak the high priest, and the spirit of all the rest of the people, and they came and did work on the house of Jehovah of Hosts, their God,
15. on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

Haggai 2

- ¶1. In the seventh month, on the twenty-first of the month, the word of Jehovah came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying,
2. "Speak now to Zerubbabel ben-Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua ben-Jehozadak the high priest, and to the rest of the people, saying,

3. Who among you is left who saw this house in its former glory? And how do you see it now? In comparison to the first house, is it not as nothing in your eyes?
 4. Yet now, be strong, Zerubbabel! says Jehovah, and be strong, Joshua ben-Jehozadak, high priest, and let all the people of the land be strong, says Jehovah, and work! For I am with you, says Jehovah of Hosts,
 5. according to the covenant that I made with you when you came out of Egypt. My spirit remains among you. Do not be afraid!
 6. For thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Once more, in a little while, and I will shake the heavens and the earth, as well as the sea and the dry land.
 7. And I will shake all the nations, and they will come with the treasure of all the nations, and I will fill this house with glory, says Jehovah of Hosts.
 8. The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, says Jehovah of Hosts.
 9. The glory of this latter house will be greater than the glory of the former, says Jehovah of Hosts. And I will give peace in this place, says Jehovah of Hosts.”
- ¶10. On the twenty-fourth of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of Jehovah came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying,
11. “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Ask the priests about the law, and say,
 12. ‘If a man is carrying sanctified flesh in the fold of his garment, and his fold touches the bread, or boiled food, or wine, or oil, or any kind of food, is it made holy?’” And the priests answered and said, “No.”
 13. Then Haggai said, “If one who is unclean by a dead body touches any of these, does it become unclean?” And the priests answered and said, “It will be unclean.”
 14. And then Haggai answered and said, “So is this people and so is this nation before me, says Jehovah, and so is every work of their hands, and that which they offer there is unclean.
 15. So, consider now in your heart, if you will, from this day forward, before one stone is placed upon another in the temple of Jehovah:
 16. Heretofore, when one came for a heap of twenty, there were ten; and when one came to the wine vat to draw fifty from the press, there were twenty.
 17. I struck you with blight, and mildew, and hail—yea, all the work of your hands—and yet, you did not turn to me, says Jehovah.
 18. Take it, I pray you, to heart! From this day forward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day the foundation of Jehovah’s temple was laid, consider this in your heart!
 19. Is the seed still in the store-house? Though up to now, the vine has produced no fruit, nor the fig tree, nor the pomegranate, nor the olive tree, from this day forward, I will bless!”
- ¶20. Then the word of Jehovah came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth of the month, saying,
21. “Speak to Zerubbabel the governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth,
 22. and I will change the sovereignty of the kingdoms, and will bring to an end the power of Gentile kingdoms. I will overthrow the chariot and its riders, and the horses and their riders will fall, each man by the sword of his brother.

23. In that day, says Jehovah of Hosts, I will take you, Zerubbabel ben-Shealtiel, my servant, says Jehovah, and I will make you like a signet-ring, for I have chosen you, says Jehovah of Hosts."

Zechariah

Zechariah 1

- ¶1. In the eighth month of the second year of Darius, the word of Jehovah came to Zechariah ben-Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,
- 2. “Jehovah was very angry with your fathers.
- 3. So, you tell them, Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Return to me, says Jehovah of Hosts, and I will return to you, says Jehovah of Hosts.
- 4. Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets cried, saying, ‘Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Turn, I pray, from your evil ways and your evil deeds!’ But they did not listen and did not heed me, says Jehovah.
- 5. Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever?
- 6. Ah, but my words and my statutes which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? And they repented and said, ‘As Jehovah of Hosts determined to do to us, according to our ways and our works, so has He done to us.’”
- ¶7. On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month (that is, the month Shebat), in the second year of Darius, the word of Jehovah came to Zechariah ben-Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,
- 8. “During the night, I saw a man riding on a red horse, and it was standing among the myrtle trees that are in the hollow, and behind him were horses of red, chestnut, and white.
- 9. And I said, ‘Sir, what are these?’ And the angel who was talking with me said to me, ‘I will show you what these are.’
- 10. Then the man who was standing among the myrtle trees answered and said, ‘These are those whom Jehovah has sent to travel about on the earth.’
- 11. And they answered the angel of Jehovah who stood among the myrtles, and they said, ‘We have gone about on the earth, and, behold, all the earth is at rest and is quiet.’
- 12. Then the angel of Jehovah answered and said, ‘O LORD of Hosts, how long will you show no mercy to Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, against whom you were indignant that seventy years?’
- 13. And Jehovah answered the angel who spoke with me with good words and comforting words.
- 14. And the angel who spoke with me said to me, ‘Cry out and say, Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: I am jealous over Jerusalem and over Zion with great jealousy.
- 15. And I have great anger toward the nations who are at ease, for I was a little angry, and they made the damage worse.

16. Therefore, thus says Jehovah: I have come back to Jerusalem with compassion. My house shall be built within her, says Jehovah of Hosts, and a line shall be stretched over Jerusalem.”
17. Again He said, “Cry out and say, Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: My cities will again overflow with goods, and Jehovah will again comfort Zion, and He will again choose Jerusalem.”
- ¶18. Then I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, four horns!
19. And I said to the angel who spoke with me, “What are these?” And he said to me, “These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”
20. Then Jehovah showed me four craftsmen.
21. And I said, “What are these coming to do?” And he spoke, saying, “The horns are they that have scattered Judah so that no man lifts up his head, but these have come to drive them away and to cast down the Gentile horns that have lifted up the horn against the land of Judah, to scatter it.”

Zechariah 2

- ¶1. Then I lifted up my eyes and looked, and, behold, a man! And in his hand was a measuring-line.
2. And I said, “Where are you going?” And he said to me, “To measure Jerusalem, to determine its width and its length.”
3. Then the angel who was talking with me went out, and another angel went out to meet him.
4. And he said to him, “Go quickly! Speak to this young man and say, ‘Jerusalem will be inhabited like unwalled villages because of the abundance of men and animals within her.’
5. I, myself, says Jehovah, will be a wall of fire all about her, and I will be the glory in her midst.”
- ¶6. “Ho! Ho! Flee from the land of the north! says Jehovah. For I have scattered you like the four winds of heaven, says Jehovah.
7. O Zion! You who are living with the daughter of Babylon! Escape!
8. For thus says Jehovah of Hosts: After the glory, He sent me against the nations who plundered you, for he who touches you touches the apple of His eye.
9. Behold, I will wave my hand over them, and they will become plunder for their own slaves, and you shall know that Jehovah of Hosts has sent me.
10. Shout and rejoice, O daughter of Zion, because I will surely come, and I will dwell in your midst, says Jehovah.
11. And many nations will be joined to Jehovah in that day, and they will become my people, and I will dwell among you. And you shall know that Jehovah of Hosts has sent me to you.”

12. And Jehovah will take Judah as His portion in the holy land, and He will again choose Jerusalem.
13. Be silent, all flesh, before Jehovah! For He has raised Himself up from His holy dwelling place!

Zechariah 3

- ¶1. Then he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of Jehovah, and Satan standing at his right hand to accuse him.
2. And Jehovah said to Satan, “Jehovah rebuke you, O Satan, even Jehovah who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is not this man a brand plucked out of the fire?”
3. Now, Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and he stood before the angel.
4. And the angel answered and spoke to those standing before him, “Take the filthy garments away from him!” And to Joshua he said, “Behold, I have made your iniquity to pass from you, and I am clothing you with stately robes.”
5. And I said, “Let them put a clean turban on his head!” So they placed a clean turban on his head, and they clothed him with garments while the angel of Jehovah stood by.
6. Then the angel of Jehovah admonished Joshua, saying,
7. “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: If you walk in my ways and if you perform my service, then you shall also judge my house and keep my courts, and I will give you places to walk among these who are standing here.
8. Hear now, Joshua the high priest, you and your fellows who sit before you! For they are human signs that, behold, I am bringing forth my servant, the Branch!
9. For, behold, the stone which I have set before Joshua! On a single stone are seven eyes! Behold, I will engrave its engraving, says Jehovah of Hosts, and I will take away the iniquity of that land in one day.
10. In that day, says Jehovah of Hosts, each of you will invite his neighbor under a vine or under a fig tree.”

Zechariah 4

- ¶1. The angel who spoke to me came again and woke me up, the way a man is roused out of his sleep,
2. and he said to me, “What do you see?” And I said, “I see a lampstand entirely of gold, and a bowl on top of it. And its seven lamps are on it, and there are seven pipes for the lamps that are on top.
3. And two olive trees are beside it, one on the right of the bowl and one on its left.”
4. Then I answered and said to the angel who spoke with me, “Sir, what are these?”
5. And the angel who was speaking with me answered and said to me, “Do you not know what these are?” And I said, “No, sir.”
6. Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, “This is the word of Jehovah to Zerubbabel: Not by strength, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says Jehovah of Hosts.

7. Who are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel, you shall be a plain! And he will bring forth the highest stone, shouting, ‘Grace! Grace upon it!’”
- ¶8. Then the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
9. “The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands shall finish it. Then you shall know that Jehovah of Hosts sent me to you.
10. Who has despised the day of small things? They will rejoice and see the stone, the plumb-line, in Zerubbabel’s hands. These are the seven eyes of Jehovah that roam over all the earth.”
11. Then I answered and said to him, “What are these two olive trees on the right of the lampstand and on its left?”
12. And I answered a second time and said to him, “What are the two spreading olive trees which are beside the two pipes of gold that are emptying the golden oil from above them?”
13. And he said to me, “You do not know what these are?” And I said, “No, sir.”
14. Then he said, “These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth.”

Zechariah 5

- ¶1. Then I turned and lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, a flying scroll!
2. And he said to me, “What do you see?” And I said, “I see a flying scroll. Its length is twenty cubits, and its breath, ten cubits.”
3. And he said to me, “This is the curse that is going out over the face of the whole land. All who steal will surely be made desolate, as is on this side of it, and all who swear falsely will surely be made desolate, as is on its other side.
4. I will send it out, says Jehovah of Hosts, and it will enter into the house of the thief and into the house of the one who swears falsely in my name. And it will lodge within his house and destroy it, both its timbers and its stones.”
5. Then the angel who spoke with me came forth and said to me, “Now, lift up your eyes and see what this is that is coming out.”
6. And I said, “What is it?” And he said, “This is the ephah-basket¹ that is going forth.” Then he said, “This is their way in all the earth.”
7. And, behold, the lead cover was lifted up, and there was this woman sitting in the middle of the ephah.
8. Then he said, “This is the wicked woman.” And he threw her down in the midst of the ephah and then threw the lead stone over its mouth.

¹ An ephah was a unit of dry measure equal to about one bushel, or thirty five liters.

9. And I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, two women came forth, and the wind was in their wings, and they had wings like the wings of a stork. And they lifted up the ephah between the earth and heaven.
10. And I said to the angel who was talking with me, “Where are they going with the ephah?”
11. And he said to me, “To build a house for it in the land of Shinar, and it will be set up on its base and left there.”

Zechariah 6

- ¶1. Then again, I lifted up my eyes and looked, and, behold, four chariots were coming out from between two mountains. And the mountains were mountains of bronze.
2. In the first chariot were red horses; in the second chariot, black horses;
3. in the third chariot, white horses; and in the fourth chariot were powerful dappled horses.
4. Then I answered and said to the angel who spoke with me, “Sir, what are these?”
5. And the angel answered and said to me, “These are four spirits from heaven who go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth.
6. The black horses that are in it are going forth to a north country, and the white ones are going forth after them, and the dappled ones are going forth to the south country.”
7. Then, the powerful ones came forth and wanted to go, to walk to and fro in the earth. And he said, “Go! Walk to and fro in the earth!” So, they went to and fro in the earth.
8. And he cried out to me and spoke to me, saying, “Behold! The ones who go forth to the north country have quieted my Spirit² in the north country.”
9. Then the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,
10. “Take Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah from among the exiles who have come from Babylon and go the same day and enter the house of Josiah ben-Zephaniah.
11. Then take silver and gold, and make crowns, and put them on the head of Joshua ben-Jehozadak, the high priest,
12. and speak to him saying, ‘Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Behold the man whose name is the Branch! He shall branch out from his place and build the temple of Jehovah.
13. He will build the temple of Jehovah, and he will bear the majesty, and he will sit and rule on his throne. And on his throne, he will be a priest. And the counsel of peace will be between the two of them.’
14. And the crowns will be for Helem, and for Tobijah, and for Jedaiah, and for Han ben-Zephaniah as a memorial in the temple of Jehovah.

² Or, “have appeased my wrath”.

15. And those from afar will come, and they will rebuild the temple of Jehovah, and you shall know that Jehovah of Hosts sent me to you. It shall come to pass if you listen carefully to the voice of Jehovah your God."

Zechariah 7

- ¶1. And it came to pass in the fourth year of Darius the king that the word of Jehovah came to Zechariah on the fourth day of Chislev, the ninth month.
2. And Bethel sent Sarezer³ and Regem-mellick⁴, and his men, to seek Jehovah's face,
3. saying to the priests who were at the house of Jehovah of Hosts and to the prophets, "Am I to weep in the fifth month to consecrate myself as I have done these many years?"
4. Then the word of Jehovah of Hosts came to me, saying,
5. "Speak to all the people of the land and to the priests, saying, "When you fasted and lamented in the fifth and seventh months for these seventy years, were you really fasting to me? To me?
6. And when you ate and when you drank, was it not for yourselves and those eating with you, and for yourselves and those drinking with you?
7. Are not these the things that Jehovah proclaimed by the former prophets when Jerusalem was inhabited and prosperous, with her cities around her, and with the Negev and the Shephelah inhabited?"

- ¶8. And then the word of Jehovah came to Zechariah, saying,

9. "Thus has Jehovah of Hosts spoken: Render true judgment, and show kindness and compassion, every man to his brother.
10. Do not oppress the widow or the orphan, the foreigner or the destitute. Let no one devise evil in your heart against his brother.'
11. But they⁵ refused to give heed, and they turned a cold shoulder, and they stopped their ears from hearing,
12. and they hardened their heart against hearing the law and the words that Jehovah of Hosts sent by His Spirit through the former prophets. Then came great wrath from Jehovah of Hosts.
13. And so it was, that just as He called and they did not hear, so they called and I did not hear, says Jehovah of Hosts.
14. So, I scattered them with a whirlwind into all the nations they had not known. And the land was desolate after them, so that no one passed through or returned, for they had made the desirable land a waste."

Zechariah 8

³ Or, the chief treasurer.

⁴ Or, the king's friend.

⁵ That is, their fathers.

- ¶1. Then the word of Jehovah of Hosts came, saying,
2. "Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: I have been very jealous over Zion. Indeed, with great wrath have I been jealous over her.
 3. Thus says Jehovah: I will return to Zion, and I will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Jerusalem will be called 'The City of Truth', and 'The Mountain, the Holy Mountain, of Jehovah of Hosts.'
 4. Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Old men and old women will again sit in the plazas of Jerusalem, each with his staff in his hand because of old age.
 5. And the plazas of the city will be filled with boys and girls frolicking in her plazas.
 6. Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Though in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days it seems too difficult, is it too difficult in my eyes, too, says Jehovah of Hosts?
 7. Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Behold, I will rescue my people from the land of the rising sun and from the land of the setting sun.
 8. I will cause them to come, and they will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and they will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and righteousness.
 9. Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: Let your hands be strong who hear these words in these days from the mouth of the prophets, the day the foundation of the house of Jehovah of Hosts is laid so that the temple may be rebuilt.
 10. Before these days, there were no wages for men or wages for beasts, nor was there security from the enemy, whether going out or coming in, for I set every man against his neighbor.
 11. But now, unlike former times, I will be for the remnant of this people, says Jehovah of Hosts.
 12. The seed will prosper, the vine shall yield her fruit, the land will bear her produce, the heavens will give their dew, and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things.
 13. And it shall come to pass, O house of Judah and house of Israel, that as much as you were a curse among the nations, so will I deliver you, and you will become a blessing. Do not fear! Let your hands be strong!
 14. For thus says Jehovah of Hosts: As much as I purposed to do you harm when your fathers provoked me to wrath, says Jehovah of Hosts—and I did not relent—
 15. so have I purposed to do good in these days to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not fear!
 16. These are the things that you must do: speak truth, every one, with his neighbor, and with truth and justice and goodwill, judge in your gates.
 17. Let no one devise evil in your heart against his neighbor, and do not love a false oath. For I hate all these things, says Jehovah."
- ¶18. And the word of Jehovah of Hosts came to me, saying,

19. "Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth month, and the fast of the seventh month, and the fast of the tenth month will be joy and gladness, cheerful feasts, to the house of Judah. Therefore, love truth and peace.
20. And thus says Jehovah of Hosts: People and residents of many cities will again come,
21. and the residents of one city will go to another, saying, 'Let us go at once to seek Jehovah's face, even to seek Jehovah of Hosts. I myself am going.'
22. And many people will come, even mighty nations, to seek Jehovah of Hosts in Jerusalem and to seek Jehovah's face.
23. Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: In those days, ten men from every language and nation will seize upon the skirt of a Jew, saying, 'Let us go with you! For we have heard that God is with you.'"

Zechariah 9

- ¶1. The burden of the word of Jehovah against the land of Hadrach, and Damascus its confidence (because the eyes of man shall be on Jehovah, with all the tribes of Israel),
2. and against Hamath, too, on its border, and Tyre and Sidon, though they be very shrewd:
3. "Tyre has built a rampart for herself and hoarded up silver like dirt, and gold like mud in the streets.
4. Behold, my Lord will dispossess her, and He will strike her sea power, and she will be consumed with fire.
5. Ashkelon will see it and fear. Gaza will writhe in anguish, as well as Ekron, for she will be ashamed of her confidence. The king will cease from Gaza, and Ashkelon will be uninhabited.
6. And a mixed people⁶ will dwell in Ashdod (yea, I will cut off the pride of the Philistines),
7. but I will remove their blood from their mouth⁷ and their abominations from between their teeth, and they will also be a remnant for our God, and they will be like a clan in Judah, and Ekron will be like the Jebusite.
8. I will camp about my house as a guard against him who passes through and him who returns, and no oppressor will again pass over them, for I have now seen it with my eyes.
9. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold! Your King will come to you, righteous and victorious! He will be meek, riding on a donkey, even on a colt, the foal of an ass.

⁶ Or, a bastard.

⁷ That is, meat with blood still in it, which was contrary to the dietary commandments of the law.

10. I will cut off chariots from Ephraim and the war horse from Jerusalem, and the bow of war will be cut off. And he will speak peace to the Gentiles, and his dominion will be from sea to sea, and from the river to the ends of the earth.
11. As for you, by the blood of your covenant, I have released your prisoners from a pit in which is no water.
12. Return to the stronghold, O prisoners of hope! This day, I declare, I will restore to you double.
13. I have bent Judah for my bow, and I have strung Ephraim, and I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and I will make you like the sword of a mighty man.”
- ¶14. Then will Jehovah appear over them, and His Arrow will shoot forth like lightning, and my Lord, Jehovah, will sound the shofar, and He will come with storm-winds of the south.
15. Jehovah of Hosts will be a shield over them; they will slay, and they will subdue sling-stones. They will drink and be boisterous as with wine; they will be full, like a bowl, like the corners of the altar.
16. And on that day, Jehovah their God will save them as the flock of His people, as precious crown jewels glittering on His land.
17. Oh, His bounty and His beauty! Grain and wine will make the young men and the virgins fruitful.

Zechariah 10

- ¶1. Ask Jehovah for rain in the time of the latter rain. Jehovah makes lightning bolts, and with them, He will give rain for each man's plants in the field.
2. The teraphim declare iniquity, and the diviners see a lie and tell worthless dreams; they comfort in vain. Therefore, they wander about like a flock; they are dispirited because there is no shepherd.
3. My anger is kindled against the shepherds, and I will visit the leaders. For Jehovah of Hosts has visited His flock, the house of Judah, and He has made them like His majestic war-horse.
4. From Him will come the cornerstone; from Him, the nail; from Him, the bow for battle; from Him, all power altogether.
5. They will be like the mighty in battle, trampling the enemy in the mud of the streets. They will wage war because Jehovah is with them, and they will make the horsemen ashamed.
6. I will strengthen the house of Judah and rescue the house of Joseph. I will bring them back because I pity them. They will be as though I had not rejected them, for I am Jehovah their God, and I will hear them.
7. Ephraim will be like a warrior, and their heart will rejoice as with wine. Their sons will see and rejoice; their heart will exult in Jehovah.

8. "I will whistle⁸ for them and gather them because I ransomed them, and they will be as many as they used to be.
9. Though I sowed them among the nations, yet in those distant places will they remember me, and they will live and return with their children.
10. I will bring them back from the land of Egypt and gather them from Assyria, and I will bring them to the land of Gilead and Lebanon until there be found no room for them.
11. He will cross the troubled sea and strike the sea waves, and all the depths of the Nile will be dried up. The pride of Assyria will be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt will be taken away.
12. I will make them strong in Jehovah, and they will walk in His name, says Jehovah."

Zechariah 11

- ¶1. Open your doors, O Lebanon, so that fire may devour your cedars!
2. Howl, O cypress, for the cedar has fallen; the majestic are destroyed. Howl, O oaks of Bashan, for the impregnable forest is fallen!
3. The sound of shepherds wailing, for their covert is ruined! The sound of young lions roaring, for the covert of the Jordan is destroyed!
4. "Thus says Jehovah, my God: Feed the flock headed for slaughter!
5. Those who buy them slaughter them and are not held guilty, and those who sell them say, 'Blessed be Jehovah, for I am rich!' Their shepherds show them no mercy.
6. I will no longer show mercy to any of the inhabitants of the land, says Jehovah. On the contrary, I will cause every man to fall into the hand of his neighbor and into the hand of his king. And they will crush the land, and I will not deliver it out of their hand.
7. So I fed the flock that was headed for slaughter, the oppressed of the flock. And I took for myself two staffs; one I called 'Pleasantness', and one I called 'Promise'. Then I fed the flock.
8. And I got rid of three of the shepherds in one month. My soul was worn out with them, and their soul abhorred me.
9. Then I said, 'I will not feed you! Whatever is dying, let it die. And whatever is going to ruin, let it go to ruin. And those who remain, let them all eat the flesh of his neighbor!'
10. Then I took my staff named 'Pleasantness', and I cut it in two, to annul my covenant which I had made with all the people,
11. and it was broken that day, and the oppressed of the flock, the ones obeying me, knew it was the word of Jehovah.
12. And I said to them, 'If it seems good in your eyes, give me my price, and if not, don't.' So, as my price, they weighed out thirty pieces of silver.

⁸ Hebrew: "hiss".

13. And then Jehovah said to me, ‘Throw it down (the very high price at which I was appraised by them) for the potter.’ So, I took the thirty pieces of silver, and I threw them down for the potter in the house of Jehovah.
14. And I cut in two my second staff, ‘Promises’, to destroy the relationship between Judah and Israel.
15. Again, Jehovah said to me, ‘Take for yourself the instruments of a foolish shepherd,
16. for, behold, I will raise up a shepherd in the land. He will pay no attention to those who are being overcome; nor will he seek out the young; nor will he heal the broken. He will not support the one who makes a stand, but will consume the flesh of the fat and will rip off their hooves.’
17. Woe to my worthless shepherd who abandons the flock! A sword upon his strength and his right eye! His strength will be completely undone, and his right eye, gouged out.”

Zechariah 12

- ¶1. The burden of the word of Jehovah for Israel. Jehovah, who spreads out the heavens and establishes the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him, says,
2. “Behold, I will make Jerusalem an intoxicating cup to all the encircling nations, and the siege against Jerusalem will be against Judah, too.
3. And in that day, it shall come to pass that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone to all the nations. All who lift it will surely suffer harm, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered against her.
4. In that day, says Jehovah, I will strike every horse with panic, and its rider with madness. And I will open my eyes upon the house of Judah, and I will strike every horse of the nations with blindness.
5. Then the leaders of Judah will say in their heart, ‘The inhabitants of Jerusalem will be strength for me in Jehovah of Hosts, their God.’
6. On that day will I make the leaders of Judah like a furnace among trees, and like a flaming torch among sheaves. To the right and to the left, they will devour all the encircling nations, and Jerusalem will dwell in her own place again—in Jerusalem!
7. And Jehovah will rescue the tents of Judah first, so that the glorying of the house of David and the glorying of the inhabitants of Jerusalem will not be greater than that of Judah.
8. In that day, Jehovah will be a shield for the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And it shall come to pass on that day that he who is feeble among them will be like David, and the house of David will be like gods, with the likeness of the angel of Jehovah before them.
9. And it shall come to pass on that day that I will set about to annihilate all the nations that have come against Jerusalem.
10. And I will pour out on the house of David and on the inhabitant of Jerusalem the spirit of grace and of supplication, and they will look upon me whom they pierced. And they will mourn for him as one mourns for an only son, bitterly crying out for him as one would bitterly cry out for a firstborn.

11. The wailing in Jerusalem that day will be great, like the wailing of Hadad-rimmon in the valley of Megiddo.
12. And the land shall cry aloud in sorrow, each family by itself: the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves;
13. the family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of Shimei by itself, and their wives by themselves;
14. all the remaining families, family by family, by themselves, and their wives by themselves.”

Zechariah 13

- ¶1. “In that day, there will be a fountain opened for the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and uncleanness.
2. And it shall come to pass in that day, says Jehovah of Hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, and they will no longer be remembered. I will also drive the prophets and the spirit of uncleanness out of the land.
3. And it shall come to pass that if a man prophesies again, then his father, and his mother who bore him, will say to him, ‘You shall not live, for you have spoken lies in the name of Jehovah!’ And his father, and his mother who bore him, will pierce him through while he is prophesying.
4. And it shall come to pass in that day that every one of the prophets will be ashamed of his vision when he tells it. And they will not put on a shaggy cloak to deceive.
5. But he will declare, ‘I am no prophet. I am one who works the ground, for a man sold me when I was young.’
6. And one will say to him, ‘What are these wounds in your hands?’ And he will answer, ‘Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.’
- ¶7. “Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, even against the mighty one who is my fellow, says Jehovah of Hosts. Strike the shepherd, and the flock will be scattered. Then I will turn my attention toward the little ones.
8. And it shall come to pass that throughout the land, says Jehovah, two parts in it will be cut off and die, and a third in it will remain.
9. And I will put the third part through fire, and I will refine them as silver is refined, and I will try them as one tries gold. They will call on my name, and I will answer them. I will say, ‘This is my people! ’ And they will say, ‘Jehovah is my God!’

Zechariah 14

- ¶1. “Behold! The day of Jehovah is coming! Your spoil shall be divided in your midst.

2. I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem for battle, and the city will be taken, and the houses plundered, and the women ravished. Half the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city."
3. Then will Jehovah go out and do battle with those nations as when He fights on a day of battle.
4. And His feet will stand on that day on the Mount of Olives, which is on the east side of Jerusalem. And the Mount of Olives will be split in two, making a very large valley from east to west. Half the mountain will move to the north, and half to the south.
5. And you shall flee the valley of my mountains, as when you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah, King of Judah, for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azal.
Yea, Jehovah my God will come, and all the saints with you!
6. And it shall come to pass on that day that there will be no light (the precious ones will come together⁹);
7. there will be a single day that is known to Jehovah, not day and night; and it shall come to pass that when it is evening, there will be light.
8. And it shall come to pass in that day that living waters will go out from Jerusalem, half of them to the eastern sea and half of them to the western sea. Thus it shall be, in summer and in the time of harvest.
9. And Jehovah will be King over all the earth. In that day, there will be one Jehovah, and His name one.
10. All the land will be made like a plain, from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem, and it will be exalted and inhabited in her own place, from the gate of Benjamin to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel to the king's wine-presses.
11. And men will dwell in her, and there will be no more utter destruction, but Jerusalem will dwell securely.
12. And this is the plague with which Jehovah will strike all the nations who make war against Jerusalem: He will make their flesh rot away while they are standing on their feet, and their eyes to rot away in their sockets, and their tongue to rot away in their mouth.
13. And it shall come to pass in that day that there shall be a great turmoil among them from Jehovah; each man will seize his neighbor's portion, and his hand will rise up against his neighbor's hand.
14. (Yea, Judah will do battle at Jerusalem, and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered: gold, and silver, and clothing, very much.)
15. And the plague of the horse, the mule, the camel, the ass, and every animal in those camps will be like this plague.

⁹ Hebrew uncertain.

16. And it shall come to pass that everyone who is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem will come up from year to year to worship the King, Jehovah of Hosts, to make pilgrimage for the Feast of Tabernacles.
17. And it shall come to pass that there will be no rain on those from among the families of the earth who do not come up to Jerusalem to worship the King, Jehovah of Hosts.
18. If the family of Egypt does not go up, and does not come, then on them will there be none. This is the plague with which Jehovah will strike the nations who do not come up to observe the Feast of Tabernacles.
19. This will be the punishment for Egypt's sin, and the punishment for all the nations that do not come up to observe the Feast of Tabernacles.
20. In that day, "Holiness belongs to Jehovah" will be on the bells of the horses, and the pots in the house of Jehovah will be like the bowls before the altar.
21. Indeed, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to Jehovah of Hosts, and all those who offer sacrifice will come, and they will take some of them and boil flesh in them. And in that day, there will no longer be a merchant in the house of Jehovah of Hosts.

Malachi

Malachi 1

- ¶1. The burden of the word of Jehovah to Israel by the hand of Malachi:
2. “I have loved you, says Jehovah. But you say, ‘How have you loved us?’ Was not Esau Jacob’s brother? says Jehovah. Yet, I loved Jacob.
 3. And I hated Esau, and I have made his mountains a wasteland, and his inheritance, a wilderness for wolves.
 4. Because Edom says, ‘We are beaten down, but we will rebuild the ruins,’ thus says Jehovah of Hosts: They may build, but I will tear down, and people will call them, ‘The wicked land’ and ‘The people against whom Jehovah has everlasting indignation’.
 5. Your eyes will see, and you will say, ‘Let Jehovah be magnified beyond the border of Israel!’
 6. A son honors his father, and a slave, his master. If I am a Father, where is my honor? And if I am a Master, where is my respect? says Jehovah of Hosts to you, O priests who despise my name! But you say, ‘How have we despised your name?’
 7. By offering desecrated bread upon my altar! But you say, ‘How have we desecrated you?’ When you think of the table of Jehovah as contemptible.
 8. For when you offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? And when you offer the lame and the sick, is it not evil? Offer it to your governor! Will he accept you or show you any favor? says Jehovah of Hosts.
 9. (Entreat now, I beg you, the favor of God, that He will be gracious to us!) With such from your hand, will you find favor with him? says Jehovah of Hosts.
 10. Who among you would even shut the two doors or kindle the fire of my altar without pay? I have no pleasure in you, says Jehovah of Hosts, and I will not be pleased with an offering from your hand.

- ¶11. “From the rising of the sun until its going down, my name shall be great among the Gentiles! And in every place, incense and a pure offering will be offered to my name, for my name shall be great among the nations, says Jehovah of Hosts.
12. But you profane it, in that you think, ‘The table of Jehovah is polluted, it and its fruit. Its food is despicable.’
 13. And you think, ‘Behold, what a burden!’ And you sniff at it, says Jehovah of Hosts. You offer that which is torn, the lame, and the sick—that is the kind of offering you bring! Shall I accept that from your hand? says Jehovah.
 14. The guileful man is cursed, who has in his flock a male and makes a vow, but then sacrifices a corrupt thing to Jehovah. I am a great King, says Jehovah of Hosts, and my name will be feared among the Gentiles.

Malachi 2

- ¶1. "And now, this commandment is for you, O priests!
2. If you will not listen, and if you will not take it to heart to give glory to my name, says Jehovah of Hosts, then I will send forth a curse against you. I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them already because you are not taking it to heart.
 3. Behold, I am going to rebuke your offspring, and I will smear dung on your faces, the dung of your festival sacrifices, and one will lift up your faces to it.
 4. You will know then that I did send this commandment to you so that my covenant might continue with Levi, says Jehovah of Hosts.
 5. My covenant with him was one of life and peace, and I gave them because of his fear. Yea, he feared me; he was terrified at my name.
 6. The law of truth was in his mouth, and injustice was not found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many from iniquity.
 7. The lips of a priest should preserve knowledge. Men should seek the law from his mouth, for he is the messenger of Jehovah of Hosts.
 8. But you! You have turned from the way; you have caused many to stumble at the law; you have corrupted the covenant of Levi, says Jehovah of Hosts.
 9. Therefore, I have made you contemptible and abased before all the people, since none of you keep my ways, but you have respect of persons in applying the law."
- ¶10. Have we not all one Father? Has not one God created us? Why, then, do each of us deal treacherously with his brother, to profane the covenant of our fathers?
11. Judah has been unfaithful, and an abomination is done in Israel and in Jerusalem, for Judah has defiled the sanctuary of Jehovah which He loved and has married the daughter of a foreign god.
 12. Jehovah will cut off from the tents of Jacob the man who does this and then gets up and testifies and makes an offering to Jehovah of Hosts.
- ¶13. And this is another thing you do. You cover the altar of Jehovah with tears and weeping and groaning so that He no longer regards or takes pleasure in the offering from your hand.
14. But you say, "Why?" Because Jehovah has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, that you have dealt treacherously with her, yet she is your companion, and the wife of your covenant.
 15. (Has He not created one in whom is the fullness of the Spirit? And why him? Because He wanted a divine child.)¹ Take heed to your spirit, and let no one among you be unfaithful to the wife of your youth!

¹ This part of verse 15 is possibly one of the many prophecies with a dual meaning, one for the prophet's time, and another for the future. It is a very difficult verse to translate, but for Malachi's time, it would be something like this: "But did He not make [of a man and a woman] one? And the rest of the spirit was His. And why one? He was seeking a godly seed."

16. Jehovah, the God of Israel, says that He hates divorce and the man who covers up wrong with his garment, says Jehovah of Hosts. Take heed to your spirit, and do not be unfaithful!
17. You have wearied Jehovah with your words. Yet you say, “How have we wearied Him?” When you say, “Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of Jehovah, and He delights in them!” Or when you say, “Where is the God of judgment?”

Malachi 3

- ¶1. “Behold, I will send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me. The Lord whom you seek shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant whom you desire. Behold, he is coming! says Jehovah of Hosts.
2. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who will stand when he appears? He is like a refiner’s fire and like the fullers’ lye.
3. And he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi and refine them as gold and silver, and in righteousness will they bring an offering to Jehovah.
4. Then will the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be sweet to Jehovah, as in days of old and as in years past.
5. And I will draw near to you for judgment, and I will be a swift witness against sorcerers, and against adulterers, and against false witnesses, and against those who oppress the worker in his wages, the widow, and the orphan, and against those who turn the stranger away and do not fear me, says Jehovah of Hosts.
6. I, Jehovah, do not change; that is why you sons of Jacob are not consumed.
7. For from the days of your fathers, you have turned aside from my statutes and have not observed them. Return to me, and I will return to you, says Jehovah of Hosts. But you say, ‘How shall we return?’
8. Will a man rob God? Yet, you have robbed me. But you say, ‘How have we robbed you?’ In the tithe and the offering.
9. You are cursed with a curse. You—the entire nation—have robbed me!
10. Bring all the tithe into the storehouse so that there will be food in my house! Put me to the test with this, says Jehovah of Hosts! *I will damn myself*² if I do not open the windows of heaven to you and pour out such a blessing on you that there will not be enough room to receive it.
11. And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he will not destroy the fruit of your ground. Neither will your vine in the field lose its fruit, says Jehovah of Hosts.
12. All nations will call you blessed, for you will become a delightful land, says Jehovah of Hosts.

² Literally, “—if I do not open...” The curse intended with this oath is so unthinkable—God’s death and damnation—that it is not even uttered.

- ¶13. “Your words have been stout against me, says Jehovah. Yet you say, ‘What have we said against you?’
14. You have said, ‘It is vain to serve God and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance and that we have walked as mourners before Jehovah of Hosts?’”
- ¶15. And now, we call the proud blessed; evildoers are exalted, and those who tempt God are delivered.
16. Then those who feared Jehovah spoke, each one with his neighbor, and Jehovah gave ear and listened, and a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who feared Jehovah and thought on His name.
17. “And they shall be mine, says Jehovah of Hosts, in the day that I make up my peculiar treasure, and I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him.
18. And you will return, and you will discern the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who does not serve Him.”

Malachi 4

- ¶1. Behold, the day is coming, burning like a furnace, when all the arrogant and every evildoer will be stubble, and He will set them on fire. “The day is coming, says Jehovah of Hosts, which will leave them neither root nor branch.
2. But to you who fear my name will the Sun of righteousness rise with healing in his wings, and you will go out and gambol about like fattened calves.³
3. And you will tread down the wicked; they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I am preparing, says Jehovah of Hosts.
- ¶4. “Remember the law of Moses my servant, the statutes and judgments which I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel.
5. Behold, I will send Elijah the prophet to you before the great and fearful day of Jehovah comes.
6. And he will turn the heart of the fathers to the sons and the heart of the sons to their fathers, lest I come and strike the land with a curse.”

³ Literally, “calves of the stall”.

The Gospel of Matthew

Matthew 1

- ¶1. The record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.
- ¶2. Abraham fathered Isaac; and Isaac fathered Jacob; and Jacob fathered Judas and his brothers;
3. and Judas fathered Pharez and Zarah by Tamar; and Pharez fathered Hesrom; and Hesrom fathered Aram;
4. and Aram fathered Amminadab; and Amminadab fathered Naason; and Naason fathered Salmon;
5. and Salmon fathered Boaz by Rahab; and Boaz fathered Obed by Ruth; and Obed fathered Jesse;
6. and Jesse fathered David the king; and David the king fathered Solomon by the wife of Uriah;
7. and Solomon fathered Rehoboam; and Rehoboam fathered Abijah; and Abijah fathered Asa;
8. and Asa fathered Jehoshaphat; and Jehoshaphat fathered Joram; and Joram fathered Uzziah;¹
9. and Uzziah fathered Jotham; and Jotham fathered Ahaz; and Ahaz fathered Hezekiah;
10. and Hezekiah fathered Manasseh; and Manasseh fathered Amon; and Amon fathered Josiah;
11. and Josiah fathered Jechoniah and his brothers about the time of the deportation to Babylon.
12. After the deportation to Babylon, Jechoniah fathered Salathiel; and Salathiel fathered Zerubbabel;
13. and Zerubbabel fathered Abiud; and Abiud fathered Eliakim; and Eliakim fathered Azor;
14. and Azor fathered Sadok; and Sadok fathered Achim; and Achim fathered Eliud;
15. and Eliud fathered Eleazar; and Eleazar fathered Matthan; and Matthan fathered Jacob;
16. and Jacob fathered Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom² was born Jesus, who is called Christ.
17. So, all the generations from Abraham to David were fourteen generations; and from David to the deportation to Babylon, fourteen generations; and from the Babylonian deportation to the Messiah, fourteen generations.
- ¶18. This is how the birth of Jesus came about. After his mother, Mary, was betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found to be with child by the holy Spirit.

¹ Matthew omits three kings between Joram and Uzziah: Ahaziah, Joash, Amaziah.

² The Greek word translated “of whom” is feminine and, therefore, refers to Mary, not to Joseph.

19. Now, Joseph, her husband, being a righteous man and not wanting to make her a public spectacle, resolved to divorce her in secret.
20. But when he had considered these things, behold, an angel of the LORD appeared to him in a dream, saying, “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the holy Spirit,
21. and she will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus,³ for he will save his people from their sins.”
22. This all happened so that what was spoken by the LORD through the prophet might be fulfilled:
23. “Behold, a virgin will conceive and bear a son, and they will call his name Emmanuel (which is translated, ‘God with us’).”⁴
24. And when Joseph awoke from sleep, he did as the angel of the LORD had commanded him, and took his wife,
25. but he did not know her until she had given birth to her firstborn son, and he called his name Jesus.

Matthew 2

- ¶1. Now, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, Magi from the East came to Jerusalem,
2. saying, “Where is he who has been born King of the Jews? For we saw his star in the east, and we have come to pay him homage.”
3. But having heard of this, King Herod was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him,
4. and when he had gathered together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them as to where the Messiah should be born.
5. And they told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for so it was written by the prophet,
6. ‘And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, you are by no means least among the rulers in Judah, for out of you shall come a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel.’”⁵
7. Then Herod called the Magi privately and ascertained from them the precise time of the star’s appearance.
8. And then he sent them to Bethlehem and said, “Go, and make diligent search for the child, and when you have found him, bring me a report so that I, too, may come and do him homage.”
9. Upon hearing the king, they went, and behold, the star that they had seen in the east went before them until it came and stood over where the child was.
10. And seeing the star, they rejoiced with a very great joy.

³ The name means, “Savior”.

⁴ Isa. 7:14.

⁵ Mic. 5:2.

11. And when they had entered the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother, and falling down, they did him homage. And they opened their treasure chests and presented gifts to him of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.
 12. And being warned by God in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.
- ¶13. And after they departed, behold, an angel of the LORD appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, “Rise up. Take the child and his mother and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, for Herod is going to seek the child, to kill it.”
14. And he arose and took the child and his mother by night and departed for Egypt,
 15. and he was there until the death of Herod, so that what was spoken by the LORD through the prophet might be fulfilled: “Out of Egypt, I called my son.”⁶
- ¶16. When Herod learned he had been fooled by the Magi, he was enraged, and he issued orders to do away with all the male children in Bethlehem and in all the surrounding areas, from two years old and under, according to the time which he ascertained from the Magi.
17. Then that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled:
 18. “A voice was heard in Ramah, great lamentation and weeping and mourning, Rachel crying for her children, and she refused to be comforted, for they are not.”⁷
- ¶19. Now, after Herod died, behold, an angel of the LORD appeared to Joseph in a dream in Egypt,
20. saying, “Rise up. Take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the child’s life are dead.”
 21. And when he arose, he took the child and his mother and went into the land of Israel.
 22. But when he heard that Archelaus reigned over Judea in the place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And being warned in a dream, he returned to the region of Galilee.
 23. And he came and settled in a city called Nazareth. Thus was fulfilled what was said by the prophets: “He will be called a Nazarene.”⁸

Matthew 3

- ¶1. In those days, John the Baptizer appeared, preaching in the wilderness of Judea
2. and saying, “Repent! The kingdom of heaven is at hand!”
 3. This is what was spoken by Isaiah the prophet: “A voice crying in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way of the LORD! Make His paths straight!’”⁹

⁶ Hos. 11:1.

⁷ Jer. 31:15.

⁸ Source unknown. No extant prophecy of Christ makes that statement.

4. This John had his clothing of camel hair and a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey.
 5. Then began Jerusalem and all Judea, as well as the whole region around Jordan, to go out to him,
 6. and they were being baptized in the Jordan by him, confessing their sins.
 7. But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for his baptism, he told them, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?
 8. Bear fruit worthy of repentance!
 9. And don’t think to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones!
 10. Already, the ax is laid at the root of the trees. Every tree, therefore, not bearing good fruit is cut down and cast into the fire!
 11. I baptize you with water upon repentance, but after me is coming one who is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to remove. He will baptize you with holy Spirit!
 12. His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly clean what he has threshed, and gather his wheat into the storehouse, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire!”
- ¶13. Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him.
14. But John tried to stop him, saying, “I need to be baptized by you, and you come to me?”
 15. Jesus answered and said to him, “Let it be for now, for it is right that we fulfill all righteousness this way.” Then he allowed him to be baptized.
 16. And after he was baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God, in the form of a dove, descending and coming upon him.
 17. And behold, a voice came from the heavens, saying, “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”

Matthew 4

- ¶1. Then Jesus was led up into the wilderness by the Spirit to be tempted by the Accuser¹⁰.
2. And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward hungry.
 3. And the Tempter came to him and said, “Since you are the Son of God,¹¹ command these stones to become loaves of bread.”

⁹ Isa. 40:3.

¹⁰ The Greek word is usually translated “Devil”, but that word carries much baggage from Christian mythology and can be misleading. “Accuser” more accurately reflects Satan’s character and heavenly office. For more on the office Satan held in heaven, see my book, God Had a Son before Mary Did.

4. But he answered and said, “It is written, ‘Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes out of the mouth of God.’”¹²
 5. Then the Accuser carried him to the holy city and set him on the pinnacle of the temple,
 6. and he said to him, “Since you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, ‘He will command His angels concerning you, and they will bear you up with their hands, lest you strike your foot against a stone.’”¹³
 7. Jesus told him, “It is also written, ‘You shall not put the LORD your God to the test.’”¹⁴
 8. Again, the Accuser carried him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world, and their glory.
 9. And he said to him, “All these things will I give you if you fall down and worship me.”
 10. Then Jesus told him, “Get behind me, Satan! For it is written, ‘The LORD your God shall you worship, and Him only shall you serve.’”¹⁵
 11. Then the Accuser left him, and behold, angels came and ministered to him.
- ¶12. Now, when Jesus heard that John had been arrested,¹⁶ he departed into Galilee, and leaving Nazareth, he went and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled:
15. “O land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles!
 16. The people who sit in darkness saw a great light, and for those sitting in the region and shadow of death, a light has dawned.”¹⁷
- ¶17. From that time, Jesus began to preach and say, “Repent! The kingdom of heaven is at hand!”
18. And walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen.
 19. And he said to them, “Follow me, and I’ll make you fishers of men.”
 20. And they, immediately leaving the nets, followed him.
 21. And going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James¹⁸ the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them.

¹¹ There is no “the” before the word “son”, though most translations add one. If Satan did actually say “the son of God”, he meant that phrase only as the Jews meant it, that is, as a title for the Messiah. No one, including Satan, yet knew about the pre-existent Son of God, now walking on earth as the man, Jesus.

¹² Dt. 8:3.

¹³ Ps. 91:11–12.

¹⁴ Dt. 6:16.

¹⁵ Dt. 6:13.

¹⁶ Or, “that John had been betrayed”.

¹⁷ Isa. 9:1–2.

22. And they, immediately leaving the boat and their father, followed him.
- ¶23. And Jesus traveled about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people.
24. And news about him spread throughout Syria, and they brought him all who were sick with various diseases or tormented with pains, and the demon-possessed, and lunatics, and paralytics, and he healed them.
25. And large multitudes followed him from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and Jerusalem, and Judea, and from beyond the Jordan.

Matthew 5

- ¶1. And seeing the multitudes, he went up on the mountain, and after he sat down, his disciples came to him.
2. And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying,
- ¶3. “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
4. Blessed are they who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
5. Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.
6. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled.
7. Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.
8. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.
9. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.
10. Blessed are they who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
11. Blessed are you, when people revile and persecute you, and say every evil thing against you falsely, for my sake.
12. Rejoice, and be glad! Your reward is great in heaven, for that is how they persecuted the prophets who were before you.
- ¶13. “You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt loses its flavor, with what will it be salted? It’s good for nothing but to be cast out and trampled on by men.
14. You are the light of the world; a city set on a hill can’t be hidden.
15. Nor do people light a candle and then place it under a bushel, but on a lampstand, and then it gives light to all who are in the house.
16. Let your light shine like that before men so that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

¹⁸ The name is "Jacobus". How "Jacobus" became "James" in English is not known. Even in the earliest English translations, those of Wycliff and Tyndall, it is already done.

- ¶17. “Don’t think that I’ve come to destroy the law or the prophets. I didn’t come to destroy, but to fulfill.
 - 18. Truly, I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one iota or serif of the law will by any means pass away until all things have come to pass.
 - 19. So, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches men to do so shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does and teaches them shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.
 - 20. For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and the Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.
- ¶21. “You’ve heard that it was said to those of ancient time, ‘You shall not murder,¹⁹ and ‘Whoever commits murder will be liable to the judgment.²⁰’
- 22. But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother without cause will be liable to the Judgment, and whoever says to his brother, ‘Raca! accountable be will²¹ to the Council, and whoever says, ‘You fool! ’is in danger of fiery Gehenna.²²
 - 23. So, if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you,
 - 24. leave your gift there before the altar and go your way; be reconciled to your brother first, and then come offer your gift.
 - 25. Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are in the way with him, lest your adversary hand you over to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and you be thrown into prison.
 - 26. Truly, I tell you, you will by no means come out of there until you’ve paid the last penny.
- ¶27. “You’ve heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery.²³’
- 28. But I say to you that every man who looks at a woman with lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.
 - 29. If your right eye offends you, tear it out and cast it away from you! It’s better for you that one of your members perish, and not that your whole body be cast into Gehenna.
 - 30. And if your right hand offends you, cut it off and cast it from you! It’s better for you that one of your members perish, and not that your whole body be cast into Gehenna.
- ¶31. “It’s been said, ‘Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce,²⁴

¹⁹ Ex. 20:13.

²⁰ Ex. 21:12.

²¹ This is a term of abuse.

²² Gehenna does not refer to hell but to the Lake of Fire, the final, eternal destination of the damned described in Revelation 19:20; 20:10, 14-15.

²³ Ex. 20:14.

32. but I say to you that whoever divorces his wife, except in the case of immorality, causes her to commit adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman is committing adultery.
- ¶33. “Again, you’ve heard that it was said to those in the past, ‘You shall not forswear yourself, but you shall pay your vows to the LORD.²⁵’
34. But I say to you, do not swear at all, neither by heaven, for it is God’s throne,
35. nor by the earth, for it is His footstool, nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.
36. Don’t even swear by your own head, for you can’t make one hair white or black.
37. But let what you say be simply ‘Yes’ or ‘No’. Whatever is more than these comes from evil.
- ¶38. “You’ve heard that it was said, ‘An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.²⁶’
39. But I say to you, do not resist the evildoer. On the contrary, whoever strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other one to him as well.
40. And to him who would sue you to take away your tunic, give him your cloak, too.
41. And whoever compels you to go one mile, go on with him two.
42. Give to him who asks you, and don’t turn him away who wants to borrow from you.
- ¶43. “You’ve heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor²⁷ and hate your enemy.²⁸’
44. But I say to you, love your enemies; bless those who curse you; do good to those who hate you; and pray for those who mistreat you and persecute you,
45. so that you may be children of your Father who is in heaven. For He makes His sun to rise upon the evil and the good, and sends rain upon the just and the unjust.
46. Now, if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Don’t even tax collectors do that?
47. And if you greet only your friends, what are you doing more than others? Don’t even tax collectors do like that?
48. So, be perfect, just as your Father who is in heaven is perfect.

Matthew 6

- ¶1. “Beware not to do your alms before men, to be seen by them; otherwise, you have no reward from your Father who is in heaven.

²⁴ Dt. 24:1.

²⁵ Num. 30:2; Ps. 50:14.

²⁶ Ex. 21:24; Lev. 24:20; Dt 19:21.

²⁷ Leviticus 19:18.

²⁸ The source for this command is unknown. While Israel had many enemies and fought many bitter battles against them, God never commanded Israel to hate them. On the contrary, He exhorted them to be good to their enemies.

2. So, whenever you give alms, don't sound a trumpet before you the way the hypocrites do in the synagogues and streets so that they might be honored by men. Truly, I tell you, they have their reward.
 3. But when you are giving alms, don't let your left hand know what your right hand is doing
 4. so that your almsgiving might be in secret. And then your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you in the open.
- ¶5. “And when you pray, don't be like the hypocrites, for they like standing up to pray in the synagogues and on street corners so that they may be seen by men. Truly, I tell you, they have their reward.
6. But when you pray, go into your inner room, and when you have locked your door, pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you in the open.
 7. And when you pray, don't rattle on like the Gentiles. They think that with their many words they will gain a hearing.
 8. Don't be like them; your Father knows the things you have need of before you ask Him.
- ¶9. “So then, you pray like this: ‘Our Father who is in heaven, hallowed be your name.
10. Let your kingdom come. Let your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
 11. Give us today our daily bread,
 12. and forgive us our debts, even as we forgive our debtors.
 13. And don't lead us into temptation, but deliver us from the Evil One. The kingdom, and the power, and the glory are yours forever. Amen.’
- ¶14. “You see, if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you,
15. but if you don't forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.
- ¶16. “When you fast, don't be like the gloomy-faced hypocrites who disfigure their faces so that they might appear to men to be fasting. Truly, I tell you, they have their reward.
17. But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face,
 18. so that you don't appear to men to be fasting, but to your Father who is in secret, and your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.
- ¶19. “Don't lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and decay ruin, and where thieves break in and steal,
20. but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor decay ruin, and where thieves don't break in or steal.

21. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
22. The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, if your eye is single, your whole body will be full of light,
23. but if your eye is evil, your whole body will be dark. Therefore, if the light that is in you becomes darkness, how great that darkness will be!
24. No one can serve two masters; either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and Mammon.
25. That is why I say to you, don't be anxious about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, nor about your body, what you will wear. Isn't life more than food, and the body more than clothing?
26. Observe the birds of the air, that they neither sow nor reap, nor do they gather into barns, and yet, your heavenly Father feeds them. Aren't you more valuable than they?
27. Who among you by worrying can add a single hour to his lifespan?
28. And so, why do you worry about clothes? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They neither labor nor spin,
29. but I tell you that not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed like one of these.
30. And if God clothes like this the grass of the field which is here today, but tomorrow is thrown into a furnace, how much more you, little-faiths?
31. So, don't worry, saying, 'What are we going to eat?' or 'What are we going to drink?' or 'What are we going to wear?'
32. For the Gentiles seek after all these things. But your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things.
33. You seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.
34. So then, don't worry about tomorrow; tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient to the day is its trouble.

Matthew 7

- ¶1. "Stop judging, so that you won't be judged,
2. for with what judgment you judge, you will be judged, and by what measure you measure, it will be measured to you.
3. Why do you look at the splinter that is in your brother's eye, but don't consider the log in your own eye?
4. Or how will you tell your brother, 'Let me take the splinter out of your eye,' and behold, a log is in your own eye?
5. Hypocrite! Take the log out of your eye first, and then you'll see clearly to take the splinter out of your brother's eye!

- ¶6. “Don’t give what is holy to dogs, and don’t cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them with their feet, and then turn and tear you to pieces.
 - ¶7. “Ask, and it shall be given to you; seek, and you shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you.
 - 8. For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks, it will be opened.
 - 9. What man is there among you who, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone?
 - 10. Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake?
 - 11. If you, then, being evil, know to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him?
 - 12. Whatever you want men to do to you, do likewise to them, for this is the law and the prophets.
- ¶13. “Enter by the strait gate because the gate is wide and the road is broad that leads to damnation, and there are many who enter by it.
 - 14. How strait the gate and narrow the road that leads to life! And few there be who find it.
- ¶15. “Beware of false prophets who come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly are ravenous wolves.
 - 16. You’ll recognize them by their fruit. Are grapes gathered from thorn bushes? or figs from thistles?
 - 17. Even so, every good tree bears good fruit, and a bad tree bears bad fruit.
 - 18. A good tree can’t bear bad fruit; neither can a bad tree bear good fruit.
 - 19. Every tree that doesn’t bear good fruit is cut down and cast into a fire.
 - 20. So then, by their fruit, you will know them.
- ¶21. “Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord! Lord! ’ will enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.
 - 22. Many will say to me in that day, ‘Lord! Lord! Haven’t we prophesied in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and performed many miracles in your name?’
 - 23. Then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you. Go away from me, you who work lawlessness!’
- ¶24. “Everyone, then, who hears these words of mine and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on rock,
 - 25. and the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, but it didn’t fall, for it was founded on rock.
 - 26. And everyone who hears these words of mine but does not do them will be likened to a foolish man who built his house on sand,

27. and the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was its fall.”
- ¶28. And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these sayings, the multitudes were astonished at his doctrine,
29. for he taught them as one with authority, and not as the scribes.

Matthew 8

- ¶1. After he came down from the mountain, large crowds followed him,
2. and behold, a leper came and bowed before him, saying, “Sir, if you want to, you can make me clean.”
3. And Jesus stretched forth his hand and touched him, saying, “I do want to. Be clean!”
And his leprosy was immediately cleansed.
4. And Jesus said to him, “See that you tell no one! But go! Show yourself to the priest and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.”

Start here comparing the stories

also, Lk 7:1-20; Jn. 4:43-54

- ¶5. Now, when he had entered Capernaum, a centurion approached him, pleading with him,
6. and saying, “Sir, my boy is lying at home paralyzed, terribly tormented.”
7. And Jesus said to him, “I will come heal him.”
8. And the centurion answered and said, “Sir, I am not worthy for you to enter under my roof. But just speak the word, and my boy will be healed.”
9. For I, myself, am also a man under authority, with soldiers under me, and I say to this one, ‘Go! ’and he goes, and to another, ‘Come! ’and he comes, and to my servant, ‘Do this! ’and he does it.”
10. When Jesus heard this, he marveled, and he said to those who were following him, “Truly, I tell you, I have not found in Israel such great faith.”
11. And I tell you that many will come from east and west, and will dine with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven,
12. but the sons of the kingdom will be cast out into outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth in that place!”
13. Then Jesus said to the centurion, “Go! And as you have believed, let it be to you.” And his boy was healed in that hour.

also, Mk. 1:29-34; Lk. 4:38-41

- ¶14. And when Jesus went into the home of Peter, he saw his mother-in-law was laid down, burning with fever,
15. and he touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she arose and began to wait on him.

16. And when it was dusk, they brought to him many demon-possessed people, and he cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick,
17. so that what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled: “He took our sicknesses and bore our diseases.”²⁹

also, Lk. 9:57-62

- ¶18. Now, when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave order to depart to the other side.
19. And one scribe approached and said to him, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.”
20. But Jesus said to him, “The foxes have dens, and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head.”
21. Then another of his disciples said to him, “Master, allow me first to leave and bury my father.”
22. But Jesus said to him, “You follow me, and leave the dead to bury their dead!”

also, Mk. 4:35-41;Lk. 8:22-25

- ¶23. And when he had boarded the boat, his disciples followed him.
24. And behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves. But he was asleep.
25. And the disciples went to him and got him up, saying, “Master, save us! We’re about to die!”
26. But he said to them, “Why are you afraid, little-faiths?” Then, getting up, he rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm.
27. And the men were amazed, saying, “What kind of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?”

also, Mk. 5:1-20;Lk. 8:26-39

- ¶28. And when he had come to the other side, to the territory of the Gergesenes, two demon-possessed men met him, coming out of the tombs, so extremely fierce that no one could travel along that road.
29. And behold, they cried aloud, saying, “What have we to do with you, Jesus, O son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?”
30. Now, at a distance from them, a herd of many swine were feeding.
31. And the demons began pleading with him, saying, “If you cast us out, O let us go into the herd of swine!”

²⁹ Isa. 53:4?

32. And he said to them, “Go!” Then they came out, and went into the herd of swine. And behold, the entire herd of swine rushed down the steep slope into the sea and perished in the waters.
33. And the herdsmen fled, and when they went into the city, they reported everything, especially the things concerning those possessed by demons.
34. And behold, the whole city came out to meet with Jesus, and when they saw him, they begged him to leave their borders.

Matthew 9

also, Mk. 2:1-12; Lk. 5:17-26

- ¶1. And so, having boarded the boat, he crossed over and came to his own city.
2. And behold, they brought to him a paralytic, laid on a bed. And Jesus, seeing their faith, told the paralytic, “Take heart, son. Your sins are forgiven.”
3. And behold, some of the scribes said within themselves, “This man is blaspheming!”
4. But knowing their thoughts, Jesus said, “Why are you thinking evil things in your hearts?
5. For which is easier? to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’?
6. But that you might know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins—” then he said to the paralytic, “Get up! Take up your bed, and go to your house.”
7. And he got up and went away to his house.
8. Now, when the multitude saw this, they marveled and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

also, Mk. 2:13-17; Lk. 5:27-32

- ¶9. And as Jesus was passing on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax station, and he said to him, “You follow me.” And he rose up and followed him.
10. And it came to pass that as he was reclining for a meal in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and reclined with Jesus and his disciples.
11. And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, “Why is your Teacher eating with tax collectors and sinners?”
12. But Jesus, hearing that, told them, “Those who are well don’t need a doctor, but those who are sick.
13. But go learn what it means, ‘I delight in mercy, and not sacrifice.³⁰’ For I didn’t come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”

also, Mk. 2:18-20; Lk. 5:33-35

- ¶14. The disciples of John then approached him, saying, “Why is it that we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples do not fast?”

³⁰ Hos. 6:6.

15. And Jesus said to them, “Can the bridegroom’s attendants mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken from them, and then, they’ll fast.

also, Mk. 2:21-22; Lk. 5:36-39

- ¶16. No one puts a patch of unshrunk cloth onto an old garment because the patch tears away from the garment, and the tear is made worse.
17. Neither do they pour new wine into old wineskins; otherwise, the wineskins burst, and the wine is spilled and the wineskins are ruined. Instead, they pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved.”

also, Mk. 5:21-43; Lk. 8:40-56

- ¶18. While he was saying these things to them, behold, a certain ruler came and knelt before him, saying, “My daughter is even now dead. But, come! Lay your hand on her, and she will live!”
19. So Jesus rose up, and he followed him, and his disciples.
20. And behold, a woman who had suffered from bleeding twelve years came up from behind and touched the tassel of his garment.
21. For she was saying within herself, “If I just touch his garment, I’ll be healed.”
22. Then, Jesus, turning around and seeing her, said, “Take heart, daughter. Your faith has made you whole.” And the woman was made whole from that hour.
23. And when Jesus went into the ruler’s home and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion,
24. he told them, “Go away. The little girl isn’t dead, but is asleep.” And they laughed at him.
25. And when the crowd was put out, he went in and took her hand, and the little girl rose up.
26. And this report spread throughout all that region.

also, Mt. 20:29-34?

- ¶27. And as Jesus went on from there, two blind men began following him, crying out and saying, “Have mercy on us, O son of David!”
28. And when he had entered the house, the blind men came to him, and Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I can do this?” They said to him, “Yes, sir.”
29. Then he touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith, let it be to you!”
30. And their eyes were opened. But Jesus sternly warned them, saying, “See to it that no one knows!”
31. Nevertheless, when they went out, they spread his fame throughout that region.

also, Mk. 7:31-37

- ¶32. Now, as they were leaving, behold, they brought to him a man who was dumb, being demon-possessed,
33. and after the demon was cast out, the dumb man spoke. And the crowds marveled, saying, “The like has never been seen in Israel!”
34. But the Pharisees were saying, “He is casting out demons by the ruler of demons.”

also, Mt. 4:23

- ¶35. And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people.
36. And seeing the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them because they were weary and downcast, like sheep with no shepherd.
37. At that time, he told his disciples, “The harvest is certainly great, but the workers, few.
38. So then, pray to the LORD of the harvest, that He might send workers out into His harvest.”

Matthew 10

- ¶1. And when he had called for his twelve disciples, he gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every sickness.
2. Now, these are the names of the twelve apostles: First, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James, the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;
3. Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James, the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus, who is called Thaddeus;
4. Simon the Canaanite and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.
- ¶5. These twelve Jesus sent out after he had charged them, saying, “Don’t go out to the way of the Gentiles, and don’t go into a city of the Samaritans.
6. Go instead to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.
7. And as you go, preach, saying, ‘The kingdom of heaven is at hand.’
8. Heal the sick; cleanse the lepers; cast out demons. Freely you’ve received; freely give.
9. Don’t provide for yourselves gold, or silver, or copper in your belts,
10. neither a bag for the road, nor two tunics, nor shoes, nor staves, for the workman is worthy of his fare.
11. Into whatever city or village you enter, inquire as to who in it is worthy, and stay there until you leave.
12. And when you enter into a house, greet it.
13. And if the household is indeed worthy, your peace will come upon it, but if it is unworthy, your peace will return to you.

14. And whoever will not receive you or hear your words, when you leave that house or city, shake the dust off your feet.
15. Truly, I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the Day of Judgment than for that city.
- ¶16. "Behold, I'm sending you away as sheep in the midst of wolves; so, be wise as serpents and innocent as doves.
17. Beware of men, for they'll hand you over to the courts, and they'll flog you in their synagogues,
18. and you'll be brought before governors and kings for my sake, as a testimony to them, and to the Gentiles.
19. But when they hand you over, don't be anxious about how or what you'll speak, for it will be given to you in that hour what you are to say.
20. For it isn't you who speak, but your Father's Spirit in you that speaks.
- ¶21. "Brother will betray brother to death, and father, child, and children will rise up against parents and kill them.
22. You'll be hated by everyone because of my name, but he who endures to the end, the same will be saved.
23. When they persecute you in one city, flee to another; for truly, I tell you, it is certain that you'll not finish the cities of Israel before the Son of man comes.
24. A disciple is not above the teacher, neither is a slave above his master.
25. It is enough for a disciple to be like his teacher, and a slave like his master. If men have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more those of his household?
26. So, don't be afraid of them, for there's nothing concealed that will not be revealed, or secret that will not be made known.
- ¶27. "What I say to you in the dark, speak in the light, and what you hear in the ear, preach on the housetops!
28. Don't be afraid of those who kill the body but can't kill the soul; rather, fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.
29. Aren't two sparrows sold for a penny? And yet, not one of them falls to the ground without the consent of your Father.
30. Even the hairs of your head are all numbered!
31. So, don't be afraid. You're more valuable than many sparrows.
- ¶32. "Whosoever confesses in me before men, I will also confess in him before my Father who is in heaven.
33. But whoever denies me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven.

- ¶34. “Don’t suppose that I came to bring peace on earth; I did not come to bring peace, but a sword.
- 35. I came to divide a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
- 36. and a man’s enemies will be members of his own household.

also, Mt. 16:24-25; Mk. 8:34-35; Lk. 9:23-27

- ¶37. “He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and he who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.
- 38. And he who does not take his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.
- 39. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for my sake will find it.

also, Jn. 13:20

- ¶40. “He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives the One who sent me.
- 41. He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward, and he who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man will receive a righteous man’s reward.
- 42. And whoever gives to one of these little ones just a cup of cold water to drink in the name of a disciple, I tell you truly, he will by no means lose his reward.”

Matthew 11

- ¶1. And it came to pass when Jesus finished charging his twelve disciples, he passed on from there to teach and to preach in their cities.

also, Lk. 7:18-23

- ¶2. Now, while in prison, having heard of the works of Christ, John sent two of his disciples
- 3. and said to him, “Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for a different man?”
- 4. Then, Jesus answered and said to them, “Go tell John what you are hearing and seeing:
- 5. the blind receive sight, and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor are given good news.
- 6. And blessed is whoever is not offended by me.”

also, Lk. 7:24-35;

- ¶7. As these men took their leave, Jesus began to say to the multitudes about John, “What did you go out to the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?
- 8. But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft garments? Behold, those who wear soft things are in the houses of kings!
- 9. But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet.

also, Mk. 1:2

10. For this is he of whom it is written, ‘Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you!'³¹
11. Truly, I tell you, among those born of women, there has not arisen a greater man than John the Baptizer; and yet, the least one in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.
12. The kingdom of heaven is being earnestly sought, from the days of John the Baptizer until now, and the forceful are seizing upon it.³²
13. All the prophets and the law prophesied until John,
14. and if you are willing to receive it, this is Elijah who is to come.
15. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

also, Lk. 7:31-35

- ¶16. “To what, now, shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in marketplaces and calling out to their playmates,
17. and saying, ‘We piped for you, but you didn’t dance! We sang a dirge for you, but you didn’t mourn.’
18. For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they are saying, ‘He has a demon.’
19. And the Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Behold! A gluttonous man and a drunkard! A friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ But wisdom is justified by her children.”

also, Lk. 10:13-16

- ¶20. Then he began to denounce the cities in which most of his miracles were performed because they did not repent.
21. “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have long ago repented, in sackcloth and ashes.
22. Nevertheless, I tell you, it will be more tolerable in the Day of Judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you!
23. And you, Capernaum, the city exalted up to heaven! You shall be brought down to Hades! For if the miracles that were done in you had been done among those in Sodom, they would have remained until this day.
24. Nevertheless, I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the Day of Judgment than for you!”

also, Lk. 10:21-24

³¹ Mal. 3:1a.

³² Or, “The kingdom of heaven is being treated violently from the days of John the Baptizer until now, and the violent are seizing upon it.”

- ¶25. At that time, Jesus answered and said, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and prudent, and revealed them to babes.
26. Yes, Father, for such was pleasing in your sight.
- ¶27. “All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one really knows the Son except the Father, nor does anyone really know the Father except the Son, and he to whom the Son may choose to reveal Him.
28. Come to me, all who labor and are heavily laden, and I will give you rest!
29. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am meek and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls,
30. for my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

Matthew 12

also, Mk. 2:23-28; Lk. 6:1-5

- ¶1. During that time, Jesus went on the Sabbath through the grain fields, and his disciples grew hungry, and they began to pluck heads of grain and to eat them.
2. But when the Pharisees saw it, they told him, “Behold! Your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on a Sabbath!”
3. Then he said to them, “Haven’t you read what David did when he was hungry, he and those with him,
4. how he entered into the house of God and ate the bread of the Presence, which wasn’t lawful for him to eat, nor for those with him, but only for the priests?³³
5. Or haven’t you read in the law that on the Sabbath day, the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are guiltless?
6. But I tell you that something greater than the temple is here.
7. If you had known what this means, ‘I desire mercy and not sacrifice, not would ouy³⁴ have condemned the guiltless.
8. The Son of man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

also, Mk. 3:1-6; Lk 6:6-11

- ¶9. And going on from there, he went into their synagogue,
10. and behold, a man was there with a withered hand. And they put a question to him, saying, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?”, that they might bring an accusation against him.
11. And he said to them, “What man is there among you who has one sheep, and if it should fall into a pit on the Sabbath, would not take hold of it and lift it up?

³³ 1Sam. 21:2–6.

³⁴ Hos. 6:6.

12. And how much more valuable is a man than a sheep! So then, it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.”
13. At that point, he told the man, “Stretch out your hand!” And he stretched it out, and it was restored, as sound as the other one.
14. But the Pharisees went out and took counsel against him, how they might destroy him.

also, Mk. 3:7-12?

- ¶15. Now, when Jesus learned of this, he withdrew from there, and large crowds followed him, and he healed them all,
16. and he sternly charged them, that they not make him known,
 17. so that what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled:
 18. “Behold, my servant whom I have chosen, my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased! I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will decree judgment for the Gentiles.
 19. He will not quarrel, nor will he cry aloud, nor will anyone hear his voice in the streets.
 20. A bruised reed, he will not break, and smoldering flax³⁵ he will not quench, until he send forth justice in victory.
 21. And in his name will the Gentiles hope.”³⁶

also, Mk. 3:20-29; Lk. 11:14-23

- ¶22. At that time, a demon-possessed man was brought to him, blind and dumb, and he healed him, so that the blind and dumb man both spoke and saw.
23. And all the people were amazed and said, “Isn’t this the Son of David?”³⁷
 24. But when the Pharisees heard that, they said, “This man does not cast out demons, except by Beelzebul, the ruler of demons.”
 25. But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand.
 26. And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand?
 27. And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore, they will be your judges.
 28. But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you!
 29. How can anyone enter into the house of the strong man and plunder his goods, except he first bind the strong man? Then he will plunder his house.
 30. He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters.

also, Mk. 3:28-30; Lk. 12:10

³⁵ Possibly “wick”, but in Isaiah 42:3, “flax”, which suits the context better, since smoking flax cannot be rekindled.

³⁶ Isa. 42:1–4b.

³⁷ Some manuscripts have, “Isn’t this the Messiah, the Son of David?”.

31. So then, I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven.
32. Whoever speaks a word against the Son of man, it will be forgiven him, but whoever speaks against the holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this present world or in the one to come.

also, Lk. 6:43-45

33. Either make the tree good, and its fruit good, or make the tree bad, and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit.
34. Offspring of vipers! How can you, being evil, say good things? For out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks.
35. The good man takes out good things from the good treasure, and the evil man takes out evil things from the evil treasure.
36. I tell you, every worthless thing that men may say, they will give account for it in the Day of Judgment.
37. By your words will you be justified, and by your words will you be condemned.”

also, Mk. 8:11-12 (check this something missing);Lk. 11:29-32

- ¶38. Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from you.”
39. But he answered and said to them, “An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, but no sign will be given to it, other than the sign of Jonah the prophet.
40. For as Jonah was in the belly of the whale three days and three nights, so will the Son of man be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights.
41. The men of Nineveh will stand up in the Judgment against this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here.
42. The Queen of the South will rise up in the Judgment against this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon,³⁸ and behold, something greater than Solomon is here.

also, Lk. 11:24-26

- ¶43. “When the unclean spirit comes out of a man, it travels through waterless places seeking rest, and it does not find it.
44. Then it says, ‘I’ll go back to my house that I came out of.’ And when it comes, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean, and put in order.
45. Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they come in and dwell there. And so, the last state of that man is worse than the first. That’s how it will be with this evil generation.”

³⁸ 1Kgs. 10:1–10.

also, Mk. 3:31-35; Lk. 8:19-21

- ¶46. All the while that he was speaking to the multitudes, behold, his mother and brothers had been standing outside, wanting to speak to him.
- 47. Someone said to him, “Behold, your mother and your brothers have been standing outside, wanting to speak to you.”
- 48. But he answered and said to the one who had spoken to him, “Who is my mother? And who are my brothers?”
- 49. And extending his hand toward his disciples, he said, “Behold, my mother and my brothers!
- 50. For whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.”

Matthew 13

- ¶1. That same day, Jesus went out of the house and sat by the sea,
- 2. and such large crowds were gathered around him that he boarded a boat to sit in, and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

also, Mk. 4:1-9; Lk. 8:4-15

- ¶3. And he spoke many things to them in parables, saying, “Behold, the sower went out to sow.
- 4. And during his sowing, some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and gobbled them up.
- 5. But other fell on rocky places where they didn’t have much soil, and they immediately sprang up, since they had no depth of soil.
- 6. But after the sun arose, they were scorched, and because they had no root, they withered.
- 7. But other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them out.
- 8. But other fell onto good soil and produced fruit: some, a hundredfold; and some, sixty; and some, thirty.
- 9. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

also, Mk. 4:10-12; Lk. 8:9

- ¶10. And the disciples approached and said to him, “Why do you talk to them in parables?”
- 11. Then he answered and said to them, “To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to those, it is not given.
- 12. Whoever has, to him will be given, and he’ll have an abundance, but whoever doesn’t have, even what he has will be taken from him.
- 13. This is why I speak to them in parables, so that seeing, they do not see, and hearing, they do not hear, nor do they understand.

14. And in them is Isaiah's prophecy fulfilled which says, 'You shall hear, but you will not understand, and you shall see, but you will not perceive,
15. for the heart of this people is hardened, and they hear with dull ears, and they have closed their eyes, lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand in their heart, and repent, and I heal them.³⁹'
16. Your eyes are blessed because they see, and your ears, because they hear.
17. Truly, I tell you that many prophets and righteous men longed to see the things you're seeing, and didn't see them, and to hear the things you're hearing, and didn't hear them.

also, Mk. 4:13-20 and Lk. 8:11

- ¶18. "So, learn the parable of the sower.
19. Everyone who hears the word of the kingdom and doesn't understand, the Evil One comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is the one who received the seed along the path.
 20. But the one who receives seed in rocky places, he is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy,
 21. yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while. Then, when trouble or persecution comes because of the word, immediately he's offended.
 22. But as for the one who receives seed among the thorns, he is the one who hears the word, but the care of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke out the word, and it becomes unfruitful.
 23. But as for the one who receives seed in good soil, he is the one who hears the word and understands, who indeed bears fruit and produces: this one, a hundredfold; that one, sixty; and another, thirty."

No other reference?

- ¶24. Another parable he put before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field,
25. but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went away.
26. And when the crop sprouted and produced fruit, then the tares also appeared.
27. And the landowner's servants came to him and said, 'Master, didn't you sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did the tares come from?'
28. He said to them, 'An enemy did this.' Then the servants said to him, 'So, do you want us to go out and pull them up?'
29. But he said, 'No, lest in gathering up the tares, you uproot the wheat with them.'

³⁹ Isa. 6:9–10.

30. Let both grow together until the harvest, and at harvest-time, I will tell the reapers, “Gather up the tares first and bind them into bundles to burn them up; then, gather the wheat into my storehouse.””

also, Mk. 13:30-34, Lk 13:18-19

- ¶31. Another parable he put before them, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field,
32. which indeed is the smallest of all seeds, but when it is grown, it is the greatest of garden herbs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches.”

also, Lk. 13:20-21

- ¶33. Another parable he spoke to them: “The kingdom of heaven is like leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures⁴⁰ of flour until it was all leavened.”
¶34. All these things Jesus spoke to the multitudes in parables, and without a parable, he would not speak to them,
35. so that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled: “I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world.”
¶36. When he had sent the crowds away, Jesus went home. And his disciples came to him, saying, “Explain for us the parable of the tares of the field.”
37. He answered and said to them, “The one who sows the good seed is the Son of man;
38. the field is the world; as for the good seed, these are the children of the kingdom; the tares are the children of the Evil One;
39. the enemy who sowed them is the Accuser; the harvest is the close of this age; and the reapers are angels.
40. Just as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so shall it be at the close of this age.
41. The Son of man will send forth his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all things that offend and those who do lawlessness,
42. and they will cast them into the furnace of fire. In that place, there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth!
43. Then will the righteous shine forth like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.
¶44. “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid, and in his joy, he goes and sells whatever he has and buys that field.
¶45. “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls,

⁴⁰ A dry “measure” equals about one-third of a bushel.

46. who, when he found one pearl of great price, went away and sold everything he had and bought it.
 - ¶47. “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet cast into the sea, and it gathered some of every sort,
 48. which, after it was full, they drew onto the shore, and when they sat down, they collected the good ones into vessels, but threw the bad ones away.
 49. So it will be at the close of the age. The angels will go forth and separate the evil from among the righteous,
 50. and they will cast them into the furnace of fire. In that place, there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth!”
- ¶51. Jesus said to them, “Did you understand all these things?” They said to him, “Yes, Master.”
52. He said to them, “Therefore, every scribe instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like a man who is a householder, who brings out from his storeroom new and old things.”

also, Mk. 6:1-6

- ¶53. And it came to pass that when Jesus ended these parables, he moved on from there.
54. And when he came to his hometown, he taught them in their synagogue, and they were astonished and said, “Where’d he get this wisdom and miracles?
55. Isn’t this the carpenter’s son? Isn’t his mother called Mary, and his brothers, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?
56. And his sisters, aren’t they all with us? So, where’d he get all these things?”
57. And they were offended in him. Then Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor, except in his hometown, and in his own home.”
58. And he did not do many miracles there because of their unbelief.

Matthew 14

also, Mk. 6:14-29; Lk. 9:7-9

- ¶1. At that time, Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Jesus,
2. and he said to his attendants, “This is John the Baptizer. He has risen from the dead, and that is why the miracles work in him.”
3. For Herod, having arrested John, had bound him and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife,
4. for John kept telling him, “It is not lawful for you to have her.”
5. And he would have put him to death, but he feared the people because they held him as a prophet.
6. Then, when Herod’s birthday was celebrated, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst, and she pleased Herod
7. so much that he swore with an oath to grant her whatever she asked.

8. And she, at the urging of her mother, said, “Give me here, on a platter, the head of John the Baptizer.”
 9. And the king was sad, but because of the oaths, and those feasting with him, he ordered that it be granted.
 10. And he sent and beheaded John in the prison.
 11. And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she took it to her mother.
 12. And his disciples came and took the body away, and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus.
- ¶13. After Jesus heard the report, he withdrew from there by boat to a deserted place by himself, but when the multitudes heard of that, they followed him on foot from the cities.
14. And when Jesus came out, he saw a great multitude and was moved with compassion for them, and he healed their sick.

also, Mk. 6:34-44; Lk. 9:12-17

- ¶15. Then, when evening was come, his disciples came to him, saying, “This is an isolated place, and the time is now past. Send the multitudes away so they may go to the villages and buy food for themselves.
 16. But Jesus said to them, “They don’t need to leave; you give them something to eat.”
 17. But they told him, “We don’t have anything here but five loaves and two fish!”
 18. He said, “Bring them here to me.”
 19. And after giving order for the multitudes to be seated for a meal on the grass, when he had taken the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up toward heaven, blessed them, and when he had broken them, he gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples, to the multitudes.
 20. And they all ate and were filled. And they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve small baskets full.
 21. Now, those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.
- ¶22. And immediately, Jesus had the disciples to board the boat and go on ahead of him to the other side while he dismissed the crowds.
23. And after he sent the crowds away, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. Then, when evening was come, he was there alone.
 24. By this time, the boat was in the middle of the sea, being battered by waves because the wind was against them.
 25. But in the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went to them, walking on the sea.
 26. And when the disciples saw him on the sea, walking, they were terrified and said, “It’s a ghost!” And they cried out in fear.

27. But immediately, Jesus spoke to them, saying, “Take heart! It’s me! Don’t be afraid.”
28. Peter answered him and said, “Master, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water!”
29. And he said, “Come!” So, Peter came down out of the boat and walked on the water to go to Jesus.
30. But when he saw the fierce wind, he was frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, “Master, save me!”
31. And Jesus immediately stretched out his hand and took hold of him, and he said to him, “Little-faith, why did you waver?”
32. And when they boarded the boat, the wind ceased.
33. Then those who were in the boat came and bowed before him, saying, “You really are God’s Son!”
- ¶34. And when they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret,
35. and when the men of that place recognized him, they sent word all around that area, and they brought to him all who were sick.
36. And they begged him that they might just touch the fringe of his garment, and as many as touched it were made completely whole.

Matthew 15

- ¶1. At that time, the scribes and Pharisees from Jerusalem came up to Jesus and said,
2. “Why do your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? They do not wash their hands when they eat bread!”
3. He answered and said to them, “And why do you transgress the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition?
4. God commanded, saying, ‘Honor your father and your mother,⁴¹ and ‘He who reviles father or mother shall be put to death!⁴²’
5. But you! You say, ‘He is innocent, whoever says to his father or his mother, ‘Whatever I have by which you might have been helped is a donation for the temple,’ and he does not honor his father or his mother at all!
6. And so, you nullify God’s commandment for the sake of your tradition!
7. Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy concerning you when he said,
8. ‘This people draws near to me with their mouth, and with their lips they honor me, but their heart is far from me.
9. In vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.’”⁴³

⁴¹ Ex. 20:12.

⁴² Ex. 21:17.

- ¶10. Then he called the multitude to him and told them, “Listen, and understand!
11. It is not what enters into the mouth that defiles a man, but what comes out of the mouth! That defiles a man!”
12. Then his disciples came to him and said, “Did you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard that?”
13. But he answered and said, “Every plant that my heavenly Father did not plant will be uprooted.
14. Leave them! They are blind guides of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit.”
15. Then Peter answered and said to him, “Explain this parable to us.”
16. But Jesus said, “Are you still without understanding, too?
17. Don’t you yet see that everything that goes into the mouth passes on to the belly and then is discharged into the latrine?
18. But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart; those things defile a man!
19. For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, immoral acts, thefts, false testimonies, blasphemies.
20. These are the things that defile a man. But to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man!”
- ¶21. And when Jesus left there, he withdrew to the district of Tyre and Sidon.
22. And behold, a Canaanite woman from those parts came and began crying out to him, saying, “Have mercy on me, sir, O son of David! My daughter is badly demon-possessed!”
23. But he answered her not a word. Then his disciples came and begged him, saying, “Make her go away! She’s crying after us!”
24. He answered and said, “I am sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”
25. Then she came and prostrated herself before him, saying, “Sir, help me!”
26. But he answered and said, “It’s not good to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”
27. Then she said, “That’s right, Master. And yet, the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table.”
28. Jesus then answered and said to her, “O woman, great is your faith! Be it done for you as you wish.” And her daughter was healed from that hour.

⁴³ Isa. 29:13.

- ¶29. And going on from there, Jesus went along the Sea of Galilee, and he went up on a mountain and sat down there.
30. And large crowds came to him, having with them the lame, the blind, the dumb, the deformed, and many others, and they laid them at Jesus 'feet, and he healed them.
31. And the people marveled when they saw the dumb speaking, the deformed made whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they glorified the God of Israel.
- ¶32. Then Jesus called his disciples to him and said, "I feel compassion for the people because they've continued with me for three days now, and they don't have anything to eat, and I don't want to send them away hungry, or they might give out on the way."
33. And his disciples said to him, "Where in such a desolate place are we to find enough bread to satisfy such a large multitude?"
34. And Jesus said to them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven, and a few little fish."
35. Then he gave order for the crowds to sit down on the ground.
36. And then he took the seven loaves and the fish, and after he gave thanks, he broke them and gave them to his disciples, and the disciples, to the multitude,
37. and they all ate and were filled. Then they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, seven large baskets full.
38. Now, those eating were four thousand men, besides women and children.
39. And after sending the people away, he boarded the boat and went to the region of Magdala.

Matthew 16

- ¶1. And the Pharisees and Sadducees came up to him, and testing him, they asked him to show them a sign out of heaven.
2. But he answered and said to them, "When evening comes, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.'
3. And in the morning, 'Today will be stormy, for the sky is red and lowering.' Hypocrites! You understand well how to read the face of the sky, but you can't read the signs of the times!
4. An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet." And he left them and went away.
- ¶5. Now, when his disciples came to the other side, they had forgotten to bring bread.
6. Then Jesus told them, "Watch out, and be wary of the leaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees."
7. Then they began talking among themselves, saying, "We didn't bring bread."

8. But when Jesus knew this, he said to them, “Little-faiths, why are you talking to one another about not bringing bread?
 9. Don’t you yet understand, nor remember the five loaves for the five thousand and how many little baskets you took up?
 10. Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many large baskets you took up?
 11. How is it that you don’t understand I wasn’t talking to you about bread when I told you to be wary of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees?”
 12. Then they understood that he was not saying to be wary of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and Sadducees.
- ¶13. After Jesus came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, “Who are men saying that I, the Son of man, am?”
14. And they said, “Some say John the Baptizer; others, Elijah; but some others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”
 15. He said to them, “And you? Who do you say I am?”
 16. Simon Peter answered and said, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God!”
 17. And Jesus answered him, “You are a blessed man, Simon bar-Jonah, for flesh and blood did not reveal that to you, but my Father who is in heaven.
 18. And I tell you that you are Peter⁴⁴, and upon this rock I will build my Assembly, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it.
 19. And I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.”
 20. Then he straitly commanded his disciples that they should tell no one that he is Jesus the Messiah.
- ¶21. From that time, Jesus started showing his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day, be raised up.
22. Then Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, “God forbid,⁴⁵ Master! This shall never happen to you!”
 23. But he turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You’re a stumbling block to me! Your mind isn’t on the things of God, but the things of men.”
- ¶24. Jesus then said to his disciples, “If anyone wants to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me!

⁴⁴ The name Peter means “rock”.

⁴⁵ Or, “God have mercy on you!”

25. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.
26. For how does a man benefit if he should gain the whole world, but his soul is forfeited? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?
27. The Son of man will come in the glory of his Father, with His angels, and then will he render to each one according to what he has done.
28. Truly, I tell you, there are some standing here that will not taste of death until they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom!"

Matthew 17

- ¶1. And after six days, Jesus took Peter, and James, and his brother John, and he led them up on a high mountain by themselves,
2. and he was transformed before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his garments became white as the light.
3. And, behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him.
4. Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. If you want, we will make three tabernacles here; you one, and Moses one, and one for Elijah!"
5. While he was yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and, behold, a voice came from the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to him!"
6. And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces and were very afraid.
7. But Jesus came over and touched them, and said, "Get up, and don't be afraid."
8. And when they lifted up their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus, alone.
9. And as they were coming down out of the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of man rises from the dead."
10. And his disciples questioned him, saying, "So, why do the scribes say that Elijah has to come first?"
11. Jesus answered and said to them, "Elijah certainly is coming first, and he will restore all things.⁴⁶
12. But I tell you that Elijah already came, and they didn't recognize him, but did with him whatever they pleased, and likewise will the Son of man also suffer at their hands."
13. Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them about John the Baptizer.
- ¶14. And when they came to the multitude, a man approached him, kneeling down before him, and saying,
15. "Sir, have mercy on my son, for he's an epileptic, and he is suffering terribly. Often, he falls into fire, and often into water."

⁴⁶ Mal. 4:5–6.

16. And I brought him to your disciples, but they weren't able to heal him."
17. Then Jesus answered and said, "O faithless and perverse generation! How long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him to me, here!"
18. And Jesus rebuked it, and the demon came out of him, and the boy was healed from that hour.
- ¶19. Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why couldn't we cast it out?"
20. Then Jesus said to them, "Because of your unbelief. Truly, I tell you, if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there!' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you."
21. But this kind does not come out except by prayer and fasting."
- ¶22. Now, while they were in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men,
23. and they will kill him, but on the third day, he will be raised." And they were very sad.
- ¶24. When they went to Capernaum, those who collected the two-drachma⁴⁷ went up to Peter and said, "Does your Teacher not pay the two-drachma?"
25. He said, "Yes." But when he came into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "Simon, what do you think? From whom do kings of the earth take customs or poll-tax, from their children or from others?"
26. Peter said to him, "From others." Jesus said to him, "Well, then, the children are free.
27. But lest we be a stumbling-block to them, go to the sea, cast a hook, and take the first fish that comes up, and when you've opened its mouth, you'll find a stater.⁴⁸ Take that and give it to them for me and you."

Matthew 18

- ¶1. At that time, the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Really, who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"
2. And when Jesus had called a little child to him, he stood him in their midst
3. and said, "Truly, I tell you, unless you are converted and become like little children, you will never enter into the kingdom of heaven.
4. Whoever humbles himself like this little child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven,
5. and whoever receives one such child in my name, receives me.

⁴⁷ This was a temple tax, not a Roman tax.

⁴⁸ A stater was worth four drachmas. This amount would pay the two drachma temple tax required of Jesus and of Peter.

6. But as for whoever offends one of these little ones who believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone be hung on his neck and he be drowned in the depth of the sea.
 7. Woe to the world because of offenses! It is necessary for offenses to come, but woe to that man through whom the offense comes!
 8. If your hand or your foot offends you, chop them off and cast them from you. It's better for you to enter into life lame or maimed than to be cast into the eternal fire with two hands or two feet.
 9. And if your eye offends you, tear it out and cast it from you. It's better for you to enter into life with one eye, than with two eyes to be cast into fiery Gehenna.
 - ¶10. “Take care that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that in heaven, their angels are always watching the face of my Father who is in heaven.
 11. For the Son of man came to save that which has been lost.
 12. What do you think? If a certain man had a hundred sheep, and one of them should go astray, doesn't he leave the ninety and nine and go up on the mountains to search for the one that wandered away?
 13. And if he finds it, I tell you truly that he rejoices over it more than over the ninety and nine that are not gone astray.
 14. So, it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.
-
- ¶15. “If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won your brother.
 16. But if he doesn't listen, take one or two more with you so that ‘by the mouth of two witnesses, or three, every matter may be confirmed.’
 17. And if he won't listen to them, speak to the Assembly. And if he won't listen to the Assembly either, let him be just like a Gentile or a publican to you.
-
- ¶18. “Truly, I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.
 19. Again, I tell you truly that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything at all that they ask, it will be done for them by my Father who is in heaven.
 20. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, I am there, in the midst of them.”
-
- ¶21. Then Peter came to him and said, “Master, how many times shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Until seven times?”
 22. Jesus said to him, “I do not tell you seven times, but seventy times seven.
 23. For the kingdom of heaven is like a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants,
 24. and when he began to settle them, one man was brought to him who owed him a zillion talents.

25. And when he could not repay the debt, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife and children and whatever he owned, and payment to be made.
26. Then, falling down, the servant prostrated himself before him, saying, ‘Master, be patient with me, and I will repay you everything.’
27. And moved with compassion, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt.
28. But when that servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him one hundred denarii,⁴⁹ and he grabbed him and choked him, saying, ‘Pay me what you owe!’
29. And his fellow servant, falling down at his feet, pleaded with him, saying, ‘Be patient with me, and I will repay you.’
30. But he would not; instead, he went and threw him into prison until he repaid the debt.
31. And when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were very sad, and they came and reported to their master all that had taken place.
32. Then, when his master had summoned him, he said to him, ‘You wicked slave! I forgave you that entire debt when you begged me.
33. And should you not have shown mercy to your fellow servant, the same way I showed mercy to you?’
34. Then his master, furious, turned him over to the torturers until he repaid all that was owed him.
35. This is how my heavenly Father will also deal with you unless each of you, from your hearts, forgives his brother their trespasses.”

Matthew 19

- ¶1. And it came to pass when Jesus finished these sayings that he left Galilee and came into the borders of Judea by way of the other side of the Jordan,
2. and large multitudes followed him, and he healed them there.
3. And the Pharisees came up to him, tempting him, and saying to him, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason?”
4. But he answered and said to them, “Haven’t you read that He who made them in the beginning ‘made them male and female’?⁵⁰
5. And then He said, ‘For this reason shall a man forsake his father and mother and be joined with his wife, and they two shall be one body.⁵¹

⁴⁹ A denarius was what workers earned for a day’s labor.

⁵⁰ Gen. 1:27.

⁵¹ Gen. 2:24.

6. Therefore, they are no longer two, but one body. So then, what God has joined together, let not man separate.”
7. They said to him, “Why, then, did Moses command the husband to give her a certificate of separation, and divorce her?”⁵²
8. He said to them, “Moses allowed you to divorce your wives because of the hardness of your hearts, but in the beginning, it wasn’t like that.
9. And I tell you, whoever divorces his wife, except for unchastity, and marries another woman is committing adultery, and the man who marries a divorced woman is committing adultery.”
10. His disciples said to him, “If that’s the way it is for a man with a wife, it’s better not to marry.”
11. But he said to them, “Not everyone attains to this state; just those to whom it is given.
12. There are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother’s womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. He who can attain to it, let him attain to it.”
- ¶13. At that time, little children were brought to him, that he might lay hands on them and pray, but the disciples rebuked them.
14. Then Jesus said, “Let the children come, and don’t stop them from coming to me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven.”
15. And when he had laid hands on them, he went on from there.
16. And behold, a man approached and said to him, “Good teacher, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?”
17. But he said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good except One, that is, God. But if you would enter into life, keep the commandments.
18. He said to him, “Which?” Jesus said, “You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness;⁵³
19. Honor your father and mother;⁵⁴ and ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’”⁵⁵
20. The young man said to him, “I have kept all these things from my youth. What do I yet lack?”
21. Jesus told him, “If you want to be perfect, go your way, sell your possessions, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and then come, follow me.”

⁵² Dt. 24:1.

⁵³ Ex. 13–16.

⁵⁴ Ex. 20:12.

⁵⁵ Lev. 19:18.

22. But the young man, upon hearing this saying, went away feeling heavy, for he had many possessions.
- ¶23. Then Jesus said to his disciples, “Truly, I tell you that a rich man will hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.
24. Again, I tell you, it is easier for a camel to pass through a needle’s eye than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.”
25. And when they heard this, his disciples were utterly astounded, saying, “Well then, who can be saved?”
26. And with an intense look, Jesus said to them, “With men, this is impossible, but with God, all things are possible.”
27. Then Peter answered and said to him, “Behold, we’ve left everything and followed you! So, what will happen to us?”
28. Jesus said to them, “Truly, I tell you that you who have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man sits down on his glorious throne, you will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
29. And everyone who has left homes, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my name’s sake shall receive a hundredfold, and then shall inherit eternal life.
30. Many who are first will be last, and last, first.

Matthew 20

- ¶1. “You see, the kingdom of heaven is like a man who is a householder who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard,
2. and when he had agreed with the workers for a denarius for the day, he sent them into his vineyard.
3. Then, going out about the third hour,⁵⁶ he saw others standing idle in the market place,
4. and he said to them, ‘You go into the vineyard, too, and whatever is right, I will give you.’
5. So, off they went. About the sixth and the ninth hour, he went out again and did the same.
6. And going out about the eleventh hour, he found other men standing idle, and he said to them, ‘Why have you been standing here idle all day?’
7. They said to him, ‘Because no one hired us.’ He told them, ‘You go into the vineyard, too, and whatever is right, you’ll receive.’

⁵⁶ Nine o’clock in the morning.

8. Then, when evening came, the owner of the vineyard told his steward, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning from the last to the first.’
 9. When those who were hired about the eleventh hour came, they each received a denarius.
 10. And when the first came, they assumed that they would receive more, but each of them also received a denarius.
 11. And when they received it, they began to murmur against the householder,
 12. saying, ‘These last worked one hour, and you made them equal to us who bore the burden and heat of the day!’
 13. Then he answered one of them and said, ‘Friend, I do you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denarius?’
 14. Take what belongs to you, and go! I want to give to this last the same as to you.
 15. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with what is mine? Is your eye evil because I am good?’
 16. Thus, the last shall be first, and the first, last, for many are called but few are chosen.”
 17. And as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, on the way, he took the twelve disciples off by themselves and told them,
 18. “Behold, we’re going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be betrayed to the chief priests and scribes, and they’ll condemn him to death
 19. and turn him over to the Gentiles, to mock and scourge and crucify him. And on the third day, he’ll rise again.”
- ¶20. At that time, the mother of the sons of Zebedee approached him with her sons, bowing down and asking something of him.
21. He said to her, “What do you want?” She said to him, “Declare that these two sons of mine may sit, one on your right hand and one on your left, in your kingdom.”
 22. But Jesus answered and said, “You don’t know what you’re asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I’m baptized with?” They said to him, “We are able!”
 23. And he said to them, “You will surely drink my cup, and you will be baptized with the baptism that I’m baptized with, but to sit on my right or my left isn’t mine to give; it’s for those for whom it is prepared by my Father.”
 24. And when the ten heard this, they were indignant against the two brothers.
 25. But Jesus called them near and said, “You know that the rulers among the Gentiles lord it over them, and great men bear heavy rule over them.
 26. It shall not be that way with you; on the contrary, whoever among you would be great shall be your servant,
 27. and whoever among you wants to be first, let him become your slave,

28. just as the Son of man didn't come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."
- ¶29. As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed him,
30. and behold, when two blind men sitting by the road heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, saying, "Have mercy on us, sir! O Son of David!"
31. But the crowd rebuked them, to make them quiet, but they cried out even more, saying, "Have mercy on us, sir! O Son of David!"
32. And Jesus stopped, and called them, and he asked, "What do you want me to do for you?"
33. They said to him, "Sir, that our eyes might be opened."
34. And Jesus, moved with compassion, touched their eyes, and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

Matthew 21

Also Mk. 11:1-10; Lk. 19:29-38

- ¶1. And when they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples,
2. telling them, "Go to the village that's before you, and immediately, you'll find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to me.
3. And if anyone says something to you, then you say, 'The Master has need of them.' Then, immediately, he will send them."
4. (All this took place so that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled, saying,
5. "Tell the daughter of Zion, 'Behold! Your King is coming to you, lowly and mounted on a donkey, even a colt, the foal of an ass."⁵⁷)
6. So, the disciples went, and they did just as Jesus had instructed them.
7. They brought the donkey and the colt, and they laid their garments on them, and he sat upon them.
8. And the large multitude strewed their own garments in the road, but others began cutting branches off the trees and spreading them on the road.
9. Then the crowds who were going before him, and those following, began crying out, saying, "Hosannah⁵⁸ to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD! Hosannah in the highest!"
10. And when he entered into Jerusalem, all the city was shaken, saying, "Who is this man?"

⁵⁷ Zech. 9:9.

⁵⁸"Hosanna" is a Hebrew word that literally means, "Save (us)!" It is an exclamation of humble praise, extolling the power and authority of the one to whom it is directed.

11. And the multitudes kept saying, “This is Jesus, the prophet who is from Nazareth in Galilee!”
- ¶12. And Jesus went into the temple of God, and he cast out all those who were buying and selling in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the moneychangers and the seats of those selling doves.
13. And he said to them, “It is written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves!’”⁵⁹
14. Then the lame and the blind in the temple came to him, and he healed them.
15. But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonders he performed, and the children crying out in the temple and saying, “Hosannah to the Son of David!” They were indignant,
16. and they said to him, “Do you hear what these are saying?” Jesus said to them, “Yes. Have you never read, ‘Out of the mouth of children and infants, you have perfected praise?’”⁶⁰
17. And leaving them, he went out of the city to Bethany, and spent the night there.
- ¶18. Early in the morning, as he was returning to the city, he grew hungry,
- ¶19. and seeing a lone fig tree by the road, he went to it, but he found nothing on it, but leaves only. And he told it, “Let no fruit ever come from you again!” And the fig tree withered up at once.
20. And when the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, “How did the fig tree wither up so quick?”
21. Then Jesus answered and told them, “Truly, I tell you that if you have faith and do not waver, you will not only do that to a fig tree, but if you say to this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and cast into the sea! ’it will happen.
22. And all things whatsoever you may ask in prayer, believing, you shall receive.”
- ¶23. And after he entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came up to him while he was teaching, saying, “By what authority do you do these things? And who gave you this authority?”
24. Answering, Jesus told them, “I will also ask you one thing, which, if you tell me, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things.
25. The baptism of John—where was it from? from heaven or from men?” Then they began deliberating among themselves, saying, “If we say ‘from heaven’, he will say to us, ‘Why, then, didn’t you believe him?’

⁵⁹ Isa. 54:7b; Jer. 7:11.

⁶⁰ Ps. 8:2.

26. But if we say ‘from men’, we fear the multitude, for they all hold John as a prophet.”
 27. And so, answering Jesus, they said, “We do not know.” And he replied to them, “Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.
 28. But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he went up to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work today in my vineyard.’
 29. And he answered and said, ‘I don’t want to.’ But later, he was sorry, and he went.
 30. Then he came to the second and said the same thing, and the second answered and said, ‘I will go, sir.’ And yet, he didn’t go.
 31. Which of the two did the father’s will?” They said to him, “The first.” Jesus said to them, “Truly, I tell you that tax collectors and harlots will go into the kingdom of God before you.
 32. For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you didn’t believe him, but the tax collectors and harlots did believe him. And you, when you saw that, didn’t repent afterwards and believe him.
- ¶33. “Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard, and he hedged it all around, and dug a winepress in it, and built a watchtower, and leased it to vinedressers, and then went on a journey.
34. Now, when the season for the fruit was at hand, he sent his servants to the tenants to receive his fruit.
 35. And the vine-dressers seized his servants; one they beat, and one they killed, and one they stoned.
 36. Again, he sent other servants, more than the first, and they treated them the same way.
 37. Then, finally, he sent his son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’
 38. But the vine-dressers, seeing the son, said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come on! Let’s kill him and seize his inheritance!’
 39. And they seized him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him.
 40. So now, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?”
 41. They said to him, “He will brutally destroy those wicked men and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will render to him the fruits in their seasons.”
 42. Jesus asked them, “Have you never read in the scriptures, ‘The stone that the builders rejected, the same has become the head of the corner. This is from the LORD, and it is astonishing in our eyes’?⁶¹
 43. Therefore, I tell you that the kingdom of God shall be taken from you and be given to a nation that will yield its fruit.

⁶¹ Ps. 118:22.

44. And the one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but whoever it falls on, it will crush him.”
45. And when the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they knew that he was talking about them.
46. And though wanting to arrest him, they were afraid of the multitudes because they held him as a prophet.

Matthew 22

- ¶1. And Jesus answered again and spoke to them in parables, saying,
2. “The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who arranged a wedding for his son,
 3. and he sent his servants out to call those who were invited to the festivities, but they didn’t want to come.
 4. Again, he sent other servants, saying, ‘Tell those who are invited, “Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet!”’
 5. But they cared nothing for it and went away, one to his field, another to his business,
 6. and the rest, seizing his servants, abused and killed them.
 7. When the king heard of it, he was enraged, and he sent his troops and destroyed those murderers and burned up their city.
 8. Then he told his servants, ‘The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy.
 9. Go, therefore, to where the roads exit the city and invite whoever you find to the wedding feast.’
 10. And those servants went out into the streets and gathered everyone, whoever they found, both bad and good, and the wedding banquet was filled with guests.
 11. But when the king came in to view the guests, he saw there a man not wearing a wedding garment,
 12. and he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding garment?’ And he was speechless.
 13. Then the king said to his ministers, ‘Bind his feet and hands, take him away, and cast him into outer darkness.’ In that place, there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth!
 14. Many are called, but few are chosen.”
- ¶15. At that time, the Pharisees went and took counsel together as to how they might entrap him in conversation.
16. And they sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are true, and you teach the way of God truthfully, and are partial to no one, for you do not regard the status of men.
 17. Tell us, then, what do you think? Is it lawful to pay tax to Caesar, or not?”
 18. But Jesus, knowing their wickedness, said, “Why are you testing me, you hypocrites?

19. Show me the coin for the tax.” And they brought a denarius to him.
 20. And he said to them, “Whose image and inscription is this?”
 21. They said to him, “Caesar’s.” Then he told them, “So, render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”
 22. When they heard this, they were dumbfounded, and they left him and went away.
- ¶23. On that day, Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came up to him and put a question to him,
24. saying, “Teacher, Moses said, ‘If someone dies without having children, his brother is to marry his wife and then raise up seed for his brother.⁶²’
 25. Now, there were among us seven brothers, and after the first one married, he passed away, and having no offspring, he left his wife to his brother.
 26. Likewise also the second, and the third, down to the seventh.
 27. And after all of them died, the woman died, too.
 28. So then, in the resurrection, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had her.”
 29. Then Jesus answered and said to them, “You are deceived, knowing neither the scriptures nor the power of God.
 30. In the resurrection, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but they are like the angels of God in heaven.
 31. But concerning the resurrection of the dead, haven’t you read what was spoken to you by God, saying,
 32. ‘I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?’⁶³ God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.”
 33. And when the multitudes heard that, they were dumbstruck at his doctrine.
- ¶34. But when the Pharisees heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they gathered themselves together.
35. And one of them, an expert in the law, put a question to him, testing him, and saying,
 36. “Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?”
 37. Jesus said to him, ““You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.’⁶⁴
 38. This is the first and great commandment.
 39. But the second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.⁶⁵’
 40. On these two commandments hang the whole law and the prophets.”
- ¶41. But while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus put a question to them,

⁶² Dt. 25:5.

⁶³ Ex. 3:6.

⁶⁴ Dt. 6:5.

⁶⁵ Lev. 19:18.

42. saying, “What do you think about the Messiah? Whose son is he?” They said to him, “The son of David.”
43. He said to them, “How is it, then, that David, by the Spirit, calls him ‘Lord’, saying,
44. ‘The LORD said to my Lord, ‘Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool’?⁶⁶
45. Now, if David calls him ‘Lord’, how is he his son?”
46. And no one could answer him a word, neither dared anyone from that day to put a question to him any longer.

Matthew 23

- ¶1. At that time, Jesus spoke to the people and to his disciples,
2. saying, “The scribes and Pharisees sit on Moses ’seat.
3. So, whatsoever they tell you to observe, observe and do, but do not do according to their deeds, for they say, and don’t do.
4. They tie up burdens, heavy and hard to bear, and lay them on men’s shoulders, but they themselves won’t move them with so much as their finger.
5. They do all their works to be seen by men: they broaden their phylacteries; they make the tassels of their garments large;
6. they love the place of honor at feasts and the seats of honor in the synagogues,
7. and salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called by men, ‘Rabbi! Rabbi!’
8. But don’t you be called ‘Rabbi”, for one is your Teacher, the Messiah, and you all are brothers.
9. And call no one on earth your Father, for one is your Father, who is in heaven.
10. And do not be called instructors, for one is your instructor, the Messiah.
11. He who is greatest among you will be your servant.
12. Whoever exalts himself shall be humbled, and whoever humbles himself shall be exalted.
- ¶13. “Woe to you scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! You shut the kingdom of heaven before men, for you yourselves don’t go in, and you don’t allow them to enter who are going in.
14. Woe to you scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! For you devour widows ’houses, and for show, make long prayers! For this, you shall receive greater damnation.

⁶⁶ Ps. 110:1.

- ¶15. “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! You compass land and sea to make one convert, and when he is made, you make him twice as much a son of Gehenna⁶⁷ as yourselves.
- ¶16. “Woe to you—blind guides!—who say, ‘Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing, but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is bound.’
17. Fools and blind! Which is greater, the gold or the temple that sanctifies the gold?
18. And you say, ‘Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing, but whoever swears by the gift that is upon the altar, he is bound.’
19. Fools and blind! Which is greater, the gift or the altar that sanctifies the gift?
20. He who swears by the altar, swears by it and everything on it!
21. And he who swears by the temple, swears by it and the One who dwells in it!
22. And he who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God and Him who sits on it!
- ¶23. “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! You tithe on mint, and dill, and cumin, but you've left off the weightier matters of the law: justice, and mercy, and faith. You must do these things, and not leave those off!
24. You blind guides, who strain at a gnat and swallow down a camel!
- ¶25. “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! You make the outside of the cup and dish clean, but inside, they are full of greed and injustice.
26. You blind Pharisee! Clean first what is inside the cup and dish so that the outside of them may also be clean.
- ¶27. “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! You're like whitewashed tombs, which outwardly appear to be so very lovely, but inwardly are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness.
28. Yes, that is how you are! You outwardly appear very righteous to men, but inwardly, you're full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.
- ¶29. “Woe to you scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! You erect the tombs of the prophets and decorate the monuments of the righteous,
30. and you say, “If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the murder of the prophets.”
31. Thus you bear witness against yourselves, that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets!
32. Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers!

⁶⁷ Despite many translations to the contrary, “Gehenna” is not a reference to hell, but to a far worse place, the Lake of Fire. For more on this, see my online book, What the Bible Really Says about Hell, at GoingtoJesus.com.

33. You snakes! You offspring of vipers! How can you escape the damnation of Gehenna!
 34. For this reason, behold, I am sending you prophets and wise men and scribes, and some of them you'll kill and crucify, and some of them you'll flog in your synagogues and persecute from city to city,
 35. so that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous to the blood of Zacharias the son of Barachias, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.⁶⁸
 36. Truly, I tell you that all these things shall come upon this generation!
- ¶37. “O Jerusalem! Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How many times have I wanted to gather your children together the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you would not!
38. Behold! Your house is left to you, desolate.
 39. For I tell you, you will by no means see me from now on, until you say, ‘Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD.’”⁶⁹

Matthew 24

- ¶1. And Jesus went out and was going from the temple, and his disciples came to him to point out to him the temple buildings.
2. But Jesus said to them, “Do you not see all these things? Truly, I tell you, there shall not be in this place one stone left upon another that will not be torn down.”
- ¶3. Then, as he sat upon the Mount of Olives, his disciples approached him privately, saying, “Tell us, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?”
4. And Jesus answered and said to them, “Take heed, lest someone deceive you.
5. For many will come, using my name, saying that I am the Messiah,⁷⁰ and they’ll deceive many.
6. And you’ll hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you do not become alarmed, for all these things must take place, but the end is not yet.
7. For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes in various places.
8. But all these things are the beginning of sorrows.
9. After that, they’ll turn you over to persecution, and they’ll kill you; you’ll be hated by all nations because of my name.

⁶⁸ Gen. 4:8 and 2Chron. 24:20–21.

⁶⁹ Ps. 118:26.

⁷⁰ Or, “saying, ‘I am the Messiah.’”

10. And during that time, many will be offended, and betray one another, and hate one another.
 11. And many false prophets will arise, and they'll deceive many.
 12. And because of a great increase of lawlessness, the love of many will grow cold.
 13. But he who endures to the end, the same shall be saved.
 14. And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the earth for a witness to all nations, and then, the end will come.
- ¶15. "Therefore, when you see the abomination of desolation that was spoken of through Daniel the prophet standing in the holy place (let him who is reading understand),⁷¹
16. then let those in Judea flee to the mountains.
 17. Let him who is on the housetop not come down to take things out of his house,
 18. and let not him in the field turn back to take his garments left behind.
 19. And woe to the women who are with child, and those who are nursing in those days!
 20. And pray that your flight be not in winter, nor on a Sabbath.
 21. For there will be at that time a great tribulation such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, nor ever will be.
 22. And except those days be shortened, no flesh will be saved. But for the sake of the elect, those days will be shortened.
 23. If anyone at that time tells you, 'Behold, here is the Messiah! ' or 'Here! ' don't you believe him.
 24. For false messiahs and false prophets will arise, and they'll perform great signs and wonders so as to lead astray, if it were possible, even the elect.
 25. Behold, I have told you ahead of time.
 26. So, if they say to you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness,' do not go out there, or 'Behold, he is in the secret chambers,' do not believe them.
 27. For as lightning comes out of the east and flashes to the west, so will the coming of the Son of man be.
 28. Where the corpse is, there the eagles will be gathered together.
- ¶29. "But immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.
30. And then the sign of the Son of man will appear in heaven, and all the tribes of the earth will then mourn, and they will see the Son of man coming upon the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.
 31. And with a great sound of a trumpet, he'll send his angels, and they'll gather his elect from the four winds, from one extremity of heaven to the other.

⁷¹ Dan. 11:31; 12:11.

- ¶32. “Now, learn a parable from the fig tree. As soon as its branch becomes tender, and it puts forth leaves, you know that summer’s near.
- 33. Likewise, you also, when you see all these things, know that it is near, even at the gates.
- 34. Truly, I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place.
- 35. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall never pass away.
- 36. But of that day and hour, no one knows, except my Father alone, not even the angels of heaven.
- 37. As the days of Noah were, so also will the appearing of the Son of man be.
- 38. For as in the days that were before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered into the ark,
- 39. and they didn’t know until the flood came and carried them all away, so also will be the appearing of the Son of man.
- 40. At that time, two men will be in the field; one who is taken away, and one who is left behind.
- 41. Two women will be grinding in the mill; one will be taken away, and one, left behind.
- 42. Watch, therefore, because you don’t know in what hour your Master is coming.
- 43. But this thing you know, that if the steward of the house had known in which watch the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have allowed his house to be broken into.
- 44. Therefore, you be ready, for at an hour you don’t expect, the Son of man is coming.
- 45. Who, then, is a faithful and prudent servant, whom his master put in charge over his servants, to give them food at the appropriate time?
- 46. Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes.
- 47. Truly, I tell you that he will set him over all his possessions.
- 48. But if that evil servant should say in his heart, ‘My master is delaying his arrival,’
- 49. and should begin to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with the drunkards,
- 50. the master of that servant will show up on a day that he does not expect, and in an hour that he does not know,
- 51. and he will cut him off⁷² and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites. In that place, there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth!

Matthew 25

- ¶1. “The kingdom of heaven at that time will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.
- 2. Five of them were wise, and the other five, foolish.

⁷² Or“ cut him in two”.

3. Now, those who were foolish took their lamps without taking oil with them,
 4. but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.
 5. When the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep.
 6. But in the middle of the night, a loud cry was made: ‘Behold! The bridegroom is coming! Go out to meet him!’
 7. At that, all those virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps.
 8. Then the foolish said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil because our lamps are going out!’
 9. But the wise answered, saying, ‘No, lest there not be enough for us and you. Go instead to those who sell, and buy some for yourselves.’
 10. And while they were gone to buy oil, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast, and the door was shut.
 11. Later, the other virgins also came, saying, ‘Lord! Lord! Open up for us! ’
 12. But he answered and said, ‘Truly, I tell you, I do not know you.’
 13. Watch, therefore, for you don’t know the day or the hour.
- ¶14. “The kingdom of heaven is like a man about to go on a journey, who summoned his servants and entrusted his possessions to them.
15. To one, he gave five talents, and to another, two, and to another, one, to each according to his ability, and he departed at once on the journey.
 16. The one who received the five talents went and worked with them, and he made another five talents.
 17. Likewise, the one who had two talents gained two more.
 18. But the one who received the one talent went and dug in the earth and hid his master’s silver.
 19. After a long time, the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them.
 20. The one who received five talents came and brought another five talents, saying, ‘Master, you entrusted five talents to me. Behold, I gained another five talents besides them.’
 21. His master then told him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant. You were faithful with a little; I will give you charge over many things. Enter the joy of your master!’
 22. And he who received two talents also approached and said, ‘Master, you entrusted to me two talents. Behold, I have gained another two talents besides those.’
 23. His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant. You were faithful with a little; I will give you charge over many things. Enter the joy of your master!’

24. Then, the one who had received one talent approached and said, ‘Master, I knew you, that you are a hard man, reaping where you did not sow and gathering where you did not scatter,
 25. and I was afraid and went and hid your talent in the earth. Here, you have what is yours.’
 26. Then his master answered and told him, ‘You wicked and lazy servant! You knew that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter.
 27. You ought to have deposited my silver with the bankers so that at my coming, I would receive what is mine with interest.
 28. Take from him the talent, and give it to the one who has the ten talents!
 29. To everyone who has, it shall be given, and he will have an abundance, and from him who doesn’t have, even what he has shall be taken from him.
 30. And cast out the unprofitable servant into outer darkness!’ There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth in that place!
- ¶31. “When the Son of man comes in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, he will then sit on the throne of his glory,
32. and all nations will be gathered before him. And he’ll separate them from one another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats,
 33. and he’ll put the sheep on his right hand, and the goats, on his left.
 34. Then the king will say to those on his right hand, ‘Come, O blessed of my Father! Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.
 35. For I was hungry, and you gave me food; I was thirsty, and you gave me drink; I was a stranger, and you took me in;
 36. naked, and you clothed me; sick, and you visited me; I was in prison, and you came to me.’
 37. Then the righteous will answer him, saying, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry, and feed you? Or thirsty, and gave you drink?’
 38. When did we see you a stranger and take you in? Or naked, and clothe you?’
 39. And when did we see you sick or in prison, and come to you?’
 40. And the king will answer and say to them, ‘Truly, I tell you that as often as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.’
 41. Then he’ll say to those on the left, ‘Go away from me, you cursed, into the eternal flame that is prepared for the Accuser and his angels.
 42. For I was hungry, and you did not give me food; I was thirsty, and you did not give me drink;
 43. I was a stranger, and you did not take me in; naked, and you did not clothe me; sick, and in prison, and you did not visit me.’

44. Then these will answer, saying, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister to you?’
45. Then will he answer them, saying, ‘Truly, I tell you that as often as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.’
46. And these will go away to everlasting punishment, but the righteous to eternal life.”

Matthew 26

- ¶1. And it came to pass, when Jesus finished all these sayings, that he told his disciples,
2. “You know that after two days is the Passover, and then the Son of man will be handed over to be crucified.”
3. At that time, the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people were gathered together in the palace of the chief priest named Caiaphas,
4. and they took counsel together as to how they might take Jesus with guile and kill him.
5. But they said, “Not during the feast, that there not be an uproar among the people.”
6. Now, while Jesus was in Bethany, in Simon the leper’s house,
7. there came to him a woman with an alabaster bottle containing precious perfume, and she poured it upon his head as he reclined at the table.
8. But when his disciples saw it, they became indignant, saying, “Why this waste?
9. This perfume might have been sold for a lot of money and given to the poor!”
10. But when Jesus became aware of it, he said to them, “Why do you trouble the woman? For she’s done a good work for me.
11. You always have the poor with you, but you don’t always have me.
12. She has poured this perfume on my body to prepare me for the burial.
13. Truly, I tell you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what she’s done will also be spoken of, in memory of her.”
14. Then one of the twelve, the one called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests
15. and said, “What will you give me, and I will give him over to you?” And they made a deal with him for thirty pieces of silver.
16. And from that time, he started looking for an opportunity to betray him.
- ¶17. Now, on the first day of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him, “Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?”
18. He said, “Go into the city to such and such a man, and say to him, ‘The Teacher says, ‘My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.’’”
19. And so, the disciples did as Jesus directed them, and they made ready the Passover.
20. Then, when it was evening, he reclined at table with the twelve,
21. and as they were eating, he said, “Truly, I tell you that one of you will betray me.”

22. And being very grieved, they began, each one of them, to say to him, “I’m not the one, am I, Master?”
 23. He answered and said, “He who dipped his hand with me in the bowl, he will betray me.
 24. The Son of man is going away, just as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It were good for him if that man had not been born.”
 25. Then Judas, the one who betrayed him, answered and said, “I’m not the one, am I, Rabbi?” He said to him, “You said it yourself.”
 26. Now, while they were eating, when Jesus had taken the bread and offered thanks, he broke it and began giving it to the disciples, and said, “Take and eat. This is my body.”
 27. And when he had taken the cup and given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, “All of you drink of it,
 28. for this is my blood, the blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many for the forgiveness of sins.
 29. But I tell you that from now on, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it with you in a new way in the kingdom of my Father.”
- ¶30. And after they sang a song of praise, they went out to the Mount of Olives.
- ¶31. Then Jesus said to them, “Tonight, you will all be offended because of me, for it is written, ‘I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.⁷³’
 32. But after I am raised up, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”
 33. Then Peter answered and told him, “Though all shall be offended in you, I shall never be offended!”
 34. Jesus told him, “Truly, I tell you that, this very night, before a rooster crows, you will deny me three times.”
 35. Peter said to him, “Even if with you I have to die, I will never deny you!” And then all the disciples started saying likewise.
- ¶36. Jesus then went with them to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to the disciples, “Sit in this place while I go over there and pray.”
37. And then, taking along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to feel grieved and distressed.
 38. Then Jesus said to them, “My soul is grieved to the point of death. Stay here and watch with me.”

⁷³ Zech. 13:7.

39. Then, going on a little farther, he fell on his face, praying, and saying, “O my Father! If it is possible, let this cup pass from me. Nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will.”
 40. And then he came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter, “How is it that you weren’t able to watch with me one hour?”
 41. Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit is certainly willing, but the flesh is weak.”
 42. Again, a second time he went away and prayed, saying, “O my Father, if this cup cannot pass from me unless I drink it, your will be done.”
 43. And when he came back, he found them sleeping again, for their eyes were heavy.
 44. And leaving them, he went away again and prayed a third time, saying the same thing.
 45. Then he came to his disciples and said to them, “Still sleeping, and getting your rest. Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into sinners’ hands.
 46. Get up. Let’s go. Behold, the one who betrayed me is near.”
- ¶47. And while he was yet speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a large multitude, with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and elders of the people.
48. Now, the one who betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, “Whoever I kiss is the man. Arrest him.”
 49. And he went up at once to Jesus, and said, “Hello, Rabbi.” And he kissed him affectionately.
 50. Then Jesus said to him, “Friend, why are you here?” At that moment, they came forward, laid hands on Jesus, and arrested him.
 51. And, behold, one of those with Jesus reached with his hand, pulled out his sword, and, striking the servant of the high priest, took off his ear.
 52. Jesus then told him, “Put your sword back in its place! All who take up a sword will die by a sword.
 53. Do you think that I can’t call on my Father right now, and He will send me more than twelve legions of angels?
 54. But in that case, how would the scriptures be fulfilled? It has to be this way!”
 55. In that hour, Jesus said to the crowd, “Did you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs to capture me? Every day, I sat with you, teaching in the temple, and you didn’t arrest me.
 56. But all this has happened so that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled.” At that, all the disciples forsook him and fled.
- ¶57. Then those who arrested Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together.
58. But Peter was following him from a distance to the high priest’s courtyard, and going on inside, he sat with the officers to see the end.

59. Now, the chief priests, and the elders, and the whole Sanhedrin kept trying to obtain false testimony against Jesus so that they might put him to death,
 60. but they found none; though many false witnesses came forward, they found none.
 61. Finally, two false witnesses came forth and said, “This man said, ‘I have power to destroy the temple of God and to rebuild it within three days.’”
 62. And when the high priest had risen, he said to him, “Do you answer nothing? What is it that these men testify against you?”
 63. But Jesus was silent. And the high priest answered and said to him, “I adjure you by the living God that you tell us if you are the Messiah, the Son of God!”
 64. Jesus told him, “You said it yourself. Nevertheless, I tell you, later on, you’ll see the Son of man seated on the right hand of Power and coming on the clouds of heaven.”
 65. At this, the high priest tore his clothes, saying, “He has blasphemed! What further need have we of witnesses? Behold! You have now heard his blasphemy!”
 66. What do you think?” And they answered and said, “He is worthy of death!”
 67. Then they spat in his face and beat him, but others slapped him in the face,
 68. saying, “Prophesy to us, O Messiah! Who is it that hit you?”
- ¶69. Now, Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and a servant-girl came up to him, saying, “You were definitely with Jesus of Galilee.”
70. But he denied him before them all, saying, “I don’t know what you’re talking about.”
 71. But after he went out to the entranceway, another girl saw him, and she said to those who were there, “This man was definitely with Jesus the Nazarene.”
 72. And he again denied it, with an oath, saying, “I don’t know the man!”
 73. Then, a little while later, those standing there came up and said to Peter, “Surely, you are also one of them, for even your accent gives you away.”
 74. Then he began to bind himself under a curse and to swear, “I don’t know the man!” And immediately, a rooster crowed.
 75. And Peter was reminded of the saying Jesus had spoken to him: “Before a rooster crows, three times will you deny me.” And he went outside, and wept bitterly.

Matthew 27

- ¶1. Now, when morning had come, all the chief priests and elders of the people reached a decision against Jesus, to put him to death,
 2. and when they had tied him up, they led him away and handed him over to Pontius Pilate, the governor.
- ¶3. Then, when Judas, the one who betrayed him, saw that he was condemned, he felt remorse and returned the silver pieces to the high priests and the elders,

4. saying, “I have sinned by betraying innocent blood!” But they said, “What is that to us? You see to that.”
 5. Then he threw the silver pieces down in the temple and ran off, and went and hanged himself.
 6. The high priests, taking the silver pieces, said, “It is not lawful to put these coins into the temple treasury, since it is blood-money.”
 7. So, when they had taken counsel, they used them to buy the potter’s field as a burial ground for foreigners.
 8. Therefore, to this day, that field is called “The Field of Blood”.
 9. Then was fulfilled the prophecy of Jeremiah the prophet, saying, “And I received thirty pieces of silver, the price of the one who had been priced, on whom the sons of Israel set a price,
 10. and they gave them for the potter’s field, as the LORD commanded me.”⁷⁴
- ¶11. Now, Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, saying, “You? You are the king of the Jews?” Jesus said to him, “You yourself are saying it.”
12. And when charges were brought against him by the high priests and elders, he answered nothing.
 13. Upon that, Pilate said to him, “Do you not hear how many things they testify against you?”
 14. And yet, he did not answer him with even one word, so that the governor was greatly amazed.
 15. Now, at each feast,⁷⁵ the governor, by custom, released to the people one prisoner, whom they wanted,
 16. and at that time, they had a notorious prisoner named Barabbas.
 17. Then, when they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, “Whom do you wish that I release to you? Barabbas or Jesus, who is called Messiah?”
 18. (For he knew that they had handed him over because of envy.)
 19. And as he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent a message to him, saying, “Have nothing to do with that righteous man! I have suffered much in a dream because of him.”
 20. Then the chief priests and elders convinced the people that they should ask for Barabbas, and that they should kill Jesus.
 21. Then the governor continued and said to them, “Which of the two would you have me release for you?” And they said, “Barabbas!”

⁷⁴ Cp. Zech. 11:12–13.

⁷⁵ It is unclear whether this refers to every feast of the Jews or only to every Passover feast.

22. Pilate said to them, “What, then, shall I do with Jesus, who is called Messiah?” They all said to him, “Let him be crucified!”
 23. But the governor said, “Why? What evil did he do?” But they began crying out even more, saying, “Let him be crucified!”
 24. And seeing that he was getting nowhere and that the uproar was becoming greater, Pilate took water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, “I am innocent of the blood of this righteous man! You yourselves see!”
 25. And all the people answered and said, “His blood be on us and on our children!”
 26. At that, he released Barabbas to them, but he handed Jesus over to be crucified, after he had him flogged.
- ¶27. At that point, the governor’s soldiers took Jesus to the praetorium⁷⁶, gathered the whole cohort⁷⁷ around him,
28. and when they had stripped him naked, they put a scarlet robe on him.
 29. And when they had woven a crown of thorns, they put it on his head, and a reed in his right hand, and they bowed before him and mocked him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!”
 30. And they spat on him, and took the reed and beat him on his head.
 31. And when they had mocked him, they removed the robe from him and put his clothes on him, and then led him out to crucify him.
- ¶32. Now, as they were going out, they found a Cyrenian man named Simon, whom they forced to carry his cross.
33. And when they came to a place called “Golgotha” (which means “Place of a Skull”),
 34. they gave him wine mixed with bitters, but after tasting it, he would not drink.
 35. Then, when they had crucified him, they divided up his garments, casting lots for them.
 36. And then, sitting down, they kept watch over him there.
 37. And above his head they placed the charge against him, written: “This is Jesus, the King of the Jews.”
 38. Then were two thieves crucified with him, one on the right, and one on the left.
 39. Those passing by were reviling him, wagging their heads
 40. and saying, “You who are going to tear down the temple and in three days raise it up, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross!”

⁷⁶ That is, the governor’s headquarters.

⁷⁷ Various numbers are given by different sources, but it seems that 480 soldiers were in a regular cohort. However, every Legion had what was called “the first cohort”, containing 800 soldiers, and that might have been the case here, since this cohort was stationed at the governor’s palace.

41. And likewise the chief priests also, mocking him with the scribes and elders and Pharisees, kept saying,
42. “He saved others; himself, he cannot save! If he is the King of Israel, let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him!
43. He trusted in God; let Him deliver him now, if He wants him! Didn’t he say, ‘I am God’s Son?’”
44. And the thieves who were crucified with him were reviling him the same way.
- ¶45. Now, from the sixth hour on, darkness came over all the land until the ninth hour.
46. Then, about the ninth hour, Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, “Eli! Eli! Lema sabachthani?” (This means, “My God! My God! Why have you forsaken me?”⁷⁸)
47. But when some of those standing there heard that, they began to say, “He’s calling for Elijah!”
48. And immediately, one of them ran, and taking a sponge, he filled it with sour wine, and when he had put it on a reed, he gave him a drink.
49. But the others were saying, “Wait! Let’s see if Elijah comes to save him.”
50. Then Jesus, again crying out with a loud voice, let go the spirit.
51. And, behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom, and the earth shook, and the rocks were split apart,
52. and the tombs were opened, and many bodies of saints who had fallen asleep were raised,
53. and after his resurrection, they came out of the tombs and entered into the holy city, and they were seen by many.
54. Now, the captain and those who were guarding Jesus with him, seeing the earthquake and the other things that happened, were very frightened and said, “This really was a god’s son!”
55. And there were many women there, looking on from a distance, who had followed Jesus from Galilee and ministered to him,
56. among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee’s sons.
- ¶57. Now, when evening was come, a rich man named Joseph from Arimathea came, who also himself was a disciple of Jesus.
58. This man approached Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. Pilate then commanded that the body be given him.
59. And when he had taken the body, Joseph wrapped it up in a clean linen cloth

⁷⁸ Ps. 22:1a.

60. and laid it in his new sepulchre that he had hewn in a rock, and after rolling a great stone to the entrance of the sepulchre, he went away.
61. And Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, and they sat down opposite the tomb.
- ¶62. The next day, that is, after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered before Pilate,
63. saying, "Sir, we remember that while he was alive, that deceiver said, 'After three days, I will arise.'
64. Therefore, command that the sepulchre be guarded until the third day, lest his disciples come at night and steal him away, and then tell the people, 'He has risen from the dead,' and so, the last delusion be worse than the first."
65. Pilate said to them, "You have a guard. Go make it as secure as you can."
66. Then they went with a guard and made the sepulchre secure, sealing the stone.

Matthew 28

- ¶1. Then, after the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene came with the other Mary to see the tomb.
2. And behold, there had been a great earthquake, for the angel of the LORD had descended from heaven. And when he came, he rolled the stone away from the entrance and sat on top of it.
3. His appearance was as lightning, and his clothing as white as snow,
4. and for fear of him, those keeping guard had trembled and had become like dead men.
5. But the angel answered and said to the women, "Don't be afraid. I know that you're looking for Jesus, who was crucified.
6. He's not here, for he is risen, just as he said. Come see the place where the Lord was laid.
7. And quickly now, go tell his disciples, 'He is raised from the dead, and, behold, he is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.' Behold, I have told you!"
8. And leaving the sepulchre quickly, with fear and great joy, they ran to tell his disciples.
9. But as they went to carry the message to his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Good morning!"⁷⁹ And they came near and held his feet, and prostrated themselves before him.
10. Then Jesus said to them, "Don't be afraid. Go your way. Carry the message to my brothers, that they should leave for Galilee, and they will see me there."

⁷⁹ This is a casual greeting meaning something like "Hello, there!", or even "Shalom!".

- ¶11. Now, while they were on the way, behold, some of the guard went into the city and reported to the chief priests everything that had happened.
 - 12. And when they had gathered with the elders and taken counsel, they gave the soldiers a substantial amount of silver
 - 13. and said, “You say, ‘His disciples came by night and stole him as we slept.’”
 - 14. And if this is heard by the governor, we will persuade him and keep you out of trouble.”
 - 15. So, taking the money, they did as they were instructed. And this rumor is spread by the Jews to this day.
- ¶16. Then the eleven disciples went into Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them.
- 17. And when they saw him, they bowed down to him, but some had their doubts.
 - 18. And Jesus drew near and spoke to them, saying, “All power in heaven and on earth is given to me.
 - 19. Go teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit,
 - 20. teaching them to keep everything that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the world.” Amen.

End of the Gospel of Matthew

The Gospel of Mark

Mark 1

- ¶1. The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.
- ¶2. As it is written in the prophets, “Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you,” and
3. “A voice crying in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way of the LORD! Make His paths straight,’”
4. John was baptizing in the wilderness, and he was preaching a baptism of repentance for remission of sins,
5. and all the region of Judea, and those of Jerusalem, went out to him, and they were all being baptized in the Jordan River by him, confessing their sins.
6. And John was clothed with camel hair and a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey.
7. And he preached, saying, “He who is mightier than I is coming after me, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop to loosen.
8. I have baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with holy Spirit!”
- ¶9. Now, it came to pass in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan.
10. And immediately coming up from the water, he saw the heavens being ripped open and the Spirit, in the form of a dove, descending upon him,
11. and a voice came from the heavens, saying, “You are my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”
- ¶12. And immediately, the Spirit drove him out into the wilderness.
13. And he was there in the wilderness forty days, being tempted by Satan, and he was with the wild beasts, and then the angels ministered to him.
- ¶14. Now, after John was arrested, Jesus went into Galilee, preaching the good news of the kingdom of God
15. and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand! Repent and believe the good news!”
- ¶16. And walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, casting a net in the sea, for they were fishermen,
17. and Jesus told them, “Follow me, and I will make you to be fishers of men.”
18. And immediately leaving their nets, they followed him.
19. And going on a little from there, he saw James the son of Zebedee and John his brother as they were mending the nets in the boat,

20. and immediately, he called them, and leaving their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, they went after him.
- ¶21. And they entered Capernaum, and immediately, on the Sabbath, he went into the synagogue and taught.
22. And they were astonished at his teaching, for he was teaching them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.
23. And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and it cried out,
24. saying, “Agh! What have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know you, who you are—the holy one of God!”
25. But Jesus rebuked it, saying, “Shut up, and come out of him!”
26. And when the unclean spirit had shaken him, and cried out with a loud voice, it came out from him.
27. And all were so amazed that they debated among themselves, saying, “What is this? What new doctrine is this, that with authority he commands even the spirits that are unclean, and they obey him!”
28. And the news about him immediately went out into the whole region of Galilee.
- ¶29. And immediately after they went out of the synagogue, they went into the home of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.
30. And Simon's mother-in-law was lying down, burning with fever. And immediately they spoke to him about her.
31. And when he had come to her, he lifted her up, taking her by the hand, and the fever immediately left her, and she began to wait on them.
- ¶32. And when it was dusk, as the sun went down, they began to carry to him all who were sick and who were demon-possessed,
33. and the whole city was gathered at the door.
34. And he healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons, and he did not allow the demons to say that they knew him.
- ¶35. And very early in the morning, while it was yet dark, he got up and went out, and he went away to a secluded place, and there he began to pray.
36. And Simon and those who were with him searched for him,
37. and when they found him, they told him, “Everybody's looking for you.”
38. And he told them, “Let's go to the neighboring towns so I can preach there, too; that's why I've come.”
39. And so, he continued preaching in their synagogues in all Galilee, and casting out demons.
- ¶40. And there came to him a leper, pleading with him, and falling on his knees, and saying to him, “If you want to, you can make me clean.”

41. Then Jesus, deeply moved, stretched forth his hand and touched him, and told him, “I do want to. Be clean!”
42. And when he spoke, the leprosy immediately departed from him, and he was cleansed.
43. And after he sternly warned him, he immediately sent him away,
44. and he said to him, “See that you tell no one anything. But go! Show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing the things Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.”
45. But after he went out, he began to proclaim it greatly and to broadcast the word so widely that Jesus could no longer openly enter a city, and so, he was out in desolate places, and they came to him from every quarter.

Mark 2

- ¶1. And he entered again into Capernaum after some days, and it was heard that he was at home.
2. And immediately, so many were gathered together that there was no more room, not even in the doorway, and he began to preach to them.
3. And some came to him bringing a paralytic, borne by four men.
4. But being unable to get close to him because of the crowd, they removed the roof where he was, and after digging through, they lowered the pallet on which the paralyzed man lay.
5. Then Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven you.”
6. Now, there were some of the scribes sitting there, and they were reasoning in their hearts,
7. “Why is this man speaking blasphemies like this? Who, except God alone, can forgive sins?”
8. But Jesus, immediately perceiving in his spirit that they were reasoning this way within themselves, said to them, “Why are you reasoning about those things in your hearts?
9. Which is easier? to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up, and take up your pallet and walk’?
10. But that you may know that the Son of man has authority to forgive sins on earth,”— he said to the paralytic,
11. “I tell you to get up, and take up your pallet, and go on home.”
12. And he got up immediately, and picking up his pallet, he went out before them all, so that they were all astonished, and they glorified God, saying, “We have never seen the like!”
- ¶13. And he went out again by the sea, and the whole multitude came to him, and he was teaching them.
14. And as he was passing on, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax station, and he said to him, “You follow me.” And so, he rose up and followed him.

15. And it came to pass that, as he was reclining at table in his house, many tax collectors and sinners reclined with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many, and they followed him.
16. And the scribes and the Pharisees, seeing him eating with tax collectors and sinners, said to his disciples, “Why is it that he is eating and drinking with tax collectors and sinners?”
17. And upon hearing this, Jesus said to them, “Those who are well don’t need a doctor, but those who are sick. I didn’t come to call the righteous to repentance, but sinners.”
- ¶18. And the disciples of John and those of the Pharisees were fasting, and they came and said to him, “Why is it that the disciples of John and those of the Pharisees fast, but disciples who belong to you do not fast?”
19. Jesus said to them, “The bridegroom’s attendants can’t fast while the bridegroom is with them, can they? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they can’t fast.
20. But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken from them, and then, in those days, they’ll fast.
21. And no one sews a patch of new cloth onto an old garment, lest its new filler tears away from the old, and the tear is made worse.
22. And no one pours new wine into old wineskins, lest the new wine bursts the wineskins, and the wine is spilled and the wineskins will be ruined. Instead, new wine is poured into new wineskins.”
- ¶23. And it came to pass that he went along during the Sabbath through the grain fields, and as his disciples made their way, they began plucking the heads of grain.
24. And the Pharisees said to him, “Behold! Why are they doing on the Sabbath what is not lawful?”
25. And he told them, “Have you never read what David did when he was in need, and hungry, he and those with him,
26. how he entered into the house of God when Abiathar was high priest and ate the bread of the Presence, which isn’t lawful to eat, except for the priests, and he even gave some to those who were with them?”
27. And then he said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath.
28. Therefore, the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath.”

Mark 3

- ¶1. And he went again into the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand.
2. And they were watching him closely to see if he would heal him on the Sabbath, that they might bring an accusation against him.
3. But he told the man who had the hand that was withered, “Get up in the midst!”

4. And then he asked them, “Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath or to do harm? To save life or to kill?” But they were silent.
 5. And when he had looked around on them with anger, being grieved at the hardness of their heart, he told the man, “Stretch out your hand!” And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored, as healthy as the other one.
 6. And the Pharisees went out immediately and began to take counsel against him with the Herodians, how they might destroy him.
 7. And Jesus withdrew with his disciples to the sea, and a great multitude from Galilee and from Judea followed him,
 8. and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from the other side of the Jordan, and some from around Tyre and Sidon; a great multitude came to him, having heard of the things he did.
 9. And he told his disciples that a small boat should be made ready for him because of the crowd, lest they should crush him,
 10. for he had healed so many that everyone with illnesses pressed upon him, to touch him.
 11. And when unclean spirits saw him, they fell before him and cried out, saying, “You are the son of God!”
 12. But he repeatedly and sternly charged them that they not make him known.
- ¶13. And he went up on the mountain and called for those he wanted, and they came to him.
14. And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him and that he should send them out to preach,
 15. and to have authority to heal diseases and to cast out demons:
 16. Namely, Simon, whom he surnamed, “Peter”,
 17. and James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James, whom he surnamed Boanerges (which means, “sons of thunder”),
 18. and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Canaanite,
 19. and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.
¶ And they went home.
20. And the multitude came together again, so that they could not even eat bread.
 21. And when his kinsmen heard of it, they came out to take him, for they were saying, “He’s lost his mind.”
 22. And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem were saying, “He is possessed by Beelzebul” and “He casts out demons by the prince of demons.”
 23. And when he had called them to him, he began to say in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan?
 24. And if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.
 25. And if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

26. And if Satan is risen up against himself, he is likewise divided; he cannot stand, but is finished.
 27. No one who enters a strong man's house can plunder his goods unless he first ties up the strong man; then he can plunder his house.
 28. Truly, I tell you that all sins shall be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies that they might utter,
 29. but whoever blasphemes against the holy Spirit has no forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation."
 30. (He said this because they were saying, "He has an unclean spirit.")
- ¶31. Then his brothers and mother came, and standing outside, they sent word to him, calling for him.
32. And a crowd was sitting around him, and they said to him, "Behold! Your mother, and your brothers, and your sisters are outside looking for you."
 33. And he answered them, saying, "Who is my mother, or my brothers?"
 34. And then, looking at those seated all around him, he said, "Behold! Here are my mother and my brothers!"
 35. For whoever does the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother."

Mark 4

- ¶1. And he began to teach by the sea again. And such a large crowd was gathered around him that he boarded a boat to sit in the sea, and the whole multitude was on land, facing the sea.
2. And he taught them with many parables, and he said to them in his teaching,
 3. "Listen! Behold, the sower went out to sow,
 4. and it happened that as he sowed, it fell along the path, and the birds came and gobbled it up.
 5. But another fell on a rocky place where it didn't have much soil, and it immediately sprang up, since it had no depth of soil.
 6. But after the sun arose, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it withered.
 7. And another seed fell into thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it out, and it produced no crop.
 8. And another fell into good soil and produced fruit, coming up, and growing, and bearing: one, thirtyfold; and one, sixtyfold; and one, a hundredfold."
 9. And then he said, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"
- ¶10. Then, when he was all alone, those around him, with the twelve, questioned him about the parable.

11. And he told them, “To you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God, but to those who are outside, everything is in parables,
 12. in order that ‘seeing, they may see but shall not perceive, and hearing, they may hear, but they shall not understand, lest they repent and their sins be forgiven.’”
 13. And then he said to them, “You don’t understand this parable? Then how will you understand any parables?
 14. The sower sows the word.
 15. These are the ones along the path where the word is sown: when they hear, Satan immediately comes and takes the word away that has been sown in their hearts.
 16. And likewise, these who are sown on rocky places are they who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy,
 17. but they have no root within themselves. They endure but for a while, and then, when trouble or persecution comes because of the word, immediately they’re offended.
 18. And as for the ones sown among the thorns, these are they who hear the word,
 19. but the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things entering in, choke out the word, and it becomes unfruitful.
 20. And as for the ones who were sown onto good soil, they are those who hear the word and welcome it, and bear fruit: one, thirtyfold; one, sixtyfold; and one, a hundredfold.”
- ¶21. And he said to them, “Is a lamp brought to be put under a bushel or under a bed? Isn’t it to be put on a lampstand?
22. There is nothing secret except to be revealed, nor hidden away but that it shall come to light.
 23. If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!”
 24. And he said to them, “Take heed what you hear. By what measure you measure, it shall be measured to you, and to you who hear, more will be added.
 25. For whoever has, it shall be given to him, and he who does not have, even what he has shall be taken away from him.”
- ¶26. And he said, “The kingdom of God is as if a man casts seed on the ground,
27. and though he sleeps and rises night and day, he doesn’t know how the seed sprouts and grows.
 28. For the earth bears fruit by itself; first a blade, then a head, and then ripe grain in the head.
 29. But as soon as the crop allows, he sends in the sickle because the harvest has come.”
- ¶30. And he said, “To what should we liken the kingdom of God? Or with what comparison should we compare it?

31. It is much the same as a mustard seed, which, when scattered on the earth, is less than all the seeds that are on the earth,
 32. but when it is sown, it grows and becomes the greatest of all garden plants, and it produces branches so large that the birds of the air can nest in its shade.”
 33. And with many such parables he spoke the word to them, as much as they were able to hear.
 34. But without a parable, he would not speak to them, but when alone with his disciples, he explained everything.
- ¶35. And that same day, when it was evening, he said to them, “Let’s go over to the other side.”
36. And dismissing the crowd, they took him, as he was, in the boat, and other little boats were there with it.
 37. And there was a great windstorm, and the waves broke over the boat so that it was now filling up.
 38. And yet, he was in the stern, sleeping on a pillow, and they woke him up and said to him, “Teacher, don’t you care that we’re about to die?”
 39. And waking up, he commanded the wind and said to the sea, “Silence! Be quiet!” And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.
 40. And he said to them, “Why are you afraid like this? How is it that you don’t have faith?”
 41. And they were terrified, and began saying to one other, “Who in the world is this man, that even the wind and the sea obey him!”

Mark 5

- ¶1. And they went to the other side of the sea, to the territory of the Gadarenes.
2. And when he got out of the boat, a man from the tombs with an unclean spirit immediately came toward him,
 3. who made his home among the tombs, and no one could bind him, not even with chains.
 4. Often, when he was bound with shackles and chains, the chains were torn apart by him, and the shackles were broken in pieces, and no one was strong enough to control him.
 5. And night and day, on the mountains and in the tombs, he was all the time crying out and cutting himself with stones.
 6. And seeing Jesus from a distance, he ran and fell down before him,
 7. and crying with a loud voice, he said, “What have I to do with you, Jesus, Son of the highest God? I adjure you by God, don’t torment me!”
 8. (For he had started to say to him, “Come out of the man, unclean spirit!”)
 9. And he began asking him, “What’s your name?” And he answered, saying, “Legion is my name, for we are many.”
 10. And he begged him earnestly, that he would not send them out of the region.

11. Now, there was a great herd of swine there near the mountain, feeding,
 12. and so, all the demons pleaded with him, saying, “Send us into the swine, so that we may enter into them.”
 13. And immediately, Jesus gave them permission. And when the unclean spirits had come out, they entered into the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep slope into the sea (there were about two thousand), and they drowned in the sea.
 14. And the swineherds fled, and in the city and in the countryside, they reported everything, and they came out to see what it was that had happened.
 15. And coming to Jesus, they saw the possessed man—the one who had Legion—sitting, clothed, and in a right mind, and they were afraid.
 16. And those who had seen how it happened to the demon-possessed man described it to them, and about the swine.
 17. And they began to entreat him to go away from their borders.
 18. And when he had boarded the boat, the one who had been demon-possessed kept begging him, that he might be with him.
 19. But Jesus did not allow him, but said to him, “Go home to your relatives and report to them what things the LORD has done for you, and showed you mercy.”
 20. And so, he went away and began to preach in Decapolis what things Jesus did for him, and everyone was amazed.
- ¶21. And when Jesus had again crossed over in the boat to the other side, many people gathered around him, and he was by the sea.
22. And behold, one of the synagogue rulers named Jairus came, and when he saw him, he fell at his feet.
 23. And he begged him earnestly, saying, “My little daughter is at the point of death! Come that you might lay hands on her, that she may be healed, and she will live!”
 24. And he went with him, and a large crowd followed him, and they thronged him.
- ¶25. And there was a certain woman who had lived with a discharge of blood twelve years,
26. and she had suffered much at the hands of many physicians, and had used up everything that she had, and was not helped at all, but rather grew worse.
 27. She heard about Jesus, and coming through the crowd from behind, she touched his garment,
 28. for she was saying, “If I but touch his garments, I’ll be healed.”
 29. And immediately, her flow of blood dried up, and she felt in her body that she had been healed of her disease.
 30. And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that power had gone out from him, and turning around in the crowd, began to say, “Who touched my garments?”
 31. And his disciples told him, “You see the crowd pressing in on you, and you say, ‘Who touched me?’”
 32. But he kept looking around to see her who had done this.

33. Then the woman, fearful and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before him, and she told him the whole truth.
34. And he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you whole. Go your way in peace, and be healed from your disease.”
- ¶35. While he was still speaking, some came from the house of the synagogue ruler, saying, “Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Teacher any longer?”
36. But immediately when Jesus heard what was spoken, he said to the synagogue ruler, “Don’t be afraid. Just believe.”
37. And he did not allow anyone to come with him except Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.
38. And he went to the synagogue ruler’s house, and he saw a tumult, people weeping and wailing loudly.
39. And when he entered, he told them, “Why are you making a commotion and weeping? The child isn’t dead; she’s sleeping.”
40. And they laughed at him. But after putting them all out, he took the father of the child, and the mother, and those with him, and entered in to where the child lay.
41. And then taking the child’s hand, he said to her, “Talitha cumi,” which is translated, “Little girl, I tell you, rise up.”
42. And immediately, the girl stood up and walked around (for she was twelve years old), and they were beside themselves with great amazement.
43. And he commanded them sternly not to let anyone know about it, and then he told them to give her something to eat.

Mark 6

- ¶1. And he left there and went to his hometown, and his disciples followed him.
2. And when it was the Sabbath, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were shocked, saying, “Where does he get these things? And what is this wisdom that is given to him, and such miracles that are done by his hands?”
3. Isn’t this the carpenter, the son of Mary and the brother of James, and Joses, and Judas, and Simon? And aren’t his sisters here with us?” And they were offended in him.
4. Then Jesus told them, “A prophet is not without honor, except in his hometown, and among relatives, and in his home.”
5. And he could not do a single miracle there, except that he laid hands on a few sick folk and healed them.
6. And he marveled because of their unbelief.
¶And he went about the surrounding villages, teaching.

- ¶7. And he called for the twelve, and he began to send them out two by two, and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits.
8. And he commanded them that they should take nothing for a journey except a staff only— no bag, no bread, nor a coin in your belt—
9. but sandals you have worn, and, he added, “Don’t put on two tunics.”
10. And he said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that place.
11. And whosoever will not receive you or hear you, when you go out of that place, shake off the dirt beneath your feet as a testimony to them. Truly, I tell you, it will be more tolerable in the Day of Judgment for Sodom or Gomorrah than for that city.”
12. And so, they went out and began preaching that people should repent,
13. and they cast out many demons, and anointed many sick folk with oil and healed them.

- ¶14. And King Herod heard of him, for his name had become well-known, and he said, “John the Baptizer has risen from the dead, and that is why the miracles work in him.”
15. Others were saying that he was Elijah, but others were saying that he was a prophet like one of the prophets,
16. but when Herod heard of him, he said, “This is the same John whom I beheaded; he has been raised from the dead!”
17. For Herod himself had sent and arrested John, and had bound him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, for he had married her,
18. for John kept telling Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife!”
19. And Herodias held a grudge against him and wanted to kill him, but she could not,
20. for Herod was afraid of John, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man, and he protected him, and when he heard him, he did many things, and he liked to hear him.
21. But an opportunity for her arose when Herod made a feast on his birthday for his chief officials, the captains of a thousand, and the leading men of Galilee,
22. and the daughter of this Herodias came in and danced. And when she pleased Herod and those banqueting with him, the king said to the girl, “Ask of me whatever you desire, and I will grant it to you.”
23. And he made an oath to her: “Whatever you ask of me, I will grant you, up to half of my kingdom!”
24. So she went out and said to her mother, “What shall I ask for myself?” And she said, “The head of John the Baptizer.”
25. And immediately hurrying in to the king, she asked, saying, “I want you to give me, right now, on a platter, the head of John the Baptizer.”
26. And the king was deeply grieved, yet because of the oaths, and those feasting with him, he would not refuse her.

27. And immediately, the king sent an executioner and commanded that his head be brought in.
28. And he went out and beheaded him in the prison, and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother.
29. And when his disciples heard of this, they came and took the corpse away and laid it in a tomb.
- ¶30. And the apostles came together to Jesus and brought him a report about everything, both the things they had done and the things they had taught.
31. And he said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a secluded place and rest a little while.” For many were coming and going, and they had no time even to eat.
32. So they left by boat for a secluded place by themselves.
33. But many saw them leaving, and they recognized him, and they rushed out together on foot from all the near-by towns and went ahead of them, and they came together to him.
34. And when Jesus got out of the boat, he saw a large crowd, and he was moved with compassion for them because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So, he began to teach them many things.
- ¶35. The hour being late by this time, his disciples approached him and said, “This is an isolated place, and the time is now late.
36. Send them away so they may go to the surrounding villages and towns and buy bread for themselves, for they don’t have anything to eat.”
37. But he answered and said to them, “You give them something to eat.” But they told him, “Are we to go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give it to them to eat?”
38. But he said to them, “How many loaves do you have? Go and see.” And when they had found out, they told him, “Five loaves, and two fish.”
39. And he commanded them to have everyone sit for a meal by groups on the green grass.
40. And in ranks of hundreds and fifties, they sat down for a meal.
41. And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up toward heaven, blessed them, and broke the loaves into pieces, and began giving pieces to his disciples so that they might set them before them. He also divided the two fish to everyone.
42. And they all ate and were filled,
43. and they took up of the broken pieces twelve small baskets full, and of the fish.
44. And there were five thousand men who ate the loaves.
- ¶45. And immediately, he had his disciples to board the boat and go on ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he himself dismissed the crowd.
46. And after he bade them farewell, he went away to the mountain to pray.

47. And when evening was come, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and he was alone on the land.
 48. And he saw them struggling as they rowed, for the wind was against them, and about the fourth watch of the night, he went to them walking on the sea, and he intended to pass by them.
 49. But when they saw him walking on the sea, they thought it was a ghost, and they cried aloud,
 50. for they all saw him, and they were terrified. And immediately, he spoke with them and said to them, “Take heart! It’s me! Don’t be afraid.”
 51. And he went up into the boat with them, and the wind ceased. And they were utterly astonished within themselves and were wondering,
 52. for they did not understand about the loaves, for their heart was hardened.
- ¶53. And when they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret, and they drew to shore.
54. And immediately when they got out of the boat, people recognized him,
 55. and they hurried around to that whole area, and they began carrying those who were sick on pallets to the place they heard he was.
 56. And wherever he would go, to villages, or cities, or the countryside, they laid the feeble down in the marketplaces, and they begged him that they might touch the fringe of his garment, and everyone who touched it was made whole.

Mark 7

- ¶1. And the Pharisees and certain of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered together to him.
2. And when they saw some of his disciples eating bread with defiled, that is, unwashed hands, they found fault.
3. (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, do not eat if they have not washed their hands up to the elbow, keeping the tradition of the elders.)
4. And when they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they have washed themselves. And there are many other things they have received to observe, such as the cleansing of cups, and pots, and copper vessels, and dining couches.)
5. Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, “Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?”
6. He answered and said to them, “Isaiah prophesied well concerning you hypocrites, as it is written, ‘This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.’
7. In vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines commandments of men.’
8. For leaving off the commandment of God, you hold fast the tradition of men, such as the washing of pots and cups, and you do a lot of things like that.”

9. And then he told them, “How neatly you set aside the commandment of God to keep your tradition!
 10. Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and, ‘He who reviles father or mother shall be put to death.’
 11. But you! You say, ‘He is innocent, if a man says to his father or his mother, “Whatever I have by which you might have been helped is Corban” (that is, a donation for the temple),’
 12. and so, you no longer let him do anything for his father or his mother,
 13. making the word of God of no effect by your tradition that you hand down. And you do a lot of things like that!”
- ¶14. And he called the whole multitude to him and said to them, “Listen to me, all of you, and understand!
15. There is nothing outside a man that can defile him by entering into him, but things that come out of him! Those things are what defiles a man!
 16. If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!”
 17. And when he had entered into a house away from the crowd, his disciples began questioning him about this parable.
 18. And he told them, “Are you without understanding, too? Don’t you see that everything that goes into a man from the outside can’t defile him
 19. because it doesn’t go into his heart, but into the belly, and then it goes out into the latrine, making all foods clean?”
 20. Then he said, “That which comes out of a man, that defiles a man!
 21. For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed bad thoughts, adulteries, immoral acts, murders,
 22. thefts, covetousness, evil deeds, deceitfulness, indecent conduct, an evil eye, blasphemy, arrogance, foolishness.
 23. All these evil things proceed from within, and they defile a man!”
- ¶24. And he got up and went away from there to the region of Tyre and Sidon. And he entered a house, not wanting anyone to know, but he could not be hidden.
25. For instance, when a woman heard about him whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, she came and fell down at his feet,
 26. but she was a Gentile, a Syro-Phoenician by birth. And she kept begging him to cast the demon out of her daughter.
 27. But Jesus said to her, “Let the children be satisfied first. For it’s not good to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”
 28. Then she answered and told him, “That’s right, Master. And yet, the dogs under the table eat of the children’s crumbs.”

29. And he said to her, “Because of this saying, go your way. The demon is gone out of your daughter.”
 30. And when she went to her house, she found the demon gone and her daughter lying in bed.
- ¶31. Then, leaving the borders of Tyre and Sidon, he went again to the Sea of Galilee, within the borders of Decapolis.
32. And they brought him a deaf man who had a speech impediment, and they begged him to lay his hand on him.
 33. And taking him away from the crowd by himself, he put his fingers in his ears, and after spitting, he touched his tongue,
 34. and looking up toward heaven, he groaned and said to him, “Ephphatha!” (which means, “Be opened!”)
 35. And immediately, his ears were opened, and the bondage of his tongue was ended, and he began to speak plainly.
 36. And he commanded them to say nothing, but as much as he commanded them, all the more they proclaimed it.
 37. And they were completely astounded, saying, “He has done all things well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak!”

Mark 8

- ¶1. In those days, there was an unusually large multitude, and they having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to him and told them,
2. “I feel compassion for the people because they’ve continued with me three days now, and they don’t have anything to eat,
 3. and if I send them away to their home fasting, they will give out on the way, for some of them have come from far away.”
 4. And his disciples answered him, “How can anyone satisfy these people with bread here in an isolated place?”
 5. And he asked them, “How many loaves do you have?” And they said, “Seven.”
 6. And he directed the multitude to sit down on the ground. And he took the seven loaves, and after he gave thanks, he broke the bread and began giving it to his disciples to set before them, and they set it before the multitude.
 7. They also had a few small fish, and when he had blessed them, he told his disciples to set them out, too.
 8. Then they ate and were filled. Then they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, seven large baskets full.
 9. Now, they were about four thousand who ate. And then he sent them away.
 10. And immediately, he got in the boat with his disciples and went to the territory of Dalmanutha.

- ¶11. And the Pharisees came out and began to dispute with him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, testing him.
12. But he sighed deeply in his spirit and said, “Why does this generation seek a sign? Truly, I tell you, let me be damned if a sign will be given to this generation!”¹
13. Then getting away from them, he boarded the boat again, and went away to the other side.
- ¶14. Now, they had forgotten to bring bread, and except for one loaf, they had none with them in the boat.
15. And he warned them, saying, “Watch out. Beware the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod.”
16. And they began talking with one another, saying, “We have no bread.”
17. And when Jesus knew this, he told them, “Why are you talking about not having bread? Don’t you yet know, or understand? Do you still have your hardened heart?”
18. Having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear? And don’t you remember?
19. When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many little baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?” They said to him, “Twelve.”
20. And when I broke the seven for the four thousand, how many large baskets full of fragments did you take up?” And they said, “Seven.”
21. Then he said to them, “How do you not understand?”
- ¶22. Then he went to Bethsaida. And they brought him a blind man, and they begged him to touch him.
23. And taking the blind man’s hand, he led him out of the village. And he spat into his eyes, and when he had laid his hands on him, he asked him if he could see anything.”
24. And when he looked up, he said, “I see men, for I see something like trees walking around!”
25. Then he laid hands on his eyes again, and made him look up. And his sight was restored, and he saw everyone very clearly.
26. And he sent him to his home, saying, “Don’t go into the village or tell anybody in the village.”
- ¶27. Then Jesus and his disciples went to the villages of Caesarea Philippi. And on the way, he questioned his disciples, saying to them, “Who are men saying I am?”

¹ Literally, “—if a sign will be given to this generation.” The curse intended with this oath is so horrific—calling for one’s own death and damnation—that it is not even uttered.

28. And they answered, “John the Baptizer, and others say Elijah, and others, one of the prophets.”
29. And he then said to them, “And you? Who do you say I am?” Peter answered and told him, “You are the Messiah.”
30. And he warned them that they should say this about him to anyone.
31. And he began to teach them that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be repudiated by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days, to rise again,
32. and he was speaking this plainly. Then Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.
33. But, turning around and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, “Get behind me, Satan! Your mind isn’t on the things of God, but the things of men!”
34. And summoning the multitude along with his disciples, he said to them, “Whoever wants to follow after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me!
35. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his own life for my sake and for the gospel, he will save it.
36. For what does it benefit a man if he should gain the whole world and his soul is forfeited?
37. Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?
38. Whoever is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

Mark 9

- ¶1. And he began saying to them, “Truly, I tell you that there are some of those who stand here that will not taste of death until they see the kingdom of God come with power.”
- ¶2. And after six days, Jesus took Peter, and James, and John, and he led them up on a high mountain by themselves, alone. And he was transformed before them,
3. and his garments became radiant, bright white like snow, such as no launderer on earth can whiten.
4. And Elijah appeared to them, with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus.
5. And Peter answered and told Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here, and we will make three tabernacles; you one, and Moses one, and Elijah one!”
6. (He did not know what he should say, for they were terrified.)
7. And then a cloud appeared, overshadowing them, and there came a voice from the cloud, “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him!”
8. And all of a sudden, when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus, alone, with them.

- ¶9. Then, as they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them to inform no one about the things they had seen, except at such time as the Son of Man rises from the dead.
10. And so, they kept the matter to themselves, debating with one another what it means to “rise from the dead”.
11. And they began to ask him, saying, “The scribes say that Elijah has to come first...”
12. He answered and said to them, “Elijah certainly comes first to restore all things. And yet, how is it written of the Son of man, that he should suffer many things and be treated with contempt?
13. Nevertheless, I tell you that Elijah has indeed come, and they did to him whatever they pleased, as it is written about him.”
- ¶14. And when he had come to his disciples, he saw a large multitude around them, and scribes disputing with them.
15. And when they saw him, the whole crowd immediately became very excited, and running up, they began to greet him.
16. Then he asked the scribes, “What are you debating with them?”
17. And out of the crowd, one answered and said, “Teacher, I brought you my son who has a dumb spirit.
18. And wherever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, and gnashes his teeth, and gets stiff. And I asked your disciples to cast it out, but they couldn’t.”
19. Then he answered him, saying, “O faithless generation! How long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him to me.”
20. And they brought him to him. And when it saw him, the spirit immediately threw him into a convulsion, and he fell on the ground and began rolling about, foaming at the mouth.
21. And Jesus asked his father, “How long has this been happening to him?” And he said, “Since he was a child,
22. and it has often thrown him into fire and into water to destroy him. But if you can do something, help us! Have pity on us!”
23. Jesus said to him, “If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes.”
24. And immediately, the father of the child cried out with tears, “Sir, I believe! Help my unbelief!”
25. Then Jesus, when he saw that a multitude was running together toward him, rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “Dumb and deaf spirit, I command you to come out of him, and enter into him no more!”
26. And when it had cried out and convulsed him terribly, it came out, and he became so like a dead man that many said he was dead.

27. But Jesus took his hand and raised him up, and he stood up.
28. And after he went home, his disciples asked him privately, “How is it we couldn’t cast it out?”
29. And he said to them, “This kind can come out by nothing except by prayer and fasting.”
- ¶30. And they went out from there, traveling throughout Galilee, and he did not want anyone to know.
31. For he was teaching his disciples, and he kept on telling them, “The Son of man is to be betrayed into the hands of men, and they will kill him, but after he is killed, on the third day, he will rise again.”
32. But they did not understand this saying, and they were afraid to question him.
- ¶33. And he went to Capernaum, and when he was home, he asked them, “What were you discussing among yourselves on the way?”
34. But they stayed quiet, for on the way they had been arguing with one another about who was the greatest.
35. And so, after he sat down, he called the twelve, and he said to them, “If anyone wants to be first, he must become last of all, and a servant of all.”
36. And when he had taken a little child, he stood it in their midst, and taking the child in his arms, he said to them,
37. “Whoever receives one of such children in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me doesn’t receive me, but the One who sent me.”
- ¶38. Then John answered him, saying, “Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name who isn’t following us, and we stopped him, since he’s not following us.”
39. But Jesus said, “Don’t hinder him, for there’s no one who will work a miracle in my name and then be able to quickly speak evil of me.
40. He who isn’t against you is for you.
41. Whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in my name because you belong to the Messiah, I tell you truly, he will by no means lose his reward.
42. And as for whosoever offends one of the little ones who believe in me, it is good rather for him if a stone from a mill is placed around his neck and he be cast into the sea.
43. And if your hand should offend you, cut it off! It’s better for you to enter into life maimed than with two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire,
44. where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.
45. And if your foot should offend you, cut it off! It’s better for you to enter into life crippled than with two feet to be cast into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire,
46. where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.

47. And if your eye should offend you, pluck it out! It's better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be cast into fiery Gehenna,
48. where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.
49. Everybody will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt.
50. Salt is good, but if the salt loses its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

Mark 10

- ¶1. And from there, he got up and went into the borders of Judea, by way of the other side of Jordan. And again, multitudes flocked to him; and again, as was his custom, he began to teach them.
2. And Pharisees, coming up to him, asked him if it was lawful for a husband to divorce a wife, tempting him.
3. But he answered and said to them, "What did Moses command you?"
4. Then they replied, "Moses allowed for a man to write a certificate of separation, and to divorce."
5. And Jesus answered and told them, "He wrote that commandment for you because of the hardness of your heart,
6. but from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female.
7. 'For this reason shall a man forsake his father and mother, and be joined to his wife
8. and they two shall be one body.' Therefore, they are no longer two, but one body.
9. So then, what God has joined together, let not man separate."
10. And when he was at home again, his disciples asked him about this.
11. And he said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another woman is committing adultery against her,
12. and if a woman divorces her husband and marries another man, she is committing adultery."
- ¶13. And they were bringing little children to him so that he might touch them, but his disciples began to rebuke those who brought them.
14. Then when Jesus saw that, he became indignant, and he said to them, "You let the children come to me! Don't stop them, for of such is the kingdom of God!"
15. Truly, I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter into it."
16. And when he had taken them up in his arms and laid hands on them, he began blessing them.
- ¶17. And as he was going out to the road, one ran up to him and fell on his knees, asking him, "Good teacher, what shall I do, that I might inherit eternal life?"

18. But Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good except One, that is, God.
 19. You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery; Do not murder; Do not steal; Do not bear false witness; Do not defraud; Honor your father and mother.”
 20. Then he answered and said to him, “Teacher, I have kept all these things from my youth.”
 21. Then Jesus, looking intently at him, loved him, and he said to him, “There is one thing lacking in you. Go your way, sell whatever you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and then, when you have taken up the cross, come, follow me.”
 22. But he was appalled at this statement, and he went away feeling heavy, for he had many possessions.
- ¶23. Then looking around, Jesus told his disciples, “How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God!”
24. And the disciples were astonished at his words. Then Jesus again answered and said to them, “Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter the kingdom of God.
 25. It is easier for a camel to enter into the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.”
 26. Then they were even more astounded, saying to each other, “Who, then, can be saved?”
 27. And with an intense look, Jesus told them, “With men, it is impossible, but not with God, for all things are possible with God.”
 28. Peter began to tell him, “Behold, we’ve left everything and followed you!”
 29. Jesus answered and said, “Truly, I tell you, there is no one who has left home, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my sake and for the sake of the gospel,
 30. but that he will receive a hundredfold now, in this time, houses, and brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands—with persecutions—and in the world that is coming, eternal life.
 31. Many who are first shall be last, and the last, first.”
- ¶32. Then they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going on ahead of them, and they marveled, and were afraid as they followed. And taking the twelve aside again, he began to tell them what was going to happen to him:
33. “Behold, we’re going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be betrayed to the chief priests and scribes, and they’ll condemn him to death and turn him over to the Gentiles.
 34. And they’ll mock him, and scourge him, spit on him, and kill him, and on the third day, he’ll rise again.”

- ¶35. And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to him, saying, “Teacher, we want you to do for us what we ask.”
36. He said to them, “What do you want me to do for you?”
37. They told him, “Let us sit, one on your right hand and one on your left, in your glory.”
38. But Jesus said to them, “You don’t know what you’re asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, and be baptized with the baptism that I’m baptized with?”
39. Then they told him, “We are able!” And Jesus told them, “You will surely drink the cup that I drink, and you will be baptized with the baptism that I’m baptized with,
40. but to sit on my right or left isn’t mine to give; it’s for those for whom it is prepared.”
41. And when the ten heard this, they started to be indignant with James and John,
42. but Jesus called them near and told them, “You know that those regarded as rulers among the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great men bear heavy rule over them.
43. It is not to be that way among you; on the contrary, whoever would be great among you shall be your servant,
44. and whoever of you wants to be first will be a slave to all,
45. for even the Son of man didn’t come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”
- ¶46. And they came to Jericho, and as he was leaving Jericho, along with his disciples and a sizable crowd, a son of Timaeus (Bar-Timaeus the Blind) was sitting by the road, begging.
47. And when he heard that it was Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out and say, “O Son of David! Jesus! Have mercy on me!”
48. And many began rebuking him, to make him quiet, but he cried out all the more, “Son of David! Have mercy on me!”
49. Then Jesus stopped and said for him to be called. And so, they called the blind man, saying to him, “Cheer up! Get up! He’s calling for you.”
50. Then he threw off his garment, stood up, and came to Jesus.
51. And Jesus answered and said to him, “What do you want me to do for you?” And the blind man told him, “Rabbi, that I might see again.”
52. Then Jesus said to him, “Go your way! Your faith has made you whole.” And immediately, he received sight, and began following Jesus on the road.

Mark 11

- ¶1. And when they were drawing near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

2. and told them, “Go on to the village that’s ahead of you, and immediately when you go into it, you’ll find a colt tied, on which no man has sat. Untie him, and bring him to me.
 3. And if anyone says to you, ‘Why are you doing this?’, tell him, ‘The Master has need of him.’ And immediately, he will send him here.”
 4. So they went away, and outside in the street, they found a colt tied by a door, and they untied him.
 5. And some of those standing there were saying to them, “What are you doing, untying the colt?”
 6. They answered them just as Jesus had commanded, and they gave them permission.
 7. Then they brought the colt to Jesus, and they put their garments on him, and he sat upon him.
 8. And many strewed their garments on the road, but others began cutting leafy branches off the trees and spreading them on the road.
 9. And those who were going before him, and those following, kept on crying out, saying, “Hosannah! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD!
 10. Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming in the name of the LORD! Hosannah in the highest!”
- ¶11. And Jesus entered Jerusalem, and went to the temple. And when he had looked all around, it already being evening, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.
- ¶12. And the next day, as they came from Bethany, he grew hungry.
13. And seeing in the distance a fig tree with leaves, he went to it, if perhaps he might find something on it. But when he had gone to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not time for figs.
 14. And Jesus answered and said to it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again!” And his disciples were listening.
- ¶15. And they went into Jerusalem, and when Jesus had gone into the temple, he began to cast out those who were buying and selling in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the moneychangers and the seats of those selling doves,
16. and he would not let anyone carry a thing through the temple.
 17. And he began teaching them, saying, “Isn’t it written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations, but you have made it a den of thieves’?”²
 18. And the scribes and chief priests heard him, and they continued looking for a way to destroy him, but they were afraid of him because all the multitude were astonished at his teaching.

² Isa. 54:7b; Jer. 7:11.

- ¶19. And when it was evening, he departed out the city.
- ¶20. And early in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree was withered from the roots.
21. And Peter remembered and said to him, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed is dried up!”
22. And Jesus answered and said to them, “Have faith in God.
23. For truly, I tell you that whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and cast into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will happen, then whatever he says will be his.
24. That is why I say to you that all things whatsoever you might ask when praying, believe that you receive them, and they will be yours.
25. And when you stand, praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father who is in heaven might forgive you for your trespasses.
26. But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your trespasses.”
- ¶27. And they went again into Jerusalem, and as he walked about in the temple, the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders came to him,
28. and they said to him, “By what authority do you do these things? And who gave you this authority to do these things?”
29. Jesus answered and told them, “I will also ask of you one thing, and you answer me, and then I’ll tell you by what authority I do these things.
30. The baptism of John—was it from heaven or from men? Answer me!”
31. And they began reasoning with each other, saying, “If we say ‘from heaven’, he will say, ‘Why, then, didn’t you believe him?’
32. On the other hand, if we say ‘from men’”—they were afraid of the people, for everyone held of John that he truly was a prophet.
33. And so, answering, they told Jesus, “We do not know.” And Jesus answered and told them, “Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

Mark 12

- ¶1. And he began to speak to them in parables: “A man planted a vineyard, and he made a hedge all around, and dug a wine trough, and built a watchtower, and leased it to vine-dressers, and then went on a journey.
2. And he dispatched a servant to the tenants in due season, so that he might receive from the tenants some of the fruit of the vineyard.
3. But they seized him, and beat him, and sent him away him empty-handed.

4. And again, he sent another servant to them, and they threw stones at that one, wounding him in the head, and they sent him away, shamefully treated.
5. And again he sent another, and they killed that one. And he sent many others; some they beat, and some they killed.
6. So, yet having an only son, dear to him, he at last sent him also to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'
7. But those vine-dressers said to each other, 'This is the heir. Come on! Let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.'
8. And they seized him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.
9. So now, what will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the tenants give the vineyard to others.
10. Have you not even read this scripture? 'The stone that the builders rejected, the same has become the head of the corner.'
11. This is from the LORD, and it is astonishing in our eyes."
12. And they were wanting to arrest him, for they knew that he spoke the parable against them, but they were afraid of the multitude, and so they left him and went away.
- ¶13. And they sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians against him, to entrap him in conversation.
14. Then those who came said to him, "Teacher, we know that you are true, and are partial to no one, for you do not regard the status of men, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay tax to Caesar, or not?"
15. Should we pay, or should we not pay?" But he, discerning their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why are you testing me? Bring me a denarius so I can see it."
16. So, they brought one. And he said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?" They said to him, "Caesar's."
17. Jesus answered and said to them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." And they were dumbfounded at him.
- ¶18. And Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection, came to him and put a question to him, saying,
19. "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if someone's brother dies and leaves behind a wife, but leaves no children, then his brother should take his wife and should raise seed up for his brother.
20. There were seven brothers, and the first took a wife, and when he died, he left no offspring.
21. And then the second took her, and he died and left no offspring either, and the third likewise.
22. And the seven took her, and left no seed. Last of all, the woman died, too.

23. In the resurrection, when they are resurrected, which one's wife will she be? For seven had her as wife."
 24. And Jesus answered and said to them, "Aren't you deceived, knowing neither the scriptures nor the power of God?"
 25. When people rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but they are like the angels in heaven.
 26. But concerning the dead, that they are raised, haven't you read in the book of Moses how that God spoke to him at the bush and said, 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?
 27. He is not the God of the dead, but God of the living. So then, you are badly deceived."
- ¶28. And when one of the scribes drew near and heard them reasoning together, seeing that he answered them well, he put a question to him: "What is the first commandment of all?"
29. Jesus answered him, "The first of all the commandments is, 'Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God. The LORD is the only one!'¹³
 30. And you shall love the LORD your God with all of your heart, and with all of your soul, and all of your mind, and with all of your strength. ' This is the first commandment.
 31. And the second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."
 32. And the scribe said to him, "Well said, Teacher! You have spoken truthfully, for there is one God, and there is no other but He,
 33. and to love Him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love a neighbor as oneself is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."
 34. And when Jesus saw that he had answered with discretion, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one any longer dared to put a question to him.
- ¶35. And then Jesus answered and said as he taught in the temple, "How is it that the scribes say that the Messiah is David's son?"
36. For by the holy Spirit, David himself said, 'The LORD said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool."
 37. Now then, David himself declares him 'Lord'; so, how is it that he is his son?" And the large crowd were gladly listening to him.

¹³ The Hebrew of Deuteronomy 6:4, which Jesus is quoting here, is translated, "Hear, Israel! Jehovah is our God; Jehovah alone."

- ¶38. And as he was teaching, he told them, “Watch out for the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and salutations in the marketplaces,
 - 39. and seats of honor in the synagogues, and places of honor at dinners,
 - 40. who devour widows’ houses, and for show, make long prayers! These men shall receive greater damnation.”
- ¶41. And when Jesus had sat down across from the offering-box, he kept watching how the people cast money into the offering-box. And many rich men cast in much.
 - 42. And when one poor widow came, she cast in two lepta⁴ (which equals a quadrans⁵).
 - 43. And when he had called his disciples to him, he told them, “Truly, I tell you that this poor widow has cast in more than all of them who are casting into the offering-box,
 - 44. for they all cast into the offering-box from the surplus they have, but she, out of her poverty, has cast in everything, as much as she had for herself to live on.”

Mark 13

- ¶1. And as he was going out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Teacher, look! Such wonderful stones and wonderful buildings!”
 - 2. And Jesus answered and said to him, “Do you see these great buildings? There shall not be one stone left upon another that is not torn down.”
- ¶3. And as he sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew asked him privately,
 - 4. “Tell us, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that all these things are about to be fulfilled?”
 - 5. Then Jesus answered and began to tell them, “Take heed, lest someone deceive you.
 - 6. For many will come, using my name, saying that I am the Messiah,⁶ and they’ll deceive many.
 - 7. And when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not become alarmed, for these things must take place, but the end is not yet.
 - 8. For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines and uprisings. These are the beginnings of sorrows.
- ¶9. “But take heed to yourselves, for they’ll hand you over to courts, and you’ll be beaten in synagogues, and you’ll be made to stand before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them.

⁴ A lepta was the smallest Roman copper coin, worth less than half a cent.

⁵ A quadrans was a Roman coin worth one-quarter of an as. For perspective, it took thirty-two asses to pay a barber for his services.

⁶ Or, “saying, ‘I am the Messiah.’”

10. But first, the gospel must be preached to all nations.
 11. And when they lead you away and hand you over, don't worry about what you should say, nor even think about it, but whatever is given you in that hour, say that, for it's not you who speaks, but the holy Spirit.
 12. Brother will betray brother to death, and the father, his child, and children will rise up against parents and will kill them,
 13. and you'll be hated by all men because of my name. But he who endures to the end, the same will be saved.
- ¶14. "Now, when you see the abomination of desolation that was spoken of by Daniel the prophet standing where it ought not, (let him who is reading understand), then let those in Judea flee for the mountains,
15. and let not him who is on the housetop come down into the house, nor go in to take anything out of his house,
 16. and let not him who is out in the field turn back for the things left behind, to take his garment.
 17. And woe to the women who are with child, and those who are nursing in those days!
 18. And pray that your flight be not in winter.
 19. For those days will be a tribulation; suchlike has not been from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will be.
 20. And except the LORD shorten those days, no flesh will be saved; however, for the sake of the elect whom He has chosen, He will shorten the days.
 21. And if anyone at that time tells you, 'Behold, here is the Messiah! ' or 'Behold, there! ' don't believe him.
 22. For false messiahs and false prophets will arise, and they'll perform signs and wonders to lead astray, if it were possible, the elect.
 23. Now, you take heed to yourselves. Behold, I have told you all things ahead of time.
- ¶24. "But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light,
25. and the stars of heaven will be falling down, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.
 26. And then they will see the Son of man, coming on clouds with great power and glory.
 27. And then he'll send his angels, and he'll gather his elect from the four winds, from the extremity of earth to the extremity of heaven.
- ¶28. "Now, learn a parable from the fig tree. As soon as its branch becomes tender, and it puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near.
29. Likewise, you also, when you see these things taking place, know that it is near, even at the gates.

30. Truly, I tell you that this generation will not pass away till all these things take place.
31. Heaven shall pass away, and the earth, but my words shall never pass away.
32. But of that day or hour, no one except the Father knows, not even the angels who are in heaven, nor even the Son.
33. Take heed; stay alert and pray, for you don't know when the time is.
34. The Son of man is like a man away on a journey, who left his home and gave his servants authority, and to each his work, and he commanded the doorkeeper to watch.
35. Watch, then, for you don't know when the Master of the house is coming, whether at evening, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning,
36. lest, coming suddenly, he find you sleeping.
37. What I say to you, I say to all: Watch!"

Mark 14

- ¶1. Now, the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread were two days away, and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how to take him with guile, that they might kill him,
2. but they said, "Not during the feast, lest there is an uproar of the people."
- ¶3. And while he was in Bethany, reclining for a meal in the house of Simon the leper, there came a woman with an alabaster bottle of expensive perfume of pure spikenard. And when she broke open the bottle, she poured some of it on his head.
4. But some were indignant and started saying to one another, "Why has she made this waste of perfume?
5. It might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and given to the poor!" And they began to scold her.
6. But Jesus said, "Leave her alone! Why do you trouble her? She's done a good work on me.
7. You always have the poor with you, and whenever you wish, you can do them good, but you don't always have me.
8. She's done what she could; she's come ahead of time to anoint my body for the burial.
9. Truly, I tell you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what she's done will also be spoken of, in memory of her."
- ¶10. And then Judas the Iscariot, one of the twelve, went away to the chief priests in order to betray him to them.
11. They were glad when they heard him, and they promised to give him money. And he started looking for a way to betray him at an opportune time.

- ¶12. And on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they slaughter the Passover, his disciples said to him, “Where do you want us to go prepare, that you may eat the Passover?”
13. And he sent two of his disciples and told them, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a pitcher of water will come toward you. Follow him,
14. and wherever he goes in, say to the owner, ‘The Teacher says, “Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?”’
15. And he will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there.”
16. And so, his disciples went out, and they came to the city, and they found it just as he told them, and they made ready the Passover.

¶17. And when it was evening, he came with the twelve.

18. And as they reclined and were eating, Jesus said, “Truly, I tell you that one of you who is eating with me will betray me.”
19. And they began to be sad and to say to him, one by one, “It’s not me, is it?” And then another, “It’s not me, is it?”
20. He answered and said to them, “It is one of the twelve, one who is dipping with me in the bowl.
21. The Son of man is going away, just as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It were good for him if that man had not been born.”

¶22. And while they were eating, when Jesus had taken bread and blessed it, he broke it and gave it to them, and said, “Take and eat. This is my body.”

23. And when he had taken the cup and given thanks, he gave it to them, and they all drank of it.
24. And he said to them, “This is my blood, the blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many.
25. Truly, I tell you that I will never again drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it in a new way in the kingdom of God.”

¶26. And after they sang a song of praise, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

- ¶27. And Jesus said to them, “Tonight, all of you will be offended because of me, because it is written, ‘I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’”
28. However, after I am raised up, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”
29. Then Peter said to him, “Even though all shall be offended, I certainly won’t!”
30. And Jesus said to him, “Truly, I tell you that today, this very night, before a rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times.”

31. But he said all the more vehemently, “If I have to die with you, I will never deny you!”
And then they all began talking like that.
- ¶32. And they went to a place by the name of Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, “Sit here while I go pray.”
33. And then he took with him Peter, and James, and John, and he began to feel overwhelmed and distressed.
34. And he said to them, “My soul is grieved to the point of death. Stay here and watch.”
35. Then, going on a little farther, he fell to the ground and began to pray that, if it were possible, the hour would pass from him.
36. And he said, “Abba (that is, Father)! All things are possible with you. Take this cup away from me! But not what I will, but what you will.”
37. And then he came and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter, “Simon, are you sleeping? Weren’t you able to watch for one hour?”
38. Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit is certainly willing, but the flesh is weak.”
39. And again, he went away and prayed, saying the same thing.
40. And when he returned, he discovered them sleeping again, for their eyes were heavy, and they did not know what to answer him.
41. And he came a third time, and said to them, “Sleeping on, and getting your rest. That is enough; the hour has come. Behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.
42. Get up. Let’s go. Behold, the one who betrayed me is near.”
- ¶43. And immediately, while he was yet speaking, Judas appeared, who was one of the twelve, and with him a large multitude with swords and clubs sent by the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders.
44. Now, the one who betrayed him had given them a cue, saying, “Whoever I kiss is the man. Arrest him, and lead him away under guard.”
45. And when he had come, he went up at once to him, and said to him, “O Rabbi! Rabbi!”
And he kissed him affectionately.
46. Then they laid their hands on him and arrested him.
47. But a certain one of those standing by, drawing a sword, smote the servant of the high priest, and took off his ear.
48. And then Jesus answered and said to them, “Did you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs to capture me?
49. I was with you every day, teaching in the temple, and you didn’t arrest me. But all this has happened so that the scriptures might be fulfilled.”
50. And then they all forsook him and fled.

- ¶51. But a certain young man followed him, his body clothed with nothing but a shirt. And the young men grabbed him,
52. but he, leaving the shirt behind, fled from them, naked.
- ¶53. And they led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests, and the elders, and scribes had come together with him.
54. And Peter, from a distance, followed him to inside the high priest's courtyard, and he was sitting with the officers and warming himself by the fire.
55. Now, the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin kept trying to obtain testimony against Jesus, to put him to death, but they were finding none.
56. Actually, many were bearing false witness against him, but the testimonies were not consistent.
57. Some stood up, bearing false witness against him, saying,
58. "We heard him saying, 'I will tear down this temple made with hands, and within three days, I will build another one made without hands.'"
59. Yet, not even in this was their testimony consistent.
60. And when the high priest had risen in the midst, he questioned Jesus, saying, "Do you not answer a thing? What is it that these men testify against you?"
61. But he was silent, and answered nothing. Again, the high priest questioned him, and told him, "Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed?"
62. Then Jesus said, "I am. And you'll see the Son of man seated on the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of heaven."
63. Then the high priest, tearing his garments, said, "What further need have we of witnesses?
64. You heard the blasphemy! How does it appear to you?" And they all condemned him as being worthy of death.
65. And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face and punch him, and then say to him, "Prophesy!" And the officers kept on slapping him in the face.
- ¶66. And while Peter was in the courtyard below, one of the high priest's servant-girls came,
67. and seeing Peter warming himself, she stared at him and said, "You were definitely with the Nazarene, Jesus."
68. But he denied it saying, "I don't know him, and I don't understand what you're talking about." And he went outside to the gateway. And a rooster crowed.
69. And when the servant-girl saw him again, she began saying to those who stood by, "This man is one of them."

70. And he again denied it. And then again, a little while later, those standing by also started saying to Peter, “Truly, you are also one of them, for you are a Galilean; your accent is just like one.”
71. And he began to bind himself with a curse and to swear, “I don’t know this man you’re talking about!”
72. And a rooster crowed the second time. And Peter remembered the saying that Jesus spoke to him: “Before a rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times.” And he broke down and wept.

Mark 15

- ¶1. And as soon as it was morning, the chief priests made a plan with the elders and scribes and the entire Sanhedrin, and after tying Jesus up, they took him away and handed him over to Pilate.
2. And Pilate asked him, “You? You are the King of the Jews?” He answered and told him, “You yourself are saying it.”
3. And the chief priests began to accuse him of many things.
4. Then Pilate questioned him again, saying, “You answer nothing? Listen to how many things they testify against you!”
5. But Jesus still answered nothing, so that Pilate was amazed.
- ¶6. Now, at each Feast⁷, he used to release to them one prisoner, whomever they asked for.
7. And one called Barabbas was there, bound with his fellow-insurrectionists, men who had committed murder in the insurrection.
8. And the multitude, raising a cry, began to ask Pilate to do as he had always done.
9. Pilate answered them, saying, “Do you desire that I shall release to you the King of the Jews?”
10. (For he perceived that the chief priests had handed him over because of envy.)
11. But the chief priests incited the crowd so that he would release Barabbas to them instead.
12. Then Pilate answered again and told them, “What, then, do you want me to do to the one you call ‘King of the Jews’?”
13. And they again cried out, “Crucify him!”
14. But Pilate kept saying to them, “Why? What evil did he do?” But they cried out all the more, “Crucify him!”
15. And Pilate, wanting to pacify the crowd, released Barabbas to them and handed Jesus over to be crucified, after he had him flogged.

⁷ It is unclear whether this refers to every feast of the Jews or only to every Passover feast.

- ¶16. Then the soldiers led him away, within the palace, which is the praetorium, and they called the whole cohort together.
17. And they dressed him up in purple, and when they had woven a crown of thorns, they put it on him,
18. and they began saluting him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!”
19. And they repeatedly beat his head with a reed and spat on him, and bowing their knees, they worshipped him.
20. And when they had mocked him, they removed the purple from him and put his own clothes on him.
- ¶ And then they led him out that they might crucify him.
21. And as a certain passer-by, Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, was coming in from a field, they forced him to carry his cross.
22. And they brought him to the place, “Golgotha” (which is translated, “Place of a Skull”).
23. And they offered him myrrh-flavored wine to drink, but he did not take it.
24. And they crucified him, dividing up his garments among themselves, casting lots for them to determine who should take what.
25. Now, it was the third hour when they crucified him.
26. And over his head was the inscription of the charge against him, written out: “The King of the Jews.”
27. And with him they crucified two thieves, one on the right, and one on his left.
28. And the scripture was fulfilled that says, “He was numbered with the lawless.”
29. And those passing by were reviling him, wagging their heads and saying, “Ha! You who are going to tear down the temple and in three days raise it up,
30. save yourself, and come down from the cross!”
31. Likewise, the chief priests also, mocking him among themselves, with the scribes, kept saying, “He saved others; himself, he cannot save.
32. Let the Messiah, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, that we may behold and believe in him.” And those being crucified with him were reviling him.
- ¶33. Now, when the sixth hour was come, darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour.
34. And at the ninth hour, Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?” (That is translated, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”⁸)
35. And when some of those standing around heard that, they began to say, “Behold, he’s calling Elijah!”
36. Then one man ran, and filling a sponge with sour wine, when he had put it on a reed, he gave him a drink, saying, “Wait! Let’s see if Elijah comes to take him down.”

⁸ Ps. 22:1a.

37. Then Jesus, letting out a great cry, breathed out his life.
 38. And the veil of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom.
 39. Now, when the centurion, who had been standing out in front of him, saw him cry out like that and breathe out his life, he said, "This man really was a son of a god!"
 40. And there were women looking on from a distance, among whom were also Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the small and of Joses, and Salome.
 41. These also, when he was in Galilee, followed him and ministered to him, along with many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.
- ¶42. And evening having already come, and since it was the Preparation, which is the day before the Sabbath,
43. Joseph of Arimathaea, a prominent member of the Council, who himself also was awaiting the kingdom of God, went and entered in boldly to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body.
 44. But Pilate was amazed that he was already dead, and he summoned the centurion and asked him if he had been dead long.
 45. And when he had ascertained from the centurion that it was so, he granted the body to Joseph.
 46. And when he had purchased linen cloth and taken him down, he wrapped him in the cloth and laid him in a sepulchre that had been hewn out of a rock, and then he rolled a stone upon the entrance of the sepulchre.
 47. And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses were observing where he was laid.

Mark 16

- ¶1. And when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, purchased spices that they might come and anoint him.
2. And very early in the morning of the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they came to the sepulchre.
3. And they were saying to each other, "Who will roll away the stone from the entrance of the sepulchre for us?"
4. But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away, though it was very large.
5. And when they entered the sepulchre, they saw a young man, clothed in a long, white robe, sitting to their right, and they were alarmed.
6. But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth who was crucified. He is risen; he is not here. Behold the place where they laid him!"
7. But go your way. Tell his disciples, especially Peter, 'He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.'"
8. And when they went out, they fled from the sepulchre, and trembling and amazement gripped them, and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

- ¶9. Now, after he arose, early in the morning the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven demons,
10. who went and gave the report to those who had been with him as they were mourning and weeping.
11. And when they heard that he was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe it.
- ¶12. After these things, he appeared to two of them in another form as they were walking, going into the country.
13. Then those men went and reported it to the rest, but they did not believe them, either.
- ¶14. Afterward, he appeared to the eleven themselves as they reclined for a meal, and he rebuked their unbelief and hardness of heart because they did not believe those who had seen him after he had risen.
15. And he told them, “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.
16. He who believes and is baptized will be saved, but he who does not believe will be damned.
17. These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name, they will cast out demons; they will speak with new tongues;
18. they will take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.”
- ¶19. Then the Lord, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven, and he sat down at the right hand of God.
20. And they went out preaching everywhere, the Lord working with them, confirming the word with signs that followed. Amen.

End of the Gospel of Mark

The Gospel of Luke

Luke 1

- ¶1. Whereas many have taken in hand to compile a narrative concerning the events which have been accomplished among us,
 2. just as they who, from the beginning, were eye witnesses and servants of the Word handed them down to us,
 3. it seemed good to me as well, having carefully investigated everything from the start, to write a sequential account for you, most excellent Theophilus,
 4. so that you might know the trustworthiness of the things you have been taught.
- ¶5. In the days of Herod the king of Judea, there was a certain priest by the name of Zacharias. He was of the division of Abia, and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.
6. They were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and judgments of the LORD blamelessly.
 7. And they had no child because Elizabeth was barren, and both were well advanced in years.
- ¶8. Now, as he was performing his priestly service before God, in the order of his division,
9. by lot, according to the custom of the priestly office, it fell to him to enter the temple of the LORD to burn incense.
 10. And the whole multitude of the people was outside, praying during the hour of incense burning.
 11. Then, standing to the right of the altar of incense, an angel of the LORD appeared to him.
 12. And when Zacharias saw him, he was shaken, and fear fell upon him.
 13. But the angel said to him, “Do not fear, Zacharias, for your petition has been heard, and Elizabeth, your wife, will bear you a son, and you shall call his name, ‘John’.”
 14. You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth.
 15. He will be great before the LORD, and wine or strong drink he must never drink, and he will be filled with holy Spirit while in his mother’s womb.
 16. And many of the sons of Israel will he turn to the LORD their God.
 17. It is he who will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the understanding of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for the LORD.”
 18. And Zacharias said to the angel, “How shall I know this? I am an old man, and my wife is aged.”

19. And the angel answered and said to him, “I am Gabriel, who stands before God, and I was sent to speak to you and declare these good tidings to you.
 20. And behold, you will be silent, unable to speak, until the day these things come to pass because you did not believe my words, which shall be fulfilled in their appointed time!”
 21. Now, the people were waiting for Zacharias, and they were amazed at how long he was in the temple.
 22. And when he came out, he was unable to speak to them, and they realized that he had seen a vision in the temple, and as for him, he kept making gestures to them, but remained mute.
 23. And it came to pass that when the days of his priestly service were completed, he went home.
- ¶24. After those days, his wife Elizabeth conceived, and she hid herself five months, saying,
25. “Thus the LORD has dealt with me in the days in which He looked with favor upon me, to take away my reproach among men.”
- ¶26. In the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a city of Galilee called Nazareth,
27. to a virgin who was betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin’s name was Mary.
 28. And when the angel came, he said to her, “Rejoice, O favored woman! The LORD is with you! You are blessed among women!”
 29. And when she saw him, she was perplexed by his speech, wondering what kind of greeting this might be.
30. Then the angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary. You have found favor with God.
 31. Behold, you shall conceive and give birth to a son, and you shall call his name, ‘Jesus’.
 32. He will be great, and he will be called Son of the Highest. The LORD will give him the throne of David his father,
 33. and he will rule over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom, there will be no end.”
34. Then Mary said to the angel, “How will this be, since I do not know a man?”
 35. And the angel answered and said to her, “The holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Highest will overshadow you. And therefore, that holy thing which is born shall be called a son of God.
 36. And behold, Elizabeth your kinswoman has herself also conceived a son in her old age, and this is now the sixth month with her who was called barren.
 37. For nothing will be impossible with God.”

38. Then Mary said, “Behold, I am the LORD’s slave. Let it be to me according to your word.” And the angel departed from her.
- ¶39. And in those days, Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a city of Judah,
40. and she entered into Zacharias’ house and greeted Elizabeth.
41. And when Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, it came to pass that the baby leapt in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with holy Spirit,
42. and she cried out with a loud voice and said, “You are blessed among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!
43. And how has this been given to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me!
44. Behold, when the sound of your greeting came into my ears, the child in my womb leapt with gladness.
45. Blessed is she who believed, because there shall be a fulfillment of the things spoken to her by the LORD.”
46. And Mary said, “My soul magnifies the LORD,
47. and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
48. for He has looked on the lowly state of his slave. Behold, from now on, all generations will call me blessed.
49. For He who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is His name!
50. His mercy endures from generation to generation to those who fear Him.
51. With His arm, He has done mighty deeds. He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their heart.
52. He has brought the mighty down from thrones, and exalted the lowly.
53. He has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty.
54. Remembering mercy, He has come to the aid of Israel His son,
55. as He said to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed forever.”
- ¶56. And Mary remained with her about three months, and then returned to her home.
- ¶57. And the time was fulfilled for Elizabeth to give birth, and she bore a son.
58. And her neighbors and kinsman heard that the LORD had magnified His great mercy with her, and they rejoiced with her.
59. And it came to pass on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child, and they were calling it by the name of his father Zacharias.
60. But his mother answered and said, “No! He will be called John.”
61. And they said to her, “There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name.”
62. And they motioned to his father, to see what he wanted him to be called.
63. And after he asked for a little writing tablet, he wrote, “John is his name.” And they all marveled.

64. Then, instantly, his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he began to speak, praising God.
 65. And fear came on everyone who lived around them, and throughout the hill country of Judea, all these things were talked about.
 66. And everyone who heard these things laid them up in their heart, saying, “What will this child be?” And the hand of the LORD was with him.
 - ¶67. And his father, Zacharias, was filled with holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying,
 68. “Blessed be the LORD, God of Israel, for He has visited and brought redemption to His people!
 69. And He has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of David His servant,
 70. as He spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets from of old,
 71. to bring us salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us,
 72. to perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember His holy covenant,
 73. the oath which He swore to Abraham our father, that He would grant to us
 74. that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might serve Him without fear,
 75. in holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life.
 76. And you, child, shall be called prophet of the most High because you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,
 77. to give knowledge of salvation to His people by the remission of their sins,
 78. through the tender mercy of our God, by which the dawn from on High has visited us,
 79. to give light to those who sit in the darkness and shadow of death, to direct our feet into the path of peace.”
- ¶80. And the child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in desolate places until the day of his showing to Israel.

Luke 2

- ¶1. It came to pass in those days that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus to take a census of the whole empire.
2. (This first census took place when Quirinius was governor of Syria.)
3. And so, everyone began traveling to be registered, each to his own city.
4. Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David,
5. to be registered with Mary, the woman who was betrothed to him and was with child.
6. And it came to pass that while they were there, the days were fulfilled for her to give birth,
7. and she gave birth to her firstborn son, wrapped him in swaddling cloths, and laid him in a manger, since there was no room for them in the inn.

- ¶8. And in the same area were shepherds, staying out in the fields and keeping watch over their flock by night.
9. And behold, an angel of the LORD appeared to them, and the glory of the LORD shone round about them, and they were very afraid.
10. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid! Behold, I am bringing you good news of great joy, which shall be for all the people!
11. For today, in the city of David, a Savior is born unto you who is Messiah and Lord!
12. And this will be the sign for you: you will find the baby wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a manger.”
13. And suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of heaven’s army, praising God and saying,
14. “Glory to God in the highest, and upon earth, peace and good will to men!”
- ¶15. And it came to pass, after the angels went away from them into heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go right now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the LORD has made known to us!”
16. And they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in a manger.
17. And when they had seen them, they made known what had been told them about this child.
18. And everyone who heard them wondered about the things spoken to them by the shepherds.
19. But Mary treasured up all these sayings, pondering them in her heart.
20. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, for it had been just as it was told them.
- ¶21. And when eight days were fulfilled for his circumcision, his name was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.
- ¶22. And when the days were fulfilled for their purification according to the law of Moses, they took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the LORD
23. (as it is written in the law of the LORD, “Every male that opens the matrix shall be called holy to the LORD”),
24. and to offer a sacrifice, as it is said in the law of the LORD, “A pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons.”
25. And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel, and the holy Spirit was upon him.
26. And it had been revealed to him by the holy Spirit that he would not see death before he would see the LORD’s Messiah.

27. And he came by the Spirit to the temple, and the parents brought in the child Jesus to do as was the custom of the law for him,
28. and he took the child into his arms, and blessed God, and said,
29. “Now, Master, let your slave go his way in peace, according to your word,
30. for my eyes have seen your salvation,
31. which you have prepared before the face of all peoples,
32. a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel!”
33. And Joseph and the child’s mother were amazed at the things spoken about him.
34. Then Simeon blessed them, and he said to Mary, his mother, “Behold, this child is appointed for the fall and rising again of many in Israel, and for a sign spoken against—
35. a sword shall pierce even your own soul!—so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.”
36. And Anna the prophetess was there, a daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity,
37. and she was a widow of eighty-four years. She never left the temple, ministering to the LORD with fastings and prayers night and day.
38. And in that hour appearing, she began to praise the LORD and to speak to all those in Jerusalem who were looking for redemption.
39. And when they had completed everything according to the law of the LORD, they returned into Galilee to their own city, Nazareth.
- ¶40. And the child grew and became strong in spirit, full of wisdom, and God’s grace was upon him.
- ¶41. Now, every year, his parents went to Jerusalem for the Feast of Passover.
42. And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, as was the custom for the feast,
43. and the days being completed, the child Jesus remained in Jerusalem when they started back, and Joseph and his mother did not know it,
44. but assuming him to be among those traveling with them, they went a day’s journey, and then began searching for him among their relatives and acquaintances.
45. And when they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem, looking for him.
46. And after three days, it came to pass that they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.
47. And all who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers.
48. And when they saw him, they were overwhelmed, and his mother said to him, “Child, why have you done us like this? Behold, your father and I have been in anguish, looking for you!”

49. And he said to them, “Why were you looking for me? Didn’t you know that I must be about my Father’s business?”
 50. But they did not understand what he said to them.
 51. And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and he was subject to them. And his mother kept all these things in her heart.
- ¶52. And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

Luke 3

- ¶1. In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberias Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being Tetrarch of Galilee, and Philip, his brother, being Tetrarch of the region of Iturea and Trachonitis, and Lysinius being Tetrarch of Abilene,
 2. during the priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.
 3. And he went to all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for remission of sins,
 4. as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet: “A voice crying in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way of the LORD! Make His paths straight!’
 5. Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill, brought low, and the crooked ways shall be straight, and the rough ways, smooth roads,
 6. and all flesh shall see the salvation of GOD!”¹
- ¶7. Then he said to the crowds who were coming out to be baptized by him, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?
8. Bear fruit worthy of repentance, and don’t begin to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones!
 9. Already, the ax is laid at the root of the trees. Every tree, therefore, not bearing good fruit is cut down and cast into the fire!”
 10. And the crowds asked him, saying, “What, then, shall we do?”
 11. He answered and said to them, “He who has two coats, let him share with him who has none, and let him who has food do the same.”
 12. The tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, “Teacher, what shall we do?”
 13. And he said to them, “Exact nothing beyond what has been mandated to you.”

¹ Isa. 40:3–5.

14. And even the soldiers asked him, saying, “What about us? What shall we do?” And he said to them, “Don’t extort money or harass anybody, but be content with your wages.”
- ¶15. Now, the people being in expectation of the Messiah, and everyone wondering in their hearts about John, whether he might be the Messiah,
16. John answered them all, saying, “I baptize you with water, but he who is mightier than I is coming, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. He will baptize you with holy Spirit and fire!
17. His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly clean what he has threshed and will gather the wheat into his storehouse, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire!”
18. And with many other exhortations, he preached to the people.
- ¶19. Now, Herod the tetrarch, being rebuked by him in the matter of Herodius, his brother’s wife, and for all the evils that Herod had done,
20. added this, too, on top of everything: he also locked John up in prison.
- ¶21. And it came to pass that when all the people were being baptized, Jesus was also baptized, and as he was praying, heaven was opened,
22. and the holy Spirit descended in the bodily form of a dove upon him, and a voice from heaven came, saying, “You are my beloved Son; in you, I am well pleased.”
- ¶23. And Jesus himself was about thirty years old, being, as it was thought, the son of Joseph, son of Heli,²
24. the son of Mathat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Janna, the son of Joseph,
25. the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai,
26. the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Simei, the son of Joseph, the son of Judah,
27. the son of Jonan, the son of Rhesah, the son of Zorobabel, the son of Salathiel, the son of Neri,
28. the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Chosam, the son of Elmodam, the son of Ar,
29. the son of Jose, the son of Eliezer, the son of Joram, the son of Mathat, the son of Levi,
30. the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonan, the son of Eliakim,

² Another genealogy for Joseph is given in Matthew 1. One of the genealogies must be Joseph’s genealogy on his mother’s side, beginning with Heli as her father, or Mary’s genealogy. If the latter, then Heli is Mary’s father.

31. the son of Melea, the son of Mainan, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David,
32. the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Naasson,
33. the son of Aminadab, the son of Aram, the son of Esrom, the son of Pharez, the son of Judah,
34. the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Thara, the son of Nahor,
35. the son of Serug, the son of Ragau, the son of Phalek, the son of Heber, the son of Sala,
36. the son of Keinan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Sem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech,
37. the son of Mathusala, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Malaleel, the son of Keinan,
38. the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

Luke 4

- ¶1. Now, Jesus, full of the holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led in the Spirit into the wilderness,
2. being tempted forty days by the Accuser, and he ate nothing during those days, and when they were ended, he was afterward hungry.
3. And the Accuser said to him, “Since you are the son of God,³ command this stone to become bread.”
4. And Jesus answered him, saying, “It is written that ‘Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word of God.’”
5. And then the Accuser, leading him to a high mountain, showed him all the kingdoms of the earth in a moment of time.
6. And the Accuser told him, “To you will I give all this power, and the glory belonging to them, for it has been entrusted to me, and I give it to whomever I will.
7. If you, therefore, fall down and worship before me, it will all be yours.”
8. And Jesus answered him and said, “Get behind me, Satan! It is written, ‘You shall worship the LORD your God, and Him only shall you serve.’”
9. And he brought him to Jerusalem and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and he said to him, “Since you are the son of God, throw yourself down from here,
10. for it is written, ‘He will command His angels concerning you, to protect you,’

³ There is no “the” before the word “son”, though most translations add one. If Satan did actually say “the son of God”, he meant that phrase only as the Jews meant it, that is, as a title for the Messiah. No one, including Satan, yet knew about the pre-existent Son of God, now walking on earth as the man, Jesus.

11. and, ‘They will bear you up with their hands, lest you strike your foot against a stone.’”
 12. And Jesus answered and said to him, “It is said, ‘You shall not put the LORD your God to the test.’”
 13. And after the Accuser had finished every temptation, he departed from him for a season.
 - ¶14. Then Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and news about him went out over the whole region,
 15. and he taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.
 - ¶16. And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and as was his custom, he went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day and stood up to read.
 17. And the scroll of Isaiah the prophet was handed to him. And when he had unrolled the scroll, he found the place where it was written,
 18. “The Spirit of the LORD is upon me because He has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach liberty to those held captive, and recovery of sight to the blind, to send the oppressed away free,
 19. to preach the acceptable year of the LORD.”
 20. And when he had rolled up the scroll and handed it to the attendant, he sat down. And the eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fixed on him.
 21. Then he said to them, “Today, this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing.”
 22. And they all began speaking highly of him, and marveled at the gracious words which proceeded from his mouth, and they were saying, “Isn’t this the son of Joseph?”
 23. Then he said to them, “No doubt, you will say this parable to me: ‘Physician, heal yourself! All those things we heard were done in Capernaum, do here in your home town, too.’”
 24. Then he said, “Truly, I tell you that no prophet is accepted in his own town.
 25. And in truth I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when heaven was shut up for three years and six months and a great famine was upon all the land,
 26. but Elijah was not sent to one of them, but to a widow in Zarephath of Sidon.
 27. And there were many lepers in Israel during the time of Elisha the prophet, but no one among them was cleansed, but Naaman the Syrian was.”
 28. When they heard these things, everybody in the synagogue was filled with rage,
 29. and they rose up and threw him out of the city, and they led him to the brow of the mountain on which their city was built, to throw him off the cliff.
 30. But he passed through their midst, and went away.
- ¶31. And he went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and he was teaching them on the Sabbath,

32. and they were astonished at his teaching because his speech was with authority.
 33. And in the synagogue, there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and it cried out in a loud voice,
 34. saying, “Agh! What have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know you, who you are—the holy one of God!”
 35. But Jesus rebuked it, saying, “Shut up, and come out of him!” And after the demon threw him down in the midst, it came out of him, doing him no harm.
 36. And astonishment came upon all, and they began talking to one another, saying, “What new thing is this, that with authority and power, he commands unclean spirits, and they come out!”
 37. And the report about him was going out everywhere in that region.
- ¶38. When he arose and went out of the synagogue, he entered into the home of Simon, and the mother-in-law of Simon was taken with a high fever, and they besought him for her.
39. And he stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her, and he lifted her up, and right away, she began to wait on them.
- ¶40. Now, as the sun was going down, all who had any suffering from various diseases brought them to him. And he laid hands on each one of them and healed them.
41. And demons came out of many, crying out and saying, “You are the Messiah, the Son of God!” But rebuking them, he would not permit them to say that they knew him to be the Messiah.
- ¶42. Now, when the day was come, he had gone out, and he went to a secluded place, but the multitudes looked for him, and they came to him and held on to him so that he would not leave them.
43. But he said to them, “I have to proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God to other cities, too; that’s why I’ve been sent.”
- ¶44. And so, he continued preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

Luke 5

- ¶1. Now, it came to pass that as the people pressed on him to hear the word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret,
2. and he saw two boats moored at the edge of the lake, and the fishermen had gotten out of them and were washing their nets.
3. And when he had climbed into one of the boats, which was Simon’s, he asked him to push off a bit from land. And then he sat down and started teaching the multitudes from the boat.

4. And when he finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch.”
 5. And Simon answered and said to him, “Master, we labored the whole night through and caught nothing, but I’ll do as you say and lower the net.”
 6. And when they had done this, they closed in a large number of fish, and their nets began to tear.
 7. And so, they signaled their partners who were in the other boat to come help them, and they came, and they filled both boats so full that they began to sink.
 8. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Sir, get away from me; I’m a sinful man!”
 9. For astonishment at the catch of fish that they had taken had seized him and all those with him,
 10. and likewise both James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon.
Then Jesus said to Simon, “Don’t be afraid. From now on, you’ll be catching men.”
 11. And when they brought the boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.
- ¶12. And it came to pass that while he was in one of the cities, behold, a man covered with leprosy was there. And when he had seen Jesus, falling on his face, he begged him, saying, “Sir, if you want to, you can make me clean.”
13. And he stretched forth his hand and touched him, and said, “I do want to. Be clean!”
And the leprosy immediately departed from him.
 14. And he ordered him to tell no one, but, “Leave! Show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift for your cleansing, just as Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.”
 15. But the word about him spread all the more, and large multitudes came together to hear him and be healed of their diseases by him.
 16. But he would frequently withdraw to desolate places, and pray.
- ¶17. And it came to pass on one of those days that he was teaching, and Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there who were come from every village of Galilee, and from Judea and Jerusalem. And the power of the LORD was there to heal them.
18. And, behold, some men were carrying on a little bed a man who was paralyzed, and they kept looking for a way to bring him in and set him in front of him.
 19. And when they found no way to bring him in because of the crowd, they climbed up on the roof and lowered him, with the little bed, through the tiles and into the midst, in front of Jesus.
 20. And seeing their faith, he told him, “Man, your sins are forgiven you.”
 21. And the scribes and Pharisees began to reason, saying, “Who is this man who is speaking blasphemies? Who, except God only, can forgive sins?”

22. Then Jesus, perceiving their reasonings, answered and said to them, “Why are you reasoning in your hearts?
 23. Which is easier? to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’?
 24. But so that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins”— he told the paralytic, “I tell you to get up, and take up your bed and go home.”
 25. And at once, he stood up before them, and picking up what he had been lying on, he went away to his house, glorifying God.
 26. And astonishment gripped them all, and they began glorifying God. And they were filled with awe, saying, “We have seen incredible things today!”
- ¶27. And after these things, he went out, and he noticed a tax collector by the name of Levi sitting at the tax station, and he told him, “You follow me.”
28. And so, leaving everything behind, he rose up and followed him.
 29. And Levi made a great reception for him in his house, and a large crowd of tax collectors was there, and there were others who were reclining at table with them.
 30. But their scribes and the Pharisees began complaining to his disciples, saying, “What are you eating and drinking with tax collectors and sinners for?”
 31. And Jesus answered and told them, “Those who are healthy don’t need a physician, but those who are sick.
 32. I haven’t come to call the righteous to repentance, but sinners.”
 33. Then they said to him, “Why is it that the disciples of John, and those of the Pharisees as well, fast frequently and make prayers, but those who belong to you eat and drink?”
 34. He said to them, “You can’t make the bridegroom’s attendants fast while the bridegroom is with them, can you?
 35. But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken from them; then, in those days, they’ll fast.”
 36. Then he also told them a parable: “No one puts a patch from a new garment onto an old garment; otherwise, the new also makes a tear and that patch from the new doesn’t fit the old.
 37. And no one pours new wine into old wineskins; otherwise, the new wine will burst the wineskins and be spilled, and the wineskins will be ruined.
 38. Instead, new wine is poured into new wineskins, and both are preserved.
 39. No one wants new wine immediately after drinking the old, for he says, ‘The old is better.’”

- ¶1. Now, it came to pass during the second Sabbath after the first⁴ that he passed through the grain fields, and his disciples were plucking and eating heads of grain, rubbing them with their hands.
2. But certain of the Pharisees told them, “Why are you doing what is not lawful to do on Sabbath days?”
3. And Jesus replied to them and said, “Have you not even read this, what David did the time he was hungry, he and those who were with him,
4. that he entered into the house of God, and took and ate the bread of the Presence, and he even gave some to those with him, which isn’t lawful to eat, except for the priests alone?”
5. Then he said to them, “The Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath.”
- ¶6. Now, it came to pass on a different Sabbath that he entered again into the synagogue and taught, and there was a man there, and his right hand was withered.
7. And the scribes and the Pharisees were watching closely to see if he would heal on the Sabbath, that they might find an accusation against him.
8. But he knew their thoughts, and he said to the man who had the withered hand, “Get up, and stand in the midst!” And he arose and stood there.
9. Jesus then said to them, “I am going to ask you something. Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath or to do harm? To save life or to kill?”
10. And when he had looked around on them all, he said to him, “Stretch out your hand!” So he did, and his hand was restored, as healthy as the other one.
11. But they were filled with madness, and they began discussing with one another what they might do to Jesus.
- ¶12. Now it came to pass in those days that he went out to a mountain to pray, and he was in prayer to God throughout the night.
13. And when it was day, he summoned his disciples, and from them he chose twelve, to whom he gave the name, “apostles”:
14. Simon, whom he also named “Peter”, and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew,
15. Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon who is called “the Patriot”,
16. Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who also was the betrayer.
17. And when he had come down with them, he stood on a level place with a multitude of his disciples, as well as a great number of people from all Judea, and Jerusalem, and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases,

⁴ Literally, “a second-first Sabbath”, but the meaning of that is unclear.

18. and those vexed by unclean spirits were also being healed.
19. And the whole multitude kept trying to touch him, for power came from him and healed them all.
- ¶20. And when he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, he said, “Blessed are you who are poor in spirit, for the kingdom of God is yours.
- ¶21. “Blessed are you who hunger now, for you shall be filled. Blessed are you who are weeping now, for you shall laugh.
- ¶22. “Blessed are you when men hate you and when they exclude you, and revile and cast out your name as evil for the sake of the Son of man.
23. Rejoice in that day, and dance! Behold, your reward is great in heaven! For their fathers used to do such things to the prophets.
- ¶24. “Oh, but woe to you who are rich, for you have received all your comfort!
- ¶25. “Woe to you who are full, for you shall hunger! Woe to you who are laughing now, for you shall mourn and weep!
- ¶26. “Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for their fathers used to do such things to the false prophets!
- ¶27. “Nevertheless, I say to you who hear, love your enemies; do good to those who hate you;
28. bless those who curse you; pray for those who mistreat you.
29. To him who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other one, too, and from him who takes away your cloak, don’t withhold your tunic, also.
30. Give to everyone who asks of you, and from him who takes your possessions, don’t ask for them back.
31. Just as you would that men should do to you, do the same also to them.
32. If you love those who love you, what thanks is due you? Even sinners love those who love them.
33. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what thanks is due you? Even sinners do that.
34. And what thanks is due you if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive? Even sinners lend to sinners so that they might be repaid as much.

35. But love your enemies, and do good and lend, expecting nothing in return, and then your reward shall be great, and you shall be sons of the Highest, for He is gracious to the ungrateful and evil.
 36. So, be merciful, even as your Father is merciful.
 37. And stop judging, and you'll never be judged. Don't condemn, and you'll never be condemned. Forgive, and you'll be forgiven.
 38. Give, and it shall be given to you, good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and overflowing, shall men give into your bosom. By the same measure by which you measure, it shall be measured to you again."
- ¶39. Then he spoke a parable to them: "A blind man can't guide a blind man, can he? Won't they both fall into a pit?
40. A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone who is perfected shall be like his teacher.
 41. Why do you look at the speck that is in your brother's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye?
 42. Or how can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye,' when you yourself don't see the beam in your own eye? Hypocrite! First, take the beam out of your eye, and then you'll see clearly to take out the speck that's in your brother's eye!
 43. Now, a good tree doesn't bear bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit.
 44. Each tree is known by its own fruit. Men don't gather figs from thornbushes, nor do they harvest grapes from a briar bush.
 45. A good man brings forth what is good out of the good treasure in his heart, and an evil man brings forth what is evil out of the evil treasure in his heart, for out of the abundance of the heart, his mouth speaks.
- ¶46. "Why do you call me, 'Master! Master!' but don't do what I say?
47. Everyone who comes to me, and hears my words and does them, I will show you who he is like.
 48. He is like a man building a house, who dug and went deep, and laid a foundation on the rock. Then, when a flood came, the river pounded against that house, but it could not shake it, for it had been founded on the rock.
 49. But he who heard my words and did not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation, which the river pounded, and immediately it fell, and the collapse of that house was great."

- ¶1. When he had finished all his sayings in the hearing of the people, he went into Capernaum.
- ¶2. And a certain centurion had a slave who was sick and about to die, who was dear to him.
3. And when he heard about Jesus, he sent elders of the Jews to him, since he had come, asking that he would come and heal his slave.
4. And when they came to Jesus, they entreated him earnestly, saying, “The man is worthy to have this done for him,
5. for he loves our nation; he even built the synagogue for us.”
6. Then Jesus went with them; however, when he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him to tell him, “Sir, trouble yourself no further, for I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof,
7. nor did I consider myself worthy to come to you. Instead, speak the word, and my boy will be healed.
8. For I, myself, am also a man set under authority, with soldiers under me. And I say to this one, ‘Go! ’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come! ’ and he comes, and to my slave, ‘Do this! ’ and he does it.”
9. Now when Jesus heard these words, it amazed him, and turning to the multitude that was following him, he said, “I tell you, I have not found in Israel such great faith.”
10. And when those who were sent returned to the house, they found the slave who was sick in good health.
- ¶11. And the next day, he went to a town called Nain, and many of his disciples went with him, as well as a large multitude.
12. And as he neared the town gate, then behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow, and a sizable crowd from the town was with her.
13. And seeing her, the Lord felt compassion for her, and said to her, “Don’t cry.”
14. Then he came and touched the bier, and those bearing it stood still. And he said, “Young man, I say to you, get up.”
15. And the dead man sat up and began to talk. And Jesus gave him to his mother.
16. Then fear gripped them all, and they glorified God, saying, “A great prophet has arisen among us!” and, “God has visited His people!”
17. And this report about him spread through the whole of Judea, and in all the surrounding area.
- ¶18. And John’s disciples told John about all these things.
19. And John, summoning two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, “Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for another?”

20. So when the men came to him, they said, “John the Baptizer sent us to you saying, ‘Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for another man?’”
 21. And in that same hour, he healed many of their diseases, and afflictions, and evil spirits, and he gave to many blind people their sight.
 22. Then Jesus answered and said to them, “Go tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind see again, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor are given good news.
 23. And blessed is whoever is not offended by me.”
- ¶24. Now, when John’s messengers were gone away, he began to say to the multitudes about John, “What have you gone out to the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?
25. But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft garments? Behold, those who are in splendid clothes and live in luxury are in kings’ palaces!
 26. But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet.
 27. This is he of whom it is written, ‘Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face, who shall prepare your way before you!’
 28. For I tell you, among those born of women, there has arisen no greater prophet than John the Baptizer; and yet, the least one in the kingdom of God is greater than he.”
 29. (And when all the people heard that, including the tax collectors, they justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John,
 30. but the Pharisees and the experts in the law rejected the plan of God for themselves, not being baptized by him.)
31. “To what, then, shall I compare the men of this generation? And what are they like?
32. They are like children who are sitting in the marketplace and calling out to one another, and saying, ‘We played the flute for you, but you didn’t dance! We sang a dirge for you, but you didn’t weep.’
 33. For John the Baptizer has come, neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, ‘He has a demon,’
 34. and the Son of man has come, both eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Behold, a gluttonous man and a drunkard! A friend of tax collectors and sinners!’
 35. But wisdom is justified by all her children.”
- ¶36. Now, a certain man, one of the Pharisees, asked him to eat with him. And so, he went to the Pharisee’s house and reclined at table.

37. And behold, a woman of the city who was a sinner, having learned that he was reclining at table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster flask of perfume.
38. And as she stood behind, at his feet, crying, she began to wet his feet with the tears, and she wiped them dry with the hair of her head, and then she tenderly kissed his feet and anointed them with the perfume.
39. Seeing this, the Pharisee who had invited him said in himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would know who and what kind of woman this is who is touching him, that she is a sinner."
40. Then Jesus answered and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he said, "Teacher, say on."
41. "There were two men in debt to a certain lender. The one owed five hundred denarii, and the other, fifty.
42. When they had nothing to pay, he freely forgave them both. So now, tell me, which of them will love him more?"
43. Simon answered and said, "I suppose the one to whom he forgave the more." He said to him, "You have judged rightly."
44. And then, turning to the woman, he said to Simon, "See this woman? When I came into your home, you provided no water for my feet, but she washed my feet with tears and dried them with the hair of her head.
45. You gave me no kiss, but she, from the time I came in, has not stopped kissing my feet.
46. You didn't anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with perfume.
47. I tell you, it is because her sins, which are many, have been forgiven that she has loved much, but the one who is forgiven a little, loves a little."
48. Then he said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."
49. But those reclining with him at table began to say among themselves, "Who is this that even forgives sins?"
50. But he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

Luke 8

- ¶1. And so it was that he traveled about, through city and village, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God, and the twelve were with him,
2. as well as certain women who had been delivered from evil spirits and sicknesses: Mary who is called the Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out,
3. Joanna the wife of Chouza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many other women, who ministered to them from their own possessions.

- ¶4. And when a large crowd was gathering, and folk were coming from every city to him, he said by a parable,
5. “The sower went out to sow his seed, and as he sowed, it fell along the path and was trampled on, and the birds of the air gobbled it up.
 6. And different seed fell on rock, and after it came up, it withered because it had no moisture.
 7. And different seed fell in the midst of thorns, and the thorns, springing up with it, choked it out.
 8. And different seed fell into good soil, and when it was grown up, it yielded fruit, a hundredfold.” When he said these things, he cried aloud, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”
- ¶9. Then his disciples began questioning him, saying, “What does this parable mean?”
10. And he said, “To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest, everything is in parables in order that ‘seeing, they might not see, and hearing, they might not understand.’
 11. Now, this is the parable. The seed is the word of God.
 12. The ones along the path are those who hear, but then the Accuser comes and takes the word away from their heart, lest they believe and be saved.
 13. But the ones on rock are the ones who, when they have heard it, welcome the word with joy, but these have no root. They believe for a time, and yet, in time of trial they fall away.
 14. But as for the seeds that fell among the thorns, these are they who, having heard the word, go their way and are choked out by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and they don’t bear fruit to maturity.
 15. But as for that which fell on good soil, these are they who, having heard the word with a sincere and good heart, cling to it and bear fruit with patience.
- ¶16. “No one, having lit a lamp, covers it with a vessel or puts it under a bed; on the contrary, he puts it on a lampstand so that those who come in might see the light.
17. For there is nothing secret that shall not be revealed, nor concealed that shall not be made known and come to light.
 18. Take heed, then, how you hear. For whoever has, it shall be given to him, and whoever does not have, even what he seems to have shall be taken away from him.”
- ¶19. Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but they were not able to reach him because of the crowd.
20. And it was told him, “Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you.”

21. But he answered and said to them, “My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it.”
- ¶22. And it came to pass on one of those days that he boarded a boat with his disciples and said to them, “Let’s go over to the other side of the lake.” So they set sail.
23. And as they sailed, he dropped off to sleep, and a great windstorm descended on the lake, and they began to be swamped and were in danger.
24. So they went to him and woke him up, saying, “Master! Master! We’re about to die!” Then, getting up, he rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and there was a great calm.
25. Then he said to them, “Where is your faith?” But they were afraid and amazed, saying to one another, “Who in the world is this man, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him!”
- ¶26. And they sailed down to the territory of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee.
27. Then, when he got out onto the shore, a certain man from the city met him who for a long time had been possessed by demons; he wore no clothes, and he did not live in a house but among the tombs.
28. And seeing Jesus, he cried out and fell before him, and with a loud voice, he said, “What have I to do with you, Jesus, Son of the highest God? I beg you, don’t torment me!”
29. (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man.) Now, many times it had seized him, and he was put under guard, bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into desolate places.
30. Then Jesus asked him, saying, “What is your name?” Then he said, “Legion”, because many demons had entered into him.
31. And he implored him that he would not command them to go away into the Abyss.
32. Now, there was a large herd of swine there, feeding on the mountain, and so, they began pleading with him that he would permit them to enter into them. And he gave them permission.
33. Then, when the demons had come out of the man, they entered into the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep slope into the lake, and drowned.
34. And seeing what had happened, the herdsmen fled, and in the city and in the countryside, they reported everything.
35. Then they came out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had gone out sitting at Jesus’ feet, clothed and in a right mind, and they were afraid.
36. And those who had seen how the demon-possessed man was set free told them,

37. and the whole multitude from the territory of the Gadarenes asked him to go away from them because they were seized with a great fear. So, he boarded the boat and went back.
38. Now, the man from whom the demons had gone out kept asking to be with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying,
39. “Go back home and tell what things God did for you.” And so, he went away, proclaiming throughout the city what things Jesus did for him.
- ¶40. Now, it came to pass, when Jesus returned, that the people welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him.
41. And behold, a man came whose name was Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue, and falling down at Jesus’ feet, he begged him to come to his house,
42. for he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, and she was dying. And as he went along, the multitudes were pressing hard on him.
- ¶43. And there was a woman who had lived with a discharge of blood for twelve years, who, though she had spent all her living on physicians, could not be healed by anyone.
44. She came up from behind and touched the tassel of his garment, and at once, her discharge of blood stopped.
45. And Jesus said, “Who was touching me?” And when all denied doing it, Peter and those with him said, “Master, the multitudes are crowding in and pressing on you, and you say, ‘Who was touching me?’”
46. But Jesus said, “Somebody touched me, for I felt power go out from me.”
47. Then, when the woman realized that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she told him in front of all the people the reason she had touched him and how she had been instantly healed.
48. And he said to her, “Take heart, daughter. Your faith has made you whole. Go in peace.”
- ¶49. While he was still speaking, someone from the house of the synagogue ruler came, saying to him, “Your daughter has died. Don’t bother the Teacher any more.”
50. But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, “Don’t be afraid. Just believe, and she will be healed.”
51. Then, when he went into the home, he allowed no one to enter except Peter, John, and James, and the father and mother of the child.
52. And everyone was weeping and beating their breast for her, but he said, “Stop crying. She isn’t dead; she’s sleeping.”
53. And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead.

54. But after putting them all outside, and then taking her hand, he spoke, saying, “Child, rise up!”
55. Then her spirit returned, and she stood up at once. And he ordered that something be given her to eat.
56. And her parents were beside themselves, but he charged them to tell no one what had happened.

Luke 9

- ¶1. Now, when he had called the twelve together, he gave them power and authority over all demons and to heal diseases.
2. And then he sent them out to preach the kingdom of God and to heal the sick.
3. And he said to them, “Take nothing for the journey, neither staves, nor a bag, nor bread, nor silver, nor yet have two tunics.
4. And into whichever house you enter, stay there, and leave from that place.
5. And whosoever will not receive you, when you leave that city, shake even the dust from off your feet as a testimony against them.”
6. Then, going out, they passed through village after village, declaring the good news and healing everywhere.
- ¶7. Now, Herod the tetrarch heard about all the things being done by him, and he was perplexed because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead,
8. and by some that Elijah had appeared, but by others that one of the ancient prophets had arisen.
9. But Herod said, “John I beheaded; so, who is this man concerning whom I hear such things?” And he wanted to see him.
- ¶10. And when the apostles returned, they gave him a detailed account of the things they had done. Then, taking them with him, he withdrew to a secluded place near the city called Bethsaida.
11. When the multitudes learned of it, they followed him, but he welcomed them, telling them about the kingdom of God and healing those who needed healing.
- ¶12. Then the day began to wane, and the twelve approached and told him, “Send the multitude away so they may go to the surrounding towns and villages and find lodging and provisions because we’re in an isolated place here.”
13. But he said to them, “You give them something to eat.” But they said, “There is no more than five loaves and two fish among us, unless we go buy food for all these people.”
14. (There were about five thousand men.) But he said to his disciples, “Set them down in companies of fifty to eat.”

15. And they did so, and they all sat for a meal.
16. Then, when he had taken the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up toward heaven, blessed them and broke them into pieces, and began giving the pieces to the disciples to be set before the multitude.
17. And they ate, and were all filled. And what remained of the broken pieces was taken up by them, twelve small baskets.
- ¶18. And it came to pass that while he was alone praying, the disciples joined him, and he put a question to them, saying, “Who are the crowds saying I am?”
19. And answering, they said, “John the Baptizer, but others say Elijah, and others, ‘Some prophet of ancient times has risen.’”
20. Then he asked them, “And you? Who do you say I am?” Peter answered and said, “God’s Messiah!”
21. But he gave them warning and ordered them to tell this to no one,
22. saying, “The Son of man must suffer many things, and be repudiated by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day, to rise again.”
23. And he told them all, “If anyone wants to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me!
24. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake, he will save it.
25. For how does a man benefit if he has gained the whole world but he himself is lost, or his soul forfeited?
26. Whoever is ashamed of me and my words, of him will the Son of man be ashamed when he comes in his glory, and that of the Father and of the holy angels.
27. But I tell you truthfully, there are some of those who are standing here who will not taste of death until they see the kingdom of God.”
- ¶28. Now, it was about eight days after these things, and taking Peter, and John, and James, he went up on the mountain to pray.
29. And as he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothing became glistening white.
30. And, behold, two men were talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah,
31. who appeared in glory, speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish in Jerusalem.
32. And Peter and those with him were heavy with sleep, but when they awoke, they saw his glory and the two men who were standing by him.
33. And as they were being taken away from him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here, and we will make three tabernacles; one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah” (not knowing what he was saying).

34. But as he spoke these things, a cloud appeared and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud.

35. And there was voice from the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him!"

36. And after the voice came, Jesus was found alone. And in those days, they kept silent and told no one a thing about what they had seen.

¶37. Now, it came to pass on the next day, when they came down from the mountain, that a large crowd met him.

38. And behold, a man from the crowd cried out, saying, "Teacher, I beg you, look upon my son! He is my only child!"

39. And, behold, a spirit takes him, and all of a sudden he screams, and it convulses him, with foaming at the mouth, and it mauls him, and it hardly ever leaves him!

40. And I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they weren't able."

41. Then Jesus answered and said, "O faithless and perverse generation! How long shall I continue with you and put up with you! Bring your son here, to me!"

42. And as he was coming, the demon threw him down, and he went into a convulsion. Then Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

43. And everyone was in awe at the majesty of God.

¶But while they were all marveling at all the things Jesus did, he said to his disciples,

44. "Let these words sink down into your ears! The Son of man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men!"

45. But they did not understand this saying, and it was hidden from them so that they should not comprehend it, and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

¶46. And there arose an argument among them as to which of them would be the greatest.

47. But Jesus, knowing the thoughts of their heart, took a little child and stood it by him,

48. and he said to them, "Whoever receives this child in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me receives the One who sent me. For the one who is least among you all, he shall be great."

¶49. Then John answered and said, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, but we stopped him because he's not following with us."

50. Then Jesus said to him, "Don't hinder him, for he who isn't against us is for us."

¶51. Now, when the time for him to be taken up was come, he resolutely set his face to go to Jerusalem.

52. And he sent messengers before his face, and they went and entered into a village of the Samaritans to make preparations for him.

53. But they did not welcome him because his face was set on Jerusalem.

54. Seeing this, his disciples James and John said, “Master, do you want us to call for fire to come down from heaven, the way Elijah did, and destroy them?”
 55. But turning around, he rebuked them and said, “You don’t know what kind of spirit you are of!
 56. The Son of man didn’t come to destroy men’s lives, but to save them.” And so, they traveled on to another village.
- ¶57. Now, it came to pass that as they were walking along on the road, someone said to him, “I will follow you wherever you go, Master.”
58. But Jesus told him, “The foxes have dens, and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head.”
 59. And he said to another, “Follow me.” But he said, “Master, allow me to go bury my father first.”
 60. Then Jesus said to him, “Let the dead bury their dead; you go spread the news of the kingdom of God!”
 61. Yet another man said, “I will follow you, Master, but first, permit me to bid farewell to those in my house.”
 62. But Jesus said to him, “No one putting his hand to the plow, and then looking at what is behind, is fit for the kingdom of God.”

Luke 10

- ¶1. After these things, the Lord also appointed seventy others and sent them out in pairs before his face into every city and place where he himself was about to go.
2. Then he began to tell them, “The harvest is certainly great, but the workers are few. So, pray to the LORD of the harvest, that He might send workers out into His harvest.
3. Be on your way. Behold, I am sending you away as lambs in the midst of wolves.
4. Don’t take along a money pouch, or a bag, or sandals, and greet no one along the way.
5. Into whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace to this house.’
6. And if a man of peace be there, your peace will rest upon it, but if not, then it will come back on you.
7. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they have, for the worker is worthy of his pay. Don’t move about from house to house.
8. And into whichever city you enter, and they receive you, eat what is set before you,
9. and heal those in that city who are sick, and tell them, ‘The kingdom of God is come upon you!’
10. But into whatever city you enter and they do not receive you, go out into its streets and say,

11. ‘Even the dust of your city that clings to us, we wipe off against you! But know this, that the kingdom of God is come upon you!’
 12. I tell you, for Sodom in that day, it will be more tolerable than for that city.
 13. Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have long ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.
 14. Nevertheless, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the Judgment than for you!
 15. And you, O Capernaum, the city exalted up to heaven! You shall be brought down to Hades!
 16. He who hears you, hears me, and he who rejects you, rejects me. But he who rejects me, rejects Him who sent me.’
- ¶17. And the seventy returned with joy, saying, “Master, even the demons are subject to us through your name.”
18. But he said to them, “I watched Satan falling like lightning out of heaven.
 19. Behold, I am giving you authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing will by any means harm you.
 20. Still, do not rejoice in this, that spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.
- ¶21. In that same hour, Jesus rejoiced in spirit and said, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the learned and intelligent, and revealed them to babes. Yes, Father! For such was pleasing in your sight.”
22. And then he turned to the disciples and said, “All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son, and he to whom the Son may choose to reveal Him.”
 23. And then, turning to the disciples, he said privately, “Blessed are the eyes that see the things you’re seeing.
 24. For I tell you, many prophets and kings wanted to see the things you’re seeing, but didn’t see them, and to hear the things you’re hearing, but didn’t hear them.”
- ¶25. Then a certain expert in the law rose up, putting him to the test, and saying, “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”
26. And he said to him, “What is written in the law? How do you read it?”
 27. And he answered and said, “Love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.”

28. And he said to him, “You have answered rightly. Do this, and you will live.”
 29. But he, wanting to justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”
 30. Then Jesus took up on this and said, “A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, but he fell among thieves who, after they had both stripped and beaten him, went away, leaving him as he was, half dead.
 31. Now, by chance, a certain priest was coming down that road and, when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side.
 32. Likewise, a Levite also came to that place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side.
 33. But a certain Samaritan on a journey came upon him, and he was moved with compassion when he saw him.
 34. And going to him, he bound up his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. And putting him on his own beast, he took him to an inn and cared for him.
 35. And as he was leaving the next morning, pulling out two denarii, he gave them to the innkeeper and said to him, ‘Take care of him, and whatever else you might spend, I will repay you on my return.’
 36. Now then, which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell among the thieves?”
 37. And he said, “The one who showed him mercy.” Then Jesus said to him, “You go, and do the same.”
- ¶38. And it came to pass, as they went on their way, that he entered into a certain village, and a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house.
39. She had a sister named Mary, who also sat at Jesus 'feet, listening to his message,
 40. but Martha was distracted with much serving. Then she stopped and said, “Master, don't you care that my sister has left me alone to serve? Tell her that she should help me!”
 41. But Jesus answered and said to her, “Martha, Martha, you worry and get upset about many things,
 42. but one thing is necessary, and Mary has chosen that good part, which will not be taken from her.”

Luke 11

- ¶1. Now, as he was praying in a certain place, when he finished, one of his disciples said to him, “Master, teach us to pray, the way John taught his disciples.”
2. And he said to them, “When you pray, say, ‘Our Father who is in heaven, hallowed be your name. Let your kingdom come! Let your will be done on earth as it is done in heaven!

3. Give us each day our daily bread,
 4. and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves also forgive everyone indebted to us. And don't lead us into temptation, but deliver us from the Evil One.”
- ¶5. And then he said to them, “Which of you has a friend, and will go to him at midnight and say to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves because a friend on a journey has come to me, and I have nothing to offer him’?
6. And from inside, he answers and says, ‘Don't bother me. The door is already closed, and my children are with me in bed. I can't get up to give you bread.’
 7. I tell you that even though he will not rise and give him bread because he is his friend, yet, because of his importunity, he will get up and give him whatever he needs.
 8. So, I say to you, ask, and it shall be given to you; seek, and you shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you.
 9. For everyone who asks receives; and he who seeks, finds; and to him who knocks, it shall be opened.
 10. What father among you, when a son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or also a fish, he won't give him a snake instead of a fish, will he?
 11. Or if he asks for an egg, will he give him a scorpion?
 12. If you, then, being evil, know to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father who is in heaven give the holy Spirit to those who ask Him?”
- ¶14. And he was casting out a demon, and it was dumb, but it came to pass that when the demon had gone out, the dumb man spoke. And the people marveled,
15. but some of them said, “He casts out demons by Beelzebul, ruler of the demons.”
 16. And others, testing him, sought from him a sign out of heaven.
 17. But knowing their thoughts, he said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and a house divided against a house falls.
 18. And if Satan be divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand, since you say I am casting out demons by Beelzebul?
 19. Furthermore, if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore, they shall be your judges.
 20. But if I cast out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God is now upon you!
 21. When a fully armed strong man guards his house, his possessions are safe,
 22. but when a stronger than he attacks and overcomes him, he takes away all his armor that he trusted in and divvies up his plunder.
 23. He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters.

24. When the unclean spirit comes out of a man, it passes through dry places seeking rest, and finding none, it says, ‘I’ll return to my house that I came out of.’
 25. And when it comes, it finds the house swept and decorated.
 26. Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they come and dwell there. And so, the last state of that man is worse than the first.”
- ¶27. Now, it came to pass that as he was saying these things, a certain woman in the crowd lifted up her voice and said to him, “Blessed is the womb that bore you and the breasts which you nursed!”
28. But he said, “Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God, and obey it!”
- ¶29. Now, as the crowds were increasing, he began to say, “This is an evil generation. It seeks a sign, but no sign shall be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet.
30. For just as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of man be to this generation.
 31. The Queen of the South will rise up in the Judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, but, behold, something greater than Solomon is here.
 32. The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the Judgment against this generation and condemn it because they repented at the preaching of Jonah, but, behold, something greater than Jonah is here.”
- ¶33. “No one, having lit a lamp, puts it in a secret place or under a basket, but on a lampstand, so that those who come in might see the light.
34. The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, whenever your eye is single, your whole body is also full of light, but as soon as it becomes evil, then your body also is dark.
 35. Take heed, then, lest the light in you become darkness.
 36. If your whole body is full of light, not having any part darkened, it will be completely illuminated, as when a lamp gives you light with its brightness.”
- ¶37. And as he spoke, a certain Pharisee asked him to dine with him, and he went in and reclined at table.
38. And the Pharisee marveled when he saw that he did not first wash before dinner.
 39. Then the Lord said to him, “Nowadays, you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and the dish, but your insides are full of extortion and wickedness.
 40. Fools! Didn’t the One who made the outside also make the inside?
 41. But rather, give alms from what is within, and everything about you will then be clean.”

- ¶42. “But woe to you Pharisees! You tithe the mint and the rue, and every other herb, but you pass over the justice and the love of God! You must do these things, and not leave those off!
 - 43. Woe to you Pharisees! You love the seat of honor in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces.
 - 44. Woe to you scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! You’re like unmarked graves, and the men walking over them don’t realize it.”
- ¶45. Then one of the experts in the law answered and said to him, “Teacher, in saying these things, you reproach even us.”
- 46. But he said, “Woe to you experts in the law, as well! You load people with burdens hard to bear, but you yourselves don’t touch the same burdens with one of your fingers!
 - 47. Woe to you! You build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.
 - 48. So then, you bear witness against yourselves, that you condone the deeds of your fathers, for they killed them, and you build their sepulchres!
 - 49. This is also why the wisdom of God said, ‘I will send them prophets and apostles, and they will kill and persecute some of them,⁵
 - 50. in order that all the blood of all the prophets shed since the foundation of the world may be required of this generation,
 - 51. from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the temple. Yes, I tell you, it shall be required of this generation!
 - 52. Woe to you experts in the law! You took away the key of knowledge! You yourselves don’t enter in, and you hinder those who are entering.”
- ¶53. As he was saying these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be very hostile and to provoke him to talk about more things,
- 54. lying in wait for him, trying to catch him in something from his mouth so that they might accuse him.

Luke 12

- ¶1. Meanwhile, when so many thousands of people had gathered together that they were trampling one another, he began to say to his disciples first of all, “Keep yourselves away from the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.
- 2. There is nothing concealed that will not be revealed, or secret that will not be made known.

⁵ This statement is not found in the Old Testament books as we have them.

3. Therefore, whatever you say in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.
 4. I tell you, my friends, don't fear those who kill the body, but after that, have nothing more they can do.
 5. But I will warn you whom you should fear. Fear Him who, after He has killed, has power to cast into Gehenna. Oh, I tell you, fear Him!
 6. Aren't five sparrows sold for two assarii,⁶ and yet not one of them is forgotten before God.
 7. Why, even the hairs of your head have all been numbered! So don't be afraid; you're more valuable than many sparrows.
 8. And I tell you, whoever confesses in me before men, the Son of man will also confess in him before the angels of God,
 9. but he who denies me before men will also be denied before the angels of God.
 10. And everyone who will speak a word against the Son of man, it will be forgiven him, but he who blasphemes the holy Spirit will not be forgiven.
 11. Now, when you're brought before the synagogues, and the rulers, and the authorities, don't be anxious about how or what you might offer in defense of yourselves, or what you should say,
 12. for the holy Spirit will teach you at that very moment what needs to be said."
- ¶13. Then someone from the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me!"
14. But he said to him, "Man, who appointed me judge or arbitrator between you?"
 15. Then he said to them, "Watch out, and keep yourselves from covetousness. For a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions."
 16. And he spoke a parable to them, saying, "A certain rich man's land produced an abundant crop,
 17. and he thought to himself, 'What am I to do, since I have nowhere to store my crops?'
 18. Then he said, 'I'll do this. I'll pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and store all my produce and my goods there.'
 19. And then I will say to my soul, 'O soul, you have many goods laid up for many years. Relax. Eat, drink, and enjoy yourself!'
 20. But God said to him, 'Foolish man! Tonight, they are demanding your soul from you! Now, whose will be the things you have prepared?'

⁶ An assarius was a Roman coin worth 1/10 of a denarius, which was a day's wage for a laborer.

21. This is how it is with the one who lays up treasure for himself but is not rich toward God.”

¶22. Then he told his disciples, “This is why I say to you, don’t be anxious about your life, what you will eat, neither for the body, what you will wear.

23. Life is more than food, and the body, more than clothing.

24. Consider the ravens, that they neither sow nor reap, which have neither storeroom nor barn, and yet, God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than birds!

25. Who among you by worrying can add a single minute to his lifespan?

26. So, if you cannot do even the smallest thing, why do you worry about the rest?

27. Consider the lilies, how they grow. They neither labor nor spin, but I tell you, not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed like one of these.

28. And if God clothes the grass in the field like this, which is here today, but tomorrow is thrown into a furnace, how much more will He clothe you, little-faiths?

29. So stop seeking after what you’ll eat or what you’ll drink, and stop your worrying.

30. For all the Gentiles in the world seek after these things, but your Father knows that you need these things.

31. You seek, instead, the kingdom of God, and all these things will be added to you.

32. Don’t be afraid, little flock; your Father is very pleased to give you the kingdom.

33. Sell your possessions and give alms. Make yourselves moneybags that don’t grow old, an unfailing treasure in heaven where no thief comes near, nor a moth destroys,

34. for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

¶35. “Keep your loins girded and your lamps burning.

36. Be like men waiting for their master to return from a wedding, so that when he comes and knocks, they open to him immediately.

37. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds watching when he comes! Truly, I say to you that he will gird himself and have them to recline at table, and will come by and serve them.

38. And if he comes in the second watch, or if he comes in the third watch, and finds them so doing, those servants are blessed.

39. But this you know, that if the steward of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched and would not have left his house to be broken into.

40. So then, you be ready, for at an hour you don’t expect, the Son of man is coming!”

¶41. Then Peter said to him, “Master, are you speaking this parable to us, or to everybody?”

42. And the Lord said, “Who, then, is a faithful and prudent steward, whom the master will put in charge over his servants to issue rations at the appropriate time?

43. Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes.
 44. Truly, I tell you that he will set him over all his possessions.
 45. But if that servant says in his heart, ‘My master is delaying his coming,’ and begins to beat the men servants and women servants, and to eat and drink and get drunk,
 46. the master of that servant will show up on a day that he doesn’t expect, and in an hour that he doesn’t know, and he will cut him off⁷ and appoint Him his portion with the unbelieving.
 47. That servant who knew his master’s will but did not prepare nor do his will shall receive many stripes,
 48. but the one who didn’t know and did things worthy of stripes shall receive just a few. From everyone to whom much is given, much will be required, and from him to whom men have committed much, they will ask the more.
- ¶49. “I have come to bring fire on the earth, and I would that it was already lit!
50. But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how I am constrained until it be done!
 51. Do you think that I have come to give peace to the land? No, I tell you, but rather division!
 52. For from now on, there will be five divided in one house, three against two, and two against three.
 53. Father will be divided against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against mother; and mother-in-law against daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.
 54. Then he also said to the people, “When you see a cloud rising up from the west, immediately you say, ‘A storm is coming,’ and so it is.
 55. And when the south wind blows, you say, ‘It will be hot,’ and it is.
 56. You hypocrites! You know how to discern the face of the earth and sky, but how is it that you don’t discern this time?
 57. And why do you not even judge for yourselves what is right?
 58. When you go with your accuser before a ruler, on the way there, make an effort to be delivered from him, lest he drag you before the judge, and the judge hand you over to the magistrate, and the magistrate throw you into prison.
 59. I tell you, you will never get out of there until you’ve paid the very last cent.”

Luke 13

⁷ Or “cut him in two”.

- ¶1. There were some present at that time who told him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.
2. Jesus answered and said to them, “Do you think it’s because these Galileans were more sinful than all the other Galileans that they suffered such things?
 3. Not at all, I tell you, but unless you repent, you all will likewise perish!
 4. Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them, do you think that they were worse offenders than all the people living in Jerusalem?
 5. Not at all, I tell you, but unless you repent, you all will likewise perish!”
 6. Then he told this parable: “A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came looking for fruit on it, but found none.
 7. So, he said to the vinedresser, ‘Behold, for three years, I’ve come looking for fruit on this tree and find nothing! Chop it down! What’s the point of it using up the soil?’
 8. But he answered and said to him, ‘Sir, leave it this year, too; meanwhile, I will dig around it and put on manure,⁸
 9. and if it bears fruit, good; and if not, cut it down then.”
- ¶10. Now, he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath,
11. and behold, a woman was there who for eighteen years had had a spirit of infirmity. And she was bent over double and was completely unable to straighten herself up.
 12. And when Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, “Woman, you are freed from your infirmity!”
 13. And then he placed his hands on her, and instantly, she was made straight, and she began glorifying God.
 14. But the ruler of the synagogue, indignant that Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, answered and said to the people, “There are six days in which one ought to work! Therefore, you are to come to be healed on those days, and not on the Sabbath!”
 15. Then the Lord answered him and said, “You hypocrites! Doesn’t each of you on the Sabbath day loose his ox or ass from the manger and lead it away to give it water?
 16. And this woman—a daughter of Abraham whom Satan has bound, behold, these eighteen years!—shouldn’t she be loosed from this bondage on the Sabbath day?”
 17. And when he said these things, all who opposed him were put to shame, but all the people were rejoicing at all the glorious things done by him.
- ¶18. Then he said, “What is the kingdom of God like, and to what shall I compare it?
19. It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and put in his garden, and it grew and became a great tree, and the birds of the air nested in its branches.”

⁸ That is, put fertilizer around the tree.

20. Again, he said, “To what will I compare the kingdom of God?
 21. It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid within three measures of flour until it was all leavened.”
 22. And he journeyed on, teaching in towns and villages, making his way to Jerusalem.
 23. And someone said to him, “Master, are only a few saved?” And he said to them,
 24. “Strive to enter by the strait gate, for many, I tell you, will seek to enter in and will not be able.
 25. Once the master of the house has risen and closed the door, then you will begin to stand outside and knock on the door, saying, ‘Master! Master! Open for us!’ Then he will answer and say to you, ‘I don’t know where you’re from.’
 26. Then you’ll begin to say, ‘We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets!’
 27. But he’ll say, ‘I tell you, I don’t know where you’re from! Depart from me, all of you who work iniquity!’
 28. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth in that place when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, but you yourselves are cast out.
 29. And people will come from east and west, and from north and south, and will recline at table in the kingdom of God.
 30. And, behold, there are last who shall be first, and there are first who shall be last.”
- ¶31. The same day, certain Pharisees came to him, saying, “Go away! Leave here, for Herod wants to kill you!”
32. And he said to them, “You go tell that fox, ‘Behold, I am casting out demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and I’ll be finished on the third day.
 33. Yet, I must continue today, tomorrow, and the next day, for it’s unthinkable for a prophet to perish outside Jerusalem.
 34. O Jerusalem! Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How many times I wanted to gather your children together, the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you would not!
 35. Behold! Your house is left to you, desolate. And I tell you that you will by no means see me until the time comes when you say, ‘Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD.’”

Luke 14

- ¶1. And it came to pass on a Sabbath day that he went into the house of one of the leaders of the Pharisees to eat bread, and they were watching him closely.

2. And there was a certain man before him suffering from dropsy.
 3. And Jesus answered and said to the law experts and Pharisees, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?”
 4. But they were silent. Then he took him, healed him, and let him go.
 5. And he answered them, saying, “Which of you, if your son or ox fell into a well, would not immediately pull him up on the Sabbath day?”
 6. And they could not reply to him about these things.
- ¶7. And then he spoke a parable to those who had been invited, when he noticed how they were picking out the most prominent places at the table, saying to them,
8. “When you’re invited by someone to a wedding banquet, don’t recline in the most prominent place, lest someone more distinguished than you be invited by him,
 9. and he that invited you and him come and tell you, ‘Give up this place,’ and then you begin with shame to take the lowest place.
 10. But when you are called, go recline at the lowest place, so that when the one who invited you comes, he might say to you, ‘Friend, move up higher.’ Then you will have honor in the presence of those dining with you.
 11. Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”
- ¶12. Then he said to the one who invited him, “When you host a meal or a feast, don’t call your friends, or your brothers, or your relatives, or rich neighbors, lest they return the invitation, and you be repaid.
13. Instead, when you make a banquet, call the poor, crippled, lame, and blind,
 14. and then you will be blessed, for they have nothing with which to repay you. It shall be repaid to you in the resurrection of the righteous.”
- ¶15. Then, when one of them reclining with him heard these things, he said to him, “Blessed is he who eats bread in the kingdom of God!”
16. But he said to him, “A certain man hosted a feast, and he invited many.
 17. And when it was time for the feast, he sent his slave to tell those who had been called, ‘Come, because everything is now ready!’
 18. And they all, as one, began to make excuses. The first one told him, ‘I’ve bought a field, and I need to go out and see it. I beg you, have me excused.’
 19. And the second said, ‘I’ve bought five yoke of oxen, and I’m on my way to try them. I beg you, have me excused.’
 20. And another said, ‘I’ve taken a wife, and so, I cannot come.’

21. And when that slave returned, he reported these things to his master. Angered, the master of the house then told his slave, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the city and bring in here the poor, and crippled, and lame, and blind!’
 22. And the slave said, ‘Master, it is done as you commanded, and yet, there still is room.’
 23. And the master told the slave, ‘Go out to the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, so that my house might be filled.
 24. For I tell you that not one of those men who were invited will taste of my banquet! Many are called, but few are chosen.’
- ¶25. Now, large crowds were traveling with him, and he turned and said to them,
26. “If any man comes to me and does not hate his father and mother, and his wife and children, and his brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple.
 27. And whoever doesn’t bear his cross and follow me cannot be my disciple.
 28. Who among you, wanting to build a tower, doesn’t first sit down and calculate the cost, if he has the wherewithal for its completion?
 29. Otherwise, when he has laid the foundation, but is not able to finish the work, all who are watching begin to mock him,
 30. saying, ‘This man started to build, but wasn’t able to finish.’
 31. Or what king, going to confront another king in battle, doesn’t first sit down and consider whether he’s able with ten thousand to meet the twenty thousand coming against him?
 32. And if not, then while he is yet at a distance, he will send an ambassador and request terms of peace.
 33. Likewise, everyone among you who doesn’t renounce all things that are his cannot be my disciple.
 34. Salt is good, but if the salt loses its flavor, with what will it be seasoned?
 35. It’s no good for either the soil or the dunghill, but men throw it out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

Luke 15

- ¶1. Now, all the tax collectors and sinners were drawing near him, to hear him.
2. And the Pharisees and the scribes began to complain, saying, “This man welcomes sinners, and eats with them!”
- ¶3. So he spoke this parable to them:
4. “What man among you, having a hundred sheep, but loses one of them, would not leave the ninety-nine in the field and go after the one that is lost until he finds it?
 5. And when he has found it, he puts it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6. And after he comes home, he calls his friends and neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me because I found my lost sheep!’
 7. I tell you that, likewise, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance.
 - ¶8. “Or what woman who has ten drachmas⁹, if she lose one drachma, does not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and search diligently until she finds it?
 9. And when she finds it, she will call her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me because I found the lost drachma!’
 10. Likewise, I say to you, there is joy among God’s angels over one sinner who repents.”
- ¶11. Then he said, “A certain man had two sons,
12. and the younger of them said to the father, ‘Father, give me the portion of property that is coming to me.’ So, he divided his estate between them.
 13. Not many days later, the younger son gathered everything and traveled to a distant country, and there he squandered his wealth, living recklessly.
 14. And when he had spent everything, there came a severe famine throughout that land, and he began to be in want.
 15. And he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed the pigs.
 16. And he longed to fill his belly with the fodder that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything.
 17. But when he came to himself, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired servants have plenty of bread, and I am dying with hunger!
 18. I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight,
 19. and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Treat me as one of your hired servants.”’
 20. So he arose and went to his father. But when he was still afar off, his father saw him and was moved with compassion, and he ran and fell upon his neck and kissed him affectionately.
 21. And then the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight, and I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’
 22. But the father said to his slaves, ‘Bring out the best robe and put it on him! And put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet!

⁹ The drachma, a Greek coin, is thought to be the equivalent to the Roman denarius.

23. And bring the fattened calf, slaughter it, and let us eat and be merry!
24. For this, my son, was dead, but is alive again; he was lost, and is found!' And they began to celebrate.
25. Now, his elder son was in the field, and when he came near the house, he heard music and dancing.
26. And when he had called one of the servants to him, he inquired as to what these things might be.
27. And he said to him, 'Your brother is here, and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has gotten him back, safe and sound.'
28. And he became angry, and would not go in. So, his father came out and entreated him.
29. But he answered and said to his father, 'Look, I have slaved for you these many years, and I have never transgressed your commandment, and you have never given me a kid so that I could have a good time with my friends.'
30. But when this son of yours comes who devoured your wealth with harlots, you slaughter the fattened calf for him!'
31. And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that I have is yours.'
32. But it was fitting to celebrate and rejoice because this your brother was dead and is alive again, and was lost but is found.'"

Luke 16

- ¶1. Then he said to his disciples, "There was a certain rich man who had a steward who was accused to him of squandering his goods.
2. And so he called him and said to him, 'What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your stewardship, for you may no longer be steward.'
3. Then the steward said to himself, 'What am I to do, now that my master is taking the stewardship away from me? I am not able to dig, and I am ashamed to beg.
4. I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from the stewardship, men might receive me into their houses!'
5. So, when he had summoned every one of his master's debtors, he said to the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'
6. And he said, 'A hundred measures of oil.' And he said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.'
7. And to another he said, 'How much do you owe?' And he said, 'A hundred measures of wheat.' And he said to him, 'Take your bill and write eighty.'
8. Then the master praised the dishonest steward because he had acted shrewdly, for the children of this world are shrewder in their generation than the children of light.

9. And so, I say to you, make for yourselves friends apart from the realm of unrighteous mammon, so that when you come to the end, they might receive you into eternal dwellings.
 10. He who is faithful in little is also faithful in much, and he who is dishonest in little is also dishonest in much.
 11. If, therefore, you haven't been faithful with the unrighteous mammon, who will trust you with the true?
 12. And if you haven't been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you that which is your own?
 13. No servant can be a slave to two masters; either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and Mammon."
- ¶14. The money-loving Pharisees were listening to all these things as well, and they began sneering at him.
15. But he said to them, "You are they who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts! That which is highly esteemed among men is an abomination in the sight of God.
 16. The law and the prophets were until John. Since then, the kingdom of God is preached, and everyone presses into it.
 17. It is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one tiny serif of the law to fail.
 18. Every man who divorces his wife and then marries another woman commits adultery. And every man who marries a woman who is divorced from a husband commits adultery.
- ¶19. "There was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, feasting sumptuously every day.
20. And there was a certain beggar by the name of Lazarus, covered with sores, who had been laid at his gate,
 21. and he longed to be filled with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table. And dogs even came and licked his sores.
 22. And it came to pass that the beggar died, and he was carried away by the angels to Abraham's bosom. And then the rich man also died, and was buried,
 23. and he, being in torment in Hades, lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham far off, with Lazarus in his bosom.
 24. And he cried out and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me! Send Lazarus so he can dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue! I am in agony in this flame!'

25. But Abraham said, ‘Son, remember that you received your good things during your lifetime, and Lazarus, bad things. But now, he is here, comforted, and you are in agony.
26. And besides all this, a great chasm has been fixed between us and you, so that those who would cross over from here to you cannot, nor can people cross from there to us.’
27. But he said, ‘I beg you, father, that you would send him to my father’s house—
28. I have five brothers!—so that he might warn them, lest they also come to this place of torment!’
29. Abraham said to him, ‘They have Moses and the prophets. Let them hear them.’
30. But he said, ‘O father Abraham, no! But if one came from the dead to them, they would repent!’
31. But he said to him, ‘If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone rises from the dead.’”

Luke 17

- ¶1. Then he said to the disciples, “It is impossible for offenses not to come, but woe to him through whom they come!
2. It is preferable for him if a millstone is placed around his neck and he is hurled into the sea than that he should offend one of these little ones.
3. Watch yourselves! If your brother sins against you, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.
4. Even if he sins against you seven times a day, and seven times returns and says, ‘I repent, ’you shall forgive him!”
- ¶5. Then the apostles said to the Lord, “Give us more faith!”
6. But the Lord said, “If you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea! ’and it would obey you.
7. For which of you, having a slave plowing or tending sheep, when he comes in out of the field, will say right then, ‘Come here, and recline to eat’?
8. Instead, won’t he tell him, ‘Fix something for me to eat; get yourself dressed and wait on me while I eat and drink. After that, you may eat and drink’?
9. He doesn’t thank that slave because he does the things commanded of him, does he? I think not!
10. Likewise, you also, when you have done all that is commanded you, say, ‘We are unprofitable slaves; we have done only what we are required to do.”

- ¶11. Then he continued to make his way to Jerusalem, and he passed through the area between Samaria and Galilee.
12. As he entered into a certain village, ten leprous men, who stood at a distance, met him,
13. and they raised a cry, saying, “Jesus! Master! Have mercy on us!”
14. And when he saw them, he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And it came to pass, as they were going away, that they were cleansed.
15. Now, one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice,
16. and he fell on his face at his feet, thanking him. And he was a Samaritan.
17. Then Jesus answered and said, “Weren’t there ten who were cleansed? So, where are the nine?
18. Were there none found who returned to give glory to God, except this foreigner?”
19. Then, he said to him, “Get up, and go. Your faith has made you whole.”
- ¶20. Now, when the question was put to him by the Pharisees as to when the kingdom of God was coming, he answered them and said, “The kingdom of God is not coming with observation.
21. Nor will they say, ‘Look, here! ’or ‘Look, there!’ For behold, God’s kingdom is within you.”
- ¶22. Then he said to the disciples, “The days shall come when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of man, but you will not see it.
23. And they will say to you, ‘Behold, here! or ‘Behold, there!’ Don’t follow or chase after them.
24. For as the lightning that flashes sends light from one horizon to the other, so will the Son of man be in his day.
25. But first, he must suffer many things and be repudiated by this generation.
26. Just as it was in the days of Noah, so will it also be in the days of the Son of man.
27. They were eating, drinking, marrying, and being given in marriage until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and killed them all.
28. Likewise, just as it was in the days of Lot—they were eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, building houses,
29. but the day Lot went out from Sodom, fire and brimstone rained down from heaven and killed them all—
30. it will be just like that on the day the Son of man is revealed.
31. On that day, let the one who will be on the housetop, with his goods inside the house, not come down to take them, and likewise, let not the one in the field turn back for things left behind.
32. Remember Lot’s wife.

33. Whoever seeks to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses it will preserve it.
34. I tell you, in that night, there will be two on one bed; one shall be taken away, and the other, left behind.
35. Two women will be grinding together; one will be taken away, and the other, left behind.”
36. Two will be in the field; one who will be taken away, and the other one, left behind.¹⁰
37. They answered and said to him, “Where, Master?” And he told them, “Where the body is, there will the eagles be gathered together.”

Luke 18

- ¶1. Then he told them a parable regarding the need to pray always and not be discouraged:
2. “In a certain city, there was a judge who neither feared God nor regarded man.
3. And there was a widow in that city, and she kept coming before him, saying, ‘Avenge me of my adversary!’
4. And for a while, he would not. But later on, he said to himself, ‘Though I neither fear God nor regard man,
5. yet because this widow keeps pestering me, I will avenge her so that she won’t come and pester me forever!’”
6. Then the Lord said, “Listen to what the unjust judge said!
7. And will not God avenge His chosen, who cry out to Him day and night while He delays acting on their behalf?
8. I tell you that He will avenge them swiftly. In any case, when the Son of man comes, will he find any faith on earth?”
- ¶9. And to certain ones who trusted in themselves, that they were righteous, and viewed others with contempt, he spoke this parable:
10. “Two men went up to the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.
11. The Pharisee stood by himself, praying these things: ‘I thank you, O God, that I am not like the rest of men, robbers, crooks, adulterers, or even like this tax collector.
12. I fast twice a week; I render tithes on everything I gain.’
13. But the tax collector stood far off and would not even lift his eyes up to heaven. Instead, he beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’
14. I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than that one, for everyone who exalts himself will be abased, but he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

¹⁰ This verse is omitted in the Byzantine text.

- ¶15. Now, they were also bringing infants to him, that he would touch them, but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them.
16. But Jesus called them to him and said, “You let the children come to me, and don’t you stop them! For of such is the kingdom of God.
17. Truly, I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter into it.”
- ¶18. Then a certain ruler asked him, saying, “Good teacher, what must I do, that I might inherit eternal life?”
19. But to him, Jesus said, “Why do you call me good? No one is good except One, that is, God.
20. You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery; Do not murder; Do not steal; Do not bear false witness; Honor your father and your mother.”
21. Then he said, “I have kept all these things from my youth.”
22. When Jesus heard these words, he said to him, “There is still one thing missing in you. Sell everything you have, and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and then come, follow me.”
23. But upon hearing these things, he was sad, for he was very rich.
24. Then Jesus, seeing that he was made sad, said, “How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God!
25. Indeed, it is easier for a camel to enter into an eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.”
26. And those who heard this said, “Who, then, can be saved?”
27. And he said, “Things impossible with men are possible with God.”
28. And Peter said, “Behold, we’ve left everything and followed you.”
29. He said to them, “Truly, I tell you that there is no one who has left home, or parents, or brothers, or wife, or children for the sake of the kingdom of God,
30. who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the world that is coming, eternal life.”
- ¶31. Then, taking the twelve aside, he said to them, “Behold, we’re going up to Jerusalem, and everything written by the prophets concerning the Son of man will be accomplished.
32. For he’ll be turned over to the Gentiles, and he’ll be mocked and shamefully treated and spat on.
33. And after they scourge him, they will kill him, and on the third day, he’ll rise again.”
34. And they understood none of these things, and this saying was hidden from them; neither did they comprehend the things that were spoken.

35. Now, it came to pass when he was near Jericho that a certain blind man was sitting beside the road, begging.
36. And hearing the crowd passing by, he began to ask what was going on.
37. And they told him that Jesus the Nazarene was passing through.
38. Then he called out, saying, “Jesus! Son of David! Have mercy on me!”
39. And those going ahead of Jesus rebuked him, to make him quiet, but he cried out all the more, “Son of David! Have mercy on me!”
40. Then Jesus stopped and commanded him to be brought to him. And when he came near, he asked him
41. saying, “What do you want me to do for you?” And he said, “Master, that I might see again.”
42. And Jesus said to him, “Receive sight! Your faith has made you whole.”
43. And instantly, he received sight and began following him, glorifying God. And seeing this, all the people gave praise to God.

Luke 19

- ¶1. And he entered and was passing through Jericho,
 2. and behold, a man called by the name of Zacchaeus was there, and he was a chief tax collector, and he was wealthy.
 3. And he was trying to see Jesus, who he was, but he could not because of the crowd, for he was small in stature.
 4. So he ran ahead and climbed up a sycamore tree so that he might see him, for he was going to pass through there.
 5. And when Jesus came to that place, he looked up and saw him, and he said to him, “Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay in your house today.”
 6. Then he hurried and came down, and welcomed him, rejoicing.
 7. And everyone seeing this began to grumble, saying, “He went in to lodge with a sinner man!”
 8. Then Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, “Behold, Master, half of my goods I give to the poor, and if I have cheated anyone, I pay him back fourfold.”
 9. Then Jesus said to him, “Salvation has come to this house today, inasmuch as he, too, is a son of Abraham.
 10. For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which has been lost.”
-
- ¶11. Then, while they were listening to these things, he went on to tell a parable because he was nearing Jerusalem, and they were thinking that the kingdom of God was immediately about to appear.

12. He said, therefore, “A certain nobleman was going to a distant country to receive a kingdom for himself, and then return.
 13. And he called ten of his servants and gave them ten minas¹¹, and he told them, ‘Take care of things until I come.’
 14. Now, his citizens hated him, and so they sent an ambassador after him, saying, ‘We don’t want this man to reign over us!’
 15. And it came to pass that when he returned from receiving the kingdom, he commanded that those servants be called to him, the ones to whom he had given the money, to find out who had gained what by trading.
 16. And the first arrived and said, ‘Master, your mina has earned ten minas.’
 17. And he said to him, ‘Well done, good servant! Since you have been faithful with a little, you are to have authority over ten cities.’
 18. Then the second came and said, ‘Master, your mina has made five minas.’
 19. And he said to him, ‘You are to be over five cities.’
 20. And then the other one came and said, ‘Master, behold your mina, which I kept stored in a handkerchief,
 21. for I feared you because you are an austere man. You take up what you didn’t put down, and you reap what you didn’t sow.’
 22. Then he said to him, ‘Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked servant! You know me to be an austere man, taking up what I didn’t put down, and reaping what I didn’t sow.
 23. Why, then, did you not put my money in the bank so that when I came, I might receive it with interest?’
 24. Then he told those standing by, ‘Take the mina away from him, and give it to the one who has ten minas!’
 25. But they said to him, ‘Master, he has ten minas!’
 26. ‘Do it! I tell you that to everyone who has, it shall be given, and from him who does not have, even what he has shall be taken from him.
 27. And now, bring here those enemies of mine who did not want me to rule over them, and butcher them in front of me.”
- ¶28. After saying these things, he pressed on, going up to Jerusalem.

¹¹ There were 60 minas in a talent. In weight, a mina weighed a little over 1 pound.

- ¶29. And it came to pass that as he drew near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the hill called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,
30. saying, “Go on to the village that’s ahead. In it, as you go in, you’ll find a colt tied, on which no man ever sat. Untie him, and bring him to me.
31. And if anyone asks you, ‘What are you untying him for?’, say this to him: ‘The Master has need of him.’”
32. So, when those who were sent had gone, they found it just as he told them.
33. And as they were untying the colt, his owners said to them, “Why are you untying the colt?”
34. They answered, “The Master has need of him.”
35. Then they brought him to Jesus, and they threw their own garments on the colt, and then put Jesus on him.
36. And as he went, they began spreading out their garments in the road.
37. Then, as he neared Jerusalem, now on the descent from the Mount of Olives, the whole company of disciples began rejoicing, praising God with a loud voice because of all the mighty works they had seen,
38. saying, “Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the LORD! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest!”
- ¶39. Now, some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, rebuke your disciples!”
40. But he answered and said to them, “I tell you that if these were to be silent, the stones themselves would cry out!”
- ¶41. And as he drew near, when he looked on the city, he wept over it,
42. saying, “Oh, if you had known—yes, you!—at least in this, your day, the things which would lead to your peace! But now, they are hidden from your eyes.
43. For the days shall come upon you, when your enemies will build a barricade around you and encircle you, and they’ll hem you in on every side.
44. And they’ll tear you down to the ground, and your children within you, and they’ll not leave in you one stone upon another, because you didn’t recognize the time of your visitation!”
- ¶45. And when he had gone into the temple, he began to cast out those who were buying and selling in it,
46. saying to them, “It is written, ‘My house is a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves!’”¹²

¹² Isa. 54:7b; Jer. 7:11.

47. And daily, he would teach in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes, as well as the leaders of the people, kept looking for a way to destroy him,
48. and yet they could not find a way to do it, for the people were all hanging on him, listening.

Luke 20

- ¶1. And it came to pass on one of those days that the priests and the scribes, along with the elders, confronted him as he was teaching the people and preaching in the temple,
2. and they spoke to him, saying, “Tell us, by what authority do you do these things? Or who is it who gave you this authority?”
3. Answering, he said to them, “I will also ask you one thing, and you tell me:
4. The baptism of John—was it from heaven or from men?”
5. Then they conferred with each other, saying that, “If we say, ‘from heaven’, he will say, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’
6. But if we say, ‘from men’, all the people will stone us, for they are convinced John was a prophet.”
7. And so, they answered that they did not know where it was from.
8. And Jesus said to them, “Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.”
- ¶9. Then he began to speak this parable to the people: “A man planted a vineyard and leased it to vine-dressers, and then went on an extended journey.
10. And in due season, he sent a servant to the tenants so that they might give him some of the fruit of the vineyard, but they beat him and sent him off, empty-handed.
11. And he proceeded to send a different servant, but they beat that one, too, treated him shamefully, and sent him off, empty-handed.
12. And he proceeded to send a third, and they wounded him, too, and threw him out.
13. Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What am I to do? I will send my dear son. When they see him, they will surely respect him.’
14. But seeing him, the vine-dressers reasoned with each other, saying, ‘This is the heir. Come on! Let’s kill him so that the inheritance might become ours.’
15. And they threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. So now, what will the owner of the vineyard do to them?
16. He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others.” Upon hearing this, they said, “God forbid!”
17. But he looked straight at them and said, “Why, then, is this written: ‘The stone that the builders rejected, the same has become the head of the corner’?
18. Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken, but whoever it falls on, it will crush him.”

- ¶19. And the chief priests and scribes wanted to lay hands on him that very hour, for they knew that he spoke this parable against them, but they were afraid.
20. And yet, they watched him, and they sent spies who pretended to be righteous in order to catch him in conversation, to deliver him to the governor's jurisdiction and authority.
21. And so they put a question to him, saying, "Teacher, we know that you speak and teach rightly and are no respecter of persons, but truly teach the way of God."
22. Is it lawful for us to pay tribute to Caesar, or not?"
23. But he, perceiving their cunning, said to them, "Why are you testing me?
24. Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription does it have?" They answered and said, "Caesar's."
25. So, he said to them, "Render, therefore, to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."
26. And they could not catch him in his talk before the people, but dumbfounded at his answer, they were silent.
- ¶27. Then came up to him some of the Sadducees, who deny that there is a resurrection, and they put a question to him,
28. saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, if someone's brother dies, having a wife, and if he dies childless, then his brother should take the wife and should raise seed up for his brother.
29. Now then, there were seven brothers, and the first, having taken a wife, died childless.
30. Then, the second took the wife, and he himself also died childless.
31. And the third one, likewise, took her; and likewise also the seven left no children and died.
32. And after all of them died, the woman died, too.
33. So then, in the resurrection, which one's wife is she to be? For seven had her as a wife."
34. And Jesus answered and said to them, "The children of this world marry and are given in marriage,
35. but those deemed worthy to attain to that world and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage,
36. nor yet can they die any more, for they are like angels; indeed, they are sons of God, being children of the resurrection.
37. But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush. As it says, 'The LORD, God of Abraham, and God of Isaac, and God of Jacob.'
38. Now, He is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to Him, everyone is alive."

39. Then certain of the scribes answered and said, “Teacher, you have spoken well.”
40. No longer, then, did they dare to ask him anything.

- ¶41. Then he told them, “How is it that they declare the Messiah to be David’s son?
42. And yet, David himself says in the book of Psalms, ‘The LORD said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand
43. until I make your enemies your footstool.”’
44. Now then, David called him ‘Lord’; so, how is he his son?”
¶45. Then, in the hearing of all the people, he said to his disciples,
46. “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and love salutations in the marketplaces, and seats of honor in the synagogues, and places of honor at dinners,
47. who are devouring widows ’houses, and for show, are making long prayers! These men shall receive greater damnation.”

Luke 21

- ¶1. Then he looked up and saw the rich casting their offerings into the offering-box.
2. Then he also saw a certain needy widow, casting in two lepta.
3. And he said, “I tell you truthfully that this poor widow cast in more than all of them,
4. for these all cast into the offerings of God from the surplus they have, but she, out of her penury, has cast in all that she had to live on.”
¶5. And when some spoke of the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and dedicated offerings, he said,
6. “As for these things that you see, the days shall come in which there shall not be one stone left on another that will not be torn down.”
7. Then they asked him, saying, “So, Teacher, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that these things are about to take place?”
8. Then he said, “Take heed that you be not deceived. For many will come in my name, saying that I am the Messiah,¹³ and, ‘The time is at hand!’ Don’t follow after them.
9. And when you hear of wars and insurrections, don’t be alarmed, for these things must take place first, but the end will not immediately come.”
¶10. Then he said to them, “Nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.
11. And there will be great earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines and pestilences, and there will also be terrifying sights and great signs from heaven.

¹³ Or, “saying, ‘I am the Messiah.’”

12. But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, handing you over to synagogues and prisons and haling you before kings and governors because of my name.
 13. But it shall turn to you for a testimony.
 14. So, settle it in your hearts not to prepare to make a defense,
 15. for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all those who oppose you shall not be able to gainsay or resist.
 16. But you'll be betrayed even by parents, and kinsmen, and friends, and associates, and they'll kill some of you.
 17. And you'll be hated by all because of my name.
 18. And yet, not one hair of your head shall perish.
 19. With your patience, win your souls!"
- ¶20. "Now, when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that her desolation is near.
21. Then let those in Judea flee for the mountains, and let those in the midst of it get out, and let not those in the countryside enter into her.
 22. For these are the days of vengeance, to fulfill all that is written.
 23. And woe to the women who are with child, and those who are nursing in those days, for there will be great distress in the land, and wrath on this people.
 24. They will fall by the edge of the sword, and they will be led captive into all nations. And Jerusalem will be trampled underfoot by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.
 25. And there will be signs in the sun and moon and stars, and on the earth, bewildered anguish among the nations because of the raging of the sea, and its surge,
 26. men fainting from fear and from expectation of things coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.
 27. And then they will see the Son of man coming on a cloud with power and great glory.
 28. But when these things begin to take place, you stand erect and lift up your heads because it is your redemption drawing near."
- ¶29. And he spoke a parable to them: "Consider the fig tree, and all the trees.
30. As soon as they sprout, you see for yourselves and know at once that summer is near.
 31. Likewise, you also, when you see these things taking place, know that the kingdom of God is near.
 32. Truly, I tell you that this generation shall not pass away until all these things take place.
 33. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall never pass away.

- ¶34. “Take heed to yourselves, lest your hearts be dulled by dissipation, and drunkenness, and cares of life, and that day come upon you unexpectedly,
 - 35. for as a snare, it will come upon all who dwell on the face of the whole earth.
 - 36. So then, stay alert and always pray, so that you might be counted worthy to escape all the things that are to come, and to stand before the Son of man.”
- ¶37. Now, he was daily in the temple, teaching, but he was going out and spending the nights on the mountain that is called the Mount of Olives.
38. And the people were getting up very early to come to him in the temple, to hear him.

Luke 22

- ¶1. The Feast of Unleavened Bread, which is called Passover, was approaching,
 - 2. and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how that they might do away with him, but they were afraid of the people.
- ¶3. Then Satan entered into Judas, who was surnamed Iscariot, being one of the twelve.
- 4. And when he had gone away, he took counsel with the chief priests and temple guard, how he might betray him to them.
 - 5. And they were glad, and agreed to give him money.
 - 6. And he consented, and then he started looking for an opportunity to betray him to them, away from the crowd.
- ¶7. Then came the day of unleavened bread, on which the Passover had to be slaughtered.
- 8. And he sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover for us, so that we may eat it.”
 - 9. They said to him, “Where do you want us to prepare it?”
 - 10. And he said to them, “Behold, when you have entered the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him to the house where he enters,
 - 11. and tell the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher says to you, ‘Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?’’”
 - 12. And that man will show you a large upper room, furnished. Make preparations there.”
 - 13. So they went away, and they found it just as he had told them, and they made ready the Passover.
- ¶14. And when the time came, he reclined to eat, and the twelve apostles with him.
- 15. And he said to them, “I have very much desired to eat this Passover with you before my suffering,
 - 16. for I tell you that I will never again eat of it until it is perfected in the kingdom of God.”

17. Then, taking the cup, he offered thanks and said, “Take this, and divide it among yourselves.
 18. I tell you that I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.”
 19. And when he had taken bread and offered thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”
 20. Likewise, after supper, he also took the cup, saying, “This cup, with my blood which is being poured out for you, is the new covenant.
 21. But behold, here with me at the table is the hand of him who betrays me.
 22. The Son of man will go as it is appointed, but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed.”
 23. And they began to ask among themselves which of them it might be that was going to do this thing.
- ¶24. There was also a contention among them, as to which of them he considered to be greatest.
25. Then he said to them, “The kings of the Gentiles act like lords over them, and those with authority over them are called ‘benefactors’,
 26. but you are not to be like that. On the contrary, he who is greatest among you must be as the youngest, and he who rules, like one who serves.
 27. Who is greater, the one who is eating, or the one who is serving? Isn’t it the one eating? But I am in your midst as one who serves.
 28. You are the ones who have stood by me through my trials.
 29. And so, I am appointing to you a kingdom, as my Father appointed a kingdom to me,
 30. that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom. And you shall sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.”
31. And then the Lord said, “O Simon, Simon! Satan has earnestly asked for you men, that he might sift you like wheat.
 32. But I have prayed for you, that your faith will not give out. And when you are converted, strengthen your brothers.”
 33. But he said to him, “Master, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death!”
 34. Then he said, “I tell you, Peter, a rooster shall not crow today before you deny three times that you know me.”
- ¶35. And he said to them, “When I sent you out without moneybag, or knapsack, or sandals, you didn’t lack for anything, did you? And they said, “Nothing.”
36. Then he said to them, “But now, let him who has a moneybag take it, and likewise, a knapsack, and let him who doesn’t have a sword, sell his cloak and buy one.

37. For I say to you that this which is written must still be fulfilled in me: ‘He was numbered with the lawless, ’for the things concerning me are coming to an end.’
38. And they said, “Master, look, here are two swords.” And he said to them, “It is enough.”
- ¶39. And he went out, going as usual to the Mount of Olives, and his disciples followed him.
40. And when he was at the place, he told them, “Pray that you do not enter into temptation.”
41. Then he withdrew from them about a stone’s throw distant, and, falling to his knees, he began to pray,
42. saying, “O Father, if you are willing to take this cup away from me—. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours be done.”
43. Then an angel from heaven appeared to him, strengthening him.
44. And being in anguish, he began praying even more fervently, and his sweat became like drops of blood falling to the ground.
45. And when he rose from prayer and was come to the disciples, he discovered them fallen asleep because of their sadness.
46. And he said to them, “Why are you sleeping? Get up! Pray, lest you enter into temptation!”
- ¶47. But while he was yet speaking, behold, a crowd appeared, and the one called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. And he drew near Jesus to kiss him.
48. But Jesus said to him, “Judas, are you betraying the Son of man with a kiss?”
49. Then, those around him, seeing what was happening, said to him, “Master, should we strike them down with a sword?”
50. And a certain one of them struck the servant of the high priest and took off his right ear.
51. But Jesus answered and said, “You stop that!” And he touched his ear, and healed him.
52. Then Jesus said to the chief priests, temple guards, and elders who had come for him,
“Have you come out with swords and clubs as against a robber?
53. Every day, while I was with you in the temple, you didn’t lay hands on me. But, this is your time, and the dominion of darkness.”
- ¶54. Then, after they took him, they led him away and brought him to the house of the high priest. But Peter was following at a distance.
55. And when they lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat in their midst.
56. And a certain servant-girl saw him sitting down, facing the light, and when she looked at him closely, she told the others, “This man was definitely with him.”

57. But he denied him, saying, “Woman, I don’t know him.”
 58. And after a little while, someone else, a man, looked at him and said, “You are one of them, for sure.” But Peter said, “Not me, man!”
 59. And when about an hour had passed, another man began insisting, saying, “This man was definitely with him, for he is a Galilean also!”
 60. But Peter said, “Man, I don’t know what you’re talking about!” And straightway, while he was yet speaking, a rooster crowed.
 61. Then the Lord turned and looked straight at Peter. And Peter thought again of the word of the Lord, how he said to him, ‘Before a rooster crows, you will deny me three times.’
 62. And Peter went outside, and wept bitterly.
- ¶63. And the men who were holding Jesus began making fun of him as they beat him.
64. And when they had blindfolded him, they began punching him in the face and asking him, saying, “Prophesy! Who is it that hit you?”
 65. And they said many other things to him, blaspheming.
- ¶66. And when it was day, the elders of the people, the chief priests, and the scribes gathered, and they led him before their Sanhedrin, saying,
67. “If you are indeed the Messiah, tell us.” He said to them, “Even if I told you, you would not believe.
 68. And even if I ask you, you will not answer me at all, or let me go.
 69. From this time on, the Son of man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God.”
70. Then they all said, “So, you, yourself, are the Son of God?” And he said to them, “You yourselves are saying it because I am.”
 71. Then they said, “What further need have we of testimony? We have heard it ourselves from his own mouth!”

Luke 23

- ¶1. And the whole assembly arose and led him to Pilate.
2. And they began to accuse him, saying, “We found this man subverting the nation, even forbidding us to render taxes to Caesar and purporting himself to be Messiah and King.”
3. Then Pilate asked him, saying, “You? You are the King of the Jews?” He answered him and said, “You yourself are saying it.”
4. Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, “I find nothing in this man warranting legal action.”

5. But they were insistent, saying, “He is stirring up the people, teaching throughout Judea, beginning from Galilee to here.”
 6. Now, when Pilate heard “Galilee”, he asked if the man was a Galilean,
 7. and when he learned that he came from Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him on to Herod, who himself was also in Jerusalem at that time.
- ¶8. Now, when Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had been wanting for a long time to see him because he had heard many things about him, and he hoped to see some miracle performed by him.
9. So, he questioned him at great length, but he answered him nothing.
 10. And the chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him.
 11. Then Herod despised him, along with his soldiers, and he mocked him, and he arrayed him in a gorgeous robe and sent him back to Pilate.
 12. (Pilate and Herod became friends with one other that same day, though they had been at enmity with each other.)
- ¶13. So, when Pilate had summoned the chief priests, and the rulers, and the people,
14. he said to them, “You brought this man to me as one inciting the people to rebel. And, behold, having examined him in your presence, I found in this man nothing warranting legal action in regard to the charges you made against him.
 15. Furthermore, neither did Herod, for I sent you to him, and behold, nothing worthy of death has been done by him.
 16. Therefore, after I have chastised him, I will release him.”
 17. (He was obligated to release to them one prisoner at each feast.)
 18. But they cried out at once, saying, “Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us!”
 19. (This man had been thrown into prison for an insurrection that took place in the city, and for murder.)
 20. Then Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, spoke more emphatically to them,
 21. but they kept crying aloud, saying, “Crucify! Crucify him!”
 22. But he told them a third time, “Why? What evil did this man do? I find in him nothing worthy of death. Therefore, I will chastise him and release him.”
 23. But they kept insisting, demanding with loud voices that he be crucified. And their voices, and those of the chief priests, began to prevail.
 24. Then Pilate made the decision for their demand to be granted.
 25. And he released the man they demanded, the one thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, but he handed Jesus over to their will.
- ¶26. And as they led him away, they laid hold on a certain Simon of Cyrene as he came in from a field, and they laid the cross on him, to carry it behind Jesus.

- ¶27. And a large number of people followed him, and women who were beating their breasts and lamenting him.
28. But Jesus turned to them and said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, don’t weep for me. Weep for yourselves and for your children,
29. for, behold, the days are coming in which they’ll say, ‘Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that don’t bear, and the breasts that don’t give suck.’
30. In that time, they’ll begin to say to the mountains, ‘Fall on us! ’ and to the hills, ‘Hide us!’
31. For if they’re doing these things with the tree green, what will happen when it is dry?”
- ¶32. Now, there were two others, evil-doers, also being led away to be executed with him.
33. And when they came to the place called “A Skull”, they crucified him there, and the evil-doers, one to his right, and the other to the left.
34. But Jesus said, “Father, forgive them; they don’t know what they’re doing,” as they divided up his garments, casting lots for them.
35. And the people stood by, watching. They and the rulers with them were ridiculing him, saying, “He saved others; let him save himself, since he is the Messiah, the chosen one of God!”
36. The soldiers were also making fun of him, coming up and offering him vinegar,
37. saying, “Since you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!”
38. There was also an inscription written above him in Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew letters: “This is the King of the Jews.”
- ¶39. One of the evil-doers who were hanged with him reviled him, saying, “If you’re the Messiah, save yourself and us!”
40. But the other answered and rebuked him, saying, “Don’t you fear God? You’re suffering the same punishment!
41. And we justly! We’re getting what we deserve for what we did, but this man’s done nothing wrong.”
42. And then he said to Jesus, “Remember me, sir, when you come in your kingdom.”
43. And Jesus said to him, “Truly, I tell you, today you’ll be with me in Paradise.”
- ¶44. Now, it was about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour.
45. The sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn down the middle.
46. And Jesus cried in a loud voice and said, “Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!”
And after saying these words, he breathed out his life.

47. Now, when the captain saw what happened, he honored God, saying, “Surely, this was a righteous man!”
 48. And all the people who were gathered for this spectacle, watching the things that took place, began to go back, beating their breasts.
 49. And all those who knew him stood far off to see these things, including the women who followed along with him from Galilee.
- ¶50. And behold, there was a man named Joseph, a good and just man, a member of the Council
51. (who had not consented to their scheme or action) from Arimathaea, a Jewish city, who himself also was awaiting the kingdom of God.
 52. This man approached Pilate and asked for Jesus 'body.
 53. And when he had taken it down, he wrapped it up in a linen cloth and laid it in a sepulchre hewn in stone, in which no one had ever yet been laid.
 54. And it was the day of Preparation; twilight was bringing in the Sabbath.
 55. And women who had come with him from Galilee followed, and they observed the sepulchre and how his body was laid.
 56. Then they returned. And they prepared spices and perfumes, and then they rested on the Sabbath, according to the commandment.

Luke 24

- ¶1. Now, on the first day of the week, at the break of dawn, they came to the grave, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and some others were with them,
2. but they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.
3. And when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.
4. And it came to pass that, as they stood there, utterly perplexed, behold, two men in shining clothes were standing with them,
5. and they were afraid. And as they bowed, faces to the ground, they said to them, “Why do you seek the living among the dead?
6. He is not here; he is risen. Remember how he told you when he was still in Galilee
7. that the Son of man must be betrayed into the hands of wicked men and be crucified, and then rise from the dead on the third day.”
8. And they remembered his words.
9. And when they returned from the sepulchre, they reported all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest.
10. (They were the Magdalene Mary, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them, who told these things to the apostles.)
11. But their words seemed to them like idle talk, and they did not believe them.

12. Nevertheless, Peter got up and ran to the sepulchre, and when he looked in, he saw the linen wrappings lying by themselves. And he went away, wondering to himself what had happened.
- ¶13. And on the same day, behold, two of them were traveling to a village named Emmaus, about sixty stadia¹⁴ from Jerusalem,
14. and they were conversing with one another about all these things that had happened.
15. And it came to pass that while they talked and reasoned together, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them.
16. But their eyes were kept from recognizing him.
17. And he said to them, “What are these things that you’re discussing as you go along, looking so sad?”
18. The one named Cleopas answered and said to him, “Are you the only one living near Jerusalem who doesn’t know what things have happened in it these past few days?”
19. He said to them, “What things?” Then they said to him, “The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a man, a prophet, mighty in deed and word before God and all the people,
20. and how our chief priests and rulers handed him over to the Gentiles to be condemned to death, and they crucified him.
21. We were hoping that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And now, after all these things—today marks the third day since these things happened—
22. some of the women among us utterly astounded us when, after going to the sepulchre early in the morning
23. and not finding his body, they came saying they had actually seen a vision of angels who said he was alive!
24. And then some of those with us went out to the sepulchre and found it exactly as the women said, but they didn’t see him.”
25. Then he said to them, “O fools! So slow in heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!”
26. Didn’t the Messiah have to suffer these things and enter into his glory?”
27. And beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he began explaining to them the things concerning himself in all the scriptures.
28. And they drew near the village where they were going, and he made as though he was going farther,
29. but they prevailed upon him, saying, “Stay with us. It’s nearly evening; the day is far spent.” And so, he went in to lodge with them.

¹⁴ Sixty stadia is approximately seven miles.

30. And it came to pass as he ate with them that he took the bread and blessed it, and then he broke it and gave it to them.
31. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight.
32. And they said to one another, “Wasn’t our heart burning within us while he was talking with us on the road, and while he was explaining the scriptures to us?”
33. And they arose the same hour and returned to Jerusalem, and they found the eleven and those with them gathered together
34. saying, “The Master really has been raised up, and he appeared to Simon!”
35. Then they began reporting what happened on the road, and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.
- ¶36. As they were telling these things, Jesus himself stood in their midst, and he said to them, “Peace to you.”
37. But they were startled and afraid, thinking they were seeing a ghost.
38. And he said to them, “Why are you troubled? And why do doubts come up in your hearts?
39. See my hands and my feet, that it is me. Touch me and see! A ghost doesn’t have flesh and bones the way you see I have.”
40. And after he said this, he presented his hands and feet to them.
41. But while they still disbelieved for joy, and were amazed, he said to them, “Do you have any food here?”
42. And they gave him a piece of broiled fish and some honeycomb.
43. And he took it, and ate in their presence.
44. And then he said to them, “These are the words that I spoke to you while I was yet with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in Psalms must be fulfilled.”
45. Then he opened their mind to understand the scriptures,
46. and he said to them, “Thus it is written, and so, it was necessary for the Messiah to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day,
47. and for repentance and remission of sins to be preached in his name to all nations, beginning in Jerusalem.
48. Now, you are witnesses of these things,
49. and, behold, I am sending the promise of my Father upon you. As for you, you stay in the city of Jerusalem until you be clothed with power from on high!”
- ¶50. Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and then he lifted up his hands and blessed them.

51. And it came to pass as he was blessing them that he parted from them and was carried up into heaven.

52. And they worshipped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy,

53. and they were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

End of the Gospel of Luke

The Gospel of John

John 1

- ¶1. In the beginning, the Word was there, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
 - 2. He was in the beginning with God.
 - 3. All things were created through him, and without him was nothing created that was created.
 - 4. In him was life, and the life was the light of men,
 - 5. and the light shined in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.
 - 6. There was a man sent from God whose name was John.
 - 7. He came as a witness, to bear witness of the light so that through him, all men might believe.
 - 8. That man was not the light; rather, he came to bear witness of the light.
 - 9. This one was the true light, which sheds light on every man when it comes into the world.
 - 10. He was in the world, and the world was created through him, but the world did not know him.
 - 11. He came to his own things, but his own people did not receive him,
 - 12. but as many as did receive him, to them he granted the right to become children of God, to those who believe in his name,
 - 13. who are born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
 - 14. And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld his glory, glory as from a father to an only son, full of grace and truth.
 - 15. John bore witness of him and cried out, saying, “This was the man of whom I said, ‘After me comes the one who is greater than I, for he was before I was.’”
 - 16. And of his fullness have we all received, and grace upon grace.
 - 17. For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.
 - 18. No one has ever seen God; the unique Son who is next to the Father¹ has made Him known.
- ¶19. And this is John's testimony when the Jews² sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, “Who are you?”

¹ Literally, “in the bosom of the Father”, a Greek idiom meaning “next to” or “close to”. See 13:23.

² John often uses the phrase, “the Jews”, in reference to the rulers of the Jews as opposed to the Jewish people as a whole.

20. And he confessed, and did not deny it, but confessed, “I am not the Messiah.”
 21. And they asked him, “What, then? Are you Elijah?” And he said, “I am not.” “Are you the prophet?” And he answered, “No.”
 22. So they said to him, “Who are you, that we might give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself?”
 23. He said, “I am ‘a voice crying in the wilderness, “Prepare the way of the LORD,”’ as Isaiah the prophet said.”
 24. (Now those who were sent were of the Pharisees.)
 25. And they questioned him and said to him, “Why, then, are you baptizing if you are not the Messiah, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?”
 26. John answered them, saying, “I am baptizing with water, but in your midst stands one whom you do not know,
 27. the one coming after me who is greater than I, the strap of whose sandal I am not worthy to loosen.”
 28. These things took place in Bethany, beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.
- ¶29. The next day, he saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Behold! The Lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world!
30. This is the one of whom I said, ‘After me is coming a man who is greater than I, for he was before I was.’
 31. I myself did not know him, but the reason I came baptizing with water is so that he might be made known to Israel.”
 32. And John testified, saying, “I saw the Spirit descending from heaven in the form of a dove, and it remained on him.
 33. And I did not know him, but the One who sent me to baptize with water told me, ‘Upon whomever you see the Spirit descend and remain on him, he is the one who baptizes with holy Spirit.’
 34. And I have seen, and I testify that this is the Son of God!”
- ¶35. The next day John was again standing with two of his disciples,
36. and seeing Jesus as he walked by, he said, “Behold! The Lamb of God!”
 37. His two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus.
 38. When Jesus turned and noticed them following, he said to them, “What are you looking for?” And they said to him, “Rabbi (which, when translated, means ‘Teacher’), where are you staying?”

39. He said to them, “Come on and see.” So they went, and they saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about the tenth hour.³
40. Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard John and then followed him.
41. He found his brother Simon first and told him, “We’ve found the Messiah (which is translated, ‘Christ’)!”⁴
42. Then he led him to Jesus. When Jesus saw him, he said, “You’re Simon, the son of Jonah. You’ll be called Cephas (which means ‘Peter’).”⁵
- ¶43. The next day, Jesus wanted to depart into Galilee, and he found Philip and said to him, “Follow me.”
44. (Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.)
45. Philip found Nathanael and said to him, “We have found the one Moses and the prophets wrote about in the law, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.”
46. But Nathanael said to him, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Philip told him, “Come and see.”
47. Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him and said of him, “Behold! A real Israelite, in whom is no guile!”
48. Nathanael said to him, “Where do you know me from?” Jesus answered him and said, “Before Philip called you, I saw you when you were under the fig tree.”
49. Nathanael answered and said to him, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!”
50. Jesus answered and said to him, “Do you believe because I told you I saw you under the fig tree? You’ll see greater things than these.”
51. And then he said to him, “Truly, truly, I tell you, later on, you’ll see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.”

John 2

- ¶1. On the third day, there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there,
2. and Jesus was also called to the wedding, and his disciples.
3. And when the wine ran out, Jesus’ mother told him, “They have no wine.”
4. Jesus said to her, “What have I have to do with you, woman? My hour hasn’t yet come.”

³ That is, four in the afternoon.

⁴ “Christ” and “Messiah” both mean “anointed one”.

⁵ “Cephas” and “Peter” both mean “rock”.

5. His mother said to the servers, “Whatever he tells you, do it.”
 6. Now, there were six stone water jars standing there, according to the Jews ’custom of purification, each one able to hold two or three measures.⁶
 7. Jesus said to them, “Fill the jars with water.” And they filled them to the brim.
 8. Then he said to them, “Now, draw out some and carry it to the head steward.” And they took it.
 9. Then, when the head steward tasted the water that had been turned into wine, not knowing where it came from (though the servers who had drawn the water knew), the head steward called out to the bridegroom
 10. and said to him, “Every man sets out the good wine first, and when they are drunk, then the inferior, but you have kept the good wine until now!”
 11. This, the beginning of miracles, Jesus performed in Cana of Galilee, and he manifested his glory, and his disciples believed in him.
- ¶12. After this, he went down to Capernaum, he and his mother, and his brothers, and his disciples, but they did not stay there many days.
- ¶13. And the Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
14. And he found in the temple men selling cattle and sheep and doves, and the money-changers seated.
 15. And when he had made a whip out of ropes, he drove them all out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle, and he poured out the money-changers ’money and overturned the tables,
 16. and told those who sold the doves, “Get these things out of here! Don’t you make my Father’s house a marketplace!”
 17. Then his disciples remembered that it is written, “Zeal for your house shall eat me up.”
 18. So the Jews answered and said to him, “What sign do you show us for doing these things?”
 19. Jesus answered and said to them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I’ll raise it up.”
 20. Then said the Jews, “For forty-six years was this temple under construction, and you will raise it up in three days?”
 21. But he was talking about the temple of his body.
 22. And when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he said this, and they believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus spoke.
- ¶23. While he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in his name, seeing his miracles that he performed.

⁶ Two or three liquid measures is roughly equivalent to twenty or thirty gallons.

24. But as for Jesus, he did not trust himself to them because he knows all men
25. and because he had no need for anyone to testify about man, for he knew what was in man.

John 3

- ¶1. Now, there was a man of the Pharisees whose name was Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews.
2. He came to him by night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no man can do these miracles that you are doing except God be with him.”
3. Jesus answered and said to him, “Truly, truly, I tell you, unless a man is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”
4. Nicodemus said to him, “How can a man be born when he is old? He cannot enter his mother’s womb a second time and be born, can he?”
5. Jesus answered, “Truly, truly, I tell you, unless a man be born of water and of spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
6. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit.
7. Don’t marvel that I told you, ‘You must be born again.’
8. The wind blows wherever it will, and you hear its sound, but you don’t know where it’s coming from or where it’s going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit.”
9. Nicodemus answered and said to him, “How can these things be?”
10. Jesus answered and said to him, “You’re a teacher of Israel, and you don’t understand these things?
11. Truly, truly, I tell you that what we know we speak, and what we’ve seen we testify to, and you’re not receiving our testimony.
12. If I have spoken earthly things to you, and you don’t believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?
13. No one has ascended into heaven except the one who came down from heaven (the Son of man, who is in heaven).
14. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of man be lifted up,
15. that everyone who believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.”
16. So then, this is the way God loved the world: He gave His only Son so that every one who believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.
17. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.
18. He who believes in him is not condemned, but he who does not believe has been condemned already because he has not believed in the name of the unique Son of God.

19. And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil.
 20. For everyone who practices evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds be exposed.
 21. But he who does the truth comes to the light so that his deeds may be made manifest, that they have been wrought in God.
- ¶22. After these things, Jesus went with his disciples into the land of Judea, and he spent some time with them there and was baptizing.
23. And John was also baptizing in Aenon, near Salim, because there was much water there, and people were coming and being baptized,
 24. for John was not yet thrown into prison.
- ¶25. Now, there arose a controversy between some of John's disciples and a Jew concerning purification.
26. And so, they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you on the other side of Jordan, to whom you have borne witness, behold, he is baptizing and everybody is going to him!"
 27. John answered and said, "A man can receive nothing unless it be given to him from heaven.
 28. You yourselves are witnesses that I said, 'I am not the Messiah, 'only that 'I am sent before him.'
 29. The one who has the bride is the bridegroom; still, the friend of the bridegroom who stands and listens for him rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. Therefore, this joy of mine is full.
 30. He must increase, and I must decrease."
- ¶31. He who comes from above is above all; he who is from the earth is of the earth, and he speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all.
32. And what he has seen and heard, he bears witness to it, and no one is receiving his witness.
 33. He who receives his witness has set his seal that God is true.
 34. He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure.
 35. The Father loves the Son and has given all things into his hand.
 36. He who believes in the Son has eternal life, but he who disobeys the Son shall not see life; on the contrary, the wrath of God abides upon him.

1. Now, when the Lord found out that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John
2. (although Jesus himself did not baptize, but his disciples),
3. he left Judea and went into Galilee,
4. and he had to pass through Samaria.
5. So he came to a city of Samaria called Sychar, close to the field which Jacob gave to Joseph his son,
6. and Jacob's well was there. And Jesus, wearied from the journey, sat down on the well. It was about the sixth hour.
7. A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink,"
8. for his disciples had gone into the city to buy food.
9. So then, the Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)
10. Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."
11. The woman said to him, "Sir, you don't even have a bucket, and the well's deep. Where, then, do you get that living water?"
12. Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this well and drank of it himself, and his sons and his cattle?"
13. Jesus answered and said to her, "Everybody who drinks this water will get thirsty again,
14. but if anyone drinks the water that I'll give him, he'll never thirst again. No, the water that I'll give him will become within him a fountain of water springing up into eternal life."
15. The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I won't get thirsty or come to this place to draw."
16. Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."
17. The woman answered and said, "I don't have a husband." Jesus said to her, "You have well said, 'I don't have a husband,'
18. for you've had five husbands, and the one you have now isn't your husband. You said that right."
19. The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet."
20. Our fathers worshipped in this mountain, but you, you say that in Jerusalem is the place where people have to worship."
21. Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, an hour is coming when you'll worship the Father neither in this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

22. You Samaritans don't know what you're worshipping; we know what we worship, for salvation is of the Jews.
 23. But an hour is coming, and now is, when true worshippers will worship the Father spiritually and truly, for the Father is searching for such people to worship Him.
 24. God is a spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and in truth."
 25. The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming (who is called, 'Christ'); when he comes, he'll tell us all things."
 26. Jesus said to her, "I, the one talking with you, am the Messiah."
- ¶27. And upon this, his disciples came, and they were surprised that he was talking with a woman. Nevertheless, no one said, "What are you after?" or "Why are you talking with her?"
28. Then the woman left her water pot and went to the city, and she told the men,
 29. "Come! See a man who told me everything I ever did! Isn't this the Messiah?"
 30. They went out of the city and came to him.
 31. In the meantime, his disciples kept asking him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."
 32. But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you don't know about."
 33. At this, the disciples began saying to one another, "Has anybody brought him something to eat?"
 34. Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of Him who sent me and to finish His work."
 35. Don't you say, 'There are yet four months, and then comes the harvest?' Behold! I tell you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are white for the harvest already.
 36. He who reaps receives wages and gathers fruit unto eternal life, so that both the sower and the reaper may rejoice together.
 37. For in this, the saying is true: 'One is the sower, and another one, the reaper.'
 38. I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."
- ¶39. Many among the Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the report of the woman testifying, "He told me everything I ever did!"
40. So, when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them, and he stayed there two days.
 41. And many more believed because of his word,
 42. and then they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of what you said. We have heard for ourselves, and we know that this really is the Savior of the world, the Messiah."

- ¶43. After the two days, he left there and went to Galilee.
44. For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country.
45. So, when he came into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things he did in Jerusalem during the feast, for they also went to the feast.
- ¶46. Then Jesus went again to Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain official whose son was sick in Capernaum.
47. When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him and asked him to come down and heal his son, for he was about to die.
48. Then Jesus said to him, “Unless you see signs and miracles, you won’t ever believe!”
49. The official said to him, “Sir, do come down before my child dies!”
50. Jesus said to him, “Go! Your son lives.” And the man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and left.
51. And as he was going down, his servants met him, and they brought a report, saying, “Your child lives!”
52. Then he inquired of them the hour in which he had improved. And they said to him, “The fever left him yesterday at the seventh hour.”⁷
53. And the father knew that was the hour when Jesus said to him, “Your son lives,” and he and his entire household believed.
54. This is another, the second, miracle Jesus performed after he came out of Judea into Galilee.

John 5

- ¶1. After these things, there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
¶2. Now, in Jerusalem by the sheep gate, there is a pool, which in Hebrew is called “Bethesda”, having five porticos.
3. In these porticos lay a great multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, and paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water.
4. For from time to time, an angel came down to the pool and stirred up the water. Then, the one who went in first after the stirring of the water was cured of whatever disease that bound him.
5. Now a certain man was there who had suffered with an infirmity thirty-eight years.
6. When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had already been there a long time, he said to him, “Do you want to be well?”

⁷ That is, one in the afternoon.

7. The sick man answered him, “Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is stirred, but while I am going, another goes down ahead of me.”
 8. Jesus said to him, “Get up! Take your pallet, and walk!”
 9. And immediately, the man was made well, and he took up his pallet and walked. But that day was a Sabbath.
- ¶10. Therefore, the Jews said to the man who was healed, “It is a Sabbath! It is not lawful for you to pick up a bed.”
11. He answered them, “The one who made me well, he said to me, ‘Take up your bed and walk.’”
 12. So then they asked him, “Who is the man who told you, ‘Take up your bed and walk?’”
 13. But the healed man did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, a crowd being in that place.
 14. Later, Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, “Behold, you have been healed. Sin no more, lest something worse happen to you.”
 15. The man went away and reported to the Jews that Jesus was the one who made him well.
 16. And this is why the Jews began persecuting Jesus, and sought to kill him, because he kept doing these things on the Sabbath.
 17. But Jesus answered them, “Up until now, my Father has been working, and so, I work.”
 18. Because of this, then, the Jews wanted all the more to kill him, for not only was he breaking the Sabbath, they said, but he was also calling God his own Father, making himself equal with God.
- ¶19. So, Jesus answered and said to them, “Truly, truly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing of himself, but only what he sees the Father do, for whatever things He does, these things the Son also does, in the same way.
20. For the Father delights in the Son, and He is showing him everything that He is doing, and greater works than these will He show him, so that you will marvel.
 21. For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will.
 22. The Father doesn’t even judge anyone, but has committed all judgment to the Son,
 23. so that all should honor the Son just as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.
 24. Truly, truly, I tell you that he who hears my word and trusts in Him who sent me has eternal life and isn’t headed toward damnation, but has passed from death into life.
 25. Truly, truly, I tell you that an hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear shall live.

26. For just as the Father has life in Himself, so He has also given to the Son to have life in himself,
 27. and He has also given him authority to execute judgment because he is a son of man.
 28. Don't marvel at this, for an hour is coming in which all who are in the tombs will hear his voice,
 29. and they will come out, those who did good things unto the resurrection of life, but those who did bad things, unto the resurrection of damnation.
- ¶30. "Of myself, I can do nothing. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is just because I'm not seeking my own will but the will of the Father who sent me.
31. If I testify about myself, my testimony is not true.
 32. There's another who testifies about me, and I know that the witness that He bears of me is true.
 33. You yourselves sent to John, and he bore witness to the truth.
 34. Nevertheless, I accept the testimony of no man. I'm only saying these things so that you might be saved.
 35. He was a burning and shining lamp, and you were willing for a little while to rejoice in his light.
 36. But I have a testimony greater than John. For the works that my Father gave me to finish—the very works that I'm doing—bear witness of me, that the Father has sent me.
 37. And the Father who sent me has Himself borne me witness. You've never heard His voice nor seen His form.
 38. And you don't have His word abiding in you, the proof being that you don't believe the one that He sent.
 39. You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life, but they are they which testify of me,
 40. and you don't want to come to me, that you might have life!
 41. I don't accept honor from humans,
 42. and I know you, that you don't have the love of God in you.
 43. I have come in my Father's name, and you don't receive me; if another comes in his own name, him you will receive.
 44. How can you believe while receiving honor from one another and not seeking the honor that comes from God alone?
 45. Don't think that I will accuse you to the Father; the one who is accusing you is Moses, in whom you hope.
 46. If you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote about me.

47. And if you don't believe his writings, how will you believe my words?"

John 6

- ¶1. After these things, Jesus went away, across the Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of Tiberias.
- 2. And a large multitude followed him because they had seen the miracles which he performed on the sick.
- 3. But Jesus went up on the mountain and sat there with his disciples.
- 4. (Now, the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand.)
- 5. Then Jesus lifted up his eyes, and seeing a great crowd coming toward him, he said to Philip, "Where will we buy bread so these might eat?"
- 6. But this he said testing him, for he himself knew what he was about to do.
- 7. Philip answered him, "Two-hundred denarii⁸ worth of bread isn't enough for them, even if each of them takes a little."
- 8. One of his disciples, Andrew the brother of Simon Peter, said to him,
- 9. "There's a little boy here who has five barley loaves and two small fish, but what are these among so many?"
- 10. But Jesus said, "Make the men get down for a meal." Now, there was much grass in that place, so the men got down, in number about five thousand.
- 11. Then Jesus took the loaves, and after offering thanks, he distributed them and the fish likewise to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were seated for the meal, as much as they wanted.
- 12. And when they were full, he told his disciples, "Gather up the leftover pieces so that nothing be lost."
- 13. So they gathered them, and they filled twelve small baskets with the broken pieces of the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten.
- 14. Then, when the men saw the miracle that Jesus had done, they began to say, "This really is the Prophet who is coming into the world!"
- 15. But then, Jesus, realizing that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, withdrew to the mountain alone.
- ¶16. When the evening came, his disciples went down to the sea,
- 17. and after boarding the boat, they started across the sea toward Capernaum. Now, it was already dark, and Jesus had not come to them.
- 18. And the sea began to rise because a strong wind was blowing.

⁸ If a denarius was a day's wages for an ordinary working man, then 200 denarii was about eight months 'wages.

19. Then, when they had rowed twenty-five or thirty stadia⁹, they beheld Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near the boat, and they were terrified.
20. But he said to them, “It’s me! Don’t be afraid.”
21. Then they were willing to take him into the boat, and the boat was immediately at the land to which they were going.
- ¶22. The next day, the multitude that remained on the other side of the sea, saw that there was no other boat there except the one his disciples boarded and that Jesus had not gone in the boat with his disciples, but that his disciples went alone.
23. Nevertheless, other boats had come from Tiberias near the place where they ate the bread after the Lord offered thanks,
24. so when the crowd saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, then they themselves boarded boats and came to Capernaum, looking for Jesus,.
25. And when they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, “Rabbi, when did you come here?”
26. Jesus answered them and said, “Truly, truly, I tell you, you are looking for me not because you saw miracles but because you ate the loaves and were filled.
27. Don’t labor for food that perishes, but for food that endures unto eternal life, which the Son of man will give you, for God, the Father, has sealed him.”
28. Then they said to him, “What should we do, that we may work the works of God?”
29. Jesus answered and said to them, “This is the work of God, that you believe on the one He has sent.”
30. So they said to him, “Then, what sign do you do, that we might see it and believe in you? What work do you do?
31. Our fathers ate manna in the wilderness, as it is written, ‘He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’”
32. Jesus therefore said to them, “Truly, truly, I tell you, Moses didn’t give you that bread from heaven, but my Father is giving you the true bread from heaven.
33. For the bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.”
34. Then they said to him, “Sir, give us this bread always.”
35. Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life. He who comes to me shall never hunger, and he who believes in me shall never thirst.
36. But I told you that you have seen me, and yet you don’t believe.

⁹“ Twenty-five or thirty stadia” is approximately three or four miles.

37. Every thing the Father gives me shall come to me, and he who comes to me, I will by no means cast out.
 38. For I have come down from heaven not to do my will, but the will of Him who sent me.
 39. And this is the will of the Father who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that He has given to me, but that I should raise it up in the last day.
 40. And this is the will of Him who sent me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.”
- ¶41. Then the Jews started grumbling about him because he said, “I am the bread that came down from heaven.”
42. And they kept saying, “Isn’t this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? So, how does he say, ‘I have come down from heaven?’”
 43. Jesus, therefore, answered and said to them, “Don’t murmur among yourselves.
 44. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him up on the last day.
 45. It’s written in the prophets, ‘And they shall all be taught by God. ’Everybody, then, who hears and learns from the Father comes to me,
 46. not that anyone has seen the Father; only the one who is from God has seen the Father.
 47. Truly, truly, I tell you, he who believes in me has eternal life.
 48. I am the bread of life.
 49. Your fathers ate manna in the wilderness, and they died.
 50. This is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat of it and not die.
 51. I, the one who came down from heaven, am the living bread. If anyone eats of this bread, he’ll live forever. And the bread that I’ll give is my flesh, which I’ll give for the life of the world.”
- ¶52. Then the Jews began disputing among themselves, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”
53. Therefore, Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you.
 54. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I’ll raise him up on the last day.
 55. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.
 56. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him.
 57. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live by the Father, so also, he who eats me shall live by me.
 58. This is the bread who came down from heaven—not the way your fathers ate manna and died. He who eats this bread will live forever.”

59. These things he said while teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.
- ¶60. Then, when many of his disciples heard this, they said, “This is a hard saying; who can hear it?”
61. But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples were grumbling about this, said to them, “Does this offend you?
62. Then, what if you see the Son of man ascending to where he was before?
63. It is the Spirit that gives life; the flesh profits nothing. The things that I am telling you, they are spirit, and they are life!
64. But there are some of you who don’t believe.” (For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who didn’t believe and who it was who would betray him.)
65. And then he said, “This is why I have said to you that no one can come to me unless it be given to him from my Father.”
- ¶66. At this, many of his disciples went back to former things, and walked with him no longer.
67. Then Jesus said to the twelve, “Don’t you want to leave, too?”
68. Then Simon Peter answered him, “Master, who will we go to? You have words of eternal life.
69. And we have believed and have come to know that you are the Messiah, the Son of the living God!”
70. Jesus answered them, “Didn’t I choose you twelve, and one of you is a slanderer?”
71. He spoke of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, for he, being one of the twelve, was going to betray him.

John 7

- ¶1. After these things, Jesus traveled about in Galilee; he didn’t want to travel in Judea because the Jews were seeking to kill him.
2. Now, the feast of the Jews, the Feast of Tabernacles, was near.
3. So, his brothers said to him, “Leave this place and go to Judea so that your disciples may also see these works of yours that you do.
4. Nobody does anything in secret when he wants to be publicly known. Since you do these things, show yourself to the world!”
5. (For not even his brothers believed in him.)
6. Therefore, Jesus said to them, “My time hasn’t yet come, but your time is always ready.
7. The world can’t hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it, that its works are evil.

8. You go on up to this feast; I'm not yet going up to this feast because my time is not yet fulfilled."
9. And having spoken these things to them, he remained in Galilee.
- ¶10. But when his brothers had gone up, then he also went up to the feast, not openly, but in secret.
11. Now, the Jews were looking for him at the feast and were saying, "Where is he?"
12. And there was a lot of hushed debate about him among the multitudes. Some were saying, "He's a good man," while others were saying, "No! He is deceiving the people."
13. No one, though, was speaking openly about him for fear of the Jews.
- ¶14. When the feast was already half over, Jesus went up to the temple and began teaching.
15. And the Jews were amazed, saying, "How does this man know scriptures, not having been trained?"
16. Jesus, therefore, answered them and said, "My doctrine is not mine, but His who sent me.
17. If anyone is willing to do His will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it's from God or if I speak on my own.
18. He who speaks on his own is seeking his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of the One who sent him, he is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.
19. Didn't Moses give you the law, and yet, not one of you is keeping the law! Why do you seek to kill me?"
20. The crowd answered and said, "You have a demon! Who is seeking to kill you?"
21. Jesus answered and said to them, "I did one work, and all of you are astonished.
22. Because Moses gave you circumcision (not that it's from Moses, but from the fathers), even on the Sabbath, you circumcise someone.
23. If a man receives circumcision on a Sabbath so that Moses' law be not broken, are you bitter against me because I made a man entirely whole on a Sabbath?
24. Do not judge by appearances, but judge righteous judgment!"
- ¶25. Then some of those from Jerusalem started saying, "Isn't this the one they're seeking to kill?"
26. And yet, behold, he's talking openly, and they're saying nothing to him! Could it really be that the rulers have found out that this man really is the Messiah?
27. But yet, we know where this man's from, but when the Messiah comes, nobody will know where he's from."

28. Therefore, Jesus cried out as he taught in the temple and said, “You know me, and you also know where I’m from, and I haven’t come on my own, but the One who sent me is true; Him you do not know.”
 29. I know Him because I am from Him, and He sent me.”
 30. Then they tried to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him because his hour had not yet come.
 31. But many of the people believed in him, and they were saying, “When the Messiah comes, will he do more miracles than these that this man’s done?”
 32. The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things about him, and the Pharisees and chief priests sent officers to arrest him.
 33. Then, Jesus said, “I’m to be with you a little while longer, and then, I’m going away to the One who sent me.
 34. You will look for me, but you won’t find me, and where I am, you cannot come.”
 35. Then the Jews said to each other, “Where is this man going to go, that we won’t find him? Will he go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks?
 36. What is this that he said: ‘You will look for me, but you won’t find me, and where I am, you cannot come?’”
- ¶37. On the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, “If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink!
38. He who believes in me, as the scripture said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water!”
 39. But he spoke this about the Spirit, which those who believed in him were going to receive, for the holy Spirit was not yet given because Jesus was not yet glorified.
 40. When they heard this statement, many in the crowd started saying, “This really is the prophet!”
 41. Others were saying, “This is the Messiah!” Others were saying, “The Messiah doesn’t come from Galilee, does he?
 42. Doesn’t Scripture say that the Messiah is coming from the seed of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David lived?”
 43. So, there was a division among the people because of him.
 44. And some of them wanted to seize him, but no one laid hands on him.
- ¶45. Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they asked them, “Why did you not bring him?”
46. The officers answered, “Never has a man spoken like this man.”
 47. Then the Pharisees answered them, “Are you also deceived?
 48. Has any one from among the rulers believed in him, or from the Pharisees?

49. No! This people, who do not know the law, are accursed!"
50. Nicodemus (the one who came to him by night), being one of them, said to them,
51. "Does our law condemn the man unless it first hears from him and ascertains what he is doing?"
52. They answered and said to him, "You're not from Galilee, too, are you? Search and see that no prophet has arisen from Galilee!"
53. Then every one went home.

John 8

1. But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.
- ¶2. Early in the morning, he went again to the temple, and all the people began to come, and he sat down and taught them.
3. Then the scribes and Pharisees led a woman to him who had been caught in adultery, and when they had stood her in the midst,
4. they said to him, testing him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of adultery!
5. In the law, Moses commanded us that such women are to be stoned. Now then, what do you say?"
6. They were saying this to test him, so that they might have a charge to bring against him. But Jesus, stooping down, began to write on the ground with his finger, as if paying no attention.
7. Then, as they persisted in questioning him, he stood up and said to them, "Let him among you who is without sin throw the first stone at her."
8. And stooping down again, he wrote on the ground.
9. Then, one by one, starting with the oldest, the men who heard this went out, convicted by their conscience, and Jesus was left alone, with the woman still in the midst.
10. And when Jesus stood up and saw no one except the woman, he said to her, "Where are those accusers of yours? Did no one condemn you?"
11. She said, "No one, sir." Then Jesus said, "I don't condemn you either. Go, and don't sin any more."
- ¶12. Then Jesus again spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. He who follows me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life."
13. Therefore the Pharisees said to him, "You are bearing witness of yourself; your witness is not true."
14. Jesus answered them and said, "Even if I bear witness of myself, my witness is true because I know where I came from and where I'm going, but you don't know where I come from or where I'm going.

15. You judge after the flesh; I judge nobody.
 16. And yet, if I do judge, my judgment is true because I'm not alone, but I and the Father who sent me.
 17. Even in your law it is written that the testimony of two men is true.
 18. I'm one who bears witness of myself, and the Father who sent me bears witness of me."
 19. Then they began to say to him, "Where is your father?" Jesus answered, "You don't know me or my Father; if you had known me, you would have known my Father, too."
 20. These things Jesus spoke in the treasury, while teaching in the temple, and yet, no one arrested him because his hour had not yet come.
- ¶21. Then Jesus said to them again, "I'm going away, and you'll look for me, but you'll die in your sin. Where I'm going, you can't come."
22. Then the Jews started saying, "Maybe he'll kill himself, since he says, 'Where I'm going, you can't come.'"
 23. And he said to them, "You're from below; I'm from above. You're of this world; I'm not of this world.
 24. That's why I told you that you will die in your sins. For if you don't believe that I'm the one, you'll die in your sins."
 25. So then they said to him, "Who are you?" And Jesus said to them, "Even what I said to you from the beginning.
 26. I have many things to say and to judge concerning you, but He who sent me is true, and the things I've heard from Him, these I speak to the world."
 27. (They did not understand that he spoke of the Father to them.)
 28. Then said Jesus to them, "When you lift up the Son of man, then you'll know that I'm the one, and I'm doing nothing on my own, but as my Father taught me, I say these things.
 29. And He who sent me is with me; the Father hasn't left me alone because I always do the things that please Him."
 30. As he was saying these things, many believed in him.
- ¶31. Then Jesus said to the Jews who believed in him, "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples,
32. and you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."
 33. They answered him, "We are Abraham's seed, and we have never been slaves to any man. How can you say, 'You shall be free'?"

34. Jesus answered them, “Truly, truly, I tell you that everyone who commits sin is a slave of sin.
35. And the slave doesn’t remain in the house forever; the son remains forever.
36. If, then, the Son makes you free, you’ll be free indeed.
37. I know that you’re Abraham’s seed, but you are seeking to kill me because my word finds no place in you.
38. I speak what I’ve seen from my Father, and you do what you’ve seen from your father.”
39. They answered and said to him, “Our father is Abraham.” Jesus said to them, “If you were Abraham’s children, you’d do the works of Abraham.
40. But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth which I heard from God. This, Abraham did not do.
41. You do the works of your father.” Then they said to him, “We are not born of fornication. We have one Father, God.”
42. Therefore, Jesus said to them, “If God was your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here, and I have not come on my own, but He sent me.
43. Why don’t you understand my speech? Because you cannot hear my word.
44. You are of your father, the Accuser, and you want to carry out the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and he has not continued in the truth because truth isn’t in him. Whenever he tells a lie, he speaks from himself because he’s a liar and the father of it.
45. And because I tell the truth, you don’t believe me.
46. Who among you convicts me of sin? And if I speak truth, why don’t you believe me?
47. He who is of God hears the words of God; the reason you don’t hear is that you are not of God.”
48. The Jews answered and said to him, “Don’t we rightly say that you’re a Samaritan, and you have a demon!”
49. Jesus answered, “I don’t have a demon! No! I honor my Father, and you dishonor me!
50. I don’t seek glory for myself; there is One who seeks and judges.
51. Truly, truly, I tell you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never, ever see death.”
52. Then the Jews said to him, “Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham and the prophets died, and you say, ‘If anyone keeps my word, he will never, ever taste of death.’”
53. Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets died. Who are you making yourself out to be?”

54. Jesus answered, “If I honor myself, my honor is nothing; my Father is the one who honors me, of whom you say, ‘He is our God.’”
55. And yet, you haven’t known Him, but I know Him. And if I say that I don’t know Him, I’ll be a liar like you! But I do know Him, and I keep His word!
56. Your father Abraham was overjoyed that he might see my day, and he saw it, and rejoiced.”
57. Then the Jews said to him, “You are not yet fifty years old, and you have seen Abraham?”
58. Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I tell you, before Abraham came to be, I was.”
59. At this, they took up stones to throw at him. But Jesus was hidden, and he went out of the temple, passing through their midst. And thus, he went away.

John 9

- ¶1. And as he went away, he saw a man blind from birth.
2. And his disciples asked him, saying, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, for him to be born blind?”
3. Jesus answered, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned; it happened so that the works of God might be manifested in him.
4. I must work the works of the One who sent me while it is day. The night is coming when no one can work.
5. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world!”
6. When he had said these things, he spat on the ground, and made mud from the spit, and smeared the mud on the eyes of the blind man,
7. and said to him, “Go wash in the pool of Siloam (which, translated, is ‘Sent’).” So he went away and washed, and returned, seeing.
8. Then his neighbors and those who had seen him before, that he was blind, started saying, “Isn’t this the man who sits and begs?”
9. Some said, “This is the man.” But others, “He is like him.” But he said, “I’m the man.”
10. Then they said to him, “How were your eyes opened?”
11. He answered and said, “A man named Jesus made mud and smeared it on my eyes and told me, ‘Go to the pool of Siloam and wash!’ And when I went and washed, I could see.”
12. So they said to him, “Where is that man?” He said, “I don’t know.”
- ¶13. They led him who once was blind to the Pharisees.
14. (Now, it was a Sabbath day when Jesus made mud and opened his eyes.)

15. Then, again, the Pharisees also questioned him as to how he received sight. And he said to them, “He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and I see.”
16. Then some of the Pharisees began saying, “This man is not of God because he does not keep the Sabbath!” Others said, “How can a sinful man do such miracles?” And there was a division among them.
17. Again, they said to the blind man, “What do you say about him, since he opened your eyes?” And he said, “He’s a prophet.”
18. However, the Jews did not believe it about him, that he used to be blind, and then received sight. Meanwhile, they had summoned the parents of him who received sight,
19. and they questioned them, saying, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How, then, does he now see?”
20. Then his parents answered them and said, “We know that this is our son and that he was born blind,
21. but how it is that he now sees, we don’t know, or who opened his eyes, we don’t know. He’s of age; ask him! He’ll speak for himself.”
22. (His parents said these things because they were afraid of the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone confessed him to be the Messiah, he should be put out of the synagogue.
23. This is why his parents said, “He’s of age; ask him.”)
24. Then they summoned for the second time the man who used to be blind and said to him, “Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner.”
25. Then he answered and said, “Whether he’s a sinner, I don’t know. One thing I do know. I was blind, but now I see.”
26. They said to him again, “What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?”
27. He answered them, “I told you already, and you didn’t listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You don’t want to be his disciples, too, do you?”
28. They reviled him and said, “You are that man’s disciple; we are disciples of Moses!
29. We know that God spoke to Moses, but we do not know where this man is from.”
30. The man answered and said to them, “Well, this is an amazing thing, that you don’t know where he’s from, and yet he opened my eyes!
31. We know that God doesn’t hear sinners, but if anyone is God-fearing and does His will, He hears him.
32. Since the world began, it hasn’t been heard that someone opened the eyes of a man born blind.

33. If this man wasn't of God, he couldn't do anything!"
34. They answered and said to him, "You were altogether born in sin, and you are teaching us?" And they threw him out.
- ¶35. Jesus heard that they threw him out, and when he found him, he said to him, "Do you believe in the Son of God?"
36. He answered and said, "And who is he, sir, so that I can believe in him?"
37. Jesus said to him, "You have now seen him, and he is the one talking with you."
38. Then he said, "Sir, I believe," and he knelt down before him.
39. And Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment, so that those who don't see might see, and those who do see might be made blind."
40. And some of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and they said to him, "We are not blind, too, are we?"
41. Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you'd have no sin, but now you say, 'We see'; therefore, your sin remains."

John 10

- ¶1. "Truly, truly, I tell you, he who doesn't enter through the gate into the sheepfold, but climbs up at some other place, is a thief and a robber.
2. He who enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep.
3. The gatekeeper opens for him, and the sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.
4. And once he has driven out his sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice.
5. They will by no means follow a stranger, but they will flee from him because they don't know the voice of strangers."
6. Jesus spoke this allegory to them, but they did not understand the things that he said to them.
- ¶7. Then again, Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I tell you that I'm the gate for the sheep.
8. All who have ever come are thieves and robbers, but the sheep didn't hear them.
9. I'm the door; if anyone enters through me, he'll be saved, and he'll come in, and go out and find pasture.
10. The thief comes to steal, to kill, and to destroy; I am come that they might have life, and have it abundantly.
11. I'm the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

12. But the hireling, not really being a shepherd, whose sheep are not his own, sees the wolf coming and abandons the sheep and flees, and the wolf drags them off and scatters the sheep.
 13. The hireling flees because he's a hireling, and it doesn't matter to him about the sheep.
 14. I'm the good shepherd; I know my own, and I am known by my own,
 15. just as the Father knows me, I also know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep.
 16. And I have other sheep which aren't of this fold; I must bring them also, and they will hear my voice, and there shall be one flock, and one Shepherd.
 17. This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life, that I might receive it again.
 18. Nobody takes it from me; I lay it down on my own. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I received this commandment from my Father."
- ¶19. Then, because of these words, there arose a division among the Jews again.
20. Many of them were saying, "He is demon-possessed and deranged! Why do you listen to him?"
 21. Others were saying, "These are not the words of a demon-possessed man! Can a demon open blind eyes?"
- ¶22. Then came the Feast of Dedication in Jerusalem, and it was winter,
23. and Jesus was walking in the temple in Solomon's portico.
 24. But then the Jews surrounded him and began to say to him, "How long are you going to hold our soul in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly."
 25. Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you don't believe. The works that I do in my Father's name, these bear witness of me,
 26. but you don't believe because you're not my sheep, just like I told you.
 27. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me,
 28. and I give them eternal life, and they'll never, ever die, and no one will snatch them out of my hand.
 29. My Father who gave me all things is greater than all, and no one can snatch anything out of my Father's hand.
 30. The Father and I are one."
 31. Then, again, the Jews took up stones to stone him.
 32. Jesus answered them, "I showed you many good works from my Father; for which one of them are you stoning me?"
 33. The Jews answered him saying, "We're not stoning you because of a good work, but for blasphemy, in that you, being a man, are making yourself a god."

34. Jesus answered them, “Isn’t it written in your law, ‘I said you are gods?’
 35. If He called them ‘gods’ to whom the word of God came—and the Scripture cannot be contradicted—
 36. are you telling the one whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, ‘You are blaspheming, ’because I said, ‘I am God’s Son’?
 37. If I don’t do the works of my Father, don’t believe me,
 38. but if I do, even if you don’t believe me, believe the works so that you may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in him.”
 39. Then, again, they tried to seize him, but he escaped out of their hand.
- ¶40. And he went again to the other side of Jordan to the place where John was first baptizing, and he remained there.
41. And many came to him, and they said, “Though John performed no miracle, every single thing John said about this man was true.”
 42. And many there believed in him.

John 11

- ¶1. Now, a certain man was sick, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha.
2. It was Mary who anointed the Lord with perfume and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.
3. So the sisters sent to him, saying, “Lord, behold, he whom you love is sick.”
4. When Jesus heard this, he said, “This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, so that by it, the Son of God might be glorified.”
5. Now, Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.
6. Nevertheless, when he heard that he was sick, he remained for two days in the place where he was.
7. Then, after this, he said to the disciples, “Let’s go again into Judea.”
8. The disciples said to him, “Rabbi, the Jews are now looking for you to stone you, and you’re going there again?”
9. Jesus answered, “Aren’t there twelve hours in a day? If someone walks during the day, he doesn’t stumble because he sees the light of this world.
10. But if someone walks at night, he stumbles because there’s no light in him.”
11. He said these things, and then told them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep. But I’m going to go wake him up.”
12. Then his disciples said, “Lord, if he’s fallen asleep, he’ll get well.”

13. Now, Jesus had been speaking concerning his death, but they thought he was talking about ordinary sleep.
 14. So, at that point, Jesus told them plainly, “Lazarus is dead;
 15. and I’m happy for you that I wasn’t there, so that you might believe. But let’s go to him.”
 16. Then Thomas, who is called “Twin”, said to his fellow disciples, “Let’s go, too, that we may die with him.”
- ¶17. Now, when Jesus came, he found that he had already been in the tomb four days.
18. (Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia¹⁰ from it.)
 19. And many of the Jews had come with the women who were around Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their brother.
 20. Then Martha, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went to meet him. But Mary stayed home.
 21. And Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died;
 22. still, even now, I know that whatever you ask God, God will grant you.”
 23. Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.”
 24. Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day.”
 25. Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me shall live even if he dies,
 26. and everyone who is living and believing in me will never, ever die. Do you believe this?”
 27. She said to him, “Yes, Lord. I have believed that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming to the world.”
 28. And when she had spoken these things, she went away and discreetly summoned Mary her sister, saying, “The Teacher is here, and he’s calling for you.”
 29. When she heard this, she quickly got up and went to him.
 30. Now, Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was in the place where Martha met him.
 31. When the Jews, who were with her in the house consoling her, saw that Mary got up quickly and went out, they followed her, thinking that she was going to the tomb to weep there.
 32. Then Mary, when she came to the place where Jesus was and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.”
 33. When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her weeping, he groaned in spirit and was himself deeply moved,

¹⁰ Fifteen stadia is approximately two miles.

34. and he said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.”
35. Jesus wept.
36. Then the Jews began to say, “Behold, how he loved him!”
37. But some of them said, “Couldn’t this man, who opened the eyes of the blind man, have also kept this man from dying?”
38. Then Jesus, groaning in himself again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was placed on it.
39. Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of him who had died, said to him, “Lord, he already stinks, for this is the fourth day!”
40. Jesus said to her, “Didn’t I tell you that if you believe, you will see the glory of God?”
41. So, they took away the stone where the dead man was laid. Then Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, “Father, I thank you, that you heard me.
42. And I know that you always hear me, but I said this because of the crowd that is here, so that they might believe that you sent me.”
43. And having said these things, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out here!”
44. And he who was dead, feet and hands bound with grave clothes, and his face wrapped with a cloth, came out. Jesus said to them, “Loose him, and let him go!”
- ¶45. Many of the Jews, therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what Jesus did, believed in him.
46. But some of them went away to the Pharisees and told them the things Jesus did.
- ¶47. Consequently, the chief priests and Pharisees convened the Sanhedrin and said, “What are we to do? This man is working many miracles.
48. If we allow him to go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation.”
49. Then one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest at that time, said to them, “You know nothing at all;
50. neither do you understand that it is better for us that one man should die for the people, and the whole nation not perish.”
51. Now, this he did not say of himself, but being high priest at that time, he prophesied that Jesus was about to die for the nation
52. (and not for that nation only, but also so that the children of God who are scattered abroad might be gathered together as one).
53. So, from that day, they plotted to kill him.
- ¶54. Therefore, Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but went away from there to the region near the desert, to a city called Ephraim, and there he remained with his disciples.

55. And the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up out of the country to Jerusalem before the Passover to purify themselves.
56. They kept looking for Jesus, and were saying to one another as they stood in the temple, “What do you think? That he won’t come to the feast at all?”
57. Now, both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment that if anyone knew where he was, he should report it so that they could arrest him.

John 12

- ¶1. Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus went to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had died, whom he raised from the dead.
2. So they made a supper there for him; Martha was serving, and Lazarus was one of those who reclined at the table with him.
3. Then Mary, taking a pound¹¹ of very expensive perfume of pure spikenard, anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair, and the home was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.
4. Then, one of his disciples, Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, who was to betray him, said,
5. “Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?”
6. (He said this not because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief, and he carried the moneybag and stole from what was put into it.)
7. But Jesus said, “Leave her alone! She has kept this for the time of my burial.
8. The poor, you always have with you, but me, you do not always have.”
- ¶9. Then a large crowd of the Jews found out that he was there, and they came, not just because of Jesus, but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.
10. But the chief priests resolved that they should kill Lazarus also,
11. for on account of him, many of the Jews were going away and believing in Jesus.
- ¶12. The next day, when a great multitude who had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming into Jerusalem,
13. they took branches from palm trees, and they went out to meet him, all the while crying, “Hosannah! Blessed is the King of Israel who is coming in the name of the LORD!”
14. Then, when Jesus had found a young donkey, he sat on it, just as it is written,
15. “Do not be afraid, O daughter of Zion! Behold! Your King is coming, sitting on a donkey’s colt.”

¹¹ A Roman pound weighed about 11.5 ounces.

16. (His disciples did not understand these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about him and that they had done these things to him.)
17. Meanwhile, the crowd that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead was testifying about it.
18. This is also why the multitude met him, because they had heard that he had performed this miracle.
19. Therefore, the Pharisees said to each other, “You see that you can do nothing. Behold, the world has gone after him!”
- ¶20. Now there were some Greeks among those who had come up to worship at the feast,
21. and these approached Philip, who was of Bethsaida in Galilee, and they asked him, saying, “Sir, we would like to see Jesus.”
22. Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn, Andrew and Philip told Jesus.
23. And Jesus answered them, saying, “The hour is come for the Son of man to be glorified.
24. Truly, truly, I tell you, unless the kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains alone, but if it dies, it bears much fruit.
25. He who loves his life shall lose it, and he who hates his life in this world shall keep it unto eternal life.
26. If anyone serves me, he must follow me, and then where I am, there my servant will also be. And if anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.
27. My soul is now troubled, and yet, what am I to say? ‘Father, save me from this hour’? No. For this purpose I came to this hour.
28. Father, glorify your name!” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have both glorified it, and I will glorify it again.”
29. Then the crowd that was standing there and heard it said that it had thundered; others said, “An angel has spoken to him!”
30. Jesus answered and said, “This voice didn’t come for my sake, but for yours.
31. Now is the judgment of this world; now, the ruler of this world shall be cast out.
32. And as for myself, if I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw all men to me.”
33. (He said this, signifying what kind of death he was about to suffer.)
34. The crowd answered him, “We heard from the law that the Messiah will continue forever, so how is it that you say, ‘The Son of man must be lifted up’? Who is this ‘Son of man’?”
35. Then Jesus said to them, “The light is with you just a little while longer. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness overtake you, for he who walks in the darkness doesn’t know where he’s going.

36. While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may be sons of light.” ¶ These things Jesus said, and then went away and hid himself from them.
 37. And although so many miracles had been done by him in their presence, they did not believe in him,
 38. so that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke: “LORD, who has believed our report? And to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?”
 39. The reason they could not believe is that, as Isaiah also said,
 40. “He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, lest they should see with their eyes, and understand with their heart, and be converted, and I heal them.”
 41. Isaiah said these things when he saw His glory and spoke about Him.
 42. Nevertheless, even many of the rulers believed in him; however, they would not admit it because of the Pharisees, lest they be put out of the synagogue.
 43. For they loved the honor of men more than the honor of God.
- ¶44. Then Jesus cried out and said, “He who believes in me is not believing in me, but in Him who sent me.
45. And he who sees me sees Him who sent me.
 46. I have come as a light for the world, so that every one who believes in me might not remain in the darkness.
 47. And if anyone hears my words but doesn’t believe, I don’t judge him, for I didn’t come to judge the world, but to save the world.
 48. He who rejects me and doesn’t receive my words has his judgment; the word that I have spoken, that will judge him on the last day.
 49. For I have not spoken on my own, but the Father who sent me, He gave me a commandment, what I should speak and what I should say.
 50. And I know that His commandment is eternal life; the things I say, therefore, I say just as the Father has told me.”

John 13

- ¶1. Now before the Feast of Passover, Jesus, knowing the hour had come for him to depart from this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them until the end.
2. And during supper (the Accuser having already put it into the heart of Judas, son of Simon the Iscariot, to betray him),
 3. Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands and that he came from God and was going to God,
 4. arose from the meal and put aside his garments, and taking up a towel, he girded himself.

5. After that, he poured water into a wash basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to dry them with the towel with which he was girded.
6. And he came to Simon Peter, but he said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?"
7. Jesus answered and said to him, "You don't know now what I'm doing, but later on, you'll understand."
8. Peter said to him, "You will never, ever wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me."
9. Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not just my feet, but my hands and head, too."
10. Jesus said to him, "He who is washed needs only to wash his feet, but he is entirely clean. And you are clean, but not all of you."
11. (He knew who would betray him; this is why he said, "You are not all clean.")
- ¶12. Then, when he had washed their feet, he put his garments back on, reclining again at the table, and said to them, "Do you know what I've done to you?
13. You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord', and you speak rightly, for I am.
14. So then, if I, Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you ought also to wash one another's feet.
15. I've given you an example, that as I've done to you, you should also do.
16. Truly, truly, I tell you, a slave is not greater than his master; neither is one who is sent greater than the one who sent him.
17. If you know these things, you're blessed if you do them.
18. I'm not talking about all of you. I know the ones I've chosen, but so that the Scripture might be fulfilled, it must be that he who eats bread with me has lifted up his heel against me.'
19. I'm telling you before it happens, so that later, when it happens, you might believe that I am the one.
20. Truly, truly, I tell you, he who receives anyone I send receives me, and he who receives me receives the One who sent me."
- ¶21. After saying these things, Jesus was deeply moved in spirit, and he testified and said, "Truly, truly, I tell you that one of you will betray me."
22. Then, uncertain of whom he spoke, the disciples started looking at each other.
23. And there was one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved, reclining close to Jesus¹².

¹² See Footnote 1.

24. Then, Simon Peter nodded to him, to inquire who it might be concerning whom he spoke.
 25. And he, leaning back on Jesus 'chest, said to him, "Lord, who is it?"
 26. Jesus answered, "It's the one I will give this bit of bread to, after I've dipped it." And when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, son of Simon.
 27. And after the piece of bread, Satan entered into him. Then Jesus said to him, "What you do, do quickly."
 28. Now, none of those reclining at the table understood why he said this to him.
 29. Some supposed, since Judas had the money-bag, that Jesus was telling him, "Buy what we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor.
 30. So, having received the piece of bread, he immediately went out. And it was night.
- ¶31. When he had gone out, Jesus said, "The Son of man now is glorified, and God is glorified in him.
32. If God be glorified in him, God also will glorify him with Himself, and He will straightway glorify him.
 33. Little children, yet a little while am I with you. You'll look for me, but just as I told the Jews, 'Where I'm going, you can't come,' so I now say to you.
 34. I am giving you a new commandment, that you love one another; just as I have loved you, so you also must love one another.
 35. By this, all men will know that you're my disciples: if you have love for one another."
- ¶36. Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered him, "Where I'm going, you can't follow me now, but you will follow me later."
37. Peter said to him, "Lord, why can't I follow you now? I will give my life for you."
 38. Jesus answered him, "Will you give your life for me? Truly, truly, I tell you, a rooster shall not crow until you deny me three times.

John 14

- ¶1. "Don't let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God, and you believe in me.
2. In my Father's home are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I'm going away to prepare a place for you.
3. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I'm coming again, and then, I will take you with me, that where I am, you may be also.
4. And you know where I'm going, and you know the way."
5. Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you're going. So how can we know the way?"

6. Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except by me.
7. Had you known me, you would have known my Father also. And from now on, you do know Him and have seen Him.”
8. Philip said to him, “Lord, show us the Father, and it’s enough for us.”
9. Jesus said to him, “Have I spent so much time with you, and yet you don’t know me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father. So, how is it you say, ‘Show us the Father’?
10. Don’t you believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me? The words I’m saying to you, I’m not saying on my own; but the Father who lives in me, He’s doing the works.
11. Believe me, that I am in the Father and the Father in me; but if not, believe me because of the works themselves.
12. Truly, truly, I tell you, he who believes in me, the works that I do, he will also do, and he will do greater works than these because I am going to my Father.
13. And whatever you ask in my name, I will do it, that the Father might be glorified in the Son.
14. If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it.
15. If you love me, keep my commandments.
16. And I’ll ask the Father, and He’ll give you another comforter so that He might abide with you forever,
17. the Spirit of truth, which the world cannot receive because it neither sees it nor understands it. You know it because it abides with you, and it shall be in you.
18. I won’t leave you orphaned; I am coming to you.
19. Yet a little while, and the world will see me no more, but you will see me; because I live, you shall live also.
20. On that day, you’ll know for yourselves that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.
21. He who has my commandments and keeps them, he is the one who loves me, and he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him.”
22. Judas (not the Iscariot) said to him, “Lord, just how is it that you’re going to show yourself to us, but not to the world?”
23. Jesus answered and said to him, “If anyone loves me, he’ll obey my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.

24. The one who doesn't love me doesn't obey my words, and the word that you are hearing isn't from me, but is from the Father who sent me.
- ¶25. "I have spoken these things to you, being with you,
26. but the comforter, the holy Spirit which the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will bring to your remembrance everything that I've told you.
27. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I don't give to you the way the world gives. Don't let your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
28. You heard me say to you, 'I'm leaving, and I will come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced because I said, 'I'm going to the Father, 'for my Father is greater than I.'
29. And I've told you now, before it happens, so that when it happens, you might believe.
30. I won't talk much with you any more, for the ruler of this world is coming, but he has nothing in me;
31. nevertheless, it must be, so that the world might know that I love the Father and that I'm doing just as the Father has commanded me. Get up; let's go from here.

John 15

- ¶1. "I'm the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser.
2. He takes away every branch in me that doesn't bear fruit, and He prunes every branch that does bear fruit so that it might bear more fruit.
3. You are already clean because of the word that I've spoken to you.
4. Stay in me, and I will in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit of itself unless it stays on the vine, so neither can you, unless you stay in me.
5. I am the vine; you are the branches. He who abides in me, and I in him, bears much fruit. Without me, you can do nothing.
6. Unless a man abides in me, he is thrown away like a branch, and it withers, and they gather them up and throw them into a fire, and it is burned.
7. If you live in me, and my words live in you, you will ask whatever you want, and it shall be done for you.
8. By this, my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit, and then you'll be my disciples.
9. I have loved you the same way the Father has loved me; stay in my love.
10. You will stay in my love if you keep my commandments, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and stay in His love.
11. I've said these things to you so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be full.

12. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.
 13. No one has greater love than this, that a man should lay down his life for his friends.
 14. You are my friends if you do whatever I command you.
 15. I no longer call you ‘servants’ because the servant doesn’t know what his master is doing; instead, I’ve called you ‘friends’ because everything that I’ve heard from my Father, I’ve made known to you.
 16. You haven’t chosen me, but I’ve chosen you, and I’ve ordained you, that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, He will give you.
 17. These things I am commanding you so that you love one another.
 18. If the world hate you, know that it hated me before it hated you.
 19. If you were of the world, the world would love¹³ its own; but since you’re not of the world—on the contrary, I’ve chosen you out of the world—the world hates you.
 20. Remember the statement that I made to you: ‘A servant isn’t greater than his master.’ If they persecuted me, they’ll also persecute you. If they obeyed my word, they’ll also obey yours.
 21. But all these things they’ll do to you because of my name, for they don’t know the One who sent me.
 22. Had I not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin, but now, they have no excuse for their sin.
 23. He who hates me hates my Father also.
 24. If I had not done the works among them that no other has done, they would have no sin, but now, they have seen, and they have hated both me and my Father.
 25. But this happened so that the saying written in their law might be fulfilled, ‘They hated me for no reason.’
- ¶26. “Now, when the Comforter comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth which comes out from the Father, he will testify of me,
27. and you also will bear witness because you’ve been with me from the beginning.”

John 16

- ¶1. “I’ve spoken these things to you so that you won’t be offended.
2. They’ll put you out of the synagogues. In fact, the hour is coming when anyone who kills you will think he’s offering a service to God.

¹³ The Greek word φιλέω means to love as a friend.

3. And they'll do these things because they haven't known either the Father or me.
4. But I've spoken these things to you so that when the hour comes, you might remember them, that I told you. I didn't tell you these things in the beginning because I was with you,
5. but now, I'm going away to the One who sent me, and not one of you is asking me, 'Where are you going?'
6. But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart.
7. But I tell you the truth; it's better for you that I go away, for if I don't go away, the Comforter won't come to you. But if I go, I'll send him to you.
8. And when he comes, he'll convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:
 9. of sin, because they don't believe in me;
 10. and of righteousness because I'm going to the Father, and you no longer see me;
 11. and of judgment because the ruler of this world is judged.
12. I still have many things to tell you, but you can't bear them right now.
13. But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he'll guide you into all truth. For he won't speak on his own, but whatever he hears, he'll speak, and he'll reveal to you things that are coming.
14. He'll glorify me because he'll take from what is mine and declare it to you.
15. All things that the Father has are mine; this is why I said that he takes from what is mine and will declare it to you.
16. A little while, and you won't see me, and again, a little while and you will see me, because I'm going to the Father."
17. Then, some of his disciples said to one another, "What's this that he's saying to us, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again, a little while and you will see me' and 'because I'm going to the Father'?"
18. And they kept on saying, "What's this that he's saying, 'a little while'? We don't understand what he's saying."
19. Then, Jesus perceived that they wanted to ask him, and he said to them, "Are you asking one another about what I said: 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again, a little while and you will see me'?
20. Truly, truly, I tell you that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice, and you'll have sorrow, but your sorrow will be turned into joy.

21. When a woman is giving birth, she has sorrow because her hour is come, but when the child is born, she no longer remembers the suffering because of joy that a man is born into the world.
 22. And so, you now have sorrow, too, but I'll see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you.
 23. And in that day, you will ask me nothing. Truly, truly, I tell you that whatever you ask the Father in my name, He will give you.
 24. Up to this time, you have asked nothing in my name; ask, and you shall receive, so that your joy may be full.
- ¶25. "I've spoken these things to you figuratively; however, the hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures, but will tell you plainly about the Father.
26. On that day, you'll ask in my name, and I'm not saying to you that I'll ask the Father for you,
 27. for the Father Himself considers you friends because you have befriended me, and you have believed that I came from God.
 28. I came from the Father and have come into the world; again, I am leaving the world and going to the Father."
 29. His disciples said to him, "Behold! Now you're talking plainly and using no figure of speech.
 30. We know now that you know everything, and you have no need for anyone to question you; by this, we believe that you came from God."
 31. Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe?
 32. Behold, an hour is coming, and now has come, for you to be scattered, each to his own house, and to leave me alone; and yet, I'm not alone because the Father is with me.
 33. I've spoken these things to you so that in me you might have peace. In the world, you have tribulation, but take heart; I have overcome the world."

John 17

- ¶1. Jesus spoke these things, and then he lifted his eyes toward heaven and said, "Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son, so that your Son might also glorify you,
2. since you gave him authority over all flesh, to give eternal life to all those that you have given to him.
3. And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent.
4. I glorified you on earth; I've finished the work that you gave me to do.
5. And now, Father, glorify me at your side with the glory I used to have with you before the universe existed.

6. I have manifested your name to the men whom you gave me out of the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word.
7. They know now that everything you've given me is from you
8. because I have given them the words that you've given me, and they received them, and they truly do know that I came from you, and they have believed that you sent me.
9. I pray for them. I'm not praying for the world, but for those you've given me, for they are yours,
10. and all things that are mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them.
11. And I'm no longer in the world, but these are in the world, and I'm coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name which you have given to me, that they may be one, just as we are.
12. While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name. Those you gave me, I watched over, and not one of them has been lost except the son of damnation, that the scripture might be fulfilled.
13. But now, I'm coming to you, and these things I'm saying in the world so that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.
14. I've given them your word, and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I'm not of the world.
15. I do not ask that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from the Evil One.
16. They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.
17. Sanctify them with your truth; your word is truth.
18. Just as you sent me into the world, I also sent them into the world.
19. And for their sake, I sanctify myself so that they may also be sanctified with truth.
20. And I'm not asking for these alone, but also for those who believe in me through their word,
21. that they all might be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they may also be one in us, so that the world might believe that you sent me.
22. And the glory that you've given me, I've given to them, that they might be one, just as we are one:
23. I in them, and you in me, so that they might be perfected in unity, and so that the world might know that you sent me and have loved them just as you loved me.
24. Father, I desire that where I am, these whom you've given me might also be with me, that they may behold my glory that you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world.
25. Righteous Father, even though the world doesn't know you, I know you, and these know that you sent me,

26. and I have made your name known to them, and I will make it known, so that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and I in them.”

John 18

- ¶1. After Jesus said these things, he went out with his disciples across the brook of Kidron, where there was a garden into which he and his disciples entered.
2. Now, Judas, the one who betrayed him, also knew the place because Jesus had often gathered there with his disciples.
3. So, having received a cohort, as well as officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, Judas came there with lanterns, and torches, and weapons.
4. Then Jesus, knowing all things that were coming upon him, went out and said to them, “Who are you looking for?”
5. They answered him, “Jesus the Nazarene.” Jesus said to them, “I am he.” (And Judas, the one who betrayed him, was also standing among them.)
6. Then, when he told them, “I am he”, they went backward and fell to the ground.
7. So, again he asked them, “Who are you looking for?” And they said, “Jesus the Nazarene.”
8. Jesus answered, “I told you that I am he. So, if you are looking for me, let these go.”
9. This happened so that the word might be fulfilled which he spoke: “Of those you have given me, I have not lost one of them.”
10. Then, Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it out and smote a servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. And the servant’s name was Malchus.
11. Then Jesus said to Peter, “Put your sword in the sheath! Must I not drink the cup that my Father has given me?”
- ¶12. And so, the cohort, and the tribune, and the officers of the Jews took Jesus, and tied him up,
13. and led him away, first to Annas, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.
14. (It was Caiaphas who advised the Jews that it was better for one man to perish instead of the people.)
- ¶15. But Simon Peter was following Jesus, as was another disciple. And that disciple was known to the high priest, and he entered with Jesus into the high priest’s courtyard.
16. But Peter stood outside, by the door. So, the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and she brought Peter in.
17. Then the servant-girl who was the doorkeeper said to Peter, “Aren’t you also one of this man’s disciples?” He said, “Not me!”

18. Now, the servants and officers had made a fire of coals because it was cold, and they were standing around keeping themselves warm, and Peter was with them, standing and warming himself, too.
- ¶19. Then the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his doctrine.
20. Jesus answered him, "I spoke openly to the world. I taught all the time in synagogue and in the temple where the Jews always come together, and I said nothing in secret.
21. Why do you ask me? Ask those who heard me what I told them. Behold, they know the things I said."
22. When he said these things, one of the officers standing by slapped Jesus in the face, saying, "Is that the way you answer the high priest?"
23. Jesus answered him, "If I spoke wrongly, testify about the wrong, but if rightly, why do you hit me?"
24. (Annas had sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.)
- ¶25. Meanwhile, Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. Then they said to him, "Aren't you also one of his disciples?" But he denied him and said, "Not me!"
26. One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter cut off, said, "Didn't I see you in the garden with him?"
27. And again, Peter denied it, and immediately, a rooster crowed.
- ¶28. Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the Praetorium, and it was early morning. But they did not enter the Praetorium so that they would not be defiled, but might eat the Passover.
29. Then, Pilate went out to them and said, "What charge do you bring against this man?"
30. They answered and said to him, "If he were not an evildoer, we would not have handed him over to you."
31. So, Pilate said to them, "You take him and judge him by your law." The Jews said to him, "It is not allowed for us to put anyone to death."
32. (This happened so that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled which he spoke indicating what kind of death he was about to die.)
- ¶33. Pilate, therefore, re-entered the Praetorium and summoned Jesus, and he said to him, "You? You are the King of the Jews?"
34. Jesus answered him, "Are you saying this on your own, or have others talked to you about me?"
35. Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own people and the chief priests have turned you over to me. What did you do?"

36. Jesus answered, “My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would be fighting so that I would not be turned over to the Jews. But for the time being, my kingdom is not from here.”
37. Pilate therefore said to him, “So then, you are a king?” Jesus answered, “You yourself are saying it because I am a king. For this purpose I was born, and for this purpose I came into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears my voice.”
38. Pilate said to him, “What is truth?” And after saying this, he went out again to the Jews, and he told them, “I find in him no basis for a charge.”
39. But it is your custom that I release one person to you during Passover. So, do you want me to release to you ‘the King of the Jews?’”
40. Then they all cried out again, saying, “Not this man, but Barabbas.” Now, Barabbas was a bandit.

John 19

- ¶1. So, at that point, Pilate took Jesus and scourged him.
2. And when the soldiers had woven a crown of thorns, they placed it on his head, and dressed him in a purple robe,
3. and they began to say, “Hail, O King of the Jews!”, and to slap him in the face.
4. Then again, Pilate went out and said to them, “Behold, I bring him out to you, that you may know that in him I find not one basis for a charge.”
5. Then Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. And he said to them, “Behold, the man!”
6. But when the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, “Crucify! Crucify him!” Pilate said to them, “You take him yourselves and crucify him! I find in him no basis for a charge!”
7. The Jews answered him, “We have a law, and according to our law, he ought to die because he made himself out to be the Son of God!”
8. Now, when Pilate heard this statement, he was more afraid,
9. and he went again into the Praetorium and said to Jesus, “Where are you from?” But Jesus did not give him an answer.
10. Therefore, Pilate said to him, “You do not speak to me? Do you not understand that I have authority to crucify you, and I have authority to release you?”
11. Jesus answered, “You would have no authority over me at all unless it was given to you from above. This is why he who turned me over to you has the greater sin.”

12. Because of this, Pilate kept on trying to release him. But the Jews kept on crying out, saying, “If you release this man, you are not a friend of Caesar! Every man who makes himself king opposes Caesar!”
13. Then, when Pilate heard this comment, he led Jesus outside and sat on the judicial bench in the place called Lithostrotos¹⁴, but in Hebrew, “Gabbatha”.
14. Now, it was the Preparation of the Passover, about the sixth hour,¹⁵ and he said to the Jews, “Behold, your king!”
15. But they cried out, “Away with him! Away! Crucify him!” Pilate said to them, “Shall I crucify your king?” The chief priests answered, “We have no king but Caesar!”
16. So, he then handed him over to them to be crucified.
¶And they took Jesus, and led him away.
17. And bearing his cross, he went out to a place called “Place of a Skull”, which is called in Hebrew, “Golgotha”,
18. where they crucified him, and two others with him, on the right and on the left, and Jesus in the middle.
19. And Pilate wrote a title and fixed it on the cross, and it was written, “Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.”
20. And many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin.
21. The chief priests of the Jews then said to Pilate, “Do not write, ‘The King of the Jews’, but that, ‘He said, I am King of the Jews.’”
22. Pilate answered, “What I have written, I have written.”
- ¶23. Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to each soldier a part, and the tunic. But the tunic was seamless, woven from the top throughout the whole.
24. So they said to one another, “Let’s not divide it, but cast lots for it, whose it will be.” (This happened so that the scripture might be fulfilled which said, “They divided my garments among them, and cast lots for my clothing.”) That is actually why the soldiers did these things.
25. And beside the cross of Jesus stood his mother, and his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.
26. And Jesus, seeing his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing there, said to his mother, “Woman, behold your son.”

¹⁴“Lithostrotos” is a Greek word for “Stone Pavement”.

¹⁵ That is, about noon.

27. Next, he said to the disciple, “Behold your mother.” And from that time, the disciple took her into his own home.
- ¶28. After this, Jesus, knowing that all things were now finished so that the scripture might be fulfilled, said, “I’m thirsty.”
29. A vessel full of sour wine was sitting there, and so, they soaked a sponge with the sour wine, put it on hyssop, and held it up to his mouth.
30. And then, when Jesus received the wine vinegar, he said, “It is finished.” And bowing his head, he gave up the spirit.
- ¶31. Now, since it was the Preparation, and so that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews requested of Pilate that their legs be broken and they be taken away.
32. Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and of the other who was crucified with him,
33. but when they came to Jesus, they did not break his legs, seeing he was dead already.
34. Nevertheless, one of the soldiers pierced his side with his spear, and blood and water immediately came out.
35. And he who saw this has borne witness—and his testimony is true, and he knows that he is speaking truthfully—so that you might believe.
36. These things happened so that the scripture might be fulfilled: “Not a bone of his shall be broken.”
37. And again, another scripture says, “They will look upon him whom they pierced.”
- ¶38. After these things, Joseph who was from Arimathaea, a disciple of Jesus (but secretly because of fear of the Jews), asked Pilate if he could take away the body of Jesus. And Pilate gave him permission. So, he came and took Jesus’ body away.
39. (And Nicodemus, who at the first came to Jesus by night, also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloë, about one hundred pounds.¹⁶)
40. So they took the body of Jesus and bound it in linen sheets with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews.
41. Now, there was in the place where he was crucified a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre in which no man had yet been laid.
42. There they laid Jesus, since it was the Jews’ Preparation and the sepulchre was close by.

John 20

1. Then, early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the sepulchre and saw that the stone was removed from the sepulchre.

¹⁶ One hundred Roman pounds is roughly equivalent to seventy-five pounds avoirdupois.

2. So she ran and came to Simon Peter and another disciple (the one whom Jesus loved), and she said to them, “They’ve taken the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we don’t know where they’ve put him.”
 3. Then Peter went out, and the other disciple, and they went to the sepulchre.
 4. Now, the two men started out running together, but the other disciple quickly outran Peter and came to the sepulchre first,
 5. and bending over to look, he saw the linen cloths lying there, though he did not actually enter.
 6. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the sepulchre, and saw the linen cloths lying there
 7. and the face cloth that was on his head, not laid with the linen cloths, but folded up in a place by itself.
 8. So then the other disciple entered, the one who came to the sepulchre first, and he saw, and believed.
 9. (No one had yet understood the scripture, that he had to rise from the dead.)
 10. Then the disciples went back to their friends.
- ¶11. But Mary stood outside by the sepulchre weeping, and as she wept, she bent over to look into the sepulchre,
12. and she saw two angels in white sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the foot.
 13. And they said to her, “Woman, why are you crying?” She said to them, “Because they’ve taken my Lord away, and I don’t know where they’ve put him.”
 14. And when she had said these things, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus.
 15. Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you crying? Who are you looking for?” She, assuming that he was the gardener, said to him, “Sir, if you have removed him, tell me where you put him, and I will take him away.”
 16. Jesus said to her, “Mary.” And turning around, she said to him, “Rabbi!” (which means “Teacher”).
 17. Jesus said to her, “Don’t cling to me, for I haven’t yet ascended to my Father. But go to my brothers and tell them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, and to my God and your God.’”
 18. Mary Magdalene went and reported to the disciples that she had seen the Lord and he said these things to her.
- ¶19. When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, although the doors were locked where the disciples were gathered because of fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst and said to them, “Peace to you.”

20. And after he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced at seeing the Lord.
21. Then Jesus said to them again, “Peace to you. As the Father has sent me, so am I sending you.”
22. And after he said this, he breathed out and said to them, “Receive the holy Spirit.
23. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; whose you retain are retained.”
- ¶24. But one of the twelve, Thomas, who is called Didymus¹⁷, was not with them when Jesus came.
25. Therefore, the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord!” But he said to them, “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and stick my finger into the mark of the nails, and stick my hand into his side, I will never believe!”
- ¶26. Then, eight days later, his disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, the doors being locked, and stood in the midst and said, “Peace to you.”
27. Then he said to Thomas, “Bring your finger here, and behold my hands, and bring your hand and stick it into my side. And don’t be faithless, but believing.”
28. Then Thomas answered and said to him, “My Lord and my God!”
29. Jesus said to him, “Because you have seen me, you have believed? Blessed are they who have not seen and yet believe.”
- ¶30. Now, to be sure, Jesus, in the presence of his disciples, performed many other miracles as well which are not written in this book.
31. But these things are written so that you might believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that believing, you might have life in his name.

John 21

- ¶1. After these things, Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias, and this is how he showed himself:
2. Simon Peter, and Thomas, who is called Didymus, and Nathanael, who was of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples were together.
3. Simon Peter said to them, “I’m going fishing.” And they said to him, “We’re also going with you.” They went out immediately and boarded the boat, but they caught nothing that night.
4. And just as day was breaking, Jesus stood on the shore; however, the disciples did not know it was Jesus.

¹⁷ That is, “Twin”.

5. Then Jesus said to them, “Children, you didn’t catch anything to eat, did you?” They answered him, “No.”
 6. Then he said to them, “Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and you’ll find something.” So, they cast, but then they could not haul it in because of the multitude of fish.
 7. Then that disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It’s the Lord!” When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tied on his coat, for he was naked, and threw himself into the sea.
 8. But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from land, but only about two hundred cubits¹⁸), dragging the net of fish.
 9. Then, when they got out onto shore, they saw a coal fire was laid, and a fish laid on it, and bread.
 10. Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish that you just caught.”
 11. Simon Peter came up and dragged the net onto land, filled with one hundred fifty-three large fish, and although there were so many, the net was not torn.
 12. Jesus said to them, “Come and dine.” And knowing that it was the Lord, not one of the disciples dared to ask him, “Who are you?”
 13. So, Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and likewise the fish.
 14. (This was now the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples after he was raised from the dead.)
- ¶15. Then, when they had eaten, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me more than these men do?” He said to him, “Surely, Lord, you know that I’m your friend.” He said to him, “Feed my lambs.”
16. Again, he said to him a second time, “Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me?” He said to him, “Surely, Lord, you know that I’m your friend.” He said to him, “Tend my sheep.”
 17. The third time, he said to him, “Simon, son of Jonah, are you my friend?” Peter was grieved because the third time, he said to him, “Are you my friend?” And he said to him, “Lord, you know all things; you know that I’m your friend.” Jesus said to him, “Feed my sheep.”
 18. Truly, truly, I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself and went where you wanted, but when you grow old, you’ll stretch out your hands and another will dress you, and he will carry you where you don’t want to go.”

¹⁸ Two hundred cubits is approximately three hundred feet.

19. (He said this indicating by what kind of death he would glorify God.) And after he said this, he told him, "Follow me."
20. Then, when Peter turned around, he saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following (the one who also leaned on his chest during the supper and said, "Lord, who is the one who will betray you?")
21. When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, "Lord, what about him?"
22. Jesus said to him, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow me."
23. Then this rumor spread among the brothers, that that disciple would not die. But Jesus did not tell him that he would not die; rather, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you?"
- ¶24. This is the disciple who is testifying about these things and wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true.
- ¶25. There are also a great many other things Jesus did, which, if each one were written, I suppose that not even the world itself could contain the books which would be written. Amen.

The end of the Gospel of John

Acts of the Apostles

Acts 1

- ¶1. The first account, O Theophilus, I have made concerning all the things Jesus both did and taught
2. up to the day that he was taken up, after he had given instructions through the holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen,
 3. to whom, after his suffering, he also presented himself alive by many convincing proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days and speaking of things concerning the kingdom of God.
 4. And being assembled together with them, he commanded them not to leave Jerusalem but to await the promise of the Father, “which”, he said, “you have heard about from me.
 5. John indeed baptized with water, but you will be baptized with holy Spirit not many days from now.”
- ¶6. When they had come together, they kept asking him, saying, “Lord, is this the time you will re-establish the kingdom of Israel?”
7. He said to them, “It isn’t for you to know times or seasons which the Father has reserved to His own authority.
 8. But you will receive power after the holy Spirit comes upon you, and then you will be my witnesses, both in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, even to the uttermost part of the earth.”
 9. And when he had said these things, as they looked on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him up out of their sight.
 10. And as they were gazing toward the sky, he went away. And, behold, two men in white garments appeared to them,
 11. and they said, “Men of Galilee, why are you standing there, staring at the sky? This same Jesus who was taken up from you into heaven will come again, the same way you watched him go into heaven.”
- ¶12. Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called Olives, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day’s journey.
13. And when they had entered the city, they went up to the upper room where they were staying: Peter and James and John and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Patriot, and Judas the son of James.
 14. These all, in one accord, continued in prayer and supplication, along with women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

- ¶15. And during those days, Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples and said (the number of people there was about one hundred twenty),
16. "Men and brothers, this scripture must be fulfilled, which the holy Spirit foretold through the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was guide for those who arrested Jesus,
 17. for he was numbered among us and obtained a part in this ministry.
 18. (Afterward, with the reward of unrighteousness, this man purchased a field, but then, falling headlong, he burst open in the middle, and all his bowels spilled out.
 19. And this became so well known by everyone living in Jerusalem that the field was called, in their own language, 'Akeldama', which means, 'field of blood'.)
 20. For it is written in the book of Psalms, 'Let his home become desolate, and let there be no one living in it, 'and, 'Let another take his place.'
 21. It must be, then, that from among the men who accompanied us the entire time the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,
 22. beginning from the baptism of John until the day that he was taken up from us, one of them should be made a witness of his resurrection with us."
 23. And so, they put forward two: Joseph, the one called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.
 24. And they prayed and said, "You, LORD,¹ knower of all hearts, show which one of these two you have chosen
 25. to receive the part of this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned to go to his own place."
 26. Then they cast their lots, and the lot fell on Matthias, and so, he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

Acts 2

- ¶1. When the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all in one accord, in one place.
2. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven like a violent, rushing wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.
 3. And there appeared to them divided tongues like fire, and it sat upon each one of them,
 4. and they were all filled with holy Spirit, and they began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit moved them to speak.
- ¶5. Now, there were dwelling in Jerusalem devout men, Jews from every nation under heaven,
6. and at this sound, a large number came together, and they were amazed because each one was hearing them speak in his own language.

¹ Where the word "Lord" refers to the Father, as it does here, instead of to His Son Jesus, the word will appear in small capital letters: LORD.

7. And they all, in astonishment and wonder, were saying to one another, “Aren’t all these who are speaking Galileans?
 8. So, how is it that each of us hears them speaking in our native tongue?
 9. Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and those who live in Mesopotamia, Judea, and Cappadocia, Pontus, and Asia,
 10. Phrygia, and Pamphylia, Egypt, and in parts of Libya around Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and converts,
 11. Cretans and Arabians! We hear them declaring the mighty things of God in our own languages.”
 12. And they were all amazed and at a loss, saying to one another, “What might this be?”
 13. Others, mocking, were saying, “They are full of new wine.”
- ¶14. But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice and declared to them, “Men of Judea, and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and pay attention to my words!
15. Contrary to what you think, these are not drunk, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.
 16. But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel:
 17. ‘And it shall come to pass in the last days, says God, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters will prophesy, and your young men will see visions, and your old men will dream dreams.
 18. I will even pour out my Spirit on my slaves, male and female, in those days, and they will prophesy.
 19. And I will cause wonders to appear in heaven above and signs on earth below: blood and fire and billows of smoke.
 20. The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the LORD.
 21. And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the LORD will be saved.’
 22. Men of Israel, listen to these words! Jesus the Nazarene, a man from God, was attested to you by miracles and wonders and signs which God performed through him in your midst, as you yourselves certainly know.
 23. You took this man, who was turned over to you by the fixed purpose and fore-knowledge of God, and killed him with wicked hands, nailing him to a cross,
 24. but God raised him up, loosing the pangs of death, for it was not possible for him to be held by it.
 25. For David said of him, ‘I have always seen the LORD before me; because He is at my right hand, that I might not be moved.
 26. Therefore, my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced. Moreover, my flesh also will rest in hope,

27. for you will not leave my soul in Hades, nor will you allow your holy one to see corruption.
 28. You made known to me the paths of life. You will make me full of joy with your presence.'
 29. Men and brothers, let me speak plainly to you about the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.
 30. Therefore, being a prophet and knowing that with an oath God swore to him that from the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, He would raise up the Messiah to sit on his throne,
 31. he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, that his soul was not left in Hades, nor did his flesh see decay.
 32. This Jesus has God raised up, of which we all are witnesses!
 33. Moreover, being exalted to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the holy Spirit, he has shed forth this which you now see and hear.
 34. For David did not ascend into heaven, but he said, 'The LORD said to my Lord, sit at my right hand
 35. until I make your enemies your footstool.'
 36. So then, let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God has made him both Lord and Messiah—this Jesus whom you crucified!"
- ¶37. When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they said to Peter and to the rest of the apostles, "Men and brothers, what are we to do?"
38. Peter started telling them, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and you will receive the gift of the holy Spirit!
 39. The promise is to you and to your children, and to all who are far off, as many as the LORD our God shall call."
 40. And with many other words, he testified and pleaded, saying, "Be saved from this perverse generation!"
 41. Then, those who received his word gladly were baptized, and that day, about three thousand souls were added to them.
 42. And they were devoted to the doctrine of the apostles, and to the fellowship, and the breaking of bread, and to prayers.
- ¶43. Fear came on every soul, and many miracles and signs were wrought through the apostles.
44. Now, all who believed were united, and held everything in common,
 45. and they began selling possessions and property and distributing it to everyone, according to the need that anyone had.
 46. Every day, they spent much time together in the temple, breaking bread from house to house, sharing their food with gladness and simplicity of heart,

47. praising God and having favor with all the people. And day by day, the Lord added to the Assembly those who were to be saved.

Acts 3

1. Now, Peter and John were going together up to the temple at the ninth hour, the hour of prayer,
 2. and there was a certain man, crippled from his mother's womb, who used to be carried about, whom they laid every day at the temple gate called "Beautiful" to ask for alms from those going into the temple.
 3. When he saw Peter and John about to enter the temple, he asked for alms,
 4. but Peter, with John, fixed his gaze on him and said, "Look at us!"
 5. He then looked directly at them, expecting to receive something from them.
 6. But Peter said, "I don't have silver or gold, but what I do have, I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk!"
 7. And taking him by the right hand, he lifted him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong,
 8. and leaping up, he stood and began to walk. And he went with them into the temple, walking and leaping, and praising God.
 9. Now, all the people saw him walking and praising God,
 10. and they recognized him, that he was the man who sat for alms at the temple's Beautiful Gate. And they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.
- ¶11. The man healed of lameness clung to Peter and John, and all the people together ran to them at the portico called Solomon's, utterly astonished.
12. When Peter saw this, he addressed the people: "Men of Israel, why do you marvel at this? Or why do you stare at us, as if our own power or godliness has made him walk?
 13. The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His child Jesus, whom you betrayed and whom you repudiated before Pilate when he was determined to release him.
 14. But you denied the holy and righteous one, and asked for a man—a murderer!—to be granted to you instead,
 15. and you killed the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead, of which we are witnesses!
 16. His name, by faith in his name, made this man strong whom you see and have known, and the faith that came through him gave him this perfect soundness in the sight of you all.
 17. Now, brothers, I know that you did it ignorantly, as your rulers did also.
 18. But what God foretold by the mouth of all his prophets, that the Messiah should suffer, He has in this way fulfilled.

19. Repent, then, and be converted, that your sins might be blotted out, so that the times of refreshing may come from the presence of the LORD,
20. and so that He might send the one chosen before to be your Messiah: Jesus,
21. whom heaven must receive until the time for the restoration of all things, of which God has spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets from time immemorial.
22. For Moses certainly spoke to the fathers and said, ‘A prophet like me will the LORD our God raise up for you from among your brothers. You must obey him in whatsoever things he says to you.
23. And every soul who will not obey that prophet will be utterly destroyed from among the people.’
24. And all the prophets from Samuel onward, as many as spoke, also proclaimed these days.
25. You are descendants of the prophets and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, ‘In your seed all the families of earth will be blessed.’
26. To you first, God, having raised up His child Jesus, sent him as a blessing to you, to turn each of you from your sins.”

Acts 4

- ¶1. As they were talking to the people, the priests and the commander of the temple guard and the Sadducees came upon them,
2. annoyed that they were teaching the people and proclaiming, in Jesus, the resurrection from the dead.
3. And they arrested them and put them in prison until the next day, since it was already evening.
4. But many who had heard the message believed, and the number of men was about five thousand.
- ¶5. On the next day, their rulers and elders and scribes gathered together in Jerusalem
6. with Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the high priest’s family.
7. And when they had set them in the midst, they began asking, “By what power or in what name did you do this?”
8. Then Peter, filled with holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers of the people and elders of Israel,
9. if we are being examined today concerning the good deed done for a crippled man, as to how he has been healed,
10. be it known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified and whom God raised from the dead—by him!—this man stands before you whole.

11. This is the stone that was rejected by you builders, which has become the head of the corner.
 12. And salvation is not by any other, for there is no other name given among men by which we must be saved!"
 - ¶13. When they saw the boldness of Peter and John and perceived that they were uneducated and untrained men, they began to marvel, and they recognized them as having been with Jesus.
 14. And seeing the man who had been healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.
 15. But after they ordered them to go out of the Sanhedrin, they began to confer with one another,
 16. saying, "What are we to do with these men? For indeed, that a notable miracle has been done by them is obvious to all who live in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.
 17. Nevertheless, so that it spread no further among the people, let us give them stern warning to speak no more in this name to anyone."
 18. So, summoning them, they commanded them not to speak or teach anything at all in the name of Jesus.
 19. But Peter and John answered and said to them, "Whether it is right in God's sight to listen to you rather than to God, you judge.
 20. For we cannot but speak the things that we have seen and heard."
 21. Then, after making further threats, they released them, finding no basis for which to punish them because of the people, since they were all glorifying God because of what had happened,
 22. for the man on whom this miracle of healing had been performed was over forty years old.
- ¶23. When they were released, they went to their own company and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them.
24. And when they heard it, they lifted up their voice with one accord to God and said, "Master, you are the God who made heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and all that is in them,
 25. who through the mouth of David your servant said, 'Why do the Gentiles rage and the people imagine vain things?
 26. The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers assembled together against the LORD, and against His Messiah.'
 27. For against your holy child Jesus, whom you anointed, Herod and Pontius Pilate truly were gathered together with Gentiles and people from Israel
 28. to do everything your hand and your purpose predetermined to happen.
 29. And now, LORD, look upon their threats and grant your slaves to speak your word with all boldness

30. by stretching forth your hand to heal, and for signs and wonders to be performed through the name of your holy child Jesus.”
 31. And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered was shaken, and they were all filled with holy Spirit and spoke the word of God with boldness.
 - ¶32. The heart and soul of the multitude of those who believed were one, and no one said that any of his possessions were his own, but they held all things in common.
 33. (And with great power the apostles continued to give witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all.)
 34. And no one among them was needy, for as many as owned fields or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the sales
 35. and placed them at the feet of the apostles to distribute to each man according to his need.
- ¶36. And Joses, who was by the apostles surnamed Barnabas (which is translated as “son of comfort”), a Levite born in Cyprus,
37. sold a field he owned, and brought the money and placed it at the apostles ’feet.

Acts 5

- ¶1. But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a piece of property,
 2. and with his wife’s knowledge, he kept back part of the proceeds for himself, and he brought a portion and placed it at the apostles ’feet.
 3. But Peter said, “Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the holy Spirit, and to hold back part of the proceeds from the land?
 4. While it remained, wasn’t it still yours? And after it was sold, wasn’t it in your control? Why did you plan this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to God!”
 5. And when Ananias heard these words, he collapsed and died. And great fear came upon all who heard of these things.
 6. And the young men arose, wrapped him, carried him out, and buried him.
- ¶7. Then, about three hours later, his wife came in, unaware of what had happened.
8. And Peter said to her, “Tell me if you sold the piece of land for so much.” And she said, “Yes, for so much.”
 9. Then Peter said to her, “Why did you agree to tempt the Spirit of the LORD? Behold! The feet of those who buried your husband are at the door. They will also carry you out!”
 10. And immediately, she collapsed at his feet and died. And the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her with her husband.
 11. And great fear came upon the whole Assembly, and on all who heard of these things.

- ¶12. Now, many signs and wonders were continually being done among the people through the hands of the apostles, and they were all together in Solomon's portico.
13. (No one among the rest had the courage to join them, even though the people magnified them,
14. and believers were continually being added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women.)
15. And the sick were carried out into the streets and were laid on beds or pallets so that when Peter came by, his shadow might fall on some of them.
16. And a multitude from the surrounding cities also came to Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those troubled by unclean spirits, and they were all being healed.
- ¶17. But the high priest and all those with him (being the sect of the Sadducees) rose up, being filled with envy,
18. and they laid their hands on the apostles and put them in the public prison.
19. But during the night, the angel of the LORD opened the prison doors, and after bringing them out, he said,
20. "Go and stand in the temple, and speak to the people all the words of this life."
21. So, having heard this, they went into the temple at daybreak and began teaching. And the high priest came, and those with him, and they summoned the Sanhedrin, and all the elders of the sons of Israel, and they sent to the prison to have them brought.
22. But when the officers came, they did not find them in the prison, and they returned and reported it,
23. saying, "We found the prison securely locked, and the guard standing before the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside."
24. Now when the high priest, and the commander of the temple guard, and the chief priests heard these things, they were at a loss about them, as to what might come of this.
25. Then someone came and told them, "Behold! The men whom you put in the prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people!"
26. At that, the commander went with the officers, and he brought them in, but without force, for they feared that they themselves might be stoned by the people.
27. And when they had brought them, they set them before the Sanhedrin, and the high priest questioned them,
28. saying, "Did we not command you not to teach in this name? But, behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and you are determined to bring this man's blood upon us!"
29. But Peter and the apostles answered, saying, "We must obey God rather than men.
30. The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed, hanging him on a tree.
31. This man God has exalted to His right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32. And we are his witnesses of these things, and so is the holy Spirit, which God has given to those who obey Him.”
- ¶33. When they heard this, they were cut to the quick, and they began plotting to kill them.
34. And a certain Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, respected by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and gave an order to put the apostles outside momentarily.
35. And he said to them, “Men of Israel, take heed to yourselves concerning these men and what you intend to do.
36. Prior to these days, Theudas rose up, making himself out to be somebody, to whom a number of men, about four hundred, were devoted. He was killed, and all those who trusted in him were dispersed and came to nothing.
37. After him, in the days of the census, Judas the Galilean rose up and drew away a number of people after him. He was killed, too, and all those who trusted in him were scattered.
38. So, as for this present matter, I say to you, desist from these men and leave them alone, for if this idea or work be of men, it will fade away to nothing,
39. but if it is of God, you cannot do away with it, and you may even be found fighting against God.”
40. And they were persuaded by him. So, they summoned the apostles, and when they had flogged them, they commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and released them.
41. Yet, they left the Sanhedrin rejoicing because they had been counted worthy to suffer shame for the name of Jesus,
42. and every day, in the temple and from house to house, they did not cease from teaching and proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ.

Acts 6

1. In those days, as the number of disciples increased, a complaint arose from the Hellenists² against the Hebrews, that their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution.
2. So the twelve summoned the community of disciples together and said, “It is not right for us to quit serving the word of God to serve tables.
3. Therefore, brothers, look for seven men from among you who are well spoken of, full of holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we will put in charge of this need.
4. But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to ministry of the word.”
5. And this statement pleased the whole Assembly, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nikanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nikolaus, a proselyte from Antioch,

² Apparently, the “Hellenists”, or “Grecians”, were Jews not native to Palestine and who spoke Greek and lived to some extent according to Greek culture. They seem to have been considered second-class citizens by native Jews.

6. whom they set before the apostles. And they prayed and laid hands on them.
- ¶7. And the word of God increased, and the number of disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a large number of the priests were becoming obedient to the faith.
- ¶8. Now, Stephen, full of faith and power, was performing miracles and great signs among the people.
9. Then some from the synagogue that is designated for Freedmen, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and those of Cilicia and Asia rose up and disputed with Stephen,
10. but they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit with which he was speaking.
11. So then, they suborned men to say, “We have heard him saying blasphemous things against Moses and God.”
12. And they incited the people and the elders and the scribes, and they came upon him suddenly, and violently seized him, and brought him to the Sanhedrin.
13. Then they put forward the false witnesses who said, “This man never stops speaking blasphemous things against the holy place and the law.”
14. We have heard him saying that this Nazarene, Jesus, will destroy this place and alter the customs that Moses passed down to us.”
15. And all those sitting in the Sanhedrin, gazing at him, saw his face like the face of an angel.

Acts 7

1. Then the high priest said, “Are these things true?”
2. And he said, “Brothers and fathers, listen to me. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia before he dwelt in Haran,
3. and He said to him, ‘Leave your land and your kinsmen and come to a land that I will show you.’
4. Then he left the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran, and from there, after the death of his father, God resettled him in this land where you now live.
5. But He gave him no inheritance in it, not even a foot’s length of ground, yet He promised to give it to him as a possession, and to his seed after him, while he was yet childless.
6. And God spoke to this effect, that his seed would be sojourners in a land belonging to others, and men would enslave and oppress them four hundred years.
7. ‘And I myself will judge the nation where they will be enslaved,’ said God, ‘and after that, they will come out and worship me in this place.’
8. And He gave him the covenant of circumcision. And accordingly, he fathered Isaac and circumcised him the eighth day. And thus did Isaac to Jacob, and Jacob to the twelve patriarchs.
9. And the patriarchs, being envious, sold Joseph into Egypt, but God was with him,

10. and delivered him from all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who then appointed him to be ruler over Egypt and over all his house.
11. Then famine came upon all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, and our fathers could not find food.
12. But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our fathers the first time.
13. But the second time, Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and Joseph's family was made known to Pharaoh.
14. And Joseph sent and called his father Jacob, and all his relatives, seventy-five souls.
15. So Jacob went down to Egypt, and he and our fathers died,
16. and they were taken back to Sychem and were laid in the tomb which Abraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Emmor of Sychem.
17. Then, as the promised time drew near which God had sworn to Abraham, the people increased and multiplied in Egypt
18. until a different kind of king arose who had not known Joseph.
19. He took shrewd advantage of our people and mistreated our fathers, forcing them to expose their babies so that they could not survive.
20. Moses was born at that time, and he was pleasing to God. He was nourished three months in his father's house,
21. but when he was exposed, Pharaoh's daughter claimed him, and she brought him up as her own son.
22. And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was mighty in words and deeds.
23. Now, when he was about forty years old, it entered his heart to visit his brothers, the sons of Israel.
24. And when he saw one of them being hurt, he defended him, and avenged the man being abused, striking down the Egyptian.
25. Now, he assumed his brothers would understand that God was giving them deliverance by his hand. But they did not understand.
26. The following day, when he showed up, they were fighting, and he urged them to make peace, saying, 'Men, you are brothers. Why are you hurting each other?'
27. But the one mistreating his neighbor pushed him away, saying, 'Who made you ruler and judge over us?
28. Do you want to kill me, the way you killed the Egyptian yesterday?'
29. Because of this comment, Moses fled Egypt and became a stranger in the land of Midian, where he fathered two sons.
30. And after forty years had passed, an angel of the LORD appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of a burning bush.
31. And when Moses saw the sight, he was amazed. And as he approached to consider it, the voice of the LORD came to him:

32. ‘I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’ And Moses was terrified and dared not look.
33. Then the LORD said to him, ‘Take the sandals off your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.
34. I have surely seen the oppression of my people who are in Egypt and have heard their groaning. And I have come down to deliver them. So now, come. I will send you to Egypt.’
35. This is the Moses whom they rejected, saying, ‘Who made you ruler and judge?’ This man God sent as a ruler and liberator by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush.
36. This man led them out, after performing wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and at the Red Sea, and then in the wilderness forty years.
37. This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel, ‘The LORD our God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers.’
38. This is the man who was with the Assembly in the wilderness, with the angel who spoke to him at Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received life-giving oracles to give to us,
39. whom our fathers would not obey. Instead, they rejected him and in their hearts turned back to Egypt,
40. saying to Aaron, ‘Make us gods who will go before us. As for this Moses who led us out of the land of Egypt, we don’t know what has become of him.’
41. So in those days, they made a calf and offered up a sacrifice to the idol, and began rejoicing in the works of their own hands.
42. But God turned and gave them over to worship the host of heaven, as is written in a scroll of the prophets, ‘O house of Israel, did you really bring offerings and sacrifices to me forty years in the wilderness?’
43. No! You took up the tabernacle of Moloch and the emblem³ of your god, Remphan, the images you made so that you might worship them. Therefore, I will exile you beyond Babylon.’
44. The tabernacle of testimony was with our fathers in the wilderness, as He who spoke to Moses also commanded him to make it according to the pattern he had seen,
45. which our fathers received, in turn, and brought in with Joshua when they took possession from the nations whom God drove out before the face of our fathers. So it was until the days of David,
46. who found favor before God and prayed to find a dwelling place for the God of Jacob.
47. But Solomon built Him a house.

³ Literally, “star”.

48. However, the Most High does not dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophets said,
 49. ‘Heaven is my throne, and the earth, my footstool. What kind of house will you build for me, says the LORD? or where is the place of my rest?
 50. Did not my hand make all these things?’
- ¶51. O you stiff-necked men, and uncircumcised in heart and ears! You always resist the holy Spirit! As your fathers did, you do also.
52. Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? They even killed those who foretold the coming of the righteous one, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers—
 53. you who received the law by the disposition of angels, but have not kept it!”
- ¶54. And when they heard these things, they were cut to their hearts and began gnashing their teeth at him.
55. But he, full of holy Spirit, looked intently into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God.
 56. And he said, “Behold! I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing at the right hand of God!”
 57. But they cried out with a loud voice, covered their ears, and rushed at him with one accord,
 58. and they threw him out of the city and began stoning him. And the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul.
 59. And they kept on stoning Stephen as he called on the Lord, saying, “Lord Jesus! Receive my spirit!”
 60. Then, falling to his knees, he cried out with a loud voice, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them!” And having said this, he fell asleep.

Acts 8

1. Now, Saul was in complete agreement with his killing. And on that day, a great persecution broke out against the Assembly in Jerusalem, and they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.
 2. (Devout men buried Stephen, and made great lamentation over him.)
 3. And Saul began ravaging the Assembly, going into every house and dragging away both men and women, and handing them over for imprisonment.
- ¶4. Nevertheless, those who were scattered went about, spreading the word of the gospel.
5. Philip went down to a city of Samaria and began preaching the Messiah to them.
 6. And the people with one accord began to pay attention to the things spoken by Philip when they heard them and saw the miracles that he was working,
 7. for many were possessed with unclean spirits, which came out, crying out with a loud voice, and many who were paralyzed and crippled were healed.

8. And there was great joy in that city.
- ¶9. Now, a certain man named Simon used to practice sorcery in the city, and he had the people of Samaria spellbound, making himself out to be someone great,
10. to whom they gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is the great power of God."
11. They had regard for him because for a long time he had amazed them with supernatural acts.
12. But when they believed Philip as he preached about the good things of the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, men as well as women began to be baptized.
13. Even Simon himself believed, and after he was baptized, he clung to Philip, amazed as he beheld the miracles and signs taking place.
- ¶14. When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them,
15. who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the holy Spirit
16. (for as yet, it had fallen upon none of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Messiah, Jesus).
17. Then they began laying hands on them, and they started receiving the holy Spirit.
18. When Simon saw that the holy Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money,
19. saying, "Give me this power, too, so that whoever I lay hands on will receive the holy Spirit."
20. But Peter said to him, "May you and your silver be damned because you thought to obtain the gift of God with money!"
21. You have no part or portion in this matter. Your heart is not right before God.
22. Repent of this wickedness of yours and pray to God, if it be that the intent of your heart will be forgiven!
23. For I perceive that you are in the gall of bitterness and the fetters of unrighteousness."
24. Simon answered and said, "You pray to the Lord for me, that nothing of what you have said will come upon me!"
- ¶25. Then, after they had fully testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, proclaiming the good news in many villages of the Samaritans.
- ¶26. Now, an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Get up and go south on the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza (which is a desert road)."
27. So he got up and went. And behold, an Ethiopian eunuch, an official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure and who had come to Jerusalem to worship,
28. was returning, and he sat in his chariot reading the prophet Isaiah aloud.
29. Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go near and join yourself to this chariot."

30. So Philip ran up to it, and he heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and he said, “Well now, do you understand what you are reading?”
31. And he said, “How can I, unless someone guide me?” Then he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.
32. The passage of scripture that he was reading was this: “He was led like a sheep to the slaughter, and like a lamb, silent before its shearer, so he opens not his mouth.
33. In his humiliation, justice was denied him. And who shall declare his generation? For his life is taken from the earth.”
34. And the eunuch answered and said to Philip, “I pray you, about whom is the prophet saying this? Himself or some other?”
35. Then Philip opened his mouth and, beginning with this scripture, preached Jesus to him.
36. And as they traveled down the road, they came upon some water, and the eunuch said, “Look! Water! What prevents me from being baptized?”
37. *And Philip said to him, ‘If you believe with your whole heart, you may.’ And he answered and said, ‘I believe Jesus Christ is the Son of God.’*⁴
38. And he ordered the chariot to be stopped, and they both went down to the water, Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.
39. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, and the eunuch saw him no longer, but went on his way, rejoicing.
40. And Philip found himself at Azotus, and he preached the good news as he passed through all the cities until he came to Caesarea.

Acts 9

- ¶1. Now Saul, still breathing out threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, approached the high priest
2. and asked him for letters to the Damascus synagogues, that if he found any of the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.
3. And in his journey, as he was drawing near to Damascus, a light from heaven suddenly shone around him.
4. And he fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, “Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me?”
5. And he said, “Who are you, sir?” And the Lord said, “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.”
6. And he, trembling and astonished, said, “Lord, what do you want me to do?” And the Lord said to him,⁵ “Just rise up and go into the city, and it will be told you what you must do.”
7. And the men traveling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice, but seeing no one.

⁴ Many manuscripts do not have this verse. Others do include it, some with minor variations.

⁵ The first half of this verse is found in the King James Version, which is based on the Textus Receptus.

8. Then Saul got up from the ground. And though his eyes were open, he saw no one, and they, leading him by the hand, brought him to Damascus.
 9. And he remained without sight for three days, and neither ate nor drank.
- ¶10. Now, there was a certain disciple in Damascus named Ananias, and the Lord said to him in a vision, “Ananias!” And he said, “Here I am, Lord!”
11. Then the Lord said to him, “Rise up and go to the street that is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, of Tarsus. Behold, he is praying.
 12. And he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hand on him so that he might see again.”
 13. But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he did to your saints in Jerusalem.
 14. And even here, he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call upon your name!”
 15. But the Lord said to him, “Go! This man is my chosen vessel, to bear my name before nations and kings and the sons of Israel,
 16. and I will show him how much he must suffer for my name.”
 17. Then Ananias departed and entered into the house, and laid his hands on him, saying, “Brother Saul, the Lord who appeared to you on the road as you were coming, has sent me so that you might see again and be filled with holy Spirit.”
 18. And immediately, something like scales fell from his eyes, and he saw again. Then he arose and was baptized,
 19. and he took food and was strengthened.
- ¶And Saul was with the disciples in Damascus certain days,
20. And right away, he began preaching Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.
 21. All who heard were amazed, and they said, “Isn’t this the man who made havoc of those in Jerusalem who call upon this name and who came here to bind them and take them to the chief priests?”
 22. But Saul was all the more strengthened, and he confounded the Jews who lived in Damascus, proving that Jesus was the Messiah.
- ¶23. And after many days had passed, the Jews plotted among themselves to kill him,
24. but their plot was made known to Saul. Then they began to watch the gates closely, day and night, so that they might kill him.
 25. But the disciples took him by night and let him down through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a large basket.
- ¶26. When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to join himself to the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple.

27. But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles, and he related to them how he had seen the Lord on the road and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus.
 28. And he remained with them, going in and out of Jerusalem, and speaking boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus,
 29. and he began talking and disputing with the Hellenists, but they set about to kill him.
 30. And when the brothers found that out, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him off to Tarsus.
 31. Then the Assemblies throughout all of Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, and were built up, and continuing in the fear of the Lord and the comfort of the holy Spirit, they were multiplied.
- ¶32. Now it happened as Peter passed through all that region that he also came down to the saints who dwelt in Lydda.
33. And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, who was paralyzed and had lain on a pallet for eight years.
 34. And Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus the Messiah heals you! Arise and make your bed!”
And immediately, he arose.
 35. And all who lived at Lydda and Assaron saw him, and they turned to the Lord.
- ¶36. Now, in Joppa there was a certain disciple named Tabitha (which interpreted means Dorcas⁶). She was full of good works and almsgiving, which she did continually.
37. And it came to pass in those days that she grew sick and died. And they washed her and laid her in an upper room.
 38. Lydda being close to Joppa, the disciples had heard that Peter was there, and so they sent a message to him, imploring him not to delay coming to them.
 39. So Peter arose and went with them. When he arrived, they led him into the upper room, and all the widows stood by him, weeping and showing the tunics and garments which Dorcas used to make while she was with them.
 40. When Peter had sent everyone out, he fell to his knees and prayed. Then turning to the body, he said, “Tabitha, rise up!” And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.
 41. Then, offering her a hand, he raised her up, and he called the saints and the widows, and presented her alive.
 42. And it became known throughout Joppa, and many believed on the Lord.
 43. And he stayed many days in Joppa with one Simon, a tanner.

Acts 10

⁶ That is, “gazelle”.

1. Now there was a certain man in Caesarea named Cornelius, a centurion of a cohort called the Italian cohort,
 2. a devout and God-fearing man, along with all his house, and one who did many kind deeds for the people and prayed to God continually.
 3. About the ninth hour of the day, in a vision, he saw clearly an angel of God come in to him and say to him, "Cornelius."
 4. And he stared at him, and being afraid, he said, "What is it, sir?" And he said to him, "Your prayers and your alms have gone up for a memorial before God."
 5. Send men now to Joppa, and summon Simon, who is called Peter.
 6. He is lodging with a certain Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea."
 7. When the angel who spoke with Cornelius left, he called two of his house-servants and a devout soldier from among those who constantly waited on him,
 8. and after he had related everything to them, he dispatched them to Joppa.
- ¶9. About the sixth hour the next day, as they were on the way and were drawing near the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray.
10. And he grew hungry, and he wanted something to eat. But while they prepared it, a trance fell on him.
 11. And he saw heaven opened, and above him a vessel like a great linen sheet was descending, tied at the four corners and being lowered to the ground,
 12. in which were all kinds of four-footed creatures of the earth, and wild beasts, reptiles, and birds of the sky.
 13. And there came a voice to him, saying, "Rise, Peter. Kill and eat."
 14. But Peter said, "Oh no, Lord! I have never eaten anything common or unclean!"
 15. Then a voice came to him a second time: "What God has made clean, don't you call common!"
 16. This happened three times, and then the vessel was taken back into heaven.
- ¶17. At that very moment, Peter being at a loss within himself as to what the vision he had seen might mean, the men who were sent by Cornelius, having inquired about Simon's house, stood at the gate.
18. And they called out and inquired whether Simon, who is called Peter, was lodging there.
 19. And as Peter was pondering over the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, men are looking for you.
 20. Get up and go down, and go with them, doubting nothing, for I have sent them."
 21. Then Peter went down to the men and said, "Behold, I am the one you are seeking. Why have you come?"
 22. And they said, "Cornelius, a centurion, an upright man, one who fears God and is well-spoken of by the whole nation of the Jews, was instructed by a holy angel to summon you to his house and to hear words from you."

23. So he invited them in and gave them lodging.
¶The next day, Peter departed with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa went with him.
24. The following day, they came into Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them, and he had called together his relatives and close friends.
25. And when Peter entered in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet and worshipped him.
26. But Peter lifted him up, saying, "Stand up! I am a man, too."
27. And as he talked with him, he went in and found many gathered together.
28. And he said to them, "You know how forbidden it is for a Jewish man to associate with or visit one of another nation. Yet, God has shown me not to call any man common or unclean.
29. Consequently, when I was summoned, I came without objection. I ask, then, why did you summon me?"
30. Then Cornelius said, "Four days ago I was fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour I was praying in my house when, suddenly, a man stood before me in shining raiment.
31. And he said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your alms have been brought to remembrance before God.'
32. Therefore, send to Joppa and summon Simon who is called Peter. He is lodging by the sea in a house belonging to Simon the tanner. He will speak to you when he comes.'
33. So I sent for you at once, and you did well to come. Now then, we are all present before God to hear everything that has been commanded you by God."
34. Then Peter opened his mouth and said,
¶"Of a truth, I perceive that God is no respecter of persons,
35. but in every nation, whoever fears Him and works righteousness is acceptable to Him.
36. The word that He sent to the children of Israel, declaring the sweet message of peace through Jesus the Messiah (he is Lord of all),
37. you know, which message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after he received the baptism that John preached,
38. when God anointed him, Jesus of Nazareth, with holy Spirit and power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed of the Accuser, for God was with him.
39. And we are witnesses of all the things that he did, both in the region of Judea and in Jerusalem, whom they also put to death, hanging him on a tree.
40. This man God raised up on the third day, and He permitted him to be seen,
41. not by all the people, but by witnesses chosen beforehand by God—by us who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.
42. And he commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead.

43. All the prophets bear witness to him, that through his name, everyone who believes in him receives remission of sins.”
- ¶44. While Peter was still saying these things, the holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the Word.
45. And those of the circumcision who believed, as many as came with Peter, were astonished because the gift of the holy Spirit had also been poured out on the Gentiles!
46. They knew this because they heard them speaking in tongues and magnifying God. Then Peter answered,
47. “Can anyone refuse them the water, that these should not be baptized who received the holy Spirit just as we did?”
48. And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. They then asked him to stay on a few days.

Acts 11

1. The apostles and the brothers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.
2. And when Peter went up to Jerusalem, those of the circumcision contended with him,
3. saying, “You went to men who have a foreskin, and you ate with them!”
4. Then Peter began laying it all out to them in order, saying,
5. “I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision, some sort of vessel coming down, like a great linen sheet being lowered from heaven by four corners, and it came to me.
6. I stared at it, wondering, and then I saw four-footed creatures of earth, and wild beasts, and reptiles, and birds of the sky.
7. And I heard a voice saying to me, ‘Rise, Peter. Kill and eat.’
8. But I said, ‘Certainly not, Lord! Nothing common or unclean has ever entered my mouth.’
9. And the voice answered me a second time from heaven, saying, ‘What God has made clean, don’t you call common!’
10. This happened three times, and then everything was pulled back up into heaven again.
11. And behold, at that precise moment, three men were standing in front of the house where I was, having been sent from Caesarea to me.
12. And the Spirit told me to go with them, doubting nothing. And these six brothers went with me, and we entered into the man’s house.
13. Then he told us how he saw an angel standing in his house and telling him, ‘Send men to Joppa and summon Simon who is called Peter,
14. who will speak words to you, by which you and all your household will be saved.’
15. And as I began to speak, the holy Spirit fell on them just as on us at the beginning.

16. Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how he used to say, ‘John indeed baptized with water, but you will be baptized with holy Spirit.’
 17. Inasmuch, then, as God gave them the same gift He gave to us who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could withstand God?”
 18. When they had heard these things, they fell silent, but then they began glorifying God, saying, “Well, then, God has granted repentance unto life to the Gentiles, too!”
 - ¶19. Now, those who were scattered because of the trouble that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except Jews.
 20. And there were certain men among them, Cypriots and Cyrenians, who after they entered into Antioch, began speaking to the Hellenists, proclaiming the good news of the Lord Jesus.
 21. And because the hand of the Lord was with them, a great number believed and turned to the Lord.
 22. The report about them came to the ears of the Assembly in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to go to Antioch,
 23. who, when he arrived and saw the grace of God, rejoiced and began encouraging all of them to continue in the Lord with a resolute heart,
 24. for he was a good man, full of holy Spirit and faith. And many were added to the Lord.
 25. Then Barnabas departed for Tarsus to look for Saul,
 26. and when he found him, he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for a whole year they were together with the Assembly and taught many people. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.
- ¶27. In those days, prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.
28. And one of them by the name of Agabos stood up and, by the Spirit, foretold that there was about to be a great famine over the whole world (which came to pass during the time of Claudius Caesar).
 29. Then the disciples, as anyone had means, each determined to send aid to the brothers who lived in Judea,
 30. which they also did, sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

Acts 12

1. At that time, Herod the King laid his hands on some who were of the Assembly, to do them harm.
2. He killed James, the brother of John, with the sword,
3. and when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter, too (they were the days of unleavened bread),
4. whom he also put in prison after he had arrested him, committing him to four quaternions of soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him before the people after the Passover.

5. So, Peter was imprisoned. But earnest prayer for him was made to God by the Assembly.
6. When Herod was about to bring him forth, Peter, bound with two chains, was that night sleeping between two soldiers, and the guards keeping the prison were in front of the door.
7. And behold, an angel of the Lord appeared, and a light shone in the prison cell. And he struck Peter's side and woke him up, saying, "Get up quickly!" And the chains fell off his hands.
8. And the angel said to him, "Get dressed and put your sandals on." And he did so. And then he said to him, "Put on your cloak, and follow me."
9. And he followed him and went out. And he did not know that what was done by the angel was real, but he thought he was seeing a vision.
10. And when they had passed by the first guard, and the second, they came to the iron gate that led into the city, which opened to them by itself. And they went out, and proceeded along one street, and suddenly, the angel departed from him.
11. Then Peter, coming to himself said, "Now I know that the Lord really did send his angel and rescue me from the hand of Herod and from everything the people of the Jews expected."
12. And when he realized this, he went to the house of the mother of John who is called Mark, where many were gathered and were praying.
13. And when Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a maidservant named Rhoda came to answer.
14. And when she recognized Peter's voice, she did not open the gate for joy, but ran inside and reported that Peter was standing at the gate.
15. But they said to her, "You're crazy." But she kept insisting that it was so. Then they started saying, "It's his angel."
16. But Peter kept on knocking, and when they had opened the door, they saw him, and they were astonished.
17. But motioning to them with his hand to be quiet, he described to them how the Lord had led him out of the prison. And he said, "Report these things to James and the brothers." And then he left and went to another place.
18. Now when day came, there was no small consternation among the soldiers as to what had become of Peter.
19. After Herod searched for him but did not find him, he examined the guards and commanded that they be put to death.⁷ And he went down from Judea to spend time in Caesarea.

⁷ Literally, "that they be led away."

- ¶20. Now, Herod was very angry with the Tyrians and Sidonians, but they came to him with one accord, and having won over Blastus, the king's chamberlain, they began asking for peace, for their country was dependent on the king's country for food.
21. And on an appointed day, Herod arrayed himself in royal garments, and when he had sat down on the judgment seat, he began delivering an oration to them.
22. Then the assembly began shouting, "It is the voice of a god and not of a man!"
23. But an angel of the Lord immediately struck him because he did not give glory to God. And being eaten up with worms, he died.
- ¶24. But the word of God kept growing and multiplying.
- ¶25. Now, Barnabas and Saul returned to Jerusalem when they completed their ministry, bringing along John also, who was called Mark.

Acts 13

- ¶1. There were some prophets and teachers in the Assembly at Antioch: Barnabas, and Simon (who was called Niger), and Lucius the Cyrenian, and Manaen (who was brought up with Herod the tetrarch), and Saul.
2. And as they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the holy Spirit said, "Set Barnabas and Saul apart for me, for the work to which I have called them."
3. Whereupon, they laid hands on them, after fasting and praying, and sent them off.
- ¶4. Therefore, being sent out by the holy Spirit, they came down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus.
5. When they arrived at Salamis, they began proclaiming the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews, and they also had John as a helper.
6. And when they had passed through the island as far as Paphos, they came upon a certain sorcerer, a Jewish false prophet whose name was Barjesus
7. who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulos, a prudent man. The proconsul summoned Barnabas and Saul, eager to hear the word of God,
8. but Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name translated), withheld them, trying to turn the proconsul from the faith.
9. But Saul (also called Paul) was filled with holy Spirit, and fastening his eyes on him,
10. he said, "O full of all deceit and all villainy! You son of the Accuser! You enemy of all righteousness! Will you ever stop perverting the straight paths of the Lord?
11. And now, behold! The hand of the Lord is upon you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a season." And immediately, a mist and darkness fell on him, and he went about wanting someone to lead him by the hand.
12. Then the proconsul, having seen what happened, believed, being amazed at the doctrine of the Lord.
- ¶13. When they sailed from Paphos, those with Paul came to Perga of Pamphylia. But John left them and returned to Jerusalem.

14. Then going on from Perga, they came to Antioch of Pisidia, and they went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day and sat down.
15. After the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Men and brothers, if you have a word of exhortation for the people, speak."
16. And Paul rose up and motioned with his hand, and said, ¶"Men of Israel, and those who fear God, listen!"
17. The God of this people chose our fathers, and He greatly increased the people while they sojourned in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm, He led them out of it.
18. Then, for a period of about forty years, He bore with them in the wilderness.
19. And when He had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, He divided their land to them for an inheritance.
20. After these things, for about four hundred and fifty years, He appointed judges, until Samuel the prophet.
21. At that point, they asked for a king, and so God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years.
22. And after removing him, He raised up David to be king over them, concerning whom He also testified, saying, 'I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my own heart, who will do all things according to my will.'
23. Of the seed of this man, God, according to His promise, has brought salvation to Israel,
24. John having preached before his coming a baptism of repentance to Israel.
25. Now, as John was fulfilling his course, he said, 'Whom do you suppose me to be? I am not he. No! Behold, he is coming after me, the sandals of whose feet I am unworthy to loose.'
26. Men and brothers, sons of the stock of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, to you the message of this salvation is sent.
27. The inhabitants of Jerusalem and their rulers, understanding neither him nor the words of the prophets that are read aloud every Sabbath, fulfilled those prophecies when they condemned him.
28. And they asked Pilate to do away with him without finding a reason for death.
29. And when they had fulfilled all that was written about him, men took him down from the tree and placed him in a tomb.
30. But God raised him from the dead,
31. and he was seen over the course of many days by those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people.
32. And we are bringing you the good news concerning the promise made to the fathers, that God has fulfilled the same for us, their children, by resurrecting Jesus,
33. as it is written in the second Psalm: 'You are my son. Today, I have begotten you.'
34. And concerning the fact that He raised him from the dead, no longer to return to decay, He said thus: 'I will give you the holy and sure mercies of David.'

35. And in another Psalm, it says, ‘You will not allow your righteous one to see decay.’
 36. Now, it is clear that after David served the purpose of God in his generation, he fell asleep and was gathered to his fathers, and saw decay.
 37. But he whom God raised up saw no decay.
 38. Be it known unto you, therefore, men and brothers, that through this man forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you,
 39. and by him, all who believe are justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses!
 40. So beware, lest what is spoken in the prophets come upon you:
 41. ‘Behold, you scoffers, and marvel, and perish! For I work a work in your days that you will by no means believe, even if someone explains it to you.”
- ¶42. After they had left the synagogue of the Jews, the Gentiles kept pleading for these things to be spoken to them the next Sabbath.
43. And after the synagogue was dismissed, many of the Jews and the God-fearing proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke with them, urging them to continue in the grace of God.
- ¶44. Then, the following Sabbath, nearly all the city was gathered to hear the word of God.
45. But the Jews, seeing the multitudes, were filled with envy and began speaking against the things said by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.
 46. Nevertheless, Paul and Barnabas spoke boldly and said, “It was necessary to have spoken the word of God to you first. But since you reject it and judge yourselves to be unworthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles!
 47. For so the LORD commanded us, in saying, ‘I have appointed you to be a light for the Gentiles, for you to be salvation to the uttermost part of the earth.”
 48. And when the Gentiles heard this, they started rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord, and as many as were appointed to eternal life believed.
 49. And the word of the Lord kept spreading throughout the region.
 50. But the Jews incited the devout and respected women and the leading men of the city, and they stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and they drove them out of their borders.
 51. But they shook off the dust from their feet against them, and went to Iconium.
 52. And the disciples were filled with joy and holy Spirit.

Acts 14

1. In Iconium, they went as usual into the synagogue of the Jews, and they spoke in such a way that a great number of Jews and Greeks believed.
2. But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers.

3. Nevertheless, they spent a considerable amount of time there, boldly speaking about the Lord, who bore witness to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done through their hands.
 4. But the populace of the city was divided; some were with the Jews, and some, with the apostles.
 5. And when there developed a movement among both Gentiles and Jews, with their rulers, to abuse and stone them,
 6. they were made aware of it, and they fled to the Lycaonian cities of Lystra and Derbe, and the surrounding region.
 7. And there they continued to spread the good news.
- ¶8. And in Lystra, a certain man with crippled feet was sitting; he had never walked, being lame from his mother's womb.
9. He listened to Paul speaking, who, fixing his eyes on him and seeing that he had faith to be delivered,
 10. said in a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet!" And he began leaping and walking about.
 11. And when the people saw what Paul had done, they shouted in Lycaonian, saying, "The gods have become like men and come down to us!"
 12. And Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul, Hermes, since he was the principal speaker.
 13. Then the priest of the temple of Zeus that was before their city brought bulls and garlands to the gates, intending to offer a sacrifice with the people.
 14. But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of it, they tore their garments and rushed in among the crowd, crying out
 15. and saying, "Men, why are you doing these things? We are also men, with the same nature as you! We are bringing you good news, that you should turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and all that is in them,
 16. who in past generations allowed all the nations to go their own ways.
 17. Nevertheless, He did not leave Himself without witness, in that He did good, giving you rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, satisfying our hearts with food and gladness."
 18. And saying these things, they scarcely restrained the people from making sacrifice to them.
- ¶19. Then Jews from Antioch and Iconium arrived, and after winning over the people and stoning Paul, they dragged him out of the city, thinking him to be dead.
20. But when the disciples stood round about him, he rose up and went into the city, and the next day, he departed with Barnabas for Derbe.
 21. And after they preached the good news to that city, and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, and Iconium, and Antioch,

22. strengthening the souls of the disciples, urging them to persevere in the faith, adding, “We must through many tribulations enter into the kingdom of God.”
23. And when they had chosen elders for them in each Assembly, after praying with fasting, they entrusted them to the Lord in whom they had believed.
24. And passing through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.
25. And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia,
26. and from there they sailed to Antioch, from which they had been commended to the grace of God for the work that they had fulfilled.
27. When they arrived and were gathered together with the Assembly, they reported all the things God had done with them, and that He had opened a door of faith for the Gentiles.
28. And they remained there no little time with the disciples.

Acts 15

1. And certain men came down from Judea and began to teach the brothers, saying, “Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.”
2. Therefore, when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and debate with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas and certain other of them to go up to the apostles and elders at Jerusalem concerning this question.
3. And so, being sent by the Assembly, they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring in detail the conversion of the Gentiles, and they caused great joy among all the brothers.
4. When they arrived in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the Assembly, and the apostles, and the elders, and they recounted all the things God had done with them.
5. But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees who believed, saying, “It is necessary to circumcise them and to command them to keep the law of Moses!”
- ¶6. And the apostles and the elders came together to see about this matter.
7. And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose and said to them, ¶“Men and brothers, you know that a good while ago, God made choice among us, that by my mouth the Gentiles were to hear the word of the gospel, and believe.
8. And God, who knows the heart, bore them witness, giving them the holy Spirit just as He gave it to us,
9. and He made no distinction between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.
10. Now then, why do you tempt God by placing a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear?
11. No! We believe we will be saved the same way they will be—through the grace of the Lord Jesus.”
- ¶12. Then the whole crowd fell silent and began listening to Barnabas and Paul tell of all the signs and wonders that God had done through them among the Gentiles.

13. And when they were finished, James spoke up, saying,
¶ “Men and brothers, hear me.
 14. Simeon has described how God first intervened to take from the Gentiles a people for His name.
 15. And to this, the words of the prophets agree, for it is written,
 16. ‘After these things, I will return, and I will build up again the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and I will build up again the parts of it that are torn down, and I will restore it
 17. so that the rest of mankind may seek the LORD, even all the Gentiles upon whom my name is called, says the LORD who is doing all these things.’
 18. Known to God, from eternity, are all His works.
 19. Therefore, my judgment is that we not trouble those from the Gentiles who turn to God,
 20. but that we write to them to keep away from the pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from what is strangled, and from blood.
 21. For from early times, Moses has had in every city those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath.”
- ¶22. It seemed good then to the apostles and elders, together with the whole Assembly, to send men chosen from among them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judas (who is called Barsabbas) and Silas, leading men among the brothers.
23. And with their own hand, they wrote the following: “The apostles and elders, and the brothers, to the Antiochan, Syrian, and Cilician brothers who are of the Gentiles, greetings.
 24. Inasmuch as we have heard that certain men among us, to whom we gave no charge, went out from here and troubled you with words, unsettling your souls, saying you must be circumcised and keep the law,
 25. it seemed good to us, being of one mind, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,
 26. men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus the Messiah.
 27. So, we have sent Judas and Silas, and they will tell you the same things by word of mouth.
 28. For it seemed good to the holy Spirit, and to us, to put upon you no greater burden, except for these necessary things:
 29. abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and what is strangled, and from immorality. Keeping yourselves from these things, you will do well. Farewell.”
- ¶30. Then they were sent away and came to Antioch, and they gathered the multitude together and delivered the letter.
31. And when they read it, they rejoiced at the encouragement.
 32. And both Judas and Silas, themselves also being prophets, encouraged the brothers and strengthened them with a long message.

33. And after they had spent time there, they were sent away with peaceful salutations from the brothers to the apostles.
34. *But it seemed good to Silas to remain there.*⁸
35. And Paul and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and, with many others, proclaiming the good news of the word of the Lord.
- ¶36. After some time, Paul said to Barnabas, “Come, let us return and visit our brothers in every city where we proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are.”
37. And Barnabas resolved to take along John, who was called Mark.
38. But Paul was unwilling to take him with them who had deserted them at Pamphylia and did not continue with them in the work.
39. And there was such a sharp disagreement that they were separated from one another, and Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus.
40. But Paul chose Silas and set out, being commended to the care of God by the brothers.
41. And he passed through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the Assemblies.

Acts 16

- ¶1. Then he arrived at Derbe and Lystra, and behold, a certain disciple was there named Timothy (the son of a woman who was a believing Jew, but his father was a Greek),
 2. who was well-spoken of by the brothers in Lystra and Iconium.
 3. Paul wanted him to go with him, and so, he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews that were in those places, for they all knew his father was a Greek.
 4. And as they went through the cities, they passed on the decrees for them to obey that had been decided on by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem.
 5. So it was that the Assemblies were being established in the faith and were increasing in number daily.
- ¶6. When they had traveled through Phrygia and the region of Galatia, having been forbidden by the holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia,
 7. they came down to Mysia, intending to go to Bithynia, but the Spirit did not permit them.
 8. So, when they had passed by Mysia, they came down to Troas.
 9. And a vision in the night appeared to Paul. In it, there was a certain Macedonian man standing and begging him, saying, “Come over to Macedonia and help us!”
 10. After he saw the vision, we immediately made preparations to depart for Macedonia, gathering that the Lord had summoned us to bring the good news to them.
- ¶11. Then, setting sail from Troas, we ran a straight course to Samothrace, and the next day to Neapolis,

⁸ The Byzantine text does not have this verse.

12. and from there to Philippi, which is a chief city of the region of Macedonia, a Roman colony. And we remained in that city for some time.
13. And on the Sabbath, we went outside of the city by a river, where prayer was customarily made, and when we sat down, we began to speak to women who had gathered.
14. And a certain woman named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth from the city of Thyatira, a worshipper of God, was listening, whose heart the Lord opened to give heed to the things spoken by Paul.
15. And when she was baptized, and her house, she begged us, saying, “If you consider me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and stay.” And she persuaded us.
- ¶16. And it happened that as we were going to prayer, a certain slave girl met us who had the spirit of Python⁹ and who brought her masters great profit by fortune telling.
17. This girl, following after Paul and us, kept crying out, saying, “These men are servants of the most high God, who proclaim to us the way of salvation!”
18. This she kept doing for many days. But Paul grew very annoyed, and he turned to the spirit and said, “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!” And it came out that very moment.
- ¶19. But her masters, seeing that their hope for profit was gone, seized Paul and Silas and dragged them before the rulers in the Agora.¹⁰
20. And having brought them to the magistrates, they said, “These men, being Jews, are stirring up our city,
21. and they are proclaiming customs that are not lawful for us, being Romans, to accept or to do!”
22. And the people rose up together against them, and the magistrates stripped them of their garments and commanded them to be beaten with rods.
23. And when they had laid many blows on them, they threw them into prison, and commanded the jailer to keep them securely,
24. who having received such an order, put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.
25. But at midnight, Paul and Silas were praying, and they began singing praises to God, and the prisoners were listening to them,
26. when all of a sudden, there was such a great earthquake that it shook the foundations of the prison, and all the doors were immediately opened, and everyone’s chains were unfastened
27. And the jailer was woken up, and seeing the prison doors opened, he drew out a sword and was about to kill himself, assuming that the prisoners had escaped,
28. but Paul cried out with a loud voice, saying, “Do yourself no harm! We are all here!”

⁹ Python is the name of a snake god associated with Delphi, where priestesses uttered oracles.

¹⁰ The agora was like the downtown area of a modern city, filled with shops, businesses, and municipal buildings.

29. Then, when he had called for lights, he rushed in, trembling with fear, and fell down before Paul and Silas.
 30. And after he brought them out, he said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”
 31. And they said, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your house.”
 32. And then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and all who were in his house.
 33. And he took them at that hour of the night and washed their wounds, and he was straightway baptized, he and all his house.
 34. Then he brought them to his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced with all his house, believing in God.
- ¶35. Now when it was day, the magistrates sent the lictors,¹¹ saying, “Release those men.”
36. And the jailer reported to Paul these words: “The magistrates have sent word for you to be released. So, depart now, and go in peace.”
 37. But Paul said to them, “After beating us publicly without a trial, uncondemned—we being Romans!—they cast us into prison. And now they are releasing us in secret? Not so! Let them come themselves and lead us out!”
 38. Then the lictors reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans.
 39. And they came and pleaded with them, and they led them out, asking them to leave the city.
 40. When they had left the prison, they went to Lydia’s house, and when they saw the brothers, they encouraged them, and departed.

Acts 17

- ¶1. Passing through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.
2. And Paul, as was his custom, went in to them, and for three Sabbaths he reasoned with them from the scriptures,
3. explaining and putting it before them that “It was necessary for the Messiah to suffer and rise again from the dead,” and, “This Jesus whom I am proclaiming to you is the Messiah.”
4. Some of them were persuaded and joined themselves to Paul and Silas, as did a great many of the God-fearing Greeks, and not a few of the prominent women.
5. But the unbelieving Jews took to them some wicked men from the rabble in the market-place and formed a mob, and they began to throw the city into disorder, and they attacked the house of Jason, intending to hale them before the assembly.

¹¹ Ancient Roman officers who attended magistrates and other higher officials. They carried the fasces, the symbol of Roman civil authority, and were responsible for executing the sentences ordered by the authorities.

6. Not finding them, however, they dragged Jason and certain brothers before the rulers of the city, shouting, “These men who have turned the whole world upside down have now come here,
 7. whom Jason has welcomed. And they all do things contrary to Caesar’s decrees, saying there is a different king, Jesus!”
 8. They stirred up the people and the city officials who heard these things,
 9. but taking a bond from Jason and the rest, they released them.
- ¶10. And the brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea, and when they arrived, they went into the synagogue of the Jews.
11. Now, these Jews were more noble than those in Thessalonica; they received the word with all eagerness, examining the scriptures daily as to whether these things were so.
 12. And many of them did indeed believe, including some of the prominent Greek women, and not a few of the men.
 13. But when the Jews of Thessalonica learned that the word of God was also being proclaimed by Paul in Berea, they came and stirred up the people there, too.
 14. Immediately then, the brothers sent Paul away, as if to go by sea, while both Silas and Timothy remained there.
 15. Those conducting Paul took him as far as Athens, and receiving a command for Silas and Timothy, that they should come to him as quickly as possible, they departed.
- ¶16. But while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was continually provoked within him as he observed that the city was full of idols.
17. So, he began reasoning with the Jews and the God-fearers in the synagogue, and in the Agora every day with those who happened to be there.
 18. Then some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers began conversing with him. Some of them were saying, “What is this junkyard philosopher trying to say?” But others said, “He seems to be an advocate of foreign deities¹²” (because he was preaching the good news of Jesus and the resurrection).
 19. Then they took hold of him and led him to the Areopagos,¹³ saying, “May we know what this new doctrine is that is taught by you?
 20. You are bringing some strange things into our ears, and we would know what these things mean.”
 21. (All the Athenians and the strangers living there used to spend time on nothing else but to say or to hear some new thing.)

¹² Lit., daemons, or lower gods in the Classical pantheon.

¹³ The Areopagos (“Ares’ Hill”) was a rocky outcrop where cases were brought before the highest Athenian court. The hill was named for Ares, the Greek god of war, whom the Romans called Mars. Thus, the Roman name for Ares’ Hill was “Mars’ Hill”.

- ¶22. So, when Paul had taken his place in the midst of the Areopagos, he said, “Men of Athens, I perceive that in every way you are very god-fearing.
23. Indeed, as I came through, considering your objects of worship, I even found an altar on which had been inscribed, ‘To the Unknown God’. Whom you ignorantly worship, therefore, Him I proclaim to you.
24. The God who made the world and all that is in it, He being Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands,
25. nor is He served by human hands as if needing something, seeing that He gives to everyone, everywhere, life and breath.
26. He made of one blood every race of men to dwell on the whole face of the earth, setting prescribed times and boundaries for their habitation,
27. that they might seek the LORD, if perhaps they might feel after and find Him, although He is not far from any one of us.
28. For in Him we live, and move, and exist, as also certain of your own poets have said, ‘We also are His offspring.’
29. Inasmuch, then, as we are offspring of God, we ought not to suppose the Divine Being to be like a golden, or silver, or stone image produced by man’s skill and imagination.
30. The times of ignorance God formerly overlooked, but now He commands all men everywhere to repent,
31. for He has appointed a day in the which He will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom He has designated, providing proof to all, in that He raised him from the dead!”
- ¶32. When they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some started mocking, but others said, “We will hear you again about this.”
33. And with that, Paul went out from their midst.
34. But certain men believed and became his disciples, among whom were both Dionysios the Areopagite¹⁴ and a woman named Damaris, and others along with them.

Acts 18

- ¶1. After these things, having departed from Athens, Paul came to Corinth.
2. And he found a certain Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus and recently arrived from Italy, and Priscilla his wife (because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to leave Rome), and he visited them,
3. and because they were of the same occupation, he stayed with them and started working with them, for they were tentmakers by trade.
4. And he began to reason in the synagogue every sabbath, persuading both Jews and Greeks.

¹⁴ A member of the council that met on the Areopagos. That is, a judge.

- ¶5. When Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul, pressed by the Spirit, was testifying to the Jews that Jesus was Messiah.
6. And when they opposed him and blasphemed, he shook out his garments and said to them, “Your blood be on your own head! I am guiltless! From now on, I will go to the Gentiles!”
7. And he departed from there and went into the house of a certain man named Justus, a God-fearer whose house was next to the synagogue.
8. Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with all his house. Moreover, many of the Corinthians began to believe and be baptized when they heard.
9. Then the Lord said to Paul in a night vision, “Don’t be afraid, but speak, and don’t be silent,
10. because I’m with you, and no one will lay a hand on you to do you harm, for I have many people in this city.”
11. So he stayed a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.
- ¶12. Now when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews rose up against Paul with one mind and brought him to the judgment seat,
13. saying, “This man induces people to worship God contrary to the law.”
14. But as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, “Now, if it was some misdeed or wicked crime, O Jews, it would be reasonable that I bear with you.
15. But it being an issue about a word, and names, and law, according to you, you see to it yourselves. I have no desire to be a judge of these things.”
16. And then he drove them from the judgment seat.
17. But all the Greeks seized Sosthenes, the leader of the synagogue, and began beating him before the judgment seat. But none of these things mattered to Gallio.
- ¶18. After Paul had remained there many days, he bid farewell to the brothers, Priscilla and Aquila both being with him, and sailed toward Syria, shaving his head in Cenchreae because he was under a vow.
19. Then he arrived at Ephesus, and he left them there, but he himself went into the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews.
20. And when they asked him to stay with them longer, he declined.
21. Instead, he bid them farewell, saying, “I must by all means keep the coming feast at Jerusalem, but I will return to you again, God willing.” And then he set sail from Ephesus.
22. And having arrived at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the Assembly, and then went down to Antioch.
23. And after he had spent some time there, he left and went from one place to another through the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.
- ¶24. Then a certain Jew named Apollos arrived at Ephesus, an Alexandrian by birth, a learned man and mighty in the Scriptures.

25. This man was instructed in the way of the LORD, and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things of the LORD, knowing only the baptism of John,
26. and he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Aquila and Priscilla heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of God more perfectly.
27. And when he wanted to cross over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged and wrote to the disciples to welcome him, and when he arrived, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace,
28. for he powerfully and publicly confuted the Jews, showing by the scriptures that Jesus was the Messiah.

Acts 19

- ¶1. Now, it came to pass while Apollos was at Corinth that Paul, having passed through the interior regions, came to Ephesus. And finding certain disciples,
2. he said to them, "Did you receive the holy Spirit after you believed?" They said to him, "We haven't even heard that there is a holy Spirit."
 3. Then he said to them, "With what, then, were you baptized?" They said, "With John's baptism."
 4. But Paul said, "Actually, John baptized with a baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe on the one coming after him, that is, on the Messiah, Jesus."
 5. On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.
 6. And after Paul laid his hands on them, the holy Spirit came upon them, and they started speaking in tongues and prophesying.
 7. And there were about twelve men in all.
- ¶8. Afterward, entering into the synagogue, he began to speak boldly, over the course of three months reasoning with them and persuading them of things pertaining to the kingdom of God.
9. But when some were hardened and would not believe, speaking evil of the Way to the people, he withdrew from them, taking the disciples away from them, reasoning daily in the school of a certain Tyrannus.
 10. This went on for two years, with the result that everyone who lived in Asia heard the message of the Lord Jesus, Jews as well as Greeks.
 11. And God began doing extraordinary miracles by the hands of Paul,
 12. such that even cloths or aprons touched by his skin were brought to the sick, and diseases left them, and evil spirits came out of them.
 13. Some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists attempted to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "We adjure you by the Jesus whom Paul preaches!"
 14. (They were some sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, seven of them, who were doing this.)
 15. But the evil spirit answered and said, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are you?"

16. Then the man who had the evil spirit pounced on them and overpowered them, and he so prevailed against them that they fled from the house, naked and wounded.
 17. And this became known to all who lived in Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks, and fear fell on all of them, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.
 18. And many who believed came, confessing and making their deeds known.
 19. And a considerable number who practiced magical arts collected their scrolls and started burning them in the sight of all, and they added up the value of them and found that it came to fifty thousand pieces of silver.
 20. Thus, the word of the Lord continually increased, and prevailed mightily.
- ¶21. After these things were done, Paul resolved in the Spirit that when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, he would go to Jerusalem, saying, “After I have been there, I must also see Rome.”
22. But when he had sent two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia, he himself stayed a while in Asia.
- ¶23. During that time, there arose no small disturbance concerning the Way.
24. For a certain silversmith named Demetrius, who made silver shrines for Artemis, brought no small profit to the craftsmen,
 25. whom he gathered together, along with workers in related businesses, saying, “Men, you know that our wealth comes from this trade.
 26. And you see and hear that this Paul, not only in Ephesus but in nearly all of Asia, has persuaded and turned away many people, saying, ‘They are no gods that are made with hands.’
 27. And not only is this business of ours in danger of coming into disrepute, but also the temple of the great goddess Artemis is in danger of being despised, and then her magnificence will be destroyed—she whom all Asia and the world worships!”
 28. When they heard this, they were filled with rage and began crying out, saying, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”
 29. Then the whole city was filled with tumult, and they rushed with one accord into the theater, dragging Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians, traveling companions of Paul.
 30. And Paul was determined to go in to the assemblage, but the disciples would not let him.
 31. Even some of the Asiarchs, friends of his, sent to him, urging him not to show himself in the theater.
 32. Some were shouting one thing, and others another, for the assembly was confused, and the majority did not know why they had come together.
 33. Then some from the crowd put Alexander forward (the Jews pushed him forward), and Alexander motioned with his hand, wanting to make a defense to the crowd.
 34. But when they realized that he was a Jew, they all cried out with one voice for about two hours, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

35. Now, when the town clerk had quieted the crowd, he said, "Men of Ephesus, what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is guardian of the temple of the great goddess Artemis and of the image that fell from Zeus?"
36. These things being undeniable, you ought to be quiet and do nothing rash.
37. For you have dragged in these men, who are neither temple-robbers nor blasphemers of your goddess.
38. If Demetrius and the craftsmen with him have a genuine complaint against anyone, the courts are in session, and there are proconsuls. Let them accuse one another.
39. And if you are seeking anything concerning other matters, it will be settled in lawful assembly.
40. For we run the risk of being charged with rioting today, there being no reason for this commotion that we can offer as an excuse."
41. And after saying these things, he dismissed the assembly.

Acts 20

1. After the uproar ceased, Paul summoned the disciples, embraced them, and left to go to Macedonia.
2. Then, after passing through those parts and encouraging them with a lengthy message, he came to Greece.
3. And when he had spent three months there, a plot was laid against him by the Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, so he made a decision to return through Macedonia.
4. And accompanying him as far as Asia were Sopater of Berea, and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy, and the Asians, Tychicus and Trophimus.
5. These went on ahead and waited for us at Troas.
6. And after the days of unleavened bread, we sailed from Philippi, and within five days we came to them at Troas, where we spent seven days.
- ¶7. And on the first day of the week, when the disciples gathered to break bread, Paul began speaking to them, intending to depart the next day, and he continued his message until midnight.
8. And there were many lamps in the upper room where we were gathered.
9. And sitting in the window was a certain young man named Eutychus, who sank into a deep sleep as Paul was a long time speaking, and overcome by sleep, he fell from the third story and was taken up dead.
10. But Paul went down and fell on him, and threw his arms around him, and said, "Do not be alarmed; his life is in him."
11. Then, when he had gone back up and broken bread and eaten, he spoke for a long time until daybreak, and then he left.
12. (And they took the boy away alive, and were comforted beyond measure.)

- ¶13. But we went ahead to the ship and set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there, for so it had been arranged, as he himself wanted to go on foot.
14. And when he met us at Assos, we took him aboard and went to Mitylene.
15. Sailing from there, we arrived off Chios the following day, and the next day, we approached Samos. And after staying at Trogyllium, we came to Miletus the day after.
16. (For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus so that he would not lose time in Asia, for he was hurrying to be in Jerusalem, if he could, on the day of Pentecost).
- ¶17. So, from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, summoning the elders of the Assembly.
18. And when they came to him, he said to them,
- ¶“You know how I lived the entire time I was with you, from the first day that I set foot in Asia,
19. working like a slave to the Master, with all humility, and many tears, and trials that came upon me through the plots of the Jews,
20. how I shrank from nothing that was profitable, whether in preaching to you or in teaching you, openly and from house to house
21. testifying to both Jews and Greeks of repentance toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus.
22. And now, behold, I am bound in spirit to go to Jerusalem, not knowing what will befall me there,
23. except that the holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that chains and afflictions await me.
24. But I consider myself as nothing. Nor do I hold my life dear, that I might complete my race with joy, and the ministry I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify of the gospel of God's grace.
25. And now, behold, I know that none of you among whom I travelled, preaching the kingdom of God, will ever again see my face.
26. Therefore, I bear witness to you this very day that I am innocent of the blood of all men.
27. For I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God.
28. Therefore, give heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among whom the holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the Assembly of the Lord, and of God, which he purchased with his own blood.
29. Now, I know this, that after my departure, vicious wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock.
30. Even from among your own selves shall men rise up, speaking perverse things in order to draw away disciples after themselves.
31. Therefore, be on guard, and remember that for three years, night and day, I did not cease from exhorting each one with tears.
32. And with that, brothers, I now entrust you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build up and give you an inheritance among all who are sanctified.

33. I have coveted no one's silver, or gold, or clothing.
 34. You yourselves know that these hands took care of my needs and the needs of those who were with me.
 35. I was always an example for you, that by laboring, we must help those who are weak, and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"
- ¶36. When he had spoken these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all.
37. And there was much weeping by all, and they fell on Paul's neck and kissed him repeatedly,
 38. grieving most of all because of what he had said, that they would never again see his face. Then they accompanied him to the ship.

Acts 21

- ¶1. When we departed from them, we set sail, and running a straight course, we came to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.
 2. And then, having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we boarded and set sail.
 3. When we sighted Cyprus and had passed it on the left, we sailed on toward Syria and landed at Tyre, for there the ship was to unload its cargo.
 4. And we remained there seven days after we found disciples, who through the Spirit kept telling Paul not to go up to Jerusalem.
 5. Then, when our days there were ended, we departed and continued on our journey, they all, with women and children, accompanying us until we were outside the city. And we knelt on the shore and prayed.
 6. And after we bade farewell to one another, we boarded the ship, and they returned home.
- ¶7. Having completed the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais, and we greeted the brothers and stayed with them for a day.
8. The next day, we who were with Paul left and went to Caesarea, and we entered the house of Philip the evangelist, one of the seven, and we stayed with him.
 9. He had four daughters, virgins, who prophesied.
 10. During the many days we stayed there, a certain man came down from Judea, a prophet named Agabus.
 11. And he came to us and took Paul's belt, and after binding his feet and hands, he said, "Thus says the holy Spirit: In this manner will the Jews in Jerusalem bind the man whose belt this is and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles."
 12. When we heard these things, we and the others there pleaded with him not to go up to Jerusalem.
 13. Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus!"

14. And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased and said, “The will of the Lord be done.”
 - ¶15. Following those days, after making preparations, we went on up to Jerusalem.
 16. Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing us to a certain Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we were to stay.
 - ¶17. When we came to Jerusalem, the brothers welcomed us with gladness,
 18. and the following day, Paul went in with us to James, all the elders being present.
 19. After greeting them, he began relating one by one the things God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.
 20. And when they heard this, they began glorifying the Lord, and then they said to him, “You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews who believe, and they are all zealous for the law.
 21. But they have been informed about you, that you teach rebellion against Moses to all the Jews who are among the Gentiles, telling them not to circumcise their children nor to live according to the customs.
 22. What, then, is to be done? Doubtless, the multitude must come together, for they will hear that you have come.
 23. Therefore, do what we tell you. There are four men among us who have taken a vow upon themselves.
 24. Take them and purify yourself along with them, and pay their expenses so that they may shave their heads, and then everyone will know that the things they have been told about you are nothing, but that you also walk orderly, keeping the law.
 25. Concerning those among the Gentiles who have believed, we wrote a letter, having concluded that they need keep no such thing, other than to keep themselves from what is offered to idols, and from blood or strangled meat, and from immorality.”
 26. Paul then took the men, and on the following day, being purified with them, entered into the temple, announcing the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering was made for each one of them.
- ¶27. But when the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, seeing him in the temple, began stirring up all the people, and they laid hands on him,
 28. crying out, “Men of Israel! Help! This is the man who teaches everyone, everywhere, against the people, and the law, and this place. And furthermore, he has even brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place!”
 29. (They had seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, whom they assumed Paul had brought into the temple.)
 30. And the whole city was stirred up, and the people rushed together; and seizing Paul, they dragged him out of the temple, and the doors were immediately shut.
 31. Now as they were going about to kill him, a report that all Jerusalem was in turmoil came to the tribune of the cohort,

32. and at once, he took soldiers and centurions and ran down to them. And when they saw the tribune and the soldiers, they ceased beating Paul.
 33. And the tribune drew near and took him, and he ordered him to be bound with two chains. Then he began asking who he was and what he had done.
 34. Some in the crowd were shouting one thing, and some another; and being unable to determine the facts because of the uproar, he commanded to take him to headquarters.
 35. Now, when Paul came to the steps, he was being held up by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd.
 36. And the multitude of the people followed, crying out, “Do away with him!”
- ¶37. Then, as he was about to be brought into the camp, Paul asked the tribune, “Is it allowed for me to speak to you?” And he replied, “Do you know Greek?
38. Aren’t you the Egyptian who recently stirred up a rebellion and led four thousand men who were assassins into the wilderness?”
 39. Paul answered, “I am a man, a Jew, from Tarsus of Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city. I ask you to allow me to speak to the people.”
 40. And when he gave him permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned with his hand to the people. And after a great quiet fell, he began addressing them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

Acts 22

- ¶1. “Brothers and fathers, hear my defense, now made before you.”
- ¶2. And when they heard that he addressed them in the Hebrew tongue, they grew even quieter. Then he said,
- ¶3. “I am a Jewish man, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, educated in strict accordance with the law of our fathers, being zealous toward God, just as you all are today,
4. one who persecuted this Way to the death, binding and handing over to prisons both men and women,
5. as also the high priest can bear me witness, and the entire council, from whom also I received letters to the brothers, and I went to Damascus to bring those who were bound there to Jerusalem so that they might be punished.
6. But as I was on my way and drawing near Damascus, it came to pass about noon that a great light from heaven suddenly shone around me.
7. And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul! Saul! Why are you persecuting me?’
8. And I answered, ‘Who are you, sir?’ And he said to me, ‘I am Jesus the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting.’

9. Those with me saw the light and were terrified, but they did not hear the voice of him who spoke to me.
 10. Then I said, ‘What am I to do, sir?’ And the Lord said to me, ‘Get up and go to Damascus, and there you will be told of everything that is appointed for you to do.’
 11. And since I could not see because of the brightness of that light, I was led by the hand by those with me, and I came to Damascus.
 12. Then, a certain Ananias, a devout man according to the law and well-spoken of by all the Jews who lived there,
 13. came and stood before me, and he said to me, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight!’ And at that very moment, I could see him!
 14. Then he said, ‘The God of our fathers has chosen you to know His will, and to see the righteous one, and to hear the voice of his mouth,
 15. that you should be his witness to all men of the things you have seen and heard.
 16. So now, why are you waiting? Get up and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord!’
 17. Then, when I returned to Jerusalem, it came to pass that while I was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance,
 18. and I saw him saying to me, ‘Hurry and get out of Jerusalem at once because they will not receive your testimony about me.’
 19. And I said, ‘Lord, they know that in every synagogue, I used to imprison and beat those who believe on you.
 20. And when the blood of your witness Stephen was shed, I myself was also standing by, and approving of his murder, keeping the garments of those killing him.’
 21. But he said to me, ‘Go! For I will send you far away, to Gentiles.’”
- ¶22. Now, they kept listening to him up until this statement, but then they raised their voices, saying, “Away with such a man from the earth! He isn’t fit to live!”
23. And when they began crying out, and tearing off their garments, and throwing dust into the air,
 24. the tribune ordered him to be brought into the camp and said that he should be interrogated with lashes to find out why they raged against him like that.
 25. But as one stretched him out with straps, Paul said to a centurion standing by, “Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman and uncondemned?”
 26. And when the centurion heard this, he went to the tribune and reported it, saying, “Be careful what you are about to do. This man is a Roman.”
 27. Then the tribune came and said to him, “Tell me, are you a Roman?” And he said, “Yes.”
 28. And the tribune answered, “I acquired this citizenship with a large sum of money.” And Paul answered, “But I, by birth.”

29. Immediately, therefore, those about to interrogate him withdrew from him. And the tribune was also afraid, once he learned that he was a Roman, and he had bound him.

¶30. The next day, wanting to know for sure what he was being accused of by the Jews, the tribune released him from the bonds and commanded the chief priests and their whole Sanhedrin to appear, and then he brought Paul down and set him before them.

Acts 23

¶1. Fixing his eyes on the Sanhedrin, Paul said, “Men and brothers, to this day, I have lived my life in all good conscience toward God.”

2. Then the high priest Ananias commanded those standing by him to strike his mouth.

3. Paul then said to him, “God is going to strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit there, judging me according to the law, and then, contrary to the law,¹⁵ command me to be struck?”

4. Those standing by said, “Do you malign the high priest of God?”

5. Then Paul said, “I was unaware, brothers, that he is high priest. It is written, ‘You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.’”

6. Then Paul, knowing that one part were Sadducees and the other, Pharisees, cried out in the Council, “Men and brothers, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee. I am on trial concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead!”

7. And after he said this, there arose a dispute between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the crowd was divided.

8. (The Sadducees say there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit, but Pharisees acknowledge them all.)

9. And there was a great uproar, and the scribes who were of the part of the Pharisees rose up and began protesting bitterly, saying, “We find nothing wrong with this man! If a spirit or angel has spoken to him, we had better not fight against God!”

10. And when the dispute grew violent, the tribune, afraid lest Paul be torn apart by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and pull him out of their midst and take him back to headquarters.

¶11. The following night, the Lord stood by him and said, “Take courage, Paul. For as you have testified of things concerning me in Jerusalem, likewise you must also bear witness in Rome.”

¶12. When day came, some Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves under an oath, saying they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.

13. There were more than forty men who were involved in this plot,

¹⁵ Paul may be referring to the law's standard of a man being judged before being beaten, as in Deuteronomy 25:1–2.

14. and they came to the chief priests and the elders and said, “We have bound ourselves under an oath, with a curse, to eat nothing until we kill Paul.
15. So now, you, together with the Sanhedrin, inform the tribune that tomorrow he should bring him down to you as if you would more thoroughly examine matters relating to him. But we are ready to kill him before he comes near.”
16. But when Paul’s sister’s son learned of the ambush, he went and entered into the camp and reported it to Paul.
17. Then Paul called one of the centurions and said, “Take this young man to the tribune; he has something to tell him.”
18. So he took him and led him to the tribune, and said, “The prisoner Paul called me and asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you.”
19. Then the tribune took him by the hand and withdrew, and inquired privately, “What is it that you have to tell me?”
20. And he answered, “The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the Sanhedrin tomorrow, as though they have to more fully understand something about him.
21. But you must not be persuaded by them! More than forty men among them are lying in wait for him who have bound themselves with an oath to neither eat nor drink until they kill him. And now they are ready, waiting for your consent.”
22. At this, the tribune let the young man go, instructing him, “Tell no one that you have made these things known to me.”
23. And summoning certain two centurions, he said, “Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen, at the third hour of the night,
24. and provide mounts so that Paul may be mounted, to bring him safely to Felix the Governor.”
25. And he wrote a letter containing this message:

¶26. “Claudius Lysias to the most excellent Procurator, Felix. Greeting.
27. This man was seized by the Jews, and when he was about to be killed by them, I came with soldiers and rescued him, upon learning that he is a Roman.
28. Then I brought him down to their Council, desirous to ascertain the reason they were accusing him.
29. I found that he was accused in regard to disputed matters of their law, and there was no accusation deserving of death or imprisonment.
30. But when it was brought to my attention that a plot against this man was about to be carried out by the Jews, I immediately sent him to you, also ordering the accusers to bring charges against him before you. Farewell.”

¶31. The soldiers, therefore, following their orders, took Paul and brought him during the night to Antipatris.

32. And they returned to camp the next day, leaving the horsemen to go on with him,

33. who entered into Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, and presented Paul to him.
34. And when the governor had read it, he asked which province he was from, and when he learned that he was from Cilicia,
35. he said, “I will give you a hearing when your accusers arrive.” And he ordered him to be kept in the Praetorium of Herod.

Acts 24

1. After five days, the high priest Ananias came down with the elders and a certain orator, Tertullus, who made known to the governor the charges against Paul.
2. And after he was summoned, Tertullus began to bring the charges, saying,

¶“Enjoying great peace through you, and good order coming upon this nation through your foresight,

 3. in both every way and every place we acknowledge it, most excellent Felix, with all gratitude.
 4. However, that I not detain you any longer, I appeal to you to hear us briefly, in your graciousness.
 5. We have found this man a pestilence, stirring up insurrection among all the Jews throughout the whole earth, a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.
 6. And when he attempted to desecrate the temple, we arrested him. And we desired to judge him according to our law,
 7. but after the tribune Lysias came with great violence and took him out of our hands,
 8. he commanded his accusers to come to you.¹⁶ By examining him yourself, you will be able to ascertain all these things of which we accuse him.”
 9. Then the Jews also joined in the attack, asserting that these things were so.
 10. And when the governor nodded to him to speak, Paul answered, “Knowing that for many years you have been a judge to this nation, I do the more cheerfully make my defense concerning these things.
 11. You can verify for yourself that there have been no more than twelve days since I went up to worship in Jerusalem,
 12. and neither in the temple, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city did they find me disputing with anyone or causing a disturbance among the people.
 13. Nor can they prove the things of which they now accuse me.
 14. But this I do confess to you, that in the Way which they call heresy, I worship our fathers ‘God, believing all things that are written in the law and the prophets,

¹⁶ The italicized portion is missing in some texts.

15. having hope in God, which these men themselves also allow, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, of both the just and the unjust.
 16. In light of this, I live so as to always keep a clear conscience toward God and men.
 17. Now, after a number of years, I came to bring alms and offerings to my nation,
 18. with which gifts some Jews from Asia found me, purified, in the temple, not with a crowd nor with an uproar.
 19. Those ought to be here before you to accuse me if they have something against me.
 20. Or let these, themselves, say what fault they found in me when I stood before the Council,
 21. other than this one thing, which I voiced as I stood among them: ‘I am being put on trial by you today for the resurrection of the dead.’”
- ¶22. When Felix heard these things, having more accurate knowledge concerning the Way, he put them off, saying, “When Lysias the tribune comes down, I will decide your case.”
23. Then he commanded the centurion to hold Paul, but that he should have liberty, and to forbid none of his company to serve or come to him.
- ¶24. And after some days, Felix came with Drusilla his wife, who was Jewish, and he summoned Paul and heard from him about faith in Christ.
25. And as he reasoned about righteousness, and self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix became afraid and answered, “Go your way, for now, and when I have opportunity, I will summon you.”
 26. At the same time, he was hoping that money would be given to him by Paul so that he might release him, and to this end, he sent for him often and conversed with him.
 27. But after two years elapsed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and wanting to do the Jews a favor, Felix left Paul in prison.

Acts 25

1. So, Festus came into the province, and three days later, he went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea.
 2. And the high priest and the leaders of the Jews informed him against Paul, and pleaded with him,
 3. asking a favor from him, that he might summon him to Jerusalem (planning an ambush to kill him on the way).
 4. However, Festus replied that Paul should be kept in Caesarea, as he himself was about to depart for there shortly.
 5. “Therefore,” he said, “those among you who are able, come with me; if there is anything against this man, let them accuse him.”
- ¶6. And after he had spent over ten days with them, he went down to Caesarea. The day following, he sat on the judgment seat and gave command for Paul to be brought in.

7. And when he arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood round about, leveling many serious charges against Paul, which they were unable to prove.
 8. In his own defense, he said, "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I done any wrong."
 9. But Festus, wanting to grant the Jews a favor, answered Paul and said, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem, there to be judged before me concerning these things?"
 10. Then Paul said, "I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged. I have done the Jews no wrong, as you also very well know."
 11. If I really am doing wrong or have done anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die, but if there is nothing to what these men accuse me of, no one can give me to them. I appeal to Caesar!"
 12. Then, after Festus conferred with the council, he answered, "Appealed to Caesar, have you? To Caesar you shall go."
- ¶13. After some days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to visit Festus.
14. And when they had spent many days there, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, "There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix,
 15. about whom, when I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the Jewish elders informed me, asking for judgment against him.
 16. I answered them that it is not the custom of Romans to give any man over to death before the accused have the accusers face to face and receive opportunity of a defense against the charge.
 17. So, when they were assembled here, I made no delay; the next day, I sat on the judgment seat and ordered the man to be brought in,
 18. against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought not one charge of the kind I was expecting,
 19. but they had certain issues relating to their own religion against him, and about one Jesus who had died, whom Paul claimed to be alive.
 20. And being uncertain about this controversy, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and be judged there concerning these things.
 21. But when Paul appealed to be kept in custody for a decision by Augustus, I ordered him to be held until I send him to Caesar."
 22. Then Agrippa said to Festus, "I would hear the man myself." "Tomorrow, then," he said, "you will hear him."
- ¶23. The next day, Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp and entered the audience hall, along with the tribunes and the most prominent men of the city, and Festus ordered Paul to be brought in.
24. Then Festus said, "King Agrippa, and all men present with us, consider this man, regarding whom the whole multitude of the Jews pleaded with me, both in Jerusalem and here, crying out that he ought not to live any longer."

25. But I found he had done nothing worthy of death, and when he appealed to Augustus, I decided to send him.
26. I have nothing definite to write to our lord about him. Therefore, I have brought him before you all, and particularly before you, King Agrippa, so that once the examination is made, I might have something to write.
27. For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner to Augustus and not indicate the charges against him.”

Acts 26

1. Then Agrippa said to Paul, “It is granted to you to speak on your own behalf.” Then Paul, extending his hand, began his defense:
- ¶2. “Concerning all these things of which I am accused by the Jews, King Agrippa, I consider myself blessed that I am about to defend myself before you today,
3. especially because you are acquainted with all things related to the customs and controversies of the Jews. Therefore, I beg you to hear me patiently.
4. My manner of life from youth, which was, from the beginning, among my people in Jerusalem, the Jews all know.
5. They have known me a long time, if they would testify, that according to the strictest sect of our religion, I lived a Pharisee.
6. And now I stand here, on trial because of the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers,
7. unto which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to attain—for which hope, King Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews.
8. Why does it seem incredible to you that God raises the dead?
9. I actually thought in myself that I ought to do many things in opposition to the name of Jesus of Nazareth,
10. which I also did in Jerusalem. Many of the saints I myself locked up in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were executed, I cast my lot against them.
11. And in all the synagogues, I frequently punished them, trying to make them blasphemous, and mad with excessive rage against them, I persecuted them even in cities outside of Israel.
12. With these intentions, I also made a journey to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests,
13. when at midday on the road, O King, I saw a light from heaven brighter than the sun shining around me and those traveling with me.
14. We all fell to the ground, and I heard a voice speaking to me and saying in the Hebrew tongue, ‘Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against the pricks.’
15. Then I said, ‘Who are you, sir?’ And He said, ‘I am Jesus, whom you persecute.

16. Rise and stand to your feet! I have appeared to you for this purpose: to appoint you to be a servant and a witness of the things you have seen and of the things I will show you,
 17. delivering you from the people and from the Gentiles, unto whom I am sending you,
 18. to open their eyes, turning them from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God so that they might receive forgiveness of sins and a portion among those who are sanctified by faith that is in me.'
 19. Afterward, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision;
 20. on the contrary, first to those in Damascus, and then in Jerusalem, and throughout the territory of Judea, and to the Gentiles, I tell men to repent and turn to God and do works meet for repentance.
 21. This is why the Jews seized me in the temple and were trying to kill me.
 22. Having had help from God, though, I stand fast until this day, testifying to both small and great, saying nothing except things that both the prophets and Moses said would come to pass:
 23. that the Messiah would suffer, that he would be the first one raised from the dead, and that he would proclaim light to the people and to the Gentiles."
- ¶24. And as he thus defended himself, Festus spoke up in a loud voice, "You are out of your mind, Paul! Much learning is driving you mad!"
25. But he said, "I am not mad, most noble Festus; on the contrary, the words I declare are true and rational.
 26. The King knows about these things, before whom I speak boldly. I cannot believe that any of these things has escaped his attention, for this thing has not been done in a corner.
 27. King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe."
 28. Agrippa said to Paul, "In a short time, you are persuading me to be a Christian."
 29. Then Paul said, "I would to God that, whether short time or long, not only you, but also everyone listening to me today might become such a one as I am—except for these chains."
- ¶30. When he had spoken these things, the King arose, and the governor, and Bernice, and those sitting with them,
31. and they were talking to one another as they departed, saying, "This man is doing nothing worthy of death or imprisonment."
 32. And Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

Acts 27

1. When it was decided that we should sail for Italy, they gave custody of Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan Cohort.

2. And boarding a ship of Adramytium that was about to sail to places along Asia, we put out to sea accompanied by Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica.
 3. The next day, we put in at Sidon, and Julius, treating Paul kindly, gave him permission to go to his friends and receive their care.
 4. From there putting out to sea, we sailed leeward of Cyprus because the winds were contrary.
 5. And after sailing across open water by Cilicia and Pamphylia, we put in at Myra of Lycia.
 6. And there, when the centurion had found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, he boarded us on it.
 7. Sailing slowly for a number of days, we arrived with difficulty off Cnidus, the wind not permitting us to go further, and then we sailed for Salmone under the lee of Crete.
 8. And with difficulty making our way past it, we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near which lay a city called Lasaea.
- ¶9. But much time having passed, and the voyage now being unsafe because the fast had already come and gone, Paul urged them,
10. saying to them, “Men, I sense that the impending voyage will be made with damage and much loss, not only to the cargo and ship, but also to our lives.”
 11. But the centurion was won over by the shipmaster and the shipowner rather than the things spoken by Paul.
 12. And as the harbor was not suitable for wintering, the majority gave counsel to set sail from there, that perhaps they could make Phoenix to winter there, a Cretan harbor facing southwest and northwest.
 13. And when a south wind blew gently, they weighed anchor and sailed along, close to Crete, supposing they had accomplished their purpose,
 14. but not long after, a fierce wind called Euroclydon blew in against it,
 15. and when the ship was caught up in it and could not withstand the wind, we gave way and were driven along.
 16. And running under the lee of a certain island called Clauda, we were barely able to bring the ship's boat under control,
 17. and when they had set it out, they used ropes¹⁷ to brace the ship, and fearing lest they run aground on the Syrtis, they lowered the kedge,¹⁸ and in this manner were moved along.
 18. But we being violently tossed by the storm, they soon began to jettison the cargo,
 19. and on the third day, we began to heave the ship's tackle overboard with our own hands.
 20. But when neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small storm beset us, all remaining hope of our being saved was beginning to fade.

¹⁷ Meaning unclear. Possibly, “cables” or “supports”. Literally, “helps”.

¹⁸ Meaning unclear. Literally, “object” or “thing”.

21. And when they had gone a long time without food, Paul then stood in their midst and said, “Men, you should have followed my advice not to put to sea from Crete and incur this damage and loss.
 22. Yet now I urge you to take courage, for not one of your lives will be lost, only the ship.
 23. For this night an angel of God, whose I am and whom I serve, stood by me.
 24. And he said, ‘Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar, and behold, God has given you all those who sail with you.’
 25. So, take heart, men! For I believe God, that it will happen just as it was told me.
 26. But we must run aground on a certain island.”
- ¶27. Now when the fourteenth night came, as we were driven across the Adriatic, about midnight, the sailors suspected that they were nearing some land.
28. So they sounded, and they found twenty fathoms, and after they had gone a little further, they sounded again and found fifteen fathoms.
 29. Then, fearing that perhaps we might run aground on rocks, they cast four anchors down from the stern, and prayed for day to come.
 30. When some of the sailors set out to escape from the ship, lowering the ship's boat to the sea under pretext that they intended to drop anchors from the bow,
 31. Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, “Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved.”
 32. At that, the soldiers cut the ropes to the ship's boat and let it drift off.
 33. When it was almost daylight, Paul urged everyone to take food, saying, “Today is the fourteenth day you have looked for respite and continued without eating, taking nothing.
 34. Therefore, I urge you to take food; this is for your survival, and there will not fall a hair from the head of any one of you.”
 35. When he had said these things, he took bread and gave thanks to God before them all, and after breaking it, he began to eat.
 36. Then were they all encouraged, and took food themselves.
 37. (We were, in total, two hundred seventy-six souls in the ship.)
 38. And when they were filled with food, they began lightening the ship by throwing the grain into the sea.
 39. When daylight was come, they did not recognize the area, but they noticed a bay with a beach, onto which they decided to run the ship ashore, if possible.
 40. So, slipping the anchors and leaving them to the sea, simultaneously loosing the rudder pendants, they hoisted the foresail to the wind and headed for the beach,
 41. but they ran the ship aground when they struck a point of land; the prow stuck fast and remained unmovable, and the stern was broken up by the force of the waves.

42. And the soldiers 'intention was to kill the prisoners so that no one could swim away and escape,
43. but the centurion, wanting to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and then he commanded those who could swim to jump overboard first and head for shore,
44. and then the rest, some on planks and some on pieces of the ship. And thus, all were safely brought to land.

Acts 28

1. After making it to safety, they learned then that the island was called Melita.
2. And the Barbarians showed us no little kindness; they welcomed us all and lit a fire because it had begun to rain, and because of the cold.
3. Paul gathered up a bundle of sticks, and when he put them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat and fastened onto his hand.
4. And when the Barbarians saw the beast hanging from his hand, they began saying to one another, "No doubt, this man is a murderer, whom, though saved from the sea, Dike¹⁹ has not allowed to live."
5. But he shook the beast off into the fire, and suffered no harm.
6. They kept waiting for him to swell up or suddenly fall down, dead. But after waiting for a long time and seeing nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and began saying he was a god.
- ¶7. In the surrounding area were fields belonging to the chief of the island, named Publius, who received us as one would a friend, and lodged us for three days.
8. Now, it happened that Publius 'father was bedridden, taken with fever and dysentery, to whom Paul went in, and when he had prayed, he laid his hands on him and healed him.
9. After this happened, the rest of the people on the island who were sick also came to Paul, and they were healed.
10. Then they honored us with many gifts, and when we put to sea, they gave us the things we needed.
- ¶11. So, after three months, we put to sea in an Alexandrian ship that had wintered at the island, with the insignia of the Dioscuri.²⁰
12. And we put in at Syracuse and remained there three days.
13. From there, making a circuit, we arrived at Rhegium, and after a day, a south wind having come up, we came on the second day to Putioli
14. (where we found brothers, and we were asked to stay with them seven days). And thus, we went on toward Rome.

¹⁹ Goddess of justice.

²⁰ Literally, "sons of God" (that is, of Zeus). A reference to Castor and Pollux, twin sons of Zeus and a human princess, Leda.

15. And when the brothers from there heard about us, they came as far as the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns to meet us, for whom, when Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.
- ¶16. Then, when we came to Rome, the centurion turned the prisoners over to the camp commander, but Paul was given permission to live by himself, with the soldier who was guarding him.
- ¶17. And it came to pass after three days that Paul called together those who were leaders of the Jews. When they were come together, he said to them, “Men and brothers, I, having done nothing against the people or the customs of the fathers, was handed over as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans,
18. who, after examining me, intended to release me because there was no reason for death found in me.
19. But when the Jews spoke against it, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar, though not having anything of which to accuse my nation.
20. This is the reason I summoned you, therefore, to see and to speak to you, for it is on account of the hope of Israel that I wear this chain.”
21. They said to him, “We have neither received letters about you from Judea, nor has anyone come from the brothers and reported or spoken anything evil about you.
22. But we would like to hear from you about the things you believe, for concerning this sect, we are aware that everywhere it is spoken against.”
- ¶23. And when they had appointed him a day, many came to him at his lodging, to whom he expounded upon and testified about the kingdom of God, persuading them from morning until evening of things concerning Jesus, from both the law of Moses and the prophets.
24. And there were some who believed the things Paul said, but some did not believe.
25. And being in disagreement among themselves, they began to leave after Paul made one statement: “The holy Spirit spoke rightly to our fathers by Isaiah the prophet
26. when it said, ‘Go to this people and say, “You will certainly hear, but you shall not understand, and you will certainly see, but you shall not perceive.
27. For the heart of this people has become dull, and their ears are hard of hearing, and they have closed their eyes, lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and repent, and I heal them.’ ”
28. Let it be known to you, therefore, that the salvation of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they will hear it!”
29. And after he said these things, the Jews departed, having a great dispute among themselves.
- ¶30. But Paul remained two whole years in his own rented house, and he welcomed all who came to him,

31. preaching the kingdom of God and teaching things about the Lord Jesus Christ with great boldness and without hindrance.

Romans

Romans 1

- ¶1. Paul, a slave of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God
2. which He promised beforehand through His prophets in the holy scriptures,
3. concerning His Son who, as regards the flesh, was born of the seed of David,
4. and who was declared to be the Son of God with power by the Spirit of holiness, through the resurrection from the dead: Jesus Christ our Lord,
5. through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about, for his name's sake, the obedience of faith among all the Gentiles,
6. among whom you also are the called of Jesus Christ.
7. To all those in Rome who are beloved of God and called to be saints:
Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- ¶8. First of all, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you because your faith is being spoken of throughout the world.
9. God, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of His Son, is my witness that without ceasing, I make mention of you,
10. always asking in my prayers whether I might now, at last, be given success by the will of God to come to you.
11. For I long to see you, that I might impart to you some spiritual gift, that you might be established,
12. that is, that I might be comforted together with you by our mutual faith, both yours and mine.
13. For I would not have you to be ignorant, brothers, that I have often purposed to come to you (but have been hindered until now), so that I might also have some fruit among you, as among the other Gentiles.
14. I am under obligation to both the Greeks and Barbarians, to both the learned and the unlearned;
15. therefore, on my part, I am eager to preach the gospel also to you who are in Rome.
16. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first, and then the Greek.
17. For by it, the righteousness of God is being revealed from faith to faith, as it is written, "The righteous shall live by faith."¹
¶18. For the wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who suppress the truth by unrighteousness,
19. seeing that what may be known about God is manifest to them, for God has made it manifest to them.

¹Hab. 2:4.

20. For from the creation of the world, His invisible attributes (namely, His eternal power and divine nature) are clearly seen, being understood through the things that are made, so that they are without excuse.
21. For although they knew about God, they did not honor Him as God, nor were they thankful, but they were made vain in their thinking, and their senseless heart was darkened.
22. Claiming to be wise, they were turned over to foolishness,
23. and they traded the glory of the incorruptible God for an image in the likeness of corruptible man, and birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.
- ¶24. On which account also, God turned them over in the lusts of their own hearts to uncleanness, to dishonor their own bodies among themselves,
25. who traded the truth of God for a lie and began to worship and serve the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.
26. That is why God turned them over to shameful passions. Their females even exchanged the natural use of their bodies for what is contrary to nature,
27. and the males likewise, leaving the natural use of a female, burned in their desire for one another, males committing disgraceful acts with males, receiving in themselves a fitting recompense for their error.
28. Yea, since they did not see fit to retain God in their knowledge, God turned them over to a reprobate mind, to do things that should not be done,
29. being filled with all unrighteousness: fornication, wickedness, covetousness, malice, and full of envy, murder, strife, treachery, ungodliness. They became gossipers,
30. slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, devisers of evil things, disobedient to parents,
31. undiscerning, unfaithful, unfeeling, implacable, unmerciful,
32. who, knowing well the righteous judgment of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do them, but also approve of those who practice them.

Romans 2

- ¶1. Therefore, O man, you are without excuse, whoever you are who judges, for in the thing in which you judge another, you condemn yourself, for you who are judging do the same things.
2. (But we know that the judgment of God upon those who practice such things is in accordance with truth.)
3. And do you think this, O man who judges those who practice such things and yet are doing the same, that you will escape the judgment of God?
4. Or do you despise the riches of His kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance?
5. But with your stubbornness and impenitent heart, you are storing up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God,

6. who will render to every man according to his deeds.
 7. To those who by patiently doing good seek for glory and honor and immortality, God will grant eternal life,
 8. but to those who are contentious and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, God will pour out indignation and wrath,
 9. tribulation and anguish upon every soul of man who does evil—to the Jew first, and then the Greek—
 10. but glory and honor and peace to every man who does good—to the Jew first, and then the Greek.
 11. For there is no respect of persons with God.
 12. As many as have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and as many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law,
 13. for it is not those who hear the law who are righteous before God, but those who do the law will be justified.
 14. For whenever Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature the things of the law, they, not having the law, are a law to themselves,
 15. who show the work of the law to be written on their hearts, their conscience bearing them witness, and all the while their thoughts either accusing or defending them,
 16. until the day when God will judge the secret things of man according to my gospel, through Jesus Christ.
- ¶17. Behold! You call yourself a Jew, and you rest in the law, and boast in God,
18. and you know His will, and being instructed by the law, you put things that differ to the test,
 19. and you have convinced yourself that you are a guide to the blind, a light to those in darkness,
 20. an instructor of the ignorant, a teacher of little children, possessing the form of the knowledge and truth that is in the law.
21. Well then, O teacher of others, do you not teach yourself? O man who preaches not to steal, do you steal?
 22. O man who says not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? O man who abhors idols, do you commit sacrilege?
 23. You who boast in law, do you dishonor God by transgressing the law?
 24. For “the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you,” just as it is written.²
 25. For circumcision is indeed profitable if you observe the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your circumcision is made uncircumcision.
 26. If, therefore, the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision?
 27. And shall not the one in the natural state of uncircumcision who fulfills the law judge you, who with the letter and circumcision are a transgressor of the law?

² Cf. Isa. 52:5 and Ezek. 36:21.

28. For one is not a Jew outwardly; nor is circumcision outward in the flesh.
29. On the contrary, one is a Jew inwardly, and circumcision is of the heart, by the Spirit, not the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

Romans 3

- ¶1. What, then, is the advantage of the Jew? Or what is the value of circumcision?
- 2. Much in every way, but principally because they were entrusted with the oracles of God.
- 3. So what, if some were unfaithful? Will their unfaithfulness invalidate God's faithfulness?
- 4. Absolutely not! Let God be true and every man a liar, as it is written, "That you might be justified in your words and prevail when you are judged."³
- 5. Now, if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what are we to say? Is God unrighteous who inflicts wrath? (I speak as a man.)
- 6. Absolutely not! Else, how will God condemn the world?
- 7. For if the truth of God is magnified by my lie unto His glory, why, then, am I still condemned as a sinner?
- 8. And not rather, as we be slanderously accused, and as some claim that we say (whose damnation is just), "Let us do evil, that good might come!"

- ¶9. What then? Are we exalting ourselves? Not in the least, for we already made the charge that all, both Jews and Greeks, are under sin,
- 10. just as it is written: "There is none righteous, not one;
- 11. there is no one who understands; there is no one seeking God;
- 12. all have fallen away; they have all, together, become worthless; there is no one doing good; there is not even one";⁴
- 13. "Their throat is an open sepulchre; they deceive with their tongues;"⁵ "The poison of adders is under their lips";⁶
- 14. "Whose mouth is full of curses and bitterness";⁷
- 15. "Their feet are swift to shed blood";⁸
- 16. "Ruin and misery are in their ways,
- 17. and the way of peace they have not known";⁹
- 18. "There is no fear of God before their eyes."¹⁰

- ¶19. Now, we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, that every mouth might be shut and the whole world might be accountable to God.
- 20. Wherefore, by works of a law shall no flesh be justified before Him, for by the law came the knowledge of sin.

³ Ps. 51:4.

⁴ Ps. 14:2–3; 53:2–3.

⁵ Ps. 5:9.

⁶ Ps. 140:3.

⁷ Ps. 10:7.

⁸ Prov. 1:16.

⁹ Isa. 59:7–8.

¹⁰ Ps. 36:1.

21. But the righteousness of God without a law has now been revealed, being borne witness by the law and the prophets,
22. the righteousness of God which is by faith in Jesus Christ, to all and upon all who believe (and there is no difference,
23. for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God),
24. being freely made righteous by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus,
25. whom God openly set forth as propitiation, through faith in his blood, for the manifestation of His righteousness (on account of the overlooking of sins that are past
26. through the forbearance of God)—for the manifestation of His righteousness, I say, in this present time, that He might be just, and the Justifier of him who believes in Jesus.
27. Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. By what law? Of works? Of course not! By a law of faith!
28. So then, we conclude that a man is made righteous by faith, without works of a law.
29. Is He God of the Jews only? Is He not also God of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles, too,
30. seeing there is one God, who will justify the circumcision by faith and the uncircumcision through faith.
31. Then, do we nullify law through faith? Absolutely not! On the contrary, we establish a law.

Romans 4

- ¶1. What, then, are we to say that Abraham, our father after the flesh, has found?
2. For if Abraham were justified by works, he had something of which to boast, but not before God,
3. for what does the scripture say? “And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness.”¹¹
4. Now, to the one who works, the reward is not reckoned as a gift but as a debt,
5. but to him who does not work, but believes in Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is reckoned as righteousness.
6. Just as David says about the blessedness of the man to whom God reckons righteousness without works:
7. “Blessed are they whose lawless deeds are forgiven and whose sins are covered.
8. Blessed is the man to whom the LORD will not reckon sin.”¹²
9. So then, is this blessedness only for the circumcision, or for the uncircumcision as well? Remember, we say, “Faith was reckoned to Abraham as righteousness.”
10. How, then, was it reckoned? While he was in circumcision or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision, ¹¹ Gen. 15:6.

¹² Ps. 32:1–2.

11. and then he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith that he had in uncircumcision, that he might be the father of all who believe while in uncircumcision, so that righteousness might be reckoned also to them,
12. as well as the father of circumcision to those who are not merely in circumcision, but who also follow in the footsteps of the faith of our father Abraham when uncircumcised.
13. For the promise that he would be the heir of the world was not made to Abraham or to his seed through a law, but through the righteousness of faith.
14. For if they are heirs because of a law, then faith is rendered worthless and the promise is of no effect.
15. For the law works wrath, but where there is no law, there is no transgression.
16. Therefore, it is by faith, that it might be of grace, so that the promise might be secured to all the seed, not to that which is under the law only, but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all
17. (as it is written, “I have made you the father of many nations”¹³) before Him whom he believed, even God, who brings the dead to life and calls things into being that do not exist.
18. Against hope, he believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, as it had been said, “Thus shall your seed be.”¹⁴
19. And then, being not weak in faith, he did not consider his own body, already as good as dead, being about a hundred years old, nor the deadness of Sarah’s womb.
20. He did not waver in unbelief at the promise of God; on the contrary, strengthened by faith, he gave glory to God,
21. being also fully persuaded that what He had promised, He is able also to do.
22. And that is why it was reckoned to him as righteousness.
23. Now, “it was reckoned to him” was not written for him alone,
24. but also for us, to whom it shall be reckoned who believe in Him who raised our Lord Jesus from the dead,
25. who was delivered up for our trespasses and was raised up for our justification.

Romans 5

- ¶1. Being justified, then, by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,
2. through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in our hope of the glory of God.
3. Not only that, but we also boast in tribulations, seeing that tribulation produces patience,
4. and patience, character, and character, hope.
5. And hope does not make ashamed, for the love of God is poured out within our hearts by the holy Spirit which is given to us.

¹³ Gen. 17:5b.

¹⁴ Gen. 15:5.

6. For when we were yet without strength, at the appointed time, Christ died for the ungodly.
 7. Rarely will someone die for a righteous man, though for a good man, one might possibly bring himself to die,
 8. but God commands to us His kind of love, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
 9. Much more, then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.
 10. For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by His life.
 11. And not only that, but we also boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.
- ¶12. Therefore, as through one man, sin entered into the world (and death through sin), so also death has spread to all men because all have sinned.
13. Now, before the law, sin was in the world, but sin is not imputed when there is no law.
 14. Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who did not commit sins like the transgression of Adam (who is a figure of the one who was to come).
 15. Then again, the gift of God is not like the trespass. For if by the trespass of one, many be dead, much more, the grace of God, even the gift of life by grace, which is from one man, Jesus Christ, has abounded to many.
 16. Nor is the gift of God as it was with the one who sinned. For God's judgment brought condemnation after a single trespass, but the gift of God brought justification after many trespasses.
 17. For if by the trespass of one man, death reigned because of one, much more, those who receive the abundance of the grace and the gift of righteousness shall reign in life because of one, Jesus Christ.
 18. So then, as by one man's trespass, condemnation came upon all men, so also by one man's righteousness, justification of life came upon all men.
 19. For as by one man's disobedience, many were made sinners, so also by the obedience of one man, many will be made righteous.
 20. Now, the law entered in so that transgression might abound, but where sin abounded, grace abounded all the more,
 21. so that just as sin reigned in death, so also might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6

- ¶1. What shall we say, then? "Let us continue in sin so that grace may abound"?
2. Absolutely not! How shall we, the ones who have died to sin, live in it any longer?
3. Do you not know that as many as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?
4. We were buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we might also walk in newness of life.

5. For if we have been united with him in the likeness of his death, we shall certainly also be in the likeness of his resurrection,
 6. knowing this, that our old man is crucified with Christ so that our sinful body might be rendered powerless, to the end that we are no longer slaves to sin.
 7. For he who is dead is freed from sin.
 8. Now, if we are dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him,
 9. knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, can die no more; death has no more dominion over him.
 10. As concerns his death, he died to sin once, but as concerns his life, he lives to God.
 11. You, likewise, think of yourselves as completely dead to sin, too, yet alive to God through Christ Jesus our Lord.
- ¶12. So then, let not sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its desires.
13. Neither present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as alive from the dead, and your members to God as instruments of righteousness.
 14. Sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under law but under grace.
- ¶15. What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? Absolutely not!
16. Do you not know that to whom you present yourselves as slaves to obey, you are slaves to whom you obey, either as slaves of sin, which leads to death, or as slaves of obedience, which leads to righteousness?
 17. But thanks be to God! For you used to be slaves of sin, but you obeyed from the heart the kind of doctrine to which you were entrusted,
 18. and then, made free from sin, you were made slaves to righteousness.
 19. (I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh.) Just as you once presented your members as slaves to uncleanness, and lawlessness upon lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness unto holiness.
 20. For when you were slaves of sin, you were free from righteousness.
 21. But what fruit did you have then from the things of which you are now ashamed? Indeed, the end of those things is death.
 22. But being now made free from sin, and being made slaves to God, you have your fruit unto holiness, and in the end, eternal life.
 23. For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 7

- ¶1. Do you not know, brothers (I am talking to those who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man only as long as he is alive?
2. For example, the married woman is bound to her husband by law while he lives, but should her husband die, she is released from the law concerning her husband.

3. So then, she will be called an adulteress if while her husband is alive, she becomes another man's wife, but if her husband dies, she is free from the law so that she is not an adulteress, though she become another man's wife.
4. Likewise, my brothers, you also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ so that you might belong to another, to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bear fruit to God.
5. For when we were in the flesh, the sinful affections in our members, working through the law, bore fruit leading to death.
6. But having died to that by which we were bound, we are released from the law so that we now serve God in newness of spirit, and not in oldness of a document.
- ¶7. What, then, shall we say? The law is sin? Absolutely not! On the contrary, I would not have known sin, were it not for the law. For example, I would not have known covetousness, had the law not said, "You shall not covet."
8. But sin, taking advantage of the commandment, produced in me every evil passion. For apart from the law, sin is dead.
9. And I was alive without the law once, but when the commandment came, sin came alive and I died;
10. so then, the very commandment that was ordained for life was found by me to be for death.
11. For sin, taking advantage of the commandment, deceived me, and with it, killed me.
12. Therefore, the law is indeed holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.
13. But has that which was good become death to me? Absolutely not! On the contrary, sin, that it might be revealed to be sin, worked death in me through what is good so that through the commandment, sin might become exceedingly sinful.
14. For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, sold under sin.
15. For what I do, I do not understand, for what I want, that I do not do; but what I hate, that I do.
16. Now, if I do that which I do not want to do, I am agreeing with the law, that it is good.
17. So then, it is no longer I doing it, but sin that dwells in me.
18. For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwells no good thing, for the willingness is present in me, but I do not find the doing of what is good.
19. For the good that I desire, I do not do; instead, the evil that I do not desire, this I do.
20. And if I do that which I do not desire, it is no longer I myself doing it, but sin that dwells in me.
21. I find, then, this law, that evil is present in me even when I desire to do good.
22. With the inner man, I joyfully consent to the law of God,
23. but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind and taking me captive to the law of sin that is in my members.
24. Wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from this body of death?

25. I thank God, through Jesus Christ our Lord! Therefore, in my mind I serve the law of God, but in the flesh, the law of sin.

Romans 8

- ¶1. There is now, therefore, no condemnation to those in Christ Jesus who do not walk after the flesh but after the Spirit.
- 2. The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death!
- 3. For what the law could not do, in that it was powerless because it was of the flesh, God did, after He had sent His Son in the form of sinful flesh to deal with sin. He condemned sin in the flesh
- 4. so that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us who do not walk after the flesh but after the Spirit.
- 5. For those who are after the flesh mind the things of the flesh, but those who are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.
- 6. For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace,
- 7. for the carnal mind is enmity against God. It is not subject to God's law; neither, indeed, can it be.
- 8. So then, those who are in the flesh cannot please God.
- 9. But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you.
Now, if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to him,
- 10. but if Christ be in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness.
- 11. And if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwell in you, He who raised Christ from the dead shall also bring to life your mortal bodies by His Spirit that dwells in you.
- ¶12. Therefore, brothers, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live after the flesh,
- 13. for if you live after the flesh, you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.
- 14. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are the sons of God.
- 15. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery, leading back into fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by which we cry out, "Abba!" (that is, "Father!")
- 16. The Spirit itself bears witness, together with our spirit, that we are the children of God,
- 17. and if children, then heirs—heirs of God, and heirs with Christ—provided that we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.
- ¶18. I consider the sufferings of this present time to be unworthy of comparison with the glory that shall be revealed to us.
- 19. Indeed, the earnest longing of the creature is eagerly awaiting the manifestation of the sons of God.

20. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by Him who subjected it in hope,
 21. seeing that even the creature itself shall be delivered from its bondage to corruption unto the glorious liberty of the children of God.
 22. For we know that to this very moment, all creation is groaning and travailing in pain.
 23. And not only that, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, also groan within ourselves, eagerly awaiting the adoption, the redemption of our body.
 24. For we are saved by hope, but hope that is seen is not hope, for what someone sees, why does he still hope for it?
 25. But if we hope for that which we do not see, then with patience do we earnestly wait for it.
- ¶26. Likewise, the Spirit also helps with our weaknesses, for we do not know what to pray for as one should, but the Spirit itself intercedes for us with groanings beyond words.
27. And He who searches the hearts knows what the Spirit means, for it is by God that it makes intercession for saints.
 28. So, we know that for those who love God, all things work together for good, for those who are the called according to His purpose.
 29. For those whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.
 30. And whom He predestined, these He also called; and whom He called, these He also justified; and whom He justified, these He also glorified.
- ¶31. What, then, shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who is against us?
32. Indeed, He who did not spare His own Son, but gave him up for us all, how shall He not also, with him, freely give us all things?
 33. Who shall bring an accusation against God's elect? God is the one who justifies.
 34. Who is the one that condemns? Christ is the one who died, but more than that, who was also raised up, who also is at God's right hand, who also is making intercession for us.
 35. Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?
 36. (As it is written, "For your sake, we are put to death all the day long; we are thought of as sheep for slaughter."¹⁵)
 37. No! In all these things, we do more than conquer, through him who loved us.
 38. I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,
 39. nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord!

¹⁵ Ps. 44:22.

Romans 9

- ¶1. I am speaking the truth in Christ; I am not lying, my conscience bearing me witness in the holy Spirit,
- 2. that I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.
- 3. There have been times I prayed to be accursed from Christ for my brothers, my kinsmen according to the flesh,
- 4. who are the Israelites, whose are the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises,
- 5. whose are the fathers, and from whom, according to the flesh, came Christ, who is above all. God be blessed forever. Amen.
- 6. But it is not as though the word of God has failed, for not everyone who is from Israel is Israel.
- 7. Neither are they all children just because they are Abraham's seed, but "In Isaac shall your seed be called."¹⁶
- 8. That is to say, the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as the seed.
- 9. For this is the word of promise: "At the appointed time, I will come, and Sarah shall have a son."¹⁷
- 10. And not only that, but Rebekah also, when she had conceived by a man, our father Isaac
- 11. (the twins being not yet born, neither having done anything good or evil, so that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works but of the one who calls),
- 12. it was said to her, "The older shall serve the younger."¹⁸
- 13. Just as it is written, "I loved Jacob, but I hated Esau."¹⁹

- ¶14. What shall we say, then? Is there injustice with God? Absolutely not!
- 15. For He said to Moses, "I will show mercy to whomever I show mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I have compassion."²⁰
- 16. So then, it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God, who shows mercy.
- 17. For the scripture says to Pharaoh, "This is the very reason I raised you up, that in you, I might demonstrate my power, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth."²¹
- 18. So then, to whom He will, He shows mercy, and whom He will, He hardens.

¹⁶ Gen. 21:12.

¹⁷ Gen. 18:14.

¹⁸ Gen. 25:23.

¹⁹ Mal. 1:2–3.

²⁰ Ex. 33:19.

²¹ Ex. 9:16.

- ¶19. You will say to me, then, “Why does He yet find fault? For who has resisted His will?”
- 20. Hold on there, O man! Who are you who talks back at God? Will the thing shaped say to Him who shaped it, “Why did you make me like this?”
- 21. Does not the potter have power over the clay, from the same lump to make one vessel for honor and another for dishonor?
- 22. So what, if God, desiring to demonstrate His wrath and to make known His power, bore with great patience the vessels of wrath made for destruction,
- 23. so that He might also make known the riches of His glory upon the vessels of mercy that He prepared beforehand for glory,
- 24. even us whom He has called, not only from the Jews, but also from Gentiles?
- 25. As He also says in Hosea, “I will call them my people who are not my people, and will call her beloved who was not beloved.”²²
- 26. “And it shall come to pass in the place where it was said to them, ‘You are not my people, ’there they shall be called sons of the living God.”²³
- 27. And Isaiah cries out concerning Israel, “Though the number of the sons of Israel be like the sand of the sea, only the remnant shall be saved.”²⁴
- 28. For He will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness, for a short work will the LORD make on the earth.
- 29. And as Isaiah also foretold, “Had the LORD of Hosts not left us a seed, we would have been as Sodom, and we would have become like Gomorrah.”²⁵
- ¶30. What shall we say then? This: the Gentiles, who were not seeking righteousness, have taken hold of righteousness—righteousness that is by faith,
- 31. and Israel, though pursuing the law of righteousness, has not attained to the law of righteousness.
- 32. Why? Because they did not seek it by faith, but sought it as if it were by works of a law. For they stumbled over the stumbling-stone,
- 33. as it is written, “Behold, I am laying in Zion a stumbling-stone and a rock of offense, and no one who believes on him will be put to shame.”²⁶

Romans 10

- ¶1. Brothers, my heart’s desire and prayer to God for Israel is for their salvation.
- 2. I bear them witness, that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.
- 3. For being ignorant of God’s righteousness and striving to maintain their own righteousness, they have not submitted to the righteousness of God.

²² Hos. 2:23.

²³ Hos. 1:10.

²⁴ Isa. 10:22.

²⁵ Isa. 1:9.

²⁶ Isa. 28:16. Cf. Isa. 8:14.

4. You see, to everyone who believes, Christ is the end of a law leading to righteousness.
5. For Moses writes about the righteousness which is by the law, that the man who does these things shall live by them.²⁷
6. But the righteousness which is by faith speaks like this: “ Do not say in your heart, ‘Who shall ascend into heaven? ’(that is, to bring Christ down),
7. or, ‘Who shall descend into the Abyss? ’(that is, to bring Christ up from the dead)”.
8. But what does he say? “The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart,”²⁸ that is, the word of faith that we preach,
9. that if you confess with your mouth, “Lord Jesus”, and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you shall be saved.
10. For with the heart, one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth, confession is made unto salvation.
11. For the scripture says, “No one who believes on him will be put to shame.”
12. There is no difference between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord of all is rich toward all who call upon him,
13. for “whoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.”²⁹
14. But how shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher?
15. And how shall they preach except they be sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who proclaim the gospel of peace, who proclaim the sweet message of good things!”³⁰
16. (Nevertheless, not everyone obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, “O LORD, who has believed our report?”³¹)
- ¶17. So, faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of God.
18. But I say, did they not hear? Of course they did. “Their sound has gone out to all the land, and their words to the ends of the earth.”³²
19. But I say, did Israel not know? First, Moses said, “I will provoke you to jealousy by those who are not a people; by a foolish nation will I provoke you to anger.”³³
20. Then Isaiah is very bold and says, “I have been found by those who do not seek me. I have made myself known to those who do not ask for me.”³⁴
21. But to Israel he says, “I have stretched out my hands all day long to a disobedient and gainsaying people.”³⁵

²⁷ Lev. 18:5.

²⁸ Dt. 30:12–14.

²⁹ Joel 2:32.

³⁰ Isa. 52:7.

³¹ Isa. 53:1.

³² Ps. 19:4.

³³ Dt. 32:21.

³⁴ Isa. 65:1.

³⁵ Isa. 65:2.

Romans 11

- ¶1. I say then, has God repudiated His people? Absolutely not! For I myself am also an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.
- 2. God has not repudiated His people whom He foreknew. Do you not know what the scripture says of Elijah, how he pleaded with God against Israel, saying,
- 3. “LORD, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars, and I alone am left, and they are seeking my life!”³⁶
- 4. But what does God’s answer say to him? “I have preserved for myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal.”³⁷
- 5. Likewise, there exists also, at this present time, a remnant chosen by grace.
- 6. And if it is by grace, it is no longer by works; otherwise, grace is no longer grace. That is, if it is by works, it is no longer grace; otherwise, the work is no longer a work.
- 7. What then? That which Israel seeks after, he has not obtained, but the chosen have obtained it, and the rest were blinded,
- 8. as it is written, “God has given them a spirit of slumber, eyes that do not see and ears that do not hear, until this very day.”³⁸
- 9. And David says, “Let their table be for a snare, and for a trap, and for a stumbling-stone, and for a recompense to them.
- 10. Let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see, and make their back to bow down always.”³⁹
- 11. I say then, have they stumbled so that they might fall? Absolutely not! On the contrary, by their failure, salvation has come to the Gentiles so as to provoke them to jealousy.
- 12. Now, if their failure be gain for the world, and their loss be gain for the Gentiles, how much more so their fullness!

- ¶13. Here, I am speaking to you who are Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my office,
- 14. if I might somehow provoke to jealousy my kinsman in the flesh and save some of them.
- 15. For if the casting away of them be reconciliation for the world, what will the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?
- 16. Now, if the firstfruit be holy, so is the lump, and if the root be holy, so are the branches.
- 17. And if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them and have become a partaker of the root and of the fatness of the olive,
- 18. do not gloat over the branches. But if you do gloat, you do not sustain the root, but the root, you.

³⁶ 1Kgs. 19:10, 14.

³⁷ 1Kgs. 19:18.

³⁸ Isa. 6:10

³⁹ Ps. 69:22–23.

19. You will say then, “The branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in.”
20. True; they were broken off because of unbelief, but you stand by faith. Do not be high-minded, but fear,
21. for if God did not spare the natural branches, He might not spare you, either.
22. Behold, therefore, the goodness and the severity of God; toward those who have fallen, severity, but toward you, goodness—if you continue in His goodness. Otherwise, you, too, shall be cut off.
23. And even they, if they do not continue in unbelief, shall be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.
24. For if you were cut out of what is by nature a wild olive tree and were grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more shall these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

- ¶25. Brothers, I would not have you ignorant of this mystery, lest you be wise in your own sight, that blindness has come upon Israel, in part, until the fullness of the Gentiles comes in,
26. and thus, all Israel shall be saved, as it is written, “The Deliverer shall come out of Zion,”⁴⁰ and “he shall turn ungodliness away from Jacob,”⁴¹
27. and “this shall be my covenant with them when I take away their sins.”⁴²
28. As regards the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes, but as regards the election, they are beloved because of the fathers.
29. For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.
30. For just as you also were once disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy through their disobedience,
31. so these, too, have now disobeyed, that through the mercy shown to you, they might obtain mercy as well.
32. God has locked up everyone together in disobedience so that He might have mercy upon everyone.

- ¶33. Oh, the depth of the riches of both the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unsearchable His judgments, and inscrutable His ways!
34. Who has known the mind of the LORD? Or who has been His counsellor?
35. Or who has first given to Him, so that it will be repaid to him?
36. For all things are of Him, and through Him, and for Him. To Him be glory forever. Amen.

Romans 12

- ¶1. Therefore, I entreat you, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

⁴⁰ Cf. Ps. 14:7.

⁴¹ Cf. Isa. 27:9.?

⁴² Cf. Isa. 59:21.

2. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind so that you might discern what is the good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.
- ¶3. For by the grace given to me, I say to everyone who is among you not to think more highly of himself than he ought to think, but to think soberly, according to the measure of faith that God has apportioned to each one.
4. For just as we have many members in one body, and not all the members have the same function,
5. so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and each one members of one another.
6. Having, then, different gifts, according to the grace given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;
7. or if ministry, let us attend to the ministry; or he who teaches, let him attend to the teaching;
8. or he who exhorts, to exhortation. He who gives, let him give with sincerity. He who rules, let him rule with diligence. He who shows mercy, let him do so cheerfully.
9. Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor the evil; cling to the good.
10. Be devoted to one another with brotherly love, preferring one another in honor;
11. concerning diligence, not slack; zealous in spirit, serving the Lord;
12. rejoicing in hope; persevering in tribulation; persistent in prayer;
13. contributing to the needs of the saints; pursuing hospitality.
14. Bless those who persecute you; bless, and do not curse.
15. Rejoice with those who are rejoicing, and weep with those who are weeping.
16. Be of the same mind toward one another. Do not mind high things, but associate with the lowly. Do not be wise in your own sight.
17. Repay no one evil for evil. Provide good things in the sight of all men.
18. If possible, as much as it depends on you, live peaceably with all men.
19. Do not avenge yourselves, beloved, but give place to wrath, for it is written, “Vengeance is mine”;⁴³ “I will repay, says the LORD.”⁴⁴
20. Therefore, “If your enemy hunger, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him drink, for in doing this, you will heap coals of fire on his head.”⁴⁵
21. Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Romans 13

- ¶1. Let every soul be subject to the higher authorities, for there is no authority but of God; the authorities that exist are ordained by God.
2. Therefore, he who opposes the authority is resisting the ordinance of God, and they who resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

⁴³ Dt. 32:35.

⁴⁴ Ezek. 11:21.

⁴⁵ Prov. 25:21–22.

3. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to evil works. Would you not fear the authority? Do what is good, and you shall have praise of the same,
4. for he is the minister of God to you for good. But if you do what is evil, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain. For he is a minister of God, an avenger to execute wrath upon the one who does evil.
5. Wherefore, it is necessary to be subject, not just because of wrath, but also for conscience sake.
6. This is also why you pay taxes, for they are ministers of God, continually attending to this very thing.
7. Render to all, therefore, what is due them: tax to whom tax; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor.

¶8. Owe no one anything, except to love one another, for he who loves another has fulfilled the law.

9. For this, "You shall not commit adultery; you shall not murder; you shall not steal; you shall not covet,"⁴⁶ and whichever other commandment, is summed up by this statement: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."⁴⁷
10. Love does not do wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfillment of the law.

¶11. Besides this, we know the time, that it is already the hour for us to awake from sleep, for our salvation is nearer now than when we believed.

12. The night is far spent, and the day is at hand; therefore, let us lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light.
13. Let us walk decently, as in the day, not in revelry and drunkenness, nor in promiscuity and sensuality, nor in strife and envy.
14. Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not make provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Romans 14

- ¶1. Receive him who is weak in the faith, but not for quarrels over opinions.
2. One has faith to eat anything, but he who is weak eats only plants.
3. Let not him who eats despise him who does not eat, and let not him who does not eat condemn him who eats, for God has received him.
4. Who are you who judges another man's servant? To his own master, he stands or falls. And he will stand, for God is able to make him stand.
5. One man regards one day above another, but another man regards every day alike. Let each be fully persuaded in his own mind.

⁴⁶ Ex. 20:13–15, 17.

⁴⁷ Lev. 19:18.

6. He who observes the day, observes it to the Lord, and he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it. Moreover, he who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives thanks to God, and he who does not eat, to the Lord he does not eat, and he gives thanks to God.
7. No one among us lives to himself, and no one dies to himself.
8. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. Whether we live or whether we die, therefore, we are the Lord's.
9. For to this end, Christ both died and rose and lived again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.
10. So, why do you condemn your brother? Or why do you despise your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.
11. For it is written, "As I live, says the LORD, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God."⁴⁸
12. Therefore, every one of us shall give an account of himself to God.
- ¶13. So then, let us no longer judge one another, but determine this instead: to lay no stumbling-block before a brother, or anything that causes him to fall.
14. I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing of itself is unclean; and yet, to him who considers something to be unclean, to him it is unclean.
15. If your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. Do not, with what you eat, destroy him for whom Christ died!
16. Do not let your good be evil spoken of.
17. For the kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness and peace and joy in the holy Spirit,
18. and he who serves Christ in these things is acceptable to God and approved by men.
19. Therefore, let us follow after the things that make for peace, and the things that make for the edification of one another.
20. Do not destroy the work of God on account of food! All things are indeed pure, but it is wrong for the man whose eating is a stumbling-block.
21. It is good not to eat meat, nor drink wine, nor do anything by which your brother stumbles, or is offended, or is made weak.
22. Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Blessed is he who does not condemn himself in the thing he allows.
23. But he who has doubts is condemned if he eats because his eating is not of faith. Whatever is not of faith is sin.⁴⁹

⁴⁸ Isa. 45:23.

⁴⁹ The following three verses (14:24–26) are found at the end of this book in some manuscripts, and understandably so. They interrupt the train of thought here and seem more fitting as part of a conclusion. However, the interjection of praise "to the only wise God" appears near the beginning of both 1 Timothy and Jude; so, despite the seeming awkwardness, it is altogether possible that Paul paused here to compose a few lines of praise to God.

- ¶24. To Him who is able to establish you in my gospel, and in the preaching of Jesus Christ, and in the revelation of the mystery kept secret from time immemorial,
- 25. but now is revealed, made known through the writings of the prophets, by command of the eternal God, for the obedience of faith among all the Gentiles,
- 26. to Him, the only wise God, be glory forever through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Romans 15

- ¶1. Now, we who are strong ought to bear with the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves.
- 2. Let each of us please his neighbor, to the extent that it is good for edification.
- 3. For even Christ did not please himself, but, as it is written, “The reproaches of those who reproach you fell on me.”⁵⁰
- 4. And surely, whatever was written before was written for our learning, so that through patience and the comfort of the scriptures, we might have hope.
- 5. May the God of patience and comfort give you the same mind toward one another in Christ Jesus,
- 6. so that in one accord, you might glorify with one voice the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 7. Wherefore, receive one another, just as Christ also received you, for the glory of God.
- 8. For I say, Christ Jesus was made a minister of the circumcision for the sake of the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the fathers,
- 9. and for the Gentiles to glorify God for mercy, as it is written, “For this cause will I confess you among the Gentiles and sing to your name.”⁵¹
- 10. And again, it says, “Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people!”⁵²
- 11. And again, “Praise the LORD, all you Gentiles, and extol Him, all peoples!”⁵³
- 12. And again, Isaiah says, “There shall be a root of Jesse, and he shall arise to rule the nations.”⁵⁴
“In him shall the Gentiles hope.”⁵⁵
- 13. Now, may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you might abound in hope by the power of the holy Spirit.
- ¶14. I am also persuaded of you, my brothers, that you are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able to admonish one another.
- 15. Nevertheless, refreshing your memory, as it were, I have written you rather boldly in some parts, brothers, because of the grace that is given to me by God

⁵⁰ Ps. 69:9.

⁵¹ Ps. 57:9; 108:3.

⁵² Dt. 32:43.

⁵³ Ps. 117:1.

⁵⁴ Isa. 11:10.

⁵⁵ Cf. Jer. 4:2.

16. for me to be a minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering as a priest the gospel of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the holy Spirit.
 17. Therefore, in Christ Jesus I have something to boast about: the things of God.
 18. I will not presume to speak of any of the things that Christ has not wrought through me to bring about the obedience of Gentiles in word and deed,
 19. with mighty signs and wonders by the power of the Spirit of God. So, as for me, from Jerusalem and beyond, as far as Illyricum, I have fully preached the good news of Christ,
 20. striving thus to preach the good news, not where Christ has been named, lest I build upon another man's foundation,
 21. but, as it is written, "That which had not been told them of him shall they see, and those who had not heard shall understand."⁵⁶
- ¶22. And for that reason, I have been prevented many times from coming to you,
23. but now, no longer having a place in these parts, and for many years having an earnest desire to come to you,
 24. if and when I go to Spain, I will come to you, for I hope to visit you on my way through and to be helped by you on my journey there, once I have enjoyed your company for a while.
 25. But now, I am going to Jerusalem to do a service to the saints,
 26. for Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the saints who are in Jerusalem.
 27. They were pleased, it is true, and yet, they are their debtors. For since the Gentiles have partaken of their spiritual things, they ought also to minister to them with natural things.
 28. So then, when I have finished this and sealed this fruit to them, I will go on to Spain by way of you.
 29. And I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.
- ¶30. Now, I entreat you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and in the Spirit's love, to strive together with me in prayers to God for me,
31. that I might be delivered from those in Judea who do not believe and that my service to the saints in Jerusalem might be acceptable,
 32. so that by the will of God, I might come to you with joy, and together with you be refreshed.
 33. The God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Romans 16

- ¶1. I commend to you Phoebe our sister, who is a servant of the Assembly that is in Cenchrea,

⁵⁶ Isa. 52:15.

2. that you receive her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the saints and that you help her in whatever matter she may need of you, for she has been a patroness of many, and of myself as well.
 - ¶3. Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow-workers in Christ Jesus,
 4. who have risked their own neck for my life, for whom not only I give thanks, but also all the Assemblies of the Gentiles,
 5. and greet the Assembly in their house. Greet my beloved Epaenetus, who is the firstfruits of Achaia to Christ.
 6. Greet Mariam, who has bestowed much labor on us.
 7. Greet Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen and my fellow prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.
 8. Greet Amplias, my beloved in the Lord.
 9. Greet Urbanus, our fellow-worker in Christ, and my beloved Stachys.
 10. Greet Apelles, who is approved in Christ. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus.
 11. Greet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet those of the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord.
 12. Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, women who have worked hard in the Lord. Greet Persis, who is beloved, who has done much hard labor in the Lord.
 13. Greet Rufus, who is chosen in the Lord, and his mother, and mine.
 14. Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brothers with them.
 15. Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.
 16. Greet one another with a holy kiss. The Assemblies of Christ greet you.
- ¶17. Now, I urge you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and offenses contrary to the doctrine that you have learned, and avoid them.
18. For such are not serving our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly, and with smooth words and flattery, they lead innocent hearts astray.
 19. Your obedience has spread abroad to all men. I rejoice, therefore, over you, but I want you to be wise concerning good, and pure concerning evil.
 20. The God of peace shall crush Satan under your feet soon.
¶The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
- ¶21. Timothy, my fellow-worker, greets you, and Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my kinsmen.
22. I, Tertius, the one who wrote out this letter, greet you in the Lord.
 23. Gaius, my host, and the whole Assembly greet you. Erastus, the treasurer of the city, and Quartus his brother, greet you.
 24. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

1Corinthians

1Corinthians 1

- ¶1. Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and our brother, Sosthenes.
- 2. To the Assembly of God that is in Corinth, sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who in every place call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:
- 3. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- ¶4. I thank my God always for you, for the grace of God which is given to you in Christ Jesus,
- 5. because in every way, you are enriched in him in all speech and in all knowledge,
- 6. just as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you,
- 7. so that you are not lacking in any gift as you await the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ,
- 8. who shall also establish you until the end, that you may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 9. God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
- ¶10. I urge you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing and that there not be divisions among you, but that you be perfectly united in the same mind and in the same judgment.
- 11. For it has been reported to me concerning you, my brothers, by those of Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you.
- 12. What I mean is that each of you says, "I am of Paul"; "I am of Apollos"; "I am of Cephas"; "I am of Christ."
- 13. Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you, or were you baptized in the name of Paul?
- 14. I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius,
- 15. lest anyone should say that I baptized in my own name.
- 16. And I also baptized the household of Stephanas. Beyond that, I do not know if I baptized anyone else.
- 17. For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, not with cleverness of speech, lest the cross of Christ be made of no effect.
- ¶18. The message of the cross is foolishness to those who are being lost, but to us who are being saved, it is the power of God.
- 19. For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the intelligence of the intellectuals will I bring to nothing."

20. Where is the wise man? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?
 21. For when, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom did not know God, it pleased God, by the foolishness of preaching, to save those who believe.
 22. For the Jews demand a sign, and Greeks search for wisdom,
 23. but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews, and foolishness to Greeks.
 24. But to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, we preach Christ, the Power of God and the Wisdom of God.
 25. For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.
- ¶26. You see your calling, brothers, that not many are wise in the flesh, not many are powerful, not many are of noble birth.
27. On the contrary, God has chosen the foolish things of the world, that He might put to shame those who are wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world that He might put the strong things to shame,
 28. and God has chosen the base things of the world, and things that are despised, and things that are not, that He might bring to nothing the things that are,
 29. so that no flesh might boast before God.
 30. It is because of Him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become to us wisdom from God, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption,
 31. so that, as it is written, “He who glories, let him glory in the LORD.”

1Corinthians 2

- ¶1. Now, when I came to you, brothers, I did not come with lofty speech or wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God.
 2. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.
 3. And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.
 4. And my message and my preaching were not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and power,
 5. so that your faith might not be in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.
- ¶6. Yet, we do speak wisdom among those who are perfect, but not the wisdom of this world, nor of the rulers of this world, who are being brought to nothing.
7. Rather, we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God predetermined before the ages for our glory,
 8. which none of the rulers of this age understood, for had they understood, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.
 9. But as it is written, “No eye has seen, nor ear heard, neither has it entered the heart of man the things God has prepared for those who love Him.”

10. But God has revealed them to us by His Spirit, for the Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God.
11. For who among men knows the things of man except the spirit of man that is in him? Likewise, no one knows the things of God, except the Spirit of God.
12. Now, we have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is from God, so that we might know the things freely given to us by God.
13. These things we also speak, not with words taught by human wisdom, but with those taught by the holy Spirit, explaining spiritual things to spiritual people.
14. A natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot comprehend them because they are spiritually discerned.
15. But a spiritual person judges everything, yet he himself is judged by no one.
16. For “Who has known the mind of the LORD, or who will instruct Him?” But we have the mind of Christ.

1Corinthians 3

- ¶1. Now, brothers, I have not been able to speak to you as spiritual people but as carnal, as babies in Christ.
2. I gave you milk to drink, and not meat; for you were not yet able to take it. In fact, even now, you still are not able,
3. for you are still carnal. For as long as envy and strife and dissensions are among you, are you not carnal, and behave like a human?
4. For when one says, “I am of Paul”, and another, “I of Apollos”, are you not carnal?
5. Who is Paul, and who is Apollos, but servants through whom you believed, as the Lord appointed to each man?
6. I planted; Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.
7. So then, neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but God, who gives the increase.
8. Now, he who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his own reward according to his own labor.
9. For we are God’s fellow-workers; you are God’s field, God’s building.
- ¶10. According to the grace of God that is given to me as a wise master-builder, I have laid the foundation, but another builds upon it. But let each man take heed how he builds.
11. For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.
12. If upon this foundation, anyone builds gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw,
13. each man’s work shall be made manifest. The day of God will disclose it, for it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will prove each man’s work, what sort it is.
14. If anyone’s work which he has built survives, he shall receive a reward.

15. If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, but he himself shall be saved, yet so as through fire.
- ¶16. Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?
17. If anyone defiles the temple of God, God will destroy him, for the temple of God, which you are, is holy.
- ¶18. Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you considers himself wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he might be wise.
19. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their own craftiness."
20. And again, "The LORD knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain."
21. Therefore let no one glory in men. For all things are yours,
22. whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things that are present, or things to come; all things are yours,
23. and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

1Corinthians 4

- ¶1. Let a man think of us as assistants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.
2. And what is more, it is required of stewards that a man be found faithful.
3. But to me, it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by any human judgment; indeed, I do not even judge myself.
4. I am conscious of nothing against myself; however, by that, I am not justified. The Lord is the one who judges me.
5. So, judge nothing before the time, but wait until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and expose the intentions of hearts, and then from God will praise be given to each one.
- ¶6. These things, brothers, I have applied to myself and Apollos for your sakes, so that in us, you may learn not to think of men beyond what is written, so that no one be puffed up for one against the other.
7. For who makes you differ from another? And what do you have that you did not receive? And if you received it, why glory as if you did not receive it?
8. You are already full, already rich; you reign without us—and I wish you did reign so that we might reign with you.
9. For it seems to me that God has put us, the apostles, on display as the lowest of all, like men sentenced to death, for we are made a spectacle before the world, to both angels and men.
10. We are fools on account of Christ, but you are wise in Christ; we are weak, but you are strong; you are highly esteemed, but we are dishonored.

11. Until this very hour, we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are beaten, and are homeless,
 12. and we toil, laboring with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure;
 13. being slandered, we entreat; we have become, to this moment, like the scum of the world, the offscouring of all things.
- ¶14. I am not writing these things to shame you but to admonish you, as my dear children.
15. You may have countless tutors in Christ, but not many fathers, for in Christ Jesus, I have begotten you through the gospel.
 16. So then, I urge you, be imitators of me.
 17. This is why I sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways in Christ, which I teach in every Assembly everywhere.
 18. Now, some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.
 19. But I am coming to you soon, if the Lord is willing, and I will know, not the talk of those who have become puffed up, but the power.
 20. For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.
 21. What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or with love and a spirit of gentleness?

1Corinthians 5

- ¶1. An immorality among you is widely reported, and such an immorality that is not even mentioned among Gentiles, in that a man has his father's wife!
2. And yet, you are puffed up, and have not mourned instead, so that the one who has done this deed might be put out from your midst.
 3. As for me, absent in body but present in spirit, I have already judged, as if present, the one who has done such a thing.
 4. In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you and my spirit are gathered together, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,
 5. turn such a man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that the spirit might be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.
 6. Your glorying is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump?
 7. Purge out the old leaven so that you might be a new lump, since you are unleavened. For Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed for us,
 8. so that we might keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
- ¶9. In a letter, I wrote to you not to associate with immoral people,
10. and yet, by no means the immoral of this world, or the covetous, or swindlers, or idolaters; in that case, you would have to leave the world.

11. But I wrote to you meaning not to associate with anyone called a brother if he be immoral, or covetous, or idolatrous, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or a swindler—not even to eat with such a one.
12. For what have I to do with judging those outside the Assembly? Do you not judge those who are within?
13. But those outside, God will judge. So, put that wicked man out from among you!

1Corinthians 6

- ¶1. Does any one of you, having a dispute with another, dare to go before the unjust to be judged, and not before the saints?
2. Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you incompetent to judge the smallest matters?
3. Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more, then, matters of this life?
4. If you use law-courts for matters of this life, you are authorizing as judges those who have no standing in the Assembly.
5. I say this to your shame. Is it really so, that there is not a single wise man among you who is able to judge among his brothers?
6. Instead, brother goes to court against brother, and that before unbelievers!
7. Therefore, you have already suffered complete defeat because you have lawsuits against each other. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated?
8. Instead, you yourselves do wrong and cheat—and do these things to brothers!
9. Do you not know that the unjust will not inherit God's kingdom? Do not be deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor catamites, nor sodomites,
10. nor the greedy, nor thieves, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor the rapacious will inherit the kingdom of God.
11. And some of you were these things; but you were washed; but you were sanctified; but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of our God.
- ¶12. All things are lawful for me, but not everything is beneficial; all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought into subjection by anything.
13. Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods, but God will destroy both it and them. And the body is not for immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body;
14. and God has raised up the Lord, and shall raise us up by His power.
15. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a harlot? Absolutely not!
16. Or do you not know that he who is joined to a harlot is one body? For it says, "The two shall become one flesh."
17. But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit.
18. Flee fornication. Every sin that a man might commit is outside the body; but he who commits fornication sins against his own body.

19. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the holy Spirit that is in you, which you have from God? Moreover, you are not your own,
20. for you were bought with a price; so then, glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

1Corinthians 7

- ¶1. Now concerning the things about which you wrote to me, it is good for a man not to touch a woman.
2. But to avoid fornication, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.
3. Let the husband render to his wife the affection due her, and likewise the wife to her husband.
4. The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband; likewise, the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife.
5. Do not deprive one another, except it be by mutual consent for a time in order to devote yourselves to fasting and prayer; then, come together again so that Satan may not tempt you through your lack of self-control.
6. But I am saying this as a concession, not as a command.
7. I wish that all men were as I am; however, each has his own gift from God, one to be this way, and another that way.
- ¶8. So now, to the unmarried and the widows, I say it is good for them to remain unmarried, even as I am.
9. But if they cannot control themselves, let them marry, for it is better to marry than to burn.
10. And to those who are married, I give commandment (not I, but the Lord): a wife is not to separate from a husband.
11. But if she does separate, she is to remain unmarried or be reconciled to the husband, and a husband is not to divorce a wife.
12. And to the rest, I myself speak, not the Lord. If any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is pleased to dwell with him, he is not to leave her.
13. And a woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he is pleased to dwell with her, she is not to leave him.
14. For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband; otherwise, your children are unclean, but now they are holy.
15. But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or sister is not bound in such cases; but, God has called us to peace.
16. For, wife, how do you know whether you will save your husband? Or, husband, how do you know whether you will save your wife?

17. Only let each one live as God has apportioned, as the Lord has called each one. And this is what I command in all the Assemblies.
18. Is any man called being circumcised? His circumcision is not to be reversed. Is any man called being uncircumcised? He is not to be circumcised.
19. Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but keeping the commandments of God.
20. Each one is to remain in the calling in which he was called.
21. Were you called being a slave? Do not let it concern you; on the contrary, even if you are able to obtain freedom, use it all the more.¹
22. For in the Lord, he who is called, being a slave, is the Lord's freedman, and likewise, the free man who is called is Christ's slave.
23. You are bought with a price; do not be the slaves of men!
24. Each man, brothers, is to continue with God in the condition in which he was called.
- ¶25. Now concerning virgins, I have no directive from the Lord, but I give counsel as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be faithful.
26. So then, I consider this to be right, in view of the present distress, that it is good for a man so to be.
27. Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be loosed. Are you loosed from a wife? Do not seek a wife.
28. But even if you do marry, you have not sinned, and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. But such will have trouble in the flesh; nevertheless, I spare you.
29. And this I say, brothers, the time is short. In remaining matters, it is that those who have wives are also as those not having them,
30. and those who weep as those not weeping, and those who rejoice as those not rejoicing, and those who buy as those not owning,
31. and those who use this world as those not making use of it, for the manner of this world is passing away.
32. I want you to be without anxiousness. The unmarried man is concerned for things of the Lord, how he will please the Lord,
33. but the married man is concerned about things of the world, how he will please his wife.
34. There is also a difference between a married woman and a virgin. The unmarried woman is concerned for things of the Lord so that she may be holy in both body and spirit. But the married woman is concerned for things of the world, how she may please her husband.
35. I am saying this for your benefit, not to put restrictions on you, but that you might do what is proper and render constant service to the Lord without distraction.

¹ Or, "but and if you can obtain your freedom, use it rather."

36. Now, if anyone thinks he is behaving inappropriately concerning his virginity,² if he has strong passions, and if it must be that way, let him do what he wants. He is not sinning; let them marry.
37. But he does well who stands steadfast in heart, feeling no necessity, but has power over his own will and has determined in his heart to preserve his own virginity.
38. So then, he who marries does well, but he who does not marry does better.
39. A wife is bound to her husband by law as long as her husband is alive, but if her husband passes away, she is free to marry whom she will, only in the Lord.
40. But she is more blessed if she remains as she is, in my judgment. And I think I also have the Spirit of God.

1Corinthians 8

- ¶1. Now, concerning things offered to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.
2. And if anyone thinks he knows anything, he still knows nothing as he should know.
3. (But if anyone loves God, the same is known by Him.)
4. Now, concerning the eating of things offered to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world and that there is no other God but one.
5. For even if there are those who are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as indeed there are many gods and many lords);
6. yet, for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we exist for Him, and there is one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we exist by him.
7. However, this knowledge is not in everyone. But some, with conscience of the idols, still eat it as a thing offered to idols, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.
8. But food does not bring us close to God. We are neither better if we eat nor worse if we do not eat.
9. But beware, lest this privilege of yours become a stumbling block to the weak.
10. For if someone should see you who has knowledge eating in an idol's temple, will not the conscience of him who is weak be emboldened to eat what is offered to idols?
11. And then, will not the weak brother, for whom Christ died, be destroyed by your knowledge?
12. In sinning thus against brothers and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.
13. Wherefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat again, lest I cause my brother to stumble.

1Corinthians 9

² Or, "toward his [female] virgin"

- ¶1. Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord?
2. If to others I am not an apostle, yet I certainly am to you, for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.
3. My answer to those who examine me is this.
4. Do we not have authority to eat and drink freely?
5. Do we not have authority to take along a married sister, as also the rest of the apostles do, and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?
6. Or do Barnabas and I alone have no right to refrain from working?
7. Who ever serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who shepherds a flock and does not drink of the milk from the flock?
8. Am I saying these things on human authority, or does not the law also say these things?
9. For in the law of Moses it is written, “Do not muzzle an ox when he is treading out the grain.” Is God concerned about oxen?
10. Or is He not speaking altogether for our sake? For our sake it was written, because the one who plows ought to plow in hope, and the one who threshes in hope ought to partake of his hope.
11. If we have sown spiritual things in you, is it a great thing if we reap material things from you?
12. If others are partaking of this authority over you, should we not, instead? Nevertheless, we have not used this authority; on the contrary, we endure all things, lest we cause any hindrance to the gospel of Christ.
13. Do you not know that those who labor about the temple eat from the temple, and that those who tend to the altar partake of sacrifices with the altar?
14. Just so, the Lord has also ordained that they who proclaim the gospel should live from the gospel.
15. But I have used none of these things, and I did not write these things so that it might be so with me, for it would be better for me to die than that anyone should make my boasting empty!
16. If I preach the gospel, I have no reason to boast, for I am under an obligation. Woe be to me if I do not preach the gospel!
17. If I do this willingly, I have a reward, but if unwillingly, I am still assigned a stewardship.
18. What, then, is my reward? That in preaching the gospel, I may provide the gospel of Christ free of charge, so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel.
19. Although I am free from all, I make myself a slave to all so that I might gain the more.
20. To the Jews, I became like a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those under the law;
21. to those without the law, I became like one without the law (not being lawless before God, but bound to a law in Christ), that I might gain those without the law.

22. To the weak, I became like the weak, that I might gain the weak; I am made all things to all people, that I might by all means save some.
23. I do this for the sake of the gospel, so that I might be a partaker of it with others.
24. Do you not know that all of those who race in a stadium are running, but one takes the prize? Run like that, so that you might win the prize.
25. Every one who competes exercises self-control in all things; however, these do it to receive a corruptible crown, but we, an incorruptible one.
26. So, thus do I run, not aimlessly, and thus do I box, not punching air.
27. On the contrary, I discipline my body and make it obey, lest after I have preached to others, I myself be rejected.

1Corinthians 10

- ¶1. I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea,
2. and all were baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea,
3. and all ate the same spiritual food,
4. and all drank the same spiritual drink, for they drank from the spiritual rock that followed them; and the rock was Christ.
5. Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, and they were struck down in the desert.
6. Now, these things happened as examples for us, that we should not desire evil things, as those people did.
7. Neither be idolators, as were some of them, as it is written, “The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.”
8. Nor let us commit fornication, as some of them did, and there fell, in one day, twenty-three thousand.
9. Nor let us tempt Christ, as some of them did, and were destroyed by snakes.
10. And do not grumble, as some of them grumbled, and were destroyed by the Destroyer.
11. Now, all these things happened to them as examples, and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have met.
12. Therefore, let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall.
13. No trial has overtaken you but what is common to man; and God is faithful, who will not permit you to be tried beyond what you can bear, but He will also with the trial make a way of escape, so that you will be able to endure it.
- ¶14. Wherefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry.
15. I speak as to wise men; judge what I say.
16. The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not the fellowship of the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not the fellowship of the body of Christ?
17. For we, being many, are one bread, one body, for we all partake of the one bread.
18. Consider the fleshly Israel. Are not they who eat the sacrifices partakers with the altar?

19. What then am I saying? That an idol is anything? Or that food offered to idols is anything?
20. On the contrary, I am saying that the things Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God, and I do not want you to be partakers with demons.
21. You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons.
22. Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he?
- ¶23. Everything is lawful for me, but not everything is beneficial. Everything is lawful, but not everything edifies.
24. Let no one seek his own good, but each the good of the other.
25. Eat whatever is sold in the meat market, asking nothing for conscience 'sake,
26. for "The earth is the LORD's and the fullness thereof."
27. If one of the unbelievers gives you an invitation, and you want to go, eat whatever is placed before you, asking nothing for conscience 'sake.
28. But if someone says to you, "This has been offered to an idol," do not eat it, out of consideration for the one who informed you, and for conscience 'sake, for "The earth is the LORD's and the fullness thereof."
29. Conscience, I say, not your own, but that of the other person. For why is my liberty determined by someone else's conscience?
30. If I partake with thankfulness, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I am giving thanks?
31. Therefore, whether you eat, or drink, or do anything, do it all for the glory of God.
32. Give no offense, whether to Jews, or Greeks, or to the Assembly of God,
33. just as I please all men in all things, not seeking my own benefit, but that of many, that they might be saved.

1Corinthians 11

- ¶1. Be followers of me, just as I also follow Christ.
- ¶2. I commend you, brothers, because you remember me in all things, and you hold firm the traditions, just as I delivered them to you.
3. I want you to know that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God.
4. Every man, having his head covered while praying or prophesying, dishonors his head.
5. And every woman, having her head uncovered while praying or prophesying, dishonors her head, for that is one and the same as having her head shaved.
6. For if a woman is not covered, let her also have her hair cut. But if it is a disgrace for a woman to have her hair cut or be shaved, let her be covered.

7. For a man certainly should not cover his head, being the image and glory of God, but the woman is the glory of the man.
 8. For man did not come from woman, but woman from man.
 9. Neither was a man created for the woman, but a woman was created for the man.
 10. For this reason, the woman should have authority on her head because of the angels.
 11. Nevertheless, in the Lord, the man is not without the woman, neither the woman without the man.
 12. For just as the woman was made from the man, so also the man comes through the woman; but all things are from God.
 13. Judge for yourselves: Is it appropriate for a woman to pray to God uncovered?
 14. Does not nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace to him?
 15. But if a woman has long hair, it is her glory, for her hair is given to her as a covering.
 16. But if anyone is inclined to be contentious about it, we have no such custom, nor do the Assemblies of God.
- ¶17. Now, in the following instruction, I do not praise you, for you come together not for the better but for the worse.
18. For, first of all, when you come together as an Assembly, I hear that there are divisions among you, and in part, I believe it.
 19. For it is necessary that there be factions among you so that those among you who are approved by God might be made manifest.
 20. So then, when you meet together in the same place, it is not to eat the Lord's supper.
 21. For in eating, each goes ahead and eats his own supper first, and one goes hungry while another gets drunk.
 22. What? Do you not have houses in which to eat and drink? Or do you show contempt for the Assembly of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you in this? I do not praise you.
 23. For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which he was betrayed took bread,
 24. and when he had offered thanks, he broke it and said, "Take and eat. This is my body which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me."
 25. Likewise, after supper he also took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."
 26. So it is, as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he come.
 27. Therefore, whoever eats this bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in a manner unworthy of the Lord shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.
 28. Let a man examine himself; only then is he to eat of the bread and drink of the cup.
 29. For he who eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks condemnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30. Because of this, many are feeble and sick among you, and quite a few have fallen asleep.
31. If we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged.
32. But when we are judged, we are being chastened by the Lord so that we might not be condemned along with the world.
33. So then, my brothers, when coming together to eat, wait for one another.
34. If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest you come together into condemnation.
And the rest will I set in order when I come.

1Corinthians 12

- ¶1. Now concerning things of the Spirit, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant.
2. You know that when you were Gentiles, you were led, but misled, to voiceless idols.
3. Wherefore, I give you to know that no one speaking by the Spirit of God is saying, “Cursed be Jesus.” And no one is able to say, “Lord Jesus,” but by the holy Spirit.
- ¶4. Now, there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit,
 5. and there are varieties of ministries, and yet, the same Lord,
 6. and there are varieties of operations, but it is the same God who is operating everything in everybody.
7. And to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.
8. For through the Spirit is given to one a word of wisdom; and to another, by the same Spirit, a word of knowledge;
9. and to someone else, faith by the same Spirit; and to another, gifts of healing by the same Spirit;
10. and to another, the operation of miracles; and to another, prophesying; and to another, discernment of spirits; and to someone else, various kinds of tongues; and to another, interpretation of tongues;
11. but the one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing to each one his own part, as it will.
- ¶12. For just as the body is one, and yet has many members, and all the members of the one body, though many, are one body, so also is Christ.
13. For by one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and all were given to drink of one Spirit.
14. For the body is not one member, but many.
15. If the foot says, “I’m not part of the body because I’m not a hand,” does that mean it is not a part of the body?
16. And if the ear says, “I’m not part of the body because I’m not an eye,” does that mean it is not part of the body?
17. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be?
18. But as it is, God has set the members, each one of them, in the body as He pleases.

19. If everything was one member, where would the body be?
20. But now, there are indeed many members, but one body.
21. The eye cannot say to the hand, “I don’t need you”; nor, again, the head to the feet, “I don’t need you.”
22. Very much to the contrary, the members of the body which seem to be weaker are needed,
23. and those parts of the body that we consider to be indecent, we make the more presentable, and so our shameful parts have greater presentability.
24. But our presentable members have no need. On the other hand, God has blended the body together by giving more respectability to the needy part,
25. so that there might be no divisions in the body, but that members might have the same concern for one another.
26. And then, if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it, and if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.
27. You, yourselves, are the body of Christ and, individually, members of it.
28. And those whom God has placed most prominently in the Assembly are apostles, secondly, prophets, thirdly, teachers, then miracle-workers, then gifts of healing, helps, management of affairs, and various kinds of tongues.
29. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all miracle-workers?
30. Does everyone have gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?
31. Earnestly seek the greater gifts. And yet, I show you a far better way.

1Corinthians 13

- ¶1. If I speak in the languages of men and of angels, yet I do not have love, I am become like a noisy brass gong or a clanging cymbal.
2. And if I have the gift of prophecy, and if I understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.
3. Even if I give away all that I own, and even if I hand over my body to be burned up, and have not love, it does me no good.
4. Love is patient and is kind; love does not envy; love is not boastful; nor is it puffed up;
5. nor is it indecent; nor does it seek its own; nor is it short-tempered; nor does it keep an account of wrong;
6. nor does it rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices in the truth;
7. it quietly bears all things; believes all things; hopes all things; endures all things.
8. Love never fails. But whether there be prophecies, they will come to an end; or tongues, they will cease; or knowledge, it will pass away.
9. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part,
10. but when that which is perfect comes, that which is in part shall be done away.
11. When I was a child, I spoke like a child; I thought like a child; I reasoned like a child, but when I became a man, I put aside childish things.

12. For now we see as in a mirror with a dim reflection, but then, face to face. Now I know in part, but then, I will know fully, just as I also have been fully known.
13. But for now, these three remain: faith, hope, and love, but the greatest of these is love.

1Corinthians 14

- ¶1. Pursue love, yet earnestly desire the things of the Spirit, especially that you may prophesy.
2. For he who speaks in a tongue is speaking not to men but to God, for no one understands, but he is speaking mysteries in the Spirit.
3. But the one who prophesies is speaking edification, and comfort, and encouragement to men.
4. The one who speaks in a tongue edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies an Assembly.
5. I want you all to speak in tongues, but even more that you prophesy, for the one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues, unless he interprets so that the Assembly might receive edification.
6. Now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I benefit you unless I speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophecy, or by doctrine?
7. Even with lifeless instruments making sound, be it flute or lyre, if I make no distinction in the notes, how will it be known what is played on the flute or lyre?
8. And if a trumpet gives an unclear sound, who will prepare himself for battle?
9. And so it is with you. Unless with the tongue you give an intelligible message, how will what is spoken be understood? You are just talking to the air.
10. There are, as it were, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them void of meaning.
11. If, then, I do not know the meaning of the voice, I am a foreigner to the one who is speaking, and the one who is speaking is a foreigner to me.
12. And so it is with you. Since you are zealots for spiritual things, seek to abound in them for the edification of the Assembly.
13. Wherefore, let the one who speaks in a tongue pray that he might interpret.
14. For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit is praying, but my understanding is unfruitful.
15. How is it, then? I will pray in the Spirit, and I will also pray with the understanding; I will sing in the Spirit, and I will also sing with the understanding.
16. Otherwise, if you give thanks in the Spirit, how will the one who occupies the place of the ignorant say, "Amen" to your thanksgiving, inasmuch as he does not know what you are saying?
17. For you indeed give thanks well, but the other is not edified.
18. I thank my God, I speak in tongues more than all of you;
19. however, in an Assembly, I prefer to speak five words with my understanding so that I might benefit others, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

- ¶20. Brothers, do not be children in your thinking; rather, be children in evil, and in thinking, be mature.
21. In the law it is written, “With strange tongues and other lips will I speak to this people, and even at that, they will not listen to me, says the LORD.”
22. This means that tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to those who do not believe. Prophecy, however, is not for those who do not believe but for those who believe.
23. So then, if the whole Assembly comes together in the same place and everyone speaks in tongues, when ignorant or unbelieving people come in, will they not say that you have lost your mind?
24. But if all prophesy, and there come in someone unbelieving or ignorant, he is exposed by all; he is discerned by all.
25. Thus, the secrets of his heart are disclosed, and falling on his face, he will worship God, declaring, “God is certainly among you!”
- ¶26. How is it then, brothers? When you come together, each of you has a song of praise, has a teaching, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. Let everything be done for edification.
27. If anyone speaks in a tongue, it should be by two, or at the most, three, each in turn, and let one interpret,
28. but if there be no interpreter, let him be silent in an Assembly, but let him speak to himself and to God.
29. Let two or three prophets speak, and then let the others judge.
30. And if a revelation is given to another sitting there, let the first one be silent.
31. For you can all prophesy, in turn, so that all may learn and all may be encouraged.
32. And so, the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets.
33. For God is not the God of disorder but of peace, as in all the Assemblies of the saints.
- ¶34. Your wives are to be silent in the Assemblies, for it is not permitted for them to speak but to be in submission, as the law says also.
35. If they would learn something, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is shameful for a wife to speak in an Assembly.
36. Is it from you that the word of God came forth? Or did it come only to you?
- ¶37. If anyone thinks he is a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge the things I am writing to you, that they are the Lord’s commandments.
38. But if anyone disregards these commandments, let him be disregarded.
- ¶39. So then, brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak in tongues.
40. Let everything be done decently and in order.

- ¶1. Now, I remind you, brothers, of the gospel that I proclaimed to you, which also you received, in which also you stand,
2. by which also you are being saved if you are holding fast that message which I preached to you; otherwise, you believed in vain.
 3. Among the first things I delivered to you, which I also received, is that Christ died for our sins, in accordance with the Scriptures,
 4. and that he was buried, and that he was raised the third day, in accordance with the Scriptures,
 5. and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve;
 6. afterward, he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time (most of whom remain alive until now, though some have fallen asleep);
 7. next, he appeared to James, and after that, to all the apostles;
 8. and last of all, as to one born at the wrong time, he appeared also to me.
 9. I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the Assembly of God.
 10. Nevertheless, by the grace of God, I am what I am. And His grace toward me has not been in vain; on the contrary, I have labored more abundantly than all of them, and yet not I, but the grace of God that is with me.
 11. Therefore, whether I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.

- ¶12. Now, if Christ is preached, that he is raised from the dead, how is it that some among you say there is no resurrection of the dead?
13. If there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ is not risen,
 14. and if Christ is not risen, then our preaching is vain, and your faith is also vain.
 15. And we are found also to be false witnesses of God because we have borne witness, as being from God, that He raised up Christ, whom He did not raise up if, in fact, the dead are not raised.
 16. For if the dead are not raised, neither is Christ risen;
 17. and if Christ is not risen, your faith is pointless; you are still in your sins.
 18. And in that case, those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished.
 19. If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.
- ¶20. But Christ is, in fact, raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who sleep.
21. For since death came by a man, resurrection from the dead also came by a man.
 22. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive.
 23. But each one in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then they who belong to Christ at his coming.
 24. Then comes the end, when he will hand over the kingdom to God the Father, when he has done away with all government, and all authority, and power.
 25. For he must reign until He puts all his enemies under his feet.
 26. The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

27. For “He has subdued all things under his feet.” But when it says, “all things are subdued”, it is obvious that He who subdued all things under him is an exception.
 28. And when all things are subdued under him, then will the Son himself submit to Him who subdued all things under him, that God might be all things to all people.
 - ¶29. Otherwise, what shall they do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not at all raised, then why are they baptized for the dead?
 30. And why do we face danger every hour?
 31. I die daily, as assuredly as the boast which I have concerning you in Christ Jesus our Lord.
 32. If I have fought with beasts (humanly speaking) in Ephesus, what good is it to me if the dead do not rise? “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!”
 33. Do not be deceived; bad companions corrupt good manners.
 34. Sober up, as is right, and stop sinning! For some do not have the knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.
- ¶35. Still, someone will say, “How are the dead raised? And with what kind of body do they come forth?”
36. You fool! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies,
 37. and that which you sow, you do not sow the body that shall be, but bare grain, be it of wheat or of some other seed;
 38. then God gives it a body as it pleases Him, and to each of the seeds, its own body.
 39. Not all flesh is the same flesh; there is one kind for humans, another flesh for land animals, another for fish, and another for birds.
 40. There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is of one sort, and that of the earthly, another.
 41. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; indeed, star differs from star in glory.
 42. The resurrection from the dead is the same way. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption;
 43. it is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power;
 44. it is sown a physical body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a physical body, and there is a spiritual body.
 45. As also it is written, “The first man Adam became a living soul”; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit.
 46. However, the spiritual was not first, but the physical; then the spiritual.
 47. The first man was from the earth, made of dirt; the second man is the Lord from heaven.
 48. As is the earthly, so also are those who are earthly; and as is the heavenly, so also are those who are of heaven,

49. and as we have borne the likeness of the earthly, we shall also bear the likeness of the heavenly.

¶50. This I say, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, neither does corruption inherit incorruption.

51. Behold, I am telling you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed

52. in an instant, at the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54. And when this corruptible puts on incorruption and this mortal puts on immortality, then the saying that is written will come to pass: "Death is swallowed up in victory."

55. O Death! Where is your sting? O Hades, where is your victory?"

56. The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law,

57. but thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58. So then, my dearly loved brothers, be steadfast, unmovable, abounding in the work of the Lord always, knowing that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

1Corinthians 16

¶1. Now, concerning the collection for the saints, as I directed the Assemblies of Galatia, so you also are to do.

2. On the first day of the week, let each one of you put something aside at home, storing up whatever surplus he has, so that there be no collections made when I come.

3. And when I arrive, those whom you recommend by letters will I send to take your gift to Jerusalem,

4. and if it seems advisable for me to make the journey also, they will go with me.

5. Now, I will come to you when I have passed through Macedonia, for I am going through Macedonia,

6. and if possible, I will stay on with you, perhaps even to spend the winter, so that you may help me on my way, wherever I may go.

7. I do not want to see you this time merely in passing, for I hope to spend some time with you if the Lord permit.

8. But I will remain in Ephesus until Pentecost,

9. for a great and effectual door is opened to me, and there are many adversaries.

¶10. If Timothy comes, see that he is among you without fear, for he is doing the work of the Lord just as I am.

11. Therefore, let no one show him disrespect, but help him on his journey in peace so that he may come to me, for I am waiting for him with the brothers.

12. As regards brother Apollos, I urged him greatly that he come to you with the brothers, and yet, it was not at all his will that he should come at this time, but he will come when he has opportunity.

¶13. Be alert; stand firm in the faith; be manly; be strong!

14. Let everything about you be done with love.

¶15. I exhort you, brothers—you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and they have placed themselves at the service of the saints—

16. that you submit to such, as well as to everyone who labors and toils with us.

17. I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus because they have made up for your absence.

18. They have refreshed my spirit as well as yours; therefore, acknowledge such men.

¶19. The Assemblies of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla, along with the Assembly in their home, send you warm greetings in the Lord.

20. All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

¶21. The greeting of Paul, by my own hand.

22. If anyone feels no affection for the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed. Maranatha!³

23. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24. My love is with all of you in Christ Jesus. Amen.

³“ Our Lord, come!”, “Our Lord will come”, or possibly, “Our Lord has come.”

2Corinthians

2Corinthians 1

- ¶1. Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and brother Timothy. To the Assembly of God that is in Corinth, with all the saints throughout Achaia:
2. Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
 3. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassions and God of all comfort,
 4. who comforts us in all our trouble so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.
 5. For just as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so also our comfort through Christ abounds.
 6. Whether we suffer hardship, it is for your comfort and salvation, which is made effectual by the enduring of the same sufferings that we ourselves also suffer (and our hope in you is firm), or whether we are comforted, it is for your comfort and salvation,
 7. knowing that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so will you also be of the comfort.
 8. Brothers, we would not have you to be ignorant as to our trouble which befell us in Asia, that we were extremely pressed, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of life.
 9. Nevertheless, we had the sentence of death within ourselves, that we should not rely on ourselves but on God, who raises up the dead,
 10. who delivered us from so great a death, and does deliver, in whom we hope that He will yet deliver,
 11. you also laboring together for us in prayer, so that by many people, He might be thanked on your behalf for the grace given to us for many.
- ¶12. For our boast is this: the testimony of our conscience, that with simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have conducted ourselves in the world, and all the more toward you.
13. And we are writing no other things to you but what you either read or acknowledge, and I hope that you will always acknowledge them even to the end,
 14. even as you have acknowledged us, to an extent, because we are your boasting, as you are ours, in the day of the Lord Jesus.
- ¶15. And in this confidence, I intended to come to you first, so that you might have a second blessing;
16. that is, to pass from you into Macedonia, and from Macedonia to come to you again, and then by you to be sent on to Judea.
 17. In planning this, was I vacillating? Or the things that I plan, do I plan them after the flesh, so that with me there is “Yes, yes” and “No, no”?

18. God is a faithful witness, that our message to you was not “Yes and no”.
 19. For Jesus Christ, the Son of God who was preached among you by us—by me, and Silvanus, and Timothy—was not yes and then no. Not at all! In him is yes!
 20. For however many God’s promises are, in him they are yes, and in him the “Amen” is given to God through us for His glory.
 21. Now He who establishes us with you in Christ, and anointed us, is God,
 22. who also sealed us and put the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.
- ¶23. I call on God as witness upon my soul that the reason I have not yet come to Corinth is to spare you.
24. Not that we lord it over your faith; we are only helpers of your joy, for by faith you stand.

2Corinthians 2

- ¶1. For I determined this within myself, not to come to you again in heaviness.
 2. But if I do make you sorrowful, then who is he who makes me glad, except the one made sorrowful by me?
 3. And having confidence in you all, I wrote this very thing to you so that at my coming, I might not have sorrow from those who ought to give me joy, because my joy comes from all of you.
 4. I wrote to you through many tears, out of great distress and anguish of heart, not that you should be grieved but that you might know the abundant love I have for you.
- ¶5. Now if anyone has caused sorrow, he has not caused me sorrow, but in part, lest I lay a burden on you all.
6. Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, inflicted by most of you,
 7. so that you ought rather to forgive and comfort him, lest such a man be swallowed up by excessive sorrow.
 8. So now, I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.
 9. It was also for this reason that I wrote, that I might know your character, whether you are obedient in all things.
 10. Now, to whom you forgive anything, I do as well. For if I have forgiven anything, whatever I have forgiven, it was forgiven for your sakes in the sight of Christ,
 11. lest we be outwitted by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his devices.
- ¶12. After I had come to Troas for the gospel of Christ, although a door was opened to me by the Lord,
13. I had no rest in my spirit, being unable to find my brother Titus. And so, bidding them farewell, I departed for Macedonia.
 14. But thanks be to God who, in Christ, always leads us in Triumph and makes the fragrance of His knowledge known in every place through us.

15. For we are, to God, the sweet fragrance of Christ among those who are being saved and among those who are being lost;
16. to these, an odor of death leading to death, but to those, a fragrance of life leading to life. And yet, who is sufficient for these things?
17. We are not as the many, peddling the word of God, but we speak sincerely in Christ in the sight of God, as from God.

2Corinthians 3

- ¶1. Are we, in turn, beginning to recommend ourselves? Or is it that we need, as some do, letters of recommendation to you, or recommendations from you?
2. You yourselves are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men,
 3. opened because you are a letter from Christ delivered by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.
 4. Through Christ, we have such confidence toward God
 5. because we are not competent in ourselves to determine anything by ourselves; on the contrary, our sufficiency is of God,
 6. who also has made us capable ministers of a new covenant, not of letter but of spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.
 7. Now, if the ministry of death by letters engraved on stones came with glory, so that the children of Israel were not able to gaze at Moses' face because of the glory on his face (which ministry is being brought to an end),
 8. how shall the ministry of the Spirit not be more glorious?
 9. For if the ministry of condemnation be glory, much more does the ministry of righteousness overflow with glory.
 10. Indeed, that which was once made glorious has been made not glorious in this regard: on account of the surpassing glory.
 11. And certainly, if that which is being done away with was glorious, much more glorious is that which lasts.
- ¶12. Therefore, having such hope, we use great plainness of speech,
13. not the way Moses put a veil over his face to keep the children of Israel from gazing at the end of that which is passing away,
 14. but their minds were blinded, and even until this very day, in the reading of the Old Testament, the same veil remains, not taken away, which thing is removed in Christ.
 15. Yea, to this day, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart.
 16. But if ever their heart turns to the Lord, the veil will be lifted off.
 17. Now, the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
 18. And all of us, with unveiled face contemplating as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed, even as by the Lord—the Spirit—from glory to glory, into the same image.

2Corinthians 4

- ¶1. Therefore, having this ministry, as we have received mercy, we are not discouraged.
2. Moreover, we have renounced shameful, secret things, not walking in craftiness nor adulterating the word of God, but by manifestation of the truth, commanding ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.
3. And if our gospel is hidden, it is hidden to those who are being lost,
4. through whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unfaithful, so that they cannot behold the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God.
5. For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and ourselves your slaves for Jesus' sake.
6. For the God who commanded light to shine out of darkness has shone in our hearts, to give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.
- ¶7. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the extraordinary power may be of God and not of us.
8. We are pressed on every side, but not crushed; confused, but not confounded;
9. persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed;
10. always carrying around the death of the Lord Jesus in the body, that the life of Jesus might also be manifested in our body.
11. For we who live are constantly turned over to death because of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus might also be manifested in our mortal flesh.
12. So, while death is working in us, life works in you.
13. And having the same spirit of faith, as it is written, "I believed; therefore I spoke," we also believe; therefore, we also speak,
14. knowing that He who raised up the Lord Jesus shall also raise us up through Jesus, and shall bring us with you into His presence.
15. All things are for you, so that grace, multiplied, might cause thanksgiving to abound through many to the glory of God.
- ¶16. Wherefore, we are not discouraged, for even if our outer man is wasting away, still our inner man is renewed day by day.
17. For our momentary, light affliction is producing for us a weight of eternal glory that is beyond all comprehension,
18. while we do not look at things that are seen, but at things that are not seen, for things that are seen are temporal, but things that are not seen are eternal.

2Corinthians 5

- ¶1. For we know that if our earthly home, a tent, be taken down, we have a building from God, a house not made by hand, eternal in the heavens.
2. And in this house we groan, longing to be clothed with our home that is from heaven,
3. if indeed, once we are clothed, we shall not be found naked.

4. To be sure, we do groan, burdened while we are in this tent, not because we desire to be unclothed, but to be clothed upon, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.
 5. Now the One who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who indeed has given us the earnest of the Spirit.
 6. Therefore, we are always confident, knowing certainly that while we are at home in the body, we are away from home and the Lord.
 7. For we walk by faith, not by sight;
 8. nevertheless, we are confident, and we prefer rather to leave this home of the body and to be at home with the Lord.
 9. Wherefore, we very much value, whether at home or away from home, the honor of being well-pleasing to him.
 10. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each may receive recompense for the things done in the body, according to what he did, whether good or bad.
- ¶11. Knowing, therefore, the terror of the Lord, we persuade men, and we are made well known by God; and I hope to be made well known also to your consciences.
12. Again, we certainly are not commanding ourselves to you; rather, we are giving you opportunity to boast of us, so that you might have an answer for those who boast in appearance and not in heart.
 13. If we be out of our mind, it is to God, or if we be in our right mind, it is to you.
 14. The love of Christ compels us, having concluded this, that inasmuch as one man died for all, all were as good as dead.
 15. And he died for all so that those who are living might no longer live for themselves but for the one who died for them, and was raised up.
 16. Therefore, from now on, we know no one after the flesh. Though we have known even Christ after the flesh, yet now, we no longer know him that way.
 17. Therefore, if anyone be in Christ, he is a new creature. Old things are gone; behold, all things are new.
 18. And all things are from God who reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation;
 19. to wit, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not reckoning to them their trespasses, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.
- ¶20. So then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were making an appeal through us. We beseech you in Christ's stead: be reconciled to God!
21. Him who knew no sin, God made sin for us, so that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

- ¶1. And working together with him, we too entreat you not to receive the grace of God in vain;

2. for it says, “At the acceptable time, I heard you, and in the day of salvation, I helped you.” Behold, now is “the acceptable time”! Behold, now is “the day of salvation”!
3. We give no cause for stumbling in any thing so that the ministry is not discredited.
4. On the contrary, in everything, we commend ourselves as ministers of God; with much perseverance in persecutions, in hardships, in distresses,
5. in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in sleepless nights, in times of hunger,
6. with purity, with knowledge, with patience, with kindness, with a holy spirit, with genuine love,
7. by the word of truth, by power from God, with offensive and defensive weapons of righteousness,
8. through honor and dishonor, through evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true;
9. as unknown, and yet well-known; as dying, and yet here we are, alive; as chastened, and yet not put to death;
10. as sorrowful, but always rejoicing; as poor, but making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

¶11. O Corinthians, our mouth is opened to you, our heart is enlarged.

12. You are not restricted by us; you are restricted by your own feelings.

13. Return the same love (I speak as to children); you be enlarged, too.

¶14. Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers, for what is there in common between righteousness and lawlessness? What fellowship has light with darkness?

15. What harmony exists between Christ and Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever?

16. What compact does the temple of God make with idols? For you yourselves are the temple of the living God, as God said: “I will live and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.”

17. Wherefore, “Come out from their midst and be separate, says the LORD, and do not touch the unclean thing, and I will receive you.

18. And I will be your Father, and you shall be my sons and daughters, says the LORD Almighty.”

2Corinthians 7

¶1. Therefore, beloved people, having these promises, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

¶2. Receive us! We have wronged no one; we have corrupted no one; we have taken advantage of no one.

3. I am not saying this to condemn you, for I have already said that you are in our hearts, to die or to live with you.

4. Great is my openness with you; great is my boasting of you; I am filled with encouragement; I overflow with joy in all our trouble.
- ¶5. When we came into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest; on the contrary, we were pressed on every side—conflicts without, fears within.
6. But God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by the arrival of Titus,
7. and not only by his coming but also by the comfort with which he was comforted concerning you, as he related to us your longing, your mourning, and your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced all the more.
8. For even if I caused you sorrow with the letter, I do not regret it (though I did have second thoughts), for I see that the letter grieved you only for a time.
9. I rejoice now, not that you were made sorrowful but that you sorrowed to repentance, for you were made sorrowful in a godly manner so that you were not harmed in any way by us.
10. For godly sorrow produces repentance unto an irrevocable salvation, but worldly sorrow produces death.
11. Behold, how much earnestness this very thing, your feeling godly sorrow, has produced in you! What a vindication of yourselves! What indignation! What fear! What fervent desire! What zeal! What punishment! In every respect, you have proved yourselves to be innocent in this matter.
12. You see, even though I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of the one who did the wrong, nor even for the one who was wronged, but to have your earnestness for us manifested among you in the sight of God.
13. We are comforted by this.
¶Besides comfort from you, we rejoiced even more because of Titus 'joy, for his spirit was refreshed by you all.
14. For whatever boast I made to him concerning you, I was not put to shame. To the contrary, as all things we have spoken to you are true, so our boasting of you before Titus has been proved true as well.
15. And his affection for you increases all the more as he remembers the obedient response of you all, how you received him with fear and trembling.
16. I am glad that in everything, I can depend on you.

2Corinthians 8

- ¶1. Moreover, brothers, we would have you know about the grace of God that has been bestowed on the assemblies of Macedonia,
2. how that during a great ordeal of suffering, the abundance of their joy, though in the depths of poverty, overflowed unto a wealth of generosity on their part.
3. I bear witness that according to their means, and beyond their means, of their own free will,

4. with much entreaty, they besought of us the favor and fellowship in this ministry for the saints,
 5. and not just as we expected, but they entrusted their own selves to the Lord first, and then to us by the will of God.
 6. So, we urged Titus that as he had previously begun, so he also might complete this grace among you.
 7. And just as you abound in everything—in faith, and in speech, and in knowledge, and in all diligence, and in the love that comes from you to us—then abound in this grace also.
 8. I am saying this not as a commandment, but as measuring the sincerity of your love by the earnestness of others.
 9. For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that for your sakes he, although rich, became poor so that you, through his poverty, might become rich.
 10. Now, I give my opinion about this matter: it is profitable for you, who began more than a year ago not only to do this, but also to want to do it.
 11. So, finish doing it now, so that just as there was a readiness to will, there may also be a completion, out of what you have.
 12. For if there exists the willingness, it is acceptable according to what a man has, not according to what he does not have.
 13. For it is not that others should be relieved and you burdened, but as a matter of equality; for the time being, your abundance meeting their need,
 14. that those people's abundance might meet your need, thus making an equality.
 15. As it is written, “He who gathered much had no extra, and he who gathered little had no lack.”
- ¶16. Thanks be to God, who put the same deep concern for you into the heart of Titus.
17. For he welcomed my exhortation; indeed, being more than eager, of his own will he went to you.
 18. Now we sent along with him the brother whose praise in the gospel is throughout the Assemblies,
 19. and not only that, but he has also been hand-picked by the Assemblies as our traveling companion with this gift that is ministered by us for the glory of the Lord himself, and as proof of our goodwill,
 20. avoiding this, that anyone should find fault with us regarding this liberal gift which is being delivered by us,
 21. taking into consideration what is honorable, not only before the Lord but also before men.
 22. And with them, we have sent our brother, whom we have often proved zealous in many situations and is now much more zealous, with great confidence in you.

23. If any ask of Titus, he is my partner and my fellow-worker for you; if any ask of our brothers, they are apostles of the Assemblies, the glory of Christ.
24. Therefore, in the sight of God's Assemblies, give them the proof of your love, and of our boasting about you.

2Corinthians 9

- ¶1. Now, it is superfluous for me to write to you about the ministry for the saints,
2. for I know your eagerness, which is the reason for my boasting about you to the Macedonians, “Achaia has been ready for over a year.” And your zeal stirred up many of them.
 3. But I sent the brothers so that our boasting of you in this matter would not prove to be empty so that you might be prepared, as I have been saying.
 4. Otherwise, if some of the Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we (not to mention you) might be embarrassed for boasting in this situation.
 5. Consequently, I considered it expedient to exhort the brothers to go on ahead to you and prepare in advance your generous gift spoken of before, that it might be ready, and so, be as a gift given generously, and not grudgingly.
- ¶6. But remember this: He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows generously will also reap generously.
7. Let each one give as he has determined in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.
 8. God is able to make every grace abound to you, so that in every way, all the time, having every needed thing, you might have a surplus for every good work.
 9. As it is written, “He scattered abroad; he has given to the needy; his righteousness remains forever.”
 10. May He who furnishes seed to the sower provide bread for your food, and multiply your seed, and increase the yield of your righteousness,
 11. in every way enriched for all generosity, which is, through us, producing thanksgiving to God.
 12. For the ministry of this holy service does not merely satisfy the needs of the saints but overflows, through many, with thanksgivings to God besides,
 13. and through the approved character of this ministry, they will glorify God because of your professed submission to the gospel of Christ and for the simple goodness of your contribution to them, and to all men,
 14. and in their prayer for you, feeling deep affection for you because of the extraordinary grace of God that is upon you.
 15. But thanks be to God for His unspeakable gift!

2Corinthians 10

- ¶1. Now I myself, Paul, entreat you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, I who am lowly when present among you but bold toward you when absent.
2. I pray that, when I am present, I need not be bold with the confidence with which I intend to show boldness to certain ones who regard us as if we walk after the flesh.
 3. For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh,
 4. for the weapons of our warfare are not fleshly but powerful through God for the tearing down of strongholds,
 5. demolishing sophistries and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and taking every thought into captivity for obedience to Christ,
 6. being ready also to avenge all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled.
 7. Do you look at things by the appearance? If anyone is convinced within himself that he is of Christ, he should remind himself of this, that just as he is of Christ, so also are we of Christ.
 8. And even if I do boast somewhat excessively concerning our authority (which the Lord gave us for edification and not for your destruction), I will not be put to shame—
 9. so that you might not feel that you are being terrorized by letters.
 10. “The letters”, he says, “are indeed weighty and powerful, but his physical presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.”
 11. Such a man may count on this, that just as we are in word by letters while absent, so also shall we be in deed when present.
 12. For we dare not contrast or compare ourselves with certain people who commend themselves; but they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, do not understand.
 13. As for us, we will not boast without limits, but only within the limits of the purview which God has measured out for us—a measure that reaches even as far as you.
 14. It is not as though, in coming to you, we are overreaching ourselves, for we preceded all men in coming to you with the gospel of Christ,
 15. not vaunting ourselves beyond our limits in the labors of others, but hoping that as your faith grows, we may be magnified all the more by you who are within our purview,
 16. to proclaim the gospel in regions beyond you, rather than boast in things already laid out for us within another man’s purview.
 17. But, “He who boasts, let him boast in the LORD.”
 18. For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but he whom the Lord commends.

2Corinthians 11

- ¶1. I want you to put up with foolishness from me for a moment, but then, you really are putting up with me.

2. I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy, for I betrothed you to one husband, to present a chaste virgin to Christ.
3. But I fear, lest, as the serpent led Eve astray by his craftiness, so your thoughts likewise be led astray from the simplicity that is in Christ.
4. For if a man comes preaching another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or you receive a different spirit, which you did not receive, or a different gospel, which you did not accept, you put up with him very easily.
5. I consider myself to be in no way inferior to those super-apostles.¹
6. And even if I am unskilled in speech, I am not in knowledge; on the contrary, always, in every way, we have been made known to you.
7. Did I commit a sin in humbling myself so that you might be exalted, in that I preached the gospel of God to you without charge?
8. I robbed other Assemblies, taking wages from them in order to serve you.
9. And when I was there with you, and in need, I was not a burden to anyone, for when the brothers from Macedonia came, they fully supplied my need, and I kept myself, and I will keep myself in every way, from being burdensome to you.
10. As the truth of Christ is in me, this boasting of mine shall not be silenced in the regions of Achaia.
11. Why is this? Because I do not love you? God knows.
12. What I am doing, I will keep doing so that I might cut off the pretext from those who want a pretext, in order that in the thing in which they boast, they may be found just like us.
13. For such men are pseudo-apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ.
14. And no wonder, for Satan transforms himself into a messenger of light.
15. So, it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves to be like ministers of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works.
- ¶16. On the other hand, I say, let no one consider me foolish; and yet, if so, then receive me as foolish, so that I may boast a little more.
17. What I am saying with this grandiose boasting, I am not saying as from the Lord, but as foolishly.
18. Since many are boasting according to the flesh, I, too, will boast.
19. After all, you, being sagacious, cheerfully tolerate those who are foolish.
20. For you put up with it if someone reduces you to slavery, if someone devours you, if someone takes from you, if someone exalts himself, if someone strikes you in the face.

¹ Or, “the greatest apostles”, if Paul is referring to legitimate apostles.

21. In shame, I say that we behaved timidly. But now, in whatever someone else is bold (I speak foolishly), I am bold, too.
22. Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they seed of Abraham? So am I.
23. Are they ministers of Christ? (I am talking like a madman.) I am more. In labors more abundant, in stripes more numerous, in prisons more frequently, in many deaths.
24. Five times, I received forty lashes, minus one, at the hands of the Jews;
25. three times, I was beaten with rods; once I was stoned; three times I was shipwrecked; a night and a day I have spent in the deep;
26. on many journeys, in dangers on rivers, in dangers from bandits, in dangers from my own race, in dangers from the Gentiles, in dangers in the city, in dangers in the wilderness, in dangers on the sea, in dangers among false brothers,
27. through toil and hardship, through many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, often without food, in cold and nakedness.
28. Apart from these external things, there is daily insurrection against me, the concern for all the Assemblies.
29. Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is offended, and I am not indignant?
30. If I must boast, I will boast about things that show my weakness.
31. The God and Father of the Lord Jesus Christ, He who is praised forever, knows that I am not lying.
32. In Damascus, the ethnarch under Aretas the king, secured the city of the Damascenes, ready to arrest me,
33. and I was lowered through a window along the city wall in a braided basket, and escaped his hands.

2Corinthians 12

- ¶1. Of course, to boast does me no good, so I will move on to visions and revelations of the Lord.
2. I know a man in Christ, over fourteen years ago—if in the body, I do not know, or if out of the body, I do not know; God knows. Such a man was caught up to the third heaven.
3. And I know such a man—whether in the body or out of the body, I do not know; God knows,
4. how that he was snatched up into Paradise and heard inexpressible things which are unlawful for a man to speak.
5. Of such a man will I boast, but of myself I will not boast, other than boasting of my weaknesses.
6. If I should choose to boast, I will not be foolish, for I will tell the truth; but I restrain myself, lest someone should hold me in higher regard than what he sees in me or what he hears from me.

7. And because of the extraordinary nature of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me so that I would not become exalted, a messenger of Satan sent to torment me, lest I exalt myself.
 8. Three times, I besought the Lord concerning this, that it might depart from me.
 9. Then he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my strength is perfected in weakness." Most gladly, then, will I rather boast in my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ might dwell in me.
 10. So then, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in distresses, in persecutions, in troubles for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong.
- ¶11. I have done foolishly in boasting, but you compelled me. For my recommendation ought to have come from you, for in nothing am I inferior to these super-apostles, although I am nothing.
12. With all patience, the signs of a true apostle were performed among you, with miracles, wonders, and works of power.
 13. In what way, then, were you less privileged than the rest of the Assemblies, except that I was not burdensome to you? Forgive me this wrong.
- ¶14. Behold, I am ready to come to you a third time, and I will not be a burden to you, for I do not seek yours, but you. Besides, children ought not to lay up treasure for the parents, but the parents for the children.
15. And I most gladly will spend and be spent for your souls, although the more I love you, the less I am loved.
 16. Well, so be it; I have not been a burden to you. On the contrary, being a deceitful fellow, I caught you with guile.
 17. Did I take advantage of you by any of them that I sent to you?
 18. I urged Titus, and with him I sent the brother. Titus did not take advantage of you, did he? Did we not walk in the same Spirit? Did we not take the same steps?
- ¶19. Do you think that we are defending ourselves to you again? We are speaking before God in Christ. All things, dearly beloved, are for the sake of building you up.
20. I fear lest, when I arrive, I will find you such as I would not, and I will be found by you such as you would not; lest there be quarrels, envyings, angry outbursts, bickerings, back-bitings, gossipy whisperings, self-exaltations, tumults,
 21. lest when I come again, my God humbles me before you, and I mourn over many who have already sinned and not repented of the uncleanness, immorality, and self-abandonment they have practiced.

2Corinthians 13

- ¶1. This is the third time I am coming to you. "By the mouth of two witnesses, or three, every matter is to be established."

2. I said before, while present the second time, and now I say beforehand, though absent (I am writing to those who have already sinned, as well as to all the rest): if I come again, I will not spare,
 3. since you desire proof of Christ speaking in me (he is not weak in you, but is mighty in you).
 4. For though he was crucified in weakness, he lives by the power of God. And we also are weak with him; nevertheless, we shall live with him by the power of God that is on its way to you.
 5. Put yourselves to the test, whether you are in the faith; prove your own selves! Or do you yourselves not know that Jesus Christ is in you—unless you are reprobates?
 6. I expect that you will find that we are not reprobates.
 7. Now, I pray to God that you do nothing wrong, not that we might appear to be approved, but just so that you might do good, even if we ourselves are reprobates.
 8. For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.
 9. So, we rejoice whenever we are weak and you are strong; and for this we pray, even your perfection.
 10. This is why I am writing these things while absent, so that when I am present, I might not have to use with severity the power which the Lord gave me for building up, not for tearing down.
- ¶11. Finally, brothers, be happy; get yourselves in order; encourage one another; be like-minded; live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.
12. Greet one another with a holy kiss.
- ¶13. All the saints greet you.
- ¶14. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

Galatians

Galatians 1

- ¶1. Paul, an apostle, not of men, nor by man, but by Jesus Christ, and by God the Father, who raised him from the dead,
2. and all the brothers who are with me. To the Assemblies of Galatia:
3. Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ,
4. he who gave himself for our sins so that he might rescue us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father,
5. to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen!
- ¶6. I marvel that you are turning away so quickly from Him who called you by the grace of Christ to another gospel,
7. which is not another, but there are certain men who trouble you, determined to alter the gospel of Christ.
8. But even if we, or an angel from heaven, bring you a gospel contrary to the gospel we preached to you, let him be cursed!
9. As we have said before, and now I say again, if anyone brings you a gospel contrary to what you received, let him be cursed!
10. Am I trusting now in men or God? Or am I seeking to please men? For if I were still pleasing men, I would not be a servant of Christ.
- ¶11. I would have you to know, brothers, regarding the gospel preached by me, that it is not according to man.
12. For I neither received it from a man, nor was I taught it, but I received it by revelation from Jesus Christ.
13. You have heard of my former conduct in Judaism, that I ruthlessly and relentlessly persecuted the Assembly of God and was trying to destroy it,
14. and I was advancing in Judaism beyond many my own age in my nation, being much more zealous for the traditions of my fathers.
15. But when God, who set me apart from my mother's womb and called me by His grace, was pleased
16. to reveal His Son to me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood,
17. nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; rather, I went away into Arabia, and then returned again to Damascus.
- ¶18. Then, after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to become acquainted with Peter, and I stayed with him fifteen days,
19. but I saw none of the other apostles except James, the Lord's brother.
20. Now, the things I am writing to you, behold, before God, I am not lying!
21. Afterwards, I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia.
22. But I was unknown by face to the Assemblies in Judea that are in Christ,

23. only they kept hearing that “the man who used to persecute us is now preaching the faith he once tried to destroy.”
24. And they glorified God because of me.

Galatians 2

- ¶1. Then, fourteen years later, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along also.
2. I went up because of a revelation, and I laid out to them the gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to those of reputation, lest I was running, or had run, in vain.
3. But even Titus, who was with me, though he was Greek, was not compelled to be circumcised,
4. in spite of false brothers stealthily brought in, who slipped in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus so that they might enslave us,
5. to whom we did not yield in submission even for a moment so that the truth of the gospel might continue for you.
6. But as for those esteemed to be something—whatever they were, it makes no difference to me (God accepts no man’s person)—those esteemed men added nothing to me.
7. On the contrary, once they saw that I had been entrusted with the gospel of the uncircumcision, as the gospel of the circumcision was to Peter
8. (for He who worked in Peter for the apostleship of the circumcised worked also in me for the Gentiles),
9. and acknowledging the grace that was given to me, James, Cephas, and John, who were esteemed as pillars, gave right hands of fellowship to me and to Barnabas, that we should go to the Gentiles, but they, to the circumcision;
10. only they asked that we remember the poor, which very thing I was eager to do.
- ¶11. And then, when Peter came to Antioch, I withstood him to the face because he was blameworthy.
12. For prior to the coming of certain men from James, he ate with the Gentiles, but when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those of the circumcision.
13. And the rest of the Jews played the hypocrite with him as well, so that even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy.
14. But when I saw that they did not walk uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before them all, “If you, being a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, why are you putting pressure on the Gentiles to become Jews?”
15. We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,
16. knowing that a man is not justified by works of a law, but through faith in Jesus Christ, we also have trusted in Christ Jesus that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law. Therefore, by works of law will no flesh be justified!
17. But if while seeking to be justified by Christ, we ourselves are also found to be sinners, is Christ therefore a minister of sin? Absolutely not!
18. For if I build again the things I tore down, I make myself a transgressor.
19. Through the law, I died to the law, that I might live to God.

20. I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless, I live. Yet, not I, but Christ is living in me; and the life I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.
21. I do not nullify the grace of God; for if righteousness is by law, then Christ died for no reason."

Galatians 3

- ¶1. O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you, that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly proclaimed among you as crucified?
2. This only would I learn of you. Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law or by the preaching of faith?
3. Are you so foolish? Having begun in spirit, are you now perfected by flesh?
4. Did you suffer so much for nothing? (If it yet be for nothing.)
5. So then, he who ministers to you the Spirit and works miracles among you, does he do it by works of the law or by the preaching of faith?
6. Even as "Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness."¹
7. Know, then, that they who are of faith are the sons of Abraham.
8. And the Scripture, foreseeing God justifying the Gentiles by faith, proclaimed the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, "In you, all the nations shall be blessed."²
9. So then, those who are of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.
10. For as many as are of works of the law are under a curse, for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things written in the book of the law, to do them."³
11. That no one is justified with God by law is obvious, for "The righteous shall live by faith,"⁴
12. but the law is not "by faith"; instead, "The man who has kept these things shall live by them."⁵
13. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law (becoming a curse for us, for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree"⁶),
14. so that in Christ Jesus, the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, namely, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.
- ¶15. Humanly speaking, brothers, though a contract be but man's, once it has been ratified, no one annuls or amends it.
16. Now, the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his "seed".⁷ He did not say, "and to seeds", as to many, but as to one, "and to your seed", which is Christ.
17. And this I say: a covenant concerning Christ having already been ratified by God, the law, coming four hundred and thirty years later, does not invalidate, so as to negate the promise.

¹ Gen. 15:6.

² Gen. 12:3.

³ Dt. 27:26

⁴ Hab. 2:4.

⁵ Lev. 18:5.

⁶ Dt. 21:23.

⁷ Gen. 12:7.

18. If the inheritance is by law, it is no longer by promise; but God, by a promise, freely gave it to Abraham.
19. Why, then, the law? It was added because of transgressions, until “the seed” to whom the promise was made should come, it being ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator.
20. (Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one.)
21. Does this mean that the law is contrary to the promises of God? Absolutely not! For if there was a law given that was able to impart life, righteousness would certainly have been by the law.
22. But Scripture imprisoned everything under sin so that the promise, by faith in Jesus Christ, might be given to those who believe.
- ¶23. Before the faith came, we were held in custody under law, locked up together until the coming faith was revealed.
24. So then, the law was our guardian leading to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.
25. But now that the faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian.
26. So then, you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus,
27. for as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.
28. There is neither Jew nor Greek, neither slave nor freeman, nor male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.
29. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham’s seed, and heirs because of the promise.

Galatians 4

- ¶1. But I say, as long as the heir is a minor, he differs in no respect from a slave, though he be owner of everything;
2. indeed, he is under guardians and stewards until the time predetermined by the father.
3. So also we, when we were not yet of age, were enslaved under the elements of the world,
4. but when the fullness of time came, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under law,
5. that He might redeem those under law, so that we might receive adoption as sons.
6. And because you are sons, God sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying, “Abba!” (that is, “Father!”)
7. So then, you are no longer a slave but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God—through Christ.
- ¶8. Yes, formerly, when you did not know God, you lived as slaves to things which by nature are not divine,
9. but now, having come to know God—or rather, having been known by God—how is it that you want to return again to live—again!—as slaves to weak and worthless elements?
10. You observe days and months and seasons and years.
11. I am afraid for you, that I may have labored among you in vain.
- ¶12. I beg you, brothers, be as I am, for I also became as you are. You did not hurt me at all.
13. You know that through weakness of the flesh, I preached the gospel to you at the beginning,
14. and my trial which was in my flesh, you did not despise nor reject; no, you embraced me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.
15. So, who was the source of your blessedness? For I bear you witness that if possible, you would have dug out your eyes and given them to me.

16. Have I now become your enemy because I tell you the truth?
17. They make much of you, but not for good; they want to exclude you so that you will make much of them.
18. Now, it is always a good thing to be made much of for a good purpose, and not only when I am present with you.
19. My little children, for whom I am suffering labor pains again until Christ be formed within you,
20. I desire to be with you now and to change my tone, for I am unsettled about you.

- ¶21. Tell me, you who desire to be under law, do you not hear the law?
22. For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the servant-girl and another by the free woman.
23. However, the one by the servant-girl was begotten after the flesh, while the one by the free woman was begotten through promise,
24. which things are meant as allegories: these women are two covenants, one from Mount Sinai who bears children into slavery, which is Hagar.
25. This Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and she corresponds to present-day Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children.
26. But the Jerusalem above is free, which is the mother of us all,
27. for it is written, “Rejoice, O barren woman who does not bear! Break out and shout, you who suffer no labor pains! For the children of the desolate are many more than the children of her who has a husband.”⁸
28. Now we, brothers, are children of promise, as was Isaac.
29. However, just as then, the one who was born after the flesh persecuted the one born after the Spirit, so it is now as well.
30. But what does the Scripture say? “Cast out this slave-girl with her son! For the son of this slave-girl shall not inherit” with the son of the free-woman.⁹
31. Wherefore, brothers, we are not sons of the slave-girl, but of the free-woman.

Galatians 5

1. Therefore, stand fast in the liberty with which Christ has made us free, and do not submit again to a yoke of bondage!

- ¶2. Behold, I, Paul, am telling you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will become worthless to you!
3. I testify again to every man who is circumcised that he is obligated to keep the entire law.
4. You are estranged from Christ, you who are justified by law; you have fallen from grace.
5. For we await the hope of righteousness by faith in the Spirit.
6. In Christ Jesus, neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is worth anything, but faith expressed through love.

- ¶7. You were running well; who hindered you from obeying the truth?

⁸ Isa. 54:1.

⁹ Gen. 21:10.

8. This persuasion is not from Him who calls you.
9. A little leaven leavens the whole lump.
10. I have confidence in you in the Lord, that you will think no other way; but, the one who is troubling you will bear his judgment, whoever he may be.
11. As for me, brothers, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case, then the offense of the cross is done away with.
12. I would that those who are troubling you were cut off!

- ¶13. You were called to liberty, brothers, only do not use that liberty as a pretext for the flesh; instead, through love, live as slaves to one another.
14. For the entire law is summed up in one statement, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."¹⁰
15. But if you bite and gnaw at each other, beware that you be not consumed by one another.

- ¶16. Now, I say, walk in the Spirit, and you will not carry out the desire of the flesh.
17. For the flesh desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit desires what is contrary to the flesh. These are opposed to one another, so that things you may desire, you do not do.
18. But if you are led by the Spirit,¹¹ you are not under a law.
19. Now, the works of the flesh are obvious, which are: adultery, immorality, uncleanness, licentiousness,
20. idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, emulation, angry outbursts, rivalries, disputes, divisions,
21. envy, murder, bouts of drunkenness, revelings, and things like these, concerning which things I forewarn you, as I also warned you previously, that those who practice such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.
22. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, gentleness, kindness, faith,
23. meekness, self-control. Against such there is no law.
24. And they who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh, along with its passions and its desires.
25. If we live by the Spirit, then let us agree with the Spirit.
26. Let us not be conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

Galatians 6

- ¶1. Brothers, if a man be overtaken in some transgression, you who are spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of meekness, considering yourself, lest you also be tempted.
2. Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.
3. For if anyone considers himself to be something when he is nothing, he is deceiving himself.
4. Let each one examine his own work, and then he will have something to boast of in himself alone, and not in someone else,
5. for each one will bear his own load.

- ¶6. He who is taught the Word is to contribute a portion of all his goods to him who teaches.

¹⁰ Lev. 19:18.

¹¹ Or, "if you are led in spirit".

7. Do not be deceived; God is not mocked. Whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap,
 8. for he who sows to his flesh shall from the flesh reap destruction, but he who sows to the Spirit shall from the Spirit reap eternal life.
 9. Let us not grow weary in well-doing, for in due time, we shall reap if we do not faint.
 10. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good toward all men, but especially toward those of the household of faith.
- ¶11. You see with what large letters I have written to you by my own hand.
12. As many as desire to put on a good show in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised, but only so they might not suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.
 13. For even those who are circumcised do not themselves keep the law, but they want you to be circumcised so that they might boast in your flesh.
 14. But far be it from me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world.
 15. For in Christ Jesus, neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is worth anything, but being a new creature is.
 16. And as many as will conform to this rule, peace be upon them, and mercy, even upon the Israel of God.
- ¶17. Finally, let no one bring troubles on me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.
18. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

Ephesians

Ephesians 1

- ¶1. Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God. To the saints who are in Ephesus and are faithful in Christ Jesus:
2. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
- ¶3. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in Christ has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in heaven,
4. for in him, He chose us before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before Him in love,
5. having predestined us to adoption as His sons through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of His will,
6. for the praise of the glory of His grace, by which He has blessed us in the Beloved,
7. in whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the richness of His grace,
8. which, in all wisdom and understanding, He abundantly shed on us,
9. once He had made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure, which He put on display in him,
10. for the administration of the fullness of time, to sum up all things in Christ, things in heaven and things on earth,
11. in him in whom we also are given an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His own will,
12. so that we might exist, unto the praise of His glory, who first hoped in Christ,
13. in whom also, after you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation in which you also believed, you were sealed with the holy Spirit of promise,
14. which¹ is the down payment on our inheritance until the redemption of the acquired property, for the praise of His glory.
- ¶15. For this reason, I also, having heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints,
16. do not cease giving thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,
17. that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, might give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in His knowledge,
18. the eyes of your heart being enlightened so that you might know what is the hope of His calling, and what is the richness of the glory of His inheritance among the saints,
19. and what is the surpassing greatness of His power toward us who believe, by the working of His mighty power

¹ Byzantine text has “who”.

20. which He wrought in Christ when He raised him from the dead and set him at His right hand in heaven,
21. far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world but also in the one to come,
22. and He subjected all things under his feet and appointed him head of all things in the Assembly of God,
23. which is his body, the fullness of Him who fills all things with all things.

Ephesians 2

- ¶1. And you were dead in the transgressions and sins
2. in which you once walked, according to the Aeon of this world, the ruler of the domain of the air, the spirit of the one now working in the sons of disobedience,
 3. among whom we all also once lived in the lusts of our flesh, carrying out the desires of our flesh and imaginations (by nature, we Jews also are children of wrath, just like the rest),
 4. but God, being rich in mercy because of His great love with which He loved us
 5. (we Jews also being dead in transgressions), made us alive together with Christ—by grace you are saved—
 6. He raised us up together and sat us down together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus,
 7. that He might show throughout the coming ages the overflowing richness of His grace by the kindness bestowed upon us in Christ Jesus.
 8. For you are saved by grace, through faith. And this, not of yourselves; it is the gift of God,
 9. not of works, lest anyone should boast.
 10. For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand so that we might walk in them.
- ¶11. Wherefore, remember that when you were Gentiles in the flesh (who are called “uncircumcision” by that which is called “circumcision” wrought in the flesh by hand),
12. you were at that time without Christ, being aliens to the state of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world.
 13. But now, in Christ Jesus, you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.
 14. For he is our peace, who made the two one and destroyed the middle wall of partition,
 15. having abolished in his flesh the enmity, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, so that he might create of those two one new man in himself, making peace.
 16. And that he might reconcile both to God in one body through the cross, having put to death the enmity by it,
 17. and after he was gone, he preached peace to you who were far off as well as to those who were near,

18. for through him, we both have access to the Father by one Spirit.
19. So then, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints, and members of the household of God,
20. built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the cornerstone,
21. in whom the whole building, being fit together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord,
22. in whom also you are being built up together for a dwelling place of God by the Spirit.

Ephesians 3

- ¶1. For this reason, I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for you Gentiles,
2. if indeed you have understood the stewardship of the grace of God that was given to me for you,
 3. that by revelation, the mystery was made known to me, even as I briefly wrote before,
 4. concerning which you are able, as you read, to perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ,
 5. which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men as it is now revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit:
 6. the Gentiles are to be fellow heirs, and of the same body, and partakers with the Jews of His promise in Christ, through the gospel,
 7. whose servant I have become, according to the gift of God's grace that was given to me by the operation of His power.
 8. To me, the least of all saints, was this grace given, to preach among the Gentiles the incomprehensible richness of Christ
 9. and to enlighten all men as to what is the plan of the mystery that has been hidden from the Aeons by the God who created all things through Jesus Christ,
 10. so that through the Assembly of God, the multifaceted wisdom of God might now be made known to the rulers and authorities among heavenly beings,
 11. according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord,
 12. in whom we have boldness and access to God, with confidence, through faith in him.
 13. Wherefore, I, myself, beg you not to be discouraged over my sufferings for you, which is your glory.
- ¶14. For this reason do I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
15. of whom the whole family in heaven and on earth is named,
 16. that according to the richness of His glory, He might grant you power by His Spirit to be strengthened in the inner man
 17. (Christ dwells in your hearts through faith),
 18. being rooted and grounded in love, that you might be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and depth and height,
 19. and to know the love of Christ, which surpasses knowledge, so that you might be filled with all the fullness of God.

- ¶20. Now, to Him who has power to do infinitely more than all we ask or think, by the power that is working within us,
- 21. to Him be glory in the Assembly in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Ephesians 4

- ¶1. I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, exhort you to walk worthy of the calling to which you were called,
 - 2. with all humility and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love,
 - 3. making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the unifying bond of peace:
 - 4. one body, and one Spirit, just as you were also called to one hope of your calling;
 - 5. one Lord, one faith, one baptism,
 - 6. one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in us all.
- ¶7. Now, to each of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
 - 8. That is why it says, “When he ascended on high, he took captivity captive and gave gifts to men.”
 - 9. But how is it that “he ascended” except that he first also descended into the lower parts of the earth?
 - 10. The one who descended is the same one who ascended, far above all heavens so that he might fulfill all things.
 - 11. And he gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers
 - 12. for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for edification of the body of Christ
 - 13. until we all attain to the unity of the faith and the true knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the full stature of Christ,
 - 14. so that we no longer be children, tossed by waves and blown about by every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, by the cunning of deceitful contrivances.
 - 15. But speaking truth in love, let us grow in every way in him who is the head, Christ,
 - 16. from whom the whole body, fitted together and held together by the support of every ligament according to the work meted out to each individual member, produces the growth of the body for edification of itself in love.
- ¶17. This I say then, and testify in the Lord, that you are no longer to live the way other Gentiles live, in the vanity of their mind,
 - 18. having their understanding darkened, being aliens to the life of God through the ignorance that is in them because of the dullness of their heart,
 - 19. who, being dead to feelings, have given themselves to licentiousness, to perform with insatiable desire every kind of uncleanness.
 - 20. But you have not so learned Christ,

21. if indeed you have heard him and been taught by him, for the truth is in Jesus,
 22. that you are to put away, as concerns your former conduct, the old man who is corrupted by deceitful desires,
 23. and be renewed in the spirit of your mind,
 24. and that you put on the new man, who in God's likeness is created in true righteousness and holiness.
- ¶25. Wherefore, putting away lying, speak the truth, each one with his neighbor, for we are members of one another.
26. Be angry, but do not sin. The sun of your wrath is not to go down!
 27. Give no place to the Accuser.
 28. Let him who stole steal no more, but rather labor, doing honest work with his hands, that he might have something to give to him who is in need.
 29. No foul speech is to come out of your mouth, but only what is useful for edification, as the need may be, that it might minister grace to the hearers.
 30. And do not grieve the holy Spirit of God, by which you were sealed until the day of redemption.
 31. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and evil-speaking be put away from you, with all malice.
 32. And be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, just as God also forgave us, in Christ.

Ephesians 5

- ¶1. Be imitators of God, as dear children,
2. and live in love, as Christ also loved us and gave himself for us as an offering and a sacrifice to God for a fragrant aroma.
3. But let neither fornication—indeed, any uncleanness—nor covetousness be mentioned among you, as befits saints,
4. nor obscenity, nor foolish talking, or jesting, which are not appropriate; but rather, the giving of thanks.
5. For this you know, that no fornicator, or unclean person, or covetous person (who is an idolater) has an inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God.
6. Let no one deceive you with vain words, for the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience because of these things.
7. Do not be partakers with them!
8. For you once were darkness, but now, in the Lord, you are light. Live as children of light
9. (the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth),
10. proving what is acceptable to the Lord,
11. and have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather, expose them.

12. For the things done in secret by them are shameful even to say.
13. But everything exposed by the light comes to light; truly, everything that makes manifest is light.
14. And so, it says, “Get up, O sleeper, and rise from the dead, and Christ will give you light!”

- ¶15. Take heed, then, that you live carefully, not as fools, but as wise men,
16. redeeming the time, for the days are evil.
17. Therefore, do not be unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.
18. And do not be drunk on wine, in which is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit,
19. speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and playing in your heart to the Lord,
20. giving thanks always for all things to our God and Father, in the name of our Lord
Jesus Christ,
21. submitting yourselves to one another in the fear of Christ.

- ¶22. Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord,
23. for the husband is head of the wife, as Christ is head of the Assembly of God, and he is the Savior of the body.
24. Therefore, as the Assembly is submissive to Christ, so let the wives also be to their husbands in everything.
25. Husbands, love your own wives, just as Christ loved the Assembly and gave himself up for it,
26. that he might sanctify it, purifying it by the washing of spoken water,
27. that he himself might present it, with himself, as a glorious Assembly without spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing, but that it might be holy and blameless.
28. Men ought thus to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself,
29. for no one has ever hated his own body, but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord does the Assembly of God,
30. seeing we are members of his body, of his flesh and his bones.
31. “For this reason, a man shall leave his father and his mother and cleave to his wife, and they two shall be one body.”
32. This is a great mystery, but I am talking about Christ and the Assembly of God.
33. In any case, let each man among you love his wife as he loves himself. And let the wife reverence her husband.

Ephesians 6

- ¶1. Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.
2. “Honor your father and mother [which is the first commandment with a promise]
3. so that it might go well with you, and you might live long in the land.”

4. And fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.
 - ¶5. Slaves, submit to your human masters with fear and trembling, with sincerity of heart, as to Christ,
 6. not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but as slaves of Christ gladly doing the will of God,
 7. rendering service with good will, as to the Lord, and not to men,
 8. knowing that whatever good thing any man does, whether slave or free, he will receive the same from the Lord.
 9. And masters, in your dealings with them, leave off threatening, for you know that their Master—and yours—is in heaven, and there is no respect of persons with him.
 - ¶10. Finally, my brothers, be strong in the Lord, and live in the might of his strength.
 11. Put on the whole armor of God so that you will be able to stand against the machinations of the Slanderer.
 12. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the authorities, against the powers, against the dark world-rulers of this age, against evil spirits among heavenly beings.
 13. Therefore, take up the whole armor of God, that you might be able to withstand them in the evil time—and when you have done everything, to stand.
 14. Stand, therefore, having your loins girded about with truth, and putting on the breastplate of righteousness,
 15. and having your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace,
 16. and above all things, taking up the shield of faith, by which you will be able to quench all the flaming arrows of the evil one.
 17. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the expression of God,
 18. with all prayer and supplication praying always in the Spirit, and in the same, continuing with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints,
 19. and for me, that something might be given to me so that I might open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the gospel
 20. (for which I am an ambassador in chains), so that by it, I might speak boldly, as I ought to speak.
- ¶21. In order for you to know my affairs, how I am doing, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make everything known to you.
22. For this very purpose I have sent him to you, that you might know of our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.
 - ¶23. Peace to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24. Grace be with all who have an incorruptible love for our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Philippians

Philippians 1

- ¶1. Paul and Timothy, slaves of Jesus Christ. To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with the overseers and ministers:
2. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- ¶3. I give thanks to my God upon every remembrance of you,
4. always in every prayer of mine making supplication for all of you with joy
5. because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now,
6. confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus.
7. And it is only right for me to think this about you all because you keep me in mind, all of you being partakers of my grace with me, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel.
8. God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the feelings of Jesus Christ.
9. And this I pray, that your love might abound more and more, with sure knowledge and all discernment,
10. that you might put things that differ to the test so that you will be pure and blameless in the day of Christ,
11. filled with fruits of righteousness which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.
- ¶12. Now, brothers, I want you to know that the things which have befallen me have actually resulted in the furtherance of the gospel,
13. inasmuch as my imprisonment for Christ has become well-known throughout the Praetorium,¹ and to everyone else,
14. and most of the brothers in the Lord, persuaded by my bonds, have become much more courageous to speak the word fearlessly.
15. Some, to be sure, preach Christ through envy and strife, but then, some do so through good will;
16. the former proclaim Christ out of strife, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds,
17. but the latter do so out of love, knowing I am put here for the defense of the gospel.
18. What of it? In any case, in every way, whether with false motives or true, Christ is being publicized, and in this, I rejoice. Yes, and I will rejoice.
19. For I know that this will lead to deliverance for me, through your prayer and the aid of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

¹ The Praetorium served as quarters for the Praetorian Guard in Rome.

20. according to my earnest expectation and hope that in nothing will I be put to shame, but with all boldness, now as always, Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death.
21. For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain.
- ¶22. If I choose to live in the flesh, that will mean fruit from labor for me; and yet, I do not know what I shall choose.
23. I am hard pressed between the two, having the desire to depart and to be with Christ, which is far better,
24. but to remain here in the flesh is more needful for you.
25. And convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy in the faith,
26. so that by my coming to you again, your boasting in Christ Jesus with me may abound.
27. Only conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I might hear of your affairs, that you stand fast in one spirit, with one mind pressing onward together in the faith of the gospel
28. (and in no way intimidated by your opponents), which² is a sure sign of damnation to them, but of salvation to you—and that of God,
29. for it is given to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe in him but also to suffer for him,
30. engaging in the same struggle that you saw I had, and now you hear that I have.

Philippians 2

- ¶1. If, then, there be any comfort in Christ, if any solace of love, if any fellowship in spirit, if any tender affections and mercies,
2. make my joy complete, that you think the same thing, having the same love, as united souls, thinking one thing,
3. doing nothing through strife or vanity, but with humility, regarding one another as more important than yourselves.
4. Let each of you look not to his own interests, but each one also to the interests of others.
5. Let this mind be in you that was also in Christ Jesus,
6. who, although existing in the form of God, did not consider equality with God as something to be grasped after.
7. Instead, he divested himself, taking on the form of a slave, made in the likeness of men.
8. And being found as a man in appearance, he humbled himself and became obedient unto death—the death of a cross.
9. Wherefore, also, God highly exalted him and bestowed upon him a name that is above every name,

² The “which” here is feminine, which means that the antecedent is for it is “faith”, not “gospel”, which is neuter.

10. that at the name of Jesus, every knee should bow, of heavenly beings, and of earthly beings, and of those under the earth,
 11. and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
- ¶12. So then, my dearly beloved, as you have always been obedient, not only when I am present, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling,
13. for it is God who is working within you, both to desire and to do according to His good pleasure.
 14. Do all things without grumblings and disputes
 15. so that you may be faultless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world
 16. as you hold fast the word of life, so that in the day of Christ, I may boast that I neither ran in vain nor labored in vain.
 17. But even if I am poured out as a libation upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice, and I rejoice with all of you;
 18. likewise, you rejoice, too. Yea, rejoice with me.
- ¶19. Now, I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I also may be encouraged when I learn of your state.
20. For I have no such kindred soul who will genuinely care about your welfare.
 21. They all seek their own interests, not the things of Christ Jesus.
 22. But you know his proven character, that as a son with a father, he has labored with me for the gospel.
 23. Indeed, I hope to send him at once, as soon as I ascertain how things will go with me,
 24. but I trust in the Lord that I myself will also come soon.
 25. I thought it necessary to send you my fellow laborer and soldier, Brother Epaphraditus, your apostle, and a minister to my needs,
 26. inasmuch as he has been longing for you all and was distressed because you heard that he was sick.
 27. (Indeed, he was sick to the point of death; however, God showed him mercy—and not just him, but me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.)
 28. Therefore, I am sending him with special urgency, so that seeing him again, you might rejoice, and I might be less sorrowful.
 29. Welcome him, therefore, in the Lord with all joy, and acknowledge such precious men,
 30. because for the work of Christ, he came close to death, disregarding his life so that he might make up for what was lacking in your ministry to me.

- ¶1. As to the rest, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you is not at all troublesome to me, and for you it is safe.
2. Beware of dogs; beware of evil workers; beware of circum-mutilation,
3. for we are the circumcision who serve God in spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and put no confidence in the flesh—
4. although I do have a good reason to trust in the flesh. If anyone else thinks he has reason to trust in the flesh, I have more:
5. circumcised the eighth day; of the nation of Israel; of the tribe of Benjamin; a Hebrew of the Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee;
6. concerning zeal, persecuting the Assembly of God, being blameless according to the righteousness that is in the law.
7. However, what things were gain to me, these I have counted as loss for Christ.
8. But more than that, I consider all things but loss for the surpassing value of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have suffered the loss of everything. But I consider it all garbage, that I might gain Christ,
9. and be found in him, not having my own righteousness, which is by law, but that which is by faith in Christ, the righteousness of God based on faith,
10. that I might know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings—changed by his death to be with him—
11. if by any means I may attain to the resurrection of the dead.
12. Not that I have already obtained it or am already perfected, but I press on, that I may obtain that for which I also am obtained by Christ Jesus.
13. Brothers, I do not reckon myself to have taken possession of it, but one thing I do: forgetting the things that are behind and reaching toward the things that are ahead,
14. I press on toward the goal, for the prize of the heavenly calling of God in Christ Jesus.
15. Let us, therefore, as many as are perfect, think this way, and if you think any other way, God will reveal even this to you.
16. Nevertheless, to the extent we have reached it, let us continue in the same standard, thinking the same thing.
- ¶17. Brothers, be followers together of me, and mark those who walk by the example you have in us.
18. For many (of whom I have told you often, and say again now with tears) live as enemies of the cross of Christ,
19. whose end is damnation, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.
20. Our citizenship is in heaven, from which also we earnestly await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ,
21. who will transform our lowly body into the likeness of his glorious body by the operation of the power by which he is able to subdue all things to himself.

1. And so, my dearly loved and longed-for brothers, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord, beloved, just as you are.
- ¶2. I appeal to Euodia, and I appeal to Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord.
3. Yes, I also entreat you, loyal Syzygus,³ to help these women who for the gospel have struggled along with me, and with Clement, and the rest of my fellow-laborers, whose names are in the Book of Life.
- ¶4. Rejoice in the Lord always. I say again, rejoice!
5. Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is near.
6. Be anxious for nothing, but in everything, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God.
7. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
- ¶8. Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasant, whatever is well spoken of, if there is anything virtuous, or anything praiseworthy, dwell on these things.
9. The things you learned and received and heard and saw in me, these things put into practice, and the God of peace will be with you.
- ¶10. I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now, at length, you have revived your care for me (of course, you were concerned, but lacked opportunity),
11. not that I am speaking as if in need, for I have learned to be content in whatever state I am.
12. I certainly know how to be abased, and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all circumstances, I have learned the secret, both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in need.
13. I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.
14. Still, you did well to share your goods with me in my distress.
15. And you yourselves also know, O Philippians, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I left Macedonia, not one Assembly had a part with me, as regards giving and receiving, but you alone,
16. for even in Thessalonika, once and again, you sent me aid to meet the need—
17. not that I seek the gift; I seek only the gain that increases your account.
18. But I have received full payment, and I have more than enough. I am full, having received from Epaphraditus the things you sent, a fragrant aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, well-pleasing to God.
19. And my God will supply your every need, according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

³ Or “yoke-fellow”.

20. To our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

¶21. Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me send greetings to you.

22. All the saints greet you, especially those of Caesar's household.

¶23. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Colossians

Colossians 1

- ¶1. Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and brother Timothy.
2. To the saints and faithful brothers in Christ at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- ¶3. We give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, always praying for you,
4. having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and love for all the saints,
5. for the hope laid up for you in heaven, about which you heard before by the word of truth, the gospel
6. which has come to you as also to all the world, and it is bearing fruit and growing, as also it has among you from the day you heard and truly understood the grace of God,
7. even as you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow slave, who is a faithful minister of Christ for you,
8. and who declared to us your love in the Spirit.
- ¶9. For this reason also, from the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and making petition that you might be filled with the knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding,
10. that you may walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God,
11. strengthened with all power by His glorious might, unto all perseverance and patience, with joy,
12. giving thanks to the Father who has made us fit to receive a portion of the inheritance of saints in the light,
13. who delivered us from the domain of darkness and translated us into the kingdom of His beloved Son,
14. in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins,
15. who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature,
16. for by him were all things created, things in the heavens and things on earth, things visible and things invisible; whether thrones, or dominions, or rulers, or authorities, all things were created through him and for him,
17. and he is before all things, and all things are held together by him.
18. He is also the head of the body, the Assembly of God; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that in everything, he might be preeminent,
19. because God was pleased for all His fullness to dwell in him,
20. and through him to reconcile all things to Himself, making peace through the blood of his cross—through him, I say, whether things on earth or things in heaven.
21. And you, who by disposition were once alienated and enemies of God with evil deeds, he has now reconciled

22. through death in his fleshly body, to present you holy and faultless and blameless before Him—
23. provided that you continue in the faith, established, and stable, and unmoved from the hope of the gospel which you have heard, which has been preached to every creature under heaven, of which I, Paul, was made a minister.
- ¶24. I am rejoicing now in these sufferings for you because in my flesh, I am filling up what is lacking of the afflictions of Christ for his body, which is the Assembly of God,
25. for which I was made a minister by the commission of God which was given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God,
26. the mystery that was hidden from the Aeons and from generations of men, but now is revealed to His saints,
27. by whom God has willed to make known among the Gentiles what is the richness of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory,
28. whom we proclaim, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom so that we might present to God every man perfect in Christ Jesus,
29. for which I also labor, striving with His strength, which works in me with power.

Colossians 2

- ¶1. I want to make you aware of how difficult a struggle I am having for you, and for those in Laodicea, and for all who have not seen my face in the flesh,
2. that their hearts may be comforted, knit together with love until they attain to all the richness that comes from the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, even the Father, and of Christ,
3. in whom all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden.
4. I am saying this so that no one will be able to beguile you with specious argument.
5. For even though I am absent in body, I am with you in spirit, rejoicing and beholding your order and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.
- ¶6. Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him,
7. rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.
- ¶8. Beware, lest someone carry you away with philosophy, or empty deceit, following human tradition based on the elements of the world and not based on Christ,
9. for in him dwells all the fullness of God's nature, bodily,
10. and you are complete in him who is the head of every ruler and authority,
11. in whom you also are circumcised with a circumcision performed without hands, in the removal of the nature of the flesh given to sins, by the circumcision of Christ,
12. buried with him in baptism, in which you also are raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead.

13. And you, being dead in transgressions and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He made alive with him, forgiving us of all transgressions,
 14. after He had blotted out¹ that which was against us, the handwriting of ordinances that was contrary to us, removing it from between us when He nailed it to the cross,
 15. by which, stripping the rulers and authorities, He exposed them publicly, leading them along in a Triumph.
- ¶16. Therefore, do not allow anyone to condemn you in matters of eating or drinking, or in regard to a feast, or a new moon, or a Sabbath,
17. which are a shadow of things to come, but the reality is of Christ.
 18. Let no one rob you of the prize by a self-willed humility and worship of the angels, going on in detail about things he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his carnal mind,
 19. and not clinging to the head, from whom the whole body, supported and held together by joints and ligaments, increases with the increase of God.
- ¶20. If you are dead with Christ to the elements of the world, why then, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to ordinances, such as
21. “Do not touch! Do not taste! Do not handle!”
 22. (all which things are intended for destruction by being used up) after the commandments and doctrines of men?
 23. Such things, though having an appearance of wisdom in a self-willed religion, humility, and abuse of the body are of no value to anyone in opposing gratification of the flesh.

Colossians 3

- ¶1. If, therefore, you be raised up with Christ, seek things that are above, where Christ is sitting at God's right hand.
2. Keep your minds on things above, not on things on the earth.
 3. For you are dead, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.
 4. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then you shall also appear with him in glory.
- ¶5. So, put to death your members that are of the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, wicked lust, and covetousness (which is idolatry),
6. because of which things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience.
 7. You once also walked in those things when you lived among them.
 8. And put away all these things as well: anger, rage, malice, slander, filthy talk from your mouth.
 9. Do not lie to one another, since you have put off the old man with his ways,
 10. and have put on the new man who is renewed in knowledge in the likeness of the One who created him,

¹ Cf. Isa. 43:25; 44:22. God gave the law, and only God could remove it.

11. where there is no Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, slave, free. No! Christ is everything and in everyone.
- ¶12. Therefore, as chosen people of God, holy and loved, clothe yourselves with tender feelings, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience,
13. putting up with one another and forgiving each other (if anyone has a complaint against someone); as Christ also forgave you, so you forgive.
14. And over all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection.
15. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, for which also you were called out into one body; and be thankful.
16. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing yourselves, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your heart to the Lord.
17. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.
- ¶18. Wives, be submissive to your own husbands, as is appropriate in the Lord.
19. Husbands, love your wives and do not be embittered against them.
20. Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing to the Lord.
21. Fathers, do not provoke your children, lest they be discouraged.
22. Slaves, obey your earthly masters in all things, not with eye-service, like men-pleasers, but with heartfelt sincerity, fearing God,
23. and whatever you do, work at it whole-heartedly, as to the Lord and not to men,
24. knowing that from the Lord you shall receive the reward of an inheritance, for you are working as slaves to the Master, Christ.
25. And he who does wrong shall be recompensed for what he has wrongly done, and there is no respect of persons.

Colossians 4

- ¶1. Masters, treat slaves justly and fairly, knowing that you, too, have a Master in heaven.
- ¶2. Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching in it with thanksgiving,
3. at the same time praying also for us, that God will open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ (for which also I am put in bonds),
4. that I make it clear, as I ought to speak.
5. Walk in wisdom toward those outside the faith, making the most of the time.
6. Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, knowing how you should respond to each one.
- ¶7. Tychicus, a dear brother, and a faithful minister, and fellow-slave in the Lord, will inform you concerning all my affairs,

8. whom I have sent to you for the same purpose (that he might learn of your affairs and encourage your hearts),
 9. along with the faithful and beloved brother, Onesimus, who is one of you. They will make all things here known to you.
- ¶10. Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, as well as Marcus, Barnabas 'cousin (concerning whom you received instructions, that if he comes to you, welcome him),
11. and Jesus, who is called Justus, who are my only fellow-laborers from the circumcision for the kingdom of God, which men have been a comfort to me.
 12. Epaphras, who is one of you, a slave of Christ, greets you, always laboring earnestly in prayers for you, that you might stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.
 13. I bear him witness, that he has much zeal for you, and for those who are in Laodicea, and for those in Hieropolis.
 14. Luke, the beloved physician, greets you, and Demas.
 15. Greet the brothers at Laodicea, and Nympha and the Assembly in his house.
 16. And when this letter has been read among you, make sure that it is also read in the Assembly at Laodicea, and then you read the letter from Laodicea, too.
 17. And you all must tell Archippus, "Take heed to the ministry that you have received from the Lord, that you fulfill it."
- ¶18. The salutation by my own hand, Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

1 Thessalonians

1 Thessalonians 1

- ¶1. Paul, and Silvanus and Timothy. To the Assembly of Thessalonians, in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- ¶2. We always give thanks to God for you all, making mention of you in our prayers,
3. ever remembering before our God and Father your work of faith, and labor of love, and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ,
 4. knowing, brothers beloved of God, your election,
 5. for our gospel did not come to you in word only but also in power, and in the holy Spirit, and in full assurance (you know what manner of men we were among you, for your sakes).
 6. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word amid much persecution, with the holy Spirit's joy,
 7. so that you became examples to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia.
 8. For from you, the word of the Lord has sounded forth, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place has your faith toward God gone forth, so that there is no need for us to say anything.
 9. For they, themselves, spread the report about us, as to what kind of reception we had with you, and how you turned from idols to God, to become slaves to the living and true God
 10. and to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised up from the dead—Jesus, our Deliverer from the coming wrath.

1 Thessalonians 2

- ¶1. You yourselves know, brothers, that our entrance among you was not in vain,
2. but even after we had suffered and been shamefully treated in Philippi, as you know, we were bold in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in the face of much opposition.
 3. For our exhortation was not based on error, nor uncleanness, nor yet was it deceitful;
 4. on the contrary, as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God, who tries our hearts.
 5. Neither at any time were we found with flattering speech, as you know, nor with a pretext for greed—God is witness!—
 6. neither were we looking for honor from men, whether from you or from others, when we could have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.
 7. Rather, we were gentle among you, as a nursing mother cherishes her own children.
 8. So, having that kind of longing for you, we delight in imparting to you not only the gospel of God, but also our own lives because you have become dear to us.
 9. For you remember, brothers, our toil and effort, that working night and day so as not to overburden any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God.

10. You and God are witnesses, how devoutly, and uprightly, and blamelessly we lived among you who believe.
11. As you know, with each one of you, we were like a father with his children, exhorting and encouraging you,
12. and testifying that you should walk worthy of the God who has called you into His kingdom and glory.
- ¶13. And for this reason also, we constantly give thanks to God, that in receiving the word of God heard from us, you received it not as men's word but, as it truly is, God's word, who is also working in you who believe.
14. For you, brothers, have become followers of the Assemblies of God that are in Judea in Christ Jesus, for you have also suffered things at the hands of your own countrymen, as they have at the hands of the Jews,
15. who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and drove us out, and do not please God, and are contrary to all men,
16. forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles so that they might be saved, thus they always fill up the measure of their sins. But the wrath of God has finally overtaken them.
- ¶17. But as for us, brothers, like orphans torn away from you for a short time (in person not in heart), we made every effort, with great earnestness, to see your face.
18. We wanted to come to you, I, Paul, once and again, but Satan hindered us.
19. For who is our hope, or joy, or crown of boasting? Is it not you, before our Lord Jesus at his coming?
20. You are our glory and joy.

1 Thessalonians 3

- ¶1. Therefore, when we could bear it no longer, we thought it best to be left at Athens alone,
2. and so we sent Timothy our brother, and a minister of God, and our fellow-worker in the gospel of Christ, to establish you and encourage you concerning your faith,
3. so that no one be shaken by these afflictions, for you know that we are appointed to this.
4. For even when we were with you, we told you ahead of time that we were about to suffer persecution, even as it has happened, and as you know.
5. And for this reason, when I could no longer bear it, I sent to know your faith, lest somehow the Tempter had tempted you, and our labor be for nothing.
6. But now, Timothy has come to us from you, bringing us the good news of your faith and love, and that you always have good remembrance of us, longing to see us, just as also we long to see you.
7. Therefore, brothers, by your faith, we were comforted concerning you in spite of all our affliction and distress.
8. For now we live if you stand fast in the Lord.
9. For what thanks can we give to God concerning you in return for all the joy with which we rejoice before our God because of you,

10. night and day praying most earnestly to see your face and to perfect the things lacking in your faith?
- ¶11. May our God and Father, Himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ direct our path toward you,
12. and may the Lord cause you to increase and overflow in love toward one another and toward all men, just as we also do toward you,
13. so that your hearts may be established, blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

1Thessalonians 4

- ¶1. Finally now, brothers, we beseech and exhort you in the Lord Jesus that as you received from us how you ought to live and please God, you would abound all the more.
2. You know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus.
3. This is the will of God, your sanctification, that you refrain from immorality,
4. each of you knowing how to take a wife for himself in sanctification and honor,
5. not in lustful passion like the Gentiles who do not know God,
6. and that no one transgress and take advantage of his brother in business, for the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we also told you before and solemnly warned you.
7. For God did not call us to uncleanness, but to holiness.
8. Wherefore then, he who despises you, despises not man but God, who gave you His holy Spirit.
- ¶9. Now concerning brotherly affection, you have no need for me to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another,
10. and, indeed, you do this to all the brothers throughout Macedonia. And we exhort you, brothers, to abound all the more,
11. and consider it honorable to live peaceably, to manage your own affairs, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you,
12. so that you may walk uprightly before outsiders and are dependent on no one.
- ¶13. Brothers, we would not have you ignorant concerning those who fall asleep, so that you do not grieve as others do, who have no hope.
14. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, so also those who have fallen asleep in Jesus will God take away with him.
15. Now, we say this to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who remain until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who sleep.
16. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.
17. Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them among the clouds to meet the Lord in the air; and so, we shall ever be with the Lord.
18. So then, encourage one another with these words.

1Thessalonians 5

- ¶1. Now, concerning the times and seasons, brothers, you have no need for me to write to you,
 - 2. for you yourselves know perfectly well that the Day of the Lord is coming like a thief in the night.
 - 3. When they say, “Peace and safety!” then sudden destruction shall come upon them like labor pains on her who is with child, and they shall not escape.
 - 4. But as for you, brothers, you are not in darkness that that day should overtake you like a thief,
 - 5. for all of you are sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness.
 - 6. So then, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us be alert and sober.
 - 7. For those who sleep, sleep in the night, and those who get drunk, get drunk in the night.
 - 8. But let us who are of the day be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet, the hope of salvation.
 - 9. For God has not appointed us to wrath, but to the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,
 - 10. who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep, we might live together with him.
 - 11. Wherefore, comfort one another and edify each other, just as you are doing.
- ¶12. We beseech you, brothers, to acknowledge those who labor among you, and who rule over you in the Lord and admonish you,
 - 13. and to esteem them as highly as possible in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.
 - 14. And we exhort you, brothers, warn the disorderly, encourage the faint-hearted, help the weak, and be patient with everyone.
 - 15. See that no one repays evil for evil to anyone; rather, always pursue what is good, both for one another and for all men.
 - 16. Rejoice always;
 - 17. pray continually;
 - 18. in everything give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.
 - 19. Do not quench the Spirit;
 - 20. do not despise prophecies,
 - 21. but prove all things; hold fast to what is good;
 - 22. abstain from every form of evil.
- ¶23. And may the God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless until the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
 - 24. He who calls you is faithful, and He will do it.
- ¶25. Brothers, pray for us.
 - ¶26. Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss.

27. I adjure you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the holy brothers.

¶28. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

2Thessalonians

2Thessalonians 1

- ¶1. Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy. To the Assembly of the Thessalonians in God our Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ:
- 2. Grace to you, and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
- ¶3. We are compelled always to give thanks to God for you, brothers, as is right, for your faith is growing so wonderfully and the love of every one of you toward the other is so abundant
- 4. that we boast about you among the Assemblies of God because of your steadfastness and faith through all your persecutions and afflictions which you endure,
- 5. evidence of God's righteous judgment, that you may be counted worthy of God's kingdom, for which indeed you are suffering,
- 6. inasmuch as it is a righteous thing for God to repay with affliction those who afflict you,
- 7. and to repay with rest you who suffer affliction along with us when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,
- 8. in flaming fire meting out punishment to those who do not know God and to those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus,
- 9. who will pay the penalty of eternal destruction from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his strength
- 10. in the day when he comes to be glorified in his saints and to be admired by all those who believe (because our testimony to you was believed).
- 11. For this, too, we always pray for you, that our God will judge you worthy of the calling and fulfill your every desire for goodness and work of faith with power,
- 12. so that the name of our Lord Jesus might be glorified in you, and you in him, by the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2Thessalonians 2

- ¶1. Now, brothers, as for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we urge you
- 2. not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed by either a spirit, or a speech, or by a letter purporting to be from us, to the effect that the day of Christ has come.
- 3. Let no one deceive you by any means. That day will not come except the Apostasy come first and the man of sin be revealed, the son of damnation,
- 4. who opposes and exalts himself above everything called God or that is worshipped, so that he, as God, sits in the temple of God showing himself that he is God.
- 5. Do you not remember that while I was yet with you, I told you these things?
- 6. And you know what is holding it back now, that he might be revealed in his time.

7. For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only, the one now holding it back will continue to do so until he is out of the way.
 8. And then, the lawless one shall be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of his mouth and destroy with the appearance of his coming,
 9. him whose coming is by the work of Satan, with every miracle and deceptive signs and wonders,
 10. and with every unrighteous deceit among those who perish because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved.
 11. And for that reason, God will send them a strong delusion so that they will believe the lie,
 12. so that they all might be damned who did not believe the truth, but took pleasure in unrighteousness.
- ¶13. But we are compelled to give thanks to God always for you, brothers loved by the Lord, because God has from the beginning chosen you for salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth,
14. for which He called you by our gospel to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
 15. So then, brothers, stand firm and hold fast the traditions you were taught, whether by word or by letter from us.
- ¶16. And may our Lord himself, Jesus Christ, and God, even our Father who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and a good hope by grace,
17. comfort your hearts and establish you in every good word and work.

2Thessalonians 3

- ¶1. Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord will spread quickly and be honored, as it is among you,
 2. and that we might be delivered from perverse and wicked men, for the Faith is not for all men.
 3. But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you and keep you from the evil one.
 4. And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that the things which we command you, you are both doing and will do.
 5. May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the patience of Christ.
- ¶6. Brothers, we command you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you stay away from every brother who is living disorderly, and not according to the tradition which they received from us.
7. For you yourselves know how you ought to follow us, for we did not behave disorderly among you,
 8. nor did we eat anyone's food without pay; on the contrary, in difficulty and hardship, we worked night and day so as not to be a burden to anyone among you—

9. not that we do not have the authority, but that we might make ourselves an example for you to follow.
 10. Even when we were with you, we commanded this of you, that if anyone is unwilling to work, let him not eat.
 11. For we hear that some among you are walking disorderly, never busy at work, but busybodies.
 12. Those who are such, we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that working quietly, they eat their own food!
 13. But as for you, brothers, do not grow weary in well-doing.
 14. And if anyone does not obey our word through this letter, mark that man, and do not keep company with him, that he may be ashamed;
 15. yet, do not regard him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.
- ¶16. May the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in every way. The Lord be with you all.
- ¶17. The salutation of Paul by my own hand, which is the token in every letter; this is how I write.
18. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

1 Timothy

1 Timothy 1

- ¶1. Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the command of God our Savior and the Lord Jesus Christ, our hope.
- 2. To Timothy, my true son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father, and from Christ Jesus our Lord.
- ¶3. As I urged you to remain in Ephesus when I went to Macedonia, so do, that you might command certain ones not to teach another doctrine,
- 4. nor give heed to myths and endless genealogies, which things give rise to disputes rather than the order of God, which is by faith.
- 5. Now, the end of the commandment is love that comes from a pure heart, a good conscience, and unfeigned faith,
- 6. from which some have wandered, and have turned aside to empty talk,
- 7. desiring to be teachers of the law but understanding neither what they say nor the things they confidently assert.
- 8. We know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully,
- 9. knowing this, that a law is not intended for a righteous man, but for the lawless and rebellious, for the irreverent and sinful, for the unholy and worldly, for patricides and matricides, for murderers,
- 10. fornicators, sodomites, kidnappers, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine,
- 11. according to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, with which I am entrusted.
- ¶12. I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength, that he counted me trustworthy, putting me into his service,
- 13. who once was a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and a violent man, but I received mercy because I acted ignorantly in unbelief.
- 14. But the grace of our Lord abounded, with the faith and love that is in Christ Jesus.
- 15. This saying is true, and worthy of all acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—among whom I am the worst,
- 16. but I was shown mercy for this reason, that in me, as the worst of sinners, Jesus Christ might demonstrate utmost patience, as an example for those who afterward would believe in him for eternal life.
- 17. Now, to the King of the Aeons, immortal, invisible—the only wise God—be honor and glory forever and ever! Amen.
- ¶18. This instruction I entrust to you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which were previously made regarding you, so that by them you might fight the good fight,
- 19. holding on to faith and a good conscience, which some putting aside, have made shipwreck of their faith,

20. among whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have turned over to Satan, that they may be taught not to blaspheme.

1Timothy 2

- ¶1. Now then, first, I exhort that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgiving be made for all men,
- 2. for kings and for all who are in authority, that we might lead a tranquil and well-ordered life in all godliness and dignity.
- 3. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior,
- 4. who desires that all men be rescued, and come to a full knowledge of the truth.
- 5. There is one God, and one mediator between God and men—the man Christ Jesus,
- 6. who gave himself as a ransom for all, the testimony in the appointed time,
- 7. for which cause I was ordained a preacher, an apostle—I am speaking the truth in Christ! I am not lying!—a faithful and true teacher of Gentiles.
- ¶8. So then, I want the men in every place to pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger and argument.
- 9. Likewise, I would also that the women adorn themselves with appropriate clothing, with modesty and prudence, not with braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or expensive clothing,
- 10. but with what is appropriate to women professing godliness: good works.
- 11. Let a woman learn quietly, in all submissiveness.
- 12. I do not allow a woman to teach or to domineer over a man, but to be in order.
- 13. For Adam was formed first, then Eve,
- 14. and Adam was not deceived, but the woman, being deceived, fell into transgression.
- 15. Nevertheless, she will be saved through childbearing if they continue in faith, and love, and holiness, with self-control.

1Timothy 3

- ¶1. The saying is true: If someone aspires to be an overseer, he desires a good work.
- 2. An overseer, therefore, must be irreproachable, the husband of one wife, temperate, reasonable, respectable, hospitable, able to teach,
- 3. not given to wine, not pugnacious, not avaricious, but magnanimous, peaceable, without the love of money,
- 4. governing his own house well, having children in subjection with all gravity.
- 5. (If someone does not know how to govern his own house, how will he take care of the Assembly of God?)
- 6. He must not be a new convert, lest, becoming conceited, he fall into the condemnation of the Slanderer.
- 7. He must also have a good testimony from those on the outside, lest he fall into reproach and a snare of the Slanderer.

8. Their assistants, likewise, must be sober-minded, not double-tongued, not giving themselves to much wine, not avaricious,
 9. holding the mystery of the faith in a clear conscience.
 10. These also must first be tested. Then let them serve, being above reproach.
 11. Their wives, likewise, must be worthy of respect, not slanderers, temperate, faithful in all things.
 12. Assistants are to be husbands of one wife, governing their own children and houses well.
 13. For those who have served well earn for themselves good standing and much boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.
- ¶14. I am writing these things to you, hoping to come to you soon,
15. but in case I am delayed, I write them so that you might know how you ought to conduct yourself in the house of God, which is the Assembly of the living God, the pillar and the foundation of the truth.
 16. Now, undeniably, the mystery of godliness is great: God was made manifest in the flesh, was justified by the Spirit, was seen by angels, was preached among the Gentiles, was believed on in the world, and was taken up into glory.

1Timothy 4

- ¶1. Now, the Spirit is saying explicitly that in the latter times, some will fall away from the faith, following after deceptive spirits and doctrines of demons,
 2. speaking lies in hypocrisy, their conscience seared with a hot iron,
 3. forbidding to marry and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and understand the truth.
 4. For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused when received with thanksgiving,
 5. for it is sanctified by the word of God and by prayer.
- ¶6. In teaching these things to the brothers, you will be a good servant of Jesus Christ, brought up in the words of faith and of the good doctrine which you have faithfully followed.
7. Have nothing to do with worthless fables such as old women tell, but train yourself for godliness,
 8. for bodily exercise is beneficial for a few things, but godliness is beneficial for everything, holding promise for this present life as well as for the life to come.
 9. This saying is true, and worthy of all acceptance.
 10. For this we both labor and are ridiculed, because we have put our hope in a living God, who is Savior of all men, especially believers.
 11. Command and teach these things.
 12. Let no one despise your youth; on the contrary, be an example for believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity.
 13. Until I come, give attention to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14. Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the elders 'hands.
15. Meditate on these things; immerse yourself in them so that your progress may be manifest to all men.
16. Take heed to yourself and to the doctrine. Continue in these things; for in doing this, you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

1Timothy 5

- ¶1. Do not rebuke an elder, but entreat him as a father; the young men, as brothers;
2. older women, as mothers; younger women, as sisters, with all purity.
 3. Honor widows who truly are widows.
 4. If any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to practice godliness in their own house and make recompense to their parents, for this is acceptable before God.
 5. She who is truly a widow, and is left alone, has put her hope in God, and she continues in supplications and prayers, night and day.
 6. But the one who lives in self-indulgence is dead while she lives.
 7. Insist on these things, that they may be above reproach.
 8. If anyone does not provide for his own, and especially those of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.
 9. Let not a widow be enrolled if she is less than sixty years old; having been the wife of one man;
 10. spoken well of for good works; if she has nurtured children; if she has demonstrated hospitality; if she has washed the saints 'feet; if she has helped the oppressed; if she has diligently followed after every good work.
 11. But refuse younger widows. For when their life of ease draws them away from Christ, they want to marry,
 12. having condemnation because they have broken their previous pledge.
 13. Besides that, they learn to be idle, going about from house to house, and not only idle but also gossips and meddlers, saying things they should not.
 14. Therefore, I want younger women to marry, to bear children, to take care of the home, to give no occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.
 15. For some have already turned aside after Satan.
 16. If any believing man or woman has widows, let that person help them, that the Assembly be not burdened so that it may relieve those who truly are widows.
- ¶17. Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in word and in doctrine.
18. For the scripture says, "Do not muzzle the ox while he is threshing," and "The worker is worthy of his pay."

19. Do not receive an accusation against an elder, except in the presence¹ of two or three witnesses.
20. Reprove before everyone those who are sinning so that the rest also may fear.
21. I charge you before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that you keep these things without prejudice, doing nothing through partiality.
22. Lay hands on no one hastily; neither be a partaker of the sins of others; keep yourself pure!
23. Do not keep on drinking water, but use a little wine for your stomach and your frequent ailments.
24. The sins of some men are known beforehand, going on ahead to Judgment, but the sins of some men follow behind.
25. Likewise, also, the good works of some are known beforehand, and those that are otherwise cannot remain hidden.

1Timothy 6

- ¶1. Let as many slaves as are under the yoke regard their masters as worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the doctrine not be blasphemed.
2. Those who have believing masters are not to think evil of them, for they are brothers; on the contrary, they are to slave for them all the more because those who receive the benefit of their good service are believers and beloved. These things teach and exhort.
- ¶3. If anyone teaches otherwise and does not give heed to sound words, those of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which accords with godliness,
4. he is puffed up, understanding nothing, but merely has a morbid craving for controversies and word-battles, from which come envy, strife, slanders, evil conjectures,
5. incessant wranglings from the mind of men ruined and bereft of the truth, supposing that godliness is a means of gain. Stay away from such men.
6. But godliness with contentment is an exceptional means of gain.
7. For we brought nothing into the world, and it is obvious that we can take nothing out.
8. So, having sustenance and clothing, let us be content with them.
9. Those who want to be rich fall into temptation, and a snare, and many foolish and harmful desires which plunge men into ruin and destruction.
10. For the love of money is a root of all evils, for which some, craving after, have been led away from the faith and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.
- ¶11. But you, O man of God, flee these things. Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.
12. Fight the good fight of the faith; lay hold on eternal life, for which you were called and have made the good confession before many witnesses.

¹ Or, on the basis of.

13. Before God, who gives life to all things, and Christ Jesus, who made the good confession before Pontius Pilate, I charge you
 14. that you keep this commandment without blemish, free from reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,
 15. which at its appointed time will show who is the blessed and only sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords,
 16. who alone is immortal, dwelling in unapproachable light, whom no man has seen or can see. To Him be honor and power forever! Amen.
- ¶17. Command those who are rich in this world not to be haughty, nor to put hope in uncertain riches, but in the living God who has richly given us all things to enjoy,
18. to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous, sharing freely,
 19. laying up for themselves a good foundation for what is coming, that they may receive eternal life.
- ¶20. O Timothy, guard the deposit; avoid the worthless, empty talk, and contradictions of what is falsely called knowledge,
21. which by professing, some have deviated from the faith.
- ¶Grace be with you. Amen.

2Timothy

2Timothy 1

- ¶1. Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, in accord with the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus.
- 2. To Timothy, my beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and from Christ Jesus our Lord.
- ¶3. I thank God, whom I serve with a clear conscience, following my ancestors, constantly remembering you in my prayers, night and day,
- 4. longing to see you when I remember your tears, so that I may be filled with joy,
- 5. recalling the sincere faith that is in you, which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois, then in your mother Eunice, and, I am convinced, is also in you.
- 6. For which reason I remind you to stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands.
- 7. For God has not given us a cowardly spirit, but the spirit of power and love and a sound mind.
- 8. Therefore, do not be ashamed of the witness of our Lord, nor of me, his prisoner; on the contrary, join me in suffering for the gospel that is based on the power of God,
- 9. who rescued us and called us with a holy calling, not because of our works, but because of His own purpose and favor which was given to us in Christ Jesus before the beginning of time,
- 10. but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior, Jesus Christ, bringing death to nothing and bringing life and immortality to light through the gospel,
- 11. for which I was ordained a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of Gentiles.
- 12. For which cause, I also suffer these things; nevertheless, I am not ashamed, for I know in whom I have believed, and I am convinced that He is able to protect my deposit until that day.
- 13. Maintain the standard of sound words which you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.
- 14. Guard that good deposit through the holy Spirit which dwells in us.
- ¶15. You know this, that all they in Asia have forsaken me, among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes.
- 16. May the Lord show mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus because many times he refreshed me, and he was not ashamed of my confinement.
- 17. Indeed, while he was in Rome, he eagerly sought me out, and he found me.
- 18. May the Lord grant him that he find mercy from the Lord in that day! And what services he rendered in Ephesus, you know very well.

2Timothy 2

- ¶1. So, my son, you be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2. And the things you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses, those things pass on to faithful men who will be able to teach others, also.
 3. Patiently endure hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.
 4. No one who goes to war entangles himself in the affairs of this life, so that he may please the one who enlisted him as a soldier.
 5. If someone competes as an athlete, he is not crowned except he compete lawfully.
 6. The hard-working farmer ought to be first to partake of the fruits.
 7. Consider the things I am saying, and the Lord give you understanding in all things.
 8. Remember that Jesus Christ, of the seed of David, has been raised from the dead, according to my gospel,
 9. for which I endure hardship, even to bonds as an evildoer, but the word of God is not bound.
 10. Therefore, I endure all things for the sake of the elect, that they might attain to the salvation which is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.
 11. This is a true saying: If we die with him, we shall also live with him.
 12. If we persevere, we will also reign with him. If we deny him, he will also deny us.
 13. If we are unfaithful, he remains faithful; he cannot deny himself.
- ¶14. Put them in mind of these things. Charge them before the Lord not to wrangle over words, which is useful for nothing, but only brings the listeners to ruin.
15. Make every effort to present yourself approved to God, a workman who needs not be ashamed, handling the word of truth rightly.
 16. Avoid worthless, empty babblings, for they will lead to more ungodliness,
 17. and their talk will spread like gangrene, among whom are Hymenaeus and Philetus,
 18. who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection has already taken place, and they are overthrowing the faith of some.
 19. Nevertheless, the sure foundation of God stands firm, bearing this inscription: “The LORD knows those who are His,” and “Let everyone who names the name of the LORD depart from unrighteousness.”
 20. In a great house, there are not only vessels of gold and of silver but also of wood and of clay, some for honor, and some for dishonor.
 21. So then, if someone purges himself from these, he will be a vessel of honor, sanctified, and fit for the Master’s use, prepared for any good work.
 22. Flee youthful lusts; pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call upon the Lord out of a pure heart.
 23. But avoid stupid and ignorant discussions; you know that they engender quarrels.
 24. A slave of the Lord must not quarrel, but be gentle toward all men, skillful in teaching, patient,
 25. instructing with meekness those who oppose him. It may be that God will grant them repentance unto a knowledge of the truth

26. and that they come to their senses and escape out of the snare of the Slanderer, who by him have been taken captive to his will.

2Timothy 3

- ¶1. Know this, that in the last days, perilous times shall come.
2. Men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, braggarts, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,
3. unfeeling, unyielding, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, with no love for goodness,
4. traitors, reckless, puffed up, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God,
5. having a form of godliness, but denying its power. From these, turn away!
6. Of these are they who worm their way into houses, taking silly women captive who are weighed down with sins and led away by various lusts,
7. always learning, and yet, never able to come to a knowledge of the truth.
8. Like Jannes and Jambres, who withstood Moses, so these men also withstand the truth, men whose minds are corrupt, reprobate concerning the faith.
9. But they will make no further progress, for their folly will be exposed before all, just as theirs also was.
10. But as for you, you have diligently followed me in doctrine, conduct, resolve, faith, steadfastness, love, patience,
11. persecutions, and sufferings such as came upon me in Antioch, in Iconium, and in Lystra. Such persecutions have I borne! And yet, the Lord delivered me out of them all.
12. Indeed, all who are willing to live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.
13. Evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.
14. But as for you, continue in those things you have learned and believed, knowing from whom you have learned
15. and that from childhood, you have known the sacred Scriptures, which are able to make you wise concerning salvation through faith that is in Christ Jesus.
16. All scripture is inspired by God, and useful for doctrine, for verification, for correction, for instruction in righteousness,
17. so that the man of God might be complete, equipped for every good work.

2Timothy 4

- ¶1. So, I charge you before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who at his appearing and his kingdom will judge the living and the dead:
2. preach the word; be ready in both convenient and inconvenient times; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all patience and doctrine.
3. For the time will come when they will not put up with sound doctrine, but will heap up teachers for themselves according to their own desires, having itching ears,
4. and they will turn away from hearing the truth, and be turned over to myths.

5. But as for you, be sensible in everything; endure hardship; do the work of an evangelist; fulfill your ministry.
 6. As for me, I am now at length being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come.
 7. I have fought the good fight; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith.
 8. As for the future, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will grant me on that day, and not only to me, but also to all those who love his appearing.
- ¶9. Make every effort to come to me soon,
10. for Demas has forsaken me, having loved this present world, and he has gone to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia; Titus to Dalmatia.
 11. Luke, alone, is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with you, for he is very useful to me for the ministry.
 12. I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus.
 13. When you come, bring my cloak which I left at Troas with Karpus, and the books, especially the parchments.
 14. Alexander the metalworker did me much harm; may the Lord reward him according to his deeds,
 15. whom also you, yourself, watch, for he vehemently opposed our words.
 16. At my first defense, no one stood with me, but everyone forsook me; may it not be held against them.
 17. Nevertheless, the Lord stood with me, and he strengthened me so that through me, the preaching might fully be accomplished and all the Gentiles may hear, and I was delivered from the lion's mouth.
 18. And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work and will preserve me for his heavenly kingdom; to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.
- ¶19. Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the house of Onesiphorus.
20. Erastus stayed in Corinth. I left Trophimus behind at Melitus, sick.
 21. Make haste to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brothers.
- ¶22. The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

Titus

Titus 1

- ¶1. Paul, a slave of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ for the faith of God's elect and the knowledge of truth, which is in accord with godliness,
- 2. in hope of eternal life, which God, who does not lie, promised before time began.
- 3. And in His own time, He revealed His Word through preaching, with which I was entrusted by the command of God our Savior.
- 4. To Titus, my true son in the commonly held faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, our Savior.

- ¶5. I left you in Crete for this reason, that you might set the remaining things in order and appoint elders in each city, as I directed you,
- 6. if someone is above reproach, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of wild living or insubordination.
- 7. For an overseer must be above reproach, as God's steward, not self-willed, not given to anger, not given to wine, not pugnacious, not avaricious,
- 8. but hospitable, loving goodness, reasonable, just, holy, disciplined,
- 9. holding fast the faithful message of the doctrine so that he might be able both to exhort with sound doctrine and to confute those who speak against it.

- ¶10. For there are many rebellious, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision,
- 11. whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things they should not for the sake of base gain.
- 12. One of them, a prophet of their own, has said, "Cretans are perpetual liars, evil beasts, and idle bellies."
- 13. This testimony is true. So then, sternly rebuke them, that they might be sound in the faith,
- 14. giving heed neither to Jewish myths nor to commandments of men who turn away from the truth.
- 15. To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure. Instead, both their mind and conscience are defiled.
- 16. They profess to know God, but by works, they deny Him, being loathsome and disobedient, and concerning every good work, reprobate.

Titus 2

- ¶1. But as for you, speak things that are consistent with sound doctrine.
- 2. Elders must be temperate, respectable, sober-minded, sound in faith, in love, and in patience.

3. Women who are elders, likewise, must be reverential in their behavior, not slanderers, not enslaved to much wine, teachers of what is good,
 4. so that they might instruct the young women to be affectionate to husbands, affectionate to children,
 5. sensible, pure, good homemakers, and submissive to their husbands, so that the word of God be not blasphemed.
- ¶6. The young men, likewise, exhort to be sober-minded,
7. in every way presenting yourself a model of good works, in doctrine, demonstrating integrity, dignity, and incorruptibility,
 8. using sound speech that is above reproach so that he who opposes us might be ashamed, having nothing disparaging to say about us.
- ¶9. Slaves are to be subject to their masters, pleasing them well in everything, not back-talking,
10. not purloining, but showing utmost trustworthiness, so that they might always adorn the doctrine of God our Savior.
 11. For the saving grace of God has appeared to all men,
 12. teaching us that denying ungodliness and worldly desires, we should live soberly, and righteously, and godly in this present world,
 13. waiting for the blessed hope, even the manifestation of the glory of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ,
 14. who gave himself for us so that he might redeem us from all lawlessness and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good works.
- ¶15. Speak these things, and encourage and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise you.

Titus 3

- ¶1. Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be prepared for every good work,
2. to speak evil of no one, to be peaceable, magnanimous, demonstrating all meekness toward all men.
3. For we also were once foolish, disobedient, deceived, enslaved to various desires and entertainments, spending our lives in evil and envy, loathsome, and hating one another.
4. But when the kindness and affection of God our Savior for man was revealed,
5. not by works of righteousness which we have done, but in His mercy, He delivered us by the washing of the holy Spirit that brings about a new birth and renewal,
6. which He has poured out upon us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior,
7. so that, being justified by His grace, we became heirs of the hope of eternal life.

8. This saying is trustworthy, and I want you to be adamant about these things so that those who have believed in God might have a mind to occupy themselves with good works. These are things that are good and beneficial to men.
 9. But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and strifes, and disputes about the law, for they are worthless and vain.
 10. After the first and second admonition, reject a man who causes division,
 11. knowing that such a man has been perverted and is sinning, condemned within himself.
- ¶12. When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, hurry to come to me in Nicopolis, for I have decided to winter there.
13. Generously supply Zenas the lawyer and Apollos for their trip so that nothing be lacking to them.
 14. And again, let our people learn to occupy themselves with good deeds, to meet pressing needs, so that they be not unfruitful.
- ¶15. All those who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith.
¶Grace be with you all. Amen.

Philemon

Philemon 1

- ¶1. Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother. To Philemon, our beloved fellow-worker,
2. and Apphia our beloved sister, and Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the Assembly that meets in your house:
3. Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Master, Jesus Christ.
- ¶4. I thank my God, always making mention of you in my prayers,
5. hearing of your love and the faithfulness that you demonstrate toward the Master, Jesus, and to all the saints,
6. that your fellowship in the faith might become effectual, in the knowledge of every good thing that is in us for the sake of Christ Jesus.
7. We do receive much aid and comfort through your love, in that the hearts of the saints are refreshed by you, brother.
- ¶8. And so, though I have enough boldness in Christ to order you to do the right thing,
9. for love's sake, I make entreaty instead, being such a one as Paul, an old man, and now a prisoner for Jesus Christ as well.
10. I entreat you for my son, whom I have begotten in my chains, Onesimus,
11. who once was useless to you, but now is useful to both you and me, whom I have sent back.
12. Receive him, that is, my very heart,
13. whom I wanted to keep for myself so that he might, in your place, minister to me in my chains for the gospel,
14. but without your consent, I would do nothing, lest your good deed be, as it were, forced rather than voluntary.
15. For it may be that the reason he was taken away for a while is so that you might have him back forever,
16. no longer as a slave; on the contrary, above a slave—a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord!
17. So then, if you consider me a partner, receive him as me.
18. If he wronged you, or if he owes anything, charge it to me.
19. I, Paul, write with my own hand: I will repay it. (However, I do not say to you that you owe me even your very self.)
20. Come, brother, let me have from you a benefit in the Lord; refresh my heart in the Lord.
21. Being persuaded of your obedience, I wrote you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.
22. And one more thing. Prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers, I will be given to you.
- ¶23. Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus greets you,
24. as do Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow-workers.

¶25. The grace of our Master, Jesus Christ, be with your spirits. Amen.

Hebrews

Hebrews 1

- ¶1. After God spoke in many and various ways to the fathers in olden times by the prophets,
He spoke to us in these last days by a Son,
2. whom He has appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the worlds,
3. who, being the reflection of His glory and the exact representation of His being, and sustaining all things by the word of his power, sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in the highest after he, by himself, had provided purification for our sins.
4. He was created as much superior to the angels as the title he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.
5. For to which of the angels did He ever say, “You are my Son; today, I have begotten you”?¹ Or again, “I will be his Father, and he will be my Son”?²
6. And again, when He brought the firstborn into the world, it says, “Let all God’s angels worship him!”³
7. And of the angels, it says, “He who makes His angels spirits and His ministers a fiery flame.”
8. But to the Son, “Your throne, O God, is forever and ever. The scepter of your kingdom is a scepter of uprightness.
9. You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness; therefore, God, even your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows.”⁴
10. And, “You, Lord, in the beginning, laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the works of your hands.
11. They will perish, but you endure. They all will grow old like a garment,
12. and you will roll them up like a cloak and they will be changed, but you are the same,
and your years will never end.”⁵
13. And to which of the angels has He ever said, “Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool”?⁶
14. Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth for service for the sake of those who are going to inherit salvation?

Hebrews 2

¹ Psalms 2:7.

² 2Samuel 7:14.

³ The Septuagint (Ps. 96:7), which the author of Hebrews most often quotes, has, “Worship him, all you, His angels!” The Masoretic text (Ps. 97:7) has, “Worship Him, all you gods!”

⁴ Psalm 45:6–7.

⁵ Psalm 102:25–27.

⁶ Psalm 110:1.

- ¶1. For this reason, we must pay even closer attention to the things that have been heard, lest we drift away from them.
- 2. For if the word spoken through angels was firm, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense,
- 3. how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation, which was declared at first by the Lord, being confirmed to us by those who heard him,
- 4. God testifying with them by signs and wonders, and by diverse miracles, and by gifts of the holy Spirit, according to His will?

- ¶5. For He did not subject to angels the world to come, concerning which we are speaking.
- 6. But one testified somewhere, “What is man, that you are mindful of him? Or the son of man, that you visit him?
- 7. You made him a little lower than angels; you crowned him with glory and honor.
- 8. You put all things under his feet.”⁷ And in subjecting “all things” to him, He left nothing unsubdued to him. At present, however, we do not yet see all things subdued under him.
- 9. But we see Jesus, crowned with glory and honor, having been made a little lower than angels for the suffering of death so that he, by the grace of God, might taste of death for all men.
- 10. For it suited Him, for whom are all things and through whom are all things, in order to bring many sons to glory, to make the Prince of their salvation perfect through sufferings.
- 11. For both he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all of One, for which reason, he is not ashamed to call them brothers,
- 12. saying, “I will declare your name to my brothers. In the midst of the congregation will I sing you praise.”⁸
- 13. And again, “As for me, I will trust in Him!”⁹ And again, “Behold, I and the children whom GOD has given me.”¹⁰
- 14. Inasmuch, then, as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he likewise partook of the same, so that by means of death, he might destroy the one who held the power of death, that is, the Accuser,
- 15. and set them free who through fear of death were subject to bondage their whole lives.
- 16. (For he certainly did not take on himself the form of angels, but took that of the seed of Abraham.)

⁷ Psalm 8:4–6.

⁸ Psalm 22:22.

⁹ Isaiah 8:17.

¹⁰ Isaiah 8:18.

17. For that purpose, he had to be made like his brothers in every way, so that he might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in matters pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.
18. And inasmuch as he, himself, has suffered being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

Hebrews 3

- ¶1. So then, holy brothers, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Jesus Christ,
2. who is faithful to the One who created him, just as Moses was also, “in all His affairs.”
3. For this man is worthy of as much greater glory than Moses as the builder of a house has greater honor than the house.
4. (Every house is built by someone, but he who built everything is God.)
5. Now, Moses was certainly faithful, as a servant, “in all His affairs” for a testimony concerning things which were later to be spoken,
6. but Christ was faithful as a Son over His house, whose house are we if we hold fast our boldness and glorying in the hope until the end.
7. Wherefore, just as the holy Spirit said, “Today, if you hear His voice,
8. do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, in the day of temptation in the wilderness,
9. where your fathers tempted me, tried me, and saw my works forty years.
10. Wherefore, I was provoked with that generation, and I said, ‘They always err in heart, and they do not understand my ways.’
11. So, I swore in my wrath, ‘I will damn myself if they ever enter into my rest!’”¹¹¹²
12. Beware, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart that falls away from the living God,
13. but exhort one another daily, while it is still called “today”, lest any of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.
14. For we are made partakers with Christ if we hold fast our first confidence firm until the end,
15. inasmuch as it says, “Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion.”
16. For who rebelled after they had heard? To be sure, not everyone who came out of Egypt by Moses.

¹¹ Psalm 95:7–11.

¹² Literally, “—if they enter into my rest.” The curse intended with this oath is so unthinkable—God’s death and damnation—that it is not even uttered. See also 4:3, 5.

17. But with whom was He angry forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?
18. And to whom did He swear that they would not enter into His rest, except those who were disobedient?
19. So, we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

Hebrews 4

- ¶1. Therefore, while the promise of entering into His rest still stands, let us fear, lest any of you be deemed to have come short of it.
- 2. For we have had good news preached to us, just as to them, but the word which was heard did not benefit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it.
- 3. For we who believe are entering into a rest, as He said, “So, I swore in my wrath, ‘I will damn myself if they ever enter into my rest!’” although His works were finished from the foundation of the world.
- 4. For He spoke this way in a certain place about the seventh day: “And God rested on the seventh day from all His works,”¹³
- 5. and again, in this place: “I will damn myself if they ever enter into my rest!”
- 6. Then, inasmuch as it remains for some to enter into it, and those who first heard the gospel did not enter in because of disobedience,
- 7. once more, He specifies a certain day—“today”—saying through David after so long a time, as was previously said, “Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts.”
- 8. For had Joshua given them rest, He would not later have spoken of another day.
- 9. Therefore, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God.
- 10. For he who has entered into His rest has also ceased from his works, just as God ceased from His.
- 11. Let us, then, make every effort to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall, following the same pattern of disobedience.
- 12. For the word of God is alive, and powerful, and sharper than any double-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit and of joints and marrow, and it is able to judge the thoughts and intents of the heart.
- 13. And there is no creature hidden from His sight; all things are naked and exposed to the eyes of Him to whom our account shall be given.
- ¶14. Having, therefore, a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.
- 15. For we do not have a high priest who cannot be touched by our weaknesses, but one who has been tempted in every way that we are, without sin.

¹³ Genesis 2:2.

16. Let us, then, boldly draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Hebrews 5

- ¶1. For every high priest taken from among men is ordained on behalf of men in matters pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins,
- 2. being able to deal gently with the ignorant and misguided since he, too, is encompassed with weakness,
- 3. and for this reason he is obligated to make offerings for sins for himself, as for the people.
- 4. And no one takes this honor upon himself, but one called of God, as in the case of Aaron.
- 5. Likewise, Christ also did not glorify himself to be made High Priest, but He who said to him, “You are my Son; today, I have begotten you.”
- 6. Even as He also spoke in another place: “You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.”¹⁴
- 7. This man, in the days of his flesh, offered, with strong crying and tears, both prayers and supplications to the One who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his fear of God.
- 8. For although he was a Son, he learned obedience by the things that he suffered,
- 9. and when he had been made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation to all who obey him,
- 10. ordained by God as a High Priest after the order of Melchizedek.
- ¶11. Concerning this matter we have much to say, but it is difficult to explain because you have become hard of hearing.
- 12. For the time having come when you ought to be teachers, you need someone to re-teach you what are the elementary principles of God’s oracles, and you have become such as need milk, and not solid food.
- 13. Everyone who lives on milk is unskillful in the word of righteousness, for he is an infant.
- 14. But solid food is for those fully grown, who by experience have their senses trained to discern both good and evil.

Hebrews 6

- ¶1. Therefore, leaving the matter of the beginning of Christ, let us press on to perfection, not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith in God,
- 2. of doctrine concerning baptisms, and laying on of hands, and resurrection from the dead, and eternal judgment.
- 3. And this we will do, if God permit.

¹⁴ Psalm 110:4.

4. For it is impossible for those who once were enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift and been made partakers of the holy Spirit,
 5. and have tasted of both the good word of God and the powers of the age to come,
 6. but then have fallen away, to renew them again to repentance, seeing they are re-crucifying the Son of God in themselves and exposing him to public shame.
 7. For the earth that drinks in the rain which often comes upon it and then produces plants useful to those for whom it is also cultivated receives blessing from God,
 8. but if it bears thorns and thistles, it is worthless and near cursing, whose end is to be burned.
- ¶9. But we are persuaded of better things concerning you, beloved, and things which attend salvation, even though we talk this way.
10. For God is not unjust to forget your work and the labor of love which you have demonstrated toward His name, in that you have served and continue to serve the saints.
 11. But we earnestly desire that each of you show the same diligence, in the full assurance of hope, until the end,
 12. that you not become lazy, but followers of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.
- ¶13. For when God made promise to Abraham, since He had no one greater by whom to swear, He swore by Himself,
14. saying, “I will surely bless you,” and “I will surely multiply you.”¹⁵
 15. And thus, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.
 16. For men swear by something greater than themselves, and for them, such an oath of confirmation is an end to their every dispute.
 17. In the same way, God, willing to demonstrate even more clearly to the heirs of the promise the permanence of His decision, confirmed it with an oath,
 18. so that by two immutable things (one of them being that it was impossible for God to lie), we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to hold fast the hope that is set before us,
 19. which we have as an anchor for the soul, both secure and steadfast, and which enters into that which is within the veil,
 20. where our forerunner, Jesus, has entered for us, being made a High Priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7

- ¶1. For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the highest God, who met Abraham as he returned from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,

¹⁵ Genesis 22:17.

2. to whom also Abraham apportioned a tithe of everything (firstly being translated, “king of righteousness”, and then also, “king of Salem”, which means “king of peace”),
 3. being without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, remains a priest perpetually.
- ¶4. Consider how great this man was, to whom even Abraham the patriarch rendered a tithe of the spoils.
5. On the one hand, those of the sons of Levi who receive the priestly office under the law have a commandment to take tithes from the people, that is, from their own brothers, although they also came from Abraham’s loins;
 6. but on the other hand, he whose genealogy is not from them received tithes from Abraham, and blessed him who had the promises.
 7. And without any contradiction, the lesser is blessed by the greater.
 8. And on the one hand, men who die receive tithes, but on the other, the one of whom witness is given that he lives.
 9. So, as one might say, Levi also, who receives tithes, rendered tithes through Abraham,
 10. for he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.
- ¶11. Now, if perfection really came through the Levitical priesthood (for through it, the people were taught the law), why was there yet a need for a different kind of priest to arise “after the order of Melchizedek”, and not be called “after the order of Aaron”?
12. And certainly, the priesthood being changed, there must also be a change of law.
 13. For the one of whom these things are spoken belonged to a different tribe, from which no one attended the altar.
 14. For it is well known that our Lord sprang from Judah, of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood.
 15. And it becomes clearer still when a different kind of priest arises, like Melchizedek,
 16. who was made priest not by the law’s fleshly commandment, but by the power of an endless life.
 17. For He testified, “You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.”
 18. So, while there was a setting aside of the previous commandment because of its weakness and inadequacy
 19. (for the law made nothing perfect), at the same time, there was the introduction of a better hope, by which we draw near to God.
 20. And as much greater as having an oath is (for those were undeniably made priests without an oath,
 21. but he with an oath from the One who said to him, “The LORD has sworn and will not repent, ‘You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek’”),
 22. of just so much greater a covenant has Jesus become the guarantor.
 23. Now, many then were made priests, for death prevented them from continuing,
 24. but now, he has a perpetual priesthood because he lives forever.

25. Therefore, he is able also to save completely and forever those who come to God through him, seeing that he is living always to make intercession for them.
- ¶26. It was fitting that we should have such a High Priest, holy, innocent, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens,
27. who does not need, as those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for their own sins and then for those of the people, for this he did once for all when he offered up himself.
28. For the law ordains as high priests men who are weak, but the word of the oath, which was after the law, ordained forever the perfected Son.

Hebrews 8

- ¶1. Now the sum of what is being said is this: we have such a High Priest, who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven,
2. a minister of the sanctuary, even the true tabernacle which the Lord pitched, and not man.
3. Now, every high priest is ordained to make offerings of both gifts and sacrifices; therefore, it was necessary that this man also have something to offer.
4. And if he was on earth, he would not be a priest, there being priests already who offer gifts according to the law,
5. who minister in the pattern and shadow of things in heaven, as Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: "See to it," He said, "that you build everything according to the pattern shown to you on the mountain."¹⁶
6. But now he has obtained a far superior ministry, and he is mediator of an equally better covenant, which is established upon better promises.
7. You see, if that first covenant had been flawless, no place would have been sought for a second.
8. But finding fault with them, He said, "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will establish a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah,
9. not the kind of covenant that I made with their fathers in the day I took their hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they did not continue in my covenant, and so, I did not regard them, says the LORD.
10. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my laws into their mind and write them on their heart, and I will be their God, and they will be my people.
11. And no one will teach his neighbor, and no one his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD!' because everyone will know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.
12. For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and I will never again remember their sins and their lawless deeds."¹⁷

¹⁶ Ex. 25:40.

13. In that He said, “new”, He has made the first old. And that which is becoming obsolete and growing old is about to vanish away.

Hebrews 9

- ¶1. Now of course, along with the earthly sanctuary, the first covenant had ordinances for ministry.
- 2. For the first room of the tabernacle, which is called the holy place, was prepared, in which are the lampstand, and the table, and the presentation of the loaves.
- 3. Then, after the second veil, is the part of the tabernacle called the most holy place,
- 4. having the golden incense altar, and the ark of the covenant, completely covered with gold and in which was the golden pot containing manna, and Aaron’s rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant,
- 5. and above which, overshadowing the mercy seat, are the cherubim of glory—concerning which things it is not the time now to speak in detail.
- 6. Now, these things having been thus prepared, the priests enter into the first tabernacle continually, performing the divine rites,
- 7. but into the second goes the high priest alone, once each year—not without blood, which he offers for himself and for the unintentional sins of the people,
- 8. the holy Spirit indicating this: the way into the holiest place was not yet revealed as long as the first tabernacle still had a purpose,
- 9. which was a figure for the time that has come, during which are being offered gifts and sacrifices that are powerless to perfect, as concerns the conscience, the one performing the rites,
- 10. for it is based only upon meats and drinks, and various washings, and ordinances for the flesh, imposed until the time of the new order.

- ¶11. But Christ, as a High Priest of good things to come, appearing in a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made by hands (that is, not of this creation),
- 12. neither with the blood of goats and oxen but with his own blood, entered once for all into the sanctuary, obtaining eternal redemption.
- 13. For if the blood of bulls and of goats and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled sanctifies for the purification of the flesh,
- 14. how much more does the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve a living God!
- 15. And for this purpose, he is mediator of a new covenant, in order that, a death being accomplished for the redemption of transgressions that were under the first covenant, those who have been called might receive the promise of the eternal inheritance,
- 16. for where a testament is, the death of the testator must be confirmed.

¹⁷ Jeremiah 31:31–34.

17. For a testament is in force after men are dead; it has no force at all while the testator is alive.
18. Accordingly, not even the first testament was instituted without blood.
19. For when every commandment of the law had been spoken by Moses to all the people, he took the blood of bullocks and goats, along with water, and scarlet wool, and hysop, and he sprinkled both the book itself and all the people,
20. saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that God has ordained for you."¹⁸
21. And both the tabernacle and all the utensils of the ministry he likewise sprinkled with the blood.
22. Moreover, under the law, almost everything is purified by blood, and without the shedding of blood, there is no forgiveness.
- ¶23. So then, it was necessary that the figures of heavenly things be purified with these sacrifices, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.
24. For Christ did not enter into holy places made by hands, the figures of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us,
25. not to offer himself over and over again, as the high priest entered into the sanctuary year after year with the blood of others,
26. for then, he would have had to suffer many times from the foundation of the world. But now, once for all, at the close of the ages, he has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.
27. And just as it is appointed to men once to die, and after that, the Judgment,
28. so also, Christ, having been offered once for all to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who earnestly look for him.

Hebrews 10

- ¶1. You see, the law, containing a shadow of the good things to come, not the actual form of those things, can never make perfect those who approach the altar with the same sacrifices they offer continually, year after year.
2. Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered, because the worshippers, once cleansed, would no longer have any consciousness of sins?
3. On the contrary, in those sacrifices, remembrance of sins is made each year,
4. for it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.
5. This is why, when coming into the world, he said, "Sacrifice and offering have not pleased you, but a body you have prepared for me."
6. In whole burnt offerings and such for sin, you have taken no pleasure.

¹⁸ Exodus 24:8.

7. Then I said, ‘Behold, I go (in a roll of a book it is written of me) to do your will, O God.’”¹⁹
8. Above, when he said, “Sacrifice and offering and whole burnt offerings and such for sin, you have not desired, nor taken pleasure” (which things were offered under the law),
9. he then said, “Behold, I go to do your will, O God!” He is doing away with the first, that He might establish the second.
10. By whose will, we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once and for all.
11. Moreover, every priest stands daily, ministering and offering the same sacrifices, time after time, which can never take away sins,
12. but he, having offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, sat down at the right hand of God,
13. since that time, waiting until his enemies be made a footstool for his feet.
14. For by one offering, he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.
15. And the holy Spirit also bears witness to us, for after He said,
16. “This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the LORD: I will put my laws in their hearts, and on their minds will I write them,”
17. then He said, “Of their sins and their lawless deeds will I never be reminded again.”
18. Now, where there is remission for these things, there is no more offering for sin.

¶19. Therefore, brothers, having boldness by the blood of Jesus for entrance into the holiest place,

20. which new and living way he opened up for us through the veil, that is, his flesh,
21. and having a Great Priest over the house of God,
22. let us draw near with a true heart, in the full assurance of faith, our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and the body washed with pure water,
23. let us hold fast the confession of the hope without wavering, for He who made the promise is faithful,
24. and let us consider how we may provoke one another to love and to good works,
25. not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the day approaching.

¶26. Now, if after receiving the knowledge of the truth, we willfully go on sinning, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins,

27. but only a fearful expectation of judgment and fiery indignation that will consume the adversaries.
28. Anyone who rejected the law of Moses died without mercy, by two or three witnesses.

¹⁹ Psalm 40:6–8.

29. Of how much worse punishment, do you think, will he be worthy who has trampled under foot the Son of God, has regarded as a common thing the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has done outrage to the Spirit of grace?
30. For we know Him who said, “Vengeance is mine; I will repay, says the LORD.”²⁰ And again, “The LORD will judge His people.”²¹
31. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

- ¶32. Remember the former days in which, after you were enlightened, you endured a hard struggle with sufferings,
33. sometimes being publicly exposed to insults and afflictions, and sometimes being companions of those treated that way.
34. For you showed sympathy for my bonds, and you joyfully accepted the seizing of your possessions, knowing within yourselves that you have a greater and lasting possession in heaven.
35. Do not, therefore, throw away your confidence, which has a great reward.
36. You have need of patience, that after you have done the will of God, you might receive the promise.
37. For in just a very, very little while, “He who is coming shall come, and he will not tarry.”²²
38. Now, “The righteous man shall live by faith,” and yet, if he shrinks back, “my soul will take no pleasure in him.”²³
39. But as for us, we are not of those who draw back to damnation, but of those who believe to the saving of the soul.

Hebrews 11

- ¶1. Now, faith is the certainty of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.
2. By it, men of old were given a good testimony.
3. By faith, we understand that the worlds were created by an utterance from God, so that things that are seen were not made from visible things.
4. By faith, Abel offered a better sacrifice to God than did Cain, by which he was borne witness that he was righteous, God bearing witness to his gifts, and by it, he, being dead, still spoke.
5. By faith, Enoch was translated so that he did not see death, and he was not found because God had translated him, for before his translation, he was borne witness that he pleased God.

²⁰ Deuteronomy 32:35.

²¹ Psalm 135:14.

²² Habakkuk 2:3.

²³ Habakkuk 2:4.

6. But without faith, it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He exists and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.
7. By faith, Noah, having been warned of things not yet seen, moved with fear, constructed an ark for the saving of his house, by which he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that is by faith.
8. By faith, Abraham, when he was called, obediently went out toward the place which he would later receive as an inheritance, and he went out, not knowing where he was going.
9. By faith, he lived in the land of promise as a stranger in a foreign country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, joint-heirs of the same promise,
10. for he was waiting for the city which has foundations, whose Architect and Builder is God.
11. By faith also, Sarah herself, though past the age, received strength to conceive seed and gave birth, for she considered Him faithful who made the promise.
12. And so, from one man were born as many as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand along the seashore, without number—and they, from a man as good as dead!
- ¶13. These all died in faith, not having received the promises; however, they saw them far away, and welcomed them, and confessed that they were foreigners and pilgrims on the earth.
14. Now, they who say such things make it plain that they are looking for a homeland.
15. But if they keep thinking on that place out of which they came, they would, no doubt, have opportunity to return.
16. But as it is, they long for a better, that is, a heavenly country; therefore, God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for He has prepared for them a city.
- ¶17. By faith, when Abraham was tried, he offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was offering up his uniquely begotten son
18. (concerning whom it was said, “In Isaac shall your seed be called”²⁴),
19. having reckoned that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead, from which he also received him, figuratively speaking.
20. By faith, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.
21. By faith, Jacob, as he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and he worshipped, leaning on the head of his staff.
22. By faith, Joseph, nearing the end, made mention of the exodus of the children of Israel and gave instructions concerning his bones.
23. By faith, Moses was hidden for three months by his parents after he was born because they saw he was a beautiful child, and they were not afraid of the king’s decree.
24. By faith, Moses, when he was grown, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter,

²⁴ Genesis 21:12.

25. choosing rather to suffer affliction with God's people than to enjoy the pleasure of sin for a season,
26. esteeming the reproach of Christ to be greater riches than the treasures of Egypt, for he looked ahead to the reward.
27. By faith, he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king, for he persevered as though he saw Him who cannot be seen.
28. By faith, he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, lest the one destroying the firstborn should touch them.
29. By faith, they passed through the Red Sea as if on dry land, which the Egyptians attempting to do were drowned.
30. By faith, the walls of Jericho fell down, after being encircled seven days.
31. By faith, Rahab the harlot did not perish with the disobedient after she had peaceably welcomed the spies.
32. And what more shall I say? For there is not enough time for me to tell of Gideon, or of Barak and Samson and Jephthae, or of David and Samuel, and the prophets,
33. who through faith conquered kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions,
34. quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made powerful, in war were made strong, and turned alien armies to flight.
35. Women received their dead raised to life again. But others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, so that they might receive a better resurrection,
36. and others had trial of mockings and scourgings, and also of chains and imprisonment.
37. They were stoned; they were sawn in half; they were tempted; they were put to death with the sword; they wandered around in sheepskins, in goatskins, destitute, afflicted, maltreated
38. (of whom the world was not worthy), wandering about in desolate places, and mountains, and in caves and holes in the ground.
39. And these all, given a good testimony because of their faith, did not receive the promise,
40. God providing something better for us, so that they should not be made perfect without us.

Hebrews 12

- ¶1. Therefore, having so great a cloud of witnesses about us, and laying aside every weight, and the sin that so easily besets us, let us also run with patience the race that is laid out before us,
2. fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him, endured a cross, despised the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.
3. Consider him who endured such hostility of sinners against himself, lest you grow weary in your souls and lose heart.
4. For you have not yet resisted to the death, striving against sin,

5. and you have forgotten the exhortation which instructs you as sons: "My son, do not lightly esteem the LORD's correction; neither be discouraged by His reproof,
 6. for whom the LORD loves, He chastens, and He scourges every son whom He receives."²⁵
 7. If you endure chastisement,²⁶ God deals with you as with sons, for what son is there whom a father does not chasten?
 8. But if you are without chastisement, of which all have been partakers, then you are bastards, and not sons.
 9. Furthermore, we certainly have had fathers of our flesh who chastened us, and we revered them. Shall we not much rather submit ourselves to the Father of spirits, and live?
 10. They, for just a short time, disciplined us as it pleased them; but He for our benefit, that we might partake of His holiness.
 11. Now, no discipline, for just that moment, seems joyous, but grievous; however, it afterwards yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness in those who have been trained by it.
 12. So then, "straighten up the listless hands and the feeble knees,"²⁷
 13. and make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned aside, but let it rather be healed.
- ¶14. Pursue peace with everyone, and holiness, without which no man will see the Lord,
15. taking care, that no one come short of the grace of God, that no root of bitterness springing up cause trouble (and by this many be defiled),
 16. that no one be licentious, or be profane like Esau, who sold his birthright for a single meal.
 17. For you know that even afterwards, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place of repentance, even though he earnestly sought it with tears.
- ¶18. For you have not come to a mountain that can be touched, with blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and raging storm,
19. and trumpet blast, and a voice speaking, which voice was such that those who heard it begged that nothing more be said to them,
 20. for they could not endure that which was commanded: "If even an animal touch the mountain, it shall be stoned";²⁸
 21. indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, "I am full of fear and trembling."²⁹

²⁵ Proverbs 3:11–12.

²⁶ Most manuscripts have "It is for discipline that you endure."

²⁷ Isaiah 35:3.

²⁸ Exodus 19:13.

22. But you have come to Mount Zion, and the city of the living God, heavenly Jerusalem, and to myriads of angels,
23. to the festival and congregation of the first-born whose names are recorded in heaven, and to God, Judge of all, and to spirits of righteous people made perfect,
24. and to a mediator of a new covenant, Jesus, and to sprinkled blood which speaks better things than that of Abel.
25. Beware that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For if they did not escape when they refused the one on earth who instructed them, much less shall we escape who turn away from the One from heaven,
26. whose voice then shook the earth, but now, He has promised, saying, “Yet once more, I will shake not only the earth, but also heaven.”³⁰
27. Now this, “Yet once more,” indicates the removal of the things which are shaken, that is, things which are made, so that things which are not shaken may remain.
28. Therefore, receiving an unshakable kingdom, let us give thanks, by which we render acceptable service to God with reverence and fear,
29. for our GOD is a consuming fire.

Hebrews 13

- ¶1. Let brotherly love continue.
2. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by this, some have unwittingly entertained angels.
3. Remember the prisoners, as though imprisoned with them, and those who are ill-treated, even as being themselves in body.
4. Marriage is altogether honorable, and the bed undefiled, but fornicators and adulterers, God will judge.
5. Let your conduct be without covetousness, being content with the things you have, for He has said, “I will never leave you, nor forsake you,”³¹
6. so that we may boldly say, “The LORD is my helper, and I will not be afraid of what man will do to me.”³²
- ¶7. Remember those who rule over you, who have spoken to you the word of God; imitate their faith, considering the end result of their manner of life.
8. Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and today, and forever.
9. Do not be carried away with various and strange doctrines. It is good for the heart to be established in grace, not by rules concerning food, for those who lived by them were not benefitted.

²⁹ Cf. Deuteronomy 9:19.

³⁰ Haggai 2:6.

³¹ Deuteronomy 31:6.

³² Psalm 118:6.

10. We have an altar from which they who minister in the earthly tabernacle have no right to eat.
11. The bodies of the animals whose blood is brought for sin into the sanctuary by the high priest are burned outside the camp.
12. Wherefore, Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered outside the gate.
13. So then, let us go to him outside the camp, bearing his reproach.
14. For we do not have here an enduring city; rather, we seek the one that is coming.
15. By him, therefore, let us always offer the sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips confessing his name.³³
16. And do not neglect well-doing and generosity, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.
17. Obey those who rule over you, and submit to them, for they watch over your souls, as those who will render an account, that they may do it with joy, and not with sadness, for that would not be good for you.

¶18. Pray for us; for we are confident that we have a good conscience, in everything being willing to conduct ourselves uprightly.

19. And I especially urge you to do this so that I be restored to you the sooner.

¶20. Now, may the God of peace, who by the blood of the eternal covenant brought up from the dead the great Shepherd of the sheep, our Lord Jesus,

21. make you perfect in every good work, that you may do His will, doing in you what is pleasing in His sight through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

¶22. And I entreat you, brothers, that you endure the word of exhortation, for I have written you but a few words.

23. Know that brother Timothy has been released, with whom, if he comes soon, I will see you.

¶24. Greet all of your leaders and all the saints. Those of Italy send you greetings.

¶25. Grace be with you all. Amen.

³³ Or, “confessing in his name”. See Mt. 10:32; Lk. 12:8.

James

James 1

- ¶1. James, a slave of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ. To the twelve tribes that are in the Dispersion: Greetings.
- ¶2. Count it all joy, my brothers, when you fall into various trials,
3. knowing that the trying of your faith produces patience,
4. but let patience have its perfect work, that you might be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.
- ¶5. If anyone among you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives generously to all and does not belittle, and it shall be given to him.
6. But let him ask in faith, doubting nothing, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, wind-driven and tossed.
7. Let not that man think that he will receive anything from the Lord.
8. A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.
- ¶9. Let the lowly brother glory in his exalted position,
10. and the wealthy, in his lowly state, for like a flower of the grass, he shall pass away.
11. For the sun rises with its burning heat and withers the grass, and its flower falls, and the beauty of its appearance is destroyed. Likewise, the rich man, with all his ways, shall also fade away.
- ¶12. Blessed is the man who endures a trial, for being approved, he shall receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love him.
13. When being tempted, let no one say, "I am being tempted by God." For God is not tempted by evil, and He Himself tempts no one,
14. but every man is tempted when he is drawn away by his own desire, and enticed.
15. Then, when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin, and sin, when it is accomplished, brings forth death.
- ¶16. Do not be deceived, my beloved brothers.
17. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation, nor shadow of change.
18. As He had determined beforehand, He gave us a new birth by the Word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of His creatures.
- ¶19. Therefore, my beloved brothers, let every man be quick to listen, slow to speak, slow to wrath,
20. for the wrath of man does not work the righteousness of God.
21. Wherefore, laying aside all filthiness and every wicked excess, receive with meekness the implanted word that is able to save your souls.

22. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deluding yourselves.
23. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man contemplating his natural face in a mirror,
24. who observed himself and went away, and immediately forgot what he was like.
25. But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty, and perseveres, not being a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this man will be blessed in his doing.
26. If anyone among you thinks he is religious, not bridling his tongue but deceiving his own heart, this man's religion is in vain.
27. Pure and undefiled religion before God the Father is this: to take care of orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unspotted by the world.

James 2

- ¶1. My brothers, do not hold the faith of our Lord of glory, Jesus Christ, with respect of persons.
2. If a man should come into your synagogue with a gold ring, in fine clothes, and a poor man also comes in with shabby clothes,
3. and you have respect toward the one who is wearing the fine clothing, and you say to him, "You sit here in a good place," but to the poor man you say, "You stand there," or "Sit here at my footstool,"
4. have you not then shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?
5. Listen, my beloved brothers. Has not God chosen the poor of the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He has promised to those who love Him?
6. But you have despised the poor man. Do not rich men oppress you and drag you into courts?
7. Do they not blaspheme the good name by which you are called?
8. If you truly are fulfilling the royal law, according to the scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you are doing well,
9. but if you show respect of persons, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors.
10. Whoever keeps the whole law, yet stumbles at one point, is guilty of all.
11. For He who said, "You shall not commit adultery," also said, "You shall not murder." So, if you do not commit adultery but do commit murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.
12. So speak and so act as they who shall be judged by the law of liberty.
13. For judgment without mercy will be to him who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.
- ¶14. What good is it, my brothers, if someone claims to have faith, but has no works? Can faith save him?

15. If a brother or a sister be without clothing or be lacking in daily food,
16. and one of you should say to them, “Go in peace; be warm and filled,” but you do not give them the things necessary for the body, what good is it?
17. So, too, faith by itself, if it have no works, is dead.
18. But someone will say, “You have faith, and I have works.” You show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works.
19. You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and tremble.
20. But are you willing to know, O fruitless man, that faith without works is dead?
21. Was not Abraham our father justified by works after he offered up Isaac his son on the altar?
22. Do you see that faith was working together with his works and that faith was perfected by his works?
23. And so, the scripture was fulfilled that says, “Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness,” and he was called God’s friend.¹
24. See, then, by works a man is justified, and not by faith only!
25. And likewise, was not Rahab the harlot also justified by works when she welcomed the messengers and then sent them out by another way?
26. Therefore, just as the body without a spirit is dead, so also, faith without works is dead.

James 3

- ¶1. Do not be many teachers, my brothers, seeing that we shall receive stricter judgment.
2. For we all offend in many ways. If someone does not offend in word, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle the whole body.
3. Behold, we put bits in the mouths of horses to make them obey us, and we guide their whole body.
4. Behold, even ships, though so large and driven by fierce winds, are steered by a small rudder, wherever the pilot determines.
5. So also, the tongue is a small member, and yet it makes great boasts. Behold, how great a forest a small fire sets ablaze!
6. Indeed, the tongue is a fire, a world of unrighteousness. The tongue is so situated among our members that it defiles the whole body and sets on fire the wheel of life, and it is set on fire by Gehenna.²
7. For every species of beasts, and birds, and reptiles, and creatures of the sea is tamed and has been tamed by the human species,
8. but no one among men can tame the tongue; it is an uncontrollable evil, full of deadly poison.

¹ Isa. 41:8.

² The word Gehenna is often mistranslated as “hell”, but it actually refers to what John called in Revelation “the Lake of Fire”. See What the Bible Really Says about Hell, available for online reading at GoingtoJesus.com.

9. With it, we bless God, even the Father, and with it, we curse men who are created in God's likeness.
 10. Out of the same mouth comes forth blessing and cursing. These things, my brothers, ought not to be.
 11. A fountain does not issue sweet and bitter water from the same opening, does it?
 12. A fig tree cannot bear olives, can it, my brothers? or a grapevine, figs? Just so, no fountain yields salt water and fresh.
- ¶13. Who among you is wise and understanding? Let him by good conduct show his works in the meekness of wisdom.
14. If you have bitter envy and strife in your heart, do not glory in spite of it and, so, lie against the truth.
 15. This wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, demonic.
 16. For where envy and strife are, there is disorder and every base thing.
 17. But the wisdom from above is, first of all, pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial, and sincere.
 18. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who produce peace.

James 4

- ¶1. From where are the conflicts and quarrels among you? Are they not from this, from your passions that war in your members?
2. You covet, but you do not have. You kill and you envy, but you cannot obtain. You quarrel and fight, but you do not have because you do not ask.
3. You ask, but you do not receive because you ask wickedly, that you might squander it on your pleasures.
4. You adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that the friendship of the world is enmity against God? Therefore, whoever would be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.
5. Or do you suppose that the scripture says in vain, “The spirit that dwells in us longs for envy”?
6. But He gives greater grace; therefore, it says, “God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.”
7. Submit, therefore, to God. Resist the Accuser, and he will flee from you.
8. Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded!
9. Be miserable, and mourn, and weep! Let your laughter be turned into mourning and your joy into dejection!
10. Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up!

- ¶11. Do not speak evil of one another, brothers. He who speaks evil of a brother and condemns his brother, speaks evil of the law and condemns the law. And if you condemn the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge.
12. There is one law-giver, who is able to save and to destroy. Then, who are you that condemns another?
- ¶13. Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to this city, and work there for a year, and buy and sell and make a profit,”
14. whereas you do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what is your life? It is a mist that appears for a little while, and then dissipates.
15. Instead, you should say, “If the Lord will, then we will live, and do this or that.”
16. But as it is, you are boasting in your presumptions. All such boasting is evil.
17. Now, to him who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.

James 5

- ¶1. Come now, you rich men! Weep! howling for your impending miseries!
2. Your wealth is rotted, and your garments are moth-eaten.
3. Your gold and silver are corroded; their rust will be a witness against you, and it will eat your flesh like fire. You have stored up treasure for the last days.
4. Behold, the wages of the laborers who harvested your fields, which were fraudulently withheld by you, cry out, and the cries of the reapers have entered into the ears of the LORD of hosts.
5. You have lived in luxury on the earth, and in self-indulgence. You have nourished your hearts as for a day of slaughter.
6. You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous man, who does not resist you.
- ¶7. Now then, be patient, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waits for the precious fruit of the earth, patiently waiting for it until it receives the early and the latter rain.
8. You be patient, too. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand.
9. Do not murmur against one another, brothers, lest you be condemned. Behold, the Judge is standing at the gates.
10. Take, my brothers, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord as an example of suffering hardships and of patience.
11. Behold, we consider them happy who are enduring. You have heard of the patience of Job and have seen the outcome from the LORD, that He is compassionate and merciful.
- ¶12. Above all, my brothers, do not swear, neither by heaven nor by earth, nor by any other oath, but let your yes be yes, and your no, no, lest you fall into hypocrisy.
- ¶13. Is anyone among you suffering hardships? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing psalms.

14. Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the congregation, and let them pray for him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord,
15. and the prayer of faith will heal the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up; moreover, if he have committed sins, they will be forgiven him.
16. Confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, that you might be healed.
The prayer of a righteous man can avail much when it is at work.
17. Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months.
18. And then he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit.
- ¶19. Brothers, if anyone among you is led astray from the truth and someone turns him back,
20. let him know that he who turns the sinner from his wandering way will save a soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

1Peter

1Peter 1

- ¶1. Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ. To the chosen sojourners of the Diaspora in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,
- 2. according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, even the sprinkling of blood, for obedience to Jesus Christ: Grace to you, and peace be multiplied.
- ¶3. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in His abundant mercy has begotten us anew into a living hope, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
- 4. for an incorruptible, and pure, and permanent inheritance reserved in heaven for you
- 5. who are kept by the power of God, through faith, for the salvation prepared to be revealed in the last time.
- 6. In this you rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, you are distressed by various trials
- 7. so that the trying of your faith, much more precious than the trying of gold that perishes, though it be tried by fire, may be found worthy of praise, and honor, and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ
- 8. (whom having not seen, you love, and in whom, though not seeing him now, you believe, and you rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory),
- 9. receiving the end of your faith, the salvation of your souls.
- 10. Prophets who prophesied of the grace that has come to you searched for and diligently inquired about this salvation,
- 11. trying to determine who or what time the Spirit of Christ which was in them was indicating when it testified beforehand of the sufferings of Christ and of the glory that followed.
- 12. To them it was revealed that they were ministering those things not to themselves, but to you, which things are now reported to you by those who preach the gospel to you by the holy Spirit sent from heaven, into which things angels long to look.
- ¶13. Wherefore, girding up the loins of your mind, being sober-minded, set your hope fully on the grace to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ,
- 14. as obedient children, not conforming yourselves to desires, as in your former ignorance,
- 15. but rather, as He who called you is holy, so you be holy in all your ways,

16. for it is written, “Be holy, for I am holy.”¹
17. And if you call on the Father, who without respect of persons judges according to each one’s work, live out the time of your sojourning with fear,
18. knowing that you were not redeemed from your worthless way of life, received by tradition from your fathers, with corruptible things such as silver or gold,
19. but with the precious blood of Christ, as of an unblemished and spotless lamb,
20. known indeed before the foundation of the world, but revealed in the end times for your sakes
21. who through him have faith in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope might be in God.
22. With your souls purified by obedience to the truth through the Spirit unto a sincere love of the brothers, love one another fervently with a pure heart,
23. being born again, not of corruptible seed but of incorruptible, by the living and eternally enduring word of God.
24. For, “All flesh is like grass, and all the glory of man is like a flower of grass. The grass withers, and its flower falls,
25. but the word of the LORD abides forever.”² And this is the word that is preached to you.

1Peter 2

- ¶1. Therefore, having put away all malice, and all deceit, and hypocrisy, and envy, and all evil speaking,
2. as newborn babies, desire pure spiritual milk, that you might grow by it,
3. if indeed you have tasted that the LORD is good,
4. to whom coming as to a living stone—yes, rejected by men, but chosen and precious in the sight of God,
5. and you, as living stones, are being built into a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.
6. For it is contained in Scripture, “Behold, I lay in Zion a cornerstone, chosen and precious, and he who believes on him will never be put to shame.”³
7. Therefore, honor will come to you who believe, but to the disobedient, “The stone that the builders rejected, the same has become the head of the corner,”⁴
8. and “a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense.”⁵ Those who disobey stumble at the word, to which also they were appointed.

¹ Lev. 11:44–45.

² Isa. 40:6b, 8.

³ Isa. 28:16.

⁴ Ps. 118:22.

⁵ Isa. 8:14.

9. But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that you should proclaim the virtues of the One who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light,
 10. who once were not a people, but now are a divine people, who had not received mercy, but now have received mercy.
- ¶11. Beloved, I urge you, as strangers and sojourners, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul,
12. keeping your conduct honorable among the Gentiles so that, although they speak against you as evildoers, they will, seeing your good works, glorify God in the day of visitation.
- ¶13. Be subject, therefore, to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake, whether to a king, as supreme,
14. or to governors, as those sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of those who do good.
 15. For such is the will of God that by doing good, you put to silence the ignorance of foolish men,
 16. as free men, and yet, as slaves of God, not using liberty as a cover for evil.
 17. Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.
- ¶18. Servants are to be subject to masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to those who are harsh.
19. For this is praiseworthy, if someone for conscience sake toward God endures sorrows, suffering unjustly.
 20. What credit is it, if you patiently endure when you sin and are beaten? But if you patiently endure when you do good and suffer, this is commendable with God.
 21. For to this you were called, for Christ also suffered for us, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his footsteps,
 22. who "committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth";⁶
 23. who, when he was reviled, did not revile in return; when suffering, did not threaten, but committed himself to the One who judges justly;
 24. who himself bore our sins in his body upon the tree so that we, being dead to sins, might live in righteousness; by whose stripes you were healed.
 25. For you were like sheep being led astray, but now you have been brought back to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

⁶ Isa. 53:9.

1. Also, you wives, be subject to your own husbands so that, should any disobey the word, they might be won over without a word, by the conduct of the wives,
 2. when they observe your pure conduct coupled with fear.
 3. Let your adornment not be outward—the braiding of hair, and wearing of gold, or putting on of clothing—;
 4. rather, let it be the hidden man of the heart, with the unfading beauty of a meek and quiet spirit, which is precious in the sight of God.
 5. For this is how holy women who adorned themselves in times past also hoped in God, being in subjection to their husbands,
 6. as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him “master”, whose children you are, if you do good and do not fear any terror.
- ¶7. Furthermore, you husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honor to the woman as to a weaker vessel and as heirs together of the grace of life, so that your prayers be not hindered.
- ¶8. Finally, everyone be of one mind, compassionate, loving as brothers, tenderhearted, friendly,
9. not rendering evil for evil or abuse for abuse, but giving a blessing instead, knowing that you were called to this, that you might inherit a blessing.
 10. For, “He who would love life and see good days, let him keep his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking guile.
 11. Let him eschew evil, and do good. Let him seek peace, and pursue it.
 12. For the eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open to their plea. But the face of the LORD is against those who do evil.”⁷
- ¶13. And who will do you evil, if you be followers of what is good?
14. But even if you should suffer for righteousness, you are blessed. “Do not fear their fear, neither be troubled,
 15. but sanctify the LORD God in your hearts,”⁸ and always be ready with an answer for all who ask of you a reason for the hope that is in you, with humility and fear,
 16. having a good conscience, so that while they slander you as evildoers, those that disparage your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame.
 17. For it is better to suffer, if it be the will of God, for doing good than for doing evil.
 18. Christ also suffered for sins once for all, a righteous man for the unrighteous, that he might bring you to God, put to death in the flesh but made alive by the Spirit,
 19. by the which he also went and preached to the spirits in prison,

⁷ Ps. 34:12–16a.

⁸ Isa. 8:12b–13a.

20. who once were unbelieving, when in the days of Noah the long-suffering of God waited while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water,
21. corresponding to which, baptism now also saves us (not a removal of filth from the body, but a pledge to God from a good conscience), by the resurrection of Jesus Christ,
22. who is at the right-hand of God, having gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.

1 Peter 4

- ¶1. And so, since Christ suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same mind, for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin,
2. so as to live the remaining time in the flesh no longer according to the desires of men, but according to the will of God.
3. The time that is past is sufficient for us to have done the will of the masses, walking in licentiousness, lusts, drunkenness, banquetings, carousings, and lewd worship of idols,
4. concerning which they think it strange that you do not run with them to the same excess of debauchery, speaking blasphemies,
5. who shall give an account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.
6. This is why the gospel was also preached to the dead, so that having been condemned by men in the flesh, they might live by God in the Spirit.
- ¶7. But the end of all things is at hand; therefore, be sensible and sober-minded for the sake of your prayers,
8. and above all things, continue in earnest love for one another, for love will cover a multitude of sins,
9. showing hospitality to one another without grumbling,
10. ministering the same to one another as each one has received a gift, as good stewards of the multifaceted grace of God.
11. If any man speak, let it be as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let it be with the strength that God supplies, so that in all things, God might be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom is the glory and the dominion for ever and ever. Amen.
- ¶12. Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal which is coming to try you, as though a strange thing is happening to you.
13. On the contrary, rejoice, inasmuch as you are partakers of Christ's sufferings, so that you may also rejoice and be glad at the revelation of his glory.
14. If you are being reviled for the name of Christ, you are blessed, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. On their part, he is blasphemed, but on your part, he is glorified.

15. Let no one among you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evildoer, or as a busybody,
16. but if as a “Christian”, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that.
17. For the appointed time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God, and if it begins with us, what will be the end of those who refuse to obey the gospel of God?
18. And if the righteous are scarcely saved, where will the ungodly and sinner appear?
19. So then, let those who suffer according to the will of God commit their souls to Him in well-doing, as to a faithful Creator.

1 Peter 5

- ¶1. As a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and as a partaker of the glory that is to be revealed, I exhort the elders who are among you:
 2. shepherd the flock of God that is with you, exercising oversight not under compulsion but willingly, neither for sordid gain, but eagerly,
 3. nor as lording it over those assigned to you, but by being examples for the flock.
 4. And when the Chief Shepherd is revealed, you shall receive an unfading crown of glory.
 5. Also, you younger men, submit to the elders; indeed, all of you submit to one another, clothing yourselves with humility, for God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.
 6. Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, that He might lift you up in due time,
 7. casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you.
 8. Be sober; be watchful. Your adversary, the Accuser, is walking about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour,
 9. whom withstand steadfastly in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are being experienced by those who are your brothers in the world.
 10. And after you have suffered a little while, may the God of all grace, who called you into His eternal glory in Christ Jesus, perfect you, and support, strengthen, and establish you.
 11. To Him be the glory and the dominion for ever and ever. Amen.
 - ¶12. By Silvanus, a faithful brother in my judgment, I have written briefly to you, exhorting you and testifying that this in which you stand is the true grace of God.
 13. She who is in Babylon, called with you, greets you, as well as Markus my son.
 14. Greet one another with a loving kiss.
- ¶Peace to all of you who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2Peter

2Peter 1

- ¶1. Simon Peter, a slave and apostle of Jesus Christ. To those who have received with us the same precious faith in the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ:
2. Grace and peace be multiplied to you by the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.
 3. His divine power has given us all things pertaining to life and godliness by the knowledge of Him who called us through glory and virtue,
 4. by which things, precious and great promises are given to us, so that by these you might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.
 5. And to this end, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, and to virtue, knowledge,
 6. and to knowledge, self-control, and to self-control, patience, and to patience, godliness,
 7. and to godliness, brotherly affection, and to brotherly affection, love.
 8. For these things, being in you and abounding, make you neither slothful nor unfruitful in attaining to the true knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
 9. The one in whom these things are not present is blind, short-sighted, having forgotten the cleansing from his former sins.
 10. Wherefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for in doing these things, you will never fall,
 11. and so, the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ shall be abundantly provided to you.
- ¶12. Wherefore, I will not neglect to remind you always of these things, though you know and are established in the present truth.
13. And I consider it a righteous thing to stir you up by reminding you, as long as I am in this tabernacle,
 14. knowing that the departure from my tabernacle is imminent, as our Lord Jesus Christ has shown me.
 15. Moreover, I will make every effort to see to it that after my departure, you always have these things in remembrance.
- ¶16. We did not follow cunningly fabricated myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; on the contrary, we were eyewitnesses of his majesty.
17. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was borne to him by the Majestic Glory, saying; “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”¹

¹ Mt. 3:17; Mk. 1:11; Lk. 3:22.

18. And this voice, we ourselves heard coming from heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.²
19. And we have something more certain that was prophesied about, to which you will do well to give heed, as to a light shining in a gloomy place until the day breaks and the Morning Star rises in your hearts,
20. knowing this first, that no prophecy in Scripture is of man's own interpretation.
21. For no prophecy in the past came about by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the holy Spirit.

2Peter 2

- ¶1. But there were also false prophets among the people, just as there will also be false teachers among you, who will introduce opinions that lead to damnation, even denying the Lord who bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction.
2. And many will follow them in licentious ways, because of whom the way of truth will be spoken evil of.
3. And in covetousness, they will exploit you with feigned words. For them, the ancient decree is not lingering, and their destruction is not asleep.
4. For if God spared not the angels who sinned, but tartarized them and consigned them to chains of blackness to be held until the Day of Judgment,
5. and if He did not spare the old world, but saved eight, including Noah, a preacher of righteousness, bringing a cataclysm upon the world of the ungodly,
6. and if He condemned to destruction the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah when He reduced them to ashes, providing an example for those who would be ungodly,
7. and rescued righteous Lot, who was vexed by the licentious conduct of the lawless
8. (for that righteous man, in what he saw and heard while living among them, felt his righteous soul tormented day after day by their lawless deeds),
9. then the Lord knows how to deliver godly people from a trial and how to keep unrighteous people under punishment until the Day of Judgment,
10. but especially those who follow the flesh in a desire for defilement and despise government. Bold and self-willed, they do not tremble when speaking evil of authorities,
11. whereas angels, who are greater in might and power, do not bring a railing accusation against them before the Lord.
12. But these, like unreasoning beasts of nature, born to be caught and killed, speak evil of things they do not understand, and they will be destroyed in their destruction,
13. receiving the reward of unrighteousness. They are spots and blemishes, considering daily luxury a delight, reveling in their deceitful ways while they feast with you.

² Mt. 17:5; Mk. 9:7; Lk. 9:35.

14. Having eyes full of adultery and unable to cease from sin, seducing unstable souls, having a heart trained in covetousness, they are cursed children,
15. having forsaken the right way and gone astray in following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the reward of unrighteousness,
16. though he had been rebuked for his lawless conduct; a dumb ass, speaking with human voice, restrained the madness of the prophet.³
17. These are wells without water, clouds driven by a storm,⁴ for whom is reserved the blackness of eternal darkness.
18. Making pretentious, vain speeches, they entice to sensuality through lusts of the flesh those who once had truly escaped from those who live in error,
19. promising them liberty while they themselves are slaves of corruption. For by whatever one is overcome, to that is he also a slave.
20. For if after escaping the defilements of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, their last state is worse than the first.
21. It would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness than after knowing it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them.
22. But it has happened to them according to the true proverb, “A dog returns to his own vomit,⁵ and a washed sow to wallowing in the mud.”

2Peter 3

- ¶1. This second letter I am now writing to you, beloved, in both of which I am stirring up your pure minds by way of a reminder,
2. that you should remember the words spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through your apostles,
3. knowing this first, that in the last days, scoffers shall come, walking after their own desires,
4. and saying, “Where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things are continuing as they have from the beginning of creation.”
5. But they deliberately ignore this, that by the Word of God, long ago, the heavens came to be and the earth came forth out of the water and through the water,
6. and by these waters, the world which existed then, being overwhelmed with water, was destroyed,
7. and by the same Word, the heavens and the earth which exist now are being kept in store, reserved for fire until the Day of Judgment and the damnation of ungodly men.

³ Num. 22:28–30.

⁴ Prov. 25:14.

⁵ Prov. 26:11.

- ¶8. This one thing do not let escape your notice, beloved, that with the Lord, one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years, as one day.
9. The Lord of the promise is not slow, as some think of slowness, but waits patiently for us, not wanting any to perish, but for all to come to repentance.
10. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the elements, consumed with burning heat, will be destroyed, and the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up.
11. So then, seeing that all these things are to be destroyed, what kind of people ought you to be in all holy conduct and godliness,
12. looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, in which the heavens, being on fire, will be destroyed, and the elements, consumed with heat, will be dissolved?
13. But we, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.
- ¶14. Wherefore, beloved, seeing that you look for these things, be diligent to be found by Him in peace, without spot, and blameless.
15. And consider the patience of our Lord to be salvation, just as our beloved brother Paul has also written to you according to the wisdom given to him,
16. as also in all his letters when speaking in them about these matters, among which are some things hard to understand, which those who are ignorant and unstable twist to their own damnation, as they also do the other scriptures.
17. You, therefore, beloved, knowing this ahead of time, watch, lest being led astray by the deceit of lawless men, you fall from your own steadfastness.
18. Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory, both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

1John

1John 1

- ¶1. That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we beheld, and our hands touched: the Word of life.
- 2. And the life was revealed, and we saw it, and we are bearing witness and showing you the eternal life which was with the Father and was revealed to us.
- 3. That which we have seen and heard we are showing you, so that you may also have fellowship with us, and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ,
- 4. and we are writing these things to you so that our joy might be full.

- ¶5. And this is the message that we have heard from him and are passing on to you, that God is light, and in Him, there is no darkness at all.
- 6. If we say that we have fellowship with Him while we walk in darkness, we are lying and not telling the truth,¹
- 7. but if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.
- 8. If we say that we do not have sin, we are deceiving ourselves, and the truth is not in us.
- 9. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
- 10. If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

1John 2

- ¶1. My children, I am writing these things to you so that you do not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous;
- 2. and he is the propitiation for our sins, not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.
- 3. And by this, we know that we have come to know him: if we keep his commandments.
- 4. He who says, “I know him,” and does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him,
- 5. but whoever keeps his word, the love of God truly is perfected in him. By this, we know that we are in him.
- 6. He who claims to dwell in him ought himself to walk just as he walked.
- 7. Brothers, I am writing no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning; the old commandment is the message which you heard from the beginning.

¹ Lit., doing the truth.

8. Again, I am writing a new commandment to you, which is true in him and in you, for the darkness is passing away, and the true light is already shining.
 9. He who claims to be in the light and yet hates his brother is still in darkness.
 10. He who loves his brother continues in the light, and there is no stumbling block in him.
 11. He who hates his brother is in darkness, and he is walking in darkness, and he does not know where he is going because the darkness has blinded his eyes.
- ¶12. I am writing to you, children, because your sins are forgiven for his name's sake.
13. I am writing to you, fathers, because you have known him from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the Evil One. I am writing to you, little children, because you have come to know the Father.
 14. I write to you, fathers, because you have known him from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the Evil One.
 15. Do not love the world, nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
 16. For all that is in the world—the desire of the flesh, and the desire of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father, but is of the world.
 17. And the world is passing away, and its lust, but he who does the will of God abides forever.
- ¶18. Little children, it is the last hour, and just as you have heard that the anti-Christ is coming, even now many have become anti-Christians, by which we know that it is the last hour.
19. They went out from us, but they were not of us, for if they were of us, they would have remained among us. But they went out so that they might be manifested that they all are not of us.
 20. But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things.
 21. I do not write to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and you know that no lie is of the truth.
 22. Who is a liar, except the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He is the anti-Christ, who denies the Father and the Son.
 23. Everyone who denies the Son does not have the Father. *He who confesses the Son has the Father also.*²
 24. As for you, let what you have heard from the beginning continue in you. If what you have heard from the beginning continues in you, then you will continue in the Son as well as in the Father.
 25. And this is the promise that he himself promised us: eternal life.
 26. I write you these things concerning those who are leading you astray.

² The last half of this verse is from the UBS text and is included in most translations of the New Testament.

27. But as for you, the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and so, you have no need for anyone to teach you, but as the same anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is not a lie, just as it has taught you, you will continue in it.
28. And now, children, continue in him, so that when he appears, we might have confidence and not be ashamed before him at his coming.
29. If you know that he is righteous, you know that every one who is doing righteousness has been born of him.

1 John 3

- ¶1. Behold, what great love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called the children of God! The reason the world does not know you is that it did not know Him.
2. Beloved, we are now children of God, but what we shall be is not yet made manifest. But we know that when it is made manifest, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is.
3. And everyone who has this hope in him purifies himself, just as He is pure.
4. Everyone who practices sin is also practicing lawlessness; sin is lawlessness.
5. And you know that he was made manifest so that he might take away our sins, and sin is not in him.
6. Everyone who abides in him does not sin; everyone who is sinning has neither seen him nor known him.
7. Children, do not let anyone deceive you; he who does righteousness is righteous, just as he is righteous.
8. He who practices sin is of the Accuser, for the Accuser has been sinning from the beginning. For this reason was the Son of God revealed, to destroy the works of the Accuser.
9. Everyone born of God does not practice sin, for His seed abides in him, and he cannot sin because he is born of God.
10. By this, the children of God and the children of the Accuser are distinguished: everyone who is not doing righteousness is not of God, as well as the one who does not love his brother.
11. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another,
12. not as Cain, who was of the Evil One and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his deeds were evil, and those of his brother, righteous.
- ¶13. Do not be surprised, my brothers, if the world hates you.
14. We know that we have passed from death into life because we love the brothers. He who does not love his brother abides in death.

15. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has everlasting life abiding in him.
16. By this, we have come to know love, in that he laid down his life for us; and so, we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers.
17. Whoever has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart to him, how does the love of God abide in him?
18. My children, let us not love in word or with the tongue, but in deed and in truth.
19. And by this, we know that we are of the truth, and we will assure our hearts before Him,
20. for if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and He understands everything.
21. Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence toward God,
22. and whatever we ask, we receive from Him because we keep His commandments and do the things that are pleasing in His sight.
23. And this is His commandment, that we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he commanded.
24. And he who keeps His commandments abides in Him, and He in him. And by this, we know that He abides in us, by the Spirit that He gave us.

1 John 4

- ¶1. Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.
2. By this, the Spirit of God is known: every spirit that confesses Jesus Christ when he has come into a person is of God,
3. and every spirit that does not confess Jesus Christ when he has come into a person is not of God. And this is that of the anti-Christ which you have heard is coming, and now, already, it is in the world.
4. You are of God, children, and you have overcome them because the One who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.
5. They are of the world; therefore, they speak of the world, and the world listens to them.
6. We are of God. He who knows God listens to us; he who is not of God does not listen to us. By this, we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.
- ¶7. Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God, and everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God.
8. He who does not love does not know God, for God is love.
9. By this was the love of God made manifest among us, that God sent His only Son into the world, that we might live through him.
10. In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as propitiation for our sins.
11. Beloved, if God loved us like this, we also should love one another.

12. No one has ever seen God. If we love one another, God abides in us, and His love is perfected in us.
13. By this, we know that we abide in Him, and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit.
14. And we have seen and bear witness that the Father sent the Son to be Savior of the world.
15. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him and he in God.
16. And we have known and have believed the love that God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.
17. By this, love has been perfected among us, so that we may have confidence in the Day of Judgment, because as He is, so are we in this world.
18. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear, for fear has to do with punishment, and he who fears has not been perfected in love.
19. We love Him because He first loved us.
20. If anyone says, "I love God," and yet, hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen?
21. And we have this commandment from Him, that he who loves God should also love his brother.

1 John 5

- ¶1. Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Messiah has been born of God, and everyone who loves Him who begot loves also the one begotten of Him.
2. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep His commandments.
3. For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments, and His commandments are not burdensome.
4. For everything that is born of God overcomes the world, and this is the victory that overcomes the world: our faith.
5. Who is it who overcomes the world except he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?
6. This is he who came through water and blood—Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And the Spirit is the witness because the Spirit is truth.
7. For there are three that bear witness:
8. the Spirit, and the water, and the blood. And these three agree.
9. If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater, for this is the witness of God that He has given concerning His Son.
10. He who believes in the Son of God has the witness within him; he who does not believe God has made Him out to be a liar because he has not believed in the witness that God has given concerning His Son.
11. And this is the witness, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in His Son.
12. He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

¶13. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God so that you might know that you have eternal life and that you might believe in the name of the Son of God.

14. And this is the confidence that we have toward Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us;
 15. and if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have made of Him.
 16. If anyone sees his brother committing a sin that does not call for death, he shall ask, and He will give him life for those who commit sins that do not call for death. There is a sin that calls for death; I do not say that he should pray for that.
 17. All unrighteousness is sin, yet there is a sin that does not call for death.
- ¶18. We know that everyone who has been born of God is not sinning, but he who is begotten of God keeps himself, and the Evil One does not touch him.
19. We know that we are of God and that the whole world lies in wickedness.
 20. And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding so that we might know Him who is true, and in His Son Jesus Christ, we are in Him who is true. This is the true God, and eternal life.
 21. Children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

2John

2John 1

- ¶1. The elder to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all who have known the truth,
 - 2. because of the truth that abides within us, and it will be with us forever:
 - 3. Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, in truth and in love from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Father's Son.
- ¶4. I was overjoyed to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as we received commandment from the Father.
- 5. And now, I entreat you, lady (not as though I am writing a new commandment to you, but that which we have had from the beginning), that we love one another.
 - 6. And this is love, that we live by His commandments. This is the commandment, which you have heard from the beginning, that you should live in it.
 - 7. For many deceivers are gone out into the world, those who do not confess Jesus Christ when he comes into a person; this is the deceiver and the anti-Christ.
 - 8. Take heed to yourselves, lest we lose the things we have worked for, but that we may receive a full reward.
 - 9. Everyone who turns aside and does not remain in the doctrine of Christ does not have God; he who remains in the doctrine of Christ has both the Father and the Son.
 - 10. If anyone comes to you not carrying this doctrine, do not receive him into your house, and do not offer him a greeting,
 - 11. for he who welcomes him partakes of his evil deeds.
- ¶12. Although I have many things to write to you, I would rather not use paper and ink; however, I do hope to come to you and talk face to face, so that our joy might be full.
- 13. The children of your chosen sister greet you. Amen.

3John

3John 1

- ¶1. The elder to the beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth.
- ¶2. Beloved, I pray for you to prosper in all things and to be in good health, just as your soul is prospering.
- 3. I was overjoyed when brothers came and bore witness of you in the truth, how you are walking in truth.
- 4. I have no greater joy than this, to hear that my children are walking in truth.
- ¶5. Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you do for the brothers and for strangers,
- 6. who testified of your love before the Assembly; whom you will do well to send on their way in a manner worthy of God,
- 7. for they went out on behalf of the Name, accepting nothing from the Gentiles.
- 8. We, therefore, ought to receive such men, that we might be laborers together in the truth.
- ¶9. I wrote to the Assembly, but Diotrephes, who likes to be chief among them, does not receive us.
- 10. For this reason, if I come, I will remember his deeds that he does, disparaging us with evil words; and not satisfied with these things, he does not receive the brothers, and he forbids those who would and expels them from the Assembly.
- 11. Beloved, do not follow what is evil, but what is good. He who does good is of God; he who does evil has not understood God.
- 12. Testimony has been given of Demetrius by everyone, and by the truth itself; we also ourselves bear him witness, and you know that our witness is true.
- ¶13. I had many things to write, but I do not want to write you with ink and pen,
- 14. but I hope to see you shortly, and we will speak face to face. Peace to you. The friends send you greeting. Greet the friends by name.

Jude

Jude 1

- ¶1. Jude, a slave of Jesus Christ, brother of James. To those who are called, sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ:
2. May mercy, and peace, and love be multiplied to you.
- ¶3. Beloved, making all diligence to write to you concerning the common salvation, I felt constrained to write you, exhorting you to earnestly contend for the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints.
4. For certain men have crept in who were long ago designated for this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into licentiousness and denying the only Master, God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.
- ¶5. Now, I want to remind you, though you once knew this, that the LORD, after He saved a people out of Egypt, later destroyed those who did not believe.
6. Moreover, angels who did not keep to their own domain, but left their proper abode, He has kept in eternal chains, under gloomy darkness, until the Judgment of the Great Day,
7. just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them, in a manner similar to these angels, giving themselves over to immorality and going after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire,
8. Likewise, these dreamers defile the flesh as well, and despise government, and rail against authorities.
9. Yet, Michael the archangel, when opposing the Accuser, disputing about the body of Moses, did not presume to bring against him a railing accusation, but said, “The LORD rebuke you.”
10. Nevertheless, these men slander whatever they do not understand, but whatever they comprehend naturally, like unreasoning beasts, in those things they ruin themselves.
11. Woe to them! For they have gone the way of Cain and for reward have given themselves to the error of Balaam, and they are destroyed in the rebellion of Korah.
12. These are spots in your love gatherings, feasting with you, feeding themselves without fear. They are clouds without water, carried along by winds; trees without fruit in harvest, twice dead and uprooted;
13. wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom is reserved the blackness of eternal darkness.
14. Henoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these men, saying, “Behold! The Lord is coming with ten thousands of his saints
15. to execute judgment upon all, and to punish all the ungodly for all their ungodly deeds that they have performed in ungodliness, and for all the harsh things that the ungodly sinners have spoken against him.”

16. These are grumblers, malcontents, following their own desires, and their mouth speaks lofty things, having respect of persons so as to gain advantage.
- ¶17. But as for you, beloved, keep in mind the words that were spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ,
18. for they repeatedly told you that in the last time, there would be scoffers following their own ungodly desires.
19. These are they who cause divisions, unspiritual, not having the Spirit.
20. But you, beloved, building yourselves up in your most holy faith, praying in the holy Spirit,
21. keep yourselves in the love of God as you wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.
22. And be merciful to those who doubt,
23. but others save with fear, snatching them out of the fire, hating even the garment stained by the flesh.
24. Now, to Him who is able to keep them from stumbling and to make them stand without blemish in the presence of His glory with great joy,
25. the only wise God, our Savior, be glory and majesty, power and authority, both now and to all eternity! Amen.

Revelation

Revelation 1

John's Vision of Jesus

- ¶1. The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his slaves what must soon happen, and he made it known by sending his angel to his slave, John,
2. who testified of the word of God and of the witness of Jesus Christ, as much as he saw.
3. Blessed is the one who is reading and those who hear the words of this prophecy and who keep the things written in it, for the time is near.
- ¶4. John. To the seven Assemblies that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from the One who is, and who was, and who is to come, and from the seven spirits that are before His throne,
5. and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and ruler over the kings of the earth. To him who loves us, and washed us from our sins in his blood,
6. and has made of us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father. To Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen!
7. Behold, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him, and all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of him. Yes, Amen!
- ¶8. "I am the Alpha and the Omega, says the LORD God, the One who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty!"
- ¶9. I, John, your brother and partner in the tribulation, and kingdom, and perseverance in Christ Jesus, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and because of the witness of Jesus Christ.
10. I was in the Spirit on the LORD's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet,
11. saying, "What you see, write in a book, and send it to the seven Assemblies: to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamon, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."
12. And I turned to see the voice that was speaking to me. And when I had turned, I saw seven golden lampstands,
13. and in the midst of the seven lampstands was one like a son of man, wearing a robe extending to his feet and girded about the chest with a golden sash.
14. His head and his hair were white as wool, like snow, and his eyes were like a flame of fire,
15. and his feet were like fine brass glowing in a furnace, and his voice was like the sound of many waters.
16. And he held seven stars in his right hand, and out of his mouth came a sharp, double-edged sword, and his face was like the sun shining in its strength.
17. And when I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead man, but he placed his right hand on me, saying, "Don't be afraid. I am the first and the last,

18. and the one who lives and was dead, and behold, I am alive forever and ever! Amen! And I have the keys of death and of Hades.
19. Now, write down the things you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will come to pass after these things.
20. The mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and of the seven golden lampstands: the seven stars are the messengers of the seven Assemblies, and the seven lampstands are the seven Assemblies.”

Revelation 2
The First Four Messages

- ¶1. “To the messenger of the Assembly in Ephesus, write:
¶He who holds the seven stars in his right hand, who walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands, says these things:
2. I know your works, and your labor, and your patience, and that you cannot tolerate those who are evil. And you have put to the test those who make themselves out to be apostles but are not, and you have found them liars.
3. And you have patience, and you endured for my name’s sake and did not grow weary.
4. Nevertheless, I have against you that you have left your first love.
5. Remember, therefore, from where you have fallen, and repent, and do the first works. Otherwise, I will come upon you suddenly and remove your lampstand from its place, unless you repent.
6. Yet, you do have this, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.
7. He who has an ear, hear what the Spirit is saying to the Assemblies: To him who overcomes will I give to eat of the tree of life that is in the paradise of my God.
- ¶8. “And to the messenger of the Assembly in Smyrna, write:
¶The first and the last, who was dead and is alive, says these things:
9. I know your works, and your suffering, and poverty (but you are rich), and the slander of those who claim to be Jews and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.
10. Do not fear the things you are about to suffer. Behold, the Accuser will soon cast some of you into prison so that you might be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life.
11. He who has an ear, hear what the Spirit is saying to the Assemblies: He who overcomes will not be harmed by the Second Death.
- ¶12. “And to the messenger of the Assembly in Pergamon, write:
¶He who has the sharp, double-edged sword says these things:
13. I know your works, and where you are living—where Satan’s throne is—and yet you hold fast my name, and did not deny my faith even in the days in which Antipas, my faithful martyr, was slain among you, where Satan dwells.

14. Yet, I have a few things against you because you have there some holding the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to lay a stumbling-block before the sons of Israel, to eat food offered to idols and to commit fornication.
 15. And you also have there some who hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans.
 16. So, repent! Otherwise, I will come to you soon, and I will wage war against them with the sword of my mouth.
 17. He who has an ear, hear what the Spirit is saying to the Assemblies: To him who overcomes will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and upon the stone a new name written which no one knows except the one who receives it.
- ¶18. “And to the messenger of the Assembly in Thyatira, write:
 ¶The Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire and whose feet are as fine brass, says these things:
19. I know your works, and love, and faith, and service, and your patience. And your last works are greater than the first.
 20. However, I have against you that you put up with your wife—Jezebel!—who calls herself a prophetess and teaches and seduces my servants to commit fornication and to eat things offered to idols.
 21. And I gave her time to repent, but she will not repent of her whoredom.
 22. Behold, I am casting her onto a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into great affliction unless they repent of her works.
 23. And I will kill her children with death. And all the Assemblies will know I am the one who examines the minds and hearts, and I will give to each of you according to your deeds.
 24. But to you I say, to those who are left in Thyatira, as many as do not hold that doctrine, who have not known ‘the deep things of Satan’, as they say, I put no other burden on you.
 25. Only hold fast what you do have until I come.
 26. And he who overcomes and keeps my works until the end, to him will I give authority over the nations,
 27. and he will rule over them with an iron rod (like potters’ vessels will they be shattered), as I also received from my Father,
 28. and I will give him the morning star.
 29. He who has an ear, hear what the Spirit is saying to the Assemblies!

Revelation 3 The Last Three Messages

- ¶1. “And to the messenger of the Assembly in Sardis, write:
 ¶He who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars says these things:
 I know your works, that you have a reputation that you are alive, but you are dead.

2. Be watchful, and strengthen the things that are left, which are about to die, for I have not found your works perfected before my God.
 3. Remember, therefore, how you received and heard, and hold fast, and repent! If you do not watch, I will come upon you like a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you.
 4. Yet, you have a few names in Sardis who have not defiled their garments, and they will walk with me in white, for they are worthy.
 5. He who overcomes, the same shall be clothed in white garments, and I will not blot his name out of the Book of Life but will confess his name before my Father and before His angels.
 6. He who has an ear, hear what the Spirit is saying to the Assemblies!
- ¶7. “And to the messenger of the Assembly in Philadelphia, write:
¶These things says the one who is holy, who is true, who has the key of David, who opens and no one closes, and closes and no one opens:
8. I know your works. Behold, I have set before you an open door which no one can shut, for you have little power, and yet, you kept my word and did not deny my name.
 9. Behold, I am giving you some from the synagogue of Satan, those who claim to be Jews and are not, but are lying. Behold, I will make them come and bow down at your feet, and they will know that I love you.
 10. Since you have patiently kept my word, I also will keep you from the time of trial that is about to come upon the whole world to try those who dwell on the earth.
 11. I am coming quickly. Hold on to what you have so that no one will take your crown.
 12. He who overcomes, him will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will never again depart from it, and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the New Jerusalem that is coming down out of heaven from my God, and my new name.
 13. He who has an ear, hear what the Spirit is saying to the Assemblies!
- ¶14. “And to the messenger of the Assembly in Laodicea, write:
¶The Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God, says these things:
15. I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I would that you were either cold or hot.
 16. So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I am about to vomit you out of my mouth.
 17. Because you say, ‘I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing,’ and do not know that you are wretched, and pathetic, and poor, and blind, and naked,
 18. I advise you to purchase from me gold refined by fire so that you may be rich, and white garments so that you may clothe yourself and the shame of your nakedness not be exposed, and eyesalve to anoint your eyes so that you may see.
 19. As many as I hold dear, I rebuke and chasten. Be zealous, therefore, and repent!

20. Behold, I have been standing at the door, and I am knocking. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will enter in to him and dine with him, and he with me.
21. He who overcomes, him will I grant to sit with me on my throne, as I also overcame and sat with my Father on His throne.
22. He who has an ear, hear what the Spirit is saying to the Assemblies!"

Revelation 4

John Is Caught up to God's Throne in Heaven

- ¶1. After these things, I looked, and there was an open door in the sky! And the first voice that I heard speaking to me like a trumpet said, "Come up here, and I will show you things that must come to pass hereafter."
2. Immediately, I was in the Spirit, and behold, a throne was set in heaven, and on the throne sat One
 3. whose appearance was like a stone of jasper and sardius, and a rainbow encircled the throne, in appearance like an emerald.
 4. And around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones sat twenty-four elders clothed in white garments, and on their heads were crowns of gold.
 5. And out of the throne came flashes of lightning, and voices, and peals of thunder. And seven lamps of fire were blazing before His throne, which are the seven spirits of God,
 6. and before the throne was something like a sea of glass, like crystal. And in the midst of the throne and around the throne were four things that were alive, full of eyes in front and behind.
 7. The first living thing resembled a lion, and the second living thing resembled a calf, and the third living thing had a face like a man, and the fourth living thing resembled an eagle in flight.
 8. And each one of these four living things had six wings round about, and they were full of eyes within, and they took no rest day or night, saying, "Holy! Holy! Holy! LORD God Almighty, who was, and who is, and who is to come!"
 9. And whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to Him who was sitting on the throne, to Him who lives forever and ever,
 10. the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne, and they worship Him who lives forever and ever, and they throw their crowns before the throne, saying,
 11. "You are worthy, our Lord and God—O Holy One!—to receive glory and honor and power because you created all things. Yea, by your will did they come into being and were created."

Revelation 5

The Scroll

- ¶1. Then, in the right hand of Him who sits on the throne, I saw a scroll with writing on the inside and on the outside, sealed with Seven Seals.

2. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and to loose its seals?”
3. And no one in heaven above, nor on earth, nor beneath the earth was able to open the scroll, nor even to look at it.
4. And I began to weep bitterly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll, nor even to look at it.
5. Then one of the elders said to me, “Stop crying. Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome to open the scroll and its Seven Seals.”
6. And then I saw, standing in the midst of the throne and of the four living things, and in the midst of the elders, something like a slaughtered lamb with seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the world.
7. And it came, and it took the scroll from the right hand of Him who sat on the throne.
8. And when it took the scroll, the four living things and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp and golden bowls full of incense (which are the prayers of the saints).
9. And they sang a new song, saying, “You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals because you were slaughtered. And with your blood, you purchased us for God out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation.”
10. “And you made them kings and priests to our God, and they shall reign on the earth!”
11. And I looked, and I heard as it were the sound of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders, and the number of them was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands,
12. saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and praise!”
13. And then I heard every created thing that is in heaven, and on earth, and beneath the earth, and upon the sea, and everything that is in them, all saying, “To Him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing, and honor, and glory, and might forever and ever! Amen!”
14. And the four living things kept saying, “Amen!” And the elders fell down and worshipped.

Revelation 6 The Seven Seals Are Opened

- ¶1. And I saw that the Lamb opened the first of the Seven Seals, and I heard one of the four living things say, like the sound of thunder, “Come!”
2. And I looked, and there was a white horse! And the one sitting on it held a bow, and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering, and to conquer.
- ¶3. And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, “Come!”

4. And there came out another horse, fiery-red! And it was given to him who rode on it to take peace from the earth so that men would slaughter one another, and a great sword was given to him.

¶5. And when he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, “Come!” And I saw a black horse, and the one who sat on it held a balance in his hand.

6. Then I heard a voice in the midst of the four living things say, “A quart of grain for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius, and do not harm the oil and the wine!”

¶7. And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature say, “Come!”

8. And I looked, and there was a pale green horse! And the name of him who sat upon it was Death, and Hades was following him, and authority was given to him over a fourth of the earth, to slay with the sword, and with famine, and with deadly disease, and by the beasts of the earth.

¶9. And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw beneath the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God and because of the witness of the Lamb which they possessed.

10. And they cried out with a loud voice, saying, “How long, O Master, holy and true, will you not judge and avenge our blood upon those who dwell on earth?”

11. And a white robe was given to each of them, and it was said to them that they should wait for a while, until their fellow servants and their brothers should finish their course who were about to be killed as they also had been.

¶12. And I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became like blood,

13. and the stars of heaven fell to earth the way a fig tree, shaken by a strong wind, drops her summer figs.

14. And the sky was split apart like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island were shaken out of their places.

15. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the military leaders, and the rich, and the powerful, and every slave and free man hid themselves in caves and among the rocks of the mountains,

16. and they said to the mountains and to the rocks, “Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb!

17. For the great day of his wrath has come, and who is able to stand?”

Revelation 7

The 144,000 Are Sealed

¶1. And after this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth so that no wind would blow on the land, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2. Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God, and he cried out with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to harm the land and the sea,
 3. saying, “Do not harm the land, nor the sea, nor the trees until we seal the slaves of our God on their foreheads!”
 4. And I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the sons of Israel:
 5. from the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand sealed; from the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand; from the tribe of Gad, twelve thousand;
 6. from the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand; from the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand; from the tribe of Manasseh, twelve thousand;
 7. from the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand; from the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand; from the tribe of Issachar, twelve thousand;
 8. from the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand; from the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand; from the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand sealed.
- ¶9. After these things, I looked, and there was a vast multitude that no one was able to number, out of all nations and tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, and palm branches in their hands,
10. and they cried out with a loud voice, saying, “Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!”
 11. And all the angels had been standing around the throne, and around the elders and the four living things, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God,
 12. saying, “Amen! Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and strength belong to our God forever and ever! Amen!”
- ¶13. Then answered one of the elders, saying to me, “These who are arrayed in white robes, who are they? And where did they come from?”
14. And I said to him, “My lord, you know.” And then he told me, “These are they who are coming out of the great tribulation, and they washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
 15. Therefore, they are before the throne of God, and they serve Him day and night in His temple, and He who sits on the throne will dwell among them.
 16. They will not hunger any longer, nor thirst any longer, nor will the sun ever beat down on them, nor any heat,
 17. for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will be their Shepherd, and he will guide them to fountains of living waters, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Revelation 8
The Seventh Seal Reveals Seven Trumpets

- ¶1. And when he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

2. And then I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and Seven Trumpets were given to them.
- ¶3. And then another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer, and much incense was given to him to offer with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar that is before the throne,
4. and the smoke of the incense went up before God with the prayers of the saints from the hand of the angel.
5. And the angel took the censer and filled it with fire from the altar, and he cast it to the earth, and there were peals of thunder, and voices, and lightning flashes, and an earthquake.
- ¶6. And the seven angels who had the Seven Trumpets prepared themselves to sound the trumpets.
- ¶7. And the first one sounded, and there was hail and fire mingled with blood, and it was cast to the earth, and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees was burned up, and all green grass was burned up.
- ¶8. Then the second angel sounded, and something like a big, burning mountain was cast into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood,
9. and a third of the creatures that live in the sea died, and a third of ships was destroyed.
- ¶10. And the third angel sounded, and a large star, blazing like a torch, fell from heaven, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water.
11. And the name of the star is called “Wormwood”, and a third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the waters because they were made bitter.
- ¶12. And the fourth angel sounded, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars so that a third of them was darkened, and the day did not shine for a third of it, and likewise the night.
- ¶13. Then I looked, and I heard a lone eagle say with a loud voice as he flew in the midst of heaven, “Woe! Woe! Woe to those who live on the earth because of the remaining sounds of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!”

Revelation 9 The Trumpets Continue To Be Sounded

- ¶1. And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from heaven that had fallen to earth, and the key to the shaft of the Abyss was given to him.
2. And he opened the shaft of the Abyss, and smoke came up out of the shaft like the smoke of a burning furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened with the smoke from the shaft.
3. And then, out of the smoke came locusts to the earth, and power was given to them like the power that scorpions of the earth have.

4. And it was said to them that they were not to harm the grass of the earth, nor anything green, nor any tree, but only the men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.
 5. And it was given to them not to kill but to torture them five months, and their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it stings a man.
 6. And in those days, men will seek death and will by no means find it, and they will long to die, but death will flee from them.
 7. And the appearance of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle, and on their heads were things like golden crowns, and their faces were like men's faces,
 8. and they had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like lions' teeth.
 9. And they had chests like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the sound of many chariots with horses charging into battle.
 10. And they have tails like scorpions, with stingers. And with their tails, they have power to hurt men five months.
 11. They have as king over them the angel of the Abyss; his name in Hebrew is "Abaddon", but his name in Greek is "Apollyon".¹
 12. The first woe has passed. Behold, two woes are still to come after these things!
- ¶
13. And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a single voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God
 14. telling the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Loose the four angels who are bound in the great river Euphrates!"
 15. And so, the four angels were loosed who were prepared for the hour, and for the day, and month, and year to kill a third of mankind.
 16. The number of the soldiers on horseback was ten thousands times ten thousands. I heard their number.
 17. And this is how I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them: they had fiery red, and hyacinth-colored, and sulfurous-yellow breastplates, and the heads of the horses were like heads of lions, and out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke, and sulfur.
 18. By these three plagues, a third of mankind was killed: from the fire, and the smoke, and the sulfur that issued from their mouths.
 19. Moreover, the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails, for their tails are like serpents, having heads, and with them, they do damage.
 20. And the rest of mankind, those who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should cease to worship demons and idols of gold, and of silver, and of bronze, and of stone, and of wood which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk.

¹ Both "Abaddon" and "Apollyon" mean "destroyer".

21. Neither did they repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their immorality, nor of their thievery.

Revelation 10
John Eats the Scroll

- ¶1. And I saw a strong angel descending from heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rainbow upon his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet, like pillars of fire,
- 2. and he held in his hand a little scroll, opened. And he set his right foot on the sea, and his left, on the land,
- 3. and he cried out with a loud voice, like a lion roaring. And when he cried out, seven thunders uttered their voices.
- 4. And when the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from heaven, saying, “Seal the things which the seven thunders spoke, and do not write them.”
- 5. And the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand toward heaven
- 6. and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things in it, and the earth and the things in it, and the sea and the things in it, that there shall be no more time,
- 7. except in the days of the sound of the seventh angel, when he begins to sound his trumpet, and the mystery of God shall be accomplished, as He told His slaves, the prophets.
- 8. And the voice that I had heard from heaven spoke to me again, saying, “Go! Take the little scroll that is open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land.”
- 9. And so, I went to the angel and told him to give me the little scroll. And he said to me, “Take it, and eat it up. It will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth, it will be sweet as honey.”
- 10. So, I took the little scroll out of the hand of the angel and devoured it, and it was in my mouth like honey, sweet, but when I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter.
- 11. And they said to me, “You must again prophesy concerning many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.”

Revelation 11
God's Two Witnesses

- ¶1. And there was given to me a reed similar to a staff, saying, “Rise up and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and those who worship in it.
- 2. But leave out the outer court of the temple, and do not measure it, for it is given to the Gentiles, and they will trample the holy city forty-two months.
- 3. And I will give power to my Two Witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred and sixty days, dressed in sackcloth.”

4. These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands standing before the Lord of the earth.
 5. And if anyone attempts to harm them, fire comes out of their mouth and consumes their enemies, and if anyone attempts to harm them, this is how he must be killed.
 6. These have authority to shut heaven so that no rain falls during the days of their prophecy, and they have authority over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with any plague, as often as they wish.
 7. And when they have finished their testimony, the Beast that ascends from the Abyss will make war against them and overcome them, and he will kill them.
 8. And their dead bodies will be in the street of the great city that is spiritually called “Sodom” and “Egypt”, where also their Lord was crucified.
 9. And some of the peoples, tribes, tongues, and nations will see their dead bodies three-and-a-half days, and they will not allow their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb.
 10. And those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them, and celebrate, and send gifts to one another because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.
 11. Then, after the three-and-a-half days, a breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those who were looking at them.
 12. And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, “Come up here!” And they went up into heaven in a cloud, and their enemies watched them.
 13. And on that same day, there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell, and seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.
- ¶14. The second woe has passed. The third woe, behold, is coming quickly!
- ¶15. And the seventh angel sounded, and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, “The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our LORD and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever.”
16. And the twenty-four elders who were sitting on their thrones before God fell on their faces and worshipped God,
 17. saying, “We give you thanks, LORD God Almighty, who is and who was, because you have taken your great power and have begun to reign.
 18. And the nations were enraged, and your wrath has come, and the time for the dead to be judged, and to give the reward to your slaves, the prophets, and to the saints, and to those, small and great, who fear your name, and to destroy those who destroy the earth.”
- ¶19. Then God’s temple in heaven opened, and within His temple, the ark of His covenant was seen, and there were flashes of lightning, and voices, and peals of thunder, and an earthquake, and large hail.

- ¶1. And a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon beneath her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars,
2. and she was with child and cried out with birth pangs, being in the agony of giving birth.
3. And another sign was seen in heaven, and there was a great, fiery-red Dragon with seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns on his heads.
4. And his tail drew away a third of the stars of heaven, and he brought them to the earth. And the Dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth so that when she gave birth, he could devour her child.
5. And she bore a male child who is to rule all nations with an iron rod, and her child was caught up to God and to His throne.
6. And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, so that they may nourish her there for one thousand two hundred and sixty days.
- ¶7. And there was war in heaven, Michael and his angels warring against the Dragon, and the Dragon waging war, and his angels,
8. but he did not prevail; neither was there place found for him in heaven any longer.
9. And the great Dragon was cast out, the ancient serpent who is called the Accuser, and Satan, who deceives the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.
10. And I heard a great voice in heaven saying, “Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of His Christ, for the Accuser of our brothers has been cast out, who prosecuted them day and night before our God.
11. But they overcame him through the blood of the Lamb and through the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life, even to the death.
12. For this, rejoice, O heavens and those who dwell in them! Woe to the earth and the sea! For the Accuser has come down among you, having great anger, knowing that he has little time.”
- ¶13. And when the Dragon saw that he was cast down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who had given birth to the boy.
14. And they gave the woman two wings of a great eagle so that she could fly into the wilderness, to her place, where they will nourish her for a time and times and half a time, away from the face of the serpent.
15. Then the serpent spewed water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, to sweep her away with the flood.
16. But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river that the Dragon spewed out of his mouth.
17. And the Dragon was furious because of the woman, and went to make war against the remnant of her offspring, those who keep the commandments of God and have the witness of Jesus.

- ¶1. And I stood upon the sand of the sea. And I saw, coming up out of the sea, a Beast with ten horns and seven heads, and upon his horns were ten crowns, and on his heads were names of blasphemy.
2. And the Beast that I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like a bear's, and his mouth was like the mouth of a lion, and the Dragon gave him his power, and his throne, and great authority.
3. And one of his heads seemed to be mortally wounded, but his mortal wound was healed. Then the whole earth marveled at the Beast,
4. and they worshipped the Dragon who had given authority to the Beast, and they worshipped the Beast, saying, "Who is like the Beast, and who is able to make war against him?"
5. And there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemy, and authority was given to him to wage war forty-two months.
6. And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name and His dwelling, that is, those who dwell in heaven.
7. And it was given to him to make war against the saints and to overcome them, and authority was given to him over every tribe and people and language and nation.
8. And they will worship him, all the inhabitants of the earth whose name is not written from the foundation of the world in the Book of Life of the Lamb who was slain.
9. If anyone has an ear, let him hear!
10. If anyone holds on to captivity, into captivity he must go. If anyone slays with a sword, he must be slain with a sword. Here is the patience and faith of the saints.
- ¶11. And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb, but he spoke like a dragon.
12. And he exercises all the authority of the first Beast in his presence. And he set out to compel the earth and those who inhabit it to worship the first Beast whose deadly wound was healed.
13. And he performs great signs, so that he even makes fire to come out of heaven to the earth before men.
14. And he deceives those who dwell on the earth² by means of the signs that were granted him to do in the presence of the Beast, telling the inhabitants of the earth to make an image of the Beast who had the wound from a sword and lived.
15. And it was granted him to give breath to the image of the Beast so that the image of the Beast should both speak and cause to be put to death as many as will not worship the image of the Beast.
16. And he causes everyone, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, both free men and slaves, that they should give them a mark on their right hand or on their forehead,

² Many manuscripts have "deceives those who belong to me who dwell on the earth".

17. so that no one is able to buy or sell except he who has the mark, the name of the Beast, or the number of his name.
18. Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the Beast, for it is the number of a man, and his number is six hundred sixty-six.

Revelation 14

The Saints Are Taken from the Earth

- ¶1. And I looked, and there was the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion! And with him was a number, one hundred forty-four thousand, having his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads.
2. And I heard a sound from heaven like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder, and the sound that I heard was like harpists harping on their harps.
3. And they were singing a new song before the throne, and before the four living things and the elders, but no one was able to learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand who were purchased from the earth.
4. These are they who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were purchased by Jesus from among men, firstfruits to God and to the Lamb,
5. and no lie was found in their mouth; they are without blemish.
- ¶6. And I saw an angel flying in the midst of heaven with everlasting good news to proclaim to the inhabitants of the earth, even to every nation and tribe and language and people,
7. saying in a loud voice, "Fear God, and give Him glory, for the hour of His judgment has come! And worship Him who made the heaven and the earth, and the sea and springs of waters!"
- ¶8. And another angel, a second one, followed, saying, "She has fallen! Babylon the Great has fallen, who caused all nations to drink of the wine of her whorish passion."
- ¶9. And then another angel, a third one, followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the Beast and his image and receives a mark upon his forehead or upon his hand,
10. he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, who has poured it undiluted into the cup of His wrath, and he will be tortured by fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and before the Lamb,
11. and the smoke of their torment will ascend forever and ever, and they have no relief day or night who worship the Beast and his image, or whoever receives the mark of his name."
12. Here is the patience of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus.

- ¶13. And I heard a voice from heaven, saying, “Write, ‘From now on, blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. Yes, says the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, for their works follow them.’”
- ¶14. And I looked, and there was a white cloud! And sitting on the cloud was one like the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.
- 15. And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to the one sitting on the cloud, “Put in your sickle and reap, for the time to reap has come, for the harvest of the earth is ripe.”
- 16. And the one who was sitting on the cloud thrust his sickle over the earth, and the earth was reaped.
- ¶17. And another angel came out of the temple that is in heaven, he, too, having a sharp sickle.
- 18. And another angel came out from the altar, having authority over fire, and he shouted with a loud shout to the one who held the sharp sickle, saying, “Put in your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are ripe!”
- 19. And the angel thrust his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God.
- 20. And the winepress was trampled outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress as high as the bridles of horses for a distance of one thousand six-hundred stadia.³

Revelation 15
The Saints Stand Before the Father

- ¶1. And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous: seven angels having the Seven Last Plagues, for in them is the wrath of God completed.
- ¶2. And I saw something like a sea of transparent glass mingled with fire, and those who overcame the Beast, and his image, and the number of his name standing on the glassy sea, holding harps from God.
- 3. And they sang the song of Moses, the slave of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, “Great and marvelous are your works, LORD God Almighty! Righteous and true are your ways, O King of nations!
- 4. Who will not fear you, O LORD, and glorify your name? For you alone are holy! All nations will come and bow before you, for your righteous ways have been revealed.”
- ¶5. Then, after these things, I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of witness in heaven was opened,
- 6. and out of the temple came the seven angels who had charge of the Seven Plagues, clothed with clean, bright linen, and girded around their chests with gold sashes.

³ That is, about 200 miles.

7. And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden vials filled with the wrath of God who lives forever and ever.
8. And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power, and no one was able to enter into the temple until the Seven Plagues of the seven angels were accomplished.

Revelation 16
The Seven Last Plagues

- ¶1. Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, “Go, and pour out the Seven Vials of the wrath of God onto the earth!”
- ¶2. And the first went and poured out his vial onto the earth, and it became a foul and painful sore on the people who have the mark of the Beast and who worship his image.
- ¶3. And the second angel poured out his vial onto the sea, and it became blood as from a dead man, and every living soul that was in the sea died.
- ¶4. And the third poured out his vial into the rivers and the fountains of waters, and they became blood.
5. Then I heard the angel of the waters saying, “You are just, O Holy One, who is and who was, in making these judgments,
6. for they have poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and you have given them blood to drink. They are worthy.”
7. And I heard the altar saying, “Yes, LORD God Almighty! Your judgments are true and just.”
- ¶8. And then the fourth poured out his vial on the sun, and it was given to him to scorch men with fire.
9. And men were scorched with a fierce heat, and men blasphemed the name of the God who has authority over these plagues, and they did not repent to give Him glory.
- ¶10. And the fifth poured out his vial on the throne of the Beast, and his kingdom was darkened, and they began to gnaw their tongues because of the pain,
11. and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and they did not repent of their works.
- ¶12. And the sixth poured out his vial on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up to prepare the way for the kings from the east.
13. And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the Dragon, and out of the mouth of the Beast, and out of the mouth of the False Prophet,
14. for they are miracle-working demon spirits, who go out to the kings of all the inhabited earth to gather them for the battle of the great day of God Almighty.

15. (“Behold, I am coming like a thief! Blessed is he who watches and keeps his garments, so that he does not go naked, and men see his shame.”)
16. And they gathered them to the place which is called in Hebrew, “Armageddon”⁴.
- ¶17. Then the seventh poured out his vial on the air, and a great voice came from the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, “It is done.”
18. And there were flashes of lightning, and peals of thunder, and voices, and there was a great earthquake such as has not occurred since men were on the earth, so mighty an earthquake and so strong.
19. And the great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations collapsed. And Babylon the Great was brought to remembrance before God, to give her the cup of the wine of His furious wrath.
20. And every island fled away, and mountains were not found.
21. And large hail, weighing about a talent,⁵ came down out of heaven upon men, and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for the plague of it was very great.

Revelation 17
The Great Whore and Babylon the Great

- ¶1. Then one of the seven angels who had the Seven Vials came, and he spoke to me, saying, “Come. I will show you the judgment of the Great Whore who sits on many waters,
2. with whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and by the wine of her whoredom are the inhabitants of the earth made drunk.”
3. So, he carried me away in spirit into a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored Beast that was full of blasphemous names and that had seven heads and ten horns.
4. And the woman was arrayed in purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold, and precious stone, and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup that was full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication,
5. and on her forehead was written a name: “Mystery: Babylon the Great, the Mother of harlots and the abominations of the earth.”
6. And I saw the woman drunk on the blood of the saints, on the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I marveled with great wonder.
7. And the angel said to me, “Why do you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the Beast that carries her, that has seven heads and ten horns.
8. The Beast that you saw was, and is not, and will ascend out of the Abyss, and he is headed for damnation. And the inhabitants of the earth will marvel, whose names are not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, when they see the Beast that was, and is not, and yet, will be.

⁴ The Hebrew word means, “the hill of Meggido”.

⁵ Depending on the culture and time period involved, a talent could weigh as little as 57 pounds or as much as 130 pounds.

9. Here is the mind that has wisdom: The seven heads are seven hills upon which the woman sits.
10. And they are seven kings; five have fallen, one is, and another has not yet come, and when he comes, he must continue a little while.
11. And the Beast who was, and is not, even he himself is the eighth, but he is one of the seven, and he is headed for damnation.
12. And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they receive authority as kings one hour with the Beast.
13. These are of one mind, and they give their power and authority to the Beast.
14. These will make war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will conquer them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.”
15. Then he said to me, “The waters that you saw, where the Whore sits, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and languages.
16. And the ten horns that you saw, and the Beast, these will hate the Whore, and they will make her desolate and naked, and they will eat her flesh and consume her with fire.
17. For God put it in their hearts to carry out His plan, to have one mind, and to give their kingdom to the Beast until the words of God be fulfilled.
18. And the woman whom you saw is the great city that reigns over the kings of the earth.”

Revelation 18
Babylon, continued

- ¶1. After these things, I saw another angel coming down out of heaven, having great authority, and the earth was made bright with his glory.
2. And he cried out with a powerful voice, saying, “She has fallen! Babylon the Great has fallen, and has become a dwelling place of demons, and a prison for every unclean spirit, and a prison for every unclean and loathsome bird.
3. For all nations have drunk of the wine of her whorish passion, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich on the strength of her luxury.”
- ¶4. Then I heard another voice from heaven, saying, “Come out of her, my people, so that you will not participate in her sins and receive of her plagues!
5. Her sins are piled up to heaven, and God has remembered her unrighteous deeds.
6. Reward her just as she has rewarded you, and repay her double, twice the amount of her works. In the cup that she mixed, mix for her a double portion.
7. As much as she has glorified herself and lived in luxury, give her just that much torment and grief. She says in her heart, ‘I sit as a queen, and I am not a widow, and I will never know sorrow.’

8. Therefore, in one day will come her plagues—death, and grief, and famine—and she will be consumed by fire, for the Lord God who has passed judgment on her is mighty.
 9. And the kings of the earth who committed fornication and lived in luxury with her will cry and mourn over her when they see the smoke of her burning,
 10. saying as they stand far off for fear of her torment, ‘Alas! Alas! The great city! Babylon, the mighty city! For in one hour has your judgment come!’
 11. The merchants of earth also will cry and mourn over her because no one will buy their merchandise any longer:
 12. merchandise of gold, and silver, and of precious stone, and pearl, and of fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet; and every kind of fragrant wood, and every ivory object, and every object made of precious wood, and of copper, and of iron, and of marble;
 13. and cinnamon, and incense, and myrrh, and frankincense, and wine, and olive oil, and fine wheat flour, and grain, and cattle and sheep; and merchandise of horses, and of carriages, and of slaves; and souls of men.
 14. And the fruits your soul desired have departed from you, and all precious things and splendid things are perished from you, and you shall never again find them. Never!
 15. The merchants of these things who grew rich from her shall stand far off for fear of her torment, weeping and mourning,
 16. and saying, ‘Alas! Alas! The great city that was arrayed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold, and precious stone, and pearls!
 17. For in one hour is such great wealth come to nothing!’ And every shipmaster, and all who sail anywhere, and sailors, and as many as do business on the sea, stood far off,
 18. and as they watched the smoke of her burning, they kept crying out, saying, ‘What city is like the great city?’
 19. And they cast dust on their heads, and they kept crying out, weeping and mourning, and saying, ‘Alas! Alas! O great city, by which all who have ships on the sea grew rich through her magnificence! In one hour, she has come to nothing!’
 20. Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you saints and apostles and prophets, for God has judged your case against her!”
- ¶21. Then, one strong angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, “Thus shall Babylon the great city be violently thrown down, and it will never be found again!
22. And the sound of harpists, and musicians, and flutists, and trumpeters will never be heard in you again, and no craftsman of any craft will ever be found in you again, and the sound of a millstone will never be heard in you again,
 23. and the light of a lamp will never shine in you again, and the voice of bridegroom and bride will never be heard in you again,⁶ though your merchants were the prominent men of earth because all the nations were deceived by your sorcery.

⁶ For verses 22b–23a, cf. Jeremiah 25:10.

24. And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all who have been slain upon the earth."

Revelation 19
Great Rejoicing in Heaven

- ¶1. After these things, I heard as it were a loud sound of a great multitude in heaven, saying,
"Hallelujah! Salvation and power and glory belong to our God!"
2. His judgments are true and just, for He has judged the Great Whore who corrupted the earth with her whoredom, and He has avenged the blood of His slaves at her hand."
3. And a second time, they said, "Hallelujah! And her smoke is going up forever and ever!"
4. And the twenty-four elders and the four living things fell down and worshipped God who sits on the throne, saying, "Amen! Hallelujah!"
5. And a voice came out of the throne, saying, "Praise our God, all His slaves and those who fear Him, both small and great!"
6. Then I heard something like the sound of a large multitude, or like the sound of many waters, or like the sound of mighty peals of thunder, saying, "Hallelujah! For the LORD our God, the Almighty, reigns!"
7. Let us rejoice and be glad! And let us give Him glory! For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his Bride has made herself ready."
8. And it was given to her to be clothed with fine linen, bright and clean, for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.
9. Then one said to me, "Write: 'Blessed are they who are called to the Marriage Supper of the Lamb.'" And then he said to me, "These are the true words of God."
10. And I fell at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, "Do not do that! I am your fellow slave and one of your brothers who have the witness of Jesus. Worship God!"
(The witness of Jesus is the Spirit of prophecy.)

The Second Coming of Jesus

- ¶11. Then I saw heaven opened, and there was a white horse! And the one sitting on it is called "Faithful and True", and he judges and makes war in righteousness.
12. His eyes were a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns, and he has names written, and a name written which no one knew except himself,
13. and he was clothed with a blood-stained garment, and his name was called "the Word of God".
14. And the armies that are in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, were following him on white horses.
15. And out of his mouth went a sharp, double-edged sword, that with it, he may strike down the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron, and he himself will tread the winepress of the furious wrath of God Almighty.

16. And on his garment and on his thigh, he had a name written: “King of kings and Lord of lords”.
- ¶17. And I saw one angel standing in the sun, and he cried out with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the midst of heaven, “Come! Gather together for God’s great banquet,
18. that you may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of commanders, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, free as well as slaves, both small and great!”
- ¶19. Then I saw the Beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army.
20. And the Beast was taken, and with him the False Prophet who performed the miraculous signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the Beast and who worshipped his image. Those two were thrown alive into the Lake of Fire that burns with sulfur.
21. And the rest were slain by the sword of him who sat on the horse, which sword came out of his mouth, and all the birds were gorged with their flesh.

Revelation 20
Satan is Bound in the Abyss

- ¶1. And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key to the Abyss and a great chain in his hand.
2. And he seized the Dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the Accuser, and Satan, who deceives the whole world, and he bound him a thousand years.
3. And he threw him into the Abyss and locked it, and set a seal upon it so that he would no longer deceive the nations until the thousand years were ended. Afterward, he must be released for a short time.

The Millennial Reign

- ¶4. And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them, and I saw the souls of those who were beheaded because of the testimony of Jesus and because of the word of God, and those who had not worshipped the Beast or his image and had not received the mark on their forehead or on their hand. And they came to life and reigned with Christ a thousand years.
5. (But the rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended.) This is the first resurrection.
6. Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection; over these, the Second Death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and they will reign with him a thousand years.

Satan Is Released from the Abyss: The Final Battle

- ¶7. And when the thousand years come to an end, Satan will be released from his prison,

8. and he will go out to deceive the nations that are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them for the war, the number of them being as the sand of the sea.
9. And they came up upon the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city, and fire came down out of heaven from God and devoured them.
10. And the Accuser who deceived them was thrown into the Lake of Fire and Sulfur, where both the Beast and the False Prophet are, and they will be tormented night and day forever and ever.

The Day of Judgment

- ¶11. And I saw a great white throne and Him who sat on it, from whose face earth and heaven fled, and no place was found for them.
12. And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne. And books were opened, and another book was opened (which is the Book of Life), and the dead were judged by the things written in the books, according to their deeds.
13. And the sea gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them, and they were judged, each one, according to their deeds.
14. And Death and Hades were cast into the Lake of Fire. This is the Second Death, the Lake of Fire.
15. And if anyone was not found written in the Book of Life, he was cast into the Lake of Fire.

Revelation 21

The New Heaven and Earth, and New Jerusalem

- ¶1. And I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea no longer existed.
2. And I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband.
3. And I heard a loud voice from heaven, saying, “Behold! The dwelling-place of God with men!⁷ And He will dwell with them, and they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them.
4. And He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more. Neither will there be sorrow, nor crying, nor pain anymore because the former things will have passed away.”
5. And the One sitting on the throne said, “Behold! I am making everything new!” And He said to me, “Write! For these words are true and faithful.”
6. And He said to me, “I have become the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. I, myself, will give freely of the fountain of the water of life to him who is thirsty.

⁷ Or, “the dwelling-place of God is with men!”

7. He who overcomes will inherit these things, and I will be his God, and he will be my son.
 8. As for the fearful, and faithless, and sinful, and filthy, and murderers, and the immoral, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the Second Death.”
- ¶9. And one of the seven angels who had the Seven Vials filled with the Seven Last Plagues came and spoke with me, saying, “Come. I will show you the Bride, the wife of the Lamb.”
10. And he carried me away in the Spirit onto a great and high mountain and showed me the great city, the holy Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God,
 11. having the glory of God. Its brilliance was like a precious stone, as a stone of jasper, clear as crystal,
 12. having a great and high wall, with twelve gates, and upon the gates were twelve angels, and names written, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel.
 13. On the east were three gates, and on the north, three gates, and on the south, three gates, and on the west, three gates.
 14. And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and upon them were the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.
 15. And the one speaking with me held a golden measuring rod to measure the city, and its gates, and its wall.
 16. The city lay square, its length the same as its breadth. And he measured the city with the measuring rod to be twelve thousand stadia;⁸ its length and breadth and height were equal.
 17. And he measured its wall, one hundred and forty-four cubits, according to the measure of a man (that is, of an angel).
 18. And the building material of its wall was jasper, and the city was pure gold, like clear glass.
 19. The foundations of the walls of the city were adorned with every precious stone. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald;
 20. the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst.
 21. And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; each one of the gates was made of a single pearl, and the street of the city was pure gold, transparent like glass.
 22. And I did not see a temple in it, for the LORD God Almighty is its temple, and the Lamb.
 23. And the city had no need of the sun or of the moon to shine upon it, for the glory of God illuminated it, and its lamp was the Lamb.

⁸ Twelve thousand stadia is approximately one thousand four-hundred miles.

24. And by its light will the nations walk, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it.
25. And its gates will never be closed by day—and night does not exist there—
26. and they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it,
27. and no unclean thing will ever by any means enter into it, nor he who devises an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

Revelation 22
More about the City

- ¶1. And he showed me a pure river of living water, sparkling like crystal, coming out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.
2. In the midst of its street and on both sides of the river was a tree of life producing twelve fruit. Every month, each one yielded its fruit, and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.
3. And there will no longer be any curse. And the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and His slaves will minister to Him,
4. and they will see His face, and His name will be on their foreheads.
5. And there will be no more night there, and they will have no need of a lamp or sunlight because the LORD God will shine on them, and they will reign forever and ever.

Final Exhortations

- ¶6. And he said to me, "These words are faithful and true, and the LORD, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent His messenger to show His slaves things that must quickly happen.
7. And behold! I am coming quickly. Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."
- ¶8. And I am John, who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the messenger who showed me these things.
9. But he said to me, "Do not do that. I am a slave with you and your brothers, the prophets, and with those who obey the words of this book. Worship God!"
- ¶10. And he said to me, "Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near.
11. He who is unjust, let him be unjust still; and he who is filthy, let him be filthy still; and he who is righteous, let him keep doing righteousness; and he who is holy, let him be holy still.
12. Behold! I am coming quickly. And my reward is with me, to give to each one according to his work.
13. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.
14. Blessed are they who keep His commandments so that the right to the tree of life will be theirs, and they may enter through the gates into the city.

15. Outside are dogs, and sorcerers, and the immoral, and murderers, and idolaters, and everyone who loves or devises a lie.”
 - ¶16. “I, Jesus, have sent my messenger to testify of these things to you who are over the Assemblies.⁹ I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright morning star.”
 - ¶17. And the Spirit and the Bride say, “Come!” And let him who hears say, “Come!” And let him who is thirsty come. And he who is willing, let him take of the water of life freely.
 - ¶18. I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book,
 19. and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part from the tree of life and from the holy city, the things which are written in this book.
- ¶20. He who testifies these things says, “Yes, I am coming quickly.”
Amen! Yes! Come, Lord Jesus!
- ¶21. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with all the saints. Amen.

⁹ Or, “to you [plural] for the Assemblies.”