Psalm 1

- ¶1. Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, or stand in the way of sinners, or sit in the seat of scorners,

22. for all His judgments were before me, and His statutes, I did not put away from me.
23. Yea, I was perfect with Him, and I kept myself from my sin,
24. and Jehovah rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in His sight.

40. and you have given me the neck of my enemies. Yea, those who hate me will I utterly destroy.
41. They will cry out for help, but there will be no one to save them, even to Jehovah, but He will not answer them.

42. But I will beat them until they are like dust before the wind. I will cast them out like dirt in the streets.
43. You delivered me from the contentions of the people. You have made me the head of the Gentiles; a people I have not known shall serve me.
44. As soon as they hear, they will obey me. Foreigners will come and grovel before me.
45. The foreigners will lose heart and come quaking out of their strongholds.
46. Jehovah is alive! Blessed be my Rock! Let the God of my salvation be exalted!
47. God avenged me and subjected peoples to me,

13. They opened their mouth like a lion, tearing and roaring at me.
14. I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint. My heart is like wax; it is melted within me.
15. My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue is stuck to my palate; yea, you have brought me to the dust of death.
16. Dogs encompass me; the congregation of the wicked encircle me. They pierced my hands and my feet.
17. I can count all my bones. They gaze and stare at me.
18. They divided my clothes among them and cast lots for my garment.
19. But you, O LORD, do not be far off! O my Help, come quickly to my aid!
20. Deliver my soul from the sword, my precious life from the power of dogs!
21. Save me from the lion’s mouth! And then, from the horns of the wild oxen, you answered me!
22. Let me declare your name to my brothers! In the midst of the congregation, let me praise you!

23. You who fear the LORD, praise Him! Let all the seed of Jacob glorify Him! Yea, let all the seed of Israel fear Him!
24. For He has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted man, nor has He hidden His face from him, but when he cried to Him for help, He heard.
25. From my place beside you, my praise will be in the great congregation. I will pay my vows in the sight of those who fear Him.
26. The meek eat and are satisfied; they praise the LORD while seeking Him. May your hearts live on!
27. All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD, and all of the families of the nations shall worship before you.
28. For the kingdom is the LORD's, and He rules over the nations.
29. All the fat ones of earth have eaten and worshipped; before Him will bow all who go down to dust. And none can keep alive his own soul.
30. A seed shall serve Him, and it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.
31. They shall come, and they will declare His righteousness to a people that shall be born, that He has done this.

10. Who is he, this King of glory? The LORD of Hosts, He is the King of glory! Selah.

6. Remember your tender mercies, O LORD, and your lovingkindnesses, for they have been from eternity.
7. Do not remember the sins of my youth or my transgressions. According to your lovingkindness, remember me, O LORD, for the sake of your Good One.

18. Look on my affliction and my trouble, and take away all my sins.
19. Behold my enemies, for they are many, and they hate me with cruel hatred.
20. Watch over my soul, and deliver me! Let me not be ashamed, for I take refuge in you.
21. Let innocence and uprightness preserve me, for I have put my hope in you.
22. Redeem Israel, O God, from all his troubles!

Psalm 26

4. I do not sit with vain men, and with hypocrites will I not go in.
5. I hate a congregation of evildoers, and with the wicked will I not sit.
6. I wash my hands in innocence and then go about your altar, O LORD,
7. that with thankful voice I may proclaim and tell of all your wondrous works.
8. O LORD, I love the site of your house, even the place of the tabernacle of your glory!
9. Do not gather my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men,
10. in whose hands is an evil scheme and whose right hand is filled with bribery!
11. But as for me, I will walk in my integrity. Redeem me! Be merciful to me!
12. My foot stands firm in uprightness. In the Assemblies, I will bless the LORD!

Psalm 27

By David.

- ¶1. The LORD is my light, and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the refuge of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?
2. When evildoers, my adversaries and my enemies, came against me to consume my flesh, they themselves stumbled and fell.
3. Though an army should encamp against me, my heart will not fear. Though war should rise against me, even then will I trust.
4. One thing have I asked from Jehovah; this do I seek: to dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, that I may behold the beauty of the LORD and inquire in His temple.
5. In the evil day, He will surely hide me in His covert; in His tabernacle's hiding-place will He hide me; He will set me high upon a rock.
6. And He will soon exalt my head above my enemies who surround me, and I will offer in His tabernacle sacrifices of joyful shouting. I will sing and play music to the LORD!
7. Hear my voice, O LORD, when I cry, and have mercy on me, and answer me!
8. Because of you, my heart said, "Men must seek my face." Your face, O LORD, do I seek.
9. Do not hide your face from me! Do not turn your servant away in anger! You have been my help; do not forsake me and do not let me go, O God of my salvation!
10. When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take me in.
11. Teach me your way, O LORD, and lead me in a level path because of those who lie in wait for me.
12. Do not give me over to the will of my enemies! For false witnesses have risen up against me, each one breathing out violence.
13. I would have despaired, except that I believed I would see the Lord's goodness in the land of the living.
14. Wait on Jehovah! Be strong, and He will strengthen your heart. Wait, I say, on Jehovah!

Psalm 28

2. Hear the voice of my supplications when I cry out to you, when I lift my hands toward your Most Holy Place.
3. Do not drag me off with the wicked and with evildoers, who speak peaceably with their neighbors, yet evil is in their heart.
4. Requite them according to their work and according to the evil of their doings! According to the work of their hands, requite them! Make their recompense return to them!
5. Because they do not understand the works of Jehovah or the work of His hands, He will cast them down and not build them up!
6. Bless the LORD, for He has heard the voice of my supplications!
7. Jehovah is my strength and my shield! My heart trusted in Him, and I was helped; therefore, my heart exults, and with my song, I will give Him thanks.

A psalm.

A song for the dedication of the temple. By David.

⁴ Or, "in holy array".

2. I cried out to you, O Jehovah my God, and you healed me.
3. O Jehovah, you have brought up my soul from Sheol; you restored me to life from the depths of the Pit!
4. Let His holy people sing to Jehovah and praise His holy name,
5. for His anger is but for a moment, and in His favor is life. Weeping may last the night, but in the morning will come a shout of joy.
6. As for me, in my prosperity, I said, "I shall never be moved!"
7. O Jehovah, by your favor, you made my mountain stand strong. When you hid your face, I was troubled.
8. To you, O Jehovah, will I cry, and to my Lord will I plead for mercy.
9. What profit will there be in my death, for me to go down into the Pit? Will the dust praise you? Will it make your truth known?
10. Hear, O Jehovah, and have mercy on me! O Jehovah, be my helper!
11. You have turned my mourning into dancing for me; you have loosed my sackcloth and girded me with gladness,
12. so that I may sing of your glory and not be silent. O Jehovah my God, I will praise you forever!

Psalm 31

For the chief musician.

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. In you, O LORD, I take refuge; let me never be ashamed. In your righteousness deliver me!

3. For you are my rock and my fortress, and for your name's sake, you lead me and guide me.

9. Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am in distress! My eye is wasted away with vexation, my soul and my body.
10. For my life has been spent in sorrow, and my years with sighing. My strength has failed because of my sin, and my bones are wasted away.

11. Because of all my adversaries, I have become a reproach, especially to my neighbors, and an object of dread to my acquaintances. When they see me on the street, they flee from me.
12. I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind. I am like a broken vessel.
13. I heard the whispering of many—terror was on every side!—when they conspired together against me; they schemed to take away my life.
14. But as for me, I trusted in you, O LORD. I said, “You are my God;
15. my times are in your hand.” Oh, deliver me from the hand of my enemies and my persecutors!
16. Make your face to shine on your servant! Save me in your lovingkindness!
17. O LORD, let me not be ashamed, for I have called on you. Let the wicked be ashamed; let them be silent in Sheol.
18. Let lying lips be silenced, those who in pride and contempt speak arrogantly against the righteous man.
19. How great is your Good One whom you have hidden for those who fear you, whom you created for those who seek refuge in you before the sons of men!
20. You will hide them in the covert of your presence from the schemes of man; you will hide them in your pavilion from the strife of tongues.
21. Blessed be the LORD, for He has wondrously shown His lovingkindness to me in a besieged city.
22. But as for me, I had said in my haste, “I am cut off from your presence.” Nevertheless, you heard the voice of my supplications when I cried out to you for help.
23. Oh, love the LORD, all His saints! The LORD preserves the faithful and fully repays him who acts proudly.

Psalm 38

A Psalm by David to bring to remembrance.

- ¶1. O LORD, do not rebuke me in your wrath, nor chasten me in your burning anger,
2. for your arrows have sunk down into me, and your hand has pressed down on me.
3. There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation; there is no peace in my bones because of my sin.

4. For my iniquities have gone over my head; like a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me.
5. My wounds stink; they fester. Because of my foolishness,
6. I am bent over; I am completely humbled. All day long, I walk about, mourning.
7. My loins are filled with burning, and there is no soundness in my flesh.
8. I am benumbed and utterly crushed. I groan because of the turmoil of my heart.
9. My Lord, all my longing is before you, and my sighing is not hidden from you.
10. My heart pounds. My strength has forsaken me. And the light of my eyes, even that is gone from me.
11. My loved ones and friends stand aloof from my affliction, even those nearest to me stand at a distance.
12. Moreover, those who seek my life set traps, and those who desire my hurt speak ruinous things and plot treachery all the day long.
13. But I, like a deaf man, do not hear, and I am like a dumb man who does not open his mouth.
14. Yea, I have become like a man that does not hear and in whose mouth are no reproofs,
15. for I am waiting for you, O LORD. Oh, answer me, my Lord, my God!
16. Yea, help, I say, lest they gloat over me when my foot slips and magnify themselves against me.
17. For I am about to fall, and my anguish is always with me.
18. But I will confess my iniquity; I am afraid because of my sin.
19. My enemies are vigorous and powerful, and many there are who hate me wrongfully.
20. Yea, they render evil for good; they make accusation against me because I follow after goodness.
21. Do not abandon me, O Jehovah my God! Be not far from me!
22. Make haste to help me, my Lord, my salvation!

Psalm 39

For the chief musician, for Jeduthun.

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. I said, "I will watch my ways, lest I sin with my tongue. I will guard my mouth with a bridle while a wicked man is before me."
2. I was mute with silence. I kept silent even from good, yet my pain was increased.
3. My heart was hot within me; in my groaning, a fire was burning. I spoke with my tongue,
4. "LORD, make me to know my end, and the measure of my days, what it is. Let me know how ephemeral I am.
5. Behold, you have made my days handbreadths, and the span of my life is as nothing before you. Indeed, every man, in his best state, is altogether vanity. Selah."
6. Indeed, every man moves about like a shadow. Yea, in vain do they make an uproar. He heaps up riches but does not know who will gather them.

7. But what do I now wait for, my Lord? My hope is in you!
8. Deliver me from all my transgressions! Do not make me a laughingstock for the fool!
9. I was silent; I did not open my mouth because you did it.
10. Remove your stroke from me! I am consumed by the blow of your hand.
11. With rebukes, you chasten a man for sin, and like the moth, you eat away his beauty.
Indeed, every man is vanity. Selah.
12. O LORD, hear my prayer, and give ear to my cry! Do not be silent at my tears, for I am a stranger with you, a sojourner, like all my fathers.
13. Turn your gaze from me, that I might smile again before I go away and am no more."

Psalm 40

For the chief musician.

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. I waited patiently for the LORD, and He inclined to me and heard my cry.
2. Yea, He brought me up from a tumultuous pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock. He established my goings,
3. and He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Many will see and fear, and trust in Jehovah.
4. Blessed is the man who puts his trust in Jehovah and does not countenance proud men or those who turn aside to a lie.
5. Many are your wonders which you have done and your thoughts toward us, O LORD my God; there is none to compare with you. Let me declare it! Oh, let me say it! They are more than can be counted.
6. Sacrifice and offering have not pleased you. Ears you have dug for me. Whole burnt offering and sin offering, you have not desired.
7. Then I said, "Behold, I go! (In a roll of a book it is written of me.)
8. I delight to do your will, O my God, for your law is within me."
9. I have preached glad tidings of righteousness in the great congregation. Behold! I have not restrained my lips. O LORD, you know.
10. I have not concealed your righteousness within my heart. I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation. I have not hidden your lovingkindness nor your truth from the great congregation.
11. You will not withhold your compassion from me, O LORD; your lovingkindness and truth continuously preserve me.
12. For evils beyond number encompass me. My iniquities have overtaken me, and I cannot look up. They are more than the hairs of my head, and my heart fails me.
13. O LORD, be pleased to deliver me! O LORD, make haste to help me!
14. Let them be put to shame and confounded together who seek my life to destroy it! Let them be turned back and put to shame who take pleasure in my hurt!
15. Let them be desolate because of their shame who say to me, "Aha! Aha!"

16. Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you! Let those who love your salvation say continually, "The LORD be magnified!"
17. Though I am poor and needy, my Lord thinks on me. You are my Help and my Deliverer. O my God, do not tarry!

Psalm 41

For the chief musician.

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. Blessed is he who considers the poor. In the day of trouble, the LORD will deliver him;
2. the LORD will preserve him and give him life. He will be blessed on the earth, and you will not give him over to the will of his enemies.
3. The LORD will strengthen him on his sickbed. Whenever he is bedridden, you will turn away his sickness.
4. I said, "O LORD, have mercy on me! Heal my soul, for I have sinned against you!"
5. My enemies speak evil of me. "When will he die and his name perish?"
6. Even if one comes in to see me, he speaks falsely. His heart is gathering trouble for itself; he goes out and talks.
7. All who hate me whisper against me together. Against me, they devise my harm.
8. They say, "An evil thing is poured out on him, and when he lies down, he will not rise up again."
9. Even my close friend, in whom I trusted, who ate my bread, has lifted up his heel against me.
10. But you, O LORD, show me favor, and raise me up so that I may repay them!
11. By this I know that you are pleased with me: my enemy has not triumphed over me.
12. And as for me, you have upheld me because of my integrity, and you have set me before you forever.
13. Blessed be Jehovah, God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Amen! Oh, amen!

Psalm 42

For the chief musician.

A wisdom song for the sons of Korah.

- ¶1. As the deer pants after the streams of water, so my soul pants after you, O God.
2. My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and appear before God?
3. My tears have been my food day and night because it is said to me every day, "Where is your God?"
4. I think on these things and pour out my soul within me, that I might pass among the multitude and stroll with them to the house of God with a sound of praise and thanksgiving, the multitude keeping the feast.

5. O my soul, why are you cast down and in turmoil within me? Hope in God! I will surely praise Him again in the full salvation of His countenance.
6. O my God, my soul is cast down within me. Therefore, I will remember you from the land of Jordan and Hermon's heights, from the mountain of Mizar.⁶
7. Deep calls to deep at the sound of your waterspouts. All your waves and billows have swept over me.
8. By day, the LORD commands His lovingkindness, and by night, His song is with me, a prayer to the God of my life.
9. I say to God, my rock, "Why have you forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"
10. As with a deadly blow in my bones, my adversaries reproach me every day, saying to me, "Where is your God?"
11. O my soul, why are you cast down, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God! I will surely praise Him again, the salvation of my whole being, and my God.

Psalm 43

- ¶1. Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation. Deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man,
2. for you are the God of my strength. Why have you rejected me? Why must I walk about mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
3. Send out your light and your truth! Let them lead me and bring me to your holy hill, even to your dwelling-place.
4. Then will I go to the altar of God, to God my great joy, and I will praise you with a stringed instrument, O God, my God!
5. O my soul, why are you cast down, and why are you in turmoil within me? Wait on God! For I will yet praise Him, the salvation of my being, and my God.

Psalm 44

For the chief musician for the sons of Korah.

A wisdom song.

- ¶1. O God, with our ears we have heard our fathers recount to us the work you did in their days, in days of old.
2. You, by your own hand, dispossessed the heathen, but them, you planted. You brought evil upon those nations, but them, you spread abroad.
3. It was certainly not by their sword that they inherited the land, nor did their arm save them, but it was your right hand and your arm, and the light of your countenance, for you granted them favor.
4. O you who are my King, O God, command victories for Jacob!

⁶ Hebrew uncertain.

5. By you, we will thrust our adversaries through! In your name, we will trample those who rise up against us!
6. For I will not rely on my bow, and my sword will not save me,
7. for you have saved us from our adversaries and have put to shame those who hate us.
8. In God will we boast all the day long, and we will bless your name forever! Selah.
- ¶9. Yet, you have rejected and humiliated us, and you will not go out with our armies.
10. You make us to turn back from the adversary, and those who hate us take plunder for themselves.
11. You have made us like sheep meant for food and have scattered us among the Gentiles.
12. You have sold your people for no profit; you gained nothing with their price.
13. You have made us a reproach to our neighbors, an object of mockery and derision to those around us.
14. You have made us a byword among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the nations.
15. Every day, my ignominy confronts me, and shame covers my face
16. because of the voice of him who reproaches and reviles me before the enemy who avenges himself.⁷
17. All this has come upon us, though we have not forgotten you, nor have we been false in your covenant.
18. Our heart has not backslid, neither have our steps turned aside from your path.
19. Surely, you have crushed us in a place of wolves and covered us with death's shadow.
20. If we have forgotten the name of our God and have stretched out our hands to a strange god,
21. will not God search this out? For He knows the secrets of the heart.
22. For your sake, we are killed all the day long; we are thought of as a flock to be slaughtered.
23. Wake up! Why are you sleeping, my Lord? Rouse yourself! Do not reject us forever!
24. Why do you hide your face and do not remember our affliction and our oppression?
25. For our soul is bowed to the dust; our body cleaves to the earth.
26. Rise up, O our Help, and redeem us for the sake of your lovingkindness!

Psalm 45

*For the chief musician upon shoshannim, for the sons of Korah.
A wisdom song. A song of ones beloved.*

- ¶1. My heart is inditing a good matter. I speak of things I have done for the King. My tongue is the pen of a ready scribe.
2. You are fairer than sons of man; grace has been poured into your lips. Therefore, God has blessed you forever.

⁷ Cp. Psalm 8:2.

3. Gird your sword upon your thigh, O mighty one, your glory and your majesty!
4. And in your majesty, ride on victoriously with the word of truth and righteous meekness, and may your right hand accomplish for you fearful deeds.
5. Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies; peoples will fall beneath you.
6. Your throne, O God, is forever and ever. A scepter of equity is the scepter of your kingdom.
7. You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore, God, even your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows.
8. All your garments are scented with myrrh, and aloes, and cassia. From ivory palaces, stringed instruments⁸ make you glad.
9. Daughters of kings are among your honorable ladies; the queen stands at your right hand in gold from Ophir.
10. Listen, O daughter, and consider, and turn your ear to me. Forget your people and your father's house,
11. and the King will be captivated by your beauty. He is your Lord. Worship him!
12. Even the daughter of Tyre shall come with a gift; the wealthy among people shall beg your favor.
13. The daughter of the King is altogether glorious in appearance; her clothing is of gold filigree.
14. In embroidered raiment, she will be conducted to the King. Her virgins after her, her attendants, will be brought in to you, O King.
15. They will be conducted with gladness and rejoicing, and they will enter into the King's palace.
16. Instead of your fathers, they will be your sons, whom you will make princes over all the earth.
17. I will cause your name to be remembered throughout all generations. Therefore, nations shall praise you forever and ever.

Psalm 46

For the chief musician, for the sons of Korah.

A song upon alamothe.

- ¶1. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in times of trouble.
2. Therefore, we will not fear when earth is changed, and when mountains tumble into the midst of the sea.
3. Its waters roar and foam; mountains shake at His majesty. Selah.
4. There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, holy dwelling place of the Most High.
5. God is in her midst; she will not be moved. God will help her at the break of day.

⁸ Hebrew uncertain.

6. Nations raged; kingdoms shook. He lifted His voice; the earth melted.
7. The LORD of Hosts is with us. Our stronghold is the God of Jacob. Selah.
8. Come! Behold the works of the LORD, what desolations He has made on the earth,
9. making wars to cease to the end of the earth. He will break the bow and cut the spear in pieces; the wagons will He burn with fire.
10. Be still and know that I am God! I will be exalted among the nations; I will be exalted in the earth.
11. The LORD of Hosts is with us. Our stronghold is the God of Jacob. Selah.

Psalm 47

For the chief musician.

A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

- ¶1. Clap your hands, all peoples! Shout to God with the voice of triumph!
2. For the LORD Most High is to be feared; He is the great King over all the earth.
3. He will subdue peoples beneath us, and nations beneath our feet.
4. He will choose our inheritance for us, the majesty of Jacob whom He loved. Selah.
5. God ascended with a joyful shout, O LORD, with a sound of a shofar.
6. Sing praises, O gods! Sing praises! Sing praises to our King! Sing praises!
7. God is King of all the earth; sing praises skillfully!
8. God reigns over the nations; God sits on the throne of His holiness.
9. The princes of the nations are assembled, the people of the God of Abraham, for the shields of the earth are God's. He is greatly exalted.

Psalm 48

A song. A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

- ¶1. The LORD is great and is greatly to be praised in the city of our God, the mountain of His holiness.
2. Beautiful, elevated, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.
3. Within her palaces, God is known as a refuge.
4. Behold, when the kings assembled; together they crossed over.
5. When they saw the city, they marveled. They were terrified; they took to flight.
6. Trembling took hold of them there, anguish as of a woman in labor.
7. With an east wind, you smashed the ships of Tarshish.
8. As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of Hosts, in the city of our God. God will establish her forever. Selah.
9. In the midst of your temple have we thought upon your lovingkindness, O God.
10. As is your name, O God, so is your renown to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is full of righteousness.
11. Let Mount Zion be glad! Let the daughters of Judah rejoice because of your judgments!
12. Walk about Zion, and go around her; count her towers;

13. consider well her rampart; pass through her citadels so that you may recount it to the next generation.
14. This God is our God forever and ever! He will lead us on, beyond death.

Psalm 49

For the chief musician.

A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

- ¶1. Hear this, all nations! Give ear, all inhabitants of the world,
2. both low and high, rich and poor together.
3. My mouth will speak perfect wisdom, and the meditation of my heart is perfect understanding.
4. I will incline my ear to a parable; I will offer my dark saying upon a lyre.
5. Why should I fear in evil days? The iniquity of my supplanters is all around me
6. who trust in their wealth and boast themselves in the abundance of their riches.
7. He cannot at all redeem a brother, nor give God His ransom
8. (yea, the price for their soul will be precious and eternally complete),
9. that he might live again, forever, not seeing the Pit.
10. But He sees that wise men die together with the fool and the brutish. They perish and leave their wealth to others.
11. Inwardly, they think their houses will endure forever, their dwelling places from generation to generation. They call lands by their own names.
12. But a man with honor does not endure; he is like the beasts that perish.
13. This, their way, is their folly, yet those who come after them approve of their speech. Selah.
14. Like sheep, they are appointed to Sheol; death is their shepherd, and the upright will rule over them in the morning, and their beauty will rot away in Sheol from its lofty dwelling.
15. But God will ransom my soul from the power of Sheol, for He will receive me. Selah.
16. Do not be in awe when a man becomes rich, when the glory of his house increases.
17. For at his death, he will take nothing; none of his glory will descend with him,
18. though during his life, he blessed his soul. (How men praise you when you do well for yourself!)
19. He shall go to the dwelling-place of his fathers forever; they will never see light.
20. A man in honor, but with no understanding, is like the beasts that perish.

Psalm 50

A Psalm by Asaph.

- ¶1. The mighty God, Jehovah, has spoken and has summoned earth, from the rising of the sun until its going down.
2. From Zion, the perfection of beauty, God has shone.

3. Our God will come, and He will not be silent! Fire will devour before Him, and around Him, it will be very tempestuous.
4. He will call to the heavens from above and to the earth, to judge His people,
5. “Gather my pious ones to me, those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice!”
6. And heaven will declare His righteousness, for God Himself is Judge. Selah.
7. “Listen, O my people, and let me speak! O Israel, I will testify against you! I am God—your God!
8. Not for your sacrifices will I reprove you, nor for your burnt offerings that are continually before me.
9. I will take no bullock from your house, nor he-goats from your folds,
10. for every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle on a thousand hills.
11. I know that every bird of the mountains and every moving thing of the field is mine.
12. If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the world is mine and its fullness.
13. Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of he-goats?
14. Offer to God the sacrifice of praise, and pay your vows to the Most High,
15. and then call on me in the day of trouble! I will deliver you, and you will glorify me.”
16. But to the wicked man, God says, “How dare you declare my statutes, or take up my covenant into your mouth!
17. You despise correction, and you cast my words behind you.
18. When you see a thief, you are pleased with him, and your portion is with adulterers.
19. You turn your mouth loose with evil, and your tongue contrives deceit.
20. You sit and talk against your brother; you slander your own mother’s son.
21. These things you have done, and I remained silent. You thought that I was altogether such a one as yourself. I will reprove you, and I will set things in order before your eyes.
22. Now consider this, you who forget God, lest I tear you in pieces—and there will be no deliverer.
23. He who offers praise, setting his conduct in order, glorifies me. I will show him the salvation of God.”

Psalm 51

For the chief musician.

A Psalm by David when Nathan the prophet came to him because he had gone in to Bathsheba.

- ¶1. Have mercy on me, O God, according to your lovingkindness! In the abundance of your compassion, blot out my transgressions!
2. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin,
3. for I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is continually before me!
4. Against you only have I sinned and done this evil in your sight, so that you might be vindicated when you speak and justified when you judge.
5. Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me.

6. Behold, you delight in truth in the inner parts, and in the hidden part, you make me know wisdom.
7. Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean. Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
8. Make me to hear joy and gladness, and the bones you have crushed will shout for joy!
9. Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities!
10. Create a clean heart for me, O God, and make within me a new, steadfast spirit!
11. Do not cast me away from your presence, and do not take your holy Spirit from me!
12. Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain me with a willing spirit.
13. I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn back to you.
14. Deliver me from blood-guilt, O God! O God of my salvation, my tongue will cry aloud of your righteousness.
15. My Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will make your praise known.
16. Truly, you do not delight in sacrifice; otherwise, I would offer it. Burnt offering does not please you.
17. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit. A broken and crushed heart, O God, you will not despise.
18. Do good, in your good pleasure, to Zion! Rebuild the walls of Jerusalem!
19. Then, you will delight in sacrifices of righteousness, burnt offering and whole burnt offering. Then will they offer up bullocks on your altar.

Psalm 52

For the chief musician.

A wisdom song by David when Doeg the Edomite came and reported to Saul, and he told him, "David has gone to Ahimelech's house."

- ¶1. How can you commend yourself with evil, O mighty man? God's faithfulness never ceases.
2. Your tongue, like a sharpened razor, devises ruinous things, working deceit.
3. You love evil more than good, a lie more than to speak righteousness. Selah.
4. You love every word that devours, O deceitful tongue!
5. Oh, but God will bring you down forever. He will seize you and tear you away from your tent. Yea, He will uproot you out of the land of the living. Selah.
6. And the righteous will see it, and fear, and they will laugh at him,
7. saying, "Behold the man who did not make God his strength, but trusted in the abundance of his riches! He sought refuge in his own destruction."
8. As for me, I am like a green olive tree in the house of God. I will trust in the lovingkindness of God forever and ever.
9. I will praise you forever because you have done it, and I will wait for your Name, for he is delightful before your saints.

Psalm 53

For the chief musician, upon mahalath.

A wisdom song by David.

- ¶1. The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, and they do abominable injustice; there is no one doing good.
2. God looked down from heaven upon the sons of man to see if there was anyone with understanding, anyone who was seeking God.
3. Every one of them had turned away. They have all, alike, been corrupted; there is no one doing good, not even one!
4. Do the workers of iniquity have no understanding, eating up my people as they eat bread? They do not call on God.
5. They will be utterly terrified there, though there was no fear. For God will scatter the bones of him who camps against you. You will put them to shame because God has rejected them.
6. Whom from Zion will He ordain as the Salvation of Israel? When Jehovah returns the captivity of His people, Jacob will rejoice. Israel will be glad.

Psalm 54

For the chief musician, with stringed instruments.A wisdom song by David when the men of Ziph came and said to Saul, "Isn't David hiding himself among us?"

- ¶1. Save me, O God, by your Name, and vindicate me by your might.
2. Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth!
3. For strangers have risen up against me, and ruthless men seek my life. They do not set God before them. Selah.
4. Behold, God is my helper! My Lord is with those who uphold my life.
5. He will repay the evil of those who lie in wait for me. Annihilate them in your faithfulness!
6. With a freewill offering will I make sacrifice to you. I will praise your Name, O Jehovah, for he is good,
7. for he has delivered me from every distress, and my eye has looked upon my enemies.

For the chief musician, with stringed instruments.A wisdom song by David.

- ¶1. Give ear to my prayer, O God, and do not hide yourself from my supplication.
2. Attend to me, and answer me. I wander about in my anxiety, for I am discomfited
3. because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked, for they bring trouble down on me, and in anger, they love to hate me.
4. My heart is in anguish within me, and the terrors of death are fallen on me.
5. Fear and trembling have come upon me, and horror overwhelms me.
6. Then I said, "O, that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and be at rest.
7. Yea, I would wander far away and lodge in the wilderness. Selah.

8. I would hasten to my place of refuge from the stormy wind and tempest.”
9. Confound them, my Lord! Divide their speech, for I have seen violence and strife in the city.
10. Day and night, they go around it, upon its walls, and iniquity and trouble are in its midst.
11. Ruin is in its midst, for oppression is not removed from its marketplace, nor fraud.
12. It was not an enemy who reproached me; then, I could have borne it. Nor was it one who hated me who puffed himself up against me; then, I would have hidden myself from him.
13. But it was you, a man my own equal, my intimate friend, and my companion,
14. for we took sweet counsel together, and walked among the throng in the house of God.
15. Let death come upon him! Let them go down alive to Sheol, for wickedness is in their home and in their heart!
16. As for me, I will call on God, and the LORD will save me.
17. Evening, and morning, and at noon, I will complain and groan, and He will hear my voice.
18. He will redeem my soul with peace from the war against me, for many were about me.
19. God will hear, and He, even He who has been from of old, will humble them—
Selah!—because they do not change, and they do not fear God.
20. He stretched out his hands against those at peace with him; he violated his covenant.
21. His words were smooth as butter, but war was in his heart. His words were softer than oil, but they were drawn swords.
22. Cast your burden on the LORD, and He will sustain you. He will never allow the righteous to be moved.
23. But you, O God, will bring them down to the lowest Pit. Bloody and deceitful men will not live out half their days, but I will trust in you.

Psalm 56

For the chief musician concerning the Dove of God who is far away.

A miktam by David when Philistines took him in Gath.

- ¶1. Have mercy on me, O God, for men have trampled on me. All the day long, they fight against and oppress me.
2. Those who watch me trample on me all the day long; yea, many fight proudly against me.
3. What time I am afraid, I will trust in you.
4. In God, I will praise His Word! In God have I put my trust. I will not fear what flesh can do to me.
5. Every day, they twist my words against me; all their plans are for evil.
6. They stir up strife; they lurk; they watch my steps as they wait for my life.
7. Their escape has been by iniquity. In wrath, O God, cast down the peoples!

8. You have recorded my wandering. (Oh, put my tears in your bottle!) Is it not in your book?
9. My enemies will certainly turn back on the day I call. This I know because God is for me.
10. In God, I will praise the Word! In the LORD, I will praise the Word!
11. In God have I put my trust. I will not fear what man can do to me!
12. Your vows are upon me. I will render thank-offerings to you,
13. for you have delivered my soul from death! Did you not save my feet from stumbling so that I might walk before God in the light of the living?

Psalm 57

For the chief musician.Do not destroy.A miktam by David when he fled from Saul into the cave.

- ¶1. Have pity on me, O God! Have pity on me, for my soul seeks refuge in you. Yea, I seek refuge in the shadow of your wings until destructions are overpast.
2. I cry out to the Most High God, to the God who is accomplishing all things concerning me.
3. He will send from heaven and save me. He will put to shame the one who tramples on me. Selah! God will send His lovingkindness and His truth.
4. My soul is among lions. I lie down with flames, sons of men whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongues, a sharp sword.
5. Be exalted above the heavens, O God, and your glory over all the earth!
6. They laid a net for my feet. My soul is bowed down. They dug a pit before me. They fell into the midst of it. Selah.
7. My heart is fixed, O God. My heart is fixed. I will sing and make music.⁹
8. Awake, my Glory! Awake the harp and lyre. I will awake the dawn.
9. I will give you thanks among the nations, my Lord. I will sing you praise among the peoples,
10. for your lovingkindness is as high as heaven, and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
11. Be exalted above heaven, O God, and your glory over all the earth!

Psalm 58

For the chief musician.Do not destroy.A miktam by David.

- ¶1. Is it true, O you gods, that you speak what is right? Do you judge uprightly, O you sons of men?
2. No! In your heart, you do injustice. Your hands mete out violence in the land.

⁹ Compare vv. 7–11 with Psalm 108:1–5.

3. The wicked are estranged from the womb; from birth, they go astray, speaking lies.
4. Their poison is like the poison of a serpent; they are like a deaf adder that stops his ear,
5. which will not listen to the sound of charmers, cunningly casting their spells.
6. O God, break his teeth in his mouth! Break the fangs of the young lions, O Jehovah!
7. They will melt away like waters running from him. He will send forth His Arrow that is like Him. They shall be cut off,
8. the way a snail, melting, goes away, or a woman's miscarriage that never saw the sun.
9. Alive like Him and angry like Him, he will whirl us away before your pots feel the thorns.
10. The righteous will rejoice when he sees the vengeance. He will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.
11. And a man will say, "Surely, there is a reward for the righteous man! Surely, there are gods judging in the earth."

Psalm 59

For the chief musician.

Do not destroy.

A miktam by David when Saul sent men, and they watched his house, to kill him.

- ¶1. Deliver me from my enemies, my God! Set me on high from those who lift themselves up against me!
2. Deliver me from evildoers, and save me from bloody men!
3. For, behold, they wait in ambush for my life; formidable men have stirred up strife against me, not for my transgression and not for my sin, O LORD.
4. Nor for wickedness have they run and set themselves against me. Rouse yourself to help me, and see!
5. But you, Jehovah, God of Hosts, God of Israel, awake to punish all the nations! Show no mercy to any of those who treacherously devise evil. Selah.
6. They come back every evening; they snarl like a dog as they go about the city.
7. Behold, they blather with their mouths; daggers are in their lips. "For", they say, "Who is listening?"
8. But you, O Jehovah, you laugh at them; you scoff at all nations.
9. O you who are His strength, I will watch for you! For God is my high tower.
10. God, in His lovingkindness, will go before me; God will let me see those who lie in wait for me.
11. Do not kill them, lest my people forget. Make them tremble by your power, and bring them down, O Lord our shield,
12. for the sin of their mouth and the speech of their lips. And let them be taken in their pride for the curse and falsehood they declare.
13. Consume them in wrath! Consume until none of them remain, that men may know to the ends of the earth that God rules in Jacob! Selah.
14. And they come back every evening; they snarl like a dog as they go about the city.
15. They go about to devour; if they are not satisfied, then they will stay all night.

16. But as for me, I will sing of your strength, and cry aloud of your lovingkindness every morning, for you have been my high tower and my way of escape in the day of my distress.
17. O my Strength, I will sing you praise, for God is my high tower, the God of my mercy.

Psalm 60

For the chief musician, upon shushan.

A testimonial miktam by David for instruction, when he fought with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, and Joab returned and slew of Edom 12,000 in the Valley of Salt.

- ¶1. O God, you have rejected us. You have broken out against us. You have been angry. Turn back to us!
2. You have made the land quake; you have split it open. Heal its brokenness, for it is trembling!
3. You have made your people to see a hard thing. You have given us wine of trembling to drink.
4. You have given a sign for those who fear you, that they may flee from the bow. Selah.
5. Save us with your right hand and answer us, that those you love may be delivered!
6. God has spoken in His holiness, "I will exult in triumph. I will apportion Shechem and mete out the Valley of Succoth.
7. Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; and Ephraim is a shelter for my head. Judah is my law-giver;
8. Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast my shoe. Let Philistia shout in triumph because of me!"
9. Who will escort me to the entrenched city? Who will lead me to Edom?
10. O God, have you not rejected us? For you will not go out, O God, with our armies.
11. Give us help against the adversary, for salvation through man is vain!¹⁰
12. Through God, we will do valiantly, and He Himself will trample our adversaries.

Psalm 61

For the chief musician, on a stringed instrument.

By David.

- ¶1. Hear my cry, O God! Attend to my prayer!
2. From the end of the earth will I call to you when my heart is faint. You will lead me to a rock that is higher than I,
3. for you have been refuge for me, a strong tower in the presence of the enemy.
4. Let me stay in your tent forever and ever. Let me take refuge in the shelter of your wings. Selah.
5. For you, O God, have heard my vows and have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.

¹⁰ Identical with 108:13.

6. You will add days to the days of the King and make his years as many generations.
7. May he dwell in the presence of God forever. Ordain for him mercy and truth, that they may keep him!
8. So will I ever sing praises to your Name, to fulfill my vows day by day.

Psalm 62

For the chief musician, for Jeduthun.

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. For God alone, my soul waits in stillness; from Him is my salvation.
2. He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress. I will not be greatly shaken.
3. How long will you people assault a man? All of you will be destroyed, like a bowing wall or leaning fence.
4. All they do is scheme to cast him down from his high place. They take pleasure in falsehood. With their mouth, they bless, but inwardly, they curse. Selah.
5. O my soul, wait in stillness for God alone, for my hope is in Him.
6. He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress. I will not be shaken.
7. Upon God, my salvation and my glory rest. The rock of my strength, my refuge, is in God.
8. O people, trust in Him at all times! Pour out your hearts before Him! God is a refuge for us. Selah.
9. Surely, men of low status are vanity, and men of high status are a lie. Laid in a balance together, they are lighter than vanity.
10. Do not put your trust in oppression nor become vain by robbery. When wealth increases, do not set your heart on it.
11. Once, God has spoken; twice, I have heard this, that power belongs to God.
12. And to you, my Lord, belongs mercy, for you reward a man according to his work.

Psalm 63

A Psalm by David when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

- ¶1. O God, you are my God! Earnestly, I seek you. My soul thirsts for you; my flesh longs for you in a dry and weary land where there is no water.
2. Thus in the sanctuary, I have seen you, beholding your power and glory.
3. Because your lovingkindness is better than life, my lips will praise you.
4. Thus will I bless you while I live: I will lift up my hands in your name.
5. My soul will be satisfied as with the best food and abundance. And with joyful lips, my mouth will praise you
6. when I remember you upon my bed. I meditate on you in the night watches,
7. for you have been my help, and in the shadow of your wings will I shout for joy.
8. My soul follows hard after you. Your right hand upholds me,
9. but they seek to destroy my life. They will go into the lowest parts of the earth;

10. they will be given to the power of the sword; they will be a portion for foxes.
11. But the King will rejoice in God. Everyone who swears by Him will glory, for the mouth of those who speak lies will be shut.

Psalm 64

For the chief musician.

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint! Keep my life from fear of the enemy!
2. Keep me hidden from the assembly of evildoers, from the congregation of those who do iniquity,
3. who have sharpened their tongue like a sword; they have aimed their arrow, poisonous talk,
4. to shoot from hiding places the perfect man. They shoot without warning and without fear.
5. They encourage themselves in an evil matter; they talk of secretly laying snares, saying, "Who will see them?"
6. They look for wrongs, and say, "We have accomplished a diligent search, though the heart and mind of man is unsearchable."
7. But God will shoot an arrow at them; suddenly, they will be struck down.
8. Though they would have brought him down, their tongue will fall upon themselves. All who see them will shudder.
9. Then all men will fear, and declare the work of God, and wisely ponder what He did.
10. Let the righteous rejoice in the LORD and take refuge in Him! Let all the upright in heart glory!

Psalm 65

For the chief musician.

A Psalm by David. A song.

- ¶1. In Zion, O God, praise waits for you, and to you will a vow be paid.
2. O you who hears prayer, to you will all flesh come.
3. The words of iniquitous men prevailed against me, but you cover our transgressions.
4. Blessed is the one whom you choose and bring near; he will dwell in your courts. Oh, let us be filled with the goodness of your house, your holy temple!
5. In righteousness, you wondrously answer us, O God of our salvation, O refuge for all the ends of the earth and the farthest sea,
6. the One who by His power established the mountains, being girded with strength,
7. the One who calms the roaring of the seas, the roar of their waves, and the uproar of the nations.
8. And the inhabitants to the ends of the earth fear your signs. You cause the outgoings of the morning and evening to shout for joy.

9. You visit the earth and give it abundance; you greatly enrich it (the channel of God is full of water); you provide their grain, for you ordained it thus.
10. You water its furrows abundantly; you smooth out its ridges, making it soft with showers, blessing its produce.
11. You crown the year with your goodness, and your tracks drip fatness;
12. they drip upon the wilderness pastures, and the hills gird themselves with joy.
13. Meadows are clothed with flocks, and valleys are covered with grain. Together they shout; yea, they sing!

Psalm 66

For the chief musician.

A song. A Psalm.

- ¶1. Shout to God, all the earth!
2. Sing the glory of His name! Set forth the glory of His praise!
3. Say to God, "How wondrous are your works! Because of your great strength, your enemies will cower before you."
4. All the earth will worship you and sing to you; they will sing of your name. Selah.
5. Come and see the works of God! He is awesome in deed toward the sons of man.
6. He turned the sea to dry land. Through the river, they crossed over on foot. There, we rejoiced in Him
7. who rules by His might forever. His eyes keep watch over the nations; let not the rebels rise up against Him. Selah.
8. Bless our God, O nations, and make the sound of His praise be heard
9. who has set our souls among the living and has not suffered our feet to slip.
10. You have certainly proved us, O God. You have refined us as silver is refined.
11. You led us into the net; you laid a crushing load on our backs;
12. you caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and water. Yet, you brought us out to a place of abundance.
13. I will come into your house with burnt offerings. I will pay my vows to you
14. which my lips uttered and my mouth spoke in my distress.
15. I will offer to you whole burnt offerings of fatlings, together with the smoke of rams. I will prepare cattle with he-goats. Selah.
16. Come and listen, and let me declare to all who fear God what He has done for my soul!
17. I cried to Him with my mouth, and He was exalted with my tongue.
18. If I had regarded wickedness in my heart, the Lord would not have listened.
19. But God listened! He gave heed to the sound of my prayer.
20. Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer or His lovingkindness from me.

Psalm 67

For the chief musician.

A Psalm with stringed instruments. A song.

- ¶1. God will show us favor and bless us. Let His face shine on us—Selah!—
2. so that your way might be known on earth, your salvation among all nations!
3. Let nations praise you, O God! Let all nations praise you!
4. Nations will rejoice and sing for joy when you judge the nations with equity and guide the peoples on earth. Selah.
5. Let the nations praise you, O God! Let all the nations praise you!
6. The land will yield her produce. God, our God, will bless us.
7. God will bless us, and all the ends of the earth will fear Him.

Psalm 68

For the chief musician.A Psalm by David. A song.

- ¶1. God will rise up, His enemies will scatter, and those who hate Him will flee before Him.
2. As smoke is driven away, so you will drive them away. Like wax melting before fire, the wicked will perish before God.
3. But the righteous will be glad; they will exult before God and rejoice with gladness.
4. Sing to God! Sing praises to His name! Cast up a highway for him who rides through the desert plains with Jehovah as his authority. Exult before him, too,
5. a father to orphans and a judge of widows, a God in His holy habitation.
6. God makes lonely souls to live in a home. He brings prisoners out into prosperity. Oh, but the rebellious dwell in a blistering place.
7. O God, when you went forth before your people, when you marched through the wilderness (selah!),
8. the earth quaked, yea, heavens dropped at the presence of God, the God of Sinai, at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
9. You freely gave rain to your inheritance, O God. You established it when it was weary.
10. Your people dwelt in it. You, O God, in your goodness, provide for the needy.
11. The Lord gave the word; great is the army that proclaims the news:
12. “The kings of the armies are fleeing! They are fleeing!” And she who waits at home will divide spoil
13. (while you men lie among campfires), wings of a dove covered with silver and its feathers with shimmering gold,
14. when the Almighty scatters kings. With it, let it snow on Zalmon!
15. O mountain of God, mountain of Bashan! O many-peaked mountain, mountain of Bashan!
16. Why do you watch enviously, O mountain peaks, the mountain God desired for His dwelling-place? Yea, the LORD will dwell there forever.
17. The chariots of God are myriads, thousands upon thousands. My Lord is among them, as at Sinai, in the sanctuary.
18. You have ascended on high! You have taken captivity captive, to procure gifts for men, even the rebellious, so that our God, Jehovah, might dwell with them.

19. Blessed be my Lord! Daily, the God of our salvation bears our burden. Selah.
20. Our God is a God of deliverances, and to Jehovah my Lord belong the ways of escape from death.
21. Howbeit, God will smite the head of His enemies, the hairy crown of him that walks about in his offenses.
22. My Lord has said, "I will bring them back from Bashan; I will bring them back from the depths of the sea,
23. so that your foot may bloodily crush your enemies. Your dogs' tongue will have its portion of your enemies."
24. They have seen your processions, O God, the processions of my God, my King, into the sanctuary,
25. singers in front, players of stringed instruments following, and between them, virgins with timbrels.
26. In the assemblies, let them bless God, the LORD, for the fountain of Israel!
27. Little Benjamin is the head of them there, the princes of Judah with their throng, princes of Zebulun, princes of Naphtali.
28. Your God has commanded your mighty one. Strengthen, O God, him whom you created for us.
29. For your temple, kings will bring a gift to you at Jerusalem.
30. Rebuke the Beast of the shaft and the company of bulls with their calves of peoples, until each abases himself with pieces of silver. He will scatter the nations who delight in wars.
31. Nobles will come from Egypt; Ethiopia will quickly stretch out his hands to God.
32. Let the kingdoms of earth sing unto God! Let them make music to the Lord! Selah.
33. To him who rides in the ancient heaven of heavens. Lo, he utters his voice, a mighty voice.
34. Let those in the clouds submit to God's power over Israel, His majesty and His strength.
35. O God! Feared among your saints! The God of Israel will grant power and positions of authority to the people. Blessed be God!

Psalm 69

For the chief musician upon shoshannim.

By David.

- ¶1. Save me, O God, for the waters have come in, even to my soul.
2. I have sunk into deep mire, and there is no foothold. I have come into deep waters, and a torrent has engulfed me.
3. I am weary with my calling on God; my throat is parched; my eyes have failed, waiting for my God.

4. Those who hate me without cause are more than the hairs of my head. My enemies, who would destroy me, are strong. Then, I restored that which I did not take away.
5. O God, you know my foolishness, and my offenses are not hidden from you.
6. Let those who hope in you not be ashamed for my sake, my Lord, GOD of Hosts! For my sake, O God of Israel, let those who seek you not be confounded!
7. For because of you, I have borne reproach; shame has covered my face.
8. I have become a stranger to my brothers and an alien to the children of my mother
9. because jealousy for your house consumed me, and the reproaches of those who reproach you fell on me.
10. When I wept, with my soul fasting, it brought reproaches against me.
11. When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became a byword to them.
12. Those who sit in the gate deride me, and drunkards mock me with songs.
13. But as for me, my prayer is to you, O LORD, at an acceptable time. O God, in the abundance of your lovingkindness, answer me with your saving truth.
14. Deliver me from the mire, and let me not sink! Let me be delivered from those who hate me and from the deep waters.
15. Do not let the floodwaters engulf me, nor let the deep swallow me up, nor let the Pit close its mouth upon me.
16. Answer me, O LORD, for your lovingkindness is good. Turn to me according to your great compassion,
17. and do not hide your face from your servant, for I am in distress. Hasten to answer me!
18. Draw near to my soul! Redeem it! Ransom me because of my enemies!
19. You know my reproach, and my shame, and my disgrace. All my adversaries are before you.
20. Reproach has broken my heart, and I am distraught. I longed for someone to show pity, but there was no one, and for comforters, but I found none.
21. They put poison in my food, and for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
22. Let their table be a snare before them, and the things they are content with, a trap.
23. Let their eyes grow too dim to see, and make their loins continually shake.
24. Pour out your indignation on them, and let your burning anger overtake them.
25. Let their camp be desolate; let no one remain in their tent,
26. for they persecuted the one whom you struck down, and they declare the pain of those you pierced.
27. Add to them punishment upon punishment, and let them not enter into your righteousness.
28. Let them be blotted out of the Book of Life and not be written among the righteous!
29. Though I have been lowly and hurting, O God, your salvation will set me on high.
30. I will praise the name of God with song and magnify Him with thanksgiving,
31. and it will please the LORD more than an ox or a bull with horns and hoofs.

32. Humble men understand that those who seek God will rejoice, and your hearts will live,
33. for the LORD listens to the needy, and He does not despise His prisoners.
34. Heaven and earth will praise Him, the seas and everything that moves in them,
35. for God will save Zion and build the cities of Judah, that men may dwell there and take possession of it,
36. and the seed of His servants will inherit it, and those who love His name will dwell in it.

Psalm 70

For the chief musician.

By David, to bring to remembrance.

- ¶1. Deliver me, O God! O LORD, make haste to help me!
2. Let them be put to shame and confounded who seek my life! Let them be turned back and humiliated who take pleasure in my hurt!
3. Let them be turned back because of their shame who say, "Aha! Aha!"
4. Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you, and let those who love your salvation say continually, "God is great!"
5. But I am poor and needy. Hasten to me, O God! You, O Lord, are my help and my deliverer. Oh, do not tarry!

Psalm 71

- ¶1. In you, O LORD, have I taken refuge; let me never be put to shame.
2. Deliver me by your righteousness, and rescue me. Incline your ear to me, and save me.
3. Be a rock of refuge for me, to which I may continually resort! You have commanded that I be saved, for you are my rock and my stronghold.
4. O my God, deliver me out of the hand of the evil one, out of the grasp of the unjust and ruthless one,
5. for you are my hope, my Lord, Jehovah, my security from my youth.
6. On you have I relied from the womb; you severed me from my mother's belly. My praise is continually of you.
7. I am as a wonder to many, but you are my strong refuge.
8. My mouth is filled with your praise and your glory all the day long.
9. Do not cast me off in the time of old age; when my strength is spent, do not forsake me.
10. For my enemies have spoken against me, and those who watch for my life have taken counsel together,
11. saying, "God has forsaken him. Follow him and take him! For there is no one to deliver him."
12. O God, do not be far from me! O my God, hasten to help me!
13. Let them be ashamed. Let the adversaries of my soul be consumed. Let scorn and disgrace cover them who seek to do me harm.

14. But as for me, I will always hope, and I will keep adding to all your praise.
15. My mouth will declare your righteousness and your salvation all the day, though I do not know the sum of them.
16. I will come with mighty ones of my Lord, Jehovah! I will make mention of your righteousness, yours alone.
17. O God, you have taught me from my youth, and behold, I am still declaring your wonders.
18. And even to old age and gray hair, O God, do not forsake me, that I might declare your strength to the next generation, your might to all who are coming.
19. Your righteousness, O God, reaches to the height, you who have done great things! O God, who is like you?
20. You who have shown me many and grievous troubles will bring me back to life and cause me to rise again from the depths of the earth.
21. You will increase my greatness and comfort me again.
22. For my part, I will praise you with a harp. With a lyre will I sing your truth to you, my God, O Holy One of Israel.
23. My lips will shout for joy as I play for you, and my soul, which you have redeemed.
24. Also, my tongue will speak your righteousness all the day long, for those who sought my hurt have been put to shame and disgraced.

Psalm 72
For Solomon.

- ¶1. O God, give the king your judgments, and your righteousness to the king's son.
2. He will judge your people in righteousness and your poor with justice.
3. The mountains and hills will yield prosperity for the people through righteousness.
4. He will judge the poor among the people; he will deliver the children of the needy and crush the oppressor.
5. They will fear you as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.
6. He will descend like rain upon the mowing, like showers that water the earth.
7. In his days will the righteous flourish, and great peace, until the moon is no more.
8. And he will rule from sea to sea, and from the river to the ends of the earth.
9. Those who dwell in the desert will bow down to him, and his enemies will lick the dust.
10. Kings of Tarshish and of the isles will render tribute; kings of Sheba and Seba will offer a gift,
11. and all kings will bow down before him. All nations will serve him.
12. For he will deliver the needy when he cries and the poor who has no one helping him.
13. He will pity the poor and needy man and save the lives of the needy.
14. From oppression and from violence will he will redeem their soul, for their blood is precious in his sight.
15. Let him live! And let gold from Sheba be given to him! Let prayer perpetually be made on account of him, and let Him bless him every day!

16. There will be an abundance of grain in the land, at the top of mountains. Its produce will sway like that of Lebanon, and they in the city will flourish like the grass of the earth.
17. His name will endure forever! His name will be propagated as long as the sun endures, and by him will all nations be blessed, and they will call him blessed.
18. Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, who alone does wondrous things.
19. And blessed be His glorious name forever, and let all the earth be filled with His glory! Amen and amen!
20. The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

Psalm 73

A Psalm by Asaph.

- ¶1. Truly God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.
2. But as for me, my feet had almost slipped; my steps were almost gone.
3. For I was envious of those who are praised. I saw the happiness of wicked men.
4. For there are no bonds on them until death, and their bodies are stout.
5. They are not in trouble as other men are; neither are they plagued along with other men.
6. Therefore, pride encircles them like a necklace; violence covers them like a garment.
7. Their eye stands out with fatness; they have more than heart can wish.
8. They mock and speak wickedly of oppression; they speak loftily.
9. They set their mouth against heaven, and their tongue walks through the earth.
10. Therefore, His people turn away after them, and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.
11. And they think, “How can God know?” and “Is there knowledge on high?”
12. Behold, these are the wicked, always at ease; they increase in wealth.
13. Truly, I have kept my heart clean for nothing, and washed my hands in innocence,
14. for I am plagued all day long, and correction comes to me every morning.
15. If I had decided, “I will talk that way,” behold, I would have offended a generation of your children.
16. When I tried to understand this, it was hard for me
17. until I entered into God’s sanctuary; then, I considered their end.
18. You have surely put them in slippery places; you cause them to fall into ruin.
19. How suddenly they come to desolation! They come to an end, consumed by terrors.
20. As it is with a dream after one has wakened, when you rise up, my Lord, you will disregard their semblance.
21. When my heart was bitter, my soul was pierced,
22. and I was brutish and did not understand. I was like an animal before you.
23. Yet, I was always with you. You held onto my right hand.
24. With your counsel, you will guide me, and afterwards, you will receive me to glory.
25. Whom have I in heaven but you? And I delight in none on earth besides you.

26. My flesh and my heart fail, but God is the strength¹¹ of my heart and my portion forever.
27. For, behold, those who are far from you will perish. You will destroy all who go a-whoring from you.
28. But as for me, the nearness of God is good for me. I have made the Lord Jehovah my refuge, that I might declare all your works.

Psalm 74

A wisdom song by Asaph.

- ¶1. Why, O God, do you continually reject and your anger smoke against the sheep of your pasture?
2. Remember your congregation that you purchased long ago. You redeemed the rod of your inheritance, this Mount Zion where you have dwelt.
3. O lift up your feet to these perpetual ruins, to all the evil the enemy has done in the sanctuary.
4. Your adversaries roar within your place of assembly; they set up their own signs as signs.
5. One became famous as he brought axes up the ascent to your sanctuary, as against a thicket of trees,
6. and then, with hatchet and hammers, they smashed all its engraved works.
7. They set your sanctuary on fire; they profaned to the ground the dwelling-place of your name.
8. They said in their hearts, “We will subdue them altogether.” They burned all of God’s meeting places in the land.
9. We do not see our signs; there is no longer a prophet; and none among us knows for how long.
10. How long, O God, will the adversary mock? Will the enemy blaspheme your name forever?
11. Why do you hold back your hand? With him on your right hand, fulfill your law¹² from within!
12. And yet, from ancient time, O God my King, you have been working salvation throughout the earth.
13. You by your strength, broke up the sea into pieces. You smashed the heads of dragons in the flood.
14. You crushed the heads of Leviathan. You gave him as food for a people who live in deserts.
15. You cleaved spring and torrent; you dried up flowing rivers.

¹¹ Literally, “Rock”.

¹² Or, “your statute”.

16. To you belongs the day, and to you belongs the night. You are the one who established light and sun.
17. You fixed all the boundaries of the earth; as for summer and winter, you made them.
18. Remember this! The enemy has reproached, O LORD, and a foolish people has blasphemed your name.
19. Oh, do not put the life of your turtledove into a creature, a creature among your afflicted people! Do not ever forget!
20. Have respect to the covenant, though the dark places of earth are full of the habitations of violence.
21. Do not let the crushed man return humiliated. Let the poor and the needy man praise your name.
22. Arise, O God, and plead your case! Remember the fool's daily reproach against you.
23. Do not forget the clamor of your adversaries; the tumult of those who rise up against you ascends continually.

Psalm 75

For the chief musician.

Do not destroy.

A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

- ¶1. We praise you, O God! We praise you! Your wonders declare that your name is near!
2. When I receive the assembly, I will judge uprightly.
3. The earth and all its inhabitants are melted away. I determine its pillars. Selah.
4. I said to the braggarts, "Do not boast," and to the wicked, "Do not exalt the horn!"
5. Do not lift up your horn on high; do not speak with a proud neck.
6. For exaltation will not come from east or west, nor yet from the wilderness.
7. For God is Judge, abasing one and exalting another.
8. For in the hand of the LORD is a cup with wine that has foamed and is fully mixed. When He pours out this wine, all the wicked of the earth will surely drink; they will drain it to the dregs!
9. But as for me, I will declare God's praise forever. I will sing praise to the God of Jacob.
10. All the horns of the wicked will I cut off, but the horns of the righteous will be exalted.

Psalm 76

For the chief musician, with stringed instruments.

A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

- ¶1. God is known in Judah; in Israel, His name is great;
2. but His tabernacle is in Salem, and His dwelling place is in Zion.
3. There He shattered the arrows of bowmen, the shield, and sword, and fighting. Selah.
4. You are resplendent, more majestic than the mountains of prey.
5. I caused the stouthearted to plunder one another. They sank into their sleep, and none of the mighty men found their strength.

6. At your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both rider and horse fell into a deep sleep.
7. You alone are to be feared, for who can stand before you, once you are angered?
8. From heaven, you pronounced judgment; the earth feared and was quiet
9. when God arose for the Judgment, to deliver all the meek of the earth. Selah.
10. Surely, the wrath of man will praise you; the remaining acts of wrath, you will restrain.
11. Make your vows to the LORD your God, and perform them! Let all who are around Him bring a gift to the One who should be feared.
12. He cuts off the spirit of princes; He is dreadful to earthly kings.

Psalm 77

For the chief musician, for Jeduthun.

A Psalm by Asaph.

- ¶1. My voice will rise to God. Yea, I will cry aloud to God, for He has given ear to me.
2. I sought my Lord in the day of my distress. At night, my hand was stretched out and did not grow weak. My soul refused to be comforted.
3. I remembered God, and groaned. I complained, and my spirit was fainting away. Selah.
4. You held my eyelids open; I was so troubled that I could not speak.
5. I considered days of old, the years of long ago.
6. I remembered my songs in the night; I communed with my heart, and my spirit made inquiry:
7. “Will the Lord cast off forever and ever? And will He never again show favor?
8. Has His mercy forever ceased? Is the promise to all generations no more?
9. Has God forgotten to be gracious? Or in anger, has He shut up His compassions?” Selah.
10. I also said, “This pierces my heart, that the right hand of the Most High has changed.”
11. I will mention the works of Jehovah; yea, I will remember your wondrous work of old.
12. Indeed, I have meditated upon all your work, and I will muse upon your deeds.
13. O God, your way is in the holy place. Who is a great God like God?
14. You are the God who created Wonder! You will make your strength known among the nations.
15. With your arm, you have redeemed your people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.
16. The waters saw you, O God! The waters saw you! They writhed. Yea, the depths trembled!
17. Clouds poured out water. Thick clouds gave forth a sound. Your arrows also shot back and forth.
18. The sound of your thunder was in the whirlwind. Flashes of lightning lit up the world; the earth trembled and shook.
19. Your way was through the sea, and your paths, through great waters, but your footprints were not perceived.
20. You led your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

A wisdom song by Asaph.

- ¶1. Give ear, O my people, to my law! Incline your ear to the words of my mouth!
2. I will open my mouth in a parable; I will pour out dark sayings from of old
3. that we have heard and understood, for our fathers recounted them to us.
4. We will not hide them from their children, recounting to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and His power, and His wonderful works that He has done.
5. For He established a testimony in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel which He commanded our fathers to make known to their children
6. so that the following generation might know them. Children shall be born! They shall rise up and rehearsed them for their children,
7. so that they might put their confidence in God and not forget the works of God, but keep His commandments,
8. that they might not be like their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that did not prepare its heart, and whose spirit was not faithful to God.
9. The children of Ephraim, armed with the bow, turned back in the day of battle.
10. They did not keep God's covenant, and they refused to walk in His law.
11. They also forgot His deeds, even His wonders that He had shown them.
12. In the sight of their fathers, He worked a wonder in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
13. He divided the sea and brought them through it. Yea, He made water to stand up as a heap.
14. By day, He led them with a cloud, and all the night, by the light of a fire.
15. He split rocks in the wilderness and gave them drink as abundant as the depths.
16. He brought forth flowing streams from a rock and caused waters to flow down like rivers;
17. yet, they still continued to sin against Him, rebelling against the Most High in the desert.
18. And they tempted God in their heart by asking for food according to their own will.
19. And they spoke against God, saying, "Is God able to spread a table in the wilderness?"
20. Behold, He struck a rock and waters gushed out and streams overflowed. Is He able also to give bread or provide flesh for His people?"
21. Therefore, when the LORD heard this, He was filled with fury, and a fire was kindled against Jacob. Yea, wrath rose up against Israel.
22. For they did not believe in God, nor did they trust in His salvation.
23. Yet, He commanded the clouds above, and opened the doors of heaven,
24. and rained manna down on them to eat, and gave them the grain of heaven.
25. Man ate the bread of angels. He sent food in abundance;
26. He caused an east wind to blow through the heavens, and by His strength, He drove the south wind
27. and rained flesh down on them like dust and winged fowl like the sand of the seas,

28. and He made them fall in their camp, round about their tents.
29. But while they were eating and being well filled, He brought their lust upon them.
30. They were not finished with their lust; their food was still in their mouths
31. when the wrath of God rose against them, and He killed the stoutest of them, and He laid low the choicest men of Israel.
32. In spite of all this, they kept on sinning, and they did not believe in His wonders.
33. So, He consumed their days with vanity and their years with trouble.
34. When He killed them, then they sought Him; they repented and earnestly sought God.
35. And they remembered that God was their Rock, and the Most High God, their Redeemer.
36. Then they flattered Him with their mouths; with their tongue, they lied to Him,
37. for their heart was not steadfast with Him and they were not faithful in His covenant.
38. But He was compassionate. He provided atonement for sin and did not destroy them.
Yea, many a time, He turned His anger away and did not stir up all His wrath,
39. for He remembered that they were flesh, a passing breeze that will never return.
40. How often they rebelled against Him in the wilderness and grieved Him in the desert!
41. Again and again, they tempted God, and they limited the Holy One of Israel.
42. They did not remember His power that they saw the day that He ransomed them from the enemy,
43. when He displayed His signs in Egypt and His wonders in the field of Zoan,
44. and turned their rivers into blood so that they could not drink from their streams.
45. He sent a swarm of flies among them which devoured them and frogs that polluted them,
46. and gave their increase to the destroying locust and their labor to the young locust.
47. He destroyed their vines with the hail, and their sycamores with the lightning bolts,¹³
48. and delivered their beasts to the hail and their livestock to the fiery bolts.
49. He loosed on them the fierceness of His anger, fury, and indignation, and vexation, a detachment of evil angels.
50. He cleared a way for His anger; He did not spare their soul from death, but delivered their life to the pestilence,
51. and struck all the firstborn of Egypt, the firstfruits of vigor in the tents of Ham.
52. Then He led His people out like sheep, and guided them like a flock in the wilderness,
53. and led them safely so that they were not afraid, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
54. And then, He brought them to the border of His sanctuary, this mountain that His right hand had purchased.
55. He drove out the nations before them, and He apportioned to them an inheritance by lot, and He settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

¹³ Hebrew unknown.

56. But they tempted and rebelled against God Most High, and they did not keep His testimonies.
57. And they turned back and became faithless like their fathers. They became warped, like a treacherous bow.
58. They vexed Him with their high places, and with their carved images they provoked Him to jealousy.
59. God heard and was filled with fury, and He greatly despised Israel.
60. Then, He forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent where He dwelt among men,
61. and He gave His strength into captivity and His beauty into the hand of the adversary.
62. He also delivered His people to the sword, and was filled with fury against His heritage.
63. Fire consumed His young men, and His maidens were given no wedding song.¹⁴
64. His priests fell by the sword, and His widows did not lament.
65. Then, like one who had been sleeping, like a mighty man overcome by wine, my Lord awoke
66. and struck his enemies' rear end; an everlasting shame He laid upon them.
67. And He rejected the tent of Joseph, and the tribe of Ephraim He did not choose.
68. But He chose the tribe of Judah, and Mount Zion which He loved.
69. And He built His sanctuary like the highest place, like the land which He has founded of old.
70. And He chose David, His servant. And taking him from the sheepfolds,
71. from following suckling ewes, He brought him to be a shepherd for Jacob His people and Israel His heritage,
72. who then guided them according to the integrity of his heart and led them by the skillfulness of his hands.

Psalm 79

A Psalm by Asaph.

- ¶1. O God, the nations have come into your heritage! They have defiled your holy temple; they have turned Jerusalem into ruins.
2. They have given the carcasses of your servants as food for the birds of heaven, the flesh of your saints to the beasts of the earth.
3. They have poured out their blood like water around Jerusalem, and there is no one burying them.
4. We have become a reproach to our neighbors, a scorn and a derision to those round about us.
5. How long, O LORD? You have been angry forever; your jealousy burns like fire.
6. Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you, and on the kingdoms that do not call on your name,

¹⁴ Literally, "His maidens were not praised (in song)."

7. for he has devoured Jacob, and they have ravaged His dwelling place.
8. Do not hold past iniquities against us! Let your tender mercies come to us quickly, for we have been brought very low.
9. Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of your name, and deliver us and cover our sins for your name's sake.
10. Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?" Let Him be revealed to the nations before our eyes in vengeance for the blood of your servants which has been shed.
11. Let the groaning of the prisoner come before you. By your mighty power, save those who are about to die,
12. and render seven-fold into the bosom of our neighbors their reproach with which they have reproached you, my Lord!
13. And we, your people, the sheep of your pasture, will forever give you thanks. From generation to generation will we declare your praise.

Psalm 80

For the chief musician, to shoshannim.

A testimony by Asaph. A Psalm.

- ¶1. Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel who leads Joseph like a flock; you who dwells between the cherubim, shine forth,
2. before Ephraim, and Benjamin, and Manasseh. Arouse your strength and go forth for our salvation!
3. Grant us repentance, O God, and cause your face to shine on us, and we will be saved.
4. O LORD, God of Hosts, how long will you be angry at the prayer of your people?
5. You feed them the bread of tears and make them drink tears by measure.
6. You make us a contention to our neighbors, and our enemies mock among themselves.
7. Grant us repentance, O God of Hosts, and cause your face to shine on us, and we will be saved.
8. You brought a vine out from Egypt; you drove out the nations and planted it.
9. You cleared a place before it, and it took deep root and filled the land.
10. Mountains were covered by its shadow, with its boughs like mighty cedars.
11. She sent out her branches to the sea and her shoots to the river.
12. Why have you broken down her walls so that all who pass by the way pluck her?
13. The boar of the forest ravages her, and the beasts of the field feed on her.
14. O God of Hosts, return, we beseech you! Look down from heaven, and see, and visit this vine,
15. even the vine that your right hand planted, and upon the Son you made strong for yourself.
16. It is burned with fire. It has been cut down. At the rebuke of your face, they perish.
17. Let your hand be upon the man at your right hand, upon the Son of man you strengthened for yourself!
18. Then, we will not backslide from you. Give us life, and we will call on your name.

19. Grant us repentance, O LORD, God of Hosts, and cause your face to shine on us, and we will be saved.

Psalm 81

For the chief musician, upon the gittith.

By Asaph.

- ¶1. Sing joyfully to God our strength. Shout to the God of Jacob.
2. Take up a song; play the timbrel and the sweet-sounding lyre with a harp.
3. At the new moon, blow the shofar, at the moon on our feast day,
4. for this is Israel's statute, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
5. He established it for a testimony in Joseph when He went out over the land of Egypt. I heard a language I did not recognize.
6. I removed his shoulder from the burden; his hands were freed from the basket.
7. You cried out in distress, and I delivered you. I answered you in the hiding place of thunder. I tried you at the waters of Meribah. Selah.
8. Hear, O my people, and I will testify against you. O Israel, if you would only listen to me,
9. there would be in you no strange god, nor would you bow down to a foreign god.
10. I am the LORD your God who brought you up from the land of Egypt. Open wide your mouth, and I will fill it.
11. But my people have not listened to my voice; Israel has not yielded to me.
12. So, I gave them over to the stubbornness of their heart, to walk in their own counsels.
13. If only my people would listen to me, Israel would walk in my ways.
14. How quickly would I subdue their enemies and turn my hand against their adversaries!
15. Those who hate the LORD feign obeisance to Him, but their time will be forever.
16. Yet would He have fed him from the choicest wheat, and with honey from a rock I would have satisfied you.

Psalm 82

A Psalm by Asaph.

- ¶1. God presides in the Assembly of God; He judges among the gods.
2. How long will you judge unjustly and respect the persons of the wicked? Selah.
3. Judge the poor and fatherless; do justice to the afflicted and needy;
4. rescue the weak and destitute; deliver them from the hand of the wicked!
5. They do not know; neither do they understand; they walk about in darkness. All the foundations of the earth are shaken.
6. I have said, "You are gods, and all of you are sons of the Most High.
7. Nevertheless, like men, you will die, and you will fall like one of their princes."
8. Arise, O God! Judge the earth, for you will take possession of all the nations.

Psalm 83

A Song. A Psalm by Asaph.

- ¶1. O God, do not be quiet! Do not be silent or still, O God!
2. For, behold, your enemies rage, and those who hate you have lifted up the head.
3. They take shrewd counsel against your people and conspire against those you treasure.
4. They have said, "Come and let us destroy them as a nation, and the name of Israel will no longer be remembered!"
5. Yea, they conspired together with one mind. They formed an alliance against you:
6. tents of Edom, and Ishmaelites, Moab, and the Hagrites,
7. Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek, Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre;
8. Assyria also joined with them. They strengthened the children of Lot. Selah.
9. Do to them as to Midian, as to Sisera, as to Jabin at the Brook of Kishon.
10. They were destroyed at Endor; they became dung for the land.
11. Make their nobles as Oreb and Zeeb, all their princes as Zebah and Zalmunna,
12. who said, "Let us possess for ourselves the pastures of God."
13. O my God, make them like the whirling dust, like chaff before the wind.
14. As a fire burns a forest and a flame sets the mountains ablaze,
15. put them to flight with your tempest and terrify them with your stormy wind.
16. Fill their faces with disgrace, and they will seek your name, O LORD!
17. Let them be ashamed and dismayed forever, and let them be confounded, and perish,
18. so that they know that you, whose name is Jehovah, are alone the Most High over all the earth.

Psalm 84

For the chief musician, upon the gittith.

A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

- ¶1. How lovely are your dwelling places, O LORD of Hosts.
2. My soul longs, yea, it faints for the courts of the LORD. My heart and my flesh cry aloud for the living God.
3. Even the sparrow finds a home, and the swallow, a nest for herself, where she may lay her young—at your altars, O LORD of Hosts, my King and my God.
4. Blessed are those who dwell in your house; they are ever praising you. Selah.
5. Blessed are those whose strength is in you; highways to Zion are in their hearts.
6. As they pass through the Valley of Weeping, they make it a spring, and the Teacher will clothe them in blessings.
7. They go from strength to strength; the God of gods will be seen in Zion.
8. O LORD, God of Hosts, hear my prayer! Give ear, O God of Jacob! Selah.
9. Behold our Shield, O God, and look on the face of your Messiah.
10. A day in your courts is much better than a thousand. I would choose to stand by the threshold of the house of my God rather than to dwell in tents of wickedness.

11. For the LORD God is a sun and a shield. The LORD will give grace and glory. He does not withhold good from those who live blamelessly.
12. O LORD of Hosts, blessed is the man who trusts in you.

Psalm 85

For the chief musician.

A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

- ¶1. O LORD, you have shown favor to your land; you have returned the captivity of Jacob.
2. You have taken away the iniquity of your people. You have covered all their sin. Selah.
3. You gathered up all your wrath; you requited us because of your burning anger.
4. Bring us back, O God of our salvation, and cause your anger toward us to cease!
5. Will you be angry with us forever? You have continued in your wrath from generation to generation.
6. Won't you relent and give us life, that your people may rejoice in you?
7. Show us your lovingkindness, O LORD, and grant us your salvation.
8. Let me hear what the God Jehovah says, for He speaks peace to His people, even to His faithful! Only, let them not turn back to folly.
9. Indeed, His salvation is near those who fear Him, that glory may dwell in our land.
10. Mercy and truth have met. Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
11. Truth will spring up from the earth, and righteousness will look down from heaven.
12. Yea, the LORD will grant prosperity, and our land will yield its increase.
13. Righteousness will go before Him and make His footsteps a pathway.

Psalm 86

A prayer of David.

- ¶1. Incline your ear, O LORD. Answer me, for I am poor and needy.
2. Preserve my soul, for I am a godly man. Save your servant who trusts in you. You are my God.
3. Pity me, O my Lord, for I cry out to you all the day long.
4. Make glad the soul of your servant, my Lord, for to you do I lift up my soul.
5. For you, my Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, and of great lovingkindness to all who call upon you.
6. Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer, and attend to the voice of my supplications.
7. In the day of my trouble, I call on you because you answer me.
8. There is none like you among the gods, O my Lord, nor are there any works like yours.
9. All nations whom you have made will come and bow down before you, my Lord, and they will glorify your name,
10. for you are great, and do wondrous things. You, you alone, are God.
11. Teach me your way, O LORD; I will live by your truth. Unite my heart to fear your name.

12. Let me praise you, my Lord, my God, with all my heart, and let me glorify your name forever,
13. for your lovingkindness toward me is great, and you have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.
14. O God, insolent men rose up against me, and the congregation of ruthless men sought my life, and they did not set you before them.
15. But you, my Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, and abundant in mercy and truth.
16. Turn to me, and be gracious to me. Give your servant your strength, and save the son of your maidservant.
17. Show me a sign for good, and let those who hate me see it and be ashamed. For you, O LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

Psalm 87

A Psalm for the sons of Korah. A song.

- ¶1. His foundation is in the mountains of holiness.
2. The LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwelling places of Jacob.
3. Glorious things are spoken in you, O city of God! Selah.
4. I will make mention of the Proud One and Babylon to those who know me. Behold! Philistia and Tyre, with Cush! This man was born there.
5. And to Zion, it will be said, “This man and that man were born in her.” And the Most High Himself will establish her.
6. The LORD will note in the record of the nations: “This man was born there.” Selah.
7. And singers with dancers will sing, “All my springs are in you.”

Psalm 88

*A song. A Psalm for the sons of Korah.
For the chief musician to sing upon mahalath.
A wisdom song by Heman the Ezrahite.*

- ¶1. O LORD, God of my salvation, by day and by night, I cry out before you.
2. Let my prayer come before you. Incline your ear to my cry.
3. For my soul is filled with troubles, and my life has come into Sheol.
4. I am counted with those who have gone down into the Pit. I have become like a helpless man.
5. Among the dead, I am free, like the slain lying in a grave whom you will no more remember, and they have been cut off from your hand.
6. You have set me in the lowest Pit, in the darkest of depths.
7. Your burning anger pressed upon me; you overwhelmed me with all your waves. Selah.
8. You put my acquaintances far from me; you made me an abomination to them. I am shut up, and I cannot come out.

9. My eye has grown dim with affliction. I have cried out to you, O LORD, every day. I have stretched out my hands toward you.
10. Did you create Wonder for the dead? Will the shades rise up and praise you? Selah.
11. Will your lovingkindness be declared in the grave? your faithfulness in Destruction?
12. Will your Wonder be revealed in the darkness and your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
13. But as for me, O LORD, I have cried out to you, and in the morning, my prayer came before you.
14. Why, O LORD, are you casting me off? You are hiding your face from me.
15. I have been afflicted and dying since my youth; I have borne your terrors; I am desperate.
16. Waves of your burning anger swept over me; your terrible acts put an end to me.
17. They surrounded me every day like water; together, they closed in on me.
18. You put far from me both friend and fellow. My companions are those in the region of darkness.

Psalm 89

A wisdom song by Ethan the Ezrahite.

- ¶1. Let me sing of the LORD's eternal mercies! Let me make known with my mouth your faithfulness through all generations!
2. Truly, I say, eternal mercy will be established; in heaven, you will establish your faithfulness.
3. I have made a covenant with my chosen one; I have sworn to David, my servant,
4. "I will establish your seed forever, and I will build up your throne through all generations." Selah.
5. Then heaven will praise your Wonder, O LORD! How much more your faithfulness in the Assembly of the saints!
6. For who in the sky is comparable to Jehovah? He is like Jehovah among the sons of God,
7. a God feared in the council of the holy ones and revered above all those around Him.
8. O Jehovah, God of Hosts! Who is mighty like you, O Jehovah, and your faithfulness around you?
9. You rule over the swelling of the sea; when its waves rise, you calm them.
10. You crushed the Proud One as a defiled thing; with your strong arm, you scattered your enemies.
11. Heaven is yours; the earth is also yours, the world and its fullness. You laid their foundations.
12. The north and the south, you created them. Tabor and Hermon shout with joy at your name.
13. Yours is a mighty arm; your hand is strong; your right hand is exalted.

14. Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne. Lovingkindness and truth go before you.
15. Blessed are the people who know the joyful shout; they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of your countenance!
16. In your name, they will shout with joy all the day, and by your righteousness, they will be exalted!
17. For you are the beauty of His strength, and by your favor our horn will be exalted.
18. For our shield belongs to Jehovah, and our king to the holy One of Israel.
19. You once spoke by a vision to your pious ones, saying, "I have laid help upon a mighty one; I have exalted one chosen from among the people.
20. I have found David my servant. With my holy oil, I have anointed him
21. by whom my authority will be established. My arm will surely strengthen him.
22. No enemy will oppress him, and no wicked man will humble him,
23. but I will crush his adversaries before him, and those who hate him will I strike down.
24. My faithfulness and my lovingkindness are with him, and in my name will his horn be exalted,
25. and I will set his hand in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.
26. He will cry out to me, 'My Father! You are my God and the rock of my salvation!'
27. Moreover, I will make him my firstborn, higher than the kings of earth.
28. Forever will I continue my lovingkindness toward him, and by him will my covenant be confirmed.
29. And his seed will I preserve forevermore, and his throne as the days of heaven.
30. If his children forsake my law and do not walk according to my judgments,
31. if they profane my statutes and do not keep my commandments,
32. then I will punish their transgression with a rod and their sin with stripes.
33. Nevertheless, I will not withdraw my lovingkindness from him, nor be inconstant with my faithfulness.
34. I will not break my covenant nor alter that which goes out from my lips.
35. Once for all, I have sworn by my holiness, 'I will damn myself if I lie to David.'¹⁵
36. His seed will forever endure, and his throne as the sun before me.
37. Like the moon, he shall be established forever, a faithful Witness in heaven." Selah.
38. Oh, but you have cast off and rejected him; you are furious with your Messiah.
39. You have repudiated the covenant of your servant; you have profaned his crown in the dirt.
40. You have broken down all his walls; you have made his strongholds a ruin.
41. All who pass along the way plunder him; he is a reproach to his neighbors.
42. You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries; you made all his enemies rejoice.

¹⁵ Literally, only" —if I lie to David." The curse intended with this oath is so unthinkable—God's own death and damnation—that it is not even uttered. See also, 95:11.

43. You also have taken back the strength of his sword and caused him not to stand in the battle.
44. You made his glory cease and cast his throne to the ground.
45. You shortened the days of his youth. You covered him with shame. Selah.
46. How long, O LORD? Will you hide yourself forever? Your anger burns like fire!
47. Remember me, what the length of my life is! For what vanity have you created all the sons of men?
48. What man lives and does not see death? (He will save his soul from the power of Sheol. Selah.)
49. Where are your mercies of old, my Lord, which you swore to David in your faithfulness?
50. Remember, my Lord, the reproach of your servants. I carry in my bosom all the many peoples
51. whom your enemies have mocked, O Jehovah, whom they mocked in the footsteps of your Messiah.
52. Blessed be Jehovah forever! Amen and amen.

Psalm 90

A prayer of Moses, the man of God.

- ¶1. Lord, you have been our habitation from generation to generation.
2. Before the mountains were brought forth, and before you brought forth the earth and the world, even from eternity to eternity, you are God.
3. You turn man back to dust, and say, "Repent, O sons of man!"
4. (For a thousand years in your sight is like yesterday when it is past, or like a watch in the night.)
5. You sweep them away as with a flood. They are like sleep when morning comes, like grass which passes away.
6. In the morning, it flourishes and sprouts; at evening, it withers and is dried up.
7. For we are consumed by your anger, and we are dismayed by your wrath.
8. You have set our iniquities before you, our secret in the light of your face,
9. and so, all our days pass away because of your fury. We end our years like a sigh.
10. The days of our years are seventy years, but even if by reason of strength they be eighty years, their pride is but toil and trouble. Quickly, it passes, and then, away we fly.
11. Who knows the power of your anger or your wrath to the measure of the fear that is due you?
12. So, teach us to number our days, that we may apply our heart to wisdom.
13. Relent, O LORD! How long? Oh, have pity on your slaves!
14. Let your lovingkindness satisfy us in the morning, and let us sing and rejoice all our days.
15. Make us glad according to the days you afflicted us, and the years we have seen evil.
16. Let your work be known to your servants, and let your glory be upon their children!

17. May the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us. And establish for us the work of our hands. Yea, the work of our hands, establish it!

Psalm 91

- ¶1. He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.
2. I will say to the LORD, "My refuge and my stronghold! My God!" I will trust in Him.
3. He will deliver you from the snare of the fowler, from deadly plagues.
4. He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings will you take refuge. His truth is a shield and buckler.
5. You will not be afraid of terror by night, nor of an arrow flying by day,
6. nor of the pestilence that comes in darkness, nor of destruction that devastates at midday.
7. A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.
8. Only, with your eyes you will look and see the recompense of the wicked.
9. Because you have made the LORD my refuge, the Most High, your habitation,
10. no evil will befall you, nor disease come near your dwelling,
11. for He will give angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways.
12. In their hands will they bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.
13. You will tread on the lion and the adder. You will trample the young lion and the serpent.
14. Because he has loved me, I will deliver him. I will exalt him because he has known my name.
15. He will call on me, and I will answer him. I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him and glorify him.
16. I will satisfy him with long life and show him my salvation.

Psalm 92

A Psalm.

A song for the Sabbath.

- ¶1. It is good to give thanks to Jehovah and to make music to your name, O Most High,
2. to make known your lovingkindness in the morning and your faithfulness every night
3. with a ten-stringed instrument and with a harp, with music on a lyre.
4. For you, O LORD, have made me glad by your creation. I will shout for joy because of the works of your hands.
5. How great are your works, O LORD! Your thoughts are exceedingly deep!
6. A brutish man does not know, neither can a dullard understand this.
7. When the wicked spring up like grass and all the workers of iniquity flourish, it is that they may be destroyed for ever and ever.
8. But you are on high forever, O LORD!

9. For, behold, your enemies, O LORD, yea, behold, your enemies will perish. All workers of iniquity will be scattered.
10. But you will exalt my horn like the aurochs. I shall be anointed with fresh oil,
11. and my eye shall see those who lie in wait for me; when the wicked rise up against me, my ears will hear.
12. A righteous man will shoot up like the palm tree; he will grow like a cedar tree in Lebanon.
13. Plantings in the house of Jehovah, in the courts of our God, will flourish.
14. They will continue bearing fruit in old age; they remain full of sap and green,
15. to show that the LORD, my rock, is upright; yea, in Him is nothing wrong.

4. They spew out arrogance when they speak; all the workers of iniquity vaunt themselves.
5. They crush your people, O LORD, and they oppress your heritage.
6. Widow and sojourner they kill, and the fatherless they murder,
7. and say, "Jehovah pays it no mind," and, "The God of Jacob does not consider it."
8. Understand, you brutish among the people! And you fools, when will you ever understand?
9. He who planted the ear, does He not hear, or formed the eye, does He not see?
10. He who chastens Gentiles, will He not reprove us? He who teaches mankind knowledge,
11. the LORD, knows the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.
12. Blessed is the man whom you chasten, O Jehovah, even him whom you teach by your law,
13. to cause him to rest during evil times until the Pit is dug for the wicked.
14. For the LORD will not abandon His people, nor forsake His heritage.

15. But judgment will return to righteousness; all the upright in heart will follow it.
16. Who will stand up for me against evildoers? Who will take a stand for me against those doing wickedness?
17. If the LORD had not been my help, my soul would have soon dwelt in silence.
18. When I thought my foot had slipped, your lovingkindness, O LORD, was holding me up.
19. In the multitude of my troubled thoughts within me, your consolations delight my soul.
20. Shall a ruler with wicked desires, who frames mischief by statute, be allied with you?
21. They band together against the life of the righteous man and deem the innocent man to be guilty of blood.

6. Oh come! Let us worship and bow down! Let us kneel before Jehovah our Maker,
7. for He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture, and the flock of His hand. Today, if you hear His voice,
8. do not harden your hearts as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah, in the wilderness,
9. when your fathers tested me. They put me to the test and saw my work.
10. Forty years, I loathed that generation, and I said, "They are a people whose heart goes astray, and they do not know my ways,"

20. and exchanged their glory for an image of an ox that eats grass.
21. They forgot God, their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt,
22. wonders in the land of Ham, terrible deeds by the Red Sea.
23. Then He said that He would destroy them; however, Moses, His chosen, stood in the breach before Him to turn His wrath away from destroying them.
24. Then they refused the good land; they did not believe His word,
25. but murmured in their tents; they did not obey the voice of the LORD.
26. Therefore, He swore to them that He would make them fall in the wilderness.
27. Then He made their seed to fall among the nations, and He sifted them in foreign lands.
28. And yet, they joined themselves to Baal at Peor and ate the sacrifices of the dead.
29. They provoked God to anger with their deeds, and a plague broke out among them.
30. But Phinehas stood up and intervened, and the plague was stayed,
31. and it was imputed to him for righteousness from generation to generation, and forever.
32. They also provoked God at the waters of Meribah, and it went badly for Moses because of them,
33. for they embittered his spirit, and he spoke rashly with his lips.
34. They did not destroy the Gentiles as the LORD had commanded them,
35. but they mixed themselves with the heathen and learned their works,
36. and they served their idols, which became a snare to them.
37. They even sacrificed their sons and daughters to demons
38. and shed innocent blood—the blood of their own sons and their daughters whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan, and the land was defiled with the blood.
39. Yea, they were defiled by their works, and played the harlot with their deeds.

40. Then the anger of the LORD burned hot against His people, and He made His inheritance an abomination.
41. Yea, He gave them into the hand of the Gentiles, and those that hated them ruled over them,
42. and their enemies oppressed them, and they were humbled under their hand.
43. Many times, He delivered them, but they provoked Him with their counsel and were brought low by their iniquity.
44. Nevertheless, He looked on their distress when He heard their cry,
45. and for their sake, He remembered His covenant and relented according to the abundance of His lovingkindness,
46. and He made them objects of pity before all those who had taken them captive.
47. Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the nations so that we may give thanks to your holy name and boast in your praise.
48. Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting! And let all the people say, "Amen! Hallelujah!"

Psalm 107

- ¶1. O give thanks to the LORD for He is good, for His mercy endures forever.
2. The redeemed of the LORD will speak, those whom He has redeemed from the hand of the Adversary,
3. and gathered out of the countries, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.
4. They wandered in the wilderness on a desert path; no city for habitation did they find.
5. Hungry and thirsty, their souls fainted within them.
6. Then, in their trouble, when they cried out to the LORD, He delivered them out of their distresses
7. and led them on a straight path that they might go to a city for habitation.
8. Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness and His wondrous works to the children of men!
9. For He satisfies the thirsty soul, and the hungry soul, He fills with good.
10. Those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, prisoners of affliction and iron,
11. because they rebelled against the words of God and spurned the counsel of the Most High,
12. their hearts, too, He humbled with toil; they stumbled, and there was no helper.
13. Then, in their trouble, when they cried out to the LORD, He saved them out of their distresses.
14. He brought them out of the darkness and shadow of death, and tore off their bonds.
15. Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness and His wondrous works to the children of men!
16. For He has shattered the gates of brass and has cut the iron bars in two.

17. Being foolish, they were afflicted because of their rebellious way and because of their iniquities.
18. Their soul abhorred all food, and they drew near to the gates of death.
19. Then, in their trouble, when they cried out to the LORD, He saved them out of their distresses.
20. He sent His word and healed them, and delivered them from their pits.
21. Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness and His wondrous works to the children of men!
22. Then, they began offering sacrifices of thanksgiving and declaring His works with a joyful shout.
23. As for those who go down to the sea in ships, doing their business in great waters,
24. they see the works of Jehovah and His wonders in the deep.
25. For He speaks and causes a tempest to rise, and it lifts up His waves.
26. They mount up to heaven; they go down to the depths. Their soul melts by reason of their calamity.
27. They reel and they stagger like a drunk man, and all their skill is useless.
28. Then, in their trouble, when they cry out to the LORD, He brings them out of their distresses.
29. He turns the storm-wind into a whisper, and their waves are stilled.
30. Then are they glad because they are quieted, and He brings them to their desired haven.
31. Let them give thanks to the LORD for His lovingkindness and His wondrous works to the children of men!
32. Let them exalt Him in the Assembly of the people and praise Him in the council of elders.
33. He makes rivers into a desert and springs of water into thirsty ground,
34. a fruitful land into a salty waste because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
35. He turns a desert into a pool of water and parched land into springs of water,
36. and causes the hungry to dwell there, and they establish a city to inhabit,
37. and sow fields, and plant vineyards, and produce a fruitful harvest.
38. And He blesses them, and they multiply greatly, and He does not cause their cattle to decrease.
39. But they are diminished and bowed down through oppression, affliction, and sorrow
40. when He pours out contempt on nobles and causes them to wander about in confusion, without a way.
41. Then He sets the needy man on high, far from affliction, and makes their families like a flock.
42. The upright will see and be glad, and all iniquity will shut its mouth.
43. Who is wise and keeps these things will also understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.

Psalm 108

A song.

A Psalm by David

- ¶1. My heart is fixed, O God! Yea, O my Glory, I will sing and make music!
2. Awake the harp and lyre! I will awake the dawn.
3. I will give you thanks among the nations, O Jehovah, and sing you praise among the peoples,
4. for your lovingkindness is higher than heaven, and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
5. Be exalted above heaven, O God, and let your glory be over all the earth!
6. That the ones you love may be delivered, save with your right hand and answer me!
7. God has spoken in His holiness, "I will exult; I will apportion Shechem and mete out the Valley of Succoth.
8. Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; and Ephraim is a shelter for my head. Judah is my law-giver.
9. Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast my shoe. I will shout in triumph because of Philistia."
10. Who will escort me to the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?
11. O God, have you not rejected us? For you do not go out, O God, with our armies.
12. Give us help against the adversary, for salvation through man is vain!
13. Through God shall we do valiantly, and He Himself shall trample our adversaries.

Psalm 109

For the chief musician.

A Psalm by David

- ¶1. O God of my praise, do not be silent!
2. For the mouth of a wicked man and a mouth of deceit are opened against me; they speak of me with a tongue of falsehood.
3. They also surround me with words of hatred, and they make war against me without cause.
4. In return for my love, they become my adversaries. But I give myself to prayer.
5. They have repaid me evil for good, and hatred for my love.
6. Set a wicked man over him, and let Satan stand at his right hand!
7. When he is judged, let him come forth guilty! Let his prayer be accounted sin!
8. Let his days be few, and let another take his office.
9. Let his children be orphans, and his wife a widow.
10. Let his children always be vagabonds, and beg. Let them seek food from their waste places.
11. Let the creditor seize all that he owns, and let strangers plunder his property.
12. Let no one show him kindness; nor let anyone provide for his orphans.
13. Let his posterity be cut off; in the generation following, let their name be wiped out.
14. Let the wickedness of his fathers be remembered by the LORD, and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

15. Let them be before the LORD continually; let Him cut off their memory from the earth
16. because that he did not remember to show mercy, but followed after the poor and needy and downhearted man until he died.
17. Since he loved cursing, let it come to him. And since he took no pleasure in blessing, let it be far from him.
18. Yea, he wore cursing like his garment; so, let it enter like water into his inner parts and like oil into his bones.
19. Let it be to him like a garment that wraps about him, and a girdle with which he is girded continually.
20. Let this be the reward of my adversaries from Jehovah, and of those who speak evil against my soul!
21. But you, O Jehovah my Lord, deal mercifully with me for your name's sake, for your lovingkindness is good. Oh, deliver me!
22. For I am poor and needy, and my heart is pierced within me.
23. Like a lengthening shadow, I am passing away. I am shaken off like a locust.
24. My knees stagger because of fasting, and my flesh is void of fatness.
25. Nevertheless, I have become a joke to them; they see me and shake their head.
26. Help me, O LORD, my God! Save me according to your lovingkindness!
27. Yet, they will know that this is your hand, that you, O LORD, did it!
28. They curse, but you will bless! They have risen up, but they will be put to shame, and your servant will rejoice.
29. My accusers will be clothed with dishonor, and they will wrap themselves with their own shame as with a robe.
30. I will praise Jehovah greatly with my mouth; yea, in the midst of many people will I praise Him,
31. for He stands at the right hand of the needy, to save him from those who condemn his soul.

Psalm 110
A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. The LORD said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool."
2. The LORD will send forth the rod of your strength from Zion. Rule in the midst of your enemies!
3. Your people will be willing in the day of your power. In beauties of holiness, from the womb of the morning, you have had the dew of your youth.
4. The LORD has sworn, and will not repent, "You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek."
5. My Lord is at your right hand; in the day of his wrath, he will strike through kings.
6. He will execute judgment among the nations; he will fill them with dead bodies; he will strike through the head of the vast earth.

7. He drinks from the brook along the way; therefore, He will exalt his head.

9. He has dispersed; he has given to the needy. His righteousness endures forever; his horn will be exalted in glory.
10. The wicked man will see it and be vexed; he will grind his teeth and melt away. The desire of wicked men will perish.

Psalm 113

2. Let the name of the LORD be blessed from this time forth and for evermore!
3. From the rising of the sun to its going down, the name of the LORD is to be praised.
4. The LORD is high above all nations. His glory is above the heavens.

5. Who is like the LORD our God, who makes His home on high?
6. He abases Himself to look at what is in heaven as well as on the earth!
7. He raises up the poor man from the dust; He exalts the needy man out of the dunghill,
8. to make him to sit with princes, even the princes of His people.
9. He makes the barren woman to keep house and to be a joyful mother of children.
Hallelujah!

Psalm 114

- ¶1. When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of a strange tongue,
2. Judah was His sanctuary; Israel, His realm.
3. The sea saw him and fled; the Jordan turned back;
4. the mountains skipped about like rams; the hills, like lambs.
5. What's wrong with you, O sea, that you fled? O Jordan, that you turned back?
6. O mountains, that you skipped about like rams? O hills, like lambs?
7. Writhe in anguish, O land, before the Lord, before the God of Jacob,
8. who turned the rock into a pool of water, the flint into His water-fountain.

Psalm 115

- ¶1. Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to your name give glory, for the sake of your lovingkindness and your faithfulness.
2. Why do the Gentiles say, "Where, pray tell, is their God?"
3. But our God is in heaven. He has done whatsoever He pleased.
4. Their idols are silver and gold, the work of man's hands.
5. They have mouths, but they do not speak; they have eyes, but they do not see;
6. they have ears, but they do not hear; they have noses, but they cannot smell;
7. hands, but do not feel; feet, but do not walk, nor do they make a sound with their throat.
8. Those who make them become like them, as does everyone who trusts in them.
9. Let Israel trust in Jehovah! He is their strength and their shield.
10. Let the house of Aaron trust in Jehovah! He is their strength and their shield.
11. Let those who fear Jehovah trust in Jehovah! He is their strength and their shield.
12. Jehovah is mindful of us. He will surely bless the house of Israel. He will bless the house of Aaron.
13. He will bless you who fear Jehovah, the small along with the great.
14. May the LORD increase you, you and your children.
15. May you be blessed by the LORD, Maker of heaven and earth.
16. The heaven of heaven is the LORD's, but the earth, He has given to the sons of man.

5. The LORD is gracious and righteous, and our God is merciful.
6. Jehovah watches over the simple; I was brought low, but He saved me.
7. Return, O my soul, to your resting place, for the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.

6. The LORD is for me; I will not be afraid of what man will do to me.
7. The LORD is for me and my helpers, but I will look on those who hate me.
8. It is better to take refuge in the LORD than to trust in man.
9. It is better to take refuge in the LORD than to trust in princes.
10. All nations surrounded me; in the name of the LORD will I circumcise them.

11. They surrounded me; yea, they were all about me! In the name of the LORD will I circumcise them.
12. They surrounded me like bees; they were extinguished like a fire among thorns. In the name of the LORD will I circumcise them.

2. You know when I sit and when I rise up. You discern my thought from afar.
3. You have sifted out my going and my lying down and are acquainted with all my ways.
4. For there is not a word on my tongue, but behold, O LORD, you know it altogether.
5. Behind and before, you have me hemmed in and have placed your hand over me.
6. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me. It is high; I am incapable of it.
7. Where could I go from your Spirit? Or where could I flee from your presence?
8. If I ascend to heaven, you are there. Or if I make my bed in Sheol, behold, you are there.
9. If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost part of the sea,
10. even there would your hand guide me, and your right hand hold me fast.
11. If I say, "Surely, but darkness will harm me," even night would be light around me,"
12. even darkness is not dark to you, but night shines as the day; the darkness is the same as the light.
13. For you created my inward parts; you wove me together in my mother's womb.
14. I give you thanks, for I am fearfully, wondrously made. Your works are wonderful, and my soul knows that very well.
15. My frame was not hidden from you when I was created. In secret was I intricately woven in the lowest parts of the earth.
16. Your eyes saw my unformed members, and on your scroll were they all written, when not one of them was formed.
17. How precious to me are your thoughts, O God! How great is the sum of them!
18. Were I to count them, they would be more than the sand. When I awake, I am still with you.
19. Oh, that you would slay the wicked man, O God, and that bloody men would get away from me,
20. who speak of you craftily. Your enemies take your name in vain.
21. Do I not hate them, O Jehovah, who hate you, and abhor those who rise up against you?
22. I hate them with perfect hatred. They are become my enemies.
23. Search me, O God, and know my heart. Try me, and know my thoughts,
24. and see if there be any hurtful way in me, and lead me in the everlasting way.

Psalm 140

*For the chief musician.
A Psalm by David.*

- ¶1. Deliver me, O LORD, from the evil man; keep me from violent men
2. who devise evil things in their heart. Every day, they instigate wars.
3. They have made their tongue sharp, like a serpent. The poison of an adder is under their lips. Selah.
4. Preserve me, O LORD, from the hands of the Wicked One! Keep me from violent men, who have purposed to trip up my feet.
5. The proud have hidden a trap for me, and cords; they have spread out a net along the path; they have set snares for me. Selah.
6. I said to Jehovah, "You are my God! Give ear, O LORD, to the voice of my supplication!
7. O Jehovah my Lord, the strength of my salvation! You covered my head in the day of battle.
8. Do not grant, O LORD, the desires of the Wicked One, nor sanction his scheme! They are on high. Selah.
9. Let them cover him, the head of those who surround me. Oh, the devilry of his lips!
10. Let burning coals fall upon them; cast them into the fire, into deep pits; let them never rise.
11. Do not let a man of talk be established in the land; let evil quickly hunt down the violent man."
12. I know that the LORD maintains the cause of the poor and justice for the needy.
13. Surely, righteous people will give thanks to your name; the upright will dwell in your presence.

Psalm 141
A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. O LORD, I have called on you. Come quickly to me. Give ear to my voice when I call on you.
2. Let my prayer be counted as incense before you, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.
3. Set a guard over my mouth, O LORD. Keep the door of my lips.
4. Do not incline my heart to an evil thing, to practice wicked deeds with men who do iniquity, nor let me dine on their delicacies.
5. Let the righteous man strike me; it will be a kindness. And let him reprove me; it will be like oil on my head. My head will not refuse it; yea, my prayer for them will continue when their troubles come.
6. Their judges were thrown down by the hands of Selah, and then they heard my words, that they are pleasant.
7. As when one plows and breaks up the earth, our bones have been scattered at the mouth of Sheol,

8. but my eyes are toward you, Jehovah my Lord. In you do I take refuge. Do not leave my soul destitute.
9. Keep me from the jaws of the trap they have laid for me and from the snares of workers of iniquity.
10. The wicked will fall into their own nets together, but I will pass on over.

2. I pour out my complaint before Him; I declare my trouble before Him.
3. When my spirit faints within me, you know my way; in the path where I walk, they have laid a trap for me.
4. Look on my right, and see; for no one acknowledges me. Refuge is gone from me; no one cares for my soul.
5. I cry aloud to you, O LORD! I say, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.
6. Attend to my cry, for I am brought very low. Deliver me from my persecutors, for they are too strong for me.
7. Bring my soul out of the dungeon so that I might praise your name!" The righteous will surround me because you will deal bountifully with me.

Psalm 143

A Psalm by David.

- ¶1. O LORD, hear my prayer! In your faithfulness, give ear to my supplications! Answer me in your righteousness,
2. and do not enter into judgment with your servant, for no one alive is righteous before you.
3. For the enemy has persecuted my soul; he has crushed my life to the ground; he has made me to dwell in dark places, like those long dead.
4. Yea, my spirit in me is fainting away; my heart within me is astonished.
5. I remember days of old; I meditate on all your acts; I ponder over the work of your hands.
6. I spread out my hands to you; my soul is like thirsty land, thirsty for you. Selah.
7. Answer me quickly, O LORD! My spirit is spent. Oh, do not hide your face from me, or I will become like those who descend into the Pit!
8. Make me to hear your lovingkindness in the morning, for I have put my trust in you. Make me to know which way I should go, for I lift up my soul to you.
9. Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies. In you would I hide.
10. Teach me to do your will, for you are my God. Let your good Spirit guide me in the land of uprightness.

11. For your name's sake, O LORD, let me live. In your righteousness, bring my soul out of distress,
12. and in your lovingkindness, annihilate my enemies and slay all the adversaries of my soul, for I am your servant.

3. O LORD, what is man that you take notice of him? Or the son of man, that you think on him?
4. Man is like a breath; his days are like a passing shadow.
5. O LORD, bow your heavens and come down. Touch the mountains, so that they smoke.
6. Flash forth lightning and scatter them. Send forth your arrows and discomfit them.
7. Stretch out your hands from above. Set me free and rescue me out of many waters, out of the hand of foreigners,
8. whose mouth speaks vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of deception.
9. O God, let me sing a new song to you. With a ten-stringed instrument, let me sing praise to you,
10. who gives victory to kings, who rescues His servant David from the hurtful sword.
11. Set me free and rescue me out of the hand of foreigners, whose mouth speaks vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of deception,
12. that our sons may be like fully grown plants in their youth, our daughters like corners carved for the building of a temple,
13. our storehouses will be full, providing all kinds of store, and our flocks will multiply by the thousands in our fields;
14. our cattle will be heavy with young, without miscarriage or going astray, and there will be no cry of distress in our streets.
15. Happy are the people who are in such a case. Happy are the people whose God is Jehovah.

Psalm 145

A song of praise by David.

- ¶1. I will exalt you, my God, the King, and I will bless your name forever and ever.
2. Every day will I bless you, and I will praise your name forever and ever.
3. Jehovah is great, and greatly to be praised, and His greatness is unsearchable!
4. One generation will praise your works to another, and they will declare your mighty deeds.
5. I will meditate on your splendor, glory, majesty, and your wondrous works.
6. They will speak of the power of your awesome acts, and I will recount your great deeds.

7. They will pour forth the remembrance of your great goodness; they will sing of your righteousness.
8. The LORD is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, and great in mercy.
9. The LORD is good to all, and His tender mercies are over all His works.
10. All your works praise you, O LORD, and your saints bless you.
11. They speak of the glory of your kingdom and tell of your power,
12. to make known to the sons of men His mighty acts and the glorious splendor of His kingdom.
13. Your kingdom is an eternal kingdom, and your dominion is from generation to generation.
14. The LORD upholds all who fall and lifts up all who are bowed down.
15. The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food in its time;
16. you open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.
17. The LORD is righteous in all His ways, and merciful in all His doings.
18. The LORD is near to all who call on Him—to all who call on Him in truth.
19. He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him, and He will hear their cry for help and deliver them.
20. Jehovah watches over all who love Him, but He will utterly destroy all who do evil.
21. My mouth will declare the praise of Jehovah, and all flesh will bless His holy name forever and ever.

Psalm 146

- ¶1. Hallelujah! Praise the LORD, O my soul!
2. I will praise the LORD while I have life. I will make music to my God as long as I live.
3. Do not put your trust in princes, nor in the son of man; there is no salvation in him.
4. When his breath leaves, he returns to the ground. On that day, his thoughts perish.
5. Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in Jehovah his God,
6. Maker of heaven and earth and the sea and all that is in them, who keeps truth forever.
7. The LORD executes justice for the oppressed and gives bread to those who are hungry. He sets prisoners free.
8. The LORD opens the eyes of the blind; the LORD raises up those who are bowed down; the LORD loves righteous men;
9. the LORD protects the strangers and relieves the orphan and the widow, but He thwarts the way of wicked men.
10. The LORD will reign forever. Your God, O Zion, will reign from generation to generation. Hallelujah!

Psalm 147

- ¶1. Praise Jehovah, for it is good to sing praise to our God; yea, it is delightful, and praise is comely.

2. The LORD builds up Jerusalem; He gathers the dispersed of Israel.
3. He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their hurts.
4. He numbers the stars, calling them all by name.
5. Great is our Lord, and great is His power. His understanding is infinite.
6. The LORD brings relief to the meek, but He brings the wicked down to the ground.
7. Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving! Make music with a lyre to our God,
8. who covers the heavens with dark clouds, who prepares rain for the earth, and who causes grass to grow on the hills.
9. He gives the beast its food, and the young ravens that cry.
10. He does not delight in the strength of a horse, nor is He pleased with the legs of a man.
11. The LORD takes pleasure in those who fear Him, those who hope in His mercy.
12. Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem! Praise your God, O Zion!
13. For He has made the bars of your gates strong; He has blessed your sons within you,
14. who makes your border peace, who satisfies you with the finest wheat,
15. who sends out His decree to earth (His word runs very swiftly),
16. who gives snow like wool. He scatters frost like ashes,
17. casting forth His ice like crumbs. Who can stand before His cold?
18. He sends forth His word and makes them melt; He causes His wind to blow, and the waters flow.
19. He declares His word to Jacob, His statutes and His judgments to Israel.
20. He has not done the like for any other nation, and they have not known His judgments.
Praise Jehovah!

Psalm 148

- ¶1. Praise Jehovah! Praise the LORD from the heavens! Praise Him in the highest places!
2. Praise Him, all His angels! Praise Him, all His host!
3. Praise Him, sun and moon! Praise Him, all stars of light!
4. Praise Him, heavens of heavens, and the waters which are above the heavens!
5. Let them praise the name of Jehovah because He commanded, and they were created.
6. And He established them forever and ever; He gave a decree, and it will not pass away.
7. Praise the LORD from the earth—dragons and all deep places;
8. fire and hail; snow and smoke; storm-wind performing His word;
9. mountains and all hills; fruit trees and all cedars;
10. wild animal and all cattle; creeping thing and winged fowl;
11. kings of earth and all peoples; princes and all judges of earth;
12. young men and virgins alike; old men along with children—
13. let them praise the name of the LORD because His name, His alone, is to be exalted!
His majesty is above earth and heaven.
14. He has also raised up a Horn for His people, the Praise of all His saints, for the sons of Israel, a people near to Him. Hallelujah!

4. For Jehovah is pleased with His people; He will beautify the meek with salvation.
5. Let the pious exult in glory; let them sing for joy on their beds;
6. let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand!
7. To execute vengeance among the Gentiles, reproofs among the nations;
8. to bind their kings with chains and their nobles with fetters of iron;
9. to execute upon them the judgment written—this honor belongs to all His saints.
Hallelujah!

4. Praise Him with timbrel and dance! Praise Him with strings and flute!
