FROM THE READING:

- T F 1. Israel served the Lord all the days of Joshua and all the days of those elders who out-lived Joshua.
- T F 2. The judge named Ehud killed the fat king of Moab by cutting off his head.
- T F 3. When the prophetess Deborah told Barak that God had chosen him to deliver Israel, Barak refused to go into battle unless she went with him.
- T F 4. Sisera was slain by a woman who drove a large nail through his head as he slept.
- T F 5. Of course, the woman was an Amalekite.
- T F 6. A prophet announced to Gideon that he had been chosen by God to deliver Israel.
- T F 7. Gideon's father had built an altar for Baal which Gideon destroyed by night.
- T F 8. The men of Gideon's city shouted for joy when they were delivered from Baal's image.
- T F 9. When they discovered that Gideon had done it, they wanted to "make him king in Shechem."
- T F 10. Asking God for a sign, Gideon slept outside to see if any dew would fall on him, and, behold, nothing was damp in the morning except Gideon.
- T F 11. For this reason, "Gideon was called 'He to whom the dew comes.' And so it is to this day" (Jud.6:41).
- T F 12. When Gideon gathered Israel's forces together, he told everyone who was afraid to return home.
- T F 13. 22,000 men immediately returned home.
- T F 14. In the end, Gideon's army numbered 300.
- T F 15. God told Gideon to sneak down to the camp of the Midianites, and that the Midianites would encourage him to fight against them.
- T F 16. Gideon did sneak down to their camp but was discouraged by what he heard.
- T F 17. What Gideon heard was a man telling of a dream he had, a dream of a cake of barley bread tumbling into their camp.
- T F 18. After Gideon's victory, the men of Ephraim were angry that he had not called them to the battle.

- T F 19. After Gideon's victory, some wanted Gideon and his descendants to rule over Israel.
- T F 20. Instead, Gideon requested the golden earrings of the defeated people.
- T F 21. With that gold, Gideon made a golden ephod, which the Israelites began to worship.
- T F 22. One of Gideon's sons, Abimelech, killed all of Gideon's other sons, except for one.
- T F 23. Abimelech was killed when he came close to a tower in a battle, and a woman threw a stone down on his head.
- T F 24. Jephthah fought against the Ammonites.
- T F 25. Jephthah sacrificed his only child to the LORD, but he didn't really want to do it.
- T F 26. Samson was from the tribe of Dan.
- T F 27. An angel foretold Samson's birth.
- T F 28. God's messenger told Samson's mother not to drink wine, nor eat any unclean thing, because her son would be a Nazarite.
- T F 29. Samson's older sister thought the messenger was one of Israel's enemies, a Philistine.
- T F 30. Samson's father explained to her the truth, and she then offered the man some food.
- T F 31. Samson's parents disapproved of his interest in Philistine women.
- T F 32. When Samson damaged some Philistine property, the men of Judah tied him up and turned him over to the Philistines.
- T F 33. While Samson slept, Delilah herself shaved Samson's head.
- T F 34. The Philistines' god was called Dagon.
- T F 35. Samson killed more Philistines in his death than in his life.
- T F 36. Elimelech and Naomi moved to the country of Moab because Elimelech was a banker, and "there was much money in the land of Lot's children" (Ruth 1:23).
- T F 37. Ruth was a Moabitess.
- T F 38. Eventually, Ruth married Boaz, a very good man from the tribe of Ephraim.
