

THE SHOUT

2047

According to biblical scholars, the Hebrew word (teru'-ah, or one of its forms) for "shout" in the verses below means "a shout (of joy) with religious impulse".

SCRIPTURE	THE SHOUT
Ps. 27:6	The phrase here means "sacrifices of joyful shouts"
Psalms: 47:1 66:1; 81:1 98:4, 6; 100:1	This shouting is the "joyful noise" of God's people.
Job 8:20-21	God makes the joyful noise happen! It is not an earthly "religious impulse". (There is a difference between making "a joyful noise" and making a racket.)
Ps. 89:15	Those who are familiar with this holy sound are blessed and will be saved.
